Touring President Sounds New Hope for Hemisphere

WITH PRESIDENT JOHNSON IN CENTRAL AMERICA — President Johnson, seeking "a road of new hope for this hemisphere," embarked today on a tour of Central America, briefly visiting the capitals of nations once regarded as revolution-prone banana republics.

In the steamy Nicaraguan capital of Managua, a roaring, flag-waving crowd greeted him at Las Mercedes Airport in a light, intermittent rain.

After visiting El Salvador since Saturday for summit talks with five Central American presidents, Johnson was making brief stops also in Costa Rica, Honduras and Guatemala.

He gave lifts home to the presidents of the four countries.

LAST STOP

The last stop—tonight—was to be the LBJ Ranch, which the President left Saturday for his journey south.

Johnson at the departure ceremonies in San Salvador spoke of "the new strength and promise that we have here added to our partnership." But he cautioned: "The road that brought us here has no rainbow at its end—not yet."

The U. S. President said the nations of Central America, with the help of the United States, "have celebrated what there is to celebrate" during the summit and "have determined to master the challenges that remain."

He said there was much to celebrate and many challenges to be met. He added that the meeting had "been fruitful—because it has been responsible."

From San Salvador, the presidential jet flew southeast over the 230 land miles to Managua, capital of Nicaragua, where a crowd had been waiting hours for the first visit of a U. S. president. Herbert Hoover had visited Nicaragua in 1928 but as president-elect.

The airport crowd included children who had been told to be at their schools at 6 a.m. to be transported by bus to the airport.

Women were told to wear hats to the airport as a matter of protocol. In hot, muggy Managua, informal dress usually is the rule.

MEETING THE PEOPLE — President Johnson chats with a resident of San Salvador, El Salvador, while visiting the U.S. Embassy there yesterday. The President traveled to El Salvador Saturday to attend the Central American summit talks being held there.

Traffic Toll of 601 Is Below Estimate

By The Associated Press

Traffic accidents on the nation's roads and highways killed 601 persons over the four-day Fourth of July weekend.

This was below the National Safety Council's prediction that 700 to 800 persons might die over the holiday period, which began at 5 p.m. Wednesday and ended at midnight Sunday.

In a recent nonholiday weekend of the same length 553 deaths occurred on the nation's roads.

A spokesman for the safety council said there appeared to be "a faint glimmer of hope" in the figures.

AN IMPROVEMENT

"This is the third major holiday this year we have either been under the estimate or near the bottom of it," the spokesman said. "This estimate isn't anything but a projection of past experience so perhaps it indicates there is a genuine improvement under way."

Traffic deaths during last year's four-day Independence Day holiday period numbered 732—a record high for any Fourth of July and also for any summer holiday.

Related Story, Page A-4

The lowest traffic toll during any Independence Day four-day period since World War II was 231 in 1946.

The record traffic toll for any holiday period was 748 set during the four-day observance of Thanksgiving in 1966.

2 Young Persons Are Traffic Victims

A young Oxford woman was killed while walking at an Oxford Township intersection early today, while a 25-year-old man died in Pontiac General Hospital yesterday of injuries sustained in an accident Saturday.

Struck by a car at Washington and Dennison about 9:30 a.m. was Rosemary J. Misner, 21, of 814 Gill. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital some 20 minutes later. The driver of the car has not yet been identified.

Dillard E. McBride of 36 Euclid was injured when the car he was driving went out of control on West Kennett about 4:45 p.m. Saturday, according to police.

Officers said McBride was headed east on Kennett near West Mansfield when the car skidded sideways, slammed into an island and rolled over.

The victim was thrown from the car, then pinned under it, police said.

Time Key Factor for Gun Bill OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House is expected to pass a gun-control bill this week, but there is doubt a law providing stiffer restrictions on weapons can be sent to the President before Congress adjourns next month.

The House measure which is before the Rules Committee today, calls for a ban on the mail-order sale of rifles and shotguns and ammunition.

The more controversial bill calling for registration and licensing is scheduled for action Tuesday by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Opponents of the more stringent laws, led by the National Rifle Association, launched a drive to keep Congress from acting. This effort seemed to crest about the time President Johnson asked for laws registering all guns and licensing their owners.

SUPPORTERS ARE HOPEFUL

Even so, the supporters remained hopeful that the committee will report out a gun control bill containing a registration provision.

6 at Stoney Creek Face 'Pot' Charges

Romeo State Police arrested six youths in two separate incidents late Saturday and yesterday at Stoney Creek Metropolitan Park and charged them with possession of marijuana.

Four Detroiters, all students at Wayne State University, were discovered Saturday afternoon by park rangers near one of the park's fishing areas.

Police identified them as Robert Ru-byan, 21, Michael Zitomer, 21, Jeffrey Feldman, 20, and Judith Wadsworth, 20. According to police, the four were acting peculiarly and at first were thought to be intoxicated. When they were seen rolling cigarettes and passing them around, police were called and the narcotics charge was made.

IDENTICAL CHARGES

At 7:50 a.m. yesterday police arrested two other youths on identical charges. They were identified as Edward Okalski Jr., 21, of 2154 Milverton, Troy, and James R. Charnicki, 21, of Warren.

They also were first discovered by park rangers who were suspicious of the pair's actions and again called police.

All six stood mute at their arraignment yesterday and were released on $2,000 bond each pending examination Wednesday before Justice Edmund C. Schmidt of Mt. Clemens.

Threat of Showers Through Tuesday

This morning's sunshine disappeared under a heavy cloud cover from the southwest as humidity and temperatures started to climb.

With the clouds came the threat of occasional thunderstorms and showers. The damp prediction will last through tomorrow.

Precipitation possibilities in per cent are today 20, tonight 40 and tomorrow 40. Temperatures will be a little cooler tomorrow.

On Wednesday, according to the weatherman's prognostications, fair skies and mild temperatures will delight the picnic band.

Low mercury reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 2 a.m. was 66. By 1 p.m. the thermometer read 87.

Britain Raises $2 Billion Credit

LONDON (AP)—Britain has raised $2 billion worth of credit for about 10 years from Western industrialized nations to stave off another devaluation of the pound, Gov. Sir Leslie O'Brien of the Bank of England disclosed today.

On his return from a Basel, Switzerland, meeting of central bankers representing 14 nations O'Brien told airport newsmen: "We British have only got to turn the corner and show evidence that we are getting over the problem and I am sure our financial difficulties will be resolved."

He said he detected no fear of a second devaluation of the pound. British last fall cutback the value of the pound by nearly 15 per cent.

The bank explained that the weekend meeting continued through the Bank for International Settlements discussion of Britain's sterling balances—the money on deposit in London which can be pulled out any time foreign governments or private deposits fear another devaluation.

Plan for Pontiac to Be Outlined

Architect C. Don Davidson will outline provisions of a plan proposed for the redevelopment of Pontiac's downtown urban renewal land at a community luncheon meeting at 12:10 p.m. tomorrow at the Pontiac Elks Lodge, 114 Orchard Lake.

Tickets at $2.25 per person, to cover the cost of the roast beef luncheon, are available at the Perry Street and Pontiac Mall branches of Community National Bank; the Hayes Jones Community Center; Osman's men's store, Tel-Huron Branch; and Dickinson's men's store, or at the door tomorrow.

broken arm. The girl, Cynthia Masters, was watching television when the plane crashed shortly after takeoff from nearby Glenview Naval Air Station. (Story, page A-2.)

VIET RIVER WARFARE — Small gunboats and troop carriers of the U.S. Navy mobile Riverine Force carry troops of the 19th Light Infantry Brigade on patrol down a Saigon River tributary. The force is on an operation against Vietcong units in the area. Saigon can be seen in the background. The river patrols plus helicopter lifts attempt to prevent Vietcong troop movements.

Marines Kill 201 N. Viets; May Presage Big Battles

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines killed 201 North Vietnamese soldiers along the eastern end of the demilitarized zone during the last four days in fighting that could presage more big battles along South Vietnam's northern border, military spokesmen reported today.

Sen. Huynh Van Cao told the South Vietnamese Senate in a speech that 30 North Vietnamese regiments — perhaps 45,000 men — have been massed around South Vietnam's two northern most provinces, Quang Tri and Thua Thien in preparation for a third offensive.

During the past eight days, U.S. Air Force B-52 bombers, have flown 36 missions just above the southern half of the DMZ along the southern fringes of North Vietnam to ease pressure on American forces along the northern frontier.

The unusually heavy B-52 strikes, in which more than 5,000 tons of bombs have been dropped could be preparing for a major allied ground sweep along the DMZ.

TWO-FRONT WAR

With the pressure along the northern border apparently increasing again, the U.S. Command faced the prospect of a two-front war once more. It still expects another major attack on Saigon, which intelligence reports say will come before July 20, the anniversary of the 1954 Geneva agreement which split North and South Vietnam.

The B-52s have been hard at work around Saigon, too, attempting to discourage massing of enemy regiments for an attack on the capital. The eight jet Stratafor flew eight missions Sunday and Monday 45 to 75 miles north and northwest of Saigon.

The fighting at the eastern flank of the DMZ centered around Gio Linh, an allied combat base three miles south of the buffer strip.

In two clashes yesterday, U.S. Marines, backed by dive bombers, artillery and tanks, reported 60 North Vietnamese soldiers killed. Marine casualties were put at five killed and 17 wounded.

In a day-long action last Friday near Gio Linh, the Marines said they killed 134 North Vietnamese soldiers while suffering five dead and 64 wounded.

Birmingham Parking Lot Issue to Be Considered

BIRMINGHAM — The leasing of parking spaces in a municipally owned lot to tenants of the Reid Building on North Woodward will be considered tonight at 8 by the City Commission.

Under review will be a report originally submitted to the commission in November 1966.

The report, which the commission requested be resubmitted for discussion, outlines several methods that could be implemented to provide reserved spaces in the lot at the rear of the office building.

Also included in the report is a list of several questions raised by the city administration regarding precedent should the city reserve spaces in a public parking lot.

DIFFICULTY NOTED

James H. Purkiss, city director of finance, noted in the report that it would be difficult to justify refusing to provide similar arrangements in any or all of the municipal lots if reserve spaces are set aside in one particular lot.

Assistant City Manager John F. Saefke has offered one solution to alleviating the parking problem for tenants in the Reid Building.

Saefke suggested that it might be possible for the tenants and the building owners consider developing a parcel of property north of the building for private use.

According to the report of two and half years ago, the city could make a number of arrangements for reserved or lease parking.

CARD CONTROL GATE

The most desirable, the report said, would be the installation of a card control gate, similar to those employed at a number of hospitals and universities.

The method is self-policing in that the entrance to that section of the lot can be gained only by the holder of a card or key device.

The arrangement, however, would require the removal of a number of parking spaces in order to provide turn arounds.

Last Key Bastion Falls in Paris

PARIS (AP) — The last major bastion of the student rebellion at the University of Paris fell without a fight today.

Police at dawn moved into the new medical school on the Rue des Saints-Pères and evicted the last 17 students holding out in the big four-story building. The red flag waving over the roof was hauled down. It was the last important University of Paris building held by the students whose revolt early in May touched off France's worst postwar crisis.

The police were helmeted and carried rifles, but there was no resistance. The students, who included four girls, whistled and joked as they were taken away for questioning.

The holdouts had been waiting for days for the police to come. They said they would not oppose them.

"A single tear gas bomb through the windows would send us all running," said one.

TOOK OVER SORBONNE

On June 16 the police took over the Sorbonne, the headquarters of the revolt. The school of fine arts, which produced anti-De Gaulle posters, was taken on June 27. Last Friday it was the turn of the school of science and the new Sorbonne annex on the Rue Censier.

There was no resistance at any of them. A few dozen students were taken to a police station, and some were kept overnight. Some of them wrote newspapers charging that they were not fed nor allowed to call their parents.

Police also arrested a few persons who were not students, including several of the "Katanges" who had made trouble at the Sorbonne. They got their name from some of their number who said they had served with mercenary troops in the Congo's Katanga province.

May Abandon Idea of Paris Trip

McCarthy: Wouldn't Lead 4th Party

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says flatly he would not become an independent presidential candidate if he loses the Democratic nomination—but that he could support a fourth party drive by anyone else.

McCarthy also indicated yesterday he may abandon his announced hopes of going to Paris to learn firsthand from North Vietnamese diplomats the prospects for settlement of the Vietnam war.

The Minnesota senator again refused to say he could support Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey as the Democratic presidential nominee and said he could support a fourth party drive under specific conditions.

Such support would be possible, he said. If the independent ticket "was substantial, had good leadership and was presenting the right choice to the people, and if neither of the other two parties was presenting what I thought was a choice that anywhere from a third to half of the people of this country want to make in 1968."

Humphrey, meanwhile, said he would support McCarthy if the senator became the Democratic presidential nominee. But the vice president said he believes he and Republican Richard M. Nixon will be the candidates on the November ballot.

U.S. Is Hopeful on Formula for Missiles Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials say they hope the United States and the Soviet Union will work out a formula by the end of the week for starting talks on curbing the nuclear missiles race.

U.S. disarmament chief William C. Foster, plans a preliminary meeting with his Soviet counterpart, Alexei A. Roshchin, before the 17-nation disarmament conference opens its summer session July 16.

Foster plans to leave for Geneva about Thursday.

He and Roshchin as delegation heads for the two nations sponsoring the continuing disarmament parley are to stake out the agenda for the conference's round.

MAY TACKLE ARRANGEMENTS

If, meanwhile, Washington-Moscow diplomatic exchanges have not completed the missile talk arrangements, the two may tackle this also.

It is possible that for international political convenience the two super powers will use the Geneva conference as an umbrella for their missile curb deliberations. But the serious bargaining seems most likely to come in private, two-power meetings; perhaps in Moscow or Washington rather than Geneva.

U.S. authorities figure neither of the major atomic powers want to bare nuclear strength, the heart of their military might, before non-nuclear kibitzers, at the formal Geneva gathering.

Serum Rallies Heart Recipient

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Dr. Philip Blaiberg, the world's longest surviving heart transplant patient, rallied Sunday from the worst setback since his operation Jan. 2. His doctors using a new serum and indicated they no longer plan another heart transplant for him.

Blaiberg's wife, Eileen, said she was told by Dr. Christian Barnard, head of Groote Schuur Hospital's heart transplant team, that her husband's condition had undergone a "dramatic change."

"It's as if they had given new life to my husband," she said. "I'm hoping and praying the serum treatment will be successful."

Mrs. Blaiberg visited her husband yesterday and said he seemed much better. "We talked a great deal," she said.

COMPLICATIONS

Blaiberg, a 59-year-old retired dentist, had been gravely ill with hepatitis, double pneumonia and symptoms that his transplanted heart was faltering. Barnard had said a second heart transplant might be attempted, but a hospital bulletin last night said: "No further emergency treatment is anticipated."

Record Texas Rains Bring Floods, Kill 5

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — Torrential weekend downpours of up to 6.25 inches—almost as much as the average annual rainfall—claimed five lives and caused widespread flooding in El Paso and Juarez across the Rio Grande in Mexico.

An estimated 40 homes were swept away by floodwaters in Juarez, and 125 persons were evacuated. The rainstorms, termed the worst since 1913, caused an estimated $4 million in damage in Juarez.

Rafael Reyes, 41, Canutillo died when his car skidded on a wet El Paso street and overturned. Four other persons died in Juarez during the downpours—one youth was killed by a bolt of lightning and three other persons drowned.

Asst. Police Chief Ted Vogel said 45 persons were evacuated from their homes in El Paso by police Saturday. Trucks from nearby Ft. Bliss evacuated several dozen more.

SILT DAMAGES SECTIONS

Dozens of homes were damaged as flood waters, three feet deep swept low sections of El Paso and rocks and silt rolled down from Mt. Franklin.

Silt piled up two feet deep in some stores and El Paso fire department was kept busy Sunday pumping water from store and home basements.

"If we don't get any more rain, we'll be in real good shape," Police Lt. R. C. Moeller said late Sunday night. "We are pretty well cleaned up now. We still have some people who haven't returned home because their houses are still water logged. Quite a few streets have been blocked by mud and debris but we have them all open now."

Girl, 13, Dies as Jet Crashes Into Home

GLENVIEW, Ill. (AP) — A Navy Skyhawk jet crashed into a home Sunday and killed a 13-year-old girl. The pilot ejected and suffered broken legs and a broken arm.

Cynthia Masters, an eighth-grade pupil, was watching television in the den on the first floor when fire caused by the crash engulfed the family's $50,000 two-story suburban home.

Witnesses said the plane, piloted by Navy Lt. William T. Reinders, a Vietnam veteran, crashed moments after taking off on a training flight from the Glenview Naval Air Station.

Reinders, 32, banked the craft sharply, trying to turn back toward the airfield, but it plummeted into the home of Benjamin C. Masters, an acoustical tile contractor.

Robert S. Alexander of Flossmoor, who was flying his single-engine plane to a nearby airport, said, "the entire house went up in a ball of fire in what seemed like seconds. I never saw anything burn so fast."

Reinders, who lives in Harvey, a suburb south of Chicago, took off on a training flight in the attack fighter at 9:10 a.m. A Navy spokesman said he radioed the control tower, "I'm losing power."

Seconds later, Reinders ejected and landed in a willow tree behind the Masters home. He was listed in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

They Must Wait for What He Ate

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis. (UPI) — The Secret Service is watching Dennis L. Urans, 37, they think he's a human piggy bank.

Urans was arrested Saturday. Ozaukee County authorities said, after trying to sell a man 11 defaced pennies for $250. That's a federal offense.

He put a mint mark on the copper coins to make them look more valuable to collectors, authorities said, but apparently swallowed them before they could get a good look.

X rays disclosed a "metallic object," something like a roll of pennies, in Urans' stomach, officials said.

Japan's Pro-U.S. Party in Strong Lead in Voting

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's ruling conservative party, after campaigning for continued close ties with the United States, took a commanding lead today in returns from the upper house elections.

With 70 per cent of yesterday's vote counted, Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's Liberal Democrats were assured 58 of the 126 seats at stake in the 250-seat House of Councillors. Since they also have 68 uncontested seats, they had a good chance of boosting their strength beyond the 139 they had.

The anti-American Socialists, who want the U.S.-Japan security treaty scrapped and American military bases removed from Japanese soil, had won 16 seats and held 37 that were not in contest.

BUDDHIST ARM

The Komeito party, political arm of the Buddhist Soka Gakkai sect, had 10 seats; conservative independents were assured four, and the Communists three. The pro-American trend also was apparent in the popular vote, in which the Liberal Democrats gained 5 per cent and the Socialists dropped 1 per cent from vote totals garnered in the previous upper house contest.

Could Save $1 Billion

150,000 Defense Jobs Periled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department, under strong pressure to slash spending, is working on plans that could trim more than 150,000 jobs from its civilian payroll.

Budgeting officials estimate this could save slightly more than $1 billion a year.

That is about a third of the $3 billion that Pentagon officials expect they will have to slice from defense spending this bookkeeping year in response to congressional orders.

But the Pentagon has given no time limit for cutting its civilian work force, now totaling some 1.2 million men and women in virtually every state and overseas.

There are no indications of wholesale firings. The Pentagon hopes to accomplish its objective mainly through attrition.

This is in line with the apparent intent of Congress which ruled recently that federal agencies may fill no more than 75 per cent of job vacancies created by the resignation, retirement, death or removal of full time employees.

What this all amounts to is a belittling, a partial freeze, and fewer opportunities for people looking for jobs with the armed services or defense agency.

Since studies are now under way, officials said they cannot tell what the impact will be on the various states and defense installations within those states.

Other government departments and agencies also are under orders to limit their payrolls.

BIGGEST ROLL

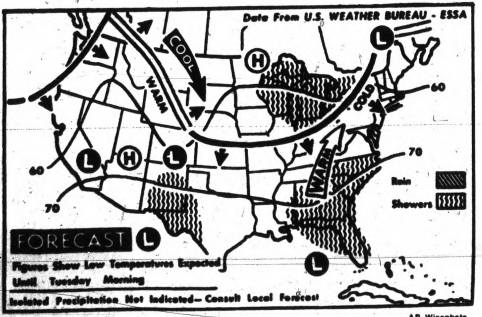

But none compare in size with the defense establishment which normally accounts for about 40 per cent of total federal civilian employment.

Nearly all defense programs, except those connected with the Vietnam war, are undergoing close scrutiny and testing to determine whether they are essential.

Aussie Gunman Heats Food With Furniture

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA (UPI) — A gunman besieged by police for six days today smashed furniture into kindling to heat food for himself, his shotgun teen-aged bride and her baby.

The crash and bang of splintering chairs and tables flooded through the windows of the suburban house surrounded by police.

Down the street 100 yards, Police Chief Norman Allan and aides huddled in a trailer and tried to figure a way to separate Wallace (Wally) Mellich, 23, his shotgun, automatic rifle, pistols and hand grenades from his wife, Beryl, 19, and her son Leslie, 12 weeks old. Mellich has threatened to kill them if police come any nearer.

Critics who argued police should charge in lest other gunmen get similar ideas got ammunition for their plea.

NEW ZEALAND INCIDENT

In Auckland, N. Z., a woman painted her face black, slung a bandolier of bullets around her chest and, waving a shotgun, defied police surrounding her house. Her husband and two young children were believed in the house. Police in Auckland said.

In Sydney, police said they may only wait to telephone Mellich's captive wife and ask her once more to help them subdue Mellich. A phone call failed to help yesterday.

Mrs. Mellich, forced to marry at gunpoint at the start of the siege, told the Sydney Daily Mirror by phone: "I didn't know he was like this when I married him."

How did she feel?

"I'm scared, believe me, I'm scared."

BABY HUNGRY

How did she think it would end?

"Ever been to a morgue?"

How about baby Leslie?

"I can't prepare milk for my baby. He has had nothing to eat since last night. My baby is screaming."

Her husband?

"He won't let us out. He is still keeping his word that he won't let us go."

REPAIR AID OFFERED

Mellich said to be the father of Leslie, began the furniture smashing after electricity halted yesterday in the house. At first Mellich figured police had shut it off since they did stop sending in food three days ago.

Police said no, it must have been a blown fuse. They offered to send in an electrician to fix it but withdrew the offer when Mellich said of the repair man: "If he makes a false move, I'll blow his head off."

Chief Allan said, "I would not in any circumstances allow a man like Mellich to exercise a judgment as to what a false move is."

Mellich underwent psychiatric treatment during imprisonment for burglary. The siege began when police went to the house of Beryl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mick Muddle, to question Mellich about some burglaries.

Mellich consolidated his hold on the household after driving off the first policemen with shots. Using his threat to kill Beryl and Leslie, he even forced the police chief to witness the shot gun wedding (Mr. and Mrs. Mick Muddle gave their consent to the match) and later forced Allan to hand over the automatic rifle and 200 armor-piercing bullets.

Former Head of Chemical Firm Is Dead

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Edgar Monsanto Queeny, philanthropist, civil leader and once head of one of the nation's largest chemical firms, died Sunday at the age of 70.

The son of the founder of the Monsanto Co. died in his home in Ladue, a St. Louis suburb, of a heart ailment. Family sources said the funeral will be private. His widow, Ethel, and a sister survive him.

Queeny inherited the small chemical firm from his father, John Francis Queeny, and built a worldwide corporation.

He made a $4 million gift in equity capital to the Barnes Hospital Group in St. Louis in 1963, making possible the construction of a 17-story addition to the hospital. He was awarded the St. Louis Award last year for his role in the rehabilitation of the hospital.

MEMBER OF BOARD

Born in St. Louis on Sept. 23, 1897, he was educated in public schools in the city and in New York State. He went to Cornell University where he majored in chemistry.

At the time of his death, Queeny was a member of the board of directors of Monsanto Co. and Monsanto Europe.

His interests ranged from outdoor life to economics. He led African safaris sponsored by the American Museum of Natural History in 1949 and 1952. He filmed Africa wildlife for six documentaries and also produced a film on wildlife in North America.

He was the author of three books. One of them, "Spirit of Enterprise," an economic treatise, was a nonfiction best-seller in 1943.

When Queeny took over Monsanto after his father retired, the firm had 919 employees. When he retired as board chairman in 1960 the firm had 31,346 employees with 22 domestic plants and 27 foreign plants in 16 countries. Under him the company's assets grew from $8.5 million to $951 million.

The Plug Was Pulled At Endicott Lake In Bloomfield Hills, And This Once-Wet Dock Overlooks A Sea Of Mud

Too Much Water Dries Up Lake in Bloomfield Hills

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — While last week's storms provided unwanted water in unwanted places for most area residents, dwellers on Endicott Lake found themselves confronted with an entirely different problem.

The 20 home owners on the 50-acre man-made lake found that when the storm subsided, the lake had subsided — subsided into a sea of mud.

The body of water was caught with its bridges down after rain torrents swelled waters so high that the two bridges, which serve as dams, broke. The rushing waters poured into a mill pond beyond the lake, causing a rock and dirt embankment to wash away. All the water then drained into the Rouge River outlet, leaving lake dwellers wondering about their man-made wonder.

FACE PROBLEM

The lake is now almost completely dry, and residents face the problem of refilling it.

The Rouge River which flows into the north end of the lake normally maintained the lake's level, but it is just a trickle compared to the amount of water that would be needed to refill it.

One resident of the lake, which is situated near the grounds of Cranbrook Institute, said that they really don't know what to do first.

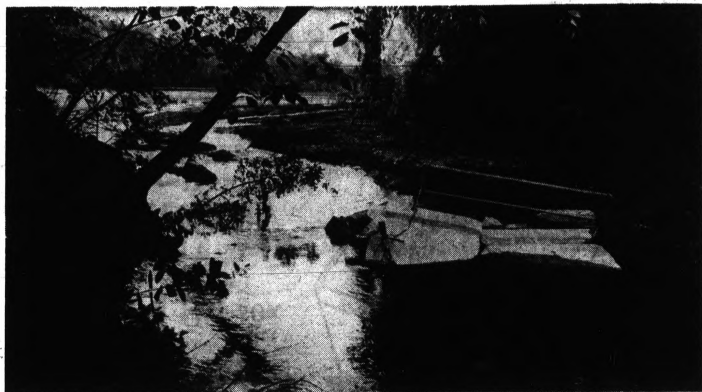

"It looks like it's going to be a major job," said Mrs. Henry C. Bachmann, of 611 Chesterfield.

MAY CALL ENGINEERS

"We haven't begun to make any repairs yet, but we'll probably have to get some engineers out here to look at it first," she said.

Edward H. Lerchen, executive director of Cranbrook, who also lives on the lake echoed Mrs. Bachmann when he noted that residents had not done anything yet.

"We really don't even know when we're going to begin the repairs," he said.

23 in State Killed in Holiday Traffic

By The Associated Press

At least 23 persons died in Michigan traffic accidents during the Fourth of July holiday period, including four teenagers whose car ran off a road and slammed into a house near Dowagiac Saturday.

The Associated Press count started Wednesday at 6 p.m., and ended last midnight.

The latest victims were:

Gregory James Griffith, 18, and Alfred Justice, 17, both of Niles; Rory Beckman, 15, of St. Joseph and Linda Van Tyne, 15, of Kalamazoo, when their car ran off a road and slammed into a house Saturday about eight miles northeast of Dowagiac in Cass County.

Pamela Woods, 19, of 4361 Pine Tree Trail, Bloomfield Township, when the car in which she was riding struck a parked car Thursday night in Oakland County's West Bloomfield Township.

DIES OF INJURIES

Daniel Meylon, 64, of Emmet, Kan., who died Friday as a result of injuries suffered Thursday night in a two-car collision in Newaygo County.

Thomas Frederick Brennan, 21, of Davison, whose car ran off a road Sunday in Genesee County's Genesee Township.

Peter James Genoff, 17, of Detroit, in a three-car intersection crash in Detroit yesterday.

Donald Newcomer, 59, of Charlotte, a passenger in a car which hit a bridge abutment Saturday night in Eaton County's Eaton Township.

Dillard E. McBride, 26, of 36 Euclid, Pontiac, who died in a Pontiac hospital Sunday from injuries suffered Saturday when his car hit a street sign in Pontiac.

LOST CONTROL

Ace Burton, 36, of Wyoming, and his daughter, Catherine, 6, and son Curt, 4, when Burton lost control of his car and ran off a road near Paw Paw yesterday.

Charles Wallace, 79, of Battle Creek, when he lost control of his car and ran off a road in rural Calhoun County north of Battle Creek yesterday.

Kenneth G. Smith, 21, of Detroit, after his car ran off I-94 at Telegraph Road in Taylor Saturday.

Gail A. Santy, 16, when a car in which she was a passenger Friday was hit from behind by another vehicle on Telegraph Road in Taylor.

Everett R. Wittenbach, 19, of Ada, who was driving on U.S. 31, west of Plainfield Saturday when he apparently fell asleep, police said. His car smashed through a guard rail and fell into the Kalamazoo River where he drowned.

Robert Fosanaugh, 46, of Hudson, Ind., and George D. Fosanaugh, 69, of Angola, Ind., died last night when their car, driven by the younger Fosanaugh, ran off M78 and struck an abutment near Durand in Shawansee County.

Board Fills Post, Elects Officers

FARMINGTON — The board of Education has appointed a new business manager and elected a new slate of board officers.

The board appointed William Prisk, 48, of Livonia as the district's new business manager, beginning July 15, with a salary of $18,000.

Prisk, who for the past 20 years was involved in management of Evans Products, Inc. in Plymouth, replaces James Read, who accepted a position at Kirtland Community College in Roscommon.

Read of 2387 Wesley, Farmington, has been named dean of business for the northern Michigan community college. He assumed his duties at Kirtland July 1.

In other action, the board elected a new slate of officers for the coming year. The new president is John Washburn and the new vice president is George Otis.

Elected secretary of the board was Dr. Sanford Blumberg, while the only newcomer to the board, Gary Lichtman, was elected treasurer.

Rochester Festival Is Delayed Until September 1970

ROCHESTER — The planned 1969 presentation of the city's Art 'n' Apples Festival has been delayed a year until September 1970.

Dr. John Solverson, general chairman, has told the City Council that a conflict with the proposed Rochester centennial celebration had made the delay advisable.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jarvis, 1079 Kingsview, Avon Township, were announced as new festival chairmen and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vernia, 2763 Tallahassee, Avon Township, were named as chairmen of the Rochester Arts Commission replacing Dr. and Mrs. Solverson.

Named to new three-year terms on the commission were Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis, Dr. Paul Ayres, Alex Formicola and Mrs. Robert Lines.

Mrs. Donald Bishop, Neil Hartwig, Elizabeth Hoheisel, Mrs. Edward Howe, Robert Jasinski, Eugene Mailhot and Dr. and Mrs. Solverson were reappointed to the commission.

Variety of Summer Youth Programs Begun

Several programs to provide summer recreation and employment for youths in Oakland County's low-income target areas are under way. The programs are administered through the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OCCEO).

Offered are 63 part-time jobs, 400 camperships for children, a variety of playground and park activities as well as teen centers and sports clinics.

Edward Revis, OCCEO executive director, said he is pleased that the 1968 program could be extended to include additional communities in the county. New areas getting OCCEO funded activities include Lake Orion, Holly, Walled Lake, White Lake Township, South Lyon, Highland Township and Farmington.

This year's total available funds are $49,809, about 28 per cent less than 1967, the first year of the program, due to federal cutbacks. Communities are supplying matching support in the form of equipment, facilities and personnel.

Women's Unit to Meet

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Ridgecrest Baptist Women's Missionary Union will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the church, 1181 Harding.

Most programs began last week and will run through Aug. 9. Following are some of the activities being offered.

• Pontiac Recreation Department — Evening programs of recreation, teen activities and indoor movies at four schools, Bethune, Bagley, Whittier and Franklin. Fourteen youth assistants are employed.

• Pontiac Schools — Sports clinics on tennis, wrestling and basketball. Activities for girls include badminton, volleyball, modern dance and "slimnastics."

• Pontiac YMCA — Day camp for 100 boys and girls, ages 8 to 12. Youngsters are from Pontiac, Waterford, Troy and Avon Township. Full range of camping experiences offered at state park sites.

• South Lyon — Swimming program, baseball and other sports.

• Novi — Nature study and day camp, picnics and field days.

• Highland Township — Summer baseball league.

• Farmington — YMCA, YWCA and Boy Scouts aiding in program offering arts, crafts, swimming and nature study.

• White Lake Township — A community education and recreation center for teens is planned.

• Walled Lake — An 11-acre area nature museum used for a cultural enrichment program.

• Lake Orion — Teen center at high school four nights a week.

• Avondale Schools — Evening activities for teen-age clubs; recreation equipment using Mott Foundation funds to be offered; plus a swimming program by Oakland University.

The community receiving the largest OCCEO support is Royal Oak Township, $13,408. Some 33 youth assistants will offer children a wide range of activities.

Oxford Schools Slash Millage Bid

OXFORD — The board of education has voted to reduce its request from 6 additional operating mills to 2.5. Voters, who on June 10 turned down the larger amount, will be asked to cast their decision Sept. 9.

Schools Supt. Roger Oberg said the additional funds, asked for one year only, should be enough to meet all operational commitments.

The board elected Ted Pearson Jr. as president to succeed Robert McWilliams. William R. Patterson was elected secretary and Stewart Langley was re-elected treasurer.

People Sniffer Gets Whiff of VC Action

LONG BINH, Vietnam (AP)—The combat nose of the Army has been vastly improved, the three people sniffers agree.

The Army's nose at first wasn't very efficient, as though it had a cold in the head all the time.

The arrival of the military people sniffers changed all that. The senior sniffer, lanky Capt. Kervin Sellers, a 27-year-old regular from Texas City, Tex., admitted that he had first approached the job with some skepticism.

LUKEWARM
Sgt. L.C. Forest Swietzer, a 36-year-old married man from Springfield, Ohio, was also lukewarm.

Lt. Lyle Paratt, a 24-year-old from New Orleans, La., was the most doubtful.

"Sniff people? You must be kidding me," he said when he got the assignment.

Getting started wasn't easy. The first time Sellers carried his equipment to a helicopter the pilot snorted at "that pile of junk."

The people sniffer—unimaginatively called a personnel detector by the Army—came to Vietnam last year. It detects body odor.

REVEALS ENEMY
Flashing over the jungles and paddies at tree top level, the machine sniffs out human odors—and consequently guerrilla trails, hideouts, camps and even underground bunkers.

The only thing that can fool the machine, its makers claim, is a chimpanzee. Whether human beings like to admit it or not, the chimp smells just like we do.

Sellers, Swietzer and Paratt, flying as a people sniffing team for the U.S. 19th Light Infantry Brigade, have been sniffing for almost two years—mostly over the jungles north of Saigon.

They mastered the job through "on-the-job training." There were no manuals on people sniffing when the machines first came out.

STILL TOP SECRET. They look sort of like a briefcase with a tail. They all have different personalities, too.

6 Yanks Die in Viet War

WASHINGTON (AP)—A casualty list identifying six servicemen killed in action in the Vietnam war has been issued by the Defense Department.

They included:

OHIO — Capt. Ronald L. Griffin, Lancaster, MARINE CORPS.

OHIO — Pfc. David L. Voyte, Columbus, Died of wounds.

NORTH DAKOTA — Hospital Corporal I. C. Leslie L. Carter, Jamestown, Changed from missing to death of hostile action.

ILLINOIS — ARMY, 3d Infantry Division, Chicago, Sgt. David L. Scott, Carbondale, Capt. R. Burke Jr., Elmhurst, Died not as a result of hostile action.

KANSAS — NAVY, Jacksonville, Fla., 3d Charles E. Havers, Erie, Ohio, Machine Gunner, Chief Robert E. Hickman, Marion, Navy.

Missing not as a result of hostile action: LT. (J.G.) John D. Gellahan.

"YOUR HEALTH"

PINCHED NERVES

By Dr. H. H. Alexander

If you are nervous, irritable, suffer with frequent headaches, dizziness, experience pain in your neck, shoulder, arm, back or legs or often feel a tightness and pain in your chest and in between your shoulder blades — the chances are you have pinched and irritated nerves.

Often falls, sprains and faulty posture cause misalignments of the spine, which results in pressure on nerve roots. Any pinching of these nerves as they leave the spine can cause trouble in the organs and limbs served by them. Chiropractic has specialized in the analysis of spinal disorders and misalignments of vertebrae that cause pinching and irritation of nerves. Consult your chiropractor to cases where nerve pain is suspected. Treatment is directed towards lasting correction by removal of the spinal misalignments.

Answers Question About Use of Potash

In answer to a recent question, my mother made potash when I was a young girl. We saved wood ashes in a hopper and in the spring we poured water over the ashes. When it seeped through the ashes it made a strong lye or potash that she used to make soap. This was 50 years ago and before you could buy commercial lye.

'Jet Airport Would Interfere With Concerts'

The Pontiac Press waxes eloquent on the beauty and quality of the Meadow Brook Music Festival. On the other hand, you are editorially enthusiastic about the expansion of the Oakland-Orion airport. The Festival will be worthless when the airport becomes fully operational. The runways are three miles away from Baldwin Pavilion. Fine music needs quiet surroundings to catch the beauty of each note. A jet airport is unthinkable. Now with daylight saving time, the Sunday concerts are occasionally disturbed by a light plane, but as darkness falls the problem fades.

Oakland-Orion airport will have an instrument landing system which means a radio-equipped plane can fly by night or day. We have seen Sisters Ebbing delay picking up the radio until a plane faded into the distance. We are certain he would not even pick it up to begin a concert with the competition of a jet airport three miles away.

Student Comments on Closing of School

I was a student of Emmanuel Christian School which closed its doors this past month. I went there for five years and they were the best years of my life. Many teenagers have gone to the school for as many as ten years and would have graduated in 1968, but now have to go to public schools to get their diplomas. The school was under the leadership of a great man and had great teachers from all over the country.

Disagrees With Views in Previous Letter

In answer to a recent letter concerning the pagan doctrine of Yogi, although I also believe there are evil forces in this world, I don't advocate narrow-mindedness or closed-mindedness. I believe one must become aware of different ways of viewing life in order that he may choose the right one for himself. Religion has been called a stained-glass window with a candle behind representing God. When light comes through it is multicolored like the varying points of religious expression. Who has the right to sit in judgment to decide pagan from Christian, evil from good and truth from lies? Let's give youths of today the right to see things through their eyes and not ours. There's too much hate in this world so let's not start another crusade of "Christian against pagan."

The presentation referred to at Michigan State University was not compulsory or mandatory. I don't believe those who did go had their minds destroyed or twisted by this experience. Quick generalizations and hard-core believers destroy and twist minds.

Classic Example
St. Joseph Herald Press

Doomsayers have always used the rise and fall of the Roman empire as a classic example of a decay of a civilization. Nearly two centuries ago, an 18th century Scottish historian and judge, Alexander Fraser Tytler, had in mind the fate of the Roman republic when he said:

"A democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the voters discover that they can vote themselves largess out of the public treasury."

When Mr. Johnson named old friend Abe Fortas to be Chief Justice and old friend Homer Thornberry to be Associate Justice, he was doing what seems to come quite naturally to him, taking care of old friends. What he also did, again, seemingly quite naturally, was to make cynics of nearly everybody, friend and foe alike.

It started, of course, with the "retirement" of Chief Justice Earl Warren who, it turned out, hasn't really retired. In a letter to the President, Mr. Warren merely said he would retire "effective at your pleasure." Mr. Johnson's pleasure was to make the retirement effective "at such time a successor is qualified." Nobody pretends that the timing of Mr. Warren's announcement, nor the fancy language was coincidental; they were plainly intended to give President Johnson, rather than his successor, the opportunity to name a Chief Justice.

Warren Interview Most Unusual

WASHINGTON—Many questions were left unanswered by the extraordinary interview which Chief Justice Earl Warren granted to the press last Friday. Although justices of the highest court in the land are not supposed to talk politics, and Warren himself refused to answer some questions in that category, he nevertheless took occasion to express his opinion publicly on the merits of the two candidates for the Supreme Court selected by President Johnson.

LANSING (AP) — This is a unique election year for Michigan in several ways. If nothing else, it may be one of the most troublesome the state has ever faced. It's unique because of the absence of races for major state officers and state senators—the first time those officials have not faced reelection in Michigan in an even-numbered year.

It's unique because of the large number of questions and proposals which will appear on the Aug. 6 and Nov. 5 ballots in addition to the candidates' names.

And it's probably unique because of the number of major mechanical questions which weren't answered until what appears to be almost the last minute.

LITTLE SURPRISE

First the U.S. Supreme Court sprung its little surprise early in the year that county government must be reappointed on a one-man, one-vote basis.

Counties scrambled frantically to make the changes required, and that stirred up a barrage of litigation that has just finished making its way through the State Court of Appeals.

Then the Legislature, after a long battle, gave approval to a new district court to be elected this year — throwing, as it turned out, another 35 names on various ballots around the state.

Then lawmakers added three new seats to the appeals court, attracting seven candidates and guaranteeing a primary runoff in the 16-county 2nd Court District of Southeast Michigan.

MINOR CRISIS

And, then, last Friday, the appeals court figured in another minor election crisis — ruling unconstitutional a proposed new system for listing candidates on the ballot.

The new plan would put the incumbents' names first in each list, with other candidates listed alphabetically below. The appeals court ruled the new plan violated the constitution by, in effect, giving incumbents ballot designations which are forbidden in partisan races except where contenders have similar names.

It meant that all around the state, ballots which have al-

It Seems to Me . . .

Record-Breaking Progress Made by Local GM Division

GMC Truck and Coach Division is barreling along at record-breaking speeds. During the first six months of 1968, this organization notched an amazing increase of 25.5 per cent.

This is phenomenal.

The community cheers "all out."

Admittedly, it's about the toughest organization in the corporation to administer, but the big South Boulevard unit is setting wonderful records in half a dozen ways. This incredible growth and progress are reflected immediately and directly in retail activities throughout the area.

Along with everyone else in sight, I get down on both knees, bow from the waist and whisper "Allah be praised," as Martin J. Caserio and his entire force pass in review.

Prediction From History . . .

In the "Guest Editorial" column today is a reprint from The St. Joseph Herald Press.

We urge you to read it.

This was uttered nearly two centuries ago by a Scottish historian and judge. This means the approximate time when General WASHINGTON was the Number One Citizen; and when the sun never set on the British Empire.

Said the jurist in effect:

"In a democracy, candidate 'A' promises the voters six billion dollars and a suit of clothes at government expense; whereas, 'Candidate 'B' promises them seven billion dollars and a suit of clothes with two pairs of pants."

"Whereupon, political pooh-bahs, union bosses, and self-appointed leaders wave the flag for Candidate 'B'. The devastating and ultimate results are bankruptcy, insolvency and a return to a dictatorship," said he.

Certainly we're headed downward with our burgeoning federal debt breaking all international records and our gold reserves already cut squarely in two.

When does the pendulum reverse? Who brings it about? Yes — who — and when?

U.S.S. Pueblo . . .

Just 147 days ago the U.S.S. Pueblo was summarily commandeered by the North Koreans along with her crew of 83 U.S. citizens. This was going to be "settled immediately."

What's happening?

Proposed Census Blanks . . .

Sections of the Federal government get dizzy by the moment. One of the most ludicrous current examples is the proposed Federal census blanks which would contain over 200 questions, dipping impudently and insolently into every phase of your personal and private life.

Taxpayers could plan to pay tens of thousands of additional employees to get the answers and catalogue them. Sometimes it seems that national and federal intelligence degenerates perceptibly every 24 hours.

Our own Representative Jack H. McDonald is fighting the proposed issue.

We need more like him.

Horrible Statistics . . .

In the first six months of 1968, more American boys were slaughtered in Vietnam than in the entire year of 1967.

Where are we going? Echo answers: "Nowhere — nowhere."

We — a nation with only 200 million — continue a world war on a globe of 3 billion. We provide the soldiers, pay the costs and suffer the death lists. The 3 billion do nothing — except supply our enemies with more supplies to kill our boys.

This is a horrible, revolting and disastrous performance. No wonder JOHNSON is quitting. He should.

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Glimpsed playing golf together at Bloomfield: JOHN DeLORIAN and TOM HARMON . . . Tourist bureau says the demand for Paris and French travel arrangements have fallen further from the previous low. . . . No one seems to know why, but Boston is the current "Hippie Headquarters." They're swarming there by the hundreds. Boston's mayor has been compelled to clamp on a curfew. The total is estimated at 3,000 and police say the current rate of influx could run to 20,000.

Trusted scouts advise me Etta Millben deserves mention as one of the area's attractive young ladies. (She's barely 80.) . . . Overheard: "I always wanted to Supreme Satin, a 48" wide antique satin blend of rayon and acetate, is a prize example of how little you can pay for draperies during this great sale. You can pick a variety of textures, patterns, prints and sheers—14 patterns and 222 colors in all—at similar savings. You'll enjoy these advantages in Hudson's custom workrooms:

- Draperies are suspended from tracks for precise hemming
- Double 6 inch bottom hem on all floor length draperies
- All material is hand-cut by our experienced craftsmen
- Blind-stitched hems, pleat-concealed seams throughout
- Hudson's credit terms are available for your convenience

Clairmont, a 48" scenic print cotton with the in-demand Scotch-gard® finish that repels stain and soil, is just one of 12 slipcover fabrics on sale. Like many others in this group of multi-purpose plains and prints, it can also be used for draperies. After you make your choice, our reliable workroom will carry through like this:

- Fabrics are cut in your home—right on your furniture
- Patterns are carefully matched at all points of union
- All seams are overcast so they can't ravel out or fray
- Bias-cut welting is used to give a smoother appearance
- Slipcovers precision-tailored by experts for exact fit

Firenze #11, a 54" wide heavy matelasse of cotton and rayon, is surprisingly low-priced for the quality. Sale priced too are 12 other reupholstery fabrics including natural linens, rayon damasks, patterns and solids—many our own imports—in a total of 117 colors. And here's the kind of craftsmanship our custom workrooms give you:

- All your furniture is stripped right down to the frame
- We carefully brace and strengthen every chair or sofa
- Springs are re-tied or replaced wherever it is necessary
- We re-web each piece completely before starting to cover
- Patterns are meticulously matched and valances lined

They're Bound West

Mrs. Duane V. Deacon of Bloomfield Hills and her four children are off on a month-long trip to Hollywood and Los Angeles which will include tours of the major movie studios, of special interest to the oldest boy, Duane.

The other children, Colleen, 13, Douglas, 11 and Donald, 7, will probably get a greater thrill out of Disneyland, which is also on the agenda.

Three artists will appear at the Meadow Brook Music Festival this week. They are Eugene List (below), pianist who plays Thursday and Friday; Judith Raskin (above), Metropolitan Opera soprano who sings Saturday and Sunday; and Andre Kostelanetz (right) who conducts the Detroit Symphony Orchestra for all four performances.

Non-Partisan Designer Is Choice of Both Camps

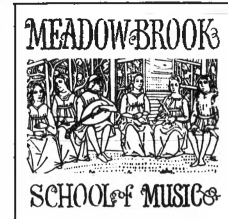

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (UPI) — Shakespeare observed in Hamlet that "the apparel oft proclaims the man." Maybe so, but in this fiercely partisan election year it also may proclaim military's politics.

Frankie Welch, a political-minded designer who operates a swank boutique in this suburb of the nation's capital, came up with a campaign dress for feminine backers of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

GOP

Then, bowing to GOP demands for "equal time," she created an election-year fabric for Republican women.

The garment for Humphrey gals is a simple blue "H" line dress, with a ribbon of green flowers accenting the "H" seams that run from shoulder to hem, and high across the waist.

NON-PARTISAN

Miss Welch insists she is strictly non-partisan when it comes to fashion. Her proof is the material pattern of red, blue and yellow daisies for the official Republican convention dresses.

The designer explains that she chose the daisy ensemble — rather than, say, elephant — because it's new. "Fresh as a Daisy" is her theme for the Grand Old Party.

The White House asked her to do a "Discover America" scarf as part of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson's Beautification Program. In a hurried two weeks, she whipped up enough for each of the state governor's wives at a White House fashion show.

The scarf is a free form map of the United States in red, white and blue.

Before that, Miss Welch had designed a Cherokee Indian scarf, emblazoned with the Cherokee alphabet.

A dollar from the sale of each scarf goes to an educational fund for Cherokee children. Miss Welch is 1-32 Cherokee.

STARTED IN 1963

"Frankie Welch of Virginia" was opened in 1963, in the owner's home. The house was built in the 18th century and is located across the street from the historic old Alexandria Court House.

Contact Telephone Company

There's Strange Ring to This

DEAR ABBY: I know everyone is in a hurry for an answer, but please read this, and if you don't think it's more important than some teenage girl whose mother won't let her shave her legs, just put it aside. Here's my problem:

I keep answering the telephone—but nobody is there. Now after a while this can get pretty maddening until I realize that maybe the ringing could be in my EARS!

Don't tell me to go to a doctor. I don't trust them. Any help you can give me will be appreciated. Thank you.

HEARS RINGING

DEAR HEARS: If you don't "trust" doctors, would you trust the telephone company? Your phone could be out of order. Or you could be the victim of a crank's prank. If your telephone is okay, give a doctor another chance. If your ear is ringing, you'd better answer it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO HOPKINS READER: If you say "icebox" instead of refrigerator, you're probably 45, or older. (P.S. So what? I am, and I do.)

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Edition Deadline Set

Members of organizations wishing to have their events included in the fall edition of the Cultural Calendar have one week left in which to submit material.

Mrs. D. Richard Veazey, editor of the booklet, says she must have all announcements by July 15.

Notices are to be sent and information obtained from Pontiac Area Community Arts Council, YWCA, 289 West Huron, Pontiac, Mich. 48053.

Petals Are Worn as They Grow-Up

The correct way to wear a corsage is the way flowers grow—petals up. You can pin your corsage to either shoulder, but it will keep fresh longer on your right shoulder if you're going dancing.

As a new variation, you can also wear the flowers at your waist or purse if your dress is strapless.

Trip to Europe, Middle East Is Reality for 120 of All Ages

Months of planning and years of dreaming became a reality for 120 persons who left today for a five-week trip to Europe and the Middle East.

Sr. Regina, social studies teacher at Pontiac Catholic High School, is one of the chaperones accompanying the group in their tour. It is given under the auspices of the International Education Association (IEA) of Wayne State University.

Participants hail from several states and Canada and range in age from high schoolers to golden agers.

A number are young adults, year or two out of high school.

Most of them are continuing their formal education and working part time. Saving the $129 for this trip has been a great incentive, says the mother of Melinda Hill, 20. Melinda is a student at Pontiac Business Institute.

Melinda says, "I anticipate meeting many types of people and seeing all the places I've dreamed about for so long."

Sister Regina, who went to Europe last year with another IEA group, is "glad to return to the many places I saw on my first trip." She thinks she will appreciate the cradle of our civilization even more after this summer.

The 12-country itinerary includes visits to England, France, Switzerland, Germany, Italy and Yugoslavia.

Other stops are Holland, Greece, Turkey, Israel, San Marino and Istanbul.

Highlight of the trip is a 15-day cruise in the Mediterranean aboard the S.S. Regina.

A private audience with the Pope at his summer home and a day in Jerusalem were the group's two choices from among optional side tours.

Modes of transportation range from jetting over the Atlantic, steaming down the Rhine, and gondoling in the canals of Venice to riding in private motorcoaches and trains.

RETURN

Upon their arrival back in the States Aug. 15, they will spend two days sightseeing in Washington, D.C.

Dr. August Kerber, IEA director, has charge of the trip. Making the grand tour used to be the prerogative of the idle rich. Now you no longer have to be rich to go to Europe, but idleness won't get you there either. Those who have carefully saved the cost of the trip will second that idea.

The world continues to shrink as more and more travelers come and go between different parts of it.

Receiving congratulations from Mrs. Elizabeth Koontz, president of the National Education Association, is Franklin Elementary School teacher, Mrs. Cornelia Jackson (left) who has been awarded a national fellowship for the study of problems involved in obtaining suitable housing for Negro teachers in Pontiac. Mrs. Jackson is the first Negro elected to the Board of Directors of the Michigan Education Association. The women are pictured at the recent annual Representative Assembly of the NEA in Dallas, Tex.

The most comfortable part of your day...

LA-Z-BOY® RECLINA-ROCKER®

All day you've been on the go. It's been an up-hill struggle and you're beat. You want time to enjoy your family, to relax and take it easy. You sit in your favorite chair, your La-Z-Boy® Reclina-Rocker®. The tough part of the day melts away quickly as you relax. The exclusive Comfort Selector gives you just the right leg-rest position. Your Reclina-Rocker® is perfect for lounging, rocking, TV viewing, even full bed reclining. You're enjoying every minute of the most comfortable part of the day. The little woman is just as pleased as you are. But her reason is different. Sure, she appreciates comfort, but she's actually more interested in the attractive style of your Reclina-Rocker® because it fits in so beautifully with the room decor. The style shown above is covered in beautiful glove-soft vinyl that complements the inimitable relaxing comfort of this La-Z-Boy® Reclina-Rocker®.

Beauty is more than skin deep. With La-Z-Boy® To make your Reclina-Rocker® the quality chair that it is, we've had to design and fabricate many distinctive components... and we've had to protect them under patent law. We don't think you'll blame us for being selfish about such things. Actually, being copied is a great compliment. Even though we like compliments, we love being unrivaled much better. A perfect example of La-Z-Boy's® more than skin deep beauty is the torsion spring clip. We manufacture them ourselves, and we put five in every chair we build. They account for La-Z-Boy's® unmistakable luxurious ease of relaxation. Who knows? Maybe some day we'll actually figure out a way to float on a cloud. But, in the meantime, we've taken the annoying bounce and creak out of reclining... made it the next best thing to floating on a cloud.

DREAMS COME TRUE FOR BRIDES- TO-BE

New Bridal Registry

Thanks to a new and unique photographic registry service initiated this week by C. R. Hoskell Studios, many brides and brides-to-be will now be able to have their complete wedding photographs and albums given to them as wedding presents.

How often it has been said, "I'm not having wedding photos taken, it's beyond us right now." Yet, the very thing the young bride forgoes in the beginning is the one thing that remains forever, bringing memories of that wonderful day each time photographs are viewed.

Now through "Wedding Photography Registry" a prospective bride can call C. R. Hoskell Studios on University Drive in Pontiac and engage a photographer to cover the wedding day festivities. At the same time, she can select the style of wedding photography she prefers - Natural color, the album; wall - hung paintings; frames, etc.

As a gift, C. R. Hoskell provides each of his brides a Wedding Guest Book, a portrait for the newspaper free and even a rice conveniently packaged for the guests to throw at the happy couple when leaving the church.

Mr. Hoskell has also available at special discount prices, invitations and napkins and often quilts. "We supply everything but the Bridegroom!"

Why not call C. R. Hoskell Studios now at 334-0555 and reserve your wedding date, or stop in at 1 University Drive, Pontiac.

'Down Under' Visitors Tour U.S. With Trailer

Project 'Summer USA' may take until the fall or perhaps early winter months to complete, say the travelling Neil McKinnon of New Zealand. Frankly they couldn't be more pleased.

"Just as long as we get home by Christmas so we can be with the family, especially the two new granddaughters who have been born since we left," says Mrs. McKinnon.

Now 12,000 miles and three months later, they may make their deadline as they prepare for the second half of their jaunt with the help of the Robert Flickers of North Merimac Street, their hosts for the week.

"What's it like to 'See the USA?' (by coincidence, in a Chevrolet and camping trailer) brought forth an endless list of first impressions."

• "Amazed at the size of mobiles you Americans travel in;

• Motorways (expressways) are great, even though you drive on the wrong side of the road over here;

• Snack bars are another favorite;

• New York? Well, it's a marvelous place to visit but I wouldn't want to live there."

And we've seen so much more," says Mrs. McKinnon. "That it's going to take a year or so to sort out all of our experiences and take a good look at what we've seen."

For this reason the McKinnons have gone one step further than letter writing by utilizing a portable tape recorder to keep an up-to-the-minute log.

One first impression that won't take a log of any kind to remember, however, is the warm and congenial meeting between the McKinnons and their hosts, the Flickers, the result of 14 years of correspondence sparked by their daughters.

The two girls, pen pals since Rita Flicker's college days began when Anne McKinnon, then a teacher, wrote requesting information on historical Indians from the area.

Needless to say, when the McKinnons decided they'd "do the States," following his retirement, a trip to Pontiac was a must.

Unfortunately, they did forget to mention they wanted directions to get to Pontiac, Michigan and not the one in Illinois, which put them out a couple of hundred miles, remarked Mr. McKinnon.

"But that's been my only big mistake," chimed in his gullible-looking copilot. And, as mistakes go, in comparison to the distance traveled as they circled their way across the southern Gulf States, to the Midwest and Eastern States, up into Canada and now, Michigan, this copilot seemed to be doing a better than average job.

Being on the cake for any adventurer at heart is the good fortune they've had while hitting every major city on their map during the 5 p.m. rush hour. Needless to say, this leaves them with quite another list of first impressions.

Come Tuesday, the McKinnons will again take to the road for the second half of their expedition which marks their first trip out of New Zealand.

What else can happen between now and their arrival home in Whaneirei can't be foretold but one thing is sure, noted a laughing Mr. McKinnon, "We'll never leave here until Mrs. McKinnon gets to see Disneyland."

Former Birmingham-ites, the John S. Mahonys of Cincinnati, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Mary, to John Byram Bishop, the son of the Robert B. Bishops of Kennett Square, Pa. The bride elect, who resides in Washington, D.C., is a graduate of Newton College of the Sacred Heart, Boston, Mass. Her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania.

"Getting nursing off the ground" are the Michigan nurses of Selfridge Air Force Base's 45th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron. Serving as flight nurses with the Air Force Reserve, they provide medical care to members of the American armed forces being transported via the global aeromedical evacuation network.

Al Force Reserve flight nurses can make a significant contribution to their country while continuing in their regular nursing positions in their own hometowns—serving their country one weekend each month and during the annual 15-day tour of active duty. Many of the patients evacuated are battle casualties from Vietnam who are being returned for treatment in U.S. military hospitals. Registered nurses who are graduates of three-year schools of nursing and have not reached their thirty-sixth birthday may qualify for commissioning in ranks of second lieutenant through major, depending on age and nursing experience.

For Reserve flight nurses, monthly training periods with simulated patients, consisting of Saturday-Sunday weekend flying missions (with pay for four days) are scheduled. A six-week training course in Inflight Nursing Procedures precedes the weekend practice flights.

Here is where nurses step into the "jet age." Later this year aeromedical evacuation units will make a transition from prop-driven aircraft to twin jet 450 mph DC-9 aircraft, especially engineered for their life-saving missions.

These aircraft can carry 30 stretcher patients or 40 walking wounded or a combination of both in relative comfort. Hot meal service and high frequency radio contact with a flight surgeon on the ground are provided.

Nurses interested in becoming part of the jet age medical team should contact the 45th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron Commander, Selfridge AFB, Michigan, 48045.

LUCARELLI-ROSE

Carrying a nosegay of white roses, Sandra Janna Rose became the bride of Bruce F. Lucarelli during an evening ceremony Saturday in Auburn Heights United Presbyterian Church. The daughter of Mrs. Wayne Rose of Slocum Road, Pontiac Township and the late Mr. Rose and son of Mrs. Gladys Lucarelli and Quirino Lucarelli, both of South Portland, Maine, then greeted guests at the American Legion Hall. Sheila Rose attended her sister, who was groomed in a modified cape of Chantilly lace over taffeta highlighted with sequins and pearls. A taffeta ring capped the bride's elbow length veil. Mrs. Robert Long, Margie Ziemann, Richard Campbell, Frank Rose and the Danny Moores comprised the bridal corps with Robert Erland as best man.

Sniff-Proof Glue Pleases Parents

Parents will be happy to know that someone has heeded their cries for a sniff-proof glue. The manufacturer of such a product reports it is vaporless and non-toxic.

You can sniff it or even taste it, but it contains no harmful chemicals that will do internal or external damage. The plastic container is topped with a grip spreader cap that cannot twist off. This feature eliminates glop, ooze and messy clean up.

Find Lost Rings in Spring Thaw

Saturday NuptialsWedding Vows Spoken

Carrying a cascade of white carnations and red roses, Judith Kay Voydanoff was escorted down the aisle of First Congregational Church Saturday where she exchanged vows with Robert Lee Griggs.

For the mid-afternoon ceremony, the bride chose a gown fashioned along traditional lines with wrist length sleeves, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt of organza accented with appliques of atonement lace. A crown of seed pearls and sequins capped her illusion veil.

ATTENDANTS

On the bride's side stood maid of honor Corinne Calender, with bridesmaids Jean, Anne and Heidi Voydanoff, and Jenny and Kitty Griggs.

Best man honors were performed by Frank Ross while David Fedio, James LaZaroff, Nick Pilonow, Dennis Shepherd and Dennis Young served as ushers.

The daughter of the Ell S. Voydanoffs of Oakshire Street and son of the Loren Griggs of Elkton joined guests for a dinner reception in the church parlors prior to their wedding trip departure to the Ozarks.

Varblow-Luli

A garden reception at the Kent, Ohio home of the Walter L. Lulis followed the wedding

Saturday of their daughter, Karen Maureen, to Lee Henry Varblow Jr. of Troy.

The bridegroom is the son of the senior Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Varblow of Birmingham.

ENSEMBLE

For her bridal ensemble, the former Miss Luli chose the traditional look fashioned with a front panel of tiered Chantilly lace joining a fitted lace bodice, with wrist length sleeves and a flowing bouffant skirt of boned silk.

A petal headpiece of sequins and pearls capped her tiered illusion veil and she held a bouquet of Phalaenopsis orchids.

Honor attendants, for the double ring ceremony in United Church of Christ, Kent, Ohio, the same bill the second time.

United Church of Christ, Kent, Ohio, was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Karen Maureen Luli and Lee Henry Varblow Jr. Their parents are the Walter L. Lulis of Kent and the senior Varblows of Birmingham.

Tissues Start Barbecue Fire

The most efficient back yard barbecue chefs know that the smartest and quickest trick to an even, glowing fire is using a layer of strong, absorbent paper towels over the coals. The chef acquires charcoal starter over the layer of paper towels and ignites it. Assisting the chef, the outdoor wife uses the towels for picnic placemats, hamper packaging and at the end of the outdoor meal, for clean up tasks.

National Service Kept Busy

Parks Fight Overcrowding

WASHINGTON—"Within these plantations of God, a decorum and sanctity reign." Ralph Waldo Emerson proclaimed in awe of the Giant Forest at California's Sequoia National Park. Decorum may still be found in parts of Sequoia and other national parks—but it no longer reigns. Traffic jams and waiting lines often plague popular vacation areas.

In 1967, visits to National Park Service facilities reached a record total of 139,675,000, the equivalent of two out of every three Americans. The service's domain encompasses 27.5 million acres in 256 diverse areas, the National Geographic Society says.

Many thousands make regular pilgrimages to park service areas, such as the towering Washington Monument in the nation's capital, the majestic McKinley in Alaska, the powder-white beaches of the Virgin Islands National Park, and the foaming rock coast of Maine's Acadia National Park.

ALL-OUT EFFORT

Caretaker of America's wonderlands, the National Park Service has waged an all-out effort to meet the demands of an ever-growing army of campers, hikers, swimmers, and sightseers. Several new park areas have been approved by Congress and wait appropriation for development.

Other possible National Park Service areas are under study. They include Glacier Bay, Alaska; Channel Islands and Death Valley, Calif.; Kaula, Hawaii; Great Basin, Nev. and Valle Grande-Bandelier, N.M.

Some new park service facilities will open within the next few years. Chief among these is 69,000-acre Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area, whose giant lake and overlooks may serve 10 million East Coast residents annually.

Half a continent away, the service is preparing for the 1969 debut of Wetherill Mesa, the spectacular extension and enlargement of Colorado's 51,000-acre Mesa Verde National Park. Wetherill Mesa's pre-Columbian Indian ruins were excavated and stabilized, as a von National Recreation Area public service by the National Geographic Society.

Other developing park service projects include Pennsylvania's Allegheny Portage Railroad National Historic Site and the Johnstown Flood National Memorial, and the Big Horn Can-in Montana. New parks are fine, but the old spectaculars will not lose their attraction for vacationers, parks officials say.

In contrast, some worthy vacation spots go begging for visitors. Michigan's picturesque Isle Royale National Park, for example, offers extensive hiking trails, camping shelters, rustic lodges, and fascinating wildlife. Yet it welcomed only 9,500 in 1967. Its problem: Isle Royale is surrounded by Lake Superior, and lies 15 miles from the nearest mainland shore and high-

We are Pontiac area young people... ranging in age from 16 to 21. We have listed our work qualifications with Youthpower, Inc., a non-profit organization which helps young people find the summer jobs which we often need to continue our education. Youthpower is sponsored by the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, Pontiac Area Jaycees and Manpower of Pontiac, Inc.

Our application cards are on file in the Youthpower office. When you call and place an order for a young person to work at your home or business, the volunteers who staff Youthpower check the files and find the best qualified young person closest to the job.

As soon as a job is available for us, Youthpower calls and asks us to contact you, the employer, and arrange for an interview.

Youthpower is really a very simple, clearing house type operation. It's designed to save you, the employer, the expense of running an advertisement, and the time of interviewing dozens of young people who do not have the exact qualification you want.

If only everyone would find just one job... full time, part time or one time only... that could be handled by a young person, the summer unemployment problem would be solved. Won't you please help us spend a worthwhile summer by calling Youthpower today?

Chemical Found of Doubtful Help in Cigarettes

By Science Service

Sodium nitrate, when added to cigarettes, has in the past been reported to reduce the level of carcinogens in the smoke, both by enhancing combustion of tobacco and by inhibiting formation of aromatic hydrocarbons like benzo(a)pyrene.

Chemicals Inc. of Linwood, Pa., and colleagues at the U.S. Department of Agriculture indicates that addition of the chemical might increase other harmful side effects of smoking.

Comparing cigarettes with 8 per cent sodium nitrate added with regular length unfiltered controls, Terrell finds that the nitrated cigarettes produce more than twice as much nitrogen oxides, acetaldehyde, acrolein, and acetonitrile.

Acetaldehyde and acrolein strongly inhibit movement of the cilia, the fine hairs lining the lungs that keep them free of bacteria and irritants.

Terrell adds that while paraffins in the smoke are reduced, there may be formed "new compounds of questionable activity."

TALKS TO NEWSMEN — Wilfred T. Ussery (center), national chairman for the Congress of Racial Equality, speaks to newsmen at CORE's 26th annual convention in Columbus, Ohio, which recessed yesterday. Associate National Director Roy Innis (right) and Floyd McKissick, national director, look on as Ussery speaks.

Maine Indians, Woodsmen at Loggerheads

INDIAN TOWNSHIP, Maine of the Peter Dana Point Indian day in a sitdown demonstration, tried to block tractors. Gov. Kenneth M. Curtis has asked both sides to wait for a court decision, which is expected in October. Both sides claim title to the logging sites. The logging work was halted Thursday if Indians would not.

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids

And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N. Y. (Special): A scientific research institute has discovered a medication which has the ability in most cases — to actually shrink hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from the itching, burning and pain. Then this medication starts right in to gently reduce the swelling of inflamed, irritated hemorrhoids.

Tests conducted on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, in Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center proved this so.

And it was all accomplished without narcotics or stinging astringents of any kind. The secret is Preparation H — an exclusive formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids. There is no other formula like it! In addition to actually shrinking piles and relieving the painful distress — Preparation H lubricates, makes bowel movements less painful and soothes the irritated tissues. It also helps prevent further infection.

Preparation H comes in ointment or suppository form. No prescription is needed.

CORE Parley Is Recessed After Walkout

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Congress of Racial Equality recessed its national convention Sunday after some delegates walked out in a dispute over the future course of the organization.

Charging that CORE was "a simple tool to blind black people, Robert (Sonny) Carson lead his Brooklyn chapter out of the convention and threatened to form a new civil rights group on his own.

"It is clear to a lot of us out here that this organization and a few people who have a quest for power are only using this tool as a vehicle for personal fame," Carson said.

CORE delegates also failed to act on a new constitution which earlier had been described as "of extreme significance to black people in this country."

SELECTION BLOCKED

CORE officials said the convention would be reconvened in another city next month for the purpose of considering and ratifying the new constitution. The city was not selected.

The squabble also blocked the selection of a new CORE director to replace Floyd McKissick, who wants a leave of absence because of a bad back.

Associate National Director Roy Innis had hoped to take over McKissick's $16,500-a-year post at the windup of the five-day, 26th annual convention.

Innes and other CORE leaders favor the building up of Negro communities and using foundation grants to do it. The Carson faction disagrees.

Shots Hit Home in Waterford

Waterford Township police are investigating a shooting in which two bullets were fired into a home early this morning.

Shortly after midnight the bullets came through two front windows at 5925 Dwight, according to police. Four persons were reportedly in the home at the time, two residents, Ruth Welling, 45, and Beverly Irwin, 17, and two visitors, John Robertson, 18, of 1662 Irwin, Pontiac, and Monty Caldwell, 15, of 1738 Alma, Waterford Township.

Glass fragments struck some of the occupants, and the bullets narrowly missed them and passed through walls to the rear portions of the dwelling, police said.

Waterford police were questioning suspects this morning.

Man Wounded in City Laundry

A 54-year-old man is reported in satisfactory condition in Pontiac General Hospital with wounds received when an assailant shot him late Saturday.

Authorities said Leon Reid of 300 W. Walton, Waterford Township, was shot in the right leg with a sawed-off shotgun while in the Auburn Coin Laundry, 517 Auburn.

He told police a man entered the building about 11:30 p.m., brandished the gun and, saying nothing, shot at him twice.

The assailant, described as of

BERNIE L. TATE

Posthumous Honor to GI From Pontiac

A Bronze Star medal with the V device was recently awarded posthumously to Spec. 4 Bernie L. Tate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Menard Tate of 47 N. Ardmore.

His parents accepted the Bronze Star, a second Purple Heart, the Vietnam Military Merit Medal and the Gallantry Cross with palm at a special award ceremony.

Spec. 4 Tate died in Vietnam July 12, 1967. He distinguished himself in military action that day while serving as a squad leader with the 25th Infantry Division during a helicopter assault in the vicinity of the Oriental River Tay Ninh province. His company landed in an enemy base and the enemy opened fire.

Tate noticed a bunker which had pinned down an element of the company and assaulted that enemy position with complete disregard for his own life. He moved forward, firing on the enemy, until he was mortally wounded.

Tate's captain said Spec. Tate's personal bravery and devotion to duty are in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself and his country.

Boat 'Grounded'

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Albert Foster has a classic problem. After working nearly two years in his yard building a 30-foot cabin cruiser, Foster discovered the boat wouldn't fit out the driveway. "It looks like about the only way we can get it out is to have a large crane lift it over the house," he said.

7 Face Trial as Suspects in Loan Racket

DETROIT (UPI) — Seven men, two of them alleged Mafia figures, were ordered held for trial on a "juke racket" charge today after a lengthy hearing in Grease Point Municipal Court.

Anthony J. (Tony Jack) Giacalone and Vito (Billy Jack) Giacalone were bound over to Circuit Court along with five other men arrested in May on a conspiracy charges.

They were accused in an alleged syndicate-financed loan shark operation, which supposedly preyed on persons in need of money.

No trial date was set. The examination lasted for more than three weeks. As soon as it was concluded the court began an examination for three other men arrested at a later date on the same charges.

The other five bound over for trial today were Bernie Marchessault, James Karalla, Clarence Stephan, Russell Badamo and Amos Ness. They were arrested along with the Giacalone May 14 on the "juke racket" charges.

The Giacalone were identified as Mafia figures in testimony in a Congressional hearing in 1963.

Hopes Dim for Horse in Fatal Mishap

PLAINWELL, Oyo — Little hope remained today that a valuable thoroughbred stallion survived an accident that took the life of an Ada youth over the weekend.

Everett Wittenbach, 18, was killed when the truck he was driving overturned near a river and plunged into the Kalamazoo River. He had been pulling a trailer which contained "Red Alvin," a thoroughbred valued at $10,000, and another horse. Owned by Kent County horseman Onofore Delassa, "Red Alvin" was known as an outstanding stud.

Officers said they found horse hair and blood on a culvert near the scene of the crash and at first believed the horse may have limped into the nearby fields. But a thorough search Sunday indicated the stallion must have drowned, they said.

As early as the year '97, China sent forth an envoy to try to establish trade with Rome. He never got there. But within two or three decades, a wealthy Roman merchant had organized trading expeditions into central Asia.

8 Drownings Occur in State

Eight persons drowned in Michigan over the long Fourth of July weekend.

The Associated Press death count began at 8 p.m. Wednesday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Latest victims were Dawn Marie Essa, 2, of Grand Beach, drowned Sunday when she fell from a seawall into Lake Erie at her Monroe County home.

Roger D. O'Brien, 16, of Dodgeville, drowned Sunday while swimming in a pond of a farm in Chassell Township, Houghton County.

Harold Carl Stephens, 59, of Saginaw, drowned Sunday when he fell into the Titabawassee River in Hay Township, Gladwin County, while fishing from a railroad crossing.

The King James version of the Bible was first published in 1611.

Cash, Tape Gear Stolen From Car on Pontiac Street

Some $200 in cash and a stereo tape player valued at about $125 were stolen from a Bloomfield Hills man's car while it was parked on a Pontiac street Saturday, police were told.

Harold A. Cousins of 691 S. Hills told officers he discovered the theft about 3:15 p.m. when he returned to his car on the 400 block of South Saginaw.

He said the money was in a wallet left in the glove compartment. Investigators said the thief used a tool to unlock the driver's side door.

The scientific name of the persimmon, Diospyros, means "food of the gods."

Firms Clean Up at Cleaning Up

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dirt isn't cheap, the old saying notwithstanding. Any building owner knows that.

Cleaning offices, warehouses, research centers, department stores, schools, churches, libraries and the like make up a billion-dollar industry.

Prudential Building Maintenance Corp. of New York, for instance, estimates it will clean up $27 million this year because of the need to clear away daily clutter and dirt.

Its 4,500 "night people" (most of them work between 5 p.m. and 2 a.m.) will tidy up 45 million square feet of floor space in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Michigan, Illinois and Florida.

VERSATILE CREWS

Aside from swinging mops and pushing brooms, Prudential's work force dusts 6-million library books, takes care of gardens in corporate complexes, cleans airplanes, maintains all of New York City's outdoor telephone booths, clears snow and handles carpenter work, engineering chores and plumbing.

One of Prudential's biggest projects is the Newark, N.J. airport terminal.

Each day 17,000 passengers and 6,000 employees pass over the 200,000 square feet of terminal space and make a lot of dirt in the process.

It's estimated Prudential employees annually will scrape 1,825 pounds of chewing gum from the floors, cart out 40 tons of chewing gum wrappers, newspapers and other paper, use 1,000 gallons of floor cleaner and tote in 30 tons of toilet paper and paper towels.

In the mountains of Ecuador, hummingbirds are found living at an altitude of 15,000 feet.

Dinosaurs Get Streamlined Image

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Some years ago, scientists undertook to improve the image of Neanderthal man, a fellow who walked the earth 40,000 to 75,000 years ago.

The popular notion used to be that Neanderthal man was pretty apt to be a brawling and walking stance. Scientists called him Homo Neanderthalensis to distinguish him from their own proud species, Homo Sapiens.

After further examination of the evidence, however, many anthropologists concluded that Neanderthal man really was a type of Homo Sapiens and that he was by no means the ugly, bent-legged, shambling caveman he had been pictured.

Dress him up in a well-cut suit and turn him loose in a crowd of modern city shoppers, and nobody would look more than twice at him, these image-restorers said.

Now a scientist has done a similarly handsome thing by the dinosaurs. These great reptiles which dominated earth's landscape for 100 million years have generally been thought of as slow and sluggish.

Many of the bigger ones were assumed to be incapable of walking, much less running, on dry land. So they kept to the swamps and instead of walking, they slithered.

But according to Robert T. Bakker, 23-year-old researcher in Yale University's Peabody Museum of Natural History, this old notion is wrong. Many of these outsize beasts, he says, could gallop cross-country at speeds "up to 30 miles per hour."

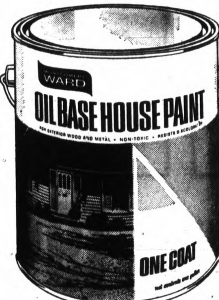

Bakker derived his new image of dinosaurs by comparing the anatomy and limb mechanics of living vertebrates with fossil forms.

He concluded that dinosaurs were "much more active than most scientists have believed" and that they were "fast, agile, energetic creatures that lived at a high physiological level reached elsewhere among land vertebrates only by the later advanced mammals."

ECORSE (H) — The Detroit Boat Club, battling a 3½-mile-an-hour current on the Detroit River Sunday, emerged the best of nine crews competing in the 56th annual Central States regatta.

Detroit took first place in six of 11 senior events on the ½-mile upstream course. The St. Catherine, Ont., Rowing Club took four first places and Ecorse took one.

"I never really thought I had a chance to win until yesterday," Weiskopf was saying.

"But then I caught the leaders at one point. I fell back with a couple of others, but I thought then that with a 67 or 68 today I could win it.

"I know how I feel. He's just a rookie and I know how badly he must feel, but he'll win some. I can't say, I really won't. He begged that last hole to give it to me. He should be congratulated for his fine play."

The key to his victory? "I'd have to say it came at the third hole," said Weiskopf. "I made a 15-foot putt for birdie and it really got me going . . . it was a real key."

READING, Pa. (AP) — Someone said to Mrs. Susie Maxwell Berning: "You don't look or act like a girl who has just won the 'prestige title' of women's golf—the U.S. Women's Open Championship."

The tiny, hazel-eyed bride of seven weeks pained and then replied: "It's hard to believe you could win a tournament when you play the last three holes the way I did. Maybe this is why I don't feel elated. I feel fortunate to have won."

Mrs. Berning won top prize of $5,000 in the 18th annual Open Sunday with a final round of par, 35—65. Over the 6,252-yard, 18-hole Springs Golf Club course, she shot 72 holes in 289.

She prevailed by three strokes over blonde Mickey Wright, the four-time national queen, who made a belated but fatal change in the 113-pound winner from Incilme Village in California.

"It was two rounds too late," commented the soft-spoken, 33-year-old Miss Wright, who finished with a 35-63—68 and a four-round total of 292.

The 26-year-old Mrs. Berning sat next to her husband of seven weeks, Dale, and explained the lack of excitement over her victory. She spoke of the 16th, 17th and 18th holes where, in the last three rounds, she had six birds and a double bogey.

Carol Mann, the veteran pro from Towson, Md., carded a 35-67—75 and 77, and was in for third place.

The key to his victory? "I'd have to say it came at the third hole," said Weiskopf. "I made a 15-foot putt for a birdie and it really got me going . . ."

Mrs. Berning won top prize of $5,000 in the 16th annual Open Sunday with a final round par, 35-36-71 over the 6,232-yard Moenlein Springs Golf Club course for a 72-hole total of 289.

Carol Mann, the veteran pro from Towson, Md., carded a final 35-37-75 and wound up tied for third with 17th and 18th holes where, in the last three rounds, she had six bogeys and a double bogey.

Mexican in Swim Spotlight

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP)—The U.S. swimming team that goes to the Mexico City Olympics in October is going to be the best ever, according to its coach. It will have to be.

George Haines, coach of the Santa Clara Swim Club that hosted the city's international invitational swim meet over the weekend, said the meet showed his team improving at about the pace he likes and that the foreign competition in Mexico is going to be rugged.

"Mexico itself, in fact, may turn out to be a less than glorious host."

Guillermo Echevarria, the country's 28-year-old distance swimmer, was unquestionably the star of the meet, setting a world record in the 1,500-meter freestyle and placing second in the 400-meter freestyle to world record holder Mark Spitz in a time of 4:45.1.

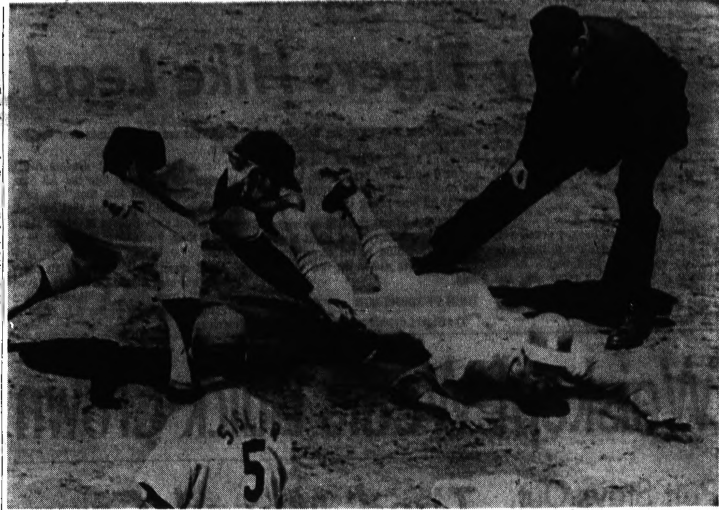

"I don't think there's any question that Echevarria is the favorite in the 400 and 1,500 at which he holds the world of 4:01.0."

Echevarria's time, 16:28.1, broke by six seconds, Burton's world record.

Also, he said, Don Schollander, Spitz, Greg Buckingham and the rest are not in their top shape. Buckingham set a world record of 4:45.1 in the 400-meter individual medley Saturday and the host club's 400-meter freestyle relay clocking 4:01.0.

Other records came by Miss Pederson on a 2:09.5 200-meter freestyle Saturday, but lost the 200 to Zac Zorn Saturday.

Schollander won the 200-meter freestyle Saturday, but lost the 200 to Zac Zorn Saturday.

NO WAY BACK—St. Louis Cardinals' Julian Javier tries to get back to first, but is tagged out by San Francisco pitcher Gaylord Perry (36) after being trapped in a run-down between first and second in the second inning yesterday at Candlestick Park. In the foreground is Cards' Dick Sisler. Umpire is Bill Kibler. Cards won, 2-0.

Cardinals Surge to Huge Lead

By the Associated Press

Seven days ago, the St. Louis Cardinals were gutting through a spell of misfortune; their league-lead had been cut to 6 1/2 games, and there was a slimmer of hope that the National League race might not be such a drab affair after all. Forget it.

A couple of veterans did everything that was needed Sunday in delivering St. Louis' seventh straight victory, a 2-0 conquest of San Francisco.

The triumph, coupled with Houston's 5-4 edging of Atlanta and Cincinnati's 6-5 loss at Los Angeles, boosted the Cardinals' lead to a very cozy 10 games heading into the three-day break for the All-Star Game.

But, while the Cards are riding roughshod on first, things are downright crowded the rest of the way down in the standings. Only 4 1/2 games separate second place Cincinnati from ninth-place Chicago.

Elsewhere in the National League Sunday, Chicago used a pair of dramatic finishes to edge Pittsburgh 5-4 and 4-3 and the New York Mets whipped Philadelphia 4-2, after dropping the opener of a doubleheader 4-3.

Lou Brock and Curt Flood personally provided all of the Cardinals' runs.

A Brock triple and Flood's single in the sixth halted a scoreless duel between winner Larry Jaster and Gaylord Perry. Then in the eighth, the fleet Brock reached first on an error and swiped both second and third before coming in on Flood's sacrifice fly.

Hank Aaron drove in all of Atlanta's runs and smashed two homers to up his career total to 498—just one shy of the plateau reached by only seven other major leaguers in history.

But it wasn't enough to overcome an early Houston uprising.

The Astros exploded for four runs in the first when Norm Miller had a leadoff homer and Rusty Staub popped a three-run shot. Hector Torres singled in the decisive run in the fourth.

Los Angeles spotted Cincinnati an early 3-0 lead, then had to rely on pinch-hitter Len Gabrielson's run-scoring single in the sixth to snap a six-game losing streak.

Chicago rookie Jose Arcia's first major league homer in the ninth inning produced victory in the opener with Pittsburgh. The Cubs held the script so much, they tried it in the nightcap when Don Kessinger's last-inning single with two out scored the winning run.

New York ended a long period of frustration with a pair of eighth inning runs that beat Larry Jackson and the Phillies in the second game.

It was only the second time in 22 decisions that the Mets had mastered their old nemesis. They did it when Ed Kranepool doubled in a run, then scored himself on an error.

Richie Allen's three-run homer in the ninth gave the Phils the opener.

Losers Turn Tables in City Baseball

Two long winning streaks and three embarrassing losing skids were terminated Sunday at Jaycee Park when the city men's recreation baseball league recorded three upset victories.

Pacesetter M.G. Collision lost its first game when streaking Pass Excavating posted a six-run fourth inning and a 7-5 win. It ended a nine-game winning surge for M.G. and Pass now has four straight conquests.

Runner-up Teamsters 614 also fell after seven successes in a row, dropping a 5-4 decision to Uncle Charlie's Pet Shop who tasted victory after losing its first nine starts.

UAW 553 snapped a streak of seven losses with a 2-1 triumph over CIO 594 (the fourth place team). The only member of the top four to win was the Clippers, who ended their three-game losing skid with a 4-1 conquest of Talbot Lumber.

KEY BLOWS

Trailing 3-1, Pass rallied to go ahead on Bob Sturdavant's single, and a three-run safety by Ken Mazur capped the big rally. Dave Renshaw was tough.

In the clutch although rapped three-hit by M.G.,

Uncle Charlie's rallied from a 3-1 deficit and upset the Teamsters on Brian Parrott's two-out pinch single in the sixth. Dick Barrett scattered seven hits but got the mound win.

A two-run triple by Willie Jones and Dick Montgomery's three-hit, 10-strikeout hurling snapped UAW's losing ways; while Mike Doty had a single, double and triple to figure in three runs and back the threat, nine-strikeout work of the Clippers' Gary Richardson.

The Clippers' deadlock with the Teamsters for second place will be broken when they play a twinnit tonight.

COME TO PAPA — The ball ricochets toward the outstretched hand of a fan as Boston Red Sox catcher Russ Gibson reaches in vain to make a putout on the pop foul off the bat of Minnesota Twins Jack Hernandez in the third inning of their first game at Fenway Park in Boston yesterday. Boston won both games, 4-3 and 6-3.

Wins Fifth Straight

Southfield Ups Lead in Legion Loop

Streaking Southfield upped its winning 6-2 as Bill Simpson had two hits and two runs batted in and losing 5-2 to Morcy Patton. All of the Farmington run came in during the second on a twinbail.

The loop leaders made it five straight victories by trimming Troy, 4-3 in 11 innings, and 10-2 in a doubleheader.

Walled Lake, who needs wins over Southfield tonight and Friday to gain ground, fell 2 1/2 behind by dropping a 5-0 decision to Waterford after winning their opener, 6-3.

Clarkston pushed into fifth place and is just a half game out of fourth after taking a 10-inning 4-2 triumph and an 8-5 nightcap decision from Milford.

RETAINS FOURTH

Berkley held onto fourth by splitting with Farmington — was third.

Ontario Driver First

JARVIS, Ont. (AP) — Peter Broeker of Point Claire, Que., averaged 94.469 miles an hour in a Stebro and won the 57-mile Midsummer Trophy race at Harewood Acres Saturday.

Frank Kahlich of Grosse Pointe, Mich., driving a Porsche RS 61 was third.

Dan Fife and Dick Johnson matched Ostrom's three hits in the two games, while Milford's Rick Sharpe had five safeties.

Yacht No. 8 Reaches Port

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Eight yachts have now completed the long, lonely voyage in the solo trans-Atlantic race from Plymouth, England, to Newport.

Myth of Malham, skippered by Noel Bevan of England, sailed into Newport Sunday to become the eighth finisher. She left Plymouth June 1 with 34 other boats. Thirteen boats still are at sea and 14 dropped out.

Lotus Turbines Disappoint

Foyt Wins in Ford at Rocky Mountain

CASTLE ROCK, Colo. (AP)—Andy Granatelli-designed Lotus turbines made their road racing debut here Sunday. Despite the best crowd ever to witness a motor racing event in Colorado—the sleek red whistlers provided another disappointment for their owners and drivers.

A flock of fast Fords, paced by A.J. Foyt's winning Coyote, swept the first four places in the Rocky Mountain 150 at Continental Divide Raceways, one of the U.S. Auto Club's National Championship series.

For turbine drivers Art Foyt, Leonard of San Jose, Calif., the race was the beginning of an education which they hope will culminate in a racing victory.

P4 crews on the turbine cars worked into the early morning hours Sunday on brake systems after the qualifying round Saturday. The four-wheel drive turbines have no engine braking, and the drivers pushed the brakes on the 10-turn 2.66 mile course.

British Bookies Put Nicklaus in First Place

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, 28-year-old Golden Bear from Columbus, Ohio, and 4-1 favorite to win the 1968 British open golf championship, calculated today he ought to clock Carnoustie's fearsome course this time better than when he saw it before.

"That time I clocked it in about 54 hours and 17 minutes," Nicklaus said with a wide grin.

He was talking about the only time he has played this 7,253 yard, par-72 seaside layout regarded as perhaps the toughest golf test in the world.

"I was making a film," Nicklaus—the time it took.

He brought the trophy he won at Hoylake last year back with him and entrusted it to 69-year-old Jose Jurado, a fellow Argentine.

Why? Jose should have won at Carnoustie in 1931 and lost by dropping six shots on the last two holes permitting Tommy Armour to creep to the front.

"I gave the cup to Jose and he is carrying it back for me, said Roberto. "Now, last year, I say I come here again just to see my friends and I win. This time I say I want Jose to carry the cup with him, like he brought it."

Pirates Having Two-Day Tryout
The Pittsburgh Pirates will have a baseball tryout camp Friday and Saturday at Grand Lodge High School under the direction of Jim Maxwell, Ken Beardslee and Bob Marks.

The tryouts will be 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. All candidates must be 16 years of age, and no American Legion players may try out without the written consent of their coach or post commander. All candidates must bring their own uniform, shoes, and gloves his parents with him on this trip. It made his assault a rather relaxing one in contrast to his efforts to win at St. Andrews, Birkdale and Troon, in the past.

Big Jack doesn't really like seaside courses, with their winds and rain but he showed his mettle in capturing the Open crown at Muirfield two years ago when a week of hot sun without breeze turned that ancient links into a billiard table.

Carnoustie is seldom so kind. The big American challenge still held the bookmakers' fancy.

The favorites include, in addition to Nicklaus and Casper, Bert Yancey, Arnold Palmer, Gay Brewer and Doug Sanders. Palmer arrived only Sunday and spent the day breaking in an entirely new set of clubs on the practice round.

Arnie, the richest golfer in the world, still is hungry to win. But he's only 10-1 here this time.

Grid Bengals Hard at Work

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—The Cincinnati Bengals held their first formal practices Sunday with Coach-General Manager Paul Brown bent on trimming the squad and picking out the top players.

Four free agents were cut from the new American Football League team following morning and afternoon practice sessions.

They were Mickey Bitisko of Dayton University, Larry Chambers of Grambling College, Rich Lucka of the University of Cincinnati, and Eddie Wise, who did not attend college.

Team officials said Brown is looking for the fastest and hardest hitting men out of about 80 rookies and free agents that are attending the summer camp.

Veterans will report to the camp at the end of the week. He plans to keep about 15 of the rookies and free agents, the officials said.

Blues Are Black, Says Ray Charles

By ANDREW FISHER

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI)—Blues singing, according to a fellow who does it just about as well as anyone has ever done, may just not be a white man's game.

Can a white man sing the blues? Someone asked Ray Charles backstage. He had just done an hour and a half before a final night crowd at the Newport Jazz Festival that would have been heard pressed to have been more enthusiastic.

"Not being white, I don't know," he joked at first. But then he got serious.

"To me, blues are synonymous with the black man," Charles said. "It's only in the past few years that they've been taken up by the white race."

HE WOWED 'EM

The blind singer had just wowed a crowd of 9,000 with "Yesterday," "Eleanor Rigby," "Georgia on My Mind," "Ode to Billy Joe" and other favorites.

His screaming partisans particularly favored "Eleanor Rigby," a mournful Beatles song.

The Albany, Ga., native said the various musical forms—jazz, pop, rock, rhythm and blues—are converging.

"Rhythm and blues has been here ever since I can remember and it's just beginning to make the pop charts now."

'HAS TO BE VISUAL'

But he seemed to be down on psychedelic or "acid-rock" music.

Alluding to his blindness, the 39-year-old Charles commented, "I think psychedelic music has to be visual as well as aural." Asked if he liked it, he said, "you'll have to ask somebody more knowledgeable than me."

Festival Artist Balks at Appeal on Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—A per- Kirkpatrick, a member of the former at the American Folklife Institute walked off the stage Sunday to protest a civil rights leader's appeal for more racial cooperation.

Acc. Reid, a cowboy cartoonist, walked from the stage as the Rev. Frederick D. Kirkpatrick urged the audience to put to work the message of a song, "This Little Light of Mine, Lord."

"Go back home and let your little light shine," the Rev.

State Festival for Cherries Starts Today

By United Press International

Now it's Traverse City's turn. The National Cherry Festival, which is in the heart of the state's heaviest cherry producing area, gets under way today with a full week of activities scheduled.

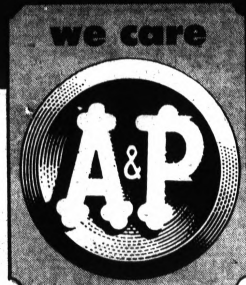

Traverse City, besides being known as the Cherry Capital, also is a heavy resort area and lures more than a quarter of a million visitors to the festival each year.

The U.S. Coast Guard is going to, lend an air-sea land spectacular flavor to the festival. It gets under way today when the cutter Mackinaw moves into Bowers Harbor with Cherry Queen Julie Anne Hamilton and her court of six other queens.

A "blessing of the cherries" ceremony will be held by the Council of Churches, giving thanks for bountiful crops of cherries which play such an important part in the economy of the area and the state.

Besides the participation of the Mackinaw, the Coast Guard from the Traverse City base Wednesday will put on an air-sea rescue demonstration and also provide color guards for other events.

Laws Sought on Riot-Area Insurers

NEW YORK (AP) — Insurance companies, digging deeply into their pockets for property losses incurred from racial disorders, have been canceling policies, state and city officials have disclosed.

To head off further cancellations, new laws are being sought. One measure signed last Wednesday by New Jersey Gov. Richard J. Hughes creates a high risk pool for danger areas similar to certain types of automobile insurance coverage.

New York State expects to follow suit on the pool plan in September.

Insurance officials have said the Royal Globe Insurance Co. and Continental Insurance Co. sent out policy cancellation notices before the Fourth of July. VIRTUALLY ALL.

However, a New York insurance official says virtually all firms that write insurance in the slums have acted to cancel some policies and are turning down others.

Paterson, N.J., has been notified that the fire insurance in its public school system will not be renewed when it expires July 15. Paterson was the scene last week of racial violence.

Most New Jersey policy cancellations were in the slum areas of Paterson, Trenton, and Newark. Damage estimates last July in Newark ranged up to $10 million in five days of rioting.

The new law signed by Gov. Hughes requires 30 days' notice before policy cancellation instead of five days, as required by the old statute.

RIOT LOSSES

Last week, CBS, News quoted H. Clay Johnson, president of Royal Globe, as saying his company, which writes about 3 percent of the property insurance in the country, had riot losses of $7.3 million last year, representing about 5 percent of the total.

The Michigan Insurance Bureau says Royal Globe has not cancellations in the Detroit area.

Illinois State Rep. Anthony Scardino says he is preparing legislation for a special session July 15 that would cancel state licenses of companies that refuse coverage in changing or marginal neighborhoods.

Kentucky Insurance Commissioner Robert Preston has ordered Royal Globe to appear at a hearing July 17 to show cause why it should not lose its license to do business in the state.

Herbert S. Denenberg, insurance consultant to the District of Columbia, says the average businessman has been paying five times the standard rates, and some as much as 17 times more, for race-related coverage. He added that business men face cancellations of "serious and unprecedented proportions."

The New York State law setting up an assigned risk pool gives insurance firms 90 days to comply. The insurance department also is relying upon passage of pending federal legislation providing financial support of such state plans.

Chicago Transit Strike Ends, but Union Still Split

CHICAGO (AP) — Bus and train service was back to normal today as striking drivers returned to work after a week of session with Mayor Richard J. Daley. Basic differences between the bus drivers union and dissident members, however, remained to be settled.

The agreement, reached Saturday evening during a seven-hour session in Daley's office, included promises from officials of the Chicago Transit Authority and officers of Division 241 of the Amalgamated Transit Union to meet with the rebel drivers, mostly Negroes, to arbitrate grievances.

The ruby-throated hummingbird, about 3 1/2 inches long, has around 940 feathers covering its body.

Surprise Advance Continues

Mart Rockets to Sizable Gain

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rocketed to a sizable gain early Monday afternoon after a four-day rest. Gains outnumbered losses by more than 3 to 1. The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 8.36 at 111.87.

The ticker tape ran as much as seven minutes late in the morning but had caught up by midday. At that hour, volume was about 2 1/2 million more shares than for the like period Wednesday, the last trading day prior to the July 4 week-end.

Brokers saw the rally as a continuation of the surprise advance that had come Wednesday, when normally cautious would have been expected prior to a four-day stretch. Some Wall Streeters attributed the rise to strong reinvestment demand, typical of the "traditional summer rally."

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 2.8 at 347.6 with industrials up 2.9, rails up 2.0 and utilities up 1.3.

Daley Again Enters Strike

Could Decide if Dems Can Stick With Site

CHICAGO (AP) — Mayor Richard J. Daley meets with representatives of union and management today in an effort to settle the city of Illinois Bell Telephone Co. strike.

The outcome of the session, Daley's fourth attempt to mediate the dispute, could decide whether the International Amphitheatre will remain the site of the August Democratic National Convention.

James W. Cook, Illinois Bell president, has set today as the deadline for installers to enter the convention hall if full communications facilities for news coverage of the convention are to be set up.

"If we're not in the hall by Monday, the total number of video channels we will be able to provide will be reduced," Cook said last week.

One measure would have been the Fed release billions of dollars into the housing market when the lack of funds threatens a downturn in activity.

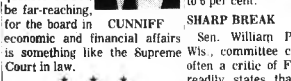

Stronger Controls Weighed

Congress Eyes the Fed

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK — A temptation to involve itself in the affairs of the Federal Reserve Bank that emanates from a common-sense group that steers the nation's monetary policy, may be growing stronger in Congress.

The consequences could be far-reaching, for the board in economic and financial affairs is something like the Supreme Court in law.

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

It's role, as it has been acted out, is to watch the economy and keep it in line—by raising or lowering basic interest rates, for example—regardless of the feelings of even so important a man as the president.

Over the years it has built a reputation as a severe and sometimes gloomy group not to be trifled with by Congress or anyone else. And so long as it didn't violate the laws, Congress couldn't move quickly against it.

However, Congress does control the laws under which the Fed acts and it is now considering changes in them.

One measure would have been the Fed release billions of dollars into the housing market when the lack of funds threatens a downturn in activity.

This proposal already has been called by Reserve Board Chairman William McChesney Martin, a man who should publicly but wins it nevertheless with colorful phrases, "a prostitution of the fundamental functions of the bank."

Meanwhile, Congress is also digesting a report from the Joint Economic Committee that suggests the establishment of guidelines for the Fed in its role of money supply. The permissible yearly increase would be 2 to 6 percent.

In handling the nation's monetary affairs, the Fed's objectives now are: maximum sustainable economic growth, reasonable price stability, maximum practicable employment, and equilibrium in international payments.

Evenly in carrying out these objectives, the Fed was bound to differ with Congress and the President. And on Dec. 2, 1965, there developed a confrontation with Lyndon Johnson. The President was spending heavily and otherwise following an expansive fiscal policy. The Fed stepped in and countered with a restrictive monetary policy. It raised interest rates.

This is like braking and accelerating at the same time, only worse. It also damages machinery; it sets the gears running in opposite directions.

The Fed was praised for its independence but it was damned also. A congressman accused Martin of being a monetary dictator. An economist called the move "an arrogant exercise in self-assertion." A professor termed it "unwarranted, anachronistic, ineffective and undemocratic."

The main thrust of the criticism was that the Fed should be made more responsive to the public interest by forcing it to coordinate its moves with fiscal policy.

Coed Nude Swimming Might Bare Some Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — I'll wear I don't know what gives with Margaret Mead. Sometimes I suspect she says some of the things she says just to shake people up.

In the current issue of Redbook, the outspoken lady anthropologist is suggesting WEST that we all start swimming in the nude. In public. In broad daylight. In mixed company.

If the connection between anthropology and coeducational skinny-dipping is not readily apparent, I point out that the science embraces man's environment and social relations. Nevertheless, Dr. Mead's suggestion doesn't sound very scientific to me.

'IT WOULD HELP'

She says nude swimming and sunbathing would help people "accept their own bodies and the bodies of others of both sexes and all ages without embarrassment."

This, in turn, "could mean a reduction in puritanism and prudery that would ultimately lead to a decrease in neuroses and certain kinds of crime."

Chances are it could lead to a number of other things as well, but I won't go into that. I submit that the basic premise itself is faulty.

The important thing to consider here is that some bodies look better than other bodies. And this probably is the cause of more neuroses than prudishness.

MORE APPARENT

It also is a known fact that the differences between bodies becomes more apparent, or began wearing clothes in the glaring, as the amount of first place covering diminishes.

Clothing is the great equalizer. With clothing, many of the nature's mistakes can be either hidden or neutralized. Which is the reason—mankind lot of built-in girders, I-beams, crosssties, keystones and other structural appendages.

Take, for example, a couple of girls on the beach. One is flapping around in a Bikini. The other wears a relatively figure? You know the answer as well as I.

Thus we see the fallacy of Dr.

Mead's assumption that resistance to public nudity is based on prudery. For women, the key factor is vanity. For men, it's a matter of esthetics.

I mean, can you imagine splashing around in the al-

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Neal Dayton, 18, was struck by a golf ball, which broke his contact lens and cut his eye, as he drove past Potter's Park Municipal Golf Course Sunday with the top of his car down. Dr. Mel Davis took him to Ft. Hamilton Hospital here where he was treated and released.

Big Work Load Dims Congress Hopes of Adjourning Aug. 3

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress, hoping to close out its 90th session before the political conventions next month, went into the homestretch today, immediately facing a large amount of major legislation.

Key floor or committee action on gun controls, foreign aid, housing, and President Johnson's Supreme Court appointments was expected before the end of the week as congressmen returned from a long Fourth of July weekend.

But prospects for meeting leaders' Aug. 3 adjournment target date were clouded by a brewing Senate fight over confirmation of the Supreme Court appointments.

The Aug. 3 deadline would be hard to meet even without such a fight. Major legislation yet to be dealt with includes 10 of the 13 regular appropriation bills.

FLOOR ACTION

Action on gun controls resumed today with House Rules Committee scheduling of floor action on a measure to extend the already-passed ban on mail-order sales of handguns to rifles shotguns and ammunition.

The Senate Judiciary Committee begins deliberations Tuesday on President Johnson's far stronger proposal to require registration of all guns and licensing of all owners.

The battle over confirmation of President Johnson's nomination of Supreme Court Associate Justice Abe Fortas as chief justice of the United States and Homer Thornberry as an associate justice gets a formal arena Thursday at the Senate Judiciary Committee hearings.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, as a leadoff witness, is expected to be questioned closely on whether a vacancy exists on the court.

NO VACANCY

Some committee members argue there is no vacancy because Johnson said Chief Jus-

'Fund Cutoff Won't Hurt SST Program'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the supersonic transport (SST) program says the project is in good shape despite House action in not appropriating funds for the big plane for the upcoming fiscal year.

In fact, the funds were left out because SST program planners didn't want the money, Air Force Maj. Gen. J. C. Maxwell said in an interview. Maxwell is director of the SST program for the Federal Aviation Administration.

"This decision against seeking money requested earlier was not forced down our throat; we took this position on our own without being told," Maxwell said about the House last week leaving SST funds out of the Transportation Department's $1.35 billion budget.

"It may be hard to believe, sort of like a Grimm's fairy tale, that we did not want more money, but that is the situation," Maxwell stated.

$186 MILLIONS

Although no new money is provided for the SST, the program will have available $186 million previously appropriated but not used.

Maxwell said this is sufficient to keep the program going while Boeing Co., prime contractor for the SST, submits new designs for the 1,800-mile-an-hour plane.

The plane, as originally designed, wouldn't have performed well enough to insure a commercially profitable aircraft, Maxwell explained. But Boeing has caught up with the problem and things are going satisfactorily now, he said.

"Things are going well and we are finding out what we wanted to know," he said, adding that Boeing still has alternative designs that could be used.

'SIMPLER' AIRPLANE

No new major difficulties are expected, Maxwell said, and it is remarkable that the airplane design looks as good as it does. It is a simpler airplane, more straightforward than the initial design, he added.

Representatives of airlines that made down-payments on 122 SSTs with Boeing will meet with officials of the aircraft firm next Tuesday to review the situation, Maxwell said.

Justice Earl Warren's retirement would be accepted when a replacement was appointed—and no replacement has been confirmed by the Senate.

Leaders of a group of 19 Republican senators have threatened to filibuster confirmation of the Senate floor but Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has said he would oppose such a filibuster and vote for confirmation.

The Republican opponents of Warren's replacement and a new justice to fill the vacancy should be appointed by the incoming president next January, not by Johnson whom they call a "lame duck" President.

In other action this week, a foreign-aid authorization bill, already cut $600 million in committee below Johnson's $2.9 billion request, faces further cuts and a close final vote in the House.

HOUSING BILL

The House is expected to pass a wide-ranging housing bill similar to one already passed by the Senate.

An Aug. 3 adjournment—coming just before the major political conventions and freeing the congressmen for reelection campaigns—would require scrapping some of Johnson's legislative program.

Likely casualties appear to be the President's proposals for stronger enforcement of equal opportunity laws, lowering of the voting age, extension of farm program, changes in electoral procedures, foreign-trade negotiating authority, a child health program and several conservation measures.

Further appropriation cuts are expected, particularly in foreign aid. Congress already has made large cuts in the President's antipoverty and education programs and all but ended his highway beautification program.

Tempo of Talks on Steel Contract Picks Up

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The tempo of talks for a new labor contract in the steel industry picks up today as negotiators return to work after a long holiday weekend.

Science Grant OK

HOLLAND (AP) — A $130,000 National Science Foundation grant has been awarded Hope College to develop a program designed to expand the college's role in the education of scientifically literate laymen, science teachers and scientists.

On Wednesday the union's advisory committee meets to review progress of the negotiations, which started at the plant level in May and converged in Pittsburgh on June 24.

On the following Tuesday the basic steel industry conference

meets and could call for a strike vote.

NO PROGRESS

Although virtually all local issues have been cleared up, there have been no reports of progress on the money talks and the questions of contract language.

Incentive pay is expected to be one of the toughest issues in the contract. The union wants all workers covered.

Despite an official news blackout, many other union goals have been made clear: A substantial pay increase, an automatic cost-of-living increase.

Body Recovered

GRAND LEDGE (AP) — The body of Juan Fiscal of Danville was recovered Saturday from the Grand River about 10 miles downstream from where he fell into the river while fishing June 30. Police said a portion of the riverbank apparently gave way, throwing Fiscal into the water.

increased pensions and earlier retirement, longer vacations and extra pay, a new job classification manual to plug loopholes created by automation, larger unemployment benefits and stricter rules on contracting work out of plants.

The proposed contract also would cut down on the work done by supervisors, guarantee better work hour scheduling, broaden training programs and pay all workers for their lunch hour.

The industry insists it will

15 Hurt in Brawl on Pleasure Boat

NEW YORK (AP) — At least 15 persons were injured Sunday when a free-for-all broke out among some of the 2,400 passengers aboard a chartered pleasure boat as it docked at the Battery.

About 250 patrolmen, responding to a riot call, stopped the melee in 45 minutes, but not before chairs, bottles and life preservers were hurled.

All of the injured, including two patrolmen, were treated at a hospital and released. One man was charged with inciting a riot.

The fight stemmed from an argument in the bar followed by pushing and shoving as passengers attempted to leave by one gangplank.

Class to Deal With Kidney

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — An introductory course in chemical engineering at the California Institute of Technology will concentrate on the design of a cheap and safe artificial kidney.

"We're trying to show our sophomores—through the use of this realistic problem—how science and engineering can be applied to important human needs," says Dr. William Corcoran, chemical engineering executive officer.

Students will visit hospitals, researchers and medical equipment manufacturers, Corcoran said, thus dealing with cost, maintenance, medical and biological problems in addition to chemistry.

Mount Clemens Brothers Drown; Father Missing

CODY, Wyo. (AP) — Two brothers drowned Saturday when a station wagon-bus driven by their father left a highway near the entrance to Yellowstone National Park and plunged into the swollen North Fork of the Shoshone River.

The father, Robert Walters of Mount Clemens, Mich., in his mid-40s is missing and presumed drowned. Witnesses said the man was last seen swimming from the bus, which was upside down in the river.

The bodies of Ted Walters, 5, and his brother, Doug, 7, were recovered.

Officers said the Volkswagen bus-camper, left U.S. 17, traveled 150 feet along a boulder, jumped the embankment and landed upside down in the river.

NY Japan Tourist Office Bomb Injures 2

NEW YORK (AP) — A bomb blast blew out the windows of the Japan National Tourist Organization office in Rockefeller Center Sunday. It was the second explosion in four days in the fashionable Fifth Avenue area, and the fifth since April 22.

The bomb went off about 4:45 p.m. in the closed tourist office in the International Building, directly across from Rockefeller Center's outdoor restaurant and half a block from St. Patrick's Cathedral.

On April 22, explosions shattered windows of the Spanish National Tourist Office, 48th Street and Fifth Avenue, and the Mexican Consulate, at 41st Street and Fifth Avenue. At the Spanish offices and Fifth Avenue.

Injured were two passers-by, Mrs. Shirley Schwabe, 42, of Portland, Ore., and her daughter, Nancy, 16. A second daughter, Joan, 12, escaped injury. The Schwabes were taken to Policlinic Hospital for treatment of face cuts. Their injuries were not serious.

The Spanish office was bombed for a second time on June 21.

On the Fourth of July, an explosion rocked the street-level offices of the Canadian consulate general at 54th Street and Fifth Avenue.

Nation's Reds Pick Negro for President

NEW YORK (AP) — A 38-year-old Negro woman from Harlem is the Communist party's candidate for president.

Charlene Mitchell was nominated Sunday at the end of a four-day convention of the Communist party, U.S.A.

"We plan to put an open occupancy sign on the White House lawn," Mrs. Mitchell said, "and we propose to put a woman in that house to beautify not only our highways but to beautify our lives."

Mrs. Mitchell is the first Communist presidential candidate since 1940.

NATION'S MAJOR PROBLEM

It was expected that party general secretary Gus Hall would be the candidate, but Mrs. Mitchell said that the "struggle for black liberation" is the nation's major problem and the party felt a Negro could best carry the issue to the people.

For vice president, the party's convention nominated Michael Zagarell, a 24-year-old white Brooklyn man who is the party's national youth secretary.

Noting that the U.S. Constitution requires a president and vice president to be 35 years old, Zagarell conceded to newsmen that his youth might raise questions about the sincerity of the party in nominating him.

Zagarell is awaiting trial in connection with an arrest during an antidraft demonstration.

Touring President Sounds New Hope for Hemisphere

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) — President Johnson sets out from the capital of San Salvador today for quick visits to four other Central American countries and declared that he seeks "a road of new hope for this hemisphere."

Johnson, in El Salvador since Saturday for Central American summit talks, was bound for Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras and Guatemala before settling down tonight at his Texas ranch.

In each country, he was dropping off one of the presidents who met with him during the weekend.

Johnson, in remarks prepared for departure ceremonies at San Salvador, spoke of "the new strength and promise that we have here added to our partnership." He cautioned "The road that brought us here has no rainbow at its end—not yet."

He said the nations of Central America, with the help of the United States, "have celebrated what there is to celebrate" during the summit and "have determined to master the challenges that remain."

He said there was much to celebrate and many challenges to be met. He added that the meeting had "been fruitful because it has been responsible."

Never before has any U.S. president visited all five Central American republics, and Johnson's reception in El Salvador seemed to indicate his effort was appreciated.

Despite some fresh eggs, paint bombs and the surrounding countryside Sunday, he climbed onto the running board of his long black bubbletop limousine at least five times to greet closepacked street crowds, shake hands and deliver brief and impromptu "Muchas gracias" speeches over the car's built-in loudspeakers.

This was the veteran campaigner back at work. He even seemed to have a running mate — El Salvador's President Fidel Sanchez Hernandez, who toured city and countryside, schools and scenic waterfalls with the visiting Yankee.

Time Key Factor for Gun Bill OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House is expected to pass a gun control bill this week, but there is doubt a law providing stiffer restrictions on weapons can be sent to the President before Congress adjourns next month.

The House measure which is before the Rules Committee today, calls for a ban on the mail-order sale of rifles and shotguns and ammunition.

The more controversial bill calling for registration and licensing is scheduled for action Tuesday by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Opponents of the more stringent laws, led by the National Rifle Association, launched a drive to keep Congress from acting. This effort seemed to crest about the time President Johnson asked for laws registering all guns and licensing their owners.

SUPPORTERS ARE HOPEFUL

Even so, the supporters remained hopeful that the committee will report out a gun control bill containing a registration provision.

TWO DIE IN FIERY CRASH — This car plunged over the guard rail on I-70 in St. Louis, Mo., Saturday, caught fire and trapped two persons inside. Their bodies were charred beyond recognition. A third person escaped with serious burns. Police said the car had apparently been involved in a drag race prior to the crash.

Traffic Toll of 594 Is Below Estimate

By The Associated Press
Traffic accidents on the nation's roads and highways killed 594 persons over the four-day Fourth of July weekend.

This was below the National Safety Council's prediction that 700 to 800 persons might die over the holiday period, which began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and ended at midnight Sunday.

In a recent nonholiday weekend of the same length 553 deaths occurred on the nation's roads.

A spokesman for the safety council said there appeared to be "a faint glimmer of hope" in the figures.

AN IMPROVEMENT

"This is the third major holiday this year we have either been under the estimate or near the bottom of it," the spokesman said. "This estimate isn't anything but a projection of past experience so perhaps it indicates there is a genuine improvement under way."

"Traffic deaths during last year's four-day Independence Day holiday period

numbered 732—a record high for any Fourth of July and also for any summer holiday.

The lowest traffic toll during any Independence Day four-day period since World War II was 231 in 1946.

The record traffic toll for any holiday period was 748 set during the four-day observance of Thanksgiving in 1966.

BOATING TOLL

Boating accidents took 45 lives during the current holiday period while drowning accidents not involving boats took another 180.

Injuries Fatal to Pontiac Man

A 25-year-old man died in Pontiac General Hospital yesterday of injuries received in an accident at a Pontiac intersection Saturday.

Dillard E. McBride of 36 Baid was injured when the car he was driving went out of control on West Kennett about 4:45 p.m., according to police.

Officers said McBride was headed east on Kennett near West Mansfield when the car skidded sideways, slammed into an island and rolled over.

The victim was thrown from the car, then pinned under it, police said.

Banker Protection for Pound Assured

LONDON (AP) — Central Bankers from 12 countries — excluding France — have agreed to join in a new insurance scheme to protect Britain from massive speculation against the pound, the Bank of England announced today.

The Bank of England statement, based on results of a meeting of central bankers at Basel, Switzerland yesterday, gave no indication of the size of the proposed new standby credits for the pound.

Some predictions have put the size of the eventual package at $2 billion to $2.4 billion, which would cover about a third of Britain's overseas sterling liabilities.

Fire Kills 7 in Family

CARBONAR, Nfld. (AP) — A 59-year-old father and six of his eight children died early today when fire swept through their home in this Conception Bay community, 50 miles northwest of St. John's.

Police said the 37-year-old mother and two daughters, age 3 and 12, were in serious condition in a hospital here. The children who died in the blaze ranged in age from 2 to 11 years.

Plan for Pontiac to Be Outlined

Architect C. Don Davidson will outline provisions of a plan proposed for the redevelopment of Pontiac's downtown urban renewal land at a community luncheon meeting at 12:10 p.m. tomorrow at the Pontiac Elks Lodge, 114 Orchard Lake.

Tickets at $2.25 per person, to cover the cost of the roast beef luncheon, are available at the Perry Street and Pontiac Mall branches of Community National Bank; the Hayes Jones Community Center; Osamu's men's store, Tel-Huron branch; and Dickinson's men's store, or at the door tomorrow.

Threat of Showers Through Tuesday

This morning's sunshine disappeared under a heavy cloud cover from the southwest as humidity and temperatures started to climb.

With the clouds came the threat of occasional thunderstorms and showers. The damp prediction will last through tomorrow.

Precipitation possibilities in per cent are today 20, tonight 40 and tomorrow 40. Temperatures will be a little cooler tomorrow.

On Wednesday, according to the weatherman's prognostications, fair skies and mild temperatures will delight the picnic band.

Low mercury reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 66. By 1 p.m. the thermometer read 82.

6 at Stoney Creek Face 'Pot' Charges

Romeo State Police arrested six youths in two separate incidents late Saturday and yesterday at Stoney Creek Metropolitan Park and charged them with possession of marijuana.

Four Detroiters, all students at Wayne State University, were discovered Saturday afternoon by park rangers near one of the park's fishing areas.

Police identified them as Robert P. Ryan, 21, Michael Zitomer, 21, Jeffrey Feldman, 20, and Judith Wadsworth, 20.

According to police, the four were acting peculiarly and at first were thought to be intoxicated. When they were seen rolling cigarettes and passing them around, police were called and the narcotics charge was made.

IDENTICAL CHARGES

At 7:50 a.m. yesterday police arrested two other youths on identical charges. They were identified as Edward Okalski

Jr., 21, of 2154 Milverton, Troy, and James R. Charnitski, 21, of Warren. They also were first discovered by park rangers who were suspicious of the pair's actions and again called police.

All six stood mute at their arraignment yesterday and were released on $2,000 bond each pending examination Wednesday before Justice Edmund C. Schmidt of Mt. Clemens.

broken arm. The girl, Cynthia Masters, was watching television when the plane crashed shortly after takeoff from nearby Glenview Naval Air Station. (Story, page A-2.)

VIET RIVER WARFARE — Small gunboats and troop carriers of the U.S. Navy mobile riverine force carry troops of the 199th Light Infantry Brigade on patrol down a Saigon River tributary. The force is on an operation against Vietcong units in the area. Saigon can be seen in the background. The river patrols plus helicopter lifts attempt to prevent Vietcong troop movements.

McCarthy: Wouldn't Lead 4th Party

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says flatly he would not become an independent presidential candidate if he loses the Democratic nomination—but that he could support a fourth party drive by someone else.

Serum Rallies Heart Recipient

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Dr. Philip Blaiberg, the world's longest surviving heart transplant patient, rallied Sunday from the worst setback since his operation Jan. 2. His doctors used a new serum and indicated they no longer plan another heart transplant for him.

Blaiberg's wife, Eileen, said she was told by Dr. Christian Barnard, head of Groote Schuur Hospital's heart transplant team, that her husband's condition had undergone a "dramatic change."

"It's as if they had given new life to my husband," she said. "I'm hoping and praying the serum treatment will be successful."

Mrs. Blaiberg visited her husband yesterday and said he seemed much better. "We talked a great deal," she said.

COMPLICATIONS

Blaiberg, a 59-year-old retired dentist, had been gravely ill with hepatitis, double pneumonia, and symptoms that his transplanted heart was failing. Barnard had said a second heart transplant might be attempted, but a hospital bulletin last night said: "No further emergency treatment is anticipated."

Record Texas Rains Bring Floods, Kill 5

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — Torrential weekend downpours of up to 6.25 inches—almost as much as the average annual rainfall—claimed five lives and caused widespread flooding in El Paso and Juarez across the Rio Grande in Mexico.

An estimated 40 homes were swept away by floodwaters in Juarez, and 125 persons were evacuated. The rainstorms, termed the worst since 1913, caused an estimated $4 million in damage in Juarez.

Rafael Reyes, 41, Canutillo died when his car skidded on a wet El Paso street and overturned. Four other persons died in Juarez during the downpours—one youth was killed by a bolt of lightning and three other persons drowned.

Asst. Police Chief Ted Vogel said 45 persons were evacuated from their homes in El Paso by police Saturday. Trucks from nearby Ft. Bliss evacuated several dozen more.

SILT DAMAGES SECTIONS

Dozens of homes were damaged as flood waters three feet deep swept low sections of El Paso and rocks and silt rolled down from Mt. Franklin.

The Minnesota senator again refused to say he could support Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey as the Democratic presidential nominee and said he could support a fourth party drive under specific conditions.

During the past eight days, U.S. Air Force B52 bombers have flown 36 missions just above the southern half of the DMZ along the southern fringes of North Vietnam to ease pressure on American forces along the northern border.

Silt piled up two feet deep in some streets and El Paso fire department was kept busy Sunday pumping water from store and home basements. "If we don't get any more rain, we'll be in real good shape," Police Lt. R. C. Moeller said late Sunday night. "We are pretty well cleaned up now. We still have some people who haven't returned home because their houses are still water logged. Quite a few streets have been blocked by mud and debris but we have them all open now."

Girl, 13, Dies as Jet Crashes Into Home

GLENVIEW, Ill. (AP) — A Navy Skyhawk jet crashed into a home Sunday and killed a 13-year-old girl. The pilot ejected and suffered broken legs and a broken arm.

Cynthia Masters, an eightgrade pupil, was watching television in the den on the first floor when fire caused by the crash engulfed the family's $50,000 two-story suburban home.

Witnesses said the plane, piloted by Navy Lt. William T. Reinders, a Vietnam veteran, crashed moments after taking off on a training flight from the Glenview Naval Air Station.

Reinders, 32, bailed the craft sharply, trying to turn back toward the airfield, but it plummeted into the home of Benjamin C. Masters, an acoustical tile contractor.

Robert S. Alexander of Bloomington, who was flying his single-engine plane to a nearby airport, said, "the entire house went up in a ball of fire in what seemed like seconds. I never saw anything burn so fast."

Reinders, who lives in Harvey, a suburb south of Chicago, took off on a training flight in the attack fighter at 9:18 a.m. A Navy spokesman said he realized the control tower, "I'm losing power."

Seconds later, Reinders ejected and landed in a willow tree behind the Masters home. He was listed in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

Could Save $1 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department, under strong pressure to slash spending, is working on plans that could trim more than 150,000 jobs from its civilian payroll.

Budgeting officials estimate this could save slightly more than $1 billion a year.

There is about a third of the $3 billion that Pentagon officials expect they will have to slice from defense spending this bookkeeping year in response to congressional orders.

But the Pentagon has been given no time limit for cutting its civilian work force, now totaling some 1.2 million men and women in virtually every state and overseas.

Presumably, the process could extend into the next fiscal year.

Such support would be possible, he said, if the independent ticket "was substantial, had good leadership and was presenting the right choice to the people, and if neither of the other two parties was presenting what I thought was a choice that anywhere from a third to half of the people of this country want to make in 1968."

Humphrey, meanwhile, said he would support McCarthy if the senator became the Democratic presidential nominee. But the vice president said he believes he and Republican Richard M. Nixon will be the candidates on the November ballot.

They Must Wait for What He Ate

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis. (UPI) — The Secret Service is watching Dennis L. Uranis, 37. They think he's a human piggy bank.

Uranis was arrested Saturday. Ozaukee County authorities said, after trying to seal a man 11 defaced pennies for $250. That's a federal offense.

He put a mint mark on the copper coins to make them look more valuable to collectors, authorities said, but apparently swallowed them before they could get a good look.

X rays disclosed a "metallic object," something like a roll of pennies, in Uranis' stomach, officials said.

Japan's Pro-U.S. Party in Strong Lead in Voting

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's ruling conservative party, after campaigning for continued close ties with the United States, took a commanding lead today in returns from the upper house elections.

With 70 per cent of yesterday's vote counted, Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's Liberal Democrats were assured 58 of the 126 seats at stake in the 250-seat House of Councillors. Since they also have 68 uncontested seats, they had a good chance of boosting their strength beyond the 139 they had.

The anti-American Socialists, who want the U.S.-Japan security treaty scrapped and American military bases removed from Japanese soil, had won 16 seats and held 37 that were not in contest.

They were not expected to reach the total of 73 seats they held before the election.

BUDDHIST ARM

The Kometto party, political arm of the Buddhist Soka Gakkai sect, had 10 seats; conservative independents were assured four, and the Communists three. The pro-American trend also was apparent in the popular vote, in which the Liberal Democrats gained 5 per cent and the Socialists dropped 1 per cent from vote totals garnered in the previous upper house contest.

There are no indications of wholesale firings. The Pentagon hopes to accomplish its objective mainly through attrition.

This is in line with the apparent intent of Congress which ruled recently that federal agencies may fill no more than 75 per cent of job vacancies created by the resignation, retirement, death or removal of full time employees.

What this all amounts to is a belt-tightening, a partial freeze, and fewer opportunities for people looking for jobs with the armed services or defense agency.

Since studies are now under way, officials say they cannot tell what the around Saigon, too, attempting to discourage massing of enemy regiments for an attack on the capital. The eight-jet Stratoforters flew eight missions Sunday and Monday 45 to 75 miles north and northwest of Saigon.

The fighting at the eastern flank of the DMZ centered around Gio Linh, an allied combat base three miles south of the buffer strip.

In two clashes yesterday, U.S.S. Marines, backed by dive bombers, artillery and tanks, reported 67 North Vietnamese soldiers killed. Marine casualties were put at five killed and 17 wounded.

In a day-long action last Friday near Gio Linh, the Marines said they killed 134 North Vietnamese soldiers while suffering five dead and 64 wounded.

Birmingham Parking Lot Issue to Be Considered

BIRMINGHAM — The leasing of parking spaces in a municipally owned lot to tenants of the Reid Building on North Woodward will be considered tonight at 8 by the City Commission.

Under review will be a report originally submitted to the commission in November 1966.

The report, which the commission requested be resubmitted for discussion, outlines several methods that could be implemented to provide reserved spaces in the lot at the rear of the office building.

Also included in the report is a list of several questions raised by the city administration regarding precedent should the city reserve spaces in a public parking lot.

DIFFICULTY NOTED

James H. Purkiss, city director of finance, noted in the report that it would be difficult to justify refusing to provide similar arrangements in any or all of the municipal lots if reserve spaces are set aside in one particular lot.

Assistant City Manager John F. Saeffe has offered one solution to alleviating the parking problem for tenants in the Reid Building.

Saeffe suggested that it might be possible for the tenants and the building owners consider developing a parcel of property north of the building for private use.

According to the report of two and half years ago, the city could make a number of arrangements for reserved or lease parking.

CARD CONTROL GATE

The most desirable, the report said, would be the installation of a card control gate, similar to those employed at a number of hospitals and universities.

The method is self-policing in that the entrance to that section of the lot can be gained only by the holder of a card or key device.

The arrangement, however, would require the removal of a number of parking spaces in order to provide turn arounds.

Last Key Bastion Falls in Paris

PARIS (AP) — The last major bastion of the student rebellion at the University of Paris fell without a fight today.

Police at dawn moved into the new medical school on the Rue des Saints-Peres and evicted the last 17 students holding out in the big four-story building. The red flag waving over the roof was hauled down. It was the last important University of Paris building held by the students whose revolt early in May touched off France's worst postwar crisis.

The police were helmeted and carried rifles, but there was no resistance. The students, who included four girls, whistled and joked as they were taken away for questioning.

The holdouts had been waiting for days for the police to come. They said they would not oppose them.

"A single tear gas bomb through the windows would send us all running," said one.

TOOK OVER SORBONNE

On June 16 the police took over the Sorbonne, the headquarters of the revolt. The school of fine arts, which produced anti-De Gaulle posters, was taken on June 27. Last Friday it was the turn of the school of science and the new Sorbonne annex on the Rue Censier.

There was no resistance at any of them. A few dozen students were taken to a police station, and some were kept overnight. Some of them wrote newspapers charging that they were not fed nor allowed to call their parents.

Police also arrested a few persons who were not students, including several of the "Katangese" who had made trouble at the Sorbonne. They got their name from some of their number who said they had served with mercenary troops in the Congo's Katanga province.

Blues Are Black, Says Ray Charles

By ANDREW FISHER
NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI)—Blues singing, according to a fellow who does it just about as well as anyone has ever done, may just not be a white man's game.

Can a white man sing the blues? Someone asked Ray Charles backstage. He had just done an hour and a half before a final night crowd at the Newport Jazz Festival that would have been hard pressed to have been more enthusiastic.

"Not being white, I don't know," he joked at first. But then he got serious.

"To me, blues are synonymous with the black man," Charles said. "It's only in the past few years that they've been taken up by the white race."

HE WOVED 'EM

The blind singer had just wowed a crowd of 9,000 with "Yesterday," "Eleanor Rigby," "Georgia on My Mind," "Ode to Billy Joe" and other favorites.

His screaming partisans particularly favored "Eleanor Rigby," a mournful Beatles song.

The Albany, Ga., native said the various musical forms — jazz, pop, rock, rhythm and blues — are converging. "Rhythm and blues has been here ever since I can remember and it's just beginning to make the pop charts now."

HAS TO BE VISUAL

But he seemed to be down on psychedelic or "acid-rock" music.

Alluding to his blindness, the 39-year-old Charles commented, "I think psychedelic music has to be visual as well as aural." Asked if he liked it, he said, "you'll have to ask somebody more knowledgeable than me."

Festival Artist Balks at Appeal on Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — A performer at the American Folklife Institute walked off the stage Sunday to protest a civil rights leader's appeal for more racial cooperation.

Ace Reid, a cowboy cartoonist, walked from the stage as the Rev. Frederick D. Kirkpatrick urged the audience to put to work the message of a song, "This Little Light of Mine, Lord."

"Go back home and let your little light shine," the Rev.

State Festival for Cherries Starts Today

By United Press International

Now it's Traverse City's turn. The National Cherry Festival, which is in the heart of the state's heaviest cherry producing area, gets under way today with a full week of activities scheduled.

Traverse City, besides being known as the Cherry Capital, also is a heavy resort area and lures more than a quarter of a million visitors to the festival each year.

The U.S. Coast Guard is going to lend an air-sea-land spectacular flavor to the festival. It gets under way today when the cutter Mackinaw moves into Bowers Harbor with Cherry Queen Julie Anne Hamilton and her court of six other queens.

A "blessing of the cherries" ceremony will be held by the Council of Churches, giving thanks for bountiful crops of cherries which play such an important part in the economy of the area and the state.

Besides the participation of the Mackinaw, the Coast Guard from the Traverse City base Wednesday will put on an air-sea rescue demonstration and also provide color guards for other events.

Kirkpatrick, a member of the Poor People's Campaign, said. Reid said he didn't believe a civil rights appeal had a place in a festival about American folklife.

The incident came at the end of the five-day festival, which was sponsored by the Smithsonian Institute to celebrate the cultural contribution of folk culture to American life.

TEXAS IS HONORED

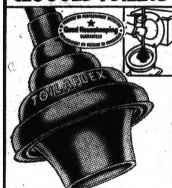

Sunday night's four-hour concert and to honor Texas folk artists and to pay tribute to John A. Lomax Sr., an expert in folk culture who was a major force in popularizing folk music.

The performers at the concert, which ended the festival, were Texans representing varied ethnic and cultural backgrounds.

A highlight of the program was the appearance on stage of Lomax's four children: Allen, John, Beth, and Shirley. They talked about their father and sang several of the songs he popularized.

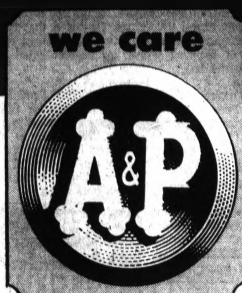

Texas Gov. John Connally sent a message praising Lomax's role in preserving the folklore of the nation.

After 4-Day Holiday

Stock Market Rallies Briskly

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied briskly today after a four-day trading gap.

Gains outnumbered losses by about 3 to 1, and the Dow Jones industrial average was ahead half a dozen points. The New York Stock Exchange Index confirmed the rise with a sizable advance.

Prices rose from the opening. Gains of a point or more were scattered through various groups.

Up a point or better were Montgomery Ward, Occidental Petroleum, Kodak, United Aircraft, Eastman Kodak and U.S. Smelting.

Owens-Illinois, warmed by merger prospects with Lilly-Tulip, gained about 2 points.

Fractional gains on big volume were scored by American Telephone, Glen Alden, American Motors, Southern Pacific, Union Carbide, W. S. Heller, Standard Oil (New Jersey), Seaboard Finance and General Electric.

Analysts said that reinvestment pressure was building up as it usually does in July and was spurred by the surprising rally of Wednesday, before the market closed for the long Independence Day weekend. There was no trading Friday.

Hope that the summer rally was getting under way was an element in the background which also was brightened by good news from the auto and steel industries.

Opening prices included: Occidental Petroleum, up 1 1/4 at 54 on 26,000 shares; AT&T, up 1/4 at 52 on 22,000; Southern Pacific, up 1/4 at 34 on 16,000; Standard Oil (New Jersey), up 1/4 at 69 on 13,000, and Union Carbide, up 1/4 at 43 on 14,000. On Wednesday, the Associated Press Average of 60 Stocks closed at 345.0, a new high for the year.

Prices advanced on the American Stock Exchange.

Daley Again Enters Strike

Could Decide if Dems Can Stick With Site

CHICAGO (AP)—Mayor Richard J. Daley meets with representatives of union and management today in an effort to settle the 62-day old Illinois Bell Telephone Co. strike.

The outcome of the session—Daley's fourth attempt to mediate the dispute—could decide whether the International Amalgamated will remain the site of the August Democratic National Convention.

James W. Cook, Illinois Bell president, has set today as the deadline for initially to enter the convention hall if full communications facilities for news coverage of the convention are to be set up.

"If we're not in the hall by Monday, the total number of video channels will be reduced," Cook said last week.

CHANGES VIEWED

However, Congress does control the laws under which the Fed acts, and it is now considering changes in them.

One measure would have the Fed release billions of dollars into the housing market when a lack of funds threatens a downturn in activity.

Work outside the convention hall and at the 28 central telephone exchange buildings has been completed. Remaining in the installation of television cables, 6,000 telephones, 200 switchboards and more than 400 teletype machines.

The manpower and equipment to complete the job in time are available, Bell officials contend. What they fear is that picket lines will be thrown around the amphitheater to deny them and other craftsmen access to the hall.

There is also a fear picket lines will force nonstriking union workers—such as painters and carpenters—to walk off the job.

FLINT (AP)—About 2,500 general city employees, garbage collectors and hospital workers went on strike today against the City of Flint and Hurley Hospital, which the city owns.

The hospital employees included general hospital workers and licensed practical nurses.

The strike followed a break-down Saturday in contract talks.

Pickets were set up at the hospital, city maintenance yards and at city hall.

SERVICE CURTAILED

Hospital officials said service was curtailed and that some patients might have to be transferred to other hospitals.

Garbage collection was expected to be interrupted.

NEWSPAPER STRIKE

DETROIT (UPI)—Emerging from a four-day Independence holiday lull, the opposing sides of the Detroit newspaper strike were to talk again today in the 28th day of the blackout.

Representatives of the Detroit News and the Detroit Free Press and the striking Mailers were to hunt for a mutually satisfactory agreement at a morning meeting. The Mailers, one of six striking unions to strike the Detroit papers after a Teamsters' walkout triggered the blackout Nov. 16, earlier rejected the recommendations offered by labor mediator Nathan P. Feinsinger.

Those guidelines, outlining a $33 wage hike package over three years, were accepted by the other striking unions.

Another them to be smoothed out before settlement of the strike, now the longest in American newspaper history, was the friction between the

MAKE OVER DAILY

Congress Eyes the Fed

By JOHN CUNIFF AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—A temptation to leave fiscal in the hands of the Federal Reserve Board, that semiautonomous group that steers the nation's monetary policy, may be growing stronger in Congress.

The congressional committees could be far-reaching, for the board in economic and financial affairs is something like the Supreme Court in law.

There may be a clue to future events in that phrase, for some critics feel the independence of the board has been damaging to the nation's economy. Congress could change the laws; its hand could become heavier than in the past.

Its role, as it has been acted, is to watch the economy and keep it in line by raising or lowering basic interest rates, for example—regardless of the feelings of even so important a man as the president.

Over the years it has built a reputation as a severe and sometimes gloomy group not to be trifled with by Congress or anyone else. And so long as it didn't violate the laws, Congress couldn't move quickly against it.

GETTING INVOLVED

As the years went by it was recognized that the basic aims of the Reserve Board involved it also in other affairs of state. And in 1966, when it became an official goal of economic policy to seek maximum employment consistent with a balanced economy, the Fed's role became even more complex.

In handling the nation's monetary affairs, the Fed's objectives now are: maximum sustainable economic growth, reasonable price stability, maximum practicable employment and equilibrium in international payments.

Evenually in carrying out these objectives, the Fed was bound to differ with Congress and the President. And on Dec. 2, 1965, there developed a confrontation with Lyndon Johnson.

The President was spending heavily and otherwise following an expansive fiscal policy. The Fed stepped in and countered with a restrictive monetary policy: it raised interest rates.

ONLY WORSE

This is like braking and accelerating at the same time, only worse. It also damages the money; it sets the gears running in opposite directions.

The Fed was praised for its independence but it was damned also. A congressman accused Martin of being a puppet dictator. An economist called the move "an arrogant exercise in self-assertion. A professor termed it "unwarranted, anarchistic, ineffective and undemocratic."

The main thrust of the criticism was that the Fed should be made more responsive to the public interest by forcing it to coordinate its moves with fiscal policy.

Nothing much was done about the criticisms at the time, but the argument has continued to simmer. In fact, Congress has been dealing with some aspects of the situation right now.

Tempo of Talks on Steel Contract Picks Up

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The tempo of talks for a new labor contract in the steel industry picks up today as negotiators return to work after a long holiday weekend. Only 24 days remain before the old contract expires. The United Steelworkers Union traditionally refuses to work without one.

meets and could call for a strike vote.

NO PROGRESS

Although virtually all local issues have been cleaned up, there have been no reports of progress on the money talks and the questions of contract language.

Incentive pay is expected to be one of the toughest issues in the contract. The union wants all workers covered.

Despite an official news blackout, many other union

goals have been made clear: A substantial pay increase, an automatic cost-of-living increase, increased pensions and earlier retirement, longer vacations and extra pay, a new job classification manual to plug loopholes created by automation, larger unemployment benefits and stricter rules on contracting work out of plants.

The proposed contract also would cut down on the work done by supervisors, guarantee better work hour scheduling, broaden training programs and pay all workers for their lunch hour.

fight any package that costs 6 per cent a year, the pattern established by the union in the can and aluminum negotiations.

Officially the union has not put a figure on what it wants. However, they believe the rank and file would not settle for anything less than what can and aluminum workers got.

Body Recovered

GRAND LEDGE (AP) — The body of Juan Fical of Danville was recovered Saturday from the Grand River about 10 miles downstream from where he fell into the river while fishing June 30. Police said a portion of the riverbank apparently gave way, throwing Fical into the water.

Science Grant OK

HOLLAND (AP) — A $130,300 National Science Foundation grant has been awarded Hope College to develop a program designed to expand the college's role in the education of scientifically literate laymen, science teachers and scientists.

On Wednesday the union's advisory committee meets to review progress of the negotiations, which started at the plant level in May and converged in Pittsburgh on June 24.

On the following Tuesday the basic steel industry conference

15 Hurt in Brawl on Pleasure Boat

NEW YORK (AP) — At least 15 persons were injured Sunday when a free-for-all broke out among some of the 2,400 passengers aboard a chartered pleasure boat as it docked at the Battery.

About 250 patrolmen, responding to a call, stopped the melee in 45 minutes, but not before chairs, bottles and life preservers were hurled.

All of the injured, including two patrolmen, were treated at a hospital and released. One man was charged with inciting a riot.

The fight stemmed from an argument in the bar followed by pushing and shoving as passengers attempted to leave by one gangplank.
