Hoffa Gets Five-Year Sentences

Four Concurrent Terms

CHICAGO. (AP) — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa was sentenced today to five years in prison to be served after an eight-year term given him in Chattanooga, Tenn.

The Chicago sentence, four concurrent five-year terms and a $10,000 fine, was assessed for fraud in obtaining large loans from the union's multimillion-dollar pension fund.

Before judge Richard B. Austin sentenced Hoffa he asked: "Has the defendant anything to say?"

Hoffa, standing next to his attorney, Maurice Walsh, replied:

"Not at all, your honor. The record speaks for itself."

CONSIDER SERVICE

Walsh then asked the judge to consider Hoffa's service to labor, to communities and the citizenry and that he was under sentence in Chattanooga in another case brought by the federal government.

He asked that "if any sentence is meter out here" it be concurrent with the Chattanooga sentencing.

Austin replied:

"This court feels that the sound of the clang of a jailhouse door has a salutary effect on defendants and other citizens.

DENIES MOTIONS

Judge Austin denied all defense motions to set aside the jury conviction and for a new trial. Included was a surprise move by Walsh, chief defense counsel, to upset the conviction by calling an alternate juror as a defense witness.

The juror, Walsh said, had made notes of conversations between jurors which the defense said violated Judge Austin's instructions.

Hoffa, 51, was sentenced to eight years in a federal penitentiary earlier this year in Chattanooga, for tampering with a jury in Nashville. That penalty is under appeal.

He and six codefendants were convicted of conspiracy and fraud by a U.S. District Court jury in Chicago July 26.

THE CHARGES

The prosecution charged that Hoffa and his associates employed misrepresentation in obtaining a total of $25 million in loans from the $280 million Teamsters pension fund and received in kickbacks a total of $1.7 million.

The trial began April 27 and the jury reached its verdict July 26.

The government charged that the defendants set up the loan scheme to bail out Hoffa's interest in a housing project in Florida.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa denied all charges. He contended that he was only one of the 16 trustees on the union-employer central states, southeast and southwest areas pension fund. The fund, incidentally, did not lose any money on the loans.

READY TO APPEAL

Hoffa's attorneys were ready to carry the Chicago trial to an appeals court.

Also to be sentenced are Hoffa's six codefendants in the trial, who were each found guilty of at least one count of conspiracy and one count of fraud.

Besides Hoffa, the others to appear for sentencing are:

★ ★ ★

Big Three 'Package' Delivered to UAW

DETROIT (AP) — A wide range of economic improvements, including higher wages, larger pensions and earlier retirement, was offered to the United Auto Workers today by the industry's Big Three—General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

For these, the companies proposed three-year contracts to replace similar ones expiring two weeks from today.

There was no comment from union sources, pending study, but UAW President Walter P. Reuther forecast beforehand the offers "will not be realistic."

Increased vacation and holiday pay also were offered by the automakers, along with a proposal to refund the tuition of any employes furthering their education through spare-time studies.

The offers, presented separately, virtually paralleled each other, as first company proposals did in 1961. The union never has accepted as final a first offer.

All three companies limited their offers to economic areas.

No mention was made of at-the-plant working agreements which supplement the national contracts, and an area in which the union has raised some of its most strenuous demands thus far.

The counter offers came after the UAW began polling its membership, seeking strike authorization if negotiators want to use it.

Ford proposed flatly to continue the so-called annual improvement factor under which hourly rated workers receive an automatic 2.5 per cent yearly wage increase to compensate them for cost-saving technologicaly advances—automation.

★ ★ ★

GM said its offer would raise wages 6 to 13 cents hourly over a 3-year period, but did not specifically mention annual improvement factor.

CHRYSLER FIGURE

Chrysler estimated its offer would add 6 to 12 cents hourly.

All three proposed to continue the current cost of living escalator on which wages rise or fall with changes in the index of the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Troy Accidents Take 3 Lives

2 Others From Area Killed in Kentucky

Two traffic accidents in Troy yesterday took the lives of a Clawson mother, her infant son and a 19-year-old Lake Orion youth, bringing the county's highway toll to 116 for the year.

Dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak last night were Mrs. Charles L. Carter, 39, of 79 W. Tacoma, Clawson, and her 8-month-old son, Amon.

★ ★ ★

They were killed when the car in which they were riding ran off the right side of the road near the intersection of Maple and Crooks, struck a culvert and rolled over several times.

The driver, Charles L. Carter Sr., 39, sustained a broken clavicle and facial cuts in the accident, which occurred about 10:45 p.m.

He was listed in satisfactory condition at Beaumont Hospital this morning.

Three other Carter children, escaped injury in the crash. Troy police said Mrs. Carter and the infant were thrown from the vehicle.

Also dead on arrival at Beaumont Hospital was Gary D. Stirch, 19, of 455 Bellevue, Lake Orion, who was killed when the car he was driving collided head-on with another car traveling in the wrong lane on I-75 at the Big Beaver Road exit in Troy.

His companion, Patricia Paulich, 19, of Detroit is listed in fair condition at Beaumont Hospital with a concussion, broken shoulder and severe cuts.

Driver of the other car was Ruth Ann Forney, 54, of Detroit. She was treated for cuts and bruises at Beaumont and released.

The accident occurred at 12:50 a.m. yesterday.

CRASH WITNESSES

Witnesses said the Forney vehicle had traveled at least three miles in the wrong lane before colliding with Stirch's car, Troy police said.

An order for a warrant charging Mrs. Forney with negligent homicide was issued by the prosecutor's office this morning.

Funeral service for Stirch will be at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Allen Funeral Home in Lake Orion.

Killed in a two-car collision near Corbin, Ky., yesterday were Dr. Ronald C. Young, 63, and his wife Josephine, 54, of Claims Barry on 'Main Track'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said today he believes Barry Goldwater has put his presidential campaign "on the main track" by modifying his position on major issues.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., agreed that Sen. Goldwater "has given himself a much better billing for the campaign."

But Javits said in a separate interview Goldwater "now has to travel the route" to show that he really means to reject extremism, push civil rights and work for world peace.

Speaking for the small band of Republicans who still have not agreed to campaign for the national ticket, Javits said: "We are going to stay where we are while we observe how he travels the route. We welcome the changes in words and intentions. Now let's see about the performance."

Dirksen, who put Goldwater's name in nomination at the San Francisco convention despite their differences over civil rights legislation, said reaction from across the country indicates the Arizonan satisfied most elements of the party with the statements he made last week at a GOP leadership conference in Hershey, Pa.

★ ★ ★

"Sen. Goldwater has bettered his chances for election," Dirksen said.

Johnson told a news conference Saturday that Goldwater has done "a disservice to our national security. A disservice to peace, and for that matter, a disservice to the entire free world" by saying the President seemed to authorize the use of nuclear weapons in his orders for retaliation against North Viet Nam.

By name Johnson accused both Goldwater and the GOP vice presidential nominee, Rep. William E. Miller of New York, of making loose charges. The President said he had specified "conventional weapons only" in his orders.

★ ★ ★

The Goldwater camp fired back immediately with a statement that "now perhaps the President will attempt to explain whether his advance warning to the Commmunists enabled them to alert the antiaircraft defense which shot down two U.S. planes, resulting in the death of one pilot and the capture of another."

Check Leads in Lake Slaying

Tips in connection with the Aug. 3 death of a Cass Lake swimmer who was struck by a power boat still are coming to the Oakland County Sheriff's Department in heavy volume.

★ ★ ★

A total of $2,700 in reward money for information leading to those responsible for the hit-run death of Alan Akerley has prompted a continuous flow of information from citizens.

Sheriff's officers are checking every lead received from the public.

An intensive investigation of registrations for boats matching the description of the hit-run craft also is being conducted.

★ ★ ★

Akerley, 20, of 2184 Park Circle, Keego Harbor, was killed while swimming about 9 p.m. in a marked-off "safety" area near Dodge State Park 4.

OUT OF PATH

Just before he was struck by the large inboard boat, Akerley managed to push his swimming companion, Sheila Brennen, 17, of 125 Chewton, Bloomfield Township, under water and out of the path of the boat.

Miss Brennen described the boat as possibly a Chris-Craft and brown in color. There were three or four young men aboard, witnesses told police.

Light Showers to Last Through Early Evening

Better take an umbrella along, if you're going out this afternoon. Widely scattered light showers and variable cloudiness is predicted through early tonight.

Nab Ex-Con After Chase

Shoots at Policeman in Waterford Twp.

An ex-convict, fleeing with $543 from an armed robbery in Flint, was captured by state police Saturday afternoon after a wild chase and gun battle in Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

Held in the Oakland County Jail on $50,000 bond is Marvin James Jessee Jackson, 38, of Detroit.

A preliminary examination was set for Aug. 25.

State police from the Pontiac Post were alerted that a lone bandit who robbed the Hamady Market was headed toward Oakland County in a 1964 blue Comet.

HEADS SOUTH

Kelly spotted the car at 3:10 p.m. on I-75 and took chase. He radioed other cars and they closed in as Jackson left the expressway and headed south on Dixie toward Drayton Plains.

★ ★ ★

After a high-speed chase, Jackson hit a car driven by Mildred Lloyd, 58, of 6828 Hatchery at Frembes and Dixie.

★ ★ ★

Cypriots Ask Arms Deal With Moscow

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Bouyed by a pledge of Soviet support, Greek Cypriots are urging President Makarios to go to Moscow and negotiate an arms deal with the Russians.

Greek Cypriots of every political shade jubilantly greeted the Soviet Union's offer to help if Cyprus is invaded, and Soviet Premier Khrushchev's warning to Turkey that an attack on Cyprus might boomerang.

The right-wing, weekly Ethniki hailed the weekend development as "a great turning point" for the Greek Cypriot cause. It even suggested that Makarios, a Greek Orthodox archbishop, bring Communists into his cabinet to show his gratitude. Other editorials called upon Makarios to fly immediately to Moscow.

Frank V. Bridge: Record Breaker

For a man who "accidentally" got into the automobile business, Frank V. Bridge has done all right.

★ ★ ★

He exudes confidence in the future of the division.

RETAIL SALESMAN

It was 1926, and he had just completed a year of school at the South Dakota School of Mines.

"I was walking home from the last day of school when it suddenly dawned on me that I needed a job," Bridge reminisced.

★ ★★ ★

"I happened to be across the street from the Buick-Oldsmobile-Packard agency, so I crossed over and asked for a job."

Hoping for a custodial or car-washing job at best, Bridge was hired as a salesman.

"I was supposed to sell used cars," he said, "but once in a while I'd outmaneuver the boss and latch on to a new-car customer."

In four years with the agency, he latched on to enough ability to land a job as a district manager in the Minneapolis zone of Buick Division.

★ ★ ★

The industry was hard hit by the Depression, however, and in 1931 Bridge was laid off.

RESUMED CAREER

He returned to the Black Hills and resumed his career in retail sales.

When things began to pick up in 1934, he returned to his former job with the Buick Division.

In 1936 he was promoted to assistant manager of the Minneapolis zone.

Five years later Bridge was named manager of the Denver Zone.

Boat Death Reward $2,700

Rewards for information leading to the conviction of those responsible for the boat hit-run death of Alan L. Akerley total $2,700.

The amount has prompted scores of additional tips to police who are still seeking the occupants of the boat which rammed into the 20-year-old swimmer on Aug. 3 at Cass Lake.

The Pontiac Press is offering $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of any or all guilty parties. Law enforcement officers as well as private citizens are eligible, and in cases where more than one party claims the money, final decision will be made by the county's Probate Court judges.

Another $1,000 has been offered by attorney Irwin I. Cohn of West Bloomfield Township; $300 by Sylvan Lake builder Samuel G. Warwick; $300 by the weekly boating newspaper Marina News; and $100 by a Waterford Township resident.

★ ★ ★

Additional reward offers should be made to Sheriff Frank Irons and a certified check for the amount sent to him.

Mansfield Warns Dems

AP Photofax

ON FOREIGN POLICY — Secretary of State Dean Rusk speaks to the Democratic Convention Platform Committee in Washington, today. The platform committee hearings precede the national convention to be held in Atlantic City. (See story, page 40).

Sees Return After Confab

Liberals Filibustering on Districting Rider

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., told party colleagues today if they don't accept "a reasonable compromise" on the legislative apportionment controversy Congress will have to resume sessions after the Democratic convention.

Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, said President Johnson must have the foreign aid money bill to which Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., proposed attaching an amendment imposing a mandatory delay in reapportioning state legislatures.

Mansfield and Dirksen have since offered a compromise version of Dirksen's plan.

"We thought it was a reasonable compromise," Mansfield said in a statement he read to a conference of all Democratic senators. "But apparently some members do not think so.

* * *

"So there it is. The President needs the foreign aid legislation; reapportionment is riding on it. I see no alternative but to stay with it until it is disposed of one way or another."

MARATHON TALK

The rider is aimed at delaying the effectiveness of court-ordered reapportionment of state legislatures on a population basis.

Mansfield's statement was regarded as an ultimatum to the liberals to halt their talk or face an extended session of Congress after it recesses Friday for the Democratic convention opening in Atlantic City, N.J., Monday.

* * *

The statement also served notice that the leadership has no intention of laying the apportionment proposal aside even if it entails coming back after the convention.

HOPES SHATTERED

Mansfield said "our hopes for a sine-die adjournment before the convention, I am afraid, have been reapportioned." He said plans are to recess Friday and return at noon Aug. 31.

"Let me say that insofar as I am concerned personally, I have a campaign in Montana with a difficult opponent," he said. "I have no more desire to come back here after the convention than anyone else. But I cannot see any alternative.

"I have no wish for the reapportionment question to be tacked onto foreign aid which is difficult enough by itself. But there it is, and it is not going to go away."

SURVIVORS AIDED — Rescuers help survivors of a bus crash in the French Alps in which 17 were killed yesterday. The bus carried vacationing French children and went off a mountain road into a 230-foot-deep ravine near Bourg, St. Maurice. Doctors are working to save the lives of 16 others.

Viet Chief Near-Dictator, to Appoint War Cabinet

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—With his grip on the government tightened by election to the presidency, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh plans to appoint a war cabinet to concentrate on the campaign against the Communists.

Khanh stepped up from premier after South Viet Nam's 62-man military junta approved a new constitution yesterday creating a presidential system with near-dictatorial power for the president in an emergency.

The junta placed only one restraint on Khanh. It insisted on a constitutional provision requiring the president to consult with the junta — the Military Revolutionary Council — before issuing decrees.

Asked if he intended to take the role of military dictator, Khanh replied: "For six months I have been head of a totalitarian regime without being totalitarian. I can head a dictatorial regime without being a dictator."

* * *

A ranking minister commented: "It will be like reshuffling a deck of cards, but all the cards will remain in the deck."

* * *

Khanh replaced Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, who held the presidency as figurehead chief of state. Although Minh remains as an adviser to the government, the shakeup removed the popular general from the center of power.

Minh, a key figure in the overthrow of the Ngo Dinh Diem regime last November, lost control of the military junta in Khanh's coup d'etat Jan. 30 but retained his titular office. Some observers suggested that Minh may have incurred Khanh's disfavor by showing sympathy to the French proposal for the neutralization of Viet Nam.

* * *

As for the possibility of a more active U.S. role in South Viet Nam, Khanh said "Everything we do is done in close cooperation with American authorities. All military tasks will depend on the requirements of the situation."

Police patrolled Saigon in unusually large numbers Sunday night, particularly near Minh's home. However, the capital was calm.

NY Police, FBI Eye Report of Red Influence in Program

NEW YORK (AP) — Police and the FBI are investigating alleged Communist infiltration of a $12.9-million social experiment on Manhattan's lower East Side.

The inquiry is aimed at the activities of Mobilization for Youth Inc., a nonprofit organization designed to reduce juvenile delinquency.

* * *

Reports that investigations were under way were confirmed Sunday night by Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Paul R. Screvane, City Council president. Screvane, as coordinator of the city's poverty council, controls the organization's funds.

"We are not going to approve the contracts and budget of Mobilization for Youth until we are satisfied the allegations are untrue," Screvane said.

NOT WITHHELD

Wagner, honorary chairman of the organization, said funds had not been withheld, "But we are in the process of working out our budget allocation."

One of the most serious allegations against the program, Screvane said, is that some of its mimeograph machines were used in turning out inflammatory material during last month's racial rioting in Harlem and the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn.

* * *

Screvane said he had turned over material to the FBI, and that he intended to consult today with John E. Malone, chief of the New York FBI office. The FBI office refused comment.

Mobilization for Youth receives about 58 per cent of its budget from federal agencies, 28.5 per cent from the city and about 14 per cent from the Ford Foundation.

RETURNS TO CITY

Winslow Carlton, chairman of the organization, interrupted a Cape Cod vacation to return to the city and challenge charges of leftist influence.

"We deny that Mobilization for Youth has been taken over by Communists or any other group," he told a news conference.

If his organization's equipment was used to print inflammatory pamphlets, Carlton said, he knew of no such case himself.

James E. McCarthy, director of the organization, said that last spring it was discovered that campaign material was being printed on the group's equipment by the reform Democratic organization of the 19th Congressional District. He said this was stopped as soon as it became known.

$100,000 in Coins Taken by Burglars

WARREN, Ohio (UPI) — Police said today burglars took about two tons of coins valued at $100,000, or possibly more from a collection during the weekend.

Police Sgt. Frank Luscombe said the burglars took 16,000 silver dollars and some valuable rare coins.

The burglary was discovered Sunday by Harold Berk, owner of the Berk Exterminating Co. who has operated a coin business as a sideline for 10 years.

Negroes Riot Near Chicago

25 Are Arrested, Pair Shot in Melee

DIXMOOR, Ill. (AP) — One thousand angry Negroes rioted for five hours last night before 200 police with shotguns restored order to this predominantly Negro suburb south of Chicago.

More than 50 persons — most of them white — were injured when Negroes stoned them in their autos.

A Negro and a white man were shot but not seriously injured. At least 39 persons required hospital care. Four were hospitalized in good condition.

Seven of the injured were under 10 years old. One was a 7-week-old infant.

AREA BLOCKADED

At the height of the rioting, police blockaded the six-block area where about 20 autos were stoned. Tear gas bombs were used to break up the mobs.

"There was terrific violence in those streets," said Lt. Mervin Horsmann of the sheriff's police of Cook County. "We expect it to continue."

NEGRO ACCUSED

Police said the disturbance had been brewing since Saturday night when a Negro woman was accused of trying to steal a bottle of gin from a liquor store.

Negroes said the woman was beaten by the white store owner in the quarrel.

Protesting Negroes demonstrated Saturday night and returned last night in greater force.

"The civil rights leaders lost control," said Horsmann, who had been on duty in the area for two days.

'WANTED VIOLENCE'

Horsmann said at one time civil rights leaders used police microphones urging the crowds to disperse. But the crowds "just wanted violence," he said.

Pontiac Press Names New City Editor

Richard M. Saunders, 30, has been named city editor of The Pontiac Press.

Saunders succeeds John J. Crowley, who resigned to become administrative aide to Congressman Robert P. Griffin (R-Traverse City).

A Pontiac Press staffer for the past seven years, Saunders attended Wayne State University. He has covered Pontiac City Hall for the past three years.

Saunders took honors in the state Associated Press writing contest in 1963 with a story of a group of people trapped beneath an overturned raft on Union Lake.

$460 Holdup Reported at Holiday Inn

The new Holiday Inn in Bloomfield Township was struck this morning by two armed robbers who netted an estimated $460.

* * *

The two men entered the motel office through the back door, surprising night manager Don Luvisch of Plymouth and a porter, Ray Burton of Pontiac, said Bloomfield Township police.

Burton, of 340 Howard McNeill, was told to lie on the floor and was hit in the back with a shotgun one of the men was carrying, according to police.

Burton's wallet, containing about $60 and identification, reportedly was stolen, along with about $400 from a cash register and safe.

* * *

The two robbers, described as Negroes, wore nylon stockings over their faces. Police were told one carried a shotgun and the other a pistol.

FORCED INTO CLOSET

Burton and Luvisch were forced into a closet while the robbers made their getaway, police said.

Pleads Guilty After High-Speed Chase

A Detroit youth accused of driving up to 115 m.p.h. without lights on Telegraph early this morning has pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge in Bloomfield Township.

Police said Lloyd D. Haver, 20, led an 11-mile chase which ended at the Telegraph-Grand River intersection in Detroit.

Lt. Martin McLaughlin said he took off after Haver's car at West Quarton when it passed there at 3:45 a.m. going about 100 m.p.h.

At no time during the chase did the cars go below that speed according to McLaughlin. He clocked the other car at 115 m.p.h. as they sped through the West Maple intersection.

* * *

The patrolman reported Haver's auto ran through red lights at 10 Mile, 9 Mile and 7 Mile Roads and through four roadblocks set up by six police departments along the stretch.

CHASE STOPS

The chase was halted by a roadblock thrown up by Detroit and state police. Two patrol cars were reinforced by a semitruck pulled across the highway.

Haver's car slid to a stop, but McLaughlin's went into a spin and landed on the median.

The Detroiter was fined $100 plus $20 court costs and sentenced to 30 days in the Oakland County jail by Bloomfield Township Justice of the Peace Mrs. Alice Gilbert.

Cyprus Greeks Urge Aid Deal

sponse to the Soviets. One report said Foreign Minister Spyros Kyprianou would leave for Moscow Friday to begin talks on military aid.

* * *

The U.N. peace effort suffered an unexpected setback when Finnish mediator Sakari S. Tuomioja suffered a stroke in Geneva yesterday a few hours before his departure for another round of talks in Athens, Ankara and Nicosia.

The condition of Sakari S. Tuomioja suddenly worsened and he underwent emergency surgery for a blood clot on the brain early today.

There was speculation that U.N. Secretary-General U Thant would appoint a new mediator or take over Tuomioja's work himself.

The Finnish diplomat had hoped to win acceptance of a compromise proposed by former U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, President Johnson's special Cyprus envoy.

Acheson has been meeting separately with Greek and Turkish representatives in Geneva. His plan calls for Cyprus' union with Greece and special safeguards for the Turkish Cypriot minority including a Turkish military base on the island.

Tuomijoa's illness comes as a particular blow because there were signs last week that Greece and Turkey might accept a solution along the Acheson lines although there has been no approval from the Makarios government.

Troy Development Plans May Spur Traffic Study

BIRMINGHAM — City administrators, backed by a traffic consultant, are proposing that a study be made of the traffic to be generated by a proposed Troy development.

Consultant Lloyd B. Reid reports it is possible to estimate the number of trips residents of the development will make to work, to shop and to places of entertainment, as well as those by visitors and service vehicles.

"Origin and destination surveys conducted in the Detroit area have produced information on the daily travel patterns of people that permit an accurate estimate of the number of vehicles by hours that would enter and leave the proposed housing development," he noted.

The $50-million development planned to front on Coolidge has prompted concern from residents of the neighboring Pembroke Manor Subdivision.

* * *

BACKS STUDY

Assistant City Manager R. S. Kenning, in presenting Reid's report to the commission tonight, will recommend that a study be made before commissioners decide on the design of the improvement.

"The thoroughfare widths, turn facilities, right-of-way needs and traffic control devices can readily be planned once the total traffic pattern is found," according to Reid.

"It is also possible to see what effect the added traffic will have on residential or commercial properties now in the general area."

Reid estimated that such a study would not cost more than $5,000 and could be completed within 30 days.

Shari Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of 4440 Sunhurst, was riding in a wagon being pulled behind a mower driven by Mrs. William Grant of 2565 Mann Road, Waterford Township, according to sheriff's deputies.

A witness told police that Mrs. Grant had stopped the mower for a rock pile on the lawn and started to back up at the same time that Shari stood up in the wagon. Shari lost her balance and fell under the mower as Mrs. Grant backed up.

Train, Truck Collide; Say None Hurt Badly

MARSHALL (UPI) — A New York Central passenger train slammed into a stalled truck in Marshall today, but first reports said none of the 250 people on board the train were injured seriously.

The train was en route from Detroit to Chicago.

In 1949, he moved up to manager of the Midwest Region, with headquarters in Chicago, and a year later he was transferred to New York City and promoted to assistant general sales manager for the eastern half of the United States.

* * *

He and his wife now live at 1527 N. Glengarry, Bloomfield Township. They have two sons, a daughter and eight grandchildren.

One son, Jim, is general foreman of the Pontiac frame plant, and the other, Keith, is assistant manager of the retail store.

Bridge's job keeps him on the road most of the time, visiting the principal cities in the division's 27 zones at least twice a year. But in his spare time he likes to hunt and is reported to be no slouch as a chef.

* * *

Commenting on Pontiac's increasing popularity with U.S. car buyers, Bridge says:

"The division's growth really began in 1959. Since that time we have concentrated on building a good product with styling appeal and built-in owner satisfaction."

PERSONAL LETTER

If an owner isn't satisfied, he knows where to find Bridge, who sends out a personal letter to every purchaser of a new Pontiac.

"I get a few strange phone calls from strange places, but it's worth it," Bridge says.

Dem Eyes ... Romney's Plank Idea

WASHINGTON (AP) — A member of the Democratic Platform Committee has expressed interest in a plank on extremism offered by Michigan Gov. George W. Romney to the Republican National Convention.

Republicans rejected the plank—which mentioned no organizations by name—and also one by Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton to repudiate the John Birch Society, the Ku Klux Klan and the Communist Party.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said he would be content with a Democratic platform plank similar to Romney's proposed plank denouncing extremism.

Rep. Ray Madden, D-Ind., said he has no doubt that Democratic platform drafters would denounce extremism, but doesn't know whether any particular organizations would be singled out.

Defendant Not 'Getting Off Easy'

Many Factors Figure in Reduction of Charge

By AL PHILLIPS

John Doe stood in the hushed courtroom, cleared his throat, and said he wanted to plead guilty — to a lesser charge than originally brought against him.

The judge went through the ritual of inquiring if Doe had been advised of his legal rights and knew he was entitled to a jury if he wanted to stand trial.

Reaffirming his decision, Doe sat down a little relieved but still uncertain. His attorney looked pleased. The assistant prosecutor busily began putting papers back into his case file.

Doe had just taken advantage of legal provisions which, in courtroom slang, allowed him to "cop a plea."

The mythical, yet typical Mr. Doe, like 17 of 64 defendants up for trial during the recent Oakland County Circuit Court summer jury term, had also gone through a trial within a trial.

LESS SERIOUS

The casual observer might look on this "beating a rap," "getting off easy" or utilizing the services of a "smart lawyer."

"We refer to it as pleading guilty to a lesser included offense," corrected Richard P. Condit, acting county prosecutor who is, besides the judge, a final authority on such reductions.

* * *

The basis is as old as American jurisprudence, he explained, in that the criminal code provides for a variety of charges which may be fitted to a crime.

BROKEN DOWN

If homicide, for example, was not broken down into first- or second-degree murder, or manslaughter, there would be no distinction between a killing that resulted from malice, passion, or even an accident.

"To know why a case was reduced, you have to take each on its own merits," said Condit. "A prosecutor is not a vigorous bulldog; it's his job to make sure those going to trial deserve it."

An offender might escape a serious charge because the complaining witness received restitution for a theft, fears the embarrassment of a trial, or finds it inconvenient to appear in court.

* * *

'OVERCHARGE'

An "overcharge" might be the reason why first-degree murder (conviction means life in prison) is dropped to second - degree (probation or any number of years to life) or manslaughter (probation or up to 15 years).

Someone accused of taking life is now brought immediately before a judge on an open charge of murder, which can later be changed to one of the three possibilities.

This results from court decisions in the past few years which eliminated the old 48-hour investigative waiting period. Now the investigation is done after the initial charge is made and often turns up proofs which call for a reduction.

* * *

BETTER OFF

"You have to evaluate each case against the possible outcome. If it appears a jury will be swayed, we're better off to accept a reduction than lose a conviction."

Perhaps the biggest factor in reducing criminal charges is the prosecutor's human judgment of the nature of the crime and the accused before the case goes to trial.

A misdemeanor plea might be agreed upon, instead of pressing a felony charge, in consideration of the defendant's age, previous record, or possible damage to his plans to enter school or the military.

Usual cases of this type involve youths who are granted reductions from unlawfully driving away an auto to unlawfully taking and using a vehicle, and breaking and entering to entering without permission.

BEGINS IN CONFERENCE

Reducing a charge begins to take place in conferences between the prosecutor, police, the accused and his lawyer.

If the prosecutor is agreeable, on the appointed trial day he will ask the judge to add a second lesser count. The defendant pleads guilty to it as prearranged, then the original charge is dismissed.

"But we're not here giving out goodies to defendants," advised Condit. "We don't reduce charges because we're not willing to try them.

"Actually, most reductions have no effect on the sentence determined by the judge. But it often does allow a defendant to avoid the stigma of a felon."

NOT FACTOR

On the practical side, which he insisted is not a factor in weighing a change in plea, Condit pointed to the cost saving in the 17 cases which did not have to go to a full trial.

"If these cases had not been reduced, it would have taken 26 trial days at a minimum cost to the county of $500 a day for court operations including a jury — that's $13,000."

* * *

"Our obligation is not only to bring the guilty to justice, but protect innocent citizens."

There were 39 million tons of paper and paperboard products produced in the United States last year.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance, with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Predict Barry Will Poll Strongly in Increased Southern Voting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southerners probably will cast two million more votes this year than in 1960, and Sen. Barry Goldwater will pick up most of them, a Republican campaign strategist said today.

Raymond V. Humphreys, architect of a new vote quota system aimed at electing Goldwater, said in an interview he thinks 75 to 77 million votes will be cast in the presidential election.

* * *

In 1960, 68.8 million votes were cast, 10.2 million in the 11 states that formed the Confederacy.

For the first time, Humphreys said, the Republicans see in every state "a prospect for success."

He said Goldwater has vote pulling strength in Southern states that until now have been written off to the Democrats. For example, he said Goldwater could carry Georgia, a traditionally Democratic state.

Humphreys conceded the Republican nominee has problems in New England, but said the GOP is by no means writing off its chances there.

Humphreys, director of political education and training for the Republican National Committee, said one-third of the nation is not committed to either the Democrats or the Republicans.

* * *

He said the Republicans' new quota setup is designed to capture "the uncast potential vote" in November.

As he explains it:

The party has set vote-getting quotas "which we regard as attainable" for each state, for each of the 3,072 counties in the nation, and so far for about one-third of the 185,000 precincts.

In each instance, Republican analysts measured the voting patterns and projected the number of votes it probably will take to win a county or a state for Goldwater.

* * *

The target for Pennsylvania, for example, is 2,947,000 votes.

In Oregon, the Republicans figure it will take 441,000 votes for him to win. Alaska's quota is 36,000 votes.

Humphreys said the quotas project "a safe margin for victory" for Goldwater in each state. He declined to guess how many states Goldwater actually will carry.

STRATEGY SESSION

State Republican chairmen were handed copies of their vote quotas at a strategy session Saturday.

New Mississippi Tension After Rights Worker Shot

GREENWOOD, Miss. (UPI) — The shooting of a Negro civil rights worker sparked new tension today in this delta city, where a bitter integrationist said—"It's always open season on Negroes and snakes."

Acts of racial violence spread across the state. Two white men were arrested in Jackson for shooting a Negro, opening fire on a white civil rights worker and beating another white integrationist.

Silas McGhee, 21, remained in satisfactory condition after surgery in the University Hospital at Jackson. He was shot in the face as he sat in his car in a Negro neighborhood in Greenwood Saturday night.

* * *

WHITE MAN

Unidentified witnesses said a young white man shot McGhee. They said the shot was fired from a station wagon carrying two white men.

Two young white men were jailed in Jackson on charges they committed three acts of violence aimed at civil rights workers Saturday, including the wounding of Negro Willie Earl Gaynes, 18, in the leg outside a dance hall in the capital city.

Detective Capt. J. P. Shipp said Markus Perkins and D. J. Hawkins, both in their 20s, were being held under a total of $15,000 bond each in the three cases.

* * *

They also were charged with beating white civil rights worker Philip Hocker, 19, a Princeton student from Corning, N.Y. with a ball bat, and firing several shots into a car driven by Steve Smith, 19, another white summer volunteer from Iowa State University.

MASS MEETING

About 400 Negroes crowded into a church for a mass meeting here last yesterday and were told McGhee said from his hospital bed he hoped they wouldn't let "one little bullet turn you 'round from freedom."

The crowd broke into a standing ovation as Silas' younger brother Jake delivered the message.

"If you're going to let one little bullet turn you 'round from freedom," Jake said, "then freedom doesn't mean much to you."

Silas McGhee was beaten July 16 after he entered the LeFlore Theater here. Three white men were arrested July 23 by the FBI and charged with unlawfully intimidating the integrationist — the first arrests made under the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Cleve Jordan, a 60-year-old Negro businessman, told the Sunday meeting that the county has a "hunting law on rabbits and squirrels, but its always open season on Negroes and snakes."

"We're past the stage where when a gun shoots, we run," said Dorothy Higgins, a young Negro girl.

McCormack Says Barry to Get Only 8 States

NEW YORK — Speaker of the House John W. McCormack says Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate, will not carry more than eight states in the November election.

* * *

McCormack, 72-year-old Democratic congressman from Massachusetts, predicted that the "emotional white backlash" against the civil rights bill will ebb by election day, and that Goldwater's conservative views would start a "backlash the other way."

Cooling Off Period, Conservatively Speaking

It Seems to Me . . . .

Controversial Goldwater Precipitates Partisanship

★ ★ ★

Goldwater supporters are ready to do battle at the dinner table, on street corners, in office corridors or along the seventh fairway. And while his opponents aren't quite as vociferous, they're hard to shout down in the wide open spaces. And, interestingly enough, both friends and foes come from both parties.

★ ★ ★

As time passes, the GOLDWATER supporters are steadily increasing. Even his opponents grant that. Also, it may be possible that many who were originally a bit cautious and even secretive, are coming out into the open and making their preferences known.

They discover hordes of friends.

Governor Orval Faubus, Arkansas, may not be your own favorite politician, but neither friend nor foe can discount his political acumen; and he states boldly that Goldwater would carry his state right now by a wide margin. He freely predicts that the Arizona Senator will sweep ten of the eleven southern states. He won't bet on President Johnson to carry his home state of Texas against Goldwater. Even with Kennedy fronting for him, the Dems only carried Texas by 51% in 1960. The Southern border states of Maryland, Kentucky and Oklahoma, Faubus feels will line up behind the ubiquitous Mr. G. And incidentally, Faubus himself is "runnin' scared" against Winthrop Rockefeller.

★ ★ ★

In the meantime, Michigan's ROMNEY creeps cautiously toward the GOLDWATER band wagon. He doesn't actually endorse him, but he says he "won't vote for anyone else." The PRESS believes that as of this moment, the good Michigan Governor needs GOLDWATER more than GOLDWATER needs ROMNEY.

★ ★ ★

As soon as Johnson and his running mate are named, both sides will loose the dogs of war and the welkin will ring even sooner and louder than the old welkin usually rings on election years. Politicking will be at an all-time high and we will witness the greatest campaign since Nero endorsed the fiddle. It will be a healthy thing for the Nation. More people will learn more facts about important and controversial subjects.

★ ★ ★

Some students think that the big industrial states hold the key to the situation and will actually decide the election. Of course, these areas are always tremendously important but this year extra significance is placed in the way they're swayed between now and November.

★ ★ ★

Emergencies? . . .

Men, women and children successively file through the "emergency entrance" for the most routine and trivial ailments imaginable. Whether this is sheer ignorance, crass stupidity or a "brilliant inspiration" to get something done quickly has baffled the receiving staffs of some fine institutions.

Basically, it's very selfish. People think only of themselves.

The time that should normally be assigned to other affairs is consumed by a lot of nonsense and probably the "patients" leave with a secret smirk at having "outsmarted" the hospital. According to The Journal, the emergency ward is deteriorating into a sort of public health center and an unwilling substitute for the family doctor.

★ ★ ★

Some authorities say that the disproportionate increase and the abuse of "emergency service" are responsible for the over-all advance in general hospital charges.

One deterrent might work.

★ ★ ★

When the emergency crew decides the case isn't truly of that character at all, and the institution is just being "taken for a ride," the charges might well be doubled or tripled and the name of the culprit made public.

And in Conclusion . . .

EDDIE RICKENBACKER, now retired as boss of Eastern Airlines and our top ace in World War I, says: "I'm more conservative than GOLDWATER —but not as far right as the BIRCHERS. I'm about between them." . . . . . Overheard: "An extremist is anyone that doesn't agree with you 100%." . . . . . Baseball circles say that RICHARD NIXON can be named the next high commissioner anytime he nods his head. . . . . An Eastern paper rejoices in the fact the moon shots didn't show any pesky Russians there already.

PAULA

Trusted scouts advise me that Paula Dalby deserves mention as one of the area's very attractive young ladies. . . . . There are more than 450 manmade objects now whirling around aimlessly in outer space. Aerial litter-bugging. . . . . Once you could sit through a fight every night on TV, but the quality became so horrible all but one network abandoned them. And now the Friday night fight from Madison Square Garden tosses in the sponge. The current crop of "fighters" represents the dregs of a deep and bottomless barrel. . . . . Our 12 million hay fever sufferers are slated to start sneezing any edition.

★ ★ ★

So many people are either saving or hoarding coins that the mints are desperate. For a time they blamed the coin dispensers, but these have been partly cleared. There are coin shortages all over the Country. . . . . Overheard: "The wife's had five driving lessons and she's already mastered the horn." . . . . . If car rent plans don't mislead the tactical weapons can and cannot be used.

"Right now, everyone wants as little uncertainty as possible — the civilians because they do not wholly trust the military, and the military because they want the responsibility to rest on the political leadership. . ."

This is a controversy of grave importance to the safety of the Western world — far more realistic than might appear from the recent tendency to confine the issue solely to a question of impetuosity or restraint by an American president.

★ ★ ★

Actually, what's more important is that the Western world should be able to respond instantly to any attack and thus, by making known the procedure to the whole world, emphasize not only the deterrent power of the West but its preparedness to use all weapons — including nuclear — against Communist attacks.

David Lawrence Asks:

Who Should Control N-Arms?

WASHINGTON — The most conspicuous example of a misunderstood issue in the political campaign today involves an implication that Sen. Goldwater wants the various military commanders in the field to be permitted to use all kinds of nuclear weapons at will.

Administration spokesmen insist that at all times the LAWRENCE president alone should make the decision as to whether any sort of nuclear weapon is to be used, even in retaliation after an enemy attack.

To get at the pros and cons of this military issue, Gen. Max S. Johnson, U.S. Army Ret., who for many years was the head of the Army War College, has just made a special study. Excerpts follow:

"There is, unfortunately, an almost infinite variety of ways in which a war could start on the European continent.

"If the Russians were simply to unleash a general nuclear attack, strategic and tactical, upon western Europe and the United States, then a decision to retaliate in kind presumably would reach the defending troops promptly. But the problem may not be this simple.

"The problem would be of a different order, for example, if the Russians should launch a land assault on western Europe supported only by tactical nuclear weapons, while holding off on the use of strategic weapons.

"It would be even more difficult if they should launch a conventional attack only, perhaps with an announcement that Red forces would not employ nuclear weapons as long as the West refrained from using them.

"At that point, if NATO's defending forces were unable to match the enemy in conventional strength, someone would have to make the decision whether to resort to nuclear weapons in an effort to stop the incursion, or else retreat or surrender.

"Broad guidelines have been worked out by NATO for the employment of nuclear weapons. But these NATO rules leave much to be desired as to when

Bob Considine Says:

Yankee Fan Jim Farley Jarred by CBS Purchase

NEW YORK — People . . . places . . . things . . .

Jim Farley, the No. 1 Yankee fan, was among those jarred by the announcement that the grand old baseball cartel had fallen to the Trout and Mudd network, CBS.

The deal won't change CONSIDINE the former postmaster general's taste in ball clubs. He has been a Yankee man since they were the Highlanders, and once came within a hair — if that's quite the word — of buying them. It was in 1941.

Jim was perhaps the first person to learn that the heirs of Col. Jake Ruppert were, astonishingly enough, eager to sell the ball club that had meant so much to the dapper old brewer's fortune and ego.

★ ★ ★

The irascible baseball czar, who had applauded Farley's break with FDR over the third term issue, welcomed Farley and asked for details about the financing involved.

VOLUNTEER SOURCE

Jim explained that he had most of the needed $2,000,000 plus, and thought he could get the rest without much trouble.

Then Jim volunteered that a good portion of the money would come from Jock Whitney.

That was it. The old Judge hated two institutions in life: the Roosevelt administration and racing. Jock owned horses, therefore he was as unacceptable in baseball as that other baseball - minded horseman Bing Crosby, who had been unsuccessfully trying to buy into the Pittsburgh Pirates.

★ ★ ★

LITTLE SLOW

"Maybe I was a little slow in my dickering," Jim told us the other day.

★ ★ ★

He may have been thinking of the $2 million MacPhail sold his share for after a year, and various sales of other Yankee properties by Topping and Webb for perhaps $20 million.

Jim's packing for his 11th Democratic convention, dating back to 1924. He's for Hubert Humphrey for veep.

'Waterford Doesn't Need More Officers on Force'

Last week I found in my mail box a sheet of paper entitled "Attention Home Owners, Help Us to Help You." It went on to say for $13 a year we could have more policemen in Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

I moved from Detroit to get away from high taxes and to live in the country. At present my taxes are higher than they were in Detroit.

Why do we need more policemen when we have a state police post in the township and a county sheriff's department? We pay both the state police and the sheriff's department already, so why pay a third party? This is just not good business.

Says Parking in Downtown Lots Risky

What can be done with our city parking lots?

When you put your car in some parking lots, you are taking a risk. They will not stand behind any damage done. They will not admit they had anything to do with it.

★ ★ ★

While parking in a downtown lot about two months ago, my car was damaged all along one side. I had to leave the keys with the attendant, so I feel the lot should be responsible for the damage. I talked to the boss of the lot, but he refused to do anything.

What can the City of Pontiac do to give us protection?

'Why Outdoor Rest Rooms at Park?'

Will someone please tell me why park lovers visiting Pontiac Lake Recreation Area must tolerate such unsanitary facilities? What is wrong with the public health department that it will allow these dirty, smelly, fly-infested toilets to be placed among the picnic tables. I have visited many parks in our area and have never seen such disgusting circumstances. Can't something be done?

PARK LOVER

It's too bad that the state went to the expense of building a nice picnic area, bathhouse and wonderful sandy beach at Pontiac Lake Recreation only to have the old-fashioned, outdoor rest rooms. Where is our health department? Let's have a nice rest room so we can be proud of the entire park.

AN UP-TO-DATE GRANDMA

'Consumers Need Out-County Produce'

With all the efforts toward promoting international trade and good will, it's a shame some people are trying to arouse enmity between neighboring counties.

★ ★ ★

If the Oakland County Market was limited to producers from Oakland County, the customers would suffer a greater loss than would the out-county farmers. They would find another outlet for their produce and many of the Oakland County consumers coming to the market for fresh fruits, vegetables and flowers would be disappointed because the supply would be greatly reduced.

★ ★ ★

With Pontiac area being largely industrial, we need fresh produce from surrounding areas. Instead of taking "all" that money back to their own counties as suggested by "Oakland County Taxpayer" many of those farmers buy automobiles manufactured in Pontiac and patronize Oakland County shopping centers.

★ ★ ★

People who have been faithfully supplying us with fresh produce for over 10 years should not be forced off the Oakland County market to satisfy the whim of a few.

Almost any night in the backwoods of Laos, you will find fun-loving villagers gathered around the Mohlam, a three-member troupe of entertainers with a tradition almost as ancient as the country.

★ ★ ★

While one fellow plays what looks like a harmonica with a tall chimney, a mischievous looking man and a shy woman exchange banter. The racier their dialog, the better the act goes over with the villagers.

For some years now, according to a recent dispatch from Vientiane, four of the Mohlam teams have been on the payroll of the United States Information service.

In the military field, the United States may not be able to save Laos from a Communist take-over, but on the old Laotian burlesque circuit we really knock the peasants dead.

Continue Demonstrations

New York Post

It is regrettable that CORE has decided to disregard the moratorium on demonstrations recommended by a majority of Negro civil rights groups and leaders.

It is risky business to revive the tactics that have boomeranged in the last few months.

It is not as if CORE were under great pressure from the Negro community to repudiate the moratorium. Quite the contrary. "All of our mail since the moratorium announcement," says Roy Wilkins of the NAACP, "has been favorable, except for one letter."

He found something else, Wilkins told Sen. Javits. There was tremendous applause from an audience of 1,200 Negroes in a small Midwestern city when the local speaker said, "What we need to do is stop demonstrating and get people to register and vote."

★ ★ ★

The Negro desire for "peace-in-my-community," Wilkins commented, is a key feature of the present situation.

Beatles to Fly Over for 2nd U.S. Tour

A spokesman for the group said: "This time the boys are going to the United States on their own terms. This time it's big money."

* * *

Their previous American visit was last February.

Asked how much they would gross in the United States, a spokesman replied:

"That's a secret, and we plan to keep it that way."

Asked if he thought the boys had changed much since their staggering success, McCartney said: "The big change is in the cash, and the cash can change you. But I don't think we've really changed inside."

The Beatles have such trouble dodging crowds that at this point their manager is keeping secret their departure time for New York, and isn't even telling what airline they'll use.

OPEN TOUR

The Beatles open their American tour in San Francisco Wednesday; go to Las Vegas, Nev., Thursday; Seattle, Wash., Friday; Vancouver, Canada, Saturday, and Los Angeles Sunday.

Remaining points on the schedule:

Denver, Colo., Aug. 26; Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 27; New York Aug. 28-29; Atlantic City, N.J., Aug. 30; Philadelphia, Sept. 2; Indianapolis, Sept. 3; Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 4; Chicago, Sept. 5; Detroit, Sept. 6; Toronto, Sept. 7; Montreal Sept. 8.

Man Saves Raped Girl From River

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — A 9-year-old girl who was raped and then thrown bound and gagged into a river was rescued from a sandbar Sunday.

The blonde child, her hands and feet tied, was pulled from water up to her chin by a lawyer who heard her cries and rowed to the fog-covered sandbar.

★ ★ ★

The girl, a minister's daughter, was standing on the submerged sandbar inches away from swift current in the St. Joseph River just across the Michigan state line seven miles north of here.

"It must have been a guiding hand that protected her —that was the only thing that could have," said Police Cap. Orson E. Harmon.

GIRL ABDUCTED

Police said the girl was abducted near her South Bend home Saturday and was assaulted twice during a night of horror in which she was forced to lie prisoner for hours in the trunk of a car.

A self-employed tree trimmer, Bruce Dishman, 34, was arrested by South Bend police after the grade school pupil described her abductor and his auto. Harmon said the child identified Dishman in a police lineup.

★ ★ ★

The captain quoted the tree-trimmer as admitting he was in the girl's neighborhood Saturday, but refusing to make any further statement. Harman said Dishman had served prison terms in Indiana and Michigan and had a record of child molesting arrests.

★ ★ ★

The sobbing child had been in the water for up to half an hour before lawyer Joseph Low, Niles, Mich., and his wife, moving into a home near the river, heard her cries. She had worked loose a gag made of a man's undershirt after being hurled over the side of a bridge 21 feet above the water.

"A few feet east of the sandbar the water would have been way over her head," said Harmon.

Man and Space

Shorty Powers Makes Reporting Debut

By ALVIN B. WEBB JR.
United Press International

HOUSTON — On the doorsteps to space, or one foot in the twilight zone . . .

On the basis of little notes jotted down over a cup of coffee or in the midst of a boring press conference, an observer becomes convinced that this is a summer of strange winds in the space business.

It has marked, among other things, the return of Shorty Powers.

Shorty, as anyone who took in America's first six manned orbital flights via television should recall, was the "voice of Mercury Control" — the famous and often frustrating fountainhead of information who led more than one newsman to despair.

* * *

During a press briefing a few days ago, Powers stood up to confront his space agency successor with a question about the Saturn-1 super rocket — and made his debut as a reporter for World Book Encyclopedia science service.

It is worth noting that the space agency man was unable to answer the question of reporter Powers.

Sleepy Hollow Court, a little deadend nook in the Houston suburb of Timber Cove, has become a haven for the walking wounded of the space age.

One of its homes is that of retired astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., who is still recuperating from a disastrous bathroom fall of nearly six months ago. Glenn's wife, Annie, is recovering from surgery.

Next door, fellow astronaut M. Scott Carpenter is waiting out the mending of broken bones incurred in a Bermuda motorbike accident. The mishap has hampered his style both as a spaceman and as an amateur guitar player.

* * *

Quiet
Hospital Zone

Some of the other astronauts are spreading their interest.

Al Sheperd, who made this nation's first flight into space May 5, 1961, has gone in for raising quarterhorses on a Texas ranch.

* * *

BIDDING FOR FLIGHT

Chaffee is one of 29 space trainees bidding for a flight to the moon late this decade.

By that time, he figures to know the name of every lunar nook and cranny worthy of such designation.

* * *

SLAB OF MOON

Unfortunately, it may not look much like the lunar surface. The contract for construction of the mock-up was let before Ranger-7 took its spectacular pictures of the moon last month, and the space agency doesn't seem inclined to revise things at this late date.

For lack of much of anything else to do, some space agency scientists recently went to Mexico City and wired up a bullfighter for sound.

The idea was to measure the stresses the matador underwent during the course of dealing with a half ton of angry pot roast on the hoof.

The matador survived, the scientists got their readings and the project was declared a success when it was determined that bullfighting is rougher on a man than soaring through space.

* * *

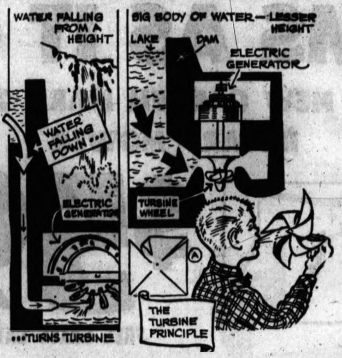
Junior Editors Quiz on WATER POWER



QUESTION: How can the power of water be used to make electricity?

* * *

ANSWER: Water does this by its force or weight turning a wheel called a turbine, which changes the force of the moving water into a rotary or circular force.

This spinning force can be used in many useful ways. For instance, in earlier days, people ground flour from wheat by using water power.

Nowadays, spinning turbines operate electric generators, which work by having rotating "armatures" inside a piece which creates a magnetic field. As the armature spins, electricity is drawn off, which can be used or stored.

Water power used to generate electricity is of two types. If it falls from a height, it is the force of the falling water which does the job.

The water is led down through a tube, where it comes out through a nozzle and strikes cup-shaped buckets on a revolving turbine wheel, to which the electric generator is connected.

If a large amount of water is backed up by a dam, its weight (black arrows) will do the job: it doesn't have to fall so far. Here an up-and-down turbine is often used, which looks like a huge propellor of the kind used to drive ships.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: Make a paper turbine by cutting slits from the corners of a square piece of paper (A). Fold every other corner to the center and stick a pin through them. Stick the pin on the end of a headless match: then blow and see your turbine go to work.

Humphrey Tops Poll of Dem Chiefs

NEW YORK (AP) — A state-by-state survey conducted with White House encouragement shows that Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota is preferred for the Democratic vice presidential nomination by most ranking party officials in every region except the deep South, the New York Times said today.

Southerners, the story added, were reported to favor Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, Humphrey's colleague from Minnesota, or Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Senate majority leader.

The story also said in part:

Both Mansfield and McCarthy are regarded in Washington as "distinguished liberals." But neither is identified with civil rights legislation, while Humphrey has been in the forefront of the civil rights cause since 1948.

Area Teachers at GM Confab

Next Week's Visit Includes Field Trips

Seven Oakland County teachers will be among those participating next week in the ninth annual General Motors Conference for High School Science and Mathematics Teachers.

The conference, expected to attract 54 teachers from nine states, will feature discussion of GM-sponsored programs to supplement teacher and student education.

Among the topics will be personnel, education, training, public relations and scholarships.

Forty-six of the participants in the Warren conference will be winding up summer employment in 23 GM divisions and four central staff organizations.

* * *

Visits are scheduled with the conference. Among the field trips will be tours of the GM Proving Ground at Milford and Pontiac Motor Division.

CONFERENCE HOST

E. M. Estes, GM vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, will be one of the conference hosts.

Area teachers taking part, their schools and sponsoring GM divisions and staffs are: Ray E. Aley Jr., Troy High School, GM Research Laboratories; Floyd W. Bunt, Cranbrook School, Cadillac Motor Car Division; Donald D. Chuey, Pontiac Northern High, Pontiac Motor Division.

Also participating are William T. Hyry, Bloomfield Hills High, GM Engineering Staff; Roger Johnson, Waterford Kettering High, GMC Truck & Coach Division; Joseph Manzi, Farmington High, GM Proving Ground; and Brother J. D. McGovern, Brother Rice High School, Birmingham.

The first type-revolving press was constructed by Hoe and Company and was installed in the office of the Philadelphia Public Ledger in 1846.

Seeks Dem Nomination to Senate Seat Eyed by R. Kennedy

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. Samuel S. Stratton of upstate Amsterdam has formally announced for Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate amid more declarations of support for Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for the nomination.

Kennedy is reported to have the backing of party leaders in counties which have well over a majority of the 1,144 votes in the Democratic state convention here Sept. 1.

* * *

Stratton said in his announcement Sunday that nominating Kennedy would give the Republicans a "million-dollar issue" for the campaign.

* * *

This was a reference to the fact that Kennedy lives in Virginia and maintains a voting residence in his native Massachusetts. Supporters of Kennedy say that, under the U.S. Constitution, he would be eligible to run for the Senate if he established a residence in New York State by election day. His opponents contend that New York State laws have stricter requirements, which make Kennedy ineligible.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Stratton said in his announcement on the WCBS-TV "Newsmakers" program that the state should be represented by some one who lives in the state and "who understands its problems."

He said nomination of Kennedy could hurt President Johnson's chances of carrying New York State. Johnson has declared himself neutral in the contest.

* * *

Stratton said his supporters will conduct a floor fight at the state convention, if necessary. He added that, as a "loyal Democrat," he will support the nominee. Stratton claims party support in 35 of the state's 62 counties. Most of the 35 are relatively small upstate counties.

* * *

Latest declarations of support for Kennedy came from a group of 12 prominent Democrats and from Edward N. Costikyan, Democratic leader of New York County — Manhattan.

WAGNER OKAY

The last public word from Kennedy was his week-old declaration that he would not consider running without "express approval" by Mayor Robert F. Wagner, the state's leading Democrat.

* * *

Wagner, who has repeatedly spoken favorably of Kennedy as a possible candidate, continued to withhold an endorsement. On the NBC-TV "Meet the Press" program, Wagner said he wanted to "hear it directly" from Kennedy that he desires to enter the race.

* * *

Wagner said he is disturbed because the earliest principal backers of Kennedy for the nomination were "political bosses" such as Rep. Charles A. Buckley, Bronx Democratic chairman.

Wagner said he would meet with Kennedy again in a day or two.

THOSE INCLUDED

Among the 12 prominent Democrats who declared for Kennedy were Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, former New York governor, and Roswell Gilpatric, former deputy secretary of defense.

The group said in a statement that Kennedy could "best serve the interests and future" of the state as its senator.

* * *

The group said: "The Kennedy family has had a residence in New York for many years. The attorney general's father (former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy) has had his business headquarters here for over 40 years. Robert Kennedy was educated and lived in New York."

Keating said Sunday he would decide "in a day or two" whether he will seek a second term.

KEATING TO RUN

Earlier, Republican State Chairman Fred A. Young, appearing on the WINS taped radio "News Conference" program, said again that Keating will run.

* * *

Clare Boothe Luce, cochairman of the National Citizens for Goldwater Committee, indicated she is awaiting a final decision by Keating before deciding whether she will accept the Conservative party nomination for senator. She said that if she does run, she could win only by "one of the great flukes of political history."

* * *

Mrs. Luce — playwright, former Republican congresswoman from Connecticut, and ambassador to Italy during the Eisenhower administration, said she thinks former Vice President Richard M. Nixon would be a magnificent" Senate nominee if Keating decided not to run.

The Conservative party is a New York State group formed two years ago mostly by former Republicans.

AP Photofax

OPPOSITION—Rep. Samuel S. Stratton (D-N.Y.) formally announced yesterday his candidacy for New York's Democratic senatorial nomination. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy is considering seeking the same post, but has not yet formally announced.

President Hopes Space Can Be Kept Off Limits to War Use

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Johnson has voiced the hope all nations will join "to place the peaceful realms of space off limits to the designs of aggressors on earth."

This hope, and the suggestion that it be accomplished through the United Nations, was contained in a statement Sunday announcing he was sending to leaders of 110 nations photographs of the moon taken by cameras of Ranger 7 before it hit the moon July 31.

★ ★ ★

He said he was sending the pictures in the name of the people of the United States as an expression of the desire that human knowledge be used for human betterment.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., reports that in 1952 Adlai E. Stevenson rejected as "demagogic" a suggestion that he promise to go to Korea in the presidential campaign.

Sparkman, who was Stevenson's vice presidential running mate that year, gave his footnote to history Sunday in a recorded radio program. He recalled that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower promised "I shall go to Korea.'"

★ ★ ★

The Alabaman went no farther with this, but commented: "By the way, I think it may be an interesting point to note that this suggestion had been made to Gov. Adlai Stevenson, that is, that he promise that he would is demagogic and he would not go to Korea and he said that it indulge in it."

Eisenhower defeated Stevenson in 1952 and again in 1956.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has ordered that "the very highest caliber of Americans" be found to staff the international organizations in which the United States participates.

He directed all executive departments Sunday to take steps toward this end. His memorandum to department and agency heads said they should assist actively in seeking candidates for such assignments. He asked that Secretary of State Dean Rusk coordinate the effort.

Noting that this country belongs to the United Nations and more than 50 other international groups, Johnson said: "It seems to me to be the part of wisdom to back our stake in such groups with the very highest caliber of people available."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William E. Miller will launch his Republican vice presidential campaign Sept. 5 in his hometown of Lockport, N.Y., — with an assist from his presidential running mate, Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The Republican National Committee, announcing the campaign date today, said it will be "Bill Miller Day" in the western New York town where Miller was born and later practiced law.

★ ★ ★

Miller is scheduled to deliver a major speech, and Goldwater will appear on the program with him, the committee announcement said.

The Miller kickoff will follow by two days Goldwater's formal campaign launching at Prescott, Ariz. Miller will take part in that rally, the announcement said.

Homecoming for Abortionist

GROVE, Okla. (AP)—About 400 friends gave a homecoming party in the town square Sunday for Dr. J. Bryan Henrie when he returned home after serving 25 months of a four-year prison sentence for manslaughter.

The 69-year-old osteopath, who says he has performed more than 5,000 abortions, pleaded guilty to a manslaughter charge following the death of a Tulsa housewife.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

After his conviction in 1962, Henrie was honored at a farewell picnic attended by several hundred persons. He was Grove's Father of the Year in 1960.

Sukarno Criticizes U.S. on Far East Policies

JARKATA, Indonesia (AP) — President Sukarno criticized the United States today for its support of Malaysia, its retaliatory attack on Communist North Viet Nam and its refusal to recognize Red China.

★ ★ ★

Although avowing Indonesia's hope for friendship with the United States in an independence day address, Sukarno predicted eventual American defeat in Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

"We strongly condemn America's aggression against North Viet Nam at this very moment, and I also pray for the speedy reunification in freedom of Korea," Sukarno said.

MAYAGUEZ, P.R. (AP) — Roberto Sanchez Vilella, 54, an engineering graduate of Ohio State University, has been nominated by the Popular Democratic party to succeed Luis Munoz Marin as governor of Puerto Rico.

★ ★ ★

Munoz Marin, 67, told his party's convention Sunday he would not run for a fifth four-year term. He placed Sanchez Vilella's name in nomination to oppose Luis Ferree of the Republican party in the November election.

Munoz Marin, who has been Puerto Rico's only elected governor, accepted nomination for an at-large seat in the commonwealth's Senate.

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The United States told South Korea today it will "help in appropriate ways in bringing about the earliest possible settlement" between Japan and South Korea.

The U.S. offer of mediation was contained in a joint statement issued by Korean Foreign Minister Lee Dong-won ad U.S. Ambassador Withrop G. Brown.

★ ★ ★

It was the first public offer of American help in the controversial talks which touched off South Korean student riots last spring.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — About 300 housewives demonstrated in front of Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's residence Sunday protesting food shortages and spiraling prices.

The women, of the extreme rightist Jan Sangh party, were assured by Shastri that the government was doing all it could to overcome the nation's food crisis.

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Five thousand diesel truck operators began a 48-hour strike at midnight demanding that Parliament suspend a law banning excessive exhaust fumes.

The strike, which threatens to paralyze the movement of supplies throughout Israel, came two weeks after a similar stoppage by 2,000 drivers of diesel taxis.

Livonia Fireman Fair After Losing Legs in Crash

LIVONIA (AP) — A Livonia firemen was reported in fair condition today after losing both legs in a collision between a car and a fire truck en route to a fire Sunday.

Wesley Wisner, 27, of Livonia was one of four firemen injured in the crash in this Detroit suburb. The others were treated at a hospital and released.

Police said a car driven by Joseph Arduser Jr., 43, of Livonia, struck the rear of the fire truck just after it pulled out of the fire station with lights flashing and siren operating.

YANKEE 'POODLE' DANDIES — Grandpuppies of Russian space dog Strelka are full-fleged Americans now, one year after they were sent to America and given away by the White House. The dogs are owned by Karen House (left) of Westchester, Ill., and Mark Bruce of Columbia, Mo.

Soviet Dogs Americanized

By The Associated Press

Streaker and Butterfly, two American grandpuppies of the Russian space dog Strelka, found happy homes with the two children chosen by the White House to receive them.

Now, a year later, 11-year-old Mark Bruce of Columbia, Mo., reports: "Streaker chases a basketball around the yard and just keeps the family in stitches."

The freckle-faced youngster adds "Streaker gives Mom fits sometimes. He'll wait until she straightens the rugs in the house and then he takes a running leap and slides on them. He also loves to eat ice cubes."

Butterfly was given to Karen House, also 11, of Westchester, Ill., who says: "I love all animals, birds and fishes. But I love Butterfly the best."

ONE OF FAMILY

Karen's mother, Mrs. Harold House, adds the dog is "one of us. She patters around, attending to everything." Mrs. House says that Butterfly likes to ride in the family car, sleep in the kitchen and eye the big boxer next door.

Streaker and Butterfly are the pups of Pushinka, Strelka's offsprings, and Charlie, a Welsh terrier. Soviet Premier Khrushchev gave Pushinka to the late President John F. Kennedy.

The pups were from a litter of four born June 14, 1963, and the president's daughter, Caroline, named them. Mrs. John F. Kennedy announced last Aug. 18 that Bruce and Karen had been chosen from among 5,000 young letter writers to get them.

Karen, daughter of an air conditioner salesman, had written in pencil on tablet paper: "I would like a puppy so much because I never had a dog before and I like your dog verry (sic) much."

DOG KILLED

Bruce, son of a Baptist minister, had penciled: "On June 8th, I was playing baseball. I was batting. Our dog Midget got behind me when I was swinging the bat and I accidentally hit her in the head. She died almost immedity (sic)."

The other two puppies in the litter, named Blackie and White Tips, were given to the children of the president's sister, Mrs. Peter Lawford, and to Miss Luella Hennessey, long-time nurse of the Kennedy family.

Bruce's father, the Rev. H. Byron Bruce, says he is "no longer just Pastor Bruce. I am now the father of the boy who got the dog. I am thinking of running for office on Streaker's popularity. When I was in Australia for church work this year, people there were asking me about Streaker and seemed to know all about him."

JUST A DOG

At home now, Mrs. House says, Butterfly is "just another one of the dogs on our block — our dog. But whenever and wherever we go where people know us, she attracts a great deal of attention. She loves it."

Tshombe Seeks U. S. Aircraft

Wants Scout Planes to View Rebel Moves

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Premier Moise Tshombe has called on the United States to send his government long range scout planes so it can keep closer watch on rebel movements in the eastern Congo.

A U.S. Embassy official said Tshombe's appeal, made during a talk with G. Mennen Williams, U.S. assistant secretary of state for African affairs, has been sent on to Washington.

★ ★ ★

Dispatches from rebel territory said the Congo Army has stopped a drive on Bukavu, capital of Kivu, where insurgent forces had pushed to the city's outskirts.

★ ★ ★

Army headquarters said about 300 rebels have been killed in mop-up operations in the hills around Bukavu.

FIND RED LEAFLETS

The army announcement said documents found on prisoners and dead rebels included military writing by Red Chinese leader Mao Tze-tung, Communist leaflets and a list of strategic points to occupy in Bukavu.

Emergency medical supplies and food were ordered airlifted from Leopoldville to Baudouinville, recaptured by Katangan police last week after rebels had burned and looted the city. About 1,500 persons in Baudouinville were reported homeless.

★ ★ ★

Four American Air Force C130 Hercules planes were sent here last week to fly such missions.

Some 7.5 tons of American surplus food and medical supplies have been provided by the United Nations for shipment to Baudounville.

Youth Held in Slayings of Four Kin

Raymond Goedecke, 18, was booked on suspicion of murdering his landscape architect father, Henry, 42; his mother, Joan, 39; his sister, Ellen, 15, and brother, Mark, 8.

★ ★

Police Lt. Roy Borchers, member of the Pilgrim Lutheran Church where the senior Goedecke was an elder, said the boy told him he had grown to hate his father because of repeated scoldings over his poor grades at Lutheran Concordia College in Oakland last year.

Borchers said the youth left a Lutheran camp at Valley Center in San Diego County — where Borchers is a counselor — and drove home early Friday. He said the boy told him he attacked his father in bed with a steel rod and stabbed him more than 20 times.

★ ★

His mother, brother and sister awakened and Raymond said he killed them with the bludgeon one by one, Borchers said.

Raymond then drove back to camp and had breakfast with Borchers, saying nothing to arouse suspicion. After breakfast he returned to his home and telephoned police he had just discovered the bodies.

Going over last minute arrangements for their annual card party and luncheon to be held 12:30 p.m. Wednesday are these members of the League of Catholic Women. From left, Mrs. Lloyd Mountian of North Anderson Street, ticket chairman; Mrs. Matthew J. Gill, Bloomfield Hills, general chairman; and Mrs. Joseph Pollina of Oakshire Road, prize chairman talk over details of the event to be held at the League Home on Parke Street.

One Big, Happy Family Is This 22-Member Clan

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK — Mrs. Francis L. Beardsley just laughs when people quote to her that familiar nursery rhyme about the old woman who lived in a shoe and had so many children she didn't know what to do.

* * *

For one thing, Mrs. Beardsley is a young 34 who finds time for golf and for church and civic activities. Home is a three or four story housewith eight bedrooms and five baths.

* * *

And the Carmel, Calif., housewife knows exactly what she's doing with her brood of 20 children ranging in age from three and one-half months to 20 years.

* * *

LARGEST FAMILY

Helen Beardsley was cited for her "administering and ministering to the emotional, spiritual and practical needs of probably the largest single family in America."

* * *

Mrs. Beardsley had eight children from her first marriage to a Navy flier who was killed in a jet crash in 1960.

In 1962, she married Francis Beardsley, a warrant officer stationed at the U. S. Naval postgraduate school, Monterey, Calif. He was a widower with 10 children.

* * *

Each adopted the other's children, she said. And now the Beardsleys have two of their own.

NOT FOR ALL

"Big families aren't for everyone," said Mrs. Beardsley. "Primarily you have to love children and want them, and we do. We enjoy our family so much."

* * *

Discipline could be a problem, she said, if there weren't house rules.

"Necessarily, Frank — her name for her husband — is the head of the house. I'm behind him and if ye were to disagree it would never be in front of the children.

* * *

WOULD SPANK

"I would spank if necessary. You bet I would. But I've never had to."

* * *

Husband's Dream

Told Wife 'Naked' Truth

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband told me about a silly dream he had last week. He dreamed that this friend of ours came to our house with no clothes on.

She just walked in naked and sat down in the parlor. I was upstairs at the time.

She told my husband that I had told her to come over with no clothes on.

My husband came running upstairs and said to me, "Why did you tell her to come here naked?"

And that was the end of the dream.

My husband thought this was very funny. But the more I thought about it, the less funny I thought it was.

ABBY

I discussed it with a friend of mine who is known for her good sense and she said I shouldn't worry because if my husband had had any out-of-the-way thoughts about this woman he never would have told me the dream.

I remain —

UNCONVINCED

* * *

DEAR UNCONVINCED: Your friend is wise. Believe her.

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with Jerome for three years. I date others, but Jerome is the man I want to marry.

He says he loves me, but he only proposes to me when he is out with the boys and has had a few drinks.

Then he calls me up in the middle of the night and asks me to marry him. He doesn't drink at all when he's with me.

How can I get him to ask me to marry him when he is sober?

WANTS JEROME

DEAR WANTS: You probably can't. And even if you could, he sounds like the type who'd have to get half-plastered before he could get the nerve to go through with it.

Marriage must be lived in the cold, clear, sober light of reality. Promises that come out of bottles are usually the first to go down the drain.

Scratch Jerome.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were intrigued with your suggestions on how to keep a neighbor's chickens out of one's yard.

My husband wants to know if you have any suggestions on how to keep our neighbor's ducks from fouling up our horses' watering trough.

The ducks come over and swim in it, leaving feathers and other dirty matter behind so that the trough has to be emptied and cleaned out every day.

Is there a solution to this problem?

GENESEE, IDAHO

DEAR GEN: Horse sense tells me it's duck soup!

VFW Auxiliary Holds Meeting

A business meeting in the V.F.W. Hall on South Saginaw Street was held recently by the 'City of Pontiac' Auxiliary to Post 1370, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

* * *

Final plans were made for the annual post and auxiliary picnic to be held Aug. 30 at Hawthorne Park.

* * *

MRS. MICHAEL L. McMILLAN

Wed Saturday at Kirk in the Hills were Sally Jean Collman, daughter of the John S. Collmans of Orchard Lake and Michael L. McMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McMillan Jr. of Detroit.

White Chapel Train Styles Bride's Gown

* * *

ATTENDANTS

John L. McConnell was best man for the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McMillan Jr. of Detroit.

Kirk V. Armstrong, Hillsborough, Calif., Martin G. Chapin, James D. Hoeschele, James E. Murray, David S. Replogle and William M. Richardson comprised the usher list.

The bride will complete her studies at University of Michigan where her husband is a graduate student.

Florida, Nassau Trip After Weekend Vows

The Franz Neubrechts (Joan Carol Sachs) left for a honeymoon in Florida and Nassau after their Saturday nuptials in Christ Church Cranbrook.

* * *

Joining the couple at a reception in the Village Woman's Club, were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sachs of McEwen Drive and the Kenneth Neubrechts of Berkley.

* * *

Alencon lace medallions accented the bride's gown and chapel train of white silk organza over taffeta, worn with pearl headpiece and elbow-length illusion veil. She held cascading white roses and Stephanotis.

ATTENDANTS

With Mrs. Noel Cook, of Birmingham, honor matron, were bridesmaids Carol Green; Mrs. Emil Pollard of Quantico, Va., Mrs. Richard Bowers of Columbus, Ohio and Nancy Neubrecht.

* * *

* * *

Both are graduates of the University of Michigan and will reside in Birmingham.

Delegates Are Picked By Group

Delegates to the national convention of Veterans of World War I were elected at the Sunday meeting of the Oakland County Auxiliary No. 49.

* * *

Attending the convention to be held in Chicago Sept. 12 to 17 will be Mrs. George Ault, Mrs. Avery Miller, Mrs. Otto Zander and Mrs. George Gries.

* * *

Mrs. Gries, state legislative director, reported on a communication received from Rep. William Broomfield of the 18th district. In it, Broomfield stated that he had supported the bill H. R. 1927 which passed in the House and has gone on to the Senate for final action.

* * *

This bill is to provide non-service connected pension payments to Veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean conflict. It contains many liberal changes as to income exclusions when determining benefits.

A cooperative dinner will be held Sept. 5 at the home of the Samuel Korvanens of Union Lake.

Local Chapel Sets Scene for Ceremony

The Student Brigade Chapel at Fort Benning, Ga., was the setting for the recent marriage of Patricia Ann Williford to Lt. Bryant Samuel Sneed III, son of the junior Sneeds of Mohawk Road.

* * *

* * *

* * *

* * *

Lt. Harry V. Smith was best man and Lt. Hugh Plumley and Lt. John Schmidlin were ushers.

A Garden Reception Follows Church Rites

* * *

Her parents, the Earl Thorntons of Upper Straits Boulevard, West Bloomfield Township, were hosts at a garden reception and buffet dinner for 300 guests.

* * *

BRIDAL GOWN

* * *

With Janet Noftz, honor maid, were bridesmaids Marilyn Madama and Pamela Scherer, both of Royal Oak; Mrs. Charles Godman, and Ruth Ann Fisher of Armada.

* * *

Assisting his brother as best man was James Austry of Chicago. They are the sons of Mrs. Cecilia Austry and Stanley Austry, both of Chicago.

Robert Thornton, Robert Skupien and Robert Ozik, both of Chicago, also Donald Martin, Winchester, Ill., were ushers.

* * *

Use Card When One Is Enclosed

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: It seems to be coming more and more customary to enclose reply cards with wedding invitations. I dislike them intensely and think they are not only in bad taste but insulting as well.

Whenever I receive an invitation with a reply card enclosed, I ignore it and write a formal third person note of acceptance or regret.

I have been criticized for not using the reply card.

I was taught to answer a formal invitation with a third person note and I think I am perfectly right in doing so regardless of the reply card.

* * *

A: It is true that reply cards are not in good taste and that a formal invitation is correctly answered with a third person note.

Nevertheless, when one is enclosed, it is rude to ignore it because by doing so you imply criticism of those who sent it.

Q: Will you please give me some idea of what to write to friends who sent presents and flowers to me while I was in the hospital. I am very bad at letter writing.

* * *

A: You might write something like the following, "Dear Jane, Thank you for the lovely flowers and for your kindness in thinking of me."

Or, "Thank you, dear Mary, for the beautiful bed jacket and your loving note. Do come in and see me soon."

Q: My fiance would like to ask a married friend of his to be best man at our forthcoming wedding. Is it, out of courtesy, necessary to ask his wife to be one of my bridesmaids?

* * *

A: It is not at all necessary that you have her as one of your bridesmaids.

Q: After the toast to the bride and groom has been drunk, do they both rise to acknowledge it, or does the groom alone rise or do they both remain seated and merely smile?

* * *

A: After the toast has been drunk, the groom alone rises and replies with thanks for them both.

The Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Table Rules of Importance," describes how to eat spaghetti as well as other difficult foods.

Shirley Parent recently was honored at a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Michael Parent on East Rutgers Avenue, with Mrs. George Morgan as cohostess.

The daughter of the Merle Parents of West New York Avenue will wed Giacoma Agosta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Giachini Agosta of Detroit, Saturday, in St. Michael Church.

Keep Face Flower-Fresh

Keep your face flower-fresh by washing it twice a day in warm water and the deep lather of a good soap.

Canceled Check Not Always Best Proof

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant
in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley: I worked in banks for 12 years and had always contended that a canceled check was the best receipt. Now I find that the Internal Revenue Service won't accept a canceled check by itself as proof of payment. Why?
G. J. L., Attalla, Ala.

Dear G. J. L.: For the simple reason that it may not always be proof of payment. Normally it is, and many business firms write on their bills: "Your canceled check is your receipt." This is because the firm accepting payment is identified.

MARY FEELEY

However, consider these angles: If a check is made out to an individual, the Internal Revenue Service can't be expected to take your word it's proof of specific payment for a specific purpose. And if a check is make out to Cash, how can anybody know exactly what it signifies?

Such checks as these must be backed up by additional information that can prove they were written for the purpose you claim.

Some persons always write on the check what the payment is for, and keep the same record on the check stub.

Dear Miss Feeley: I am over 65, still working and making approximately $100 per week. What, if any, benefits would I be entitled to?
J.C.S., Islip, N.Y.

Dear J. C. S.: Your annual income it more than the amount allowed for claiming social security benefits. However, some people over 65 can receive some benefits, even though they are still working. Each case is handled individually, so discuss your situation, in person, with your local social security office.

Dear Mary Feeley: I received a few E bonds in 1959 from my father. The bonds were purchased jointly and have both my father's name and mine on each bond. I had already been married at the time but my maiden name it on the bonds.

★ ★ ★

My father passed away a year ago. Now I would like to know if I would be better off to cash in these bonds (since my name accompanies that of a deceased person) or would I do just as well to let them mature?

If I should pass on, could my husband cash the bonds?
Mrs. V. N., New York

Dear Mrs. N: You'd be wise to bring the records up to date. You can either take the bonds—along with a copy of your father's death certificate and your marriage license—to your banker and let him handle it for you. Or you can write to a Federal Reserve Bank Office or one of their branches, asking them for the necessary forms to be filled out in order to change the bonds into your present name.

★ ★ ★

If you don't need the money now, why not let them mature?

Dear Mary Feeley: Could you state a minimum food budget for three adults and five children? We are of different faiths and we cannot come to an agreement over church donations.

★ ★ ★

Our income is adequate but allows for no more than basic needs and over-all economy. Thank you so much.
A Reader, Red Bank, N. J.

Dear Reader: If you had given me the ages and sex of the members of the family, I could have come nearer hitting a bull's eye on your weekly food costs.

However, I'll just assume that the five children are from 1 year to 12 years. So on that basis, a low-cost food plan with adequate nutrition would be $43 If you want to figure your budget by the month, then allow $195.

As for church donations, many people feel that tithing (10 per cent of income) is the best answer to the question of how much should be given. Where there are different churches to be considered in one family, it seems only fair that, whatever the amount allocated, it should be divided equally.

(You can get Mary Feeley's handy Budget Leaflet by writing to her in care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a long, stamped self-addressed envelope.)

LOVELL-HUTCHINSON

Wearing her mother's wedding gown of ivory slipper satin, Nancy Grace Hutchinson became Mrs. Donald Marvin Lovell Saturday in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Clawson. A Victorian headpiece held her bouffant veil. Their parents are the George E. Hutchinsons, Auburn Road, and the Donald J. Lovells, Tamm Road, all of Avon Township. Elaine Gilmore, Mrs. Ralph Battishill and Rosalie Shreve attended the bride. With best man, Larry Bailey were the ushers, Otto Janick Jr., Thomas E. Hutchinson and Carl Shifflett. Dinner-reception in Har-Ver Hall, Troy, followed the rite performed by Rev. Edwin C. Wagstaff.

SAGE-HERMANN

Peau d'ange lace accented a gown of white mousseline de soie for Neta A. Herman who became Mrs. Edwin C. Sage III before Rev. Charles E. Sturm, Saturday, in All Saints Episcopal Church. Their parents are the Raoul J. Hermanns of Martell Street, Avon Township, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Sage Jr. of Motorway drive. Attendants included Judith Hermann, Joann Miller, Mary Jane Stewart, and Kathy Lindsey; Marvin Barnhart, Steven Nevala, Charles Miller and Chad Miller. The reception was in the American Legion Hall, Auburn Heights.

SCHROEDER-SIEWEKE

Touring the Lake Michigan shoreline are the Gary Lee Schroeders (Pamela Gay Sieweke) who were wed Saturday in the New Hope Bible Church, Clarkston. Their parents are Mrs. Doris Tanner, Lake Orion, Marvin W. Sieweke, Romeo, and the Roy Schroeders, Baldwin Road, Orion Township. For the vows before Rev. Elden Mudge and reception in First Federal Savings of Oakland, Lake Orion, the bride wore chapel-length white organza over taffeta and carried miniature white iris. Attendants were Suzie Lang, Susan Schroeder, Robert Simmons and Roy Cooper.

CURREY-GERLINGER

Lorenda May Gerlinger and John Rand Currey chose the First Methodist Church for their Saturday wedding and reception. Their parents are Mrs. Loren W. Gerlinger of Ogemaw Road, the late Mr. Gerlinger, and the Frank L. Curreys of Silverside Drive. With her gown of white peau de soie made by her mother, the bride wore a short Chantilly lace jacket and illusion veil. Attendants were Ruth Ann Cardis of Lansing; Cheryl Dunlap, Leora Gerlinger and Alona Frey; Donald Kleindle, Thomas Davis, Philip Wells and Claude Pierson.

Abortion Worries Her

Hypochondria by Guilt

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE T-445: Linda L., aged 29, is almost bankrupting her husband with medical bills.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," he protested, "we have three children but they don't cause me half the worry that Linda does.

"A year ago she began to fret about cancer of her womb, so I took her to a gynecologist.

"He said there was no sign of cancer. But she still kept worrying about it until I had her checked by two more experts.

★ ★ ★

"Then she began to take pills and liquid medicines and now she is a tranquilizer addict.

GOING INSANE

"Last month she decided she has heart trouble but lately she says she is positive she is going insane.

"Dr. Crane, she was a healthy, normal wife and mother till about a year ago. So what has changed her so radically?"

Read this case with double care for it is a classical example of what often happens to a woman who has undergone an abortion.

Linda didn't tell her husband that she was pregnant a year ago.

Instead, she had an abortion performed for she felt she had borne enough children.

But such women frequently begin to fear that they are murderesses of the unborn baby!

For whenever we sin against God, we usually look for some dramatic retribution, like a bolt of lightning from the sky.

Thus, Linda felt that God would first penalize her in the very place where the sin was committed, namely, her womb.

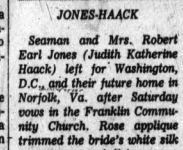
Then she began to fret about a stroke, either in the form of a sudden heart attack or apoplexy.

JONES-HAACK

Seaman and Mrs. Robert Earl Jones (Judith Katherine Haack) left for Washington, D.C., and their future home in Norfolk, Va. after Saturday vows in the Franklin Community Church. Rose applique trimmed the bride's white silk organza-over-taffeta gown styled with chapel sweep. An organza cabbage rose cradled her bubble veil of illusion. Attending the daughter of the Elmer F. Haacks of Franklin were Mrs. Arnold W. Smith, Mrs. Creighton W. Newman and Mrs. Robert T. Brown Jr. Elmer C. Haack was best man for the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Jones of Rochester Road, Royal Oak Township. John R. Haack and Arnold W. Smith were ushers.

When cardiologists reassured her on those points, she then became a victim of mankind's classical fear of divine punishment, namely, insanity.

So send for my booklet "Facts About Pregnancy," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.



NORMAN-WARE

The Fred Normans (Sharon Ann Ware) left for a Niagara Falls honeymoon after their Saturday vows and reception in the Marimont Baptist Church. Rev. Philip Somers performed the rite for the daughter of the Ralph M. Wares of East Kennett Road and the son of the Charles Normans of Richmond Avenue. Rose pointe pattern Chantilly lace accented the bride's tiered gown of white nylon over satin and edged her veil of illusion over nylon. Rebekah Upton of Chillicothe, Ohio, was honor maid. Best man was Herbert Norman. Allen Sommers seated the guests.

CODE-WALTON

A Beauty Hint
Margaret Merril advises that it is quite simple for every woman to promote an English countryside complexion. Her hint to gain a peaches-and-cream loveliness is to damp a cloth with cold water from your refrigerator and press it over your face for a few minutes once or twice a day. Then, to hold the good of the complexion-beautifying cold water smooth on a little tropical oil of olay. This oil is rather scarce and expensive but your drug store should be able to get you a small supply.

4-H Fair Ends; Memories Stay

* * *

The annual fair held last week brought thousands of visitors to the site on Perry north of Walton.

It culminated a year's work for some 1,500 youngsters in the county. In all, they prepared about 3,500 entries.

Among the ribbon winners were at least 150 who will take their exhibits to the state 4-H show in East Lansing Aug. 31-Sept. 4. There they will compete with youngsters representing every county in the state.

SO LONG, SKEETER—As summer wanes, 5-year-old Lehrae Hillaker feels a growing sense of closeness to her childhood pet, Skeeter. Lehrae, 618 Knight, Milford, really won't be going so far this fall—just off to school for the first time. There are big things ahead of her, but at this moment, she wants only to throw her arms around the big Bassett's thick neck and hold on tightly.

Treatment Set for Amnesiac

Kin in U. P. Identifies Missing Architect

EAST LANSING (AP) — An apparent amnesia victim from Hartford, Conn., who slept in barns and lived on candy bars here for a week, is on his way with his father-in-law for treatments in the Upper Peninsula.

* * *

The 33-year-old man was identified positively Sunday night as George Brown Jr., an architect, by the fatherin-law, Hayden Williams of Naubinway, in the Upper Peninsula, said East Lansing police.

* * *

The confrontation did not break the amnesia spell but officers said Brown agreed to leave immediately with Williams because he believed he would be treated.

* * *

Williams had called police Friday after hearing Brown's description on the radio and tentatively had identified the victim pending a face-to-face meeting.

CANDY BAR

Brown was arrested here Thursday on charges of taking a candy bar from a store. That charge is pending, said officers.

* * *

Brown, a Yale graduate, had carried an identification card listing him as a resident of nearby Okemos and also had names and addresses of three Okemos residents—all of whom lived in houses designed by architect Frank Lloyd Wright but did not know Brown.

* * *

Brown disappeared from Hartford last June.

REV. JAMES GOULD

Africa Dialect to Be Topic of Missionary

CLARKSTON — Parishioners of the First Baptist Church will hear a missionary from the Ivory Coast tell of his work in reducing an African dialect to writing.

* * *

Rev. James Gould will speak at the 11 a.m. service Sunday

Now working on a primer to teach the illiterate villagers to read, Rev. Gould plans to translate the Bible for them.

Rev. and Mrs. Gould have been in continual language study since their appointment as missionaries by the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society of Wheaton, Ill., in 1959.

* * *

Rural Poverty Is U. S. Target

Michigan Is Below the National Average

EAST LANSING (AP) One of the smaller skirmishes in the War on Poverty will be fought in rural Michigan, says Nyle Katz, state director of the farmers Home Administration of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Statistics published by the USDA show there are 16 million rural Americans who would fit the administration's definition of poverty.

* * *

How many of these live in Michigan is unkown, but the erage "and not nearly as state is below the national avbad off as Appalachia," Katz said.

The FHA "moves in a familiar arena when we move on poverty," he said. The agency now is helping 3,468 families in the state who could not get the credit elsewhere to improve their operations.

LEND MONEY

Its farm ownership program lends money to buy or enlarge farms; the soil and water program helps finance tiling and drainage work, and the rural housing program helps farmers build homes or service buildings.

The agency's responsibilities under the new Economic Opportunity Act have not been spelled out in detail yet, Katz said.

* * *

One of them will be the authority to lend farmers with collateral insufficient to get loans elsewhere up to $1,500, he said. "And we expect to refer some of our people to the work and study camps and the CCC-type camps, before they completely are filled by urban people."

The administration's $3,000 annual income guideline for determining poverty does not always apply in rural cases. Many times, he said, farm families below that level are not poverty-stricken, and many above it are.

MAKE JUDGEMENTS

"We're going to have to make qualitative judgments in determing who needs the help," Katz added.

The opening shots in Michigan, however, came from an unexpected quarter before the declaration of war.

* *

Melvin Well, editor of Michigan Farm News, took pot shots at federal statistics in the flood of publicity that accompanied the first announcement of President Johnson's antiproverty program.

The Farm Bureau has not taken an official stand on the antiproverty program and probably will not, said President Walter Wightman, "although we may have something to say about specific points in it."

*

The USDA put its full statistical forces into the preparation for the program, Well said, and found that one-third of the 16 million rural Americans are heads of farm operations.

That comes out to 5,333,000, Wotil said, or 1.8 million more than the number of farms in the United States, as listed earlier by the USDA.

Kitchen Blaze Causes $1,000 Damage in Novi

NOVI — A new home was damaged by a kitchen fire here yesterday afternoon, according to the Novi Fire Department. Damage was estimated at $1,000.

* * *

A can of paraffin wax, being heated in order to remove the paraffin, caught fire in the kitchen of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Burgess, 25670 Beck, near Grand River, fire said.

* * *

Candidates' Night Set in W. Bloomfield Twp.

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A meet-the-candidates night has been scheduled for Wednesday by the West Bloomfield Township Women's Republican Club.

* * *

Local and state Republicans whose names will appear on the September ballot have been invited to the informal session at 7:30 p.m. in the West Bloomfield Township auditorium.

Arson Is Suspected in Alpena Fire Death

ALPENA (AP)—Investigators began sifting through the debris of a house fire today, searching for clues in the flaming death of a Minnesota man Sunday night.

* * *

The victim, Charles L. Ridgely 22, of Proctor, Minn., died shortly before midnight in Alpena General Hospital, police said. Authorities said he died from burns covering 90 per cent of his body.

* * *

Police said Ridgely did not talk before he died.

He was found with his clothing aflame near a burning two-story home owned by Norman Jolicoeur of Superior, Wis., an official of the Inland Boatman's Union.

ARSON EVIDENCE

Police said firemen discovered evidence of arson in the fire. Inflammable liquid had been poured into some rooms, police said.

Meanwhile, police in Duluth, Minn., have arrested Ridgely's brothers, James Dennis, 24, and George, 25, along with the latter's fiancee, Georgia Childs, 22.

The trio has been charged with arson, said acting Sgt. Fred Collins of Alpena police. He said Alpena authorities were on their way to Duluth to question the brothers and Miss Childs.

* * *

Collins said George Ridgely and Miss Childs were at the scene of the fire and turned up later at the hospital. They told Collins that they had stopped to see Charles while on their way to Detroit, where they were to have been married.

RECENT TRANSFER

* * *

Investigators were trying to determine whether the incident may be related to union jurisdictional fight, said Sgt. Larry Kunze of Alpena police. He said the Boatmen's union and an operating engineers' local in Duluth have been at odds over handling of a dredging job for the arena auditorium. The building is being built on the Duluth waterfront.

Secretary

For your telephone is your own personal Gal Friday, always ready to help you arrange things, order things, learn things, organize things, start things, finish things . . . and on and on through a day's demands.

Your telephone actually saves you money while working for you 24 hours a day. In fact, the more you put this secretary to work for you, the more you're likely to save. You save time, and save expenses that would otherwise mount up if you had to arrange everything in person.

It's hard to imagine what life would be like without a telephone secretary to help you keep things running smoothly. And it's still one of the biggest bargains in your family budget. Use it often.

'Budding Love'

By RUTH ENGELKEN

Twenty years in the public library's periodical room had made plain-faced Ester Betts a romantic philosopher and often prompted her to repeat amorous maxims such as: "All the world loves a lover." "Love is blind," and "Love makes the world go round."

Though she had had little first-hand experience with love, she had had myriad vicarious encounters from her chair behind the reference desk.

She enjoyed identifying with the modish matron whose ankle was being ogled by the moustached man with the slick paper magazine or with the hair-teased freshman in crazy slacks who was getting stares from the thin-necked sophomore with the too-big Adam's apple.

Chester Morrow's romance particularly touched her. Before she had seen his name on a call slip, she had nicknamed him "Mr. Chips" because his quaintness reminded her of the lonely, lovable Hiltonian schoolmaster.

Every morning at 9:27 Chester would shuffle to the table on the right, set a brown sack on the plasticized top, and unwind the plaid muffler that protected his neck from the frayed wool of his overcoat collar.

SHAPLESS HAT

After he removed his shapeless hat, he would smooth the few white hairs atop his high forehead, take a pencil from his shirt pocket and a sheet of paper from his sack, and begin his day's "work."

What he was laboring at was not clear, but he remained busy until 4:45, with time out for his sandwich in the washroom at noon.

He met Mabel Green when they requested the same periodical. Mabel had round-set, blue eyes, a broad smile, and short gray hair, bobbed straight in the back but curly around the face. She smelled of lilac water.

Though he had requested the pamphlet first, he had given it to her; but her insistence that they share it resulted in their passing the booklet back and forth all morning.

BOTH FLUSHED

When Esther had to put her finger to her lips and go "Shhh!" to stop their loud whispering, Mabel and Chester flushed like school kids caught note-passing.

Mabel was back at Chester's table the next day. In place of a stubby beard, Esther noticed a razor nick on Chester's chin.

Wednesday, he sported a maroon tie with giant yellow quotation marks and she wore red earrings. When he stopped to retrieve Mabel's glove, the silver hair rimming his neck showed evidence of scissors tampering.

* * *

ONLY BEGINNING

This was only the beginning, of course. But Esther Butts, was observant enough to note beginnings. She was well read and recognized the signs.

The periodical room of a public library was not the trysting place that the literary greats choose as background for their romances, but it seemed to serve. "Love will find a way," Esther quoted to herself.

The unusualness of the romance made it significant. Esther noticed its progression, she smiled upon it and approved. "Ad asta per aspera," she said. "To the stars through difficulties."

and it also applied to romance in a public library.

PRUDENT PLACE

Besides, she reminded herself, there was no more circumspect place for romance to blossom than in a public library.

Thursday morning, Chester removed his hat, blew over the brim, and hit the crown with the side of his hand. In addition to the brown sack, he had a small white one filled with Valentine hearts with which he plied Mabel.

Then he popped one in his mouth that said "Hot Diggety," and they both laughed.

* * *

Toward late afternoon when the hearts were almost gone, Esther noticed a heavyset stranger with a gray braided knot sitting at a table opposite Chester and Mabel.

WEDDING BAND

Says Warren Should Explain '48 Stand

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International

Here's a suggestion for Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., and Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio. They should subpoena Chief Justice Earl Warren to testify in committee hearings on their Republican effort to veto Supreme Court orders for reapportionment of state legislatures.

If Warren accepted a subpoena and testified he would become a witness against himself. That might embarrass Warren but it would not be likely to distress congressional Republicans.

Warren read the majority opinion last June in which the court ordered about the states to reapportion.

Warren and his majority held that it was unconstitutional for either house of a state legislature to be apportioned on any basis other than population.

* * *

The Constitution stipulates that the U.S. Congress shall be apportioned for the House on the basis of population but for the Senate on the basis of political divisions — two senators for each state regardless of the number of persons represented.

NOT EXTENDED

The Constitution does not extend that stipulation to apportionment for state legislatures. But neighter does the Constitution specifically deny the states the right to adopt for their legislatures the apportionment system prescribed for the U.S. Congress.

Warren and his majority found authority for their reapportionment order in the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

It is strange that Warren would reach so far for authority to strike down the well-established apportionment customs of the states.

* * *

It is strange because Warren is on record as believing that the prevailing system or apportionment is best for the citizens.

1948 SPEECH

Warren served as governor of California 1943-53. In 1948 he made a speech in which he said:

"Many California counties are far more important in the life of the state than their population bears to the entire population of the state. It is for this reason that I have never been in favor of restricting their representation in the State Senate to a strictly population basis.

"It is for the same reason that the founding fathers of our country gave balanced representation to the states of the union, equal representation in one House and proportionate representation in the other.

"Moves have been made to upset the balanced representation in our state, even though it has served us well and is strictly in accord with the American tradition and the pattern of our national government. Our state has made almost unbelievable progress under our present system of legislative representation. I believe we should keep it."

Warren vs Warren as a sharply questioned witness before a Senate committee seeking to veto one of the more amazing Supreme Court orders of our times would attract a standing-room-only audience.

Dirksen: Now, Mr. Chief Justice, explain to us please, how the prevailing system or reapportionment could be in accord with the American tradition in 1948 and be unconstitutional in 1964.

Actress Brings Lithuanian Kin to Hollywood

Their arrival at Los Angeles International Airport Sunday ended eight years of effort by the blonde actress to bring her widowed grandmother to the United States.

* * *

As her granddaughter translated, Mrs. Ludvise Kamandulis told how she felt: "God has been good to me. He has given me everything I have wanted."

Ruta says the Russians will allow an aunt to join the family in Hollywood.

"But they told me my aunt was the only other relative I could take out — and not to ask anymore," Ruta said.

Government Claims Burma Rebel Kill

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — The government announced today its troops killed 23 rebel guerrillas in a half dozen clashes over the weekend. Bodies of four women slain by the rebels were recovered.

Two soldiers were reported killed in the skirmishes, part of a 15-year-old war against Communist irregulars and Red-influenced jungle tribes.

Listed among the rebel dead were a Padaung tribal leader, Bo Kee Ket, and a Karen leader, Saw Bogyi.

An international forestry panel has estimated there are only 75,000 foresters in the world today, although there is a need for 300,000.

Fall Kills Woman, 106

MUCH HADHAM, England (AP) — Mrs. Hannah Eder died today — her 106th birthday. She fell out of bed last night at an old people's home here. Hurried to a hospital, she died without regaining consciousness.

All men are created equal — and endowed by their creator with an insatiable urge to become otherwise.

4 Nevada Fires Near Control

ELKO, Nev. (AP) — Professional firefighters hoped to win their battle today with four mammoth northeastern Nevada range fires which scorched an estimated 162,000 acres of grassland and sagebrush.

A half dozen other major blazes burned an additional 13,000 acres in northern and central Nevada Saturday and Sunday. Most were set when a series of lightning-charged thunderstorms crossed the state Saturday.

* * *

A Boise, Idaho, pilot was killed Sunday when his plane crashed 20 miles north of Elko. He was returning to Boise after flying a group of firefighters to Elko, seat of a vast cattle and sheep ranching area. Two Elko County ranchers were hospitalized with serious burns suffered as they tried to build a fire line with a bulldozer.

Clair Whitlock, Bureau of Land Management district director said he hoped all four big fires could be controlled today.

ADEQUATE EQUIPMENT

"We feel we may be getting on top of the situation. We feel we have adequate men and equipment now to handle anything that might happen unless we get high winds or some unforseen situations," Whitlock said.

Four hundred Indian fire fighters from New Mexico were flown by Air Force transport planes to Elko Sunday night to join 500 men already on the fire lines. Several hundred men fought blazes elsewhere in the state.

* * *

Roughly half the area burned was public domain managed by the Bureau of Land Management and half private ranches. Nearly all was valuable grazing land.

There were no reports of major damage to buildings, or structures threatened, except for a campground destroyed by a 6,000-acre fire in the Toiyabe National Forest 10 miles southwest of Austin, in central Nevada. That fire, which the Forest Service said was manned, was contained Sunday and expected to be controlled today.

Boat Has Long Legs

PRESCOTT, Ont. (AP) — A boat with legs was launched by the federal transport department. She is the 109-foot tender Kenoki — "Long-legged Crane" in Indian — fitted with spuds that can be lowered 30 feet. With legs down, the Kenoki will provide a rigid platform for work in shallow water.

Splashes Through Rapids

Mrs. Johnson to Dedicate Western Dam

JACKSON, Wyo. (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson went to dedicate a high and vital dam today after taking a spectacular, four-hour rubber boat ride on the Snake River which she said made her an "ambassador for conservation."

A cow elk and her calf, a bull moose and even the scarce American bald eagle obligingly showed themselves in the wilderness setting for the First Lady as she rode the meandering river Sunday.

Today, ending her four-day Western tour, Mrs. Johnson turned her attention to officially dedicating Flaming Gorge Dam on the Wyoming-Utah border. A buffalo barbecue also was scheduled before she headed home to Washington.

The high spot of her trip obviously was Sunday's 22-mile boat ride in the Grand Teton National Park area. She exclaimed over the breath-taking views of the 65-mile long jagged, snowcapped Teton Mountain range and clapped her hands with glee as the rubber boat splashed through a small swirl of rapids.

COMBINED LESSONS

Mrs. Johnson said the trip had combined for her lessons in geology, wildlife, flowers and trees, while "drinking in the beauty, peace and serenity."

It was a welcome break on a fast-paced trip which has averaged about 18 hours daily of travel, handshaking, sightseeing and politicking on behalf of Democratic senators and congressmen in Utah, Wyoming and Montana.

Medical student Brent Eastman of Evanston, Wyo., who was Mrs. Johnson's boatsman-guide, declared she was his "best game spotter." The First Lady, informal and relaxed, introduced herself to him simply: "I'm Lady Bird Johnson of Karnack, Tex."

Mrs. Johnson, dressed in bright red stretch pants, red and black plaid shirt and short, soft black leather boots, brought along binoculars. She trained them on everything from a nesting osprey — a rare bird — to tourists, who turned out to spot her from a far off highway cliff.

TAKES SNAPSHOTS

Like many a tourist, the First Lady couldn't resist taking a snapshot of the dramatic Grand Teton peak — 13,766 feet high. But she hadn't brought a camera and had to borrow an unfamiliar one.

Along the river route, white-faced Hereford cattle grazing like those on her Texas ranch attracted her. At that spot, a bit earlier, three teen-agers had raised a sign that read, "Barry, si — LBJ, no," and "Goldwater for president."

"I can sniff it when I need to be revived," she said.

Public School Integration Starts in Rural Louisiana

GREENSBURG, La. (AP) — The first public classroom desegregation in a rural section of Louisiana comes today in this hamlet, where fiery crosses flared over the weekend.

Three Negro 12th-grade students have enrolled at all-white Greensburg high school under terms of a federal court order in a suit which antedates the historic 1954 U.S. Supreme Court desegregation ruling by two years.

* * *

The first racial mixing in Louisiana public schools below the college level occurred four years ago in New Orleans. The only other desegregation has been in metropolitan areas.

NO CROWDS

Other than to announce that crowds would not be permitted in the vicinity of the high school, Greensburg police did not disclose their preparations.

St. Helena Parish set in rolling pinelands, is one of the few in the state where Negroes outnumber whites. The population is slightly less than 10,000. About 55 per cent are Negroes.

* * *

"We are ready," said Parish School Supt. J. L. Meadows. Earlier, he had said he didn't want to be responsible for the uproar that school integrating might bring.

He said total registration for the high school, one of three for whites in the parish, was 509. There is one Negro high school.

CONFERS WITH LBJ

McKeithen said he would send state police to the area if necessary but called on citizens to obey peacefully the court ruling.

* * *

Several crosses —symbol of the terrorist Ku Klux Klan — were burned in Greensburg Saturday night. Crosses also flamed in other sections of the state.

More than three years ago, U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright of New Orleans —Now a U.S. Appeals Court judge in the District of Columbia — ordered St. Helena to desegregate its schools. However, he set no deadline.

Negro parents had filed the suit in 1952.

A year ago, U.S. Dist. Judge E. Gordon West of Baton Rouge was asked to order the school board to submit a desegregation plan.

Six weeks ago, the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans rebuked Judge West for "stalling" and told him to order a plan from the school board at once.

The school board balked and Judge West ordered desegregation of the 11th and 12th grades after calling in the new Community Relations Service to try to smooth out matters.

Plane Hits Wires, but Lands Safely

COPPERHILL, Tenn. (AP)— A single-engine plane with four Michigan residents aboard crashed into power lines here Saturday, but pilot Larry Haines, 20, of Gladwin brought it to a safe landing in a nearby parking lot.

The crash cut off electrical power for two hours in Copperhill and nearby McCaysville, Ga. The plane hit the wires in a heavy fog.

With Haines in the plane were three passengers who refused to identify themselves, police said. Haines said the plane was en route to Miami.

State Residents Die in Arkansas Crash

BALD KNOB, Ark. (AP) — Three Michigan residents were killed and five others from the state injured Saturday in a head-on crash two miles north of Bald Knob on U. S. 67 during a driving rain storm.

Eunice Cullum, 48, of South Haven; his son, David, 15, and Roberto Gonzalez, about 35, of Detroit, were killed, police said.

Orphans Visit in Peking

TOKYO (AP) — A group of 75 Algerian war orphans — aged 9 to 17 — arrived in Peking on a vacation trip, the New China News Agency reported. They were invited by various Red Chinese government groups.

Girl Dies of Burns Suffered in Smoking

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—A 21-year-old Niles, Mich., girl, who suffered burns last Wednesday when apparently smoking in a large, stuffed chair, died Saturday in a South Bend hospital.

Judy Hartsell, 21, a student at the Indiana University South Bend-Mishawaka campus who was living in South Bend, suffered third-degree burns on the upper half of her body.

Jeanette Bopp Wins Pro Bowling Tourney

TO THE CHAMP—Jeanette Bopp, (center), who had the top average among all women bowlers in the nation last winter at 200, showed her talents for local fans over the weekend by winning the first Professional Woman Bowlers' Association Tournament in Michigan. She receives her championship trophy from Shirley Pointer, local tournament coordinator, and her $1,100 prize check from Joe Bonfiglio, promoter of the tournament at Huron Bowl.

Jeanette Bopp of Milwaukee Wis., concluded Pontiac's artistically successful introduction to the Professional Woman Bowlers' Association tour with a 199-189 championship victory Sunday night at Huron Bowl.

Her final game victim was slender Jean Havlish of St. Paul, Minn., who lost out when a stubborn nine-pin refused to drop in the 10th frame.

Miss Havlish had a strike going for her in the ninth frame and needed a double in the 10th frame to earn the $1,100 first prize.

As it was, the smooth bowling research analyst settled for $825 runner-up prize money plus a berth in the National All-Star Tournament since Mrs. Bopp, the winner has already qualified for the big tournament.

Miss Havlish had outbowled Helen Duval, Berkeley, Calif., by 26 pins, 229-203, and Rochester, N.Y.'s Sue Chinelli, 202-171 to reach the final match.

Miss Chinelli outpointed Mrs. Duval, 201-185, to claim third place and $655. The latter was fourth and won $545.

FANS CHEER

Approximately 200 enthusiastic fans turned out to watch the finals after 24 women had rolled eight games to determine the top four scorers.

Sentimental favorite Doris O'Brinski of Roseville gave the area fans a lot to cheer as she bowled her way to fifth place and $500. She entered the tournament as an amateur "guest" and posted a 194 average for the 32 games she bowled.

Her fifth place finish is believed to be the highest ever attained by an amateur in a

Cartwright Winner

In second place was Willard Johnson and tied for third were Frank Marriot and Dick Pollock.

PWBA tournament. The pretty blonde has now applied for membership in the pro group.

At least two association records were set. The fans biggest thrill came late Saturday night when Carole Lemke of West Allis, Wis., set a new high game record with a 297.

It was a personal high for her and broke the old PWBA record of 290 set in 1963. However, the 297 was not enough to put Mrs. Lemke over the cutoff mark.

The other record set was a 1300 six-game block by Miss Chinelli early Saturday. This carried her into the lead on the afternoon squad.

Tournament promotoer Joe Bonfiglio gave an emphatic yes when asked if the pro women would be coming back next year.

The bowlers were almost unanimous in praising the lane conditions and most said they would be back next summer.

Local tournament entries Shirley Pointer, a pro, and Gerry Hintz, an amateur, finished well out of the money as did the talented and very personable LaVerne Carter.

Marion Ladewig, generally regarded as the queen of women's bowling, made a strong comeback Saturday to climb into the money.

Pontiac Press Photo

NEAR PERFECT — The Professional Woman Bowlers' Association saw a near high-game record set Saturday night during its Pontiac visit by Carole Lemke, in her second tournament, when she bowled at 297.

She Wants to Bowl With Best in PWBA

By JERE CRAIG

She did it for the first time Friday in the Professional Woman Bowlers' Association Open Tournament at Huron Bowl.

This was the first professional tournament for the attractive, 28-year-old Detroiter. She joined the association more than a year ago; but work and scheduling conflicts prevented her from competing in any 1963 or early 1964 PWBA meets.

Her introduction to professional bowling was educational and impressive, but not financially rewarding.

"I've learned that you have to throw the best ball you can each time. You've got to come out of the gate fighting!"

★ ★ ★

Miss Lewis added that she still must develop the ability "to do what I want" with each ball. She is very aware that everything she receives will be deserved.

Nor does this fact bother her. She has shown the ability to earn her way.

Margaret Lewis in 1954 was named Michigan's first female Negro stenotypist; and last summer she became the first woman of her race to be appointed an official court reporter in the state.

She serves Judge George E. Boles in the Wayne County Circuit Court, earning approximately $10,000 a year.

When she was rebuffed several years ago in a bid to join the Detroit Major Classic, the city's leading women's league, Miss Lewis and Fuller Gordy (a leading Negro in the men's Professional Bowlers' Association) formed the Ebonettes League.

It is comprised of eight Negro women's teams, presently, and provides her with an opportunity for regular bowling.

This league, however, does not provide the opposition she needs to improve her game. It can only be found, she feels, in the PWBA and the Detroit Major Classic.

She hopes making the Pontiac, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Princeton, N.J., tournaments this month will be a step toward earning a spot in her hometown's best women's league.

Margaret Lewis wants to earn a living through bowling. It would mean forsaking a lucrative job; but she is willing to make the sacrifice.

An Ace Is an Ace for Lions' Gibbons

Jim Gibbons, Detroit Lions' end, will take a hole in one on any course, even par-3 courses.

"I may play golf for another 30 years and never get another and neither will plenty of other golfers," he said after putting a wedge shot into the 90 yard No. 6 hole at Carl's Golfland recently.

Rosely Rallies on Final Nine at Lakelands

By FLETCH SPEARS

BRIGHTON — A 26-year-old professional marked his comeback from an auto accident injury by rolling in a tricky, eight-foot putt on the final hole at Lakelands Golf and Country Club yesterday for a one-stroke victory in the 44th annual Michigan Open Golf Tournament.

Thom Rosely, pro at Silver Lake Country Club in Rockford, suffered a broken shoulder in an auto mishap in April 1963 and missed last year's Open.

He tried swinging a club shortly after and reinjured the shoulder and was forced out of action for the rest of the season.

But the slender pro proved his recovery was complete by leading the field for the first three rounds and staging a dramatic finish on the final nine holes to close with a six-under-par 282, one shot ahead of Brien Charter of Jackson.

4 BREAK PAR

Only four players broke par over the 6,197-yard, par 72 layout. The other two were Jimmy Picard of Tam O'Shanter and William Stacey Jr. of Grand Rapids who tied for third at 285.

★ ★ ★

Rosely picked up $750 of the $6,000 purse for his performance and lifted the Open Crown from the brow of Holland's Phil Weichman, who carded a 295 and finished in a tie with four-time winner John Barnum of Grand Rapids for 14th place.

The new Open champion held a four-stroke lead after rounds of 68 Friday and 69 Saturday, but he almost blew the margin in the 36-hole finals yesterday.

He ballooned to a 75 in Sunday's morning round, cutting his lead to one stroke, and fell one shot behind Charter and Picard going into the final nine holes.

Picard visited too many traps in the home stretch and Charter missed a chance to tie when he three-putted the final green.

BIRDIE PUTTS

Rosely started his victory drive with birdie putts of 2 and 10 feet on Nos. 14 and 15 that put him one shot of Picard and Charter, who were finishing on the front side.

A bogie on No. 16 left him even with his challengers. He bagged a par on 17 and cracked a 280-yard drive on the par 5, 480-yard No. 18.

A five-iron approach left him short of the green and a chip shot stopped eight feet short of the pin. He rapped the ball solidly and it curled into the cup.

"That putt must have been 50 feet," the happy Rosely cracked as he discussed the round afterward.

Picard, assistant to Warren Orlick at Tam O'Shanter, put together rounds of 72-71-70-72 for his 285 and $375 prize. He was the only player who shot par or better in each of the four rounds.

The 24-year-old Picard knocked in two birdie putts on the final nine, but he bogied No. 4 when his tee shot hit a tree and took bogies on Nos. 5 and 7 when he hit sand traps.

Pete Green of Orchard Lake, tied with Pageau for the amateur lead going into the final round, soared to an 80 and finished with a 303 total.

Al Watrous, 65, of Oakland Hills, six-time winner of the Open, shot an 81 on the final tour and closed with a 305 score.

Among the cutoff victims were amateur George Prieskorn of Brighton, medalist in the qualifying round, Mike Kimmerer and George Ferguson of Waterford, Carl Rose and John Monitz of Carl's Golfland and Salvatore Pomante of Center Line.

MICHIGAN OPEN CHAMP — Thom Rosely of Belmont, winner of the Michigan Open golf tournament yesterday at Brighton, hurries into the crowd to show his wife the awards. She laughingly grabs the first place checks for $750. The 26-year-old pro led from the start and finished the 72 holes with a 282.

Wickersham Defeats A's

First Victory Over Ex-Mates

Tigers Pound 4 KC Hurlers to Win, 11-5

DETROIT (UPI) — "It was better late than never," smiled Dave Wickersham Sunday sitting in front of his locker in the Detroit Tigers' clubhouse in Municipal Stadium in Kansas City.

Wickersham picked the final meeting of the year between Detroit and Kansas City to post his first victory of the season over his former teammates.

The 28-year-old righthander didn't pitch his best game of the season, in fact he was touched for five runs, but he didn't have to be too sharp as his mates provided him with more support than Barry Goldwater received in San Francisco.

POUND FOUR PITCHERS

The Tigers pounded four Kansas City pitchers for 15 hits, including home runs by Don Wert and George Thomas, to take an 11-5 decision.

Wickersham, who gave up seven hits, including two homers by Jim Gentile and one by Rocky Colavito, went the distance for the sixth time to record his 14th victory against nine defeats.

During the off-season "Wick" was traded to the Tigers along with Ed Rakow and Jerry Lumpe for Colavito and Bob Anderson now in the minors.

"I felt I had to win this one, after the way I let that game slip away from me in Detroit," Wickersham added. "And, I'm pleased that I ended the season against the A's with a perfect record — 1-0."

PROVIDE BIG LEAD

Wickersham didn't get a chance to falter in the late innings, the Tigers provided him with such a big lead that even Tom Dewey could have held it.

After spotting the A's a run in the second, the Tigers erupted for five runs in the third to take a lead they never lost. The A's cut the margin to three runs, 6-3, but the Tigers "iced" the game with a four-run outburst in the seventh.

Wert's three-run homer, his seventh of the season, highlighted the five-run rally off loser John O'Donoghue. Thomas' two-run four-bagger, his 11th, featured the Tigers' four-run seventh.

Finals to Start in 'A' League

Two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning carried Huron-Airway to a 7-5 triumph over the Clippers last night and put it into the title round of the city Class A baseball playoffs.

A walk, three - base throwing error and John Fieser's double provided the two runs that broke a 5-5 tie and dealt the Clippers a heartbreaking, eliminating loss.

They had rallied from 4-0 and 5-3 deficits to tie the score in the fifth inning as Rick Foster delivered a key triple.

The losers put the tying run on base in the seventh inning, but right-hander Jim Wagner came on in relief for Huron-Airway and retired the next two batters — one on a line-drive double play and the other on a fly ball.

FOUR MISCUES

Four errors hurt the Clippers, permitting four unearned runs. They had beaten H-A, 5-4 in their initial playoff meeting.

Facing elimination, the regular season leaders rebounded for two victories and now will meet streaking Cranbrook in the best-of-five final series starting 8 p.m. Tuesday at Jaycee Park.

Utica swept a double header from Waterford yesterday and took over first place in the Clinton Valley Baseball League.

The Chiefs won both games by 4-3 scores to run their record to 8-0. Waterford holds second with a 6-2 mark.

In other games, Washington downed Chesterfield twice, 6-1 and 5-1, and Lake Orion dropped the first game to L'Anse Creuse, 7-3, and cracked a seven-game losing streak with a 5-2 decision in the nightcap.

Waterford built up a 3-0 lead in the first inning of the opening game with Utica when Chuck Swenson, Rick Pankey and Dave Tipkis came across the plate.

★ ★ ★

Ted Hockstad belted a two run homer in Utica's first to narrow the gap to 3-2, and winning pitcher Ron Paschal tripled and scored the tying run on a fly ball by Jeff Maxwell in the third.

Waterford grabbed another three-run lead in the second game, but the Chiefs came up with four markers in the fourth to take the decision. Hockstad and Sam Oswald delivered two-run singles in the rally.

KING OF THE SHOW — Ch. Kerryalls Captain Kidd, a Lakeland Terrier, didn't pirate The Pontiac Press Best-in-Show trophy being presented by Outdoor Editor Don Vogel at yesterday's Pontiac Kennel Club Show. The San Francisco based champion bested 709 other dogs for the award. George Ward of Constantine, Mich., handled Kidd.

Hornung Puts Life in Packers Again

By Associated Press

Paul Hornung came home and the Green Bay scoreboard came to life again.

Hornung, under suspension throughout the 1963 National Football League season, sparkled in his 1964 home exhibition debut before 42,327 well-wishers Saturday night, leading the Packers past the sputtering New York Giants 34-10.

★ ★ ★

Hornung, three-time NFL scoring champion, had a hand in 16 of his team's points against the injury-depleted Giants, who played the Packers even in the first half but fell apart in the last 30 minutes.

PASSES FOR TD

Hornung tossed a 56-yard scoring pass to Boyd Dowler on the halfback option, converted after each of the Packers' four touchdowns and kicked a pair of field goals.

★ ★ ★

The Cleveland Browns led a Saturday night offensive binge, routing the Los Angeles Rams 56-31 in an NFL exhibition behind the passing of Frank Ryan and Jim Ninowski.

★ ★ ★

In other NFL games, the Dallas Cowboys riddled the San Francisco 49ers 34-23; the Minnesota Vikings won their second straight, stunning the St. Louis Cardinals 24-10, and the champion Chicago Bears held off the Washington Redskins 14-13.

Friday night, the Baltimore Colts and Detroit Lions played a 28-28 tie and the Pittsburgh Steelers fell before the revamped Philadelphia Eagles 24-13 in NFL games.

The Kansas City Chiefs edged the Buffalo Bills 24-21 and the Denver Broncos topped the Oakland Raiders 20-7 in AFL activity.

The Packers broke a 3-3 knot in the third period, recovering a Giant fumble on their 13 and going the distance in eight plays. Bart Starr completed three key passes during the march and Frank Mestnik, subbing for the injured Jim Taylor, scored from seven yards out.

4 TD PASSES

Ryan, a former Ram, fired four touchdown passes in the first half and Ninowski hit with two scoring strikes in Cleveland's explosion against Los Angeles. Jimmy Brown, used sparingly, scored another touchdown on a short burst. Rookie Paul Warfield grabbed three touchdown passes and Gary Collins two.

San Francisco rookie prize George Mira completed only four of 16 passes during a brief appearance but ran 28 yards for a touchdown. John Brodie collaborated with Bernie Casey on a 71-yard pass-run play for the other 49er touchdown and Tommy Davis booted three field goals.

The surprisingly potent Vikings, who upended New York a week ago, rode the passing arm of Fran Tarkenton and a blitzing defense to their victory over highly-regarded St. Louis. Tarkenton, shaken up and sidelined midway through the third period, came back with 3½ minutes to play and directed Minnesota to two quick touchdowns that put the game out of reach.

The Redskins blew a last-minute bid to upset the Bears when Rookie John Seedborg missed a 41-yard field goal attempt. Washington fumbles set up both Chicago touchdowns, with Ronny Bull and Joe Marconi scoring from in close.

Captain Kidd Captures PKC Booty

The legendary pirate Captain Kidd roamed the high seas in the company of undesirables plundering ships and coastal towns.

Another Captain Kidd pillaged a dry waterfront yesterday. And he was in much better company.

★ ★ ★

The Lakeland Terrier from Kerryall Kennels in San Francisco won The Pontiac Press Best-in-Show trophy at the Pontiac Kennel Club show on the Waterford Township High football field.

There was a record 746 entries in the show.

Captain Kidd was the only Lakeland terrier. This meant he had to wait until the group judging before really setting sail for the booty.

R. A. Cross of Victoria, British Columbia, decided that Captain Kidd was the class of the terrier group.

FLINT WINNER

Ch. Cherry Point Brask, an Irish Setter owned by Mrs. Cheever Porter of New York won at Flint and took the sporting group in the PKC show.

Ch. Mandarin's Kentucky Colonel, a Pekingese owned by Mrs. Ralph O'Daniel of Owensboro, Ky., a former PKC show winner, reached the final by winning the toy group.

Other group winners were Ch. Laurolyn Patti O'M-B, a Shetland sheepdog owned by Mori-Brook Kennels of Allegan, working group; Ch. Kazoo's Freddie the Freeloader, a basset owned by J. Frank Harrison, Chattanooga, Tenn., hound group; and Ch. Ralanda Ami Francine, a French bulldog, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. West of Livonia.

Who's Fink? Bop, Goes Lions' Fan

City Junior Nines Eye State Titles in Jackson

Three delegations of Pontiac junior recreation baseball fans will be heading for Jackson tomorrow morning in hopes they can root home a state champ.

The Class D Auburn Heights Boys' Club entry and the Class E Northside Kiwanis have 10 a.m. games. The teams will travel by car caravan and bus, respectively.

The Yankees, the city's Class F representative, will be going by private cars for their 11 a.m. battle.

The boys' club will play Roseville and the Kiwanis nine will both meet Livonia teams.

Manager Sam Sheehy of Auburn Heights will be making his sixth trip in seven years to Jackson. He has Roger Hayward slated for the mound duty and can also call upon Lynn Thorpe, Dennis Acker and Mike Burklow.

FIRST TIME

This will be the first state semifinal trips for Owen Kendrick, the Kiwanis manager, and Jeff Chambers, the Yankees' skipper.

Kendrick has Rick Miholek, Jim Burton, Randy Hinds and Roger Miller to choose among for the hurling and is leaning to Burton — who won two state playoff games in relief and one as a starter last week.

Chambers probably will go with Victor Quince, although he also has Bob Babiuk, Mike Prince and Clyde Duncan on Yankee hill staff.

The winners in the morning semifinals will advance to the afternoon state championship finals. All games will be at Ella Sharp Park.

Ledwan, Brede Victors in Watkins Sail Races

Norm Ledwan grabbed the thistle class victory and Fred Brede sailed home first in the snipe class in races yesterday morning sponsored by the Watkins Lake Yachting Association.

★ ★ ★

In afternoon races, Jack Berlien, who finished third in the morning round, captured the thistle race and Dave Green, also third in the morning, came on to take the snipe decision.

★ ★ ★

The association will hold a Snipe Regatta Saturday and Sunday. A single race will be held Saturday at 2 p.m., and two races are listed on the Sunday schedule — one at 10 a.m. and the second at 2 p.m.

State Drivers Major Winners at Waterford

Michigan sports car drivers captured 14 of 15 races Sunday before 4,000 fans at Waterford Hills racing course.

The lone out-of-state winner was Paul Canary of Footville, Wis., who drove his Corvette to victory in the B-production class.

Other winners were:

Bob Ladd, Grosse Pointe, Sedan I; Scott Harvey, Dearborn, G-Prod; Fred Sale, Detroit, H-Prod; Dick Hill, Detroit, F-Prod; Richard Dahm, Detroit, E-Prod; Ed Cicotte, Warren, F-Mod; Martin Tanner, Saginaw, H-Mod; John Gardella, Detroit, C-Prod; Chuck Cantwell, Royal Oak, D-Prod; Larry Wilhelm, Warren, F-Vee; Glen Lyall, Garden City, C-Mod.

Burton Leads Medal Tourney

Finals Next Weekend at City Course

Avery Burton carded a two-over-par 71 Saturday to pace a record 147-man field in the 18-hole qualifying round of the City Men's Medal tourney at Pontiac Municipal Course.

Burton, a Pontiac Motors employe, turned in a 35-36 over the 5,677-yard course to take the top spot, the second time he has led the qualifiers. His first came in 1958.

The low 33 scorers in the qualifying round will join former champions plus the low five scorers last year for the 36-hole finals. The finalists will play 18 holes Saturday and wrap it up with 18 on Sunday.

Harrity Wins Second Crown

Pontiac Roller Skaters Lose Team Trophy

Special to The Pontiac Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky — Pontiac's Scott Harrity became a double winner her over the weekend, but the coveted North American Roller Skating team trophy that has resided at the Rolladium since 1958 is going elsewhere.

Pasadena, Tex., won the team honors.

Rolladium, hampered by injuries that eliminated Pontiac skaters from four events, had won the trophy nine of the last 10 years, missing only in 1957.

Eleven-year-old Scott added the juvenile boys freestyle championship to the juvenile B boys speed title he won earlier. He was third in juvenile boys figures.

Rolladium picked up a trio of seconds as the week-long competition came to a close.

Cecelia Darimont and Gerry McNeive were second in the senior dance. The senior four team of Miss Darimont, David Downing, Dennis Horrall and Diane Grassi was second.

Horrall and Miss Grassi were second in senior pairs.

City Softballers Win Two District Titles

Arro will now move into regional action Friday at Port Huron. UAW will open regional play at Owosso August 28.

The hard-working hurler yielded only six hits in the opener, but Spencer tagged him for 12 in the loosely-played nightcap.

Arro scored two runs in the sixth inning of the first game to wipe out a 2-1 Spencer lead. Center fielder Al Hayward scored the tying marker on Ed Shipp's second double, and Shipp came across with the winning run on a two-bagger by Don Paterra.

Spencer rattled off six hits and scored five runs in the opening inning of the second game, but Arro came back with three in the second, one in the fourth and put the game away with three in the fifth.

Non-Pro Baseball

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Brandon, Neb. beat Chicago 4-2 Sunday night to take a temporary lead in the National Non-Pro Baseball Tournament.

Gary Niebauer pitched a five-hitter for Brandon.

Rolls Highest Single Game

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Three Gables of Nashville, Tenn. won the Bowling Proprietors Association of America's annual national team handicap championship Sunday.

Three Gables took the lead after the first six games Saturday with 6247 and came back with 3204 in the final three games Sunday for a total score of 9451. It was the second highest nine-game total with handicap in the tournament's history.

Vanply 3-11 of Grants Pass, Ore. was second and won $5,000 with a nine-game total of 9063.

Pontiac's Carling Beer team finished 13th with a 8,745 to win $1,500.

The high individual scratch game Sunday was 247 by H. D. Little of Borger, Tex. It was the second high of the tournament. Pete Schubeck of Pontiac, Mich., rolled a 236 game Saturday.

Royal Oak Driver Hurt in Boat Race

CINCINNATI (AP) — Driver Jim Miller of Royal Oak, Mich., was injured Sunday when his motorboat, the Hustler, disintegrated in the 44th annual Ohio Valley Motorboat Association Regatta.

He was driving his boat in the second lap of the last race on the Ohio River course when it blew apart.

Card Gets 8 Straight Hits

Flood Can't Wash Out Mark

By The Associated Press

The Philadelphia Phillies lost a single game. The San Francisco Giants lost a doubleheader.

But the biggest loser of all Sunday was Curt Flood — and he had eight hits.

While the National League's leading contenders were taking it on the chin, Flood was hitting the ball on the nose for the St. Louis Cardinals and threatening a record that was set when Baltimore was in the National League 70 years ago.

On Sept. 3, 1894, Baltimore outfielder Joe Kelley had collected nine consecutive hits against Cleveland. No one had ever done it before and no one has done it since. Few have even had a shot at the record. But Flood did.

The 26-year-old right-handed swinger collected four hits as the Cardinals bowed to the Los Angeles Dodgers and Sandy Koufax 3-0 in the opener of a doubleheader and reached the ninth inning of St. Louis' 4-0 nightcap triumph with a string of eight consecutive hits.

STRIKES OUT

Flood, however, did become the first National Leaguer since Stan Rojek of Pittsburgh in 1948 to collect eight hits in a doubleheader and his four hits against Koufax also ranked among the top performances of the season.

Koufax hurled a three-hitter against the rest of the Cardinals as he posted his seventh shutout and 19th victory of the season, striking out 13 and lowering his earned run average to a league-leading 1.74.

The Phillies, meanwhile, were bombarded by the New York Mets 12-4 but still stretched their lead to 4½ games over the second-place Giants, who dropped a doubleheader to Milwaukee 5-4 and 10-2.

In other NL action, Chicago's Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 5-4 before the Pirates took the second game 7-4 and Cincinnati belted Houston 8-3.

Flood slammed a triple, two doubles and five singles against the Dodgers, collecting four hits in a game for the fifth and sixth time this season while lifting his average from .291 to 302.

Bobby Klaus led the Mets' 17-hit attack against the Phillies with four singles. He triggered a two-run first and started a three-run second and that proved enough. Galen Cisco, touched for homers by Richie Allen and John Herrnstein won it for a 5-13 record.

PAIR HOMERS

The Braves got the job done on a pair of three-run homers that proved more productive than five bases-empty blasts by the Giants. Eddie Mathews got the job done in the seventh inning of the opener while Gene Oliver produced in the nightcap for Milwaukee.

★ ★ ★

Willie Mays hit his 36th and 37th for the Giants in the opener while Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda also connected. Del Crandall homered in the second game.

★ ★ ★

The Cubs won the opener in the ninth when singles by Dick Bertell, Andre Rodgers and pinch hitter Jimmy Stewart produced the winning run off Pirate reliever Al McBean, who hadn't lost in 60 appearances dating back to July 27 last year.

★ ★ ★

The Pirates slammed 14 hits in the second game, including two-run homers by Donn Clendenon and Bill Mazeroski.

Frank Robinson's two-run homer off Ken Johnson was the big blow for the Reds while Joey Jay checked the Colts on six hits for a 9-8 record.

Good Review for Yank Summer Replacement

Stottlemyre Wins Second

Orioles' Lead Down to Two Games

By The Associated Press

The 22-year-old right-hander, whose name looks as if it had been plucked at random from a spilled type case, made his second vital start Sunday for the New York Yankees during Flag Fortnight, and came off with his second victory.

This time he whipped the league-leading Baltimore Orioles 3-1. That moved the Yankees to within 2½ games of the Orioles, and started Manager Yogi Berra talking pennant.

If things keep on like that, Mel will have a starting job in the World Series in October. That might create one problem — the Series is on NBC, and the Yankees were bought last week by CBS.

A misjudged outfield fly helped the Yankees to their first two runs in the game, and a double case of the outfield staggers figured in the 2-1 victory the Chicago White Sox scored over the Red Sox at Boston.

★ ★ ★

The Chicago victory moved the second place White Sox to within two games of the top.

The Yankees move on to Chicago now for four games that will wind up the two-week span during which they will have played the Orioles and White Sox 15 straight games.

OTHER GAMES

In other American League games, Harmon Killebrew hit his 42nd homer as the Minnesota Twins trounced the Cleveland Indians 13-2, the Detroit Tigers walloped Kansas City 11-5 and Washington defeated the Los Angeles Angels 4-1.

Stottlemyre was called up from Richmond in the International League only last Tuesday in a mid-summer move to bolster the suddenly shaky Yankee pitching.

The next day he trimmed the White Sox 7-3, in a complete game. Sunday he went 8⅔ innings — Al Downing came in and got the last out — in the decision over the Orioles.

The Orioles got off in front 1-0 on Brooks Robinson's homer in the second, and in the fourth the Yankees had men on first and third with none out and failed to score.

It was still 1-0 going into the seventh, when Oriole starter Milt Pappas had to retire when his right arm stiffened up. Steve Barber came in, and Roger Maris promptly sliced a double to left. He went to third when Tom Tresh singled to deep short. Luis Aparicio got his glove on the ball and would have thrown Maris out at third but he couldn't hold it.

LOST IN LIGHTS

Then with two on, pinch hitter Elston Howard lashed a liner to right. Sam Bowens lost it in the lights which had been turned on in mid-game on an overcast day and played it into a double, with two runs scoring.

Lopez added a homer in the eighth for the other Yankee run.

AP Photofax

Small Field for Tourney

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—Contestants kept close check on the weather today as the smallest field in 14 years began qualifying rounds for the National Women's Amateur Golf Tournament.

Of the 101 players entered 20 have withdrawn. The 1951 tourney attracted 79 entries and since then the list has ranged from 100 to 195.

Qualifying will be through 36 holes ending Tuesday, with the low 32 scorers going into match-play competition Wednesday. The 36-hole championship match will be played Saturday at Prairie Dunes Country Club.

Norbert Tries Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Olympic middle heavyweight champion Norbert Schemansky of Detroit will be among some 60 of the nation's top lifters at the final Olympic weightlifting trials Friday and Saturday. Schemansky won a gold medal in 1952.

Cronin May Call Meeting

Yankees' Sale Still Hot Topic

BOSTON (AP) — American League President Joe Cronin is the next batter due in the controversial sale of the New York Yankees to CBS — baseball's hottest topic from capitol hill to the dugouts.

Cronin said he will decide today whether to call a league meeting as requested by Arthur Allyn, president of the Chicago White Sox.

Allyn contends the telegraphic vote which approved 8-2 the sale of 80 per cent of Yankee stock to CBS, violates the league constitution.

Meanwhile, Rep. Emmanuel Celler, D-NY, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, said in Washington the transaction may run afoul of the Celler-Kefauver anti-trust act.

Dr. Frank Stanton, president of CBS, replied CBS had been advised by counsel before undertaking negotiations "that the acquisition would in no way violate the anti-trust laws, including the Celler-Kefauver act."

Cronin was in Baltimore Sunday and said he would "certainly take up the matter" of the Allyn request for a meeting upon his return to his Back Bay office today.

CALL MEETING

As league president, Cronin is free to call an owners meeting, or not, at his discretion. If he decides not to call the meeting, Allyn can force a meeting by getting two other owners to request it with him.

Allyn voted against the Yankees-CBS sale. So did Charles O. Finley, Kansas City owner.

Allyn contends a unanimous vote was required for the Yankees-CBS sale unless the owners had received notice 15 days in advance. The subject of possible sale had not arisen at the annual owners meeting in Chicago a few days earlier.

Rep. Celler had this to say about the acquisition of a major league baseball team by the television-radio network:

"Viewed as a vertical acquisition of a major supplier by a customer, this acquisition gives CBS one voice out of 10 in passing on its own bids for the radio and television broadcast rights to the World Series . . . the All-Star game and Game-of-The-Week broadcasts.

"It is fair to assume that CBS, as owner of radio and TV stations in New York, will exclude other networks from the radio and TV broadcast rights to Yankee home games, and it may give its owned and operated stations in other cities, such as Chicago and Los Angeles, the inside track on Yankee away-game telecasts in those cities.

"In addition, the trend may continue. The Detroit Tigers are controlled by John Fetzer, who has important broadcast interests. So, too, the Los Angeles Angels are controlled by a group headed by Gene Autry, which has substantial broadcast interests. Accordingly, this acquisition may set off a chain of similar ones.

"Indeed, the day may come when NBC ends up playing CBS in the World Series."

Ralston's Ankle Injury Clouds Net Tournament

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — Harried officials of the 84th National Doubles Tennis Championships — already clouded by the absence of top foreign players — today added Dennis Ralston's twisted ankle to their list of troubles as the tournament entered its second day.

Tournament chairman Walter Elcock hadn't recovered from the jolt of losing Mexico's second-seeded team of Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox Sunday when he received word that Ralston's ankle injury had forced him out of the final of the nearby Newport, R.I., Invitational.

★ ★ ★

Ralston, of Bakersfield, Calif., and McKinley, of San Antonio, Tex., were scheduled to open defense of their National Doubles crown today against Bob Inman of Cambridge, Mass., and Olive Kiloff of Southern Rhodesia. But despite assurances that Ralston would be able to compete, Vic Seixas, captain of the U.S. Davis Cup team, was prepared to withdraw the top-seeded pair rather than risk further injury to the young Californian.

TOP ATTRACTION

The Ralston-McKinley team is the tourney's top gate attraction, particularly since the Mexicans elected to join Australia's Roy Emerson, Fred Stolle, Tony Roche and John Newcombe in shunning the U.S. event and remaining in Europe.

Oak Brook Rides Away

★ ★ ★

Oak Brook, which led 5-2 at the half, swept all four matches with Milwaukee this season.

The Illinois club will play the Santa Barbara, Calif. Crescents Wednesday and the winner will face Tulsa, Okla. for the championship next Sunday at Milwaukee.

Tulsa gained the finals with a 7-5 victory Sunday over the San Mateo, Calif. Concar Club at Hinsdale, Ill.

New Golf Pro Wins St. Paul Tournament

ST. PAUL (AP) — Young Chuck Courtney, a freshman on the professional golf circuit, did some positive thinking, convinced himself he was a good putter and wound up with the championship in the $65,000 St. Paul Open.

★ ★ ★

The LaJolla, Calif., golfer, 23, pocketed $11,500 Sunday in taking his first tournament crown. He joined the pro tour for the first time in January.

SCRAMBLES

Courtney overtook a scrambled field early Sunday and shot a five-under-par 66 for the second straight day. His 72-hole total of 272 was 12-under-par for the Keller course and put him three shots ahead of Charlie Sifford of Los Angeles, Jack McGowan of Largo, Fla., and Rod Funseth of Spokane.

★ ★ ★

Courtney had a feeling when he came here that maybe it was time for him to start winning.

"I'd been playing good golf for the past few weeks, and nothing was happening," he said, "all I lacked was the putting. So, for this tournament, I told myself I was a good putter. That seemed to do the trick."

Courtney had critical putts for pars on the ninth, 10th and 11th holes — from four to seven feet — and each rolled in. On the 12th he had a tough downhill, sidehill five-footer for a birdie, and rolled it into the cup. His putts on the 13th and 14th went "right to the bottom of the cup," said Courtney, "when they bounced back up."

On the 220-yard 15th hole he knew he had succeeded. Already leading by three shots, Courtney hit a low, screaming four-wood tee shot that put the ball 10 inches from the hole.

"When I saw that ball go up there to the stick, I knew I only had to hold onto the club the rest of the way in order to win," he said.

Chicago Blasts Hit 2 Buildings

Latest in Long Series of Business Attacks

CHICAGO (AP) — Investigators were seeking clues today to two more attacks on Chicago area businesses — the latest in a long series of bombings and arsons.

A gasoline-fed fire at a west suburban restaurant and the bombing of a south suburban tool and die plant Sunday came two days after a special grand jury was called to probe the wave of attacks.

The bombing and fire brought the total to 71 in the Chicago area since January 1962. None has been solved.

The fire charred the rear section of an old farm house in Hillside being remodeled to open later this month as an eating place — Lubelle's restaurant and cocktail lounge.

BURNED REMAINS

Directly across the street from Lulubelle's stands the burned - out remains of another restaurant, the Lilac Lodge, which closed in May after arsonists apparently touched off a blaze there. Both places are owned by Joseph Wilkos and his son, Robert.

The elder Wilkos testified in 1958 before a congressional committee investigating possible union racketeering in Chicago area restaurants. However, Robert Wilkos said he does not believe the testimony figured in either arson case.

★ ★ ★

Public Won't Let Him

Buster Keaton Can't Retire

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — "I could retire mighty easy," says classic comedian Buster Keaton. But his public—or maybe it's Keaton—won't let him.

THOMAS

Buster bought a retirement home in the San Fernando Valley with the proceeds from his film biography, but he sees less of it than he'd like. The reason: The revival of the Keaton art continues to flourish.

His silent features, with nothing added but a musical score, have been drawing crowds in Europe. Buster owns 10 of the old comedies, plus numerous shorts, and plans to release them abroad and in this country.

He's busy with new films, too. He just returned from New York where he starred in an avant garde movie for Samuel Beckett, "Waiting for Godot."

"I never did find out what it was all about," said the comedian. "Becket was always on the set, and once I asked him, 'How do you get all these crazy ideas? Is it because you had Welsh rarebit the night before?' He just smiled and walked away."

Now Old Frozenface has stuck a feather in his pork-pie hat and is playing Chief Rotten Eagle in "Pajama Party," a new concoction from the makers of the beach-party pictures. It's his first long role in films for many years; he has done cameos in Chaplin's "Limelight," "Around the World in 80 Days," "Huckleberry Finn" and "It's a Mad World."

"I tried to convince the boys to be comedians first and skaters second, but I failed," Buster sighed.

MONEY SIDELINE

And he has made a lucrative sideline of television commercials. While in New York he appeared in a Keystone Cop sequence for Ford trucks and he has huckstered for headache remedies and other products.

"Those commercials are jimdandies," he commented. "I got paid twice for the Ford job, once for each time it will be shown. Some of the others pay each time they appear, and that adds up nicely."

★ ★ ★

His next assignment sounds like a dream. He will star in a 16-minute short for Canadian National Railways to extoll the joys of railroad travel through Canada. The filming will take four weeks, during which he will tour the scenic wonders in his own railroad car.

"And I insisted on putting it in my contract that I would be served wild duck twice a week," said Buster, almost smiling at the thought.

GOOD EATING

At 67 Buster shows evidence of good eating, but he has lost little of his agility. His nickname came from his being tossed about the stage in his family's vaudeville act. No doubt retiring to the San Fernando Valley sounds appealing to him, but the compulsion to make people laugh seems stronger.

He talked proudly of the breadth of his experience: "I started in a medicine show. I did burlesque, then vaudeville, movies, radio, television. I played circuses in Europe. Last year I toured with 'Once Upon a Mattress' on the stage and even played it in the round. I've done everything — except grand opera."

SHARPENING UP FOR ROLE—Buster Keaton clowns around with blonde actress Bobbi Shaw on a set for his coming picture "Pajama Party." It will be Keaton's first lengthy film role in many years.

persons were reported killed during the weekend in renewed tribal clashes in the Northeastern Nigerian Tiv Division. Houses were looted and burned in the village of Ulam, a police spokesman said.

Flames Strike U.S. Sub Pier in Scotland Loch

DUNOON, Scotland (AP) — U.S. Navy men bolted for safety early today from flames which destroyed a 250-yard-long pier serving the U.S. Polaris base in Scotland.

The blaze raced along the timber pier where an American sailor was waiting for a boat to take him out to the Polaris depot ship, USS Hunley, at anchor in Holy Loch.

Shouting the alarm, the sailor galloped down the pier. British and American security men spilled out of a gatehouse and joined the rush to safety.

Shriver Nomination to Senate Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson sends to the Senate today the formal nomination of Sargent Shriver as director of the new antipoverty program.

In announcing at a news conference Saturday that he will ask confirmation of the man long slated for the job, Johnson described it as a very important assignment and praised Shriver for an excellent job as director of the Peace Corps.

Shriver is expected to continue as Peace Corps director while handling his new duties.

Ex-Churchill Husband Dies at Performance

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Vic Oliver, 66, British stage and television performer who once was married to Sir Winston Churchill's daughter, collapsed and died Saturday night during the final performance of "Distinguished Gathering." Oliver, a native of Vienna, was divorced from Sarah Churchill in 1945.

Uses Plane in Claim State District Too Big

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — A candidate for Republican state senatorial nomination used an airplane Saturday to help his argument that legislative reapportionment made his district—the 36th—too big.

Guy Vander Jagt set out to visit each of the 15 counties in the 10,000-square-mile northwestern lower Michigan district, but said in 12 hours his air tour could cover only eight counties.

Follow Rules When New Term Starts

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

By the time a student is in high school, he has to begin assuming responsibility for his own scholastic achievements — or lack of them.

A counselor discussing the matter with one student gave this summary, "Your parents have tried to do what they can for you. For the past ten years the school has tried. Both have failed to stimulate you to the scholarship of which you are capable. Obviously if there is to be any improvement this year YOU are going to have to do it!"

The start of a new school term finds students filled with enthusiasm. But enthusiasm without definite plans brings little lasting results.

Here is a set of plans and procedures which has helped make school more pleasant and interesting and at the same time, brought better grades.

* * *

TAKE CHARGE of your education; formulate a plan of attack for each course and keep revising them as you discover improved techniques.

GO BEYOND the assignments in each course, realizing that 15 or 20 minutes of thinking about what you have learned and what is coming up next is valuable.

STUDY EFFECTIVELY for each course.

Glance through and try to anticipate what you are going to find out. Finally, recite back at the end of each section what you have learned.

CONTROL LISTENING SKILLS. Read or outline ahead. Think about what is being said in class and fit it in with what you already know. Learn as you listen.

Keep the over-all pattern of the course clear in your mind.

* * *

STRIVE TO IMPROVE your handwriting through practice because you need ease in handwriting to transfer your thoughts to paper.

KEEP A RECORD of assignments and keep your homework up to date.

SET A HIGH STANDARD OF HOMEWORK and, since first impressions are important, turn in your first assignments on time and in good order.

SET HIGH PERFORMANCE GOALS.

Read and reread a section that has been difficult to comprehend until you can understand the material with rapid "sight" reading.

CONTINUE TO PLAN your classroom thinking day after day until it becomes second nature.

DRESS AND ACT like the kind of student you wish to become, even if you have to think carefully each day until proper dress and action become habits.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

A letter from Denver reads: "My opponents rattled off six diamond tricks against my three no-trump contract in less time than it takes to write about it.

JACOBY

"I had no trouble with the rest of the trick but we could have made an easy game in hearts. Should my partner have bid three hearts over my two no-trumps? Or is the book that told me to bid two no-trump wrong? My hand is a perfect two no-trump bid, isn't it?"

The answer to his first question is that his partner's rebid to three no-trump was eminently correct.

The answer to his second question is that to the best of my knowledge and belief no book on bridge has ever recommended a two no-trump response to a one club opening with this player's hand.

3 N.T.	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead—♦A

That answers his third question at the same time. His hand is far from being a perfect two no-trump response.

* * *

He has the right distribution and the right number of points but he doesn't have the right stoppers.

The two no-trump response must have stoppers in all unbid suits and this hand doesn't have anything that looks like a diamond stopper.

Furthermore, the hand contains a pretty nice four card heart suit and it is good general policy never to respond in no-trump when you can show a major suit at the one level.

♥♣ CHIRP Sense ♦♠

Q—The bidding has been:

South	West	North	East
1♦	Pass	1♥	Pass
1 N.T.	Pass	2♣	Pass
3♣	Pass	3♦	Pass

You, South, hold: ♠K4 ♥K4 ♦A10875 ♣K754

What do you do?

A—Pass. Your partner only bid two clubs at his last turn and it looks as if your kind of spades isn't going to be worth much.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding two clubs your partner jumps to three clubs over your one no-trump. What do you do now?

Answer Tomorrow

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Tuesday

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): AMBITIONS spotlighted. You can look far ahead . . . make sound decisions. Best course is one of DELIBERATION. Refuse to act on impulse. You don't have to achieve all in one day.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Good inner aspect — coincides with journeys, added knowledge and INSPIRATION. You are able to make progress where previously you were stopped. Day when you strive.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): If you survey situation . . . you will come out on top. Tendency is to throw good money after bad — resist it. Be strong in discipline. You can make this a day marked by achievement.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Don't be premature. There is still much to learn, gain. But some basic changes are required, if you know this . . . you are in fine shape. Otherwise, there could be disillusionment.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): You gain prestige if you are diplomatic, COOPERATIVE. Adhere to basic principles. Strive for family harmony. Don't take easiest ways. The BEST pays! Stress LOGICAL APPROACH.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Stick within rules and regulations. You may be able to stretch a point. But don't go too far! Be agreeable of much, however, you gain most by being CAREFUL.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Key is PRACTICAL approach. Time on your side. Need is for patience. You have something of value, but others may attempt to discourage you. Be CONFIDENTIAL. You hold "winning hand."

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): You will receive definite proof that efforts have been constructive. You ARE moving in right direction. Now be willing to share of otherpr. Stop dwelling upon ivy.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Make contacts. Express ideas. Time when financial advancement is possible. In personal life, show appreciation for loved ones. What you possess is of great value.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Lunar cycle high. Circumstances now in your favor. Your judgment accurate. You are now better able to make profitable decisions. But you must GET STARTED.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): Trying be hard could create tension. Key is relaxation. Get tasks accomplished in QUIET WAY. Value privacy. Don't be unnecessarily secretive, mysteryy. Don't tell all you know.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Be ready for surprises, inservice friends, bodies, strikes. Day for expansion. Don't be satisfied with second best. You are approaching FULFILLMENT OF AMBITIONS area of chart.

* * *

IF TUESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you would make excellent doctor, attorney, psychiatrist, analyst. You have knack for getting to heart of matter. Many come to you with their problems. Important you also learn to help yourself.

* * *

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Tug of war exists between conservative and other elements. Much debate. But there is very little direct action. CAPRICORN comes out on top. PISCES learns valuable lesson.

In Gross Product

Michigan Richer Than Most Nations

By AL SANDER

EAST LANSING (AP) — If Michigan were an independent nation, it would be the 11th richest in the non-Communist world in terms of gross "national" product, says a Michigan State University agricultural economist.

Michigan's gross product of $30.6 billion in 1961 is equal to more than three-fourths of combined gross domestic product of the Scandanavian countries, equal to 70 per cent of all of Africa and to half of all of South America, says economist Arthur Mauch.

* * *

NATIONS RANKED

The nations that ranked ahead of Michigan, and their production, that year were:

The United States (472.7 billion), West Germany ($66.6 billion), United Kingdom ($65.7 billion), France ($52.8 billion), Japan ($43.7 billion), Canada ($32.4 billion), Indian ($31.3 billion—1960 estimate), and Italy ($30.6 billion).

* * *

Somewhere among the top 12 are the Soviet Union and Red China, he said, but their figures are kept secret.

The state is far ahead of 12th place Brazil with $16.6 billion, he said.

PRODUCTION ROSE

In the following two years, he said, Michigan's production rose by more than 29 per cent to $26.6 billion. That was faster than the rise of the U. S. totals, a climb of 24 per cent to $585.1 billion.

* * *

Six other states rank ahead of Michigan—New York, California, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Texas.

"So, if we stretch our imagination and visualize all the states as nations, Michigan would rank 17th in a field of more than 200," Mauch said.

AUTO INDUSTRY

The automotive industry, of course, is the largest single contributor to Michigan's "GNP." It accounts for $5.8 billion in wealth produced in the state in 1963.

The state ranks first in the nation in production of natural salines, second in iron ore, third in salt, fourth in cement and fifth in copper.

* * *

Boosted by its fruit crops (50 per cent of the national total of tart cherries; and average yearly productions of apples, peaches, plums, grapes and cherries of more than 300,000 tons) and other crops (40 million bushels of winter wheat and 100 million bushels of corn a year), agriculture is the state's second largest industry, especially when related businesses are totaled in.

FARM RECEIPTS

"Agricultural cash receipts in 1961 amounted to $763.3 million," Mauch said, adding:

"When income related to agricultural businesses, such as processors, distributors and others, is added, the total agricultural cash receipts would be in the neighborhood of $2 million."

* * *

Agricultural income accounts for only one-ninth of the total added, "but it's still higher than the total gross domestic product in countries making up 70 per cent of the world."

Another giant is the tourist industry, which contributed $27 million to the 1963 total and is expected to pass the $1 billion mark this year.

Exchange Plan Called Success

11 Midwest Colleges in 'Common Market'

EAST LANSING (AP) — An educational "common market" involving 11 Midwestern universities has met with success in its first year of operation, Dr. Stanley F. Salwak of Purdue University said today.

The traveling scholar program of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation has enabled graduate students in more than 20 disciplines to cross institutional lines for short-term work, he said.

* * *

Salwak, director of the CIC, said the plan has attracted nationwide attention, adding that "applications for the fall and spring terms indicate that the program will be used even more in the coming year."

Participating in the program are the universities of Purdue, Michigan State, Michigan, Chicago, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Northwestern, Ohio State and Wisconsin.

* * *

Students in the program can take advantage of special course offerings, research opportunities, unique laboratories and library collections at other universities, Salwak said.

One of the major objectives of the program, Salwak said, "is to avoid costly duplication of facilities and expenditures wherever possible."

Ask Armistice Parley

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The United Nations Command announced today that a meeting of the Military Armistice Commission has been called by the Communists for Wednesday at the joint security area near Panmunjom. No reson was given.

Trading Slow

Mart Edges Irregularly Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market edged irregularly higher early this afternoon but the pace of trading was the slowest in a week.

Minor gains by key stocks outnumbered losers.

A few specially-situated issues made wide moves, one way or another.

★ ★ ★

The auto stocks remained pretty close to dead center as the Big Three motor manufacturers made known their counteroffer to the labor contract demands of the United Auto Workers.

Wall Street awaited union reaction to the demands and a clue as to whether the industry and the union could adjust differences without a strike.

★ ★ ★

Premier Khrushchev's intervention in the Cyprus situation was blamed for some nervousness in the London stock market and may have added to the cautious atmosphere on the New York Stock Exchange.

First-hour trading totaled only 760,000 shares, the smallest since last Monday's 750,000.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .5 at 317.0 with industrials up 1.2, rails up .2 and utilities off .1.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Trading was moderate. Mack Trucks warrants slipped about 2 points in sympathy with the common stock.

Corporate bonds were mixed to slightly higher. U.S. Government bonds were generally unchanged.

Red Proposal Like Capitalism

Suggests Changes in Soviet Economy

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet economist today proposed scrapping the nation's obsolete system of management of economy. What he proposed to take its place was something that sounded like capitalist methods.

Economist Viktor Trapeznikov suggested reforms that would give individual industrial enterprises far greater autonomy and in fact base the Soviet economic system more on the simple law of supply and demand.

* * *

The system under which factories got production norms should be dropped, Trapeznikov said in an article in Pravda, the Communist party organ.

"It is time to abandon the obsolete method of management of economy founded on decreed norms and go over to the simpler, cheaper and more effective economic regulation of the work of enterprises," he wrote.

INCENTIVE SYSTEM

Trapeznikov proposed that a new system of incentives should be introduced to encourage production, develop techniques and increase factory profits.

In printing the article, Pravda — voice of the Soviet communist party — invited comments and opinions from other experts.

Along with economic stimulation of standards of production and profits, Trapeznikov also proposed economic sanctions for bad work, such as fines for delayed deliveries, which he said had worked effectively in capitalist countries.

Trapeznikov also suggested an index system "to insure effective economic leverage on production." The index, he said, is profit.

NOT REALLY

The economist admitted that what he was proposing might smack of capitalist method — but it wasn't really.

President of Italy Still in Grave Condition

"There was no significant change during the night in the president's condition, which remains grave," the doctors said.

Secret Landing on Malaysia?

Indonesia Terrorists Reportedly Hunted

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (UPI) — An undisclosed number of Indonesians made secret landings on the southern Malaysia seacoast earty today, and police and soldiers were rushed into the area, the Malaysian government announced.

* * *

Information Minister Senu Bin Abdul Rahman announced that eight "Indonesian terrorists" were captured during early contacts.

He said the rest of the Indonesians were expected to be "captured or annihilated" during mopping - up operations.

Senu said a full report on the incident would be sent to the United Nations Security Council

* * *

The landings occurred near Pontian in Johore State, about 20 miles northwest of Singapore. Pontian is a coastal town on Malacca Strait.

ON ANNIVERSARY

The landings were apparently made to mark Indonesia's 19th independence anniversary to day.

Indonesia has been conducting a guerrilla war and economic boycott against Malaysia since the federation was founded 11 months ago, charging that it is a cover for the perpetuation of British imperialism in Southeast Asia.

Most of the guerrilla activity has taken place, however, on the island of Borneo, where Malaysia and Indonesia share a 1,000-mile jungle frontier.

* * *

Sailing Ship Docks, on View in Detroit

The Norwegian sailing ship "Christian Radich" arrived in Detroit at 9 a.m. today on its rounds of Great Lakes ports.

The vessel, which is on a training cruise, will dock at the Civic Center at the foot of Woodward, and be open for public inspection from noon to 4 p.m. today and tomorrow.

There is a donation of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children who wish to tour the ship.

Two Arrested Men Get GOP Campaign Posts

Republican campaign posts for Richard Huttenlocher, 52 E. Church, Clarkston, and James Aldrich, 55 Mohawk, were announced today by the Oakland County GOP.

Aldrich will chairman the Republican voter registration drive in the 4th campaign district in Pontiac. Huttenlocher will head the party's door-to-door finance drive in the north county 1st campaign district.

An attache case that contains a concealed microphone and a battery-operated tape recorder can record two hours of conversation at a distance of 25 feet.

Little Girl's Story: a Tiger Sat on Me

KIRBY MISPERTON, England (AP) — Sheba meant no harm when she sat on Sally Layton, 8. But the result was alarm, confusion, and five stitches in Sally's head. Sheba is a tigress, weighs 136 pounds, and is 14 months old.

* * *

Holds Gun on Thief

Woman Nabs Intruder

Joyce Morgan, 26, who works for Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., called police shortly after 5 a.m. and said there was a man in her apartment.

* * *

"Is he still there?" asked dispatcher Donald N. Donaway.

"I'm standing here holding a gun on him," Miss Morgan said.

'DON'T SHOOT'

"Don't shoot unless you have to," Donaway said.

"I already have," Miss Morgan replied. She was told police were on their way.

When a squad arrived at the apartment, 1845 Summit Place, they found a frightened 17-year-old boy in Miss Morgan's dressing room while she stood guard outside the door.

Miss Morgan said she was awakened after the youth entered her apartment by breaking the night chain on the door. She got out of bed to check, saw someone walking toward the bathroom, grabbed a target pistol from the nightstand beside her bed and fired a shot as the intruder reached to turn off the light in a dressing room just off the bathroom.

VICTIM SHAKING

"I was shaking so that I had to hold the gun with both hands," Miss Morgan said.

She said that while police were on the way, the youth offered to return $5 he had taken from her purse but she refused it. Neither would she permit him, she said, to put on the shoes he had taken off for silent sneaking.

* * *

Police said the youth also had a piece of costume jewelry which he admitted taking.

Police said the youth apparently was nicked by a splinter as the bullet passed through a door.

COMMERCE LAKE LEVEL CONTROL
Notice of Letting of Lake Level Control Contract and Review of Assessments

Notice is hereby given that I, Daniel W. Barry, County Drain Commissioner of the County of Oakland, State of Michigan, acting as Agent for the County of Oakland, will, on the 25th day of August, 1964, at the office of the County Drain Commissioner, 550 South Telegraph Road, Pontiac, Michigan, receive, open, and publicly announced for the construction of a certain project known and designated as the "Commerce Lake Level Control System" heretofore established in the Township of Commerce in said County.

Soviet 'Cats' Want to Play 'Real Jazz'

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — Now that they've gotten out of the bag, two Soviet "cats" said today they would like to go to the United States to play "real jazz."

★ ★ ★

After their arrival by plane from Tokyo where they left a touring Soviet variety troupe, the defecting musicians said they had been practicing jazz more or less secretly in Moscow for several years.

★ ★ ★

Bassoonist Igor Berecshtis, 31, said the urge to play "real jazz" overwhelmed him and his companion, clarinetist Boris Midney, 27. He said they met American jazz men during Benny Goodman's visit to the Soviet Union two years ago.

U.S. officials accompanied the musicians from Tokyo, where they requested political asylum Thursday.

'HELPING OUT'

A U.S. spokesman said American officials in West Germany would be "helping out" while the two await a final reply to their request for political asylum.

First Jump Is Fatal for KC Parachutist

★ ★ ★

Don Cooper, president of a sky-diving club and pilot of the jump plane, said Whitzel leaped at 2,700 feet and opened his parachute. The small pilot chute which pulls out the big one became entangled in his arm, Cooper said, and Whitzel waited too long to open his reserve chute.

GOP Campaign School for Governor Hopefuls

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Republican gubernatorial candidates from east of the Mississippi were in Pittsburgh today for a two-day campaign school conducted by party experts and some GOP incumbents.

The school, sponsored by the Republican National Committee, is to give instruction on campaign financing, scheduling, press relations, polls, advertising and other matters.

Connie Francis Weds Public Relations Man

Lodge Explains SE Asia Policy

PARIS (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, former U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, was received today by acting French Foreign Minister Louis Joxe to explain details of U.S. policy in Southeast Asia.

Lodge was accompanied to the foreign ministry by U.S. Ambassador Charles Bohlen. Charles Lucet, the ministry's director of political affairs, also sat in on the talk.

Lodge was received by Joxe, who is acting for both vacationing Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and Premier Georges Pompidou.

★ ★ ★

ASKS MEETING

De Gaulle has called for a new meeting of the 1954 Geneva Conference on Indochina. The United States has rejected such a meeting, which Johnson has said would "ratify terrorism."

De Gaulle also has called for an end to the fighting and the removal of foreign influence in the region.

2nd Flame Honors JFK

The flame, similar to that at the grave of the assassinated president in Arlington National Cemetery, is at the base of a bust of Kennedy, unveiled yesterday.

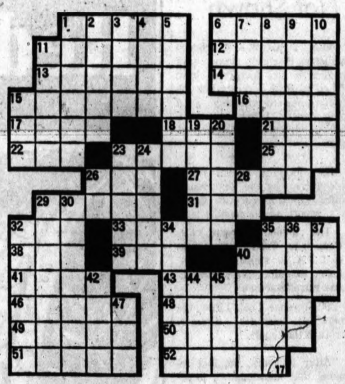
IBSEN'S WORKS



In Foreign Policy Discussion

Humphrey Warns Against Rash Acts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said today it would be a tragedy if "rash words here at home were to inspire rash actions in Southeast Asia."

In a speech prepared for the Los Angeles Town Hall, the Minnesota Democrat, frequently mentioned as a possible running mate for President Johnson, warned that there is no quick or easy victory to be won in Southeast Asia.

"The independence and security of South Viet Nam will be achieved only in a hard, costly, complex struggle — which will be waged chiefly in South Viet Nam," he said.

"One would hope that discussions here at home during an electoral campaign would not lead to misunderstandings abroad. It would be a tragedy if rash words here at home were to inspire actions in Southeast Asia."

NO REFERENCE

Humphrey did not refer to the Republican party or to its presidential nominee, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, by name.

He noted Johnson's speech last week before the American Bar Association in which the President cited "the dangers imposed by those impulsive spokesmen who are eager to enlarge the conflict in Southeast Asia."

★ ★ ★

"The events of the past two weeks do not alter the basic fact that the war will be won or lost in South Viet Nam," Humphrey said. "This remains the principal battlefield and this will be the scene of victory or defeat."

"This does not mean — as our action in the Gulf of Tonkin indicated — that North Viet Nam will remain a privileged sanctuary regardless of provocation," he said. "Further attacks will be met with equal firmness. We dare not ignore such aggression."

NO 'PAPER TIGER'

Humphrey said U.S. actions in the Gulf of Tonkin during the past two weeks following attacks on American warships from North Vietnamese PT boats "demonstrate to our friends that our power remains preeminent and our devotion to freedom firm, and to our foes that the United States is no 'paper tiger'."

Movie Star to Play Part in Presidential Campaign

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Do you think TV and film stars should go out electioneering in the President Johnson-Sen. Goldwater battle?

"I've often castigated Show Business people, like Frank Sinatra and Janet Leigh, for campaigning openly," Polly Bergen told me at Lindy's.

"But all of a sudden I feel VIOLENT, I've changed my philosophy. This campaign's too important. If I have any ability to sway people, I'm going to use it!"

WILSON

Polly refused to say — for publication — whom she'll stump for in the California campaign, though you might be able to guess. Her movie, "Kisses for My President," with Polly as the first female Chief Executive, and Fred MacMurray as the President's husband, opens Aug. 21, just before the Democratic convention.

"I don't want to get the picture involved, but once it's opened and established, I'll get very active," she said.

★ ★ ★

"Do you think all actors should campaign?" I asked.

"I've always felt actors should listen to people who are authorities on politics," she answered. "If you are politically educated enough to answer both sides, and only then, do you have a right to campaign."

★ ★ ★

"And do you think you are educated enough?" I asked Polly.

"NO,"—she jabbed me in the ribs—"but I'm going to anyhow!"

Treats Snake Bite, Travels 50 Miles

Davis was bitten Saturday by a water moccasin in a remote area 50 miles northwest of here, he said.

The mayor used his snake bite kit to treat himself, then walked for an hour and a half back to his car and drove to Albany.

Miami Beach's police department has 45 employes for every 10,000 residents, the highest proportion of any tourist city. Atlantic City with 43 and Washington, D.C., with 42 per 10,000 are next.

Rusk Warns Dems Against 'Reckless' Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk warned today against "reckless words or deeds" while telling Democratic platform writers "we do approach our problems soberly and responsibly."

With this claim of balance in the pursuit of foreign affairs, Rusk launched the platform committee's formal work of writing a party declaration for the presidential campaign.

* * *

A roaring debate over foreign policy seems assured. The Republican platform charges the Johnson administration with "weakness before communism" while some Democratic spokesmen have said a Goldwater administration foreign policy would be dangerously impulsive.

NO MENTION

* * *

"President Kennedy faced the missiles in Cuba and President Johnson the attacks on American naval vessels in the Gulf of Tonkin," Rusk said. "We do not draw back from the confrontation between the free world and the world of coercion."

* * *

He went on: "Only once in history, in October 1962, (the date of the Cuba missile crisis) have nuclear powers come face to face with imminent possibility of nuclear exchange.

"It is not an experience to be lightly repeated."

'GOOD RESULTS'

Insisting that "our basic national policies are producing good results," Rusk said: "This is no time either to quit, or to indulge in reckless deeds or words which would cost us the confidence of both allies and other free nations and stimulate irrational action by our adversaries.

"Under President Lyndon B. Johnson, we are on the right track. Let us keep on it."

* * *

Rusk said this country wants "victory for peace and freedom." But, he said, it must be won without a great war if possible — "The devastation of a nuclear war is not the sort of 'victory' we want."

"Therefore," the secretary continued, "our policy toward our Communist adversaries is something more than implacable hostility. We must stop Communist aggression. At the same time, we must seek areas of possible agreement on matters of common interest and mutual advantage.

OPEN SOCIETIES

"We must also do what we can to encourage trends toward independent and more open societies within the Communist world."

D.C. Dream Comes True; Loop Road Is Set to Open

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new 65-mile beltway encircling the nation's capital is opened to traffic today.

The $189-million high-speed artery bypasses the traffic clot of the inner city and cuts through the slugglish crawl of the urban sprawl.

It is designed as a boon to distance travelers seeking to avoid involvement in the metropolitan morass.

It brings into closer relationship the business and social interests of the capital's satellite communities.

It already has generated shopping centers and service establishments and enhanced property values along its route.

36-YEAR DREAM

The dream of a fast and comfortable passage around Washington — beset by government-inspired traffic and complicated by circles and parks — has been germinating for more than 36 years.

As far back as 1928 officials of the National Capital Park and Planning Commission asked Congress for a by-pass around the district, whose highways even then were considered crowded. Congress failed to approve the plan, but the idea did not die.

Actually, the gigantic undertaking was beyond the reach of neighboring Maryland and Virginia until passage of the federal Highway Act of 1956 which allowed the federal government to pay 90 per cent of the cost of interstate highway projects.

Removal of barricades on the last portion of the Maryland section today completes what is known as the outer loop.

INNER LOOP

Still to come is an inner loop of throughways piercing the heart of the capital. This is planned as a complex of depressed roadways, including a tunnel under the Lincoln Memorial, another at the foot of the Capitol and a network of ramps on the Washington side of the new Theodore Roosevelt Bridge that spans the Potomac River to Virginia.

Opening of the new beltway advances the centrifical theory of traffic flow already in use in Boston and Baltimore, the only urban centers the Bureau of Public Roads lists as true beltway cities.

However, the bureau's list of cities planning circumferential highways is growing. It includes Cincinnati, Columbus and Dayton, Ohio; Atlanta, Ga., Dallas, Tex., Detroit, Mich., Houston, Tex., Indianapolis, Ind., Louisville, Ky., Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn., Providence, R. I., St. Louis, Mo., Salt Lake City, Utah and San Antonio, Tex.

'Cancer Link to Cigarettes Not Shown'

NEW YORK (AP) — A tobacco industry research group says studies it has sponsored have failed to show a direct link between cigarette smoking and lung cancer, heart and circulatory ailments or stomach ulcers.

* * *

The group's annual report yesterday was the first issued since the U.S. surgeon general's report seven months ago.

The industry group, the Council for Tobacco Research — U.S.A., is supported by tobacco manufacturers, growers and warehousemen.

* * *

"After 10 years, the fact remains that knowledge is insufficient either to provide adequate proof of any hypothesis or to define the basic mechanisms of health and disease with which we are concerned."

Hoffa Gets 5-Year Term

Gets Fine of $10,000

CHICAGO (AP)—Teamster President James R. Hoffa was sentenced today for four concurrent terms of five years in prison for fraud in obtaining huge loans from his union's multimillion-dollar pension fund. He was also fined $10,000.

CHICAGO (AP) — James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, convicted July 25 of a scheme to defraud a $280-million union pension fund, is due to appear for sentencing today.

Hoffa was convicted on three maximum of 20 years in prison and $13,000 in fines by U.S. Dist. Judge Richard B. Austin, who presided over the three-month trial.

Also to be sentenced are Hoffa's six codefendants in the trial, who were each found guilty of at least one count of conspiracy and one count of fraud.

The men were convicted of fraudulently arranging more than $20 million in loans from the pension fund and illegally diverting more than a million to their own use.

On Aug. 10, attorneys for Hoffa and the others filed a lengthy motion for acquittal or new trial in the case.

Fifty-six listed reasons for acquittal included what was alleged to be prejudicial humor by Judge Austin. Austin will rule on the motions today.

The conviction last month was Hoffa's second within six months. In March, he was found guilty of jury tampering in Chattanooga, Tenn., and was sentenced to eight years in prison on the charge. He has appealed that decision.

Claims Goldwater on Main Track as He Modifies Views

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said today he believes Barry Goldwater has put his presidential campaign "on the main track" by modifying his position on major issues.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., agreed that Sen. Goldwater "has given himself a much better billing for the campaign."

But Javits said in a separate interview Goldwater "now has to travel the route" to show that he really means to reject extremism, push civil rights and work for world peace.

Speaking for the small band of Republicans who still have not agreed to campaign for the national ticket, Javits said: "We are going to stay where we are while we observe how he travels the route. We welcome the changes in words and intentions. Now let's see about the performance."

Dirksen, who put Goldwater's name in nomination at the San Francisco convention despite their differences over civil rights legislation, said reaction from across the country indicates the Arizonan satisfied most elements of the party with the statments he made last week at a GOP leadership conference in Hershey, Pa.

★ ★ ★

FIRE BLASTS

Johnson told a news conference Saturday that Goldwater has done "a disservice to our national security. A disservice to peace, and for that matter, a disservice to the entire free world" by saying the President seemed to authorize the use of nuclear weapons in his orders for retaliation against North Viet Nam.

By name Johnson accused both Goldwater and the GOP vice presidential nominee, Rep. William E. Miller of New York, of making loose charges. The President said he had specified "conventional weapons only" in his orders.

The Goldwater camp fired back immediately with a statement that "now perhaps the President will attempt to explain whether his advance

Viet Leader Tightens Grip

Khanh Near Dictator; Cabinet to Be Named

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—With his grip on the government tightened by election to the presidency, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh plans to appoint a war cabinet to concentrate on the campaign against the Communists.

Khanh stepped up from premier after South Viet Nam's 62-man military junta approved a new constitution yesterday creating a presidential system with near-dictatorial power for the president in an emergency.

The junta placed only one restraint on Khanh. It insisted on a constitutional provision requiring the president to consult with the junta — the Military Revolutionary Council — before issuing decrees.

Asked if he intended to take the role of military dictator, Khanh replied: "For six months I have been head of a totalitarian regime without being totalitarian. I can head a dictatorial regime without being a dictator."

Government sources said Khanh probably will name cabinet members within a week.

A ranking minister commented: "It will be like reshuffling a deck of cards, but all the cards will remain in the deck."

Khanh replaced Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, who held the presidency as figurehead chief of state. Although Minh remains as an adviser to the government, the shakeup removed the popular general from the center of power.

Minh, a key figure in the overthrow of the Ngo Dinh Diem regime last November, lost control of the military junta in Khanh's coup d'etat Jan. 30 but retained his titular office. Some observers suggested that Minh may have incurred Khanh's disfavor by showing sympathy to the French proposal for the neutralization of Viet Nam.

As for the possibility of a more active U.S. role in South Viet Nam, Khanh said "Everything we do is done in close cooperation with American authorities. All military tasks will depend on the requirements of the situation."

Big Three' Package' Delivered to UAW

DETROIT (AP)—A wide range of economic improvements, including higher wages, larger pensions and earlier retirement, were offered the United Auto Workers today by the industry's Big Three — General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

For these, the companies proposed three-year contracts to replace similar ones expiring two weeks from today.

There was no comment from union sources, pending study, but UAW President Walter P. Reuther forecast beforehand the offers "will not be realistic."

Increased vacation and holiday pay also were offered by the automakers, along with a proposal to refund the tuition of any employes furthering their education through spare-time studies.

The offers, presented separately, virtually paralleled each other, as first company proposals did in 1961. The union never has accepted as final a first offer.

All three companies limited their offers to economic areas.

No mention was made of at-the-plant working agreements which supplement the national contracts, and an area in which the union has raised some of its most strenuous demands thus far.

Cyprus Greeks Urge Red Deal

Ask Makarios to Go to Moscow for Arms

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Bouyed by a pledge of Soviet support, Greek Cypriots are urging President Makarios to go to Moscow and negotiate an arms deal with the Russians.

★ ★ ★

Greek Cypriots of every political shade jubilantly greeted the Soviet Union's offer to help if Cyprus is invaded, and Soviet Premier Khrushchev's warning to Turkey that an attack on Cyprus might boomerang.

The right-wing weekly Ethniki hailed the weekend development as "a great turning point" for the Greek Cypriot cause. It even suggested that Makarios, a Greek Orthodox archbishop, bring Communists into his cabinet to show his gratitude. Other editorials called upon Makarios to fly immediately to Moscow.

There has been no official response to the Soviets. One report said Foreign Minister Spyros Kyprianou would leave for Moscow Friday to begin talks on military aid.

The U.N. peace effort suffered an unexpected setback when

Negroes Riot Near Chicago

25 Are Arrested, Pair Shot in Melee

DIXMOOR, Ill. (AP) — One thousand angry Negroes rioted for five hours last night before 200 police with shotguns restored order to this predominantly Negro suburb south of Chicago.

More than 50 persons — most of them white — were injured when Negroes stoned them in their autos.

A Negro and a white man were shot but not seriously injured. At least 39 persons required hospital care. Four were hospitalized in good condition.

Seven of the injured were under 10 years old. One was a 7-week-old infant.

AREA BLOCKADED

At the height of the rioting, police blockaded the six-block area where about 20 autos were stoned. Tear gas bombs were used to break up the mobs.

"There was terrific violence in those streets," said Lt. Mervin Horsmann of the sheriff's police of Cook County. "We expect it to continue."

NEGRO ACCUSED

Police said the disturbance had been brewing since Saturday night when a Negro woman was accused of trying to steal a bottle of gin from a liquor store.

Negroes said the woman was beaten by the white store owner in the quarrel.

Protesting Negroes demonstrated Saturday night and returned last night in greater force.

"The civil rights leaders lost control," said Horsmann, who had been on duty in the area for two days.

Three Killed on Roads in County

The Traffic accidents in Oakland County took the lives of a Clawson mother, her infant son and a 19-year-old Lake Orion youth yesterday, bringing the county's high way oll to 116 for the year.

A Bloomfield Township couple was also killed yesterday in a head-on collision near Corbin, Ky.

Dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak last night were Mrs. Charles L. Carter, 39, of 79 W. Tacoma, Clawson, and her eight-month-old son, Amon.

They were killed when the car in which they were riding ran off the right side of the road near the intersection of Maple and Crooks, struck a culvert and rolled over several times.

He was listed in satisfactory condition at Beaumont Hospital this morning.

Three other Carter children, escaped injury in the crash. Troy police said Mrs. Carter and the infant were thrown from the vehicle.

Also dead on arrival at Beau-

Nab Ex-Con After Chase

An ex-convict, fleeing with $543 from an armed robbery in Flint, was captured by state police Saturday afternoon after a wild chase and gun battle in Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

Held in the Oakland County Jail on $50,000 bond is Marvin James Jessee Jackson, 38, of Detroit.

A preliminary examination was set for Aug. 25.

State police from the Pontiac Post were alerted that a lone bandit who robbed the Hamady Market was headed toward Oakland County in a 1964 blue Comet.

HEADS SOUTH

Kelly spotted the car at 3:10 p.m. on I-75 and took chase. He radioed other cars and they closed in as Jackson left the expressway and headed south on Dixie toward Drayton Plains.

★ ★ ★

After a high-speed chase, Jackson hit a car driven by Mildred Lloyd, 58, of 6828 Hatchery at Frembes and Dixie.

★ ★ ★

Every Lead Being Checked

Comb Registrations for Hit-and-Run Craft

Tips in connection with the Aug. 3 death of a Cass Lake swimmer who was struck by a power boat still are coming to the Oakland County Sheriff's Department in heavy volume.

★ ★ ★

A total of $2,700 in reward money for information leading to those responsible for the hit-run death of Alan Akerley has prompted a continuous flow of information from citizens.

Sheriff's officers are checking every lead received from the public.

An intensive investigation of registrations for boats matching the description of the hit-run craft also is being conducted.

★ ★ ★

Akerley, 20, of 2184 Park Circle, Keego Harbor, was killed while swimming about 9 p.m. in a marked-off "safety" area near Dodge State Park No. 4.

OUT OF PATH

Just before he was struck by the large inboard boat, Akerley managed to push his swimming companion, Sheila Brennen, 17, of 125 Chewton, Bloomfield Township, under water and out of the path of the boat.

Miss Brennen described the boat as possibly a Chris-Craft and brown in color. There were four to six persons aboard, she added.

More Tips Come In

Boat Death Reward $2,700

Rewards for information leading to the conviction of those responsible for the boat hit-run death of Alan L. Akerley total $2,700.

The amount has prompted scores of additional tips to police who are still seeking the occupants of the boat which rammed into the 20-year-old swimmer on Aug. 3 at Cass Lake.

The Pontiac Press is offering $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of any or all guilty parties. Law enforcement officers as well as private citizens are eligible, and in cases where more than one party claims the money, final decision will be made by the county's Probate Court judges.

Another $1,000 has been offered by attorney Irwin I. Cohn of West Bloomfield Township; $300 by Sylvan Lake builder Samuel G. Warwick; $300 by the weekly boating newspaper Marina News; and $100 by a Waterford Township resident.

★ ★ ★

Additional reward offers should be made to Sheriff Frank Irons and a certified check for the amount sent to him.

Frank V. Bridge: Record Breaker

For a man who "accidentally" got into the automobile business, Frank V. Bridge has done all right.

★ ★ ★

He exudes confidence in the future of the division.

RETAIL SALESMAN

It was 1926, and he had just completed a year of school at the South Dakota School of Mines.

"I was walking home from the last day of school when it suddenly dawned on me that I needed a job," Bridge reminisced.

★ ★★ ★

"I happened to be across the street from the Buick-Oldsmobile-Packard agency, so I crossed over and asked for a job."

Hoping for a custodial or car-washing job at best, Bridge was hired as a salesman.

"I was supposed to sell used cars," he said, "but once in a while I'd outmaneuver the boss and latch on to a new-car customer."

In four years with the agency, he latched on to enough ability to land a job as a district manager in the Minneapolis zone of Buick Division.

★ ★ ★

The industry was hard hit by the Depression, however, and in 1931 Bridge was laid off.

RESUMED CAREER

He returned to the Black Hills and resumed his career in retail sales.

When things began to pick up in 1934, he returned to his former job with the Buick Division.

In 1936 he was promoted to assistant manager of the Minneapolis zone.

★ ★ ★

Five years later Bridge was named manager of the Denver Zone.

SAME POSITION

Weather to Remain Just About Same

Fair skies and little temperature change is the prediction for the Pontiac area through Wednesday. Following a dip to a low of 50 to 56 tonight, the mercury will climb to a high of 75 to 82 tomorrow.

Today in Pontiac, winds are southwest at 5 to 15 miles per hour. The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 59. By 1 p.m., the area warmed to 79.

Try to End Congress Tie-Up

AP Photofax

Apportionment Stalls Solons

Key Bills Blocked; Adjournment Fades

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders sought a solution today to the deadlock over state reapportionment that has tied up key legislation and all but dashed hopes that Congress can adjourn this week.

Neither side showed any sign of yielding in the Senate struggle over a proposal to delay court-ordered reapportionment of state legislatures that has developed into a vote-blocking filibuster.

* * *

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, chief sponsor of the proposal, says he intends to get a vote on it no matter how long it takes. Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., one of the opponents, says the fight will last "until we win."

Dirksen is seeking a two-year delay to permit Congress and the states to act on a constitutional amendment that would undo the Supreme Court's ruling that districts for both houses of state legislatures must be "substantially equal" in population. Sparsely settled rural districts now control many legislatures.

'SENSE OF CONGRESS'

Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., suggested as a compromise that the proposal be limited to a resolution stating the "sense of the Congress" that courts permit a reasonable time for reapportionment.

Dirksen brushed this aside as meaningless because it would be advisory rather than mandatory.

The debate is holding up final action on the $3.3-billion foreign aid authorization and has jammed other important bills into a tight corner as time grows short.

Even if Congress can't adjourn this week before taking off for the Democratic National Convention starting next Monday, the leaders plan only one more week after the convention to wind up affairs. That would take Congress up to Labor Day, traditional starting time for election campaigns.

OTHER BILLS

Final action still is needed on several money bills, the Appalachian development bill in which the administration has a heavy political investment and a Social Security bill to which some senators hope to attach a health care for the elderly plan.

In the House, the reapportionment fight has cost Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., the cooperation of the House Rules Committee, which he vitally needs to clear bills for floor action.

* * *

Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., committee chairman, has a solid majority of the members behind him in opposing the court's reapportionment ruling. The committee already has voted 10-4 to send to the floor a bill that would strip the federal courts of jurisdiction over state reapportionment.

McCormack is holding up the bill, and Smith is holding up any further hearings of the Rules Committee. Unless the speaker wins the power struggle, several bills, including Appalachia, will be doomed.

LONGER SESSIONS

Mansfield moved to meet the problem in the Senate by scheduling stretched-out sessions this week. He plans to bring the Senate in early and keep it late.

But some formidable talkers are lined up against the Dirksen proposal and it may take a vote of cloture — the debate-ending procedure that was used to cut off the Southern filibuster against the civil rights bill — to shut them off.

AID INJURED—A woman helps a French policeman and two men aid one of the injured after a bus carrying vacationing children plunged off a mountain road into a 230-foot-deep Alpine ravine yesterday. The bus driver said he was forced off the road by an oncoming car.

Death Toll Mounts to 17 in Plunge of French Bus

BOURG ST. MAURICE, France (AP) — The death count rose to 17 today in an Alpine bus accident which turned a children's vacation outing into tragedy.

Doctors in the hospital of Bourg St. Maurice worked to save the lives of 16 others injured when the bus went off the road Sunday and plunged 230 feet into a ravine.

The driver, Armand Lotheir, 51, who suffered severe injuries, told police he was forced off the road by an approaching car.

HIT SOFT DIRT

"I knew we were going over the edge when I felt the wheels hit the soft dirt alongside the road," Lothier said.

The bus crashed through a guard rail and landed upside down at the bottom of the ravine. Motorist helped remove the dead and injured from the wreckage.

* * *

The accident occurred in the hamlet of La Froide, about four miles from the 7,178-foot summit of Little St. Bernard, a peak in the Alpine range which includes Mt. Blanc.

FRENCH VICTIMS

ARRAS SOCIETY

Pontiac Press Names New City Editor

Richard M. Saunders, 30, has been named city editor of The Pontiac Press.

A Pontiac Press staffer for the past seven years, Saunders attended Wayne State University. He has covered Pontiac City Hall for the past three years.

* * *

Saunders took honors in the state Associated Press writing contest in 1963 with a story of a group of people trapped beneath an overturned raft on Union Lake.

Troy Development Plans May Spur Traffic Study

BIRMINGHAM — City administrators, backed by a traffic consultant, are proposing that a study be made of the traffic to be generated by a proposed Troy development.

Consultant Lloyd B. Reid reports it is possible to estimate the number of trips residents of the development will make to work, to shop and to places of entertainment, as well as those by visitors and service vehicles.

"Origin and destination surveys conducted in the Detroit area have produced information on the daily travel patterns of people that permit an accurate estimate of the number of vehicles by hours that would enter and leave the proposed housing development," he noted.

The $50-million development planned to front on Coolidge has prompted concern from residents of the neighboring Pembroke Manor Subdivision.

* * *

BACKS STUDY

Assistant City Manager R. S. Kenning, in presenting Reid's report to the commission tonight, will recommend that a study be made before commissioners decide on the design of the improvement.

"The thoroughfare widths, turn facilities, right-of-way needs and traffic control devices can readily be planned once the total traffic pattern is found," according to Reid.

"It is also possible to see what effect the added traffic will have on residential or commercial properties now in the general area."

* * *

Reid estimated that such a study would not cost more than $5,000 and could be completed within 30 days.

St. Louis, Minneapolis, Los Angeles and Chicago zones.

In 1949, he moved up to manager of the Midwest Region, with headquarters in Chicago, and a year later he was transferred to New York City and promoted to assistant general sales manager for the eastern half of the United States.

* * *

He and his wife now live at 1537 N. Glengarry, Bloomfield Township. They have two sons, a daughter and eight grandchildren.

GENERAL FOREMAN

One son, Jim, is general foreman of the Pontiac frame plant, and the other, Keith, is assistant manager of the retail store.

Bridge's job keeps him on the road most of the time, visiting the principal cities in the division's 27 zones at least twice a year. But in his spare time he likes to hunt and is reported to be no slouch as a chef.

* * *

Commenting on Pontiac's increasing popularity with U.S. car buyers, Bridge says:

"The division's growth really began in 1959. Since that time we have concentrated on building a good product with styling appeal and built-in owner satisfaction."

PERSONAL LETTER

If an owner isn't satisfied, he knows where to find Bridge, who sends out a personal letter to every purchaser of a new Pontiac.

"I get a few strange phone calls from strange places, but it's worth it," Bridge says.

Shari Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of 4440 Sunhurst, was riding in a wagon being pulled behind a mower driven by Mrs. William Grant of 2565 Mann Road, Waterford Township, according to sheriff's deputies.

A witness told police that Mrs. Grant had stopped the mower for a rock pile on the lawn and started to back up at the same time that Shari stood up in the wagon. Shari lost her balance and fell under the mower as Mrs. Grant backed up.

NY Police, FBI Eye Report of Red Influence in Program

NEW YORK (AP) — Police and the FBI are investigating alleged Communist infiltration of a $12.9-million social experiment on Manhattan's lower East Side.

The inquiry is aimed at the activities of Mobilization for Youth Inc., a nonprofit organization designed to reduce juvenile delinquency.

* * *

Reports that investigations were under way were confirmed Sunday night by Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Paul R. Screvane, City Council president. Screvane, as coordinator of the city's poverty council, controls the organization's funds.

"We are not going to approve the contracts and budget of Mobilization for Youth until we are satisfied the allegations are untrue," Screvane said.

NOT WITHHELD

Wagner, honorary chairman of the organization, said funds had not been withheld, "But we are in the process of working out our budget allocation."

One of the most serious allegations against the program, Screvane said, is that some of its mimeograph machines were used in turning out inflammatory material during last month's racial rioting in Harlem and the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn.

* * *

Screvane said he had turned over material to the FBI, and that he intended to consult today with John E. Malone, chief of the New York FBI office. The FBI office refused comment.

Mobilization for Youth receives about 58 per cent of its budget from federal agencies, 28.5 per cent from the city and about 14 per cent from the Ford Foundation.

RETURNS TO CITY

Winslow Carlton, chairman of the organization, interrupted a Cape Cod vacation to return to the city and challenge charges of leftist influence.

"We deny that Mobilization for Youth has been taken over by Communists or any other group," he told a news conference.

* * *

If his organization's equipment was used to print inflammatory pamphlets, Carlton said, he knew of no such case himself.

James E. McCarthy, director of the organization, said that last spring it was discovered that campaign material was being printed on the group's equipment by the reform Democratic organization of the 19th Congressional District. He said this was stopped as soon as it became known.

$100,000 in Coins Taken by Burglars

WARREN, Ohio (UPI) — Police said today burglars took about two tons of coins valued at $100,000, or possibly more from a collection during the weekend.

Police Sgt. Frank Luscombe said the burglars took 16,000 silver dollars and some valuable rare coins.

The burglary was discovered Sunday by Harold Berk, owner of the Berk Exterminating Co. who has operated a coin business as a sideline for 10 years.

warning to the Communists enabled them to alert the antiaircraft defense which shot down two U.S. planes, resulting in the death of one pilot and the capture of another."

PLANES EN ROUTE

This was a reference to Johnson's speech on the night of Aug. 4 in which he announced the U.S. retaliatory attack while American planes were en route to the North Viet Nam bases.

While the President was attacking him, Goldwater was addressing Republican state chairmen at a strategy session.

Although the meeting was closed it was learned he said the American people are frightened about dishonesty in high places. He mentioned the Bobby Baker and Billie Sol Estes cases and said the Republicans may put out a book of "Bobby Baker nursery rhymes."

"We're thinking of calling it the butcher, the baker and the stereo taker," he said.

RIDICULE POSITIONS

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., ridiculed in a Senate speech Saturday Goldwater's positions on several matters, saying they could bring "risky changes in our national life."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., told the California State Democratic convention in Sacramento that Goldwater "shoots from the lip."

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., said on the Metropolitan Broadcasting Co. television program "Opinion in the Capitol" that Goldwater's "approach is a radical one in that it involves a rather violent departure from the traditional approach to politics at the presidential level."

House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., predicted on ABC's "Issues and Answers" that Goldwater will not carry more than eight states.

'GREATEST RETREAT'

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., said on the CBS program "Face the Nation" that Republicans are going to make "the greatest retreat since Waterloo" from public positions Goldwater has taken on numerous issues.

In Miami Sunday night former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said he doesn't think Johnson would accuse Goldwater of political inconsistencies.

Youth Charged After High-Speed Chase

A Detroit youth accused of driving up to 115 m.p.h. without lights on Telegraph early this morning has been charged with reckless driving in Bloomfield Township.

Police said Lloyd D. Haver, 20, led an 11-mile chase which ended at the Telegraph-Grand River intersection in Detroit.

Lt. Martin McLaughlin said he took off after Haver's car at West Quarton when it passed there at 2:45 p.m. going about 100 m.p.h.

At no time during the chase did the cars go below that speed according to McLaughlin. He clocked the other car at 115 m.p.h. as they sped through the West Maple intersection.

* * *

The patrolman reported Haver's auto ran through red lights at 10 Mile, Nine Mile and Seven Mile Roads and through four roadblocks set up by six police departments along the stretch.

CHASE STOPS

The chase was halted by a roadblock thrown up by Detroit and state police. Two patrol cars were reinforced by a semitruck pulled across the highway.

* * *

Haver's car slid to a stop, but McLaughlin's went into a spin and landed on the median.

The Detroiter was to be arraigned this morning before Bloomfield Township Justice of the Peace Mrs. Alice Gilbert.

The condition of Sakari S. Tuomioja suddenly worsened and he underwent emergency surgery for a blood clot on the brain early today.

There was speculation that U.N. Secretary-General U Thant would appoint a new mediator or take over Tuomioja's work himself.

* * *

The Finnish diplomat had hoped to win acceptance of a compromise proposed by former U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, President Johnson's special Cyprus envoy.

Acheson has been meeting separately with Greek and Turkish representatives in Geneva. His plan calls for Cyprus' union with Greece and special safeguards for the Turkish Cypriot minority including a Turkish military base on the island.

Tuomioja's illness comes as a particular blow because there were signs last week that Greece and Turkey might accept a solution along the Acheson lines although there has been no approval from the Makarios government.

The Kremlin's stand is likely to make the Greek Cypriots even more intractable. The Soviet statement offered to begin aid talks immediately.

U. S. Sends Bombers to Congo Government

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Pentagon announced today the dispatch of "a small number" of B26 bombers to the Congo government for reconnaissance missions against Congolese rebels. The announcement said non-Americans would fly them on the missions.

There was no immediate disclosure of the number of planes involved, but one source estimated two or three and said they were arriving in Leopoldville today.

Sunday Crashes on County Roads Fatal for Three mont Hospital was Gary D. Stirch, 19, of 455 Bellevue, Lake Orion, who was killed when the car he was driving collided head-on with another car traveling in the wrong lane on I-75 at the Big Beaver Road exit in Troy.

His companion, Patricia Paulich, 19, of Detroit is listed in fair condition at Beaumont Hospital with a concussion, broken shoulder and severe cuts.

Driver of the other car was Ruth Ann Forney, 54, of Detroit. She was treated for cuts and bruises at Beaumont and released.

The accident occurred at 12:50 a.m. yesterday.

CRASH WITNESSES

Witnesses said the Forney vehicle had traveled at least three miles in the wrong lane before colliding with Stirch's car, Troy police said.

Funeral service for Stirch will be at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Allen Funeral Home in Lake Orion.

Killed in a two-car collision near Corbin, Ky., yesterday were Dr. Ronald C. Young, 63, and his wife Josephine, 54, of 136 Bassett, Bloomfield Township.

* * *

CROSSED OVER

Dr. Young was a noted author and lecturer in economics.

Market Clings to Higher Edge

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market clung to a higher edge on balance early today. Trading was moderate.

Fractional moves predominated among key stocks.

Among the wider movers, Sears Roebuck, IBM and Polaroid rose a point or so. U. S. Smelting gained 2.

GM GAINS

CBS, with the news flurry over its purchase of New York Yankee stock still going on, was quiet and a shade higher.

Coppers subsided as labor news improved in the industry. A string of small gains was posted for electronics, tobaccos, airlines and chemicals.

Connie Francis Weds Public Relations Man

Soviet 'Cats' Want to Play 'Real Jazz'

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — Now that they've gotten out of the bag, two Soviet "cats" said today they would like to go to the United States to play "real jazz."

★ ★ ★

After their arrival by plane from Tokyo where they left a touring Soviet variety troupe, the defecting musicians said they had been practicing jazz more or less secretly in Moscow for several years.

★ ★ ★

Bassoonist Igor Berecshtis, 31, said the urge to play "real jazz" overwhelmed him and his companion, clarinetist Boris Midney, 27. He said they met American jazz men during Benny Goodman's visit to the Soviet Union two years ago.

U.S. officials accompanied the musicians from Tokyo, where they requested political asylum Thursday.

'HELPING OUT'

A U.S. spokesman said American officials in West Germany would be "helping out" while the two await a final reply to their request for political asylum.

First Jump Is Fatal for KC Parachutist

★ ★ ★

Don Cooper, president of a sky-diving club and pilot of the jump plane, said Whitzel leaped at 2,700 feet and opened his parachute. The small pilot chute which pulls out the big one became entangled in his arm, Cooper said, and Whitzel waited too long to open his reserve chute.

GOP Campaign School for Governor Hopefuls

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Republican gubernatorial candidates from east of the Mississippi were in Pittsburgh today for a two-day campaign school conducted by party experts and some GOP incumbents.

The school, sponsored by the Republican National Committee, is to give instruction on campaign financing, scheduling, press relations, polls, advertising and other matters.

Lodge Explains SE Asia Policy

PARIS (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, former U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, was received today by acting French Foreign Minister Louis Joxe to explain details of U.S. policy in Southeast Asia.

Lodge was accompanied to the foreign ministry by U.S. Ambassador Charles Bohlen. Charles Lucet, the ministry's director of political affairs, also sat in on the talk.

★ ★ ★

ASKS MEETING

De Gaulle has called for a new meeting of the 1954 Geneva Conference on Indochina. The United States has rejected such a meeting, which Johnson has said would "ratify terrorism."

De Gaulle also has called for an end to the fighting and the removal of foreign influence in the region.

2nd Flame Honors JFK

The flame, similar to that at the grave of the assassinated president in Arlington National Cemetery, is at the base of a bust of Kennedy, unveiled yesterday.

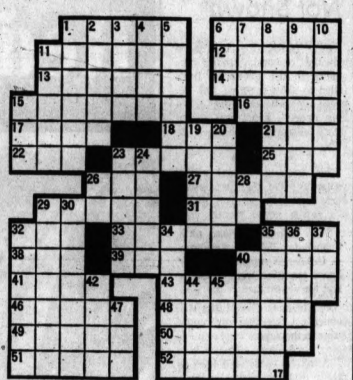
IBSEN'S WORKS



In Foreign Policy Discussion

Humphrey Warns Against Rash Acts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said today it would be a tragedy if "rash words here at home were to inspire rash actions in Southeast Asia."

In a speech prepared for the Los Angeles Town Hall, the Minnesota Democrat, frequently mentioned as a possible running mate for President Johnson, warned that there is no quick or easy victory to be won in Southeast Asia.

★ ★ ★

"The independence and security of South Viet Nam will be achieved only in a hard, costly, complex struggle — which will be waged chiefly in South Viet Nam," he said.

"One would hope that discussions here at home during an electoral campaign would not lead to misunderstandings abroad. It would be a tragedy if rash words here at home were to inspire actions in Southeast Asia."

NO REFERENCE

Humphrey did not refer to the Republican party or to its presidential nominee, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, by name.

He noted Johnson's speech last week before the American Bar Association in which the President cited "the dangers imposed by those impulsive spokesmen who are eager to enlarge the conflict in Southeast Asia."

★ ★ ★

"The events of the past two weeks do not alter the basic fact that the war will be won or lost in South Viet Nam," Humphrey said. "This remains the principal battlefield and this will be the scene of victory or defeat."

"This does not mean — as our action in the Gulf of Tonkin indicated — that North Viet Nam will remain a privileged sanctuary regardless of provocation," he said. "Further attacks will be met with equal firmness. We dare not ignore such aggression."

NO 'PAPER TIGER'

Humphrey said U.S. actions in the Gulf of Tonkin during the past two weeks following attacks on American warships from North Vietnamese PT boats "demonstrate to our friends that our power remains preeminent and our devotion to freedom firm, and to our foes that the United States is no 'paper tiger'."

Movie Star to Play Part in Presidential Campaign

By EARL WILSON

"I've often castigated Show Business people, like Frank Sinatra and Janet Leigh, for campaigning openly," Polly Bergen told me at Lindy's.

"But all of a sudden I feel VIOLENT, I've changed my philosophy. This campaign's too important. If I have any ability to sway people, I'm going to use it!"

Polly refused to say — for publication — whom she'll stump for in the California campaign, though you might be able to guess. Her movie, "Kisses for My President," with Polly as the first female Chief Executive, and Fred MacMurray as the President's husband, opens Aug. 21, just before the Democratic convention.

WILSON

"I don't want to get the picture involved, but once it's opened and established, I'll get very active," she said.

★ ★ ★

"Do you think all actors should campaign?" I asked.

"I've always felt actors should listen to people who are authorities on politics," she answered. "If you are politically educated enough to answer both sides, and only then, do you have a right to campaign."

★ ★ ★

"And do you think you are educated enough?" I asked Polly.

Treats Snake Bite, Travels 50 Miles

Davis was bitten Saturday by a water moccasin in a remote area 50 miles northwest of here, he said.

The mayor used his snake bite kit to treat himself, then walked for an hour and a half back to his car and drove to Albany.

Miami Beach's police department has 45 employes for every 10,000 residents, the highest proportion of any tourist city. Atlantic City with 43 and Washington, D.C., with 42 per 10,000 are next.
