Political Issues Not on Agenda for Ike, Brownell

President Will Discuss Only Matters Affecting Justice Department

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower gets back into still another government business field today at a hospital conference with Atty. Gen. Brownell.

Step by slow step since his Sept. 24 heart attack, the President has been resuming active direction of international and domestic policy at meetings with top administration officials.

He will discuss Justice Department matters with Brownell, who played an important backstage role in helping win the Republican presidential nomination for Eisenhower in 1952.

Both the attorney general and the Denver White House said in advance of today's conference, however, that politics was not on the agenda.

A prominent physician said he believes the President can run for another term if he wants to.

Eisenhower's peace talks with Russia were spread on the record today in Washington as Secretary of State Dulles prepared to take up where the President left off at the Geneva Big Four conference.

They included Eisenhower's assurance to Russia that "under no circumstances is the United States ever going to be a party to aggressive war—against any nation."

An 88-page booklet of about 40,000 words, made public late yesterday by the State Department, included formal statements made by Eisenhower and other heads of government at the summit conference last July.

Shooting of Doe in Self Defense Brings $90 Fine

William Hill, 26, of Flint told conservation officers it was self-defense, but pleaded guilty yesterday to shooting a 125-lb. doe out of season.

Hill claimed he was out for pheasants, and was startled into blasting the doe with his shotgun as it leaped over a fence just behind him. He paid $90 fine and $10 costs.

It was his second appearance before Justice Butler. In the first, Oct. 27, 1952, he paid $10 fine and $8 costs for hunting out of season.

2 Fatalities Due to Heart Attack; 2 Others Shot

Small Game, Pheasant Season Opens Under Good Conditions

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two more deaths—one by gunshot and a heart attack—brought the fatality toll to four today as 350,000 hunters tramped the fields in the second day of Michigan's small game and pheasant season.

More than 40 hunters have been wounded by gunfire, several of them seriously.

Delbert Barker, 38, of Bancroft, was killed near Owosso when the gun of his hunting companion, Paul Ollis, 24, of Flint, discharged accidentally.

Henry J. (Jack) London, 46, of Lansing, died of a heart attack while pheasant hunting near Diamondale. A companion said London flushed a bird, fired, then dropped dead.

Fred Tiede, 13, of Britton, was killed when struck in the back by a shotgun blast near his farm home in Lenawee County. His companions, Michael George, 48, of Detroit, and Ronald Machine, 23, of Britton, said the youngster stepped into their line of fire. The shooting was ruled accidental.

Charles C. Cerreny, 42, of Kalamazoo, suffered a fatal heart attack while he was hunting with two companions south of Holland.

The State Conservation Department reported hunting conditions on the opening day "as good or better than last year." Hunters in the Thumb district were bagging the most pheasants, better than an average of one per man, a spokesman said.

The Holland-Zeeland-Grandville area in western Michigan also was reported good for hunting.

The department said hunters should kill nearly 1¼ million

3 Hunters Missing, Boat Washes Ashore

GRINDSTONE CITY (AP) — The empty boat of three young duck hunters missing since Wednesday drifted ashore here today off the rough waters of Saginaw Bay.

Sheriff Merritt R. McBride said "there's only a remote chance" the trio will be found alive.

A CAP plane and a coast guard boat continued a search in the Charity Islands for the three, Albert Spencer, 22, Norma Jean Eifenslmer, 18, and her brother John, 16, all of Flint.

The trio left their car at Caseville early Wednesday and set out for the islands in a 14-foot aluminum boat, with a 25 horsepower outboard engine. Relatives reported them missing last night.

Small craft warnings were up on the lake yesterday. Officials said the three may have taken refuge on an island and the wind carried their boat away.

Shopping Values, New 1956 Models Drawing Residents Despite Weather

Drawn by the twin attractions of a motorcade of 1956 Pontiac autos plus a parade of shopping values, shoppers flocked into Pontiac early today despite threatening skies.

The motorcade of 20 shiny autos, driven by attractive young women employes of Pontiac Motor Division, wound its way up Saginaw street to the division's administration building at Oakland and Baldwin Aves.

There, the Pontiac High School Band, which led the parade, completed its part of the event.

A miniature Pontiac convertible continued with the regulation-sized cars to the Tel-Huron Shopping Center. Five of the cars were left on display there.

Shoppers in the meantime, bustled through stores observing the second annual Pontiac Leadership Celebration, inaugurated last year with the advent of the 1955 Pontiac models.

Stores displayed the celebration's slogan, freely borrowed from the Pontiac auto's advertising theme—"Dollar for dollar, you save more in Pontiac."

The sale aspect of the celebration continues through tomorrow.

"Pontiac offers the largest range of goods and services in Oakland County," said Richard L. McPartlin, president of the sponsoring Retail Merchants Assn.

"This leadership celebration helps us to emphasize that. It also helps us to show our appreciation to Pontiac Motor Division for the important part it plays in our community's economic life."

Debt Pool Probe Opens in Detroit

Broomfield, Committee Holding Investigation for Possible Laws

Harry F. Publow, president of a Royal Oak debt pool agency, said yesterday he is prepared to defend his firm before a Michigan Senate investigating subcommittee holding open hearings on debt pool practices.

Publow, president of Credit Control Corp., was at the hearing when it opened in Detroit yesterday. More than a dozen persons testified they went to Publow's firm or the Advance Credit Corp., also of Royal Oak in an attempt to free themselves from debt worries.

Publow, who appeared at the hearing voluntarily yesterday, said he would defend his company "case by case" as they came along.

The committee, headed by Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), is seeking information for possible legislation to control debt pool firms.

The debt pool, for a fee, splits a customers' available income among creditors when a person has financial difficulty.

Witnesses said that some firms not only did not distribute amounts given them from pay checks, but sold their accounts and caused them to be sued.

The hearings are scheduled to run through today.

Senators Deny Request for Special Planes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sens. McClellan (D-Ark) and Chaves (D-NM) say they have not asked for special government planes to fly them and their wives home from Europe.

(See story on page 11).

And an aide of Sen. Stennis (D-Miss) said in Washington he knew of no such request by his senator. Stennis himself could not be reached immediately.

Fair Weather Seen With Moderate Wind

According to the U. S. Weather Bureau, it will be mostly fair tomorrow.

Moderate northerly winds are predicted for the area also.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 48 degrees. The thermometer registered 48 degrees at 2 p.m.

Football Forecast

Good football weather, with sunny skies and a high ranging from 56 to 60 degrees is the weatherman's forecast for the game between Michigan State & Illinois at East Lansing tomorrow.

Shopping Center Will Start Soon

70 Stores to Be Built in Bloomfield Project, Developers Announce

Construction of a 70-store shopping center at Telegraph and Square Lake Rds. in Bloomfield Township will be started "in the very near future," it was announced today.

A release stated that the 70 stores will be built simultaneously and that the estimated total value of the development eventually will reach $35 million.

Developers will be Don M. Casto and Don M. Casto Jr., of Columbus, Ohio, who control and operate a chain of 25 shopping centers. Five others are now under construction.

Bloomfield Township Supervisor David E. Anderson said the developers will build their own sewage disposal plant and have drilled their own wells for water.

These were two of the major problems facing the project when the township board mulled permitting the land to be annexed by Pontiac, as the developers requested several months ago.

Today's announcement clears the picture on the development, which has been clouded since last month when the annexation request was withdrawn.

SUSANA DJUIM

Venezuela Girl Garners Honors as 'Miss World'

LONDON (AP)—Susana Djuim, a tall brunette model from Caracas, today wore the crown of "Miss World," a title that covers a lot of territory.

Wearing a bathing suit that did not cover so much, the 19-year-old Venezuelan beauty won the title in competition with 20 other girls last night. The contest was sponsored by a chain of British dance halls and the London newspaper, The Sunday Dispatch.

Margaret Anne Haywood of Jonesboro, Ark., a green-eyed blonde, was runnerup.

Miss Djuim stands 5 feet 8 inches. Her other measurements: bust 34, waist 21, hips 34.

Lake Huron Pipeline Authority Approved

DETROIT (AP) — Supervisors of three counties have approved organization of an inter-county water authority to build a pipeline from Lake Huron to fill water needs of extreme Southeastern Michigan, Mayor Howard Kelly of Royal Oak reported today.

Macomb County supervisors will vote Monday and Wayne County's Nov. 1.

Kelly said those which have "approved in principle" the formation of an inter-county authority are Oakland, Washtenaw and St. Clair counties.

Kelly said "facts and figures" on costs, needs, anticipated population growth and other factors would be presented to a meeting of the Inter-County Supervisors Committee in Mt. Clemens next Thursday.

Maid Knows Her News

BRISTOL, Va. (AP)—The Bristol Herald-Courier lost a subscriber this week when a housewife wrote the paper's circulation department: "We are stopping the paper because our maid won't prepare breakfast until she has read it and this makes all late for appointments each morning."

7th Date in 8 Days

Meg, Peter Stay Up Late at Cousin's House Party

LONDON (INS)—Princess Margaret and Peter Townsend were guests last night at a gay London dinner party that stretched into today's early morning hours.

Their reunion, a happy and merry one after not seeing each other for nearly 24 hours, lasted seven hours at the town house of Margaret's cousin.

The party was held on the eve of another severe emotional test for the 25-year-old princess who wants to marry the divorced Townsend but still is considering the far-reaching repercussions of such an act.

Today, Margaret, along with her sister, Queen Elizabeth, their mother and the Duke of Edinburgh, will attend the ceremonial unveiling of a national memorial to her father, George VI.

Some persons believe the princess might break down at the ceremony because of the difficult decision she has been weighing added to the tremendous affection which she held for her father.

There also are persons very close to the court who believe had George not died in February 1952 his daughter would be having a far easier time today.

KING LIKED PETER

The late king was deeply fond of Townsend and personally picked the World War II air hero for the court post which brought him in daily contact with the young Margaret.

Margaret and Peter's rendezvous at the home of Maj. and Mrs. John Wills—who were their hosts at the country home last weekend—was their seventh evening together in the last eight days.

It was evident that the princess was determined to see the RAF group captain at every possible opportunity, despite growing criticism of such meetings while their future remains uncertain.

These constant rendezvous were interpreted in some quarters as a sign that the princess has not yet made the final decision and will not do so until she has discussed with the 40-year-old commoner all the consequences of their marriage.

And while Townsend can give

Army Drafts Biggest 'Brain' for Detroit Job

DETROIT (AP) — BIZMAC, that awesome electronic computer said to be the world's largest "brain," is being drafted by the Army.

* * *

The machine, which occupies 20,000 square feet of space, cost $5,500,000 and does the work of 300 men, will be set up at the Army Ordnance Tank-Automotive Command's electronic processing branch here.

With no less than 95 trained workers operating it, BIZMAC will be used primarily to keep track of 150,000 separate items stored in Army supply depots. When supplies fall below the "safe" level, BIZMAC will light up, blink, and flash warnings.

The Army says it adds, subtracts, mutiplies and divides virtually any combination with amazing rapidity — and will save a million dollars a year in command operating costs.

* * *

And, true to Army form, everything BIZMAC does will be in triplicate.

New Water Pipeline Route Recommended

By JOHN CLOCK

A man who knows the water business from long experience says the Detroit metropolitan area is letting itself in for a lot of unnecessary expense if it goes ahead with a proposed $30,000,000 project to pipe in water from Lake Huron.

Ray D. Baker, who owns a contracting firm at 19200 W. Eight Mile Rd. and lives at 3011 Warner Dr., West Bloomfield Township, believes it would be cheaper in the long run to lay conduits into the area from Lake St. Clair.

The reason, of course, is because Lake St. Clair is closer.

The southern tip of Lake Huron is approximately 50 miles from downtown Pontiac as the crow flies. Lake St. Clair is only 25 miles away.

Baker, who was a civil engineer with the Detroit Water Board in 1912-13 and has worked with the installation and operation of water systems all his life, cited figures released in a Southeastern Oakland County Water Authority report in backing up his claims.

Cost of piping water from Lake Huron would amount to $6.03 per 1,000 cubic feet, according to an authority survey. It costs only $1.90 per 1,000 cubic feet to buy Lake St. Clair water from Detroit.

Baker conceded that there is some pollution in the St. Clair River, but took a dim view of the contention that Lake St. Clair water is almost unfit to drink after passing through the growing industrial areas on both sides of the St. Clair River.

He noted that big, fresh water muskies are becoming more plentiful every year in Lake St. Clair, despite pollution.

He said the shallow, saucer-like lake is a "natural purification basin" and that there would be no appreciable difference in the cost of treating water from either of the two lakes.

Strike City Ousts Martial Law

East Indiana Returning to Civil Control; Guard Near Piston Plant Cut

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Martial law was over in the Perfect Circle Corp. strike areas in Eastern Indiana today.

Gov. George N. Craig returned the area to civil control yesterday and cut the National Guard troops from 330 to 150. Craig said he was assured the reduced Guard, operating under civil control, could maintain order.

The remaining troops are on duty in Henry County and New Castle, the county seat.

Craig called out the Guard Oct. 5 after eight persons were wounded in an exchange of shots between striking CIO United Auto Workers and non-strikers in the piston ring firm's foundry in New Castle.

Some 1,200 union employes and sympathizers marched on the plant. Shots were fired from the plant and returned from the crowd.

Full martial law was clamped on the area Oct. 10 after Craig returned from a vacation in the Bahamas and held a conference with union, company and civil officials.

His order yesterday came after conferring with Maj. Gen. H. A. Doherty, state adjutant general; Col. Howard S. Wilcox, commander of troops on duty in the strike; Mayor Paul F. McCormack of New Castle, and their aides.

Craig indicated he depended primarily on the recommendation of the National Guard officers on the scene. A secondary consideration, he indicated, was the fact that Walter Reuther, president of the UAW and CIO, had asked strikers not to engage in violence.

Craig's action was criticized by a union spokesman. Raymond H. Berndt, director of region 3, UAW-CIO, said in a statement that yesterday was the third time the governor had failed to keep his word by failing to remove all the troops.

The strike started July 25 at the Perfect Circle foundry in New Castle, the headquarters and main plant in Hagerstown, and two plants in Richmond.

Chief issues involve UAW demands for a union shop, a layoff pay plan and higher wages. The company said wages averaged $1.96 an hour before the strike and that it offered an 11-cent package. The union sought a 21-cent package.

Princess, Townsend Stay Late at Party

his advice, that is all he can do, since the final yes or no must be Margaret's alone.

Yesterday, Sir Anthony Eden's cabinet held a two-and-half hour meeting—the longest of the prime minister's administration — and there were solid reports Margaret's future was discussed.

Half-way through the meeting, Attorney General Sir Reginald Manningham - Buller was summoned from a courtroom where he was in the midst of a speech to rush to the cabinet room at No. 10 Downing St.

Manningham - Buller would be the man to consult on constitutional matters such as changes in the marriage act.

Sir Alan Herbert, noted author, and author of the 1937 Divorce Reform Act, said today Princess Margaret and Peter Townsend "should have a bangup wedding in Scotland where such things are easier."

He expressed the belief that if the princess marries Townsend, whose divorced wife is still living, it would not "produce any considerable church-state crisis."

Mac Says He Frowned Upon Yalta Concessions

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur said yesterday he was bound by the World War II Yalta concessions, although he would have opposed them had he had an opportunity.

* * *

Said the wartime Pacific commander in a statement relating to long secret Pentagon records on Yalta:

"I repeat, had my views been requested concerning the secret agreements bearing upon Russia's entrance into the Pacific war, I would have opposed them as fantastic."

(See interpretive story on page 16.)

MacArthur freely admitted that he spoke in favor of Russia's entry into the Pacific war both before and after Yalta. Although he found the Yalta concessions unpalatable, he added, they were binding upon him. He went on:

* * *

"The attempt to interpret any statements I may have made in the course of such post-Yalta discussions as reflecting my pre-Yalta views and convictions is wholly unwarranted."

REKINDLES ROW

MacArthur's statement came as the Pentagon records rekindled the old controversy over the Soviet entrance into the Pacific war just six days before Japan's surrender.

Last March, a Republican-Democratic debate over Yalta brought up questions on MacArthur's views at that time. MacArthur said then that he had not the slightest connection with the Yalta Conference and added:

"Had my views been requested with reference to Yalta I would most emphatically have recommended against bringing the Soviet into the Pacific war at that late date. To have made vital concessions for such a purpose would have seemed to me fantastic."

The Pentagon records—part of an incomplete 35,000-word file—showed that MacArthur twice conferred directly in the opinion that Russia should move into the conflict against Japan.

* * *

Once was shortly after Pearl Harbor. The second was in mid-June 1945, two months before the war ended and after the Yalta Conference.

Conceding these points, MacArthur said he firmly believed Russia should have been brought into the Pacific war at the very outset. As for his 1945 statement after Yalta, MacArthur declared:

"Once such decisions had been taken and communicated to me following Yalta, they became binding upon me as upon any other theater commander. All future discussions thereon with War Department representatives necessarily became limited to consideration of their ultimate application to the conduct of the war."

At Yalta, a Russian Crimean resort, President Roosevelt and British Prime Minister Churchill made territorial and other concessions—largely at the expense of China—to bring Russian Premier Stalin into the Pacific war. That was in February 1945.

Russia finally entered the war against Japan six days before the surrender Aug. 14, 1945.

pheasants before the season closes Nov. 10. Three-fourths of the total were brought down yesterday and by the end of the weekend 90 per cent of the total kill should be accounted for, the department said.

Most of the gunfire injuries suffered Thursday were minor, but several hunters were hospitalized with serious wounds.

One of the most seriously injured was John Sheedy, 17, of Garden City, a Detroit suburb. Hunting in Nankin Township, he received a full charge from a 12-gauge shotgun at close range in the right leg. Doctors feared the leg would have to be amputated.

Another 17-year-old Harold A. Brady of Clio, was seriously wounded when he tripped while running with a loaded gun. He was reported in fair condition with arm and hand wounds at Osteopathic Hospital in Flint.

Robert Allard, 26, of Ferndale, shot in the face near Mt. Clemens, was reported in "temporarily serious" condition.

Others whose condition was not considered serious:

Eugene L. Adams, 36, of St. Charles, wounded in chest in Swan Creek Township, Saginaw County; George Mann Jr., 12, Freeland, shot in legs, chest and arms in Kochville Township, also in Saginaw County.

Urges U.S. Cut European Aid

Bentley Tells Views to Ann Arbor Group After Trip Abroad

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich) last night called for an end to this country's economic aid to West European nations "with one or two possible exceptions."

Bentley, speaking before a local manufacturers association, reviewed his recent European tour as a member of a House foreign affairs subcommittee.

"My personal feelings, with one or two possible exceptions, is that there should be no more economic aid and little military aid to Western Europe in the future," he said. He did not name the countries he felt should continue to receive aid.

The touring congressmen "found economic conditions pretty good throughout Western Europe," he said. "But we also found a certain apathy and neutralism."

IDEA WIDESPREAD

"The idea of neutrality is pretty widespread over Europe," he said. "They want to let down . . . take care of their own people . . . generally get back on a peacetime basis." And he added:

* * *

"They want to shake off the burden of armaments . . . they don't worry too much about communism."

Bentley, who has been boomed by some elements of the Republican Party as a potential candidate for governor, spurned talk of his political aspirations in response to questions before the speech.

"I've been away from Michigan for a number of weeks and I am not in a position to make any decision at this time—until I have been back here for a long enough period to familiarize myself with the Michigan picture and discuss the matter with all available interested parties."

Republican sources said it was unlikely Bentley would make a decision on the gubernatorial post until meeting with Mayor Albert B. Cobo of Detroit, another GOP possibility. Cobo is visiting in Arizona.

To Manage Company

DELTON (AP) — Robert Kelley, telephone construction engineer previously employed by a Madison, Wis., firm, is scheduled to take over Monday as manager of the Delton Telephone Co.

The Day in Birmingham

Madame Wellington Koo Opens Town Hall Series

BIRMINGHAM — From the woman of old China tottering along on her bound feet and in her flowing robes, to the sheath-clad, educated women of today—these depict some of the changes the modern Chinese woman has traveled to gain her freedom.

Yet today she, like her fellow men, can see a new threat looming ahead in that path, in the face of the wall of Communism.

The China of the present represents a "symbol of loyalties," Madame Wellington Koo called it in opening the Birmingham Town Hall series with her lecture yesterday.

"No country in Asia has gone to communism and only when the people feel it unsafe to be non-Communistic, will they go," said the diminutive wife of China's ambassador to Washington.

"Any Communistic showing will make the Asiatic feel less secure—and crush the anti-Communistic spirit of Asia."

And with these words for thought she ended her talk: "If a non-Communistic Asia is considered vital to American and world security, then make their preference safe."

COMPARES DRESS

The attractive Madame Koo, who speaks four languages fluently, put her best English forward in a lighter vein during earlier moments of her talk.

She humorously described the old-time marriage and divorce customs and went on to compare the old with the new in matters of women's dress, political and property rights, opportunity in education and jobs.

All this changed drastically with the "1947 emancipation of Chinese women," explained Madame Koo, who is also one of the founders of the United Nations.

She repeated her speech today before women attending the Friday portion of the duplicate lecture series being sponsored by St. Anne's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church. Dr. Murray Banks, psychiatrist, will speak on Nov. 10 and 11.

City Attorney Forbes Hascall filed a motion for a new trial Wednesday in the zoning case brought against the city by Mrs. Alma B. Grimes, 227 W. Frank St. Hascall said his motion should be heard on Monday.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank Doty has ruled Birmingham's zoning ordinance "unreasonable" and ordered issuance of a writ of mandamus forcing the city to permit Mrs. Grimes to use her property for income bungalow purposes.

The property is so-zoned but because it does not meet area requirements, Mrs. Grimes had been refused a building permit to make alterations making the house more suitable for multiple use.

Hascall said that while the city ordinance effects some 1,000 lots in the Leinbach-Humphreys Subdivision south of Lincoln, Mrs. Grimes' property comes close to meeting requirements because her residence is of two-story construction and her lot is larger than most of the others.

However, City Manager Donald C. Egbert said this week that the effected properties perhaps should be rezoned to single family.

Honor System for Boat Rental

Cedar Lake Liveryman Is 'Beat Out' of but Few Fees by Fishermen

LAWTON (AP)—Boat liveryman Ed Wagner of nearby Cedar Lake puts fishermen on their honor when they rent his boats.

Wagner, 73, operates a unique "honor system" of renting boats from his lakeside garage. At the rear garage door he has installed a system of slots with numbers corresponding to boat numbers.

A sign directs the customer to insert his money and help himself to a boat.

Rental fee is one dollar a day and Wagner says he doesn't set a definite time for return of the boats. In two years of operating the system he figures he's been "beat out" of one or two fees.

"And that wasn't intentional, I'm sure," he adds.

Wagner, formerly of Hammond, Ind., concedes that his "honor" rental system is partly the result of failing health. He retired after 50 years as a painter in Hammond.

GOT TUCKERED

"Before I had the slot system I used to get all tuckered out. About the time I'd go to bed, or start getting something to eat, another car would come in," he says.

Now, unless the prospective customer is a newcomer to his landing, Wagner stays inside and lets the system take care of itself.

Wagner's wife died nine years ago and he moved from Indiana to Cedar Lake a year later. He said he played professional baseball with a Kalamazoo team about 40 years ago under the name of Edwards. Wagner says he also played with a team at Jackson of the same league and with semi-pro clubs in Chicago.

Officers Suspected in Burglary Ring

ST. LOUIS (AP) — One policeman has been charged with burglary and two others were suspended pending investigation of an alleged burglary ring.

John P. Graham, 34, a patrolman in suburban Wellston, was released yesterday on $2,500 bond after Magistrate Raymond Harris issued a second-degree burglary and larceny charge against him.

Several other Wellston policemen including the two suspended, were released after questioning in connection with recent thefts from stores. All denied any part in the thefts. Graham also denied the charge against him.

Quentin R. Stewart of Wellston was charged with receiving property the policeman is accused of taking.

Police said about $800 in stolen goods were found in Stewart's home. He said he didn't know the goods were stolen when he bought them.

A St. Louis county grand jury began an investigation into the case.

Army Association Meets for Annual Convention

FT. BENNING, GA. (AP)—The Association of the United States Army — dedicated to the task of reminding the public and Pentagon planners about the Army's mission in defense — gathered here at this home of the infantry today.

The two-day annual convention brings together members of the active Army, reservists, National Guardsmen and just plain civilians who used to be Army men.

The Great Lakes Region, of which Michigan is the center and a principal part, constitutes the world's richest and most concentrated market. There 21 per cent of the nation's population lives on 8 per cent of the land area and produces 33 per cent of the dollars added by manufacture.

Bridegroom, 16, Trouble-Ridden

Tires of Housekeeping, Gets Into Brawl, Police Arrest Him, His Wife

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph Fernandez, 16, hasn't been going to school lately for what seemed to him a very good reason. He got married last January, when he was 15.

Since then he has mostly been staying home "keeping house" for his 20-year-old bride, the former Luz Inez Resto, a $57-a-week box factory worker.

* * *

Joseph couldn't very well do much else, because his wife would not give him any spending money.

A while back, however, the household chores evidently got a little wearisome for a young bridegroom unaccustomed to such duties and Joseph had to have a little recreation.

He went out and got into a gang fight.

That was a mistake. Joseph made it even worse, when police asked what school he attended, by replying:

"I don't go to school. I'm married."

That set officers to asking lots of other questions, and among the answers they got were that Joseph had claimed he was 21 when he got a marriage license and that he fooled a clergyman into thinking he was really that old.

* * *

Last night officers visited the happy young couple's home, arresting Joseph on a charge of juvenile delinquency and his bride on a charge of imparing the morals of a minor.

Hassle Leaves Bessemer With Two Police Chiefs

BESSEMER (AP)—This Upper Michigan city of 3,509 had two police chiefs today.

Mayor Charles Mascotti said he had suspended veteran Chief Michael Gedda for 15 days and that policeman Joseph Kelly was "acting chief of police with full powers of office."

Chief Gedda said the mayor's suspension was illegal and he was chief, powers and all. He still wore his uniform and badge.

Mascotti said he had suspended Gedda, effective last Saturday night, for being discourteous to the mayor and public and for unfair and arbitrary scheduling of other officers.

Gedda, a member of the Bessemer force for morethan 25 years, said the suspension wasn't effective because it failed to comply with the city's charter.

Busiest Michigan Port

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers water borne commerce report for 1954 today showed Grand Haven was the state's busiest Lake Michigan port, handling a total of 4,051,594 tons.

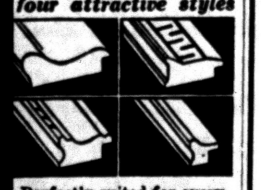

Muskegon placed second with a total of 3,138,261 tons.

The figures showed Grand Haven port tonnage increased 964,003 tons over 1953. The 1954 total swells to 6,267,991 tons when combined with nearby Bass River gravel, sand and crushed stone shipments to Grand Haven.

Forest, Farms in City

Rio de Janeiro's city government includes a Department of Agriculture, says the National Geographic Society. The reason is that Rio is still far from occupying all of its special territorial unit, the Federal District. Sixty per cent of the district's 450 square miles is forest and 10 per cent is farm land.

Oregon Farmer and Wife Adopt Eight Korean Tots

Out in Creswell, Oregon, live Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holt with a love for children strong enough to revive anyone's faith in human nature.

The Holts have a large farm. Their own six children, ranging in age from 9 to 22, are growing up rapidly. This gave Holt an idea. Last Spring he suggested to his wife that they "raise another family." Without hesitation she agreed, saying they had room for eight.

In June Holt went to Korea where he rounded up eight abandoned children aged eight months to three and a half years. A few days ago, thanks to special legislation enacted by Congress permitting entry of the adopted youngsters, they and Holt arrived at Portland by plane.

Now they are established at the Holts' comfortable farm home where there is plenty of room to play, all they want to eat and all the loving care they need.

★ ★ ★

Besides the eight children he adopted, Holt brought four more for adoption by other persons. Among the new parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Franklin of Benton Harbor, Michigan.

It is heartwarming to read about the Holts. Their story is a reminder of how wonderful people can be.

Vance Gets AEC Post

There should be general satisfaction with the recess appointment given Harold S. Vance to fill the vacancy on the Atomic Energy Commission.

The appointment is a good one in its own right. It is excellent also because it fills a vacancy on the commission which has existed since the resignation nearly a year ago of Joseph Campbell, now Comptroller General. A previous nomination of Allan Whitfield to the post was withdrawn.

Mr. Vance, who is chairman of the executive committee of Studebaker-Packard Corporation, should strengthen the AEC. He takes into it the kind of experience the commission needs to handle its primary job of production. In addition he has the breadth of experience and outlook which should be of great assistance to the commission in deliberating its other problems.

★ ★ ★

President Eisenhower's choice of Mr. Vance to fill this post should win Senate confirmation early in the next session.

Pheasants Lure Hunters

Unless you are a pheasant hunter, you may not realize that this exhilarating sport has grown tremendously.

Before the end of the season, which began at 10 a. m. October 20, experts say 500,000 hunters will have tested their skill against the wiles of these magnificent birds.

On the basis of reports showing that pheasants are plentiful, conservation officials predict that the season will be even more successful than last year. With so many hunters in the field, a few words about safety are in order.

Don't become a statistic. Follow the common sense safety first rules of hunting and don't forget if you are a guest on a farmer's land, to treat that land as a guest should.

Finally, don't forget our prize contest for the heaviest pheasant brought in to our Sports Department. To the winner will go a $50 Savings Bond.

Anyway, you can be certain that the person who is frowning instead of smiling isn't being a hypocrite.

Talmadge Vs. George

Believers in good government on both sides of the party fence are worrying about a senatorial contest shaping up in Georgia.

Present indications are that 77-year-old Senator George will be opposed for re-election by former Governor Herman Talmadge. The probability of such a contest is indicated by speeches of both men with Sen. George having been stung into appearance of candidacy by an editorial suggesting he retire.

The worry results from the reported fact that from an organizational point of view, the advantage is all on the side of the former Governor.

Sen. George has served with distinction as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. In the matter of bipartisanship he has been to Mr. Eisenhower what the late Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg was to President Truman.

★ ★ ★

Talmadge, in contrast, is a recognized demagogue who appeals to ignorance and prejudice. Not only has he always been a race baiter but is one of the most vociferous foes of the Supreme Court's desegregation decision.

One can only hope that if this senatorial race materializes, enough Georgia voters will distinguish between the statesman and the demagogue.

Yesterday a car scooted around us so fast it was hardly possible to read this prominent sign on the rear as it flipped by: "Slow down and live."

Old Almanac Points Out the Fallacy of Its Predictions

Younger generation: Of which some oldsters are envious because they don't belong to it any more.

The first of the 1956 editions of has arrived. From it I learn that most of the corn husk, caterpillar, bird flight, hog spleen, squirrel storage, sheep fleece, horse hair and other indications on which the weather predictions for the coming winter are based have been 75 per cent wrong during the last quarter century. And the same almanac then goes on to predict a hard winter, frankly admitting that during the same period of time it has been 67 per cent wrong.

David Lawrence Says:

How Can Research Fund Make Sure Browder Is Not Withholding Red Data?

WASHINGTON — There's something strange and mysterious about the case of Earl Browder, secretary general of the Communist Party in America from 1929 to 1945, who, it is announced, has been hired by "The Fund for the Republic" at a substantial salary per year for part of his time as a "source of information and raw material."

"The Fund for the Republic" is one of the so-called "liberal" organizations, financed by the Ford Foundation, and one of the cries of protest raised by the "left wing" is that the government uses paid informants or pays ex-Communists as witnesses to testify in trials involving Communist problems.

But so far as can be discovered here, there is no case on record in which the government has ever paid money to any person while he himself was under indictment.

There is pending against Browder a criminal indictment accusing him of perjury.

WHY RELUCTANCE?

But the curious aspect of the matter is that if Browder, who claims to have forsaken the Communist Party, has done so, why should he hesitate to furnish all the information he possesses to his own government? He was summoned a few days ago to testify before the Senate subcommittee on internal security in executive session. He was under oath. He is reported to have refused to give any information of substance—and, of course, in such a refusal, he is protected against prosecution under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution.

* * *

Again and again it is said that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has endeavored to presuade Browder to give under oath the history of the Communist Party as Browder knows it—the very material sought by "The Fund for the Republic"—but he has declined to do so.

The question naturally arises whether "The Fund for the Republic" can be sure that it is getting complete information from a man who declines to testify under oath before his own government.

Various attempts have been made in recent years to have Browder make a clean breast of what he knows. There have been suggestions that some charitable foundation grant money to finance him during the period when he devotes his whole time to refreshing his recollection of what happened when he was in command of the Communist Party in this country. These efforts collapsed because those to whom Browder talked became convinced he was holding back the key parts of the story.

Browder's position is that the Communist Party never engaged in espionage while he was connected with it. Maybe he was unaware of that phase but, if so, he should not object to telling who he met at meetings from 1929 to 1945 and what they said, and what officials of the American government or other governments were in consultation with him and when and under what circumstances.

It will be recalled that, due to a feud inside the Communist Party in this country, Browder was ousted in 1945 but he later went to Moscow, where he received a warm welcome. His perjury case stems from an allegation that he made a false statement in connection with some immigration documents relating to his wife's alleged participation in the Communist Party. His wife died within the past year.

Up to now Browder has refused to cooperate with his own government. He insists he is not a Communist now and insists also that from 1929 to 1945, when he was head of the Communist Party, there was nothing relating to subversion or espionage going on with his knowledge. It is, indeed, an unsolved mystery, and some officials are still hopeful that Browder some day will come through with the complete story of what did happen.

'Exercise Break' Urged to Prevent Varicose Veins

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

When veins anywhere in the body are swollen, dilated or enlarged they are called varicose veins. The superficial veins of the legs are most frequently varicose, particularly in women, more particularly pregnant women and most particularly women who sit or stand many hours daily without an exercise break at two or 2½ hour intervals.

Exercise break? Come, come, now, you know what a coffee break is, don't you? And even if you never indulge in it you must know what exercise is.

A break means a mid-forenoon, noon, and/or mid afternoon ten minutes when you get off your stool, chair or away from the table, bench or counter and get your heels up higher than your head, in one way or another. Preferably standing on your head, high kicking, lying on your shoulders and riding an imaginary bicycle upside down, doing forward rolls or, if you are feeble, just lying on your back with your feet on the mantel.

If there's no mantel within reach prop 'em on the nearest desk, counter, chair, table or whatnot. Only so you keep 'em elevated for at least three minutes.

BRISK WALK

Better than any of these ways of taking a load off your tired veins (the weight of a tall column of blood which is no longer supported by the valves in the veins) is a brisk walk around the block—not a drag nor a stroll nor a saunter.

* * *

Varicose veins in the spermatic cord constitute what is called varicocele. Varicose veins inside or outside the rectal orifice constitute what is called hemorrhoids (piles). Everything said above about posture and exercise applies to these conditions as well as to dilated veins in the legs.

The great doctors of yesteryear philosophized about the state of the "vital rubber"—the elasticity of blood vessels. For instance Dr. Osler said, in his famous Practice, that the onset of arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) depends primarily upon the quality of the arterial tissue (vital rubber) which the individual has inherited, and secondly upon the amount of wear and tear to which he has subjected it.

This is a neat way to blame grandfather, but it doesn't mean so much when we tally up the good qualities we inherited, if any. It is well to remember that when Dr. Osler and his contemporaries were the undisputed medical authorities, there was virtually no knowledge and certainly no science of nutrition, and the eminent, leading or foremost physicians and specialists pronounced their views, opinions or diagnoses with complete assurance that the accuracy of their judgment was not subject to proof or disproof by, say, precise chemical test or X-ray examination. This explains why "gout" was so common in the 19th century and is so rare today.

* * *

For the pamphlet on Varicose Veins and Varicose Ulcer send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

If you ask also for the booklet The Calcium Shortage, enclose 25c in addition. If you ask for the pamphlet Young Folks and Old Folks, enclose 10c in addition.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Rescue League Grateful for Success of Show

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

On behalf of our League, may I take this opportunity to express appreciation for each and everyone responsible for making our recent Will-O-Way Antique Fair such a huge success.

The response of members, sponsors, patrons, radio, the press, especially the Pontiac Press was greatly appreciated. Judith Clemence did a wonderful job. The willingness of so many to help us with our humane problems is stimulating and assures us of community interest.

The setting up of the framework of an animal rescue league is a tremendous job and requires a great deal of labor, but it's a labor of love when it's for unwanted animals. We will soon have that shelter.

NAM, C. of C. Don't Rate Special Legal Privileges

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

It all depends on whose ox is gored.

The "radicals" cry out to high heavens against the alleged offense of congressional committees and others in insinuating "guilt by association' to suspected Communists and fellow travelers.

* * *

But, if a business analyst is linked by labor spokesmen and others with the National Association of Manufacturers, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, or a Texas oil millionaire, little protest is heard about similar techniques of seeking to prove "guilt by association."

Frequently in debates on TV, radio or on university campuses with critics of the business system, who regard NAM as an unpopular symbol, I have sought to shock opponents into a sense of reality by saying:

"The smartest thing the industrialists did was to create the NAM as a target for you demagogues, so you leave them alone."

* * *

In the latest of a series of discussions with James B. Carey, secretary-treasurer of the CIO, when the question of federal and state regulation of labor unions came up, he tried to make it appear that voluntary associations of businessmen, such as the NAM and U. S. Chamber, are the counterparts of labor unions. But this view cannot be sustained.

NO PRIVILEGES

Neither the NAM nor the C. of C. has special privileges, created by statute to be sole or exclusive bargaining agents for any one. Neither the NAM nor the U. S. Chamber was granted any exemption from regulation by the anti-trust statutes nor by judicial decision.

* * *

On the contrary, while no statutory mention is made of such exemption by unions, the impact of the U. S. Supreme Court in the Hutcheson decision in 1941 tends to give such a status to unions.

Whatever the merits or demerits of these voluntary associations of businessmen and companies may be, neither the NAM nor the C. of C. is authorized by law to compel individuals or firms to join, nor can any business associations deprive members of the right to resign at any time.

Top spokesmen for both the AFL and CIO put getting rid of the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act and the "right to work' statutes in 18 states high on their agenda in connection with the big labor merger scheduled for Dec. 5.

In the future of the American labor movement, controversy over these legislative acts to regulate unions and limit their authority will be lively.

RIGHT TO WORK

So-called "right to work" laws are designed to prevent denial of employment to an individual because of membership or non-membership in a union. Accordingly, such laws are in conflict with the union objective of setting up a "union shop," in which all eligible employes are expected to join a union.

The editor of the "Industrial and Labor Relations Review," published at Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y., by the State School of Industrial and Labor Relations, states, in the current issue:

"Opinions differ as to the purpose of such laws. Proponents assert that the intent is to protect the freedom of the individual worker to seek and hold employment; opponents claim that the objective is to weaken the strength of unions by reducing their membership and organizational security."

Lots of men are slaves to fashion mainly because they have grown daughters.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Difference Between Success, Failure Is Getting Along With Other People

Dr. Menninger says psychology counts for about 80 per cent of your success in life. Other leading psychologists agree that Dr. Menninger is not exaggerating to any great degree. So scrapbook these true office cases which give you access to the raw data from current American life. And raise your popularity rating by using the tests described below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-371: Dr. William C. Menninger, aged 56, is one of the world's leading psychiatrists.

Recently he was asked "Why do men fail?"

* * *

And he replied that "the difference between success and failure depends on knowing how to get along with other people."

That's why I launched this psychology column 20 years ago. That's why Dale Carnegie wrote his popular little book.

That's why Dr. Norman Vincent Peale and other leading orators are urging people to learn Applied Psychology.

Dr. Menninger added that about 80 per cent of persons fired from their jobs are dismissed for inability to harmonize with the people they work with or for.

A few years ago the Harvard Bureau of Vocational Guidance surveyed over 4,000 cases of discharged workers.

* * *

And 65.8 per cent were fired for purely psychological reasons, instead of slowness, lack of technical skill, etc.

Dr. B. S. Uhrbrock, one of our greatest American psychologists, conducted a very illuminating survey some years ago concerning the amount of money earned by Purdue University engineering graduates.

Taking them 5 years after graduation, he compared the salaries of the brilliant, Phi Beta Kappa graduates with those who barely made passing grades.

The brilliant engineers averaged $150 per year more pay than the "C" men.

* * *

But when he contrasted the engineers who had rated tops in personality traits, such as personal charm and popularity, with their introvertive, shy classmates, what do you suppose was the result?

As you may have guessed, the popular engineers drew about $1,000 more per year in salary.

So the diligent "A" students excelled the "C" students by $150 in annual salaries.

But the friendly fellows had almost a $1,000 advantage over the quiet, untalkative and friendless engineers.

BE A PSYCHOLOGIST

Dr. A. H. Edgerton, another famous industrial psychologist, found that of the 3,607 employes he analyzed who had lost their jobs, 77 per cent were fired for psychological reasons, such as bad manners and tactlessness.

So make psychology your hobby, regardless of the type of work at which you labor.

Scrapbook these practical cases from my office files. They are usually drawn from my office practice, so you gain the benefit of figuratively looking over my shoulder and getting information at first hand.

The cardinal secret for being popular and winning friends, consists of tooting the other fellow's horn, instead of your own.

Visualize all your associates as tattooed across the chest at birth with this statement:

"I want to feel important!"

Then make them feel important by honest compliments. Please notice that I never advise flattery.

A compliment is an honest statement of praise for some virtue that is obvious and merits commendation. You can even praise an enemy with all sincerity if you are willing to look for one of his good points.

Send for my "Tests for Employers & Employes", enclosing a stamped return envelope, and 20 cents (non profit).

They are widely used in industry because they list the specific faults and virtues that are used subconsciously by your associates to rate your personality.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane, in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

HORSES! HORSES! HORSES!
The Western Horse 5.

Before the Ice age, horses roamed over the North American continent. Then for some reason, they all disappeared. There were no more horses here until the Spaniards came to Mexico in the early 16th century.

Some of the horses belonging to the Spaniards escaped or were left behind. They became the ancestors of the wild horses the Indians eventually tamed and used for hunting, making war and moving the tribes.

As great cattle ranches developed, horses were used to ride the ranges and herd the cattle. The wild horses were tamed, their stock improved through the years and now we have the splendid Western horses. These are the horses you see at the rodeo.

Here is Dick, who lives on a ranch, and Lope-a-long, his Palomino horse. The Palomino is a beautiful golden colored horse, with white mane and tail.

Paste this picture on cereal box cardboard and color with crayons. Cut out the circle. Cut around the top of the horse and rider along the dotted line, and fold back the upper part of the circle.

Now the horse will rock back and forth, or go galloping across the range for you.

Around the edges are some famous brands and the states where they are seen. A Palomino, however, would not likely be branded.

The department also reported its investment in surplus farm products went up again in August.

Hot Dirt Aids Test

NEW YORK — Research engineers are using "hot dirt" in the form of radioactive carbon to find out why dirt sticks to cloth and other materials and how best to remove it. The procedure involves tracing the carbon through the cleaning process.

Romance Cannot Thrive on Chipped China

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — "Women are psychologically lopsided. They always gyp the one they love."

This statement might appear to have come from a young man who has just caught his nose in a door slammed by a girl for whom he bought champagne, but this is not the case. It was uttered by Miss Carole Stupell, shrewd businesswoman.

"After a courtship full of candlelight and loveliness, they get married," Miss Stupell goes on, still referring to the lopsided sex, "and what do they do then? They put away the candles and the loveliness and mark it 'for company only'—and serve dinner to their husbands on chipped china and plastic plates."

Miss Stupell calls this sheer cruelty. Not only to husbands, but also to herself, for she is an expert in dining decor. Or, as she puts it, "I am in correlated table settings."

To keep women from making such psychological boo-boos, Carole has just opened, on New York's 57th Street, what is unmistakably the snootiest table-settings setup in the world.

ELEGANT MANNER

Selling complete table settings in the same elegant manner that a French couturier sells little thousand-dollar frocks, she features separate salons where a woman may rest her feet and her mink and sip a cup of tea, while she is being advised in what color tureen to serve her lobster bisque.

* * *

"It is the first time," proclaims Miss Stupell, "that china, glass and linens have been elevated to the couturier standard. But after all, a table setting is more important—Dior will forgive me—than a dress."

At any rate, it costs more, when done up in this splendid new manner. Gold place settings, such as one Sophie Tucker has, cost $1,000.

Vanderbilts and Rockefellers buy many table settings at Stupell's stupefying prices, Haile Selassie is an old customer, and Carole has furnished dinnerware for the last three presidents of Cuba.

"They're always changing presidents down there, you know," she says. "It's rather exciting. Good for business, too."

By making a woman aware of the importance of correct dining decor (i.e., displaying it importantly, and charging important prices) Miss S. hopes to overcome the trend toward untasty-looking dinners, and bring the romance back into wedded life.

FORGET THE FOOD

"No matter how mediocre a woman is as a cook, her husband will be calmed and soothed by a dinner served beautifully," is her opinion. "And it needn't be expensive to be beautiful. Just set the table in lovely colors, correctly coordinated, with no conflicting patterns in china, glass and silver."

* * *

As for the bride, she will most likely receive some lovely wedding gifts, and Miss Stupell warns again—do not stash them away for company. After all, whos more important in your life: Them or him?

"When a man marries, he doesn't expect his wife to hand him the world on a silver platter. But muffins on a silver-plate platter . . .is that too much to ask?"

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — It was a tearful scene as employes opened the Carr Motor Co. for business. A safe had been opened in the night, setting off tear gas, which filled the building. Closer inspection disclosed that $1,000 was missing.

Rockefeller Is Mum in Lawyer Fee Suit

NEW YORK (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller, in a pretrial examination of a suit brought by a Boston attorney, has refused to answer several questions pertaining to his life while married to Barbara (Bobo) Rockefeller.

The attorney, Joseph Sax, is suing Rockefeller for $100,000 as the cost of legal services he said he rendered for Mrs. Rockefeller. Sax contends his services culminated in a five-million-dollar settlement on Mrs. Rockefeller by her husband.

The couple were married in 1948. Mrs. Rockefeller obtained a Reno divorce last year after getting the settlement.

Bob Considine Says:

Soviet Claims Red Athletes Are Amateurs

NEW YORK (INS) — Former sportswriter Alexey Adjoubey, one of the Russian newspapermen now visiting the U. S., seemed a bit surprised when I asked him if there were any Russian heavyweights who might give Rocky Marciano a hard time.

He is a chubby, pink-cheeked, blonde-haired fellow who looks as if he has just come in from a brisk walk in the wind. He works for Komsomolskaya Pravda, a Moscow paper that isn't as heavy as Pravda. It goes in for news of youth and sports movements, among other things.

On the Marciano question he shook his head. There is boxing in Moscow and it is even televised at times, he said, but it is not Marciano-type boxing.

"It is maybe hard for you to understand," he said through an interpreter as we lunched on the Olympian heights of the Rainbow Room. "We do not have professional athletes. Everybody is amateur. Everybody works at a regular job or goes to school."

"So there's no charge for seats at your big sports events?" I asked.

CUSTOMERS PAY

"Ah, yes," Alexey said. "There is a charge but the athlete is not paid. The money goes into the building of new sports places, new playgrounds.

"The aim is not to glorify a single athlete or a single team but to encourage all to engage in sports. We would empty the grandstand and get the people on the field of play."

* * *

The Russian reporter has left sports and gone on to cosmic thinking. Consequently, he said he could not tell me much about Russia's 1956 Olympic team, which has been pictured by experts beyond the Iron Curtain as being wholly professional, huge and superbly trained. All he knew about it, he said, was that he would cover the games for his paper.

Did his paper have a gossip columnist?

Alexey had to have it explained to him. When it sank in, he appeared momentarily dumbfounded.

"No!" he said, quite horrified. "What's with TV around Moscow?" I asked.

The three or four million viewers, he said, got a complete account of the trip of the Russian farm experts through the U. S., via tele-news films sent to Moscow by the State Department. They see more and more American newsreels, he said, but he didn't recall seeing any kinescopes of our programs.

REDS MISS MILTIE

"Not even Milton Berle?" someone asked.

Alexey blushed on top of his apple cheeks.

"Who?" he asked, apologetically.

He wanted to see everything in America that Americans considered important and significant, Alexey said. He would have to depend on his hosts, he granted.

They had shown him, so far, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. From the roof of the RCA Building, the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island, which Red propaganda has called a concentration camp for many years, were pointed out to him.

Returning to sports, Alexey said that the newest ambition of Russian youth, including his son, was to own and drive a fast sports car.

His son would get no car until he could buy it himself.

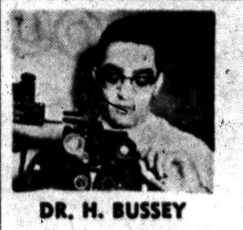

* * *

The athletes in the standard sports are sent to events at the expense of their factories, offices and schools. It's a hard life, he figured.

He wanted to say, too, that Russian people feel they know quite a bit about America through U. S. films being shown there, and what amounts to fan clubs have been formed.

"Who is your favorite?" I asked.

There was no hesitation. "Deanna Durbin," he said, with the hint of another blush.

Fresh Evidence Found in Probe

Cases on Voluntary Aid to Government Aired; Businessmen Cited

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Celler (D-NY) said today House investigators have assembled new evidence of what he called "questionable" practices by businessmen serving the government in an unpaid voluntary capacity.

* * *

Celler's Judiciary subcommittee resumes hearings next Tuesday on the government role of "WOCs"—the modern version of the old style dollar-a-year man on loan from business "without compensation."

Discussing the hearings with newsmen, Celler said his subcommittee will air a number of individual cases demonstrating "inconsistencies" in having businessmen serve the government while remaining on their company payrolls.

* * *

"The evidence will clearly show that these men, while working for the government on a voluntary basis, were aiding their own companies," he said.

Celler has also accused the Business Advisory Council of antitrust violations.

The BAC is an advisory group including top-drawer executives from the nation's largest corporations, as well as economists and business experts. It advises the ecretary of commerce on national economic affairs.

Israel Wants U.S. Security Guarantee

JERUSALEM (AP)—Premier Moshe Sharett said last night Israel is entitled to a security guarantee from the United States and the matter should be given urgent attention in Washington.

As a result of Egypt's recent deal to obtain arms from Czechoslovakia, he declared, "it is our bounden duty to prepare for the worst, which seems imminent."

The Israeli premier spoke to a 60-man mission representing the United Jewish Appeal, an American organization which raises funds for Israel.

"We now feel more urgently entitled than ever before to a security treaty with the United States which would go a long way towards buttressing our security and deterring from aggression the forces of evil," Sharett said.

"Our hope is that the U.S. government will regard the idea of a security treaty with Israel, which has long been under discussion and which was recently affirmed in principle, as a direct, urgent issue and one which can now be resolved without waiting for further preliminary developments."

Juliu Maniu Death Confirmed by Paper

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times in a dispatch from Bucharest said today that former Romanian Premier Gheorghe Tatarescu had confirmed that famed Peasant party leader Juliu Maniu died in 1952 in a Communist prison. He was 79.

The dispatch from Times correspondent Jack Raymond said Ana Pauker, former Communist foreign minister who was purged from her government post and from her place on the Romanian Communist party's Central Committee in 1952.

PHS Students Set for Game

By VICKY MICU

Pontiac High students rather unwillingly returned to school Wednesday after enjoying their short vacation Monday and Tuesday. Once back, though, they readily fell back into the swing of things.

Big news is the game tonight with Saginaw Arthur Hill High, the first Saginaw Valley Conference encounter on home ground, and the first home game in two weeks. A pep rally was held this afternoon for the game.

Report cards will be the order of the day next Monday, as students receive the glad or sad tidings for the first time this semester.

With Halloween less than two weeks away, the Retailing and Office Club has been making decorations for their Hayride and Halloween Party Oct. 29. Members and their guests will meet at one of the student's homes and start together for the hayride. The party, in a rented hall, will follow.

GROUPS ACTIVE

Speech, art and vocal departments, along with the home ec department have been and are hard at work.

"I Speak for Democracy" talks are still being given by many of the speech classes for the first time, while others are polishing up and revising speeches.

Art students realize Christmas is closer than you think, and are preparing for it as they make and silk-screen original Christmas cards.

* * *

The informal fall vocal clinic to be held Nov. 7 is keeping vocal students hard at work practicing. The students took time out, though, last week to join all PHS students in a songfest assembly.

DISPLAY EDIBLES

"Sugar and spice and all things nice"—that's what home ec projects are made of as girls display the best of their efforts in the lower front hall trophy cases for all to see, and for judging in the home ec contest.

Although the cross country team has finished its regular season of competition, the boys will be hard at work for forthcoming meets.

Yesterday the Saginaw Valley meet was held, and the Albion Invitational will be held tomorrow. A week from tomorrow the regionals will be held at Birmingham, and the following Saturday the state meet will be held.

* * *

Monday PHS students will do their part to help in the United Fund drive as they contribute to the fund during their third hour classes.

Wayne University debaters meet at PHS Monday to debate the high school on free education. Monday the Farmington and the PHS debaters met.

HALLOWEEN'S COMING — Members of the Pontiac High School Retailing and Office Club make Halloween decorations in preparation for their hayride and party to be held Oct. 29. Left to right, seated, Elaine Hamilton and Estelle Rognaldson cut crepe paper bats, while Carol Bolton hands Barbara La-Point cutouts to try for effect. The club, one of the larger ones at the school, was formed to give retailing students, who attend class half-days, a chance for extra curricular activities.

STUDENTS GO SHOPPING — Members of the Economics Club at St. Michael High School get behind-the-scenes information on meat cuts during a field trip to one of the local supermarkets. The boys and girls got a close view of modern retailing methods, with store and department managers explaining grades and types of merchandise, how they are priced, and sales techniques.

St. Michael's Football Team Wins Holiday for Students

By JANET ENGLISH

Highlighting the news from St. Michael High this week is the free day enjoyed by the student body today. The recent victory over the Rams merited this reward for Shamrocks.

Before their field trip to a local supermarket last Thursday, members of the Economics Club elected Larry Maison leader-spokesman of the group and Janet English secretary.

* * *

This particular tour gave the students an understanding of the operations of a supermarket and was also the completing factor in their study of "How to Be a Wise Consumer."

Varsity cheerleaders chose the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders Thursday. The girls picked for the JV squad are Pat Harbert, Betty Cronan, Gloria Barnowski, Jane Rindfuse, and Shelagh O'Rourke.

As of last Tuesday, St. Michael's houses some 40 TV celebrities—well almost celebrities. Students took part in the TV Top 10 Tunes program over CKLW in Windsor at 5 p.m. Tuesday, and also got the opportunity to see a television program "from the inside."

Pat Lane and Jim Barnowski were the winners of a subscription to a record magazine by successfully completing the stunt of the day at the affair.

The ruling body of the juniors, as decided during class elections last Friday, are Tom Harding, president, with Mike Lyons assisting him in his office of vice president. Mary Raymond was elected class "pencil pusher" and Ernie Stuk, treasurer.

A representative of the Michigan Employment Security Commission prepared the seniors for aptitude tests that were given this week. He spoke on the variety of job opportunities existing now and methods of finding out which one an individual is best suited.

The Economics Department of the University of Detroit provided the speaker for the student assembly Wednesday. Professor Flick of U. of D. spoke on the sodality. He explained its formation and the obligations placed on one who chooses to join this society.

Waterford Set for Homecoming

Waterford Township High School is humming with activity as it prepares to hold its first Homecoming Oct. 28 and 29.

Four major activities will highlight the celebration. A football game that Friday afternoon with Southfield will open the event on Waterford's field. A victory bonfire is planned to follow in the evening.

"College Days," a variety show to be held Friday night at 8:30, will feature 10th, 11th, and 12th graders, alumni, and faculty. Students and alumni will compete for the plaque to be given to the class with the best talent.

The Homecoming queen and her six attendants will be chosen also on Friday evening. Only present Waterford High students are eligible to take part in the contest for queen.

Bob Olsen's Band will help climax the two-day affair at the Homecoming Dance on Saturday night. This nine-piece band from the University of Michigan will play from 9 p.m. to midnight in Waterford's gym.

Replacing the annual school carnival, the Homecoming is sponsored by the Student Council, with all students working on the various committees.

Area Schools Set Homecomings, Dances

After the two-day MEA vacation, students in schools throughout the Pontiac and Oakland County area were back in the stride of planning dances, homecomings and other activities.

Queen of the Homecoming tonight at Walled Lake High School is Carole Lee Moyer, a senior. Joan Andrews is the senior attendant, Barbara Gilbert is the junior, and Kay Armstrong is sophomore attendant.

The queen and her court will be crowned at Walled Lake's athletic field just before the game with Farmington, at 8 p. m. tonight. Ronnie Dion, mascot of the Varsity Team, will place the crown on the Carole's head.

A pep rally will be held at 7 p.m. at the field, preceding the game. There will be a big bonfire, and cheerleaders will lead the rally.

Homecoming festivities will include a gala dance, sponsored by the senior class.

* * *

Six Walled Lake students participated in the Pontiac Symphony Concert held Wednesday night. They are Kathleen and Tom Dunn, Angelina and Teresa Perani, Charles Hartle and Don Parrish.

AT WEST BLOOMFIELD

The Student Council at West Bloomfield High School is considering the possibility of having a homecoming festival on Nov. 4. If it pans out, the affair would include a big dance and the crowning of a queen, to be chosen through a contest.

A meeting of the Wayne-Oakland Student Councils was held yesterday with Bloomfield's Student Council as hosts.

The Girls Athletic Association is swinging into action, after its organizational meeting Sept. 29. Last week, 16 girls went to Clarenceville for the All-Sports Playday.

* * *

Monday an election of officers is scheduled. Major GAA sports for the season are volleyball, basketball and softball. WBHS will serve as hosts for the volleyball playday.

* * *

WBHS cheerleaders have new colorful uniforms and some new props. White sweat shirts with hoods are set off with green slacks. Props such as green steering wheels with horns and some paddles complete the paraphernalia. Varity Cheerleaders are Sandra Gidcomb, Louise Smits, Judy Bellows, Betty McPeake and Jean Randall, with Mrs. Jean Waters as sponsor.

St. Fred Plans 3-Way Meeting

Parent-Teacher-Student Night Slated Monday; Program Shapes Up

By ANN SCHACHERN

Student Council activities were the focal point for St. Frederick students this last week.

Monday, Student Council officers and representatives made plans for the parent-teacher-student meeting which will be held next Monday in the parish hall.

Officers from each class, the Varsity Club, and the Choral Club will be introduced to the parents, and then will give an explanation of what their organizations intend doing for the coming year.

Also scheduled to be heard from are the Teen Club and Student Council officers and representatives.

SKIT PLANNED

For entertainment, the sophomores will put on the skit which they performed at last Friday's pep meeting. Choral members of the senior class will sing two selections under the direction of instructor Dominic Kline.

Following this program, the parents will have a chance to get acquainted with the faculty members.

Due to lack of space, for the present, only members of St. Frederick High School will be admitted to the weekly Friday night teen-dances. Representatives say that they hope to iron out this difficulty in the near future.

Physics class journeyed to Cranbrook this afternoon on their first field trip of the year.

Seniors who will compete in the National Merit Scholarship preliminaries to be held Wednesday are James Duren, Michael Kopcsik and Mary Kay Schlesky.

OIL PAINTING IS GIFT—An original oil painting of the Vaughan School was presented to the new Bloomfield Hills High School last week by the class of 1955. Above, Eugene L. Johnson (right), superintendent of Bloomfield Hills schools, and Irving E. Menucci, administrative assistant, admire the 4x5 foot picture, just before it was hung in the stairway at the main entrance. The painting is the work of Mrs. Charles Brashares of Jackson, sister of Dean LaRue, French instructor at the new school.

Students Will Attend Debate Clinic at UM

More than 450 debaters from 44 high schools in Michigan will attend a debate clinic at the University of Michigan Saturday.

Among them will be students from Pontiac, Avondale, Lake Orion, Holly, Goodrich, Farmington and Bloomfield Hills High Schools.

The program will feature a morning discussion of the current debate topic: "Resolved: That the Federal government should guarantee higher education to qualified high school students by means of annual grants to colleges and universities."

Football Steals Show at Junior Highs

The Lincoln Junior High School Band has been spending all its spare time these fall days practicing marching, in preparation for its appearance at half-time at the football game between Eastern and Lincln on Tuesday. Delmar Benson will be the drum major.

This will be the first appearance of the band in the new uniforms. The only difference between all the city's junior high uniforms are the hats, which come in the colors of each school. Black shoes, socks, slacks, ties, and white shirts make the outfit, with jackets of gray. Hats are the overseas type of blue and gold.

The ninth grade Expression Class is now rehearsing those two Thanksgiving assemblies the whole school is looking forward to.

Washington Junior High beat Jefferson 19-6 Wednesday in the game at Wisner Stadium. Next game will be Oct. 26 against Wever. Real test of the Braves' strength, though, will come Nov. 2, when they play Lincoln Junior High.

The Home Ec class made $26 on that candy apple sale—sold 400 apples. They're planning another sale in the near future.

Given Dental Treatment

Grade school pupils at St. Frederick's are expecting brighter teeth and fewer cavities. The were given fluoride treatments last Wednesday afternoon and Thursday.

Class Officers Named

Lapeer High School students elected class officers last week. Named president of the senior class was Paul Cote. Darryl VanAllsburg is vice president, Gail Babcock, secretary; and Mina Stocker, treasurer.

Juniors elected Thomas Wilson, president; Dale Coller, vice president; Shelly Sullivan, secretary; and Doris Ritch, treasurer.

Richard deBeaubien heads the sophomore class; Douglas Muir is vice president; Colleen Kilgren, secretary, and Sharon Rinn, treasurer. Freshmen elected Weldon Winger, president; Butch McKillen, vice president; Mary Kay Williams, secretary and Charlene Henderson, secretary.

Hills Students Deep in Exams

But Social Activities Continue; Many Admire New Painting

Although busily engaged in the six-week exams, Bloomfield Hills High School students still found time to stop in the entranceway and admire the new oil painting of Vaughan School, which was hung in time for the dedication Sunday. The painting is a gift of the class of 1955.

* * *

And in spite of the rush to bone up on textbook work, there was time, too, for some social activities.

The junior class dance committee met Wednesday night at the home of Betsy Arnoldi. Posters and programs were made for their first dance of the year, entitled "Autumn Leaves," which will be held Saturday, Nov. 4.

The senior girls recently entertained Mrs. Earl Fernelius of Birmingham, with a baby shower at the home of Judy Duncan. Mrs. Fernelius was formerly their class adviser and an English instructor at the school.

Clarence Luchtman has announced the members of the triple trio, known as "The Jills." The group includes: Mary Lou Fuller, Sue Quinn, Letitia Pinney, Catherine Booth, Janet Richards, Phyllis Steele, Jacqueline Trombley, Sally Grisinger and Barbara Woolson.

WTHS Faculty Prepares to Grade Students' Work

JEAN LIMATTA

Waterford Township High School students put forth their last efforts today as the class books were closed for the first marking period.

With their eyes on the number one spot, the Skippers, now in second place in the IL League, kicked off to Berkley this afternoon on the home field. A pep meeting this afternoon sponsored by the cheerleaders, gave the team and their supporters the fighting spirit.

Lawyers, doctors, models, and many other business people will take charge of Waterford's classes next Wednesday as the first Career Day is held. Each student will receive a schedule according to vocational choices.

Busy planning the Career Night to be held at Bloomfield Nov. 9 are Nancy Schack, James Wager, Bill Cox, and Diane Craig. Almost all of Michigan's colleges will be represented and the students will have a chance to talk with the representatives in the afternoon and evening.

With $23,000 in pledges, the $25,000 campaign to light the athletic field is almost over the top!

The seniors and faculty hope to become better acquainted tonight as a "get together" party is held at Larry Sampson's home on 4160 South Shore Dr.

The Atom Smashers Chemistry Club held their first meeting last week under sponsorship of David Klinke. Newly elected officers are Dennis Johnson, president; Warren Miksch, vice president; Renna Goschke, secretary; Ruth Goodwin, treasurer; and Carole Fortin, librarian.

Future Nurses' Club held their first official meeting last night at 7:30 in the high school. Nancy Newman, president, led the planning for a trip to a hospital in the near future. Miss Sue Houghton sponsors the club.

WORKING FOR LIGHTS — Working hard in the Waterford Township High School drive for $25,000 to secure lights and fencing for the athletic field are members of the Student Council committee (l-r) Julie Hickman, Judy Boardman, Janet Hudson, Bob Hope and Jerry Krusk. Currently, over $22,000 in pledges has been secured.

Wallace Refutes Truman Memoir Comment

SOUTH SALEM, N. Y. (AP) — Henry A. Wallace has cited records which he claims show that former President Truman gave prior approval to a New York City speech by Wallace which resulted in his dismissal as secretary of commerce.

* * *

Truman, in an installment of his memoirs published in Life magazine, writes that Wallace visited him just before his speech Sept. 12, 1946, at Madison square Garden.

Truman said he had no time to "read the speech even in part" and added:

"To make things worse, when Wallace delivered the speech, which was an all-out attack on our foreign policy, he said . . . that he talked to me in this vein and that I approved of what he was saying."

WON'T ARGUE

Wallace, from his farm here last night, said in an interview he would "refuse to get into any argument or controversy" but would confine his reply "to the record made day by day in my own notes or in the press in September of 1946."

Three days after he made the speech, Wallace said, a news story in the Washington Post said a reporter asked Truman if he had approved only a section of the speech or the whole speech.

* * *

"Mr. Truman said he approved the whole speech," Wallace said the Sept. 15 story said.

He also cited the Washington News for Sept. 14, 1946, as saying that Truman "said he had read the whole speech and approved it all" and that "it did not conflict with our foreign policy."

Wallace said he made the following notation the evening of Sept. 10, 1946, two days before the speech:

"At the meeting with the President, I went over page by page, with him, my Madison Square Garden speech, to be given Sept. 12. Again and again, he said, 'That's right,' and 'Yes, that is what I believe.'

PRESIDENT EMPHATIC

"He (Truman) didn't have a single change to suggest. He twice said how deeply he appreciated my courtesy in showing him my speech before I gave it."

At the time, Wallace said, the President was "very emphatic in his approval when I read to him these words from the speech: 'I am neither anti-British, nor pro-British, neither anti-Russian nor pro-Russian.' "

Wallace said that when he gave the speech he added after the words "nor pro-Russian" — "and just two days ago, when President Truman read these words, he said they represented the policy of his administration."

* * *

Wallace said this was the only point in the prepared text of his speech where he mentioned Truman approval.

However, in his actual delivery of the speech, Wallace said, stenographer's notes show a second case in which he referred to Truman approval of the speech.

Wallace said he preceded another reference to Truman by saying: "China is a special case and although she holds the longest frontier in the world with Russia, the interest of world peace demands that China remain free from any sphere of influence either politically or economically."

* * *

Wallace said the "left-wingers in the audience booed and hissed" at that point, and so he added — extemporaneously, as snown by the stenographic notes: "Mr. Truman read that particular sentence and approved it."

An account of his speech in the New York Times of Sept. 13, 1946, Wallace said, reported that he was hissed "during the discussion of American aims in China" and "when he talked of the need for Russian understanding of American aims."

NOT THE QUITTING TYPE — Paralyzed by polio, Don Kollar, 20, of Cleveland, Ohio, punches out words of encouragement to his fellow polio patients. The former scholastic basketball star, who has spent two years in Cleveland's City Hospital, uses a gadget designed by his father to type articles for the ward's mimeographed publication. The device is a stainless steel rod with a rubber mouthpiece and tip which manipulates the keys of the electric typewriter. His most recent article urged the patients to have hope for the future. Kollar wears a chest-type respirator, tube of which can be seen at bottom, center.

Pink Shirts in Court Not Contemptible

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—U.S. Dist. Judge Carl Hatch says he hasn't forbidden attorneys to wear pink shirts in his court under penalty of being in contempt — but he might consider it.

There were rumors Hatch had ordered any attorneys appearing in the new pink shirts be held in contempt.

"What?" exclaimed Hatch, asked to verify the report. "Pink shirts? Never heard of such a thing. None of them have been coming in my court in pink shirts. You dress one attorney up in a pink shirt and send him over, I'll think about it."

Two Swap Elk, Monkeys

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese official just back from Moscow said he had negotiated a Russian-Japanese trade deal which should arouse no free world opposition. Takazo Kato, member of Parliament, said zoos of both nations would benefit from the exchange of Russian elk for Japanese monkeys.

Forger Is Sentenced: One Year of Sundays

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—Sunday is a good day for meditation and Robert A. Moore will have a chance to meditate for 52 of them in jail. The former insurance salesman was charged with forging checks to cover premiums on fictitious policies and sentenced to two years in prison.

But since he had paid the money back even before the charges were brought Judge Dirk Kuyk whittled the sentence to 52 days—to be served on successive Sundays.

Zanzibaris to Help Rule

LONDON (AP)—The people of Zanzibar, where most of the world's gloves come from, are going to get a hand in their own government for the first time. British Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd approved today a plan to put Zanzibaris on the island's executive council, a policy-making body. The colonial secretary said he looked forward to the time when a popular government could be elected.

Corpses Steam Through State

Old 'Iron Horse' Chugs Bravely On as Railroad Business Booms

JACKSON (AP) — Some lively "corpses" are chugging and puffing their way around in Michigan's booming railroad business.

The old steam locomotive, slated for the scrap heap with the change to diesel engines, has won a reprieve because of soaring business demands.

And though the funeral is only delayed, lovers of the picturesque "iron horse" are happy to see their favorite engines still in action.

Railroaders admit the streamlined diesel is more efficient, but know nothing can replace the excitement of the steam engine's shrieking whistle, billowing smoke, and the furious pumping of its drive rods.

The Michigan Central Railroad reports its Michigan division still has 10 steam-powered engines in operation.

One is used to switch cars to industrial areas in Jackson. Four haul freight on the mainline track between Detroit and Niles. And five others pull freight on branch lines between Jackson and other Michigan cities.

USE LESS STEAM

None of these would have been in service if the business upturn had not developed. The boom upset the railroad's timetable for conversion to diesels, which had been scheduled for completion by mid-1955.

"Today we are using less steam than ever before but the increase in traffic just hasn't let us eliminate it completely," said one MCRR official.

He added that if traffic volume had remained the same as it was last year, the steam engines probably would have completed their trip to the scrap heap.

But the business surge that started in the early months of this year has mounted so that the volume of traffic on the MCRR is up 20 per cent over the same period a year ago.

DIESELS CHEAPER

The railroad still expects the steam engine's days are numbered. Those still on the job may be retired by the first of the year.

The diesel engine's greater efficiency at cheaper cost spells the end of the steam locomotive era.

Diesel fuel is much cheaper than steam; diesels can be used continuously for periods as long as 48 hours, and are so maneuverable they can go any place a boxcar can go.

The steam engine needs more frequent visits to the roundhouse and fails on steep grades that diesels climb with ease.

* * *

But for a while at least, the old iron horse is what it used to be—a picturesque sight and a necessary part of the Michigan industrial scene.

Fake Clock Perplexes Time-Conscious Citizens

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A Kansas City bank had a clock painted on a billboard advertising the bank.

The painter did such a good job depicting the clock that dozens of persons have been calling the bank to complain about its time being wrong.

Arthur B. Eisenhower, a bank vice president and brother of President Eisenhower, said:

"We're going to have to put a real clock there."

Egypt is as large as New Mexico and Texas combined but most of its 22,221,000 population is in a narrow belt along the Nile, most of the country being desert.

Lard Exports Climb

BOSTON—The United States sold 465,000,000 pounds of lard to buyers abroad in 1954, a gain of 10 per cent over the previous year. Total value of lard exports climbed 55 per cent, due to higher prices.

Impatient Solons Want Special Planes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department said today two large passenger planes are being sent on special flights to Europe to bring home three senators and their wives who declined to wait for scheduled flights.

Robert Tripp Ross, assistant secretary of defense for legislative and public affairs, said in reply to questions that the planes are being sent to bring home certain members of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

* * *

The senators, all Democrats, are McClellan (Ark) and Stennis (Miss.)—who will board one plane in Madrid—and Chavez (U.M.) who will be picked up in another at Paris.

Ross said that when the senators told Defense Department representatives abroad that a proposal to use a later scheduled plane was unacceptable, the Pentagon had "no alternative" except the special flights.

A formal statement by Ross said:

"Soon after the adjournment of the last session of Congress, the chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee officially requested that the Department of Defense provide government transportation to certain members of the Senate Appropriations Committee for travel to Europe and return for the purpose of examination of estimates and other activities in the field overseas."

The request contemplated that individual members, because of the various commitments, might be returning at different times.

"Under the statute, the Department of Defense has a duty to provide without question transportation to members of Congress who are traveling under such authorization."

A spokesman said the planes will be Constellations, four-engined transports, and that the cost of sending the planes will be approximately $20,000.

A plane of that type is operated by the Air Force at a cost of about $325 per hour.

* * *

Ralph L. Matthews, administrative assistant to McClellan, said McClellan was reluctant to make the trip and told the Air Force he would go only if it agreed to get him back in time to attend a meeting of the Arkansas River Valley Association on Oct. 29.

Frank Burnet, administrative assistant to Chavez, said he felt sure Chavez had not requested a special plane. He said Chavez had advised the Air Force he would have to be back around Nov. 1 and left it up to the Air Force to arrange the necessary transportation.

Tom Fontaine, administrative assistant to Stennis, also said that he knew of no request for a special plane. He said that he knew none was made from Stennis' office.

He said Stennis had said before leaving that he wanted to return the latter part of October but had set no specific date that would require a special plane.

Mayor Invited to Air Toll Turnpike Views

DETROIT (AP)—A leader of opponents to a proposed Rockwood-to-Saginaw toll turnpike states he had "no fear" of being converted by an Ohio mayor, an exponent to oll superhighways.

"I would be happy to meet with him," said Robert Vanderkloot, president of the Citizens Protective Assn. of Michigan. "Nobody is going to convince me that toll roads are superior to free public highways," he added.

George N. Higgins, chairman of the Michigan Turnpike Authority, announced he would invite Mayor J. Grant Keys of Elyria, Ohio, to Michigan to give his views on toll turnpikes.

Keys said Elyria's 35,000 citizens were told Ohio's newly completed turnpike would form "a Chinese wall" through their city and cut off easy access to streets and schools.

Instead, Keys said, property values along the route have gone up and new business is being attracted to the area.

VanderKloot responded: "But just think how many more there would be if it were a freeway more accessible to the public."

DETROIT (AP)—Young Democratic Clubs of Michigan will open their convention in Detroit tonight with Rep. Charles A. Vanik (D-Ohio) as keynote speaker. The freshman congressman from Cleveland is one of the nation's youngest lawmakers. He is 42.

The Young Democrats will honor Gov. G. Mennen Williams at a dinner in the Masonic Temple tomorrow evening. Sen. Matthew M. Neeley (D-W.Va) will be the speaker and Sen. Patrick V. MacNamara (D-Mich) will serve as toastmaster.

The convention is expected to draw 2,000 Young Democrats.

The delegates will split into three political workshop seminars Saturday afternoon. Seminar speakers will include Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart.

The convention will close Sunday morning with election of officers.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Sen. Juraci Magalhaes, who challenged publisher Paul Bittencourt to a duel, tried to whip him with his fists last night. Bystanders separated them at the Museum of Modern Art.

Magalhaes challenged Bittencourt to a duel last Monday because of editorials in the publisher's newspaper, Correio Da Manha. Bittencourt replied that he didn't believe in duels and anyway would not fight with "that person." Magalhaes went to the museum when he heard Bittencourt was there.

MacArthur Notes Leave Us Right Where We Are

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

The Pentagon report and General MacArthur's reply leave us just where we were with regard to Russian participation in the Japanese war and the price paid for it by the Allies.

The fact is that Roosevelt and Churchill acted on military advice in trying to get Russia into the war. The price they paid, in territory that wasn't theirs and concessions of Chinese rights without consulting China, can be argued about all night.

The military reports and MacArthur's statements do indicate that many believed Russia would enter and take what she wanted regardless of the concessions, and that if the Allied leaders were giving away something they didn't own, they also were merely giving away something Russia was going to have anyway.

The implication, by omission of some of the facts, that Russia entered only at the last moment to seize unearned benefits, after failing to relay Japan's surrender feelers to the Allies, is a distortion.

RUSSIA WAITED

Russia for her own reasons, didn't relay news of the Japanese feelers, and it is quite possible she didn't want peace before she could get to the front. But she did enter the Far Eastern war three months after the German surrender, as she had agreed.

The main failure of the Allied leaders was in ignoring the fact that the things for which Russia asked their approval were part of a formula, made blatantly public over a long period of years, for Communist conquest of all Asia.

As for the political gambits of the MacArthur-Democratic dispute over pre-Yalta and post-Yalta details, neither side seems to have made much hay.

DOUG COOLED OFF

MacArthur still says he favored Russian participation immediately after Pearl Harbor, cooled off on it by 1944 when things were going to suit him in his own war, and was merely pursuing the Yalta verdict in his references to Russian entry thereafter.

The Pentagon report doesn't show that he was asked or gave his advice directly in connection with Yalta, as the Democrats implied, and he says he wasn't and didn't.

As for what he might have said had he been asked, we have his word that he didn't want Russia then, and you can't go behind that. The record shows other military leaders were warming up and then cooling off about Russian participation from time to time, too.

* * *

Hindsight frequently interferes with what historians select as the most pertinent part of a given record, as well as with personal recollections of attitudes at given times. That makes humans, but not liars, out of those involved.

* * *

All we can be sure of is that if Russia had done what she was going to do anyway, without Allied approval if necessary, the world would have had notice, a year or so before it did, of what it should have known all the time about her postwar intentions.

Gets 90-Day Term for Neglecting Baby

DETROIT (AP)—Charged with neglect in connection with the suffocation of a 17-month-old baby, Mrs. Anne Sumpter Kelp, 27, drew a 90-day jail term and 90 days probation yesterday.

Police said the woman's brother smothered the baby to death after she had left the infant in his care.

Recorder's Judge John P. O'Hara sentenced Mrs. Kelp after she pleaded guilty to a charge of neglecting a minor. The infant girl had been placed in her care while the mother was confined to a hospital.

Police said Mrs. Kelp went out, leaving the child with her brother, David Sumpter, 18. The youth told officers he smothered the baby to death because it wouldn't stop crying.

Sumpter has been charged with first degree murder. He is scheduled for examination by a sanity commission.

'College Courses Aid Nations' Friendship'

EAST LANSING (AP)—College extension services, once used to spread research results to farmers and other employed adults, is helping America develop ties with nations not committed to either the United States or Soviet Russia.

Dr. Milton E. Muelder, dean of science and arts at Michigan State University, told the Association of Governing Bodies of State Universities the importance of global extension programs.

"Educators sent abroad," he said, "are not suspected of ulterior motives. And this enables us to send educators who either understand or seek to understand the culture of the country and who seek to assist honestly and faithfully the host country in order that through the educative process a country can better help itself."

Dean Muelder said there were 67 contracts with American universities for overseas cooperation at the end of 1955, compared with 14 in January of 1953.

He said MSU is a leader in global extension, operating missions in Okinawa, Vietnam, Colombia and Brazil.

NAACP Disapproves of Integration Program

BECKLEY, W.Va. (AP)—The Raleigh County Board of Education voted at a 10-minute meeting last night to begin racial integration in schools with the 1956-57 term, but its plans failed to win approval of state Negro leaders.

T. G. Nutter of Charleston, state president of the National Assn. of the Advancement of Colored People, said that the board's plan would take too long. He said the NAACP planned to take the matter to court.

Police Brace for Trouble in Weekend Saar Voting

By GODFREY ANDERSON

SAARBRUECKEN, Saar (AP) — Saar police tightened their precautions today against possible disorders as the hotly disputed weekend balloting on the border territory's future approached.

Saarlanders will vote Sunday for or against the French-German plan to give their country a "European" autonomy under Western European Union.

"From now on, as the campaign closes, things will get tougher and tougher," a high police official predicted.

* * *

Members of the International Commission on Neutral Observers supervising the plebiscite were known to fear an invasion of rowdies from Western Germany in the next 48 hours.

New efforts to break up Premier Johannes Hoffman's pro-Europe meetings were made in two areas last night.

Hoffmann's automobile was halted by a road block. A crowd surged round his car and police had to turn on fire hoses to clear the way.

* * *

The compact part of the bargain

The compat, part of the bargain for German rearmament in NATO, provides for the Saar (1) a firm economic and customs union with France, (2), internal self-government and (3) supervision of its foreign relations by a high commissioner appointed by the seven-nation Western European Union.

* * *

Pro-German parties in the German-speaking valley have campaigned bitterly against the proposed Europeanization statute They want to return to the German fatherland. Once before, when Hitler was in power in Germany, 90 per cent of the Saar's voters decided in a plebiscite in 1935 to cast off a League of Nations trusteeship and go back to Germany.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer last night again urged the Saarlanders to vote yes next Sunday. Adenauer views the Saar agreement as a key piece in his policy of settling old scores with France for the sake of West European unity and defense.

* * *

"I sincerely hope that the Saar population will take a politically wise decision," he said in a message from his sickbed at Bonn.

The French Cabinet Wednesday also joined in the pressure for a "yes" vote by declaring that Saarlanders could not hope for union with Germany now if they reject the statute. The French said that if that happened, the Sar would continue as it is and there would be no new negotiations for a different arrangement.

The Saar now is governed internally by its own premier and Diet and France controls its economy and foreign relations.

Nation's Polio Cases Lowest in Six Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — The states reported 884 new polio cases last week, the smallest number in six years for the comparable week.

The total was down 15 per cent from the 1,037 cases in the preceding week, the Public Health Service said today.

A spokesman said it would not be surprising if the weekly totals from now until the end of the year regularly fall below the lowest in the last five years.

State Welfare Cases Are 282 Over August Totals

LANSING (AP)—The number of direct relief cases handled by the state in September rose 282 over the August total, the State Social Welfare Department said today.

W. J. Maxey, director, said the increase was a "seasonal one," occuring every year at the approach of cold weather and higher fuel bills.

The state handled 15,822 direct relief cases during September. Other case totals compared with August figures: Old age assistance, 73,750, down 384; aid to dependent children, 19,460, down 260; aid to blind, 1,773, down 11; aid to the disabled, 2,344, up 13.

Fire Blamed on Ire

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Apparently peeved at finding no money, a burglar built a fire in the automobile firm office of Ray Kaufman yesterday. The yegg started the blaze in the middle of the floor, using the firm's records and an overcoat for kindling, but the fire did not spread. Only a small table radio was missing.

Brucker Favors Mental Hospital

Tells State He's Willing to Lend Custer Wards for Retarded Children

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Secretary Brucker has promised to take "another look" at the possibility of the Army leasing its Fort Custer Hospital at Battle Creek to Michigan to use in caring for mentally retarded children.

Brucker told a Michigan delegation that he "personally favored" leasing the hospital to the state on an emergency basis.

The secretary, a former Republican governor of Michigan, said he would have his staff reinvestigate the question and would have "a decision in principle" ready when the Michigan Legislature meets in special session Nov. 1.

The Army recently rejected a proposal by the state that it lease the Fort Custer Hospital for use in caring for mentally retarded children.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams called the special session to provide more facilities for the mentally retarded, to improve highway safety and to increase school teacher pay.

State Senator Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek) said Brucker told the delegation there was precedent for the federal government leasing buildings to states and that he had a request similar to Michigan's from another state.

AID 700 CHILDREN

Williams said the hospital could accommodate 600 to 700 children, or approximately half those now on waiting lists for institutional care.

Brucker said that if the hospital were leased to the state it should be for 2½ years with a stipulation that the state would vacate the hospital in four months if the Army decided to reactivate the big Battle Creek post.

In event of reactivation, Brucker said the state also would have to agree to turn over some of the hospital beds immediately.

In addition, the state would have to agree to rehabilitate the hospital and to maintain it in "A-1 condition."

Senator Coleman told newsmen he was "greatly encouraged" after conferring with Brucker.

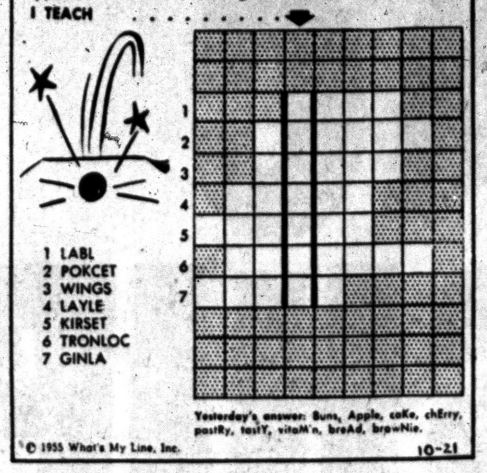

Besides Williams and Coleman, the Michigan delegation also included Rep. August Johansen (R-Mich).

The Pentagon report doesn't show that he was asked or gave his advice directly in connection with Yalta, as the Democrats implied, and he says he wasn't and didn't.

As for what he might have said had he been asked, we have his word that he didn't want Russia then, and you can't go behind that. The record shows other military leaders were warming up and then cooling off about Russian participation from time to time, too.

* * *

Hindsight frequently interferes with what historians select as the most pertinent part of a given record, as well as with personal recollections of attitudes at given times. That makes humans, but not liars, out of those involved.

* * *

All we can be sure of is that if Russia had done what she was going to do anyway, without Allied approval if necessary, the world would have had notice, a year or so before it did, of what it should have known all the time about her postwar intentions.

Gets 90-Day Term for Neglecting Baby

DETROIT (AP)—Charged with neglect in connection with the suffocation of a 17-month-old baby, Mrs. Anne Sumpter Kelp, 27, drew a 90-day jail term and 90 days probation yesterday.

Police said the woman's brother smothered the baby to death after she had left the infant in his care.

Recorder's Judge John P. O'Hara sentenced Mrs. Kelp after she pleaded guilty to a charge of neglecting a minor. The infant girl had been placed in her care while the mother was confined to a hospital.

Police said Mrs. Kelp went out, leaving the child with her brother, David Sumpter, 18. The youth told officers he smothered the baby to death because it wouldn't stop crying.

Sumpter has been charged with first degree murder. He is scheduled for examination by a sanity commission.

'College Courses Aid Nations' Friendship'

EAST LANSING (AP)—College extension services, once used to spread research results to farmers and other employed adults, is helping America develop ties with nations not committed to either the United States or Soviet Russia.

Dr. Milton E. Muelder, dean of science and arts at Michigan State University, told the Association of Governing Bodies of State Universities the importance of global extension programs.

"Educators sent abroad," he said, "are not suspected of ulterior motives. And this enables us to send educators who either understand or seek to understand the culture of the country and who seek to assist honestly and faithfully the host country in order that through the educative process a country can better help itself."

Dean Muelder said there were 67 contracts with American universities for overseas cooperation at the end of 1955, compared with 14 in January of 1953.

He said MSU is a leader in global extension, operating missions in Okinawa, Vietnam, Colombia and Brazil.

NAACP Disapproves of Integration Program

BECKLEY, W.Va. (AP)—The Raleigh County Board of Education voted at a 10-minute meeting last night to begin racial integration in schools with the 1956-57 term, but its plans failed to win approval of state Negro leaders.

T. G. Nutter of Charleston, state president of the National Assn. of the Advancement of Colored People, said that the board's plan would take too long. He said the NAACP planned to take the matter to court.

BENTON HARBOR (AP)—In an effort to stem a rash of head-on collisions, the City Commission has banned passing by autos on Colfax avenue for a 60-day trial period. There have been 261 reported traffic mishaps on the seventh-tenths of a mile stretch in recent years, 12 of them head-on crashes.

Police Brace for Trouble in Weekend Saar Voting

By GODFREY ANDERSON

SAARBRUECKEN, Saar (AP) — Saar police tightened their precautions today against possible disorders as the hotly disputed weekend balloting on the border territory's future approached.

Saarlanders will vote Sunday for or against the French-German plan to give their country a "European" autonomy under Western European Union.

"From now on, as the campaign closes, things will get tougher and tougher," a high police official predicted.

* * *

Members of the International Commission on Neutral Observers supervising the plebiscite were known to fear an invasion of rowdies from Western Germany in the next 48 hours.

New efforts to break up Premier Johannes Hoffman's pro-Europe meetings were made in two areas last night.

Hoffmann's automobile was halted by a road block. A crowd surged round his car and police had to turn on fire hoses to clear the way.

* * *

The compact part of the bargain

The compat, part of the bargain for German rearmament in NATO, provides for the Saar (1) a firm economic and customs union with France, (2), internal self-government and (3) supervision of its foreign relations by a high commissioner appointed by the seven-nation Western European Union.

* * *

Pro-German parties in the German-speaking valley have campaigned bitterly against the proposed Europeanization statute They want to return to the German fatherland. Once before, when Hitler was in power in Germany, 90 per cent of the Saar's voters decided in a plebiscite in 1935 to cast off a League of Nations trusteeship and go back to Germany.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer last night again urged the Saarlanders to vote yes next Sunday. Adenauer views the Saar agreement as a key piece in his policy of settling old scores with France for the sake of West European unity and defense.

* * *

"I sincerely hope that the Saar population will take a politically wise decision," he said in a message from his sickbed at Bonn.

The French Cabinet Wednesday also joined in the pressure for a "yes" vote by declaring that Saarlanders could not hope for union with Germany now if they reject the statute. The French said that if that happened, the Sar would continue as it is and there would be no new negotiations for a different arrangement.

The Saar now is governed internally by its own premier and Diet and France controls its economy and foreign relations.

Nation's Polio Cases Lowest in Six Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — The states reported 884 new polio cases last week, the smallest number in six years for the comparable week.

The total was down 15 per cent from the 1,037 cases in the preceding week, the Public Health Service said today.

A spokesman said it would not be surprising if the weekly totals from now until the end of the year regularly fall below the lowest in the last five years.

State Welfare Cases Are 282 Over August Totals

LANSING (AP)—The number of direct relief cases handled by the state in September rose 282 over the August total, the State Social Welfare Department said today.

W. J. Maxey, director, said the increase was a "seasonal one," occuring every year at the approach of cold weather and higher fuel bills.

The state handled 15,822 direct relief cases during September. Other case totals compared with August figures: Old age assistance, 73,750, down 384; aid to dependent children, 19,460, down 260; aid to blind, 1,773, down 11; aid to the disabled, 2,344, up 13.

Fire Blamed on Ire

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Apparently peeved at finding no money, a burglar built a fire in the automobile firm office of Ray Kaufman yesterday. The yegg started the blaze in the middle of the floor, using the firm's records and an overcoat for kindling, but the fire did not spread. Only a small table radio was missing.

Brucker Favors Mental Hospital

Tells State He's Willing to Lend Custer Wards for Retarded Children

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Secretary Brucker has promised to take "another look" at the possibility of the Army leasing its Fort Custer Hospital at Battle Creek to Michigan to use in caring for mentally retarded children.

Brucker told a Michigan delegation that he "personally favored" leasing the hospital to the state on an emergency basis.

The secretary, a former Republican governor of Michigan, said he would have his staff reinvestigate the question and would have "a decision in principle" ready when the Michigan Legislature meets in special session Nov. 1.

The Army recently rejected a proposal by the state that it lease the Fort Custer Hospital for use in caring for mentally retarded children.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams called the special session to provide more facilities for the mentally retarded, to improve highway safety and to increase school teacher pay.

State Senator Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek) said Brucker told the delegation there was precedent for the federal government leasing buildings to states and that he had a request similar to Michigan's from another state.

AID 700 CHILDREN

Williams said the hospital could accommodate 600 to 700 children, or approximately half those now on waiting lists for institutional care.

Brucker said that if the hospital were leased to the state it should be for 2½ years with a stipulation that the state would vacate the hospital in four months if the Army decided to reactivate the big Battle Creek post.

In event of reactivation, Brucker said the state also would have to agree to turn over some of the hospital beds immediately.

In addition, the state would have to agree to rehabilitate the hospital and to maintain it in "A-1 condition."

Senator Coleman told newsmen he was "greatly encouraged" after conferring with Brucker.

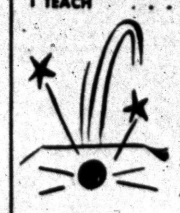

Besides Williams and Coleman, the Michigan delegation also included Rep. August Johansen (R-Mich).

Club Hears 'Saucer' Talk

"Are we beginning a new era of the earth? What is earth's place in the universe, and are we about to stop thinking in terms of war and conquest, and start to live in a great new universe?"

These were the questions Mrs. Caroline McLean, former university professor, asked members of the Zonta Club of Pontiac Thursday when they gathered at Hotel Waldron.

Mrs. McLean, whose hobby is collecting information concerning flying saucers and space ships, feels that we are on the verge of a whole new concept of life—as revolutionary as that following the voyages of Columbus.

She spoke of the quality of wonder as one of the most valuable we have, leading to most of the great discoveries.

Significant dates the speaker mentioned included 1944, when flying objects were first seen, and 1947, when they were described as saucer-like—hence the name flying saucers.

Then in 1948 a cigar-shaped craft was reported, and called a space ship. These were labeled as illusions or hallucinations.

Mrs. McLean cited the Navy's 20 million dollar project to launch satellites into space, and the work of the Army in the same field.

The speaker concluded by saying that we should be prepared to someday receive visitors from outer space.

She Fears Being Labeled 'Anyone's Girl'

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: My problem is different from a lot of other girls'—I have too many boy friends. My parents and relatives like it that way. They say, since I'm just 17, that I shouldn't give myself the chance to get serious with any one boy.

"But my friends disagree. They say I'll get the reputation of being 'anyone's girl,' and that no boy could ever take me seriously.

"Frankly, I don't want to get serious yet. But I don't want that kind of reputation, either. I'm now going out with five different boys. Am I right or wrong.

Answer: Your friends have planted an idea in your head that has you in a swivet. The reputation they talk of doesn't sound very pleasant. They're trying to convince you that you're doing something wrong.

But, frankly, I can't see where their interpretation of an idea has anything to do with you. If you are known as someone's girl, it means you take him pretty seriously. If it's "anyone's girl," it means you take all the boys you date seriously. Each one of them considers you his girl and takes you seriously.

* * *

And at this point you know, your family knows and your friends must know that you don't take any one boy that seriously. Most particularly the five boys you go out with must be convinced. They like to date you, they don't feel possessive, you don't feel possessive; you are all free to date around, playing it free-lance.

You're nobody's girl. But you have lots of boy friends, and lots of dates and lots of fun. And that situation is popular with the members of your family. Apparently it goes over big, too, with the boys in your life.

There will come along someday just the right boy for you to get serious over—when it's appropriate for you to pin your hopes on one guy. He may be someone you haven't met yet. He may be one of the five boys you're dating now.

* * *

The mood will change, your own responsiveness and readiness will show, and you'll fall headlong. He'll take that seriously when it happens.

But for now, stick to your guns. Explain to your needling friends that these boys are just friends to date occasionally. There's no romantic stuff going on to make them get ideas.

Tell them that you prefer to be "everybody's friend" rather than "anyone's girl." Let them have their romances; let them settle down to going steady.

* * *

Remind them that it will happen to you when the time comes. And that time isn't now.

Meeting Conducted by Paulson Circle

Mrs. George Thomas entertained members of the Paulson Missionary Circle of the Emmanuel Baptist Church at her home on Kohler drive Wednesday evening. Mrs. Lyle Howard and Kathryn George assisted the hostess.

Arrangements were made to sew for Mrs. Maurice Paulson, who will be leaving soon to serve as a missionary in South Africa.

Red Cross Revises Plan for Staffing Bloodmobiles

The American Red Cross blood advisory committee of the Oakland County Chapter adopted a revised plan for staffing the area's bloodmobile when members met at the Franklin boulevard chapter house Thursday.

Mrs. John Blanchard of Bloomfield Hills is chairman of the committee.

* * *

This new plan, which requires just three hours of training and six hours aid a year, offers Pontiac women who find they can spend a few hours each year in volunteer work a new opportunity to be a good neighbor.

In the past, area mobiles were staffed only by members of service groups, Gray Ladies, nurse's aides, staff aides and members of the Motor Service Corps.

According to the new plan, each blood collection area has a staff chairman whose duty it is to recruit, train and assign volunteers strictly for work on bloodmobiles.

* * *

Mrs. Dalton F. Sifton, recruitment chairman for the southern Oakland County area, says that these trainees will not take the place of service group aid but will supplement it.

ALSO ATTENDING

Meeting with the committee were area mobile recruitment chairmen, Mrs. N. E. Durocher of Pontiac, Mrs. Roy Torrence of Milford and Mrs. Edward Lerchen of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

* * *

Dates for the training periods are Oct. 27 at 1 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House; Oct. 28 at 12:30 p.m. at St. John Church, Royal Oak; Nov. 2 at 9 a.m. at the chapter house on Franklin boulevard, and Nov. 7 at noon in Holly. More classes will be scheduled for the out-county area.

Sessions in any area are open to all interested persons, but the committee advises attendance in the area in which the volunteer will work.

Margaret Geyerman, chief nurse of the Detroit Regional Blood Center, and her staff will teach the classes.

It was decided to have children of Baldwin School register at the school for prizes to be given by the PTA if they are home at 8 p.m. on Halloween. Names of those to be called or called upon if they have no phone will be drawn from the registration.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Ruff were named chairmen of the Christmas float.

Old Ambition Inspires New Hobby

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Behind many a successful sideline venture lies an early frustration. In fact, if you're trying to decide on a hobby, or a spare-time activity, look in your past experience and see if there isn't some big disappointment which you can turn into productive channels.

* * *

Mrs. G., for example, makes perfectly delightful perfumes, which she sells from her own home. And the key to her success is the fact that she always wanted to be a chemist!

"But," she told me, "halfway through college I met Bill and married him, so the career in chemistry went out the window.

"Not that I ever regretted it; we've had a wonderful life. But now, with the children grown, I desperately needed some kind of activity to keep me interested. I thought about that old love—chemistry.

* * *

"Of course," she continued, "it was too late to go back to college to get a degree and try to find a job in the field. Moreover, I didn't want a full-time job—just something to do afternoons, to keep me active and growing mentally.

SUGGESTED PERFUMES

"One day, while I was talking to a friend of Bill's, who is a chemist, I told him my problem. He suggested that I might make perfumes. 'It isn't hard,' he told me, and gave me the names of some firms to send to for more information.

"It sounded like a big order, but I did as he suggested and found a special laboratory which would send me the necessary supplies.

"My first couple of experiments weren't too successful, but after a while I came up with a pretty good perfume. I used it myself, then began giving samples to friends.

"Then I worked out several quite good scents and bought some fancy glass bottles for them. I enjoy trying to dream up new names and labeling them in fancy printing.

* * *

"I now have some customers," she concluded, "to whom I sell my perfumes. Bill and I give some as birthday and Christmas presents to all our female relatives and friends. It's such fun.

"I'm reading all the old histories of perfume and having the time of my life!"

Yes, the clue to a successful venture often lies in an old frustrated ambition!

Cardinal Spellman Says Soviet Smile Only Front

NEW YORK (AP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman says the "Russian smile," prevalent since the Geneva conference, cannot erase "the memory of Soviet cruelty."

Speaking last night at the 11th annual Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation Dinner, he warned against what he termed "the blandishments of the Soviet smile," and added:

"It is possible to be under the mistaken impression that a person is smiling at you when actually he is laughing at you."

One of the wildest Ivy League football games ever played involved Yale and Dartmouth in 1931. They played a 33-33 tie.

Judge Black Says Lawyers Want Control of the Bench

DETROIT (AP) — Attorneys pressing to change Michigan's system of naming judges by popular election actually want to control judicial selections themselves, Supreme Court justice-elect Eugene Black contends.

Black, elected last April to a State Supreme Court starting Jan. 1, made his charge Wednesday in a debate before University of Detroit law students. Opposing him was Neil A. Patterson, Detroit attorney and executive secretary of the Better Judges for Michigan Committee.

Patterson argued that the popular election system of naming judges is "one deeply enmeshed in politics."

Black, now a circuit judge in Port Huron, said the so-called Missouri Plan for choosing judges would give lawyers control of the selections. Patterson's committee supports the Missouri Plan for Michigan.

Under the Missouri system the governor would fill judicial vacancies from a list of three nominees. The nominees would be selected by a commission that would include a judge selected by judges, three lawyers named by lawyers and three laymen named by the governor.

Within a year after appointment and every six years thereafter, a judge would run for election on his record without opposition by a candidate. If rejected, a successor would be named from nominees of the seven-member commission.

Patterson said the plan would eliminate leaders of political parties from in effect, naming judges. Moreover, it would tend to remove judges "who have outlived their usefulness."

Black said Patterson's committee had ignored his suggestions for court reform "by improving the present system, not junking it."

Black said he proposed:

(1) Filling judicial vacancies by election rather than appointment by the governor; (2) Nominating Supreme Court candidates in primaries instead of at party conventions; (3) Eliminating ballot designation for judicial incumbents; (4) And staggering terms of judges in metropolitan centers to avoid "bedsheet" ballots.

Black said the legislature could enact his proposed reforms.

Waterford Names Schools for Outstanding Pioneers

By JANE WINDELER
Press Correspondent

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The Board of Education tentatively approved a 3½ million dollar building program and also gave names to the four elementary buildings now under construction when it met here last night.

* * *

Pending further study, the board set February as the time for a special election to gain approval for issuing bonds which would pay for six school sites, four more elementary buildings, an addition to an existing building, and a junior high school. Two of the sites would be used for a third junior high and a second senior high school.

In naming the four schools now under construction, the Board felt that both men and women should be recognized and that their names should be meaningful to all and that they should have a background in Michigan history.

Some time ago members named the school on Crescent Lake road near Hatchery road, the John Monteith School, honoring an early Michigan educator and missionary. In 1817 he was appointed one of the two faculty members of the "University of Michigan" by Gov. Cass. In 1818, with a group of Detroit citizens, he made a tour into Oakland County to explore the recently surveyed areas. Shortly thereafter the settlement of Pontiac and Waterford Township occurred.

McVITTIE HISTORY

The school on Midland Avenue, between Waterford Village and Drayton Plains, will be named the McVittie School in recognition of Kenneth and Effie McVittie. The couple moved to Waterford Township in 1920 and shortly thereafter, Mrs. McVittie began teaching school in the Waterford Village School, and taught there until the time of her death in 1950. Kenneth McVittie served as chief probation officer for Oakland County and referee for the juvenile court for twenty years. He was one of the organizers and first president of the Clinton Valley Council of Boy Scouts and also served on the Waterford Village school board for a number of years.

The school on Pontiac Lake Road, near Cass Lake Road, will be named the Eliza Seaman Leggett School, honoring a Township resident who chalked up many innovations in her time. Her father was a physician and Eliza was the first American child to be inoculated with smallpox serum. As an adult she took a pioneer role in such movements as abolition of slavery, woman suffrage, etc. Her suggestions launched Chicago's first world fair, inaugurated Columbus Day, instigated the use of Belle Isle as a public park.

The fourth school, now under construction on Winding Drive in Elizabeth Lake Estates, will be known as the William Austin Burt School. Burt came to Michigan in 1822 and as a surveyor was responsible for discovering much of the vast mineral wealth of Northern Michigan. He is better known as the originator and developer of the solar compass.

* * *

In other business, the board opened bids for construction of an eight-inch water main to serve the Winding Drive building. Low bidder was George W. Tripp with $4,216. The bids were submitted to architect Eugene Cleland for recommendations to be made at a special meeting Tuesday, October 25, at 8 p.m.

Hal Boyle Says:

Meet the Rolling Skull and Crying Duchess

NEW YORK (AP)—A human skull rolled out on the table, and the duchess cried, "Take your hands off me!"

Lest any mystery arise from the foregoing sentence, let me hasten to explain. I wrote it only to please two of my oldest critics.

* * *

A dozen years ago I took up that odd kind of mental carpentering called newspaper columning.

Over all those years a news friend has told me perhaps a thousand times, "the only way to interest readers is to startle them at the start. You should begin every column with the sentence, "a human skull rolled out on the table" —and then go on and write about whatever else you have in mind."

* * *

Another news friend has agreed with him in principle, but has held out for this opening sentence, "Take your hands off me," the duchess cried.

"It has the three things that interest people most — sex, money and high society," he claims. "You could use the sentence day after day and your readers would never tire of it."

* * *

Maybe they wouldn't — but I would. And so let us say goodby forever to the rolling skull and the crying duchess.

For some reason many readers are interested in the behind-the-scenes trials and tribulations of writing a daily newspaper column. Today I'd like to answer some of the questions most often asked me during my 12 years of buried life.

* * *

Q. Do you own a yacht?

A. "No!"

Q. Is it hard getting a new idea every day?

A. No harder than it would be to give blood every day.

Q. My son, who is in the 6th grade and says the cutest things, wants to be a columnist. What should I do?

A. Hold his head under cold water; repeat whenever necessary.

* * *

Q. What really is the best training for a columnist?

A. Ditch digging, flagpole sitting and strip teasing.

Q. How does a columnist really get most of his ideas?

A. Crying himself to sleep.

Q. Columnists are always crusading to change the world. Which of your crusades are you proudest of?

A. My lifelong attempt to gain more recognition each year for the second robin of spring.

* * *

Q. Does a columnist need a good memory?

A. No. He needs a bad memory. Otherwise he couldn't write the same idea 10 times over and still keep a clear conscience.

Q. Do columnists like each other?

A. Sure, the same way women like each other.

Q. Why are columnists always setting up straw dummies and knocking them over?

A. They have found that if they hit real people, the real people hit back — and that hurts.

Q. Do most columnists write from an inner need? If so, what is it?

A. Hunger.

* * *

Q. What is the greatest problem that could face a columnist?

A. Having to write a column on a typewriter with a broken "I" key.

Q. What is the one thing a columnist needs most to become successful?

A. A successful employer with a sense of humor.

Termite Poison Fatal to Woman

Hollywood Secretary Mistakes Killing Fluid for Wine, Police Say

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP) — The "wine" which Mrs. Rose Jones Finigan fatally sipped in a moment of hospitality was described by sheriff's officers today as termite killer fluid.

Inspector F. W. Rosenberg said the 50-year-old personal secretary to film producer C. B. De Mille apparently poured from a wine bottle containing deadly sodium arsenate. The inspector said the bottle had been taken accidentally from the home of Mrs. Finigan's brother-in-law, a termite exterminator.

Mrs. Finigan died yesterday, about 12 hours after taking a sip with a neighbor, Mrs. Dolores Hoyle, 26, who had complained of a cold. Mrs. Hoyle is hospitalized, but expected to recover.

The mystery of the poisoned wine was solved suddenly, Rosenberg said, when officers went to the home of the brother-in-law, Carl Finigan, where Mrs. Finigan and her husband formerly lived.

* * *

Carl Finigan told them he used sodium arsenate to exterminate termites and frequently carried it to jobs in old wine bottles.

"How would it look after standing awhile?" he was asked.

"Something like sauterne," Finifrom a bottle labeled "white port," which resembles sauterne. Rosenberg theorized that Mrs. Finigan and her husband Harold took the bottle with them by mistake to their new home.

Mrs. Finigan had been employed by De Mille for 25 years, first as an accountant and bookkeeper and later as personal secretary.

NORT HHOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) —Funeral services will be conducted privately in a mortuary here tomorrow for actor John Hodiak, who died of a heart attack Wednesday. He was 41.

Miniature Golf Course Set for State Hospital Patients

Pontiac State Hospital again establishes itself among the leaders of the state hospitals in recognizing new ideas in therapy.

Following the lead of the nation in the increased interest in golf as a form of relaxation and exercise, Pontiac State Hospital has completed an 18-hole miniature golf course.

This course includes water holes, sand traps and other golf hazards to make it thought provoking and entertaining. It is expected to service 200 patients a week.

The entire athletic field will handle the recreational therapy needs of over 500 patients each week.

The staff has long been aware of these needs but it was not until last year when funds became available that actual work started.

All work has been done voluntarily by patients with the Recreational Therapy Department as the sponsoring group. Funds for the course and other athletic courts have been given by organizations and individuals throughout the state.

The overall plan to make Pontiac State Hospital's recreational therapy facilities the finest in the state include tennis, paddle tennis, badminton and shuffleboard courts, a series of horseshoe pits, a new baseball diamond and a quiet patio area in addition to the 18-hole miniature golf course.

Plans are also under way with the State Legislature for eventually having a small stadium for spectator sports. Completed now is the golf course, shuffleboard courts and the badminton courts. The remainder of the facilities are being held until spring when it is expected that additional funds and weather conditions will allow them to go on to completion.

Heart Specialists to Survey Progress

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Many of the nation's top heart specialists began gathering today for a three-day scientific survey of late findings on the nature and treatment of maladies of the heart and blood vessels—diseases responsible for more than half of all American deaths each year.

At a time when public interest in heart disease has reached a new high due to President Eisenhower's recent heart attack, the American Heart Assn. prepared for the opening of its 28th annual scientific session, commencing tomorrow.

Dr. Paul D. White of Boston, a consultant in President Eisenhower's illness, is scheduled to take part in a panel discussion Sunday on the subject "Rehabilitation and Heart Disease."

Death Claims Are Down

NEW YORK — The Institute of Life Insurance reports that motor-vehicle fatalities accounted for 19,000 life-insurance death claims in the first half of 1955, representing $40,000,000 in benefit payments. This compares with 20,000 claims for $39,000,000 in the first half of 1954.

Dean, Jerry Toss Around Vegas Money

LAS VEGAS, Nev. Oct. 20 (AP) — This gambling resort loves publicity.

When a couple of characters like Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis come to town it would be a sad day indeed if the local press agents failed to capitalize on them.

* * *

Take last night, for instance. There were Dean and Jerry, lounging around the Sands Hotel, waiting for a plane to return them to Hollywood after a brief vacation.

According to the hotel's publicity man, this is what happened:

The comics sat down at a blackjack table and began playing — and cutting up. In no time at all they had edged out dealer Abe Finke of Newark, N. J., and were passing out cards, advice and money to patrons.

* * *

More than 100 people gathered. And no wonder. The boys were paying off double, triple and then some. They peeked at players' hole cards, gave them better ones if they needed them. They screamed at those that rejected advice.

The press agent quoted manager Jack Entratter as saying the shenanigans cost the hotel $74,895 before the funnymen left after half an hour, although how so precise a figure was arrived at was not explained.

* * *

But the loss, said Entratter, was "nothing compared to the two million dollars in good-will with the public."

India produces about 36,800,000 sheep and goat hides annually.

Clooney Girls Enjoying New Motherhood Roles

Movie-goer Jesse Kapian says the scenery in "Oklahoma!" is so realistic they struck oil in the center aisle.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—You know the Clooney Sisters—but have you met the Clooney Mothers?

Rosemary Clooney Ferrer holds 8-month-old Miguel ("Bombo") Ferrer tight against her breast, trying to rock-a-bye him to sleep, while Betty Clooney Campo, who's expecting in June, watches worshipfully and then whispers:

"Isn't it funny? A year ago babies bored me."

"Now it's different, huh?" nods Mother Rosemary.

"I can't hear enough!" Betty stares ecstatically at young nephew Bombo, who's trying to fight back a yawn. A wide-awake guy like his pop, Jose Ferrer, he won't shut an eye.

"I've given her 11 books on pregnancy," Rosemary says.

"Pupi's reading them with me," announces Betty. "All about the four quarts of milk a day. He's always handing me a glass of milk."

MIGUEL AND ROSEMARY

Yes, the Clooney Mothers act may be even better than the Clooney Sisters, which originated in Maysville, Ky., and Cincinnati and was pretty good, too. I discovered it at the Ferrer apartment.

Stepping inside, I was greeted with a big "Sssh!"

"This is young Mr. Ferrer," Rosemary whispered. "He won't go to sleep."

But finally he did. "I had a name picked out for my next one, which I hope'll be a girl, but Mrs. Campo here . . ." said Rosemary. "Listen, Betty, if you steal that name Maria!"

"You're planning another one?" I asked.

"Ever since this one was three months old. I'll have a dozen."

Young Bombo flies between the Ferrers' N.Y. and Hollywood homes unwhimperingly. He'll be going to Spain in April.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Is he talented?" I inquired. "You wouldn't remember how mothers used to put down on the floor a Bible, a bottle and a dollar, when the babies started creeping. The baby was supposed to be either a clergyman, a saloon keeper or a banker, according to which one he reached for."

BETTY CARR

"Bombo was given a choice of Joe's hats—his hunting bowler, his grey homburg, his jaunty I'm-a-director cap," Rosemary said. "He took the hunting bowler . . . because it had a string on it which he put in his mouth."

"I must go start dinner," wide-eyed Betty mentioned.

"Drink your milk," Rosemary urged, "and if you don't feel good, come see your old Mother Ferrer here. It's only two blocks."

Papa Wilson said goodbye and creaked home feeling unusually antiquated . . . he remembered both the Clooney Mothers as teenagers.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Author Irving Wallace (his "Fabulous Originals" is just out) is troubled writing "The Ed Sullivan Story" for films—nobody hates Ed, no conflict! . . . All Hollywood studios are after Jayne Mansfield since her luscious acting in "Rock Hunter."

Martha Raye, whose Conn. home is on a hill, took in ten families evacuated from the flood . . The Tony Bennetts had their second boy . . . The 64G quiz's Lynne Dollar has a roommate—actress Narcissa Nickel . . . Betty Carr (of "Damn Yankees") will be named Nat'l Wine Week Queen.

Marine Capt. McCutcheon will be a Collier's cover-boy . . . Liberace's dinner invitations add the footnote: "Mom's cooking" . . . Audrey Meadows will do a CBS-TV spectacular . . . Grace Kelly's lunch date at the Colony was Oleg Cassini.

Woman Pleads Return of $190 for Hospital Bill

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Mrs. Charles Wright has appealed in a brief newspaper ad for the return of $190 taken from her purse while she was talking over the phone in a downtown booth.

She explained it was all the money she had and it was borrowed to pay the bill at the Kalamazoo Hospital where her husband has been a patient since April.

Wife, 22, Prefers Late TV Shows to Married Life

CHICAGO (AP)—A young wife told a judge yesterday that her television and late-hour movies were worth more to her than her husband.

* * *

The question had been asked Mrs. Darlene Carlson, 22, mother of two babies, by Superior Judge George M. Fisher.

Her answer was a quiet but firm "No."

Judge Fisher shook his head sadly. Then he entered an order that her husband Richard, 27, a painter and decorator, must pay $25 weekly for temporary support of his family.

* * *

Mrs. Carlson was in court seeking a temporary support order for herself and children, Stephen, 2, and Mark, 6 months, during pendency of her divorce suit. The suit charged her husband with cruelty.

Mrs. Carlson's attorney said Carlson struck her several times and had moved from their home Oct. 5.

* * *

Carlson's attorney admitted the charges but said Carlson punched her only after arguments over Mrs. Carlson's insistence of watching TV movie as late as 2 a.m. He said the TV volume kept Carlson from getting enough sleep as he had to arise at 6 a.m.

Carlson was willing to return home, his attorney said, if Mrs. Carlson would keep down the TV volume and maybe turn off the set at midnight.

Demand for black pepper among U.S. cooks and chefs pushed the imports of this popular spice to about 35½ million pounds in 1954.

Scout Snatches Mother From Fiery Trailer Home

OWOSSO (AP)—Bobby Harrington, 12, has completed only half the course in his Boy Scout first aid class.

But he displayed the poise of a veteran yesterday in rescuing his mother, Mrs. Mary Harrington, 46, from a fire in their traile home.

Mrs. Harrington was trapped against the wall when her bottle-gas cooking stove shot flames between her and the door.

Bobby grabbed a wrench, ran outside and turned off the gas tank. Then he opened his first aid kit and rubbed ointments on his mother's hands and legs.

She was given additional treatment at a hospital and released.

Hollywood Headlines:

Bob Hope Is Being Paged for 'Time Out for Ginger'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Those lunches Bob Hope's been having with Hal Wallis haven't been to discuss diets or for any reason other than to discuss "Time Out for Ginger."

Hal wants Bob to star in this comedy which Melvyn Douglas brought to the stage two years ago. Jack Benny just did it on TV.

Just before John Hodiak reported for "Threshold of Space," which called for some exciting scenes, he had a complete checkup and was pronounced okay by his doctor.

The day before his death he told Art Cohn that he never felt better. He had signed an agreement with Cohn to make a half-hour television series called "Storm Carlson," and had expressed himself as delighted because he would play a sports writer and each part of the series would highlight some big sports event.

I'd like to have one-half of 1 per cent of Liberace's film, "Sincerely Yours." It's corn, pure and unadulterated, but it's going to clean up.

Lee was so happy at the preview, flanked on one side by Mama and on the other by brother George, that he couldn't conceal his delight when the excited audience broke into applause again and again.

I'd like to say that Mr. Piano's warmth and charm really come across on the screen and, if I know my friend Jack L. Warner, this won't be the last Liberace picture.

Ralph Schoenstein, just back from military service in the East, and son of Paul Schoenstein, city editor of the New York Journal-American, has written an interesting play.

He and Hal Friedman, producer of TV's "Open House," have collaborated on a film story called "The Big Burner" which accounts for the mysterious Golden Gate explosion of Sept. 30, the blast that rocked 15 square miles of San Francisco.

Snaps: Don't pay any attention to that commentator who says that Wanda Hendrix and Jim Stack are having trouble. They're as happy as happy can be.

Don De Fore is taking a whole busload of pals to the football game between his alma mater, the University of Iowa, and UCLA tomorrow night.

Jimmy Cagney, come what may, goes to Europe in the spring with his wife and two children

Too mean to tell the girl's name, but Bob Wagner is dodging her, so he's moved into his dressing room on the Paramount lot complete with frying pan, coffee pot and toaster.

Good reports about Donald O'Connor from Italy. He's signing all autographs and eating his spaghetti like a good boy.

THE BERRYS

By Carl Grubert

Shades of Davy Crockett – He Kilt Himself a B'ar

DE TOUR (AP)—Robert C. Hedrick and his wife, Edna, are likely to take a rifle along next time they go hunting squirrels, grouse and rabbits on St. Vitals point.

* * *

They took only the customary shotguns Wednesday, and ended up bagging a bear which almost bagged them. They also got a first-rate case of fright.

Hedrick, 52, a retired postal employe from Columbus, Ohio, and his wife, 49, didn't wait to see whether they'd killed it. They went back later—with high-powered rifles—and found the 250-pound bear dead.

Mrs. Hedrick, walking through a tangled trail just off Lake Huron, saw two cubs cross it ahead of her. Then a snarling mother bear barged into the trail, advancing on Mrs. Hedrick.

BEAR KEPT COMING

The woman, having heard bears would retreat if scared by shouts, yelled "Get Out of Here." She stamped her foot, too. But the bear kept coming.

Mrs. Hedrick retreated up the trail around a clump of brush. The bear kept coming. Then she began to yell frantically for her husband. The bear was only four feet or so away when her husband yelled, "Don't Worry, I'm Coming."

With that, the bear whirled away from Mrs. Hedrick and lumbered toward her husband.

Answering his wife's screams, Hedrick replaced bird-shot loads in his double-barreled shotgun with two buckshot shells a De Tour neighbor had given him.

ONLY ONE SHOT

As the bear tore toward him from an angle, Hedrick fired. Knocked down, the bear then turned and lunged into the woods.

With only one buckshot load—which, often as not, doesn't kill a bear—Hedrick and his wife beat a hasty retreat to their car, parked a mile away on the extreme eastern tip of Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

They came to De Tour, got friends—and rifles—and went back. They found the bear dead, only 30 feet from where Hedrick had shot it. The buckshot had hit it in the left chest and had shattered its left foreleg. The Hedricks make their summer home at De Tour.

U.S. Deficit Is Down During 3rd Quarter

WASHINGTON (AP)—The federal deficit during July-September was nearly a billion dollars less than in the corresponding quarter last year.

This Treasury Department figures showed today, was because of increased tax collections that more than made up for spending totals also higher than those in the first quarter of the 1955 fiscal year.

The monthly Treasury budget statement for September turned up a $3,950,000,000 deficit in the first three months of fiscal 1956. This compared with a $4,888,000,000 deficit a year earlier.

Net receipts totaled $12,997,000,000 an increase of $1,307,000,000 over last year's corrsponding figure, and spending came to $16,947,000,000,369 millions more.

LAND CONTRACT INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY

6% land contracts on Flint area property. During the next three months, I will have available to investors over $200,000 worth of 6% land contracts on new, modern homes. The balance due on each contract is $6,240.00 payable at $63.00 per month. These homes have a bank mortgage appairsal value, established by a licensed appraiser, of $5,250.00. The cost of the contract to you is $4,996.00, $1249.00 (bonus to you) less than the contract balance, and $254.00 less than the appraised valuation.

When this contract is paid in full it will have earned $2,512.00 in interest. This amount, together with your bonus (or discount) of $1249.00 means that your original investment of $4,996 earned a total of $3,761.00—a nearly unbelievable increase in capital of about 75.3%—an overall return of $8,757.00. Where can this be equaled?

Any person or company buying one of these contracts will be furnished the following items:

1. A credit report from the Retailer's Credit Bureau on the person buying the home.
2. An up-to-date abstract of title showing clear title and tax history.
3. A warranty deed and assignment of contract.

We recommend that you have your attorney examine all papers.

If you have never purchased LAND CONTRACTS FOR INVESTMENTS before, we will gladly have an agent call to answer your questions and explain the value and simplicity in obtaining one or more of these sound contracts, at no obligation to you. Make an investigation; there will be no high pressure sales talk, only an explanation of the facts.

If you have bought contracts before you will recognize the fairness of the offer made here and will no doubt agree that as this Country, and especially the Flint area, continues to develop, land has become about the most sound investment. Injuries Hit 'Chiefs' Hopes Tonight

SUCCESSFUL NIMRODS — Here are four of the thousands of successful pheasant hunters who swarmed over Michigan's fields yesterday on opening day of the season. They include (2nd from right) Tom Coomer of Ortonville, who is the early leader in the Pontiac Press' "Big Pheasant Derby," (with a 3-pound-5-ounce bird. Others, from left, are: Martha Smith (for dad, Caleb Smith), 348 Seward, Pontiac; Homer Thrower, 114 East New York, Pontiac, and at right, Charles Edson, 117 East New York.

FIRST ENTRY—First entry in the Pontiac Press "Big Pheasant Derby" is shown above, Ed. J. Hockey reported at noon yesterday with a 2-pound 12-ounce rooster, that didn't last long as a leader.

At Least Eight Regulars Among Ailing Players

PHS Underdog Against Arthur Hill in Wisner Stadium Contest

Pontiac High's hopes for a victory tonight over the defending Saginaw Valley Conference football champions have been dealt a body blow.

Arthur Hill comes here for the game at 8 o'clock in Wisner Stadium.

* * *

While there was indication early in the week that several regular players might be on the sidelines for this game, there was no expectation that the list would grow to at least eight on the eve of the tilt.

But that is exactly what has happened. Even Coach Ed Graybiel fell victim to illness, and was kept to his bed yesterday. He expected to be on hand for tonight's encounter, however, aide Dean Wilson reported.

Injuries in the rough Flint Central game, and from Bay City, the previous week, plus illness, have decimated the Chief ranks. This has brought about a number of shifts in both offense and defensive units.

* * *

PHS has yet to win a Valley game in two times out. The Hills won their only SVC start. 'Jacks are at full strength for tonight's test.

* * *

Pontiac's "hospital" roster includes Freeman Watkins, out since the Bay City game; Dick Kors, big tackle, hurt at Flint; Ron McCabe, alternate halfback, bad ankle; Bill Kennedy, end, back injury; Martin Smith, tackle, illness; Don Hardy, center, injury, illness; Dick Neaves, tackle, illness; Jimmy Shorter, safety man, bad ankle.

For Pontiac—Ends, Frank Whitlock or Bob Baxter, and Marvin Cagle; tackles, John Massingale and Gary Thomas; guards, Bruce Baker and Jack Olsan; center, Gary Van Ryzin or Bob McCurry; backs, Art Poe (qb), Bob Casteel (lh), or Kenny Pusilier, Charley Spann (fb), Jimmy (Red) Taylor (rh). For the defensive unit the following will go: Cagle, Baxter, ends; Olson, Thomas, tackles; Ted Wiersema and Bob Holloway, guards; Arnold Larson, Charley Spann, linebackers; Bob McDonald, Jimmy Taylor, halfbacks; Lonnie Humphreys, safety.

Williams Edges Douglas in Hot Duel as Chiefs Win Harrier Championship

By H. GUY MOATS

A season-long series of 1st place ties in dual cross-country contests was snapped yesterday afternoon over the hilly Swartz Creek Golf course. Perry Williams, ace PHS miler, beat out teammate Bill Douglas, state half mile titlist in a great duel. And the Chief hill-and-dale runners romped off with the Saginaw Valley Conference championship.

Williams finished on top in the big field. He hit 10:24 (10 minutes, 24 seconds) for the two-mile, rugged race. Douglas was 2nd, with a 10:30 clocking, some 20 yards back, but well in front of Arthur Hill's Don Brown, 3rd finisher.

Chiefs compiled a 25 point total for the title. They have now won the event four times in succession.

Other team totals, in order—Arthur Hill 63, Flint Northern 72, Flint Central 113, Saginaw 119, Bay City 129.

Pontiac placed four more in the 1st 15. Gene Cretal was 4th, Rod Treais 5th, Don Evans 13th and Pete Cox 14th.

Jerry Tilley, Flint Central was 6th; Richard Fisher, Arthur Hill 7th; Abe Huerta, Saginaw, 8th; Bill Russell, Flint Central, 9th; Bert Stephens, Flint Northern, 10th; Bob Smith, Northern, 11th; Ken Ballien, Arthur Hill, 12th; Dave Walkowiak, Bay City, 15th.

Brown offered the biggest challenge to Pontiac's aces. The Arthur Hill runner spurted to within 20 yards of Williams and Douglas just after the start of the last mile. He faded, however, in the stretch, where Williams made a hot finish to beat Douglas, the 1954 champion. Treais and Cretal moved past a half dozen runners in the last quarter to finish 4th, 5th.

Pontiac's Jayvees didn't fare so well. They were 3rd, back of Northern and Arthur Hill in the junior varsity meet. Vikings had 28, Hills 40, PHS Jayvees 61, Central 123, Saginaw 153 and Bay City 231.

Fred Burgett of Northern was 1st, Hastings Martin (PHS) 2nd. Burgett's time, 11:17.

Coach Wally Schloerke was delighted with the title win. He said the team will run in the Albion College Invitational, Saturday. It was 2nd in 1954, to Kalamazoo, who later won the state title. Chiefs will run in the MHSAA regionals at Birmingham HS Oct. 29, then, if qualified, shoot for the state title at Washtenaw Country Club, Ypsilanti, on Nov. 5.

Pheasant 'Derby' Entries Coming in Thick and Fast

Pontiac Press' annual "big pheasant derby" got off to a fast start yesterday. The state fall season was only a few hours old when the 1st entry reported in. Later came others, and the race for the $50 U. S. Savings Bond for the heaviest bird bagged by an Oakland County hunter was well under way.

Seventeen-year-old Tom Coomer of 12268 Ray Rd., Ortonville held the early lead with a 3-pounds 5-ounces entry. The bird measured 34 inches from beak to end of tail feathers. It was brought down with one shot in a field off Baldwin Road on Pontiac's north side.

Among those having fully successful days, for the season's opener, were five in one Pontiac hunting party, in the Caro district. All downed their limits of two birds.

In the party were Walt Asher, former Golden Glover here, of Watkins Lake; Mrs. Ben Ebling, Dixie Highway; Sherman Lacey, Auburn avenue; and Allen Ritchie, Watkins Lake.

Asher says there were many birds, and all were very fat. Walt reports coloring exceptionally bright.

The 1st pheasant was weighed and measured at noon. It was bagged by Edward J. Hockey, 30, of 2380 Marwood St., Waterford. It scaled 2-pounds 12-ounces and was 33½ inches long. It was shot at 10:02 on Hockey's father's farm in Clarkston.

Youngest hunter was 13-year-old Dick Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks of 3122 Devondale, Avon Township. It was Dick's 1st bird and weighed 3-pounds and measured 30 inches.

Four others who reported were: Caleb Smith, 348 Seward, Pontiac, 3-pounds 4-ounces; Fred Parsons, 7016 Barkell, Pontiac, 3-pounds; Homer Thrower, 114 E. New York, Pontiac, 2-pounds 12-ounces; and Charles Edson, 117 E. New York, Pontiac, 2-pounds, 12-ounces.

Mike 'Quarter' Back in Lineup for Sunday Tilt

Bob Mineweaser Returns for St. James Contest; Rams at St. Clement

St. Michael's head football coach, Bob Mineweaser, who has been forced to field patched-up lineups nearly every weekend this season, will be able to use his 1st-string quarterback Sunday for the 1st time in four weeks.

Bob, Junior, his son, returns to the signal-calling post for Sunday afternoon's Suburban Catholic League encounter at Wisner Stadium with St. James of Ferndale. Mineweaser suffered a kidney injury during practice and has not seen quarterbacking duty since the 2nd game of the season against St. Frederick.

Mineweaser's reinstatement will permit Dan Dropps to return to his original position at left halfback. Chuck Brown, nursing a bone chip in his ankle is still on the disabled list. The rest of the squad is physically intact.

Shamrocks will be aiming for their 4th triumph of the season against a capable St. James team. They are seeking their 3rd SCL win with an eye toward 2nd place in the loop standings. The Ferndale 11 is tied with St. Clement for runner-up and matches the Mikes' overall record of 3-2. Game time is 3 p.m.

St. Frederick faces a formidable task Sunday afternoon in quest of its 1st football victory in 22 attempts. The Rams, under head mentor Gene Wright, tackle strong St. Clement at Center Line. The Rams find themselves in the familiar role of underdogs for the SCL tussle, which starts at 3 p.m.

Orchard Lake St. Mary resumes its bid for its 1st Suburban loop championship Saturday afternoon at Orchard Lake against the winless Irish from Royal Oak St. Mary. The undefeated Eaglets currently hold undisputed possession of 1st place. Tomorrow's starting time is 3 p.m.

St. Benedict of Highland Park battles St. Rita in an SCL game Sunday at Hazel Park at 2:30 p.m.

Since the Southeastern Conference was formed in 1933 Alabama is the only school to have three unbeaten and untied teams—1934, 1937 and 1945.

PCL to Decide Seals' Future by Vote Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pacific Coast League directors vote today on whether to donate the San Francisco Seals' franchise to Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians.

Greenberg said he was prepared to take over the financially battered club, debts and all, and put up $150,000 of his own money in operating capital for next season.

The former home run slugger declared that eventually he wanted to bring big league baseball to San Francisco. But his first two objectives, he said, were to revive interest in the game here and "get the city or county or somebody to put up a new stadium which would seat 45,000."

Lions Lost Poise in '54; Didn't Recover It in '55

DETROIT (AP)—Something vital—call it poise or the confidence of champions—was lost to the Detroit Lions after their ignominious 56-10 drubbing at the hands of the Cleveland Browns last year.

* * *

The game was the highpoint of the National Football League season and the favored Lions were ready to claim their 3rd straight NFL title.

But the Browns, fired up after losing to Detroit the week before, ran up and down the field for touchdowns all afternoon. When the contest was over the Lions were a thoroughly routed bunch of football players.

Coach Buddy Parker said the team never got over the pasting it absorbed that December afternoon.

* * *

Appearing on a television show here, Parker sought to explain the why's of Detroit's surprising 0-4 record in play this season.

"We had always been a poised club before that game (with Cleveland), he said. "But we haven't had the poise this season. In the past if we needed a touchdown in the last two minutes of the half or the last two minutes of the game we'd usually get it."

"We've had those same chances to score during the exhibition and regular seasons this year," Parker said, "but we haven't been doing it. We usually get to the 10 or 15 yard line, then stop."

Parker was at a loss to explain the slowdown when the Lions get within scoring range.

Yanks Mauled by Japanese Photographers

TOKYO (AP)—The New York Yankees may grow to hate cameras and photographers worse than the Brooklyn Dodgers, after their visit to Japan.

The Yanks, who arrived in Tokyo last night, were followed, hounded and mauled by what must have seemed like an army of news photographers, television cameramen and assorted amateurs.

* * *

The Yankees play a 16-game exhibition series against Japanese professional teams, starting tomorrow night against the Mainichi Orions at Tokyo's Korakuen Stadium.

Hartack Draws 10-Day Suspension From Track

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Jockey Willie Hartack has drawn a 10-day suspension that will eliminate him for a shot at three big stakes at Garden State Park, including the world's biggest, the $250,000 Garden State Handicap, Oct. 29.

The stewards at Garden State Park ordered the suspension yesterday for the nation's leading jockey. It is effective tomorrow through Oct. 31. He was set down for careless riding aboard Yellow Dot in the last race Wednesday.

EAST LANSING—Michigan State tackle Joe Carruthers, an outstanding lineman at Detroit Western high school, also won All-City baseball honors as a first baseman.

Santee Gallops to 4:05.2 Mile

Brightens U.S. Olympic Hopes by 6th Fastest Indoor Mile

NEW YORK (AP)—Wes Santee, he of the rubber legs and endless stamina, won't be any less effective in the 1956 Olympics because of his hitch in the Marine Corps.

In fact, it may help.

* * *

The gangling University of Kansas graduate certainly looked like money in the bank last night in the Olympic carnival in Madison Square Garden. He ran the mile in 4:05.2—second fastest ever in the Garden and sixth fastest indoor.

* * *

Before he starts his Olympic plans, though, Santee has two other important tasks. He will go after Gunnar Nielsen's world indoor record of 4:03.6 and try to run the 4-minute mile. If he keeps in his present condition, there seems little doubt that he'll break Nielsen's mark sometime during the indoor season. The 4-minute mile is something else.

* * *

The mile was the feature of the six-sport Olympic program and the crowd of 10,300 had to wait until almost midnight. After five laps, it was strictly a two-man race between Santee and his old sparring partner, Fred Dwyer.

The carnival marked the unofficial kickoff of the 1956 Olympic fund-raising campaign. Saturday has been proclaimed Olympic Day by President Eisenhower and that will signify the official start of the drive.

'Hunters' Can't Decide What's the Best Game

DETROIT (AP)— The opening of Michigan's small game hunting season yesterday brought varying reports of what sportsmen thought was game.

Hunters, shooting at overhead cables, knocked out long distance telephone service between Saginaw and Bad Axe. A charge of buckshot in television station WKAR-TV's audio cable near its transmitter ouside Okemos, knocked out the service for three hours.

In Macomb County, Earl L. Dover, 35, fined $100 for bringing down a doe with three shotgun blasts explained: "I thought it was a rabbit."

CHAMP — Willie Hartack piled it on at Atlantic City to run away with the year's riding championship.

Young Love Calls!

Parents Think Missing Gridder, Coed, Eloped

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP)—Why did promising young football player Bob Cravens and his coed sweetheart disappear from the University of Kentucky last week?

* * *

Cravens' father, R. Y. Cravens, said last night he believed his son and Jane Ayer, 17, ran away, possibly out West, to be married.

He said the couple, both freshmen at the university, had been going together for a year and that they may have feared their parents would not consent to their marriage.

"We don't disapprove now, certainly," the elder Cravens said. Their ages are the only reason we would have disapproved. We just want them back."

* * *

Cravens, 19, and the girl were last seen on the Lexington campus Oct. 12. Wednesday night, after becoming concerned over their prolonged absence, Cravens' father asked state police to issue an alarm.

The alarm was sent to all Kentucky points and to all stations west of the state. Cravens has relatives at Tucson, Ariz.

The elder Cravens said his son had been making "average" grades at school and seemed to be pleased with his football work.

Cravens, regarded as a bright prospect on the football squad, took All-State honors and was voted the outstanding player in a recent North-South All-Star game.

Buddy Young's Little Brother MSU Freshman

Tiny Gridder Trying for Frosh Team; Wins Coach's Praise

EAST LANSING (AP)—There's a little fellow working out with the big bruisers on the Michigan State freshman football team who is only 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighs just 141 pounds.

He looks like a high school boy who got mixed up with the college players by mistake.

But the coaches have great hopes for him because the little fellow, Henny Young, is the younger brother of the great Buddy Young, formerly of Illinois and now with the pro Baltimore Colts.

Henny, who has been living with a cousin in Detroit, came to Michigan State because of Lou Agase, now a fine coach for the Spartans. Lou and Buddy Young were teammates and Buddy recommended that his brother go where Lou was coaching.

Henny only played basketball at Chicago's Carver High but picked up some football experience in the service.

Freshman coach Don Mason thinks Henny can make the team as a skat-back despite his size and weight.

"He has tremendous speed and great determination," Mason said. "He's one of the most willing workers on the team."

Football Back at Chicago U.

Students Start Sport Again for First Time Since 1939

CHICAGO (AP)—They've taken the football equipment out of mothballs at the University of Chicago and issued it to would-be players for the first time since 1939.

Nearly 50 students are working out in Stagg Field, in uniforms and pads and other gear that has been saved since the University dropped football 16 years ago.

The students, under the direction of Kyle Anderson, assistant director of physical education, are in a football class and will compete in intramural football. They petitioned for the class. They want to play because they think it is fun.

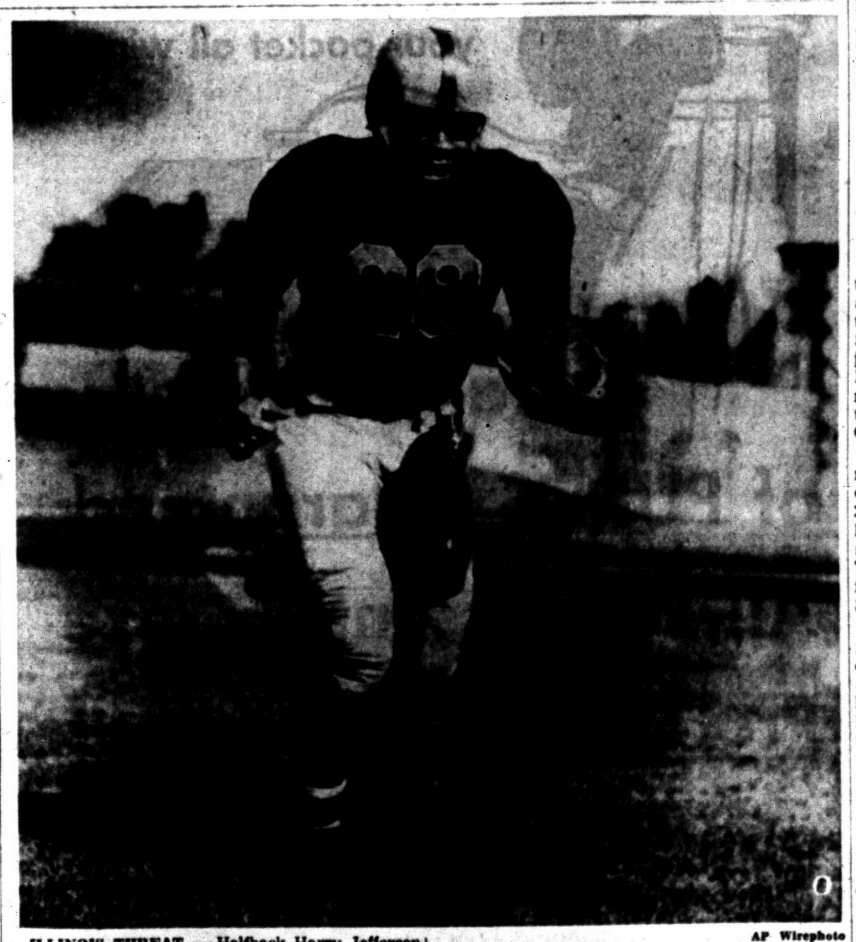

The squad consists of some who have played in high school, some who played on sandlots and many who are complete strangers to the game.

The enthusiasts range in size from 128-pound Paul Eager, who once attended Texas A&M, to a 240-pound teen-ager, Pete Madden.

Coach Phil Watson of the New York Rangers predicts that Lorne Worsley will be the best goalie in the National Hockey League this season.

I-L Tilt Pits Southfield, Van Dyke in Feature of 21-Game Area Program

The 1955 area prep football card has passed the midway point and heads into the home stretch this afternoon and tonight. There are 21 contests scheduled in this, the 5th week of action.

* * *

First place in the Inter-Lakes League will be at stake when Southfield faces Van Dyke at home at 8 p.m. Both squads are presently tied for 1st place with 3-0 marks in league play. Waterford Skippers entertain Berkley in an afternoon contest. In the 3rd I-L match, Farmington plays at Walled Lake under the lights.

In independent action, Bloomfield Hills goes to Harper Woods. Romeo challenges Oxford at home. Lapeer tackles Gene Konley's Rochester squad while Oak Park hosts a South Lyon contingent.

Holly is a possible spoiler to Clarenceville's bid for the Wayne-Oakland League title. Clarkston clashes with 4th place Northville at home. Milford hopes for win number one in loop play when it encounters Brighton. West Bloomfield is idle.

Four Oakland-B contests feature Troy at Clawson, Avondale at Lake Orion, Fitzgerald at Roseville and Detroit Thurston at Madison in an inter-sectional battle.

* * *

Other games are: North Branch at Ortonville, 3 p.m.; Bay City's St. Stanislaus at Millington; Memphis at Imlay City; Warren at Center Line; Eastland at Utica.

Pastime Clare Shows Old Form at Jackson

JACKSON (AP) — Pastime Clare, one of the better pacers of a few seasons ago, showed some of her old-time form last night in winning the featured 8th race at Jackson Raceway.

With Bob Stansell in the sulky, she returned $32.60, $9.40 and $5.60 across the board. Mystic Grattan finished 2nd and Ted Armstrong 3rd.

First Time for Pafko

The Braves' veteran outfielder, Andy Pafko, was thumbed out of a game this season, the first time in his 13-years of playing in the majors.

Lord Steward 1st in Greyhound Trot

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Lord Steward won the $15,000 Greyhound Trot at Brandywine Raceway last night, withstanding a late challenge by a 30 to 1 shot, John Worthy.

The 8-year-old bay gelding took the lead at the halfway mark from Stenographer, then relinquished the lead briefly to John Worthy before going in front for good with a burst of speed.

Stenographer finished second, three quarters of a length back, with Maximilian third. The winner's purse was $7,500, bringing his lifetime earnings to $275,000. His time was 2:03 2-5.

Lord Steward paid $4.60, $2.80 and $2.80.

Three Big 10 Leaders Hope to Extend League Winning Streaks but at Least One Will Fail

CHICAGO (AP)— The Big Ten's three football leaders try to extend conference winning streaks tomorrow but at least one of them is bound to have its hopes jarred.

The main game sends Ohio State to Wisconsin. Both are unbeaten in league play with the Badgers trying for their 3rd success and the Buckeyes for their 2nd. A loss by either or a tie could put a crimp in title ambitions.

Michigan the nation's No. 1 team, warily goes to Minnesota for the tradition-packed Little Brown Jug rivalry. Wolverines hope to stretch their league mark to three victories and their all-game record to five. Gophers have lost to Purdue and Illinois and have only one victory for the campaign over Northwestern.

In other Big Ten tests Illinois (1-1 in conference action) is at Michigan State (1-1) and Indiana (0-2) is homecoming foe for Northwestern (0-2).

Purdue and passer Len Dawson host Notre Dame's Fighting Irish, who were smashed 21-7 by Michigan State last week and who succumbed to Dawson's four touchdown tosses a year ago.

Wisconsin coach Ivy Williamson has never beaten Ohio State whose break-away All-America Howard (Hopalong) Cassady has rallied the Buckeyes for victories in the last three years. His 88-yard scoring runback of an intercepted pass touched off a 31-14 rout of Wisconsin last season.

Cassady apparently is rounding back into form after a siege of minor injuries this week.

Wisconsin will have Jim Miller back in harness to alternate with Jim Haluska at quarterback.

Both teams lost to outside foes last week, the Buckeyes bowing to unbeaten Duke 20-14 and the Badgers dropping a 33-21 decision to Southern California on the coast.

250 'Midgets' Play in Annual Grid Show

Ninth annual Midget Football All-Star Night, co-sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, Parks and Recreation Department, and Board of Education, will be held Saturday under the Wisner Stadium lights.

Starting at 7 p.m., an estimated 250 elementary and junior high 7th grade boys will wage two and a half hours of continuous action. Six games are scheduled as a fitting climax to six weeks of training by Pontiac High School instructors in football's basic fundamentals.

Eight 5th and 6th grade teams representing a dozen schools will play four contests on 45-yard fields. The first half of two games will be played simultaneously, then one-half of the remaining two games will be held in the same manner. Rotation continues until all four contests are completed.

Four Junior High squads, composed of 7th graders and representative of five schools, are slated to play two games at the conclusion of the Elementary program. The rotating system will also be used, but the older youngsters will employ the full 100-yard gridiron.

Approximately 150 boys will compete in the 5th and 6th grade games. Elementary schools participating tomorrow night are McConnell, Wilson, Webster, Malkim, Crofoot, Keego Harbor, Walled Lake, St. Michael, St. Frederick, Whitfield, Bagley, and Wisner.

Junior High schools taking part are Lincoln, Wever, Eastern, Washington, and Jefferson. One hundred 7th grade youths are expected to play.

Elementary boys will play seven-minute quarters of uninterrupted time, while the Junior High teams are scheduled for periods of eight non-stop minutes.

Football equipment for Midget Night will be issued Saturday morning at Wisner Stadium during the concluding training session. All boys who have participated in the Saturday morning program will play tomorrow night.

Officials for the Midget games are Charles Deschaine, Ralph Allen, James Fink, and Thomas James.

Tickets for Midget Night can be purchased at all Pontiac schools and from any member of the Pontiac Jaycees. Jaycees are handling all ticket sales and concessions at the stadium.

Fifty per cent of the proceeds goes to the Parks and Recreation Department for future benefit of Midget football. The other half is earmarked for the Junior Chamber of Commerce Special Youth Fund.

Pontiac Bow Hunters Fill Quota on Northern Foray

Three years of hunting with a bow and arrow has finally paid off for Mr. and Mrs. Omer Vaught of 346 North Cass.

The couple, both employed by GMC, returned home last weekend with a prize catch of a one-spike buck and one doe. The 105 pound buck was bagged by Mrs. Vaught using a bow with a pull of 48-pounds. The doe, weighing 140 pounds, was Omer Vaught's prize. Omer used a 58-pound bow. Both were taken at Roscommon with the doe falling Saturday while Mrs. Vaught was successful Sunday morning, with one arrow.

Vaught's are members of the GMC Archery League and the Michigan Bow Hunter's Association. They have participated in deer hunting with bow and arrow since 1953. That year both were unsuccessful. Last year Mrs. Vaught, a typist for GMC, brought home her deer.

GET THEIR DEER — After three years of bow hunting for deer, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Vaught, Pontiac, finally collected last weekend. Above they are shown with the spikehorn and doe, bagged at Roscommon.

Big Sale in Advance

Australia has sold more than $1 million worth of tickets for the 1956 Olympic games which are still more than a year distant.

Schack Aids Tech Team

Charles Schack of Pontiac, who played his high school football at Waterford, participated in two touchdown drives from the guard post as Michigan Tech routed Northern Michigan last week, 46-12. The Upper Peninsula school meets Northland College Saturday at Houghton. Tech holds a 3-1 record.

Horse Races Top Cars

Horse races in the U. S. draw about 50 million fans each year, while automobile speed races of various classes draw a total of 40 million.

Grand Slam Home Runs

Three players have hit two grand slam homers in a single game: Tony Lazerri of the Yankees in 1936; Jim Tabor of the Red Sox in 1939; Rudy York of the Tigers in 1946.

Center Line Ace Boosts Record as Top Passer

CENTER LINE (AP)—Quarterback Larry Bielat, whose passing won him a berth on the Associated Press' Class B All-State team last year, isn't content to rest on his laurels.

In fact, the lanky senior passing ace is bettering his pace of last year when he completed 81 of 150 passes for 1,273 yards, 15 touchdowns and 11 extra points.

So far this season, the 6 foot 1, 185-pound aerial artist, performing before the eyes of scouts from at least a dozen Midwest colleges, has heaved 85 tosses, completing 60 for a remarkable .706 average.

In guiding Center Line to five straight victories, including three in defense of its Bi-County League title, Bielat has thrown 12 touchdown passes.

Badgers Seek to Stop OSU's Winning Roll

Ivy Seeks 1st Victory Over Buckeyes After 1 Tie, 5 Defeats

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Wisconsin University's football coach, Ivy Williamson, has settled one of two old scores outstanding when the season began and will have the chance to even up the second tomorrow against Ohio State.

He wanted to beat Iowa in the worst way this year to make up for last year's 13-7 loss and he did, in spades by a score of 37-14.

Now he would like nothing better than to remove a thorn in his side put there by Ohio State.

Ivy has one of the finest coaching records in the Big 10, yet all he has to show for six meetings with the Buckeyes is 6-6 tie in 1951. The Bucks shut him out in the first year, 1949, 21-0, and followed that up with victories in 1950 (19-14), 1952 (23-14), 1953 (20-19) and 1954 (31-14).

His record of 40 wins, 15 losses and 4 ties averages out to .714. The inability to beat Ohio State is the one flaw in the otherwise impressive picture.

The oddsmakers think he'll produce Wisconsin's first victory over Ohio State since 1946. They've installed the Badgers as one touchdown favorites.

Neither team will be at its offensive peak for the Camp Randall Stadium meeting expected to attract 53,000 fans.

Questionable starters include the Bucks' right halfback Jerry Harkrader and the Badgers' end Jim Reinke, tackle Jerry Cvengros and guard Paul Shwaiko.

Wisconsin's air arm probably will be the deciding factor.

DUMPING THE BALL — When you force the delivery from the top of the backswing, trying for added speed, it loses its groove, as the sketch shows. The upper line illustrates the changed course of the ball. It is driven downward, into the alley. You dump it, release it sharply, without follow-through, because your footwork comes to an abrupt halt, and you are too erect at the foul line.

The lower line is the more pleasant, free swinging, relaxed action that results when the ball is allowed to drop downward from the peak of the backswing of its own weight. The weight takes the body downward gracefully, comfortably, and the momentum of the swinging ball carries you forward to a finishing slide. You'll reach out in releasing the ball exactly where you aim to. Remember: Swing is the thing.

College Grid Reaches Critical Stage

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

College football heads into the second half of its 1955 schedule this weekend, and most conference championships and the big New Year's Day bowl games are far from settled. But the men are being separated from the boys, and a lot of light is beginning to filter through the shadows.

* * *

One of the major games tomorrow involving conference rivals brings together Oklahoma, perennial champs of the Big Seven, and Colorado, both undefeated. Oklahoma is favored, although if there is any Big Seven team with a chance to beat them out of an Orange Bowl assignment it's Colorado.

Maryland, which is expected to represent the Atlantic Coast Conference in the Orange Bowl, will have a scrap on its hands against once-beaten Syracuse in another big battle of the day.

* * *

Michigan, the nation's No. 1 team just ahead of Maryland, has its eyes on the Rose Bowl. However, the Wolverines have a bit of business this week with Minnesota in the Big Ten Conference scramble.

Wisconsin, tied at the top of the Big Ten heap with Michigan, must knock off Ohio State Saturday to remain in the running.

Clemson got the weekend rolling yesterday with a 28-14 Atlantic Coast Conference decision over South Carolina. The victory, decided in the first period when Clemson's Joe Pagliei scored twice, put the Tigers in a first place tie with Maryland with a 2-0 record.

* * *

There are five big games on tonight, and one will be watched with interest, although it has no bearing on conference or bowl bids. UCLA, a favorite for the Pacific Coast Conference title and the Rose Bowl job if it can get past Washington later, goes outside the brotherhood to meet Iowa of the Big Ten.

Washington, a winner over Southern California, takes on Stanford tomorrow and should win without too much difficulty.

Auburn, winner over Georgia Tech and with the Southeastern Conference and Sugar Bowl peeking over a far-off horizon, picks on a patsy—Furman.

* * *

The Southwest Conference championship may not be settled for another few Saturdays, with Baylor Texas A&M and Southern Methodist still in the running. However, Baylor meets Texas A&M tomorrow, and the winner may wind up a favorite for the title, and a Cotton Bowl date Jan. 2.

In the other four top attractions tonight, Texas Christian plays Miami, Denver goes against Brigham Young, unbeaten Boston College meets Marquette and Oklahoma A&M tackles Detroit.

READY TO JUMP — Here are four of the top steeplechase riders who will be in the $50,000 Temple Gwathmey Handicap, richest race of its kind, at Belmont Park, today. They are, left to right, Frank Dooley Adams, Albert Foot, Flint Schulhofer and Pat Smithwick. Adams rides Neji. Foot is on Shipboard. Carafar is Schulhofer's mount. Smithwick has leg up on Rythminhim.

11 Classy Jumpers Ready for Rich Gwathmey Test

NEW YORK (AP)—Eleven jumpers have a date with the starter today in the $50,000-added Temple Gwathmey Steeplechase at Belmont Park, and a French 8-year-old gelding could be the Cinderella horse of the lot.

Two American veterans, Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Neji and Mrs. Marion duPont Scott's Shipboard, head the weights in the 2½-mile affair over 16 fences. Neji has 167 pounds, while Shipboard carries one less.

The Frenchman is Templier, who used to have a terrific record racing on the flat and over hurdles across the seas. In April a year ago, Templier was one of a dozen horses brought to the United States by a syndicate. He cost Laddie Sanford $11,500, but showed very little.

So Templier went on the auction block at Belmont Park, and sold for $600 to be sent to Puerto Rico. Mickey Walsh, the trainer, stepped in and offered the buyer $800 for Templier, and the jumper stayed in the U.S., racing in the colors of Mrs. Walsh.

About four weeks ago, Templier won a hurdle claiming race at Belmont, and last Saturday he won a 'chase at the Rose Tree Hunts, Media, Pa. He was entered in the Temple Gwathmey, and has only a feathery 130 pounds. Horsemen say if he runs back to his French form with that kind of weight, he could prove very dangerous. John Cotter will ride.

Dramatic Pages of Novel Lie Behind Name of Promising Boxer Goldstein

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The announcer will merely say that the main event at Hollywood Legion Stadium tomorrow night will be between Dick Goldstein of Los Angeles and Ramon Tiscareno of Juarez, Mex., a pair of promising young welterweight boxers.

* * *

But behind the name of Goldstein is a story worthy of a novel, its pages filled with the terror of war and the horror of prisons and concentration camps in Russia and Germany.

* * *

The sunlight and peace of prewar Warsaw, in his native Poland, then the blight and suffering at Kiev, Stalingrad and finally months of imprisonment in the symbol of all chambers of mass torture and death, Germany's Buchenwald prison—these are vivid chapters in the life of Dick Goldstein.

Dick is 25. He attends Santa Monica City College and is fighting his way to becoming a dentist. He has a most engaging personality and a marvelous sense of humor. How he developed the latter is a tribute to the young man himself.

Dick was a lad of 9, the son of a gentle school teacher, when the Russians invaded Poland.

"We saw the airplanes high in the sky. They looked pretty. Then the bombs began to drop," he relates in the simplest of fashions.

Two years later the Goldstein family, mother, father, Dickie and his brother, were herded to Kiev for slave labor.

When the Nazis invaded Kiev, Dick was taken back to East Germany.

He never saw his parents again. The brother, like Dick, escaped death.

Goldstein finally reached America. He enlisted in the Marine Corps and served in Korea in an intelligence unit, thanks to his ability to speak eight languages, including Russian.

"Make it seven and a half. I only speak English half good," he cracked.

"Tomorrow night is my first big chance. I hope to win. Most of all, I hope I do not disappoint my friends," he concluded.

SOCKO!—Bob Davenport is the big smasher in UCLA's single-wing attack.

Sooner's Top Ranked Team Boasts Powerful Reserves

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—When it comes to pluck and hustle, Oklahoma's elite Sooner eleven is being shoved into the back seat—by the second stringers.

Bud Wilkinson for years has stressed speed and depth in guiding his Sooner squads to seven straight Big Seven championships and the dizziest heights of college football.

* * *

This year is no different. Wilkinson's shock troops are an eager bunch of sophomores and juniors who are performing like veterans.

Even the hedging Sooner coach admits the well-primed alternate team is largely responsible for Oklahoma's prolonged victory march and No. 3 rating in the nation.

* * *

The alternate team is composed of five sophomores, five juniors and a single senior.

Here's what the subs have accomplished to date:

Held North Carolina to a standstill while the regulars regrouped for a last-half assault; ran and passed for 183 yards against Pitt and scored one touchdown; put down two Texas drives; ran wild for three touchdowns against Kansas.

As one Big Seven wit observed, "Bud Wilkinson has two of the best teams in the conference."

Casey Uses Personnel

Manager Cassey Stengel of the Yankees used more players this year than he had used in five previous World Series. He used 21 different men in the first four games. In 1951 he used 21 Yankees.

Bruins, Iowa Meet Tonight in Coast Game

UCLA Could Enhance National Prestige by Downing Hawkeyes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Bruins of UCLA and Iowa collide in a Coast Conference-Big 10 football game tonight, with UCLA favored to topple the visitors and possibly enhance their national prestige.

Kickoff time in Memorial Coliseum, with upwards of 60,000 fans expected to sit in, is set for 8:30 p.m. (PST).

Iowa is still a Rose Bowl candidate from the Midwest despite a loss to Wisconsin and last week's tie with Purdue. Hawkeye followers who live out here discount their team's chances tonight, pointing out that the team has a very important engagement next week with Michigan.

* * *

UCLA, loser only to Maryland and given a score last Saturday by Stanford, is still the top choice to represent the Coast in the big bowl game New Year's Day.

Both squads have injury problems among their line forces. Iowa's fine tackle, 215-pound Rodger Swedberg, and the Bruins' best lineback, Steve Palmer, are not due to play at all.

The backfield talent is apparently intact.

* * *

UCLA will rely on the triple threats of halfback Sam Brown and fullback Bob Davenport in the running department and rookie Ronnie Knox passing the ball.

The Hawkeyes' passing threat is Jerry Reichow and the ball carrying ability of Earl Smith and Eddie Vincent is widely recognized. Coach Forest Evashevski indicated, however, he might lead off with Eldean Matheson or Don Dobrine at Smith's left halfback spot.

For those who love matches between linemen the game offers an excellent one between two All-America candidates, Calvin Jones of Iowa and Hardiman Cureton of the Bruins, a pair of big, agile guards.

Wings Tie Hawks 2-2

DETROIT (AP)—It took a fine individual play by Capt. Ted Lindsay in the final period to pull the Detroit Red Wings to a 2-2 tie with the Chicago Black Hawks last night.

The Wings were heading for sure defeat by the young and spirited Chicago team when Lindsay took a pass from Bob Goldham, out-maneuvered two Hawk defensemen and blazed in a 15-footer at 4:06 of the period.

It was Lindsay's 5th goal of the season and the 269th of his career—one short of the 270 posted by Aurel Joliat, highest scoring left wing in National League history.

Chicago built up a 2-0 lead on goals by Ted Sullivan and Harry Watson.

Sullivan fired a 20-footer which took an erratic skip over Detroit goalie Glenn Hall's stick at 13:59 of the opening period. Watson, working his 15th NHL campaign, added the 2nd Chicago goal at 11:30 of the 2nd frame.

Bill Dineen spoiled Chicago goalie Al Rollins' hopes of a shutout rifling in a 15-foot shot at 17:45 of the 2nd period. It was Dineen's 1st goal of the season.

Chicago, out to repeat the defeat it gave the Wings in a league opener here two weeks ago, was outshot, 28-17 by Detroit.

Last year Detroit whipped Chicago 12 out of 14 games. In the last five seasons the Wings have taken 56 out of 70 games they have played with the Hawks.

The deadlock failed to boost Detroit's 5th place position in the NHL standings although a gain was made on league-leading Montreal. The Canadiens lost their 1st game of the season, 3-2, to Boston.

Detroit meets the Boston Bruins here Saturday night.

Wolverines Take Injured on Jaunt to Gopher Lair

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The top-ranked Michigan Wolverines brought their injured with them today as they landed here to defend their Little Brown Jug and Big Ten title chances against Minnesota.

On top of all their injury problems, Michigan scouts have warned them of a hulking Minnesota fullback, Dick Borstad, who leads the Big Ten in rushing.

"You might say as Borstad goes, so goes Minnesota," asst. coach Bob Hollway said. Hollway saw Minnesota trim Northwestern 18-7 and bow to Illinois 21-13.

The Gophers gave Purdue a battle before falling 7-6 and lost to Washington in their opener, 30-0.

Nevertheless, they still have two backs in the top 10 rushing leaders in the conference. Borstad tops the list with 185 yards for a 5.4 yard average. Right half Bobby Schultz is eighth with 127 yards for a 12.7 average.

"They're mostly a running team," Hollway said. "They build their offense around Borstad and he can deliver."

Besides, the Gophers are in top physical shape for their regionally televised battle tomorrow. (CBS—2:30 p.m. EST), WJBK Channel 2.

Maples, 'Rocks Shoot for Same Goals Tonight

Birmingham, E. Detroit Teams Seek 1st League Crown in Showdown Tilt

EASTERN MICHIGAN LEAGUE STANDINGS

	W	L		W	L
Birmingham	3	0	Port Huron	1	1
East Detroit	2	0	Hazel Park	0	2
Ferndale	1	1	Mt. Clemens	0	3

TONIGHT'S GAMES

Birmingham at East Detroit; Port Huron at Ferndale; Hazel Park at Mt. Clemens.

Football teams from Birmingham and East Detroit high schools will discover they both have plenty in common when they clash in tonight's Eastern Michigan League showdown game on the East Detroit field at 8 p.m.

The Maples and Shamrocks will have three identical objectives in mind. They can be listed as follows:

1—Both schools want to preserve flawless 5-0 records.

2—They are seeking the Eastern Michigan League championship. An East Detroit victory would virtually wrap up the crown, while a Birmingham win almost assures it of at least a tie for loop honors. Port Huron would still confront the Maples.

3—Both teams are shooting for their 1st EML title. Neither school owns a league diadem although both have come close. The Maples' strongest bid was in 1951 when they were runners-up to Port Huron.

Using their only mutual foe, Hazel Park, as a basis for comparison, tonight's tilt must be considered a tossup. Both downed the Vikings by 3-touchdown margins, the Maples winning by a 33-13 count and the Shamrocks by an 18-0 shutout.

East Detroit, which boasted a perfect defense mark until its goal line was dented for the 1st time by Port Huron last week, is rated 4th in this week's Associated Press poll of Michigan's top 10 Class A high school teams. Birmingham is ranked 9th.

George Munger, slated to return to the major leagues with the Pittsburgh Pirates next season, pitched his 1st victory in the majors in 1943 with the St. Louis Cardinals.

HANGING ON — Baylor's Del Shofner swings around end as Washington's Earl Monlux latches on and hopes for a short ride.

Daugherty Says 'Illinois Game Crucial'

EAST LANSING (AP)—"This game with Illinois Saturday figures as our crucial one," said Michigan State football coach Duffy Daugherty.

"We've got to win this one," Daugherty said, "if we expect to remain in the running in the Western Conference race this season.

"And it'll be a tough one, too," he predicted.

With the Illinois game, Michigan State hits the mid-season mark. It's the 1st of four consecutive conference games, to be followed by Wisconsin, Purdue and Minnesota.

The shadow of Notre Dame also stretches from last Saturday until tomorrow. There's the question of whether Michigan State can stay at the high peak the Spartans hit when they upset the Irish 21-7.

The word is that Illinois coach Ray Eliot is coming in "loaded for bear!"

It must still smart because Michigan State was picked over the Illini to go to the Rose Bowl two years ago.

A team that boasts the 2nd best total offense and the 4th best rushing offense is bound to be a rough one.

* * *

The last word from Champaign, too, was that Illinois will be at a physical peak for the homecoming game in Macklin Stadium.

* * *

Fullback Ray Nitschke has returned to the lineup after a two week layoff to supply the power for one of the favorite Illini plays—fullback straight up the middle.

* * *

End Rod Hanson, sidelined earlier this week by a knee injury, also has recovered in time to make the trip.

Michigan State, meanwhile, will be weakened by its 1st serious injury of the season.

Left half Clarence Peaks, leading Spartan ground-gainer, definitely will not be a starter. His twisted ankle is still weak and Peaks probably will get in only for a few spot plays that call for special ball-handling.

In addition to being the number one MSU rushing threat, Peaks also can pass and is a specialist in the quick-kick and its many variations.

Jerry Musetti, senior from Detroit, will start at left half and Dennis Mendyk, junior from Saginaw, will be behind him.

The 38-man Illinois squad was due in late this afternoon for a brief workout in the stadium, already sold out for the game.

Canadiens Lose 1st Contest of Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The mighty Montreal Canadiens aren't invincible after all. They finally tumbled to their first National Hockey League defeat of the season last night.

It was a 3-2 setback engineered by the Boston Bruins with Don McKenney slapping in the deciding goal at 18:28 of a blistering third period. Montreal had won four and tied one.

In the only other game scheduled, the Detroit Red Wings had to scamper to tie the Chicago Black Hawks 2-2.

Money-Making Nashua

Nashua, destined to become the year's 3-year-old champion, averaged $63,609 per race in his 1st 11 starts this year. He won nine of the races, finished 2nd in the Kentucky Derby and 3rd against older horses in the Sysonby.

National Horse Show is listed for New York's Madison Square Garden, Nov. 1-8.

David P. Fleming Dies at Age of 74

The former president of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League succumbed Wednesday in a hospital after a short illness. The Angels are a farm club of the Chicago Cubs, both owned by P. K. Wrigley and his father, the late William Wrigley.

Johnny Blanks Yankees

Dodger World Series hero Johnny Podres pitched shutout ball during his last 11 innings against the Yankees. They scored three runs against him in 18 innings but only two were earned.

Eleven of 13 completed Tulane forward passes went into the hands of Green Wave halfbacks in the 1st three games this season.

TD in Last 2 Minutes Gives PHS Gridders a 19-14 Victory

A touchdown pass covering 65 yards in the last two minutes of play gave Pontiac High School Junior Varsity football team a thrilling 19-14 victory over Arthur Hill's JV's Thursday afternoon at Saginaw. It was the 6th straight win for the Little Chiefs.

Dick Whitmer connected with John Phlegm in the fading moments of the 4th quarter to chalk up the triumph. Whitmer's aerial sailed 40 yards with Phlegm making the catch and galloping the remaining 25.

Arthur Hill scored 1st in the nip-and-tuck, see-saw affair, marching 40 yards in the 1st quarter. Herb Hines smashed over.

Pontiac JV's, coached by Ed Heikkinen and Tony Pizza, came back to score twice in the 2nd period for a 13-7 halftime lead. Jim Hawkins rammed over from the seven for the 1st TD, climaxing a 60 yard drive.

Nick Shorter set up the 2nd touchdown for the Little Chiefs by intercepting a pass on the Pontiac 35 and racing to the Arthur Hill four. Hawkins swept left end for the TD and Shorter converted.

Herb Hines returned a Pontiac punt 65 yards for a touchdown, then plunged for the extra point to hand Arthur Hill a 14-13 advantage. That set the stage for Pontiac's late winning rally.

Not-Yet-Built Hall Chalks Convention Dates to 1962

DETROIT (AP) — Twenty-five major conventions have been booked for the still to be built Convention Hall and Exhibit Building, the Detroit Convention and Tourist Bureau has announced.

Delegates to the conventions, scheduled for 1959 to 1962, will spend from 12 million to 15 million dollars, said the bureau's executive vice president, H. E. Boning Jr.

At least 58 other convention requests have been refused because the building will not be completed in time, he added.

Construction of the $24,200,000 building is scheduled to begin in March and to be completed in January, 1959. It is planned as a showpiece of the $76,000,000 Civic Center.

Strawberries picked from the garden are popular Christmas fare in Bermuda.

Wild Truck Hurts 3, Smashes 10 Autos

KITTANNING, Pa. (AP)—Truck-driver Charles Defrain — plucky, lucky and scared — stayed with his runaway rig as it careened down a steep hill, smashing 10 autos and injuring three persons before crashing to a halt.

The brakes on the steel-laden truck gave way about one third of the way down Route 422 yesterday. The 42-year-old Williamsport, Pa., driver told police later:

"All I did was push on the brake, blow the horn and pray."

Making a nearly 90-degree turn at the foot of the hill, the speeding truck sideswiped 10 autos before it stopped on a main street of this western Pennsylvania town. Leaking gasoline ignited, but firemen quickly put out the blaze in the truck and the last car it hit.

Soviet Arms Confab Has West Puzzled

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Puzzled Western delegates hoped to find out today what prompted Russia's urgent call for a U.N. Disarmament Commission huddle on the eve of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference.

American circles expressed open curiosity as to what was in the wind as Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. and representatives of the 11 other commission members prepared to meet.

A U.S. spokesman said Russia's request came as a surprise since it had been generally agreed to hold off any disarmament debate in the U.N. until the foreign ministers had a chance to thresh out the issue at their meeting beginning Oct. 27 in Geneva.

Michigan Consolidated recently sold $13,020,000 worth of common stock to its parent firm, American Natural Gas Co., and plans to sell another $1,008,000 of common to the same source in November

Reds Aim Broadcast at Emigrant Poles

VIENNA (AP)—Communist Poland has founded an organization to spread propaganda among Poles living aboard, Radio Warsaw indicates.

A broadcast monitored in Vienna last night said the new outfit named "Polonia" has the task of "keeping contact with Poles living in foreign countries and of aiding emigrants wishing to return to Poland."

The deputy president of the Polish Communist Parliament, Stanislaw Kulczynski, was made chairman of "Polonia." Hugon Hanke, who headed the Polish exile government in London and who returned to Poland recently, was named third deputy chairman, Radio Warsaw said.

Appeal Is Withdrawn

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Stanley B. Edgerton, 29, once under investigation in the slaying of 8-year-old Jeannie Singleton, Thursday withdrew his appeal of a conviction on a charge of accosting a young girl. Edgerton was found guilty of the charge Sept. 12 after a trial. The complaining witness testified he accosted her at about the same time and place that the Singleton girl was abducted. Jeannie was kidnaped near her home here, attacked and slain May 23. Her body was found a week later near Doster, 15 miles north.

Metal Society Presenting Medal to A. L. Boegehold

The American Society for Metals will award its 1955 Gold Medal to Alfred L. Boegehold, assistant to the vice president in charge of General Motors Research staff, at the society's annual dinner tonight at Philadelphia, Pa.

The award is "in recognition of his great versatility in applying science to the metal industry."

Boegehold's contributions encompass many phases of metallurgical engineering, ranging from improving the properties of metal through changes in composition and internal grain structure to the development of new foundry and metal processing techniques.

Boegehold resides at 3742 Erie Dr. He was named to his present position in 1952.

Boegehold joined the GM research staff in 1920, and five years later was named head of Metallurgical Engineering Department. Election as American Society for Metals president came in 1947, and he has held other offices in the group.

By devising a test which correlates a particular steel's strength with the degree to which it is hardened under a standard quenching treatment, he established an entirely new concept for specifying steels.

This new system permitted metallurgists to substitute low alloy steels for steels containing relatively large amounts of strategic materials, which was invaluable during World War II.

More Americans Reported in Russia

CAMP FRIEDLAND, Germany (AP) — German repatriates from Russia told today of meeting three more Americans in Soviet prison camps.

Maria Jakisch, a civilian internee, said she met an American woman in the Taished camp area in central Asia who gave her name as Mrs. Mary Silberman-Noah.

Konrad Schlegel, another civilian internee, said he was in a Russian prison in East Berlin in 1952 with an American soldier, Willam Dieterson, from North Carolina. He said Dieterson told him he was picked up by the Russians while on a drinking spree.

U. S. Army officials in Berlin suggested "Dieterson" may be Pvt. William J. Peterson, of Beaufort, N.C., listed as absent without leave.

Paul Biedermann, a former Wehrmacht intelligence officer, reported he met an American newsman in Taished in 1950-51 but said he could not recall his name.

Suing Stanley Barred From Legal Actions

LONDON (AP) — Stanley A. Barrett can't sue anybody any more unless he gets court permission.

In the past three years he brought 14 unsuccessful actions against various government officials in efforts to get a war pension. Finally the government, contending his suits were "frivolous and vexatious," turned around and sued him. They asked a court order preventing him from suing the government.

The three-judge high court granted the request, and also extended the order to ban all suits by Barrett without specific permission.

Director to Be Named

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A member of a candidate interviewing committee has told the City Commission that a new city planning director will be selected "probably next week" from a field of 12 candidates. Scott Bagby, who resigned the planning post in Grand Rapids, will remain as consultant to the new planner for three months, according to a recent agreement.

Boy Succumbs to Polio

NEWBERRY (AP) — A 12-year-old boy, Kennth Clark of McMillan in the Upper Peninsula, died of polio Monday. He was the first fatality from the disease this year in the Chippewa-Luce-Mackinac County area.

South Returning 'Solid' for '56

Governors See Little Third Party Activity; Maybe Ikeless GOP

POINT CLEAR, Ala. (AP)—The once "Solid South" may regain some of its solidarity in the 1956 election, if the Southern governors conference is an indication.

Chief executives of the 16 Southern and border states making up the governors conference were largely in apparent agreement—at this precampaign stage—on two things:

* * *

1. That there were few signs presently of a third party movement. The main dissenter to that belief was Gov. George Bell Timmerman Jr. of South Carolina. He said he believes a third party movement is "a strong possibility."

* * *

2. That the Republicans, without President Eisenhower as a candidate, would have little chance of carrying a Southern State.

* * *

Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina supported the Thurmond-Wright States Rights Ticket in 1948. Four others—Florida, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia—went Republican in 1952.

* * *

Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin, of Maryland, one of two Republican governors in the conference, stated his party would have a hard time without a candidate of "Eisenhower's philosophy."

Local Guardsmen Presented Awards

Several members of the local National Guard unit, Co. M, 125 Infantry Regiment, were honored recently for awards and promotion.

* * *

First Lt. Robert G. Carland was awarded the 10 year Armed Forces Reserve award and the six year Broadsword Service Medal awards were presented to M.Sgt. Keith G. Kerton, Sgt. Kenneth E. Francisco, and Cpls. Robert T. Herr Jr. and Robert P. Riggins.

* * *

From the 107th Ordnance Co. (DS), Sgt.1.C. Frank M. Hamlin has been assigned to the Adjutant General school, Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

Police said the accident occurred at Whittemore Street and Center Street when Mrs. Sumner failed to yield the right of way.

Check Two New Leads in Slaying of Three Boys

CHICAGO (AP) — Police today checked two new leads in the strangulation murders of three young boys.

Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman said a lie test would be given to a 47-year-old unemployed laborer who told of sleeping Monday night, along with his deaf mute brother, in the wooded area where the victims' bodies were found Tuesday in the slaying of Robert Peterson, 14, John Schuessler, 13, and his brother Anton Jr., 11.

Lohman said both brothers denied knowing anything about the The union sought at 21-cent pack- any bodies either Monday night or when they left the woods Tuesday morning.

Checker Will Build a Smaller Taxicab

KALAMAZOO (AP) — A smaller taxicab, suitable for conversion into a private passenger car, will go into production at the Checker Cab Manufacturing Co. in December.

Announcing this today, the company said its new model is designed to meet a growing trend to smaller cabs noted in New York and Chicago, its principal markets.

The new Checker Cab will have a 120-inch wheelbase and overall length of 200 inches. It will be powered by a 6-cylinder Continental engine.

The company said the cab can be converted to general use by changing its vinyl upholstery to cloth and removing the traditional green and checker design from the exterior paint.

The cars will sell for $1,805 f.o.b. Kalamazoo with standard gear shift, and $2,206 with automatic transmission, power brakes and steering.

Official Cautious About Tax Cut

Treasury Aide Says Reduction to Come Only With Reserve in Sight

DETROIT (AP)—Undersecretary of the Treasury H. Chapman Rose said today administration policy is to seek a tax cut when the money to pay for it is "clearly in sight"—and not before.

In a speech prepared for a national tax confeernce and Detroit Board of Commerce luncheon, Rose summed up what he said Secretary Humphrey had expressed to newsmen following Humphrey's meeting with President Eisenhower last Saturday.

Rose said Humphrey's statement "in effect" was that "we hope to balance the budget" by next June 30 through savings in spending and bigger-than-expected revenues. The estimated federal deficit for the year ending June 30, as of last August, was $1,700,000,000.

"We are opposed to a tax cut until we can see where we will get the money to finance it," Rose said in summing up Humphrey's position.

"When that time comes, we shall support a tax cut. But until that time comes, it is idle to speculate on the form that it might take, because you cannot intelligently consider how most equitably to

Renews Probe of Cavern River

Frenchman Exploring Underground Stream in Pyrenees

WASHINGTON — Once again the lights of speleogists shine among the terrifying wonders of the underground river of Labouiche in southern France.

Heading the latest expedition along the often-explored river is Norbert Casteret, no stranger to the cavern. The French cave expert is well known in the United States through his books and his illustrated articles in the National Geographic Magazine.

Labouiche flows near Foix inside the Pyrenees. Lengthy, illuminated stretches of its ages-worn course are now traveled by boatloads of tourists. But the river has defied full exploration since its discovery nearly 50 years ago.

Spectacular Labouiche is one of many notable underground rivers. Some have been traversed for several miles. Explorations nearly always are hindered and sometimes stopped by submerged roofs. Like ordniary rivers, these waters under the earth have tributaries, floods and periods of low water. Occasionally waterfalls break the black surrounding silence.

60-MILE RIVER

The underground rivers of Timavo, Recca and Pinka in Italy are among those party navigable. In France the Padirac and Betharram draw visitors. M. Casteret calla the 60-mile-long Trebinjcica in southwest Yugoslavia the greatest underground river in the world.

Seasonal variations affect the rivers' rate of flow. Some have large outputs. Several risings in America give 4,000 gallons a second. The Fontaine de Vaucluse in France ranges between 2,000 and 35,000 gallons, perhaps a record volume. Other large risings in France are La Touvre near Angouleme, Fontaine-l'Eveque in Var, and La Sorgue d'Aveyron in Aveyron.

Many subterranean rivers endangered their early explorers. One party entered Labouiche in five boats, progressing into narrow waters under a low ceiling. A boat capsized in a 13-foot depth. Its occupants swam about in blackness and barely escaped. Another boat struck a sharp rock and sank. The others pushed on but were ultimately turned back.

Later M. Casteret advanced by cutting his way into dry galleries where the river had flowed before dropping, as underground streams sometimes do, to lower channels. To reach these abandoned streambeds he chiseled through rock while lying on his stomach.

RUMBLE EXPLAINED

Other hardships plagued his way. Often he had to stoop or crawl. He trudged through clinging mud. Once his boat overturned, and he flailed about in the inky cavern. Again, an alarming rumble echoed from the rocky roof, as from the outdoor world far overhead. It was the noise from a train passing over the cave on its way from Foix to Saint Girons. Then the "stately silence" returned.

What is so alluring about this stately silence and the savage charm of this underground world? M. Casteret has answered:

"Where, indeed, can we experience such varied sensations; look upon such strange sights, live through moments so thrilling, so full of poetry; where can the joys of inward satisfaction be so keenly felt as among the surprises and the perils that await us when we go down into the recesses hidden down below the surface of the earth?"

Cruelty of Cockerel Scramble Discussed

LONDON—Everyone in the village of Oddington, in the Cotswold district of England, was talking recently about the Case of the Canceled Cockerel Scramble.

But nobody was sure whether a cockerel scramble is cruel or not. When a cockerel is "scrambled" competitors form a circle.

The bird is let loose and the one who catches and holds it wins it as a prize. E. Hunt, who led those protesting, said: "It is an event which involves cruelty.

"It would no doubt have served to inspire the children to acts of cruelty." But the rector, Rev. L. Potter, said: "There would have been no cruelty."

Aspirin Warning Asked

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The government is asking drug manufacturers to label aspirin and aspirin compounds with warnings that they should be kept from children's reach, John A. Kedzior, inspector for the Federal Food and Drug Administration, said the agency is asking that labels bear proper warnings within six months. Many poisonings have occurred when children swallowed large quantities of aspirin.

Crash Injuries Fatal

DECKERVILLE (AP) — Theresa Carty, 29, of Marysville died in a hospital Wednesday of injuries suffered in a traffic crash Sunday night near Forrestville. She was riding with Stuart Cunningham Jr., 24, of St. Clair when the car left M25 and struck an embankment. Cunningham also was injured.

Detroit Bank Offers to Buy Legion Hall

ROCHESTER — The National Bank of Detroit has offered $100,000 to the American Legion Homer Wing Post No. 172, for its hall on West Fifth at Walnut.

A meeting will be held Dec. 2 to make the decision whether to sell. The American Legion Building Committee, headed by Wilson Severance, plan to investigate the situation.

If building and grounds were to be sold, possession could not be given before June, 1956 as two rooms are now being used for high school classes, Legion officials stated.

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—The Zoning Board of Appeals last night gave Providence Hospital the green light to go ahead with plans for an $8,000,000 hospital on Nine Mile road, just west of Greenfield road.

Detailed plans for the hospital will be completed late next year and construction will begin soon afterward, according to Sister Mary Elizabeth, hospital administrator.

The 350-bed hospital eventually will replace present Providence facilities in Detroit.

Airborne Canine Is Well Traveled Combat Veteran

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Major Fritz leads a dog's life — except when he's flying.

* * *

Major Fritz is a German shepherd dog and mascot for the 146th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron of the 112th Fighter-Interceptor Wing, Pennsylvania Air National Guard.

He's been shot at in the air during a tour of duty in Korea, he's had to make two emergency parachute jumps from transport aircraft and once made a cross-country flight outside a plane by riding in a specially constructed under-the-wing fuel tank.

He's probably the world's fastest dog, too, because his present owner, Lt. Lynn A. McKinney, a pilot with the 146th, flies a Republic bomb-carrying jet fighter-bomber that holds the transcontinental speed record of 652 miles an hour.

* * *

Before going into the service the dog acquired a taste for flying when his former owner, an airlines pilot, took him along on trans-oceanic flights.

Claims Traffic Violator Would Shock Namesake

DETROIT (AP) — "The father of our country would be mortified," a traffic judge told George Washington after fining him $50 for reckless driving.

* * *

Police had told Washington to move his car after a minor traffic collision. He asked for a push, saying his battery was dead.

"I gave him a push to get him started but he kept on going," said Patrolman Gilbert Truax. "It took me three blocks to catch him."

Milford Suing Alleged Zoning Law Violators

MILFORD — Milford Township has filed suit in Oakland County Circuit Court against two township men it claims are violating a zoning regulation.

Named as defendants are William H. Combs, who owns the building in question, and Corbin Iversole, who occupies it. The township claims the house was erected without a sanitary septic tank in violation of an ordinance passed Feb. 23, 1954.

A permanent injunction against use of the building as a dwelling is asked. No hearing date has been set.

Berle, Gleason Feud Over Job

Miltie Claims That He Could Have Had It, but Jackie Disagrees

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — The TV-tempest in two egos—Jackie Gleason's and Milton Berle's—is being fought at a safe enough distance—some 3,500 miles.

* * *

Jackie is fuming in his duplex Manhattan penthouse; Berle issuing belligerent broadsides poolside from his Hollywood estate.

The crux of the fuss is over Gleason's job. Jackie has it.

Berle was quoted in Hollywood as saying he could have had it. Jackie says "He could like hell!"

Both boys were wracking their brains for "toppers" in this battle of the comedians—slapsticks at 3,500 miles.

"I thought Berle only stole jokes, but I guess now he's going in for stealing glory, too," Gleason roared Westward.

* * *

Berle said "Out of friendship for Gleason," he had not mentioned the matter before. He did not say why he mentioned it now.

"What friendship?" Gleason demanded.

BOB HOPE TOO

One of Berle's management said he would not go into further detail about Uncle Miltie's prior claim, but added: "You will find out, if you ask Bob Hope, that Bob also was offered the same job before Jackie."

* * *

A trip through news files brings to light an INS story last Feb. 2, from Hollywood, when Hope announced he would take a year's "holiday from television."

Hope's decision—since rescinded—to rest this season came to light when an advertising executive revealed Hope had turned down "a fabulous amount for a General Motors series."

This latter situation now tosses Hope into the tizzy in an amused, detached, but "no comment" position.

* * *

The Gleason-Berle feud is not new. Several years ago in Doctors Hospital, Gleason analyzed for me what he claimed was Berle's "addiction for other people's material."

UNCLE GUILTY

"He's not Uncle Miltie to me—he's Uncle Guilty," Gleason exploded.

In reply, Berle analyzed Gleason's TV characters. "Some nerve" Berle blasted, "even if it were true, it would be the pot calling the kettle black.

"Why, his 'Honeymooners' is nothing but 'The Bickersons' in a cheap-looking kitchen and a bus driver's job. Or if you want to go back, 'Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Drew' did the same abusive comedy in early vaudeville.

"His 'Poor Soul' is just Ham Hamilton and Harry Langdon, and 'The Actor' is John Barrymore's legend crossed with W. C. Field's.

"'The Bartender' is any standup comic monologue pushed behind a bar. Uncle Guilty, eh? Well, he's another."

First public airing of Berle versus Gleason occurred in an East Side night club, La Vie en Rose, several years ago. Jackie conducted a 50-piece concert orchestra, in earnest—no jokes, gags or material—just Gleason in his orchestral mood.

At the finish of this instrumental concert, Gleason bowed and accepted the polite applause. Berle stood up, shook hands with Jackie and, in a voice loud enough for all in La Vie to hear, said:

"Jackie — you were never funnier."

Joyful Russian Seamen Find Asylum in America

SEATTLE (AP)—Almost boyishly exuberant and showing their joy without restraint, nine young Russian seamen found asylum in this country last night.

The refugees, who flew here from Formosa, were admitted to the United States by Atty. Gen. Brownell despite protests from the Russian government. The nine were among 20 in the crew of the Soviet tanker Tuapse who asked political asylum in Formosa after the ship was captured by the Nationalist Chinese last year.

* * *

Brownell ordered their admission under provision of the immigration law which permits him to exercise such discretionary power for otherwise inadmissible aliens.

Their landing at the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport was accompanied with the customary official bustle, checking through customs and arranging to board a waiting plane which took them n to New York. But time was found for a brief word with news representatives.

* * *

Through an interpreter they expressed the unanimous view that they sought asylum in America because of its reputation for freedom and opportunity.

Still apprehensive, though, one tall and lean seaman asked:

"Can I change my name in America?" and then he asked that his Russian name not be used.

Another said he did not like "politics in Russia" but a third said:

"We have very little feeling one way or another toward the Soviet government. We discuss politics very little."

Croteau Honored Guest at Teachers' Meeting

Sees Only Few in AMA Opposed to Osteopathy

DETROIT (AP)—A spokesman for the American Osteopathic Assn. says only a segment of the American Medical Assn. is resisting closer working agreements with osteopaths.

Dr. David D. Darland, director of public and professional welfare of the AOA, told a luncheon meeting of the annual conference of the American College of Osteopathic Internists yesterday co-operation between the two groups is becoming "a matter of necessity."

"The AMA has its tongue in its cheek in this whole affair," Dr. Darland declared. "It is the last death struggle of some ancient prejudices."

State Amvets to Meet

MARQUETTE (AP)—The Michigan Amvets will hold their first annual fall conference here this weekend. The group will discuss a legislative program and a stand on the Michigan Veterans Trust Fund and Veterans Facility.

CD to Remove Supplies From Top Target Areas

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Federal Civil Defense Administration said today it is removing stockpiles of emergency engineering equipment from critical target areas by Oct. 31.

John L. Sullivan, the FCDA administrator for Region 2, said orders came from the agency's national headquarters but he declined to elaborate. The FCDA stockpiles such items as pipe, water purifiers and portable generators for use in the event of any enemy attack. The equipment also is used during major disasters.

78 Policemen Promoted

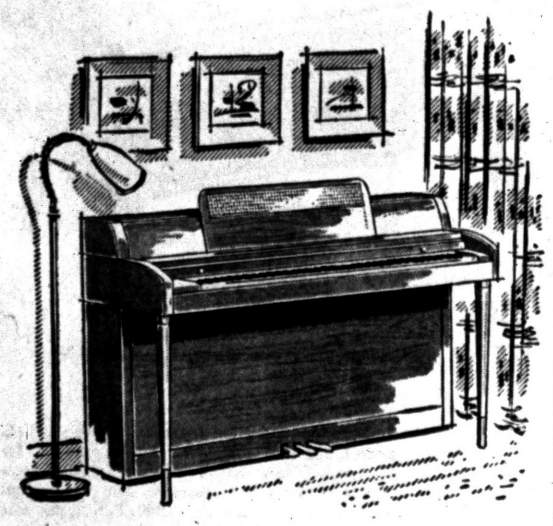

DETROIT (AP)—In one of the largest mass promotions in the history of the department, 78 Detroit policemen were promoted Thursday by Edward S. Piggins, police commissioner. Nine inspectors were transferred. Piggins said the transfers were in line with normal practice and reflected no shakeup in the Department.
