Here's Where Six Pair Makes a Full House

TWIN MARATHON — Beginning Aug. 21 and ending Sept. 3, the trend at the maternity ward at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital was toward twins. In that two-week period, six sets of twins were delivered. Holding the new arrivals are: (standing) Mrs. Dolores Hartman with the Byers twins, Mrs. Mary M. Smith, R.N., with the Bowman additions, and Mary Ellen O'Donnell, L.P.N., with the Welch twins. Seated are: Mrs. Dorothy Harrison with Hoffman twins, Marion Johnston, R.N. with the Trotter twins, and Mrs. Mary Sanders with the Wilson twins.

Plan to Relieve Children's Home

Merger of Hospitals Out

Hopes that the overcrowded Oakland County Children's Home could be relieved by overflowing into the County Contagious Hospital appeared dim yesterday, in reports to the County Board of Supervisors.

Also aired was a recommendation from the Salary Committee that would boost county employe's and official's pay some $683,657 next year. This would also include hiring some 97 new employes.

The salary recommendation will be taken up at a meeting scheduled for Monday.

It had been suggested that the Supervisors consider combining the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium and the County Contagious Hospital, at the Sanatorium. This could have made room for the overflow from the Children's Home, at the hospital it was hoped.

But yesterday the T. B. San study committee reported the Sanatorium was full, scotching such plans for merger.

Chairman of the Board of Auditors Robert Y. Moore reported on crowded conditions at the Children's Home. It was suggested that a study committee be formed to examine the possibility of immediate permanent expansion of the Children's Home.

Moore said he hoped that financing details and contract letting could be accomplished by next spring.

The Children's Home was built in 1928 to house 40 boys and 40 girls. In a recent report, Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore said the Home had jurisdiction over 137 youths, giving them educational, therapeutic and custodial care.

Acting after a recent Circuit Court decision ruled that Justices of the Peace cannot place persons on probation, the Supervisors' Miscellaneous Committee recommended the hiring of a justice court probation officer.

The Supervisors also authorized a committee to study the formation of a county-wide Department of Public Works.

The suggestion originated with County Drain Commissioner Ralph A. Main, who offered it as a possible solution to the many drainage problems facing areas of the county.

The proposed 1957 salary appropriations totaled $4,041,261, plus $253,297 for new positions and $33,500 for salary emergencies.

The present salary budget of $3,644,401, is broken down into $3,404,285, and $240,116 for new positions.

Included in the salary recommendations were $500 increases for the county treasurer and clerk, to $10,250, and a $1,000 boost to $11,500 for the county prosecutor.

Other proposed increases were $8,500 to $9,000 for sheriff; corporation counsel, $10,010 to $12,500; minor increases for the civil defense director and the dog warden; Board of Auditors member, from $9,000 to $10,750; member of Social Welfare Board, from $7,500 to $9,500, and member of County Road Commission, from $5,000 to $7,500.

A study of the salary committee showed that the rates presently paid to employes, while close to going rates, is slightly under the present market.

Reinforced Guard Waits to Quell Racial Outbreak

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

National guardsmen, strengthened by reinforcements, were ready today to move—if needed—into Sturgis, Ky., scene of noisy racial disorders at the town's integrated high school.

A National Guard detachment of 650 men, backed by tanks and 40 state patrolmen, were on hand yesterday to see that seven Negroes were allowed to enter classes for which 310 white pupils were enrolled.

A crowd of between 600 and 1,000 persons jeered and catcalled the guardsmen, spaced three feet apart on the high school lawn.

Only 45 of the school's white pupils were at their desks when the final assembly bell rang.

When the Negroes left the building, rocks were hurled. The Negroes sped home in automobiles.

Sturgis is the center of an area with a population of about 5,000, including 1,000 Negroes. The tension there was in strong contrast to the situation at Louisville, Ky., where the South's first large-scale school integration was carried out peacefully and with no untoward incident yesterday.

Aside from limited protests and a few pickets at the Louisville Board of Education, there was no disturbance. Officials said they expected none.

At Clay, Ky., a coal-mining community of 2,000 not so very far from Sturgis, a crowd of about 100

Keating Alters Plea on Income Evasion

Daniel J. Keating, a former Pontiac teamster leader, entered a guilty plea to one of four counts charging willful evasion of income taxes in a U.S. District Court at Detroit Monday.

* * *

He admitted that he filed a false report in 1950 avoiding payment of $850.70.

Keating, a resident of 2902 Oak Grove Dr., had pleaded not guilty earlier to all counts totaling $7,796 in unpaid taxes.

Keating is not now connected with AFL Teamsters Local 614 of Pontiac. He worked with the Pontiac unit from 1940 to 1953 and served as business manager since 1943.

6 Sets of Duets Born in 2 Weeks

Nurses Seeing Double at St. Joseph Hospital After Siege of Twins

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital nurses were seeing double recently when six sets of twins were delivered at the hospital in two weeks.

The births, in which boys outnumbered girls 9 to 3, set a 14-day record at the hospital. It also set another record of 371 babies delivered last month compared to the old record of 355 set in March.

The marathon began Aug. 21 when twin boys were delivered to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffman of Farmington. Little Richard Douglas and Robert Franklin Hoffman are number one and two for the Hoffmans.

Five days later, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bowman of 346 Osmun St., increased the size of their family to 10 when a girl (Judy Carol) and boy (Danny James) were born.

The last day of August, a Birmingham couple, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welch, became parents of twin boys. They were named Robert Garven and William Richardson. The Welches have two other children.

Twin girls were delivered Sept. 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Trotter of 52 Omar St. The babies—Myrtle Darlene and Rheme Marlene—join three other children at the Trotter house.

Also on Sept. 2, twin boys were born to Dr. and Mrs. Richard Byers of Royal Oak. The Byers, who have five other children, named the additions Patrick Thomas and Michael James.

The final set of twin was delivered Sept. 3 to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of 443 Linda Vista Dr. The boys are named Ronald E. and Donald E. and join two other young Wilsons at home.

U.S. Sees New Talks Useless on Suez Crisis

Britain, France Voice Continued Resistance to Canal Seizure

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States in effect today threw cold water on Egypt's proposal that a new international conference be called to settle the Suez Canal dispute.

A State Department spokesman, commenting on Egypt's proposal, said flatly "it is doubtful that a further conference would serve a useful purpose."

Press officer Lincoln White told a news conference that nations representing more than 90 per cent of Suez Canal shipping were represented in the Cairo conference with President Nasser which failed on Sunday.

Egypt has suggested a meeting of all countries which use the canal in order to get all views.

White gave the American view on this as Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey met with British Ambassador Sir Roger Makins to discuss the Suez crisis. There was no immediate word of what Humphrey's presence at the meeting meant.

IKE, DULLES TALK

Earlier President Eisenhower and Dulles discussed the canal crisis for an hour and 20 minutes.

Meanwhile, in London, Britain and France declared today they are determined "to resist by all appropriate means any arbitrary interference with rights under international agreements" in the Suez Canal crisis.

A joint communique issued by British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Guy Mollet said the two countries had reached full agreement on "further measures to be taken" in the light of Egypt's refusal to negotiate an international system for operating the canal.

These "further measures" were not spelled out.

A Foreign Office spokesman said, however, the measures will be disclosed in the British House of Commons, which meets in emergency session tomorrow and Thursday.

The Suez Canal Co. in Paris today authorized its employes—including about 200 pilots—to quit their jobs in Egypt after Sept. 15.

The announcement came after a meeting of the board of directors.

Red China Slapped for Downing Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has sent a formal note to Red China which "strongly protests" the shooting down of an American Navy patrol plane off China Aug. 23.

The American note, sent through the British Embassy in Peiping, served notice that Red China will be asked to "pay all damages" including compensation for the loss of the 16 crewmen as well as the aircraft.

The shooting by Red fighters was denounced as "without warning" and "unjustified."

We Almost Always Have Weather

Yiffnitz Finds Some Days Have More Than Others

There have been so many conflicting factors in the weather, The Press has requested its own expert to explain.

Herman Lysander Yiffnitz, graduated from Michigan (Cum much Laude) and took post graduate work at Stanford, Harvard, Oxford and Teachers' Institute of Outer Mongolia. He had straight "A's" except in Outer Mongolia when a typhoon decimated 187 native villages and killed 82,000 Turkestanian peasants. (Yiffnitz had predicted "fair and warmer.")

Herman is a descendant of Wang Yiffnitz who forecast the flood sufficiently in advance to let Noah build the Ark.

"In normal years, we have many days when the mercury really drops. We had none this year and therefore we didn't have the corresponding high nineties. Nature levels.

"Elementary, eh, Watson?

* * *

"In 1956 it rained every weekend. Hence, the local folk are under the impression that it rained steadily. It simply rained when they were bent on doing something else so it attracted attention.

"Many years it rains in the night.

"It rains in the early morning.

"It rains on Tuesdays when no one goes anywhere. This year every rain happened when the populace was bent on recreation.

"Why, even Mr. Oak, your weatherman, told me that every weekend fishing trip he planned in 1956 had been disturbed by rain."

* * *

Some people insist the "A" and "H" bombs have upset the weather.

Yiffnitz denied this.

"During World War II we had a spell of exceptionally rainy weather and it was attributed to gun fire. American scientists agreed all the gun fire in World War II had no more effect than shooting a cap pistol."

Dr. Henry Houghton of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology says as much energy as the Hiroshima-size bombs is expended EVERY TWO SECONDS of a hurricane's existence.

Some hurricanes last a week.

(Incidentally, Dr. Houghton is a third cousin of Herman on his Aunt Clarissa's side:)

Newsweek says the world temperature has advanced one degree since 1885. This country has stepped up two degrees.

"Warmer ocean currents are creeping northward," says Herman. "For years, we found cod fish no farther north than Massachusetts. Now they have migrated more than 600 miles in the last quarter of a century. Tuna and sardines are found several hundred miles north of their usual habitat.

Birds are moving northward, too.

"No one really knows what 'normal temperature' or 'normal rain' are, anyway," concludes our celebrated scientist. "Remember, we have only kept weather record for sixty or seventy years. That's merely the tick of a clock when you consider we've had weather for a few billion years."

O. K. readers. If you have any questions, our Mr. Yiffnitz will be glad to answer.

4 Youths Facing Murder Charge

First Degree Warrants Expected Tomorrow in Fairgrounds Beating

First-degree murder warrants are expected tomorrow from the Wayne County Prosecutor's office citing four Royal Oak Township youths with the fatal beating of 14-year-old Gerald Rondeau of Wayne last Tuesday.

Facing murder charges are Tommy Rollins, 19, of 10582 Foxton Ct.; Horace Collier, 18, of 21405 Parkside St.; Odell gray, 18, of 21423 Garden Lane; and James Craig, 16, of 21014 Ferner St.

Detroit police said Rollins admitted clubbing Rondeau with a wrench near the State Fairgrounds "to teach him some manners" after he and some companions had refused a ride.

Gerald died Friday night. The gang reportedly had beaten up other youths earlier the same night but none have pressed charges, Assistant Prosecutor John Belrose said.

Wins Seat

FRANK M. COFFIN

Maine voters Monday elected Frank M. Coffin to Congress, the first Democratic Congressman from the state in 22 years.

Republican Grip on House Seats Broken Also

1 of 3 Congress Races Still in Doubt, Margin Only 28 Votes

PORTLAND, Me. (AP)—Maine Democrats retained their hold on the governorship in Monday's early state election and broke the 22-year GOP hold on one and possibly two of the three U. S. House seats.

Gov. Edmund S. Muskie, 42, received the largest vote ever given a governor in winning a second consecutive term, the second such tenure since the Civil War.

His majority of more than 55,000 over Republican Willis A. Trafton Jr., was not the greatest. The record is 82,481, recorded by Republican William Tudor Gardiner in defeating Democratic Edward C. Moran in 1928.

GOV. EDMUND S. MUSKIE

The total vote in Monday's election was 303,481, some 6,000 under the record. In polling close to 60 per cent of the total to get 179,697 votes, Muskie topped the previous high of 172,111 for Republican Lewis O. Barrows in 1936.

The victorious Democratic candidate for Congress was the party's state chairman, Frank M. Coffin, 37, of Lewiston, in the 2nd Dist.

Still in doubt is the result of the 1st Dist. campaign, with unofficial figures giving veteran Rep. Robert Hale a 28-vote margin over Democrat James C. Oliver in Hale's eighth-term bid. The outcome may not be decided until the governor and Executive Council check the vote in several weeks.

Presidential nominee Adlai E. Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, called the Democratic victory "all the more remarkable in view of the way the Republicans made this a test of President Eisenhower's popularity and influence with the voters."

Rep. Clifford G. McIntire had no trouble gaining a third full term in the 3rd Dist. but his percentage was down.

The 42-year-old Muskie, son of a Polish immigrant tailor, became the first Democrat re-elected in a presidential year—at least since the Civil War. And in those days Maine governors had one instead of two-year terms.

Two years ago Muskie won his first term with 54½ per cent of almost 249,000, beating Burton M. Cross, then the GOP incumbent.

Search Continuing for Lost U.S. Plane

TOKYO (AP)—Skies cleared today over the typhoon-whipped waters of the Japan Sea, but search planes and ships still reported no trace of an American weather-scouting plane that disappeared at the height of the storm's fury.

Sixteen U. S. Air Force men were aboard the missing plane, sent out yesterday to measure wind velocity and air pressure inside Typhoon Emma, a killer storm that took 55 lives and caused millions of dollars damage in Japan, Okinawa, South Korea and the Philippines.

The four-engine RB50, a reconnaissance version of the Air Force B50 bomber, was last heard from half way between the coasts of Japan and Soviet Siberia.

Thirty U. S. planes based in Japan scoured 70,000 square miles of sea today in search of wreckage or life rafts. Several planes and 10 Japanese surface ships continued the hunt.

Ken Venturi Leads Cudd in U.S. Amateur

LAKE FOREST (AP) — Favored Ken Venturi of San Francisco matched par figures all the way for a two-hole lead over Walker Cupper Bruce Cudd of Portland, Ore., in today's second round of the National Amateur Golf Tourney.

Among other early starters, Joe McBride of Paramus, N. J., ran away from Lou Rosanova of Niles, Ill., 6 and 5.

Ward Wettlaufer, Tam O'Shanter's "world" amateur titlist this year from Williamsville, N. Y., and Bernie Katz of Chicago were all-square after nine, as were Don Cherry, 1952 semi-finalist in this meet, and Frank Malara, Jr., White Plains, N. Y.

Travelers Get Acquainted on Trip to New York

Theater Party Ends First Day in Greenwich Village

By L. JAMES BINDER
Asst. City Editor, Pontiac Press

NEW YORK CITY—"People always seem closer when they're together a long way from home. Why, by the time we reach New York there won't be a last name in the crowd."

The traveler who made this observation (a wonderfully worldly gentleman who wore a beret) on the station platform in Detroit was a true prophet:

Not only had our Pontiac Press theater special happily reached a first-name basis, but several of its 100 members had new nicknames by the time the Empire State weaved its way into Grand Central Station late last evening.

* * *

It would have been quickly apparent to any casual observer that here was a group of passengers that had more on its minds than just arriving safe and sound in New York City.

Beneath the conversation and over the heads of the many who periodically "barnstormed" the aisles in train-length good-will tours there hung an air of expectancy. The dash across Canada from Pontiac culminated two months of planning for morst of the group.

Special to the Pontiac Press

ARRIVING — Pontiac and Oakland County residents on the Press Theater train are shown arriving in Grand Central station in New York last night.

The most serious hitches developed when one pretty young lady's traveling case refused to come open and when another touring unit waxed indignant because Pontiac's delegation managed without effort to occupy most of the chairs in the dining car at lunchtime.

The combined struggles of three extremely-solicitous young strongmen failed to solve the first situation and a compromise worked out by everybody's friend, the Press' John Riley, took care of the second.

By the time our sleek rail-skimmer "returned" to the U.S. at Buffalo, at least a dozen junkets to various New York spots of interest had been planned by as many twosomes and foursomes.

Then came Rochester, then Albany and at 10:30 p.m. (New York time is an hour ahead of Pontiac's) 100 remarkably-fresh travelers alighted from their cars and took a brief look at the vastness of Grand Central Station before climbing aboard waiting buses for a 10-minute cross-town trip to the Paramount Hotel.

The first glimpse of New York's famous skyline had to be postponed until this morning's light and a three-hour trip around Manhattan Island—darkness hid the beautiful Hudson River and the only hints of buildings were row on row of lighted windows.

Our transplanted Oaklandites had only about enough time to try their keys in their room doors before being whisked off by bus again to celebrate their arrival at a party in Greenwich Village, in the Rustic Village Barn on West Eighth St.

Waiters scurried around to set up tables beneath a huge sign which read "Welcome Pontiac Press Theater Special."

Former Plant Foreman Dies

Fisher Body Executive Since 1926, Succumbs at Home

Walter Galbraith, 68, former general foreman of Fisher Body Division, died at his home, 100 Miami Rd. at 4 o'clock this morning. He had been in ill health six years.

He was born in Glasgow, Scotland on Aug. 5, 1888 and came directly from Scotland to Flint, then to Pontiac. His parents were Walter and Jessie Thomson Galbraith.

He started with General Motors at Buick Plant No. 12 working in the sheet metal and press room.

Mr. Galbraith, a resident of Pontiac 33 years, worked in the body shop of Fisher Body Division for two years. In 1926, he was appointed general foreman of the Plant. He retired three years ago.

A member of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, he was also a life member of F. & A.M. in Scotland.

Surviving are his wife the former Elizabeth Robertson; three children, Walter of Marion, Ind., Mrs. Nancy Brice of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Jessie Redner of Farmington and five grandchildren.

Other survivors include a sister, Mrs. Alex MacPhail and three brothers, Albert, Andrew and Eric, all living in Scotland.

Service will be at 3 p.m. Thursday from the Huntoon Funeral Home with the Rev. Theodore R. Allebach, his pastor, officiating. Burial will follow in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Press Theater Party Visits Famed Village

the arrival of the Press party, led off with a verbal welcome and a musical salute which caused several eyebrows to raise when the first few bars told us we were being serenaded with "My Merry Oldsmobile."

Later, when about 30 of the place's customers got up to prance expertly through a series of country dances, you would have found few believers if you had pointed out that about 20 of them had spent the preceding 14 hours in traveling.

Then came a skit in which five grinning members of the audience (three of them from the Press party) were lured from their tables to the middle of the floor where they stood frantically swapping disreputable-looking hats in a kind of elimination contest.

Despite its hayloft atmosphere, the Barn turned out some good jazz numbers and dance music, proving that sophisticated New York still prefers its bands to be modern.

But even the seemingly-indomitable spirit of the Press party has its limits and members began drifting back to their rooms for a night of rest about 1 a.m.

And so to sleep . . .
Perchance to dream . . .

Of today's yacht trip along the edge of the island . . . or tonight's performance of "No Time for Sergeants."

And maybe in some kaleidoscope of anticipations there'll appear colorful poster pictures of other coming events: "The Most Happy Fella," "Damn Yankees," "New Faces of 1956," and "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?"

Escapee Back in County Jail After 20 Years

A former inmate of the Oakland County Jail came back to roost 20 years after his escape yesterday following his arrest by Pontiac police.

William Stout, 58, of A-2 Arcadia Crt., was picked up Sunday night on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon and later investigation disclosed him to be the same man who walked away from a working detail and disappeared on Feb. 16, 1937.

"He told us he went to St. Louis after leaving here and then came back and had been working at a local motor plant for the last 15 years," Undersheriff Elmer McQuern told the Press this morning. He said Stout will now be made to finish the seven-month balance of a nine-month jail sentence he had started in 1936 on a felonious assault charge.

The factory worker was reportedly jailed in Dec. 1936 after pleading guilty to the assault charge. He became a trustee and had been active working around the third floor of the jail prior to his walkaway.

Stout has served time in the Ionia Reformatory, and in jails in Missouri and Pennsylvania on such charges as simple larceny, assault and robbery, fighting, and driving with a false license, according to his records at the county jail.

2 Injured in Collision With Car Backing Up

Two persons suffered minor injuries in a collision in Waterford Township Monday.

James D. Turow, 25, of Waterford Township, one of the drivers, and Lynn A. Turow, 7, were treated at Pontiac General Hospital for cuts and bruises.

The other car was driven by Norma E. Fredericks, 37, of Waterford Township.

She told Township police she was struck while backing out of her driveway. Turow said she backed out in front of him.

men turned away a Negro mother and her two children at the elementary school.

The jeers and scoffings at Sturgis found an echo in Texas, where a crowd of 300 threw gravel and aimed a kick at two young Negroes who sought to enter the Texarkana Junior College.

The crowd blocked the school's doorway and turned back Steve Poster, 17, and Jessalyn Gray. Four Texas Rangers and two Texarkana officers refused to escort the two Negroes into the school.

Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee departed from his prepared speech at the Southern Governors Conference in White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., to explain why he ordered 633 National Guardsmen, 10 tanks and a helicopter into Clinton, Tenn., scene of integration riots last week.

"If I had waited 60 minutes more," Clement said, "some of our citizens would have been lying dead in the streets."

The Clinton school entered its third week of integrated classes with attendance of 520, including 11 Negroes, of the 800 enrolled.

Other developments in the fight for integration yesterday included:

Morganfield, Ky.: A crowd of 500 attending a states rights meeting in the courthouse stamped and cheered their approval of a resolution proposing to impeach Gov. A. B. Chandler for assuming "dictatorial powers" in the Sturgis disturbances.

Matoaka, W.Va.: A boycott of four schools in southern West Virginia which admitted Negroes for the first time this year kept half the pupils at home.

Roanoke, Va.: A petition has been filed by parents of six Pulaski County Negro students asking the school board to desegregate schools.

Houston, Tex.: A director of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People was turned down when he attempted to enroll three Negro children in the Sherman Elementary School. Houston's population is well over half a million.

Pontiac Wins Report Honor for Second Year

For the second consecutive year, Pontiac walked off with second place honors in the presentation of the city's 1955 annual report.

The Michigan Municipal League award was presented to Mayor William W. Donaldson at the League's 58th annual convention which concluded Saturday in Grand Rapids. The award was for cities with population over 40,000.

The eight-page report was prepared by Henry Smith, city planner, Mrs. Charles Cook, secretary for City Manager W. K. Willman, and Gus Mathes, a member of the city planning staff.

The award read in part: "In recognition of its high standards of informing citizens and taxpayers about municipal activities in the publication of its annual report."

ROYAL ARRIVALS — Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco are all smiles on arriving in New York today aboard the liner United States. They told newsmen that the only area of disagreement between them was "on the name of the baby." The princess, the former Grace Kelly, is expecting a baby early next year.

Grace and Prince Sail Into New York, Admit Arguing — Over Name for Baby

NEW YORK (INS) — Prince Rainier and Princess Grace sailed into New York today and admitted shyly they are suffering through the "first disagreement" of their six-month marriage.

* * *

"We can't agree at all," admitted Grace, "on a name for our baby. We've decided on about three, but we just can't get together enough to commit ourselves."

So saying, the honey-haired glamor girl now four months pregnant, grinned slyly at her husband. He blushed, shook his head, and appeared to lose a small part of his heritage of serenity.

"But that is our only disagreement," said Grace, reaching over to touch Rainier's hand. Otherwise, everything, including her health, "is wonderful."

MEET THE PRESS

The royal couple, whose duet of marriages April 18 and 19 were the most publicized nuptials of the decade, were their usual quiet and dignified selves as they formally met reporters aboard the liner United States. They said that they will stay in the East Coast area the next six weeks, because there is no particular reason to visit Hollywood, site of Grace's former career.

* * *

"I have definitely given up my career," she said.

"And, well, I'm not supposed to fly and we just don't have the time to go (to the West Coast) by train," she added.

The world's most publicized expectant father, always a non-communicative and shy man in the presence of reporters, sat by calmly and let Grace do all the talking.

* * *

Only when asked, "Has your life as a bachelor been altered considerably since marriage?" did he let down his reserve and laugh explosively. But still it was Grace who spoke.

"My, I hope so!"

* * *

Grace was wearing a Dior black-checked wool suit, which was designed along slim lines but did not conceal the fact she is pregnant.

Her hair was drawn back austerely to a knot at the back. Over it she wore a close-fitting pink cloche hat, of furry felt.

* * *

The royal pair said they will spend most of their time on this homecoming and second honeymoon jaunt in the plush Fifth avenue apartment Grace leased shortly before her marriage. But they also will visit her millionaire parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kelly, in Philadelphia, and will attend the Atlantic City race track, of which the elder Kelly is president, next Saturday.

Past awards have gone to Dr. L. A. Farnham, the late Dr. Robert H. Baker, Dr. Otto O. Beck, Dr. Robert Hasner, Dr. Frederick A. Baker and Dr. George A. Raynale.

* * *

Laymen receiving the award include Sen. George N. Higgins, William Maybury and the Board of Trustees of William Beaumont Hospital for "meritorious service contribution to medicine through public service."

City Studies Alternate Rail Yard

A city-requested report from a consulting engineer outlining the pro and con of an alternate site for the $700,000 Grand Trunk Railroad industrial support yard will be aired tonight at the City Commission meeting.

* * *

City commissioners instructed a survey to be conducted to show whether a city suggested site would be practical for construction of the railroad yard.

Officials requested the railroad shift their plans to the alternate area to allow for completion of a two-year plan to extend Stanley avenue northward. This would be blocked if the project went into the railroad proposed area south of Walton Boulevard and north of the railroad's belt line.

Holding a place on the 16-point agenda will be a report from the City Planning Commission deferring action for 30 days on the proposed rezoning of 21 lots in the suggested park-library site across from the Pontiac High School.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

The planning commission has also submitted a second report denying a request to rezone property north of the Herrington Hills Subdivision.

In other action, City Attorney William A. Ewart will report to the commission on legal meetings held at the 58th annual Michigan Municipal League Convention.

A public hearing will be held on the following public improvement project:

Intention to construct a sanitary sewer on Durant Street from the northwest line of lots 34 and 132 to the northwest line of lots 52 and 114 of the Dixie Highway Subdivision.

* * *

A resolution of public necessity is expected to be offered for curb, gutter, grade, gravel, and two-inch blacktop for First Street from Joslyn to Highwood and on Hollywood Street from Kennett to Parkdale.

Approval is expected on a municipal maintenance contract for 1956-57 with the State Highway Dept.

* * *

Confirmations are slated on six public improvement projects while the commissioners are expected to receive a special assessment roll for another job in the city.

The Day in Birmingham

Pond Clean-Up Slated Oct. 15 for $58,000

BIRMINGHAM — Dredging of Nixon Pond is to start Oct. 15 if details do not deter city plans. Commissioners awarded a contract for $58,000 to the Poupore Co. last night.

Releases from 29 of the 36 neighboring property owners have been received and when the remainder are in, work will commence. The releases are for possible damages.

Completion might be this fall, but if marine insurance runs out on Dec. 1, with the work unfinished, it will have to wait for spring.

Bids were accepted for the examination of both Hunter and Eton water tanks for about $500, for a new police radar car, and for construction of parking lots 3-A and HH.

Commissioners received a property owner's assurance he would sell lot 43, involved in widening of Park street, at a price matching the condemnation awards for neighboring lots, rather than require court procedures again.

Delays were noted in the appraisals for the Peabody well sites, and rezoning of the Twining Property at the northeast corner of Adams and Bowers streets, and the lot 30, just east of it.

Illness delays a property owner meeting on the later lot, and zoning on both lots should be alike, commissioners feel.

A report on the modification of the Water Resources Commission's degree to a new, Nov. 15 deadline for a sewage disposal plan, was noted. Hopes were voiced that the local voters would approve sale of the sewage plant to the North Evergreen Authority on Nov. 13, so that the plan can be culminated.

* * *

At tonight's Twelve Town Drain meeting at Northwood Inn, Birmingham will be represented by the city commissioners' city manager and city engineer.

Civil Defense Week activities are underway with films being shown in many local schools describing the program. The parade is slated for Friday.

* * *

High Twelve Club started meetings yesterday with a program on Alaskan hunting and reports of the San Francisco convention from Harold Gasser, Tom Campbell, Floyd Franklin and Wilson Wagner.

* * *

First Fall meeting of the Birmingham Unitarian Church Women's Alliance will be tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. at Mrs. D. H. Goodfellow's home, 6311 Worlington Rd., for a religious education discussion.

Police Listen for Boom in Search for Car Thief

DETROIT (INS)—Whoever stole the car of Detroiter William Van Riper may be in for a loud surprise.

Van Riper told police the car's trunk contained, among other things, a bottle of acid that might explode if jolted.

The "other things" could provide the jolt—four tanks of propane gas, a 25-gallon can of gasoline and a skin-diver's aqua lung filled with oxygen at a pressure of 2,400 pounds.

Hills Approve School Bonds

Bloomfield Educator Optimistic on Interest After Decisive Vote

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—A decisive vote approving a $2,765,000 bond for Bloomfield Hills school district has given an optimistic note to school planning here.

"We hope that this vote of 576 to 84 will mean a smaller percentage of interest on our bonds," said Supt. of Schools Eugene Johnson today. "Usually more bonding companies bid against each other when such total community support is indicated."

"The vote certainly indicates there was no organized opposition," Johnson said.

Selling of the bonds to finance an elementary and a junior high school and several school sites will proceed as soon as possible, Johnson predicts. "We'll start the ball rolling with the attorney being directed to prepare applications at the board meeting Tuesday."

Hedging on whether it would be several years before the third step of a large-scale building plan would be undertaken, Johnson said it would depend on growth.

Expectations of growth in enrollment during the summer were off by 100 students, he says. With a rise of 156 expected over summer months, a total of 250 was added, bringing enrollment to 1850 when school opened last week.

"Another 100 will probably enroll during the year, too," he said.

The vote, though not heavy with only 663 voting, was much larger than in the previous few school elections, he stated.

Chamber Plans Economic Discussion Unit

Plans for a 17-session economic discussion group program open to the public, were revealed yesterday by John W. Hirlinger, Pontiac Chamber of Commerce manager.

The weekly classes, sponsored by the Chamber, will begin in November, Hirlinger said. They will embrace a wide field of American economics, he added.

* * *

An organizational meeting is scheduled for Sept. 17 when Richard A. Anderson, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, will speak on similar discussion groups now being held throughout the country.

The classes, to provide for a better understanding of the American competitive system, are expected to be led by professors from either Michigan State University or University of Michigan.

Hirlinger said meetings will be open to anyone interested in taking an active part. He said a $5 charge would be levied for a packet of 17 pamphlets covering the topics to be discussed.

TOPICS INCLUDED

The program is being formulated under the State and National Government Committee of the Chamber. William F. Kalwitz is chairman of the group.

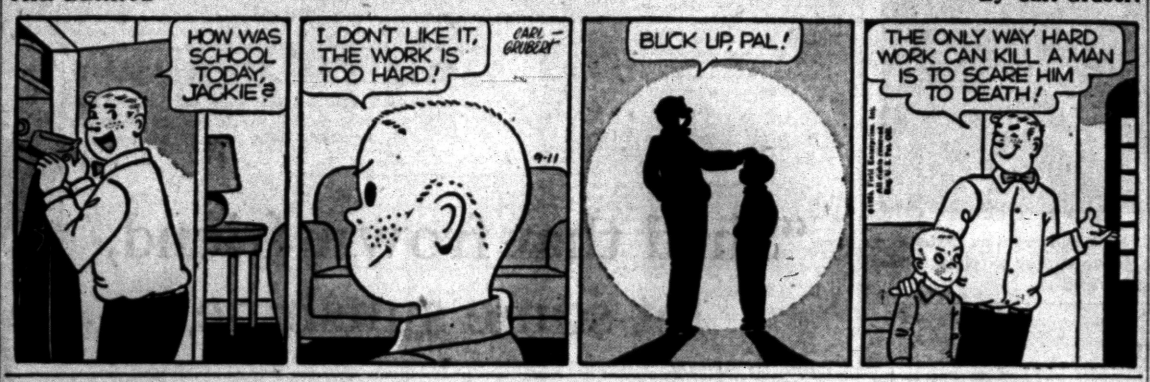

The topics to be discussed will be: The mystery of money; control of the money supply; money, income and jobs; the national income and its distribution; progress and prosperity; sustaining prosperity; demand, supply and prices.

Prices, profits and wages; why the businessman?; how competitive is the American economy?; understanding the economic system and its functions; spending and taxing; taxing, spending and debt in management; labor and the American economy; individual and group security; international trade, investment and commercial policy; and the ethics of capitalism.

* * *

Further information on the classes may be obtained by calling the Chamber office at Federal 5-6148.

Senate May Quiz Harriman Fund

Drew Pearson Reports Drive for Nomination Cost $2 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators will consider questioning Gov. Averell Harriman of New York about a published report he spent two million dollars on his futile bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Chairman Gore (D-Tenn) of a subcommittee investigating campaign practices disclosed this to newsmen today after a fellow committee member, Sen. Curtis (R-Neb), proposed Harriman be called to testify between now and election day.

Gore said, however, he would be against bringing Harriman to the witness stand "unless we had something more substantial to go on" than the report cited by Curtis, a Drew Pearson newspaper column.

Gore added that Curtis' proposal nevertheless will be considered by the group. And the subcommittee's third member, Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont), said he would be inclined to vote in favor of Curtis' suggestion.

* * *

The report Curtis quoted said Harriman offered to pay expenses of Democratic convention delegates and also proffered such inducements as free whisky in an effort to win the nomination, which went to Adlai Stevenson.

Curtis stressed he was not vouching for the accuracy of the published report. But he said he thought Harriman should be given an invitation to comment on it, and he offered a formal motion to that effect. Gore was not present at the time and no action was taken on the proposal.

Harriman could not be reached for comment.

Churches Claim Member Mark

Parishioners Exceed 100 Million for 1st Time in History

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Council of Churches says church membership in the United States has soared beyond the 100 million mark for the first time in history.

* * *

The council reported the latest compilation of the Yearbook of American Churches lists 100,162,529 members of all faiths. That compares with 97,482,611 last year.

The population of the United States is an estimated 166 million.

GAINING FASTER

"Continuing an upsurge that goes back to World War II, church membership gains in the past year again outstripped population gains," the council report said. "There are 2.8 per cent more church members as against 1.8 per cent more people."

The council said membership includes 58,448,000 Protestants, 33,396,000 Roman Catholics and 5,500,000 of the Jewish faith.

Eastern Orthodox churches have 2,386,000 members.

Buddhists total 63,000 and Moslems an estimated 10,000 to 20,000.

"Translated into percentages," the report said, "the grand total shows that 60.9 per cent of Americans belong to churches, the highest percentage on record."

* * *

"One hundred years ago, in an age popularly considered to be devout, less than 20 per cent of Americans belonged to a church," the report added.

The council said Protestants gained by 1,324,425 members, or 2.3 per cent, during the year. The Roman Catholic membership grew by 993,515, or 3.1 per cent.

"In proportion to population, Protestants number 35.5 per cent; Roman Catholics, 20.3 per cent — virtually the same ration as has existed for many generations," the report said.

Eye Minnesota for Voting Trend

Expect Primary Today to Indicate How State Will Vote in November

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota's primary election today is considered largely a test of strength between Republicans and Democratic Farmer-Laborites DFL.

There were few real contests. But leaders of both parties said the results could point toward which would win in the November general election.

For a decade until 1954 the GOP consistently had turned out more voters for the primary. Two years ago the DFL drew 351,389 voters against 290,617 Republicans in the primary and went on to capture six of seven state offices previously held by the GOP.

Gov. Orville L. Freeman, the DFL incumbent, is conceded renomination. Ancher Nelsen, former national REA administrator, is expected to be his GOP opponent. Both have primary opposition but it is not regarded as challenging.

At stake in the primary, in addition to governor, are nominations for nine congressional seats, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, attorney general and railroad and warehouse commissioner.

Drawing special interest was the comeback attempt of Harold C. Hagen, Republican defeated two years ago in the 9th Dist. by Mrs. Coya Knutson (DFL). In the primary, Hagen is being opposed by State Sen. Norman Larson and August Doren, a farmer.

Ducks Jury Duty— Gets Week in Jail

LINCOLNTON, N.C. (AP)— Judge Hugh Campbell and Marshal Kirby, met in Lincoln superior court yesterday.

Kirby refused to serve jury duty. Said it was against his religion.

"What is your religion?" asked Judge Campbell.

"I'm a baptist," Kirby said.

"I'm a baptist, too," said the jurist, "and I don't have any objections."

"Seven days in jail."

Indians Take to Lawpath Fight Over Burial Ground

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — There's another Indian uprising, but this time its red man against red man, while the palefaces watch nervously.

Exactly 100 Kansas gathered here last night and signed a tribal roll as Wyandotte Indians.

This locks them in combat with their blood brothers, the Wyandottes of Oklahoma.

Back in 1855 the Wyandotte tribe assigned its Kansas lands to the United States and moved to a reservation in Oklahoma. A scattered few stayed here. Some cherished a burying ground that eventually was surrounded by this city's main business district.

* * *

Recently the Oklahoma Wyandottes disclosed they had slipped a bill through Congress giving them authority to sell the burying ground.

They estimated the land would bring 1½ million dollars.

The Oklahoma Wyandottes said last week the Kansas Wyandottes weren't on the tribal roll so they couldn't share in the money.

The Kansas group last night named as its "temporary chief" George D. Zane, 56, a hoisting engineer. He says he is a first cousin of the Oklahoma tribe's chief, Lawrence Zane, janitor at the Miami, Okla., post office.

* * *

"Back in 1937 the Wyandottes in Oklahoma made up their rolls and we didn't know anything about it," the Kansas Zane said. "The government said they were the official tribe of the Wyandottes and that's not exactly true."

Zane said the Kansas group was forming a separate tribe because "we just want to be on the official rolls of the Wyandotte tribe as recognized by the secretary of the interior."

* * *

"A sort of cold war" will be plotted by the Kansas Wyandottes, Zane said. They will go to court if necessary. He hopes it isn't.

"Actually," the chief said, "we probably are the most peaceful tribe of Indians Kansas has ever known."

Thanksgiving Is Coming— on Nov. 22, Folks

WASHINGTON (AP)—In case you have been wondering: Thanksgiving Day comes on Nov. 22 this year, the fourth Thursday in the month.

Sometimes there is confusion when November has five Thursdays as it does this year.

* * *

According to tradition, the fourth Thursday is the day normally proclaimed by presidents ever since George Washington set aside Nov. 26, 1789, as the nation's first Thanksgiving Day.

Tradition—and calendars—were altered temporarily when President Franklin D. Roosevelt picked the next-to-last Thursday in November for the holiday. Congress later passed a law specifying Thanksgiving should be celebrated on the fourth Thursday.

President Eisenhower probably will make it official this year with a proclamation in the fall.

Action Delayed: The Porkers Go Chomping Along

WRIGHT CITY, Okla. (AP) — A temporary truce has been reached in McCurtain County's open range dispute, involving hogs and their invasion of ranches, highways, gardens, flower beds—even stores and the Methodist church.

Ranchers objected to the porkers scrambling over their property but squatters, who own little farm land but lots of swine, declared the southeast Oklahoma drought has burned up all pastures and only the little patches of grass along the roads stand between the animals and starvation.

The county commissioners voted yesterday to delay until Oct. 1 any action on a petition calling for a special election to decide whether hogs shall be allowed to run free. The petition seeks to halt the practice in two precincts around Wright City.

Louis Monroe, a rancher, estimated there are 700 to 800 hogs running loose in and around Wright City, a lumber mill town of about 1,200.

Lady Moyne's Ninth— Follows the Pattern

LONDON (AP)—Lady Moyne has given birth to her ninth child, and Lord Moyne says he could hardly have been less surprised that the new arrival is a girl.

The children arrived in this order: girl boy girl boy girl boy girl boy girl.

Lord Moyne, 50-year-old poet, lawyer and vice chairman of the Guiness brewing firm, commented: "Astonishing, isn't it? There's no explanation for it—just one of those things."

Slaying Victim's Eyes May Help Man See

LANSING (AP) — An eye from a slain Ionia tavern keeper has been used in an attempt to give a Lansing man vision.

The eye belonged to Lothard D. Bekke, 50, who was shot to death Saturday by Louis Jensen, 63, who then killed himself. Police said a business deal was involved in the murder-suicide.

* * *

Two Lansing pathologists, with permission from Bekke's widow, removed his eyes Saturday and rushed them to Lansing, where the operation was performed on John Tarke, 37.

Tarke was blinded by a corneal dystrophy, a degenerative disease of the cornea. His right eye also was damaged.

The surgeon, who declined identification, said "It will be several weeks before we know if the operation was a success."

Do-Nut Shop in the Hole, Sues Phone Company

SEDALIA, Mo. (AP) — Two business firms today sued the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. for $70,000 over an erroneous listing in the Sedalia telephone book.

The Dixie Kitchen Food Products Co. and the Dixie Cream Do-Nut Shop said the telephone directory omitted the word "cream" in the doughnut shop's name.

They each asked $25,000 actual and $10,000 punitive damages, alleging the listing has caused the wrong business to get orders for doughnuts and pastries.

But Saloon Life Merely Bores 'Cab'

Only Parrot Can Thaw the Cafe Socialites

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Of all the notable types of boors in the world, none is more painful to watch than the New York cafe society habitue.

* * *

Here, generally, is a man with the dullest eyes, the thinnest lips, the shiniest nails and lapels, the stiffest dancing stance, and the most gorgeous, icy, listless woman in town.

To speak more than a dozen amenities to his companion in an evening is a mark of bad barroom breeding. And a smile . . . this is an affectation reserved not for the woman, not for the maitre d', not for his friends at the next table, but for the champagne, should the wine properly deserve it.

Only tourists show approval in the hoity-toitier bistros of Manhattan.

* * *

There is, in one of these spots, a female parrot who is older than rarest Scotch or, for that matter, anybody who patronizes the joint. And she is the only character we have observed around town who can make the veteran supper-clubber break down and appear rather to enjoy himself.

LIVES IN NIGHTERY

Her name is "Cab," after a woman who once owned her, and she resides in the black metal cage just above the "exit" sign and immediately to the left of the ladies room in "El Chico," an old Spanish nightery in Greenwich Village.

The bored ones approach Cab solicitously, as she is a famous perchmark in these parts, and they give her greeting.

At the age of 100, give or take a year, Cab can take it or leave it. Usually she just ruffles her green feathers as if in an agonizing effort to restrain her nausea.

But occasionally, when she is especially bored with it all or she doesn't like the looks of a guest or the smell of his breath, she speaks up.

* * *

"Hell," she says, in a tight, wrathful voice, with a parrot accent. "Ka ta hell."

DISLIKES SMALL TALK

Thereafter, she twitches her behind, widens her mildewed chest, and buries her head in her feathers. Like the nightclub habitue she has been forced to become, she doesn't care for small talk and only tolerates solicitous hellos.

* * *

"Her trouble is," says Benito Collada, the owner of El Chico, "she used to belong to Pancho Villa, and she apparently got used to a certain amount of excitement. Now, after being here for 31 years, she is jaded. She's heard too much Cole Porter. She's a cynic among parrots."

It was enlightening to spend a dinner and floor show hour next to Cab's cage, observing her attitudes toward saloon life.

When the six-piece band strikes up a rousing Spanish tune, she clicks her heels and comes to life, hopping joyously about her perch, emerald feathers flouncing.

* * *

"She likes the show," Collada says, "but hates waltzes. When they play waltzes, it's embarrassing. In the presence of waltzes or women, she sulks."

Little is known about Cob's history except that she lived with Pancho and his plunderers during her adolescent years and was given to an Englishwoman friend of Villa's 78 years ago. The Englishwoman willed her to Collado, and he built a restaurant around her.

* * *

During the years she's adorned and appalled the New York night spot, Cab has learned to drink. She has brandy with her coffee every night. It seems to soothe her.

"Keeps her from saying 'Goodnight everybody, goodbye, bye,' about 10 o'clock," said Collada. "I used to lose a lot of customers that way."

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1956

Makeup of Highest Court Changing

Retirement on Oct. 15 of Associate Justice Sherman Minton from the United States Supreme Court because of his health has political significance. The present Republican administration will be eanabled to name another member to the nine-man high tribunal.

★ ★ ★

Currently six Democrats and three Republicans comprise the court.

Associate Justices Black, Reed, Frankfurter, and Douglas were appointed by President Roosevelt. President Truman named Minton, Clark and Burton, the latter a Republican. President Eisenhower appointed Chief Justice Earl Warren and Associate Justice Harlan.

After a prominent political career in Indiana, Minton served his state in the U.S. Senate from 1935 to 1941, later was administrative assistant to President Roosevelt. He was a New Deal stalwart in the Senate but said he put partisanship aside when he went on the U.S. Circuit Court Bench, for the 8th district, in Chicago, in 1941. He was elevated to the highest court in 1949.

In Washington he has generally been considered a member of what has come to be known as the Supreme Court's "conservative bloc." He frequently voted with Justices Reed, Burton, Clark and more recently, Harlan.

Attorney Gen. Brownell has been mentioned frequently as a possible choice for the high court, but there is some doubt among high government officials that Eisenhower would pick Brownell.

New York's former Governor Thomas E. Dewey is another possibility. His ability in the legal field and as a prosecutor is well known, and the prominent spot he was given on the Republican convention program at San Francisco is indicative of his position in the party.

Coat-Tails Can Be So Important

An important phase of every big political campaign, not always easily recognized by the voters but well known to every politician, is dubbed "Operation Coat-Tails."

It is the device by which a candidate who may not quite make the grade on his own, rides to victory on the reflected popularity of another member of his team.

Both parties may be expected to make full use of this strategy in the barnstorming weeks ahead.

Possibly no complete count will ever be available of Democratic office holders who owe their success at the polls to the magnetic personality of Franklin D. Roosevelt. The same can be said in other years of Republican victors.

At San Francisco practically every gubernatorial and Congressional candidate at the convention was photographed with Ike, in preparation for the campaign in their respective areas. At Chicago candidates likewise snuggled up to their party presidential hopefuls before the cameras, although there was some frantic realignments as the nomination outlook changed from time to time.

The Democrats, however, are reported to have discovered a new approach to this well-worn gimmick. A study of 1952 returns revealed that in many states in which Adlai was far outdistanced by Ike, local Democratic candidates won easily over their Republican opponents.

Campaign strategists are reported to be planning a close tie up of their national candidates with the stronger local candidates in the hopes that the local strength of the ticket will bolster the popularity of the national ticket.

This is a reversal of the usual practice, but it sounds like good politics. It does not matter whose coat-tails you latch on to, providing the wearer of the coat is going places.

The Farmer Vote

Week's Poll Shows Unique Division of Preferences

Politics: What the dictionary says is the science and art of government. Does the dictionary need revising?

Figures for our poll since last Tuesday were mostly gathered from farmers from over one half the counties in our state. The greater part of them were taken at the annual meeting of the Michigan Grain Elevator Exchange at Lansing, attended by 250 delegates coming from nearly every county.

It was found that a majority of the farmers who raise 100 acres or more in crops will vote for Eisenhower. Among those who farm in a small way or only as a part time job while employed at some other work, the majority will vote Democratic on the head of the ticket.

This also holds true among 25 Oakland County farmers who cultivate from only a few acres up to 400 acres or more. Added to last Tuesday's totals, the figures on the poll to date are:

Eisenhower	134
Stevenson	117
Cobo	128
Williams	123

The "IC" Is Silent

David Lawrence Says:

Egypt Owes the West a Big Debt

WASHINGTON — Just 14 years ago thousands of British and French young men were dying to save Egypt.

* * *

Otherwise, Nasser today wouldn't have a canal to argue about. Maybe his boss would have been Hitler and his government a puppet of fascism.

The world forgets quickly the sacrifices made in a great cause. The very countries which are crying out about British and French "colonialism" are strangely indifferent to the human sacrifices made to enable Nasser to claim "sovereignty" over the canal.

The Nazis had two routes they could follow to capture Egypt. One was from the south through Italian East Africa, the other from the west through Libya.

WAVELL VS. ROMMEL

There were a number of critical battles. Some distinguished commanders—Gen. Wavell and Gen. Montgomery—were pitted against Gen. Rommel, the Nazi's military genius. When Mussolini declared war in June, 1940, he already had 200,000 troops in Libya, and Sept. 13 they invaded Egypt.

Three months later the British Army of the Nile pushed forward from inside Egypt and destroyed nine Italian divisions. The British had more than 100,000 troops under Wavell.

Then in March, 1941, Rommel moved into Libya. In April the famous siege of Tobruk occurred. Rommel figured if he could win Tobruk he could invade Egypt. See-saw fighting took place.

* * *

Rommel was on the attack again in January, 1942, and the British fell back. Eventually, June 21, 1942, Tobruk was captured by the Nazi armies. Allied losses were 23,000. Then the Allies retreated 325 miles to El Alamein in Egypt, about 60 miles west of Alexandria.

When on Aug. 31, 1942, Rommel advanced, he saw Egypt as a glittering prize. Montgomery stood firm at El Alamein, where the big battle began Oct. 23, 1942. It was a victory for the British. The U. S. forces were better able to come eastward through North Africa because of Allied successes in Egypt.

British Empire losses in North Africa from June, 1940, to the end of the war numbered 220,000 killed, wounded and taken prisoner. The French lost about 20,000. American casualties were about 18,500.

* * *

THE OTHER SIDE

It will be said, of course, the Allies had a strategic objective other than protection of Egypt itself. The danger that the Suez Canal might fall into the hands of the Nazis was, to be sure, a military fact that compelled the Allies to fight to save Egypt.

But the situation today is much the same. Unless the Suez Canal is protected from falling into the hands of the Soviet Union and her allies, the Western Allies are in danger of losing control of the Mediterranean in event of war.

Nasser has shown a willingness to play ball with the Communists. This means he is ready to risk a fight with the Western Allies to have the Suez within his complete control.

Egypt has been protected by the British for many decades. Originally in World War I there was a danger Turkey, then allied with Germany, might seize Egypt.

Throughout modern times the British and French have fought on the side of Egypt. The sacrifices made have given Egypt her chance. The net result has been ingratitude and a turning toward the enemies of the free world—the Communists.

One wonders why many Americans are so ready to denounce Britain and France for their "colonialism" when so much blood has been shed to give smaller countries the autonomy they have been granted by the British and French over a period of years.

* * *

Evidently the sacrifices have been forgotten at Cairo. Maybe Nasser ought to visit the battlefields of El Alamein, where the white crosses tell the story of what the British and French did to win freedom for the Egyptians and to assure safe passage of their ships through the Suez Canal.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Calcium Deficiency Cause for Weak Feet and Ankles

Variously called weak ankles, potential flatfoot, falling arches, talipes valgus, and weak feet, this developmental defect is very prevalent in ten to fifteen years of age. The distinguishing marks of the condition are prominence of the inner ankles and toeing out. In children with weak ankles there is usually no pain, just tiredness and weakness. In adolescents and adult there is usually pain in the feet and the legs.

Unhappily, many youngsters with weak feet fall into the hands of "experts" who are not physicians, because their parents or guardians harbor an odd notion that the feet are not a part of the body. Hence these children are "treated" with freak footwear, mechanical or manual manipulation, braces, arch props, and other expensive gadgets while they get better or worse, depending on nutrition.

Oh-oh, here we go again.

The main cause of fault of growth and development is, in my opinion, nutritional deficiency, specifically inadequate daily intake of calcium and vitamin D, in childhood and youth.

The best natural source of calcium is milk.

And the easiest way to make sure the youngsters shall suffer from calcium deficiency is to let them substitute tea, coffee or cocoa or some kind of pop—sweetened, colored, carbonated water—for milk in their everyday diet.

I have worried more than ever about the national malnutrition since the discovery that European children can chin themselves but American children cannot.

Every kid on Chapel Street in Canandaigua could chin himself in the golden days, and some could do flips or "air-springs," as we called 'em on Main Street lawns on our way to and from school.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to diseases, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

'People Sick of Politicians' Pettiness, Fault-Finding'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

In talks with people of both parties and independents, I find the majority of them get pretty sick of the continuous barrage of knocking by Democrat speakers and the impossible promises they make.

Stevenson is reported to have said that if elected the Democrats would repeal conscription. Mr. Stevenson knows full well as long as the Communists remain a continuous threat to the world and a free U.S., we shall be compelled to have conscription. The American Legion and all service organizations together with all thoughtful Americans know that conscription is the only just way we have to obtain the defense man power we must have.

Politicians make such promises to catch the thoughtless voter.

The most outstanding feature of the 20-year Democrat regime, and one which they take great pains not to mention, is the three wars within that Democrat era and the horrible consequences of those wars.

All voters should visit V.A. and other hospitals and see the living death of the shell-shocked, the armless, the legless, the faceless torn bodies. They should witness the unutterable suffering that will be those soldier victims' lot until a merciful death for them ends it all.

Now every patriotic American should be giving his best efforts to aid an efficient administration by a world famous general who knows how hellish war is and who now is doing everything in the power of a president to keep the peace which he accomplished at his election.

Instead, what is the sordid picture we see? Our president is hindered and obstructed by a continuous barrage of petty fault-finding and baseless accusation from office-seeking politicians.

Such politicians put their own personal and party selfishness above the peace we now have, plus the greatest peacetime employment and prosperity in U.S. history.

Hal Boyle Says:

Sociologist Provides Aid for Enemies of Suburbia

NEW YORK (AP) — Reflections of a Pavement Plato:

Early in life I was frightened by a suburb, and I can't quite get over it.

* * *

"You ought to conquer this childish fear and buy you a place in the suburbs," my friends tell me. "Man, then you'll really start living."

COMMON SENSE?

Now and then, when wearied momentarily of the city, I do consider taking such a step. But always at the last moment something stops me. I don't know what it could be—unless it's common sense.

* * *

But this time it was a sociologist who came to my rescue, just when I was about to join my old friend, Ronald Halfacre, and buy a shiny new house in a new development called Miasma Heights.

The sociologist was Dr. Ernest R. Mowrer of Northwestern University, who has just completed a clinical study of suburban living. To me, at least, his survey destroyed several myths about the joys of dwelling in the suburbs.

* * *

One of the myths is how neighborly everybody is. That may be true at the start, when the suburb is new and everyone has the same problems—how to fight crabgrass, how to pay for the new school, and how to keep the cellar from flooding.

BREAK INTO CLIQUES

But Dr. Mowrer found that as suburbs age they get social hardening of the arteries. They break up into cliques and groups, and neighbors mean no more to you than they do in the big city—except they can get in your hair more. You can't call the landlord and make them behave, as you can when you are an apartment dweller in town. You either have to put up with them or call the cops, and if you do that you have a Hatfields vs. McCoys situation.

* * *

Children deserve the best break you can give them in life, of course, but in the suburbs papa is often a worker bee who lets his kids become drones.

"There is little doubt," observed Dr. Mowrer, commenting on this, "that parents indulge and pamper their children as never before."

* * *

He found the typical suburban family has 3.8 members. Presumably this consists of a mother, two children and 8-10ths of a man, the father.

ODD RELATIONSHIPS

But it was the strange husband and wife relationship that startled me most.

* * *

"The two roles which most eloquently characterize suburban life of adults," wrote Dr. Mowrer, "are the role of chauffeur, which the suburban wife plays, and that of the handyman, which the husband plays."

And the two get all mixed up. Papa finds himself doing all kinds of household duties which have traditionally been regarded as feminine; Mom often performs such masculine chores as shoveling snow off the sidewalk.

* * *

After thinking it all over, I've decided to remain a suburbophobe —a man with a real fear of dwelling in the outer spaces. Thanks to Dr. Mowrer, I know now my fears are not phantasms but based on solid fact.

STICK TO THE CITY

Let Ronald Halfacre and all his kind make their long voyage home by the railroad timetable, if they choose.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Successful Speakers Talk Simply

Joel's mother-in-law knows more about public speaking, though she never went to college, than Joel does after eight years at the university and theological seminary. For she has "horse sense" and this is far superior to mere college degrees. Indeed, if you lack horse sense, your college degrees make a handicap to churches, schools or business firms.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-362: Joel L., aged 29, is a brilliant clergyman.

"Dr. Crane, he has had 8 years of college and theological training," his devout mother-in-law informed me recently when I was lecturing in Kansas.

* * *

"But he puts his parishioners to sleep. Oh, he is vaguely aware of his poor speaking ability.

"So he tries to construct even more profound sermons for the following weeks. He really works hard at it.

"However, that isn't the answer. People aren't very enthusiastic about abstract problems stated in five-syllable words, do you think, Dr. Crane?

"So I wish you'd mail him your booklet on 'How to Make an Interesting Speech.' Please enclose it in this plain envelope and mail it from Chicago so he will not suspect me."

PREACHERS ARE SALESMEN

Clergymen are really salesmen of ethical ideas. And a cardinal law of salesmanship was uttered by Jesus when he stated:

"Cast not your pearls before swine lest they trample them under their feet and turn again and rend you."

What does that mean?

"Talk in language the customer (or parishioner) can understand."

Yesterday I pointed out a critical flaw in many erudite psychology professors who suffer from a scientific inferiority complex and then take it out on their innocent students by making the courses dull, dry and unnecessarily cloaked in jawbraker terms.

Many seminary graduates are addicted to this same craving to spout polysyllables and concoct profound sermons.

Jesus talked simply. Even the uneducated could understand his language.

He also used stage materials and dramatic illustrations. Remember when he held aloft a coin and asked whose image and superscription were on it?

* * *

Or how he set a little child in the midst of them? Or called "shorty" Zacchaeus down from the sycamore tree?

All teachers, whether in the schools or in the pulpits, should learn the cardinal rules of sales psychology. Here they are:

SALES PSYCHOLOGY

(1) Be fully charged with enthusiasm about your product or ideas, for a dead storage battery can't pass along any electrical energy to light up others. And a salesman must be able to light up "cold" prospects.

(2) Demonstrate your product or ideas by concrete examples drawn from the daily experience of the customers. Jesus employed parables for this purpose.

(3) Enlist "audience participation", as by letting the customer aid in the demonstration or taste a sample of the product.

Applied to churches, it means get children into the pulpit to help the clergyman conduct practical demonstrations. And farm out as many items of ritual as possible for others to perform.

(4) Then learn a surefire formula for your sales talk or sermon. Start out with a striking statement to catch attention. This is your "text."

Then expand and document your theme with actual cases, told in narrative style. Story telling will give any speaker a much higher Nielsen rating than exposition or technical instruction.

Finally, tie the wheat in the sack, which means, fade out with a punchy terminal st atement.

It adds more "oomph" or scholarly ritz if you can quote some famous person or conclude with a bit of verse which caps your climax.

For further advice, send for my booklet "How to Make an Interesting Speech," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

It applies to scholarly preachers as well as to salesmen and high schoolers.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 50c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Utah Governor Seeks 3rd Term

GOP Split Over Lee; Sen. Watkins Backing Clyde

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Interest in Utah's primary today centered on Gov. J. Bracken Lee's bid for nomination for an unprecedented third term.

* * *

Although there are a total of 118 contests, mostly minor, the bid by the controversial Lee has gained the most attention.

The governor's contest with George D. Clyde, Utah Water and Power Board chairman, in the Republican gubernatorial primary and a heated Democratic gubernatorial race brought predictions of a record primary vote.

Lee has drawn attacks from leaders of both parties in the final week of campaigning.

* * *

The hardest blow was struck by a member of his own party—the influential Sen. Arthur V. Watkins, Utah's senior senator. Last week Watkins publically endorsed Clyde for governor.

Watkins said he took the action in a move for party harmony. Instead, the split between pro-Lee and anti-Lee elements in the party has widened.

Lee has made national headlines by refusing to pay part of his 1955 income tax, by criticizing many features of the Eisenhower administration program and by advocating that the United States withdraw from the United Nations.

* * *

Lee refused to pay his tax because he believes it is unconstitutional to use tax money for foreign aid. The government collected by seizing his bank accounts.

The Democratic candidates for governor are John Boyden, a Salt Lake attorney, and Salt Lake City Commissioner L. C. Romney.

Upset Judge Upsets Plea for 4th Divorce

DENVER (AP)—Judge Joseph E. Cook yesterday denied the divorce petition of Mrs. Mina E. Romo, 24, seeking to shed her fourth mate.

He said he sent Mrs. Romo home "to think over the serious aspects of the marriage relationship."

The judge said he became particularly upset when he learned Mrs. Romo lived with her first husband a year, the second for two months, and the third for nine months.

Mrs. Romo married her fourth husband, Joseph B. G. Romo, Oct. 30, 1954, and sued him for divorce Nov. 1, 1955.

Shot Oakdale Gardens Man Denies Robbery

James E. Taylor, 45-year-old Oakdale Gardens man who reportedly was shot by a Ferndale gas station employe whom Taylor tried to rob at knifepoint May 25, yesterday pleaded innocent to a charge of armed robbery. No trial date was set.

Taylor was arraigned yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court after his recovery from stomach wounds. He was remanded to jail under $2,500 bond continued by Judge H. Russell Holland.

Japan City Wiped Out by Typhoon-Blown Fire

UOZU, Japan (AP) — More than 1,750 homes were destroyed today by a fire that virtually wiped out the center of this city of 47,000 persons 150 miles west of Tokyo. A typhoon wind of 30 m.p.h. fanned the flames.

Police said 1 person was killed, 22 were missing and 55 were injured. Firemen fought the blaze six hours before bringing it under control.

More than 8,000 persons were left homeless. Authorities estimated damages at $4,150,000.

Stands Mute to Charge of Pulling Gun on Police

A Royal Oak man charged with pulling a gun on a township policeman May 22, stood mute yesterday at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court on a charge of resisting arrest.

Judge H. Russel Holland entered a plea of innocent for Dove Cochran, who police say, pointed the gun at Robert Hawkins. Hawkins was about to arrest Cochran for assault and battery.

PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA

Bob Considine Says:

U. S. Must Find Answer to Farm Troubles

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Taxpayers (including the farmer) will pay the American farmer about $4,000,000,000 this year for a variety of services rendered, including the service or not doing what he was born to do, which is raise all the crops the good earth and hard work will yield.

* * *

The farmer will be promised even more in the years to come, in the course of the impending campaign oratory.

Yet this aid program has resulted in the accumulation of more than $9,000,000,000 in farm surpluses, paid for by the taxpayer. Storage costs amount to $1,000,000 a day, seven days a week.

Leveling those towering mountains of surplus produce is as much the deep-furrowed concern of the Eisenhower administration as it was of the Truman regime.

* * *

If we give it away to the starving countries, we offend certain countries which are barely hanging on to solvency, sovereignty and sanity by selling similar stuff to the hungry country. If we don't, we're blasted in the Communist world as pitilessly selfish.

If we try to sell it at full price, the markets are inclined to shy away and await better terms. If we sell it at a cut rate, to recapture at least a bit of the dizzy fortune invested, the big trade nations scream that we are underselling them.

* * *

In traditionally friendly Canada, which now has a half billion bushel wheat surplus, there is a rare anti-USA feeling.

* * *

INDUSTRIAL SOLUTION?

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind) and others have been demanding for years that consideration be given to finding ways and means of absorbing farm surpluses by means of industrial use.

* * *

For example, if all the rubber used in the U. S. were made from grain (350 bushels can be reduced to one long ton of synthetic rubber) the grain surplus could be wiped out in a year. There are comparable opportunities in all forms of alcohol, plastics and fuel.

The newspaper you are reading has a bit of vegetable starch mixed in it. It helps extend the supply of precious newsprint, now selling up to $150 a ton. If too much starch "stretcher" is put in, the paper becomes brittle.

But if a way is found safely to double the small amount of starch used (5 per cent), we could use up 100,000,000 bushels of corn starch every year.

* * *

Sen. Capehart proposed legislation of breathtaking scope, based on this industrial use of surpluses and farm products to come.

He envisioned a day of doubled farm markets, the wiping out of costly farm support programs, a heady increase in farm income, reduced taxes and better times for all—all speeded by federal-backed research. The bill didn't get out of committee.

Now the President has appointed J. Leroy Welsh, famed Omaha grain man, as head of a committee to make a thorough study of how to use up the grain and other surpluses (cotton, eggs, milk, etc.) and to think beyond that.

* * *

The committee is meeting in executive session at the Department of Agriculture building this week (though it is not a part of the department and specifically told Ike it does not want to be). It will draft suggested legislation for the new Congress.

"No nation in history ever survived the destruction if its agriculture," self-made man Welsh told us. "Paying a farmer not to produce is no way to settle the problem.

"That's like suggesting that we close up all our schools of agriculture, shut down the fertilizer plants and turn off the irrigation. That would hold down production, too, but nobody would be crazy enough to suggest it."

U.S. industry has gobbled up most of our scientists, contends the man who was born in Prairie Home, Neb., population 22, and is the only non-college graduate who is a regent of the University of Nebraska.

Agriculture must get industry's scientists or their know-how to help it find a way out of the verdant jungle, he says. He is sure his commission can suggest roads to an era of plenty which might well turn in its tracks the enormous rush of millions of Americans from the farms to the cities.

"In the past 25 years about 98 per cent of all farm research money has been spent on increasing production and only 2 per cent on consumption," Welsh snorted. "We hope to lower those odds."

* * *

Welsh, former partner in the grain business of Hugh Butler, late senator from Nebraska, scoffed at efforts to draft him as senatorial nominee from that state.

Independently wealthy Welsh, who looks a bit like Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark, said, "why should I get mixed up in politics? I don't like criticism so why should I expose myself to it when I don't have to?"

He's convinced, however, that the economic future of the nation hangs on the agriculture revolution to which he is dedicating his payless services.

MSU Band Starts 2-a-Day Practices

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State University's 125-piece marching band started drills Monday.

The bandsmen will hold two-a-day rehearsals during the pre-season practice period.

In addition to the four home football games, the band will play at the Michigan, Notre Dame and Illinois away games this year.

Leonard V. Falcone, starting his 30th year as band director, says he has rebuilding problems. Less than half the musicians who made the Rose Bowl trip are returning.

Drum major again this season will be Archie Patton Jr. of Mt. Morris, a senior due to graduate in December.

Michigan Wins Driver Training Award

An award of excellence, the nation's top citation of its kind, was granted Michigan and 14 other states for its 1955-56 school year driver education program.

Michigan ranked second out of 48 states and the District of Columbia in total points. Ninety per cent of Michigan's public, private and parochial schools offer driver training courses and 78 per cent of students eligible are enrolled in these courses.

Beginning February 1, 1957, the Michigan driver education law will go into effect, requiring the completion of a driver education course by persons under 18 years of age applying for an operator's license.

In Pontiac, there are a potential 1900 young people who will be required to take a driver training course if they wish to apply for their operator's license. This includes private and parochial school students as well as public school students.

At the present time, Pontiac Senior High School is the only school handling a driver training program. Headed by George Stewart, 600 students will be taken care of this school year. Summer school and private school students will increase this number substantially.

CARS AVAILABLE

With the completion of the new high school, driver-training facilities are expected to be increased.

In addition to Stewart, Elmer Lee, Ralph Grubb and Burl Glendenning will be instructing the classes. The nine week course will be divided between class work and behind-the-wheel experience.

Four cars are now available to the driver-training program through the courtesy of the Pontiac Retail Store.

In addition to the cars, an orthorater has been donated by the Pontiac Association of Insurance Agents. This machine will test depth perception, color perception and visual acuity.

A special projector with a magnetic sound track is also being used along with a special film library. Stewart said it is hoped that the projector will enable the driver training classes to make films of their own for future use.

* * *

Class room work will stress the ultimate aim of all driver training classes, proper attitude and courteous, safe driving. Maintenance and study of the elementary function and operation of a car will also be taught.

* * *

Insurance and applications to teen-agers, rules of the road, and lectures by visiting law enforcement officers on state and local levels will round out the program.

* * *

"It is our opinion," said Stewart on behalf of the four driver training instructors, that the program is probably the best thing that has happened to teen-agers. We have high hopes it will reduce fatalities and make Michigan one of the safest states."

Ed Muskie of Maine Imparts Air of Sincerity

AUGUSTA, Maine (AP)—The tall, curly-haired Democrat who won all but unprecedented second term as governor on Maine's minority party ticket is the son of an immigrant tailor from Poland.

* * *

At 42, Ed Muskie is still boyish-looking. His manner is easy, confident and imparts an air of sincerity.

Muskie grew up in the paper-making town of Rumford. He worked his way through Bates College, graduating with honors in 1936. He earned a law degree at Cornell, then went into the Navy during World War II.

As an engineering officer aboard destroyers, he won three battle stars and served both in the Atlantic and Pacific.

After the war he resumed practicing law at Waterville, got elected to the Maine House of Representatives and was minority leader in two sessions.

His pretty wife Jane, who is 29, helped him in his 1954 campaign, when he beat Republican Gov. Burton M. Cross by 22,000 votes.

But she took little part in the campaign this year as she is expecting her third child in November. The Muskies already have a son, Stephen, and a daughter, Ellen.

Muskie's popularity has been attributed in part to his personal magnetism, in part to his ability to work with a Republican-dominated Legislature and a Governor's Council composed wholly of the opposition party's representatives.

* * *

A good part of his legislative program was adopted by the Legislature in 1955.

One of his most popular moves was creation of a new State Department of Development, which many people consider has helped the state industrially.

Egypt Is Historically Uneasy

Britain Sees Suez as Stepping Stone to Old Power

By WILTON WYNN

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—This troubled city should have been born under a lucky star, but fate decreed otherwise.

When Caliph Moizz planned Cairo, he ordered a rope strung around the city's boundaries. Bells were strung on the rope. When astrologers signaled that a lucky star was in ascendancy, that rope was to be pulled, the bells rung and construction work begun instantly.

A crow upset the plan. It landed on the rope and rang the bells.

Astrologers sadly told the caliph the work had begun on Cairo under the sign of the planet Mars—an ill omen foretelling wars and disaster.

* * *

A thousand years have passed. Cairo long since has spilled over its old walls and sprawled out as a modern metropolis on the banks of the Nile. But its people gloomily ponder the evil omen.

Cairo again is threatened by war.

Egyptians have nervously watched the buildup of British and French forces in the eastern Mediterranean, poised to move into Egypt at the first provocation in the quarrel over the Suez Canal.

The buildup began shortly after President Gamal Abdel Nasser nationalized the Suez Canal Co. July 26.

A new sense of urgency was injected into the situation when the five-nation Menzies mission to Cairo failed to bridge the gap between Egyptian sovereignty over the canal and Western demands for international control.

The fatalistic Egyptians say Egypt gets dragged into war after war through the meddling of outsiders rather than anything that Egyptians do.

"Look at the Suez Canal," an Egyptian said. "Planned by foreigners, built by foreigners, used by foreigners and now drawing foreign armies into our country."

The Egyptians still hoped the military buildup was only a bluff, but Britons who claimed to know their government's attitude insisted it was dead serious.

One Briton explained:

* * *

"Ever since Abadan (the Iranian oil center lost by the British in Iran's nationalization decree of 1951), the British position in the Middle East has been collapsing and the loss of that position meant the end of Britain as a world power.

"Britain would have slipped into poverty. But now this Nasser has given us a chance to come back and we intend to take it. He grabbed the canal and that gives us every reason to move back in by force. When we return to that canal base, we once again will become a world power. No other Arab state will dare violate contracts with us. Our oil will be safe."

Such talk has led Egyptians to fear that Britain does not want a Suez compromise, that the British demand either an Egyptian surrender or reoccupation of the canal zone. The Egyptians hope to counter the threat with the following:

1. Intervention of the United States to avert use of force.

* * *

2. The Egyptians see the Soviet Union as another restraining power, though they have said little about direct Soviet support.

3. The Egyptians count heavily on public opinion inside Britain itself.

* * *

4. Finally the Egyptians look to the United Nations. They have studied the idea of complaining to the Security Council against the British and French threats. Nasser himself realizes, however, that Egypt would not get far in the council, where both Britain and France have veto power.

Wiley's Future at Stake Today

Senator Fighting Party in Wisconsin Primary, Light Vote Expected

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) placed his political future in the hands of Wisconsin voters today.

* * *

The 72-year-old senator from Chippewa Falls, who has represented Wisconsin for the past 18 years, sought the Republican nomination in the state's primary election in the face of his party's opposition.

* * *

And he was favored to beat both the man his party chose to endorse over him, 41-year-old Rep. Glenn Davis of Waukesha, and a comparative unknown, Howard H. Boyle, 35, Shorewood attorney.

Wiley, who has voted consistently with the Eisenhower administration on foreign policy matters, drew the censure of the Republican State Convention two years ago for his opposition to the Bricker amendment. The state GOP had gone on record in favor of the proposal to limit treaty-making powers of the President.

Wiley's bid for a fourth term was spurned last May by the state convention, which instead endorsed Davis. Wiley, who had received endorsement in previous conventions, called the Davis endorsement an action of "kingmakers." The endorsement carried with it the financial backing of the state GOP.

Two Democrats were fighting for the right to run against the Republican senatorial nominee. They were State Sen. Henry Maier, 38, and Elliot Walstead, 50, former state party chairman. Maier, supported by Milwaukee labor, was favored to win.

* * *

Despite a controversy over Sen. privilege and a question about the procedure used by followers of Davis in filing campaign expenses on his behalf, the race failed to develop much statewide interest.

Election Result Is in the Bag—Popcorn, That Is

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Jim Blevins thinks he knows how to find out who has the Presidential election victory in the bag — and he has already started popping the question in the popcorn poll.

* * *

Blevins doesn't go in for small scientific opinion samples. He plans a mass check on the sentiments of millions of popcorn eaters. Blevins is, of course, in the popcorn business.

He is putting out 25 million containers to vendors, half of them picturing the Republicans' Eisenhower-Nixon and half the Democrats' Stevenson-Kefauver. Certified public accountants will tabulate consumer preferences.

* * *

If you're inclined to take your popcorn polls with a grain of salt, consider this: Blevins says the 1952 popcorn vote called the turn precisely.

Heart Attack Kills Guest in Hotel Fire

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Fire swept through 14 rooms of the Seminole Hotel in downtown Jacksonville last night, and one guest died—apparently of a heart attack—in the excitement.

Deputy Fire Chief J. J. Harvey blamed "smoking in bed" for the blaze, which broke out on the eighth floor of the 10-story structure about 9:30 p.m.

The fire was quickly controlled. About 170 guests of the 240-room hotel were evacuated — some on firemen's ladders.

Several persons required first aid for smoke and cuts from broken glass.

Examination Ordered in Indency Charge

A 24-year-old Oxford man charged with taking indecent liberties with a 11-year-old Pontiac girl Aug. 20 yesterday was remanded to Pontiac Municipal Court for further examination.

Thomas Bailey had been examined on the charge Sept. 5 by Judge Maurice E. Finnegan. Bailey remained free under a $200 bond continued by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

BACK TO SCHOOL — 2

The Little Red Schoolhouse

As the American nation grew, a Little Red Schoolhouse appeared in nearly every community. It was painted red because red paint was cheaper than other colors and wore better.

Boys and girls often had to walk miles over country roads, carrying their books and their lunch boxes to reach the school. Pupils of all ages studied in a single room under one teacher. Although many communities were too poor to pay well-educated teachers, children all over the land learned literature, poetry and history through a series of readers prepared by an educator named McGuffy.

Here is a picture of a typical Little Red Schoolhouse. When you color it with your crayons remember to make it red. Then paste it down on cardboard, and cut out the parts carefully. Cut the opening around three sides of the door, and fold it forward on the fourth side. Paste the small picture behind the opening so that when the door is opened you can see one of the pupils standing there with a big brass bell in her hand calling the children to class.

Fold the panel at the right forward and the picture will stand.

(For being the first to suggest this, Christine White, Ashland, Ala., wins $10. Send in your ideas care of this newspaper. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Wants Divorce Date Set—After 51 Years

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Charles L. Shulz, 79, wants a trial date set for her divorce case—filed 51 years ago.

Mrs. Shulz originally filed suit Sept. 26, 1905, two years after her marriage. She said she had lived with her husband only three weeks when he disappeared.

All efforts to find Shulz have failed. Meanwhile, no action was taken on the divorce.

Now, Mrs. Shulz says, she wants to "set my mind at ease."

Her case will come up next month.

Want to Incorporate

FERRYSBURG (AP) — Petitions with 215 names ask the Ottawa County Board of Supervisors to place on the Nov. 6 ballot a proposal for incorporating the Ferrysburg area as a fifth-class city. A special election may be required because the law stipulates a vote be taken 40 to 90 days after approval by the county board. The petition has been revised from an earlier plan which the supervisors rejected in July.

Nagging Wife Needs Own Interest

By ANNE HEYWOOD

There is an old saying attributed to Mark Twain, which goes like this: "It is noble to help yourself. It is even nobler to help others—and also, easier!"

* * *

I think of that when women write me for advice on how to help their husbands get ahead.

It is true, of course, that a wife's attitude, temperament and personality can have a good or bad effect upon her husband's career. But only indirectly—not directly.

The woman who drops everything, so to speak, and devotes herself to telling hubby how to get a raise, what to say to That Man in the corner office and, in general, to running his life, is going to ruin the career of any husband in the world.

* * *

All too often they do it because, as Mark Twain says, it is easier to help hubby than to take care of Topic A—oneself.

MRS. L.'S PROBLEM

That is what is wrong with Mrs. L.

* * *

She writes:

"My husband has a promising job in a big insurance company, but he is not progressing as rapidly as he should be. I think it's because he isn't very good at public speaking.

"Public speaking is very important in the business world. I happen to know because, before I was married, I had a good job where addressing groups of people was one of my duties.

"But Jake simply won't hear of taking a course in it. It doesn't interest him and he says he's busy enough perfecting the other aspects of his job and taking courses that he needs."

* * *

Then she goes on and on about how stubborn her husband is; that if he loved her and the kids, wouldn't he want to get ahead? And so forth.

A SENSIBLE MAN

It's clear to see that Jake is a sensible, hard-working man whose talents do not lie in the public speaking line.

If she will leave him alone, he will no doubt end up being comptroller or treasurer of the company.

But his wife wants to "help him" by getting him to work along the lines that interest her.

The answer, of course, is easy.

Mrs. L must leave Jake and his career alone and get busy doing some public speaking herself.

VOLUNTEER JOBS

Right now, with young children, she may have to limit herself to part-time volunteer jobs for her local women's club or political group.

They need speakers, and it will give her a chance to put her energy to use so that she will leave her husband to develop his own abilities and be successful in his own way.

If you find yourself meddling with your husband's career, resolve to channel that energy into your own life.

If you don't know what interests you, send me six cents in postage, care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you my "Housewives' Career Guide."

Storing Clothes? Clean Them First

Best bet for keeping summer clothes in good shape during the winter is to have them dry cleaned or laundered before putting them away. Press them, too, but never put them away starched.

Cover them with garment bags and hang them away in a closet. You won't be caught at the end of next May with a crumpled, dingy assortment of clothing.

Man Hates to Explain Handicap

He Fears Women Will Consider Him Unmannered

By EMILY POST

"How can a man manage a handicap which is not evident without emphasizing it or showing himself up as unmannered? I had infantile paralysis in childhood which makes it impossible for me to lift either arm high enough to help a lady on with her coat.

"There are many times arising in which I have to either be illmannered or go into an explanation which rather embarrasses me. My friends know or can be told, but in the other situations calling for my help I am at a loss to know what to say."

Answer: When really necessary, the best thing to do is to say briefly: "Sorry I can't help you; I have a bad arm."

"Dear Mrs. Post: My engagement ring is of platinum, and the wedding ring which I have chosen is of yellow gold. Will you please tell me if this combination is in good taste, or whether I should choose a wedding ring to match my engagement ring as they will be worn together. Please let me hear from you soon, as my wedding is not too far off."

Answer: You can have whatever you like. Many brides prefer gold for the wedding ring and they wear the gold ring next to the engagement platinum ring.

"Dear Mrs. Post: The men in my husband's office call their secretaries by first names which I do not think is proper. When I went to business, which was quite a few years ago, the young women were always called Miss So and So. Has office protocol changed, or is it still proper for a secretary to be called Miss by her employer?"

Answer: It is still in very best taste for an employer to call his secretary "Miss."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cook of North Perry street announce the engagement of their daughter, Marlene Ann, to Carl J. Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Olson Jr. of Wilmington, Del., formerly of Pontiac. No date has been set for the wedding.

Happy Thoughts Will Chase Gloom

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

You know I think that we often act as though our thoughts and emotions are as firmly attached to us as our teeth and hair and the nose on our face! We do whatever comes naturally, and we say to ourselves, "That's just the way I am!"

* * *

We have emotional habits and habits in mental outlook which are even stronger than the habit of nail biting or raising our eyebrows. They ARE habits!

We blame them all on our inheritance. In physical characteristics and mental capacity this is certainly true. Even in emotional tendencies this is true to a certain extent because these seem to be dictated by our glandular setup which is inherited.

However, if you indulge in fits of temper, willy nilly, because "Your old man did," or if you are weeping all the time because your "Aunt Susie had a sensitive temperament," you are a candidate for trouble.

* * *

The important thing is to recognize your inherited characteristics in temperament, figure, viewpont, and even in eating habits. Make hay with the good ones but admit your handicaps so far as the bad ones are concerned.

DO SOMETHING

These really are not so firmly attached to you as you may think. Once you recognize your inherited handicaps you can do something about them. This will take practice.

It is entirely possible, with practice and if you really want to do so to replace an unhappy thought with a happy one. This is no Pollyanna theory. It is sheer and possible "mental surgery" which you can do yourself, if you have a mind to.

With practice you can replace an unhappy thought with a happy one. It is "mental surgery" which you can do for yourself, if you have a mind to.

It will not be easy and you may not be able to forget your trouble entirely but you can concentrate on happy thoughts and keep yourself interested and busy.

We fall into emotional habits sometimes without realizing that we have done so. We may have the habit of being critical, of looking on the gloomy side of things, of being sensitive or weepy. All these place a damper on vibrant living and certainly are detrimental to health and are fatal to personality.

INVESTIGATE HABITS

While improving our posture and our figure it might be well to investigate our habits in thinking and feeling. Many times destructive mental and emotional habits come from a state of lowered health, from nervous exhaustion.

Maxine Miller Becomes Bride of Bruce E. Smiley

Three hundred guests attended the wedding Saturday evening of Maxine Miller and Bruce E. Smiley. The candlelight ceremony was performed at 7 p.m. at First Methodist Church, Birmingham, by the Rev. Arnold Runkel.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony.

Maxine, the daughter of Mrs. Toni Miller of South East boulevard, wore a princess style gown with a square neckline and fitted bodice of Chantilly lace. The long sleeves came to points at the wrists. Her skirt and bridal train were of parchment taffeta.

She wore pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom and carried a cascade arrangement of stephanotis and pompons centered with a white orchid. A cloche type headpiece trimmed with seed pearls held her fingertip veil of Chantilly lace.

SISTER TAKES PART

Mrs. William Cartier, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. She was gowned in powder blue crystallette of ballerina-length. Mrs. Herbert Cole of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Mary Ann Peterson of St. Paul, Minn., wore cotillion blue dresses styled, similarly to the matron of honor's.

Kaye McMullen of Caro was junior bridesmaid. She wore cotillion blue. The bridal attendants carried crescent shaped bouquets of bronze glamellias.

Bruce, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Smiley of Birmingham, had Jack Hardy of Birmingham as his best man. Norman Goddard and David Mayien of Birmingham, Thomas Miller of Kalamazoo and Alered Haylena of Cleveland seated the guests.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Joseph R. Miller.

RECEPTION HELD

For the reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Miller wore a powder blue lace dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Smiley chose an azure blue peau de soie sheath. Her flowers were cymbidium orchids.

The new Mrs. Smiley changed to a cotton silk black and copper two-piece dress with black accessories for traveling. She wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

On their return from a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. and New York City, the newlyweds will live on Green street.

'Elvis' Clothes to Start New Trend

By OLGA CURTIS

NEW YORK (INS) — Rock 'n' roller Elvis Presley is starting a new teenage movement.

"Elvis the Pelvis" has okayed the manufacture of "Elvis Presley" clothing, and New York's garment district is already predicting it will be the biggest fashion movement since Davy Crockett.

"Elvis looks better than Davy Crockett right now," enthused a spokesman for "Elvis Presley Jeans." The jeans, like all other items with the rock-n-roller's license, are strictly from Elvis — tight, black and stitched with green seams.

"Black and green are Elvis' favorite colors," explained Harold Bell, New York merchandise director for Elvis Presley enterprises — a concern consisting of Elvis, his dad and his manager.

Bell said 12 companies have been given the "Elvis" label already. The list includes every possible wearable item of teenage clothing except blue suede shoes.

TWO-TONE SNEAKERS

"We've got sneakers instead," Bell said. "Green and black sneakers, of course."

* * *

Bell, who admitted the "Elvis" clothing will probably sell better to teenage girls than to boys, listed crew hats, belts, leather thong ties, shirts, T-shirts, jeans, socks, pajamas, necklaces, charm bracelets, scarves, wallets, purses and girls' sportswear.

Most of the clothing will carry Elvis' picture or one of the rock 'n' roller's symbols — hound dogs and guitars.

All the items will flood department and chain stores across the country next week, and the manufacturers involved are marking their profit ledgers in glee at the response.

* *

"Elvis' home town, Tupelo, Miss., is going to have an Elvis Presley day Sept. 25th to celebrate a special sale of Elvis T-shirts," announced Stan Levitt of the Allison Mfg. Co., which has the T-shirt and pajama concession.

PICTURE, TOO

The shirts carry a portrait of Elvis right across the chest.

"We hope to add sweaters and zippered jackets to the list soon," Bell noted. "And next year, there's going to be an Elvis Presley guitar."

* * *

Bell said the rock-n-roll singer is taking his fashion role seriously.

"Elvis tried on everything," he declared. "He was very particular about each item."

Bell refused to estimate, however, how much Elvis expects to make from the license fees on clothing using his name. The Davy Crockett fad racked up an estimated billion dollars in sales, and Levitt said:

"Elvis is selling better than Davy."

Financing 'Cheapies' May Violate Auto Law

LANSING (AP) — State Rep. Willard I. Bowerman Jr. (R-Lansing) has asked an attorney general's opinion on what he said appeared to be illegal procedures in the financing of low price used cars.

* * *

Bowerman, who heads an interim legislative committee investigating auto financing practices, said witnesses have testified it's a common practice for dealers to refer customers to small loan companies for financing.

These companies in turn made the proceeds of the loan out in the form of a check payable to the borrower and the dealer, he said.

"My committee is inclined to think that this subterfuge is a violation of the Automobile finance Act which controls rates," Bowerman said.

* * *

He gave an example showing that a customer buying a $300 car would pay a true interest rate of 24 per cent, the legal maximum, if the paper were placed with an auto finance company but 32 per cent if handled through a small loan firm.

Jail Food Buyer Licking Budget, Green Stamps

BENTON HARBOR (AP)—Jail Custodian Cass Rutkoskie, who buys the bulk of food served to Berrien County prisoners, has harvested a windfall in premium trading stamps.

His shopping this year has amassed about 5,000 S&H Green Stamps, getting one stamp for each 10 cents spent.

Rutkoskie says he gives them to his wife.

"No one ever told me to turn the stamps over to them. What would the county do with them anyway?" he asked.

The stamps are redeemable in merchandise premiums.

But, according to a manager of one of the stores which supplies the jail, Rutkoskie has frugal shopping habits. Records show he has spent $3,694 to feed inmates for the first six months of 1956.

The figure is about 25 per cent of the $15,000 food allotment made by the Board of Supervisors. Only one of the stores where Rutkoskie trades offers the stamps.

Clinic to Show State How to Open Up Jobs

DETROIT (AP)—The Armed Services Community Production Clinic this week will offer ways to ease Michigan unemployment through expanding the state's defense industries.

At the clinic, Michigan manufacturers will be given information on defense contracts to be opened for bidding in October.

Military procurement officials also will offer displays of defense items, including tanks, ordnance, electronics and air materiel.

The three-day clinic is sponsored by 13 industrial, labor, government and business organizations. Prime government contractors will exhibit subcontract items that could be manufactured by Michigan firms, with emphasis on aircraft, guided missiles and electronics.

With 17th Century Ceremony

Mayflower Replica Nears Completion for U.S. Visit

LONDON (INS)—The man who built a replica of the Mayflower to get to America has returned to London after an unexpected round-trip visit by air to his favorite foreign country.

The Mayflower replica, now nearing completion at Brixham, will be launched Sept. 22 with a 17th Century ceremony, and won't sail for America until next spring.

But Warwick Charlton, "father" of the Mayflower project, was urged to make an earlier visit across the Atlantic in connection with the elaborate preparations under way for the tiny vessel's arrival next year.

NEVER SAW U. S.

Among other things, he arranged for the new Mayflower to be exhibited in New York at the 42nd street pier of the Hudson River Dayline. He hopes it will get there from Plymouth and Boston, Mass., by July 4 next year, at the latest.

Charlton, who was press officer for Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery during World War II, had visited every continent and practically every country in the world but the U. S. Now he can hardly wait to make his second trip next year.

"It's just like a lot of champagne," he said.

Reminded that he had gone "on the wagon" some years ago, pledging not to go off until his "dream ship" got to America, he replied, "That's just the point—you get the effect without touching the stuff over there."

STRANGE CITY

Of New York, he said "It is stranger than Calcutta or any city I've ever been to."

"This enormous city of skyscrapers made by man is strikingly different than any place else in the world," he said. "Most other cities are teaming with people made by God, and the man-made part of them is not so much in evidence."

He admired the "determination of Americans to 'get things done,'" and "the accessibility of the people you want to see" in contrast to the prolonged arrangements required to see many British business executives.

After the Mayflower is launched next week it will stand off in Brixham Harbor while being fitted.

When fitted, she will go on trials around England, and be exhibited in the port of London. She is scheduled to sail from Plymouth, England, for Plymouth, Mass., on April 2. Almost two months has been allowed for the crossing.

Outdoor Cooking Boom Aids Charcoal Industry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The increasing interest in outdoor cooking, barbecuing and camping is expanding the charcoal industry in Western states. The U.S. Forest Service reports a growing number of inquiries as to types of kilns to be used, processing and related problems.

In California, most of the charcoal production is in the Paso Robles and Healdsburg areas. The wood used is chiefly liveoak, with some associated hardwoods.

E. W. Morris, a tree farmer living near Cave Junction, Ore., operates two kilns turning out about 10 tons of charcoal monthly. He uses such hardwoods as madrone, manzanita and oak.

Illinois Turtle Trapper Has Growing Business

HARDIN, Ill. (AP) — Turtle trapper Harley Johnson has created a going business.

In one week he trapped and dressed 45 turtles, and local fanciers stored the meat in deep freezers.

Johnson has developed a surefire system for catching turtles. He makes a trap of poultry netting from 2 to 4 feet in height and with a shallow, wide throat. The traps are set at the edge of sloughs and ponds and are submerged to about two-thirds of their height, leaving part of the trap out of the water so the turtles can get air. He baits the traps with the carcasses of fresh fish which have been flayed for boning.

The 112-mile air stretch between Indianapolis and Dayton, Ohio, was the first in the U. S. to have painted rooftops and highway markers to guide pioneer air transportation.

EXCHANGE STORIES — Still comparing notes on their experiences in Germany this summer are three Walled Lake seniors, Pat Mercer, Karen Nelson and Laurie Passmore. All agree they'd like to make a return trip some day.

German Experiences Are Many, Varied

Returned Students Tell Impressions

By ELEANOR G. DUCKWITZ
Walled Lake Correspondent

WALLED LAKE—Back in school after a summer spent in German homes as members of the second annual "Youth for Understanding" program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches, are three Walled Lake High School seniors.

Their impressions are many and varied, according to the location of the home in which each was a guest.

Laurie Passmore, Student Council president, was located in Karlsruhe in Southern Germany near the French border. In a town noted as a culture center, he says that industry is being founded to help a people who are essentially farmers earn a living, since the land is now so divided into small plots that it no longer can support families. The division came about when younger sons objected to a father willing the entire farm to the eldest son.

Laurie found the people friendly, and so anxious to improve and practice English that he did not learn as much German as he had wished.

He had an opportunity to travel extensively in Bavaria, crossed into France and Austria briefly and spent some time mountain climbing and bicycling.

Laurie was amused at the number of superstitions which the people in villages practiced and discoursed at length on them. When asked about the schools he said that the students seem to lack the self diiscipline of our students as they misbehaved when the teacher was out of the room. He was surprised to note also that church attendance was not practiced weekly but more on special occasions, such as Easter and Christmas.

In contrast Karen Nelson, who was placed in Bad Oeynhausen in Northern Germany, found the people to be deeply religious and very regular in attending their churches. Karen was impressed with the closeness of family life. She said a long Sunday hike was traditional and families looked forward to this recreation.

She too found the people friendly and had no language problem as everyone spoke English. Even the small children were learning the language.

When asked how the people felt about Americans, Karen replied that they all were fond of the American people in the northern section. She was amazed to see that there was no trace of war evident and that rebuilding was practically complete. The people have such a horror of war that they do not want their own army reactivated for fear that it might lead to another conflict.

In contrast to the open friendliness which these two noted Pat Mercer, who lived only four miles from the Czechoslovakian border, was aware of tension. She said that she felt the people wanted to be friendly but were afraid to make friends for they had lost them so often. She added that they were interested in America, but hesitated to ask questions.

Pat learned more German than the others for in her locality not many spoke English.

She also rode a bicycle and hiked a great deal. The final weeks she took a Youth Hostel trip which took her up the Rhine, to Switzerland, Italy, Monte Carlo, the French Riviera, and to Paris.

All agreed that the summer had taught them a lot and all expressed a desire to return some day.

Alert at 7:15 to Key Drill

GOC to Give First Call With Radio Club Telling 'Disaster' Locations

ROMEO—Emergency units from 28 communities in four counties will share Romeo's practice on a simulated-tonrado that will begin at 7:15 p.m. tomorrow.

Though the time is revealed, Romeo Civil Defense Director Maurice Foltz says the exact "swath of the tonrado's path" will not be known until a survey of the area is completed tomorrow morning.

Original cry of "disaster" will emulate from the Ground Observer Post located near the Croswell Street School, Foltz says.

Reasons for staging the project, he says, are to stimulate public defense and to provide a drill for neighboring fire, police and civil defense personnel.

Cities, villages and townships from as far away as Eight Mile road are sharing the drill.

After the first disaster call, certain personnel termed "calculated risks,"such as local firemen will answer the quote "take cover" signal—a steady five-minute blast on the first siren.

Then the tornado will "hit" in a designated area.

The all-clear, a three-minute wailing signal will be sounded at 7:30 p.m.

Civil Defense volunteers will then go into action, with activity to be directed from the main command post in Romeo's fire hall on South Rawles street, one block west of Main street.

Auxiliary electric power will be utilized and incoming personnel will register at appropriate desks for assignment to particular units.

Radio operators of the Catalpa Radio Club will spot the path of destruction as indicated by flares and report to the command post by radio. Proper equipment will be dispatched to the scene.

The fares will bear tags describing the damage and their exact location, and steps will be taken to remove a "casualty," to lift a tree "out of the roadway" or meet some other simulated emergency situation.

"Casualties" will be members of the Romeo football team who will be tagged when found and taken to the emergency medical center in the local village clerk's office on Main street. The center will also be operating on auxiliary power.

Only heads of area emergency units have been informed of the simulated tornado in advance, Foltz reported. Sirens will be sounded in each community and personnel will be clocked between the time of departure and arrival in Romeo, to determine mobilization time.

Among the communities sending fire or police equipment or both are Oak Park, Royal Oak Township, Utica, Center Line, Big Beaver, Warren Township, Brooklands, Avondale, Rochester, Leonard, Oxford and Shelby Township.

Also East Detroit, Mt. Clemens, Dryden, Imlay City, Capac, Memphis, Richmond, Emmett, Armada, Almont, Oakland and Macomb County Sheriff's departments, Romeo and Washington units and the Romeo Post State Police.

Civil defense personnel from East Detroit, Mt. Clemens and Oakland County will either participate or observe operations.

* * *

Local residents are asked to practice emergency measures in the test tornado, Foltz said, so that they too may be better prepared to meet a natural disaster. Several "missing persons" are expected to be seen "wandering with amnesia" during the trial.

PLAN CD BENEFIT DANCE — Wolverine Lake Village policemen and auxiliary officers are plotting ways and means of attracting a big crowd to a local Civilian Defense Benefit Dance to be held at 8 p. m., Saturday at "Hidden Paradise," located just off Benstein Road in Commerce Township. Taking part in the discussion are (left to right) Tom Olsen, auxiliary officer; Ted Robinson, police chief; Walter Schlomer, auxiliary officer; and Al La Plante, regular patrolman. Chief Robinson holds one of many posters which have been distributed in the Wolverine Lake-Commerce-Walled Lake area. The dance will feature both modern and square dancing. Chief Robinson has personally trained four CD auxiliary officers in all forms of police duty and is high in his praise for their efforts. They are Olsen and Schlomer, pictured above, along with Jack Miller and James Brown, local residents who have donated considerable time. "These boys are so in earnest," related Chief Robinson, "that they came out during a recent storm and moved tree branches from roads without even being asked." Any person wishing to train for emergency duty may do so by signing up at Wolverine Lake Village Hall, 297 Glengary Road, he said.

Hollywood Headlines

George Jessel Criticizes Modern Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I don't want to sound like an actor who is out of work and talking about the 'good old days.' As a matter of fact, I have turned down $60,000 in offers in the past few months."

* * *

This was George Jessel's preface to his comments about the status of American show business. As you may know, George is an expounder. At the drop of a Parker House roll, he will expound to after-dinner audiences on anything from the Kinsey report to basket weaving in Israel. He's the best in the business.

But this time it was after lunch and I was an audience of one for the Jesselian observations. It all started when I asked about his return to acting in "Beau James."

* * *

"But I'm just playing myself," he protested. "I am delivering the same introductions which I gave for Jimmy Walker, who is played by Bob Hope, 20 or 30 years ago. It fills me with a great feeling of nostalgia.

"If I were playing the role of someone else in the picture, I wouldn't do it. I have lost all desire to act."

* * *

What, an actor who doesn't love to act?

"Absolutely," he declared. "I'm not like some of these old hams. That's why I have turned down offers to apear in saloons and gambling joints. It just isn't for me.

"Perhaps if show business were as it used to be, it might be a different story. If vaudeville were still here—."

He paused reflectively and with a little prodding, went on:

"I'm not one of those old mossbacks who say that things aren't what they used to be, that John L. Sullivan could lick any fighter today, and so forth. But the situation is different from what it used to be.

"In the old days, the great stars were gentlemen who were schooled in their craft. Nowadays, a star can be created in 24 hours. You can't expect an Elvis Presley to have the same sense of humanity of an Ethel Barrymore.

* * *

"Nowadays the teen - agers aren't interested so much in a performer's talents as in how he can wiggle on the stage.

Saginaw Drums Up Buyers for Bonds

SAGINAW (AP)—Money was hard to find for the one-million-dollar parking structure city officials wanted to build. But they found it—right in their own backyard.

At first when a bond issue was offered to pay for the structure, there wasn't a single taker. It would be hard to resell the bonds, investors argued, because money is scarce.

City officials wouldn't believe it. They went out on the streets to hunt investors and came back with pledges for 701 of the 1,000 bonds in the package. Each bond is worth $1,000.

Putting the pledges alongside the bond issue, they offered it again—this time they had four takers. They announced the winner of the bid last night—Barcus, Kindred and Co., of Chicago, and Shannon and Co., of Detroit.

Jap Nine Only Unbeaten Club

Upsets U.S. Team in Global World Series at Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Japan reigns today as the only undefeated team in the Global World Series of Baseball after upsetting the U.S. team 6-3 in the third round yesterday.

The Japanese, with three victories, play at 8 p.m. (CST) tonight against Hawaii's Red Sox, who edged Colombia, 3-2, last night. The U.S. club, from Fort Wayne, Ind., competes at 6 p.m. against Mexico, which ousted Puerto Rico, 4-3.

The only club assured of survival tonight is Japan. The other three teams, with two victories and one loss apiece, are in danger of elimination. Two losses drop a team from the meet.

Japan scored twice in the fifth inning and got four runs in the sixth after the U.S. had taken a 3-0 lead. Relief pitcher Sadayoshi Osawa hurled the last 6 1-3 innings and held the U.S. team to three hits.

AP Teletype Machine Stolen at State Fair

DETROIT (AP) — An Associated Press teletype printer worth more than $700 was stolen from the State Fairgrounds Sunday.

The United States issued 528,000 passports for foreign travel in 1955, an increase of 76,000 over the 1954 figure and a new record. By comparison, in 1912 slightly more than 21,000 passports were issued or renewed.

2 Zoo Tigresses Kill Tiger Mate, Win Spinsterhood

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two tigresses will live out their time at Cincinnati Zoo in spinsterhood after mauling to death their male cagemate in a savage battle yesterday.

The zoo veterinarian, Dr. B. W. Bernard, said the jungel cats "tend to be monogamous."

"If we put another male in there now, the tigresses would annihilate him," he said.

Zoo officials said there was no way of knowing what caused the fight.

Keepers said the attack on 5-year-old Rajah was apparently a surprise, with one female going for his throat and the other attacking his hind quarters.

The three had been together since they were kittens and never had trouble with each other before, even at feeding time.

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Table tennis, once considered a pastime strictly for recreation centers or basement play rooms, is now becoming a highly competitive sport in the United States.

Pontiac itself is now one of the hot beds in the state of Michigan, much to the surprise of many who never realized there was so much interest in the game.

Much of the credit for the rise of the game in this area goes to Pontiac's table tennis-playing barber, Perc Secord, who was one of the sparkplugs in organizing the Pontiac Table Tennis Association (PTTA) back in 1935.

Typical of many men who hate to lose to a woman in any sport, it took a humiliating drubbing at the hands of his sister-in-law to get him started in the sport.

★ ★ ★

"I played just occasionally, and never really gave it much thought," said Secord," until the time I visited my brother in St. Louis, Mich."

"After my sister-in-law gave me a lacing, I was determined to learn the game. I did, and then I went back to beat her," he added.

That was in 1933 when table tennis was in its infant stage. Couple of the well known players in the area included Fred Panky and Ben Ronan.

★ ★ ★

After the Michigan Table Tennis Association was born in 1933 in Royal Oak, Secord and Ronan and several others decided to organize the Pontiac chapter.

PERC SECORD

"In fact I can credit the Pontiac Press with much of the interest that kept me playing the game," said Secord.

"One of the first tournaments around here was sponsored by The Press, and my winning it really spurred my interest in table tennis."

As the sport grew, the heavy concentration of table tennis players came out of cities like Royal Oak, Grand Rapids, Midland, Detroit and Pontiac.

For the past few years, the strength from the Pontiac club has been growing in the juniors and girls ranks. Last season in Michigan competition, the PTTA walked off with numerous honors.

Carol Ryan, pretty Central Michigan College coed from Waterford, and Ellen Tiffany of Pontiac, cleaned up honors in the state.

★ ★ ★

Miss Tiffany won the Michigan Girls Single championship and she defeated Miss Ryan to do it.

Oddly enough, Carol came back to win the Women's championship and she did it by defeating Ellen in the finals.

In the junior boys ranks, Johnny Wettlaufer walked off with state honors and he then teamed with Jerry Kruskie to take doubles honors.

One title which has yet to be won by the Pontiac club is the Michigan Men's championship.

★ ★ ★

"Our club is growing and we're shooting for this title," said Elmer Klemm, the current president of the PTTA.

The organization is off to another season with 40 members. "There is no pre-requisite, just the desire to play," said Klemm.

That should be a good enough invitation for anyone who wants to play, or even learn to play the fast growing sport of table tennis, and anyone in Oakland County is eligible for membership in the Pontiac Table Tennis Association.

SHRINKING WAIST—Bob Holloway, Pontiac High School tackle had to make switch in football pants when he came out to practice this year. The big senior lineman, who last year weighed 230 pounds, reported at a trim 210 pounds this year.

Basilio Eyes Welter Title

Former King Confident of Regaining His Crown Against Saxton

SYRACUSE (AP) — Welterweight champions have been playing with the 147-pound crown as if it was a bean bag for the last couple of years. In four of the last five title fights, the challenger has romped off with the jewelry.

Carmen Basilio, dethroned as boss of the welters by Johnny Saxton some six months ago, firmly believes the crown will bounce his way once more on Wednesday night when he meets Saxton current titleholder, again in the War Memorial Auditorium.

* * *

Despite Basilio's optimism, the odds favoring him dropped from 8-5 to 7-5 and slightly under today. It would not be surprising if the 26-year-old Saxton went into the ring as a slight choice. In their last fight, Basilio was a 2-1 favorite over the fast moving, fast punching New Yorker.

Saxton, more confident than ever, finished his training with a two-round session with Prince Johnson at Summit, N.J., yesterday. He will fly into Basilio's home territory tonight.

* * *

Norm Rothschild, co-promoting with the International Boxing Club said he already had $105,000 in the box and was looking for a gross gate of from $125,000 to $150,000.

Radio and television (coast to coast) will add another $75,000 to the pot. The Syracuse gate record of $120,400 for Basilio-Tony DeMarco title fight of last June appears a cinch to be broken.

Tulsa, Ogden Winners in Softball Tournament

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Tulsa and Ogden, Utah, were hardpressed for victories last night in the National Softball Congress tournament.

Tulsa edged Oxnard, Calif., 3-2, as pitcher Eddie Hughes drove in two runs with a single in the sixth inning.

Venturi, Cudd Clash in Feature Match

LAKE FOREST, Ill. (AP)—"It's a good course to get the jump on somebody. It's hard to get a lot of birdies out there and that's what you need to come back after a guy gets the jump."

* * *

That was Ken Venturi's size-up of the massive Knollwood Course after he had won his first match in the National Amateur golf championship.

* * *

In line with this kind of thinking, the 56th National Amateur shapes up as a contest between wide - open, 6,790-yard, par 71, Knollwood and a fine field of golfers just as much as it is a contest among the players themselves.

* * *

A couple of other significant quotes from the winners:

* * *

Walker Cup player Don Cherry: "It's so open you don't get any perspecive. If there were only a few trees along the fairways you could lie up your shots."

Charley Coe, 1949 Amateur champion: "I think a smart player is going to win this tournament, or somebody who knows the course so well he knows exactly what he's doing on every shot, regardless of wind or anything else."

As these three favorites and 125 others moved into the second round today, it appeared that anyone who can figure out a way to lick Knollwood stands a good chance of coming out on top Saturday night.

Smoky Joe Conrad, the little Texas redhead who won the British Amateur championship last year, was an upset victim yesterday, a 2 and 1 loser to Ed Tutwiler of Charleston, W.Va. Joining him on the sidelines were Bill Hyndman, last year's runner-up; 66-year-old Chick Evans, a two-time Amateur champion; U.S. Senior champion Fred Wright, and a couple of others who have gone as far as the semifinals in recent years.

Also eliminated were Keith Jacobs of Montebello, Calif., a semifinalist in 1951, and Dr. Ted Lenczyk of Newington, Conn., who reached the last eight in 1954.

* * *

Among first-round winners were former champions Willie Turnesa and Dick Chapman and Bruce Cudd of the 1953 U.S. Walker Cup team. They were joined today by 56 players who drew first-round byes — among them defending champion Harvie Ward, Billy Joe Patton, 1954 runner-up Bob Sweeny, and 1955 semifinalist Hillman Robbins.

Highlight of the second day's schedule was a clash between Venturi, who almost won the Masters and who led all the amateurs in the National Open this year, and Cudd, who went to the semifinals in 1953, almost before he was old enough to shave.

* * *

Other standout matches included Tutwiler against steady-playing Henry Timbrook Jr., of San Francisco; Robbins against Gerry MaGee, runner-up for the Canadian Amateur title; Patton against big Jim Frisina and Joe Campbell against Bobby Knowles, a former Walker Cupper.

* * *

Among those who fell by the wayside were Lloyd Syron of Pontiac, Lou Wendrow of Lansing and Ken Rodewald, Michigan State University golf captain, from East Lansing. Michigan winners included Glen Johnson, Michigan Amateur champion, Gene Woodard of Detroit, and Jerry Berles of Grand Rapids. Chuck Kocsis of Detroit, Ralph Ellstrom of Dearborn and Tom Draper of Detroit drew byes.

Iowa Sees Better Future

Hawks Look to '57 Season

(Following is another story in a series on Big Ten football prospects by Jerry Liska, Midwest AP sports editor, who made a plane tour of conference camps.)

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Iowa's Hawkeyes may not improve their 3-5-1 record of last season in the pending football campaign, but keep tab on the Hawkeyes in 1957.

Coach Forest Evashevski, who flies his own plane, just has four seniors among his top 22 players. So his chances of making the Hawkeyes fly even close to the Big Ten's first division this fall seem remote. Next year, the picture may brighten considerably.

The four seniors form the nucleus of Evashevski's No. 1 outfit, including quarterback Ken Ploen, halfback Don Dobrino, center Don Suchy and right end Frank Gilliam, a whale of a wingman, who was out last season with a broken leg.

* * *

Ploen, who steps into the shoes of Jerry Reichow, is Iowa's bellwether.

"The only hope we have this season," said Evashevski, "is based on Pelon's leadership."

* * *

"I know we're not as strong as last year," said Evashevski, "and certainly we couldn't be after losing such players as Reichow, halfbacks Eddie Vincent and Earl Smith, guard Cal Jones and end Jim Freeman.

Co-capt. Suchy, Frank Bloomquist, 200-pound left guard, left end Jim Gibbons and Dobrino were starters last season. Bloomquist was hospitalized with an infection early in fall practice.

Two sophomores apparently will get the starting call, 210-pound fullback John Nocera of Youngstown, Ohio, and Hugh Drake, 205, Shenandoah, Iowa, at right guard. Co-capt. Dick Deasy should be operating in Drake's place, but the 210-pound veteran apparently has not recovered from a knee injury.

* * *

The same goes for seasoned George Kress, a 235-pounder, whose ailing knee has made him yield at left tackle to 235-pound Alex Karras, whose weight problems bogged him down as a soph.

* * *

Dupas Dumps Vargas by KO

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Ralph Dupas of New Orleans looks forward to regaining his high lightweight ranking after proving last night that he could slug as well as run.

The 20-year-old French Quarter boxer, recently dumped from his No. 2 rating to seventh, knocked out Alex Vargas of Galveston, Tex., in 1:27 of the fifth round. Dupas weighed 139¾, Vargas 140½.

The victory was the 59th for Dupas, who has lost eight and been held to five draws. Vargas has lost two—both to Dupas—in his 34 fights.

A crowd of 2,711 paid $6,140 to see the fight.

Formosan Wins Distance Race, Loses His Life

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Wu Ching-Chang, 20, collapsed as he won a 10,000-meter race at Hsingying, in Southern Formosa, yesterday and died later in a hospital. As he breasted the tape the winner, he fell to the ground in a coma. He never recovered consciousness.

Dannie Wins Trot

DETROIT (AP) — Little Dannie won the featured trot at Hazel Park last night in 2:05. A crowd of 4,080 attended the meeting.

Phils Rehire Mayo Smith

Philadelphia Manager Signed to Pilot Club for Third Season

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mayo Smith has been signed to manage the Philadelphia Phillies again next year, his third as skipper of the National League club.

* * *

Smith took over the team in October, 1954, after Terry Moore was released at the close of the season. He managed the Phils to a fourth-place finish last year and currently has them in fifth place with a chance at a first-division berth.

* * *

Before coming to Philadelphia, Smith managed Birmingham in the Southern Association for two years. He started his managerial career with Amsterdam, N. Y. in the Canadian-American League.

Smith said he plans "no wholesale purge" but sees "possibilities of readjustment" of player personnel for next season.

Terms of the contract were not disclosed.

Midget Football Program Ready to Begin Saturday

The 10th annual Midget Football program, sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department for 5th, 6th and 7th grade boys, starts this Saturday at Wisner Field.

Co-sponsored by the Pontiac Board of Education and the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, the program runs six consecutive Saturdays and will be climaxed by a Midget All-Star night on Saturday, Oct. 20, at Wisner Stadium.

All boys in the 6th grade are eligible who have not reached their 13th birthday by Nov. 1 of this year and who do not weigh more than 100 pounds.

* * *

The age and weight classification of junior high 7th grade boys will be determined when all youngsters have been checked and registered at Wisner on opening day.

Saturday's starting time for the 5th and 6th grade boys is 9 a. m. while the 7th graders begin at 11 o'clock.

Each player must furnish his own helmet and shoulder pads and football shoes cannot be worn. Only tennis shoes or sneakers are allowed. Equipment will be examined by the coaches in charge before a boy is permitted to play.

Every boy must obtain the written permission of his parent or guardian in order to participate in the Midget program. Permit cards may be picked up this Saturday at Wisner when the boys report for action.

The basic fundamentals of football will be stressed during the 6-week program and all boys are welcome to attend. For additional information, call the Parks and Recreation Department, FE 3-7131.

Ex-Brave Pilot Expects 'His Boys' to Win Flag

NEW YORK (AP)—Charlie Grimm, who relinquished the Milwaukee managerial reins to Fred Haney in the middle of the season, expressed confidence today that "my boys" will win the National League pennant but added he did not expect the race to be decided until the final week of the campaign.

OLYMPIAN — Oakland County will have a representative in the forthcoming Olympic Games in Melbourne, Australia, and a handsome, stalwart lad he is too. Pat Costello (above), Birmingham resident, will be one of the doubles rowing team to scull for the U. S. He is shown holding a handful of medals won in rowing events in the U. S. and Canada. He wears the crest and red, white and blue banner worn by American athletes in the Olympics. Pat reached the semifinals at Helsinki, Finland in the 1952 Olympics.

Preps for Big Test

Pat Costello Will Row in Olympics

Pat Costello, 27-year-old Birmingham sculler, is probably the only athlete from Oakland County to become a member of this year's United States Olympic team.

The GMC Truck & Coach Division truck office management group worker will row with Detroiter Jim Gardiner, in the Olympic doubles sculling event during the fall games at Melbourne, Australia.

The pair won the national pairs sculling title this summer at Olympic trials at Syracuse, N. Y. Gardiner is a 25-year-old service man. He works out daily at the Detroit Boat Club.

Pat works out whenever he has the time from his full-time office job here. But he has managed pretty well. As a matter of fact his training has been amazingly extensive. Pat has run and rowed some 1,700 miles during the past year conditioning himself for the international tests. That's about the distance from here to Miami, Fla.

Olympic competition is not new to Pat. In 1952 he took part in the big games at Helsinki, reaching the semifinals before bowing out. Pat hopes to make a supreme effort, along with his partner because he feels he'll not have another chance in the games.

"I'm 27 now" says Pat. "By the next Olympic I'll be 31. And I'll be 'over the hill' as a competitor. You might say this is my last chance."

The powerfully built, blonde athlete, modest and soft-spoken, has unbounded faith in the ability of Gardiner, who will "stroke" the fine new specially-built Olympic shell they will take to Australia about the last of October.

That confidence goes for Jim, also, in Pat. The Olympic aces are set for Nov. 23-27 at a fresh water lake near Melbourne. About mid-October Pat and Jim, with other Detroit Boat Club scullers, will go to the west coast for an intensive 10 days workout before heading by air for "down under." Their shell will fly the DBC colors in the big races.

* * *

Pat and Jim will have their own cheering section in Australia. Costello's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Costello and Pat's wife Trudie, plan to visit relatives in New Zealand and then fly on to Australia for the games. But, despite his own cheering section, more than a year of intensive training, the best of coaching and confidence of youth, Pat fights shy of making any predictions. "Only thing I can guarantee," says Costello, "is that Jim and myself will do our very best—and I sure hope that will be good enough."

Experience Tests Youth

BOSTON (AP)—It figures to be a tossup tonight when Larry Boardman of Marlborough, Conn., pits his youth against former champion Jimmy Carter's experience in a lightweight 10-round battle at Boston Garden.

* * *

Carter, a veteran of more than 10 years and 100 fights in the ring, has long been the spoiler for New England's brighter 135-pound prospects and he hopes to do it again. Jimmy, 32, a New Yorker who has won the lightweight title three times, is well remembered in this section for the poundings he gave Boston's Tommy Collins and George Araujo of Providence in the past.

Boardman, a 20-year-old slugger who has won 32 of his 34 starts, has prepped for the biggest fight of his career by going 95 rounds during training—his longest workout so far.

Yogi Berra batted only .253 when he broke in with Norfolk, Va., in the Piedmont League in 1943.

PAC Starts Grid Drills With Photos

Actual drills begin tomorrow at Wayne State University. Case Tech, John Carroll and Western Reserve.

Coach Herb Smith of Wayne will introduce his squad to new assistant coaches, Phil Yanoschik and Dick Brown, recently named.

Yanoschik comes to Wayne State after three years at Eastern Michigan, formerly Michigan Normal College. Brown returns to his post as backfield coach after an army stint.

Conference members begin competition Saturday, Oct. 6.

Bill Bowman Takes 1st Lion Workout

YPSILANTI (AP)—Bill Bowman, the bruising fullback who was 2nd leading ground gainer in 1954, is back with the Detroit Lions today. He took part in his 1st practice yesterday.

Coach Buddy Parker thinks Bowman, who gained 397 yards in his only year as a regular Lion back, will add to the Lion's running game. The former William and Mary star was in the armed forces.

Michigan Pacer Wins

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Fleetwood M., owned by Perry D. Tennis of Turner, Mich., and driven by Edward Cobb, came from behind to win by 2 lengths in last night's featured New Jersey Pace at Yonkers Raceway.

OL St. Mary Hopes to Repeat

Eaglets Are Target in SCL

(This is the sixth of a series of articles dealing with Oakland County high school football league prospects. Wednesday's final article will summarize the South Central and Southern Thumb conferences and area independents).

By BILL CORNWELL

Orchard Lake St. Mary is everybody's target this season in the Suburban Catholic League, but how to stop the talent-laden Eaglets is anybody's guess.

Although three members of last year's star-studded backfield—Ted Kopacki, Len Mallat and Gerry Leszczynski—have departed through graduation. Father John Rakoczy's defending champions are well stocked with veteran material.

Rev. Rakoczy greeted 13 returning letter winners this fall, including five regulars. Four of the 1955 starters will be found in the line, spearheaded by end Pete Madelans, guard Art Goisdzinski and tackles Tom Gardocki and Cas Krasowski. St. Mary's starting line will average 190 pounds.

The lone holdover in the backfield is halfback Paul Franckowiak, an explosive runner. Quarterback Larry Charkowski, halfback Chet Wajda and fullback Terry Raymond will round out the Eaglet backfield.

Leading the crusade to halt the Orchard Lake stampede will probably be St. Benedict of Highland Park, Royal Oak St. Mary and St. Michael.

St. Frederick, the SCL doormat for the past four seasons, will again strive for an elusive goal—victory. St. Rita of Hazel Park should be improved while St. James of Ferndale and Center Line St. Clement appear weaker than a year ago.

Bob Mineweaser, who decided to stay at St. Michael after previously announcing his resignation, bemoans the future as he begins his 13th year at the northside school. "We'll be lucky if we win four games," Mineweaser said.

But the Shamrocks have a way of coming up with a winner and this season should prove no exception. The brightest star on the St. Mike horizon is halfback Dan Dropps, a powerful runner and a brilliant passer.

Mineweaser's son, Bob Jr., will pilot the Mikes at quarterback and speedy Chuck Brown is ready for action at halfback. Lettermen Lou Palace, Mike Lyons and Paul Amman return to the line while Jim Fox provides defensive strength.

There are 13 lettermen back at St. Frederick, but inexperience is the prevailing picture for coach Gene Wright. The Rams, desperately searching for victory, have been winless on the girdiron in their last 25 starts.

St. Fred's biggest hope lies in sophomore quarterback Tom Derocher, a skilled passer and signal-caller, along with co-captains Wally Quarles and John Bradley. Also back in the Ram fold are linemen Dick Thompson, Marty Koenig and Frank Palopoli.

St. Mary of Royal Oak, coached by Ted Klapperich, could be the "dark horse" of the league. The Irish have great potential with a dozen returning letter winners, headed by Phil Brzezinski, hard-running fullback, and halfback Paul Smuts.

Coach Corky Foster faces a rebuilding task at St. James where only three regulars are available. Linemen Jim Howard, Ray Rieti and Bill Tunnicliff are Dale mainstays.

St. Benedict boasts a great halfback in Larry Gacki and promises to be stronger than last season while St. Rita looks for improvement behind quarterback Chet Laabs. St. Clement lost all-league fullback Dick Daldine plus several other stalwarts.

SHAMROCK SPEEDSTER — St. Michael will rely heavily on the performance of Chuck Brown in its Suburban Catholic League campaign this fall. Brown, a speedy halfback, was a Shamrock mainstay last year until an injury put him on the shelf.

'Dots Fear PHS 'Field Day'

From down Wyandotte way comes a bit of a gridiron blues song. From the 'Dots mentor, Dick Hoffheins, comes the information that because of heavy lettermen losses, the metropolitan area school will have to field "an untried and inexperienced team" Friday night. "That means," Hoffheins observed in a telephone conversation, "that Ed Graybiel's club may have a field day at our expense."

Friday's game, at 8 p.m. on the Wyandotte Roosevelt field, is the opener for both clubs.

"We lost 18 lettermen. So far I haven't found out just who my starters will be," laments Hoffheins. We have a few of the regulars back, but have had to make some changes. The offense unit is better formed up at this time, with about the following lineup:

"At center will be Steve Stieler, who with tackle Harvey DeLorme are our only outstanding linemen. Joe Carollo, letterman, and Ken Crutcher, a junior up from the reserves, may be at guards; DeLorme and letterman Jerry Thompson at tackles; Bill Rose, letterman and Ron Cornell, reserve at ends. The backfield is uncertain, without a single letterman available."

* * *

Drive Telegraph road to Eureka road; turn left several miles on Eureka, to where Fort crosses Eureka at a viaduct. Field is just east of the intersection.

Ground Attack Best for MSU

Spartans Show Lack of Strength in Aerial Game

EAST LANSING (AP) — The pattern of early football practice this fall indicates that Michigan State will depend mainly on its powerful running attack, passing only when necessary to keep the opposition honest and off balance.

Pat Wilson, number one choice at quarterback, isn't the aerial sharpshooter Earl Morrall was last season, but is a better running quarterback.

"We especially like the way, he's been handling the option plays," said coach Duffy Daugherty. "We've been telling Wilson to use his own judgement and run with the ball whenever he thinks he has an opening."

"We're not primarily a passing team anyway," Daugherty said. "We don't pass out of a pocket, but like to throw from a run."

Halfbacks Clarence Peaks and Walt Kowalczyk are termed "the best pair of backs I've ever seen" by Daugherty.

The pair are counted on to carry the load of the running attack for the Spartans.

Vic Zucco, senior transfer from Wayne State University, has been working at fullback but now has been switched to a job as utility back.

Troy Drops Decision, First in 41 Battles

NEW YORK (INS) — Middleweight Willie Troy of Washington, D. C., lost his first decision in 41 fights last night when he was defeated by England's John L. Sullivan at St. Nicholas Arena in a 10-round nationally-televised bout.

Troy weighed 160½ pounds to Sullivan's 162¼.

RAM VETERAN — Fullback Wally Quarles, who will be co-captain with end John Bradley at St. Frederick this season, is one of 13 returning lettermen for the Rams, who have not won a football game in their last 25 outings.

Defending Champions Stay in SW Tourney

CUSHING, Okla. (AP) — The defending champions, Mechanics Uniform Supply of Houston, defeated Nord-Holmes of New Orleans 18-10, last night in a winners' bracket game of the Southwest Regional Tournament of the American Baseball Congress.

Houston is the only undefeated team while Birmingham, New Orleans and Oklahoma City each have suffered a loss in the double-elimination event.

Unbeaten in 16 Games

Dales Again Optimistic

HILLSDALE (AP) — "We'll be tougher."

That's the word from Frank (Muddy) Waters, starting his third year as head coach at Hillsdale College.

That simple but forceful expression of optimism makes his competitors wonder how Hillsdale can get any tougher.

The Dales have won 16 consecutive games. Their last setback was at the hands of Michigan Normal (now Eastern Michigan) back in 1954.

About 31 lettermen have returned for drills in a squad of 70, and nine of last year's 11 starters will be back for action.

The Dales, spearheaded again by Nate Clark, the "Mr. Everything," will open Sept. 15 against Gustavus Adolphus at the Minnesota school. Clark, a 190-pounder who stands 5 feet 11, was a Little All-America choice last season when he led the nation in scoring.

The Benton Harbor halfback scored 24 touchdowns for 144 points, and Waters believes this year, Clark's last, will be his best.

Strong point of the team that will defend the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Assn., title is the backfield. Waters says the club is at least three-deep in each position. At quarterback Hillsdale will have Doug Maison, Bill Allinder and Mel Hopp, all top-notch passers, ball handlers and field generals.

250-Pounder vs. 225-Pounder

Battle of Fullbacks in Maple, Jay Tilt

Coaches Monte Charles at Southfield and Carl Lemle at Birmingham must be spending their nights trying to figure out how to outwit each other in preparation for their football meeting on the Bluejay gridiron Friday afternoon.

The Jay coach spent two weeks shuffling players around in search of a fullback and then by accident he found a candidate whom he thinks may be the answer.

During his conditioning sessions, Charles lets his linemen and backs alike take some punishment by letting them all carry the ball and having the linemen converge on them.

"One day I spotted this burly lineman carrying the ball and no one could bring him down," said Charles, "so I decided to try him at fullback."

* * *

He was talking about 250-pounder Ed Zurcher, a 5-10 junior who had been working at the guard spot.

* * *

Meanwhile at Birmingham, Lemle was also looking for a fullback and he came up with 225-pound Chuck Gibson, a powerful 6-1 shot-putter from the tackle position.

"He's a powerful runner," said Lemle, "and looks like our starting fullback."

Friday's game is the third in the series between the rivals, Birmingham having won the two previous games, 6-0 and 14-7. But one thing is certain, it will be a battle of fullbacks.

World Series Will Open Oct. 3 If All Goes Well

NEW YORK (AP) — The World Series is officially scheduled to open Oct. 3 in the National League park—but it might be a bit later if the NL can't decide which park.

* * *

Commissioner Ford Frick set the date for the 1956 classic after a 90-minute discussion with representatives of the pennant contenders in both leagues yesterday.

The first two games will be played in the National League park, with the series then shifting to the American League park for the next three if needed in the best-of-seven championship. If more games are necessary, they'll be played in the National League park.

* * *

Ticket prices, the same as last year and including federal but not local taxes, are $10 for a box seat, $7 reserved, $2 bleachers and $4 for standing room.

All games will start at 1 p.m. local time, except on Sunday in New York, when the start will be 2 p.m.

The only problem at the moment is the National League pennant winner. It could be Milwaukee, Brooklyn or Cincinnati. And a two-team or three-team playoff may be needed to decide.

Reports Fifth Ace of Season

Fifth ace of the season was registered at Bald Mountain Golf Club Sunday, just one under what course operator Ken (Red) Wilson says is the season's average for a 18-hole layout. "We'll probably get the 'average' hole-in-one this week," Ken added.

Sunday's ace was made by Wes Scarlett, 26607 West Five-Mile Rd. "The darn ball (a 3-iron shot) hit the pin and cup of No. 6 hole (3rd for the hole) at the same time, on the fly. It stayed right down there in the cup, first time that trick has been done on this layout," Wilson said. Hole is a 172-yard, par-3 test, and a blind hole at that. It was Scarlett's 2nd ace in 30 years. His first was on No. 3 at Glen Oaks in 1945.

Playing with Scarlett were Joe Park, Earl Baker and Tom Lappin, all of Detroit.

Tallest player on Tulane's varsity football team is sophomore end David Painter. He is 6 feet 7. Shortest player is Wilbur Troxclair, a senior guard who is 5 feet 6½.

Ortega Wins Decision

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP) — Gasper Ortega, Tijuana, middleweight, won a unanimous decision over Hardy Smallwood of Brookyn, N. Y., in the 10-round main event at the Tijuana Bullring last night. Ortega weighed 160 and Smallwood scaled 158.

Braves Invade Brooklyn Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bob Buhl, Joe Adcock and Hank Aaron, three guys enjoying their best seasons in the majors because they've murdered the Dodgers, get their last shots at Brooklyn's old gray mares as Milwaukee checks in at Ebbets Field for a two-game series opening tonight.

It could be the beginning of the end for the long-hectic National League pennant race. The Braves, in the lead since July 13, have a one-game edge over Brooklyn's second-place world champions, who had the flag packed away by this time last season.

* * *

For the most part, it's been Buhl, Adcock and Aaron who have kept the Braves in front of the Brooks.

Buhl, a 28-year-old righthander who never had won more than 13 in his three previous major league seasons, is 16-7 at the moment, with a 7-0 record against Brooklyn. He could become only the third pitcher ever to beat the Dodgers eight times in a single year in the opener tonight. He'll be up against Sal (9-4) Maglie, who is 1-0 vs. Milwaukee.

Ed Reulback (9-0) with the 1908 Chicago Cubs and Joe McGinnity (8-0) with the 1903 New York Giants are the only two to pull it off.

* * *

Adcock, however, has been the Dodgers' biggest headache. He never has hit more than 23 home runs in one season, but now he has 35 and needs just two more off Dodger pitching to tie the NL record for homers against one club in one season. Billy Joe, driving in 20 runs and batting .429 against the Brooks, has walloped 11 home runs against the champs—six at Ebbets Field and one off Maglie.

* * *

Hank Sauer, then with the Cubs, set the NL record of 13 against Pittsburgh in 1954. The major league mark, 14, was set by Lou Gehrig of the New York Yankees against Cleveland in 1936.

Aaron? He's been a pest to the Brooks since spring training, when he batted .552 against them. At the moment, he's leading the NL at .328—with a .418 mark against Brooklyn.

* * *

It was Buhl and Adcock who got the Braves started on an 11-game winning streak in mid-June that hustled Milwaukee out of a fifth-place slump and back into the lead. And it all started at Ebbets Field when the Braves, playing under Manager Fred Haney for the first time, swept a June 17 doubleheader.

Adcock, belting three home runs for the pair, walloped an unprecedented shot over the left-field stands, winning the opener 5-4 in the ninth for Buhl.

* * *

Haney wants a sweep this time, too. "The rest of the league will have to catch us to beat us," says Haney, "but we need 'em all now."

The Braves, like the Dodgers, have 17 to play. They're 11-9 vs. Brooklyn so far, but Dodger Manager Walt Alston, unusually optimistic, figures the Dodgers, playing 13 of their remaining games at home, are in a good spot.

"Our reliefers (Clem Labine and Don Bessent) are rested and Carl Fruillo and Gil Hodges are starting to hit," said Alston, whose champs haven't been in first place since April 28.

Robinson's Bat Expected to Boom in Stretch Run

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Robinson, brilliant rookie outfielder of the Cincinnati Redlegs, figures to be one of the most productive batters in the remaining weeks of League pennant race.

Robinson specializes in clutch hitting. His bat has won more games in the late innings than has any other player's on the clubs contending for the prized flag.

The 20-year-old phenom's heroics were disclosed today in an Associated Press survey covering game-winning hits in the sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and extra innings.

Robinson, a .294 hitter with 37 home runs, has produced the clutch blow in seven Cincinnati victories. The latest was on Sept. 4 against Milwaukee when he homered in the 10th to break a 2-2 deadlock.

Ted Kluszewski of the Redlegs has come up with six-game winning blows. Joe Adcock leads the Milwaukee Braves with five while Pee Wee Reese and Rube Walker pace the Brooklyn Dodgers with five apiece.

Lary Shooting for Win No. 17

Bengal Hurler Has 4 Games to Go to Get His 20 Victories

DETROIT (AP) — Frank Lary, the little Alabaman who is one of the Detroit Tigers' two possible 20-game winners this year, is aiming for his 17th victory today.

As the Washington Senators come to Briggs Stadium for a final three game series between the two clubs, Lary has a relatively easy mark for the first of the four games he needs to hit the 20-game level.

Against his 16 victoires, he has an unimpressive 13 defeats. But 12 of his last 15 games have ended with the Tigers winners.

Southpaw Billy Hoeft, who has won 17 against 12 losses, may also face the Senators in the series that closes competition between the two clubs for another season. Washington will become the second club that Detroit can forget about until next year. The series with the Athletics at Kansas City, which ended Saturday, was also the final one for the season.

Defensive halfback Milt Davis of the Detroit Lions always played defense during his three-year career at U.C.L.A.

Red Wings Get Drills Started

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings, beginning their pre-season hockey practice, waited today for veteran right wing Tony Leswick, obtained last week from the Chicago Black Hawks.

In the opening session yesterday, the Wings and their prospects took to the ice for more than two hours of hard skating.

All of the regulars were within three pounds of last year's weights except for Gordie Howe and Lorne Ferguson who were seven pounds over.

One of the biggest of the newcomers to the Wings was Jack McCarthy, a 21-year-old drafted from the New York Ranger organization. Billy McNeill, who scored 19 goals for Edmonton last season, looked impressive as did Billy McCreary, also from the New York set-up.

Power Failure Delays Opening at Golden Gate

* * *

A fuse box blew less than four hours before the first race was scheduled. Just before opening hour the trouble was remedied and the racing began 30 minutes late.

'M' Big Drawing Power

ANN ARBOR (AP)—If the Michigan Wolverines field as much power as they have shown in early box office results, they'll walk away with the Big Ten football title and probably a new attendance record.

Yesterday ticket manager Don Wier announced that the last of two Michigan away games had been sold out. The 58,400 for the Iowa-Michigan game at Iowa City on Nov. 3 have been sold.

Earlier Ohio State officials reported the 78,951 seats for their season finale with Michigan, Nov. 24, had also sold out.

At home in their 100,000 seat stadium, the Wolverines will host seven teams, five of them from the Big Ten. One game is already a sell-out—Michigan State.

Reports indicate that the Army-Michigan game, Oct. 13, is approaching the capacity ranking. Other games in the order of available tickets are:

* * *

Minnesota, Oct. 27; Illinois, Nov. 10; UCLA, Sept. 29; Northwestern Oct. 20, and Indiana, Nov. 17.

The Wolverines are showing found running power in scrimmage too.

* * *

Selfridge Field 9 Wins Tourney Start

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — The second half of a week-long Air Force world wide softball tournament began today with two of the 11 teams already sporting no-hitters.

Leo Sadler of Laughlin Air Force Base, Tex., pitched one yesterday for a 2-0 victory over Larson AFB, Wash. Ladd AFB, Alaska, won the other 7-2 from Whiteman AFB, Mo., behind the hurling of Dick White.

Other winners in opening day play of the double-elimination tourney were Selfridge AFB, Mich. 5-3 over Westover AFB, Mass.; Castle AFB, Calif., 2-1 over West Drayton, England; and Ladd in a second-round win 2-0 from Pepperrell AFB, Newfoundland.

Doctoring Your Golf Game

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Can't get hook

DIAGNOSIS: Take club "inside"

TREATMENT: A hooked ball, right to left flight, is at times very useful, and it's well to know how to play one. Actually it isn't difficult, because it entails only a slight change in technique.

As sketch shows, the club is swung well inside the arc—inside the regular arc, that is. The arrows show the change in the club-head's course.

Taking the club abruptly inside, with the left arm in charge of the backswing, causes an immediate pivot or hip turn.

The rest of the action is the same as the regular swing. The left arm pulls down from the top to keep the swing in its "inside track." The pull continues down and through the ball, and with the quicker, exaggerated turn of the hips the hands turn over promptly at impact as the left hip gets out of the way. Thus the ball spins right-to-left.

It is imperative that the left arm pull down. The tendency is to turn into the ball sharply from the top of the swing, causing a lateral sway of the hips and—well, most anything can happen, except a good shot. Chances are the club face will be shut, turned in, at impact, and the ball will be either smothered or pulled.

Remember: The downswing begins with a pull-down of the left arm, all the way through the ball. Keep the head still!

PHS Gridders' Parents to See Scrimmage Film

An unusual and interesting affair has been arranged at Pontiac High School for tonight. Parents of the Chiefs' players have been invited to have coffee (for the parents), milk, and ice cream and cake, at the school cafeteria, after which films of last Saturday's game- type scrimmage with Southfield's squad will be shown in the auditorium. Time is 7:30 o'clock.

"The little party" PHS principal Francis Staley said," is a good opportunity for the parents to meet and talk to the coaches, and to see just what kind of progress has been made so far this season."

Syracuse University is still looking for its first undefeated football season.

Two-Week, 32-State Air Tour

Nixon Announces Nationwide Junket to Gauge Pulse of Voting Sentiments

WASHINGTON (INS) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has announced he will begin his nationwide re-election campaign on Sept. 18 with a two-week, 32-state "intensive" air tour.

* * *

The Republican national committee said his campaign swing, hitting Indianapolis and the Los Angeles area on the first day, will be the "most intensive air tour in U.S. political history."

The initial tour will wind up in Philadelphia on the night of Oct. 3. It will take the Vice President and Mrs. Nixon into every section of the country.

Nixon's announcement said the first leg of his campaign will cover more than 15,000 miles and include 14 working days. He will be accompanied by a staff of about 12 and more than 30 newsmen.

GOP headquarters said the "unprecedented tour has been scheduled with one stop in each state to be visited, to enable the Vice President to gain a cross section of U.S. sentiment—from political and civic leaders, farmers, workers, businessmen, economists—in the opening weeks of the Eisenhower re-election campaign."

The trip will open with a send-off breakfast in Washington on the morning of Sept. 18. He then will fly to Indianapolis and the Los Angeles area, perhaps stopping at Nixon's home town of Whittier or Los Angeles.

Here is remainder of Nixon's itinerary:

Sept. 19—Reno, Nev. and Eugene, Ore.; Sept. 20—Boise, Idaho and Spokane, Wash.; Sept. 21—Rapid City, S.D., Fargo, N.D., and Minneapolis, Minn.; Sept. 22—Sioux City, Idaho, and Colorado Springs, Colo; Sept. 23—Colorado Springs.

* * *

Sept. 24—Phoenix, Ariz. and Salt Lake City, Utah; Sept. 25—Oklahoma City, Okla. and Houston, Tex.; Sept. 26—Springfield, Mo. and Kansas City, Kan.; Sept. 27—London, Ky. and Martinsburg, W. Va.; Sept. 29—Hagerstown, Md. and St. Petersburg, Fla.; Sept. 30—St. Petersburg.

Oct. 1—Grand Rapids, Mich. and Milwaukee, Wis.; Oct. 2—Hartford, Conn., Manchester, N.H. and Syracuse, N.Y.; Oct. 3—Elizabeth, N.J., Boston, Mass., and Philadelphia, Pa.

Wagner vs. Javits in N.Y. Senate Race

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits and New York City's Mayor Robert F. Wagner squared off today for what each promises will be a hard-fought campaign for Herbert H. Lehman's U.S. Senate seat.

Javits interpreted his nomination to mean Republican acceptance of his blanket denial of Communist associations. Some GOP leaders had been disturbed by the political implications in the allegations against the 52-year-old former congressman.

* * *

Wagner was assured the nomination from the moment last week when he announced he would accept it. He had the support of all the top Democratic leaders, including Lehman, Gov. Averell Harriman and Adlai Stevenson.

Lehman placed Wagner's name before the convention. Harriman and Stevenson, who along with his running mate Sen. Estes Kefauver addressed the convention later, were warm in the praise of the 46-year-old New York mayor.

Stevenson Buoyed by Muskie Victory

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson's hopes of winning the presidency gained new buoyancy today from Democratic Gov. Edmund Muskie's re-election in usually Republican Maine.

"The Republicans have always said 'As Maine goes, so goes the nation,'" said the Democratic presidential nominee.

"If that is the case, the outlook for Democrats is very good indeed."

Stevenson made the comment to newsmen after telephoning Muskie to congratulate him on what he called an "unprecedented victory."

Union Leaders Envision Life of Paid Vacation

WASHINGTON (AP) —Labor union planners today envisioned the time when workers may take six-week annual vacations or save up time for a year's trial retirement.

About 100 AFL-CIO research directors and union officials gathered to talk over the possibility of workers getting even more employer-paid free time.

In papers prepared for the conference none seemed to doubt that additional paid leisure is definitely in the cards for American workers. They pointed to government surveys showing an increasing trend to shorter work hours.

But they foresaw considerable argument over what form the extra leisure time will take—whether as a shorter work day, shorter work week, additional holidays, longer vacations, or combinations of several of these.

Maine Election Hurts Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market got a case of jitters over the Maine election today and was down early this afternoon. Leading issues declined from fractions to around 2 points.

* * *

The warning by Britain and France that they are ready to use force in the Suez Canal crisis also depressed values.

Brokers said there was no doubt that considerable selling was due to the Democratic success in Maine, noting the familiar fact that it has been an "Eisenhower market" all along.

The market was irregular at the start. But there was a sharp dip in mid-morning accompanied by a speedup in selling. Turnover dwindled, however, and there was a slight recovery.

Most major divisions including steels, motors, rubbers, aircrafts, chemicals, utilities, rails and oils retreated.

Gulf Oil, which was fractionally ahead at the start, dropped 2¼ to 119 on a block of 1,000 shares then trimmed the loss to a point or so. Royal Dutch retained its gain of around a point but Texas Co. and Standard Oil (New Jersey) slipped fractionally.

FOR RUGGED ACTION — Ready for rough action at a moment's notice is this new GMC rescue truck. With four-wheel drive and ample passenger and storage room, the vehicle is designed to rush an 8-man rescue team with 150 pieces of emergency equipment over wreckage or rough terrain to the heart of a disaster area.

GMC Develops New Truck for Disaster Rescue Work

A GMC rescue truck designed for rushing a fully-equipped, life-saving team over wreckage or rough terrain to the heart of any disaster area was unveiled today by GMC Truck & Coach Dvision.

Announcement of the panel-type vehicle with room for eight rescue workers and some 150 pieces of emergency equipment was made by Philip J. Monaghan, vice president of General Motors and general manager of GMC.

He said the light-duty GMC is designed primarily for civil defense use in the event of a national emergency.

Elaborating, Monaghan said the GMC's special design and emergency equipment make it invaluable in supplementing fire-fighting, rescue work in floods, windstorms, earthquakes and other types of disasters, and in reconstruction operations in stricken areas.

* * *

With four-wheel drive and a 6,000-pound-capacity front winch, the GMC is geared to travel cross-country through deep mud, sand or drifted snow to reach its objective.

NEW GEAR SHIFT

Two compartments behind the front seat, each with over 75 cubic feet of space, have special containers for storing the emergency gear ranging from a portable resuscitator to tools for freeing persons trapped under debris. A special roof rack holds stretchers and a 30-foot extension ladder.

The GMC is powered by a 270-cubic-inch 6-cylinder engine developing 130 horsepower, and has a simplified gear shifting arrangement that changes it from two to four-wheel drive at the flick of a single lever. It is available with either Eynchromesh or Hydra-Matic transmission.

A chief advantage of the Hydra-Matic is that the vehicle equipped with this automatic transmission is extremely easy to drive, and if the need arose, could be operated by a person with no previous truck driving experience.

* * *

India Hunts Oil at Site of Shrine

Hindus Believe Flame From Gas Represents Mouth of Goddess

WASHINGTON — Two kinds of fire seekers are meeting today in the Kangra Valley of India's western Himalayan foothills.

* * *

Less than 10 miles from the old Hindu shrine Jawalamukhi—where the Goddess Vajresvari reveals herself to followers as a small violet flame issuing from the earth—government drilling crews will probe for oil to supply more fuel, light and power to modern India.

The Jawalamukhi temple stands near the town of Kangra, a farm center and holiday resort of the northern Punjab country, says the National Geographic Society. The lighted gas that seeps from a pit inside the temple is believed to represent the deity's mouth.

The present shrine to the flame goddess is a modern restoration of a gilt-domed and pinnacled structure that stood at this site for unknown centuries. A Sanskirt inscription it contained was estimated to date from about 1430.

* * *

The earlier temple was partially destroyed in 1905 by an earthquake that also wrecked much of Kangra town and its ancient fort. More than 1,300 people, including seven Europeans, lost their lives in the disaster.

MINERAL SPRINGS

Together with the shrine's spouting gas, a half dozen hot mineral springs in the neighborhood hint at extensive subterranean activity. The word Jawalamukhi itself literally means "She of the Flame Mouth," and the Hindu mother-deity Vajresvari is known as "Goddess of the Thunderbolt."

Parents Face Court in Cruelty to Children

The Keego Harbor couple accused of cruelty to their 10 children found abandoned in their house last month, was scheduled for examination this afternoon before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

William Wyatt, 29, and his wife demanded examination and were released on $1,000 personal bond.

The children, ranging in age from seven months to 13 years, have been living at the Oakland County Children's Home with the exception of Sherry, 7, who is being treated for a severely burned hand and cuts and bruises at Pontiac General Hospital.

The Wyatts can receive a sentence up to four years in prison or be fined $2,500 if convicted.

Portable Crop Drier

NEW HOLLAND, Pa. — A portable crop drier made by a New Holland company permits farmers to move their forage crops directly from mower to baler barn, making every day a hay day. The drier blows heated air through a green crop, removing moisture without lessening feed value.

Panhandle Gas Asks Quit Ruling

Wants Out of Contract Holding Firm to Serve Michigan Consolidated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charging "persistent interference" in its business, Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. has asked for permission to stop selling natural gas to Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

* * *

Panhandle, a Kansas City, Mo., transmission firm told the Federal Power Commission it wanted to be freed of the order to sell to the Detroit utility so it could better serve its own customers.

* * *

It also claimed "harrassing actions and controversies" engaged in by Michigan Consolidated's parent company, the American Natural Gas Co., was interfering with its business operations.

* * *

Besides, Panhandle claimed, Michigan Consolidated now gets all the gas it needs from its affiliated Michigan-Wisconsin and American-Louisiana pipeline, and pays 50 per cent more for their gas that it does for Panhandle gas.

EXPOSES PLAN

The 127 million cubic feet of gas daily supplied to Michigan Consolidated, Panhandle said, is urgently needed by its other customers in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and Ohio.

Panhandle told the FPC that Michigan Consolidated could get from its affiliates 25 per cent more gas than it sold last year. It would use the additional Panhandle gas, the company said, "simply for standby purposes and to embark upon a vigorous campaign to attach new industrial customers."

* * *

Since the commission last refused Panhandle a request to reduce deliveries to Michigan Consolidated, the new American Louisiana pipeline has been completed, providing Michigan Consolidated with more gas. Panhandle also charged:

* * *

"Despite its efforts to appear in the guise of a local utility, Michigan Consolidated is in reality an arm or tentacle, of a large integrated public utility holding company system."

No date has been set to hear the Panhandle request.

Standard Oil Boss Defends Lobbying

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frank O. Prior, president of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, told Senate investigators today a "vigorous campaign" for the natural gas bill was necessary to offset a "distorted" picture represented by the bill's foes.

* * *

Prior staunchly defended in general his company's activity in behalf of the legislation.

* * *

In his initial testimony before the special Senate Lobby Investigating Committee, Prior did not specifically touch on disputed telegrams sent to Sen. Thye (R-Minn) with company funds. Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) had said there was "fraud" and "forgery" involved in some activities by company employes.

* * *

The inquiry is an offshoot of the row last spring over lobbying pressures on the bill. After Congress

Telephones, an invention of Alexandar Graham Bell, remained silent for one minute throughout America during funeral services for the inventor in 1922.

The classes include 28 seniors, 35 juniors, 46 sophomores, and 88 freshmen.

Following the recent death of the rector, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Szunal, the Rev. Joseph Rybinski was selected for acting rector until Edward J. Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of the Detroit diocese, appoints a new rector for the school.

The term opened with a solemn high mass with Father Rybinski as celebrant, and the Revs. John Buszek and Joseph Swastek assisting.

Mass was attended by the resident faculty and the entire high school student body.

At an orientation program presided over by the principal-registrar, the Rev. Francis Zdrodowski, he welcomed freshmen officially and wished all classes success in the coming year.

The high school curriculum is still tentative until the new rector is appointed.

The juniors and seniors welcome a new course, typing, with Edward Krason as professor. Typing equipment was donated by the Moms and Dads Club of the school.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SHERry Lynne Pentiuk, who passed away Sept. 11, 1951.
No stain was on her little heart,
Sin had not entered there;
And innocence slept sweetly on
That pale white brow so fair.
She was too pure for this cold earth
Too beautiful to stay,
And so God's holy angel bore
Our darling one away.
Sadly missed by Mom, Dad & Sister

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OTIS Dean Craig who passed away Sept. 9, 1949.
A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more:
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
Sadly missed by wife and children.

Does Peggy King Go? George Isn't Talking

By EARL WILSON

LAS VEGAS — I corralled George Gobel and heckled him about Peggy King's singing spot going to Joanne Gilbert or some other gal. "True or false?" I asked him.

"Well, on the one hand," George said—looking at his right hand. "Then on the other"—looking at his left. "That's the advice you get. They say it's silly to change—but on the other hand you shouldn't get into a rut—but on the other hand—this guy has three hands, see?—maybe you'll louse up what you got.

"There's a rumor," he added, "that I'll be back. But I'll be different. I'll be a little taller.

His pal and movie director Hal Kanter, who'd just finished a film, asked me, "Wanna see some good acting?" I did. "Go to another set," he suggested.

Networks Stick to Dreary Fare

Aged Movies Provide More Enjoyment Than Most Programs

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Just the other day someone remarked that this summer television season is taking a long time in dying. The answer is that it has been dead all summer and they've merely neglected to bury the body.

Except for a few good dramas, a very few good dramas, we have been exposed to the most routine second and third-rate television entertainment in many seasons. Summer always has been dull on television, but the summer of 1956 offers a new definition of the word doldrums.

* * *

Why this should be is rather a mystery, though here is one theory: Possibly the major networks knocked themselves out planning and budgeting and covering the national conventions. They did a good job, swinging from the ceiling and chasing delegates up alleys in a frantic effort to bring some excitement into the nation's living rooms. It was not their fault that both major parties handed them impossibly dull scripts.

* * *

One thing this season has taught many viewers. All of those old Hollywood movies are not to be scorned. In fact, if the doldrums last much longer, none are to be scorned.

It turns out that there is some historic interest to be found even in a mediocre old Hollywood movie. By historic interest I mean a "Gee whiz, I'd forgotten skirts were that short then" sort of interest.

* * *

Many of the old movies viewed this summer have been neither as good nor as bad as one remembers them. Some you have not seen are vaguely familiar. Others you have seen are quite unfamiliar.

Altogether, the old movies have stirred interest—if not always nostalgia. And that is more than can be said for the rest of this dreary summer television season.

Polio Kills Boy Who Got Vaccine in Kalamazoo

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Although he had received two shots of the Salk polio vaccine, Robert Budahn Jr., 8, has become Kalamazoo county's second polio death of the year.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Budahn of Kalamazoo, he died yesterday in Bronson Hospital, a week after he was stricken.

The county has recorded 39 cases of polio this season, one of the worst in history. The first fatality was a 39-year-old father of six children, who died July 31.

Says Reds to Market Cheap Jetliner Soon

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The Russians will offer a relatively inexpensive jet airliner to the world market soon, predicts William Lear, airplane equipment maker who visited Moscow this summer.

Lear, who flew his private plane to Russia without State Department authorization, said the Russians will also ask for rights to fly an airline service to the United States.

Accompanied by his wife, Moya, 41, Lear said he was allowed to fly over Moscow so long as he stayed in definite areas. He said he and his wife were kept under constant surveillance there.

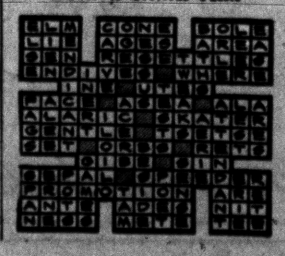

In an interview, the 54-year-old industrialist said the Russians "are grinding out a lot of airplanes and their labor is cheaper than in the United States."

"If they sell them on the world commercial market," Lear said, "it could be serious."

RESCUING A RELIC—Using a photograph of the 1500-year-old medieval bridge, the Ponte Della Pietra, which crossed the River Adige at Verona, Italy, engineers attempt to assign some of the recovered stones to the place they occupied on the old bridge. The ancient monument was blown up by retreating Germans in 1945 and the scattered stone fragments have just been recovered from the river bed. Each block of stone is being catalogued and accurately reproduced in miniature for reconstruction purposes. A temporary bridge (background) has been stretched across the old bridge's pillars until work begins on the project.

Colorado Dems Jobs at Stake

Primary Election Today Will Decide Political Future of Both

DENVER (AP)—The political futures of two widely known Colorado Democrats — Charles F. Brannan, former secretary of agriculture, and John A. Carroll, onetime Fair Deal congressman from Denver—were at stake in today's primary election.

Both are seeking the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator in the top contest of a primary which contained few battles on the state level.

Brannan is making his first bid for elective office. Carroll was Democratic senatorial nominee in 1950 and 1954, both times losing close races to Republicans—first to Sen. Eugene D. Millikin and second to Sen. Gordon Allott.

Even as Coloradoans voted, the general election campaign began to overshadow the primary.

Democrats announced their presidential nominee, Adlai Stevenson, will make a major appearance here Sept. 22. Vice President Nixon, carrying the Republican banner, will be in Colorado Springs the same night and plans to remain over the next day.

* * *

Former Gov. Dan Thornton, unopposed in the primary for the Republican senatorial nomination, prepared to open his campaign formally tomorrow at his home town, Gunnison.

Michigan Bell, Union Work on New Contract

DETROIT (AP) — Talks are under way today for a new contract between Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America.

The negotiations, which affect some 13,640 Michigan Bell employes, began yesterday. The current contract ends Oct. 22.

Among the union demands are wage increases, a shorter work week, better vacation plans, elimination of wage differentials and an added paid holiday.

Williams Opens 1956 Campaign

Attacks Cobo on Xway Program Saying Work Is 'Not Fast Enough'

YPSILANTI (AP)—Covering everything from expressways to old age, Gov. Williams kicked off his 1956 campaign for re-election yesterday in the town that has hosted his four previous campaign starts.

* * *

He followed his Ypsilanti speech quickly with a Detroit television sendoff for his slate of Democrat Candidates, introducing each individually to his audience.

In the Detroit speech, Williams attacked the expressway program of his Republican opponent, Mayor Albert E. Cobo. He said the Detroit expressway program is "not going ahead fast enough."

Cobo, in an earlier speech before the Michigan Municipal League, said the Detroit expressway program was leading the state's road-building.

GIVES SUGGESTION

Williams said Detroit needed 200 miles of expressways, but had only 14 completed. Lt. Gov. Philip Hart said too that the expressway planning was begun by Cobo's predecessors, not by Cobo.

Williams told his Detroit audience: "Why not go down to Federal Bureau of Public Roads and get them to designate the Hastings-Oakland route (north-south on the east side) as part of the federal interstate system? The effect of this would be to qualify this project for ninety per cent federal aid. Then it could be built in about half the time, and at a cost to Michigan taxpayers of ten cents on the dollar."

* * *

At Ypsilanti, Williams said he would work to improve local roads and city streets, build up state parks and tourist attractions, and build the thousand miles of multi-lane highways the state needs.

Match '55, UF Asks Detroit Industries

DETROIT (INS)—Detroit industrialists, who contributed 31.4 per cent of the total United Foundation Torch Drive collection last year, were asked today to at least match their 1955 gifts this year.

More than 100 of the city's stop business and industrial leaders met yesterday at a Foundation Corporate Gifts Committee meeting to hear plans outlined for the forthcoming campaign.

Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motor Co., chairmaned the meeting. He told the group the Detroit-developed "fair share" plan of giving will be used again with amounts to be contributed by employers ranging from $1.48 to $666.70 per employe, varying with the business or industry.

In the Shelburne, Vt., museum of early American history, there is probably the largest existing collection of cigar store wooden Indians.

Atom Research Urged for South

Collins Tells Governors That Nuclear Projects Will Provide Wealth

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) — Southern governors were urged today to set up a Southern center for atomic research.

* * *

The recommendation came from a special committee, headed by Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida, and was based on a yearlong study.

Collins appealed to his colleagues at the 22nd annual Governors Conference to "do something creative" and "bring dreams into reality."

"Grandiose plans impossible to carry out are useless of course," he said, "but ingenious, dramatic plans are not impractical merely because they have never been tried."

* * *

Collins led a discussion group on the subject of nuclear energy and how Dixie can best share in its peaceful development.

Gov. James E. Folsom of Alabama, in a paper on industrial uses of atomic power, urged the South to "move in now on the ground floor of the atomic industry."

Ne strongly endorsed the Collins' groups four major recommendations:

1. To set up a nuclear test center in the South. He said a board of directors, one from each of the 16 states below the Mason-Dixon line, could run it with cooperation from the Atomic Energy Commission.

* * *

2. To launch an information program to enlighten Southern industry on actual experience with atomic power.

* * *

3. To tell the public about the peaceful atomic uses.

* * *

4. To back education programs aimed at training manpower for work in atomic plants.

Roosevelt Legal Aide Succumbs

Homer S. Cummings Appointed as New Deal Attorney General

WASHINGTON (AP) — Homer S. Cummings, who fought many of the New Deal's legal battles, is dead at the age of 86.

* * *

The death yesterday of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's first attorney general was attributed to heart failure. He left only a grandson, Schuyler Cummings of Miami, Fla.

Cummings had been in private law practice since retiring from the Roosevelt Cabinet 17 years ago. The long-time Democrat is remembered for his part in the Roosevelt administration's unsuccessful fight to put across legislation to empower the President to name one new Supreme Court justice for each sitting member over age 70. Authorship of this plan, derided by its foes as a "court packing" scheme, was credited to Cummings.

* * *

For about 40 years Cummings was active in Democratic party affairs, serving for a quarter century as national committeeman from Connecticut. Last night, Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler praised him for serving "his country notably throughout his illustrious career."

* * *

Born in Chicago, Cummings was educated at Yale and remained on in Connecticut until he entered the Roosevelt Cabinet. Since his retirement from the government in 1939, he had spent most of his time here. His fourth wife, Julia, died last year.

* * *

Funeral services were planned tentatively for tomorrow.

Reuther Raps GOP Plan for More Jobs

DETROIT (AP)—"A false appearance of Republican concern," was the label pinned by Union Leader Walter Reuther on a government clinic billed as designed to ease Michigan unemployment by expanding defense work.

Reuther, United Auto Workers president, called the Armed Services Community Production Clinic, opening in Detroit today, "a cynically calculated political move."

The Defense Department says the clinic will give manufacturers chance to obtain information on defense contracts that come up for bids in October.

"It will be cold comfort" Reuther said, for jobless workers living on "inadequate" compensation benefits or savings. He said the UAW will welcome necessary defense work, however.

Reuther said Republicans are sending defense procurement agents into Michigan plants because of the nearing election.

Chick Scares Snake and Thus Beats Fate

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — James G. Atkins, Birmingham reporter, was given a puff adder and advised to put the harmless snake in a cage and provide a live baby chick as food.

At the sight of the chick, the snake hissed and spread its hood in its best terrorizing manner. Peep-peeping happily, the chick hopped on the snake and ran up and down its coils pecking at its scales. The adder drew back in obvious terror.

To save his snake from a nervous breakdown, Atkins gave the chick away and turned to frogs and rats for adder fare.

Built Before 1,200 B. C.

Archaeologists Unearth Ancient Biblical City

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — American archaeologists have discovered the Biblical Israelite city of Gibeon near el-Jib, eight miles north of Jerusalem.

Gibeon, mentioned 43 times in the Bible, is described in the Old Testament as "one of the royal cities." Archaeologists believe the Jewish city was built before 1,200 B. C. and was at the peak of its life from 800 to 600 B. C.

* * *

The University of Pennsylvania Museum announced the discovery. It said parts of Gibeon's fortification and its water system had been excavated during the summer by an expedition sponsored by the museum and the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, Calif.

Identification of el-Jib as the site of Gibeon came with the discovery of three storage jars, inscribed in Hebrew script with the address of their owner, the announcement said.

The city covered an area of about 16 acres, the museum said, and was surrounded by a wall 10 feet wide enlarged at vital points to 26 feet. Fortified towers were built at the wide spots.

* * *

"The most spectacular discovery," the announcement said, "was a pool cut from the solid rock and large enough to contain a three-story house.

"It is believed that this pool is is that mentioned in Chapter 2 of the Second Book of Samuel, as the scene of the famous match between the men of Abner, Saul's captain, and Joab, the captain of David's forces."

The expedition was said to have dug into the pool for seven weeks without finding the bottom. They had followed a stone, circular stairway 35 feet down wsich served, it was said, as an access for the Gibeon people to the pool's water level.

The capacity of the excavated portion of the pool was estimated at 200,000 gallons.

* * *

The museum said archaeologists had established the sites of five different cities in the area, the earliest of which appeared to have been built about 3,000 B. C. It said complete excavation would require a number of years. Areas excavated this year were rented from land owners.

The expedition was led by Dr. James B. Pritchard.
