

Two Area Men Among 3 Killed in Plane Crash

A single-engine plane crashed into woods near the Knox airport in Indiana yesterday, killing three men including two from West Bloomfield Township.

Starke County sheriff's officials identified the victims as Daniel Featherstone, 47, of 7223 Buckthorne; Norman McGregor, 50, of Beverly Crest; and William Skinner, 45, of Walkerton, Ind.

Featherstone worked for the Burgmaster Corp. in Southfield, a division of Houdaille Industries while McGregor was plant manager of the Arrowhead Manufacturing Co., Knox. Skinner was president of the Arrowhead firm.

Witnesses said the Piper TriPacer was in a steep climb after takeoff and it appeared the craft "stalled," then plummeted into the woods about one-fourth mile from the end of the runway.

Officers said there was no fire but the bodies were pinned in the wreckage.

PLEASURE FLIGHT

The three men were on a short pleasure flight in the Knox area, a sheriff's deputy said. The two Michigan men were in Knox on a business trip.

Featherstone is survived by a wife Betty; a daughter, Susan, 21; and two sons, Daniel, Jr. 14 and John, 7. Burial arrangements are being made by the Joe J. Wessels Funeral Home in Pleasant Ridge.

McGregor is survived by a wife Beverly; and two daughters, Mrs. Donald Humphries of El Cajon, Calif., and Mrs. Jack Gillies of 338 Franklin, Milford. Burial arrangements are being made by the Manns and Ferguson Funeral Home in Livonia.

Separation Marks Berlin Yuletide

BERLIN (AP) — Again this year, Christmas in Berlin is a season of being divided. It is now 18 months since the last seasonal passes were issued and since negotiations for a new East-West pass agreement were broken off over the issue of an East German demand for recognition. The West does not recognize East Germany.

West German Foreign Minister Willy Brandt, himself West Berlin mayor until a year ago, said this week that the pass issue was part of an East German campaign to promote uneasiness among West Berlin's people.

On Christmas Day, some of the many people waving across will have written and told relatives to be at a certain place at a certain time. They will hold up children, especially newborn babies.

Carefully watching will be bearded up East German border patrols with their machine-guns, dogs, bunkers, watch towers, trip wires, sirens, search lights, flares and motorcycles. The guards have orders to shoot any fleeing East German caught in the final "death strip" before the wall.

No Press on Monday

The Pontiac Press will not publish a newspaper Monday so that employees may celebrate Christmas with their families. Regular editions will resume Tuesday.

Two Area Men Died With A Third Man When This Plane Crashed Yesterday At Knox, Ind.

Logs Studied in Tonkin Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The logs of two Navy destroyers involved in the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident are being examined by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in light of news reports suggesting the ships may not actually have been attacked.

The USS Turner Joy and USS Maddox reported in August 1964 that they had been deliberately attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats. The incident led to major U.S. escalation of the Vietnam war.

The Pentagon issued a statement yesterday declaring the evidence of the attack was "inconclusive." It gave a detailed list of evidence, including visual sightings, photographs, and trackings by sonar and radar to support its contention.

Following the attack, President Johnson ordered an immediate retaliatory strike by U.S. carrier-based planes and asked Congress for an emergency resolution of support.

That resolution, approved swiftly and overwhelmingly, endorsed all necessary steps by the President to "repel any armed attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression." U.S. bombing of North Vietnam began six months later.

ACCUSATIONS

As the bombing raids have intensified and the level of U.S. forces in Vietnam has climbed toward 500,000 men, some of the President's strongest critics in Congress have accused him of using the Gulf of Tonkin resolution to escalate the war beyond their original intentions.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, ordered the logs of the Turner Joy and Maddox from the Navy Department following news reports and letters suggesting the destroyers might not actually have been attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats.

STUDY INCOMPLETE

Fulbright, handling the destroyer attack issue with great caution, said yesterday the committee staff's analysis of the logs was incomplete.

Chilly Christmas, and a Bit White

Dreaming of a white Christmas? There's a chance of snow flurries fluttering through the air but the weatherman doesn't forecast enough for toboggans or sleds.

He does promise cold temperatures. The mercury plunged to 13 at 8 a.m. today, a new low for the season.

Here is the official U.S. Weather Bureau forecast for the weekend:

TODAY—Partly cloudy and cold with snow flurries, mostly this morning. High 20 to 24. Increasing cloudiness tonight, low 14 to 20.

Northeast winds at 16 to 25 miles per hour diminishing slowly today and becoming light southerly tonight.

TOMORROW—Cloudy and warmer with a little light snow likely.

MONDAY—Mostly cloudy and cold. Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 10, tonight 20, tomorrow 50. The thermometer in downtown Pontiac registered 21 at 12:30 p.m.

Fisher Body Local Ratifies GM Pact

Members of Fisher Body Local 596 have approved a three year contract with the General Motors Corp., calling for a 50-cent an hour increase the first year for skilled workers and 20 cents an hour for production and non-production workers.

Donald Johnson, president of the union local said a tabulation of votes yesterday following two days of balloting shows that skilled trades employees ratified the national and local agreements by 94 per cent.

Production and non-production workers ratified the national agreement with General Motors by 94 per cent, and the local agreement by 71 per cent he said.

The wage increases, which are retroactive to Oct. 16, will mean an additional $200 average in back pay to skilled workers and $80 to hourly rated employees a spokesman said.

A three per cent improvement factor on wages will be implemented for all employees in the second and third years of the contract.

FOLLOWS PATTERN

The ratification by the Fisher Body local follows a pattern that indicates that 380,000 United Auto Workers will approve the national contract with General Motors by a substantial margin.

A spot check by the Associated Press shows most locals won't vote until next week. But one plant at Arlington, Tex., reportedly approved the contract by a 99 per cent majority. The plant has 3,000 workers.

Open Housing Seen for '68

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Legislature rang down the curtain on its special session yesterday said optimistic predictions that the thorny issue of open housing will be resolved next year.

The House, which turned down an open housing bill 47-55 Thursday, quit at noon with only a handful of legislators on hand to go through the formality of final adjournment.

The Senate, which had met daily during the week in anticipation of House action on the housing bill, adjourned shortly after midnight yesterday.

"We failed on open occupancy, but we didn't really fail," said House Speaker Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, sponsor of the measure. "We came a lot closer than people had anticipated."

"We're not going to stop until we get it," Romney said in Amman, Jordan, of the defeated open housing bill.

PASSAGE PREDICTED

Waldron predicted that open housing will be passed during the regular session, which begins Jan. 10.

It will be only one of several measures introduced to deal with potential riot situations, he said. These would include public safety, education, housing, tenants' rights and employment measures.

President Flying to Pope After Visit to Vietnam

ROME (AP) — President Johnson headed today for an audience with Pope Paul VI, informed sources said, after telling American fighting men in Vietnam, "What you have done will not have been in vain." Johnson told the troops at the big Cam Ranh Bay base, "the enemy cannot win, now, in Vietnam. . . You have seen to that."

Now, reports in Rome and Washington said, he wanted to explain personally to the Pope why the United States is pursuing its course in Vietnam.

The pontiff issued a fresh call yesterday for the United States to suspend bombing of North Vietnam and for the Communists "to give a sign of serious will for peace."

Word of Johnson's planned visit to the Pope came from both Italian and American government sources in Rome. Both, however, said that though the arrival was scheduled it was always possible Johnson might change his plans at the last moment.

The American Embassy and the Vatican have been going ahead with plans on the assumption that the Johnson visit was set and Italian Communists prepared to stage anti-American demonstrations.

An informed source in Madrid said Johnson's plane would refuel and he would spend tonight there on his way home.

What began as a trip to memorial rites in Australia for Prime Minister Harold E. Holt, who has been given up for drowned, was turning into an around the world flight.

Washington sources believe this would be the first continuous around the world flight made by a President while in office.

FLEW TO THAILAND

Leaving Australia, Johnson winged into the sprawling U.S. Air Force base at Khorat, Thailand yesterday to visit airmen, snatched four hours sleep, touched down at Cam Ranh for 14 hours and bounded on.

Pontiac Div. Eyes Record Sales Year

Sales Manager Thomas L. King announced today that 816,837 cars have been sold this year to date, compared to 813,646 at this time last year.

"We're quite proud to be one of the very few manufacturers in the industry whose sales are running ahead of the 1966 record pace," said King.

He noted that during the middle 10 days of this month a record 23,921 Pontiacs were sold, as compared to the 22,183 sold during the same period a year ago.

Bob Hope Reporting:

Great Unwashed Spoil an 'In' Spot

By BOB HOPE

CHU LAI — When we visited Chu

Lai two years ago, it was really an "in" spot. It was still unspoiled by the multitude. Only a few battalions of Marines had discovered this beautiful beach resort nestled on the shores of the South China Sea.

Of course, the facilities weren't too luxurious. Many of the foxholes were without running water. . . except during the monsoon seasons, and the black pajama-clad natives weren't too friendly.

It's all changed now. The country club feel is gone. Cobina Wright, Princess Radziwill and Truman Capote would scorn the new Chu Lai. It's been discovered by the great unwashed.

Today we played to over 12,000 tourists. Most of them bought the cheaper seats . . . no backs, no cushions and no bottoms . . . except their own . . . none of the royalty were there, just a bunch of commoners. . . a division of Marines, the 1st Air Cav; some Army, some Navy . . . these days they let anybody in.

It was bound to happen. Chu Lai is a natural resort. They don't have jai-alai or dice tables, but they do have a lot to offer for a real gambler. And they don't have any Watani spot or topless bars . . . but if you really dig topless just stick your head out of your foxhole.

Martin Nash said: "Things were rugged out here in 1966 (the year of the West Side riots). We didn't want to see that happen again. Things just couldn't be done that way."

Gang leaders, representing 2,000 members, told police last July they were being urged by militants to form a "black youth alliance" and take up arms.

In August, the gang leaders, police, city officials, youth center leaders and representatives of industry formed operation Bootstrap. Its aim is to provide better housing, education, jobs, recreation and better relations with police in Lawndale.

Job Corps Group in Tornado Cleanup

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo. (AP) — Seventy youths at the Poplar Bluff Job Corps Training Center go to Potosi, Mo., today to help clean up the damage caused by Thursday's tornado.

About 200 are enrolled at the center, and officials said the 70 are those who will not be going home for Christmas.

The group is making the trip in dump trucks, and will sleep at the YMCA and will stay until the job is done, officials said.

Parcel Post to Servicemen Can Be Airlifted Overseas

WASHINGTON (AP) — For a cost $4.30. Air parcel post for $1 fee plus the regular postage, the same package is $12.08. A 10-pound package from New York to Frankfurt will cost 30 pounds to American military $1.55, compared with air parcel post anywhere in the world beginning next Jan. 7, the Post Office announced yesterday.

Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien said the new service "will mean much faster delivery on packages sent to our servicemen stationed far from home."

The special service will be available on packages mailed to military personnel at APO and FPO addresses overseas, and in Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. Armed forces personnel will be able to use the special service on packages they send home.

On packages going overseas, payment of the $1 fee will insure air transportation from the point of mailing to the port of embarkation and from there to the overseas base. To get this service in the past it was necessary to pay air parcel post rates.

SAMPLE RATES

The Post Office gave several examples of how the new service rates will compare with percent rates. For example, a 15-pound package from Chicago to a serviceman in Vietnam will

The department noted, however, that in some instances the new service would not be to the mailers' advantage and it urged persons using the new airtel service to check with post office clerks to determine the least expensive method.

Also, the Pentagon said more than 17 million tons of Christmas mail had been airlifted to American servicemen in Vietnam.

Celebration of Christ's Birth Recalls Promise of Peace

(EDITOR'S NOTE — In keeping with our policy of publishing guest editorials from time to time, our Christmas message has been written by Rev. A. N. Reid, Pastor of New-Man African Methodist Episcopal Church.)

By REV. A. N. REID

Today across our Nation great plans are being made to celebrate the birthday of JESUS CHRIST. Beautifully decorated Christmas trees, homes and business places remind one of tales of fairyland.

Newspapers carry page after page of advertisements, suggesting what to buy, where to buy, how much to pay, and the ease of time payment plans. Railways, airlines, and bus systems offer special rates for the family during the holiday season.

Thousands of dollars will be spent for rich wines and imported liquors to add "life" to the festivities. Post offices are snowed under with thousands of packages to be delivered across the Nation and around the world. All in some way convey the salutation, "Merry Christmas."

Everywhere SANTA is pictured as a jolly old fellow with gifts for everyone. Yet, there is hardly a picture of the babe born in Bethlehem, and whose natal day we are supposedly honoring. Why then all the activity?

REV. REID

We should re-examine the birth of JESUS CHRIST, and rediscover the promises of joy and peace proclaimed with His coming.

Christmas joy and happiness are something we all should possess, but these qualities are equally important throughout the year. Much of the world is in chaos and many hearts are fearful for what tomorrow may bring. In spite of this the most frequently heard greeting today is, "Merry Christmas." Christians should be joyous in the keeping of Christmas, as the angel long ago brought news of great tidings and joy for all people.

Joy in the good news of Christmas is obvious in the smiles of the child, and the eager anticipation with which he awaits Christmas. The life of Jesus had joy at its center. Hence the greatest joy of Christmas issues from the central fact of faith in a life that was begun in a manger.

People throughout the world are seeking peace among themselves, as well as among nations. The birth of Jesus was preceded by the promise of peace and goodwill on earth to all men. Through Him, let us find peace among ourselves and help to create conditions for peace among all men of "good will." Let us find joy and happiness in harmony with our fellowman.

Theft of Decorations Dims Christmas Spirit

If there is a bleak side to the Christmas season, it has to be the thought of people stealing outdoor holiday decorations, or the sight of Christmas decor which has been the target of vandals.

It happens every year. Lights are stolen; decorations shattered.

Unhappily, the victims are people who have taken extra effort to remind us of the festive and religious meaning of this holiday.

Most victims are shocked. Some vow never again to put out any Christmas decorations. Can you blame them?

We wonder what twisted minds are responsible for the thoughtless vandalism and thefts. We wonder what is done with the loot.

Such episodes are truly a sad commentary on an otherwise happy time of the year.

'Empty Hand' a Most Formidable Weapon

Karate, meaning "empty hand," developed in the Orient, the National Geographic says. Chinese peasants, plagued by bandits, learned to use feet, elbows, and knuckles as a means of fighting effectively without weapons. From China, the art of Karate traveled to Okinawa and Japan.

Football Contest Winner Challenged!

To paraphrase one of John Cowper's many mots (circa 1785), "Rivalry is the very spice of life."

And that, folks, is what we've got right here at our favorite newspaper. Spicy rivalry between the editorial and sports departments has reared its ugly head.

The sports department who entered and followed the course of The Press Annual Football Contest will recall that, running MRS. WILSON true to form, a feminine contestant, Mrs. Kathryn Wilson, 41 Oak Hill, wore out the starting field and won the title of 1967 Peerless Seers by correctly picking the outcome of 12 consecutive games. With the title went the winner's award of a $500 U.S. Savings Bond.

But, as readers well know, the sports department's panel of Swamis (4) stuck out its collective neck each week during the football season by predicting the results of a slate of major games across the land.

The Swamis score themselves prophetically, and Fletcher Spears came in first with a batting-average of 71 per cent.

Well, sir, by direct grapevine, Editorial hears that Sports rather sniffs at the remarkable picking performance turned in by our contest winner. Mutterings stayed in "how lucky can you be?" "blind stays in the dark," "once in a lifetime," etc., have reached our ears.

Our departmental pride has been sorely wounded by these aspersions—to the point where satisfaction must be had.

We, therefore, challenge Sports Swami Spears to a prediction match against Editorial Swami (should it be "Swamiss"?) Wilson on the following six major bowl games. The Press has posted a winner's purse of a deluxe dinner for two.

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS—4

The light that shone from the manger that first Christmas in Bethlehem continues to shine in the hearts of Christians throughout the world. The words of the "heavenly host" cannot be repeated too often. "GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST, AND ON EARTH PEACE, GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN."

Confident Living:

Christmas Is a Time of Love

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

It was Christmas Eve some years ago. As twilight faded into night, gayly colored lights appeared inside and outside homes along the quiet Brooklyn street.

Emerging into the clear, cold air of that holy, star-studded night — after enjoying dinner with friends — I noticed a strange fact about the house across the street.

Two wreaths were on the door, one a Christmas wreath, and alongside it, of all things, a funeral wreath. Startled, I asked who lived in that home. My friends only knew them as a nice family with three small children, one of whom had died that morning.

I rang the door bell and a pleasant young man appeared. When I told him who I was he seemed warmly pleased. We sat in the living room where two small children played beside a Christmas tree, its lights reflected in his bright and dancing eyes.

"I was just about to read them the old poem 'Twas The Night Before Christmas,'" he explained. Then he added, "My wife is in the room upstairs with our other child. Would you please go up and talk to her? She needs a bit of help." Tears stood in his eyes.

Upstairs I found a beautiful young mother sitting by the still form of a little girl. I sat with her and let her talk. No bitterness, no doubts, no whys. She spoke only of love and gratitude to God for letting them have the child for three wonderful years.

"She is now with Jesus," the mother concluded simply. And I thought of that other Baby born so long ago Who in manhood spoke of the heavenly mansions in the Father's house beyond this life.

The memory of those two unforgettable parents comes to mind every Christmas. Father downstairs making a happy Christmas for two excited little ones; mother upstairs keeping the long last watch.

Christmas, you see, is not all lights and music and eating and celebrating. It is love and faith and human greatness — it is solidly based on a Child who came to wipe away human tears and make people strong and good.

Another Christmas Eve I remember was in Syracuse, N. Y., over 35 years ago. People of the church were distributing big, bulging love-motivated Christmas baskets to poor families in the neighborhood.

All but one basket had been delivered and I offered to take the last one. It led me into a strange adventure.

The home proved to be little more than a shack at the rear of some rundown tenements. An obviously overworked young wife admitted me. I could see she had been scrubbing the family clothes in a steaming old-fashioned washbasin. On a shabby couch sprawled the young husband, obviously deep in his cups.

The wife followed my glance. "He is a wonderful man," she spoke defensively. "If it wasn't for that one weakness he would go places. And he will . . . he will." Her voice ended in a choke.

On the wall, surprisingly, were two excellent paintings which appeared quite out of place in the surroundings. They pictured a dignified and obviously outstanding couple. "They were his parents," she explained, "who were good New England people. He wouldn't part with those pictures even if we starved. I wish they represent his hold on life, on hope maybe."

I gave the basket to the young wife, wished her a Merry Christmas, and determined to help that family in a more creative way than just a Christmas basket.

Next day, Christmas, I dropped in to see these people again and had a pleasant visit. The following Sunday they showed up at church and kept on coming every week. The young husband was unconsciously reaching for a better life and he found it.

I stopped by the day they moved into a simple but nice home. I must admit I choked up a bit when I saw Fred carrying those two portraits into the new house.

It was July when they made this move, but it did not seem at all incongruous when Fred said happily, "Merry Christmas! Why not? It was on Christmas that life began to be merry for this nice family."

Writer Will Lead Attack for Stronger Dog Laws

Must we continually read about helpless children being maimed and killed by "man's best friend"? How ironic that the article telling of this recent outrageous slaughter by canines in Madison Heights, Virginia, appeared in the same issue as the editorial challenging dog lovers to "arise and unite" against those who thought dogs were "bestial and shameless."

Wake up, dog lovers! Put first things first! What is more precious to you, your dogs or your little children? I'll never understand how otherwise sensible folks can be so callous about confining their dogs to their own property. They would not dream of robbing a bank or committing murder and yet they have no conscience when it comes to breaking this law, thereby harming and offending many.

Don't call me a dog hater for we have three beagles kept clean, healthy and happy in their own dog yard. However, we also have four children whom we dearly love and are constantly cautioning about petting roaming dogs. All who despise these heinous dog attacks we're continually reading about, "arise and unite in wrath." Write to your representatives and request stronger and prompt law enforcement concerning the confinement of "man's best friend." I will lead the attack.

'Good Deeds Show True Christmas Spirit'

Recently I left my purse containing a good sum of money in a grocery cart and had driven about two blocks when I realized what I had done. When I returned to the store a lady had found my purse and taken it to the manager. I offered to pay her but she wouldn't take a cent. Knowing there are still some warmhearted people in the world today is a wonderful gift in itself.

MRS. ROBERT STILL

Why do persons collecting for the Salvation Army at the Pontiac Mall stand outside near the center front door? Why don't they stand inside where they can be seen, like they do at other shopping centers? Dropping change in the red kettle when I shop is as much a part of Christmas for me as taking the children to see Santa or wrapping gifts.

SINCERELY AN ARMY ALLY

Recently while shopping in Pontiac I lost a gift purchased for a special family member. Later we received a call from a man who found the gift and went out of his way to trace the gift through a tag in the package. People like this show that Christmas is still a time of caring about others.

'Do Any Laws Protect Innocent Victims?'

What is happening to the idea of justice? My parents were hit by a car that didn't stop. The license number and the owner's address have been reported to the State Police but we are told there is nothing we can do unless we can identify the driver. Since it happened so fast and the driver didn't stop, no one saw him or her. Should this potential killer be allowed to drive around completely free? Are laws made to protect people like that? What about the innocent, aren't there laws to protect them?

Supports Need for Expansion of Airport

Concerning the proposed expansion at Oakland-Orion Airport, it might benefit those involved to weigh all the facts. Mr. Peckham's proposal may involve considerably more money than the County has available in the future, but Oakland County's aviation facilities to serve the growing use of flying for business and pleasure will soon become inadequate. Expansion will serve to foster the economic stature of the community in terms of drawing industry to the area. Any form of expansion is needed and will be used. Such a program should not be condemned merely because a person cannot see any direct personal gain.

Question and Answer

Recently I was driving slowly in a line of traffic when it was snowing hard and the street was covered with dirty slush. A car passed me doing 35-40 (no mile zone) and covered my car with the slush. For several seconds I couldn't see a thing, though my wipers were going full speed. This could have caused a bad accident. Could the driver have been ticketed for that?

WANTS TO KNOW

REPLY

According to Sgt. Hendren of the Traffic Bureau, he could have been ticketed for exceeding the speed limit, but there is no law against splashing slush or mud against another car.

Labor Dept. Cites Cost of Living Jump

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you're feeling a financial pinch, these days the Christmas gift-giving tradition shouldn't catch all the blame—just about all the family goods and services Americans buy have jumped in cost.

The Labor Department reported Friday an increase of three-tenths of one per cent in living costs during November, and pointed to signs more of the same can be expected this month.

Only a drop of three-tenths of one per cent in grocery prices staved off a bigger increase in November and appeared likely to prevent this year's over-all jump from surpassing last year's 3.3 per cent annual rate, highest in 10 years.

The November figures pushed to 117.8 the government's consumer price index. That means it costs $11.78 to buy products and services that cost Americans $10 in the 1957-59 base period.

PRICE JUMP

Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, reported a one-tenth of one per cent jump in wholesale prices last month. That increase is expected to show up soon in retail prices.

Chase described as "phenomenal" a six-tenths of one per cent increase in the cost of medical care services in November.

TV Time Aim of McCarthy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy is asking the Federal Communications Commission to order the three networks to give him free television time to answer President Johnson's statements linking his peace candidacy to the ambitions of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The National Broadcasting Co. (NBC), the American Broadcasting Co. (ABC), and the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), all rejected McCarthy's request for time to respond to remarks Johnson made during an hour-long interview aired Tuesday night.

The networks said the President has not announced that he is seeking re-election and therefore the FCC's so-called "fairness doctrine" does not apply.

cal care nearly eight per cent above the November 1966 figures.

Hospital costs were up some 16 per cent over the same time last year. Fees for doctors and dentists were 6.4 per cent above one per cent, and clothing and the previous November's figures.

FURTHER HIKES

Other cost-of-living increases between October and November included housing, two-tenths of transportation, five-tenths of one per cent each.

Chase said more than 215,000 workers with contracts pegged to living costs will get pay raises because of the November jump.

Junior Editors Quiz on SADDLES

QUESTION: What is the difference between Western and English saddles?

ANSWER: In the days of the knights, saddles had to be deep and high to resist the tremendous jolt a knight would receive when struck by an opponent's lance.

In the same way, the western cowboy's saddle must have a high back or cantle and a high front, where a horn sticks up, called the pommel, to which a rider can attach a rope lariat. Our picture gives an idea of the violent strain such a saddle must be capable of taking.

By contrast, the English saddle, which is mainly used for racing, polo and jumping, does not need to be so high and deep. It is flatter on top without a saddle horn.

Since speed is important in these sports, the English saddle was used for sporting purposes, while the western saddle developed for the work of handling cattle.

But many who ride for pleasure prefer the comfortable western saddle, so good for long rides over rough country. However, especially in the east, the English saddle is widely used, particularly when horses are shown in horse shows, or trained for jumping and hunting.

Traditional Yule Tree Falls Victim to Progress

By HARRY REED
Managing Editor

Is it progress when you succumb to the marvels of today's science and bring home an artificial Christmas tree?

Well, maybe.

The family council, in solemn assembly, discussed the possibility of such a wild venture. The "yes" side said:

Less mess. No water on the floor from the "keep it fresh" container which tips or leaks. Possibility of getting something that turns out straight, instead of developing curvature of the tree. Lesson here to young 'uns on depreciation. Puns on who would depreciate the tree most.

Againststums: no pine smell, loss of tradition, question of why change after all these years. Insistent wails at 10-second intervals from 5-year-old son: "Don't want a FAKE tree!"

PURCHASE OKAYED

Consensus: Let's try it. Use scented spray for the smell. Purchase authorized by council. Frequent, unvarying state-ments from son, 5: "I'd LIKE a fake tree. Agreement that "fake" is poor adjective. Word "adjective" explained some-what.

Off goes Dad to the fake tree store. He gulps at the price of what seems like the right size, and realizes that it will take at least seven years to depreciate the cost.

The box almost fills the back of the station wagon. Opening it, we find that bugaboo of all "put-it-together" projects — an instruction sheet.

Limbs of varying sizes must be inserted into holes in the trunk at various levels to come up with a well-balanced, nicely rounded specimen. The limbs are color-coded, says the infamous instruction sheet, with eight different colors, to indicate the right levels.

TAGS MISSING

Intense investigation then shows many color tags missing. The Hit or miss guesstimates produce a tree resembling an octo-tree lot. Cheaper over the long run, but directing traffic. Much common. Lesson here to young 'uns on depreciation. Puns on who would depreciate the tree most.

"Move that one up one level. No, no, that one goes lower. Comments on committee-designed elephant draws no laughs at all.

Eureka! It's round, bushy, doesn't look fake at all. But it does lean. Stomach-work session begins, tightening one of three screw eyes in the base, loosening of other.

But it's up. No hatchet work. Frequent, unvarying state-ments from son, 5: "I'd LIKE a fake tree. Agreement that "fake" is poor adjective. Word "adjective" explained some-what.

'In' Spot Gets Spoiled by the Great Unwashed

It's the same old story . . . all you need is a little publicity to draw the crowds. The newspapers kept plugging Chu Lai on the front page. Huntley-Brinkley mentioned it so many times I suspect they had a piece of the action.

Sun Valley has its skiing. Palm Springs has its golf. Newport has its yachting, but these are seasonal activities. Only Chu Lai offers year-around festivities.

While I was here I talked to a lot of the debs about their festive plans for the coming Christmas holiday. I thought you might be interested in their social calendar. Home town newspapers, please copy.

LIKE OLD CUSTOM

In case you're not up on Vietnamese Christmas customs, a convoy is quite similar to our old American custom of a hayride.

Everybody climbs on the back of a truck or a tank and they sing carols as they roll merrily along the highway dodging land mines.

Tom Higby, of the Minneapolis, Minn., Higbys, is a newcomer in our midst. He's a medical corpsman, and has been asked to join in the reception line of the field hospital.

Last year, in spite of the truce, they drew an unusually large crowd. Tom's group are mostly introverts. They're hoping this year nobody shows up.

Bobby Baker . . . not that one . . . this one's from San Jose. He hopes to get away from it all on Christmas day. He'll just stretch a blanket out on the patio of his pillbox . . . and thumb through a copy of the Wall Street Journal. He's hoping it doesn't rain . . . lead.

Marine pilot Scott Harrison of Cousins Island, Maine, isn't quite sure what to do. His hobby is flying up and down the Ho Chi Minh Trail, knocking off trucks. His boss has given him the day off, but Scott hates to goof off.

Christmas day is very large on the trail. Everybody in North Vietnam is coming down to visit friends in South Vietnam.

LBJ Lauds Soldiers in Yule Message

WASHINGTON (UPI)—While millions of military personnel for around the world would enjoy a traditional holiday dinner. They added that more than 17 million pounds of Christmas mail have been airlifted to Vietnam since the holiday rush began, an average of 30 pounds of key with cornbread dressing and giblet gravy, mashed and stoned there.

The President, in a message released by the Pentagon, told the servicemen that they are preserving freedom. "Without freedom there could be no peace — only a dead dream in a darkened world," he said. "And the only troops likely to miss with freedom's survival, man's the dinner are those in Vietnam on patrol during the holiday season when the souls of men are tested again," Johnson said. "No Americans before you have more surely earned the nation's tribute."

In an annual holiday message, service, and assurances that Johnson lauded the nation's 3.4 million American fighting men.

The mess hall menu will include shrimp cocktail, roast turkey, glazed sweet potatoes, buttered mixed vegetables and cranberry sauce, relish tray, butterflake mincemeat and pumpkin pie with whipped cream, fresh fruit, nuts and candy.

The Defense Department said the only troops likely to miss with freedom's survival, man's the dinner are those in Vietnam on patrol during the holiday season when the souls of men are tested again.

The Pentagon's computers estimated U.S. troops would consume 2,270,000 pounds of turkey during the holiday.

Blackout Hits Large Areas of Northwest

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — A far-reaching electrical power failure blacked out all of southern Idaho and parts of eastern Oregon, western Montana and northern Utah for periods up to 45 minutes late Friday night.

Bob Brown of the Idaho Power Co. said a 230,000-volt power line between the Oxbow and Brownlee Dams in western Idaho mountains apparently was brought down by heavy, wet snow.

Oregon as far west as Pendleton had short failures, but Baker and La Grande had longer outages. Dillon and Lima in western Montana had short power failures. Ogden and Farmington had power out for 35 minutes. Salt Lake City experienced failures scattered throughout the city varying from 15 to 30 minutes.

Power went out just before 11 p.m. MST in Boise and was not restored until about 11:25 p.m. in the downtown area. Idaho Falls, Idaho, had the longest outage, with power not restored until 12:10 a.m.

How Not to Get Stuck With Check Confronting This San Franciscan

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: How does a girl entertain a visiting male from out of town without getting stuck with the check?

We live in San Francisco, which seems to be the crossroads of the world, and someone is always calling me to say "hello" from a friend, and I feel that I am expected to entertain him in some way.

I never know if he can afford to take me out, and if so, where he can afford to take me. An out-of-town visitor usually likes to see the sights, and it's up to the "native" to suggest places to go, but I hate to suggest a place that may be too expensive for him.

And since I'm showing him around, there's always the chance that he thinks I am treating HIM, and I don't want to get stuck with the check. How does one get around this? I can't keep driving around the city.

DEAR SAN FRANCISCAN: You could save yourself a lot of speculating by simply asking the visitor exactly what he had in mind. If he indicates that he would like to sample one of the better restaurants, recommend one, and let him be the host.

If he says he just wants to "see the sights," show him Chinatown, Alcatraz, and the Golden Gate bridge. But eat first!

DEAR ABBY: I would like your opinion on something that I consider to be very poor taste and lack of judgement. Why do they play our National Anthem at a meal where 90 per cent of the people are in their seventies and eighties?

Most of them have had to be brought there in wheelchairs, and the others could hardly make it with their walkers, canes and crutches, yet when they played The Star Spangled Banner many of them struggled to get on their feet to show respect.

ALMOST EIGHTY DEAR ALMOST: Unless there is a reason for playing our National Anthem at such a gathering, another patriotic song, which does not require the listeners to stand, should be substituted.

DEAR ABBY: I recently found a big box of old postcards and envelopes that already had the stamps on them. Can I cut the stamps off and use them for postage on other things, such as packages?

I don't see why I can't, as the stamps are unused and good as new. Please answer in your column as my husband opens all the mail if he gets it first, and I don't want him to know how dumb I am.

"44-YEAR-OLD-DUMMY" DEAR "44": First, I think your question is a good one and I do not consider you a "dummy." Postal regulations prohibit using stamps cut from postcards, envelopes, and aerograms.

DEAR ABBY: A strange thing happened to me the other day. I had an appointment with my doctor, a man who is at least 20 years my senior. He has

Romney's Daughter to Recuperate at Home

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — Mrs. Jane Robinson, daughter of Michigan Gov. George Romney, will spend the Christmas holiday in her home here after being released from a local hospital.

Mrs. Robinson, 29, was released from St. Joseph Hospital Friday after undergoing surgery to correct complications she suffered when she gave birth Nov. 13 to a 7 pound, 10 ounce boy—the Romney's 12th grandchild.

Mrs. Lenore Romney, the governor's wife, left her husband's fact finding world tour Nov. 14 to be at her daughter's bedside.

Thursday for about 40 friends and neighbors.

The Skillmans will also play host roles in their home Saturday at a formal dinner party and dance for 12 couples.

Others coming to Mrs. Ekkelund's will be Dr. and Mrs. Harold Furlong, the William Hosts of Detroit with Billie, Erie and Deedee. Also are the Bruce Smiths with David, Michael and Gregory and Mary Sue Ekkelund.

The Donald Murphys of Union Lake will host an all-day celebration Christmas Day for Mrs. Harold Casey, Mrs. Daniel Murphy and Mrs. Myrtle Simpson of Marysville.

Greeting their parents' guests will be Sharon, home from Michigan State University, along with Michael, Timothy, Patricia and Barbara.

been my physician for many years. As I was about to leave his private inner office, he stopped me abruptly, took me in this arms and kissed me.

Abby, I was absolutely speechless. Then he quickly said, "How would you like to meet me somewhere?"

I can't even remember what I said after that, but I know I told him I just wanted to get out of there. He apologized profusely and assured me it would never happen again. That was all there was to it.

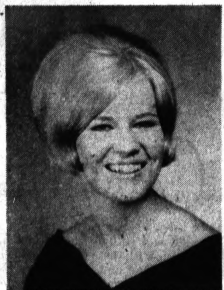

I was so upset, I confided in my sister. She told me to get another doctor fast. However I can't forget how kind he's been to me throughout the years. Besides, his behavior has always been beyond reproach in the past, and he is a fine physician. I'm sure he regrets his impulsiveness, and that his apologies were sincere. What do you think?

"SPEECHLESS" DEAR "SPEECHLESS": No matter how you rationalize it, if you go back to that doctor you will be inviting more of the same.

No woman need be "speechless" under such circumstances. An appropriate speech would be, "How would you like to meet with the grievance committee of the County Medical Society?"

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a married woman who carried on with a bachelor for 36 years, and then drops him and goes with a married man for nine years? Then her husband dies, and for four years she's been going with a kid young enough to be her son?

WONDERING DEAR WONDERING: I think she must be a very old woman by now.

Mrs. and Mrs. Louis Brockman of West Clarkston Road, Orion Township, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Lynne Kay, to Geoffrey D. Lyon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Lyon of Buchanan. Miss Brockman is a senior at Michigan State University, her fiance's alma mater. He is presently a graduate student at Western Michigan University. August vows are planned.

Will Attend Dinner in Ann Arbor

Gov. and Mrs. George Romney's daughter and her family, the Loren Keenans will host a Christmas morning celebration for their parents, the Albert Keenans of Detroit, in their Brady Drive home.

A trip to Ann Arbor will follow in the afternoon for dinner with Mrs. Keenan's cousin and her family, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Styler.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Audette of Haradale Road will celebrate Christmas with a family gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Austin of Hickory Grove Road will spend the holiday with their daughter and son-in-law, the Richard Pattersons of Dorchester Road, Birmingham.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Martin (he's medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital) will entertain houseguests over the holidays. Coming from Long Island, N. Y. are Dr. and Mrs. Irving Pinsley.

While here Mrs. Martin reports, the foursome will take in several of the Detroit points of interest.

Also joining the Martins and their houseguests for dinner Christmas day will be Dr. and Mrs. Norman Rosenberg with their daughter, Betty Ann of Bloomfield Hills. Helping with holiday festivities will be the Martin children, Jennifer and David.

The R. A. Armstrongs of Cherokee Road will spend Christmas Eve with their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lyons, at their home in Long Lake Shores.

Christmas day, a family party of 14 will sit down together for dinner at the Armstrong residence.

Sons Thomas and Bill Bachman will spend Christmas with their parents, the William B. Bachmans of Bloomfield Hills. Thomas is taking a break from studies at Boston University. Bill enjoyed a week of skiing before heading home from Metropolitan State College in Denver.

Also joining the family will be Mrs. W. B. Bachman Sr. and Mr. Bachman's sister, Barbara from Philadelphia.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard B. Barker of Mariett Drive, Bloomfield Hills will be hosting their daughter and son-in-law, the recently married John W. Ingrams of New York, for Christmas dinner. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Girard of Bloomfield Hills and their son, Michael, who is home for the holidays from Oklahoma State University will be guests.

Others will be Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Briggs, (she is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Warren Gately) who are visiting for the holidays from their home in San Francisco.

As guests for their first Christmas in their new home on Lakewood Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brannack will have their daughter, Barbara, home from the University of Michigan and Mrs. Brannack's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Noggle and their son Richard and daughter, Julie.

Mr. O. H. Lundbeck of Chippewa Road will be entertaining her son and his family, Mr. and Deane L. Lundbeck of Chicago, around the festive board.

Joining them for Christmas dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. Ray Caughill and their daughter, Gail, on holiday from Western Michigan University. Completing the group will be Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Nichols.

The couple are graduates of Lake Forest College and Denison University, respectively. April vows are planned.

Saturday Morning Ceremony Chosen by Diana W. Gornick

MRS. L. J. RICHARD JR.

St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church was the setting for vows exchanged this morning between Diana Wilcockson Gornick and Lawrence John Richard Jr.

For the nuptials, followed by a luncheon reception in Bloomfield Hills Country Club, the bride chose an ivory peau de sole A-line gown featuring a lifted waist and scalloped neckline. It was highlighted with Alencon lace and seed pearls.

A satin, matching pearl encrusted petal held her shoulder length veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Harry L. Smith and Jane Leader were matron and maid of honor for the daughter of Alan L. Gornick Sr. of Bloomfield Hills and the late Mrs. Gornick.

Bridesmaids were Diane Bugas, Mrs. Van Dyke, Mrs. Arthur J. Binard and Ann Livingston.

John P. Szatkowski stood as best man for the bridegroom who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Richard of Franklin.

Ushering were Alan Gornick, Gary Miller, Keith Gornick, Jack Edington, Charles Mayne, Charles Cameron and Nick Stumbos.

Following a honeymoon in New York City, the newlyweds will reside in Laramie, Wyo. where he is a senior student at the University of Wyoming.

Guest Room Not Available Use Hideaway

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: If you have guests from out-of-town and haven't got a guest room, which room of the house do you give to them? I have two bedrooms — one for my two children and the other for us.

We also have a living room with a hide-away bed. I am expecting company for the Christmas holidays. —Estelle

Dear Estelle: Since you have a hide-away bed in the living room, let your guests sleep there. There is no need to move your children or yourselves out of your rooms as long as you can make your guests comfortable.

See that there is some drawer and closet space available for them, so that their suitcases may be removed from the living room.

SAME GENERATION

Dear Mrs. Post: I have been asked by my favorite niece to be her matron of honor. She is planning on having four bridesmaids. The girls are all in their early twenties.

Is it appropriate for me, a middle-aged matron of 52 to be in the bridal party? —Bertha

Dear Bertha: No, no, no. It is not appropriate for a 52-year old woman to act as a matron of honor. The attendees should be reasonably close to the bride's age — certainly members of the same generation.

As a favorite aunt, you should be seated at the table with the bride's parents, and otherwise treated as an honored guest. But as a member of the bridal party? Never!

To make your wedding day perfect from start to finish, my booklet "Your Guide to Formal Wedding Procedure" is just what you need. Send 25 cents in coin to cover booklet and mailing expenses to Elizabeth L. Post, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056.

Three Movies Are on Program for Children

The annual Community House Christmas show for children is scheduled for Wednesday. Featuring the beautiful French classic film, "The Red Balloon," the program will also include, "Dick Whittington and His Cats" and "Peter and the Wolf."

There will be two complete performances, one from 10:30 a.m. to until noon and the second from 1:30 to 3 p.m. Tickets are on sale now for both performances at The Community House, in Birmingham. Seating is limited, however, and parents are urged to pick up their tickets in advance if possible.

Adult chaperones will be in attendance at all times to watch the children.

Families Plan to Gather for Christmas

Circuit Court Judge Clark Adams and his wife will begin Christmas festivities with a gathering of family and friends in their West Walton Blvd. home on Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Adams' mother Mrs. M. M. Clark of Highland Park; their daughter and son-in-law the Vern Burries and children Roger and Janet; and Judge Adams' brother and sister-in-law, Probate Judge and Mrs. Donald Adams and their son, David, will be joined by friends the Everett Garrisons.

David is home on Christmas leave from the Navy. The family will gather on Christmas Day at the Donald Adams home for dinner.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Allen Jr. will host a family brunch Christmas Day. Present will be her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Faulman of Augusta Avenue. Dr. Allen's mother, Mrs. Lynn Allen of Argyle Street, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pender, Mrs. L. E. Munnbrue and her son, Bruce and his wife and baby from Farmington, plus the Allens' two young daughters, Betsy and Sue.

In the evening, the Allens and his mother will join another family group for dinner at the home of Dr. Allens' sister and her husband, the David Warriows of Dick Street.

To start off the holiday weekend, the Ralph O. Allens of Cooley Lake Road will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hardenburg for dinner tonight along with the Richard Allens of Milford and their two boys, Greg and Jeff.

On Christmas Day, Mrs. Allen's mother, Mrs. Walter Shoup and brother, James Shoup of Clarkston and his wife and their two daughters, Rhonda and Debby, will join the Allens and their five children for Christmas dinner.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bruce Annett of Sylvan Shores Drive will host a group around the dinner table Monday. Mrs. Annett's mother, Mrs. Frank Bach, also of Sylvan Shores Drive; Mr. Annett's mother, Mrs. Roy Annett; his sister, Mrs. Rolfe Smith and her son Sheldon, all of Clarkston, will be there along with Mrs. Sharon Applegate and her son, Kevin.

Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Craig Smith of Birmingham, Mrs. Jean Hayes and sons Frank and John, and Mr. and Mrs. George Annett of Gladwin, plus their own sons, Bruce Jr. and Roy.

All Through Holidays

Round of Festivities Scheduled

The Ralph T. Norvell clan will all be together in their Wenenoh Drive home for Christmas Day dinner. Attending will be the Bruce Norvels with children Steven, Eric and one-week-old Julie.

The Jack Londons (Ginny Norvell) will be there, along with Mrs. Russell Austin who will leave later in the day for Austin, Tex. and Carol, home from studies at Western Michigan University.

Carol too, will take off (literally) for Florida in the late evening.

Mrs. C. T. Ekkelund of Ottawa Drive will host Christmas afternoon dinner for her family.

Coming are the Newton Skillmans of Lake Angelus with children, Chris (home from Mankato College) Amy, home from Kingswood, Tony and Steve and Tim from Kingsbury School.

Amy was hostess for a teenage party

Music Makes Registers Ring

CHICAGO (UPI) — The amateur musicians are making the cash registers in music stores play a happy tune.

The American Music Conference reports that the amateurs helped establish new records in 1966. New instruments had a retail value of $801 million with approximately 3,350 million units sold.

Sales of instrument accessories totaled $78 million and those of sheet music and instructional aids added up to $76 million.

Ad Men—Please Stop Messing Around

By BETTY CANARY I found it just as nauseating. When a neighbor's child as the commercial children on opened his mouth and displayed television trying to convince me a sticky, half-chewed jellybean to buy cereal by showing me for my inspection, after in how it runs down their arms, forming me, "Once you lick the I think part of the message color off, they're clear." here is, "Children are charming." So, I'll agree. Children are charming. Not, however, when crushing potato chips into their mouths, or when showing their noses into ice cream cones, and never, never, when cramming part of a spoonful of cereal into their faces while most of it drops onto the table.

I also think some sponsors are trying a wee bit of psychology. They are telling us that even when the family is sloppy, mother can whip into the room and clean up with a squirt of wax and a chuckle.

CANCELS

This approach rather cancels out another thing they are doing for us — getting realism into advertising.

I'm really not a babe in the woods when it comes to realism. I can recognize it, just as I recognize that little girl messing cereal around her neck. And, really, in most mothers' kitchens, the little girl is going to get her bowl taken away from her.

And, during the next trip to the supermarket, mother is going to buy something the child will eat instead of spending money on something to pour down her neck.

Then there in the supposed realism of the father and two sons watching the game on television while spattering food all over the floor and furniture. In real life mother might dash into the room and shout, "Game's over," all right — but she won't be humming when she shovels up after them.

I find it difficult to understand why sponsors choose such messy people to use their products in front of me. Surely it's not to persuade me to run out and buy. I do very little shopping when my stomach is upset.

Pianist Learned Braille Method

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (U)—Mrs. Jane Warner, organist-pianist at a local night spot, learned to play the hard way — by Braille. As a child in Oneonta, N. Y., the blind musician would first "read" the music, then memorize it and play it line by line.

"It was kind of slow, but thorough," she recalls. "You really knew it when you were finished." Now she learns by ear, plays her vast repertoire from memory.

Wax the children's outdoor toys with ordinary floor wax and it will protect them from the weather. It will keep the finish and color on tricycles, wagons, and scooters smooth and bright.

MRS. J. T. TASKER

Miss Clouse's Troth Told

A recent open house at the Rollins Street home of the John Clouses was the occasion for the engagement announcement of their daughter, Mary Alice, to Wallace Cody Sparks.

Early March vows are planned.

NEW FRANKLIN, Mo. (U)—When Rodney Dobson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Dobson here had a birthday recently, it sounded like one of those old math problems.

Rodney is half as old as his brother, his mother is twice the age of his brother, and his grandmother is twice as old as his mother. Rodney is 10 years old, his brother Mike is 20; his mother is 40 and his grandmother, Mrs. H. Eatherton, is 80.

Phylis Grisham Is Married to J. T. Tasker on Friday

Normandy Road Baptist Church was the setting Friday evening for vows between Phylis Ann Grisham and Jonathan Thomas Tasker.

The newlyweds and their parents greeted guests in the church parlors following the ceremony. The couple departed for a honeymoon in New York City.

The bride was gowned in floor length candle light brocade fashioned on princess lines. Her bracelet-length sleeves and small cowl neckline were trimmed with fur.

A matching brocade pillow held her chapel length and bluish veils. She carried a cascade of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Tasker were honor attendants for the rite. Bridesmaids were Susan Taylor and Mrs. Frank May. Deborah May served as flower girl.

Ushers were Russell Tasker and Dennis Padgett. Robert Young was ring bearer.

Soviet Secret Police Focuses on Spies

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet secret police, Stalin's terrible weapon against his own comrades in the Great Purge of the '30s, is now focusing its formidable resources on spying abroad and spies at home.

This seems to be the meaning of publicity for the 50th birthday of the organization now known as the Committee for State Security, or KGB from its Russian initials.

Articles and speeches celebrated the catching of enemy spies. They told of elaborate cat-and-mouse games with foreign intelligence organizations.

Nothing was said about the Soviet Union's own spies, although the double agent Harold A. R. "Kim" Philby described his services to communism.

NEW MINISTRY

Many internal security functions of the secret police seem to be increasingly handled by a new government ministry established last year. This Ministry for the Protection of Public Order, or MOOP from its Russian name, has moved into such fields as trying to check thefts from the state.

It has acquired its own army-type troops. These may be taking over the role once played by KGB troops, who crushed the last known uprising in the Soviet Union. That was the food price rioting at Novocherkassk in June 1962; more than 200 people were unofficially reported killed.

KGB still controls border security troops and guards Soviet leaders. But an anniversary editorial in Pravda showed that the basic job is espionage and counterespionage.

The secret police mission, Pravda said, is determined by the Communist party "on each new stage of the country's development." In other words, the mission has changed over the years.

NEED FOR VIGILANCE

Just before the Dec. 20 anniversary, the Soviet press was full of articles on counterespionage and warnings of the need for vigilance.

Western intelligence services are constantly trying to learn Soviet secrets and discredit communism, an unnamed KGB official told Pravda. Many spy stories were retold to create suspicion of any foreigner, whether diplomat, tourist, businessman or exchange scholar.

These articles contrasted with an article last year in Ivestia which accused U.S. officials of "sordid provocations" for saying Soviet spies had been caught. It said the Federal Bureau of Investigation invents year for Soviet spies, otherwise. The number of Western announcements of Soviet spy rings broken up has been running heavier than usual, from northern Norway to South Africa. And Stalin's daughter Svetlana Alliluyeva slipped away to say things that angered Kremlin leaders.

24 N. Saginaw St.

"Michigan's Fine Jewelers"

IN DOWNTOWN PONTIAC Pontiac State Bank Building

It was the night before Christmas

When all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there,

The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads,
And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
To open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow,
Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below,
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer,

With a little old driver, so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than eagles his coursers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name:

"Now, Dasher! now, Dancer! now, Prancer and Vixen!
On! Comet, on! Cupid, on! Dunder and Blitzen!
To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!
Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!"

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky,
So up to the house-top the coursers they flew,
With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas too.

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.
As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur from his head to his foot,
And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot,
A bundle of toys he had flung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack.

His eyes how they twinkled! his dimples how merry!
His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow,

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath.
He had a broad face and a little round belly,
That shook when he laughed, like a bowlful of jelly.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf,
And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself,
A wink of his eye and a twist of his head,
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,
And laying his finger aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose,

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.
But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,
MERRY CHRISTMAS to all and to all a good night!

Merry Christmas

House Freshman Hands LBJ Key Victories

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — An obscure country lawyer in his freshman year as chairman of a House committee played a key role in handing President Johnson his biggest victories of the 1967 congressional session.

The bills were extensions of the antipoverty and school aid programs at spending levels generous by 90th Congress standards.

Perkins, 55, still lives in Hindman, Ky., the little town where he was born and where he practiced law before entering politics. Although in 18 years in Congress he helped shape much successful education legislation, he previously had little to do with its actual passage.

CONCERN

It was the contrast between Powell, the seasoned veteran who steered major education and labor bills through the House, and beginner Perkins that caused most concern among supporters of the legislation.

Their concern seemed justified last May when Perkins, in his first big effort, brought the school bill to the floor and saw it riddled with amendments.

Worried that Republicans and Southern Democrats might be able to revamp this prize package of Johnson's, Perkins accepted any amendments he thought would help pass the bill without doing too much damage. The results were major changes in the legislation and a split among the committee's Democrats that seemed certain to render him ineffective as chairman.

But it proved a valuable lesson all around and when the antipoverty bill came to the floor six months later, the Democrats were united behind Perkins.

COME INTO OWN

It was in the conferences between the House and Senate to reconcile the differing versions of the legislation that Perkins finally came into his own, however.

In the antipoverty conference, he withstood heavy pressure from Senate conferees and administration and retained those features in the bill he felt vital to win House passage.

On the school bill something new-willness—was added to the patience, persistence and tireless energy recognized as regaining control.

Perkins' chief traits. He expected the issues of parochial school aid and school desegregation to be chief items in controversy and carefully picked several Northern Catholics for House conferees.

Individually he had loaded the conference in favor of the big cities and to his dismay was about to be overridden on a key vote that would have expanded aid to the urban areas at the expense of rural schools—including those in eastern Kentucky.

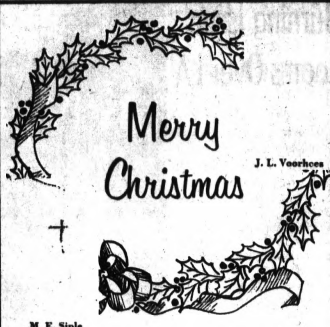

WILY MOVE

Feigning an urgent call of nature he dashed from the conference, ran to Speaker John W. McCormack's office and had to two more rural advocates named as House conferees, thus regaining control.

Final passage of both controversial measures by the widest margins they have ever received brought Perkins extravagant praise from both Republicans and Democrats for the part he had played.

Priest Robbed

DETROIT (AP)—Two thieves held up a Catholic priest at gunpoint Friday and took $1,400 in cash and savings bonds from the rectory at Holy Name of Jesus Church in Detroit. The priest, the Rev. Gerald Maloney, 32, told police the bonds were made out to the late Edward Cardinal Mooney, former archbishop of Detroit.

standards. The chairman was Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., who inherited the job of leading the House Education and Labor Committee after it was taken away from Adam Clayton Powell.

It is hard to imagine a greater contrast between two men than that between Powell, the smooth, dapper sophisticate from New York, and Perkins, slow, drawing product of the rural hollows of eastern Kentucky.

Another Sign of Christmas

SEATTLE (AP) — There's more than meets the eye on two "Merry Christmas" signs erected over the Seattle Freeway by the Highway Department.

A volunteer who painted the signs added a symbol "in keeping with the spirit of the season."

Irving Bloom, a Jew, painted a small Star of David in the lower right-hand corner of both signs.

Earl Says Top 1967 Laughs Centered on Girls and Legs

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Girls—just girls—and legs, were the big laugh targets in 1967, although some people did think that the collapsible Arab army was even funnier than miniskirts and Twiggy.

The Best Laughs for 1967 include the assertion of a clothier: "I started out this year selling skirts, and wound up in the belt business."

The year began with jokes about Ronald Reagan's inauguration as governor—and, ends with lines about him being inaugurated as president.

"We Californians have a governor who's trying to get out of show business and you New Yorkers have a mayor who's trying to get into it," Abbe Lane said in January.

The tourist rush was on to Puerto Rico.

"Let's dedicate tonight to the man who made San Juan the greatest resort in the Caribbean—Fidel Castro," said Jackie Kannon.

Traffic got worse, George Miller wrote from Houston that while in New York he ran into a motorist still trying to get home from the Lindbergh parade. "Mayor Lindsay has a wonderful snow removal plan—called July," said Ken Martel.

Dean Martin's daughter Deana told her father she didn't mind his missing her cat opening: "I don't like drunks in the audience anyway."

Toplessness and "pasties" came in like a lion in March. "Topless waitresses are unsuitable for their work," Soupy Sales said. Numerous observers thought Twiggy had two backs, and one declared "Twiggy is the first topless waiter."

Connie Stevens left "The Star Spangled Girl" to have a baby in May. It got around that Phyllis Diller's husband wasn't to be accused of desertion but "leaving the scene of an accident." (The joke was probably Phyllis' own . . . etc.)

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Composer Henry Mancini played a sell-out concert at the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, but was asked to delete one tune: "The Stripper" . . . Alfred Hitchcock chatted with Rocky Graziano at Kipp's and told him, "You're the Madison Square Garden version of Shakespeare."

George ("Paper Lion") Plimpton'll enter the lion cage and do a tightrope act when the Ringling Bros. circus comes here . . . Patli Page and Charlie O'Curran mark their 11th ann'y Dec. 26 . . . Kate Smith has shelled more than 40 lbs. in eight months.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Nonnee Coan tells us his wife's peeved at him: "And all I did was sprinkle tenderizer on her biscuits."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A TV engineer, annoyed by noisy kids in a restaurant, told their mother: "Madame, children should be video'd, not audio'd!"

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Man is a creature who buys football tickets three months in advance, but waits till Christmas Eve to do his gift shopping."

EARL'S PEARLS: "My wife's getting me a pool table for Christmas," writes Merrill Chase of Chicago, "—so now she'll have six more pockets to go through."

Television commercials are getting more elaborate and more expensive, and Flip Wilson heard of one commercial that was closed out of town. . . . That's earl, brother.

IT'S CHRISTMAS—Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Herrand make sure no one will be without a Christmas dinner and a gift. Here they carry groceries and a box of gifts to be wrapped to Pontiac Rescue Mission, 90 University Drive.

The Herrands are in charge of mission. Pontiac area churches provide food and worship services every night for lonely men who gather at the mission for food and lodging.

Christmas for Homeless

Mission Provides Dinner, Gifts

"I was an hungry and ye gave me meat, I was thirsty and ye gave me drink, naked and ye clothed me, sick and ye visited me, in prison and ye came unto me." — Matthew 25: 35 - 36.

These were the words of Jesus as He spoke to His disciples. The Pontiac Rescue Mission, 90 University Drive, will serve Christmas dinner to those without a home at noon Monday. A worship service is at 11 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Herrand, in charge of the mission, are working with Pontiac area church laymen to see that no one goes hungry, that everyone has a Christmas gift.

Women of various churches cook and serve dinner every day of the week for neglected and aged men. Following dinner men of different congregations speak to the men bringing a Christmas message, lead the singing of hymns and someone plays the piano.

NOT A CHURCH

A rescue mission is not a church, but an arm of the church in its soul saving mission.

Christmas Meditation at Pine Hill

An original musical Christmas meditation entitled "Sing Noel" will be presented by the Chancel Choir and the Rev. Harry W. Clark, minister, at the Pine Hill Congregational Church, 460 Middlebelt, West Bloomfield Township at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow.

H. Bernard Ernst, choir director, and Pastor Clark used traditional folk music from many lands to illustrate the universality of Christmas. They wrote the connecting portions of the service.

Among the selections will be "As Late as We Watched," an Austrian folk song; "Ding Dong, Merrily on High," a French folk tune; "Twas in the Moon of Winter Time," an American Indian tune; "Caribbean Carol," a West Indies calypso melody; and "Go Tell It On the Mountain," a Negro spiritual.

Soloists include Jack Souder, Colleen Ernst, Byron Wyatt and Jean Hoffman.

Also featured in the service will be the Church School children as carolers under the direction of Mrs. Jack Souder.

At 7:30 on Christmas Eve there will be an informal family service. Traditional Christmas stories and carols will be on the program.

Important to put a new man into an old suit, than to put a new suit on an unregenerate man. The mission is a relief society, an employment agency with a work therapy rehabilitation program. It maintains a home for the homeless, feeds the hungry and clothes the needy. It meets the physical needs of men, that it may minister to the spiritual needs," Herrand said.

He went on to say "Jesus continually identified Himself with the down-trodden, and the outcast."

"Unemployment is responsible for many men being on the road. If there are no places for them to be housed and fed they will find it in other ways. For the protection of the individual, the community and the nation, there must be a place where these men can be reached with the message of the Gospel."

REACHED BY MISSION

"Sin is rampant in the world," said Herrand. "Thousands of men, women and children never darken the doors of the church. If they can be reached by the mission then they can be guided to the Church."

"Men and women from all walks of life, children from sordid circumstances find their way to Christ at the Rescue Mission, and go forth to take their places among members of our churches and society."

"The Rescue Mission is a place where human wreckage is salvaged through the regenerating power of the Gospel of Christ."

"It is the salvage department of the church in the work of rescue in the dark places of cities, large and small, and the slum areas of the world. It is international in its outreach and all inclusive in its program and message," he added.

TELLS STORY OF CHANUKAH—Rabbi Philip Berkowitz, spiritual leader of Temple Beth Jacob, tells the story of the Jews' struggle for freedom centuries ago to Marc Metzger of 445 S. Cranbrook, Birmingham, and Debbie Gash of 268 Douglas Drive, Bloomfield Hills. The holiday observed by Jewish people all over the world begins Friday and lasts for eight days. Rabbi Berkowitz shows his visitors how one candle is lit the first night, two candles the second night and an additional candle each evening.

Eight-Day Holiday

Festival of Lights Begins at Sundown

Chanukah also known as the member their ancient struggle for freedom and rededicate themselves to the ideal of freedom for all men.

The holiday is observed with special services, prayers and hymns. Games are played and a special lot called a dreidel.

St. Michael's Choir Presents Program

Under the direction of Michael Dempsey the choir of St. Michael's Catholic Church will present selections at 11:30 p.m.

Numbers include "Rejoice and Sing," Bach; "The Star Carol," Burt; "Break Forth a Beauteous Heavenly Light," Bach; "I wonder As I Wander" with Thomas Marsh and Marsha Goldman soloists.

Other selections include "He is Born," Wagner with Nancy Schmitz, flute soloist; "O Holy Night" by Adam with Dale Cheal playing the baritone and the William Cheal family featured as a brass choir.

Also featured on the program will be "The Shepherd's Story" a traditional English carol; and

Unitarians' Service by Candle Light

The Christmas Eve services at the Birmingham Unitarian Church, 651 Woodward, Bloomfield Hills, are traditionally held in the warm glow of candlelight, according to Pastor Robert Marshall.

At both the 8 and 9:30 evening services the ceremony is centered around banks of lighted candles brought to the church by families.

Special music will be furnished by an instrumental trio, composed of Barbara Scully, harp; Marilyn Jones, flute; and Robert Barns of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, bassoon.

The trio will perform "Pastorale de Noel" by Andre Jolivet.

There will be a service at 10:30 tomorrow morning. The choir will participate. The Rev. Stanley Stefancic, assistant minister, will give the sermon, "Religion for the Man Who Has Everything."

Arrangements for the Christmas service are by Mrs. Richard Wiseman and Robert Pangborn. Assisting are Mrs. Carmi Odell and Marilyn Jones.

Four Services

Holy Communion will be celebrated at both regular services tomorrow at Gethsemane Lutheran Church, Auburn and Dequindre, Avon Township; at 11 p.m. on Christmas Eve and at 10 a.m. on Christmas Day.

EVENING SERVICE 7 P.M. WED. PRAYER, 7 P.M.

Dear Santa,

This is our 13th annual Christmas list of gifts, favors and promises which we would like to have you take for our many friends and sports fans, coaches, players and teams.

You've been very generous on many occasions to the people in sports, but there have also been times when you've by-passed many of them.

Right now as you prepare for your jaunt from the northland, scatter some snow flakes over the ski areas to make Mort Graddis and his cohorts happy at Mt. Holly, Alpine Valley, Mt. Christie, Pine Knob, Grampian Mt., and the other areas.

But, keep it off the highways for awhile so that we can spend a couple days with mom, our first time at home in 15 years in the hills of Pennsylvania.

As you hit this area with your bag of goodies please fill some of these requests:

For the Detroit Tigers — a bat-meter to get a few more hits with men on base; for Jimmy Campbell, a deal for Jim Fregosi or Bert Campanaris; for Denny McLain a gopher ball to throw more strikes on the bowling alley; for owner Bill Fetzer a hand woven pennant to fly at the corner of Michigan and Trumbull and for public relations director Hal Middlesworth a new parking area for the working men of the old estate.

For the Detroit Lions — a couple more rookie-of-the-year picks in the draft; or Joe Schmidt another Bobby Layne; for Bill Ford, a new idea for the 1968 season; for Carl Bretschneider, a strong kidney; for Karl Swetan, brass knuckles; for Russ Thomas another Lem Barney; for Edwin J. Anderson a com-lete new supply of yellow, pink and green shirts he wore when the Lions were winning; for Mrs. EJA (Sonny) a patent on those delicious glazed pecans; for Lyall Smith, a team he can crow about in 1968 and for Elliott Trumbull an IBM machine to keep track of all the record number of fumbles in one game.

Don't forget Friday Macklin, Maurice Schubot, Norma at the switchboard and all of the fine hard working assistant coaches and crew at 1401 Michigan Ave.

The Pistons need to: keep the zing in Bing to Butcher the NBA teams for a playoff berth and a title.

For Sid Abel of the Red Wings, announce a new generation of sextuplets, all named Howe, a few more hat tricks for Alex Delvecchio and a new nose for Bruce MacGregor.

MAKE CAMPUS VISITS

At East Lansing and Ann Arbor, plant the roots for an all new Rose Garden which will bear its bloom on the first of January each year.

For Bob Calihan at U. of D. arrange an NIT bid, and for Vern Gale, the Ponchartraine Hotel for a day when they honor his fine Wayne State football team Jan. 15.

For the Pontiac Firebirds leave an encore book in 1968 except for a season finale crack at Mt. Clemens, and for the Pontiac Tomahawks and coach Bob Duffy, a better defense and a bucket full of points from his Piston farm hands Bob Long and Sonny Dove starting tonight.

Tom Parks wants a place in the sun with an AFL or NFL coaching staff; Paul Travy wants a bigger budget to operate the Firebirds and Tomahawks; ditto Lee Haslinger for school athletics; ditto Dave Ewalt and John Streit for city recreation.

For Charlie Irish out in Arizona, truck a load of that snow from Flagstaff to Phoenix, and a clear TV set so that he can watch the Packers get iced by the Rams.

TOP LOCAL ATHLETES

For Pontiac's Micki King, the No. 1 woman diver in the country, a shoo-in berth in the 1968 Olympics; for Bill Tipton easy hurdling toward Mexico City for Hayes Jones, congratulations on his new position heading New York city's recreation program; for Gene Bone, Michigan Open and PGA crown; for Mike Samardzja, a few 300 games with the pros.

A crown of appreciation is a must to Shirley Pointer, our choice as woman Bowler of the Year for her dedicated contributions to the sport; for Hal Marsh, the new Pontiac Open bowling champ, a report card just as impressive at Oakland U. a couple Alcindor prospects for cage coach Dick Robinson, and Scholander-type recruits for swim coach Corey Van Fleet.

Pin Ryan wants an overall first class athletic program at OCC, and Hollie Lepy wants the completion of those handball and paddle ball courts at OU.

Don't forget our friends on the area high school scene, more headlines and better coverage for Kettering, Waterford, Northern, Central, Catholic, Clarkston, Rochester, Walled Lake, Lake Orion, Avondale and all 70 schools of the area.

For Leo Folsom at Walled Lake we want a 1968 gift certificate making him coach of the year; for Father Stan, at Orchard Lake ditto as the best PR man of the area; a statistician with statistics and first names for Avondale, Troy, Lake Orion, among a few; another state title for Bill Willson and the PNH wrestling team; a Seaholm entry in the Press Prep golf tournament, as past five-time champion; a sweat suit for Walt Kowalczyk; a size 17 shoe and size 8 helmet for 6-3, 320 pound Jerry Thick of the Firebirds.

For Warren Orlick at Tam O'Shanter leave the 1970 PGA Championship; for his assistants Stan Brion and Jim Picard, good shooting on the tour; for Mike Souchak at Oakland Hills, the 1972 U.S. Open; for Bob Gajda of Forest Lake and Ted Kroll at Franklin Hills, a couple cases of "fuller's earth powder" and hair restorer respectively.

TO EVERYONE ELSE

Joy Fair wants a list of 1968 stock racing victories; Chuck Cartwright needs ice for ice boating; Bert Anselmi is after more state roller skating champions; a welcome back to Dave Keagy, Jr., to the archery field and a sugar cookie bet with Howard Heidenbrand that our Swami will beat his Swami in the bowl selections.

The city of Pontiac and the entire area we would like that sports-arena auditorium.

For all our friends in sports, the happy and unhappy letter writers, Bless them all with the Best Wishes for a wonderful holiday season.

Our Sincere Wishes,
The Sports Department

Groves Streak Ends Before Home Fans

Winning streaks are made to be broken and the long skein of Birmingham—the best among area teams—came to a halt last night.

Playing before a home crowd, Groves' Falcons came up with a poor shooting night against a sharp Southfield squad and wound up on the short end of a 74-42 score.

The loss was the first one for the Falcons since February 1965. They had won 38 straight in regular-season play over the last four seasons.

While Southfield's Blue Jays were winning their nonconference encounter, they lost a little ground in the Southeastern Michigan Association when Royal Oak Kimball rallied for a 61-59 win over Berkeley and a share of the SEMA lead.

Southfield and ROK are both 2-0 in league play and they'll meet Jan. 5 to decide who remains on top.

SOUTHFIELD ON TARGET

Last night's visit to Groves found the Blue Jays bringing their shooting eyes with them. They connected on 33 of 62 shots from the field while Groves hit only 17 of 51.

Southfield jumped off to a 16-4 lead in the opening quarter and never was in trouble. Dave Kontry's 24 points and Dave Chalmers 18 paced the victors. The two also teamed with Bob Scheurer to control the backboards, 33-20. Scheurer pulled down 10 rebounds.

Kimball's tense win found the Knights trailing, 57-53, with 1:41 to play. After a free throw by Greg Schmidt, Fred Schellmut stole the ball and cut the gap to 57-56.

Jack Benning made it 59-56 for Berkeley with less than a minute to go. However, Schellmut then took over. His field goal made it 59-58 with seven seconds to play.

The ensuing pass-in found Berkeley fouling the Kimball guard and he hit two charity tosses for a 60-59 lead. Again the Bears fouled him on their throw-in and he made one more free shot before Berkeley lost possession their final throw-in as the game ended.

U. of M. Drops Cage Squeaker

PHOENIX, Ariz. (U) — Arizona State pumpered the University of Michigan's zone defense with sharp outside shooting and weathered a furious finish to win the Sun Devil Classic basketball championship 92-91 Friday night.

Willie Harris hit nine of 16 from the field and scored 18 points to lead the Sun Devils. Benny Stewart had 20 points and Ken Maxey 19 for the Wolverines.

The turning point in the hard-fought Arizona State-Michigan game came with Michigan leading 76-73 and 5:33 left.

Bob Edwards blocked a Michigan shot, took the rebound and was fouled by Rudy Tomjanovich. That eliminated Tomjanovich, the tournament's most valuable player.

Two minutes later the Sun Devils had a seven-point lead that barely held up in a last ditch effort by the Wolverines.

Cold Lifts Hopes of Skiing Crowd

Snow is in the air—and not just those teasing flurries that blew into town Friday.

Ski resort operators in the Pontiac area welcomed the onslaught of cold air Thursday and Friday with snowmaking nozzles that immediately began working overtime to prepare the slopes for the holiday period.

Mt. Brighton was the first to report slopes ready for business, with an average of 10 inches on limited stretches.

Expected to open sometime today are Pine Knob, Mt. Holly, Alpine Valley and Mt. Grampian. No word was received from Mt. Christie. All should be ready for extensive operating tomorrow. Pine Knob and Mt. Holly are planning full schedules Christmas Day, Alpine will start at noon while Brighton, Christie and Grampian haven't announced their intentions.

'Celebrities' Taking Floor as T-Hawks Resume Play

It will be "Celebrity Night" at Pontiac Northern High School this evening when the Pontiac Tomahawks resume their North American Basketball League campaign after a two-week layoff.

The Holland Carvers are the opposition and they feature 6-10 Billy (The Hill) McGill, a hook-shot artist who owns all the scoring records at the University of Utah.

McGill tallied 30 points when the Carvers defeated the Tomahawks in the season opener last month at Holland.

Pontiac plans to counter McGill's scoring with 6-8 St. John's University All-American "Sonny" Dove, who was sent to the Tomahawks this week by the Detroit Pistons.

Paul Long, another Piston rookie who was optioned to the Tomahawks, will display his appearance until Wednesday's home game with Grand Rapids.

The biggest celebrity, however, at tonight's game will be Santa Claus. He'll distribute gifts to the youngsters in the crowd.

A preliminary game will find Paul Parks, general manager-president of the Tomahawks and a successful city baseball manager, coaching the Pontiac Firebirds against Sgt. Herb Cooley and the city police cagers in a 6:20 p.m. exhibition.

The regular game will begin at 8 o'clock.

Winless OU Cagers in Top Performance at Free Throw Line

Oakland University's lack of success in the basketball victory column isn't reflected by the team's accuracy at the free throw line.

The Pioneers currently are 6-4 while awaiting the resumption of action Jan. 5 and 6 at Wayne State and Adrian.

The latest National Collegiate Athletic Association college division statistics, however, credit the OU squad with a 75 per cent team percentage at the foul-line, good for 15th place.

In addition, the Pioneers' sophomore guard Gordie Tebo has hit 16 of 17 charity tosses to rank second individually with a 94.4 mark.

Oakland's next home game will be Jan. 20 against Hillsdale.

LA Downs Cold-Shooting Pistons in Halting Skid

By the Associated Press
The Los Angeles Lakers caught a cold - shooting Detroit Pistons team and pulled ahead steadily Friday night to win their National Basketball Association game 133-105.
The victory broke the Lakers' four-game losing streak and was their first triumph in 13 days. Detroit was plagued by its poor shooting average from the field, hitting only 39 per cent, 40-of-103.
Elgin Baylor led the Lakers with 25 points, followed by Jerry Clark with 23 and Archie West with 21.

The leading scorer for the Pistons was Len Chappell. After sitting out the first quarter, Chappell hit 11 of 12 field goal attempts and six of seven free throws for 28 points.
In NBA games, Boston topped Cincinnati 120-117, Baltimore whipped Chicago 117-112, Seattle beat New York 120-108 and San Francisco edged San Diego 103-97. In the only American Basketball Association game, Anaheim nipped Denver 108-102.

Hawks Prepare for Tournament With Loop Tilt

The Lakeland Hawks will prepare for their Gordie Howe Hockeyland Holiday Tournament opener at noon Wednesday with a Southeast Michigan Junior Hockey League game tomorrow at Port Huron.
The Lakeland juvenile squad is slated to meet St. Clair Shores at noon tomorrow after the midweek team meets Fraser at 11 a.m. The bantam Hawks will visit Grosse Pointe at 8 a.m.
The juveniles then will play Center Line Tied in their tourney debut Wednesday. The Hawks tied Roseville, 1-1, on Randy Sutt's goal in their last outing.

Troy Gunners Sharp in Win Over Utica '5'

Troy moved into a second-place tie with Lake Orion (3-1) in the Oakland A basketball race with a slow-motion 43-35 win at Utica Friday night.
"We had to play for the good percentage shot," coach Bob Acton explained in noting that Lynn Qualmann hit 9 of 11 field goal tries for the winners - all in close to the basket.

The Colts' Kerry Brown also made five field goals right around the hoop as the winners made 19 of 30 shots. "We couldn't afford to miss with them using ball-control tactics."

Utica's Chieftains (2-2) took only 24 shots, making 12 of them but not quite sharp enough to offset Troy's hot shooting.

Showdown Slated in Classic League

Clarence Stapleton's 203-240-279-722 bombing Tuesday night enabled Spot Welder Repair to draw even with Made Rite Chips atop the Airway Lanes Classic standings.

The two teams will collide next week on Position Night.
Stapleton's series ties him for the sixth best men's series in the area this season. Ray Keith hit 223-258-681 and Bill Richards had a 652 in other Airway scoring.

The Huron Bowl Wednesday "A" Leaguers featured a 211-243-647 by Grant St. Amour, and a 244 by Jack Choler this week. Glenn Reynolds hit 236-221-651 and Roger Foldy a 236.

Groves' Tankers Post Easy Win Over Hazel Park

Hazel Park ran into a Birmingham Groves swimming unit with too much depth last night and lost a 64-40 verdict to the home squad.

Groves' Falcons evened their record at 2-2 by taking the last six first place finishes after seeing Hazel Park nab four of the opening five top spots. There were double winners individually.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

To a rubber bridge player, 10 points means nothing at all. Once in awhile, if he is playing for money and scoring a rubber to the nearest hundred, it may mean an extra point, but, all in all, he pays no attention to such trifles.

JACOBY To a duplicate player it may mean the difference between a top score and an average, and many duplicate players will play a slam in no-trump in an effort to get the extra 10 points.

South was one of that type. He decided that he would make just as many tricks at no-trump as at hearts and that he wanted those 10 points.

South was right from the first standpoint. The hand did produce as many tricks at no-trump and when West failed to cash his ace of spades at trick one, South made a grand slam and got the top score he was trying for.

From a practical standpoint it turned out that his six no-trump call was totally unne-sary. It seems that at all other tables, North checked for aces with four no trump and then, carried away by his own 20 points, bid the six no-trump himself.

Invariably, East led a spade. Some North players put in the 10 spot and managed to get out for down one. A couple of hardy souls went up with the king in the hope that East had underled an ace and went down three.

We take no stand on South's final bid of six no-trump, but we do take a real stand in favor of North's bidding. North was Roger Stern, the newly elected president of the Greater New York Bridge Association, and Roger was well-aware that a spade would be led if he were declarer and a spade lead might be disastrous. Furthermore, he knew that Paul Trent, his partner, was well-aware of all duplicate potentialities.

Finger-Snapping Cab Has Yule Birthday

NEW YORK (AP) — Fingers snapping, toes tapping, Cab Calloway day-in "Hello, Dolly," but lowly listened to a recording he had just made of "I Will Wait On entering the recording studio for you" for a new album and he picked up a sheet of music pronounced his judgment. and in seconds was humming "That's great. You can't do and snapping his fingers. any better than that," he said.

Calloway, who will be 60 on Christmas Day, is doing great, son for his new album—"Cab Calloway 6"—to be issued by Pip Records early next year.

BIG BAND SOUND
The record conveys the big band sound Calloway helped make famous with his "Hi-De-Ho" orchestra, but there's a difference, according to Joe Abend, president of Pip.

Calloway said he doesn't feel like he's going to turn 60. "I feel just like I was going on 20," he said. His face is unlined, his old brown eyes twinkled under the studio lights and there wasn't a gray hair detectable on his head.

And, most important, his "Mame," but there are a few voice was as lusty and swinging oldies such as "September Song."

Calloway said when he was The day before he had put in approached for "Hello, Dolly," he wasn't at all sure he wanted to do it. "Then all of a sudden, David Merrick made up my mind for me," he said. "We settled a few little things and that was it."

"I hadn't done a musical in a long time. It was pretty hard to make the transition."

As for having a birthday on Christmas, Calloway said, "It's a glorious day, a wonderful day, to be born that day."

"I'll be celebrating my birthday in the regular way," he said. "I'll be spending it at home with my family. That's my wife, and my five daughters will be there."

The son, John C. Fisher, 21, Kalamazoo, went looking for his mother, Mrs. Edna Fisher, 59, after she failed to show up at a relative's house Thursday night.

He found her abandoned car on M60. Its side window was smashed but Mrs. Fisher's purse and money were still in the car.

His mother's body was found in a corn field about 25 feet from the road.

Swedish Trip by Lawmakers

Mediation Unit Man to Join Court Study

LANSING (UPI) — Four state representatives and a State Mediation Board member announced yesterday they would travel to Stockholm during the holiday period for a study of labor courts in Sweden.

The lawmakers are the last of about 50 legislators who in recent weeks have taken study trips to far-off places, including Central America and distant points in the United States.

Rep. Joseph Swallow, R-Alpena, chairman of the special committee on labor legislation relating to public employee bargaining, will head the study tour.

Other members of the special committee are Reps. James Bradley, D-Detroit; Gus Groat,
R-Battle Creek; Raymond Keb-res, D-Monroe, and Phil Weiss, of the State Labor Mediation Board.

Cost of the trip is estimated at more than $10,000 for each legislator. The lawmakers received $500 in advance money for expenses from the state and $500 each for airplane travel.

REFERRED TO COURT

The trip will take place between Dec. 28 and Jan. 3.

"Under Swedish law, when an impasse in collective bargaining procedures between employer and employees is reached, instead of a strike resulting, the question is referred to a court which decides the issue.

"As a result of this unique system, Sweden has not suffered a major strike in decades," said Swallow.

Swallow said, "A similar labor court system may be applicable to Michigan's very serious dilemma which exists in public employee relations."

Several teachers strikes and other public employee strikes hit the state earlier this year.

People in the News

By the Associated Press

The nation's First Lady celebrated her 55th birthday yesterday at a party for White House staff members. Her husband, President Johnson, was absent.

The President had flown to Australia for memorial services for Prime Minister Harold E. Holt, and then traveled on to Thailand and Vietnam to visit U.S. troops.

Mrs. Johnson attended memorial services for Holt in Washington Cathedral yesterday morning, before her birthday party began in the holiday-decorated East Room of the White House. Professional entertainment was provided, and Mrs. Johnson also led her guests in singing Christmas carols.

After the party, she spent the evening with her family—daughters Lynda and Luci, grandson Lyn and sons-in-law Charles Robb and Patrick Nugent.

'Dead' Soldier May Spend Yule With Parents

Jacky Bayne, the young soldier pronounced dead in Vietnam but revived by an embalmer, hopes to spend Christmas day with his parents away from Columbia Veterans Hospital in South Carolina.

His doctors will permit the one-day leave "if his slight temperature comes down." Bayne has an infection and mild case of the flu.

Last July 16, the 22-year-old soldier from Fort Mill, N.C., was pronounced dead on a Vietnam battlefield. His pulse was noticed sometime later—how much later has not been determined.

Hospital officials say Bayne is making steady progress, talks well for short periods but still has not been told everything about that July day. Bayne also hasn't yet been formally awarded a Bronze Star he earned for "meritorious service" in Vietnam.

Singer Ordered to Pay Child Support

Singer Johnny Cash has been ordered to pay $400 a month for child support, plus medical costs for his four children, ages 6 through 12, under terms of a divorce granted his wife yesterday in Ventura, Calif.

Vivian D. Cash charged extreme cruelty in her Superior Court divorce suit. She and Cash had married in San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 7, 1954.

Six Nashville Prisoners Team for Daring Escape

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) —
Six inmates of Nashville Metro Jail stood around unobtrusively workers came through passing with a bound guard hidden under a bunk, while Salvation
Army workers handed out
Christmas gifts.

Then the daring team completed their escape from a third-floor cell block with a rope made of bed sheets Friday night.

Three of them were captured short time later.

Rookie guard Ralph Cruz, 34, in his second day on the job, said he and trusty Ellis Baucum were walking along a corridor in the cell block when a corridor held up a note to be sent out.

"This fellow asked me to open the door and I did," Cruz said.
Then they jumped up. One of them grabbed Baucum and had a knife at his throat.

THREATENED

"The next thing I knew, one of them had a knife in my throat and another had a knife in my back. They said, 'don't say anything or we'll kill you.'"

Cruz said the prisoners placed a gag over his mouth, tied him and bunk and slid him under a bunk.

Nazi Pickets Are Routed at Cinema

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — An angry crowd yesterday chased seven pickets in Nazi uniforms away from the premier of a movie about marriage between a Negro boy and a white girl.

the Village Theater in Westwood near UCLA, where the disturbance occurred.

Police said one of the pickets was arrested for disturbing the peace.

The pickets, wearing brown uniforms, appeared at the showing of the film "Look Who's Coming to Dinner," starring Spencer Tracy, Katherine Hepburn and Sidney Poitier.

Theater manager Frank Ramsey said one of the pickets carried a sign reading "black and white don't mix." Others had signs with anti-Jewish slogans, Ramsey added.

He said a crowd of 200 gathered around the pickets and began shouting insults at them.

"Finally somebody started swinging at them. It looked like about 30 people were trying to fight them and the rest were milling around," Ramsey said.

"The Nazis took off running with the crowd at their heels."

"The crowd caught one of them in an alley. I hear he got quite a beating," the theater manager added.

Ramsey said he saw no Negroes in the crowd.

quality & economy with Stran-Steel buildings

You get economy with Stran-Steel buildings because economy is literally designed and built into every steel component. It is the natural result of quality planned, mass production techniques that are not only better, but also economical. The savings are passed along to you.

Before you build any building, discover why a Stran-Steel building is a better investment. Find out why Stran-Steel is able to offer written guarantees to back up the performance of the steel components. Lower heating and cooling bills are the direct result of exclusive insulated wall systems. Faster construction, often 60

A scale model of the Masada Rock at the Jewish Museum.

MEMORIES of MASADA

In the year 73 A.D., atop a huge rock plateau rising 1300 feet above the Israeli side of the Dead Sea, 960 Jewish Zealots made their last stand. The night before the final attack by 6000 troops of the Tenth Roman Legion, each man killed his own family. Ten men were then chosen, by lots, to kill the rest. They, in turn, slew one another. The last man set fire to the palace and fortifications and took his own life with a sword.

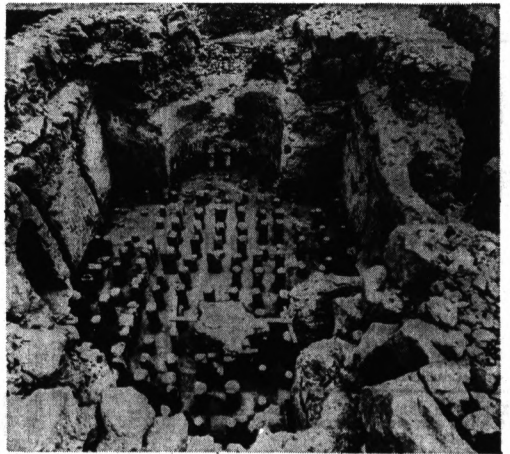

This action, and the history of their lives atop the rock, called Masada, has been uncovered by an archeological team under the auspices of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, the Department of Antiquities and Museums of the Government of Israel and the Israel Exploration Society.

Led by Professor Yigael Yadin, the work took eleven months of excavations. Helicopters made surveys, engineers built a road to the site and more than 5000 volunteers, from 28 nations, poured in at their own expense to do the manual labor.

With the uncovering and reconstruction of a substantial part of Masada completed, skeletal remains of the fighters were revealed. There were prayer shawls, sandals, scroll fragments and shards of pottery, each with a name on it. It was believed the shards represented a lottery of the fighters, the name drawn to be responsible for killing the last men before taking his own life.

All these important findings, together with a historical review of the whole Masada Rock events, will begin a tour throughout the United States following its five-month stay in New York City's Jewish Museum.

Union Council Criticizes Papers' Offer to Drivers

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Council of Newspaper Unions, which represents 14 unions at Detroit's two daily newspapers, branded as "unacceptable, premature and inadequate" Friday a three-year $27-a-week money package offered by publishers to striking Teamster truck drivers.

The strike, which entered its 38th day Saturday, began Nov. 15th when members of Teamsters Local 372 struck the morning Detroit Free Press because publication two days later in accordance with a publisher's agreement.

Teamsters officials said the new offer would provide a $10 weekly increase the first year, with $9 and $8, respectively, in the final two years of a three-year contract.

"The $27 figure included everything... wage increases, fringe benefits, hospitalization... everything," said Elton Schade, secretary of Local 372.

VOTE WEDNESDAY
Teamsters at the Detroit News will vote on the offer next Wednesday, with Free Press Teamsters balloting the next day. Both elections will be by secret ballot conducted by the State Labor Mediation Board.

Teamsters negotiators placed the offer before union members without recommendation. The News originally offered the Teamsters a $12.24 increase over two years. Teamster drivers at the newspapers averaged $150.15 weekly base pay under the old contract. Union sources said the Free Press offer was virtually identical to that offered by the News.

3 Boats Brave Lake Superior

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Three vessels were reported in Lake Superior Friday on the first day of winter, an unusually late date for maritime activity. They were the Lawrencecliffe Hall, owned by the Hall Corp. of Canada, downbound with a load of grain; the Jason J. Callaway, downbound from Two Harbors, Minn., with a load of taconite, iron ore pellets; and the Leon Fraser, headed upbound for Two Harbors.

CROWN OF CANDLES — One of the traditional, colorful Christmas customs in Sweden is Saint Lucia, also known as the Queen of Light, dating back to Viking times. Early on the morning of Dec. 13, St. Lucia Day, lovely young women wearing crowns of greens and candles and dressed in flowing white gowns mark the beginning of the season.

Teen Girls' Presents More Than Enough to Wear Santa Out

Those eight tiny reindeer just don't supply the oomph Santa needs these days to pull his sleigh.

Teen-age girls' alone supply enough burden to exhaust Dasher, Prancer and company.

The nation's 12 million girl teen-agers last Christmas bought:

Gifts for their families totaling $315 million;
Presents for pals worth $137 million;
Gifts for themselves worth nearly $125 million of the more than $156 million they collected in Christmas cash.

And for the girls, Santa brought 9 million sweaters, 8 million blouses or shirts, more than five and a half million slacks, four and a half million pajamas, three million stockings, nearly seven million containers of perfume and better than six million records.

The girls spent an average of $10.18 each on their mothers or $11.131.000.

What did they buy?
Blouses—a million and a half. Slightly more girls decided perfume would make the best gift. The rest bought mostly cosmetics, sweaters, slips, nightgowns, silver, china and glassware.

Dad was worth spending $8.04 by his daughters who paid nearly $111,500,000 largely for two million bottles of cologne, a slightly smaller number of sports shirts, and a million and a half bottles of after-shave lotion.

GM 10-Day Sales Are Up From '68

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors Corp. reported selling 116,620 passenger cars during the second 10 days of December up from the 115,686 sold during the same period last year.

Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp. and American Motors Corp. have not released their figures for the latest 10-day period, which had nine selling days compared with eight last year.

GM reported selling 216,471 new cars during the first 20 days of December, down from the 234,879 figure posted during the same span last year. Both periods had 17 selling days.

Ski Lift Fund

The Michigan Department of Conservation has been awarded a $65,409 grant from the Interior Department to construct a double chair lift at Porcupine Mountains State Park in the state's Upper Peninsula.

On themselves, with the $156 million they got in Christmas cash, the teen-age girls bought sweaters worth an average of $10 each, records worth $4.08 per girl, other items of clothing and jewelry and cosmetics.

About five million girls spent nearly $12 million on wrapping paper. That works out to $2.40 each for paper. And they also spent more than $3 million, or other items. The bill totaled $25.68 cents per girl, on ribbon million plus or about $2.27 per girl.

Mini and Mod Trends Have Impact on Toyland

The mini and the Mod influence of this five inch doll is seen in fashion world have impacted on the world of dolls and stuffed animals this Christmas. Santa's pack has a record showing of miniature prototypes in Mod-inspired costumes.

The boy doll is playing a bigger role in the doll world, and football teams in the National Football League.

Play Pets provide more scope for the young puppeteers by the new design in hand puppets is a new group of singers, the Pip Squeaks, with Mod hairdos and costumes. Just squeeze their arms gently and they give out with a groovy sound.

Mini Dancers are another all-star talent team that's new in Toyland's doll sector. These five-inch-tall darlings go into a full-on rarsington act, when the wind up.

In the growing boy doll contingent is Scrambling Quarter-ton, back designed to provide football fans of all ages with an animated souvenir of their favorite team. When the key in the

Built-In Bookcases Flank Family Room's Arched Brick Fireplace

Holiday Air Pervades Two-Story

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

The regal two-story Ronald Anderson home in Avon Township wears a mantle of holiday atmosphere as Christmas decorations highlight the French decor. An area rug of scarlet accents the black and white marble and provides a warm touch of color at the double-doored entry. Reflected in the gold-framed mirror is the cane-backed entry bench.

Two steps lead down into the formal living room draped in olive green antique satin. Completing the background are sculptured gray carpeting and off-white walls. Hand-carved furniture pieces feature matched inlay detail.

In the formal dining room, also entered from the central foyer, gray velvet draperies and swags formalize the Austrian casement sheers. The pale green cove of the ceiling is accented in gold.

Repeating the gray of the draperies is the carpeting," said Mrs. Anderson. "The carpeting," said Mrs. Anderson, "was imported from Porto Rico. It is natural wool. No bleach or dye was used to achieve the gray color. It is merely a blend of the natural black and the white yarns."

A sparkling crystal and brass drop fixture lights the area. Matching quilted black-on-white French toile chairs are placed on either side of the broad window.

The heirloom crystal and silver pickle dish adorning the china cabinet belonged to Mrs. Anderson's family.

In the nearby family room, Christmas reigns supreme with the ceiling-brushing holiday tree agleam with colorful lights and ornaments.

Paneled in fruitwood, the room is draped in a marbled print of blue, turquoise, green and gold.

Favoring an eclectic blend for the family center, Mrs. Anderson has chosen French Provincial tables to serve the olive green button-back sofa as well as a chrome and glass coffee table.

A cut velvet blue and white striped wing back is before the raised hearth.

HAPPY HOLIDAY -- To make your guests feel merry the minute they step inside your door, cut a welcome mat in the shape of a chunky Christmas tree out of a bright green area rug of Du Pont nylon. Decorate the tree with round wooden buttons, painted red and lightly sewn into the pile; or with colorful felt cut-outs. After Christmas, this friendly rug could go into a child's room — or be put away until next year, to be brought out with the other holiday decorations.

A Basic Tool

Vise Extra Hand in Workshop

No home workshop is really well-equipped unless it has a vise. This is a basic tool. It is absolutely essential in any job where material must be firmly held while working on it.

It is an extra hand when you need both your hands for handling a tool.

Vises are widely available in a variety of sizes and types and in a wide range of prices. They work on similar principles, however, regardless of type. There is a movable jaw and a fixed jaw.

The movable jaw is manipulated by a handle which tightens it or releases it in relation to the fixed jaw. The handle is at the end of a threaded steel shaft.

With a few exceptions most vises are mounted on a solid surface, generally the workbench. This is done by bolting, clamping or screwing to the surface to provide a firm mounting.

The kind you are likeliest to buy is the machinist's vise. This is a utility vise that will fill most needs. It has steel jaws generally varying in width from 3 1/2 to 4 inches.

The opening between jaws will vary from 3 to 6 inches.

There are a few other features you are likely to find on a machinist's vise. Generally there is a flat anvil base back of the fixed jaw. Use this for hammering and bending.

Most models have a swivel base. You can turn the vise in any direction and lock it in place.

Below the flat surface of each jaw you are likely to find a second surface, half round and corrugated.

Together the surfaces form pipe jaws which will grip a piece of pipe security without smashing it as flat jaws would. This feature is important if you have to cut a length of pipe.

When you mount a machinist's vice place it on one corner of the bench so that the face of the fixed jaw is slightly forward of the edge of the bench.

This will permit clearance for objects that project downward.

A woodworker's vise is preferred if you do much carpentry. This type is not fastened to the top of the bench. It is fastened to the front of the bench so that the top edge of the fixed jaw is flush with the top of the bench.

Jaws on such a vise are larger; 3 to 6 inches to 4 by 10 inches. The jaws are of smooth steel with holes provided so that the jaws can be lined with pieces of wood to protect the material you are working on.

Both types of vises are available in clamp-on models where portability is needed. These can be mounted on a saw horse or a tabletop.

Any vise must be mounted securely so that it doesn't wobble. Tighten only with the regular handle. Do not apply extra leverage by extending the handle with a length of pipe or by pounding on the handle.

Keep jaws clean, free of rust, and smooth. Line with wood or other soft materials whenever the work must be protected.

Use of welded insulating glass in windows eliminates the need for changing and maintenance of storm sash, and cuts window cleaning in half.

Tighten Loose Board

Put Silencer on Squeaky Floor

A squeaky floor is a nuisance, but the problem is too easily solved to be allowed to remain. Squeaks occur when floor boards become loose.

Understanding the construction of a floor will help you understand the problem and its cure. Most floors consist of two layers of flooring.

TIGHT FIT

Finish floor boards have a tongue- and- groove construction so that they fit tightly together. The nails are driven in at an angle along the tongue.

When a floor squeaks, it means that a board has loosened. The finish flooring, perhaps not nailed properly, may have pulled loose from the subfloor.

Or the subfloor may have pulled loose from a joist. Or there may be a combination of these circumstances.

Sometimes you can simply slam the floor back to its proper position. Once you have located the offending boards (just walk on them and note which squeak) take a block of wood and a hammer and pound the boards.

This may reset the original nails. The board will prevent damage to the flooring. Padding it will make it even less likely to do damage.

It is more likely, however, that you will have to add more nails. Use a three-inch finishing nail and try to drive it through the floor and into the joists.

Tapping with a mallet or even your fist should reveal the location of joists. When the sound changes from hollow to solid, you have one. Locate others by measuring. They generally are 16 inches apart, measuring from center to center.

HOW TO DRIVE NAILS

Drive nails in at an angle, placing two at each point so that they form a "V" as they go through the flooring. You can make the job easier and avoid damage by drilling pilot holes first.

Use a drill bit just a tiny bit thinner than the nail. This will prevent splitting.

Drive the nail almost all the way in. Then finish driving it with a nail set. Drive the head slightly below the surface and fill the hole with wood putty or a shellac stick.

If the floor is accessible from below, such as a ground floor over a basement with an unfinished ceiling, then, approach the problem from below.

Locate the offending boards by having someone walk on the floor while you watch and mark them from below. Then drive thin wedges between the flooring and the joists. This should tighten the boards so that they do not squeak.

Lacking wedges, use wood strips which you can nail to the joist along its top edge so that it supports the flooring.

Gift Exchange Regulations!

PLEASE PLAN TO MAKE YOUR EXCHANGES WELL AHEAD OF DEADLINE . . . IT IS WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1968

EVEN SANTA CAN GUESS WRONG!

It's almost impossible to expect to be 100% perfect with every gift you choose. Colors, sizes, duplication . . . any of these can make exchanges necessary. Your Pontiac area merchants are ready to make these exchanges for you, but ask your cooperation in making them early!

Merchandise specially ordered or made-to-order cannot be returned. Nor is it returnable if you purchased it on an "as is" or "all-sales-final" basis. Any store also has the right to refuse merchandise if soiled, worn or used, or altered from the condition in which it was bought.

TRADITIONAL COMFORT — The over-all impression of the exterior of this two-story house is one of solidity and comfortable living. Architectural lines create the illusion of width, although the frontage is only 45', enabling it to fit on a lot of modest size.

Traditional 2-Story Has Six Bedrooms

Built-in flexibility is the key feature of a traditional two-story house that equally meets the needs of a large family and a family that may become large.

The house has a six-bedroom potential, aimed at the family but until that time arrives, the floor plan allows the use of three of the bedrooms for other purposes.

For instance, the room adjacent to the owners' bedroom will serve as a sitting room for TV or reading, creating a suite tied in to a sun deck and private bath.

This is made possible by a layout that permits an arch opening of 4' between the rooms or a full closed wall.

Another room with flexible possibilities on the second floor is what architect Herman H. York calls a studio bedroom, which can be used in as many ways as the owners' imagination permits.

PRIVACY

As a hobby or studio room. It is tucked away in one corner to give privacy to anyone looking for a chance to "get away" for a few hours. It even can be used as part of the owners' complex, as it connects conveniently with the sun deck just outside the sitting room.

A third room that can be considered part of the six-bedroom arrangement is on the first floor at the left side of the house. Use it for sleeping, hobbies, sewing or whatever.

Its location enables it to have a separate entrance, thus keeping traffic to this room away from the front door. A self-employed individual in a very appreciable such an opportunity to include in his home an office for conducting business in a limited fashion.

Z-20 STATISTICS

Design Z-20 has a living room, dining room, foyer, kitchen-dinette, family room, spare room, laundry and powder room on the first floor, totaling 1,465 square feet. There are five rooms on the bedroom level, plus two baths and plenty of storage space, with a habitable area of 1,169 square feet. A sun deck on the second floor can be entered from two of the rooms. The two-car garage on the ground level has a side door, plus two entrances into the house. Overall dimensions are 45' by 50'5".

The house is a true center hall plan with a covered entry approach. A curved stair railing adds interest to a generous foyer with a coat closet nearby.

The closet is in such a position that it can serve both the front door and garage entry in that area. There is a second entrance from the garage into the house — the second one leading into the service section.

This dual entrance from the garage is unusual in single family house plans. Incidentally, a powder room just past the foyer is nicely situated to serve both the formal living areas as well as the kitchen-service portion.

Another flexible feature of this design is the location of the family room, which is open to the kitchen yet separated by two steps and a railing with direct view and access from the housewife's "control" area.

Also, the family room is placed at the rear so that it can be built at a later time if it is not desired immediately. The house functions completely with or without this space.

CATHEDRAL CEILING

The plans call for this room, built immediately or later, to have a cathedral ceiling, a fireplace, wood paneled walls and sliding glass doors leading to a rear terrace.

The living room and the dining room, in line at the right side of the house, provide a vista of 33' and an exceptionally large area for entertaining.

The kitchen, with all modern appliances and a dinette, is very spacious—21' 8" in length.

The completeness of the planning is evidenced by the care taken to include such desirable features as a chute from the second floor to the laundry room on the first floor, a mud closet near the garage door, a vacuum cleaner closet, a split bath of the bedroom hall cross ventilation in all six bedrooms.

A recital of these highlights may lead one to believe that the house covers a large plot of ground. Actually, it is only 45' wide, so that it could be placed on a lot 60' wide in many localities. Its depth is 50' 5" meaning that it would fit comfortably on a 60' by 100' lot.

A second-floor cantilever above the living room bay window creates a longer horizontal line than would normally be possible in a house 45' wide.

Housing Economy Continues Strong

Residential housing economy in the U.S. is healthy, and its future is promising, not discouraging.

In a recent speech before a group of housing professionals and builders, Richard O'Neill, a member of the National Commission on Urban Problems and editor of House & Home magazine, pointed out that housing starts have risen despite a parallel increase in mortgage rates. This new attitude among homebuyers not to allow high rates to inhibit housing starts is highly encouraging, O'Neill said.

Demand is at a very nearly the highest level, he went on, and vacancy rates — both new-house and rental — are at very nearly the lowest levels of this decade. "The market outlook is excellent."

The only threat to the market seen by O'Neill is disintermediation (the outflow of savings from normal mortgage-lending institutions.)

While there is almost no evidence of this outflow of savings so far, O'Neill said, it could occur as the result of the federal government's decision to tighten money.

"But of too much money flows down or out of the banks and the savings and loans," he continued, "the federal authorities can reset rate ceilings to give the banks and savings and loans an edge over bond or stock rates." Federal regulatory authorities are far better equipped to protect housing than they were in 1966 he said.

GOVERNMENT AID

The McGraw-Hill editor felt that it was safe to assume that the federal government will not let housing suffer again as it did in 1966.

O'Neill said that the Home Loan Bank Board, with $2 billion in liquid assets, is in far better shape for a credit squeeze than it was in 1966. He added that the savings and loans themselves are in much stronger position than they were last year.

O'Neill declared that the remarkable flow of money into savings and loans is such as to guarantee funds through the first half of next year, at least, and the savings habits of the American public now favor the mortgage market.

"The savings rate for the first three quarters of 1967 was a startling 6½ per cent of disposable income, the highest in a decade," he said.

Portable Dryer Solves Space, Power Woes

There's something new under the sun, something designed to give the sun a run for its money on washday.

It's a unique concept in clothes drying by the Maytag company. Called Porta-Dryer/115V, this little wonder is perfect for those people who cannot utilize a full-size dryer because of lack of space or installation requirements.

Whether you live in an apartment, mobile home, dormitory or army barracks, the Porta-Dryer needs only about as much space as a portable TV, and on casters, is just as easy to move around.

Or if you want a permanent setup, hang it on a bathroom or kitchen wall, where its decorative colors will add to the decor of your room.

As the name suggests, the miniature dryer/115V runs on an adequately wired, ordinary 115-volt electrical power and uses less current than some four-slice toasters.

HALF A LOAD

Designed to handle half a normal load, the portable dryer will take care of any item that can be dryer dried, and is especially useful for your permanent press articles.

Whether you're a young couple with a baby, a working girl, a bachelor, a retired couple or a family that likes to spend as much time as possible at a summer cottage, it will go where you need it the most.

The National Association of Home Builders says that the time to buy a home is now for it is unlikely that the price of homes will drop any sooner than prices for food, clothing or automobiles.

In Undistinguished Race

Oscar Contenders Predicted

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD Nominations for this year's Academy Awards race are almost completed, and it shapes up as the most undistinguished contest within memory.

Local observers fail to recall a more lackluster field of candidates. No where in sight are there films of the topmost caliber of a "Ben-Hur," "Tom Jones," "West Side Story" or "My Fair Lady."

THOMAS
Story or "My Fair Lady."

Lacking are performances that have been universally acclaimed, such as Lee Marvin in "Cat Ballou" or Patricia Neal in "Hud."

The major contenders appear to be films heavily weighted with violence and sex, not the sort of thing academy voters are proud to endorse. Some big musicals are up for consideration, but many reviewers found them empty and artless.

DARK HORSES

It appears to be a good year for dark horses. Certainly it's not a good year for those poor souls forced by the exigencies of their profession to predict Oscar winners.

Crimine films dominate the contest for best picture. "Bonnie and Clyde" may well be the favorite, judging from Eastern reviews hailing it as the greatest thing since "Birth of a Nation." It isn't that great, although it is an adventurous piece of film making. "In the Heat of the Night" has attracted much favor among academy voters, and "In Cold Blood" is having an impact. "Cool Hand Luke" and "Wait Until Dark" were also well received.

"The Graduate" appears to have the best chance among the noncrime films. "Dr. Dolittle," "Camelot," and possibly "Thoroughly Modern Millie" and "The Happiest Millionaire" may get mentioned, but none was a total triumph. "Dr. Dolittle" came the closest.

Other possibilities for best picture are "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," "Taming of the Shrew," "To Sir with Love," "Two For the Road," "Far From the Madding Crowd."

Frozen Food Firm Has Giant 'Grill'

DRESHER, Pa. (AP)—Papa's back yard barbecue was never like this.

A giant "grill" built by Selas Corp. of America for a frozen foods firm broils beefburger patties to the "just right" degree of done-ness at the rate of 14,400 patties per hour.

It is believed to be the world's largest beefburger barbecue.

The burgers move in assembly-line fashion between rows of gas-fired radiant-heat burners that broil them evenly on both sides. They then go to a packing plant for freezing and packaging.

When they're thawed out and warmed up, they're ready for eating.

Pass the ketchup, please.

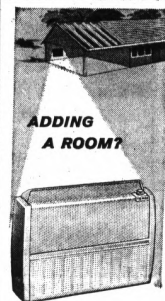

"The Dirty Dozen" and "The Family Way."

The males provide the strongest race among the 1967 performances. Rod Steiger was an early favorite because of "In the Heat of the Night." Sidney Poitier may well be a contender again for that film or "To Sir With Love."

Spencer Tracy seems likely to be awarded a posthumous nomination on the basis of "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner." Other probabilities are Paul Newman for "Cool Hand Luke" and Warren Beatty for "Bonnie and Clyde." Newcomer Dustin Hoffman has a good chance for "The Graduate."

Other possibilities: Richard Burton, "Taming of the Shrew"; Bob Blake, "In Cold Blood"; Richard Harris, "Camelot"; Dirk Bogarde, "Our Mother's House"; Lee Marvin, "The Dirty Dozen"; Rex Harrison, "Dr. Dolittle"; George C. Scott, "The Film Flam Man."

The female star performances that seem to have the best chance are: Faye Dunaway, "Bonnie and Clyde"; Vanessa Redgrave, "Camelot"; Dame Edith Evans, "The Whisperers"; Audrey Hepburn, "Wait Until Dark"; Katharine Hepburn, "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner"; Julie Andrews "Thoroughly Modern Millie"; Rosalind Russell, "Rosie"; Elizabeth Taylor, "Taming of the Shrew"; Julie Christie, "Far From the Madding Crowd."

2 in Stuck Car Rescued After 3-Day Burial

SYLMAR, Calif. (AP) — On a drive in Angeles National Forest, Bernard and Agnes Barnawski's car got stuck in a ditch.

They built a fire on the road. Snowflakes soon snuffed it out.

They climbed back into their car to sleep, and by morning the car was covered over by snow. A tangerine was their only food.

"I knew help would come sooner or later," Barnawski, 51, said three days later when sheriff's deputies found and dug the couple out.

Yule Tree: Old Custom at New Prices

The custom of the evergreen dates back 12 centuries, but it's a safe bet that, in no Yule season, has it cost so much to buy a tree as it does at Christmas 1967.

Basically, a United Press International survey showed, the cost of a Christmas tree is up 10 per cent over last year. One reason is higher labor costs.

A second is increased transportation charges. A third is the early winter in Canada and New England which delayed cutting and shipping trees.

Whatever the reasons, though, the survey showed prices vary a great deal across the nation. If you live in Dallas you'll pay $12 for a 10-foot tree. The same tree will set back a resident of Augusta, Maine, the Pine Tree State, exactly $3.

A young man walked into a well-stocked lot in Verona, N.J. and said he wanted a medium-sized (6-foot) balsam for a medium-sized apartment.

"Run you $7.50 to $15," the salesman said.

"Humbug," replied the buyer, walking out.

SHOPPER RETURNED

"He was back in two hours," the salesman grinned. "He had shopped around and came back and bought the $7.50 tree. The prices are way up this year all over."

Despite the price hikes, sales of natural trees are up in nearly every area surveyed. And the higher prices don't follow any particular pattern.

In Providence, R.I., a 10-foot balsam costs $7, the same sized Scotch pine $15. In Los Angeles, the Douglas fir, which accounts for 70 per cent of total sales, runs about $8.50 for a 10-footer.

Silver Tip No. 1 is also a popular Los Angeles tree. It runs $2 a foot, $2.50 a foot if the tree exceeds 10 feet. Thus a good-sized tree in Hollywood can cost $25 or more.

CALIFORNIA DEMAND

Californians are among the most avid tree buyers. Demand always exceeds supply, and 4.2 million trees were sold last year. The UPI survey showed that figure would surely be topped in 1967.

A 10-footer in Chicago runs between $8 and $15; in New Jersey, a good 10-foot Scotch pine can set you back $30.

Jam U.S. Highways, Air, Train Terminals

By the Associated Press
Holiday travelers were on the move again today crowding the nation's highways and jamming into bus, train and airline terminals for Christmas.

The first peak push came Friday afternoon when millions of Americans got off work, gathered their families and headed "back home for Christmas with grandma" in the words of one airline agent.

While cold, clear weather covered most of the country today

Alert Coroner Finds Life in 'Dead' Coed

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — Glenda Gampher, 23, had been pronounced "dead." Her body was resting on a slab of marble in the city morgue yesterday when an alert coroner detected faint twinges of life.

Today the college student rested in a coma in city hospital.

Dr. Leo Mulligan, chief of staff at the hospital, said the girl was in critical condition and was suffering from exposure.

Miss Gampher was rushed to the hospital for emergency treatment shortly after Mrs. Helen Taylor, the city coroner, began preliminary steps for an autopsy at the morgue.

"While we were looking for her I.D. card," she said, "her stomach began to move and she started to breathe."

'BODY' FOUND

Miss Gampher, a senior at the University of Missouri at Normandy, was discovered beneath a tree in subfreezing weather in Forest Park early yesterday by a group of youths.

She was taken to city hospital where she failed to show any signs of life, including blood pressure. A thermometer with a low point of 94 degrees disclosed no body temperature. An intern pronounced her dead and she was taken to the morgue.

Police Lt. Olen Hobbs, who was at the morgue, said, "As I started to walk away I heard a gurgling sound which is not unusual for a dead person, and I thought I saw her chest and stomach move."

"I told the other officer I may be crazy but I think she's alive."

providing dry roads for motorists, the National Safety Council estimated 625 to 725 persons would die in traffic accidents before midnight Monday.

The toll since the count began at 6 p.m. local time Friday stood at 101 early today.

COMPARISON

Safety council statisticians estimated motorists will drive a total of 7.9 billion miles during the three-day weekend—300 million more than during a nonholiday period of equal length.

As a basis for comparison the Associated Press made a survey of motor vehicle fatalities during the three-day nonholiday weekend from 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 15, to midnight Monday, Dec. 18. The total was 484.

City Man Killed in Ohio Accident

TIFFIN, Ohio (AP) — An automobile traveling at excessive speed left U.S. 22 early today and overturned, killing the driver and seriously injuring a passenger, the Highway Patrol said.

The dead man was identified as Glenn R. Edmonds Jr., 23, Pontiac, Mich. Troopers said the auto struck a bridge abutment and traveled over 100 feet in the air.

The accident occurred near the Wyandot-Seneca county line, just southwest of here.

CRC to Mull Ways to Reduce Tension

The Michigan Civil Rights Commission (CRC) will hold an emergency meeting Tuesday to discuss possible steps in reducing tension which has arisen after the fatal shooting of a young Negro auto-theft suspect.

Seventeen-year-old Jimmie King of 411 S. Jessie, died December 7 of wounds received after he fled police officers attempting to arrest him, and refused their command to stop.

Civil Rights Commission members Dr. A. A. Banks Jr. and Mrs. Frank Wyle met informally with Police Chief William K. Hanger, Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson, and members of civil rights groups and community organizations.

Staff officials of the state attorney general and civil rights commission offices also said in Rights Commission would have to decide any further steps in the case, and added that the CRC would request that the attorney general's office meet with Bronson to discuss the case.

RULING

Bronson ruled the shooting "justifiable homicide" on Dec. 8.

Mrs. Wyle said the King shooting seemed to focus attention on a definite police-community relations problem and also on more general problems.

These problems do not differ from those of most other cities in the state, the two commissioners said. As in most other urban areas, they said, there is a definite need for more communication between the government and police and the Negro community, and a need for jobs, housing and definite recreation programs.

The CRC representatives said they reached no conclusion on the King shooting other than it has had a definite inflammatory effect on the Negro community.

TOPICS DISCUSSED

In the informal talks with Chief Hanger in the morning the commissioners and attorney general representatives discussed general police practices, the use of tear gas, and the use of force.

Waterford Township police currently are checking out a lead and a tip in connection with their search for the driver of the hit-and-run car that killed an 11-year-old boy in October.

The Pontiac Press has offered a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the responsible person in the death of Darrell J. Destell Jr.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell J. Destell of 729 Scott Lake, Darrell was struck by a car Oct. 25 while walking with a friend along Scott Lake near his home. He died the next day.

Lt. David Putnam, head of the detective division, said the department has received between 30 and 75 tips in connection with the investigation.

"We still lean toward a Chrysler product," he said. "But we aren't ruling out other possibilities."

"We still would like anyone to call who might have knowledge of it," emphasized Putnam.

Crash Fatal to City Man

A 39-year-old Pontiac man died this morning of injuries suffered earlier when his car went off Elizabeth Lake road near Lincoln and struck a tree.

Dorrie Fox of 2700 Newberry died at Pontiac General Hospital at 10 a.m., eight hours after the accident.

News Briefs at a Glance

ATHENS (AP) — Moving to silence its critics, the Greek military dictatorship granted amnesty today to 2,600 political opponents it jailed since seizing power in a coup last April 21 and announced a referendum next April 21 on a proposed new constitution. When the indication, however, there was no regime would authorize elections, a possible sticking point in its negotiations to bring exiled King Constantine back to his throne after his attempted counter coup Dec. 13 ended in fiasco. In granting the amnesty, the regime went beyond other conditions set by the king.

AIRLINE ENDS VIET FLIGHTS

SAIGON (AP) — The United States Embassy and U.S. Aid to International Development announced today that all flights of Air America lines in Vietnam would be canceled because of "possible injuries or death." The Embassy and the agency messaged all personnel throughout South Vietnam that striking Vietnamese employees of Air America had threatened other Air America workers, aircraft and other property. Air America is a private airline currently under contract in Vietnam to the embassy and to AID.

SAFETY PLEA BY MILLIKEN

LANSING (AP) — Acting Gov. William Milliken urged Michigan motorists to make safety on the highways an early New Year's resolution. "I hope every driver, passenger and pedestrian will resolve before the holidays begin to drive, ride and walk with the greatest of care to prevent death and injury during this festive period," Milliken said.

CRASH REPORT 'INCORRECT'

ATHENS (AP) — A representative of the British European Airways BEA said today that findings of a commission investigating the Oct. 13 crash of a BEA jetliner in the eastern Mediterranean had not yet been fully disclosed. BEA Agent Theodore Koutsatis said he had been misquoted earlier in the day by newsmen in Rhodes. They reported him as having said a time bomb caused the crash. All 66 persons aboard the plane died when it went down off Rhodes.

REDS SET BLOST SERIES

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union will begin a series of daily blasting in the North Pacific next week as part of a program to study earthquakes and undersea disturbances, the official news agency Tass announced today. Ships were warned to stay out of the area, about 850 miles off Hokkaido Island of Japan, from Monday through Jan. 10.

FLU MOVING INTO U.P.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Viruses of influenza and similar illnesses, which had been isolated in the Detroit and Ann Arbor, Mich., area earlier, are now spreading into Michigan's Upper Peninsula, the National Communicable Disease Center said. The center and the Michigan Department of Health, Education and Welfare, says flu and flu-like sicknesses continue to strike sections of the North, Midwest and deep South.

RULING ON INFORMATION

LANSING (AP) — A trial court need not tell a defendant that his guilt must be proved beyond reasonable doubt or inform him of the maximum sentence he faces, says the Michigan Court of Appeals. The court also said an employee who drops an idea in his firm's suggestion box and doesn't receive what he considers adequate reward is entitled to take his complaint to court.

DEER-DART EFFORT SLOATED

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — An attempt to shoot 400 deer with tranquilizer darts on the Twin Cities army ammunition plant ground and truck them to open public land will get an initial test next Saturday. The operation capped a "save the deer" furor that arose when the army's commanding officer, Maj. Frederick von Gortler, ordered the deer shot.

Teachers Cite Dissatisfaction

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of two stories on a recent survey of Birmingham teachers.)

BIRMINGHAM — "I feel like a hired hand."

This is a statement made by a Birmingham teacher in answer to a questionnaire sent out by a citizens committee in an attempt to discover what was plaguing Birmingham schools.

The survey revealed, among other things, that about half of the teachers may not come back next fall.

Taking the survey was a group called the Association of Birmingham Citizens for Schools (ABCS).

Making known results of the poll, which was answered by 91 per cent of the 808 teachers involved, were Mrs. Fritz Pinas of 600 Pierie, Mrs. Endre Mayer of 945 Poppleton and Robert W. Capps of 31215 Huntley, Berkeley.

ANIMOSITY EXPRESSED

A factor that surprised the pollsters was the animosity expressed toward Dr. John Blackhall Smith, schools superintendent, his administration and the school board.

Much of the bitterness can be attributed to the fact that the Birmingham Teachers Association (BEA) is still attempting to negotiate a contract for the current year. Tension has built up through a strike, court injunction, and rejected contract.

But the ABCS survey revealed that something deeper than salary scales, fringe benefits, increments, etc., may be wrong.

In the questionnaire, teachers were invited to reply at length on several subjects. Many of the statements, made available to a reporter by ABCS, hit at alleged "lack of respect" for teachers.

SAMPLE COMMENTS

Comments went like this:

"There is a complete lack of feeling of respect and dignity."

"... they're bent on destroying pride in one's profession."

"I am being insulted and unappreciated."

Several of the teachers stated it would help to get a "pat on the back" once in a while and said that this was lacking.

SPECIFIC GRIPES

Most of the examined questionnaires confined criticism to generalities, but several listed specific gripes.

One complaint was the "time watcher" (sign-in sheet) and being given a "partial absent report" for being one minute late.

Another "small gripe" was the seeming requirement to eat in the lunchroom and not being able to have a sandwich quietly in a room.

A deeper point, stressed by several teachers, was the feeling the average and underaverage students weren't being treated fairly. Said one:

"The noncollege student is being ignored and money spent on the above average. This is the 'big show' of Birmingham."

Another: "Needs of slower students are ignored at the junior high level."

Another: "They're not all going to Harvard or Yale!"

ADMINISTRATION VIEWS

A large portion of the replies hit continually at the alleged attitude towards teachers held by the administration.

"We're just a commodity," "hourly employees," "told when to do this and when to do that," "a hired hand," etc.

A school administrative spokesman said officials do not feel that much of the bitterness will last beyond signing of the new contract.

Dr. Clark Out on $15,000 Cash Bond

Awaiting trail for manslaughter in the death of one of his patients, Dr. Ronald E. Clark of Farmington Township yesterday was released from the Oakland County Jail on $15,000 cash bond furnished by friends and former patients.

Clark's court-appointed attorney, Philip Rowston of Pontiac, filed a check for the amount of the bond yesterday with the county clerk's office.

The 36-year-old doctor is charged with giving a fatal dose of sodium pentothal to Mrs. Grace Neil, a patient and nurse who assisted Clark parttime at his clinic at 30735 Grand River.

Clark's bond was reduced Monday from $50,000 by Circuit Judge William J. Beer with the provision that the physician turn over to the prosecutor's office his license to practice medicine.

Rowston said that he was given the check by Clark's wife, Violet, who received donations from "dozens of friends and former patients." He said he did not know the exact number of persons who had come to Clark's aid.

Clark has no money of his own, thereby making it necessary for the court to name an attorney to defend him at the expense of the county. Clark's trial date has not been set.

Ohio Job Bureau Forgetting Name

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's Bureau of Unemployment Compensation made just one mistake Friday when it reminded people about its new name.

Dear Santa,

This is our 13th annual Christmas list of gifts, favors and promises which we would like to have you bring for our many friends and sports fans, coaches, players and teams.

You've been very generous on many occasions to the people in sports, but there have also been times when you've by-passed many of them.

Right now as you prepare for your jaunt from the northland, scatter some snow flakes over the ski areas to make Mori Graddis and his cohorts happy at Mt. Holly, Alpine Valley, Mt. Christie, Pine Knob, Grampian Mt., and the other areas.

But, keep it off the highways for awhile so that we can spend a couple days with mom, our first time at home in 15 years in the hills of Pennsylvania.

As you hit this area with your bag of goodies please fill some of these requests:

For the Detroit Tigers — a bat-o-meter to get a few more hits with men on base; for Jimmy Campbell, a deal for Jim Fregosi or Bert Campanaris; for Denny McLain a gopher ball to throw more strikes on the bowling alley; for owner Bill Fetzner a hand-woven pennant to fly at the corner of Michigan and Trumbull and for public relations director Hal Middlesworth a new parking area for the working men of the 4th estate.

For the Detroit Lions — a couple more rookie-of-the-year picks in the draft; or Joe Schmidt another Bobby Layne; for Bill Ford, a new idea for the 1968 season; for Carl Brettschneider, a strong kidney; for Karl Sweetan, brass knuckles; for Russ Thomas another Lem Barney; for Edwin J. Anderson a complete new supply of yellow, pink and green shirts he wore when the Lions were winning; for Mrs. EJA (Sonny) a patent on those delicious glazed pecans; for Doc Thomas a 35-35 every weekend to operate the Firebirds and Tomahawks; for Lyall Smith, a train he can crawl about in 1968 and for Ed Webb a 1968 machine to keep track of all the record number of fumbles in one game.

Don't forget Friday Macklin, Maurice Schubit, Norma at the switchboard and all of the fine hard working assistant coaches and crew at 1401 Michigan Ave.

The Pistons need to: keep the ring in Bing to Butcher the NBA teams for a playoff berth and a title.

For Sid Abel of the Red Wings, announce a new generation of sextuplets, all named Howe, a few more hat tricks for Alex Delvecchio and a new nose for Bruce MacGregor.

MAKE CAMPUS VISITS

At East Lansing and Ann Arbor, plant the roots for an all new Rose Garden which will bear its bloom on the first of January each year.

For Bob Calihan at U. of D. arrange an NIT bid, and for Vern Gale, the Ponchartraine Hotel for a day when they honor his fine Wayne State football team Jan. 15.

For the Pontiac Firebirds leave an encore book in 1968 except for a season finale crack at Mt. Clemens, and for the Pontiac Tomahawks and coach Bob Duffy, a better defense and a bucket full of points from his Piston farm hands Bob Long and Sonny Dove starting tonight.

Tom Tracy wants a place in the sun with an AFL or NFL coaching staff; Paul Parks wants a bigger budget to operate the Firebirds and Tomahawks; ditto Lee Haslinger for school athletics; ditto Dave Ewalt and John Streit for city recreation.

For Charlie Irish out in Arizona, truck a load of that snow from Flagstaff to Phoenix, and a clear TV set so that he can watch the Packers get iced by the Rams.

TOP LOCAL ATHLETES

For Pontiac's Micki King, the No. 1 woman diver in the country, a stoo-in berth in the 1968 Olympics; for Bill Tipton easy hurdling toward Mexico City for Hayes Jones, congratulations on his new position heading New York city's recreation program; for Gene Bone, Michigan Open and PGA crown; for Mike Samardzja, a few 300 games with the pros.

A crown of appreciation is a must to Shirley Pointer, our choice as woman Bowler of the Year for her dedicated contributions to the sport; for Hal Marsh, the new Pontiac Open bowling champ, a report card just as impressive at Oakland U. a couple Alcindor prospects for cage coach Dick Robinson, and Scholander-type recruits for swim coach Corey Van Fleet.

Pin Ryan wants an overall first class athletic program at OCC, and Hollie Lepley wants the completion of those handball and paddle ball courts at OU.

Don't forget our friends on the area high school scene, more headlines and better coverage for Kettering, Waterford, Northern, Central, Catholic, Clarkston, Rochester, Walled Lake, Lake Orion, Avondale and all 70 schools of the area.

For Leo Folsom at Walled Lake want a 1968 gift certificate making him coach of the year; for Father Stan, at Orchard Lake ditto as the best PR man of the area; a statistician with statistics and first names for Avondale, Troy, Lake Orion, among a few; another state title for Bill Willson and the PNH wrestling team; a Seaholm entry in the Press Prep golf tournament, as past five-time champion; a sweat suit for Walt Kowalczyk; a size 17 shoe and size 8 helmet for 6-9, 320 pound Jerry Thick of the Firebirds.

For Warren Orlick at Tam O'Shanter leave the 1970 PGA Championship; for his assistants Stan Brion and Jim Picard, good shooting on the tour; for Mike Souchak at Oakland Hills, the 1972 U.S. Open; for Bob Gajda of Forest Lake and Ted Kroll at Franklin Hills, a couple cases of "fuller's earth powder" and hair restorer respectively.

TO EVERYONE ELSE

Joy Fair wants a list of 1968 stock racing victories; Chuck Cartwright needs ice for ice boating; Bert Anselmi is after more state roller skating champions; a welcome back to Dave Keaggy, Jr., to the archery field and a sugar cookie bet with Howard Heidenbrand that our Swami will beat his Swami in the bowl selections.

For the city of Pontiac and the entire area we would like that sports-arena-auditorium.

For all our friends in sports, the happy and unhappy letter writers, Bless them all with the Best Wishes for a wonderful holiday season.

Our Sincere Wishes:

Groves Streak Ends Before Home Fans

Winning streaks are made to be broken and the long skein of Birmingham—the best among area teams—came to a halt last night.

Playing before a home crowd, Groves' Falcons came up with a poor-shooting night against a sharp Southfield squad and wound up on the short end of a 74-42 score.

The loss was the first one for the Falcons since February 1965. They had won 28 straight in regular-season play over the last four seasons.

While Southfield's Blue Jays were winning their nonconference encounter, they lost a little ground in the Southeastern Michigan Association when Royal Oak Kimball rallied for a 61-59 win over Berkeley and a share of the SEMA lead.

Southfield and ROK are both 2-0 in league play and they'll meet Jan. 5 to decide who remains on top.

SOUTHFIELD ON TARGET

Last night's visit to Groves found the Blue Jays bringing their shooting eyes with them. They connected on 32 of 62 shots from the field while Groves hit only 17 of 51.

Southfield jumped off to a 16-4 lead in the opening quarter and never was in trouble. Dave Kontry's 24 points and Dave Chalmers 18 paced the victors. The two also teamed with Bob Scheurer to control the backboards, 33-20. Scheurer pulled down 10 rebounds.

Kimball's tense win found the Knights trailing, 57-53, with 1:41 to play. After a free throw by Greg Schmidt, Fred Schellant stole the ball and cut the gap to 57-56.

Jack Benning made it 59-56 for Berkeley with less than a minute to go. However, Shellnut then took over. His field goal made it 59-58 with seven seconds to play.

The ensuing pass-in found Berkeley fouling the Kimball guard and he hit two charity tosses for a 60-59 lead. Again the Bears fouled him on their throw-in and he made one more free shot before Berkeley lost possession their final throw-in as the game ended.

U. of M. Drops Cage Squeaker

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Arizona State punctured the University of Michigan's zone defense with sharp outside shooting and weathered a furious finish to win the Sun Devil Classic basketball championship 92-91 Friday night.

Willie Harris hit nine of 16 from the field and scored 18 points to lead the Sun Devils. Benny Stewart had 20 points and Ken Mazy 19 for the Wolverines.

The turning point in the hard-fought Arizona State-Michigan game came with Michigan leading 76-73 and 5:33 left.

Bob Edwards blocked a Michigan shot, took the rebound and was fouled by Rudy Tomjanovich. That eliminated Tomjanovich, the tournament's most valuable player.

Two minutes later the Sun Devils had a seven-point lead that barely held in a last ditch effort by the Wolverines.

Cold Lifts Hopes of Skiing Crowd

Snow is in the air—and not just those teasing flurries that blew into town Friday.

Ski resort operators in the Pontiac area welcomed the onslaught of cold air Thursday and Friday with snowmaking nozzles that immediately began working overtime to prepare the slopes for the holiday period.

Mt. Brighton was the first to report slopes ready for business, with an average of 10 inches on limited stretches.

Expected to open sometime today are Pine Knob, Mt. Holly, Alpine Valley and Mt. Grampian. No word was received from Mt. Christie. All should be ready for extensive operating tomorrow.

Pine Knob and Mt. Holly are planning full schedules Christmas Day. Alpine will start at noon while Brighton, Christie and Grampian haven't announced their intentions.

'Celebrities' Taking Floor as T-Hawks Resume Play

It will be "Celebrity Night" at Pontiac Park, a high school this evening when the Pontiac Tomahawks resume their North American Basketball League campaign after a two-week layoff.

The Holland Carvers are the opposition and they feature 6-10 Billy (The Hill) McGill, a hook-shot artist who owns all the scoring records at the University of Utah.

McGill tallied 30 points when the Carvers defeated the Tomahawks in the season opener last month at Holland.

Pontiac plans to counter McGill's scoring with 6-9 St. John's University All-America "Sonny" Dove, who was sent to the Tomahawks this week by the Detroit Pistons.

Paul Long, another Piston rookie who was optioned to the Tomahawks, will delay his appearance until Wednesday's home game with Grand Rapids.

The biggest celebrity, however, at tonight's game will be Santa Claus. He'll distribute gifts to the youngsters in the crowd.

A preliminary game will find Paul Parks, general manager-president of the Tomahawks and a successful city baseball manager, coaching the Pontiac Firebirds against Sgt. Herb Cooley and the city police officers in a 6:20 p.m. exhibition.

The regular game will begin at 8 o'clock.

Winless OU Cagers in Top Performance at Free Throw Line

Oakland University's lack of success in the basketball victory column isn't reflected by the team's accuracy at the free throw line.

The Pioneers currently are 6-4 while awaiting the resumption of action Jan. 5 and 6 at Wayne State and Adrian.

The latest National Collegiate Athletic Association college division statistics, however, credit the OU squad with a 75 per cent team percentage at the foul line, good for 15th place.

In addition, the Pioneers' sophomore guard Gordie Tebo has hit 16 of 17 charity tosses to rank second individually with a 94.4 mark.

Oakland's next home game will be Jan. 20 against Hillsdale.

Union Council Criticizes Papers' Offer to Drivers

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit, Mich., Council of Newspaper Unions, which represents 14 unions at Detroit's two daily newspapers, branded as "unacceptable, premature and inadequate" Friday a three-year $27-a-week money package offered by publishers to striking Teamster truck drivers.

The strike, which entered its 38th day Saturday, began Nov. 15th when members of Teamsters Local 372 struck the morning Detroit Free Press. The following Detroit Free Press ceased publication two days later in accordance with a publisher's agreement.

Teamsters officials said the new offer would provide a $10 weekly increase the first year, with $9 and $8, respectively, in the final two years of a three-year contract.

"The $27 figure included everything... wage increases, fringe benefits, hospitalization... everything," said Elton Schade, secretary of Local 372.

VOTE WEDNESDAY
Teamsters at the Detroit News will vote on the offer next Wednesday, with Free Press Teamsters balloting the next day. Both elections will be by secret ballot conducted by the State Labor Mediation Board.

Teamsters negotiators placed the offer before union members without recommendation.

The News originally offered the Teamsters a $12.24 increase over two years. Teamster drivers at the newspapers averaged $150.15 weekly base pay under the old contract. Union sources said the Free Press offer to that of the News.

3 Boats Brave Lake Superior

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Three vessels were reported in Lake Superior Friday on the first day of winter, an unusually late date for maritime activity. They were the Lawrencecliffe Hall, owned by the Hall Corp. of Canada, downbound with a load of grain; the Jason J. Callaway, downbound from Two Harbors, Minn., with a load of iron ore pellets; and the Leon Fraser, headed upbound for Two Harbors.

Teen Girls' Presents More Than Enough to Wear Santa Out

Teen-age girls alone supply enough burden to exhaust Dash, P. Prancer and company.

The nation's 12 million girl teen-agers last Christmas bought:

Gifts for their families totaling $15 million;
Presents for pals worth $137 million;

Gifts for themselves worth nearly $125 million of the more than $156 million they collected in Christmas cash.

And for the girls, Santa brought 9 million sweaters, 2 million blouses or shirts, more than five and a half million skirts, more than five and a half million slacks, four and three-quarter million pajamas, six million stockings, nearly seven million containers of perfume and better than six million records.

Most of those gifts were expected — the girls had asked for them.

The girls spent an average of $10.18 each on their mothers or $17.13, each.

What did they buy?

The rest bought mostly cosmetics, sweaters, slips, nightgowns, silver, china and glassware.

Dad was worth spending $8.04 by his daughters who paid nearly $111,500,000 largely for two million bottles of cologne, a slightly smaller number of sports shirts, and a million plus or about $6.27 per girl.

FATHERS ALSO GOT A LOT OF TIES, SWEATERS AND DRESS SHIRTS FROM THEIR DAUGHTERS.

Big brothers got sports shirts, cologne, after-shave lotion and other items. The bill totaled $25.68 cents per girl, on ribbon million plus or about $6.27 per girl.
