13 Die in State Traffic Mishaps

Storms on Great Lakes Blamed in Two of Four Weekend Drownings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Thirteen persons lost their lives in traffic accidents in Michigan during the weekend.

Rainy weather which came Sunday did not appear to figure in the accident toll. But stormy weather on the Lakes was blamed for two of four drownings.

Among miscellaneous mishaps was one fire death.

Auto fatalities included:
Mrs. Gladys Conklin, 64, of Detroit.

Frank X. Lisee, 26, of Detroit, J. L. Ballard, 21, of Flint.

Stanley W. Stevens, 35, of Flint, William Knapper, 17, of Merrill, Mrs. Winifred M. Smith, 56, of Vicksburg.

Casmer Bilski, 63, of Unionville, Charles E. LeMere, 23, of Bay City.

William T. Reed, 23, of Detroit, Thomas Rivera, 33, of Lake Odessa.

Lando Vaughan, 25, of Wayne, Mrs. Mary Zimmer, 52, of Beloit.

Thomas J. Halliey, 57, of Detroit, Earl R. Brown, 48, of Detroit, drowned Sunday when he fell from a cabin cruiser into Lake St. Clair during a storm.

William Carpenter, 29, of Grand Rapids, and Harry Swanson, 22, of Chicago, drowned in Payne Lake near Hastings Saturday when their motorboat capsized.

Mrs. Amelia Beeson, 79, of Goudrich, was killed Sunday in a fire which swept through her home.

Wilson, Radford to Talk Defense With President

Military Affairs Meeting 4th Official Conference for Recuperating Ike

DENVER (AP)—Recuperating President Eisenhower takes a look today at how things are going in the national defense field after passing a few more important milestones toward recovery over the weekend.

Secretary of Defense Wilson and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, were flying out from Washington for a military affairs conference with the President at Fitzsimons Army hospital.

Today's 7 a.m. bulletin from the hospital reported that:

"The President had a good, sound night's sleep of more than eight hours. He awoke refreshed and cheerful.

"His condition continues to progress satisfactorily without complications."

The meeting — Eisenhower's fourth at the hospital with administration leaders — is part of the program of steadily increasing official activity the doctors are permitting. Sessions with other key government men are scheduled for later in the week.

Wilson and Radford were meeting with the President in the wake of these encouraging new developments in his convalescence from a Sept. 24 heart attack:

1. For the first time since he entered the hospital, Eisenhower on Saturday was out of bed and sat in an easy chair for 15 minutes.

Yesterday he was in the chair for 30 minutes—and he got a report there on the new floods ravaging the Northeastern states, and on the federal government's relief activities. Attendants lifted the President from his bed and back again.

2. The President's physicians announced that daily cardiograms — tracing heart repair progress — no longer will be taken because of the steady improvement in his condition. That decision came 24 hours after Friday's cardiogram showed that Eisenhower's heart performance had "stabilized at a satisfactory level" — apparently sooner than the doctors had expected.

3. Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, an Army heart specialist who flew here from Washington a few hours after Eisenhower's attack, is returning to his post at Walter Reed Hospital in the capital.

The doctors also reported that the President's bed again was rolled out onto an open terrace near his eighth-floor room, and that he got 40 minutes of sunshine and fresh air. Mrs. Eisenhower sat with him on the sun deck.

A precedent for the program has already been set, he explained. Ypsilanti State Hospital had $40,000 in its budget last year for a special educational setup.

The project is endorsed by Dr. Ivan A. LaCoe, medical superintendent at Pontiac State Hospital, said Hudson.

"There are 200 to 250 teenagers in mental institutions around the state," the representative said. "It might be wise to move them all into one building where a proper educational program could be provided."

First of Series on State's Accident Problem
Michigan Takes Back Seat in Traffic Safety March

(This is the first of four articles distributed by the Associated Press on the traffic safety question coming before a special session of the Michigan Legislature. E. C. Hayhow, editor of the Michigan Daily News, formerly was assistant executive secretary of the Michigan State Safety Commission, and a member of the staff of the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit.)

By E. C. HAYHOW
Michigan is the home of the automobile and should be the unquestioned leader in the field of traffic accident prevention.

But the unpleasant fact is that this state is riding in the back seat in the traffic safety parade. Official records show that 27 states last year did a better job than Michigan in preventing traffic accidents.

That's a disgraceful record.

Among the eight largest states, Michigan's 1954 rate of 6.9 traffic deaths per 100 million vehicle miles traveled earned it a sorry seventh place. Only Illinois had a worse record.

Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, California and Indiana all ranked substantially better than Michigan. Pennsylvania had the best record of the big eight, a rate of 4.8.

What did this rate mean in terms of human beings?

Just this: Last year 233 fewer persons died in traffic accidents in Pennsylvania than in Michigan, despite the fact that the citizens of Pennsylvania traveled six billion more miles in 800,000 more automobiles driven by a million more licensed drivers.

SMALL STATES BEST
Some smaller states had even better records than Pennsylvania.

School Possible at State Hospital

$60,000 to Be Sought of Teenage Patients for Education Needs

The State Department of Mental Health will include $60,000 in its 1956 budget requests which would be used to start a special school for teenagers with mental illnesses housed at Pontiac State Hospital.

If approved by the State Legislature, the money would be available July 1, 1956, Pontiac's State Rep. Leslie H. Hudson (D) said today.

On a recent trip through the hospital Hudson found that the 38 teenagers there had no educational facilities available.

"The staff of attendant nurses has been doing a wonderful job in providing recreation for the youngsters and what education they can, but they don't have the special training or equipment needed," Hudson explained.

"Many of these patients are very intelligent, but because of their illness, require an educational program on a higher level than necessary for a normal person."

It's up to the mental health department to provide the facilities needed, because once a youngster is committed the public school system has no jurisdiction over him, the lawmaker added.

"Probably, at least four educational therapists are needed to work up a well-rounded program of therapy, treatment and instruction," Hudson stated.

A precedent for the program has already been set, he explained. Ypsilanti State Hospital had $40,000 in its budget last year for a special educational setup.

The project is endorsed by Dr. Ivan A. LaCoe, medical superintendent at Pontiac State Hospital, said Hudson.

Townsend Expected to Return

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret returned to London today from a weekend in the country with Peter Townsend amid reports of increasing opposition to their marriage in royal circles and some sections of the Church of England.

Hundreds of Londoners assembled at the gate got only a fleeting glimpse of the princess as she drove through the Clarence House gates in a Rolls-Royce, accompanied by her lady in waiting, Lady Iris Peake; and her bodyguard, detective Fred Crocker. Only a few minutes earlier, the Queen Mother had returned from Windsor Castle.

Townsend is expected to return later in the day to the home of the Marquis of Abergavenny in Lowndes Square where he is a guest during his leave from his post in Belgium.

There still was no official word on whether the Queen's sister and the handsome air force hero will marry — although millions of Britons are convinced they will.

The Duke of Edinburgh, husband of Queen Elizabeth II, was said to be advising strongly against a union between the 25-year-old royal beauty and the divorced Royal Air Force hero, who will be 41 next month.

One newspaper quoted 83-year-old Princess Marie Louise, a granddaughter of Queen Victoria, as saying such a marriage would be unthinkable.

There were unconfirmed rumors that the Archbishop of Canterbury, the top prelate of the established Church of England, would voice his disapproval publicly if the supposed engagement was made official.

Youth Missing Ten Days Returns After Enlistment

A 17-year-old Walled Lake youth, who authorities feared had committed suicide, returned home early Sunday from Miami, Fla.

Earl White, of 1910 Austin Dr., told his mother, Mrs. Victoria White, that he had abandoned his car on a bridge at Coral Gables, Fla., because he had run out of gas and had little money left. It was found Oct. 6.

The youth had taken a bus from where the car was found, she said. He had left a $75 savings bond in the car so it could be identified as his, Mrs. White added.

A note, found in the car, saying, "Be prepared, beware, so long kid," had been written by a friend of Earl's two months ago, the mother explained.

After leaving the car, he proceeded to Miami where he enlisted in the Air Force by giving his age as 19. Mrs. White, who traveled to Florida when the car was discovered, but left there last Tuesday, had asked police to check recruiting stations.

Earl was found shortly before he was to leave for training. He still intends to enlist in the Air Force, she stated, "and I will sign the papers."

"It was just the wanderlust, I guess. He said he wanted to see part of the country before going in service."

The youth had been quoted as threatening to drive his car "into the nearest river," before he left. But the statement actually was made over two years ago, the mother explained.

Before the disappearance, Mrs. White last heard from her son Oct. 4 when he called from Waycross, Ga., saying he was coming home. "But he decided to see the Everglades before returning," said Mrs. White.

38 Die as Rain Pelts Six States; More Expected

Property Loss in Untold Millions; Connecticut Is Hardest Hit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Prediction of more rain today and tomorrow brought new fears to wide areas of Northeast states still staggering under floods and washouts caused by heavy weekend downpours.

The toll of persons known or presumed dead in six states rose to 38. Property losses mounted into untold millions.

The American Red Cross said about 6,900 families have been affected in the storm sectors—3,200 in Connecticut, 1,500 each in New York and New Jersey, and 700 in Pennsylvania.

Hope for a breather to clean up the flood damage of the four-day rain faded when the U. S. Weather Bureau in Boston predicted two more days of rainfall except for "some periods of lull."

The bureau alerted eastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island to watch rising streams.

The New York City Weather Bureau forecast cloudy weather with occasional rain today, tonight and tomorrow. Intermittent rains were predicted for New Jersey also.

HARDEST HIT
Hardest hit in Connecticut's second flood disaster in two months was the rich Fairfield County region and in western communities south of Waterbury. These areas had been mainly spared Hurricane Diane's punch of last Aug. 15-19.

Although rain was expected to end during the day in upper New York state, the Weather Bureau said heavy rains in the Adirondacks might cause a second cresting of the big Mohawk River. Schoharie, Greene and Ulster counties in the Catskills appeared to have suffered the worst damage.

The floods caused havoc to transportation of millions. Much rail service was halted, highways were closed, bridges knocked out and power lines down.

Revised figures on fatalities showed 15 dead or presumed dead in Connecticut; 11 in New York; Pennsylvania 7; Rhode Island 3; (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Prison Sentence Given Salesman

Terms for Bad Checks, Embezzlement Set for Francis E. Miller

A former Pontiac real estate agent, who admitted to embezzlement and bad check passing charges, was sentenced to prison terms on both counts today by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartwick.

Francis E. Miller, 41, former part owner of the Stone Realty Co. at 919 Joslyn Ave., received 2½ to 10 years in Jackson state prison on the embezzlement charge and 2½ to 14 on the check count.

Miller was charged June 2 with embezzling $2,000 from a Drayton Plains man while negotiating to sell a home. A number of Miller's clients told the prosecutor's office they had been bilked out of sums totaling about $30,000.

The other charge resulted from a complaint by a Pontiac man that Miller had given him a $600 rubber check as a refund on a property sale deal which fell through.

Michigan Takes Rear Seat in Road Safety become the victim of partisan politics.

It would be sad, indeed, if that happened.

Traffic death doesn't recognize party lines.

Both Democrats and Republicans are its victims.

Not many folks will be concerned whether it's a Republican or Democratic safety program that keeps the crazy driver off their necks. It's the necks they are primarily interested in.

LACK OF ENFORCEMENT

The men who know traffic safety best point to three major weaknesses in Michigan's present program.

One is lack of effective enforcement on rural highways.

Another is a driver licensing system which permits blind and illiterate persons to drive automobiles.

The third is an inadequate driver education program in the state's high schools.

Death Toll Mounts in Flood-Hit East and New Jersey and Massachusetts 1 each.

Thousands of residents were evacuated from flood areas by helicopter, boat, auto and individual rescue efforts.

Continuing rain caused worry in New Jersey too.

The big chore ahead was cleaning up and getting snarled transportation moving again. Roads were blocked throughout the area, particularly in Connecticut.

There was a threat too to employment, until flooded factories could get out from blankets of mud. The weather was freakish. A two-minute twister tore through the Red Bank, N.J., area yesterday afternoon. Snow fell in western Massachusetts, southern Vermont and northern New York.

NEW HURRICANE

A new hurricane, Katie, bore down on Haiti and the Dominican Republic. She was not expected to bother the U.S. mainland, however.

Katie's older sister Diane set the pattern for this weekend's named storm. The toll of Diane's flash floods two months ago was 169 dead, 20 missing and damage estimated at 1½ billion dollars.

Connecticut again was the hardest hit, both in life and property. Three U.S. Rubber plants in Naugatuck were knocked out, and the company said 5,000 workers would be out of jobs temporarily.

Danbury, Conn., reported more than 11 inches of rain from Friday through Sunday, a record. But other cities were considerably below that figure.

THOUSANDS EVACUATED

Thousands of persons were evacuated safely and supplies flowed steadily into stricken areas. The Red Cross estimated that more than 4,000 families were affected in Connecticut alone.

A weary mayor of Ansonia, Conn., William T. Sheesby, put it: "There's a limit to the punishment people can take."

Emergency proclamations sprang up in the storm area. Gov. Abraham Ribicoff, with 48 towns in his state affected, again sought federal aid for Connecticut. From his sickbed in Denver, President Eisenhower issued assurances of help.

Helicopters and amphibious vehicles were used in rescue work. When a New Haven train was stranded overnight at Wilton, Conn., helicopters airlifted the 83 passengers to safety yesterday.

Connecticut officials said the weekend's damage would not approach the estimated 215-million-dollar loss of last August.

In the current flood: A frame house in Norwalk collapsed, and three persons were swept into Long Island Sound.

500 ARE ISOLATED

The swollen Norwalk River carried away Mrs. Susan Kelly's two-story house. Somehow she swam away and a policeman found her clinging to a piece of lumber in 15 feet of water. But her husband Tom, 74, and two women roomers were missing and presumed to have perished.

"I don't know how I was saved," she said. "God must have taken care of me."

Five hundred persons were isolated in Georgetown, Conn. Helicopters evacuated men, women and children stranded without food or water. Late in the day a National Guard contingent battered its way into town.

An estimated 4,500 persons were driven from their homes in eastern and south central New York state.

The Vatican has more than 4,000 rooms and is said to be the largest palace building in the world.

Red Aide Death Termed Suicide

Gotham Examiner Says Soviet Delegation Clerk Killed Himself

NEW YORK (AP)—The gun death of Alexei Minaev, a Russian clerk, has been officially listed as a suicide.

Dr. Milton Helsen, the city's chief medical examiner, issued the finding yesterday after an autopsy.

The clerk's body, a bullet through the brain, was found Saturday afternoon in the plush Park Avenue headquarters of the Soviet United Nations delegation.

Police were notified six hours later, and then only when the Russians wanted the body removed from the building.

Helsen accompanied a detective to the delegation headquarters and later, in a preliminary report, said the clerk had apparently placed the barrel of a .45-caliber automatic in his mouth and pulled the trigger.

Helsen noted he had no authority to be in the building, officially Russian territory, but was acting on a Soviet request. He described the Russians as cooperative. They told him, he said, that Minaev had come here with his wife Zinaida 10 months ago. Since then, they said, he had been "despondent."

The Russians had no objection to an autopsy, Helsen said.

Three Car Collision Injures 5 Persons

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A three car collision at Telegraph and Ward Roads injured five persons Saturday night.

Given first aid at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, were Donald F. Tracey, 35, of 3235 Pontiac Trail, Walled Lake; his wife Mary, 34; and their youngsters, James, 2½, and Sharon, 8, who was admitted with a possible concussion but has since been released.

Also injured was Loy Smith, 21, of Flint, who, police said, was ticketed for drunk driving and driving with no operator's permit.

According to police, Smith's auto hit the rear end of Tracey's car which stopped to make a left turn. Tracey's vehicle was then forced into the rear of another stopped auto driven by Roy E. Cuzzort, 39, of 1845 Beechmont, Keego Harbor. He was uninjured.

City Employee Group Sponsoring Supper

The Pontiac Municipal Employees Assn. is sponsoring a pancake supper Wednesday from 5 to 8 p.m. in the Federal Savings Building on West Huron street.

City employees, their families and friends are invited. Tickets will be available at the door.

Pontiac Deaths

David Alvarado

David Alvarado, 56, of 499 Midway St., died yesterday after an illness of a week.

Born in Uvalde, Texas, September 9, 1899, he was the son of Ertanislado and Catavisa Bargaes Alvarado. He married Petra Bargaes in Texas in 1930 and came to the county in 1943.

Surviving besides his wife are three daughters: Mrs. Estola Gomez, Catherine Alvarado and Dora Alvarado, all of Pontiac. Surviving brothers and sisters are: Juanita, Pedro, Marcelino, Manuel, Cleto, George, and Petra Alvarado, all of Texas.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. Thursday from St. Vincent De Paul Church with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery. Rosary service will be said at 8:30 p.m. from the Melvin A. Schutt Funeral Home.

Donald Edward Barrett

Funeral for Donald Edward Barrett, 48, of 66 Cottage St. will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday from the Dudley-Moore Funeral Home with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

He died Friday night in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of three years.

Services will be conducted by the B.P.O. Elks Lodge No. 810.

Mrs. Lewis A. DeShetler

Mrs. Lewis A. (Kathryn) DeShetler, 79, of 415 W. Iroquois died suddenly this morning at home.

Born in Fremont, Ohio, April 15, 1879, she was the daughter of David and Mary Lahey. She has been a resident of the city for 26 years.

Surviving children are Mrs. Orval Fairbanks and Harold D. DeShetler of Pontiac. Also surviving are two brothers: David and Thomas Lahey of Perryburg, Ohio, and five grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday from St. Benedict's Church with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Rosary service will be said at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

The Day in Birmingham City's Rubbish Contract Up for Possible Renewal

BIRMINGHAM — Up for renewal is the city's garbage and rubbish contract, with the City Commission to consider bids tonight.

In this connection, recommended changes from Robert Kenning, DPW superintendent, may see the city do away with rear door garbage collections, a decision which heretofore has been left to the householder.

In line with current landscaping and interior renovation plans for the Municipal Building, lawmakers will discuss the repair and replacement of steps and sidewalks for the building.

Hearings will be scheduled for the widening of Willits street between Woodward and Bates and pavement between Woodward and Chester. Paving for Bates north of Willits will be included.

Completion of Parking Lot No. 1, U.N. Day plans and reports from the Planning Board on the Hamilton crossover and the Birmingham Athletic Club will also be part of the evening session.

Three departmental meetings of the Woman's Club are scheduled for 1 p.m. tomorrow, to get the season under way. Mrs. Norman Porter is chairman of the American Home department, which will have a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. U. Johnstone, of Ridgedale avenue.

Members will participate in the program, "Pages From Our Scrapbook," when each tells of a memorable experience from the past. Another dessert luncheon will be held at the Linden road home of Mrs. Lloyd Lake, when the Fine Arts department, of which Mrs. Ira Brownell is chairman, views colored slides of the Holy Land. They will be shown by Mrs. Carl Binkle.

Mrs. E. D. Shely will open her Riverside drive residence to members of the Literature Department, Mrs. E. J. Kempf, chairman. "Problems of Mental Health" will be discussed by Mrs. Marion Fisk of Pontiac State Hospital, who will be introduced by Mrs. John Duffy.

Thursday is the day set for Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church fall rummage sale, conducted at the Pierce street church by women of the Altar Society. Sale hours will be from 8:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mrs. James O'Rourke and Mrs. Francis Teats are cochairmen.

Room mothers at Franklin School have been entertaining mothers and teachers at "Coffee Klutches" for the past week and will finish their get-acquainted hours this week. Third grade classes will be entertained tomorrow by Mrs. Wendell Young of Greenbriar road at 10 a.m. and Mrs. Joseph McCourt on North Cromwell at 1:30 p.m.

Fifth grade mothers will be at the Ovid drive home of Mrs. J. H. Holmes at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday and at 10 a.m. Thursday. Mrs. George Howard will open her Greenbriar road home to first grade mothers.

Mrs. William Slaughter of Birmingham road will entertain second grade mothers at 1:30 a.m. Friday. Other room mothers taking part have been Mrs. George Low-cke, Mrs. Newton Cole, Mrs. John Lackner, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. Paul Rohl and Mrs. Maurice Clemens.

Lawrence A. Rubin, secretary of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, will discuss the new bridge when he is guest speaker at tonight's 6:30 High Twelve Club dinner meeting at the Community House.

A Pontiac man was ticketed by police Sunday for violating a traffic signal and not having his car under control, resulting in an

Westinghouse Struck by CIO

Walkout Order Affects 44,000 in 29 Factories as Arbitrators Deadlock

PITTSBURGH (AP)—CIO electrical workers struck the Westinghouse Electric Corp. today for the second time in little more than a month.

Leaders of the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers issued the nationwide strike order at midnight last night after the deadline rolled around with no contract settlement.

Negotiations continued until 1:45 a.m. There was no indication whether they would resume.

The strike call went out to some 44,000 members in 29 plants. Some 30-odd other Westinghouse operations were not affected.

Disputed issues include wages, rules for time studies of nonincentive workers and length of contract.

Both sides turned down 11th-hour proposals which would have averted the strike for a while at least.

Westinghouse proposed a two-week extension of the strike deadline with any wage increase worked out to be retroactive to Oct. 15. It also offered, for the first time in its history, to include a clause in the contract providing for arbitration of disputes.

The union plan called for a one-week postponement of the strike if the company would guarantee at least a 12-cent hourly pay increase plus inclusion in the contract of what it considered satisfactory conditions under which the company could make time studies. Also, the union suggested a three-year contract instead of the five-year pact advanced by the company previously.

Hal Boyle Says:

This Century Belongs to the Fringe People

NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone comments by a pavement Plato: This has been called the Century of the Common Man, but it is more truly the "Century of the Fringe People."

Are you one? The fringe folks are the product of a civilization that tends to put everything in containers. It looks for health in a vitamin capsule and entertainment in canned laughter.

A fringe man is one who dwells on the edges of real knowledge. He knows a little bit about everything, and not very much about anything.

He skims the surface of life. He wears the kind of suit he has been told makes him look "sincere." He belongs to the political party which is most popular among his neighbors.

If he visits New York, he only wants to see the hit Broadway shows. If he reads a book it has to be on the best seller list, and it has to be in digest form. He watches only television shows that have a high rating, and he attends only those movies he has been told are good. He won't attend a concert by a young unknown. The artist must be famous.

The fringe man's biggest goal in life is to be popular, but he wants to be popular with everybody. So he tries to placate and please everybody; to do this he naturally has to reduce his own personality to the status of an ever-smiling zero.

This is why so many Americans drink so much at cocktail parties.

The yearning of the fringe people to be liked reduces their conversation to such banal platitudes they find it impossible even to listen to each other's verbal soothing syrup except under the influence of something stronger.

"What do you know?" This is the popular greeting. It should be, "what do you really know?"

The number of people who have heard something, or read something, increases all the time, and they chatter on endlessly. The legion of half-taught cultural nonentities engulfs our social world. But the number of people who have a solid knowledge of any subject, and who can talk about it well, seems to dwindle.

"Be yourself" is an old and comfortable saying.

It is sound advice, too, mentally and physically. But the current runs the other way today. We seem caught in a pattern of social conformity, and fearful of breaking out.

"Be like the other fellow" more nearly describes our aim—or perhaps, "Be like you think the other fellow expects you to be."

Such an aim is self-defeating, because it cannot be self-satisfying and can only turn a man into an uneasy smirking clod.

The fringe people seek always to be in the swim and they end up drowning in their own pitiful ignorance. They pretend to culture, and they have no culture.

It is better to write one poor poem than to memorize Shakespeare. It is better to play a musical saw yourself than merely be able to identify every melody

Now, Try to Remember

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP)—Deputy county clerk O. L. Jones is laughing about the prospective bridegroom who wanted a marriage license but couldn't remember the girl's name. He had to go out to the automobile where she was waiting and check.

U.S. cigarettes made in 1915 contained about 3 per cent nicotine compared to about 2 per cent today.

Boulders Pound New York Town as Creeks Flood

ELLENVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — New floods over the weekend brought another bombardment to Ellenville — by boulders.

They swept down the Catskill mountainsides in torrents of water. They undercut banks and embankments, filled creek beds and tumbled into buildings and automobiles. Some of them weighed as much as half a ton.

Day and night their dull booming echoed through the valleys. Col. John T. O'Neill of the Army Engineers said the boulders were something unique in his flood control experience. There was a siege of them in the floods that followed Hurricane Diane last August.

When the first boulders were heard during the weekend, people were quickly evacuated from a residential area on the east side of town where a brook flows. The stream rose. Boulders ate at its banks and undermined buildings. When the water spilled over, the boulders crashed into cars and houses.

They battered a bottling plant previously damaged by Diane's floods. O'Neill said they "chewed the framework up like putting it through a meat grinder."

Announce Promotions of Two County Men

The Army ROTC Department of Michigan College of Mining and Technology has announced promotions of two area men.

David A. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee, 26 Clarkston Rd., Clarkston, has been promoted to the grade of cadet second lieutenant in the Army ROTC and David E. Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Crawford, 3879 Oak Knoll Rd., Pontiac, was promoted to cadet private first class.

Accidents cause the deaths of about 6,000 school-age children a year in the United States.

Floods Ravage Connecticut City

Norwalk Citizens Stare in Disbelief as Crews Rally to Aid Homeless

NORWALK, Conn. (AP) — Helicopters hovered overhead. Weary policemen, firemen, National Guardsmen and auxiliary police patrolled the road. Throngs of the curious milled around the city, creating traffic jams.

Where the bridges were down and houses demolished, crowds stood staring in disbelief. The principal business area was hit hard. Stores and houses hung precariously over the swirling Norwalk River. This was Norwalk, a city of 60,000 that has suffered the backlash of hurricanes but which until this sneak attack had escaped comparatively unscathed.

The greater part of the city was without light and power. Some 400 citizens were bunking down in schools and other civic centers, living on Salvation Army and Red Cross rations and not knowing whether they could get back into their homes or whether their homes any longer existed.

There were evacuations going on by helicopter, by boat, by Army Snorkel trucks and every other possible means.

In the business area, the Norwalk River tore away at factory and house foundations, hurled automobiles against embankments, bashed down a stone bridge.

The building that housed the local radio station collapsed. WNLK operated from its transmitter station on a 24-hour basis, giving bulletins almost every few minutes.

From all over the city area came frantic calls for help.

Mayor Irving Freese, touring the stricken area at night, shone his car searchlight on a pond in a city parking lot. He saw a woman clinging to a part of the porch wrenched from her home.

Lt. Stuart Black of the National Guard, who was with Freese, dove in and brought the woman near shore. The mayor dragged the exhausted guardman and the woman to safety.

Flying Rubirosa Makes Big Detour to Visit Zsa Zsa

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Porfirio Rubirosa flew in yesterday — a few thousand miles out of his way — to see actress Zsa Zsa Gabor.

The Latin diplomat and sportsman said he was on the way home from Paris to the Dominican Republic but added that the detour was worth it.

"I love her," he told a reporter. When asked if Zsa Zsa loves him, he shrugged and sighed, "I don't know. I hope so."

Rubirosa found the actress at the wheel of a sleek yellow sports car. They greeted each other with restraint. When the reporter told her Rubirosa didn't know if she loved him, she laughed and said, "I don't know either." Then they drove away.

"Ben-Gay gave me a new lease on life—relief from pain!"

Says Mrs. Louise Pirz of Lynbrook, Long Island. "I had tried many other products before I discovered Ben-Gay," writes Mrs. Pirz, "but they didn't give me the real relief I wanted from the pains in my shoulder and arm. To tell the truth, I felt as though I were only half alive. The pain bothered me that much! "What a difference with Ben-Gay! The pain eased up in no time. I wouldn't be without it!"

Yes, there's nothing like BEN-GAY! Its world-famous scientific formula contains up to two and a half times more of two famous pain-relieving agents than any of five other widely offered rub-ins. BEN-GAY's exclusive medication works two ways: First, it stimulates the blood supply to the painful area. Second, its pain-deadening action goes to work instantly to bring warm, soothing relief.

If you suffer the distress of muscular or rheumatic pains see what welcome relief Ben-Gay can bring. Ben-Gay acts fast where you hurt!

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

When someone's counting on you...

you can count on life insurance

The look of trust in your youngster's face... the way your wife's eyes mirror her faith in you... these mean big responsibilities.

Your life insurance helps you meet these responsibilities. From the day you get a policy, your family is protected for the full amount of the contract. This is a unique feature of life insurance. Every year, about $35 millions are paid to American families as death benefits on policies less than a year old.

This is one of the reasons why you can count on life insurance... and why it is America's most widely used form of thrift.

A life insurance program can guarantee that money will be ready when the family needs it most... in case of the father's death... when the children go to college... to meet emergencies... for retirement. Using your life insurance wisely calls for experienced help. The best person to see, of course, is your own agent.

You'll also find many helpful suggestions in the new booklet, Your Life Insurance—and How to Use It. Your free copy will be mailed promptly; simply send your name and address on a postcard to Dept. A.

Yours free!

realize that boy (now 8) will probably come in some day when he's 18 and announce that he's off for a dinner party in Cairo, but for us not to worry because he'll be back by midnight."

Such expressions have become common in the last 20 years, and even more so since the British produced a few of their Comet jet-liners, which made amazing performance records, were found to be unsafe, and are now about to stage a comeback.

Twenty-eight years ago Pan American airlines made its first scheduled flight, 90 miles from Key West to Havana, in one hour. Today Pan-American has a flight which makes it from Tokyo to Honolulu, 4,000 miles, in 9½ hours. But that's with the aid of the "jet stream," a high and fast air current over the Pacific. That plane has a true speed of 425 miles an hour, and takes 12½ hours New York to London.

Now Pan American has ordered 45 jet planes which will fly 30 per cent farther, (about 4,000 miles unassisted by the jet stream) at 550 miles an hour. They will go into service in 1958.

But the most significant thing is not the advance in air performance which will be accomplished in Pan American's first 31 years. That has become an expected commonplace.

The true significance is two-fold: that these planes and others like them are the products of military research and the descendants of military planes; and that they will produce an age of 24-hour round-trips between any cities in the world.

And today's jet-liners are only a beginning, as PAA's first 90-mile-per hour Fokker was only the be-

Journalism Award for Jackson Editor

CHICAGO (U)—Carl M. Saunders, editor of the Jackson "Citizen Patriot," will be awarded the University of Minnesota 1955 Award for "distinguished service in journalism" tonight at the annual meeting of the Inland Daily Press Assn. here.

Dr. Ralph Casey, director of the Minnesota School of Journalism, who will make the award, said Saunders will be cited for "his continuous career which began in Grand Rapids in 1909 as reporter."

Dr. Casey said Saunders "brought to his newspapers a devoted kind of citizenship and helped lead the fight which preserved the rivers and lakes of Michigan for the people of Michigan."

gaining of the first airline to circle the earth from one coast of the United States to the other. This contributes to the political impact already created by the vast ranges and speed of the big bombers.

The effects of a shrinking world have long been recognized and understood, but the fact that all capitals can become physical suburbs of any one capital drives the implications home with great force.

103 Descendants Honor Woman, 100

BARRY, Ill. (INS)—Mrs. Cerena Hareison of Barry, Ill., celebrated her 100th birthday with a family dinner the likes of which probably has never before been seen.

One hundred and three direct descendants of the centenarian were present, and there are still eight others who could not attend. The family get-together yesterday was so large it had to be held in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Hareison, a native of Broth County, Ohio, had nine children, eight of whom are still living. In five of her children's families, there are five living generations.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Gustavson, his ambition is to become a draftsman.

Reputed Terror Gang Boss Dies

Virgil H. Effinger Denies Black Legion Activities on Toledo Deathbed

TOLEDO, Ohio (INS)—Virgil H. Effinger, reputed head of the Black Legion terrorists during the 1930s, died yesterday in a state hospital here. He was 82.

Effinger, a retired Lima, Ohio, electrical contractor, denied even on his death bed that he was national commander of the hooded order whose members committed two murders in Detroit and flogged other victims.

He was indicted by a one-man grand jury in 1936 on charges of possessing a bomb and criminal syndicalism. Effinger fled to Ohio, where he was a fugitive for 15 months. He was eventually returned to Michigan, but the state's case wasn't strong enough to bring him to trial.

Effinger dropped out of sight in 1940 after he was fined $300 in Lima for contempt of court.

He was never charged in the 1936 murders of Charles Poole and Silas Coleman. Fourteen men were sentenced to prison for the slayings and nine of them are still serving life terms.

Poole was killed on the false report that he had beaten his wife. Coleman met death at the Legion's hands merely to "Give the boys a little excitement."

The Black Legion, often called a rebellious offshoot of the Ku Klux Klan, rode through the night in black robes.

Cypriots to Resistance

NICOSIA, Cyprus (INS)—Archbishop Makarios has called for an "unceasing struggle" against British rule of Cyprus.

The spiritual leader of the Cyprus Union-with-Greece movement said yesterday Britain was mistaken if it thought "our movement can be suppressed with troops, illiberal laws and arrests."

Eight out of 10 fires that will occur in Michigan this year can be prevented by cleaning rubbish and correcting faulty electrical wiring, says an MSU farm safety specialist.

FOX Wins Chase as Bloomfield Hunt Season Starts

A black and white photograph showing a rider on a dark horse, possibly a stallion, standing in a grassy field. The rider is wearing a hat and a jacket. Surrounding the horse is a large pack of hunting dogs, likely foxhounds, in various poses, some standing and some running. The background is a dark, dense line of trees or a forest. The overall scene suggests a hunting party or a training exercise.

A black and white photograph of five people riding horses down a dirt path. The riders are dressed in formal equestrian attire, including jackets and hats. The path is flanked by trees and shrubs, and the scene is captured in a vintage, slightly grainy style.

HORSES' HORSES' HORSES'
The War Horse I

Have you ever petted a horse, or ridden one? Then you know why they are among man's best loved animal friends.

The very earliest horses were about the size of foxes. But through the ages they have become the big animals we know today.

One of the first uses of the horse was in war. Knights in the days of chivalry used horses in tournaments and in battle. The war horse had to be a very large and powerful animal to carry the great weight of a knight in full armor. Now big horses are called draft horses.

Here is a small boy named Cedric, the son of a knight, mounted on his father's charger, Lionheart. Cedric has a small suit of armor made to fit him and when he is grown he will have a large suit for tournaments. Lionheart will wear special armor too.

Paste this picture on cereal box cardboard and color with crayons. Cut out along the heavy outlines. Fold back the end panels along the dotted lines and Lionheart will stand up. Cut out the banner along the outlines. Cut the small slits and insert a toothpick in them. Then you can push the toothpick into a slit in the saddle just in front of Cedric and let the banner float out behind his head.

You can save this and begin your collection of different type horses.

'20 Million More Jobs Needed by 1975'

NEW YORK (INS)—Sen. George H. Bender (R-Ohio), said today 20 million more jobs will be needed in the next 20 years.

Bender told a meeting of the National Association of Assessing Officers that the nation's economy will have to double its productive capacity in that period.

Noting predictions of a population of 220 million by 1975, the Ohio Republican said maintaining the standard of living means "A tremendous task confronts us."

Bender said: "To live up to our potential goals, we shall have to turn out a total of goods and services of the value of some 700 billions of dollars annually by 1975."

The average per capita income should then be about $3,000 or more—compared with about $2,000 in recent years."

Says Russia Still Hopes to Win World Peacefully

WASHINGTON (INS)—Presidential disarmament aide Harold E. Stassen says there is "increasing evidence" that Russia hopes to win its goal of a Communist world without resorting to war.

He told a nationwide television audience yesterday the Reds are "increasingly realizing" how disastrous a nuclear war would prove for them and the rest of the world. He also said an international disarmament program would aid U.S. economy.

Dirksen Claims Nixon 'Man to Beat' for GOP

CHICAGO (INS)—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) says vice President Richard M. Nixon is "the man to beat" for the GOP presidential nomination in 1956 if President Eisenhower does not run.

Dirksen said Nixon is "out in front by virtue of his position in the administration" and predicts the vice president will capture the nomination "unless another candidate emerges who has considerable strength."

Scientists estimate that 400 billion tons of carbon dioxide from the air are absorbed by ocean plants every year.

Brownell Excoriates Hatemongers in U.S.

NEW YORK (INS)—Attorney General Herbert R. Brownell has tongue-lashed hatemongers who do not tolerate minority groups in what was believed to be one of the strongest civil-rights speeches by a member of the Eisenhower cabinet.

Brownell appealed in a New York address yesterday for a "golden age of civil rights," stating that "a small crust of freedom for a few" will not sustain the American way of life.

Brownell said "we are just beginning to make the concept of equality assume practical reality. We are coming to the realization that there are bloodier punishments than segregation but few more degrading."

Ex-Convict Confesses Slaying Stepmother

RENO (INS)—"I hated her guts." That, said police, was about all Ralph H. Reno, 25-year-old ex-convict, would say after admitting he strangled his young stepmother, Mrs. Stella Reno, in Los Angeles.

Reno Police Chief Ted Berrum and Los Angeles Police Sgts. Edward Kruger and C. C. Ford said yesterday Reno refused to give a reason for hating the 36-year-old reddish-blond woman but asserted "trouble at home has been going on since I was 17."

Reno led officers Friday night to the body, stuffed in a concrete culvert.

The woman's husband, Andrew, 57, had told Los Angeles police his son stabbed him with a butcher knife when he asked about the missing woman.

Jet Airliner Flies Across Nation in 238 Minutes

SEATTLE (AP)—Boeing's 707 stratospheric jet flew round-trip across the country yesterday in less time than it takes conventional airliners to cross the nation one way.

The 707 took 3 hours and 58 minutes to fly from Seattle to Washington, D.C., at an average speed of 592 miles per hour.

After a brief stopover in the national capital, the first American commercial jet air transport flew back to Seattle in 4 hours and 8 minutes at an average speed of 570 miles an hour.

This means that it took 8 hours and 6 minutes of elapsed flying time at an average of 581 miles per hour for the transcontinental roundtrip.

The Boeing test pilot, A. M. (Tex) Johnston, 42, of Emporia, Kan., called it an "uneventful" flight in the four-jet job. He predicted it will be common in three years.

A million certificates for proficiency have been issued to people who participated in the Red Cross Water Safety program during the past year.

"A MAN CALLED PETER"

$40-a-Week Model

She Just Can't Afford to Take Screen Roles

Anyone who can swallow a pill at a drinking fountain deserves to get well.—Quote.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—A Hollywood producer long-distanced a New York model and instructed her to rush right out—he was using her in a picture.

"What about the money?" she asked.
"We'd start you at $150," he said.
The model yawned. "I'm terribly sorry, but I make $500 to $750 a week here."

Katherine Cassidy, a $40-an-hour New York model whose picture you see all over, has licked that problem. Her parents live in Hollywood. When she goes home on a vacation, she sneaks in a movie job.

"I was in 'The French Line' for 2½ weeks," tall, slender but not bony Miss Cassidy told me the other day. "I made $270. My salary as a model here last week was $650. The week before it was $525. It's not profitable for me to be in the movies."

I took my camera along inasmuch as I don't get many opportunities to get a $40-an-hour model to pose for me for nothing.

The strange part was that Miss Cassidy—who poses all week—for that big pay—didn't seem to mind posing for me for nothing. (Maybe she's just a good actress.)

"I wanted to be an actress so much, too," the young lady said. She was a Howard Hawks protege. They thought she looked like Lauren Bacall.

"I studied for 2½ years. I thought it'd be very good for me to see New York and see some plays. The day after I got here I started modeling at $25 an hour—I loved it and decided I'd stay here."

"Howard Hawks naturally got disgusted with me. He said, 'You're more interested in the fashion world—and I was.'"

"I gave up studying acting. I felt terrible about it, but I decided this, not acting, was my career."

On another vacation, however, Miss Cassidy appeared in "Son of Sinbad," a picture about the 40 thieves in which the 40 thieves are all women.

Miss Cassidy—originally from Clinton, Ill.—is proud of being called a model even if the word has been cheapened by a few phonies.

"There's also the girl who says 'I could have been a model, too, but I found the photographers very fresh.'"

"Maybe, if he was a photographer for a girls' magazine," said Miss Cassidy, "but no high-fashion photographer would make a mistake, because he'd never be able to get another model!"

Anyway, Miss Cassidy, thanks for posing for me. Thanks $40 worth.

Reuther Urges Four-Day Week

CIO Leader Advocates Controls on Increases in Automation

WASHINGTON (INS)—CIO president Walter Reuther advocated today that a four-day work week, higher minimum wages and earlier Social Security retirement be adopted in the U.S. to meet the problems of automation.

Reuther made his recommendations in prepared testimony before a congressional committee which is studying the possible impact on the national economy of automation or the expanded use of electronic machines to do work now done by manpower.

The CIO leader urged a gradual reduction of the work week from the prevailing 40 hours to 35 speedily increase in consumer buying power to "cushion" the effects of automation.

Reuther also proposed that the federal minimum wage, now a dollar an hour, be boosted to $1.25 "without delay" and an early retirement age under Social Security be adopted.

RETRAIN WORKERS

He also recommended expanded government programs in health, housing, schools, highways and other services, special aid for small businesses and retraining of workers to cope with increased use of electronics to replace men.

The labor spokesman emphasized the CIO "welcomes" automation if proper steps are taken. He commented: "If we accept the challenge of the new technology, we can help to usher in an age of abundance and freedom the like of which the world has never known."

However, he warned that failure to make adequate plans could lead to a "heavy price in unemployment and human suffering." Reuther testified:

"We oppose those who would introduce automation blindly and irresponsibly with no concern for any result except the achievement of the largest quick profit for themselves."

Viet Nam Sect Ousts Aging Religious Leader

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Military leaders of the Cao Dai religious sect have decided to oust their aging pope, Pham Cong Tac, reliable sources reported today.

Gen. Nguyen Thanh Phuong, Cao Dai commander in chief, was said to have held a secret meeting with other military leaders and reached the decision because of Tac's opposition to South Viet Nam Premier Ngo Dinh Diem. Phuong supports the Premier.

Hollywood Headlines:

Jersey Joe to Take Role in 'The Harder They Fall'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Jersey Joe Walcott, who made the sports world stand still when he defeated Ezzard Charles for the world's heavyweight championship in 1951, is headed for Columbia Studios.

His first role will be with Humphrey Bogart in "The Harder They Fall." He'll be called El Toro in the film and will play an ex-prize fighter of giant size.

Jersey Joe believed his prayers were answered when he defeated Charles, and he had the whole world with him because of his fine religious spirit.

HOLLYWOOD SAINT

Eva Marie Saint, who's living up to her name and being so cooperative in "That Certain Feeling" which she's making with Bob Hope at Paramount, has "that certain feeling" for Hollywood. She is moving here permanently beginning right now.

It's not alone because she likes California and its way of life so much, but more importantly, because her husband, Jeffrey Hayden, has been signed to a director contract at MGM.

"Wherever my husband's career is, that's where I'll be," very wisely says Eva Marie. This means she's giving up several Broadway show offers, but how smart she is to put her marriage first.

Eddie and Debbie Fisher told me they are going to buy a farm—or a ranch I should say—in California. They want to own some horses.

Persistent Briton Trying to Teach Cuckoo to Cuckoo

LONDON (AP)—George Layer reports that he's trying to teach cuckoo to say "cuckoo" and is making some progress.

Layer found the bird when it was a fledgling last spring and made a pet of it. Bird experts say young cuckoos learn to say "cuckoo" by listening to old cuckoos who know how to say "cuckoo," Layer explained.

He didn't say how the first cuckoo learned, but then which came first, the egg or the chicken? Having no old cuckoo handy, Layer has been trying to fill the gap by saying "cuckoo" whenever he meets his pet around the house.

"Only a cock cuckoo cuckoo," Layer told a reporter. "I am pretty certain from my cuckoo's reaction to my cuckooing that he's a cock. He's beginning to show more interest in the call, and I'm confident that by next spring, he'll be cuckooing like any other cock cuckoo."

Busy Community Activities Building Included in UF Campaign This Year

By JANE WINDELER

Waterford Correspondent
Community Activities, Inc., with headquarters in the CAI Building at 5640 Williams Lake Rd. in Waterford Township, is the only newcomer this year to the Pontiac Area United Fund.

More than 1000 youngsters use the building weekly, in activities sponsored by the township recreation department or other adult groups.

The Saturday morning fun program, for boys and girls from 7 to 14 years old, includes gym games, arts and crafts, table tennis, shuffleboard and checker.

Ballet classes for girls from 3 to 16 years are held Thursdays and Saturdays and ballroom dance instruction is offered boys and girls in grades 6 through 12 Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

The Young Men's Athletic Club, for boys in grades 9 through 12, meets Monday nights and many family activities—archery lessons, camera guild, and fashion classes—are scheduled throughout the week. Local service clubs and many other adult groups meet in the building regularly.

The CAI was launched in 1943 by the Waterford Women's Club, which had $1,000 in its treasury and a goal in mind—a community center for the area.

But the three-acre site and building they had settled on was going to cost $8,500 so they called for help. A Century Club was formed—seventy-five people, or families, each loaned $100, and the center was on its way.

The original building burned in January 1947. The present structure, constructed entirely by volunteer labor, was ready for use the following New Year's Eve.

On the main floor is located a gym-auditorium, kitchen, dining room, dairy bar, library (supported by the Book Review Club), the women's club room and the CAI and Recreation Board offices.

The second floor has four rooms, now used by the Waterford Board of Education, and a small auditorium. A basement room is used for arts and crafts and also outfitted with some Athletic Club equipment.

The CAI is managed by a Board of Directors, elected from its membership. Its operating budget this year will total nearly $30,000.

LEARNS FUNDAMENTALS—Instructor Byron Merritt points out fundamentals of basketball to a pupil in his class at the Waterford CAI Building. The CAI is included in the Pontiac Area United Fund drive for the first time this year.

Kabaka of Buganda Returns From Exile

KAMPALA, Uganda (AP)—King Freddie, the 31-year-old Kabaka of Buganda, returned home to a tumultuous welcome today after two years exile in Britain.

Thousands of Africans roared out their tribal victory cry as the dapper young monarch stepped from a plane at Entebbe airport. The Cambridge-educated Kabaka, Frederick Mutesa II, was exiled in 1953 when he opposed Britain's plans to federate his kingdom more closely with the three other provinces of the Uganda protectorate.

He was allowed to return under a new agreement which leaves him with fewer powers and puts more responsibility on his parliament.

For 1952 (the latest complete figures) 3,530,000 U.S. births or 91.7 per cent of all births took place in hospitals.

Lady Legh Dies Eight Hours After Spouse's Demise

LONDON (AP)—The American-born wife of longtime royal aide Sir Piers Legh died today, only eight hours after her husband succumbed. Ailing Lady Legh had been unconscious for several days and did not know of Sir Piers' death.

Sir Piers, 64, died yesterday at King Edward VII Hospital. His wife, 60, died at her apartment in St. James' Palace.

Legh married the former Sarah Bradford, daughter of a Nashville, Tenn., judge, in 1920, the year after he entered royal service. He served 17 years as equerry to the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales and later King Edward VIII.

He served as master of the royal household for King George VI and then for Queen Elizabeth II, until his retirement in 1953.

Sir Piers and Lady Legh are survived by one daughter, Mrs. N. R. Colville.

Accidents cause more deaths among boys 10 to 14 years old than any other single cause.

New Chevrolets Go on Display on Nov. 4

DETROIT (AP)—Chevrolet says its 1956 model cars will go on dealer display Nov. 4.

Styling and engineering details of the new models are being withheld until the public introduction. W. E. Fish, general sales manager, said however, that the new line is the "most diversified in Chevrolet history."

He added that dealers are planning numerous special features for the introduction day. "The expense in showroom trim alone," he said, "will run well over three million dollars."

WASHINGTON (INS)—CIO president Walter Reuther advocated today that a four-day work week, higher minimum wages and earlier Social Security retirement be adopted in the U.S. to meet the problems of automation.

Reuther made his recommendations in prepared testimony before a congressional committee which is studying the possible impact on the national economy of automation or the expanded use of electronic machines to do work now done by manpower.

The CIO leader urged a gradual reduction of the work week from the prevailing 40 hours to 35 weekly increase in consumer buying power to "cushion" the effects of automation.

Reuther also proposed that the federal minimum wage, now a dollar an hour, be boosted to $1.25 "without delay" and an early retirement age under Social Security be adopted.

RETRAIN WORKERS
He also recommended expanded government programs in health, housing, schools, highways and other services, special aid for small businesses and retraining of workers to cope with increased use of electronics to replace men.

The labor spokesman emphasized the CIO "welcomes" automation if proper steps are taken. He commented: "If we accept the challenge of the new technology, we can help to usher in an age of abundance and freedom the like of which the world has never known."

However, he warned that failure to make adequate plans could lead to a "heavy price in unemployment and human suffering." Reuther testified:

"We oppose those who would introduce automation blindly and irresponsibly with no concern for any result except the achievement of the largest quick profit for themselves."

Viet Nam Sect Ousts Aging Religious Leader
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (U)—Military leaders of the Cao Dai religious sect have decided to oust their aging pope, Pham Cong Tac, reliable sources reported today.

Gen. Nguyen Thanh Phuoc, Cao Dai commander in chief, was said to have held a secret meeting with other military leaders and reached the decision because of Tac's opposition to South Viet Nam Premier Ngo Dinh Diem. Phuoc supports the Premier.

Hollywood Headlines:

Jersey Joe to Take Role in 'The Harder They Fall'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Jersey Joe Walcott, who made the sports world stand still when he defeated Ezzard Charles for the world's heavyweight championship in 1951, is headed for Columbia Studios.

His first role will be with Humphrey Bogart in "The Harder They Fall." He'll be called El Toro in the film and will play an ex-prize fighter of giant size.

Jersey Joe believed his prayers were answered when he defeated Charles, and he had the whole world with him because of his fine religious spirit.

HOLLYWOOD SAINT
Eva Marie Saint, who's living up to her name and being so cooperative in "That Certain Feeling" which she's making with Bob Hope at Paramount, has "that certain feeling" for Hollywood. She is moving here permanently beginning right now.

It's not alone because she likes California and its way of life so much, but more importantly, because her husband, Jeffrey Hayden, has been signed to a director contract at MGM.

"Wherever my husband's career is, that's where I'll be," very wisely says Eva Marie. This means she's giving up several Broadway show offers, but how smart she is to put her marriage first.

Eddie and Debbie Fisher told me they are going to buy a farm—or a ranch I should say—in California. They want to own some horses.

Persistent Briton Trying to Teach Cuckoo to Cuckoo

LONDON (U)—George Laver reports that he's trying to teach cuckoo to say "cuckoo" and is making some progress.

Laver found the bird when it was a fledgling last spring and made a pet of it. Bird experts say young cuckoos learn to say "cuckoo" by listening to old cuckoos who know how to say "cuckoo," Laver explained.

He didn't say how the first cuckoo learned, but then which came first, the egg or the chicken? Having no old cuckoo handy, Laver has been trying to fill the gap by saying "cuckoo" whenever he meets his pet around the house.

"Only a cock cuckoo cuckoo," Laver told a reporter. "I am pretty certain from my cuckoo's reaction to my cuckooing that he's a cock. He's beginning to show more interest in the call, and I'm confident that by next spring, he'll be cuckooing like any other cock cuckoo."

Busy Community Activities Building Included in UF Campaign This Year

By JANE WINDELER
Waterford Correspondent

Community Activities, Inc., with headquarters in the CAI Building at 5640 Williams Lake Rd. in Waterford Township, is the only newcomer this year to the Pontiac Area United Fund.

More than 1000 youngsters use the building weekly, in activities sponsored by the township recreation department or other adult groups.

The Saturday morning fun program, for boys and girls from 7 to 14 years old, includes gym games, arts and crafts, table tennis, shuffleboard and checker.

Ballet classes for girls from 3 to 16 years are held Thursdays and Saturdays and ballroom dance instruction is offered boys and girls in grades 6 through 12 Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

The Young Men's Athletic Club, for boys in grades 9 through 12, meets Monday nights and many family activities—archery lessons, camera guild, and fashion classes—are scheduled throughout the week.

Local service clubs and many other adult groups meet in the building regularly.

The CAI was launched in 1943 by the Waterford Women's Club, which had $1,000 in its treasury and a goal in mind—a community center for the area.

But the three-acre site and building they had settled on was going to cost $2,500 so they called for help. A Century Club was formed—seventy-five people, or families, each loaned $100, and the center was on its way.

The original building burned in January 1947. The present structure, constructed entirely by volunteer labor, was ready for use the following New Year's Eve.

On the main floor is located a gym-auditorium, kitchen, dining room, dairy bar, library (supported by the Book Review Club), the women's club room and the CAI and Recreation Board offices.

The second floor has four rooms, now used by the Waterford Board of Education, and a small auditorium. A basement room is used for arts and crafts and also outfitted with some Athletic Club equipment.

The CAI is managed by a Board of Directors, elected from its membership. Its operating budget this year will total nearly $30,000.

LEARNS FUNDAMENTALS—Instructor Byron Merritt points out fundamentals of basketball to a pupil in his class at the Waterford CAI Building. The CAI is included in the Pontiac Area United Fund drive for the first time this year.

Kabaka of Buganda Returns From Exile

KAMPALA, Uganda (U)—King Freddie, the 31-year-old Kabaka of Buganda, returned home to a tumultuous welcome today after two years exile in Britain.

Thousands of Africans roared out their tribal victory cry as the dapper young monarch stepped from a plane at Entebbe airport. The Cambridge-educated Kabaka, Frederick Mutesa II, was exiled in 1933 when he opposed Britain's plans to federate his kingdom more closely with the three other provinces of the Uganda protectorate.

He was allowed to return under a new agreement which leaves him with fewer powers and puts more responsibility on his parliament.

For 1932 (the latest complete figures) 3,530,000 U.S. births or 91.7 per cent of all births took place in hospitals.

Lady Legh Dies Eight Hours After Spouse's Demise

LONDON (U)—The American-born wife of longtime royal aide Sir Piers Legh died today, only eight hours after her husband succumbed. Ailing Lady Legh had been unconscious for several days and did not know of Sir Piers' death.

Sir Piers, 64, died yesterday at King Edward VII Hospital. His wife, 60, died at her apartment in St. James' Palace.

Legh married the former Sarah Bradford, daughter of a Nashville, Tenn., judge, in 1920, the year after he entered royal service. He served 17 years as equerry to the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales and later King Edward VIII.

He served as master of the royal household for King George VI and then for Queen Elizabeth II, until his retirement in 1953.

Sir Piers and Lady Legh are survived by one daughter, Mrs. N. R. Colville.

DETROIT (U)—Chevrolet says its 1936 model cars will go on dealer display Nov. 4.

Styling and engineering details of the new models are being withheld until the public introduction. W. E. Fish, general sales manager, said however, that the new line is the "most diversified in Chevrolet history."

He added that dealers are planning numerous special features for the introduction day. "The expense in showroom trim alone," he said, "will run well over three million dollars."

MSU Slams Irish in Upset; 'M' Gets Scare, Wins

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State, which was rated the nation's No. 1 football team in 1952 in the Associated Press poll, made a big bid to get back among the top ten teams with Saturday's convincing 21-7 victory over Notre Dame.

Last week the Spartans were ranked 13th. It should be difficult for the nation's sports writers and sportscasters to overlook them in this week's balloting.

In beating Notre Dame, the Spartans knocked off the No. 4 team. It may drop the Irish clear out of the top ten.

"It makes you feel like you're in the big leagues when you beat them," said MSU coach Duffy Daugherty after the game. "There isn't any team we feel prouder about beating than Notre Dame."

Michigan State gave a sharp, hard-hitting performance before the national television cameras. The game was beamed throughout the land in both color and black-and-white. After 60 minutes of slashing football, black-and-blue might have been more appropriate.

Fullback Jerry Planutis was the Spartan star. The goat in last year's 29-19 loss to Notre Dame, Planutis scored the winning touchdown, set up the clincher with a recovered fumble and kicked all three extra points.

Last fall Planutis missed two extra points—the difference between victory and defeat.

"We weren't worried about extra points this time," the elated senior from Hazelton, Pa. said in the MSU dressing room. "We knew we were going to win by touchdowns this time."

And, indeed, Michigan State played just that way—as though it was going to win.

Clarence Peaks sent the Spartans into a 7-0 lead in the 2nd quarter, going over from the 3 after setting up the score with a brilliant 24-yard punt return.

Notre Dame tied it on a 40-yard pass play from quarterback Paul Hornung to Muskegon's Jim Morse.

McDonald Sparks Sooner 23-Game Winning Streak

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Tommy McDonald, Oklahoma's fleet left halfback, adds the spark that det-onates the explosive ground attack of the third-ranked Sooners.

The junior from Albuquerque, N.M., started the 1955 football season with little fanfare. But in four winning games, McDonald has scored 42 points on 7 touchdowns and rushed 334 net yards in 41 carries for an average of 8.1 yards.

Lightning-like speed isn't all the blond bullet has to offer to keep alive Oklahoma's 23-game winning streak. He's completed six out of nine passes with a peculiar side-arm peg as he sweeps right after taking the pitchout. McDonald hasn't had a toss intercepted and the option pass play has earned him 106 yards.

Last Saturday, he crashed through to block a Kansas conversion attempt as the Sooners romped to a 44-6 victory.

As a sophomore, McDonald rushed for 128 yards and tallied two touchdowns. Asked why he has blossomed forth this season, McDonald says he's trying much harder.

"But I wouldn't gain a foot if Billy Pricer, our fullback, wasn't there to throw the block and if Robert Burris, our right half, didn't make a great fake to hold the defense in until I can get around it."

Planutis Grabs 2nd in Big Ten

Gerry Close Behind OSU's Cassidy With Ron Kramer 3rd

CHICAGO (AP) — Gerry Planutis, Michigan State's big man in the 21-7 victory over Notre Dame, moved into 2nd place in the Big Ten scoring race with Ohio State's Howard Cassidy clinging to 1st place.

Planutis scored one touchdown and added three extra points against the Irish to run his point scoring total to 32, four less than Cassidy's 36.

Cassidy scored one touchdown against Duke to retain his lead while the injured Ron Kramer of Michigan slipped to 3rd with 5 points.

Wisconsin fullback Charley Thomas added two touchdowns in a losing cause against Southern Cal to move into 4th place with 24 points.

Carter Captures Race; '55 Honors to Hinnerstz

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa. (AP) — Duane Carter, Speedway City, Ind., rode to a record-breaking victory in the last AAA big car race at Williams Grove Speedway yesterday but it was Tommy Hinnerstz who walked off with 1955 honors.

Carter sped around the 50-lap, 25-mile course in 22 minutes, 14.8 seconds, almost four seconds faster than his previous record.

But Hinnerstz, of Reading, picked up 40 points for second place and 10 points for winning a heat to win the 1955 AAA Eastern championship with a point total of 540.

This was the last year for AAA-sanctioned racing.

20 Points in 4 Minutes

Eaglet Opportunists Scent SCL Title After 27-13 Victory Over St. Clement

An alert band of opportunists from Orchard Lake St. Mary raked up 20 points during a wild four minutes in the 2nd quarter Sunday afternoon at Orchard Lake, then coasted to a 27-13 victory over St. Clement in the "big one."

Playing heads-up football, St. Mary's offensive-minded Eaglets capitalized on enemy errors plus creating a few breaks of their own to gain the inside track for the 1955 Suburban Catholic League championship.

Sparked by quarterback Ted Kopacki, who gained 77 yards in four carries for a 19.2 yard average per try, Rev. John Rakoczy's club rolled to a 20-6 halftime advantage and added a 4th TD for good measure before flooding the lineup with substitutes in the last 4th quarter after Planutis recovered a ND fumble on the 15.

Michigan State plays its homecoming game this Saturday, meeting Illinois.

Michigan Loses Statistics, but Is Winner, 14-2

Alert Defensive Play Makes Up for Lack of Drive Against 'Cats

ANN ARBOR (AP) — There was color galore in the big University of Michigan stadium, Saturday afternoon. But most of it was in the kaleidoscopic gathering of some 183 high school bands — little in the big Ten game between Michigan's Wolverines and Northwestern's Wildcats.

But what there was in the game, Michigan's 4th straight win, came at the proper moments to give Maize and Blue a 14-2 victory.

Wolverines, strangely lacking in aerial offensive power, came up with an alert defense that early in the opening period set the stage for what proved the winning tally. Then as the game faded into the final minutes Terry Barr, the ace for U. of M., in the Army tilt, set off a spectacular bit of fireworks, to account for Michigan's 2nd, and final scoring effort.

In the meantime Wildcats caught Tony Brannoff back of the goal line in the 2nd period, following a fumble, for a 2-point safety. Tony made up for this as the 4th period opened, with a startling "soccer" kick that caught Wildcat safety men way up front. Brannoff dropped a pass from center, on what was to have been a punt from his own goal line. He tried to run it out, saw he was going to be trapped, booted the ball on the dead run. It sailed over the Purple defense, rolled to the NW 27.

Michigan scored in the 1st 5 minutes after tackle Al Sigman recovered a Purple fumble on the 15. Barr drove to the 2 in two tries and Earl Johnson drilled over for the TD. Maddock converted.

Three times in the second period Northwestern piled into Michigan territory, but the hard-working Wolverine front wall rose to the occasion each time to stave off the threat. First drive went to Michigan's 10. In the 3rd session the white-clad 'Cats rammed down the field from their own 20 to Michigan's 5 where Sigman and Captain Edgar Meade (Oxford) stopped the NW workhorse, Jerry Weber.

That's where Michigan stood at the start of the final in the 1st minute of which Brannoff got off his spectacular boot.

One other brilliant piece of work by the Wolverines was Jim Pace's broken field dash at the midpoint of the 4th period. But, like in the Army game, it didn't count. Pace slipped through the Wildcats from the 13 for a TD, but Michigan clipped a 'Cat and the run went for naught.

As in every other game of the year so far, "M" lost the statistical scrap. Wolverines made only 6 1st downs, 10 for Northwestern.

There was little doubt but that the absence of All-America hope Ron Kramer had a profound effect on the Michigan aerial attack.

Wolverines' alert defenders included, besides Meade and Sigman, such stalwarts as Tom Maentz, Jim Orwig, Jim Bates of Farmington, Jerry Goebel (who was hurt during the contest) and Johnny Morrow.

After the next kickoff Daldine's pass on the 3rd play was picked off by Leszczynski. The Eaglet fullback went 37 yards for a TD. Kopacki passed to Stan Majewski for the point.

St. Mary tallied its last touchdown near the end of the 3rd quarter. Paul Frankowiak, left halfback, sprinted 31 yards for the tally. He then passed to end Pete Krystek for the conversion.

St. Clement tallied its 2nd touchdown against St. Mary's 2nd stringers. A blocked punt handed the Clements possession on the Eaglet eight. Three plays later Daldine bucked over from the one and added the extra point in the same manner.

Following Saturday's 14-2 squeaker against Northwestern, the Wolverines are tied with Wisconsin for 1st place in the big Ten. Each is 2-0.

Michigan coach Bennie Oosterbaan said his team was "flat all the way" against Northwestern.

Spotlight Put on Texas Aggies in Southwest

Upset Win Over TCU Brings Fourth Straight Plus Favorite Roll

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The youthful Texas Aggies, of whom their coach, Paul (Bear) Bryant, once said, "Nobody wants them but I'll take them," are the darlings of the crowd today.

The team that dropped nine games out of 10 last year, leading to Bryant's statement, has just finished winning four in a row—the first time an Aggie outfit has accomplished this feat in four years. They capped their comeback drive with a glittering 19-16 upset of undefeated, untied and nationally seventh-ranked Texas Christian last Saturday.

With only 11 letters and with two-thirds of the 56-man roster composed of sophomores, A&M wasn't expected to beat anybody much this season as Bryant entered his second season of rebuilding football at Aggieland. So, as the Aggies are elevated to the rank of favorites for the Southwest Conference championship, the big question is: "How was this team developed so quickly and from so much unknown and untested material?"

Bryant had this answer today. "They've got good fathers and mothers and they're just good kids and try hard."

With what Bryant describes as the smallest line in college football, the Aggies whipped Texas Christian's massive Horned Frogs in a game that drew the first sell-out of Texas Christian's enlarged stadium.

Bryant did a good recruiting job last year and he didn't confine his attentions to Texas—he brought in 13 boys from other states—but few of the youngsters were of the publicized variety. And Bryant hastened to say that it's his juniors who have performed better than expected, rather than the sophomores.

The Aggies meet Baylor here Saturday in the conference's headline game. A crowd of 42,000—capacity—is expected. It will be a far cry from the turnouts of last season when A&M was playing them all hard but just didn't have enough to win.

CHICAGO (AP) — George Halas, owner-coach of the Chicago Bears, has high hopes his team will still win the Western Conference title in the National Football League.

The Bears finally broke into the win column yesterday by blasting the Baltimore Colts, 38-10.

After the next kickoff Daldine's pass on the 3rd play was picked off by Leszczynski. The Eaglet fullback went 37 yards for a TD. Kopacki passed to Stan Majewski for the point.

St. Mary tallied its last touchdown near the end of the 3rd quarter. Paul Frankowiak, left halfback, sprinted 31 yards for the tally. He then passed to end Pete Krystek for the conversion.

SPARTAN STOPPED—Gerry Planutis (No. 45, with ball) was stopped in this 2nd period action by Notre Dame's Bob Scannell, end, in Saturday's upset win by MSU, 21-7. No. 77 is MSU's Embury Robinson, No. 57. State's Norm Masters. The white-shirted Irish player is (No. 86) Paul Schram, end. This action followed the Irish TD in the 2nd period.

Lions Blow 4th Straight Tilt

DETROIT (AP) — For three quarters yesterday the Detroit Lions almost looked like the champions of old.

Then the illusion faded.

Coach Buddy Parker's Lions blew an 18-point lead in the final quarter and were overhauled by the San Francisco 49ers, who dramatically pulled out a 27-24 victory with a three-touchdown surge in the final 15 minutes.

Trailing by a 24-6 count, the 49ers struck for two quick touchdowns at the start of the final period, then won out in the final two minutes of play on one of the most unusual plays ever seen in Briggs Stadium, or any stadium.

Quarterback Y. A. Tittle of the 49ers fumbled a 4th-down pass from center on Detroit's 5, but recovered and pitched out to fullback Joe Perry, who skirted left end for the winning touchdown.

The weird play, stunning a crowd of 51,438, dealt the Lions a crushing 4th straight setback and virtually knocked them out of the Western Division race in the National Football League.

It is the worst start by the Lions since 1949, when they also dropped their first four games and wound up with a 4-8 record for the season.

The Lions not only lost the ball game, but lost the services of Bobby Layne. The veteran Texan was injured in the 2nd quarter. He suffered torn ligaments in his knee and doctors say he'll miss next Sunday's game in Los Angeles for sure, and possibly others.

Layne's loss leaves the Lions with practically no offensive punch for their invasion of the West Coast in the next fortnight.

Moreover, Detroit's pass defense—once the best in the circuit—is sadly lacking.

Throwing a wet ball on a muddy field, Tittle continually harassed the Detroit defense, completing 15 of 31 passes for 316 yards. He passed for one touchdown and set up two others.

Lions broke into a 14-0 lead in the 1st 20 minutes, capitalizing on a San Francisco fumble on the opening kickoff to knock the 49ers off balance.

Lions scored on five plays. Hoernschmeyer going over. They got their 2nd in the next period. Dave Middleton making the counter. Their third tally came in the 3rd following a 56-yard march.

A 17-yard field goal by Doak Walker provided the other Lion points.

Dick Moege, Rex Berry got other 49er tallies.
