Snow Drifts Trap 65 Motorists Near Saginaw

2 Die, 10 Missing, 6 Are Safe in Crash

Rochester GI on Unreported Alaskan List

Richard Knickerbocker County Man Named but Bush Pilots Rescue Six

From AP and UP Dispatches

CURRY, Alaska—Two veteran Alaska bush pilots were credited today with saving the lives of six men tumbled into the snow-covered mountain wilderness near here Friday when the plane in which they were riding exploded.

Two of the other 16 men aboard the Air Force C47 when it left Elmendorf Air Force Base near Anchorage on the ill-fated flight were known dead.

Ten were missing and bush pilot Cliff Hudson who with Don Sheldon was credited with effecting the rescue of the six survivors, said there was little chance any of the others were alive.

Seven of the missing identified by the Air Force included Airman 2/C Richard L. Knickerbocker, husband of Loretta J. Knickerbocker of 127 Taylor St., Rochester, Mich., and son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Knickerbocker of 303 Helen St., Rochester.

(Knickerbocker, a Rochester High School graduate, and Loretta Hecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hecht, were married when he was home last summer. She is employed at Pontiac Motor Division.)

The Air Force said Hudson and Sheldon saved the lives of the six who spent two nights and most of two days in subfreezing temperature awaiting rescue after the wrecked two-engined transport was sighted.

Hudson spotted the wreckage late Friday. The following day Sheldon located the first three survivors huddled in the snow 15 miles from the wreckage where they had floated down in their 'chutes.

MAXWELL BODENHEIM

Writer of 1920s, Woman Killed

Maxwell Bodenheim, Companion Murdered; 'Fast Talker' Sought

NEW YORK (AP)—Maxwell Bodenheim, bad boy writer of the 1920s, and a woman believed to have been his wife were found slain yesterday. A 25-year-old "fast talker" was sought by police today for questioning.

The 63-year-old Bodenheim was discovered with the woman in a cheap furnished room where drink and poverty had sent him after a spectacular and controversial career in the 1920s and 1930s as a writer of poetry and harsh fiction.

Police today issued a 12-state broadcast for Harold Weinberg, alias Joseph Greenburg, and warned that he "may be armed." Meanwhile, 30 picked detectives started a methodical search of Manhattan for clues.

One of the areas on which they concentrated was Greenwich Village, the Bohemian mecca of artists and writers where Bodenheim had flourished and floundered.

Bodenheim was shot in the chest. The woman, identified as Ruth Fagan, was stabbed and beaten almost beyond recognition. Both were fully clothed when found after the rooming house proprietor sawed off a padlock which had been placed on their room door from the outside.

The slaying climaxed Bodenheim's up-and-down career. He last made headlines two years ago when arrested for sleeping in a subway. Bleary-eyed and broke, he spent the night in jail. Friends finally put up his $25 bond.

In the 1920s he was a prominent figure in the literary world of Chicago and Greenwich Village.

Bodenheim, born in Hermanville, Miss. had no formal education. He became a bitter critic of American civilization.

His novel "Replenishing Jessica" caused a sensation in 1925. Later it resulted in charges against the author for publishing an indecent

Say Red Police Suppress Unrest in East Germany

Arrest 500 Anti-Soviet Workers Who Balked at Red Unity Plan

BERLIN (AP) — Simmering unrest in the Soviet zone has been thoroughly quelled by action of the Communist secret police, German and Western quarters said today.

A series of arrests of upwards of 500 Germans in scattered industrial areas has apparently smashed any budding outbreak of violent resistance before it had a chance to get started.

Western informants said Eastern police have demonstrated what Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov quietly forecast in the Big Four parley—that another June 17 revolt is impossible.

The unrest reported reliably from Dresden, Gera, Merseburg, Oelsnitz and other communities last week was provoked by the Communists themselves. Their agitators stirred up resentful German workers by trying to force them to sign resolutions favoring the Molotov plan for national unification, a plan that would cement Red rule for all Germany.

As soon as the grumbling broke into the open, SSD squads struck, hauled off the loudest anti-Reds and effectively squelched any incipient revolt.

Any grumbling still going on is out of the side of the mouth and in whispers. Major industrial plants in the East are honeycombed with secret police agents and informers.

Allied officials said the crackdown was so quick and produced such immediate results that it was not even necessary to increase normal guard details at many plants.

Rumors that the Russian army had been called in to brace for an uprising were disproved by all competent sources. Outside of sentries at the Soviet embassy, armed Russian soldiers have not been seen in East Berlin since the Big Four parley started. Reports Red army tanks had moved toward Berlin brought scoffing from Western military quarters which said the Soviets built a big tank shed at Karlshorst in East Berlin last summer and keep a tank reserve there at all times.

The situation was so quiet yesterday and today in the East that the U.S. High Commission radio station RIAS dropped it completely from its newscasts.

Natural Gas Levy Overruled

U. S. High Court Rules Against Texas Tax on Fuel Sent to 38 States

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today unanimously struck down a Texas tax on natural gas transmitted by pipe line companies to consumers in 38 other states.

The levy was attacked in appeals by the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. and the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. They contended the tax was an unconstitutional burden on the free flow of commerce between the states.

Lawyers for Michigan-Wisconsin said the burden of the tax ultimately would be borne by persons in the 38 states who use the gas. The appeal added:

"Thus the tax statute enables Texas to achieve the politically popular result of raising revenue at the ultimate expense of citizens of other states."

The tax is at the rate of nine-twentieths of one cent for each thousand cubic feet of gas taken for transmission out of Texas.

Michigan-Wisconsin and Panhandle Eastern appealed after Texas state courts upheld the levy. They said outcome of their appeal would affect more than one hundred similar state court suits filed by other pipe line companies.

Last June, they reported, pipe line companies had paid $15,600,000 in taxes under protest and the amount increased one million dollars monthly.

Justice Clark, who delivered the high court's decision, said:

"It is perhaps sufficient that the privilege taxed, namely the taking of the gas, is not so separate and distinct from interstate transportation as to support the tax.

"But, additional objection is present if the tax be upheld. It would permit a multiple burden upon that interstate commerce."

Riders Mourn as Cable Car Makes Last Run

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — San Francisco today mourned the passing of one of its famed colorful cable lines.

Noisy mourners jammed the last car to operate on the Jones St. shuttle line, abandoned in the interest of economy.

The car, draped with black crepe and a funeral wreath, was followed by a block long "funeral cortege" when it rolled into the California and Hyde St. barn, its career ended.

The city's main cable car line over the Powell Street Hills to Fishermen's Wharf will continue to operate.

All attempts to abandon it and substitute buses have met fierce resistance from citizen groups which claim the cable cars are among San Francisco's top tourist attractions.

Reuther Talks to 700 Here, Sees Work Needed in U.S.

By JOE SFAIR

CIO-UAW President Walter P. Reuther's formula to avert a possible depression in the United States was applauded by some 700 union members Saturday night during dedication ceremonies of Pontiac Local 653's new building.

Reuther, who stressed in his talk that "depressions are not inevitable," said that "the purchasing power must be put in the hands of the people to avoid a setback in our economy."

He warned that unemployment would continue on the upswing "if the working man's purchasing power was incapacitated in any way."

An immediate remedy to defer such a crises, Reuther suggested, would be for Congress to raise the personal tax exemption level, and in the granting of bigger retirement pensions and a more adequate hospitalization plan.

"We must start building our prosperity from the bottom up, not from the top to bottom," Reuther asserted when he referred to the ending of the excess profits tax.

He claimed that one organization would save about $400 million dollars annually under the new tax plan.

"Gearing our economy should be first directed to the needs of the people. We must know how to distribute our wealth and food surpluses to raise the standard of living and to avoid the possibility of depression," the labor leader said.

Speaking of opponents, "who have labeled me the prophet of gloom and doom," he said their

Arrest Detroiter in Moran Death

James Woods Gives Up to Police in Stabbing Case Here in 1953

James Woods, 27, of Detroit, sought for over a year in connection with the fatal stabbing of Arthur Moran, 21, of 4675 First St., Clarkston, was arrested here late Saturday by Pontiac Police.

Woods was charged with first degree murder following a fight with Moran in the Pontiac Motor parking lot Jan. 7, 1953. He is being held at the Oakland County Jail.

Detectives John Williams and Allan Noble said that Woods surrendered to police after "he decided to give himself up upon the advice of a Detroit attorney."

Woods, alias James Galters, 120 Winder St., Detroit, arranged a meeting with Noble through an unidentified person, police said.

In a statement to police following his arrest, Woods said that he didn't know that Moran was hurt seriously when he returned to Detroit after the fight.

He is scheduled to make a formal statement at the Oakland County Prosecutor's office later today.

U. S. Indicts 9 in Tanker Deals

Fraud Charges Filed Against Ex-Solon; Six Firms Cited

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department today announced the indictment of nine individuals and six corporations on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in multi-million dollar deals in surplus ships after World War II.

Casey allegedly headed a group a Senate committee charged made fantastic profits in post war tanker deals.

Another of those indicted was Aristoteles S. Onassis, world power in the shipping trade.

The indictment was returned by a District of Columbia federal grand jury last Oct. 12, but was kept sealed by court order pending the surrender of Onassis.

Onassis, native of Greece and now a citizen of Argentina, presented himself in the Federal District Court here today and, after the indictment was opened, entered a plea of innocent.

Chief Judge Bolitha Laws authorized his release on $10,000 bond, but stipulated that he could not leave the country while the charges are pending against him.

The wealthy Onassis arrived in the United States last week. He has shipbuilding and ship operations scattered throughout the world.

Youth Accused in Fatal Crash

E. R. Duncan, 19, Faces Manslaughter Charge After Collision Here

A manslaughter warrant against Edward R. Duncan, 19, of 163 W. Yale Ave., was approved by Oakland County Prosecutor's office today following a fatal accident in which Duncan was involved Sunday morning.

Clyde E. Stewart, 34, of 61 Mechanic St., driver of the other auto, died at Pontiac General Hospital less than eight hours after the crash on Montcalm Ave. at Perry St.

The warrant, approved by Assistant Prosecutor Homer G. Gerue, charges that Duncan was driving under the influence of liquor.

Stewart's wife, Ona May, 32, passenger in her husband's car was treated for head and knee cuts.

In his statement, Duncan said he did not see the other car until the impact which sent his auto crashing into a fire hydrant. Stewart's car hit a house causing, minor damage, according to Police Sgt. Clayton Randolph and Patrolman John Lyons.

Duncan, held in Oakland County Jail, was to be arraigned in Pontiac Municipal Court today.

6 Flint Residents Hurt as Their Car Tumbles Over Twice

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

At least 65 motorists were trapped last night for brief periods by a snowstorm which blanketed the southern part of the state.

The motorists, including six chanildren, were trapped by drifting snow 2½ to 4 feet deep near the Tri-City Airport nine miles north of Saginaw.

Ten cars carrying 40 persons were trapped on Garfield road shortly before midnight.

The cars were returning from the the airport where their occupants had met an evening plane. County Road Commission crews freed the stranded motorists shortly after 2 a.m.

At least 25 other motorists were trapped on the airport approach road when 12 cars skidded into snow-drifted ditches on U.S. 10.

Six Flint motorists were injured when their car turned over twice. Other cars apparently skidded into ditches in attempting to avoid the car.

Injured were Mrs. Evelyn Borter, 33, of Flint, the driver, her husband, Charles, 40; their two daughters, Martha, 7, and Gail, 2, two passengers, Robert Blissert, 33, of Flint, and his daughter, Annie, 3.

Blissert, who was recovering from a broken leg, had his leg broken again. His daughter suffered cuts and bruises. Injuries of the Borter family were not known immediately.

Icy conditions were reported on U.S.10 near the airport, which is midway between Bay City, Midland and Saginaw. Snow removal crews cleared some drifting on the highway.

Snow flurries were forecast for throughout Michigan today.

There were slippery spots caused by drifting snow on highways in most of the southern Lower Peninsula at 8 a.m. today, the Michigan Highway Department reported.

The drifting conditions were reported worst in Huron County. There were extensive slippery sections of highway in the Cadillac area.

Highway conditions were good in the balance of the Lower Peninsula and in the Upper Peninsula.

At least 800 students had a holiday today at Rudyard 22 miles south of Sault Ste. Marie, when schools were closed by drifting snow on roads and U.S.2.

Temperatures throughout the state were expected to climb above freezing today, but slide back under 32 degrees tonight.

Politicians Maneuvering for '54 Election Campaign

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A second candidate—former Lieut. Gov. Eugene C. Keyes of Dearborn—announced for the Republican nomination for Governor over the weekend.

Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) urged Michigan Democrats in a Mt. Clemens speech to desert "the party of Communism, betrayal and treason."

Sen. Barry M. Goldwater (R-Ariz) told a Lincoln Day dinner gathering of Detroit Republicans that their party is the only answer to the future of our government.

"And," he said, "the reason for this is that the New Deal, left-wing approach has a tendency to concentrate government control in Washington and take away all state rights."

Chairman John Feikens of the Republican State Central Committee, on the other hand, deprecated Democratic claims that the party's liberalism would recapture the national administration.

"The Democrats still are blind to the true nature of liberalism," Feikens said. "They keep right on yelling about liberalism without recognizing that the Eisenhower administration is the real liberal one."

Ministers Meet in Secret to Discuss Peace for Asia

BERLIN (AP) — The Big Four foreign ministers met in their first secret session of the Berlin conference today to see whether they could agree on steps to promote peace settlements in the Far East and on a formula for a world conference on disarmament.

The two-week-old conference, back in the Allied Control Authority building in West Berlin after a week at the Soviet Embassy in the East, got under way this afternoon around a much smaller table than has been usual here.

Russia's Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov had at his side deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, ambassador to London Jacob A. Malik, and interpreter Oleg Troyanovsky.

The three Western ministers were reported determined to confront Molotov with a three-point program:

1. They will meet with Red China only for discussion of such Asian issues as Korea and Indochina, and only if the Peiping regime demonstrates good faith.

2. The Big Four must fix a deadline for their fruitless discussions on Germany, unless Russia is ready to modify her demands.

3. All international attempts to bring about world disarmament must be within the United Nations. Molotov had proposed such a conference be held outside the international organization, so Red China could attend.

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Thirty representatives of service clubs, civic groups and police officials held their second meeting yesterday to determine what can be done about a rising juvenile problem in the city.

Birmingham Group May Go Over Assessment Financing Plan

work, but he was acquitted on grounds that he had received no royalties from the book's sale.

Among the novels he considered his best were "Blackguard," "Crazy Man," "Georgia May" and "Sixty Seconds." His verse included "Minna and Myself."

Acquaintances of Bodenheim and the Fagan woman said she became his third wife recently.

Police said a copy of a job application found in her effects stated she graduated from the University of Michigan, had been a reporter for the Washington (D. C.) Daily News from 1940 to 1941; a comparison shopper for Crowley-Milner, Detroit, in 1941 and 1942; a researcher for Newsweek magazine from 1943 through 1945; and a woman's page editor of the Lansing (Mich). News from 1945 to 1947.

There is no such paper in Lansing. However, John R. Judd, publisher of the Michigan Veteran Review — a community newspaper popularly known as the South Lansing News—said a Ruth Fagan wrote a few stories for the paper while attending night school. Judd said she was never regularly employed.

Traffic Kills 19; 4 From Davison

Lapeer Man Also Dies in Flint Crash That Claims Lemin Family

By the Associated Press

Two tragic crashes — one claiming five lives and the other four—zoomed Michigan's weekend traffic deaths to 19.

A late Sunday night collision on Flint's outskirts killed four of one family and left the only survivor critically injured. A Lapeer man also died in this smashup.

Four persons died 24 hours earlier as one car rammed another near Parma, exploding the gasoline tank of one of the vehicles. Here, too, there was only one survivor and she was critically hurt.

A 14-months-old baby died on Parma's route 8 after eating sodium salicylate pills she found while playing in her mother's purse Saturday.

Victims of the crash on Flint's eastern outskirts were William M. Lemin, 28, his wife, Carole, 24; their daughters, Dawn, 2, and Deborah, 3 months, all of Davison, and Russell L. Bond, 26, of Lapeer.

Dawn's body was not discovered until two hours after the tragedy. Frantic relatives asked where she was. Rushing back to the scene, sheriff's deputies found her body in a snowbank 15 feet off the road.

The William Lemin family was wiped out, except for 4-year-old Janice, who is in Flint's Hurley Hospital in critical condition with a fractured skull.

Lemin's and Bond's automobiles hit with such terrific force that the front wheels of Bond's car were thrown into the front seat of his car. Bond was alone.

Carlyle Holk, 49, and Norman Fick, 40, both Detroiters, died en route home from an ice fishing trip when their car struck an icy patch on U.S. 23 and skidded 200 feet into the path of an oncoming auto. It happened five miles south of Standish last night. Three persons in the other car suffered only minor injuries.

Only survivor of the flaming Parma crash was Mrs. Phyllis Scholz, 26, of Jackson. Dead were her husband Richard, 29; Mervin Struckman, Jr., 29; his wife, and George L. Strain, 24.

Struckman's wife and Strain were killed instantly. Scholz and Struckman died early Sunday morning of their injuries. Mrs. Scholz was in critical condition at Albion's Sheldon Memorial Hospital.

A 14-month-old baby, Betty Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hill of Route 8, Parma, died after eating sodium salicylate pills she found in her mother's purse Saturday.

Leonard W. Baldwin, 70, and his wife, Caroline, 58 of Cedar Springs were killed Saturday when their car collided head-on with a pickup truck south of Greenville. Police said Baldwin crossed the center line on a hill.

Bernard D. Murray, 23, of Detroit's suburban Redford Township was killed when a car in which he was riding skidded off the Ann Arbor Trail near Inkster Road Friday night. The car crashed into a tree.

John Keapke, 81, of Detroit was killed when he was struck by a car near his Detroit home Friday night.

Mrs. Molly D. Smith, 48, Dearborn died Sunday of injuries she received when the car she was riding in went out of control, striking a parked truck.

Dewey Gordon, 30, of Detroit, was killed Sunday when he was struck by a car while crossing a street.

Clyde Stewart, 34, of Pontiac, died Sunday of injuries suffered earlier in a Pontiac collision. Edward R. Duncan, 19, driver of the other car, was held for investigation of manslaughter.

A woman fatally injured when she stepped into Telegraph Road just north of Detroit Friday night was identified today as Mrs. Catherine T. Gordon of Detroit. Her car was parked nearby when the accident happened.

Philip Hart Urged to Oppose Clardy

LANSING (UP) — Sixth district Democrats today disclosed that attempts are underway to persuade Philip A. Hart, legal advisor to Gov. G. Mennen Williams, to oppose Republican Cong. Kit F. Clardy.

Hart admitted today he had been approached by Democratic leaders to become a party candidate for the Sixth Congressional District seat but said he had not reached a decision.

Clardy, who was first elected in 1952 as Congressman from the sixth district comprising Genesee, Ingham, and Livingston Counties, has indicated he will seek re-election in November.

in a statement that Republicans would re-elect Senator Homer Ferguson (R-Mich) and would snatch the House seats now held by Reps. Louis C. Rabaut and John Lesinski Jr., in the Detroit area.

Neil Staebler, chairman of the State Democratic Central Committee was contemptuous of Feikens' claims and declared in a speech of his own:

"There is a phenomenon in politics which we used to call the lunatic fringe. This fringe is now draped over nearly the whole Republican elephant.

"The distinguished Republican Senator Margaret Smith of Maine has called the MacCarthy wing of the Republican party 'a party of fear, ignorance, bigotry and smear.'

"It will be a test of Republicans in Michigan to see if they agree with Senator McCarthy or Senator Smith."

Until Keyes took off, there was only one announced candidate for the GOP gubernatorial nomination — State Treasurer D. Hale Brake.

No one has announced on the Democratic side, although Republicans repeatedly have prodded Democratic Gov. Williams to announce either for re-election or for Senator.

Three Persons Injured as Car Skids, Crashes

Three Pontiac Township residents were injured, one seriously, when two cars crashed head-on on M24 near Featherstone early today.

Mrs. Winifred White, 36, of 2045 Opdyke, is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital with possible skull and leg fractures, and severe forehead and knee cuts.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Mrs. Mary D. Girwin, 23, of 2055 Opdyke, when it spun around on ice and crashed into a car driven by Wilburn H. Williams, 35, of 3620 Bald Mountain Rd., according to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputy Donald Wall.

Reuther Lists Work Needed in Nation

"'All we need is confidence,'" they say, to keep our country from falling into another depression. That's what Hoover said in 1929 when actually a depression was just around the corner," said Reuther.

"There is no need for unemployment in our country, the richest in the world," he continued. "Depressions are man-made, they just don't happen. Therefore, what can be made, also can be prevented.

"There is enough work in America to keep everyone busy. I am told that 345,000 new school classrooms are needed in America.

"They have even put our schools on the swing-shift basis because we lack the much needed school rooms. Approximately 800 thousand new beds are needed in crowded hospitals and many other needs are confronting us which can create more work."

He told the huge crowd, jamming the new assembly hall, that school expenditures totaled $5 billion in 1953.

"But we spent more than that figure in one week for war than in the whole year for education," he said.

He said that crime and juvenile delinquency in the United States has soared beyond former levels because of inadequate living conditions.

"Our children are forced to play in slum areas which breed all types of crimes," he said. "Instead of building better homes and districts, we are forced to erect more jails.

Reuther warned that Communism builds its power on poverty.

"Through the wrinkles of empty bellies, communism moves up in the back alleys and to the hearts of men.

"We are not stopping in America until the poorest conditions are wiped out. During wartime there are always jobs, why not in peace time?" he added.

He called for the "rededication of ourselves to the union's principles and to redouble our efforts for work in the vineyards of America.

"We can find a way to fashion the world in the image of peace and prosperity," he concluded.

Another speaker, Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer who related the past efforts of the union, urged endorsement of Pontiac Mayor Arthur J. Law to the U. S. Congress in the next election.

Following the meeting Law said that he is strongly deliberating whether to run against Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak) in the next election.

Rev. William J. Carolin, of St. Vincent DePaul Catholic Church, gave the invocation at the ceremony.

Charles S. Curry, president of the local, said that an invitation is extended the public the next three days from hours of 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., when open house will be held at the new hall.

Rochester Airman in Plane Disaster

Force doctor flew to the spot in a blinding snowstorm Saturday. They were grounded overnight when the weather worsened.

Hudson struck off then on the arduous trek through 3½-foot snow to reach the crash scene. Sheldon, meanwhile, flew his trio of survivors yesterday to Anchorage, 75 miles southwest of here. The others were picked up by helicopter.

Hudson said the survivors told him the plane exploded as it was flying between Air Force bases at Anchorage and Fairbanks, some 200 miles north of here.

There was no warning, he quoted the survivors. They were "riding along smoothly one minute and the next thing they knew they were floating down to earth." All the men were wearing parachutes, he said.

* * *

None of the survivors was seriously injured.

The Air Force identified the six as:

Airman 3.C. Rupert C. Pratt, son of Mrs. Glenna Morrison, Salt Rock, W.Va.; Airman 1.C. Edward J. Fox, husband of Mrs. Florence Fox, West Utica, N.Y.; Airman 2.C. Huey T. Eisenhower Boosts 'Back to God' Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has given his support to what he called "a movement to increase our awareness of God in our daily lives."

He took part yesterday in a radio-television broadcast sponsored by the American Legion as part of its "Back to God" program.

Earlier the President and Mrs. Eisenhower attended special Abraham Lincoln services at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, sitting in the Civil War President's pew.

In his brief broadcast talk, Eisenhower said the history of America showed that the nation in times of trial turns "to God for new courage and peace of mind." He reviewed instances of religious influence in American affairs, from the Mayflower Compact to the World War II instance of four chaplains going down with a stricken transport after helping others escape.

Hal Boyle Says:

Ex-Operatic Tenor Now Has Own Television Show

But at 68 Giovanni Martinelli, one of the great voices of our century, began a bright new career as a salesman.

He now sells what he used to sing—opera.

"I am a bridge now," he said, "a bridge of explanation."

It is really his greatest role. In his lifetime as one of the finest tenors within living memory he estimates he has sung to some 7,000 audiences around the world.

Today, each Sunday, he capsules in "Opera Cameo," a Dumont television network feature, the plots of operas he used to sing himself. His job is to explain what the vocal artists are yodeling about.

Giovanni, sometimes called Joe, was and is a tremendous artist, a nice chunky guy with flaming blue eyes and a big mop of white, white hair. It is ironic that now he can reach more people with a conversational tone than he could in the days when he could match a high note with any man in the tenor industry. But Joe doesn't mind.

"It is enough for me that more people now love opera," he said.

Tenors are generally as jealous of each other as women. Joe may have his jealousies, but in a talk with him I couldn't discover them. He sang dramatic roles for the Metropolitan Opera for 34 consecutive years.

"To be a singer is to be serious," Joe said. "I never smoked, I drank only enough to be comfortable with my friends—a little glass of wine.

"I learned another thing in the 40 years I sang—never to walk my worries home. Singing is a very difficult career. It must be realized, if one is to enjoy this world, that its pleasures must be enjoyed parsimoniously. They must be disciplined."

When I asked Joe who he thought was the greatest singer he had knowledge of, he named the only man I have never heard another tenor admit he could equal.

"I can only say he is a man who has been a long, long time in heaven—Enrico Caruso," he said. "I will not discuss his voice. You must agree that all tenors have a voice. But Caruso could put his heart in his voice as no other man ever could, and those who deliberately try to do what he could do can only be an imitation, for even if they had his voice—and they don't — they cannot match his heart."

"After all, we are human—not just an instrument," he said. "Singing is an intimate pleasure. You must enjoy it yourself, first, if you are to communicate it to others.

"But it is hard. When is the time to quit? It is not really the voice that goes. It is the heart that gives us the advice to slow down. There comes a time when the heart says, 'take it easy, Giovanni, take it easy.'"

A smile came over Martinelli's pale, expressive face, and he said:

"On television I am in a spotlight, not behind the footlights. It is new to me but beautiful. No, I have not retired. I talk, but a singer sometimes does not like to hear his voice when he is talking.

"Yes, I am happy. I still love to sing for those who want me to . . . but only a few songs . . . only a few . . . then the heart says, 'No, Giovanni, no more.'"

Californians Suffer Heat, Wind, Quakes

SAN DIEG, Calif. (AP)—Hot, high wind pushed the thermometer to a record 88 in San Diego yesterday in a gusty blow that toppled scores of trees—one on the home of tennis Queen Maureen Connolly.

There was also a light earthquake.

The tree damaged the roof of the Connolly home. Miss Connolly was away playing tennis.

Other objects tossed about by the gusts included television antennae, street signs, a chicken house and an automobile that was rolled from its parking place over a 30-foot embankment.

City lifeguards estimated 10,000 people at beaches.

Los Angeles also had a record 88-degree temperature.

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Thirty representatives of service clubs, civic groups and police officials held their second meeting yesterday to determine what can be done about a rising juvenile problem in the city.

Spurred by a common feeling that something must be done about youthful rowdyism and delinquency, they referred the need for additional facilities and services for youth to the Council on Community Services.

This year-old group, sponsored by the United Foundation, can ask financial aid and professional services from the UF if they feel it is necessary.

Council President Charles Kass said he could not accept the project for the group, but would call a meeting immediately.

Police Lt. Henry Timm, head of the police Youth Bureau, outlined three recreational projects he felt would be fruitful:

1—An artifical ice skating rink, to be operated from October to March.

2—A roller rink, possibly in a vacant former bowling alley near the center of the city.

3—Facilities for teen-agers to work on cars and motors.

Representatives of the service clubs pledged both financial aid and manpower hours to help the situation. A meeting was scheduled for two weeks hence to hear the report of the Council on Community Services.

Consider Delay in Parking Lot

Birmingham Group May Go Over Assessment Financing Plan

BIRMINGHAM — A possible year-and-a-half delay before the city could participate in financing an off-street parking lot through the issuance of revenue bonds, will be brought out at tonight's city commission meeting.

An alternate method of financing through special assessment, which could be done in the immediate future, also will be discussed.

City Manager Donald C. Egbert will recommend installation of aeration equipment in the city's sewage treatment plant, along with further improvements, as an alternate to joint action.

The city has been ordered by the State Water Resources Commission to abate Rouge River pollution, as has Bloomfield Hills, and Southfield and Bloomfield Townships.

work, but he was acquitted on grounds that he had received no royalties from the book's sale.

Among the novels he considered his best were "Blackguard," "Crazy Man," "Georgia May" and "Sixty Seconds." His verse included "Minna and Myself."

Acquaintances of Bodenheim and the Fagan woman said she became his third wife recently.

Police said a copy of a job application found in her effects stated she graduated from the University of Michigan, had been a reporter for the Washington (D. C.) Daily News from 1940 to 1941; a comparison shopper for Crowley-Milner, Detroit, in 1941 and 1942; a researcher for Newsweek magazine from 1943 through 1945; and a woman's page editor of the Lansing (Mich). News from 1945 to 1947.

There is no such paper in Lansing. However, John R. Judd, publisher of the Michigan Veteran Review — a community newspaper popularly known as the South Lansing News—said a Ruth Fagan wrote a few stories for the paper while attending night school. Judd said she was never regularly employed.

Traffic Kills 19; 4 From Davison

Lapeer Man Also Dies in Flint Crash That Claims Lemin Family

By the Associated Press

Two tragic crashes — one claiming five lives and the other four—zoomed Michigan's weekend traffic deaths to 19.

A late Sunday night collision on Flint's outskirts killed four of one family and left the only survivor critically injured. A Lapeer man also died in this smashup.

Four persons died 24 hours earlier as one car rammed another near Parma, exploding the gasoline tank of one of the vehicles. Here, too, there was only one survivor and she was critically hurt.

A 14-months-old baby died on Parma's route 8 after eating sodium salicylate pills she found while playing in her mother's purse Saturday.

Victims of the crash on Flint's eastern outskirts were William M. Lemin, 28, his wife, Carole, 24; their daughters, Dawn, 2, and Deborah, 3 months, all of Davison, and Russell L. Bond, 26, of Lapeer.

Dawn's body was not discovered until two hours after the tragedy. Frantic relatives asked where she was. Rushing back to the scene, sheriff's deputies found her body in a snowbank 15 feet off the road.

The William Lemin family was wiped out, except for 4-year-old Janice, who is in Flint's Hurley Hospital in critical condition with a fractured skull.

Lemin's and Bond's automobiles hit with such terrific force that the front wheels of Bond's car were thrown into the front seat of his car. Bond was alone.

Carlyle Holk, 49, and Norman Fick, 40, both Detroiters, died en route home from an ice fishing trip when their car struck an icy patch on U.S. 23 and skidded 200 feet into the path of an oncoming auto. It happened five miles south of Standish last night. Three persons in the other car suffered only minor injuries.

Only survivor of the flaming Parma crash was Mrs. Phyllis Scholz, 26, of Jackson. Dead were her husband Richard, 29; Mervin Struckman, Jr., 29; his wife, and George L. Strain, 24.

Struckman's wife and Strain were killed instantly. Scholz and Struckman died early Sunday morning of their injuries. Mrs. Scholz was in critical condition at Albion's Sheldon Memorial Hospital.

A 14-month-old baby, Betty Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hill of Route 8, Parma, died after eating sodium salicylate pills she found in her mother's purse Saturday.

Leonard W. Baldwin, 70, and his wife, Caroline, 58 of Cedar Springs were killed Saturday when their car collided head-on with a pickup truck south of Greenville. Police said Baldwin crossed the center line on a hill.

Bernard D. Murray, 23, of Detroit's suburban Redford Township was killed when a car in which he was riding skidded off the Ann Arbor Trail near Inkster Road Friday night. The car crashed into a tree.

John Keapke, 81, of Detroit was killed when he was struck by a car near his Detroit home Friday night.

Mrs. Molly D. Smith, 48, Dearborn died Sunday of injuries she received when the car she was riding in went out of control, striking a parked truck.

Dewey Gordon, 30, of Detroit, was killed Sunday when he was struck by a car while crossing a street.

Clyde Stewart, 34, of Pontiac, died Sunday of injuries suffered earlier in a Pontiac collision. Edward R. Duncan, 19, driver of the other car, was held for investigation of manslaughter.

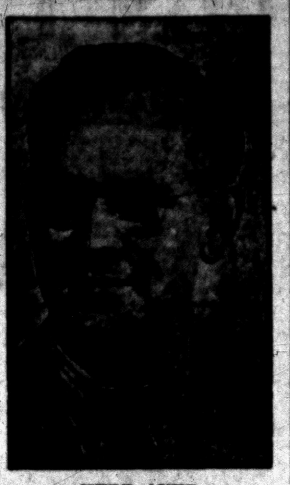

A woman fatally injured when she stepped into Telegraph Road just north of Detroit Friday night was identified today as Mrs. Catherine T. Gordon of Detroit. Her car was parked nearby when the accident happened.

in a statement that Republicans would re-elect Senator Homer Ferguson (R-Mich) and would snatch the House seats now held by Reps. Louis C. Rabaut and John Lesinski Jr., in the Detroit area.

Neil Staebler, chairman of the State Democratic Central Committee was contemptuous of Feikens' claims and declared in a speech of his own:

"There is a phenomenon in politics which we used to call the lunatic fringe. This fringe is now draped over nearly the whole Republican elephant.

"The distinguished Republican Senator Margaret Smith of Maine has called the MacCarthy wing of the Republican party 'a party of fear, ignorance, bigotry and smear.'

"It will be a test of Republicans in Michigan to see if they agree with Senator McCarthy or Senator Smith."

Until Keyes took off, there was only one announced candidate for the GOP gubernatorial nomination — State Treasurer D. Hale Brake.

No one has announced on the Democratic side, although Republicans repeatedly have prodded Democratic Gov. Williams to announce either for re-election or for Senator.

Three Persons Injured as Car Skids, Crashes

"'All we need is confidence,'" they say, to keep our country from falling into another depression. That's what Hoover said in 1929 when actually a depression was just around the corner," said Reuther.

"There is no need for unemployment in our country, the richest in the world," he continued. "Depressions are man-made, they just don't happen. Therefore, what can be made, also can be prevented.

"There is enough work in America to keep everyone busy. I am told that 345,000 new school classrooms are needed in America.

"They have even put our schools on the swing-shift basis because we lack the much needed school rooms. Approximately 800 thousand new beds are needed in crowded hospitals and many other needs are confronting us which can create more work."

He told the huge crowd, jamming the new assembly hall, that school expenditures totaled $5 billion in 1953.

"But we spent more than that figure in one week for war than in the whole year for education," he said.

He said that crime and juvenile delinquency in the United States has soared beyond former levels because of inadequate living conditions.

"Our children are forced to play in slum areas which breed all types of crimes," he said. "Instead of building better homes and districts, we are forced to erect more jails.

Reuther warned that Communism builds its power on poverty.

"Through the wrinkles of empty bellies, communism moves up in the back alleys and to the hearts of men.

"We are not stopping in America until the poorest conditions are wiped out. During wartime there are always jobs, why not in peace time?" he added.

He called for the "rededication of ourselves to the union's principles and to redouble our efforts for work in the vineyards of America.

"We can find a way to fashion the world in the image of peace and prosperity," he concluded.

Another speaker, Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer who related the past efforts of the union, urged endorsement of Pontiac Mayor Arthur J. Law to the U. S. Congress in the next election.

Following the meeting Law said that he is strongly deliberating whether to run against Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak) in the next election.

Rev. William J. Carolin, of St. Vincent DePaul Catholic Church, gave the invocation at the ceremony.

Charles S. Curry, president of the local, said that an invitation is extended the public the next three days from hours of 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., when open house will be held at the new hall.

Eisenhower Boosts 'Back to God' Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has given his support to what he called "a movement to increase our awareness of God in our daily lives."

He took part yesterday in a radio-television broadcast sponsored by the American Legion as part of its "Back to God" program.

Earlier the President and Mrs. Eisenhower attended special Abraham Lincoln services at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, sitting in the Civil War President's pew.

In his brief broadcast talk, Eisenhower said the history of America showed that the nation in times of trial turns "to God for new courage and peace of mind." He reviewed instances of religious influence in American affairs, from the Mayflower Compact to the World War II instance of four chaplains going down with a stricken transport after helping others escape.

Hal Boyle Says:

Ex-Operatic Tenor Now Has Own Television Show

But at 68 Giovanni Martinelli, one of the great voices of our century, began a bright new career as a salesman.

He now sells what he used to sing—opera.

"I am a bridge now," he said, "a bridge of explanation."

It is really his greatest role. In his lifetime as one of the finest tenors within living memory he estimates he has sung to some 7,000 audiences around the world.

Today, each Sunday, he capsules in "Opera Cameo," a Dumont television network feature, the plots of operas he used to sing himself. His job is to explain what the vocal artists are yodeling about.

Giovanni, sometimes called Joe, was and is a tremendous artist, a nice chunky guy with flaming blue eyes and a big mop of white, white hair. It is ironic that now he can reach more people with a conversational tone than he could in the days when he could match a high note with any man in the tenor industry. But Joe doesn't mind.

"It is enough for me that more people now love opera," he said.

Tenors are generally as jealous of each other as women. Joe may have his jealousies, but in a talk with him I couldn't discover them. He sang dramatic roles for the Metropolitan Opera for 34 consecutive years.

"To be a singer is to be serious," Joe said. "I never smoked, I drank only enough to be comfortable with my friends—a little glass of wine.

"I learned another thing in the 40 years I sang—never to walk my worries home. Singing is a very difficult career. It must be realized, if one is to enjoy this world, that its pleasures must be enjoyed parsimoniously. They must be disciplined."

When I asked Joe who he thought was the greatest singer he had knowledge of, he named the only man I have never heard another tenor admit he could equal.

"I can only say he is a man who has been a long, long time in heaven—Enrico Caruso," he said. "I will not discuss his voice. You must agree that all tenors have a voice. But Caruso could put his heart in his voice as no other man ever could, and those who deliberately try to do what he could do can only be an imitation, for even if they had his voice—and they don't — they cannot match his heart."

"After all, we are human—not just an instrument," he said. "Singing is an intimate pleasure. You must enjoy it yourself, first, if you are to communicate it to others.

"But it is hard. When is the time to quit? It is not really the voice that goes. It is the heart that gives us the advice to slow down. There comes a time when the heart says, 'take it easy, Giovanni, take it easy.'"

A smile came over Martinelli's pale, expressive face, and he said:

"On television I am in a spotlight, not behind the footlights. It is new to me but beautiful. No, I have not retired. I talk, but a singer sometimes does not like to hear his voice when he is talking.

"Yes, I am happy. I still love to sing for those who want me to . . . but only a few songs . . . only a few . . . then the heart says, 'No, Giovanni, no more.'"

Californians Suffer Heat, Wind, Quakes

SAN DIEG, Calif. (AP)—Hot, high wind pushed the thermometer to a record 88 in San Diego yesterday in a gusty blow that toppled scores of trees—one on the home of tennis Queen Maureen Connolly.

There was also a light earthquake.

The tree damaged the roof of the Connolly home. Miss Connolly was away playing tennis.

Other objects tossed about by the gusts included television antennae, street signs, a chicken house and an automobile that was rolled from its parking place over a 30-foot embankment.

City lifeguards estimated 10,000 people at beaches.

Los Angeles also had a record 88-degree temperature.

Township Buys Fire Equipment

CLARKSTON — Independence Township has purchased its first new fire truck in 14 years.

Equipped to township board specifications, the $4,325 truck was bought from the Howe Fire Apparatus Co. of Indiana.

On April 5, voters will be asked to approve a two-year township tax of one mill per thousand dollars assessed valuation, as equalized to provide funds for remodeling the new fire station and financing the truck.

Remodeling is already under way on the fire house and three new overhead doors are on order. After the installation of new wiring, the building is expected to be ready for occupancy.

Milford Teenagers Will Soon Enjoy Supervised Activities at New Canteen

MILFORD—Teenagers here will soon have a place of their own for fun and recreation through the efforts of Dr. Earl Book, promoter of the project "Teen Canteen."

Dr. Book, a chiropractor, purchased the old Legion Hall building some time ago for the sole purpose of converting it into a supervised activities center for youngsters.

After seven months of remodeling, most of it by Book and several other interested residents, the building will soon be ready for a grand opening. Its name will be the Book Building and it will be operated as the Milford Activities Center.

Creation of a community center has been long-awaited in Milford. Efforts to promote such a project were abandoned two months ago by the Monday Literary Club after several years because of public apathy.

Under the present project, teenagers will use the building three nights a week. Saturdays, a party will be held with a night club atmosphere, an amateur floor show, waiters and tables lit by candles. Refreshments will be soft drinks and snacks prepared by the youngsters themselves.

The new activities center will also be for young couples under 21, according to Dr. Book.

On other days and nights of the week, organizations may rent the building for parties and meetings. Already several groups have applied for dates.

Games of volley ball, table tennis, shuffleboard, and roller skating and dancing will also be offered as activities. Music will be provided for skating and dancing.

Supervision of the youth center will be controled by a council of 12 citizens. The teenagers themselves will have their own "police" board of 12. Adults will also act as counselors for the young people.

Serving on the adult council will be Dr. Robert Lawrence, Norman Ball, Mrs. Ward Mancour, Vic Munson, Frank Fox, Hershal Krebs, Earl Whipple, Mrs. Howard Heintzelman, Lowell Newcomb, Everett Gillow, Charles Newell and Mrs. Earl Book.

Teenagers will pay membership dues for activities they wish to participate in. All other organizations using the building will pay a flat rental fee which will be turned over to the youth treasury for maintenance.

DR. EARL BOOK

Community Chest fund has loaned money to help get the center started, and several other organizations have promised their support. A professional athlete has also offered his services in teaching younger boys to box, and more services are being offered daily, according to Book.

UTICA (UP) — Packard Motor Co. announced today in Detroit that it will move its engine, automatic transmission and axle manufacturing operations to its 1,000,000 square foot plant here.

Fire Destroys Big Frick Barn

Blaze Fought 8 Hours but Hogs, Wheat, Farm Equipment Are Lost

LEONARD—Firemen lost a battle with high winds and flames last night as they fought for eight hours to save a large barn on the Elmer Frick farm, 451 Frick Rd.

Destroyed when the 36 by 68 foot structure burned to the ground were 70 hogs, a stock of government-owned wheat, a tractor and other farm equipment. The hogs and equipment were owned by Herman Weigold Jr. of East Leonard road, who farmed the property.

Addison Township firemen responded to the alarm at 7:15 p.m. yesterday and stayed at the scene until 3:30 a.m. today.

While failing to save the barn, they were successful in preventing the flames from spanning the 100 yards between the burning building and the Frick home, garage, silo and corn crib. Strong winds hampered them.

According to Mrs. Frick, the fire started in the basement of the barn, but its exact origin is unknown. Amount of damage has not been estimated.

Ike Calls National Meeting to Promote Traffic Safety

Determined to reduce the nation's heavy annual toll of traffic deaths and injuries, President Eisenhower has called a White House Conference on Highway Safety, to be held in Washington on Feb. 17, 18 and 19.

Participants will represent seven basic groups: agriculture, business, labor, women, public officials, media of public information, and civic organizations.

The President has invited all governors to cooperate, and has asked each to designate a group of outstanding citizens, including representatives of each of the basic categories, as delegates from the state.

Purpose of the conference will be to stimulate organized public action in every state, to increase the safety of streets and highways by fuller utilization of measures which have been proven to be effective in reducing accidents.

Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks is general chairman of the conference, assisted by Robert B. Murray, Jr., under secretary of commerce for transportation. Director is Rear Admiral Harold Blaine Miller (U. S. Navy, retired), director of information of the American Petroleum Institute.

The Conference on highway safety had its origin last July 28, when the President invited 28 business leaders to the White House to discuss what could be done about the street and highway accident problem.

Pointing out that yearly traffic fatalities far exceed the total of American military personnel killed in Korea; and that, in addition, the annual money loss is $3,750,000,000, the President called this sheer waste, and urged the group to give leadership in promoting corrective action.

Following last June's White House meeting, the business group set a goal for 1954: to reduce the nation-wide highway toll by 40 per cent.

This would mean at least 15,000 lives saved, and 500,000 spared from injury, including 40,000 kept from being permanently maimed.

Mental Health Meeting Opens

Williams Tells Society That Prevention of Ills Is of Chief Concern

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's Gov. Williams urged governors and representatives of 44 states today "to launch the most determined attack ever made against ailments of the human mind."

Keynoting the Governor's conference on mental health, Williams told the first meeting that the job of society now was to keep people out of mental institutions.

The two-day conference will hear talks by nearly a dozen mental experts from the nations' top institutions.

Williams told the governors that society had passed through two stages in the battle against mental illness.

First, he said, society constructed "somber structures with iron bars on the windows, places more like jails" for its mentally ill.

Then came the second stage in which people realized that mental illness was curable, and hospitals were built. The governor said:

"Now we stand on the threshold of a third phase in our ancient war against this form of human misfortune. We are going to try to keep people out of mental institutions," he said.

"We are gathered here today for the purpose primarily of considering ways and means to make progress in preventing mental illness, and in effecting rapid cure of mental illness when it does occur," he said.

The force of the crash pushed the Ruggles vehicle into the oncoming car driven by Mrs. Ruth E. McClurg, 38, of 6740 Commerce Rd., Commerce Township.

Gretter was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for forehead cuts.

Russian Asks U.S. Asylum

Despite the secrecy surrounding the incident, there is good reason to believe that a Russian spy in Japan has asked and received U.S. political asylum.

The Russian in question is YURI ALEXANDROVICH RASTOVOROV, second secretary of Russia's diplomatic mission to Tokyo. RASTOVOROV disappeared on the eve of his return trip to Moscow where he had been summoned for "bungling" his espionage assignment in Japan.

Russian officials in Tokyo immediately charged that RASTOVOROV was kidnaped by U. S. intelligence agents. There also were reports that the Russian had been taken to Okinawa where it is said he told our authorities all he knows about Soviet espionage, and that, reportedly, is plenty.

Our officials in Japan have made no comment on the kidnaping charge. But a high source revealed that RASTOVOROV, apparently fearing he would be liquidated, fled for asylum to the protective arms of a special U.S. intelligence unit.

In Washington a parallel is seen between this case and that of Igor Gouzenko His flight in 1945 from the Russian embassy at Ottawa resulted in the smashing of a Soviet spy ring in Canada. But Rastovorov is considered an even bigger fish than Gouzenko who was only a code clerk.

After the occupation ended, RASTOVOROV lost his diplomatic status because Russia didn't sign the Japanese peace treaty. But that seems to have been no handicap as members of the Russian mission were permitted by the Japanese to go wherever they wished.

While this undoubtedly made espionage work of the Russians much easier, it also seems to have aided RASTOVOROV in planning his breakaway. If developments support the rumors that RASTOVOROV fled to escape liquidation, it's a safe guess that Russia never will withdraw its charge of kidnaping.

Sewage Problem Acute

At a meeting called by Oakland County Drain Commissioner RALPH A. MAIN, attention was directed to the serious and growing sewage problem in the area surrounding Pontiac.

Discussion brought out the fact that in Waterford Township alone more than 35,000 persons are dependent on septic tanks and the problem daily is becoming more acute.

Other statements revealed that there have been complaints about pollution of Silver, Scott, Watkins and Elizabeth Lakes. According to Waterford Township Supervisor LLOYD L. ANDERSON, the situation is bad and it's getting worse fast.

To deal with the problem State officials suggest that Pontiac and surrounding townships build a second sewage plant on the Clinton River east of here.

Such a suggestion just after Pontiac has enlarged its sewage plant at a cost of $800,000, isn't as surprising as many may think. The truth is that capacity of the enlarged plant is only sufficient to take care of Pontiac's peak demand.

This problem is an inescapable result of the suburban area's rapid growth and the cost of solving it is part of the price of that growth. Certainly conditions warrant co-operative study now to determine how best to provide this essential service.

Hands Off a Good Law

Just in case anyone should doubt our Governor's persistence, we cite his perennial demand for repeal of the so called recovery clause in the Old Age Assistance law.

Each time Governor WILLIAMS has demanded elimination of this section, the Legislature quite properly has refused to comply. The facts are not only that the Governor hopes to gain political advantage by advocating repeal, but that the clause in question is important to all taxpayers.

It enables the State to recover from the estates of OAA recipients the amount paid them in direct relief. This is done without in any way penalizing such recipients during their lifetime.

Recovery of this money plus the effect of the clause in persuading heirs of OAA eligibles to keep them off the relief rolls, reportedly has saved the State millions of dollars. Old Age Assistance payments are in an entirely different catagory from Social Security benefits, which are a matter of right.

Despite the Governor's arguments in favor of repeal, the fact remains that many persons would not contribute to the support of their needy parents if it weren't for this recovery clause.

In the interests of taxpayers generally, it seems to us the Legislature has no choice but to refuse again to repeal this section of the act.

Karl Peterson Says Juveniles Not Only People Who Destroy Private Property

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

I realize that juvenile delinquency is at its peak but a lot of destruction is caused by older people as well.

By this I mean the disregard that others have for property which is not their own. A man can spend from $10 to $50 building an ice shanty for enjoying his leisure hours fishing, but due to lack of consideration on the part of the other party it is impossible to do so.

A week ago a friend put his shanty on Crystal Lake and the following day when he arrived in hopes of enjoying his free time he found the door broken off, sides kicked through and the equipment that had been inside was put through the ice.

If this is what people call being a good neighbor I am afraid I do not understand the meaning of the golden rule, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

Many children are being brought up with this rule repeated to them over and over but how are they expected to follow it when they see for themselves things such as this being done? I ask, is this what we call being a good neighbor?

Reds in Government, Business Fears Two Big Issues for Fall Campaigning

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — If events, like a horse, could be made to stand still, the Democrats and Republicans already would have their main issues for the 1954 congressional election in November.

* * *

The Democrats are hammering on the downturn in business which has occurred under the Eisenhower administration.

And the Republicans are working overtime on the subject of Communists-in-government under the Democrats.

By election time, business conditions may have leveled off, as administration economists say they will. If they don't, the Democrats will have a talking point probably overshadowing everything else.

And the issue of Communists-in-government may be pushed into the background by other developments before then.

For instance, by November Congress will have finished this year's work on Eisenhower's program, which affects practically everyone; taxes, social security, unions, business, tariffs.

The President himself has said that if his party doesn't put over a progressive program it doesn't deserve to win. The congressional score on his program will provide plenty of election issues.

But at this time, before Congress even begins to act on most of the program, Communists-in-government and the economic reverse have given the politicians on both sides something to talk about.

For 20 years, beginning in the 1932 campaign, the Democrats banged away at the fact that the big depression began under the Republicans, which may explain one reason for their hitting so hard on the downturn now.

When some Republicans reacted with the charge that talk of a recession is unethical and almost un-American, it may have been an indication that recession talk was getting under their skin.

And although Eisenhower himself said, when asked about this, that everyone is entitled to his own opinion, he, too, denounced the "prophets of gloom and doom."

Over the weekend Sherman Adams, former governor of New Hampshire and now Eisenhower's assistant, said Democrats and "left-wingers" are trying to "foist" a "Fear Deal" on the people.

That the Republicans are meeting recession talk head on so fast can be considered both a mark of their aggressiveness and a sign that this is going to be a rough political year.

The man Brownell twice tried to steer into the presidency, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, stepped up the tough talk not only about Truman but Democrats in general.

In a December speech, Dewey told a Hartford, Conn., audience that for the rest of their lives they must associate the words "Truman and Democrat" with "diplomatic failure, military failure, death and tragedy."

* * *

Now Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), who has been making Communists-in-government an issue for four years and wants to keep it one, is going around the country saying that while there are some exceptions among the Democrats their party has tagged itself as standing for "government of, by and for Communists . . ."

Gloria Is Disgraced by Her Mother's Reputation

Gloria's mother is so obsessed with a desire to remain forever young and flirtatious, that she doesn't care what damage she does to Gloria. This is not primarily a sex case, though it may look that way at first glance.

By George W. Crane

Case K-319: Gloria G., aged 17, is a high school senior.

"Dr. Crane, I don't know what to do about Mother," she began, and tears welled up in her eyes.

"I hate to admit such a thing but Mother has a bad reputation with men. However, Daddy doesn't seem to realize that anything is wrong.

"But she runs around with different men and often comes home drunk. We know, too, that she has been immoral with different men.

"I urged Daddy to move, which we did last year, but Mother started all over again in our new neighborhood.

"I have two married sisters. They lived down Mother's bad reputation and both of them have wonderful husbands.

"But it is difficult for me because boy friends always try to get fresh right away, thinking I am like Mother.

"I slap the boy and tell him he can't call on me again till he learns how to behave. But is there any way I could show Mother the harm she is doing to all of our family?"

I tried to encourage Gloria in her own virtuous behavior, but didn't tell her that mother is a very difficult problem.

For her mother is now 40 and possessed of a phobia against growing old.

In her terror about birthdays, she seeks oblivion at the taverns, where she gets "stewed". Then she isn't at all particular about her male escorts. Any old "goat" will do.

While half sober, of course, she prefers younger men and to tempt their interests, she daubs on paint and perfume in big gobs.

She is entirely wrapped up in herself, with little thought for anybody else, even including her own children. Such a person is a psychopathic personality.

She became a cosmetic addict in the middle teens. Many other girls also grow idolatrous at that time, for they worship unduly at the shrine of a pretty face.

Ultimately, they become so addicted to admiring their own reflection in the mirror that they think of nothing else except the adulation they can command.

They constantly play to men, subconciously and consciously. They crave flirtations and male whistles. They are elated when men make passes at them.

They live chiefly for masculine attention. So they become terror-stricken at the thought of growing old. Their 40th birthday scares them into hiding behind a liquor bottle.

During the middle teens, young people are capable of high idealism. They are easily recruited for missionary activity, and want to make the world a better place in which to live.

But thousands of teenagers get into selfish eddies, off this wholesome main current of idealism. As a result, they become enamoured of self.

By the time they are 40, they are then such hardened egoists that even a Billy Sunday can scarcely crack the surface of their selfishness.

A psychopath has little concern for his own children or his parents or anybody else save himself.

And that's the trouble with Gloria's mother. Religious appeals and talk about her maternal obligation to her daughters, doesn't phase her.

Frequently, erring wives can be won back by husbands. But Gloria's mother is not just a normal woman with maladjustment in the sexual realm. Her problem is chronic selfishness that demands men's attention to flatter her vanity. It's much like addiction to dope.

Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 3 cent stamped, addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER
International News Service

It's all right for a peace-inflicted world to dilute its snuff with uranium. But we would like two weeks' notice of a sneeze.

I'll quote from this column ten years ago. "Our scientists say the cyclotron is a harmless machine that will rock the baby to sleep, imitate bird calls and cook a nice cup of coffee.

"The war in the Far East proved all nations can imitate and use our weapons. They have the patience of a jammed weather vane.

"Don't buzz me that any potential world power is going to cook with atomic power. The signing of treaties means nothing in an age where there are triggers on fountain pens."

Strange that 10 years later we should be getting ready to make a three-point landing on an international pitch-fork.

The very first power we squeezed out of that fissioned essence of progress was put to a very domestic use. Just a homelike submarine that will cruise underwater around the world without making a bubble.

Something tells me we don't intend to share that secret with any foreign powers, friendly neighbors or mermaids.

If we do we are silly enough to have our hats made in a kite factory.

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

A good many people who should know better think coronary thrombosis is some dire happening that calls for investigation by the coroner.

Right and left coronary arteries stem from the great artery (aorta) close to the heart and distribute blood to the heart wall through many branches.

They received the name coronary because they cover the heart like a crown (crona).

Thrombus is blood clot. Nature's way to stop bleeding and start repair or healing of injury. When bone breaks, the fragments bleed, clot forms around the fracture, later becomes cartilage and finally callus, new bone.

Sometime blood clots when there has been no wound or injury, as in vein or artery where circulation is slow or where blood stagnates.

This is called thrombosis—the -osis suffix signifying abnormal, disease.

Thrombosis occurs most frequently in the leg, where circulation in the veins slows down or the blood tends to stagnate because of (1) prolonged confinement to bed, (2) gravity, (3) varicosity (swollen veins), (4) general weakness or enfeeblement, (5) infrequent change of posture, (6) neglect of exercise or (7) shallow breathing.

The condition popularly called "milk leg" is a thrombosis which occurs days or weeks after childbirth.

That's all you need to know or are likely to learn about the nature, symptoms, signs or treatment of thrombosis, from me, at any rate. This is a health column, not a medical emporium.

However, it is good for everybody's health to know how to prevent thrombosis.

The best preventive is natural breathing. That's belly breathing. Any one, feeble or vigorous, young or old, physically active or bedridden may and should practice belly breathing at least night and morning better three or four times a day, as directed in Little Lesson 21, How to Breathe, (25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope).

Regular practice of belly breathing helps to correct the bad habit of chest breathing which most Americans have acquired from the misguided attempt to develop pouter pigeon chest, as exemplified in military schools. Chesty breathing is invariably shallow breathing.

To understand how belly or natural breathing improves circulation you must have elementary knowledge of anatomy and physiology—which I can't impart in the space available here.

So, until you learn something about the way the heart valves, valves in the veins and the diaphragm work, perhaps you will take my word for it, that every time you inflate your belly (bellows) you pump more blood back to the right side of the heart, whence it goes to the lungs to unload carbon dioxide and take on fresh oxygen.

The next best preventive is simple exercise, suited, of course, to the capability of the individual.

Snch exercises as I recommend in the pamphlet on Varicose Veins, available on written request (no clipping, please) if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Reuther Against Mexican Labor

Union Leader Opposes Importation of Workers From Below Border

WASHINGTON (AP) — CIO President Walter P. Reuther urged Congress today to reject legislation for revising recruiting of Mexican farm labor without an agreement with Mexico.

Reuther said operation of the program, conducted for about two weeks after negotiations with Mexico broke down last month, would increase unemployment, depress wages and working conditions of Americans and aggravate problems of subversive infiltration, crime, dope traffic and disease.

And he contended the program already has "gone far toward wiping out overnight much of the international friendship that has been built up through the good neighbor policy during the last 20 years."

His arguments were presented in testimony prepared for the House Agriculture Committee, now considering a bill to authorize the recruitment program.

The CIO chief said the policies for recruiting Mexican workers "aid the large corporation farms almost exclusively" at the expense of "family farmers who try to raise their crops under working conditions up to U. S. standards of labor."

He quoted Archbishop Robert E. Lucey of San Antonio as writing:

"The Mexican national may be paid 50 cents an hour, with a shack to live in, the wetback (illegal entrant) will work for 20 or 30 cents an hour and live in the brush. An American family, regardless of low living standards, cannot survive on 50 cents an hour."

Hughes Offers to Buy Rest of RKO Stock

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Howard Hughes, holder of the controlling interest in RKO Pictures Corp., has announced an offer to buy out the rest of the stockholders for 23½ million dollars.

In a letter to the corporation yesterday, he said the sum represents $6 a share for all stock except his. The stock closed Friday on the New York Stock Exchange at $2.87.

The film producer, also an industrialist and plane builder, offered to purchase all assets of RKO Pictures for $23,489,478 in cash. There are 3,914,913 shares of RKO stock outstanding. Hughes' 1,262,120 shares are exempt from the offer.

Hughes said the offer was subject to acceptance by a duly constituted RKO officer by Feb. 15, and approval by a majority of the RKO stockholders, other than himself, by March 30. The payments would be made during the 60-day period following adoption by the purchase-offer resolution.

"I have been sued by certain of the stockholders and accused of responsibility for losses to the corporation," Hughes' letter stated, adding that he desires all stockholders to receive more for their shares than they were worth when he bought into the company.

'Finding a Faith' Is Topic at Inter-Church Meeting

The Rev. John D. Rose spoke at the last of the preaching services of the Inter-Church Fellowship Sunday evening at Central Methodist Church. He is pastor of Townsite Community Church in Southfield Township.

The last of the series will be at First Presbyterian Church next Sunday when the Festival Chorus will present its annual musical program.

The speaker used "Finding a Faith" for his subject and based his remarks on the 11th chapter of Hebrews.

He observed that the only way to face the problems and confused situations of the day is to find a faith that is sufficient.

"Most people today are so busy just getting that they do not have time to find a faith," he said, "consequently they are swayed this way and that. Many are too afraid they will not end up with the largest piece of pie, and are therefore tossed about by fears and doubts."

"Faith is an adventure, built on a sense of ethics and righteousness." It may be only as a "grain of mustard" to start but if it is nurtured by honest searching it will become a way of life," he said.

Honesty he said is not only the best policy, but it is the only policy, and if life is ordered on this pattern faith will grow and develop.

For example, he said, "world peace cannot arrive until as individuals we practice brotherhood.

"The way of hope and peace has no closed doors and is built by a faith," he said.

At 6 p. m. next Sunday, Dr. William P. Lemon of Ann Arbor will close his Bible expositions with dramatic readings from the Bible.

Cooperating in the musical festival will be choirs from All Saints Episcopal, Bethany Baptist, First Congregational, First Presbyterian, First and Central Methodist churches.

Lutheran Church of the Ascension had been cooperating in the preaching services.

Cost of Living Drops Slightly

Labor Statistics Bureau Finds Prices Decline Since October

WASHINGTON (UP) — The decline in the cost of living adds up to a total average saving since October of about $3 for the typical city family.

Average savings on "best buys" range from 10 cents on a dozen eggs and 30 cents on a dozen diapers to $10 on a muskrat fur coat and 5 per cent on a used car.

Between October and December, round steak dropped from an average of 93.4 cents to 90.2 cents a pound. The price of television sets, on an average, fell off 1½ per cent or $3.45 on a $229 table model. Bacon skidded more than 8 cents a pound.

These averages are the best available dollars-and-cents figures on the slight drop in the Bureau of Labor Statistics consumer price index from its record level in October.

Since the averages are a matter of statistics, individual families might find that they bear little relation to the way their own living costs have fluctuated over the period. But they illustrate why bureau economists characterize consumer prices in general as stabilized rather than going either up or down.

See Showdown on AFL Policy

Council Split on How to Settle Peacefully Any Jurisdictional Feuds

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL Executive Council appeared headed for a showdown today in a split among top leaders over a plan for settling territorial wars between rival AFL unions.

The council, opening the second week of a winter resort meeting, showed no outward signs of a split but leaders nevertheless were reported far apart.

The AFL convention last fall directed the council by resolution to establish some kind of machinery for peaceful settlement of jurisdictional feuds, or scraps between unions for the right to have workers perform particular types of work.

Such arguments over work rights have been the principal source of dissension between AFL unions for decades.

AFL President George Meany was reported pushing a plan to submit such disputes to a neutral board for binding decisions. However, Dave Beck, president of the teamsters union, the AFL's largest group with nearly 1½ million members, was reported opposed to any plan to make such findings mandatory.

Beck aims to double his union's membership within five years and is unwilling to set any fences up against his organizing new members in fields which other unions may claim as their own jurisdictional province.

Behind the Meany-Beck feud, which leaders have kept from flaring into the open, is a basic contest between the men for political supremacy within the AFL. Meany, however, was regarded as having more solid support within the council. Beck became a council member only six months ago.

Another probably controversial problem due for consideration today is an effort to set up standards governing union health and welfare funds.

The AFL chiefs were reported considering establishing a set of rules because Congress is preparing to launch a probe of union handling of such multimillion-dollar trust funds.

Claims Adlai the Man for '56

Eleanor Roosevelt in Detroit; Sees M'Carthy as Publicity Seeker

DETROIT (INS)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, in Detroit yesterday for a news conference and lecture, called Sen. McCarthy a publicity seeker, said she believes Adlai Stevenson will be the 1956 Democratic presidential nominee and refused comment on her son James' marital rift.

The widow of the late President countered McCarthy's assertion in a speech in Mt. Clemens, Saturday that the Democratic party is more than ever one of betrayal and treason by saying:

"It's the kind of exaggeration we're beginning to expect from the man. He disseminates only a little knowledge and a lot of fear—never explaining what communism is or how to defend against it.

"He likes to see his name in the headlines and doesn't care how he does it, even if it means throwing the nation into hysteria."

In her speech, Mrs. Roosevelt said that although the U. S. is unquestioned leader on economic and military levels, it is behind in moral and spiritual guidance.

On other subjects she said she favors giving 18-year-olds the right to vote, thinks the Democratic party is growing stronger and urges a deeper understanding of the peoples in the Far East and Africa, "areas that are just beginning to develop and which we know little about."

Enthusiasts Attend Virginia Forum

Study American Influence on Antiques

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — From 18th Century America came both the background and the backbone for today's valuable antiques, more than 600 collectors and specialists agreed during the 1954 Williamsburg Antiques Forum here.

America borrowed freely from Europe and the Orient, but it added something new which specialists termed the American touch.

These were points brought out in lectures and informal discussions during the two-week forum which closed here Friday. It drew antiques enthusiasts from 30 states to talk about antiques and a view them in the restored 18th Century buildings of this historic city.

The 1954 forum, the sixth annual event, was held under the joint sponsorship of Colonial Williamsburg and Antiques magazine. A second winter event—the 1954 Garden Symposium, also sponsored by Colonial Williamsburg, opens here Feb. 23.

During the first week of the forum, speakers took a look at 18th Century life as the background of antiques. "What's American About American Antiques" was the theme of the second week's session.

A Johns Hopkins University art professor, Dr. Richard Howland, found plenty of things American about antiques. He gave Americans credit for inventing front and back porches and the prefabricated houses.

In 1793, he said, a Boston builder had a booming business selling prefabricated houses to customers from Africa to the West Indies. Some of his best customers were American pioneers who found it convenient to pack a prefab house on their covered wagons.

Another speaker, Brooks Palmer of New York, thanked early American clock makers for the start of today's mass production system. A Boston clockmaker, also in the 1790s, invented a machine capable of turning out several clock parts at a time, Mr. Palmer said. The invention practically brought an end to custom-made clocks and helped put the British government in business 40 years later selling American clocks.

In the field of art, the situation was exactly the reverse, another speaker said. It was the British who found a ready American market for paintings, but many of the portraits were not genuine. Even museum officials were fooled into buying altered British portraits for real American ones, Mrs. Barbara N. Parker of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts told the forum.

America was using another comercial idea long before it was known in Europe, another speaker said. Ready-made clothing was made and sold by talented Indian tribes long before America was discovered, Miss Eleanor Fayerweather of the Rhode Island School of Design said.

By the 1800s, after an American invented the sewing machine, both United States and Europe borrowed the Indian idea.

There are so many things American about antiques that one of the speakers, a New York attorney, Henry N. Flynt, blamed his study of American history for his start as an antique collector.

Ann Arbor Gets Fancy at 77th Prom

U. of M. Collegians Enjoy Gala J-Hop Weekend

By VIRGINIA VOSS

ANN ARBOR — Fifteen-hundred couples danced in a beneath-the-sea setting Friday evening at the University of Michigan's biggest social event — the 77th annual J-Hop.

With the bands of Ray Anthony and Buddy Morrow alternating in huge white seashell bandstands, students forgot exams of the past and the classes to come in the exotic atmosphere of a ballroom appropriately decorated as the mythological lost city, Atlantis.

And the dance itself was only the beginning — a send-off for three days of dinners and parties that make up the traditional "J-Hop weekend." Taken all in all, J-Hop is as fancy as the University of Michigan ever gets.

Also in on the 9 p. m. to 4 a. m. festivities were Richard Begole of Birmingham with Ellen Snader from Clarkston, and Birmingham students Barbara Gibson and Marilea Kleinert with their respective dates, Frank Perkin and Don Harvey.

Wayside Gleaners Hear Reverend Noe

"Lost Opportunities" was the topic chosen by the Rev. Herbert Noe when he addressed members and guests of Wayside Gleaners Society of First Baptist Church Friday afternoon.

Mrs. T. N. Slosson sang two hymns, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Stout at the piano. Group singing was lead by Elizabeth Barnett. Mrs. Nellie Monroe gave devotions, closing with a prayer.

Mrs. John McCormick, Mrs. Robert Lee, Mrs. Andrew Mac Donald, Mrs. Mabel Wiser and Mrs John Cowe were appointed to a nominating committee in preparation for a March 5 election of officers. The group met in Barnett Chapel.

Describe Visit to the Holy Land

Mrs. Bruce Fleming and Mrs. Clarence Sterling of Detroit presented a film and talk on a recent trip to the Holy Land when the Women's Association of First Presbyterian Church met Friday afternoon in the church.

Stopping first in New York to take pictures of the United Nations, they traveled on to the birthplace of Jesus and the home of Mary and Joseph. They related that they spent five days on the Israel border and were in fear of being under gunfire.

Commenting on the architecture of the area, the speakers said that it has not changed much since the time of Christ. In many places cars are too large to pass through the narrow streets, they said, and the fields are still tilled by oxen-pulled plows.

Mrs. E. L. Guy conducted the worship service for the afternoon and Mrs. B. B. Kimball and Mrs. Guy led in the singing of hymns.

Mrs. Robert Boggs was program chairman for the day and Mrs. Ted Koella read a letter from Dr. Ivanoel Gibbons of the Philadelphia Hospital in Ambala, India.

GM Spells Gla-Mor for Florida

Motorama Brings Many Executives to Sunshine State

By ETHEL TOMBRINK

MIAMI—GM spelled Gla-Mor and General Motors in south Florida this past week.

Top executives of General Motors, the country's largest employer, converged on Miami for the 1954 Motorama. And their arrival brought on a whirl of parties, climaxed Friday evening with the invitational preview opening of the Motorama.

About 6,000 guests passed through the gates at the huge auditorium on Dinner Key to view the new streamlined beauties. On hand were business, industrial and social leaders of south Florida and prominent winter visitors.

Among large parties given for GM President Harlow Curtice and Mrs. Curtice and other executives were those hosted by Mr. and Mrs. John S. Knight of Miami Beach and Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Akers, Miami Beach and Washington.

The Knights entertained in their La Gorce Island home.

The spacious patio, flanked by emerald grass and tropical flowers in bloom, was the gathering spot on this balmy evening—Miamians thought it was a rather chilly evening—but for those down from wintry winds, it was a perfect night. "Entertainment" was singing of parodies dedicated to the various executives.

At the Knight home that evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Critchfield of Lake Angelus.

The Critchfields spent two days earlier in the week in Bimini. A little island just east of Miami in the Bahamas, Bimini is a favorite fishing spot.

And the Critchfields had some good luck too—each caught a good size amberjack. Second day they went bone fishing. That was Mrs. Critchfield's day—she caught two, but Mr. Critchfield snared none.

At the Knights' party, too, were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klingler of Bloomfield Hills, who came down from their home in Delray Beach where Mrs. Klingler has been vacationing.

With Mrs. Walter O. Briggs Sr. of Detroit at the Knight party was her daughter, Susan (Mrs. Everell) Fisher, who's vacationing here.

Getting in some sunshine whenever possible between Motorama duties was Bob Emerick. He and his wife stayed at the Sea View Hotel during the busy week. The Emericks moved to Birmingham last fall.

With the Curtices for pre-Motorama activities was their daughter, Mary Leila, a music student at the University of Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wiles of Flint (general manager of the Buick Division) were joined for a couple of days last weekend by their son, Gordon and daughter, Martha. She's a student at Randolph-Macon College in Lynchburg, Va.

There were other Michigan visitors in town recently. George Averill of Birmingham and Harold Feurstenan of Ludington, with a couple of friends, spent a while here concentrating on fishing. The group also took a boat trip across Lake Okeechobee, through rivers and canals, and on to the west coast of Florida.

Every day is beach day, almost, for Debra Hartwell and her brother, Gregory. They and their mother, Mrs. Lane Hartwell of Birmingham, are spending a few months in Coconut Grove.

Mrs. Hartwell is the daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Schuck of Coconut Grove, formerly of Pontiac.

And over in Cat Cay, Bahaman Island, just 30 minutes by air from Miami, are Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Matthaei Jr. of Birmingham and their two youngsters. The family is with his parents, the senior F. C. Matthaeis of Detroit.

To Equip Play Yard

Barbara Archer Becomes Bride of Stanley B. Jones

Flowers, ferns and candelabra decorated the altar of First Presbyterian Church Saturday evening when Barbara Ellen Archer became the bride of Stanley B. Jones Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Archer of Waldo avenue, and the Stanley B. Joneses of Glenwood avenue are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. William Marbach performed the 7 o'clock service.

A gown of white satin, fashioned in a princess style and trimmed in lace, was worn by the bride for the occasion. Her pearls were a gift of the bridegroom. Mother-of-pearl flowers formed her headpiece, and a white orchid which was centered with white roses and carnations composed her bouquet.

Mrs. Jerry Clement was matron of honor in a mint green gown with a bouquet of matching green carnations. Pat Short and Betty Wortman were bridesmaids, dressed similarly in blue and pink, respectively. Pale pink was worn by Cathy Feldman, flower girl, who carried a basket of mixed green, pink and blue flowers.

Mr. Clement was best man and ushers were Douglas Austin and Bob Angel.

The new Mrs. Jones later changed to a blue suit with brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet for the wedding trip north. On their return they will reside on Crescent drive.

The bride is a graduate of the Pontiac Business Institute and he attended Albion College.

Stop Those Horrid Lies

Your Skin is Telling About Your Age

Premature wrinkles around your eyes are often caused by skin dryness. Skin dryness is caused by your skin's inability to make enough lubricating cholesterols and esters. Penetrating Lanolin Plus Liquid used nightly as a cleanser—a few extra drops gently massaged into your skin before retiring—a few more drops used daily as a powder base constantly give your skin an abundance of cholesterols and esters. Result: dry skin is overcome—premature dry-skin wrinkles quickly fade, giving you a surprisingly younger look. Get your Lanolin Plus Liquid today. Use it tonight. Actually SEE a difference tomorrow morning. All this for but one dollar, plus tax.

But It May Take More Than One Try

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I keep getting wonderful ideas for gadgets that would help around the house," a woman will often tell me.

"But—outside of making them for myself," she continues, "nothing ever comes of them. It's impossible to get a patent, and I can't afford legal fees, so what's the use?"

Well, occasionally a woman does get such a good gadget that she makes a fortune out of it. But more often, she just gets a good deal of satisfaction, a feeling of accomplishment, and a little pin money from selling her gadget to friends or through her local store.

The Legal Aid Society, which has branches all over the country, is the place to inquire, if you think your idea or your gadget is patentable.

They will recommend a lawyer who will serve you at a very modest fee—it is based on your ability to pay.

But the mistake most women make is thinking that with no experience, they can come up, the the very first time, with a million-dollar idea.

Their ideas are usually typical of the inexperienced—something which, though it seems practical, has some big flaw which would stand in its way, and which accounts for the fact that nobody has ever "thought it up" and sold it before.

The successful women are the ones who really like gadgets, and keep making them if only to use up old materials or make their own work simpler. They keep at it, without the frenzy to sell the first one, and sooner or later, with their own experience behind them, they come up with something salable. But not ever on the first try!

If gadgets interest you, I'd recommend a book called "Gadgets Galore!" It is written by Dorsey Conners, who has toyed around with household gadgets for years, and who now has a television show based on them.

Miss Connors never misses a trick. She has a whole chapter of ideas for things you can make out of a plain coat hanger—everything from tie racks, hanging plant-holders to extra shelves.

There is another interesting chapter called "New Uses for Old Things," which will give you some entertaining and economical ideas. If you think gadgets are fascinating, and if you would like to have some basic training to see if you might eventually come up with a marketable one, take a look at "Gadgets Galore!".

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Older Folks Reminiscing Sound Like Bragging Kids

When writer Homer Croy, who originated as I did in rural Missouri, comes anywhere within talking distance of me, we sound exactly like children in a bragging bout as we reminisce.

"My father's farm in Maryville has a buffalo wallow," Homer boasted the other day. "My father and mother were covered wagon pioneers, you know. They left Ohio by ox-team on different wagon trains and never heard of each other until they met in Missouri.

"There they fell in love, got married and settled down, just two of the thousands upon thousands in that period of our history who were looking for land and opportunity."

I scrambled madly to think of something that would balance a buffalo wallow and parents meeting on a wagon train, but the best I could produce was a great grandfather who came in a covered wagon from Kentucky and with his sons built a log cabin.

My grandfather was born there; so was my mother, and as a little girl I lived in the Old Home Place, as we called the gray weather-beaten frame house, that had the original log cabin for its center.

Homer's graphic account of his mother's annual quilting party got me down because I never have been to one.

"Before the day of the party, out would come the rag bag and my cousin Phoebe would sort odds and ends for the crazy quilt," he related. "She would show a piece to my mother and their voices would fall because it was part of a dress which had belonged to my sister who died before I was born.

"Then there'd be a bit of garment I'd worn when I was a baby, and it would go in, too, because our crazy quilt was to be the album of the Croy family. Next, I would get out the wooden quilting frames and start the parlor stove going. The parlor generally wasn't used in winter except for Quilting Day. If a woman had her quilting party in her everyday sittin' room, she'd be talked about.

"By nine o'clock on the great morning the first buggy would show up, then a surry and pretty soon Mrs. Knabb riding side saddle, an' I would have to dash out and hold her horse close to the surrey step so she could get down."

It was my turn again and I summoned up memories of threshing time and neighbor women coming to help Mama bake hams, fry chickens, make tons o' potato salad, cakes and pies to fill the bottomless stomachs of the threshers.

Then we got onto the Saturday night bath and it developed that the Croys were of an elegance undreamed of by the McBrides. I told a little proudly how I used to get the first bath in the old tin wash tub.

When Homer heard that my little brother then stepped into the same water for his weekly scrub, the author was scandalized.

His next letter to me was snobbishly signed "One Bath-water Croy." And I didn't even have the spirit left to write back and remind him that HE was an only child!

Taffy Recipe Is Supplied by Teacher

Candy Will Become Butterscotch If Not Pulled

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

How about an old-fashioned candy pull? Mrs. William Miller who shares this recipe with us says it's one used in her family when she was small. An unusual feature of this taffy is that if it is not pulled, but allowed to harden, it becomes butterscotch.

Many Pontiac High School students know Mrs. Miller as a friendly social studies teacher. She and her husband are enthusiastic gardeners who grow a wide variety of fruit and vegetables. The local PEO chapter includes Mrs. Miller in its membership.

OLD-FASHIONED TAFFY
By Mrs. William Miller

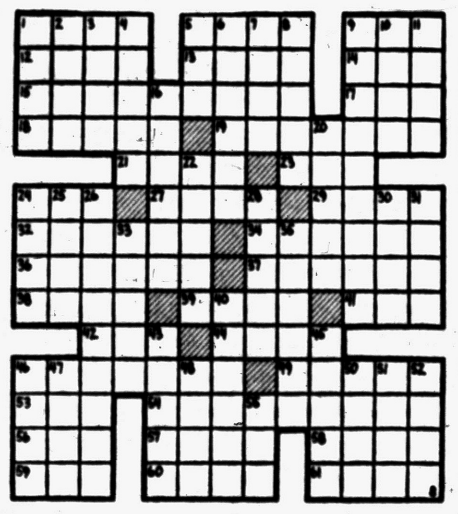

2 cups brown sugar
4 tablespoons corn syrup
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons water

Boil ingredients together until a drop in cold water becomes brittle. Turn into a buttered pan and leave until cool enough to handle. Pull until it is cold and solid. Cut into bite size with scissors. Keep hands greased while pulling. Dust with powdered sugar.

Easy to Make Blackboard on Wall of Child's Room

By ELIABETH HILLYER

Let the children decorate the wall. Enthusiastic artwork by the youngest members of the family is no problem if it goes on the right wall, a section of wall that's intended for it.

Before the youngsters decide paper is much too limiting for their proud efforts, paint them a blackboard.

Blackboard paint is as easy to apply as any other kind of paint to wood or hardboard.

Hardboard needs no sanding. It already has the smooth surface needed for a blackboard, and it's easy to cut the right size. The blackboard you make yourself can be exactly the right size, as wide as the wall space allows.

Even if wall area is limited, it makes the most of every inch that is available.

There may be space there between windows or doors, or between two pieces of furniture, that goes to waste otherwise, but can perform a big service if it centers amateur drawing and keeps it off the rest of the walls.

'Ordinary' Soviet Tales Are Frightening to Us

By BILLY ROSE

Here are two stories about life behind the Iron Curtain which I got from a man who works for the Voice of America. He tells me they were not smuggled out.

They arrived in this country via the regular mail after being duly passed by the Communist censors as routine and innocuous . . .

BILLY ROSE

For years, a man named Grodz was manager of a large Warsaw firm dealing in electrical supplies. In 1950 the Red regime decided he was a class enemy and ordered him deported to a beet farm in the provinces.

After Grodz had put in two years of hard labor, the State Planning Office in Warsaw sent for him and told him the government needed a man of his qualifications to direct the national distribution of electrical supplies.

Was he prepared to serve? His salary would be consistent with the importance of his post.

"I would gladly accept," said Grodz, "but the only clothes I have are those on my back. As you can see, they are better fitted for the fields than an office. Also, I have no place to live. My apartment was confiscated when I was deported."

"To our enlightened government," said the Communist official, "this presents no problem. Here is money for a wardrobe, and by dinnertime your apartment will be restored to you."

"Fine," said Grodz, "but I have no Permit of Domicile. Without one, as you know, I cannot remain in the capital."

"Fill out this application," said the official, "and send it to the State Security Administration.

Grodz got himself some new clothes, moved back to his old apartment and went to work the next day. A month later, he was informed that his application for a Permit of Domicile had been denied.

"A misunderstanding, no doubt," said the Planning Office official. "File an appeal on the grounds that you are doing useful work for the State."

The appeal was denied. Grodz had been deported as a class enemy, and no proof had been submitted that he had mended his ways.

A second appeal was taken, and after several weeks a special decision was rendered:

Grodz could reside in Warsaw on the days when he was doing "useful work for the State," but on weekends and holidays the "class enemy" would have to get out of town.

The upshot? Grodz now lives and works in Warsaw five days a week. On weekends and holidays he lives and loafs in a country house which was requisitioned for him "in the National Interest . . ."

One night last summer, a resident of Bucharest named Popescu was walking his dog, a French poodle, in a park not far from where he lived. Suddenly two members of the police patrol stopped him.

"What are you doing out at night?" one of them asked.

"Taking my dog for a walk," said Popescu.

"Hmmm," said the other. "A French poodle! Where's your identity card?"

Popescu searched through his pockets.

"I must have left it at home," he said. "Probably on the bureau in my bedroom. I live in that apartment house on the corner."

"Hold this man while I investigate," said the first officer.

He went to the apartment house, called out the janitor, and asked if a Popescu who owned a poodle lived in the building.

"No," said the janitor. "There is a woman on the second floor with a dog, but her name is not Popescu and the dog is not a poodle."

Popescu was taken to jail and questioned throughout the night by a succession of men who tried to make him admit to something—anything.

In the morning he was taken before a magistrate who, as luck would have it, was an acquaintance of his.

"Next time you walk your dog at night," said the magistrate, "be sensible and take your papers with you. Case dismissed."

Popescu went back to his apartment, prepared to give the janitor a piece of his mind.

The janitor was terrified. "Mr. Popescu," he whispered, "run and hide! Last night the police came looking for you, and I had a hard time convincing them that you didn't live here . . ."

Those are the two stories, and the most frightening thing about them is that the bureaucrats in charge of the "New Way of Life" consider them so routine and innocuous that they permit them to go through the regular mail.

Security Chief Defends Policy

Denies That Program Has Lowered Morale of Foreign Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—R. W. Scott McLeod, security administrator of the Department of State, said today it is "not valid" to contend that new security procedures have lowered morale of the U. S. foreign service.

"We are gradually cleaning up the 'mess' in the State Department," McLeod said in a copyrighted interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report. But he insisted that it was being done without harm to the effectiveness of the department.

McLeod also said Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) had absolutely nothing to do with his appointment to his present job, and he characterized as "ridiculous" reports that a man may be fired because his superiors do not like his choice of reading matter.

He said that last year, the department dropped from the payroll about 300 persons about whom there were unresolved security questions. The department employs about 11,000 persons. He said the number might include some who resigned before their security clearances had been completed.

President Eisenhower announced a month ago that 2,200 persons had been dropped in the whole government under the security program. He has declined thus far to give any breakdown which would indicate how many had been found to be disloyal and how many were dropped for other reasons, such as talking or drinking too much.

McLeod also said that since 1947, when the department started keeping totals, more than 500 homesexuals had been dropped. He said he did not regard this as "an unusual percentage" in comparison to the general population but that it was "an intolerable percentage in a sensitive agency."

McLeod, former FBI man who was administrative assistant to Sen. Bridges (R-NH) before he took his present job, was asked about a letter in which five former career diplomats complained last month that the foreign service was being dangerously weakened.

The five—Norman Armour, Robert Woods Bliss, Joseph C. Grew, William Phillips and G. Howland Shaw—said in a letter to the New York Times that this was true because of attacks from "outside sources" and because the department itself was subordinating "normal personnel administration to considerations of security."

GOP Is 'Using' McCarthy, Says Dem Mayor

DETROIT (AP)—New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner Jr. told a Saturday night Wayne County Democrat audience that "irresponsible statements" from Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) are being used for diverting the public mind from "the present worsening economic situation."

"The people realize," Wagner said, "that such irresponsible statements as those emitting from the always open mouth of Sen. McCarthy are for the sole purpose of diverting the public mind from the present worsening econimic situation."

Wagner also dismissed Republican charges that the Democratic party is a friend of communism.

"Such statements," he added, "tend to create distrust of the Democratic party which has met the test of leadership so necessary in this country, a test Eisenhower's multiple - headed administration hasn't met successfully.

"Millions of Americans are deeply loyal to ths country and are proud to be numbered among the Democrats," the New York mayor said.

He addressed a "victory drive" dinner audience of Detroit Democrats.

TECUMSEH, Okla. (AP) — State Trooper George Moore, questioning four young airmen from Sheppard Air Force Base, Tex., about a minor traffic accident, thought the faces looked familiar.

Wanted? Not quite.

He had inducted the four while serving as a recruiting sergeant at Tahlequah, Okla., two years ago.

Boston Priest Elevated

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Rev. William Gaudreau, a native of Boston, Mass., has been elected superior general of the Catholic Redemptorist Fathers — the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer.

The Pribilof Islands, property o. the United States and home grounds of most of the world's fur seals, were considered so unimportant to explorers that they were discovered and forgotten three times before they were given a name.

Familiar Stage Aids Acting Job

Boys Can Be Natural if Everything Is the Same, Even to Situations

HOLLYWOOD — A home away from home is a cliche widely used and abused by hotels and motels across the nation. However, it is a positive description of the house set used by Ozzie and Harriet Nelson on their television show.

Stage 5 at General Service Studios in Hollywood is one of the largest in all filmland. It houses in an enclosed unit a complete replica of Ozzie and Harriet's real home.

In addition to living room, den, bedrooms, baths, kitchen and garage, there are the housetops of the Nelsons' real Hollywood neighbors, a luxuriant green front lawn and a patio where the Nelsons do their outdoor living.

Reproducing the Nelson home in every detail on a huge studio stage was no idle whim of either Harriet's or Ozzie's. It was sound and constructive thinking.

"The easy way in which Ozzie, David, Ricky and I go through our TV adventures is due entirely to the element of fact," Harriet Nelson told this reporter.

"Our stories — though enlarged upon and sometimes caricatured—are really adaptations of things that have happened to us in our private world."

"David and Ricky just happened to walk into our stage life. They never have been trained to be actors. Consequently, when we went on television, Ozzie thought it would be easier for the boys and us to work in a familiar atmosphere. They would feel more at ease and natural that way."

When the job of building was completed Harriet had been so accurate in reproducing everything familiar to the family, David, Ricky and Ozzie naturally and without premeditation, dropped into the duplications of their favorite chairs and went looking in desks and drawers for personal items kept at home.

Outside, over the garage door, Harriet even remembered to have a basketball net, just as they have at home. When Ricky went to look for the ball, he found it inside the garage, where it is usually kept.

"Sometimes I wonder if my realism campaign hasn't backfired," Harriet added. "Those sons of ours are all over the set whenever they aren't working before the cameras. The boys play ball on the front lawn in every spare moment."

TV fans as a rule know little of the technicalities of making television films.

What the public does understand is that the Nelsons—themselves and their studio home—are as truly American and genuine as the troubles and fun they always seem to get into.

SOMETHING TO SMILE ABOUT—Those perennially handsome favorite, Ozzie and Harriet Nelson hardly look old enough to be parents of two teenage sons, (a fact true in their real as well as TV life.) Depicting perfectly, the average, well balanced American family is the factor which has kept "The Adventure of Ozzie and Harriet" at the top of video ratings. Plus, the couple adds, a lot of planning and hard work on the part of all concerned.

Arraignment Set in Ax Murder

Two Detroiters Are Held by Canadian Officials for Slaying, Beating

SIMCOE, Ont. (UP)—Two Americans charged with the ax murder of an elderly service station operator and the near-fatal beating of his wife will be arraigned in court here this week, police said today.

They are Jerry Simmons, 47, of Syracuse, N.Y., and Joe Lotharp, 23, of Detroit. A third man, Henry Little, 43, of Detroit, is being held for questioning.

Police said Bruce Beatty, 67, died as a result of an ax beating during a holdup at his service station last Thursday. His 63-year-old wife is still in a coma.

They said Beatty had complained the day before he was attacked that a party of tourists tried to pass a bad check. They would not comment whether these were the same men, who emptied cash boxes in the office and left the blood-stained ax on a coach.

A 24-hour watch was being maintained at Mrs. Beatty's bedside in case she should recover long enough to identify her assailants.

Boy Scouts Increase

NEW YORK (AP)—The Boy Scouts of America now has 3,395,884 enrolled members, following an increase of 6.7 per cent in 1953, Chief Executive Arthur A. Shuck reported last night.

2nd Hindu Religious Rite Mishap Kills Over 100

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Police have found only 23 survivors of about 125 Hindu pilgrims flung into the Ourna River near Surat when their boat capsized Saturday night.

The disaster was the second within a week involving the great masses taking part in religious festivals throughout the country. Last Wednesday about 500 Hindus were crushed to death in a stampede at a holy bathing place at Allahabad.

U. S. Jet Atom Bomber Crash Kills 2 in England

The six-jet 600-mile-an-hour B47 ripped into the woods about a mile from this American air base in central England.

The names of the crew, all members of the 22nd Bomb Wing from March Field, Calif., were withheld. The wing arrived here six weeks ago on a 90-day training mission.

Chinese to Stay in North Korea

Kim Il Sung Tells Reds to Be Prepared for Any U. S. Challenge

TOKYO (INS) — Marshal Kim Il Sung served notice today Chinese Communist troops will remain in North Korea despite the armistice and called on his own North Korean puppet forces to be ready for any "challenge" of American troops.

The North Korean warlord, on the sixth anniversary of the formation of his army under Russian auspices, thus dealt another blow to hopes that peaceful unification of North and South Korea could be accomplished at a peace conference.

Kim's declaration pointed up the main split between the Reds and the Allies over the future of Korea.

Both sides agreed in signing the armistice last July 27 that they would hold a peace conference with unification of Korea as the top item.

But the Communists want unification to bring all of Korea under Red rule. This is their ultimate objective.

On the other hand, South Korean President Syngman Rhee wants unification, but with every last Communist driven north of the Yalu River. This is a threat he holds over the heads of his American allies.

Kim ordered his North Korean army today to "retain the present structure" of the army—meaning there will be no demobilization—and to guard against "American efforts to break the armistice."

The Italian government has estimated that six million dwelling units were destroyed in the country during World War II.

Seven Persons Hurt in Apartment Blaze

DETROIT (INS)—A 32-year-old mother, her four children, and two other residents of a downtown Detroit apartment house today were recovering from injuries suffered when a $20,000 fire swept the building.

Hurt were Mrs. Geneva Stevenson and her four children, aged five months to 11 years. The mother was injured shepherding three of th eyoungsters down a fire escape. Two other persons were hurt jumping from second floor windows.

In another fire, in Highland Park, a small blaze in the basement of a yard goods store was extinguished in the morning and firemen retired. However, a spark apparently was wafted up through a wall and set fire to material stored in a loft. The entire Highland Park fire department was turned out and took three hours to control the second blaze.

Ex-King Farouk Says He'll Sue Auction Buyers

ROME (AP)—Ex-King Farouk says anybody who buys his art objects, postage stamps and fancy jewels at the Egyptian government auction starting this week may have to go to court to keep them.

Egypt's revolutionary government seized Farouk's fabulous collections after it deposed him in 1952. Bidders from all over the world are already flocking to Cairo for the sale, which starts Friday.

A statement issued by Farouk's secretary from his home-in-exile here said his lawyers had advised the ex-King all sales of the art objects and other personal property of him and his family would be illegal.

"His majesty reserves the right to take legal action against all who acquire the property," the statement added.

Sailor Practices Begging 'in Case of Depression'

BALTIMORE (AP)—Walter Hallett, 43-year-old seaman charged with begging in the streets, told Magistrate William F. Laukaitis yesterday he was "just keeping in practice in case of a depression."

Laukaitis dismissed the charge after Hallett proved visible means of support. He urged the seaman to "just stay in the habit of working."

"Besides," said the Republican magistrate, "a man that happens to be president just said the other day that all this depression talk is untrue."

Heard in a Pontiac Church Sunday

Gifts to God Must Be Fine, Not Leftover of One's Self

REV. HERBERT E. RYAN

The Rev. Herbert E. Ryan, pastor of Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church since 1950, preached Sunday using the story in II Samuel: 24 as the basis of his sermon. The church was organized in 1918.

Among other things he said that the lesson in II Samuel is of a sinner who is repentant of a great sin.

The spreading pestilence has stopped at the threshing floor of Araunah, the Jebusite. David the king wishes to show his gratitude to God for the deliverance given the people, by setting up an altar. Araunah offers to give it to the king, but David refuses saying "Neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the Lord which cost me nothing." II Sam. 24:24.

Only as our gift represents our best is it worthy of our God. Only as it is given to Him first, before using the rest for ourselves, is our God highest in our adoration.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you," the Scripture commands.

When you expect the most important guest of your entire life, do you take the "leftovers" from the refrigerator and bring them out as your best?

Herein lies the secret of the so called "peace of mind" that many are half-heartedly hunting for today.

What people need today is not more relaxation, not more "letting down" but a Holy determination, a true sense of Godly importance, a vivid sense of purpose and direction in life.

So when you fill out the income tax form these coming weeks, quit trying to fool your God or your government. Answer the question, "Have I given 10 or 20 per cent of my income to charitable causes?"

Lay it aside "the first day of the week;" "Bring the tithe into the storehouse of God," the Holy Bible recommends.

Then there will come that sense of partnership with the Eternal, that sense of Divine security which the world cannot give, nor can it take it away.

Home folks that sacrifice together stay together. They make strong reliable homes. Individuals that sacrifice for their God have a strong sense of security in God.

And our great nation will "have what it takes" in this hour of needed leadership in the struggle against communism only as it is willing to "lay it on the line" sacrificially for God.

"Righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people," the Holy Word assures us.

Peace comes only by resisting the evils which make it impossible. Peace would be with us had it not been for the tyranny of oppression and hate.

It will be in the hearts of all men only when they have given their best to Him who gave so much for them.

Let us take our places along side of the writer of the lesson this morning and not give to God that which costs us nothing, but give unto Him our very best.

Then the joy of sins forgiven, as an answer to the penitent prayer, will come with all the peace of mind which comes "When we walk with the Lord in the light of His Word."

A 39-year-old Pontiac woman was injured Saturday when the car in which she was riding was struck in the rear near the Grand Trunk Railway tracks on W. Huron street, according to Pontiac Police.

Treated for neck injuries and released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital was Mrs. Lillian Donnelly, of 5101 Cheyenne, a passenger in a car driven by William J. Donnelly, 38, of 19 Tacoma Ct.

Police said Donnelly's car was struck by one driven by Cecil G. Goines, 23, of 2617 Mann Rd., Waterford Township.

Queen, Duke Relax From Official Duties

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh slipped out a side entrance to Government House for a day off from official engagements today. Only a handful of their enthusiastic Australian public caught up with them.

The royal couple drove to the harbor and took a barge trip to a palatial private home on the waterfront before lunch. Hundreds meanwhile milled about the main entrance to Government House or followed rumors about the pair's plans for their holiday.

The summer heat took a heavy toll among the spectators around the cathedral where the Queen attended services yesterday. Nine hundred persons including many children collapsed and were given first aid in the cathedral chapter house.

Toto Doing Well After Removal of Brain Tissue

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—A 4-year-old gorilla who weighs only 65 pounds was reported "doing well" today at winter quarters of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus after undergoing a delicate brain operation.

Toto II, the ill and underweight gorilla, was reported by Dr. J. Y. Henderson, circus veterinarian, to be resting comfortably and eating well.

The gorilla underwent the operation Saturday when D. R. Mason Trupp of Tampa removed brain tissue in an effort to determine the cause of paralysis that has sapped the animal's strength.

This tissue will be examined to determine if the cause of Toto's trouble is a tumor or a parasitical growth which can be arrested by medicine.

Dr. Henderson said it was the first time, to his knowledge, that a gorilla had undergone brain surgery.

Ten states require five day waiting periods before the issue of marriage licenses. Seven states require two to three days.

Non-Profit Area Clinics Innoculate Dogs for Rabies

Hit-Run Guerrilla Fleet Bleeds Red China

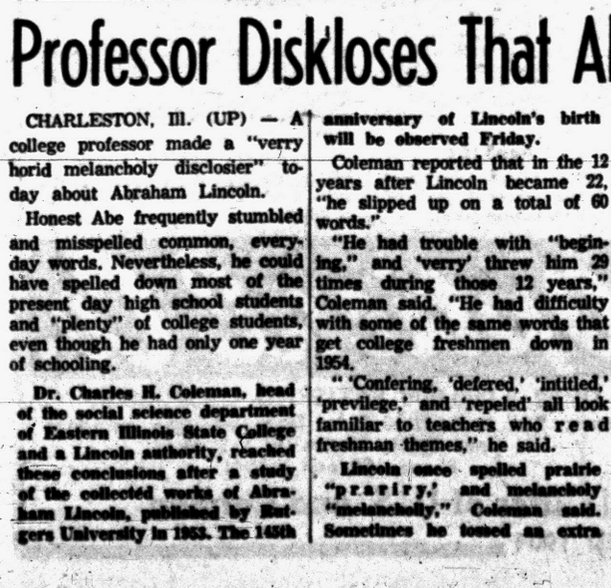

DISPLAY COLORS—Free China flag flies from stern of armed junk as grim-faced helmsman and guerrilla raider squint at the sea as their anti-Red "pirate" ship sets out to harass Commie mainland.

AWAITING ORDERS—Holed up in a cove at an island held by Free China guerrillas, an armed junk awaits orders for a raid on Red shipping.

RED SOIL—Red Chinese soil is visible just over the bow of a Free Chinese junk here as it patrols close to Communist shoreline.

LITTLE SHIPS FIGHT, TOO—This sampan belongs to Free China guerrilla fleet, works with bigger junks for closeup raids.

By FRED SPARKS
NEA Staff Correspondent

ABOARD ANTI - COMMUNIST RAIDER off Red China—(NEA)—This wooden, motorized junk pitches and rolls and shimmies enough to churn butter as we trail a Communist sailing ship toward a finger of mainland China poking into these East China seas.

We don't want to sink her, although it's possible with our U.S.-given artillery. Our 20 guerrillas, hugging the rails and urging "faster—faster," are ready to leap into her rigging with guns and bayonets like pirates with one-ball pistols and cutlasses.

Unfortunately, there's a brisk tail wind and our prey's square sail puffs out. Now from the shore we hear faintly a cannon cough and the uh-uh-uh-uh of a heavy machine gun.

Communist coastal gunners are on the ball and our skipper orders the two helmsmen handling the huge wooden tiller hard to port. We've lost the race.

I join the guerrillas in a general disappointment while feeling my blood pressure go down. I'll take my high seas hand-to-hand combat on the movie screen.

When we got underway from a guerrilla-held offshore island, the deck hands hoisted the anchor by turning the spokes of a wheel and chanting (as near as my interpreter could translate) a Chinese version of "Fifteen men on a dead man's chest . . . Yo Ho Ho and a bottle of rum. . . ."

Recalling surprise tactics of Count von Luckner, the German sea raider of World War I, this junk — stripped of deck cannon and Nationalist markings—mingled not long ago with fishing junks (guarded by a Red navy cutter) at the mouth of the Yangtze.

The guerrillas knew well their roles, being all ex-fishermen. After dark, five of them sculled a sampan from the junk to a straggling fishing boat and softly boarded. They slugged the helmsman and held her steady as the guerrilla junk came alongside.

The amazed fishermen were locked below and their ship was sailed to a guerrilla port to serve the raider fleet, 80 per cent similarly captured.

So the guerrilla navy hits and runs and bleeds Red China like loyal British pirates bled Madrid's galleons and the Spanish Main.

Most daring was the capture of the armed Red Army transport "Yellow River." Three speedy guerrilla junks jumped the transport as she sailed in convoy with two smaller steamers off Wenchow during a fog.

They opened with U.S. mortars and anti-tank guns. The thin steel hull of one ship crumpled at the water line. She sank without returning a shot and the 40 heads of her crew bobbed in the murky surf.

The guerrillas climbed aboard, screaming like love-sick cats to terrify anyone planning a double-cross. They found two men below fingering the wireless and kicked them overboard with five dead comrades. A .45 massaged the back of the captain's neck as he steamed the "Yellow River" to Tachen, an important guerrilla island base.

The haul was 54 prisoners, including 16 wounded and 20 Red navy guards, medical supplies for Korea and 25 tons of beans.

At dawn I'm put ashore at a tiny guerrilla island in what looks like an old print of a pirates' cove, being little more than a horseshoe slice of water in solid, somber rock. I bid a fond goodbye to the steel men and their wooden ship.

Car Theft Ring Kingpin Hunted

FBI Puts N. R. Duncan on '10 Most Wanted' List as Crime Chief Suspect

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 32-year-old ex-convict reputed to have become a kingpin in the car theft racket today was listed by the FBI among its 10 most wanted fugitives.

He is Nelson Robert Duncan, a native of Chattanooga, Tenn., who first ran afoul of the law at the age of 16 when he was given a 1 to 5 year sentence for stealing a car in Atlanta, Ga.

The FBI said that Duncan, many times in and out of prison on robbery and burglary charges, had more recently recruited a car theft gang who had expanded their operations from the southeastern states into the populous Midwest.

Two of Duncan's brothers are now in federal penitentiaries, serving long sentences. However, the FBI said the group had organized "an amazingly efficient car theft ring" by hiring ex-convicts and young hoodlums to perform the actual thefts.

Duncan went on the "most wanted" list as a replacement for Alex Bryant, convicted armed robber arrested in Los Angeles Jan. 26.

DOG CLINICS—Carene Denne, 10-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Denne, 2994 Edgefield Dr., Waterford Township, comforts "Lefty" as Dr. Burton A. Ross, 305 Draper St., prepares a "rabies shot." The family pet was one of 662 dogs innoculated Sunday in the first five non-profit rabies vaccination clinics this year.

662 Are Treated at Five Centers

Program Offering $1.50 Sunday Vaccinations to Continue to March 1

Oakland County dog owners Sunday brought 662 dogs to be vaccinated against rabies for $1.50 each as this year's non-profit vaccination "clinics" got underway.

With members of Oakland County Veterinarians Association donating their work, Oakland County Health Department set up afternoon clinics yesterday at Commerce, Leonard, Waterford, Clarkston and Keego Harbor.

Dr. Frank R. Bates, county animal welfare director, said workers at Waterford vaccinated 218 dogs Sunday. Inoculations were given 136 dogs at the Commerce clinic; 50 at Leonard; 11 at Clarkston; and 136 at Keego Harbor.

"We're running less than half as many dogs as last year," Dr. Bates said. "We hope people will get their dogs vaccinated and licensed soon."

Dr. Bates said that after March 1, the county's regular license fees of $1 for a male and $3 for a female dog will be doubled. No county dog licenses will be issued without proof the dog has been vaccinated within the last 12 months.

Both Dr. Bates and Harry J. Merritt, county corporation counsel, warned that owners of dogs which don't carry 1954 license tags after March 1 may be prosecuted under the Michigan dog law, which carries fines of up to $100 or 90 days in jail.

Beaten-Up Widow Has Half Million Hidden in Safe

DETROIT (UP)—A $500,000 fortune found in a crumbling brick flat revealed today that an 86-year-old widow recluse who dressed in rags really was a financier who ran a profitable real estate business.

She also received a comfortable income from stock dealings.

Police began searching the two-story flat in an effort to trace the assailants who beat the widow, Mrs. Carrie Wherritt, during an attempted burglary last week.

Officers opened a safe Sunday and found $291,000 in cash and what was believed to be a like amount in bonds and securities.

The safe was overlooked by her assailants and lay unguarded until police opened it and counted the money.

The widow, pitied by her neighbors because of her outward poverty, lived alone in the flat. A neighbor, Mrs. Evangeline De Martini, called police on Friday to report that no one had seen Mrs. Wherritt for several days.

Police found Mrs Wherritt lying on her bedroom floor. She had been beaten by intruders she said invaded her flat last Wednesday night.

Mrs. Wherritt's niece, Mrs. Edgar Schramm of Dayton, Ohio, accompanied police to the widow's home Sunday. She said she was "flabbergasted" to learn her aunt was wealthy.

"She told us, during frequent visits to our Dayton home, that she lost her property during the depression," the niece said.

Group to Plan Mobile X-Rays

County Organizations to Meet Tuesday on Free 1954 Chest Clinics

Oakland County Health Department will call delegates from a dozen local organizations together Tuesday to plan for this year's mobile X-ray clinic tours.

A. R. Musson, executive secretary of Oakland County Tuberculosis Association, will act as chairman of Tuesday's meeting at 10 a.m. at Oakland County Office Building, 1 Lafayette St.

The county health department said a committee will be organized Tuesday to send information on X-ray schedules into every nook and cranny of the county.

Two mobile "clinics" will offer free chest X-rays to check for tuberculosis and other chest ailments March 2 through June 18 in communities throughout the county.

Organizations invited to Tuesday's meeting include Oakland County Tuberculosis Association, Board of Education, Medical Society, Dental Society, Welfare Department, PTA Council and Agricultural Extension Service.

Other invited groups are Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, Pontiac Pastors' Association, Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs, Family Service of Oakland County, Urban League of Pontiac and Pontiac-Oakland County Industrial Union Council, CIO.

Senators Digging Into Committee Action on CCC

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two senators promised today to raise more questions about how much the government has lost supporting farm prices.

Sens. Anderson (D-NM), former secretary of agriculture, and Williams (R-DE) won a skirmish last week when the Senate lopped nearly half a billion dollars off a debt cancellation bill for the Commodity Credit Corp. (CCC).

But a Senate-House conference committee later restored most of this money. The compromise version is subject to final approval by the House and Senate. Action may come in the House today.

CCC is the agency which carries out farm price support operations. It makes loans to farmers on their crops, to be repaid when the crops are sold.

Two Area Men Fined on Drunk Driving Charge

Two motorists who appeared Saturday before Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib received fines for drunk driving.

Richard W. Hubner, 26, of 111 Draper Ave. was fined $75 and $15 costs. Theodore L. Meyers, 21, of 1359 Cass Lake Rd., Waterford Township, paid a $50 fine and $15 costs.

Want to Lose Weight . . . Easy-Like?

Family Can Be Big Help Making You Stop Cheating

By ELMER WHEELER
Chapter 11

I asked my doctor how about the person who says, "I eat whatever I want—and I haven't gained or lost a pound in 20 years!"

What's Slim Jim's magic?

I learned it isn't magic. It is just that somehow, by accident or design, this lucky person just puts enough into him each day to compensate for the energy he expends.

Like a good carburetor, he keeps his engine running at just the proper speed all day long, so that he comes out even each day.

But you will note that his life is generally serene. It is normal, day in and day out. Or at least he makes it balance out.

If he goes on an eating spree, he slows up instinctively for a few days afterward.

If he overworks, somehow or other he overeats just enough to take care of things.

Lucky guy! Or is it luck?

I created a "blue plate" plan for myself that helped a lot in the early days of my diet.

It's a plan to get fatties such as myself started off on the diet. For, like getting that first olive out of the bottle, it's the start that is the hardest.

When a fatty who has been used to wallowing in 4,500 calories a day suddenly drops down to 1,500, it's pretty tough on the poor fellow.

So I told my family we must have blue plate dishes from then on.

Under this plan, we would all go out to the kitchen and fill up our plates, and if the plate was normal-sized you got just enough to hold you, not enough to fatten you.

There wasn't any food around on the table, family style, in tempting dishes to make Fatty weaken. And I knew I'd get my hands jabbed with a fork if I tried to swipe any tidbits from anyone else's plate, so that was out.

If I finished my plate and started for the kitchen, nonchalant like, it was the family's duty (and how they loved to do their duty!) to yell out:

"Hey Fatty—Where ya going?"

This will usually stop a fatty dead. It did me, especially when the wife yelped at me.

I heard of another trick, too, to work on poor Fatty to get him under way.

Be sure all fattening foods on the kitchen stove are overcooked, tasteless, even burned.

This will spoil his taste for him.

On the other hand, be sure that the nonfattening foods are well displayed and plenty mouth-watering, to tempt him to eat and like them.

This will trick the old Fat Boy into eating what is thinning for him—eating it and liking it!

A slick trick, isn't it!

Took a wife to think it up!

I didn't know—though maybe you did—that metabolism is a six bit word doctors use when they start telling how much energy you're expending daily.

A calorie is a measurement of this energy you expend.

You put coal into a fire, then adjust the damper to burn up the coal fast or slow. Calories are the coal we use, and metabolism is the damper that controls the rate at which we burn up those calories.

Some calories, like some coal, seem to burn up faster than others. These are those carbohydrate calories I mentioned before. They burn up fast. Give you a quick "lift."

They hit and run. Pep you up—then leave you hungry. And pack a lot of weight.

The proteins are slower-gaited. They are like large hunks of tobacco in your pipe. They burn slower, but evenly, and keep you going longer.

Golly, is Old Fat Boy getting scientific!

Next: You can "think away" your fat.

Professor Diskloses That Abe Kouldn't Spell Too Well

CHARLESTON, Ill. (UP) — A college professor made a "verry horid melancholy disclosier" today about Abraham Lincoln.

Honest Abe frequently stumbled and misspelled common, everyday words. Nevertheless, he could have spelled down most of the present day high school students and "plenty" of college students, even though he had only one year of schooling.

Dr. Charles H. Coleman, head of the social science department of Eastern Illinois State College and a Lincoln authority, reached these conclusions after a study of the collected works of Abraham Lincoln, published by Rutgers University in 1953. The 145th anniversary of Lincoln's birth will be observed Friday.

Coleman reported that in the 12 years after Lincoln became 22, "he slipped up on a total of 60 words."

"He had trouble with "beginning," and 'verry' threw him 29 times during those 12 years," Coleman said. "He had difficulty with some of the same words that get college freshmen down in 1954.

"'Confering, 'defered,' 'intitled,' 'previlege,' and 'repeled' all look familiar to teachers who read freshman themes," he said.

Lincoln once spelled prairie "prairy,' and melancholy "melancholly," Coleman said. Sometimes he tossed an extra consonant — "bussiness," "consideration," and "immagination." Or he might omit one, as in "horid" and "intelect."

"But his prize boner," Coleman said, "was 'disclosiers' for 'disclosures'."

Coleman said he drew two conclusions from a study of Lincoln's papers for the period from 1830 to 1942:

1. Lincoln's mistakes dropped every year in comparison to the amount of writing he did.

2. He made "very few slips" in writing official documents, like bills prepared for introduction in the Illinois Legislature.

"If Lincoln had had 12 years of schooling instead of hardly more than one, his spelling mistakes would have been few and far between," Coleman said.

Coleman told of a spelling match in Andrew Crawford's school in Spencer County, Ind., in 1819, which illustrated Lincoln had some spelling ability as well as sympathy for the underdog.

A girl named Katie Roby was stumped on the word 'defied.'

"Katie got through the d-e-f and there she stuck, until a 16-year-old classmate, tall for his age and with a big shock of unruly hair, pointed a finger to his eye," Coleman said.

"That was all the help Katie needed from Abraham Lincoln, and she finished the word correctly and won the spelling match."

"I cannot praise Rennel Concentrate enough. It sure has done wonders for me. Before taking Rennel I was so overweight that I did not feel well at all. At 41 years of age I could hardly get around or do my work. I was tired all the time and my stomach was upset most of the time," writes Jean Cass, 713 Aspen St., Cadillac, Mich. "Now since taking Rennel as directed I have lost 50 pounds. I feel so much better, do my work easily and every one tells me I look so much better. I am so happy with the results I have received from Rennel that I want other people to know how it has helped me."

Thousands have overcome the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. Obtain liquid Rennel at your drug store, mix with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic with the very first bottle, just return it to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment reducing with Rennel. Insist on genuine Rennel.

Alleges Poor Record Keeping

Brownell Claims 20,000 Misplaced Documents Found by New Regime

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell says he raised the controversial issue of Harry Dexter White's 1946 promotion shortly after an FBI espionage report naming White was found last fall among some 20,000 misplaced documents.

"We found a great many evidences of slipshod work when we came in," Brownell said on a CBS television interview yesterday. He said the report on White had evidently been "shoved in a drawer" without evaluation.

In a Nov. 6 speech, Brownell said former President Truman promoted White early in 1946 in the face of an FBI report indicating that he was under investigation as a Russian spy. Truman replied that he allowed White's promotion from the Treasury to the International Monetary Fund to go through so as not to jeopardize the FBI in its investigation. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover testified the promotion made it more difficult to keep a watch on White.

Brownell was asked yesterday why he chose the time and occasion of a Chicago luncheon to discuss the case. He indicated he had learned of the 1945 FBI report only a short while before and said, "I thought of the quickest way I could to tell this story to the American people."

Finding of the 20,000 "missing" documents was discussed also at "House appropriations hearings, made public yesterday, on the Justice Department's budget for the next fiscal year.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Warren Olney III, testifying Dec. 8, said the department has undertaken a review of allegations against all the individuals named in the 1945 FBI report which mentioned White. He did not name any.

He said there were "amazing" results from a housecleaning of Criminal Division files last September. None, or at least most, of the material had ever been to the department's record branch for recording. Many unanswered letters were found, some of them, dating back 15 years . . .

"Among other things found was the FBI report on Soviet espionage . . . We still do not know where it came from. It was somewhere in this mass of papers."

Icy California Slopes Halt Rescue Operations

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP)—The body of a hiker who slid 1,000 feet to the bottom of a canyon in the San Gabriel Mountains lay in a miner's cabin near snowcrest today after icy slopes halted rescue operations.

Dep. Coroner A. J. McCann said Herbert Patnaude, 48, Los Angeles, may have died of a heart attack before he slid into San Antonio canyon yesterday.

A. P. Herbert's New Book Includes Churchillian Wit

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

NEW YORK (INS)—"Man is the only animal that laughs and weeps," wrote William Hazlitt, over a century ago, "for he is the only animal that is struck by the difference between what things are and the way they ought to be."

This quote is used by a living English humorist, Sir A. P. Herbert, in a chapter of a new book, "Churchill by His Contemporaries."

"It is not everyone who approves of statesmen being funny," the essay says. "It is indeed a fairly new and unusual combination. . . it is difficult to think of any celebrated joke that was made by Burke, by Pitt, by Disraeli or Gladstone. . ."

As I read on, memory gave me back other examples of political humor and other kinds. Here's a sample I cherish—from a magazine piece that appeared in the New Yorker nearly 10 years ago and which now reappears in E. B. White's "Second Tree From the Corner," just published by Harper.

"I am a man of medium height," the piece begins. "I keep my records in a Weis folder re-order number 8003. The unpaid balance of my estimated tax for the year 1945 is item 3 less the sum of items 4 and 5. My eyes are gray. My Selective Service order number is 10789. The serial number is T16t4. . . my Social Security number is 067-01-9841. I am married to U. S. woman number 067-01-9807. Her eyes are gray. . .

Among the countless thousands of White's admirers no time will ever be wasted in discussion about whether that short piece is witty.

But what I'd really like to browse through is some of the mail White must have received when it was first published.

I can visualize another authoritatively informing him that this is "ridiculous writing."

And I can see one from a tire manufacturer saying, "You ivory-tower people seem to think business could proceed without proper numerical identification of its products. Articles like this attack an entire industry and though I believe fully in freedom of the press, I am sending a copy of this protest to your employers."

I'll give you the odds that there were such letters. For to paraphrase William Hazlitt, "Man is the only animal that weeps for those who laugh at the point he missed."

People of the U. S. normally consume about 100 million pounds of tea per year, or enough to make approximately 20 billion cups.

Second American Is Latin First Lady

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, (AP)—President Jose Figueres for the second time has given this Central American republic a first lady from the United States.

The 47-year-old chief of state, himself a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was married at a quiet ceremony Saturday night to Miss Rita Karen Olsen, a pretty, 23-year-old blonde social worker from Yorktown Heights, N. Y.

The marriage was Figueres' second. His former wife is a Southerner, former Henriette Boggs of Birmingham, Ala. She divorced him last Jan. 1. They have two children, 10 and 8.

German Jews Prosper Again

Hitler Victims Making Comeback in Business and Social Life

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—German Jews, oppressed and persecuted under Hitler, are making a steady recovery in postwar Germany.

Prospects of the 25,000 Jews now in West Germany are the brightest since the Nazis unleashed a reign of terror against them 21 years ago. More than five million died in Hitler's campaign. Most were East European Jews. Some 300,000 were German Jews.

The Central Council of Jews in Germany estimates there were 600,000 Jews in Germany when the Nazis took over. Those who remained and survived once again are back in business and taking part—without fear—in the country's social and cultural life.

There are 400 Jewish lawyers in West Germany. Three Jews are in the federal Parliament. Some 350 Jewish merchants own businesses, the Association of Jewish Trade reports. The Jewish Womens Assn. of Germany boasts 2,000 members. Almost 200 Jewish students are at German universities. A Jewish newspaper claims a circulation of 48,000.

It's a far cry from the days when Jews were stripped of their citizenship, removed from office, deprived of their businesses and fired from their jobs.

The West German government pays compensation to Jews who suffered under the Nazis. Their confiscated property has been returned. They get preferential treatment for jobs and housing.

A government survey estimates 380,000 German Jews live abroad. They were among the thousands who flew Germany after "Crystal Night" on Nov. 9, 1938, when SA men stormed and burned Jewish shops, homes and synagogues. The less fortunate died in Nazi extermination and concentration camps.

Conspicuously absent from the Jewish scene today are children. For example, the government survey shows, of 250 Jews who live in Hannover, only 11 are children under 13. There are two between 14 and 19.

Roosevelt Flies to Visit Mother

Family Reported Hoping to Settle Marital Affair With No More Publicity

LOS ANGELES (INS) — James Roosevelt flies to New York tonight amid reports that he has been summoned there by his mother, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, matriarch of the Roosevelt clan.

Reportedly she wants to confer with him on the possibility of a quiet settlement of his scandal-laden separate maintenance fight with Mrs. Romelle Schneider Roosevelt.

Mrs. Roosevelt is seeking $2,000 a month for herself and $1,500 a month for the three Roosevelt children.

The balding eldest son of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt has termed the $3,500 far beyond his ability to pay.

During his first court clash with his wife in Pasadena last Friday it was brought out that he has been paying her $700 and has paid certain bills since they separated last August after 12 years of high-living marriage.

He leaves New York for his return flight Wednesday.

The Roosevelt family has been reported anxious to settle the separate maintenance suit without further sensational charges such as those contained in Roosevelt's "kiss and tell" letter of 1945 in which he admitted misconduct with nine women. Later he repudiated the letter, saying it was forced out of him by "financial blackmail."

The family was described as wanting to settle the affair not only because of James Roosevelt, but also because of its possible effect on the political future of Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., who is a congressman from New York and who is said to aspire to the New York governorship.

The next court session in the case has been set for a week from today.

Norway Rounds Up Red Spy Suspects

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Norway's government says it has rounded up a group of spy suspects in the Oslo area. The newspaper Aftenposten reported today that 10 to 20 persons were picked up on suspicion of selling secrets to the Soviets.

The government in November arrested five farmers in the arctic Finnmark province, near Norway's 130-mile border with the Soviet Union, on espionage charges.

A communique last night said the security police for some time had suspected a "small group of persons in the Oslo area of illegal intelligence service for a foreign power."

The announcement said a number of arrests had been made and added:

"As the investigations are expected to become very extensive and require some time, further information will not be given out."

Minnesotan Takes Post in U. S. Social Security

WASHINGTON (INS) — Victor Christgau of Minnesota was sworn in today as director of the social security administraton's bureau of old-age and survivors insurance.

Pope Rests Well and Is Improving

Worry Over Pontiff, 77, Remains High Despite Doctor's Report

By WEBB MCKINLEY

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius' private physician said today the Pontiff rested well last night and his "improvement continues."

It was the third straight day that Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi had cited at least some improvement in the condition of the ailing head of the Roman Catholic Church.

But the brief words and the previous hopeful reports did not quell the fears that have arisen for the heath of the frail Pontiff, now 77.

For the past 15 days the Pope has been secluded in his Vatican Palace apartment, confined to his bed with a stomach ailment of undisclosed nature which has greatly enfeebled him. He is able to retain only a little liquid food.

Prayers for the Pontiff's health were repeated in Roman Catholic churches throughout the world. Thousands of letters and messages poured into the Vatican from far points expressing hope for his recovery.

Galeazzi-Lisi's report this morning was terse: "The Pope rested well and his improvement continues."

The Pope is also being treated by a Swiss glandular and internal specialist, Dr. Paul Niehans. For the past several days, one or the other has been in attendance at all times at the Pope's simple apartment.

Yesterday's communique was the most heartening since the Pontiff was stricken. It said: "The Pope last (Saturday) night slept rather well. Signs of improvement are noted in the condition of the stomach, which is quieter and less disturbed. However, in his general condition there continues to be considerable weakness."

Last night the Vatican announced the Pope's ailment is glandular, but his inability to hold down fluids given to patients for X-ray tests has apparently kept his doctors from learning the specific nature of the illness.

Knowland Sees Success for Ike

Believes Prospects for President's Program Are Looking Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP Senate leader, said today the prospects for enactment of a substantial portion of President Eisenhower's legislative program are looking better all the time.

"I think that when Congress has completed its work, we will have a program that will meet the approval of the country," Knowland said in an interview.

Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, on an NBC television program yesterday, expressed similar optimism about the prospects not only for the legislative program but for the Republicans' chances of picking up more congressional seats in the November elections.

He said Eisenhower's leadership has given the party a tremendous lift and he expects a gain of 15 to 25 seats, after a campaign based on the President's "record of achievement."

As an example of legislative success, he cited the St. Lawrence seaway bill, approved by the Senate and a House committee. He said Eisenhower is succeeding in getting this program approved after Democratic and Republican presidents tried in vain for 45 years.

The national chairman said he thought the President, without making speeches in behalf of individual Republican candidates for Congress, will "go on television in behalf of and in support of his program, and in that way the various candidates will get the benefit of his support."

He told interviewers he considers Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) an asset to the Republican party nationally who "will and should" receive support by the entire party on the basis of his 1952 election by Wisconsin voters.

Asked whether the National Committee endorsed McCarthy's description of the Democratic party as "the party of betrayal," Hall noted the committee pays the expenses of McCarthy's speaking tours, as it does those of others. He said, "If that is an endorsement, yes."

He said he expects communism to be an underlying issue in the 1954 elections.

He said he thinks when the time comes for Eisenhower to consider seeking a second term "there'll be a demand which he cannont escape."

LA TV Star Out to Capture U.S. Audience

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Five years ago, Betty White was a struggling young actress who did TV commercials for nothing. Today she starts an NBC deal that could net her more than a million dollars in five years.

Betty is a bright-faced brunette with a smile that could warm a pawn broker's heart. On TV she sings a little and talks a little but mostly she glows. She exudes a friendliness that is rare in this nervous age. NBC is banking on this quality to capture the housewife's attention from coast to coast.

She has been doing a good job of it locally. Last year she was named the outstanding personality in Los Angeles TV by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Now she's starting a five-a-week half-hour on the NBC network. She'll appear with Frank Devol's orchestra and the Four Jokers, one of the best new acts in show business.

"We'll have a nice, easy show," she says. "Not one of those real fast, flam-bang shows that you feel you have to sit there and watch. Women are too busy during the day to do that. They want the kind of show they can look at between chores around the house."

She is frank enough to admit that she's somewhat flabbergasted by the new project. Only a few years ago, she was doing TV for the experience.

Chicago-born, she came here when she was 2 and grew up in the land of sunshine. Her ambition was to be a singer, but she realized she didn't have enough talent to become another Dinah Shore. So she turned to radio acting and little theater work.

When TV started to blossom, she angled jobs delivering commercials. "At first I did them for nothing," she recalls, "but then I decided it might be better if I got paid for them. The station agreed, and they began paying me $5 per appearance."

Her big break came 4½ years ago when she was signed to play the "secretary" of Al Jarvis on a daytime show over KLAC (now KCOP). That meant being on camera for a large part of 5½ hours. She has probably done more TV than any other girl in the country.

She continued with Jarvis' replacement, Eddie Albert, then did the show on her own. At the same time, she appeared on a weekly situation comedy, Life With Elizabeth, which is now appearing in 80 cities.

Her possibilities as a national commodity were seen by Don Federson, manager of her station, who is now masterminding her fortunes. He analyzes her appeal thusly: "Women like her because she isn't in competition with them. Men like her because she is the kind of girl they'd like their daughters to grow up to be."

4 Men Escape Michigan Jail

Dangerous Prisoners Saw Way to Freedom in Ottawa County

GRAND HAVEN (UP) — Four prisoners, described as dangerous, were being sought today after they sawed their way out of the Ottawa County Jail at Grand Haven.

They were identified as William Hills, 25, and his brother, Thomas Hills, 22, Chicago; Irwin Slack, 25, Grand Haven, and Claude Baldridge, 20, Columbus, Ohio.

The escape was discovered shortly before midnight. Sheriff Vander Beek said the window bars sawed in the break were at the same window which Edward Van Dusen, a federal prisoner who still is at large, cut and fled to freedom a month ago.

The Hills brothers were held on burglary charges in connection with a series of breaking and enterings in western Michigan, particularly in the Holland area. Baldridge was awaiting trial on forgery charges and Slack for felonious assault.

The sheriff said the quartet tied up a fifth prisoner to keep him from spreading the alarm before they sawed the bars and dropped 10 feet to the ground.

The fifth prisoner, Robert Wellman, 20, Grand Haven, serving a 30-day jail term for malicious destruction of property, was bound by the quartet when he refused to accompany them.

Nelson, Wade Given Chance With Indians

By AL LOPEZ

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — We are inclined to believe that the Cleveland Indians' prime weakness in 1953 was at first base and in the outfield.

We believe we have taken steps to remedy these weaknesses with the purchase of Rocky Nelson and Gale Wade from Brooklyn. Nelson was voted the most valuable player in the International League last year when he led the league in home runs and runs batted in.

Wade was the 5th leading batter in the Texas League with a .316 mark and was deemed one of the better major league prospects in that league. He is very fast and led the league in stolen bases with 31.

Other clubs are going to be as good if not better than they were last season. The Yankees are at least as good, if not better because of the trade with Philadelphia.

Boston, with Ted Williams available for a full season, and with the experience that their outstanding newcomers have had, maybe the most improved club in the league. Chicago, with Virgil Trucks on the roster for the entire season, is going to be very rugged.

In addition to Nelson and Wade, the outstanding rookie may turn out to be a young lefthanded pitcher named Dick Tomanek. In his first full season in professional ball with Indianapolis last summer, he won 13 games and lost eight.

Another good pitching prospect is Jose Santiago, who has been in our farm system for five years and has always been with a pennant winner.

All Events Pacesetter Has Closest Call; City Doubles Team Leads

For the 1st time since the Knights of Columbus state bowling tournament opened at Motor Inn, leaders in all divisions retained their positions after last weekend's firing.

Closest anyone came to losing his spot was the all events pacesetter, R. Gaertner of Saginaw. Detroiter E. Ross rolled into second place with a 1952 total at the Motor Inn, but fell one pin short of Gaertner.

Jim Berkley of Pontiac still holds 3rd place with 1926. Berkley and Clement are the lone Pontiac bowlers in the lead. They pace the doubles division with 1297. Dave Ross of Muskegon still is the singles leader with 719 and Sullivan Funeral Home of Royal Oak retains the team lead with 3052.

ABC Sport Shop of Detroit rolled into 4th place, highest change in the team division. B. Bohmier and G. Heaney of Detroit took 3rd in doubles, while the only bowlers to crack the 1st 10 in singles were G. Gibson of Pontiac and J. Belco of Kalamazoo who both hit 672, good for an 8th place tie.

Maxwell's production replaced former leaders, West Huron Recreation of Pontiac, Pontiac five fell to 2nd place with 2729. It was the only change in the standings.

Ann Arbor, Ishpeming Jumpers Leap Fartherest

MESICK (AP) — Ann Arbor's Herbert Drury and Allen Chapman of Ishpeming both jumped 146-feet for the longest leaps in the Michigan Open Ski jumping championships yesterday.

Their jumps, 12 feet short of Art Tokle's record leaps last year, brought Drury a 4th place in Class A and Chapman A 1st in the Class C.

Big 10 Leaders Entertain 2nd Position Club

Minnesota's Hopes Rest on Ed Kalafat's Ability to Stop Schlundt

CHICAGO (AP) — What is expected to be one of the Big Ten basketball season's classics comes up tonight at Bloomington, Ind., where the lofty Indiana Hoosiers meet the tied-for-2nd Minnesota Gophers.

Hoosiers number Minnesota among their victims in compiling a perfect record of seven straight conference victories to date. They won a 71-63 decision on the Gophers' home court.

Minnesota partisans claim their boys had an off night. Since then, Minnesota has won six straight in the Big Ten, including one over Iowa, the team now tied with Gophers for 2nd place. Each has won six and lost one.

Also heartening to Minnesota fans is the fact that center Ed Kalafat, always a rugged defensive performer, has returned to good scoring form. He pitched in 17 points as Minnesota beat surprisingly tough Purdue 67-64 Saturday.

Minnesota's hopes probably will rest with Kalafat tonight, and this question: Can he hold down Indiana's Don Schlundt, who is averaging nearly 30 points per game.

Big Don was limited to 25 Saturday as the Hoosiers beat Michigan State 79-74 but guard Bob Leonard took up the slack by scoring 26 from the outside.

Iowa, which won a nonconference game from Missouri Saturday, 73-53, takes on Michigan at Ann Arbor. In other games, Purdue is at Illinois and Ohio State is at Northwestern.

Minors' Group to Meet Today

Effect of Majors' TV, Radio May Be Discussed in Session

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Minor league baseball's 7-man study committee meets here today in the 2nd of its sessions to consider possible constitutional provisions and other problems.

Effect of major league broadcasts and telecasts on minor league attendance may be discussed. Committee, composed of one representative from each of the seven minor league classifications, will be in session two days.

George M. Trautman, minor president, said he believed that major league telecasts and broadcasts into minor league territory must be curtailed if baseball is to survive on the minor league level.

"I believe, however," Trautman said, "that radio, television and baseball can reach a happy medium."

Loss of Leg Fails to Stop Ski Enthusiast

Birmingham Man Uses Special Equipment to Pursue Sport

CADILLAC (INS) — The thousands of winter sports enthusiasts who jammed Caberfae resort near Cadillac, Mich., over the week-end now feel they've seen everything —a one-legged skier.

He was 27-year-old Bill Daeschner of Birmingham, Mich., who lost a leg six years ago in a railroad accident but didn't lose his enthusiasm for skiing.

Several months ago, he saw a magazine article about one-legged German skiers and wrote for the equipment. Yesterday he tried it out. It amounts to three skis, one on his foot, the others on specially-designed ski poles.

Athough Daeschner took the customary spills, he came back for more and commented: "One thing, I don't have to worry about getting my skis crossed and breaking an ankle."

Wings Stretch Unbeaten Skein to Seven Tilts

Detroiters Tie Boston, 1-1, on 2nd Period Goal by Dutch Reibel

BOSTON (AP) — Detroit Red Wings made it seven straight games without a defeat for their longest unmarred streak of the season last night with a 1-1 tie with Boston.

Wings topped Boston Saturday night 4-2 but had to count on a 2nd period goal last night by rookie Earl (Dutch) Reibel for the 1-1 tie.

Boston winger Leo La Bine found his own rebound and whisked it past Detroit goalie Terry Sawchuk in the 2nd period to give Boston a 1-0 lead.

With only 24 seconds left in the period Reibel picked up a pass from behind the Bruin cage by teammate Gordie Howe. In the same motion Reibel aimed a low 20-foot screen shot past Boston goalie Sugar Jim Henry for the score.

The tie was the end of a seven-game winning streak the Wings had over Boston. Still the Red Wings record over the Bruins is impressive: Eight wins, two ties, and only two losses.

Barthel Fails to Crack Mile Mark Saturday

Makes Another Shot at Dodds' Record at NYAC Meet

Barthel turned in an effortless 4:07.5 time while winning the Wanamaker Mile last Saturday night in the Millrose meet and said later that he wasn't "watching the time," just trying to win.

Barthel, graduate student at Harvard, was expected to attempt to shatter Dodds' 4:05.3 indoor mark, "I wasn't disappointed," Barthel declared. "I'm getting used to the board tracks and the important thing is that I was able to win easily."

Mal Whitfield, "forgotten man" in the 1953 Sullivan Award selection, was awarded the Rodman Wanamaker Trophy as the outstanding Millrose performer. Marvelous Mal breezed to victories in the 600-and 880-yard runs.

Horace Ashenfelter, Olympic steeplechase champ, won his 3rd straight Millrose two-mile in 8:53.3, after flirting with the world's indoor record of 8:50.7 for the 1st mile and three quarters.

Bones Dillard and Bob Richards became eight-time Millrose winners. Dillard won the 60-yard high hurdles and Richards won the pole vault with a leap of 14 ft., 8 inches.

Art Bragg captured the 60-yard dash in 6.2 seconds.

Capac Quintet Wins Tourney

New Haven Is Beaten in Finals; Brown City Takes Consolation

Capac won the tournament championship of the Southern Thumb league for the 2nd straight time, beating New Haven in Saturday night's finals. Playing on its own floor, Capac took a 55-48 decision.

Jim Love collected 22 points for Capac and teammate Dale Wideman added 16. Moore was high for the losers with 14. In the consolation game, Brown City drubbed Armada, 67-38.

Brown City is seeking its 3rd straight league championship this season. Tourney games do not count in regular season standings. Taylor led Brown City with 22 points.

Cranbrook traveled to Pittsburgh over the weekend and split a pair of contests. Shady Side Academy won in wrestling, 22-16, but Bob Kenny's cagers were victorious, 48-44. Shaw Emmons was high with 19 points.

Coast Boxing Under Study in Dope Probe

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Chairman of the California State Athletic Commission promised a drastic investigation of boxing following the arrest on narcotics charges of welterweight Oscar Reyes who was scheduled for the main event tomorrow at the Olympic Auditorium.

Reyes, booked on suspicion of peddling heroin, probably will be suspended today by the commission. He had been considered one of the state's most promising boxers in the 147-pound division. The Olympic replaced him with Frankie Skidmore, Salinas, Calif., to oppose Ramon Tiscareno, Juarez, Mex.

Reyes was the 3rd local boxer to be arrested on narcotics counts in the last year. Keeny Teran, a bantamweight main eventer, and Danny Duran, a preliminary fighter, were the others.

Marciano Sights Charles

Weill Not Up to Running His Training, So Rocky Will Skip Bucceroni Bout

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano will not be seen in serious action again before he fights Ezzard Charles here next June mainly because his manager, Al Weill, does not feel physically up to running a training camp at this time.

Al underwent quite a serious operation less than a month ago and still is forced to take things easy. Otherwise, he says, he probably would have permitted Rocky to take a few swipes at Danny Bucceroni next month, as the IBC wished him to do. Rocky himself is spoiling for a fight right now.

"Income tax positively had nothing to do with it," Weill said. "Even if it would have given us only 20 cents on the dollar, it would have been that much. Everybody has to pay income tax. But right now I just don't feel like trying to get Rocky ready for a fight in six weeks.

"Anyhow, what would a win over Bucceroni mean? They would just say that Rocky was picking soft touches. We'll fight Charles, the man who really deserves the chance.

The Charles fight, as Al puts it, is "practically" made. He expects to meet with President Jim Norris of the IBC here this week and iron out the details.

"There might be a little difficulty about terms," he concedes. "Those people think Charles is quite an attraction and they might think he's worth more money than I do, but we'll work it out. I want Charles to have the fight, because you might say we ducked him for Roland LaStarza last summer. He deserved it as much as LaStarza did.

Mal Whitfield Tosses Hat in 4-Minute Mile 'Ring'

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Now that Mal Whitfield has no more worlds to conquer in the middle distances, he has decided to shoot for the sky—the fabled four-minute mile.

The former Air Force sergeant who won both the 600 and 880 in the Millrose Games Saturday night, said today he would run his first eight-furlong effort at the Santa Barbara Relays in April.

"While the indoor season is on," he said, "I'm going to keep doubling up. That's the best training a runner can get if he is going to try what I intend to attempt."

The lithe Ohio State alumnus will stick to the middle distances during the indoor campaign, which ends late next month.

"I don't particularly like the mile indoors because the board laps almost always are shorter than the cinders," he said, indicating they were more suited to the middle distances.

He didn't say he would run the four-minute mile, which thus far has eluded the likes of Gordon Pirie, Wes Santee and John Landy. But he said he would give it a good try.

In Saturday's meet, he won the 600 in 1:10.7 and the half in 1:54.2. For him, neither constituted an exceptional performance. He needed someone to push him in both. Reggie Pearman, who beat him in the beginning of the season, didn't have it and finished a distant second in the 600 while Marine Carl Joyce was the runner-up in the 880.

Manistee Is Victor in Prep Ski Event

LELAND (UP)—Manistee won the team title without taking a single first place Saturday in the first regional ski meet sponsored by the Michigan High School Athletic Association at Sugarloaf Mountain.

Despite a snappy brother act featuring Ben and Bill Boutell, Bay City Cntral failed to place among the four top finishers in team standings. Manistee was followed by Leelanau School for Boys, Cadillac and Traverse City.

Ben Boutell, 17, took individual honors.

Gene Sarazen's Legs Tire, His Incentive to Win Is Less, but He Still Possesses Champion's Swing

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—Thirty-two years ago I followed a stocky, chubby kid of 20 around the Skokie Golf Course at Glencoe, Ill. His name was Gene Sarazen. He was battling for the Open Golf Championship of the U. S.

* * *

He had such formidable competitors as Bobby Jones, Walter Hagen, John Black, Macdonald Smith, Tommy Armour, Jim Barnes, Jock Hutchison, Bobby Cruickshank and many other stars.

Final count was Sarazen 288, Jones and Black tied for 2nd with 289. Thirty-two years later, which was only a few days ago, the veterans held their championship over Dunedin in Florida.

First days' leader and the ultimate winner was Gene Sarazen. Over a regulation tough course he fired an opening round of 67, five under par. Sarazen is now 52, but for 32 years his swing has stood up—has carried him along with the stars. His powerful piano legs have stood up well but they haven't met the call as well as his swing.

* * *

For Gene still has a championship swing. Only he doesn't last as long as he used to. He gets tired as the tournament moves along and his scoring mounts.

For a round or two, Sarazen can play as well as ever. Not so long ago in the PGA he carried Hogan to the 36th green. About the same time he defeated Sammy Snead in a PGA test.

"The slump after 36 holes is partly physical—partly mental," Gene said. "My legs begin to get a little tired. Part of this is mental. I find I can't concentrate as well. Not for any length of time. Another point is I find the old keenness to win is missing.

The incentive is weaker. I play more now for the fun of playing. If I have a bad hole it doesn't matter so much. You don't become keyed up. When you start slipping you don't feel so much like fighting back. So instead of a 68 your score becomes a 74 or a 75."

Jess Sweetser, a very fine golfer in his own right, told me once that in his opinion Gene Sarazen had the finest swing he had ever seen. "I'll tell you why. It will last longer in the championship groove." That was 15 years ago. The Sarazen swing so far has lasted in the championship groove for 32 years—with no sign of fading.

Death Ends Ring Saga

By TOM BRANAGAN

The former brilliant and once wealthy lightweight champion succumbed to lung cancer at the age of 71—a wasted, incoherent little man without a penny.

It was the end of a slide from the heights of prestige and fortune —a slide that began nearly 25 years ago for the storied Durable Dane, whose fists earned him the world's title in the early 1900s.

He lost a half million-dollar fortune in the financial crash of 1929 and spent his last years subsisting on the public dole and the handouts of friends.

Just a month ago he was committed to the Chicago State Hospital after a court found him suffering from "an incurable senile dementia" and unable to take care of himself. A week before, his wife Edna, 49, had died.

Nelson, who came to this country from Denmark as an infant, fought his first fight at 14 against a circus heavyweight.

Thereafter, in a 22-year ring career, he fought approximately 250 times. He won the lightweight championship in 1908 with a knockout over Joe Gans, the clever Baltimore Negro, and lost it in 1910 in a 40-round bout with Ad Wolgast.

His last match, in 1917, was a 12-round no-decision affair with the then-lightweight champ, Fred Welsh.

Tight W-O Loop Action Marks Prep Card

By JACK SAYLOR

Action in the well tightened up Wayne-Oakland League race features at 21-game schedule in the Oakland County area Tuesday night.

Northville holds a half-game lead following Keego Harbor's victory over Milford Friday night. Keego's win moved the Presidents within a game of Milford and Clarkston, in turn, is only a half-game back of Keego.

Top game Tuesday sends Clarkston to Keego where a loss will eliminate the loser. Northville and Milford are favored to retain their positions against Clarenceville and Brighton, respectively.

After an early January slump during which they lost three straight games, Clarkston's Wolves have averaged more than 60 points per game in winning four straight to bring their season record to 7-3.

Keego has a 6-4 mark, including wins in three of its last four outings. Milford hit the skids since running up seven straight at the season's start. Redkins have dropped three of their last four.

Northville has won 8 of 9 since dropping the season opener. This race probably will go right down to the wire. Final games match Keego and Northville and Clarkston and Milford.

Undefeated Ferndale is tops with nine straight. Rochester and Troy, a pair of Class B powers, have 6 in a row, Northville and OL St. Mary (5); Clarkston, Southfield and Utica (4).

Utica's 4th straight was at the expense of Warren, which dropped its 1st game after 10 wins.

Friday was a good night for teams that were in a losing rut. Clarenceville, which had lost all of its 10 games, beat Brighton, and Center Line, winless in 9 games topped Lakeview.

Walled Lake snapped a 6-game slump by beating Waterford. Avondale had lost five straight until edging Madison, and South Lyon halted its fall at six games by downing Manchester.

In other league games Tuesday, Ferndale can move another step nearer the Eastern Michigan Crown with a victory over East Detroit, and Utica and Warren should stay tied atop the Bi-County with triumphs over Center Line and South Lake.

Non-league games round out the card. Pontiac meets powerful Highland Park, Rochester is at Davison and Lake Orion entertains Ortonville.

TUESDAY

Pontiac at Highland Park; Clawson at Berkley; Rochester at Davison; Caro at Lapeer; Ortonville at Lake Orion; Clarkston at Keego Harbor; Brighton at Milford; Clarenceville at Northville; Eastland at Roseville; East Detroit at Ferndale; Hazel Park at Fort Huron; Hamtramck at Mt. Clemens; Center Line at Utica; Warren at South Lake; Lake Shore at Lakeview; Flint Tech at Cranbrook; Inkster at South Lyon; Shrine at Holy Redeemer; OL St. Mary at St. James; St. Rita at RO St. Mary; St. Mikes at St. Benedict.

NY Giants Sign Five Players to 1954 Contracts

Braves, Dodgers Each Come to Terms With Four Performers

They signed five players during the weekend—pitchers Hoyt Wilhelm, Johnny Antonelli and Don Liddle, second baseman Billy Klaus and catcher Ebba St.Claire. The last four were obtained in last week's trade which sent Bobby Thomson and Sam Calderone to Milwaukee.

The Braves and Brooklyn Dodgers each came to terms with four players. Outfielders Billy Bruton and Jim Pendleton, first baseman-outfielder George Metkovich and pitcher Lew Burdette were signed by Milwaukee and pitchers Johnny Podres, Ron Negray, Glen Mickens and Don Bessent by the Brooks.

Other satisfied players were outfielder Jackie Jensen, pitcher Ellis Kinder and catcher Gus Niarhos of the Boston Red Sox; pitcher Larry Lassalle of Pittsburgh; shortstop Chico Carrasquel of the Chicago White Sox; and catcher Clyde McCullough of the Chicago Cubs.

State Quints Find Going Rough Against Outsiders; UM, MSC, Lawrence Losers

By the Associated Press

Almost all of Michigan's basketball teams tried their hands against outstate opponent's last weekend with the same dire results.

Michigan's Wolverines were soundly beaten at Champaign by a hot Illinois squad 87-68, paced by Johnny Kerr's 25-point splurge. It sank the Wolverines into 7th place in the Big Ten.

Michigan State's Spartans took on Big Ten leading Indiana with plans centering on handcuffing Indiana's big center, Don Schlundt but still lost 79-74.

They "held" Schludnt to 5 points. He made about half of them on foul shots.

While the Spartans centered their attention on him, the Hoosiers' Bob Leonard dropped in 26 points from way outside the circle to help Indiana make it seven straight without a conference loss.

But not all the news was bad for Michigan teams. Two IIAC clubs, Michigan Normal and Central Michigan, both of them havenots in the league, defeated visiting squads from Illinois.

Normal took its first conference win in seven starts, defeating Illinois Normal 84-74. Central Michigan poured in on the 2nd half to tie Western Illinois and go on to a 70-64 overtime win.

Adrian pounded out an 84-68 MIAA basketball win over Alma, helped by Henry Hughes' 26 points.

Ohio University took an easy advantage on its home court to defeat Western Michigan 67-59. DePaw University, on its home court, smashed Albion 96-78. Detroit Tech lost to Rollins, 61-48.

University of Detroit surprised St. Louis University at St. Louis with a close, last second Missouri Valley Conference win 75-74.

Tigers Sign Up Pair of Players to Minor Clubs

DETROIT (UP)—Detroit Tigers today announced signing to minor league contracts of a shortstop and a 3rd baseman who will report with the team for spring training at Lakeland, Fla.

Scout Bill Pierre signed shortstop Morris E. Moore of Plant City, Fla., an 18-year-old left handed hitter, while scout Irving Jacobson signed 3rd baseman Frank Martinez of Newark, N. J.

Martinez, 22-year-old native of Madrid, Spain, served for two years with the U. S. Army at Munich, Germany and played baseball with the 172nd Infantry regiment.

Now It's Official

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UP) — Paul (Bear) Bryant, who recently said he hoped "to stay at the University of Kentucky forever," officially accepted the job today of head football coach and athletic director at Texas A. and M.

Immediately after Kentucky's athletic association accepted his resignation Sunday night, Bryant, whose contract still had nine years to run, wired Texas A. and M. president David H. Morgan acceptance of his new posts.

UM Is Winner in AAU Meet

Nilsson and Booth Lose, but Canadians Lead Wolverines' Triumph

By Press Wire Services

A pair of relay teams, sparked by Canadian "imports," led University of Michigan to an easy triumph in the annual state AAU track meet at Yost Feildhouse in Ann Arbor Saturday night.

Two other Wolverine individual stars were upset, shotputter Fritz Nilsson and high jumper Mark Booth.

Nilsson was beaten by Tom Jones of Miami, O., who tossed the iron ball 55 feet, 4¾ inches. Dan Stewart, MSC freshman outjumped Booth with a leap of 6 feet, 6⅝ inches.

Highlighting the UM victory was the distance medley combine of George Lynch, John Moule, Jack Carroll and John Ross. Their 10 minute, 11.7 effort bettered the record by 8 seconds.

Lynch, Ross and Moule also joined Roy Christiansen to beat MSC in the two-mile relay. Time was 7:54.5. Sophomore Pete Gray, Pete Sutton and junior Grant Scruggs also took 1st for Michigan.

Ex-UM hurdler, Van Bruner, won the high hurdles and former Spartan distance star, Warren Druetzler, won the 2-mile.

NCAA Tourney May Prove '53 Replay

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (AP)—College basketball's world series, the annual NCAA Tournament, gets under way exactly one month from today—and it looks like a replay of last year's meet.

More than half a dozen of the teams that began the scramble last year are almost certain bets to qualify again next month, with Indiana's defending champions leading the way.

The Hoosiers, heading toward their second straight Big Ten title with a 7-0 conference mark, play host tonight to Minnesota, a team they whipped last month in Minneapolis. It's the last chance for Notre Dame, which bowed to Indiana in the NCAA quarter-finals last year, won its 12th game against only two setbacks by turning back De Paul 59-53 Saturday. The Irish, ranked seventh nationally, appear certain to be named one of the "at large" teams east of the Mississippi River.

Seattle, just as certain a choice for one of the Western "at large" berths for the second successive year, now boasts the longest winning streak among major colleges. No. 22 was a 71-49 romp over Gonzaga. Seattle is ranked sixth.

Tenth-ranked Holy Cross should gain an Eastern "at large" berth, if the Crusaders decide on the NCAA again instead of the National Invitation Tournament. With Kansas, which lost the NCAA final to Indiana last year on Leonard's foul shot, is tied with Colorado for the Big Seven lead. Louisiana State, a semifinalist in '53, is tied with Kentucky for the Southeastern Conference lead.

Idaho State, beaten in the first round last year, could be the first team to clinch a berth in the 1954 tournament. A two-game sweep over Colorado State this weekend will assure Idaho State the team's second successive Rocky Mountain Conference title.

Fordham (14-2) and Oklahoma City (12-4) have the records to gain "at large" berths again.

Kentucky, No. 1 in the AP poll, walloped Georgia 100-68 Saturday for the team's 16th without defeat.

Duquesne, ranked just behind Kentucky with an 18-0 mark, was even more impressive. The Dukes not only whipped the Quantico Marines 81-68, but stopped Paul Arizin, Philadelphia Warriors star, with 12 points.

Two upsets jarred the top 10 as Eastern Kentucky whipped Western Kentucky, No. 4, 63-54, and George Washington topped Duke, No. 8, 76-71.

A total of 2,572 dogs begin competition for the top prize before 47 judges, headed by Virgil D. Johnson of Savannah, Ga., who will select the best-in-show winner Tuesday night about 11 p.m.

The Springer Spaniel, owned by Mrs. F. H. Gasow of Birmingham, recently was named as the number one dog in the midwest. King Peter has won 23 all-breed shows and placed 2nd in the sporting group at the Garden three years ago.

William C. Sears, also of Birmingham, is showing Ch. Ludar of Blue Bar, the English Setter which has placed 1st in 40 groups while winning 13 shows. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Seifen of Birmingham left Sunday with their Dachshund, Ch. Sifenjagheim Vesta, best of opposite sex last year.

German shepherds are entered by Melvin H. Steinbrenner and Grant Mann of Southfield and Mrs. A. S. McNeil of Rochester will show eight Schipperkes, headed by Ch. Al-Gene's Rip-Lee.

Pete Castro is taking two boxers and Fred Jackson of Royal Oak will show Frejax Royalist, grandson of the late Int. Ch. Frejax Royal Salute greatest winner in Springer Spaniel history.

Other county dogs are entered by Eugene Haupt of Royal Oak and John Hall of Birmingham.

Nick Pappadakis had 17 points Yeetes added 13.

Battle Creek and Gary, Ind., were unable to compete in the tourney.

Pontiac's St. George Juniors defeated Detroit St. Nicholas in an exhibition game, 44-27, after holding a slender 3-point margin at the half. St. George outscored the visitors 14-5 in the 3rd quarter. Steve Ryeson was high for Pontiac with 21.

CASE—The Rolling Turn

Emphasis on Smooth Release—The preceding article pictured index finger action. It explained how pointing the index finger at the object pin or pins with a reaching follow-through must pay dividends—big dividends.

Let me add one more very important item to the index delivery: With it you concentrate on a smooth release only. Forget speed. What you will develop, with easy action, is a rolling turn on the ball, which is very efective.

Any effort to get unnatural and unnecessary speed will result in over-turning the hand, so that the index finger will pass the pointing stage. Make the stride to the foul line slow, lazy-like, with no hurry to get to the line or get rid of the ball.

The sketch of Frank Santore of New York, the American Bowling congress all-events champsion, shows him about to release the ball. His swing is passing the left leg, easily and smoothly. Fingers are on the outside or right of the ball. And notice the index finger. He has only to point it at the ball. And notice the index finger. He has only to point it at the object pin to finish the swing.

Are You Hoping to Find a Refund Due? If You Do, You May Ask for It in Cash

By RICHARD A. MULLENS
Article 12

Do you have a refund coming or do you owe more tax?

First enter your tax in Item 5 (A) of page 1. If, back in Article 6, You computed a self-employment tax, enter that amount in Item 5 (B) and add the two together.

Then show in Item 6(A) the total tax that has been withheld from your pay. Try to get a Form W-2 from each employer who withheld tax.

If, for some reason, you can't get a Form W-2, attach a statement giving details of the amount of tax withheld. Many of you will have Social Security or FICA tax withheld from your pay in addition to income tax.

If more than $54 was withheld from any one person's pay for the FICA tax, then the excess should be shown in the "Income Tax Withheld" column of Item 2, page 1 and added to the total tax withheld.

If you owe an additional amount to Uncle Sam, payment must be made when you file the return and the return must either be in the district director's office or postmarked not later than midnight of March 15.

If you have a refund coming, you can either have all or part of it paid back to you or credited against your 1954 estimated tax. Do not ask to have any credited unless you expect to file a Declaration of Estimated Tax on or before March 15, 1954.

After your return reaches the district director's office, it will be checked for mathematical accuray.

If you have made an error, the district director will send you an explanation together with either a bill or a refund depending on whether you figured too little or too much tax.

If you should receive a notice telling of a mathematical error in your return and you do not agree, write the director explaining why you don't concur in his statement.

Your return will also be reviewed to determined whether it should be examined by a revenue agent. Ordinarily only those returns which have doubtful or suspicious items are examined closely.

The last few years, however, the Internal Revenue Service has been picking out some returns at random and giving them a close examination.

If your return is examined and additional tax proposed, you have the right to ask for a reconsideration of the change if you do not agree with it. If you are not satisfied with a decision made in your district director's office, ask the director for the address of his district commissioner.

Ordinarily the bureau has three years from the time you file your return in which to charge you additional tax.

But, if you make a fraudulent return, or if you fail to file a return, action can be taken by the Internal Revenue Service at any time to collect the tax and penalties.

Old Soybeans, Wheat Moving

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat and old crop soybeans moved ahead in active dealings on the board of trade today. Feed grains held close to previous closing levels, as did November soybeans.

Buying orders in the pits at the opening quickly sent March, May and July soybeans, plus July, September and December wheat, into new seasonal high ground.

Once they were through previous tops a good number of stop-loss orders were touched off, adding to the upward surge.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1 to 1⅝ cents higher, March $2.14¾, corn unchanged to ⅛ lower, March $1.53⅛, oats unchanged to ¼ higher, March 79, rye ¼ to ¾ higher, March $1.23½, soybeans ½ to 2½ higher, March $3.18¼ and lard 5 cents lower to 5 cents a 100 pounds higher, March $16.85.

Cabbie's Condition Good After Slugging

A Pontiac taxicab driver was reported in good condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today after he was slugged on the head by an unidentified passenger Saturday.

Eugene Nonamaker, 51, of 81 Maines Ave. told police he picked up the passenger at Bagley and Wesson Sts. and was told to drive to Hess and Dix Sts., where he said the passenger struck him several times with a blunt instrument.

Det. John Williams said police were unable to establish a motive after Nonamaker said his assailant did not rob him.

Burglars Enter Cottage Twice During Last Month

For the second time in less than a month burglars have broken into an Oakland Township cottage, this time escaping with some linen and beer, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

The cottage, at 745 Gunn Rd., owned by Dr. Willis B. Eggleston of 720 S. Laurel, Royal Oak, was entered sometime since Feb. 3, a neighbor told Detectives Leo Hazen and Delos Anderson.

The same burglar who entered the cottage Jan. 10 and stayed there overnight is responsible for the latest break-in, the detectives believe. Entry was gained by forcing open a porch window.

Soft Steels Tip Market Lower

Trading started fast with prices generally higher. But the pace soon slackened and many sections turned irregular. Volume was not expected to reach two million shares as it has in the past two sessions.

Aircrafts were in good demand. Boeing and United Aircraft advanced but steels turned downward about noontime, signaling a change in market tone. Fractionally lower were Bethlehem, Republic and U. S. Steel.

On the rise were General Motors, Studebaker, International Harvester, National Distillers, Radio Corp., American Telephone, International Nickel, American Cyanamid, American Tobacco and New York Central.

Lower were Chrysler, Packard, Goodyear, Sears Roebuck, Du Pont, Dow Chemical, Westinghouse, Con. Edison, American Can and Southern Pacific.

Condemnation Suit to Resume

Court Hearings Start Tomorrow in City-Habel Parking Land Deal

Hearings will resume in Oakland County Circuit Court tomorrow in Pontiac's suit to condemn land at 11-49 Parke St. for construction of a municipal parking lot.

On Friday, Oscar Gunderson, Wayne County Road Commission traffic expert, summed up findings of a study of Pontiac's downtown parking area.

Gunderson said there was little space for the short-term parker, with most spaces taken on an all-day basis.

He said parking space is very limited near the two downtown bank buildings in the area which the proposed 200-car metered lot would serve.

Coffee Problem Tackled Twice

Solons Make 2 Moves to Counter Sharp Rise in Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators moved on two fronts today in response to clamor over recent sharp increases in coffee prices.

Five leaders of the coffee trade in New York City were asked to testify before a Senate Banking subcommittee headed by Sen. Beall (R-Md). It is seeking to learn whether speculation played a part in price jumps to more than $1 a pound.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt) asked quick passage of a bill that would impose government supervision of trading and speculation in coffee.

Aiken, chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said in an interview the bill likely would go through on a calendar call, a procedure by which the Senate passes bills without debate unless there is objection.

The legislation would require the Commodity Exchange Authority, an Agriculture Department agency, to monitor trading in coffee futures contracts.

Spokesmen for coffee producers in Latin-American nations have said a poor crop and the operation of supply and demand caused the price jumps. They have called for action to counter any consumer boycotts of coffee.

"Development of the facts should do much to remove any misunderstandings," he said.

Police said clerks failed to stop the trio when seen leaving the store with the merchandise. Forty-eight nylon nightgowns were reported missing.

His car crashed into two cars on N. Rochester road in Rochester, according to Patrolman Vivian Moore and James Stone. The other motorists were Wilbur Fitzthomas, 62, of 406 Romeo Rd., and George A. Hesketh, 28, of 333 Glendale, both of Rochester. Neither man was injured.

Petty Officers No Proud Title, Says Legislator

The dictionary defines "petty" as small, trifling, inferior, he said in remarks prepared for House delivery today, "but I am sure these names have no part in the magnificent work that the petty officers in our Navy perform."

Matthews said he assumed British tradition had bequeathed the word to Americans. "I am certainly not an Anglophobe (British hater)," he added, "but I think we can find great improvement on this name."

His advice: change the name to "enlisted officer."

The complaint was signed by policemen Milton Friedley and Richard L. Deal late Saturday. The officers said they arrested Dworshak after a chase which began when they saw the attorney's car speeding through downtown Boise.
