GOP Senators Pass Bill Allowing 2 Primary Dates

LANSING (AP) — Senate Republican strategists showed yesterday there may be more than one way to skin a cat or change the date of a primary.

An amended bill, that would on the surface allow two primary dates, was passed by the Senate and sent to the House.

The present primary date in the bill was left at Aug. 4. But an amendment was tacked on by Sen. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, saying that only a Sept. 1 primary would be legal.

Several Senate Republicans admitted this was a gimmick and part of the pressure aimed at gaining Democratic votes for immediate effect of a bill that simply would move the primary from Aug. 4 to Sept. 1.

Immediate effect requires 23 votes in the 34-member Senate. Republicans so far have been able to count on only 22. They had 21 on the last floor vote, and since picked up Sen. Clyde Geer-

Laos Premier Plans to Ask for Military Aid

Says He'll Appeal to U. S., British, France to Halt Red Advance

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) —Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma said today Laos will ask the United States, Britain and France for military aid to bolster its defenses against further Communist aggression.

"We are now in the process of establishing our needs," the neutralist coalition leader told the Associated Press.

Souvanna made the statement as unarmed U.S. jet planes flew reconnaissance flights over Laotian territory controlled by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.

Dispatches from Washington said the flights are being made at Souvanna's request. Souvanna declined immediate comment.

★ ★ ★

MORE TROOPS

Gen. Kong Le, hard-pressed commander of the Laotian neutralist army, meanwhile was reported reinforced by 800 troops who fought through Communist lines to rejoin him southwest of the Plaine des Jarres.

Military sources said the 800 had been cut off southeast of Kong Le's abandoned command post at Muong Phanh last weekend when the Pathet Lao launched an offensive that swept the neutralists from the strategic plateau 110 miles northeast of Vientiane.

Informants who saw Kong Le yesterday said he was in good spirits and intended to remain with his battered forces. There had been speculation that he might come to the capital of Vientiane. He was said to have retreated with only remnants of four battalions, which originally totaled about 1,600 men.

★ ★ ★

Military sources believed Kong Le might try to withdraw to Vang Vieng, a highway center 50 miles to the southwest. Neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma has expressed fear that Vang Vieng, only 60 miles north of the capital, would be the next target of the Reds.

TOWN WAS QUIET

Canadian and Indian representatives of the International Control Commission for Laos flew to Vang Vieng yesterday at Souvanna's request. They said the town seemed quiet.

DELIVERS ADDRESS — President Johnson delivers an address at the University of Michigan commencement exercises today after he received an honorary degree. At extreme right is Gov. Romney.

U. of M. Grads Hear Speech by President

Asks Airport Crowd: Love Me in November as You Do in May

ANN ARBOR (AP) — President Johnson marked the end of his first six months in office today by making a flying visit to Michigan and mixing politics and philosophy.

Johnson flew to Ann Arbor to address commencement exercises of the University of Michigan. But first he stopped at nearby Detroit Metropolitan Airport, and smiling at 25,000 noisy welcomers, said:

"My first thought is to sing an old song —'Will you love me in November as you do in May?' "

The President's trip bore a nonpolitical label. He was accompanied in the state by a number of Republicans, including Gov. George Romney.

★ ★ ★

When Johnson introduced Romney to the crowd at Metropolitan Airport, where he changed from jet transport to a helicopter, the governor drew a round of applause. But Romney grinned and waved, and Johnson seemed to beam.

★ ★ ★

Johnson said Detroit and its people are the hope of America — "You put America on wheels — you got the American economy on the move."

Johnson was accompanied by Michigan's two Democratic senators, Patrick V. McNamara and Philip A. Hart, and 12 of the state's congressmen.

Next to Johnson, the crowd gave its biggest applause to former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of State for African affairs.

★ ★ ★

MOVE UPWARD

It will require, he said, the rebuilding of cities and countryside.

Bed Schedule Worry to Pontiac Hospital

Pontiac General Hospital administrators are grappling with a dilemma that is creating a tight cash position on one hand, and a public relations problem on the other.

Occupancy is not up to par, yet the number of canceled admissions—836 so far this year—is at an all-time high.

"We've had more empty beds to date this year than we figured on in the 1964 budget," said Harold B. Euler at last night's hospital board of trustees meeting.

"But the beds have either been empty in the wrong places or at the wrong times."

The hospital budget is based largely on occupancy. This year's budget estimate called for an average occupancy of 99 per cent to date.

The actual average to date is 98.4 per cent. "It's about as close to a break-even operation as you can get," Euler said.

At the same time, the hospital has been forced to cancel 836 scheduled admissions in the first four months of 1964.

"This is 267 more cancellations than we had in the same

Visitors Flock to JFK Grave

Millions Pay Tribute to Fallen President

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the six months since his death, kings, queens, presidents and an estimated 2,745,000 persons have climbed up the gentle slope to John F. Kennedy's grave.

Now and then members of the Kennedy family slipped in among the tourists who stand at the low white picket fence that encloses the grave site in Arlington National Cemetery.

★ ★ ★

The family has not selected the final design for the monument to be erected. The president's widow still is receiving suggestions, a spokesman for her said today.

The eternal flame that marks the top of the level grave is expected to be incorporated into the permanent memorial.

CUSTOM—

It has become a custom for visiting foreign dignitaries to pay their respects at the grave of the assassinated president.

Mrs. Kennedy had written him a letter just before his term ended in February, saying that during his life, President Kennedy had been concerned about the security of Betancourt, who had survived five assassination attempts.

★ ★ ★

It was a moving letter. And it was a moving moment when Betancourt stretched his trembling hands over the grave. There on one hand were the scars from the burns he had received during one of the attempts on his life.

UAW Starts Campaign; Job Conditions Stressed

DETROIT (AP)—Leaders of the United Auto Workers Union appeared embarked today on a give-no-quarter fight to win improved working conditions in new contract negotiations beginning in midsummer.

These improvements, said Director Douglas Fraser of the UAW's Chrysler Department, must expand the time workers get in relief from the "tedious and repetitive monotony" of the assembly line.

Fraser's views were echoed by Leonard Woodcock, a UAW vice president and director of the General Motors Department, and Ken Bannon, director of the Ford Department.

Fraser's UAW Chrysler Council finished mapping negotiations strategy and specific goals yesterday. The GM and Ford Councils extended their meetings into a third day today.

★ ★ ★

Woodcock told his GM Council "General Motors can't offer enough economically to wash working conditions out" of contracts which will replace three-year ones running out with with the Big Three on Aug. 31.

★ ★ ★

UAW president Walter P. Reuther, however, has left no doubt the union will insist on not only continuing but increasing the so-called annual improvement factor in current contracts.

★ ★ ★

The UAW classifies working conditions among "noneconomic demands." The auto makers say they would run into millions of dollars a year.

★ ★ ★

And Chairman Henry Ford II told Ford Motor Co. stockholders in Detroit Wednesday that "industry in general has impelling reasons for resisting excessive labor increases in 1964."

Talk Slated on Restoring Paint Creek

Positive steps toward restoring Paint Creek to its original state of natural purity and beauty will be taken at a public meeting in Lake Orion Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Under the temporary chairmanship of UAW President Walter Reuther, the Paint Creek Citizens Conservation Committee will be formally organized.

Reuther's home is on the stream.

Besides election of officers the 8 p.m. session will feature a talk by H. W. Postom, program director, Department of Water Supply and Pollution, U.S. Public Health Service.

Families living in the vicinity of the picturesque stream have been invited to the meeting, to be held at Lake Orion Junior High School, on Elizabeth Street.

★ ★ ★

Paint Creek originates northwest of Lake Orion, runs through that village, Goodison and Rochester and empties into the Clinton River at Yates Cider Mill in Avon Township.

STOP POLLUTION

The committee, which met informally in January, aims to prevent further pollution of the stream, to control erosion and flow of water and to replant its banks with evergreens.

★ ★ ★

One end result the committee hopes to accomplish is to restore the natural resources of the stream so that the portion in Avort Township Park can again be an "ole swimmin' hole."

★ ★ ★

Another aim is to purify the waters of the creek and restock it with fish thereby returning it to its former state as a mecca for area fishermen.

Exiles Deny Capture of Cuba Raiders

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—A spokesman for a group of Cuban exiles today ridiculed a report from Havana saying an anti-Castro band had been captured after landing on Cuba's western coast.

The spokesman said he still had no official word on the whereabouts of anti-Castro leader Manuel Ray and the exile band.

★ ★ ★

Ray's whereabouts have been unknown since he was reported to have disappeared from his San Juan, Puerto Rico, home last weekend.

Security Tight for State Visit by President

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Stringent security measures were invoked today for President Johnson's speech at the University of Michigan.

Some 10,000 seats in Michigan Stadium were sealed off above the platform where he delivered the commencement address.

The fuel for the jet plane and for Johnson's helicopter was poured into two tank trucks at the airport earlier this week. The fuel was laboratory tested to assure it was not contaminated and the trucks were put under an around-the-clock guard.

STATE POLICE

Supplementing the Secret Service detail were 228 state policemen, including 28 squads of uniformed troopers and 60 detectives.

Troopers from every state police post in Lower Michigan were deployed in the Ann Arbor and Detroit areas, along with an unannounced number of local police.

Centennial's Climax Filled With Events

Tomorrow will be the candle on the week that has been Birmingham's birthday cake.

The city will mark her 100th year with a variety of activities ranging from the annual carp carnival for children to an address by Gov. Romney.

DANIEL W. BARRY

Enters Race for Reelection

County Drain Official Seeks a Fifth Term

Oakland County Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry today announced his candidacy for reelection to a fifth term.

★ ★ ★

Barry, 41, said he will seek the Republican nomination in this fall's primary, although no date has been set yet.

So far, he is unopposed for the post he has held since 1956.

During Barry's tenure, the drain commission has undertaken construction of the $40-million 12-Towns Drain project in Southeastern Oakland County.

This storm-relief drain, described as largest of its kind in the United States, is now nearing completion.

CONTROL OF LEVELS

Barry noted he has been responsible for gaining control of water levels on several lakes in the county to the benefit of lakefront property owners, and has announced plans to likewise control 14 more lakes.

The commissioner also is heading up construction of the $2.2-million Clinton River improvement project in Pontiac and of the $8-million Dequindre interceptor sewer to serve 14 municipalities in South Oakland County.

Highlighting the events will be the "Fountain of Fashion" in Shain Park.

The 45-minute style show sponsored by the retail merchants division of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

★ ★ ★

MODERN OUTFITS

Modern daytime and evening outfits will be shown by 35 ready-to-wear merchant members, according to Mrs. Marianne Barnett, producer and commentator.

Because tomorrow also is youth day of Michigan Week, many of the activities will feature children.

Opening the day will be the annual carp carnival at Quarton Lake. Contestants, who must be 14 years old or younger, should register on the east bank of the lake between 9:30 and 10 a.m. Award ribbons will be presented at noon.

★ ★ ★

A Jaycee - sponsored parade through downtown Birmingham will begin at 1:30 p.m.

THE ROMNEYS

Gov. and Mrs. Romney will be among the dignitaries participating.

Units will include the city's rolling stock, American Legion Post No. 14 color guard and locomotive, Ponies of America, the Michigan State Police, Army Mobility Command, the Redford Highlanders and Southern Oakland Girl Scouts.

The Oakland County Sheriff's Department will send its posse patrol, water team and safety patrol. Junior and senior high schools will be represented by floats.

Gov. Romney's speech is scheduled for 2:15 p.m. at Shain Park.

MSU BAND

A 3:30 p.m. concert by the Michigan State University band will follow the fashion show in the park.

Capping the day's celebration will be the naming of the centennial queen after the concert.

Candidates for the crown are Tina Steele of 6735 Whysall, Bloomfield Township, representing Groves High School; Andrea Everett of 3095 Oak Hill, Seaholm High School; Frances Thurber of 1139 Emmons, Marian High School; and Janice Poplack of 515 Lake Park, Barnum Junior High School.

An all-school art show with some 1,500 objects will run through the weekend at Derby Junior High School. Hours are 10 a.m.-4 p.m. tomorrow and 10 a.m.-3 p.m. Sunday.

Hospital Has Bed Problem

Other statistics show the hospital has admitted 6,890 patients to date, about 23 fewer than in the same period last year.

Why have fewer patients been admitted so far this year?

One reason, according to Euler, is that patients are staying longer this year.

NOT SCHEDULED

"We don't schedule surgeries on Saturdays," he explained. "Weekend surgeries are all emergency cases. Thus, we don't schedule admissions on weekends."

How can the hospital be filled up, and still have empty beds?

"Some specialized areas are not always filled," Euler said. "Take the maternity ward, for example.

"The only people we can put in those beds are obstetrical cases. Thus, there may be several beds open there, while all other hospital beds are filled."

★ ★ ★

Occupancy in such specialized areas is down slightly this year, while the rest of the hospital is a full house.

"Over the past year, we've remodeled several areas to add a few beds," Euler said.

★ ★ ★

"The latest move was to temporarily use the playroom in pediatrics for added bed space.

BOOKED SOLID

"Even so, we're booked solid in pediatrics through June.

Staff doctors have set up a committee to screen all scheduled admissions. Those considered emergent are admitted first; then the non-emergent — if bed space allows.

So far this year, well over half of all the patients admitted have been emergency cases.

2 OU Graduates Chosen to Study at Cali University

Two April graduates of Oakland University have been selected to study at the University of Valle in Cali, Colombia this fall.

★ ★ ★

Both honor students, Miss Marjorie Hannah, 21, of 414 W. 13 Mile, Royal Oak, and Dennis Parle, 21, 244 S. Tilden, will receive tuition scholarships and automatic admission to the Cali university.

They will leave in September for Colombia and return next May or June.

The OU students are one half of an exchange plan between Oakland and the University of Valle under an Alliance for Progress program.

★ ★ ★

COMMITTEE

A three-man committee, headed by Herbert Stoutenburg, director of admissions and registrar, selected the former students.

Transportation costs of the exchange students will be provided by the Agency for International Development. However, the students will pay for their own room and board.

Miss Hannah received her bachelor of arts degree in teacher education. She was a Spanish language major.

★ ★ ★

Meantime, Parle followed a liberal arts program with a history major. He is a 1960 graduate of St. Frederick High School.

Stoutenburg said that he thought Miss Hannah would continue her studies in Spanish language and literature, while Parle was expected to study Latin American history, political science and philosophy.

The University of Valle has not yet announced its selections for the exchange program. Stoutenburg expected they would be chosen in time for the fall term.

Stiffer Viet Policy in Resolution by Broomfield

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, said today he has introduced a resolution in Congress "to put backbone" into U.S. policy on Viet Nam and Southeast Asia.

Broomfield, top Republican on the House Foreign Affairs Far East subcommittee, said the situation in Viet Nam and Laos is "visibly deteriorating."

"It is time we became the masters of events, rather than prisoners of our own lack of policy," he said in a statement.

Test Pilot Lands OK; PCH Grad

A former Pontiac resident, Air Force test pilot Milton O. Thompson escaped without a scratch making a forced landing in an experimental rocket plane yesterday near Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

★ ★ ★

"It was all pretty much routine," said Thompson afterward.

He graduated from Pontiac Central High School in 1943, and went on to attend University of Washington in Seattle.

An engine failure forced him to land his X15 rocket plane on a dry lake bed in the desert 30 miles east of the Air Force test center.

★ ★ ★

CAUSE UNKNOWN

Cause of the power failure wasn't immediately known.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thompson, he came to Pontiac last June to attend a class reunion.

A former classmate said Thompson mentioned at that time he no longer has any family in the Pontiac area.

★ ★ ★

He is married and has four children living with him near the test center.

Senate OKs Bill on Dates for Primary

Brown's amendment was passed 22-11 along strict party lines.

Lacking immediate affect, the amended bill — if it passed the House and was signed by the governor — would not become law until 90 days after the end of the legislative session. This would be later than the Aug. 4 primary.

Brown said he was relying on an informal opinion of Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley as a precedent to uphold the bill because it would be the legislative intent to hold a September primary.

The informal opinion said in part: "The terms of a statute may be given retrospective effect if the legislative intent that the same be done is clearly and imperatively expressed."

NOT FORMAL

Youths Held After Chase

City Pair Suspected of Stealing Hubcaps

Two youths suspected of stealing hubcaps led police on a wild midnight chase through the south end of Pontiac and then into Orion Township.

After a sheriff's car stopped them, the pair was held without charge on suspicion of larceny from an auto and reckless driving.

The chase followed a complaint from Michael Burrill, 246 E. Blvd., who reported that two men were in the process of stealing hubcaps.

The pair, later identified by police as Randall Stiles, 18, of 84 N. Roselawn and Thomas J. Taylor, 18, of 302 Mt. Clemens fled in their 1963 Chevrolet when they saw a police car approaching.

★ ★ ★

Speeds of close to 100-mph were reported as police chased the youth's car through several signal lights and stop signs in the city.

Police said Stiles is AWOL from the Marine Corps.

Value of the stolen set of hubcaps is estimated at $80.

challenge of the next half-century is whether the nation has the wisdom to use its wealth "to enrich and elevate our national life—and to advance the quality of American civilization."

"The great society," he said, "rests on abundance and liberty for all. It demands an end to poverty and racial injustice but that is just the beginning."

CULTURED OASIS

Johnson pictured the great society as an affluent, cultured oasis, "where man can renew contact with nature" and where people "are more concerned with the quality of their goals than the quantity of their goods."

This would be a place, he said, of completely rebuilt cities, unspoiled countryside and bustling classrooms.

"In the next 40 years," he said, "we must rebuild the entire urban United States."

Johnson quoted the philosopher Aristotle that "men come together in cities in order to live, but they remain together in order to live the good life."

The fresh paving will stretch 225 miles from Damascus to Aleppo, then extend 100 miles east from Aleppo to Raqqah.

Because Syria lies on the land bridge linking Asia, Africa and Europe, traders, warriors and religious leaders have long crisscrossed the region with new ideas, cultures and faiths, the National Geographic Society says.

* * *

The main road ends at Aleppo, Syria's largest city. Camel caravans still trail into the important trading center with pistachio nuts from Turkey, rugs from Persia, camel hides from Hejaz and coffee from Mocha.

Licorice grows wild along Aleppo roadsides. The dried roots of the perennial plant are processed into extracts for the black candy sticks and for industrial uses.

The Aleppo-Raqqah road, though shorter and less important than the Damascus road, nevertheless transports staple food crops, grains, and cotton from the agricultural regions of Eastern Syria to Aleppo.

* * *

Gaylord Woman Killed

GAYLORD (AP)—Mrs. Clara F. Wingo, 23, of Gaylord, was killed Thursday night when her car went off M32 and struck a tree.

Bottled-in-bond whisky is a straight whisky that has been stored for at least four consecutive years in wooden casks and bottled at 100 proof (50 per cent alcohol by volume).

Offices of the Director-General of the World Health Organization are in Geneva, Switzerland, which was chosen in 1948 as headquarters for the organization.

April Chick Production Up in State Over '63

LANSING (AP)—Commercial hatcheries produced 2,540,000 chicks in Michigan last April, an increase of five per cent over April 1963 but 11 per cent below the five-year average.

The Department of Agriculture indicated the over-all United States hatch was down two per cent.

Carrier Squadron Rejoins Far East Fleet

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Navy carrier squadron has left the Indian Ocean and rejoined the main body of the 7th Fleet in the Pacific, it was learned today.

This brings the force of big attack carriers in Far Eastern waters back up to three at a time when a crisis is building in Laos.

The development evidently was not directly connected with the Laotian crisis. The Navy said the squadron was dissolved according to its planned schedule which called for the carrier group to cruise the Indian Ocean for six weeks.

But the timing of the squadron's return puts the 7th Fleet commander, Vice Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, in better shape to act in the Laotian situation, if necessary, and at the same time to meet his other commitments in the far-flung western Pacific area.

The Concord Squadron spent most of its Indian Ocean cruise along the African coast, near the Arabian Peninsula and Iran. Thus, for much of that time, it was thousands of miles from the sensitive Southeast Asian trouble spot.

PIVOTAL ROLE

Although the huge attack carriers and their planes play a pivotal role in the Far East, the rest of the 7th Fleet represents formidable power in a variety of forms.

Over-all, the fleet numbers about 125 ships, 650 planes and helicopters and roughly 60,000 Navy men and marines.

Junior Editors Quiz on CALENDARS

QUESTION: Who worked out our present-day calendar?

ANSWER: Ancient peoples used the phases of the moon, counting 12 lunar months as a year. To make up for the difference between the length of this year and the year as measured by the seasons, they added an extra month every four years.

The early Romans also used a calendar based on the moon. Their year was 355 days long. The months corresponding to March, May, July and October each had 31 days; February had 28 days, and the rest had 29. Again, an extra month was added about every fourth year.

This still did not fit in with the year of the seasons however, and in 46 B.C. Emperor Julius Caesar ordered the adoption of the Julian calendar.

This way the year had 365 days with one day added every fourth or "leap" year. He distributed the 10 extra days among the 29-day months so they are the same as they are today.

The system worked fairly well for about 1500 years, but Caesar's year was still longer than the solar year and the extra time accumulated so the calendar did not match the seasons.

In 1582 Pope Gregory XIII decreed that 10 days be dropped from the calendar in that year to make up for the error, but kept Caesar's general plan.

He also directed that three times in every 400 years the leap year arrangements should be dropped.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Because the Gregorian calendar has uneven months, many groups have suggested we change the calendar. One proposal for a "World Calendar" would keep the 12 months, but change the number of days in certain months. Find out more about this and other suggestions for changing the calendar.

Note Increase in Bus Riders

Count More Patrons for Pontiac Transit

For the first time in 15 months, bus patronage in Pontiac last month topped the number of bus riders for the same period a year ago.

There were 77,294 passengers on Pontiac Transit Corp. buses during April, according to Glen Crawford, general manager.

That's the highest total for any month so far this year and tops the 76,194 passengers recorded in April 1963.

It was the first month since January, 1963, that the passenger total surpassed that for the corresponding month a year before.

★ ★ ★

The April figure is an increase of some 1,800 passengers over the month before. There were 75,468 bus riders in March.

MONTH REVENUE

Last month's patrons brought in revenues totaling $16,832, also the highest monthly revenue this year. The revenue figure was $16,635 the month before and $16,674 in April 1963.

Through April this year, there have been 296,006 passengers on buses and revenues totaling $65,457.

The four-month totals for 1963 were 308,662 passengers and $66,749 in revenues.

The Girl Scouts, founded in 1912 in Savanah, Ga., has grown from an original troop of 12 to 18.5 million members.

Last year more than 9.4 million pairs of footwear were imported into the United States, mostly from Italy and Japan.

Catholic Backs Prayer Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

SCHOOL PRAYERS: A Roman Catholic law professor says the record of the Supreme Court in the area of freedom of religion and church-state relations has been very good.

It would be neither desirable nor wise to amend the Constitution to undo the court's school Bible reading and prayer decisions, adds Prof. Chester J. Antieau, who teaches constitutional law at Georgetown University.

Antieau testified Thursday before the House Judiciary Committee, which wound up its fifth week of hearings on a variety of proposed amendments which were prompted by the court's ban on public school religious exercises. The hearings are now in recess until Wednesday.

An earlier witness, Daniel J. O'Connor, representing The American Legion, said the court "has censored God from the lips of schoolchildren," and it would be unconstitutional for a child to say a prayer aloud any place in school.

Antieau said the court "never even hinted" that it would be unconstitutional for a group of children to assemble somewhere in school before classes begin and, without any teacher present, say a prayer.

PASSPORTS: A bill to extend the validity of the passport to five years and raise its price by a dollar was introduced in the House Thursday.

American citizens now can get passports initially valid for three years, plus a single two-year extension upon application for a renewal. The fee is $9.

Under the new proposal, by Rep. Michael Feighan, D-Ohio, the passport would be valid for a single five-year period and the State Department's fee for issuing it would rise to $10.

CATHOLIC MASS: Decrees authorizing extensive use of English in the Roman Catholic Mass and other of the church's rituals in the United States were made public Thursday.

The changes will go into effect later in the year after publication and distribution of new liturgical books. This may not be until the start of the church year, Advent Sunday, Nov. 29.

★ ★ ★

The Vatican Council Nov. 22 adopted a constitution permitting the Mass and other services to use the local language instead of Latin.

The changes in the Mass and rituals in the United States were formulated by the American bishops April 2 and approved by the Vatican May 1.

Final Revisions Given to Reports on Aging

LANSING (AP)—Reports by Gov. George W. Romney's 10 task forces on aging are undergoing final revision for presentation to the governor about June 1, according to John B. Martin of Grand Rapids, chairman of the Michigan Commission on Aging.

They cover fields of education, employment, community services, religion, health, housing, mental health, income maintenance, recreation and welfare.

Construction Value Drops

City Building Permits Increase

The number of building permits issued in Pontiac in April was considerably higher than the month before, but construction value showed a sharp drop.

★ ★ ★

There were 223 permits issued last month, compared to 180 in March, according to Carl F. Alt, city building inspector.

But the estimated value of all new construction last month was $517,662, about a third of the $1,604,458 valuation on work for which permits were issued in March.

During April 1963 there were 10 more building permits issued than were this April, but the value of new construction a year ago was only $477,470.

SPRING BOOM

The usual spring housing boom accounted for construction valuation last month, as well as the month before and April last year.

★ ★ ★

There were 26 permits issued for $161,000 worth of new homes last month and 75 permits for new family dwellings valued at $1.4-million the month before.

In April 1963, there were 34 permits issued for $221,800 worth of new homes.

Also adding to last month's total were five permits for some $125,000 in commercial alterations and repairs.

Needs Building Permit

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) —Alva C. Harris has been cited in an Idaho Falls City Court complaint for failure to obtain a building permit.

He's the former city building commissioner.

Red Cross Assistance Given Free to Needy

We would like to clarify the uncertainty expressed by "Pontiac Press Reader" in last Saturday's VOP column regarding Red Cross disaster assistance.

★ ★ ★

The question was whether recipients of such aid are expected to repay the monetary value of it. In short, were the assistance merely a loan, the writer would understandably be disaffected, since he regularly contributes to the relief agency through the local United Fund and feels that such contributions should be used for unobligated emergencies.

Our correspondent may rest assured that his doubts are entirely without foundation.

When disaster strikes, American National Red Cross immediately allocates funds from its emergency reserves for the stricken area to alleviate distress and destitution, provide temporary sustenance and housing and assist in private restoration designs. In the Anchor Bay disaster, $50,000 was initially earmarked.

★ ★ ★

After imperative creature needs are freely provided, personal and family cases of loss or hardship are reviewed as the victims register application for such consideration.

★ ★ ★

Situations are separately assessed on the basis of individual resources, the extent that loss is covered by insurance and the financial setback or privation suffered.

Conditions are well in hand at Anchor Bay. A total of 132 houses was destroyed. Of this number, Red Cross is at this point evaluating 37 with the view toward underwriting complete or partial unencumbered restoration.

In addition, 62 family groups have been given unqualified assistance on a minor to major scale. This resume is by no means final, as additional requests for assistance are received daily.

Red Cross authorities report that misleading and unfounded rumors, many similar to the false one which concerned "Reader," invariably originate from disaster areas.

★ ★ ★

No organization has a higher reputation for integrity and ethical fulfillment of objectives than Red Cross. The PRESS offers this enlightenment on behalf of a valued agency member of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Birmingham Marks Century of Progress

Birmingham this month observes the 100th anniversary of its municipal incorporation.

Settled in 1819 by John and Daniel Hunter and known as Piety Hill, the then square-mile area became the Village of Birmingham in 1864. It gained city status in 1933, with a population of 9,500.

★ ★ ★

The centennial celebration began May 13 with an outdoor concert, climaxed by the selection of DIANE LOUISE CEMATE as Miss Armed Forces Week.

Daily events and ceremonies, many of them keyed to Michigan Week, developing historic, artistic, educational and industrial themes continue through May 30.

★ ★ ★

The commemorative period will be highlighted by Gov. George W. Romney and Mrs. Romney. The Governor delivers an address Saturday at Shain Park following the centennial parade. Mrs. Romney will be the keynote speaker the following Tuesday at a day-long symposium on "The Role of Women in Politics."

★ ★ ★

The PRESS renders a laudatory salute to our neighbor city on its splendid civic progress and the superb program being conducted to signalize it.

Timid, Torpid? Not Johnson

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — "The presidency," the man said, "is no place for a timid soul or a torpid spirit." Later, he added this: "I strive to please."

MARLOW

The man is Lyndon B. Johnson, who has been in the White House six months today. He's been neither timid nor torpid. Anything but.

And he's been so anxious to please he has acted like a one-man rescue squad for anything that ails the country.

He's been the bounciest president since Theodore Roosevelt and more willing to stick his neck out than any president since Harry S. Truman.

He went into the heart of the segregation country — Atlanta — to make a speech on civil rights and was almost mobbed by happy Georgians.

★ ★ ★

He promised to shut down needless military bases and got surprisingly little bad reaction, although if there's anything a congressman doesn't like it is a base shut down in his district.

ASKED TO DINNER

He asked business and labor leaders to dinner at the White House — but not at the same time—and asked the former to keep down prices and the latter to keep down wage demands.

Both groups liked him, although this doesn't mean they'll do what he asked. This week the AFL-CIO said it wouldn't.

He cut the budget and goes around turning out White House lights to save on electricity, although he's probably running up the biggest presidential telephone bill in history, calling people to get on the ball.

★ ★ ★

He uses the telephone like a third arm. He gets little sleep, works day and night, and, so the rumor goes, holds his friends up by the ears to get things done.

KEEPS REPORTERS PANTING

No president in memory has kept reporters panting so far trying to keep up with him, on foot, on wheels and on paper.

In one spurt he made 30 speeches in two weeks. He traveled the Appalachian trail twice, visited the World's Fair, shook hands with White House tourists, dances as long as there's a woman left standing at White House shindigs, and holds news conferences on the spur of the moment or while trotting six times around his garden.

With all that said, the next question is: How's he doing? Fine, from all accounts. He's riding so high in popularity polls the Republicans, in this presidential election year, seem to have had some of the steam taken out of them.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps his greatest single-handed achievement—in the sense of working at it personally—was getting the rail dispute settled. It had seemed impossible but the result electrified him. Then he really started walking and talking.

OUGHT TO SET A RECORD

If knowing how to deal with members of Congress helps a president, Johnson ought to set a record. He was in Congress himself 24 years, a longer service than any president before taking office. And he's working at it.

He has had success on some things—like a tax cut, a farm program, a foreign aid bill he could live with—but all the big tests lie ahead, at home and abroad, and the country should know far more about him by election time.

★ ★ ★

His major programs are still hung up in Congress, like civil rights and health care. His problems abroad haven't been backbreaking so far but they may become so soon, particularly in Southeast Asia.

Baker Case

The Chicago Tribune

No matter how frantically the administration's trouble shooters try to nail the Baker case shut, the packing case continues to emit piercing reminders of its existence.

★ ★ ★

Don B. Reynolds, Bobby Baker's insurance pal whose testimony has been acutely embarrassing to President Johnson and members of his staff, seems ready and eager to keep on talking. He said that pressure to end the Senate rules committee hearing has come not only from the White House, but also from a good many senators, including Republicans, who are just as reluctant as the White House to hear any more about Mr. Baker's influence peddling apparatus, especially the part played by "ladies of leisure."

Mr. Reynolds seems undeterred by the administration's devious and vicious campaign to discredit him by supplying accommodating columnists with derogatory material from the confidential records of his past service with the air force and the state department.

Mr. Reynolds' personal qualifications for sainthood are not the issue. He has made serious charges which the committee is duty bound to follow before it closes shop. He is willing to tell more. His charges have been strenuously denied but never disproved, and they fit in with a pattern of influence pedding and profiteering which has been confirmed from many sources other than Reynolds.

Somebody has been lying to Congress. The implications of the Baker case are considerably more serious than those from Mr. Profumo's indiscretions, which, except for the government's brief attempt to cover up for him, proved to have no bearing on the performance of his duties.

★ ★ ★

Not so with the Baker case. Nearly every strand leads to a new example of official impropriety. Dozens of questions remain unanswered regarding the abuse of office by Mr. Baker or by other officials apparently indebted to him. Other questions have been officially avoided, such as what part members of Congress and of the government played in the mysterious goings-on at the house on N street.

★ ★ ★

As long as these questions are evaded, we may assume that the answers are more embarrassing than the questions. Sen. Jordan and the Democratic members of the rules committee are helping to suppress a Johnson administration scandal much worse than the Profumo affair.

David Lawrence Says:

Rights Issue to Hit Both Parties

WASHINGTON — Many of the present members of Congress who won their seats by a very close margin are getting out their pencils and trying to figure what would happen in the election next November if as little as 5 per cent of the vote deserted them and crossed over to the other party.

LAWRENCE

It's a dilemma that faces both Republicans and Democrats.

The Democratic party has 76 seats more than the Republicans in the House of Representatives, and if 36 seats should be lost, control of the House would shift to the Republican party.

But in the coming campaign, the civil rights issue is likely to invade both parties.

While the election could leave the Democrats in control, it might actually mean in the session beginning next January the loss of a majority behind any further civil rights legislation and a resurgence of an opposition coalition of both parties.

★ ★ ★

Many people may think the civil rights controversy will be over when the pending bill in the Senate is enacted this year, but the fact is large appropriations will be necessary — possibly many hundreds of millions of dollars — to enforce the most far-reaching statutes that will have been passed since prohibition days.

COURT EXPENSES

The cost of enforcing prohibition laws was heavy not only because of the need for more government agents to detect those who were violating the law but also because of the expenses of court procedures and legal processes involved.

The Republican party faces losses of seats, just as do the Democrats, on the civil rights issue in the coming campaign, because this question cuts both ways.

The House of Representatives has, of course, already voted on the civil rights legislation, so the roll-call of members is a matter of record, but an aspirant who tries to take away the seat of an incumbent will find plenty of defects in the legislation itself and will argue that the bill should have been amended in the House.

The inference will be that the candidate making such criticism would have voted for revisions of the bill if he had been a member of the House.

CHANGE OF SEATS

The emphasis will be on a change of seats, and the voters who are discontented with respect to various phases of civil rights will be expected to line up either against the Republican or Democrat who actually did vote for the civil rights legislation.

Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia said the other day that the Maryland vote revealed a "groundswell among the people of this country," and predicted that when the people become aware that the government is trying to force social equality, it will be an issue in every congressional race.

He added:

"As I told the leader of this nation (President Johnson) in the only conversation I have had with him on this bill, he may pass this bill, but he will have more new faces in Congress in the next four to six years than any president has ever had."

★ ★ ★

There are at least 40 districts in which Democrats won seats in the House in the 1962 election by a vote of 55 per cent or less.

MARGINAL DISTRICTS

These marginal districts are nearly all in the northern or border states.

But, inasmuch as many Republicans also have voted for the civil rights legislation, a number of Republican seats will similarly be challenged by a "cross-over" among the voters.

'Teen-Agers Have Party; Neighbors Call Police'

Last Saturday night my nephew had some of his high school band-member friends and their girlfriends at my house for a party. They were in the garage, having fun dancing and drinking soda pop. There were four adults here, and as soon as each boy and girl arrived they called their parents and told them where they were.

Later a policeman came with a complaint from a neighbor that we were disturbing the peace.

'Negro Must Raise Standard of Living'

It is too bad that the Negro cannot raise his standard of living. It does not take much money but a lot of elbow grease to improve his living area. It also looks as if the Negro will never be satisfied with anything he gets until he sincerely works hard enough for it and tries to live on the same level as the white man. He must be willing to accept the laws to accomplish his goal.

Cuban Exile Group Tells of Brutality

The Christian Democrat Movement of Cuba deplores the brutal, illegal manner in which agents broke into the offices of this organization. In addition to removing equipment and causing damage they abused both verbally and physically several leaders of this organization when the latter requested the search warrant.

★ ★ ★

We know that in the fight against communism, unity of all democratic governments and peoples is essential. In the fight for the liberation of our country, we Cubans are firmly defending the vital interests of the free world which the U.S. has vowed to uphold and preserve.

★ ★ ★

This affair occurs at a time when there are favorable circumstances which may bolster Cuban liberation efforts on the island and abroad. We are conscious that only truth will liberate us from the Communist lie and we are sure that the American people, who have been so hospitable, will also repudiate the uncivilized treatment to which we have been subjected.

Says Canada Goose Killed at Lotus Lake

Someone killed a wild Canada goose on Lotus Lake last Sunday. We who live here on the lakefront are proud to have this wildlife in our front yard. I spend more than $1 a week for grain for these beautiful birds. I also feed a pair of wood ducks and a pair of mallards.

I hope the conservation department can do something to help us protect these geese that are left and especially those about to have young ones.

'Parking a Problem to Landlords, Too'

"Enraged Home Owner" should have studied the parking situation on North Sanford more closely. Some of us multiple-dwelling home owners are just as disgusted as he. The parking problem is not all caused by our renters. Several of the single-dwelling homes have two or more cars.

After the VOP letter appeared in The Press about the parking problem, these cars disappeared. Since most of these people have off-street parking facilities, why haven't they been making use of them? It's a lot shorter walk from the driveway or garage.

Courthouse 'Mystery Woman' Answers

Adeline Anderson and Phyllis Walter claim that a "mystery woman" causes the courts and especially jurors considerable concern. They state that this woman has no scruples or is simply misdirected.

★ ★ ★

Assuming that I am this "mystery woman," it surprised me that these two with so many "scruples" did not go immediately to the proper authorities and have this unscrupulous character placed in custody, as jury tampering is a criminal offense.

★ ★ ★

It's a sad commentary on our judiciary system if a lone mystery woman could have that much influence on our courts as they would like some to believe.

Until they both take the proper procedure to prove their accusations, I'll just consider them "simply misdirected."

'Lodge's Main Object to Thwart Barry'

Henry Cabot Lodge became a leader of the senate liberals and a devoted supporter of the U.N. He was the chief exponent of the bipartisan foreign policy, when the liberals of both parties collaborated to silence constitutional objectors of both parties. In 1952 Lodge was defeated for re-election to the Senate, even though the state voted overwhelmingly Republican. Lodge was the only Republican in the Senate to oppose stopping foreign aid to nations which sent war materials to the Commies.

His activities in South Viet Nam should disqualify him for any public office. American military men and Lodge conceded that Diem's war against the Commies was going reasonably well but Lodge was in control and wanted Diem destroyed. Lodge gave sanctuary in our embassy to Commie Quang and others who Diem considered dangerous enemy agents. He has one political aim this year: to stop sound constitutionalist, Goldwater.

Split in Leadership

First Crisis Faces New Brazil Regime

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The honeymoon is over for President Humberto Castello Branco's five-week-old Brazilian government. Its first major political crisis may be brewing.

A period of harmony and unity followed the anti - Communist revolution which deposed President Joao Goulart on April 1. But Castello Branco now faces serious dissension among the revolution's backers.

★ ★ ★

For one thing the purge of alleged Communists and corrupt elements from the government is threatening some key supporters of the revolution, as well as popular Jscelino Kubitschek, a former president.

A split in the top levels of the revolution was provoked by the government's first important economic measure, the withdrawal of subsidies from imports of petroleum, wheat and newsprint to ease the burden on the treasury. The measure, expected to cause a new general price increase for inflation-burdened Brazilians, has aroused considerable anger.

Another factor in the political unrest is a growing movement to tamper with the presidential elections scheduled for Oct. 3, 1965.

Castello Branco, the former army chief, has promised that he will hand over the government on Jan. 31, 1966, when Goulart's presidential term would have ended, to the man elected in October.

Some military leaders, notably Gen. Justino Alves Bastos, an important figure in the revolution, have suggested the election should be indirect, by Congress instead of by the people.

SAME PATH

The reasoning apparently for both moves is that if the Brazilian's are allowed to elect the next president, the country could be returned to the same political path that led to the April revolution.

Many backers of the revolution were jolted when the military ordered some of the nation's top governors, including leaders of the revolution, to clean up their state governments or risk losing their jobs.

But the chief target of the reformers obviously is Kubitschek whose economic policies are usually held largely responsible for Brazil's runaway inflation.

The military men feel Kubitschek should be prevented from running again, and it is possible Castello Branco will cancel Kubitschek's political rights to keep him out of the race.

Last Reports In on City Election Costs

All 16 City Commission candidates in the April 20 general election have now filed campaign expense statements, according to Mabel Child, county election clerk.

The deadline for filing such statements under state election laws was May 11. Four candidates who missed the deadline have now filed statements.

There was a total of $5,810.14 spent in the campaign, according to a tally of all 16 statements.

The total spent by losing candidates was $3,045.02, while the seven winners spent $2,765.12.

There was only one notable change in the figures originally reported.

LOW TO HIGH

Robert C. Irwin, who won the District 2 commission seat, jumped from lowest to highest in campaign expenditures among the winning candidates.

His expenses had erroneously been reported by city officials as being only $29.40. This, however, was only the amount he spent himself.

Irwin's campaign committee filed a separate statement showing additional expenditures of $666.60, bringing his total to $696.

★ ★ ★

1st Satchmo Home to Be Preserved

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The house where jazz great Louis Armstrong was born has been bought by the New Orleans Jazz Club to prevent its destruction.

The club plans to move the two-bedroom, frame building to a temporary location until it finds a permanent spot for the house.

Nike Pieces Strewn Over Hawaii Farm

HONOLULU (AP)—A farmer complained Thursday that fragments from a Nike - Hercules missile were strewn over his farm Wednesday after the missile had to be blown up because of a malfunction.

The Hawaii Army National Guard has been conducting each Wednesday on Oahu Island.

"Somebody might get killed."

Jagged pieces of metal hit the farm after the missile exploded at 4,000 feet over the north end of the island. The McCandless children were kept busy picking up the pieces, all sharp - edged and some the size of a garbage can cover.

McCandless showed newsmen a small cut on his hip.

"It got me here," he said.

Waterford Studies School Bids

Bids for building and equipping Mason Junior High School were opened last night by the Waterford Township Board and referred to the school system's architectectural consultant for study.

A recommendation will be prepared by the architects, and contracts probably will be awarded by the board at a special meeting next Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe termed the bids "very favorable." He added that the school can be completed within the estimated $2.5 million total budget.

W. A. Lutz Co., with a proposal of $1,114,900, was low bidder for the architectural trades. The eight bids on this contract ranged to a high of $1,192,444.

LOW BIDDER

Low bidder for the mechanical trades was Steve Kruchko Plumbing with a two-part base proposal of $421,913.

ELECTRICAL TRADES

Only three contractors submitted proposals ranging from $98,265 to $127,960 for site development. J. D. Armstrong Co. was low bidder.

Great Lakes Hotel Supply Co., with a proposal of $62,645, was low among five bidders on kitchen equipment.

★ ★ ★

Numerous other bids on supplementary equipment needed for the school, slated for occupancy in September 1965, also were opened and referred to the architects.

ABOUT 1,500

Located between Loon Lake and Walton, the school will have a student capacity of approximately 1,500 with 58 teaching stations.

Actual construction cost of the 157,800-square - foot building had been estimated at $1,940,000.

In other business last night, the school board certified a list of election officials and approved formal notice of the June 8 school election.

★ ★ ★

Candidates for the four-year school-board terms are incumbent President Robert E. Field, incumbent John D. Boardman, and Dora D. White and Dean A. Salley.

Three Hospitalized as Car Hits Trees

Three persons were hospitalized, one in serious condition, when their car failed to negotiate a curve on Iroquois at 3 a.m. today and hit two trees.

Bonnie Lou Auchter, 20, of 4955 Baldwin, Pontiac Township, a passenger in the car, suffered two broken legs and facial cuts and is reported as serious.

★ ★ ★

In satisfactory condition are Judith Ann Auchter, 18, Bonnie Lou's sister, and the driver of the car, Amund Dahl, 18, of 4824 Elizabeth Lake Road, Waterford Township.

Police said the car was heading northwest on Iroquois when the accident occurred 70 feet east of Ottawa.

16 OU Profs Will Be 'Sold' to Aid Library

Sixteen Oakland University professors were to be sold into servitude at a mock "slave sale" today. It will all be in the name of school spirit.

The professors were to be auctioned off at noon with proceeds from the sale going towards the purchase of library books.

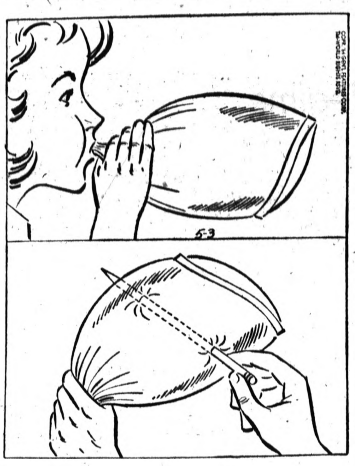
Gary Beeman, program advisor, said that the "servitude" would be of two-three hours duration. He thought that most of it would consist of poetry recitations, readings and similar activities.

Beeman said the object was to build school spirit.

★ ★ ★

Other activities slated for today included a late afternoon picnic and a folk singing session around a bonfire.

The first American plant explorers since 1929 were allowed into the Soviet Union recently and brought back bud shoots from wild apple, pear and cherry trees.



Science Quiz

By BOB BROWN

PROBLEM: It's Magic!

NEEDED: A polyethylene bag, a sharp pencil.

DO THIS: Blow up the bag like a balloon, and twist the opening to make it airtight. Push a sharp pencil through the bag, in one side and out the other, leaving ends protruding.

WHAT HAPPENS: The balloon does not burst and the air does not leak out.

WHY? Polyethylene plastic will seal itself around the pencil because of its peculiar molecular structure.

The thick polyethylene bags suitable for this experiment are found in grocery stores. Raw carrots are sold in them, and sometimes other vegetables.

They are also sold for holding foods for freezing.

CAUTION: Keep all plastic bags away from small children.

Get the new collection of these science tricks. Look for it in bookstores under the name "Science Circus No. 2." Fleet of New York is the publisher.

'Industrial Growth Requires Broader Community Effort'

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the fifth and final article pointing out various features of Michigan during Michigan Week.)

Broader community participation in programs of economic expansion is a requirement for continuing industrial progress in Michigan, in the opinion of B. M. Conboy, director, Michigan Department of Economic Expansion.

Persons trained in the field of industrial development are needed in many Michigan communities.

While several of the larger cities have full-time personnel engaged in this activity, lack of trained persons is a deficiency in many cities of 5,000 to 50,000 population, Mr. Conboy points out.

In his opinion, there is no general lack of enthusiasm, but there are instances of lack of know-how.

★ ★ ★

To overcome this obstacle, the state agency charged with responsibility for industrial development has launched a new type of economic expansion service.

INITIAL STEP

As an initial step, a three-day Economic Expansion Institute was held at University of Michigan in March.

Representatives of 25 communities were given the opportunity to hear from state and national experts, the latest methods and successful programs for economic development.

Success of the first institute led to the decision to continue the project with an advanced institute in October plus a repeat of the first program.

It is apparent, Conboy explains, that some areas most in need of industrial development are lacking in trained personnel.

AP Photofax

WINS SKIRMISH — West Point Cadet John H. Dunmar, 21, of Anaheim, Calif., was expelled two weeks ago for "quibbling," which the Army defines as deliberately deceiving another person. He was ordered reinstated yesterday by Secretary of the Army Stephen Ailes after a U.S. judge threatened contempt of court action pending a hearing on the charge.

The expansion service is designed to make available to all communities, programs which will provide the needed training.

One of the major objectives of the department is to develop coordination of efforts by local communities, civic groups, utilities and state agencies in their projects of economic development.

Opportunities for industrial development programs have never been better, Conboy says.

★ ★ ★

Michigan firms are expanding and some of the nation's largest companies are placing manufacturing operations in Michigan for the first time."

NEW TOOL

Michigan has a new tool—industrial development revenue bonds — to aid economic expansion.

This recent legislation has been used in Coldwater to finance an expansion of the M. T. Shaw Shoe Company.

Other communities are giving the bond plan consideration.

★ ★ ★

This method of financing new plants or expansions is an addition to the already numerous advantages Michigan has for industry.

SPECIAL EMPHASIS

Available to communities are services of the Economic Expansion Department which is placing special emphasis on: research, promotion, planning, legislation, training, financing and international trade.

★ ★ ★

Each of these programs has benefits for local communities and a combination of local and state efforts can make all programs of industrial development more effective.

He's a Spy for Danger

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)— City Building Commissioner Harold Christian, who has been carrying a pair of binoculars around recently, hastens to declare that he is neither a bird watcher nor a girl watcher.

"I use the binoculars to examine masonry work on three and four-story buildings where we have received complaints of possible danger," he explains.

Modern Goldsmith Practices Ancient Craft

By JANET ODELL

During the Middle Ages goldsmiths were so important that in 1327 the Guild of London Goldsmiths received a royal charter.

The first goldsmith's guild had been established nearly 150 years before that time.

After its period of greatest prominence during the Renaissance in Italy, the goldsmithing art gradually declined. Today it is but a part of the jeweler's art in most places.

But at Connolly's Jewelers on West Huron is a Twentieth Century goldsmith in the old tradition. Andre Marosy is thought to be the only craftsman of this kind in Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

There are "Job shops" that do jewelry manufacturing, but jeweler Norman Pattison says that Connolly's has the only complete creative jewelry department within a retail store.

UNIQUE DESIGNER

Marosy is unique as a designer who can produce any item of jewelry desired in precious metal right from the raw materials. He also redesigns antique jewelry.

★ ★ ★

Born in Budapest, Hungary and apprenticed to the trade at age 15, Marosy, came to Pontiac by a roundabout way.

For 20 years he worked at his trade in France, learning all the time. The he went to Algiers to learn how to do filigree work.

That behind him, he settled in Venezuela for a time and worked with native jewelry.

CAME TO AMERICA

His first stop in the United States was New York City where he had his own business —and hated it. He wants to create beautiful jewelry, not be bothered with the commerical side of selling.

★ ★ ★

Pattison heard of him after he had come to Detroit as a free-lancer. Now he and Marosy have joined forces in the kind of partnership where each man is doing what he knows and likes best to do.

Whe he is not working on orders, he works on his own designs. These include engagement and wedding rings.

One such ring set features a heart design on each side of the center diamond. Only after the wedding ring is added to the engagement ring on the firl's finger will the complete heart be seen.

MASS PRODUCTION

Wedding and engagement rings in quantity are made by the die stamping process. Dies for this can cost anywhere from $300 to $1,000.

★ ★ ★

Each wax ring has a little stem on it to enable it to stand in the muffle (a circular holder).

Each muffle full of wax rings is then covered with a white substance similar to plaster of paris. When this has hardened, the wax is melted out, leaving a mold in the white compound.

Meanwhile, pure gold is being melted in a crucible. It takes about two or three hours at 1500-1600 degrees for the gold to reach the proper temperature. Marosy knows by looking at it when it is ready.

★ ★ ★

Then a crucible of gold and the ring molds are put into a machine where centrifugal force sends molten gold into the forms.

OUT OF MOLD

All gold looks the same when it comes out of the mold — dusty white. The new rings must then be filed to give the design the most minute detail.

Several more stages of polishing and finishing are still required to get the ring ready for the customer.

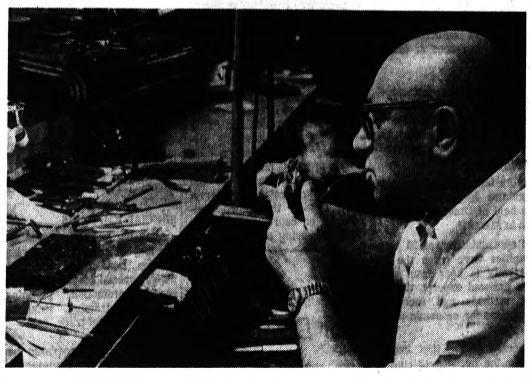
LOVES GEMS

Marosy has a passion for stones, both precious and semi-precious. He acquired a number of beautiful and unusual ones in South America. Some of his black opals are fabulous.

★ ★ ★

No amount of time is too much to spend on his work; in fact, time means nothing to Marosy.

Brides who wear the rings he has created will wear them proudly, knowing they were made by an artisan who is happiest when he is working.



LIGHTING UP — Surrounded by the tools of his trade, Andre Marosy uses his jewelers blowtorch to light his pipe. Marosy spends his days happily making jewelry, either of his own or the customer's design. He is thought to be the only such craftsman in an Oakland County retail jewelry store.

Yugoslavia Develops Cold-Resistant Fruit

SPLIT, Yugoslavia (AP) —The Institute for Adriatic Culture here has developed new types of oranges, lemons and tangerines which it says will ripen satisfactorily despite the cold winds of the Adriatic winter.

They are now going to be planted along the entire coast where normal varieties of citrus fruits frequently have failed to ripen.

India Seeks U.S. Jets for Its China Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—India is asking the United States to sell it three squadrons of F104 Sabre jet supersonic fighters as part of the Indian defense build-up against Communist China, diplomatic sources said today.

The jets would cost an estimated $150 million.

While no decision has yet been reached, sources indicated the Indian request was running into State Department resistance on the grounds such a sale would upset U.S. relations with Pakistan.

India's visiting defense minister, Y. B. Chavan, arranged a two-hour meeting today with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to hear the American response to India's defense requirements.

Thursday night Chavan talked with Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. The discussions were described as an exchange of assessments on Communist China and the danger it posed to India and to Southeast Asia.

The United States has been cool in the past to Indian approaches for the Sabre jets. Pakistan, a bitter rival of India, has one squadron of the F104s supplied to it as a partner in the SEATO and Central Treaty Organization defense pact.

India fully intends to maintain its policy of nonalignment, Chavan said in a National Press Club talk Thursday.

He said the recent closer relations between Pakistan and Communist China have increased the military threat of Peking.

He declared that a Red Chinese buildup along the northern frontiers of India has now exceeded the concentrations of troops and equipment which existed prior to China's 1962 border attacks on India.

Ex-Cunard Exec Dies

SYOSSET, N.Y. (AP) — Sir Thomas Ashley Sparks, 87, former chief Cunard line representative in the United States and onetime director of the line, died Thursday.

Johnson Ends First 6 Months

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Just six months ago today, John F. Kennedy was assassinated and Lyndon B. Johnson ascended to the presidency. This is a portrait of the complex, contradictory man who says he wants to be "President of ALL the people."

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Just six months to the day since he ascended to the presidency, Lyndon B. Johnson is a contented, confident man who has seared an unmistakeable LBJ brand on the White House.

The duties and responsibilities are heavy and they press down on the man more heavily than he had once thought. There's a little more salting of gray in his dark hair, especially in back.

* * *

But there is nothing of doubt and much of assurance these days in the manner of the President.

Definitely he likes his job and wants to keep it. He feels comfortable and secure in it, although he is too good a politician to believe he is completely safe.

TAKES OVER

Much of the change apparently was compressed into six days in April.

* * *

Then it was that a five-year rail dispute that had threatened to explode into a calamitous nationwide strike suddenly was settled, on April 22.

Two days later, the President was off on his first visit to poverty pockets in Appalachia. Thousands and thousands of people saw him, and he saw them. The surging crowds left him glowing. He tossed security precautions aside and rode in an open car for the first time since Kennedy was assassinated in one.

DID HIS BEST

He said: "I wish I could look into every face and shake every hand." He did his best.

By April 27, he was addressing the Chamber of Commerce of the United States in Washington, in Constitution Hall. It was one of the most memorable performances in an auditorium which has seen many.

* * *

With jokes and jabs and hard-hitting appeals, Johnson quickly had his businessman audience with him, applauding and laughing for an hour.

These six days fortified in Johnson the idea that he can be what he told the Chamber of Commerce he intends to be: "President of ALL the people."

ONLY PRESIDENT

Over and over, to people representing every facet of national life, Johnson keeps saying, "I am the only President you have."

And what they have is a complex, contradictory, personable, hard-working, driving chief executive who can't be neatly tagged by any one label.

* * *

He has fantastic stamina, an agile mind, bulldog determination, sentimentality, sensitivity. There is a compulsion and urgency about him that might have taken him far in the business world.

He can be brusque or kindly, thoughtless or thoughtful, domineering or gentle — he is great with kids.

LADIES MAN

He goes great guns with grown-up gals. In Johnson's six months in office, probably more women have been kissed on the cheek and more damsels danced around the East Room than in any administration in history.

The White House hasn't seen such informality and folksy good times since the days of Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was what Johnson called his second Daddy.

* * *

Incidentally, in the pattern of FDR after a polio attack, Johnson gave up golf and went in for therapeutic swimming after a heart attack in 1955. He's back at golf again now.

Incidentally, too, the word a few weeks ago was that an electrocardiograph test of heart functions gave Johnson a "normal reading, with no signs of an enlargement.

EXPLOSIVE

As did Presidents Kennedy, Eisenhower and Truman before him, Johnson has a temper that flashes explosively now and then.

Publicly, he reacts with jocular remarks when he has been reported speeding, sipping beer at the wheel, or pulling the ears of his beagle pups. But he does not forget.

He is sensitive to stories or events that reflect unfavorably on him. And he is sensitive about being called sensitive.

While he lacks the darting, flicking wit of a Kennedy, Johnson does have a ready sense of humor that is often on the droll, homespun side.

PARSON LBJ

Sometimes there are references to powder rooms or boudoirs. But more often to make special points, there are stories about preachers so often that there are occasional headlines about "Parson" Johnson.

In six months, Johnson's skittishness about news conferences has disappeared, to the extent he has held three in one week, conducted a roving conference on a seven-lap tour of the back yard, and turned another into a punch and cookies outing for wives and children of reporters.

* * *

No president has made as many speeches in such a short time. Several a day aren't unusual. And two or three times a day the President can be counted on to invoke the Golden Rule, to do unto others as you would have others do unto you.

Johnson likes people around him. He seldom has a meal alone. He may invite himself out to lunch now and then, but mostly he does the inviting — tourists invited into a rear gate for a walk around the grounds, guests invited into the private living quarters, and into the swimming pool.

SEE UPSTAIRS

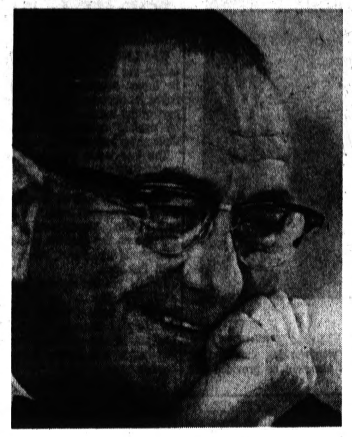
* * *

Lately, though, there have been signs that the White House may be wondering whether there has been too much of presidential appearances and uttnfs scewN-CMFWY exposure. News conferences have slacked off and the President's official daily schedule is less jammed.

But for a man who had about 11 months to create and sell his own presidential image in advance of the next election, Johnson seems to be doing pretty well.



President Johnson

Attention, Shoppers! Here's a Coin Bargain

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The Lancaster County Farmers National Bank, in an effort to combat the coin shortage, is giving customers a $1 bill for each 98 cents in coins.

The bank says it collected $4,797 in coins the first three days of what it calls a "green sale" this week. It said the promotion has cost $95.

Singer's Wife Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—Margaret Downey, 42, wife of the former singing star Morton Downey, died Thursday. Mrs. Downey underwent an operation for cancer some time ago. Downey was a popular radio singer in the 1930s, but in recent years he turned to business as a career.

Abortionist Guilty in Girl's Death

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Harvey N. Lothringer, charged in the abortion death of a college sophomore whose dismembered body was found in a sewer, has pleaded guilty to second-degree manslaughter.

★ ★ ★

Lothringer, 43, a graduate of Princeton College and New York University Medical School was accused of accepting $500 for the abortion from the parents of Barbara Lofrumento, 19, of Pelham, N.Y., a student at New Rochelle, (N.Y.) College, a Roman Catholic school for girls.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Lothringer fled to Europe when parts of the victim's body were found near his Queens home two years ago. He and his office receptionist, Miss Theresa Carillo, 27, were returned from France, where they tried to marry. She was held as a material witness.

★ ★ ★

He faces up to 15 years in prison. Under the original charge, first-degree manslaughter, he could have received up to 20 years.

NEW BIRMINGHAM SALON — Eric and Agim Bardha, who escaped from Communist Albania with two other brothers and their widowed mother nine years ago, have opened a $200,000 beauty salon at 911 Haynes, Birmingham. Also working in the Bardha Salon are a brother Andre and Eric's wife, Lydia. The building was designed by Birmingham architects Gunnar Birkerts and Frank Straub. The shiny black windows cut daylight glare on the inside yet are transparent from the outside at night.

News of Area Service Personnel

Major Don P. Harper, USAF, son of Mrs. L. L. Harper of 93 N. Telegraph, will retire from service May 31 after a flying career of 6,400 accident - free hours.

HARPER

In the past four years he has flown more than six-million passenger - carrying - miles for the 30th Air Division (SAGE), a USAF component of the joint U. S. - Canadian 30th North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) region with headquarters at Truax Field, Wis.

Since reporting for duty at Truax in 1959 Harper has logged more than 2,500 flying hours, more than any other officer of SAGE.

The major joined the service May 10, 1942. His flying career began in May 1944 when he received pilot's wings at Altus AFB, Okla. In World War II, he flew 20 combat missions in a B17 "Flying Fortress" over Europe, while assigned to the 97th Bomb Group of the Fifteenth Air Force in Italy.

Major Harper's awards include the Air Medal with an oak leaf cluster. He is now rated a command pilot. Before entering the service, the major graduated from Pontiac Central High School.

Airman 1. C. Robert D. Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shoemaker of 9½ S. Washington, Oxford, has graduated from the technical course for Air Force dental laboratory technicians at Gunter AFB, Ala.

Airman Shoemaker, trained to supervise the clinical phases of dentistry, is being assigned to a Strategic Air Command (SAC) unit at Pease AFB, N.H.

His group supports the SAC mission of keeping the nation's intercontinental missiles and jet bombers on constant alert.

The airman, a graduate of Oxford High School, entered the Air Force in October 1955.

Counsel Aid is Offered to Area Youths

A summer counseling program for young people between 13 and 20, regardless of whether they are in school, is planned for the third consecutive year.

Presented by Oakland Schools, the counseling program is part of a graduate course for junior and senior high school counselors.

Ten counselors from county schools will take a college credit course which includes actual counseling of students.

The program will run June 25-July 8.

Students will meet for a one-hour session with the counselor. This may be followed with an interview with the student and his parents.

DETERMINE ABILITY

In addition, students may also take a two-hour test to determine their ability to do schoolwork, according to Dr. William Moorhouse, Oakland Schools guidance director.

The student-counselor conferences will be taped and reviewed by Moorhouse and other program participants. Some sessions will be telecast by closed-circuit television.

City Reserve Unit to Leave for Drill

The U. S. Army Reserves 4th Howitzer Battalion, 39th Artillery, Pontiac, leaves for Camp Grayling early tomorrow for a two-day practice firing session with live ammunition.

The weekend drill will be the first time that the outfit has trained with live ammunition outside its two weeks of summer camp.

The unit will leave from the Reserve Center, 40 Walnut, at 7:30 a. m. in trucks and return late Sunday.

The battalion will go to Camp McCoy, Wis., on June 27.

West Germany Rejects Yugoslavia Friendship

BONN, Germany (AP)—West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder has rebuffed an attempt by U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk to improve West German relations with Yugoslavia, a foreign ministry spokesman said today.

The spokesman said Rusk made his overture in a letter about three weeks ago.

Schroeder replied that West Germany wants an improvement but has to keep certain principles in mind, particularly the Hallstein Doctrine.

The doctrine, a legacy of former Deputy Foreign Minister Walter Hallstein, bars formal diplomatic relations with any country that recognizes the Communist government in East Germany.

West Germany broke with Yugoslavia in 1956, when the Yugoslavs established relations with East Germany.

TALKS FAIL

Yugoslavia is represented in Bonn by a trade mission, but trade talks and arrangements for compensation for World War II damage have failed to get anywhere because Yugoslavia refuses to recognize the West German government as the representative of all of Germany.

There was no comment from the U.S. Embassy in Bonn.

Schroeder's rebuff apparently was disclosed in an effort to undercut West Germans who accuse Schroeder of being too friendly to Communist countries and of listening too much to American advice.

Birth First for Hospital

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—LaCynda Wilson has the distinction of being the only baby ever born in Salt Lake Veterans Administration Hospital.

Ronald F. Wilson was rushing his wife to LDS hospital for the birth of their second child when he realized he wouldn't have time to make it.

Pearson Cabinet OKs Flag Design

OTTAWA (AP)—There were strong indications today that the government's proposed new Canadian flag will consist of three red maple leaves on a white background with a blue vertical bar on both edges.

Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's government approved a maple leaf design last night to replace the Red Ensign bearing the British Union Jack.

Parliament is expected to approve the new flag despite strong opposition from world war veterans.

Pearson has not disclosed which design the cabinet picked from three maple leaf flags under consideration.

★ ★ ★

Neither of the other two had side bars. One had a white background and the other a blue background.

2 Children's Fighting Starts Bloody Feud

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Two children scuffling in a schoolyard set off a fight between their families in which one woman was killed and 15 persons injured.

★ ★ ★

The families battled with shotguns, pistols and other weapons yesterday in a village in the Lebanese mountains. Security forces arrested 50 persons.

Your Heart Has Nine Lives—V

Calories DO Count, so Eat Less and Exercise More

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the fifth in a series of 12 articles condensed from the book, "Your Heart Has Nine Lives.")

By ALTON BLAKESLEE and JEREMIAH STAMLER, M.D.

She does it unwittingly with the food she sets before him—too much, too good, too rich, too highly processed.

At middle age the overweight man—depending on the amount of his blubber—is likely to be two to three times more susceptible to coronary heart disease than his neighbor of normal weight.

★ ★ ★

CRASH DIETS

Each year we spend millions of dollars, and work up anxiety, and go in for frenzies of determination, seizing upon crash diets, special reducing diets and highly-touted drug nostrums—and still keep yearning for some simple, presto formula to slim down and trim off the extra pounds.

But you really can lose weight and keep it down, by acting upon a few fundamental physiological laws governing the reasons why most of us gain weight.

The first immutable law is that calories absolutely DO count. All diets that shrink off pounds are based upon a deficit of calories, no matter how they are advertised.

★ ★

Our new young husband—let's call him George Livewell—illustrates the way many men, possibly a majority, begin gaining weight, and thus veering closer toward a premature heart attack.

MORE CALORIES

George began consuming tastier and more food—and more calories, and it makes no difference if the calories come from proteins, sugars, starches or fats. Any excess over expenditure is banked by the body.

He likely also gave up the sports or exercise habits of his bachelor days, or with promotions or changes in his job began working less hard physically. Spending fewer calories, he needed fewer to hold his former weight.

The same thing happens to the housewife who later spends less time running after her children, or doing her own housework, if she keeps consuming the same amount of food.

★ ★ ★

A single pound of fat represents 3,500 "banked" calories. The dismaying thing is we fatten our bank account little by little.

IMMUTABLE FACT

There's another immutable fact about calories: With each year after age 25, our bodies need about 10 fewer calories per day. Thus, at age 40 you need 100 fewer per day than at age 30; the excess is deposited in the calorie fat bank.

A George Livewell taking in 100 more calories a day than he needs—including costs of his physical activity or exercise—in 35 days can gain a pound, or 10 pounds in a year!

If he decides to lose 10 or 20 pounds in a few weeks time, he starts out in trouble. He expects too much, too soon.

★ ★ ★

Let's assume he's a big-framed fellow, eating 3,000 calories a day, and liking it all, but it's 200 too much. By cutting down to 2,800, he would stop gaining MORE weight.

OVER A YEAR

By cutting to 2,600—400 fewer calories daily—he could lose 20 pounds over a year's time (the way he gained it) at no great sacrifice or self-pity, no overdrastic change of habits.

To maintain each present pound of weight—if you are moderately active—requires about 15 calories per day.

So to maintain a desirable weight of, say, 150 pounds, your maintenance goal is 150 times 15, or 2,250 calories a day.

★ ★ ★

To LOSE weight calls for reducing that amount, or increasing activity to spend more calories, or a combination.

CUTTING CALORIES

By cutting calories by 700 to 800 a day and eating about 1,400 to 1,500—not a starvation level—you can lose 1½ pounds a week. In 10 weeks, you can drop 15 pounds.

Then you can go back to the 2,250 a day—remembering to make it 2,240 after your next birthday.

Fashion your diet in the manner described in the preceding chapter. And don't think in terms of "going on a diet."

★ ★ ★

That implies you can quit when you are "cured" just as you can stop taking medicine when an illness passes.

NEW WAYS

The secret is to condition yourself to new and still pleasurable ways.

And you can give yourself an assist in losing weight, without going hungry, by spending more calories. A brisk 15-minute daily walk, over and above your present activity, will spend an extra 75 calories.

You can use it all for withdrawals from your fat—or calorie—account, and lose a pound in 47 days (47x75 equals 3,525 calories) or almost eight pounds in a year.

Or you can apply the extra spending to being able to eat a bit more while maintaining your present normal weight.

EASILY OFFSET

The vigorous walk costs about five calories per minute. Sitting and watching TV, George Livewell spends only about 1¼ a minute. In two hours, he spends 150 calories—easily offset, or more, by his snack or drink.

With push-button, sedentary living, we are most of us spending far fewer calories in daily activities than before.

Working at a desk a man today may spend only 1.6 calories per minute, compared with four to six by his wife while she is actually doing housework.

★ ★ ★

The housewife used to spend 240 calories scrubbing clothes, and 50 more putting them out on the clothesline. But today it costs her only about 15 calories to dump those clothes in the washing machine and dryer.

MACHINE AID

The factory worker, with machine aid, does his job on the average with a spending of about two calories per minute. The coal miner in the mechanized pits spends about four.

A farmer operating a tractor with a standard steering wheel burned 157 calories per hour. With power steering, his spending fell to 126 per hour, a saving of 250 calories during eight hours' work. And that's equivalent to five slices of bread.

By and large, we have won leisure and freedom from drudgery, and we treasure these boons. But we are no longer obliged to use our muscles.

Caught in Muck, Youth Is Drowned

BROOKLYN (AP) — Pulled down by two feet of muck, 14-year-old Charles R. Lewis, of Brooklyn, drowned Thursday in the Brooklyn Mill Pond near a Ford Motor Co. plant.

Charles' companion, Donald Ferry, also 14, said they wanted to retrieve a sinking boat. The boys tried to stand in the water after swimming about 20 feet from shore.

Charles became mired and Donald was unable to extricate him from the muck. Skin divers found the victim's body in eight feet of water and a two-foot layer of muck.

Celebrate Israel's Statehood

Pontiac Jews Plan Dinner

The 16th anniversary of Israel's statehood will be observed next month by the Jewish community in Pontiac, according to Charles Jacobs, bond chairman of the Pontiac committee for state of Israel bonds.

Jacobs said the anniversary will be marked with a dinner June 14 honoring Rabbi Israel Goodman of Congregation B'nai Israel and Rabbi Ernst Conrad of Temple Beth Jacob.

The dinner will be held at 6:45 p.m. at the Congregation B'nai Israel, 143 Oneida.

The annual dinner will highlight the sale of state of Israel bonds. Some $85 million is the national goal this year for the bond sale.

★ ★ ★

Publicity and decorations are left to Mrs. Sarach Goodman, while David Utley will be master of ceremonies. Others on the program will be Meyer Simon and Irwin I. Cohn.

State of Israel bonds are the central source of investment capital for Israel's program of economic stability.

★ ★ ★

Negro Cleric Eyes New Post

1st of Race to Head United Presbyterians

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—Edler G. Hawkins nervously fingered the two silver crosses, fused and hung from a long chain around his neck.

"Yes, I'll march on the line again," he said, "if the occasion demands it. One belonging to a minority has a kind of special understanding of what happens."

★ ★ ★

His eyes glistened and he measured his words. Of the 3.3 million members of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., he is one of the 5 per cent who are Negroes; and the church's General Assembly had just elected him its moderator. For the first time, a Negro would be "chairman of the board" for a year and speak in unison with Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, the assembly's Stated Clerk and chief executive officer.

The Rev. Mr. Hawkins is 55, and in 26 years under his ministry St. Augustine Presbyterian Church in New York's Bronx has grown from nine members to more than a thousand.

"His election will be more eloquent than any sermon," said J. Vernon Lloyd, an attorney from Danville, Calif., who put Hawkins in nomination and later was appointed vice moderator.

"In this measure at least," said Dr. Blake, "we have become color blind. It marks the direction in which the church intends to go."

"We have a long way to go," the new moderator said, "and my first concern is to bring all the resources of our church to bear for the passage of the civil rights bill stalemated in the Senate."

The Rev. Mr. Hawkins promised high priority for the consultation on union which Dr. Blake initiated three years ago with the Methodist Church, the Protestant Episcopal Church, the United Church of Christ, the Christian Churches and the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Federal taxes collected in 1962 from New York amounted to $18,953,732,000, tops for the nation. California ranked second, yielding $9,091,751,000.

Italian Firms Donate to Kennedy Library

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., says more than half the estimated $10 million needed to build a library to house the papers of his brother, the late President Kennedy, has been collected.

The Senator made the announcement yesterday in accepting gifts of $50,000 each from the Fiat Motor Co., of Turin, Italy, and the Instituto Finanziario Italiano, an Italian financial organization, for the memorial.

Hospital Patient Killed

VARESE, Italy (AP)— Ether exploded last night in a hospital operating room, killing a patient undergoing brain surgery and severely burning two doctors and a nurse.

The patient was Giovannia Micciche, 24, whose right arm was paralyzed after an auto accident. The doctors were operating to remove a cranial blood clot causing the paralysis.

The United States contributed more than $300 million last year to the United Nations and other international organizations and programs.

Was Her Turn to See

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Quote of the day: Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, donning her spectacles before making a speech at Lexington: "I think everybody knows what I look like now, so I'm going to put on my glasses."

Rochester Council to See 1st Plans for Arts Festival

ROCHESTER — Monday the Village Council will divert from the starchy routine of financial, legal and legislative matters. Councilmen are going to delve into the affairs of "Arts 'N Apples."

A plan for Rochester's very own communitywide arts, crafts and cultural festival will be presented to the council.

Now proposed as a four-day affair, the first annual program is tentatively set for fall of 1965. Official title of the event is the "Rochester Art 'N Apples Festival."

Hopes are running high that it will draw participation of scores of community residents and will attract the interest of people of all ages from far beyond local boundaries.

For the past four months, Dr. John Solverson, general chairman of the festival commission, has been working with this group to lay the groundwork for the event.

At Monday's meeting Dr. Solverson will request council blessing on the work completed, as well as seek approval of future plans to be revealed at the meeting.

At this point, it has been determined that the affair will cover the gamut of cultural and art media.

In addition to professional art exhibits, amateur hobbies will be highlighted, such as photography, ham radio and jewelry making.

★ ★ ★

DETAIL ASSETS

Architect Robert C. Smitha will detail the assets of the location Monday, as well as describe the proposed layout of the various attractions.

The commission has urged Rochester residents to attend the 7:30 p.m. council session to learn more about festival plans.

★ ★ ★

Members of the festival commission include Mrs. John Solverson, executive secretary; John O'Donnell, area planning; Mrs. Edward Howe, public relations, Eugene Maitrott, finance; and Richard Morley, Mrs. James Saile and Miss Elizabeth Hoheisel, internal organization.

NEWS OF THE AREA

At Kensington Park

Set for Memorial Day Weekend

MILFORD — Swimming, fishing, boating, excursion rides, golf, picnicking and nature study are among the variety of facilities available to area residents planning a Memorial Day weekend outing at Kensington Metropolitan Park.

David O. Laidlaw, park superintendent, stated that swimming will be available at both Martindale and Maple Beaches at Kent Lake in the park from 9 a. m. to dusk on Saturday and Sunday, May 30-31.

Thereafter, swimming will be available weekends only until daily operations begin at Martindale Beach on Saturday, June 6 and at Maple Beach on Saturday, June 13.

Lifeguards are on duty during all swim periods and facilities include food service, first aid stations, showers, dressing rooms, restrooms and basket-clothes checking.

Fishermen and boaters can use their own craft, which can be launched at two sites, located at different ends of Kent Lake. However, prior to launching permits must be secured from the park office or at the launching sites if attendents are on duty.

Outdoorsmen may also select from among 110 aluminum rowboats available at nominal charges from the boat rental building, open 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily Memorial Day through Labor Day and from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. during the spring and fall season.

Motors are limited to 7½ horsepower on rental boats and there is a speed limit of 10 miles per hour for all craft on Kent Lake. No water skiing is permitted and gasoline and bait are not available in the park.

★ ★ ★

GOLF COURSE

Golfers may test their skill on the 6,400-yard 18-hole par 72 golf course located at the western end of the park. A snack bar and restrooms are provided in the golf control building.

Hours are 8 a.m. to dusk daily, with earlier times during the summer, weekends and holidays.

Thirteen large picnic areas are provided throughout the park, all with stoves and tables while most areas also have shelters and playground equipment. Advance registration is requested for groups of 50 or more picnickers, but no reservations are available.

Families and individuals may take unguided hikes along the park's several nature trails or view exhibits on display at the Nature Center.

The Nature Center building is open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekends and holidays and daily 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. The building will be open daily 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. effective mid-June.

Wives Are Reunited With Captured Fliers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — What does a wife say on first seeing her husband after he's been held captive one year by the Communists?

"I just kept telling him I loved him and the children were so happy," said Mrs. Ben Stutts of Florence, Ala.

Mrs. Stutts and Mrs. Charlton W. Voltz of Frankfort, Mich. were reunited with their husbands Thursday at Letterman General Hospital here.

Stutts, 31, and Voltz, 27, both Army captains, were released last Friday after exactly one year imprisonment by North Korean Communists. They were forced down May 17, 1963. The Army said they had inadvertently strayed into North Korean territory.

POSED FOR PICTURES

The two pilots posed for photographers but were not allowed to speak to newsmen.

Mrs. Voltz credited the Army and State Department with allaying her fears during her husband's ordeal.

★ ★ ★

"They were often in contact with us and they were always reassuring," she said.

Both women hope to remain with their husbands until they are released from the hospital.

RELEASE TRANSCRIPT

The Army released a transcript in which Voltz said his captors told him "with a big smile" of President Kennedy's assassination and said a "loyal Communist party member" did the shooting.

Voltz said he was told on Thanksgiving day about the assassination. He said the North Korean who told him was "very proud of the fact. It was with a big smile that he said President Kennedy had been shot by some loyal Communist party member in the United States."

'Grand Ole Opry' Due in Brooklands

The songs and strummin' of Ira Louvin, Billy Martin, Bobby Smith, Debbie Lane, Ford Nix and the Sundowners will resound through Brooklands Elementary School tomorrow.

Two performances are scheduled by the entertainers, at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Proceeds will be used to buy new uniforms for the 28-man fire department.

Woman Fills Oxford Post

OXFORD — Mrs. Albert Roberts has been appointed to temporarily take the place of former Clerk - treasurer Mrs. Patricia Tyrrell.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Roberts of 12 Jersey, will continue in the position until the council finds a permanent successor to the joint post.

Village Manager Michael Kilgore has received council okay to secure applications for the job from an employment agency.

Edison, Union Agree

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Edison Co. and Utility Workers Union of America Thursday announced agreement on a new contract. The pact includes a 3½ per cent hourly wage hike, four weeks vacation after 20 years, and a formula to allow retirement at full benefits for employes 63 and 64.

Trip to Europe Offered in Goodwill Farm Tour

A 14,000 mile, 21-day tour, visiting 10 cities and nearby farms in six countries, on both sides of the Iron Curtain, is scheduled for Michigan Agricultural leaders and their wives this fall.

The delegation is operating under the People-to-People Goowill Travel Program.

John Doneth, project leader of Farm Management Extension at Michigan State University, is serving as tour host and will be accompanied by Mrs. Doneth.

Including wives is a special feature offered for the first time with this year's agricultural group. Enrollment will be taken until the delegation briefing session in early June, unless membership reaches maximum prior to then.

Pre-enrollment indicates many men going alone but also 11 wives accompanying their husbands.

The itinerary includes the countries of Belgium, Holland, Russia, Poland, Switzerland and Germany including visits to key cities such as Brussels, Amsterdam, Moscow, Kharkov, Krasnodar, Warsaw, Zurich, Berne and East and West Berlin.

Many of the delegates will also take advantage of an optional offering leaving Michigan two days early, on Aug. 29, in order to visit the New York World's Fair and the United Nations.

Farmers, credit people serving farmers, machinery and hardware dealers, veterinarians, processing and milling people, and other agricultural leaders are all being included to exchange ideas at first hand and extend a personal message of goodwill to those in similar occupations in other lands.

Civic Group Set Up in Lake Orion

LAKE ORION — The Lake Orion Improvement Association last night got its first foot in the civic improvement door.

At the organization's initial meeting a board of directors was appointed and preliminary plans for the proposed park across from the post office were established.

Next meeting of the board will be public, at the park site. On June 6, from 8 a.m. until the work is finished, the board will attempt to clean up the area.

All village residents have been urged to bring a rake, shovel, or wheelbarrow and contribute their efforts.

★ ★

MORE INFORMATION

Other board members are Mrs. Stuart Drahner, Lake Orion Women's Club; Richard Smith, Junior Chamber of Commerce; and Dr. Robert J. Hudgines and Martin Carlson.

School Sets Its First Fair

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP —Peter Struthers named it, PTA members are working on it and the children are looking forward to it.

Tomorrow's Keith Karnival will be the first fair held at the new school, 2800 Keith.

Peter, a kindergartner, won the contest to name the event.

Scheduled for 3-7 p.m., the fair will include games, prizes, a country store, bake sale and area for coffee and dessert.

★ ★ ★

Dinner will be served in the cafeteria.

Public Hearing Is Set on Clarkston Rezoning

CLARKSTON—A public hearing on the proposed rezoning of Holcomb between Washington and Miller from multiple dwelling to single residential is slated at 8 p.m. today at the village hall.

The hearing on the B to A zoning change will be conducted by the village's zoning board of appeals.

Corrected Income Tax Bill Awaits Romney Signature

LANSING (AP)—The uniform city income tax bill, with corrective changes to protect Detroit from a loss of revenue, was on its way back to Gov. George W. Romney today for signature.

House members fought their way through a parliamentary tangle Thursday and agreed on amendments to patch up earlier mistakes in the bill.

The Senate, suspending its rules to act swiftly, then approved the House changes and cleared the proposal to be sent to the governor.

The bill provides that cities must adopt ordinances along lines it describes to impose income taxes and limits such taxes to 1 per cent on residents and one half per cent on nonresidents. It is a key part of Romney's program.

BY NOV. 1

In its final form, the bill provides that any city must adopt the tax ordinance by Nov. 1 in any given year for it to become effective on Jan. 1 of the following year.

But it says a tax cannot go into effect until July 1 if, after adoption of the ordinance, petitions are successfully circulated to force a referendum.

The changes—worked out as a compromise by a bipartisan committee in the House—exclude Detroit and Hamtramck, as cities with income taxes in effect before Jan. 1, 1964, from being forced to risk their new ordinances, if adopted, in a referendum.

APPLIES TO FLINT

This provision also would apply to Flint in case its tax ordinance is ruled valid in a case pending in Genesee County Circuit Court.

In each of these instances, a new tax would go into effect on Jan. 1, 1965.

In the form in which it originally was passed, the bill would have required Detroit and Hamtramck to submit to referendums. This could have cost them revenue from their taxes between Jan. 1 and June 30, 1965.

The amended bill was passed by the House, 96 to 3.

Ministers to Switch Pulpits on Sunday

TROY—Rev. Ralph W. Janka of Troy Methodist Church will exchange pulpits Sunday with Rev. Donald Hall of Campbell Avenue Methodist Church in Detroit.

Rev. Janka grew up in the Campbell Avenue Church.

The exchange is part of a plan sponsored by the Commission on Missions on its National Mission theme this year, "The Changing City Challenges the Church."

Rev. Campbell will speak at the 10:30 a.m. service at the Troy church.

Keego Harbor Unit Asks for Revisions

KEEGO HARBOR — Plans for a 19-unit apartment complex have gone back to the developer for three changes prior to the scheduling of a zoning hearing.

The City Council returned the plans to Leroy W. Frink of Langer Frink Builders Inc., Southfield, who said the alterations would be made within a month.

Frink's proposal calls for two single - level buildings, containing eight efficiency apartments each, to be built on a 5-acre site on the north side of Wall between Maddy and Hensman.

The planning commission has given its tentative approval to the project pending the revisions.

Planners said the rear yard of the complex must be reduced to provide the necessary 10-foot setback in front, the buildings must be moved from seven to 10 feet west to provide adequate greenbelt and parking on the east and the parking layout must be corrected for proper traffic movement.

LATER HEARING

Accepting the planning commission's recommendation, city councilmen said a rezoning hearing would be set after the changes are made.

Players Offer 1-Act Dramas

State Bill OKs 'Force' by Teachers

LANSING (AP) — "To spank, or not to spank, that is the question," Sen. Frank Beadle, R-St. Clair, summed up Thursday as the legislature agreed teachers and school superintendents could use "reasonable force" to discipline pupils.

An amendment to this effect, tacked onto a bill dealing with regulating intermediate school districts and their consolidation, went to the governor for signing after both houses approved a conference committee report.

The Senate vote was 29-2 and the House vote, 96-1.

Summed up by Beadle:

"Discipline is better
"Left not to chance
"To spank is better
"Than ants in the pants."

The measure was passed after the language was amended to say teachers and others may use "reasonable force" instead of "such force as is necessary" to disarm a pupil with a dangerous weapon or to maintain proper discipline.

KILLED BY COBRA — Shubert D. Lee, 28, died last night in Miami after doctors lost a 48-hour battle to overcome the effects of a cobra bite. His fiancee, Florence Gutierez, found him unconscious on the floor of his home and rushed him to a hospital. Lee, who planned to open a serpentarium, bought the snake several weeks ago.

Vacant Plant Bought by New Industry

The 120,000 square foot plant formerly housing the American Forging and Socket Co. at 150 Branch has been sold, Bruce J. Annett, president of the Bruce-Roy Corp., announced today.

The property was purchased for an undisclosed price by a new Michigan corporation, the 150 Branch Street Corp., organized to manufacture and repair, buy and sell new and used industrial and commercial machinery and equipment.

Annett said the new owners might also use a portion of the property in the future for industrial warehousing.

The factory building has been vacant since American Forging moved out of Pontiac some time ago and early this year was partially damaged by fire.

* * *

Correct Date May 28 for Area Scout Meeting

The annual meeting of the Clinton Valley Boy Scout Council will be held May 28 at Oakland University rather than May 26 as announced in The Pontiac Press yesterday.

Ruin Her Summer

Kin 'Farm Out' Children

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: How do you tell city relatives that you aren't living on a farm just to keep their kids for the whole summer?

ABBY

These relatives don't ASK if they can send their children, they TELL you they are coming.

I think two weeks is plenty, but we get them the day after school lets out, and they stay until the day before school starts again.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

I am supposed to do all the cooking, baking, washing, ironing and help with the chores in the field, and be real happy to have the extra work from the nieces and nephews.

Advice through your column would be appreciated. Maybe they'll read it and take the hint.

DREADING SUMMER

DEAR DREADING: If you haven't the courage to TELL them that you will be glad to have their children for TWO WEEKS ONLY, then you'll have to put up with them all summer.

The meek may indeed inherit the earth, but they don't have to accept abuse as a down-payment.

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 and am quite popular with both boys and girls. About 50 kids a day tell me that they tried to get me on the phone but my line was busy for so long they gave up.

★ ★ ★

It's my mother! Abby, I hate to complain, but she is the gabbiest person in the whole world . . . and it is wrecking my popularity.

She gets on the phone and talks for an hour to one person, and as soon as she hangs up she calls another person and ties up the phone for another hour.

GIRL WITH A GABBY MOTHER

DEAR GIRL: She doesn't—not if she's smart.

The bride and groom decide who shall be invited to their wedding.

Cranbrook Students Display Work in Summer Show

Works of the students of Cranbrook Academy of Art will be featured in the annual summer student show, opening in the art galleries May 31.

The faculty has selected work covering all eight departments of the Academy including weaving, metalsmithing, ceramics, architecture, sculpture, painting, graphics and design.

The Galleries are open from 2 to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and from 1 to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The show will remain through mid-September and there is an admission charge.

Auxiliary Has New Officers

Mrs. Joseph Pollina will be the new president.

Others who will lead the club include Mrs. Roger Davis, vice president; Mrs. John Parmenter, recording secretary; Mrs. S. J. Rotunda, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Sam Calabrese, treasurer for a second term.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva A. Fiscus of Sunderland Street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Janet Kay, to Martin Burgess Weikel, son of the Wilfred Weikels of Orchard Lake. Her fiancé attended the Detroit Institute of Applied Science. A late September wedding is planned.

Betty Lou Cox was honored at a bridal shower Wednesday in the home of Georgia Humphrey on Ivanhoe Drive.

★ ★ ★

Parents of her fiance, Allen Koehler of North Johnson Avenue, are the August Koehlers of Pigeon.

The June 6 wedding will be in Cross Lutheran Church in Pigeon.

Hurt Friend by Saying 'I'm Busy'

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I belong to a bridge club and the meeting was at my house last night. Yesterday afternoon a friend called and said she was coming over to see me that night.

I told her that I was having the bridge club at my house and asked her to come another night.

I understand she has taken offense at my not asking her to come. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?

★ ★ ★

A: You were not wrong at all and she has no cause to take offense at your asking her to come another night.

Q: My doctor who has been treating me for the past five years for a chronic ailment, is now himself in the hospital for surgery.

I would like to know if it would be proper to send him a basket of fruit while he is recuperating.

I know him only professionally but I would like to send him something in appreciation for his many kindnesses to me.

I might add that he is married and I am not. Would this fact make any difference?

★ ★ ★

A: Even though he is married and you are not, there will be no impropriety in your sending him a basket of fruit with a message of good wishes for his speedy recovery.

Q: My cousin is going to be married soon. His bride-to-be is from another city and I have not as yet met her.

I would like to know where to send the wedding present? Would it be proper, under the circumstances, to send it to the bridegroom?

★ ★ ★

A: Even though you have never met her, you should send your present to the bride-to-be. If necessary, ask your cousin for her address.

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK — When Anna M. Stevens, 85, and Ethel Allen, 77, were pioneering the modeling profession more than half a century ago their weekly salaries were less than what today's mannequins will average for an hour.

NO TRADEMARKS

There were no trademarks of the model's job such as today's outsize tote bag to hold hair spray, extra shoes, extra jewelry, makeup and appointment books.

No eyeliners and inch-long false eyelashes — they were permitted no cosmetics except a little lipstick. No waist cinchers which are a must for today's mannequin.

But then, neither one needed them —not with a waist measurement of only 18 inches.

Nor, was there a model's gait of tummy forward, shoulders way back. A girl stood and walked straight. Modeling wasn't the sophisticated, envied job it is today, either.

NOT DECENT

"Matter of fact, it wasn't considered decent," said Mrs. Stevens. "I answered an ad to model without my family's knowing it."

Both Miss Allen and Mrs. Stevens, whose husband Frederick is deceased, were modeling when the St. Louis exposition was held in 1904.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Stevens remembers that a portrait of her with her flaming red hair set against green was exhibited at the exposition.

TOP DOLLAR

Those were the days, too, of skirts to the floor for daytime; of wide-brimmed hats with great swirls of ostrich plumes which both women remember with affection; of four and one-half inch heels which they would as soon forget; of bathing dresses covering the figure and no one even dreaming of a bikini.

OUT OF RETIREMENT

The two women talked of the "then" and "now" in modeling as they came out of retirement briefly.

★ ★ ★

They participated recently in a fashion show at Riverside Church. The show was given for residents of homes for the aged by the Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies, Inc.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Stevens has been for three years a resident of the federation's St. Luke's Home, from which she continues to operate a successful magazine subscription service she started 25 years ago.

★ ★ ★

Miss Allen moved into the federation's association home last September. A tall woman with her once pale blonde hair now silver, she still has the trim ankles and legs of a young woman.

LIKES SWEETS

But she laughingly confessed her waist no longer was 18 inches — "I happen to like sweets," she said. Her dress size now is 18.

★ ★ ★

But it was 16 when she began to model — "Models weren't a rack of bones then" — and when clothing manufacturers made their samples on her.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Stevens, who's five feet four inches, got her first job as a model in 1899. She worked for eight years and marriage intervened. She reared four adopted children, three of them living.

FIGURE CHANGES

Her titian hair is now snowy white but her figure has changed only from 110 pounds to 129 and from a size 16 (as they sized clothes in her youth) to a 16½.

Neither model has patience with those who ask them the secret of their staying so young-looking. "I don't think you're a success because of the wrinkles you don't have," said Mrs. Stevens.

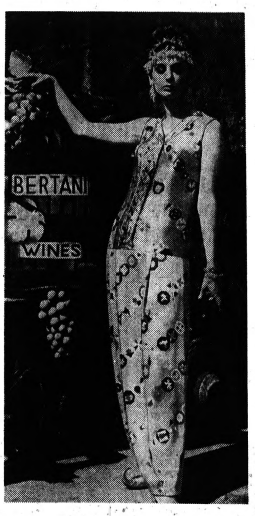
"It's what you accomplish in life that counts. I'm just thankful for being active and in good health at 85."



Shoulders back. Tummy forward. Today's models slink sleekly into the world of fashion with white face and "Cleopatra" eyes. With a flourish of cold cream and pancake makeup they show the average American woman how to look beautifully "natural."

University Women Will Honor Krueger Sisters

Miss Cora and Miss Amy Krueger will be honored Saturday at the annual spring luncheon of the Pontiac branch of the American Association of University Women.

Both women have been members of the association for a number of years.

★ ★ ★

Keynote speakers at Pine Knob Ski Lodge will be Dr. and Mrs. V. N. Samuel, discussing their homeland, India.

Dr. Samuel is a neurologist at the Pontiac State Hospital. The couple has been in this country for six years.

Dr. Samuel received his MS degree in neurology from the University of Michigan in June 1961. All his previous degrees were earned in India. Mrs. Samuel is from Coimbatore; the doctor is from Bamtalore.

★ ★ ★

Elly Peterson to See Public at Breakfast

Mrs. Elly M. Peterson, candidate for the Republican nomination to the United States Senate, will be honored at a Dutch treat "Breakfast with Elly" in Birmingham Saturday morning.

The breakfast is being held to give area voters an opportunity to meet with and question Mrs. Peterson about her views.

Open to the public, the 8 a.m. meeting at Uncle John's Pancake House is being handled by Mrs. John R. Crissman and Victor F. Carbaugh, congressional district cochairman for her campaign.

A leader in Michigan Republican politics for several years, Mrs. Peterson resigned her positions as vice chairman of the Michigan Republican party and assistant to chairman William Miller of the National Republican party organization.

Auxiliary Delegates Are Chosen

Convention delegates were elected and new officers installed at a Wednesday evening meeting of Auxiliary 1008 to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

★ ★ ★

Accepting the gavel for a new season was Mrs. Otto McCrae. Assisting her will be Mrs. Archie Tryon, senior vice president; Mrs. James Storall, junior vice president; Mrs. James Dando, secretary; and Mrs. Walter Souter, treasurer.

TRUSTEES

★ ★ ★

Donations were made to the VFW children's home at Eaton Rapids and gifts sent to graduates there.

CONVENTIONS

District and department conventions will be in Muskegon June 18 to 21.

★ ★ ★

A social meeting June 10 will be hosted by Mrs. Beach in her Robinwood Avenue home.

Garden Club Has Speaker

Some 40 members and guests of the Better Home and Garden Club attended the annual May breakfast Thursday in the Grace Lutheran Church.

★ ★ ★

Lyle B. Abel, director, Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service, spoke on landscape design, garden lighting and the care of shrubs and trees.

He also mentioned many timely leaflets available to gardeners who call at the extension office on Lafayette Street.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. John Cowe, chairman for the day, was assisted by Mrs. John McCormick and Mrs. Ardo Crocker.

Polly's Pointers

Handy Jewelry Box

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — My hint is for the girls with lots of costume jewelry and no place to put it.

Take about 20 (or any required number) of paper cups and cut off the tops until they are about three inches high.

Put cotton in the bottom of each cup. Staple or tape these cups together so they fill the bottom of a box, in rows, side by side.

* * *

Keep the lid of the box underneath it and when going on a trip, put the lid on and your jewelry will be ready to travel.

Ordinarily, keep the jewelry box in a dresser drawer and when the drawer is opened, the jewelry is spread before your eyes, with no tangled chains. —MRS. J. P.

DEAR POLLY — Recently I wanted to wrap my gift for a bridal shower a bit differently and since it was quite large, I had some trouble in thinking up something unusual.

Suddenly the idea popped into my head to wrap it in shiny white paper (shelf paper would do) and then I glued on, at random, Polly's Pointers that I had clipped from the paper.

I so wish I had thought of this sooner. I would have started a scrapbook of the wonderful hints for her. — EVELYN

DEAR POLLY — Having four boys whose bicycles were too often left lying just anywhere, I bought broom clips at the hardware store and attached them to the garage wall at the proper height.

* * *

Clamp the handle of a bike into each clip and the bicycle will stand upright and out of the way. — MRS. E. S.

DEAR POLLY — We have no alley for garbage cans and they were unsightly standing in the back yard. My husband dug a hole a little larger than the garbage can.

The dirtbottom of the hole was left for drainage after snows or rain but he cemented the sides. After the cement was dry, the can was put into the hole.

* * *

The lid was painted green like the grass and is even with the ground. Not only is an eyesore eliminated but the can is no longer turned over by the dogs.

* * *

My husband says to be sure to make the hole larger than the can so after the cement is in, there is room to get to the handles for removing the can on garbage collection day. — MY MAN.

DEAR POLLY — Avoid excess steam that becomes trapped in a shower stall or tub by lowering the top of the shower curtain three inches on a second set of hooks that are looped onto the set strung on the rod. —BABS

GIRLS — I am sorry but we cannot mail reprints of hints that have been published previously. Please clip and save those that interest you. — POLLY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Affolder of Washington Street announce the engagement of her daughter, Betty James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fernando C. Garcia of South Merrimac Avenue. August vows are planned.

Pontiac Press Photo

Localites to Perform at Concert

The largest piano concert in the world will be held June 7 at Cobo Hall in Detroit.

Among those from Pontiac participating are Cheryl Bryan, daughter of the Charles Bryans of Kohler Street; Mary Ellen Keefer, daughter of the Russel Keefers of Poplar Drive; Diane Palmer, daughter of the Nick Palmers of Bow Lane and Paula Lumm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lumm of 5960 Hatchery Road.

For the concert, the 21st annual Michigan Music Festival, 200 pianos will be arranged in a semicircle on the floor of the arena. They will be centered by 24 grand pianos and backed by a section of 30 organs.

★ ★ ★

Francis W. Smith, music educator, will conduct the concert of student pianists ranging in age from 8 to 18. The event is sponsored by the Festival Teachers Association.

★ ★ ★

Between student sections of the program, a group of 24 adult artists, all members of the association, will take over the keyboards.

ORGAN NUMBERS

The ensemble of 30 organs, directed by Mae Marie DeCicco, will present three selections.

★ ★ ★

Free tickets for the 2:30 p.m. concert are available at all Grinnell stores.

Planning an August wedding are Sharon Thatch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thatch of Detroit and Claude Ray Gregory, son of the Donald H. Gregorys of Oregon Avenue.

Prepare for Summer Footwork

By MIRIAM NEAL

What are the most down trodden, stepped-on, neglected and burdened creatures on earth?

YOUR FEET!

Did you know that the average person walks 65,000 miles in a lifetime and 7½ miles or 13,000 steps a day? Think of it! That means that if you weigh 120 pounds, your feet take a daily load of more than 1½ million pounds.

Those 1½ million pounds come thumping down on 26 bones, 33 joints, 100 ligaments and 20 muscles in each foot.

SIT DOWN AND TAKE CARE OF THEM.

To condition your feet for summer weather, begin with exercises which will tone up sluggish blood vessels and get the tiny bones and muscles in trim.

During the day, wiggle your toes inside your shoes and rotate each foot from the ankle. At night, take 50 barefooted steps on tiptoes. This stirs up the circulation, strengthens and builds up arches.

TRIPS TO THE FAIR

May 15 to 22 if Foot Health Week and a good time to note these tips for foot care from the American Foot Health Foundation and the American Podiatry Association.

• Dry skin carefully after your daily shower or bath; do not rub hard with the towel. Use a good foot-dusting powder daily.

To prepare your feet for summer travel to the World's Fair, or anywhere else, embark on a foot-fitness program which includes daily exercise and ten minute soaks in a baking soda solution.

'Foam' Stone Enters Home

Pope to Modernize Central Administration of Catholic Church

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Reliable Vatican sources said today Pope Paul VI will soon create a commission to reform and modernize the Curia, central administration of the Roman Catholic Church.

The Pope in an address to the Curia last fall said that changes were needed in its centuries-old structure and would be made.

* * *

The sources said Francesco Cardinal Roberti, 75, probably would be named head of the Curia reform commission.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. committee on decolonization denounced South Africa Thursday for blocking U.N. efforts to lead South West Africa to indepedence and called the situation a threat to international peace.

The resolution was adopted 21-0, but the United States, Britain and Australia abstained.

U.S. Delegate Sidney R. Yates said his government opposed apartheid (segregation) but did not agree that peace was threatened.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Labor leaders warned today that sit-in strikes will be stepped up until President Arturo Illia's government heeds demands for a minimum wage fixed by law.

About 100,000 workers of the Peronist - dominated General Confederation of Labor staged one-day lock-ins and sitdowns in 500 factories and business offices in the Buenos Aires area, but no violence was reported.

The Argentine Congress votes May 27 on a government bill which would set up a committee to recommend minimum wage levels in accord with living costs. However, the bill does not set a minimum wage, as the labor leaders demand.

'Sound of Music' Theme of Northern's Concert Tonight

By SUSAN KILLEN

"The Sound of Music" will be the theme song of the annual spring vocal concert at Pontiac Northern High School tonight.

Under the direction of Judith Parry and Michael Dempsey, singers, dancers and musicians will join talents to present songs and music of all types.

Participating in the concert will be the PNH a capella choir, the Northern Lights (girls choir), girls' ensemble, girls' octet, senior boys' ensemble and the glee clubs.

"Everything's Coming Up Roses" will open the program, featuring the a capella choir, senior boys' and girls' choir.

Miss Parry's arrangement of "Ebb Tide" will be given by the girls' ensemble along with folk tunes. A special calypso number, directed by Madeline McConnell, will be featured in "Yellow Bird."

The girls' glee clubs will present two numbers, including "And This Is My Beloved." The Northern Lights will render two popular tunes from successful Broadway hits, followed by selections by the boys' ensemble.

Stage lights will then focus on two pianos at center stage as Shirley Kath and John Pacene present a piano duet, "Exodus," assisted by the PNH choir.

Selections from "Porgy and Bess" will be featured by the a capella choir under the direction of Dempsey. Featured soloists will be Nancy Elkins in "Summertime" and Cheryl Montgomery in "My Man's Gone Now."

★ ★ ★

The PNH band, under the direction of Eldon Rosegart, will join with the singers to present Northern's new school song, written for the school by professional composer Don Preston.

National Honor Society members from the senior class at Northern were announced this week and will be formally initiated Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

COMPLETING LIST

Completing the list are Daniel Miller, Sharon Norberg, Marie Pawley, Barbara Payne, Scarlet Rutherford, Duane Shaw, Dean Douden, James Stephens, Patricia Stewart, Ramona Swansey, Ruth Vallins, Patricia Waugh, Diane Williams and Robert Willson.

Northern's second foreign exchange student for the 1964-65 school year has been announced. She is Monika Knab of Hesen, Germany.

★ ★ ★

Monika will be attending through the Michigan Council of Churches Youth for Understanding Teen-age Exchange Program and will be staying with Mr. and Mrs. Vern Rollison and their daughter Linda, currently a Northern junior.

MARI STEELE

By LYNNE SPRINGER

Mary M. LaBrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. LaBrie of 4026 Farner has been named valedictorian of Our Lady of the Lakes High School senior class of 1964.

Maintaining a 4.0 average, Mary plans to attend Western Michigan University next fall, where she will major in science.

Active in many of the school's organizations, Mary has participated in glee club, girl's basketball, pep club, science club and is secretary of the student council. She was secretary of the class in her sophomore year.

She won a scholarship to Western Michigan.

TO ATTEND OU

Marie has attained an average of 3.5 and plans to attend Oakland University this fall and major in math.

She has taken part in glee club, girl's basketball and arts and crafts club. She was president of the pep club for two years and treasurer of the senior class.

Cheerleaders at St. Fred

By KATHY CARRY

After many weeks of practice, the junior varsity cheerleaders for next year have been chosen at St. Frederick High School.

Those six chosen included Karen Larson, Karen McAleer, Pat Garland, Peggy Fitzgerald, Marilyn Thompson and Mary Beth Shore.

Jennifer White was chosen a St. Frederick representative for Girls' State this summer. She will spend a week at Michigan State University.

New Class Officers Elected at WTHS

By MARY BARNINGHAM

★ ★ ★

President of the senior class is William Lemaux. Other officers include Sandra Rick, vice president; Stephanie Woodman, secretary; and Frank Van Husen, treasurer.

Heading the junior class board will be Michael McIntyre. He will be assisted by David Roemensky, vice president; Terry Griffen, secretary; and James Stafford, treasurer.

The WTHS magazine drive, held for the purpose of furnishing the lobby now being built, surpassed the $5,000 goal by $1,500.

★ ★ ★

OTHER NINE

The other nine honored salesmen were Marlene Kibbie, Nancy Kimball, Albert Roth, John Kerst, Regan Reith, Janis Colling, Susan Bills, Kathie Wheeler and Roger St. Peter.

Top selling homeroom was that of Mrs. Patricia Poteet.

★ ★ ★

WTHS seniors are busy completing the semester projects and preparing for their exams which will be given next Wednesday and Thursday.

OWN LUNCHES

Due to the closing of the cafeteria, students at Waterford are now bringing their own lunches. The cafeteria is being enlarged as part of the construction program at the school.

Also closed is the library, which will be relocated and enlarged when students return to school next fall.

Greenfield Village was visited by junior American History classes Wednesday. A choice of touring the village or visiting the Henry Ford Museum was given them.

★ ★ ★

ECHS Ready for Banquet

Juniors and Seniors Reach Fever Pitch

By TIM MAYER

Students of Emmanuel Christian High School are reaching fever pitch with anticipation of tonight's junior - senior banquet.

Participants were dismissed at 1 p.m. today to add the finishing touches to the decorations.

The banquet is being held in Brothers Restaurant's lavender room at 10 Mile and Woodward. Theme for this evening will be "Stardust Serenade." The table decor will consist of variations of white and lavender with floral pieces.

Featured on the program will be Rev. Alger Lewis of Avondale Baptist Church. The junior class prophecy will be read, and the high point will be the giving of the senior class will.

★ ★ ★

CLASS SPONSOR

Math Honor Goes to Senior

By DIANE OLSEN

Several awards have been made to Pontiac Central High School students for outstanding scholarship.

He will receive $100 as has each winner before him since the first presentation of the award in 1959.

Also a senior, Janice Shepherd was awarded a National Merit Scholarship, sponsored by the Chrysler Corporation, to the college of her choice.

She took the first test in her junior year and qualified to take the second last fall. This second test or semifinal was given to 13,000 students across the nation.

SUBMIT RECORD

Janice also had to submit a record of extra curricular activities, special achievements and interests, academic or other honors, and an evaluation by the principal.

She will be attending Michigan State University next year on an honors course.

ALL A's

St. Michael Activity Stirs Around Tonight's Prom

By MICHAEL OMANS

This week at St. Michael High School, activity is whirling around the juniors' presentation of this year's prom, "Until the Twelfth of Never," tonight 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. in Kingsley Inn.

TEACHING AIDS

New teaching aids are being used by LeTissier to help his Latin II class better understand periods of Roman history through diagrams and pictures.

★ ★ ★

These teaching aids have been made by the students. Most noteworthy were done by Dennis Sullivan, Tony Clark, Jerry Stanton, Michael Buller, Bill Blackerby and Tom Stokes.

Elect Avondale Girl

She will take office June 1 and will attend the national FHA convention in Chicago in July.

Rocky, Barry Clash in California Race

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller maintained his new note of optimism in California's presidential primary battle today, and Sen. Barry Goldwater began swinging back.

Campaign aides of the absent Arizona senator accused Rockefeller forces of spending huge sums of money in "the most deliberate hatchet job ever attempted in American politics."

* * *

Goldwater himself tossed the charge of "cheap political demagoguery" at Rockefeller and announced in Washington he'll intensify his drive for votes in the June 2 election.

Goldwater will return to the state Saturday, two days ahead of schedule. He plans to remain almost without a break until the primary.

Rockefeller has reached thousands of people in a four-day statewide tour. He has played down formal speeches and played up getting out among the voters.

Thursday he greeted hundreds of workers in a Fresno telephone company office, danced with several women at the Senior Citizens Center and spoke in Spanish to Latin-American students at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, and rode in a motorcade through the San Francisco East Bay area.

* * *

The New York governor stood for nearly three hours to shake 6,000 to 7,000 hands at a reception in Oakland, similar to one in Anaheim the night before. Rounding out a 14-hour day, he dropped in on a Negro restaurant to speak briefly with Oakland Negro leaders.

Rockefeller declared he feels a growing enthusiasm for his race for California's 86 Republican delegates.

REPUBLICAN YEAR

In a speech prepared for a San Francisco breakfast today he said "the Republican party can win the presidential election this year."

'D'on't let anyone — even the pollsters—tell you otherwise," he said.

"The present Democratic administration can be beaten and should be beaten in order to restore leadership in Washington based on principle rather than political expediency."

Earlier in the week, Rockefeller accused Goldwater of trying to provivde water for Arizona at the expense of Southern California.

BARRY REPLIES

Goldwater, in his Washington statement, fired back that Rockefeller was resorting to "cheap political demagoguery when he claims I am trying to hijack California's water."

"Rockefeller is either completely ignorant of the situation or he has chosen to deliberately make a false charge," Goldwater said.

* * *

Rockefeller flies home today after a series of San Francisco appearances. He'll be back Monday for the final week of campaigning.

The world's first air mail was delivered in 1785. A balloon piloted by Jean Blanchard crossed from Dover, England, to Calais, France, carrying the first packet of letters ever sent by air.

2 Area Solons on Committee

Will Work to Find Districting Accord

State Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County and Rep. Henry Hogan, R-Birmingham have been named to a conference committee meeting today to untangle congressional redistricting.

* * *

They were among four Republicans and two Democrats picked by the House and Senate yesterday to reach agreement on a compromise redistricting plan.

Roberts is chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and Hogan is chairman of the House Apportionment Committee. Each has backed redistricting plans passed by their branches of the legislature.

Also on the committee are Sens. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft and Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detrout. House members are James Folks, R - Horton and George Montgomery, D-Detroit.

* * *

House Democrats said, meanwhile, that Republicans will find themselves shy of the votes needed to give immediate effect to either a redistricting bill or a measure to postpone the Aug. 4 primary to Sept. 1.

WITHHOLD VOTES

In a caucus Thursday, they also agreed to withhold their votes for immediate effect from any other election measures, as well as a court of appeals bill.

* * *

Any bill without immediate effect cannot become law until 90 days after the legislature adjourns. A two-thirds majority is needed for immediate effect — making bipartisan support a necessity.

* * *

Before the conference committee is a House - approved plan which favors the Republican Party. It is expected to maintain the present split of 11 Republicans and eight Democrats in the Michigan congressional delegation.

A bipartisan plan also is before the legislature and could come out of conference.

Bomb Scare Develops at U. of M. Stadium

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A bomb scare developed at the University of Michigan Stadium today just after President Lyndon B. Johnson's arrival to address the school's 120th commencement.

* * *

University officials said a telephone caller had warned there was "a package" back of the football scoreboard atop the stadium in back of the stage from which the President was to speak.

The Ann Arbor Fire Department ran up the ladder from a fire engine, but a fireman was unable to find any package.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Mouthwash Has Little Therapeutic Value

BRANDSTADT

Authorities in Medical Association and the American Dental Association say they are vastly overrated.

Mouthwashes have grown into an industry with a take of more than $90 million per year.

If they did all the things their ads claimed they'd probably be worth it. But medical and dental authorities say they don't.

★ ★ ★

It is true that your mouth is teeming with millions of germs but they are generally harmless. Otherwise we would all be dead.

QUICKLY REPLACED

It is equally true that the iodine, chlorine, phenol and alcohol compounds present in mouthwashes are capable of killing these germs.

Those that are killed are quickly replaced.

If, on the other hand, you have a sore throat or a mouth infection what will a so-called antiseptic mouthwash do for you?

★ ★ ★

Authorities agree that it will do nothing, because the disease germs are deep in your tissues.

WOULDN'T HELP

Even if you gargled until you were blue, the mouthwash wouldn't reach the infection.

If the gargle is hot, the heat may soothe your throat. But for this purpose, plain hot water with or without a pinch of salt would be equally effective.

Any mouthwash or gargle that would kill these deeply imbedded germs would be harmful to your tissues.

If you have an infection in your mouth or throat, you should not reach for the mouthwash but for the phone and call your doctor or your dentist.

★ ★ ★

If a mouthwash claims to be astringent, this means that it will shrink the tissues.

SOME BENEFIT

This might be of some benefit in treating a small cut. Otherwise its chief action is to shrink your purse.

The authorities are also skeptical about the ability of a mouthwash to prevent or cure bad breath.

Halitosis has many causes.

★ ★ ★

If decaying food particles between your teeth is the cause, a mouthwash is no more effective than swishing plain water around in your mouth, and it should never be used as a substitute for proper brushing.

NO EFFECT

If, however, the halitosis is due to some systemic disease, a mouthwash will have no effect.

★ ★ ★

So, if you want to keep your mouth reasonably clean, brush your teeth after every meal.

★ ★ ★

If you are crazy about the flavor of your favorite mouthwash, use it as a luxury item but harbor no illusions about its germ-killing or other therapeutic value.

Charges Are Heard Against Teacher

Charges against a Bethune School special education teacher were aired last night at the opening session of a public hearing by the Pontiac School Board.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Delilah Matthews had requested an open hearing on dismissal charges against her.

Brought by Supt. Dana P. Whitmer, the charges include habitual failure to comply with board policies and school regulations, lack of cooperation with superiors, unprofessional conduct and lack of respect for traditions of the teaching profession.

At last night's meeting, school board attorney Harold Dudley called Mrs. Lorena Adams, Alcott School principal; Mrs. Alice Benson, fifth grade teacher at Alcott; and Charles E. Hazel, Malkim School principal, to testify.

School Board President William H. Anderson adjourned the hearing at 11:45 p.m. until next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

The board hearing is the first step in procedures set by the state tenure law in dismissing a tenure teacher.

Crash Injures Area Youth

A Commerce Township youth injured when the car in which he was riding hit a tree in Commerce Township is reported in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

★ ★

Jan Person, 17, of 8540 Immensee was riding in a car driven by Mike Schmidt, 16, of 3556 Moberly, Milford Township, that went out of control while rounding a curve on Cooley Lake Road near Gary.

Teacher Called Pupils 'Wall-to-Wall Idiots'

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The State Board of Education has upheld the appeal of a school teacher fired on charges involving class procedure and for calling pupils "wall-to-wall idiots."

★ ★ ★

The board held Thursday that Howard Weld, a science teacher at Stockbridge until his dismissal March 23, must be paid for his present contract which runs for the rest of the year.

Marigolds Help Control Nematodes

A growing collection of scientific data indicates that the marigold can be used effectively in controlling nematodes and other garden pests and weeds, according to David Burpee, "dean of American seedsmen."

"Not only is the marigold a robust and beautiful flower that thrives in all 50 states of the Union, but now scientific research and observation by qualified horticulturists and garden writers here, in England and The Netherlands seem to show that the marigold also has a salutary effect on the growth of other plants around it," Burpee said.

Much of the research on the control of nematodes and weeds has been done in a series of experiments since 1958 by the Henry Doubleday Research Association headquartered in Bocking, Braintree, England.

Using the marigold, tests have been conducted over several seasons. In a significant number of cases the so-called "Tagetes Effect" has been observed whereby starchy-rooted weeds and nematodes within a three-foot range of the marigold have been drastically reduced or eliminated, Burpe points out.

* * *

From results of the Doubleday study in 1961, Burpee said, "Many questions remain unanswered. Enough is known, however, to give gardeners a sporting chance of exterminating weeds (with marigolds) they cannot kill in other ways. This work establishes some marigolds as the first garden plants worth growing as a replacement for chemicals." The report states "The Tagetes (marigold) Effect has been observed against all three types of nematodes."

NEW BOOK

In her new book published April 2nd, "Gardening Without Poisons" (Houghton Mifflin, Co., Boston, $5.00), Beatrice Trum Hunter — a noted garden authority — states that the root exudates of certain marigolds "show promise against certain nematodes that attack potatoes and strawberries as well as against wilts of potatoes and tomatoes." Mrs. Hunter further points out that a Dutch nurseryman found he could defeat certain bulb-attacking nematodes by planting American marigolds (Tagetes erecta) before planting his narcissus bulbs.

She noted that "root exudates seem to inhibit underground slugs and act either as an insectifuge or insecticide against wireworms, the larvae of the click beetle." She also observes that in the Dutch experiments, marigolds reduced infestation by nematodes "by more than 90 per cent" at a distance of three feet.

Another Hollander found that interplanting marigolds with roses produces good control and restores "to vigor" roses that had been damaged by nematodes in the absence of marigolds. Mrs. Hunter goes on to point out that "marigolds help deter invasions of bindweed, ground ivy and ground elder."

John Tobe, writing in the monthly magazine Organic Gardening recently, said: "Research has conclusively proven that French marigolds (Tagetes patula) can be used most effectively as a regenerative crop on soils which have been depleted of various nutrients because of the continued growing of one kind of crop."

He also notes that "Marigolds evidently secrete — or take up from the soil and manufacture — a substance which in turn either cures the condition (soil depletion) or controls it."

In a letter to Burpee, Dr. Regina H. Westcott, of Holmes Beach, Fla., a consulting psychologist and an avid amateur gardener, said: "The marigold . . . plays a strategic part in improving the growth condition of other plants." She went on to say that "this plant (marigold) releases an excretion from its roots that kills the soil nematodes."

* * *

Dr. Westcott also cited a book review of Rachel Carson's "Silent Spring" in the Sept. 29, 1962 issue of The Saturday Review of Literature which said: "Scientists of the Dutch Plant Protection Service did not recommend chemical sprays or soil treatments; instead they suggested that marigolds be planted among the roses" to control weeds in a rose garden in a city in The Netherlands. The result of this experiment Dr. Westcott said, was "striking."

Marigold seed can be sown right in the open any time after the ground has become warm.

Approval Awards for Top 1964 Glads

They were selected after testing in eight widely scattered areas.

Morning Glories Can Be Pot Grown

You can grow morning glories — Japanese style — in eight-inch clay pots with four or five seeds in each.

GLENWOOD PLAZA CORNER NORTH PERRY AT GLENWOOD

Constant Care Not Necessary

Hedges Add Personality

Hedges don't have to be drab and uninteresting walls of green. Properly selected and trimmed, they can add personality to the garden.

Also, they needn't require constant care to keep them in order.

Many plants will do with but one trimming a year.

Besides the customary privets and barberries, a wide array of shrubs can be used.

* * *

Among these are Japanese quinces, viburnums, winged euonymus, lilacs, weigelas, hibiscus, honeysuckle, and various shrub roses, all of which will also be colorful with bloom in season.

WARMER CLIMATES

In warmer climates others may be added such as abelias, escallonias, Chinese hibiscus, and ixora (flame of the woods).

And for a completely impenetrable hedge, you might try the hardy orange (Poncirus) which bears true orange blossoms, big thorns, and is hardy well up into New England and the Upper Middle West.

Where bloom is not taken into consideration, others are available such as elaeagnus, buckthorn, hornbeam, mulberry, beech, etc. In fact, one of the most interesting hedges is made up of various tree seedlings transplanted from the woods in no particular order.

* * *

A once-a-year trimming is all that is needed to keep it a most attractive and tidy hedge.

If you have a leaning toward evergreens, have you ever given serious thought to pines, hemlocks, firs, or spruces? With one cutting a year (spring or summer) they make fine broad hedges.

For the narrower ones consider the junipers in dryish places and arbor-vitae in damp.

* * *

For low hedges, especially, the yews are particularly good, although some will eventually make quite tall hedges, if allowed to—and over many years.

SHAPED HEDGES

Or, how about the broad-leaved evergreens? The hollies, both large and small-leaved, make excellent hedges and can be shaped any way you desire.

But, remember that if you want berries on the Christmas type hollies, be sure to include a few male plants in the group.

* * *

Other good subjects are (particularly in the South) abelias, evergreen privet, camellias, sarcococca, podocarpus, pittosporum, myrtle, pyracantha, and the boxwoods.

The most important point to remember in growing hedges is to keep the top narrower—or at least no wider—than the bottom.

This lets the light reach the bottom and keeps it alive. The top can be rounded, pointed or flat, as one wishes.

* * *

As for feeding, any good fertilizer that you would use on roses, bulbs, trees, or vegetables will do for most, with an evergreen fertilizer for any of that type.

Terrace Privacy With Pole Planters

For terrace or patio privacy you can easily erect a wall of pole planters, with brackets for holding six or more clay-potted plants.

Rows of hanging baskets or vines on lattice work also make good outdoor "room dividers."

QUINTS AND QUADS—Pictured above are two of the mutations which have developed in the Eino Okkonens', 92 West Hopkins Street, Pontiac, tulip bed. One is a five-headed purple Parrot tulip and the other, a four-headed yellow Darwin. In all, the Okkonens have twelve such "sports" ranging from a two-headed Darwin to the five-headed Parrot. This is the second blooming for these bulbs. Last year, they were all normal, one blossom to a stem. What caused the change? The Okkonens don't know. They fertilized the bed in the fall and early spring with packaged sheep manure as is their usual procedure and left the tulips to their own devices.

Rodent Pests Cause Gardeners Trouble

It would be nice for gardeners and home-owners if field mice stayed in the field. Unfortunately, field and house mice get into the garden where they chew up rare bulbs, invade root cellars and tool sheds where they shred seed and fertilizer bags and eventually wander above stairs in search of gourmet fare.

For if there's a hole the size of a dime in your house, barn, garage or greenhouse, mice can get through.

Once in, a single pair of mice could have as many as sixty young per year.

Obviously, it's easier to kill a single pair of mice than all their fast-appearing offspring. So start control at the first sign of mice and be on guard always.

Once a building harbors mice, it's best to bait the trap before trying to make it completely mouse-proof. This is because the locations of holes, runways and shelters tell where to bait.

GOOD BAIT

Hardware and garden supply stores offer a number of good mouse baits. Read the ingredients listed on the packages and be extremely cautious with preparations containing strychnine, arsenic and other dangerous one-shot poisons.

Safer are baits containing a new material called Prolin, a compound which sends rodents into a gradual decline by changing the composition of their blood.

Essential ingredients of these new baits are warfarin (a blood anticoagulant developed at the University of Wisconsin), and sulfaquinoxaline, an antibacterial agent.

After mice are under control, take these precautions. Control weeds around entryways. Block holes with cement or wire screening. Make sure doors and windows fit tightly.

Store grain and food 18" above floor. Keep concrete floors crack free. If you're continually plagued, you can set up permanent bait stations.

Some Prolin baits come in self-feeder packages or you can do-it-yourself with small containers like fruit jar lids sheltered with a "lean-to" board or with a cigar box with a mouse-inviting door.

Basic Tools Necessary in Gardening

A gardener needs nine basic tools to attend his garden efficiently and enjoyably, reports a garden tool specialist from the Union Fork and Hoe Company.

For sowing and planting, a four piece set of hand tools are necessary and should include a garden trowel, transplanting trowel, cultivator and a lawn weeder.

The addition of a turf edger and pruning shears for garden maintenance complete the basic equipment necessary.

* * *

As the gardener becomes skilled he can add more specialized tools to his garden equipment.

Walled Lake Defending Champion

20 Prep Golf Teams in Press Tournament Monday

Team and individual records may be in jeopardy when the 13th annual Pontiac Press Prep Invitational golf tournament swings into action Monday morning at Pontiac Country Club.

One hundred prep golfers representing 20 area schools will be on hand to battle for honors in the 18-hole medal outing and to take a crack at the marks set during the past five years at PCC.

The tourneys were held at Pontiac Municipal Course through 1958, with the scene shifting to the 6,313-yard, par 74 PCC for the 1959 play.

Birmingham Seaholm, a team which bowed out of the tourney this year, set the PCC team record with a 390 total in 1959. The second lowest score was posted by Walled Lake (395) in 1960.

Bill Dingel of Walled Lake set the individual record with a one-under-par 73 in 1960.

A strong bet to take the top spot among the 15 Class A teams and lower the team standard is Milford, the Wayne-Oakland League champion.

Milford's five-man crew is averaging 77.8 strokes for the season, and the No. 1 man, John Choate, whose scores hover around the 74 mark, poses a threat to the individual PCC mark.

Walled Lake won the 1963 title with a blazing finish and the Vikings may have to turn similar heroics to keep the huge rotating trophy in the school's trophy case. Thomas Green is the lone holdover from the 1963 squad.

HOME COURSE

Kettering's Tri-County League championship squad will have a home course advantage, and with Mike Kimmerer and sophomore Rick Hurd leading the attack, the Captains may surprise the field.

Bloomfield Hills, second to Milford in the W-O tourney, West Bloomfield and Northville have enough balance to challenge the favorites.

Northville and West Bloomfield are expected to battle for the Class B-C crown. Other schools in the B-C class are St. Frederick, St. Michael and Royal Oak Shrine.

Northville's Jim St. Germain has the equipment to establish a new individual record. He was cast in a similar role last year but fired an 81 to finish far down the list.

St. Germain will enter the tourney with the best individual credentials. He's sporting an 18-hole average of 72 and he bagged the W-O medalist honor Wednesday with a 71 at Burroughs Farm and Golf Club.

Michael Brennan of Royal Oak Shrine, who is averaging 75, will join St. Germain, Kimmerer and Choate in a foursome set to tee off at 9:12.

Hurd, John Bailey, Pontiac Northern, Tom Somers, Waterford, and Mike Gaydos, Pontiac Central, make up the first quartet which will open play at 9 a.m.

Starting on the second nine at the same time will be Tom Dunseith, Rochester, Allan Howe, Kettering, Rodney Thompson, West Bloomfield, and John Hurren, St. Michael.

★ ★ ★

Trophies will be awarded at a banquet at PCC following the tourney.

Pairings and starting times for the Press outing will be published tomorrow.

NFL-AFL 'Series' Rejected

NEW YORK (AP) — The pro football World Series is not just around the corner. In fact, we may have a man on the moon first.

The latest attempt to get the two leagues together was turned down flatly by the National Football League.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle wired an official of the National Broadcasting Co. that "the NFL has no interest in your publicized proposal".

★ ★ ★

NBC had offered to donate $500,000 to the Kennedy Memorial Library Fund for television rights to an all-star game between the NFL and the American Football League.

AFL Commissioner Joe Foss wired his acceptance from the league meeting in Kansas City.

PLANS MADE

"Any time pro football wants to attain the high level of major league baseball the leagues have got to meet headon," Foss said. "I think it's a terrific idea."

In turning down the proposal, Rozelle said the league had made plans several weeks ago with the Kennedy family for participation in the Memorial Library Fund. He pointed out that the fund would share in receipts of an exhibition game between Philadelphia and Detroit at Philadelphia Aug. 23.

An informal sampling of opinion, as the NFL owners completed their annual spring meeting and headed for home Thursday, indicated the latest proposal had ruffled some feathers. Nobody wished to be quoted but some who had been open minded about a game with the AFL appeared antagonistic.

The NFL recently sold its television rights for the next two league championship games to Columbia Broadcasting System for $1.8 million a year. Previously it had sold TV rights of its regular season games to CBS for two years at $14.1 a year.

The AFL, now working on the last year of a TV contract with the American Broadcasting Co., has sold its games for the five years starting in 1965 to NBC for a total of $36 million.

The NFL's answer to NBC was given in a telegram by Rozelle and was read to the club owners.

"There was no vote," said Rozelle. "But you can say I was speaking for the owners."

STRAIGHT AHEAD BALL — Ruth Jessen of Bonsall, Calif., lifts her putter and gives the ball directions on the 18th green in the Dallas Civitan Open Golf Tournament yesterday. Her coaxing paid off. The ball fell in for a birdie, giving her a seven-under-par 64 and a three-stroke lead in the first round of the tourney. The 64 tied the all-time record for women's golf.

Ladies' Golf Mark Tied by Dallas Open Leader

★ ★ ★

It was just one of a dozen subpar rounds, all made possible largely by movement of the tee markers in such a way that 302 yards were cut from the Glen Lakes Country Club course. It was trimmed to 5,936 yards.

★ ★ ★

The ladies PGA didn't like it but will recognize the 64 as equaling the all-time record set by Patty Berg at Richmond, Calif., in 1952. That gave Miss Jessen a three-stroke lead in first round of the $13,500 tourney.

★ ★ ★

However, the original markers will be returned today and the girls of the tour will try to show they can do just as well with a longer course. Miss Jessen, however, said she thought it might be a good idea to do this on all the courses.

BETTER CHANCE

"The girls would have a better chance against Mickey Wright," said the blonde Miss Jessen.

★ ★ ★

Mickey Wright is the all-time winner in women's golf and is seeking her fifth victory of the year here as she goes after her own record of 13 tournament triumphs.

Miss Wright is defending champion of the Civitan and shot a one-under-par 70 Thursday as she opened her bid for her fourth straight tournament championship.

★ ★ ★

Miss Jessen had only 27 putts on her round to indicate that low scores can be shot on Glen Lakes, regardless. Putting is not concerned with distance on the course.

★ ★ ★

In second place as the tournament moves into its second round are Judy Torluemke, a comparative newcomer to the tour, and Carol Mann, who won the Western Open this year. They had 67s.

Louise Suggs, three-time winner of the Civitan and one of the favorites this year, had a 71.

Sixth-Place Tigers Move to Cleveland

Giants Top Phillies

Mays' Silent Bat Explodes

By the Associated Press

Move over Willie. Here comes Billy.

Forget it Willie. There goes Billy.

That's how fast the National League batting lead changed hands Thursday as Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs boosted his average to .402 and took over the top spot held by San Francisco's Willie Mays since April 22.

Hitless in 10 at-bats, Mays broke out of his slump by tagging his 15th and 16th homers and powering the Giants to a 9-4 victory over Philadelphia that lifted San Francisco back into first place. Mays' 2-for-4 performance left him with a .397 average.

Williams, meanwhile, stroked two singles and a double in four at-bats during the Cubs' 10-3 loss to St. Louis, finally overcoming a Mays' lead that stood at 177 points less than a month ago.

BIG OPERATION

Lilliams began Operation Overhaul on April 29 when he was hitting .311 and Mays was batting .488. Sice then, Williams has been on a 19-game tear, swinging at a .458 clip, while Mays has hit a more-than-respectable .346 but still lost 91 points off his average.

In the other two games scheduled, pitchers stole the spotlight. Dick Farrell tied San Francisco's Juan Marichal for the most victories in the majors by winning his sixth in Houston's 3-1 triumph over Pittsburgh and Sandy Koufax struck out 11 in the Los Angeles Dodgers' 6-1 triumph over the New York Mets.

The Phillies and Giants were tied 4-4 in the fifth when Mays and Orlando Cepeda took over. Mays, who homered with one on in the first inning, snapped the tie with a solo shot and Cepeda put it out of reach by connecting after a walk to Willie McCovey. Mays and Cepeda each drove in three runs.

Richie Allen homered for the Phillies, who were stopped on one hit over the last six innings by reliever Bob Bolin.

Williams, battling to become the first Cub to win the batting title since Phil Cavaretta in 1945, led a 12-hit attack against Ray Sadecki, but the Cardinals had the power.

Tim McCarver and Bill White each tagged two-run homers and Doug Clemens smacked a bases-loaded triple. With that support, Sadecki went all the way, squaring his record at 3-3 with his third straight victory.

Farrell, bringing his record to 6-1, needed Hal Woodeshick's relief help in the ninth after Bill Virdon and Jerry Lynch opened with singles. Woodeshick got Roberto Clemente to hit into a doubleplay and struck out Gene Freese to end the threat.

The Colts got all the runs they needed in the fourth against Vern Law, now 1-4, scoring twice on singles by Nellie Fox, Walt Bond and Mike White plus an error by Lynch on the last hit.

Koufax brought his record to 4-3 and struck out 10 or more in one game for the 53rd time in his career. The record for 10-strikeout performances is 54, held jointly by Rube Waddell and Bob Feller. Koufax was touched for seven hits by the Mets.

Daniels Fires 4-Hitter

Pitching Eases Hodges' Aches

By United Press International

Just about every time manager Gil Hodges' left knee acts up, Bennie Daniels pitches a brilliant game.

Gil's knee rarely hurt him last season and Daniels didn't cause American League hitters much trouble either.

In fact, it was rumored this spring that Daniels was ticketed for the minors or the trading block — a sure cure for Gil's knee if not his pitching staff.

Daniels four - hit the Detroit Tigers Thursday night, 8-2, for his fifth victory of the season, equaling his total triumphs of last season 5-10.

The streaking Baltimore Orioles, winners of six games in their last seven and 11 of 14, defeated Kansas City, 7-6, to pull to within 15 percentage points of the pace setting Chicago White Sox.

Boston tripped Los Angeles, 8-7, in an afternoon encounter and the other AL teams were not scheduled.

FOURTH STRAIGHT

Baltimore bonus rookie Wally Bunker won his fourth straight game without a loss, although he ran into trouble in the eighth when Manny Jimenez hit his first grand slam homer. The blow came off Stu Miller, who relieved Bunker with the bases loaded.

Rocky Colavito hit his 11th home run in the fourth inning to tie Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota for the league lead in that department.

Brooks Robinson had three hits and drove in three runs and Boog Powell plated two more for the Orioles, who took advantage of 10 Kansas City walks.

Carl Yastremski tripled home the winning run in the sixth inning to break a 6-6 tie and give Boston a three game sweep over the slumping Angels.

Bengals Divide Four-Game Set With Nationals

Washington Hammers Hamilton in Debut as Detroiter, 8-2

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, shooting for the elusive .500 mark, moved into Cleveland today entrenched in sixth place.

Southpaw Hank Aguirre (1-0) is scheduled to pitch against the Indians' Jack Kralick (3-0), tonight in the opener of a four-game weekend series.

Chances are, as they have done for the past 10 years, the Tigers will split the series.

SHORT END

The win-a-few, lose-a-few Bengals departed Washington Thursday night on the short end of a 8-2 score. It earned them a 2-2 split in four games and left manager Charlie Dressen wondering about his pitching corps.

This time Jack Hamilton, making his debut with Detroit, took it on the chin. He gave up seven runs, seven hits, four walks, two wild pitches and committed a balk.

In the last 10 years, the Tigers' order of finish in final American League standings has been fifth, fifth, fifth, fourth, fifth, fourth, sixth, second, fourth and sixth last year.

But there have been individual diversions. Three batting champions: Al Kaline, 1955; Harvey Kuenn, 1959; and Norm Cash, 1961. Frank Lary won more than 20 games twice in that span, and the departed Jim Bunning and Billy Hoeft each matched this total.

FOUR HITS

The defeat in Washington left Detroit with a 15-17 record this season. The Senators were in command from a three-run first inning until Ed Brinkman socked an eighth inning home run off reliever Julio Navarro.

The Tigers managed four hits off Bennie Daniels and Jim Duckworth. Two of these were by rookie Gates Brown who hit his fourth home run and a single.

The fans are starting to give up. Last year, home attendance dipped to 821,952. Detroit hasn't drawn much more than 20,000 fans to any single home game this year. And road attendance is down 50,000 from 1963.

It all adds up to sixth place.

Wins Motor City Race

DETROIT (AP) — Knoxon, a speedy three-year-old, became the first Michigan-bred pacer to win the $21,800 Motor City Pace at suburban Livonia's Wolverine Raceway Thursday night.

See Marks in State Track

If sunny weather prevails and top participants are in good health, no Class A state prep record will be considered safe Saturday at Ann Arbor's Ferry Field.

Last year nine "A" records were broken and one tied in the greatest assault ever recorded in one state meet.

Two of the three that survived are held by Pontiac Central's Hayes Jones (1956) in the broad jump and Bredell Pritchett (1961) in the shot put. The high hurdle standard set by Warren Cawley of Farmington (1958) also stood up.

And these three stand the best chance of still being in the book after Saturday's state Class A meet.

PCH's Les Hanspard has bettered the pole vault mark (13-6) by over two inches and Bloomfield Hills' Bob Richards is on the verge of eclipsing the mile record of 4:13.2.

★ ★ ★

The second heat of the mile is expected to be one of the outstanding events. It will have Richard (4:16.2), Art Link (4:16.8) of Redford and Dennis Hunt (4:20.1) of Farmington meeting head-on.

TWO HEATS

Two heats are run in the mile and the best seven times receive placings and points. The second heat always contains the fastest milers and the top seven usually comes from this group.

Although the points are expected to be well divided among the Class A schools, coach Dean Wilson of Pontiac Central feels the Chiefs don't have sufficient depth to make a run on the team championship.

He predicts Lansing Sexton or Everett will be at the top when the final event is completed.

"Sexton has good boys in the short dashes," said Wilson. "This means the 880 relay team is going to be strong and there should be some points in the broad jump.

"If a team can win an event or two and place high in another three or four, it should win."

Birmingham Seaholm and Flint Central, expected to challenge, have been all but counted out because several boys from each school failed to qualify as expected in the regionals.

★ ★ ★

PCH doesn't have another first place contender other than Hanspard.

Wilson figures that sprinter Otis Newkirk, low hurdler Al Keel, broad jumper Bob Wiggins and high jumper Gerald Henry are capable of gaining points.

Pontiac Northern has two in the meet. John Harris will be in the high jump, broad jump and 100 and Bob Willson will compete in the 880.

Pitchers' Battle, Routs in Recreation Softball

Jake Mazur of the UAW No. 594 team and Fats Keith of the 300 Bowl team each hurled four hitters, gave up two walks and had onlystrikeout difference between them. A hit, walk, fielder's choice in the 5th inning gave Mazur a 2-1 victory however.

In the other game, Elks No. 810 whipped Bob & Ken's 8-0 with Walt Poe, LeRoy Parks and Fred Milliron each getting two hits apiece.

In the International League, Buckner's nipped Pontiac Merchants, 8-7 and Motorcar rolled over Lytell - Colegrove 19-5 in an abbreviated contest.

* * *

It was a see-saw game between Buckner and Merchants. Helped by three errors and three hits, Merchants took a 4-1 lead in the 4th frame, but Buckner tied it with a big single by Lloyd Clancy.

Buckner went ahead 6-4 in the 5th, and Merchants made it 7-6 in the 7th, but in the bottom of final inning Duance Francis drove in the winning run to end it.

Twelve runs in the third inning cut short Motorcar's victory on the 10-run rule. Lytell had five runs but only one hit as both teams had a total of seven errors in three innings. There were also 17 walks in the three frames.

WATERFORD PLAY

The game ended by the 10-run rule as Howe's scored 12 runs in the 4th inning headed by Jan Hairn's three hits.

Tryout Call for Players

The Pontiac Optimist boys baseball program will have its registration and first tryout camp 9 a.m.-noon Saturday at Aaron Perry Park.

* * *

Any boy interested in playing in the city T-Ball through Class D programs (ages 7-18) can register. All participants should bring a glove.

Cordinator Howard Dell also has requested potential managers for any of the different classes to appear at the camp.

Those who can not make the first camp should call FE 4-2620.

Legion Team Issues Call

Oldenberg American Legion Post No. 216 of Milford will conduct try outs for its baseball team on Friday, May 29th, from 4 to 6 p.m.; Sunday, May 31st from 2:30 to 5 p.m.; Wednesday, June 3rd from 5:30 to 7 p.m.; and Saturday, June 6th from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon at Milford High School field.

* * *

Boys must be 18 years old or younger on Sept. 1, 1964 and must live in the Holly, Clarkston or Huron Valley School District to be eligible to play this year.

Stock '600' to Carry Big Purse

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Robert (Junior) Johnson says he isn't worried about starting ninth in Sunday's $112,000 world 600-mile stock car race.

"I don't believe I'll have trouble coming up through the back," said the burly Ronda, N.C., driver Thursday after winning the ninth spot and setting a record pace in second-day qualifying.

* * *

Johnson wheeled a fellow 1964 Ford at average speeds of 145.474 miles per hour for one lap and 145.102, both records for the 1½-mile Charlotte Motor Speedway.

Jimmy Pardue of North Wilkesboro, N.C., had set the four-lap standard Wednesday in winning the pole position with an average of 144.346 in a 1964 Plymouth.

FIRST LAP

Johnson's one-lap speed bettered the record set Wednesday by Fred Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Ill., who turned his first lap at 144.772 in a 1964 Holman-Moody Ford.

Lorenzen, winner of the last six major events he had entered will start on the front row opposite Pardue. Lorenzen is defending champion in the race, winning last June when Johnson blew a tire while leading with four laps to go.

Golf League Is Planned for Youths

Plans for a golf league for boys (12-16) and girls (14-16) were mapped this week by the Hi-White Boys Athletic Association.

Tentative plans call for the league to get under way in mid June. Russ Carlson, member of the association's board of directors, said tentative plans call for the league to meet on Tuesdays at 11 a.m. at Highland Hills Country Club.

City Class A Nines Open Sunday

The Huron-Airway squad, Pontiac's 1963 Class baseball champion, will have a new face on the sidelines when it tangles with the Clippers in the 1964 opener Sunday at 8 p.m. at Jaycee Park.

Directing the play from the dugout will be Paul Parks, who is returning to managerial ranks after an absence of five seasons.

Parks-coached teams racked up some enviable marks during the mid-1950's. He maneuvered Shaw Jewelers along a 24-game winning streak during the 1956 season for a record which still stands.

Huron-Airway and the Clippers are two of the seven teams making up the '64 Class A loop. The Barbers and Oxford Merchants dropped from the league. Pontiac Business Institute is the lone newcomer to the ranks.

PLAYOFF CHAMP

The Huron-Airway squad finished third during the regular season with an 11-6 record but went on to pick up the championship in the city playoffs.

* * *

The team has enough power and pitching to rate the favorite's role in the '64 campaign. Right-hander Don Sackett heads the mound corps.

The Clippers also have a new manager—Julious Mayo, who guided Talbott Lumber last season.

The Clippers got off to a fast start last year but sagged late in the summer and finished with an 11-5 mark.

BACK ON MOUND

CIO Local 594 (9-7) had trouble at the start but finished strong and reached the finals of the city championship.

Playing manager Chet Woodmore will be at the helm for the union nine. A little more hitting and pitching help could keep the squad near the top.

Talbott Lumber (7-8) ran into a late-season slump and finished fifth. The team, still looking for a manager, needs strength in the outfield along with some pitching and catching help.

* * *

M. G. Collision (5-9) could improve its chances with a stronger infield plus another pitcher to go with hard-throwing southpaw Dick Lamphere.

Pontiac Business Institute will be led by manager Paul Johnson, who is expected to field relatively young lineup.

vault is Kettering's chief hope, but he hasn't improved as much as Hanspard. The same goes for Walled Lake's Steve Pitcher in the vault.

Pitcher, however, has been consistent in the 100 and broad jump and the added events may have detracted from his ability in the vault.

The Class A meet at Ann Arbor will get under way with preliminaries at 10:30 a. m. The same starting time will prevail in the Class B meet at Michigan State and the C-D meet at Central Michigan University.

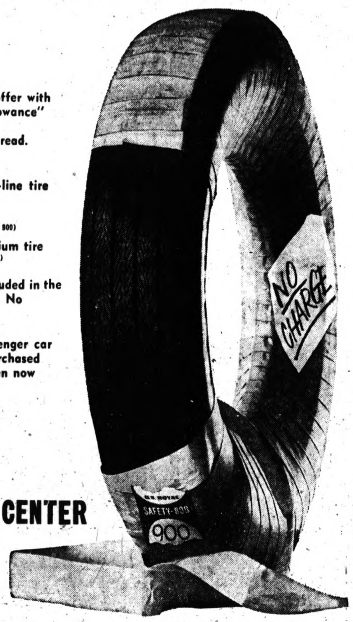
A Special Introductory Offer

U. S. Royal* has developed a tire construction that is so strong, we can make this unheard-of offer:

If the tire fails for any reason, except for a repairable puncture or deliberate abuse, as long as there is still 1/16" of original tread left,

U. S. Royal will give you a brand new tire free!



Do not confuse this offer with the usual "partial allowance" toward a new tire, based on remaining tread.

The U. S. Royal first-line tire (Safety 800)
The tiger's paw (Red-circle Super Safety 800)
The U. S. Royal premium tire (Red-circle Royal Master)

BOWLING

The 300 Bowl squad that won the American Bowling Congress regular division event team also was a clear-cut winner in the popular West Side Lanes Classic League Monday nights.

★ ★ ★

They, also, took the West Side top spot by 40 points, including high team game and series honors.

Minus Rothbarth, they received the Frank Jennings Trophy, emblematic of Traveling Classic League supremacy. Added to the lineup in that circuit were Ray Brancheau and Dave Eby.

The latter also was a member of 300 Bowl's championship team in the Monday night Masters League at Wonderland Lanes. Eby had a perfect game during the league's season.

Other winning team members were Bill Johns, Keith Parker, Walt Conta, Merle Taulbee and Len Drake.

Additional champions sponsored by the 300 Bowl were in the Superior Merchant Bowling League at Sylvan Lanes, also on Monday, and the 300 Bowlerettes League.

Runners-up were backed in the 300 Bowlers circuit and the powerful Huron Bowl Classic.

★ ★ ★

All in all, it was a high scoring winter for proprietor Joe Puertas and his 300 Bowl teams.

PIN POINTS

Stemmer's Catering won the championship of the Hilltop Rebels League, 17 points ahead of second place Avon Beauty.

★ ★ ★

The victors held high team game with 897, while Mitzelfeld's in 6th place held high team series with 2,325. Single game and series honors went to Colleen Bildstein with 257 and 582.

No Win in 16 Years, Duden Fires 5-Under

MEMPHIS (AP)—Bob Duden hasn't won a golf tournament in 14 years on the pro circuit, but you wouldn't believe it after his last 36 holes.

★ ★ ★

The veteran from Portland, Ore., who uses his bent-shaft putter like a croquet mallet, has everything but a hole-in-one to his credit. Duden had a 68 Wednesday, including a double eagle, an eagle and a triple bogey. That was only a preview.

Duden fired a five-under-par 65 Thursday and took the first round lead in the $50,000 Memphis Open Golf Tournament. He had five birdies and 13 par holes.

ONE BEHIND

Trailing the 43-year-old Duden by one stroke with 66s were pre-tournament favorite Arnold Palmer, Gene Littler, Gay Brewer and young Paul Bondeson. Bruce Devlin, Mason Rudolph and Doug Sanders were bunched at 67.

Defending champion Tony Lema, his ailing back much improved, had a 68. Jack Nicklaus, unable to recover from a double bogey first hole, shot a 2-over-par 72.

In all, 33 golfers broke par over the 6,466-yard, par 34-36—70 Colonial Country Club course. There were 15 others bunched at 70. The first cut will be made today with the low 80 going in Saturday's round. The low 60 will go in Sunday's final round with $7,500 going to the winner.

Tiger Benefit Ducats Still Available

Ticket sales for the sandlot benefit exhibition game between the Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Cardinals June 1 have been lagging in the Pontiac area.

★ ★ ★

All proceeds from the game will go to amateur baseball in the Michigan area. Baseball organizations will share in the gate according to the number of tickets they sell.

Plenty of tickets remain at local outlets. They may be obtained at Pontiac Parks and Recreation at City Hall, Osmun's Men's Store, Baldwin Avenue Pharmacy and from recreation offices in Waterford Township, Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

In addition, ducats are being sold by members of Pontiac Optimist, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auburn Boy's Club. The Auburn club has organized a Father-Son excursion and is sending two chartered buses to the game.

INTER-LEAGUE

The Tiger-Cardinal tilt will give fans a sample of inter-league play which is being advocated as a regular feature of major league schedules.

The Tigers have good reason to favor such scheduling.

In the last decade they have played seven mid-season exhibitions with National League clubs and split them down the middle—three victories, three losses and one tie.

Their most recent venture into such inter-league exhibition play was a year ago when they downed the Cardinals, 8-4, in a benefit for amateur baseball in St. Louis. This year's return game at Tiger Stadium could lead to an annual series, with games in Detroit and St. Louis on an alternate basis.

Most of the Tigers' recent mid-season exhibitions have been played with the Cincinnati Reds, with five meetings since 1954. The Tigers won, 2-0, at Flint in 1955 and 6-5 at Minneapolis in 1957. The Reds won, 6-2, at Detroit in 1954 and again 5-4 at Cincinnati in 1955.

The second game in 1954, played at Cincinnati, resulted in a 13-13 tie which was called after nine innings. It was a real slugfest, with the Reds posting 22 hits and the Tigers 21.

The Tigers also played the New York Giants in the annual Hall of Fame exhibition at Cooperstown, N.Y., in the summer of 1956, losing, 11-10, when Dusty Rhodes delivered a two-run homer with one out in the 12th inning.

Teeing Off

By
BRUNO L. KEARNS

When he does take over the temporary clubhouse at Oakland County's 44th golf course, Shenandoah Golf and Country Club on Walnut Lake Road in West Bloomfield township, he'll be overseer of nine holes.

These nine holes will actually be portions of a front and back nine, all 18 of which are expected to be completed by mid-1965.

"We'll have four holes which will be part of the front nine and five holes which will be part of the back nine," said Mattsen.

"The original layout will cover about 6,685 yards, but right now the nine holes to be used will be about 3,200 yards," he added.

Mattsen worked at Plum Hollow before going into the service and upon discharge he was Paul Van Loozen's assistant at Edgewood from 1958. In 1962 and 1963 he worked at Farmington CC.

When Shenandoah does open this summer Mattsen says "the narrow fairways and heavily wooded areas will make the course play long."

Till then Mattsen will be a free lancer eagerly awaiting his first head job.

CADDIES TAKE NOTE

The regional state high school golf tournament last weekend had an interesting sidelight which caddies might watch for.

A member of the Okemos golf team found one of his shots under a tree. A friend who was caddying for him tried to be helpful so he came over and held the tree limb back while the young golfer hit toward the green.

Tourney officials subsequently were informed of the incident and handed Okemos a two stroke penalty.

Instead of taking second place with a 338 total, Okemos lost a spot in the state tournament this weekend because it dropped to fourth in the regional. The two strokes gave them 340. Only the top three teams qualify for the state from each regional.

SHORT PUTTS

At the Master's golf tournament last month there was an audience survey taken to see how much fans knew about golf and some of the answers were really funny.

Question: Can you tell me when and how golf began?

Answer: Yes, I think Arnold Palmer invented it about eight years ago in a little town near Pittsburgh.

Question: Do you know who was the first woman golfer?

Answer: I'm not sure but it was a tall blonde named Mickey Wright or Brigitte Bardot.

★ ★ ★

Question: Do you think golf has become popular in recent years?

Answer: Oh yes, they even play it in England now and even have the British Open.

Question: Well, do you think the British Open is an important event?

Answer: Oh yes, the winner even qualifies for the World series every year in Ohio.

Question: Do you know what is meant by a golf handicap?

Answer: I think that's something they made up so that Sam Snead could play Bob Hope and some of the other movie stars.

Answer: Palmer, Nicklaus and Jones I guess.

Question: What do you know about Jones?

Answer: I know he was a great golfer, because a movie about him recently just won the Academy award.

Just one more question: Have you noticed any difference between the various courses you've seen on television?

Answer: Not much. They all seem to have the "greatest finishing holes in golf."

OTHER PUTTS

The first hole in one among golfers in Pontiac Northern history took place yesterday when junior Dave Scheib, playing with three teammates, used a wedge to ace the 127 yard 4th hole on the back nine at Municipal course. He carded a 39 for the nine.

Mulberry Hills in Oxford, a two-year-old course, is offering season tickets at $35 for individuals and $50 for entire families. There are weekday times also available for small leagues at the 9-hole layout on Noble road.

Four golf clubs used by former president Franklin D. Roosevelt were contributed to the USGA Museum during 1963.

Our everyday prices are fair, lower than most, and are always offered without tricks, subterfuge or gimmicks.
We don't sell third or fourth line tires at all—and darn few second line. Why? Because we wouldn't want them on our cars.
If you're tired of being confused by pricing tricks you don't understand or a salesman who couldn't care less — come on down to Carter's — our firm has been selling Pontiac people, their sons and daughters with dignity and honesty for 42 years. We'd be glad to show you why.

A's Go 'Farming' to Stop Disaster

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Charlie Finley's Kansas City Athletics have dropped 12 of their last 15 games and are wallowing in last place in the American League, so Charlie is looking to the farm.

Normally, in baseball parlance, this would mean Charlie or any other owner in a like predicament, would be looking to his baseball "farm" for a fledgling he might pluck from its roster to stem the tide of disaster.

But Charlie is not a normal major league baseball owner. He deals in the unexpected. For instance, when his club moved into Baltimore Tuesday to start losing three straight to the Orioles, Charlie's attorneys were filing two lawsuits against the club's home city.

He announced that his baseball club would stage a big Farm Night at Municipal Stadium June 20 when the Washington Senators, currently 16-21 and two notches above the A's will furnish the opposition.

★ ★ ★

There will be 100 barred rock hens—domineckers to you old farm boys — boar hogs, another 100 Rhode Island red chickens, a stallion—denomination unspecified — and a new-fangled Angus bull among other assorted farm animals given to those lucky enough to be in the baseball park and qualify by lot.

Elementary Track Meet on Saturday

Five junior high schools in Pontiac will be sites of elementary track and field meets Saturday starting at 9:30 a. m.

Competitors from the 5th and 6th grades, including boys and girls, will take part in a 60 yard dash, 240 yard relay, softball throw, running broad jump, high jump, shot put (boys only) and hurdles.

★ ★ ★

Winners from the meets at each junior high will go into regional competition and then into the city wide championships next Tuesday May 26th at 3:00 p. m. at Wisner Stadium.

Avondale Trips O-A Champion

Kettering Defeats Oxford by 6-3

Avondale upset Oakland A baseball champion Warren Cousino, 8-6, yesterday and Rochester clinched second place with a 6-5 win over Madison.

Kettering kept its slim Tri-County hopes alive by dumping Oxford, 6-3, and Romeo stepped outside the league to avenge an earlier loss against Utica, 3-2.

Dick Reddaway had three hits, including a two-run double in a five-run sixth for Avondale. Cousino had scored six runs in the top half of the inning to grab a 6-3 lead.

Avondale is 4-2 in the league with the playoff of a delayed game with Lake Orion still to be settled.

WINNING RUN

A passed ball let in the winning run for Rochester in the last of the seventh inning. Steve Kendrick hurled scoreless ball over the last two innings to gain the win in relief.

The Falcons are 5-2 and are assured at least a tie for second.

Craig Hanson's single with the bases loaded highlighted a four-run Kettering uprising in the fifth that sent Oxford to defeat. Craig Collins had two hits and Rick Pankey three for the Captains who finished league play with a 6-2 mark.

Benny Payne held Bi-County champion Utica to four hits, fanned 10 and drove in the winning run in the last of the eighth with a single. Mike Dickey hit a two-run homer for Utica in the

Milford Ace Hurls No-Hit Victory

Sparkman fanned six and walked three in coralling Holly's Broncos, 2-0, and raised his season record to 11-1.

Milford, 11-2 in loop play, clinched a share of the W-O title with the victory and the Redskins can wrap it up with a victory over Clarkston (10-3) Monday.

Clarkston kept its hopes alive with a 17-hit attack in downing Brighton, 9-3. In another game, Clarenceville came up with four runs in the sixth inning and went on to a 10-7 triumph over Bloomfield Hills.

In a Saginaw Valley Conference game, Pontiac Central was the victim of a no-hitter in a 2-0 loss to Flint Northern.

Ken Miskin rapped out four hits and drove in three runs in pacing the Clarkston attack. Teammate Gary Pearson collected three hits and three RBIs, and Tom Schoff and John Williams chipped in with three safeties apiece.

Williams struck out 11 to pick up the decision.

Brighton took a 2-0 lead in the first inning but the Wolves bounced back with three in the third. They added two more in the fifth and wrapped it up with four in the seventh.

Bloomfield Hills held a 7-6 lead going into the sixth inning but Clarenceville exploded for four runs to take the decision.

Bill Nellen of Flint Northern held the Chiefs without a safetie and the loss ran PCH's season mark to 3-6.

Hasn't Time to Study

Excellent Personality, but Poor Student

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Dear Dr. Nason: Our son is 17, a junior in high school, tall, good-looking, well-dressed, personable, of excellent character, well behaved and a good, clean American. His interests are skiing, sailing, tennis and architecture.

DR. NASON

His one unsatisfactory trait is complete lack of interest in his studies. He has not been spoiled with a car, or many of the other luxury items his contemporaries have.

We have recently tried giving him responsibility for shaping his present and future. This approach failed. We are reluctant to again become supervisors of 85 per cent of his active hours.

We realize the virtue of patience and encouragement but are not making any discernible headway. Do you have any other suggestions that we may explore?

W. I. L., Salem, Mass.

Skiing, sailing and tennis are excellent recreation for a teenager. However, your son appears to have let them absorb so much of his thinking that the most important area of his life—school—is crowded out.

Planned study is the answer, and for best results, the planning must be your son's. However, he obviously needs firm, friendly insistence from you. Insist that he turn a reasonable portion of his thinking and planning to his studies.

Point out to him that if he gives conscious effort and attention to each of his courses for a while, interest will be developed in these fields.

Dear Dr. Nason: My son, age 7½, is in the second grade. His teacher feels he has a short attention span.

He has an average I.Q., but when he is left alone to do his assigned work he suffers a "mental block," sits and does nothing, or fails to complete the work.

How can I spark his interest?

Mrs. C.M.P., E. Boston, Mass.

You may have given your son your undivided attention and directed his work in detail to the point where he is how dependent upon you for guidance and decisions which he should be making himself.

Turn the responsibility over to him, firmly and kindly. Gain his cooperation in the new program. Have patience. It will take time for him to form new work habits.

Dear Dr. Nason: I am a sophomore in high school now and since the summer before eighth grade, have been telling my parents and myself, that next year is the year to get A's.

I keep making these promises to my parents and myself but they wear off after a day or when homework time comes. So here I am nearly through the year and still getting C's.

I am told by my parents and counselors at school that if I would study hard I could get straight A's.

R. H., Kingsbury, Calif.

The trick is to plan HOW you are going to study each course. You will find that the plans you make in detail will be followed by action.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

You can always trust Terence Reese to come up with a real blockbuster type of hand for any duplicate competition.

JACOBY

He does not claim that this hand was ever played and undoubtedly it was just made up.

There will be probably almost as many bidding sequences as there will be people playing it, but Reese points out that if South gets to six spades he can make it by a double unblocking coup.

The bidding in the box shows one way to get to six spades. West opens the king of hearts and East will almost surely signal with the seven of clubs.

South will ruff the heart opening and decide to lead a diamond at trick two. West will play the king and South should come to the conclusion that the king was a bona fide singleton.

Anyway he will cash dummy's ace of spades and ruff a second heart to get back to his own hand. He will have to play the rest of his trumps in order to exhaust East and he will be faced with the problem of getting back to his hand to play diamonds.

This will prove impossible unless he has made Reese's double unblock.

When West fails to follow to the third trump, South should discard dummy's king of clubs. Then he should throw the ace on the last trump.

Finally, he cashes dummy's high diamonds and leads the deuce of clubs. East will take his queen and then be forced to give the rest of the tricks to South.

♥♦CARD Sense♠♣

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1 ♦	Pass	1 ♥	Pass
1 ♠	Pass	?

You, South, hold: ♠A Q 6 ♥K J 4 3 ♦A 2 ♣A Q 9 4

What do you do?

A—Bid four no-trump. You don't bid three clubs because your partner is very likely to go to three no-trump. A club lead through your hand might be dangerous at a final six no-trump contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner shows one ace. You ask for kings with five no-trump and he shows two kings. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Saturday

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Take time to review contracts, agreements. Budget matters require attention. Key is PROPER PACING. Get chores out of way early. Tonight relax . . . with congenial people.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Avoid extremes. You attract unusual conditions, people. You are especially appealing to members of opposite sex today. Avoid setback by maintaining composure, self-control.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): Recent decisions, changes due to prove their worth. Emphasis today on home, domestic adjustments. Also family members. Also there is activity in area of work, fellow employes. Be gracious, amiable.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Be perceptive. Look behind the scenes. Realize that minor flaws can be corrected. Avoid unnecessary worry. Fine lunar aspect highlights romance, exciting creative endeavors.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): Security question should be settled. Exercise authority. LEO charm helps. But don't permit others to sweet-talk you. Show appreciation for past favors. But insist on CURRENT benefits.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 23): Find ways of accomplishing basic tasks. This best done by relying upon past experience. Put ORIGINAL TWIST on efforts. Realize that your ideas contain value . . . act accordingly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Cycle continues high. But there are FINANCIAL considerations crying for attention. Minor budget adjustment could work wonders. Obtain hint from today's LEO message. Display initiative.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Cycle high. Intuitive judgment proves beneficial. Your impressions about people, places, situations are accurate. Spotlight of APPRECIATION shines your way. Could be very creative day!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Time for reflection, reviewing past. Right people are heading your way. Recent search is about to end favorably. Day to relax, enjoy yourself. Evening favors dining out, theater.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Cultivate friendships. Enlarge horizons, interests. Excellent for attending lecture, special class. Engage in activities which enable you to MEET PEOPLE. Avoid gloom. Exude air of OPTIMISM.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): Problems solved in manner which surprises. The usual procedures do not apply. Imagination due to be very active. Welcome changes. Examine new ideas, methods. Then move ahead!

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Good lunar aspect coincides with higher learning, journeys, vacation plans or activity. Concentrate on HARMONY. Especially in connection with family members. Avoid needless disputes.

IF SATURDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are combination of curiosity and obstinacy. If an idea is your own—you fight for it; otherwise you tend to stick to older methods. Strike balance and you're on the way to greater success, happiness.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Secret agreements in news spotlight.

Market Irregular

Profit-Taking Hits Minerals

NEW YORK (AP) — Profit taking among several mineral stocks was a feature of an irregular stock market early this afternoon. Market averages were up slightly.

Occidental Petroleum, which was a big gainer yesterday as the most active stock, was delayed in opening. It fell ⅛ to 33 on initial blocks of 30,000 and 1,800 shares, then extended its loss to more than a point.

* * *

Most of the other issues involved in the current vogue for companies with actual or possible natural resource also encountered profit-taking.

A slightly higher trend prevailed among steels, oils, chemicals, rails, utilities and farm implements. Motors, rubbers, aerospace issues, nonferrous metals, airlines and building materials were mixed. Cigarette stocks declined.

Trading fell off considerably from yesterday's fairly active pace. There was little in the news to stimulate a sharp move either way. Traders were exercising typical preweekend caution among recent speculative favorites.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .5 at 307.3 with industrials up .6, rails up .2 and utilities up .3.

* * *

Corporate bonds were irregularly higher, with rails mixed. U.S. Government bonds were steady to slightly higher in light trading.

Painters OK New Contract

Union Pact to Cover Three-Year Period

Members of the painter union, which did not join in the construction strike affecting the Detroit area, have settled a new three-year contract.

* * *

Dick Kirby, business agent for the Wayne - Oakland - Macomb Building Trades Council, said this morning that members of the Painters District Council voted to accept new contract proposals last night.

The agreement affects some 2,200 union painters. Its main provision is a 20-cent an hour pay and fringe benefit increase for each year of the contract over the former $3.80 an hour.

Kirby said it represents the first long - term pact settled by the painters, who in the past have worked under one-year contracts.

* * *

Still on strike are 2,500 members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 58; 2,400 members of the Sheet Metal Union Local 80 and members of Tile Layers and Marble Helpers Local 40.

News in Brief

Iziah Hawkins, 272 Elm, told police last night that a combination stereo-television set valued at $500 was stolen from his house.

Waterford Township Supervisor James Seeterlin will be guest speaker at the 2 p.m. Sunday meeting of Pontiac Democratic Club. The group will meet at Fisher Body Local 596 hall, 821 Baldwin.

Two television tube caddies and a portable television set were reported stolen yesterday from a panel truck parked on the driveway of Marvin Krueger, 201 W. Yale.

New York Admission to Ring Group Seen

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The New York State Boxing Commission probably will be admitted as a full member of the World Boxing Council at the council's next convention, a council official said Thursday night.

Ramon G. Velasquez, the council's secretary, said an unofficial poll of council members showed they favored the action.

LOCKS SHEARED — It took only a few minutes after this photo was taken but when barber Al Rade was finished clipping, the three watchful boys had a brother that looked like a brother and not like a little girl. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Grimaldi, 3511 Levee, Waterford Township, the boys were marched to Al's Barber Shop for long-overdue haircuts and the first for 18-month-old Edward (in the chair) 8. Next in line (from left) are Anthony, 5, Richard, 4, and Francis, 2½. The haircuts had waited for the new barber shop to open. The Grimaldis own the building.

Business Indicators Point to Rosy Future for U.S. Economy

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Peekers into the future have new reason today to see everything coming up rosy. Some of the most reliable business indicators of things to come are taking on healthier glows after a period of hesitation.

Factory orders for durable goods took a big jump in April to a record high of $20.6 billion, a 7 per cent climb in one month. Although shipments also set a record, the orders poured in at such a rate that the backlog of unfilled orders advanced to $49 billion. That all but guarantees busy schedules for many factories for weeks and even months to come.

* * *

A happy factor in the flow of orders as spring got going is that it marks a rebound from two months of retreat from the previous peak in January. The February and March trend had given the prognosticators pause. Many feared that the upsurge in the economy in the final weeks of 1963 might be leveling off, or worse.

New orders strengthen earlier reports that industrial production as a whole was climbing and employment increasing more than seasonally. The record order backlog should keep output on the upgrade for May and probably June.

CONSUMER LEVEL

At the consumer level the prospects are bright, too. Personal income has risen to a new high of $483.1 billion, at an annual rate. Business translates this into more spendable dollars to be tapped for finished goods or for services.

Cash dividend payments rose to $1.13 billion in April, 9 per cent more money than stockholders got in the like 1963 month.

Merchants have come to watch dividend payments as an index to what to expect, or hope for, since many happy recipients of increased payments spend them quickly at the stores. Retailers of luxury goods often are the greatest beneficiaries of this windfall.

Others are the recreation and travel industries, and purveyors of personal services.

HOUSING STARTS

Housing starts are drooping a bit. Permits for future construction also slumped a little in April.

* * *

But housing experts warn that the industry is a tricky one, with month to month changes the rule and trends hard to spot. Some federal authorities have been expecting a slowdown in home construction, and especially apartment building, after the big spurt last year. Vacancies in many communities have been mounting, cooling the ardor of builders.

The consumer is still spending for other things, however. And the competition for his dollar is keen.

Successful Investing

Q) "I am 80 years old, no social security, no insurance and am trying hard to keep off 'Old Age Assistance.' I own Tennessee Gas Transmission, American Telephone, and New England Electric. What do you think of these? I am most concerned about American Machine & Foundry, bought years ago, which shows me a profit. Would you sell this stock?" E.P.

A) You seem to an indomitable sort of person, and if you are trying hard to keep off Old Age Assistance, I'm quite sure you will.

I like the first three stocks you mentioned, but I might suggest that by switching American Telephone into New England telephone you would substantially increase your yield with some loss of growth.

As regards American Machine & Foundry, this stock has been making a moderate recovery and now yields less than 4 per cent. There are risks in this situation, and in your position I would switch to Maytag, yielding 4.5 per cent.

* * *

Q) "I am retired, in good health, have excellent income and insurance protection, own my home and have $15,000 savings. Among others, I hold 100 Goodyear; 100 Weyerhauser Timber; 50 Cluett, Peabody; 25 U.S. Playing Card. I have $4,000 to $5,000 to invest. Would you advise that I add to this list or pick something else?" C.T.

A) All your holdings are of good quality.

Cluett, Peabody has been showing a fine growth pattern in recent years due to its expansion of Arrow products, its royalty income from the "Sanforized" trademark, and its move into retail merchandising. I think you might well build up your holdings here to 100 shares.

U.S. Playing Card is facing more competition but is still dominant in the field, and its strong financial position makes the dividend seem secure. I suggest another 75 shares of this stock.

May Refuse Bishop Post

DETROIT (AP) — The newly elected suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan indicated Thursday he may turn down the post.

The Rev. Dr. C. Kilmer Myers, of Chicago, told newsmen he was "not at all sure I'll accept the Michigan post." He said he doesn't "readily want to give up" his present job as director of the Urban Training Center for the Christian Mission in Chicago.

* * *

"It's a great honor to be elected to such a fine position as that of suffragan bishop of Michigan, but my present work is very important," he said.

Dr. Kilmer said he would discuss the situation with Michigan Bishop Richard S. Emrich, but "I can say for sure that I won't make a decision for at least three days.

TALK IT OVER

"I have to return to Chicago and talk things over with my wife and some of the clergy there."

The Urban Training Center in Chicago helps high school dropouts and organizes the jobless for employment retraining. Dr. Myers instructs both clergymen and laymen in job retraining and mission work in Chicago's inner city area.

He moved to the Chicago post nearly a year ago after spending many years in slum work in New York City. He has written several books on slum work.

Dr. Myers was elected suffragan bishop last Friday.

Flags to Watches

Smithsonian Exhibits Emphasize History

★ ★ ★

These are just a few of the national treasures and objects of interest in the Smithsonian Institution's magnificent new Museum of History and Technology in Washington, D.C.

The massive building on the Mall is the home of a permanent exposition showing America's cultural, civil, military, and political history, and the development of science, technology, and manufacturing.

The huge flag is unfurled in a 50-foot-high display in the rotunda. The precious relic is protected by a heavy linen backing. A soft current of filtered air keeps it free of dust.

UNDER OWN POWER

The 1920 vintage Mack truck moved under its own power into its place in the transportation exhibit. Nearby are a 1912 Simplex sports car that could hit 80 miles an hour, and the earliest known Concord coach.

Coaches of this style still are attacked daily by Indians or bandits and defended by Western heros on the television screen.

In an adjoining room are a 180-ton steam locomotive and tender, both so large the hall had to be built around them.

The gowns of the first ladies of the White House are displayed in rooms reconstructed from original woodwork taken from the Executive Mansion during its renovation in the late 1940's.

MARTHA'S WATCH

Visitors learn that Martha Washington's watch had two cases, one enamel and one gold. The first elevator installed in the White House stands permanently in one corner of the First Ladies hall.

Besides Alexander Graham Bell's telephone, world-changing inventions in the new museum are Whitney's cotton gin, Morse's telegraph, Hoe's sewing machine and Henry's electromagnet.

Among the numerous other devices are a wire recorder made in 1885 and early disc phonographs that sounded "like a parrot with a sore throat."

LOG HOUSE

The museum's log house, with walls a foot thick, originally was the home of a miller in New Castle, Del., in 1740. It stands in the exhibit tracing everyday life in America from colonial days to 1900.

The shop was a landmark in the Georgetown section of Washington from 1820 to 1957, and it is complete down to marble-topped tables and glass jars filled with hard candy.

Vocational education school enrollment last year totaled approximately 4 million, more than half of which were adults.

MARCH 30, 1964

Pontiac, Michigan
Gentlemen:

We are pleased to submit to your honorable body and to the people of Oakland County, our annual report for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1963.

Combined in this report is a summary of our activities relating to the construction and maintenance of roads and bridges, of funds received and disbursed, and other information which will be of interest to you.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS OF THE COUNTY OF OAKLAND, MICHIGAN
SOL D. LOMERSON, Chairman
ROBERT O. FELT, Vice-Chairman
FRAZER W. STAMAN, Commissioner

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

A Board of County Road Commissioners was first appointed on May 6, 1913, who had their first meeting the following day. On June 30, of this past year, an Open House was held to help commemorate our Fiftieth Anniversary and to give both the public and families of our employes an opportunity to visit our office and garages.

Several dignitaries or their representatives from our State Government along with many county and city officials toured our facilities, looked at displays and listened to short explanations of our work made by members of our staff along the tour route. Some 1,500 to 2,000 visitors attended in spite of very hot weather and we were very pleased with the turnout, the interest shown and the many nice comments.

DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES
MAINTENANCE

Two outstanding activities of our Maintenance Department occurred in 1963. The first was a higher than normal amount of breakup on paved subdivision streets in the south half of the county, which was mostly attributable to a very cold winter and a fairly high ground water table in some areas. A special program of repair was drawn up and crews worked all season to complete most of the work. Maintenance costs on local roads hit another new all-time high as a result.

The other event worthy of special comment was the opening of three new sections of freeways which, of course, means additional work for our Maintenance Department. The 29 miles opened to traffic increased the total to 78 miles in service with an additional 29 miles programmed during the next few years for construction.

The Maintenance Department with 274 regular employes and some 200 pieces of self propelled equipment is by far the largest in our organization. The cost of maintenance on the 707 mile county primary system was $1,657,326.39 for an average of $2,343 per mile. The 1,689 mile local road system cost $1,219,982.07 for maintenance for an average cost of $722 per mile. These costs include work done as a result of contributions by individuals and townships.

The Road Commission continues to do most of the maintenance on state trunk lines for the State Highway Department for which we are reimbursed. The current contract runs from July 1, 1963, to June 30, 1964, and will total about $850,000 for an average of about $4,100 per mile.

The cities of Hazel Park, Oak Park, Ferndale, Berkley, Royal Oak and Madison Heights were paid $21,975.69 to provide most of the maintenance on county roads within their limits as per annual maintenance contracts.

ENGINEERING

For the second year in a row records were set on the amount of construction accomplished on both the primary and local road systems. Approximately 60 per cent of the projects included in our three year, eleven million dollar primary road construction program have been completed at the end of the second year.

At present there are 57 full time employes of whom 13 are graduate engineers. In addition to design and construction of county road projects this department furnishes other services such as issuing permits, of which there were 1,446 in 1963 on some $10,422,000 worth of work, design approval and spot inspection on new plats and special assessment projects, maps and descriptions for right of way acquisition, surveys and plans for the Maintenance Department and considerable checking of construction on county roads along the new freeways. There were 45 new subdivision plats approved by the Board of County Road Commissioners in 1963 which created 13.83 miles of new subdivision streets estimated to cost $955,508.56.

In the financial section of this report you will note that the total primary and local road construction in 1963 was $3,688,206.43. This is an increase of 10 per cent over the previous year and an increase of over 100 per cent in the last five years.

FORESTRY & TRAFFIC

The main function of this department is the trimming and removal of trees in the right of way plus other duties such as spraying for brush control, maintenance of roadside table sites, erosion control, traffic signals, radios, traffic counts, intersection movement counts, radar speed checks and the issuance of permits to utility companies and others for overhead facilities, tree trimming, tree removal and roadside cleanup. There are 44 full time employes in this department. Over 3,500 trees were removed during the year and nearly 1,000 trees were trimmed. Of those removed, 1,838 were infected with the Dutch Elm Disease. The average cost of removal and disposal of these infected trees was $33.06 per tree, a drop of 26.2 per cent, however, the number of trees removed due to this disease increased 41.7 per cent.

The Electrical Section of this department maintains 298 traffic signals and flashing beacons located throughout the county (State-94, County-88, and Cities-126), along with 79 illuminated warning signs. Since these devices must operate continuously for the most part, emergency repairs were made at night or on weekends on 214 occasions.

ACCELERATED PUBLIC WORKS PROJECTS

Two grants have been received and three others have been applied for. The first grant is for $187,000 to help pay for the construction of nine bridges on various county local roads. Bids were received on October 1, 1963, and construction started in November. Most of the work will be done in the first half of 1964.

Bids are to be received on March 26, 1964, for a new 90x220 foot maintenance garage at Lake Orion, of which $98,000 will be paid by a grant. The work also includes renovation of the existing building, moving a large steel building and site improvements.

SAFETY

Our safety program is under the direction of a full time Safety Supervisor. Equipment operators were presented with safe driving awards at a dinner and program. These National Safety Council awards were as follows:

1 Year — 21 Employes
2 Years — 21 Employes
3 Years — 108 Employes

These men represent approximately twelve million miles of driving without an accident.

PURCHASING

Purchases for material, parts, supplies, office and shop equipment were $1,044,101.56. In addition, the net cost of new road equipment was $321,918.99. All large purchases are made only after advertising publicly for bids. The following quantities of material were used during 1963:

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS OF THE COUNTY OF OAKLAND, MICHIGAN, UNDER DATE OF DECEMBER 31, 1963.

WHEREAS, Section 9, Chapter IV of Act 283 of the Public Acts of 1909 as last amended (MSA 9.109) states: "The clerk of the county shall be the clerk of the board of county road commissioners, and shall keep the records and accounts of the board and preserve its files in a manner directed by the board: Provided, however, that when, in the opinion of the board of county road commissioners, the work is of a sufficient volume, the board may appoint a secretary, with the permission of the board of supervisors, who shall be and act as clerk of the board, and whose salary together with the salaries of the members of the board of county road commissioners, shall be paid by the board of county road commissioners from the county road funds." and

WHEREAS, This Board did heretofore determine that the work is of sufficient volume and did with the permission of the board of supervisors, appoint Irwin P. Nichols as Secretary-Clerk of this Board,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That this Board hereby redetermines that in its opinion the work is of sufficient volume and that Irwin P. Nichols be and that he is hereby reappointed as Secretary for the year 1964 and that he shall be and act as Clerk of this Board, at the salary provided for in the "Classification Schedule for Administrative Employes" adopted by the Board under date of December 31, 1963.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the salary of the said Irwin P. Nichols together with the salaries of the members of this Board shall be paid from the county road funds, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the duties of the said Secretary-Clerk shall be those delegated to the Secretary Clerk by law and by action of this Board.

He's the 'Can Do' Man

Look to Johnson for Rights Bill Push

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bipartisan proponents of the civil rights bill said today they are counting on President Johnson to supply the final push for passage.

"He's the 'can do' man," assistant Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey told a reporter. "He knows how to get things done."

So, Humphrey said, when the drive for cloture to still the Southern filibuster is made early next month, the President will be called on to help sway undecided senators.

DONE THEIR BEST

"I've told the White House that we've done all that statesmanship can do," Aiken, a twinkle in his eye, said in a separate interview. "We need about three or four more votes and it's up to the White House to provide them."

Southern opponents of the civil rights measure said the Senate leadership already is applying pressure.

If all 100 senators are present for a cloture vote, said Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., the bill's proponents "haven't got a chance." But, he told reporters, "I'm looking for three or four who might oppose cloture to be absent. Maybe some of them may be sent on missions."

Cloture—the Senate's machinery for ending debate—never has been applied successfully in a fight over civil rights. It requires two-thirds of the senators present and voting—67 if all 100 are on hand.

DOESN'T BELIEVE

Another Southerner, Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., said "I don't believe they have the votes now to apply cloture in spite of all the pressure they are putting on. I know the pressure is on from everywhere."

Before the Senate met for its 62nd session on civil rights, Republicans scheduled another conference to consider the package of amendments prepared by GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen and Democratic civil rights advocates in consultation with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Dirksen said he hopes the Republicans can "button up" the bill at the session, and he scheduled a later huddle with Humphrey, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and other rights strategists.

FOR THE BIRDS — Stephen Wrentzel, 18 months, of Lynn, Mass., wants no part of the pigeons on the soil now covering the top of the Undgerground Common Garage in Boston. The Massachusetts Parking Authority said the topsoil material now in place will sustain grass. Maybe a "Keep off the grass" sign will be needed for the pigeons.

She Went in Circles

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Cronin, didn't want to take the can to a hospital. So Robin walked around the can until she unscrewed the spout before going to a hospital where attendants removed the gadget from her finger.

Man Is Held in Death of Area Resident

A Detroit man, Earl D. Papkie, is being held in Wayne County Jail today charged with second-degree murder in the shooting of Lorence A. Coppens, 42, of Oxford Township.

He lived at 1551 Davison Lake, but was residing temporarily in Detroit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Papkie.

Police said the fatal shot was fired after an argument between Papkie and Coppens.

Makes Dirty Getaway With Only $50 Haul

He slid 6 feet down an old sidewalk coal chute covered with coal dust to reach the basement of the building. Walking upstairs to the company's office, he ransacked several desks for $50 and let himself out a rear door.

To Rate Candidates After Interviews

Interview sessions with 26 candidates for the proposed community college board of trustees will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, the Oakland Citizens League announces.

The object of the interviews is to rate the participating candidates, said League President F. Ward Ouradnik.

He said that the ratings would be published and distributed to the 550 members of the nonpartisan citizens league.

Basil E. Brown, 48 Mary Day, chairman of the league's 25-member committee on candidates, will conduct the interview sessions.

★ ★ ★

The interviews will be held at the Community House, 380 S. Bates, Birmingham.

The World Council of Churches admitted nine new church bodies this year to increase its membership to 209 denominations from 80 countries. The 209 churches represent about 350 million members.

Card of Thanks 1

THE FAMILY OF MILTON J. Hogg wish to thank their many friends, neighbors and relatives for the many floral offerings and acts of kindness due to his sudden death. We especially thank Mr. John Alden of the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home, the Rev. Mr. G. McDonald Jones, Masonic Lodge, F&AM No. 21, the Easten Stars and the Commerce W.S.C.S.

IT IS WITH SINCERE APPRECIATION we acknowledge the sympathy and kindness extended to us by friends and neighbors during the last illness and at the death of our beloved mother. Special thanks is extended to the fathers and Mrs. DeBaene of St. Andrews Church, Potere Funeral Home, Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital staff. And for all the many floral tributes. The families of Mrs. Marion Alma Bandy.

WATERFRONT 'C' BAR

COUNTRY ESTATE FACTORY, 94 ACRES
Airstrip with this gentlemens estate and former trailer factory of 25,000 square feet. Suitable for most any type manufacturing. Excellent labor market and tax area. Owners gracious mansion, plush carpeting, 3 tile baths, huge rooms, recreation room with bar, plus modern 2-bedroom ranch homes and 6 guest or employee cottages. Modern office building and cement block 2-floor stable with corral, 41x41' hanger with 2,000 ft. landing strip. All buildings are well maintained. Large trout stream, birds, deer, and rabbits in the orchard back yard. Fine location in Ogemaw County. Ideal for a furniture factory, large children's camp, club group, resort, recreation, of just to be your own land baron. Offered at $86,500 on easy, easy terms. This is less than half of owners investment. Airstrip optional at $7,000 less. Want an excuse to change locations? Want more out of life — then move up here.

Judge Frees Comic After Hearing Act

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A judge listened to a recording of Lenny Bruce's night club act then acquitted him on an obscenity charge.

"If people want to pay to sit and listen to him, they deserve to hear what they hear," said the judge at the trial Thursday.

"Mr Bruce has a dirty mind and degrades the American language and morality," the judge said.

Expert Dusts Off Old One: 'How to Be Happy if Wed'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Do your realize that many married couples are being happy right now when they should be throwing ashtrays at each other?

WILSON

"I ascribe the high American divorce rate," —says French psychiatrist Dr. Henri L. Vuillard, after a tour of N.Y., Washington and Los Angeles—"to married couples' failure to quarrel oftener . . ."

Wishing to be helpful, I've talked to everybody from con men to Congressmen and drawn up some "Instant Bloodshed" conversation-openers that'll start the battling without fooling around.

"You know my husband — the man who has everything—but lost it," is one line that gets me started. Some others:

Husband to wife: "What work is your brother not doing now?"

Husband: "Meet my wife who just returned from the Catskills with the award for obesity, and her mother, Miss Longevity of 1876."

When a husband says, "This is my new $300 suit," the wife should shriek, "YOU'RE KIDDING!"

Fat Girl Comedienne Totie Fields at the Copacabana tells me her husband, educator George Johnston, was studying the curves of the Copa chorines, when she said to him, "I thought I was the apple of your eye."

"Yeah, but a guy likes a little fruit salad sometimes," he said.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Frankie Laine told me he's working two weeks longer than usual at the Hotel Roosevelt in New Orleans because he just loves Louisiana crayfish, called crawdads, crawfish and "mud bugs" in other parts of the U.S. . . . The Airedales, singing group from Virginia, and their star Rocky Roberts made a film in France with Jayne Mansfield and introduced a dance called "the Monkeybird." Funny if they'd replace the Beatles.

Xavier Cugat says that whoever replaces Abbe Lane with his band will be "a stunning girl," but must not look or sing like her . . . Carol Channing turned down a four-figure offer to sing her "Hello, Dolly!" tune at the coming-out party of a socialite named Dolly . . . Ballet star Maria Tallchief did the wild new Jamaica Ska dance at True Heller's.

Noise 'From Twilight Zone' Unnerves the Lansing Area

★ ★ ★

Knutson was describing a mysterious, piercing noise that awakened him early Thursday. The noise also set nerves on edge in other south Lansing homes.

"At first I thought it was my furnace acting up again," Knutson said. "Then I realized it sounded like a helicopter but... more compressed and . . . like a smoother running engine. I thought it was trucks on Cedar St., then I realized it lasted too long for them."

Police received at least six calls—starting at 3 a.m.—from residents who heard "a high-pitched, whirring sound," a "shrill, steady noise," and "like the music and noises on 'Twilight Zone' (a science fiction television program)."

SILVER METAL THING

One man said the noise sounded as if whatever made the racket landed. A woman reported seeing a "light-colored, shiny, silver-metal thing" in the sky.

After she calmed down her 10-year-old daughter Wanda, Mrs. Edward Cole looked out the window and saw the object in the sky.

★ ★ ★

"It looked like a great, huge bowl, sort of spinning," she said. "It was just over the tops of the trees and it kept moving away—not straight away like you'd think, but turning in loops as it disappeared."

Elmer Spper was returning home from the night shift in an auto factory when he heard the noise.

"I know it sounds crazy," he said. "I'd swear the thing landed over south of my place somewhere. The revolutions sort of slacked off, like a motor that has been tuned off. And then it revved up again for just a second and then quit."

Lansing police said they found nothing else to explain the noise.

Judy Garland Irks Promoter

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — Harry Miller, the promoter who brought singer Judy Garland to Australia for three controversial appearances, said today he was "through with the whole thing."

★ ★ ★

Miss Garland was booed by an audience of 7,000 in Melbourne Wednesday night when she showed up late and had difficulty singing, because of a sore throat.

The singer remained in seclusion today in her 13th-floor suite at a Sydney hotel. Two security guards kept newsmen and photographers from seeing her.

★ ★ ★

"I'll never bring her to Australia again. I've had enough. Even if she was desperate I wouldn't touch a Judy Garland show again."

MONEY PAID

Asked about members of the Melbourne audience who demanded their money back,, Miller said, "It is out of my hands. The money was paid to Miss Garland at noon on the day of her performance."

★ ★ ★

Mariners' Music Goes Classical Upon Request

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP) — Those who go down to the sea in ships these days—and under it in submarines—include Brahms, Puccini, Andre Kostelanetz, Tony Bennett and Margaret Whiting.

These, said G. W. Mendenhall, are popular requests on the 250,000 feet of stereo music he has taped as gifts for submarines of the Polaris fleet.

Mendenhall, senior administrator at Lockheed Missiles and Space Co., got the idea on learning that the Polaris sub Theodore Roosevelt had a high fidelity tape system. Mendenhall recorded 30 hours of music for that sub. He's been at it ever since.

"We've had no requests for the Beatles," he said.

Airline Has Good April in Freight

North Central Airlines (NCA) flights had a good month in the air freight department, but still couldn't manage to board an average of one passenger a day at Pontiac Municipal Airport last month.

★ ★ ★

Inbound flights carried only 11 passengers last month and seven the month before. There were 37 passengers on inbound flights in April a year ago.

★ ★ ★

Air freight provided the lone bright note last month. Outbound NCA flights carried 2,044 pounds of freight compared to 1,140 pounds in March.

LITTLE HIGHER

Freight on inbound flights amounted to 3,781 pounds in April, a little higher than the 3,743 pounds carried in March.

In other departments, outbound flights carried 857 pounds of air mail last month, compared to 1,480 pounds in March. There were 290 pounds of air express recorded last month and 608 pounds the month before.

★ ★ ★

Local NCA patronage for the first four months this year totals 78 on outbound flights and 50 on inbound flights.

★ ★ ★

The four-month totals for last year were 134 outbound passengers and 149 inbound.

A record 31 million U.S. visitors to Canada last year spent about $550 million.

Johnson Mixes Politics, Philosophy

GOP Senators Pass Bill Allowing 2 Primary Dates

LANSING (AP) — Senate Republican strategists showed yesterday there may be more than one way to skin a cat or change the date of a primary.

An amended bill, that would on the surface allow two primary dates, was passed by the Senate and sent to the House.

The present primary date in the bill was left at Aug. 4. But an amendment was tacked on by Sen. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, saying that only a Sept. 1 primary would be legal.

Several Senate Republicans admitted this was a gimmick and part of the pressure aimed at gaining Democratic votes for immediate effect of a bill that simply would move the primary from Aug. 4 to Sept. 1.

★ ★ ★

Immediate effect requires 23 votes in the 34-member Senate. Republicans so far have been able to count on only 22. They had 21 on the last floor vote, and since picked up Sen. Clyde Geer-

Johnson and Fisher emerged as runoff winners, while Hartman and Cowley were picked in the regular election last week. See Page 2 for other officers.

U.S. Flights in Laos May Be First Step

Other Action Possible; but Hope Pressure Will Halt Red March

WASHINGTON (AP) — The start of U.S. jet reconnaissance flights over Red-threatened Laos may be only the first of several actions enlarging American military operations in Southeast Asia, officials said today.

Faced with Communist advances posing increasingly serious threats to Laos and neighboring South Viet Nam, U.S. policymakers have been considering a wide variety of moves, including:

Strikes against North Viet Nam, dispatch of more air and sea power into the area, landing of forces in Thailand if the Thai

Related Story, Page A-4

Officials said they were not certain how quickly the confrontation in Southeast Asia would reach a showdown stage if diplomacy fails to find a way out of the present crisis.

Events could develop quickly, however, depending on what the Communists decide to do.

President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk were described as still hopeful that diplomatic pressures on the Communist powers and the prospect of greater U.S. military involvement in the area would cause the Communists to stop their offensive campaign against the forces of the neutralist Laotian government.

FIRED ON PLANES

The reconnaissance flights were announced by the State Department yesterday after Peking radio broadcast a report that Communist Pathet Lao troops had fired on two U.S. jet planes flying over the Plaine des Jarres.

The State Department said the United States had undertaken the reconnaissance flight in response to a request from the Lao government.

A spokesman declared that the information gained from the flights would be turned over both to the Laotian government and to the International Control Commission, formed by India, Canada and Poland. The commission has the task of supervising the international agreement under which Laos was neutralized in 1962.

Though officials did not say so, the reconnaissance flights may furnish information on troop or supply movements through the eastern section of Laos from North Viet Nam to South Viet Nam.

Visits in State for Speech to U. of M. Grads

Asks Welcomers to 'Love in November as You Do in May'

ANN ARBOR (AP) — President Johnson marked the end of his first six months in office today by making a flying visit to Michigan and mixing politics and philosophy.

Johnson flew to Ann Arbor to address commencement exercises of the University of Michigan. But first he stopped at nearby Detroit Metropolitan Airport, and smiling at 25,000 noisy welcomers, said:

"My first thought is to sing an old song —'Will you love me in November as you do in May?' "

The President's trip bore a nonpolitical label. He was accompanied in the state by a number of Republicans, including Gov. George Romney.

★ ★ ★

PRAISES DETROIT

Johnson said Detroit and its people are the hope of America — "You put America on wheels — you got the American economy on the move."

Johnson was accompanied by Michigan's two Democratic senators, Patrick V. McNamara and Philip A. Hart, and 12 of the state's congressmen.

Next to Johnson, the crowd gave its biggest applause to former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of State for African affairs.

MOVE UPWARD

It will require, he said, the rebuilding of cities and countryside.

Bed Schedule Worry to Pontiac Hospital

Pontiac General Hospital administrators are grappling with a dilemma that is creating a tight cash position on one hand, and a public relations problem on the other.

Occupancy is not up to par, yet the number of canceled admissions—836 so far this year—is at an all-time high.

"We've had more empty beds to date this year than we figured on in the 1964 budget," said Harold B. Euler at last night's hospital board of trustees meeting.

"But the beds have either been empty in the wrong places or at the wrong times."

At the same time, the hospital has been forced to cancel 836 scheduled admissions in the first four months of 1964.

MORE THIS YEAR

Other statistics show the hospital has admitted 6,890 patients to date, about 23 fewer than in the same period last year.

Why have fewer patients been admitted so far this year?

Visitors Flock to JFK Grave

Millions Pay Tribute to Fallen President

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the six months since his death, kings, queens, presidents and an estimated 2,745,000 persons have climbed up the gentle slope to John F. Kennedy's grave.

Related Story, Page A-12

Now and then members of the Kennedy family slipped in among the tourists who stand at the low white picket fence that encloses the grave site in Arlington National Cemetery.

★ ★ ★

The family has not selected the final design for the monument to be erected. The president's widow still is receiving suggestions, a spokesman for her said today.

ETERNAL FLAME

For now, it burns above a temporary base covered with an artificial green grass carpet—bright in the sunshine of the spring day and soft in the blue floodlights of the night.

During the winter, fresh green boughs covered the base. Each evening guards found among the boughs a few mementos tossed there—rosaries, crosses, sometimes bracelets and even dolls, probably put there by children.

But the boughs died out too fast in the warm spring days. The military caps and insignia that had lain there since the day of burial, last Nov. 25, had rotted in the rain and snow. They, too, were removed.

Mrs. Kennedy had written him a letter just before his term ended in February, saying that during his life, President Kennedy had been concerned about the security of Betancourt, who had survived five assassination attempts.

It was a moving letter. And it was a moving moment when Betancourt stretched his trembling hands over the grave. There on one hand were the scars from the burns he had received during one of the attempts on his life.

UAW Starts Campaign; Job Conditions Stressed

DETROIT (AP)—Leaders of the United Auto Workers Union appeared embarked today on a give-no-quarter fight to win improved working conditions in new contract negotiations beginning in midsummer.

These improvements, said Director Douglas Fraser of the UAW's Chrysler department, must expand the time workers get in relief from the "tedious and repetitive monotony" of the assembly line.

Fraser's views were echoed by Leonard Woodcock, a UAW vice president and director of the General Motors Department, and Ken Bannon, director of the Ford Department.

Fraser's UAW Chrysler Council finished mapping negotiations strategy and specific goals Thursday. The GM and Ford Councils extended their meetings into a third day today.

Woodcock told his Gm Council "General Motors can't offer enough economically to wash working conditions out" of contracts which will replace three-year ones running out with with the Big Three on Aug. 31.

★ ★ ★

UAW president Walter P. Reuther, however, has left no doubt the union will insist on not only on continuing but increasing the so-called annual improvement factor in current contracts.

★ ★ ★

The UAW classifies working conditions among "noneconomic demands." The auto makers say they would run into millions of dollars a year.

★ ★ ★

And Chairman Henry Ford II told Ford Motor Co. stockholders in Detroit Wednesday that "industry in general has impelling reasons for resisting excessive labor increases in 1964."

Restoration of Paint Creek Is Discussed

★ ★ ★

Under the temporary chairmanship of UAW-CIO President Walter Reuther, the Paint Creek Citizens Conservation Committee will be formally organized.

Reuther's home is on the stream.

Besides election of officers the 8 p.m. session will feature a talk by H. W. Postom, program director, Department of Water Supply and Pollution, U.S. Public Health Service.

Families living in the vicinity of the picturesque stream have been invited to the meeting, to be held at Lake Orion Junior High School, on Elizabeth Street.

★ ★ ★

Paint Creek originates northwest of Lake Orion, runs through that village, Goodison and Rochester and empties into the Clinton River at Yates Cider Mill in Avon Township.

STOP POLLUTION

The committee, which met informally in January, aims to prevent further pollution of the stream, to control erosion and flow of water and to replant its banks with evergreens.

★ ★ ★

One end result the committee hopes to accomplish is to restore the natural resources of the stream so that the portion in Avon Township Park can again be an "ole swimmin' hole."

★ ★ ★

Another aim is to purify the waters of the creek and restock it with fish thereby returning it to its former state as a mecca for area fishermen.

Security Tight for State Visit by President

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Stringent security measures were invoked today for President Johnson's speech at the University of Michigan.

Some 10,000 seats in Michigan Stadium were sealed off above the platform where he delivered the commencement address.

The fuel for the jet plane and for Johnson's helicopter was poured into two tank trucks at the airport earlier this week. The fuel was laboratory tested to assure it was not contaminated and the trucks were put under an around-the-clock guard.

STATE POLICE

Supplementing the Secret Service detail were 228 state policemen, including 28 squads of uniformed troopers and 60 detectives.

Troopers from every state police post in Lower Michigan were deployed in the Ann Arbor and Detroit areas, along with an unannounced number of local police.

Centennial's Climax Filled With Events

Tomorrow will be the candle on the week that has been Birmingham's birthday cake.

The city will mark her 100th year with a variety of activities ranging from the annual carp carnival for children to an address by Gov. Romney.

Highlighting the events will be the "Fountain of Fashion" in Shain Park.

The 45-minute style show sponsored by the retail merchants division of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

* * *

MODERN OUTFITS

Modern daytime and evening outfits will be shown by 35 ready-to-wear merchant members, according to Mrs. Marianne Barnett, producer and commentator.

Because tomorrow also is youth day of Michigan Week, many of the activities will feature children.

Opening the day will be the annual carp carnival at Quarton Lake. Contestants, who must be 14 years old or younger, should register on the east bank of the lake between 9:30 and 10 a.m. Award ribbons will be presented at noon.

* * *

A Jaycee - sponsored parade through downtown Birmingham will begin at 1:30 p.m.

THE ROMNEYS

Gov. and Mrs. Romney will be among the dignitaries participating.

Units will include the city's rolling stock, American Legion Post No. 14 color guard and locomotive, Ponies of America, the Michigan State Police, Army Mobility Command, the Redford Highlanders and Southern Oakland Girl Scouts.

The Oakland County Sheriff's Department will send its posse patrol, water team and safety patrol. Junior and senior high schools will be represented by floats.

* * *

MSU BAND

A 3:30 p.m. concert by the Michigan State University band will follow the fashion show in the park.

Capping the day's celebration will be the naming of the centennial queen after the concert.

Candidates for the crown are Tina Steele of 6735 Whysall, Bloomfield Township, representing Groves High School; Andrea Everett of 3095 Oak Hill, Seaholm High School; Frances Thurber of 1139 Emmons, Marian High School; and Janice Poplack of 515 Lake Park, Barnum Junior High School.

An all-school art show with some 1,500 objects will run through the weekend at Derby Junior High School. Hours are 10 a.m.-4 p.m. tomorrow and 10 a.m.-3 p.m. Sunday.

DANIEL W. BARRY

Enters Race for Reelection

County Drain Official Seeks a Fifth Term

Oakland County Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry today announced his candidacy for reelection to a fifth term.

* * *

Barry, 41, said he will seek the Republican nomination in this fall's primary, although no date has been set yet.

So far, he is unopposed for the post he has held since 1956.

During Barry's tenure, the drain commission has undertaken construction of the $40-million 12-Towns Drain project in Southeastern Oakland County.

This storm-relief drain, described as largest of its kind in the United States, is now nearing completion.

CONTROL OF LEVELS

Barry noted he has been responsible for gaining control of water levels on several lakes in the county to the benefit of lakefront property owners, and has announced plans to likewise control 14 more lakes.

The commissioner also is heading up construction of the $2.2-million Clinton River improvement project in Pontiac and of the $8-million Dequindre Interceptor sewer to serve 14 municipalities in South Oakland County.

* * *

Hospital Has Bed Problem

NOT SCHEDULED

"We don't schedule surgeries on Saturdays," he explained. "Weekend surgeries are all emergency cases. Thus, we don't schedule admissions on weekends."

How can the hospital be filled up, and still have empty beds?

"Some specialized areas are not always filled," Euler said. "Take the maternity ward, for example.

"The only people we can put in those beds are obstetrical cases. Thus, there may be several beds open there, while all other hospital beds are filled."

* * *

Occupancy in such specialized areas is down slightly this year, while the rest of the hospital is a full house.

"Over the past year, we've remodeled several areas to add a few beds," Euler said.

* * *

BOOKED SOLID

"Even so, we're booked solid in pediatrics through June.

Staff doctors have set up a committee to screen all scheduled adimssions. Those considered emergent are admitted first; then the non-emergent — if bed space allows.

So far this year, well over half of all the patients admitted have been emergency cases.

Stiffer Viet Policy in Resolution by Broomfield

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, said today he has introduced a resolution in Congress "to put backbone" into U.S. policy on Viet Nam and Southeast Asia.

Broomfield, top Republican on the House Foreign Affairs Far East subcommittee, said the situation in Viet Nam and Laos is "visibly deteriorating."

"It is time we became the masters of events, rather than prisoners of our own lack of policy," he said in a statement.

Broomfield's resolution would urge President Johnson "to use every means" to help South Viet Nam win the war against the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

* * *

It also would put Congress on record with the following declaration:

"Our nation is committed and must remain committed to the wholehearted support of freedom for South Viet Nam and its people and an end to Communist expansion in Southeast Asia as well as everywhere else in the world."

2 OU Graduates Chosen to Study at Cali University

Two April graduates of Oakland University have been selected to study at the University of Valle in Cali, Colombia this fall.

* * *

Both honor students, Miss Marjorie Hannah, 21, of 414 W. 13 Mile, Royal Oak, and Dennis Parle, 21, 244 S. Tilden, will receive tuition scholarships and automatic admission to the Cali university.

They will leave in September for Colombia and return next May or June.

The OU students are one half of an exchange plan between Oakland and the University of Valle under an Alliance for Progress program.

* * *

COMMITTEE

A three-man committee, headed by Herbert Stoutenburg, director of admissions and registrar, selected the former students.

Transportation costs of the exchange students will be provided by the Agency for International Development. However, the students will pay for their own room and board.

Miss Hannah received her bachelor of arts degree in teacher education. She was a Spanish language major.

* * *

Meantime, Parle followed a liberal arts program with a history major. He is a 1960 graduate of St. Frederick High School.

Stoutenburg said that he thought Miss Hannah would continue her studies in Spanish language and literature, while Parle was expected to study Latin American history, political science and philosophy.

The University of Valle has not yet announced its selections for the exchange program. Stoutenburg expected they would be chosen in time for the fall term.

Senate OKs Bill on Dates for Primary

Brown's amendment was passed 22-11 along strict party lines.

Lacking immediate affect, the amended bill — if it passed the House and was signed by the governor — would not become law until 90 days after the end of the legislative session. This would be later than the Aug. 4 primary.

Brown said he was relying on an informal opinion of Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley as a precedent to uphold the bill because it would be the legislative intent to hold a September primary.

The informal opinion said in part: "The terms of a statute may be given retrospective effect if the legislative intent that the same be done is clearly and imperatively expressed."

NOT FORMAL

Test Pilot Lands OK; PCH Grad

A former Pontiac resident, Air Force test pilot Milton O. Thompson escaped without a scratch making a forced landing in an experimental rocket plane yesterday near Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

* * *

"It was all pretty much routine," said Thompson afterward.

He graduated from Pontiac Central High School in 1943, and went on to attend University of Washington in Seattle.

An engine failure forced him to land his X15 rocket plane on a dry lake bed in the desert 30 miles east of the Air Force test center.

* * *

CAUSE UNKNOWN

Cause of the power failure wasn't immediately known.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thompson, he came to Pontiac last June to attend a class reunion.

A former classmate said Thompson mentioned at that time he no longer has any family in the Pontiac area.

* * *

He is married and has four children living with him near the test center.

PTA Council to Honor Teachers, Install Officers

BIRMINGHAM—Three teachers will be honored and new officers installed at the annual Birmingham PTA Council dinner Monday.

* * *

A guest of honor at the event will be Mrs. Annabelle Sumera, first grade teacher at Beverly Elementary School recently named teacher of the semester.

Also to be recognized are Mrs. Muriel Brusle, Barnum Junior High School counselor, and Mrs. Lelia Hudson, sixth grade teacher at Torry Elementary School.

Birmingham Schools Supt. Dr. John B. Smith will be the principal speaker. Other guests will include board of education members.

* * *

INSTALL OFFICERS

George Schmidt will be installed as president of the council, Mel Mermell as father vice president, Mrs. Floyd Abatt as mother vice president and Harola Jones as teacher vice president.

Other 1964-65 officers are Mrs. Benjamin Howes, recording secretary; Mrs. John Kale, corresponding secretary; James Germanson, treasurer; and John Dickey and Arthur Roller, officer principals.

Retiring President George W. Whitehead will be the master of ceremonies.

* * *

Music will be provided by folk singer Robert Rickard, Berkshire teacher, and the Berkshire 7th grade chorus.

The seven elementary schools in the Bloomfield Hills district will enroll 1964-65 kindergartners next week.

Hours of enrollment will be 9:30-11:30 a.m. and 1-3 p.m. Monday through Friday at Booth, Conant, Eastover, Hickory Grove, Pine Lake, Vaughan and Wing Lake schools.

Dorothy J. French, second grade teacher at Brookside School Cranbrook, will be honored at a 3-5 retirement tea at the school Sunday.

* * *

Miss French, at Brookside for 38 years, plans to assist with special projects at the school on a part-time basis.

Mrs. Hugh E. Nailing

Service for Mrs. Hugh E. (Guyora W.) Nailing, 52, of 190 E. Long Lake, Bloomfield Hills, will be 11 a.m. Monday at Newman's A.M.E. Church. Burial will follow in Oak Hill Cemetery, Pontiac.

* * *

Mrs. Nailing, a hostess at the Village Woman's Club, died Wednesday after a brief illness.

Her body will be at the William F. Davis Funeral Home, Pontiac, after noon Sunday.

Youths Held After Chase

City Pair Suspected of Stealing Hubcaps

Two youths suspected of stealing hubcaps led police on a wild midnight chase through the south end of Pontiac and then into Orion Township.

After a sheriff's car stopped them, the pair was held on suspicion of larceny from an auto auto and reckless driving.

The chase followed a complaint from Michael Burrill, 246 E. Blvd., who reported that two men were in the process of stealing hubcaps.

The pair, later identified by police as Randall Stiles, 18, of 84 N. Roselawn and Thomas J. Taylor, 18, of 302 Mt. Clemens fled in their 1963 Chevrolet when they saw a police car approaching.

* * *

Speeds of close to 100-mph were reported as police chased the youth's car through several signal lights and stop signs in the city.

Police said Stiles is AWOL from the Marine Corps.

Value of the stolen set of hubcaps is estimated at $80.

"The great society," he said, "rests on abundance and liberty for all. It demands an end to poverty and racial injustice but that is just the beginning."

CULTURED OASIS

Johnson pictured the great society as an affluent, cultured oasis, "where man can renew contact with nature" and where people "are more concerned with the quality of their goals than the quantity of their goods."

This would be a place, he said, of completely rebuilt cities, unspoiled countryside and bustling classrooms.

"In the next 40 years," he said, "we must rebuild the entire urban United States."

Johnson quoted the philosopher Aristotle that "men come together in cities in order to live, but they remain together in order to live the good life."

DUE BACK

The President was due back in Washington in plenty of time for tonight's annual dinner of the White House Correspondents Association.

Johnson, in his Ann Arbor address, announced he will create working groups to prepare a series of conferences "on the cities, on natural beauty, on the quality of education, and on other emerging challenges."

Syria Roads Get Face-Lifting

WASHINGTON — Two Syrian highways, worn thin over the centuries by the tread of crusaders, camel caravans, and now by cars, are getting a $14-million face-lifting.

Bulldozers, graders and cement mixers will lay new pavement to speed modern-day traffic through one of the world's oldest inhabited regions.

The fresh paving will stretch 225 miles from Damascus to Aleppo, then extend 100 miles east from Aleppo to Raqqah.

Because Syria lies on the land bridge linking Asia, Africa and Europe, traders, warriors and religious leaders have long criss-crossed the region with new ideas, cultures and faiths, the National Geographic Society says.

★ ★ ★

The main road ends at Aleppo, Syria's largest city. Camel caravans still trail into the important trading center with pistachio nuts from Turkey, rugs from Persia, camel hides from Hejaz and coffee from Mocha.

Licorice grows wild along Aleppo roadsides. The dried roots of the perennial plant are processed into extracts for the black candy sticks and for industrial uses.

The Aleppo-Raqqah road, though shorter and less important than the Damascus road, nevertheless transports staple food crops, grains, and cotton from the agricultural regions of Eastern Syria to Aleppo.

★ ★

Smelting Firm Continues Rise

Stock Mart Irregularly Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market showed an irregularly higher trend in moderately active trading today.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Smelting, which ran up 6½ points Thursday on news of its mineral find in New Mexico, pushed ahead fractionally as interest continued in companies with natural resource discoveries.

Texas Pacific Land lost a fraction of its 1¾-point rise of Thursday. A spokesman for the trust denied reports that it has land adjacent to U.S. Smelting's find.

★ ★ ★

Kerr-McGee oil added a fraction to the 1¼ it gained Thursday.

Price Range Firm for Grain Futures

CHICAGO (AP) — Prices held a firm range in the grain futures market during early transactions today with all commodities moving up major fractions or more on the Board of Trade.

Wheat led the gains at about a cent for some deliveries with the support described again as speculative.

At the end of the first hour wheat had turned lower at ⅛ to ½ cent off, July old grade $1.50; corn was unchanged to ⅜ cent a bushel higher, July $1.24½; oats unchanged to ⅜ higher, July 63¼ cents; rye unchanged to ¾ lower, July $1.24¾; soybeans ⅛ to ½ higher, July $2.50¼.

Painters OK New Contract

Union Pact to Cover Three-Year Period

Members of the painter union, which did not join in the construction strike affecting the Detroit area, have settled a new three-year contract.

Dick Kirby, business agent for the Wayne - Oakland - Macomb Building Trades Council, said this morning that members of the Painters District Council voted to accept new contract proposals last night.

The agreement affects some 2,200 union painters. Its main provision is a 20-cent an hour pay and fringe benefit increase for each year of the contract over the former $3.80 an hour.

Kirby said it represents the first long - term pact settled by the painters, who in the past have worked under one-year contracts.

Still on strike are 2,500 members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 58; 2,400 members of the Sheet Metal Union Local 80 and members of Tile Layers and Marble Helpers Local 40.

Successful Investing

Q) "I am 80 years old, no social security, no insurance and am trying hard to keep off 'Old Age Assistance.' I own Tennessee Gas Transmission, American Telephone, and New England Electric. What do you think of these? I am most concerned about American Machine & Foundry, bought years ago, which shows me a profit. Would you sell this stock?" E.P.

A) You seem to an indomitable sort of person, and if you are trying hard to keep off Old Age Assistance, I'm quite sure you will.

I like the first three stocks you mentioned, but I might suggest that by switching American Telephone into New England telephone you would substantially increase your yield with some loss of growth.

As regards American Machine & Foundry, this stock has been making a moderate recovery and now yields less than 4 per cent. There are risks in this situation, and in your position I would switch to Maytag, yielding 4.5 per cent.

Q) "I am retired, in good health, have excellent income and insurance protection, own my home and have $15,000 savings. Among others, I hold 100 Goodyear; 100 Weyerhauser Timber; 50 Cluett, Peabody; 25 U.S. Playing Card. I have $4,000 to $5,000 to invest. Would you advise that I add to this list or pick something else?" C.T.

A) All your holdings are of good quality.

Cluett, Peabody has been showing a fine growth pattern in recent years due to its expansion of Arrow products, its royalty income from the "Sanforized" trademark, and its move into retail merchandising. I think you might well build up your holdings here to 100 shares.

U.S. Playing Card is facing more competition but is still dominant in the field, and its strong financial position makes the dividend seem secure. I suggest another 75 shares of this stock.

LOCKS SHEARED — It took only a few minutes after this photo was taken but when barber Al Rade was finished clipping, the three watchful boys had a brother that looked like a brother and not like a little girl. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Grimaldi, 3511 Levee, Waterford Township, the boys were marched to Al's Barber Shop for long-overdue haircuts and the first for 18-month-old Edward (in the chair) 8. Next in line (from left) are Anthony, 5, Richard, 4, and Francis, 2½. The haircuts had waited for the new barber shop to open. The Grimaldis own the building.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Peekers into the future have new reason today to see everything coming up rosy. Some of the most reliable business indicators of things to come are taking on healthier glows after a period of hesitation.

Factory orders for durable goods took a big jump in April to a record high of $20.6 billion, a 7 per cent climb in one month. Although shipments also set a record, the orders poured in at such a rate that the backlog of unfilled orders advanced to $49 billion. That all but guarantees busy schedules for many factories for weeks and even months to come.

A happy factor in the flow of orders as spring got going is that it marks a rebound from two months of retreat from the previous peak in January. The February and March trend had given the prognosticators pause. Many feared that the upsurge in the economy in the final weeks of 1963 might be leveling off, or worse.

New orders strengthen earlier reports that industrial production as a whole was climbing and employment increasing more than seasonally. The record order backlog should keep output on the upgrade for May and probably June.

CONSUMER LEVEL

At the consumer level the prospects are bright, too. Personal income has risen to a new high of $483.1 billion, at an annual rate. Business translates this into more spendable dollars to be tapped for finished goods or for services.

Cash dividend payments rose to $1.13 billion in April, 9 per cent more money than stockholders got in the like 1963 month.

★ ★ ★

Merchants have come to watch dividend payments as an index to what to expect, or hope for, since many happy recipients of increased payments spend them quickly at the stores. Retailers of luxury goods often are the greatest beneficiaries of this windfall.

Others are the recreation and travel industries, and purveyors of personal services.

HOUSING STARTS

Housing starts are drooping a bit. Permits for future construction also slumped a little in April.

But housing experts warn that the industry is a tricky one, with month to month changes the rule and trends hard to spot. Some federal authorities have been expecting a slowdown in home construction, and especially apartment building, after the big spurt last year. Vacancies in many communities have been mounting, cooling the ardor of builders.

★ ★ ★

The consumer is still spending for other things, however. And the competition for his dollar is keen.

Cuba Seeking U.S. Accord?

Hint Spain Asked to Act as Mediator

MADRID (AP) — Diplomatic sources said today Cuba is exploring possibilities for a sort of friendly agreement with the United States through Spanish diplomacy.

These sources said Cuba, aware of the good relations between Spain and the United States, has been approaching Spanish diplomats in Madrid and abroad to seek a sort of "Modus Vivendi" (literally "a way of living") for Cuba and the United States.

They said nothing was likely to take shape until after the presidential elections in the United States in November.

★ ★ ★

Spanish officials, and officials at the Cuban embassy here, said they knew nothing on such reported contacts.

WELCOME CUBANS

Other sources said Spain welcomed the Cuban approach because an agreement reached through Spanish mediation would add to Spain's diplomatic prestige in the world.

Despite its outspoken anti-communism, Franco Spain maintains good relations with Cuba, where there is a large Spanish colony.

Spain has repeatedly told the United States it intends to maintain normal trade with Cuba for sentimental reasons, despite the U.S. embargo.

★ ★ ★

The Spanish Iberia Airlines maintains weekly flights to Havana. Spanish cargo vessels sail with goods for Cuba and bring back Cuban sugar for Spain.

Part-time workers comprise 45 per cent of all food store employes today in contrast to only 30 per cent were part-time workers in 1951.

May Refuse Bishop Post

DETROIT (AP) — The newly elected suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan indicated Thursday he may turn down the post.

The Rev. Dr. C. Kilmer Myers, of Chicago, told newsmen he was "not at all sure I'll accept the Michigan post." He said he doesn't "readily want to give up" his present job as director of the Urban Training Center for the Christian Mission in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

"It's a great honor to be elected to such a fine position as that of suffragan bishop of Michigan, but my present work is very important," he said.

Dr. Kilmer said he would discuss the situation with Michigan Bishop Richard S. Emrich, but "I can say for sure that I won't make a decision for at least three days.

TALK IT OVER

"I have to return to Chicago and talk things over with my wife and some of the clergy there."

The Urban Training Center in Chicago helps high school dropouts and organizes the jobless for employment retraining. Dr. Myers instructs both clergymen and laymen in job retraining and mission work in Chicago's inner city area.

★ ★ ★

He moved to the Chicago post nearly a year ago after spending many years in slum work in New York City. He has written several books on slum work.

Dr. Myers was elected suffragan bishop last Friday.

Judge Frees Comic After Hearing Act

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A judge listened to a recording of Lenny Bruce's night club act then acquitted him on an obscenity charge.

"If people want to pay to sit and listen to him, they deserve to hear what they hear," said the judge at the trial Thursday.

"Mr Bruce has a dirty mind and degrades the American language and morality," the judge said.

Knutson was describing a mysterious, piercing noise that awakened him early Thursday. The noise also set nerves on edge in other south Lansing homes.

"At first I thought it was my furnace acting up again," Knutson said. "Then I realized it sounded like a helicopter but... more compressed and . . . like a smoother running engine. I thought it was trucks on Cedar St., then I realized it lasted too long for them."

Police received at least six calls—starting at 3 a.m.—from residents who heard "a high-pitched, whirring sound," a "shrill, steady noise," and "like the music and noises on 'Twilight Zone' (a science fiction television program)."

SILVER METAL THING

One man said the noise sounded as if whatever made the racket landed. A woman reported seeing a "light-colored, shiny, silver-metal thing" in the sky.

After she calmed down her 10-year-old daughter Wanda, Mrs. Edward Cole looked out the window and saw the object in the sky.

★ ★ ★

"It looked like a great, huge bowl, sort of spinning," she said. "It was just over the tops of the trees and it kept moving away—not straight away like you'd think, but turning in loops as it disappeared."

Elmer Spper was returning home from the night shift in an auto factory when he heard the noise.

"I know it sounds crazy," he said. "I'd swear the thing landed over south of my place somewhere. The revolutions sort of slacked off, like a motor that has been tuned off. And then it revved up again for just a second and then quit."

Lansing police said they found nothing else to explain the noise.

Judy Garland Irks Promoter

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — Harry Miller, the promoter who brought singer Judy Garland to Australia for three controversial appearances, said today he was "through with the whole thing."

★ ★ ★

Miss Garland was booed by an audience of 7,000 in Melbourne Wednesday night when she showed up late and had difficulty singing, because of a sore throat.

The singer remained in seclusion today in her 13th-floor suite at a Sydney hotel. Two security guards kept newsmen and photographers from seeing her.

★ ★ ★

"I'll never bring her to Australia again. I've had enough. Even if she was desperate I wouldn't touch a Judy Garland show again."

MONEY PAID

Asked about members of the Melbourne audience who demanded their money back, Miller said, "It is out of my hands. The money was paid to Miss Garland at noon on the day of her performance."

★ ★ ★

Airline Has Good April in Freight

North Central Airlines (NCA) flights had a good month in the air freight department, but still couldn't manage to board an average of one passenger a day at Pontiac Municipal Airport last month.

★ ★ ★

That compares to 17 outbound passengers in March and 39 during April 1963.

Inbound flights carried only 11 passengers last month and seven the month before. There were 37 passengers on inbound flights in April a year ago.

★ ★ ★

Air freight provided the lone bright note last month. Outbound NCA flights carried 2,044 pounds of freight compared to 1,140 pounds in March.

LITTLE HIGHER

Freight on inbound flights amounted to 3,781 pounds in April, a little higher than the 3,743 pounds carried in March.

In other departments, outbound flights carried 857 pounds of air mail last month, compared to 1,480 pounds in March. There were 290 pounds of air express recorded last month and 608 pounds the month before.

★ ★ ★

Local NCA patronage for the first four months this year totals 78 on outbound flights and 50 on inbound flights.

★ ★ ★

Expert Dusts Off Old One: 'How to Be Happy if Wed'

By EARL WILSON

"I ascribe the high American divorce rate," says French psychiatrist Dr. Henri L. Vuillard, after a tour of N.Y., Washington and Los Angeles—"to married couples' failure to quarrel oftener . . ."

Wishing to be helpful, I've talked to everybody from con men to Congressmen and drawn up some "Instant Bloodshed" conversation-openers that'll start the battling without fooling around.

"You know my husband — the man who has everything—but lost it," is one line that gets me started. Some others:

When a husband says, "This is my new $300 suit," the wife should shriek, "YOU'RE KIDDING!"

Fat Girl Comedienne Totie Fields at the Copacabana tells me her husband, educator George Johnston, was studying the curves of the Copa chorines, when she said to him, "I thought I was the apple of your eye."

"Yeah, but a guy likes a little fruit salad sometimes," he said.

Mariners' Music Goes Classical Upon Request

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP) — Those who go down to the sea in ships these days—and under it in submarines—include Brahms, Puccini, Andre Kostelanetz, Tony Bennett and Margaret Whiting.

These, said G. W. Mendenhall, are popular requests on the 250,000 feet of stereo music he has taped as gifts for submarines of the Polaris fleet.

Mendenhall, senior administrator at Lockheed Missiles and Space Co., got the idea on learning that the Polaris sub Theodore Roosevelt had a high fidelity tape system. Mendenhall recorded 30 hours of music for that sub. He's been at it ever since.

"We've had no requests for the Beatles," he said.

MINIATURE MODEL OF NEW HEARING AID GIVEN

A unique free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has just been announced by Qualitone Co.

A true life, actual size, inactive replica of the smallest Qualitone ever made will be given absolutely free to anyone sending in this advertisement. Try it on in the privacy of your home, without cost or obligation of any kind. It's yours to keep free.

The size of this Qualitone is only one of its many features. It weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit. No wires lead from body to head. Here is truly new hope for the hard of hearing.

These replicas are free while the limited supply lasts, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost and certainly no obligation.
