French May Act to Ease Tensions

Redeployment of Troops in Tunisia Rumored by Diplomatic Sources

PARIS (AP)—Diplomatic sources in close touch with the French government said today a redeployment of French forces in Tunisia would be undertaken to ease tensions there.

Whether this means withdrawal of troops from the disputed area of Remada could not be learned immediately. In this area, French and Tunisian forces have engaged in intermittent fighting for the past four days. French forces have attempted to maneuver out of the restricted area to which they have been confined ever since the bombing of the Tunisian town of Sakiet Sidi Youssef by planes from Algeria last Feb. 8.

The French made it clear to President Habib Bourguiba, it was learned authoritatively today, that they desire to continue negotiations on redeployment of the troops. Periodically, Bourguiba has demanded withdrawal of all the 22,000 French troops from Algeria. In recent weeks he has agreed to a concentration of the forces in the vicinity of the big naval base at Bizerte.

Jean-Pierre Benard, the French chargé d'affaires in Tunis, returned to his post yesterday with new instructions from Paris. He immediately went into conference with Bourguiba.

Reports from Tunis indicated Bourguiba had issued something akin to an ultimatum: That the troops must be withdrawn from the outlying posts and concentrated around Bizerte. If he did make such a demand, he clearly modified it later in conversations with Benard, whose personal relations with the Tunisian President and his entourage are very good.

DeGaulle Seeking Meet With Pflimlin wing independents (conservatives) some of whom belong to the Pflimlin cabinet, demanded today that De Gaulle should be called in to help before France is plunged into civil war.

The independents named one of their leaders, ex-premier Antoine Pinay, and their executive committee to urge President Rene Coty to call a round-table conference of all middle-line party chiefs, in which De Gaulle also would be invited to participate.

The assembly, meeting in an atmosphere of deepest gloom for a Pentecost holiday emergency session, heard Pflimlin, warn that France faces "the threat of civil war."

Cool Air Moves to East Coast, Ending Storms

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain diminished in the Atlantic Coast states today but it was showery weather in wide areas in the Western half of the country.

Cool dry air from the Great Lakes region and Ohio Valley moved into the north and mid Atlantic Coast states, ending the general rains and thunderstorms which hit the area yesterday and last night. Showers continued near coastal areas.

It was cool in the northern Great Lakes, with temperatures in the mid 20s. But readings were mostly in the 40s from Wisconsin to New York, with 50s southward in the Ohio Valley and mid Atlantic Coast states.

Beirut Bombing Kills at Least 6

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — A time bomb exploded in a street car crowded with lunch-hour passengers in Beirut today.

First unofficial reports said at least six persons were killed and a dozen more injured in the blast, which shook buildings and broke windows in a surrounding two-block area.

The explosion and accompanying fire twisted the red trolley car sideways off its tracks.

Navy to Make Choice for Arlington Rite chores at sea, away from partisanship.

The Unknown Soldier of Korea has already been selected, and though he will be present today beneath his red, white and blue shroud, on the aft deck of Canberra, he will play no role in the curiously macabre contest.

Three selection teams, each consisting of three men, will move the unknown dead of the Pacific and European Theaters hither and yon, so as to make the selection by Congressional medal of honor man, Navy Hospitalman First Class William Richard Charlette, USN, of Ludington, Mich., without partisan taint.

Charlette won his ultimate award "for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty" as a medical corpsman, serving with a Marine rifle company in action against enemy aggressor forces in Korea on March 27, 1953.

The Navy has received some communications from others of World War II dead, and also of the Korean War, professing relationship to the about-to-be-entombed.

One mother of a dead Navy veteran asked Adm. Jerauld Wright to permit another veteran son to read a long poem she had composed to her lost son — at today's touching ceremony.

Area Fruit Growers Eye Frost Damage

Oakland County area fruit growers today are assessing frost damages estimated in the thousands of dollars following last night's severe frost.

Carl Bailey, district horticultural agent for southeastern Michigan, said some growers reported temperatures as low as 24 degrees. Temperatures haven't dropped this much at this late a date in the past 100 years, he said.

Pears, plums and cherries affected by frost at this stage would be a complete loss, Bailey said. Apples and peaches would not be so seriously damaged.

U.N. Head Cancels Trip to Minneapolis

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld today cancelled a trip to Minneapolis to address a meeting of the World Health Organization because of the international situation.

Informed U. N. sources said Hammarskjöld called off the trip in order to "stand by to await developments" in the French and North African crises. U. N. Undersecretary Philippe de Seynes will leave for Minneapolis later today to represent Hammarskjöld.

Atomic Power Ready for Pittsburgh Area

SHIPPINGPORT, Pa. (UPI) — The Shippingport Atomic Power Station officially becomes a "working giant for peace" today.

President Eisenhower, in the White House at Washington, will activate a remote control circuit to start electricity—manufactured by nuclear reaction—flowing into thousands of homes and industries in the Pittsburgh area.

Farm Bill Gets New Approach

Senate Group Seems to Accept Ike's Veto as Final Now

WASHINGTON (AP)—Apparently accepting as final President Eisenhower's two-month-old veto of a price support freeze, the Senate Agriculture Committee starts work today on a new approach to farm legislation.

Chairman Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) asked leaders of two large farm organizations to open the two weeks of hearings at which the committee will try to develop a workable program.

Eisenhower vetoed on March 31 a bill which would have fixed support prices on major crops at not less than their levels last year. Acreage restrictions also would have been held up to this year's levels. He called such action ill-advised both for farmers and for the nation.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) asked senators to give a careful review to the Eisenhower veto before deciding whether to try to override or start anew.

Ellender's moves indicate the Senate will not attempt to upset the veto. This would require a two-thirds vote, a larger margin than the 48-32 margin that sent the farm freeze to the White House.

Numerous proposals are pending before the committee, but there were no firm indications what type of measure may emerge.

Eased UAW Demands Go to GM, Ford

whatever may happen next week if there is no contract.

General Motors Saturday held a meeting of 300 plant managers and personnel heads. Ford Motor Co. yesterday held a similar meeting of 250 managers from across the nation. Ford Vice President John S. Bugas said, "The company is preparing to handle any situation that may arise."

Bugas said the possibilities "range all the way from a new contract to operating without a contract with the UAW."

The companies legally could lock up their plants next week and would not have to pay unemployment benefits or meet other employment obligations. But the union is betting the companies will not flirt with future employee trouble by doing this.

The union its members already struggling through the recession layoffs and its treasury low, wants all the work it can get and wants workers eligible for unemployment benefits if laid off.

The Day in Birmingham Schedule Four Hearings on Special Assessments

BIRMINGHAM — Four hearings on special assessment rolls and four on the necessity of paving, sewers and water will be held during the Birmingham City Commission meeting tonight.

Up for confirmation are 5,600 feet of oil mat and seal coating, 3,540 feet of light oil and 46,390 feet of seal coating.

Hearings on necessity will include the paving of Commerce street and a one-block portion of Cole avenue, plus water and sewer line installation on Cole.

Work will be started on an additional 2-units of the Colonial Terraces within the next few days, according to Samuel Frankel, owner.

The apartments will be at the southwest corner of Redding road and Woodward avenue.

Members unable to attend tomorrow's 1 p.m. luncheon and business meeting of the Past Master's Club of Birmingham Chapter 230, Order of the Eastern Star, have been asked to notify the hosts, Mrs. Helen Upplinger, 847 Emmons St., Birmingham.

Mrs. Alma Kidd will be co-hostess.

Birmingham Village Players have approved a $15,000 expenditure for improvement for their playhouse on Chestnut street.

The work will include the widening and reflagging of the stage, an addition to the rear of the building, a new light switchboard and installation of new chairs.

The group has named Herbert F. Royal president. New board members are Mrs. Thomas H. Adams, Mrs. William L. Martin, Stanley Gillen and William McCall.

Floyd Starr, founder of Starr Commonwealth for Boys, will speak at the 12:15 p.m. luncheon and annual meeting of the South Oakland Auxiliary to the home on Thursday.

The group is celebrating its 45th anniversary this year.

Mrs. Otto Baur will present a check to Starr for the purchase of athletic equipment and the administration of a new athletic program which will be set up this summer.

Birmingham Planning Board will sponsor a public meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Community House.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss plans for future growth and development of the city. Speakers will be David Geer, a planning consultant for several southeastern communities; Paul Moffett, architect who drew up a plan for Royal Oak, and Harold B. Euler.

The companies legally could lock up their plants next week and would not have to pay unemployment benefits or meet other employment obligations. But the union is betting the companies will not flirt with future employee trouble by doing this.

Sullenberger May Get Action Tonight

Action on Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger's request for a hearing to get back on the Pontiac General Hospital medical staff may be taken by the hospital's Board of Trustees at a special meeting tonight.

Ready for the board is a recommendation from City Attorney William A. Ewart that the request be granted and a final hearing on the ousted staff surgeon's Nov. 13 suspension be scheduled.

Dr. Sullenberger brought suit to reverse the suspension but it was tossed out of Circuit Court on grounds the doctor filed it prematurely, without having first attended a final hearing by the board.

GM Will Boost Salaried Group

Pay Increase Revealed for 94,000 Non-Union Hourly Pay Also Up

DETROIT — Salary increases for approximately 94,000 General Motors salaried employees and wage increases for some 10,000 hourly rate employees not represented by unions, were announced by Harlow H. Curcio, president of General Motors. The salary increases will be effective June 1 and the wage increases on May 29.

Salary increases will apply to all employees earning less than $684 per month. In general employees will receive increases of $10.50 per month or 2 1/2 per cent, whichever is higher. Employees earning more than $687 per month will be raised to $684.

Non-represented hourly rate employees will receive an increase of 6 cents per hour or 2 1/2 per cent, whichever is higher.

In addition, salaried employees with base salaries less than $684 per month will continue to receive cost-of-living allowance payments on the basis of the schedule in effect since June 1, 1955. They will receive an upward adjustment of $10 in their allowance, effective June 1 based on the latest BLS consumer price index.

Non-represented hourly rate employees will also continue to receive cost-of-living allowance payments, an additional 2 cents per hour starting the first pay period after June 1.

Hal Boyle Says:

Really Does Take Money to Make Money

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That it really does take money to make more money ... Right now it costs the federal government a dime to make 100 pennies and six dollars to make $500 worth of 50-cent pieces.

That a spoonful of 'diesel' fuel oil in a locomotive will carry a ton of freight one mile ... Well, downhill anyway.

That some Canadian cinemas now are thoughtfully providing double seats ... for courting couples.

That the sparrow hawk is misnamed ... It actually eats far more grasshoppers than it does sparrows.

That there is still plenty of big game hunting left in crowded America ... in the last 10 years more than 600,000 buck deer were killed in California alone.

That although machines don't lay eggs, some two million dollars worth of hen fruit is now sold by U.S. vending machines each year.

That people in Chicago and St. Paul consume more fresh pork per capita than the residents of any other major American cities.

That one man can tend 40 milking cows on a typical U.S. dairy farm ... But in Russia, where the farms are less mechanized, a husky milkmaid can care for only 10 to 12 animals.

That U.S. newspapers publish more than 300 million individual classified ads each year ... and news-hungry Americans now spend a billion dollars annually to read their daily free press.

Upjohn Company Planning Expansion

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Upjohn Co. plans to kick off a multimillion dollar expansion program this fall that calls for building new facilities in Kalamazoo, Canada, Mexico and Australia.

Donald S. Gilmore, chairman of the pharmaceutical firm's board of directors, said the cost of the projects in Kalamazoo alone would be over 12 million dollars.

Gilmore said plans call for a 286,000 square foot office building here; new manufacturing plants in Australia and Mexico; expansion of the San Francisco facilities, and expansion of the Canadian plant. The plan also calls for construction of a new assembly building near Augusta, Mich.

That Bob Bobo of Black Springs, Ark., spells his name with only two letters.

That the Inner Circle Bar here displays this sign: "Be on the square and the world will treat you level."

That Sinclair Lewis gave this insight into human nature. "There are two insults which no human will endure: The assertion that he hasn't a sense of humor, and the doubly impertinent assertion that he has never known trouble."

That one way to keep a small child from dawdling over his meals is this: Light a small birthday candle and bet him he can't finish what's on his plate before the candle goes out.

That the porpoise does have a purpose ... Its oil is used to lubricate delicate precision instruments.

That it was President Woodrow Wilson who observed: "A few people who achieve fame grow—most of them swell."

Arms 'Too Short' for Your Eyes?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

On May first there was a most interesting meeting in New York City. This was sponsored by The Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies.

The object of this session was to inaugurate Senior Citizens Month and to bring together experts in different fields who could give help and bring stimulation to the older man and woman. The theme of the event was "Color in Your Life."

My readers know that this strikes a responsive chord in this writer's mind. For years I have been crusading against the habit of wearing only black, navy blue and dark brown from mid life on. Many women adopt black almost as a uniform after their fortieth birthday. There is sound psychiatric evidence that this is unwise.

It is depressing not only to the spirit but to latent beauty. I like what Kingsley Kumhardt, chairman of the federation's executive committee said: "Color enhances the twinkle and modifies the wrinkle. Color and personality are one."

Color can give your mood a lift as well as bring out the color of your eyes and complexion. It also gives you a change of pace which is stimulating and refreshing.

Every woman is many women. The range of personalities in one woman is amazing. Sometimes she is gay, sometimes sad, hectic, fascinating. Sometimes she takes nothing seriously while at others she seems to have the weight of the world on her shoulders. Every woman is commonplace with a pile of mop water in her hand or when in a dentist's chair. The mood, the setting and the background of the day, make the difference.

WE'RE INDIVIDUALS

Regardless of the variety of personalities latent in each person we all have our typical characteristics which make us stand out as individuals, which set us apart from the crowd. Every woman has an unforgettable self, that inner you which has been brought to the surface by some special mood or set of circumstances, that passing moment which created a facet in your personality that never will be forgotten by those who love you.

We would all do well to highlight our most attractive selves and hold the unattractive ones down with self-discipline. However, variety is one of the most magnetic things about a person. The feeling that there are unknown qualities to be discovered about another makes him or her eternally intriguing. A change of pace in personality is always refreshing.

Perhaps getting into a rut is the thing we women have to fight. We are responsible for so much daily routine that we are likely to allow our many selves to become buried in one outlook, and often it is a hectic outlook.

It is difficult to avoid triteness in personality and to keep the large, exciting view when we are involved in doing the same things day after day and in seeing the same people day after day. It takes real thought and effort if we are to succeed in highlighting our most attractive selves.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Grace and Charm" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 57. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

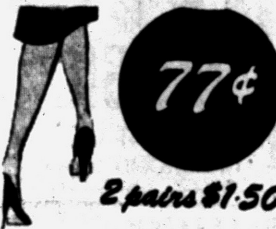

Tomorrow: "A Lovely Back is an Asset; Keep it Straight for Beauty."

It is wise for the woman over forty to remember that her clothes should have color and pattern and not be exclusively black.

Called Best of Them All

Using Biblical Technique for Artificial Respiration

NEW YORK (AP)—A biblical technique for artificial respiration, largely discarded in favor of other methods, now is being advocated once more as the best, after all. Under the age-old means of resuscitation, the rescuer simply breathes mouth to mouth directly into the lungs of an unconscious victim.

"It's as simple as blowing up a balloon," says Dr. Vincent J. Collins, president of the New York State Society of Anesthesiologists.

At Collins' urging, the New York State Medical Society has officially adopted the method as most effective. He hopes the American Medical Assn. will follow suit at a San Francisco meeting next month.

Countless lives can be saved if unconscious man weighing 250 pounds or more, Collins said. Others describe it as "unequivocally superior" to manual techniques in all age groups, and the only one which assures that an adequate volume of air will enter the victim's lungs.

Collins said the Red Cross already has recommended the mouth-to-mouth system in cases involving children and infants, and that some police and firemen have been given training.

He said the essential thing before applying it on any one is that the rescuer should be certain the victim's mouth and throat are clear of foreign objects.

The Bible relates this account of its use in II Kings, 4:32-34:

"And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. 'He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the Lord.

"And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

"Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went upon him: and the child sneezed several times, and the child opened his eyes."

Nikita Khrushchev: The World's Most Dangerous Man

Stalin's Successor as Dictator Both Brash, Ruthless

(Foreign correspondents recently voted Nikita Khrushchev "the world's most dangerous man." And a close study of the man tells why—he's a fascinating combination of bumbling brashness and utter ruthlessness. In the series of articles starting today, a correspondent who observed Khrushchev in action for three years in Moscow tells the full, detailed story of the foe we face.)

By CHARLES H. KLENSCH
LONDON (INS) — Rough-hewn Nikita Khrushchev has jet-propelled himself from Stalin's errand boy to a dominant figure of the space age in five thunderous years. At first sight he appears an ugly, loud-mouthed and brash little man who talks, eats and drinks too much. But behind the bumptious exterior is a tough, shrewd organizer with a quick eye for detail, a tremendous capacity for work, an insatiable curiosity, an astonishing memory and a ruthless determination.

He's a man in a hurry. Just turned 64, Khrushchev is obsessed with the idea of cramming a generation of reform into the Soviet system in the shortest time possible.

And if he can hold onto the slippery helm of Kremlin power for 10 more turbulent years, it may be hard to recognize the nation that Stalin left his heirs. There have been reports, this month, from Polish sources that the new rift between Moscow and Marshal Tito reflects a sharp clash in the Kremlin between Khrushchev and the few remaining neo-Stalinists.

The Poles conclude that since Khrushchev's "soft" policy toward Tito's independent thinking has failed to bring Yugoslavia back into the Kremlin fold, the neo-Stalinists have forced the return to the hard line that was followed by Stalin.

If this were true, it would indicate a threat to Khrushchev's absolute power.

BECOMES STUBBORN

But many western students of Soviet events note that the angry reaction to Tito's determination to remain independent of Moscow would not be the first time that Khrushchev had lost his temper and became stubborn when crossed.

Face to face Khrushchev is a homely five-foot-five. He's not as pudgy as his pictures suggest. He's probably 30 pounds or so overweight, but he appears chunky rather than bloated, and he is agile in his movements.

The egg-shaped, nearly bald head, the puckish ears, the wart on his left cheek by the nose, the full lips and the ample double chin seem to slump into a tired mask as he sits through a droning speech.

UGLINESS FORGOTTEN

But in front of a crowd or on his feet surrounded by Westerners at a diplomatic reception, Khrushchev's bright little blue eyes, his emphatic speech punctuated by gestures of chubby hands, make you forget the ugliness of the man.

When Khrushchev speaks, the words come out rather slowly at first—in a deep, masculine voice. The tone is firm and carries a conviction of sincerity that Westerners frequently find hard to reconcile with the comments he's making.

Another rough-cast former coal miner, British Labor MP Aneurin Bevan, describes Khrushchev as "blunt, overflowing and often aggressive" in private conversation, "well-informed about the affairs of other countries, but unfortunately given to oversimplification." Khrushchev has earned a reputation for block-buster language which he cultivates.

After lecturing the French ambassador recently on how the summit should be reached, he jibed:

"You see how easy it is for me, a former coal miner, to argue with you, a trained diplomat. It is easy, of course, because our position is so clear. But your position is so weak that you have to twist and turn."

He never tires of reminding his audience that he was born a poor peasant boy who had to tend sheep and later work in the coal mines instead of going to school.

LANGUAGE EARTHLY

He speaks an earthy language, rich in the homey proverbs and cracker-barrel philosophy of the countryside where half Russia still lives. And like the peasants and coal miners he grew up among, he's convivial, loves parties and can handle a staggering amount of vodka.

He has been plastered on two notable public occasions in the last three years, but more often than not he's intoxicated by his own brand of oratory rather than alcohol.

Though he has pushed and hauled the Soviet Union toward more modern and efficient ways of doing things, he's still an old-fashioned boy in one respect—he makes speeches like a Fourth of July orator. Some of his formal ones have run up to seven hours.

He can stand up to make an impromptu 15-minute speech and talk an hour or more, without looking at a note, before he notices the time.

Khrushchev doesn't believe in hiding his light under a bushel. He is as cocky as a bantam and can give the brashiest Texan cards and spades in a bragging contest.

Khrushchev is a natural-born leader whose drive has carried him from the coal pits to the pinnacle of power.

BRUTAL LEADER

But in the Soviet Union, leadership always demands ruthlessness and often brutality. Khrushchev has demonstrated both. He was a model of the Stalinist liquidator in the Ukraine both before and after the war.

During 1936, six months after

Stalin installed him as boss of the unruly Ukraine, Khrushchev boasted his administration had "carried out great work, routing out hostile nests of Trotskyists . . . Bourgeois-nationalists and every other kind of agents and bandits."

He warned: "We wish smash their heads in once and for all." Khrushchev carried out the same ruthless suppression of anti-Soviet and anti-Party activity in the half of Poland that Russia grabbed by agreement with Nazi Germany in 1939.

Although Khrushchev attempted to disassociate himself from Stalin's brutality in his famous "destalinization" speech of February 1956, it is undeniable that any Kremlin figure who survived Stalin's purges had carried out his orders literally, promptly and unquestioningly.

Khrushchev scrapped his own way to the top of the Kremlin pyramid and he's still a fighter. He warned the West recently:

"When some people act as if they want to kick us, we won't ignore it. No, my fine gentlemen, you must realize we shall not follow the Biblical precept . . . to turn the other cheek."

"No, we prefer to act like this—if we are given one blow we shall give back two in return."

Grain Futures Prices Steady

CHICAGO (AP)—Prices of all grain futures were steady in light to moderate activity today on the Board of Trade.

Dealers said there was some scattered buying by interests which had liquidated their positions over the weekend because of uncertain weather conditions.

They said wheat which now is nearing maturity in some sections, is at a stage of growth where widespread damage can be caused in a short time and that heavy futures commitments must be protected.

Nearly all prices had firmed up well toward the end of the first hour. At that time wheat was 1/4 to 1/2 cent a bushel higher, July 1.86 3/4; corn 1/4 to 1/2 higher, July 1.28 3/4; soybeans 1/4 to 1/2 higher, July 1.10; soybean meal 1/4 to 1/2 higher, July 1.12 1/2.
