Port Huron Times Interviews Mary Lose for Piece on “Lasting Learning”

Last week, the Port Huron Times Herald published a story on initiatives to focus more on STEAM programming and literacy at STEAM Academy at Woodrow Wilson and Literacy Academy at Cleveland, both part of the Port Huron Area School District.

The teachers at these institutions receive training based out of Oakland University’s Reading Recovery Center of Michigan. Mary Lose, the director of the center and a professor of Reading and Language Arts, is quoted in the article.
