LIBRARY HOURS EXTENDED

It was announced this week by the Student Library Board that starting Sunday, May 23rd, the library will be open until twelve o'clock on school nights (Sunday through Thursday). This is just one of many changes that the Student Library Board is making. A paperback book exchange has been instituted. Bring in one of your old paperbacks in exchange for another.

The officers of the Student Library Board are; Chairman, Beth McKenney, Secretary, Gary Durst, and Public Relations, Carl Baranski.

FITZ BITZ GETS OFFICE

This week Fitz Bitz moved into its new headquarters in Room 213 Fitzgerald House (ext.2437). The office was donated through the generosity of David Lewis and the Housing Office. Fitz Bitz, after having evicted Julian Mostel and clearing away some of the last remaining cinders from Walter Lake's spectacular fire (in which half of his library burned), is now comfortably set up and would like to thank Dave and the Housing Office for making this possible. Pass the beer Nezzie!

OBITUARY

Committee, Fitzgerald House, died this week. As a valuable and outstanding member of the dorm community, Fitzgerald House Committee made many contributions in his short life for the betterment of dorm life, some of which follow; the fireplace, a pinochle tournament, a

DORM COUNCIL IN FULL SWING

The Dormitory Council, now in its third week of existence this semester, already has a full agenda. The Council is trying to establish "no hours" privileges for senior women. In other words, the senior women would have to sign in and out but would not be required to be in by a specified time. Another item on the agenda being looked into is the possibility of having three towels per week instead of two from Handy Dan. The Council also set up a Committee to define and clarify the role of the Campus Cop. The Committee members are; Larry Fishtahler, Nora Youlles, Tom Volgy, and Pat Hodges.

In June State Congressman Carlton Young will be here as part of the Dorm Council's V.I.P. Program. State Congressman Young is in charge of the bill for lowering the voting age to eighteen.

Mr. Corker announced at the meeting that for the summer guest privileges have been relaxed. One may now sign his guest in at anytime.

study room, Fitz Bitz, night linen house, improved selection of lounge magazines, sponsored dorm parties, and numerous other things that helped make life a little more pleasant. Cause of death, apathy.

And then Mother Rabbit said...

Inquiring Reporter:

Fitz B'itz has always been vitally concerned with the improvement of our dorm. In line with this policy, the following question was asked of several intelligent members of Fitzgerald House:

"What, in your opinion, would most improve this dorm if we got rid of it?"

We got the following replies:

- Jean Bradfield: "Hornyness."
- Jim Hinga: "Freshmen."
- David Lewis: "Empty rooms."
- Mike Michalak: "Guys who keep reminding us we are horny."

SUGGESTION OF THE WEEK

We suggest that the name of the "Resident Cafeteria" be changed to the "Rent-a-Cafe".

N DINKLEBERRY T ADVICE

Dear Nita,

Since I was about 7 years old, I have had myopia. At least that's when I noticed it. I am now 18 and wishing I had told my mother about it then because I don't want to die.

I read in the encyclopedia that the disease carries no pain, except in the last stage, when you begin to feel a little in your bones. Well, I think that I am entering the last stage. I get a faint, quick pain now and then.

Nita, I don't want to die. I didn't care before but now I do. I never have gone with girls because I didn't want them to know. I never told anybody; I didn't want to get sympathy or become a bother.

Sometimes I cry myself to sleep at night. I'm scared. Scared silly, and each night I pray for a miracle.

I know you won't print this letter, and I can't give my name or my parents would know. I guess it's just that I have to tell somebody, and I feel better already, even if there's nothing anybody can do.

VICTIM

Dear Victim,

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done

Dear Miss Dinkleberry,

I am a student at Oakland University who decided not to enroll for the summer semester. After living with the "bearded wonders" and their barbarous ways for two semesters I am having trouble adjusting to a cultured society. It seems to me that the environment of Oakland hinders the growth of citizenship rather than building it. What do you say to this?

INFECTED STUDENT

Dear Diseased One,

Don't put the blame entirely on the degenerate students of Oakland, because we had a hard time adjusting to you too.

ARTHUR M. CLARKE III HONORED BY GOVERNOR ROMNEY

Art Clarke, Gail Houghton and Martha Williams were honored at Michigan Week festivities this past week. They represented their respective States of Colorado, Illinois, and Alaska in ceremonies honoring a student from each State in the Union. This was done to show the service that Michigan colleges render to the Country. In a fifteen minute ceremony the 49 students were given letters by Governor Romney addressed to the Governors of their respective States.

Arthur had to wait for forty-five minutes to have his picture taken while the only available photographer took pictures of awards given to a new helicopter firm and a cannery credited with producing a new process of squeezing oranges. To kill this time the students attended the House of Representatives where they received a 10 sec standing ovation. As a side light, Lansing Sexton received a 40 sec ovation.

The Fitz Bitz staff figured out how much time was awarded to Art by the Governor and the House, and it turns out to be 10 seconds. To Boot, Art was introduced to the Governor as Alfred Clarke. Well remember Art, its the thought that counts and we of Fitz Bitz have given you about 21 seconds of prime space.

DID YOU KNOW that more than one million people in the U.S. suffer from gastric ulcers.

AND DID YOU ALSO KNOW that approximately $\frac{1}{2}$ of the married in the U.S. are women.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FITZ TO PRINT!

CRAPPY POESY by Nezzie Kicapoux

Put on a robe
Rush to the stall
I think I hear
The maid in the hall.

At eight or nine
She's always there.
It's enough to make
One cuss and swear.

At ten or eleven
Its safe you think
It's no use she
Cleans the sink.

You hop on one leg
Then the other.
A clean John, is Sure a bother.

At last she leaves
It's one o'clock
The toilet paper
Is out of stock.

You hop on one leg
In a mighty surge
Down to the first
Floor to relieve the urge.

Oh My God it
Can't be true
She's down here
Cleaning too.

Off to the woods
With a mighty push
Leaves our goal
and a secluded bush.

Back at last and
Wouldn't ya know
The John is empty
And I can't go!

Progress is fine I
Don't want to spoil it.
But what we need
Is an Outside Toilet!
