Says Satellites Restless Under Red Bloc

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the Russian-Chinese Communist bloc is plagued by increasing dissension and "a growing demand for freedom" among some of the satellites.

"The world of coercion has its problems," the secretary said in a speech before a luncheon meeting of the National Press Club.

"Dissensions within its ranks, national resistance to this modern imperialism, and a growing demand for freedom are among them."

Rusk said the Communist bloc "has learned that economic aid does not buy puppets, that intimidation awakens its own resistance, that the United Nations is tougher than they thought, and that those who set out to 'possess the minds of man' have set themselves against the course of history."

The "underlying crisis of our generation," the secretary declared, stems from the fact that Russia "did not join the United Nations in fact, as well as in form, and lend itself to the commitments they and the rest of us made in the midst of a great war."

ATTEMPTS TO EXPAND

He said the crisis has "shown itself in many forms — from the cynical disregard of the pledges on liberated areas, made at Yalta, to the latest threats to West Berlin. The calendar of conflict between these two dates is filled with unceasing attempts to expand an empire—some successful but many repelled by those determined to be free."

President Kennedy, the secretary said, is working unceasingly to rally and strengthen the "free world's capabilities up to the needs of the variety of dangers which have to be confronted."

Rusk, in a 2,500-word speech before answering questions, sketched the magnitude of the East-West conflict in broad terms.

On specific points, he said:

—"The central issue of the crisis is the announced (Soviet) determination to impose a world of coercion upon those not already subjected to it."

—"The political, economic and military strengthening of the Western community is an urgent matter to which the administration is giving full attention." Kennedy is fully aware that "the western world must recapture the leadership of its own revolution of political freedom."

—Kennedy also wants the United States and other economically advanced "free nations to reassert our leadership of the revolution of economic and social progress" to counter the "tempting bait" being offered by the Communists to those "who are determined to shake off their misery and want."

He also said that Kennedy, during the first months of his administration, "has established direct contact with the leadership of many nations in order to give us as quickly as possible an accurate understanding of their interest and views . . . he has been able to lay the basis for the greater unity of our several alliances and the greater effort which will be required to deal with the continuing crisis."

U.S. Takes Hard Look at Defenses

Russia Parades Big Helicopters, New Jet Planes

Western Experts Insist Nikita's Fighter Cannot Be Matched by U.S.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union showed off its air might Sunday in a dazzling display that struck Western diplomats as a gesture designed to strengthen Kremlin demand on Berlin.

Premier Khrushchev and Cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin watched side by side along with a crowd of 50,000 while the Soviet air force paraded a spectacular array of new craft at Moscow's Tushino Airfield.

Western experts watching the show — first the Soviets have staged since 1958 — said the United States has nothing to match several of the entries, including a jet fighter that can light up a liquid rocket engine booster in flight to gain a tremendous rate of climb.

The most spectacular attraction shown publicly for the first time was a delta wing bomber the announcer said had a speed several times that of sound.

WITH FOUR JETS

The plane looked bigger than the eight-engine U.S. B52 and had four jets, two on the wing tips and two inboard below the wings.

Western air attaches showed keen interest in a flypast of 16 heavy supersonic bombers which also made their first public appearance. This new model's two engines were mounted on the rear atop the long, slender fuselage.

It had high swept wings and was comparable in size to the U.S. B58, whose publicly admitted speed is 1,500 miles per hour.

"A very impressive show," said the U.S. air attache, Col. Melvin Neilsen. "It's evident the Russians have continued with the development of all classes of aircraft."

Western observers said the show made clear the Soviets are not pinning all their faith on long-range missiles alone.

CARRIED MISSILES

The fighters carried air-to-air rockets instead of conventional cannon. The new bombers were

PATTY DUKE: "Do I really like acting? I love it!"

No Juvenile Delinquent!

Child Actress, 14, Is 'So Busy'

By PATTY DUKE
Written for AP

Do I really like acting?

This is a question I am often asked.

I love it!

Even after playing young Helen Keller about 600 times in the Broadway play, "The Miracle Worker," then doing it again for the movie, I love acting more than ever.

Sure there are times, once in a great while, when I think it might be nice not to have to go to the theater or show up on the set — but then some days I feel that way about school and other things too.

I guess the sooner in life you learn not to run away from the things you are expected to do, no matter what they are, the better off you'll be.

ACTING IS WORK

Acting to me is a combination of many things. It's mostly work, of course, but very pleasant work. It's laughs, too, and surprises, many very exciting surprises.

But most important, which a lot of people don't realize, it's disappointments, and in show business they come in the large economy size. You have to learn how to take it.

When I first started acting, it was one disappointment after another. No one would hire me because of my poor speech.

John Ross, my manager and coach, continually worked with me on it, and then, one day it happened. I got a small part — it lasted about a minute — in the TV production of "The Prince and the Pauper" playing a little English girl (of all things) in a scene with the boy king.

It was then I felt that I might really belong some day. But the bigger you get the bigger the disappointments. You think you're set to do a movie, then you suddenly find out you're too short or too tall or too skinny or too something, and it doesn't work out.

I've learned that it's these same disappointments that make you strong enough to go on, because

Dies as His Car Falls Over Bank

Maurice Huffman, 56, May Have Been Victim of Heart Attack

A 56-year-old Pontiac man, alone in his car when it shot over an embankment at the end of Commission Drive at the Oakland County Service Center Sunday afternoon, was pronounced dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

Whether Maurice F. Huffman of 30 Salmer Court succumbed to crash injuries or suffered a fatal heart attack just before the accident remained undetermined today.

Autopsy results were incomplete.

Pontiac state police reported that there were no visible injuries when they removed Huffman from the wreckage.

They estimated his car was traveling about 50 miles an hour when it went over the embankment at the end of the drive.

He apparently made no effort to turn the car onto Pontiac Lake Road, troopers said. The car crashed into a field and rolled over.

The accident was discovered by a passing motorist who notified state police at the nearby post.

Oakland County Asst. Coroner Dr. Robert W. Albrecht ordered the autopsy.

Tuesday Outlook: Partly Cloudy 89

Fair and warmer is the weather forecast for tonight with a low of 60 expected. Tuesday will be partly cloudy and warm with a high of 89.

For the next five days temperatures will average near or slightly below the normal high of 84 and normal low of 63.

Precipitation will average one-to three-tenths of an inch, occurring as showers or thundershowers late Tuesday and Wednesday.

Morning southwesterly winds at 2 miles per hour will remain southwesterly through tonight and Tuesday.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac was 58. At 2 p.m. the temperature reading was 83.

Sets Course Record in British Golf Open

BIRKDALE, England (AP) — Bob Charles, a 25-year-old New Zealander, broke the Birkdale course record with a 6-under-par 66 while favored Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., carried a creditable 71 in the first qualifying round of the British Open Golf Championship today.

Palmer was hampered by a lashing rain and a tiff with a movie cameraman but finished with a 1-under-par 34-37—71 for the par 36-36—72, 6,844-yard layout.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, a two-time winner of the British Amateur and now a pro, also had a 71 on 38-33 for the Birkdale course.

Kel Nagle, the defending champion from Australia who beat Palmer by a stroke a year ago, shot a 37-36—73 for Birkdale.

McNamara Notes Need Following Soviet Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, noting that the Soviet Union intends to increase military spending, announced today the United States is taking another look at its defense program.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev announced in Moscow last week that the Soviet Union has suspended plans to cut Soviet armed forces by more than one million men in view of the world situation.

McNamara said that "the simplest precaution calls for still another examination of our defense posture." He added: "Currently we are as strong — if not stronger — than any potential aggressor.

"But in the fact of the inescapable realities that confront us, such as threats to dispossess us of our rightful presence in Berlin, we can do no less than re-examine our needs. This we are doing."

McNamara's statement gave no indication of what new steps the Kennedy administration might take to bolster defenses.

Shortly before McNamara's announcement, Roswell L. Gilpatric, deputy secretary of defense, had informed a Senate appropriations subcommittee that President Kennedy had called for a new appraisal of U.S. fighting power in the light of the Berlin crisis.

SITUATION GRAVE

Ever since the Berlin crisis began heating up again a month ago, there has been speculation that Kennedy might order some form of mobilization to alert the American people to the gravity of the situation and to warn Khrushchev that the United States intends to back up its firm stand against being ousted from West Berlin.

Over the weekend, the House Foreign Affairs Committee made public testimony from Gen. Lauris Norstad, commander of allied forces in Europe, that he feels the time has come for a quiet building up of strength "that would go a long way toward passing the Berlin ball back to Mr. Khrushchev."

Gilpatric said that Sunday's display of Soviet airpower in Moscow was another factor behind the President's order.

The deputy secretary declared emphatically that the United States has adequate fighting power to meet its needs through the 1960s on the basis of what is known now.

Gilpatric said the Soviet air show in Moscow merely con-

NATO Is Ready to Add Forces

Officials Are Virtually Agreed Upon Action if Russ Sign Reich Pact

PARIS (UPI) — NATO officials said today they have reached "virtual agreement" on a plan to increase the number of NATO's front-line divisions in Western Europe from 22 to 30 if Russia touches off a full-scale Berlin crisis.

Such an increase would implement a blueprint known as MC70 which hitherto had been treated as little more than a theoretical goal for Western European defenses.

The officials said agreement to put the plan into practice if the Soviet Union signs a peace treaty with Communist East Germany — thus imperiling Western access to West Berlin — has been given by "practically all members" of the alliance.

The issue was thrashed out, they said, during discussions among high NATO officials during the past several weeks at NATO headquarters here.

The talks included a number of formal and informal meetings of NATO's permanent council, some under Supreme NATO Commander Gen. Lauris Norstad.

The agreement was expected to be completed at subsequent NATO meeting probably at the next meeting of NATO ministers to be held in Paris in December.

NATO's forces in Western Europe today are composed largely of U.S. and West German divisions facing 22 Soviet divisions equipped with the most modern weapons on the other side of the iron curtain.

PARRIES QUESTIONS—Mildred Gillars, Axis Sally of World War II, dodges a newsman's question as she hurries from the U.S. Women's Reformatory in Alderson, W.Va., after serving 11 years on a treason conviction.

Axis Sally Ends Stay in Prison

ALDERSON, W. Va. (AP) — Mildred Gillars, the Axis Sally of World War II, strode out of prison today with the flourish of an actress. She had spent 11 years in the federal reformatory for women here on a treason conviction.

Her face showed every one of her 60 years. But she was nattily dressed and she gestured and ranged through changes of facial expression as if the reformatory gate were stage center.

She had always wanted to be a dramatic actress. It showed.

Miss Gillars was the starring voice of Nazi propaganda broadcasts aimed at American troops overseas and American workers at home to try to discourage their efforts.

She was indicted in 1948 and convicted in March 1949 after a three-month trial. She was sentenced to 10 to 30 years. Her release today was on parole.

Born at Portland, Maine, she tried the stage in the 20s, but did not make it as an actress. In 1929 she sailed to North Africa and Europe, settling in Berlin in 1934. But she remained an American citizen.

She denied vehemently during her trial that she wanted to hurt America—she said she loved it. But, she said, she fell in love with the late Max Otto Koischwitz, a naturalized American who had returned to Germany.

KEEPS CROWD WAITING

She said it was for Koischwitz, a one-time Hunter College (N. Y.) professor, that she went to work for Berlin radio and played the propaganda role for which she became known as Axis Sally.

Today she kept the score of reporters and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nieminen of Ashtabula, Ohio, waiting a half hour before being driven to the main gate by Lt. Helen English.

And she prolonged the suspense for a long minute or two—in view of the waiting assemblage—while she talked and gestured with Miss English in a car.

Finally Mrs. Nieminen broke through the half-moon of newsmen and threw open the car door. Miss Gillars hugged her sister in a vigorous embrace.

The three then hurried through the newsmen to the waiting Nieminen car.

RAPIDLY RISING—This is Michigan State University Oakland's $2-million science-engineering building — currently under construction. The T-shaped structure will be partly completed and ready for occupancy by the time students return for September classes. It contains two lecture halls, 17 laboratories, 14 large classrooms, seminar rooms and library research space. The picture was taken from the roof of the Kresge Library, another of the new buildings which will grace the campus this fall.

Queer Sky Ball Baffles Local Spotters, Police

A bright moving object discovered by two fishermen at 3 a.m. today had Waterford Township police and Oakland County deputies racing to a small lake off Clintonville Road.

The object was reported to hover tree-top high and to move both horizontally and vertically. It was described as a huge ball with prongs, which turned from white to gold to orange then white again.

Duane Hart of 4264 Clintonville Road and Michael Pietizak of 2475 Mann Road first reported the sighting.

Report 237 Dead, Missing From Burning Transport

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

LOURENCO MARQUES, Mozambique — The Portuguese Maritime Ministry announced today 237 persons are dead or missing and presumed dead from the grounded and burning Portuguese ship Save. Most were African Negro passengers.

The 2,037-ton transport was swept onto a sandbar in a storm Saturday in the Mozambique Channel, off Southeast Africa, and a series of explosions ripped the hull and engulfed her in flames.

The ministry said there were 490 persons aboard the ship, including a 44-man crew, and that 253 were saved, some of them suffering injuries.

Estimates of the total aboard previously had ranged above 500. Some of the passengers were troops, others were mine laborers.

The disaster struck near the Lindo River estuary of Northern Mozambique.

The reports said bodies of some of the victims were washed ashore in shark-infested waters. Apparently they were drowned while trying to swim to shore against an ebbing tide.

Survivors reached a remote, inaccessible beach cut off by swamps. Planes from the nearest big town of Quelimane flew in some medical help and ferried out some of the more badly injured.

DOCTOR LANDS

Many of the survivors were reported badly injured. A light plane landed on the beach Sunday afternoon with a doctor to treat the most seriously injured survivors.

Eyewitnesses who flew over the stricken vessel Sunday afternoon reported it was burning from stem to stern and that there was a large hole in one side. Black smoke belched from the ship and could be seen 50 miles away.

The Portugese news agency ANI earlier reported that all on board had been saved.

Mozambique is largely under military control and Portugal has been pouring troops into the country to prevent a nationalist uprising like that raging in the sister colony of Angola.

The transport ran into a storm off the mouth of the Linde River, 10 miles south of Quelimane on the coast of Mozambique. High winds and heavy seas blew the ship onto a sandbar within sight of the beach.

BLAST TRIGGERS FIRE

Radio messages received in Beira, port in Central Mozambique 450 miles northeast of Lorenco Marques, said an explosion in the forward hold touched off a fire.

The flames raged out of control and a series of explosions—apparently among munitions aboard—followed.

A tug raced from Beira but could not get across the sandbar to reach the burning ship.

Difficult communications and censorship controls imposed by Portugese authorities delayed word of the disaster getting out. Rule in Mozambique is largely in control of the military because of the restlessness of the natives. All reports on movements of troops are heavily censored.

Eichmann Rests, Then Lashes Out

JERUSALEM (UP) — Adolf Eichmann bounced back from an attack of nerves and insomnia today and barked one denial after another at his Israeli prosecutor, cross-examining him on his defense against charges that he helped kill millions of European Jews.

Eichmann jousted with Attorney Gideon Hausner and parried every question with such retorts as:

"That is not true."

"That is incorrect."

"I did not make the (Nazi) laws."

"I only obeyed orders."

"I tried to help the Jews emigrate."

"Confiscation of their property was a law; I did not create that law."

The duel ensued in a late-afternoon session after the tribunal recessed the morning proceedings at Eichmann's request.

The defendant accused of being Hitler's instrument for the Nazis' "final solution of the Jewish problem" complained he had a sleepless night and he was unable to endure cross-examination unless he had a chance to recover his composure and reduce nervous tension.

He promptly went to sleep in his cell, then ate a good lunch, and on his return to the witness stand amply illustrated that recovery.

Presiding Judge Moshe Landau told Eichmann he could testify while seated if he felt tired. Eichmann chose to stand.

'HADN'T HEARD SLOGANS'

Hausner's first question today was: "When you joined the Nazi party, you knew the anti-Jewish slogans, such as 'Jewish blood will spurt from the knife,' didn't you?"

Eichmann replied, "I never heard these slogans at first. I joined the Nazi party because it opposed the Versailles Treaty and its tragic aftermath."

Q. But you will agree that from 1937 on, you were solely concerned with the Nazi fight against Jews and not against Versailles?

A. Yes, this is true. When I joined the security office (Gestapo), there was a search for a solution to the Jewish problem.

Q. You knew that your Fuehrer said that whoever won the war, the Jews would be exterminated?

A. Yes. This slogan was known to me. But by the term extermination, one didn't understand physical extermination. One thought this was some kind of policy to be adopted. This is what I thought and what many others thought.

Q. You regarded the Jew as an enemy of the Reich, to be exterminated the same as any other foe?

A. One may not mean extermination by this. One may consider that one must fight against foes of the Reich.

Eastern Portion of Nation Reports Very Cold Night

By The Associated Press

Mild, pleasant weather Monday followed a chill night which set scattered low mercury records in the nation's eastern half for the third consecutive night.

Knoxville, Tenn., had its coldest July night in history, with a low of 51 toppling the old mark of 55 for the date set in 1952. It was 46 at Charleston, W.Va., also the most frigid July night ever experienced there.

At Pittsburgh and Cleveland, the minimum was 48, supplanting the 1895 record at Cleveland and breaking it at Pittsburgh. Asheville, N.C., had a 49. Other record lows for the date: Lousville and Evansville, 52; Philadelphia, Nashville and Raleigh, N.C., 54; Topeka, Kan., 53; Richmond, Va., 55; Tulsa, Okla., 59, and Little Rock, Ark., 60.

Integrationists Return, but Pool Remains Open

OAK PARK (UPI)—A group of young integrationists who shut down a private swimming club Sunday showed up at the pool again today. But this time the club stayed open.

Today's group numbered about 25 high school and college students. A crowd of fifty appeared Sunday. The students remained lined up in front of the Crystal Swimming Pool, Inc. More than half the young boys and girls were white, the rest Negro.

Manager Henning Rylander told the Negro boys who presented a membership card this morning that the card would not be honored because it had been obtained illegally. He continued to admit white bearers of cards.

When the first Negro boy presented a membership card Sunday, Henning took it and promptly closed down the pool.

To Give Arguments for Charter Township

Waterford Township Clerk James E. Seeterlin tonight will present an explanatory report on reasons why the township should become a charter township and will discuss placing the proposition on the Sept. 12 election ballot.

The board meets at 7 p.m. at the township hall.

"The purpose of making the change is to be in a better position for security in obtaining a long range financing program for water and sewer facilities," Seeterlin said.

As a regular township, the interest costs on large public improvement bonds are much higher than as a charter township, he added.

There would be no change in government operation, no tax increase, and officials would remain in the same position, he concluded.

Hit U.S. Over Formosa

Kansas is said to be the geographic center of the U. S. mainland.

World Population Swooping Up to Three Billion

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The population Reference Bureau said today that returns from India and Pakistan increased the 1961 world census by 11 million "in one ominous swoop."

The bureau said the world's population is nearly three billion and is increasing by about 135,000 a day.

Recent tabulations in India and Pakistan represent "the largest sudden increase since 1953, the year the Chinese discovered their population figures were short by some hundred million people," the private research group said.

armed with air-to-surface missiles instead of bombs.

The Soviets gave advance billing to a vertical takeoff plane that does not depend on a jet thrust to get it aloft. Called a "screw wing plane" it was a cross between a plane and a helicopter.

Two engines were mounted at the end of each wing, and it had two rotors atop each wing making it highly maneuverable and able to carry either troops or freight.

Another new model was a three-tail jet-powered helicopter that landed and unloaded a cargo of rockets.

CARRY 180 MEN

One novelty was a giant helicopter capable of hauling 180 men. It appeared cartying a wooden house under its belly and landed it on the field. The house was about the size of a large car trailer in the United States.

The Soviets spiced up their show with a flypast of 15 helicopters each carrying a trapeze on which sat a pretty girl each dressed in the national costume of one of the 15 Soviet republics.

Another crowd-pleasing feature was a mass drop of 600 men with brightly colored parachutes.

Air Marshal Konstantin Vershinin who directed the show said in an aviation day article in the Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda that many of the Soviet air force's jets have no equal in the world for speed, altitude and flight range.

Then there are the surprises.

A VISITOR CAME

One night there was a knock at my dressing room door. "Someone to see you, Patty." I opened the door.

Someone came in, sat down and talked — all about my doll collection and everything.

That someone turned out to be Mr. Cary Grant, and he was even nicer in person than the parts he plays in the movies.

Another night it was someone I had done a television show with and happened to like very much. We were so excited to see each other again that we both gave out with blood curdling Indian war whoops and yells.

It was nutty, I guess, but I was so happy to see him, I just broke up. By the way, I forgot to tell you, it was Tab Hunter!

I guess my home life is about the same as any boy or girl's. I have certain chores to do.

There are always empty bottles to take back to the store, and the garbage to take out, and then there are the dishes which I don't really mind, but sometimes wish we used paper plates.

My school would be considered different, I guess. Most people think of school as a large building surrounded by grass and maybe with a large flagpole out front.

My school is in a building about the size of a two-family house. There's a large black plaque out front that says "Quintano's School for Young Professionals." Inside are two large rooms in which classes are held.

I go to school from 10 o'clock in the morning until one in the afternoon. The subjects are the same as in most public schools.

The schedule leaves a little time for ice skating in Rockefeller Plaza in winter and roller skating in Central Park the rest of the year.

We are off school from early June until September, when I spend the time between shows at the nearby beaches and pools.

I guess that's why I like being an actress. You never just hang around. There's always something to do.

Fliers Are Confident After Catching Cone

HICKAM AIR FORCE BASE, Hawaii (AP) — Air Force fliers who plucked another Discoverer nose cone from the sky on its return from space hoped today that the next aerial recovery "gives us something that wiggles."

Airmen at this mid-Pacific base said they were confident they could retrieve any capsule that could be brought back into the earth's atmosphere. "But next time," said one, "please, let's have something alive in there. These instruments are getting routine."

Discoverer XXVI's instrument-jammed nose cone was snagged in the air by a C119 recovery plane Sunday as the space packet parachuted 270 miles northwest of Hawaii. The twin-engine plane, one of eight circling over the impact area, made the catch on its first pass with its trailing trapeze like hooks. The recovery came just 29 minutes after the capsule was kicked loose from space over Kodiak, Alaska.

FOURTH AIR GRAB

It was the fourth aerial grab of a Discoverer cone. Two others were fished from the sea.

The gold-plated capsule, sealed in a gray cannister, was flown to Sunnyvale, Calif., Sunday night for examination by space scientists. It had circled the globe 32 times on a polar orbit since its launching Friday from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

"Contents of the capsule were not disclosed but an Air Force spokesman said nothing aboard was alive.

Greeting the pilot, Capt. Jack R. Wilson, 37, of Toledo, Ohio, were the two other pilots to effect aerial recoveries. Capt. Harold Mitchell of Bloomington, Ill., who made the first catch 11 months ago, and Capt. Gene Jones of Dayton, Wash., who snagged two capsules, presented cigars to the beaming Wilson.

Burned Worker Is Still Critical

Lake Orion Youth Was Hurt by 120,000 - Volt Charge in Culvert

Severely burned when a culvert being laid in Pontiac Township became charged with 120,000 volts from an overhead power line, James R. Recknagel, 19, of 441 Park Island Drive, Lake Orion, remained on the critical list today at Pontiac General Hospital.

Two other construction workers also injured, but with lesser burns as the result of the accident, were listed as satisfactory today at the hospital.

They are Robert G. France, 26, of 4770 Pontiac Lake Road and George W. Boothby, 24, of 6499 Maceday Drive, in Waterford Township.

Recknagle received third-degree burns over his entire body.

The men were laying a drainage culvert along the route of the Interstate 75 expressway near Lake Angelus when the crane lowering the reinforced concrete pipe drew the charge out of an overhead main transmission line of the Detroit Edison Co.

The trio was standing in water when the electrical charge hit them.

For the first time, Gilpatric confirmed what has been generally believed, that the U.S. program now calls for a force of 700 B52 bombers, backed by the Hound Dog and Sky Bolt missiles, as "sufficient to give us adequate bomber strength in the 1960s."

Gilpatric said the reappraisal Kennedy has ordered will determine whether the administration will ask Congress for additional appropriations for military and defense purposes this year.

City Will Get Petitions for Golf Course Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — Petitions will be submitted to the City Commission tonight asking that the property adjacent to the former sewage plant be developed into a public golf course.

The petitions, which have more than 1,000 signatures, request that the 66-acre tract on Cranbrook Road between Lincoln and 14-Mile roads be made into a nine-hole municipal golf course.

The petitions were first circulated by Lou Scharkoff of 1850 Melbourne St., former president of the advisory board at Springdale Golf Course, the city's only public golf link.

The city recently leased the sewage plant building to the Bloomfield Art Association, which intends to convert it into a cultural center.

Charge Assault on Blind Girl

U. of M. Student Held in Rape and Robbery; Gave Up Voluntarily

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A University of Michigan student was charged with rape and armed robbery today in the abduction and assault of an 18-year-old blind girl.

The two warrants against Jerald Wingeart, 20, of Niles, were authorized by Assistant Washtenaw County Prosecutor William F. Delhey.

Wingeart voluntarily surrendered today to Washtenaw County sheriff's men. The youth appeared at the sheriff's office accompanied by attorney Joseph Low of Niles.

Low told officers that Wingeart came to his Niles office late Sunday. He said he and Wingeart spent the night in his office talking.

He said Wingeart told him he "didn't remember a thing. I suffered a complete blackout."

Deputies said Wingeart was implicated in the abduction of the girl through a car found at the place where the girl and her companion encountered her assailant Sunday. The car was traced to Wingeart.

The girl was released by her assailant a short distance away from an isolated lover's lane.

Accountants Form New Local Chapter

The National Association of Accountants board of directors has approved the organization of a new Oakland County Chapter, it was announced today.

Approximately 125 members form the nucleus for the new group according to E. L. Dunn, publicity director here.

Membership is open to those associated with any phase of accounting work, he said. Those interested should contact John J. Thompson, membership director, at General Motors Corp., 3044 W. GrandBlvd., Detroit.

Initial chapter officers are: William E. Craig, president; Frank M. Kehoe, vice president; Andrew C. MacKinnon, secretary; and Arnold C. Carlson, treasurer.

Accepts Recall of Parliament

But Tshombe Says He First Wants a Meeting With Top Congolese

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Katanga President Moise Tshombe has assured the United Nations he now accepts in principle the necessity for reconvening the Congo's National Parliament, a top U.N. envoy said today.

But Tshombe insisted in weekend negotiations on having a preliminary meeting with President Joseph Kasavubu and pro-Lumumba leader Antoine Gizenga to prepare the groundwork.

"I was impressed with Tshombe's sincerity during our talks," said Mahmoud Khiari of Tunisia, who flew to Elisabethville last week in a bid to reconcile the separatist Katanga government to participate in the parliament.

Khiari shrugged off Tshombe's public statements criticizing the Leopoldville government, saying all Congolese factions are now agreed on the essential points.

The Brussels radio said a new 35-minister government of national union will be announced Tuesday or Wednesday. It reported two or three of the new ministers will be Katangans. The radio said Gen. Joseph Lundula, commander of Gizenga's rebel Stanleyville troops, was reported to have announced willingness to re-enter the national (Leopoldville) army.)

Khiari said the United Nations hopes to arrange for a meeting of Kasavubu, Tshombe and Gizenga at the University of Lovanium outside Leopoldville where the parliament is to meet. No dates have yet been fixed.

Purge Seems to Assist Pak

South Korea Military Rules Says Do-young Sought His Death

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—A wholesale housecleaning of rival officers appeared today to have strengthened considerably the position of South Korea's military ruler, Maj. Gen. Pak Chung-hi.

Pak climaxed his purge Sunday by accusing Lt. Gen. Chang Do-Young, ousted a week ago as premier and head of the ruling junta, and 44 other officers of plotting to assassinate him in an effort to seize control of the government.

Pak, moving spirit of the May 16 coup, forced Chang out last Monday, supplanted him as chairman of the junta, and named Defense Minister Song Yo-chan premier. Informed sources contended, however, that Pak's position as No. 1 man in the government still is not as strong as he would like.

21 ARMY MEN

The ruling inner circle, called the Supreme Council for National Reconstruction, now consists of 21 army men, 11 of them colonels and lieutenant colonels, 3 marine generals and a marine colonel, a vice admiral and an air force brigadier general. These men, especially in their military ties, represent different backgrounds, and there is evidence they have different ideas on how to restore their nation.

Treason charges that could carry the death penalty were leveled against Chang and the other officers at a news conference called Sunday by the junta.

An intelligence officer said Chang and the 44 others were caught scheming to assassinate Pak and "other persons in the central force of the revolution."

Heart Attack Kills Actor

CHICAGO (AP)—Alan Marshal, 52, of New York, veteran stage, film and television actor, died Sunday after suffering a heart seizure during a Saturday night performance in the play "Sextette."

High (Hic) Flier Pulls a Knife —Causes a Plane Dilemma

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A vacationing Illinois janitor, who caused a ruckus with a pocket knife aboard a crowded jetliner, poses a headache for authorities because of a legal no-man's land.

And it appears the headache may require legislative relief from Congress.

Joseph Newkirk, 60, of Argo, Ill., was arrested Saturday after threatening two persons aboard United Air Lines Flight 853, carrying 118 passengers from Chicago to Los Angeles.

No one was injured. Newkirk, who at first told police he was a salesman, was booked on suspicion of assault.

Shortly after takeoff from Chicago's O'Hare Field, investigators said, Newkirk became enraged because a stewardess took away his whisky bottles. Later, as the plane whisked over Nevada at about 32,000 feet, he became belligerent, pushed a stewardess and brandished his knife when a young Marine interceded.

The Marine, Pvt. Donald James Schwalbach, of Highland Park, Ill., slugged and sidearmed Newkirk. The janitor was bound by the crew and held captive in the lounge until Los Angeles police boarded the plane here.

After booking Newkirk, police discovered they had no jurisdiction over a crime allegedly committed over Nevada. They called the FBI and the Federal Aviation Agency.

The FBI pondered the problem — and said they'd have to discuss it with headquarters in Washington.

The FAA said it could not prosecute Newkirk on a criminal charge, but could charge him in a civil action with violating FAA drinking regulations aboard an airliner.

Then Asst. U.S. Atty. Tom Sheridan said he knows of no federal statute covering passengers aboard a plane in interstate flight.

"We have all sorts of laws for trains and several new ones for planes," he added, "but I don't know of any for something like this."

He added: "I guess that's why we need some new federal statutes."

An FAA spokesman here said he will seek immediate action by Congress for emergency legislation to cover such episodes.

Newkirk, who was en route to Hawaii, remains in jail.

He told police: "All I remember is being drunk when I got on the plane."

Newkirk said he was going to Hawaii because "I was tired of cooking for myself. I was going over there to look for a rich widow."

Dies in Duke Hospital

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Randolph E. DuMont 59, treasurer of the Duke Endowment, died Sunday after a six-week stay at Duke Hospital.

To Return Donations for Swap Unopened

DETROIT (AP) — The short-lived Tractors for Freedom Committee has decided to return unopened the nearly 70,000 letters it received after appealing for contributions to buy tractors to exchange for men.

The committee originally set out to exchange 500 farm tractors for 1,214 men who were captured in the ill-fated invasion of Cuba. The deal bogged down and the committee disbanded when it was unable to reach agreement with Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

NO SUMMER SLUMP IN NEWSPAPERS

This summer, consumers in the U.S. —108,000,000 of them—will keep right on reading their daily newspapers every day. There will be no summer slump in newspaper readers.

Vacation time changes living habits and reduces the audiences of other advertising media. But whether they're at the beach or on the patio, away on a trip or relaxing in the coolest room in the house, people consistently read their daily newspaper all year through.

Last year, retail sales in June and July totaled $37 billion; only 9% under the November and December Christmas period. This year, in a nationwide survey*, over 9 out of 10 retailers reported that they expect summer business to exceed, or at least equal, last year's. They expect no summer slump.

For maximum sales results during the growing summer selling season, advertise in daily newspapers. Reach the biggest consumer audience in the U.S.

Conducted by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, Inc.

Governor Favors an Open Con-Con

JACKSON (AP) — Gov. Swainson came out of a secret Democratic party strategy session Sunday and called for a free and open constitutional convention under constant public scrutiny.

Top state Democrats met here over the weekend to plan for the convention but a party spokesman said only:

"We'll let the Republicans find out what our plans are when we act."

The governor said "I feel it my duty to come forth in favor of a free and open constitutional convention." He added:

"As the vehicle of the people, the convention cannot deprive them of their right to consider any matter properly brought before the delegation."

Swainson, a former state senator, said, "I have gained first hand knowledge of the tyranny wrought by rules prohibiting full public consideration of all matters pertaining to all the people. This must not be allowed to occur in the constitutional convention.

"My judgment is that the constitutional convention, both in terms of its conclusions and in terms of the ultimate acceptance or rejection of those conclusions, spreads the responsibility for an improved constitutional document to us all.

"It is therefore fair and proper that the full knowledge of how conclusions are reached by convention delegates be made a matter of public record," he said.

Most Employes of Gemmer Co. to Move South

DETROIT (AP) — A majority of the 721 workers at Gemmer Manufacturing Co. plan to follow the firm when it moves from Detroit to Lebanon, Tenn., and ask for their jobs back.

U.S. District Judge Fred W. Kaess ruled last Wednesday that the members of the United Auto Workers Local 80 were entitled to keep members of the United Auto Workers Local 80 were entitled to keep their jobs even if the firm moved, and the UAW Saturday urged the local members to go after their jobs.

Ken Morris, UAW regional director, told a Local 80 meeting Saturday "Your whole future is at stake in this move. It may mean hardship for you, and it may mean trouble for you from the community down there, but the way to beat it is for everybody to go."

Norstad Wants to Build Quietly

NATO Chief Claims Move Would Pass the Berlin Ball Back to K

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Lauris Norstad, commander of Allied forces in Europe, feels the time has come for a quiet building of strength "that would go a long way toward passing the Berlin ball back to Mr. Khrushchev."

Norstad told the House Foreign Affairs Committee in testimony made public Sunday that NATO alliance units could now "render a very good account of themselves" for a limited period of time.

FORCES A FACTOR

And although he considers his forces inadequate to carry "the full burden of their responsibilities," the U.S. general said he is certain they are a factor in Khrushchev's thinking when he considers Berlin.

In the censored testimony, Norstad said the Communist bloc has 126 ground divisions and 12,000 aircraft west of the Ural Mountains "that might be used against us."

But he said he didn't consider this "an overwhelming mass" which would make the Allies' job hopeless. He noted that many of the communist aircraft are "locked in" to air defense areas. He said a question mark is the political reliability of Soviet satellite forces.

Norstad, who commands the 15-nation NATO forces, said the U.S. 7th Army is "damned good," a force that could "stack up against anyone." He called it the "best Army force the United States has ever maintained in peace."

Train-Bus Collision in Formosa Kills 49

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The toll from a train-bus collision in Southern Formosa rose today to 49 dead.

Twenty-seven persons were still on the critical list. Blood transfusions were being administered to all of them.

The disaster Sunday, worst of its kind in Formosa's history, occurred when an express train rammed into a bus near Chiayi. The bus was split in two and the wreckage toppled into a canal.

DOUBLE TROUBLE—William Johnson, 20, gasps as a cold wave of water from the Detroit River washes over him as he rides the bow of a small boat Sunday. A minute later, he received a ticket from patrolman Frank Elpers (left) for operating a boat in a manner that endangered life. The ticket was reduced to a warning after Johnson returned to a safer seat in the stern.

Let's Help Make 'Y' Drive Successful

Laggards are the bane of all drives. This includes the solicitors and those who "forget" to turn in their donation. And above all, there's the miser who doesn't give "because no one asked me." The current YMCA effort has been magnificent and ROBERT M. CRITCHFIELD deserves a standing ovation. Most of his captains have been grand, and have faithfully executed their responsibilities.

We've raised $611,000.

The drive's 94 per cent complete.

But those committee dullards who haven't completed their jobs, and the community scrooges who are trying to ride "free" are the barnacles that block final success.

Even if no one approached you, mail in your contribution promptly. The time is up and the man with your card may be one of the sloths.

The world doesn't cheer freeloaders.

It's Better to Finance Schools on Local Basis

Apparently, the bill providing Federal aid to schools is a dead duck.

This is a good thing.

Pontiac's own Louis H. Schimmel pointed out at the very outset that we would be better off if all school financing were done on a local basis. "This," said he, "is the most economical way for Oakland County taxpayers."

He's an authority.

Had the Federal Government dipped into education, we would have had to assess our taxpayers once more and send another wad to Washington. Here it would have been "administered" and finally "apportioned" and we would have received back a part of what we sent.

And the balance?

"Gone with the wind."

We would ultimately be advised that the difference had paid for "administrative costs," plus the charges for "evaluating apportionments," and other pseudo-scientific mumbo-jumbo that conceals wastage, inefficiency and just plain bungling, plus what went to schools in New Mexico or Vermont. We know our own needs better than any governmental agency.

Federal aid would lead to Federal interference as the man who holds the purse strings ultimately speaks with authority. We have no desire to see the schools, the teachers and the educational practices under Federal control, supervision and domination.

And that's what we'd have.

Make no mistake about that.

Hart Fights to Stop Deceitful Advertising

Our own Senator PHILIP A. HART is battling to prevent housewives and consumers from being taken for a ride through deceptive signs on various articles.

Senator Hart objects to such ambiguous and unfair wording as the "Jumbo Pint" or the "Elephant Pound" or what have you in the way of deceit.

The Michigan Senator wants the net contents of a package disclosed in unmistakable and numerical language no less than half the size of the largest on the label.

The Pontiac Press regrets this modern turn by some marketing outfits. We will never knowingly carry a line of advertising calculated to fool or deceive a purchaser. It seems the laws of the land have been reasonable safeguards in the past, but if the latest generation of sharpshooters is trying to wrangle a new type of deception, we're squarely behind Senator HART.

Odd sized packages are sometimes deceptive. One pound can be packaged in a variety of ways and twelve or thirteen ounces can be made to look even bigger than the orthodox sixteen. We are solidly against this type of purveyor.

More power to the Michigan Senator.

"WHAT Berlin?"

Voice of the People:

Says U.S. Should Improve Before Reforming Others

The world will never be as impressed by a show of military strength as it will by the way people live.

If we have peace and plenty, other nations will accept us as leaders, but if we're always on the muscle outside the country and inside, the world will reject us. All these murders, traffic accidents, freedom riders, juvenile killings and robberies, attacks on women and brutalities create the impression we are a jungle people wearing silks.

No one wants to follow examples like those. Russian papers feature every wrong move we make and we do too little to correct the mistakes or bring about reform. We're pretty dizzy people when you step aside and look us over.

We slaughter several hundred every holiday and automobiles kill a hundred a day, 365 days a year.

Who would "look up" to a nation like that? Would anyone admire a country that lets the teen-agers rob, steal and kill while the courts mostly shake a warning finger and say: "Now, now"?

Let's clean house before we reform the whole world and pay its bills.

'Church Merger Wasn't Complete'

A recent article headed "Two Churches Cement Merger" intimates that a complete merger has been made between all Congregational Churches and the Evangelical Reformer Church. This is not true.

There are 100 Congregational Churches which voted against the merger and many more that have not voted for the merger.

The question is still unsettled legally. Throughout this whole controversy the "pro-merger" group has consistently tried to convey the impression that the merger includes all Congregational Churches but this is not true.

Our little church will always maintain its freedom. To have unity it is not necessary to have uniformity.

'Should Spend More on Foreign Aid'

There is a growing move against foreign aid, but we are only spending half of what we should. Our whole world leadership may depend on this one thing, so it is no place to economize.

'Summer Missions Good for Soul'

Christians, have you made your plans for the summer? I hope you take advantage of the many opportunities offered by your church.

I have just returned from the School of Missions at Albion College. I was sent there by our Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Commerce Methodist Church at Commerce. It was a wonderful week.

As I left the chapel the last day and saw all those women going to their various homes and churches, it was wonderful to think how the word would spread and is that not what Jesus told us to do "Go ye forth and tell everyone"?

May God bless all and may they find enrichment in their lives.

Counting Crowds

An Explanation of How It Is Generally Done

Footprints on the sands of time: Made either by good souls or poor heels.

Since the Pontiac Centennial many inquiries have been received as to how the number of people in the various crowds was estimated. A little circumspect on the matter is quite interesting.

It has been found that an average standing person occupies four square feet (2x2) In closely packed crowds. Hence a square space that measures 100 feet on a side, or 10,000 square feet, would accommodate 2,500 people.

When he spoke from the rear of his train in Pontiac in the campaign of 1956, Vice President addressed a crowd that occupied a space of almost exactly that size and shape. We paced it off.

A count of a definite segment of that crowd, made while the speaker was talking, and from the same platform on which he stood, showed that it was a crowd of approximately 2,500.

On the same basis, the estimate of 100,000 on those who witnessed the Centennial parade on June 17 is quite correct when viewers from every point are considered, as also are the estimates made on other crowds in connection with that event.

Former Pontiac City Manager
William P. Edmonson

writes me from his office in Detroit that his first connection with our city was 53 years ago, when he canvassed this area, selling stereoscopic views. His territory was among the farmers, where he could always get a good night's lodging, also a good supper and breakfast, all for a dollar, which they would take out in what he was selling. He did his work on a bicycle, (and there were no pavements), his greatest thrill being to watch the marching drills of the students at the Michigan Military Academy at Orchard Lake.

A letter just received from

of Detroit tells me that my July 4 story about Pontiac's biggest Independence Day celebration, 85 years ago, in observance of the U.S.A. centennial, did not say that her grandfather,

Theron A. Flower,

then was Pontiac's mayor and had much to do with the big event.

Always beating the gun in this respect,

Blair Flewelling

of Commerce sends word that he mowed his second 1961 cutting of alfalfa on July 7, and expects to get at least two more.

A number of my friends, home from eastern trips, tell me that gas stations are selling accident insurance policies for a dollar, paying up to $5,000 for injuries received as long as you buy all your gas of that same brand, and keep your bills paid.

In New York for that Tiger-Yankee game on July 4,

Norman Pittsfield

of Birmingham phones me that he never before attended "such a nerve tickling, heart throbbing and action packed event."

David Lawrence Worries:

Dems Bad for American Economy

WASHINGTON — Fluctuations in the stock market are not the only sign of apprehension in the business world. Lately there have been many private expressions among businessmen to the effect that, if President Kennedy himself realized the hostility and antagonism which his lieutenants are stirring up in the business world, he would be amazed.

LAWRENCE

The administration's behavior in virtually ostracizing the Business Advisory Council, which has served the U. S. Department of Commerce for many years, is a case in point.

Perhaps the most interesting of the viewpoints being expressed by businessmen is one that appeared in a memorandum privately circulated recently in different parts of the country by a trained observer.

It was given in the form of advice to investors with respect to the business outlook, and was not intended in any way for publication. But excerpts from it did get into print, and here are some of them:

"Concern is not based on specific or overt statements or actions of the President himself, but rather is based on developments at the fringes of the administration.

"Adding up the evidence which has appeared on the fringes produces a suggestion that some of those in the administration really do not know fully what makes our economic clock tick.

"If this is so, the unfavorable implications for the economy, for the stock market and for the investor cannot be overlooked and must be weighed fully in our policy thinking.

"Some of the areas which give rise to concern about the administration's attitudes toward the business and economic community are these:

BIASED APPOINTMENTS

"Appointments to the Federal Power Commission and to the interior department to date have included a number of men with demonstrable bias in favor of public-power development. The regulated service industries — electricity, gas, communications and transportation — have made a major contribution to the economy over a period of many years.

About $1 of every $4 of business capital expenditures this year will be made by these industries. Appointment of men to key regulatory positions who are unfriendly to investor-owned utility enterprises raises serious questions.

"Developing administration attitudes toward business as expressed in a number of perhaps minor but increasingly frequent actions deserve careful watching and, in fact, careful present appraisal.

"Among these is the point of view expressed by Lee Loevinger, new head of the antitrust division of the Department of Justice who was very critical of the size of American Telephone & Telegraph and made the positive assertion that the public service had suffered as a result of the company's size and activities.

"Here perhaps is the best technical service and best progress of any industry in the country.

HIGHLY DISTURBING

"In short, I can see a trend of attitude and thinking and action on the fringes of this administration — perhaps already reaching well into it or perhaps ultimately reaching well into it — that can be highly disturbing to the American economy and to this business recovery and the ability of future business levels to handle the unemployment problem.

"It seems to me that this is the result of either one of two things:

"1. — There is no understanding on the part of many people around the administration as to what makes the economy tick, or —

"2. — There is a determined effort on the part of some to make it necessary for the government ultimately to occupy and take over a far larger segment of responsibility — a trend toward a more socialistic state."

Many members of Congress are shaking their heads, and, in talking privately, they express deep concern about the business outlook.

For many weeks now, the tone of nearly all public statements has been optimistic, and it has been insisted that an economic recovery is under way.

Tells Why JFK Acts With Restraint

There are two very good reasons why Kennedy isn't moving faster. First, he was elected by one-third of a cat's whisker and he is very conscious of it. Secondly, he knows that if Dwight D. Eisenhower had been a candidate, Kennedy would have been whipped from coast to coast. Each of these imposes a lot of restraint and it is a good thing for him and for the U. S.

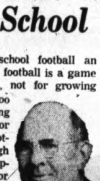
Dr. William Brady Says:

Don't Care What You Say, High School Football Bad!

I call high school football an evil because (1) football is a game for grown men, not for growing boys and (2) too many growing boys who play or try to play football in high school are crippled for life or killed.



DR. BRADY

The reason why some school superintendents or principals keep their traps shut about this evil, or, worse, join in the "Rah! Rah!" for football is that they haven't the courage to tell parents the truth.

Head and spinal injuries caused 14 of the 18 recorded deaths among U. S. football players in 1959.

Brain damage or blood clots caused nine deaths, broken necks caused four.

Sandlot games accounted for 5 deaths; high school games, 4; college games, 3; and semipro games, 2.

However, many letters come in such as the following:

"Doctor Brady:

"My argument is that an injured football player has only himself to blame. If he correctly does the exercises and is alert on the field, there should be no reason for any injuries.

"I play football and love it. I know that out of three schools in our town that have football teams during the past season, there was not one injury that couldn't be treated during the game, at the field.

"I think that if you put your efforts into something more constructive, you might get someplace. Because football is here to stay!"

Yours truly

"Doctor Brady:

"I think teen-age football has many advantages for the fellows. It teaches them good sportsmanship and gives them lots of exercise.

"They may get hurt once in a while, but look at it this way, if they weren't practicing or playing football, where would they be? Maybe they would be out getting in trouble, which would be much worse than any injury that could be received while playing football."

Very truly yours
Miss ———

I still say football is an unmitigated evil. The reason why some physicians keep their traps closed about it is that they haven't the courage to tell parents the truth.

Signed letters, not more than one page of 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Marriage Foundation Is Helpful

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE J-437: Mildred M., aged 21, was married last month.

"Dr. Crane," Mildred's mother began, "Mildred is our adopted daughter.

DR. CRANE

"She is a lovely girl and we are devoted to her. But I fear she always cherished a subconscious fear that maybe she would not win a desirable husband.

"Her ideals are high and sensible boys didn't seem to be available.

"So she enrolled in your Scientific Marriage Foundation. And her personality changed at once.

"For her membership put her at ease. She relaxed and immediately became happier.

"No longer did she feel it was up to her to find the proper man. So she smiled and was gay. She simply acted like the natural, attractive girl she really should have been.

"Oddly enough, although you introduced her to a fine boy, she met another man right here at home and married him last month.

"Thus, we attribute her happy marriage to the Scientific Marriage Foundation, although she didn't pick the man you gave her."

PRESSURE PANIC

Mildred's case happens so often that we have found it is typical of many men, as well as women.

They wish to be happily married. But their jobs often keep them out of social contacts with suitable people of the opposite sex.

So they grow somewhat panicky. And in this tense state, they tend to press too hard. Instead of relaxing and being gay, smiling and jolly, they create the constant feeling they are trying to get a prospect's name "on the dotted line."

Thus, they scare off prospects. For they subconsciously irridate the fact they are marriage mad.

If you wish to attract the opposite sex, it is often better to affect a casual "take it or leave it" attitude.

Indeed, star salesmen also find that it often spurs prospects into action much faster if the salesmen act as if they have so many orders that they aren't eager to sign up any more.

This is the same type of psychology that merchants have often found successful when they run a sign "Limit—Two to a Customer" over their soap or other merchandise.

CUPID'S SALES PSYCHOLOGY

Girls, if you wish to win proposals of marriage, go in the opposite direction.

Give the impression that you are more interested in being a nurse or missionary or teacher than in becoming a bride.

This broader perspective will also give you more poise and permit you to be jolly and gay.

Besides, boys will then immediately relax in your presence and feel more comfortable, since they think you are not whirling a matrimonial "lariat" around their heads.

Soon they grow so attracted to you that they want to change your viewpoint about marriage. They will actually try to "sell" you on accepting an engagement ring.

This clever ruse is so universal that you will become astonished at its success. It's what we paychologists call the "reverse English" strategy.

Send for the 200 point "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents. Use them to widen your perspective.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, and enclose a long, 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cent to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

BILLY PACKS THE GRANDSTAND—An estimated 40,000 or more persons crowded the Minnesota State Fair grounds grandstand at St. Paul to hear Billy Graham preach, opening an eight-day crusade. The evangelist, standing on the platform at center, said President Kennedy's dilemma is finding how to arouse people to the urgency of the hour.

Claims Alcoholism Is Increasing in U.S.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, chairman of the National Committee for the Prevention of Alcoholism, says the disease is on the increase in the United States.

The Chicago physician told a medical seminar on alcoholism Sunday that alcoholics in this country now number about 5.4 million.

He described an alcoholic as one whose drinking causes him trouble at home, socially or in business but who does not stop in spite of the difficulty.

Rainbow Reunion Set for Thursday in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — The famed Rainbow (42nd) Division of the Army will hold its 43rd national reunion here starting Thursday.

Veterans from more than 20 states are expected to attend. The division saw action in both world wars. Sharon C. Cover of Detroit is national head of the organization.

Mountain Climber Dies

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — A snagged rope led to the death of Gabriel Lee, III, 18, on the face of a mountain known as the No. 1 Flatiron south of here Sunday.

Young Lee's companion, Dave Roberts, also 18, said he had untied himself and dropped the rope to Lee when it became snagged near the crest of the flatiron. Lee was looping it about his arm when he lost his footing and fell.

The victim's father, oil man Gabriel Lee Jr., was killed in a highway accident near Houston, Tex., last March 4.

Russ Asked to Allow Antarctic Inspection

CANBERRA, Australia (AP)—The United States called today on the Soviet Union and other singers of the 12-nation Antarctic Treaty to honor the provision for unlimited inspection of the continent.

U.S. Ambassador William J. Sebald called attention to the inspection clause as delegates from the 12 nations began their first treaty conference.

"We expect the exercise of inspection rights will be a normal activity," said Sebald. "We would not regard the exercise of these rights as necessarily indicating there is a suspicion of activities contrary to the treaty. The practice of inspection is the best way of assuring the absence of suspicion."

Williams Leaves on Another Trip About July 20

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Undersecretary of State G. Mennen Williams, who says he wants to visit every African country during his first year as undersecretary for African affairs, will begin his second trip to the Dark Continent about July 20.

Williams planned on visiting about 15 countries and said he may make a third or even fourth trip before the end of 1961.

It was still in doubt whether the former Michigan governor's trip this month will include visits to Portugese Angola and the Union of South Africa, both controlled by white supremist governments.

When Williams made his first trip to Africa this year, these countries criticized his statement that Africa should be "for the Africans."

All others carry the $2 annually or 50 cents per day fee.

They Alter Congressional Record

Solons' Report Inaccurate

WASHINGTON (AP) — When is a record not always a record?

Answer: When it's the Congressional Record.

The Congressional Record is the bible of Capitol Hill, as it is for many citizens who make it their business to keep up with what Congress is doing.

Yet this daily journal of what is said and done in both houses is not an exact transcript at all times. The reason is contained in three words—"revise and extend."

Representatives who rise to address the House invariably precede their remarks with this sentence:

"I ask unanimous consent to revise and extend my remarks." The unanimous consent is always given. And the formula gives the speaker the right to edit what he says, as taken down by the official shorthand reporters.

He may change a word, add a sentence or a paragraph, leave out a section.

Senators have the same right, although they do not often use the revise and extend formula on the floor.

NO INDICATION

When the Record appears the next day, it carries the changed version, not the exact words that were said on the floor, if the member has exercised his revise and extend privilege. And there is no indication in the Record of the change.

It is impossible for a reader to tell that something has been changed, left out or added.

Some senators and representatives don't think this is right. They argue that the Congressional Record should be an exact public record available to all without any monkeying with the script.

One of these is Rep. Paul C. Jones, D-Mo., who also objects to the high cost of producing the Record. He said recently that a survey he made showed "we could save about $1 million a year by limiting the kind of extraneous things printed in the Record's appendix, such as the winning essay in a high school contest."

This comes under the "extend" part of revise and extend. Jones said his survey also showed that "about 5 per cent of the members are responsible for 90 per cent of the abuses in the Record."

Jones also believes the Record should be an exact transcript of what is said on the floor, except for correction of grammatical errors or the occasional actual errors that creep into the official transcript.

This, he said, was the original purpose of the revise and extend privilege.

Post Office Dept. Trucks

NEW YORK (AP) — The Chrysler Corp. plans production of 1,751 trucks for the Post Office Department under a contract said to be worth $3,942,446.

A Chrysler spokesman said production will begin Oct. 1 at the Dodge truck plant in Warren, Mich.

Reds Call the Tune, Making West Dance

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The Communists act, the West reacts. It's been that way for years. It's that way now. It was true under Presidents Truman and Eisenhower. It's true today under President Kennedy.

It raises a question: When will the West take the initiative to put the Communists on the defensive, give them the miseries?

First it was Greece and Turkey, then Indochina, then Czechoslovakia, then the Berlin blockade, then Korea, then Formosa, then Berlin again, then Cuba and riots in Latin America and now again it's Berlin.

REDS CALL TUNE

In each case the Communists called the tune and the West danced, trying to offset them. The West has created no crises for Russia or Red China. It's been the other way around.

1. Right after the big war Russia stirred up civil war in Greece, helped the Communist rebels there, brought pressure on Turkey to get concessions and bases in the straits.

Truman reacted with the Truman plan—aid to Greece and Turkey—which not only was successful but once and for all threw off American isolationism, put the United States neck-deep in Europe's problems, shaped the future.

2. Indochina began to fall apart in 1946, although no one realized it at the time. Indochinese, led by Communists and sick of French colonial rule, began civil war. It lasted eight years. The French fought a half-hearted war, wouldn't let go.

In the end the United States helped the French. Too late. The Communists got half of Indochina. The result of all this: The United States set up Southeast Asian alliances to try to save the rest of the area from the Reds.

3. In 1947—when Bulgaria, Romania, Poland, Hungary had been taken over by Communists, when Communists were the second most powerful political party in France, when Communists were rioting in Italy, when all Western Europe was in danger of economic collapse — the United States came up with its Marshall Plan.

This economic aid program saved Europe. The United States, learning the lesson, has continued the aid ever since, shifting to backward countries as time passed.

4. The West suffered a smashing blow in 1948 when Communists grabbed Czechoslovakia from within and Stalin tried to steal West Berlin with a blockade. The United States couldn't help Czechoslovakia, but it rescued Berlin with an airlift.

In that same shocking year the Senate approved putting the United States into a military alliance with Western Europe for mutual defense, Russia began to look frightening. The alliance was signed April 4, 1949.

5. That year, 1949, was momentous by itself: The Red Chinese took over mainland China, drove Chiang Kai-shek to the island of Formosa, 100 miles off the mainland. Truman said hands off, that Chiang was on his own, wouldn't protect him.

But 1950 and the Communists changed his mind. They began the Korean war. The Red Chinese got into it. The United States reacted by going to war in Korea, deciding to protect Chiang and Formosa. It's been doing so ever since.

6. Late in 1958 Premier Khrushchev picked up where Stalin left off, threatened Berlin anew, really put the heat on in 1959, threw into convulsions the West which didn't seem sure it wanted to fight for the city, set a six-month deadline.

In the end Eisenhower bailed out the West by inviting Khrushchev here. This calmed Khrushchev. He postponed the deadline, but didn't abandon it.

7. Those years—1958 and 1959—were shockers for the United States elsewhere, closer to home, and gave it an insight into Latin America it badly needed.

In 1958 Vice President Richard M. Nixon was stoned and reviled in Latin America. With the dawn of 1959 Fidel Castro, whose sympathies with communism the United States badly misunderstood, took over Cuba, began his anti-Americanism.

This realization of the depths of discontent and Communist penetration among its southern neighbors finally forced the United States into thinking of giving aid on a big scale, not in driblets.

8. As a result of all the Communist aggressiveness around the world this country in the years since 1949—when it signed its European alliance—has made similar alliances around the world in the hope it might be a dike against the Reds.

9. Now once again Khrushchev threatens Berlin, reinstates his six-month deadline. Now once again the West is in a tizzy, seeming unsure of itself, trying to figure how it should react, what it should do, how far it should go.

Child, 5, Offers to Teach Caroline How to Swim

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP)—Martha Trobert learned to swim at the age of 3 and now—an accomplished swimmer at 5—she wants to pass along her skill to another 3-year-old girl — President Kennedy's daughter, Caroline.

In a letter, Martha told Caroline, who recently was rescued from a swimming pool, "If you come to Florida again I will teach you how to be a good swimmer."

Blonde Martha learned from her father, Gordon Trobert, a former lifeguard who grew up in Detroit. She said her 3-year-old brother Mike helped her write the letter.

Martha was named Junior-Swim-For-Health queen last month in a competition held annually since 1945 by the National Swim for Health Association.

State Woman Killed, 9 Hurt in Car Crash

PORTAGE, Ind. (AP)—A two-car collision in Portage killed a Michigan woman and injured nine other persons Sunday.

Police said Mrs. Almeda Ann Tima of Livonia, Mich., was fatally injured when the car in which she was riding was struck by another auto carrying an Iowa family.

The Iowa car, driven by Carlton Carlson, 28, Cedar Rapids, crossed the center line on U.S. 20 and hit the Tima car head on, police reported.

Marathon Gasolines
STOP HOT-WEATHER STALLING

Your wife counts on you to keep the car in good shape. And you do. It's washed, waxed, serviced and tuned. But all the tuning in the world won't protect it from hot-weather stalling. You've seen it happen. The frantic effort to get it started. The pile-up of traffic. Heard the hoot of horns. It's embarrassing, annoying, frightening. Don't let it happen to your wife. It won't with Marathon gasoline in the tank.

MARATHON GASOLINES ARE POWER-PROCESSED FOR MIDWEST SUMMERS
Marathon SUPER-M® and MILE-maker® gasolines are power-processed to help end hot-weather stalling. Laboratory controls provide gasolines that guard your engine against choking and strangling caused by vapor lock. These Marathon gasolines are also scientifically filtered to clean out engine-stalling bits of dirt that can clog fuel systems. This summer, make it Marathon, for gasolines that are all go 'til the last drop's gone.

Situation Tense at Oak Park Pool

OAK PARK (UPI)—Tension continued today at the Crystal Pool here, following an unsuccessful attempt to integrate the swimming pool by a biracial group of some 50 students.

Police watched the efforts of the integrationists closely Sunday, but there was no trouble.

The pool was closed by manager Heaning Rylander when the first Negro boy in the group appeared with a membership card. He took the first card and one was retained by a Negro member of the group.

The pool, which has been in existence for 26 years, is a private club, operated by a corporation, Rylander said. Any person desiring to swim for the first time can purchase a ticket for 25 cents and then pays 75 cents each time he wants to swim.

"If we like their looks, we let anyone in," he said, but added that "There have never been any Negroes admitted."

Eighteen-year-old Joe Botkin of Detroit, who recently graduated from Cass Technical High School was the spokesman for the integrationists. He said they objected to making color grounds for admission.

MAY CONTINUE

"We can understand Mr. Rylander not wanting to admit roughnecks or persons who would cause trouble," he said, "but there has never been a Negro admitted to the pool so he can't say people are turned away just on the basis of being roughnecks."

Botkin said his group would decide later whether or not they intended to continue their integration efforts.

Officers of the Oakland County sheriff's office said they would not interfere with the demonstration as long as it was operated with dignity and a policy of passive resistance was maintained.

Botkin said that members of his group represents the Detroit chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and the Brotherhood Youth Council. He said they came mostly from Mumford and Cass high schools, with some Wayne University students.

White swimmers, all with membership cards, stood in groups around the pool. Many objected to being unable to swim on the sunny, but somewhat cool, Sunday afternoon.

MAKES CHARGE

A Madison Heights man, who said he had been a teacher for 26 years, said he "had nothing against the colored, but wherever the gates are opened to anyone it usually brings trouble." Admitting the demonstrators seemed like "nice kids," he said, "If they let them in, the troublemakers will follow."

Jerry Salk of 2940 Parklawn St., another disappointed swimmer charged the integrationists with "causing trouble."

Botkin, who said he was Jewish, said that up until five years ago, the club discriminated against Jews. Salk, who also said he was Jewish, admitted this but added that letting down the color bar and admitting all applicants for membership would still lead to trouble.

Eastlick Firing Before Council

Showdown Expected in Southfield Tonight Over Mayor's Action

SOUTHFIELD — A showdown is expected tonight between Mayor S. James Clarkson and members of the City Council over the firing of City Assessor Gerald Eastlick.

Councilman John J. Hollywood has asked that the matter be placed on the agenda at the 8 p. m. meeting today.

Councilmen were taken by surprise at the June 26 meeting to find that Eastlick had been fired as of July 31 by Clarkson and that a new assessor had not been named.

Eastlick, fighting for his position, has submitted a six-page letter to the council outlining his version of his problems with the mayor.

The assessor contends that he cannot cooperate with the mayor in instituting some of Clarkson's theories on land investments under existing state law and State Tax Commission directives.

As mayor, Clarkson has the jurisdiction to fire and hire the assessor and he has stated that as far as he is concerned the matter is closed and Eastlick is removed.

Elect Dolmage Treasurer of School Board

TROY — Robert W. Dolmage, top vote getter in the June 12 school election here, has been elected treasurer of the Troy Board of Education while Ben S. Jones has been named vice president.

Jones and Dolmage are the only first term officers on the school board. Dolmage was elected by a 4-3 margin over the former school board secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hotton.

The vice president's post is a new office on the board.

Re-elected to their former positions by fellow board members were Alex Tunstall, president, and Russell E. Kaufman, secretary. Dolmage topped all candidates in last month's school election with 213 votes. Richard C. Snoad, who defeated incumbent Robert A. Meade June 12, is the only new board member.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Lurther Braley of 2922 Bald Eagle Lake Road, Brandon Township, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday with a family reunion at Hawthorne Park. The couple, married July 6, 1911 in Mount Pleasant, has one son, Basil of Pontiac, two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Contract Is Let for Post Office

Edgewood Will Build Structure at Ortonville and Lease It to U.S.

ORTONVILLE — The contract for building and leasing of a post office building here has been awarded to the Edgewood Country Club, 8399 Commerce Road, Union Lake.

The successful bidder was announced today by Postmaster General J. Edward Day.

"The signing of the contract represents another step toward implementing President Kennedy's program for the construction and modernization of postal facilities throughout the nation during this year," said Day.

Under this program, private industry will invest the capital to build new facilities for lease to the department," explained the postmaster general.

Under the terms of the department's commercial leasing program, the successful bidder will construct the building on the south side of Mill Street between Pond and Church streets and lease it to the Post Office Department for 10 years.

The department will have four 5-year renewal options and an annual rental of $3,800 for the basic term. The department's capital investment is limited substantially to the postal equipment, while the building remains under private ownership with the owner paying local taxes.

There were six bidders for the Ortonville Post Office contract. The building will have 2,507 square feet of interior space and will be built on a site with 7,125 square feet.

To Take Bids on 48 Projects for State Roads

Bids on 48 state highway projects, including two in Oakland County, will be taken July 19 in Lansing, it was announced today.

Total cost of the projects to be placed under contract that day is $20 million.

The county projects are the paving of 1 mile on M150 from the Clinton River bridge north to the Rochester city limits and the grading and paving of nearly 3 miles of Middle Belt Road north from a point 1 mile east of Farmington.

The completion date for the Rochester project is Oct. 15. The deadline for completing the Middle Belt Road project is July 1, 1962.

Auburn Road Store Is Hit by Burglary

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — Romeo state police today were investigating the thief of an undetermined amount of money from a safe at the Auburn Orchards supermarket, 1920 Auburn Road.

Police said burglars gained entry to the store by cutting a hole in the roof. The safe was found ripped open this morning. The robbery occurred last night or early today.

Officers believe the thieves escaped with only a small amount of change since most of the money earned by the market this weekend had been removed from the safe.

State police said the names of the supermarket owners were unavailable this morning.

Belding Man Is Killed in Crash Near Grattan

ROCKFORD (UPI) — Joseph A. Cseko, 45, of Belding was killed early today, state police said, in a two-car collision on M44 just east of nearby Grattan.

Troopers said his car collided head-on with an auto driven by Jacob Mol, 55, of Grand Rapids. Mol was taken to St. Marys Hospital in Grand Rapids for treatment of head injuries.

CAP Cadets at Custer Base for Training

BATTLE CREEK (UPI) —Cadets from the Michigan wing of the Civil Air Patrol arrived at Sunday for a two-week training session.

The cadets, both boys and girls, 14-to-18-years old, will be taught techniques of water survival and handling of certain weapons.

During the two weeks they will tour the SAC defense installation, have inspection, pass in review and receive orientation flights in Air Force helicopters and other craft.

At the end of their training session the cadets will be graduated. Lt. Col. Fern T. Ludwick of Detroit will direct their activities.

Utica Nike Base to Be Renovated

Detroit Area Company Gets $78,228 Contract to Do Over Buildings

A $78,228 project at the Nike Missile Base near Utica is one of eight contracts which have been awarded in the state by the Detroit District U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The Albert D. Thomas Co. of Grosse Pointe Farms has been awarded the contract for rehabilitation of buildings at the Utica Nike site.

Contracts totaling $2.5 million were awarded for military and civil construction projects in the state by the Corps of Engineers.

The largest single contract in this group, awarded to Southern Engineering and Construction Co. of Long Beach, Calif., amounted to $1,353,753 for erection of maintenance docks and support facilities at three Michigan Air Force bases, Kincheloe, Wurtsmith and K. I. Sawyer.

W. D. Gale, Inc., of Detroit has been awarded a $394,674 contract for airfield lighting at Kincheloe and Selfridge Air Force bases. The Hunt Process Co. of Los Angeles will repair airfield pavement at the two airfields for $229,453.

Work on all projects is scheduled to begin this month with completion dates ranging from October to December.

KAREN LOUISE EASTTY

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel H. Eastty of 135 Longspur Road, Union Lake, announce the engagement of their daughter Karen Louise to Douglas R. Forrester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Forrester of Detroit. No date for the wedding has been set.

Business Suits Shed for 'War'

CAMP GRAYLING (UPI)—A newspaper ad salesman, state policeman, school principal, business representative for a man's apparel firm and nearly 8,000 other Michigan men combined efforts today in an exercise in teamwork.

The men, members of the Michigan National Guard, 46th Infantry Division, got down to the serious business of field training Sunday.

Once each week the men set down their hats as civilians and don the cap of the military. Many wore the uniform of the armed forces during World War II, the Korean conflict and the cold war years between and since.

All now are part of the nation's reserve units, which are prepared for the first call in the event of a national emergency.

Two weeks of exercises here each year demonstrate the practical use of the instruction gleaned from the weekly training sessions throughout the state.

The tank and heavy artillery units from Southwestern Michigan this day sent the troops into the field to defend the 138,000-acre military reservation against the invasion of a mythical enemy.

Other Guard units planned strategy for the time when their 40-man platoon will be called to the front line between now and July 22.

The Michigan defenders of the battlefield known as Camp Grayling came from all sides, on the ground and in the air, two days ago.

Military convoys brought an estimated 7,400 men from North, South, East and West along Michigan's highways.

ANOTHER 600

Another 600 were part of a precise exercise which signalled a cooperative effort between the Army National Guard and the Air Force Reserve.

The 15 platoons were flown here in C119 Flying Boxcars manned by members of the 403rd Troop Carrier Wing based at Selfridge AFB near Mount Clemens and O'Hare field in Chicago.

Precise timing was called for as the 15 planes touched down at 60-second intervals and the infantry units unloaded on schedule. Within three minutes the guardsmen were on the five-mile march here from the airstrip.

Drive-In Polio Clinic

GRANDVILLE (UPI) — This Grand Rapids suburb is opening a special type of drive-in Wednesday — a polio clinic sponsored by the junior chamber of commerce. Participants may be immunized without leaving their cars by driving into Grandville's municipal parking lot during the day-long clinic.

Ferndale Woman Dies

DETROIT (UPI) — Geraldine Chapman, 30, of 211 Academy Road, Ferndale, died at Receiving Hospital today of injuries suffered Sunday night when she was struck by a car while standing in the middle of Woodward Ave. near downtown Detroit.

Some persons say that Bonner Springs, Kan., was named for Robert Bonner, editor of the old New York Ledger. Others say it is from an Indian word meaning four houses.

RABBIT PUNCH — Was it a rock? A brick? A steel girder? No, a jumping rabbit shattered the windshield of this new car on Colorado Highway 71 near Colorado Springs. J. W. Freeman, shown inspecting the damage, was in the car along with three others when the leaping bunny hit the hood and crashed through the windshield. No one in the car was injured even though pieces of glass and parts of the decimated rabbit were strewn through the auto's interior.

Congress Returns to Job to Face Three Key Bills

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress starts a plodding week of action today, getting back into gear after a long Fourth of July recess.

Three key bills—foreign aid, the National Defense Education Act, and the farm bill—may emerge from Senate committees this week. But neither house has scheduled action on any major measures.

The president of Pakistan, Mohammed Ayub Khan, addresses a joint session of the Senate and House Wednesday.

The Senate may take final action today on a bill to amend cultural exchange programs. A bill to establish a 10-year program of oceanographic research should come up later in the week. Also slated for Senate action is a House-passed administration bill to cut duty-free imports allowed to U.S. tourists from $500 to $100, to help stem the deficit in foreign exchange.

The House takes up a bill Tuesday to amend the Hiss Act. The act was passed to prevent convicted perjurer Alger Hiss from receiving a government pension for previous service in the State Department. It applies to any government employe convicted of a crime of any sort. The bill would restrict loss of pensions to those convicted of crimes involving national security.

On Wednesday the schedule calls for House debate on the District of Columbia appropriation bill and the atomic energy authorization bill.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, predicts a close committee vote on President Kennedy's five-year $8.8 billion foreign aid program. He said its chances looked brighter after the committee heard Secretary of State Dean Rusk plead for its passage last week as a key weapon in the cold war.

YOUR UNCLE JOHN IS COMING—

Peter Lawfords' Baby Named Robin Leslie

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — The new daughter of actor and Mrs. Peter Lawford has been christened Robin Leslie Elisabeth Lawford. The mother, Patricia Kennedy Lawford, is the sister of President Kennedy and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The infant, born July 2, was held for the 15-minute ceremony in St. Monica's Roman Catholic Church by her godmother, Mrs. Gary Cooper.

Gold Holdings of U.S. Rise to $17.5 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Steady improvement in U.S. gold holdings since February brought their level to $17.55 billion at mid-year, Treasury figures showed today.

This was a gain of $178 million from the low point reached on Feb. 24 after a prolonged drain that caused official anxiety and helped set off the speculative splurge of 1960 in the London gold market.

Treasury officials have expressed satisfaction with the slight but persistent gains this spring, considering them to be—at least in part—a reflection of rising confidence abroad in American fiscal policy and President Kennedy's stated determination to guard the value of the dollar.

The improvement was assisted, too, by the Soviet Union's activity in the gold market. The Soviets have sold substantial amounts of gold from their production in the past few months, providing European central banks with supplies which might otherwise have been bought from the United States.

British Work on Gear to Detect Space A-Tests

LONDON (AP) — British atomic experts are designing instruments to detect nuclear tests in space, the British Atomic Energy Authority said in its annual report today.

Research has shown that under appropriate atmospheric conditions, it should be possible to detect nuclear explosions at distances of over a million kilometers (625,000 miles), it added.

The authority's weapon group is also working on a program of seismic research to improve the ability to distinguish between underground explosions and earthquakes.

Fall and Winter Styles in Silk Twinkle Like Christmas Cards

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — If you hope to keep up your status as a fashion intellectual, you had better do your vocabulary homework.

Here is a glossary of style terms used in describing fall and winter collections by New York couture group members being shown to more than 200 fashion editors this week.

Body-Conscious — Having nothing to do with hypochondria, it describes the closer fit you'll wind in coats, suits and dresses this fall.

Nothing Dress—This garment became high fashion by reduction to its lowest common denominator, by subtracting sleeves, collars, and shortening the hemline. Although it got its start a few seasons ago, it will continue barely and shiveringly throughout the winter season.

JAUNTY JACKET

Flip Back—This style newcomer is a jaunty jacket, short in front with a gentle flyaway movement or back flare.

Inner Strength — Linings, once the cheapest fabrics in a coat or suit, now strengthen the coat but weaken the budget with mink, cat, chinchilla or ermine pelt.

High Risers—The ever-wandering waistline climbs upwards again in many collections. The high line is often emphasized by welt seaming. However the dropped waistline has not lost its fashion flavor yet.

Intermediate Length—Dresses hemmed at calf-length are designed for semiformal occasions such as theater parties.

Dirndls—Years ago a printed gathered skirt by this name was popular with off-shoulder peasant blouses. Today's version is refined, in dressier fabrics, not as full at the waist, and much more flattering to the mature figure.

NO WAISTLINE

The Column—A slender cylinder from neck to floor, this evening dress is usually of metallic or sequined cloth, has no waistline, little walking room.

The Flare—Any skirt fluted, pleated, or gathered which swishes, swirls or sways is a Paris influence that continues to flare throughout fall collections.

Nothing Colors—The pendulum swung from the summer fad for florid prints and violent hues to fabrics with hardly any vibrance. These are mossy, bronzy and black, or nearly so.

Autumn's tones are blended by Roxane of Samuel Winston in a unique fabric of double warp print. The russet and gold tones are styled in a sleeveless bodice dropping over a skirt with gentle flare.

More than 200 of the nation's fashion editors scribbled furiously as they sampled from a smorgasbord of costumes in silk.

Many were by couturiers Scassi, Sarni, Vera Maxwell and Norman Norell, of New York, as well as Californians Werle, Irene and Gustave Tassell—designers who do not ordinarily preview their collections during the couture group members' semiannual press week.

FABRIC EMPHASIZED

Nevertheless the costumes by any designer's name were much the same in terms of elegance, with emphasis placed on the fabric rather than the dress silhouette.

Most of the dresses were decorated as if they were expensive Yule cards. For example, a splash of glitter garnished the neckline of a floaty pink cloud of a house coat designed by Christian Dior to go with breakfast toast and coffee.

And Sarni, Scaasi and Esteves generously sprinkled silvery snow flakes on candy colored chiffon, satin and georgette costumes for teatime wear. For evening everyone went all out for sequins, beads and crystals.

The fabrics on the silk costumes that didn't twinkle like Christmas cards were at least three-dimensional. Floral patterns were sculptured in velours or quilted to stand high to appear to be giant gaudy posies actually growing on the costumes.

HEAVY EMBROIDERY

Vera Maxwell's method of dimension on her brilliant Spanish shawl dresses was extremely heavy embroidery.

Satin was on the scene too, but dulled down to the less slippery-looking. Jacqueline Kennedy's official couturier, Oleg Cassini, used the new satin in a costume called "State Visit." The sleeveless long overblouse was described as an adaptation of the dress Cassini made for the First Lady's trip to Paris.

Gold brocade is fashioned into a two-piece costume (at left) by Ceil Chapman. The dress is sleeveless with a semifitted skirt and jewel neckline. A slightly higher fitted two-button coat tops the dress.

An evening costume by Jane Derby is very feminine with its two tones of gray and lining of pink silk satin. The strapless bodice of the dress is embroidered with brilliants and pearls and dares a pink satin bow below one shoulder. The cape is shaped with deep folds pleated in a curve around the shoulders.

No Way to Entertain—Abby

'High Society' Stubs Toe

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband's boss invited us to their home for an evening. We were told "not to dress up."

I almost fainted when they greeted us at the door. The wife was wearing shorts and a halter top. The husband was completely bare on top, and was wearing shorts. Both were barefoot.

They are in their late 50s, and weigh over 200 pounds apiece. I found it revolting to look at them. Him, with his big stomach hanging in layers over his shorts, and her with rolls of fat flopping around.

In addition to this, the veins in her legs stood out in red and blue knots all over. I tell you I couldn't wait to leave. Are we old-fashioned? Or is this the way "high society" entertains the working stiffs?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: Well-bred people do not entertain their guests in the get-ups you described. This "high society" has a very low ceiling.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow about to marry a widower. We love each other very much, but I am very hurt because of his attitude toward his deceased wife.

On Memorial Day he bought the most expensive spray of flowers, took it to the cemetery and placed it on her grave. I've mentioned this, and he says no one else remembers her and he feels it is his duty.

I think it is nice to remember the dead, but why overdo it? I have found a new life and am willing to forget my loss. Can't he do the same?

LIVING TODAY

DEAR LIVING: You should consider yourself very fortunate to get a man who is so generous, sensitive and kind. Doesn't it give you pleasure to know that, should you go first, he will cherish your memory and not "forget his loss" quickly? Think it over.

DEAR ABBY: I went out with a clod — and I mean a first class drip — because he pestered me for a date for months. I had a miserable time. I couldn't even stand to let him hold my hand.

He has been bothering me for another date ever since. I don't want to go out with him again. Every time he calls I tell him I am "busy," but now he says, "YOU name the time when you are free."

I am stuck for an answer. Please tell me how to discourage this guy without coming right out and telling him he nauseates me.

MUCHACHA

DEAR MUCHACHA: Tell him you think too much of him to let him waste his time and money on a girl who thinks of him as a "brother." This will cool off the most amorous amigo.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to comment on the letters from "Discontented Career Girl" versus "Unappreciated Housewife":

Where did the career girl get the idea that, just as she is preparing dinner, her husband will open the front door, rush in, say, "Hi, Honey — I'm home. What's for dinner?"

Better level with her, Abby, and tell her that there will be nights when he won't make it home until 3:00 A. M.

WOULD LIKE TO TRAVEL

CONFIDENTIAL TO "Half of me is saying yes and half of me is saying no:" Tell me which half is saying what and I will tell you what to do.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SYL: Don't be a sap. Let him do his own laundry. He has plenty of soft soap handy.

What's bothering you? For a personal reply, write to Abby, The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich. Include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Pontiac Couple Weds at St. Michael Church

An afternoon reception at the Perkins Street home of the Robert Aldermans followed the marriage of their daughter Dorothy Marie to Arnold C. Bergeron Saturday in St. Michael Church. Rev. Charles Cushing offered the nuptial Mass.

Satin applique accented the square-neck bodice and ballerina-length skirt of the bridal gown of white silk organza over taffeta. The veil of French silk illusion was held by a tiara of pearls and sequins. A necklace and earrings of cultured pearls were worn. White roses and feathered carnations comprised the chapel bouquet.

Maid of honor Louise Ann Steinbach appeared in mint green nylon sheer styled with tulip front neckline and ballerina-length skirt. She held a semi-cascade of pink and white carnations and pompons.

Clarence Bergeron Jr. was best man and Marcel Bergeron ushered. They are the sons of Mrs. Irene Bergeron of Seward Street and Clarence D Bergeron of East Tennyson Avenue. Also seating guests were Larry E. Berry and Robert B. Alderman Jr., brother of the bride.

White cymbidium orchids accented Mrs. Alderman's dress of dusty rose lace over silk. The mother of the bridegroom chose dark green silk with white polka dot collar and corsage of pale green cymbidium orchids.

MRS. ARNOLD C. BERGERON

Nuptials by Candlelight

Marilyn Adams Weds

Dr. Emil Kontz officiated at the candlelight nuptials of Marilyn Jean Adams and Bryen L. Marks Saturday evening in Bethany Baptist Church. Baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons and pompons graced the chancel.

Daughter of Mrs. George B. Drittler of Dwight Avenue and Harvey L. Adams of Lake Orion, the bride appeared in white Chantilly lace and pleated tulle over silk taffeta. Sequins and pearls enhanced the princess-line gown and formed a crown which caught the silk illusion veil.

The bride carried a chapel arrangement of Demure roses, stephanotis and white feathered carnations.

Bridesmaids Judith Karen Bulas and Nona Lee Daugherty, with Mary Jane Drittler, her sister's junior attendant, carried blue-tipped white pompons. Silver touches distinguished the bouquet for Mrs. Lewis G. Waterfield of East Lansing, her sister's honor matron.

Their ballerina-length frocks of pastel-blue nylon sheer featured draped necklines.

Best man for his brother was Arden J. Marks. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Marks of Monticello Avenue. Lewis G. Waterfield and Gary LaFountain ushered.

Frenched carnations accented a corsage of yellow Rapture roses for Mrs. Drittler, who wore a brown-and-white silk jacket sheath dress. The mother of the bridegroom chose a pastel green silk sheath and shoulder corsage of pink Carol Amling roses and Frenched carnations.

After a reception at Waterford Community Center, the newlyweds left for Washington, D.C., and Virginia Beach, Va. They will live on Putnam Avenue.

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy is about to receive posthumous praise from the late, great Ernest Hemingway.

The 1961 inaugral committee will shortly present the Chief Executive with two leather-bound volumes containing flattering sentiments penned to him by most of the 168 artists, writers and scientists who received invitations to his inauguration last January.

One of these is a charming Hemingway contribution, which was laboriously written in almost illegible scrawl from his hospital bed at Mayo Clinic this spring.

Papa Hemingway had seemed as excited as a starlet with his presidential invitation, even though illness prevented him from attending.

'LOOKED TOUGH'

To Kay Halle, chairman of the committee to invite top awards winners in the creative arts, sciences and humanities, the bewhiskered novelist wrote, after watching the inauguration on television:

"Our impression was how tough it looked in the snow, and that if the president could do all of that bareheaded in the snow, he could stand any heat that ever came; of how truly beautiful Mrs. Kennedy looked; and how deeply we were moved by the inaugural speech."

In a subsequent letter to Kay from Mayo's he wrote: "I'm feeling better, but not too good today. I'm fighting this other thing out on a day-to-day basis."

Indicating that he had a major literary work in the mill at the time of his death, the famed author confided that he was "waiting for some air mail reference books to check on my work that I am two months behind on."

The ailing author and big game hunter sent a page-long tribute to be included in the President's inaugural album but had trouble fulfilling Kay's request for a snapshot to accompany the sketch.

After declaring that Mary (his wife) had not been able to find one, he teasingly added that he was substituting a picture of "my best cat, Cristabel."

'JUST TO COMPLY'

"I wangled it out of her just to comply," he continued, "although it's not how cats should behave."

The snapshot showed "Papa" Hemingway at his typewriter looking at a cat on the table.

Kay Halle, the remarkable author - commentator - music critic who conceived and masterminded the artists project for the inaugural, held constant open house at her Georgetown house that snowy week, so that the distinguished honor guests could come by to sign the album for their presidential host.

Each of the brilliant Americans was asked to contribute a page, and Dickinson W. Richards, who won the Nobel Prize in the field of medicine, wrote his in Greek —Plato's description of a statesman.

William Schockley, Nobel Prize-winning inventor of the transistor, used part of his allotted space to produce a detailed drawing of a transistor.

Thornton Wilder contributed favorite excerpts from "The Skin of Our Teeth," and Tennessee Williams wrote seven lines from his plays.

The thing that most impressed Kay about the learned celebrities was their amusement and gratitude at being asked to a presidential inaugural.

John Steinbeck wrote that he was so astonished he was "quite willing to mush it to every event if necessary."

Playwright Arthur (Death of a Salesman) Miller confessed that his greatest ambition was "to meet the President."

HUBBY GETS GENEROUS

A Nobel Prize-winning physicist telegraphed that although his wife had never before owned a formal dress, "I'm going to buy her one for this."

Says Miss Halle of her memorable experience:

"For the first time, artists and scientists now seem to feel that an umbilical cord connects them with the government. They call me long distance and say, 'I wish you'd tell the President . . . ' They write me about cultural ideas for the country."

In one way or another, she adds, all of them have expressed this sentiment:

"We couldn't believe that this could happen to us." They also find it hard to believe that death came to Papa Hemingway.

Nixon to Meet Heads of California GOP

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon plans to meet with California Republican leaders here Tuesday to discuss party strategy in the state.

He has said the conference would not consider the possibility of his candidacy or the candidacy of others. Nixon, mentioned as a possible gubernatorial candidate, repeatedly has said he does not plan to seek state office.

Nixon said last week the group would discuss state reapportionment, fund raising and other party activities.

Mike Loses 1-Up Decision in State Amateur After Leading by 4 Holes

Johnson's Rally on Back Nine Too Much for Andonian

By BILL CORNWELL

JACKSON — "Somebody congratulated me after nine holes and I replied that it was still too early, anything could happen in match play and I hadn't won it yet."

So said Pontiac's Mike Andonian after his heartbreaking 1-up loss to Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile in the finals of the Michigan Amateur Golf Championship Sunday afternoon at the Country Club of Jackson.

Andonian will probably never be a better prophet of his own undoing.

The 35-year-old Pontiac Central High School math teacher held an apparently insurmountable four-hole bulge over Johnson at the turn in their scheduled 18-hole match play final.

Then Johnson staged a furious and equally brilliant rally to nip Andonian at the wire and win his 5th State Amateur crown, a number exceeded only by Chuck Kocsis who has won the title six times.

Johnson, 38-year-old insurance salesman, won five holes in a six-hole stretch on the back nine to gain his 1-up advantage, then fought off Mike's excellent putting for halves the rest of the way to close out the match on the 18th green.

A tremendous 100-yard wedge shot from the rough and over trees that stopped one foot from the cup on the difficult par four 15th hole provided Johnson with his 1-up margin and he never relinquished the lead.

Johnson's great comeback ruined Andonian's bid to become the city of Pontiac's 2nd Michigan Amateur champion. Lloyd Syron of this city won the State Amateur title in 1957 at Charlevoix.

Andonian defeated Dave Cameron, Sam Kocsis, Cal Cooke, Jack Zinn and C. A. Smith III on his way to the finals. Johnson disposed of Rich Weyand, Art Olfs Jr., Pete Sarvis, Gene Eyler and Buddy Budger to reach the final round.

Andonian capitalized on some faulty putting by Smith, a Michigan State varsity golfer, plus some good putting of his own to earn a 2-1 victory in Sunday morning's semifinals. Smith, a native of Jackson, was a popular tourney favorite.

Johnson also took advantage of shaky putting by Badger to win his semifinal duel. Badger, former Bloomfield Hills High School links star and a member of the MSU varsity last spring, missed a two-foot putt on the 1st extra hole to hand Johnson a 1-up triumph.

Andonian started with a rush for a quick 2-up lead. He sank a 25-foot putt for a birdie three on the 1st hole, then canned a seven-footer for a birdie four on the 2nd and Johnson was 2 down.

A six-footer for a par four gave Andonian a 3-hole edge at No. 7 as Johnson chipped poorly and missed a 15-footer to take a bogey. Then Andonian upped his lead to four holes on the 8th by dropping a 15-footer for a birdie three.

After playing 31 consecutive holes without hitting a trap, Andonian visited three bunkers on the back side and lost the hole on two occasions.

He was trapped at No. 10 and Johnson won the hole with a par three. Andonian's tee shot strayed to the left at No. 11, wound up under a fir tree and Mike fanned the shot left-handed with his 1-iron before getting the ball back into play and Johnson won that hole with a routine par five.

Johnson cut Andonian's lead to one at No. 13 where he knocked his iron shot within three feet of the cup for a birdie three and then evened the match at No. 14 with a par four when Andonian hit another bunker.

Then Johnson uncorked his spectacular shot to the well-trapped 15th green and tapped in his one-foot putt for a birdie three to take the lead and Andonian couldn't recover from the deficit.

Andonian, who putted exceptionally well against Johnson, faced a pressure-charged putt on the 17th. He had to sink a 15-footer to stay alive after finding his 3rd bunker and he calmly rapped it home to send the match to the 18th tee.

He holed a 12-footer for a par five on the 18th to keep his hopes alive, but Johnson sank a two-footer for his par to halve the hole and wrap up his 5th championship.

Johnson was one under par for the match while Andonian stood even.

This was Andonian's 3rd and best effort to become the champ of the state's amateurs.

He lost to Ed Ervasti in the 1955 quarter-finals at this same Jackson C. C. course and failed to qualify for match play in the 1940 event at Black River.

A great attempt by Andonian went awry against a magnnificent competitor and Glenn Johnson is the king of Michigan's amateurs again.

Redlegs Push Dodgers Down; Orioles Start Upward Move

By United Press International

Back in spring training there was some doubt whether Joey Jay and Frank Robinson would be around by All-Star time, but largely because of them the Cincinnati Reds are leading the National League by five games today at the mid-season layoff.

Jay and Robinson gave further evidence that their selection to the All-Star squad was justified by pacing the Reds to their third victory in their four-game showdown series with the Los Angeles Dodgers Sunday. The 6-4, 225-pound Jay pitched his 12th triumph of the season and Robinson collected four hits, including a pair of home runs, to give Cincinnati a 14-3 win.

It was the first complete-game victory against the Dodgers in 16 lifetime starts for Jay, who had never lived up to his promise in three previous years with Milwaukee.

Robinson, who became involved in a gun-toting incident during the off season and got off with a $250 fine, may have been sobered by the scrape. He's in line for the triple crown with a .328 batting average (5th in the league), 23 home runs (tied for 2nd), and 70 RBI's (2nd).

Meanwhile, Detroit's position atop the American League was rather shaky. Only a half game separated the Tigers and the New York Yankees while the third place Baltimore Orioles are coming strong.

The Tigers regained the top rung by sweeping a doubleheader from the Los Angeles Angels, 1-0 and 6-3, while New York split a twin bill with Boston, winning the opener 3-0 on rookie Roland Sheldon's five-hitter and losing the nightcap, 9-6.

In other American League games, the Chicago White Sox won two from Cleveland, 7-5 and 9-8; Baltimore beat Kansas City, 8-0, and Minnesota trounced Washington, 7-1.

Pittsburgh downed Milwaukee, 5-4; the Chicago Cubs ran their winning streak to five straight by defeating Philadelphia twice, 9-8 and 8-5; and San Francisco downed St. Louis, 6-1, after losing the opener, 6-3, in other National League contests.

Jay, who won only 22 games the past three seasons, became the first NL hurler to win 12. He has lost four. Charley Neal's two-run homer and a solo homer by John Roseboro accounted for the Dodger runs.

Robinson knocked in seven runs, the final three coming on a bases loaded double in the ninth inning. Robinson also was hit by reliever Don Drysdale, who was ejected from the game.

Sheldon, up from Class D ball, struck out seven in registering his second shutout in a row. Roger Maris hit his 33rd homer for the Yankees, leaving him 13 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record at the All-Star break. Carl Yastrzemski went 4-for-5 in leading the Red Sox' 13-hit attack on five Yankee hurlers in the second game.

Steve Barber's fourth shutout of the season gave the Orioles their 16th victory in the last 20 games and put them seven games back of the league-leaders.

Sherm Lollar's pinch grand slam home run enabled the White Sox to win the opener over the skidding Indians and Turk Lown put out the fire in the nightcap to preserve a victory after Willie Kirkland hit three consecutive home runs for Cleveland.

Camilo Pascual's five-hit hurling gave the twins their first success at Griffith Stadium this year. Earl Battey hit two homers and Ted Lepcio connected once for Minnesota's first victory in the last five games with Washington.

Walt Moryn's two homers led Pittsburgh to its third straight over the Braves and kept the world champions in third place.

The Cubs stopped a Phillie uprising by using four pitchers in the eighth inning of the opener, earning Glen Hobbie his seventh win. The hitting of Billy Williams and Ed Bouchee led the Cubs in the nightcap, called after eight innings because of darkness.

Two-run homers by Ken Boyer and Carl Sawatski of the Cards dealt the Giants their sixth loss in a row in the first game, but Jack Sanford, with help from Sam Jones, four-hit St. Louis in the second game. Orlando Cepeda hit a homer in each game for the Giants.

SLUMPING TIGER—Detroit Tiger third baseman Steve Boros of Flint slumps to the ground in the second inning after the first game yesterday after being struck on the head by a pitched ball thrown by Los Angeles pitcher Eli Grba not shown in photo). Boros was removed to a hospital for Xrays. Earl Averill is the catcher and the umpire is Frank Umont. The Xrays showed no fracture.

Lary, Bunning Hurl Victories in Doubleheader

Boros Felled by Grba in Opening Contest; Team Takes Rest

DETROIT (AP) — Those Detroit Tigers are back in first place, and Manager Bob Scheffing says it couldn't happen to a more deserving bunch of people.

A doubleheader sweep over the Los Angeles Angels Sunday 3-0 and 6-3, while the New York Yankees were splitting with Boston shoved Detroit back in first by one percentage point.

Now comes the All-Star Game break, and the Tigers will be idle until Friday night.

"We need the rest," said the manager. "Our pitchers are tired and I know the other guys are, too. They won't admit it, but some of them are pretty beat. Maybe a few days off will enable us to get a little of our bounce back."

The Tigers didn't have much bounce in the four-game series against the Angels. Their hitters produced only 12 runs and 30 hits —and only two of the hits were the long-distance kind.

But the fielding was sharp and the pitching was excellent. The Tigers committed only one error in the four games and their pitchers yielded only eight walks in 36 innings while striking out 37 batters.

Frank Lary and Jim Bunning combined for the Sunday sweep before 36,495, although Bunning tired in the ninth inning of the second game and needed Hank Aguirre to get the last two outs and preserve his ninth victory.

The first game victory might have been a costly one, since the felling of rookie third baseman Steve Boros by one of Eli Grba's pitches led to the only score of the game.

Boros was struck in the head by one of Grba's fast balls in the second inning, and the hit batsman advanced Norm Cash, who had opened the inning with a walk, Mike Roarke scored Cash with a single.

Boros spun and fell in a heap near the plate. He lay motionless for nearly a minute and was removed from the field on a stretcher. He said later he did not lose consciousness and X-rays were negative. Doctors decided to keep him in the hospital overnight.

"It's the first time I've ever been hit in the head," said Boros, "and the first time by a fast ball. I didn't even see this one."

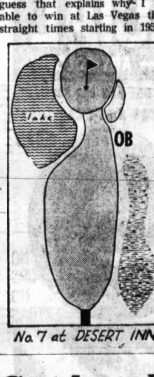
'My Most Memorable 18 Holes'

Las Vegas a Happy Memory for Littler

MY MOST MEMORABLE 18 GOLF HOLES
Fourth of a Series
By GENE LITTLER
U.S. Open Golf Champion

Naturally, any account of my most memorable golf holes would include my experiences in the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions. There's an old saying that it's better to be lucky than good, and I guess that explains why I was able to win at Las Vegas three straight times starting in 1955.



No. 7 at DESERT INN

Las Vegas is a make-believe town but I like it because the money is real. I won three $10,000 pots and had the fun of making a golf nut out of Frankie Laine, the singer. He bought me every year in the Calcutta until the auction was disbanded and I sometimes wished I had his confidence.

When Frankie paid $15,000 for me in 1957, when I hadn't won a tournament in a year, I thought of a story told by Joe E. Lewis. "We get absolutely the finest of everything in Las Vegas," said Joe. "Our shrimp are flown in from New Orleans, our lobsters are flown in from Maine—and our suckers are flown in from all over."

Incidentally, I never worried about the influence of gambling in Las Vegas. The Calcutta had no bearing on how I played in the tournament. As far as I'm concerned, it's just another tournament. But it's a good one, and I like it.

It figures, I suppose, that one of the most challenging holes at the Desert Inn Country Club course is No. 7. It's a par three, 230 yards, and usually requires a wood shot. I think it's a tough hole because there's a lake to the left and out of bounds to the right. The wind sometimes blows between 40 and 50 miles per hour.

It's a memorable hole to me because it was the deciding factor in my first victory at Las Vegas in 1955. I had two birdies and two pars on the hole in four rounds. Nobody else played within five strokes of that figure on No. 7.

I also won the 1957 Tournament of Champions at the seventh when I sank at 14-foot putt for a bogey. Cary Middlecoff was trailing me by three shots at the time. He hit a great shot 12 from the pin and it looked as though he made a two while I was taking a five. Then we'd be even. But he missed his putt, I made mine, and he gained only one shot. I won the tournament by three strokes.

Another important hole to me is the 17th at Hot Springs, Ark. It was there I won the 1950 Hot Springs Open after going neck-and-neck with Jim Ferree to the 71st hole. This is a par three 150 yards, with traps in front and to the right of the green.

Ferree and I were playing together and I hit first at 17. I knocked a 7-iron shot just 15 inches from the pin and that put the heat on Jim. He pushed his ball to the right of the green and made a bogey. My birdie deuce won the tournament.

That shot was the difference because Ferree birdied the last hole and I took a par. I had won by a stroke and that was good enough for me. It was a beautiful day and I thought of a friend in San Diego who was asked if it's true that the sun shines 365 days a year in California. "Yes," he said, "and even that's a mighty conservative estimate."

No. 17 at HOT SPRINGS

City Loop Hurlers Sharp

The pitchers had their day in city adult baseball Sunday at Jaycee Park.

Joy Boy stretched its scoreless inning string to 25 with a 13-0 conquest of Oxford Merchants as Larry Demrick pitched a three-hitter.

Marv Caswell tossed a five-inning one hit victory for Pontiac Merchants over Don Nicholie, 10-0.

While the pitching was good in Class A-B, the hitters stole the spotlight in Class D boys action.

Demrick was just about the whole show for the Jets. In addition to his sharp pitching, he fanned nine and walked two, he drilled two home runs for six RBI. He slammed three-run homers in the third and seventh inning.

The only Nicholie hit off Caswell came in the fourth inning. It was a single by Dick Slade. The Pontiac hurler struckout nine and walked two.

John Uecadam blasted a two-run homer to start the scoring for the winners in the first inning.

A grand-slam home run by Lynn Johnson couldn't keep his Northside Dodgers from losing a Class D game to Lake Orion, 14-9. Six errors contributed to the losers downfall.

Bulman's Hardware must have set some kind of a "D" record by scoring 17 runs in the first inning. Bruce Secondar blasted a bases-loaded homer in the big inning. Jim Pittman ended the scoring with a three-run circuit clout in the fourth as Bulman's won over Nelson Rockets, 20-3.

Mathews in Lineup for Nationals

Frisco Fans Await AL All Stars

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The National League was cheered today by the news that Eddie Mathews, Milwaukee's hard hitting third baseman, would be available for duty against the American League in Tuesday's 30th All-Star Game, second in California and first in San Francisco.

It was feared that Mathews, the senior circuit's premier southpaw slugger, might be forced to pass up the spectacle because of a knee injury sustained in a collision with Los Angeles' Daryl Spencer last week. The big Californian, however, returned to the Braves' lineup Sunday and assured NL Manager Danny Murtagh he would be ready when the game gets under way at 3 p.m. EST Tuesday.

The loss of Mathews would be a damaging blow to the National League. Of the four left-handed hitters in the home team's lineup, Mathews is the most likely to slam one over the fence in right field, a favorite target of the hitters because of the almost constant wind that blows toward that sector. His 20 home runs are more than the combined total of southpaw swingers Bill White, Smoky Burgess and Maury Wills. The latter is actually a switch hitter.

A capacity crowd of more than 42,000 was expected to attend the first of this year's two All-Star Games, which will be televised nationally. The second game will be played July 31 in Boston. It was virtually a certainty that the two-game system, initiated in 1958, will be continued through next year, at least. The players voted unanimously in favor of playing two games again in 1962. A majority of the club owners are opposed to two games but it was believed they will approve the players' request.

San Franciscans anxiously were awaiting their first look at the American League sluggers, especially Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, the New York Yankees' home run twins. Between them the two M's have walloped 62 home runs.

It is mainly because of home runs by Maris (33), Mantle (29), and Detroit's Rocky Colavito (22) and Norm Cash (24), and the virtual certainty that Whitey Ford, New York's brilliant southpaw, will pitch the first three innings, that the odds-makers have established the American League a 6 to 5 favorite. The AL was soundly beaten in both games last year and lost nine of the last 13 although it holds an overall 16-13 edge.

Maris, Cash, Yankee shortstop Tony Kubek and the switch-hitting Mantle, will bat from the left side of the plate. Consequently, it is believed that Murtaugh might open with southpaw Sandy Koufax, who has won 11 of 16 for the Dodgers. Ford won his 10th straight Saturday and owns a phenomenal 16-2 record.

Murtaugh can turn to two other left-handed starters, Mike McCormick of the Giants or Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's amazing 40-year-old, who has appeared in six previous games. It is highly possible he might surprise by starting Joe Jay, who registered his 12th victory for Cincinnati Sunday.

Paul Richards, the AL manager, announced his batting order which had Mantle batting third and Maris fourth, reversing their normal batting sequence. Murtaugh said he would announce his batting order today.

The AL starting lineup is:

Johnny Temple, Cleveland, 2B; Cash, 1B; Mantle, CF; Maris, RF; Colavito, LF; Kube, SS; John Romano, Cleveland, C; Brooks Robinson, Baltimore, 3B.

150 Golfers Bid for '64 Positions in Match Play

Verne Callison Defends His Title in National Event at Rackham

The 36th U.S. Amateur Public Links Golf Championship, sponsored by the United States Golf Association, began its six-day run today at Rackham Municipal Golf Club in Royal Oak.

A total of 150 public course players, 17 from Michigan, began two days of qualifying for match play at 8 o'clock this morning over the 6,538-yard Rackham links where par is 35-35—70.

Mike Andonian and Wally Smith of Pontiac led the Michigan delegation into the 36-hole qualifying rounds for 64 match play positions.

Eighteen holes of qualifying are slated today and another 18 Tuesday with match play beginning Wednesday and running through Saturday.

Defending champion is Verne Callison, 42-year-old tavern owner from Sacramento, Calif., who beat East Lansing's Ty Caplin a year ago at Ala Wai Golf Club in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Callison is not exempt from qualifying, however, and he will have to fight his way into match play just like everyone else.

Caplin, now a private in the army and stationed at Seaside, Calif., will not compete this year. Caplin was unable to get the necessary expense money from the California publinx organization to make the trip to Rackham.

Andonian, who lost a heartbreaking 1-up decision to Glenn Johnson Sunday in the finals of the State Amateur tourney at Jackson Country Club, left the 1st tee at 8:08 a.m. today for his first 18-hole qualifying session.

Andonian went to the semifinals of last year's national public links event before bowing to Callison. Andonian, along with Hazel Park's Sam Lima, has now qualified for the USGA publinx event seven times, more than any other Michigan player.

This marks the 2nd time that Rackham has been host to the U.S. Publinx. Rackham was host in 1940 when Robert Clark defeated former Indianwood pro Mike Dietz.

Two other past national public links champions are in the field—Bill Wright of Seattle (1959) and Stan Bielat of Yonkers, N.Y. (1950).

Double 18-hole matches are scheduled Wednesday and Thursday. Semifinals are carded Friday and Saturday over 35-hole routes.

New Face in First Win

Jim Gresley of Battle Creek took the feature at Dixie Motor Speedway yesterday in his first visit to the track.

He beat out Dan Bryant of Fenton and Wayne Landon of Hastings.

Other heat winners were Don Irish of Pontaic and Norm Rust of Walled Lake.

Bill Deninger of Durand bucked his car after hitting a concrete wall. He was not injured seriously.

Palmer Opens Bid for British Title

BIRKDALE, England (AP) — Arnold Palmer set out today to become the first American to win the British Open Golf Championship since Ben Hogan captured it in classic style at Carnoustie, Scotland, eight years ago.

The hard-hitting, easy-going Palmer, from Latrobe, Pa., battling South Africa's Gary Player for the money-winning title on the American circuit, admitted:

"This is a championship I want to win—sometime.

"But I'm not satisfied with my woods at the moment. All keyed to go? Well, I hope so."

Palmer, 1960 U.S. Open and Masters champion, has made a detailed analysis of the tricky holes on the 6,844-yard, par 72 royal Brikdale course that could rob him of the championship.

The sixth — a 468-yard affair set among the sand dunes and gorse bushes — is a tedious hole, Palmer said.

"You've got to be very careful. There's a cross bunker and you've got to lay off from the tee. The second is very exacting too. It's a blind shot because of the mounds blocking the green."

Palmer said the 418-yard ninth was another hole demanding very careful driving and the 517-yard 14th "calls for accurate shots the whole way because of the narrow fairway."

He listed the 510-yard 16th and 470-yard 18th as other holes demanding pinpoint accuracy.

Palmer, rated the 5-2 favorite, pointed out: "This is a flat seaside course with no hills and no trees. The lack of trees makes judging distance difficult. Anybody who overshoots the greens is going to be in trouble."

Fifteen Americans are entered. Palmer is the only one given a serious chance of winning the title which was first competed for 101 years ago. Player is the second choice.

NO DETOUR—Milwaukee's Frank Bolling is safe after he goes plowing into home plate forcing Pittsburgh catcher Smoky Burgess to drop Dick Groat's throw in their game at Milwaukee yesterday. The Pirates beat the Braves however, 4-3, to sweep the three game series.

DeBolt-Savage Reign Ended by Burgdorf and Chandler

The reign of Mrs. Zadah DeBolt and Stan Savage in the city's annual Mixed Two-Ball Foursome golf tournament came to an end Saturday at Pontiac Municipal golf course.

Savage and Mrs. DeBolt, gunning for their 4th straight Scotch Foursome crown, were dethroned by Pontiac's Joe Burgdorf and Phyllis Chandler, an active player in the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association.

Burgdorf and Miss Chandler alternated their shots well enough to post an eight-over-par 77 over the par 34-35—69 city layout for a one-stroke victory margin over the defending champs.

Burgdorf and Miss Chandler carded a 37 on the north nine and 40 on the south side.

Savage and Mrs. DeBolt, five-time women's city medal play champ, shot 40-38-78 to take runnerup honors. Two husband-and-wife teams, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wright, tied for 3rd place at 79.

Thirty-four teams competed in the 18-hole tourney, the largest entry in the history of the event.

Ideal weather conditions prevailed.

Burgdorf's comment summed up the Saturday event:

"This course is in the finest condition ever and it sure was nice to see so many younger players participating."

The annual women's medal play tourney on Saturday, July 22, is the next event on the city golf calendar. Mrs. Edith Wright is defending champ.

Women's Closed State Amateur Begins Today

The 45th annual Women's Michigan Closed Amateur Golf Championship got under way this morning at Knollwood Country Club. Defending champ is Mrs. Keith LeClair of Ann Arbor.

More than 100 entries were promised for the tournament, which is restricted to members of private country clubs. The event ends Friday at Knollwood.

Eighteen-hole qualifying rounds for flights were slated today. The low 16 shooters enter the championship fight for match play starting Tuesday. Single 18-hole matches are scheduled Tuesday through Thursday with the championship match set for the 36-hole distance Friday.

Among Mrs. LeClair's top contenders for the women's State Amateur title are Sally Sharp of Forest Lake, Mrs. John Hume of Essex and Mrs. E. L. Goddard of Indianwood.

Long Pitches One-Hitter

A one-hitter and a two-hitter highlighter city softball action Sunday at Beaudette and Northside Parks.

Ralph Long tossed the one hit effort as Howe's Lane downed Hur-on Bowl 11-1 in a National League contest.

Hi-Way Collision downed Smith Silo 1-0 in a pitchers battle in the American League. An International League game and 200 Lounge top Langdon's Boat Livery 5-4, CIO whipped Police 10-5 in the National.

The only blow off Long was a second inning double by Bob Erickson. Seven walks marred his effort. Denny Diehm, Earl McKee and Red Treais each got two hits for the winners.

A double by Charels Nichols chased in the lone run of the Smith and Hi-Way game. Doug Hall of the winners and R. D. Jacobs both allowed only two hits.

Singles by Ted Wharry and Bob Johnson, an error and two passed balls scored the tying and winning runs for 300 Lounge. Johnson was the winning pitcher in relief.

A two-run homer by Dave Simmons was the big blow in CIO's win over Police. Dennis McDonald had three safeties for the winners. Bill Ryan was on the mound for CIO.

Has Neat Plan to Gain Presidential Bid

Rocky's Ready for Next Big Race

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Among the three front runners for the next Republican presidential nomination, the man with the plan is Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

The governor's political plan is as neat as a bride's hope chest. His strategy is fixed for 1961, 1962 and 1964.

Not as much nor even close can be said for the political strategies of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater.

This situation favors Rockefeller with considerable advantage as of now in the race for the 1964 presidential nomination.

ADVANTAGE AT HOME

Rockefeller's advantage, however, lies more at home than abroad; at home being New York City and state, abroad being most of the other states of the Union.

The governor's 1961 program is to do what he can to foster troubles now afflicting the Democratic party in New York City. Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner will seek re-election this autumn.

His administration has been marred by numerous scandals of varying degree.

The mayor and Tammany boss Carmine G. De Sapio are feuding. Their feud is one among many within the city's Democratic organization.

Wagner's re-election effort evidently will be challenged in the Democratic primary. All this adds up to serious trouble for the ruling party in New York City.

It adds also to a promising situation for Rockefeller whose plan for 1962 is to be re-elected governor of the State of New York.

'INCALCULABLE WASTE'

Among the governor's recent contributions to the troubles of New York City Democrats was a report by the State Investigation Commission on the city's school-building program.

The commission said on June 30 that there had been "incalculable waste of the taxpayers' funds." More specifically, the commission alleged corruption, inefficiency and incompetence against the Wagner administration's school-building operatives.

On the plus side for Wagner, the splinter group liberal party has endorsed his re-election candidacy.

And there always is a chance, of course, that he will escape a primary challenge.

The situation favors Rockefeller, however, with the possibility that a Republican might be mayor of New York City in 1964 when phase three of the Rockefeller strategy takes over.

Phase three is to obtain Rockefeller's nomination for president. To bring that off, Rockefeller must get some breaks abroad. That is where Nixon or, perhaps Goldwater, must and may stop him.

They could stop him in combination more readily than singly and in opposition to each other. It might work out that way. A Nixon-Goldwater combination would be formidable.

PLAYING BY EAR

Meantime, both Nixon and Goldwater seem to be playing it by ear. Goldwater is the flashiest, most sought-after performer on the Republican roster.

Many persons regard him as the most exciting personality in U.S. politics. But, where does he go from there?

Nixon is better known and also considerably sought. But he lacks a forum. He might get a good one by defeating California's Democratic Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown for governor. The election is next year.

Post Office Reports Mail Figures

In, Up; Out, Down for 1960-61

The Pontiac Post Office handled more than four million more incoming letters and nearly a million fewer outgoing letters during the 1960-61 fiscal year than it did the preceding fiscal year, it was announced today.

A similar trend in volume of small packages and large envelopes was also noted in the report issued by Postmaster William W. Donaldson.

In contrast, outgoing parcel post volume increased while incoming volume was lower than in the 1959-60 fiscal year.

Postal employes at the main post office on W. Huron Street handled a total of 76,126,644 pieces of mail in the year ending June 30.

"This represents an 8.27 per cent increase over the 70,313,608 pieces handled here a year ago," said Donaldson.

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS

There were 24,987,417 outgoing letters handled here last year while 25,964,537 passed through the post office the previous year. Incoming letters were up to 36,945,453. The 1959-60 total was 36,600,225.

Large envelopes, rolls and small packages numbered 1,723,367 outgoing and 10,817,138 incoming last year. The totals a year ago were 1,794,770 outgoing and 8,459,165 incoming.

Donaldson said that economic conditions were probably the reason for less outgoing mail. "When business is good, the volume is high, when it is bad, volume declines."

The office handled 697,160 outgoing parcel post items a year ago and 867,267 in the year just concluded.

Incoming parcel post items were down from 797,751 to 786,022.

Daily News Sales Rise

NEW YORK (AP)—Daily sales of newspapers in the United States rose to more than 60 million copies in the year ending March 31. Gains were registered by both morning and evening newspapers.

Twenty five per cent of the families buying soft drinks now buy them in cans — an increase of thirty nine per cent in the past 3 years. Soft drink manufacturers reach their customers through their newspaper advertisements they placed $9.8 million worth last year.

Liz Taylor Pays Tribute to Ones Who Saved Life

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —Elizabeth Taylor was to fly to London today for her first visit since she fought death there in March, paid tribute Saturday night in one of her most moving performances to the British doctors and nurses who saved her life.

The flight was delayed at least 24 hours because "she wasn't feeling well."

Speaking of her recent fight with death, she said:

"There was an awareness of the hands, insistently manipulating my body as if to force it to respond . . . and then—the voices . . . some pleaded with me, some shouted—to cough, to move, to breathe—to live."

So did the raven-haired actress describe her struggle for life and the long, painful hours of semi-consciousness before an audience of 1,000 celebrities at a hospital fund-raising dinner.

The sponsors of the dinner, Cedars of Lebanon and Mt. Sinai hospitals, honored Miss Taylor at the $2,500-a-plate affair as "a symbol of the miracle of modern medicine" because her life was saved by a throat operation at the London Clinic, where she was hospitalized with pneumonia.

"Dying, as I remember it," recounted Miss Taylor in a soft voice, "is many things—but most of all, it is wanting to live.

"Throughout those many, many critical hours in the operating theater of the London Clinic, this wanting to live was so strong within me—so overpowering — so all-consuming — that I remember it, strangely perhaps, as if my whole physical being was strained to the point of torture by this insistence upon life—to the last ounce of my strength, to the last gasp of my breath. The blackness grew blacker and deeper.

"Then it happened. When I say 'then,' I do not know how long—or when—it was. First there was an awareness of the hands, insistently manipulating my body as if to force it to respond . . . and then—the voices . . . .

"I coughed. I moved. I breathed. And I lived."

HEADED FOR MOSCOW—Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor wave as they board a jet at Los Angeles en route to the Moscow Film Festival via New York. They are to attend the festival at the request of the U.S. State Department. But "not feeling well," the actress has delayed the last lap of their flight, via London, at least 24 hours. The actress' vivid and dramatic story of her fight against pneumonia last March helped raise nearly $7 million at a Beverly Hills hospital benefit show Saturday night.

Vet Dislodges Ball in Throat

Sick Elephant Is Better

DETROIT (AP)—Kita, the baby elephant who swallowed an admirer's rubber ball and became ill, continued to show improvement today.

The half-ton baby was given two gallons of a mixture of oatmeal, brown sugar, honey and liver protein Sunday.

It was her first food since Kita swallowed a ball that rolled into her pen at the Belle Isle Children's Zoo Thursday.

The ball lodged in her throat and zoo officials feard for her life. Dr. William K. Appelhof, Detroit zoo veterinarian, finally managed to poke the ball past her throat into her stomach Saturday.

But Kita, who came here a year ago, refused to swallow because of a raw, swollen throat. Attendants hosed down her throat with ice water in an effort to reduce the swelling and keep her from dehydrating, then she was force fed.

GETS PLAYFUL

"After we finished the forced feeding," Appelhof said, "She galloped playfully back to her quarters, almost getting away from one of her keepers.

"Back in her den she went into Kita's dance," he added.

In this little dance, Kita bounces on first one foot, then the other, swinging her trunk back and forth.

This trunk swinging is a habit of Kita's which proved mighty troublesome when Appelhof was trying to work on her throat. She interfered considerably with his efforts by playfully swinging her trunk.

Speaking of her dancing, Appelhof said, "She can't feel too awfully bad when she does that."

Says Author Was Chipper

Wife Sure Hemingway Death Accident Owing to His High Spirits

KETCHUM, Idaho (AP) — Ernest Hemingway's widow said the Nobel Prize-winning author was in such good spirits before his death that she feels "quite certain that this, in some incredible way, was an accident."

She also told newsmen in a special interview Saturday, that he did indeed have several works not yet published—a novel cached in a Cuban bank, another manuscript in a bank at Hailey, Idaho, which he was going to work on this week, and some poems.

NO SURE ANSWER

Hemingway, 61, died of a shotgun blast in his head July 2, at his mountain home retreat near this southern Idaho Community.

The coroner said it was self-inflicted but maintained that no body could ever know for sure whether it was accidental or on purpose.

In a copyrighted story in the Minneapolis Tribune Sunday, Professors Leslie Fiedler and Seymour Betsky of Montana State University were quoted as saying after a visit with Hemingway last November that the author "was very, very depressed" and "quite unsure of himself and quite unsure he had written anything worth anything."

"He was just in desperate nervous shape," they said. "The man we saw was something of a ghost."

MacArthur Back on Panay Island, Last Stop on Tour

ILOILO CITY, the Philippines (AP)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, travelling this time in style, today returned to Panay Island in his tour of battlegrounds in the Philippines he made famous in World War II.

He was accorded a 19-gun salute as he stepped ashore from the presidential yacht, Lapu Lapu and cheered by thousands during his five-hour stay.

It was the last scheduled stop on his journey through the young Southeast Asian republic that reveres him as its liberator from the Japanese.

Dies in Heart Seizure

GARY, Ind. (AP)—Joel David Wolfsohn, 60, Washington, D.C., attorney and an assistant secretary of the interior under President Harry S. Truman, died Sunday of a heart attack.

Bars Questioning of Buffalo Suspect

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI)—A Supreme Court order has temporarily barred further questioning of the 15-year-old suspect in the kidnap-slaying of 3-year-old Andrew T. Ashley.

The order, signed Sunday by Supreme Court Justice William B. Lawless Jr., came minutes after Cheryl Jolls had been given a lie detector test at police headquarters. The order prevents police from questioning or visiting Cheryl at least until a petition for a permanent injunction is argued today.

Over 900 million books, with a sales value of $1.1 billion, were sold in 1960, U.S. book publishers, in order to whet the literary appetites of the reading public, invested $11.4 million in national newspaper advertising last year.

Key Stocks Up on Routine Day

NEW YORK (AP) — Aircrafts, steels and tobaccos helped carve out a moderate stock market advance in routine trading early this afternoon.

Key stocks rose from fractions to a point or better. A scattering of small losses put a brake on the averages.

Aircrafts made fairly substantial gains as they responded to renewed emphasis on defense, especially conventional bombers and fighters, in weekend reports from Russia and the United States.

Steels perked up as the big secondary issue of Bethlehem Steel was announced at 40, the stock edging slightly above that in New York Stock Exchange trading as the underwriters stabilized the price.

The steels were also helped by a report that a price boost is expected in early fall if business picks up. Estimates were that the summer lull in the industry would be shorter than expected.

Prospects of the 727,200-share offering of Bethlehem, accompanied by rumors that its dividend may be cut, helped send Bethlehem to a 2½-point loss last week.

The big stock distribution was snapped up quickly, however, and Bethlehem, along with U. S. Steel, Republic and Jones & Laughlin held fractional gains.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said the United States is taking another look at its defense program now that Russia intends to increase military spending. This also helped beef up defense stocks.

Boeing rose more than a point. Up about a point were Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Lockheed and North American Aviation. Martin Co., which emphasizes missiles, was off about a point.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. Mead Johnson picked up a couple of points.

Up a point or so were Aerojet-General, Gulf American Land Stelma and Gulf & Western Industries. Webb & Knapp was active but unchanged. Fairchild Camera and Beau Brummel lost about a point each.

Grain Futures Down at Start of Dealings

CHICAGO (AP) — Most grain futures backed down today at the start of dealings on the board of trade with soybeans off almost five cents on the July delivery.

Oats and rye were firm, however, on buying described largely as establishment of speculative long positions because of continued dry weather in the Northern Great Plains. They advanced major fractions to more than a cent in spots during the first several minutes.

Dealers said trade volume was rather heavy and included a substantial increase in hedge selling of wheat.

Missile-Alarm Fails to Leave Launch Pad

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP)—The United States' first attempt to launch a missile-alarm satellite into an orbit that would have taken it over the Soviet Union when the 98-foot projective failed to lift from its launching pad.

The launching of Midas III fizzled at 8:59 a.m.

Observers on a hilltop 10,000 feet away saw a great sheet of flame burst around the base of the projectile. This died out a second later and was followed by a huge puff of black smoke, indicating that ignition of the powerful 360,000-pound thrust rocket engine had failed.

A great plume of white smoke erupted from the nose of Midas III's first stage Atlas booster as technicians began purging it of highly explosive liquid oxygen, apparently in an effort to prevent a disaster.

APPARENTLY UNDAMAGED

It worked. As the smoke and fumes cleared away, the bird could be seen resting apparently undamaged on its seaside launching pad 150 miles north of Los Angeles.

If the launching had been successful, the 30-foot-long Midas satellite would have gotten its first look at Soviet territory in about three hours. The second stage of the projectile, all of which was designed to go into orbit, contains an infra-red eye to sense the heat from a missile's exhaust hundreds of miles below.

Eight minutes after the launching failed, the Air Force said the attempt had been cancelled for today and might be rescheduled for Tuesday.

This was the third straight instance of difficulty with the new sky-spy. Midas I, launched Feb. 26, 1960, failed to orbit. Midas II orbited May 24,1960, but its radio failed.

Four Injured in 2 Accidents

Three Hurt in Head-On Crash on Ortonville Rd.; 4th on the Dixie

Four persons injured in separate traffic accidents in Oakland County over the weekend were reported in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital.

Three of the victims were hurt in a two-car, head-on crash Sunday evening on Ortonville Road in Brandon Township.

Mrs. Ray S. Dixon, 43, of Detroit, suffered face and scalp cuts when her 74-year-old husband's car collided with another driven by Danny Skipper, 22, of Fling, near the Grange Hall Road intersection.

Dixon suffered a broken leg and Skipper, alone in his car, suffered cuts on his face and arms.

Neither driver has been able to make a statement, according to sheriff's deputies.

FOURTH VICTIM

The fourth weekend victim, Charles G. Earls Jr., 18, of 2355 Watkins Lake Road, Waterford Township, was admitted to the hospital for observation.

He suffered a possible head injury when his car collided with another at the Dixie Highway-Scott Lake Road intersection Saturday night.

A passenger in Earls' car, Linda J. Guerin, 17, of 3525 Baybrook Road, Waterford Township, was treated at the hospital for minor injuries and released.

Also treated and released was the driver of the other car, Darwin D. Morrison, 22, of Flint. He was alone in his car.

Both drivers told sheriff's deputies the traffic light was in their favor.

News in Brief

An intruder broke a window in the rear of the Arthur Marcum residence 2995 Voorheis Road Saturday night and slashed all the clothing in the closet with a razor blade, Waterford Township police said. The house was ransacked and there were bloody smears on the walls, furniture and kitchen stove.

Burglars made off with tools valued at $125 from Dicks Air Cooled Engines, 465 S. Saginaw St., it was reported to Pontiac police Saturday.

Burglars were unsuccessful in their attempt to open a safe at the H. H. Smith Fuel Oil, according to weekend Pontiac police reports. The intruders settled for $3 in change from a candy machine and $27 worth of stamps.

Thieves ransacked the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stratton at 8880 Oakside Road, Commerce Township, while they were away Saturday night and stole $255 in a small bank, the owners reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday.

A cigarette was believed to be the cause of a fire at 1 a.m. yesterday which caused $7,500 damage to a house and contents at 4967 Dixie Highway. A pedestrian discovered the blaze. No one was home at the time.

Dem Party Committee Meeting Tuesday at 8

A committee seeking new ways to interest more Oakland County Democrats in taking an active role in party activities will report at the party's county executive committee meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow at county headquarters on Water street.

The chairman for the 1961 congressional dinner, the party's top fund-raising event of the year, will be announced at the meeting.

Fourteen Die in Weekend State Traffic

By The Associated Press

Traffic mishaps took the lives of at least 14 persons in Michigan over the weekend as the height of the vacation season filled the highways with travelers.

But despite the thousands of weekenders and vactioners flocking to the state's many waterways, the drowning toll stood zero for the period.

Three Michigan men died in motorcycle collisions, including a Muskegon doctor.

The Associated Press weekend fatality count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday night.

Berlin Honors Airlift's 70 Dead

3 Allied Commandants Participate in Rites — East Reich Belligerent

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin, facing new Soviet threats to its freedom, took time out today to pay tribute to 70 Allied airmen who died keeping the city alive during the Communist blockade 13 years ago.

The three Allied commandants participated in a ceremony at the Allied Airlift Memorial a few steps from Templehof Airfield in the heart of the American Sector.

The ceremony is an annual one but it took on new significance this year with the Russians threatening to end Allied rights in the city by signing a peace treaty with Communist East Germany.

During the 11-month airlift, 31 American and 39 British fliers lost their lives.

The Communists marked the occasion by continuing their propaganda campaign against the city.

The East German newspaper Neues Deutschland said that West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's visit to West Berlin Wednesday would be his last "as a cold war apostle."

It said the next time he could return to the city it would have to be to negotiate with the East German Communist regime, which West Germany does not recognize.

Boy Faces Shots for Rabies Unless Mouse Is Found

A 9-year-old Avon Township boy will have to undergo a series of painful rabies shots if a mouse with a mangled tail is not found by today in the vicinity of the boy's home.

Jay Kasper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold J. Kasper of 1841 Carter St., was bitten on a finger of his right hand by the mouse when he removed it from a mouse trap in the basement Saturday.

The boy was taken to the Avon Medical Center where doctors advised that he start undergoing inoculations for rabies immediately if the mouse is not found and checked out to be nonrabid.

Whale Fails to 'Torpedo' Soviet Tanker

MOSCOW (UPI)—Moscow radio today said a whale tried to "torpedo" a Soviet tanker.

In a domestic broadcast, the radio said the tanker Ashkhabad was in the Southern Atlantic recently when it met a "huge sperm whale."

The whale first splashed the tanker from stem to stern with a gyser of water, the radio said.

"Diving suddenly under the water the sperm whale banged against the side of the ship.

"When it came up, everybody could see a deep wound on its head. Losing its strength, the animal sank in the water, and then a trace of blood appeared on the surface. Apparently the attempt to torpedo the tanker cost the sperm whale its life."

C. of C. Would Halt Huge U.S. Spending

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The council of state chambers of commerce has forecast that federal spending will hit $86 billion this year and pass $90 billion within two years unless Congress exercises "a greater sense of prudence."

To halt the trend, the council proposed reductions in President Kennedy's requests for foreign aid, atomic energy, public works, school aid, job retraining and civilian airports.

"In deciding the fate of these measures, the Congress still can moderate materially the final result of its budget action," the council said in a report to its 30 state organizations.

Upholds Safety of His Exchange

President McCormick of American Trading Says Public Protected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edward T. McCormick, president of the American Stock Exchange, told Congress today he "will stack the honesty and efficiency" of that exchanging technicians against those anywhere in the country.

In his most extensive public statement since the Securities and Exchange Commission expelled two exchange members for wrongdoing and initiated a broad investigation of the exchange, McCormick said:

"We believe that our present rules are adequate to provide proper protection to the public and they are now and will be effectively enforced."

A former SEC commissioner, McCormack testified before a House Commerce subcommittee considering legislation to authorize a $750,000 SEC investigation of all stock trading both on exchanges and over-the-counter.

Rep. Peter F. Mack Jr., D-Ill., the subcommittee chairman, introduced the measure after the SEC on May 4 expelled from the American Exchange two prominent specialists, Jerry and Gerard Re, who were held responsible for large scale market rigging and illegal stock sales totaling nearly $10 million.

Linda Armstrong Winner in Long Fourth Festival

A 13-year-old pianist is the grand prize winner in the Northside Community Club's week-long Fourth of July celebration.

Linda Armstrong, 2385 Oaknoll Road, Pontiac Township, won the big trophy after runoffs ended the celebration yesterday at Oakland Park.

Runners-up were Kathy Gagel, pantomimist, and an act billed as "Don Moore and His Sister," accordion players.

Runoffs followed the appearance of 28 entries in the contest Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Sanatorium Has Homecoming

300 Ex-Patients and Their Families Attend Event at TB Hospital

About 300 persons attended the 13th annual homecoming activities on the grounds of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium in Waterford Township yesterday.

Former patients and their families enjoyed refreshments and entertainment, witnessed the crowning of a royal court and viewed a large display of handiwork by patients of the sanatorium.

Members of the medical staff and Joe Haas, a director of the sanatorium, were introduced during a brief program.

Professional entertainment was provided by the American Guild of Variety Artists, Amateur groups from the Pontiac area included the Thunderbird Drill Team, the Rae-Vens Color Guard, the Jackie Rae Dancers and the Binienda Trio.

The four patients in the royal court were Robert Miller, king; Rayma Barrett, queen; Herbert Hall, prince; and Lucille Webster, princess.

On display were such items as leatherwork, rugs, ceramics and copperwork.

Traffic Accidents in City Drop 26 From May Figure

There were 200 traffic accidents in Pontiac during June, a drop from 226 the previous month, according to the Pontiac Police Department's month-end report.

There were no fatalities in June.

Through June of this year, the traffic death toll for 1961 stood at five persons, the same number for the corresponding period a year ago.

In 60 of the accidents persons were injured, while the remaining 140 involved property damage only.

The report showed 96 persons injured in traffic mishaps in June, down from 108 in May.

Through June accidents this year totaled 1,249 down from 1,404 for the same period last year.

Virginia Dems in Family Feud

Sen. Byrd's Candidates Seem to Have Lead for Tuesday Primary

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The hardest fought Democratic primary battle in a dozen years winds up in Virginia Tuesday with the durable political organization of Sen. Harry F. Byrd challenged for the state's three top offices.

An estimated 400,000 voters will decide the outcome of the bitter Democratic family feud by nominating party candidates for governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general.

Consensus of the political pulse takers is that the organization candidate for governor, former attorney general Albertis S. Harrison Jr., has a comfortable lead over A. E. S. Stephens, the present lieutenant governor who broke ties recently with the Byrd forces.

And it is the race for lieutenant governor and attorney general that appears to be providing most of the uncertainty in usually predictable primary fights in Virginia.

In the contest for lieutenant governor, State Sen. Mills E. Godwin, the strongly conservative organization candidate, is matched against State Sen. Armistead L. Boothe, a moderate on the school issue and a foe of the school-closing laws when Virginia was trying massive resistance to integration.

Retiree Chapter to Hear Report About Confab

The local chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons will meet Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. to hear a report from Mrs. Lola B. King, who represented the chapter at the national convention in Atlantic City.

The organization will gather at the Community Center Building, 132 Franklin Blvd.

Presentation of the group's charter from the national association will also be made, according to Maurice E. Fitzgerald, president.

Writer Couldn't Spell and Didn't Like N.Y.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Ernest Hemingway wouldn't mind me mentioning now that though he won the Nobel Prize for Literature, he was a terrible speller.

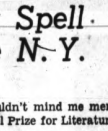
He often wrote "comeing" for "coming," "haveing" for "having," "raceing" for "racing," "hideing" for hiding," and "tieing" for "tying." He liked to throw in an e.

I discovered this in rereading several letters from him. I pass it on cheerfully to today's youngsters who'd like to be writers if it weren't for spelling words.

His rich sense of humor comes out in those letters.

"If you see Toots Shor," he said in one, "give him my best. I don't like to bother him writing him during the baseball season."

He couldn't work in New York.



WILSON

"Ketchum is nicer than in that big town with all the high buildings," he wrote, where somebody comes up in a joint and says "Ernie, it must be wonderful living"—that's how he spelled it—"on that big farm you have out in Ohio and writing such books as 'All Quiet on the Western Front.'"

"Sometimes I would like to throw at a character close and short. But what happens afterward? The jaw is broke (you can hear it go like a bag of marbles) then the law suit.

"When I hit New York it is like somebody coming off a long cattle drive hitting Dodge City in the old days. Right now I'm driving cattle and it is a long tough drive. But this fall when 'The Old Man and the Sea' comes out, you'll see some of the results of the last five years' work."

(This accurate prophecy he wrote to me July 11, 1952).

HEMINGWAY

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Henny Youngman, accused Jerry Colonna of wearing a toupee mustache . . . Anna Marie Alberghetti cut open her left foot on the beach at Westbrook, Conn., and had four stitches and a special foam rubber slipper so she could go on in "Carnival" . . .

Audrey Meadows, who plays the gal behind the slot in an automat in her first movie, "A Touch of Mink," wrote exboss Jackie Gleason, "I can't get out of the kitchen."

Spencer Tracy refused to wear makeup for "The Devil at 4 o'Clock," told the makeup man: "I've worked for 30 years to get my face to look like this—so leave in the lines."

EARL'S PEARLS: An expert is someone who is called in at the last minute to share the blame.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: At spry Pat Rooney's 81st birthday party at Roseland, Cindy Adams said, "Pat's son would have been here tonight—but he's at a Home for the Aged."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Some husbands complain that in their homes "What's cooking?" has become merely a figure of speech.

Two kinds of women wear Bikinis—those who have the figures, and those who have the nerve. . . . That's earl, brother.

UAW Demands Salaries for All

Request Is Among 7 Made to GM — 6 Are Presented to Ford

DETROIT (AP) — A demand for salaries for all workers and "an end to short paychecks" was made on General Motors Corp. by the United Auto Workers Union today as new contract talks resumed.

The demand was one of seven made at GM today by the union. At Ford Motor Co., where contract talks also resumed today, the union made six demands, covering overtime, production standards, seniority, discipline, promotion and job assignments.

Leonard Woodcock, director of the UAW's GM department, told the auto company's bargaining team that "the rental of men and women by the tenth of an hour makes a mockery of our belief in the individual worth of human beings."

"Whenever there is an interruption in production, only the low man on the totem pole, the hourly wage earner, feels the pain. While executives, office workers, stockholders, bondholders and bankers continue to receive their financial rewards, the hourly worker bears the brunt of the loss in production," he said.

Other demands made by the union at GM dealt with improving the supplemental unemployment benefits plan, the displaced worker, the relocation of plants or operations, the subcontracting of work, reduction of the 90-day requirement for compulsory union membership to 30 days, and the agency shop for those states prohibiting the union shop.

In its overtime proposal at Ford, the UAW said that overtime work should be so controlled during periods of unemployment that the available work would be spread among more people.

Former Resident Killed in Florida

A former Pontiac auto dealer, Ben Meredith, 62, was fatally injured yesterday in an auto accident in Ocala, Fla. His wife Rita was injured, but not seriously.

Meredith was a Hudson dealer in downtown Pontiac until 1951. After several years in business in Detroit, he retired 2½ years ago. He had been living at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Service is being arranged for Thursday or Friday at Tilman Funeral Home at Lake Worth, Fla.

Also surviving are five sons, Paul of Pontiac, Douglas and Ben Jr. of Walled Lake, Wayne of Detroit and Jack of Kennett, Miss.; two sisters and 12 grandchildren.

Pontiac Man Reports Being Beaten, Robbed

A Pontiac man reported being beaten and robbed of his wallet near the garage of his home early Sunday.

Theodore Tiernan, 30, 286 S. Shirley Ave., told officers three men emerged from the shadows, jumped him, and fled with the wallet, which contained no money.

Official Resigns Post in Welfare Aid Dispute

NEWBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—Steps by this city to tighten up on its aid to the needy resulted today in the resignation of Welfare Commissioner John O'Connell.

He said the stricter requirements for welfare aid were in conflict with state welfare laws. He said he refused to administer such a program.

3 Men Injured as Car Crashes Into Light Pole

Three men were injured when their car smashed into a light pole on Woodward Avenue south of South Boulevard Saturday night.

All are in satisfactory condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

The three injured are Fred White, 23, of 24 W. Colgate Avenue, the driver; Herbert D. White, 21, of 727 Wing St., and Patrick Strahan, 41, of 776 Young St.

Police said their car was traveling south on Woodward when it went off the road and hit the pole.

Strahan suffered possible abdominal injuries and leg lacerations while the other two suffered face cuts.

'Moderates' Set Talk on Stance

Roberts to Attend State GOP Session Which Will Draft Principles

GRAND LEDGE (AP)—Eight Republican state senators who "describe themselves as moderates" plan to meet Aug. 17-19 "to draw up a statement of principles to which candidates for both houses can subscribe in next year's election."

(Among the eight will be Oakland County's Farrell E. Roberts.)

Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, a Grand Ledge attorney whose father twice was Michigan governor, said Saturday the meeting would be held at Traverse City and would aim at drawing up a plan by which the moderates could extend their influence in the legislature.

"For too long the Republican party in Michigan has been one of opposition, not of innovation," Fitzgerald said, adding that a statement of principles would be drawn up which candidates for election could take "to the voters and say: 'Send me to the legislature. This is what I believe.'"

He said his group hopes to get new blood in the legislature to counter obstructionist tactics by other legislators.

"Year after year, the Republican State Central Committee adopts high-sounding resolutions on all sorts of matters," he said.

"But party platforms are consistently ignored in the legislature. In general, the Republican performance in the House was no better than in the Senate. In many respects, it was worse."

Attending the meeting with Fitzgerald and Roberts will be Sens. William G. Milliken, Traverse City; Stanley G. Thayer, Ann Arbor; Thomas F. Schweigert, Petoskey; Frederick Hilbert, Wayland; John H. Stahlin, Belding, and Harry Litowich, Benton Harbor.

Court Postpones Suit Asking Halt Arresting 'Riders'

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A three-judge Federal Court today postponed a suit asking for a halt in the arrest of segregation-testing "freedom riders," a maneuver involving the Justice Department as a friend of the court.

Over the objections of Chief Judge Elbert P. Tuttle of the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, the panel postponed the case until Aug. 7 because of the illness of an assistant Mississippi attorney general.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People filed the suit asking for an injunction to stop Mississippi from applying breach of the peace laws and arresting the freedom riders.

Moments before the postponement was announced, the Justice Department filed its friend of the court brief claiming such state laws were clearly unconstitutional.

Coronet to Fold Up; Maybe by October

NEW YORK (AP)—Dow-Jones Business News Service said today it learned that Coronet Magazine will suspend operations with its October issue because of financial troubles.

An announcement is expected later today, Dow-Jones said.

Coronet, said to be losing money at an accelerating rate for two years now, is owned by Esquire, Inc., which has been negotiating for its sale.

In Chicago, a spokesman confirmed that Coronet will cease operations before long but said he could give no details.

Rejects Proposal in Deadlock on Laos

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union has rejected a new British compromise proposal aimed at breaking the deadlock that has all but halted the 14-power conference on Laos.

Now in their eighth week, the talks have bogged down over Communist demands that the neutrality of Laos be proclaimed immediately, and Western insistence that an effective cease-fire in Laos must be assured first.

NAACP Exec Says JFK Errs

President Should Push for More Rights Laws, Roy Wilkins Says

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says President Kennedy "has made an error" in failing to prod Congress for new civil rights legislation.

But the secretary, Roy Wilkins, insisted he wasn't quarreling with the Kennedy administration, nor castigating it for the President "has done fine in appointment of Negroes to high offices" and eliminating segregation policies in plants that do business with the government.

"But we need more laws immediately, not only action under existing laws," Wilkins told a news conference Sunday on the eve of the NAACP's 52nd annual convention. It opens a week of sessions tonight with some 1,200 delegates representing nearly 389,000 members in 45 states.

The NAACP, in a 72-page report issued at New York, credited efforts by its members in 1960 as responsible for many victories against discrimination.

'VICTORY SOON'

"The civil rights victory is just around the corner," the report said.

Wilkins echoed that view, pointing out "the NAACP has created nationwide opinion that has made segregation dead. But there is no doubt that segregation practices will continue and we will continue to fight them."

He praised the "Freedom Riders" in the South, saying their actions have awakened the complacent in the North who have thought that segregation is really over. "It has jolted the North," he said.

Wilkins, however, declined to say whether NAACP members should join the rider project sponsored by the Congress on Racial Equality.

SPEAKING OUT — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, gestures as he says President John F. Kennedy erred in failing to prod Congress for new civil rights legislation.

De Gaulle May Ask for Talks on Algeria

PARIS (UPI)—President Charles de Gaulle is expected this week to reveal his strategy for proceeding toward a settlement of the Algerian crisis, informed sources said today.

The sources said De Gaulle likely will use his nationwide television-radio address Wednesday to urge the Algerian rebels to resume negotiations on establishment of an independent Algeria in friendly association with France.

The peace talks with the Algerian Nationalists have been in suspension since June 13, with neither side willing to make any concessions on key issues. Informed sources speculated that De Gaulle would suggest that the negotiations be resumed July 17 at Evian-Les-Bains, the original site.

Student Sit-In Broken Up at Iranian Embassy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Police early today broke up a sit-in strike by 21 Iranian students in the chancery of the Iranian Embassy. Twelve of the students refused to leave and were arrested.

As the 12 paraded into their cells they announced they were going on a hunger strike.

Police Inspector Otto Fuss said the students went to jail peacefully. They were charged with unlawful entry, he said, and will appear in court today.

Cause of the demonstrations—which began with four students Sunday night and gradually swelled—is the claim by two of the students that their applications for passport renewal have been held up for political reasons. Without passports they would have to break off their studies and return to Iran.

Iranian Ambassador Ardeshir Zahedi denied the charge. He gave poor grades as the reason for recent passport refusals.

The two towers of the famous Chartres Cathedral are topped by totally dissimilar spires — one Romanesque and one Gothic. The cathedral was build during the 12th and 13th centuries.

Teen-Ager Works . . . Plays, Too

PATTY DUKE: "Do I really like acting? I love it!"

No Juvenile Delinquent!

Child Actress, 14, Is 'So Busy'

By PATTY DUKE
Written for AP

Do I really like acting?

This is a question I am often asked.

I love it!

Even after playing young Helen Keller about 600 times in the Broadway play, "The Miracle Worker," then doing it again for the movie, I love acting more than ever.

Sure there are times, once in a great while, when I think it might be nice not to have to go to the theater or show up on the set — but then some days I feel that way about school and other things too.

I guess the sooner in life you learn not to run away from the things you are expected to do, no matter what they are, the better off you'll be.

ACTING IS WORK

Acting to me is a combination of many things. It's mostly work, of course, but very pleasant work. It's laughs, too, and surprises, many very exciting surprises.

But most important, which a lot of people don't realize, it's disappointments, and in show business they come in the large economy size. You have to learn how to take it.

When I first started acting, it was one disappointment after another. No one would hire me because of my poor speech.

John Ross, my manager and coach, continually worked with me on it, and then, one day it happened. I got a small part — it lasted about a minute — in the TV production of "The Prince and the Pauper" playing a little English girl (of all things) in a scene with the boy king.

It was then I felt that I might really belong some day. But the bigger you get the bigger the disappointments. You think you're set to do a movie, then you suddenly find out you're too short or too tall or too skinny or too something, and it doesn't work out.

I've learned that it's these same disappointments that make you strong enough to go on, because they make you enjoy whatever bit of success you may have.

Then there are the surprises.

A VISITOR CAME

One night there was a knock at my dressing room door. "Someone to see you, Patty." I opened the door.

Someone came in, sat down and talked — all about my doll collection and everything.

That someone turned out to be

Report 237 Dead, Missing From Burning Transport

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

LOURENCO MARQUES, Mozambique — The Portuguese Maritime Ministry announced today 237 persons are dead or missing and presumed dead from the grounded and burning Portuguese ship Save. Most were African Negro passengers.

The 2,037-ton transport was swept onto a sandbar in a storm Saturday in the Mozambique Channel, off Southeast Africa, and a series of explosions ripped the hull and engulfed her in flames.

The ministry said there were 490 persons aboard the ship, including a 44-man crew, and that 253 were saved, some of them suffering injuries.

Estimates of the total aboard previously had ranged above 500. Some of the passengers were troops, others were mine laborers.

The disaster struck near the Linde River estuary of Northern Mozambique.

The reports said bodies of some of the victims were washed ashore in shark-infested waters. Apparently they were drowned while trying to swim to shore against an ebbing tide.

Survivors reached a remote, inaccessible beach cut off by swamps. Planes from the nearest big town of Quelimane flew in some medical help and ferried out some of the more badly injured.

DOCTOR LANDS

Many of the survivors were reported badly injured. A light plane landed on the beach Sunday afternoon with a doctor to treat the most seriously injured survivors.

Eyewitnesses who flew over the stricken vessel Sunday afternoon reported it was burning from stem to stern and that there was a large hole in one side. Black smoke belched from the ship and could be seen 50 miles away.

The Portugese news agency ANI earlier reported that all on board had been saved.

Mozambique is largely under military control and Portugal has been pouring troops into the country to prevent a nationalist uprising like that raging in the sister colony of Angola.

The transport ran into a storm off the mouth of the Linde River, 10 miles south of Quelimane on the coast of Mozambique. High winds and heavy seas blew the ship onto a sandbar within sight of the beach.

NATO Is Ready to Add Forces

Officials Are Virtually Agreed Upon, Action if Russ Sign Reich Pact

PARIS (UPI) — NATO officials said today they have reached "virtual agreement" on a plan to increase the number of NATO's front-line divisions in Western Europe from 22 to 30 if Russia touches off a full-scale Berlin crisis.

Such an increase would implement a blueprint known as MC70 which hitherto had been treated as little more than a theoretical goal for Western European defenses.

The officials said agreement to put the plan into practice i the Soviet Union signs a peace treaty with Communist East Germany — thus imperiling Western access to West Berlin — has been given by "practically all members" of the alliance.

TALKS AT HEADQUARTERS

The issue was thrashed out, they said, during discussions among high NATO officials during the past several weeks at NATO headquarters here.

The talks included a number of formal and informal meetings of NATO's permanent council, some under Supreme NATO Commander Gen. Lauris Norstad.

The agreement was expected to be completed at subsequent NATO meeting of NATO ministers to be held in Paris in December.

NATO's forces in Western Europe today are composed largely of U.S. and West German divisions facing 22 Soviet divisions equipped with the most modern weapons on the other side of the iron curtain.

The American "shield" forces are equipped with both conventional arms and a variety of nuclear weapons.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk today accused the Soviets of plunging the globe into a long-term crisis by seeking to "impose a world of coercion" upon all others.

Russia Parades Big Helicopters, New Jet Planes

Western Experts Insist Nikita's Fighter Cannot Be Matched by U.S.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union showed off its air might Sunday in a dazzling display that struck Western diplomats as a gesture designed to strengthen Kremlin demand on Berlin.

Premier Khrushchev and Cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin watched side by side along with a crowd of 50,000 while the Soviet air force paraded a spectacular array of new craft at Moscow's Tushino Airfield.

Western experts watching the show — first the Soviets have staged since 1958 — said the United States has nothing to match several of the entries, including a jet fighter that can light up a liquid rocket engine booster in flight, to gain a tremendous rate of climb.

The most spectacular attraction shown publicly for the first time was a delta wing bomber the announcer said had a speed several times that of sound.

WITH FOUR JETS

The plane looked bigger than the eight-engine U.S. B52 and had four jets, two on the wing tips and two inboard below the wings.

Western air attaches showed keen interest in a flypast of 10 heavy supersonic bombers which also made their first public appearance. This new model's two engines were mounted on the rear atop the long, slender fuselage.

It had high swept wings and was comparable in size to the U.S. B58, whose publicly admitted speed is 1,500 miles per hour.

"A very impressive show," said the U.S. air attache, Col. Melvin Neilsen. "It's evident the Russians have continued with the development of all classes of aircraft."

Western observers said the show made clear the Soviets are not pinning all their faith on long-range missiles alone.

CARRIED MISSILES

The fighters carried air-to-air rockets instead of conventional cannon. The new bombers were armed with air-to-surface missiles instead of bombs.

The Soviets gave advance billing to a vertical takeoff plane that does not depend on a jet thrust to get it aloft. Called a "screw wing plane" it was a cross between a plane and a helicopter.

Two engines were mounted at the end of each wing, and it had two rotors atop each wing making it highly maneuverable and able to carry either troops or freight.

Another new model was a three tail jet-powered helicopter that

Queer Sky Ball Baffles Local Spotters, Police

A bright moving object discovered by two fishermen at 3 a.m. today had Waterford Township police and Oakland County deputies racing to a small lake off Clintonville Road.

The object was reported to hover tree-top high and to move both horizontally and vertically. It was described as a huge ball with prongs, which turned from white to gold to orange then white again.

Duane Hart of 4264 Clintonville Road and Michael Pietizak of 2475 Mann Road first reported the sighting.

Selfridge Field officials said they had many calls from other police departments and would launch an investigation.

Dies as His Car Falls Over Bank

Maurice Huffman, 56, May Have Been Victim of Heart Attack

A 56-year-old Pontiac man, alone in his car when it shot over an embankment at the end of Commission Drive at the Oakland County Service Center Sunday afternoon, was pronounced dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

Whether Maurice F. Huffman of 30 Salmer Court succumbed to crash injuries or suffered a fatal heart attack just before the accident remained undetermined today.

Autopsy results were incomplete.

Pontiac state police reported that there were no visible injuries when they removed Huffman from the wreckage.

They estimated his car was traveling about 50 miles an hour when it went over the embankment at the end of the drive.

He apparently made no effort to turn the car onto Pontiac Lake Road, troopers said. The car crashed into a field and rolled over.

The accident was discovered by a passing motorist who notified state police at the nearby post.

Oakland County Asst. Coroner Dr. Robert W. Albrecht ordered the autopsy.

Huffman's body has been removed to the Donelson - Johns Funeral Home pending autopsy results.

PARRIES QUESTIONS—Mildred Gillars, Axis Sally of World War II, dodges a newsman's question as she hurries from the U.S. Women's Reformatory in Alderson, W.Va., after serving 12 years on a treason conviction.

Axis Sally Is 'Ham' in Prison Departure

ALDERSON, W. Va. (AP) — Mildred Gillars, the Axis Sally of World War II, strode out of prison today with the flourish of an actress. She had spent 12 years in the federal reformatory for women here on a treason conviction.

Her face showed every one of her 60 years. But she was nattily dressed and she gestured and ranged through changes of facial expression as if the reformatory gate were stage center.

She had always wanted to be a dramatic actress. It showed.

Miss Gillars was the starring voice of Nazi propaganda broadcasts aimed at American troops overseas and American workers at home to try to discourage their efforts.

She was indicted in 1948 and convicted in March 1949 after a three-month trial. She was sentenced to 10 to 30 years. Her release today was on parole.

Born at Portland, Maine, she tried the stage in the 20s, but did not make it as an actress. In 1929 she sailed to North Africa and Europe, settling in Berlin in 1934. But she remained an American citizen.

She denied vehemently during her trial that she wanted to hurt America—she said she loved it. But, she said, she fell in love with the late Max Otto Koischwitz, a naturalized American who had returned to Germany.

KEEPS CROWD WAITING

She said it was for Koischwitz, a one-time Hunter College (N. Y.) professor, that she went to work for Berlin radio and played the propaganda role for which she became known as Axis Sally.

Today she kept the score of reporters and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nieminen of Ashtabula, Ohio, waiting a half hour before being driven to the main gate by Lt. Helen English.

And she prolonged the suspense for a long minute or two—in view of the waiting assemblage—while she talked and gestured with Miss English in a car.

Finally Mrs. Nieminen broke through the half-moon of newsmen and threw open the car door. Miss Gillars hugged her sister in a vigorous embrace.

The three then hurried through the newsmen to the waiting Nieminen car.

"Did she have anything to say with her first breath of free air?

"Well, after some 15 years in prison, what am I supposed to say?" she answered. Actually, she was here but 12 years.

Miss Gillars said she did not know whether she would enter a convent. It had been reported that she would. She said she was going to Ashtabula.

Tuesday Outlook: Partly Cloudy 89

Fair and warmer is the weather forecast for tonight with a low of 60 expected. Tuesday will be partly cloudy and warm with a high of 89.

For the next five days temperatures will average near or slightly below the normal high of 84 and normal low of 63.

Wednesday will be a little cooler, with warmer temperatures returning Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Precipitation will average one-to three-tenths of an inch, occurring as showers or thundershowers late Tuesday and Wednesday.

Morning southwesterly winds at 2 miles per hour will remain southwesterly through tonight and Tuesday.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac was 58. At 1 p.m. the temperature reading was 82.

President Asks Move in Light of Berlin Threat

Suspension of Russian Troop Cut Will Give Reds Manpower Bulge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, noting that Russia intends to increase military spending, today announced the United States is taking another look at its defense program.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy has ordered a new review of the nation's defenses in the light of Soviet threats to Berlin, it was disclosed today.

Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric said the President ordered the review Saturday after Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev announced that Russia was calling off its planned military manpower reductions.

The U. S. armed forces will be outnumbered almost 50 per cent by the Russians because of Khrushchev's cancellation of troop reductions.

The Soviet decision apparently means that Russia's armed forces may maintain a strength of 3,623,000 men, compared with 2,517,000 men planned for U. S. forces by next July.

The difference of 1,106,000 men would leave the Russian military machine 44 per cent larger even if Congress approved the 25,000-man U. S. increase requested by Kennedy.

Khrushchev's decision, announced in a speech last weekend, came at a time when top Pentagon leaders were beginning to feel the United States and Russia had approached a stage of "parity" in military manpower.

DISCLOSES DIRECTIVE

Gilpatrick disclosed the President's directive in testimony to a Senate appropriations subcommittee. He said it would be announced formally later today.

If the defense review leads to the conclusion that military spending should be boosted, revised budget requests will be submitted to Congress, Gilpatrick told the subcommittee.

Subcommittee Chairman A. Willis Robertson, D-Va. asked Gilpatrick whether the President's top military advisers would be free to give their own personal views on preparedness to the subcommittee.

Gilpatrick gave assurances on this point. But he said an appearance by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Kennedy's new military adviser, "presents a different question."

Skeleton of $2-Million Building

RAPIDLY RISING—This is Michigan State University Oakland's $2-million science-engineering building — currently under construction. The T-shaped structure will be partly completed and ready for occupancy by the time students return for September classes. It contains two lecture halls, 17 laboratories, 14 large classrooms, seminar rooms and library research space. The picture was taken from the roof of the Kresge Library, another of the new buildings which will grace the campus this fall.

Eichmann Rests, Returns to Stand

JERUSALEM (AP) — Shaking from lack of sleep and nervous tension, Adolf Eichmann asked for and got a morning recess today to steep off the rigors of his long trial. He returned to the witness stand in the afternoon, staring straight ahead with normally impassive demeanor.

Eichmann underwent rigorous cross-examination by Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner during the last court session Friday. This was to have continued this morning but was suspended until the afternoon at Eichmann's request.

He slept during the morning on a narrow cot in his solitary confinement cell. Police said he was not given a sleeping pill. A spokesman said he ate his regular lunch with normal appetite.

Presiding Judge Moshe Landau told Eichmann he could testify while seated if he felt tired. Eichmann chose to stand.

'HADN'T HEARD SLOGANS'

Hausner's first question today was: "When you joined the Nazi party, you knew the anti-Jewish slogans, such as 'Jewish blood will spurt from the knife,' didn't you?"

Eichmann replied, "I never heard these slogans at first. I joined the Nazi party because it opposed the Versailles Treaty and its tragic aftermath."

Q. But you will agree that from 1937 on, you were solely concerned with the Nazi fight against Jews and not against Versailles?

A. Yes, this is true. When I joined the security office (Gestapo), there was a search for a solution to the Jewish problem.

Q. You knew that your Fuehrer said that whoever won the war, the Jews would be exterminated?

A. Yes. This slogan was known to me. But by the term extermination, one didn't understand physical extermination. One thought this was some kind of policy to be adopted. This is what I thought and what many others thought.

Q. You regarded the Jew as an enemy of the Reich, to be exterminated the same as any other foe?

A. One may not mean extermination by this. One may consider that one must fight against foes of the Reich.

ADMITS DOCUMENT

Hausner pointed to a document in which Eichmann wrote, "The enemy (Jews) must be exterminated."

A. Yes, I wrote it. This was under the slogan, "Woe to the defeated" and I said it with regard to all enemies, on all sides, and I said the enemy is to be exterminated. It meant extermination but not physical.

Q. Do you know an extermination that is not physical?

A. Yes, of course. In France, for example, we tried to conquer the country and to remove hostility. We understood that after the war, this hostility would fade away. They spoke during the war of the extermination of England, of any enemy. They meant the reducing to nought the strength of the enemy, not physical extermination.

Upholds Safety of His Exchange

President McCormick of American Trading Says Public Protected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edward T. McCormick, president of the American Stock Exchange, told Congress today he "will stack the honesty and efficiency" of that exchanging technicians against those anywhere in the country.

In his most extensive public statement since the Securities and Exchange Commission expelled two exchange members for wrongdoing and initiated a broad investigation of the exchange, McCormick said:

"We believe that our present rules are adequate to provide proper protection to the public and they are now and will be effectively enforced."

Mr. former SEC commissioner, McCormack testified before a House Commerce subcommittee considering legislation to authorize a $750,000 SEC investigation of all stock trading, both on exchanges and over-the-counter.

Rep. Peter F. Mack Jr., D-Ill., the subcommittee chairman, introduced the measure after the SEC on May 4 expelled from the American Exchange two prominent specialists, Jerry and Gerard Re, who were held responsible for large scale market rigging and illegal stock sales totaling nearly $10 million.

WORKED IN 20 STOCKS

As specialists, the Res operated at the heart of the market, conducting the daily auctions in about 20 stocks.

McCormick indorsed Mack's legislation but said care should be taken during the proposed inquiry "to bolster, not to undermine" investor confidence in the stock market.

"I wish to say by all means let's have the study," McCormick testified. "Such funds as may be needed to do the job properly should, of course, be made available. Speaking for the American Stock Exchange, we will cooperate in every way in the study."

CARRY 180 MEN

One novelty was a giant helicopter capable of hauling 180 men. It appeared carrying a wooden house under its belly and landed it on the field. The house was about the size of a large car trailer in the United States.

The Soviets spiced up their show with a flypast of 15 helicopters each carrying a trapeze on which sat a pretty girl each dressed in the national costume of one of the 15 Soviet republics.

Another crowd-pleasing feature was a mass drop of 600 men with brightly colored parachutes.

Air Marshal Konstantin Vershinin who directed the show said in an aviation day article in the Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda that many of the Soviet air force's jets have no equal in the world for speed, altitude and flight range.

Two Members of Royalty Suffer Fractured Bones

LONDON (UPI) — The British royal family is having hard luck with broken bones.

Prince Philip is on crutches and Queen Mother Elizabeth is confined to a wheel chair. The queen mother cracked a small bone in her left foot at Windsor Castle June 12.

The Duke of Edinburgh's fracture — a bone in his left ankle — happened over the weekend as a result of his polo playing. He is rated as England's third best polo player.

Today the sports-loving 40-year old husband of Queen Elizabeth had all his engagements canceled while he nursed the fracture.

To Give Arguments for Charter Township

Waterford Township Clerk James E. Seeterlin tonight will present an explanatory report on reasons why the township should become a charter township and will discuss placing the proposition on the Sept. 12 election ballot.

The board meets at 7 p.m. at the township hall.

"The purpose of making the change is to be in a better position for security in obtaining a long range financing program for water and sewer facilities," Seeterlin said.

As a regular township, the interest costs on large public improvement bonds are much higher than as a charter township, he added.

There would be no change in government operation, no tax increase, and officials would remain in the same position, he concluded.

Explosion Wrecks New Building

UTICA, N.Y. (AP)—A gas explosion and a fire, blamed on arson, wrecked a new 3½-story, insurance building in downtown Utica early today, shattered windows four blocks away and injured a bystander.

Police evacuated residents in a five-block area for fear of further explosions from leaking gas.

The All-State Insurance Co. was the sole occupant of the brick building, built six months ago.

Part of the roof was torn off and window frames were hurled across the street, through windows of another building.

I guess my home life is about the same as any boy or girl's. I have certain chores to do.

There are always empty bottles to take back to the store, and the garbage to take out, and then there are the dishes which I don't really mind, but sometimes wish we used paper plates.

My school would be considered different, I guess. Most people think of school as a large building surrounded by grass and maybe with a large flagpole out front.

My school is in a building about the size of a two-family house. There's a large black plaque out front that says "Quintano's School for Young Professionals." Inside are two large rooms in which classes are held.

I go to school from 10 o'clock in the morning until one in the afternoon. The subjects are the same as in most public schools.

The schedule leaves a little time for ice skating in Rockefeller Plaza in winter and roller skating in Central Park the rest of the year.

We are off school from early June until September, when I spend the time between shows at the nearby beaches and pools.

I guess that's why I like being an actress. You never just hang around. There's always something to do.

Fliers Are Confident After Catching Cone

HICKAM AIR FORCE BASE, Hawaii (AP) — Air Force fliers who plucked another Discoverer nose cone from the sky on its return from space hoped today that the next aerial recovery "gives us something that wiggles."

Airmen at this mid-Pacific base said they were confident they could retrieve any capsule that could be brought back into the earth's atmosphere. "But next time," said one, "please, let's have something alive in there. These instruments are getting routine."

Discoverer XXVI's instrument-jammed nose cone was snagged in the air by a C119 recovery plane Sunday as the space packet parachuted 270 miles northwest of Hawaii. The twin-engine plane, one of eight circling over the impact area, made the catch on its first pass with its trailing trapeze like hooks. The recovery came just 29 minutes after the capsule was kicked loose from space over Kodiak, Alaska.

FOURTH AIR GRAB

It was the fourth aerial grab of a Discoverer cone. Two others were fished from the sea.

The gold-plated capsule, sealed in a gray cannister, was flown to Sunnyvale, Calif., Sunday night for examination by space scientists. It had circled the globe 32 times on a polar orbit since its launching Friday from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

Contents of the capsule were not disclosed but an Air Force spokesman said nothing aboard was alive.

Greeting the pilot, Capt. Jack R. Wilson, 37, of Toledo, Ohio, were the two other pilots to effect aerial recoveries. Capt. Harold Mitchell of Bloomington, Ill., who made the first catch 11 months ago, and Capt. Gene Jones of Dayton, Wash., who snagged two capsules, presented cigars to the beaming Wilson.

Wilson said the nose cone "looked like it was twinkling, like it had a battery of lights on it" as it floated down through a layer of clouds. "We first spotted it about 20,000 feet above us," he said.

Burned Worker Is Still Critical

Lake Orion Youth Was Hurt by 120,000 - Volt Charge in Culvert

Severely burned when a culvert being laid in Pontiac Township became charger with 120,000 volts from an overhead power line, James R. Recknagel, 19, of 441 Park Island Drive, Lake Orion, remained on the critical list today at Pontiac General Hospital.

Two other construction workers also injured, but with lesser burns as the result of the accident, were listed as satisfactory today at the hospital.

They are Robert G. France, 26, of 4770 Pontiac Lake Road and George W. Boothby, 24, of 6490 Maceday Drive, in Waterford Township.

Recknagle received third-degree burns over his entire body.

The men were laying a drainage culvert along the route of the Interstate 75 expressway near Lake Angelus when the crane lowering the reinforced concrete pipe drew the charge out of an overhead main transmission line of the Detroit Edison Co.

The trio was standing in water when the electrical charge hit them.

Negotiators Try Again to Settle Maritime Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — Maritime negotiators return to the bargaining table today in an effort to smooth out all remaining ruffles in the complex strike which has been temporarily halted by federal action.

Several agreements have been reached in the complicated dispute between five unions and the owners of about 800 luxury liners, tankers and freighters.

But most of the ships still would be idled by a resumption of the nationwide walkout.

Both sides in the dispute hoped to reach a final settlement before Wednesday when federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan is expected to rule on whether to extend a strike-halting order for the full 80-day period of the Taft-Hartley injunction.

UAW Resumes Contract Talks at Ford, GM

DETROIT (AP)—New contract negotiations were resumed at Ford Motor Co. and General Motors Corp. today by the United Auto Workers Union.

The union returns to bargaining with Chrysler Corp. Tuesday and with American Motors Corp. July 26.

When talks were recessed last Friday, the union indicated it planned to complete its presentation of new contract proposals this week.

The UAW's current three-year contracts expire Aug. 31 at the Big Three and Sept. 6 at AMC.

Man With Rifle Rapes Blind Girl, Binds Her Escort's Hands, Feet

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A man with a rifle abducted and raped an 18-year-old blind girl and robbed her companion on an isolated lovers' lane Sunday.

The girl was released by her assailant a short distance away. She was treated for shock at an Ann Arbor hospital, where doctors reported that she had been raped.

A four-state alarm went out for a cream-colored 1955 Chevrolet taken from the couple.

A Washtenaw County sheriff's deputy said a car left at the scene was registered to a University of Michigan student.

Sheriff's deputies ordered the girl and her 20-year-old companion to appear today for questioning.

The girl's escort said Sunday they were parked on North Territorial Road near Ann Arbor when another car parked facing them. He said a man in his early 20s produced a rifle, bound the escort's hands and feet and left him at the side of the road while he drove off with the girl.

Eastern Portion of Nation Reports Very Cold Night

By The Associated Press

Mild, pleasant weather Monday followed a chill night which set scattered low mercury records in the nation's eastern half for the third consecutive night.

Knoxville, Tenn., had its coldest July night in history, with a low of 51 toppling the old mark of 55 for the date set in 1952. It was 46 at Charleston, W.Va., also the most frigid July night ever experienced there.

City Will Get Petitions for Golf Course Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — Petitions will be submitted to the City Commission tonight asking that the property adjacent to the former sewage plant be developed into a public golf course.

The petitions, which have more than 1,000 signatures, request that the 66-acre tract on Cranbrook Road between Lincoln and 14-Mile roads be made into a nine-hole municipal golf course.

The petitions were first circulated by Lou Scharkoff of 1850 Melbourne St., former president of the advisory board at Springdale Golf Course, the city's only public golf link.

The city recently leased the sewage plant building to the Bloomfield Art Association, which intends to convert it into a cultural center.

A 1937 Packard owned by C. E. Valentine of 3108 Bradway Blvd. was named cochampion of the Midwest Grand Classic Automobile Show which was held Saturday at Greenfield Village, Dearborn.

Valentine's car, which won the undisputed championship of last year's show, scored 98 points in senior division competition. The classic auto shared top honors with a 1929 Packard owned by Brooks Fuller of LaGrange, Ill.

Valentine, a perennial winner in antique auto shows, also owns other classic cars. He operates the Valentine Welder & Manufacturing Co. in Detroit.

The Midwest Grand Classic show was sponsored by the Classic Car Club of America.

Mrs. Ernest A. Beckstrom

Service for Mrs. Ernest A. (Anna O.) Beckstrom, 73, of 3301 Morningview St., will be 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit.

Mrs. Beckstrom died Saturday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, following an illness of six months.

Born in Sweden, she had lived in Birmingham six years, coming from Detroit.

She was a member of Augustana Lutheran Church, Detroit.

Surviving are her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence R. Nelson of Birmingham; two brothers, two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

But Tshombe Says He First Wants a Meeting With Top Congolese

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Katanga President Moise Tshombe has assured the United Nations he now accepts in principle the necessity for reconvening the Congo's National Parliament, a top U.N. envoy said today.

But Tshombe insisted in weekend negotiations on having a preliminary meeting with President Joseph Kasavubu and pro-Lumumba leader Antoine Gizenga to prepare the groundwork.

"I was impressed with Tshombe's sincerity during our talks," said Mahmoud Khiari of Tunisia, who flew to Elisabethville last week in a bid to reconcile the separatist Katanga government to participate in the parliament.

Khiari shrugged off Tshombe's public statements criticizing the Leopoldville government, saying all Congolese factions are now agreed on the essential points.

(The Brussels radio said a new 35-minister government of national union will be announced Tuesday or Wednesday. It reported two or three of the new ministers will be Katangans. The radio said Gen. Joseph Lundula, commander of Gizenga's rebel Stanleyville troops, was reported to have announced willingness to re-enter the national (Leopoldville) army.)

Khiari said the United Nations hopes to arrange for a meeting of Kasavubu, Tshombe and Gizenga at the University of Lovanium outside Leopoldville where the parliament is to meet. No dates have yet been fixed.

Denise Sought 6th Straight Day

Inquest Is Planned in Death of Man Thought to Be Her Abductor

MOAB, Utah (UPI) — For the sixth straight day searchers sought today to answer the question: Where is 15-year-old Denise Sullivan or her body?

Some 90 men resumed the search for the missing Rockville, Conn., girl along the Colorado River and Polar Mesa, while an inquest was to be held today into the death of the man believed to be her abductor and the slayer of her mother.

Authorities said the inquest was almost certain to result in a verdict of suicide in the death of Abel Benny Aragon, 38, of Price, Utah, unemployed miner and World War II Marine hero.

Aragon shot himself Friday night in his car as FBI agents sought to question him in the kidnap-slaying.

Authorities believe Aragon is the man who killed Mrs. Jeannette D. Sullivan, 41, wounded Charles Boothroyd, 55, also of Rockville, and kidnaped Mrs. Sullivan's daughter Denise after they stopped to aid him on a road near scenic Dead Horse Point July 4.

Grand County Sheriff John Stocks said he is "almost certain" the girl was slain shortly after she was abducted. "The question is what he did with her," Stocks said.

Let's Help Make 'Y' Drive Successful

Laggards are the bane of all drives. This includes the solicitors and those who "forget" to turn in their donation. And above all, there's the miser who doesn't give "because no one asked me." The current YMCA effort has been magnificent and ROBERT M. CRITCHFIELD deserves a standing ovation. Most of his captains have been grand, and have faithfully executed their responsibilities.

We've raised $611,000.

The drive's 94 per cent complete.

But those committee dullards who haven't completed their jobs, and the community scrooges who are trying to ride "free" are the barnacles that block final success.

Even if no one approached you, mail in your contribution promptly. The time is up and the man with your card may be one of the sloths.

The world doesn't cheer free-loaders.

It's Better to Finance Schools on Local Basis

Apparently, the bill providing Federal aid to schools is a dead duck.

This is a good thing.

Pontiac's own Louis H. Schimmel pointed out at the very outset that we would be better off if all school financing were done on a local basis. "This," said he, "is the most economical way for Oakland County taxpayers."

He's an authority.

Had the Federal Government dipped into education, we would have had to assess our taxpayers once more and send another wad to Washington. Here it would have been "administered" and finally "apportioned" and we would have received back a part of what we sent.

And the balance?

We would ultimately be advised that the difference had paid for "administrative costs," plus the charges for "evaluating apportionments," and other pseudo-scientific mumbo-jumbo that conceals wastage, inefficiency and just plain bungling, plus what went to schools in New Mexico or Vermont. We know our own needs better than any governmental agency.

Federal aid would lead to Federal interference as the man who holds the purse strings ultimately speaks with authority. We have no desire to see the schools, the teachers and the educational practices under Federal control, supervision and domination.

And that's what we'd have.

Make no mistake about that.

Hart Fights to Stop Deceitful Advertising

Our own Senator PHILIP A. HART is battling to prevent housewives and consumers from being taken for a ride through deceptive signs on various articles.

Senator Hart objects to such ambiguous and unfair wording as the "Jumbo Pint" or the "Elephant Pound" or what have you in the way of deceit.

The Michigan Senator wants the net contents of a package disclosed in unmistakable and numerical language no less than half the size of the largest on the label.

The Pontiac PRESS regrets this modern turn by some marketing outfits. We will never knowingly carry a line of advertising calculated to fool or deceive a purchaser. It seems the laws of the land have been reasonable safeguards in the past, but if the latest generation of sharpshooters is trying to wrangle a new type of deception, we're squarely behind Senator HART.

Odd sized packages are sometimes deceptive. One pound can be packaged in a variety of ways and twelve or thirteen ounces can be made to look even bigger than the orthodox sixteen. We are solidly against this type of purveyor.

More power to the Michigan Senator.

The Man About Town

Counting Crowds

An Explanation of How It Is Generally Done

Footprints on the sands of time: Made either by good souls or poor heels.

Since the Pontiac Centennial many inquiries have been received as to how the number of people in the various crowds was estimated. A little circumspect on the matter is quite interesting.

It has been found that an average standing person occupies four square feet (2x2) in closely packed crowds. Hence a square space that measures 100 feet on a side, or 10,000 square feet, would accommodate 2,500 people.

When he spoke from the rear of his train in Pontiac in the campaign of 1956, Vice President addressed a crowd that occupied a space of almost exactly that size and shape. We paced it off.

A count of a definite segment of that crowd, made while the speaker was talking, and from the same platform on which he stood, showed that it was a crowd of approximately 2,500.

On the same basis, the estimate of 100,000 on those who witnessed the Centennial parade on June 17 is quite correct when viewers from every point are considered, as also are the estimates made on other crowds in connection with that event.

Former Pontiac City Manager

writes me from his office in Detroit that his first connection with our city was 53 years ago, when he canvassed this area, selling stereoscopic views. His territory was among the farmers, where he could always get a good night's lodging, also a good supper and breakfast, all for a dollar, which they would take out in what he was selling. He did his work on a bicycle, (and there were no pavements), his greatest thrill being to watch the marching drills of the students at the Michigan Military Academy at Orchard Lake.

A letter just received from

Mrs. Lawrence Fulcher

of Detroit tells me that my July 4 story about Pontiac's biggest Independence Day celebration, 85 years ago, in observance of the U.S.A. centennial, did not say that her grandfather,

Theron A. Flower,

then was Pontiac's mayor and had much to do with the big event.

Always beating the gun in this respect,

Blair Flewelling

of Commerce sends word that he mowed his second 1961 cutting of alfalfa on July 7, and expects to get at least two more.

A number of my friends, home from eastern trips, tell me that gas stations are selling accident insurance policies for a dollar, paying up to $5,000 for injuries received as long as you buy all your gas of that same brand, and keep your bills paid.

In New York for that Tiger-Yankee game on July 4,

Norman Pittsfield

of Birmingham phones me that he never before attended "such a nerve tickling, heart throbbing and action packed event."

David Lawrence Worries:

Dems Bad for American Economy

WASHINGTON — Fluctuations in the stock market are not the only sign of apprehension in the business world. Lately there have been many private expressions among businessmen to the effect that, if President Kennedy himself realized the hostility and antagonism which his lieutenants are stirring up in the business world, he would be amazed.

LAWRENCE

The administration's behavior in virtually ostracizing the Business Advisory Council, which has served the U. S. Department of Commerce for many years, is a case in point.

Perhaps the most interesting of the viewpoints being expressed by businessmen is one that appeared in a memorandum privately circulated recently in different parts of the country by a trained observer.

It was given in the form of advice to investors with respect to the business outlook, and was not intended in any way for publication. But excerpts from it did get into print, and here are some of them:

"Concern is not based on specific or overt statements or actions of the President himself, but rather is based on developments at the fringes of the administration.

"Adding up the evidence which has appeared on the fringes produces a suggestion that some of those in the administration really do not know fully what makes our economic clock tick.

"If this is so, the unfavorable implications for the economy, for the stock market and for the investor cannot be overlooked and must be weighed fully in our policy thinking.

"Some of the areas which give rise to concern about the administration's attitudes toward the business and economic community are these:

BIASED APPOINTMENTS

"Appointments to the Federal Power Commission and to the interior department to date have included a number of men with demonstrable bias in favor of public-power development. The regulated service industries — electricity, gas, communications and transportation — have made a major contribution to the economy over a period of many years.

About $1 of every $4 of business capital expenditures this year will be made by these industries. Appointment of men to key regulatory positions who are unfriendly to investor-owned utility enterprises raises serious questions.

"Developing administration attitudes toward business as expressed in a number of perhaps minor but increasingly frequent actions deserve careful watching and, in fact, careful present appraisal.

"Among these is the point of view expressed by Lee Loevinger, new head of the antitrust division of the Department of Justice who was very critical of the size of American Telephone & Telegraph and made the positive assertion that the public service had suffered as a result of the company's size and activities.

"Here perhaps is the best technical service and best progress of any industry in the country.

HIGHLY DISTURBING

"In short, I can see a trend of attitude and thinking and action on the fringes of this administration — perhaps already reaching well into it or perhaps ultimately reaching well into it — that can be highly disturbing to the American economy and to this business recovery and the ability of future business levels to handle the unemployment problem.

"It seems to me that this is the result of either one of two things:

"1. — There is no understanding on the part of many people around the administration as to what makes the economy tick, or —

"2. — There is a determined effort on the part of some to make it necessary for the government ultimately to occupy and take over a far larger segment of responsibility — a trend toward a more socialistic state."

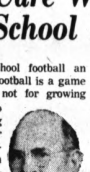
Many members of Congress are shaking their heads, and, in talking privately, they express deep concern about the business outlook.

For many weeks now, the tone of nearly all public statements has been optimistic, and it has been insisted that an economic recovery is under way.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Don't Care What You Say, High School Football Bad!

I call high school football an evil because (1) football is a game for grown men, not for growing boys and (2) too many growing boys who play or try to play football in high school are crippled for life or killed.



DR. BRADY

The reason why some school superintendents or principals keep their traps shut about this evil, or, worse, join in the "Rah! Rah!" for football is that they haven't the courage to tell parents the truth.

Head and spinal injuries caused 14 of the 18 recorded deaths among U. S. football players in 1959.

Brain damage or blood clots caused nine deaths, broken necks caused four.

Sandlot games accounted for 5 deaths; high school games, 4; college games, 3; and semipro games, 2.

However, many letters come in such as the following:

"Doctor Brady:

"My argument is that an injured football player has only himself to blame. If he correctly does the exercises and is alert on the field, there should be no reason for any injuries.

"I play football and love it. I know that out of three schools in our town that have football teams during the past season, there was not one injury that couldn't be treated during the game, at the field.

"I think that if you put your efforts into something more constructive, you might get someplace. Because football is here to stay!"

Yours truly

"Doctor Brady:

"I think teen-age football has many advantages for the fellows. It teaches them good sportsmanship and gives them lots of exercise.

"They may get hurt once in a while, but look at it this way, if they weren't practicing or playing football, where would they be? Maybe they would be out getting in trouble, which would be much worse than any injury that could be received while playing football."

Very truly yours

Miss ———

I still say football is an unmitigated evil. The reason why some physicians keep their traps closed about it is that they haven't the courage to tell parents the truth.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 200 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Says U.S. Should Improve Before Reforming Others

The world will never be as impressed by a show of military strength as it will by the way people live.

If we have peace and plenty, other nations will accept us as leaders, but if we're always on the muscle outside the country and inside, the world will reject us. All these murders, traffic accidents, freedom riders, juvenile killings and robberies, attacks on women and brutalities create the impression we are a jungle people wearing silks.

No one wants to follow examples like those. Russian papers feature every wrong move we make and we do too little to correct the mistakes or bring about reform. We're pretty dizzy people when you step aside and look us over.

We slaughter several hundred every holiday and automobiles kill a hundred a day, 365 days a year.

Who would "look up" to a nation like that? Would anyone admire a country that lets the teen-agers rob, steal and kill while the courts mostly shake a warning finger and say: "Now, now"?

Let's clean house before we reform the whole world and pay its bills.

'Church Merger Wasn't Complete'

A recent article headed "Two Churches Cement Merger" intimates that a complete merger has been made between all Congregational Churches and the Evangelical Reformer Church. This is not true.

There are 100 Congregational Churches which voted against the merger and many more that have not voted for the merger.

The question is still unsettled legally. Throughout this whole controversy the "pro-merger" group has consistently tried to convey the impression that the merger includes all Congregational Churches but this is not true.

Our little church will always maintain its freedom. To have unity it is not necessary to have uniformity.

Tells Why JFK Acts With Restraint

There are two very good reasons why Kennedy isn't moving faster. First, he was elected by one-third of a cat's whisker and he is very conscious of it. Secondly, he knows that if Dwight D. Eisenhower had been a candidate, Kennedy would have been whipped from coast to coast. Each of these imposes a lot of restraint and it is a good thing for him and for the U. S.

'Summer Missions Good for Soul'

Christians, have you made your plans for the summer? I hope you taken advantage of the many opportunities offered by your church.

I have just returned from the School of Missions at Albion College. I was sent there by our Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Commerce Methodist Church at Commerce. It was a wonderful week.

As I left the chapel the last day and saw all those women going to their various homes and churches, it was wonderful to think how the word would spread and is that not what Jesus told us to do "Go ye forth and tell everyone"?

In 1509, French theologian John Calvin was born.

In 1834, American painter James Abbott McNeill Whistler was born.

In 1871, French writer Marcel Proust was born.

In 1945, the United States, Great Britain and the Soviet Union set up a kommandatura for a rotating military government in occupied Berlin.

In 1953, minority Democrats on the Senate investigating subcommittee resigned in protest after four Republicans voted to give the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy sole power to hire and fire nonprofessional staff members.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

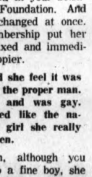
Marriage Foundation Is Helpful

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE J-437: Mildred M., aged 21, was married last month.

"Dr. Crane," Mildred's mother began, "Mildred is our adopted daughter.

"She is a lovely girl and we are devoted to her. But I fear she always cherished a subconscious fear that maybe she would not win a desirable husband.



DR. CRANE

"Her ideals are high and sensible boys didn't seem to be available.

"So she enrolled in your Scientific Marriage Foundation. And her personality changed at once.

"For her membership put her at ease. She relaxed and immediately became happier.

"No longer did she feel it was up to her to find the proper man. So she smiled and was gay. She simply acted like the natural, attractive girl she really should have been.

"Oddly enough, although you introduced her to a fine boy, she met another man right here at home and married him last month.

"Thus, we attribute her happy marriage to the Scientific Marriage Foundation, although she didn't pick the man you gave her."

PRESSURE PANIC

Mildred's case happens so often that we have found it is typical of many men, as well as women.

They wish to be happily married. But their jobs often keep them out of social contacts with suitable people of the opposite sex.

So they grow somewhat panicky. And in this tense state, they tend to press too hard. Instead of relaxing and being gay, smiling and jolly, they create the constant feeling they are trying to get a prospect's name "on the dotted line."

Thus, they scare off prospects. For they subconsciously irritate the fact they are marriage mad.

If you wish to attract the opposite sex, it is often better to affect a casual "take it or leave it" attitude.

Indeed, star salesmen also find that it often spurs prospects into action much faster if the salesmen act as if they have so many orders that they aren't eager to sign up any more.

This is the same type of psychology that merchants have often found successful when they run a sign "Limit—Two to a Customer" over their soap or other merchandise.

CUPID'S SALES PSYCHOLOGY

Girls, if you wish to win proposals of marriage, go in the opposite direction.

Give the impression that you are more interested in being a nurse or missionary or teacher than in becoming a bride.

This broader perspective will also give you more poise and permit you to be jolly and gay.

Besides, boys will then immediately relax in your presence and feel more comfortable, since they think you are not whirling a matrimonial "lariat" around their heads.

Soon they grow so attracted to you that they want to change your viewpoint about marriage. They will actually try to "sell" you on accepting an engagement ring.

This clever ruse is so universal that you will become astonished at its success. It's what we psychologists call the "reverse English" strategy.

Send for the 200 point "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents. Use them to widen your perspective.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlet.

Fall and Winter Styles in Silk Twinkle Like Christmas Cards

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — If you hope to keep up your status as a fashion intellectual, you had better do your vocabulary homework.

Here is a glossary of style terms used in describing fall and winter collections by New York couture group members being shown to more than 200 fashion editors this week.

Body-Conscious — Having nothing to do with hypochondria, it describes the closer fit you'll wind in coats, suits and dresses this fall.

Nothing Dress—This garment Nothing Dress. This garment became high fashion by reduction to its lowest common denominator, by subtracting sleeves, collars, and shortening the hemline. Although it got its start a few seasons ago, it will continue barely and shiveringly throughout the winter season.

JAUNTY JACKET

Flip Back—This style newcomer is a jaunty jacket, short in front with a gentle flyaway movement or back flare.

Inner Strength — Linings, once the cheapest fabrics in a coat or suit, now strengthen the coat but weaken the budget with mink, cat, chinchilla or ermine pelt.

High Risers—The ever-wandering waistline climbs upwards again in many collections. The high line is often emphasized by welt seaming. However the dropped waistline has not lost its fashion flavor yet.

Intermediate Length—Dresses hemmed at calf-length are designed for semiformal occasions such as theater parties.

Dirndls—Years ago a printed gathered skirt by this name was popular with off-shoulder peasant blouses. Today's version is refined, in dressier fabrics, not as full at the waist, and much more flattering to the mature figure.

NO WAISTLINE

The Column—A slender cylinder from neck to floor, this evening dress is usually of metallic or sequined cloth, has no waistline, little walking room.

The Flare—Any skirt fluted, pleated, or gathered which swishes, swirls or sways is a Paris influence that continues to flare throughout fall collections.

Nothing Colors—The pendulum swung from the summer fad for florid prints and violent hues to fabrics with hardly any vibrance. These are mossy, bronz-y and black, or nearly so.

International Silk Association served here Sunday night at the dinner which opened fashion press week activities sponsored by the New York Couture Group.

More than 200 of the nation's fashion editors scribbled furiously as they sampled from a smorgasbord of costumes in silk.

Many were by couturiers Scassi, Sarni, Vera Maxwell and Norman Norell, of New York, as well as Californians Werle, Irene and Gustave Tassell—designers who do not ordinarily preview their collections during the couture group members' semiannual press week.

FABRIC EMPHASIZED

Nevertheless the costumes by any designer's name were much the same in terms of elegance, with emphasis placed on the fabric rather than the dress silhouette.

Most of the dresses were decorated as if they were expensive Yule cards. For example, a splash of glitter garnished the neckline of a floaty pink cloud of a housecoat designed by Christian Dior to go with breakfast toast and coffee.

And Sarni, Scaasi and Esteves generously sprinkled silvery snow flakes on candy colored chiffon, satin and georgette costumes for teatime wear. For evening everyone went all out for sequins, beads and crystals.

The fabrics on the silk costumes that didn't twinkle like Christmas cards were at least three-dimensional. Floral patterns were sculptured in velours or quilted to stand high to appear to be giant gaudy posies actually growing on the costumes.

HEAVY EMBROIDERY

Vera Maxwell's method of dimension on her brilliant Spanish shawl dresses was extremely heavy embroidery.

Satin was on the scene too, but dulled down to the less slippery-looking. Jacqueline Kennedy's official couturier, Oleg Cassini, used the new satin in a costume called "State Visit." The sleeveless long overblouse was described as an adaptation of the dress Cassini made for the First Lady's trip to Paris.

Autumn's tones are blended by Roxane of Samuel Winston in a unique fabric of double warp print. The russet and gold tones are styled in a sleeveless bodice dropping over a skirt with gentle flare.

Gold brocade is fashioned into a two-piece costume (at left) by Ceil Chapman. The dress is sleeveless with a semifitted skirt and jewel neckline. A slightly higher fitted two-button coat tops the dress.

An evening costume by Jane Derby is very feminine with its two tones of gray and lining of pink silk satin. The strapless bodice of the dress is embroidered with brilliants and pearls and dares a pink satin bow below one shoulder. The cape is shaped with deep folds pleated in a curve around the shoulders.

Planning Picnic

The Galloway Lake MOMS will meet for their annual cooperative picnic Wednesday at Avon Park, Rochester. The group will meet at 11 a.m. at the Pontiac Township Hall for transportation arrangements.

Each member is asked to bring table service.

No Way to Entertain—Abby

'High Society' Stubs Toe

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband's boss invited us to their home for an evening. We were told "not to dress up."

ABBY

I almost fainted when they greeted us at the door. The wife was wearing shorts and a halter top. The husband was completely bare on top, and was wearing shorts. Both were barefoot.

They are in their late 50s, and weigh over 200 pounds apiece. I found it revolting to look at them. Him, with his big stomach hanging in layers over his shorts, and her with rolls of fat flopping around.

In addition to this, the veins in her legs stood out in red and blue knots all over. I tell you I couldn't wait to leave. Are we old-fashioned? Or is this the way "high society" entertains the working stiffs?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: Well-bred people do not entertain their guests in the get-ups you described. This "high society" has a very low ceiling.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow about to marry a widower. We love each other very much, but I am very hurt because of his attitude toward his deceased wife.

On Memorial Day he bought the most expensive spray of flowers, took it to the cemetery and placed it on her grave. I've mentioned this, and he says no one else remembers her and he feels it is his duty.

I think it is nice to remember the dead, but why overdo it? I have found a new life and am willing to forget my loss. Can't he do the same?

LIVING TODAY

DEAR LIVING: You should consider yourself very fortunate to get a man who is so generous, sensitive and kind. Doesn't it give you pleasure to know that, should you go first, he will cherish your memory and not "forget his loss" quickly? Think it over.

DEAR ABBY: I went out with a clod — and I mean a first class drip — because he pestered me for a date for months. I had a miserable time. I couldn't even stand to let him hold my hand.

He has been bothering me for another date ever since. I don't want to go out with him again. Every time he calls I tell him I am "busy," but now he says, "YOU name the time when you are free."

I am stuck for an answer. Please tell me how to discourage this guy without coming right out and telling him he nauseates me.

MUCHACHA

DEAR MUCHACHA: Tell him you think too much of him to let him waste his time and money on a girl who thinks of him as a "brother." This will cool off the most amorous amigo.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to comment on the letters from "Discontented Career Girl" versus "Unappreciated Housewife":

Where did the career girl get the idea that, just as she is preparing dinner, her husband will open the front door, rush in, say, "Hi, Honey — I'm home, What's for dinner?"

Better level with her, Abby, and tell her that there will be nights when he won't make it home until 3:00 A. M.

Pontiac Couple Weds at St. Michael Church

An afternoon reception at the Perkins Street home of the Robert Aldermans followed the marriage of their daughter Dorothy Marie to Arnold C. Bergeron Saturday in St. Michael Church. Rev. Charles Cushing offered the nuptial Mass.

Satin applique accented the square-neck bodice and ballerina-length skirt of the bridal gown of white silk organza over taffeta. The veil of French silk illusion was held by a tiara of pearls and sequins. A necklace and earrings of cultured pearls were worn. White roses and feathered carnations comprised the chapel bouquet.

Maid of honor Louise Ann Steinbach appeared in mint green nylon sheer styled with tulip front neckline and ballerina-length skirt. She held a semi-cascade of pink and white carnations and pompons.

Clarence Bergeron Jr. was best man and Marcel Bergeron ushered. They are the sons of Mrs. Irene Bergeron of Seward Street and Clarence D Gergeron of East Tennyson Avenue. Also seating guests were Larry E. Berry and Robert B. Alderman Jr., brother of the bride.

White cymbidium orchids accented Mrs. Alderman's dress of dusty rose lace over silk. The mother of the bridegroom chose dark green silk with white polka dot collar and corsage of pale green cymbidium orchids.

Nuptials by Candlelight

Marilyn Adams Weds

Dr. Emil Kontz officiated at the candlelight nuptials of Marilyn Jean Adams and Bryen L. Marks Saturday evening in Bethany Baptist Church. Baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons and pompons graced the chancel.

Daughter of Mrs. George B. Drittler of Dwight Avenue and Harvey L. Adams of Lake Orion, the bride appeared in white Chantilly lace and pleated tulle over silk taffeta. Sequins and pearls enhanced the princess-line gown and formed a crown which caught the silk illusion veil.

The bride carried a chapel arrangement of Demure roses, stephanotis and white feathered carnations.

Their ballerina-length frocks of pastel-blue nylon sheer featured draped necklines.

MRS. BRYEN L. MARKS

Best man for his brother was Arden J. Marks. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Marks of Monticello Avenue. Lwis G. Waterfield and Gary LaFountain ushered.

Frenched carnations accented a corsage of yellow Rapture roses for Mrs. Drittler, who wore a brown-and-white silk jacket sheath dress. The mother of the bridegroom chose a pastel green silk sheath and shoulder corsage of pink Carol Amling roses and Frenched carnations.

After a reception at Waterford Community Center, the newlyweds left for Washingto, D.C., and Virginia Beach, Va. They will live on Putnam Avenue.

Aircrafts Climb With Rest Mixed

NEW YORK (AP)—Aircrafts advanced in a mixed stock market early today. Trading was moderately active.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point were the general rule among key stocks.

Aircrafts were bought in the wake of weekend reports from Russia and the United States stressing the need for conventional bombers and fighters.

Boeing, helped additionally by a brokerage house write-up, gained close to a point. Among fractional gainers were United Aircraft, Douglas and Lockheed. General Dynamics was firm.

Steels were mixed in the wake of predictions of a sooner-than-expected pickup from the summer lull. Motors showed little, if any, change.

Chock Full o' Nuts was active and fractionally higher on news of a rights offering to subscribe to convertible debentures. American Viscose picked up about a point as did United Fruit.

Stanley Warner, reporting higher earnings, leaped more than 2. Avco continued active and fractionally higher.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer also added a couple of points.

Selective demand pushed American Tobacco, U.S. Gypsum and Schering to gains of a point or better.

New Haven Railroad common and preferred showed scant change following their sharp declines of Friday on news that the road had entered bankruptcy proceedings.

Small losses were taken by Jersey Standard, Royal Dutch, U.S. Rubber and New York Central. American Telephone was off nearly a point.

Prices were irregular on the American Stock Exchange. Aerojet-General was up about 2 points and Anken Chemical around a point. Losses of a point or so were taken by Loral Electronics and Insurance Co. of North America. Louisiana Land and Arkansas Louisiana Gas rose fractionally.

World Population Swooping Up to Three Billion

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The population Reference Bureau said today that returns from India and Pakistan increased the 1961 world census by 11 million "in one ominous swoop."

The bureau said the world's population is nearly three billion and is increasing by about 135,000 a day.

Recent tabulations in India and Pakistan represent "the largest sudden increase since 1953, the year the Chinese discovered their population figures were short by some hundred million people," the private research group said.

Linda Armstrong Winner in Long Fourth Festival

A 13-year-old pianist is the grand prize winner in the Northside Community Club's week-long Fourth of July celebration.

Linda Armstrong, 2385 Oakholl Road, Pontiac Township, won the big trophy after runoffs ended the celebration yesterday at Oakland Park.

Runners-up were Kathy Gagel, pantomimist, and an act billed as "Don Moore and His Sister," accordion players.

Runoffs followed the appearance of 28 entries in the contest Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

About 30 per cent of Oklahoma's more than 2 million tons of coal output annually is shipped to other states as cooking coal.

Grain Futures Down at Start of Dealings

CHICAGO (AP) — Most grain futures backed down today at the start of dealings on the board of trade with soybeans off almost ive cents on the July delivery.

Oats and rye were firm, however, on buying described largely as establishment of speculative long positions because of continued dry weather in the Northern Great Plains. They advanced major fractions to more than a cent in spots during the first several minutes.

Dealers said trade volume was rather heavy and included a substantial increase in hedge selling of wheat.

News in Brief

An intruder broke a window in the rear of the Arthur Marcum residence 2995 Voorheis Road Saturday night and slashed all the clothing in the closet with a razor blade, Waterford Township police said. The house was ransacked and there were bloody smears on the walls, furniture and kitchen stove.

Burglars made off with tools valued at 125 rom Dick's Air Cooled Engines, 465 S. Saginaw St., it was reported to Pontiac police Saturday.

Burglars were unsuccessful in their attempt to open a safe at the H. H. Smith Fuel Oil, according to weekend Pontiac police reports. The intruders settled for $3 in change from a candy machine and $27 worth of stamps.

Thieves ransacked the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stratton at 8880 Oakside Road, Commerce Township, while they were away Saturday night and stole $255 in a small bank, the owners reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday.

A cigarette was believed to be the cause of a fire at 1 a.m. yesterday which caused $7,500 damage to a house and contents at 4967 Dixie Highway. A pedestrian discovered the blaze. No one was home at the time.

Acountants Form New Local Chapter

The National Association of Accountants board of directors has approved the organization of a new Oakland County Chapter, it was announced today.

Approximately 125 members form the nucleus for the new group according to E. L. Dunn, publicity director here.

Membership is open to those associated with any phase of accounting work, he said, Those interested should contact John J. Thompson, membership director, at General Motors Corp., 3044 W. GrandBlvd., Detroit.

Initial chapter officers are: William E. Craig, president; Frank M. Kehoe, vice president; Andrew C. MacKinnon, secretary; and Arnold C. Carlson, treasurer.

Traffic Accidents in City Drop 26 From May Figure

There were 200 traffic accidents in Pontiac during June, a drop from 226 the previous month, according to the Pontiac Police Department's month-end report.

There were no fatalities in June.

Through June of this year, the traffic death toll for 1961 stood at five persons, the same number for the corresponding period a year ago.

In 60 of the accidents persons were injured, while the remaining 140 involved property damage only.

The report showed 96 persons injured in traffic mishaps in June, down from 108 in May.

Through June accidents this year totaled 1,249 down from 1,404 for the same period last year.

Dem Party Committee Meeting Tuesday at 8

A committee seeking new ways to interest more Oakland County Democrats in taking an active role in party activities will report at the party's county executive committee meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow at county headquarters on Water street.

The chairman for the 1961 congressional dinner, the party's top fund-raising event of the year, will be announced at the meeting.

Only One Judgeship of 73 Is Filled Yet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Only one of the 73 federal judgeships created by Congress in May has been filled. But the rate of appointments is expected to pick up shortly.

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., Senate Judiciary Committee chairman, told a reporter Sunday he understands President Kennedy will submit nominations for most of the judgeships before Congress adjourns. Target date for adjournment is Labor Day.

A Justice Department spokesman said the administration is more interested in quality than in speed in selecting judges for lifetime appointments and that careful screening of possible nominees takes weeks.

Judy Garland at Home After Day in Hospital

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Singing star Judy Garland returned to her rented summer home Sunday night following a one day bout in Cape Cod Hospital with what was described as abdominal trouble.

Dr. Robert B. Watt, her physician, said Miss Garland's condition was "greatly improved." She underwent several diagnostic tests during the 24-hour stay, he said.

300 Members of Union Strike at Abitibi Corp.

ALPENA (AP) — About 300 members of the International Woodworkers of America struck the Abitibi Corp. Sunday to back up contract demands.

Pickets went up after contract negotiations, under way since July 1, bogged down.

Solon, Son Survive Idaho Crash Landing

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, and his son Gordon, 11, survived a crash landing at the Idaho Falls airport Sunday. So did the other four in the twin-engine plane. Nobody was hurt.

They had been fishing Saturday at Henry's Lake in eastern Idaho not far from Yellowstone National Park. When the plane took off from a landing strip on a ranch it hit a cow. The landing gear and a propeller were damaged. The pilot, Homer Fountain of Brigham City, Utah, flew 100 miles to Idaho Falls and skidded 1,200 feet to a safe stop on the runway, wheels up.

Sen. Moss kicked open the emergency door and everybody piled out as a fire truck sprayed foam to prevent a fire. There was none.

U. of M. Gets Contract

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—The Aeronautical Systems Division of Wright Patterson Air Force Base has awarded the University of Michigan a $190,000 contract to study the transfer of heat by boiling liquid metals.

What Gina Wants, Gina Finally Gets

MOSCOW (AP) — Gina Lolobrigida says she meant no snub by walking out on Premier Khrushchev at the opening of the Moscow Film Festival. She just wanted to take a bath.

But the Soviet leader and other Communist bigwigs stared as the Italian film star stalked out of Moscow's Lenin Stadium Sunday night just when the show was warming up.

Gina, who had been rushed to the stadium direct from the airport, said the whole thing apparently was a misunderstanding.

"I wasn't angry, just upset," she told reporters later in her hotel room (after taking a bath). "I was very sure they would understand when I left."

As for Khrushchev, Gina said: "I had the pleasure to see Khrushchev. This is something exciting, even from far away."

Though one of the top foreign attractions here for the festival, Gina had only a third-row seat in the audience.

Gina looked lovely—but hardly dressed like glamorous actresses usually do for gala public appearances. She wore a tall blue straw hat and two-piece blue traveling suit.

LOOKED LIKE A GYPSY

In her own words, "I looked like a gypsy."

American film producer William Perlberg, who sat nearby, said she was "sore as hell" about not being given a chance to take a bath, make up or change her clothes before being taken to the festival.

Gina told newsmen that Perlberg apparently was "sorry for me" but that she went direct to the stadium willingly: "Nobody can force me to do something if I don't want to," said the fiery actress, adding, "I agreed to this gesture, I did it to please the Russian people. Nobody expected me to stay all evening.

Writer Couldn't Spell and Didn't Like N. Y.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Ernest Hemingway wouldn't mind me mentioning now that though he won the Nobel Prize for Literature, he was a terrible speller.

He often wrote "comeing" for "coming," "haveing" for "having," "raceing" for "racing," "hideing" for hiding," and "tieing" for "tying." He liked to throw in an e.

I discovered this in rereading several letters from him. I pass it on cheerfully to today's youngsters who'd like to be writers if it weren't for spelling words.

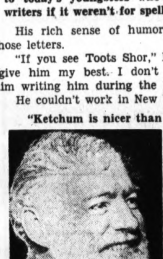
His rich sense of humor comes out in those letters.

"If you see Toots Shor," he said in one, "give him my best. I don't like to bother him writing him during the baseball season."

He couldn't work in New York.

WILSON

"Ketchum is nicer than in that big town with all the high buildings," he wrote, where somebody comes up in a joint and says "Ernie, it must be wonderful living"—that's how he spelled it—"on that big farm you have out in Ohio and writing such books as 'All Quiet on the Western Front.'"



HEMINGWAY

"Sometimes I would like to throw at a character close and short. But what happens afterward? The jaw is broke (you can hear it go like a bag of marbles) then the law suit.

"When I hit New York it is like somebody coming off a long cattle drive hitting Dodge City in the old days. Right now I'm driving cattle and it is a long tough drive. But this fall when 'The Old Man and the Sea' comes out, you'll see some of the results of the last five years' work."

(This accurate prophecy he wrote to me July 11, 1952).

Bard Finally Gets TV Show of His Own

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Television gave the Bard a bonus Sunday: A show of his own.

William Shakespeare, the most honored playwright of the past TV season, had no trouble holding his own as the star of CBS-TV's "Accent."

What's that? Did someone say, "Who cares?" For those who may still regard Willy as a writer who never could make it on TV, as one who appeals only to a tiny audience, may I remind them of the following facts:

The TV public, when last summoned to a national election by the editors of the TV Guide magazine, chose "MacBeth" as "the best single dramatic program" of the 1960-61 season.

And the people who comprise the TV industry saw things the same way. They sprinkled five "Emmys" upon the "MacBeth" film, topping off the outpouring with the "TV Program of the Year' title.

So you see, Shakespeare has got to be TV's fair-haired boy. He appeals to everyone. Right? In fact, I'm just about ready to accuse CBS of playing follow-the-leader by representing this rating blockbuster about "sure-thing" Shakespeare.

ENJOYS SHOW

But seriously, as Danny Thomas once said — or was it Henny Youngman? — I enjoyed what there was of the half-hour "Accent." For the first in a series of summertime visits to European cultural landmarks, "Accent" aimed its cameras at the Royal Shakespeare Theater at Stratford-on-Avon, England.

The visit to the world-famous Shakespeare Festival permitted some bright conversationalists to oscillate across the Shakespearescope.

The discussions, guided by Alexander Kendrick, took place on the lawn outside the theater and gave us a chance to hear how Christopher Plummer, Vanessa Redgrave and Peter Hall, the 30-year-old director at Stratford, feel about the Bard.

Viewers seeking an answer to the question, "Why Shakespeare?" should have been helped by this program, brief though it was.

'Moderates' Set Talk on Stance

Roberts to Attend State GOP Session Which Will Draft Principles

GRAND LEDGE (UPI)—Eight Republican state senators who "describe themselves as moderates" plan to meet Aug. 17-19 "to draw up a statement of principles to which candidates for both houses can subscribe in next year's election."

(Among the eight will be Oakland County's Farrell E. Roberts.)

Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, a Grand Ledge attorney whose father twice was Michigan governor, said Saturday the meeting would be held at Traverse City and would aim at drawing up a plan by which the moderates could extend their influence in the legislature.

"For too long the Republican party in Michigan has been one of opposition, not of innovation," Fitzgerald said, adding that a statement of principles would be drawn up which candidates for election could take "to the voters and say: 'Send me to the legislature. This is what I believe.'"

He said his group hopes to get new blood in the legislature to counter obstructionist tactics by other legislators.

"Year after year, the Republican State Central Committee adopts high-sounding resolutions on all sorts of matters," he said.

"But party platforms are consistently ignored in the legislature. In general, the Republican performance in the House was no better than in the Senate. In many respects, it was worse."

Attending the meeting with Fitzgerald and Roberts will be Sens. William G. Milliken, Traverse City; Stanley G. Thayer, Ann Arbor; Thomas F. Schweigert, Potoskey; Frederick Hilbert, Wayland; John H. Stahlin, Belding, and Harry Litowich, Benton Harbor.

Back in AFL-CIO Within 6 Months, Hoffa Predicts

NEW YORK (AP) — Teamsters head James R. Hoffa says his union will be back in the AFL-CIO within six months—"unless those who are in the labor movement desire to have a weakened federation."

The AFL-CIO expelled the 1.7 million-member Teamsters brotherhood in 1957 following Senate testimony that Teamsters' leaders were corrupt.

Appearing Sunday night on the nationally televised NBC program "Meet The Press," Hoffa was reminded by a panelist that he previously had predicted the AFL-CIO would end his union's exile within 18 months.

"I said they should," Hoffa responded. "They may be short-sighted for the next 18 months as they have been for the last 3½ years."
