State Cash Solution Bogs Down

What Can This Be?

MYSTERY VEHICLE — This is a view of what appears to be the new wingless, vertical lift aircraft being developed by the A. V. Roe Co., aviation manufacturers for the U. S. Army. This photo was taken by free lance photographer Jack Judges flying over the Roe plant in Toronto, Ont., and televised by the Canadian Broadcasting Corp., a government-controlled network. The device appears to be 30 or 40 feet in diameter and resembles some conception of a flying saucer. In the center of the vehicle is what looks like a driver's seat. The vehicle is attached by cable to a generator machine or similar device. Development of the craft was taken over by the U. S. Army in 1954, after the Canadian government withdrew support. Neither Canadian nor U. S. officials will comment on the picture.

Painter Loses Wage War— Makes Tracks

"The Battle of the Wages" was fought in Sylvan Lake last night.

The battleground was the home of Rex J. Bailey, 1870 Lakeland Ave.

The issue, of course, wages.

It all started when a painter, Ellsworth Campbell of 491 Eastlawn St., Avon Township, went to the Bailey home to collect for a paint job on the house.

Heated words flew over the money Campbell was to receive.

Finally negotiations broke down.

Campbell hopped into his small sports car, drove it over the curb and onto Bailey's lawn.

Bailey watched in anger as the number of tire tracks increased.

Finally he went into his home and emerged with a double barrel shotgun.

He started firing at Campbell's tires, and hit the rear fender of the car.

That was enough for the painter who retreated.

By the time Sylvan Lake Police and Oakland County sheriff's deputies arrived, the battle was over.

Neither combatant wished to sign a complaint against the other.

Space Balloon Blooms High Above the Earth

Spectacle Brings Rash of Calls in East as Huge U.S. Ball Descends

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has a spectacular new entry in the space derby — a balloon as big as a 10-story building that inflates 250 miles above the earth.

The first space balloon launched Wednesday at Wallops Island, Va., was a smashing success. Not only did the balloon perform as planned, it startled the dickens out of hundreds of citizens all over the Eastern Seaboard.

The balloon, 100 feet in diameter, was the biggest object anyone has ever sent up into the fringes of space. But it weighed only 130 pounds.

It was not meant to go into orbit, and soon fell back into the sea. It was visible for 10 minutes.

Later the National Aeronautics and Space Administration hopes to put some of these giant space travelers into orbit around the earth.

At Cape Canaveral, Fla., an Atlas missile crowned with a new tactical-type nose cone thundered over the Atlantic early today on an intercontinental range flight.

This was the second test for the new cone, which stood nearly 12 feet tall atop the 80-foot missile. The first test earlier this month was successful.

In Washington, a spokesman for the Air Force called today's test a success. He said all its objectives had been reached.

NO RECOVERY

There was no plan to recover the cone, which carried instruments to radio information on its performance.

★ ★ ★

The balloon, fired at 5:40 p.m., caught the rays of the sun at the top of its flight. As it unfolded up there, its aluminized surface caught the light at different angles and sent forth myriad flashes of reflected sunlight.

Many who saw it thought it was a flare, surrounded by sparks.

The project was not announced in advance and nobody knew what it was.

Civil Defense officials checked it with their headquarters with-

Senators Try to Figure Out Amount Shy

2 Most Probable Deals: Payroll Tax, 1960 Vote on Upping Sales Tax

LANSING (UPI)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams formally presented 26 tax possibilities to the Legislature today and warned there would be "shattering" effects if there is much delay in choosing among them. A 1 per cent payroll tax was the major addition to a list. But Williams emphasized he was not endorsing a specific tax, other than to say he thought an income tax would be the best long-range solution.

From Our News Wires

LANSING — Efforts to bring a speedy solution to Michigan's fiscal crisis bogged down today when Republicans in both houses announced they weren't quite sure how much money is needed.

There will be no agreements on new taxes until revenue needs are determined, Senate majority leader Frank Beadle (R-St. Clair) and House speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan) said after their caucuses.

★ ★ ★

They agreed to appoint a committee to make estimates of need. Both houses caucused before receiving a message from Gov. G. Mennen Williams on potential revenue sources this afternoon.

A payroll tax and a referendum on raising the sales tax were the most talked-about plans.

The Republican senators weighed a combination of expense cutting and $53,400,000 in new revenue measures to close the state's income-outgo gap but came to no conclusions.

After their first 90-minute caucus a second one was set for 2 p.m.

PLANS ECONOMY

Beadle said the revenue figure was presented to the caucus by Sen. Clyde H. Geerling (R-Holland), taxation committee chairman, who also suggested three ways of cutting expenses.

Geerlings said that up to 25 million dollars could be sliced from 1959-60 general fund expenditure commitments, mostly by temporarily holding down on contributions to public employe pension systems.

Also brought before the caucus was a list of 10 "acceptable" new or old taxes—so-called "cats and dogs."

They would add to levies on such items as beer, cigarettes, pipe tobacco, cigars, telephones and others.

To insistent questions from newsmen, Beadle said only "no decisions were reached on anything."

He indicated senators favored a return to the regular legislative meeting schedule, starting on Monday night next week and meeting daily thereafter.

He also indicated the consensus was for withholding action to release the 50-million-dollar veterans trust fund until a tax settlement was agreed on.

A resolution calling for a referendum on a penny increase in the sales tax was filed for introduction in the Senate today.

A payroll tax was expected to be among potential revenue sources Williams will mention.

Sen. John Fitzgerald (R-Grand Ledge) sponsored the proposal to have the public vote in November 1960 on lifting the three-cent ceiling on the sales tax.

Beadle said he expected agreement on a demand for a statewide vote on raising the sales tax in November 1960 as part of any settlement.

Two minority Democrats from the Upper Peninsula talked of a "payroll" tax which one of them admitted was a camouflaged version of the "piggy back" income tax Republicans rejected last summer.

The Legislature met today for the first time since Supreme Court knockout of the use tax increase seven days ago.

'President' Willman Is Being Acclaimed

By PETE LOCHBILER

City Manager Walter K. Willman was headed back to Pontiac today from the scene of the greatest triumph in his 35-year career.

The International City Managers Assn., meeting in St. Louis, Mo. yesterday unanimously elected Willman its 1959-60 president—a tribute generally regarded as one of the highest honors possible within Willman's profession.

WALTER K. WILLMAN

The association has a membership of 1,500 — encompassing virtually every city manager in the United States and some from other nations.

The selection of the Pontiac city manager was seen to reflect Willman's long service in the ICMA, his professional competence and the progress in Pontiac during the 10 years he has been manager here.

★ ★ ★

A wave of acclaim was waiting here for Willman, whose plane from St. Louis was scheduled to arrive at Metropolitan Airport this evening.

Civic, industrial and business leaders greeted with enthusiasm the news of his election.

Some of the comments (with many references to Willman as "Bill," his nickname):

Mayor Philip E. Rowston: "I especially am particularly proud to learn of his election. This is a fitting tribute to a man who has achieved so many accomplishments in his field during recent years.

"We are extremely fortunate that it is our town Mr. Willman is serving, giving us the benefit of his vast and varied experience."

S. E. Knudsen, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division and General Motors Corp. vice president: "We at Pontiac Motor Division are

Nov. 2 Deadline Upheld by Court

Refuses U.S. Appeal for Steel Strike Speed; Negotiations Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refuses to order the United Steelworkers to speed up their appeal of a Taft-Hartley back-to-work injunction that would halt the 107-day steel strike.

The government made a strong plea to the court Wednesday to tell the union to get going on the appeal by noon today. Without comment, the court denied the Justice Department request.

That leaves the union until Monday to appeal the ruling of a Philadelphia appeals court that upheld the injunction.

But union lawyer Arthur J. Goldberg said he expected to file the formal appeal notice with the Supreme Court Friday and present a complete brief for the union case by Monday.

This means the court probably won't be ready to rule until the middle of next week.

The strike will go on at least until then unless something comes of new full-scale negotiations that resume today at Pittsburgh

The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said it was glad to hear that negotiations would resume. But it served notice on both sides that if nothing happened by Monday it would call them to Washington for a joint bargaining conference.

Furthermore, the mediation service said, if the talks break down before then, the service will move up its deadline for the Washington conference.

Suh, I Have My Honor

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Ulysses S. Grant, fined $11 for public drunkenness, said an attorney named Robert E. Lee refused to defend him. "That's true," Lee admitted. "What would people here say if I lost the case?"

Bomb Hoax Interrupts Callas

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A bomb hoax interrupted a Maria Callas concert for 40 minutes Wednesday night but the tempestuous soprano brushed it off as "ridiculous."

Former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman were among the 3,573 persons in Midland Theater when Missouri's Gov. James T. Blair stepped on the stage after Miss Callas' first number and announced: "Ladies and gentlemen, the management has received a call which indicates danger for his audience, so we are asking you to leave this building for a half hour."

The audience calmly walked out, taking 10 minutes to clear the building.

Miss Callas remained in her dressing room during the search and joked about the scare. The concert was finished without incident after the audience returned. She said:

"It's ridiculous that things like that can happen, but they do. Please, let's not talk about it."

"What time is it supposed to go off?" she asked. Told that it was 9:30, she replied: "Then I will go out and sing and let the people know I am here. If I don't they will say, 'Well, that Maria Callas.' I'll take the risk."

She sang one aria, then Gov. Blair made his announcement at 9:13.

But, It's My Birthday

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Police today charged Oscar Simpson, 57, with larceny of a three-layer chocolate cake from a private home. Simpson, found in an alley eating the cake and drinking corn whisky, said it was his birthday.

Friends 'Rule' Judge Doty a Jolly Good Fellow

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Several hundred attorneys and friends of Frank L. Doty last night turned the tables on Oakland County's senior circuit judge and directed a verdict of their own. They chorused:

"He's a jolly good fellow."

Doty, 79, who retires Dec. 31 after 32 years on the bench will have a special niche in the new county courthouse, thanks to efforts of the County Bar Assn.

At their testimonial dinner for the judge at Devon Gables, members unveiled a replica of a plaque which will be placed in the new courthouse. It will read:

"Presented in honor of Frank L. Doty—circuit judge—for his 32 years of devoted, loyal and faithful service to the people of Oakland County—October 28, 1959—Oakland County Bar Association."

Philip Pratt, president, disclosed the gift to the county as a tribute to a man he said was "born to be a judge."

"He always sits very high and very straight on the bench," Pratt said.

'THIS IS IT'

After hearing four of Pontiac's topflight attorneys and a fellow judge, Clark J. Adams, revive portions of his storied career, the nervous, white-haired jurist stepped to the microphone.

"This is it," he said.

"By that I mean this is my swan song, that which some people of Oakland County have been awaiting for many years." His reference was to the hundreds of criminals who have come before his bench and learned he had no patience for those who don't respect law and order.

But those who do will miss the native son of the county.

"Judges Doty, Hartrick and Holland have established a statewide reputation of judicial excellence," exclaimed Judge Adams, referring to the late Judge George B. Hartrick and present Judge H. Russel Holland, who had to miss last night's dinner because of the death of his sister in Virginia.

"This has come from sincerity of purpose, from hard and productive work, and from being legally skilled," Adams said.

Declaring he isn't really sure what he'll do after retirement, Doty said:

"I may go back to the farm—my first love. Here's where you have the blue sky overhead, green grass below your feet, skylarks singing, and no arguments to settle."

"This is the happiest occasion of my life," he said. "But it also is one of the saddest. It's the happiest because of your reception and the saddest because our ways will soon be parting."

He thanked the Board of Supervisors, Board of Auditors, newspapers, and the Oakland attorneys who have come before his bench.

Friday Evening Halloween Date

Recreation Dept. Urges Parents to Cooperate With Festivities

The little folk will be out in Pontiac tomorrow evening — in colorful array ranging from princess gowns to space suits.

It'll be Halloween in Pontiac—officially proclaimed so by the Department of Parks & Recreation.

Although Friday is Oct. 30, the department thought it would make for better celebration for the youngsters than Oct. 31, which this year is a Saturday—a day which young folk usually observe as a holiday anyway.

Householders and parents were urged to cooperate with the department's choice of dates and its recommended time-table for Halloween festivities.

It's recommended that the traditional begging be limited to one hour, 6 to 7 p.m. Householders who have goodies to distribute are asked to turn on their porch lights at this time.

★ ★ ★

There'll also be parties at most elementary schools and a couple of junior highs. Recreation officials are helping neighborhood groups with these.

The annual "Mystery Treat" event will be sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

It's designed to encourage youngsters to be home by the recommended deadlines: 9 p.m. for children in elementary school; 10:30 p.m. for junior high pupils and 11 p.m. for those attending senior high school.

Youngsters who are home in time to answer a telephone call from the Jaycees will win prizes. Prizes for the elementary children include a bicycle, table radio and and five silver dollars.

Prizes for the junior and senior high school groups are the same: a wrist watch, pen and pencil set and five silver dollars.

In Waterford Township and most surrounding areas, officials have decided that Halloween should be celebrated on Oct. 31—Saturday—as usual.

Layoffs to Hit 11,000 in Pontiac Plants Tomorrow

Layoffs in Pontiac will soar to over 11,000 tomorrow when 1,000 production workers at GMC Truck & Coach Division are idled because of the steel shortage.

★ ★ ★

This will be the first big layoff at Truck & Coach, involving a halt to production of light and medium-duty trucks, said Philip J. Monaghan, general manager and General Motors Corp. vice president.

Another 6,400 hourly rated employes—assigned to production of heavy duty trucks and GM coaches—will remain on the job as long as steel supplies last, he said.

Yesterday, production halted at Fisher Body Division in Pontiac and came to a near end at Pontiac Motor Division. Fisher Body laid off 2,400; Pontiac Motor has laid off 7,800.

The last 200 production workers on the job at Pontiac Motor will be idled at the end of the week, it was announced.

Expect Warm Trend to Bring Us Rain

Low tonight will be near 40.

Occasional rain is predicted for the Pontiac area Friday afternoon or evening with a high tomorrow of 55. Low tomorrow night will be 38-43.

Cloudy and somewhat cooler with occasional rain is the forecast for the area Saturday.

Easterly winds at five miles an hour at 10:15 this morning will shift to southeasterly at 10-15 tonight through Friday.

Van Doren Tells of 'Such Wonderful Letters'

Rumor: TV Winners Admit Help

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles Van Doren and Hank Bloomgarden reportedly have admitted to the district attorney that they received both questions and answers prior to their appearances on the NBC-TV quiz show Twenty-One.

The New York Times today attributed its information to "an authoritative source in the Criminal Courts Building."

Related Story, Page 59

The New York Herald Tribune, in its edition today, quoted "a reliable source."

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan refused to confirm or deny the reports.

The Times quoted Van Doren as saying: "I think that Monday is only five days away. I'm not in a position to start talking about it now. It would put me in such a terrible light, not only with the Congress, but with the other newspapers to whom I have refused to speak that I feel I must say, 'No comment.'"

Van Doren, who won $129,000 on Twenty-One, now dropped by NBC, is scheduled to testify next week in Washington before a House special subcommittee.

The Times further quoted Van Doren: "Believe me, I won't hold anything back before the committee. I'll be telling the whole truthful story and I'll be answering every question they ask me to."

Bloomgarden, who won $98,500 on the quiz show, was quoted by the Times as saying: "You go ahead and print what you want. I don't intend to get into an argument about it. I have no comment as to whether I received any help."

NOT CALLED

Bloomgarden has not been invited to testify before the House committee.

"I've been getting just wonderful letters from wonderful people. I put the good letters in one pocket and the bad in another. When I looked I had 39 good letters in one pocket and there was only one bad one in the other," Van Doren said.

"I've been getting so much love from so many people that I just wish I could return it all. People are wonderful."

There was an unusual development in connection with the quiz show upheaval.

Richard Keith Clark, 35, a writer from Santa Barbara, Calif., who won $22,500 on the Tic Tac Dough show in 1958, brought a $540,000 damage suit which he said was to establish his honesty.

The action was instituted against the National Broadcasting Co., show originators Jack Barry and Dan Enright, Producer Howard Felsher and the sponsoring firm, Procter & Gamble.

Castro Revives Military Trials

Fear New Blood Bath as 200 Await Action After Recent Trouble

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's Cabinet early today ratified the revival of military tribunals which sent 555 of his enemies to execution before firing squads.

Fears of a new blood bath grew with an estimated 200 persons already in jail awaiting investigation or trial as counterrevolutionaries, and unconfirmed reports circulating of more and more arrests daily.

Prime Minister Castro abolished the controversial military tribunals in July in favor of civilian courts. Though the latter had power to impose death for activities against the revolutionary regime, the heaviest sentences meted out were 30 years.

★ ★ ★

A power failure plunged most of the capital into darkness and fresh anxiety after the six-hour Cabinet session ended just before 2 a.m. The blackout was traced to an equipment failure, the American-owned Cuban Electric Co. said, adding there was no immediate indication of sabotage. The power went on again over most of the city after about two hours.

★ ★ ★

Foreign Minister Raul Roa told newsmen that the government would deliver its reply later today to the stiff U.S. protest against the rising anti-American campaign in Cuba and Castro's charges that the U.S. government had connived at flights over Cuba by anti-Castro exiles in the United States.

Rain and Snow Fall Out West; Plains Warmer

By The Associated Press

It was wet and cooler in most of the Western half of the country today but a warming trend continued in the nation's midsection.

Fairly cool weather continued in the Northeast and rain fell in sections of the Southeast.

In the West, rain and rain mixed with snow fell in western Montana, eastern Idaho, Wyoming and northern Colorado as cooler air moved southward across the Rockies. An inch of snow covered the ground in parts of southwest Montana and northeast Idaho but rain melted the snow as it fell in most other Western areas.

Lodge Tells Lions Club: Get Busy in Government

"Pay more attention to your government."

This was the advice to businessmen from Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland County). He was speaking yesterday before a noon luncheon gathering of the Pontiac Lions Club at the Waldron Hotel.

★ ★ ★

"The reason this state is facing a crisis is that the average citizen, the small businessman, has failed to take an active part in state and federal government," said Lodge.

The senator called for more economy in government spending and "a sense of honesty, decency and morality in politics."

Lodge charged that "there are many phases of government today that would make our forefathers turn over in their graves."

WAS ECONOMICAL

He listed the Waste in Government Spending Committee which he headed last year as a prime example of poor government economy.

"I was allotted $5,000 to work with," he said, "but by practicing a little economy I spent only a few cents over $724."

Lodge also attacked the federal government, charging it had given businessmen a "shabby deal."

Commenting on the current steel strike, he called both the steel industry and labor "two giant monopolies that don't care what happens to the little guy."

On taxes:

"If we increase taxes to bring in several more billions of dollars, we'd all be better off working for the government."

He laid much of the blame for tax increases at the feet of citizens, however.

"Our form of government was originally conceived as a government of and for the people, but we have demanded of it so many services that we are fast becoming slaves to our government," he warned.

Russian Paper Attacks Reuther

Soviet Woman Claims He Married Her in '34, Then Left for America

MOSCOW (UPI) — The newspaper Trud published a full page article today attacking Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union.

The attack was the latest in a series on Reuther by the Russian press and radio since he and other American labor leaders debated with Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev during the premier's recent visit to San Francisco. Trud is the official organ of the Russian trade unions.

Today's article included statements from four persons, one an unidentified woman who claimed Reuther married her in 1934 in the Soviet Union, but abandoned her and returned to the United States.

Trud said the statements were from "people who personally knew Reuther . . . when he worked in the Soviet Union, at the construction of an automobile plant in Gorkey, in the Thirties."

The woman claimed she married Reuther when she was 19 because her head was turned by his talk about "the chains of capitalist labor which have to be torn from around bloodthirsty exploiters."

She said she met Reuther near a settlement where foreigners lived while working at the Gorky plant.

"He stated he had dedicated his life to the workers' movement and needed a true girl friend on this difficult road. From his talk the head of not only an inexperienced girl like myself would have been turned.

"I moved to his American settlement. Everything turned out worse than a work-a-day life. He stopped talking about politics and I no longer heard his beautiful speeches about the class struggle, about the thorny road along which we had to go together.

"We lived together eight months and then he said 'I am going to my America.' He promised to write me but I knew it was a lie. He was a scoundrel and egotist."

Urges No Grammar Until Senior Year

EAST LANSING (UPI)—School children shouldn't be taught grammar until the 12th grade because it bewilders them to learn confusing grammar in school and hear and talk in another "language" outside school.

★ ★ ★

That was the primary thought advanced by Dr. Bergen Evans, English professor at Northwestern University as he spoke at a conference at Michigan State University.

"The words are not made by scholars, but by living men and women on the anvils of their experiences," Evans said.

★ ★ ★

"Why should the theory of grammar be forced upon every student?" he asked. "Does every motorist understand the working of the car's engine as he drives?"

The Day in Birmingham

Professor, Film to Start Series on Life in Russia

BIRMINGHAM — Wayne State University Professor Dr. Marion L. Edman will give firsthand impressions of the Communist state and its schools on the initial program, "Viewpoints on Russia." It takes place at Baldwin Public Library Nov. 10 from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

Dr. Edman, who will address the group following the film, "Russian Life Today — Inside the Soviet Union," is a noted educational authority whose extensive background includes not only elementary, secondary and college teaching, but also work for the Bureau for Interculture Education.

Between 1946 and 1950 she worked with the Office of Military Government in Bavaria where she helped with reorientation programs.

From 1955 to 1957 she was a consultant in teacher education in Lebanon and Viet Nam.

Dr. Edman is a member of a number of professional and civic organizations, including the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, where she has served as chairman of the World Citizenship Committee.

On the second program of this series of talks, films and informal discussion on Russia, Mrs. William McGaughey and Mrs. Robert Hatt will present experiences and impressions with pictures of their trip to Russia. They will appear at the library Nov. 17.

For the final program of the series, Nov. 24, two persons who formerly lived in Russia and now live in the area will be the guest speakers.

They are Mrs. Nadine Popluilo, instructor in Russian and French at Michigan State University Oakland and Lova Khoram, a senior project engineer for General Motors Corp. who was in charge of its showing at the American Exhibition in Moscow this summer.

Tickets for the series are free, the library said, but because attendance is limited, those who are interested should secure them early by registering in person or by phone at the library.

An achievement report issued by the United Foundation for this area shows that $127,506 of the $168,543 goal has been collected.

The drive was to end Oct. 26, but results have been slow in returning. A final report will be issued Monday.

Birmingham, the report shows, has collected $31,705 of its $48,858 goal. The Bloomfield Hills division reports $56,970 of its $73,220 goal reached.

The rest will be collected in six other area divisions, including Bloomfield Village, Oakland Hills, Foxcroft, Wing Lake, Franklin and Beverly Hills.

The Holy Name Catholic Church Altar Society, Birmingham, will sponsor a rummage sale Nov. 6 in the church hall from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served. There also will be a bake sale.

A square dance, sponsored by the St. Catherine's Guild, will be held Nov. 6 at St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham, in the Undercroft at 8 p.m.

Space Balloon Shot High Above Earth

in minutes. Newspaper, police and radio station telephone switchboards were glutted with calls.

The balloon was sent up in a two-stage rocket with a thrust of 130,000 pounds.

WAS FOLDED UP

The space agency said the whole huge balloon was folded into a container 26½ inches in diameter. The sphere was made of plastic and coated with silvery aluminum outside.

After the balloon was released 250 miles up, air trapped inside it began to expand it. Then four pounds of water in two plastic bags was released inside the balloon. At that altitude the water expanded into vapor and completed the blowing up of the balloon.

NASA hopes to send these balloons into orbit 800 to 1,000 miles above the earth. They will be used as reflectors of radio signals.

Money's Scarce but They Stretch It

How Do Steelworkers Exist?

By The Associated Press

A puzzle to many a wage earner who barely keeps ahead of his bills is how a half-million striking steelworkers have weathered 15 weeks without their regular pay.

Their living standard has been sharply reduced but there is little evidence of downright hardship.

How do they do it — particularly when unemployment compensation is banned to strikers in every major steel-making state except New York?

Ingenuity and help from various sources appear to be the answers.

An Associated Press survey of steel centers shows only a minority of the strikers have gone on relief — though the bill for those who have runs into millions of dollars.

An unknown number of thousands of strikers have taken temporary jobs — ranging from longshoring to driving taxicabs.

Working wives have helped out. A number of families had more than one income, with the wife or son or daughter holding a job to help out the chief breadwinner.

A number of steelworkers, expecting a strike, saved against the "rainy days" that now number 107.

Food comes from such varied sources as government surpluses and the friendly neighbor next door. Some steelworkers live on farms and provide their own food.

The Steelworkers Union provides help for food and emergencies.

Retail merchants in steel centers have been generous with credit, trusting customers to pay up when they return to their jobs. Utility bills often go unpaid.

Family budgets have been trimmed, of course, along with the family diets. Purchases of such items as automobiles and large appliances are put off. Grocery shopping is limited to cheaper cuts and lower grades of meat.

Old Fire Cistern Is Found in Ohio

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP) —While tearing up sidewalk around City Hall, workers found evidence of a fire-fighting system used years ago.

It was a 15-foot cistern, full of water, Service director Russell Evans says such cisterns were scattered about the city to provide water for firemen before the day of the hydrant and pipeline systems.

Deputy Is Hard Driving

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — Randell Parker was fined only $1 instead of the usual $25 when he explained he was on his way to jail when police stopped him for speeding.

It seems Parker was pressed into service to drive a few of the suspects to the station house after police broke up a card game and didn't have enough room in their automobiles to accommodate all the players.

Signs Complaint Against Sheriff; Then Gets Fired

LANSING (UPI)—"I'm the lone goat, without a job and with six kids to support," the man who was largely responsible for Sheriff Willard P. Barnes' trouble said today.

Richard Goble, 26, Dimondale, claimed he was fired from his bartender job because he signed a warrant against Barnes charging the sheriff with drunk driving.

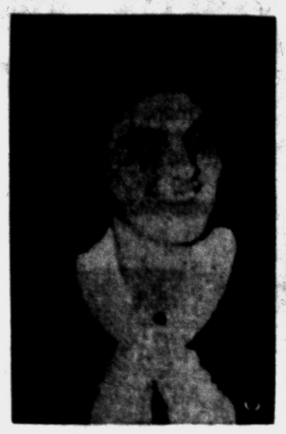

★ ★ ★

Goble's former boss, Vern Warner, manager of the bar where he worked since last spring, said the sheriff's trial had nothing to do with his firing Goble.

★ ★ ★

Barnes, sheriff for nine years, was found guilty Tuesday and assessed fine and costs of $225. The sheriff is appealing the decision to Circuit Court and said he will run again for another term.

"The boss didn't want me to sign the warrant," Goble said. "He was agitating every night and said if he fired me he could make up a reason."

STANDS BY HUSBAND—Mrs. William Van Rie smiles as she answers questions of newsmen Wednesday after arrival in Boston to stick by her husband, a ship's radio operator accused of murdering a young woman passenger. Mrs. Van Rie, from Rijen, Holland, said she is convinced her husband is not guilty in the death of Lynn Kauffman, 23, of Chicago.

Let's Not Act 'Plumb Foolish' Again

Remember Oct. 29 in 1929?

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Anayist

NEW YORK, (AP)—Like the survivors of the blizzard of 1888 the survivors of Black Tuesday on the stock market have long memories. It was 30 years ago today—Oct. 29, 1929—that the bottom dropped out of the stock market.

★ ★ ★

Today's stock market has been booming. But most brokers stress all the measures taken since 1929 to keep the debacle from happening again. And they think the majority of Americans are more sensible now.

★ ★ ★

Stock prices had been riding high in 1929—ridiculously high, whether measured by earnings, assets or prospects. Many of the stocks were new and untried, and some were phony or close to it.

UP TO HIS NECK

The little fellow was in the market up to his neck — and often over it. He had taken his life savings to gamble. Often he had only a 10 per cent equity in his holdings. The rest was borrowed money.

★ ★ ★

So, many were wiped out overnight. Banks tottered. The depression — not prosperity — was just around the corner.

★ ★ ★

A lot of big boys were in there, too, and on shaky ground. Many of them also were wiped out and some committed suicide or died of heart failure.

On Black Tuesday a record 16,410,030 shares were traded on the New York Stock Exchange in the frantic effort to unload. In a series of lesser falls prices kept on going down until mid-1932.

SET UP GUARDS

But in the wake of Black Tuesday came a long series of measures by the government and by private business and financial institutions to tidy up stock market practices and guard against a repetition of the disaster.

True, stock prices have recovered and pulled well ahead of 1929, hitting a new record high this August. Trading is often fairly heavy but not at the rate of the four and five million share days of the late 1920s.

★ ★ ★

This year daily trading averaged 3,800,000 in the first three months, 3,200,000 in the second quarter, and 2,800,000 in the third.

This year you must have a 90 per cent cash down payment when you buy a share, not 10 per cent.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (born in the 1930s) takes a close look at any new stock offered for sale. It and the stock exchanges police the activities of corporations whose stocks are listed. And they demand detailed financial information from the companies. This is available to the buyer. They also police the activities of brokers and dealers.

★ ★ ★

Federal insurance agencies back bank deposits and guarantee home mortgages. To get wiped out overnight you really must have everything in one basket.

You can get badly hurt in the stock market today. That's for sure.

But there can't be another Black Tuesday unless an awful lot of us start acting plumb foolish.

Five in Detroit Area Win in Sweepstakes

DETROIT (AP) — Five families in the Detroit area won a total of $336,000 in the Irish Sweepstakes.

The big winner was Bert Ashton, 54, manager of a supermarket in Detroit. He will collect $140,000 on a $3 ticket he held on Rexequus, winner of the Cambridgeshire Handicap at New Market, England.

★ ★ ★

Ashton figured there would be about $30,000 left after the government takes its income tax cut. But the Internal Revenue Department estimated the tax on $140,000, if filed on a joint return, would be $84,250.

Ashton said, "When you get to my age this much money amounts to insurance for the future. I'll probably put whatever is left after taxes in a bank or trust fund."

Carlton Hill, 59, of Livonia; Neil McDonald, 31, of Dearborn Township, and Thomas Collop, 31, of Trenton, held tickets on Anthelion, the place horse, worth $56,000 each.

The "Wee We Uns" of 10958 Longview, Detroit, won $28,000 with Thames Trader, which ran third. This was the only identification of the winners who gave the address of an apartment building.

Efforts to Break Voodoo Spells Gall Husband

DETROIT (AP) — He wasn't so hurt by his wife's belief that he had put a hex on her, James Hopper told the judge. But he was downright put out by her efforts to break his "spell."

In filing suit for divorce in Circuit Court yesterday, Hopper charged that his wife Frances sought to free herself from the "voodoo" spell by:

—Sprinkling salt and pepper on the bed.

—Digging a hold in the yard and filling it with pepper.

—Putting ginger in the bath water.

Hopper, a welder, told the court that his wife's feelings toward him were influenced by a "Mr. X."

Hotelmen to Convene

DETROIT (AP) — Some 200 hotel owners and managers are expected to attend the 46th annual convention of the Michigan Hotel Assn. here Oct. 29-31.

Pontiac Is Justly Proud of City Manager Willman

Pontiac citizens are justly proud of the new honor bestowed on WALTER K. WILLMAN, our City Manger.

Being selected by brother administrative chiefs to head the International City Managers Association for 1960 is definite proof that BILL WILLMAN is highly respected within the group.

Mr. WILLMAN's long public service dates back to 1924 when he started his career in Mount Pleasant. Since that time he has served in a series of city administrative posts.

Along with his executive abilities is a little known fact that in Mount Pleasant he served as a golf course architect, designing that city's first golf course.

★ ★ ★

When questioned about this, Bill explains the course is still in use today and a real test for any man's game, including his own. Aside from this one brush with recreation facilities, Mr. Willman's career has dealt largely with directing municipal governments.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac residents have only to look around to see the many accomplishments since City Manager WILLMAN arrived here in 1950.

Our City Manager is a dedicated official and his fine record of achievements speaks for itself.

Emphatic Rejection Kills Library for Waterford

Waterford Township voters have turned down an offer of land for a public library and tax increases to finance the structure.

★ ★ ★

The refusal to boost the tax millage for this project was more emphatic because it was the second time the voters have vetoed the proposal. The offer of retired financier Frank Steere to give 17 acres of land as a site, providing a $250,000 library was built on it, was generous and thoughtful.

★ ★ ★

Very few will deny that a library would be an asset to the growing community and would serve the needs of many. The library committee, composed of interested citizens, worked hard on the project of explaining and promoting the idea.

★ ★ ★

But the final decision was with the voters, and they said no twice. So be it.

Russia Strictly Limits All Freedom to Travel

With the official visiting back and forth between the United States and Russia, ordinary tourist travel has been all but overlooked.

It is estimated that before the end of the travel season some 16,000 Americans will have seen the sights of Moscow. A Russian visa is easy to get but visitors must travel under the watchful eye of Intourist, the official travel agency.

★ ★ ★

Probably about 500 Russian scientists, officials, entertainers and athletes will tour this country under the cultural exchange program this year. As to tourists, however, perhaps 100 may come over but in small groups accompanied always by an Intourist guide as well as Soviet diplomatic personnel. Last year there were 72 in four tours.

★ ★ ★

In Russia it is no simple matter to get a visa. Besides having the money, the would-be traveler must be selected by his trade union which is awarded a quota of tours. Then comes a thorough investigation. None but the dedicated Communist is likely to get by. When he does reach our shores, he has little contact with Americans. His spending money, included in the price of the ticket, is limited to $4 for three days and is doled out by the Intourist guide.

As a consequence of this process there have been no known defectors from any Soviet travel group in this country or in Europe. But it is a different story with the satellite countries which once knew freedom. During the Brussels fair, 300 Polish, Hungarian and Czech tourists asked asylum in Belgium. In six visits to Stockholm of the Polish tour ship Mazowse, 80 Poles defected.

Practically all of the increased foreign travel by Russians—from 1,700 in 1955 to 30,000 last year — is on closely guarded cruise ships. They have nothing like the freedom to travel abroad that we enjoy in this country and little or no personal contact with the peoples of other lands.

We're Too Modest

In Telling Why Our Area Is Best Place to Reside

Halloween: Intended to be a safe and sane event. Let's keep it that way.

In absolute agreement is this column with the sentiments expressed in several letters, phone calls and direct conversation, all of which point out that we in the Pontiac area do not brag enough.

The very name of Pontiac gets one a joyous introduction most anywhere in the world. Everybody has heard of the chief, the city or the car, and when people learn you're from that area you're off on the right foot.

No other city of many times the size has such an initial advantage, so it is the plain duty of our residents to enumerate the many other attractions that we have. Let's do it, with a pride. We're sure of good listeners.

Just When We Need It Most

David Lawrence Says:

Steel Peace Soon? Don't Expect It

WASHINGTON—There's a lot of wishful thinking about the prospect of an early settlement of the steel strike, especially after a court injunction eventually does order the men back to work, but the outlook is far from encouraging.

LAWRENCE

For one thing, the 11 major companies are more determined than ever that the costly investment they have made in the basic issues of the strike shall not be in vain.

The settlement made by the Kaiser steel mills and the small company in Detroit doesn't in the slightest degree affect the outcome.

Indeed, what the Kaiser interests settled for—which has been announced as a 10 per cent increase in its costs—would amount to a 17 per cent increase in the case of the other major steel companies according to their spokesmen.

This is because of various differences in the setup of the Kaiser companies in California as compared with the other major companies.

A canvass of the position of the 11 companies shows that they do not feel in the least disturbed by the Kaiser settlement, and do not think it warrants the inferences that have been drawn by those who have said a breakup in the solid front of the eastern and middle western companies is at hand.

McDONALD ERROR?

There have been some significant goings on in the last few days. A reported change in sentiment among the workers is being widely discussed.

Many of the strikers are believed to feel that their leader, David McDonald, made a tactical error in fighting the injunction by insisting on a stay of the order.

An appeal on the merits could readily have been made, just the same, it is declared, without depriving the workers of the pay they would have received for going back to work immediately after the lower court last week issued its first order granting the injunction.

The point is being made that since it was inevitable that the injunction would eventually be sustained, it was a waste of the workers' wages to keep them from going back to their jobs this week.

Also, in Washington, the Union is believed to have lost ground by delaying the day on which the injunction would become effective. The government here is determined to have steel production resumed.

It considers that an emergency has arisen. The tactics of delay by the union are regarded in administration circles as unnecessary and as strengthening the belief that the union leaders would recklessly disregard the public interest and prolong the strike.

COMPANIES WON'T BUDGE

It is indicated among those who are well informed about the position of the 11 major companies that they will not alter their attitude, and that unless in the next few days the proposal recently made by the companies is accepted, there will be a nationwide campaign carried on to inform the workers of just what the companies have really offered.

The idea is to persuade the strikers to vote in favor of the "last offer." This procedure, which necessitates a secret ballot, is authorized under the Taft-Hartley Act during the time the 80-day injunction is in force.

Many steel company men express confidence privately that the workers will not turn down the steel companies' proposal when they learn what it actually means to them in dollars and cents.

★ ★ ★

If the company offer is turned down, however, the prospect is that the strike will be resumed.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

So that, as sin reigned in death, grace also might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Romans 5:21.

★ ★ ★

This speck of life in time's great wilderness
This narrow isthmus 'twixt two boundless seas,
The past, the future, two eternities!
—Thomas Moore.

For the employer group is adamant that it cannot allow its costs to rise without producing an inflationary spiral.

The President's board of inquiry will attempt, to be sure, to bring about a negotiated settlement before the matter is put to a vote of the workers.

It is to the interest of the union leaders to try to get such a result in the next few days so as to make the secret ballot procedure unnecessary.

You can always be proud of your blood relations — those with the Red Cross, that is.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Piles Can Be Treated by Several Methods

Not being detained from work, play, profession or business is just one advantage of ambulant treatment over radical surgery for hemorrhoids. Freedom from pain and discomfort for perhaps several days and nights is another advantage. The doctor cannot honestly say the patient will not have future attacks of hemorrhoids after either hemorrhoidectomy or injection treatment. Only the pile excised or chemically obliterated cannot recur, but neither method of treatment prevents development of new piles. It is difficult to explain this here, but if you want to learn more about it send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the free pamphlet You Need Not Suffer From Piles.

DR. BRADY

Formerly I tried to maintain a directory service but this proved too laborious and costly. Perhaps your family physician uses the ambulant method, or if not will tell you what physician in your community does.

It is the only treatment I'd consider if I had internal, bleeding piles. The method is not applicable to external, painful piles. Incision of the external pile tumor, usually under local anesthesia, to turn out the clot, is the best treatment for external pile.

However, nature will cure the pile just as well, if you don't mind waiting (and suffering) four or five days longer while the clot becomes organized and the pile tumor shrinks or shrivels away.

The radical operation for internal piles (hemorrhoids), particularly with clamp and cautery atrocity is for many victims such an ordeal that they wish they hadn't submitted to it. However, it is rarely fatal — which is more than we can say of that other atrocity so dear to the hearts of the ever-ready operators, tonsillectomy. Both crudities should have been abandoned long ago.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Each of us is responsible for the State's muddle. Perhaps we've done nothing — that causes government to be weak. Halloween is fun, but let's not overdo it. Halloween isn't for soaping and dirtying up the city. It's for dressing up and going out to parties and to get candy. And it's for black cats and witches and goblins.

Some people think it's being funny or sissy-like to take a dog or cat or any other pet out with you, but it isn't. Halloween is just to have fun. It isn't any fun for the people who have to clean soap off windows.

Steel Worker Gives His View of Strike

If you'd look into the steel union, you wouldn't see it all split up like the auto workers. Our wives don't write letters condemning it. We're proud of our union and our leaders, and our wives trust us to have the brains in our homes to know what we want.

The strike wasn't wanted by the men or the union. We're not fighting for money like you read in the papers. We're asking to be treated like humans and not monkeys. Our working and health conditions aren't like most auto workers'. We don't get $3.10 an hour. Ninety per cent of us get $2.88 plus 30 cents for pension, insurance, etc.

If Ike makes us go back to work as most of the rich and well born (mostly Republicans) hope he will, he'll force upon us working conditions that will be passed on to my children and yours that I'd be ashamed to look them in the face and say that's the best I could do. And I have five of them.

All we and our wives want is a chance to work and live like humans and not slaves. We of the North are against slavery. Remember 1861-1865.

'Parents Should Watch the Schools'

Why are so many parents complaining about their teenagers' education First the parents should be more interested in these modern textbooks. The California State Legislature recently completed an investigation which proved a number of teachers as well as textbooks were tinted with the Red dye that emanates from Moscow.

So we here in Michigan, especially our universities and high schools, should take greater interest in our books and educational system. Lenin, father of modern communism, said, "Give me four years to teach the children and the seed I have sown shall never be uprooted."

You parents of school children, let this be a warning to you.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Discusses Problem of Stuttering

Bobby's mother is going to make him a lifelong victim of stuttering by her own neurotic behavior unless she gets hep to psychology fast. Scrapbook this about the "Stutter Triangle." For further advice, look up my college textbooks in your local library, for stutterers should be freed quickly.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE C — 482: Bobby B., aged 3, should interest all of you.

"Dr. Crane," his worried mother began, "Bobby is beginning to stutter.

DR. CRANE

"Although I try to correct him, it doesn't do much good. In fact, I fear he is getting worse.

"So I stop him and try to make him repeat the sentence more slowly.

"I am at my wit's end, and am becoming a neurotic over the matter. What else can I do?"

NEUROTIC SYMPTOMS

Stuttering is often a neurotic symptom — primarily of the parents, not the child.

It would be truer to say that Bobby's mother was a neurotic long before he began stuttering. Her tense personality may have predisposed Bobby to stutter.

Actually, however, stuttering is NORMAL at the pre-school stage, so Bobby's parents should NOT have spotlighted this condition.

At the age of 3 or 4, a child usually has a much larger "understanding" vocabulary than he has a "speaking" vocabulary.

You adults may recall, in this connection, what happened when you studied French or Spanish or German, or Latin. You could read or understand far more of that foreign tongue, than you could speak.

Well, the very same situation occurs here in America when our toddlers begin to learn words. They understand far more than they can speak.

★ ★ ★

So, in their excitement, they stumble over the act of talking for they can't find enough words to keep up with their richer ideas.

This normal stuttering will disappear by the time the child enters first grade — UNLESS: And that "UNLESS" means, "UNLESS" his neurotic parents "fixate" his attention on his speech defects.

If they keep yelling at him long enough, they can make him so self-conscious about the mechanical act of speaking, that he will develop a lifelong habit of checking his speech after starting a sentence, and may thus become a confirmed stutterer.

CAUSES OF STUTTERING

Later, in the teens, a child usually develops the type of stuttering which is based on social humiliation.

★ ★ ★

Maybe he mispronounced a word in class. Everybody laughed.

Because he was a shy introvert, he blushed and grew confused. He felt embarrassed.

He turned his conscious attention toward what should be a mechanical act, namely conversation. And stuttering then fastened itself upon his speech.

To help this older type of stutterer break his slavery of this nuisance social habit, remind him of the famous "Stutter Triangle."

Stuttering usually starts when the victim is—

(1) Conversing in a normal tone;
(2) In his native tongue (English, here in the U.S.A.);
(3) With human beings.

Change any corner of this stutter triangle and you help free the victim. Thus, if he pitches his voice higher or lower or holds pebbles in his mouth, he alters Corner (1). Ventriloquism stops it, too.

If he changes Corner (2), as by speaking in a foreign language, he will stop stuttering.

★ ★ ★

And if he talks to animals, as dogs or horses, or trees, or even the waves of the sea, a la Demosthenes, he can help free himself quickly.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

'President' Willman Lauded for Election

very proud of Bill Willman, our fine city manager, who has been elected president of the International City Manager Assn.

"Our community has made great progress under his efficient management and we are pleased to see his ability recognized with this high honor."

Willman received a telegram yesterday from John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce. It read:

"Your election makes us more than ever proud of our city manager."

"It couldn't happen to a more deserving man," Hirlinger added here.

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors: "I'm very happy to extend my congratulations to Bill because he is one of the really outstanding managers that I know."

Thomas F. Wiethorn, Pontiac plant manager of Fisher Body Division: "It was gratifying to hear of the high honor accorded Mr. Willman. It indicates the high esteem in which he is held throughout the country. We in Pontiac should be proud."

★ ★ ★

A. C. Girard, president of Community National Bank: "I feel very proud for our city and very proud for Bill. No other man in his profession is more entitled to such an honor."

Milo J. Cross, president of Pontiac State Bank: "The citizens of Pontiac are very happy and proud that Bill Willman has been elected.

"We have contended here for many years that he is one of the top men in his profession — this signal honor confirms our opinion."

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools: "This honor is a great compliment to Bill and a great compliment to Pontiac, too. We in the schools are very conscious that the high quality of leadership in our civic government has provided a climate in which the school system can strive for excellence."

OUR CITY

Willman has been a member of the ICMA for more than 20 years, and is among the top six in terms of length of membership.

Facing retirement soon—he is 63 years old—Willman recently conceded in private the possibility that the ICMA might chose to honor him towards the end of his long career.

But Willman was thinking at most of only a vice presidency, according to the man who works most closely with him, Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager.

Election to the top office apparently came as a surprise.

Before coming to Pontiac, in 1950, Willman was city manager of Port Huron three years. He served as city manager of Mount Pleasant, 1930-1947, and East Detroit, 1929-1930. He began his career with a four-year stint as manager in Mount Pleasant, 1924-1929.

Truck Sideswipes School Bus

Children Escape Disaster

An Avondale school bus carrying 25 to 30 children, most of them students at Elmwood Elementary School, narrowly missed disaster this morning when it was sideswiped by a two-ton dump truck on Auburn road.

★ ★ ★

No one was injured, according to Sheriff's Deputy Roy Juhl.

The bus, driven by Mrs. Grace Angus, 59, of 3835 Livernois Rd., Avon Township, was stopped to pick up children about a half-mile east of Adams road when it was struck.

Roy Wilkins, of 352½ N. Cass Ave., said he pumped the brakes to stop behind the bus, as required by law. As he did so, the brakes pulled the truck into the side of the bus, Wilkins told Deputy Juhl.

The side of the bus was creased.

"This came mighty close to being a disaster," Juhl said.

★ ★ ★

He issued Wilkins a ticket for not having his operator's license with him.

Other than being frightened, the children took it in stride, Juhl said.

Mexico's Dead Mounts to 100

Many Missing in West Area as Rivers Flood After Hurricane, Rains

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The count of known dead neared 100 today in Mexico's flood-stricken states of Colima and Jalisco. Many more persons still were missing in one of the country's worst modern disasters.

★ ★ ★

Large sections of the two small western states bordering the Pacific still were isolated by floods in the wake of weekend torrential rains and a hurricane Monday.

Air rescue operations continued around the clock in an effort to reach hundreds of families driven from their homes by rain-swollen rivers that jumped their banks and poured through dozens of small villages.

The rivers knocked out communications and flooded roads in the stricken area, hindering the movement of military convoys carrying food, medicine and clothing.

President Adolfo Lopez Mateos took personal charge of relief operations.

The Pacific port of Manzanillo, which took the full force of the fatalities. At least 100 residents were reported missing and 500 injured.

Full reports of casualties and damage could not be obtained because of the breakdown in communications. The President's office announced reports received by radio.

Four Are Overcome by Leaking Gas

Four persons were taken to Pontiac General Hospital last night after they were overcome by gas fumes leaking from a stove at their home.

Mrs. Genevieve Rundell, 45, and her son, Peter, 8, were reported in fair condition at the hospital this morning. Also felled by the escaping gas were Mrs. Kathleen Galpin, 15, and her five-month-old son, Theodore. They were treated and released.

All the victims live at 34 W. Rundell St.

Rules on Mothers-in-Law

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Actress Sylvia Lewis, 28, was granted a divorce from her film director husband John Rich, 34, yesterday, but not on her charge that Rich was rude to her mother. "No man is obligated to love his mother-in-law," the judge said.

U.N. Unanimous for First Time

Each of 82 Nations OK Joining to Sponsor Arms Talk Resolution

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — In an unprecedented action, all 82 U.N. members have agreed to join in sponsoring an East-West disarmament resolution.

★ ★ ★

Never before have Israel and the Arab states cosponsored a U.N. proposal. Nor is there any precedent for the appearance of the Soviet Union and Nationalist China on the same list of sponsors.

★ ★ ★

"Disarmament makes strange bedfellows," commented one diplomat. He said many delegations would have refused to join the parade of sponsors except for their keen desire to see the new round of disarmament talks begin on an even keel.

★ ★ ★

The resolution calls for turning over all disarmament proposals made before the General Assembly to the 10-nation East-West committee that will meet in Geneva next February. The resolution endorses no specific arms proposal but refers indirectly to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's plan for total disarmament within four years and British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd's call for step by step disarmament.

★ ★ ★

The move to get all 82 members behind the current arms resolution in advance was pressed by the United States and the Soviet Union.

The Political Committee is expected to take quick action on the resolution.

UAW to Appeal Conviction of 9

Fines, Jail Sentences Handed Down After Cross Strike Violence

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—Attorneys for the United Auto Workers Union say they plan an immediat appeal to the Michigan Supreme Court of contempt convictions handed down against nine UAW members.

The convictions came from Judge Alton H. Noe of the Macomb County Circuit Court who ruled yesterday that the nine "repeatedly flouted" an injunction issued in connection with the violence-ridden Cross Co. strike in Fraser.

The nine were fined and given jail sentences on charges that they violated a ban against mass picketing, violence and threats. UAW Local 155 was fined $250.

Judge Noe granted a 20-day stay of execution of the convictions to allow the union to appeal the ruling.

The UAW struck the automation firm Aug. 4 in an effort to force it to bargain on a new contract. Company and Union negotiators say they will meet again tomorrow in an effort to end the 86-day-old strike.

★ ★ ★

Fined $100 each and sentenced to 10 days in jail each were Local 155 President Russell Leach, local business agent Archie Beveridge, and Theodore Van EE, UAW international representative.

Six other union members were fined $50 each and sentenced to five days in jail.

Cross management and UAW officials began meeting in settlement efforts after a U.S. Court of Appeals ruled that the company had to accept the UAW as bargaining agent. Cross had maintained that the union did not represent a majority of employes.

GENEVA, N. Y. (UPI)—Christmas decorations were strung across downtown streets for a week during the month of August here.

Pro-U.S. Icelanders Slip, Not Defeated

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—Iceland's pro-American Conservatives — the Independence party — lost ground in Sunday's general elections but a pro-Western coalition government appears likely.

★ ★ ★

The Conservatives' probable choice of a partner for the next four years are the Social Democrats (moderate Socialists), whose party chairman, Emil Jonsson, has headed a caretaker government for the past 10 months.

The Conservatives, with 20 seats in the old Parliament, had hoped to win most of the eight additional seats in the expanded 60-member body. They got only 4, giving them a total of 24.

The Communists picked up 3 seats, boosting their total to 10, while the Social Democrats also gained 3 for a total of 9.

The isolationist Progressive Farmers lost 2 seats, leaving them with 17.

The election campaign virtually ignored the presence of the 6,000-man American radar base at Keflavik—a controversial issue in the past.

But Insurance Firm Quits

Paddling Worth 56 Cents

LOWESTOFT, England (UPI) — A company which insured grammar school boys against spankings and other schooltime accidents went out of business today.

Geoffrey Small, 13-year-old president of the company, said the decision to disband the seven-month-old "Middle School Insurance Society" came after "the head (master) told me he did not think it was a suitable activity in the school.

"So we are going into voluntary liquidation."

Wilfred Brooks, headmaster of the Lowestoft Grammar School, said "I regarded the whole thing as a joke but it has gone far enough."

The society had 20 members who paid three cents a week. They could collect four shillings (56 cents) for a paddling, three shillings (42 cents) for being kept after school, and one shilling (12 cents) for having to write poetry on the blackboard.

UP 2-Lane Road Built on Base of Copper Rock

ONTONAGON (UP) — A highway with a copper bottom — unique in the history of road-building — will be opened near here Tuesday.

The eight - mile, two - lane stretch in the Military Hills area of Ontonagon County in the Western Upper Peninsula is built on a base containing over one million pounds of copper ore.

Reconstruction of the roadway paves the last gravel surface on U.S. 45 between the Gulf of Mexico and Lake Superior.

Highway Department engineers said the rebuilding was one of the most challenging engineering projects they have faced.

The texture of the soil — known as Ontonagon clay — posed the main problem. One engineer compared it to wet toothpaste.

The problem was to build a roadway able to carry legal truck loads over the wet and shifting clay.

The answer was to use waste rock available in large quantities from nearby copper mines.

More than one million tons of the rock was hauled in.

Engineers said the waste rock contains about one pound of copper a ton.

The short stretch of highway still cost $2,700,000 to build — about the same as a comparable mileage of expressway.

Gas Price Drops by 1.2 Cents in Area

DETROIT (UP)— Gasoline was 1.2 cents a gallon cheaper in the three-county metropolitan Detroit area today.

Major refineries followed Sinclair's lead yesterday in cutting prices to dealers. The Michigan Gasoline Dealers Assn. said the reduction would be passed on to consumers.

★ ★ ★

The cut brings the general retail price to 29.9 cents for regular gasoline and 33.9 cents for premium.

The area affected is bounded by Pontiac, Mount Clemens, Rochester, Milford, New Hudson, South Lyon, Plymouth and Wyandotte.

About one-half of the Eskimos in the world never saw a snow house.

Johnson Finds 4 Dems Okay

Says All Front-Runners Worthy of Support as He Answers Students

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) says he would be pleased to give his enthusiastic support to at least four Democratic leaders mentioned as presidential nomination prospects.

Answering questions at a student meeting at the University of Texas, Johnson — himself a strong potential candidate with backing of House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) — had warm praise for Adlai Stevenson and Democratic Sens. Hubert Humphrey, John F. Kennedy and Stuart Symington.

Johnson also predicted that the next Congress would, after a hard fight, add to civil rights legislation by giving the attorney general subpoena powers in such matters and providing that the FBI be brought in on church, school and synagogue bombing cases.

The senator said Stevenson was a man of "great intellectual capacities" and would have a great following at the 1960 Democratic Convention.

On Humphrey — "He would make an excellent campaigner. He is prudent, reasonable and effective."

★ ★ ★

On Kennedy — "He is very young, attractive, and a competent legislator. He is the leading contender at present."

On Symington — "He is highly regarded. He has served with distinction in both legislative and executive capacities."

Bob Considine Sees War Threat

Time: 1961—Place: Commie Cuba

Herewith is a not so fanciful fantasy:

HAVANA, Oct. 28, 1961 — Following is the text of the joint communique issued tonight by Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev of the Soviet Union:

"The Prime Minister of the Cuban Peoples Republic and the Premier of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics concluded their week's talks in Havana late today. The talks were uniformly friendly and further strengthened the traditional ties between the two peoples.

"Before returning to Moscow tomorrow, Chairman Khrushchev will cut the ribbon at the dedication ceremony opening the last link of an island-wide network of missile bases. Both leaders participated today in the dedication of Peoples Peace Port, Soviet submarine base located on the site of the former U.S. naval installation at Guantanamo in southeastern Cuba.

"The purpose of the missile bases needs no explanation. They were built to strengthen the security of the Cuban Peoples Republic which has been under attack by reactionary forces in North America and through much of Latin America. The missile bases are of the 'hard' type and show no exterior buildings, gear or gantries.

"Missiles from these subterranean pads now dominate targets as far to the north as Washington, New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Chicago and Milwaukee. Soviet missiles with a variety of atomic warheads are at present in place. Russian-trained missile crews are 100 per cent Cuban, under the command of Gen. "Che" Gueverra, Peoples Patriot.

LIBERATION SOUGHT

"The talks were attended over the past few days by the foreign ministers of the two countries — Andrei Gromyko and Raul Castro. The latter called for immediate intervention to liberate the workers of the U.S., Canada, Mexico, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Venezuela and Peru from their Fascist oppressors. But at the suggestion of Chairman Khrushchev action on this was delayed until his summit talks with Party Leader Mao Tse-tung next week in Tsing-Tsing, the former New Delhi.

"In a joint statement, the principals at the historic Havana Conference assert: 'Let the peoples of the world rid themselves of the heavy yoke of armaments, through peaceful trade and co-existence.' Prime Minister Castro was expected to expand on this theme during the course of a scheduled four-hour telecast tonight."

(Continuing the fantasy)—

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28, 1961 —J. Herman Quackenbush III, former U.S. Ambasador to Cuba, said tonight in the wake of the momentous news of Soviet military bases in Cuba that the U.S. lost its best opportunity to forstall such an emergency by "sheer timidity."

This "sheer timidity," he said, was displayed as far back as October 1959 when there was no quick and decisive American reaction to the first of a series of inflammatory anti-American campaigns directed by Prime Minister Castro.

Quackenbush, who was expelled by a Castro edict when the U.S. Embassy in Havana was closed in April 1960, told reporters:

"We should have called this fellow's bluff at the proper time. We should have reacted firmly, and through tested diplomatic and legal avenues, when he began a campaign that was to result in confiscation of American property in Cuba and the alienation of the traditional affection between the two peoples.

"We should have given instant armed protection to Latin allies infiltrated by his 'liberation' forces, and been more vigilant policing the small Florida airfields from which counter-revolutionary leaflet planes were dispatched by larcenous Cuban officials and officers in exile.

"Instead of letting relations deteriorate through the autumn of 1959, and preposterous charges go all but unanswered, the President or the secretary of state, or both, should have faced Castro in Washington or Havana, properly assayed his ambitions, offered the Cuban government as much aid as was given the Batista government, and perhaps discovered why Castro's nickname in his college year book was Loco.

"Certainly, a determined effort at that time, 1959, to get through to the people of Cuba and strongly counteract the atheistic ideologies and hate-American campaigns of the Castro group would have stopped Cuba's headlong flight toward the status of Russian satellite.

"It would also have negated any opportunity for the U.S. Supreme Court to rule, as it did last week, that the Monroe Doctrine was unconstitutional."

(End of fantasy. Wake up, and take a couple of aspirins.)

Poles Like Meat Too Well So Party Raises Prices

By PHIL NEWSOM

The Polish Communist Party has decided that Poles have been living too high on the hog.

The statement may be taken literally because while Polish housewives have been queuing up for pork at the meat shops, the state farms and individual peasants have been cutting back on hog production.

The problem is two-fold: Polish agriculture has not kept pace with the population growth, which is one of the fastest in Europe. Meanwhile, the Polish worker's real wages have jumped more than 20 per cent, giving him some jingling money for his pocket and the wherewithal for a fancier diet.

The Communist leadership's answer for this was to increase the price of meat 25 per cent, at the same time sending party workers out through the rank and file to explain this unpalatable bit of austerity.

Poland has been living beyond its means since 1956, but the party and/or the government knows it is treading on treacherous ground in attempts to get the individual Pole to retrench.

Polish workers expressed themselves forcefully in the "bread and freedom" riots at Poznan in 1956 and won substantial concessions from the government which admitted it had been guilty of poor planning.

The Communist Party Central Committee again has found evidence of bad management in industry, bad planning in agriculture and rising absenteeism among the workers. The answer to all this, the committee says, is discipline and this it now will attempt to impose.

Who Will Get Murphy's Job?

New Faces Fill U.S. Policy Posts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The resignation of Robert D. Murphy as undersecretary of state has almost completed an unplanned shakeup in the State Department high command. It has been under way since Christian A. Herter took control last spring.

★ ★ ★

Two further developments are in prospect: a successor must be found to fill Murphy's key job. And Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen, veteran expert on the Soviet Union next week will assume a new post as Herter's special adviser on Soviet affairs.

★ ★ ★

The changes involving five policy-making positions could have important impact on the development of U.S. foreign policy toward various parts of the world, but Herter's associates say they were not made with any policy purpose in view.

"WITH DEEP REGRET"

Murphy's resignation was announced by the White House Wednesday night. Murphy, 65, wrote President Eisenhower that he was resigning effective Dec. 3 for personal reasons. The President accepted the resignation "with deep regret, but with complete understanding."

He said that Murphy had well earned his unofficial title as this country's No. 1 diplomatic trouble shooter.

Later Murphy told reporters, "It was an awfully tough decision to make." He said he wanted greater financial security and more time with his family than his State Department duties had permitted. He will take a job in private industry.

★ ★ ★

State Department press officer Lincoln White said reports that policy differences had anything to do with Murphy's resignation were completely unfounded.

Murphy had turned down the job of ambassador to West Germany. The post will become vacant soon with the retirement of Ambassador David Bruce.

Herter became secretary last April 22, succeeding the late John Foster Dulles.

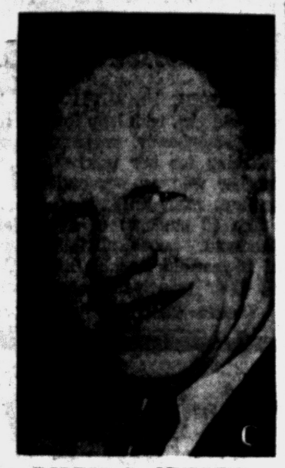

Since then he has had to deal not only with Murphy's resignation and the recall of Bohlen, but also with the selection of new assistant secretaries for European affairs, Far Eastern affairs and Middle Eastern affairs.

The European post was opened up by the promotion of Livingston T. Merchant to a new position as deputy undersecretary. There is speculation that Merchant may succeed Murphy as undersecretary for political affairs.

Foy D. Kohler was made acting assistant secretary to take over the duties formerly handled by Merchant but the job still has not been filled on a permanent basis.

Walter Robertson, Dulles' assistant secretary for the Far East, resigned because of ill health and his office was filled by the promotion of a deputy, J. Graham Parsons.

Middle Eastern expert William M. Rountree was named ambassador to Pakistan and was replaced by another career diplomat, G. Lewis Jones.

GOP Sabotaged Williams' Hopes, Says Pearson

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's financial mess has killed any chances Gov. Williams might have to win the Democratic presidential nomination, Drew Pearson, Washington political writer, said here today.

"I feel that Michigan Republicans have deliberately sabotaged Gov. Williams, whom I regard as one of the ablest governors in the United States," Pearson said.

Pearson, here on a lecture tour, had breakfast at the governor's home.

He predicted Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York will win the Republican presidential nomination. The Rockefeller campaign will gain in strength, he said, and overcome the lead now shown in the national opinion polls by Vice President Nixon.

England Repays Loan of $250 Million to U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Great Britain today repaid the United States—5½ years ahead of schedule—250 million dollars it borrowed during the Suez crisis in 1956.

★ ★ ★

The repayment was believed to be the largest in a single lump ever received by the Export-Import Bank.

The Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railroad's Pioneer Zephyr, the world's first Diesel-powered streamliner, made its maiden voyage from Denver to Chicago 25 years ago in 13 hours and five minutes at speeds up to 112 miles an hour.

Hare Approves Reflector Move

Can't See Soaking Taxpayers for Device in Present Crisis

LANSING (AP)— Prospective legislation to repeal the new reflectorized license plate law won the backing of Secy. of State James M. Hare today.

"At a time when we need tax money for more essential things, I take a dim view of soaking a few million car owners this year for reflectorizing the plates they will get next year," he said.

★ ★ ★

"What is more, we have never had any substantial proof that such reflectorization helps reduce traffic accidents."

Gov. Williams has signed a bill adding 25 cents to the cost of license plates as a charge for reflectorizing.

"Even if the session closes on Dec. 1, we couldn't collect the extra fee before the March 1 deadline for buying the new tabs," said Hare.

★ ★ ★

Because of the confusion and delay, some senators have talked of repealing the law or postponing the effective date until the 1961 license year.

The 1960 tabs for attachment to 1959 license plates will go on sale at all branch offices of the Department of State Monday.

The tab system was ordered by the Legislature in an economy move.

Rail Unions Ready for Contract Battle

CHICAGO (UPI) — Management and unions readied today for one of the biggest battles in the history of the nation's railroads.

Conferences are under way or soon will be on contracts involving most of the 800,000 railroad workers. The procedures are complicated, but charges ringing out from both camps are quite clear.

For example, the railroads claim "featherbedding" practices of the unions are costing the carriers 500 million dollars a year—money spent for work not performed or not needed.

The unions retort that management intends—"even if it provokes a strike"—to insist on changes in the working rules which labor has established by negotiations dating back as much as 40 years to protect the public as well as the workers.

Meetings to Aid Industry for Upper Peninsula

LANSING (AP) — Workshops for groups interested in community industrial development will be held in three Upper Peninsula areas next week.

The State Economic Development Department said leaders in the field will take part in day-long panel discussions at Sault Ste. Marie on Tuesday, Marquette on Wednesday and Ironwood on Thursday.

Hal Boyle Interviews Jackson

Eddie Cashes In on Dixie Boom

NEW YORK (AP)—"Some people don't like to get up in the morning," said Eddie Jackson, "So they go into show business."

"That's how it was with me. I couldn't get up early enough to look for any other kind of work," he said.

Dixieland music is back, bigger than ever, and "Struttin' Eddie," who has been singing it for 45 years, is cashing in on the boom.

BOYLE

"I don't know any other kind of music. I like the beat of rock 'n' roll, but I can't catch the lyrics," he said.

"If you put a gun to my head and asked me to name three words in any rock 'n' roll tune, I couldn't do it—not even to save my life."

The banjo-eyed veteran, slowed up a bit by a double hernia operation a few years ago, is still one of the most active survivors of the heyday of vaudeville. Eddie, now 63, started as a singing waiter in Brooklyn. He teamed in his salad past with Jimmy Durante and the late Lou Clayton, and played at the old Palace here, the mecca of vaudeville, no less than 29 times.

Jackson loves to recall the prohibition era of the flaming 1920s.

★ ★ ★

"There was a lot of money around then, and it was being spent," he said. "Anything they couldn't get is what people wanted—so they all seemed to want to drink.

★ ★ ★

"But I don't miss the night clubs. Those were closed-door days. They had some rough college boys around then who aren't around now—if you get what I mean.

"People don't go for the night clubs so much now. They all stay home and keep their television sets warm. I do myself."

As he talked of the old days, Eddie cocked his head sideways as if he were listening to the faint echo of a distant song.

JOLSON WAS THE GREATEST

"The greatest entertainer that ever lived was Al Jolson," he said. "No man ever thrilled me like that man.

"He was the greatest that ever lived—and the loneliest I ever saw. I used to sit at nights with him. It's all right to have money, but not if it leaves you lonesome.

"There have been a lot of great female entertainers, but the best of them all is still around—Sophie Tucker.

★ ★ ★

"After all these years she still gets terribly nervous before she goes on. But once she walks out and hears that applause, she's the boss. Jolson was that way, too. He was always terrible nervous on opening nights."

★ ★ ★

Eddie came from a poor family—his father was a pushcart peddler—and knew lean years of struggle himself.

"I believe in doing the other fellow good; I never hurt anybody in my life," he said. "I don't mind how big the other fellow's yacht is, or how green his yard is—just so there's a little green in my own yard."

He remembers how once, when he was just reaching the big money, he visited his sister and put two $100 bills into her hand.

"Thanks, my husband collects these," she said, stuffing them carelessly into the pocket of her dress.

"What do you think those are?" asked Eddie.

"Cigar coupons," she replied.

$58 Million Needed for New State Parks

LANSING (AP)— Michigan needs an additional 176,000 acres in parks lands to cost 58 million dollars to meet the needs of some 40 million visitors by 1970, parks experts were told today.

★ ★ ★

Arthur C. Elmer, chief of the Conservation Department parks and recreation division, was the speaker before some 200 delegates to the annual meeting of the Michigan Natural Resources Council.

Elmer said although Michigan has the longest fresh water frontage in the United States, the state controls only about 9 per cent of it. The federal government controls another 8 per cent, he said.

"We must get the few remaining sections of undeveloped shoreline of Lakes Michigan, Huron, Superior and Erie having recreational potential before they too become subdivisions, shopping centers or the sites of so-called scenic highways," he said.

Varied Career to Culminate in the Ministry

BANGOR, Maine (AP) — After careers as professional ice skater, fighter pilot and oil man, Kendall W. Anderson is turning, at 39, to studies for the ministry.

He will enter Bangor Theological Seminary this fall.

In his youth, Anderson, of Conyngham, Pa., was with the Shipstead & Johnson Ice Show four years. He flew 117 missions in the Pacific during World War II. Since the war, he has been in the oil business working out of Wilkes Barre, Pa.

The Congregational seminary here encourages more mature students. Andy Anderson, lacking a college degree, hopes that here he can cover seven years academic work in five.

"It'll be a grind," he says, "but it will be worth it."

Brigitte Goes Too Far, Con's Pin-Up Taken

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Brigitte Bardot may be a movie star to most folks, but to convicts at the Nebraska Penitentiary, she's contraband.

Student Saves Him by Writing Ike

Teacher Won't Be Drafted

FAIRLEE, Vt. (UPI) — A 12-year-old girl, with help from President Eisenhower, did some apple polishing for her teacher — and teacher won an occupational deferment from military training.

The 95 students of the village elementary school all think highly of 24-year-old Donald L. Lindsley II, their principal-teacher-coach.

Calista Chapman fired off a letter to the President when she heard Lindsley was due to enter the Army.

"I wrote to Mr. Eisenhower and told him what a wonderful teacher we had and how so many of us would be so disappointed if he did not return in the fall," Calista said. "I told the President how we all liked him so very much, how he had given us a splendid physical education course, and how wonderful he was to all of us besides such a good teacher."

In her rush, Calista forgot to mention Lindsley's name.

The President wrote back and suggested she include the name, which Calista promptly did, all unknown to Lindsley or the town's elders.

The Vermont Selective Service Appeal Board granted Lindsley a deferment.

TO HELP OTHERS — Tomorrow night is the time of year spooks and goblins traditionally haunt the village of Clarkston, among other places. The eerie creatures will be joined by 200 gaily costumed children and chaperones going from door-to-door. They will be collecting donations to the United International Children's Emergency Fund from 6 to 7 p. m., under the sponsorship of churches and schools in the area. Afterwards, the youngsters will attend a Rotary-sponsored party at Clarkston High School. Vandalism Now Forcing Park in Avon Township to Close Up

AVON TOWNSHIP — Due to a serious rash of youthful vandalism, Avon Township officials decided last night to take no more reservations at Avon Township Park after Jan. 1.

According to Township Supervisor Cyril E. Miller, young hoodlums have been doing such extensive damage to park facilities that the township cannot afford to replace the equipment, such as light bulbs, windows, window frames, and picnic tables that have been damaged or destroyed.

Just last night the man hired to patrol the park, whose name was withheld, apprehended a group of boys shooting out light bulbs.

He said that when he approached them they said, "He hasn't got a gun. Let's run."

The incident occurred at about 6 p.m., township officials said.

EVENTS SCHEDULED

The only reason that the park is not being closed immediately is that social events have been scheduled there for the next two months and they cannot be canceled on such short notice, Township Clerk Frances O. Covert said today.

"If it weren't for them, we think we would close the facility right now," Mrs. Covert added.

The vandalism problem at the park dates back to last spring, and since that time some 60 windows have been smashed, countless light bulbs broken and the bathhouse ravaged by the young miscreants.

At the bathhouse, heavy wire mesh on the windows was ripped, the windows smashed and the window frames bashed by heavy two-by-fours used last Saturday by a bunch of young hoods, according to witnesses who saw them in their act of destruction.

The main pavilion also was the scene of more damage. There window panes were broken, heavy rocks hurled at the log walls and eggs spattered against the siding.

'GOING TO JAIL'

When contacted today Rochester Police Chief Samual Howlett said, "We don't know who the vandals are or where they come from, but when we catch them they're going to jail."

"That park has been in operation a long time," the chief said, "and we've never had a problem like this before."

"We expect to cooperate fully with the township and try and get these young hoodlums," Howlett indicated.

★ ★ ★

Miller said the vandalism cannot be passed off as a Halloween prank because of the long period it has been happening, much of it during the daylight hours.

The Township has put two night watchmen on patrol at the park to try and forestall any further destruction.

Charged With False Arrest, Beating

Five Madison Policemen Lose Suit

A verdict against five Madison Heights police officers charging them with false arrest, false imprisonment and beating up a suspect was handed down in Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Jurors granted a judgment of $5,000 for Stanley C. Widlak, 39, of 29385 Spoon St., Madison Heights. He had sought $100,000.

Upon hearing the verdict, H. Eugene Field, Madison Heights city attorney, renewed his motion for no cause for action. Judge William J. Beer will rule on this Nov. 4.

Widlak, who said he lost his job as a bulldozer operator after his arrest, originally charged Police Chief Robert Richardson, six of his officers and a city constable with falsely arresting him at home Oct. 17 last year.

JUDGE FREES 3

However, Judge Beer dismissed Richardson, Sgt. Delbert Bedgely and Constable Frank Cagle as defendants on Field's motion Tuesday.

Today's judgment is against Lt. Joseph Landino, and Patrolmen Leamon Justice, James Simpson, Gerald Sloan and Frank Good.

Widlak charged them with arresting him without a warrant, assaulting him and keeping him in jail three days without allowing him to call relatives or an attorney.

All officers told him, he said, was he was under arrest for investigation of grand larceny.

Denying they used any force, the officers said they were ordered by Lt. Landino to pick up Widlak after he refused to come to the station voluntarily to talk to the lieutenant about a report he had been seen trucking some lumber away from a home under construction.

The city contended there was probable cause to believe Widlak had committed a grand larceny in the theft of the lumber.

Although the city admitted officers had no warrant at the time of the arrest, Field said Widlak was arraigned on the larceny charge Oct. 20 before Justice Hendrik J. Smit.

Smit dismissed the charge against Widlak Nov. 10 after examining the evidence.

Walled Lake Voters Must Register

WALLED LAKE — All those otherwise eligible to vote at Walled Lake must register between now and Saturday, regardless of whether they have registered before, City Clerk Dorothy Lonsdale announced today.

It seems that voters should have been registered again when Walled Lake first was incorporated as a city in December 1954, but this was never done until now.

The oversight became apparent in the city's last election when many voters gave different addresses than the last time they registered under village status.

Mrs. Lounsdale stressed that "everyone must register at this time regardless of whether he registered before. Naturalized citizens must bring their citizenship papers with them," she added.

City offices at 115 N. Pontiac Trail are open daily from 9 until 5 and will remain open until 9 p.m. Friday to register voters.

Of 1,100 voters at Walled Lake only 365 have registered since the process began Oct. 1.

Church Guilds to Hold Fun Fair in Lake Orion

OXFORD TOWNSHIP — The five guilds of St. Joseph Catholic Church will sponsor a fall fun fair and bazaar from 1 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at the Youth Center, Lake Orion.

Publicity Chairman Mrs. Lynn Haines, of Oxford said features of the event will be unusual foods, a bake sale and Christmas gifts together with an old-fashioned country store and a cake walk.

Proceeds from the project will be used to help pay for the St. Joseph School buses, Mrs. Haines said.

2nd High School Plans Studied

Waterford Board Also to Look Into Another Elementary Unit, Too

The Waterford Township Board of Education will meet at 7:30 tonight to review preliminary plans for a second senior high school and another elementary school.

★ ★ ★

The board also is scheduled to determine which architectural firm will be awarded a building alterations and additions contract.

Preliminary plans for a $2,500,000 high school on a 50-acre site at the end of Bender street off Hatchery road will be presented by the George D. Mason architectural firm, Detroit.

This firm was awarded most of the recent township school building contracts, school officials said.

OKs ELEMENTARY PLANS

The board approved preliminary plans for a new $350,000 elementary school on Merrie road north of Pontiac Lake road at last week's regular meeting. Smith & Smith, architects, designed the building.

The same firm will present plans for another elementary school at tonight's meeting.

The building program, financed by a 5-million-dollar bond issue approved by voters last March, is moving along rapidly, according to Superintendent William Shunck.

A new elementary school is under construction on Walton boulevard and five new classrooms are being added to the Schoolcraft School on Maceday drive.

WILLIAM J. EMERSON

SOUTHFIELD—Oakland County Superintendent of Schools William J. Emerson will address the Southfield Area PTA Council when it meets at 8 p. m. Tuesday in Lederle Junior High School, 18235 W. Nine Mile Rd.

"A Giant Stride Toward Better Schools" is his subject. It will be preceded by a reception when persons interested in education in this district can meet him.

Emerson is a director of Boys' Republican and a member of the Oakland County Tax Allocation Board and the Michigan and National Education associations.

A graduate of Central Michigan University, he took postgraduate courses at Wayne State University.

Mrs. John Bodnar, president of the PTA, will preside at the business meeting to follow Emerson's talk.

Gang Parley Still Mystery

U.S. Attorney Admits Conspiracy Successful at Trial of 21

NEW YORK (UPI)—The federal government admitted today that it hasn't found out what actually happened at the 1957 gangland convention at Apalachin, N. Y.

Milton R. Wessel, special assistant to the attorney general, told the jury trying 21 Appalachin "delegates" on charges of conspiring to obstruct justice:

"Their conspiracy was a successful one. I want to tell you now that we will not be able to establish actually what happened at that meeting."

But Wessel said in his opening remarks to the jury of eight men and four women that the government would prove that the defendants "agreed to tell lies about this" meeting at the home of the late Joseph Barbara.

★ ★ ★

He said it would present evidence of airlines, limousine, and hotel and motel room reservations made in advance of the Nov. 14, 1957, meeting.

"That meeting was no accident, as it would be almost impossible to find the Barbara home in this tiny hamlet without specific instructions," Wessel said.

Wessel said that shortly after noon on that day about 65 underworld figures were surprised by state troopers around the Barbara barbecue pit.

The men, "knowing that they were under investigation by federal grand juries and other government agencies, decided in a 40-minute period to give false evasive information to those agencies regarding their activities."

Mrs. Louis Pirochata, his housekeeper, told deputies someone had stolen a small gold box containing loose change.

Canada to Sell Russian-Built Moskvich Car

TORONTO (AP)—A new and unlikely entry, the Soviet Union, joined the capitalistic competition for the Canadian small car market today.

A blue and white Moscow-built Moskvich 407 was uncrated on the Toronto docks. It will be displayed at the Modern Import & Export, Ltd. showroom to dealers and the public.

The Canadian firm said it hopes to import the cars on a large scale.

Walter Misko, assistant sales manager, reported the firm was approached by the Russians and agreed to test the market with one car. He said he understood many dealers had turned down the offer because they feared Canadians would not buy a Communist-built auto.

The Russian car, priced at about $1,500, is expected to be competitive with other small imported cars.

Of the 60,000 Moskvichs made each year, about 30 per cent are earmarked for export. The four-door sedan has swing back front seats which convert into beds. A four-stroke, four-cylinder, water-cooled engine can produce 45 horsepower and a top speed of 69 miles an hour. It gets about 30 miles to the gallon.

THIS IS A DOG? — The biggest greyhound in the United States is Enormous (that's his name). He weighs in at 92 pounds and is racing for Gene Randle of Miami in the Biscayne Kennel Club's 33rd meeting starting Oct. 30 at Miami, Fla. Enormous measures six feet from nose to tail and 33½ inches to shoulder besides 37 inches to the top of his head. An April 1958 pup, he is still growing. Next to him in this picture is a Shetland pony.

Would Have Board Define Issues

Mitchell Wants T-H Act Liberalized, Clarified

BOSTON (AP) — Labor Secretary Mitchell wants the Taft-Hartley Labor Law changed so the President could name a board at any time to investigate a labor dispute and tell the public exactly what it is all about.

The labor secretary said such a board, with power to order witnesses to testify at public hearings, would make the issues understandable to everybody. He said that would help settle the dispute.

But he opposed having the board make recommendations unless both sides asked for them. And he opposed compulsory arbitration, explaining if the government fixed wages, it would ultimately have to fix prices and dominate the entire economy.

He found fault with parts of the 80-day injunction process. Because of disagreement, as in the steel strike, over what constitutes a national health and safety emergency, he suggested a re-definition is needed as to what constitutes a peril to the nation.

★ ★ ★

He noted that "many students of the law feel that the national emergency section . . . is too static in the sense that both parties know exactly what is going to be done at specified intervals."

★ ★ ★

He said, "the tendency is to relax in these periods and do nothing." But Mitchell said he was not ready to make any recommendations.

Mitchell said he thinks trade union power has been diluted by automation and that it needs to expand orgainzation in fields outside manufacturing.

". . . If organized labor wishes to keep pace with the changing industrial composition of our labor force it must turn its attention to the organized trade and service people to a greater extent than in the past."

Work Permits for 1960 for Minors Out Monday

WHEELING ALONG — More than two million motor vehicles were added to the nation's registration rolls at the beginning of 1959, reports the government. This was an overall increase of 3.1 per cent over 1958 and swelled the highway stream to over 70 million. Chart above gives figures for autos, trucks and buses and their percentage increases.

Gets Tired of Watching Frantic Search for Him

PITTSBURGH (UP)— James Pearce, 9, was reported missing from his home in nearby St. Clair Village.

James' mother and father were worried. The neighbors were worried. Searching police were worried.

But all this worry changed to a slight flare of anger and then to laughter when James showed up safe and sound.

He'd been perched in a tree near his home watching the search party until it got too cold and he decided he'd had enough fun.

Gen. Schomburg Takes Job Jan. 31

Missile Center Happy Over New Boss

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A desk general who enjoys repairing antique clocks will salvage what he can of the Army Missile Center at Huntsville, Ala., as new Army missile chief.

He is Maj. Gen. August Schomburg, 51, who will succeed Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris as commander of the Army Ballistic Missile Command with headquarters at Huntsville. Schomburg was named yesterday to take over the new job Jan. 31.

An Army spokesman said officials and personnel at Redstone Arsenal here are "very pleased" with the appointment of Gen. Schomburg.

Schomburg was named Tuesday to succeed Gen. Medaris, who retires Jan. 1.

Many people think there won't be much left of the center after Dr. Wernher Von Braun and his team of rocket scientists are transferred early next year from the Army to the Civilian National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

However, the Army still will have important military missile programs, including the anti-missile missile, designated the Nike-Zeus. Schomburg also will command the 4,000-square-mile Army Proving Ground at White Sands, N.M.

Schomburg is a native of Denver who graduated from West Point in 1931. He has been in ordnance work since 1939. He now is deputy chief of Army ordnance in Washington, and lives in suburban Bethesda, Md.

The black-haired, 200-pounder was a guard on the West Point football team.

Schomburg's chief off-duty interest in the past was doing delicate work with antique clocks. His favorite reminiscence concerns a Dutch grandfather clock he picked up for about $100 in Boston 10 years ago.

The unimpressive-looking clock was covered with several layers of ordinary kitchen paint. When Schomburg carefully removed the paint with a pen knife, he found a masterful example of inlaid wood. He values the clock at about $2,000.

★ ★ ★

Schomburg frequently has carved new log wheels and other parts that were missing when repairing an old clock.

The general says he hasn't had much time for clocks in the last 10 years. His hobbies now are his five grandchildren.

The Army is releasing Schomburg from part of his Washington duties immediately so he can study problems at Huntsville before assuming the post.

A Cause for Alarm

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI)—Robert T. Sarach, 29, was freed from the wreckage of his car by firemen who arrived at the scene after his auto struck a pole, setting off the fire signal box attached to it.

Ex-Cripple Hopes to Make Cage Team

NEWARK, N. J. (UP)— Hugh Mahoney, 14, stood at the basketball foul line and pumped in 25 out of 30 free shots to win the title of city junior champion.

A year ago, he was paralyzed with bulbar polio.

Now the 5-foot-6 youth hopes to begin practicing running and jumping shots in hopes of winning a place on his high school varsity basketball team. "I may not be too tall," he says, "but I've got high hopes."

Map Causes Trouble

ST. ALBANS, Vt. (UPI) — Airman Alvin Whitmell, 22, ran his car off the road and hit a utility pole when a map on the seat beside him suddenly flew.

'Sick' Mother Has Shot in the Arm

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — An attorney asked U. S. Commissioner Ray H. Kirchdorfer to reduce the bond for a woman being held on a stolen check charge.

"She has a terribly sick mother she must look after," the attorney said.

A check of police files showed the mother had been shot in the arm. Her daughter was awaiting a hearing on that charge, too.

The U. S. government began selling postal cards in 1873. The price was a penny apiece until 1952.

Oysters Getting Fewer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oyster fanciers can expect higher prices as the season advances. The crop of prime oysters has been diminishing year by year and this year is expected to drop 5 million pounds to about 55 million pounds as against 90 million pounds 20 years ago.

Queen Promises Reform

English Gambling Laws in Muddle

LONDON (UPI) — A man can win $800,000 tax free for a penny bet on the football pools in this country. And he can get arrested for trying to place a bet with a street corner bookie.

He can run a roulette and chemin-de-fer party in his house one night and wind up with a fortune. If he tries to repeat the affair he may wind up in the clink.

A licensed bookie can accept a bet sent him through the mails or take one on credit. But if anyone pays him cash over the counter he is technically in trouble with the police.

So the big news in Britain today is that Queen Elizabeth, who runs a string of winning horses but never bets herself, is finally doing something about the labyrinth of gaming laws on her statute books.

Ever since the reign of her ancestor, Elizabeth I, parliament has been passing regulations of one kind and another to try to control the betting fever which sweeps Britain from the cottage to the castle.

There have been 400 years of clashing laws on gambling, and not one has been repealed.

'DON'T ASK ME'

No wonder a home office spokesman, asked today to explain some of the anomalies, groaned: "Please don't press me — it's all so vague, you see."

★ ★ ★

In the queen's speech from the throne at the opening of parliament Monday (it is really written by her ministers), a reform of the betting laws was promised. This apparently will carry out suggestions made by a royal commission in 1951.

The commission recommended a top prize of 10,000 pounds sterling ($28,000) for the football pools. This would end such dramatic wins as Tuesday's $744,000 for 70 cents by author John Dunn.

Dunn, subsidized by the bets of millions of his countrymen, announced he was going into retreat to write the great British novel.

The commission recommended that offcourse horse betting be made legal with something on the line of the betting shop as set up in Ireland. Right now most of the legal betting is in the hands of giants like William Hill who boasts he lost $2,800,000 last Saturday alone. (He can afford it).

The royal commission plumped for more gambling, not less. It suggested repeal of all laws before this century. Then it urged legalized betting for horses, greyhounds, football pools and anything else suitable. It turned down the idea of a lottery or gambling casinos.

It said the taxes on nearly two billion dollars in bets the law tried to keep track of last year were more profitable than a lottery.

Pushbutton Directory an Aid to Customers

NORWALK, Calif. (UPI)—Ever get that lost feeling in a self-service store? A California drug chain may have solved the problem — in hi-fi.

A new type of pushbutton directory has been installed in a store here. Shoppers check the directory for the item they want, push the right button, and a recorded voice tells exactly where it is in the store. The device has 192 buttons for the best selling items, from aspirin to waxpaper.

TOGETHER AGAIN — Fire nearly got his goat. Six-year-old Johnnie Powell of Forth Worth, Texas, had to ask firemen to cool off his pets when fire swept through a vacant house a few feet from the pens where Suzy Q (the goat) and Pancho (the Chihuahua pup) were kept. Today they are together, and happy, and dry again.

Italian JDs Try Hard, but 'Crimes' Are Mild

ROME (UPI) — Italy's juvenile delinquents lack the originality, teamwork and true toughness that has enabled their counterparts in many other countries to become real menaces to society.

Actually, Italy has less juvenile delinquency than any other country in Europe. Its youthful gangs of toughs and its under-age criminals have received plenty of publicity lately but they are not as numerous as they are elsewhere.

Unhappily, though, the recent well-publicized outbreak of teenage violence in Europe and the United States seems to have triggered a rash of similar activity on the streets of Italy. The juvenile gangs here are inclined to play follow-the-leader.

But their "rumbles" are comparatively tame affairs. For one thing, it seems that every fight between rival gangs is attended by half a dozen photographers ready to record the event. For another, hardly anyone ever seems to get hurt.

Italian gangs are loosely knit. They do give themselves a name however — usually something picked up from another gang they've read about.

There is much petty pilfering, destroying of property and general nuisance-making. But there is little bloodshed.

The most serious juvenile crimes are committed in the south of Italy. There, despite a generally-tighter parental control than in the well-industrialized north, unemployment and poverty encourage the youths to get what they want any way they can.

One deterrent to juvenile delinquency throughout the country is lack of regard among Italian police about whose heads they break when there is trouble. (Even more important of course, is the strict control over their children exerted by Italian parents.)

If two gangs want to fight, fine. But when the police get there and wade in with swinging clubs there are likely to be more heads broken in five minutes than in an hour of so-called gang warfare.

The one area in which Italian juveniles seem to excel is the "heavy compliments" they pay to women.

Time and time again, police have heard complaints from women who have been stopped, insulted, propositioned, or just generally annoyed by groups of youths.

It was against this background that the case of 19-year-old Alba Sbrighi came to light.

On Aug. 23, Miss Sbrighi fatally stabbed one of five young hoodlums who annoyed her on her way home. He was only 16 years old.

By the next morning she was something of a national heroine.

Miss Sbrighi revealed that she had been annoyed a number of times by the same group of boys as she walked home every night.

★ ★ ★

Finally, she began carrying a kitchen knife in her pocket. The night of Sunday, Aug. 23, the five boys jumped out from behind the bushes and began making indecent remarks to her.

She pulled out the knife and swung away.

The next day other women of the area came to police, saying they too had been annoyed by the same gang.

Italians may shake their heads and mumble about the younger generation when they read the daily newspapers.

Oil Discovered at Albion School

ALBION (UPI)—The newest oil strike in the Albion area occurred Tuesday in a playground at the St. John's School.

Testing of the 4,155-foot well brought gas and oil to the surface in less than 30 minutes.

It was the 23rd well in a four-mile line to show oil and first brought in inside the Albion city limits.

Drilling is expected to start soon on three other wells inside the city.

33 Cancer Societies Set Up Own Units

NEW YORK (AP) — Thirty-three of the American Cancer Society's 3,000 local units have quit the parent organization in a dispute over fund raising methods.

The 33 then set up independent local organizations and at some of the places the cancer society set up a local committee to represent it.

Two years ago the society's board of directors voted to cease participation in Community Chest and United Fund drives, and run its own money raising campaign.

★ ★ ★

At the peak of participation in the United Fund campaigns, the cancer society estimated that this source provided 15 per cent of all its funds.

Major local units pulling out of the society included one in Detroit.

Invited to Investigate Viet Nam Aid Waste

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sens. Albert Gore (D-Tenn) and Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) have been named to go to Viet Nam to investigate charges of waste and mismanagement in the U.S. foreign aid program there.

The inquiry was ordered after Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearings last summer on the charges, leveled by Albert M. Colegrove of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers.

Stassen to Prove He Paid Taxes From 1953 to '57

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — City revenue agents will visit the center-city office of Harold E. Stassen today in an attempt to prove Stassen failed to pay city wage taxes for the years 1953 through 1956.

But Stassen, who led the unsuccessful attempt to block Vice President Richard M. Nixon's renomination at the 1956 Republican National Convention, said he would not be there.

The action appears to mean a showdown in the bitter tax squabble between Stassen, who is running for mayor, and his Democratic opponents.

The city's Democratic administration contends the GOP candidate never paid. Stassen maintains he did pay and has proof of payment.

First Aid Instruction Set for Thursdays

The fall series of advanced first aid courses will be held by the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, at the chapter house, 118 Franklin Blvd., beginning Nov. 5.

Sessions will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. for eight Thursdays.

Glen D. Smith, instructor, said classes are open to all who hold a current standard first aid certificate.

Wyoming is called "the equality state" because it was the first to grant universal women's suffrage even before it was admitted to the Union in 1890.

Mr. K's U.S. Visit Smash Hit

Red Moviegoers Wild Over Nik

By ALINE MOSBY

MOSCOW (UPI) — Moscow has a smash movie hit on its hands today and the man who steals the show is none other than Nikita Sergeyevitch Khrushchev.

★ ★ ★

There are prominent Americans in the movie — Frank Sinatra, Marilyn Monroe and President Eisenhower — but they are just upstaged bit players.

Khrushchev's first full length color film opened in two dozen theaters in Moscow and getting tickets is as difficult as it was the first year "My Fair Lady" burst upon the New York scene.

The supercolossal production "N. S. Khrushchev in America" has everything from humor to a luscious closeup of Miss Monroe.

SIMPLE PLOT

The plot is fairly simple: Boy loves girl (the ordinary American people); boy tries to win girl but the pair is kept apart by the villains (American police). Girl loves boy, so boy wins girl.

We first see the local fellow leaving home to fly overseas to the big city.

Americans in Washington and New York reach out hands, smile, snap photos, cheer and applaud.

But those police!

Stern-faced, arguing with each other, pushing people behind barricades.

Tragedy stalks our hero in Los Angeles.

CAN-CAN CUT

The mayor refused to tell the people where Khrushchev can be seen. Palm-lined streets are almost empty except for a few sunbronzed characters in shorts.

All the hero gets to do is meet Sinatra and Shirley MacLaine in a low-cut dress. (The can-can dance which the Russians saw and thought vulgar landed on the cutting room floor).

But Hope returns in San Francisco. Cheering crowds wave signs proclaiming peace and friendship.

Our hero puts his thumb up indicating he likes the place. So does the commentator who obviously fell in love with the bridges and cable cars, and says with pleasure:

"San Francisco has pigeons as we have in Moscow." (Shot of citizens feeding pigeons).

'Slices Are Slender' Is Defense of Ad Claim

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Safeway Stores Inc., one of the nation's major supermarket chains, stood firm today on claims that its "slender-way" bread is slenderizing.

Safeway said that a "slice of slender-way bread has fewer calories than a slice of ordinary bread because slender-way bread is sliced thinner."

The company made the statement in reply to Sept. 16 charges by the Federal Trade Commission that it was falsely claiming weight-reducing qualities for the bread.

Per Capita Income Up

NEW YORK (UPI)—Per capita income in the United States rose to $2,057 last year from $1,491 in 1950, the National Industrial Conference Board reported.

Connecticut led the nation with a per capita income of $2,817. New Mexico showed the sharpest jump between 1950 and 1958 — about 58 per cent to $1,838.

WHO YOU? — Ready for the worst is this Marine wearing modern, cold-weather battle dress. Ballistic helmet shell, made of the same material used in armored vests, is designed to replace the M-1 helmet now in use. Other items are face mask, cold-weather liner and snow glasses.

Crosby's Wife, Kathy, Is Sued for $50,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bing Crosby's wife, actress Kathy Grant, is accused of negligent driving in a $50,000 damage suit filed by a retired businessman.

Herman S. Magad, 60, charges in a Superior Court action brought Wednesday that Miss Grant's auto struck a car in which he was riding last Nov. 12 in Hollywood. Magad said he suffered a neck injury and a cut on his chin. Crosby Enterprises, Inc., is named codefendant.

Two Bits Started It

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — Henry Gordon, 32, was sent to state prison for up to three years for slashing Howard Russell in an effort to collect a 25-cent debt.

Japan's Birthrate Down

TOKYO (UPI)—The average number of children per family in Japan in 1957 was 2.8, which is half the pre-war figure. The population White Paper recently released after six months of research cites birth control measures and the legalization of abortions under the Eugenics Protection Law as contributing factors in limiting the number of births.

With Something Pretty in It?

A Shirtwaist, Black Skirt!

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Ray Milland has some decided ideas on what clothes give a woman sex appeal, and it is the opinion here that they ought to be listened to. While Milland is not a dress designer (praise be!), he is an established connoisseur of women—and anyone who doesn't know that is too young or too old to be reading about sex appeal anyway.

A PLAIN BLACK SKIRT

"The most alluring outfit a woman can wear," said Milland, ripping right into it, "is a white shirtwaist and a plain black skirt. With the traditional string of pearls around her neck.

"Now, the fashion world dictates the quick pendulum-swing from one extreme to another almost every season. The woman who swings with the pendulum probably won't admit it, but she's really dressing to impress other women. After all, does her personality and figure change with the season?

"When you are conscious of a woman's dress, you are oblivious to the woman inside it. That's bad. Because sex appeal is an internal quality."

What does he think constitutes sex appeal?

Milland adapts his famous small-boy leer.

"Webster says it's 'the quality that attracts the opposite sex.' I'd like to go further. Sex appeal is a quality that gives a man the feeling that the woman is both the lady and the tiger."

He shrugs. "So what costume combines these elements best? A white shirt and a dark skirt. A frame for a good-looking picture."

Hollywood's super-sophisticate, who has been married to wife "Mal" for more than 20 years, says further that so-called "femme fatales" do not intrigue the thinking man.

"A too revealing gown leaves little to the imagination, and mystery is a very essential element. A too frilly gown has just the opposite effect—it offers not a clue as to what's inside.

"A package should give just the right indication of its contents. And a well-fitted skirt and blouse do that perfectly."

Milland says, in support of his contention, that the blouse-skirt combination is international. And his wife wears them. And many of the girls on his TV show "Markham" wear them at his suggestion.

"You might say it's too much a combination worn by the 'girl-next-door' type. Too demure," Milland says. "But note that many glamor-type girls are still searching for what I believe is referred to as 'true love,' while the girls next door are happily settled with good, observant men."

Four Small Firms Get 1 Big Contract

ALBUQUERQUE N.M. (AP) — A federal official says a group of small firms incorporated under the Small Business Administration has won the first federal contract of a type which a large firm usually gets.

The Albuquerque companies are Applied Research Associates Inc., Bandelier Films Inc., Machine Engineering Corp. and Ward Anderson Printing Co. They have a $1,250,000 Air Force contract to write and print secret Air Force manuals on operation of aircraft and special weapons systems.

About 50,000 towns and villages in the U.S. have no rail outlets and depend entirely on motor transportation.

Names Minister in Blackmail

Other Preacher Claims He Was Trapped Into Picture With Woman

YANCEYVILLE, N.C. (AP)—A 59-year-old Baptist minister has charged a fellow minister with blackmail.

The Rev. G.A. Hamby told authorities that Mrs. J.T. Swinson revealed herself to him in the nude while he was visiting in the Swinson home and that her husband took pictures of them.

The minister said Mrs. Swinson pulled him from the kitchen into a bedroom. Then, the minister said, the Rev. Mr. Swinson, also a Baptist minister, appeared and photographed them and beat him with a stick.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Mr. Hamby said 60 stitches were needed to close the wounds.

Hamby said the incident occurred Oct. 15. He said he had been invited by the Swinsons to go deer hunting.

The Swinsons were named in five warrants charging blackmail, conspiracy and assault.

Hamby said that after the incident, he was forced to drive Swinson to Burlington and write a $650 check as a down payment on a new car for the Swinsons.

He said Swinson also kept his wrist watch and $20 of the $60 in his wallet.

Hamby's church is at Tuxedo, a few miles from the South Carolina line. Swinson, about 40, is pastor of Faith Baptist Church near Burlington. His wife is in her 30s. They have two children.

Hamby said he stopped payment on the $650 check.

★ ★ ★

He said he had known the Swinsons about 10 years.

Detroit Man Sentenced for Money Fraud Effort

CHICAGO (AP)—An ex-convict accused of posing as a Catholic archbishop in an effort to obtain $750 from Jacob M. Arvey, Illinois Democratic national committeeman, has been sentenced to jail for six months.

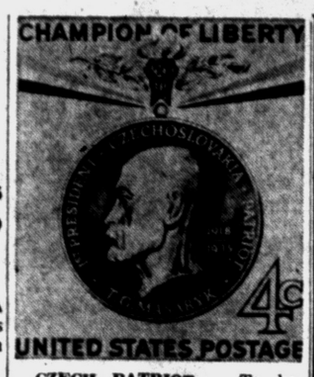

★ ★ ★

He is Oscar Boyce, 45, an auto worker who came to Chicago Monday from Detroit.

Police said he once served 18 months in the federal prison at Danbury, Conn., for sending false checks through the mails.

★ ★ ★

Prosecutors said Boyce telephoned Arvey, a lawyer, Tuesday and represented himself as Archbishop Bernard J. Sheil.

CZECH PATRIOT — To be placed on sale March 7, this U.S. postage stamp will honor the founder-president of the Czechoslovakian republic, Thomas G. Masaryk.

Worst Motorist Back in Court With 97th Ticket

DETROIT (UPI) — The Motor City's champion bad motorist, Mrs. Luella E. Puett, about 80, was back in court yesterday with her 97th traffic ticket.

Mrs. Puett, an attorney, pleaded innocent before Judge George T. Murphy who freed her on $300 bond and set trial for Nov. 4.

The woman who police call "the champion bad driver" said police gave her a "break" on her 97th ticket. They ticketed her as a probation violator and not for making a "pedestrian-panicking" left turn.

Mrs. Puett was put on two years' probation last April and ordered not to use her California driver's license anywhere in Michigan.

That sentence resulted from an accident in which the woman hit a policeman's car, then fled the scene.

Muskegon County Votes on Airport Expansion

MUSKEGON (AP) — Muskegon County taxpayers were voting today on a proposed $2,900,000 bond issue for airport expansion and improvements.

The proposal asks a one-mill tax levy for four years.

Projects which would be financed include a temporary new terminal building and improved runways.

Driver Point System Halted Temporarily

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan's austerity program has stopped, at least temporarily, the secretary of state's plans to hold group interviews with 9, 10 and 11 point drivers.

The interviews were intended to warn drivers they were nearing the license-suspension stage and perhaps cut the number of suspensions.

"My greatest regret in calling a moratorium on this experiment is that the State Safety Commission had seen in it one of our last remaining devices which we could turn to to help decrease the highway death rate in Michigan," Secretary of State James Hare said.

Lightning is seldom seen in the polar regions.

Williams Names Five to State Medical Board

LANSING (UPI)—Five members of the state board of registration in medicine were reappointed today by Gov. Williams for terms ending in September 1963.

They were Drs. Edward V. Williams of Muskegon, Paul G. Hanna of St. Joseph, Walter E. Mercer of East Lansing, Joseph P. Bertucci of Ishpeming and Oscar D. Stryker of Mt. Clemens.

NUNS TRY SCORING — These nuns in Cincinnati, Ohio, are learning marksmanship at a local Boy Scout camp. Representatives from various Roman Catholic orders attended the session to learn more about Scouting, and how it is related to church activities. These nuns trying their hand at target practice are Sister Mariella, Sister Mary Janice, Sister Assumpta and Sister Teresa Carol.

Water Wonderland Fast Becoming the Land of Spectacular Bridges

By LARRY GUSTIN

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan is famous as a "water wonderland," but it's also becoming known as a land of spectacular bridges.

Six covered bridges — weather-beaten, wooden structures of a century ago—remain standing in the state.

The giant Mackinac Bridge, longest suspension bridge in the world, connects the lower and upper peninsulas and the Houghton-Hancock Bridge will link the Keweenaw Peninsula with the Upper Peninsula.

Port Huron's Blue Water Bridge and the Detroit Ambassador Bridge connect Michigan with Ontario, Canada, and another international span is planned across the St. Mary's River between the two Sault Ste. Maries.

★ ★ ★

"No single accomplishment in highway construction in Michigan can compare with the positive contribution the Mackinac Bridge has had and will continue to exert on traffic development in the UP," highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said.

The Houghton-Hancock vertical lift bridge on U.S. 41 over the Portage Ship Canal, is the newest in the state. It will open next Wednesday. The 11-million-dollar structure will operate in three positions.

The first position, with a clearance of seven feet from the water, will enable tram, car and vehicular traffic to move across the canal.

In the second position, the two-million pound center span will raise 25 feet, providing a 32-foot clearance, ample for pleasure craft.

★ ★ ★

The railroad level will then move into position at the roadway level, with cars using the railroad deck for crossing to prevent interruption of trunkline traffic. Large ships will be able to pass under the third position, as the center span will lift to a height of 100 feet.

The new bridge, which replaces the existing one built in 1906, is believed to be the widest and heaviest vertical lift bridge in the world, although not the longest.

Mackie said preliminary right of way plans were completed this month for the approaches to the proposed international bridge connecting the American and Canadian Soos and that title, searches for needed land were under way.

Appraisals will start next month, he said, and acquisition is expected to start about the first of the year.

Indiana Towns Vote Tuesday for Mayors

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Voters in 108 Indiana cities and scores of towns Tuesday elect mayors and other municipal officials, with the Democrats seeking to defend their greatest show of strength in generations.

Republicans sought a comeback from the 1955 municipal election returns which wrested a 3-1 majority control they had in Hoosier mayor offices and gave their opponents a margin of the same ratio.

Newspaper straw polls in Indianapolis, the state's capital and largest city, and Evansville, the state's fifth largest city, gave the GOP the edge. This was somewhat of a surprise to many politicians who figured the Democratic trend developing in the 1958 sweep in Indiana had not run its course.

Last year, relatively - unknown Vance Hartke won a stunning victory for the Democrats in his race for the retiring Sen. William E. Jenner's vacated seat. Hartke defeated Gov. Harold W. Handley, the Republican nominee, by nearly a quarter of a million votes in the greatest Democratic landslide in Indiana's history.

Housewives Win Fight Against Paving Street

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — A group of angry housewives who didn't want their street paved appear to be winning their fight.

The women staged a sitdown strike Tuesday closing a three-block area that was about to be paved. Frustrated road builders took their machinery elsewhere.

Wednesday the contractor said he has no intention of returning as long as the women maintain a picket line.

A. G. Meyers, the real estate developer, said he would just as soon not pave the street. He said he thought he was pleasing the homeowners in the first place by paving it.

The homeowners would have had to share the costs with Meyers.

Developers Hail 17 New Firms

In Report at Marquette State Group Claims It Brought Eight of Them

MARQUETTE, Mich. (AP) — The Michigan Economic Development Department reported Wednesday that 17 companies on its list of prospective new industries for Michigan located in the state in the first nine months of this year.

The report was made to a Marquette meeting of the Michigan Economic Development Commission, which oversees the department.

The department said it was the prime mover in getting eight new plants for the state and assisted local communities and other agencies in the acquisition of eight others. It said the 17th was obtained largely through efforts of Michigan industrial ambassadors, a group of industrialists.

The department did not list the new plants by name or location in a news release.

The department said that as of last Jan. 1 it had 46 prospects. Of that 46, 11 came to Michigan, 22 located elsewhere or abandoned expansion and moving plants. Thirteen still are regarded as prospects.

Since Jan. 1 the department added 61 new prospects. Of that total six have moved to Michigan. Five went to other states and the department still is working on 50.

★ ★ ★

William M. Day, commission chairman and president of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., said the report was encouraging "and we intend to keep this program moving forward as rapidly as possible."

Out of 27 which abandoned consideration of Michigan, the department said 10 decided to withhold expansion plans for the present, 4 expanded where they were, 4 went out of business, 6 went to other states, and one Michigan firm expanded by buying another, one indefinitely delayed expansion, and no information is available on the 27th.

Thus far in 1959, the report said that seven Michigan communities have formed industrial development corporations to offer financial assistance in acquiring new industries. It said there now are 100 such corporations in the state.

It said 39 Michigan communities now have established or are ready to establish planned industrial sites with facilities industry would require.

It also was disclosed that the department has established a so-called tourist screening program in which industrialist vacationers are sifted out and urged to consider Michigan as a location for any plant expansion.

Dave Beck Runs Parking Lot, Has Good Location

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Dave Beck, who once directed the affairs of the big Teamsters' Union, is now taking quarters in a downtown Seattle parking lot.

It is not out of any need, though. Beck owns the block-square lot. Besides, he still receives an annual pension of $50,000 from the Teamsters.

★ ★ ★

Beck said he decided to take over active operation of the lot because business was "not building up the way it should" with hired help.

"It's building up very well, now," he said. "We're doing very well."

Beck, 65, puts in a full day at the lot. It is located across the street from the Teamsters Union Building, where he once made his headquarters and from where he now gets a lot of parking business.

He has an appeal pending on his Feb. 19 conviction of evading $225,000 in income taxes for the years 1950-53.

Railroad Promotes 2; Has 9-Month Loss

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad promoted two of its top executives Wednesday and reported a September loss that put the nation's largest road into the red for the first nine months of 1959.

★ ★ ★

James M. Symes, 62, the PRR's president, was appointed chairman of the board and chief executive officer. Both posts have been vacant.

★ ★ ★

Allen J. Greenough, 54, vice president in charge of transportation and maintenance, succeeded Symes as president and also was made chief administrative officer.

★ ★ ★

Before the appointments were disclosed, the railroad announced that it lost $2,281,792 in September — wiping out the nearly two million dollars earned in the first nine months of 1959 and creating a deficit of $449,346 for the year through September.

★ ★ ★

The steel strike was blamed for the September loss. It was compared with a profit of $1,643,395 in September 1958. The nine-month deficit, however, was compared with a loss of $6,899,035 for the similar 1958 period.

Bacon and Squash Can Be a Best-Buy Meal

What little effect the meat strike had on meat prices was canceled out with the settling of that strike. Good buys may be found in beef chuck roasts in some stores.

While wholesale pork prices went up during the week, they steadied themselves at the end. So there are good values to be had in pork loins, hams and bacon. The latter is very reasonable and might be featured as a dinner meat.

POULTRY—Fryers have gone up in price, but some stores are featuring stewers. This is an excellent time to buy turkey; prices range from 35 to 49 cents a pound, depending on size.

FISH—Lake Erie perch is a good buy, as is smelt. Lobster tails will be in decreased supply until about the first of the year. Trout and whitefish will be scarce until the season for ice-fishing.

EGGS—Best buy is still the medium size.

FRUIT—Michigan harvesting has been delayed by frequent rains. You will find a large supply of "school boy" size apples because of Halloween. You have a choice of several varieties.

Use any grapefruit you buy as soon as possible. Because of rains in Florida the last 10 days their holding quality is not too good. Good supply of avocados and bananas.

VEGETABLES—Acorn squash is a best buy. At local farmers' markets all squash is reasonable in price. Broccoli and Brussels sprouts are among the better buys.

Cabbage is now coming in from Virginia. Carrots are good and attractively priced. Lettuce quality is excellent and price is down. The USDA says that the 1959 production of cranberries is estimated to be 9 per cent greater than last year and the largest on record. Good news for holiday meals.

Peanut Butter Goes Into Ice Box Cookies

A yearnin' for learnin' surges back in many youngsters when school bells ring in September! Keep this yearnin' alive and young minds alert. Mom by sending them off to school with a good, wholesome lunch. Sandwiches, fresh fruit and cookies like Peanut Butter Crunchies were just made for this task.

For Peanut Butter Crunchies, sift together 2 cups sifted enriched flour, 1 tablespoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon baking soda. Mix ¾ cup crunchy peanut butter, ½ cup granulated sugar, ½ cup brown sugar, ½ cup soft butter or margarine and ⅓ cup hot water until well blended and creamy.

Stir flour mixture into peanut butter mixture. Blend well. Shape into two rolls 2 inches in diameter. Wrap in waxed paper. Chill until firm.

Slice ¼-inch thick and bake on ungreased baking sheet in moderately hot oven (400 degrees) 8 to 10 minutes. Makes about 4½ dozen cookies.

Flavor change: a little nutmeg added to a cinnamon and sugar mixture (for cinnamon toast).

SWEDISH PANCAKES — Paper-thin Swedish Pancakes, filled with preserves and sprinkled with confectioners' sugar, are delicious as a breakfast entree or luncheon dessert.

These Pancakes to Be Rolled

Swedish Pancakes are the queen of all griddle cakes. These paper-thin delicacies are most often filled with fruit or preserves and sprinkled with sugar to be served as a dessert. They are delicious too topped with butter and syrup for breakfast. Or for a more substantial luncheon dish they may be filled with cottage cheese and topped with a fruit sauce.

The batter for Swedish Pancakes has a high proportion of milk and eggs to flour, so the pancakes are extremely thin. And because they're so thin, these pancakes must be turned with care to avoid tearing.

Your family will ask for many repeat performances once they've been served these Swedish Pancakes. So try them soon with your choice of toppings.

Swedish Pancakes

2 eggs, beaten
2 cups milk
2 tablespoons melted butter
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon sugar

Combine eggs, milk and butter and beat well. Add sifted dry ingredients gradually, beating constantly during addition. Pour 3 tablespoons batter onto hot griddle for each cake and bake until top is bubbly and edges look cooked. Turn and cook until remaining side is brown.

Fill with jelly, preserves or fruit, roll and dust with confectioner's sugar. Or if preferred, serve plain with butter and confectioner's sugar or syrup. Makes 16-18 pancakes 4 to 5 inches in diameter.

Liver Sausage Mixture Delightful as Snack

Certainly your guests will enjoy a snack tray spread featuring this tasty combination. Combine 1 pound Braunschweiger sausage with 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, 3 tablespoons grated onion, 1 hard-cooked egg which has been chopped, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard and ¼ teaspoon salt. Mix well and shape into a ball.

Wrap and chill in the refrigerator for several hours. Before serving, let stand at room temperature 15 minutes for proper spreading consistency. Be sure your guests have small butter knives, so as to facilitate serving.

Turn Like a Baby

Some cooks like to use a flat rack when roasting poultry. If you do this, tip the bird so one side of the breast rests on the rack; then midway through the roasting period, turn the bird and rest the other side of the breast on the rack.

Red Cabbage Slaw Good in Fall Menu

This salad complements pork; it is good, too, with frankfurters.

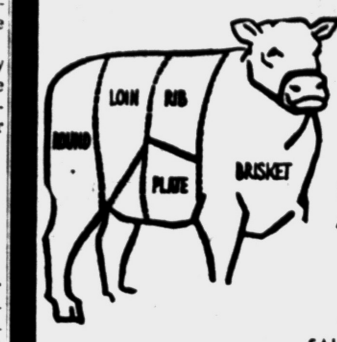

Red Cabbage Salad

2 cups finely shredded red cabbage
1 large red apple
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
2 tablespoons (or more) Italian-style salad dressing (made from a dry mix according to package directions)

Turn cabbage into a bowl. Quarter and seed and core apple; cut quarters into half again lengthwise; slice into small fan-shaped sections; arrange over cabbage. Sprinkle with salt, sugar and dressing; toss well and serve. Makes 4 small servings. Note: Pack cabbage down firmly in measuring.

Coffee Dessert Creamy, Smooth

Do you want a dessert which is different — yet delicious and easy to make? Your guests will be intrigued by this unusual, new flavor combination — a lovely, unexpected way to end a meal.

Here is a satisfying yet light dessert — perfect to serve after a heavy meal. The main ingredients — coffee and ginger ale — complement each other to produce a delicious and piquant flavor.

Creamy Coffee Dessert

4 envelopes (4 tablespoons) unflavored gelatine
2 cups pale dry ginger ale
2 cups strong cold coffee
4 teaspoons sugar
½ cup whipping cream

Soften gelatine in ½ cup cold coffee. Combine with remaining coffee and sugar and stir over hot water until gelatine dissolves. Remove from heat; stir in ginger ale. Chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in whipped cream. Chill until mixture will mound. Spoon into sherbert glasses. Makes 8 servings.

Growing Nuttier

The domestic yield of tree nuts has increased steadily since 1310. The United States now grows more nuts than it imports—although imports of nuts also have grown.

Exotic Ginger Syrup Tops Cake Dessert

With pineapple on the pantry shelf, it's easy to prepare many attractive and refreshing salads and desserts. It blends so well with many of the fresh fruits and berries, too.

★ ★ ★

Try versatile pineapple in new ways. For an unusual dessert with an exotic flavor, try Tropical Delight. Here pineapple chunks are combined with a rum-flavored ginger syrup to make a delicious sauce to serve over chiffon or sponge cake. The canned pineapple and preserved ginger are ready-to-use ingredients and wonderful teammates.

Tropical Delight

1 (No. 2½) can pineapple chunks
2 tablespoons brown sugar
¼ cup slivered preserved ginger*
¼ cup dark Jamaica rum
1 cup whipping cream or commercial sour cream
Sponge or chiffon cake

Drain pineapple and add brown sugar, ginger* and rum. Cover and let stand several hours or overnight in refrigerator. Whip sweet cream until thick enough to mound.

★ ★ ★

For each serving put wedge of cake on dessert plate. Top with generous scoop of pineapple and its ginger-rum syrup. Spoon on as much sweet or sour cream as you like. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

*(Candied ginger may be used, but the preserved type with a little of the syrup included gives better flavor for this dessert.)

Candied Pears Are Kids' New Treat

Make pears-on-a-stick for the neighborhood gang which gathers in your backyard after school. Similar to taffy apples, this fresh fruit and candy combination makes a fine autumn snack.

Use sweet, firm Seckel or Bartlett pears. Insert a wooden skewer through the blossom end of each and spread melted caramel sauce on the pears. Use candy kisses for the sauce.

Butter the top part of a double boiler. Place pan over boiling water and add two 8-ounce packages of any flavor of the kisses. Melt caramel kisses, stirring frequently.

Remove double boiler from heat and, with a spatula, swirl sauce on skewered pears. Set pears upright on waxed paper-lined baking pan. Place in refrigerator until firm. Makes six.

Just before serving fish sticks or French fries, sprinkle them with your favorite salad dressing mix.

Bake a Large Batch of Cookies

GRAPE SWIRL COOKIES — These grape jam cookies are most unusual in flavor and take very little time to put together. Because it is a refrigerator type dough, they may be baked as you please. They're buttery-short and very delicious.

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Until we met Mrs. Cecil Smith of the Davisburg area we hadn't given much thought to quantity cookie baking. She commented on the fact that most cookie recipes make only two or three dozen cookies. For a family with four or five or more children, that is almost laughable. The cookies would hardly go around for one meal.

This conversation led us on a search for cookie recipes that make a respectable number of cookies so that a raid on the cookie jar doesn't mean a cookie-less lunch the next day.

First of all, we found this recipe for a refrigerator cookie filled with a jam, nuts and raisin mixture. You may make these up all at once or keep the dough in the refrigerator to use as needed.

Grape Swirl Cookies

¾ cup grape jam
1 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
1½ cups chopped seedless raisins
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup dark brown sugar, firmly packed
⅔ cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
3½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt

In a bowl, combine jam, nuts and raisins; mix well.

In a large bowl, cream butter or margarine. Gradually stir in sugars and beat until mixture is light. Add eggs, one at a time and beat until mixture is thoroughly blended. Stir in vanilla.

Sift flour, baking powder, soda and salt together. Gradually stir into the creamed mixture; mix thoroughly.

Divide the dough in half. Roll each half out on a lightly floured surface to a rectangle, about ¼-inch in thickness. Spread with half of the jam mixture. Roll up Jelly-roll fashion. (The rolls will be about 2-inches in diameter.) Wrap in waxed paper. Chill overnight.

Cut in ¼-inch slices with a sharp knife that has had the blade dipped in warm water. Place on greased baking sheet, about ½-inch apart. Bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees, 10 to 12 minutes, or until cookies are light brown. Remove from baking sheets as soon as cookies are done.

Note: These unbaked cookies may be kept in the refrigerator for three or four days.

★ ★ ★

We are all familiar with the way peanut butter cookies are made and have come to expect that flavor in any cookie crisscrossed on top. You're in for a pleasant surprise when you taste these sesame seed cookies. The nutty taste of the tiny seeds is different from any other flavor.

Sesame Seed Cookies

3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
2¼ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
⅔ cup butter or margarine
1¼ cups brown sugar
1½ teaspoons pure vanilla extract
1 egg
¼ cup sesame seed

Sift the first 3 ingredients together. (Set aside for later use). Cream butter or margarine, sugar and vanilla together until fluffy. Beat in egg. Stir in flour mixture. Bake immediately or place dough in the refrigerator on a covered bowl and bake as needed.

When ready to bake, shape into 1-inch balls. Dip tops in sesame seed. Place on ungreased cookie sheets, one-inch apart to allow room for spreading. Flatten in crisscross fashion with a fork.

Bake 5 to 6 minutes in preheated hot oven (400 degrees. Yield: 5 to 6 dozen cookies.

★ ★ ★

This third recipe is for a rolled cookie. Tasting a bit like shortbread, this cookie has no eggs in the recipe.

Brown Sugar Cookies

2½ cups vegetable shortening
2½ cups dark brown sugar
6 cups sifted flour
½ cup milk
2 teaspoons vanilla

Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add dry ingredients alternately with milk and vanilla. Chil dough. Roll to ¼-inch thickness on floured board.

Cut in 2-inch rounds with floured cutter. Bake on greased cookie sheets 10-12 minutes in a 400-degree oven. Makes 8 dozen cookies.

This last recipe has a little bit of everything in it. We have made a similar one for years. If we don't have wheat flake cereal, we use any kind we do have. If we don't have peanuts, we substitute other nuts or even coconut. In any case, the cookies are good.

Hope your family likes them and all the others we have suggested.

Snacktime Favorite Cookies

1 cup butter
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup white sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped peanuts
1½ cups crushed wheat flake cereal
2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
1¾ cups quick cooking oats

Cream butter and sugars together well. Add beaten eggs and mix well. Blend in vanilla. Chop peanuts fine. Crush wheat cereal. Sift flour with baking powder, soda and salt. Then mix in peanuts, wheat cereal and oats. Add to creamed mixture, blending well.

Drop from teaspoon onto lightly buttered baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 12 to 15 minutes, until lightly browned. Makes 7 dozen cookies.

Pioneer Process

The sanitary or "open-end-food can, which spurred the widespread use of canned foods in the United States, was perfected by American Can Company as a replacement for the old hole-in-cap cans which limited the type of preserved foods because many fruits and vegetables had to be cut up into small pieces to pass through the small opening of the old-style containers.

Roll vanilla ice cream balls in chopped salted pecans and serve with caramel sauce.

Quick Salad Suggestion

Soften cream cheese with a little cream, add a dash of cinnamon and nutmeg; then spread between bright red apple sections. Re-form into half an apple, serve on crisp lettuce. Accompany with toasted muffins.

VEGETABLES ARISTOCRAT—Golden glazed carrots and bundles of green beans, each seasoned with a liquid dressing, rosy red tomatoes Parmesan, tender broccoli and snow-white cauliflowerets, comprise the vegetable bouquet on this plate. It's colorful and delicious.

Dress Up Vegetables With Flavorful Sauces

French chefs have long believed that fresh vegetables, cooked tender-crisp, merit the glamour of a separate course in the meal. Blending the flavors and colors of many vegetables, such as the harvest array of this handsome tray, makes it the most memorable course of all—a true expression of your hostessing showmanship.

And with succulent vegetables goes another French cuisine triumph—the sauce. Adding the magic touch to the sauces is salad dressing. Its marvelous, bright and lively flavor and velvet-smooth texture has long been the secret behind salads, casseroles, sandwiches and sauces.

★ ★ ★

The two sauces featured with our vegetable tray—one snappy with mustard, the other with the delicate tang of fresh lemon—add a splendid flavor fillip to all.

Vegetables Aristocrat

Broiled tomato halves
Shredded Parmesan cheese
Parsley
Seasoned hot cooked broccoli
Hot cooked French-cut green beans
Italian dressing
Pimiento stripe
Hot cooked cauliflowerets
Hot cooked small whole carrots
Spicy-sweet French dressing
Mustard Sauce Royale
Sunny Lemon Sauce

In the center of a large serving tray place the tomatoes. Sprinkle with cheese and garnish with parsley. On one side arrange clusters of broccoli. Combine the green beans and Italian dressing, and toss lightly.

On the opposite side of tomatoes arrange alternate groups of cauliflowerets and green bean bundles garnished with pimiento. Arrange carrots glazed with French dressing on the remaining section of the tray. Serve with hot sauces.

★ ★ ★

Mustard Sauce Royale

1 cup salad dressing
¼ cup milk
1 tablespoon salad style mustard
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine ingredients. Heat over low heat, stirring occasionally.

★ ★ ★

Sunny Lemon Sauce

1 cup salad dressing
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Heat salad dressing in a double boiler or over very low heat for 10 minutes. Add lemon juice and blend well. Serve immediately.

Salt in Sandwiches

For especially tasty sandwiches, try sprinkling salt on the bread before it is buttered, instead of salting after the filling is added. Pre-salting of the bread brings out the flavor of the bread as well as the filling.

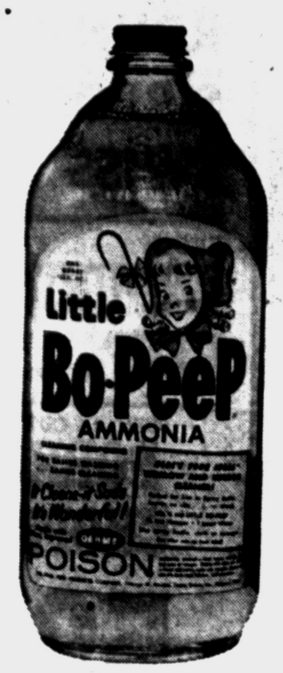

Flouring the Pan

Here's how to "flour" a pan in which cake is to be baked. Grease the pan well, then throw in a tablespoon of flour; now tip the pan in all directions so the inside will be covered with a film of flour. Empty out any flour that does not stick to the pan.

You can use from one to four tablespoons of sugar in a standard cornbread recipe calling for one cup of flour and one cup of cornmeal.

Driver's Poor Maintenance Keeps Auto Warranty Short

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Press Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The average American car is driven at least 100,000 miles in 12 years and then scrapped. But it comes bright and gleaming from the factory with a warranty only that it will run 90 days or 4,000 miles without developing a major flaw.

What about that other 96,000 miles and 11¾ years?

Indications are the maunfacturers could extend their warranty periods considerably without incurring too much added cost, and at least one — American Motors — has.

The Rambler warranty now runs 12,000 miles. But the company has chosen not to publicize the fact for fear its dealers would be swamped with claims for minor adjustments.

One of the bogeys that has haunted the manufacturers when they consider extending the period is the sad fact that many car owners not only fail to maintain their vehicles properly, they abuse them. And the best piece of machinery, when abused, is bound to go bad soon.

SOME ARE LONGER

If you examine the fine print carefully you're apt to discover certain pieces of equipment on your car carry a longer warranty than does the vehicle as a whole.

For example, one fan belt manufacturer who supplies some cars with original equipment will replace his brand of belts free anytime they go bad.

Part of the reasoning behind this is that it would be difficult for you as the car owner to abuse the fan belt.

Some oil companies have warranty programs for engines that run up to 30,000 miles. Some new car dealers will give you a warranty of 25,000 miles or more on the same car which the factory warranty runs only 4,000 miles.

How can this be done?

Part of it is the knowledge the car will run far longer than the original promise if properly maintained. And these special warranties almost always require the car to be returned to the particular dealer for all servicing.

Thus he can keep an eye on trouble spots and like many other things, a bit of preventive maintenance often saves a major repair job.

Chrysler Corp. recently announced a maintenance program which could be developed into an extended warranty. Called the "certified car care" program this covers suggested maintenance services for the first 23,000 miles of a car's life.

The buyer is given a booklet with coupons covering each 2,000 mile period from 3,000 to 23,000 miles. The coupon carries a space for the servicing dealer to sign and date. A completed booklet then offers proof the car has been cared for in a manner recommended by the factory.

So far all that Chrysler suggests is that an owner who has followed this program should be able to get a better price for his car on a sale or trade-in. But the essentials are there for conversion into an extended warranty policy.

Trilck Will Stand Trial on Gambling Charges

DETROIT (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Thomas A. Kenny has ordered Russell Trilck to stand trial on a gambling conspiracy charge.

Trilck, accused of bribing police in River Rouge to permit gambling operations, was bound over at an examination yesterday. His $5,000 bond was continued.

MSU Students Asking for Voluntary ROTC

EAST LANSING (AP)—A committee report calling for gradual elimination of compulsory military training (ROTC) at Michigan State University was accepted last night by the MSU student congress.

The report was accepted on a voice vote with only a handful of dissenters.

It urged that ROTC be placed on a voluntary basis and recommended that the school require a one-term credit course on the academic aspects of military science. Foreign students and those who have completed their military obligations would be excepted from the course.

★ ★ ★

President John A. Hannah is on record as favoring the present program which requires physically fit non-veterans to take ROTC during their first two years at the school.

A faculty study commission has recommended that a voluntary instead of compulsory program be installed next fall.

A final decision is up to the MSU board of trustees which is making its own study of the program.

To Give Report on Bethlehem

2nd Largest Steel Firm Likely to Show Loss in Third Quarter

NEW YORK, (AP)—Bethlehem Steel Corp. today will just about wind up the parade of big steel firms reporting on how badly they have been hit by the steel strike.

★ ★ ★

The nation's second largest steel company will issue its third quarter earnings statement shortly after close of the New York Stock Exchange at 3:30 p.m.

For all but two of the weeks covered by the report, the gates were closed on Bethlehem's plants and pickets stood guard outside those gates.

★ ★ ★

As with other major companies completely shut down by the strike, Bethlehem is expected to report a loss for the third quarter. Overhead costs continue even when the open hearths are down.

★ ★ ★

Among such costs are taxes, salaries of employees not on strike, interest on bonds and other debt, deductions for pensions and insurance and depreciation of plant and machinery.

★ ★ ★

Until the strike, Bethlehem was doing very well. For the first half of this year it earned $73,591,528. That set an all-time record for any six months. Partly this reflected prestrike inventory buildup by customers.

Thus it is quite possible that, despite a poor third quarter, earnings for the first nine months this year will exceed those of the recession-plagued first nine months of 1958.

Saginaw Record Best in State for Sure Job

EAST LANSING (AP)—Saginaw is your best bet if you're looking for employment security and skilled in wholesale trade, maintains an article in the October issue of the Michigan Economic Record.

The publication of the Michigan State University bureau of business and economic research reports Saginaw has the most stable wholesale business among metropolitan Michigan areas.

Detroit, with 60 per cent of the state's wholesaling employment, was hardest hit by the 1958 recession. The Motor City showed a loss of 2,300 wholesale jobs for the year.

Glue Sniffers Endanger Lives

An Estimated 4,000 in Texas Schools Inhale Lethal Fumes for Kicks

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — As many as 4,000 of the 16,000 teenagers in this North Texas city are endangering their lives by sniffing plastic cement fumes, police say.

★ ★ ★

Sgt. John Cawyer, head of the police juvenile department, said yesterday his agency has been investigating the practice since last June. Cawyer gave the estimate of the number of youths involved.

The cement produces a state similar to drunkenness, Cawyer said after he questioned teenagers who said they sniffed the fumes "for kicks" during school hours.

Dr. D. E. Fletcher, a pathologist who helped police in the investigation, said the cement is a polystyrene plastic substance containing ether and carbon disulfide.

★ ★ ★

The ingredients damage the liver, may harm the brain and kill if used repeatedly, Dr. Fletcher said.

Crawer said no deaths have been reported among those inhaling the fumes.

Guy Lombardo to Send His Boat After Speed Mark

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Guy Lombardo, a specialist in slow music and fast boats, will send his new jet-powered hydroplane out after a world speed record in the next few weeks.

★ ★ ★

The orchestra leader announced at a news conference yesterday that the attempt will be made on Southern California's Salton Sea or on Lake Mead in Nevada. The record is 260.35 miles an hour.

Lombardo's new boat is the Alcoa Tempo, an aluminum craft powered by an Allison J35 turbo-jet engine. It will be piloted either by Lombardo or its designer, Lester Staudacher.

Lombardo said the hydro has been built for one purpose only. "That," he said, "is to return the speed record to the United States. It has been held since 1955 by Donald Campbell of England, who raised the mark this year in Scotland."

★ ★ ★

The hydro now is at Bay City, Mich., where it was completed Aug. 25. It measures 31½ by 11½ feet and its engine has a thrust of 5,800 pounds.

It is larger but lighter than Campbell's boat, which has a thrust of 3,800 pounds.

Lombardo has owned seven other racing boats since 1939. He retired from racing two years ago but decided to come back when he saw "no one was going to do a job on Campbell's mark."

Oil is produced in 25 of the states now, compared with 18 states in 1917.

Will Direct, Produce, Star in $11 Million Picture

John Wayne in Charge of 'The Alamo'

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

BRACKETVILLE, Tex. (AP) — "I've been a star for 30 years. I ought to be able to make a movie better than somebody's relative."

This was John Wayne's explanation of why he assumed full command of one of the most expensive movies of all time, "The Alamo." He is producer, director and star of the Texas epic, being filmed on the prairie 130 miles west of where the real battle took place.

★ ★ ★

Wayne was in good, confident form as he played field marshal to the huge cast and crew working in a permanent re-creation of the Alamo and 1836 San Antonio.

"We've got it made," he grinned, "I was never so sure of anything in my life."

His assurance has taken a concrete form: investment of his own money for the first time in his film career. It's reported he plunked two million into the enterprise. Texas moneybags O.J. McCullough and Clint Murchison are in for a million or so apiece, and United Artists is putting up the rest.

ADDS UP BIG

"We'll spend 5½ million on shooting the picture," Wayne remarked. "When you add my salary and the various deferments, it will come to over seven. Overhead and other costs will bring it up to 11 million."

There was only one chink in his confident manner: his concern over Wayne directing Wayne.

"I can watch the other actors in rehearsal and tell them what to do," he said, "but when I'm in the scene myself, I can't see what's going on."

★ ★ ★

So earnest is Wayne the producer that he gave Wayne the star the third best role in the picture. He plays Davy Crockett to Richard Widmark's Jim Bowie and Laurence Harvey's Col William Travis.

"I have some important scenes early in the picture and I act as a sort of commentator throughout," he said. "But the real drama of the picture is the conflict between Bowie and Travis. They get the big scenes."

★ ★ ★

"The Alamo" has been nursed by Wayne for 13 years. He said he first tried to make the story at Republic and was set to film it in Mexico. Then the Texans got riled at this.

"Later, I was all set to make the picture in Panama," added Yates called it off. With the aid of his Texas angels, Wayne finally got the show on the road.

Ann Sothern Files Tax Appeal on U.S. Claim

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ann Sothern, television star, says she only owes $7,120.94 in back taxes, not $722,322.44 as the government claims.

She filed an appeal from the big tax bill yesterday in U. S. Tax Court.

★ ★ ★

The dispute involves proceeds from Miss Sothern's sale of her part ownership of a TV series. The government said she should have been taxed at the regular income tax rate. She said it should have been the lower capital gains tax.

★ ★ ★

The Internal Revenue Service also disputes Miss Sothern's deduction of expenses she says she incurred in learning how to be an efficient operator of a cattle farm. She bought one in 1955. The tax case covers the years 1953-56.

Eddie and Liz Together in New York City Jobs

NEW YORK (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor and husband Eddie Fisher are back in town together on separate jobs.

The actress is here to work on a new moving picture, "Butterfield 8." The title derives from a telephone exchange covering part of the swanky upper East Side.

Fisher has a four-week singing engagement starting Nov. 16 in the Empire Room of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Take Off, Insects

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI) — Dr. George Mac Collom, Vermont Extension Service entomologist, said horn flies, stable flies and horse flies cost the nation's dairymen about 150 million dollars a year in wasted feed, lower production and damaged hides.

Gets 3-Year Prison Term in Little Rock Bombings

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A Pulaski Circuit Court jury gave a three-year prison term to Jesse Raymond Perry, 24, for his part in Little Rock's Labor Day bombings.

Perry, convicted Wednesday, was the second of five accused bombers to receive a prison term. Trials of the other three are scheduled later.

J. D. Sims, 35, who drew a five-year sentence on a guilty plea to bombing Little Rock School Board offices, was the state's key witness in Perry's trial for the same offense.

Sims, dressed in prison khakis and speaking in a low, tense voice, testified that he and Perry volunteered for a "confidential squad" organized to harass Little Rock for accepting public high school integration.

Sims said he and Perry were assigned separate bombing targets, but that Perry backed out on the night the blasts were scheduled and Sims set off crude dynamite bombs at both targets.

★ ★ ★

The state made no effort to prove Perry actually set off a bomb. But Sims testified Perry knew he was going to bomb the School Board building and that Perry held the dynamite to be used there while Sims carried out Perry's assignment — blowing up Fire Chief Gann Nalley's station wagon.

Perry was convicted under a state law dealing with bombings. The jury set the sentence.

Judge William J. Kirby delayed formal sentencing to give Perry's attorneys time to file a motion for a new trial. Perry remains free on $15,000 bond.

'Conference' House Attacked

GOP Senator Scorns Beaver Island Retreat of Central Michigan U.

LANSING (AP) — A Republican senator today questioned the judgment of Central Michigan University in building a $30,000 "conference House" on remote Beaver Island, a hunting and fishing paradise.

"I don't care what they call it—it's just a social affair, 99 per cent social," said Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), Appropriations Committee chairman.

★ ★ ★

"I'm surprised that the State Board of Education would approve a thing like this in times of austerity."

The structure, completed this summer, is a cinder block building with a kitchen, dining and conference rooms and a dormitory to sleep 40 persons.

It was put up on a 40-acre site acquired from the State Conservation Department for $1 in the early 1940s.

N. C. Bovee, CMU vice president, said the facility would provide a meeting place for university officials away from campus pressures. He said it was not intended presently for student use.

★ ★ ★

Beaver Island, off the state's northwestern coast, is three hours by car and two more hours by boat from Mount Pleasant.

Bovee said the building did not involve state-appropriated funds but was financed through operation and sale of war veterans housing and sale of surplus equipment.

Race Wooden Autos to Test Sign Location

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — Two Ohio State University researchers here recently took turns racing a wooden car over a curving indoor road in an effort to find out the safest location for highway billboards and traffic signs.

Their electric-powered car—looking something like a soapbox racer—carried them down a 64-foot winding plywood tunnel at a speed of 2.4 miles an hour—the equivalent of a trip along 1,337 feet of highway at 60 miles an hour.

Two tracing pens—one attached to the auto's steering gear and the other to a mechanism recording the course of the highway—told on paper how well the driver had followed the twisting road while reading a sign placed behind a wall at the far end of the tunnel.

The record also showed how long it took the driver to read the sign and the distance the auto traveled while the driver's mind was concentrated on the sign rather than the road.

Strip-Teaser Marries in 2nd California Rite

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Striptease artist Lili St. Cyr and her sixth husband, Joe Albert (Strong Boy) Zomar, 39, of Los Angeles will be married again here Friday. They were married in Tijuana, Mexico, Sept. 21, but, says Miss St. Cyr, "We thought it would be good to get married in California. I like California."

Left-Winger Fanfani Is Set Back in Italy

A faction headed by Segni and Party Secretary-General Aldo Moro retained control of the party's policy-making National Council in an election closing a six-day meeting.

Stove Exhibit Hot Stuff

He Walks His Dog by Remote Control

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — At least one man in suburban Bay Shore has found the best way to walk the dog on a cold night.

He was spotted coasting along in his car, while the dog walked outside on a leash attached to the auto.

Never Before Accomplished

U.S. Doctors Graft Back Human Leg

HAYWARD, Calif. (AP) — A team of doctors has succeeded for the first time in grafting back the severed leg of a human.

Surgeons said they could find no parallel in medical history for the operation performed in Eden Hospital here, although such things as severed finger tips and ears have been grafted.

The operation, announced Wednesday, was kept secret for three months, until doctors decided it was successful.

The operating surgeons, whose names will remain secret until their work can be reported in medical journals, described the operation anonymously in the Hayward Review.

The right leg of Billy L. Smith, 25, was crushed a few inches above the knee by a crane while he was rebricking a furnace in the nearby DeCoto plant of the U.S. Pipe and Foundry Co. Only a two-inch strip of skin connected the leg to the stump.

An orthopedic surgeon, who corrects deformities, telephoned a vascular surgeon, who specializes in mending torn vessels, and asked: "You want to try for a miracle?"

ARTERY HOOKED UP

The vascular surgeon agreed.

After blood vessels in the lower leg were flushed with anticlotting fluids, the vascular surgeon said he "hooked up the severed main artery and started the blood flowing. The foot immediately turned pink."

But shortly after he stitched together the main veins, so arterial blood could return to the heart, the foot turned white again and there was no pulse in it.

The artery was reopened, a clot removed, blood vessels were flushed again and have functioned perfectly since.

★ ★ ★

The orthopedist cut away mangled tissue, leaving a two-inch gap between the flesh parts of the leg sections and then bridged the gap with two inches from the upper leg bone.

All that remains now are skin grafts and an operation within a few months to link the main hip nerve to the lower leg, where at present there is no sensation.

Smith's leg is two inches shorter than before but "better than anything he can buy in a store," the doctors said. After the hip nerve operation, surgeons "expect that he will get some muscle return and some sesnation return, but neither will be entirely normal."

About 700,000 Americans are now under treatment for cancer, according to current medical surveys.

New York Head of Police Opposes Day Nightsticks

NEW YORK (AP)—"The police department is a law-enforcement agency of government, not a punishing one."

That was Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy's reply to a City Council resolution suggesting that policemen carry nightsticks in the daytime.

The Council's resolution on Tuesday took the view that a crack around the legs of juvenile delinquents would do them no harm and perhaps a lot of good.

There are about 6,500 hospitals in the U.S.

Sees Farm Income Doubling by 1975

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An Agriculture Department economist has predicted that the income of the average commercial farm will more than double by 1975.

However, Dr. Kenneth L. Bachman said the number of such farms probably will decrease by one-third in that time.

★ ★ ★

There are now 3,100,000 commercial farms with an average income of $7,500 a year. By 1975, there are expected to be about two million commercial farms with average incomes of about $17,000 a year.

Bachman made the prediction in a speech yesterday before the department's new rural development committee. The group plans to meet monthly.

Use Tax Still Applies to Hotels, Group Told

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The recent State Supreme Court decision on Michigan's use tax does not affect hotel, motel and resort rentals, the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Assn. was informed today.

★ ★ ★

In reply to a WMTRA inquiry, the Michigan Department of Revenue answered: "We would appreciate your advising your membership to continue collecting and remitting the tax until such time as the law is changed or repealed."

Nationalist China to Get U.S. Reconnaissance Jets

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — The United States disclosed today it is giving supersonic RF101 Voodoo jet reconnaissance planes to Nationalist China.

★ ★ ★

Military sources said the jets already being delivered on Formosa would permit the Nationalists to photograph Red China while remaining over international waters.

Sources also said Nationalist Sabrejets shot down a Communist MIG early this month in a battle that was hushed up because the United States wants peace in the Formosa Straits.

Halloween can be eerie this year, but not with a gruesome look. A new line of aluminum foil makes it possible for children to create their own masks and costumes. The witch, the pirate and the cat are only suggestions of what can be done. With these as a guide many variations can be made using the same principles of design.

How to Make These Costumes

MATERIALS NEEDED

Aluminum foil gift wrap in assorted colors and patterns. (Most costumes require only two or three different designs.)
Shirt cardboards
Scissors
Rubber-cement
Knit pajamas (CAT)
Pair of socks (CAT)
Felt scraps (CAT, PIRATE)
Gloves (WITCH)
Newspaper
Mat knife or single-edge razor blade
Metal paper fasteners or stapler
Dungarees (PIRATE)
Shirt (PIRATE)
Black material (WITCH)
Broom handle (WITCH

DIRECTIONS

CAT—Use knit pajamas for costume. Cover hands with socks. If pajamas do not have their own feet, use a pair of slipper socks. Bell around neck is practice plastic baseball, or can be a ball of aluminum household foil. Collar is a strip of cardboard covered in gift wrap, fastened with metal paper fasteners.

Tail is made of two long strips of gift wrap in contrasting colors, about 1 inch wide, pasted together back to back, folded like an accordion, and loosely stitched through the center so it will wiggle when attached to seat of pajamas with safety pin. Whiskers are made of pipe cleaners. Tip of nose is a piece of felt.

★ ★ ★

PIRATE — Costume is old shirt and a pair of dungarees cut off at three-quarter length with jagged edges. Front of hat is attached to mask and covered with wrap. Front and back of hat are held together by metal paper fasteners. Belt is made of two 4 inch wide lengths of wrap, pasted back to back.

Buckle is gold covered cardboard cut in open square with bar running vertically down middle. Belt is fastened to bar with rubber-cement or staples. Eye patch, eyebrow, moustache are black felt scraps.

Earring is gold covered section from roll on which gift wrap comes and is attached to ear by rubberband. Cutlass blade is cardboard covered with gold, cut to shape. Handle guard is oval-shaped cardboard, covered, with slit in middle in which to insert hilt of blade. Handle is section of cardboard roll covered same as handle guard. Hilt of blade is secured inside roll with rubber-cement.

★ ★ ★

WITCH—Costume can be old black dress, or made from two pieces of black material stitched together leaving neck and arm holes. Cape is rectangle of same black fabric. Collar is formed by overlapping top edge about 6 inches and stitching casing to hold drawstring. Draw string to fit neck. Hat is half-circle of gift wrap with 14 inch radius.

★ ★ ★

Roll half-circle to form cone so that entire hat is double thickness. Brim is cardboard covered with wrap, cut in circle to fit head. Bottom piece of wrap is turned up so cone can be pasted to it. Hair is contrasting color foil, cut into shreds and pasted inside hatband. Broom is tightly wound 8 inch length of wrap-shredded and secured to broom handle which is covered in contrasting wrap. Witch wears large pair of gloves.

Mrs. William B. Dean, state recording secretary at left; and the Rev. Father James J. Sheehan are welcomed to the luncheon by Mrs. Charles Wagner, chairman of the day.

He'll Live - - - Abby

Rather Be Sorrier for Yourself?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem has been getting me down. I have been dating a young man who means nothing to me. He says he loves me. I have told him honestly I like him only as a friend. I feel guilty letting him spend his money on me but he begs me to go out with him anyway. When I turn him down (I date others, too) he cries and it breaks my heart. He calls me every single day! He knows I go with him because I feel sorry for him, but he says he is living in hopes that one day I will love him like he loves me. I am 20 and he is 23. When I kiss him good night, I gag.

ABBY

SORRY FOR HIM

DEAR SORRY: No self-respecting, healthy-minded person behaves like this young man. Beware! He's the kind who waits patiently for the opportunity to move in with the heavy artillery should you weaken or find yourself on the "rebound." Girls who go with men because they "feel sorry for them" usually wind up feeling sorrier for themselves. Send him on his way. He'll live.

DEAR ABBY: I am a man who has done a hitch in the Navy and has been around quite a bit. I am 33 and have been going with a woman who is 29. I like a woman to be honest with me as we talked over our past lives out-in-the-open like. I told her about my past and then she commenced to tell me about hers. At first she said there were only three men in her life. This don't bother me much because I figured it was average. Every time we get on the subject she brings up another one. The total is now up to 11. I am very upset about this and wonder if maybe she is not the girl for me. What do you advise?

BEEN AROUND

DEAR BEEN: If she gets to 12—sell!

DEAR ABBY: I am a Senior at college so you know I'm no moron. I've been dating this girl who is engaged to a man who goes to another college. I know for a fact that this girl thinks more of me than she does of her fiance. I can tell by the way she kisses me. My problem is she won't admit it. She won't do anything about it (like send her ring back). But I know she'd like to. How can I get her to break off with the other guy and be all mine?

FLIPPED

DEAR FLIPPED: (and I think you have!): Do you realize that you are fighting for the "love" of a girl who is engaged to one man and romancing with another? If you think a wedding ring would stop her circulation, you'd better think again. Take a good look at her in daylight.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SECRET SIX": The girl says "Hi" first.

★ ★ ★

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

May Be Harmful

Wrong shoes and heels you can't walk in can ruin your feet. They can stop circulation and make your feet swell. You will not only be uncomfortable, but your feet will be mostly unattractive.

So get shoes that fit properly, with metatarsal pads if necessary, and if you can't walk comfortably in high, narrow heels, don't wear them.

Soap Aids Nylon

Nurses and those who wear white uniforms on the job can keep them sparkling with a heavy-duty soap. Soap is recommended rather than detergents because it helps preserve antistatic finishes present on most white nylon uniforms. Use a water softener when using soap, though, so soap curds won't discolor the uniform.

Too Much Giving Can Defeat Love

By RUTH MILLETT

"How do you get a daughter-in-law to love you," asks a mother-in-law who claims she has done everything possible to win over her daughter-in-law, without success.

"I kept her children five days a week for five years so that she could work," says the mother-in-law. "And many a time I've done a basket of ironing for her so that she wouldn't have to do it herself when she got home form work.

"I've given her the nicest gifts I could afford and I have never criticized her for any reason. Still, she never invites me to her house for a meal and if I stop by to see my son and her without an invitation, which isn't often, she always leaves the room to lie down or do something in some other part of the house. How have I failed as a mother-in-law?"

You've tried too hard and done too much. The children were your daughter's responsibility — not yours. You didn't do her a favor when you took them over, even though you thought you were.

As for going in and doing her housework, you again were trying too hard to win her love. You would have done much better to give only the help she asked for, instead of constantly putting her in your debt.

You don't make others love you by assuming their responsibilities or turning yourself into a servant to make life easier for them.

A mother-in-law wins love by living her own life, letting the young couple live theirs, making few demands upon them and refraining from trying to buy acceptance through money and gifts.

You aren't the only mother-in-law to make this kind of mistake and to feel cheated because you haven't won the love you worked so hard to get.

Why not get busy living your own life and let your daughter-in-law live hers without any offers of help from you? You'll win her respect that way — even if you never win her love.

A new thixotropic paint, that is available in eight colors and guaranteed to dry in an hour, is recommended particularly for porous surfaces such as cement or cinder block. This makes it a good candidate for painting garages or basements.

★ ★ ★

Only one coat is needed, says the manufacturer, and the paint doesn't drip while it's being applied. It's easy to keep clean, too —only a fast scrub-up with warm soap or detergent suds is needed.

Seeking Relief From Tensions? Practice Yoga

Indra Devi is an interesting European woman who went out to India with her husband to live. She was there 12 years.

While she was there, she learned yoga. She became, in fact, the first woman ever to teach yoga in the country of its origin.

★ ★ ★

As a means of both health and beauty, she is convinced that yoga can do much for Americans. Madam Devi points out that the Russians are using it extensively and, since the Russians are not a frivolous people, she feels there's a good reason for this.

★ ★ ★

In her new book, "Yoga for Americans," Madam Devi points out that it's an excellent means of relieving the tension and sleeplessness that plagues so many people these days. She explains that the average busy American can make suecessful use of the yoga breathing exercises and other exercises in ten to 12 minutes a day. Yoga is not, she points out, a religion, as so many people seem to think it is.

This is a good toner-upper for the abdominal muscles. Lift your head as you lift your legs from the floor alternating left and right.

Bad Three Ways

Tummy Bulge Trouble?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The condition of your abdominal muscles has a much greater effect on your life than you may realize. In fact it has a three way impact—not a three-way stretch, I hope, as some girdles have!

In the first place we all know that a protruding abdomen spoils an otherwise youthful figure and can make a matronly figure look much more so. In the second place this makes a woman feel older. This factor is most important because not only are her glands affected but her very life in many varied and subtle ways. It influences her outlook, activities and personality.

In the third place lax abdominal muscles affect health. Nature provided us with a natural girdle of strong abdominal muscles but too often we allow these to become lax because of poor posture, lack of exercise and childbearing. Then internal organs slump and cause constipation, fatigue and sometimes backache.

An awareness of good posture and an effort to maintain it (which is a good exercise in itself) plus special abdominal exercises, will correct weak, protruding abdominal muscles. Remember that active muscles discourage the accumulation of fat over them.

Here are a couple of good toner-upers.

1. Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor at your sides. Lift your left leg as you lift your head from the floor. Shoulders remain on the floor. Lower leg and head to the floor simultaneously. This time raise your right leg at the same time you lift your head. Lower both to the floor. The knees are straight throughout the exercise.

If your muscles are strong enough raise BOTH legs from the floor as you lift your head and return both when head lowers to the floor. Continue. This is a good neck exercise also.

2. Lie on the floor on your back, arms at sides. Lift both legs up from the floor as you raise your arms forward and raise your trunk half way up. Hold for a few mo and reets. Hold for a few moments and return to starting position. Continue.

If you would like my tested abdominal exercises, which will decrease that measurement a few inches in a few weeks time, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 2. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Seek the Unique

The unusual, not the freakish, is always worth searching for in fashion. This does not mean "amusing" hats or outlandish shoes. It means lovely fabrics in shades you don't see on every other woman. It means a touch of imagination that lifts a dress, coat or handbag out of the ordinary.

Artistry Thrills Recital Audience

Organist Steinhaus Sparkles

By MARY LOUISE LINDQUIST

Those privileged to hear organist Phillip Steinhaus at All Saints Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon were thrilled with his artistry.

Mr. Steinhaus showed rare perfection in playing works of pre-Bach composers. This early music is seldom heard, and Mr. Steinhaus has devoted much time and effort to studying and understanding it.

The program was well balanced in mood and tempo. A work by Du Mage, "Grand Jeu," opened the recital. This well chosen opening number with a splendid full organ lifted the listeners to an interest that remained throughout the program.

Following this was the peaceful sustained "Pange Lingua," by De Grigny, who lived from 1671 to 1703.

FINE DANCE FORMS

A suite of seven pieces named "Suite du Deuxieme Ton" by Clerambault (1676-1749) featured interesting and beautiful dance forms with several rhythms and tempos.

Another number divided into sections was a set of chords, with voices taking turns with the melody. It was titled "Psalmus: Da Jesus an dem Kreuze standt," by Scheidt. The beautiful stateliness of the chorde style remained throughout, with interesting varieties of registration and expression.

Mr. Steinhaus has the talent of playing expressively without destroying the clean perfection of the music.

Following the "Psalmus" was "Mein Junges Lieben Hat ein End" by a better known composer, Sweelinck, who lived from 1562 until 1621. The main melody is a descending scale pattern which was played simply at times, and at others beautifully embellished with accompanying moving voices.

The recital concluded with a work by the comparatively famous composer Buxtehude, "Prelude and Fugue in F-sharp minor." The prelude opened with a full stately registration which thrillingly showed the rich quality of the organ.

It is always fun to listen to the fugual section, because the voices pick up the melody and treat it in many ways.

Mr. Steinhaus played this with clean perfection, each part clearly defined. This music included very difficult rhythmic patterns, as well as requiring extreme speed for both hands and feet. The climax which concluded this number made a perfect finale to a beautifully played recital.

It was a privilege to hear such fine music played by a gifted artist. All Saints Episcopal Church is fortunate to have Phillip Steinhaus as its organist and choirmaster.

Mr. Steinhaus will give another recital Nov. 22.

Bright as snow is Leo Ritter's ski jacket of dyed white sheared beaver. It has a vivid red knitted puffed collar and cuffs and matching hood with a red pompon.

Being Stuffy Won't Get You Far

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know what you think of the following: The daughter of long-time neighbors of ours was married recently. I did not receive an invitation to the reception, but being friendly with the family for many years I attended the wedding ceremony.

"After the ceremony I went up to speak to the bride's mother and she urged me to come to the reception pointing out that there had been last minute cancellations from guests. I of course declined but I thought this "left-handed" invitation in very bad taste. What is your opinion, or am I just being oversensitive?"

Answer: I think your neighbor's invitation was motivated by friendliness and that you are placing too much importance on the "left-handedness" of her well meant invitation.

"Dear Mrs. Post: How do a husband and wife go down a receiving line at the wedding reception when they are strangers to the two mothers who I understand will receive the guests first? Should the wife go first and introduce herself only, and the husband introduce himself, or do we just say "how do you do" and pass on without giving our names?"

Answer: If there is no one to announce you, you say to the bride's mother, "I am Mrs. John Jones" and your husband following says, "I am John Jones." You do not repeat your names to the groom's mother or anyone ese who may be in the receiving line.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it ever proper for a woman to wear a formal evening dress if the man with whom she is dining has no dinner coat and has to wear a business suit?"

Answer: This is a very moot question of the present day when any number of well-born men wearing day clothes are accompanying women in barest evening clothes. According to longest established etiquette, however, a gentleman accompanying a lady in evening dress must wear a tuxedo.

Switzerland is often called the most highly industralized country in Europe.

Have Trouble Keeping Tabs on 2 Leagues

Teen-Age Girls Cold to Baseball Expansion

By EUGENE GILBERT

Dad may be looking forward to the formation of a third major league, but his youngsters are not.

In fact, American teenagers feel the popularity of baseball is on the wane.

We asked 637 boys and girls whether they would like to see a third league formed. Only 39 per cent said yes while 55 per cent said no. The remaining 6 per cent had no preference.

"I have enough trouble keeping up with two leagues," says 17-year-old Jane Seper of St. Louis.

Barbara Bunney, 19, a baseball-minded Seattle girl, has another reason for opposing a third league. "We need more support for the existing major leagues," says Barbara.

★ ★ ★

Marjory Schonfield, 17, of Chicago, thinks "the high quality of players would be depleted."

Yet, 39 per cent favor a third league, saying "it would make the game better; it would make more competition."

OTHER SPORTS EDGE IN

A majority of the youngsters — 52 per cent — felt that the popularity of baseball is declining. Many suggested that basketball and football are encroaching on baseball's national pastime claim.

Jane Jensen, 15, of Omaha, Neb., feels baseball's popularity is declining because "all the old favorite teams are in the cellar."

But the dissenters present a strong case.

"Everywhere I go people are talking about baseball," says a 13-year-old Connecticut fan, Kathy Chapman, 16, of Hoosick Falls, N. Y., says that now that baseball can be seen on television "even I watch it."

★ ★ ★

We asked the teen-agers to list the cities where they would like to see major league teams if a new league is formed. New Orleans received the most votes.

Dallas followed with Minneapolis, Miami, Houston, Toronto, St. Paul and Atlanta also rating high.

Fifty-nine per cent of the youngsters felt that the two major leagues have no affect on competition, while 36 per cent said they definitely limit competition.

★ ★ ★

"The eight teams in each league provide sufficient competition," agrees Phillis Rokowski, 18, of River Grove, Ill.

A large number of the teen-agers — 69 per cent — gave a vote of confidence to night games. They say night games make it easier for them to attend.

But some assert that if young people like baseball they will find a way to get to a game, whether it's played day or night.

Sick Child Can't Read

Try a Physical Exam for Poor Child Readers

DENVER (UPI)—If a child can't read well, he may need a thorough physical examination.

A sick child won't read well and can be hampered by vision or hearing problems, said the Colorado State Medical Society.

If the child is found to be in good health and still has difficulty with reading, the Society's experts advised psychological and psychiatric aid.

DON'T BYPASS

Too often, parents bypass or avoid children's reading problems until there is a serious deficiency in the child's educational advancement.

★ ★ ★

Parents should become concerned as soon as a child begins to lag in reading, the experts said. If the reading problem is allowed to drift on into the third, fourth and fifth grades, the child may fall so far behind in school work that he never will catch up.

Close contact between parents and school is important. The parent should not assume the school is doing something, and a teacher should not assume parents know of the problems.

GRADES NO GUGE

Grades are not necessarily a good gauge of a child's reading ability. A child can be brilliant and still not read properly.

In higher grades, the inability to read can be a heavy psychological burden. The child loses prestige and may give up.

★ ★ ★

A parent shouldn't be too fussy about what the child reads. The much-maligned comic book has a large appeal and is a perfectly acceptable way to learn to read, the society said. There are good and bad comic books. The parents can steer the child to better ones, then help him graduate to more useful and rewarding reading.

Just having books around in the home is no guarantee a child will read, but it helps.

Wigwam Plans Scalping Party for Rated Foe

Chiefs Have a Chance to Spoil Unblemished Record of Dales

By BILL CORNWELL

There's dirty work afoot this week in the Pontiac Central football camp.

Coach Jesse MacLeay, the chief of the PCH wigwam, and the rest of his feathered assistants on the coaching staff are plotting foul things for Ferndale here Friday night at Wisner Stadium.

MacLeay and his cohorts have been busy all week long in the Central teepee mapping plans for a scalping party at the expense of the undefeated and untied Dales.

The PCH coach has his ideas of what to do. How to get his braves to respond and get the job done will be the challenge.

Ferndale, coached by veteran Ted Meister, currently is ranked in both the Associated Press and United Press International high school grid polls.

The Dales can be found among the top 10 teams in each weekly prep rating. This week they were voted 6th by the UPI panel and 7th by the AP pollsters.

Victory means nothing for the Chiefs in a Saginaw Valley Conference capacity. They resume their Valley campaign a week hence when Michigan's top-ranked Class A power, Bay City Central, comes to Pontiac to conclude Central's home schedule.

If the Chiefs can topple Ferndale, it will be strictly a prestige triumph. It might also do a great deal for their morale.

A victory over Ferndale could easily give the Chiefs that much-needed lift which comes from beating a state-rated gridiron power. It might spur them to even greater efforts against Bay City the following week.

It goes without saying that the Chiefs will have their troubles with Ferndale.

Meister has perhaps the finest squad in his long career as head man at the south Oakland County school.

The Dales boast speed, depth and explosive scoring strength.

Quarterback Mike Brown, a converted fullback, runs the Ferndale attack and he does it with imagination and skill.

A speedster in his own right, Brown passes and runs with reckless abandon. In addition, he has been a constant scoring threat and is one of the county's leading point-makers with eight touchdowns to his credit.

Adding more speed and deception to the Ferndale offense are halfbacks Hayward Sharpley and Bill Smarsty, both capable of going all the way at any time.

Put the name of Gerson Fox on the list and there's more trouble ahead. Fox is the veteran end who sparkles on defense and also catches passes and kicks extra points. Against Birmingham he kicked a field goal to beat the Maples, 10-7.

Ferndale looks like a cinch to win the Eastern Michigan League crown. The Dales boast a 4-0 league record and a 6-0 mark overall.

If the Chiefs' upset strategy comes off as planned, they will own their 5th victory in seven games. As of now, MacLeay and his warriors are busily sharpening their tomahawks.

STAR SOPH—Orlando Cepeda, 22, of the San Francisco Giants was named today as the Sophomore of the Year in the National League. He hit .317 with 27 homers and 105 runs batted in the past season.

Cepeda's Goal: Top Outfielder

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, (AP) — Orlando Cepeda, the National League Rookie of the Year in 1958 and its Sophomore of the Year in 1959, has already set one goal for 1960.

★ ★ ★

"I want to become a first class outfielder," he said today. "If I am going to play that position, I am going to try to make good. I do not want to become a player carried by a ball club just for his hitting."

★ ★ ★

The San Francisco Giants' slugger yesterday was named the leading sophomore in the annual Associated Press poll. He drew 86 of the 172 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America. Vada Pinson of Cincinnati was next with 66 votes.

★ ★ ★

Cepeda was shifted from first base to the outfield last August when Willie McCovey was brought up from the Pacific Coast League.

★ ★ ★

Orlando batted .317 with 27 homers and 105 runs batted in the past season. This was an improvement over his rookie campaign when he hit .312 and had 25 homers and 96 RBI.

Cleveland Goalie Hit by Puck, Has Broken Jaw

CLEVELAND (AP) — Goalie Gil Mayer was hit by a flying puck during the Cleveland Barons practice at the Arena Wednesday and suffered a broken jaw that will keep him out of American Hockey League play indefinitely.

★ ★ ★

Goalies are encouraged to wear a plastic mask for protection of the face during practice, but Mayer wouldn't do this.

★ ★ ★

"I don't like the mask for practice because it does not seem natural, since I don't use it in a regular game," he explained.

All N.Y. Goals Scored in Last Five Minutes

Sawchuk's Bid for 3rd Shutout Disappears in Rapid Fire

BOSTON (UPI) — The Detroit Red Wings meet the Boston Bruins tonight with high hopes that goalie Terry Sawchuk won't suffer any more third period lapses.

The New York Rangers gained a 3-3 tie with the Wings at New York last night by scoring all their goals within five minutes in the final stanza.

Sawchuk, who allowed only seven goals in the Red Wings' first seven games, was bidding for his third shutout of the season when the Rangers caught fire.

Camille Henry blasted a 35-foot goal—the 100th of the little Winger's National Hockey League career—into the net at 3:38.

★ ★ ★

Then Andy Bathgate tipped in a long shot by rookie defenseman Irv Spencer less than two minutes later. Andy Hebenton tied the score at 8:27 on a short back-hander.

Detroit scored all of its goals in the first period.

Rookie Jerry Melnyk scored on a power play when the Rangers were a man short at 5:58. Then Gordie Howe tallied from 35 feet away at 16:45 and set up a goal by Garry Aldcorn less than two minutes later.

The Wings fired 20 shots at New York goalie Lorne Worsley in the opening period

They cooled in the second and third periods and Worsley was called upon to make only five saves in the second and six in the third. Sawchuk made four saves in the first period, 13 in the second and nine in the third.

The tie left the Wings right where they started in the infant NHL race—four points in back of Montreal, after the Canadiens tied the Toronto Maple Leafs 1-1. Montreal leads the league and Detroit is second.

Leafs Deadlock Montreal, 1-1

Dick Duff's Counter Offsets First Period Goal by Rocket

TORONTO (AP)—Dick Duff's third period goal pulled the Toronto Maple Leafs into a 1-1 tie with Montreal Wednesday night and left the Canadiens' National Hockey League lead at four points over Detroit. Maurice Richard scored for Montreal.

★ ★ ★

Duff scored the tying goal at 5:49 on assists from George Armstrong and Bobby Pulford, beating Jacques Plante a second after Montreal's Jean Guy Talbot had come out of the penalty box.

Richard scored midway through the first period, firing a 10-footer between goalie Johnny Bower's legs to complete a pretty passing play with brother Henri Richard and Dickie Moore.

For the 38-year-old Richard, it was his third goal of the season and his 528th regular-season goal in his brilliant career.

★ ★ ★

Both teams had numerous scoring chances but the goal-tending of Bower and Plante was outstanding.

In the final 10 minutes Bower was at his greatest, kicking out shots from all angles.

He had some luck, especially when Jean Beliveau couldn't get his stick on a loose puck right in front of the Toronto net after Bower had slid to the other side stopping Marcel Bonin's shot.

Army on Air Force Menu

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Things are reaching a fever pitch here at the Air Force Academy as the Falcons prep for Saturday's game in New York against Army.

Coach Ben Martin scheduled a signal drill today as the Cadets wound up their game preparations. They take off tomorrow for New York.

The student body also got in the act. They interrupted yesterday's practice session with a spontaneous pep rally by 500 members of the Cadet wing.

The mess hall menu had its say. This was the selection:

Chilled Hudson River water (apple juice); grilled mule (steak) with Army gravy; custard Cadets with losing sauce (rice pudding); grilled tail of jackass (hot dogs.)

HUSKY JOB AHEAD — Pontiac Northern Huskies have a big task put to them Friday night when they tangle with unbeaten Walled Lake in the big game of the Inter-Lakes conference. Much of the offensive hope for PNH will depend on senior fullback George Graves. The Huskies will have to contend with Bob Christian, the county's top scorer.

Friday Battle to Decide I-L Championship

Host Vikings Certain of Title Share; Huskies Want Other Half

By CHUCK ABAIR

One of the state's top-ranked Class A football teams stands in the way of Pontiac Northern clinching a co-championship as a fitting climax to an outstanding 1st year in the grid sport.

The high-spirited Huskies will be back on the road tomorrow night for their long-awaited clash with unbeaten Walled Lake.

Although certain of at least a tie for the title, the Vikings have plenty of reason for not "letting down" against Northern.

They are currently No. 9 in the UPI ratings and might move up with a victory. An outright crown and a perfect record are other goals in sight if PNH can be conquered.

★ ★ ★

Both squads have naturally worked hard this week preparing for this big one. Heavy drills ended yesterday in each camp.

Walled Lake ranks as the favorite on its 6-0 record and victory over Waterford. Pontiac is 4-2 including a defeat to the Skippers.

Speedy Bob Christian has spearheaded a strong WL offensive as Oakland County's top scorer with 78 points. Three other Vikings have scored two touchdowns.

The Huskies have depended more on a balanced attack with Bob Hocking having 36 points and George Graves 30. Three others have tallied once.

Walled Lake has also held the defensive edge although the Northern defenders have shined in "getting that ball."

Scouting reports for both sides have been similar. Head coaches Ed Heikkinen of the visitors and host boss Dave Smith have been told they will be facing their toughest opponent of the season.

★ ★ ★

Heikkinen concedes Walled Lake should be considered the favorite and says breaks and desire may decide the issue. Smith feels the team with the best line play and the one which can best take advantage of the breaks will emerge victorious.

Size should be about equal which will be something new for both elevens. Each has been outweighed all season.

Physically, Northern has the edge at the moment. "We will be at top strength," said the hard-working Heikkinen after Wednesday's drill. Three key members of the Viking team are nursing injuries which may limit them to only part-time service if any. They are linemen Jerry Meyer and Bill Eskelinen and back Mike Hinkley.

Waterford plays at Southfield seeking a 3-2 loop finish and Berkley is guest of Farmington in other I-L finales tomorrow.

Howell Shines in Pistons' Debut

Rookie Gets 22 Points to Pace 117-102 Triumph

Detroit Quintet Beats Syracuse in Opener at Olympia Stadium

DETROIT (AP)— General manager Nick Kerbawy of the Detroit Pistons probably has a talking point to get holdout center Walter Dukes to come to terms soon.

The rookies did all right last night as the Pistons won their home opener in the National Basketball Assn. from the Syracuse Nationals 117-102 before a crowd of 4,972 fans at Olympia Stadium.

Gary Alcorn gave the Pistons much needed rebound strength in the absence of Dukes.

Bailey Howell, the rookie from Mississippi State, paced coach Red Rocha's youngsters by tossing in 22 points.

It was the Pistons' second victory in three games. Syracuse suffered its second straight defeat.

The Pistons set such a fast pace that Syracuse coach Paul Seymour pulled his veteran forwards, George Yardley and Dolph Schayes. Yardley, who was traded by the Pistons last season, was held to 17 points.

The Detroit victory was a team effort with Gene Shue scoring 20 points, Shellie McMillon 17, Archie Dees 13, Dick McGuire 13 and Earl Lloyd 11.

Detroit fell behind 11-8 early in the game and then jumped to a 17-11 edge when Howell dumped in four points. The Pistons increased their margin and wound up the first period with a 32-24 advantage.

Guard Hal Greer temporarily put the Nats back into the game with nine straight baskets that gave Syracuse a 56-52 halftime lead. Greer was top scorer for Syracuse with a total of 22 points.

At the start of the third period the Pistons made seven straight points and held an 86-80 lead at the end of the period. The Pistons turned the final period into rout and coasted to victory.

In the final two minutes, McMillon tangled with the Nats' Togo Palazzi and drew blood. Palazzi was elbowed while going up for a rebound. He swung at McMillon and missed. McMillon connected with a straight left.

Palazzi learned later that McMillon is a former Golden Glove boxer.

Coach Seymour offered Palazzi no sympathy. He said, "you had it coming. Next time you throw a punch, throw it to hit him."

McMillon went out of the game on a technical foul.

New Record in Field Goals

College Booters Have 118 in 228 Attempts at Wider Posts

NEW YORK (AP)—The football rules-makers who sought to encourage field goal kicking by widening the distance between the goal posts have been rewarded with a new record with the season little more than half over.

The NCAA Service Bureau reported Friday that 118 field goals, an all-time major college record, have been kicked in 332 games so far—57 per cent of the major games scheduled. The previous record for a full season for major colleges was 103, in 1958.

In a compromise move made last winter when there was some agitation for the return of the goal posts to the goal line, the NCAA rules committee widened the goal to 23 feet 4 inches between the posts or 24 feet overall. The previous width was 18 feet 6 inches between the posts.

The 118 field goals were made on 228 attempts—an accuracy percentage of 51.8.

Only 24 of the 110 major college teams have not attempted a field goal this season. Mississippi has attempted the most, eight, all by Bob Khayat, and has made three. Louisiana State, with Wendell Harris kicking, has been most successful with a 5-for-5 record.

St. Mike's Kickoff 30 Minutes Earlier

St. Michael's scheduled suburban Catholic League football game here Saturday night at Wisner Stadium against Orchard Lake St. Mary will start half an hour earlier than usual.

Saturday's kickoff time will be 7:30 p.m. The normal starting time is 8 o'clock.

Oh, those cotton picking pros. They've got the Swamis all confused. Even ole Swami Otto Graham who makes weekly pro predictions about his old stamping grounds is having trouble figuring them out.

We noted that a week ago, Graham missed all six pro games in his picks, so our local Swamis in picking three of six aren't doing too badly.

This week the Swamis go along with the Walled Lake, Pontiac Central, Southfield, Avondale and Rochester in the big local games except constant dissenter Swami Kearns who looks for the Huskies to pull an upset and the Skippers to spill Southfield.

This role of picking the underdogs is pushing Swami Kearns deeper near the cellar while Swami leader Cornwell thrives on the favorites.

Many bowlers, attempting to teach themselves, acquire an unorthodox style of approach which includes a hop, skip or some similar break in stride.

Your most natural body movement is a walk, so the easiest approach to the foul line is a fast walk. That's the way to pace your approach.

Keep the ball swinging in exact coordination with your walk. This fast walk approach and the coordination of the swing may be practiced without limit in the privacy of your home.

Your goal is to approach the line in an easy, natural manner.

Rochester and Romeo Tangle Tomorrow Night

The annual Rochester - Romeo battle is among the headliners as another prep football Friday rolls around tomorrow.

A victory by the heavily favored Falcons would mean the Tri-County championship. They are assured of at least a share of the crown.

Clarkston's attempt to end Northville's long domination of the Wayne-Oakland, a Clawson-Avondale clash and Ortonville at Oxford are among the other interesting parcels on the grid menu.

Rochester has won both its league starts easily and should have too much for Romeo which is 0-2 for loop play and 2-4 over-all.

★ ★ ★

Gene Konley's Falcons have scored at least 13 a game in winning five of six and have a four-game victory streak going. Romeo bounced back from four straight setbacks to wallop Clintondale a week ago. The return of quarterback Ron Schmidt may be a big boost to the Bulldog upset hopes.

Lapeer and L'Anse Creuse have complete Tri-County play. The Panthers will visit Flint Southwestern while L'Anse entertains Roseville. L'Anse Creuse would tie for the title if Rochester bowed.

Clarkston has been hot-and-cold all fall. The Wolves should be fired-up for 7th-ranked Mustangs. West Bloomfield, carrying hopes that Northville will falter, is host to Bloomfield Hills, Holly goes to Milford and Brighton is at Clarenceville in other W-O contests.

★ ★ ★

Clawson was figured to be the chief threat to Avondale's attempt to repeat as Oakland B champion but Fitzgerald has taken that spot. CHS has failed to live up to its notices but always give the Jackets a busy time of it. Troy travels to Lake Orion in the other loop game.

Birmingham should add another victory in the Eastern Michigan as host to East Detroit. Royal Oak Kimball is at Port Huron and Hazel Park at Mt. Clemens.

That Ortonville - Oxford affair should not be close but the Blackhawks could surprise. Oxford has been "down" ever since its upset by Lake Orion. Ortonville has shown little all season but the return of several boys following injuries could change the picture. Imlay City and Millington meet elswhere in the South Central.

The Southern Thumb schedule has such interesting matches as Brown City at Almont, Memphis vs. Dryden, Armada at Anchor Bay and Capac host to New Haven.

Other Friday games will have Madison at Garden City, Oak Park guest of Fitzgerald, North Branch at home to meet Kinde, Royal Oak Dondero at Highland Park, Lamphere entertaining Huron, Utica at Warren, and South Lyon host to Lansing Boys Vocational.

New National Point Leader

Ed Kovac From Cinci Now First in College Scoring Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Scoring three touchdowns last Saturday for the second week in a row, Cincinnati's Ed Kovac has climbed to the top of the list of the nation's football scorers, displacing Pervis Atkins of New Mexico State.

Kovac has 10 touchdowns for 60 points to Atkins' nine touchdowns and one extra point for 55. Atkins had led for three weeks, but he was held scoreless by Texas Wesleyan last Saturday.

Stanford's Chris Burford continued his season-long domination of the pass receivers. Last week he caught five passes to bring his total to 31 and increase his lead over Army's Bill Carpenter to three. The two are tied in yardage at 369. Gail Cogdill of Washington State has caught only 22 tosses but is the yardage leader with 397.

★ ★ ★

Billy Majors of Tennessee retained his punt return leadership with a total of 165 yards on 16 returns, and Calvin Bird of Kentucky took the lead in kickoff returns by returning three Georgia boots for a total of 102 yards and a season's total of 283 on 11 returns.

Paul Maguire of The Citadel caught two touchdown passes Saturday for a total of six to lead in that department.

Top Navy Fencer Gets Wounded in Freak Accident

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Navy's No. 1 epee fencer, Bernard Joseph Cauley, was wounded in a freak fencing accident last week but appears in satisfactory condition now.

★ ★ ★

Naval Academy officials said Cauley was hurt last Thursday while working out with another midshipman but was released from the Naval Hospital Wednesday. He was returned to light duty and may even be able to rejoin the fencing team this fall.

Cauley, a 23-year-old senior from Los Angeles, Calif., was fencing with another member of the squad when his opponent's blade snapped and pierced his jersey underneath his left armpit. It punctured and partially collapsed his left lung.

Cards and Rochester Have Three-Year Pact

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A 3-year working agreement has been signed by the St. Louis Cardinals and the International League's Rochester Red Wings, St. Louis General Manager Bing Devine announced Wednesday.

The arrangement with Rochester and a similar 2-year pact with Tulsa of the Texas League marks the first time the Cards have agreed to contracts of more than one year with minor league clubs.

Lane's Bloody Win Makes Him 3-Division Contender

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kenny Lane's gory and rumpus-raising decision over former welterweight champion Virgil Akins made him a threat in three divisions today.

With blood streaming over both fighters at the finish, Lane won a split decision in a nationally televised 10-rounder at Capitol Arena last night in his welterweight debut.

The triumph before a yelling, whistling crowd stamped Lane, the Muskegon, Mich., southpaw, as a creditable prospect in the 147-pound division. He is still ranked second behind Carlos Ortiz among contenders for Joe Brown's lightweight crown and is as good a bidder as any for the junior welter title held by Ortiz.

For a moment Lane appeared doomed to a third round technical knockout after Akins jabbed open a cut over Kenny's right eye. But cagy Jack Kearns, who has faced innumerable major and minor crises in uncounted decades as a manager, won a decision at that point which let his boy go on to victory.

As blood gushed from the wound, Referee Ray Bowen called in ring physician David Gordon to check Lane's eye. With Gordon came Kearns and his aides, who patched the injury as the doctor examined it.

Rival manager Bernie Glickman and his contingent then stormed the ring for an arm-waving ruckus with Kearns, Gordon and Bowen. They howled that Gordon had stopped the fight but changed his mind.

Gordon said later he had a notion to call it off at first but then decided Lane was in no danger of serious harm.

Lane said the physician had indicated the match was over but finally concluded it should continue for a while, at least. That saved Lane, who in the sixth slashed a gory cut near Akins' left eye.

Glickman charged Kearns and company "violated all the rules of boxing" by hopping into the ring and working on Lane's gash. They should have stayed put, he said. "That's the rule in every state and Russia besides."

★ ★ ★

Both fighters nearly toppled in the ninth, and in the 10th Akins stunned Lane with a straight right. It was all over by then. Bowen scored the slambang battle an 89-89 draw but Judges Charley Buck (98-91) and Joe Bunsa (94-93) gave Lane the verdict. The Associated Press also had Lane ahead, 93-90.

Egad, The Ole Major Picks Two Big Upsets

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Halfbuck Specialist

Egad, faithful followers, I have two startling upsets to offer this week.

After careful perusal of all pertinent data, it appears that most of the chalk horses—that is, ahem, most of the favored teams will emerge victorious. But the infallible Hoople Plan has detected definite signs indicating an unexpected upheaval in the college football world.

My four-star upsets are powerful, high-scoring Mississippi to dim the national championship hopes of Louisiana State, and Southern Methodist to squeak by classy Texas.

Some of you may construe the Air Force Academy's victory over Army to be an upset, but it's in the cards, my gentle readers.

Ha! This is the same Air Force team which I correctly forecast would have its 14-game unbeaten string broken by Oregon. When the fledgling moonmen trot onto the turf at Yankee Stadium, however, they will be gunning for the Academy's greatest pigskin triumph.

Go on with the forecast and a Happy Halloween to all. Harrumph!

Wyoming, Montana State Will Appeal Probations

NCAA Punishes 2 Schools

BOSTON (AP)—The University of Wyoming is expected to appeal a decision by the NCAA council which placed the school on probation for a year and ruled the Cowboy football team ineligible for postseason bowl games.

"We don't think we violated the NCAA code and we've been trying to play it real straight," Wyoming head football coach Bob Devaney said in Laramie, Wyo., yesterday after the policy-directing body of the powerful NCAA handed down its decision.

Devaney said he plans to appeal the ruling, which would knock his team out of a possible trip to the Sun Bowl Game.

And in Bozeman, Mont., the council of deans at Montana State College unanimously agreed to appeal for a review of another NCAA ruling placing that school on a two-year probation. The restriction makes Montana State ineligible for NCAA national championships, participation in invitational events held in cooperation with the NCAA and NCAA-controlled television programs.

★ ★ ★

The college is host to the NCAA-sponsored ski meet in March. The action means that it cannot participate. The deans said they would appeal particularly the severity of the penalty.

Both schools were penalized for violations of the NCAA rules on recruiting and financial aid to athletes.

Wyoming currently leads the Skyline Conference football race, and was considered a prime candidate for a spot in the Sun Bowl game at El Paso, Tex., if it wins the title.

"I don't think that severe a penalty is warranted," Devaney said.

The council, which concluded its regular fall meeting yesterday, earlier had handed out probation sentences to Arizona State University at Tempe and the University of Mississippi. Both were punished for recruiting and financial aid violations.

In addition, Hamline University at St. Paul, Minn., was censured and reprimanded for violating rules on tryouts.

★ ★ ★

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, who announced the rulings, said Wyoming violated NCAA regulations when it "offered and paid the costs incurred" by a student and his wife "in traveling from their home in South Bend, Ind., to Laramie, Wyo., during July, 1957, for the purposes of visiting the campus and securing summer employment" with the eventual purpose of enrolling at the school.

★ ★ ★

The council also found that the school violated rules of the Mountain States Athletic Conference (the Skyline) by offering grant-in-aid assistance before the boy became eligible for athletic competition. The council noted that this condition was later corrected.

Byers did not name the student involved, but sources in Wyoming said he is Angelo Mosca, who transferred to Wyoming from Notre Dame in 1957, dropped out of school later that fall and subsequently played professional football in Canada.

★ ★ ★

Byers said Montana State was put on probation—its second time in such a status—for offering improper aid to a prospective student-athlete, and later withdrawing that aid in an improper manner.

AL Sets 1960 Slate to Begin April 18

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League Wednesday adopted a 1960 schedule calling for a one-game opener at Washington on April 18. A full-fledged opening program of four games will be played the next day.

★ ★ ★

For the first time in almost 50 years the two major leagues will have different opening dates. The National League, which approved its schedule earlier, will begin on April 10. The early date was picked to give the National clubs more travel dates.

★ ★ ★

In announcing his league's schedule, President Joe Cronin refused to name the Senators' opening day opponent. He added the committee had spent the entire day whipping the schedule into shape and had not discussed expansion to a 10-club league.

Britain Cup Team Makes Player Change

LONDON (AP)—John Panton, Scottish golf star, said Wednesday he had accepted an invitation to join Britain's Ryder Cup team in the United States.

★ ★ ★

He will replace Peter Mills, who has been sidelined because of a back injury.

★ ★ ★

The Ryder Cup matches are scheduled for Palm Desert, Calif., Nov. 6-7.

List Pontiac Businessman Among Backers of Track

FLINT (AP)—The names of financial backers of a proposed thoroughbred and harness racing track near Fenton were disclosed yesterday, 12 days before a referendum vote on the project.

Promoters of the track told newsmen they planned to have it in operation by next summer if Fenton Township voters approve rezoning a 200-acre site to permit construction of the 3½-million-dollar installation.

The citizens committee for Fenton Township, representing a group of township residents, obtained a referendum vote for Nov. 9 after the township board authorized the rezoning.

The committee's opposition to the track was endorsed yesterday by the department of Christian social relations of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan.

Grand River Amusement Enterprises Inc. of Novi plans to build the track. The company said it has the following financial backers:

B. F. Gregoric, Wayne, president of the company; Mrs. Rose Marchesotti, Novi, owner of Saratoga Farms; George Kovacs, Walled Lake, president of General Machine Tool and Co.; WILLIAM CHAPLOW, PRESIDENT OF PONTIAC LUMBER CO.; the Full brothers, owners of Fuller Tool Co., Berkley; George Schoenrock, Detroit, president of Schoenrock Trailer Co.; Walter Cox, Jersey City, N.J., vice president of Light-O-Lier Corp.; Roy Hornung, Fenton, contractor; Donald Ellis, real estate, Conrad Niergath, banking, David Smith, insurance, and Thomas Capua, laboratory technician, all of Flint, and George Markham, Grand Blanc, real estate and insurance.

The track would be built near the U. S. 23 expressway west of the village of Fenton, 16 miles south of Flint.

★ ★ ★

Promoters said the track also would draw from Lansing, Saginaw, Pontiac and Midland and to a lesser extent from the Detroit area.

Plans call for a one-mile track for thoroughbreds and a half-mile track for trotters with stables for 1,000 horses. The grandstand would seat 10,000.

The promoters told newsmen they feel that if voters approve the project the firm will be able to obtain a state license. They estimated it would yield two million dollars in taxes for the state.

The construction, promoters said, would be basically of aluminum alloy.

Promoters said the layout would accommodate polo, football, basketball, track and field events and also provide exhibition space for farm shows.

Wind Hikes Scores in Sahara Tourney

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A mischievous wind pushed Doug Sanders over par in the second round of the $7,500 Sahara pro-amateur golf tournament. But just about everybody else went over with him and he still led by a stroke today going into the final 18 holes.

★ ★ ★

Sanders, of Miami Beach, Fla., shot a 1-over-par 73 yesterday. This was seven strokes above his first-day score but his 36-hole total of 139 left him one up on Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif., who also had a 73 yesterday.

Host Seeded No. 1

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Oklahoma City University will be the favorite when play opens Dec. 28 in the annual Oklahoma City all-college basketball tournament.

The defending champion Chiefs were seeded No. 1 yesterday followed by Niagara, Wichita and Bowling Green of Ohio.

Wisconsin Hopes to Break 'M' Hex

PROUD PAPPY — George Lanphear, former football and basketball ace at the University of Wisconsin in the 30's, beams with pride over the fact that his son Dan, 220-pound Wisconsin tackle was named AP lineman of the week for his play against Ohio State last week. Wisconsin meets Michigan at Ann Arbor Saturday.

Badgers Unable to Beat U. of M. in 25-Year Span

Improving Wolverines Seek to Keep Record Clean Saturday

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—The fortunes of football war still smiled today on Wisconsin's Badgers as they readied for the Wolverines of Michigan and a chance to break another old Big Ten jinx.

Wisconsin's ranks stand free of injury even after last Saturday's bruising triumph over Ohio State, a team the Badgers hadn't beaten in 13 unlucky years.

This weekend, the challenge comes from an improving Michigan team that would like to add a line in the record book that says Wisconsin hasn't won from the Wolverines in 25 years.

Michigan and Wisconsin only have met six times in the interval but that's hardly a comfort to the Badgers.

★ ★ ★

Wisconsin moved back into the thick of the Big Ten race with wins over Iowa and OSU. To stay there—while shouldering the burden of a loss to Purdue—the Badgers must beat Michigan. No team with two losses ever has won or shared in a conference title.

"I don't believe in jinxes," says coach Milt Bruhn, "but we just got to do something about not having beaten Michigan for so long a time."

The something to which Bruhn refers could turn on an extra assortment of offensive plays the Badgers had ready for the Buckeyes until rain, cold and slippery footing forced a switch in signals.

Wisconsin makes the trip to Ann Arbor in top physical shape and with the added strength of their most satisfying victory.

The Badgers showed 1958 defensive form last Saturday, keeping the Buckeyes contained except for a few short-lived thrusts beyond the midfield stripe. Ohio's only score came on a 27-yard field goal by Dave Kilgore.

With veteran Dale Hackbart and sophomore Jim Bakken sharing the quarterbacking, the Badgers rolled up 235 yards rushing on a field that had more puddles and mud patches than grass at game's end.

Wisconsin's fierce line play, led by tackles Danny Lanphear and Jim Heineke, and guard Jerry Stalcup, jarred opposing Buckeye runners free of the ball at the most inopportune times for the visitors.

"We couldn't have lost to a better ball club," was OSU coach Woody Hayes' evaluation of the outcome.

Titans Have Score to Settle With B.C.

DETROIT (UPI)—Two University of Detroit stars have a personal score to settle when the Boston College football team invades Titan Stadium tomorrow night.

Left half Bruce Maher, Detroit's leading ground gainer with 327 yards rushing, has a minus 13 yards against the Boston team for two meetings in 1957 and 1958.

The Titans' leading pass receiver, end Tom Chapman, who has 19 yards in 14 catches this year, was also skunked in the 1957 and 1958 games.

Both will be out to do a personal job against Boston College.

But Detroit will be the underdog because of its 3-3 record this season while Boston College has a 3-2 record and is riding the crest of a three-game winning streak.

Boston lost to Navy and Army, but won consecutive games from Villanova, Dartmouth and Marquette.

Detroit won over George Washington and Marquette, lost to Kentucky and Tulane, won from Xavier and lost to Tulsa. Against Marquette, their only common opponent, U-D won 14-0 while Boston took a 16-0 decision.

The Boston team has one of the finest passing games in college football, but much of Detroit's success this season has been against teams which rely heavily on passing.

Detroit has lost the services of three players for the year — a guard, a center and a fullback—and will play tomorrow without first string end Dennis Flynn, who missed the Tulsa game and will probably miss at least two more.

Seek to Limit Foreigners

NCAA Aims Rule at Aliens

BOSTON (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Assn., governing body for collegiate athletics, will be presented with a recommended amendment aimed at regulating play of alien athletes when the group meets in its annual convention in New York Jan. 6-8.

★ ★ ★

The amendment was approved yesterday by the NCAA council, the group's policy-directing body, in a move that Executive Director Walter Byers said was "designed to regulate the older boys coming over here to compete against younger boys."

The amendment would limit the number of semesters alien athletes could compete, place age limits on such players, and impose residency requirement before such athletes would be eligible to participate in national championship competition.

★ ★ ★

Alien students would be limited to 10 semesters or 15 quarters eligibility for all competition, and would be limited to three years after reaching the age of 20, two years after 21 and one year after 22.

★ ★ ★

Further, such athletes would have to have two years residence study before becoming eligible to compete in national championship events.

He Almost Goes Route for UCLA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — There probably aren't any 60-minute men left in football. But UCLA may have come about as close as anybody. It has a 50⅓-minute man.

He's Harry Baldwin, a 198-pound junior center who has played 200½ of a possible 240 minutes in the Bruins' first four games. The next most active UCLA player, end Marv Luster, is almost 28 minutes behind Baldwin.

Leads by 1 Stroke

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Mrs. R. M. Torgerson of Forest Hills, N.Y., carries a one-stroke lead into today's final 18 hole round of the North and South senior golf tournament.

By BILL CORNWELL

"For the first time this season our boys really jelled for a great performance," commented St. Michael football coach Jim Niebauer after his Shamrocks whaled St. Frederick 54-7, in the renewal of their city feud Sunday afternoon at Wisner Stadium.

"I wouldn't want to pick any single individual star for us," remarked the young St. Mike mentor. "It was simply a terrific team effort all the way and everything went right for us."

Everything certainly did work perfectly for the Mikes and it seems to be the only reasonable explanation for such a one-sided contest. How else can you explain a runaway like that in a crosstown game where the rivalry is so intense?

Niebauer opined that the Shamrocks were capable of playing that well earlier this season. "We think the boys finally hit their potential against St. Fred," said Niebauer.

St. Fred coach Tom Kennedy had nothing but praise for the Mikes. "They wanted to win much more than we did," claimed Kennedy. "They outcharged us and ran over us from beginning to end and we were content to take it."

Whether or not St. Mike's newfound gridiron power will last is bound to get an acid test here Saturday night at 7:30 when the northsiders clash with rugged Orchard Lake St. Mary on the Wisner turf. The Eaglets always have been tough for St. Mike.

EXTRA GAME NOTES

There must have been some bloodthirsty St. Mike rooters last Sunday. Late in the game from the Shamrock cheering section on the west side of the field could be heard the chant, "We want 60! We want 60!"

★ ★ ★

St. Fred tackle Bill Shell has been lost for the season. Shell suffered torn ligaments in his right knee early in the game with St. Mike. It was the only serious injury in the contest.

★ ★ ★

There was just one thing for St. Fred to cheer about Sunday. Their 8th grade grid team defeated St. Mike's 8th graders, 34-15, in a preliminary attraction.

★ ★ ★

Shamrock halfback Mike Ganje was the top individual ground gainer in Sunday's battle. Ganje carried the ball 19 times and gained a total of 179 yards for an average of 9.4 yards per try. In addition, Ganje scored three touchdowns.

★ ★ ★

Mainly due to his 43-yard touchdown run in the fading minutes of the game, halfback Norm Hoffman was St. Fred's leading ball carrier. Hoffman gained 62 yards in just six tries for a fancy 10.3 average.

★ ★ ★

Until their 55-yard drive for a TD, the Rams moved into St. Mike territory only three times. They reached the 36 and seven yard lines in the 2nd quarter before losing the ball on downs and punted on 4th down from the 42 in the 4th period. They also advanced to midfield in the 2nd stanza.

OSU Reassembles Forces for MSU

Buckeyes Show Weak Offense in Three Defeats

Fullback Bob White May Be Sidelined in Lineup Shuffling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State is trying to pick up the pieces to reassemble its football machine.

Beaten 12-3 by Wisconsin last Saturday for their third loss in five games, and with Michigan State, Indiana, Iowa and Michigan coming up, the outlook isn't too rosy for the once-feared Bucks.

Coach Woody Hayes told his press conference this week "we'll have to jack up our offense—but our defense has been pretty good."

The offense has produced just one touchdown in the last four games, after going for two in the opener against Duke. Three field goals, three conversions and a safety round out the 32-point total for the year—far under the 110 compiled in the first five tilts a year ago.

"Once the scourge of the Big Ten, the Bucks have won only four of their last 10 games, and tied a pair. Hayes said he didn't know whether to blame the green team or his own coaching—but said "maybe it had better be the latter."

He'll toss a couple of new parts into his first team in an attempt to bolster everything for the Michigan State scrap here Saturday before some 83,000 fans. Ohio has lost all three encounters with the Spartans, and if it drops this one it will mark the first time in nine seasons that Hayes has been beaten more than three times in a campaign.

Tom Matte takes over at quarterback, Tom Perdue at left end, and sophomore Roger Detrick may be at fullback in the shuffled lineup. Matte and Perdue earned the spots off the showing against Wisconsin, while Detrick will move up if an injury sidelines bruising Bob White.

Hayes named Dick Anders, recently moved up to starting center, as the "lineman of the week" against Wisconsin, although he admitted "no one gave a particularly outstanding performance last Saturday."

49ers Picked Over Lions

Colts Strong Choices Over Browns

By United Press International

The Baltimore Colts are 7½-point choices to whip the Cleveland Browns and the New York Giants are favored over the Green Bay Packers by seven in Sunday's key National Football League games.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners, who share the Western Division lead with the Colts, are seven-point choices to defeat the Detroit Lions.

In the other games, the Philadelphia Eagles are favored over the Washington Redskins by seven points, the Pittsburgh Steelers are favored over the Chicago Cardinals by 3½ and the Los Angeles Rams are 7½-point picks to beat the Chicago Bears.

The Colts-Browns clash at Baltimore will affect both divisions and offers many intriguing angles for pro football followers.

★ ★ ★

It matches Baltimore, the current league champion, against pro football's most successful team. It matches two coaches who should not be invited to the same party. Weeb Ewbank, Baltimore's coach, was an assistant for five years with the Browns under Paul Brown. They did not part on the best of terms.

The Colts, tied with the Forty-Niners at 4-1, don't get many cracks at the Browns because the clubs are in different divisions. They knocked the Browns out of the Eastern race, 21-7, at Cleveland in 1956 and aim to hand them another blow Sunday before a capacity crowd of 57,557.

Baltimore also wants to win because it plays four of its next six games on the road. The Browns (3-2) need a victory to keep within range of the Giants (4-1) in the Eastern race. They trail New York by a game and would fall two behind if they lose and the Giants defeat the Packers (3-2).

★ ★ ★

Both the Browns and Colts are in fairly good physical condition but the Giants will be minus one of their top stars when they meet the Packers before more than 50,000 at Yankee Stadium. Frank Gifford, New York's talented left halfback, suffered a torn rib cartilage in last week's game at Pittsburgh and figures to miss at least two games. Jim Taylor, Green Bay fullback who has been sidelined, may be able to play Sunday.

San Francisco, which scored in the final seconds to edge the Bears last Sunday, entertains a Detroit club that scored its first 1959 victory last week when it defeated the Rams, 17-7.

The Eagles (3-2) are tied with the Browns for second in the Eastern Division. They erased a 24-point deficit last week during a 28-24 victory over the Cardinals and play host to a crippled Washington team. The Redskins (2-3) asked waivers on end John Carson and halfback Bill Stits after taking a 34-7 whipping at Cleveland last Sunday.

Pittsburgh suffered a 21-16 loss to New York last Sunday and plays the Cardinals (1-4) at Chicago. Quarterbacks King Hill and M. C. Reynolds of the Cardinals were unable to play against the Eagles because of injuries but may be ready for the Steelers.

Mantle Won't Be Traded—George Weiss

NEW YORK (AP) — Memo to Mickey Mantle, the off - season bowling alley proprietor in Dallas:

Keep well and you'll again be playing center field for the New York Yankees next season.

"It has been my experience that just because a player had an off year it doesn't mean he can't come back with a good one," said General Manager George Weiss of the Yanks today when informed Mantle thought he might be traded.

"Especially," added Weiss, "if he is still young and has the potential of a Mantle. We're giving no thought to trading him."

Mantle, who skidded to .285 last season, had said in Dallas that he wouldn't be surprised if the Yanks traded him after what he called his poorest season.

France Wonders Why He Killed

Horrible Case of George Rapin

GEORGES RAPIN: "I like to see people die."

DOMINIQUE THIREL: Horror in the forest.

PARIS (NEA) — The scene was the lovely, romantic forest of Fontainebleau just outside Paris, but the script might have been written for a horror movie.

The young girl, seven bullets in her body, her gasoline-soaked clothes aflame, crawled like a living torch toward the road. Nearby stood her assailant, making no move to help.

That is the way 23-year-old Georges Rapin reconstructed the murder of Dominique Thirel, 21, when he confessed it to police last spring.

But further shockers have come since Rapin was jailed for that crime. He has claimed to be the author of 12 other murders — most of them purely senseless — and he has been revealed to be the child of an intelligent and comfortably fixed family.

Some French psychiatrists say that Rapin is simply a rare, psychological phenomenon — the innate killer.

Certainly he does not have the excuse of a sordid home, or a childhood lacking in care and affection. His father is a brilliant and very successful engineer. Unfortunately, his position has always called him away from home for months on end.

★ ★ ★

Georges, an only child, was left with a doting mother and grandmother. Apparently neither woman knew the meaning of discipline.

The boy developed into a handsome youth, but his grades were not up to his looks. He just barely graduated from high school.

Because he thought he wanted to be an actor, Georges was sent to the most famous dramatic school in Paris. He had no talent at all.

His mother then bought him a bar. She thought of this as an investment as well as a means of keeping her son busy. This bar, and then a second one, failed miserably. Then she bought a bookshop, with no more success.

The bar ventures probably contributed to his undoing. They became the meeting place of shady characters, because Georges Rapin was always good for several rounds of drinks.

Graduating from the Left Bank to Montmarte, Georges became known as "Monsieur Bill" who was always free with his money. His mother gave him an average of 100 dollars a week spending money. Most of the time he lived in the family's luxurious 12-room apartment on the aristocratic Boulevard Saint Germain.

But Georges dreamed of becoming a real Montmarte power was an easy way to that goal.

Rapin's greatest moment came, however, when the examining magistrate ordered the reconstruction of Dominique's murder on the spot where it was committed. For the first time in his life "Monsieur Bill" played the star role. He held the center of the stage and strutted and posed for photographers.

Some weeks after that, Rapin confessed the other killings to the head warden of the prison. Police are now trying to verify his statement.

THIRST FOR BLOOD

The psychiatrists are now inclined to believe that more imperative in Rapin than the desire to assert himself as a tough guy is an unexplained thirst for blood which had to be satisfied.

One of his school friends told how suddely one day on the street, Rapin said:

"See that guy? I'd like to get him."

He admitted never having set eyes on him before.

"I really don't know why," he continued to his horrified listener, "I just feel the urge to kill him. I enjoy seeing people die."

Rapin gave no convincing motive for Dominique's murder. She was a dancer and hostess in a shady Pigalle nightclud whom he had taken under his wing. But, police said, she began showing signs of independence and Rapin was afraid of losing face with the gangsters, dope peddlers, pimps and prostitutes that made up his acquaintances. So he killed her.

★ ★ ★

Georges' fiancee, 20-year-old manicurist Nadine Delesque, was arrested with him, but has since been released and gone to live with his family.

She writes long letters to him, and claims that she still loves "Monsieur Bill." He apparently had thoroughly fascinated her with his perfect manners, expensive clothes, soft voice and good looks. She says: "I will never forget him."

Rapin, however, has apparently completely forgotten his victims. According to prison sources, he spends his time awaiting trial reading all the newspaper stories about him and adventure stories from the library.

He also writes long letters to Nadine and to his mother who, still the doting parent, provides him with cookies and fresh fruit.

The club has the First Lady as its honor guest at an anniversary luncheon here, with Marine Band music, toasts and a cake shaped like a tabloid newspaper headlining birthday greetings.

Grains Steady but Corn Weak

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market was generally steady today in early board of trade transactions although corn moved toward weakness.

At the worst, corn was down a half cent during the first several minutes while other grains and soybeans held within minor fractions of previous closes. Trade was slow and light.

★ ★ ★

Wheat steadied on word that West Germany bought about a half million bushels of hard overnight and is in the market for almost two million more along with Yugoslavia which had asked offers on 750,000

★ ★ ★

Soybean dealers heard reports that soybean producers, particularly in Iowa and Minnesota, are withholding the crop from the market for higher prices.

Near the end of the first hour the grains were mostly weak, while soybeans had firmed somewhat. Wheat ⅝ to ½ cent a bushel lower, December $2.00¾; corn ⅛ to ½ lower, December $1.10; oats ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, December 75; rye ¼ to ⅞ lower, December $1.36⅛; soybeans unchanged to ½ higher, November $1.15⅝.

DETROIT (AP)—Fruehauf Trailer Co. today reported net sales of $186,098,729 and a net profit of $9,679,698 equal to $1.43 a share for the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1959. Market Declines in Active Trade

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market declined moderately in active trading early this afternoon. American Motors and Studebaker-Packard backed away from recent wide gains.

Losses of most key stocks went from fractions to about a point.

American Motors was down about a point and Studebaker-Packard common dropped about 2. The two stocks were traded hectically yesterday as they reached a kind of climax in their daily drive to new highs.

Steels dropped slightly as further steps on a Taft-Hartley injunction awaited adjudication by the U.S. Supreme Court next week at the earliest. Rails also were off on balance.

Rubbers, most aircrafts and some of the electronics posted gains.

Coppers and oils were down. Chemicals, airlines and tobaccos were mixed.

The Studebaker-Packard issues opened on big blocks but, unlike yesterday when trading was halted a few times in the interests of an orderly market, transactions continued briskly and without interruption.

Studebaker when-issued stock dropped about a point while the existing preferred was down about 68 to around $550 a share.

Stewart-Warner toppled about 3 points as profits were taken on yesterday's big gain prior to word that the company plans a 2-for-1 stock split.

Westinghouse Electric, which advanced on stock split news yesterday, was about unchanged.

The nation's top steelmakers, U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic, lost fractions. Bethlehem reports after the market close on third quarters earnings and dividends.

Pennsylvania Railroad traded about unchanged despite a September loss which wiped out an eight-months profit. Illinois Central (exdividend) was off about a point and New York Central a fraction.

Cadillac Ends Assembly 2nd Shift Today With 70,000 Idled

DETROIT (AP)—Cadillac said today its auto production will end with the second shift tonight because of steel shortages. About 7,000 workers will be idled.

★ ★ ★

Cadillac is the second of the five General Motors car-making divisions to reach a complete shutdown. Pontiac quit last night.

General Motors layoffs because of the steel strike now approximate 200,000.

Oldsmobile is expected to end production tomorrow. Buick will be idle tomorrow but says it expects to build some cars next week.

Chevrolet has closed nine of it 13 passenger car assembly plants. It probably will build some Corvairs next week, although its Oaklnad, Calif. plant —one of three assembling the new compact cars—will go down Wednesday.

Automotive News today estimated this week's industry production at 101,358 cars, down from 112,488 last week. A year ago, with production building up after new labor contracts were signed in the auto industry, 97,804 cars were built in the comparable week.

Truck production, also affected by steel shortages, slipped from 20,803 units last week to 15,993 this week. A year ago the figure was 19,197.

★ ★ ★

Automotive News said that one fourth of this week's passenger car production was devoted to the five compact cars—Corvair, Falcon, Valiant, Lark and Rambler.

General Motors shutdowns accounted for almost all of the drop in domestic prodouction during the week.

Milk Carton Ad Firm Stock Sale Halted

Further sale of stock in the Milk Carton Advertising Co. of America—of which most of 62,368 shares had been sold in Oakland County—has been ordered stopped by the Corporation and Securities Commission.

★ ★ ★

Lawrence Gubow, commission chairman, said the stock was unregistered.

The firm, incorporated in August 1958, had not attempted to register its stock, Gubow said. It apparently arranged for advertising on milk cartons.

Gubow said besides Oakland, shares had been sold in Ingham, Wayne, Allegan, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Sanilac counties.

Public Buses Take Students

Rochester Board Cuts Service to Children in Subdivision

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Board of Education decided last night to notify parents, who have children taking school buses from within the one and a half-mile limitation, that public transportation is now available and they will no longer be eligible to ride the school buses.

School Transportation Director Richard F. Huizenga says the Bee Line Bus Co. has rearranged its schedule and will transport students living along Walton boulevard to the senior and junior high schools.

At a previous meeting the Board agreed to pick up 19 high school students residing in Rochester Knolls subdivision in school buses.

The reason behind the Board's decision, members agreed, was that Walton boulevard was "extremely dangerous" where students were walking.

The parents were asked to cooperate in trying to have a sidewalk built behind the subdivision or find public transportation.

Now that arrangements have been made for public bus service, the parents will "be obliged" to use it or make other arrangements, Superintendent of Schools Donald C. Baldwin said today.

ACTOR DON DRYSDALE WILD — Pitcher Don Drysdale, center, of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who is becoming a television cowboy for the winter, loses his grip on a six-shooter as he and actors John Russell, left, and Peter Brown demonstrate their abilities at the fast draw Wednesday in Hollywood. Drysdale's first effort as an actor will be with Russell and Brown in an episode of "The Lawman." A film official says the baseball star fits Hollywood's conception of a cowboy hero. "He's big, young, and has a Western face."

South Gives Toure Interracial Dinner

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—President Sekou Toure of Guinea was honored Wednesday night on the University of North Carolina campus at a dinner attended by both Negroes and whites.

Gov. and Mrs. Luther Hodges were hosts at the dinner at Chapel Hill's Morehead Planetarium. They greeted Toure, 37-year-old chief of the year-old nation, his wife and party of 21 on their arrival earlier at Raleigh-Durham Airport.

★ ★ ★

This will be Toure's only Southern stop of his 16-day trip through the United States.

On the subject of his allegiance in the cold war, Toure told reporters, "Many people think there is only East or West. In school I was taught there were four directions — east, west, north and south, the aspirations of my people are to liberty."

Osteopath and Aide Mute on Abortion

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — An osteopath and his attractive blonde assistant were held today after standing mute to charges of committing an abortion and conspiracy.

Dr. Emery J. Gilbert, 56, and Mary Ellen Vaile, 26, a practical nurse, were arrested yesterday by State Police who said they had had Gilbert's office under observation for about a month.

★ ★ ★

Sgt. Lynford Smith, a detective from state police headquarters, said the two were believed to have performed at least four illegal operations.

Gilbert and Miss Vaile were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Francis A. Castelluci who ordered them held on $5,000 bond. Examination was set for Nov. 6.

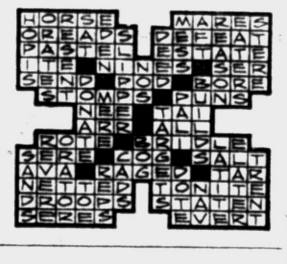

Mount Clemens Station Seeks Permit for FM

MOUNT CLEMENS — Wright & Maltzen Inc., radio station WBRB, for an FM radio station on 102.7 megacycles.

Symington Quits Talk Plan Over Segregation

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo), mentioned as a possible Democratic candidate for president in 1960, pulled out of a speech at a state Democratic dinner here because the event will be segregated.

★ ★ ★

Symington was scheduled to appear with Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) at the $10-a-plate Arkansas Democratic harmony dinner Friday night. A crowd of 4,000 is expected.

The senator said Wednesday at Easton, Pa., that he had told Arkansas party officials he would not be able to attend when he learned that Negro delegates would be seated at segregated tables.

I. S. McClinton, of Little Rock, president of the Arkansas Democratic (Negro) Voters Assn., said, "If there are any seating restrictions at the dinner, we will not go."

Going to Europe

Desi to Act Seriously

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Desi Arnaz now is famous enough, popular enough and rich enough to do what he wants to do: act, and act seriously.

★ ★ ★

Viewers can catch Desi, late of I Love Lucy, playing his first dramatic role in 17 years Friday night on CBS' Desilu Theater.

And that's just the beginning for the Cuba-born multimillionaire head of a big busy television show producing company. After an overnight stay here, Desi is off for England, Rome and North Africa to star in some more television shows — and without wife Lucille Ball.

NOTHING WRONG

That doesn't mean there's anything wrong in the Arnaz menage, he says, dismissing rumors of a split with the red-haired actress. She's now in New York, looking for a play.

"In the first place," says Desi, "I went into television producing so that I could do what I liked to do. And I like the creative side. Now I can take time off to find good material, and to act in stories I like."

Desi will be gone three or four weeks, making a thriller along the lines of "Casablanca," to be directed by Sheldon Reynolds, the old Foreign Intrigue producer, who is a stickler for authentic backgrounds.

★ ★ ★

Arnaz, now 42 and his hair powdered by gray, expects to have a sort of acting vacation — away from the executive cares of an organization which last season produced some 750 hours of TV entertainment and this year expects to do even better.

'GOOD STAFF'

"I can go away and feel comfortable" he says. "I've got a good staff. But this is a funny television season — there's no pattern of viewing developing; a lot of shows are working against each other and it isn't doing anybody any good."

★ ★ ★

Arnaz, however, is not worried about being a producer of bread and butter shows in a season full of dessert offerings, the specials.

Friday night, for instance, his "So Tender, So Profane" on CBS overlaps with the final 30 minutes of NBC's highly touted "Moon and Sixpence" with Laurence Oliver.

"I love to do these hour shows, and I love to act in them," he continues. "I'm in the business of entertaining Americans. I'm not in the business of preaching to them. I don't want to insult them, and I don't want to tell them about their problems. And I'm not trying to get the crowd from '21' and Romanoffs. And I'm not worried about how we'll come out of this fight for audiences."

Dirksen Won't Attend Biased Illinois Dance

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill) will not attend an Illinois State Society dance week here next month because invitations said only white graduates of Illinois colleges and universities would be honored at the affair.

The society lists Dirksen as a congressional vice president.

Charlie's Pals Rally With Moral Support

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Charles Van Doren's friends are rallying 'round, urging him not to crack under the strain. A sensitive soul who fought shyness via psychiatry, he bears no ill will toward the couch doctor who advised him that quiz shows would be good for him . . . One comforting thought for Quiz Show witnesses: D. A. Hogan doesn't want them to rot in jail for lying—but feels they got to be taught a sharp lesson.

WILSON

Midwest religious groups are using the quiz show mess as a peg to attack "violence shows"—claiming they ought to be investigated next, for their contribution to juvenile delinquency.

The wonderful new Shecky Green show, eye-poppingest in years, introduces a gal phenomenon named Brenda Paul, only 19, measuring 40-23-37. She's a cousin of Alan Ladd—but doesn't look a thing like him.

BRENDA

This is what goes on now in the Saloon Set: Fellow comes up, says: "The Angels conducted a survey and found 80 per cent of the people were sinning. They told the Deity and decided they should write a letter to the other 20 per cent telling them how they should reform the 80 per cent. Do you know what the letter to the non-sinning 20 per cent said?" . . . You say "No." . . . The fellow says, "Oh, ho, then you didn't get a letter?"

Lorri Scott and her mgr. Producer Joe Cavallaro, raised money from St. Louis businessmen to co-star her in a B'way show, "Yesterday's Waves."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Sure looks like Pixie Alden, 19, might marry Hal Hayes, the builder . . . Bob Crosby's daughter Cathy returns to her parents when she leaves the hospital . . .

Brigitte Bardot isn't converting to Judaism — but Max Asnas of the Stage Delicatessen air-expresses her a big package of lox, sturgeon and salmon every two weeks. This "package deal" was arranged by her producer, Raoul Levy.

EARL'S PEARLS: Someone explained why there'll never be woman's football teams: "They'd never stop talking in the huddles."

★ ★ ★

WISH I'D SAID THAT: When a man gets older he doesn't have to give up wine, women and song—but he can't be as particular about the vintages.

Someone noted that there was one thing those TV quiz winners weren't told—that they'd also won a free trip to Washington . . . That's earl, brother.

Van Doren Didn't Corrupt Big-Time TV, It Hurt Him

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — I hadn't gauged the impact of the TV quiz scandals until:

—President Eisenhower put the attorney general on the case.

—A manufacturer issued, "I Rig You the Most" buttons.

—Walter Lippman turned his attention to it. (This, incidentally, in violation of our agreement. He wasn't to write about TV if I stayed out of international affairs.)

★ ★ ★

So, before the fixed Fifties turn into the sincere Sixties, and congressional quiz-quashers resume their hearings, I thought I'd set down some thoughts on the scandals.

First off, regardless of what Charles Van Doren says or does, enough is known — and was known a year ago — to indicate that the TV quiz shows would have to be cleaned up or eliminated.

Van Doren is a side issue. While his fall from grace is taking place, remember that he didn't corrupt Dan Enright. Contact with big-time TV corrupted Van Doren.

★ ★ ★

And remember, too, that if a man like Van Doren can yield to the rationalizations that were showered upon him, who among us could have walked away?

Don't let clever public relations and TV comedians divert attention from the main issue: Big money and higher ratings.

We all recall exultation over those lofty quiz show ratings and the worldwide publicity those shows received.

★ ★ ★

Can the people who helped create this mess get a grip on themselves, place principle over expediency, and demonstrate impeccable judgment in the future? Let's just say: they must.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Naked City, which failed to stick around as a half-hour series, is being expanded by ABC-TV into an hour-long series for possible network use early in 1960 . . . Tab Hunter has signed on as a guest for Ethel Merman's special on NBC-TV Tuesday, Dec. 1.

Burgess Meredith portrays inventor Eli Whitney in "The Practical Dreamer," second in the NBC-TV series, Our American Heritage, slated for Sunday, Nov. 22 . . . George Goebel's special Christmas show on CBS-TV Dec. 20 will feature the 30-member Tucson Boys' Choir.

Two Utilities to Refund Tax

Consumers and Detroit Edison to Give Credit for Illegal Pennies

JACKSON (UPI) — Consumers Power Co. will refund to its customers the use taxes collected from them before the state Supreme Court threw out the tax last week.

The company announced that the state has approved a plan whereby the company will credit each of its customers an amount equal to the amount of the use tax billed to them between Sept. 1 when the tax went into effect and the time it was voided.

The company said the amount due each customer would be "quite small."

None of the money collected under the use tax law had yet been turned over to the state, the company said.

Detroit Edison Co. also said it would credit customers for illegal tax paid between Sept. 1 and Oct. 22 and deduct the amount from a future bill.

That utility said the amount per customer was small—an average of about 15 cents.

Knight Case Testimony Will Resume on Friday

BRIGHTON (AP) — Testimony in the examination of accused state trooper-slayer Alvin W. Knight is scheduled to resume tomorrow when more defense witnesses will be questioned in Justice Court.

Knight is charged with the shooting of state policeman Albert W. Souden whose body was found Sept. 5 near Argentine.

Martin J. Lavan, Knight's court-appointed defense attorney, sought on the eighth day of the examination yesterday to establish that Knight was illegally arrested and detained for four days before leading police to Souden's body.

Auto Output Loss Set at 140,000 Units

DETROIT (AP) — Ward's Automotive Reports said Wednesday the auto industry will lose 140,000 units because of the steel strike and other labor troubles this month.

Next month's production loss probably will be even greater, the trade paper said.

Ward's said October passenger car production will be about 500,000 units compared with a planned 646,000.

It said Ford is operating at about 88 per cent of its scheduled level and Chrysler at about 65 per cent. General Motors, it said, is grinding to a standstill but Rambler and Lark production is continuing full speed.

Normally at this time of the model year the industry would be building about 140,000 cars weekly.

What's a Football?

NEW YORK (UPI) — Official NCAA football rules say that "the ball shall be a four-panel, pebble-grained leather cover without corrugations other than for seams and lacing. . ." It also says that "a rubber-covered ball may be used by mutual agreement of the contesting teams."

Alcoa, Steel Union Stretch Pact Again

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—The Aluminum Co. of America and the United Steelworkers have agreed to extend their contract indefinitely, it was learned by The Associated Press.

It was also learned Wednesday night that the USW is considering plans to extend contracts with the Kaiser Aluminum and Reynolds Metals companies similar to the agreement with Alcoa.

★ ★ ★

The USW reportedly has decided to extend the contract with Alcoa indefinitely with a provision that any contract signed will be retroactive to Aug. 1. Neither Alcoa nor USW officials would comment on the disclosure.

Alcoa's contract with the steelworkers expired last July 31. At that time, both sides agreed to extend the contract to Nov. 1 or 30 days after the end of the basic steel strike, whichever came first.

Indians Productive

PHOENIX — American Indians domesticated and developed corn, peanuts, pumpkins, squash, the white potato, tobacco, beans, the sweet potato and tomato.

Armstrong Cork Head, Age 75, Dies in Hospital

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Henning W. Prentis Jr., 75, chairman of the board of the Armstrong Cork Co. and former president of the National Assn. of Manufacturers, died today at a hospital.

Cerebral thrombosis was the cause of death.

Prentis had been chairman of the board since 1950. He was president of the company from 1934 until 1950.

His many activities also had included national vice president of Americans for Constitutional Action, a conservative political organization.

Integration Decision Reversed in Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Negroes were barred from six city swimming pools and other recreation areas today after quick reversal of City Manager Ira F. Willard by the Miami City Commission.

Willard had issued an order Tuesday opening the previously all-white pools and parks to Negroes and six Negroes used two pools Wednesday before the commission acted.

"I had no legal basis on which I could refuse them entry," Willard told the commissioners.

Mayor Robert King High said he had "grave fears about what might happen if Mr. Willard's order was put into effect."

The NAACP has said if the commission did not open the recreation areas it would go into court again.

Court action already has brought integration to the city's golf course and public transportation.

40 Pct. Veterans in 1950

WASHINGTON — Veterans of American wars numbered about 19 million in 1950, or 40 per cent of the adut male population.

Senate Calls Hearing on Great Lakes Water

DETROIT (UPI) — Representatives of several states and the Great Lakes Commission were to testify today at a hearing of a special Senate committee studying the nation's water resources.

State agencies and varying organizations from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Wisconsin were expected to send representatives.

Spokesmen in Sen. Philip A. Hart's office in Washington said the committee hoped to concentrate on "broad policies" rather than stir up the diversion controversy again. Hart, Michigan Democrat, is committee chairman.
