WATERFORD'S QUEEN — Nancy Serra, 17, passed all of the tests with flying colors and became Waterford Township's new symbol of beauty last night. She was crowned by last year's queen, Barbara Coe. With the selection of the township's most beautiful and talented girl, the three-day Junior Chamber of Commerce annual Sports and Builders Show was brought to a spectacular close. Nancy was chosen from a list of 12 candidates, all high school seniors. Sue Shaw of 3071 Old Orchard Road, was runner-up. Nancy plans to attend Western Michigan University next fall, majoring in mathematics. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Serra of 3642 Silver Sands Drive. More than 5,000 persons attended the show at the Community Center on Williams Lake Road, according to general Chairman Jack Cooper.

Offers Bonus for Social Reform

JFK Ready on Foreign Aid

Five-Year Plan to Cost $7 Billion Under 1 Agency

Program Faces Battle in Congress Over Lack of Control Feature

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy plans to send Congress tomorrow a new foreign aid program including a five-year, $7-billion development fund and bonuses for nations making social reforms.

Administration officials said the President's message would propose total spending on economic and military aid of about $4 billion a year—the amount provided in the final Eisenhower budget last January.

Of this sum, about $2.3 billion would be for economic assistance and $1.7 billion would be in military aid. More than half of the economic aid would be provided under the five-year development fund.

The administration officials who disclosed the plan acknowledged it faced an uphill fight in Congress, which has insisted on a year-to-year control of the foreign aid program.

Kennedy was reported ready to propose:

PLAN OUTLINED

—Creating a new foreign economic aid agency to tie together, under broad State Department policy direction, the work of the present International Cooperation Administration (ICA), the Development Loan Fund (DLF), the food-for-peace program and the new Peace Corps.

—Preference to aid-requesting nations that offer realistic national development plans.

—Special aid bonuses to countries that promise to carry out social reforms such as plugging tax loopholes, redistributing farm land, setting up credit agencies for small farmers and small businessmen, and other steps to guarantee that the poor masses share the fruits of U.S.-guided economic development.

Officials said the new administration did not intend to cut off aid to dictatorships or try to use American aid as a blunt weapon to force American-style economic democracy on everybody.

But they said it did intend to try to entice aid-seeking nations

Detectives Hide Identity in Local Cars

NEW WEAPON AGAINST CRIME — These are some of the seven Tempests which will be used by plainclothes officers of the Pontiac Police Department. Each is a different color so as to make their identity difficult for criminals. With the cars are (from left): Police Chief Joseph Koren, Det. Charles E. Hewitt, Sgt. Allen D. Noble and Det. Orville C. Johnston.

Tempest to Enlist in War Against the Underworld

By MAX SIMON

The sight of a new Tempest will soon be sending chills through underworld characters in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

The Tempest is the Pontiac Police Department's latest addition in the battle against crime.

Seven of the new Pontiac Motor Division economy cars have been added to the city's police fleet.

First of the compacts to be used by police here, the cars are slated for use by plain-clothes officers. All the Tempests will be unmarked cars.

★ ★ ★

Criminals seeking to elude capture will have a hard time picking out the Tempests with detectives behind the wheel.

Knowing the color of the car won't help.

Each of them will be a different color.

The only recourse for the fugitive will be to duck at the sight of every Tempest on the street.

"That's rather impractical with Pontiac the home of the Tempest," said Police Chief Joseph Koren.

In addition to the unmarked Tempests, the department has added eight new Pontiac Catalinas among its cruisers.

"Patrolmen need the powerful engine for high-speed pursuits and quick take-offs," the chief said.

The new cars bring the police fleet up to 15 unmarked cars and 18 marked cruisers.

See Approval of School Bill

JFK Forces Confident of Passage if Religion, Segregation Kept Out

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Administration forces appeared confident today that Congress would approve President Kennedy's aid-to-education program if the religious and segregation issues could be kept out.

Both Welfare Secretary Abraham A. Ribicoff and Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., senate manager of the Kennedy program, predicted the lawmakers would reject parochial and private school amendments and pass the legislation without major change.

But Ribicoff conceded that the $2.3 billion to help build public schools and raise teachers' pay was in "a great deal of trouble" because of the Roman Catholic hierarchy's efforts to include federal aid for sectarian schools. He said the administration would have to use plenty of persuasion to get its proposals through Congress.

Morse, chairman of the Senate Education subcommittee, agreed with Ribicoff. He said that Congress never would approve the measure if an antisegregation rider or nonpublic school aid were added.

Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., also said Kennedy's program had an excellent chance of winning Senate approval if it were kept free of these amendments.

Morse denounced advocates of such amendments for what he termed their attempt "to use the political power of a bloc to say, in effect, unless you yield to us you'll get no legislation."

He promised, however, to back a separate measure to provide interest-bearing federal loans to church-supported and private schools.

Ribicoff declined to say whether the administration would support a separate bill in return for Catholic leaders ending their campaign to include such help in the Kennedy program.

Protestant groups continued to attack the Catholic stand. In testimony prepared for delivery today of Morse's subcommittee, the National Council of Churches of Christ opposed any provision for parochial schools.

Swainson's Income Tax Proposal Explained Fully in Bill to House

LANSING (AP)—Details of Gov. Swainson's income tax proposal were spelled out today in a 26-page bill filed with the House.

The measure provides that a copy of the federal income tax return can be used for state income tax returns in most instances.

Penalties for filing a false or fraudulent return are set at a maximum of one year in the county jail or a $1,000 fine, or both. In addition, taxpayers are subject to prosecution under the perjury laws.

Corporations and financial institutions are required to keep records, books and accounts of taxable income for six years and make them available for examination at any time during regular business hours by agents of the Michigan Department of Revenue. Violation of this provision also calls for one year imprisonment and/or a $1,000 fine.

TAX NONRESIDENTS

Under the proposed law, these provisions would go into effect July 1, 1961:

—Taxpayers would pay a flat 3 per cent on adjusted gross income.

—The tax would be levied on every resident and every nonresident "who derives income from sources within this state and every corporation, other than a financial institution, receiving, earning or otherwise acquiring income in this state."

—Financial institutions would pay a 5 per cent income tax, but the present tax on intangibles would be dropped.

—Employers would be required to withhold 3 per cent from paychecks if they do so under the federal income tax law.

—Residents would be allowed a credit against Michigan taxes for net income taxes imposed by another state, but only for taxes paid to the other state on income derived from sources within that state.

HEAVY PENALTIES

Heavy penalties, ranging up to 100 per cent of any deficiency, would be levied for attempts to evade paying the tax. In addition, 1 per cent a month would be added until the amount due was paid. Failure to file a return within the time limit would result in a penalty of 25 per cent of the tax due.

★ ★ ★

A three-year statute of limitations would be set on the imposing of penalties.

Chief sponsor of the bill is Rep. Walter Nill, D-Muskegon Heights.

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

WASHINGTON — The Justice Department is pushing investigations of alleged price fixing in meat, milk, drugs and other products "almost all across the board in certain sections of the United States."

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said "we're going to be able to lower prices in some of these important fields," and cited the successful prosecution under the Eisenhower administration of 29 big electrical equipment manufacturers.

"When the electrical conspiracy broke down," he said, "the price to the consumer and to the government fell about 30 to 40 per cent."

He said price fixing is widespread and the department has started investigations in almost every major city. "Rather important cases appear to be developing," he added, in New York City and New York State.

Kennedy was interviewed by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., Sunday.

Keating asked about rumors "that there's been some rift or difficulty between you and J. Edgar Hoover."

"There's certainly nothing to it," Kennedy said.

Kennedy said "perhaps sometime" he would like to run for office, but plans to serve as attorney general for the full four years of his brother's term as president.

In cases of civil rights violations, he reiterated his policy of giving state officials a chance to "clean up the matter themselves" before taking federal action.

URGES MORE LEGISLATION

He urged more legislation to combat organized crime, mentioning transmission of gambling information across state lines and broadening the fields into which the FBI can move.

"It has a tremendous effect on the community when prices are fixed," Kennedy said.

"As we've seen in the case of the electrical companies, when the conspiracy broke down, the price to the consumer and to the government fell about 30 to 40 per cent.

"I think the same thing happens where there is price fixing in these other areas," he added.

"If we can have a vigorous program in this field, we're going to be able to lower prices in some of these important areas."

The FBI will continue to spearhead the fight against communism, and the administration currently has no plans for legislation in that field, Kennedy said.

Kay Gable Gives Birth to 8-Lb. Boy

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Clark Gable's widow gave birth today to an 8-pound boy.

Both Mrs. Kay Gable and the baby, delivered by Caesarean section, were reported in good condition at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital.

The time of birth was 7:48 a.m. (Hollywood time).

★ ★ ★

Gable, long-time movie hero, died in the same hospital Nov. 16 of a heart attack. This was his first child and he had looked forward eagerly to its birth.

In a second-floor waiting room, nervously pacing during the surgery, was Mrs. Gable's 11-year-old son by a previous marriage, Bunker.

★ ★ ★

"I want a brother," he told newsmen.

Mrs. Gable's daughter Joan, 9, attended communion at St. Cyril's Roman Catholic Church near the Gable ranch in suburban Encino and was not at the hospital.

News Flashes

WASHINGTON, March 20 (AP)— The Supreme Court today unanimously affirmed lower federal court orders striking down Louisiana efforts to bar school integration.

Better Outlook Halts Tax Cut Possibility

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The improved business outlook was seen today as ruling out any quick recession tax cut for individuals but President Kennedy still was reported in favor of new tax incentives to stimulate investment.

High administration sources have confirmed this view of White House thinking on tax reduction proposals but they pointed out that the President was not expected to make a final decision until April.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon has said the administration looks for ah upturn in the economy next month. Thus far, Dillon is the only administration spokesman to express this specific and optimistic forecast. But White House economic advisers have predicted a new advance could begin in the spring and was likely by midyear.

Congo Charges Seen From Red

Gromyko Expected to Open U.N. Talk With Blast at 'Conspiracy'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko was expected to open a new debate on the Congo today in the U.N. General Assembly with charges that Belgium, Secretary General Dag Hammarskold and Congolese President Joseph Kasavubu are conspiring to dismember the chaotic Central African territory.

Gromyko's newest target was the decision by Kasavubu and all other Congo political leaders except Soviet-backed Antoine Gizenga to junk the unworkable federal government plan left by Belgium and replace it with a confederation of semi-independent states.

Some observers expected Gromyko would pick up Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah's argument that Kasavubu, in accepting the presidency of the proposed confederation, had quit the presidency of the republic and had lost his right to U.N. recognition by doing so.

Hammarskjold was reported to have asked Rajeshwar Dayal of India to continue as head of the U.N. operation in the Congo despite the Kasavubu government's repeated demands for his recall. Kasavubu accused Dayal of bias toward the late Patrice Lumumba and toward Gizenga after Lumumba's death.

New York Herald Tribune correspondent Marguerite Higgins reported from Leopoldville Sunday that, according to high sources, Hammarskjold is continuing Dayal in the Congo post because the secretary general "fears to offend Dayal's countryman and boss, Prime Minister Nehru of India."

Miss Higgins reported that "the high-handedness, arrogance, even contempt with which Dayal treated the Kasavubu regime would give ground for fury on the part of any government." She added that Dayal's temporary replacement, Mekki Abbas of the Sudan, "has done much to ease the explosive situation created by Dayal's aloofness from the Congo's leaders." Dayal is now at U.N. headquarters reporting on the Congo operation.

Hi There, Spring! But Why Do You Bring Sleet?

When spring arrived at 3:32 p.m. today the sun crossed the equator and entered the vernal equinox. Only at the time of the March and September equinoxes is the earth's axis at right angles to the sun. Then day and night are equal.

The weatherman, however, chooses to disagree with the calendar of spring's arrival and predicts snow or rain briefly mixed with sleet for late tonight.

Snow changing to rain is also predicted for Tuesday with little temperature change. A high of 38 is expected.

Morning easterly winds at 6 miles per hour are expected to increase to 10-15 miles.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 28 degrees. At 1 p.m. the temperature reading was 46.

Time to Get Outdoors, Folks!

WELCOME SPRING — It was the last day of winter and a fitting harbinger of spring yesterday as the sun beamed down and the children flocked outdoors, here enjoying the Crofoot School playground. Close scrutiny of the photograph would suggest that the "no-hands" acrobat descending the slide is about to collide disastrously with his dreamy-eyed chum at the bottom. But no, at the last moment he missed him.

Kennedy to Congress on Budget

Asks $500-Million Boost

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy asked Congress today to boost next year's budget by nearly $500 million.

★ ★ ★

He sought, among other things, additional funds to step up State Department activities in Africa, strengthen the U.S. Information Agency's program in Africa and Latin America and expand the U.S. staff at the United Nations.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy also proposed increases of nearly $41 million for various Interior Department operations and more than $442 million for the Agriculture Department.

The latter would be mainly to strengthen research, watershed, forestry, conservation and school lunch programs, loan programs of the Rural Electrification Administration and Farmers Home Administration.

Agriculture funds also would repay the Commodity Credit Corp. for costs and losses.

ACTUALLY NET DECREASE

For the State Department, Kennedy actually proposed a net decrease of $130,000 because of reductions in contributions to international organizations and a reprogramming of funds for international fisheries commissions.

But on the plus side, for the fiscal year which begins July 1, he asked for a $300,000 increase "for emergencies in the diplomatic and consular service," $350,000 to expand African programs, $500,000 for policy planning studies and $155,000 to provide 23 extra staff members for the U.S. mission at the U.N.

This would bring the U.S. mission staff to 134 to help it meet the problem of enlarged U.N. activities and intensified diplomatic negotiations there.

Firemen Fight 3 House Blazes

Pontiac Homes Burn on Weekend; Estimate Damage at $6,700

Three house fires in Pontiac over the weekend caused property damage estimated at $6,700.

There were no injuries reported.

The first fire broke out in the apartment of Paul Gyselman, 78 Douglas St., at 12:33 a.m. Sunday.

Firemen said the blaze, apparently caused by a short circuit in the wiring of a lamp, spread to the apartment of Don Smith.

Fire loss was set at $2,500.

A fire believed caused by careless smoking broke out at a home at 806 St. Clair St., owned by Mason Scott, at 6:36 a.m. Sunday.

Firemen extinguished the blaze in an hour, with damage to the building estimated at $4,000.

Another fire believed caused by careless smoking broke out in the home of William Hall, 225 Prospect St., at 10:38 p.m. Sunday.

Damage was estimated at $200.

Building Unions Warned About Racial Practices

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., told building trades unions today they could not expect favorable treatment from Congress as long as they continue racial discrimination.

The Negro congressman, chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, linked the construction unions' drive for more liberal picketing rights to the refusal of some to accept Negro members.

Swallows Come Home on Time to Capistrano

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (UPI)—Once during the Spanish days of this Franciscan mission town legend says a flock of swallows flew in from the South and began building nests under the eaves of the village inn.

The owner, distracted by their singing, smashed the nests.

A padre follower of the St. Francis of Assisi, who loved and protected animals, was passing and noticed the havoc. "Come, swallows," the oft-told legend claims he said. "Come to the mission where there is shelter enough for all of you."

Sunday, for their 184th recorded year, the small birds arrived from their winter in the South. There have been a few exceptions, but as a rule the biggest flocks arrive on St. Joseph's Day.

Gusty winds from the Pacific failed to slow the arrival of the thousands of swallows.

Hurls Defiance at Polish Reds

Prelate Pledges Roman Catholics Will Not Bow to Communists

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Hurling defiance at the Polish Communist regime, Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski pledged Sunday that the Roman Catholic Church will not bend to the Red "Caesars" in the mounting church-state struggle.

"I tell you Caesars that you will bow to your God and you will serve only him and no one else," the Polish primate declared. "Satan is mighty but man will not bow his head before him."

The cardinal's voice boomed through the high-vaulted Church of the Visitation as he declared that state-sponsored youth groups characterized by "atheization, laicization, indifferentism, rationalism, etc." show the Communist rulers are persecuting the church.

"It is so easily said that there is no struggle against religion," Cardinal Wyszynski said. "And what is this? What can one call this?"

Wladyslaw Gomulka, Poland's Communist party chief, had charged Saturday that the Vatican is trying to provoke "persecution and martyrdom" in Poland and is sacrificing the Polish hierarchy in its fight against communism. Gomulka denied any persecution of the church.

The cardinal said that instead of anti-Communist directives, the Vatican's constant instruction was that "Poland acts on its own."

Cardinal Wyszynski said that during his conversations with Pope John XXIII, the late Pope Pius XII and other church leaders in Rome, "Not once has an attempt been made to give me any instructions whatsoever on how the Polish bishops should conduct church affairs in Poland."

To Spell Out Highway Dept's Racial Policy

LANSING (UPI) — Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said a directive would be issued today spelling out the highway department's nondiscrimination policy.

The action followed a request of the Fair Employment Practices Commission which studied hiring and promotion practices in the department.

The report said there was "a policy of nondiscrimination which is generally understood by top management and many supervisors," but it asked that this policy be spelled out in writing.

"I said the recommendations of the FEPC would be speedily carried out and I meant it," Mackie said. "When I asked FEPC to review our entire operation, I said I did not think we were perfect and that I wanted to know where improvement was needed."

The report, issued Saturday, was requested by Rep. Roger Townsend, D-Flint, who charged that "a pattern of discrimination existed in the highway department."

Neither Tassi, or his wife Mary, 44, and daughter Rosemary, 17, were hurt by the accident which occurred as Tassi was making a turn from Dixie Highway south onto Hadfield Street.

Howell told deputies his car skidded and brushed the shoulder on Lakeville Road, a mile and a half east of Oxford, causing it to flip into the ditch at about 35 miles an hour. He was unhurt.

His wife was reported "satisfactory" today at William Beaumont Hospital.

Another car skidded out of control on icy Holly Road in Holly Township and smashed into a utility pole at about 50 miles an hour, sending two men to the hospital.

★ ★ ★

Pro-Red Rebels Gain on 2 Fronts in Laos Fighting

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The royal Laotian army chief of staff today reported the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels had made significant advances on two fronts.

★ ★ ★

Gen. Ouane Rathikone said rebel forces who captured the road junction of Sala Phou Koun, between Vientiane and Luang Prabang, were still driving south and were only 10 miles north of Vang Vieng, a government military headquarters.

★ ★ ★

The general said the rebel force moving on Vang Vieng is made up of one battalion of regulars and two battalions of regional fighters.

Since the pro-Red forces pushed the royal army out of Sala Phou Koun, they have driven south some 40 miles.

S. Africans Crack Down on Natives

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)—South African police arrested 10 African political leaders early today in a nationwide roundup just before the return of Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd from London where he pulled this country out of the British Commonwealth.

★ ★ ★

Verwoerd received a tumultuous welcome from 40,000 persons when his plane landed at Jan Smuts Airport this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Tension was mounting in the nation.

Official sources said the arrests were designed to head off demonstrations being organized to commemorate the first anniversary tomorrow of the police shootings of Africans at Sharpeville and Langa.

The Day in Birmingham

Art Center May Develop in Old Disposal Plant

BIRMINGHAM—The possibility that the city will have a unique art center in the not too distant future looked brighter today.

City Manager L. R. Gare will recommend to the City Commission tonight that he, along with legal counsel, meet with the Bloomfield Art Association to resolve several leasing problems connected with its proposal to convert the unused municipal sewage disposal plant into a cultural center.

The Bloomfield Art Association, headed by Robert Bender, first made the proposal to the City Commission several weeks ago. Commissioners have agreed it is a worthwhile idea since the city has no need for the plant with the opening of the Evergreen Interceptor Sewer.

They turned the suggestion over to the Planning Board and Recreation Board for further study. The two groups met jointly Wednesday and indicated there are no objections to the proposal.

Gare in his report to the commission states that the city's participation in the renovation program, which the BAA has requested, would amount to $13,000 to $16,500. Most of the city's cost would be for work on the grounds around the building.

Actual cost to remodel the interior of the building by the BAA has not been made and Gare said that before any lease agreement is signed these costs should be closely estimated.

It should be decided who is going to carry the insurance to cover the public liability and damage to the building and in what amounts, Gare said.

"There are certain costs involved for the maintenance of the grounds and the building," Gare said, "and it should be decided whether it is the city's responsibility or that of the art association."

★ ★ ★

The BAA made the proposal after learning that it will have to vacate its present quarters at 361 N. Woodward Ave. with the development of the Northwest Quadrant Parking Lot.

The sewer plant the group is seeking is at 1516 S. Cranbrook Road, southwest of Seaholm High School.

Candidates for the City Commission and library board in the April 3 election have been invited to speak at a meeting tomorrow of the Birmingham Democratic Club. All the candidates are seeking office on a nonpartisan ticket.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the Mary Griffith lounge of the Community House.

★ ★ ★

There will be another black-top hearing for 3,400 feet on Seeden Glen Street, which makes a semi-circle from Forest Street back to Forest Street. Cost of this project has been estimated at $10,511.

A street-light hearing for the Whitfield Estates subdivision and part of the Ideal Country Club subdivision has been set for from 7 to 9 tonight.

Bids will be opened for purchase of a new one-ton pickup truck for the water department, and bids on two old police department cars will also be opened.

Falconer said the branch will have all the facilities of the other four branches, including drive-in windows, night depository and safety deposit boxes.

The other branches are located in Auburn Heights, on Baldwin Road, in Drayton Plains, and at the Miracle Mile Shopping Center.

The builder of several other buildings in the Waterford Township shopping center, Clark Easley, will erect the bank's new quarters which will then be leased, Falconer said. No estimate of its cost could be given, he said.

Flint Drops Action Against M. R. Henry

Genesee County Circuit Judge John L. Baker today dismissed contempt action against Pontiac attorney and city commissioner Milton R. Henry because it was found no commitment order was ever drafted confining Henry to jail March 3.

In examining the lower court proceedings against Henry this morning, brought by Henry's motion for a writ of certiorari, Judge Baker said he found the entire proceedings "null and void" because of lack of the order.

Henry had been found in contempt by Flint Municipal Judge Dale C. Bowley when he allegedly swore at the judge and refused to pay a fine. He was retained in the city jail about five hours.

Washington Confab Stirs Optimism

Small Business Cheered

An optimistic note was sounded today by the Michigan field director of the National Small Business Men's Association, Milt King, 160 Navajo Drive, on his return from a Washington, D. C., conference.

★ ★ ★

King, whose organization represents 2,600 companies in Oakland County alone, said he was "gratified" over the concern in Washington about economic conditions in the metropolitan area, including Pontiac.

He said several federal moves would help bolster small business, and added that Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, had pledged his continued support to improve the climate of small business.

Meeting with the trustees of the National Small Business Men's Association Thursday through Saturday in the capital, King conferred with Broomfield, representatives of the Small Business Administration and the Senate Select Committee on Small Business.

SEVERAL BIG STEPS SOON

He said Small Business Administration officials indicated several big steps would be taken soon to aid small business.

One of them, he said, would be broadening availability of small business loans with a new emphasis on those in the $10,000-$20,000 bracket for the smallest businesses.

"Qualifications for loans will be relaxed to an unprecedented extent and the amount of money available in the $10,000-$20,000 bracket will be practically unlimited," King predicted.

★ ★ ★

He also noted that the Small Business Administration was emphasizing a new program under which local industrial development groups, seeking to preserve existing industry or attract new ones, can obtain up to $80,000 from the federal government if matched by $20,000 in local funds.

King said Broomfield promised support for a move to allow faster depreciation allowances to create a more favorable tax picture for small business.

He noted that the Kennedy administration had pledged to increase the percentage of Defense Department contracts with small businesses by 10 per cent.

During the last fiscal year, Defense Department contracts of this type totaled $3.4 billion or 16 per cent of the budget total.

"My over-all impression is that Washington officials, both administrative and elective, are concerned about economic conditions especially in Michigan, and will make every effort to help small business through these difficult times," said King.

Formed in 1939, the National Small Business Men's Association with headquarters in Washington, seeks to call federal attention to the needs and opinions of small business men across the country.

Foreign Aid Program Ready for Congress

into doing something about spreading the wealth among the poorer classes to make them less susceptible to Communist appeals.

These officials said Kennedy would promise Congress that he would be tougher than former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in demanding results and maximum self-help from foreign nations. They said Kennedy would promise to withhold aid from countries that waste it on palaces, limousines and graft.

Kennedy also was expected to continue the gradual shift started by Eisenhower toward less military and more economic aid.

Eisenhower's final budget message asked for $1.8 billion in military and $2.2 billion economic aid authorizations for the fiscal year starting July 1. This did not include the special $500 million Latin American aid program and $100 million Chile earthquake relief.

Couple Study With Travel

U.S. Students Moving Abroad

NEW YORK (UPI) — Young people by the hundreds of thousands are traveling abroad these days in search of learning and adventure.

This is reported in a weighty—2¼ pounds — volume, "Study Abroad," published by the United Nations Economic and Social Council (UNESCO).

Study abroad lists "some 100,000 individual opportunities for international study and travel" in 115 states and territories for the current and the 1961-62 school years. And UNESCO figures that close to 400,000 students presently are seeking education in foreign lands.

A companion, and much lighter — ½ pound — book, "Vacations Abroad," tells how thousands of students can spend their summer vacations away from their homelands.

REPORT OPPORTUNITIES

From Aden to Zanzibar, the two books report organizations, colleges and universities offering opportunities for overseas study coupled with travel.

The opportunities are as varied as the nations offering them.

A scholarship for mural painting provides one year of study at the American Academy in Rome and travel in Europe. Celtic courses at the Dublin Institute of Advanced Studies are included.

The Soviet government offers scholarships in utilization of nuclear energy for pesceful purposes. (These are limited to students from countries with which the USSR has cultural agreements.)

But UNESCO statistics show that most foreign students enroll in courses falling in the general categories of humanities and education, engineering, social sciences and law, medical science, natural sciences, agriculture and fine arts in that order of preference.

Social Workers to Hold Meeting

Chapter Gives Support of Money for County to Operate Child Clinic

The Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers will have a dinner meeting tomorrow at Devon Gables, Telegraph and Long Lake Roads, Bloomfield Township.

Speakers will be Jack Taber, of the Pontiac State Hospital social service department and Mrs. Lois Pettit of the Neighborhood Service Organization, chairman of the Detroit NASW committee on private practice.

Program topic will be "Private Practice." Dinner is slated for 6 with the program at 7:30.

Officials of the county chapter also announced their full support of the county appropriating money to keep the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic operating at its current level through 1961.

A chapter spokesman termed the clinic, "One of the biggest bargains we can get for our tax dollars."

Officials said that eight to 12 months of therapy at the clinic costs in the neighborhood of $150 while hospitalization in a mental institution for the same amount of time would cost the state, county and family between $1,140 and $1,710.

Retirees Will Hold First Pot-Luck Picnic

On Wednesday, Pontiac Chapter No. 7 of the American Association of Retired Persons will hold its first big social event since the chapter formed.

The AARP Pot-Luck Winter Picnic will begin at noon at Pontiac Local 653 (UAW-CIO) Hall, 386 E. Kennett Road near Glenwood Street.

Members will be requested to bring their own tableware and one dish of food to be passed around, according to Maurice E. Fitzgerald, chapter president.

Movies and various games will follow the meal.

"We urge everyone to come early since we expect a large crowd," said Fitzgerald.

Hits Falsehoods Against Church

Presbyterian Warns of Smears in Charges on Commie Sympathy

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) —The chief executive officer of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. says that the John Birch Society is waging "campaigns of falsehoods" against the Church.

* * *

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake said Sunday that the extreme right-wing organization is engaged in a plan to smear leaders of the Presbyterian Church and the National Council of Churches as being sympathetic to communism.

He called this "bearing false witness."

Dr. Blake, the Los Angeles churchman, the Presbyterians' stated clerk, told members of the Presbyterian church of Santa Barbara:

"I challenge this congregation to wake up to what is happening to you under the guise of anti-communism. A free church with a free pulpit governed under constitutional law, along with a free nation under a free constitution, is the best resistance there could be against Communist totalitarianism.

"Don't let your Americanism and your Presbyterianism be corrupted by those who would substitute a fuhrer principal for our free society."

* * *

The John Birch Society, named for a missionary killed by the Chinese Communists, is a group which claims to fight Communist infiltration. Among prominent U.S. citizens it has termed to be Communist dupes are former Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower, Harry S. Truman and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Early Easter Hikes Consumer Buying

NEW YORK — With Easter falling two weeks earlier this year, consumer buying picked up appreciably in the week ended Wednesday, and over-all retail trade was noticeably higher than the comparable poor 1960 week.

The best year-to-year gains were in women's and children's spring apparel. Less noticeable increases occurred in men's apparel, furniture and food products.

Volume in major appliances, floor coverings and linens was down from last year. Sales of new passenger cars picked up from a week earlier, but they remained below last year, according to scattered reports.

The total dollar volume of retail trade in the week was 8 to 12 per cent higher than a year ago, according to spot estimates collected by Dun & Bradstreet, Inc.

Shutdowns Send Jobless Claims Up in Pontiac

Claims filed for unemployment compensation went up last week as expected by officials at the Pontiac branch of the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

There were 13,567 claims filed at the local office, compared to 10,720 the previous week.

Largely responsible for the rise were shutdowns at Pontiac Motor Division and Fisher Body Plant.

These shot the number of initial claims up from 601 the previous week to 7,915 last week.

Continuing claims filed numbered 5,652 last week and 10,115 the week before. The reason for this drop, according to Paul Kimball, branch manager, is that the office is gradually changing to a system whereby continuing claims will be filed every two weeks rather than every week.

Last week was the "off-week" and the number of continuing claims can be expected to nearly double this week. A similar decline is expected in initial claims.

Baby Escapes Death Under Freight Train

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A 4-month-old baby, tossed between the rails in a car train collision, escaped unharmed when 13 freight cars passed over it.

The baby's father, Pfc. Herman M. Hodges of Fort Campbell, Ky., its mother and 4-year-old brother were hospitalized.

Gisele, 33, Names Son . . . MacKenzie Duffy

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Singer-actress Gisele MacKenzie today is the mother of her first child, a 6-pound 7-ounce son.

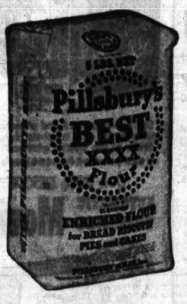

The boy, born Sunday, was named MacKenzie Duffy. Miss MacKenzie, 33, is married to Bob Shuttleworth, her manager.

A Lenten Guidepost for Parents

On How to Help Your Child Grow

By ART LINKLETTER
Television and Radio Star

Every parent asks the following questions: How can I help my child succeed in life? . . . have a happy marriage? . . . avoid the mistakes I made?

Linkletter

The parent also wants to know how he can help his child grow up to be admired and respected. What can the parent do about these things?

He can't do everything, that's for sure. But I think he can do a lot when it comes to forming attitudes that will determine much of the child's later performance in life.

So I'd like to list here the attitudes that I think are most important.

FORTUNATE KIDS

1. A sense of appreciation. Kids tend to take things for granted. Their imagination isn't fully developed, so it never occurs to them that things could be vastly different from what they are.

But American kids are fantastically fortunate. They are born and raised under the highest living standards in the world.

The question is how to make Junior appreciate all this.

Not long ago, Jack our oldest, showed me a note I had written him when he was an exuberant teen-ager.

"At your age," I wrote Jack, "I had to get up at 4 a.m., to fold newspapers in order to earn the money for a new suit. I had to work my way through college. You haven't had to do these things, but everything in life has to balance.

"If you can get a full night's sleep—which I couldn't at your age—you also have to be more careful about what you do when you're awake. The more privileges you have, the more responsibility you have. . . ."

'BE GRATEFUL'

As you can see, the message I was trying to get across was simply: Be appreciative, be grateful. And not just for material things, but for life itself.

2. A dash of inquisitiveness. If you find your three-year-old diligently dismantling the grandfather clock you should praise the Lord even as you warm his bottom, because he has one of the greatest of all gifts—natural curiosity.

It's a gift that parents can foster. If you have a burning interest of your own, expose the kid to it—enthusiasm is contagious. If he comes up with one, go along with it.

★ ★ ★

3. The glue of persistence. Genius, somebody said, is merely an infinite capacity for taking pains. And it's true enough: to achieve any significant degree of recognition in life, a person has to keep plugging away.

PROPER TIMING

One way to develop this attitude in a child is by timing his development properly. If a kid is introduced to problems that he's ready for, mentally and physically, and given a little help in handling them, he'll begin to build self-confidence as he goes along.

4. Live and let live. My wife Lois and I have tried to pass tolerance along to our five "Links"—tolerance of other people's beliefs and ideas even when they differ from ours.

Kids have a tremendous sense of fair play and justice. Try dividing a slice of cake between two eagle-eyed youngsters and you'll see what I mean.

In our house we figured out a brilliant solution: Let one kid divide the cake and the other have first choice! They also have a lot of instinctive sympathy for other human beings, or even animals.

So, in a sense, you don't have to teach kids tolerance at all, because it's already there. Just try not to teach them intolerance. In other words, be tolerant yourself.

LEARN TO LAUGH

5. Laughter—gift of the Gods.

For over a quarter of a century, now, laughter has been my business, and I don't know of any better business or any better medicine.

I think everyone is born with the seed of humor in him, but how that seed grows depends on environment. Heaven knows, a laugh is a contagious thing. So if there's a lot of humor in a house, if there's kidding and bantering and good-natured teasing, then that seed is going to grow.

6. The last attitude takes an old-fashioned word to describe it: respect. It's a big word because it can include so much.

In a way, this attitude is the sum of everything you teach your child. To begin with, he has to respect you. You're the first yardstick he has. He's going to measure the whole world by what he sees in Dad or Mom.

People ask me sometimes if I think kids ought to be made to go to Sunday school. Yes, I do.

I think a Bible should be in every home, and prayers a regular part of family life. Respect for a Supreme Being is the deepest form of respect, for on it is based the most important rule for living ever devised: The Golden Rule.

We've Heard They Can Shrink Heads

Some Glimmer of Hope in New Congo Alignment

Formation of the Confederation of Central African States appears to be a first step toward a measure of law and order in the Congo.

★ ★ ★

Meeting at Tananarive on the Island of Madagascar, Congolese President KASAVUBU and Premier ILEO together with Katanga province's MOISE TSHOMBE and Kasai's ALBERT KALONGI came to a basic agreement: that the Congo should have a loose federal structure of eight semi-independent states headed by President KASAVUBU.

The leaders recognize that the present artificial boundaries are a source of trouble. So the proposed new states are based largely on tribal and economic affiliations. Redrawing provincial borders will be a thorny problem.

But the greatest threat is Communist backed ANTOINE GIZENGA who did not join other Congo leaders in the conference. The Eastern province and its capital Stanleyville are under his control. Any military move against him by the new alignment would cause more embarrassment to the United Nations.

The U.N. command is under orders to prevent civil war by force if necessary. On the other hand it should not be used as a means of protecting a separatist pro-Communist regime thereby preventing a united Congo.

Under these circumstances President KASAVUBU's statements that "the danger of general civil war has been averted" and that the Security Council resolution empowering U.N. troops to use force should be withdrawn, are certainly premature.

Michigan's Slump Mild Says Florida Paper

Commenting on the current business situation as it applies to Michigan, The Fort Lauderdale News indicates we aren't as badly off as the government extremists would have us believe.

The editorial says in part:

"Secretary of Labor GOLDBERG continues his screaming about unemployment. No breakdown is given, only that it is 'really awful.'

★ ★ ★

"It is well that the unemployed will be taken care of by the taxpayers, if Congress adopts the Kennedy-Goldberg dole programs. But, these are only patent medicine cures brought about chiefly by a loss of faith upon the part of some consumers who have decided to put their money into savings rather than to spend it for the aid of an economy.

"Now how bad are some of the areas that GOLDBERG screams about? Let's take a rundown on some of the figures for Detroit, Mich. These are from the Feb. 27 issue of "The Detroiter," Greater Detroit's Business Weekly.

"Unemployment in 1958 ran 248,900 against 98,700 in 1960.

"The total non-farm employment in 1960 was 1,317,200 against 1,246,500 for 1958.

"Manufacturing employment in 1958 was 472,900 against 512,400 in 1960; motor vehicles and equipment showed 183,300 in 1958 and 198,000 in 1960.

"Non - manufacturing industries, such as construction, transportation, wholesale and retail trade, finance, real estate, insurance, services and miscellaneous ran 523,000 employed in 1958 and 551,500 in 1960.

"The magazine reports:

"Total work income (for 1961) will just equal the $8.1 billion figure calculated for 1960. Thus buying power will be maintained as the decrease in employment is compensated for by the continued advance of worker remuneration. Average hourly earnings will increase about 2 per cent while on a weekly basis the forecast is 1 per cent.'

And what is back of the Washington gloom? Two things:

"1. It's good propaganda to put through the 'idealistic' and leftist programs that have been gathering dust in Washington since the extreme Liberals were last in the saddle.

★ ★ ★

"2. The gloom spreaders got into this mess with their campaign propaganda, and they can't let go, until they get their program through Congress, despite the fact that they rode into office only by a plurality of a little more than 100,000 votes.

★ ★ ★

"The only final solution the Harvard-leftists know is for the government to take over everything, after a period of doles and what-have you has been experienced.

★ ★ ★

"They know that the current slump, termed by the Federal Reserve Board as "the mildest of the post-war era," is not as bad as they are painting it."

THERE is one thing that will make you highly unpopular if you do it for yourself, allowing nobody to advise or help you. Reference is made to thinking.

The Man About Town

About Grass Fires

Pontiac Area Soil Is Not Benefited by Such Action

Whisker: What it now appears many Pontiac men will escape first prize by.

Several of the chiefs of fire departments in the Pontiac vicinity have requested an item about the danger of grass fires. In most areas an official permit is necessary, even if you only wish to burn off the grass on your own property.

There's always danger of the fire spreading to a wide area, causing damage to others and making necessary the expense of a fire department run.

Soil experts also point that the elements in the top soil in this area secure more benefits by allowing the grass to remain on the ground than by burning it for the ash that it makes.

From personal experience of many years, I have found that our best lawns are those from which neither leaves nor old grass were removed, either by raking off or burning.

So, there's really no excuse for starting a grass fire. Leave that to the cigarette butt slingers or others who do not know any better.

Since we refused to reveal the name of the handsome girl who wrote me that Mayor

That also is refused, but I'm sending him a sample of her handwriting, being the paragraph cut from one of her letters, in which she expressed her sentiments about the mayor's whiskers. Should she win the Centennial Queen contest, both name and picture will be revealed.

This is the between-times period on our lakes—'twixt skating and swimming. It is a danger time for two reasons, both careless: those suicide addicts who "try out" any thin ice caused by a spring freeze up, and those who foster cramps going swimming before the water gets warm enough.

Professors Give One-Sided Attack

WASHINGTON—Not so very long ago those persons who publicly criticized the U.S. Supreme Court for its "desegregation" decision were being accused of "defiance" of our "judicial institutions" or of trying to "undermine their prestige."

LAWRENCE

But no such treatment probably is in store for the 250 "leading American professors" in 79 universities and colleges who have just issued to the press of the nation a bitter statement criticizing the Supreme Court.

They object to the fact that the Supreme Court in two successive cases has declared constitutional the right of the House Committee on Un-American Activities to require witnesses under certain circumstances to answer questions about Communist activities in America.

Indeed, this is today "the law of the land."

The professors, in their statement, contend that they are "dedicated to the proposition that free enquiry and free expression nourish mental growth and are thus basic to the nation's growth."

But then the same 250 professors go on to demand the "abolition" of the House committee because they do not agree with its expressions of opinion or its attempts to elicit information about Communist operations in this country.

While the same statement condemns "trial by publicity," the officials of the American Civil Liberties Union—who say they "canvassed" the professors to obtain their signatures—announce that this organization is "engaged in a long-range campaign" against the continuance of the House committee.

It is not clear just what the professors want to accomplish outside or inside American colleges and universities, though there is an implication that they believe they have a right to carry this type of controversy directly into their classrooms.

Presumably there would be nobody with similar knowledge present on the other side to rebut their arguments before the students.

The professors, in their statement, complain that "many teachers in the colleges and universities, as well as in the public schools, have grown timid about stating, even for classroom discussion, ideas which someone later might interpret as subversive."

What the professors really object to is the effort of the committee to do something which none of the executive agencies like the Central Intelligence Agency or the Federal Bureau of Investigation can do—namely, to expose in the midst of the "cold war" the workings of the Communist apparatus inside the United States.

The professors who signed the latest petition do not hesitate to identify themselves with the prestige conveyed by the names of the universities and colleges that employ them.

Thus the statement, in giving the list of the 250 professors, attaches in each case the name of the university or college where they teach and their subjects. The following notation is included:

"The institutional affiliation of the remaining signers is for the purposes of identification only and in no way commits the institution to the views expressed."

But why is it necessary to "identify" these professors by using the name of their respective colleges and universities and by specifying the subjects they teach?

Will the general public assume that, because these professors hold such positions, they perhaps reflect the views of a substantial number of other professors who were or were not "canvassed"?

Dr. William Brady Says:

Coronary Heart Patients Need That Coffee Break

A cup of good coffee contains a fair medicinal dose of caffeine (approximately two grains). A cup of GOOD coffee, that is. Coffee brewed in a plain old-fashioned coffee-pot.

Caffeine is a stimulant to the cerebrum, the nerves, the heart and kidneys. Therefore coffee is not for kids. Even good coffee invariably does harm to children under the age of 16 years, I think. Children rarely need a brain, nerve, heart or kidney stimulant.

DR. BRADY

The effects of coffee, tea and cocoa (or chocolate) are virtually identical, differing only in degree. Coffee is the strongest stimulant, tea next, cocoa a little weaker and chocolate the weakest.

Much of the caffeine for medicinal use is indeed extracted from tea leaves rather than coffee. The alkaloid of cocoa is called theobromine.

The powder boiled with water or milk to make the beverage chocolate is made of the dried and partly fermented seeds of the chocolate tree (Theobroma cacao) which grows in South America and the West Indies. Addition of sugar makes sweet chocolate, and addition of powdered milk makes milk chocolate.

Chocolate powder contains considerable fat, called cocoa-butter. Most of the cocoa-butter is extracted from chocolate to make cocoa.

★ ★ ★

Coffee, tea and chocolate or cocoa beverage might well be called "the cup that cheers but not inebriates," for characteristic of these beverages is the fact that they refresh, renew or stimulate mildly, with no noticeable let-down when the effect of the stimulant wears off.

BLAMED FOR INSOMNIA

Coffee is famous for keeping people awake or alert who must for a time resist the impulse to nap. But I think coffee is too frequently blamed for insomnia.

In any circumstance it is wrong to credit sleeplessness to coffee if the coffee is not taken within four hours of bedtime, for the effects of caffeine do not last more than 3 or 3½ hours.

Persons with coronary heart trouble not only may but generally have two or three cups of good coffee daily. One of the beneficient effects of caffeine is to dilate or keep relaxed and open the coronary arteqioles (smallest branches of the artery). This favors delivery of freshly oxygenated blood to the heart wall.

Near-doctors and queer-doctors who tell customers that coffee is "bad" for the heart do not explain just why — indeed, their customers generally haven't the gumption to ask why.

My commendation of coffee, tea, cocoa or chocolate as healthful beverages for adults applies to proper, moderate, temperate use of the beverage. This means from one to three cups a day, not more.

Washing down morsels of unmasticated food is not proper use of a beverage.

Coffee, tea, chocolate or coca, or any of the cola drinks, properly used, do not disturb digestion. Improper use of any beverage, even water, to wash down unmasticated food is the real cause of "dyspepsia" or "biliousness."

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Men: Verbalize Your Appreciation

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE H-437: Martin L., aged 25, is typical of many ambitious men.

"Dr. Crane," his attractive wife began, "Martin is an Army man.

DR. CRANE

"He was a non-commissioned officer when we first met. Then he went to O.C.S. school to become a 2nd Lieutenant.

"Since then he has changed a lot. I am 24 and we have been married 3 years. We have a little girl about a year old.

"But Martin ignores us, except to demand his meals. He is always wrapped up in studying airplanes, because that is his branch of service.

"I realize a husband must keep up-to-date in his special field, but Martin never has given me a gift of any kind since we have been married.

★ ★ ★

"He seems to think it is silly for married folks to act in love or show their affection by little remembrances.

"All he does at home is watch ball games and study for his job. He is faithful and doesn't fuss about money, but a few kisses once in a while and an occasional date would make all the difference in the world."

A lot of busy husbands seem to think love will express itself via telepathy.

That's a tragic mistake! Women want words. And children need a double dose of verbal compliments.

Even when you men hand your pay checks to your wife, faithfully and regularly, that doesn't make up for a lack of compliments.

Don't put all your courtship salesmanship into cold storage just because you have married the girl.

★ ★ ★

Buoy up her morale with a daily compliment, both verbal and physical. A smile and a kiss are non-verbal compliments.

If she prepares your favorite dessert, state your appreciation.

Remember, more men lose their wives because of failure to verbalize their appreciation than due to all other causes combined.

It usually isn't sex hunger that pulls a wife away from her husband and into an affair with another man. No, it is the fact her husband is tongue-tied.

He wants his wife to read his mind, and thereby discover his love by telepathy.

But women want to hear a man's freewill voluntary expression of his devotion.

A good husband in modern America thus surprises his wife occasionally with flowers.

If you have never given your wife flowers since your marriage, you are an old fogey. You are a stodgy, unromantic male.

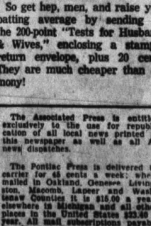

Send her a greeting card, too, and pick out some gift for her birthday, as well as for Christmas.

Take her out on a date at least once per week (to rate "Average" on the Marriage Tests below).

"If women are fright," protests Martin's wife, is it any wonder? For Martin never pays me a compliment or kisses me or shows the slightest bit of romance until he suddenly wants physical love.

"If other husbands are as blunt and unfeeling as Martin, no wonder wives are unresponsive!"

Men are notorious for being concerned chiefly with major issues, whereas women stress little things.

Tells Reasons Why Area Needs Guidance Clinic

How can the Oakland County Board of Supervisors fail to realize the importance and need for the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic?

Our high divorce rate, alcoholism, sex deviates, and general crime are problems we deplore. They affect the guilty, and bring untold grief to their families and families of the offended. Isn't emotional disturbance the basic factor involved in these problems? Can anyone argue we should not do everything possible to solve these problems when the symptoms may be no more serious than thumb sucking, bed wetting, stuttering, or temper tantrums?

★ ★ ★

If the result of increased happiness through the elimination of emotional instability is not enough to convince the supervisors, a look at the financial side may help. The 1961 budget allotment as received from the board of auditors shows that a total of $5,711,752 was spent dealing with the criminal, marital or other sociological problems.

★ ★ ★

To these you should add the cost of maintaining municipal police departments and other city efforts to handle the end results of people who could not handle their emotional problems. This is the price we pay for the children of a few years ago who needed the guidance offered by the clinic. The clinic asks $27,000 be restored to the budget so they may continue at its present level. $5,711,752 divided by $27,000 is 211. Cheap at 211 times the price. What was that bit about "An ounce of prevention"?

Tax Tips . . .

QUESTION:

My wife and I are over 65 years old. I was retired all the year and received $1,100.00 from a pension plan provided by the company where I had worked. I also received $1,032.00 social security benefits, and $56.00 interests from a savings account. My wife had no income. Do we have to file an income tax return?

ANSWER:

You do not have to file a tax return. A person who is 65 or over must file an income tax return only when he has gross income of $1,200.00 or more for the taxable year. Social Security benefits are not taxable, so therefore, your gross income is less than $1,200.00.

China Pushes Culture Drive

Offensive Aimed at Countries in Africa, Latin America, Asia

HONG KONG (AP) — Communist China is pushing a cultural offensive aimed at Africa, Latin America and Asia. In some areas Peiping and Moscow appear to be competing in campaigns to make friends and influence people abroad.

Peiping radio now outdoes Moscow radio in propaganda broadcasts to Africa. It beams English, French and Portuguese language programs to nations there.

Japan appears to be the single most important target of Chinese Communist cultural blandishments.

A survey of statistics compiled from official Peiping sources shows 61 Japanese delegations visited Red China in 1960, far more than from any other country.

Peiping also increased its broadcasts to Japan in 1960. And the Peiping television station signed an agreement with its Japanese counterpart to purchase and exchange television newsreels.

Generally, however, Red China focuses its attention on countries disrupted by nationalist movements.

It uses several approaches — the exchange of friendship delegations, films, books, exhibitions and other propaganda media.

This has led in several cases to the signing of cultural agreements and in some cases to the establishment of diplomatic relations.

At the same time, Peiping's cultural exchanges with the Communist block, registered a sharp decline in 1960.

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Edison Co. said Saturday it is distributing a 50-page brochure advertising a 644-acre tract of land near its St. Clair County power plant for sale.

The tract fronts on the St. Clair River and is served by both railroad and highway routes.

SCHENLEY DISTILLERS CO., N. Y. C. • BLENDED WHISKY, 86 PROOF, 65% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS

How an exclusive discovery whips extra smoothness into Schenley whisky

This is a glass of unusual whisky. It is Schenley. Its extraordinary smoothness is the result of the greatest advance in whisky making in twenty-five years.

Taking the same fine whiskies always reserved for Schenley, we now put them through a costly new step. In this exclusive step the whiskies are whirled in a specially-designed vat by stainless steel blades and literally whipped into a smoothness never before attainable. This unique process breaks down each drop of the fine whiskies and grain neutral spirits into its smallest possible components and then "marries" them more thoroughly than ever before.

The result can only be realized by tasting Schenley whisky. We think you'll agree: smoothness in a whisky has now taken on a completely new meaning. So start enjoying Schenley, the only whisky with extra smoothness whipped in.

NEWS OF THE AREA

More Cattle Counted

Beef Prices May Hold

EAST LANSING — Cattle prices in 1961 will likely average near 1960 prices, says John Ferris, Michigan State University agricultural economist.

Although the United States Department of Agriculture recently sharply lowered its estimates of the number of cattle and calves on U.S. farms, there are still more cattle eligible for marketing this year than there were last year, he says.

When the 1959 census of cattle numbers was tabulated, the USDA found it had overestimated the increase in cattle numbers since the 1955 census. It found that there are 8¼ million less cattle than was expected.

The price outlook is not changed much because of the new estimate, Ferris says. Total cattle and calf numbers are still at a record level and are up one per cent from a year ago. The revision does confirm the belief that the current buildup in beef cattle numbers has been gradual.

★ ★ ★

The prospects for spring are for increased marketing of fed cattle and some continued seasonal decline in cow slaughter. The net effect should keep finished cattle prices in April near March levels, but a moderate decline is in prospect for sometime this spring, Ferris says.

★ ★ ★

Comparing the number of cattle this year to the number a year ago, Ferris says that while dairy cattle numbers are down one per cent, beef cattle numbers are up two per cent.

"Breaking down the beef inventory, we find beef cows up two per cent, no change in the number of heifers one to two years of age, one per cent more calves and four per cent more yearling steers."

Special School Confab Eyed

Huron Valley Board to Decide on Proposals for Voter Presentation

MILFORD — The Huron Valley Board of Education is expected to schedule a special meeting later this month to decide what proposal on school needs should be presented to voters.

★ ★ ★

The Citizens' Advisory Committee has recommended several proposals to the school board on the district's expansion in the next decade.

Supt. Harold Hansen said that at a joint meeting with the board of education Saturday the citizens group asked that the board consider either its proposal for elementary needs for the next three years or a five-year plan calling for a junior high school in addition to the elementary buildings.

Hansen said the advisory committee told the school board a special election in May would be necessary to give ample time to get construction under way and provide additional elementary classrooms in the fall.

★ ★ ★

The total five-year program has been estimated to cost $4 million. This figure would include operational taxes for five years, according to Hansen.

Okays Tentative School Budget

$516,000 Boost Over Current Total Gets Farmington Approval

FARMINGTON — A tentative budget of $3,644,316 for the 1961-62 school year has been approved by the Farmington Board of Education.

The proposed budget is $516,000 higher than the current budget.

School Supt. Gerald V. Harrison explained the increase is for salaries of additional personnel, teaching supplies and equipment necessary to handle approximately 1,200 new students expected to enroll in the district next year.

Approximately $246,000 of the budget increase will go for new teaching personnel. Another $108,000 will be for pay increases for present teachers.

Increased operational expenses due to the increased enrollment will call for an additional $63,000, according to Harrison.

66.4 FOR SALARIES

Pay increases for all personnel over and above their annual increments in order for the school district to remain competitive will require an additional $89,000. The remaining $10,000 of the $516,000 increase is budgeted for capital improvements, the superintendent said.

Of the total budget, 66.4 per cent or $2,742,236 is earmarked for teacher salaries. Nearly $450,000 is needed for school plant operations.

The proposed budget is based on a total operating tax of 18.93 mills, of which 10 mills have been approved by the voters in recent years.

The remaining 8.93 mills has been requested from the County Tax Allocation Board. Currently the board allows the district only 8.12 mills.

Save 3 Children From Flint Fire

Mother With Flaming Hair Rescues Two and Fireman Finds Other

FLINT (UPI)—A Flint mother, her hair afire, rescued two of her three children from their burning apartment Sunday morning. A fireman saved the third.

Mrs. Gloria Miller, 23, awoke to find her hair ablaze from a fire that started in a trash can in the apartment hallway. She ran to an adjoining bedroom and took Delen, 5, and Glen Jr., 2, into the living room.

Then she dashed back to the bedroom to rescue John, 11 months. When she returned to the living room, Delen had disappeared and she was unable to find him.

Mrs. Miller helped the two children climb through the living room window, then she jumped out herself.

When firemen arrived, fireman Robert Parker went into the furnace room at the end of the hallway and found Delen unconscious. He was revived at the scene and taken to Hurley Hospital.

Mrs. Miller was treated for burns on her hands, arms and back. The other children were not injured.

Firemen said the blaze was started by a carelessly discarded cigarette.

The father was not home at the time.

Sponsors U.S. Loans to Aid Traffic Snarls

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A snarl of congested traffic is choking the economies of the nation's cities, Sen. Harrison A. Williams said today at the start of Senate transportation hearings.

Williams, D-N.J., sponsor of a $325-million plan to help cities and towns solve their mass transportation problems, said in an opening statement that such legislation was "urgently needed."

The housing subcommittee of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, headed by Sen. John J. Sparkman, will hold a three-day hearing on ways to preserve and improve mass transportation services.

Williams introduced a bill, with 18 cosponsors, to provide a low-interest, long-term revolving loan fund of $250 million and a $75 million matching grant program to help localities solve their transportation tieups.

YOUR BEST INVESTMENT IS IN YOURSELF

Can you afford specialized business training? You can't afford not to have it. When you are young the best investment you can make is in yourself. One hundred dollars invested in a bond will bring you three or so dollars a year — unless something happens to the bond. But a hundred dollars invested in acquiring knowledge or skill will bring you dividends of pleasure and profit as long as you live. Your principal will be invested in a business you control. It will be where you can watch it. Booms can't inflate it and depressions can't wipe it out. Thieves can't steal it. Relatives can't borrow it.

REP. REECE

GOP Man Dies From Cancer

Rep. B. Carroll Reece, Active in Washington, Will Be Missed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. B. Carroll Reece of Tennessee, one-time Republican national chairman and long allied with the most conservative forces of his party, is dead at 71.

Reece died Sunday in the Bethesda, Md., Navy Medical Center, which he entered in January. The hospital reported death was caused by lung cancer.

He was in and out of the hospital several times after minor surgery, and even went to the Capitol to vote against the enlargement of the House Rules Committe, of which he was a member.

His death left the house lineup at 172 Republicans and 260 Democrats, with five vacancies.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said at Los Angeles he felt a personal loss because Reece "was one of my most loyal friends and supporters." Nixon said "in his long carer he established a record of success in political activity which has seldom been equaled in the nation's history."

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, vacationing at Palm Springs, Calif., called Reece "a veteran in legislative and political affairs and a staunch supporter of the principles I have sought to advance during the years of my two administrations. He will be greatly missed."

Reece served as national chairman from 1946 to 1949, resigning his House seat to do so. Under his direction the GOP captured control of Congress in 1946 — the Congress President Harry S. Truman assailed as a "do-nothing Congress" in his successful 1948 presidential campaign.

Reece was serving his 18th term in the House. He suffered only one defeat, in 1930, and after that was not even opposed by Democratic candidates in his staunchly Republican district, one of two GOP districts in Tennessee.

Camp Fire Girls Mark 51st Year With Show

Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls celebrated the organization's 51st birthday with a stage show "The Growing Years" Saturday at Lincoln Junior High School.

★ ★ ★

As a conclusion of the council's golden jubilee observance, the program was a review of the past 50 years in skit, song and dance.

The first telephone conversation, silent movie scenes, the women's suffrage movement and World War I and II activities on the homefront were among subjects chosen for skits.

★ ★ ★

The crossword puzzle and bingo crazes, establishment of the United Nations, the beatnik age and the presidential election also were dramatized.

POPULAR DANCES

Dances popular during the past 50 years, including the soft shoe, Charleston, jitterbug and rock and roll, were staged.

The girls also offered their versions of the popular tunes "Good Old Summertime," "Mammy," "Whistle While You Work," "Buttons and Bows," "Any Bonds Today?" and "76 Trombones."

Camp Fire's typical activities through the years were reviewed in skits covering the founding of the organization, an Indian dance and ceremonial, community service projects and camp outings.

★ ★ ★

Songs and traditional youth and folk songs were sung by the group's chorus under the direction of Mrs. Jasper Warden and Mrs. Melvin Boersma.

Arrangements for the show were made by Mrs. Eldon Gardner, assisted by Mrs. Buell Smith, Mrs. Charles Cupp Jr., Mrs. Harry Gustkey, Mrs. Norbert Hoffman and Mrs. Ray Hoffman.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Bernard Stickney, Mrs. Roosevelt Wells, Mrs. Sydney Deacon, Mrs. Charles Cohen and Mrs. Lawrence Rogers also helped plan the program.

MEMBER AGENCY

The Pontiac Council is a member agency of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

A national organization, providing leisure-time activities for girls 7 to 18, Camp Fire Girls offers membership where volunteer neighborhood leadership is available.

Shares Nurse With John Jr.

Caroline Goes Halfway

WASHINGTON, (UPI) — Three-year-old Caroline Kennedy is now sharing her nurse with her baby brother John Jr. and doesn't mind it at all.

Caroline's nanny, Maude Shaw, took over care of the President's infant son with the departure two weeks ago of nurse Elsie Phillips.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Phillips' departure was according to plans, explained Mrs. Kennedy's press secretary Pamela Turnure. She is a baby nurse and it was intended that she would only remain at the White House until the end of February, when John Jr. would be well launched in his new habitat.

Caroline is quite happy to share her governess with her baby brother and many times puts up a fuss wanting to give Miss Shaw an assist in wheeling him around in his pram on the White House grounds.

5 SQUARES A DAY

John Kennedy Jr., born Nov. 25, is now a bouncing 12-pound 12½ ounces. He takes five feedings a day and his diet has been broadened to include strained meat and vegetables, soup, and cereals and fruits for breakfast.

He's energetic, has good lungs and doesn't mind using them to get what he wants at the executive mansion.

★ ★ ★

Red-haired Miss Shaw wears spotless white uniforms, and manages to keep a close eye on Caroline. But in the mornings she has an able assistant in the President, who lets his little blonde tot stroll over to the executive office with him for a morning chat.

Caroline is quickly getting the feel of her father's job. The other morning the President's aides kept peeking into the cabinet room and coming away with broad smiles. The reason for their amusement was Miss Caroline sitting in the President's chair, giving her views to an invisible audience.

"Indian Pow-Wow" was the theme of Tipacon Chapter's annual Hand of Friendship brunch Sunday. Getting into the spirit of things were members (from left) Mrs. Cecil McAllister of Meadowleigh Street, Mrs. Paul Huffman of Le Grande Avenue, Mrs. D. Maxine Davison of East Pike Street and Gladys Hyatt of South Genesee Avenue.

Business Group Has Brunch

The Cotillion Room at The Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills, was the setting for the Tipacon Chapter, American Business Women's Hand of Friendship Brunch Sunday.

Based on an Indian theme, the program was referred to as an Indian "Pow Pow." A white Indian headdress loaned by Pontiac Motor Division centered the speakers' table.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Charles Stark, president, welcomed the 106 members and 43 guests and Mrs. Merle Humphries gave the invocation. Maxine Davison was mistress of ceremonies.

Ruth Cramer, vice president, sang "By the Waters of Minnetonka," with flute obligato played by Pamela Morris, Mrs. Ben Ebling and Miss Cramer sang "Indian Love Call" as a duet. Florence Schlesser accompanied all selections.

★ ★ ★

Under the direction of Barbara Battin, nine girls from the Miniwakiya Camp Fire Girls presented an Indian folk song and dance. Participating were Elaine Adamczyk, Mary Lou Anderson, Marsha Beard, Londa Briles, Sandra Craycraft, Jennie Hayes, Billie Rooksberry, Sally Saari and Charlene Sayre, with Mrs. Irene Warden at the piano.

A satirical skit on Hiawatha, called "Song of She-A-Watha," stressed the aims and purposes of the ABWA, an educational organization devoted to improving employer-employe relationships.

★ ★ ★

Participating in the number written and directed by Mrs. D. Richard Veazey were Mrs. Earl Atkinson, Gladys Hyatt, Mrs. Paul Huffman, Mrs. Stark, Mrs. Henry Healy, Mrs. Charles Irish, Mrs. Cliff Marsh, Lillian Laska, Mrs. Howard Hess, Mrs. Cecil McAllister, Mrs. Donald Lunsford, Mrs. Virginia Sommerville and Pauline Logsdon.

★ ★ ★

Bendig Jr., and Mrs. Lunsford, conversation table; Mrs. Veazey, program.

The meeting closed with benediction by Mrs. Welch.

Americana Decor Is Boy-Proof

CHICAGO (UPI)—The problem of decorating a small boy's room is where to put the "snakes and snails and puppy dogs' tails."

Lisa Lamberty, home furnishings coordinator, suggested meeting the challenge with a handsome but rugged early American decor.

"But leave the delicate four-poster bed of Early American tradition out of a boy's room," she counseled. "A trundle bed will reflect the same period and it's better for bouncing."

Miss Lamberty's newest design for a boy's room makes use of a Salem maple-finished bed, with the trundle or lower bed rolling out for an overnight guest.

While rosebud strewn sheets and coverlets look marvelous with Early American maple or pine, Miss Lamberty is against them for a boy's room.

"Hound the stores for cotton coverlets printed with gaily colored pennants, Madras spreads, striped bolsters and tailored throw pillows.

Wallpapers in provincial prints are also taboo for a boy's room, Miss Lamberty said. She suggested neutral walls and matching draperies as the best background for the multi-colored trivia boys collect.

"Then you can display the boy's collections on the wall," she said. "Baseball bats, gloves, catchers' masks, mounted butterflies, stamps or fishing tackle make ideal wall decorations."

Cards Get Lost So Use Phone

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: A week ago my husband and I drove out to the suburbs to visit friends of ours. We hadn't called in advance to let them know we were coming. They were not at home.

I wrote a message on my visiting card to let them know we were there and left it in their mail box. I haven't heard a word from them since. I thought surely she would call and say that they were sorry to have missed us and perhaps invite us out another time.

I feel rather hurt over this silence. Will you please tell me if I am wrong in expecting some acknowledgment of our visit from them?

A: A visiting card left in a mail box can easily be lost, and my suggestion is that you telephone and tell your friends how sorry you are to have missed them the last time you came out to their house.

Q: On several occasions recently I have received formal engraved invitations to an open house for a business organization.

All of these have included an RSVP notation. Since these are professional functions rather than social I have wondered if it is proper to notify the sender if I do not plan to attend.

I think the sender should be notified in case of acceptance but doubt the necessity of replying otherwise. I will appreciate your opinion regarding this matter.

A: You should answer an RSVP invitation even if you are going to regret so that the sender will know you have received it.

★ ★ ★

Q. In a restaurant where finger bowls are not provided, is it ever permissible when a small child is at the table to dip the corner of the napkin into the water glass to clean the child's face or hands?

A: Rather than dip the corner of the napkin into the water glass, it is much better to hold it against the rim of the glass and then to tip the glass enough to moisten the edge of the napkin.

Food production per hour of farm labor has more than doubled the past 30 years chiefly because of the advance of farm machinery.

It's Not as Illness, but See the Doctor

Change Not to Be Feared

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Once in a while I like to try to take the "ghosts" out of menopause. Judging from mail from my readers there are still many old wives' tales haunting it.

Menopause is not an illness. It is as natural a part of a woman's life as puberty. One marks the beginning of the childbearing period and the other the end of it. Most women who are in good health weather menopause with little discomfort, some with none at all.

The body is in a state of transition and until the glandular system adjusts to the new setu pthere may be some mild symptoms. I think that most women have at least one of these.

You may tire more easily and you may find that you are more sensitive and less well-balanced emotionally than you naturally are.

Some women experience mild flushing of the face while a few have extreme hot flashes. With today's medical know-how your doctor will be able to give you relief from these symptoms if he feels you need it.

Don't believe "old wives' tales" about menopause, but DO see your doctor if you have any unusual symptoms.

Physicians have told me that much of the trouble women have with menopause is psychologicalk they are afraid of it. And why not, when they hear that a woman ages rapidly after menopause, that she may lose her mind during it and that romance will be dead.

However, there ARE dangers connected with menopause. One is the danger that a woman may damage her family life by taking herself too seriously, rather than laughing at her moods and knowing they will pass and she will again be her usual, happy self.

And her husband should laugh with her. I think that husbands should definitely be informed about the real facts of menopause.

The greatest danger of this period is that a woman may blame unusual symptons and conditions on menopause and not seek medical help as she would otherwise have done. Sometimes symptoms of cancer are attributed to menopause and are therefore neglected until it is too late. Any irregularities should be reported to your doctor at any age.

So, look forward to the years after this transition period. Many women experience new energy and are lovelier than ever. Keep in touch with your physician

Are Women Snobs? Ads Look That Way

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Do you reckon we really are as big snobs as a lot of advertisers seem to think we are?

Snob appeal in advertising started out in subtle vein. But it gets more frankly snob-appealish all the time.

"How's your SQ?" asks an ad in a recent magazine. (At the bottom of the ad SQ is explained as standing for Snob Quotient.)

The reader is asked to answer three questions with a "Yes" or "No." "Do you yearn to wear a Christian Dior original?" "Do you adore the thought of gliding down Fifth Avenue in a Bentley Continental?" and "Do you thrill to travel to Europe — private suite by Cunard?"

How does the reader score herself? Well, says the ad, one Yes out of three is "fair." Two out of three is "good." And three yeses assures her that her Snob Quotient is "excellent."

And presumably she is just the fair-haired girl to really appreciate the product being advertised. But what about the woman who doesn't yearn for a Dior original, a Bentley Continental, or think that having a suite on an ocean liner would be the living end?

Her "SQ" probably stands for slob quotient in the copywriter's opinion.

And if you think this is just an isolated case of snob appeal advertising how about the interior decorator who boldly advertises: "The home is now the No. 1 status symbol. Why not let us plan a decor that will be the envy of your friends?"

Or the department store that recently advertised "His" and "Her" private planes? Watch the advertising directed at women (especially in the fashion and decorating journals) and see if you think we women have as high a Snob Quotient as the advertisers seem to think we have.

Gift of a Life to Be Celebrated for 17th Year

BOSTON (AP)—For more than a week now the family of Joseph and Mary Cavalieri has been cooking, baking and cleaning in a small East Boston tenement for a feast that is the Cavalieris' own.

* * *

Seventeen years ago twins were born to Joseph and Mary. One died at birth. The parents vowed that if God would spare the other they would celebrate the gift each year at the feast of St. Joseph. Salvatore lived.

Now that the feast is a hand again, the Cavalieris expect 1,500 persons to crowd through their front door before the thanksgiving ends at midnight Wednesday. The feast includes sweetbreads, pastries, fried fish, meat balls, sausage, nuts and nine-year-old red wine.

For each visiting family as they leave there is a packaged loaf of bread—450 loaves in all.

Standing before a seven-tier altar in the living room, Joseph Cavalieri, now 72, remarked Sunday on the good fortune that has attended the family—himself, his wife, nine children, 18 grandchildren.

"We have had no troubles," he said, "and our health has been good. Is that not a blessing?"

Aged Parents Are an Exhausting Burden

MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Some time ago I saw a noted Indian motion picture — a movie written, directed, acted by people reared in Asia's ancient tradition of unquestioning respect for age.

In it a poor scholar and his wife are finding it hard to feed themselves, their children and the family's toothless, twisted, gentle old crone of a grandmother.

Their poverty deepens. With the lessening of her food supply, the wife's patience with the old woman's appetite lessens.

Finally necessity forces the agonizing decision. The old woman is told to leave the home that has no more food to give her. Heartbreakingly feeble, leaning on her stick she obeys.

In America aged parents can exhaust children's supply, not of food but of moral and physical strength.

SHARES EXPERIENCE

Though she doesn't share the Indian woman's tradition of filial devotion, my correspondent Mrs. D. is obviously sharing the same painful conflict. She writes:

"My husband wants me to put my father in a nearby home for old people.

Dad is 83, hard of hearing, helpless in many ways and so forgetful he needs constant attention.

But I dare not suggest this solution to him though I'm so tired I sometimes think I hate him. Between my family's complaints and dad . . . "

We are entitled to resentment when we are burdened with cares beyond our strength. None of us possesses unlimited energies. It is not evil to feel what you feel.

As the good Indian woman resented old age's inroads on her food supply, good American children can resent its inroads on their supply of strength. And are sometimes forced to face their depleted state.

Your husband's suggestion is not that of an enemy.

'ALWAYS A RISK'

There is, of course, always the risk that an institutionalized old parent will droop in his new environment. But all homes for the aged are not dismal vestibules of death.

If you can find a good one, there is also the possibility that your father will find it more satisfactory than his prejudice believed it could be, that his dependence on strangers from whom he expects little will be less humiliating than dependence on the tired and exhausted daughter from whom he expects everything.

However, in India or America, there is no evasion of the pain in this decision. So nobody else can ever make it for us.

Jimson Weed Revealed to Be Dangerous

NEW YORK (UPI)—Angel trumpet, a weed that grows wild in various parts of the United States and Canada, was implicated recently as the cause of poisoning in three New Jersey children.

* * *

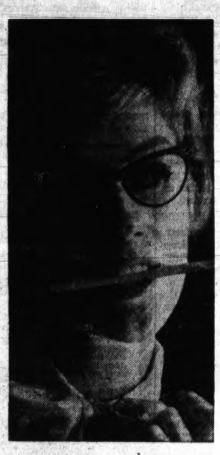

Dr. Solomon Weintraub, of the St. Francis Hospital, Trenton, reported that the children had eaten parts of the weed. Symptoms included screaming, hallucinations and inability to recognize anyone, the physician reported in "Postgraduate Medicine," a professional journal. The plant also is called Jimson weed.

Seagoing Detective Warns of Trouble

PATTERSON, N. J. (UPI)—An electronic seagoing "detective" has been developed to warn of potentially dangerous engine trouble in ships at sea.

The device, a hearing temperature monitor, developed by Bogue Electronic Manufacturing Co., magnetically keeps constant check of 40 different bearing points, which, if overheated, could cause engine stoppage and even fire.

When overheating occurs, an electronic "brain" sounds an alarm which automatically pin-points the trouble spot.

Ex-Fisher Body Official Retiring at Livonia Plant

Appointment of Herbert W. Horne as resident comptroller of the Fisher Body plant in Livonia, was announced in Detroit Friday by O. V. Booth, divisional comptroller and assistant treasurer of General Motors.

* * *

Horne will replace Reginald J. Nicholas who is retiring April 1 under provisions of the General Motors retirement plan after nearly 42 years of service.

A business administration graduate of the University of Detroit, Horne started with Fisher Body in 1938 as a clerk at the Lansing plant. In 1950, he was transferred to Fisher Body General Offices in Detroit as a statistician in the accounting department. A series of promotions there led to his appointment as procedural auditor in operations analyses, a position which he has held since 1958.

Nicholas began his General Motors career in 1919 as a cost clerk with GMC Truck & Coach in Pontiac. He was transferred to Fisher Body in Pontiac in 1924, and was named assistant comptroller of the Fisher-Lansing plant in 1936.

In subsequent moves he was comptroller of the Lansing, Flint No. 1 and Grand Blanc Fisher Body plants. In 1942 he was appointed to group comptroller at General Offices in Detroit. He was made resident comptroller of the Pontiac plant in 1946, and resident comptroller of the Livonia plant in 1958.

Grenade Being Used for Paper Weight

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI) — Frank Nevarea, night watchman at the Pima County Courthouse, noticed an ugly-looking grenade on the desk of Assistant Planning Director John Tsaguris.

Nevarea called police. Officers notified demolition experts from Davis-Monthan Air Force Base. They pronounced the grenade a dud.

Tsaguris said he was amazed at all the fuss. He had been using the grenade as a paperweight for the last year.

Old Car's in Demand

WARSAW (UPI) — One of the most envied people in Poland today is a young man who owns a 1924 Chrysler car with 720,000 miles to its credit. The Chrysler Corp. is reported to have offered to trade him a new Chrysler for the old car if he can get it to Detroit.

Man in Space

Will Astronauts Be the First?

By BILL WILKS

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Headlines may call the Project Mercury astronaut the first man in space, but there are those who would disagree — and not just the Russians.

* * *

Which is by way of pointing up the difficulty in trying to answer the question, "Where, exactly, does space begin?"

There is no "exactly." You can get half a dozen answers to this question and all are right. It depends upon which branch of space science is involved.

* * *

To the medical man, space begins about 12 miles up — some 63,000 feet — because a man's blood will boil at that height without a pressurized suit. Thus men have been flying into space for some time as far as medical science is concerned.

SPACE BORDER

To the aeronautical engineer, space starts where there no longer is enough air to furnish "lift" for airplane wings — about 35 miles above the earth.

* * *

To the space vehicle engineer, space begins where there no longer is enough air to offer serious resistance at tremendous speeds — about 160 miles from earth.

To the radio engineer, space cannot possibly start below 300 miles because radio men have bounced radio waves from reflecting layers of the upper atmosphere at that height.

To the astronaut, "true space begins up where the earths air finally thins to nothing — 600 to 1,000 miles from the earth.

* * *

What about "outer space?" There is no exact answer for this, either, although in general scientists prefer to use it for flight outside the atmosphere.

WILL BECOME FAMILIAR

This is only the beginning. Your grandchildren and great-grandchildren, etc., will become familiar with these terms:

Cislunar space: That between the earth and moon. "CIS" means "on this side" — this side of the moon.

Translunar space: "Trans" means beyond — beyond the moon.

Interplanetary space: Between the planets.

Later, much later, perhaps, when your descendants no longer can trace you on their family tree — man may fly into interstellar space, between stars.

Only today's foremost dreamers talk of flight into inter-galactic space — between galaxies.

Loan Oil Paintings to U. of C. Campus

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UPI) — A collection of 20 rare oil paintings by 15th and 17th century masters has been loaned to the University of California's Santa Barbara campus.

The prize collection belongs to Francis Minturn Sedgwick, who has hinted the paintings may find a permanent home on the campus.

If so, university chiefs say, it will be the most important art acquisition in the history of the institution.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"
New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.
As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.
Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).
(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID'S unequalled rebulking action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.
COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Boys Club Looks Back on Boom

By JIM LONG

Not too long ago — just a year to be precise — the West Suburban Boys Club in Keego Harbor reorganized and later moved into new quarters.

★ ★ ★

Officials naturally anticipated increased membership.

The expansion came, but not like the gradual rise that had been expected.

Rather than by degrees, the membership jumped "almost overnight", to more than 800, nearly tripling the number of boys who had taken part in the supervised activities.

Vern Bradburn, club president, offers a simple explanation for the phenomenal growth which challenges any other boys club in the state.

"We give the boys what they want. If we don't have a particular program that interests a group of youngsters, we start one."

MERGED LAST SPRING

And that's how it's been going ever since the West Suburban Boys Club came into existence with the merger of the West Bloomfield Boys Club and the West Side Boys Club last spring.

The merger brought together about 300 boys.

So, actually, the history of the West Suburban club has two stories.

The West Bloomfield club originally began in 1942 as a hobby club under the direction of Clifford Barnes, who is now directing all activities.

★ ★ ★

For a while the little club met in the basement of Scotch Elementary School, but increased membership forced Barnes to seek additional facilities,

GIVEN UNUSED BUILDING

With the help of community leaders and civic organizations, Barnes was provided an unused building behind Roosevelt Elementary School.

There the club's organizers set up a workshop. At this point the club joined the Boys Club of America.

As membership grew, a boxing program was started. A ring, gloves and other equipment were located; training instructions and bouts were organized.

A basketball program was launched by Robert Berry, and soon a comprehensive sports program was developed.

By 1959 the club had field teams in all major sports, and had developed a thorough workshop and hobby program.

Then the unexpected happened. The West Bloomfield School Board discovered that it would need the building behind Roosevelt school, and the club had to seek a new location.

This search for new quarters brought together the two small clubs.

The West Side club was started in 1953 by a group of men under the guidance of County Clerk Daniel T. Murphy and Frank Thompson.

They organized a basketball team at Whitfield School and it proved an immediate success. That fall the program was enlarged to include football.

RESPOND GENEROUSLY

Help came from many areas.

The PTA, supported the football and basketball programs; businessmen and civic organizations responded generously to the appeals for uniforms and equipment; and, like the West Bloomfield club, a number of adults volunteered as coaches and supervisors.

Then, in the spring of 1960, the clubs became one so that even more youngsters could be brought up in a spirit of teamwork and fair play.

They have settled down and are operating in the VFW Post 1387 building at Willow Beach and Summers roads.

During the last year, activities have been expanded to provide more interests for the area's young citizens who are drawn from Keego Harbor, Waterford, West Bloomfield and Bloomfield Townships, Walled Lake, Sylvan Lake, Union Lake and Pontiac.

Facilities and instructions are available to cover a wide scope of athletics and hobbies — football, baseball, basketball, skin diving, woodworking, hobbycraft, reading, pocket billiards and table tennis.

★ ★ ★

The new clubhouse, leased from the VFW with an option to purchase, has been partitioned to provide a woodworking shop; a hobby shop, an arts and crafts room, a library and reading room, and a game area.

The athletic program was broadened with 33 baseball teams participating in five organized leagues.

In football, 125 boys participated on the varsity, junior varsity and pee wee reserve teams. There are 14 baseketball teams.

Just recently a "Girls' Night" program wes initiated to give girls of the area use of the club's new facilities every Tuesday.

All this has been accomplished on an annual operating budget of $14,000, raised through fund drives and donations.

NEED CONTINUED SUPPORT

"And as long as we can continue to get the backing and support of area citizens there will be no stopping the West Suburban Boys Club," Bradburn said.

"We've got something good going here, and we don't intend to let up in making it one of the best clubs for youngsters in the state."

Pontiac Press Photos

CENTER OF ATTENTION — When scores get close as in this billiard-type game, boys of the West Suburban Club respond to cheer on the underdog with enthusiasm causing no little obstacle to the players. The recreation is only one of many games provided at the club's new quarters at the VFW post in Keego Harbor, Willow Beach and Summers roads.

FATHERLY ADVICE—Vern Bradburn, president of the West Suburban Boys Club in Keego Harbor, talks over some "problems" with three young members of the club. From left are Mike Grulke, 15, Kenneth Murphy, 10, and Danny Bernal, 12. The club serves youngsters from West Bloomfield and Bloomfield Townships, Union Lake, Walled Lake, Sylvan Lake and Pontiac.

"WHAT IS IT?" — Mitchell Gerou, 10, left, a fourth grader at Roosevelt School, would like to know what Bobby Bernal, 10, is making on the jig saw. Only trouble is Bobby himself isn't sure what will be the outcome. More than 800 boys like Mitchell and Bobby are provided with all types of woodworking equipment, along with numerous other indoor and outdoor activities at the West Suburban Boys Club.

Eagles Club Celebrates in New Building

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

This past weekend members of the Waterford Township Eagles Club participated in a well-earned celebration. They just finished a 36x30 foot addition to their 3-year-old building on Highland Road.

Months of back-breaking work by both men and women of the organization have made the big cement-block addition possible.

On the outside the building is plain, but ruggedly solid. Inside there is a warm feeling of good fellowship due to the working together of plumbers, carpenters, electricians and masons.

Downstairs the women had a hand in designing the spacious kitchen which can handle some 200 diners at a time. Everything is efficiently planned. There are no frills, no expensive utilities — just plain kitchen fans, porcelain sinks and big donated second-hand refrigerators.

The dining room downstairs is lined in a light wood paneling, and the well lighted room produces a feeling of friendliness. New chairs and tables are scattered casually about, and here families may have dinners Friday, Saturday and Sundays at a minimum price.

★ ★ ★

The upstairs level of the addition is a duplicate of the lower area, complete with a big kitchen and dining room. Folding doors can be put back against the wall when more space is needed for dancing, thus producing a sizeable ballroom.

Construction of the building moved along faster than anticipated, according to Duane Johnson, club secretary-manager. This was due to the skilled labor available because of factory shutdowns, and "you can't keep a good worker down," according to Johnson.

Members and guests were treated to a "Dinty Moore" style corn beef and cabbage dinner Friday night along with the usual fish-fry.

Saturday a large smorgasbord dinner was served in both dining rooms, with dancing to a band later in the ballroom.

State and national officials conducted class initiation ceremonies for the 550 club members and the Women's Auxiliary after dinner Sunday.

The slogan of Waterford Township's Eagles, "Happy While Helping," has been projected throughout the area for many years. United Fund, polio, cancer and other fund-raising campaigns have benefited by the only fraternal organization in the township and the human compassion for their fellowmen is evidenced in each project.

Child Rescues Playmate

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — A 5-year-old boy is Formosa's newest hero. A group of children playing at nearby Tamsui Beach were engulfed by a big wave Sunday. As they ran to higher ground, Wang Pi-piao noticed a playmate was missing. Fighting back through the surf, the boy found Wang Kuei-ying, 3, terrified and exhausted, and pulled her to safety.

GOOD EATING — The Women's Auxiliary of the Waterford Township Eagles Club are some of the county's best cooks, as is evidenced by members of the Lions Club. This is the first club to take advantage of facilities in the new addition to the Eagles clubhouse on Highland Road near Crescent Lake Road.

PLAIN NOW — LATER BEAUTIFUL — That's the plan for the Waterford Township Eagles Club on M59 near the township hall. The addition (left), like the other section of the building, was constructed entirely by club members. Much of the material was also donated by members, and even the Women's Auxiliary helped paint the beautiful interior. The club celebrated its grand opening of the addition this weekend.

But Things Are Moving Ahead Rapidly

Peace Corps Planners Have Problems

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "We keep waking up at night thinking of new problems," Peace Corps Director R. Sargent Shriver said the other day. "Some of them we know very little about. But that's the way it is in a brand new agency."

Shriver then outlined some of the problems, including how to select projects, how to teach languages like Swahili, how to supervise young volunteers in underdeveloped lands and how to find office space and salary money in overdeveloped Washington bureaucracy.

President Kennedy's Peace Corps probably has had the fastest genesis of any Washington agency — roughly from the November campaign to its March 4 formal White House announcement. But, for all its unanswered questions, its plans are rapidly taking shape.

The Peace Corps staff is consulting a half dozen American universities about setting up training programs on their campuses for volunteers. It hopes to have the first training courses started by May or June and the first volunteers overseas next fall.

★

One typical small problem was raised by a diplomat from a primitive country. "You must know," the diplomat said, "That in my country, if a young man takes a girl out to dinner, it is mandatory that he marry her."

A note was made to include this in the instructions.

'STAGING AREAS'

Training courses will last from three to six months in the United States, with perhaps two weeks' more training in the project country or in a "staging area."

For example, Puerto Rico may be a training area for volunteers going to Latin America, and Hawaii for those going to Asia.

The training courses will include the language and culture of individual countries, courses in applying skills such as engineering to particular areas, and even a refresher course in American history and government.

"Our volunteers overseas will be asked a lot of questions about America," one official said; "Tough questions about capitalism, communism and neutralism." Shriver, however, has said that "aiding human needs" rather than "selling America" will be the main job of volunteers.

★ ★ ★

Language experts have advised the corps that in four or five months of study, four hours a day, a college graduate can be taught a speaking knowledge of even difficult languages such as Hindi, Bengali and Swahili. But initial projects are to be in countries where the language barrier is not extreme.

DETERMINE NEEDS

From exploratory talks with some 15 countries in Asia, Africa and Latin America, officials are getting a clearer idea of what American skills are wanted.

Teaching is to be a major part of the first projects.

★ ★

The Peace Corps plans to start experimentally using five potential channels for sending volunteers overseas — through programs set up by universities, by volunteer agencies, by international organizations, by other U. S. aid agencies, and directly by the Peace Corps itself.

Eventually, one or two of these may be chosen as best.

President Kennedy has promised sending 500 to 1,000 volunteers abroad by the end of the year. Shriver said he does not want to "get into a numbers game — it would be better to send 500 and have it a success than 2,000 with less success."

The Peace Corps has had some 20,000 letters of inquiry about joining. These persons will soon be sent application blanks. The returned blanks will be catalogued according to skills. Applicants will not be screened further until particular projects are chosen.

Then some of them will be called in for interviews. Although the corps is open to anyone 18 or over, officials say the standards will be "extremely high."

Overseas volunteers will get no salary. They will get an allowance sufficient to live at the level of someone in a comparable occupation in the country involved. They also will accumulate a sort of "severance pay" which they can draw when they return to the United States. This may be $50 to $70 a month, giving volunteers $1,200 or more when they finish two years of Peace Corps service.

Volunteers will not be sent abroad for their muscle power to dig ditches and nail houses. Most backward countries have plenty of labor. Many need skills which U. S. college graduates have.

Nor will volunteers live in mud huts at the lowest standard of living in a country.

They will live "at the standard of people in the same occupation, or as close to it as practical," an official said.

There will probably be one supervisor for every 10 or 20 Peace Corps workers abroad.

Class Tells—Canadiens Champs Again

Tigers Enjoy 'Golf' Day After Edging Phils, 10-8

LAKELAND, Fla. — Manager Bob Scheffing gave the Detroit Tigers a one-day vacation for golf today and even the most cynical observer would have to say the players deserve it.

They have worked hard since spring training began, and they have worked successfully. Counting a pair of "B" squad games over the weekend. The club's record in Grapefruit League competition is 8-3.

The Tigers won twice yesterday, the "B" squad beating Washington 14-1 while the varsity was downing the Philadelphia Phillies 10-8 at Clearwater. The new manager believes winning even the games that don't count is a vital matter to this club.

"With some clubs it often doesn't make much difference, but winning is important to us," he said, and here are the reason he gave:

"It's a good habit to get into, especially with a club trying to move up in the standings. We have some young players, and some new players, and we have to learn to operate as a team. When a couple of younger players aren't hitting well or pitching well — the winning gives them something else to think about. If we were losing these games, a young fellow like Steve Boros might worry quite a bit because he's not getting as many hits as he knows he can. Winning removes some of the individual pressures."

Some things about yesterday's game were most encouraging. Bubba Morton stroked a three-run pinch home run in the fourth inning when the Tigers were losing 5-0; Larry Osborne hit a three-run homer in the fifth after the Phils were leading 8-4; Joe Grzenda yielded only one hit in the last three innings; Jake Wood was on base five times and he, Rocky Colavito, Dick Brown and Osborne each had three hits.

One note suggests that the Tigers are getting into at least one mid-season groove — the game lasted three hours and 15 minutes.

Chico Fernandes batted in the winning run with his first hit of the Spring. Chico's seventh inning single was his first hit in 15 tries and raised his batting average to .067.

In other games, St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 8-0, Kansas City blanked the Chicago White Sox 2-0, Cincinnati outlasted Milwaukee 13-10, Minnesota Twins bombed Los Angeles' Dodgers 10-2, Cleveland beat San Francisco 7-6 and Chicago Cubs split, defeating the Los Angeles Angels 10-8 while losing to Boston 6-3.

Charley Maxwell hit two homers and a double in Detroit's 16-hit outburst against the Senators.

The Cards won it early, lacing Pittsburgh starter Harvey Haddix for five first-inning runs on singles by Julian Javier, Bill White, Ken Boyer, and Stan Musial, a double by Daryl Spencer and two passed balls. Bob Gibson, Ron Kline and Lindy McDaniel blanked the world champions on seven hits—four by Bill Mazeroski.

Wally Post's third spring homer was the key shot of a six-run eighth as the Reds piled it on against the Braves after forging ahead with a seven-run second. Homers by Zorro Versalles and Harmon Killebrew triggered the Twins' triumph over the Dodgers in a rain-shortened six-inning contest.

Eight runs in the fourth inning—three on a homer by John Romano and another trio on Willie Kirkland's double — got the job done for the Indians against the Giants. Yogi Berra's throwing error allowed Gus Triandos to score with the clincher for Baltimore as the Yankees lost their eighth in nine games.

Fenton Rips Wolves in Regional Final

By DON VOGEL

Leroy Decker continued to haunt his former Wayne-Oakland Conference opponents Saturday night.

This time Clarkston felt the sting of a Decker-coached team. The Wolves were soundly trounced by Fenton 67-47, in the Class B regional final at Birmingham Seaholm.

Decker, who led Holly to the state finals two years ago, was carried from the floor by his players and the Fenton fans among the 3,000 who attended the game. The coach waved Fenton's first regional trophy since the 1946 tournament.

In Wednesday night's quarter-final game, the Tigers meet Flint Bendle, the school is bested two of three times during the regular season and edged for the Genesee B championship.

It was the second time in eight days that Decker had bested a W-O foe to advance in state play. The first big triumph came over Holly in the district finals.

Bob Bruder made the victory over Clarkston all the easier by pouring in 28 points. Ron Lundy topped the Wolves with 21.

★ ★ ★

The Wolves scored the first point in the game. It was the only time they were ahead. Fenton sprinted to a 14-7 lead, saw it fade to four points at the quarter and then sprinted to a 33-19 halftime advantage.

The Tigers riddled the Clarkston zone defense and a full court defense forced the Wolves into committing many costly errors. Ron Conklin and Dick Seitz controlled the backboards.

A brief flurry in the opening minutes of the third period, carried Clarkston to within 10 points. But the Tigers rallied again with Bruder hitting two baskets and Tom Bour one to put the game out of reach.

★ ★ ★

Bill Powell, who went into the contest with a 17-point average, scored five points for Clarkston in the first quarter but was shackled by the Tigers with two fielders the rest of the way. Seitz, who had been Fenton's high scorer in the tournament, was held to 10.

★

Hill's 34 Paces Comeback

Parkers Whip Ferndale

By CHUCK ABAIR

Ferndale appeared well on its way Saturday to being Oakland County's only team in this week's prep basketball quarter-finals until a little guard named Bobby Hill took over. The result was a 53-44 triumph for Highland Park.

Hill piled up 34 points making most of his 15 field goals in 38 tries on long one handers. He also excelled as a playmaker, ball-handler and defensive man and put on a dazzling dribbling exhibition in a late Parker stall.

Ferndale, playing at home, completely dominated the opening nine minutes despite being outrebounded by the smaller visitors.

The Eagles had one scoring spree of eight in racing to a surprising 21-7 advantage early in the 2nd quarter. Then Hill and his mates started pecking away.

★ ★ ★

A standout shooter who averaged 20 a game all season, Hill hit three goals in an eight-point spurt and two more to deadlock the count at 25. A layup by ace Larry Tregoning provided Ferndale a 29-27 halftime lead.

Both teams went cold in the 3rd period. Highland Park got as much as five in front but led only 37-36 at the end of the session.

★ ★ ★

Hill had missed 10 straight shots going into the last quarter but refused to give up. He made his first four attempts as the losers were hitting once to provide a 45-37 edge and what turned out to be the clinching points. Bob swished three more and a pair of fouls to offset a late Eagle bid for at least a close finish.

Montreal NHL Ruler for 4th Straight Year

Red Wings Draw 2-0 Blank in Final Game; 'Boomer' Shut Out

BY BILL CORNWELL

DETROIT — Class will tell, they say, and the Montreal Canadiens proved theirs here Sunday night by winning the National Hockey League championship for the 4th consecutive year.

Before the largest hockey crowd in Olympia Stadium history—15,903 cash customers—the classy Canadiens crushed the hopes of runnerup Toronto by zipping to a 2-0 triumph over the Detroit Red Wings in the final game of the regular season schedule.

The Maple Leafs, who trailed Montreal by only one point entering last night's action, were held to a 2-2 tie by the New York Rangers at Madison Square Garden in New York and will have to be content with and place in the final standings, two points behind the Canadiens.

This means that Toronto will be Detroit's opponent in the opening round of the NHL's annual Stanley Cup playoffs while the Canadiens are matched against the 3rd-place Chicago Black Hawks, who lost a 4-3 decision to the Boston Bruins yesterday at the Garden.

The best-of-seven series will begin Tuesday night with Chicago invading Montreal. The Red Wings and Maple Leafs start their series Wednesday night on Toronto ice.

Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion failed in his bid to break Maurice (Rocket) Richard's 15-year-old goal record for a single season and Montreal netminder Jacques Plante couldn't retain the Vezina Trophy, but the Canadiens' late-season rush demonstrated their NHL superiority.

Geoffrion scored his 50th goal of the season last Thursday to tie the Rocket's mark, but he was unable to get No. 51 in Montreal's two remaining games.

The "Boomer" still won the NHL scoring race with 95 points, but his failure to score in the final two games left him one point shy of teammate Dickie Moore's record one-season total.

Plante was forced to surrender the Vezina to Toronto's Johnny Bower, who annexed the coveted award this year with a four-goal margin over Glenn Hall of Chicago.

The Canadiens had more incentive to win than the Detroiters and they skated that way. The Redshirts, guaranteed a playoff berth with a 4th-place finish, could move neither up nor down in the standings and their position was reflected in their caliber of play.

They were outchecked, outhustled, outskated and outplayed all the way by Montreal and if it hadn't been for some spectacular netminding by Detroit goalie Terry Sawchuk, the margin of defeat would have been worse.

Sawchuk kicked out 36 shots, including a couple of Geoffrion's finest efforts, but he was helpless to halt Jean Beliveau's 25-foot zinger in the 4th minute of the 2nd period. Beliveau intercepted Pete Goegan's pass and beat Sawchuk after Doug Harvey had touched off the scoring rush.

Montreal's 2nd goal was actually meaningless. Claude Provost fired the puck into the open net just before the final buzzer after Detroit had pulled Sawchuk out of the cage to put a 6th forward on the ice.

The Wings couldn't seem to get an organized attack under motion against the close-checking Canadiens, although Plante did make some spectacular saves on occasions and Gordie Howe hit the post from close range for the "umpteenth" time this season. Plante was credited with 19 saves.

ABC Division Has One Change

DETROIT (UPI)—The Har-Mar Printing team of West Allis, Wis., moved into ninth place in the classic team division standings at the American Bowling Congress tournament last night with a 5066 total.

The Har-Mar team totaled 2810 pins in its second appearance after a 2856 opening series Saturday for the only team change in the top ten team standings over the weekend.

Continental Plastics of Roseville, Mich., leads the classic team division with 5803, Stu's Drive-In of Urbana, Ohio, and Pepsi-Cola of Milwaukee page the regular team division with 5027 totals.

8 Straight Birdies Pay Off for Goalby

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Before he teed off for the final round of the $20,000 St. Petersburg Open golf tournament, Bob Goalby remarked casually: "I have a feeling I'm going to pick up $2,800 today."

★ ★ ★

It was an optimistic statement. Although the tall, dark and handsome 29-year-old pro playing out of Crystal River, Fla., was leading at the three-quarter mark Sunday with a 198 total, nearly a dozen players were breathing down his neck from a distance of five strokes or less.

It looked a little too optimistic when Ted Kroll, who started the day one stroke behind Goalby, caught up with him on the fourth hole.

But starting on the eighth, Goalby got down to business. He birdied eight straight holes. The streak ended with a par on the 16th and his 33-30—65 over the 6,296-yard par 36-35—71 Pasadena course gave him a four round total of 263 and victory by three strokes.

Lakers Oust Pistons From Playoff

By United Press International

The Boston Celtics, at home anywhere, are off and running toward the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division title while the Los Angeles Lakers, who find things rough on the road, cautiously move into St. Louis for Tuesday's start of the Western Division final playoff series against the Hawks.

The world champion Celtics, winners of two straight NBA titles, took a 1-0 lead over Syracuse on Sunday by downing the Nationals, 128-115.

Meanwhile, Los Angeles clinched a shot at the Hawks by eliminating the Detroit Pistons, 137-130, in the best-of-five semi-final round.

Veterans Frank Ramsey and Bob Cousy led the Boston attack with 25 and 24 points, respectively, as the Celtics withstood a late rush by the Nats and finished with a flourish.

Big Bill Russell, the league's most valuable player, scored 22 points and picked off 24 rebounds and Tommy Heinsohn tossed in 20 points, 16 coming in the second half, for the winners. Dick Barnett and Hal Greer scored 20 points apiece for Syracuse.

Elgin Baylor's 35 points led the Lakers to victory, all three of which came at home while both losses occurred on the road in the playoff series.

Baylor got some help from rookie Jerry West, who tossed in 25 points for LA, which led, 61-46 at halftime and was never in trouble.

Bob Ferry with 29 points and George Lee with 19 led the losing Pistons.

Boston travels to Syracuse for its second game while Los Angeles plays two games back-to-back in St. Louis in the NBA action which resumes on Tuesday. Both playoffs will be decided in a best-of-seven series.

Cranbrook Sport Boss Campbell Gets Fired

Athletic director Fred Campbell has been fired at Cranbrook after serving 14 years with the school.

He will conclude his duties by coaching varsity baseball this spring.

★ ★ ★

Campbell learned he was being dropped in a letter from headmaster Harry Hoey shortly after backing an assistant in the disciplining of some athletes. Hoey opposed the disciplinary move.

★ ★ ★

The departing Crane leader has had one meeting with the board of directors and will have another in trying to help set up next year's athletic program. "My main interest is for the kids. We have had a fine system here and I want to see it continue," he said.

★ ★ ★

No successor has been named and Campbell has made no future plans as yet. He had been head of all sports five years, baseball boss for 12 seasons, football skipper the last 10 falls and worked with young basketball hopefuls.

NIT Returns to National Spotlight

Buckeyes Wait for Weekend NCAA Contests

Dayton, Providence See Invitational Action on Tuesday

By The Associated Press

The National Invitation Tournament, as unpredictable as ever, swings back into the basketball spotlight Tuesday night while Ohio State, still sighing with obvious relief, preps for a weekend showdown in defense of its National Collegiate (NCAA) championship.

★ ★ ★

Dayton plays Temple and Niagara meets flashy Providence in a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden that will decide which pair joins St. Louis and Holy Cross in Thursday's NIT semifinals. Dayton (19-7) and Niagara (16-4) are the last of the original field of 12 teams in action in the 24th New York tournament and each has a score to settle after the way the other two seeded clubs—Colorado State U. and Memphis State—were treated in their openers.

Memphis State, considered a strong championship threat, was bounced by streaking Holy Cross 81-69, and St. Louis spilled Colorado State U., 59-53.

★ ★ ★

The six NIT survivors and Ohio State, Cincinnati, St. Joseph's (Pa.) and Utah—the four regional champions in the NCAA scrambling—are all that's left as another collegiate season, clouded for the second time in a decade by an ominous fix scandal, moves toward its climax next Saturday.

The NIT plays its final on Saturday afternoon with the NCAA championship Saturday night in Kansas City, where unbeaten Ohio State plays St. Joseph's and Cincinnati meets Utah in semifinal tests Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Ohio State extended its two-season winning streak to 31 and its 1960-61 record to 26-0 over the weekend, thumping Kentucky 87-74 in the Mideast regional final at Louisville Saturday night after escaping with its life and a 56-55 victory over the University of Louisville.

The two small college tournaments ended last Saturday, with Wittenberg (Ohio) beating Southeast Missouri 42-38 for the NCAA title, and Grambling (La.) whipping Georgetown (Ky.) 95-75 in the NAIA final.

Gymnastics Champion

IONIA (AP)—St. Clair High School won the first state high school gymnastics meet in 30 years Saturday by outpointing second-place Alpena 118-105. Ionia came in third in the 14-team competition with 101 points.

32 Schools Await Hoop Quarter-Finals

Just 32 teams are left of the 722 that started the state high school basketball tournament with big hopes and of the survivors only nine are familiar with the art of winning championships.

The fortunate 32 will play off Wednesday in the quarter-finals with the victors heading for the Lansing area and Friday's semi-finals.

Many of the teams still alive are newcomers to the thrill of battling for the coveted trip to Lansing and there isn't a defending champion among them. And there are only three unbeatens, all in Class D.

Of the nine former champions, four are in Class A, two each in Class B and Class C and only one in Class D.

★ ★ ★

Muskegon Heights and Jackson, both Class A quarter-finalists, and Class B River Rouge have won the most state championships — three each. Other ex-champs are East Lansing, Highland Park, Holland Christian, Kalamazoo Christian, Houghton and Fowler.

The Heights (14-5), which defeated Escanaba 72-56 in Saturday's regional finals, wore the state crown in 1954, 1956 and 1957. Jackson (17-2), a 60-40 victor over Ann Arbor Saturday, was state champion in 1929, 1948 and 1955.

East Lansing (18-2), which plays Jackson in the quarter-finals, never has been a Class A king, but it won the Class B title in 1958. Battle Creek Central was East Lansing's 63-53 victim Saturday.

The only other former champion in Class A is Highland Park (17-2), the 1952 winner. Highland Park defeated Ferndale 53-44 Saturday and will play Harper Woods Notre Dame (20-2) Wednesday.

Flint Central (13-5), 67-52 victor over previously unbeaten Saginaw (18-1) Saturday, meets Muskegon Heights in the quarter-finals. Central never has been a Class A ruler. Two other newcomers, Detroit Catholic Central (18-1) and Lincoln Park (17-3), meet in the fourth quarter-final.

★ ★ ★

River Rouge (20-2) and Holland Christian (17-5) are the only ex-champions among the Class B quarter-finalists. The Rouge won in 1954, 1955 and 1959. Holland Christian was Class C champion in 1934 and 1935, but is going after its first Class B crown.

★ ★ ★

Kalamazoo Christian (14-10), which upset previously unbeaten Wayland 62-55 Saturday and Houghton (15-5) are the former title winners among Class C quarter-finalists.

Saturday's regional finals produced a handful of upsets, but most of the contenders came through as expected.

Most notable were the defeats of Saginaw and Wayland. Flint Central jumped all over Saginaw at the start and led from the first quarter on.

Jerry Tillman and Ernie Thompson, Saginaw's two big guns, were able to score, but their teammates were stopped. Tillman had 20 points and Thompson 21 while Cloyce Dickerson topped Flint Central with 23.

After 10 defeats, Kalamazoo Christian hardly was expected to give Wayland (21-1) much trouble. But Christian, behind 26-23 at halftime, gained backboard superiority and won with a balanced attack.

Aid to Education Backers Hit

State C. of C. Official Calls Upon Michigan to Meet Own Needs

LANSING (AP) — Michigan advocates of federal aid to education "display an appalling ignorance of accomplishments within their own state by belly-crawling to Washington and pleading for federal aid," a Michigan State Chamber of Commerce spokesman said today.

★ ★ ★

Harry R. Hall, chamber executive vice president, issued the critical statement. Gov. Swainson and Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, Democratic state superintendent of public instruction, were among those who testified in favor of the aid bill.

"With every citizen in the state looking for an opportunity to tell the rest of the nation what's good about Michigan, it does us no good to rush to Washington to beg for the privilege of paying a $3-million premium so our state can be lowered to the level of other states that have not been able to duplicate our educational advantages," Hall said.

"What a tremendous boost it would be to Michigan," he said, "if we all pointed with pride to our ability to meet our own school needs, as we are doing, instead of lending support to a program that will squeeze badly needed tax money out of the state.

★ ★ ★

"Think of the favorable publicity," Hall said, "that this demonstration of leadership could bring to help balance some of the unfavorable things being circulated about Michigan."

Monroe to Have New 75-Bed Hospital

MONROE (UPI) — Trustees of Monroe Memorial Hospital have voted to build a 75-bed hospital at a 16-acre site in the north section of the city.

★ ★ ★

The trustees said the new hospital will be built with funds from a special drive which raised $1.2 million plus $500,000 through the sale of Monroe General Hospital.

Hopes for such a 200-bed hospital were dashed earlier when Memorial Hospital was unable to secure $1 million in federal funds because of a dispute with Monroe Mercy Hospital.

The federal government would have provided the $1 million if Memorial Hospital and Mercy Hospital officers had agreed to combine their efforts and build a single hospital.

But they insisted on separate hospitals. Mercy Hospital plans a 110-bed extension on its present hospital.

Car Almost Died in 1921

Chevrolet Is 50 Years Old

DETROIT (UPI) — Fifty years ago this month a group of men working in an obscure Detroit experimental shop began assembling the first Chevrolet automobile.

The car put together in March 1911, started Chevrolet on the road to becoming the world's largest producer of automobiles. Since then more than 43 million Chevys have been sold, including a record 1,730,091 last year.

The first Chevrolet was the brainchild of Louis Chevrolet, a colorful race driver famed in the early years of the century. Chevrolet visualized and wanted to build a "people's car"—one that would be light and combine beauty with modest price.

William C. Durant, a financial genius who had just founded General Motors, liked Chevrolet's idea for a new car and backed the project.

Chevrolet and his crew, working in a loft above a small shop on Grand River Ave. in Detroit, soon had five of the models built.

On Nov. 3, 1911, following completion of the first cars, the Chevrolet Motor Co. of Michigan was incorporated and Durant leased a plant on Detroit's West Grand Blvd. to build his Chevrolets.

The car didn't get into volume production until 1912 when 2,999 were built. The next year Durant switched operations to Flint and changed the Chevrolet from a $2,000 six-cylinder car to a low-priced four-cylinder model. Sales began to pick up.

DISPLAYS EMBLEM

The distinctive Chevrolet emblem first appeared on the cars in 1913.

Durant had first seen the pattern five years earlier as a design in a French hotel where he was staying. He tore off a piece of the wallpaper and kept it to show friends with the thought that it would make a good nameplate for a car.

Durant, forced out as boss of General Motors when it ran into financial troubles in 1910, founded Chevrolet as an independent company and then used it to regain control of GM. Chevrolet became a part of GM in 1918.

The Chevrolet was almost scrapped in 1921 when sales dropped to 77,000 compared to 1,014,000 for the Model T Ford. A group of industrial engineers recommended the liquidation of Chevrolet because it "could not hope to compete in its field."

But GM decided not to drop the model and instead pumped new blood into the firm. Chevrolet was given yearly styling and engineering improvements and by 1927 rold one million cars, putting it ahead of Ford for the first time.

RACE STILL HOT

This set the stage for the sales race between the two makes that still is as torrid as ever today.

Chevrolet, proud of its engineering achievements through the years, claims many "firsts" in the low priced field, among them the 50th anniversary. It's likely the company is waiting until the 1962 model year before proclaiming a golden anniversary model since Chevrolet did not get full scale production until 1912.

Chevrolet has not yet announced any formal observance of the

The foundation is supported by 600 companies and industrial associations and last year made grants of $740,000 to 25 educational and public service groups.

Vessel Heralds Start of Great Lakes Shipping

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — The U.S. Coast Guard icebreaker Mackinaw left here at 10 a.m. today, bound for Lake Michigan on a voyage that signals the start of the 1961 navigation season on the Great Lakes.

★ ★ ★

The Mackinaw passed through the Straits of Mackinac shortly before noon, en route to meet the chemical tanker Meteor, bound from Chicago to Bay City with a cargo of benzene.

The the same time, the Coast Guard at Sault Ste. Marie announced it will begin breaking up ice in approaches to the Lower Soo locks Tuesday.

Hint Algeria Rebels Order Violence Halt

PARIS (AP)—An unusual calm settled over Algeria during the weekend, raising belief that the rebel leadership may have ordered a halt to normally frequent hit-and-run grenade attacks to set the stage for peace negotiations beginning late this month or early in April.

★ ★ ★

Scarcely an incident of violence was reported from the North African territory. Amazed French officials speculated that a de facto truce was in effect.

In France there was a ground swell of support for President Charles de Gaulle's plan to make peace with the rebels and open the way to a referendum in which the Algerians can vote on independence from France.

Grain Futures Take Drop After Selling

CHICAGO (AP)—Fairly heavy selling weakened the grain futures market in early dealings today on the board of trade. Soybeans turned lower after a firm start.

★ ★ ★

All grains were down major fractions or more during the first several minutes with setbacks in oats running to more than a cent and in rye to more than 2 cents.

Brokers said there appeared to be a good volume of hedge selling in corn. Cash corn receipts of 536 cars were well above other recent Mondays.

★ ★ ★

Soybeans were mixed at ¼ cents a bushel higher to 1¼ lower, March $2.92¾; wheat ⅝ lower to ⅛ higher, March $2.07; corn ⅛ higher to 1 cent lower, March $1.13⅛; oats 1 to 1⅜ cents lower, March 61; rye 1¼ to 2¼ lower, March $1.22¾.

★ ★ ★

The government's report Friday on estimated grain plantings this year is viewed by the trade as considerably more inconclusive than for recent past years.

Superior Ratings Go to Waterford Musical Groups

Amid some of the stiffest competition in any vocal contest, the three musical groups of Waterford Township won superior ratings Saturday at the District Four choral festival of Michigan Schools Vocal Association at Ferndale.

Some 75 students representing Waterford in the A Cappella Choir, the Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club competed with more than 130 vocalists from Lower Michigan schools.

Director Richard Meier said that during the past four years the vocal department has received 94 superior ratings in solo, ensemble and chorus festivals held throughout the state.

4 Manufacturers Hit by FTC for Pain Relief Ads

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Trade Commission has accused manufacturers of four nationally advertised pain killers with falsely advertising that their products give the fastest relief from pain.

Actually, the FTC said, "There is no significant difference in the rate of speed with which these or any other such analgesics relieve pain."

Named in the complaints were: American Home Products Corp. (Anacin), Bristol-Myers Co. (Bufferin), Plough Inme. (St. Joseph Aspirin) and Sterling Drug, Inc. (Bayer Aspirin and Bayer Aspirin for Children).

The FTC charged that television, radio, newspapers or magazine advertisements for Anacin, Bufferin and the various aspirins falsely imply that each will relieve pain faster than any other preparation on the market.

The companies have 30 days in which to answer the complaints.

Credit Kennedy as Dispute Ends

Say He Helped Speed Settlement Over Pay at Atomic Energy Plant

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy was credited today with having helped speed settlement of a wage dispute that threatened to shut down a vital atomic energy plant.

★ ★ ★

Less than five days after Kennedy expressed concern over a possible strike at the Hanford, Wash., atomic plant, the General Electric Co. reached agreement (Saturday) with the AFL-CIO Atomic Trades Council on a new contract covering 3,300 workers there.

The firm, which operates the plutonium - producing installation under contract with the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC), made a major revision last week of its offer for the first time since negotiations began last fall.

★ ★ ★

GE granted wage increases greater than were provided under the "pattern" of settlements with unions in its electrical equipment and appliance plants. It long had refused to budge from this "pattern" offer until the administration moved into the picture.

At Kennedy's request, a strike date was postponed for two weeks to allow more time to negotiate.

★ ★ ★

Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg consulted with AEC Chairman Glenn Seaborg and Rep. Chet Holifield, D-Calif., chairman of the Senate-House Committee on Atomic Energy, to develop a government plan in case of a strike.

Goldberg also conferred with Justice Department attorneys on ways to keep the plant operating in case the federal mediation efforts were unsuccessful.

16 Meet Death on Highways

Weekend Toll in State High During Last Days of Winter

Sixteen persons met death on Michigan's highways during the last weekend of winter.

Robert Bushnell, 26, of Sturgis and Albert Witting, 29, of Roseville were killed Sunday night when their auto left a rural road in St. Joseph County and struck a tree.

Donald McMunn, 17, of Morenci was killed in a two-car head-on crash Sunday on a rural road in Lenawee County.

Hugh Bagley, 48, of Orleans, Ind., was killed Sunday in a one-car accident on a rural road in St. Joseph County.

Three persons died in one-car accidents Saturday night.

Carolyn May Voll, 24, of Coldwater was killed when an auto skidded on Interstate 94 in Washtenaw County and rolled over.

Chester Wilson, 43, of Grand Rapids was killed when his auto skidded off U.S. 131 in Kent County.

Dorsel Little, 42, of Morenci was killed when his auto skidded off a rural road in Lenawee County and struck a tree.

Alfred Barnes, 57, of Fenton was killed in a two-car head-on collision on Fenton Road near his Genesee County home Saturday afternoon.

Three persons were killed in a head-on crash on old U.S. 12 about five miles west of Jackson Saturday afteraoon.

The victims were Leland A. Stewart, 48, of Kalamazoo; David Osborn, 21, and his father, Osmand Osborn, 52, both of Parma.

Two Nankin Township girls were killed Saturday when they made a left turn into the path of another auto at an intersection of Haggerty and Michigan near Wayne.

The victims were Carolyn Coleman, 19, and Nancy Bledson, 17.

Luster Lundy, 42, of Pontiac was killed when his auto ran a red light at Southfield and Nine-Mile roads Friday night and struck another vehicle.

Another Pontiac resident, 17-year-old Donald Rawlins, was killed Friday night. He died in a head-on crash on a rural road in Oakland County.

Randy Cargill, 17, of River Rouge was killed Friday night on M20 just east of Mount Pleasant when he skidded and rolled over.

Hospital to Be Site of Lecture and Show

The Oakland County Citizen's Committee for Pontiac State Hospital is sponsoring a free public lecture and variety show at the hospital's staff auditorium in the PSH administration building Tuesday evening.

Gerald Bax, hospital business executive, and Dorothy Roe, director of recreational therapy, will be feature speakers.

In appreciation of the committee's work, patients at the hospital will stage a patient variety show. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Burglars Strike Three Times During Weekend

Three weekend burglaries were reported to Pontiac police.

★ ★ ★

Burglars took a generator and regulator tester valued at $35 from Jim & Bob's Gulf Service, 836 Joslyn St.

Approximately $125 was taken in a break-in of the Buttercup Drive-In, 910 Oakland Ave., according to police.

The burglars, who entered the building by removing a window from its frame, took the money from a pool table coin box.

★ ★ ★

Young GOP Club to Hear Speakers

Two Republican candidates for state office in the April 3 election will share the spotlight at the regular meeting of the Oakland County Young Republican Club tomorrow.

Featured speakers will be John R. Dethmers, chief justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, and Thomas B. Adams, Republican nominee for Wayne State University Board of Governors.

They'll outline the importance of voting in the upcoming spring election when the club meets at 8 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House.

Dies While Dancing

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. (AP) — Ralph I. Lembo, 71, celebrating his golden wedding anniversary at a dinner with 150 guests Sunday, joined in group dancing and suffered a fatal heart attack.

An entire slate of women officials was elected for the town of Washington in Hempstead County, Ark., in April 1934, and the women served two terms.

Faces Trial Over 'False' Handbills

WARREN (AP) — A man faces prosecution here for alleged violation of Michigan election laws by passing out anti-Catholic handbills.

Willard Myer, 60, a Detroit salesman, was arrested on the weekend in connection with the appearance of handbills urging the election April 3 of eight non-Catholics.

The charge is that Myer, free on $100 bond, circulated "false, scurrilous and malicious campaign literature without listing the names of the true authors." The maximum penalty for the violation is 90 days in jail and a $100 fine.

The handbills urged the voters of this heavily Catholic city to elect eight non-Catholic candidates for office. Warren holds its city election on the same day as Michigan's general spring state elections.

Kelsey said he thought Myer had been duped into distributing the handbills by a person who posed as his (Kelsey's) friend.

Burglars Don't Fool, They Just Take Safe

The Waterford Township Recreation bowling alley was broken into and a safe containing $386 in cash and checks stolen, it was reported to township police Friday.

A window on the north side of the cement block building had been smashed, and apparently the small chest type safe passed through the opening. The office of the building was ransacked.

The alley is owned by William Smart of 177 Anforth St., Clarkston.

Jewish Cowboys Sing Loudly and Sweetly

TEL AVIV — A Jewish cowboy singer at the Omar Khayam Cafe here told us American customers that the American cowboys sing very softly, but that Jewish cowboys sing loudly and sweetly.

WILSON

"We hope that our loud and sweet songs will cause the cows in Jordan to cross the border into Israel," he jokingly explained, "because while we have plenty of cowboys in Israel we don't have plenty of cows."

Actually, the steak situation in Israel is much improved, along with every-thing else in this land. One reason for the better steak is that a Texan and a Montanan started "Operation Cowboy" near the Sea of Galilee, and there conducted a cowboy school to train the future John Waynes and Hugh O'Brians.

One day a Brahman steer leaped into the Sea of Galilee and the cowboys lassoed it. It was reliably reported to be the first steer ever lassoed in the Sea of Galilee. Israel, anyway, is thankful to Texas for helping its supply of cowboys and cows.

UAW Strike Fund at Record $32 Million

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union will be backed by a record strike fund of more than $32 million when it enters new contract bargaining with the Big Three automakers June 1.

The figure—actually $32,390,845.17 as of Dec. 31, 1960—was included in the UAW's annual financial report made public today.

It represents an increase of more than $12 million since Dec. 31, 1959, when the strike fund stood at $20.2 million. Until last year, the UAW maintained a $25-million limit on its strike fund.

The current figure is a record despite 1960 strike distributions of $6 million to 133 local unions at 156 plants, and loans of $583,000 to several civic projects.

In his financial report, UAW Secretary - Treasurer Emil Mazey said the international union's net worth—as of Dec. 31—was $48.1 million.

Clinic Backers to Flood Commission With Names

Supporters of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic expect to have petitions bearing 5,000 or more signatures ready to place before the City Commission tomorrow.

Recalling some petitions still in circulation, Mrs. Charles Nasstrom, 502 E. Mansfield Ave., Pontiac chairman of a citizens committee for the clinic, said other petitions bearing about 4,000 names have been returned so far.

The citizens group is campaigning for more county funds this year to prevent the threatened closing of the clinic's Birmingham branch for lack of money.

The petitions call for another $27,000 appropriation this year and continued county help in the future "to maintain and expand" the clinic's operation.

Mrs. Nasstrom said two proposals would be submitted to the commission tomorrow night in a renewed effort to win city support for the clinic.

The first asks, simply, for support of the clinic as "a worthwhile agency."

The second asks the commission to advise the city's seven representatives on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors to give "due consideration" to the clinic during the forthcoming battle over more funds.

★ ★ ★

The commission has already indicated strongly that it wouldn't "order" its representatives to vote for more funds.

Individually, commissioners have all expressed sympathy with efforts of the clinic to help emotionally disturbed children.

Foreign Aid Plan Ready

Gromyko Likely to Unleash New Congo Blasts

Expected to Open U.N. Debate Assailing Dag, Belgium, Kasavubu

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko was expected to open a new debate on the Congo today in the U.N. General Assembly with charges that Belgium, Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and Congolese President Joseph Kasavubu are conspiring to dismember the chaotic Central African territory.

Gromyko's newest target was the decision by Kasavubu and all other Congo political leaders except Soviet-backed Antoine Gizenga to junk the unworkable federal government plan left by Belgium and replace it with a confederation of semi-independent states.

Some observers expected Gromyko would pick up Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah's argument that Kasavubu, in accepting the presidency of the proposed confederation, had quit the presidency of the republic and had lost his right to U.N. recognition by doing so.

Hammarskjold was reported to have asked Rajeshwar Dayal of India to continue as head of the U.N. operation in the Congo despite the Kasavubu government's repeated demands for his recall. Kasavubu accused Dayal of bias toward the late Patrice Lumumba and toward Gizenga after Lumumba's death.

New York Herald Tribune correspondent Marguerite Higgins reported from Leopoldville Sunday that, according to high sources, Hammarskjold is continuing Dayal in the Congo post because the secretary general "fears to offend Dayal's countryman and boss, Prime Minister Nehru of India."

Miss Higgins reported that "the high-handedness, arrogance, even contempt with which Dayal treated the Kasavubu regime would give ground for fury on the part of any government." She added that Dayal's temporary replacement, Mekki Abbas of the Sudan, "has done much to ease the explosive situation created by Dayal's aloofness from the Congo's leaders." Dayal is now at U.N. headquarters reporting on the Congo operation.

But no, at the last moment he missed him.

Faces Big Fight in Congress Over Project Control

Program Would Create Agency Combining Four Present Groups

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy plans to send Congress tomorrow a new foreign aid program including a five-year, $7-billion development fund and bonuses for nations making social reforms.

Administration officials said the President's message would propose total spending on economic and military aid of about $4 billion a year—the amount provided in the final Eisenhower budget last January.

Of this sum, about $2.3 billion would be for economic assistance and $1.7 billion would be in military aid. More than half of the economic aid would be provided under the five-year development fund.

The administration officials who disclosed the plan acknowledged it faced an uphill fight in Congress, which has insisted on a year-to-year control of the foreign aid program.

Kennedy was reported ready to propose:

PLAN OUTLINED

—Creating a new foreign economic aid agency to tie together, under broad State Department policy direction, the work of the present International Cooperation Administration (ICA), the Development Loan Fund (DLF), the food-for-peace program and the new Peace Corps.

—Preference to aid-requesting nations that offer realistic national development plans.

—Special aid bonuses to countries that promise to carry out social reforms such as plugging tax loopholes, redistributing farm land, setting up credit agencies for small farmers and small businessmen, and other steps to guarantee that the poor masses share the fruits of U.S.-guided economic development.

Officials said the new administration did not intend to cut off aid to dictatorships or try to use American aid as a blunt weapon to force American-style economic democracy on everybody.

But they said it did intend to try to entice aid-seeking nations into doing something about spreading the wealth among the poorer classes to make them less susceptible to Communist appeals.

These officials said Kennedy would promise Congress that he

We Salute You, Nancy!

WATERFORD'S QUEEN — Nancy Serra, 17, passed all of the tests with flying colors and became Waterford Township's new symbol of beauty last night. She was crowned by last year's queen, Barbara Coe. With the selection of the township's most beautiful and talented girl, the three-day Junior Chamber of Commerce annual Sports and Builders Show was brought to a spectacular close. Nancy was chosen from a list of 12 candidates, all high school seniors. Sue Shaw of 3071 Old Orchard Road, was runner-up. Nancy plans to attend Western Michigan University next fall, majoring in mathematics. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Serra of 3642 Silver Sands Drive. More than 5,000 persons attended the show at the Community Center on Williams Lake Road, according to general Chairman Jack Cooper.

School Bill 'In if Religion Kept Out'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Administration forces appeared confident today that Congress would approve President Kennedy's aid-to-education program if the religious and segregation issues could be kept out.

★ ★ ★

Both Welfare Secretary Abraham A. Ribicoff and Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., senate manager of the Kennedy program, predicted the lawmakers would reject parochial and private school amendments and pass the legislation without major change.

But Ribicoff conceded that the $2.3 billion to help build public schools and raise teachers' pay was in "a great deal of trouble" because of the Roman Catholic hierarchy's efforts to include federal aid for sectarian schools. He said the administration would have to use plenty of persuasion to get its proposals through Congress.

Morse, chairman of the Senate Education subcommittee, agreed with Ribicoff. He said that Congress never would approve the measure if an antisegregation rider or nonpublic school aid were added.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., also said Kennedy's program had an excellent chance of winning Senate approval if it were kept free of these amendments.

Morse denounced advocates of such amendments for what he termed their attempt "to use the political power of a bloc to say, in effect, unless you yield to us you'll get no legislation."

He promised, however, to back a separate measure to provide interest-bearing federal loans to church-supported and private schools.

Ribicoff declined to say whether the administration would support a separate bill in return for Catholic leaders ending their campaign to include such help in the Kennedy program. Kennedy has contended federal aid to parochial schools would be unconstitutional.

Protestant groups continued to attack the Catholic stand. In testimony prepared for delivery today of Morse's subcommittee, the National Council of Churches of Christ opposed any provision for parochial schools.

Justice Dept. Investigating Meat, Milk, Drug Prices

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

WASHINGTON — The Justice Department is pushing investigations of alleged price fixing in meat, milk, drugs and other products "almost all across the board in certain sections of the United States."

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said "we're going to be able to lower prices in some of these important fields," and cited the successful prosecution under the Eisenhower administration of 29 big electrical equipment manufacturers.

"When the electrical conspiracy broke down," he said, "the price to the consumer and to the government fell about 30 to 40 per cent."

He said price fixing is widespread and the department has started investigations in almost every major city. "Rather important cases appear to be developing," he added, in New York City and New York State.

Kennedy was interviewed by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Keating asked about rumors "that there's been some rift or difficulty between you and J. Edgar Hoover."

"There's certainly nothing to it," Kennedy said.

Kennedy said "perhaps sometime" he would like to run for office, but plans to serve as attorney general for the full four years of his brother's term as president.

In cases of civil rights violations, he reiterated his policy of giving state officials a chance to "clean up the matter themselves" before taking federal action.

URGES MORE LEGISLATION

He urged more legislation to combat organized crime, mentioning transmission of gambling information across state lines and broadening the fields into which the FBI can move.

"It has a tremendous effect on the community when prices are fixed," Kennedy said.

"As we've seen in the case of the electrical companies, when the conspiracy broke down, the price to the consumer and to the government fell about 30 to 40 per cent.

"I think the same thing happens where there is price fixing in these other areas," he added.

"If we can have a vigorous program in this field, we're going to be able to lower prices in some of these important areas."

The FBI will continue to spearhead the fight against communism, and the administration currently has no plans for legislation in that field, Kennedy said.

Hi There, Spring! But Why Do You Bring Sleet?

When spring arrives at 3:32 p.m. today the sun will cross the equator and enter the vernal equinox. Only at the time of the March and September equinoxes is the earth's axis at right angles to the sun. Then day and night are equal.

The weatherman, however, chooses to disagree with the calendar of spring's arrival and predicts snow or rain briefly mixed with sleet for late tonight.

Snow changing to rain is also predicted for Tuesday with little temperature change. A high of 38 is expected.

Morning easterly winds at 6 miles per hour are expected to increase to 10-15 miles.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 28 degrees. At 1 p.m. the temperature reading was 48.

Upturn Cuts Possibility of Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The improved business outlook was seen today as ruling out any quick recession tax cut for individuals but President Kennedy still was reported in favor of new tax incentives to stimulate investment.

High administration sources have confirmed this view of White House thinking in tax reduction proposals but they pointed out that the President was not expected to make a final decision until April.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon has said the administration looks for an upturn in the economy next month. Thus far, Dillon is the only administration spokesman to express this specific and optimistic forecast. But White House economic advisers have predicted a new advance could begin in the spring and was likely by midyear.

★ ★ ★

Congress would not pass a general tax relief measure without an urgent request from Kennedy. The idea behind the lower taxes owuld be to put more take-home pay in the pockets of tens of millions of working Americans, Presumably they would buy more goods and services.

Hurls Defiance at Polish Reds

Prelate Pledges Roman Catholics Will Not Bow to Communists

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Hurling defiance at the Polish Communist regime, Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski pledged Sunday that the Roman Catholic Church will not bend to the Red "Caesars" in the mounting church-state struggle.

"I tell you Caesars that you will bow to your God and you will serve only him and no one else," the Polish primate declared. "Satan is mighty but man wil not bow his head before him."

The cardinal's voice boomed through the high-vaulted Church of the Visitation as he declared that state-sponsored youth groups characterized by "atheization, laicization, indifferentism, rationalism, etc." show the Communist rulers are persecuting the church.

"It is so easily said that there is no struggle against religion," Cardinal Wyszynski said. "And what is this? What can one call this?"

Wladyslaw Gomulka, Poland's Communist party chief, had charged Saturday that the Vatican is trying to provoke "persecution and martyrdom" in Poland and is sacrificing the Polish hierarchy in its fight against communism. Gomulka denied any persecution of the church.

The cardinal said that instead of anti-Communist directives, the Vatican's constat instruction was that "Poland acts on its own."

Cardinal Wyszynski said that during his conversations with Pope John XXIII, the late Pope Pius XII and other church leaders in Rome, "Not once has an attempt been made to give me any instructions whatsoever on how the Polish bishops should conduct church affairs in Poland."

Faces Trial Over 'False' Handbills

WARREN (AP) — A man faces prosecution here for alleged violation of Michigan election laws by passing out anti-Catholic handbills.

★ ★ ★

Willard Myer, 60, a Detroit salesman, was arrested on the weekend in connection with the appearance of handbills urging the election April 3 of enight non-Catholics.

The charge is that Myer, free on $100 bond, circulated "false, scurrilous and malicious campaign literature without listing the names of the true authors." The maximum penalty for the violation is 90 days in jail and a $100 fine.

The handbills urged the voters of this heavily Catholic city to elect eight non-Catholi candidates for office. Warren holds its city election on the same day as Michigan's general spring state elections.

Kelsey said he though Myer had been duped into distributing the handbills by a person who posed as his (Kelsey's) friend.

Hopes for N-Test Ban

Tempest to Enlist in War Against the Underworld

By MAX SIMON

The sight of a new Tempest will soon be sending chills through underworld characters in Pontiac.

The Tempest is the Pontiac Police Department's latest addition in the battle against crime.

Seven of the new Pontiac Motor Division economy cars have been added to the city's police fleet.

First of the compacts to be used by police here, the cars are slated for use by plain-clothes officers.

All the Tempests will be unmarked cars.

★ ★ ★

Criminals seeking to elude capture will have a hard time picking out the Tempests with detectives behind the wheel.

Knowing the color of the car won't help.

Each of them will be a different color.

NO ESCAPE

The only recourse for the fugitive will be to duck at the sight of every Tempest on the street.

"That's rather impractical with Pontiac the home of the Tempest," said Police Chief Joseph Koren.

In addition to the unmarked Tempests, the department has added eight new Pontiac Catalinas among its cruisers.

"Patrolmen need the powerful engine for high-speed pursuits and quick take-offs," the chief said.

The new cars bring the police fleet up to 15 unmarked cars and 18 marked cruisers.

Blames Red Terror for Document Theft

LONDON (UPI) — Henry F. Houghton admitted today that he stole secret naval documents from the base at Portland where Britain and NATO plan war defenses against Russia's 450 submarines.

He said he did it because he was living under a reign of terror by Iron Curtain agents who threatened him and the woman he loved.

To Ask Extra $1 Billion

JFK Ready With Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is reported ready to submit a balanced budget to Congress soon—and then supplement it with a request for at least $1 billion in deficit defense spending.

Congressional leaders have been informed that the President hopes by making separate recommendations for defense spending increases, to drive two points home to the country:

1. That he is making every effort to keep the nation on a pay-as-you-go basis.

2. That the reason he is unable to do so at this point lies in the need for a stepped-up defense effort to which he pointed in the presidential campaign.

Kennedy apparently plans few top-level changes in the $80.9-billion budget that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower sent to Congress in January for the fiscal year beginning July 1. Savings Kennedy's experts have been able to calculate in some areas may be offset by increases in others.

SEE NO SURPLUS

Eisenhower estimated a $1.5-billion surplus. But this was based on an $82.3-billion income that Kennedy's advisers don't believe will be reached. Eisenhower also banked on postal rate increases and hikes in some taxes that Congress may not grant.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower estimated defense outlays at $42.9 billion—up $1.4 billion from the current fiscal year. If Kennedy can offer a balanced budget which retains that figure, he is said to feel the country will go along with a supplemental request for a billion more in military funds.

Some of this outlay would be channeled into missile development, with stress on the reliability and protection of long-range missiles.

This would mean more funds for the solid propellant Minuteman, which can be mounted on special railroad trains, and the Navy's Polaris ballistic missile, also mobile.

Missile experts also called for more protection of the land-based weapons, through hardening of underground and surface facilities.

★ ★ ★

Congress members have been told the new defense stepup would add 55,000 men to the Army to bring its manpower to 925,000 and boost the Marine Corps from 175,000 to 200,000. These increases, with some modernization of weapons, would be designed to boost U.S. limited-war capacities.

Eisenhower figured foreign aid spending at $3.6 billion in the year, including $1.8 billion in military assistance and $1.8 billion for economic outlays.

Kennedy is reported considering asking Congress to authorize a five-year, $9-billion foreign economic assistance program. If it were approved by Congress, actual economic aid spending for the new fiscal year would be about the same as Eisenhower forecast.

Says Kennedy Needs GOP

Senator Asks President to Seek Wider Liberal Help for Programs

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy was being urged today to seek broader support from liberal Republicans to help get his legislative program through Congress.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said Sunday night that Congress is "again operating by coalition" and recent close votes show the extent to which Kennedy must rely on liberal GOP help.

Javits, apparently feeling that the President should consult more with GOP liberals, said some important Kennedy proposals may be lost unless the administration "reverses the approach it has taken thus far."

★ ★ ★

The New Yorker asserted that "Everybody knows about southern Democratic and ultra-conservative Republican coalitions, and liberal Democratic and Republican coalitions, as well."

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield took some exception to the statement. He said he didn't adhere to the belief that coalitions exist in the Senate, although conservative Democrats and Republicans might team up on specific issues.

Mansfield also told a reporter that the President "has shown sagacity and wisdom in giving us as much rope as he has, recognizing what he learned in Congress that there is equality between the two branches of government."

★ ★ ★

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., declined comment, saying he saw no reason to talk about statements by fellow Republicans.

Building Unions Warned About Racial Practices

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., said building trades unions today they could not expect favorable treatment from Congress as long as they continue racial discrimination.

Missing Builder Is Still Hunted

Charge Associate of Oak Park Man With Misuse of $790

MOUNT CLEMENS (UPI) — Police throughout the western part of the country continued their search today for Oak Park builder Jay Shultz. Shultz is wanted in Michigan on a charge of defrauding home buyers and subcontractors of more than $60,000.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, Shultz' business associates, Leonard L. Watson Jr. of Royal Oak, has been charged with converting for his own use a $790 down payment on a home.

Watson was taken into custody Saturday and released on $3,000 bond after being arraigned before Justice of the Peace Francis A. Castellucci in Mount Clemens. Examination was set for March 30.

Watson was secretary of New Homes Sales, Inc., and vice president of Jay Shultz, Inc., according to Detective Harold Ernst of the Center Line state police post. Shultz was president of the two firms.

★ ★ ★

Macomb County Prosecutor George N. Parris said most of the complaints against Shultz accuse him of taking deposits on homes which either never were started, or never got beyond the basement stage.

Shultz is known to have gone to Texas last November, immediately after filing bankruptcy proceedings for the firm known as Jay Shultz, Inc.

Swallows Come Home on Time to Capistrano

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (UPI)—Once during the Spanish days of this Franciscan mission town legend says a flock of swallows flew in from the South and began building nests under the eaves of the village inn.

The Owner, distracted by their singing, smashed the nests.

A padre follower of the St. Francis of Assisi, who loved and protected animals, was passing and noticed the havoc. "Come, swallows," the oft-told legend claims he said. "Come to the mission where there is shelter enough for all of you."

Sunday, for their 184th recorded year, the small birds arrived from their winter in the South. There have been a few exceptions, but as a rule the biggest flocks arrive on St. Joseph's Day.

Gusty winds from the Pacific failed to slow the arrival of the thousands of swallows.

Action Awaited on Racial Issues

Supreme Court May Rule on Sit-Ins After Three Petitions

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court may act today on some newly appealed racial issues, including sit-in demonstrations.

★ ★ ★

Three petitions for review by sit-in demonstrators in Baton Rouge, La., were before the court.

The cases could be a test of legal principles involved in this controversial area.

Other appeals were concerned with desegregation of New Orleans public schools and a Virginia law which the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People claims may destroy it in that state.

OTHER CASES

The court also has been asked to:

—Grant a hearing to Mrs. Vi Murphy, Colorado Springs newspaperwoman who was sentenced to 30 days in jail for refusing to reveal a news source.

—Look into the right of a high federal official to copyright his speeches so they cannot be quoted from at will.

—Examine legal difficulties surrounding Venezuela's attempt to extradite former President Marcos Perez Jimenez.

If the Supreme Court agrees to hear any of these appeals, arguments will be scheduled some time during the term starting next October.

To Spell Out Highway Dept's Racial Policy

LANSING (UPI) — Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said a directive would be issued today spelling out the highway department's nondiscrimination policy.

The action followed a request of the Fair Employment Practices Commission which studied hiring and promotion practices in the department.

The report said there was "a policy of nondiscrimination which is generally understood by top management and many supervisors," but it asked that this policy be spelled out in writing.

"I said the recommendations of the FEPC would be speedily carried out and I meant it," Mackie said. "When I asked FEPC to review our entire operation, I said I did not think we were perfect and that I wanted to know where improvement was needed."

The report, issued Saturday, was requested by Rep. Roger Townsend, D-Flint, who charged that "a pattern of discrimination existed in the highway department."

Icy Roads Hospitalize 7 in Area Traffic Accidents

Roads iced by freezing rain in Oakland County resulted in a rash of traffic accidents shortly after midnight Sunday morning, which sent seven persons to area hospitals, according to the sheriff's department.

★ ★ ★

None of the victims were critically injured as cars slithered, spun and rolled off the icy highways.

Larry L. Sneed, 16, of 2031 Mattie Lane, Pontiac Township, suffered a possible back injury while a passenger in a car that crashed into a tree in Commerce Township a minute past midnight. He was reported in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital.

Harned was reported in satisfactory condition today.

would be tougher than former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in demanding results and maximum self-help from foreign nations. They said Kennedy would promise to withhold aid from countries that waste it on palaces, limousines and graft.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy also was expected to continue the gradual shift started by Eisenhower toward less military and more economic aid.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower's final budget message asked for $1.8 billion in military and $2.2 billion economic aid authorizations for the fiscal year starting July 1. This did not include the special $500 million Latin American aid program and $100 million Chile earthquake relief.

Pro-Red Rebels Gain on 2 Fronts in Laos Fighting

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The royal Laotian army chief of staff today reported the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels had made significant advances on two fronts.

★ ★ ★

Gen. Ounne Rathikone said rebel forces who captured the road junction of Sala Phou Koun, between Vientiane and Luang Prabang, were still driving south and were only 10 miles north of Vang Vieng, a government military headquarters.

★ ★ ★

Rebels on the southern front have recaptured Tha Vieng, 20 miles south of rebel-held Xieng Khouang, in the Plaine des Jarres. Government forces captured Tha Vieng last week. Rathikone said about 50 government soldiers were wounded in the fighting Sunday.

The general said the rebel force moving on Vang Vieng is made up of one battalion of regulars and two battalions of regional fighters.

Since the pro-Red forces pushed the royal army out of Sala Phou Koun, they have driven south some 40 miles.

S. Africans Crack Down on Natives

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)—South African police arrested 10 African political leaders early today in a nationwide roundup just before the return of Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd from London where he pulled this country out of the British Commonwealth.

★ ★ ★

Verwoerd received a tumultuous welcome from 40,000 persons when his plane landed at Jan Smuts Airport this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Tension was mounting in the nation.

Official sources said the arrests were designed to head off demonstrations being organized to commemorate the first anniversary tomorrow of the police shootings of Africans at Sharpeville and Langa.

★ ★ ★

Among those arrested was Jordan Ngubane, vice president of the Liberal party. He and others taken into custody were to have attended a conference next Saturday calling for a multiracial national convention to work out a new constitution for South Africa.

★ ★ ★

South Africa was a nation divided over Verwoerd's withdrawal of the country from the Commonwealth.

James M. Landis, past dean of the Harvard Law School and former member of three of the regulatory agencies, said in some cases there is too much regulation.

The Day in Birmingham

Art Center May Develop in Old Disposal Plant

BIRMINGHAM—The possibility that the city will have a unique art center in the not too distant future looked brighter today.

City Manager L. R. Gare will recommend to the City Commission tonight that he, along with legal counsel, meet with the Bloomfield Art Association to resolve several leasing problems connected with its proposal to convert the unused municipal sewage disposal plant into a cultural center.

The Bloomfield Art Association, headed by Robert Bender, first made the proposal to the City Commission several weeks ago. Commissioners have agreed it is a worthwhile idea since the city has no need for the plant with the opening of the Evergreen Interceptor Sewer.

They turned the suggestion over to the Planning Board and Recreation Board for further study. The two groups met jointly Wednesday and indicated there are no objections to the proposal.

Gare in his report to the commission states that the city's participation in the rennovation program, which the BAA has requested, would amount to $13,000 to $16,500. Most of the city's cost would be for work on the grounds around the building.

Actual cost to remodel the interior of the building by the BAA has not been made and Gare said that before any lease agreement is signed these costs should be closely estimated.

It should be decided who is going to carry the insurance to cover the public liability and damage to the building and in what amounts, Gare said.

"There are certain costs involved for the maintenance of the grounds and the building," Gare said, "and it should be decided whether it is the city's responsibility or that of the art association."

★ ★ ★

The BAA made the proposal after learning that it will have to vacate its present quarters at 361 N. Woodward Ave. with the development of the Northwest Quadrant Parking Lot.

The sewer plant the group is seeking is at 1516 S. Cranbrook Road, southwest of Seaholm High School.

Candidates for the City Commission and library board in the April 3 election have been invited to speak at a meeting tomorrow of the Birmingham Democratic Club. All the candidates are seeking office on a nonpartisan ticket.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the Mary Griffith lounge of the Community House.

Mr. LaBeau died Friday night at William Beaumont Hospital following a short illness. He was 32.

Burial was at Roseland Park Cemetery in Berkley. A Masonic graveside service was performed under the auspices of the Birmingham Lodge No. 44, F&AM.

Mr. LaBeau was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham. He was automotive sales manager for Bob Frost Inc. in Birmingham.

Waterford Twp. Board Has Three Hearings on Tonight's Agenda

There will be three hearings involving street lighting and road black topping in a business-packed agenda for tonight's Waterford Township Board meeting, according to clerk James E. Seeterlin.

★ ★ ★

There will be another black-top hearing for 3,400 feet on Seeden Glen Street, which makes a semi-circle from Forest Street back to Forest Street. Cost of this project has been estimated at $10,511.

A street-light hearing for the Whitfield Estates subdivision and part of the Ideal Country Club subdivision has been set for from 7 to 9 tonight.

Bids will be opened for purchase of a new one-ton pickup truck for the water department, and bids on two old police department cars will also be opened.

★ ★ ★

The board will discuss the possibility of paying one-third of the cost of chloride for township roads, with the remainder paid by residents making application. So far, three applications have been made for this operation.

Bank Plans 5th Branch in Waterford

Officials of the Pontiac State Bank today announced establishment of a fifth branch office in Waterford Township in the shopping center located at M59 (Highland road) and Williams Lake road.

★ ★ ★

Smith Falconer, executive vice president of the bank, said construction of the one-story building is expected to start as soon as weather permits. He said it is hoped that the branch will be open for business by late summer.

Approval, he said, has already been given by the State Banking Department and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Falconer said the branch will have all the facilities of the other four branches, including drive-in windows, night depository and safety deposit boxes.

★ ★ ★

The other branches are located in Auburn Heights, on Baldwin Road, in Drayton Plains, and at the Miracle Mile Shopping Center.

The builder of several other buildings in the Waterford Township shopping center, Clark Easley, will erect the bank's new quarters which will then be leased, Falconer said. No estimate of its cost could be given, he said.

Flint Drops Action Against M. R. Henry

Genesee County Circuit Judge John L. Baker today dismissed contempt action against Pontiac attorney and city commissioner Milton R. Henry because it was found no commitment order was ever drafted confining Henry to jail March 3.

In examining the lower court proceedings against Henry this morning, brought by Henry's motion for a writ of certiorari, Judge Baker said he found the entire proceedings "null and void" because of lack of the order.

Henry had been found in contempt by Flint Municipal Judge Dale C. Showley when he allegedly swore at the judge and refused to pay a fine. He was retained in the city jail about five hours.

Washington Confab Stirs Optimism

Small Business Cheered

An optimistic note was sounded today by the Michigan field director of the National Small Business Men's Association, Milt King, 160 Navajo Drive, on his return from a Washington, D. C., conference.

★ ★ ★

King, whose organization represents 2,600 companies in Oakland County alone, said he was "gratified" over the concern in Washington about economic conditions in the metropolitan area, including Pontiac.

He said several federal moves would help bolster small business, and added that Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, had pledged his continued support to improve the climate of small business.

Meeting with the trustees of the National Small Business Men's Association Thursday through Saturday in the capital, King conferred with Broomfield, representatives of the Small Business Administration and the Senate Select Committee on Small Business.

SEVERAL BIG STEPS SOON

He said Small Business Administration officials indicated several big steps would be taken soon to aid small business.

One of them, he said, would be broadening availability of small business loans with a new emphasis on those in the $10,000-$30,000 bracket for the smallest businesses.

"Qualifications for loans will be relaxed to an unprecedented extent and the amount of money available in the $10,000-$20,000 bracket will be practically unlimited," King predicted.

★ ★ ★

He also noted that the Small Business Administration was emphasizing a new program under which local industrial development groups, seeking to preserve existing industry or attract new ones, can obtain up to $80,000 from the federal government if matched by $20,000 in local funds.

King said Broomfield promised support for a move to allow faster depreciation allowances to create a more favorable tax picture for small business.

He noted that the Kennedy administration had pledged to increase the percentage of Defense Department contracts with small businesses by 10 per cent.

During the last fiscal year, Defense Department contracts of this type totaled $3.4 billion or 16 per cent of the budget total.

"My over-all impression is that Washington officials, both administrative and elective, are concerned about economic conditions especially in Michigan, and will make every effort to help small business through these difficult times," said King.

Formed in 1939, the National Small Business Men's Association with headquarters in Washington, seeks to call federal attention to the needs and opinions of small business men across the country.

Boys Club Looks Back on Boom

By JIM LONG

Not too long ago — just a year to be precise — the West Suburban Boys Club in Keego Harbor reorganized and later moved into new quarters.

★ ★ ★

Officials naturally anticipated increased membership.

The expansion came, but not like the gradual rise that had been expected.

Rather than by degrees, the membership jumped "almost overnight", to more than 800, nearly tripling the number of boys who had taken part in the supervised activities.

Vern Bradburn, club president, offers a simple explanation for the phenomenal growth which challenges any other boys club in the state.

"We give the boys what they want. If we don't have a particular program that interests a group of youngsters, we start one."

MERGED LAST SPRING

And that's how it's been going ever since the West Suburban Boys Club came into existence with the merger of the West Bloomfield Boys Club and the West Side Boys Club last spring.

The merger brought together about 300 boys.

So, actually, the history of the West Suburban club has two stories.

The West Bloomfield club originally began in 1942 as a hobby club under the direction of Clifford Barnes, who is now directing all activities.

★ ★ ★

For a while the little club met in the basement of Scotch Elementary School, but increased membership forced Barnes to seek additional facilities.

GIVEN UNUSED BUILDING

With the help of community leaders and civic organizations, Barnes was provided an unused building behind Roosevelt Elementary School.

There the club's organizers set up a workshop. At this point the club joined the Boys Club of America.

As membership grew, a boxing program was started. A ring, gloves and other equipment were located; training instructions and bouts were organized.

A basketball program was launched by Robert Berry, and soon a comprehensive sports program was developed.

By 1959 the club had field teams in all major sports, and had developed a thorough workshop and hobby program.

Then the unexpected happened. The West Bloomfield School Board discovered that it would need the building behind Roosevelt school, and the club had to sek a new location.

This search for new quarters brought together the two small clubs.

The West Side club was started in 1953 by a group of men under the guidance of County Clerk Daniel T. Murphy and Frank Thompson.

They organized a basketball team at Whitfield School and it proved an immediate success. That fall the program was enlarged to include football.

RESPOND GENEROUSLY

Help came from many areas.

The PTA supported the football and basketball programs; businessmen and civic organizations responded generously to the appeals for uniforms and equipment; and, like the West Bloomfield club, a number of adults volunteered as coaches and supervisors.

Then, in the spring of 1960, the clubs became one so that even more youngsters could be brought up in a spirit of teamwork and fair play.

They have settled down and are operating in the VFW Post 3207 building at Willow Beach and Summers roads.

During the last year, activities have been expanded to provide more interests for the area's young citizens who are drawn from Keego Harbor, Waterford, West Bloomfield and Bloomfield Townships, Walled Lake, Sylvan Lake, Union Lake and Pontiac.

Facilities and instructions are available to cover a wide scope of athletics and hobbies — football, baseball, basketball, skin diving, woodworking, hobbycraft, reading, pocket billiards and table tennis.

★ ★ ★

The new clubhouse, leased from the VFW with an option to purchase, has been partitioned to provide a woodworking shop, a hobby shop, an arts and crafts room, a library and reading room, and a game area.

The athletic program was broadened with 23 baseball teams participating in five organized leagues.

In football, 125 boys participated on the varsity, junior varsity and pee wee reserve teams. There are 14 basketball teams.

Just recently a "Girls' Night" program wes initiated to give girls of the area use of the club's new facilities every Tuesday.

All this has been accomplished on an annual operating budget of $14,000, raised through fund drives and donations.

NEED CONTINUED SUPPORT

"And as long as we can continue to get the backing and support of area citizens there will be no stopping the West Suburban Boys Club," Bradburn said.

"We've got something good going here, and we don't intend to let up in making it one of the best clubs for youngsters in the state."

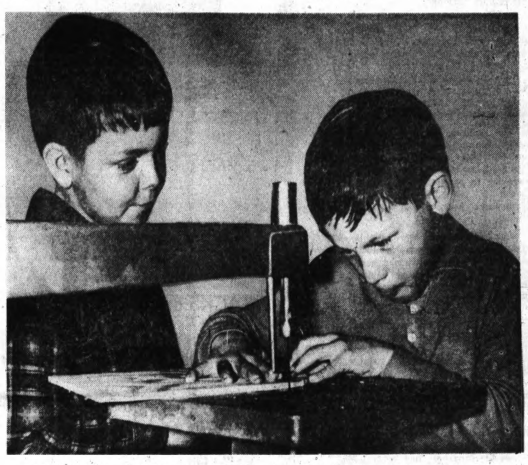

Pontiac Press Photos

CENTER OF ATTENTION — When scores get close as in this billiard-type game, boys of the West Suburban Club respond to cheer on the underdog with enthusiasm causing no little obstacle to the players. The recreation is only one of many games provided at the club's new quarters at the VFW post in Keego Harbor, Willow Beach and Summers roads.

FATHERLY ADVICE—Vern Bradburn, president of the West Suburban Boys Club in Keego Harbor, talks over some "problems" with three young members of the club. From left are Mike Grulke, 15, Kenneth Murphy, 10, and Danny Bernal, 12. The club serves youngsters from West Bloomfield and Bloomfield Townships, Union Lake, Walled Lake, Sylvan Lake and Pontiac.

"WHAT IS IT?" — Mitchell Geyou, 10, left, a fourth grader at Roosevelt School, would like to know what Bobby Bernal, 10, is making on the jig saw. Only trouble is Bobby himself isn't sure what will be the outcome. More than 800 boys like Mitchell and Bobby are provided with all types of woodworking equipment, along with numerous other indoor and outdoor activities at the West Suburban Boys Club.

Eagles Club Celebrates in New Building

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

This past weekend members of the Waterford Township Eagles Club participated in a well-earned celebration. They just finished a 56x30 foot addition to their 3-year-old building on Highland Road.

Months of back-breaking work by both men and women of the organization have made the big cement-block addition possible.

On the outside the building is plain, but ruggedly solid. Inside there is a warm feeling of good fellowship due to the working together of plumbers, carpenters, electricians and masons.

Downstairs the women had a hand in designing the spacious kitchen which can handle some 200 diners at a time. Everything is efficiently planned. There are no frills, no expensive utilities — just plain kitchen fans, porcelain sinks and big donated second-hand refrigerators.

The dining room downstairs is lined in a light wood paneling, and the well lighted room produces a feeling of friendliness. New chairs and tables are scattered casually about, and here families may have dinners Friday, Saturday and Sundays at a minimum price.

★ ★ ★

The upstairs level of the addition is a duplicate of the lower area, complete with a big kitchen and dining room. Folding doors can be put back against the wall when more space is needed for dancing, thus producing a sizeable ballroom.

Construction of the building moved along faster than anticipated, according to Duane Johnson, club secretary-manager. This was due to the skilled labor available because of factory shutdowns, and "you can't keep a good worker down," according to Johnson.

Members and guests were treated to a "Dinty Moore" style corn beef and cabbage dinner Friday night along with the usual fish-fry.

Saturday a large smorgasbord dinner was served in both dining rooms, with dancing to a band later in the ballroom.

State and national officials conducted class initiation ceremonies for the 350 club members and the Women's Auxiliary after dinner Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The slogan of Waterford Township's Eagles, "Happy While Helping," has been projected throughout the area for many years. United Fund, polio, cancer and other fund-raising campaigns have benefited by the only fraternal organization in the township and the human compassion for their fellowmen is evidenced in each project.

Child Rescues Playmate

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — A 5-year-old boy is Formosa's newest hero. A group of children playing at nearby Tamsui Beach were engulfed by a big wave Sunday. As they ran to higher ground, Wang Pi-piao noticed a playmate was missing. Fighting back through the surf, the boy found Wang Kuei-ying, 3, terrified and exhausted, and pulled her to safety.

GOOD EATING — The Women's Auxiliary of the Waterford Township Eagles Club are some of the county's best cooks, as is evidenced by members of the Lions Club. This is the first club to take advantage of facilities in the new addition to the Eagles clubhouse on Highland Road near Crescent Lake Road.

PLAIN NOW — LATER BEAUTIFUL — That's the plan for the Waterford Township Eagles Club on M59 near the township hall. The addition (left), like the other section of the building, was constructed entirely by club members. Much of the material was also donated by members, and even the Women's Auxiliary helped paint the beautiful interior. The club celebrated its grand opening of the addition this weekend.

Hint Algeria Rebels Order Violence Halt

PARIS (AP)—An unusual calm settled over Algeria during the weekend, raising belief that the rebel leadership may have ordered a halt to normally frequent hit-and-run grenade attacks to set the stage for peace negotiations beginning late this month or early in April.

★ ★ ★

Scarcely an incident of violence was reported from the North African territory. Amazed French officials speculated that a de facto truce was in effect.

In France there was a ground swell of support for President Charles de Gaulle's plan to make peace with the rebels and open the way to a referendum in which the Algerians can vote on independence from France.

Credit Kennedy as Dispute Ends

Say He Helped Speed Settlement Over Pay at Atomic Energy Plant

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy was credited today with having helped speed settlement of a wage dispute that threatened to shut down a vital atomic energy plant.

★ ★ ★

Less than five days after Kennedy expressed concern over a possible strike at the Hanford, Wash., atomic plant, the General Electric Co. reached agreement (Saturday) with the AFL-CIO Atomic Trades Council on a new contract covering 3,200 workers there.

The firm, which operates the plutonium - producing installation under contract with the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC), made a major revision last week of its offer for the first time since negotiations began last fall.

★ ★ ★

GE granted wage increases greater than were provided under the "pattern" of settlements with unions in its electrical equipment and appliance plants. It long had refused to budge from this "pattern" offer until the administration moved into the picture.

At Kennedy's request, a strike date was postponed for two weeks to allow more time to negotiate.

★ ★ ★

Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg consulted with AEC Chairman Glenn Seaborg and Rep. Chet Holifield, D-Calif., chairman of the Senate-House Committee on Atomic Energy, to develop a government plan in case of a strike.

Goldberg also conferred with Justice Department attorneys on ways to keep the plant operating in case the federal mediation efforts were unsuccessful.

Stocks Retain Upward Surge

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued its upward drive in heavy trading early today.

★ ★ ★

Moderate gains of key stocks outbalanced a number of losers.

The list was again at an historic high, according to some market averages, and it was a contest between the bullish and bearish forces.

A generally higher tone among utilities, rails, aircrafts, motors and airlines bolstered the list. Steels, electrical equipments and nonferrous metals were mixed.

HEAVY SELECTED BUYING

There was heavy buying in selected issues. American Cyanamid reported a new anticancer drug and the stock jumped 1⅝ to 49¼ in a delayed opening block of 12,000 shares.

American Motors rose ¼ to 20¼ on 25,000 shares. National Can gained ½ at 13½ on 12,700 shares.

American Telephone recouped at 112½ on a 5,000-share opening while AT&T rights traded unchanged at 1 and ten-thirty-second on a transaction of 4,000,000

★ ★ ★

International Business Machines picked up another 5 points.

Revlon spurted about 2 and United Aircraft rose more than a point.

U. S. Steel lost a fraction and other leading steelmakers showed scant change.

Moderate gains were made by General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Boeing, Lockheed, Phelps Dodge, Westinghouse Electric, Southern Railway and American Airlines.

DOWN MODERATELY

Down moderately were Douglas Aircraft, General Electric and Kennecott.

★ ★ ★

The ticker tape lagged behind transactions.

Opening blocks included: AVCO up ⅛ at 19⅝ on 6,000 shares; Lockheed up ½ at 39¼ on 5,000; General Electric off ¼ at 67¼ on 4,700.

Burglars Strike Three Times During Weekend

Three weekend burglaries were reported to Pontiac police.

★ ★ ★

Burglars took a generator and regulator tester valued at $35 from Jim & Bob's Gulf Service, 836 Joslyn St.

Approximately $125 was taken in a break-in of the Buttercup Drive-In, 910 Oakland Ave., according to police.

The burglars, who entered the building by removing a window from its frame, took the money from a pool table coin box.

★ ★ ★

Nothing was reported missing in a burglary of Downtown Gulf Service, 59 Auburn Ave.

Clinic Backers to Flood Commission With Names

Supporters of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic expect to have petitions bearing 5,000 or more signatures ready to place before the City Commission tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Recalling some petitions still in circulation, Mrs. Charles Nasstrom, 502 E. Mansfield Ave., Pontiac chairman of a citizens committee for the clinic, said other petitions bearing about 4,000 names have been returned so far.

The citizens group is campaigning for more county funds this year to prevent the threatened closing of the clinic's Birmingham branch for lack of money.

The petitions call for another $27,000 appropriation this year and continued county help in the future "to maintain and expand" the clinic's operation.

TWO PROPOSALS

Mrs. Nasstrom said two proposals would be submitted to the commission tomorrow night in a renewed effort to win city support for the clinic.

The first asks, simply, for support of the clinic as "a worthwhile agency."

The second asks the commission to advise the city's seven representatives on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors to give "due consideration" to the clinic during the forthcoming battle over more funds.

The commission has already indicated strongly that it wouldn't "order" its representatives to vote for more funds.

Replants Organ With Technique

Scientist's Success on Animals May Lead to Human Transplants

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —A Minnesota scientist today reported development of a technique he said might open the way toward the goal of transplanting entire organs from one person to another.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Claude R. Hitchcock of Minneapolis General Hospital said he and fellow researchers had successfully removed a kidney or lung from baboons and dogs, kept them alive outside the body for periods up to 24 hours, then replanted them in the same animals and found that normal function quickly resulted.

ICE COLD STATE

He told a seminar of science writers sponsored by the American Cancer Society that the technique—featuring quick cooling of the organs to an ice-cold state and freeing them entirely of blood — might help science in its attempts to change the characteristics of cells within organs of an animal—and eventually of a human—so that such an organ would not be rejected when transplanted into another living subject.

Up to now such transplants can be made only between identical twins, and so far only with kidneys.

In a separate interview, he said that in "the far future," with the aid of his and allied techniques, it might be possible to take an organ, such as the liver, from the body of a person killed in an accident, alter its cellular characteristics, store it in a refrigerator, and then transplant it into the body of a person whose own organ was diseased.

Jewish Cowboys Sing Loudly and Sweetly

TEL AVIV — A Jewish cowboy singer at the Omar Khayam Cafe here told us American customers that the American cowboys sing very softly, but that Jewish cowboys sing loudly and sweetly.

WILSON

"We hope that our loud and sweet songs will cause the cows in Jordan to cross the border into Israel," he jokingly explained, "because while we have plenty of cowboys in Israel we don't have plenty of cows."

Actually, the steak situation in Israel is much improved, along with every-thing else in this land. One reason for the better steak is that a Texan and a Montanan started "Operation Cowboy" near the Sea of Galilee, and there conducted a cowboy school to train the future John Waynes and Hugh O'Brians.

One day a Brahman steer leaped into the Sea of Galilee and the cowboys lassoed it. It was reliably reported to be the first steer ever lassoed in the Sea of Galilee. Israel, anyway, is thankful to Texas for helping its supply of cowboys and cows.
