1979-80 OUTLOOK

A new era in Oakland University wrestling begins this season as Jack Gebauer takes over the coaching reins after a very successful record at Waterford Kettering High School.

Three outstanding seniors will form the nucleus of this year's squad. They are: 126-pounder Phil Lieblang (East Detroit/East Detroit), 134-pound Mike Eble (Utica/Eisenhower) and 177-pounder Tim Chapel (Parma/Western). Lieblang and Chapel advanced to the NCAA Division II National Championships last season. Lieblang placed fifth in the NCAA championships and became OU's first all-American wrestler, compiling a 15-5 mark, while Chapel injured his knee in a first round NCAA match.

Gebauer is counting on some new recruits to solidify his lineup to improve last year's 6-1 dual match record and second-place finish in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) tournament.
