NEW LOAN FUND: A $500 loan fund has been established by the Oakland County Engineering Society for Engineering students at MSUO. The fund is named for the society and in honor of the late H. H. Corson, a Birmingham (Mich.) city official from 1927 to 1948, the city's acting manager from 1943-46 and city engineer for many years.

GIFT TO THE LIBRARY: The Drusilla Farwell Foundation has given the MSUO library a gift of 75 Walt Whitman Fellowship Papers and a collection of books representative of fine printing and typography. Charles E. Feinberg and the other foundation trustees made the presentation.

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL: Plans for Culture Internationale now include a week-long program of lectures and conferences preceding the festival Jan. 15, and a fashion show following it, Mrs. Cusack announces.

CHANCELLOR ON RADIO: Mr. Varner will be interviewed Monday, Jan. 2 and Friday, Jan. 6 on WJR's Composite. Broadcast from 2 p.m. to 3, the programs will be reruns of an edited version of an interview done during the summer. Composite's director, Dan Price, is planning to tape a new interview with Mr. Varner soon.
