One-Sixth City Leveled as Fire Sweeps Pusan

3 Dead, 22 Hurt, 45,000 Homeless; U. S. Army Buildings Burned

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—One-sixth of this teeming port city of one million population smouldered tonight after an all-night fire that scorched a 1½-mile swath, left at least three Koreans dead and leveled 6,000 homes and buildings.

Twenty Koreans were hurt and two Korean firemen were overcome by smoke.

Police said two children and a 26-year-old man were dead.

The U.S. Army estimated damage to this refugee-choked city at 20 million dollars. The blaze raged for nearly 12 hours.

It was one of the most devastating fires in Korean history.

Relief agencies rushed aid to 45,000 left homeless. Many were given temporary shelter in U.S. Army warehouses, theaters and schools.

Others poked about in the seared ruins looking for personal belongings.

A crisp, chilling wind failed to disperse a cloud of black smoke over the city. Little tongues of flames continued to lick at the wrecks of buildings.

The blaze broke out in a jammed tenement section. Police said it started in a charcoal oven left unattended by a housewife.

Winds up to 30 miles an hour rolled the flames 1½ miles along a path a half-mile wide before the fire burned itself out on fire breaks pushed up by bulldozers and dynamite.

The huge Pusan railroad station was reduced to a charred skeleton. Other structures burned out included two of the three major buildings of the headquarters of the U.S. Army's Korean base section, three of Pusan's four major daily newspapers, the branch offices of the Korean Pacific Press, the Korean post office, American Army chapel and the compound of a neutral nations truce inspection team.

Thousands of American soldiers and Korean firemen battled the fire.

Reds Reject Dean's Plan for Korean Peace Parley

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Allies today handed the Communists detailed plans for a Korean peace conference, but the Reds said they could see no merit in the proposal and would unveil one of their own Monday.

Special U. S. Envoy Arthur H. Dean presented a 12-point formula which would allow non-belligerent nations with a direct interest in Korea to attend the conference as non-voting observers.

Russia would attend as a full member on the Communist side of the table—not as a neutral as the Reds demand.

Dean said the 16 United Nations which fought in Korea and South Korea's President Syngman Rhee have endorsed the plan.

The envoy also said Rhee promised him not to resume hostilities while a peace conference is under way and to cooperate fully at the conference.

The fiery South Korean President has said repeatedly he would order his American-trained divisions northward unless progress is made toward unifying his country by late January.

Negotiations to set up the peace conference revert to full-scale plenary sessions Monday at the request of the Reds. The diplomats have met as two subcommittees since Nov. 16.

Dean suggested Friday that the Korean peace conference be held at Geneva, Switzerland, "not less than 28 nor more than 42 days" after termination of the current preliminary talks.

He told the Communists:

"This integrated proposal is made in the interest of the early convening of the political conference. It is predicated upon the theory that we will be able to agree upon it within a relatively short time . . . "Your acceptance will represent real progress."

The Reds called two recesses totalling 45 minutes to consider Dean's proposal.

The temperature in Pontiac dropped to 24 degrees at 8 a.m. this morning, a new low for the season.

Cloudy weather with a high of from 38 to 42 degrees is expected for Sunday. Yesterday's temperature range was from 27 to 33 degrees.

Previous low temperature for the season was on Nov. 5 when a low of 26 degrees was recorded. At 2 p.m. today in downtown Pontiac the mercury registered 32 degrees.

Bullet Pierces Coat, Only Scratches Man

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Harry L. Crosby, 32, of Tecumseh, owed his life today to a 14-inch jackpine, four layers of clothing—and another deer hunter's poor aim.

A bullet from a high-powered rifle tore through the tree yesterday. Then it penetrated Crosby's mackinaw, a sweat shirt and another shirt before tangling in his underwear.

State police quoted Charles Grossen, 69, of Cheboygan as admitting he fired the shot, mistaking Crosby for a deer as he leaned against the tree.

The bullet drew blood and left Crosby with a sore back, but he kept right on hunting.

Local CAP Joins Search for Lost Ambulance Plane

Four Pontiac Civil Air Patrol pilots joined more than 100 others at daybreak today in a search for a missing ambulance plane en route from Chicago to Tri-City Airport near Saginaw.

The plane, a yellow Beechcraft Bonanza, was flying a body from a funeral home in Chicago to one in Saginaw for services. It was piloted by Charles Dietrich, owner of the Dietrich Ambulance Service in Detroit.

The aircraft, due at Saginaw at 10:12 last night, was last reported over Michigan City, Ind.

Robert Simons, Pontiac CAP Group director, said the four local pilots in the search are Henry Baynes, Paul Valentino, Robert Taft and Bob Greenhalgh.

Each plane also carried one observer.

The Pontiac flyers have been assigned to cover a 100-mile-square area from Alma to Kalamazoo, Simons said.

The planes will fly three miles apart at an altitude of 1,000 feet, he added.

The CAP said it has ordered field rescue units, including ambulances, to stand by at Flushing, Lansing, Charlotte, Benton Harbor and Kalamazoo.

Planes from the Air Force Rescue Group at Selfridge Field were taking part in the search along with Coast Guard craft.

Hammel said anyone in Southern Michigan seeing or hearing a low-flying plane about 7 p.m. Friday night should contact the CAP coordination center at Adrian, Mich. (telephone 609J), Selfridge Field, the Coast Guard or State Police.

The missing plane had "N-5016-C" painted on its wings.

U. S. Will Urge Allies to Get Set for Red Stalling

Four Power Meetings Seen as Maneuver to Stop German Army

LONDON (AP) — Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov conferred today with British Ambassador Sir William Hayter, Moscow radio reported.

A terse announcement credited to the official Tass news agency gave no indication what the talk was about but reported that Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov was present.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States probably will ask Britain and France, when representatives of the three meet at Bermuda, to get set to counter any Russian plan for stalling the European Army project through a four-power meeting.

Since the Soviets Thursday night sprang their surprise acceptance of a four-power meeting without the hampering conditions that they had insisted on earlier, the State Department has been considering what reply the Western Big Three might make.

Although the United States publicly has taken a much dimmer view of the outlook for success of a Big Four meeting than have its allies, it seemed almost certain that the session of foreign ministers will be held, if the Soviets mean what they now say.

But informed observers said that when President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Laniel meet with their foreign ministers in Bermuda next Friday, the United States' spokesmen will call for tight arrangements to be made against Soviet disruptive tactics.

Pre-conference arrangements could be tightened up either by getting the Russians to adopt a somewhat more limited agenda than they have proposed or by getting agreement among the Western powers that if the Berlin meeting developed as a mere propaganda battle they would wind it up after a reasonable time and get back to the business of building Western defenses.

To date the reactions of the three Western nations have appeared more diverse than coordinated. A British Foreign Office spokesman said yesterday that (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Crossing Crash Injures Three

Train - Auto Collision Sends Local Family to General Hospital

A family of three persons was taken to Pontiac General Hospital this morning when the auto in which they were riding collided with a locomotive tender at the Oakland Ave.-Sanderson St. Grand Trunk railroad crossing.

Driver of the auto Robert C. Waring, 46, of 51 Summit Ave., was treated for chest injuries; his wife, Myrtle, 38 was admitted for a leg injury and severe cuts and bruises, and the 3-year-old daughter Diane, was treated for back injuries and face bruises.

Waring told Pontiac Police Patrolmen Charles Thompson and James F. Bale that he was blinded by the sun's rays as he approached the crossing.

According to the patrolmen, Waring said he didn't see the train engine or the flashing signals.

Police said Waring's auto was traveling about 20 miles per hour.

Charles Stack, general yardmaster, said the train "probably was going about two miles per hour." The engine was being operated by T. G. Carpenter, of 111 N. Roselawn Dr. Carpenter and a fireman were not injured.

General Scores M'Carthy Probe

Claims Ft. Monmouth Quiz Is 'Calculated to Create Panic'

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, Ret., says Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's investigation of Ft. Monmouth, N. J., is "calculated to create panic, destroy public confidence in the Army and undermine military morale."

Unless the Wisconsin Republican proves his allegations of espionage at the fort, Taylor said yesterday, "he will stand condemned as a dangerous adventurer who does not hesitate to gamble with the national security in order to gratify his own ambitions."

Some 150 military academy cadets, officers and guests heard Taylor at a meeting of the West Point debate council and forum.

The retired general, who was chief U.S. prosecutor at the Nuernberg war crime trials, is now practicing law in New York City and is active in Democratic circles there.

McCarthy's Senate Permament Investigations subcommittee has been looking into affairs at the Signal Corps radar laboratory at Ft. Monmouth. The Senator has said that evidence of "extremely dangerous espionage" was found.

McCarthy was not immediately available for comment on Taylor's speech.

Although American officers were not allowed to interview the man, they were inclined to accept the story.

Broomfield and State Men to Talk Water Survey Cost

State Rep. William Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) has been invited to meet with the advisory board of the Michigan Water Resources Commission in Detroit Dec. 11 to discuss his request that $620,000 be cut from a proposed $775,000 appropriation for a survey of Southeastern Michigan's water supply problems.

Broomfield said the survey as outlined by the advisory board would include not only water supply but sewage disposal and drainage problems as well. He believes the program is too broad to be carried out effectively.

He said the board has proposed a five-year survey, with the first two years devoted to preliminary investigations and the remainder to engineering aspects.

Broomfield says he believes more can be accomplished if the survey is limited to water resources alone.

He pointed out that several communities have already conducted local surveys and that by incorporating information gathered during them the cost of the project can be kept around $150,000.

Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties would be included in the survey, he added.

Four Men Killed in Storm Crash

Jehovah Witnesses Die When Train Hits Car Near Marquette

MARQUETTE (AP) — Four men on a religious mission died as an automobile and a passenger train crashed in a snowstorm at a crossing six miles east of here late yesterday.

Victims, all lay workers for Jehovah's Witnesses, were:

Harley Baxter, 65, Marquette; Harold Lidell, 29, Iron Mountain; George Eskilinen, Marquette, and Reginald Bible, 31, Roanoke, Va.

Of the four, only Eskilinen lived to reach a hospital. The men were en route to Lakewood, a settlement of cottage owners on Lake Superior, to distribute literature of their religious sect when the accident happened.

Pamphlets and tracts were scattered about the crossing of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Railroad in Chocolay Township of Marquette County.

The train was en route to Marquette.

Teamsters Official on Stand, Says Problems Here Being 'Adjusted'

DETROIT (AP) — The power of James R. Hoffa, boss of 15,000 Detroit area members of the AFL Teamsters Union, was scheduled for a federal Grand Jury investigation following week-long hearings here by a congressional "labor rackets" subcommittee.

There were reports, also, of stepped-up examinations of income tax returns of some of the many witnesses who appeared before the House labor and education subcommittee sessions.

Representatives of the U. S. attorney's office, FBI and Internal Revenue agents and observers for numerous other federal, state and local agencies sat in on the hearings.

During yesterday's final session, U.S. Attorney Fred W. Kaess announced that a regular Federal Grand Jury would look into Teamsters affairs, probably starting next Tuesday.

The U.S. attorney general's office had reported earlier in the day that it was "on top of the situation" and "watching developments closely."

Rep. Claire Hoffman (R-Mich) a subcommittee member, announced today that William F. McKenna, committee counsel, had resigned shortly after the hearings ended yesterday.

Hoffman explained that McKenna, a Los Angeles attorney, was returning to California to resume his law practice.

The Michigan congressman said the handling by committee chairman Wint Smith (R-Kan) of witness James R. Hoffa "certainly caused McKenna to leave with a bad taste in his mouth. I disagreed repeatedly with the method Mr. Smith used in handling Hoffa."

"McKenna was humiliated in not getting more support from Smith in his attempt to get the truth out of Hoffa," Hoffman said.

The order for a Grand Jury probe came through as Hoffa himself took the witness stand.

The tough, cocky little Teamsters' boss told the committee that his union frequently had given him a blank check to help finance state and local political campaigns or (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Famed Playwright Eugene O'Neill Dies; Was Three-Time Pulitzer Prize Winner

BOSTON (AP) — Eugene O'Neill, famed playwright and Nobel prize winner died last night at his home of bronchial pneumonia. He was 65.

Funeral services will be private in accordance with his wishes.

Also a three time Pulitzer prize winner in literature, O'Neill had roamed the world for material until recent years when he was stricken with Parkinson's disease. That disease—a form of palsy—gradually cut down his activities until writing became impossible.

Present at his bedside were his third wife, the former Carlotta Monterey, a nurse, and his physician, Dr. Harry L. Kozol who said death was caused by bronchial pneumonia.

High point in his long career was in 1936 when he was awarded the Nobel Prize in literature. The award committee did not cite any particular work but O'Neill considered his play "Mourning Becomes Electra" a strong factor in the choice.

That prize was only one of the many honors won by the prolific playwright, who had more than two score plays produced. His Pulitzer Prizes were for "Beyond the Horizon," 1920; "Anna Christie," 1922; and "Strange Interlude," 1928.

Other O'Neill plays included "The Emperor Jones," "The Straw," "Desire Under The Elms," "Marco Millions," "Ah, Wilderness," "Days Without End," "The Fountain," and "All God's Chillun Got Wings."

And his one-act plays were equally famous. They included "The Long Voyage Home," "The Dreamy Kid," "The Rope," and "Bound East for Cardiff."

After "Days Without End" was produced in 1934, O'Neill was away from the stage until 1946, when "The Iceman Cometh" arrived on Broadway. That drama, laid in a Hell's Kitchen saloon, had drunks and bums as main (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Water Department Meter Readers Wear Uniforms for Duties in Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM—To make more positive identification possible, the city's four water meter readers are now wearing uniforms in the daily treks to the basements of Birmingham.

The reader's name, and "Meter Department, City of Birmingham" are placed on the shirt of the grey uniform, where it may be seen as the monthly inspection is made.

"However, the pants are not dog proof, and it would help if residents shut their dog up dur Hemmerly, department head stated.

He added that residents should remember that shut-off valves are just before the meter in case of emergencies, and that meters should not be made inaccessable by improving the basement.

Additional Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills social news on page 8.

"If you find your meter reader listening to your water pipes with a stethoscope," Hemmerly added, "its nothing unusual. We find a lot of leaks that way."

He pointed out that the department has cut loss due to leakage from 12 million gallons a month to 8 million through an extensive survey of leakage and the use of such devices as the stethoscope.

Headon Collision Sends Mother and Daughter to General Hospital

A Harper Woods mother and her daughter were injured early today when the car in which they were riding collided head-on with another auto on U.S. 10 just north of Scott Lake road, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Kaminske's daughter, Suzanne, 5, was treated for face and neck bruises.

The traffic mishap occurred, deputies said, when a car driven by Joe Cosby Newbury, 34, of Gleason, Tenn., went out of control in the northbound lane of U.S. 10 as he tried to avoid a skidding auto ahead of him.

The Newbury vehicle then swerved into the northbound lane and struck an auto driven by Mrs. Kaminske's husband, Carl B., 33.

Professor May Sue Spiritualist

Court Allows Historian to Seek Damages for Crystal Ball Advice

ANN ARBOR (UP)—A world-famous historian at the University of Michigan whose honors include knighthood from the Netherlands had permission today to sue a spiritualist whose financial advice via the crystal ball led to red ink.

Professor Albert Hyma and his wife were granted leave by the Michigan Supreme Court to renew their suit for damages totaling $16,400 against Lillian Lee, pastor of the Church of Christ.

The medium's financial advice, he said, caused him to lose $2,700 on an offer to buy his stock in the Bravo Products Corp. of America. He wanted to sell in 1937 but the spiritualist said "No." The company subsequently went broke.

Ten years later, Miss Lee advised him of oil under his 160-acre farm. Promised spiritual help in locating the oil, Hyma sunk a dry hole that cost him $4,200.

His faith still not shaken, he mortgaged his Ann Arbor home for $8,500 the same year and sent the money to a "Mexican banker" to free him from jail. As soon as the "banker" was free, Hyma said, he was to receive a bank draft for $25,000 and the key to a treasure worth $350,000.

Hyma said he had been suspicious of the Mexican transaction but called on the medium, who in turn called on the spirit of Hyma's "spiritual godfather" who okayed the deal. The professor sent the money to an intermediary in Texas. No more was heard from the banker.

Hyma's original suit was dismissed by Circuit Judge Adolph F. Marschner who ruled the professor was an intelligent man who went into seances with the medium "with his eyes open." The Supreme Court reversed the lower court.

Hyma is a fellow of the Royal Historical Society of London and the Guggenheim Memorial Foundation. He was knighted by Queen Wilhelmina in 1936 for his research in history of the Netherlands.

Pub Loses 15-Year Pickets; They're Inside Celebrating

DUN LAOGHAIRE, Ireland (AP)—It was all peaceful in front of Jim Downey's pub on upper Georges street today—yet somehow it was not the same.

Thew orld's longest strike officially ended.

Missing—and missed, too—were the pickets who have paraded in front of the saloon for nearly 15 years.

They were inside at the bar knocking back a few.

Among the sentimental Irish in this little hamlet outside Dublin the truce touched deeply—and more than one regular customer wondered aloud what "Old Jim" Downey, the late owner, would have thought.

The settlement of the dispute—not of money but principle—was reached between Pat Neville, who bought the pub when Downey died, and the National Union of Vintners, Grocers and Allied trades Assistants Union.

The strike began in March, 1939, when Old Jim fired a union bartender.

The union called out all the other bartenders and set up a picket line.

This only made Old Jim more stubborn.

He hired pretty non-union barmaids instead — and business seemed to prosper.

Old Jim and the union settled down for a long siege.

Over the days, months and years the pickets carrying placards paced the sidewalk in front of the saloon—through World War II and into the atomic age.

They became a tradition — a virtual landmark—in Dun Laoghaire. Thousands of tourists went out of their way to get a look.

Old Jim bore no bitterness. And the pickets—paid by the union—held no hard feelings toward him personally.

Come a holiday—or any duly festive occasion—Old Jim always invited the strikers in for a drink. But good trade unionists that they were, the pickets always refused to go inside the pub. However, they were not beyond accepting a pint of beer even as they marched outside carrying their placards protesting Old Jim was unfair to organized labor.

Val Murphy, who had picketed the place since the strike began, was the first to offer condolences to Downey's widow when Old Jim died last May at the age of 79.

Jim's widow carried on for a while—standing just as firm as her husband.

As she explained: "The barmaids make better than union wages and besides the strike does business no harm at all. Many's the person comes here to have a look at our famous pickets and stays for a drink."

The new owner, Neville, finally made peace with the union on formally taking over the saloon last night.

Business still was brisk.

There was singing and drinking to mark the end of the strike.

And the guests were the pickets themselves—this time inside the saloon.

Church Will Use Wreath for Advent Ceremonies

BIRMINGHAM — Ascension Lutheran Church will begin use of the Advent wreath tomorrow, observing Advent services on the four Sundays preceding Christmas. The wreath holds four red candles and one white, a red one to be lighted each Sunday and the white one on Christmas day.

On that day the wreath is replaced with a crib and Christmas tree, depicting the coming of Christ.

The Rev. Paul Shippert said wreaths and devotional booklets will also be used in the homes of the congregation and are designed "so that even the youngest member of the family can have some small part in the worship."

Famous Playwright Eugene O'Neil Dies

characters, and the iceman was death.

However, there are three plays which he left completed, one of which has been seen off Broadway and two which have never been performed.

"A Moon for the Misbegotten" had its premiere in Columbus, O., then played Detroit, Cleveland and St. Louis. "A Touch of the Poet" has not yet been seen on the stage. There is also a third play, "A Long Day's Journey Into Night", which O'Neill specified was not to be produced until 25 years after his death.

O'Neill's private life at times was almost as turbulent as those of a character in one of his plays. He was married three times, the last in 1929.

His only daughter, Oona, is the wife of movie comedian Charlie Chaplain.

O'Neill first tasted fame at the Wharf Theater in Provincetown, from where he moved to New York's Greenwich Village and then Broadway. His road to fame started with "Bound East for Cardiff," which he read at Provincetown.

He spurned Hollywood offers with the comment that the screen "never interested me as a medium."

He was an inveterate wanderer. In 1909, he prospected for gold in Spanish Honduras but malarial fever forced him to return home.

He was also a cub reporter in New London, Conn., until lung trouble forced him into a sanitarium for six months.

It was during that illness that he decided to write and in the ensuing months he turned out 11 one-act plays and two long ones.

His first wife was Kathleen Jenkins, whom he married in 1909. They had one son, Eugene Jr., who killed himself at Woodstock, N. Y., in 1950. After his divorce in 1912, O'Neill married Agnes Boulton in 1918. They had two children, Shane and Oona. Shane has not been in contact with his father for many years and his whereabouts is unknown.

Divorce also ended that marriage in 1929 and that same year he married Carlotta Monterey.

U. S. to Urge Allies to Prevent Stalling

Britain "welcomes the acceptance of the proposal for a four-power meeting which the Western Powers have renewed several times."

French Premier Joseph Laniel was quoted as saying that the Soviet note could mean the beginning of a new climate in international relations.

United States reaction, as expressed in a statement by the State Department, differed markedly from that of Britain and France. The U. S. comment accused the Russians of maneuvering to stall West German rearmament, said the note showed no evidence of change in Kremlin policies and branded it as a defensive effort to "gloss over the uncompromising nature of Soviet policy" in earlier dealings with the West.

Grand Jury Ordered to Probe Teamsters

to help some union locals that "were in trouble."

But committee investigators searching for details on such expenditures ran into a road block when Hoffa disclosed that virtually all records of his Local 299 here up to August 1952, had been destroyed.

He also discussed the union's affairs in Pontiac, where Local 614 is under international trusteeship as a result of 'ndictments against its leadership.

Hoffa said problems at Pontiac had been discussed "fully and completely." He said "legitimate complaints" had been found, some of which he said were adjusted and others are now being adjusted.

During his more than three hours on the stand Hoffa also told of his many business interests—ventures into the brewing industry at Flint, a harness racing track at Columbus, Ohio, a trucking industry in Detroit and boys and girls camps in Wisconsin.

But despite these and a combined salary of $21,000 a year from his Local and the international union, he said, he currently owes debts totaling some $40,000.

The 40-year-old Hoffa is an international vice president of the Teamsters, president of Joint Council 43 and president of the Michigan Conference of Teamsters in addition to heading Local 299.

Questioning covered his personal affairs, complaints from members of his union, Teamsters Union violence in days gone by and a wide variety of other subjects.

But it centered largely around the awarding of a multi-million dollar welfare fund account to the Union Casualty and Life Insurance Co. of Mt. Vernon, N.Y.

Such funds now are administered jointly by trustees representing employers and the union.

The Michigan Teamsters welfare fund owns a $250,000 major interest in the company. In addition, Union Casualty's Chicago agent—Union Insurance Agency of Illinois—is operated by the family of Paul Dorfman, Chicago unionist and long-time friend of Hoffa.

Hoffa vigorously defended the welfare fund trustees — he was one of them—for awarding the Teamsters' central states drivers health and welfare fund account to Union Casualty.

Subcommittee counsel William McKenna said that Union Casualty's retention rate for administrative costs was higher than that of any other bidders, and that union members would have benefited by giving the business to some other company.

To this Hoffa retorted:

"I can't afford to be a Monday morning quarterback."

Hoffa also said he did not know that the Dorfman agency's commission on the Teamsters business was boosted 50 per cent late in 1952 at a time when benefits under the fund were reduced.

Rep. Wint Smith (R-Kan), subcommittee chairman, said the group's aim was to "help promote legislation for the handling of union welfare funds by taking them out of the hands of both labor and management." He said a "bank trusteeship or a similar organization could administer the funds without fear of pressure from either side."

"The resultant benefits," he said, "would be reaped by the working man in more and better insurance coverage."

No further hearings are scheduled for the subcommittee, although groups in several other cities have extended invitations.

After once being excused, Hoffa demanded and was given the privilege or returning to the witness stand.

He already had departed. However, he swung around in his tracks returning to the stand while calling out his request to the assenting chairman Smith.

Hoffa—later to denounce previous witnesses as "dishonest" and guilty of lies—said he wanted to "put the record straight" on matters on which he had not been questioned.

Bristling at times, Hoffa singled out for attack Howard C. Craven and Willis McCarthy, among others.

Craven is the 60-year-old former Ann Arbor truck operator who said he had been forced to make kickbacks to Frank Fitzsimmons, union official, in order to truck picture films.

Counsel for the committee asked Hoffa if he knew of payments made by Craven to Fitzsimmons in his (Hoffa's) office.

"I know nothing whatsoever about it and I believe it's a complete and absolute lie," Hoffa retorted.

McCarthy, a Des Moines, Iowa, lawyer, had testified that trucker management went along with the union on the health and welfare arrangement with Union Casualty and Life in "an effort to buy peace."

McCarthy had represented trucking interests.

Hoffa denied the Iowan's testimony and called him "dishonest and thoroughly discredited." He said management ultimately severed its relationship with McCarthy.

Quizzing Husband in Death of Wife

Statements were taken yesterday by two dinner guests and the husband of a woman who died early yesterday from knife wounds suffered Thanksgiving Day during a family quarrel, according to Oakland County Prosecutor Fred C. Ziem.

John and Bessie Blount of 476 Ditmar St., dinner guests Thursday at the Jackson home were in another room when the knifing occurred, Jackson told questioners.

Godfrey's Mother Hears Orchestra Do Her March

TORONTO, Ont. (AP)—Arthur Godfrey's 75-year-old mother heard the 90-piece Toronto Symphony give the first public performance last night of her composition "Marine Boys March."

White-haired Mrs. Kathryn Godfrey stood in the first balcony and blew kisses to conductor Andre Kostelanetz after her brief work was warmly applauded by a crowd of 2,500.

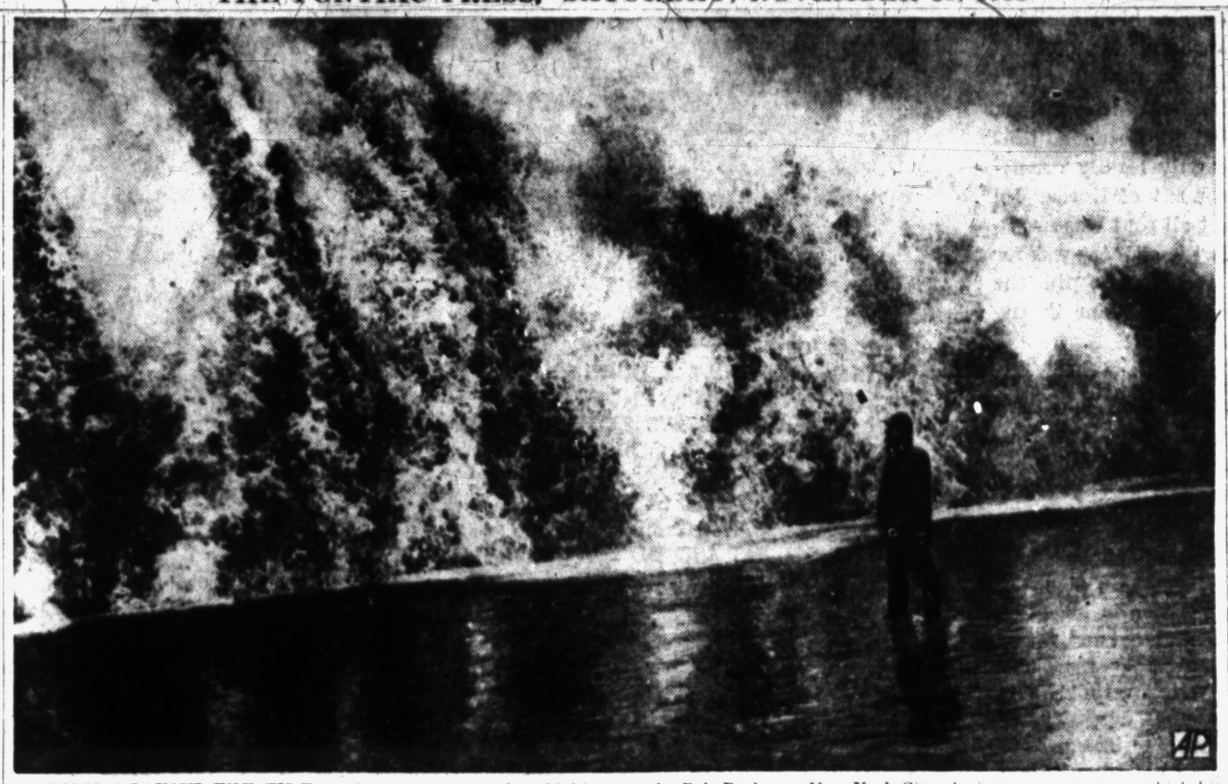

The mother of the American television and radio star said she had written the march several years ago but it never had been played in public before. Friends said she had sent it and other original scores to Kostelanetz after they became acquainted aboard ship some years ago.

Describing the march as a "loud, rousing piece," the conductor said, "It's got a catchy tune and is really very good."

Detroiter on Probation in Check Charge Here

Paddy A. Green, 22, of 14931 Lauder St., Detroit, received three years probation and was assessed $150 costs Friday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty on a charge of issuing a check without sufficient funds.

Green pleaded guilty Oct. 23 to cashing a bad check for $150 in Pontiac.

Ike Makes Offer to Puerto Ricans

Lodge Tells U. N. That Islanders Should Ask for Independence

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—President Eisenhower has promised to move for complete Puerto Rican independence any time the Legislature of that Caribbean commonwealth asks for it.

The offer was announced to the U. N. General Assembly last night by chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. Speaking during debate on proposed measures to determine when a dependent territory becomes self-governing, Lodge said:

"I am authorized to say on behalf of the President that at any time the Legislative Assembly of Puerto Rico adopt a resolution in favor of more complete or even absolute independence, he will immediately recommend to Congress that such independence be granted."

Puerto Rican Gov. Luis Munoz Marin declared in San Juan:

"This is a magnificient attitude which does honor to the United States and will show America and the whole world the sincerity of the present relationship of voluntary association between the United States and Puerto Rico."

The island, taken by the United States during the Spanish-American War of 1898, was recently given self-governing status as a commonwealth associated with the United States. Some U. N. delegates have contended that this status is meaningless and that in reality Puerto Rico is still a dependent territory.

This viewpoint lost out in Assembly, however, when the 60-nation group adopted a resolution declaring the island no longer comes within the meaning of the term "non-self-governing territory" as defined by the U.N. Charter. The vote was 22-16, with 18 nations abstaining.

Lodge is slated to touch off the heralded Korean atrocity debate when the Assembly resumes Monday with demands that the body condemn the Red torture killings in strongest terms.

Pair Wed on Horseback Despite Snowy Weather

MONTROSE, Pa. (AP)—Love must be like the postman.

Neither snow nor cold winds could stop the marriage of Robert Cook and Lina Mae Maynard yesterday.

Students to Remain Home; Teachers in Conference

Some 40 committeemen and group leaders will play key roles Monday as Pontiac teachers turn the spotlight on their ways of teaching science and dealing with youngsters.

Students of Pontiac Public Schools will stay home as some 600 educators meet to search for ways to help them "get more out of school."

Two conferences are scheduled. Elementary teachers and principals will meet at Longfellow School to hear Wayne University and Michigan State Normal College instructors discuss ways to help children learn about science.

Pontiac High and junior high school teachers will gather at PHS to discuss ways to help youngsters become happy, well-adjusted citizens through the guidance program.

Much of the program planning for the two conferences was coordinated by the school system's Professional Growth Committee headed by William Wright.

The committee also includes principals Glenn Husted, Mrs. Golda Holecheck and Francis W. Staley and teachers Guy Bevington, Miss Jane Fox, Mrs. Bessie Dawe, Miss Iama C. Hook, Mrs. Alice Wilson and Miss Lulu McGregor.

The only true workshop discussion scheduled for grade school teachers at Longfellow is one for kindergarten teachers with Mrs. Marjorie Smith and Mrs. Dorothy Peterson as co-chairmen.

Teachers of grades one through six will listen to speakers tell ways to use field trips, experiments, living animals, films, posters and slides in science teaching.

Special meetings at Webster School are planned for elementary schools, physical education and vocal music teachers. Mrs. Ruth DeCou and Dr. Edith Roach Snyder are chairmen, respectively.

The "secondary" teachers' conference at Pontiac High will open with a general meeting. Talks on guidance by Dr. Edward D. Roeber, University of Michigan and Miss Letah Stewart, Owosso High School, will highlight the morning session. John Thors Jr. will preside.

Teachers later will meet in smaller groups, according to the subjects they teach, to seek how they can work guidance into their own classes.

E. C. Russell is chairman for vocational department teachers.

John Allshouse and Mrs. Doris Mann will act as chairman and recorder for art teachers; Mrs. Margaret West and Miss Ella Ann Vaughn, business education; Mrs. Mildred Wiersema and Harold Dearing, English; and Miss Iama C. Hook and Neil Gray, foreign language.

Mrs. Elizabeth Crane and Mrs. Lois Walsh are chairman and recorder for the homemaking group. Henry Elling and Art Van Ryzin are chairmen of the vocal music and physical education groups, respectively.

Miss Jane Fox and Joseph Blank are chairman and recorder for the mathematics teachers; Dale C. Harris and Fred Wiest, instrumental music teachers; Robert Boyce and Edwin Rydell, science.

Social studies teachers have Mrs. Edna Forman and Edwin Heikkinen as chairman and recorder, with Walter Smith and Mrs. Francile Anderson as chairman and recorder for speech instructors.

Crook Escapes Jail in Guise of His Cellmate

NEW YORK (AP) — A suspected confidence man "conned" himself right out of jail yesterday.

James Briggs, 39, arrested last Oct. 15 as a fugitive from grand larceny charges in Newark, N. J., and Detroit, was missed yesterday at city prison. Authorities said this is what happened:

The prison keeper received $500 bail for Herbert Brown, 19, Briggs' cellmate. At 3 a.m. the keeper called out to Brown to get ready to leave.

A few minutes later a voice replied, "Ready." Shortly after a prisoner walked off. It was Briggs.

Officials said they are investigating to determine whether Brown—held on an unlawful entry charge—was asleep at the time or if he let Briggs leave in his place.

Mysterious Blank Letters Mailed From Saginaw

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Police Chief John Fred is drawing blanks.

For the past three years he has received letters mailed in Saginaw, Mich., which contained a sheet of white paper.

At the bottom of the envelope was scribbled the words: "A. Zodmy Dutnia."

Fred and his fellow officers have used various ways to bring out words which could be written with invisible ink.

They have concluded the paper is blank.

$400 Not Enough to Pay Wife for Wild Shots

LOS ANGELES (AP)—First Mrs. Katherine Peterson told the judge, her husband threw an envelope containing $400 at her.

Then he told her she could have two minutes in which to spend the money, she testified yesterday, and next he fired two shots from a rifle. One bullet scattered plaster fragments over her, she related.

Superior Judge Elmer Doyle decreed she could keep the $400 and $200 besides. He also granted her an order restraining her husband, Richard D. Peterson, telephone technician, from molesting her.

Man Fined in Violation of State Pure Food Law

22-Year Secret Hit by Tragedy

Grandchild Born Dead as Couple's Marriage Is Made Public

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—The 22-years old love idyll of Betty McCuddy and Tom Buntin was shadowed by tragedy today after their second grandchild, a girl, was born dead.

Tom and Betty, who became Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Palmer after they disappeared in 1931 from their homes in Nashville, Tenn., and Russellville, Ky., had feared it would happen.

Ever since their secret love became public knowledge Thursday, they had tried to protect their pregnant daughter Elizabeth, from the excitement of publicity.

"Please," Betty, now a court stenographer, had told reporters, "don't ask me questions now. Come back in a few days and I'll talk gladly, but now now."

"Give us time to think things over," Tom, a television salesman, had said.

The man who had been a prominent Nashville insurance executive and the pretty young woman who had been his secretary—both long declared dead — only Thursday emerged as a happy couple with six children in this little Gulf Coast refining center.

In deep gloom after their old secret became known, they were surrounded almost immediately by friends, neighbors and fellow church-goers who sought to reassure and protect them. Their manners became more carefree.

Then came the tragic stillbirth and Mrs. Palmer, bitterly blaming the publicity of the past few days, was hospitalized in extreme shock. Elizabeth was reported in good condition.

Elizabeth is the wife of Marine Cpl. William Burton in Korea and had stayed close to the Palmer's white frame home which well-wishers had filled with flowers in the past two days.

Solves Problem of Transportation; Finds It Costly

A Birmingham youth who solved his transportation problem in a unique way was placed on two years probation and ordered to pay $100 costs Friday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Richard G. Walker, 17, of 1714 Cole St., pleaded guilty Nov. 13 to unlawfully using a motor vehicle.

He admitted to authorities that he "borrowed" about 10 automobiles from nearby parking lots to drive to his job in Inkster. He returned the cars each night.

"DROP THAT PHONE!"

"Mr. X" is a fraud. All he wants is your money. So he dreams up a "cute" scheme. He will use the name of a well-known local organization. In the name of that organization, he will solicit your money for advertising, for tickets or for both.

Now he really gets smart. Knowing that he can be prosecuted for fraud and misrepresentation if he lets you see him personally, he uses the telephone.

"Good morning, Bill," he starts. Then he gives you a buddy-buddy line that makes you feel you must know him. He explains his proposition and it sounds great. He may even tell you he has the approval of the Better Business Board.

You buy the deal, so he sends someone around to pick up your check. (Boy, is he laughing!)

In the past, many thousands of dollars have been taken out of Pontiac through schemes similar to this.

Goodbye, Mr. Piltdown

Having survived the latest literary hoax we are confident that our modern generation will take in stride the revelation that the Piltdown man is a phony.

There were hints of this within a year or two of the discovery in 1911-13 of a human skull and an apelike jaw in a gravel pit at Piltdown, Sussex County, England.

In 1915 Gerrit S. Miller Jr. then curator of mammals at the Smithsonian Institute, wrote a treatise questioning scientific conclusions drawn from these fossils.

His doubts now have been confirmed by three British paleontologists. The jawbone, they reported, actually is the jawbone of a 10-year-old ape. It had been treated with bichromate of potash and iron to make it appear mineralized. The stray canine tooth and the two attached molars on the jawbone had been honed down to make them look more manlike than simian.

Although science thus has destroyed one of our ancestors, it generously has left several other distinguished forebears safe in their places in the evolutionary scale.

Oldest, of course, is the Pithecanthropus, or Peking man of 800,000 to 1,000,000 years ago. Others in descending order of age are the Heidelberg, the Neanderthal, Cromagnon and Late Paleolithic, the latter a mere 15,000 to 25,000 years old.

Goodbye, Mr. Piltdown! It wasn't very nice knowing you anyway.

British Diet Still Lean

In a country where the only limit on food consumption is one's pocketbook, it is difficult to realize that Britain's wartime austerity continues eight years after V-E Day.

There has been some relaxation of restrictions. Such items as eggs, tea, candy and chocolate are now in adequate supply and completely uncontrolled. Despite this the United Kingdom still has some food rationing, price fixing and subsidies.

Bacon and ham are rationed at five ounces per person per week, fats at 10 ounces, cheese at two ounces and fresh meat at what 32 cents will buy.

Bananas and potatoes are among the foods price fixed and bread, flour and most controlled goods are subsidized. For a family of four the subsidy now amounts to about 94 cents a week.

It would be wrong to conclude from these facts that the British are dragging their feet in the matter of increasing home food production. Last year's total output reached 50 per cent above prewar and the figures for this year will be even higher.

Britain always has had to import much of its food for a population too large in relation to its total area of farm land. Another phase of the problem is that so far the country hasn't been able to increase its exports sufficiently to pay for all the food it must import.

Austere though this situation may look to Americans, the British aren't kicking. It's the best they've had for years.

Dr. Rhee's New Stand

In contrast to his previous attitude which made him a U. N. problem, South Korea's President Syngman Rhee has taken a new and helpful stand.

Now, he has made known, he will not oppose a plan for a nationwide Korean election. Dr. Rhee's only stipulation is that the election be made free.

This is a reversal of his previous position. He had contended that his was the only legally constituted government of Korea. He also held that all that was necessary to unify the country was for the North Koreans to fill the seats reserved for them in the Assembly at Seoul.

It should be remembered, however, that no one yet knows whether the North Korean, Chinese and Russian Communists have any intention of permitting unification except on their terms.

Nonetheless, it is obvious that Dr. Rhee's new stand will bolster the U. N.'s position in negotiating for a free, united and democratic Korea. It is especially reassuring to learn that he is emphasizing the necessity of free choice and his willingness to abide by it. In so doing he expresses his fidelity to the ideals and objectives of the family of free nations.

Today's couplet: You'd always know just what to do if you were I instead of you.

The People's Business

Party Unity Sought

Summerfield May Choose GOP's Official Candidate

By JACK I. GREEN

LANSING (AP) — There's a strong demand in certain Republican Party circles for U. S. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield to pick his party's primary candidate for governor.

Of course, it wouldn't be done crudely. Summerfield wouldn't get up in public and announce "I have decided that Joe Doakes is our candidate."

But it could be done quietly and deftly behind the scenes. The word could be passed to the right people and suddenly one of the party's many aspirants would find cash and hope and help flowing his way bounteously.

Conversely, the others in the field would find themselves as friendless as the referee at a high school football game.

Back of the demand are many factors, a lot of them compelling. The first is financial.

Capitol gossip suggests that the boys with the dollars sticking out of their pockets are playing it cagey this year. They refuse to plunk cash down in any amounts for men who want to be governor.

Many of these men, reportedly, pooled their money last year behind U. S. Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich) and they like that way of doing business.

They would much prefer to get behind one candidate in the primary and ride through with him to the general election rather than have to back a lot of horses or take too many chances in the primary.

These big contributors, reportedly, haven't made up their mind who would be the GOP's best bet and they are holding off for some sign.

A sign from Summerfield would come in handy because he, as former national committeeman and chairman of the Republican National Committee, was one of the party's top fund-raisers and a man with whom they are accustomed to doing business.

Another reason is the very strong party opposition to a bitter primary fight. Many Republicans feel that they lost the last two elections because of feuds created in the primary and they want no more of that. So they are receptive to the idea of squeezing out as many candidates before the primary as is possible.

They recognize that whether Gov. Williams runs for the Senate or the governorship, the Democrats will have a handpicked slate with a minimum of primary squabbling. They want to do likewise, if possible.

One of the most compelling reasons for Summerfield's intervention is his unique position in the party. Many regard him as the only man who could winnow out the candidates and make it stick.

Summerfield is the only party leader who could be said to be removed now from party factionalism. It would be presumed that he alone would have both the "outside" and "inside" viewpoint. He has immense prestige among party leaders and the rank-and-file workers. They followed his lead pretty much without argument for several years and feel that he steered them astutely. They feel he could do it again.

Never has the Michigan Republican Party worried and struggled individually and collectively over the question of a candidate as it has this year. It has achieved little progress and time is beginning to close in.

Reportedly, the results of a poll made by Genesee County Republicans will be forwarded to Summerfield to let him know how 2,000 or 3,000 prominent Republicans feel about the respective candidates.

There are hints that an even more elaborate poll of voter sentiment may be undertaken to guide party policy-makers.

But regardless of what the polls show, someone must eventually make the decision. The question is: Who but Summerfield?

If he does undertake—or has already undertaken—this duty it is assumed he would consult party members widely. That was always his way. He was a master at either synthesizing group sentiment or getting people to think they wanted what he wanted.

It is hard for observers to guess who Summerfield might select.

State Treasurer D. Hale Brake is in the race now and will not back out. He has made a good start, a head start, and is a favorite of the party regulars.

Presumably, Detroit Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard will try it again. Many think that Summerfield and other party leaders will not back him with enthusiasm.

Some recall that Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary was never far from Summerfield's elbow and now seems to be waiting for word from someone to decide to enter the race. Is he waiting for Summerfield?

Mrs. Hicks Says Drinkers Can Make This Christmas Safest One in Years

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

Everywhere we turn these days we read articles on temperance, also why we should drink this or that brand.

People wonder why our youth still use alcoholic beverages after all the lectures they hear on why they should not. They say, turn to sports, but when they do they first must listen to why they should drink a certain brand.

Why aren't sports sponsored by something we would not object to? What would our cities be like if the millions spent yearly for liquor were put to better use for parks and recreation centers?

With the holidays coming up more people will be celebrating, then driving, endangering lives and property. If every drinker this year would remember the true meaning of Christmas and not drink, this would be the happiest and safest Christmas many of us have ever known.

More Labor

A woman tourist in Africa was admiring a native warrior's necklace. "What are these things?" she asked.

"Alligator teeth, ma'am," replied the native.

"Oh, I see. I suppose they have the same value for your people that pearls have for us."

"Not quite," he answered gravely. "Anybody can open an oyster."

Out of Fashion

The sergeant remarked about the shoes the recruit wore on parade. The latter explained that he had worn them in private life.

"So what?" snapped the sergeant. "Did you have a top hat when you were a civilian, too?"

"Why, yes."

"Then why don't you wear that here?"

St. Andrew's Day Governs Christian Year; It Begins With Advent Season

St. Andrew's Day governs the whole Christian year. The year, which starts with the season of Advent, always begins on the Sunday nearest Nov. 30. This is sometimes the Sunday before and sometimes the Sunday after, depending upon whether Nov. 30 comes before or after the middle of the week.

Thus St. Andrew's Day is sometimes the last feast day of the old Church Year and sometimes the first feast day of the new one.

St. Andrew, whose name means "courageous," was one of the Twelve Apostles.

Before he joined forces with Jesus he had been a disciple of John the Baptist. St. John's Gospel, chapter 1, verse 29, records that the Baptist, speaking of Jesus, said "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." When Andrew heard this he left John and began to follow Jesus.

Andrew is not mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles and it is not really known what became of him. There are, however, traditions about him that are so strong as to have the force of actual history. Legend says that he went to preach in Asia and was martyred in 70 A. D. by being tied, not nailed, to a cross.

This form of crucifixion was perhaps even worse than the usual kind, for the victim died a long-lingering death of hunger and thirst. The cross on which Andrew died was shaped like the letter "X" and such crosses have been known since as St. Andrew's crosses.

It is believed in Scotland that the Apostle's remains were brought from Constantinople to Scotland in the year 368 by a monk named Regulus, who buried them at the place where the town of St. Andrew's, with its famous Cathedral now stands.

St. Simon of Cyrene was what we would call an "innocent bystander" on the day when the sad procession, with the Lord carrying His cross, moved toward Calvary for the Crucifixion.

According to Matthew, chapter 27, verse 32, Simon was pressed into service to carry the cross for its intended Victim.

In the Second Century there was a group of strange Christians called Gnostics, who did not believe at all in the humanity of Jesus but thought of Him as only a sort of divine spirit that at times used a human body.

The Gnostics worked out the appalling theory that at the time when Simon was forced to shoulder the cross, Jesus had changed bodies with him and that it was really Simon who had been crucified.

Dec. 2 begins the eight-day Jewish feast of Hanukkah, or "dedication," a minor Jewish festival which has in comparatively recent years developed into importance.

The story behind Hanukkah is the story of the Maccabees, a small and fanatical Jewish army dedicated to wrest the Temple from the pagan foreigners who were occupying Jerusalem.

The term, "feast of dedication," refers to the rededication of the Temple after the Maccabees had taken possession of it. This uprising, in which a small band of Jewish patriots overpowered the soldiers of the mighty Syrian king, was one of the most courageous military feats in history.

The account of it appears in the two books of the Maccabees. (These books are not found in the Bible as used by the Protestant churches.)

Nowadays the Feast of Hanukkah is given a special place in Jewish life mainly because it provides an opportunity for Jewish children to have a winter celebration comparable to the Christmas holiday of their Christian friends and playmates.

Mainly a home, rather than a synagogue, festival, Hanukkah is a time for special foods and decorations, for parties and pageants, and for the exchange of presents.

It is also known as the Feast of Lights, because of the lovely candlelighting ceremony that forms a large part of the home observance of Hanukkah. An eight-branch candlestick, called the Menorah, is set up in the house.

On the first day of the festival one candle is lighted; on the second day two candles, and so on through the eight days. The children are always given a prominent part in this family ceremony.

Senseless Vandalism Is Taking Place in America

The vandals were barbaric tribesmen who destroyed Rome's beautiful statues and sculpturing just for the sake of breaking things. But similar senseless vandalism goes on right here in America. Discuss the cases below in Sunday school tomorrow.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case J-354: George, aged 23, is the oldest of our five offspring.

He had been training in the Naval Air Corps at Pensacola, Florida, to become a jet pilot.

But during his occasional weekends, he had enjoyed exploring the swampy regions thereabouts. And he had discovered an old plantation home, hidden in the swamps.

Though nearly 100 years old, it stood unoccupied but impressive. In a neighboring cabin lived the caretaker. He took George through the beautiful old mansion.

"It still had the original furniture in it," George wrote to us recently. "And the cellar was still stocked with provisions. It is a beautiful place. I'd like to buy it some day."

A few weeks passed and George again visited this ancient plantation home. I read his letter aloud at the luncheon table.

"Some vandals broke into the house," George reported irately. "They even took the stored food and dumped it into the bayou.

"Then they deliberately broke up that beautiful old furniture. And not content with that destruction, they even set fires in the middle of the floors, but the caretaker detected the smoke and got there in time to save the building from burning to the ground."

Mrs. Crane is a great fan for antiques, so she was horrified to think people would wantonly destroy lovely old furniture.

"I can't imagine how anybody would destroy such things," she protested indignantly.

"It certainly is inexcusable," I said and nodded agreement.

"Yeah," Danny, aged 17, exclaimed, "but many of the kids who do such things grow up to be all right."

But Mrs. Crane again expressed her anger at such wanton vandalism.

Whereupon Danny once more informed us very positively that he knew kids in gangs like that who had turned out to be pretty good guys, even though they were hoodlums a few years before.

Earlier this year I spent 3 days addressing 12,000 employes of a department store. I took them 1,000 at a time, which explains my 3-day session.

And while I was in that city the newspapers reported that a library had been entered by night. Thousands of books had been thrown against the wall, as if the vandals had used them for baseball practice.

The looters had also torn the backs off of hundreds of other volumes. Remember how Abraham Lincoln walked 25 miles just for the privilege of borrowing one book? And how carefully and reverently he treated the book?

Although the newspapers deplored such senseless destruction of public library volumes, the very next night another library was similarly entered and its books destroyed or mutilated.

In Sunday school tomorrow you might discuss such actual cases of vandalism in this year 1953 in supposedly civilized America.

Do you think boys who are given an allowance would be more or less likely to commit such vandalism than boys who had earned their own money?

Do you think a newspaper boy or a Boy Scout or a YMCA youth would be as likely to destroy property in such fashion, as a cigarette-smoking idler who tries to be a drugstore cowboy?

Would a Sunday schooler be as likely to do such things as a boy who does not attend? Or a smart boy as likely as a feebleminded?

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER
International News Service

This slow-fused spy business reminds me that I never did dig that Dumbarton Oaks conference.

They went so far into the woods their breaths smelled like hickory. They figured that was the only safe place to count money.

We had just financed World War II, were paying for World War I and figured we would slap down a fat binder on World War III.

Seems the spies ran that international monetary foundation like it was on tracks. And they lived on the loading platform.

I never did claim to be a financial expert. Proof is that I soldiered at Fort Knox in 1918 B. G., before gold.

The idea of Dumbarton Oaks was pocket mining. Every time somebody dropped a dime the diplomats yelled, timber."

That fellow Dexterous White operated the Dumbarton Oaks mint with a lavish grab.

We saw the sheep dogs walking around with wool in their teeth. But innocently thought they were knitting sweaters.

How is it the American public wasn't told about this before? Well, all men are created free and equal. But some's ears are higher than others.

Two administrations later the egg hatches in a cold incubator. The blame fixing committee meets in a hall without mirrors.

But the future looks brighter than a knothole in the Devil's spite fence.

There is nothing wrong with America that cannot be postponed.

Does Going Barefoot Cause Flat Feet? No, Says Dr. Brady; Just the Opposite

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

THE MAIL BOX

Go Barefoot

Does going barefoot cause flatfootedness, as many say it does. (J. K.)

Answer — On the contrary, the more you go barefoot the less likely to become flatfooted. Send twenty-five cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for booklet Care of the Feet. It deals with corns, calluses, bunions, weak ankles, flat foot, foot itch, hammer toe, sweaty feet, ingrown nail, etc.

Speak for Yourself

Five years ago slipped on waxed floor and broke left leg lengthwise from hip to knee. It was set with five screws and healed fine. Ten months ago broke same leg in car wreck, this time crosswise above knee. It was set with two screws. Doctor said bone so fragile he could cut it with scissors, and I must be very careful . . . when I asked if I needed more calcium he said nothing can be done . . . (R. L. A.)

Answer — By the old timer, that is. But a twentieth century doctor might tell you that at least it can do no harm to boop your Calcium and vitamin D intake for a year and see. Send twenty-five cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for booklet The Calcium Shortage.

Oodles Better

By following the Corrective Protective Diet for Reduction, as directed in your Rules for Reducing, I have lost 30 pounds. I am beginning to look like a woman again and I feel oodles better . . . (Mrs. Z. M.)

Answer — For Rules for Reducing send twenty-five cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Leg Cramps

Mother, 83, suffers with severe leg cramps at night. Would calcium and D help her? How much . . . (J. E.)

Answer — Yes. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask in writing for pamphlet Adult Tetany.

This Can Be True

Since my husband went to the sanatorium I have worked as combination office girl and near-nurse in a doctor's office here, so I know the dope racket, phenobarbital for everything under the sun. It makes me shudder . . . feed them on such dope until they can be easily talked into an operation . . . (M. L. A.)

Answer — The popularity of "nerves" as an explanation for "everything under the sun" makes the racket you describe too easy for the trick specialists.

Her First at Forty

Thanks to your Iodin Ration—or anyway, thanks for your Iodin Ration—I, too, am going to have my first baby after 16 years of marriage which we feared was to be barren . . (Mrs. B. J. C.)

Answer — Well, anyway, the Iodin Ration can do no harm, whether you are going to have a baby or not. Send twenty-five cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for Preparing for Maternity. If you want also instructions for taking an iodin ration ask for the pamphlet The Iodin Ration, too.

Start Reading

Why, oh, why didn't you start writing for the papers before I lost in succession my appendix, my gall bladder, my ovaries . . . Now at — I have so many troubles, most of which . . (Mrs. H. K.)

Ancient Biblical Writings Found

Sensational Discovery May Be Oldest Existing Testament Texts

"The most sensational archeological event of our time," in the opinion of British archeologists, may prove to be the recent discovery of ancient Biblical manuscripts entombed for centuries in a cave above the Dead Sea in Jordan.

As reported in a recent scientific article, these newly found manuscripts, originally written on sheets of parchment or leather and sewn together to form scrolls, are now in fragments—literally bushels of them.

The tremendous task of piecing these fragments together and translating them is being undertaken by French Dominican priests in Jerusalem together with scholars from the American School of Oriental Research.

The manuscripts, which date back to the earliest days of Christianity and before, include copies of Old Testament books and are surmised to be "the most ancient Biblical texts in the original Biblical language in existence."

They are so brittle and so darkened with antiquity that only infrared photography can make legibility possible.

Ask Indians to Quiet Fears

Christian Missionaries Seek New Delhi Help to Protect Minorities

By Religious News Service

NEW DELHI—A resolution urging the Indian government to allay fears about the possible imposition of restrictions on foreign missionaries was adopted by the Indian Christian Association at the close of a special meeting here.

This was an apparent reference to the recent statement made in the lower house of Parliament by Dr. K. N. Katju, Home Minister, in which he said that the government's position was that evangelism should be limited to Indian citizens and that foreign missionaries should confine themselves to medical, educational and social work.

Stressing the "fundamental right of Christians to propagate their faith," the Association said:

"The propagation of the Gospel is an integral part of the Christian faith, and in the practice of their faith, Christians cannot accept any interference."

At the same time, the Association took note of charges that missionaries were mixing politics with their work by saying it had no sympathy "with any individual who, under the garb of religion, indulges in activities subversive of law and order."

The delegates called upon the Indian government to set up a special board "to safeguard the interests of minority communities." They also demanded the creation of similar boards by the various state governments.

Catholic Bishop Gives Anglers an Early Start

By Religious News Service

AMSTERDAM—Roman Catholics who like to go fishing on Sundays can get an early start from now on in this Dutch city.

Bishop J. P. Huibers of Haarlem has granted permission for the celebration of midnight Mass on Saturdays in one of Amsterdam's chapels.

Thus far, Bishop Huibers has allowed evening Mass in about 50 churches and chapels in his diocese, which includes all the big cities in the western part of the Netherlands.

In most cases, permission has been given only for special feasts or occasions but in some cities, like Amsterdam, The Hague and Haarlem, permission has been given for all holidays of obligation, Sundays and First Fridays.

Find Luther Signature

An autograph by Martin Luther and a letter written in Philipp Melanchthon's own hand have been discovered in the city archives, of Lindau on Lake Constance, Germany, according to word received by the German Tourist Information Office. The Luther autograph is the great reformer's signature on the ordination document of the Lindau minister, Matthias Roth, and is dated 1540, while the Melanchthon letter is dated Feb. 22, 1547.

Confident Living

Enthusiasm Worth More Than Professional Skill

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Some years ago, the wife of a former British prime minister, Ramsay MacDonald, lay dying. She called her husband to her bedside because there was a message she felt she must leave with him before she died.

And these were her words: "Whatever else you do, put romance and enthusiasm into the lives of our children."

I think that this is one of the wisest deathbed statements I have ever read, for what greater inheritance could any mother pass on than to give her children the romance of living and eager enthusiasm for life itself.

Are you an enthusiastic person? Do you constantly feel a sense of dynamic energy throughout your entire being? Do you get a tremendous thrill from living? If you must honestly say, "No," in response to any of these questions, God help you, for no one is fully realizing his possibilities who does not have his share of enthusiasm.

Shortly after Sir Edward Appleton, of the University of Edinburgh in Scotland, was awarded the Nobel Prize for his work in physics, he was asked his secret of success. He told the interviewer he could answer in only one word: "Enthusiasm," And he added, "I would put enthusiasm above professional skill."

When the presidnt of a great American railroad was asked a similar question, he replied, 'The greatest asset that any man in business can possess is enthusiasm. If you have two men, one with more intellectual equipment and better training than the other; if the other has more enthusiasm, he will outdistance the first."

Yale's late great Professor Willian Lyon Phelps used to lecture to audiences of school teachers on "The Excitement of Teaching." I once commented to him that some teachers didn't seem to me to be too excited about it all.

"Why," he said, "it's the greatest excitement in the world to teach. And to do it well, the one thing you must get is enthusiasm."

Indeed, enthusiasm can work miracles for anyone. If, after reading this, you get a new birth of enthusiasm, the people around you will now know you. You will carry that enthusiasm with you to your office tomorrow morning and you will seem a different person. And you will indeed be different.

It is all too easy to settle down into routine, monotony and deadness — too many of us yield to the temptation. But enthusiasm has the power to revitalize anyone.

How does one get enthusiasm? There is an easy answer to that question in the derivation of the word itself. It comes from the Greek words, "en theos," which mean "in God" and the dictionary tells us that the literal meaning of the word is "possessed by God."

The Bible tells us, "in Him we live, and move, and have our being." So the secret of enthusiasm is to get into contact with the flow of Divine energy and creative power which comes from God. Don't cut yourself off from it.

Instead, get yourself in tune with the vibratory forces of the universe, become possesed by the powerful force that flows from God.

Church to Hear Carver Protege

Austin W. Curtis Jr. to Be Guest of Trinity Baptists

Guest speaker at the Father and Son banquet tonight in Trinity Baptist Church is Austin W. Curtis Jr. of A. W. Curtis Laboratories in Detroit. Mr. Curtis was a protege of the late Dr. George Washington Carver, working for many years side by side with the wizard of Tuskegee in the laboratory of the school.

Now, a thousand miles away from the scene of the first experiments conducted under the guidance of Dr. Carver, Curtis carries on, performing an incredible amount of modern magic on members of the plant kingdom.

The banquet will mark the beginning of a program sponsored by men of the church.

While all books published from the time printing was invented have had a "final printing," the Bible is still being reprinted and revised. The American Bible Society alone put out over 295 editions in various languages, including all major systems for the blind and obscure dialects of the Orient and Africa.

Sunday Sermonette

THE SISSY

"You probably don't remember me, Mr. Watkins, but you and I were in the fourth grade together."

The lawyer, who had been sitting at his desk, stood up. He towered over the little man who had come into his office, and said, "On the contrary, I remember you very well. When we were in the fourth grade you were bigger than I was, and you used to call me 'Sissy.'"

The little man was in serious trouble. It looked as though he was going to lose his home, his money, and everything he owned in a lawsuit. Someone told him that a lawyer named Ed Watkins was the only man smart enough and skillful enough to get him out of the jam.

"Why, I know Ed Watkins," he said. "We were in grade school together." So he made an engagement through the lawyer's secretary, and at the appointed time was ushered into his office.

It was then he was remainded that as a boy he had bullied Ed Watkins—the only man who could help him in his hour of need.

He couldn't take it. He couldn't throw himself on the mercy of someone he had picked on in the fourth grade. So without a word he turned around and walked out of the lawyer's office.

Of course, the lawyer held no grudge against the man. He had meant no offense by reminding him of boyish mischief. But, because it is often easier to be forgiving than to accept forgiveness, the little man refused a helping hand.

'54 Marian Year Indulgences Set

Decree Lists Spiritual Benefits Which Can Be Gained by Faithful

By Religious News Service

Rome — Spiritual benefits and indulgences to be gained by the faithful during the 1954 Marian Year are contained in a decree issued by the Sacred Apostolic Penitentiary and published in Osservatore Romano, Vatican newspaper.

According to the decree, the special indulgences can be gained from the opening of the Marian Year on Dec. 8, the feast of the Immaculate Conception, until the same day in 1954.

The decree states:

(1) A plenary indulgence may be gained by visiting churches built in honor of the Virgin Mary, or mission area chapels dedicated to her, on the opening or closing day of the Marian Year, Christmas Day, the feasts of the Annunciation, Purification, Seven Dolors, and the Assumption.

(2) A plenary indulgence may be gained on all Saturdays of the Marian Year and every time the faithful take part in collective pilgrimages to shrines and sanctuaries of the Blessed Virgin.

(3) A plenary indulgence may be gained under the usual conditions (Confession, Communion and prayers for the intention of the Pope) for those attending solemn ceremonies in honor of the Blessed Virgin. If those taking part in such ceremonies do not receive Confession or Communion but at least make an act of contrition they shall enjoy a partial indulgence of ten years.

(4) The faithful who attend Solemn Pontifical Mass on the opening and closing days of the Marian Year also will be granted a partial indulgence of ten years.

(5) All altars dedicated to the Virgin Mary are privileged. (This means that a plenary indulgence for the dead may be gained when Masses are celebrated for them on such altars.)

(6) Individual Catholics who visit Marian Shrines or sanctuaries to which Pilgrims come from far-away countries will be able to gain a plenary indulgence not only on Saturdays but also on the weekdays of the Marian Year.

An indulgence is the remission of temporal punishment due to sin after its gilt has been forgiven. A plenary indulgence is the remission of the whole debt of temporal punishment. A partial indulgence remits only a part of that punishment.

8-Day Festival of Chanuko Begins for Jews on Dec. 1

Festival of Chanuko, which commemorates history's first struggle for religious freedom, will be celebrated by Jews throughout the world beginning at sunset Dec. 1.

Known as the Feast of Lights, Chanuko, which means dedication, goes back more than 2,100 years when Judea was under the domination of a Syrian monarch named Antiochus who sought to coerce the Jews into the worship of idols.

Led by the famed Maccabeans, the Jews resisted. After years of guerrilla warfare they routed the enemy and rededicated the temple in Jerusalem which had been desecrated by the pagans.

A gift-giving holiday, Chanuko is celebrated for eight days. In synagogues and homes special prayers and hymns touching upon freedom of worship are sung. The chief ritual is the lighting of tapers in a special candelabrum, or menorah. Each night an additional candle is lighted to symbolize growth.

WASHINGTON—The armed services need to recruit at least 50 chaplains a month between now and next June 30 in order to keep all vacancies filled, the Chiefs of Chaplains reported here.

More vacancies exist in the quotas for Roman Catholic, Protestant Episcopal and Lutheran communions than for other religious groups, the chief said.

The Navy will need 175 new chaplains by the end of the fiscal year June 30, 1954, Chaplain (Rear Admiral) Edward B. Harp Jr. declared, due to the large number of reserve chaplains about to complete their tour of duty.

Church Seeking End of Bazaars to Raise Funds

By Religious News Service

CLEVELAND — An end of suppers and bazaars as fund-raising devices in Evangelical and Reformed churches was forecast here at the third quadrennial meeting of the denomination's Women's Guild.

In a report of the Guild's stewardship department it was disclosed that E. and R. Women throughout the country were now raising money for the Church through direct giving.

The report said that suppers and bazaars were being supplanted in local churches by cooperation in the Fellowship of Tithers, which was authorized by the denomination's General Synod in 1950. At that time the Synod issued a call for direct giving for all purposes. The tithers apply the Bibilical injunction to set aside at least a tenth of all income for the Lord's work.

Inappropriate Hymn Brings Chuckle to Group

WASHINGTON (UP)—Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam got a come uppance recently from a fellow churchman during an annual business conference.

The conference was running ahead of schedule and the presiding Oxnam decided there was time for the siging of a hymn.

"Brother Day," said the Bishop, "will you lead us in number 44?"

The Rev. Albert E. Day, Baltimore, arose, opened his song book to the number, slammed it shut, and said sharply:

"I will not."

The amazed Oxnam jumped, looked at the title of the song, and laughed with the congregation. The title was "Day Is Dying in the West."

Children Suffer From Prosperity

Lutheran Educator Says They Have Too Much to Spend

By Religious News Service

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — Today's prosperity seems to be a bad influence on children because "it has given them more money to spend than is good for them," a Lutheran educator said here.

William Kramer of St. Louis, assistant secretary of schools for the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, told a meeting of Sunday school teachers that lack of discipline among today's children is due partly to the environment in which they live and partly to the neglect of parents.

Some parents "go to church on Sunday and then spend the rest of the week as though — for all practical purposes — God didn't exist," he said.

Radio, television, motion pictures and comics "not only distract, but often harm the personality development of the child," Mr. Kramer said.

"Even Christian parents may not realize the damage," he added.

"Today's world isn't a very fertile ground for teaching God's word," the educator said. "It is difficult to teach the child to trust in God when all about him he observes men trusting in government, mighty armies and money."

WASHINGTON — One of the capital's historic downtown churches soon will be razed, it was disclosed here.

Members of First Congregational church, which President Calvin Coolidge attended, voted to authorize the sale of their 88-year-old edifice situated in the heart of Washington's downtown business district.

They took the action after learning that the site is valued at $750,000 by real estate appraisers, and that their Sunday school building has been condemned by the fire marshal and would cost $250,000 to replace.

Makeup Tips Will Insure a Good Photo

NEW YORK (INS)—Got an appointment to pose for that "special" photograph?

Give the photographer all the help you can in making you look beautiful by using some make-up advice.

Beauty experts have the following suggestions for women posing for a professional portrait:

Use makeup a shade or two deeper than you usually wear.

If eyebrows are light, darken them; but be careful not to get a solid, heavy, artificial look.

Use more mascara than ordinarily; go light on the eye shadow to prevent a heavy, deepset look. Put a line of the colored eye shadow pencil as close to the lashes as possible and extend it about one-eighth of an inch beyond the corner of each eye and with a slightly upward swing. This gives importance to the eyes and makes them appear larger.

2-Way Sofa Is Practical for Visitors

The holiday season is approaching and with it comes the problem of how to accommodate over-night guests, for sleeping space is at a premium in most modern homes.

In line with the trend toward smaller, more compact living quarters, the addition of dual purpose bedding is an ideal solution.

It not only provides a place for friends and relatives to sleep, but also furnishes added seating space for the host of holiday visitors that are bound to drop in.

Versatile and practical, dual purpose bedding is available in a type or size to fit any need—convertible sofas that open into double beds jackknife sofas in which the back lowers to seat level to provide a sleeping surface; studio couches that convert to twin beds; single sleepers; and even chair beds.

Popular cover fabrics for dual purpose sofas this season are mohair, nylon, rayon and cotton blends, and Dacron, the newest synthetic to come into the upholstery field.

Plaids and checks in color combinations of black and white, black, white, and red; brown, beige, and green; and black and yellow are high on the fashion list for covering for dual purpose sofas.

Doesn't Like Her Guests to Tip Maid

Mrs. Post Replies Hostess Is Wrong to Resent Custom

By EMILY POST

A letter tells me: "In a recent column you said that it is customary to tip the maid of a house where you have stayed overnight or longer. Don't you think, Mrs. Post, that the hostess should be consulted before doing this?

"I pay my maid a good salary and see no reason why she should have to be tipped by guests for something she is being paid to do, and, frankly, I resent it. Will you please discuss this question further?"

Answer: It would be very improper for a guest to discuss this with the hostess. Tipping the maid when staying in someone's house is a long-established custom and you are wrong to resent it. If your guests choose to do this, it is, in my opinion, out of your province.

Dear Mrs. Post: I want to give a large tea to announce the engagement of my daughter. Will you please tell me what type of invitation should be sent, and how it is worded?

Answer: Write your daughter's name underneath your engraved name on your own visiting card, and the day and hour. When the guests arrive, have your daughter and her fiance stand beside you.

You then announce the engagement to each arriving group and introduce him to anyone who does not already know him.

Dear Mrs. Post. I lost my mother this summer and would like to know if it would be proper for my husband and me to send Christmas cards to our friends this year?

Answer: There is no impropriety in sending Christmas cards to others if you feel able to do so.

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is proper for those in mourning to wear earrings or any other jewelry at the wake and funeral?

Answer: Earrings that one habitually wears would be quite all right, but not ones that are put on for special occasions — nor any other jewelry that is exposed to view.

Zest for Living Often Depends on Proper Rest

Enough sleep means the difference between vitality and tiredness and enthusiasm and listlessness. Mainly, though, it means the difference between being bored with life and having enthusiasm and a zest for living, and aging early as compared with staying young and healthy.

However, as in all health routines, there is a right and wrong way to go about getting enough sleep. One way — the wrong way — is to set aside eight hours a night for sleep, with no attention given to sleeping conditions, etc. The other way — the right way — is to see to it that one's bedding is the best possible.

This means a level, resilient mattress and spring so that the body is supported evenly and restfully. The pillow should also be given special attention. It should be light, fluffy and buoyant and fit comfortably between the head and shoulders.

Also, taking one's worries to bed with him makes sleep impossible. One of the greatest benefits of sleep is that worries and fears are erased for a few hours and take on a brighter aspect on awakening. If these worries are taken to bed, however, they only become magnified until restful sleep is impossible.

Anne Fogarty Beat Dior With Young, Fresh Styles

Christian Dior, the famous fashion man from Paris, recently stated that clothes were becoming too ladylike in design — that there is need for youth and freshness. He then proceeded to shorten skirts and give dresses a young look.

There's only one thing wrong with this statement. He didn't think of it first and a U. S. magazine proved it by showing Anne Fogarty designs that beat him to it.

The Fogarty sketched today for you to make and put yourself out in front in the fashion parade is the same one the magazine used to illustrate its point. It was shown in gray satin as well as flannel.

Any fabric you can name is adaptable to it, depending for what occasion you wish to make it. Please note how the goring begins under the bust to nip in at the waistline and then spring out into a dancing fullness. The bustline is thus cut to make the most of that particular measurement.

The same body is shown by Miss Fogarty without sleeves — a good look if your upper arms are slim and pretty, don't forget to wear crinolines or flouncy petticoats with it — the designer uses several when she shows full skirts.

When Gardening Income Ceases, Widow Creates Smart Artificial Corsages

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"About this time of year," a Long Island woman told me recently, "I always used to feel like the last rose of summer, I'm afraid.

"You see," she went on, "I make a good deal of money during the summer with my garden. Our community has many wealthy people, and I have worked up quite a business supplying flowers for their homes — and for their big weddings and parties.

"But I just have a plain garden with no hothouse, and so my income, as well as my activity, used to hit a real low when the last chrysanthemum withered. But not now!"

She smiled proudly, and went on.

"I have three children to educate, and I'm a widow with very small income. So it was quite a problem.

"I have very good taste with flowers, if I say so myself, and the summer business sort of fell in my lap.

"But it wouldn't swing our expenses, or help us eat through the winter, so I knew that I would have to get busy and think something up.

"One of my customers gave me the idea," she continued. "She's a famous beauty, noted for her elegant clothes. All summer long I supplied her with corsages — for her hair, or her purse, or her dress, sometimes even to pin on her gloves.

"I prided myself on the lovely arrangement and color blending of those corsages, and of course, a lot of her friends used to buy them from me, too.

"Well, late in September, this customer said to me: 'Oh, dear! No more lovely flowers to wear!' and that's when I got the idea. I decided to make artificial flowers —not ugly, junky ones, but beautiful corsages for the wealthy women to wear.

"I knew how to sew a little, and I got beautiful bits of fabric, and worked and worked at perfecting them. Within two months, I sent her a complimentary corsage of my artificial flowers, and she adored it.

"Now she's a regular customer, and so are her friends, and I make enough to let us eat all winter!"

Gifts Galore if You Have Everything

But What About the People Who Have Nothing?

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

NEW YORK (UP) — Now that Thanksgiving is behind us, I am willing to think about Christmas presents.

Santa Claus rushes the season a little more every year, but no true Christmas giver of the old school starts buying anything before Thanksgiving, holly wreaths and canned snow notwithstanding.

All right. So first I would like to know where all these people are who have everything? Every page I turn in the Christmas gift catalogues (I start saving them in July) suggests a gift for the man who has everything. Or the woman who has everything.

I am thinking of starting a gift-buying service for the folks who have nothing. Well, nothing compared to that woman who is going to get a jeweled back scratcher because she apparently has everything else.

Most of the mothers I know would haul any daughter back to the store by the ear to return that one ofter Christmas.

The salesgirl was very frosty when I mentioned that I was giving my mother a second-hand portable typewriter, excellent condition, for Christmas. Next year she gets tuition for typing lessons.

Personally, I see nothing wrong with giving a man a notarized certificate that promises he won't have to dry dishes for six months. Or maybe a new pair of slippers with a gift subscription entitling him to that old pipe-and-slippers-and-you're-wonderful routine when he hits the front door every Friday night.

And don't be led astray, men, by those purse atomizers and hand-painted bottle corks and jeweled pill boxes. Girls are practical creatures, at heart.

For instance, I would like eight saucers. No cups, just saucers, since I still have the eight cups and somehow broke all the saucers.

A box of subway tokens might be nice. I keep trying to put dimes in the slot and jam things up something awful during rush hour.

Most of all, though, I would like for Christmas a friend who has everything. They're so easy to buy presents for now.

Girls Often Are Sorry for Splitting Up With Beaus Impetuously, Irrevocably

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

When a boy gets fed up with dating a girl, he just stops coming around. He doesn't have to tell her in so many words that the very thought of her has become a hideous nightmare to him. She just finds herself dropped flat. And usually full of woe and questioning and wonder.

When a girl, on the other hand, becomes bored to death with a boy she's been dating, she makes speeches on the subject. Oh, she may drop a hint or two like being too busy to have dates with him, or obviously flirting with somebody else while he watches.

But if hints don't work, she has to put her change of mood into words. She has to get rid of him somehow so other boys will ask her for dates.

And puting that change of hearts into words is what causes the trouble. The end isn't hard to spell—but there's something irrevocable, definite and hurting about it.

Entirely too often a girl lives to regret it. After kicking him out of her life, she'd give her two back teeth to get him back.

It seems to me breaking up is a gesture a girl can ill afford! Since the dating initiative is still in the boy's hands, it leaves her high and dry.

It doesn't make sense to cut off the source of supply when it's so awkward and embarrassing and difficult to reinstate it.

Here's Marion, for instance, on the very brink of "rubbing out" a faithful boy friend. She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: For two years now I've been going steady with Les and we're very much in love. He gets awfully mad at me now and then, but I've always accepted his apologies when he came back.

"He doesn't believe in some things I believe in and that causes friction. But the payoff was the other night when I had my hair in a ponytail and it made him furious. He went home in a huff, but came back the next night to apologize.

"This time I told him I needed 10 days to decide whether I wanted to take him back. I think I've taken about enough from him, personally, and that 10 days will show me how much he has changed. What do you think?"

I think Les has done a lot of apologizing for getting mad and has done a lot of humble crawling back to you. And there's not one single word in your story about you being sorry for what you did that made him mad — no single apology for upsetting him.

You want him to change in these next 10 days. How about you? Are you going to go right on insisting on having your own way all the time? Going right on doing the things that annoy the boy? Going to continue to think that the whole trouble is his fault? Going to let little things like ponytail hairdos destroy your relationship?

Faded awnings can be given a fresh look by painting with a solution of two parts linseed oil and one part turpentine.

To smooth rough edges of wooden clothes hangers, cover the frayed sections with cellaphane tape.

There's one expression that ought to be dropped from our language and that is "exchanging gifts." You hear it a lot around Christmas time, one friend explaining to another that so-and-so and I always "exchange" gifts. Let's "give" our gifts this year—instead of "exchanging" them—which doesn't sound like giving at all.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Try It

Collect Christmas Ideas

As one of the popular radio shows says "People are funny." We never seem to worry about anything until it is time for it to happen.

This is true around the holidays. We suddenly decide that we want to make some gifts, a special decoration, or some holiday cards, and then we don't know just how to go about it. I would like to suggest that you start saving Try Its for occasions of this kind.

It is easy to start a scrapbook and then you always have what you need at your fingertips. If you just cut out the Try Its, you stick them here and there, and then when you want them they are even hidden from you.

Get a large, inexpensive scrapbook—one with a plain cover is best. Cut out letters which say "Try It at Christmas." These can be cut from advertisements or pasted on from lettering kits.

You will find that you will have many Try It ideas which can be used during the holidays just by cutting the ones which will appear in the next few weeks. There are always Try Its appearing throughout the year which can be adapted for gift ideas for Christmas. How about making scrapbooks for Cubs, Brownies and clubs

Rhee, Chiang Join Forces

Joint Statement Urges United Asiatic Front Backed by U. S.

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist China and South Korea today announced that they "stand firmly united" in the battle against communism and called for a united Asiatic front strongly backed by the United States.

A joint statement issued during secret conferences here between Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and South Korea's Syngman Rhee did not say flatly that a formal alliance has been agreed upon.

But the statement indicated clearly the two bitter foes of communism have joined forces and hope their alliance will serve as a basis for a united front of Democratic nations in the Pacific.

Rhee arrived in Taipeh yesterday after a secret flight from Seoul. There has been no announcement when he will return, but a 5th Air Force announcement in Seoul indicated he will be home by Tuesday.

Rhee is scheduled to present a presidential unit citation to the Air Force at noon Tuesday.

Rhee and Chiang huddled for six hours Friday, then went into conference again after a leisurely breakfast together Saturday morning.

Their joint statement expressed conviction that "victory over communism in Asia is the key to world peace and stability."

"The governments and peoples of our two countries stand firmly united in our determination to mobilize all our morale and material forces to defeat the aggressors in Asia," they declared.

Rhee and Chiang affirmed that they would not fail "those stout-hearted anti-Communist prisoners of war in Korea who have so nobly placed liberty above all else."

And they voiced determination "to carry on the fight against communist aggression until those of our brethren who have been enslaved are restored their liberty."

70 Prisoners Is Low Mark for County Jail

The number of prisoners at Oakland County jail numbered 70 yesterday, the lowest figure since last March when the jail held 68 inmates, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputy Jack Davis, turnkey.

High for the year was in October, Davis said, when 152 prisoners were in jail on the same day.

Thirty-one prisoners have been transferred to Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson this month and one to the Detroit House of Correction. Their sentences ranged from one year to life imprisonment, according to Sgt. William Scott.

Babysitter Entertains Young Charges in Jail

SHAWNEE, Okla. (AP) — "Would you do me a favor?" Mrs. Mildred Ford asked Desk Sgt. C. L. Crittendon.

"I'll try," he replied.

Mrs. Ford explained she was from out of town and came to Shawnee to offer a hospitalized friend a blood transfusion. But she had no one to sit with her two daughters, Lee Ella, 9, and Janice, 7.

The policeman didn't bat an eyelash in volunteering. Crittendon entertained the youngsters by showing them around the jail.

Three Are Injured as 3 Cars Collide

Three Royal Oak people were injured in a three-car collision at Fourteen Mile and John R Roads, according to Royal Oak Township Police Capt. Robert Richardson.

Treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital were: William Groce, 19, for face cuts; Mrs. Bertha Hanks, 57, with forehead cuts; and Mrs. Ozell Ramey, 40, who is in fair condition today with a fractured arm and possible rib fractures. All live at 1906 Birchwood, Royal Oak.

Two autos collided at the intersection and then rammed a third car, David M. Fulton, 40, of 1958 Derby, Birmingham, attempted to drive across, John R. Richardson said.

Groce's southbound vehicle crashed into Fulton's car and the two smashed into a car on Fourteen Mile Road driven by Mrs. Nellie Siderski, 38, of 16940 Alcherler, Birmingham.

Youngsters Mob Santa in Early Helicopter Visit

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP) — Santa Claus arrived ahead of schedule in a helicopter yesterday and for a few minutes probably wished he had stayed at the North Pole.

Santa's helicopter landed 15 minutes early in the business district. Stranded in the midst of several hundred cheering youngsters who wouldn't let him go, he lost bits of clothing and one youngster leaped up and removed his red and white tassel cap. It was recovered and Santa, clutching his beard, pushed his way through and entered a department store.

Pittsburg Blast Kills Father, 2 Little Girls

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 26-year-old man and his two young daughters were killed in a predawn explosion and fire today that destroyed their four-room bungalow in the Mt. Washington section of this steel city.

The dead are Byron R. Martin and daughters, Cheryl, 5, and Carol, 4. His wife, Ann, 24, and two other children, Byron Jr., 2, and Edna, 6 monfhs, escaped with minor injuries.

An accumulation of natural gas apparently was ignited by the fire and exploded in a room adjacent to the bedrooms. A neighbor who had spotted the fire and was on her way to warn the Martins was tossed to the sidewalk by the blast.

Police Search for Man Still Lost Near Seney

MANISTIQUE (UP) — State Police searched toda for Robert Thomas, 22, Mt. Clemens, who has been lost in a wooded area near Seney, about 30 miles northeast of here, since Thursday.

Thomas had been deer hunting and failed to return to his camp.

Gadgeteer Chap Saves U. S. One Half Million

DETROIT (AP)—C. Allen Harlan, electrical contractor and self-stled "gadgeteer," has given the government a half million dollars—and it wasn't in taxes, either.

It was what he figured three Harlan-developed gadgets saved on electrical installations at a Navy jet engine plant here. He was low bidder at approximately four million dollars.

Harlan handed a "credit memo" for $500,000 to Chrysler Corp., which built the plant, yesterday. That means the Navy can shave Chrysler payments that much.

Harlan's No. 1 money-saving gadget, rode wheels he took off a son's soapbox racer. Riding plant beams, it served as a traveling work bench for electricians aloft. No. 2 was an electrically-driven traveling scaffold that boosted heavy electrical ducts into place. No. 3 was a simplified fixture clamp he got the Navy to adopt.

Mother Being Held in Her Son's Death

SAGINAW (AP) — Having waived examination, a 26-year-old mother was in Saginaw County Jail today awaiting trial on a murder charge in the death of her two-year-old son.

She is Mrs. Barbara Marr, who was ordered held without bail by municipal Judge Joseph P. Friske when she waived examination yesterday.

Assistant prosecutor Gerald B. Rousseau authorized a murder warrant against Mrs. Marr after coroner Richard F. Gugel reported a "beating" was the primary cause of the death of her son, Randy, 2.

Gugel also found the child had suffered from malnutrition and dehydration.

Randy was found dead in bed Thursday morning. A funeral director noticed bruises and called authorities.

Charge Waldorf-Astoria With Overcrowding Roof

NEW YORK (AP)—The fashionable Waldorf-Astoria Hotel has been charged by the fire department with overcrowding its Starlight Roof during a meeting of the Hotel Owners Assn.

A complaint in Municipal Court alleged that on Nov. 16 banquet manager Claude Phillippe allowed 758 persons in the room—350 more than the law permits.

Phillippe entered a plea of innocent.

A hearing was set for next Friday.

Cobbler Gets Thank-You Note From President

NEW YORK (AP) — Cobbler John Porio has a nice thank-you note from President Eisenhower.

Porio delivered a pair of fancy slippers to the White House Monday. He said he made them a lot faster than a similar pair for former President Truman, which took him four years to finish.

Returnee Won't Talk of Others

Repatriated GI Refuses to See Parents of One Still With Reds

BIG STONE GAP, Va. (AP)—The first U. S. soldier to change his mind about refusing repatriation in Korea has declined to talk to the parents of one of the 22 Americans still with the Communists.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bell of Hillsboro, Miss., came here yesterday to ask Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson—the soldier who decided to accept repatriation—whether he knew anything about their son, Cpl. O. G. Bell, who was captured in Korea in 1950.

But Cpl. Dickenson turned down the Bells. He was at a neighbor's home when they called, but he refused to come to the door.

Dickenson said that "I cannot make any statement and I do not want to see them."

He gave no reason for his action. When he returned to this country and met his family last week in Washington, he declined to give information to a Baltimore woman who wanted some news of her son—also one of the 22 American soldiers who stayed behind.

At the time, Dickenson said he was told by the Army not to discuss any of the unrepatriated prisoners with anyone but an accredited representative of the government or the Army.

The Bells said yesterday, after Dickenson refused to talk with them, they would go today to nearby St. Paul in hopes of talking to a POW they understood was in the same Korean prison camp for a time with their son.

Boy Dies After Dinner; Victim of Indigestion

DETROIT (UP)—Police said today that an autopsy showed that Lamar Banks, 15, who died Friday after eating a heavy Thanksgiving Day meal, was the victim of acute indigestion.

The autopsy was ordered late Friday because food poisoning was suspected.

Banks' sister, Montelle, 14, and his grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Robinson, 63, were hospitalized briefly.

Motion Granted for New Trial

Too Much Publicity Is Reason Given in Case of Actress' Mother

LANSING (UP)—A mother sentenced to 14 years in prison for embezzling money to finance the Hollywood career of her daughter has been awarded a new trial by the Michigan Supreme Court.

The high court granted the new trial to Mrs. Beatrice Hollingsworth of Detroit Friday on her plea that portions of a supposedly confidential probation report in her case had been published by newspapers and broadcast by radio and television before she was sentenced.

In granting the motion, the Supreme Court overruled Detroit Recorder's Judge O. Z. Ide, who refused to allow Mrs. Hollingsworth to change her guilty plea to one of innocent before he sentenced her last February.

Mrs. Hollingsworth pleaded guilty last Jan. 24 to stealing $989.53 from her employer, the Kenneth Anderson Co. of Detroit, by forging company checks and cashing them, using the money to pay the expenses of her attractive 18-year-old daughter, Jill, who was in Hollywood at the time trying to "break into" the movies.

She originally had admitted embezzling more than $25,000 to finance Jill's career but was permitted to plead the lesser forgery charge.

Judge Ide, in sentencing Mrs. Hollingsworth, lectured her sternly from the bench for openly boasting she would get probation. The 14-year sentence was the maximum for the charge.

When the judge refused to allow her to change her plea, Mrs. Hollingsworth's attorney, James McNally, started the appeal.

She has been free on $2,000 bond set by the Supreme Court. Judge Ide had refused to release her on bond.

South Dakotan Named to Conservation Service

Engravers Strike Hits New York Newspapers

Poetry Brings Help to Harried Parking Violator

FARMINGTON, N. M. (AP)—Poetry, or anything that resembles it, seems to bring out the very best in W. H. Christiansen.

He saw this on the windshield of a woman's car as time was running out on a parking meter:

"My dear cop,
I'm sorry you had to stop.
It nearly breaks my heart
But my car won't start.
My kiddies are home
So I can't stay here—
Please don't give me a ticket
When 'violation' does appear."

The "cop" never saw the note. Christiansen, moved by the verse, deposited a nickel in the parking meter.

One Dies, 2 Are Hurt When Car Rams Truck

DETROIT (UP) — John Rodik, Dearborn, was dead on arrival at Wayne County General Hospital Friday night of injuries he received when the car in which he was riding rammed a parked truck loaded with steel.

Two others in the car, Frank Pencola, Dearborn, the driver, and Froman Strzyalski, Detroit, were injured seriously.

Reflections
Dry Leaves and People
by J. Lee Voorhees

J. L. VOORHEES
I watched dry leaves float to the ground or become embroiled in a smother of action as a breeze picked them up, tossed, rolled and slide them here and there. Some people are like those leaves.
A speaker on a soap box or rostrum utters words that send our thoughts sliding, rolling into a smother of confusion. Like those leaves we pass over hard surface facts and land in a heap.

M. E. SIPLE
A six year old boy asked his father, "Why is it light?" His father explained, "The sun is our source of light," and the boy was satisfied. A few days later, the sky was overcast. The boy looked at the shadowless room, the leaden sky, turned to his father, shook his head. "You're wrong. No sun. Light though." The boy isn't going to be a leaf; he's going to think a subject through before he accepts it.
Don't be a leaf. Sift and evaluate words; go against the wind, if your destination lies in that direction.

Queen Elizabeth Will Visit Canal

Royal Party to Arrive Sunday for Receptions, Tours in U. S. Zone

PANAMA, Panama (AP)—Touring Queen Elizabeth II and her entourage sailed toward the Panama Canal today aboard the British cargo-passenger ship Gothic. The royal party is due in the Canal Zone tomorrow for a hurried round of events as guests of the United States and Panama.

The Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh boarded the glistening white, 15,902-ton Gothic in Jamaica yesterday, two days after they arrived in the colony by plane from Bermuda and London. The ship, carrying its usual pay load of British cargo, will take them on most of their six-month round-the-world tour of commonwealth nations and British possessions and protectorates.

Only in the 500-square-mile Panama Canal zone will the Queen be under the American flag.

A split-second program of military honors, sightseeing tours and receptions ashore has been arranged by U. S. and Panamanian officials. The Queen will pick up the Gothic at midnight tomorrow on the Pacific side to sail early Monday for New Zealand and Australia via the Fiji and Tonga Islands.

Soon after the Gothic docks at Cristobal tomorrow morning, the young monarch is to receive Panama's President Jose Antonio Remon, Canal Zone Gov. John S. Seybold and U. S. Caribbean commander Lt. Gen. Horace L. McBride aboard ship. Ashore, she will inspect an American honor guard.

President Remon will be host at a reception and luncheon in Panama. Church services will be held aboard ship in the afternoon, and two more receptions and a state banquet are slated for the evening.

Elizabeth dedicated a new building at the College of the West Indies yesterday and received representatives of the Maroons, a small mountain tribe descended from escaped Negro slaves.

Talk on Cerebral Palsy Set for FAITH Meeting

Dale S. Renault, Michigan executive director of United Cerebral Palsy Association, will speak on "New Rays of Hope" Tuesday night at a meeting of FAITH (For the Aid and Instruction of The Handicapped).

The organization, sponsored by the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children, will meet at 7:30 p.m. at Stevens Hall. The meeting is open to the public.

Tax Valuations Doubled on Leelanau Property

LELAND (AP) — The State Tax Commission, called in to help solve some of Leelanau County's assessment problems, has more than doubled valuations on real and personal property, from $10,796,720 to $25,001,517. The figure is for 1954, and there is no appeal.

Commission Chairman Louis M. Nims told supervisors they could keep tax revenue at the present level by lowering millage.

About 75 per cent of all the sugar cane produced in the United States is grown in Louisiana.

Burned Boy, 14, Willing to Spend Yule in Hospital

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Many youngsters don't like hospitals but 14-year-old Tommy Ebbert wants to spend his Christmas there.

Tommy still is recovering from burns suffered three years ago when six members of his family lost their lives in a blaze which destroyed their home.

Since then the youngster has been shuttling back and forth between Children's Hospital here and the children's home at Williamsburg, Pa. He enjoys the home but says he wants to stay in the hospital as long as he can so surgeons can complete their surgery faster.

The only survivors were Tommy and his father. His father has recovered but not enough to work and make a home for them.

Tommy's left hand is permanently crippled and searing burns left many scars. But doctors still hope to save his right hand and work constantly to rebuild his body and face.

So far the boy has undergone 17 operations—he's now in the hospital recuperating from the latest. Doctors and nurses say his will to recover is an important factor.

Wife Here Hears GI Likes East Germany

BRIDGETON, N. J. (AP) — Mrs. Rae Schaffer Zdanowski cried "He liked it here" in the United States when told the unhappy news, as reported by a Russian agency, that her Polish-born GI husband had fled to Communist East Germany.

Mrs. Zdanowski, 23, had met and married her husband only a few months before he was drafted in July, 1952.

She said he came to the U. S. in 1949.

The official East German zone news agency, ADN, said in a Thanksgiving Day dispatch that the 25-year-old Zdanowski entered East Germany Nov. 7 and was turned over to Polish authorities at his own request.

ADN quoted the GI as charging America with being an "aggressor" nation.

His wife, weeping at the news, said she never heard her husband "criticize" this country.

The Army's European headquarters at Heidelberg, Germany, said Zdanowski had been AWOL since Nov. 1.

Driving School Operator Needs Lesson Himself

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Rupert E. Smith, 22-year-old operator of a San Francisco driving school, should have taken a lesson himself today.

He was cited for:

Backing up improperly.

Driving the wrong way on a one-way street.

Using foul and abusive language to an officer.

Three Suns Tote Around $500,000 Paraphernalia

By RICHARD KLEINER

NEW YORK (NEA) — They call them small combos," but don't let that adjective fool you. Some of these two and three-piece outfits are small in number only. In a business sense, they're big time.

Morty Nevins, one of the Three Suns, was telling about the financial operations of this group.

The Three Suns are one of the best small combos around — they've made about 20 albums for RCA, and one record they made five months ago, "Under Paris Skies" and "Don't Take Your Love From Me," is still hot.

There are, naturally, three men in the Three Suns. Morty is the accordionist, brother Al plays guitar, and cousin Artie Dunn is the organist.

But those Three Suns have 10 satellites — a payroll of 10 people. They employ a press agent, engineer, truck driver, two arrangers, a personal manager, lawyer, accountant, secretary and somebody else Morty couldn't remember.

When they go on the road, they take $500,000 worth of equipment with them.

There is, first, their own truck. Inside are two organs, a special Steinway, three guitars, three accordions, six loudspeakers, five microphone systems, their complete music library and a costume wardrobe.

Morty, who was relaxing in a cowboy shirt and cowboy boots between tape sessions, says each Sun is responsible for a specific phase of the business.

He handles all publicity, Al takes care of actual business details, and Artie is in charge of material.

"We're a business," says Morty, "just like a grocery store."

THE POPULAR SIDE: Three big battles under way, to see which artist gets the top seller on three good songs.

"Stranger in Paradise" has been cut by Gordon MacRae, Tony Bennett and the Four Aces; "Heart of My Heart" by the Four Aces, Frankie Laine and a trio of Don Cornell, Alan Dale and Johnny Desmond; and "Changing Partners" by Pattie Page and Kay Starr.

These are the roughest fights of the year in the record world. I like, respectively, the Bennett, Cornell-Dale-Desmond and Page records. What's your pick?

ON THE CLASSICS: To the treasury of great recorded dramas, RCA-Victor has added a magnificent performance of "Romeo and Juliet," performed by the Old Vic company and recorded in London in 1952 with fidelity to the atmosphere of that historic theater. Claire Bloom is Juliet — remember her in Charlie Chaplin's "Limelight"?

Columbia has done a fine job transforming Edward R. Murrow's "This I Believe" into recorded form. The philosophies sound even more impressive than they read.

SUREFIRE: "Santa Baby" (Eartha Kitt, RCA).

SLEEPER: "Baubles, Bangles and Beads" (Peggy Lee, Decca).

GOOD ONES: "The Strings of My Heart" (The Gaylords, Mercury); "How Come You Never Answer?" (Jo Ann Tolley, MGM); "Are You Looking for a Sweetheart?" (Kitty Kallen, Decca); "Sadie Thompson's Song" (Richard Hayman, Mercury);

"Taint What You Do" (Ella Mae Morse, Capitol); "The River Seine" (David Rose, MGM); "Lover Come Back to Me" (Vic Damone, Mercury).

POP ALBUMS: "Kiss Me, Kate" is out in a new version. This is the MGM album from the soundtrack of the new movie. Kathryn Grayson, Howard Keel and Ann Miller do a fine job.

Paul Weston has two new albums out on Capitol. "Dream Time Music" and "Mood Music." Typical dreamy, moody Weston.

CLASSICAL: Beethoven's Concerto No. 3 for Piano and Orchestra given a very choice reading by pianist Rudolf Serkin and Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra (Columbia).

One of the late Simon Barere's last concerts, recorded on stage at Carnegie Hall, is released by Remington as "Simon Barere Farewell."

From RCA-Victor's treasury of immortal performances comes the reissue of Handel's "The Messiah," by the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra of London, Sir Thomas Beecham conducting.

Radio-TV Curb Action Started

Show Cause Order First Move to Limit Control to 12-Station Ownership

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) and J. Elroy McCaw of Centralia, Wash., are under orders to show cause why the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) should not require them to get rid of some radio stations they own.

The commission acted yesterday under a rule it had just announced —that no one may have even a minority financial interest in more than five television or more than seven radio stations. The five and seven limitation previously had applied only to controlling interests.

An FCC spokesman said other radio and TV station owners were being checked to determine whether they exceed the limit.

The orders give CBS and McCaw until Dec. 31 to reply. If it is determined they must dispose of some stations, they would be allowed three years to do so.

CBS controls six radio stations and has minority interest in three others. McCaw has whole or partial control of five and minority holdings in three more.

CBS now owns stock in five TV stations, but has interests in companies which have applied for channels for three more.

Lucy Has Hard Time Lighting Up for Santa

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It might have been a Lucille Ball television script, she had so much trouble lighting up Hollywood Blvd last night.

First, two streetcars halted between the floodlights and a platform where Lucy, her husband, Desi Arnaz, and local dignitaries were ceremoniously converting the boulevard into "Santa Claus Lane" for the 26th year.

Then, as Lucy pulled the switch, only the 50 trees on the north side of the street lit up. Those on the south side came alight seconds later when plugged in at a different point.

The Arnazes, their daughter Lucie Desiree and radio star Jack Bailey rode the Santa Claus float down the boulevard. Other Hollywood entertainment figures will make the trip nightly until Christmas.

Tallulah Bankhead to Play in Ibsen's 'Hedda Gabler'

By EVE STARR

HOLLYWOOD — Red Skelton has cleaned house. He's fired and hired four writers and plans to regain a great deal of his lost popularity touring the coast with one-night shows.

EVE STARR

Television City celebrated its first anniversary recently . . . Bob Cummings ("My Hero") has started work on the new Warner musical, "Lucky Me," before he shoots the bankroll on a new video show in the spring . . . From New York comes the good word that "Hedda Gabler," the Ibsen classic, will be televised on the "U. S. Steel Hour" late this year.

Tallulah Bankhead plays "Hedda," her first full-length dramatic role on TV . . . Didja know: that you will see your first colorcast on a 14-inch screen!

The plunging neckline on TV is a thing of the past — now it's the plunging waistline . . . Comedian Ed Wynn's famous floppy shoes are willed to the Smithsonian Institute. . . and Ed celebrated his birthday and 51 years in show recently.

"Humility" and "Dear Mr. Godfrey" are new records being played by deejays around the country . . . Phyllis Avery ("Meet Mr. McNutley") and Dick Powell ("Four Star Playhouse") both have the same birthday in November.

Martha Raye tells the glamorous Gabors that when a bunch of girls get togethr, the Lord pity the first one who leaves.

Musicomedy star Nanette Fabray, introduced by commentator Ben Grauer, cavorted about the telestage in rare form, during the first color telecast.

To highlight the showing and to commemorate the occasion — for the first time on any telescreen a technicolored film was transmitted from New York across the continent.

Cinematown's Frank Capra and Jerry Wald added their applause to that of telactors Red Skelton, Tony Martin, Barbara Britten and Dennis Day.

If color was the star of NBC's spectacle General David Sarnoff was its proud impressario. Aked if the current status of telecolor had been developed sufficiently to be considered perfect, the general replied:

"We make obsolete on Tuesday that which we have completed on Monday.

"This is part of the price we must pay for progress. Everything," he emphasized — wryly, "Everything, in the miracle world of today, continues to improve — but man!"

Army-Navy, ND-USC Hold Grid Spotlight

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time this season, a couple of so-so Eastern teams will hog the spotlight today as the college football season breathes its last.

Army and Navy take the center of the stage for their annual game in Philadelphia and a capacity crowd of 102,000 is expected to crowd into Municipal Stadium. This will be the National Collegiate Athletic Association's television game of the week and untold millions will watch it on their screens.

Notre Dame, which lost its top spot in the country last week when it played a 14-14 tie with Iowa, will try to regain some of its prestige at the expense of Southern California.

At least one bowl nominee may be known at the end of the day's hostilities. Rice and Baylor have a Southwest Conference date at Houston and the game is replete with intriguing possibilities.

Texas, which has finished its season, can do no worse than tie for the title. But the Longhorns no doubt will spend the day rooting for Baylor. If the Bruins win, they'll be tied with Texas for the title, but they dropped a 21-20 decision to the Longhorns. That probably would give the Cotton Bowl spot to Texas.

If Rice wins, however, the Owls should get the bid because they whipped Texas 18-13 a month ago.

Army has been installed a slight favorite in this its 54th battle with Navy.

As for Notre Dame, the Irish will be playing with their coach, Frank Leahy resting at his Long Beach, Ind., home. His physician, Dr. Nicholas G. Johns, said Leahy "simply has not recovered" from the severe stomach cramps he suffered during the Georgia Tech game a month ago.

Leahy's assistants, Joe McArdle and Bill Earley, will direct the team in his absence. The Irish have been installed as two-touchdown favorites over the Trojans. The Southwestern Conference title—and a probable trip to one of the bowls—will be decided in two games in Dixie. Mississippi can win if it beats Mississippi State. But if underdog State wins, the conference victor will be decided by the result of the Alabama - Auburn game at Birmingham. Both schools are reported under consideration for both the Cotton Bowl, and Gator Bowl.

Georgia Tech, which will play in the sugar bowl, concludes its regular season operation against Georgia.

At Norman, Okla., Oklahoma takes on the Oklahoma Aggies in its final tuneup before its Orange Bowl date with Maryland. The Sooners are two-touchdown favorites.

ACTION IN RING — Dave Gallardo dumps Lulu Perez through the ropes for the 2nd time in the 4th round of their 10-rounder in Madison Square Garden Friday night, as referee Al Berl (hands at left) rushes in to nudge him into a neutral corner. Gallardo, of Las Angeles, a 17-5 underdog, went on to win the unanimous decision.

Chartered Plane Will Take 65 in Official Party

Munn's Team to Head West for Rose Bowl Test on Dec. 16

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State football team will fly directly to California Dec. 16 with no stop-overs en route, the college announced today.

Previously, there were tentative plans for a layover in Arizona to allow a few workouts there for the Rose Bowl bound Spartans.

A charted plane will take the 65-man official party from Lansing to Burbank, Calif., location of the nearest large airport to Pasadena.

Included in the party will be 44 players, coaches, managers, team physician, trainer, publicity director, director of athletics, business manager and others directly connected with the team.

The team will make its headquarters at Pasadena's Huntington Hotel and practice sessions will be staged at Burbank Park.

Five of the 16 practice sessions allowed will be staged indoors at East Lansing and the other 11 will be held in California.

Home practice dates will be Dec. 10, 11, 12, 14 and 15.

There will be no practice Dec. 17, first full day in Pasadena. The afternoon will be devoted to a session for press photographers.

California practice dates will be Dec. 18, 19, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 28, 29, 30 and 31.

Home practice sessions will be held in MSC's Jenison Fieldhouse.

Basketball bleachers will be removed to make some room for the football squad but the team will still have to share the ground space with the basketball team, which will be working out on the removable floor.

Coach Biggie Munn said the team planned to wear its dark green jerseys with white numerals, green helmets and white pants for the game. UCLA is expected to wear light jerseys and dark pants to provide television contrast.

Eighth Title in Sight

Browns Can Wrap It Up Against Hapless Cards

NEW YORK (AP) — Rampaging Cleveland Browns, with a victory streak of nine games, can wrap up their eighth straight National Football League divisional championship tomorrow.

And the man who thinks they can't lick the Chicago Cardinals would be the object of quizzical looks, indeed, if he spoke out. The hopeless Cards have exactly one tie to show for their season's work, along with eight loses.

Otto Graham and Co. have licked the Cards seven times in a row, and this is no time to stop.

Philadelphia Eagles, with a winning streak of six games, are in the unfortunate position of being the second best team in the Eastern Conference behind the Browns. They play the New York Giants, a good defensive outfit. But the Eagles have perhaps the most crushing offense in the league and most observers think they'll win much as they please.

Another Eastern Division game puts the Washington Redskins against Pittsburgh Steelers. Steelers' failure to compile a better than 4-5 record has been one of the mysteries of the loop. They still are strong on paper, but with Jim Finks injured, they'll be badly handicapped.

Detroit Lions' 34-15 victory over Green Bay Thanksgiving Day all but cemented the Western Division title for them. Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers still are in the running, but time is running out on them.

Rams play the Chicago Bears in Chicago while the 49ers tackle Baltimore Colts. Both Rams and 49ers will be heavily favored.

Gallardo Beats Perez, Laughs at 'Wise Guys'

Coast Fighter Given Unanimous Decision in Garden TV Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—Davey Gallardo had a win over Lulu Perez, a Jan. 1 date with the same fighter, and a laugh over the "Broadway wise guys" today.

The scrappy, 23-year old Los Angeles featherweight set up the package last night by swarming all over the 20-year old Brooklynite to score an upset, unanimous ten-round decision in Madison Square Garden.

As a result of the form reversal, the two will meet in a rubber match in the Garden New Year's night. The winner will get a garden crack at Willie Pep, the former featherweight champion, in mid-February.

Perez was a 17-to-5 choice to repeat his Sept. 4 triumph over the crewcut Californian and rack up his 24th straight victory. Instead he suffered his first loss in 25 months, the second defeat of his career against 33 wins, and showed he had plenty to learn. He was dropped twice for mandatory eight counts in the fourth round.

"He outroughed me," said the downcast Perez. "I just couldn't get going against him."

"It went the way we figured," said Gallardo. "I knew from the first fight that I'd have to keep on top of him."

Gallardo, at 129½ pounds—three more than he weighed for the last fight — was much stronger this time. Perez weighed 126.

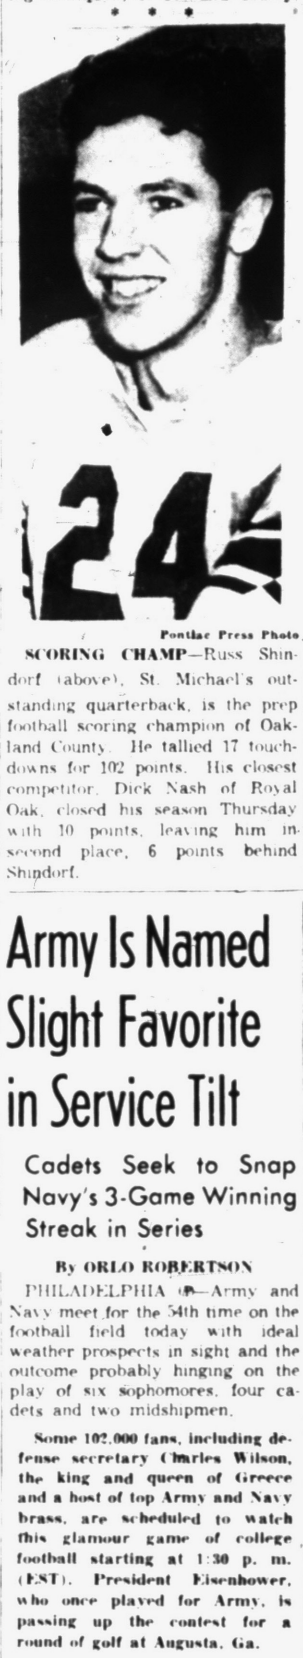

The three officials voted for Gallardo this way: Judge Jack Gordon, 8-2, Judge Arthur Susskind, 6-4, and Referee Al Berl, 5-4-1. The AP scorecard had Gallardo in front, 8-2.

The nationally telecast and broadcast fight drew only 3,378 fans.

Shamrocks' Shindorf Wins County Pep Scoring Title

Russ Shindorf, senior quarterback from St. Michael's of Pontiac, reigns as the 1953 prep scoring champion, of Oakland County.

SCORING CHAMP—Russ Shindorf (above), St. Michael's outstanding quarterback, is the prep football scoring champion of Oakland County. He tallied 17 touchdowns for 102 points. His closest competitor, Dick Nash of Royal Oak, closed his season Thursday with 10 points, leaving him in second place, 6 points behind Shindorf.

Shindorf, who closed his season two weeks ago, has been "sweating out" the progress of Royal Oak's great fullback Dick Nash.

Nash finished Thursday and scored 10 points in the Acorns' 28-0 victory over Birmingham, but his 96-point total left him six points shy of Shindorf.

Shindorf's 102 points equals the winning total of last year. Rochester's Class B all-state halfback, Ed Church, tallied 17 touchdowns last fall.

Third place, behind Nash, went to Avondale's Marv Evans with 90 points, while Nash's Royal Oak running mate, Jack Drawbaugh, also scored one touchdown Thursday to finish 5th, just back of Joe Ruhlman of Ferndale St. James.

The final leaders:

Deer Season Near End

Michigan's regular deer hunting season comes to an end Monday evening. No entries will be accepted after 12 o'clock Friday, Dec. 4.

St. Fred Quint Opens 1953-54 Season Sunday

Plays Host to St. Rose of Detroit in Area's First Cage Game

By BILL MARTIN

An "early-bird" St. Frederick team opens the 1953 prep basketball season in the Pontiac area Sunday night, when the Rams entertain Detroit St. Rose in a non-conference curtain-raiser.

Varsity game at 8:15 p.m. in St. Vincent de Paul Hall, will be preceded by a reserve contest at 7 o'clock.

Small, fast teams have become a trademark at St. Frederick in the past few years, but Rams this season will boast one of the tallest squads in the area. Every man on the Rams' starting lineup stands 6 feet or better.

Coach Charles Talbot will start Capt. Roger Nosek (6 feet) and Lionel Bradley (6 feet 2) at forwards, Tom Monroe (6 feet 1) at center, and Dick Doyan (6 feet 1) and Don Picmann (6 feet) at guards. Nosek, a senior, and Bradley, a junior, are the only returning lettermen from the team that posted a 6-11 mark last season. Monroe, Doyan and Picmann are sophomores.

A third letterman, senior Ted Reaver, isn't expected to play this year. A halfback in football, Reaver underwent an operation to have a blood clot removed from one leg and probably won't be available this winter.

Rams' complete schedule:

Nov. 29—St. Rose, Dec. 7—at St. Mary (RO), Dec. 11—at Benedict, Jan. 5—St. James, Jan. 8—St. Michael at PHS, Jan. 12—St. Mary (OL), Jan. 19—St. Rita, Jan. 22—St. Mary (RO), Jan. 26—St. Benedict, Jan. 29—at St. James, Feb. 2—St. Michael, Feb. 5—at St. Mary (OL), Feb. 12—at St. Rita.

AAU Seeks to Strengthen U.S. Position in Olympics

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's amateur sportsmen, convinced that this nation's youth is physically equal to Russia's young men, moved today to develop wrestlers and gymnasts capable of besting the Soviet Union in the 1956 Olympics.

Fifth annual convention of the Amateur Athletic Union was expected to endorse committee recommendations aimed at strengthening the U.S. position in the Olympics.

AAU delegates also rejected a proposal to allow certain professionals to regain amateur status.

Under the beaten-down proposal, professionals would have been permitted to become amateurs after a five-year probationary period, but not in the sport in which they were professionals.

Decision to stir up American interest in wrestling was announced by Joe Scalzo, coach of the University of Toledo wrestling team and an AAU vice-chairman.

He said that the United States unofficially defeated Russia in the 1952 Olympics by a mere two points and that the Soviets outscored this nation by 55 point in wrestling alone.

The American gymnastics rules are being completely rewritten in accordance with Olympics practices.

Irish Favored Without Leahy

Physician Advises ND Coach to Pass Up Game Against Trojans

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The famed Notre Dame-University of Southern California football rivalry reaches the silver anniversary stage today but the main mementoes the celebrants will take away will be aches and bruises.

The two collide at 1:30 p.m. (4:30 p.m. EST) and upward of 90,000 fans will cram into Memorial Coliseum for the activities.

Three personalities, neither of whom will participate in the game may play prominent roles. Missing for Notre Dame will be their coach, Frank Leahy. He remained at home in Indiana on his physician's advice.

Trojans may be without the services of two backfield regulars, quarterback George Bozanic, their field general and all-round star, and fullback Harold Han.

There was no question about who was favored. Notre Dame is picked by 13 points or more to down the Coast team.

Caroline, Giel Share Big 10's Offense Honors

CHICAGO (AP)—Four Big Ten records were broken and another matched as Illinois' J. C. Caroline and Minnesota's Paul Giel split honors in official conference football statistics released today.

Sophomore Caroline's rushing record of 919 yards in six conference games was certified as well as Giel's workhorse records.

Giel set a new one-game mark of 53 individual plays—35 rushes and 18 passes—and a season record of 163 rushes.

Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, OSU sophomore, set another record with 14 kickoff runbacks for a total of 328 yards and a 23.4 average.

Illinois' other sophomore halfback Mickey Bates, matched a modern conference record of four touchdowns in one game, against Ohio State.

Giel for the second time in three years won total offense honors with 580 yards rushing and 457 passing for 1037.

Team honors were divided by co-champions Illinois and Michigan State, Illini, led in total offense.

It's Time Out!

"You're a little late, folks, but we still have two seats in the end zone!"

Ex-Pontiac Golfer Still Shares Lead

COLUMBIA, S.C. (UP) — Lew Worsham, golfdom's leading money winner of the year, trailed the field today as Ed Furgol and Dick Knight led the way into the 3rd round of the Columbia Open tournament.

Furgol, veteran golfer from St. Louis, (former Pontiac, Mich.), and Knight, an unheralded youngster from Omaha, Neb. each posted 70's in Friday's 2nd round to tie for the lead at 135.

Worsham had 146. Bob Gajda of Detroit posted a 70 for 136. PGA champion Wally Burkemo of Royal Oak, Mich., had 139.

Army Is Named Slight Favorite in Service Tilt

Cadets Seek to Snap Navy's 3-Game Winning Streak in Series

By ORLO ROBERTSON

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Army and Navy meet for the 54th time on the football field today with ideal weather prospects in sight and the outcome probably hinging on the play of six sophomores, four cadets and two midshipmen.

Some 102,000 fans, including defense secretary Charles Wilson, the king and queen of Greece and a host of top Army and Navy brass, are scheduled to watch this glamour game of college football starting at 1:30 p. m. (EST). President Eisenhower, who once played for Army, is passing up the contest for a round of golf at Augusta, Ga.

Experts have made the Army the slight favorite, largely on the basis of the teams' 1953 records, but this is a game where past performance sheets mean little as evidenced by the fact that 26 of the previous clashes have been decided by a touchdown or less.

Navy has won the last three games—and will be out for its fourth straight.

That is where the play of the six sophomores figure strongly. Let one or more of them come through with an inspired performance and that could mean the difference between victory and defeat.

The weatherman forecast ideal football conditions for today's college gridiron classic—the 54th annual Army-Navy game.

After yesterday's day-long rain and snow, prospects looked bad but the weatherman issued this forecast: "Considerable cloudiness with some sunshine, high temperature 42."

Telemeter TV Viewers to See UCS, Irish Tilt

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UP) — Seventy television sets in this desert resort out of an estimated 26,000,000 in the nation will be able to receive today's Southern California-Notre Dame football game on telemeter, the first paid TV in actual use.

Viewers with sets equipped with the coin-operated device which unscrambles pictures telecast in scrambled form over a closed circuit will be able to see the contest by dropping $1 in the slot.

Davey Offered Bout

TOLEDO, O. (AP)—Promoter Sid Goldberg says he is offering welterweight Chuck Davey of Lansing, $10,000 to fight Carmen Basilio in Toledo in December or January or "any time agreeable" to the former Michigan State college fighter's manager.

Ty Cobb Sets Up Educational Fund in South

Foundation Will Help Deserving Youths Get College Degrees

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Ty Cobb, the one-time Detroit baseball great who never went to college, is setting up the Cobb Educational Foundation to help deserving youths of his native Georgia get a college education.

Cobb and Dr. Daniel C. Elkin, an Atlanta surgeon and Emory College professor, announced the fund yesterday. Dr. Elkin, who will serve as chairman of the Foundation's trustees, described the endowment as "considerable" and said it would be increased through the years.

Neither he nor Cobb, however, would give the actual amount being set up.

The foundation will make outright grants to both boys and girls, beginning next fall.

Ronzani Quits Packers

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UP)—Green Bay Packers left for the West Coast today for their final two games of the season but former head coach Gene Ronzani stayed behind after resigning under pressure.

Ronzani turned in his resignation Friday at a special meeting of the Packer executive committee and his three assistants Hugh DeVore, Chuck Drulis, Ray McLean took charge for the final two games against San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Erskine, Parnell Show Big Gains

Good Seasons Boost Hurlers Up on List of Lifetime Marks

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Brooklyn's Carl Erskine and Mel Parnell of the Boston Red Sox, two of major league baseball's 20-game winners last season, moved well up among the lifetime pitching leaders as a result of their fine performances.

Erskine, who finished with a 20-6 record for the Dodgers, shows an overall slate of 71 victories and 34 setbacks (.676) for his six years in the National League. He ranks second to the Giants' Sal Maglie's .699 (72-31), figures compiled by the Associated Press showed today.

Parnell now is second in the American League to the Yankees' Vic Raschi. Mel, with 21 and 8 during the last campaign, has 111 wins and 59 defeats for .653 while Raschi (13-6 last year) shows a gaudy .706, with 120 triumphs and only 50 losses.

Cotton Bowl Visitor May Be Known Before Host 11

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The visiting team in the Cotton Bowl will be named late today and it may be picked before its opponent — the home team — is known.

Because the Southwest Conference has no set formula for deciding which team plays in the Cotton Bowl in the event of a tie for the championship, there has come a turn of events under which the conference may have to be polled.

Baylor, which plays Rice at Houston today with the winner to tie Texas for the conference championship, is expected to ask for a vote should it be that team.

All along, the conference had been operating under the precedent when two teams tie for championship the one that beat the other in regular season play withdraws from Cotton Bowl contention.

But Baylor, pointing out that the only written rule on the question is that a vote can be taken, has hinted that it will demand a vote if it beats Rice although it lost to Texas in regular season play.

Texas has indicated that in the event Rice wins over Baylor, it will step aside since Rice beat it in regular season play.

The guest team will be known shortly after the results of certain football games today are known. Under consideration are Mississippi, Texas Tech, Auburn, Alabama and Kentucky.

Toledo Bout on TV

TOLEDO, O. (UP)—Johnny Cunningham of Baltimore, Md., and Carmen Basillio of Canastota, N. Y., meet tonight in a scheduled 10-round nationally televised welterweight match which may be a stepping stone to a shot at the crown held by Kid Gavilan.

Selections of Rosen, Campanella Show Writers Forgetting 'Home Town Pride'

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The choice of Flip Rosen of the Cleveland Indians as the most valuable player in the American League, as well as that of Roy Campanella for the same honor in the National League demonstrates again that the profession of sports writing finally has reached full maturity in this country.

The fact that 24 baseball writers from eight cities agreed unanimously on Rosen, even if some persuasion might have been employed, proves that sectional lines have at last been abolished and home town pride subordinated to the common effort. Rosen could have been the only completely honest choice.

The trend, we are happy to say, has been obvious in football for several years. With a glaring and faintly ridiculous exception now and then, the experts who vote in the weekly Associated Press poll to rank the country's 10 leading teams study the records and try conscientiously to rate them on merit alone.

In all the hullabaloo over Notre Dame's supposed use of the injured player gag to tie Iowa, did anyone ever point out that the rule as now written can, as well, seriously handicap a coach who honestly wants to get an ailing player out of there?

Say that the offensive coach, in a situation similar to that in which the Irish found themselves, sees that one of his men has hurt a knee and should be replaced. Can he call a halt and shoot a sound player out there? Nope, not without incurring a five-yard penalty.

Johnny Mize Seeks Job; Says Playing Days Over

NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time since he started his major league career almost two decades ago, Johnny Mize, one of the greatest sluggers in baseball, was job-hunting today.

The 40-year-old first baseman of the New York Yankees decided yesterday he had come to the end of the road as a player and asked the Yanks to make him a free agent so he could seek a manager's job at the minor league meetings starting in Atlanta Monday.

Although Mize, who hit 359 home runs since breaking in with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1936, said he would quit after the Yanks won their fifth straight world championship last month, his action came somewhat as a surprise.

Army Has Made Miraculous Recovery in 2 Years; Is Favored Over Navy in Annual Service Contest

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK — Army and Navy today are meeting under unusual conditions. Oddly enough, Navy, under the direction of Eddie Erdelatz, a poor underdog, rose up and smote one of Army's greatest teams hip and thigh, bone and marrow, heads and tails, back and forth.

That was in 1950. In August, 1951, another great Army team was completely dismantled by West Point orders, since almost completely discredited.

Red Blaik, Army's all-star coach, was left without any football players of any great merit. They were game and willing and that's about all.

As we have related before, everyone figured it would take Red Blaik at least five or six years to rebuild Army into a football squad that could meet Navy and other first-class teams on a level, man-to-man basis.

Only two years have passed and Army is ready to meet any team in the country on an even basis. Army beat Duke this fall, one of the strongest teams in the country. Army beat Pennsylvania and on the strongest teams in the country. Army beat Pennsylvania and on that day Red Munger, Penn's coach, rated Army the equal of Notre Dame.

Now Army stands all square with Navy, after only a two-year lapse. The coaching job Red Blaik and his staff have done at West Point has been incredible in such a short time.

* * *

Red has a squad, even with Freddie Attaya, his star, crippled, that is ready for anybody — including Notre Dame or Maryland. Certainly Army might be beaten. But it would be only after a battle.

Now for Erdelatz — Navy's excellent coach. Eddie has won three games in a row from Army — one from a powerful Army squad.

Erdelatz has a good Navy squad — but not a great one.

Trouble at Navy is a scarcity of skillful passers and good running backs. Navy has a competent line but I don't believe its backfield is nearly as good as Army.

Is Spending Billions

Mr. Handyman Excited at Latest Hobby

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

Mr. Do-It-Yourself has become this country's biggest consumer.

The fellow, who with his family and neighbors, has decided to spend his spare hours with the hammer, the paint brush and the T square is giving this nation its number one industry today.

This home-improving chap is spending about two and three-quarter billion dollars per year for lumber and building supplies.

Last year he laid out more than a half-billion for paint and wall paper, and the floor tile and wall tile he installed in his kitchen, his bathroom, basement, laundry and wherenot, cost him more than 100 million dollars.

Astounding, isn't it!

According to statistics collected by the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., this home handyman spent 80 million dollars this past year on workbenches and power tools.

Pinpointing it to your block there is supposed to be a home workshop in every fourth house and from the orders being placed with these industries, it looks as though next year will find even more.

Per household $77.10 per year was spent on home improvement.

Taking a close look at Mr. Handyman, we find that his home is his hobby. He has more money to spend, that is true, but he wants to stretch it by patching a pipe, installing an attic light or building the fireplace himself.

Besides he finds he is enjoying this new productive pastime.

Indications are that this clean-up, paint-up and fix-up mania is spreading faster than the latest song hit.

For instance, paint in the last year was applied by the homeowner himself in 65 per cent of the cases.

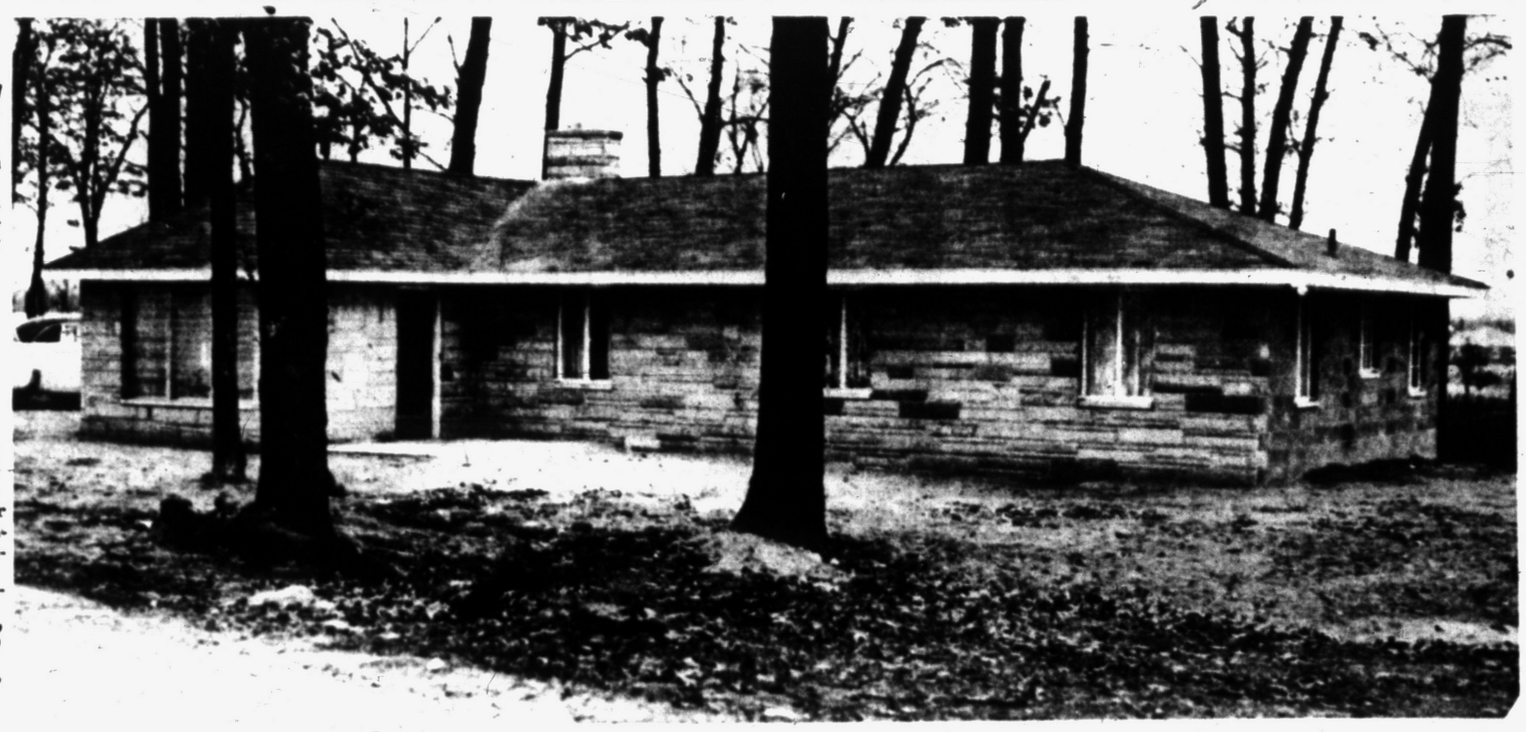

Sixty per cent of the wallpaper was applied by the homeowner. Ten years ago this figure was only 28 per cent.

Last year, 233 million square feet of asphalt floor tile was self-applied and 10 years ago the total production of this industry was only 90 million square feet.

Plywood, the favorite of Mr. Do-It-Yourself, is being used annually up to 250 million square feet.

Every hour of the shopping day, this new army is purchasing a million dollars worth of lumber and building materials and every hour of every shopping day, these customers spend $200,000 for paint and wallpaper.

Cause of this great upsurge in home improvement interest is put at the doorstep of the high-cost-of-labor. Another reason that shares equal responsibilty is the "owner's pride of possession."

A FAMILY PROJECT—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beauchamp and their six children participated in the construction of this all-masonry house at the corner of Grey and Adams Rds., Auburn Heights. A brick mason by trade, Beauchamp had his 18-year-old son, who is working with him as an apprentice, help him on the family home. Exterior of this one-story ranch style house is of Briar Hill stone. The floor plan now includes eight rooms and another three-room unit will be added next spring. This will provide apartment type living quarters for Beauchamp's parents.

Beauchamp Family Builds Home on Wooded Corner

An all-family project, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beauchamp and their six children completed their new home in six and a half-months.

On a wooded lot at the corner of Grey and Adams Roads, the Beauchamp's new home is directly across from the Stone School in the Auburn Heights area. The exterior is of Briar Hill and white stone.

"We had good weather, good materials and plenty of willing hands to help," said "Sparky" Beauchamp who by trade is a brick mason.

A one-story ranch style, the present eight rooms is a complete masonry house. Three more rooms will be added next spring to make a living unit for Beauchamp's parents.

Mrs. Beauchamp learned to handle a hammer and she shingled the roof. An 18-year-old son who is serving as apprentice with his father worked with Beauchamp in the construction process.

The pre-teen members of the family did a lot of the leg work carrying materials and keeping the needed tools handy for the family workmen.

"The only things we did not do ourselves were the jobs requiring experts such as the plumbing and electrical work. Employing people who are experienced in these trades is sound building economy," pointed out Beauchamp.

Ceiling radiant heat is a feature of this family home and a partition of glass block separates the dining room from the kitchen.

Interesting shades of marble were found by Beauchamp in his material search and he made a complete fireplace wall of this stone. The fireplace centering this wall is in soft shades of ledgerock.

Laundry Is Area Most Neglected

More Than Half Housed in Basement, Needs Modernization

The space most in need of improvement in the average home is the laundry.

More than half of all homemakers have their laundry equipment in the basement and more than 95 per cent do a family wash once a week or more often, studies show. Not only is this area usually drab but it often lacks ordinary working conveniences.

Whenever possible, the laundry area should be partitioned from the rest of the basement. Ninety to 100 square feet is sufficient, and necessary enclosure can usually be put up by the home owner himself.

Since steam and moisture are a necessary part of wash day, laundry room wall areas should be finished with a material such as tile, which is waterproof. The use of tile in a blue or medium green shade will make the room seem cooler in summertime.

A cupboard at least three feet long is needed for washday supplies. It should be hung at a convenient height, so that the homemaker can get to washing powders, starch and bleaches easily.

Use Synthetic Acid in Paint Products

The word "alkyd" appears often these days in connection with paint products.

Alkyds are made by replacing part of the natural fatty acid of linseed oil with a synthetic one—phthalic acid. Replacement ranges up to 50 per cent of the acid. The alkyds have an advantage over linseed oil as a paint ingredient in several respects.

They dry faster, give a tougher and more water-resistant film. At first they were used mostly for outside work. In recent years, however, manufacturers have been using them more and more in the formulation of indoor coatings.

Spread Paint Evenly

Whether you use a roller or brush for your wall and ceiling painting, spread your paint on evenly. Start each stroke where the surface is dry and work into wet areas.

MARBLE FIREPLACE WALL—Mr. Beauchamp selected many different shades of marble for the wall surrounding his ledgerock fireplace. Adjacent to the marble wall is a glass block partition which separates the dining room area from the kitchen. By omitting several bricks, it has provided shelves for the display of plants or figurines.

Wrought Iron Gift Items Get Big Play This Year

NEW YORK (INS)—Wrought iron household items are providing the best gadget buys for the early Christmas shopper.

A check of top New York giftware distributors shows that 1953's most stylish accessory materials—wrought iron, brass and basketry—are available on Christmas gift counters in the $1 to $10 bracket.

You can get wrought iron itself for as little as $1. That will buy sleek cigarette cups, letter racks, ashtrays.

For around $5, you'll have a wide choice of serving dishes and platters, mostly graceful baskets on black wrought iron rims.

The same price will also buy a stylish brass "chicken" basket of brass-finished wire in the shape of a perky hen. This holds fruit, eggs or bread.

One of the smartest and most-wanted household items is also very cheap: TV stools at around $8 in fashionable wrought iron with foam rubber. No plastic upholstery, either, but tweedy fabrics in black or white.

A magazine rack is always a standby gift, but this year you can buy a novel hang-up version for $9. It's a "lip" of basketwork suspended on a wrought iron triangle.

The selection is biggest in the $10 price range—casseroles, carafes, pitchers, bowls, smoking sets, candle-holders and even picture frames in a variety of materials—wrought iron with pyrex, brass with raffia, white pottery with wrought iron, brass and iron, basketry and brass.

Now Is Time to Check for Damage to Trees

Now that leaves are fallen, inspect shade trees carefully for broken, weak branches. Remove them with a clean cut, flush with the trunk or branch.

Anything larger than a half-inch wound should be covered with lead or asphalt paint to discourage infection and promote healing

Boy's Dad Builds House in Backyard From Scraps

A discarded machinery shipping box, a few scraps of lumber and a bag of nails and John Riley Jr., of 47 Illinois, has a new clubhouse.

When the young lad asked for a place to hold neighborhood club meetings, without using the house, his father conceived the idea of a clubhouse in the backyard.

From six to eight youngsters can meet in this seven-foot long by 44-inch wide building. A desk and folding chairs are standard equipment.

Thinking of all the safety measures which should be included in such a clubhouse, John Riley hinged the entire front section of the house so in case of emergency, the complete front could be pushed open.

The hazard of glass windows he dispelled with the use of plastic windows. They admit the maximum of light and keep out the cold.

Measuring four feet at its peak, Riley listed the following building materials for the clubhouse:

Discarded machinery shipping box.

Plastic windows purchased in sheets.

Laminated masonite roofboards (leftovers from a closet job.

Roll of roofing paper.

Nails, hinges.

Paint leftovers applied by John Jr. and his sister.

"It has provided a popular spot for the kids of the neighborhood. They feel it is their own and although they play as all kids do, there is no destruction. It has been a wonderful asset in having them play where you can keep an eye on them," said Riley.

JOHN RILEY JR.'s CLUBHOUSE—Stepping from the door of his new clubhouse is young John Riley whose father constructed this recreational facility from an old discarded machinery packing case. By hinging the entire front section of this clubhouse, in event of any emergency the complete side of the structure can be thrown open. Plastic windows relieve the glass hazard. Painted a gray with red trim, John Jr., with the aid of his young sister, did the painting.

MODERN DOG HOUSE—Terry and Danny, dogs belonging to Mr. and Mrs. H. Vernon Harcourt are happy to be in the "doghouse." A modern design with two-foot overhang around the roof, this structure gives a warm abode for the winter months and a shady and cool spot for the dogs during the summer "dog days." Harcourt figured he saved about $75 by constructing this doghouse himself. A bolted concrete foundation allows the dogs to use the slightly slanted roof for sunning themselves without fear of tipping over.

* * * * *

Costs $18.75 Instead of $100

Modern Styled Doghouse Is Do-It-Yourself Project

A contemporary designed doghouse is the latest do-it-yourself project of H. Vernon Harcourt of 491 Jordan Rd.

Harcourt saved about $75 by constructing his own doghouse and the result is a six-by-eight-foot house with slightly slanted roof and a two-foot-wide overhang all around.

Purpose of the wide overhang, said Harcourt, is for shade in the summertime for his two dogs, Terry and Danny.

Beginning with a bolted down concrete base, he provided a firm foundation so that the dogs could rest on the roof in the sunshine.

Interior of the doghouse measures three by four feet and there are two windows facing east. Prevailing winds, said Harcourt are from the back of the dog house.

Two small windows are placed in the rear to allow summertime ventilation.

Using what scrap lumber he had left from other projects, Harcourt said his siding cost $14, his shingles, $3 and nails and other hardware about $1.75.

Totaling $18.75, he said this job estimated by builders would have been between $75 and $100.

Remove Carvings for Modernization

Ornate raised carvings which cover the frames of old chests or tables can be removed to make the furniture look more modern.

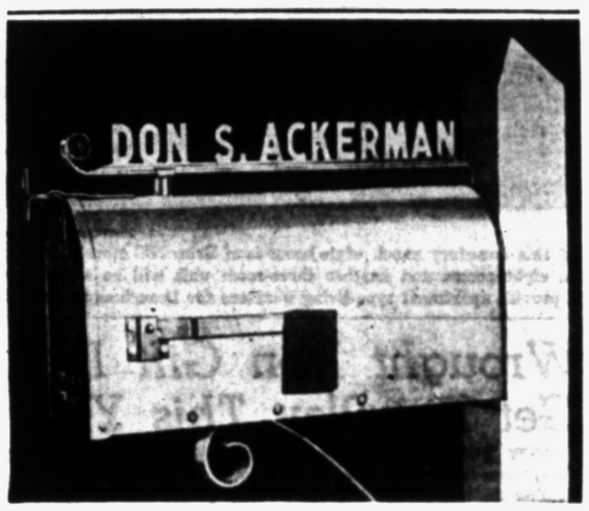

Usually carvings of this kind are glued to the furniture and are not a basic part of it. Keep the carvings covered for several hours with wet cloths to soften the glue.

Using a very sharp chisel, carefully pry the carvings off. Go at the work gently; otherwise, if the glue is strong, you may pull chips of wood off the face of the chest or table.

Public Housing Stand Defended

Official Reports U. S. in Sympathy With Low Rent View

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Federal Housing Administrator Albert H. Cole says that public housing programs "must spring from the needs and wishes of the local people, backed by determined action by the community itself.

"They cannot be planned enacted and handed down to the localities by the federal government," Cole declared. "Federal help can be justified only by communities that need it and want it and are prepared to demonstrate to the government and the Congress that it is essential."

Cole, in a recent address to the 20th annual convention of the National Association of Housing Officials, defended President Eisenhower's advisory committee on housing against charges that it is "heavily weighted" with opponents of low-rent dwellings.

He warned that a public housing program "will never enjoy strong public support if it rests on mere willingness of cities to accept their share of federal largesse if it is offered."

Cole said the committee's subcommittee on housing for low-income families is "definitely in sympathy—as I am myself—with an effective program of low rent housing for low-income families.

HOME MADE ALUMINUM STORMS—Simple aluminum strips that can easily be cut and made into rigid storm window frames are illustrated above.

Can Work New Aluminum With Wood-Turning Tools

Ordinarily aluminum, being a metal, is treated like one. To work with it craftsmen employ metal-working tools. For although aluminum is "soft" — compared to steel — wood chisels, planes and saws are no match for it.

A new development has changed that. Now there is a so-called "do-it-yourself aluminum" that can be worked with ordinary wood-working tools to the advantage of both the work and the tools, and the detriment of neither, according to the manufacturer.

Not the least of the many home-workshop projects for which the newly introduced material was designed is the making of storm windows. And this is a right proper time of year to be thinking of storm sash, too.

There are only 15 steps involved in making the new aluminum storm windows. They are simple steps, and easy to follow even for the least handy home owner.

Novel extruded aluminum storm-window frame strips are among 36 different "do-it-yourself aluminum" mill products introduced by the manufacturer. The frame strips, glass, aluminum screws or rivets, and friction or plastic tape are all that are needed to make the windows.

The only outdoor work required is the measuring of window frames before the work begins and the hanging of windows when completed. The aluminum can be painted, lacquered or finished in a variety of ways.

Each window-frame strip is a single length of aluminum having a "U" channel and an offset "leg." The strip is first cut into pieces that form the top, bottom and sides of the frame. The "leg" portion of each piece is then cut to overlap at corners of the frame. The extent that the leg is offset from the channel allows for the overlap, making it possible to keep channels in line all around the frame. The channel portion of each piece is mitered for 45-degree corner points.

Next, the edges of the glass are taped, for a tight fit, when the glass is slipped into the channels. Putty or glazing compounds are not necessary. After the glass is installed the frame becomes a unit when screws or rivets are driven through the overlapped "legs" at the corners.

The simplest method of mounting the windows is outside the existing window casing. The manufacturer suggests several alternate methods, including an inside-the-casing installation for double-hinged windows. All directions are given with purchased materials at hardware dealers, lumber yards and other building-material outlets.

Storm windows six square feet or more in area should be divided into more than one panel, depending upon their size. Cross members can easily be made of the same material used on the rest of the frame.

The field for storm windows that can be custom-built at home appears to be wide open. In view of the relatively high cost of manufactured storm sash, you can be sure you haven't heard the last of "make-them-yourself" storm windows.

Liquid Masking Tape Handy on Paint Job

A liquid masking tape is now available which is a great aid for home-painters. You can use it to protect the glass in windows you don't want to paint. Applied with a brush, it hardens to a protective film. When you have finished with your painting, you can strip it off like cellophane tape.

Some Masonry Blocks May Admit Moisture

Cored masonry blocks which are not water-proofed are frequently used for building materials or for foundation materials.

Moisture often permeates these blocks completely and is transmitted to other parts of the building either in vapor or liquid form. Construction of this type can be considered as a potential source of excessive and destructive water vapor if it is not properly water-proofed.

Many paint dealers carry the new paper drop cloths which are so convenient when you're painting ceilings, walls or woodwork.

Easier Access to Loans Asked

Lumber Official Wants to Help Home Buyers in Outlying Areas

The FHA should adopt one of two methods for making more certain that insured mortgage loans will be available to prospective home buyers in outlying sections of the country, according to a statement by Henry J. Munnerlyn, president of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

"Either there should be a differential in interest rates or additional origination and servicing fees should be permitted in order to attract investors to those areas where funds often are not available under the present system," Munnerlyn said.

"This problem has been particularly acute during recent months in the South, Southwest, and western states, but at times when mortgage money is relatively scarce, difficulty in financing insured loans has been experienced in non-metropolitan areas in other parts of the country as well.

"The benefits of FHA insurance should be made equally available to home buyers everywhere and that can happen only when geographical factors affecting the local supply of mortgage funds are recognized and provided for in FHA's regulations.

"When mortgage money becomes scarce, lenders tend to confine their loans to communities where the cost of arranging and servicing loans is the lowest, because that is the most convenient and profitable way for them to operate. However, allowance for geographical factors will help to make funds available everywhere on an equal basis.

"The areas in question account for at least one-third of all new homes built annually and thus represent a large segment of the total housing market."

Plants which retain their leaves all winter do better with a light mulch — evergreen branches, salt hay, straw—than a heavy one like peat moss.

ST. BENEDICT EXPANDS—A $350,000 building program is under way in the St. Benedict Catholic Church parish, W. Huron and S. Lynn Sts., Waterford Township. Zimmerman of Pontiac drew the plans for the development program, which will include a 12-classroom school. The convent of the parish buildings will be a two-story structure with the main floor to have two offices, a community room, chapel, toilets and washrooms. On the second floor will be 10 bedrooms, toilets and baths for the staff of the church school.

General contractor for the edifice is Schurrer Construction Co. of Pontiac. Parish priest of St. Benedict is the Rev. Richard W. Thomas. The upper picture shows the modern school that has been planned to allow for future additions and the picture below shows the convent as it will look when completed. School opening is planned for next September.

Clean Woodwork of Grease, Wax Before Painting

Before re-finishing old woodwork which has previously been painted, it needs to be thoroughly cleaned of all dirt, grease and wax.

A strong soap and water solution—or any of the products especially designed for the purpose—will remove normal dirt and grease. Wax can be removed with turpentine, mineral spirits or a special wax-removing product.

If the woodwork is to be given a coat of color, gloss or semi-gloss enamel will probably be your selection. Or, one of the new latex paints which dries with either a dull or slightly glossy appearance.

The material with the greatest gloss is usually employed only in the areas which require the most frequent washing.

In kitchens, bathrooms and children's rooms, for instance. The products with the duller surfaces are generally preferred for the trim in living, dining and sleeping rooms of a household.

Area to Enforce Builders' Law

No Residential Permits to Contractors Without Licenses After Jan. 1

On and after January 1, 1954, no building or heating permits will be issued by the building departments in the City of Pontiac or Waterford Township to an unlicensed contractor.

John E. Ryan, Pontiac's building inspector, and Lloyd Anderson, Waterford Township supervisor, said today that it is a new residential contractors licensing law.

It is effective in Oakland and Wayne counties on October 4, 1953, but with proper public notice will be strictly enforced after the first of the new year.

Purpose of the law is to protect the home owners and future or prospective homeowners in their contractural relations with the building industry.

"This law," said Ryan, "gives the public protection where the Building Codes leave off."

The law does not apply to owners doing work on their own property for their own use, however.

Similar to the old contractors licensing law that was declared unconstitutional last March 10 because it legislated in favor of banks and saving and loan companies, this new law covers the following trades: General contractors, all persons contracting to practice carpentry, concrete work, electrical work, excavation and sewer installations, floor laying heating and air-conditioning.

Also covered under this law are those contracting for insulation work lathing masonry work, painting and decorating, plastering, plumbing work, roofing and siding, screens and storm sash operations, sheet metal work, tile and marble work, house moving and wrecking and raising operations.

Both Ryan and Anderson urged that any contractors not now licensed, make immediate application.

Lower Michigan Building Projects Up 13 Per Cent

DETROIT — Following the lead set by the 37 states east of the Rockies, 10-month totals of construction contract awards for southern Michigan were up 13 per cent over 1952, it was reported today by Marvin J. Brokaw, district manager of F. W. Dodge Corporation, construction news and marketing specialists. The 37 states total was up 5 per cent. The figure for this area was $725,380,000.

Individual 10-month totals were: nonresidential, $294,434,000 up 12 per cent; residential, $313,165,000, up 12 per cent; heavy engineering, $117,781,000, up 20 per cent.

October awards of $87,161,000 were 7 per cent above September and 2 per cent above October 1952.

Thick Suds Protect Against Paint Splashes

Next time you paint a room coat the doorknobs, hinges and locks with thick soapsuds.

If paint splashes land on these spots they will disappear when you wipe off the suds.

Luminous Paints Find Many Uses for Homes

Luminous paints — the types of coatings that glow and give off light — are available in two varieties.

The fluorescent type glows only during the time it is being activated by artificial illumination and is generally used under ultraviolet—or black—light. The phosphorescent type continues to glow for several hours after the sunlight or activating artificial light is gone.

There are many household and industrial uses for these paints.

Protect Evergreens

Evergreen in exposed places should be protected from sun and windburn. Boards or burlap screens do very nicely.

The problem is that when the ground is frozen solid, roots are unable to find water to replace moisture burned off the tops.

HANGING RACKS—These hanging racks require little space. They will even go on the back of a door or the inside of a cupboard or closet. They hold magazines and papers of all sizes, and are good for paper bags in the kitchen.

If they are to be used in a prominent place they should be made of solid stock that takes a high finish. Make them of pine, maple or walnut and you will be proud to use them in any room.

The actual-size cutting guides may be traced or pasted onto the wood for sawing. Pattern 206 is 25 cents and will be mailed the day order is received. Write to Workshop, Pontiac Press.

Builders Predict Easier Credit

See Banner Year Ahead as 'Mortgage Drought' Shows Sign of Easing

WASHINGTON (INS) — The home building industry apparently has weathered one of its most serious economic storms of the postwar years — the nationwide shortage of mortgage financing.

Clear skies in the form of another banner housing year are in sight on the basis of recent industry and government studies and the latest report of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Most housing experts now agree that an increasing supply of loan money from banks and other leaders will be available to home builders and buyers in the immediate future.

Over the coming months, this will mean easier credit for buyers and high production for the industry. Ample money supplies also will stimulate plans to rid the nation of substandard housing.

It was the shortage of mortgage money which seriously retared housing output this spring and summer causing grave concern within the industry over possibilities of a recession.

The BLS October housing report provides the first concrete evidence that the storm is ending and that 1954 stacks up as another million-unit year.

BLS reports that builders started 88,000 new homes and apartments last month. Actually this represented a four per cent drop below the 92,000 dwellings recorded for September.

But the significant point is that housing output did not sustain a greater decline since production normally is curtailed with the advent of cold weather.

And for the first time since July, the report notes that the nation is producing more than a million homes on an annual basis. This was due to good weather, settlem was due to good weather, settlement of work stoppages "and some easing of uncertanties regarding mortgage funds."

Moreover, the Veterans Administration asserts that "the supply of GI loan money appears to be easing substantially." VA loan chief T. B. King comments:

"We do not expect another housing boom like 1950, but we do definitely expect that veterans in most areas will find it easier to get GI loans."

Meanwhile, BLS and the Commerce Department have predicted production of about one million new homes next year as compared with 1,100,000 forecast for 1953.

Varnish on Clothes? Remove It This Way

If you splash varnish on your clothes you might be able to remove the stain by following this method:

Saturate material with turpentine and rub with hands. Then sponge the fabric with alcohol or chloroform.

Owning Fine Glassware Is an Exciting Adventure

If you know how to recognize fine glass, and what to look for, you'll find buying glassware an exciting adventure.

By observing a few simple rules, you can be sure your selections are a worthwhile investment, and will pay off with years and years of beauty and service.

Fine American handmade glassware is transparent, lustrous, and free from distorting imperfections.

It shows sparkling clear against a white background while inferior glass may have a greenish or bluish tinge.

Good quality glass also has a permanent polish or luster which results from repeated fire polishings.

Rap the bowl of a piece of stemware with your fingers. If it is a fine hand-blown glass, it rings with clear musical tone.

The best of blown glassware contains lead for clarity and purity. Another name for lead glass is flint glass.

Good quality pressed glass—such large pieces as plates, candelabra, bowls — contains lime, to give it toughness and strength Therefore, when you tap it, its tone is muffled, not resonant.

Home economists at leading colleges have pointed out that it is well to have at least two sets of glassware — a rather plain substantial glassware to use every day, and a more dainty, luxurious pattern for formal entertaining.

A charming, practical choice for for every-day use is the quaint Colonial milk glass which reproduces prized Early American designs. It is turned out in the same designs, and in some instances, from the same molds used by American craftsmen for more than three centuries.

Colored glassware should show an even tint when you hold it up to daylight or electric light.

The darker colored glass, such as emerald amethyst, ruby, should show a deep glow and sparkle like gems when held up to the light.

Look for smooth edges. Glassware edges should be even, never rough or scratchy. In hand-cut crystal, the design should be sharp and accurate. If etched, each tiny detail should be distinct and clearly defined.

When you choose stemware, look for a firm joining of base and stem, and of bowl and stem.

Clear crystal is most appropriate for formal occasions.

Colored glassware is lovely, decorative and interesting; it may be used on breakfast and luncheon tables, and at the close of a dinner, color may be added by using a colored glass finger bowl on a crystal plate.

The many new textured, crinkled, and crackled tumblers in their many colors go well with casual buffet or other indoor-out-doors dining so popular today.

Glassware should be lived with every day. Use it and enjoy its beauty. It represents a miracle of creating delicate beauty from the materials of the earth.

Breakfast Nook Can Be Paneled

Treatment in Plywood Can Be Accomplished at Moderate Cost

Homeowners are discovering that they can add charm and interest to their kitchens by covering the walls of the breakfast nook or alcove with sheets of the new plywood.

Best part about it is that this face-lifting can be carried out by the homeowner himself at reasonable cost.

The material is applied right over existing wall surfaces with small-headed finishing nails driven through the plywood sheets into the wall studs.

The ripplewood can be left in its natural wood finish or painted or stained to match the nearby kitchen cabinets, but much more interesting effects can be obtained if it is painted a bright, cheerful harmonious color to contrast with the rest of the kitchen.

This wall treatment is especially advised by interior designers in the case of kitchen breakfast alcoves in old homes. The plywood panels eliminate the unsightliness of plaster cracks and bring that portion of the kitchen in line with the present trend toward a textured appearance of interior decoration. The raised grain of ripplewood creates an interesting three-dimensional effect.

But the plywood paneling is not limited to old homes. Most of the post-war houses have been planned and built with space in one corner of the kitchen set aside for a breakfast area.

Without some sort of special treatment, however, this space is simply part of the kitchen and lacks the character it deserves. But when ripplewood panels are applied to the two walls in the corner, this immediately creates an effect of separating the breakfast area from the rest of the room.

Make sure climbing roses, vines and cane fruit stems are secured fast for winter weather. All may be injured seriously by being lashed by winter winds.

Clarkston Village Located in Heart of 4-Lake Area

Clarkston is located 10 miles northwest of Pontiac, in Independence Township, on State Highway M15 and one mile off Dixie Highway with which it has two paved connections.

That area was first settled in 1830 when Linus Jacox built the first house within the present village limits.

In 1832 Butler Holcomb built a dam across the east fork of the Clinton River, which furnished water power to drive saw and grist mills for over a century.

The Clark Brothers, Nelson and Milton, came to the settlement in 1842, and platted the community, which was named in their honor. William and John Axford had opened the first store in 1838.

Other mercantile establishments followed, a postoffice was opened, and Clarkston became the trading point for a large agricultural area. The first church was built in 1847 and the first school in 1850.

Clarkston Station, three miles away, was established on the Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad when that was put through in the early 1850's, and has served as the community's rail shipping point ever since.

The late Henry Ford took a liking for Clarkston in comparatively recent years, and spent a large sum in reconstructing the water power and landscaping a large area.

Essentially a village of beautiful homes, Clarkston has some local industry where its residents find employment. A great many of them work in Pontiac.

Recent years have found much residential construction in the community, especially around the edges of the village proper. It harbors that contented atmosphere which makes for better living.

With progressive merchants covering nearly every line of business, a good municipal government and excellent schools and churches, Clarkston maintains a home life of which its residents are proud.

Better Weather Helps Building

Seasonal Fall Decline Is Less Than Usual, Says U. S. Bureau

Nonfarm housing starts totaled 88,000 in October, about 4,000 less than in September, according to preliminary etimates of the U. S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The over-all decline of 4 per cent from September reflected primarily the virtual absence of new public housing starts during the month. Private starts were 1,000 below the September figure.

Exceptionally good weather throughout the nation, plus the settlement of scattered work stoppages, and some easing of uncertainties regarding mortgage funds contributed to the less than seasonal decline in private housing starts during both September and October.

On a seasonally adjusted basis, private starts were at an annual rate of 1,006,000 in October, somewhat better than the August and September rate.

During the first 10 months of 1953, privately owned housing starts alone totaled 919,500, slightly more than in January-October 1952 and above the total for any comparable period except in the boom year 1950. However, because of an overall decline in public housing starts this year, the total number of private and public dwelling units begun lagged slightly behind both 1951 and 1952 when the first 10 months of these years are compared; it was also considerably below the 1950 total for the same period.

Publicly owned housing starts dropped from the 3,000 units started in September to less than 50 in October, when only a very few units were put under construction by a local housing authority. October marked the first time in over 6 years that the monthly housing starts report did not include some public units.

Private housing activity thus far in 1953 exceeded the 1952 volume in all regions of the country except in the southern and West North Central regions, according to reports of building permits issued.

Dwelling unit authorizations showed practically no change from September to October, which indicates a relatively good volume for November since many of the units authorized last month are now being put under construction.

Barring extremes of winter weather in the remainder of the year, the Government's estimate of close to 1,100,000 housing starts for 1953 (private and public) should be attained.

Home Owners to Get Damages

Ferndale Houses Faulty; Top Court Upholds Suit Against Currier Lumber

FERNDALE — Eighteen home owners here had damage suits against the Currier Lumber Co., Detroit, upheld in the Michigan Supreme Court Friday.

The high court affirmed the judgments granted to the home owners on grounds the houses they purchased from the firm in 1941-42 were defective.

The owners, who paid $4,250 to $4,750 for the five-room dwellings, testified the builder had failed to follow Federal Housing Administration specifications.

As a result, they said, basement floors cracked and leaked, siding had to be replaced, wall paint washed away, and other defects developed within six weeks to a year.

The decision held that adequate, expert testimony was presented to support the claim for damages against the builder.

Fire-Routed Family Finds:

Kindness Has No Limits but Friends' Supplies Do

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Neighbors who pitched in to help the Leavy L. Creamer family after fire destroyed their rented home and all their belongings two weeks ago have nearly reached the limit of their ability to aid.

Creamer, 28, had begun construction of a new house near the rented one soon after the family arrived from Florida about three months ago.

After the blaze forced Creamer, his wife Barbara, 21, and their two youngsters, Clifford, 2, and Donna, 1, to move into the unfinished third room of his brother Leslie's home, neighbors joined in helping him finish the building job.

To date, they have the outside walls, roof and subfloor completed.

But the neighbor-builders of Carroll Lake Sub-division are running out of supplies. Needed to complete the basic house are top flooring, and electric wiring plus plasterboard, fixtures and paint.

Mrs. Creamer is appreciative of all the aid and doesn't regret the move to Michigan. "We think a lot of the neighborhood. We've had so much help."

Creamer, laid off from a job at the Ford plant in Milford the day before the fire, is now employed at GMC Truck and Coach Division in Pontiac.

Sees 'Security' as Not Secure

Old Age Plan Before House Group, Working for Better Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a House subcommittee charges that American wage earners were "misled" for nearly 18 years into believing they had iron-clad rights to government old age insurance benefits.

Chairman Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb) said last night that people who have been contributing regularly to the program via payroll deductions actually are not protected by written contracts or policies such as they would get from private firms and that Congress can change provisions of the law whenever it sees fit to do so.

Curtis' Ways and Means subcommittee completed two weeks of hearings on the social security system, with former Social Security Commissioner Arthur J. Altmeyer as final witness.

Altmeyer debated the issue with Curtis and Subcommittee Counsel Robert H. Winn for seven hours in a hearing that erupted more than once into verbal rows.

Democratic Representatives Dingell of Michigan and Eberharter of Pennsylvania interrupted the testimony at frequent intervals to protest questioning methods used by Winn and Curtiss.

At the close of the hearing that ran into the evening, Curtis told Altmeyer that agencies under his direction during the Roosevelt and Truman administrations "repeatedly told the people of the country that they had insurance."

* * *

The Nebraskan said "a number of people were misled," including himself. He said he used to think the government "had a contractual obligation to fulfill (social security) benefits."

He said that when the Eisenhower administration took over last winter, 90 million people were contributing to the program through payroll taxes, but that 6 out of 10 persons are ineligible for one reason or another.

Curtis predicted that this Congress will "write some good social security legislation."

Altmeyer, an architect of the program that began in 1935, acknowledged the absence of actual policies or contracts, but he contended that "the full faith and credit" of the United States lies behind the social security rights created by law.

1954 Students Tour of Capital Planned

Each student taking the trip is asked to pay $76, which covers costs of transportation, meals, sightseeing, recreation and lodging. Students interested may register with their homeroom teachers starting Dec. 7, Yansen said.

$79 Bad Check Costs $179 Plus Probation

ORDINANCE NO. 1232

An Ordinance to provide for the installation, operation and inspection of air conditioning and refrigeration equipment, to provide for the conversion of all air conditioning units in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, to provide for licensing and inspection of all air conditioning units and to provide penalties for violations of this ordinance.

The City of Pontiac Ordains:

Whereas, the operation of water-cooled refrigeration and other equipment for changing the dry-bulb temperature or the humidity of air has rapidly increased and now involves the use of water in quantities never before anticipated, thereby placing unexpected burdens on the public water supply system which are detrimental to other classes of water service,

And Whereas, in the interest of the public and its water supply system, it is necessary to regulate the use of water for such purposes and to require conservation of water and elimination of waste,

Sec. 1—Definitions

For the purpose of these regulations, the following terms shall have and shall be construed to have the following meanings:

a. The terms "air-conditioning system" and "refrigeration system" shall include any combination of equipment, whether compressor or other type, by which heat is removed from the air and from which the accumulated or effluent heat is wholly or partially removed by the use of water.

b. "Air-conditioning system" shall mean an installation for maintenance, by heat removal, of temperatures which are not less than 60° F.

c. "Refrigeration system" shall mean an installation for maintenance, by heat removal of temperatures which are less than 60° F.

d. "System" shall mean any combination of apparatus, individual unit, group or collection of units supplied with water through any single customer service pipe or pipes connected to the public water system.

e. "Person" shall mean and include a natural person, partnership, corporation or association. Whenever used with respect to any penalty, the term "person" as applied to partnerships or associations shall mean the partners or members thereof and as applied to corporation, the officer thereof.

f. "Superintendent" shall mean the chief officer of the Pontiac Water Department or such officer or agent as he shall duly authorize to act in enforcement of these regulations.

The regulations contained in this ordinance shall apply to all water-cooled equipment installed for the purposes of reducing the dry-bulb temperature or decreasing the absolute humidity of air, whether for comfort air conditioning, refrigeration, processing or whatever other purpose.

Sec. 2—Permit Required

No person shall install, operate or use any equipment for air conditioning or refrigeration which requires a supply of water from the system of the City of Pontiac without first having procured the written permit for the plumbing therefor from the Plumbing Inspector, after the request has been approved by the Water Superintendent.

Sec. 3—Application for Permit

No person shall install, operate or use any equipment for air conditioning or refrigeration which requires a supply of water from the system of the City of Pontiac without first having procured a written permit for the installation of the air conditioning or refrigeration equipment from the Building Inspector.

3.1 Application for the permit shall provide the following information:

a. Name and address of the applicant.

b. Location of the premises where installation is proposed.

c. Name and address of the owners of the premises.

d. Names of manufacturers of the units requiring water.

e. Manufacturer's identification and classification of the refrigeration units.

f. Manufacturer's rating of maximum refrigerative capacity of the unit or units under the conditions of the planned installation. (Rating may be stated in tons per 24 hours or in Btu per hour.)

g. Horsepower of compressor prime mover, if unit is of compressor type.

h. Where water conservation devices are required (to comply with Sec. 7 hereof) the manufacturer's name, identification, classification and size of the conservation equipment.

i. Size of water service connection required.

j. Such additional information as shall be required by the Building Inspector.

3.2 Applications shall be signed by the owner or tenant and applications for installation shall designate a plumber duly qualified to receive permits under other sections of these regulations.

Note: For the purposes of these regulations in no event shall the rated capacity in tons be considered less than the following: (1) total maximum Btu per hour of capacity of the installation divided by 12,000, or (2) the nameplate horsepower of any compressor prime mover unit, for any air-conditioning installation, or (3) two-thirds the nameplate horsepower of (2) above, for any refrigeration installation.

In the absence of the required manufacturer's maximum rating (Sec. 3.1 (f) above), the Plumbing Inspector may specify the tonnage of the installation at the ratings indicated by (1), (2), or (3) above; or, if these appear inadequate, then by whatever other measure of capacity appears to him to be proper.

Sec. 4—Fees for Permit

Fees shall be paid at the time of application for permit to cover one inspection of the installation and in accordance with the following schedule: Fee for plumbing permit $5.00. Fees for refrigeration systems 1 to 5 ton capacity, each unit, $5.00. Six to 50 tons capacity each unit, $10.00. Over 50 tons capacity, each unit, $20.00.

Sec. 5. Permit to Install

5.1 Permits to install water piping or connect equipment to the city's water system will be issued at the City Hall by the Plumbing Inspector but only in the names of licensed and bonded plumbers who are duly registered to perform plumbing work within the area of the premises involved, or to plumbers in the employ of the municipal, state or federal government for premises in their respective charge.

5.2 Within 48 hours following the completion of any work authorized by permit, notice of completion and request for inspection shall be returned in writing, by the plumber receiving the permit, to the office from which the permit was obtained.

Sec. 6—Permit to Operate

After final inspection and approval of installation, a permit to operate or use the equipment will be issued at the City Hall by the Building Inspector in the name of the owner or tenant.

Sec. 7—Water Use and Conservation

7.1 Systems with a capacity of 3 tons per hour or more shall not use water directly (or indirectly, except when used with conservation equipment) from the public supply.

7.2 All systems having total capacities exceeding 3 tons per hour shall be equipped with evaporative condensers, cooling towers, spray ponds or other water-cooling equipment. This equipment shall be of sufficient capacity to insure conformance with the requirements in Table 1 for makeup water when operating under full loading at maximum summer temperatures.

TABLE 1

| Maximum Allowable Water Hardness ppm | Max. Use gpm ton |
|---|---|
| 0-139 | 0 1 |
| 140-199 | 0 15 |
| 200-254 | 0 2 |
| 255-339 | 0 3 |
| 340-424 | 0 4 |

Sec. 8—Sanitary Protection

8.1 On installation which operate with the use of water directly from the public supply system, every direct connection shall be equipped with a suitable brass body, brass-fitted check valve.

8.2 Discharge connections for the disposal of waste waters shall be in strict accordance with applicable rules and regulations of state and local health regulatory bodies.

8.3 Cooling waters which are to be reused for other purposes shall be provided with free, above-the-rim discharge before entering other equipment; otherwise permission shall be obtained in writing from the Plumbing Inspector, approving the proposed connections and use.

8.4 On installations other than those described above, there shall be a physical break between the public water supply piping and the piping of the installation, so arranged as to make impossible back siphonage to the public water supply system.

Sec. 9. Revocation of Permit

Any permit which is issued under these regulations to operate or use equipment may be revoked by the City Manager for any one of the following reasons:

a. Failure of the holder of the permit to discontinue using water for the purposes covered by the permit, immediately upon notice to do so issued by the City Manager during an emergency or to forestall an impending emergency.

b. Alterations, changes of equipment or piping, improper operation or lack of maintenance which results in conditions that (1) are hazardous to the potable water supply either within the premises or in supply mains or (2) cause unnecessary waste of water.

c. The use of water is found to exceed the quantities permitted under Sec. 7 of this ordinance.

Sec. 10 Existing installations shall be modified to conform to the provisions of these regulations; applications to operate shall be filed and permits shall be obtained. Modifications shall be completed and permits obtained in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph within 18 months after this ordinance becomes effective.

10.1 Existing installations conforming to the provisions of these regulations in all matters except the conservation of water shall not be penalized under provision of Sec. 11 for failure to provide conservation for a period of 18 months after adoption. Such installations shall, however, be subject to all other provisions of these regulations 18 months after adoption. In the event that a critical condition develops on the system, subsequent to ten days after adoption, all installations not equipped to conserve water shall be subject to immediate discontinuance on orders of the City Manager.

Sec. 11—Penalties

11.1 Failure to comply with the above regulations shall be sufficient cause to penalize the licensee by:

a. Payment of $10.00 per ton capacity, but not to exceed $50.00 for each violation. Each day that such violation continues shall constitute a separate violation.

b. Discontinuance of service for failure to correct the violation promptly after notification or failure to pay penalties within ten days after notification of their imposition.

11.2 Any person who violates the provisions of this ordinance and fails to comply with notification to correct such violation and to pay the penalties assessed or who repeatedly violates such provisions, may be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding $100.00 or imprisonment for not exceeding 90 days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

11.3 Licensed plumbers guilty of violation of any of the rules and regulations herein shall be prohibited from securing further permits from the City of Pontiac, and where willful violations warrant, the Plumbing Inspector may prefer charges to the proper authority, seeking revocation of the Plumber's license.

Sec. 12—Inconsistent Ordinances

All regulations, ordinances or parts of ordinances heretofore in effect which are in conflict with, or which are inconsistent with, the provisions of this ordinance, to the extent of their inconsistency are hereby repealed.

Sec. 13 The invalidity of any section, clause, sentence or provision of this ordinance shall not effect the validity of any other part thereof which can be given effect without such invalid part or parts.

Sec. 14 This ordinance shall take effect ten days from and after the date of its passage by the Commission of the City of Pontiac.

Made and passed by the City Commission this 24th day of November A. D. 1953.

Local Man on Probation on Narcotics Charge

A Pontiac man who allowed another to use his home for "cutting dope" in return for a heroin supply was placed on three years probation and ordered to pay $150 costs Friday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Clyde W. Irving, 36, of 57 Lull St. pleaded guilty Oct. 28 to a charge of possessing narcotics.

Asks Radar Police Car

MUSKEGON (AP) — Police Chief Fred E. Castenholz has asked the city commission to provide his department with a radar-equipped police cruiser for use against speeding motorists.

"VALIANT" TRIO—Set against the lush background of rolling seas, tropic isles and the quaint world of 19th century New England, is the exciting film "All the Brothers Were Valiant" currently playing at a local theater. The brothers, Robert Taylor (left) and Stewart Granger are pitted throughout the show for the love of beautiful Priscilla as played by Ann Blyth. The exciting climax heightened by an unusual tale of courage and love make this epic one of the season's most enjoyable.

Premiere 'Pay-as-You-See' TV Movie Tonight

By BOB THOMAS

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Tonight this desert resort will witness an event that could possibly settle the future of the movie industry.

At nine o'clock, amidst the usual Hollywood hoopla, Paramount will premiere "Forever Female" at the Plaza Theater in downtown Palm Springs.

At the same time, some 50 to 75 local residents will be able to put $1.25 into a coin box atop their TV set and see the same picture on their home screen.

The pay-as-you-see TV is operated by Telemeter, of which Paramount owns half. The gadget's sponsors hail it as a means of saving the beleaguered film business. They argue that if even a couple of million TV owners would pay $1 to see a new movie at home, the producers could reap a handsome profit in one night.

Here are some of the questions and answers on the Telemeter test:

Q. Why was Palm Springs chosen?

A. Mountains block reception from Los Angeles TV stations. So Telemeter ran TV wires into the town, charging an installation and monthly fee for local users. Since TV comes to Palm Springs via wires and not by air, Telemeter can conduct the test without seeking approval by the FCC.

Q. Is Telemeter the only pay TV system?

A. No. Phonovision, owned by the Zenith Radio Corp., conducted tests in Chicago in early 1951. Set owners called the telephone company to obtain second-run movies on their screens. Skiatron, which operates by the use of an IBM card, had a test run in New York a year ago.

Q. How does the Telemeter test differ?

A. It is the first to use new movies.

How does Telemeter work?

A. A scrambled picture comes over the channel. A "barker" tells the set owner the picture he can see, the stars in it and the price. If the owner wants to see the film, he puts coins in a box atop the set. When the correct amount is inserted, the picture unscrambles.

Q. Is the system limited to movies?

A. No. Other attractions during the 90-day Palm Springs test may be pro football games, championship fights and other events. The sponsors also envision quick payoffs for opera and Broadway show telecasts.

Q. What other possibilities does Telemeter offer?

A. It could be used for school classes. Tuition could be paid via the coin box, and the student could even take true-or-false tests with the gadget. It could be used for public opinion polls or even for voting.

Q. How are the receipts collected?

A. The coin boxes would be emptied monthly by a collector.

Q. Can Telemeter be installed in other towns?

A. Not until the FCC makes a ruling that the consumer can be charged for a broadcast. Telemeter hopes that the Palm Springs test will be the convincer.

Hal Boyle Says:

Baggy Pants, Sloppy Suits Distinguish U.S. Husband

NEW YORK (AP)—Does your wife take the spotlight away from you at a social gathering, mister?

If she does, it maybe isn't because she's wittier, prettier, or plays the zither better.

"It's probably because the wife dresses 70 — and the husband dresses down," said Stanley Goldman, a style expert.

"The American husband has to wake up and dress up — and take his share of the spotlight. The single man today is better dressed because he is still on the . . . well . . . on the market. The married man is too inclined to say, 'oh, why dress up? My wife will take me as I am.'"

Goldman feels this is all wrong. The American man never was more conscious of his figure than today, and never was in better shape," he said. "He is getting taller and less portly all the time, and there is no reason why he has to look sloppy."

It is the average man's summertime uniform—moccasins, unpressed slacks and three-year-old sport shirts—that depresses Goldman most.

"Men are getting too casual in their dress," he observed. "The ordinary husband buys only seven eighths of a suit a year, but a white collar worker needs at least two new suits a year to look presentable on the job."

Goldman, style director for Eagle Clothes, is a student of geographical differences in men's clothing, and can tell what part of the country a stranger comes from by glancing at his suit.

"In the East they want a slim, trim look with natural shoulders, slightly squared, and the big color right now is charcoal gray," he said.

"In the south they go for a suit with patch pockets, and the favorite color is tan. In Chicago a suit with square patch pockets and a fish mouth lapel is tops.

"On the West Coast they want to look bigger, baggier and shaggier."

A New York style generally takes about six months to dazzle Chicago, a year to overawe the South, and two full years to invade and conquer the West Coast.

"Nobody really can tell the West Coast what to do," remarked Goldman wryly.

These varying regional tastes make the men's clothing industry something like a roulette game. Each season you have to guess the right number.

Since Goldman is such a stout advocate of having the husband dip deeper into the family clothing budget, I asked him if he favored men wearing mink.

"It's been tried," he said. "But mink shrinks when blended with wool, and doesn't wear well enough. But wool and beaver overcoats for men are working out well."

Goldman was wearing a narrow necktie and a slim trim dark gray suit. I was inhabiting at the moment my favorite bigger, baggier, and shaggier tweeds.

"Can you guess the price of a suit by looking at it?" I asked him.

"Yes."

"How much did I pay for mine?"

"Sixty dollars — give or take five," he said immediately. I felt crestfallen. The suit had set me back exactly $65.

"What do you think of it?" I asked.

"To change the subject," said Goldman, "there is no reason why the American husband has to dress in a sloppy manner."

Is that a way to change a subject?

Department Store Sales Drop Slightly for Week

WASHINGTON (AP)— Department store sales during the week ended Nov. 21 dropped two per cent compared with the like week a year ago, the Federal Reserve Board said yesterday.

No change in department store sales was listed between the four weeks ended Nov. 21 and the corresponding period last year, while sales Jan. 1-Nov. 21 this year were listed at two per cent above the similar 1952 period.

Police Post Requested

MUNISING (AP) — The city commission is asking Gov. Williams and the state police commissioner for establishment of a Munising state police post. The request, in the form of a resolution, points out that a considerable area is without adequate protection in an emergency.

The phonograph industry standardized the size of holes in records of all speeds during 1953.

Army Reservists to Get Assignments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Army reservists with no previous combat experience will get specific mobilization assignments next year under a new plan the Army is testing.

The Army said yesterday the men will be assigned to regular Army units or installations, or to National Guard or organized reserve groups near their homes. The test will last from January through June and be held throughout each of the six Army areas, the Army said. Reservists chosen must have at least six years obligated service remaining.

Fluoridation Near

GLADSTONE (AP) — City Manager H. J. Henrikson announced that Gladstone's water supply will be fluoridated within 10 days. He said installation of necessary equipment has already been completed.

One-third of the world supply of commercial arsenic comes from the U. S.

Speak at Protest Rally on Religious Persecution

FLINT (AP) — Sen. Homer Ferguson, backed by Reps. Kit Clardy and Thaddeus Machrowicz, will speak at a Dec. 6 mass protest against religious persecution behind the Iron Curtain.

The program is a joint effort by 20 Flint organizations, including the Knights of Columbus, who will attend a morning Mass at All Saints Church and the afternoon protest meeting in All Saints auditorium.

Cake Recipe Turns Out Sweet for Flint Woman

FLINT (AP) — A spice cake recipe submitted in a national baking contest won Mrs. Roy Slingerland $100 cash, an electric range and an electric mixer. Mrs. Slingerland and her husband lost their trailer home and all its furnishings in the June 8 tornado.

The recipe earns Mrs. Slingerland a trip to New York and a chance at a $25,000 first prize. She is among 100 finalists in the contest.

Susan's Parents Say Killer 'Sick'

Rothchilds in Japan Not Bitter Toward Sergeant Who Slew 9-Year-Old

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

TOKYO (AP)—The mother of little Susan Rothschild said today she has "no personal feeling of bitterness or revenge" toward an American sergeant who confessed that an "uncontrollable urge" drove him to strangle her 9-year-old daughter.

Sgt. Maurice L. Schick, 29, of Canonsburg, Pa., signed a confession today just six days after Susan's body was found in a drainage ditch at a housing project near here, the Army said.

Col. and Mrs. Jacquard H. Rothschild of Chicago called on Shick's wife and two tiny Japanese adopted daughters to offer "assistance and comfort."

The parents announced through an Army spokesman that they were "anxious that all the help and aid possible be given to Mrs. Shick and her daughters."

"My husband and I feel that Sgt. Shick is a sick man and we have no personal feeling of bitterness or revenge about what has transpired," Mrs. Rothschild said.

Shick said in his signed statement that he had no reason to kill the Rothschild girl and never intended to rape her, the Army said.

An autopsy showed she had not been raped but disclosed large bruises on her face and throat.

Shick was quoted as saying he was talking to the girl and killed her when she started to leave.

His confession shocked residents of Sagamihara housing development, 30 miles south of here, where both Shick and the Rothschilds live.

Town Will Keep Ex-Red Chief

New Hampshire Board Delays Action After Stormy Session

MILFORD, N. H. (AP)—Police Chief Oliver G. Williamson, self-described Communist from 1936 to 1943, will be retained for the present by the Board of Selectmen.

The decision last night followed a stormy session attended by some 300 persons. This southern New Hampshire town has a population of 4,000.

Charles P. Hayward, chairman of the three-man board, said the Selectmen's position was the same. "This is not so urgent that it cannot wait from one day to the next," he said.

Hayward said he saw no haste because "I have been assured by Atty. Gen. Louis C. Wyman that if any of Chief Williamson's testimony given under oath shows he was disloyal to the town, state or nation in the past 10 years, that he, Wyman, would notify the selectmen."

He indicated that if such information is forthcoming, the board will take prompt action.

Williams answered "no" to a question by John Kartsock if he came forward because of the recent testimony of William H. Teto, 53, of Ahsby, Mass., who recently described himself as an informer for the FBI while a Communist.

Teto told Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) at a Boston hearing last week on Communist infiltration into Massachusetts industrial plants that he knew of a Red cell operating at the Fitchburg, Mass., General Electric Co. plant in 1942 and 1943.

Williamson told Wyman that he worked at the Fitchburg plant in 1942 and 1943 while a member of the Communist party but knew of no other Communists there.

Parson's Punch Corporation

Firm Began Without Shop, Now Makes Own Product

Twenty-one years ago the Parsons Punch Corp. was a businss without any workshop. Work contracted by John H. Parsons, the founder, was produced for him by other firms.

Today with John Parsons' son, Richard, now heading the corporation at 2569 Dixie Highway, the industry makes numerous types of metal piercing punches and die accessories.

The single, hall-like room which made up the shop has sprouted three additions, and includes a small attractive executive working office and a larger office for receiving visitors.

The one-man staff has been added to at an average of one per year during the 17 years that the firm has been making its own products.

John Parsons, in 1936, turned out the first punch with the help of a single employe while Richard was still going to school.

During World War II, the enlarged plant produced gun parts and Parsons punches were going indirectly into defense work in the form of dies used by other industries for war work.

"We did not then, and do not now, have any trouble getting material to work with," said Richard Parsons, "because we use tool and highspeed steel which is readily available.

The corporation, with representatives in Chicago and Indianapolis, is increasing its capacity continually and expects several new machines after the first of the year, Parsons said.

"It has been sometime since we've considered business as slack according to Parsons, a member of the National Association of Manufacturers' policy-making committee this year.

South Attacking Brownell Plan

Dixie Leaders Combat Proposed Segregation Ban for Schools

ATLANTA (AP) — Many Southern political leaders have taken prompt combative issue with Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell's recommendation to the U. S. Supreme Court to ban racial segregation in public schools.

An immediate challenge came from Rep. Gathings (D-Ark). Gathings declared that the Justice Department, through the 188-page brief which Brownell filed with the high court yesterday, was an attempt to skirt "the will of the people."

Gathings said the Constitution does not give the federal government any jurisdiction over educational systems of the state and that the states alone have the right to exercise such jurisdiction.

He declared also that the power to enact or amend laws was the exclusive right of the legislative department and not of the judicial branch of the government. And he added:

"Congress has refused consistently, year in and year out, to pass laws destroying segregation."

Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia described Brownell's brief as "wholly political" and predicted that the South would be "lost forever" to the Republican party because of it.

Leaders in Virginia and South Carolina likewise have said that a ruling against segregation would bring about the end of the public school system in those states.

Brownell suggested that a one-year transition period be granted in the wake of a ruling against segregation and that allowance be made for a further "reasonable" extension.

Immediate comment was not forthcoming from Gov. James Byrnes of South Carolina and Gov. Robert Kennon of Louisiana, both "Democrats for Eisenhower" in the 1952 presidential campaign.

Marketing Methods Highlight Meeting

NORTH BRANCH — Methods of marketing farm products to bring the farmer a higher percentage of the consumer's dollar, highlighted the discussion period at the Community Farm Bureau meeting at the home of Mrs. Carrol Sohn Tuesday evening.

Recognizing that Michigan maintains a lower butterfat standard for milk (from 3.5 to 3.6) than other states, it was suggested that a boost in butterfat content would not only raise the quality standard, but use excess butter products, thereby eliminating the need for butter subsidies.

The group voted to donate funds to the "Wooden Church Crusade," to establish churches along the border of the Iron Curtain.

Women's Club Hears Talk by Pastor Blakely

BROWN CITY—A talk by the Rev. Harold Blakely, pastor of Burnside Evangelical United Brethren Church, highlighted the meeting of the Women's Club Monday night.

Members were asked to bring a record or book to the club's Christmas meeting, Dec. 14. The items will be sent to Pontiac State Hospital.

Expect Vehicles to Top 7 Million

Auto Forecasters See '53 Production Second Only to '50 Record

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP)—Motor vehicle output in the United States has tapered off substantially in recent weeks but the year's total is going to be even greater than many early estimates.

It now appears that when the final count is tabulated passenger car assemblies will come close to 6,200,000 units and truck output to about 1,200,000 vehicles.

The significance of this achievement is that it will bring 1953 ouptut to only about 600,000 units below the record total the industry rolled out in 1950.

The difference between these two highest ouput years in auto industry history might have been much narrower but for the General Motors transmission plant fire and labor troubles in the tool and die industry.

The August plant fire curtailed output by three GM car divisions and several non-GM users of the hydramatic transmission. Some industry sources have estimated the unit loss at upward of 125,000 cars.

The figure can be disputed, of course, because the industry was building cars at a rate faster than it was selling them, and some sources say that had there been no fire, the factory assembly lines would have been slowed down much earlier.

Surveys disclose, however, that dealers and their sales staffs generally are working harder now to clean up the surplus stock then they have since before World War II.

How big a dent they can make in the heaviest inventories the retailers have had in the postwar period remains to be seen.

Mrs. George Sekulich, of 160 Auburn Ave., (the former Bessie Jean Lindsey) a bride of less than three months, has been awarded a new electric range by the Crosley Corp. for her plan for a model kitchen arrangement. She said "I cannot follow my own plan in the space of an apartment kitchen but hope to use it when we build our own home." The plan was submitted through the Wayne H. Gabert appliance store here.

German Model Charged as Spy

Girl Seized Attempting to Pay U. S. Soldier for Military Information

NURNBERG, Germany (AP) — A pretty former German model facing spy charges for allegedly trying to buy secret information from a U.S. soldier said today she "loved him very much."

And everything she had done, she claimed in a jail interview was out of her love for her 18-month-old son and a brother.

The 24-year-old blonde, Margarete Pfeiffer, is slated for a preliminary hearing before the U.S. District Court here Monday. She is charged with spying for Communist-ruled Czechoslovakia.

She was seized a week ago in a Grafenwoehr restaurant by two agents posing as waiters.

U.S. Dist. Atty. William D. Canfield said she was arrested the moment she tried to pay a soldier 1,000 marks ($238) for military information. The soldier, Pvt. William J. Eicher of McKeesport, Pa., had tipped off the Army.

The defendant said Czech border guards helped her get her brother, a young Communist actor, into East Germany via Czechoslovakia in 1951 after West German authorities had refused him a pass.

Then, she said, a Czech civilian came to her and said, "We helped you. Now you must help us." She declared her brother told her he would be fired from his job in an East German theater if she did not agree.

"A Czech civilian turned up again in 1953 and threatened the Czechs would kidnap my little boy." She quoted the Czech as saying: "Contact American officers. You are young and pretty. You will get everything from them."

At the Westminster Convention on Jan. 15, 1777, Vermont was declared to be an independent state under the name of "New Connecticut." On June 4th that year, the name of the state was changed to Vermont.
