

BULLET POINTS

- Thank you to Phil Jones, NARUC President for the invitation
- Dad is fond of saying I got five boys joke
- Super Bowl who turned the lights out joke
- Congressman Nicholas Brody Homeland joke
- NARUC was an important partner to passing cyber bill – thank you
- Cyber threat from countries like China – unprecedented in history
- Worked on bipartisan solution w/ Dutch. Need more information, not more regulation.
- Senate must act, too important an issue. Working with Senators from both parties to get cyber legislation across the finish line.
- WH Executive Order likely coming soon, will almost certainly ding electric utilities as “critical infrastructure.”
- Best and the brightest are in private sector like utilities. We just need to empower them with the right information. Utilities are critical to our economy and our way of life.
- Questions?
