Tornado-Like Winds Lash South Oakland Area

Gigantic A-Blast Rocks Marines Like Earthquake

AEC Thinks Explosion May Be Most Powerful Ever Set Off in U.S.

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—A gigantic atomic explosion rocked entrenched Marines "like an earthquake" and set fire to brush and trees on distant mountains today.

The Atomic Energy Commission said the blast could have been the most powerful ever set off in the United States.

The mighty weapon shook the surrounding desert and blistered the breaking dawn with a blinding flash.

The Marines were entrenched 5,200 yards from where the weapon was exploded beneath a balloon at an altitude of 1,500 feet.

In a telephone interview with the Associated Press, Brig. Gen.

Harvey Tschrigi, commander of the Marine brigade, said:

"It was pretty rough. Lots of dust. It shook us like an earthquake. I felt like I was on roller skates for a few seconds."

50 FEET CLOSER

The general was in a trench 50 feet closer to ground zero than those of the 1,090 men in his command.

Gen. Tschrigi said there were some cave-ins in the trenches but that they were not serious.

One Marine was buried by a cave-in. He is Pfc. Theodore Sturgion, of St. Louis, Mo. It took 15 minutes to get him out. He was not hurt.

As the dirt began to cascade down upon him in his trench, he grabbed a buddy and was able to keep his head above the earth.

The AEC said today's bomb could have had a peak power exceeding the largest device exploded here previously. It added that the power possibly could have ranged slightly below the former big shot.

Veteran observers said the fireball this morning was more spectacular than any that they had ever seen.

Fair, Cool Tonight, Warmer Saturday

The weather forecast for Pontiac and vicinity is fair and cool tonight with a low near 56.

Sunny and warmer is the prediction for tomorrow. The high will be near 80.

Fresh west to northwest winds are expected to diminish this evening.

Party cloudy and warmer is the outlook for Sunday.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 a.m. was 62. The mercury read 74 at 2 p.m.

Thief Nabs Fur Coat —in 104-Degree Heat

GLENDALE, Calif. (INS) — A Glendale housewife complained about the theft of a fur coat from her clothesline and police started a search for the thief — as much for curiosity as for anything else.

Mrs. Elia A. Faggioli was inside her house when the item was stolen. She was recovering from the 104-degree temperature.

Congressman Fans Controversy

Japanese Girl Marries Girard in Church Rites

CAMP WHITTINGTON, Japan (AP) — GI William S. Girard and the Japanese girl who offered to serve any prison term he might be given were married again today in a simple church ceremony.

"This is a very happy event," the smiling, 21-year-old soldier said after the Methodist rites in Camp Whittington's small white chapel. "I only wish my mother and brother were here."

His 27-year-old bride, Haru (Candy) Sueyama, said in English into a microphone: "Thank you very much."

Then the couple drove to the home of friends inside the camp for a wedding party. Girard is restricted to the base pending the outcome of an international wrangle over whether Japan or the

Army should try him for killing a Japanese woman while on guard duty last January. He had to return to his barracks — without Candy—tonight.

The double ring ceremony, performed by an Army chaplain, followed the depositing of marriage documents with civil agencies which legally made them man and wife last Tuesday.

On the wedding eve an American congressman added fuel to the controversy over the Girard case, declaring that official Army reports indicated Girard had lured Mrs. Naka Sakai to her death on a U.S. firing range a few miles from here. She was struck in the back by an empty shell casing fired from a grenade launcher.

Girard, who was guarding equipment on the firing range, has said the shooting was accidental. But Rep. Burleson (D-Tex) said in Washington the Army had testimony from another soldier that Girard urged him to throw out shell castings to attract Mrs. Sakai, a scrap collector, and that Girard had told the woman to pick them up. Burleson is chairman of a House subcommitee which investigated the case.

Burleson identified the other soldier as Specialist 3.C. Victor Nickel.

Girard repeatedly replied "no comment" today to questions about the Burleson statement.

Michigan Firm Given Big Defense Contract

KALAMAZOO (AP) — The Defense Department has awarded $2,750,000 contract to the Ingersoll Kalamazoo Division of the Borg-Warner Corporation for boosters and motors to be used in new nike Hercules guided missile.

It is the largest missile contract ever received by the local plant and the largest defense contract of any kind since the close of the Koran war.

Bobby Locke Wins Fourth British Open

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Bobby Locke of South Africa won the British Open golf championship today by shooting rounds of 68 and 70 on the final 36 holes for a 72-hole total of 279.

Two American entries, Cary Middlecoff and Frank Stranahan, finished far behind with totals of 289 and 291, respectivel. Both Middlecoff and Stranahan shot 74 and 72 on the last two rounds.

Middlecoff, twice American Open champion, shot a final round of 72 today over the St. Andrews old course, after taking a 74 in the third round this morning. He had a 72-hole total of 289.

Hold Your Hats! Puzzle Solution Due Tomorrow

Anxious Pot-O-Gold contestants will have to undergo another day of suspense. Because of the holiday, judges were unable to check all the entries yesterday, so answers will be published in tomorrow's Press, along with news of possible winners.

This short delay will enable you to spend more time on this week's puzzle, which appears on page 12.

Remember, you have until Tuesday to have your entry postmarked, and if no winner is found for last week's puzzle, another $100 will be added to the pot.

Open-Toe Sandal OK'd for Big-Footed Soldier

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (INS)—Pfc. John Ano, 23, of Trenton, N.J., is one soldier who has found a sure way of getting out of those long marches.

The six-foot three soldier wears a size 16 shoe and the army quartermasters supply nothing bigger than a size 14. So Ano has been given special permission to wear open-toed sandals with his regulation khakis and has been put behind a desk to escape drilling.

Press Want Ads Work —

Pontiac Press Want Ads not only get results, they sometimes go to work for the advertiser even before they are published.

On a recent morning a woman approached patrolman Neil King near The Pontiac Press parking lot and asked if he had seen her black cocker spaniel which she said had jumped out of her car near The Press building.

At 11:15, King found the dog near the Courthouse but remembered he did not know the woman's name or address.

He appealed to the Press Classified advertising department and, sure enough, there was the woman's plea for her dog.

A call to the house reunited the dog and the family.

3 Ousted Stalinist Leaders Reported Under Arrest

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio announced tonight that Mikhail Pervukhin and Maxim Saburov have been relieved of their duties as deputy premiers.

LONDON (INS) — The Soviet Union's three ousted Stalinist leaders — reportedly under house arrest and facing trial — were accused by the press today of plotting secretly to "seize power."

Although Moscow was calm today in the wake of the dramatic dismissal of V. M. Molotov, Georgi Malenkov and Lazar Kaganovich, Communist Party and newspaper attacks rose to new heights of ferocity.

Pionerskaya Pravda, a youth paper, charged that the trio "plotted secretly among themselves, founded their own group and planned to seize power in the party to change the party's policy."

Although an official party communique already had accused them of anti-party activity this was the first open charge that they had conspired to take over.

TRIALS PREDICTED

The press blasts coincided with a prediction by a Soviet diplomat that the three would be tried for crimes against the people.

The diplomat, whose name cannot be revealed, said a special committee is preparing to accuse the three men formally of "factionalism," attempts to revive the "personality cult," and sabotaging the anti-Stalinist policies of last year's 20th Soviet Party Congress.

Kaganovich was singled out for denunciation by N. T. Kalchenko, premier of the Ukrainian Republic. Pravda and other Moscow papers reported that Kaganovich was accused of doing "all he could to discredit and insult party workers and fling mud on honest people devoted to the party."

Other reports demonstrated the extent to which Nikita S. Khrushchev, the U.S.S.R.'s undisputed top man, is going to disgrace his former Kremlin pals.

A newspaper from the Ural Mountain area said the people of the Molotov Region wanted to change the name of their region and town back to Perm.

Nevertheless, it was taking a while for the lesser party functionaries and citizens to get used to the latest developments. Portraits of Molotov, Kaganovich and Malenkov hung on hotel lobby walls and Moscow Radio commentators now and then called the discredited trio "comrades."

Polish sources said the three were under house arrest.

Jammed County Roads Reported During Holiday

Highway traffic hit its season's peak yesterday as thousands jammed county thoroughfares on their way to cottages, swimming areas and state parks.

The state police post in Redford reported U.S.-16 was a solid string of traffic as far as Novi, while U.S.-24 likewise carried a record volume of vehicles.

Afternoon winds and the evening storm apparently helped both park and law enforcement officials, as thousands started home early.

A spokesman at Dodge State Park No. 4 on Cass Lake, said approximately 1,000 cars were lined up to get in at 8 a.m. The day's total attendance was 30,000 persons.

However, he said the park was just about empty by 8 p.m. after the storm came.

Pontiac Lake Park reported the largest crowd on record. A spokesman said 21,000 people used the park during the day.

He said almost all the tables on the north shore were taken by 5 a.m. although storm reports sent people scrambling to their cars early.

Pontiac State Police and Oakland County Sheriff's Department reported very heavy traffic on Cass Lake Rd., in the Keego Harbor area, and on both north and south portions of the Dixie Highway.

The storm eased traffic on all roads between 8 and 9 p.m.

Brighton Homes Hit but Occupants Unhurt

Other Towns in the Vicinity Suffer Extensive Damage; City Escapes Loss

A vicious rain storm, whipped by winds of hurricane velocity, tore into southern Oakland County last night causing severe damage but no loss of life.

The blow was particularly felt in Huntington Woods, Hazel Park and Royal Oak.

Moving almost in a straight westerly line, the storm blasted the area between Brighton and Farmington injuring a family in the Saxony Subdivision just south of Brighton but miraculously causing no fatalities.

The Pontiac area felt some of the fury of the wind and received heavy rainfall, but no serious damage resulted.

FIRST HIT

The Brighton area, in Livingston County, was the first to feel the tornado-like wind. Harold Bidwell, 23, his wife and two children, one a five-day old baby, were at home when the entire house was literally torn away from them.

Bidwell grabbed his wife, who was holding the baby and pulled her to the floor. "Then everything went," he said.

When they recovered, the couple found themselves uninjured but their daughter Linda, 2, was hurled from the living room sofa out into the front yard. She too was uninjured.

The storm also toppled trees across Grand River, further tying up the heavy traffic stream swollen with holiday outers.

In Farmington Township, Walter Regentik, a farmer, saw a funnel coming and then heard his large barn being torn apart. An elevated gasoline storage tank also toppled, but his home was not damaged.

LOSES ROOF

A home at 30850 Runnymede, in the township, lost its roof in the storm. The owners, the Arthur H. Schuon family, was not at home.

In Huntington Woods, Aaron Berg, of 12928 Nadine, was cut by glass when the upper story of his home was blown away. His neighbor's home suffered a similar fate. All able bodied men were called out by the mayor, David R. Calhoun, to help clear storm litter.

As the storm passed through Royal Oak, wires, trees, fences and garages toppled, but no injuries were reported. The wind took the roof of Huntington Woods Pharmacy on Woodward. Next door, the wind neatly stacked a display of garden furniture in one corner of the Diamond Awning Co.

Rising Road Toll Reaches 152

..6 Die in State Traffic; Final Tally to Hit 535, Predict Experts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The pace of traffic fatalities quickened today and alarmed traffic experts pleaded that motorists across the nation redouble their care to bring the long Independence Day holiday toll back under control.

With the four-day holiday in its second day, the toll of dead from traffic accidents stood at 152. Another 94 died from drowning and 28 lost their lives in miscellaneous accidents for a total of 274. There were no deaths from fireworks.

As the highway death toll increased at "an alarming rate," Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, urged drivers to exercise extreme caution to hold down the number of fatalities.

Deaths counted in the long holiday cover the 102-hour period from 6 p.m. local time, Wednesday to midnight Sunday.

At least nine persons lost their lives in accidents over the first 36 hours of the holiday weekend in Michigan.

Traffic accidents claimed six lives on state highways jammed with motorists. Four persons drowned in boating and fishing accidents.

State traffic victims included:

Kenneth Baldwin, 21, Lake City.
Johannes Molewyk, 74, Holland.
David Kuskel, 4, Bark River.
Mrs. Florence Gallagher, 59, Clarkston.
Al:1 O'Dell, 42, Grand Rapids.
Nicholas Morales, 42, Flint.

Bert Carlson, 65, Chassell.
James Allen, 20, Lawton.
Clarence Johns, 65, Hale.

Sewer System Work to Begin

Bloomfield, Parts of Birmingham and Troy Will Be Served

Work is expected to begin Monday on the first branch of the North Evergreen Interceptor sanitary sewer system which will provide sanitary facilities for Bloomfield Township, Bloomfield Hills, and part of Birmingham and Troy.

A contract for $143,248 was awarded this week to the R. D. Baker Construction Co. of Detroit by the North Evergreen Sewage Disposal Authority.

This section is the first link in a $1,400,000 system which will eventually connect with the Evergreen Interceptor. This in turn will join with the Detroit sewer system.

The money making possible the letting of the contract came from Troy and Bloomfield Township builders. In addition, the Birmingham Board of Education and the Sacred Heart Convent, planned for Troy, each advanced $10,000.

Ike Inspecting Gettysburg Farm During Weekend

For the first time, reporters spotted him riding about the estate before dusk yesterday, inspecting his herd of Aberdeen Angus cattle and his flourishing feed crops.

Secret Service agents in two cars patrolled the strip of highway that borders the property as the President, clad in tan riding breeches, shiny boots, white shirt and bow tie, jogged at a rapid trot around the rim of the farm.

He was astride Sporty Miss, the fast chestnut mare presented to him last year by the American Quarterhorse Assn. Riding with him was Dick Flohr of the White House Secret Service detail, on another gift horse, Doodle-de-do.

Graham Urges Spiritual Revival

Claims U. S. Facing 'Moral Deterioration'; Likens Nation to Rome

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham says this nation "must have a spiritual revival that will put a new moral fiber in our country or we will be done..."

Graham's subject last night before 16,000 persons at Madison Square Garden was "Where Is America Headed?"

"We are now facing a moral deterioration that is going to eat out the heart and core of the nation," said Graham, adding:

"The same symptoms that were prevalent in Rome in the last days before its fall are now present in America."

The North Carolina evangelist chose his text from 2 Chron. 7:14 —"If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Graham, who carried on despite a slight fever, told his audience that "lewd magazines on newsstands make a Christian blush when he stops to buy a newspaper."

Graham warned the United States to solve its racial tensions with love, lest the judgment of God fall upon the nation. One reason we have been spared so far, he said, "is that God has always befriended people who have taken care of minority groups within their borders, especially the Jews."

Farmington Girl Burned During Family Outing

A 23-month-old Farmington girl, Carol Lynn Lampela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben A. Lampela, of 33849 Rhonswood St., was rushed to Pontiac General Hospital yesterday with second degree burns of the left leg, according to sheriff's reports.

The youngster reportedly tipped over a pot of hot coffee while on an outing with her parents at Homstead Park, located on Richardson Rd, in Commerce Township. Hospital officials said she was in satisfactory condition today.

Actress Flies to London for Talk

Ingrid and Nehru Discuss Rossellini Love Rumors

LONDON (INS) — Ingrid Bergman said today she discussed with Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru what she called the "thoroughly exaggerated" reports of her husband's romance with an Indian women.

Ingrid made an unannounced trip from Paris to London last night to have dinner at the Indian embassy with Nehru and his sister, Indian High Commissioner Mrs. V. L. Pandit.

Miss Bergman said Nehru was "thoroughly distressed about the quotations which have been put in his mouth" about Roberto Rossellini's reported attachment for Mrs. Sonali Das Gupta, a 27-year-old model and mother.

Nehru, Miss Bergman said, "has never said one word" about the affair.

Newspapers previously had quoted Nehru as saying he was very angry over the 51-year-old film director's supposed link with Mrs. Das Gupta.

Ingrid and British movie actress Ann Todd were Nehru's dinner guests. Miss Bergman insisted that the meeting was "social" and that the main purpose of her brief visit to London was to "see Ann."

Rossellini's visa, which was extended last month, is scheduled to expire on July 9. Miss Bergman has said she expects him to join her and their three children in Italy in July for a vacation at their Santa Marinella seaside resort.

Ingrid said she expects to see her daughter Jenny Lindstrom, 18, in Paris before going on to Italy. Jenny, Ingrid's daughter by her first marriage, has not seen her mother for five years. She is now en route to Europe for a reunion with Ingrid.

Say Iran Quake Worst Since '49

Death Toll Past 1,500, 100 Villages Destroyed in Devastated Strip

TEHRAN, (AP) — Official sources say the earthquake in north Iran was the world's most devastating since 1949.

Aid teams still were unable to reach many of the 100 villages reported destroyed Tuesday. But a government spokesman said last night the number of Iranians killed would reach well over 1,500. A member of Parliament put the figure at 5,000.

The earthquake-battered area curved for 500 miles from the Soviet Azerbaijan border on the northwest, southward around the Caspian Sea and back to the border of Soviet Turkmen on the northeast.

Although the adjoining Soviet areas doubtless were damaged, there has been no report of casualties or damage north of the border.

Topping the 1,400 killed in Algeria in September 1954, the official figure was the greatest number of persons killed in an earthquake since 6,500 died in Ecuador in August 1949.

Housewife Tells of Storm Havoc at Brighton

BRIGHTON (AP) — Mrs. Shirley Nuottela still isn't sure she believes what she saw. But she watched while a tornado leveled two of her neighbors' homes, severely damaged 11 others and left the Saxony subdivision 1½ miles south of Brighton a pile of twisted trees and powerlines.

Here is the slender 23-year-old brunette's story of last night's tragedy:

"I was standing just outside my front door. At first it looked like a tremendous rainstorm.

"But suddenly I guess you could say it boiled into a funnel.

"Fire spurted from electric lines when they went down. Everything was flying in the air. Huge trees just snapped.

"I saw a garbage can turn red hot when some power lines fell and wrapped around it. That tornado passed right over our house after it did all that damage to the other homes.

"But the saddest thing that I saw happen didn't strike me until later. I saw our neighbor's dog run outside the house during the height of the storm. I guess he was scared.

"I found him later. He had been electrocuted by power lines."

Rocket Test Ends in Failure

Aerobee Hi Travels 25 Seconds Then Falls in Manitoba

FT. CHURCHILL, Man. (AP)—The second rocket firing in a U.S. test series seeking scientific information on the upper atmosphere ended in failure early today. The first rocket went 160 miles up yesterday.

A brief U.S. Army announcement from this Hudson Bay military base said the second "flight was unsuccessful" but gave no indication how far the Aerobee Hi rocket traveled before crashing.

It was in the air about 25 seconds. The Aerobee Hi normally travels about 1.28 miles a second.

A spokesman said no one was injured in the test and no explosion was heard after the crash.

Lt. Col. L. G. Smith of the Army Ordnance Corps, in charge of the launchings, said apparently "premature burnout" occurred. Indicating the 24-foot rocket came down at some distance from the launching site 13 miles east of this Canadian military base, Smith said a helicopter would fly over the wreckage today for an investigation.

The rocket launched yesterday was the first of the biggest firings of the International Geophysical Year, an 18-month period of scientific study that began Monday.

The first rocket was in flight 4 minutes 30 seconds. It came to earth 80 miles southeast of Ft. Churchill, nearly disintegrated from atmospheric friction. The flight set a local altitude record, besting the 156-mile mark set in a 1956 test.

Rain, High Winds Tear Into County

roofs were blown off two small factories on East Ten Mile road.

Two police officers saw a moving car picked up by a tornado and turned over on East Ten Mile. They rescued the driver, Onsen German, 56, of Hazel Park, who was pinned underneath his car. He was not seriously hurt.

DIE DOWN

The high winds had started to die down when they reached Rochester, but a bolt of lightning hit a power transformer setting off the fire siren which wailed for some 15 minutes. Many residents thought it was a tornado alert and hundreds called the Rochester Police Dept.

The storm entered the Livingston-Oakland area at about 7 p.m. and blew itself out in about two hours.

It also struck several points around the state and in neighboring Midwest states. Funnel clouds, thought to be tornadoes hit northwest of Alpena, toppling three barns.

In Bryan, Ohio, the main street was smashed by high winds which caused $500,000 damage to buildings and power and communications lines.

The Day in Birmingham

Area Damage Total Light; Fireworks as Scheduled

BIRMINGHAM — Birmingham suffered little or no damage in the severe wind and electrical storm which struck the entire area early last night. Checks with city departments and utility companies show nothing more alarming that a few limbs blown out of trees.

In spite of the fact that many catch basins this morning resembled beaver houses from piled up twigs, basement flooding went unreported.

Bloomfield Hills reported no damage from the wind but said traffic tie-ups resulted from flooded sections of Woodward avenue.

Bloomfield Township said wind and rain were severe but no damage was reported.

In Birmingham, Chamber of Commerce officials debated the advisability of going on with the 9 p.m. fireworks display. Clearing weather at the last minute put the display on according to schedule, and despite the earlier storm enjoyed an excellent turnout.

At Birmingham Country Club, the private display sponsored there went on, according to schedule.

At Cranbrook, however, the celebration was rained out. A member of the Bloomfield Hills Police Dept., awaiting the affair, said that he had never seen the rain so heavy. He added, ruefully, that "it rained almost as hard inside the car as it did out."

Birmingham City Manager Harold K. Schone said forestry department equipment, including the city's heavy winch truck was dispatched to Huntington Woods to assist in the cleanup job there.

Residents returning to Birmingham last night from holiday activities to the south reported roads blocked off in the entire Royal Oak area due to storm debris.

Applications will be received until July 9 for the examination for rural carrier of the Bloomfield Hills Post Office. Complete information on requirements and instruction on application filing may be obtained from the postmaster.

The Bloomfield area will play a prominent part in the General Motors Conference for Engineering and Science Educators. The sixth annual event is scheduled for July 7 through 23.

Dr. Lawrence R. Hafstad of Manor road, Bloomfield Township, who heads the research staff at General Motors will be one of the three hosts.

Louis C. Goad, executive vice-president of Bloomfield Hills, William M. Collins, operations policy committee secretary, and George A. Jacobi, personnel relations staff director, will be among the speakers.

Rates Go Up, So Do Benefits

Medical Policy Firms Offer Broadcast Plan for Coverage

DETROIT (INS) — An average increase of 12 per cent in combined Blue Cross-Blue Shield rates was announced today.

The greatest broadening of benefits in several years was announced along with the rates increase.

Jay Ketchum, executive vice president of Blue Shield, and William S. McNary, executive vice president of Blue Cross, announced the new rates and benefits. They said:

"Present rates no longer provide sufficient income to cover the bare cost of hospital and medical-surgical care for members."

New benefits accompanying the rate-increase include:

Blue Cross: Most benefits which were available only to bed-patients in the past have been extended to out-patients.

Blue Shield: All surgery now will be covered, whether it is in the hospital or a doctor's office. In the past, only a score of operations were authorized for payment if performed in an office instead of a hospital.

5 Persons Injured in Crash on Baldwin

Five persons, including a 32-day-old girl were injured in an auto accident last night on Baldwin Ave. near Merrimac St. but all were treated for minor injuries and released from Pontiac General Hospital.

Pontiac Police report Charles M. Shedd, 33, of 772 Mae Ct., was driving north on Baldwin when the auto driven by Glyn F. Post, 39, of 103 Fairgrove Ave., collided with Shedd's.

Four passengers in Shedd's auto treated for minor abrasions and lacerations were his two daughters, Nina, 32 days and Marjorie, 9; Ira Hardin, 47, of 178 Alberta St., and Edna M. Hardin, 45, of 179 Alberta St., both of Pontiac Township. Post was treated for forehead and wrist lacerations.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

Where are the jetstreams in the United States? Are we learning more about them?

In the winter there are usually two jetstreams over the United States—both flowing east at high altitude. The lower one passes in the general vicinity of St. Louis quite often, though it ventures up and down, from north and south, as it crosses a map of the country.

The higher jetstream can often be found in the vicinity of Chicago, and it follows a zig-zag course across the country. Pilots are learning to get into both of them to facilitate eastward flight.

A few days ago the writer, flying in a jet above 30,000 feet, encountered a jetstream between Washington and New York, moving northeast. Buffeting of the aircraft is a sign that one is in one of these streams. Ground speed might increase 100 m.p.h., inside one.

The jetstreams, it is now known, move up and down, as well as north and south, as they flow eastward. Some say they produce tornadoes, when they come down and hit the surface. In summer, over the U.S.A., only one stream is usually present — both having moved north from their winter courses, and the southernmost one, which crosses the lower U.S.A. in winter, is the only one above us in summer and it is much further north.

FIREWORKS DELUXE — The atomic fireball from today's giant nuclear test detonation appears to have horns as it boils high above the Nevada desert a few seconds after the blast. The device was exploded under a balloon at an altitude of 1,500 feet. Officials did not reveal its size but said it was in a class with the biggest ever set off in the United States.

Mountain Searched for Missing Youth

LEWISTON, Mont. (AP)—Volunteers searched a heavily timbered mountain area near here today for a 17-year-old boy who has been three days without medicine he needs daily to prevent exhaustion.

The boy's father, Claude Foster of Billings, Mont., said that his son, Robert, must take the medicine for a thyroid condition.

2 Forest Fires in State

LANSING (AP)— Only two forest fires were reported in Michigan last week, damaging about three acres in the Crystal Falls District of the Upper Peninsula. The State Conservation Department estimated the fire loss so far this year at 5,266 acres.

Teenager Burned by Firecrackers

CHEROKEE, Okla. (AP)—A 17-year-old Enid teenager was burned seriously yesterday when 144 packages of firecrackers exploded inside a car here. The explosion demolished the auto and shattered windows of a nearby church.

Marvin James Loudermilk suffered burns over 65 per cent of his body, said a hospital spokesman.

A companion, Leon Mahan, 17, jumped out of the car and escaped injury. Officers theorized one of the boys lighted a firecracker and attempted to toss it out of the car, but it either fell or was blown back inside.

Wordy Fellow, What?

PHILADELPHIA — Literary researchers have counted about 20,000 different words used by Shakespeare in writing his dramas.

Actor to Stage Fall Play

NEW YORK (AP) — Sir Cedric Hardwicke, an actor who likes to alternate directorial chores with starring roles, is slated to stage "Miss Isobel" on Broadway next fall for producers Leonard Sillman and John Roberts. Shirley Booth, who prefers performing only, will star.

Solon Accuses Weathermen

Long Says Forecast for Louisiana Hurricane 12 Hours Off

CAMERON, La. (UP)—A verbal storm brewed today in devastated southwest Louisiana after Sen. Russell Long (D-La) charged the Weather Bureau was 12 hours off on its prediction the night before Hurricane Audrey ripped inland.

This "led the people to stay here," he said.

Long made a three-hour tour of ravaged Cameron Parish (county) where an estimated 700 persons died in the hurricane and its 20-foot tidal waves.

"The Weather Bureau made a mistake in not telling the people to get out the previous afternoon," Long said. "I want to know when the Weather Bureau discovered it was more than 12 hours wrong on when the hurricane would reach our coast, and what was done about it.

"I am going to find the answers."

Hurricane forecaster Raymond Kraft of the Weather Bureau office in New Orleans commented: "We stand on what we said at the time. Our advisories speak for themselves."

In its 10 a.m. advisory of June 26, the day before the tragic hurricane struck the mainland, the Weather Bureau predicted the center would move inland late the next day, then added:

"However, due to the size of the hurricane, gales will start along the Louisiana coast tonight. Tides are rising and will reach five to eight feet. . .All persons in low exposed places should move to higher ground."

At 10 p.m. that night, the advisory said the hurricane was 235 miles south of Lake Charles, or 200 miles off the coast, with gales extending out 200 miles.

Sheriff Henry Reid of Calcasieu Parish said in Lake Charles the number of bodies has reached 305 and the newly started official list of missing has reached 74.

Key Deer Are Scarce

KEY WEST, Fla.—The tiny key deer, named for the Florida keys, their habitat, now number about 94. Frequent counts are made to save them from becoming extinct. The average adult is 27 inches tall, 38 inches long, and weighs 30 pounds.

Baby Shoes Banned

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP)—Such windshield ornaments as baby shoes and dice are banned in California under a bill signed by Gov. Goodwin Knight yesterday. The law, effective in September, bans anything that might obstruct a driver's vision.

20 Drown in India

BOMBAY (UP)—Official reports today said 20 persons were drowned in Godavari River when their boat capsized 50 miles from Ahmednagar. Ten persons swam to safety.

Brahman Bulls Kill Rodeo Rider, Hurt 2

PRESCOTT, Ariz. (UP)—Great, humpbacked Brahman bulls, so vicious that they have thrown 24 of the 27 cowboys who tried to ride them in rodeos during the last two weeks, killed a rider yesterday and injured two others.

One of the bulls stamped on Odis Sullivan's chest as he was bringing him out of the chute. The 27-year-old rider from Kanab, Utah, died shortly afterwards in the hospital.

South African Sailor Fishes in Lake Superior

Shades of the Norwegian Vikings! A South African sailor comes over to the New World to fish in Lake Superior. He sails his own two masted ketch over for the outing.

Here is an event which will stir the emotions of anyone who has dreamed of traveling to the far places of the earth. Unimportant, of course, according to generally accepted standards of importance. It isn't going to settle the affairs of the world. Nor is it going to make the world appreciably better.

But to Jerry Trowbridge of Durban, South Africa, it was an intensely interesting moment when he sailed the boat he had built in South Africa into the Soo locks the other day and watched it being gently raised up to the level of Lake Superior.

Reaching the Soo for Jerry really had a double meaning, since it was from there that he made the announcement that he would be married shortly to Miss Marie Hickey, a Pontiac girl. They will spend their honeymoon together sailing his 36-foot ketch down the Mississippi and on to Cuba.

Jerry is thirty-five years old, still young enough to feel the thrill and the lure of worldwide adventure. In the past four years this young man has covered 21,000 miles on his leisurely cruise. When he runs out of funds, he stops and works awhile at his trade as a pipefitter.

When he went through the locks, his boat was sandwiched in with Great Lakes freighters. They too, must have found this a somewhat out of the ordinary occasion, to be thus rubbing noses with a craft from away down under.

After he does his Lake Superior fishing, Jerry plans to sail with his new wife down Lake Michigan, through the Chicago Drainage Canal and on down the Mississippi River to the Gulf of Mexico and to Cuba. He left home four and a half years ago. His return date is uncertain. Unworried by hurricanes, unharassed by old world tensions, his biggest uncertainty at the moment is whether those fish will be biting when he casts his line into the chilly waters of Lake Superior.

Few people could actually do what Jerry Trowbridge is doing. They are not so footloose, for one thing. They have other things to do, earn a living, for example. But a lot of them will feel a quickening of the pulse as they read of Jerry and his sailing ketch.

Uniform Traffic Laws

With the vacation season in full swing that old bugaboo, lack of uniformity in state traffic laws, is coming in for fresh criticism. Instead of arriving at a more standard code of driving regulations, the individual states tend to differ more and more each year.

This lack of similarity between states makes driving conditions continue to be dangerous for the vacationing public. We are an auto-minded nation, and when we think in terms of a vacation, we automatically go for our car.

In a recent dispatch from Washington, Douglas Larsen highlights comment by traffic safety engineer, Irving S. Markel, in statements to a congressional committee studying highway safety.

As a few samples of the dangerous discrepancies, Markel cites the fact that fewer than 25 states have compulsory inspection of the vehicles to determine their mechanical soundness; that some states allow children 14 and 15 to drive, though normally they lack the maturity for the job.

Markel further stresses that all kinds of variations exist on speed limits, traffic lanes and rules affecting the use of the road. He also believes the states never will voluntarily put a uniform code into effect and that therefore Federal legislation is required to enforce it.

Perhaps this is the time for Congress to come up with a report that carries the unmistakable warning a Federal club will be used if the states do not swiftly adopt the uniform code.

Uniform traffic laws are long overdue.

We have had enough of these death-dealing discrepancies which leave motorists at a loss to know what is right as they cross from state to state.

"Life is merely imaginary," says a metaphysicist. Even if so, most of us are going to do our utmost as long as possible to continue to imagine we're living.

The Man About Town

Mosquito or Fish?

Seems That We Must Make Our Choice Between Them

Fifth: Day of recovering from the Fourth.

A few days ago the area in Waterford Township where lives on the east bank of Lake Oakland was sprayed with DDT by plane to kill mosquitoes. He now reports counting 500 dead fish in the space of 500 feet along his shore. There were no dead fish before the spraying.

He cites magazine articles to show that the fish in some of our national parks have been destroyed in the same manner, also that DDT is not conducive to human health. It seems that it not only destroys the mosquitoes and other sources of supply for fish food, but it also kills the insect predators that feed on mosquitoes.

Mr. Keeling feels that it is a case of fighting mosquitoes with screens or repellant or killing the fish in our lakes, for which the Pontiac area is exceptionally favored. We're for the fish.

That eldest man (in years only) in Oakland County's government, got out some cards on his eighty-eighth birthday last year which said: "The best way to lick your enemies is to outlive them." He celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday the other day, and didn't get out any cards because he says he's completed what he suggested last year. Mr. Scott is one of the three men responsible for the operation of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, largest county TB san. in Michigan.

George Scott,

Under the appropriate title of thousands of pictures of a beautiful little girl are being posted beside busy Michigan highways. Her eyes haunt me, and the accompanying question, "Could you face yourself if you ran her down?," brings shuddering thoughts.

Mighty Interested Spectator

David Lawrence Says:

Social Revolution Evident in Russia

WASHINGTON — The incipient stages of a social revolution inside the Soviet Union and within the satellite states are revealed before the world today.

The inexorable laws of human nature — the inevitable pressures against an economic discipline imposed by force — are working inside the communist-socialist state, as an official communique from Moscow confirms.

The significance of what has just happened is not in the clash of personalities. It is not that three leaders have been kicked out and that another leader — Khrushchev — has gained in political prestige. The true meaning is to be found in the telltale phrases of the official communique itself, which again and again speaks of the need for "incentives" and for the encouragement of the "creative energies" of the people.

For there is such a thing as "public opinion" in Russia—even though it may be potential in its threat rather than actual in its operation. This is illustrated by a remark once made by Josef Stalin to the late Harry Hopkins, who was in Moscow as President Roosevelt's personal representative.

LAWRENCE

Stalin said something about the effect on "public opinion" and Hopkins looked skeptical, whereupon the Soviet dictator said: "Yes, we do have public opinion to reckon with in Russia."

This is important because today the dominant party in the Soviet Union recognizes the tremendous forces at work underneath. These can blow up at any moment into a physical revolution. Hence the leaders in the Kremlin are striving now to make the concessions which they realize are necessary.

Because Molotov, Malenkov and Kaganovich still clung to the idea that an iron hand is all that's necessary to enforce policies, they were removed from important posts so that, it is officially stated, they can no longer engage in "intrigue" and "collusion."

The communique just issued in Moscow denounces the dissenters as having "demonstrated an overbearing attitude to the urgent, vital interests of the broad masses of the people."

MORE INCENTIVES NEEDED

The ousted leaders were accused, moreover, of failing to recognize "the necessity of increased material incentives for the collective farm peasantry in expanding output of agricultural products."

Such measures as "obligatory deliveries of farm produce by collective farmers from their individual plots" were denounced by the new leadership as undesirable and, in these matters, the expelled leaders were charged with having refused to see the light.

Especially significant, for instance, was the language used in upbraiding the Molotov - Malenkov-Kaganovich group for opposing "this creative movement of the masses" which, the communique says, is in progress as "our country is going through a powerful rise in popular activity and a fresh surge of creative energy."

Undoubtedly this is wishful thinking, but it represents the new objectives. All through the document there are references to "new conditions" and "new situations," both internally and externally, which are merely an alibi for the tremendous pressures exerted on the Moscow regime by world events.

Thus, the mentioning of "peaceful coexistence" with other nations and "the possibility of different ways of transition to socialism in different countries" are concessions to the growing revolt inside the satellite countries, where the fires of nationalism are beginning to be kindled anew.

DO NOT WANT WAR

When the Moscow rulers talk, as they do now, of "all-around consolidation of the Socialist camp" or "better industrial management" or the "all-around encourgement of the initiative of the masses," along with "an abundance of food" and "large-scale housing construction," it is plainly evident that the last thing the Soviet dictatorship wants today is war.

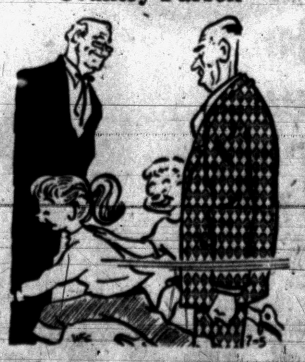

What it really wants is a contented nation, instead of a discontented, rebellious, angry mob of 200,000,000 people who can overnight throw out all the present rulers if the internal economic situation get bad enough.

Country Parson

Dr. William Brady Says:

Time to Put Boric Acid Back on Medicine Shelf

Do you remember the chain reaction set off a few years ago by an obscure report in a medical journal which told of cases of alleged boric acid poisoning? First the "science writers" went to town with the startling news that boric acid was a "dangerous poison."

DR. BRADY

When the "science writers" had cashed in on the discovery, the magazine hack men followed up with typical pieces urging housewives to discard boric acid from the medicine cupboard.

When the astonishing idea that this old standby of professional and domestic medicine was "dangerous" had permeated the popular mind, the medical authorities, whose journal report had started the trouble, published another report.

It acknowledged that the criteria on which they based the opinion (that the use of borated talc was responsible for boric acid intoxication in an infant) were in error—so they now retracted the original allegation!

Now that the shouting is over, let's put a fresh box of boric acid say a quarter of a pound—back in the cupboard.

MANY USES

In Volumette XIV of the Pocket Cyclopedia of Health, The Medicine Cupboard, are instructions for the use of boric acid solution as mouthwash, gargle, nasal spray, eye drops, wet dressings etc. In Volumette IX, Save Your Skin, instructions for making a satisfactory lotion for rough, red skin. For either volumette, send 35 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Being isotonic, or the same saltiness as the tears, such solution of boric acid is ideal for use as eye wash or eye drops.

As an antiseptic boric acid is of questionable value. For instance it has some power to prevent or retard the growth of yeasts and harmless bacteria, but little power against typhoid and other disease germs.

Boric acid or borax is soothing and slightly astringent to irritated or inflamed mucous membranes, and this explains why it is popular in professional and domestic medicine.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Crane Gives Advice on Retirement

If you are past 65, try prize contesting as a very stimulating hobby. My father, aged 79, hasn't missed working a Chicago contest since it started over two years ago. For prize contests encourage people to look ahead into the tomorrows, which Emerson says is a test of youthful minds.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case V-329: Thomas Collins has authored a splendid book entitled "The Golden Years".

Therein he urges the children of older folks to please remember their aged father and mother.

DR. CRANE

Send them more frequent letters to cheer them up. If you go on a vacation trip, take time to drop them a few large colored post cards showing the fishing resort where you are located.

But by all means, he urges, that children realize the serious shock which strikes their parents when the latter must retire.

In this daily column I have often warned you that much of the menopausal upset in women is simply emotional shock at believing they are suddenly on the shelf.

When wives at the age of 45 will finally realize that there is no deadline after which their kisses no longer thrill their husbnds, they can usually surmount the menopausal decade with little upset.

All you folks who are verging on 65 and retirement, should likewise learn to face the facts frankly.

FACING 65 CALMLY

Herbert Hoover recently gave some sound advice to elderly people.

"Seeing that I have reached 82 years," Mr. Hoover began, "I think I can give some advice to oldsters who are about to retire or are already retired from their jobs.

"There is no joy to be had from retirement except some kind of productive work:

"Otherwise, you will degenerate into talking to everybody about your pains and pills and income tax.

"The other oldsters will want to talk about their pains and pills and income tax."

Apropos of Mr. Hoover's advice, what kind of productive work are you planning when you retire at 65?

WORK FOR OLDSTERS

Part time sales work is a great boon to older folks. For you must get out and do some walking in order to contact prospects.

That walking is excellent insurance against being bedfast or semi-invalided.

Furthermore, many older folks can easily earn $10 to $35 per week by selling household gadgets, books, greeting cards, magazines and similar items.

Oldsters can also enter prize contests offered by newspapers, magazines and manufacturers. It is estimated that nearly $50,000,000 yearly is distributed in such prize awards.

Prize contesting makes a dandy mental hobby that will link both husband and wife. It is fun and profitable at any age level, but is especially suited to folks past 65 and to hospital patients.

If the old folks can hobble around, it is better to let them live in their own home than to import them to the city to reside with relatives.

And you younger people should not focus the attention of your aged parents on their "innards" by always asking, "Hello, Dad, how are you feeling?"

For such a query directs their attention to their aches and pains. Instead, divert their interest to politics or sports or other outside items.

Ask about your aged mother's quilts or your father's garden or bird houses or other hand gadgets which he makes for a hobby.

To help steer them into prize contesting, send for my booklet "How to Write Salable Copy and Winning Contest Entries," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Cabinet Member Voices Appreciation for Editorial

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Would you please accept my deep appreciation for the kind words in your recent editorial on my letter of resignation.

Such friendly comments make richly worthwhile the time I have been privileged to spend in President Eisenhower's Cabinet. Many thanks.

Praises Editorial on Police Hassle

Surprise and congratulations. Our Pontiac Press is once again a newspaper of the people and for the people. The editorial on the police mess was a refreshing change. I've always contended we have one of the best newspapers in the business, and the editorial has vindicated my belief.

People look to the newspaper for guidance; therefore, the kind of community we have is predicated upon the type of leadership displayed by its newspaper.

Eventually our citizens will learn how they were victimized into throwing out the old trial board and substituting an unworkable civil service. We members of that board are patiently awaiting that day with a clear conscience. The truth will out.

Truck Driver Denies Claim

A 20-Year-Old Female writes about lower car insurance rates for women drivers under 25, stating this proves women are better risks. Sure they are—there are fewer of them (Thank goodness.) Another reason they have fewer accidents is that male drivers give them plenty of room. It's strange, though, that truck companies don't hire women drivers. In my business you must have proven ability and a clean record to get the job. If they're best, trucking companies would prefer them for drivers.

Sylvan Resident Answers Charge

I've been a resident of Sylvan Village for eight years and very proud of it. I'm sorry Waterford Resident had the misfortune to come out here during the rainy spell. I believe all roads were wet and sloppy then.

I wish you had made a trip out here after the rain before writing that letter. You could have seen the road grader working, something I very seldom see in your township. Today the roads are getting more chloride, not to mention our garbage pick-up twice a week, rubbish pick-up once a month, aerial spray for insect pests and many other services which are too numerous to mention. Can you top that for your taxes, Waterford Resident?

Man Disagrees With Editorial

Name calling doesn't settle very many issues, even among small children. To refer to the Russian people as you did in the June 27 editorial makes intelligent people blush for you.

Communism is as repugnant to me as it is to any loyal American, but we must distinguish between Russian citizens and Communist leaders of Russia. Certainly creators of Russian culture — marvelous ballet, unsurpassed musical literature, theater, art and architecture — cannot be summarily dismissed as "the lowest form of human life." And blood-stained battlefields where Russians gave the last measure of devotion to ward off Nazi hordes cannot very well be called the spawning grounds of the "bottom breed."

The American press might better serve the nation by attempting to bring about an understanding of peoples of divergent political faiths rather than promulgating hate and discord in a world that sadly cries for peace.

Has New Plan for School Year

Why not let all youngsters go to school nine months a year as we do now, but let's run the schools 12 months. The vacation could be rotated, with one group getting the first three months, the next the second three, etc. This would save building costs and we would use the buildings in the warm months when no heat is required.

Nancy Villiers Views Husband With Confidence, Respect

Even Wife Obeys Mayflower Captain

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — The wife of Capt. Alan Villiers, skipper of the Mayflower II, was strolling calmly o'er the poop deck. Hanging a few things out to air in the fresh offshore breeze.

"Love!" called Villiers from their closet - sized bunkroom. "Don't go near the edge out there. I don't want to risk you."

"Don't worry, darling," said Nancy as she, docilely and automatically as the next first mate under orders, backed up a few yards from the railing. "I'm careful," she added.

After observing Mrs. Villiers for two days — and to observe this dark-haired, soft-eyed woman is to admire her — one can only conclude that the old way truly was the best way: The road to marriage is more likely to be concrete when the man is firm and the wife obedient.

It possibly is too late for many American women to adopt obedience — but for the privilege of being ordered about by such a devoted skipper as Capt. Villiers, it might be worth making a stab at saying "Yes, dear," and meaning it.

COMMANDS RESPECT

"Since he was 15," Nancy said, "Alan has been going to sea whenever he had the chance, and he's always commanded respect and confidence. I'd read about him for years, really, before I met him — so I had my respect and confidence all built up and ready."

Nancy was an Australian girl. She was interested in sailing because of an uncle who was a member of "The Ship Lovers' Society" of Melbourne, and there were two things she had read plenty of — Joseph Conrad and Alan Villiers.

"So my uncle took me to a meeting of the society one day, because the speaker was Alan, and he was talking about his around-the-world sail on the 'Joseph Conrad' (a square-rigged ship, similar in size to the Mayflower).

"Then I met Alan again in London during the early part of the war. It was—well—that was it."

Nancy Villiers, one of those women the poets would refer to as having a soul that shines through, making age an elusive and incidental thing, stays by her husband's side on brief trips. Knowing that women are unwelcome on long voyages and also knowing her own physical limitations, she never presses for a berth on his longer runs.

GETS VERY SEASICK

"I like sailing very much in theory," she says, "but in practice, I'm afraid I get very seasick."

After flying from England to join Villiers in Provincetown, for instance, she stayed aboard the Mayflower II to New York and recalls of the short but rocky trip — "I'm afarid I didn't feel quite myself. Alan is very tolerant of me, but I know that sometimes he must think I should rise above it."

Today or tomorrow, Mrs. Villiers probably will return to England and their three children, Christopher, 14; Katherine, 12, and Peter, 8. She hasn't "any idea, really" when Villiers will return, but she isn't worried.

For three reasons: "Alan is so absorbed in the world that it would be unreasonable to keep him from it." And "I have great confidence in him, I must say, so I don't become easily alarmed." And "I've been very lucky, really — I can accept things as they are and be contented."

Youth Stocks Dams With Wild Ducks

HARRISMITH, S. Africa — Roy Simes, son of a farmer, is trying to reestablish the seriously diminished wildfowl population around Harrismith, South Africa. When he learns that sportsmen have been shooting anywhere, he takes his fox terrior dog and hunts for baby wild ducks. These he rears and when they are mature, removes a piece of gristle from a wing to prevent their flying away, then presents pairs to farmers who have large dams where they do not allow shooting. Simes at last report had 25 baby ducks — mallards, teals and brown mountain ducks (bergeende) — on hand.

Ask Tri-County College

SAGINAW (AP) — Legal action has been started to create a Tri-County Community College for the Saginaw, Bay and Midland County areas.

The Saginaw Valley College Assn. filed with the superintendents of the three county boards of education written requests signed by 75 electors—25 from each county. The next move will be circulation of petitions among qualified electors asking that the question be submitted to the voters, possibly in November.

Nasser Seeking to Sway Saud

Egyptian Dictator Hopes to Establish Semblance of United Arab Front

CAIRO (AP)—Egypt appears to be conducting a quiet diplomatic offensive to patch up frayed relations with Saudi Arabia and re-establish some semblance of a united Arab front.

President Nasser yesterday sent one of his most trusted lieutenants, the commander in chief of the armed forces, Gen. Abdel Hakim Amer, flying off to Saudi Arabia. The visit came a week after Nasser sent King Saud a personal message and a few hours after the Arab League secretary general, Abdel Khalek Hassouna, returned from a three-day visit to Riyadh, Saud's capital.

Relations of Egypt and Syria with Saudi Arabia took a tailspin at the time of Jordan's political crisis last April, when King Hussein ousted leftist, pro-Egyptian elements from his government. Saud threw his support behind Hussein. Egyptian officials have made no secret of their displeasure with Saud, although they have not dared to attack him publicly.

But Nasser's regime is hesitating to attack the Saudi Arabian monarch publicly in its controlled press as it has Hussein, who openly broke away from the "liberated" Arab front. Saud is the pro-ated" Arab front.

Nickel Output Climbs

TORONTO— Free-world production of nickel is expected to continue to increase this year, reaching a total of about 445,000,000 pounds. This would be a gain of some 15,000,000 pounds over 1955 output and 175,000,000 over the 1949 total.

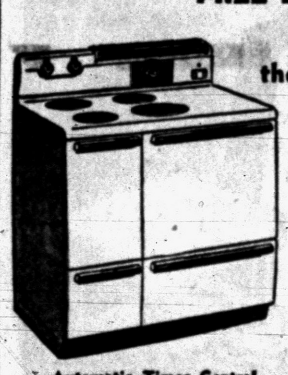

City Manager Named

BENTON HARBOR (AP) — Don Stewart has resigned as executive secretary of the Twin Cities Chamber of Commerce to accept the $12,000 a year post of Benton Harbor city manager.

Unavailable Funds Cost State a Park

LANSING (AP) — Lack of funds appeared to have cost the state a chance to acquire a park site at Fayette on Big Bay de Noc in Delta County, State Conservation Director G. E. Eddy Reported.

Eddy said the federal government had notified him it planned to formally seize the private property wanted by the state and sell it at auction to the highest bidder to collect on delinquent taxes.

The department had asked the federal government to delay the action until funds were available to purchase the land for a state park. The Legislature this year provided no money for the contemplated purchase.

Eddy said the Department had been interested in acquiring the Fayette property for state park purposes because of its historical and recreational features.

Speeding Fine Given to Jackie Cooper

MOJAVE, Calif. (AP) — Actor Jackie Cooper, accused by highway patrolmen of speeding 140 miles per hour on a desert highway, has been fined $263 and had his license suspended for a month.

The penalty, imposed in a Mojave court, included a 30 day jail sentence. The sentence was suspended.

Cooper didn't appear in court. An attorney represented him. The actor's $12,000 sports car was halted at a road block near here June 23 after a 30-mile chase by patrolmen.

Hal Boyle Says:

Builder Finds Gold Mine in Elders

NEW YORK (AP)—The accent in America is on youth, and most of us feel that as a nation we treat our elders rather shamefully.

We neglect them. We take them for granted. We assume—often wrongly—that a retired man is an economic burden on the country's economy.

Some of the contractors in today's depressed housing market, however, are taking another look at the picture—and awaking to the fact that one of the big answers to their problem is to build more homes for the old folks. The right kind of homes—homes designed for their special needs.

"Tubby," a light-eyed, gray-haired man with a booming voice, erected nearly $100,000,000 in housing during the postwar building boom. Like most builders, he concentrated on houses for young growing families. Who cared about the old folks?

But when the market began to tighten, Field checked prospective customers architects and engineers . . . came up with this idea: One reason for the home-building recession is that few builders paid enough attention to the needs of the elderly.

"There are 15 million people in the United States 65 or over," said Field, whose own parents are over 70. "In 20 years there will be 21 million.

"Surprisingly, there is no hesitancy among older people to buy new houses after retirement. And 50 per cent of the elderly, having sold their old homes, are in a position to pay cash when they buy a new home for their retirement years."

But elderly persons, having sold their former homes, want a new home more suited to their years.

Field, after checking extensive surveys of the situation by Florida state agencies, has incorporated these special features in a new 2,000 - acre, 8,000-home development he is building at Bontown Beach, a few miles from Palm Beach. The homes, plus a swimming pool, start at $13,500.

A few examples:

"Trouble bells" in bedroom and livingroom to summon aid from neighbors . . . bathtubs with built-in seats and grab-bars . . . no stairs or thresholds to fall down or trip over . . . glass window walls to admit more light to help failing vision . . . electric outlets at waist level to avoid bending.

And luminous light switches . . . wall refrigerators and ovens at chest level (also to avoid bending . . . pantries with eye level shelves . . . garbage disposal units to eliminate unnecessary lifting and extra steps . . . extra wide doors throughout the house to permit passage of wheelchairs . . . swimming pools with grab rails . . . a gently sloping ramp entrance . . . and a non-slip floor.

Field, who hopes other builders also will appeal to "the neglected market of the elderly" and feels America soon will be building 1,500,000 housing units annually, said he had made one unexpected discovery as the result of his research.

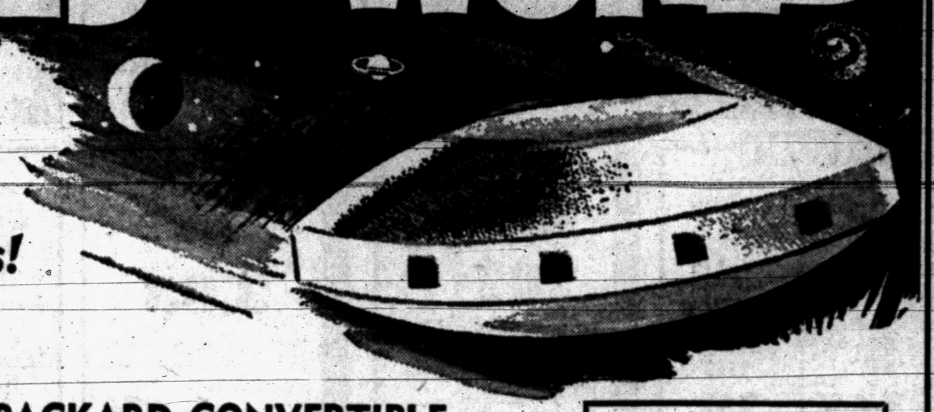

"Practically every convenience we have conceived of that older people desire," he said, "is wanted by young people, too.

"Young mothers like the idea of a 'trouble bell' in the house, and they don't like unnecessary bending any more than their grandmothers do."

Brazil is the largest South American country in size and is 250,000 square miles greater in area than the United States of America.

Witches, Spirits, Superstitions, Quacks Still Found in Germany

HANNOVER, Germany (AP) — Hundreds of Germans still believe in witchcraft. Hotbeds of superstition lie in remote areas of Lower Saxony state.

Dr. Rolf Dunnemann, chief of the State Health Department, says, "You just cannot stamp it out entirely." He is in charge of an official antiwitchcraft campaign.

Only recently, Bunnemann's files show, a woman went on trial for claiming she could remove the witch from man and animals. Another woman successfully peddled a mixture of starved caterpillars and dried leaves to ward off the evil eye.

A man shot his mother-in-law, claiming she had bewitched his family and caused unhappiness. He later killed himself.

A 19-year-old youth shot his grandfather because he believed the old man had bewitched him. This didn't help and the youth hanged himself, still considering himself bewitched.

Wherever people believe in witches and the like, there are quacks, says Bunnemann.

"We have had many cases where people actually died after treatment by quacks," he said. "They claim they can drive out the Devil from persons who believe themselves bewitched."

The Lower Saxony government is waging a stiff fight against the quacks. They are rounded up and put on trial.

"But," says Dr. Bunnemann, "that doesn't stamp out superstition and witchcraft which are deep-rooted. All the government can do is to try to educate the people to the fact that there are no witches."

Elected to Radio-TV Post

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Mark Starr, educational director of the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union, has been elected to the board of the Educational Television and Radio Center. He will aid in formulating policies of the center, which supplies educational TV and radio programs.

Hospitalization Study Outline Due Aug. 31

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan is expected to have a final outline for the study of prepaid hospitalization plans ready by Aug. 31.

University Vice President Marvin L. Niehuss, a member of the U. of M. Advisory Committee on Hospital Administration, told a meeting between a governor's commission and the committee yesterday the university would make the study if the state supplies the funds.

Niehuss said the two groups were agreed on the objectives and procedure of the study.

"We're well on our way to carrying the study program further," Niehuss said. "But the study still is in a draft form."

A similar study was planned a year ago, but it was canceled when the Michigan State Medical Society reportedly objected to the director of the project.

Rubber Raft Race Set

MONROE (AP) — The annual distance race of the Motorized Rubber Raft Assn. is planned for this weekend off Bolles Harbor. The seven and 10-man heavy duty rafts, powered by outboard motors, will cover a 36-mile course to West Sister Island and back. The race will be held Saturday or Sunday, depending on weather conditions.

Right Answers to Pot-O-Gold Worth $1,500

You're a rare one indeed if you can pass up an opportunity to win $1,500, especially when it takes no more effort than Pot-O-Gold. Besides the chance of winning all that money, you'll find you have lots of fun trying to outwit the puzzle people. Read all rules and clues carefully.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares, which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

First Woman to Turn Trick in Russia

Strawberry Blonde Gains Foothold in Reds' Male-Dominated Presidium

By International News Service

During the May Day parade in Moscow two years ago, Soviet Communist party boss Nikita S. Khruschchev beckoned to a matronly strawberry blonde and invited her to the top of the Red Square tribune.

Now, he has beckoned once more to 47-year-old Ekaterina Alexeexna Furtseva, and she has become a member of the party's 15-member presidium.

This is the highest any woman ever rose in Red ranks, but "Katya" long ago established her right to be known as "first lady of world Communism."

In 1954, she was chosen first secretary of the party's Moscow city committee, a post once held by Khruschchev himself. As a candidate member of the central committee presidium, she was the first woman ever to reach that exalted rank.

SHE'S DYNAMO

Furtseva—the Russians don't use the title "Mrs."—is a hard-driving dynamo who has been channeling her considerable energy into Communist Party causes since she was a pig-tailed youngster of 14 just out of grade school.

That was when she joined the infant komsomol, combining her party activities with a job at a textile mill—where her widowed mother also worked—and with attendance at night high school.

Six years later, now a full-fledged Communist, she was assigned as a troubleshooter—first to Kursk, south of Moscow, and then to Feodosiya, a small Black Sea port.

In 1936, it was back to Moscow again. For a year, Furtseva worked on student affairs. Then, she was sent to a chemical engineering institute to learn a profession—and head the school's party organization.

During the war, Furtseva married Nikolai P. Firyubin, an important member of the Soviet foreign service, gave birth to a daughter now 15 years old and got her first really important party post, secretary in Moscow's Frunze district.

Since then, she has attended women's conferences in Paris and in Bulgaria, and, most recently, has accompanied Khrushchev to Prague and Pieping. Last year, she headed a Russian delegation invited to London by the British parliament.

Westerners who meet the "first lady of world Communism" are a little surprised to discover her preference for dark, smartly tailored suits and frilly, feminine blouses.

Foreigners see her as a soft-spoken woman whose blue-gray eyes twinkle merrily.

But Moscow's Communist know the other side of her—the side that has enabled Furtseva to climb the party ladder so swiftly. To them, she is a woman in almost perpetual motion as she harangues Moscow's Communists, inspects factories and lays cornerstones.

Junior Editors Quiz on KITES

QUESTION: Why tie a kite down to hold it up?

ANSWER: No matter how high a kite flies, it will start to fall once its string breaks.

The reason is that the string holds the surface of the kite at a set angle against the onrushing wind. Set at such an angle, the kite gets an upward lift out of the wind's horizontal force. When the string breaks, it is no longer held at an angle against the wind and thus fails to receive any upward push. So it drifts along with the wind and, no matter how lightly constructed, falls eventually to the ground.

FOR YOU TO DO: Get your father to make a kite for you or to buy one and help you fly it. Be sure that the bridle is tied so that the string and the kite's upright stick are at right angles to each other.

Salvage Lumber Boat

PETOSKEY (AP) — Skin divers are salvaging parts of the 81-foot, 99-ton lumber boat White Swan. The 34-year-old vessel went aground on Isle Aux Galets reef near here last Nov. 28 and went down in 28 feet of water Dec. 12. Mr. and Mrs. James Sawtelle, Traverse City skin divers, have been bringing up articles from the boat, including its diesel engine by using pontoons and air floats.

Receives New GM Post

FLINT (AP) — Andrew J. Dunkle, works standards director at the AC Spark Plug Division of General Motors in Flint, has been named to the new post of superintendent of production engineering. He will be succeeded by Gordon L. Isenhath, director of works standards at Milwaukee.

It is estimated more than 50,000 American homes are broken each year because of divorce or desertion.

Duke of Windsor to Sell Souvenirs From Japan

LONDON (INS) — The Duke of Windsor is preparing to sell souvenirs he collected during his 1922 visit to Japan when he was Prince of Wales.

The collection includes the gift of a gold-lacquered cabinet from Crown Prince (now Emperor) Hirohito, three Japanese ceremonial swords, a lacquer armor chest and two lacquer display stands.

The Duke has seen little of the souvenirs since they have been stored in Windsor Castle for 20 years but he visited Christies and inspected them during his last visit to London about three weeks ago.

A spokesman for Christies said he didn't expect the souvenirs to realize much since "they're mostly of curiosity value."

Snakes vs. Movies

COLOMBO — Snake charmers and wild west movies compete for audiences in Colombo, capital of Ceylon, the National Geographic Society reports.

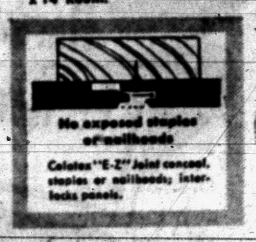

Miners Lamps Used

CHARLESTON, W. Va.— Bridge builders are using coal miners' electric lamps, which carry their own power, to light their way in dark bridge sections inaccessible for regular light wiring.

ROUGH RIDING — The man who claims he led the famed charge up San Juan Hill in the Spanish-American War is having rough riding these days. Former Pvt. Alfred C. Petty, 80, right, seeks the Medal of Honor for his part in the battle that immortalized Teddy Roosevelt's "Rough Riders." However, Secretary of Army Wilbur Brucker says the Department of the Army opposes a private bill by Rep. John J. McFall (D-Calif) to give Petty the famous medal.

To Keep Secrets or Not

What Should a Doctor Tell About Patients?

LONDON (AP)—Nine doctors considered the question: Should a doctor tell?

They agreed that in general a doctor must keep his patient's secrets—but there are rare instances when he can't.

The new "code of ethics" for the profession was published in the medical journal Practitioner as "a guide to what every good doctor should know." It attempts to solve some of the doctor's dilemmas.

One of the editors of Practitioner, Dr. William Thomson, said: "We felt a careful examination of up-to-date medical etiquette was overdue. Things have greatly changed. . . . This will do a lot to clear doubts in many medical men's minds."

A physician finds that a patient who is a locomotive engineer is prone to "blackouts." Should the doctor tell the man's superiors?

"No," is the answer. "He should try to persuade the man to tell his employers."

"The right course is for the doctor not to tell without the written consent of the fiance," says the review.

A routine medical check shows that a teacher of children is suffering from tuberculosis. Should a doctor tell the educational authorities? The decision:

"This is one of the few occasions when a doctor could tell. There may be justification if all attempts to persuade the diseased person to leave his employment have failed. But in coming to a decision in such an extreme case, the doctor should search his conscience."

Dr. Francis Camps, home office pathologist, gives advice on dealing with drivers accused of drunken driving. If unconscious, the driver must be examined and this creates a doctor-patient relationship. In such a case, Dr. Camps says, the doctor should give no information without the patient's consent. This would seem to prevent a doctor giving evidence against the driver without the driver's permission.

He's No Foreigner, He's Just From Ohio

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP) — "What country do you represent?" Gov. Harriman of New York asked a questioner after his speech at the Colgate University foreign policy conference Wednesday night.

"I'm from Ohio," said William P. Pecsok of Shaker Heights.

The Democratic governor allowed that Ohio was friendly territory despite certain political differences. The Buckeye State has a Republican governor.

Steals Bridge Beams

CHELSEA, Vt. (AP) — Clayton Hadlock Jr. of Lyme, N.H., was fined $75 in Municipal Court after he pleaded guilty to stealing two 24-foot steel bridge beams—and building them into a house he was building in New Hampshire.

Scalp Ripped From Her Head

Surgeons Sew It Back After Boating Mishap in California

SAN PABLO, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Lucretia Galbraith's scalp was torn from her head after her long dark hair was caught in a cabin cruiser's propeller shaft yesterday.

Mrs. Galbraith, 50, San Francisco, her head wrapped in toweling to stop bleeding, was rushed in an ambulance to Brookside Hospital in this San Francisco Bay city.

Surgeons sent Deputy Sheriff Lester Clark racing back to the boat harbor to cut free the scalp skin, tightly tangled by hair to the shaft.

Clark rushed back with the scalp and surgeons stitched it on Mrs. Galbraith's head. They hope the operation will result in a successful healing and restoration of scalp and hair.

Mrs. Galbraith, a bookkeeper, caught her hair in the shaft as she inspected bilges in the 30-foot cruiser. T. R. Henry of San Francisco, piloting the boat, heard her scream as he backed down the boat.

He stopped the engine, cut Mrs. Galbraith free, then ran the boat to a dock and called an ambulance.

"Get me to the hospital quick," she pleaded. "And please keep my eyes covered. I feel much better with my yes covered."

Meteorologist Gets Rain by Lowering Car Top

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) —John A. Cummings, meterologist in charge of the Charleston Weather Bureau, says he has the answer to inducing rain. He just leaves the top of his convertible down.

A heavy rain at the airport caught Cummings with his top down. The Charleston News and Courier nominated him for the most red-faced man in town.

Said Cummings: "As you know, we had 1.59 inches of rain at the airport and none downtown. In fact, none was reported over the entire state. In fact, I don't think any rain fell — except in my automobile."

Travel Light! Travel Easy! — Use Check-List to Pack for Vacation

As you read this article, you may be one of five million Americans who will be going on vacation next week—or one of another similar group that will leave the following week, or the next, or the next.

If you are like 90 per cent of the vacationists-to-be, you are in a state of subdued excitement and the children are chanting, "Oh, boy—only three days." (Or six days—or five or two, or whatever. They keep accurate count for you.)

Also if you go along with the majority, packing will be left to the last minute when all kinds of unnecessary things will be thrown into unnecessary extra luggage and many essential things will be left at home.

Everybody should have a check list of "what to take." The average vacationist is an amateur traveler and usually takes along too much or too little.

HERE'S THE LIST

Here is a basic list of outer clothing and other essentials that the vacationist needs for travel by automobile. There is no attempt to list recreational equipment here such as fishing or boating supplies. This list is for the suitcase. Limit luggage to two pieces for a family of four.

Here we go for last minute packers: (Suggested by travel authorities for a two-week trip to a cabin or cottage or continuous travel on the road—not for country club type resorts).

Clothes for Boys: 2 blue jeans, 1 dress trousers, 4 sports shirts, 1 heavy jacket (for north woods or mountains only), 1 pair heavy shoes, 1 pair dress shoes, 3 pairs sox.

Clothes for mom: 3 blouses, 3 skirts, 1 sweater set, 1 fingertip jacket (warm) for mountains or north woods, 1 pair walking shoes, 1 pair dress shoes.

Clothes for dad: 4 pairs slacks, 4 sports shirts, 1 sport coat for dress-up, 1 pair heavy shoes, 1 pair dress shoes, 4 pairs sox.

The above items assume you will have laundering done or do it on the road. Take electric iron if you are doing it. You can purchase soaps or detergents on the road. Also, nylon stockings can be purchased on the road.

Of course, if you plan to fish you should add rainwear and boots; if golfing or playing tennis, take appropriate shoes.

SMALL ITEMS

Into an overnight bag place the following items: dad's shaving lotions. Use empty toothpaste cartons to carry individual toothbrushes. For the family include band-aids, eyedrops, sunglasses, sun tan oil, iodine, soap, aspirin and other essential medicines.

Use plastic refrigerator bags to pack items that will spill or should be kept dry, such as powder, soap, lotions, also for enclosing combs and brushes.

A plastic bag also is handy for holding shoes, blouses, sweaters and underwear.

Into mom's purse goes nail polish and address book of friends to whom you are going to send cards.

How to Pick Clothes for Trip Abroad

First Decide if Tour Is to Be on Luxury or Economy Basis

DALLAS, Tex. (INS) — Many a prospective European traveler is more fit for a sickbed than a scintillating tour of the continent because of doubt in choosing the right clothes for the right place.

But this need not be, according to Lawrence Marcus, vice president of a Dallas specialty store and a perennial European traveler and fashion authority.

"All a woman needs to do," says the placid young executive, "is to make peace with herself about whether she wants to travel luxuriously or economically — then stick to her decision and select her clothes accordingly.

"If you want the head-waiter in the best restaurants to give you a good table, you will need more clothes than if you are content to take an inconspicuous table," he pointed out.

"If you know people in the city you are visiting and will be entertained and go sightseeing with them, you will want more changes than if you are on your own and going to a different place each day."

WEATHER IS GAMBLE

But whichever way you decide to travel, he added, you will have to take a gamble on the weather, especially if you are visiting more than one country.

"Here again," he said, "make up your mind what you assume the weather will be and take the appropriate clothes. By all means, if you miss your bet, don't grumble."

Marcus believes that all travelers should take along more than just "dreary, practical clothes." He emphasizes that "clothes do not have to be dreary to be practical — high colors are sometimes more practical than black."

A black dinner dress in any fabric is a must, however, because "it is a refuge when in doubt." A chiffon, a knit and perhaps a no-iron silk or cotton shirtwaist are also necessities.

"Don't expect everything to be packable," he cautioned, "but be sure to include one daytime and one dinner dress that you can take out, shake out and put on."

TAKE 2 COATS

Two coats are necessary for any kind of European travel, Marcus believes, because "you can't expect a blond cashmere, wonderful as they are, to look right in the evening." A fur-collared sweater is a good substitute for a fur cape.

The worst mistake of Americans traveling in Europe, he believes, is women wearing light floral prints and men wearing light-colored suits which show wrinkles quickly.

Betty Lou Feldpausch and Frank Harold Pfeiffer Jr. were married Saturday in St. Vincent de Paul Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Feldpausch, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pfeiffer.

MR. and MRS. F. H. PFEIFFER JR.

Rite Read at St. Vincent for Betty Lou Feldpausch

A Nuptial High Mass in St. Vincent de Paul Church at 10 a.m. Saturday united Betty Lou Feldpausch and Frank Harold Pfeiffer Jr. in marriage.

The bride wore a princess-style gown of white embroidered silk organdy over white taffeta. The ballerina-length gown featured a Sabrina neckline and short sleeves, and was fashioned with a scalloped embroidered panel in front and back.

Betty Lou's fingertip veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of lace, seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy on a prayerbook.

Mrs. Hoyt Jones of Hazel Park, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of white frosted nylon over green taffeta. The ballerina-length gown featured a fitted bodice, a gathered skirt and short sleeves. She chose a matching headpiece and bouquet and carried a cascade of yellow carnations.

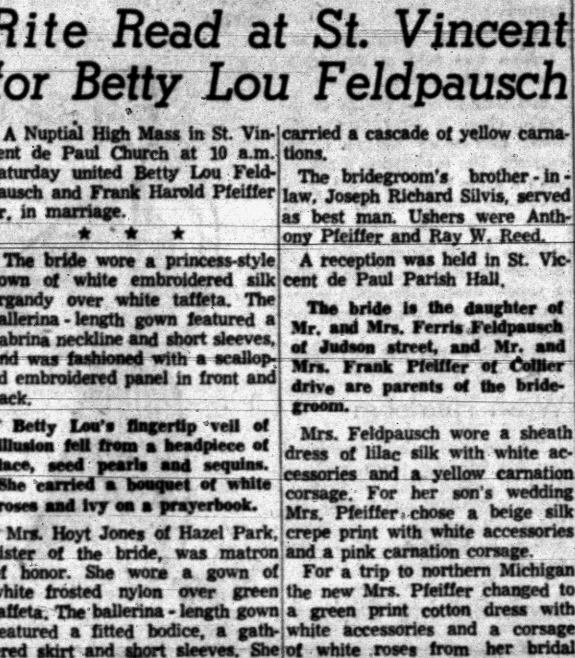

The bridegroom's brother-in-law, Joseph Richard Silvis, served as best man. Ushers were Anthony Pfeiffer and Ray W. Reed.

A reception was held in St. Vincent de Paul Parish Hall.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Feldpausch of Judson street, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pfeiffer of Collier drive are parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Feldpausch wore a sheath dress of lilac silk with white accessories and a yellow carnation corsage. For her son's wedding Mrs. Pfeiffer chose a beige silk crepe print with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Light covering for warm days, the featherweight shrug. The tiny jacket can serve as a fashion cover for daytime through dusk.

Small Fry Have Sun-and-Surf Fashion Choice

Chemistry brightens the sun-and-surf fashions of small fry as well as their elders these days. New miracle fibers make swimsuits and sun styles that dry in a wink, keep their bright colors, don't shrink and can be washed out at home as easily as a pair of nylons.

Beach styles for the younger set are both colorful and practical this summer. Little girls' swimsuits are available in new color-sealed acetates, in nylon, orlon and dacron blends.

Boys' swim trunks are likely to be stretch nylon or a blend of dacron and cotton or wool. The stretch suits always fit and usually can be worn for several years. They always stay on, are easy to launder and quick to dry.

Follies Set for Nov. 6-7; Committee Heads Named

Mrs. R. L. Bronoel and Mrs. F. R. Wood, general cochairmen for "High Fever Follies of '57," have announced new dates for the Follies. The kickoff party will be Sept. 25 and the Follies show will be held Nov. 6 and 7.

The cochairmen also announced committee leaders for the show:

Ralph Merkovitz, Noyce Strait Jr. and Byron Cole are in charge of programs, while Mrs. Clyde Dearing is chairman of the talent committee. The talent party is under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers.

Mrs. Everett Reese heads tickets, and the patron committee is headed by Mrs. Dexter Kennedy. The publicity committee is headed by Mrs. Robert Sutton, James Aldrich and Mrs. Leland Clemence.

Chairmen of other committees are Mrs. L. Raymond Sampson, photography; Mrs. LaVon Ryden, music; Mrs. Robert Anderson, makeup; Mrs. W. Arthur Vernon, courtesies; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tiberg, properties; Mrs. James Purkiss, costumes; and Mrs. W. Owen Kline, housing.

Mrs. Ralph Babbington heads the finance committee; Mrs. John Benson, ushers and light board; Mrs. Bruce Hubbard, fashion show; Mrs. Harold tripp, chaperones; Mrs. and Mrs. William Dean, cabaret party; Mrs. P. Eugene Miller, reception; Mrs. George Wetterhahn, telephone; Mrs. John J. Selman, public relations contest.

Mrs. Park Watson is the secretary; R. L. Bronoel and F. R. Wood, stage managers; Mrs. Raymond Rapaport, president of women's auxiliary; and Warren Simonds, James Corbitt and Shirley Dovre, hospital personnel. William Merrill will direct the show.

Lovely Tan Is Object of Sunbath

If she likes, she can limit her summer makeup to a little powder and some lipstick. She can wear colors she'd never attempt when she's her usual pale self.

But while she's acquiring the tan, she has to take care. Her first sessions should be limited to 20 minutes each at the most. Girls who try to acquire a suntan in one day are just asking for trouble.

She also has to keep her skin from drying out while she tans. A tanning cream, in addition to providing protection from the sun's rays, will help keep it soft and pliable during summer months.

Don't go into the sun at high noon. Go before 11 a.m. or after 2 p.m.,

A well tended tan can bring new beauty to a girl. But a burn or sun-peeling nose isn't glamorous. This girl is applying a sun cream that allows her to tan safely and evenly.

Richard B. Wallaces Plan Traditional House Party

Other Birmingham Area Social Events Include Farewell Party, Dinners, Trips

BIRMINGHAM—Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Wallace have invited a group of friends to spend the weekend of July 12 with them at their cottage on Lake Michigan. The group is one that has made this annual house party a traditional affair for several years.

Included will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Donnell R. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Eberstadt and Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Lerchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Eberstadt Jr. of Lake Park drive are moving to New Canaan, Conn., sometime next month.

One of the many farewell parties for them will be a cocktail party this evening, when Mr. and Mrs. W. Ogden Vogt will be their hosts.

The Eberstadts spent last weekend in the East, house hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Kern entertained Wednesday evening at a cocktail and dinner party in their Franklin Hills home.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Craig who have just moved back here from Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Lerchen, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan D. Douglas Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Craig and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Delbridge Jr.

WESTONS ENTERTAIN

Dr. and Mrs. Earl E. Weston entertained at dinner last Monday evening at their home on Wing Lake.

Next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan will present an award to the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, for artistic landscape achievements.

Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Federated Garden Club president, will present the award to Mrs. Gordon Davis, president of the Birmingham group, in a ceremony at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

VISIT MEADS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Egan and their daughter, Margaret Ann, of Bronxville, N. Y., are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Mead III of Bedford road.

The Egans will go to Point Nipigon later this week for a visit with Mrs. Egan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Menard, at their summer home there.

Mrs. Charles Dekle Taylor has brought her children from their home in Jacksonville, Fla., for a month at Torch Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rizley are here from their home in Tulsa, Okla. for a visit with Mrs. Rizley's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. Lloyd Kemp of Yarmouth road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Biggers who recently returned from a stay at their ranch home in New Mexico, have as their guests this weekend their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Wagner, with their four children, from Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Zimmerman (Betty Anklam) announce the birth of a son, Frank Edan, June 21.

Thousands Flock to Dreux to See Royal Wedding

DREUX, France (INS) — Members of nearly every royal house in Europe and thousands of French and German tourists swarmed into the ancient town of Dreux today for the wedding of Prince Henri of France and Wurtemberg.

Three thousand policemen were on duty to control the crowds that began gathering at dawn along the route from the town hall to the royal chapel of St. Louis on the edge of town.

A civil ceremony in the town hall was to be followed by a Nuptial Mass in the tiny chapel named for King Louis IX, a direct ancestor of Prince Henri, whose father is pretender to the French throne.

Henri is 24. The Duchess is 22.

MOMS Unit 2 Holds Luncheon Meeting

Pontiac MOMS Unit 2 met at the home of Mrs. Lena Vanderlind on South Johnson avenue for luncheon and business meeting.

Appointed to the nominating committee at the recent affair were Mrs. Clarence Hickmott, Mrs. Gertrude VanHorn and Mrs. Sara Huttenhomer. Gifts to be given to patients at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium were wrapped.

Wear White Capelet With Sunback Dress

Career girls can give an executive look to sleeveless sunback dresses they wear to the office by adding a discreet but comfortable capelet.

Made of frosty white cotton, linen, or rayon, these little capes give dignity to a casual costume, and can be kept immaculately clean by repeated washings in soap or detergent suds.

Painting Shades?

Choose a plastic-based paint for applying decorative designs to bathroom, kitchen, or nursery window shades. It resists cracking as the shade is pulled up and down, and it is as washable as the shade itself.

If You Don't Carry Them Correctly

Books Can Distort Your Posture

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "This probably sounds trivial but can you tell me which method of carrying books is best from the standpoint of posture and figure? (1.) Under the arm. (2.) In the arms in front of body. We carry an average of 12 pounds of books to school each day and anticipate doing so for six more years."

A. This is not a trivial question but an important one. Many curvatures of the spine have been developed during school years because of the way a person carried books or sat at a desk. The worst possible sort of desk is the one-arm kind, so far as posture is concerned.

Carry your books in front of your body, BUT be sure that this does not cause you to slump forward. The spine should be straight and the head well-balanced (chin parallel to the ground). You can carry your books under your arm if you will alternate arms. Also try not to lean toward the side on which you are carrying the books.

Q. "If I don't wash my hair every night it looks as though I have not washed it for weeks. Isn't there something I could do to cut the grease? It just makes it oilier when I brush it daily."

A. The oil glands in your scalp are relaxed. Brushing (if done correctly) provides the stimulation which will help normalize this condition. Brushing will make your hair oilier simply because it distributes the oil over the hair, but the end result will be good.

When you brush, turn the bristles toward the scalp and then turn them up toward the ceiling as you sweep the brush to the ends of the hair. This pulls slightly.

I also advise you to use a vinegar rinse after each shampoo. This not only banishes any remaining soap but tends to normalize the scalp.

Q. "May I ask why you always have a diet for fat people? You always want people to lose weight. Is it because you are fat? I want to gain but I never see anything about it in your column."

A. Ah me! I am glad I have lost that 10 pounds I gained recently. No, I am not fat but I have to train like a jockey because I gain very quickly. I often have to write myself a letter and stick by my own diets for a short time.

I do write quite often about underweight. If you or any other readers want to have my Nine-Day Gaining Diet, and gaining suggestions, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for them.

Q. "I am 14 years old and 5 feet 3 inches tall. I weight 113 pounds. My bust measures 33, waist 23 and hips 34 inches. Please help me! I am so worried about my fat figure."

A. Most girls would like to exchange figures with you. Your weight is correct and your measurements about perfect.

Handicapped Children Must Face Competition of the 'Outside World'

By JOHN BARROW
INS Staff Writer

A tortuous decision for any parent is to allow a handicapped child to go up against the competition of the "outside world."

Psychologist Gareth D. Thorne of Kinston, N. C., is convinced that to shield him is to cheat him of any satisfaction he may gain.

A habit of I-can't-so-I-won't try, Thorne explains, leads to emotional conflict just as quickly as trying and failing. Developing something he can do is the key to happiness.

The father of three sons, Thorne is a director of the Caswell Training School where he helps retarded children find a role in life.

Whether your child is handicapped temporarily through injury or permanently through some disorder, Thorne says:

"A parent can't excuse him from life's activities. Competition is inescapable; everyone must be equipped for it. A parent who tries to 'protect' the child is failing to prepare him."

Preparing him, however, takes special attention. Professional counseling — including huddle of his physician, parents and school teacher — can prescribe how much the child can try without harm.

"Such children," Thorne advises, "must be watched in their effort to develop self-reliance and to adjust to their peers or other kids of their age."

Paradoxically, part of their adjustment means getting used to being "different." To deny this is to deny reality, Thorne says:

"Let's remember that many parents actually are trying to protect themselves from loss of face by pretending that nothing is wrong with the child — and avoiding any activity which might point this out."

Don't Take Up Gardening if You Desire Relaxation

Care and Feeding of Family Is Easier Than Care and Feeding of Plants

By RUTH MILLETT

The care and feeding of lawns and shrubs has become more complex and more trouble than the care and feeding of a family.

I mean it. Pound for pound and item for item the suburban homemaker probably has more tools and equipment, more plant food and bug killers in the garage than food and cooking equipment in the kitchen.

There are sprinklers that walk, sprinklers that twirl, sprinklers that shoot and square sprinklers that get the corners.

There are fertilizers that give the lawn a deep turf and chemicals that make it a deep green.

There are weed killers, bug killers for every type of ravenous insect, and plant food for every kind of plant.

When the homeowner isn't feeding or dusting the roses, he is buhying the gardenias.

RELAXING HOBBY?

Why people are constantly being urged to take up flower growing as a relaxing hobby, I can't figure out. A challenging h o b b y—yes. Sometimes—in between feedings and sprayings and weedings—maybe even a soul-satisfying hobby. But not an easy, relaxing hobby—not in this scientific age.

I don't think it was always thus. As a child, we always had a green lawn and flowers in abundance. Yet I can't remember that my mother spent her days feeding and spraying plants.

If I remember correctly, she put them in the ground and let 'em grow. If the bugs took a few and a few curled up and died from lack of proper vitamins, there were still plenty.

Sometimes I'm tempted to throw away the equipment and try just letting things grow. Maybe then gardening would be a relaxing hobby.

I could do like one of my charitable New England ancestors who, instead of worrying about getting rid the rabbits who helped themselves to her tender young vegetables, just generously planted extra for the rabbits.

Boy Admires 'Undesirable' Friend

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Tom, aged 8, has a friend called Rocky who bosses him. Slightly older than Tom, Rocky is noisy, bad mannered, often disobedient. He runs through the rose garden though he's been repeatedly told not to. He grunts instead of saying thank you.

But it's his bossiness that most worries Tom's mother. She's always saying, "Why do you let Rocky tell you what to do? What on earth do you see in that boy?"

What Tom sees in Rocky is the thrilling proof that a child can challenge adults — and survive. It's such an encouraging sight that he does anything Rocky wants to keep it in view.

When Tom can challenge his parents himself, he'll no longer need to keep Rocky around to prove that it's possible.

Like other children, Tom has to please his parents to survive. As they dislike juvenile noisiness, bad manners and defiance, he gives them as much compliant conduct as he can. But he doesn't always enjoy giving it.

The fact that Rocky doesn't seem to give a whoop about pleasing them is a constant source of envious wonder to him. To Tom, his friend is a hero whose commands it is bliss to obey.

MORE DIFFICULT

The more we condemn the hero, the more difficult we make it for Tom to express defiant wishes to us. In effect, our unrelenting criticism of Rocky says to Tom, "Remember, we'll have none of this from you."

Am I suggesting that we must encourage Tom to run through the rose garden, grunt thank you's and otherwise defy our wishes?

No, I am urging that he be encouraged to express his wishes to defy us when he feels like it.

To many parents a child's wish to challenge them is just as disturbing as his actual act of defiance. They feel terribly hurt by the idea that Tom has not appreciated their reasonable, kindly, moral explanations of why he mustn't run through the rose garden, must say thank you and otherwise do as he's told.

That he could still retain the wish to oppose such reasonable, kindly, moral people as they are upsets them awfully.

Children continue to make "undesirable" friends until we have accepted their right to express wishes we consider undesirable.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dangerfield of Duck Lake, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Phoebe Roberts of Beechcroft street.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace. The dress featured a wide V neckline, fitted bodice and pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations centered with an orchid.

Joanne Dangerfield, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. Jean Harkness, Shirley Bailey and Lucille Penoyer were the bridesmaids. The attendants were gowned in ballerina-length gowns of lace in rainbow colors. Each wore a matching shoulder-veil and carried a bouquet of white mums.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Serving the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Eugene Roberts. Seating the guests were Jack and James Dangerfield, brothers of the bride and Daniel Penoyer, nephew of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Dangerfield, mother of the bride, chose a navy dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a white ballerina-length gown accessories and an orchid corsage.

The couple will live in Pontiac.

For a quick refreshing pick-up while out in the sun acquiring a 'tan' use a spray mist type cologne. The spray is cooling to the skin and helps give that feeling of relaxation.

Wash Heirloom

Are you timid about washing a precious heirloom that's badly in need of a bath? Take a tip from museum curators and fashion historians who preserve costume collections by washing even very old pieces gently in suds and water.

Soak Baking Dishes

Don't plunge hot baking dishes into cold water. Soak first in warm suds to loosen crusted or burned food, then wash thoroughly in clean sudsy water, removing stubborn stains with steelwool.

They Resist Soil

Cottons treated with a good wash-and-wear finish release soil readily in soap or detergent suds, dry faster than untreated cottons, and tend to resist creases and wrinkles.

The large figure will be most attractive in sheer navy dotted with white—neat, not fussily dressed, for a cool look.

Polka-dotted silk is about the best news in years for the larger sizes but also the smallest figure will look cool and slim in the polka-dotted silk shirtwaist dress this summer.

Would Cut America's Birth Rate

Margaret Sanger Still Crusades for Planned Families

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—Margaret Sanger's name used to be inflammatory to some. In some homes it was as taboo as the subject for which she began pioneering back in 1914 — birth control.

There were several legal battles over disseminating information on limiting families of couples in low-income groups.

Now 73, Mrs. Sanger says her planned parenthood theories have gained wide acceptance in many places but that in her own country they have not kept pace.

Even among the "teeming millions" of the Far East, especially in India, she says, the birth rate is lower than in the United States.

ACTIVE CRUSADER

Still the active crusader, Mrs. Sanger is now president of the International Planned Parenthood Federation. She came to Washington to help its Planned Parenthood Assn. observe its 21st birthday.

There are now more than 500 clinics operating in this country, she said, and some Southern states distribute the information as a part of their regular public health programs.

But, she added, "all of the Orient is way ahead of us."

Japan, she said, is "going right to the roots, with government-employed midwives going into every little village," and India has appropriated 10 million dollars to bring birth control information to some 2,000 villages. She is confident the program will be extended throughout India.

Mrs. Sanger thinks planned parenthood groups in the United States should work more closely with low-income families, sending workers into low-income housing developments and other areas to acquaint families with their program and to refer them to doctors.

WOMEN DYING

Mrs. Sanger said she began pioneering for planned parenthood when as a public health nurse she found women dying in childbirth or from abortions.

She decided that the way to alleviate these tragedies was to find a way "that women could have babies only when their health and purses permitted.

"Picking a district with the poorest people with the lowest income," she set up her first clinic in Brooklyn in 1921.

She has always contended the program was intended for low-income families, never for middle-class families "who could afford to go to doctors and who were not so tied down with children that they were prevented from getting to clinics."

Sheer Wools Team With Wispy Organdy

Sheer tropical worsteds in taupe, charcoal and navy tones are favored fabric for Ceil Chapman this season in a series of wonderful looking luncheon dresses, many marked with wispy organdy gilets at the neckline.

Among this group are dresses with draped midriffs, attached back capes and portrait lace collars. A particularly special looking dress is of pale gray worsted — a sheath with high twist of manipulated fabric on the bodice, and another twisted drape at the hemline.

Specialization Helps Seamstress

By ANNE HEYWOOD

If you want to make money from a product or service today, you have to package it handsomely and thoughtfully—that is, you have to present it in a modern and skillful way...

This is especially true if your skill is sewing.

Years ago, the woman who was skillful at sewing just announced that she would sew by the day, and did.

She was usually an underpaid and somewhat pathetic creature. If she made a bare living, she was lucky.

Today, the woman who can sew must present herself in a slick and modern way. In doing so, she can have a wonderfully interesting time of it and make money, too.

SOME SUGGESTIONS

Do alterations for business girls.

Make over hats for housewives.

Teach housewives how to make over their own hats or teach beginners who are learning to sew.

Make mother-and-daughter outfits.

Specialize in aprons for men who like to be chefs.

LOYAL CLIENTELE

The advantage of specializing is that it attracts a loyal clientele that will use your services, year in and year out. Also, it helps to improve your skill at the one specialty.

Nowadays, sewing all kinds of things for all kinds of people is never as profitable as specializing.

Furthermore, by building your reputation as a specialist, you can get good prices as befits the "expert" in any field.

If you like to sew and need advice about it, drop me a note, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and I'll be glad to advise you.

Mary Louise Miller became the bride of Leonard Peres Saturday in St. Benedict Church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Florence Miller, and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Fred Mayer and Paul Peres.

MR. and MRS. LEONARD A. PERES

Newlyweds Travel Abroad

Mary Louise Miller Weds

In a Nuptial Mass solemnized Saturday at 11 a.m. in St. Benedict Church, Mary Louise Miller became the bride of Leonard Anthony Peres.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Florence Miller of North Cass Lake road. Mrs. Fred Mayer of Arthur street and Paul Peres are the bridegroom's parents.

The former Miss Miller wore a gown of Rose Pointe lace with a Sabrina neckline and slight train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of small white pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white butterfly roses and feathered carnations.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Frank Sapelak of Grove City, Ohio. Marie Claire Pallinger of Toledo was the bride's other attendant.

Both wore lavender gowns of chiffon trimmed wtih satin sashes and matching picture hats, and they carried bouquets of pink roses and feathered carnations.

ATTEND BRIDEGROOM

Louis Miller served the bridegroom as best man. Seating the guests were Frank Sapelak of Grove City, Ohio, Varton Karagosian and Michael Karagosian.

For flying to Italy, France and Switzerland, the new Mrs. Peres changed to a three-piece navy suit with white accessories. The couple will live in Detroit.

Mrs. Peres attended Nazareth College in Kalamazoo and the bridegroom graduated from MSU. He now attends Detroit College of Law where he is affiliated with Gamma Eta Gamma fraternity.

Simmer Spicy Meat Concoction

Mrs. Thompson Puts Can of Chicken Soup in Sloppy Joes

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press House Editor

Seasons may come and seasons may go but Sloppy Joes go on forever. They're always a welcome dish, especially with the younger set. Mrs. Richard Thompson has an easy way of making this dish that we think you may like to use.

As a new resident in a suburban area, Mrs. Thompson is enjoying being sociable with her neighbors. She does some church work, a bit of sewing and plays cards. She is also a member of an Extension group. Collecting copper is a hobby she indulges in as often as she can.

SLOPPY JOES
By Mrs. Richard Thompson

1 pound ground beef
1 cup catsup
1 onion, chopped
1 can condensed chicken gumbo soup
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon vinegar
1 teaspoon chili powder

Brown meat. Add other ingredients. Simmer at least one hour. Longer simmering will not hurt the mixture. Serve on hamburger buns. Makes six servings.

Men in the Know Hail New Jacket

College men, as well as more seasoned men-about-town, are hailing the arrival of a new dancing partner — a washable white tuxedo jacket.

Made of Dacron and rayon, it drapes smartly and launders beautifully. For smooth drying, the jacket should be hung on a rust-resistant hanger and eased to shape while damp.

Elastic Fabrics New

2033

You'll look so fresh and pretty either in or out of the kitchen in this "rose charmer." Make a full-blown rose potholder to match the appliqued pocket of this well-fitting apron.

Young Wife Shies From First Names

But Doesn't Want Older Neighbors to Think Her Stiff

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am a housewife 24 years old. I have been raised to address elders as Mr. and Mrs. Most of my new neighbors are 5 to 10 years older than I, so I don't know whether first names are permissible.

"Most of the neighbors seem to use first names and take the attitude that I am unfriendly because I call them Mrs. They in turn call me Mrs. Smith. I prefer my given name Mary.

"Also in my church discussion group the members are from my age to 45. Everyone uses first names. Yet I feel disrespectful calling a woman 20 years older by her first name. Should I use first names unless I feel the people prefer Mrs.?

"I don't make friends too easily and I hate to lose a future friend because she thinks me stiff and formal. Please give me some rule to go by."

Answer: You should not call your new neighbors by their first names until they call you "Mary" and even then you should ask one a gefieration older, "May I call you Jane?"

"Dear Mrs. Post: Some time ago we had visitors who spent a week with us. When they left they tipped the woman who works for us, because they felt that they had made extra work for her.

"Some of our friends claim that the hostess and not the visitors should have given the housekeeper something extra, and to have the visitors do this is an insult to the hostess. What is your opinion?"

Answer: Far from being an insult to the hostess, it is a long-established custom that a guest who stays overnight or longer tips a household maid.

"Dear Mrs. Post: What does one do when forced to introduce someone whose name you can't remember?"

Answer: This has long been a most embarrassing situation and often there is nothing else to do than to say frankly, "You know? I have forgotten your name."

"Dear Mrs. Post: When filling in cards announcing the arrival of a baby, which is the proper way to write the parents' names? Would it be Mr. and Mrs. John Smith or are first names used? If the latter is correct, does the husband's or the wife's name come first?"

Answer: Better than Mr. and Mrs. John Smith for a birth announcement would be John and Mary Smith if the cards are written by Mary, and Mary and John if John writes them.

Be on the Dot!

None of her friends ever hesitates to offer to take her places because she is always ready and waiting when they drive up. The person who has no car and is dependent on others for getting places should make it a habit to be ready on the dot.

WANDA ARNHART

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chase of Keego Harbor announce the engagement of her daughter, Wanda Arnhart, to Charles Meske. Wanda's father is Lester Arnhart of Glendale avenue. Charles is the son of Mrs. Bina Meske of Keego Harbor. A Sept. 21 wedding date has been set.

Traveler Urged to Include Soap in First Aid Kit

When you're miles away from the family medicine chest this summer, you'll do well to carry a first-aid kit plus plenty of soap for such minor emergencies as insect bites, surface scratches, and bruises.

Did you know that soap and water often serve as the only disinfectant and first aid you need?

For instance, the American Medical Association suggests this treatment for ticks: remove the tick immediately and as gently as possible.

If the tick is pulled off with the fingers, it should be handled with a small piece of paper. The abrasion should be touched gently with a disinfectant or gently washed with soap and water.

It's usually a mistake to try to kid someone who is in a difficult situation. If you do you'll probably just appear to be callous.

Invite Planners to Detroit Meet

Birmingham Also Gets Bid to Parley, Following Complaint by Schone

Birmingham and the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission have been invited to attend a Detroit parley on an overall metropolitan transportation system.

The announcement came in answer to a complaint by Birmingham City Manager Harold K. Schone. He said that Birmingham had not been invited and the plan commission, of which he is an executive committee member, had been left out of the planning.

Making the announcement was Glenn C. Richards, Detroit DPW commissioner and transportation co-ordinator, who said organizational work was still going on and "formal notices listing all the agencies involved have not yet been sent out."

Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo has called the conference of 32 mayors and supervisors from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties Tuesday, in a new attack on Detroit area transportation.

Pontiac and other North Oakland County communities have not been officially invited.

GOP Committeeman to Be Named July 13

LANSING (AP)—A successor to Republican National Committeeman Clifford O'Sullivan will be named at a meeting of the GOP State Central Committee here July 13.

Lawrence B. Lindemer, the party's chairman, called the special meeting.

O'Sullivan, of Port Huron, was nominated by President Eisenhower in April for a federal judgeship. The appointment has yet to receive Senate confirmation.

Three names prominent in Republican circles stood out as favorites for the committeeman job. They were John B. Martin, former auditor general; Owen J. Cleary, former secretary of state, and William B. Cudlip, Detroit attorney.

Duluth-Sault Ste. Marie Air Route Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has voted to permit North Central Airlines to serve a route between Duluth-Superior and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., by way of Ironwood, Hancock-Houghton and Marquette, Mich.

The airline now provides service between Hancock-Houghton and between Duluth-Superior and Ironwood on separate routes.

The board says the new Duluth-Sault Ste. Marie route would be authorized for a three-year period.

Great Lakes Issues Invitation to Sailor Grads

The Great Lakes Naval Training Center, in Illinois, will celebrate what is described as "probably the world's largest homecoming" when they throw open their gates this summer to welcome back alumni of the past 46 years.

The program will focus on a different midwestern or southern state each week during the summer. States being selected are those which furnish the major share of manpower trained at Great Lakes. The schedule for Michigan is Sept. 16-22.

Graduates of Great Lakes, numbering almost 2,000,000, will be invited to return for a look at the latest naval weapons and techniques. Special attractions will include shipboard firefighting, deep sea diving, underwater demolition, and various atomic exhibits, which will be on public display for the first time.

Each Saturday morning will see a mass graduation review of recruits completing training. Featured will be a company of men recruited especially for the event, from the state being honored.

Bearing their own state flag alongside the stars and stripes, the company will parade past the reviewing party composed of the state's governor and other civilian dignitaries plus a Navy admiral, native to the honor state.

Although planned for the alumni, and their families, the homecoming program is designed for the general public as well. A schedule of events to interest adults and children alike is available each day throughout the summer months.

Would Change Name

DETROIT (AP) — The name of Detroit-Wayne Major Airport would be changed to Detroit Metropolitan Airport under a proposal approved by the airport committee of the Wayne County board of supervisors.

Elect Fowlerville Girl

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL, Jr.

Let the sun shine, give a boy a ball and bat, mix together with his neighborhood chums, and you have the ingredients of what makes Pontiac's summer playground program tick.

Looking into the sun-tanned faces of hundreds of Pontiac boys and girls from 6 to 16 shows the success of programs going on weekdays from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The outdoor and indoor activities are kicked off as soon as schools close for the summer. The Parks and Recreation Dept. supplies 61 trained personnel to supervise the playground programs which run through Aug. 9.

Kids can look forward to just about any game you can name. There's softball, badminton, kick-ball tumbling, capture-the-flag, horseshoes, and many others.

Inside new multi-purpose rooms at city schools dramatics and arts and crafts are enjoyed. The kids put on several shows during the summer using the General Motors Futurliner as a stage.

Leonard T. Buzz, recreation director for the city department, said attendance at the playgrounds this year is setting new records.

MATCH POINT AT STAKE — There's one shuttlecock about to be returned by Katherine Weeks, 15, of 630 Melrose Ave., who is bound to get that winning point in a game of badminton at Emerson playground. Katherine and her three companions seek out the rackets and are first to the court when the playground opens each day. Other activities going on at Emerson included softball, tumbling, arts and crafts, and other indoor pastimes. Katherine is one of many children from Pontiac schools which are flocking to 23 playground sites about the city. Playgrounds are open weekdays from 9 a. m. until 5 through Aug. 9.

FUTURE REMBRANDTS? — Summer is the time to look forward to doing all those things that school keeps one from doing. So these kids, members of the LeBaron playground group, are doing just that. Putting the finishing touches to their masterpieces are (l-r) Robin Walsh, 9, 686 Second Ave.; Catherine Smith, 8, 695 Second Ave.; Mildred Edward, 7, of 770 First Ave.; Janette Smith, 5, 695 Second Ave.; David Betzing, 8, of 75 First Ave., and Debbie Bogison, 5, of 691 Second Ave.

"SEND ME IN, COACH" — Emerson playground director George Roberts (seated), of 631 DeSota Pl., checks out equipment to Jim Blanchard, 14, of 780 Melrose Ave., and Jeanne McFarland, 10, of 965 Emerson Ave., while others wait their turn.

FOUR SQUARE AT LeBARON — To these kids at LeBaron playground, a kick-ball is all that is needed for a day of fun and a game of "four-square."

STUMPED? NOT ME! — All eyes are on this next move which is likely to put that last marble in the hole to end this enlightening game of Chinese checkers at one of many playgrounds being operated this summer by the Parks and Recreation Dept. To these studious girls, indoor games are just as much fun as those outdoors.

Waterford's Ancient Dam Problem Nears Solution After Protests

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
of Our Waterford Bureau

For more than twelve years, Waterford Township residents living in the Lake Oakland-Woodhull Lake area, have been battling with Oakland County authorities for maintenance of an ancient lake-control dam.

The controversial dam is owned by, and located on, the Catholic Ukrainian Summer camp at 3250 Walton Blvd., and controls the level of the two lakes, which lie in Waterford and Independence townships.

RESIDENTS ALARMED

There has been no repair work on the outlet structure for many years and residents have become alarmed about possible results, should the dam let go.

Representatives of the seven subdivision associations surrounding the lakes met recently and were told by president Grant McDonald that, if the dam would break through, property values would drop to zero. It would leave nothing but a mud-hole of Lake Oakland and flood the smaller lakes on lower levels.

"This would mean potential danger for some 2,000 residents and cause millions of dollars in damages," he said. "In fact," he added, "the problem would be — who would own what, and where is it."

Over a period of years, inquiries, letters and petitions from the lake property owners have swamped the offices of the Oakland County Road and Drain Commissions regarding the structural safety of the dam.

DAMSITE NEEDED

Since early this year Oakland County Drain Commissioner Dan Barry has had engineers and water experts working on the first step in solving the problem — that of acquiring the damsite.

Built in the 1800's, the site was deeded to His Excellency The Most Rev. Constantine Bohachevsky, Bishop of the Ukrainian Catholic Dioceses, in 1953.

After many field surveys, reviewing of old and new petitions and conversations with lake residents, the commissioner's office staff has reached several conclusions and recommendations.

Two alternatives are included in the proposed plan. They are — that Oakland County acquire a quit-claim deed from the Bishop for the damsite, and the other is to provide a permanent "easement of record" onto the property for construction and maintenance work.

From then on, all the responsibility for dam operation and maintenance would be up to the Drain Commissioner's department.

PUBLIC BARRED

One stipulation of the proposed plan was specified by the church officials, a provision to prohibit public use of the damsite. Only authorized personnel of the Drain Commissioner's office would be permitted on the property.

Barry said that the plan should be put into effect within the next month, after they wind up minor details and get the necessary signatures on the agreement.

After extensive investigation by county engineers, Barry said, "Compared to other dams in the county, this structure is in fairly good condition. We plan on elevating the present outlet for lake-level control purposes, along with the necessary repair work."

OLD DAM — Residents in the vicinity of the Lake Oakland-Woodhull area are concerned over the safety of an old dam which controls the lake levels. At the present time no one is responsible for its maintenance, and Mike Chersack and Mrs. Grant McDonald, association members, check the safety element involved to the lakes' property owners.

Oil Dollars to Education

Millionaire Philanthropist Hugh Cullen Dies at 76

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Hugh Roy Cullen, 76, oilman who earmarked over 160 million dollars for philanthropy after building a tremendous fortune with a pet theory, died last night.

He had been ill for three months.

Cullen struck many a gushing oil well by drilling deeper in areas major companies and other successful independent operators had abandoned.

Before his death he wrote checks for nearly 60 million dollars in gifts. He also pledged the Cullen Foundation over 100 million based on future income from oil properties. The University of Houston, the greatest beneficiary, has received an estimated 30 million dollars.

Death came a day after the outspoken oilman's 76th birthday and 103 days after he was admitted to Hermann Hospital, one of many medical institutions to benefit from his gifts.

Mrs. Cullen, four daughters, all but one of 15 grandchildren, the family physician and three nurses were in the room.

Cullen had been in critical condition five weeks and in a coma several days. Death was attributed to cerebral thrombosis, a clot in a brain artery. He was hospitalized after a stroke March 23 and suffered other strokes May 19 and 28.

It was just 10 years ago that the Cullens surprised a hospital convention in Houston by announcing establishment of the Cullen Foundation for Educational, Medical and Charitable Purposes.

Cullen told the convention the foundation would receive an estiated 80 million dollars in income from the production potential from a portion of 7,743 acres of oil-bearing lands. The next day, when civic leaders called to thank him, Cullen boosted the estimate to 180 million dollars by adding another 10,768 acres.

About two years ago he said he had given away about 93 per cent of his fortune after providing for his wife and family. Most of the family has been associated with Cullen's Quintana Petroleum Co., which he headed as president since organizing the firm in the early 1930s.

"I didn't know my bank account was so low," he said. "I had plenty of credit in those days to buy cotton with but I didn't have much cash. It's easier for me to give a million dollars now than it was to give five dollars to the Salvation Army 30 years ago."

Born in Denton County in north Texas July 3, 1881, Cullen quit school after receiving only a fifth-grade education and went to work in a candy store in San Antonio at $3 to assist his mother financially.

He entered the cotton business at Schulenberg, Tex., where he met Mrs. Cullen, the former Lillie Cranz, and later established his own cotton firm in Mangum, Okla.

Moving to Houston in 1911, Cullen was a real estate dealer before taking his first oil job in 1918 buying leases.

After three years during which he developed by studious observation his pet theory to drill deeper, Cullen returned to Houston to become an oilman on his own.

Expect Nixon to Visit California on Politics

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Chronicle said today Vice President Nixon will make a short California visit in late July and will discuss California political matters.

A major political matter is a possible 1958 Republican primary race for the governorship nomination between Gov. Goodwin J. Knight and Sen. William F. Knowland, minority leader who has announced he will not seek re-election.

Nixon will attend the Bohemian Club's high jinks at Bohemian Grove July 26.

Two Trainmen Saved in Crash

Three Crewmen Missing as Diesels Hit Trestle in North Carolina

EDENTON, N.C. (AP)—Two railroad crewmen were plucked from the murky waters of Albemarle Sound early today after two diesel engines and the first three or four cars of their freight train crashed through a trestle spanning the sound.

Rescue workers searched for three other crewmen reported missing.

The northbound Norfolk & Southern freight train pulling about 80 cars crashed into about 20 feet of water when a wooden piling of the six-mile railroad bridge apparently collapsed two miles from the Edenton side.

The first survivor, C. E. Jones of Pantego, N.C., a brakeman, was picked up by boat as he clung to a piling. He was taken to an Edenton hospital.

His story of seeing a fellow crewman floating down the sound on a piece of wood ripped from the trestle in the accident was relayed to Edenton police.

They notified the Elizabeth City Coast Guard station 65 miles away. The station dispatched a helicopter, which picked up the unidentified second survivor at 2:15 a.m.

The accident occurred about 12:45 a.m. two miles from the Edenton side of the sound. The six-mile trestle spans the sound from Plymouth to Edenton, which is about 75 miles south of Norfolk, Va.

Plans Are Weatherized

CRANSTON, R.I. (AP)—A field day and baseball game were staged yesterday for the patients of the State Hospital for Mental Diseases. It didn't rain, but just in case authorities obtained a move as substitute entertainment. The name of the movie: "The Rainmaker."

Police Subdue Monster, All 12 Inches of Him

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A delegation of four police vehicles, a city plant truck, and a dozen or so excited youngsters rushed to a city park here to check on a report an alligator was in the park.

The report came from a woman who phoned police that the alligator was in the park's fountain and was "about to eat the goldfish."

The Termites Start Yearly Expedition About Now

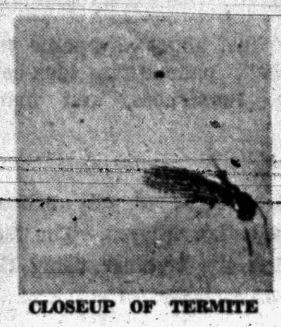

The warm days of spring will soon start a house-hunting expedition that will cost the American public, mainly home owners, over $100,000,000 this year.

The expedition is the annual flight of the subterranean termite. It will occur from the East Coast to the Rockies with the coming of warm weather.

This species of termite builds his colonies in damp and hidden spots, either underground or in moist wood. Every spring the explorers of the colony — both male and female — make their only appearance into daylight. They come poking up out of the ground or woodwark equipped with wings for their "wedding flight". They join hundreds of other termites in a swarm. Within two days they will mate and start a new colony or return to their old one. But, before they go back underground, the termites leave behind their wings.

These pieces of evidence can tell the home owner that his property is in danger. The wings are translucent and appear to have the same texture as the wings of a fly. In shape they are longer and more slender. Wings will usually be found in large numbers, and the spot where they are found will only be a few feet away from the colony.

CLOSEUP OF TERMITE

DAMAGE IS DONE

Once back in the colony the termites will spend most of their time foraging for wood . . . the termite's bread of life. This search will be made by chewing exploratory tunnels through the earth until they find wood. Once found the termites will eat out the inside of the timber until only the shell remains. The subterranean termite never breaks surface in his tunneling for fear of opening air passage to the colony, and thus drying it out.

When a colony of termites is searching for entrance into a house, their tunnels usually run along the concrete foundation. They cannot penetrate solid concrete, but they do tunnel up through cracks into the wooden structures of the house.

Man finds his best defense against termites in chemical insecticides. Hundreds of new homes going up this year will have a chemical barrier against termites sprayed into the ground around the foundation. The barrier may be formed by dieldrin, a chemical that remains in the oil and protects the home for years.

A home owner who spots a swarm of termites or finds a cluster of their wings in or around his house will need the help of a specialist. If exterminators are called in time, they can stop termite attack before it seriously damages the property.

Sleuthing Time Is Now

Leaf Reading Gives Clues

At this time of year, every weekend gardener can become a tree doctor of sorts, sleuthing symptoms that may spell declining arboreal health.

Tree gazing is particularly valuable now before the heat and drought of late summer begin to take their toll. You may wish to call in a professional tree man pronto, based upon your own findings.

The seasonal checkup on deciduous tree friends now when they are in full leaf and when spring growth is over can be most revealing. Here are some of the things to do, as recommended by W. R. Strickland, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

Be a leaf reader, scanning a few leaves from each tree for color, dead areas or missing tissues. Arboreal diet deficiences are apt to show in yellow or brown discolorations. Numerous holes or general bronzing or yellowing will indicate insect damage. An unseasonal touch of fall color at this time also may indicate gas poisoning from a leaky nearby main.

Large dead bark areas on trunk or limbs forebode troubles usually beyond the ken of the amateur tree doc. Sap-sucking scale insects can be detected by cursory examination of branches and twigs, preferred gathering spots.

If foliage is sparse and undersized, chances are you should call for first aid immediately.

Take a Long Look

Check Seeds Carefully

LANSING (AP) — When buying lawn seed or field seed take a long look at the tag on the container if you would have the finished crop later this year be the realization of your hopes.

This is the advice of G. S. McIntyre, Director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, which annually checks thousands of seed samples at its testing laboratory in Lansing.

Under Michigan law each container of field or lawn seed must bear a tag or label stating the purity, germination and recent date of test of the seed it contains.

Purity means the seed's freedom from inert matter and the seeds of weeds and other crops. Oftentime impure seed introduces weeds that contaminate the soil for years to come.

Germination is the ability of the seed to produce a good plant in the field. The higher the percentage of germination, the greater the chance of getting a good stand of plants. Seed with a high germination test is preferred if purity also is high.

Lawn seeding mixtures are made up of combinations of different grass seeds in varying proportions to meet the various needs of lawn planting.

In general fine leaf permanent turf grasses are recommended in most parts of Michigan. These are Kentucky Bluegrass, Merior Kentucky Bluegrass, Chewing's fescue, creeping Red Fescue and Poatrivilias.

Don't Take Risk on Woods Trees

'Leave Them Alone,' Says Tree Surgeon About Forestry

Finding a place in the sun after a sheltered early life is not always just what the doctor ordered. Not the tree surgeon at any rate.

Its elder tree neighbors provide a sheltered life for the young forest tree, shading it from the sun's hottest rays. Taking it from its home and replanting it on an open lawn may cause it to do a slow burn, according to H. A. Toney, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

In transplanting, the do-it-yourself landscaper must cut the roots off short, biting off many of the feeding roots so vital to the tree's survival. Trees taken from wooded areas rarely are the most desirable for the home grounds.

Nursery grown trees are usually better. Their root systems are carefully trained to a compact, fibrous ball to withstand replanting. They have been nurtured for restricted conditions and will adapt easily to environmental change.

Wives Get Yard Care for Fun and Exercise

The American yard, once the sole bailiwick of the husband, is fast becoming an outdoor exercise mecca for the wife. With power lawn equipment and other modern conveniences, yardwork no longer is the plain drudgery of yesteryear, but a means of healthful exercise that's really fun.

Women have long held the lead as flower gardening experts, and now they've turned their talents to the care of lawns and shrubbery as a pleasant sideline. The fast-growing outdoor living movement has had much to do with this feminine urge to make the yard as pleasant a place as the interior of the home.

Petunias Adapt Well

In dry season or wet, the Pelong flowering and colorful of the garden annuals. There is an almost complete color range from the pure white to delicate yellow, through many shades to red and rich purple, veined or blotched with the plain or frilled edges. There are small, large single, and double flowered. Petunias make good cut flower material.

Use Planting Near Garage to Get Effect

Many home garages look like "boxes" set upon the ground where there is no foundation planting to take away the box-like effect and blend the structure into the landscape. The garage requires a foundation planting the same as the home.

Planting the home garage is easy. It may require only a few flowering shrubs or eveegreens at the front corners, where the garage is at the extreme rear of the property.

In cases where the sides and rear of the garage are visible from the rest of the property a few evergreens and flowering shrubs, or a low tree whose branches may extend over part of the roof, when combined with lower shrubs will tie the structure into the landscape.

Any plants that will keep the garage from looking like a sore thumb will help. Uusually it is preferable to talk it over with your nurseryman who can come up with an answer that improves the looks of your garage permanently.

Imagination Plus Flowers Equals Beauty

With flowers from your garden and a little imagination, you can make your flower arrangements lovelier than ever.

Fit your arrangements to the spaces they occupy and your flower arrangements will be easier and more distinctive, says the July issue of a home and garden magazine.

Large wall spaces and generously proportioned pieces of furniture call for large, impressive arrangements. Occasional tables, where space is more limited, require smaller arrangements with the flowers held high out of the way of ashtrays, lighters, and other accessories.

Tree Will Lift Water Because of Minerals

A tree will lift several thousand pounds of water for every pound of minerals that are utilized in tree growth.

The minerals, in solution, are taken by the roots of the tree in water which continues up the trunk until it evaporates from the leaves, leaving the minerals as plant food on the way, according to the American Association of Nurserymen.

Club at Farmington Slates Guest Speaker

Genevieve Jonas, director of Occupational and Recreational Therapy, at Lafayette Clinic will speak to the members of the Farmington Garden Club at next Monday's meeting. Dessert will be served at 12:30 p.m. followed by business and the program.

Mrs. Elmer Dohany will be hostess in her home at 28425 Eight Mile Rd., Livonia and will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Harrison, Mrs. V. C. Kirchner, Mrs. W. E. Taylor, Mrs. Carl Shaw, Mrs. H. P. Bissell, Mrs. W. J. Tobin and Mrs. Ray Bodinus.

5 Area Garden Club Renames Chairman

Mrs. Fred Bohlman of 36 Coleman Dr. was re-elected general chairman of the Five Area Garden Club at a recent meeting.

Success of the "Spring Fashions in Flower Shows" held at the same time at the home of Mrs. Vivian Tubbs on Tubbs road prompted the club to make tentative plans for a fall show next year in September.

Edging of Material Makes Mowing Easy

An edging of material such as masonry, wood, brick, or steel, when installed around a lawn, can make mowing easier and eliminate ragged borders, says the July issue of Better Homes & Gardens magazine.

An edging can also ave water wasted when a trench separates grass from flowers. A trench can become a drainage ditch, carrying water away from roots where it is needed.

Bunning After 10th Win Against A's

Bunning, 9-2 for the season thus far, will face Tom Gorman in the opening game of a three-game series with the Kansas City Athletics.

The Tigers play the A's again tomorrow night and again Sunday before taking a three-day rest for the All-Star game.

Bunning, named to the American League's roster for Tuesday's game by New York Manager Casey Stengel, is in the first three, percentage wise, in the American League pitching race.

Detroit returned home last night after splitting a Holiday doubleheader with the third place Cleveland Indians. Cleveland won the first game, 3-1 with the Tigers taking the nightcap 4-3.

The split gave the Tigers a 6-19 record for their last 25 games on the road—one of the worst club records in recent years.

Three hit pitching by Early Wynn and a three-run homer by Rocky Colavito handed Paul Foytack his third straight loss in the opener. Foytack now is 8-7 for the season.

Colavito's homer came in the 5th inning after Vic Wertz had walked and Gene Woodling singled.

Detroit scored its only run in the fourth on a passed ball. The miscue came after Charlie Maxwell had walked and taken third on a single by Al Kaline.

Wynn didn't allow a Tiger past first base after Maxwell scored the tainted run. The veteran hurler gave up three hits in winning his 11th game of the year.

Maxwell paced the Tigers in the second game with a two-run single in the eighth inning giving reliefer Harry Byrd his second win since joining the Tigers June 24. Byrd also appeared as a relief pitcher in the first game.

After relieving starter Billy Hoeft in the 8th, Byrd blanked the Indians. The loss went to Bud Daley, the second of three Indian hurlers. Ray Narleski started for the Tribe and gave up four hits before being lifted in the seventh for a pinch hitter. Mike Garcia finished for the tribe.

Detroit scored first in the second game in the first inning when Kaline reached second on a two-base error by third baseman Al Smith. Maxwell singled to score Kaline.

Smith and Colavito doubled to account for two Cleveland runs in the bottom of the first and the Tribe picked up its third run in the third on a walk to Smith, a single by Bob Avila and a long fly by Colavito.

Lucky Number 4 for Weitzel on July 4th Ace

It was "4" all the way around for Dale Weitzel, co-owner of the Rochester Country Club.

Weitzel, after 48 years of golf celebrated July 4th with his first ace. The hole-in-one was made on the 4th hole with a No. 4 wood about 4:00 p.m. yesterday afternoon.

Bolero U., Hartack Ride to Victory at Monmouth

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Equine youth had its fling on the American turf yesterday as 285,724 fans wagered $18,582,928 at 14 major running tracks. But two old timers also caught the spirit of The Fourth and came through with rich victories, one in his last race before retiring to the blue grass of Kentucky.

Bolero U., a 2-year-old with his future before him, carried Willie Hartack to his 27th stakes victory when he won the $24,750 Tyro Stakes at Monmouth Park.

Cincy Leads on Fourth, but It's Mighty Shaky

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Over a 56-year period, the July 4th leaders in the National League have held on to win 33 times for a .589 percentage, but few have been involved in the kind of scramble the senior league presently has underway.

It is a shaky Cincinnati lead at best, with the Redlegs a half game and four percentage points up on St. Louis, a half game and six points up on Milwaukee, 2½ in front of Brooklyn and three up on Philadelphia.

Last year, tradition faltered in the face of a similar NL battle. Milwaukee, then led Cincinnati by five percentage points with Brooklyn 'way back in third, a half game off the pace. But it was the Dodgers picking up the World Series checks by a game from the Braves and two from the Redlegs.

The margin between first and fifth in the NL was clipped by 1½ games in Thursday's big holiday program as Milwaukee battered the Redlegs, 10-7, in a single game and the other four contenders moved up.

St. Louis edged Chicago 4-3 after the Cubs' two-run rally in the ninth had won the opener, 7-6. Brooklyn won its second game, 8-2 from Pittsburgh after losing the first, 5-1. The Phillies showed a 1½ gain, sweeping New York 2-1 and 6-2.

Singles by Bill Bruton and Red Schoendienst drove in the tying and winning runs in a four-run Milwaukee eighth, costing Redleg reliever Bud Freeman his first loss. Hank Aaron helped Gene Conley win with his 26th homer, two doubles and three RBIs. George Crowe drove in six for Cincinnati with five hits, including his 17th and 18th homers.

Chicago edged the Cards on ninth inning pinch hits by Bob Speake and Jim Bolger in the opener but Sam Jones saved the nightcap for St. Louis, pitching a six-hitter and driving in the deciding run. A double and homer raised Stan Musial's career extra base total to 1,133, fourth on the all-time list.

211,306 Attended Holiday Games in Big Leagues

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Major league baseball attracted 211,306 fans Independence Day, with a 52,791 turnout at New York's Yankee Stadium for the Yanks-Red Sox doubleheader accounting for a quarter of the total.

The American League attendance totaled 110,785 and the National League 100,521.

Last year's July 4th program drew 210,470 with the National League totaling 116,463 and the American League 94,007.

Contest to Select Top Outboard Club

A nationwide contest to select the "outboard boating club of the year" has been announced by the Outboard Boating Club of America, national association of boating enthusiasts and manufacturers and sellers of marine equipment. Choice of the outstanding club, based on the group's activities from May 1 to Oct. 31, will be made by a panel of editors of some of the nation's best known boating magazines.

First prize in the competition is an all-expense paid trip for two to the 1958 Chicago National Boat Show, including round trip by air, a three day stay at a hotel, appearances as guests of honor at ceremonies opening the boat show and other festivities and guest interviews on radio and television. In addition, the winning club will be awarded a $500 cash prize. Cash awards of $300 and $200 will be made to the second and third place clubs.

Test July 4th Superstition

Yankees Hold 3-Game Bulge

NEW YORK (INS) — The New York Yankees are prepared to test the old baseball superstition that the teams leading the pack on Independence Day will lead it at season's end as well.

Casey Stengel's bully boys finished the hectic holiday with a handsome three-game bulge. True, they split a doubleheader with Boston, but so did the second-place Chicago White Sox, the third-place Cleveland Indians and, perforce, the fourth-place Red Sox.

The Yankees lost to the Red Sox 3 to 2, on Mickey Vernon's two-run inning pinch homer and then won, 4 to 1, behind Don Larsen before 52,791 spectators. The White Sox shut out Kansas City for eight innings but lost their opener, 5 to 4, in the ninth. Chicago won the nightcap, 8 to 3.

Cleveland's Early Wynn posted his 11th victory in the opener against Detroit, 3 to 1, but the Indians lost the afterpiece, 4 to 3. Baltimore climbed into a virtual fifth-place tie with the Tigers by taking a single game from Washington in 11 innings, 3 to 2.

The pesky 39-year-old Vernon hit his winning homer off Bob Grim, who had relieved Bobby Shantz in the ninth. Shantz tired in the heat after allowing only four hits — including a Dick Gernert homer — in the first eight innings.

Vernon homered again in the second contest to spoil a second straight shutout for Don Larson, who pitched a strong five-hitter for his fourth victory.

Jack Harshman and Paul La Palme seemed to have the Athletics in the bag in their opener with Chicago, but La Palme's knuckler started hopping the wrong way in the ninth. Three walks and four hits later, the A's had five runs and the decision.

The White Sox banged out 15 hits to make the second game easy for Bob Keegan, who scattered 11 hits for his fourth win.

Jim Brideweser singled with two out in the 11th to score Jim Busby from third for the Orioles to nip the Senators and complete Baltimore's best home stand in its brief modern major league history. The Orioles won 12 of 17 and are .0002 behind the Tigers.

Old Models Race Tonight

Old model stock cars and fireworks make all the noise tonight and modified hardtops will continue the roar on Sunday afternoon as auto racing activity picks up at the newly-paved Pontiac Speedway.

Tonight it's the old model's turn to wheel around the quarter-mile surface. The show is sanctioned by the Michigan Modified Stock Car Racing Association and qualifying runs start at 7 o'clock with the 1st race at 8:30.

George Cooper, Jack Goodwin, Jimmy Hasselle and Wayne Bennett are among the Monday evening TV favorites expected to compete in tonight's old model program, which will be climaxed by a 25-lap feature. Holiday fireworks conclude the show.

A guaranteed $1,000 purse will be at stake in Sunday's hardtop program at the M-59 oval. Speed trials begin at 1 p. m., with the 1st race at 2:30.

Jaffee, a Michigan varsity player and top seeded, eased his way into the quarterfinals yesterday after a shaky first round in beating Bob Sassone of Detroit, 7-5, 7-5, in a three hour match.

Doubles competition and seniors singles play for men over 45 also gets under way. The tournament is expected to be completed Saturday.

Second seeded Les Dodson of Detroit, a member of Kalamazoo College's tennis squad defeated George Nasser of the University of Detroit, 6-0, 7-5, yesterday and meets Andrew Nasser of the University of Detroit today. The Nassers are brothers from Birmingham, England.

Rogers One of City's Greats

Remember the Sport Stars of Yore?

(This is the second of a series of articles about outstanding athletes of the past years from Pontiac and the Oakland area and what they are doing today. Today we feature Goodloe Rogers, one of the great athletes from Pontiac and one-time successful coach. Tomorrow one of Keego Harbor's great names Bob Walter will be featured.)

One of the few area men ever to make the Major Leagues . . . the man considered to be the most successful football coach in Pontiac High history . . . a former practicing attorney and Oakland County Circuit Judge . . . president and general manager of the American Forging and Socket Co.

All these words and many more are needed to describe one of this city's all-time great sports figures—Goodloe Rogers.

Now limited to golf as a pastime, he can look back on many years of outstanding performances as an athlete and coach here.

He really came into his own on the diamond later at Michigan where he played under Branch Rickey and caught for George Sisler. The trio moved on to St. Louis where Rickey and Sisler went on to nation-wide fame.

Rogers played in the big time three years catching the slants of Sisler, George Baumgardner and a host of others. He later dropped out of pro ball to play semi-pro.

After returning home, Rogers managed teams in the Pontiac Association for many summers and was instrumental in getting the Yanks to hold tryout camps here.

"The last time I played was at the 1940 Oldtimers game at Briggs Stadium when I caught three innings. We had Nick Altrock at first base and Grover Cleveland Alexander pitching that day," he commented.

Goodloe calls "the rabbit ball" the big difference between baseball in his day and now. "We had a dead ball to swing at, so no one swung for homers."

He would not comment on whether he thinks it was harder to make the majors then than now but stressed the fact—that young athletes hoping to someday make the grade should "play all they can." "You have to love the game to be a success."

Redleg Shows Commissioner

Benched 'All-Star' Crowe on Hit Spree

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Commissioner Ford Frick's "benching" of three Cincinnati players for the All-Star game will be a subject of controversy for a long time. But it might be said that one of the Redlegs concerned is trying to make the commissioner eat Crowe.

As it turned out, the last minute deluge of Cincinnati votes wouldn't quite have enabled the bespectacled 34-year-old Crowe to displace first baseman Stan Musial of the Cardinals in the starting lineup.

But ever since the All-Star balloting hassel, Crowe has been hitting with renewed vigor. Yesterday, he reached his peak against Milwaukee with three singles and his 17th and 18th home runs in five times at bat, driving in six runs and lifting his seasons's RBI total to 53.

The Redlegs lost, 10 to 7, but there was personal satisfaction for Crowe because his perfect day at bat came against a club for which he formerly played.

Crowe, who has a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana Central College, came up with the Braves when they still called Boston home in 1952.

The Braves traded him to Cincinnati the next April, where he seemed doomed to bench-warming duties. Then Ted Kluszewski's aching back gave George a chance to get into the lineup.

It is a tribute to his play that the Redlegs are in first place without big Klu.

Angling Conditions Improve

Panfish OK, Bass Better

BY GUY H. MOATS

While there has been some improvement in fishing conditions, generally, the sport is still rather spotty for eastern Michigan.

Pontiac area panfishing is good to fair — with some spots very slow as far as good-sized fish are concerned. Fishing for bass, both large and smallmouth has improved. In some waters it is very good, Pontiac Lake, Silver and Oxbow have reported some nice catches the last few days. Early morning, twilight periods appear to be the best times. Flies and "poppers" are OK, but bait is the best producer.

Perch are slow in Lake Huron's Saginaw Bay area and around the Thumb. Adverse weather is blamed. Fair perch fishing may be had in Big Bay (a mile offshore) in Lake St. Clair, where walleyes are hitting better. Clinton spillway to 11 mile road is the best section, in St. Clair river. There's little muskie activity.

Lake St. Clair smallmouths are reported active from Masonic Blvd. to 11 Mile road.

Entries in The Pontiac Press "big fish derby" have slowed up, somewhat, but more activity is expected during the holiday period. Prospective entrants are advised no entries will be taken this afternoon, nor on Saturday, after 11 a.m. None may be filed on Sundays. "Derby" ends Sept. 2, Labor Day.

New Track for N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—Followers of the trotters and pacers in New York State will have another track, the eighth, where they can attempt to pick winners next year.

The New York State harness racing commission yesterday granted a license to the Sullivan County Harness Racing Assn., which will build a half-mile track at Monticello, N.Y. in the heart of the Catskills' vacationland.

Merle Matthews, Bobbie Shaler, Gwen Hyduke, Dottie Crouch, Betty Phillips and Chiyo Tashima comprised the only women's team in the Inglewood Majors bowling league but they won the Los Angeles tournament by two games.

EYES HAVE IT — Ted Williams is crowding 39 and has played professional baseball for 21 years, but the Red Sox slugger still is among the top major league batters. Ballplayers stand and watch the greatest hitter of his time in batting practice, but one of the sharpest pair of eyes ever put in a man have as much to do with his terrorizing of pitchers as his swing.

Hurlers Feel Braver Against Ted

NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Williams, despite his lofty batting average, is finally beginning to show his years.

The famed Boston Red Sox slugger, generally regarded as baseball's best hitter during the past two decades, is not as feared by opposing pitchers as he used to be.

"Something tells me I shouldn't say this," a New York Yankee pitcher remarked yesterday. "Because it would be just like the big son-of-a-gun to make me eat my words before the day is over. But if you ask me I think Ted has lost something."

"Sure he's still a great hitter," the pitcher who asked not to be identified continued. "But he doesn't seem to have that old snap in his swing any more. At least he hasn't shown me that old buggy-whip swing of his. I think he knows it, too. He doesn't appear to be as confident at the plate as he used to be. He takes more good pitches now and he even swings at some bad ones, too. He doesn't seem to be too sure of himself."

Williams, with a pair of the keenest eyes in baseball, did not distinguish himself at the plate as the Yankees and Red Sox divided their holiday doubleheader before 52,791. He drew a walk in the first game, but failed to hit the ball out of the infield in his three other turns at bat against Bobby Shantz as Boston won 3-2.

Obviously tired, Ted was given a rest in the second game but he turned up as a pinch hitter in the fifth against Don Larsen and went out on a high pop foul. The Yankees won 4-1.

"My reflexes aren't what they used to be," Ted told friends during spring training. "But what can you expect of an old man. After all how many guys were still playing regularly in the big leagues at my age?

"I'll be satisfied if I can hit .330, with about 30 home runs and 100 runs batted in this year," he added. "If I can't do that I'll know its time to quit."

Ted currently is hitting .349, one point above his lifetime mark, with 20 home runs and 44 runs-batted-in. At this rate he should easily realize two of his goals and approach the other.

Every other hitter in the Major Leagues wishes he were that far "washed up."

Soviet Oarsmen Threat

Cornell Rowers Challenge

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (AP)—Cornell moved into make its Henley challenge today as the Russians confidently predicted that Soviet oarsmen will lift at least three titles at this 118-year-old royal regatta.

Main business of the day is the clash between the Cornell eight and Russia's Krasnoe Vznamia (Red Banner) Club in the semi-finals of the Grand Challenge Cup.

But their wiry, chain-smoking little coach, Boris Brichko said through an interpreter: "We intend to have not less than three wins — in the singles, the double skulls and the paired oars. We also have a good chance in the fours.

Brichko said of the race against Cornell: "It will be the most difficult race for us in this championship. Even if we win, we could lose to Yale in the final."

The dog fight between the Soviet and Cornell crews over the one mile, 550-yard Henley Course is eagerly awaited. It is the most important item yet on the crowded four-day agenda.

Sanford has the biggest crew on the river — averaging 6 feet, 3 inches and 186 pounds.

Yale — 6:47 in yesterday's heats —rows in the other semifinal against Queen's College, Oxford. The British is not likely to stop the Americans.

Americans generally will be fighting to retrieve some of the reputation lost yesterday. Three U.S. crews — Haverford School, the Princeton pair oar combination and the Cambridge Boat Club entry in the pair oars — all lost.

But the Princeton lightweight eight comfortably won its second race in the Thames Challenge Cup and looked set to retain its title.

Stunted Perch Experiment Failed to Solve Problem

LANSING (AP) — Removal of creel limits on Houghton Lake last winter apparently did little toward solving the stunted perch problem.

The State Conservation Department reported today that a check of 1,459 angler trips showed catches of more than 25 perch were recorded by only four fishermen.

Estimates based on a Dec. 18-March 16 creel census, indicated approximately 70,000 fishing trips, 344,000 hours of fishing and 250,000 fish caught.

The estimated catch included some 128,000 bluegills, 63,000 perch, 31,000 pike, 9,600 rock bass, 7,300 crappies, 5,300 pumpkinseeds, 4,100 walleyes and 57 largemouth bass.

Checks showed Houghton Lake perch are approximately two inches smaller than state averagers for the species in the same age group.

How to Fuel—Mix Oil Well

Outboard motors require a mixture of light oil and gasoline. When fueling, the gas and oil should be mixed in a separate container, shaken well and poured into the gas tank.

For most outboards, the ratio is one quart of light oil to a full tank of gasoline. For smaller quantities, mix a half pint of oil to a gallon of gasoline. No extra lubricating is needed.

Another John Brown

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Johnny Mack Brown is a tackle candidate for next season's University of Colorado football team. Like his name sake, he comes from Alabama. Johnny Mack Brown, the western movie hero, once starred for the University of Alabama in the Rose Bowl.

Longest scoring play in Syracuse University football history was made by Chester Bowman in 1923 when he carried a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown against William and Mary.

Pimlico race course clubhouse has been used since 1870.

Mora Pitches No-Hitter

Micki Mora hurled a five-inning no-hitter Thursday night as the Commerce Drive-In Theater girls' softball team of the Pontiac City League shut out the Cosgrove Oil Co. from Port Huron, 5-0, in an exhibition game at Oakland Park. Rain stopped the contest after 4½ innings.

Bobby Locke Takes Lead in British Open

Middlecoff Out of Contention With 74 Today

Scottish Champ Eric Brown in Race; Two Americans Eliminated

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (INS) —Phlegmatic Bobby Locke of South Africa, a three-time British Open champion, set his sights on another one today as he burst into the 54-hole lead with a third-round 68 for a 209 aggregate.

Locke, who last won the Open in 1952, began today's showdown 36-holes two strokes behind Scottish champion Eric Brown, the midway leader at 139. Brown was a late starter today.

Peter Thomson, the curly-haired Australian who won the last three championships, shot a 70 for a 212 aggregate.

United States hopes Cary Middlecoff of Dallas, Tex., and Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., shot themselves out of contention with two-over-par 74s on the ancient St. Andrews course for totals of 217 and 219, respectively.

Flory Van Donck of Belgium was only a stroke behind Brown as today's play began. Locke and Thomson had totals of 141 and 142, respectively.

Forty-six golfers qualified for the final 36 holes with scores of 148 or better. Stranahan, former British amateur champion and runner-up in the 1947 Open, made it with a 71 and a 145 aggregate.

Two other Americans were eliminated, Gene Andrews of Pacific Palisades, Calif., with 78-76—154 and air force Lt. Frank Keck of Champaign, Ill., with 83-82—165.

Locke shared third place with Bruce Crampton of Australia, and Thomson—who shot a strong 69 yesterday — was tied with Tony Cerda of Argentina and Johnny Fallon of Scotland.

Burly Laurie Ayton of Scotland, who shared the first round lead with Brown, ballooned to a 76 and wound up tied with Middlecoff and four others at 143.

Hoad Wins Men's Championship

Althea in Wimbledon Finals

They did just that yesterday to win themselves a place in the final. Miss Gibson easily defeated the surprising British youngster, 16-year-old Christine Truman, 6-1, 6-1. Miss Hard handled Mrs. Dorothy Head Knode, Forest Hills, N.Y., with similar ease, 6-2, 6-3.

But these two finalists sometimes dish up incredible double faults at key points in a match—the sort of mistakes you associate with Sunday afternoon players.

Darlene, a fair-haired waitress with a gay smile and a happy-go-lucky game, gets the shakes more often than Althea. In fact the 21-year-old Californian has a reputation for throwing games away with her wobbly service just when she seems to have a title all wrapped up.

Miss Gibson has been in trouble several times during Wimbledon for foot-faults. That is something capable of throwing the New Yorker off her game if she gets called too often in a match. Once, in Australia, she was foot-faulted 21 times in a match.

But the 29-year-old Miss Gibson of the big serve and volley game has set her heart on becoming the first Negro to take a Wimbledon crown. And she says: "I'm very hopeful of beating Miss Hard."

Miss Gibson has defeated Miss Hard three times this season and is the favorite for the crown. But the Californian is capable of upsetting the New Yorker if she keeps her game under control and hits peak form as she did in defeating Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., in the quarter-finals.

In the other attraction today—Australia's Lew Hoad won his second straight men's singles title at the Wimbledon tennis championships today when he trounced Ashley Cooper, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2, in an all-Australian final.

The 22-year-old enigmatic blond bomber required only 57 minutes to dispose of the 20-year-old Australian champ. The easy triumph made Hoad the first man to win the coveted crown two years in a row since America's Don Budge accomplished the feat in 1937-38.

Hoad also made a gigantic step in the direction of a $100,000 professional contract with the Jack Kramer troupe.

Hoad and Neale Fraser gained a men's doubles final berth by defeating Italy's Nicola Piertangeli and Orlando Sirola, 14-12, 1-6, 8-6, 6-3, in a two-hour-and-15-minute match.

AP Wirephoto

$100,000 FUTURE — Defending Wimbledon men's singles champion Lew Hoad of Australia returns a backhand shot during the famous British tournament. He beat Ashley Cooper, another Aussie in the finals, and the victory may bring a $100,000 offer to turn pro. He will probably stay an amateur until U. S. Championships at Forest Hills, Sept. 7th.

Toronto Signs Tom Dublinski

Ex-Detroit Quarterback Inks One-Year Contract With Argonauts

TORONTO (AP) — Former Detroit Lions quarterback Tom Dublinski has signed a one-year contract with the Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four Football Union, general manager Lew Hayman announced today. Terms were not disclosed.

The signing ended weeks of negotiation between Dublinski, out of action for all league games in 1956 after injuring a knee in a preseason exhibition game at Vancouver. The Argos allowed their option on his two-year no-cut contract to lapse this year.

Dublinski joined the Argonauts in 1955 after leaving the Detroit Lions of the National Football League after the 1954 season.

250-Mile Raleigh Won by Goldsmith

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP) — Another Fourth of July "Raleigh 250" was in the books today and its winner, Paul Goldsmith of St. Clair Shores, Mich., was $4,000 richer.

Goldsmith's 1957 Ford hardtop paced the field most of the distance for the 250-mile grind, and finished less than a lap ahead of Frankie Schneider of Lambertville, N. J., piloting a 1957 Chevrolet hardtop.

The race drew more than 15,000 fans and brought out a starting field of 54 cars, with 41 finishing. A purse of $18,825 was split by the top 30 finishers.

Goldsmith's time was three hours, 18 minutes and 10 seconds, setting an average speed of 76.03 miles per hour. The caution flag, out twice for mishaps, slowed the pace.

34 Yachts Race to Hawaii Today

ABOARD U.S. COAST GUARD CUTTER GRESHAM (AP) — Thirty-four trim yachts—plus a tag-along Catamaran — plunged through the blue water of the open sea today after a record-breaking start for Hawaii.

At 3:30 p.m. the big cutter Barlovento drove around the point of Catalina Island—an hour and a half ahead of the time logged to this point by the ketch Morning Star in its record-breaking run two years ago.

Exclusive Bird Watchers

Rural Carriers Ready to Count Game Birds

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's largest amateur bird watching society, some 800 strong, is set to move into action sometime near the end of the month.

Without official title or any formal organization, it nevertheless is highly regarded by the men who keep tab on the state's pheasant and grouse populations.

Membership in the group, which covers the entire state, is limited to rural mail carriers. Those in the Upper Peninsula and northern Lower Peninsula count grouse, those in the southern areas look out for pheasants.

Twice a year, once just after the hunting season ends and once in mid-summer when broods are partly grown, southern Michigan carriers keep count of all the pheasants they spot during their daily runs.

At the end of two weeks, forms furnished by the state conservation department are mailed in for tabulation by game biologists. Information thus compiled aids in determing the status of pheasant populations, and, in turn, regulations controlling the hunting season if any drastic change is noted.

Grouse counts are made for three week periods in the spring and again in the summer.

Participation in the carrier count plan is purely voluntary, but the response is good. An average of between 500 and 600 of the approximately 850 rural carriers in southern counties return the completed tabulation forms.

Moore in Vengeance Bout Tonight on TV

Moore has lost only five of 30 bouts, but one of those setbacks was to Martinez two years ago at Colon, Isidro's hometown.

Although Davey has gained stature in the meantime, the 22-year old Martinez — with quite a Capital following — was about a 2-1 favorite to win again. The 10-round featherweight rematch at Capitol Arena will be nationally televised and broadcast, NBC, 9 p.m., EST.

Raul Sanchez, Cuban rookie pitcher with Cincinnati, pitched 13 innings for Washington in 1952, splitting two decisions.

Over $18 Million in Bets Placed at Major Tracks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thoroughbred racing drew 285,724 through the gates of 14 major tracks on the Fourth of July and kept the parimutual machines clicking until they showed $18,582,928 wagered during the day.

Hollywood Park led in both attendance and betting yesterday with figures of 46,004 and $3,078,888. Three other tracks, Belmont, Monmouth and Arlington parks, exceeded 30,000 in attendance and two million dollars in wagering.

Belmont's figures were 37,434 and $2,969,829; Monmouth's 32,754 and $2,511,397 and Arlington's 30,682 and $2,177,050.

Million dollar plus days also were reported by Delaware Park ($1,946,082), Narragansett Park ($1,174,515) and Hazel Park ($1,083,154).

Mona Pitches No-Hitter

French Christine Carere Will Remain in Movieland

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — After meeting and talking with Christine Carere, the little French actress brought here from France for Francoise Sagan's "That Certain Smile," I would have made a wager that she is here to stay. I am right!

Buddy Adler has signed her on a long-term exclusive contract and you'll hear more about little Miss Carere, with a face like a flower and the cutest accent.

Her next picture following "That Certain Smile" will be "Girls' Dormitory," made first in 1936 with Simone Simon. Tyrone Power came in at the very end of this and played just a bit, but it made stars of both Simone and Ty.

Jane Wyman is still so TV-minded that she's going to continue with her series. She has two new sponsors to furnish the bankroll, and she changes her night to Thursday.

She starts shooting in a couple of weeks, and I hope Jane will keep that cute new haircut she has because it's very becoming.

"What about motion pictures?" I asked Janie. "Well, I may make one in Europe for Universal-International next year," she said. "It was too late to start this year and still keep my date with my TV sponsor."

Now that our English cousins have launched the Mayflower II to immortality, J. Arthur Rank has plans to launch the second screening of the tragic Titanic.

From London comes word that J. Arthur, recently tapped on the shoulder by Queen Elizabeth II with the title sir, is putting "A Night to Remember" into immediate production starring Kenneth More.

"A Night to Remember" is the moment-by-moment account of the sailing and sinking of the great luxury liner in 1912 after it crashed into an iceberg in the Atlantic taking 1,517 passengers to their death.

I wonder if Rank knows that Charlie Brackett made the same story in the same detail a few years ago under the title "Titanic," and a very good picture it was. It was also seen as a great TV show.

Silver blonde, green-eyed Mary Hosford, star of C. V. (Sonny) Whitney's "Missouri Traveler," telephoned to say au revoir. She goes to Phoenix for three weeks and will bring her children back with her.

She has bought a house in Bel Air, and will make her home here. Her divorce from Frank Hosford becomes final the 15th or 16th of this month. In Arizona there's no waiting period such as we have in California.

Mary says she will work over the summer on a cookbook she is writing, and then, in the fall, she'll go out on tour with "The Missouri Traveler." She doesn't expect to make another picture for Whitney until next summer.

NEW DAUGHTER

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Meet Tina Melinda Moore, brand new daughter of Peter Potter of "Juke Box Jury" fame. (Moore is Potter's real name.) Mother is singer Beryl Davis, and Tina is the fourth child.

Bobby Troup, packing them in at the Captain's Table, was asked to stay over, but he couldn't accept because he said he was going to a wedding—his own! He and Julie London will be married in three weeks.

Cutest twosome in town is Jimmy MacArthur, Helen Hayes' boy, and Carol Lynley, 16-year-old New York model. They did Disneyland from front to back gate.

No one will be surprised if Mary Fickett, who plays Bing Crosby's ex-wife in "Man on Fire," marries Alan Shayne when she heads back to Cape Cod to visit her family.

Howard Hughes, who has always believed in newspaper advertising, will spend one million dollars on the release of his picture "Jet Pilot," which was made in 1949 with Janet Leigh and John Wayne.

U.S. Production Leads

WASHINGTON — The total output of goods and services in the United States has hit a rate of more than a trillion dollars a year compared with the world's total of 866 billion dollars for all gross national products in 1950.

Oh?

ADEN — Some Arab tribesmen of the Aden Protectorate believe that if a man does not bury his fingernail clippings, he will be forced on Resurrection Day to pick them all up with his eyelashes.

Rubber Exports Drop

JAKARTA — Indonesia exported about 734,000 metric tons of rubber last year, some 12,000 tons under the 1954 figure, but higher prices raised the value of 1955 exports by 63 per cent. Practically the entire reduction in the volume of exports was in smallholder-produced rubber.

Current taxes take about 29 cents out of each dollar spent in the United States for the purchase of a new automobile, the industry estimates.

Movie Starlet Killed in Crash

Judy Tyler, 24, Starred With Presley; Husband, Other Driver Also Die

BILLY THE KID, Wyo. (AP)—A promising career of movie starlet Judy Tyler, 24, was blotted out in a head-on collision of two automobiles at this southern Wyoming roadside hamlet.

Fatally injured was her bridegroom of less than four months, Gregory Lafayette, also 24, a television actor of Hopewell Junction, N.Y. He died in a Laramie, Wyo., hospital a few hours after the Wednesday night crash.

Miss Tyler, who just completed the lead role opposite Elvis Presley in the movie "Jailhouse Rock," was killed instantly as was Donald D. Jones, 23, Hanna, Wyo., riding in the other car.

Told of the tragedy, Presley said in Memphis, Tenn., "Nothing has hurt me as bad in my life. All of us really loved that girl. I don't believe I can stand to see the movie we made together now."

Presley said he would attend funeral service in New York today for Miss Tyler, who he said was "at the peak of success."

Miss Tyler formerly lived at Teaneck, N.J. She was the daughter of Julian S. Hess, Nutmeg Ridge, Conn. Since their marriage in Miami Beach, Fla., March 17, the young couple had been living in New York City.

Miss Tyler won the title of "Miss Stardust" in a nationwide beauty contest in 1949. Earlier this year the raven-haired actress played the romantic lead in the Rodgers & Hammerstein musical comedy "Pipe Dream."

For three years she played in the television show "Howdy Doody."

Firemen Battle Ladder Rising on Their Truck

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Rockledge volunteer fire company truck was on its way to a July 4 parade when its 75-foot aerial ladder began to rise.

As three firemen fought frantically to control the ladder and stop the truck, the vehicle, traveling 20 miles an hour, tipped over, tossing the men to the ground.

Some three thousand people flocked to the scene to watch other firemen dismantle the $20,000 truck with blow torches to clear the road.

Israel Adds Rail Miles

TEL AVIA — The total length of Israel's railroad lines is 390 miles. This compares with 140 miles in 1948 when the country became independent. Some 54,300 motor vehicles are registered now compared with 24,300 in 1949. In 1949 there were 890 miles of asphalt roads; now there are more than 2,000.

Glick Clicks for Ace

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP)—Gary Glick, football halfback for the professional Pittsburgh Steelers, is a fair golfer too. Playing on the Fort Collins course, he hit a shot from the ninth tee and the ball went into the cup 215 yards away for an ace. He was playing with two other football players, Jack Christiansen and Don Burroughs.

Cracker Capers Slated Tonight

Westacres Teenagers to Dance at Clubhouse; Hear Guest Artists

WESTACRES — For the third of the weekly teenage dances to be held at Westacres Clubhouse from 8 until 11:30 tonight, Tom Dodd and his Velvetones will present guest artists to entertain.

Sally, 12, and Ronnie Fuhrman, 9, rock 'n' roll singers, will be present. They will be accompanied by their parents, who play guitars.

Roberta Welch is chairman of this week's party, which she has called "Cracker Capers."

All students who are 14 or entering the ninth grade, through this year's graduates, are welcome to attend, said members of the Westacres Women's Club, who sponsor the dances.

Bill Sherkey, clarinetist, will present west coast jazz when he is the guest artist at next week's Friday dance.

MR. AND MRS. NORMAN PATTON

Nancy Bollman, Norman Patton Nuptials Read

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Holler, 4882 Fayton St., chose a princess style dress of French lace over nylon. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid. The tier veil was held by white pearls.

Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Barbara French with Mrs. Shirley Clayton and Judy Bollman as bridesmaids. The flower girl was Niki Clayton.

Students 'Adopt' Ship

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Fifth-graders at Anna Laura Force School have "adopted" a ship—The S. S. Jean Lykes, a cargo vessel traveling to Central and South America ports. The pupils correspond with Capt. O. L. Brown and crew members. They keep tabs on the ship's whereabouts with pins and colored yarn on a map.

Kathleen Nagle Speaks Vows

Catholic Rite Read for Rochester Girl, Royal Oak Man

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. LaPeer of Rochester and the bridegroom's parents are the David L. Berubes of 1019 Williams Court, Royal Oak.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of embroidered tulle with sabrina neckline and short scalloped sleeves with gauntlets to match. Her fitted waistline fell into a ruffled bouffant skirt. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion.

Mrs. Cecelia Dupirie, sister of the bridegroom was maid of honor, Rose Marie Sclesky and Rebecca Schlesky were bridesmaids. Eugene Sclesky and Linda Potts of Clawson were flower girls.

Raymond Duperie of Detroit served as best man and the ushers were William Sclesky of Auburn Heights, Johnny Markowski, River Rouge. Danny Potts was the ring bearer.

Lake Orion Bible School to Open July 8

LAKE ORION—Bible School will begin Monday, for all boys and girls of kindergarten through high school at the First Baptist Church, corner of Church and Broadway streets. The program each day will be from 1-3:30 p.m., continuing through July 12.

Church buses will make regular runs, adding Belleview Island, leaving at 12 and returning to the church at 1 p.m.

The Rev. Walter Ballagh will assist with the program. For further information call MY 3-3031.

Sunday night, July 14, at 7 p.m. the evening service of the church will be presented by those attending the Bible school. All parents and friends have been invited to attend.

KARLA M. STODDARD

Daughter of Mrs. Ruby Stoddard of 1007 Charest and A. W. Stoddard of 169 E. Highland Dr., both of Waterford Township, Karla M. Stoddard has received a scholarship from the Pontiac Women's Club to any accredited school of nursing. She is a 1957 graduate of Waterford Township High School and will attend the University of Michigan in September.

Close School Offices at Walled Lake

Any students needing working papers, may obtain them through the office of the superintendent in the junior high building.

New residents in the district or any students needing schedule changes should see the principals when they return in August.

Dryden Church Picks Officers for 1957-58

DRYDEN — Newly elected officers of the Methodist Church include Harold Duckert, chairman of the official board; Carl Dittman, vice chairman; Mrs. Harold Foot, treasurer; and Jay Dittman, secretary.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship has announced its officers for the year as follows: Norman Dittman, president; Sharon Hilliker, vice president and Joann Duckert, secretary and treasurer.

Replace 4 Teachers in Marlette Schools

MARLETTE — Replacements have been obtained for four members of the teaching staff of Marlette Community Schools who have resigned, Supt. of Schools Alfred A. Amundsen announces.

Faculty members who resigned are Mrs. Robert Andre, Mrs. Earl Decker, Dean Parker and Lawrence Smith.

Safecrackers Steal $8,800 at New Buffalo

NEW BUFFALO (AP) — Safecrackers made off with $8,800 in cash and checks Wednesday from the Consumers' Building Industries office 12 miles north of here on U. S. 12.

State police of the New Buffalo post said the safe at the construction company apparently was blown open by nitroglycerin. The robbery was discovered yesterday morning by Theodore Hellenga Jr., a co-owner.

New Boys Town to Rise in Venezuela

GUARENAS, Venezuela—A new $500,000 Boys Town is about to rise in Venezuela on 200,000 square meters of land — about 50 acres — donated by the Guarenas Country Club. It is near the town of Guarenas in Miranda State — level property surrounded by low hills and about 25 miles east of Caracas. Financing now is under way.

The sponsor and prime mover of the project, Father Alfonso Vaz, feels sure of success. Boys Town is intended as a shelter for orphaned, neglected or misguided boys. Emphasis will be laid on moral and religious education, as well as academic. Individual homes will accommodate 20 youths under the supervision of a married couple.

Grain Futures Slightly Lower

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures dipped slightly lower on the Board of Trade today due to extremely favorable harvesting and planting weather throughout the grain belt.

Wheat was off fractionally, with hedge selling increasing. The Kansas City market was off more, since the Southwest is doing the bulk of the harvesting and getting the heavier receipts at this time.

Corn and oats dropped only fractionally. Soybeans started higher but soon fell with other grains in light trading.

Near the end of the first hour new style wheat was ¼ to ¾ lower, July $2.10¼, corn was ¼ to ⅝ lower, July $1.31, oats were ⅜ lower to ⅛ higher, July 68, rye was unchanged to ½ lower, July $1.23, soybeans were ¼ to ½ lower, July $2.37¾, and lard was 7 to 12 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $13.15.

STATE OF MICHIGAN—In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland, Juvenile Division.

To James Craft and Elizabeth Craft, parents of said child.

Petition having been filed in this Court alleging that the present whereabouts of the parents of the said minor child is unknown and said child is dependent upon the public for support and that said child should be placed under the jurisdiction of this Court.

In the name of the people of the State of Michigan, you are hereby notified that the hearing on said petition will be held at the Oakland County Service Center, Court House Annex, 1200-B West Blvd., in the City of Pontiac in said County, on the 16th day of July, A.D., 1957, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and you are hereby commanded to appear personally at said hearing.

It being impractical to make personal service hereof, this summons and notice shall be served by publication of a copy one week previous to said hearing in The Pontiac Press, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

Brush Fire Sweeps Area in California

A fire official said that 15 structures were destroyed or damaged in the Twin Lakes area during the night. But residents of the area said most were unoccupied cabins.

The fire started near a movie location ranch in the rugged Santa Susana Mountains, where countless Western pictures have been filmed. Firemen said sparks from a passing train may have touched the blaze off early yesterday.

Mr. Chief Wins Pace

Stock Market Still Advancing

Pivotal issues rose from fractions to around 2 points. There were a few small losers.

The market was still going ahead after the surprisingly vigorous advance on the eve of the July 4 holiday when normally the market is dull.

Aircrafts, chemicals and nonferrous metals were in active demand and higher. The aircrafts were still bolstered by senate action restoring most of the cut by the House in defense funds. Coppers were aided by the Wednesday reports that Chile may cut copper production. Chemicals were boosted by the increased stress on guided missiles.

Chrysler rose a major fraction, still aided by reports its first half earnings may go to a new high. Youngstown Sheet was up a point.

Gains of around a point were also scored by Royal Dutch, Texas Co. and Illinois Central. Small losses were taken by Caterpillar, Southern Railway and American Tobacco.

Opening blocks included: Kennecott up 2½ at 111 on 1,500 shares; Commercial Credit off ⅜ at 48 on 8,600; Anaconda up ½ at 67⅛ on 1,000; and Getty Oil ½ at 35⅛ on 2,500.

AFTER CHURCH WEDDING — The Japanese bride of Army Specialist 3/C William S. Girard clutches his arm as they stand before microphones in front of the chapel at Camp Whittington, Japan, after they were wed in a religious ceremony today. Haru "Candy" Girard is wearing the gay flowered kimono with gold embroidered sash she rented for the occasion. The couple were married by Japanese law last Tuesday by the signing of formal documents.

4 Persons Injured in Headon Collision

Four persons were injured in a headon collision last night on M24 about ¼ mile north of Indianwood Rd., in Orion Township.

Dudley G. Townsend, 40, of 2896 Hadley Rd., Lapeer, told sheriff's deputies that as he was headed north on M24 a southbound car driven by Charles E. Sparks, 42, of 5½ S. Washington St., Oxford, veered over the center line and the two collided headon.

Both were treated at Pontiac General Hospital for minor injuries and released, as was Townsend's wife, Alita Mae, 37, of the same address.

A passenger in Sparks' car, Sylvester Skinner, 43, of 17 Brabb Rd., Oxford, was admitted with multiple cuts and bruises and chest injuries, and is listed today as being in "fair" condition.

40,000 at Festival

MANISTEE (AP) — Police estimated 40,000 persons viewed the floral parade Thursday which opened the 17th Manistee National Forest Festival. Gov. Williams was scheduled to visit the festival today and tour the community's new $400,000 National Guard Armory. The festival continues through Saturday.

New Era Starts at Movie Studio

By BOB THOMAS

That sentiment was voiced by a movietown oldtimer, and "the day" was when the first television series started filming on the MGM lot. This was complete surrender to the new medium.

MGM is happily taking the new era in stride. Said Bud Barry, once NBC production chief and now head of MGM's TV operations: "We're in this business to stay."

The first foot in the door has been placed by the durable Thin Man, who has served the Culver City lot well since his arrival in 1934. Now the Thin Man emerges as a half-hour mystery show. Peter Lawford and Phyllis Kirk are playing the Nick and Nora Charles roles created by William Powell and Myrna Loy.

Oh, yes, Asta is aboard, too. But not the original fox terrier, of course. Not even a relative. In fact, he's played by three different dogs with the same markings.

"It's a bit of a problem to have a murder and solve it in a half-hour show," Lawford remarked between scenes, "but the writer has managed to do it and keep the flavor of Nick and Nora. I think that is the element that will set it apart from shows like 'Mr. and Mrs. North.'"

The next big project is a "Min and Bill" series, possibly with Peggy Wood opposite Chill Wills. Also in the works: a "Goodbye, Mr. Chips" series, "Northwest Passage," and several others.

This is part of the diversification program started by company President Joseph Voge. It has resulted in 45 million dollars in sales of old movies to TV, part interests in three stations and a TV commercial business estimated at 3 million in the past year.

NEW THIN MAN — Peter Lawford takes over the role of Nick Charles, created by William Powell, in the new television version of "The Thin Man." Phyllis Kirk co-stars as Nora Charles, the part originally played by Myrna Loy. MGM is filming the comedy-mystery series.

Sue Carson May Be New Funniest Female

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—A star was born . . . a female star.

Out of Hollywood and Las Vegas came Comedienne Sue Carson, 24, and cute, slender and dark haired, to prove she's the funniest young woman in America . . . a new Martha Raye or Bea Lillie.

Looking occasionally like a teen-ager, she delightfully spoofed wolves, wolfesses, celebrities and recording stars.

"Jayne Mansfield," she said, "will go far — she's half way there already."

"I was raised psychiatrically — my parents were both psychiatrists," she went on. "What a honeymoon they had—two glorious weeks at the Menninger Clinic. Many times mother went to the couch and found it bare, but dear old dad had always put away a few nuts for the winter."

Singer, dancer, ventriloquist, impersonator and gag artist, Sue'll be big on TV. (Ed Sullivan's already spoken for her.)

SUE

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Gary Merrill's rushing Ann Bancroft, the lovely young brunette actress . . . Lawrence Welk, flying to Europe, stopped to pray at the chapel at Idlewild . . . London papers gave MMonroe more praise than Olivier in "Prince and Showgirl" reviews . . . Pretty Beatrice Ruth, in "Pajama Game," has worn seven hair-dos so far—and the producer's still experimenting.

BEATRICE

Slimmed-down Kate Smith refused a mag offer for her "special diet"—says she has none . . . Peggy Lee has an eye ailment, can't read the TV teleprompter . . . Burgess Meredith'll play the editor on TV's "Big Story."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "A woman's like a bomb with a faulty timer—you know that sooner or later there's going to be an explosion, but you don't know when." That's earl, brother.

Stock Sale Proposed by Detroit Steel Firm

DETROIT (AP)—McLouth Steel Corp. said yesterday it proposes the sale of 105,000 shares of its cumulative convertible preferred stock at $100 par value with net proceeds to be used to finance part of a 34-million-dollar 1957-58 expansion program.

McLouth also said net sales for the first four months of 1957 totaled $62,454,000 while net income was $4,095,000, equal to $2.54 per share of common stock. This compares with net sales of $52,143,000 and net income of $2,520,000 or $1.46 a share for the comparable period last year.

The expansion program will include construction of an ore dock extension, a second blast furnace, a sintering plant and additional oxygen steel making equipment.

Holiday High Jinks Ruin Driver's '57 Convertible

Peyton told police he was parked at a drive-in restaurant with the top of his 1957 convertible down. A firecracker, its fuse sputtering, landed on the folded top, exploded and ripped a ragged six-inch hole in the nylon fabric.

Peyton said it would cost $145 to replace the top. The person who threw the firecracker escaped detection.

20th Anniversary of Atlantic Flights Observed Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Commercial aviation passes a major anniversary today but plans no formal observance.

It is the 20th anniversary of the maiden survey flights of the Atlantic which proved that regular air service between the United States and Europe was possible.

A 32-passenger Sikorsky flying boat of Pan American World Airways took off from the waters of Botwood, Newfoundland, and flew to Southampton, England.

Two decades later the Atlantic is being crossed 60 times a day by commercial airlines of 15 nations.

While it took the Pan American boat 28 hours to fly from Port Washington, Long Island, to Southampton in 1937, the airline's DC7Cs, flying 350 miles an hour, now cover the distance in about 12 hours.

Army Loses $400,000 in Blaze in Germany

HANAU, Germany (AP)—A fire in a U.S. Army depot at nearby Grossauheim was put out today after destroying an estimated $400,000 worth of Army furniture. No one was injured in the hours-long battle against the flames.

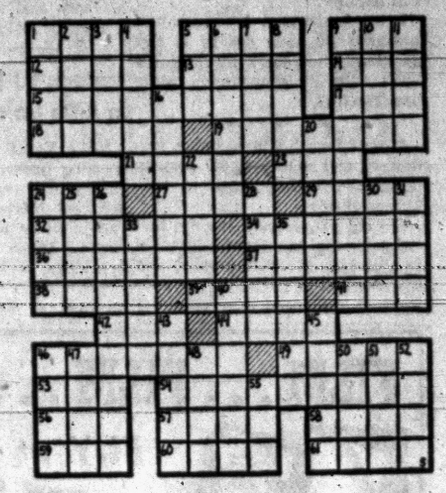

An Army spokesman said the cause of the fire was "completely unknown," but an investigation was being made.

Town That Isn't Gets Dedicated in Wilderness

But 3,000 persons and the governor of the state of Washington stood in the sagebrush land of the Columbia Basin and dedicated a town that is not, except on the plotting board of a promoter.

The 40-acre site has a main street — lined with cherry trees. At the terminus of the street is a tall flagpole topped by a hatchet.

Owner of the site is Charles E. Brown, who bought the property from the Reclamation Bureau, built roads and curbs and planted the cherry trees. He named it and predicted it someday would be a healthy farm community in the vast irrigated area near Grand Coulee Dam.

Gov. Albert D. Rosellini told the 3,000 persons who attended the dedication ceremonies he too agreed the town of George, Wash., had a great future.

Among other dignitaries who attended the daylong festivities and contributed dedicatory words was Nat Washington, a state senator from nearby Ephrata and a great-great1grandnephew of George Washington.

Nat says he has no intention of moving to the little townsite. So far, no one else has either.

Dropped Ice Cream Causes Two Deaths

DANVILLE, Va. (AP)—Because a little boy dropped ice cream on his father, two little girls were killed and a third critically injured on U.S. 58 five miles east of here yesterday.

James H. Fallen, 27, Sutherland, told state police the car he was driving swerved off the highway when he looked down to brush away the ice cream dropped by his son, who was standing on the front seat.

The car struck three sisters, fatally injuring Patricia Anne Dillard, 9, and Cynthia Louise Dillard, 7, Ringgold. A 4-year-old sister was in critical condition in a Danville hospital.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

About one-third of the zinc needed for U. S. arms during World War II came from the mines located in the Missouri-Kanasa-Oklahoma fields.

Thousands Jam Park to Honor Louis Armstrong

NEWPORT, R. I. (INS) —"Man, I'm bombed."

It was Louis' 57th birthday yesterday, and nearly 12,000 persons jammed Freebody Park to help him celebrate.

His old pal, Johnny Mercer, had come all the way from Hollywood to give him a birthday cake, and the sponsors of the American Jazz Festival announced it is setting up a $1,000 Louis Armstrong scholarship to be awarded this year to a candidate its board of directors will select later.

King Louis acknowledged these salutations by doing what comes most naturally to him — by lifting his horn and leading his band in a typical Armstrong romp.

Expect 10 Per Cent Gain in Rifle Sales This Year

NEW YORK — Some 2,000,000 sporting firearms are expected to be sold this year, a more than 10 per cent increase over 1956. The gun industry predicts this breakdown: a 15 per cent gain in center-fire rifles, a 10 per cent rise in rim-fire rifles and a 10 per cent increase in shotguns.

But With New York Twang

It's All Greek to Greek Winner

ATHENS (INS) — Greeks who have always welcomed the intrusion of the American-style beauty contest in their lives girded themselves for trouble this year when it looked as if American hanky-panky was trying to put one over on them.

They smelled a rat when the favorite at the Miss Greece beauty contest finals walked on with the poise and assurance of a Powers model.

"She ain't no Greek," someone in the audience muttered, "Greek girls walk like they're looking for that thousand drachma note I lost couple years back!"

VERY UN-GREEK

There was also something distinctly un-Greek about her long legs, her blonde hair, her sea-green eyes. Yet the contest rules stated all candidates must be Greek!

There was applause when the votes were counted and she was proclaimed the winner.

He asked her to say a few words to the audience.

SILENCE GROWS

The silence grew strained as it suddenly became obvious to all the girl was struggling with the words — unfamiliar Greek words that came out hesitantly and with an unmistakable North American twang!

Pandemonium in the open-air night club where the contest was being held.

Cries of "fake," "an American trick," "up the brunettes" and "down with extra-territoriality" filled the air while a frantic emcee struggled to keep the situation in hand.

"It is Lana Turner who has come to Greece incognito," one short-sighted woman was heard to say with finality.

The buxom, olive-skinned runners-up caught their breaths as, for a moment, it seemed as if one of them might make it to Long Beach after all for the Miss Universe show. But it was not to be.

BORN IN ATHENS

When he got a chance, the emcee explained the girl had been born in Athens and was the daughter of a well-known woman painter and a highly respected newspaper correspondent who had spent ten years of their lives in New York.

Thus it was that Lee Caravias, 18, who lived in Manhattan from the age of 6 to 16, became Miss Greece for 1957.

U. of M. Won't Build Till Next April

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Construction of four buildings at the University of Michigan's new Dearborn campus probably won't begin until next April, a university spokesman said today.

The building construction at the old Henry Ford Fairlane estate would cost about four million dollars, he said. The university hopes to have the Dearborn branch available for classes in September 1959.

The estimated enrollment in Dearborn is expected to be 1,700 students three to five years after the opening.

The four structures planned include a classroom building, an engineering laboratory, a faculty office building and a combined student activities building and library.

The university received the 210-acre estate and $6,500,000 from the Ford Motor Co. last December.

Swarm of Bees Buzz Into Home of Detroit Family

DETROIT (INS)—A queen paid a visit to the Walter Mutter family on the Fourth of July. But she was an unwelcome guest.

The lady was a queen bee and shortly after she entered the dwelling, apparently when Mrs. Mutter opened a door, the house was swarming with thousands of buzzers.

The bees entered via the chimney. A fire in the hearth—in 80-degree weather—failed to discourage the intruders. They clustered on the mantle, perched on floor lamps, covered window sills, or just buzzed around.

Then one stung 15-year-old Cookie Zabinski, a house guest.

Mutter called police. Officers arrived at the house but they seemed reluctant to ask the bees to leave. One said: "Give me firecrackers anytime. Bees, never."

A bee handler was summoned. He was unable to catch the invaders but managed to exterminate them with a poison spray.

Eight Persons Hurt at Fireworks Display

FOX LAKE, Ill. (INS) — At least eight persons were injured when a crowd of 5,000 panicked at Fox Lake, Ill., during an explosion of a Fourth of July fireworks display last night.

Seven were trampled when spectators fell on gravel while fleeing the area of the explosion. One was burned.

A spokesman for the Lake Region Post 703 of the American Legion, sponsors of the annual display, said about half of a $500 stock of fireworks, including skyrockets, aerial bombs and roman candles, were ignited.

It was the second year in a row that tragedy has struck the event. Last Independence Day three persons were killed and five others injured when a passenger train smashed into a crowd watching the display.

Tank Car Long in Use

TORONTO — The railroad tank car built in 1930 from the first nickel-clad steel plates ever rolled is still in service. The car, used to transport molten phenol also has nickel steam coils keep the chemical in a liquid state.
