Education Board Vetoes Postal Site Bid

$137,500 Option on City School Meets Refusal

Members Consider Loss Would Be Too Great at Price Offered

The Board of Education last night threw cold water on a $137,500 proposal to buy the Central School site for an additional post office building.

Four board members at the meeting agreed they stood to lose almost a quarter million dollars on the deal.

The $137,500 figure was quoted in a four-months option asked by Pontiac Real Estate man James A. Taylor, who first made overtures in a sale three months ago. He urged action within a few days.

Postal officials said today that Taylor was not empowered by them to negotiate for options on the site for the building.

Arthur C. Chandler, regional real estate manager of the Chicago district of the Post Office Department, said the government preferred to negotiate its own options on sites for proposed additions.

Taylor indicated that the $1\frac{1}{2}$ acre site across E. Pike street from the City Hall is the favored location for a new building already promised by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

FOR MAIL HANDLING

The additional postal building would be primarily for mail handling, and it would provide adequate space to process parcel post, allowing mail-carrying vehicles to move in and out with ease.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield told the Pontiac Press in February that "there is no question of (Pontiac's) need." He added that a site would be announced in 60 to 90 days.

No official vote was taken because three board members were absent. Present were Mrs. Lola B. King, Glenn H. Griffin, Dr.

Battling GOP Delays Mental Health Plan

LANSING (INS)—Appropriation totaling about $95 million, including the mental health program, hung in the air today while Republicans fought with Republicans in the final hours of the 1956 legislative session.

* * *

Democrats, more concerned than amused, sat on the sidelines as GOP leaders of the House and Senate struggled unsuccessfully until midnight to settle their differences.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams threatened an immediate special session if the GOP majorities in the two houses walk out today without approving the budget items for mental health, a state building program and hospital maintenance.

Where Rocket Hit House

AP Wirephoto

FAILED TO EXPLODE — An unidentified guard looks at the side of a house hit near Mt. Clemens by an Air Force rocket liberated, the Air Force said, "inadvertently" during unloading operations of Sabre jet planes at nearby Selfridge Air Force base. At least 22 rockets were liberated. The rocket hit the house a glancing blow, broke a window but failed to penetrate the wall or explode.

3 Deadly Rockets Hunted by AF at Mount Clemens

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—Demolition experts searched in a populated area today for three deadly rockets unaccounted for among 22 fired accidentally from a grounded F86 Sabre Jet at Selfridge Air Force Base yesterday.

An Air Force board of inquiry was convened to seek the cause of the accident that sent the Mighty Mouse rockets skimming across the big base. Some shot into a residential area.

Three airmen were injured. A mother and her two children had a narrow escape. So did another family.

The missiles, carrying 75mm. warheads, skipped along the airfield before at least a part of them fanned out into adjoining Harrison Township to the east.

A demolition squad from Griffiss Air Force Base at Rome, N. Y., was flown in to hunt for the missing rockets and to disarm five that dug their way into the Selfridge turf.

One rocket gouged into the ground near Tony Arpaio's home, spewing dirt and flinging a part of its casing against the house. It didn't go off. The family was evacuated and a demolition expert removed the missile.

* * *

The "engine" section of one rocket flew off as it passed the home of Mrs. Shirley DePew, 24. It flew through the window of a bedroom, from which she had just moved one of her two children. Glass and metal were scattered over the crib.

AIRMEN HURT

A.2.C. William Hamm, Hammond, Ind., was singed in the blast which set off the rockets. He required only first aid.

Sgt. James Owens, 41, Roanoke, Va., suffered a cut in the cornea of one eye but physicians said he

Holds Out Hope for Security Bill

George Says Benefits May Be Restored on Senate Floor

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga) said today "I think we have a better chance on the (Senate) floor than we did in the committee" to win approval of new social security benefits for women and disabled workers.

George referred to the action of the Finance Committee yesterday in striking from a House bill a provision to give benefits to persons totally disabled at age 50 or above, and in modifying sharply a plan to lower from 65 to 62 the retirement age for women under social security.

The committee voted to give the benefit of the 62 retirement age only to widows, leaving it at 65 for working women and wives of retired workers.

The committee meets again today to try to complete work on the bill and send it to the floor.

New Trouble Boiling Up in Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (INS) —Trouble is boiling up anew on the tiny island of Cyprus.

The outlawed underground Cypriot organization Eoka claimed today it had executed two British soldiers in reprisal for yesterday's hanging of two Greek Cypriots.

Leaflets distributed in Nicosia identified the executed British soldiers as Cpls. Gordon Hill and Ronnie Shilton.

The Eoka leaflets said the two soldiers, held prisoner since November and April respectively, were hanged yesterday and buried secretly in reprisal for the executions of "victims of British military dictatorship on this Greek island."

Yesterday at dawn the British hanged two young members of Eoka, one for having killed a policeman and the other for having wounded a British businessman.

The two men, considered by the large Greek majority on the strategic British island base as martyrs in the fight for union with Greece, were Michael Karaolis, 23, and Andreas Demetriou, 22.

They were the first Cypriots executed for political crimes since the British took control of Cyprus in 1878.

Eoka, which has sought to advance the nationalist cause through acts of terrorism and guerrilla warfare, has been blamed by the British for most of the violence that has marked the 18-months campaign for "Znosis"—union with Greece.

The leaflets telling of the retaliatory hangings were signed "Digenis," reputedly the leader of Eoka.

Printed in English and Greek, they were distributed in the streets of Nicosia's Greek quarter by children.

The leaflets failed to state where the executed bodies were buried, noting only that "the bodies are not being returned to their own people thus following the example of the occupation forces towards the murdered Greek patriots."

Karaolis and Demetriou were buried in the Nicosia prison cemetery immediately after the hangings. The bodies of executed men usually are turned over to relatives for burial.

During the night a huge cloth poster had been hung on the walls of Nicosia's cathedral declaring: "English murderers: Karaolis and Demetriou will live forever in our hearts—Eoka."

* * *

Thousands of Cypriots crowded around the poster to read it.

The Eoka leaflets contained this stark warning to the British:

"We shall answer hanging with hanging, torture with torture. Supported by over 400,000 Greek Cypriots, inflexible and determined, we shall fight day and night for the application to Cyprus of the right of self-determination."

A Cool Move Lands Driver in the Cooler

The 28-year-old driver of an allegedly stolen car apparently ran out of gas last night at W. Southvard W. and Franklin road. He flagged down another car for help.

In the other car was Bloomfield Township Officer Newton Tubbs, who arrested Corrie C. Bloodworth, 346 Central St. after identifying the license plate number with that of a car reported stolen a few minutes before in Pontiac.

Pontiac police today obtained a boulevard and Franklin road. He from a restaurant at W. South boulevard and S. Woodward avenue.

Bloodworth explained that he'd been drinking, according to Det. Charles Hewitt.

Dag Tells U.N. to Avoid Orders

Warns Against Trying to Impose Peace Pact on Middle East

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold has warned the Security Council not to try to impose a peace settlement on Israel and her Arab neighbors.

* * *

Reporting on his recent mission to the Middle East, Hammarskjold said the cease-fire agreements he negotiated could start a chain reaction toward peace.

But he also said (1) a final settlement may still be far off, (2) the initiative must come from the Middle East countries themselves and (3) no attempt must be made to impose a settlement from the outside.

* * *

The secretary general returned to New York Sunday after getting Israel and Egypt, Syria, Lebanon and Jordan to reaffirm the cease-fire pledges they made originally in the 1949 armistice agreements.

He recommended no specific steps for the 11-nation Security Council to take. He made clear, however, that he feels both the U.N. and individual countries should limit their role to encouraging and supporting any peace efforts initiated by the Middle East countries themselves.

Defense Funds Bill Goes to the Senate

WASHINGTON (INS) — The House-approved $33,600,000,000 defense appropriation bill goes to the Senate today for more debate on whether the U.S. is staying ahead of Russia as a military power.

* * *

The spending measure—$1\frac{3}{4}$ billions more than was approved by Congress last year, but still a half billion under the amount requested by President Eisenhower—passed the House yesterday, 337 to 0.

The unanimous vote came after a day-long debate, during which a move to increase funds for B52 intercontinental bombers by one billion dollars was rejected by a voice vote.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON May 11 (INS)—The most powerful financial hypodermic in history was voted America's farmers today by the house appropriations committee. The panel approved a $1,983,512,568 money bill to carry the nation's expanding farm programs during the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Pontiac Centenarian Dies at Son's Home

Jonathan A. Ferrier, 100-year-old Pontiac resident, died yesterday at the home of his son, Arthur Ferrier of 14 McNeil St. He would have observed his 101st birthday Nov. 21.

Mr. Ferrier was believed to have been the oldest male resident of Oakland County.

A native of Canada where he was born in 1855, the centenarian spent his early life on a farm near Imlay City and in 1900 moved to Dryden. He had lived in Pontiac since 1922.

A widower for 54 years, he was the father of seven children, four of whom survive him: Arthur of Pontiac, Isaac of Imlay City, Elmer of Owosso and Mrs. Lester Ellis of Pennsylvania. He is also survived by 35 grandchildren, 112 great-grandchildren and 89 great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Lum Methodist Church in Lum. Interment will follow at the Lum Cemetery. Mr. Ferrier is at the Muir Brothers Funeral Home in Imlay City.

No Flood Dangers Here, but Other Cities Periled

Although this morning's sunshine is expected to yield to showers and scattered thundershowers tonight, no serious flooding danger is expected locally.

But communities elsewhere in southern Michigan are preparing for overflows and evacuations today as rivers swirl dangerously close to flood stage and weathermen predict more rain.

In Grand Rapids, 1,500 persons in 400 families are reported ready to move out as the Grand River continues to swell. Ionia and Lowell also are reported in flood danger.

At least four persons died as a result of thundering downpours. Three small boys were drowned and a 65-year-old man died when his car went out of control on a flooded spot in the road.

The Grand River had risen to 14.2 feet in downtown Grand Rapids this morning and 25 families already have been evacuated by police. Some 300 others were told to move.

Police said 50 families at Lowell were warned to begin evacuation immediately as the Grand there rose to 15.5 feet. In Ionia, 36 families were told to move out of low-lying homes as the river swelled to 21.9 feet.

The river would have to rise to 21 feet to spill over into downtown Grand Rapids, but bridges there already are strained by the fast-moving current. They become unsafe when the water reaches 15 feet.

In Flint, authorities say another inch of rain will spill the Flint river over its banks.

A low of 60 degrees is expected in Pontiac tonight, with slightly cooler and cloudy weather tomorrow. High will be 66-70 degrees.

Lowest Pontiac temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 50 degrees. The mercury rose to 78 at 1 p.m.

GM Car Output Stopped for Day

Three City Plants Send Over 11,500 Men Home in Company Shutdown

More than 11,500 assembly workers were given a day off from their jobs at three local General Motors plants today in a corporation shutdown involving 119 factories in 64 U.S. cities.

Affected by the brief production halt were 6,000 production employes at the Pontiac Motor Division, 2,800 in GMC Truck and Engine operations, and 2,800 in assembly operations at the Fisher Body Division.

Coach and sheet metal production activities were not affected by the shutdown, according to GMC spokesmen.

The production cut was ordered to "balance output with current customer demand," General Motors sources said. The company was unable to say today how many workers would be affected by the layoff.

GMC Truck and Coach, with an overall complement of 10,700, has reported no layoffs involving seniority.

A GM spokesman said that the shutdown will be for a single day and will not mean adoption of a four-day week.

The shutdown came in the midst of a general downward trend in automobile production and sales.

Pontiac is reported to have laid off 4,500 workers since Jan. 1 out of a total employment force of 12,700 hourly-rated and salaried personnel.

Commission to Take Deficit of 200-Bed Wing

Bids Over $3.5 Million Without Equipment for New Structure

The City Commission allocated a half-million dollar appropriation to Pontiac General Hospital last night to aid in the construction of what is destined to become an unequipped 200-bed hospital wing.

But the city will make up any deficits to equip the wing when it is opened, according to City Manager W. K. Willman.

The deficit will be between the present construction bids and what the hospital fails to secure to pay for some $700,000 worth of equipment.

The hospital Board of Trustees and the commission heard Willis M. Brewer, building committee chairman, report that a tabulation of low bids, minus all equipment except elevators, totaled $3,565,666.30.

Pontiac voters approved a $3 million general obligation bond issue November 2, 1954 for the construction of the new addition.

The $500,000 will be absorbed by the city, according to City Manager W. K. Willman, out of a three-year capital improvement program "without any appreciable disturbance of the existing tax rate."

CAN ABSORB COST

Willman said: "We can state rather definitely that the City Commission can absorb this added cost over a three-year period with-

City to Limit Speed on Railroad Trains

In what is believed to be the first such case, the Michigan Public Service Commission imposed a 45 m.p.h. speed limit on Grand Trunk trains passing through the city.

But Frank Gaffney, vice president and general manager of the railroad, had already set the same limit, effective May 3.

The restriction resulted from complaints of City Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstempel who said police had clocked Grand Trunk trains crossing South Saginaw street at speeds greater than 55 m.p.h.

"I think this limit will work out satisfactorily," Vanderstempel said. "But I still plan to perform more radar checks to see if the trains abide with the limit."

Ford to Enter Guided Missile Field

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

Ford Motor Co. announced last night in Los Angeles formation of a new subsidiary organization to work in the field of guided missiles and exploration of outer space.

Ernest R. Breech, chairman of Ford, said the new firm, called Aeronutronic Systems, Inc., will have its headquarters in California.

Breech announced that it is expected to make "an important contribution, not only to the defense of our country, but to the development of peacetime uses of the miracles of science in the fields of physics, electronics and nucleonics."

TO EMPLOY LA FIRM

A group of scientists and engineers, together under the name of Systems Research Corp., a Los Angeles firm, will form the nucleus of the new Ford subsidiary.

Breech said that top government scientists in guided missile and atomic and hydrogen bomb projects will also join the new firm.

Gerald J. Lynch, director of Ford Motor Co.'s office of defense products and governmental relations, will head the company as president.

Lynch, who will resign his present position to become president of Aeronutronic, said:

"We expect to take a missile or other project and see it through from its very conception to its manufacture, and possibly even to its utilization and maintenance.

SETS SIGHT ON PRODUCTION

"And when the new corporation gets to the point where it is ready to start production, it will either build new plants or use some of the modern, versatile factories Ford has located strategically around the country."

Dr. Ernst H. Krause, formerly president and board chairman of the old SRC was named vice president of research and development. And Dr. Montgomery H. Johnson, also of SRC, will be director of research and development.

Dr. Joseph V. Charyk, an authority on jet propulsion, will become head of the aerodynamics and propulsion division.

The Ford executive told the news conference:

"We are plainly fascinated with the possibilities the future holds . . the development of still undreamed of electronic devices that will make our lives more pleasant, more comfortable and more interesting.

Small Twister Hits Minnesota

30 Homes Damaged in $100,000 Loss to Farm Community of 400

RUSHMORE, Minn. (AP) — A small tornado ripped through this southwestern Minnesota community last night, heavily damaging more than 30 houses, farms and business places.

Loss was estimated at more than $100,000. No injuries were reported.

* * *

The twister tore out part of a brick wall at the Rushmore State Bank and peeled off a steel roof on the Farmers Coop building.

Outlying farms took the brunt of the damage. Several farmers lost most of their outbuildings as the storm cut diagonally, northeastward and plowed into the town of 400.

Entire blocks of trees were blown down, scores of television aerials were toppled and power was temporarily disrupted.

Drenching rains which followed the storm damaged feed and seed stored in the Farmers Coop building. Inventories in some stores also got a drenching after the twister blew in windows.

Board of Education Turns Down Option

Walter Godsell and Monroe M. Osmun.

Griffin said the 2-story school building and property had been appraised at $330,000. He said the board was ready to stand a $75,000 loss in the sale but no more. Taylor claimed the appraisal price was "highly exaggerated."

HINTS AT FREE SITE

Taylor hinted that city officials were prepared to offer the board free another site for a new school if a sale is made. He pointed out that, in his opinion, the present site is poorly located for school purposes and is situated on streets with heavy traffic, endangering school children.

The site in question is on a hill bounded by N. Parke and Union Sts. It extends about 530 feet north of E. Pike street.

The site also is located near the Public Safety Building, now under construction, and the large municipal parking lot on E. Pike. It is about a 4-minute walk from downtown.

"To build the post office there would add another impressive building to the downtown area we all are trying to beautify. It is an ideal location, and the offer is best you'll ever have," Taylor said.

CITE BUDGET PROBLEMS

All four board members agreed with Taylor's first two considerations. They pointed to budgetary problems, however, in consideration of the $137,500 price.

"I don't see how we can even consider that figure in the face of present problems," Griffin said. He referred to the board's present long-range allocation of funds in a ten-year building program.

"Some of our students are attending classes in temporary 'shacks' because we can't afford new buildings this year," Griffin said "How can we afford to throw away $225,000 to $250,000 in a sale like this?"

School's Superintendent Dr. Dana P. Whitmer said no official of the postal department had contacted the board on a sale. He pointed out that the school board had never offered the site for sale.

It was believed that $400,000 would be necessary to replace the school with a new building at another location. Built 63 years ago, Central School serves some 387 students in 12 classrooms and a kindergarten.

Some $25,250 in renovations has been invested there in the past two years, according to Otto Hufziger, coordinator of the building program. He believed the school would not need further repairs for another three years.

Atomic-Powered Transportation 'Round the Corner

EAST LANSING (AP) — Atomic-powered trucks, railroad yards operated by electronic brains, flying boxcars traveling 500 miles an hour . . .

* * *

These were some of the development predicted for the future by speakers attending the annual Michigan traffic and transportation conference Thursday at Michigan State University.

Thomas Robertson, executive director of the American Trucking Assn., predicted that more than half the total freight transported by railroads and highway will go by truck-trailer by 1956.

* * *

"In ten years," he said, "it should be possible to travel from one end of the country to the other on superhighways without seeing a traffic light."

* * *

Robertson also saw the development of atomic-powered trucks for the future.

W. W. Brown, president of the Monon Railroad, Chicago, said freight yards are being increasingly mechanized for loading and unloading and traffic handling.

Sue to Get OK on Subdivision

Owners Would Compel Troy to Approve Land; Protest Restrictions

Owners of a proposed subdivision in the new City of Troy yesterday asked for a Circuit Court order requiring the city to approve their subdivision plat.

Lester F. Houghten and his wife charge in the suit, filed by Pontiac attorneys Dell & Heber, that conditions set by the city for approval of the plat are "unlawful and unreasonable" and beyond human control.

The suit charges the city required the subdivision owners to install public sewers. The Houghtens claim no public sewer facilities exist in the city for them to tie into, and probably won't for five years.

They claim the State Department of Health rejected their proposal for a temporary sewage plant, ruling the plant would be a menace to health.

They add tests show septic tank disposal methods would be practical on the 245-lot "Glen-Moor Estates."

A hearing was set for May 15 by Judge Frank L. Doty.

Troy Resident Seeks Congressional Seat

The Democratic race for Rep. George A. Dondero's seat in the House of Representatives added another starter today with the announcement of Jack L. Ward, 28, of Troy, that he will seek the nomination.

Ward, who has lived in Ferndale, Pontiac and Oxford in his 13 years of Oakland County residence, is a graduate of Michigan State Normal College.

Born in Coalgate, Okla., Ward was the oldest of 13 children. He has been a metal and auto worker and radio and TV singer.

A Selfridge spokesman blamed the accidental discharge on "apparent electrical malfunction" of the firing device which the pilot uses to unleash the rockets at a target. He said all switches in the plane were at "off."

The jet fighter had just been pulled off the alert line and was being disarmed when the rockets let go.

Because the rockets skidded on the ground for a time shortly after leaving the plane, it was believed they failed to attain a speed sufficient to set up their automatic triggering apparatus.

Ike Undergoing Medical Exam

White House to Reveal Report of All Results on Checkup to Public

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, slimmed down to 168 pounds, is in Walter Reed Army Hospital for an annual checkup and a new study of his heart condition.

* * *

A report on the results — certain to have political significance because of his re-election bid—will be made public by the White House tomorrow afternoon shortly after the President leaves the hospital.

He entered late yesterday for an overnight rest. The series of examinations begins this morning. He is occupying the three-room-and-bath Presidential Suite.

CALORIES INCREASED

Immediately after Eisenhower's heart attack last Sept. 24, his doctors put him on a diet of 1,600 calories a day to keep his weight in check. Later they authorized a 200-calorie increase.

* * *

During seven weeks in a Denver hospital his weight went from 178 to 172 pounds, his weight more than 40 years ago at West Point.

At the time of his last full-scale physical checkup in February, he still was at around 172 pounds. His personal physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder said last night he entered Walter Reed weighing about 168 pounds.

* * *

The doctor said Eisenhower had told him he was "feeling fine" at the lower weight.

ACTIVITIES INCREASED

Asked whether he was concerned about the decline, the physician gave out this reply: "Certainly not."

The change from around 172 pounds may reflect a stepup in Eisenhower's physical activity during the last three months.

* * *

In February he resumed playing golf. Last week he played three 18-hole rounds on three different days. He also has been swimming in the White House pool almost every day.

The hospital tests are being handled by a staff of doctors headed by Snyder and Col. Thomas W. Mattingly chief heart specialist at Walter Reed.

Vandals Set Blazes in Malkim School

Vandals who broke into Malkim School Tuesday night endangered thousands of dollars worth of property by setting papers ablaze in three rooms.

Pontiac police believe that juveniles set the fires to see by as they ransacked desks in a search for money.

"Important papers were destroyed," according to the principal, Miss Lillian Davidson, "but luckily the building did not catch fire.

"Whoever broke in didn't get any money, either," she added. "Our teachers never leave money in desks overnight. That's the Board of Education's policy."

Miss Davidson said small fires were set in her office, the Health Clinic and a classroom. Glass windows in doors to 14 classrooms were broken, she said, and teachers' desks throughout the school were ransacked.

Police said entry was gained through a rear door, where a glass window was broken with a rock.

1 Buck Means $500 to Awed Merchant

WAKEFIELD, Va. (AP) — One buck meant $500 to V. L. Worrell, owner of a local appliance store.

Worrell had closed up his shop earlier this week when the buck—a full-grown deer—made an after-hours visit by crashing through the plate glass front door.

* * *

Moments later, having had an unexciting look-see at the merchandise and banging up a sewing machine and a window fan, the buck made his exit—through the store's plate glass window.

Said Worrell, adding up his losses and reaching the $500 total:

"I had no idea a buck would go that far this day and age."

State to Hike Ferry Rates on Straits of Mackinac Run

LANSING (AP)— Straits of Mackinac ferry rates will be boosted Saturday to meet higher operating costs, the State Highway Department announced today.

Comm. Charles M. Ziegler said the state will need $353,000 more to operate the ferries this year than last because of pay raises for state employes, repairs to docks and boats and a decision by Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh that the state must pay a three per cent federal transportation tax.

Following is the schedule of rates, the old followed by the new;

Passenger cars, $2.50 to $2.75; car trailers, $2 to $2.25; car coach, $4 to $4.25; trucks under 20 ft., $3.25 to $3.75; truck-trailers, 20 to 30 ft., $5.50 to $6.50.

Truck-trailers, 31 to 40 ft., $7.50 to $8.50; truck trailers, 41 to 50 ft., $10 to $11; truck-trailers, over 50 ft., $14 (new classification); buses, under 32 passengers, $5 to 6; buses, over 32 passengers, $6.50 to $7.50.

The difference between the half-million dollar city share and the low bid construction price is anticipated to be supplied from a federal grant from the Hill-Burton Fund according to Board Chairman William P. Babcock.

"We anticipate between 50,000 to 100,000 dollars from this fund," he said.

TO PASS RESOLUTION

It is expected that the City Commission will pass a resolution next Tuesday setting up the $500,000 reserve for the construction. The contracts are expected to be signed the following day.

The accepted $3,565,666.30 price will include general contracting, plumbing, ventilating, electrical systems, and elevators according to the report submitted last night.

Bids received April 19 resulted in a figure approximately $4,200,000.

Additional funds to be sought by the hospital will equip the wing with all beds and furnishings, all operating equipment like X-ray, operating tables, etc., boilers, and all new kitchen equipment.

* * *

"It won't include much of any equipment as planned now," Babcock said this morning.

The accepted building price will not include the architect's fee which "will become the immediate study of the hospital board" according to the city manager.

CONSULTANT SPEAKS

During the 3½ hour dinner meeting, architect consultant Adolph H. Roessling told the combined group that to build a hospital now for $3 million the city would get but a 125-bed capacity.

There was considerable discussion during the meeting that there was the possibility of "scrapping" the present plans and starting over again.

Miss Lauretta Paul, hospital director, told the commission that "the state fire marshall would padlock the doors of the hospital if he found out we have scrapped these plans."

She said the facilities of the present hospital had been condemned for the last five years. The marshall was pending condemnation as the hospital was showing definite intent to expand, she added.

* * *

Asked how the hospital would secure the additional $700,000 to equip the proposed wing, Babcock said: "In addition to the anticipated $75,000 from Hill-Burton, we see the possibility of more from the fund in the 1956 program to be announced in July."

"We feel that since we will be in an emergency status lacking equipment, the Hill-Burton authorities will look at our request on this much-needed basis."

He added there was the possibility of the medical staff assisting to make up the financial shortage. "There are also a number of people and organizations in the city that have said they might be interested in furnishing equipment."

At last night's meeting, the commission and board members agreed that there was an obligation to the city to proceed with the construction. "I have faith in the people of Pontiac," Mayor William W. Donaldson said. "We can't afford to scrap these plans."

In the report submitted last night, Brewer told the group that since 1954 "there has been a building cost rise of approximately 32 per cent."

Chairman Babcock stressed that three-quarters of a million dollars of the construction cost is for revamping the present hospital.

"This is a case of the continuous spiral of building prices," he said. "The board had no intent whatsoever to give the people more hospital then they could afford."

The city's absorption of the $500,000 over a three-year period will be based on $160,000 a year.

According to Willman this will not interfere with the construction of the Public Safety Building, and the proposed new sewage disposal plant or fire station for the west side.

Another burden of the city will be construction of an off-street parking lot for the new facility as required under a city building code.

"We will have a little more time to work on this," Willman explained. "We need a decision on the construction immediately as the submitted bids become void after June 18."

May Deadline Nears for Half-Year Plates

Truck-owners who hold half-year license plates have until May 15 to purchase tags covering the next six-month period, according to Willis Brewer, manager of the Pontiac Secretary of State's office.

The plates, necessary on trucks and trailers weighing over 5,000 pounds, will cover the interval between May 15 and November 14, Brewer pointed out.

The manager said yesterday that each vehicle-owner must accompany his license application with a statement of weight. He emphasized that each truck or trailer must have been re-weighed since applications were filed for plates in November of last year.

'Witnesses' Bar Ousted Member

Waugh Is Unsuccessful in Attempts to Enter Drayton Church

Strong-arm tactics and scuffling on the ground marked Chester Waugh's latest attempt to go to church last night, he said today.

Waugh, 36, of 55 Newberry St., was "disfellowshipped" from Jehovah's Witnesses in 1954 and has been waging a private war with the Drayton Plains congregation ever since. He charges the religious group has improperly barred him from attending services.

When a Circuit Court ruling last week overturned a temporary injunction restraining the Witnesses from preventing Waugh's attendance at meetings, he announced he would continue to try to attend.

Last night, he said, two church members stood at the door and prevented him from entering. Finally, he said, they took him by the arms and tried to walk him away.

When his "feet got tangled" and the group fell to the ground, Waugh says he stopped struggling, got up and walked away.

As he left, he said, he heard Pastor William P. Strong tell the two men, "Don't get too tough."

Security for You

Most Men Stay at Work After Reaching Age 65

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

If you're over 65 and still working, you're not unusual. The popular impression that most men retire at 65 is all wrong.

* * *

A recent survey by the Bureau of Census shows that about 60 per cent of all men between 65 and 69 are working or looking for work. So are about 40 per cent of the men between 70 and 74.

Their work runs the full gamut of employment, but the largest group—about one-fourth — are farmers or manage farms. Large numbers are managers, officials and owners of businesses. Many hold jobs in construction and manufacturing industries.

These men work past 65 mainly because they need money to live on. Of course, wanting to keep busy and productive is also a factor, as is the fear of being put on the shelf.

WILL REDUCE

In years to come, the need to continue to work to earn money to live on probaby will become less important. Social Security pensions are increasing both as to amount and number.

And of equal importance is the fact that private pension plans are being given to more and more employes.

Thus, Social Security pensions and private pensions will combine to give many millions of older people enough economic freedom to make work after 65 unnecessary.

Since Social Security pensions are designed only to supplement income from other sources after retirement, the real unknown in the whole equation is: How fast will private pension coverage increase?

TAKE 20 YEARS

If the increase in the last 20 years can be used as a standard it will take only another 20 years—perhaps less—before all the nation's workers are covered.

For example, today some 22 million employes have some form of pension coverage with about two million a year more being added. In 1935, only about four million were protected by private pension plans. The number of plans has increased from 1,090 to more than 20,000.

Another factor will also play a part in retirement at age 65 in the future when private plans become more widespread. The vast majority of the plans set normal retirement at 65. Under many, however, an employer can keep a worker on the job beyond 65. And many don't make retirement compulsory until between 68 and 70.

Just how much a person covered by one of today's pension plans can expect as income depends largely on the type of plan.

The Institute of Life Insurance took a look at the nation's pension systems recently and found a tremendous variety. Some are based on an employe's average salary during his employment, on units for length of service, on final salary. Other types pay flat monthly benefits based on specified lengths of service, while others are combinations of two or more types.

Under the plans, the Institute found that you could draw as little as $47 to $53 a month for a regular salary of $2,400 a year; from $133 to $166 for a constant $6,000 a year; and from $515 to $610 a month if you made a steady $18,000 a year.

Red Arms Shipment Studied by America

WASHINGTON (AP)—American officials are studying reports that the Soviet bloc has virtually completed delivery of around 100 million dollars worth of arms to Egypt.

* * *

According to these reports in diplomatic quarters, the Egyptian deal with Red Czechoslovakia was for one year, expiring July 31.

These officials add that at least 80 per cent of the weapons already have been delivered. Estimates place quantities roughly at 200 MIG15 jet fighters, 50 Ilyushin IL28 medium jet bombers, 200 heavy T34 and Stalin tanks, 6 submarines, some artillery and a number of torpedo patrol boats.

* * *

Egypt is giving Czechoslovakia cotton and rice in return for these arms which come largely from Russia's pile of obsolescent war goods.

6,000 Registered for Troy Voting

Annexation Election Is June 5; Areas to Divide Remainder of Township

TROY — An additional 110 voters were registered in the final two days before this week's deadline, according to City Clerk Lawson Lockhart. It brings the total residents ready to vote in the June 5 annexation election to about 6,000 he estimates.

Voters of Birmingham, Troy Township and the city of Troy will be voting that day to divide up almost all of the remaining township area.

Only two pieces will remain, and those property owners will be faced with need for fire and police protection and other governmental problems, Lockhart says. The owners do not wish to join any neighboring city, he says.

One site has several families on it, the other has no homes but is three or four acres.

Most of Troy Township's remaining land will go to the City of Troy if voters approve, but two parcels are to go to Birmingham.

Troy City's election includes a ballot on taking over a water system within the city limits that is now owned by the township. Troy township itself has 117 voters, having added only a few in recent registrations.

Troy, Clawson Join in Projects

Support Construction of $450,000 Drain; Make Water Deal

TROY — Troy and Clawson officials have joined in urging citizens to support construction of a $450,000 drain project and agreed on the sale of well water to Troy.

The City of Troy, drained mainly by the Wren Drain that runs along Maple, will support efforts to enlarge the drain to prevent flooding in the Clawson area immediately to the south.

In a joint meeting of Troy Commissioners and Clawson Councilmen Wednesday night in Troy, the Troy officials asked that people sign petitions asking the county to establish the drain area.

Clawson City officials last week, realizing the need for petitions to replace others declared invalid, had tried but failed to secure enough Troy signatures. The earlier set had been submitted two years ago.

Clawson will put up the needed $2,000 for preliminary drain plans. That city, which owns two wells within Troy's limits, refused to sell them but agreed to sell water from one until Troy can get its own wells drilled.

Clawson does not need its wells no wbecause of the Southeast Oakland Water Supply, but is holding one well as a standby in case the Oakland group cannot secure enough water from Detroit.

Troy will not press to be included in the Twelve Town Drain Project because the $450,000 project would be cheaper. Cost would be $150 per acre rather than $1,300 an acre, officials estimate.

Old Coffee Bag Hides $4,000 in Treasure

DETROIT (INS) — A 26-year-old Center Line man discovered yesterday that coffee bags, as well as coffee beans, can be money.

James Irons found eight books of American Express money orders worth nearly $4,000 in an empty coffee bag piled among some refuse behind the Detroit Print Shop where he works.

Irons turned the money orders over to police and they are looking for some person who may have lost the orders or had them stolen.

Oak Park Boy, 5, Killed by Truck

Mother, Two Sisters See Martin MacLachlan Hit Crossing Street

OAK PARK — Martin MacLachlan, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. MacLachlan, 23030 Rosewood, was killed a few feet from his mother yesterday when he was hit by a truck while crossing Scotia street.

According to Oak Park Police, the boy's mother, Rita, had just crossed Scotia with her two youngest daughters, Jeanne, 2, and Kay, 1, when the boy slipped and fell. When she looked back the truck had struck him.

Truck driver Bernard J. Schueren Jr., 27, of Detroit, left 55 feet of skid marks before hitting the boy, police say. He was to make a statement to the Oakland County Prosecutor today.

The boy's father, a commercial staff supervisor for Michigan Bell Telephone Co., was at work in Detroit, when the boy was struck. Mrs. MacLachlan was treated for shock following the accident. There are two older sons, Lon, 10, and Rodney, 7.

"Meet the financial needs of running your schools now, and still enjoy a sizeable cut in taxes this year." This was the theme of four Avondale School Board members and Superintendent R. N. Baker last night when they talked to two PTA gatherings in the school district.

Facts were presented on the coming school bond issue to groups at Avondale High School and Elmwood School.

District voters will go to the polls June 12 to vote on a proposed $850,000 bond issue for increased buildings with a two-mill increase, and a three-mill tax increase for operational costs.

This millage increase would be absorbed by a corresponding reduction due to retirement of part of the current school debt, thus bringing about an actual reduction in taxes. The tax reduction, Baker conceded, would naturally be less than if the proposed bond issue were not voted in, but argued that the building expansion was vitally needed.

Because of the drop in debt of the 1949 high school bond issue, 1956 school taxes are due to go down $20 per thousand evaluation, according to Baker, and the new requests would still allow a $10 per thousand decrease in school taxes.

Total school taxes at Avondale was $57.26 per thousand last year, and the Board of Education's proposals would result in a $47.26 per thousand school tax this year, Baker said.

Baker also pointed out that the millage increase would qualify Avondale to receive $57,000 from the state under the Distressed School District Act. This would more than double the income of $30,000 that would come from the three-mill operational increase being sought, he said.

Building program planned for the district includes 17-19 elementary room additions, 9-10 junior high room additions, and 10-11 senior high room additions.

"As near as we can anticipate, next year one grade will be on half-day sessions," claimed the board members as they pointed out the continuing increase in enrollment.

Set Funeral Service for C. W. Jewell Sr.

LAPEER — Funeral service for Clifford W. Jewell Sr., 55, of 3924 Davison Lake Rd., Lapeer County, will be held at 11 a.m. Monday at the Virgo E. Kinsey Funeral Home, Royal Oak. He was found dead by his wife, Ida, yesterday in the basement of his home.

Lapeer County Undersheriff William J. Porter said Jewell died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound through the skull. His wife, upstairs at the time, heard the shot and reported to the Sheriff's Department.

Mrs. Jewell said her husband had been despondent because he was unable to keep up his job at a Pontiac industrial firm. She said he had had a brain tumor for about a year and was off work several months. Recently he returned, but found himself unable to handle his job, she added.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Helen Heroux of Troy; a son, Clifford Jr., of Oxford; his father, Joseph Barron of Hazel Park; two brothers, Paul of Pontiac, Eli of Nebraska; and six grandchildren.

Dedicate Monteith School

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — As speaker of the John Monteith School dedication program last night, Rev. Theodore Allebach of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, cited the school as a symbol of progressive education.

He praised the school board in considering the growth of the township and measuring the economy of the people in its building program.

In speaking to the teachers, he noted their lasting effect on the lives of the children and he pointed out to the students that school is not just a preparation for life—it is life itself and a source of precious memories.

Donald Smith, former assistant principal of Williams Lake School, conducted the program and business meeting which followed. The parent-teacher group present voted to become affiliated with the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

George Stout was elected president of the new PTA. Mrs. William Whitlow, mother vice president, Clellan Vore, father vice president, and Betty Fowler, teacher vice president.

Mrs. Earl Bell is the new program chairman, Mrs. Robert Fallman, recording secretary, Mrs. J. D. Boardman, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Preston Green treasurer, Mrs. Clair Newkirk historian and Leslie Powell parliamentarian.

The Monteith School, located at Crescent Lake and Hatchery Rds., is one of four elementary schools begun last year and the only one ready for occupancy this school year.

The exterior is of tan brick and the building has an entrance of blue glazed brick, with ceramic plaques as a special note of interest. Other outstanding features are the dome skylights and the space allowed for auditorium use. The walls of the two rooms next to the hall can all be pushed back, allowing a seating capacity of nearly four hundred.

Two gift presentations were made to the new PTA last night—$150 from the Williams Lake PTA and a shower of kitchen gifts from the Williams Lake Girl Scouts.

Oakland County Justices Planning Dinner Meeting

A dinner meeting of Oakland County Justices of the Peace is planned at Devon Gables next Wednesday, County Justice Court Coordinator Gerald A. Terrien said today.

* * *

The assembled justices will discuss a possible county justices' association and review current issues affecting Justice Court operations.

Short speeches will be given by Cadman Prout, Oakland County Friend of the Court; Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem; James Rohm, supervisor of records at Oakland County Jail; and James VanLeuven, assistant director of children's services for Juvenile Court.

Change in Terrien's title from Justice Court Accountant to Justice Court Coordinator recently was announced by John Austin, vice-chairman of the County Board of Auditors.

"It was felt the new title fits Mr. Terrien's job better than the old one," Austin said yesterday. "His work is concerned with coordinating all justice court activities and records in the County."

Plot: From Rags to Riches

Eight Chosen for Horatio Alger Award

NEW YORK (INS)—Eight businessmen who rose from rags to riches by hard work and determination yesterday received Horatio Alger awards.

* * *

The tenth annual awards were given the winners by elder statesman Bernard M. Baruch, a 1947 recipient.

Those honored with plaques by the American Schools and Colleges Association were:

Capt. E. V. Rickenbacker, president of Eastern Air Lines, who worked as an automobile mechanic to support his family and was educated by correspondence school courses.

W. Cordes Snyder Jr., president of the Blaw-Knox Co. of Pittsburgh, trudged miles as a youth through waist-deep snow in below freezing temperatures running a trapline to pay for his education.

Roy T. Hurley, president of Curtiss Wright Corp., Woodridge, N. J., had no formal schooling beyond the public grades. In 1916 he became an aircraft mechanic and during World War I was an aircraft inspector.

Allen Gelman, president of Elgin American Co., Elgin, Ill., was an itinerant machine tool maker from Hungary whose metal working innovations revolutionized production methods in the costume jewelry industry.

Gustav S. Eyssell, president of Rockefeller Center and a director of Radio City Music Hall, started as an usher in the Paramount Theater in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Armando Conti, president of Trenton Beverage Co., and Seaboard Excavators, Inc., Trenton, N. J., was a penniless Italian immigrant. His first job in this country was in a West Virginia coal mine where he earned $8 a week.

Lester W. Carter, president of the American Hotel Association and the Western Hotel chain, started his career as a $5 a week bellboy.

John M. Joyce, president of Seven-Up, Inc., Joliet, Ill., earned his first wages as a messenger boy for the Pennsylvania Railroad after quitting school to help family finances.

THE POWERHOUSE

By JIMMY POWERS

There is no city quite as beautiful as Washington in the spring. The cherry blossoms and azaelas spread a colorful carpet of color along the banks of the Potomac, and on the neatly groomed grounds of our Government buildings.

★ ★ ★ ★

A lone sentry from the 3rd Infantry Regiment stands guard over the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, day and night. Beautiful secretaries from every state in the Union hurry to work. Cocktail lounges are busy with reports of impending political changes. Amidst all this panoply of beauty and government, I came across a story of how the AAU juggled the registration of 26 boxers.

FARMED THEM OUT TO AAU DISTRICTS

Here's my beef: The AAU, of late, has been inflicting harsh and capricious sentences, life bans, probations, disqualifications. Many of the offenses are trivial. Many of the charges are ridiculously petty.

Bewildered athletes and promoters asked, in effect: "For years we did things this way — why the sudden hair-splitting and devastating string of penalties?"

The AAU defense was: "We have to draw the line somewhere. We go by the book. All regulations will be enforced impartially before things get out of hand, Olympics or no Olympics!

Well, that sounded reasonable. But then, it developed, the AAU, itself, staged a boxing championship in Boston. The Air Force sent 26 boxers. Now the rule book states each AAU district association is limited to 10 boxers each.

The Air Force was entitled to send its champions in a group, which it did. That is, all except Joe Hemphill, who was originally replaced by John Stewart, a seasoned performer. Stewart could not participate in the AF tournament because he was in the process of transfer.

Charley Swift, a civilian who runs the AF boxers, felt Stewart had a better chance to win in Boston than the champion. Hemphill was given to the South Texas Association, but was recalled to active duty for the Air Force when Stewart's entry was protested.

★ ★ ★ ★

What about the other 16 Air Force boxers?

Why, very conveniently, they were farmed out to various AAU districts, who either had not entered a team at all or who were short of the 10 men permitted.

You'll find their names scattered in this manner, with ersatz originating points, in the official program. Was this legal? Of course not. Why was it done?

Well, quite simply and understandably the Air Force wanted to have as many as possible of its boxers take a shot at winning individual titles. Titleholders automatically qualified for the final Olympic trial next fall.

★ ★ ★ ★

Eventually, 34 boxers represented the AF in Boston and by this technical method of circumventing a 10-boxer limit, they literally stuffed the entry list. They walked off with five individual titles and the team championship.

I learned in Washington the Armed Services and the colleges are now joining forces against the AAU and will dictate the selection of Olympic coaches and managers. Colleges have six votes, Armed Forces four, AAU six.

Prep Track Teams Meet at 16 Regional Sites

By BILL CORNWELL

High school track squads from all parts of Michigan will invade 16 lower peninsula centers and five upper peninsula sites Saturday for the annual MHSAA track and field meets.

Teams representing classes A, B, C and D will battle it out in the lower peninsula for the right to enter the state meet May 19 at Ann Arbor. Class B, C, D and E schools will compete above the straits.

Oakland County will have its share of representatives in action Saturday, with Pontiac High's powerhouse heading the long parade. The Chiefs, who go to Ypsilanti to defend their regional title, are heavy favorites to repeat as state Class A champions.

Unbeaten since mid-season 1954, which covers a period of 20 straight meets, the Chiefs will seek to repeat as champions in eight events.

* * *

Last spring Pontiac won the regionals by amassing a record 92 points.

Led by Hayes Jones in the high hurdles and broad jumps, Bill Dougles in the 880 and Hudson Ray and Alex Barge in the high jump, all state champions of 1955, the Chiefs will have Perry Williams in the mile, Jimmy Shorter and Charley Robinson in the quarter-mile, Freeman Watkins, Charley Spann, Lon Humphrey, Dave Payne and Joe Hill in the sprints and Jimmy Taylor in the hurdles to lead the way.

Waterford's capable team, coached by Al Cuthrell, will also journey to Ypsi for its Class A regional test. The only other Oakland County area school at Ypsi is South Lyon in a huge field of 24 Class C squads.

Cuthrell is hopeful of landing Gary Meeker into the finals in pole vault and possibly Stan Jones in the hurdles.

Birmingham's talented thinclads will be favored to win the Class A diadem at Van Dyke Fitzgerald. Other 'A' teams at Fitzgerald from this vicinity are Ferndale, Hazel Park, Berkley, Royal Oak and East Detroit.

The Maples will pin their hopes on hurdler Joe Kidwell and crack miler Doug Wuggazer, along with Bill McFarlen and Ron McCrumb a pair of pole vaulters to pick up major points.

Class B teams competing at Fitzgerald are Troy, Clawson, Roseville, Van Dyke Lincoln, Cranbrook and host Fitzgerald. Center Line and Warren of the Bi-County League will also run on the Spartan track.

Seven neighboring Class B schools will join eight other squads at Howell, with Wayne-Oakland League champion Milford favored to take the regional title. Clarkston, Brighton, Holly and Clarenceville of the W-O circuit will also go to Howell, along with Avondale of the Oakland B loop and Farmington from the Inter-Lakes Conference.

* * *

Milford will receive stiff opposition from East Lansing as well as Fenton, Charlotte, Durand, Eaton Rapids, Mason, Grand Ledge and host Howell.

Orchard Lake St. Mary's strong team rates the edge in Class C at the University of Detroit. The Eaglets will be bucking a contingent of 19 other teams in the Detroit regional.

Other area 'C' schools at U. of D. are West Bloomfield, Bloom-Hills, Roseville Eastland, New Haven and Bob Mineweaser's St. Michael Shamrocks, who have yet to run a meet this season.

The Southfield Jays will also see action on the Titan cinders against nine opponents in the 'A' ranks.

A total of 48 schools will vie for regional honors in classes B, C and D at Flint Central, including a six-team delegation from the Oakland County area.

Lapeer is the lone Class B representative of the group. Entries in Class C are Almont, Armada and Ortonville. Dryden and Memphis are 'D' hopefuls.

Walled Lake from the Inter-Lakes circuit and Northville of the Wayne-Oakland loop will compete against nine others in the Class B regional meet at Ann Arbor.

Tiger Brass in Huddle About Cutting Roster

DETROIT (AP) — Bucky Harris came back to Detroit today for a head-on clash with "can't wait" problems that may decide the fate of the 1956 Detroit Tigers.

Harris must emerge from the showdown with the answers to all but one of the questions. Uncle Sam will provide the other.

Shortstop Harvey Kuenn was in Milwaukee today for his third physical examination before his draft board. The 25-year-old former bonus player has been twice rejected because of a knee injury.

Harris was due to huddle with other Tiger brass in a "personnel" meeting at Briggs Stadium today. Out of that confab will come decisions on four players who must be trimmed from the 29-man squad before midnight May 15.

The Tigers are carrying four catchers, five outfielders, eight infielders and a dozen pitchers. They must be down to the 25 player limit in four days. Whom the Tigers will cut is anybody's guess. It's no secret that Harris would like to work out a trade—but he admits quite frankly that trade prospects are dim.

It generally is believed that Harris would be willing to part with several veteran players, possibly including catcher Red Wilson, outfielder Jim Delsing, infielder Fred Hatfield and first baseman Jack Phillips. They have been used sparingly and have not impressed the Tiger manager.

The club is carrying three first basemen—Earl Torgeson, Wayne Belardi and Philips. But Belardi has possibilities as an outfielder and has been the club's best pinch hitter.

The club must cut at least one and possibly two pitchers. Left-hander Jim Brady is a bonus player and cannot be farmed out. So is outfielder Jim Small.

Some of the decisions may await the weekend's action against the Chicago White Sox starting tonight. Harris may want a final look at some of the "border line" players.

Frank Lary or Billy Hoeft will pitch the opener of the three game set at 8:15 p.m. (EST). Manager Marty Marion's choice for Chicago is Jack Harshman.

Lary had been anounced as the Tiger starter for this first home night game. But the selection became uncertain when Detroit's game in Washington was rained out yesterday. Hoeft had been due to start that one.

The rainout following two straight victories left the Tigers with a 4-6 mark for their first Eastern road trip.

From The PRESS BOX

The Pontiac High School track team yesterday went out to their muddy track as usual yesterday to prepare for the regionals at Ypsilanti yesterday, but the sessions were limited to calisthenics and short sprints when the Chiefs started sinking in the mud all over the field.

Jimmy Taylor went over the high jump bar and when he came down his leg sunk 15 inches into the mud.

At this point coach Wally Schloerke decided to forego workouts in the different events and stick to warming drills.

Those who drive to Michigan football games will find some of the traffic bottlenecks relieved next fall.

The Willow Run expressway will connect directly with Stadium Boulevard.

* * *

University of Michigan has contracted with Ann Arbor High School to handle 5,000 cars. Fritz Crisler, Wolverine Athletic Director, says there should be enough parking around the stadium, including parts of the UM golf course, to provide parking for crowds far over 100,000.

* * *

The St. Louis Cardinals boats the oldest living battery in the Major Leagues. Pitcher Ellis Kinder and catcher Walker total 83 years in age. Kinder is 42 and Cooper 41.

* * *

St. Fredrick High School will hold its annual athletic banquet at the St. Vincent DePaul Parish Hall Thursday May 24th. The Moms and Dads club is sponsoring the affair.

Oscoda Area Reports Good Trout Fishing

Some good trout fishing has suddenly become a fact in the Oscoda-AuSable area, according to Dick Allen of the Oscoda-AuSable Chamber of Commerce.

Allen writes this department that while the smelt run is finally over, limit catches of browns and brookies are not too unusual in the upstate area. However, the steelhead trout situation continues at a very low point, Allen reports.

So far no perch runs have started from Lake Huron. But perch and walleyes are coming in from the AuSable backwaters above Foote, Cook and Five Channel dams.

Wolverines Close Drills With Annual Spring Game

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan football coach Bennie Osterbaan bows to necessity tomorrow for the second time this spring. It could pay off as well as any gamble he's made.

* * *

"We'll run Bob Ptacek at left halfback," Oosterbaan said. "He's a quarterback, sure, but we think he can do the job." He gets the last day of spring practice to prove it.

For the 200-pound Ptacek, it won't be too much of a departure. The left halfback job at Michigan requires passing ability. It will also give him an opportunity to use his speed and bulk to better advantage.

"A football player is a football player," Oosterbaan said. "Ptacek is a good athlete and could play either position. His passing has improved and he's fast too."

* * *

Admittedly the change may be only a spring trifle. Unlike the shift of Ron Kramer from end to right half, Ptacek's shift won't seem so important next fall.

Than Oosterbaan will have the services of last season's regular Terry Barr and irregular Jim Pace, both speedsters who lack throwing ability.

"Let's face it," Oosterbaan said. "We haven't got a (Chuck) Oortmann or a (Bob) Chappuis on the squad."

In spite of injuries, Oosterbaan will call on John Herrnstein, the Chillicothe, Ohio, freshman for first string fullback duties that will likely be his spot next fall.

Ron Kramer still has the right halfback job sewed up. Last season's quarterbacks Jim Maddock and Jim Van Pelt look like shoo-ins for the spring scrimmage tomorrow anyway.

The game-style, full dress scrimmage in Michigan stadium will wind up the four week spring practice.

Net Entries to Be Closed for Girls Tourney

Entries for the annual Michigan State Girls Open Tennis Championships for girls 15 to 18 years of age must be completed by Saturday, May 12, according to tournament manager Louella Houser of Kingswood School Cranbrook.

For girls under 15 the deadline is Saturday, May 19.

Matches will be played on the courts of Kingswood School from May 17 through 27.

* * *

Entries should be sent to Tournament Manager, Kingswood School Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills.

Doubleheader at Bay City Ends Chiefs' Long Layoff

Season's longest idle period for Pontiac High School's baseball club comes to an end Saturday. The welcome return to action after a two week's layoff sends Coach Ed Heikkinen's nine to Bay City for a doubleheader.

Chiefs risk their unsullied Valley mark of two wins, in Saturday's twin bill, but are rated right along with the strong Wolves, who have lost one game (3-1). Pontiac won two from Arthur Hill. Other SVC club standings: Flint Central 4-2, Northern 2-2, Saginaw High 3-3 and Arthur Hill 0-6.

Heikkinen, who has been at home for the last three days with a touch of blood-poisoning in his right foot, will be back with the club today. A blister on his heel became infected. In his absence Arnie Wilson and Fred Zittel took over.

Jim Jones has the call for the first game, with Arnold Larson hurling the finale. Each has won a Valley game. Chiefs batting order will be unchanged from the last encounter.

Wolves were expected to start right hander Terry Ebright with lefty Danny Schermerhorn going in the 'cap.

Rest of the way Chiefs face their toughest road, Heikkinen says. "They're all tough" Ed figures. Games left on the SVC schedule include two with Saginaw (here), home and home with Indians, and home and home with Northern.

Soph-Loaded Cornell Team Meets Favorite

WEST POINT, N. Y. (AP)—Cornell's sophomore-dominated track team, showing improvement with every meet, will be favored to win the team title in tomorrow's 22nd annual Heptagonal Games at the U. S. Military Academy.

Harvard won the indoor championship in March in the competition among the eight Ivy League schools plus Army and Navy. But since then, Cornell has come with a rush, listing among its accomplishments a romp in a triangular meet with Harvard and Penn last Saturday.

Normal Thinclads Outrun Chippewas

MOUNT PLEASANT (AP)—Michigan Normal defeated Central Michigan, 70-61, in a dual track meet in mud and cold weather yesterday. The two teams previously had met indoors, with Normal taking that one, too.

Both teams had a pair of double winners. Normal's Jim Allen won the discus and shot put, while Duane Root won the low hurdles and tied Central's Jim Podoley for first in the high hurdles.

Prep Golfers in Regional Tests

Pontiac's high school golf team left early this morning for Flint to take part in the State Class A Regional matches at the Kearsley course. Pontiac dropped its only match of the week, Tuesday, to Waterford, which also plays in the Flint test. St. Frederick is palying at Flint, in Class C.

Chiefs' starters today, according to Coach John Maturo, are Tom Cross, Dick Singleton, Sammy Coleman and Dick Whitmer. Nick Shorter is alternate.

Birmingham's star-studded team, headed by captain Tim Baldwin, will be a strong Class A threat at Flint. Other area "A" schools at Kearsley are Ferndale and Royal Oak.

Golfers from Avondale, Clarkston, Fitzgerald, Holly and Shrine will compete in Class B at Flint while Bloomfield Hills and Royal Oak St. Mary are "C" entries.

Southfield and Berkley will see Class A action at the Burroughs Golf Club in Brighton.

Maples, Skippers Down Loop Foes

A base on balls, a stolen base and two throwing errors handed Birmingham a 3-2 extra inning victory over Mount Clemens in an Eastern Michigan League baseball game Thursday at Birmingham.

The score was 2-2 when the Maples came to bat in the bottom of the 8th frame. Bill Deer opened the inning with a walk, stole 2nd and moved to 3rd on the catcher's wild throw. After John Fleser flied out, Jim Traa fanned and headed for 1st on the dropped 3rd strike. Deer scampered home with the winning run on a bad throw to 1st.

Mount Clemens scored once in the 5th stanza and once in the 6th to take a 2-0 lead. The Maples knotted the count in the 6th on a walk to pinch hitter Tom Kelly and singles by Fleser, Traa and Arnold Issetee.

Fred Bleakley, who relieved starter Larry Milford in the 7th, was the winning pitcher for Birmingham. Roy Simms worked five innings for the Bathers, then gave way to John Falkenhagen who was tagged with the loss. Each team garnered five hits.

Yesterday's win evened Birmingham's league record at 3-3. The Maples play an EML game at Hazel Park next Tuesday.

Oxford's tough luck team banged out nine hits, but blew a 5-0 advantage to drop a 7-6 decision to Millington in a South Central League contest at Oxford.

Pitcher Don Atwood coasted along in shutout fashion until the 5th inning when he lost control and walked in two runs. A single scored two more and before the storm had subsided the count was deadlocked at 5-all.

The Wildcats took a 6-5 edge with a run in the 5th, but Millington tallied once in the 6th and once in the 7th to wrap it up. Dave Sweeney collected three hits and drove in three runs for Oxford. It was the Wildcats' 6th setback in eight starts.

Waterford finally had its string of shutout innings snapped, but the Skippers still whipped Van Dyke, 8-4, in an Inter-Lakes Conference game yesterday at Waterford.

The Abes pushed across a lone run in the 6th stanza, which halted at 39 innings the streak of scoreless pitching by Waterford. Chuck Gillis hurled for the Skippers and allowed five hits while fanning 12 and walking one.

Dave Latta and Tom Bryce paced Waterford's 9-hit attack with two safeties apiece and Jerry Kruskie clouted a 1st inning home run. It was the 5th straight league triumph for the Skippers, who lead the Inter-Lakes circuit.

Unbeaten Imlay City posted its 10th straight win with a 3-2 decision in eight innings over Frankenmuth on the Imlay diamond. A hit batsman, a single by Jerry Watz and a wild pitch scored the winning run. Charles Berry pitched the route for the winners and limited Frankenmuth to three hits.

Youthful Angler Gets Last Laugh

DETROIT (INS) — Passers-by laughed at a small unidentified boy today as he fished in a flooded lot two blocks from the nearest stream in suburban Detroit.

Later, the boy was spotted smiling as he carried home a 14-inch pike.

Out of 500 Race

Adrian Driver Is Injured

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Marvin Pifer, a 28-year-old Korean War veteran from Adrian, Mich., won't drive, as he had hoped, in the 500-mile Indianapolis Speedway race May 30.

* * *

Pifer, who passed his driver's test only May 3, was seriously injured yesterday when his racer slammed into a wall in a practice spin.

Witnesses said the car skidded to the inside of the track while going an estimated 135 miles an hour around the northwest turn, did a half-spin, then crossed the track and smacked into the wall.

Part of Pifer's helmet was found stuck in the wall where the racer hit it. He was rushed to a hospital with a possible skull fracture. The car bounced along the wall 894 feet from the point where it went out of control.

* * *

The racer, owned by Karl Hall of Orleans, Ind., was damaged badly. Pifer was to have driven it in his first 500-mile race.

The Adrian man has a wife, Gloria, and a 2-year-old daughter.

It's Quiet in ABC

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Things are so quiet in the American Bowling Congress tournament you can hear a pin drop.

But no one has dropped enough to challenge the division leaders since George Wade of Stubenville, Ohio, climbed to the top of the singles division with 744 on April 20.

'Diving' Catch

Fish Caught, After a Swim

Three Oakland County men, one a 17-year-old, and the others a pair of Milford fishermen, yesterday took to the water to bag a couple nice pike.

Real battle was that at Cedar Island Lake where Del Tederow, 1286 Locustwood, Milford, and his companion, H. H. Stewart, Milford, hooked a 10¾-pounder on a 6-pound line from a spinning rig.

After a 10-minute scrap the fish was moved into shallow water. Then the line broke. Tedrow fell into the lake and the pike headed for freedom. But not for long. Tedrow took a flying dive, grabbed the pike by the gills and hung on.

"Boy, that water was sure cold," Tedrow reported.

Young Ken Backus, son of Elbert Backus, 677 Walton West, while washing his car, heard a splashing in Little Silver lake, on which the home is located. He saw a pike thrashing in the weeds, jumped in (had on boots), grabbed the fish, 21 inches long, and a 5-pounder.

White Sox Win, 2-1

Tribe Rips Yankees

This was supposed to be Black Friday in the American League—the day seven clubs awoke to find themselves among the walking dead with the New York Yankees having copped the pennant at the earliest date yet.

That's the way the talk was going. Those Yanks had smacked the Boston Red Sox four out of five and spanked the Chicago White Sox two out of two. All they had to do was fast-shuffle the Injuns and Ol' Casey Stengel had the deck stacked again.

* * *

But Al Lopez and his Cleveland Indians put a stop to all that nonsense. The Yankees huffed and puffed and Cleveland clipped 'em two out of three. The tribe won the rubber game going away yesterday at Yankee Stadium 7-2 to climb past Boston into second place, two games behind New York.

Boston went down 2-1 to Chicago, which snapped a five-game losing streak.

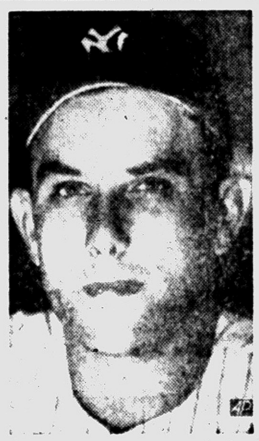
Those were the only two games played in the majors. All the other scheduled contests were rained out.

* * *

Bob Lemon, who couldn't get the job done in six tries against the Yanks last season, went the route with ease yesterday on an eight-hitter. His only mistakes were home run balls to Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra. A lot of guys have made that mistake this season. It was Mantle's 11th, Berra's 10th.

While the 35-year-old righthander was getting his point across, the Indians were giving Maury McDermott a fit. The veteran southpaw, who beat Cleveland three times for Washington last season, was rapped for five of the Tribe's eight hits and four runs in five innings.

George Kell and Minnie Minoso homered to end the White Sox' slump, but it was the nifty relief job of Bob Keegan, who took over from Connie Johnson with one out and the bases loaded in the first inning, that clinched it.



HOSPITALIZED — Cleveland Outfielder Gene Woodling entered a New York hospital yesterday to receive treatment of what doctors described as a "mild case of diabetes."

Marbles Meet Saturday

The championship finals of the 9th annual Marbles Tournament, sponsored by The Pontiac Press in cooperation with the Parks and Recreation Department, will be held Saturday morning at Wisner Field.

Mibs winners from 18 local centers will assemble on the infield diamond at 9 o'clock to determine Midget and Junior champions in the city-wide tourney.

Tomorrow's dinalists will gather from Jefferson, Whittier, Bagley, Whitfield, Crofoot, Webster, Bethune, Longfellow, McCarroll, Malkim, McConnell, Owen, Willis, Wisner, St. Frederick, Linda Vista, Hawthorne, and Pontiac State Hospital.

Manuel Ledesma from Crofoot was the 1955 Midget titlist while last year's Junior crown went to John Taylor of Eastern. The Midget division features play for boys and girls below 12 years of age; the Junior class is comprised of 12-14 year olds.

The Pontiac Press will award trophies to the winner and runner-up in each division.

Clarkston Beats Holly, St. Fred in Golf Meet

Clarkston High's golf team conquered Holly and St. Frederick in a triangular meet Thursday, at Davisburg Golf Club. The Wolves' 4-man squad fired 180 to nose out runner-up Holly by one stroke. St. Fred shot a total of 184.

Ed Kast of St. Frederick was medalist with 40. Harms of Holly and Dubats of Clarkston each carded 42.

GMC, RO Open State Circuit

A reputedly better Pontiac nine, representing General Motors, will tangle with a Royal Oak club next Tuesday in the opening test of the important Michigan State Class A Baseball Lague.

Manager Paul Parks of the GMC crew announced today that the southern Oakland club is the former Hodges-Dodges of Royal Oak, that won the loop title last year. The RO club is again rated highly as a title prospect.

Tuesday's game will be under the lights at Memorial Park starting at 7:30 o'clock.

GMC will start either Herman Bishop or Dick Goldsworthy on the mound.

Pontiac and Royal Oak are in the Eastern division with Dearborn and Saginaw. Kalamazoo, Jackson, Battle Creek and Grand Rapids comprise the Western Division, Parks says.

Strong Demand Bolsters Wheat

CHICAGO (AP) — A lower than expected government estimate on winter wheat created a strong demand for the bread grain on the Board of Trade today, pushing prices up for gains which extended to more than five cents at one time.

* * *

Old crop soybeans also were sharply higher in early dealings, reflecting a good demand for cash soybeans and a firming soybean oil market. Feed grains tilted upward but their gains were limited to fractions. Some of the sharpest advances were reduced as trading processed.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1 to 2¾ higher, May $2.30¼; corn unchanged to ⅜ higher, May $1.49; oats unchanged to ¼ higher, May 66; rye ⅜ to 1 cent higher, May $1.26½; soybeans ½ to 5¼ higher, May $3.17, and lard 10 to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $12.90.

GE President to Head GI Pay Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Wilson appointed Ralph J. Cordiner, president of the General Electric Co., as chairman of a special committee to study the possibility of higher pay for technical skills in the armed services.

The Defense Department recently informed Congress that it is having difficulty—particularly in the Air Force—in keeping young officers and enlisted men after they had attained high technical abilities because private industry will pay them more.

Other members of the advisory committee include Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University.

Jury Finds Him Guilty at His Second Trial

A Circuit Court jury yesterday found Walter Oakley, 360 N. Perry St., guilty of second-offense drunk driving at his second trial on the charge.

An earlier jury was dismissed March 7 when jurors were unable to agree on a verdict.

Oakley was charged with driving on North Perry Street under the influence of liquor Nov. 2, 1955. He is free on $100 bond pending sentence by Judge Frank L. Doty May 28.

Stocks Decline in Early Deals

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market declined in early dealings today, but there was some recovery indicated.

* * *

The drop was a continuation of the severe setback the market suffered yesterday when the Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell $2.50 and closed at $187.90. The decline was the greatest in a month.

Selling began on news of new cuts in automobile production. General Motors announced plans for a cutback, and selling started. The stock was the third most active of the day off ½. It started today on a block of 19,000 shares off ½ at 43¼, and it had blocks of 3,000 and 1,000 at 43⅛.

Prices throughout the list today ran from around 2 points lower to a point higher with most changes rather narrow. Many small plus signs in the list gave indication of the resistance to the retreat.

Greyhound had a block of 2,000 shares up ⅛ at 17, Loew's 1,500 shares up ⅜ at 22⅜, Benguet Consolidated Mining 6,400 off ⅛ at 2, Boeing 1,500 off ½ at 86½, U. S. Steel 5,000 off ⅛ at 58¾, Union Carbide 5,000 off 1 at 122½, and Amerada Petroleum 1,000 off 2 at 110.
