Sunday Really 'Her' Day

Love Surrounds Mother of 12

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Love and happiness. That's what pretty Rosemary (Mrs. Edward) Brinker will be surrounded with on Mother's Day Sunday as she looks over 11 of her 12 beautiful, healthy children.

It's hard to distinguish the petite 112-pound mother of six handsome boys and six pretty girls from her three older daughters, and her face and figure belie her 42 years of age.

There is Patrick 1, Rosemary 2, Karen 4, Paul 6, Jim 8, twins Joan and Gene 10, Barbara 14, Susan 16, Douglas 18, Edward 20, and Patricia 22. They live at 4001 Burnet St., Commerce Township.

The day begins for the family at 5:15 a.m. when Mrs. Brinker gets breakfast and sees her husband off to work at 6:15. A little lull—then an assembly-line breakfast operation begins.

Later, when things quiet down, the energetic mother looks over plans for her Sacred Heart Guild, of which she is captain. For 10 years Mrs. Brinker was vice president of all of St. William's guilds.

Haircutting time is a major operation as Mrs. Brinker, a former beautician, gets down to the job of getting a "just right" crewcut on the boys. Susan takes over the curly locks of the girls.

Clothing has been no trouble because the Brinkers' many friends have provided good clothing outgrown by their own children and then there are hand-me-downs.

"Our children haven't had many brand new things, but they've always been well dressed," Mrs. Brinker noted.

"Bringing home the bacon" has been a big task for papa Brinker, who is employed as an asbestos pipe coverer. The favorite food of the teen-agers is steak and plenty of it. The smaller ones prefer hamburgers and French fries.

Brinker pays for 30 one-half gallons of milk a week; buys vegetables by the bushels, and potatoes by the 50-pound sacks which last about two weeks.

Then there is the dessert. Pumpkin pies are the Brinkers' favorite, and their mother never bakes less than 6 or 8 pies, "to last two meals," she said.

Hospital and doctor bills have been something almost unknown in the family. In January Rosemary had a slight operation for a cleft pallet, and that has been the only medical project of consequence.

Susan will be missed in the big household when she leaves June 26 for the Dominican convent at Adrian to devote her life to the church.

Douglas, too, will be missed on Mother's Day. He joined the Air Force and had to leave last Sunday but his spirit will be with his youthful mom.

County Spending Reduced $500,000 by Millage Cut

Oakland County will be forced to spend nearly half a million dollars less than expected next year as the Tax Allocation Board today chopped .24 of a mill off the county's requested millage.

An appeal of this morning's action in Pontiac, which will be formalized Monday when the six-member board sets preliminary tax rates, is possible. The reduction led to a brief verbal encounter in the year-after-year feud between Robert Y. Moore, veteran chairman of the board of auditors, and William J. Emerson, county superintendent of schools.

After the motion passed 4-2 to set the 1961 county tax rate at 5.15 for every $1,000 of state equalized valuation, Emerson moved that the board adjourn until Monday, to return then to set preliminary rates.

"What's the use in coming back," Moore said. "You're a one-man board. Why don't you just come in and tell them what to do," Moore directed at Emerson.

Emerson didn't reply.

The county said it needed 5.39 of the 15-mill taxing limitation to raise $11,280,441 of next year's tentative budget of $14,775,941.

Moore and County Treasurer Charles A. Sparks voted against the lower rate, while Tax Board Chairman James L. Gardner, Will J. Oliver of Southfield, Emerson and William H. Taylor Jr., new member of the board, voted for it.

After conferring with Emerson at a coffee break, Gardner, former Commerce Township supervisor, moved that the county rate be set at 5.10. This lost by a 3-3 vote.

Earlier, only Moore and Sparks favored the 5.39.

Later after a motion for 5.39 lost for lack of support, Pontiac

Castro Militia Halts Traffic Into Guantanamo

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Navy disclosed today that Prime Minister Fidel Castro's militia has halted all Cuban automobile and bus traffic into the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay.

Most of the 3,200 Cuban workers on the base have reached their jobs in the past by commercial bus and through car pools.

The object of the traffic cut off last Monday apparently was to harrass American occupancy of the 45-acre base.

As soon as the Navy learned that vehicular traffic had been stopped, all base buses were pressed into service and the workers were met at the main northeast gate and then hauled to work.

MSUO Keeps Hope of Adding Third Class

MSU Trustees Will Get Proposal; Must Shelve Trimester Plan

Some hope remains for establishing a third class at Michigan State University Oakland this fall, but it appears a new trimester plan will have to be shelved.

President John A. Hannah of Michigan State University said yesterday that "a proposal" will be made next Thursday to the MSU Board of Trustees which "somehow or other"—with approval of the trustees—should enable creation of the third class.

"But I'm sure the trimester plan will have to be postponed," he said.

Starting the new freshman class has been a big question mark since the legislature did not appropriate what MSUO officials said were sufficient funds to initiate the class and pay salaries of necessary personnel.

Several attempts by Rep. Arthur J. Law, D-Pontiac, and Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, to set up special line-item appropriations for MSUO met with failure.

★ ★ ★

Since the MSUO appropriation is a part of the over-all university's budget submitted to the legislature, if the added funds are granted by the trustees, a cutback elsewhere is mandatory. Hannah did not care to speculate.

Rep. Lloyd L. Anderson, R-Waterford Township, one of four local state representatives who voted against extra funds for MSUO last week, offers his explanation.

REFUSE PLAN

He said he, as well as three other Republicans, refused to go along with a plan by Rep. Dominic J. Jacobetti, D-Marquette, that would have bound the four to vote in favor of all increased appropriations for other schools if Jacobetti voted for the MSUO measure.

"This would have thrown the state into a deficit of about $30 million," Anderson said.

Anderson also said the four votes —his, those of Rep. Henry M. Hogan Jr., R-Bloomfield Township, Rep. Raymond L. Baker, R-Berkley, and Rep. William Hayward, R-Royal Oak — would not have been sufficient to provide the 56 votes for passage.

Law's proposals to give $286,520 to MSUO were beaten down 51-50 and 55-51.

Because of the pressure brought on him by his constituents, Anderson said he called Dr. Hannah last Tuesday to find out what could be done in the light of legislative failures.

GETS ASSURANCE

"Dr. Hannah assured me that there would be sufficient money to operate freshman, sophomore and junior years, and to open and operate new buildings on the campus when they are completed," Anderson said.

★ ★ ★

The university president tempered this assurance somewhat with his disclosure of the "proposal."

Roberts said it was his prediction that this would amount to about by more than $150,000 over the $892,500 MSUO is expected to receive as its share of the university's budget.

He said he had no idea where the funds would come from, but that it would mean that both MSUO and MSU would have to operate on austerity budgets.

The Oakland branch had been slated to receive but $12,300 more than the present year's budget. This put creation of the new class in jeopardy, according to D. B. Varner, MSUO chancellor.

Signs Reflector Repeal

LANSING (UPI) — A bill repealing the requirement for reflectorized license plates was signed into law today by Gov. Swainson. The measure provides that every motorist who can prove he paid a 35-cent fee for the plates this year will receive credit for it in the 1962 registration year.

TRUCE TEAM READY — Laos Vice Premier Phoumi Nosavan, right, checks papers in Vientiane as he sends off a government military truce team to hoped-for talks a week ago. Today's formal opening of the Geneva conference on Laos was postponed when foreign ministers of Britain and Russia could not agree on arrangements for a 14-nation parley on the country's future.

Pleads With Lawmakers to Accept Federal Funds

LANSING (UPI)—A last-ditch plea from Gov. Swainson to pass bills worth more than $25 million in federal funds greeted legislators today as they met to wind up their 1961 session.

Swainson urged lawmakers "to put aside partisan considerations and keep faith with the taxpayers of Michigan" by enacting the two measures.

One would bring Michigan under the new federal program of aid to dependent children of unemployed workers.

The other would add at least $5 million to highway construction funds if the state agrees to limit the number of billboards along the interstate highway system.

★ ★ ★

"These are not partisan measures," the governor said in letters to Republican and Democratic leaders in the legislature. "I believe that no legislator disagrees with the objectives of these two bills."

"To delay action now — in anticipation of a special session for which no reason exists — would be to deprive local and state governments of great savings that are available to them."

Both bills died automatically Tuesday night when they failed to come to a vote in the House before the deadline for passage of all bills.

Democrats made a move to suspend legislative rules and allow votes on the two measures but got no support from majority Republicans. Some lawmakers have talked of asking the governor to call a special session to enact them.

WORTH $20 MILLION

The ADC program is worth $20 million in federal funds, all of it to be used to relieve local taxpayers of the costs of direct welfare. On an average, counties would save 70 per cent of their welfare costs, the governor estimated.

"With local governments facing great pressures to raise additional revenue to provide for expanded services, the opportunity to secure $20 million in aid is one that we can ill afford to lose," Swainson said.

Legislators will spend the final day of the session in conference committees of the House and Senate, attempting to settle interchamber differences on some two dozen bills. They include several major appropriations bills and one to reapportion congressional districts to make room for the new 19th District.

Milk Price Bill Ready for Pen

Farmers Say Proposal Will Bring In $300,000, Based on Fee

LANSING (UPI)—A milk price-fixing measure approved by both houses of the legislature was ready for the governor's signature today.

The Senate and House reached agreement Thursday on differences in the bill, which provides $200,000 for first-year administration.

Farmers in the legislature estimated the proposal would bring in $300,000 to $350,000 a year, based on a fee per hundredweight of milk.

The bill requires posting milk prices with the Department of Agriculture.

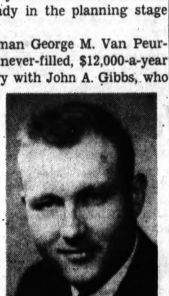
A $9,000 matching appropriation would be required under the Ford program, designed to give graduate stuents in law, political science and journalism experience in legislative work.

Gibbs May Become State GOP Executive Secretary

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

A move to reshape the Michigan Republican party, sharply criticized Tuesday by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, was already in the planning stage before his Detroit visit.

A month ago, State Chairman George M. Van Peursem discussed the new, and never-filled, $12,000-a-year position as executive secretary with John A. Gibbs, who has held a similar position since 1957 with the Republican Committee of Oakland County.



JOHN A. GIBBS

Some state Republicans, who have seen their efforts to regain a voice in state politics grow weaker by the year, see the possible acceptance by Gibbs as a step in the right direction.

Van Peursem said Gibbs "was one of several capable persons who have been interviewed for the job." Although he declined to say who he favors now, he lauded Gibbs' "tremendous qualifications" exemplified by his work in Oakland County.

Nixon tongue-lashed the state party in closed-door sessions with leaders, saying it needed a quick shot in the arm by establishing a Republican-oriented organization from the grass roots up.

The 29-year-old Gibbs has been known for providing the same for the county committee, demonstrated last November when it hit a near sweep of 24 out of 27 contests.

Soviets Demand Full Rights for Rebel Leaders

Cease Fire Confirmed by Truce Commission in Asian Nation

GENEVA (UPI)—The 14-nation conference on the future of Laos was postponed today until Saturday or Monday, and Russia threatened to cause further delays with a demand that the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels be seated with "full rights" at the conference sessions.

An East-West dispute over which Laotian delegation to seat at the talks caused the conference to be postponed only an hour before it was scheduled to open at 3 p.m. (9 a.m. Pontiac time).

The Soviets disclosed their views on seating the rebels at an improvised news conference in the bar of the press house.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's chief spokesman said three separate delegations from Laos should be seated with "equal rights."

Such an agreement would give the red-supported Pathet Lao and the "neutralist" Laotians parity with the western-recognized royal Laotian government at the conference table.

Shortly before the sessions were scheduled to start this afternoon a report from the International Control Commission in Vientiane confirmed that a cease fire exists in Laos.

Receipt of this report cleared the way for United States and British participation here, since both Washington and London had insisted they would not takep art in the Geneva parley unless a cease fire was certified by the ICC.

But no sooner was that issue resolved than an East-West struggle started on the seating of the Laotian representatives.

The minutes ticked by without any resolution of this question until about an hour before the 3 p.m. scheduled start, when a British spokesman announced the postponement without explanation.

At Vientiane, the royal Laotian government yielded to Communist rebel demands and agreed to hold all political and cease-fire negotiations behind enemy lines.

BULLETIN

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) Tony Bettenhausen, America's auto racing champion of champions, was killed today in a crash on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Bettenhausen, veteran of 14 Indianapolis 500-mile races and 23 years of racing starts was dead when guards fought their way through screaming fans to lift the battered car off a retaining wall.

Bettenhausen died in his 29th wreck.

He was making a test run in a car assigned to his old friend Paul Russo, with whom he shared second place in the 1957 Indianapolis classic.

Something went wrong as the car, Rodger Ward's 1959 Indianapolis winner, came out of the northwest turn.

The car leaped into a guard fence, wrapped itself in wire, and caught fire as it finally came to a stop atop the main straightaway's outside wall.

Weeping men and women rushed onto the track with some idea of helping. But there was nothing they could do.

Bettenhausen was the idol of speed fans.

Gibbs May Take Post as State Secretary

the asking, while Gibbs, Elliott's right-hand man, comes in for equal credit.

Gibbs, of 803 E. Third St., Royal Oak, himself was considered as a darkhorse candidate for state chairman last February.

At a meeting he said he will have with Van Peursem in Lansing next week, Gibbs said he would outline to the chairman what authority and responsibility he believes he should be granted before he'd accept the appointment.

In effect, he would like to be handed the reins to direct the staff organization, to include developing a program like the one he drafted for the April 3 election. The state organization thought so much of the plan that leaders employed it on a state level, although the results weren't as comparable as previous campaigns in Oakland County.

Gibbs doesn't desire to be just a figurehead with a title.

"My feeling is that you have to have some specific terms laid down; first, the development of a program and then action to implement it, and probably most important of all, the responsibility and authority to carry it out," Gibbs said.

Actually the new state job, for which funds are budgeted by the GOP State Central Committee, was designed for Gibbs. Former State Chairman Lawrence B. Lindemer had it created believing Elliott would bring Gibbs to Lansing with him as his assistant, had Elliott won the chairmanship. He declined to run for it.

Lindemer said he rated Gibbs "very high among the two or three candidates who could fill the bill."

Neither Van Peursem nor Lindemer would name the other candidates.

Elliott, who is reportedly thinking of stepping down as county chairman because of his candidacy for delegate to the constitutional convention, has pledged his wholehearted support to Gibbs' possible promotion.

"Jack would add a great deal of strength and ability to the state central staff," he said. "He has a very keen awareness of political problems and, most of all, he is a very dedicated Republican."

Elliott said Gibbs could add "tremendous impetus" to what Nixon sees as needed in the state party, carrying with him the philosophy of the county party, as explained by Elliott, that grass roots activity and more participation in decisions at this level can make or break a party organization.

Gibbs, who now earns $8,500, looks at it this way: "If he is out selling, you got to have someone who will tend to the store."

The 1956 graduate of the General Motors Institute and one-time Pontiac Motor Division employe also has been mentioned as Elliott's successor as county chairman. He appears to be looking with more favor on the state job.

Asks Harmony With Kennedy

But He Makes the Point Russia Is Confident of Winning Any Contest

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev said today he wants to get along with the Kennedy administration despite differences of view on social and political questions.

★ ★ ★

Stressing the need for peaceful coexistence in a world living in the shadow of nuclear weapons, the Communist leader said:

"Taking a realistic view, we have to live on the same planet, and we have to find solutions. We are ready to build up our relations with any country to safeguard peace throughout the world."

Though Western observers considered Khrushchev's speech one of the mildest he has made on U.S.-Soviet relations since the abortive Cuban invasion, he made the point that the Soviets are confident they "will win" any contest.

★ ★ ★

Referring to his desire to get along with the United States, he said:

★ ★ ★

"Although President Kennedy and I are men poles apart, we live on the same earth. Therefore, although we probably have a different understanding and a different assessment of the socialist system and the capitalist system, we have to visualize realistically, so to speak, that there are now socialist countries on our planet, which number over a milliard (one billion) inhabitants.

"We have to (visualize realistically) that there are capitalist countries, with a highly developed monopolist capital, and that there are countries which have just liberated themselves from colonial slavery.

"And of course we understand differently, apparently, these three categories of people, and have a different notion of freedom."

County Spending Cut by Millage Reduction

city commissioner Taylor, who had moved it, moved for the 5.15. This lost 3-5 but Gardner sought reconsideration. It finally passed.

Advocates of the reduction—33 of a mill below the 1960 tax rate of 5.48—reacted to Moore's presentation that the county had $620,000 in social welfare surplus carried over from last year. They expressed the belief that next year's welfare load would drop some half million dollars more than anticipated.

David Levinson, chairman of the board of supervisors' ways and means committee, which slashed the auditors' original budget from a millage requirement of 6.11 to 5.48, said the decrease would mean using all of the surplus welfare funds which were set aside for "emergencies," plus other cuts throughout the 1962 budget.

The slice from 5.48 to 5.39 was possible when the county's equalized valuation jumped 4.28 per cent over the 1960 valuation.

Levinson, informed by telephone of the board's action by Moore, said the county would have 10 days after the board sets final rates May 26 in which to appeal the action to the State Tax Commission.

County statisticians said preliminary rates for the 24 townships and 30 school districts wouldn't be prepared until this afternoon. They are set Monday also.

Further hearings are then to be held May 22 and 23 on the preliminary rates.

Moore was critical of Levinson's committee reducing the auditors' budget in the first place. He said, "If they had left it alone we could have been cut and still get our 5.39."

★ ★ ★

Levinson at the time said the cut produced "an honest, tight and realistic budget." He hoped schools and townships would follow suit.

When informed of Moore's criticism of him, Levinson, a Birmingham supervisor, said: "Being honest is wrong? I can't buy that."

Nelle Lassiter's Illness Necessitates Trial Delay

DETROIT (AP)—Illness of Mrs. Nelle Lassiter today forced an adjournment in the trial of her and Gordon Watson.

They are charged with murder and conspiracy in the 1959 slaying of her husband, Parvin, a well-to-do Royal Oak auto dealer.

Mrs. Lassiter, shaken by chills, was forced to leave the courtroom Thursday, causing Circuit Judge Joseph Rashid to declare a recess until today 1½ hours ahead of schedule.

Dr. Rollin C. Gordon telephoned Judge Rashid today that Mrs. Lassiter, of 19690 Beverly Road, Beverly Hills, is suffering "a physical and psychological reaction" and that she would "just go to pieces" if forced to appear today.

★ ★ ★

The judge indicated he may send a Wayne County medical examiner to check the condition of the defendant.

DELAY ATTEMPTED

Meanwhile, the state attempted to delay Judge Rashid's scheduled hearing of motions by two admitted killers of Lassiter who want to withdraw guilty pleas to second-degree murder in the slaying.

Asst. Prosecutor George Kent argued he had been tied up in the Lassiter-Watson trial and unable to prepare an attack on the motions. He said at least two weeks would be needed.

Mrs. Lassiter's attorney, Joseph Louisell, and Watson's lawyer, Albert Summer, fought any delay.

★ ★ ★

They claimed it would jeopardize the defense of their clients to delay calling of the motions filed by Richard Jones, 29, and Charles Nash, 45, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Traffic Accidents Drop 9 Less Than April 1960

BIRMINGHAM — Traffic accidents here last month showed a marked reduction over the total in April 1960 and similar improvement over the previous month, Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley reported today.

★ ★ ★

There were 44 accidents reported last month, he said, compared to 53 in the corresponding month in 1960 and 55 in March.

Failure to yield the right of way was a major factor in over one-half of all the accidents investigated by Birmingham Police.

Following too closely was responsible for almost one-fourth of the accidents, the police chief said.

All officers have been instructed, Moxley said, to be on the alert for these violations and to take proper enforcement action before erratic motorists cause more traffic accidents.

"By strict enforcement of these violations we will continue to reduce the accident toll within the city," said Moxley.

Moxley said 17 persons were injured in the 44 accidents last month, four more than in the preceding month.

Mrs. James McCullen of St. Patrick's Guild and Mrs. John O'Connor are cochairmen of the event.

Walter Schrott, director of the Birmingham Conservatory of Music, will be featured in a special concert at Marygrove College, Detroit, Wednesday at 1:30 p.m.

Eligible for Parole in Fatal 1933 Beating

LANSING (AP)—A 53-year-old convict serving a life sentence for the fatal beating in 1933 of a Detroit man during a crooked card game became eligible for parole Thursday.

The convict, Thomas Benson, had his sentence commuted to 80 years, making him eligible for parole immediately. Benson was sentenced in 1935 for the fatal beating of Franklin Dema, 75, on Nov. 29, 1933. After the beating, he fled from Detroit and was arrested two years later in Los Angeles.

Gov. Swainson issued the commutation on the recommendation of the parole board.

MSUO Professor Asks Updating of Math Teachers

A Michigan State University Oakland mathematics professor has called for the "retooling" of college faculties to bring high school mathematics teachers up to date.

★ ★ ★

Prof. Robert J. Wisner, of 700 Cambridge St., Rochester, said that most high school mathematics teaching as well as most college mathematics is old-fashioned, lagging a century or more behind advanced theories and methods.

Wisner spoke at the closing session of a regional two-day meeting of the Committee on the Undergraduate Program in Mathematics of the Mathematics Association of America in New York City.

His statements came on the heels of an about-face by the mathematicians on the question of the use of "teaching machines."

The committee recommended that educational television and the teaching machines be "vigorously explored and exploited."

As recently as a year ago, the mathematical scholars had derided such methods.

The so-called teaching machines are devices that store questions and information on various subjects and proceed from item to item only when student operators give correct answers.

Educators and state certification officials as well as mathematicians from 12 states attended the sessions.

Republicans Asked by Nixon to 'Clean House' in Michigan

In a ringing address in Detroit, and a personal interview, RICHARD M. NIXON asked Michigan Republicans to "clean house." The former Vice President advises the GOP to replace "the dissidents who live on a rule-or-ruin policy."

★ ★ ★

Mr. Nixon may be right.

Further, the personable party leader who was defeated for the presidency by a veritable cat's whisker says the Republican legislators are responsible in part for losing the Michigan race for governor in 1960 — and also in 1958.

★ ★ ★

For the better part of his time as Governor, G. MENNEN WILLIAMS was blamed for Michigan's political ills. The crown of thorns was deftly dropped on his vulnerable brow for it was the logical spot. Our unhappy economic climate was marked as his doing and he was a national scapegoat. The financial follies of the Wolverine Commonwealth were even mentioned in foreign countries.

NIXON

But as the picture unfolds, it begins to develop that financial and political ineptness were not confined to G. Mennen Williams. His political opponents are indicating that a portion of the blame belongs on their own shoulders.

Williams advocated many things which this newspaper did not believe and which we felt would have been detrimental. But the Republicans came up with nothing constructive themselves. They eked out a political existence on the dubious whim of adamant opposition to a Democratic governor.

This is a negative stand.

It achieves nothing.

At the same time, let's make it clear we believe that if WILLIAMS had ruled unchecked, the State might actually have faced the bankruptcy that was erroneously charged. The Republicans blocked a pie-in-the-sky program and the voters can be everlastingly grateful.

However, we feel the GOP is now overlooking some of the actual problems that confront us. There is a vast difference between wise economy and actual penury.

★ ★ ★

Nixon accused the Republicans of Bagwell's defeat (by only 41,000 votes) because the young MSU professor was not sufficiently subservient to the old line ideas. If true, Nixon's charge is a cause for everlasting shame.

★ ★ ★

The former Vice President also feels the "hard core die-hards were guilty of organizational cannibalism" which probably describes the MSUO dilemma as well as anything else. And, MSUO is just a small part of the over-all educational program which the GOP is torpedoing. The Republicans are letting collegiate education ease downhill. This is true statewide on a sweeping basis, however MSUO ultimately fares.

★ ★ ★

Even if John Hannah and the MSU trustees parcel out sufficient funds to keep MSUO's doors open again, it merely robs the East Lansing institution and it accomplishes nothing for general education in the future. MSUO still needs the "line item" desperately and the Oakland County Republicans have failed the voters there.

★ ★ ★

More money is needed badly and if it doesn't materialize, we'll watch Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin and other nearby states sweep past us in the educational parade. We've been forerunners for more than a century but we are relinquishing our proud position under the aegis of the "Republican caucus." Increasing education is a great national problem which Michigan does not face squarely.

★ ★ ★

Nixon wants to see the GOP revived through a grass roots organization that places the balance of its power in younger, eager and more responsive hands. He feels Pennsylvania, Illinois and California need the same treatment.

★ ★ ★

We've been plastered from coast-to-coast as a bankrupt state with a wavering vacillating government. Are we still tottering in 1961? Shall we start a constructive, forward program? This entails more money for more essential functions. Governor SWAINSON recognizes the need but he finds a GOP roadblock.

★ ★ ★

In the meantime necessary progress in education on all levels, mental health and other prime necessities stand unattended.

Mother's Day: When she usually cooks a bigger meal than other days.

It has been brought to my attention that a Pontiac area woman, of Lakeville, her township associate and former supervisor of Addison Township, where both Leonard and Lakeville are located, she has contributed more to that community in that respect than any other person. Each summer she has a swimming class of from 25 to 30 youngsters, and gives them an eight weeks' course under Red Cross supervision.

Ransford Bromley

David Lawrence Says:

JFK Dictates by Executive Order

WASHINGTON — A new form of dictatorship is arising in America. It is "government by executive order."

It means that, without the enactment of a single amendment to the Constitution or any new laws by Congress, President Kennedy can put out of business any company that refuses to obey the edicts he has just issued.

LAWRENCE

Every department of the government that buys anything from business—whether it be pencils or paper clips or typewriters or window shades or guns or mechanical parts of a defense weapon—must abide by the decree issued by the President.

★ ★ ★

Every time the government authorizes a purchase—even a subscription for a daily newspaper—the company must accept as a part of the order an agreement which says:

"The contractor will not discriminate against any employe or applicant for employment because of race, creed, color or national origin. The contractor will take affirmative action to ensure that applicants are employed, and that employes are treated during employment, without regard to their race, creed, color or national origin.

". . . The contractor will furnish all information and reports required by executive order No. 10925 of March 6, 1961, and by the rules, regulations and orders of said committee, or pursuant thereto, and will permit access to his books, records and accounts by the contracting agency and the committee for purposes of investigation to ascertain compliance with such rules, regulations and orders.

"In the event of the contractor's noncompliance with the nondiscrimination clauses of this contract or with any of the said rules, regulations or orders, this contract may be canceled in whole or part and the contractor may be declared ineligible for further government contracts in accordance with procedures authorized in executive order No. 10925 of March 6, 1961 . . ."

BIGGEST FEATURE

This extraordinary document has been received by tens of thousands of companies and individuals who do business of any kind with the federal government. But the most sensational feature is in the last paragraph, which says:

"The contractor will include the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs (1) through (6) in every subcontract or purchase order unless exempted by rules, regulations or orders of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity issued pursuant to section 303 of executive order No. 10925 of March 6, 1961, so that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor.

"The contractor will take such action with respect to any subcontract or purchase order as the contracting agency may direct as a means of enforcing such provisions, including sanctions for noncompliance."

The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution—from which the alleged authority in the whole nondiscrimination controversy has been derived—says that "the Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article." But President Kennedy has let it be known that he doesn't need any more laws on "civil rights."

He is using instead the device of the executive order, even though bills to set up a federal fair employment practices commission have been defeated several times by Congress. No law has been passed to govern the relations of contractors to the government or their methods of hiring employes.

So coercion and compulsion now are to be used to obtain compliance with executive orders and decrees, and the only recourse the injured citizen will have is to the Congress and his fellow citizens, who alone can put an end to dictatorial government.

In Dr. Brady's Mailbag:

'Growing Pains' Same as Adult Leg Cramps

Medical authorities have long believed that recurring "growing pains" in children were "symptoms of rheumatism, less in the joints themselves than in (muscles), nothing characteristic about them except their occurance in damp weather" — Holt and Rowland, "Diseases of Infancy."

The father of pediatrics, Dr. Abraham Jacobi, made more sense of "growing pains" than any other physician-author, I think. In the third edition of his textbook "Therapeutics of Infancy and Childhood," Jacobi said:

"The . . . term "growing pain" dates from the medical nomenclature of past centuries, and ought to have been dropped long ago. What has been called by that name is of variable origin and nature. Sometimes it is fatigue only . . . sometimes rachitical" (that is, due to rickets) . . ."

"Still, the large majority of attacks of 'growing pain' means rheumatism." The 3rd edition of Griffith & Mitchell's "Textbook of pediatrics," "dismissed growing pains lightly, thus:

★ ★ ★

"Growing pains" (so called) may be found as frequently in children who do not have, or who never develop, any other sign of rheumatism as in children in the rheumatic group."

★ ★ ★

Now, if anyone chooses to think I am presumptous when I present my view of "growing pains" with the views of medical authorities, let me explain patiently that I see such pain in a light which was not available when these recognized medical authorities were forming opinions about it—the light of our newer knowledge of nutrition.

And so I say they were all out of step but, you know me. "Growing pains" are one manifestation of calcium deficiency. Calcium deficiency is more or less inevitable in children or adults who subsist on a low calcium diet and or inadequate daily intake of vitamin D.

This is nutrition, not medicine. If you take calcium in any form as medicine, for a week or a month, don't delude yourself that I advise it.

Many mature adults suffer painful nocturnal leg or arm cramps rather than "growing pains," identical in nature with the familiar growing pains of children—a state known as tetany. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for my free pamphlet "Adult Tetany and Growing Pains."

★ ★ ★

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be read. Disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Overweight? Try Dehydration Diet

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

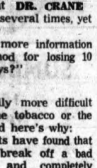
CASE H-483: Irene B., aged 29, has been married six years.

"Dr. Crane, I am 30 pounds overweight," Irene began. "And I am ashamed of myself.

"On my wedding day I weighed 122, but now it is 152, and that is far too much.

"My husband says it is easy to lose weight, but I've tried to diet several times, yet without success.

"Now I'd like more information about your method for losing 10 pounds in 10 days?"



DR. CRANE

DIET NOW

Dieting is really more difficult than breaking the tobacco or the liquor habits. And here's why:

We psychologists have found that it is easier to break off a bad habit suddenly and completely than to taper off gradually.

Thus, the cigarette smoker can quit all at once. The drinker can do likewise. But the dieter can't stop eating entirely, so he must taper off.

That means he still tantalizes himself by taking small portions of his former tempting viands.

★ ★ ★

But the two major problems in dieting come within the first three days. One of these is purely psychological and consists of giving yourself the elation of quick victories.

That was the strategy in the 24-hour goal of the alcoholics anonymous group.

My dehydration (low fluid) diet enables you to lose about 4 to 5 pounds the first three days and is thus a great boon to your morale.

Meanwhile, it helps solve the second big problem in dieting, which is to kill your hunger without use of drugs, until your stomach shrinks down to maybe half its previous size.

KILL APPETITE

Try this effective dieting plan: Drink only one glass (8 oz.) of fluids of all sorts the first day.

You may have two glasses the second and three the third. Thereafter, till the end of the 10 day period, stay on three glasses of total fluids per day.

This dries out your system, and helps kill your appetite, apparently by reducing the acid secretion of the stomach.

Meanwhile, women should limit themselves to 800 calories per day, while men may take 1,200. You will feel fairly full on this number of calories, if you stick to your low fluid input.

Also, try to avoid liquid with your meals, for drinks stimulate you to eat more. You'll find that doughnuts and sweet rolls lose much of their charm if you don't swig down coffee or milk with each bite.

Without fluids at meal time, you can more easily stay away from such high calorie foods as rolls, pie and cake.

INCLUDE PROTEIN

Both men and women should take at least 400 calories in protein foods so their muscles will not shrink. For protein is not stored, although the body has a vast surplus of starch, fat and sugar. You need a fresh quota of protein each day.

Cottage cheese, lean meat, peas, beans, etc., are good protein foods. So is skimmed milk, but don't exceed your fluid quota with too much milk.

If you are working hard, a single bite of candy between meals helps perk you up and maintain the proper sugar level in the blood. But allow for such candy in your total calories quota for the day.

Vegetables, such as raw cabbage, lettuce, carrots, celery, etc., have few calories, but are filling.

For further advice and a more complete calorie chart, send for my bulletin, "How to Lose 10 Pounds in 10 Days," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 6c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

'Press Was Right in Using Photo of Lt. Cmdr. Prather'

I wish to commend you on your excellent paper and coverage of all news events.

★ ★ ★

A recent letter in this column spoke about the regretfulness of using the AP photo of Lt. Cmdr. Prather. You were right in using it as this photo is worth more than ten thousand words when arousing the interest of the people to the way our military is striving for science and freedom.

If more of these photos were used, so many people would not still remain in the dark. I spent 15 months in the Korean War.

'Legislators Need Better Leadership'

Why can't our state appropriate funds for its colleges? The legislators say we do not have the money. If a state with the resources of Michigan can't support its colleges and universities then there should be better leadership among our legislators.

For years legislators have put political differences ahead of their state. They should study all possibilities of maintaining high stadards. What better way is there to defeat communism than to raise our standards of education? Many capable high school graduates desire to attend college but have been denied entrance due to the lack of appropriations.

★ ★ ★

These students may have the intelligence and creative ability to solve the constantly rising problems of communism which confront the world. We should be very grateful to educators who have maintained our educational standards on limited funds. All citizens should be interested in education and vote only for legislators who understand the problems.

Reader Protests World Government

The move to abolish national sovereignty seems to be gaining ground and agitating for complete surrender of all jurisdiction to a world court. One might see Red Chinese troops patrolling the streets of New York or Chicago and uniformed troops from Russia in Toronto or Montreal.

★ ★ ★

Groups are making an effort to hand over legal jurisdiction to the World Court of the United Nations. This movement is taking form of a drive to repeal the Connally Amendment, which has protected our National Sovereignty from encroachments of the one worlders. In 1945 Sen. Wayne Morse introduced "Morse World Court Resolution" and then recently by Hubert Humphrey. Maybe they were both kicked in the head by the same horse. The World Court is made up of 15 judges and nine constitute a quorum. U. N. General assembly voted Philip Jessup as our only judge and he probably had more to do with the fall of China to Reds than anyone. A Chief Justice is a Communist from Poland.

We would have Communist puppets sit in judgment on a nation they have sworn to bury. It would be suicidal to scrap the Connally Amendment.

'Medical Doctors Have Monopoly'

Shortages make for monopoly and they're often bad. Doctors can be considered a monopoly.

★ ★ ★

Blue Cross, socialized medicine, social security aid, nor any other plan will cure the shortage. There is only one cure: more doctors! Let the students go directly from high school to a medical college. Eliminate the preliminary four years. This should create many well-paying jobs for a couple of hundred thousand more doctors, also an equal number of jobs for technicians, nurses and orderlies. Then maybe we could get a doctor out to the house.

★ ★ ★

There would be competition among doctors which would be good. There would be more clinics where you could get a complete examination once a year. More preventive medicine would be available. This would keep us from socialized medicine and is the best cure for our medical troubles.

Mothers Disagree With Teacher

"Former Teacher" said if Johnny doesn't learn, blame the parents. We don't pay taxes to teach them ourselves.

If some of these teachers were to take a test in private, they'd never make it. I have a letter from a teacher criticizing the way my son writes (he is 7-years-old). What happened to the teachers who really cared if Johnny made it or not?

Mother Who Cares

All the lessons a child must learn are not from books. A child must learn to play and relax. When the teacher sends Johnny home with an armload of books, I resent the intrusion on my time with him as I am sure they would resent it if I were to take him out of school for a walk in the woods to learn of nature.

Let Johnny do his school work at school, so I will have time to teach him other lessons at home.

Without an unkind word.

Spaceman Sent Weather Report While in Flight

SCOTT AIR FORCE BASE, Ill. (AP)—Alan B. Shepard's remarks while on his suborbital flight were the basis of the world's first weather report from a man in space, the Air Force Air Weather Service disclosed Thursday.

Three minutes after Shepard was launched in a space capsule, last Friday he commented on the cloud cover over the Eastern Seaboard.

The second weather group at Langley, Va., AFB sent out a coded message based on Shepard's remarks from space even before he had landed.

'Priest' in Cuba Gives Warning

Tells Rest to Go Along With Castro or They'll Be Called Traitors

MIAMI (UPI) — A man presented as a Roman Catholic priest said in a broadcast over Cuba's official radio-TV network Thursday night that churchmen who do not cooperate with Fidel Castro will be treated as "traitors."

"I believe many priests in Cuba are deceived by false propaganda," said the purported pastor, who gave his name as Guillermo Sardina. "At this time, all priests who try to put obstacles in the government's line of march will be classified as traitors to the country."

Sardina, speaking 10 days after Castro had announced that only hand-picked foreign priests would be allowed to remain in Cuba, appealed to churchmen in this country to continue offering religious services.

"You will be respected by the government as long as you dedicate yourselves to religious tasks," he said.

Refugees reaching Miami said Castro's purge of foreign priests and nuns has so diminished the number of churchmen available for duty that services were being held only in Cuba's largest churches.

Georgia Tech Gives OK to Negro Students

ATLANTA (AP)—Georgia Tech has voluntarily torn down its barrier to Negro students.

Faced with the prospect of legal action, the famed Atlanta engineering school Thursday announced tentative acceptance of three Atlanta Negroes along with approximately 1,000 white freshmen. All they have to do to win final acceptance is satisfactorily complete their final high school semester.

Thus, Tech apparently will avoid the confusion which reigned last winter when two Negroes, Hamilton Holmes and Charlayne Hunter, cracked the color line at the University of Georgia in Athens. They were admitted only on order of a federal judge, who had to twice issue mandates that they be permitted to attend classes. The second order came after a campus riot.

School Board Considering Merit Pay Slate in '62

The Pontiac Board of Education last night approved a blanket administrative salary schedule increase of $21,297.

At the same time, board members indicated this might be the last year they would approve a blanket increase in pay for administrators. Board member Glenn H. Griffin suggested there might be some value in a salary schedule based on "enrichment."

James R. Jenkins proposed that the central administration investigate "a differentiated method" of paying administrators.

This all boils down to one thing. The board if interested in the merit system for administrative pay—one of the most controversial items in the field of education today.

The salary schedule granted at last night's meeting gives a total increase of $19,567 to certified personnel and $1,275 to noncertified personnel for the 1961-62 school year.

The present pay schedule totals $521,199. Next year's schedule will total $542,496.

The largest certified personnel pay increases will go to school principals and educational coordinators. Differentials above the base pay for these positions were increased by 2 per cent.

The schedule also will include for the first time a position of director of physical education, athletics and recreation.

The non-certified personnel schedule is composed of five positions; three directors, an assistant director and a stockroom supervisor.

The directors of financial management, purchasing and maintenance and operation will get $250 annual pay hikes at all steps in the schedule.

* * *

The assistant director of maintenance and operation will get a similar hike of $200 annually and the stockroom supervisor will get a $175 increase.

In considering the use of another method of paying administrative personnel a year from now, board members were divided.

Jenkins asserted that "the present blanket pay increase will bankrupt our school system."

"In an inflationary economy we just can't keep it up year in and year out," he said.

"The taxpayers just won't pay it," he added.

"Someday we've got to take a look at our people and their pay with respect to merit," he said.

Griffin agreed that the board should at least "warn administrators that we might not give a blanket pay hike next year."

Rev. J. Allen Parker and Mrs. Elsie Mihalek, were board members who questioned the merit pay system.

* * *

Parker said he felt it "involved personalities to a great extent and could be very demoralizing at this time."

The board voted 5-2 on the motion ordering Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent, to arrange for a study of the merit system.

School Board Plans to Meet on Monday

The Pontiac School Board last night announced it will hold a special meeting Monday at 5 p.m. at the Board of Education office, 40 Patterson St.

It will be to approve a notice of election, the ballot form, election inspectors and rate of pay for the inspectors.

Deadline for filing nominating petitions for the June 12 school district general election is 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Two board seats will be contested.

Total income of the University of Michigan Institute for Social Research reached $1.5 million last year.

Ah! It's Tulip Time in Holland (Michigan, That Is!) Again

HOLLAND (UPI) — Tulip time, that period when the residents of Holland prove their right to all the Van and Vanders that go before their surnames, will take place next week, from May 17-20.

★ ★ ★

The 32nd annual spring festival will feature:

★ ★ ★

The Klompen Dancers, street scrubbing, the Klompen Dancers, an art show, The Klompen Dancers, two costumed parades, miles and miles of tulips, and, of course, miles and miles of Klompen Dancers.

If the Klompen Dancers seem to be in command, it is only because they are.

Some 300 Holland high school girls make up the wooden-shoe dancing teams. They work much of the year for their jobs, but get to perform only once, during tulip time. They make up for it by going all out during the four-day festival.

★ ★ ★

The girls appear at least three times daily for free-of-charge performances. During the parades, Wednesday and Saturday, they stretch up and down the line of march doing their clack-clacking heel-and-toe routines.

Wisdom from years of experience has even taught the maids how to manage wearing the non-too-comfortable wooden shoes without developing bunions and blisters.

The secret is socks — lots of socks surrounding little feet in big shoes. Some of the girls wear as many as eight pair.

Tulip time began 32 years ago as a chamber of commerce promotion project. It has proved so successful that it is now incorporated as a separate entity and has made the community world famous.

Claims Vaccine for Measles Is Success in Tests

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A vaccine to give lifelong protection against seven-day measles has proved highly successful in tests, a Harvard Medical School pediatrician said today.

Dr. Samuel L. Katz said the vaccine had been tried on 4,000 children over the last 2½ years with great success.

★ ★

In part of the study, he said, 84 children, intimately exposed to the disease 2 to 16 months after receiving one shot of the vaccine, did not contract the disease.

In a similar unvaccinated group, 70 to 100 per cent contracted measles, he said.

Sandwich Snitcher Lacks Proper Respect

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A fireman at Pittsburgh's No. 12 engine house wasn't so clever after all.

One night he brought a nice corned beef sandwich to work. He put it in a refrigerator in a bag.

Hoping to discourage thievery, he wrote the captain's name on the bag.

Later, he returned and found the sandwich gone and this message written on the bag: "Hunger knows no rank."

Johnson Is Agreed on Plan to Fight Reds

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said today he had reached complete agreement with President Ngo Dinh Diem on how the United States can help South Viet Nam meet growing Communist guerrilla attacks.

★ ★ ★

The program includes increasing the 150,000-man Vietnamese army and bolstering it and civil defense forces with additional U.S. military advisers, but sources said no American soldiers are to be sent to this Southeast Asian battleground for combat duty.

REFUSES DETAILS

Johnson refused at a news conference to discuss figures or costs. Earlier it was reported the United States was prepared to offer Diem $40 million more a year in arms aid to increase his army.

The ruler of South Viet Nam is the first head of state Johnson has met on his tour of Southeast Asia as President Kennedy's emissary to survey ways of meeting the mounting Communist threat in the area.

★ ★ ★

Johnson said his meeting with Diem was "beyond any expectation I had. We reached complete meeting of minds regarding President Kennedy's and President Diem's idea of what ought to be done and how and where to do it."

Nine State Bills Become Law

Concern Builders and Drivers, Insurance and Tax Allocation

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson signed into law Thursday nine bills passed by the current session of the legislature.

★ ★ ★

Included were two measures exempting building contractors from the 4 per cent use and sales taxes on materials purchased to fulfill fixed price contracts negotiated prior to Dec. 13, 1960.

Other bills would:

—Permit a judge to return on a limited basis a driver's license revoked or suspended by the state police commissioner.

—Authorize the State Administrative Board to grant to St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Lapeer easement for installation of sewer and water lines through property owned by the Lapeer State Home and Training School.

★ ★ ★

—Authorize the executive board of the Legislative Service Bureau to direct the bureau to prepare and publish a township officers' guide.

—Require that each chiropodist applying for annual renewal of license present evidence that he attended a one-day educational program during the preceding year.

—Require that special taxes on low-grade iron ore be distributed to school districts and other units of government in the same proportion as general property taxes.

—Authorize township boards to adopt ordinances for the licensing and regulating of hawkers, vendors, peddlers and solicitors.

★ ★ ★

—Grant the insurance commissioner and the courts jurisdiction over insurance companies not authorized to transact business in Michigan but who do so via mail and use false and misleading advertising.

UAW to Open Sessions With AMC on July 6

DETROIT (UPI)—The United Auto Workers Union announced today it will open bargaining sessions with American Motors Corp. on July 6.

The talks will start one week after negotiations open with the industry's big three the last week of June. The AMC contract expires a week after the big three contracts run out Aug. 31.

Waives Nonrent Rule During Centennial

The Pontiac Board of Education has voted to break an established school rental policy, with certain reservations, for the Greater Pontiac Centennial Commission.

★ ★ ★

Upon request of various Centennial groups for extensive use of Pontiac Central High School facilities from now until June 16, board members last night waived a policy limiting use of facilities for more than three consecutive days.

The board stipulated, however, that use cannot interfere with established school programs.

It also ruled that no rent will be charged to the groups, but that any overtime charge incurred as a result of work required will be billed.

The number of union members in Japan totaled 7,077,510 in 1959.

Two Men Are Guilty of Drunken Driving

Two Pontiac men were found guilty in Municipal Court yesterday of drunken driving when they appeared before Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

Douglas Phlegm, 41, of 99 Wessen St. was fined $100 and sentenced to two days in the county jail, or 17 days in jail if the fine is not paid.

Donald K. Rosser, 25, of 108 W. Baldwin Ave. was placed on a year's probation and ordered to pay $100 costs.

Cuban Envoys Request Asylum

Husband and Wife Quit Posts in Mexico City, See Win Over Castro

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Two Cuban diplomats—man and wife—defected Thursday and predicted the struggle against Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro will "continue and succeed."

* * *

Antonio R. Montane and Gilda Portela de Montane, veterans of 24 years diplomatic service, quit their posts at the Cuban Embassy here and asked Mexico for asylum. Montane was a second secretary who ranked fourth among the embassy's officials, and his wife was consul general.

'RED BEEHIVE'

The Montanes said their embassy here is a beehive of Communist activity and a distribution center for Red propaganda going throughout Latin America. They said they were no longer willing to be used as Communist tools.

* * *

The diplomats, both Roman Catholics, said Castro's new campaign against their Church in Cuba was the final breaking point for them.

* * *

"I am also a mother and I see what communism is doing to Cuban children," Mrs. Montane said. "My husband and I cannot serve a government such as that of Fidel Castro."

Citizens' Rally Boosting School Bond Issue

OAK PARK — A citizens rally is under way here to promote a $3.5-million bond issue for a school building program which will be voted on June 12 in the annual school election.

Oak Park voters have approved additional taxes for school maintenance 10 times in the past nine years.

Under the organization of Supt. James N. Pepper, thirty people have already been named as a nucleus of the bond-promoting committee.

Representing each of the schools in the district as well as the various grade levels, they will be asked to enlist as many subcommittee workers as they can.

* * *

All administrators of the school district also are slated to work actively on the campaign.

If the bond issue is approved, the money will be used to build a new 55-room junior high school and additions to two elementary schools.

"We want to organize this campaign as well as possible," Supt. Pepper said, "because this is a poor economic year and we need these new facilities."

* * *

Previously, the board had announced that the district would require 109 new classrooms by 1965 to meet the fast-growing student population.

AREA NEWS

Warn Residents of Poisoned Meat —to Kill Dogs

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Hamburger containing a quick-acting poison is being placed on streets in the area of Oxbow Lake by an unknown person for the purpose of killing dogs, police warned residents today.

Police Chief Andrew Plano said that a patty of hamburger containing poison wheat was found yesterday by a resident in front of his home.

Plano asked residents to call his department if anyone is seen in the act of spreading the contaminated meat on area streets or roads.

The poison wheat, which contains strychnine and can be purchased in feed stores, usually for the purpose of killing rats, paralyzes the nervous system and could be extremely dangerous to young children if they got hold of it in the hamburger form.

Two dogs have died from the poisoned meat in the last year. Six have died from eating the meat in the past several years.

Freak Accident Burns Fireman

Romeo Assistant Chief Hurt While Fighting a Small Blaze on Farm

ROMEO — The assistant chief of the Romeo Fire Department was burned in a freak accident yesterday while fighting a small blaze about one mile north of here.

★ ★

John Foltz, 35, of 235 S. Main St., suffered second-degree burns on his face and hands. Another volunteer fireman, James Welch, 35, of 244 Morton St., was cut on the knee.

Foltz and Welch were hurt while attempting to put out a gasoline pump fire on the James Burlison farm at 71461 Van Dyke.

A farm worker, James Walker, 23, told Romeo state police that a spark from the distributor touched off a fire in a tractor he was refueling.

PUTS OUT 1 BLAZE

Walker said he managed to put out the tractor blaze himself but called the Romeo Fire Department when he noticed flames had spread to the gas hose.

Foltz was spraying CO2, a chemical foam, on the tractor when water from a hose manned by Welch hit the burning gas pump.

A chemical reaction to the water, according to police, caused flames to shoot out from the pump and burn Foltz who was standing 6 feet away. Welch apparently was cut by a piece of glass which hurtled from the pump.

Both men were treated by a local doctor. Neither was hospitalized. There was no estimate of damage to the pump or tractor.

Armada School Head Submits Resignation

ARMADA — Kenneth W. Stanley, superintendent of the Armada Area Schools, has tendered his resignation effective June 30, the date his present contract expires.

He said he did not ask for renewal and tendered his resignation before the board of education offered him a new contract.

At Avondale Tonight

On Tiptoe for Review

The last stitch has been taken on the costumes and every vocal number and dance routine has been polished to perfection for tonight's presentation of the 1961 "Cotton Pickin' Relvew" at Avondale High School.

★ ★ ★

The cast of 150 from the Auburn Heights-Avondale community has been rehearsing for weeks on the production.

It is being sponsored by the high school's Parent-Teacher Association as its one big money-raising event of the year.

Curtain time is 8 p.m.

A Dixieland Band made up of members of the high school band will play Southland favorites for the toe-tapping audience. Old familiar Negro spirituals will be sung by the high school Bible class.

Mr. Interlocutor will toss baffling questions to his end men and get the traditional smart answers right back.

The minstrel show will be punctuated with specialty acts, the funniest of which is expected to be a dance by the "Heavenly Heavies" as they are billed.

Has a Lot to Learn, Says Abby

Is He Sick or Just Ugly?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: When a fine young man called for our daughter this evening, my husband remained seated in his chair and didn't raise his eyes from his newspaper until I reminded him that the boy was standing there.

ABBY

After the young man and our daughter left, I said to my husband, "Sweetheart, I was embarrassed. I thought you weren't going to speak to the boy." He flew into a rage and closeted himself in the bedroom. He is 48. Is there a solution to this problem?

EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMBARRASSED: Your husband is either a very insensitive man with an ugly disposition—or he is not well. His age might be the "tip-off." Men, too, experience a "change" which frequently causes them to be irritable and quick-tempered. He should tell it to a physician.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am 10 years old and like a boy who is in my room at school. He is handsome, and I mean very handsome. Here is my question: If a boy calls you names and throws rocks and mud at you, but misses you on purpose, does that mean he likes you?

JUST ASKING

DEAR JUST: Probably. Unless he is a very poor marksman.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law is slowly driving me out of my mind. Her husband died nine years ago (before I met my husband), and starting with our engagement, through our wedding and the births of three children, she has turned every happy occasion into a funeral by crying, "If only Papa were here!"

I realize she misses her husband but, Abby, he is gone, and it's time she adjusted to it. New Year's Eve I had a party here and she sat in a corner and cried all evening.

The same thing happens on Christmas and the children's birthdays. How can I get her to do her crying at home? Or must I tell my husband to ask his mother to stay away if she insists on crying and depressing everybody?

YOUNG DAUGHTER-IN-LAW

DEAR YOUNG: Since you are younger than your mother-in-law, it's easier for you to adjust to her emotional spells than it is for her to adjust to her loss. Let her cry, but don't let her tears dampen your spirits.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I recently attended the wedding reception of a friend. We took a very special gift. But the thank you note we received was for the wrong gift. Should we let it go or should we let them know what our gift to them was?

MRS. M.

DEAR MRS. M.: By all means, let them know. Good-humoredly, of course.

BONNIE MARLOWE

To Compete With Seven for Title

One of eight semifinalists in the recent 'Miss Royal Oak Pageant' an official Miss America Pageant preliminary sponsored by the Royal Oak Jaycees, was 18-year-old Bonnie Marlowe, daughter of Philip Marlowe of Mohawk Road.

Candidates were judged on the basis of poise, personality and talent. Bonnie's talent contribution was a modern dance interpretation. She has been dancing since the age of four, has her own studio in Rochester and also teaches tap, ballet and baton at home.

★ ★ ★

Miss Marlowe will compete with eight other girls from the South Oakland County area for the Miss Royal Oak title. The winner will receive a $100 cash award, bronze trophy and a jeweled crown.

The pageant will be June 3 at Royal Oak's Kimball High School. Miss Royal Oak will go to Muskegon in July to compete for the Miss Michigan title and other awards and prizes.

A June 1960 Pontiac Central High School graduate, Miss Marlowe plans to attend Highland Park Junior College this September.

★ ★ ★

Veteran of many local television shows, she currently is producing and directing her own musical recital "The Roaring Twenties," slated for presentation at 7:30 p. m. June 24 in Pontiac Northern High School. Further details concerning the show may be obtained by calling or writing Miss Marlowe.

Here Are Some Exercises

Weight Doesn't Help Legs

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Question Box)

Q. "Please give me an exercise to develop the inner upper leg. I gained weight thinking this would help, but the weight landed everywhere but in this spot."

★ ★ ★

A. Do the following two exercises. Stand tall with your left side to the wall and your left hand on the wall for support (or on the back of a chair). Bend both knees slowly, all the way down. Slowly straighten legs. Continue. Important — keep your back erect. Do not bend at the waist.

Another. Lie on the floor on your back with your arms resting on the floor at your sides, palms toward the floor. Swing the right leg out to the right side just a little and then swing it across the left leg with a straight knee.

Continue, swinging out a bit to the right side and then as far over the left leg as you can. After a while, do the same thing with the left leg, crossing over the right.

Q. "Can hair reilly be restored with treatments?"

A. So far as I know there is no sure method for growing hair on bald heads. Sometimes hair grows back spontaneously and in certain types of baldness treatments are most helpful. These also can slow or stop falling hair in some cases.

If your hair begins falling out more than has been normal for you, and this continues, do not neglect this condition.

Have a physical examination to see if some organic or systemic condition is the cause. If an examination does not reveal any trouble, see a dermatologist and he may be able to help you.

★ ★ ★

Q. "As I've grown older my hair has been getting darker. Now it is a mousy brown—neither brown nor blond, and it has a few gray hairs in it. I have lightened my hair with peroxide mixed with water but this comes out a reddish blonde. Is there something else I could use?"

A. Yes there are splendid vegetable rinses on the market now. These are not permanent so that you can experiment with them until you find the color you like.

★ ★ ★

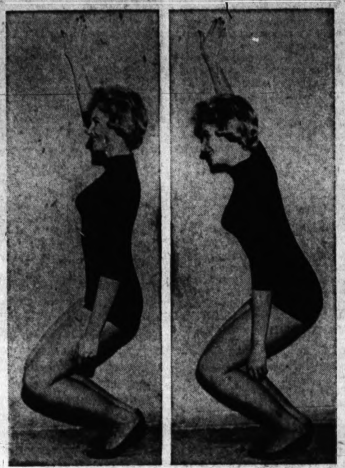
Q. "Please write about brown spots on the shoulders resulting from exposure to the sun. How can I fade them and avoid them? I still have these left over from last summer."

A. There are some bleaching creams on the market which might help some. Diluted lemon juice is also a mild bleach, but mostly it just takes time to fade the discoloration.

When you are in the sun this summer, protect your skin from the sun's rays as much as possible.

Apply one of the lotions, creams or oils before going into the direct sunlight, and wear a large-brimmed hat.

Whenever you have a choice, take your outdoor life in the late afternoon or early morning, and do not stay out too long.



Exercises are beneficial only if done correctly. This girl demonstrates the right and wrong way to do an exercise for the inner upper leg. Keep the back straight.

Give Grown Child Right to 'Talk It Out'

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

This week I have been so humiliated I cannot talk about it even to my minister.

The daughter in whose home I have been spending six months a year since my husband's death eight years ago has written her brother that I am so hard to get along with she wants to back out of this arrangement.

She's offered him $5 a week to keep me with him permanently. Is there no end to the hurts children give us?

ANSWER: Let's seek an end to this one together. Let's look at this child of yours. Do you suppose there's some fear behind that letter of hers?

Maybe. And the greatest fear a grown child can feel at the prospect of living with an elderly parent is fear that the parent will somehow obstruct the living of his life. Just as in our old age we can become terrified of a grown child's neglect of our life, the child can get very scared of our neglect of his.

Somehow he has the impression that we will reproach him by sulking or brooding if he doesn't live the way we think he should.

★ ★ ★

He finds us "hard" to live with, not because he hates us but because our silent or spoken criticism of the things he does or doesn't do is hard on him.

But he cannot confide these feelings to us lest they arouse more reproach.

But if we go to him, lifting this fear into the light, he may be able to admit it. He may admit it with hurtful accusations.

If we are brave enough to listen through to the end, we may work out our problem by saying, "All right, then. After this, whenever you feel I am imposing, tell me off instead of keeping silent."

To win his trust of this offer of freedom, we must first become aware of our own passionate wish to be allowed to be what we are; to move about, speak, get ourselves a cup of tea without the horrid sense of the grown child's secret resistance and criticism.

★ ★ ★

It is impossible to appreciate his fear of our secretly dominating demands if we don't know how we shrink from such demands ourselves.

So, if we suspect that a grown child resents us as imposing, let's prove that we are not. Let's offer him the freedom to protest our behavior openly whenever he feels like it.

★ ★ ★

No dominating person can ever endure protest. The moment we open ourselves to others' feelings and wishes we begin to allay their fear of our imposition.

Cubans Leave All Behind to Get Away From Castro

By JAMES R. WHELAN

MIAMI (UPI) — There are stories that no statistics can tell, and this is one of them.

It is the story of lawyers who willingly trade their fame and their fortunes for a dishwasher's job. It is the story of the penniless but proud.

It is the story of women who leave their men behind so that their children may breathe freedom and know God.

★ ★ ★

It is the story of those who turn their backs on everything they have ever known to flee from what Havana Radio trumpets as "the free territory of America" — the Communist Cuba of Fidel Castro.

It is a story told each and every day of the week in a small corner of the big and modern Greater Miami International Airport.

"I am not," the priest said, "a very emotional man. But there were tears in my eyes as I stepped from that plane."

The priest spoke for the hundreds who came before him and the hundreds who will come after. Your daily newspaper informs you about them, arriving here at the rate of more than 100 per day since airline service was resumed May 5 to Havana after a five-day blackout.

The story is not new. Refugees have been streaming into Miami and other American cities for months from Castro's Cuba. But now, now that Castro has declared open war on religion, now that the last vestiges of the old way of life fall before the onrush of communism in Cuba, and now that the air bridge is so fragile, subject to the whim of a compricious Castro, now it is a different story.

Now it is a story of desperation.

"You can see it in their eyes," Sgt. Lloyd Sexton said. "They're happy, sure they're happy to get here. But they're also afraid. Tense. They're wondering about the ones they left behind. And they're wondering whether they ever will get back.

Sgt. Sexton knows. For months, he and other deputies from the Dade County sheriff's office have watched them coming.

He say, for instance, the middle-aged woman who appeared at the airport for 30 straight days until one day her son was on the plane. (Back in Havana, as many as 400 persons were clamoring for seats on that plane. They had their papers. But there was a limit. And the planes are booked up through July 15.

The middle-aged woman and 200 or 300 others are at the airport daily when the loudspeaker says: "Pan American World Airways announces the arrival of Flight 422 from Havana, Gate six."

(Three days a week — when KLM Royal Dutch Airways has their flights from Havana — the wait is even longer, until the last passenger comes down the ramp of both planes).

No one knows for sure who will be on those planes. The crowds drop their dimes in the turnstiles and hurry to the observation deck for their first anxious look. A familiar face appears, and a mother or wife or brother weeps.

Then there is the long wait—30 to 45 minutes — when the passengers disappear behind the closed doors of customs or immigration. Down below the crowd waits patiently behind the police cordon, waits for the doors to open.

A lad of about 7 lets out a yelp and darts under the rope to snatch his four-year-old sister in his arms and carry her triumphantly out.

A stewardess aids an old woman carrying jars of fruit preserves. Sleeves are tugged and questions asked about relatives or friends, and sometimes the answers hurt. They did for the young woman waiting for her mother.

"Probrecita," (poor little thing) said the voice. "She died four days ago."

Four priests appear—among the first since Castro started his persecution of priests and nuns. Applause sweeps the crowd. It is emotional applause, the kind that hides a great deal and brings a lump to your throat.

Sgt. Sexton and his men—such as Officer Neil Lett or Harry Herrington — reach in their pockets and produce a dime for a telephone call. Or they find a cab for someone who can't pay. The drivers don't mind.

A newsman slips, a porter a tip for carrying one man's luggage.

"Thank you very much," the porter says. "But that wouldn't have been necessary." And he means it.

Finally the door opens no more. The ones who waited in vain drift away. But they'll be back tomorrow.

After all, what are a few more tears?

Small-Town Stuff: A couple of generations ago all we knew about the Russians was that most of them wore whiskers. And about all we've learned since then (says Hugh Allen) is that most of them shaved . . . A local man became a father and gave the baby a name that would remind him of his wife. Tech Students Will Sell Blood to Restore Cut

HOUGHTON (UPI) — Michigan Tech students said Thursday they are prepared to sell their blood in an effort to restore some of the funds the legislature has cut from the college's operating budget.

Frank Pallouconi, president of Tech's student council and spokesman for the 3,100-member student body, said that proceeds from "operation bloodletting" will be turned over to the college.

"Our goal is to raise enough money to restore one faculty position," Pallouconi said.

The state legislature has trimmed $69,000 from the school's current operating budget—equivalent to the salaries of 11 instructors.

Palluconi said the students are prepared to continue the program until the budget cuts are restored.

Working Women Dim Old Image of Housewife

BURLINGTON, Iowa (UPI)—The perennial image of the housewife sitting home and doing the housework is slowly disappearing.

Twenty-three million women, or more than one-third of all women over 14 years of age, are at work, according to the National Research Bureau, Inc.

A married man sometimes talks in his sleep just so he won't forget how . . . About the only people who approach a school zone slowly are the students . . . The trouble with success is that by the time you're able to write your own ticket you're too tired to go anywhere. Earl Wilson.

PNH Seniors Finish Exams

Final Tests Are Given This Week to Decide June Graduates Early

By BILL RAMSEY

Blood, sweat, and tears? Well, not exactly, but there was an extra load of homework for 300 Pontiac Northern High School seniors this week as the annual series of final exams came around.

As always, the seniors are tested several weeks before underclassmen.

Beginning Monday, two exams per day were given in the cafeteria. One hour and 40 minutes was allotted for each test, the first beginning at 8 a.m., the second at 1:30 in the afternoon.

Between exams students attended regular classes. The last examinations were taken Wednesday.

Senior exams are given early to determine ahead of time who will be graduating and who will not.

This doesn't mean seniors can loaf their last month. Seniors must still do creditable work for the remainder of the semester in order to graduate.

TEACHERS-TO-BE TRAVEL

The Future Teachers Club is making news again. Recently Barb Bayley and Terri La France traveled to St. Mary's Lake in Battle Creek for a three-day convention.

The occasion was the Future Teachers Conference of the Michigan Education Association.

New officers for the club are Linda Larson, president; Diana Haines, vice-president; secretary, Terri La France; and historian, Jackie Morris.

A short time ago the future teachers, with sponsor Mr. Glenn Cheek, journeyed to Eastern Michigan University for an all-day conference.

Press Awards Go to 4 Michaelites

By PAT BURNS

Four seniors at St. Michael High School have qualified to receive distinguished journalism awards.

The Michigan Press Association with the cooperation of the School of Journalism of Michigan State University each spring awards a Certificate of Merit to top students in selected high schools for work on both newspaper and yearbook programs.

Russell Greenlees, editor of the school paper, the Michaelite; Marsha Vanover, co-editor; Pat Burns, business manager; and Margaret Worden, art editor, qualified for the award upon nomination by the school adviser.

The awards are individual certificates bearing the name of the student winner, his school, the date and the signature of the president of MPA and director of the School of Journalism.

Certificates will be officially awarded to the students at the annual Athletic Academic Banquet, which is to be held on Thursday, June 8.

Excitement is beginning to mount for the juniors and seniors as they get in full swing for the annual semi-formal Junior-Senior Dance.

This gala event, "Evening in Paradise," the most anticipated of the school year, will be held Saturday, May 20, at Michigan State University of Oakland. Tickets are $7.

A buffet roast beef dinner will be served at 7:00 and from 8:30 to 11:30 students will dance to the music of a five-piece band, The Bluenotes.

The decoration committee, headed by Junior Jerry Martin is preparing to make the dance an Evening in Paradise with decorations of glittering mirrors suspended from the ceiling around a huge shining star.

A wishing pond, with a mirror bottom will be centered on the dance floor to create an illusion of fantasy and color.

The refreshment committee, headed by Diane Hope, will feature punch and cake at the dance. Heading the chaperone committee is Mary Ann Buckley and Judy Lamphere.

General chairmen of the dance are the junior class presidents Stuart Rindfusz and Jim Hurren.

Active Year Ends for Waterford GAA

By BARB SECAN

The Girls' Athletic Association at Waterford Township High School closed out an active school year this week with a party for children and a banquet for its own membership.

Having been very active throughout the school year with various sports, the Girls' Athletic Association plans to conclude their year sponsoring two worthwhile projects. With one already successfully completed they are striving to attain a similar result for the other.

Smiles lighted the faces of 25 underprivileged children last Saturday as they romped in the gymnasium under the careful supervision of Letter Club members of the Girls' Athletic Association.

The girls sponsored an entire day of fun and excitement for the anxious children from the Oakland County Youth Home.

Recreation began for the kids upon their arrival at the school at 9 a.m. They immediately were welcomed and led to the gymnasium by 20 girls, eager to make their annual "Underpriviliged Day" a success.

Games began with all the children participating under the leadership of club members. Following this, a period was scheduled during which the children colored and drew pictures.

SEE TALENT SHOW

Lunch for the group was prepared by G.A.A. girls except for ice cream, milk, and cookies, furnished by the school. Each girl contributed sandwiches, fruit, salad or some other dish.

★ ★ ★

After lunch all returned to the gymnasium for a sing-song, talent show, and cartoons. The program was concluded with the playing of a few children's games.

Every year the Letter Club arranges for youngsters between the ages of seven and 12 years to come for the day.

Sponsored by Mrs. Lois Pety and supervised by general chairman Julie Cobb, this event proved to be one of the most rewarding activities undertaken by the organization this year.

As a highlight of their active club year, the G.A.A. held its banquet on the evening of May 9 at Devon Gables.

During the event, next year's officers were announced and entertainment was provided for. The outstanding athletes' award was also presented.

The winner of this award was given a navy blue blanket bearing a huge gold "W."

ATTENDING CONFAB

As a representative of Waterford Carolyn Klender, the president of WTHS Y-Teens, has spent this past week in Denver, Col., at the Y-Teens National Convention.

Carolyn's trip was sponsored and paid for by the YWCA of Pontiac. The convention, attended by approximately 150 delegates from throughout the United States, is presently running for 11 days.

A recreation night will be sponsored by the student council tonight from 8-11.

The program for the evening consists of athletic activities in the gym and dancing in the cafeteria. Everyone is invited to attend.

St. Fred's Spring Prom to Have Aquatic Appeal

By MARY ELLEN DETMER

Decorations conveying the theme of an under-sea island received last minute touches this morning in the St. Frederick High School gymnasium.

"Ebb Tide," this year's spring prom, sets under the sea on a sunken island.

When the students enter they'll go through a coral cavern down to the island where they'll find an undersea world. Above them will be rolling whitecaps made of turquoise and white crepe paper.

In the sunken island lagoon will be found an old treasure chest, decorative fish nets, starfish, and the usual roving seahorse.

To give the illusion of really being underwater, two bubble machines have been set up. Providing the music will be Leo Johnson's Rythm Aces, playing from a coral reef.

Tuesday the Mom's and Dad's Club put on the annual athletic banquet for the presentation of the athletic trophies and awards.

Guest speakers were Danny Bolsture, assistant football coach at Michigan State University; Hayes Jones, from the U.S. Olympic team; Harrison Munson, from the University of Detroit basketball team; and John Shada, former basketball coach at St. Fred's in 1942.

Also present was the 1942 championship basketball team of St. Fred's. Presentation of awards and letters was given by Gene Wright, head coach.

Special awards in basketball went to Mike Reed for all-Catholic, all-league, and all-county honors.

Ted Dobski won awards for all-league and all-county honors, and runner-up for the Fr. Zwers award. Pete Vasques won a special all-league award.

For football, Jim Kennedy received the most valuable player and all-county awards, and Rudy Yapo took the Optimist Club award for scholastic and athletic achievement.

All high school correspondents are hereby notified that the last Pontiac Press school page for the school year will appear June 9.

Events occurring after that date must be covered in stories submitted for the remaining four school pages.

Pontiac to Offer Special Courses This Summer

In addition to the regular course of study offered each year in the Pontiac School District's junior high summer school program, a series of seven "enrichment program" courses will be offered for the first time this summer.

★ ★ ★

The courses are designed to meet the needs of students who are highly motivated and possess a real desire to participate in an enrichment program, according to Robert D. Boyce, summer school principal and principal of Washington Junior High School.

★ ★ ★

A fee of $30 per student will be charged and none of the special courses will carry regular credits.

Those offered include speed reading, typing, analyzing world news, summer school art, explaining mathematics and a teenager's approach to music appreciation.

"Each student would be permitted to take two classes with each class meeting two hours at 8 and 10 a.m. five days a week," said Boyce.

★ ★ ★

The program would run from June 22 - Aug. 4, if enough interest is shown to fill classes. Questionnaires have been sent home with students.

With the exception of typing, the material will avoid duplication with related courses in the current educational program.

Central Singers Staging Annual Spring Concert

By BARB GRIFFIN

"Say It With Music," Pontiac Central High School's annual spring vocal concert, will be presented next Thursday and Friday evenings at 8 in the PCH auditorium.

Although the traditional name, "Say It With Music," remains unchanged, this year's concert will feature many new ideas.

Vocal music instructors A. Michael Dempsey and Jerry Libby have engaged the aid of Charles Packard, dramatics director, in the staging of certain numbers.

There will be several backdrops used to make the songs of such groups as the senior girls ensemble and the Caribbeans more effective.

The Caribbeans are a new male chorus organized by Jerry Libby. Their Latin rhythms will add color and variety to the concert, such as the exotic "Coral Reef," written by Mr. Libby.

The combined girls glee clubs will present "Centennial Summer," a medley of appropriate songs in Centennial dress, under the direction of Mr. Dempsey. A soft shoe dance by Sheila Filipin and George Fed will be featured in this section also.

The choir, under Mr. Libby's direction, will appear twice; once in robes presenting sacred selections and again, later in the program, singing "The Sound of Music" and "Hey, Look Me Over."

Students presenting vocal solos in the concert are Mitzie Schroeder, Marlene Beale, and Tom Murphy. Piano accompanists include Jill Hicks, Deanna Relyea, Carol Wargelin, Joan Grahek, and Karen Bronoel.

★ ★ ★

Tickets are on sale for 75 cents from any member of the vocal department.

NAME THESPIANS

Eighteen members of the dramatics department were recently informed of their membership in Thespians, a national honorary drama society.

To be a Thespian, it is necessary to have earned at least twenty points either working behind stage or acting in Central's dramatic productions.

One or two points may be credited to a student for being a crew member and either five or ten for an actor, depending upon the size of the role portrayed.

New Thespians are Marcey Agree, David Austin, Marlene Beale, Betty Boone, Ron Boyce, Sue Dawe, Sherri Drinkwater, Sue Folsom, Barb Griffin and Ed Hasroutunian.

Others are John Hunt, Nadine Morris, Kathy O'Brien, Sue Putnam, Pat Rahja, Deanna Relyea, Minie Schroeder and Pat Wilkinson.

Officers of Thespians are Kaye Gaddes, president; Judy Whitmer, vice president; Mark Berg, secretary; and Connie Nichols, treasurer.

The new members will be formally initiated into Central Thespian Troup 499 at a banquet to be held at an area restaurant May 25.

Student Council Dance Is Tonight at Walled Lake

By SHARON MURDY

The last dance of the school year for the student body at Walled Lake High School will be held tonight from 8-11:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

Sponsored by the student council, the title of the dance will be "Bermuda Hop," with music supplied by records. This dance is the student council's project for the year.

The council plans to send magazines overseas to give foreign countries an idea of American life. So, besides being able to wear bermudas, students can get five cents off their admission for every magazine they bring.

No more than five magazines, worth 25 cents, will be deducted, but students may donate any number of magazines over five. The regular price of dances is 35 cents stag and 50 cents drag, so single students can get in for 10 cents and five magazines and couples only have to pay 25 cents and five magazines.

Lists of those magazines acceptable to be sent are posted in each homeroom.

This will be the last time at which students currently attending Walled Lake High will be together.

On May 19, Walled Lake High School juniors will sponsor the Junior-Senior Reception. This is a big party held every year at which the juniors entertain graduating seniors.

A surprise program with the theme "Rhapsody in Blue" will precede the dress-up dance.

Students Get Day Off at Bloomfield Hills

By DICK NETTKE

Today the students of Bloomfield Hills High School are in the midst of a long weekend while teachers attend the Schoolmasters' Conference at the University of Michigan.

Last night, the students and their dates danced to the music of the Thundertones from 8:30 until 11:30 at the "Sweatshirt Swirl."

This dance, put on by the C-Club of BHHS, gave the students a chance to brush up on their dancing before the big test of their endurance at the prom.

The prom will be given by the junior class for graduating seniors on June 3.

Final plans have been made for the annual Senior Skip Day which will take place on May 25.

The 226 seniors of this year's graduating class will have fun in the sun at beautiful Camp Dearborn. Transportation will be by school bus.

Annual Program, Prom Slated at W. Bloomfield

By CAROLYN MAVIS

Two big events are coming up at West Bloomfield High School in the next five days, one for students and another open to the public.

★ ★ ★

The latter is the annual spring concert of West Bloomfield's vocal music department, slated for 8 p.m. next Wednesday in the high school gymnasium.

Some of the familiar numbers that will be sung are selections from a Showboat medley, "It Might as Well Be Spring," "One God," and "Graduation Day."

All of the vocal groups will participate and the featured soloist will be Sharon Fleming, accompanied by Sharon Leach.

The prom at West Bloomfield will be tomorrow night at 8. The theme of this year's prom will be "Some Enchanted Evening," and the price of the tickets is $4 at the door.

All committees have been working hard on such decorations as a mural picturing Ball Hal, a volcano, palm trees, tropical birds and flowers, and a grass hut for refreshments.

The band will be The Delaras. Dance chairmen are Judie Pierce, a senior and Pete Vassiar, a junior.

Not all standard commercial fertilizers are of the same weight per cubic foot, nor do they contain the same amount of plant food. In fact, there is considerable variation in the plant food content of lawn and garden type fertilizers. Some contain two or three times as much plant food per bag or jar as others. So what ever you are using, be sure to read and follow the directions on the container.

Herbs Are Special in Garden Shop

BY JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Herbs have played an important part in man's life for centuries. Their healing powers have been known ever since man cultivated plants. Legends and superstitions have been associated with herbs. Authors have written about them. And modern gardeners grow them, both for appearance and for use.

Mabel Schultz (Mrs. Stewart Schultz) has been fascinated with herbs for about 15 years. Starting with the more common ones, she increased her varieties until now she grows about 100 different herbs each summer.

This hobby has had several exciting results. She has won a couple of "best in the show" ribbons for flower arrangements that included herb foliage.

PROJECTS

Last year, when the state Farm and Garden clubs restored the Edward Biddle gardens on Mackinac Island, Mrs. Schultz did the research on the herb garden and supplied the plants for it. Her current project is a Biblical herb garden at her church.

Latest result of her hobby is her husband's lawns maintenance store on Walnut Lake Road, her part of the shop is a bit of transplanted New England.

The store itself is a red brick building with white trim. The front door is colonial style. Inside, at one end is a fireplace of reused brick with a raised hearth. On each side, built-in knotty pine shelves hold vases and flower containers. Chairs pulled up to a round table invite customers to sit down with a cup of coffee—courtesy of the store.

In addition to seeds and plants, Mrs. Schultz offers dried herbs in jars, herb vinegars and books on the growing and using of herbs.

Interest in herbs grows every year, says Mrs. Schultz. She lectures to garden clubs and other women's organizations. Cooking with herbs is one of her hobbies and to her, food without herbs tastes flat.

Women are learning to appreciate herbs for their foliage which is unusual and beautiful. It can make flower arrangements more exciting.

While there are no new herbs—these plants are as old as time—our knowledge of them continues to grow. This and other garden subjects are discussed informally every Tuesday noon in Mabel's Herb and Garden Center, Walnut Lake Road.

Interested persons are invited to bring a sandwich, enjoy a cup of coffee and take part in the garden gab fest.

Dangers Can Befall New Seedlings

If you are raising your own seedlings there are dangers ahead. Light, air and a moderate temperature (about 60 degrees) are prerequisites. Artificial light overcomes one problem of plants becoming too leggy in basement conditions.

If you use lights, such as fluorescent tubes, keep the tubes two feet above the plant. Seedlings should have 16 hours of light, including daylight hours.

One of the most serious troubles is a disease called damping-off, which is caused by high temperatures or soil that is too moist. This can be reduced by using seeds treated against damping-off, and sterilized soil.

If you use sterile vermiculite, moss or similar substances, you'll have to add foods because these materials have little nourishment.

Recognize Trees As You Do Faces

You can recognize trees as well as you remember faces.

The technique's the same. Mark in your mind some outstanding physical feature for "association."

It's not difficult to develop a "memory" for things arboreal, says Robert Washburn, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co. Bark, leaves, twigs, pith and buds differ from tree to tree. Sometimes these differences are so vivid one kind of tree can be identified by its bark or buds alone.

Take birch. Almost anyone can identify the birch at a glance, although there are striking differences between various types. When two, three or more kinds of trees have similarly recognizable bark, but only one has thorns, you have the key to recognition when you remember only the bark and thorns.

You can paint your own mental portrait gallery of woody pets through other signatures. Fragrance, taste, color, form or even feel are some. Such fragrances as lilac or sassafras are olafactory delights never forgotten. On the other scale, if and when Junior climbs the backyard honeylocust, he'll remember it for years as a thorny experience.

You don't have to recall small things to identify the landscaping. Sometimes the method of sleuthing called "observing the tree as a whole" does the trick. The pin oak trademark is a main leader or branch extending to the tree top. Broad-topped or spreading trees, such as the American elm, have stems which divide into many divisions. Pin oak branches slope downward, those of elms upward.

Shearing Evergreens Is Springtime Job

Spring is a good time to give your evergreens a trimming. They should be sheared to keep them in size proportionate to their surroundings. Such varieties as arborvitae, taxus and juniper may be cut with little regard to new growth.

But coarser trees such as pine, spruce and fir need more consideration. Don't prune more than two-thirds of the current growth. You can distinguish the new by its lighter color.

There is an exception to the rule: P. C. Heintzman of the Dave tree experts cautions not to prune winter - damaged evergreens too early.

Expert Gives Some Tips on Lawn Mowing

In mowing your own lawn with today's improved equipment you will save yourself work and achieve a finer result by following procedures recommended by the experts. George Runge, who as research director presides over Moto-Mower's extensive test and demonstration plots at Milford, offers these six suggestions:

1. Keep your mower blades as sharp as possible. Dull blades shred the grass tips, which later turn brown.

2. Never mow your lawn while it is wet. Both reel and rotary mowers work best on dry grass.

3. In general, mow the grass when it grows to about ½ of an inch above the desired height.

4. Vary the path and direction of cut from time to time to avoid a patterned appearance.

5. Mow slopes and terraces up and down, rather than side to side, to avoid scalping.

6. Clean clippings off your mower after each use, and keep the machine properly lubricated and adjusted at all times.

"Your power mower is a precision-made, automotive-type machine," says Runge. "It deserves the same regular attention and service that you give your car."

Seven Insecticides Will Be Used This Year

A new and safer type of insecticide will be used on shade trees and ornamental plants during 1961. Sevin, a carbamate material, will control major pests, including elm leaf beetle, Japanese beetle, boxelder bug, tent caterpillars and soft scale insects.

Some of the other harmful tree and ornamental insects controlled by the new compound are bagworms, periodical cicada and birch leaf miner.

Sevin has been tested successfully in areas where commonly-used pesticides have given unsatisfactory results. It controls insects that have developed resistance to DDT and related chemicals. The compound gives rapid knockdown of Japanese beetles.

Last year, Sevin was applied extensively on roses. Besides controlling Japanese beetles, it is highly effective against rose-slugs, leaf rollers and orange tortrix pests.

The insecticide is available from leading farm and garden supply dealers in wettable powder form, and is mixed with water for use as a spray. When applied according to label directions, Sevin will be safer to use around lawns and gardens and will not cause injury to leaves and flowers.

It does not damage the delicate foliage of such plants as the maidenhair fern, redbud juniper and Chinese elm. Tests show it is less hazardous to humans, animals and fish than many commercial pesticides.

Studies have revealed that Sevin is less toxic than DDT to warm-blooded animals.

The new insecticide has been applied widely for control of many pests on fruits, vegetables and other crops. As a carbamate, it is unlike the phosphate and chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides, and contains neither phosphorus nor chlorine, explains Union Carbide Chemicals Company, manufacturer of Sevin.

Trio of Glads Gets All-America Award

It is claimed that the gladiolus is more widely grown and used than any other flower. For flower arrangements, mass garden display and to be grown in quantity for cutting, glads are unmatched in grace and color. And glads are as easy to grow as they are delightful!

The exciting news of the Annual All-America awards given to gladiolus, as well as roses, mums, camellias, annuals and vegetables, is anxiously awaited by gardners everywhere. The All-America testing groups are of untold value and are bringing to the home gardener better flowers and vegetables than he could possibly have otherwise.

Just announced are the All-America gladiolus selections for 1961 — RUSTY, GYPSY DANCER and CHINA BLUE. Beginning with the first All-America winners, twelve varieties out of hundreds tested have earned the Award, the nine previous winners, being, LANDMARK, LITTLE PANSY, JOYOUS, SPARKLER, EMPEROR, ROYAL STEWART, MAYTIME, CARIBBEAN, and APPLEBLOSSOM. Because of last season's unprecedented demand for LITTLE PANSY and LANDMARK, thousands of gardeners were unable to obtain these 1960 winners. They are available in larger quantities this year and the supply should be adequate.

Rusty is the first All-America "smoky" and what a glad this is — beautiful, big, tall and husky! Though a massive variety, the proportions are well balanced and dignified. The chocolaty red of the fluted, suede-textured florets, formally placed on long spikes, blends harmoniously into the subdued "smoky" color.

Rusty is a Canadian origination, having been created by Murray W. Fisher, Burlington, Ontario. At flower shows throughout the country, more often than not, the general public responds most enthusiastically to the smoky section. The All-America judges are well aware of this growing interest and are pleased to present the All-America Award to RUSTY.

The brilliant new introduction Gypsy Dancer symbolizes a gay, lively and supple gypsy in a carefree, dancing mood. Gracefully ruffled florets on slender stems are a vivid scarlet-orange with a sunburst of yellow on the lower petals. The color is fresh and vibrant, spreading throughout the flower as each floret opens. It is a fine cutter and very popular with the gladiolus fanciers. This new All-America winner is a creation of Carl Fischer, St. Charles, Minnesota.

Like a piece of rare china, treasured and cherished, China Blue has been prized and admired during its initial testing. With its formal debut, a whole new host of gardeners will join the cheering section. The color of China Blue is delectable, soft blue-violet — deeper at the petal tips, then lighter toward the center where a deep violet blotch punctuates the lower petals.

The over-all picture is extremely beautiful with a charm reminiscent of a fragile, antique, china vase. Here looks deceive as the flower has wonderfully heavy substance and is a robust grower. China Blue is also a creation of Carl Fisher, St. Charles, Minn.

TRIAL GARDENS

All-America Gladiolus Selections presently maintains 46 trial gardens in the United States and Canada, in every type of soil and climate. All North American gladiolus hybridists have the privilege of entering their outstanding new originations for the All-America Award, and recommendation by this non-profit, industry-wide organization is recognized as the most coveted Award for any gladiolus. Awards are not given lightly — they must be won against the keenest competition with new seedlings from all over North America.

All-America glads are sold at uniform, low prices by reputable dealers and cataloguers in all parts of the United States and Canada. The bulbs are packaged in bags, which bear the variety name, color description and the plant patent number. All of the All-America glads are protected by U.S. plant patents. Be sure to look for the AAGS registered trademark on each package as your assurance of genuine bulbs.

Plant Seeds, but Don't Bury Them

A rule of thumb about planting flower seeds: the smaller the seed the less deeply it's planted. Really tiny seeds like petunia and snapdragon are scratched in with a comb. A light cheesecloth over shallow seeds will help keep them in place for watering. Remove the cloth when shoots appear.

Don't plant seeds too close together or too deep. In general, seeds need be only deep enough to lie in moist soil with enough cover to keep from being washed out.

In heavy soils, plant seeds a little shallower than in very light soils. After covering seeds, firm the ground lightly, but don't pack it.

Bluegrass Lawns Must Be Mowed Just So High

Most home-owners mow their grass too close to the ground. Kentucky bluegrass will not tolerate mowing shorter than one and one-fourth to one and one-half inches. It is especially sensitive to closer cutting during the months of September and October when it is manufacturing food for the roots to store for winter survival.

Merion bluegrass should be mowed to a height of three-quarters of an inch. As a rule, never let a bluegrass lawn grow taller than two and one-half inches.

Grass Roof Never Needs Mowing

Erik Mordt isn't a man to let grass grow under his feet, but he doesn't mind it overhead.

His cottage in Port Washington, N.Y., is modeled after a Norwegian mountain log cabin where the roofs are covered with birch bark and then topped with sod and grass. Mordt, a 71-year-old twine salesman, cemented three layers of tar paper together as an undercoat.

In a cement topping, he stuck sticks to hold the sod in place. The roof turns green in March or April and Mordt never waters it. He got the idea during a trip to Norway in 1947 and installed it in 1949.

The advantages of a grass roof?

The thick sod helps keep the cottage cool in summer and warm in winter. He never mows his overhead lawn.

"The longer it gets, the better I like it," he says.

The end of a hoe handle makes a good shallow furrow — while the hoe edge is used for deeper planting of larger seeds.

New Texture Given Little Green Peas

What you need to know to start, renew or maintain a beautiful lawn is contained in a 24-page "Lawn Care Guide" just published by Moto-Mower, Inc. The booklet provides valuable advice on lawn care for home owners in all parts of the country, free from the usual "advertising" plugs.

Subjects treated in the helpfully illustrated guide include: The landscape value of lawns; lawngrass selection for various climates and various uses; starting new lawns, with seed and with sod; lawn maintenance, with recommendations for proper feeding, liming, reseeding, top dressing and aeration; tips on mowing; lawn weeds and how to get rid of them; and control of lawn pests and lawn diseases.

Prepared under the supervision of George F. Runge, Jr., director of the Moto-Mower Lawn Research Center, the booklet draws heavily on actual home-owner experience gained in Moto-Mower's 41 years of producing powered lawn equipment, as well as experiments conducted at lawn test centers in all sections of the United States

You can obtain a copy of the "Lawn Care Guide" by sending 25 cents in coin or stamps to Moto-Mower, Inc., 625 South G Street, Richmond, Indiana.

Annual U.S. railroad tax bill is about $1 billion.

Potted Flowers, Greenery Do Decorative Duty

Smart hostesses will tell you that table centerpieces are almost as important as menus. They save much time and planning by using such colorful potted flowering plants as daffodils, hyacinths, azaleas, geraniums, or kalanchoes. The pots are set in clay saucers, or in jardinieres or planters to match dining room or terrace decor. Many foliage plants which thrive best in clay pots, are also used for centerpieces.

Dandelions vanish, grass grows greener
Nothing can do more to turn a self-respecting lawn into a shambles than a bumper crop of dandelions like we're having right now.
BONUS® makes short work of these persistent pests. Knocks out other ugly weeds, too—like plantain, buckhorn.
At the same time, BONUS feeds grass a steady, protein-building diet. Result? Greener, thicker, stronger turf, unmarred by weeds.
Nice work for just half an hour. But that's all it takes to treat 5000 sq ft with double-duty BONUS and the precise Scotts Spreader. The time for BONUS is now!

AF Officers Snipe at Navy's Claims for Polaris

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Air Force officers are chipping at Navy claims that the Polaris missile-firing submarine is an invulnerable, sure-shot deterrent weapon.

And they are getting aid from some influential senators.

★ ★ ★

Air Force partisans at the Pentagon—concerned over the Polaris' high rating with the Kennedy administration — have contended the system was oversold; that it is a glamour weapon that yet must prove itself.

A string of failures in Polaris missile tests not long ago had some of these Air Force people saying, in effect, "I told you so."

SERVICE STRUGGLE

This is all part of the never-ending struggle among the services for a bigger share of the defense budget.

★ ★ ★

The significance was not lost on the Air Force when President Kennedy, in revising the Eisenhower administration's defense budget, recommended $1.34 billion to step up the Polaris building program.

★ ★ ★

At the same time, Kennedy asked only $96 million more for the Air Force's Minuteman intercontinental ballistic missile, deferred plans to emplace it on railroad cars, and scuttled the Air Force's pet project—development of a 2,000-mile-an-hour B70 bomber.

Secretary of the Navy John B. Connally said, in testimony recently made public, that there is every reason to believe the Soviets "are not nearly as far along as we are" in anti-submarine warfare. But critics say it is only a matter of time before the Soviets are able to search out and kill U.S. missile-firing subs.

VALUES MISSILE

Under questioning by senators behind closed doors, Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, called the Polaris a "most valuable" current weapon system. However, he said, "it is one against which, if history repeats itself, we can be assured that the enemy will develop a counter."

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., a former secretary of the Air Force, said at the same Senate hearing, "you can bet your hat" that the Soviets are turning "their vast technological capacity to try to be able to detect this new weapons system."

★ ★ ★

"And because a Polaris is a very slow moving object," Symington added, "if they ever do find out how to detect them, they would be in very serious trouble, indeed."

Equally skeptical was Sen. Clair Engle, D-Calif., who said that "if the Russians ever get a breakthrough on being able to see underwater, the Polaris will be just like a turtle going across a hot road."

QUESTIONS ACCURACY

"I have the feeling that you are oversold on the Polaris as a weapons system," Engle told Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara in questioning the accuracy of Polaris-launched missiles.

★ ★ ★

Along this same line, Symington said, "I am skeptical about the accuracy of the Polaris as against the accuracy of something launched from a B52 (bomber)."

Pressed by Symington, Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, declared, "We know it is accurate."

Death Takes Educator

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — George R. Staley, 87, former New York educator, died Thursday. Staley was former superintendent of schools in Rome and Oneida, N.Y., and had served as president of the Superintendent's Council of New York State and of the New York Teachers Association. He was born in Burtonville, N.Y.

County President of Big Brothers Heads State Unit

The president of the Big Brothers of Oakland County board, John L. Sterling, has been elected president of the Michigan Federation of Big Brothers Agencies.

And William L. Clark, executive director of the Big Brothers movement in the county, has been elected secretary-treasurer of the state group.

Clyde Grant of Lansing was named vice president in Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Elections were held in conjunction with a current Big Brothers of America national conference at Flint, which will be climaxed today with a banquet. Dr. Ronald C. S. Young, an educational consultant, will be the principal speaker.

★ ★ ★

More than 300 delegates from Big Brothers groups in the United States and Canada have been participating in work-shops and listening to speeches as part of the conference.

No Favorites Played by Nevada Policeman

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Traffic Patrolman Alden Barlow showed impartiality Thursday in issuing a parking ticket at Reno airport on complaint of air lines personnel.

★ ★ ★

He tagged the official car of Gov. Grant Sawyer for illegally parking next to a concourse. It will cost Sawyer $2.

Bank Head Admits Stock in Two Firms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold F. Linder, president of the U.S. Export-Import Bank, confirmed today that he owns stock in two companies doing indirect business with an Argentine government agency which received an export-import bank credit.

But he emphatically denied that any conflict of interest was involved in the credit, and said he had no knowledge of it.

The Chicago Tribune said Thursday Linder holds stock in three firms which have an oil exploration contract with YPF, an Argentine government agency which runs the oil industry there.

★ ★ ★

YPF received a $1.3-million credit from the Export-Import Bank and the Chase Manhattan Bank on April 11 for the purchase of $1.5 million in oil and water separation and oil metering equipment. The Export-Import share was $610,000.

Jail Fake Vicar for Officiating at 9 Marriages

LONDON (AP)—A bogus vicar was jailed Thursday for a year for officiating at nine marriages in the role of clergyman.

The prosecution claimed William Frederick Walker, 33, ex-principal of a private school, performed the marriages at two suburban churches last year.

★ ★ ★

Walker pleaded innocent, saying he felt entitled to call himself clergyman, to solemnize marriages and give holy communion because the bishop of London once phoned asking him to assist at the churches.

The bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry Campbell, testified he couldn't recall ever telephoning Walker, or knowing him.

Postpone May Meeting for Board of Education

The Pontiac Board of Education will not schedule another meeting until June 1.

★ ★ ★

The board usually meets on the second and fourth Thursdays each month.

Board members have approved postponing the May 25 meeting one week because official action should be taken to set the school tax rate at that meeting.

The actions of the County Tax Allocation Board and State Tax Commission will not be finalized until after May 25, but should be available by June 1. The board cannot act until the county and state finalize equalized valuation figures.

Brazil's President Slides Off Fence on Soviet Side

By EDWARD T. BUTLER

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Brazilian President Janio Quadros has dealt a stinging blow to Washington's efforts to enlist Latin America against the Fidel Castro regime in Cuba—and at a time when the United States is gathering up a massive lump of aid money for Brazil.

In a diplomatic note Wednesday night defining his government's position toward Cuba and the hemisphere, Brazil's new neutralist-line president made clear he wants the United States to keep hands off Cuba.

★ ★ ★

He also made clear that he does not regard the Castro regime as a member of the Communist bloc, as the United States does.

The question now is how many other South American nations will take Quadros' viewpoint. If many other key nations do, any U.S. effort for collective hemisphere action against Cuba seems doomed.

Brazil's position on Cuba, as explained by Foreign Minister Afonso Arinos, is to oppose any foreign intervention, direct or indirect, be it military, economic or ideological.

AGAINST U.S.

This could be applied to Red China or the Soviet Union. But the tone of the Brazilian note was clearly against any U.S. intervention.

★ ★ ★

Quadros took this stand despite growing pressure from the Roman Catholic church, big segments in Congress, intellectuals and the press to put Brazil on record in opposition to what many here consider a Communist regime in Cuba.

But Quadros is also aware of Northwest Brazil — a tremendous area of impoverishment that has starved while the country's ruling class waxed fat.

★ ★ ★

Washington, finally alarmed at the threat of a Castro-type revolution in Northwest Brazil, is preparing to send several hundred million dollars worth of aid to Quadros to help that section. U.S. officials have emphasized that Quadros would get the money no matter what position he took on Cuba. But they obviously expected him to stay on the fence at least.

★ ★ ★

He didn't. But until he can start pouring U.S. dollars into the hungry, poverty-stricken backlands, he cannot take a stand that even appears to condemn Castro, the hero of the downtrodden masses of Latin America, including Brazil.

Soviet Defeats Itself in Scrap (Shipping)

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda said Thursday that freight trains are speeding back and forth across this country carrying scrap metal to factories which have just shipped away surplus scrap metal.

★ ★ ★

The paper said the reason for this mixup is the fact that various government departments are not coordinating their efforts.

★ ★ ★

"Raw material goes into one gate of a factory while similar raw material is going out at another gate," said Pravda, denouncing the officials responsible.

"If their own pockets would suffer from this, they would have made changes long ago."

Berkley Man to Get University Citation

J. Fred Lawton Sr., of 1811 Wiltshire, Berkley, cocomposer of "Varsity," the University of Michigan fight song, received a special Regents' Citation of Honor at the University's honors convocation this morning in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor.

★ ★ ★

Lawton, 73, helped compose the song in 1911. He has since written many poems and sings for U. of M. events.

Syria Kills Spy Ring Operating for Turks

Frank Stodgell Gets GM Watch in City Hospital

Completing 23 years as a Pontiac Motor Division employe, Frank Stodgell, 65, of 126 N. Josephine St., Waterford Township received the traditional gold watch from the company yesterday.

The difference was, the presentation took place at bedside in the intensive care unit of Pontiac General Hospital, where Stodgell is seriously ill.

A group of hospital employes applauded quietly after the smiling patient received the watch from C. L. Clough, his supervisor. Stodgell works in the core room.

Give Honorary Degree to GM Chairman Donner

Frederic G. Donner, chairman of the board of General Motors Corp., today received an honorary doctor of law degree from the University of Michigan at its honors convocation.

Donner, who lives in Port Washington, L.I., N.Y., was cited as "the mirror of a scholar and humanist."

Also receiving a doctor of law degree was famed British historian Arnold J. Toynbee, who was the convocation speaker.

Truck Carrying Steel Hits Bus

6 Children Hospitalized; Tractor-Trailer Tries to Pass at Tracks

A school bus loaded with 30 children was hit by a tractor-trailer hauling 50,000 pounds of drawn steel on Telegraph Road in the city yesterday afternoon, sending six youngsters to the hospital.

★ ★ ★

The injured children were released from Pontiac General Hospital later in the day after undergoing treatment. None were seriously hurt.

The truck driver, Lawrence Dysors, 34, of Garden City, said he saw the bus was stopped at railroad tracks ahead of him and decided to pass it in the left lane.

He told police that when he pulled out from behind the bus he found a stopped car blocking his path.

He said he swerved the huge rig in an effort to avoid hitting the car, but was unable to miss striking the school bus a glancing blow in the rear.

Dysors was released after giving his statement to officers, since there is no city ordinance putting the state school bus law into effect in Pontiac.

Outside the city, state law specifies that vehicles must stop in all directions when a school bus stops.

Youngsters treated at the hospital for minor injuries were: William Merriman, 9, 321 Dick St.; Debbie Frank, 11, 100 S. Johnson St.; James Grant, 11, 103 Lincoln St.; Anna Purdy, 9, 205 Linden Ave.; Bobby Levin, 8, 264 Starr St.; and Jennifer Dowdy, 8, 47 Thorpe St.

The school bus driver, Clifford Jewel Jr., 33, of 3160 Davidson Lake Road, said he didn't see the tractor-trailer bearing down on the bus.

Both drivers escaped injuries.

Con-Con Election Days to Be Partial Holidays

It will be a partial holiday July 25 and Sept. 12 when delegates to the Oct. 3 constitutional convention are nominated and elected, respectively.

Courts and banks will be closed and sale of liquor will be banned while the polls are open.

Tigers Open Big Series at New York

Lary Will Hurl Opener Tonight, Regan Follows

Lead Cut to 2½ in 9-4 Loss to Washington as Fischer Falters

DETROIT (AP) — The time has come to separate the men from the boys in the American League pennant race.

The battle for first place begins tonight in Yankee Stadium at New York. The contestants are the second place New York Yankees and the leading Detroit Tigers, who were supposed to be lucky to get into the first division.

For now, anyway, the Yankees have the task of dislodging the Tigers, whose grip on first place slipped to 2½ games yesterday when they lost to the Washington Senators, 9-4, at Tiger Stadium. It was a game the Tigers would have won with decent pitching, but manager Bob Scheffing tried to peek past the usually impotent Senators.

He sent Bill Fischer, a none-too-successful relief pitcher, out to start, and for four innings it looked like a good move.

★ ★ ★

But Fischer collapsed in the fifth. He loaded the bases on two singles and a walk, and Billy Klaus, hitting .095, unloaded them with a home run over the right field fence.

Fischer walked Danny O'Connell and Scheffing brought in Hank Aguirre. Gene Woodling rapped a two-run homer and ball game was gone.

It was anticlimactic when Dale Long homered off Jim Donohue in the sixth and the Senators added single runs in the seventh and eighth off Donohue and Terry Fox.

The Tigers had one punch left. Ozzie Virgil, hitting for Aguirre in the fifth, socked a home run. But that was the only run the Tigers scored off Marty Kutyna, who came on in the fifth after starter John Gabler yielded three runs and seven hits.

★ ★ ★

Scheffing was trying to save his pitchers for the four-game Yankee series, but ended up using Aguirre, Donohue and Fox after Fischer faltered.

Frank Lary, whose 24-8 record against New York makes him the best Yankee-killer of them all, opens the series tonight against Art Ditmar. Scheffing named Phil Regan for Saturday's game and will have Don Mossi and either Paul Foytack or Jim Bunning for Sunday's doubleheader.

The Yankee starters for the Saturday and Sunday contests likely will be Bob Turley, Whitey Ford and Ralph Terry.

The Tigers could do no better than a series split against the Senators.

Elks Meet Resumes

The Elks Mixed Doubles Tournament starts another weekend of action tomorrow at Lodge 810. Martha Thorne and Norm Andress of Pontiac have led since the start at 1327.

Michigan Nine Begins Crucial Loop Weekend

CHICAGO (UPI)—Minnesota and Michigan risk their chances for the Big Ten baseball title against first division challengers in Saturday doubleheaders to highlight the weekend conference diamond schedule.

The Gophers, trying to become the first team ever to win the conference crown for a fourth straight year, currently hold first place with an 8-1 record and today play Purdue, tied for last place with Wisconsin and Michigan State, all with 2-6 records.

But Saturday Minnesota faces fourth place Illinois, 4-3, and the Illini coach, Leo Ellibracht, predicted a win for his club in at least one of the two matches since his "pitching is pretty good and our hitting is coming around."

Michigan, the only other team with one loss, in second place with a 5-1 mark, faces Wisconsin today but tomorrow must meet fifth place Northwestern, 4-5, twice.

★ ★ ★

Third place Indiana, with a 6-2 record, has a three-game series at home against seventh place Ohio State, 2-4, and should Michigan and Minnesota topple, the Hoosiers could move into contention with a sweep.

Illinois is at Iowa and Northwestern at Michigan State in other games today while Purdue will be at Iowa and Wisconsin at Michigan State to wrap up the Saturday program.

'500' Time Trials to Start Tomorrow

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A possibility of track records, two spectacular "rookies" and the constant threat of disaster will pull upwards of 100,000 speed buffs to the huge Indianapolis Motor Speedway Saturday for the opening session of time trials for the Golden Anniversary 500-mile race May 30.

It will be only the first of four qualifying days but the most popular because the faster driver-car combinations usually make the 10-mile runs as early as possible.

The first session also establishes the pole car, the inside starter in the three-car front row, regardless of later performances.

The 33 fastest qualifiers of 69 entrants will make up the 500 field.

★ ★ ★

They will be shooting at a record average of 149.056 miles an hour made last year by newcomer Jim Hurtubise of Lennox, Calif., who also set a one-lap record of 149.601. The entire 1960 field qualified at a record average of 144.070.

Jim Rathmann of Miami won last year's race with another record average of 138.767—illustrating the substantial difference between 10 miles and 500.

A rookie, the label attached to all newcomers to the speedway regardless of other racing experience, has not won the Memorial Day classic since George Souders' 1927 victory.

It may be about time for another fresh face in the winners' circle and best prospects among the newcomers are Jack Brabham of Australia, world road racing champion the last two years, and Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif., champ of the Midwest high banks last year.

Brabham has been spectacular in practice in a tiny rear-engine English Cooper-Climax that has gone through the speedway turns faster than other drivers thought possible. He will give away some straightaway speed to the American cars powered by big four-cylinder Offenhauser engines.

Jones also has been smooth and fast in an A. J. Watson car, the Agajanian Special.

It's traditionally a speedway veterans' race, however, and Saturday's main record challengers probably will be such old timers as Tony Bettenhausen, Tinley Park, Ill., who has been over 140 m. p. h. in practice; Jim Rathmann; Rodged Ward of Indianapolis, the 1959 winner; Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa.; A. J. Foyt, Houston, Tex., last year's USAC big car champion; Troy Ruttman, Dearborn, Mich., the youngest 500 winner in 1952 at the age of 22, and Don Branson, Champaign, Ill.

Leaving Flint Northern

Iowa Post to MacDonald

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI) — Andrew C. (Andy) MacDonald, 31, a former standout quarterback at Central Michigan, has been named backfield coach at the University of Iowa.

Forest Evashevski, athletic director and former head coach at Iowa, said MacDonald would report June 1 to fill the vacancy left when Jerry Burns was promoted to head football coach last November.

MacDonald currently is head coach at Northern High School, Flint, Mich., where his teams have compiled a 41-18-3 record since 1954.

He was named high school coach-of-the-year in Michigan in 1956 and 1960 after his teams were undefeated.

During his collegiate career at Central Michigan, MacDonald was an outstanding passer and won the top national ranking in that department among small colleges in 1953.

He received his master's degree from Eastern Michigan in 1958.

MacDonald is married and the father of three daughters, Laurie Lee, 8; Patti Sue 6, and Anne Drew, 18 months.

Hitting, Errors Win for Orioles

Minnesota Beaten 2nd Time in Three Games by 8-7 Score

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles turned clutch hitting and five Minnesota errors into an 8-7 victory Thursday to take their three game series 2-1.

★ ★ ★

Although Steve Barber was driven to the showers in a three-hit, three - run outburst in the sixth, the Baltimore lefty got credit for the win. He is now 4-2.

The Orioles pushed over their winning margin in a three-hit, five run splurge against Camilo Pascual, Twins starter, and Ted Sadowski, in the fifth inning.

Jim Gentile doubled to center in the big fifth, clearing the bases and bringing his runs batted in total to 33, tops in both leagues.

Betsy's Putter Key to Success in Tournament

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—If Betsy Rawls can keep her putter in good working order, the Spartanburg, S. C., lass stands a better than even chance of notching her first golf tournament victory of the year.

She didn't bogey a hole and tapped in an 8-foot birdie putt on the fourth green Thursday in firing a 71, four strokes ahead of the nearest competitors in the opening round of the Columbus Women's Open Golf Tournament.

Tied for second at 75 going into the second round were three of the top women professional golfers—Mickey Wright of San Diego, Calif.; Mary Lena Faulk of Sea Island, Ga., and Marlene Bauer Hagge of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Nagle Scores 65 to Head Colonial by Three Strokes

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Mild-mannered Kel Nagle, in the midst of a money-winning draught, sported a substantial lead today as a star-studded field teed off in the second round of the $40,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament.

The jovial Australian rocked the challenging course on its heels Thursday with a sizzling 5-under-par 65 highlighted by a hole-in-one on the par 3 13th.

"The hawk is on the wing again," said one of the 10,000 spectators as Hogan posted his 2-under-par reading and opened his bid for the championship, worth $7,000 this year.

Another trio of veterans was grouped at 69, including former champion Mike Souchak. Souchak, the burly ex-grid star playing out of Grossinger, N.Y., was deadlocked with Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif., and Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif.

Bob Goalby, of Crystal River, Fla., was a stroke ahead of 11 players bunched at 71.

Nagle, who slapped a 2-iron in the 195-yard 13th hole, was all smiles as he termed his 65 the most sensational round of his career, "I think."

The ace was the first in the 15-year history of the 72-hole tournament.

While Nagle mused over his sparkling performance, a couple of other top pros, Gary Player and Julius Boros, sat dejectedly out of the limelight.

Player, the tour's leading money winner with $47,796.58 official earnings was in and out of traps all day and wound up nine shots back at 74.

Waterford, Birmingham, Cranbrook Thinclads Favored in Regional

PCH Opens Defense of Title

Pontiac Central's reign as state Class A track champion will be in double jeopardy Saturday.

The Chiefs open defense of their crown in regional competition at Detroit Thurston. PCH's hold on the laurels has been slipping. Waiting to battle for the honors are thinclads from Birmingham Seaholm and Waterford.

All three will be at Thurston. So will Pontiac Northern. The Huskies posted a 73½-35½ triumph over Farmington Friday. Waterford warmed up for the regional by trouncing Southfield, 79-30, in a night meet. Walled Lake rolled past Berkley, 68-41.

Another county team with a good chance of winning a state championship is Cranbrook. The Cranes will send a strong team to the Class B regional at Thurston.

The top three finishers in each regional event will advance to the state finals May 20 at three different sites.

Although not as strong as previous years, Pontiac Central should qualify participants in at least two events and probably more. Bradell Pritchett, defending state champion, should win the shot put. Central's mile relay team of Bob Crockett, Bill Campbell, Jim Nelson and Ken Byrd has been beaten once this year.

Waterford has a strong team in the regional. Barring a misfortune, miler Joe Kaines and hurdler Joe Falls should win at Thurston and again in the state finals.

Mike Sickels may not win the 100 or 220 at Thurston but he is expected to be among the top three finishers.

Birmingham has strength in the relays, 440 and broad jump. Pete and Bill Henderson, Scott Purvis and Tom Sweeney are the key members of coach Kermit Ambrose's team. Shot-putter Bob Teichman may place behind Pritchett.

Ferndale's Dorie Reid is favored to win the two dashes.

Cranbrook has a top rated sprinter in Barney Crouse. The Cranes are strong in the relays, mile, hurdles and high jump.

Unbeaten Lake Orion has two contenders for regional and state honors. Doug Gawne has turned in the best pole vault performance in the county, clearing 12 feet. Bucky Craven is a good sprinter.

Kaines ran the fastest reported high school mile in the state last night at Southfield. The Waterford star was clocked in 4:26. This is four-tenths of a second faster than his second place time at the Mansfield Relays and set school and field records.

Tom McArthur shattered the Skippers' 440 record, winning in 52.3.

Southfield's Fred Penness set a school shot-put record with a heave of 55 feet 1½ inches.

Northern's thinclads set school records in the 100 and 880 relay at Farmington. The relay team was clocked in 1:35.2. Bill Young lowered the century standard to 10.4. He also won the 220 and tied Chris Payne and Dave Shields for high jump honors.

Mike Vanderwelde won both hurdles and Norm Smith captured the 100 and 220 and ran on the winning 880 relay team to lead Walled Lake's triumph.

In baseball, Wayne-Oakland powers Bloomfield Hills, Milford and Clarkston kept winning while St. Michael dropped a 7-6 verdict to St. Benedict.

The Barons scored twice in the opening inning and went on to whip Clarenceville 10-4 although out-hit. Bill Bennett was the winner backed by a double and single for Mark Miller. Joe Nye doubled twice for Clarenceville. Bloomfield and Milford are now 6-1-1.

The Redskins outlasted Holly to triumph 14-10 yesterday. They led all the way after a four-run 1st featuring three hits and three runs batted in by John Sitko. Doug Williams was the loser. There were 14 errors.

Clarkston held 2nd at 5-2 holding off a late bid for an upset. Bill Powell was the victor with relief help from Stan Gerbeck. Dick DeBose tripled in what proved to be the deciding runs in the 5th. Jerry Powell also had a triple in a 5-3 verdict over Brighton.

Divides Softball Games

Pontiac and Waterford softball teams split a doubleheader last night at Drayton Plains. Floyd Hicks combined for a three-hitter in Sno-Boi's 7-0 blanking of Waterford Stroh's with Jim Long slamming a triple and three singles. Scoring three in the 7th, Stroh's won the nightcap 4-3 behind a six-hit job by Bob Ferree.

Kefauver Urges Floyd Meet Liston

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., told heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson today "it would be unconscionable" to deny No. 1 challenger Sonny Liston a crack at the title if Congress fails to pass an antiracketeering law.

Liston has hired a new manager to replace Joseph (Pep) Barone, whom Kefauver had denounced as a front for underworld figures.

Patterson, who had declared he would never fight Liston unless Liston broke with Barone, then announced he would ask Kefauver's Senate Antitrust and Monopoly Subcommittee to say whether it approves of Liston's new manager, George Katz.

* * *

Without waiting for the request to arrive, Kefauver addressed a letter to Patterson rejecting the idea and made public the text.

"The licensing of boxing personnel is presently within the exclusive jurisdiction of state and local athletic commissions," Kefauver wrote. "Neither this subcommittee nor any federal agency has the authority to intrude in this area."

Kefauver pointed to an antiracketeering bill he has introduced on the basis of evidence dug up by the subcommittee that mobsters have wielded vast monopolistic powers over boxing.

It would create the post of federal boxing commissioner, who would have power to license fighters, managers, matchmakers and promoters, and deny licenses to those with underworld connections.

"If this bill is enacted into law, I would think that the commissioner's first order of business would be to examine Mr. Liston's new management with a fine tooth comb," Kefauver continued.

* * *

"However, if Congress does not act within a reasonable time, it seems to me that it would be unconscionable to further postpone the arrangements for the (Patterson-Liston) match, which apparently you desire and the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission approves."

"The Liston situation is neither the first of its kind nor will it be the last," Kefauver added. "Such situation will recur and will be met by transitory and makeshift measures until such time as the anti-racketeering boxing bill is passed."

Kefauver invited Patterson to testify when the subcommittee starts hearings on this bill. He mentioned no specific date.

Bill Legalizing Practices in Pro Sports Introduced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., has introduced a bill to legalize many present practices of professional football, baseball, hockey and basketball.

The measure, introduced Thursday, would declare the professional sports subject to antitrust laws but would not effect such established customs as player draft, assignment of contracts and territorial agreements.

* * *

Hart, a former director of the professional Detroit Lions football team and Detroit Tigers baseball team, said the bill was designed to end the possibility that these practices might be declared in violation of the antitrust laws.

* * *

The measure, cosponsored by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., drew immediate support from Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball. A spokesman said the legislation would "reaffirm the existing legal status of baseball as stated" in Supreme Court decisions in 1922 and 1954.

* * *

The high court ruled that professional baseball is not subject to the antitrust laws but that professional football is.

"This bill would affirm our intention that the antitrust laws apply to professional sports, but exempting the agreements and practices of baseball, football, hockey and basketball which are essential and peculiar to the games," Hart said.

Hart, who says he still is a minor stockholder in the Detroit Lions, is married to a daughter of the late Walter O. Briggs, former owner of the Detroit Tigers.

Another purpose of the bill, Hart said, is to protect college football from television competition by professional teams. It prohibits telecasting of any pro game from a station within 75 miles of a scheduled intercollegiate game.

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

The National Golf Foundation, a non-profit organization devoted to furthering golf activities and facilities, is urgently calling for a plan of action that will provide the nation with 30,000 additional golf courses by the 21st century.

Obviously, this is a long-range program posing many problems and possible pitfalls, but it's a fundamentally sound idea based upon the so-called "population explosion" across the nation and the subsequent law of "supply and demand."

Oakland County certainly is not exempt from this long-range strategy. To be perfectly frank, despite the fact that this area now has 20 public golf courses and 36 altogether, more links are needed — unless you don't mind being kayoed by somebody's tee shot.

Playing golf on a public links nowadays is often a highly hazardous occupation, especially during the early and middle portions of the week when league action reaches its peak.

Yours truly has been struck twice by the hard white ball off the stick of some wayward shooter who carelessly neglected to yell "fore." Fortunately, the pellet happened to hit your reporter in the flabby part of a gradually-expanding waistline.

Although the foregoing is a flagrant case of carelessness, it does indicate that public courses are sometimes crowded beyond their actual capacity.

The city of Pontiac needs at least one extra municipal links—and maybe more. Pontiac, with approximately 82,000 people, has only one municipal layout. Our state capital of Lansing, on the other hand, has four city-operated layouts to handle a population approximately 20,000 higher.

* * *

Standing, fidgeting, practice swinging, practice putting and leaning on a club waiting in line to tee off, all are frequent sights at public links—and not just on the first tee, either.

If you're a member of a weekly league, such procedure is more or less expected. But if you like to play a relaxed, leisurely round, much of the enjoyment is removed by having to push the group ahead of you in order to keep from getting whacked in the noggin.

In this respect, of course, the private club golfer has many advantages. For numerous reasons, a private club player is seldom pushed from behind.

Granted that golfers could do several things during a round to speed up their play, there still aren't enough public courses to meet the over-all demand.

Kensington Park will become Oakland County's 20th public layout May 27. This area will have two more courses next year when Al and Lee Kocsis begin operating their all-par-three Glenlore links and Michigan PGA president Don Soper opens his Royal Oak Golf Club, restricted to Royal Oak residents.

SHORT PUTTS

Mrs. Ken Thayer and Mrs. Fred Fredericksen shared low net honors in the Women's Silver Lake Golf League season opener. Low gross honors went to Mrs. Elbert Looney while Mrs. Harry Freeman won the "blind hole" event and putting accolades fell to Mrs. Paul Castleberry and Mrs. Fred Stimpert.

Team competition in the Michigan Publinx Golf League will start Sunday. The 1961 loop will consist of two six-team divisions.

Tam O'Shanter pro Warren Orlick is bothered by muscle spasms in his back and probably won't be able to play until July . . . Among the amateurs competing in last Monday's pro-am event at Plum Hollow was Walter Hagen Jr., son of golfing's immortal "you-know-who" . . . Brighton High School golf coach George Priemkorn is a brother of Pine Lake assistant pro Gerry . . . John Panelli, former Notre Dame football star, and G. I. Conley combined for a best-ball score of 63 to win Birmingham Country Club's first tournament of the year . . . National Amateur champion Deane Beman played 36 practice holes at Oakland Hills last Saturday in preparation for the U.S. Open June 15-17 . . . St. Frederick coach Gene Wright is returning to Warwick Hills as caddiemaster.

Prep Regional Golf Tests Today

Oakland County area golf teams hopefully shoot for berths in the state finals today in the Michigan High School Athletic Association's regional golf meets.

The annual state finals are scheduled Saturday, May 20, at Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo.

Oakland County area golfers are competing today at three sites — Swartz Creek Golf Club near Flint, Farmington Country Club and Burroughs Country Club at Brighton.

Four teams qualify for the Class A finals at Brighton and the 16-team field includes Pontiac Central, Pontiac Northern, Waterford, Berkley, Birmingham Seaholm, Bloomfield Hills, Walled Lake and defending state champ Ann Arbor.

Clarkston, Holly, Milford, South Lyon, West Bloomfield and host Brighton are among 13 schools in the Class B field with three qualifying for the state event.

Royal Oak St. Mary and Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes are among a dozen C-D teams at the Burroughs course with three advancing to the finals.

St. Frederick and St. Michael enter C-D competition at Swartz Creek while Royal Oak Shrine tries its luck in Class B and Rochester and Lapeer wade into the "A" division.

There are 18 "A" schools in the Farmington field with five qualifying for the state test. Area Class A teams at Farmington O.C. include Mt. Clemens, Oak Park, Roseville, RO Dondero, RO Kimball, Southfield and host Farmington.

Three schools quality for the state meet in today's Class B regional golf meets.

Competition is scheduled for 18 holes with winners and state qualifiers being determined by a four-man team stroke total.

Another Spree for Batters

City Softball League batters enjoyed another spree in Thursday night's four-game card at Beaudette and Northside parks.

Action in the newly-formed Continental loop found Big Bear Construction smothering St. Paul, 10-1; St. Joseph Hospital trouncing Stadium Inn, 18-7; and Sarko Investment routing Harry's Hideaway, 12-1.

Boys Club outscored State Hospital, 18-14, in a wild International game.

Big Bear launched a 14-hit attack against St. Paul with Dick Smith making three safe blows to set the pace. Jim Lund pitched one-hit ball for the winners.

The Hospital boys put Stadium on the critically-ill list with a 16-hit assault, featuring three safeties apiece by Anderson, Montgomery and Barbe.

* * *

Sarko's massacre of Harry's was stopped by the 10-run rule after three innings. The victors notched 10 hits and Bill Pittman hurled a three-hitter.

Malley and Bannon each clouted solo home runs for the Boys Clubbers in their free-scoring duel with State Hospital. Malley and Runyon both had four safeties to spark BC's 16-hit offense and Virgil socked three of the lower's 12 hits.

Old-Time Saints Can Lose Designations

By JULES LOH

NEW YORK (AP)—When Philomena lost her sainthood a few weeks ago it surprised many Roman Catholics, as well as others, that what they considered an irrevocable title could be withdrawn.

It is true that canonization — the process of declaring a person a saint—involves an "ex cathedra" pronouncement by the Pope, which Catholics regard as infallible.

★ ★ ★

The fact is, Philomena never was canonized.

There is no chance of the same fate befalling Sister Bertilla Boscarin, the Italian nun and hospital worker who was made a saint Thursday in the Catholic Church's regular canonization process.

Originally the term saint (from the Latin word sanctus, holy) was applied to all persons popularly deemed as holy.

★ ★ ★

Local bishops approved of public veneration of such persons, and they came to be listed as saints. The Roman martyrology roll lists about 4,500 persons titled as saints though never formally canonized.

FIRST IN 993

The first papal canonization was in 993 when Pope John XV proclaimed Biship Ulric of Augsburg a saint, and to end the abuses Pope Alexander III in 1170 reserved the right of canonization to the Pope alone.

★ ★ ★

BISHOPS CURBED

Finally in 1634 Pope Urban VII expressly prohibited all bishops from naming saints on their own, and the approximately 250 persons declared as saints by Popes since then stand no chance of being "un-sainted."

The Catholic Church today follows a rigid process of canonization set up by Pope Benedict XIV in 1750.

The procedure often requires centuries, and usually great expense — sometimes as much as $100,000—which must be borne by the person or group sponsoring the cause.

★ ★ ★

The church requires that a person be dead 50 years before the process can even begin, though this rule has been waived in certain cases.

Mother Cabrini, the only American citizen to become a saint, was canonized in 1946, only 29 years after her death; and the newest saint, Sister Bertilla, died in 1922. On the other hand, the two other saints canonized by Pope John XXIII, St. Carlo de Sezze and St. Josquina de Vedruna de Mas, died in 1670 and 1854 respectively.

STARTS AT HOME

The canonization process begins in the home diocese of the "servant of God," as he is referred to throughout the procedure. The local bishop collects every shred of evidence available and sends it to the Roman Rota, the Vatican's "appellate court."

The Rota appoints an ecclesiastical lawyer known popularly as "the devil's advocate" to refute all the evidence the sponsor of the cause can produce. Often the evidence runs into volumes.

The Rota then either approves or disapproves of submitting the case to the Sacred Congregation of Rites, a permanent commission of cardinals established in 1588.

In three successive meetings the cardinals discuss the subject's sancity and virtue. Proof offered must be specific, preferably eye-witness reports. The Pope attends the third meeting, and if he decides the subject possessed virtue "in an heroic degree" the subject receives the title of "Venerable."

Three more meetings are held to establish the second requirement of sainthood—proof of miracles wrought through the subject's intercession after his death.

This is the greatest stumbling block because in the case of instantaneous cures of organic disorders at least two recognized medical authorities must testify the cure could not have come about naturally.

If two miracles are proved, the subject receives the title of "Blessed" and is allowed to be venerated in certain localities.

But two more miracles must be proved before the person can be canonized a saint. Again, the cardinals meet three times with the Pope attending the third meeting to make the final and irrevocable decree.

At present there are about 700 cases under investigation by the Congregation of Rites, some of them pending since the 14th century.

Economists See Better Business

Elated at Recent Output and Sales; Predict High of $525 Billion

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — Economists predicted privately today that continuing recovery would lift the nation's annual production to a record rate of more than $525 billion by the end of the year.

★ ★ ★

The optimistic estimate came as Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges prepared to meet here with his Business Advisory Council.

Members of the council—which includes the heads of scores of the country's largest corporations—were elated at the rising trend of sales and output in recent weeks. It surpassed the council's March predictions.

An industry by industry report on business prospects is not scheduled until Saturday.

★

The report, to be presented by F. R. Kappel, president of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., reportedly shows that national output will reach a rate of $505 billion a year in this quarter.

Babies Born Centennial Week to Get Bootees

Not everyone can start his first year of life as his hometown begins its 101st.

For this reason, Pontiac General Hospital employes thought something special should greet the new arrivals in the maternity ward during the Greater Pontiac Centennial celebration, June 17-24.

After mulling the thought over, the hospital announced today that newborn during Centennial Week will get a pair of handmade Centennial booties, each bootie bearing a ribbon with the dates "1861-1961," the city's Centennial dates.

Welfare Recipient Puts in Guilty Plea

A plea of guilty to a charge of fraudulent receipt of welfare funds was entered in Circuit Court yesterday by 25-year-old Jeanette M. Roteman, a former Waterford Township resident.

She admitted before Judge William J. Beer that she defrauded the county welfare board of more than $1,000 between 1959 and 1960.

During that period she was collecting welfare money for the supposed support of her two children who actually had been given in custody to her former husband, according to Assistant County Prosecutor Richard Condit.

Judge Beer scheduled sentencing for May 22, and she was remanded to the county jail.

U.S. Currency May Undergo Color Change

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The time may be coming when a person can walk into a bank, toss down a $20 bill and say, "Give me a blue, a red and five greens."

★ ★

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, U.S. treasurer, said Thursday that studies are being conducted by the Secret Service and the Bureau of Engraving on the idea of changing the color of currency from its present green to some sparkling hues.

She said the change would provide convenience in the handling of currency because the various denominations could be distinguished by color.

Grain Mart Resumes Trend to Firmness

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market resumed its generally firm trend today in opening transactions on the board of trade. Except for wheat all commodities posted gains running to major fractions during the first several minutes.

Dealings were slow, however, and demand apparently was thin. Brokers said it appeared to be mainly evening up of commitments for the weekend although it may have included some commercial buying.

The feed grains probably derived some further support from additional reports of a broadening of applications for government benefits under the production curtailment program this year.

Pleads Guilty to 1 Count; Held in Lieu of Bond

MUSKEGON (AP) — Gerald P. Mackey, 33, pleaded guilty in Circuit Court Thursday to one count of unarmed robbery in the April 27 holdup of a Fidelity Loan Corp. branch with loot of $1,668.

★ ★ ★

Judge Henry L. Beers accepted the plea and granted prosecutor Harry J. Knudsen's motion to dismiss a count of armed robbery in the case. Mackey was held in lieu of $5,000 bond for pre-sentence investigation.

An eight-year veteran of the Muskegon Fire Department, Mackey earlier had stood mute to both counts.

Stocks Continue Muddled Path

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued its muddled pattern early this afternoon in heavy trading. Prices were mixed.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were fractional. A few went a point or so either way.

The news background continued good. Auto assemblies this week were scheduled to reach new highs for the year. The factory work week was reported up in mid-April.

Airlines continued to rally at the start then became irregular. Some of the electronic and missile shares, as well as an assortment of selected issues, reponded to trading demand.

Rails continued to improve, a good technical sign. Oils and building materials gained slightly. Steels, motors, nonferrous metals and chemicals were trendless.

Avnet Electronics, which took a big loss early in the week and then began to rebound, was up more than a point on short covering early in the session.

It later erased the gain and showed a net loss of about 2. Only a slight rise in quarterly earnings was reported.

Publicker Industries, which was the most active gainer Thursday, rose ¼ to 13¾ on a big opener of 12,000 shares, then showed a fractional net loss in later dealings.

Reducing Tax Break on Dividends 'Unfair'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The president of the New York Stock Exchange today opposed as restrictive and unfair the Kennedy administration's proposal to eliminate income tax exemptions on some dividend income.

Testifying before the House Ways and Means Committee, Keith Funston likened the administration plan to "taking a thimbleful of water away from a thirsty man because it is not enough to quench his thirst."

The partial exemption now allowed for dividend income should be increased, Funston said, rather than eliminated as the administration is asking.

Waite's Sets Up Fringe Benefit

Announces Retirement Program for Workers to Start Immediately

Clifford C. Grovogel, manager of Waite's Department Store, today announced a retirement program for store employes. It is the first such plan at the Pontiac store, he said.

★ ★ ★

The program, designed by management in a voluntary move, Grovogel said, is effective immediately and will be detailed to employes at a meeting Monday.

The retirement benefits will supplement Social Security, Grovogel said.

For qualifying employes with the company for at least 20 years, the program will include regular monthly benefits following retirement, he said.

★ ★ ★

For qualifying employes with the company less than 20 years and those whose regular work week is less than 30 hours long, the program involves a cash settlement at retirement, Grovogel said.

★ ★ ★

The retirement plan does not include any financial contribution on the part of employes, he added.

Burglar Alarm Test Rattles Bank Patrons

Noonday patrons in the downtown Community National Bank and passing shoppers were launched into a state of excitement today when the burglar alarm went off.

A swarm of police squad cars screeched to the bank with sirens blaring, and a half-dozen officers surrounded the building, while others entered the bank.

Inside, workmen had just finished working on the alarm and had set it off as a test.

"We had been informed they were working on the alarm today," said Police Lt. Harry E. Nye, but felt the call should be responded to just in case . . . you never know."

Warns of War Against Ads

Ernest Jones Bemoans Impending Step-Up of 'Intellectualized Attack'

CINCINNATI — As the national economy climbs toward an estimated $800 billions, the volume of advertising necessary to attain that gross national product will draw increased critical fire, Ernest A. Jones, president of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., Bloomfield Hills predicted today.

The advertising agency head spoke before the Advertising Federation of America in convention here.

"The competitive pressure is likely to be unnerving to those who favor growth but detest growth pains," Jones said. "Or to those who stand four-square for progress but forget that progress means change and sometimes irritation. For every economic omelette some eggheads must be broken."

★ ★ ★

The predicted intellectualized attack will not be aimed at growth, progress, better-living or increased freedom of choice for the consumer, Jones said.

"Instead it is likely to be directed at the phenomena which produces those values — advertising. The perfect target," he noted, "because it is everywhere and like anything omnipresent is likely to prove irritating to a certain number at any given time; something like the weather."

★ ★ ★

As an antidote, Jones urged assumption of a "tripartite responsibility" by business, media and advertising in preserving public faith which, he said, is the focal point of attack.

Salary Raises Being Discussed

Pontiac School Board, However, Says No to Health Insurance

The Pontiac Board of Education last night voted to continue salary negotiations with maintenance and operation employes without consideration of payment toward Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance.

Local 719 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes (AFL-CIO) had requested that its members be given their cost-of-living increment and any wage raise in the form of part payment toward the insurance premiums.

After considering the proposal for more than a month, the board decided against hospitalization benefits.

Board members felt the granting of such a benefit would leave the door open to similar proposals from teachers and other personnel groups.

No school district in Oakland County includes medical coverage in its personnel policy.

Negotiations for wage increases will continue, and rates are expected to be announced at the next board meeting.

Cobo Hall Cancels Group in Favor of Auto Show

DETROIT (AP) — A convention which reserved space at Cobo Hall four years in advance has been booted out by the Detroit Civic Center Commission in favor of the National Automobile Show.

The National Electrical Contractors Association booked space at the giant hall in 1958 for its 1962 annual convention. The commission now has canceled the reservation in order to allow the auto show to go on Oct. 19-28, 1962.

Clint J. Harder, secretary-treasurer of the contractors association, said his organization's convention now would be held at Minneapolis.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

GM Trucks Put Through Paces

A unique quality control program in which GMC trucks are scientifically "road tested" without leaving factory grounds has been launched by GMC Truck & Coach Division, reliability director Sheldon G. Little announced today.

★ ★ ★

He said light, medium and heavy-duty GMC trucks are put through their paces now on an electrically driven chassis dynamometer that simulates road travel and gauges the vehicles' performance under actual driving conditions.

"Since instituting this program, which incidentally is the only one in existence in the truck manufacturing industry today," Little said, "we feel we have struck another blow toward making highways safer and have also elevated our testing efficiency substantially.

"Brake tests are so comprehensive that they could hardly be duplicated by conventional road-test methods," he continued. "Gauges scientifically check full braking power, adjustment, drag, balance and pull.

"Besides the brake tests, we also check more than 21 other performance characteristics, including engine efficiency and drive train operation."

★ ★ ★

A sizable cross-section of GMC's light line, and virtually all of the division's medium and heavy-duty models, pass through this rigid dynamometer procedure before leaving the factory.

★ ★ ★

Each vehicle goes through a 30-minute checkup, which also includes a stiff under-chassis inspection. Two men handle each test, so one is free to observe the vehicle's performance and watch the gauges while the other man remains in the cab.

The dynamometer rollers spin the front wheels of each unit at normal road speeds to check bearings, wheel and tire runout and bounce, and steering performance.

Rear wheels of the test vehicle spin the dynamometer rollers which have been set to place a controlled load on the power train. This permits the technicians to determine how well the vehicle performs under partly or fully loaded conditions.

Illinois Towns Battle Floods

15 Counties Declared Disaster Areas; Other States Hit

By The Associated Press

Southern Illinois river towns battled the worst floods in 20 years today in the most serious overflows across midwestern valley lowlands in six states.

Fifteen counties in Illinois, all in the southern region, have been listed as disaster areas. But Gov. Otto Kerner has appealed to the Office of Civil Defense to declare 53 counties, covering most of the southern half of the state, a major disaster area.

Although Illinois appeared the hardest hit by the spring floods, water from rain-fed rivers and streams covered broad sections of Missouri, Arkansas, Indiana, Oklahoma and Kansas.

The floods have driven thousands from their homes. The muddy waters, covering thousands of acres of farm land, have taken a heavy toll in property and crop damage—estimates running into the millions of dollars.

Generally clear weather prevailed again today over most of the flood-stricken region as well as in most other parts of the country. It was fairly mild in most sections.

China Reports Wave of Natural Calamities

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China today described a wave of widespread "natural calamities," thus laying the groundwork for announcing its third successive crop failure.

The New China News Agency issued a glum report of drought, hail, high winds, snowstorms and predicted flooding over broad areas of the China mainland.

"Some farms have reported complete crop failure," it said of conditions in coastal Shantung Province.

In a broadcast from Peiping, the Communist news agency said 350,000 acres of farmland in Shantung were affected. Newly planted seedlings and wheat sown last winter had been snuffed out by nature, it said.

GMC Gets Contract to Build 43 Buses

General Motors Truck & Coach Division has been awarded a $378,889 contract for construction of 43 buses.

The Detroit office of the Ordnance Tank Automotive Command announced the contract recently.

Buses will be of the high headroom school, 45-passenger type, the contract said.

Claim Murchison Has Won Control of Alleghany

NEW YORK (AP)—Reports circulated today that the dissident Murchison forces have upset Allan P. Kirby, chairman, in a proxy struggle for control of Alleghany Corp.

Votes in the contest still are being counted in secret in a Baltimore hotel but the report was that the Murchison group has taken a lead that the Kirby interests cannot overcome.

One source in the Kirby side, although refusing to confirm this directly, indicated that it was true.

Pick Labor Cochairman for Michigan Week

August Scholle, of 2710 Vinsetta, Royal Oak, president of the Michigan AFL-CIO, has been chosen to serve as cochairman for labor during Michigan Week, May 21-27.

He was one of seven leading Michigan citizens who were named by Michigan Week Chairman John H. Carton of Battle Creek to be cochairmen for the various fields embracing all facets of the state's economy.

Prohibition-Era Mobster Paroled in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Basil (the Owl) Banghart, notorious prohibition-era mobster, mail robber and kidnaper, today was granted parole from Stateville Penitentiary.

The 60-year-old gangster, once known as one of the nation's toughest, has served nearly 30 years behind bars for the 1933 kidnaping of John (Jake the Barber) Factor in Chicago. His 99-year sentence later was commuted to 45 years, making parole possible now.

Enrollment Holds Key to Transfer of Students

Special housing arrangements for elementary students at four Pontiac schools were outlined at the Pontiac Board of Education meeting last night.

The arrangements for transfer of students will hinge entirely upon whether projected enrollment estimates for next September actually hold true.

Problems are expected to arise at Franklin, Herrington, Mark Twain and Whittier elementary schools.

According to administrative estimates, Franklin would be 25 over its capacity of 480 pupils based on school district standards.

★ ★ ★

This would mean three sections of kindergarten would be using one classroom on a half-time basis. If this happens, one section would be transported to Bagley School so the room could be used full time.

At Herrington and Mark Twain, administrators say projected enrollments may not be realized. It had been estimated that Herrington would be 52 over capacity and Mark Twain 30 over.

"The housing construction rate in the Herrington area has diminished, but should it increase this summer we might have to change the service area boundaries," said Dr. Otto C. Hufziger, assistant superintendent.

"If overenrollment occurs, we would transfer children living on Cameron or Kenilworth streets, between Mt. Clemens and Featherstone, to Emerson School."

Occupancy rate of rentals in the Twain service area is decreasing somewhat, but it is likely there will be more pupils than school capacity in September.

If class sizes develop beyond expectations, some pupils will be transferred to McCarroll School.

If not, administrators may approve an increase in class sizes and provide compensating increases in physical education and library services.

★ ★ ★

The capacity of Whittier is 465. An estimated 460 pupils will enroll there next fall. To avoid cramped conditions, it was suggested that the special education room now at Whittier be transferred to either Bethune or Bagley schools.

Board Shifts Some School Principals

The Pontiac School Board last night approved a list of administrative assignments with six changes for the 1961-62 school year.

Those schools where the position of principal or assistant principal will be different than the current year are Longfellow, Whitfield, Franklin and Will Rogers elementary schools, and Washington Junior High.

The shifts involved two transfers and four appointments. In addition, the board voted to continue J. Albert Henning in the position of administrative intern at Crofoot School for the coming year.

He was appointed principal intern there earlier this year.

Transferred at her own request to take the principalship of Longfellow School was Margaret Luther, presently principal of Whitfield School.

Miss Luther has been a principal here for 12 years and previously taught in the Pontiac School District for 16 years.

She will succeed Longfellow Principal Adeline Hook who will retire June 30.

Mrs. Vida Walker, Franklin School principal, will be transferred to Whitfield.

Mrs. Walker has been at Franklin since 1959. Before that she was principal at Whittier School for four years and at Willis for six years.

Biggest Week Seen for Auto Builders

DETROIT (AP) — Ward's Automotive Reports said today the auto industry will build more passenger cars this week than in any previous week this year.

The boost from 134,454 assemblies last week to 130,343 this week was helped by year-high output by Ford, American Motors and Studebaker-Packard.

In the comparable week a year ago 145,917 cars were built.

Truck makers produced 23,438 units this week compared with 22,883 last week and 25,163 last year.

$100-Ticket Sale Push May Be Investigated

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., demanded an investigation today of what he termed "a most shocking and glaring" effort to get Civil Service workers to buy $100 tickets to the political birthday dinner for President Kennedy May 27.

Curtis said Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the President's brother, should investigate published reports which indicate violations of the Hatch clean politics law.

GOP on March to Raise Funds

Republican Volunteers in Oakland County Out to Collect $20,000

With a goal of $20,000, Oakland County Republican volunteers yesterday began wearing out the shoe leather as they marched in their annual "neighbor-to-neighbor" fund raising drive.

Those Republicans who contribute, to make "a pledge for progress," will automatically become financial shareholders in the party and members of a unique advisory board which gives them a voice in party decisions.

"We'd like to see every Republican become an active supporter of his party by making a sustaining financial pledge," Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. explained.

★ ★ ★

"Oakland County has an effective year-round GOP organization, and it requires year-round financial supporter," he added.

HEADS CAMPAIGN

Heading up the fund drive are Alvin R. Balden, 12732 Elgin St., Huntington Woods, and Mrs. Richard C. Van Dusen, 32205 Bingham Road, Bingham Farms.

To back up the organization's "shareholder's" concept, every person solicited will be given a 12-page "shareholders report" that describes the Oakland GOP's activities and goals.

Elliott said that each contribution will be divided among the county, state and national levels of the party. Thirty-thousand dollars was collected last year.

"That's why we're stressing the importance of contributing to the county organization," he said. "A political party is only as strong as the local units that comprise it, and a contribution to the county is really a contribution to the entire party."

★ ★ ★

The fund drive is expected to last through most of May, Elliott said.

Well over half the students recognized at the University of Michigan's Honors Convocation this year came from high schools within the state.

Will Study Contract for Detroit Water

City commissioners have under study today a proposed contract under which Detroit water would flow to Pontiac at a base rate of $1.51 a thousand cubic feet.

They are not expected to act on it officially for a couple weeks or more.

City Manager Walter K. Willman submitted the proposals to commissioners at an informal meeting last night as the product of seven week's negotiation with management of the Detroit Department of Water Supply.

The rate is just what he and engineering experts said it would be when the commission authorized the contract negotiations April 30.

TO TALK IT OVER

Commissioners decided last night that they probably would talk the contract over in detail at another informal meeting this month or next before any move that would see it go to the commission table for a vote.

They asked for a layman's summary of the contract from Willman, and a report from City Attorney William A. Ewart on its legal soundness.

The proposed contract, almost identical with the ones Detroit has with its long-time users of Detroit water in Southern Oakland County, follows the lines made public after the April 30 meeting.

Not included in the contract is the rate Pontiac customers would be charged if the commission votes to replace the present well system with Detroit water.

It's up to the commission alone to determine local water bills. Factors include the base rate for Detroit water and the $3 million or more which engineers say it will cost to revamp the city's water distribution system.

Another factor that may push water bills higher is the cost of operating the new sewage treatment facilities that'll be under construction soon.

In Pontiac, the water bills include sewage treatment costs.

Stay Home Yuri, JFK's Coming, Say French

PARIS (UPI) — France today suspended an invitation to Soviet spaceman Yuri Gagarin after it had been reported that he would arrive the same day as President Kennedy.

Officials of the Union Syndicale des Industries Aeronautiques, which will stage the 24th Paris Air Show beginning May 26, announced the suspension of its invitation to Gagarin to attend the show.

The union declined to comment on the reason.

Informed sources said, however, the French had informed the Soviets that available forces might not be sufficient to guarantee the security of the American President and the world's first spaceman at the same time.

The invitation to Gagarin was extended shortly after his space flight. A similar invitation was extended later to American spaceman Alan Shepard, but it was not known whether Shepard would come.

Local Boy Rescued From Raft on Pond

A modern day Huckleberry Finn had to be rescued from an unnamed pond near Russell Street by the fire department yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Junior Farris, 8, of 512 Whittemore St. was stranded on a small raft in the middle of the pond when firemen arrived at the summons of a neighbor.

They threw a rope to the boy and pulled him and the raft to shore. His parents were informed.

Left: worker termites. They invade your home and cause damage such as shown on the right. The workers and the damage they cause are almost never seen unless siding or inside walls are removed. Read how Shell's dieldrin can save your house.

HOMEWRECKERS:

Millions of termites may be eating your house without your knowing it. Shell discloses five danger signs to look for. And tells how a powerful Shell insecticide wipes out termites—protects against further invasion for years.

Termites are found in every state except Alaska. In every type of neighborhood. Each year, they cause over $100,000,000 worth of damage.

This is the swarming season for termites. It is the best time to spot them.

Shell tells how to detect these tiny homewreckers. And how your local exterminator uses powerful dieldrin insecticide, developed by Shell Research, not only to wipe out termites already in your house, but to form a protective barrier around it that termites cannot penetrate for at least ten years.

Termites attack homes everywhere—in cities, suburbs and rural areas. In every kind of neighborhood. They have no respect for property values.

Subterranean termites not only feed on the wood in houses but devour books, rugs, linoleum, furniture and fabrics.

Know the enemy

To understand how Shell's dieldrin stops invading termites, you must know a few things about the fascinating way they live.

Termites live in colonies in the soil. Each colony can contain as many as 100,000 termites. And there can be hundreds of colonies in the area around your house.

The termite's food is wood. Unfortunately, the nearest source is often your house.

How termites invade your house

Termites construct tunnels through the soil to your house—directly to wood if it is touching the ground. If not, they tunnel through cracks and crevices in brick and block walls and up to wood through voids.

Where there is no other way, they build earthen tunnels up the side of the foundation.

Danger sign. Termites use earth to build vine-like tubes (arrow) up walls and pillars to the wood in your house.

Once inside your house, they travel great distances by simply eating tunnels through the wood. And through many items in contact with it. Some examples: stored food, home insulation, wallpaper—even leather shoes.

Dieldrin sets up a road block between the soil and your house

Here is how dieldrin works. When dieldrin is applied to the soil around and under your house, it sets up a chemical barrier that termites cannot penetrate without being killed.

But what about the termites that may already be in your house? Few people realize that termites regularly return to the soil from the house, to get water. This basic need is the key to their control. If the termites venture into the soil, dieldrin kills them. If they stay in the house, they die of thirst.

One application lasts for years

Shell's dieldrin is powerful stuff. It only takes two gallons of 18% dieldrin concentrate to protect an average-size house.

But most important, dieldrin lasts in the soil. Not for a few days, or weeks, or even months—dieldrin lasts for years.

In tests conducted by the U. S. Forest Service, dieldrin has remained 100 per cent effective in the soil for 10 years. And there is every reason to believe this protection will actually last far longer than that.

Don't confuse termites with flying ants. Note the difference. Termites are narrow-bodied with two sets of brittle, white wings of equal size. Ant bodies have three segments. Wings are transparent and unequal.

Danger signs to look for Termites are very secretive about their work. There are, however, five danger signs you can look for.

1. Now through June, watch for flying and crawling swarms of termites inside and outside your house. (See drawing below.)

2. Look for numerous detached, white wings on the ground around your house. King and queen termites shed them before entering the ground to start a new colony.

3. Look for greyish, earthen-like tubes or tunnels on cellar walls, in crawl spaces and on supporting pillars. These tubes look like vines and are commonly found near cracks and separations. They will invariably lead to wood.

4. Termites commonly attack sills, beams, and outside porch supports. Probe these areas with a screwdriver. Softness or hollowness may indicate the presence of termites.

5. Floors sagging under heavy furniture, weak stairways, or a sudden settling of the house are more advanced symptoms. While they may not be caused by termites, they should be checked immediately.

Exterminators guarantee dieldrin

If you suspect termites, call an exterminator.

Most exterminators will inspect your home without charge. They are experts, and can tell you whether you have termites or not. If you do, they can recommend the most efficient and economical dieldrin program for your particular problem.

Exterminators who use dieldrin will guarantee their work for years.

Dieldrin can protect your lawn too

Dieldrin has many other uses. Farmers have relied on it for years to protect hundreds of crops from destructive soil and foliage pests.

Nurserymen use dieldrin to protect ornamentals, shrubs, trees and flowering plants.

You can use it to protect your lawn against soil insects; your flowers against foliage insects; and your home from household insects such as flies, mosquitoes, roaches, silverfish, wasps, carpet beetles, spiders and ticks.

Look for insecticides that contain dieldrin at your garden supply or hardware store. They are sold under many well-known brand names.

If you would like more information on termite control, write: Dieldrin, Shell Chemical Company, 110 W. 51st St., N. Y. 20, N. Y.

Delay Laos Conference

Unable to Agree on Who Should Talk for Nation

U.S. Accepts Report That Cease Fire Has Been Accomplished

From Our Wire Services

GENEVA — Foreign ministers of Britain and the Soviet Union failed today to agree on arrangements for a 14-nation parley on the future of Laos and decided to postpone formal opening of the conference.

It had been scheduled to start today.

★ ★ ★

Britain and the Soviet Union — cochairmen of the conference — were unable to reach an agreement on which delegation should represent Laos at the table. The United States had refused to sit down for the talks unless this question was settled.

The United States had accepted a report from the truce commission in Laos that a cease fire exists.

A spokesman for the British delegation said he still hoped the conference could start Saturday —but even that is not certain. The official spoke after British Foreign Secretary Lord Home held an hour-long conference with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

HAD BEEN SETTLED

When the conference was called, Britain had said Laos would be represented by a coalition formed by the Western-backed royal government in Vientiane, the pro-Communist Pathet Lao guerrillas, and Prince Souvanna Phouma, considered by the Communist bloc countries as the legal premier.

Since the cease fire was proclaimed last week, however, the Vientiane government and the rebels have been unable to agree even on a place to meet to discuss formation of a coalition.

At Vientiane, the royal Laotian government yielded to Communist rebel demands and agreed to hold all political and cease-fire negotiations behind enemy lines.

The unexpected government concession broke a weeklong deadlock on where to hold the talks designed to solidify peace and work out details of military cease fire in the strife-torn jungle kingdom.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk met with Lord Home and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville in Geneva to discuss developments.

Rusk was to meet later Gromyko, cochairman of the conference with Lord Home.

An American official said the truce commission — composed of representatives from India, Canada and Communist Poland—agreed unanimously in a report late Thursday night that there has been a general and demonstrable halt in the fighting.

★ ★ ★

Local outbreaks are still in evidence, the truce supervisors reported, but they said there is no way of controlling them.

MSUO Keeps Hope of Adding Third Class

MSU Trustees Will Get Proposal; Must Shelve Trimester Plan

Some hope remains for establishing a third class at Michigan State University Oakland this fall, but it appears a new trimester plan will have to be shelved.

President John A. Hannah of Michigan State University said yesterday that "a proposal" will be made next Thursday to the MSU Board of Trustees which "somehow or other"—with approval of the trustees—should enable creation of the third class.

"But I'm sure the trimester plan will have to be postponed," he said.

Starting the new freshman class has been a big question mark since the legislature did not appropriate what MSUO officials said were sufficient funds to initiate the class and pay salaries of necessary personnel.

Several attempts by Rep. Arthur J. Law, D-Pontiac, and Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, to set up special line-item appropriations for MSUO met with failure.

★ ★ ★

Since the MSUO appropriation is a part of the over-all university's budget submitted to the legislature, if the added funds are granted by the trustees, a cutback elsewhere is mandatory. Hannah did not care to speculate.

Rep. Lloyd L. Anderson, R-Waterford Township, one of four local state representatives who voted against extra funds for MSUO last week, offers his explanation.

REFUSE PLAN

He said he, as well as three other Republicans, refused to go along with a plan by Rep. Dominic J. Jacobetti, D-Marquette, that would have bound the four to vote in favor of all increased appropriations for other schools if Jacobetti voted for the MSUO measure.

"This would have thrown the state into a deficit of about $30 million," Anderson said.

Anderson also said the four votes —his, those of Rep. Henry M. Hogan Jr., R-Bloomfield Township, Rep. Raymond L. Baker, R-Berkley, and Rep. William Hayward, R-Royal Oak — would not have been sufficient to provide the 56 votes for passage.

★ ★ ★

Law's proposals to give $286,520 to MSUO were beaten down 51-50 and 55-51.

Because of the pressure brought on him by his constituents, Anderson said he called Dr. Hannah last Tuesday to find out what could be done in the light of legislative failures.

GETS ASSURANCE

"Dr. Hannah assured me that there would be sufficient money to operate freshman, sophomore and junior years, and to open and operate new buildings on the campus when they are completed," Anderson said.

★ ★ ★

The university president tempered this assurance somewhat with his disclosure of the "proposal."

Roberts said it was his prediction that this would amount to about or more than $150,000 over the $892,500 MSUO is expected to receive as its share of the university's budget.

He said he had no idea where the funds would come from, but that it would mean that both MSUO and MSU would have to operate on austerity budgets.

The Oakland branch had been slated to receive but $12,300 more than the present year's budget. This put creation of the new class in jeopardy, according to D. B. Varner, MSUO chancellor.

Signs Reflector Repeal

LANSING (AP) — A bill repealing the requirement for reflectorized license plates was signed into law today by Gov. Swainson. The measure provides that every motorist who can prove he paid a 35-cent fee for the plates this year will receive credit for it in the 1962 registration year.

Pleads With Lawmakers to Accept Federal Funds

LANSING (AP)—A last-ditch plea from Gov. Swainson to pass bills worth more than $25 million in federal funds greeted legislators today as they met to wind up their 1961 session.

Swainson urged lawmakers "to put aside partisan considerations and keep faith with the taxpayers of Michigan" by enacting the two measures.

One would bring Michigan under the new federal program of aid to dependent children of unemployed workers.

The other would add at least $5 million to highway construction funds if the state agrees to limit the number of billboards along the interstate highway system.

★ ★ ★

"These are not partisan measures," the governor said in letters to Republican and Democratic leaders in the legislature. "I believe that no legislator disagrees with the objectives of these two bills."

"To delay action now — in anticipation of a special session for which no reason exists — would be to deprive local and state governments of great savings that are available to them."

Both bills died automatically Tuesday night when they failed to come to a vote in the House before the deadline for passage of all bills.

Democrats made a move to suspend legislative rules and allow votes on the two measures but got no support from majority Republicans. Some lawmakers have talked of asking the governor to call a special session to enact them.

WORTH $20 MILLION

The ADC program is worth $20 million in federal funds, all of it to be used to relieve local taxpayers of the costs of direct welfare. On an average, counties would save 70 per cent of their welfare costs, the governor estimated.

"With local governments facing great pressures to raise additional revenue to provide for expanded services, the opportunity to secure $20 million in aid is one that we can ill afford to lose," Swainson said.

Legislators will spend the final day of the session in conference committees of the House and Senate, attempting to settle interchamber differences on some two dozen bills. They include several major appropriations bills and one to reapportion congressional districts to make room for the new 19th District.

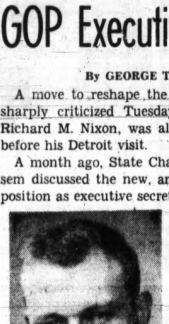
Gibbs May Become State GOP Executive Secretary

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

A move to reshape the Michigan Republican party, sharply criticized Tuesday by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, was already in the planning stage before his Detroit visit.

A month ago, State Chairman George M. Van Peursem discussed the new, and never-filled, $12,000-a-year position as executive secretary with John A. Gibbs, who has held a similar position since 1957 with the Republican Committee of Oakland County.



JOHN A. GIBBS

Some state Republicans, who have seen their efforts to regain a voice in state politics grow weaker by the year, see the possible acceptance by Gibbs as a step in the right direction.

Van Peursem said Gibbs "was one of several capable persons who have been interviewed for the job." Although he declined to say who he favors now, he lauded Gibbs' "tremendous qualifications" exemplified by his work in Oakland County.

Nixon tongue-lashed the state party in closed-door sessions with leaders, saying it needed a quick shot in the arm by establishing a Republican-oriented organization from the grass roots up.

The 29-year-old Gibbs has been known for providing the same for the county committee, demonstrated last November when it hit a near-sweep of 24 out of 27 contests.

EYE OAKLAND COUNTY

Republicans around the state are known to look to Oakland County, admittedly strengthened by an abundance of Republican voters, for the committee's ability to run a smooth organization of workers.

Milk Price Bill Ready for Pen

Farmers Say Proposal Will Bring In $300,000, Based on Fee

LANSING (UPI)—A milk price-fixing measure approved by both houses of the legislature was ready for the governor's signature today.

The Senate and House reached agreement Thursday on differences in the bill, which provides $200,000 for first-year administration.

Farmers in the legislature estimated the proposal would bring in $300,000 to $350,000 a year, based on a fee per hundredweight of milk.

The bill requires posting milk prices with the Department of Agriculture.

A $164,500 grant from the Ford Foundation for legislative interns was virtually dead in a house committee.

Rep. Arnell Engstrom, R-Traverse City, chairman of the ways and means committee, said the group voted Thursday not to report the enabling resolution to the floor.

A $9,000 matching appropriation would be required under the Ford program designed to give graduate students in law, political science and journalism experience in legislative work.

Sunday Really 'Her' Day

Love Surrounds Mother of 12

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Love and happiness. That's what pretty Rosemary (Mrs. Edward) Brinker will be surrounded with on Mother's Day Sunday as she looks over 11 of her 12 beautiful, healthy children.

★ ★ ★

It's hard to distinguish the petite 112-pound mother of six handsome boys and six pretty girls from her three older daughters, and her face and figure belie her 42 years of age.

There is Patrick 1, Rosemary 2, Karen 4, Paul 6, Jim 8, twins Joan and Gene 10, Barbara 14, Susan 16, Douglas 18, Edward 20, and Patricia 22. They live at 4001 Burnet St., Commerce Township.

The day begins for the family at 5:15 a.m. when Mrs. Brinker gets breakfast and sees her husband off to work at 6:15. A little lull—then an assembly-line breakfast operation begins.

Later, when things quiet down, the energetic mother looks over plans for her Sacred Heart Guild, of which she is captain. For 10 years Mrs. Brinker was vice president of all of St. William's guilds.

Haircutting time is a major operation as Mrs. Brinker, a former beautician, gets down to the job of getting a "just right" crewcut on the boys. Susan takes over the curly locks of the girls.

Clothing has been no trouble because the Brinkers' many friends have provided good clothing outgrown by their own children and then there are hand-me-downs.

"Our children haven't had many brand new things, but they've always been well dressed," Mrs. Brinker noted.

"Bringing home the bacon" has been a big task for papa Brinker, who is employed as an asbestos pipe coverer. The favorite food of the teen-agers is steak and plenty of it. The smaller ones prefer hamburgers and French fries.

★ ★ ★

Brinker pays for 30 one-half gallons of milk a week; buys vegetables by the bushels, and potatoes by the 50-pound sacks which last about two weeks.

Then there is the dessert. Pumpkin pies are the Brinkers' favorite, and their mother never bakes less than 6 or 8 pies, "to last two meals," she said.

NO DOCTOR BILLS

Hospital and doctor bills have been something almost unknown in the family. In January Rosemary had a slight operation for a cleft pallet, and that has been the only medical project of consequence.

★ ★ ★

Susan will be missed in the big household when she leaves June 26 for the Dominican convent at Adrian to devote her life to the church.

Douglas, too, will be missed on Mother's Day. He joined the Air Force and had to leave last Sunday but his spirit will be with his youthful mom.

School Board Considering Merit Pay Slate in '62

The Pontiac Board of Education last night approved a blanket administrative salary schedule increase of $21,297.

At the same time, board members indicated this might be the last year they would approve a blanket increase in pay for administrators. Board member Glenn H. Griffin suggested there might be some value in a salary schedule based on "enrichment."

James R. Jenkins proposed that the central administration investigate "a differentiated method" of paying administrators.

This all boils down to one thing. The board if interested in the merit system for administrative pay—one of the most controversial items in the field of education today.

The salary schedule granted at last night's meeting gives a total increase of $19,567 to certified personnel and $1,275 to noncertified personnel for the 1961-62 school year.

The present pay schedule totals $523,199. Next year's schedule will total $542,496.

The largest certified personnel pay increases will go to school principals and educational coordinators. Differentials above the base pay for these positions were increased by 2 per cent.

The schedule also will include for the first time a position of director of physical education, athletics and recreation.

The noncertified personnel schedule is composed of five positions: three directors, an assistant director and a stockroom supervisor.

The directors of financial management, purchasing and maintenance and operation will get $250 annual pay hikes at all steps in the schedule.

★ ★ ★

The assistant director of maintenance and operation will get a similar hike of $200 annually and the stockroom supervisor will get a $175 increase.

In considering the use of another method of paying administrative personnel a year from now, board members were divided.

Jenkins asserted that "the pres-

Economists See Better Business

Elated at Recent Output and Sales; Predict High of $525 Billion

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — Economists predicted privately today that continuing recovery would lift the nation's annual production to a record rate of more than $525 billion by the end of the year.

★ ★ ★

The optimistic estimate came as Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges prepared to meet here with his Business Advisory Council.

Members of the council—which includes the heads of scores of the country's largest corporations—were elated at the rising trend of sales and output in recent weeks. It surpassed the council's March predictions.

An industry by industry report on business prospects is not scheduled until Saturday.

The report, to be presented by F. R. Kappel, president of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., reportedly shows that national output will reach a rate of $505 billion a year in this quarter.

Gibbs May Take Post as State Secretary

the asking, while Gibbs, Elliott's right-hand man, comes in for equal credit.

Gibbs, of 803 E. Third St., Royal Oak, himself was considered as a darkhorse candidate for state chairman last February.

At a meeting he said he will have with Van Peursem in Lansing next week, Gibbs said he would outline to the chairman what authority and responsibility he believes he should be granted before he'd accept the appointment.

In effect, he would like to be handed the reins to direct the staff organization, to include developing a program like the one he drafted for the April 3 election. The state organization thought so much of the plan that leaders employed it on a state level, although the results weren't as comparable as previous campaigns in Oakland County.

Gibbs doesn't desire to be just a figurehead with a title.

"My feeling is that you have to have some specific terms laid down; first, the development of a program and then action to implement it, and probably most important of all, the responsibility and authority to carry it out," Gibbs said.

Asks Harmony With Kennedy

But He Makes the Point Russia Is Confident of Winning Any Contest

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev said today he wants to get along with the Kennedy administration despite differences of view on social and political questions.

★ ★ ★

Stressing the need for peaceful coexistence in a world living in the shadow of nuclear weapons, the Communist leader said:

"Taking a realistic view, we have to live on the same planet, and we have to find solutions. We are ready to build up our relations with any country to safeguard peace throughout the world."

Though Western observers considered Khrushchev's speech one of the mildest he has made on U.S.-Soviet relations since the abortive Cuban invasion, he made the point that the Soviets are confident they "will win" any contest.

★ ★ ★

Referring to his desire to get along with the United States, he said:

★ ★ ★

"Although President Kennedy and I are men poles apart, we live on the same earth. Therefore, although we probably have a different understanding and a different assessment of the socialist system and the capitalist system, we have to visualize realistically, so to speak, that there are now socialist countries on our planet, which number over a milliard (one billion) inhabitants.

"We have to (visualize realistically) that there are capitalist countries, with a highly developed monopolist capital, and that there are countries which have just liberated themselves from colonial slavery.

"And of course we understand differently, apparently, these three categories of people, and have a different notion of freedom."

Pontiac General Gives Out Pins

14 Employes Receive Service Awards at 7th Annual Banquet

Fourteen Pontiac General Hospital employes received service pins last night at the seventh annual awards banquet at Devon Gables Inn.

More than 70 employes and guests witnessed the presentation by Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston spoke briefly at the National Hospital Week feature. William P. Babcock, chairman of the hospital's Board of Trustees, presided.

Fifteen-year service pins went to Mrs. Elsie Clark, laundry department; Paul Opdycke, maintenance; Mrs. Eula Brown, dietary; Mrs. Beatrice Knight, laundry; and Mrs. Josephine Harlan, nursing.

Ten-year service pins were received by Mrs. Esther Baker and Mrs. Gladys Borer, dietary department; Nikoloj Tarassow and Mrs. Edna Hawley, housekeeping, and Mrs. Lucille Wisley, Mrs. Queenie Stabley, Mrs. Lois Walls and Mrs. Rose Ann Frazier, nursing.

Hospital week comes to a close with the annual Florence Nightengale Tea of the Women's Auxiliary for all employes this afternoon, followed by public tours of the hospital at 2, 2:30 and 3 p.m. tomorrow.

As a another feature, employes witnessed fire prevention demonstrations yesterday. In the doctors' parking lot on West Huron Street, Pontiac Fire Captain Albert Rayner and firefighter Edwin Manley demonstrated the use of carbon dioxide and soda acid fire extinguishers and the 1½-inch fire hoses in the hospital.

Nelle Lassiter's Illness Necessitates Trial Delay

DETROIT (UPI)—Illness of Mrs. Nelle Lassiter today forced an adjournment in the trial of her and Gordon Watson.

They are charged with murder and conspiracy in the 1959 slaying of her husband, Parvin, a well-to-do Royal Oak auto dealer.

Mrs. Lassiter, shaken by chills, was forced to leave the courtroom Thursday, causing Circuit Judge Joseph Rashid to declare a recess until today 1½ hours ahead of schedule.

Dr. Rollin C. Gordon telephoned Judge Rashid today that Mrs. Lassiter, of 19690 Beverly Road, Beverly Hills, is suffering "a physical and psychological reaction" and that she would "just go to pieces" if forced to appear today.

★ ★ ★

The judge indicated he may send a Wayne County medical examiner to check the condition of the defendant.

The dapper Watson was on hand when adjournment was taken at least until tomorrow.

DELAY ATTEMPTED

Meanwhile, the state attempted to delay Judge Rashid's scheduled hearing of motions by two admitted killers of Lassiter who want to withdraw guilty pleas to second-degree murder in the slaying.

Asst. Prosecutor George Kent argued he had been tied up in the Lassiter-Watson trial and unable to prepare an attack on the motions. He said at least two weeks would be needed.

Mrs. Lassiter's attorney, Joseph Louisell, and Watson's lawyer, Albert Summer, fought any delay.

They claimed it would jeapardize the defense of their clients to delay calling of the motions filed by Richard Jones, 29, and Charles Nash, 45, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

"The taxpayers just won't pay it," he added.

"Someday we've got to take a look at our people and their pay with respect to merit," he said.

Griffin agreed that the board should at least "warn administrators that we might not give a blanket pay hike next year."

Rev. J. Allen Parker and Mrs. Elsie Mihalek, were board members who questioned the merit pay system.

Parker said he felt it "involved personalities to a great extent and could be very demoralizing at this time."

The board voted 5-2 on the motion ordering Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent, to arrange for a study of the merit system.

Traffic Accidents Drop 9 Less Than April 1960

BIRMINGHAM — Traffic accidents here last month showed a marked reduction over the total in April 1960 and similar improvement over the previous month, Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley reported today.

★ ★ ★

There were 44 accidents reported last month, he said, compared to 53 in the corresponding month in 1960 and 55 in March.

Failure to yield the right of way was a major factor in over one-half of all the accidents investigated by Birmingham Police.

Following too closely was responsible for almost one-fourth of the accidents, the police chief said.

All officers have been instructed, Moxley said, to be on the alert for these violations and to take proper enforcement action before erratic motorists cause more traffic accidents.

"By strict enforcement of these violations we will continue to reduce the accident toll within the city," said Moxley.

Moxley said 17 persons were injured in the 44 accidents last month, four more than in the preceding month.

Republicans Asked by Nixon to 'Clean House' in Michigan

In a ringing address in Detroit, and a personal interview, RICHARD M. NIXON asked Michigan Republicans to "clean house." The former Vice President advises the GOP to replace "the dissidents who live on a rule-or-ruin policy."

★ ★ ★

Mr. Nixon may be right.

Further, the personable party leader who was defeated for the presidency by a veritable cat's whisker says the Republican legislators are responsible in part for losing the Michigan race for governor in 1960 — and also in 1958.

★ ★ ★

For the better part of his time as Governor, G. MENNEN WILLIAMS was blamed for Michigan's political ills. The crown of thorns was deftly dropped on his vulnerable brow for it was the logical spot. Our unhappy economic climate was marked as his doing and he was a national scapegoat. The financial follies of the Wolverine Commonwealth were even mentioned in foreign countries.

But as the picture unfolds, it begins to develop that financial and political ineptness were not confined to G. Mennen Williams. His political opponents are indicating that a portion of the blame belongs on their own shoulders.

Williams advocated many things which this newspaper did not believe and which we felt would have been detrimental. But the Republicans came up with nothing constructive themselves. They eked out a political existence on the dubious whim of adamant opposition to a Democratic governor.

This is a negative stand.

It achieves nothing.

★ ★ ★

At the same time, let's make it clear we believe that if WILLIAMS had ruled unchecked, the State might actually have faced the bankruptcy that was erroneously charged. The Republicans blocked a pie-in-the-sky program and the voters can be everlastingly grateful.

However, we feel the GOP is now overlooking some of the actual problems that confront us. There is a vast difference between wise economy and actual penury.

★ ★ ★

Nixon accused the Republicans of Bagwell's defeat (by only 41,000 votes) because the young MSU professor was not sufficiently subservient to the old line ideas. If true, Nixon's charge is a cause for everlasting shame.

★ ★ ★

The former Vice President also feels the "hard core die-hards were guilty of organizational cannibalism" which probably describes the MSUO dilemma as well as anything else. And, MSUO is just a small part of the over-all educational program which the GOP is torpedoing. The Republicans are letting collegiate education ease downhill. This is true statewide on a sweeping basis, however MSUO ultimately fares.

★ ★ ★

Even if John Hannah and the MSU trustees parcel out sufficient funds to keep MSUO's doors open again, it merely robs the East Lansing institution and it accomplishes nothing for general education in the future. MSUO still needs the "line item" desperately and the Oakland County Republicans have failed the voters there.

★ ★ ★

More money is needed badly and if it doesn't materialize, we'll watch Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin and other nearby states sweep past us in the educational parade. We've been forerunners for more than a century but we are relinquishing our proud position under the aegis of the "Republican caucus." Increasing education is a great national problem which Michigan does not face squarely.

★ ★ ★

Nixon wants to see the GOP revived through a grass roots organization that places the balance of its power in younger, eager and more responsive hands. He feels Pennsylvania, Illinois and California need the same treatment.

★ ★ ★

We've been plastered from coast-to-coast as a bankrupt state with a wavering vacillating government. Are we still tottering in 1961? Shall we start a constructive, forward program? This entails more money for more essential functions. Governor SWAINSON recognizes the need but he finds a GOP roadblock.

★ ★ ★

In the meantime necessary progress in education on all levels, mental health and other prime necessities stand unattended.

David Lawrence Says:

JFK Dictates by Executive Order

LAWRENCE

It means that, without the enactment of a single amendment to the Constitution or any new laws by Congress, President Kennedy can put out of business any company that refuses to obey the edicts he has just issued.

Every department of the government that buys anything from business—whether it be pencils or paper clips or typewriters or window shades or guns or mechanical parts of a defense weapon—must abide by the decree issued by the President.

★ ★ ★

Every time the government authorizes a purchase—even a subscription for a daily newspaper—the company must accept as a part of the order an agreement which says:

"The contractor will not discriminate against any employe or applicant for employment because of race, creed, color or national origin. The contractor will take affirmative action to ensure that applicants are employed, and that employes are treated during employment, without regard to their race, creed, color or national origin.

". . . The contractor will furnish all information and reports required by executive order No. 10925 of March 6, 1961, and by the rules, regulations and orders of said committee, or pursuant thereto, and will permit access to his books, records and accounts by the contracting agency and the committee for purposes of investigation to ascertain compliance with such rules, regulations and orders.

"In the event of the contractor's noncompliance with the nondiscrimination clauses of this contract or with any of the said rules, regulations or orders, this contract may be canceled in whole or part and the contractor may be declared ineligible for further government contracts in accordance with procedures authorized in executive order No. 10925 of March 6, 1961 . . ."

BIGGEST FEATURE

This extraordinary document has been received by tens of thousands of companies and individuals who do business of any kind with the federal government. But the most sensational feature is in the last paragraph, which says:

"The contractor will include the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs (1) through (6) in every subcontract or purchase order unless exempted by rules, regulations or orders of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity issued pursuant to section 303 of executive order No. 10925 of March 6, 1961, so that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor.

★ ★ ★

"The contractor will take such action with respect to any subcontract or purchase order as the contracting agency may direct as a means of enforcing such provisions, including sanctions for noncompliance."

The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution—from which the alleged authority in the whole nondiscrimination controversy has been derived—says that "the Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article." But President Kennedy has let it be known that he doesn't need any more laws on "civil rights."

He is using instead the device of the executive order, even though bills to set up a federal fair employment practices commission have been defeated several times by Congress. No law has been passed to govern the relations of contractors to the government or their methods of hiring employes.

So coercion and compulsion now are to be used to obtain compliance with executive orders and decrees, and the only recourse the injured citizen will have is to the Congress and his fellow citizens, who alone can put an end to dictatorial government.

'Growing Pains' Same as Adult Leg Cramps

Medical authorities have long believed that recurring "growing pains" in children were "symptoms of rheumatism, less in the joints themselves than in (muscles), nothing characteristic about them except their occurance in damp weather" — Holt and Rowland, "Diseases of Infancy."

The father of pediatrics, Dr. Abraham Jacobi, made more sense of "growing pains" than any other physician-author, I think. In the third edition of his textbook "Therapeutics of Infancy and Childhood," Jacobi said:

"The . . . term "growing pain" dates from the medical nomenclature of past centuries, and ought to have been dropped long ago. What has been called by that name is of variable origin and nature. Sometimes it is fatigue only . . . sometimes rachitical" (that is, due to rickets) . . ."

"Still, the large majority of attacks of 'growing pain' means rheumatism ." The 3rd edition of Griffith , Mitchell's "Textbook of pediatrics," "dismisses growing pains lightly, thus:

★ ★ ★

"Growing pains" (so called) "may be found as frequently in children who do not have, or who never develop, any other sign of rheumatism as in children in the rheumatic group."

★ ★ ★

Now, if anyone chooses to think I am presumptous when I present my view of "growing pains" with the views of medical authorities, let me explain patiently that I see such pain in a light which was not available when these recognized medical authorities were forming opinions about it—the light of our newer knowledge of nutrition.

And so I say they were all out of step but, you know me. "Growing pains" are one manifestation of calcium deficiency. Calcium deficiency is more or less inevitable in children or adults who subsist on a low calcium diet and or inadequate daily intake of vitamin D.

This is nutrition, not medicine. If you take calcium in any form as medicine, for a week or a month, don't delude yourself that I advise it.

Many mature adults suffer painful nocturnal leg or arm cramps rather than "growing pains," identical in nature with the familiar growing pains of children—a state known as tetany. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for my free pamphlet "Adult Tetany and Growing Pains."

★ ★ ★

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be easer, diagnosis, or treatment, will be stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Legislators Need Better Leadership'

Why can't our state appropriate funds for its colleges? The legislators say we do not have the money. If a state with the resources of Michigan can't support its colleges and universities then there should be better leadership among our legislators.

★ ★ ★

For years legislators have put political differences ahead of their state. They should study all possibilities of maintaining high standards. What better way is there to defeat communism than to raise our standards of education? Many capable high school graduates desire to attend college but have been denied entrance due to the lack of appropriations.

★ ★ ★

These students may have the intelligence and creative ability to solve the constantly rising problems of communism which confront the world. We should be very grateful to educators who have maintained our educational standards on limited funds. All citizens should be interested in education and vote only for legislators who understand the problems.

Reader Protests World Government

The move to abolish national sovereignty seems to be gaining ground and agitating for complete surrender of all jurisdiction to a world court. One might see Red Chinese troops patrolling the streets of New York or Chicago and uniformed troops from Russia in Toronto or Montreal.

★ ★ ★

Groups are making an effort to hand over legal jurisdiction to the World Court of the United Nations. This movement is taking form of a drive to repeal the Connally Amendment, which has protected our National Sovereignty from encroachments of the one worlders. In 1945 Sen. Wayne Morse introduced "Morse World Court Resolution" and then recently by Hubert Humphrey. Maybe they were both clicked in the head by the same horse. The World Court is made up of 15 judges and nine constitute a quorum. U.N. General assembly voted Philip Jessup as our only judge and he probably had more to do with the fall of China to Reds than anyone. A Chief Justice is a Communist from Poland.

★ ★ ★

We would have Communist puppets sit in judgment on a nation they have sworn to bury. It would be suicidal to scrap the Connally Amendment.

'Medical Doctors Have Monopoly'

Shortages make for monopoly and they're often bad. Doctors can be considered a monopoly.

★ ★ ★

Blue Cross, socialized medicine, social security aid, nor any other plan will cure the shortage. There is only one cure: more doctors! Let the students go directly from high school to a medical college. Eliminate the preliminary four years. This should create many well-paying jobs for a couple of hundred thousand more doctors, also an equal number of jobs for technicians, nurses and orderlies. Then maybe we could get a doctor out to the house.

★ ★ ★

There would be competition among doctors which would be good. There would be more clinics where you could get a complete examination once a year. More preventive medicine would be available. This would keep us from socialized medicine and is the best cure for our medical troubles.

Mothers Disagree With Teacher

"Former Teacher" said if Johnny doesn't learn, blame the parents. We don't pay taxes to teach them ourselves.

If some of these teachers were to take a test in private, they'd never make it. I have a letter from a teacher criticizing the way my son writes (he is 7-years-old). What happened to the teachers who really cared if Johnny made it or not?

Mother Who Cares

All the lessons a child must learn are not from books. A child must learn to play and relax. When the teacher sends Johnny home with an armload of books, I resent the intrusion on my time with him as I am sure they would resent it if I were to take him out of school for a walk in the woods to learn of nature.

Let Johnny do his school work at school, so I will have time to teach him other lessons at home.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

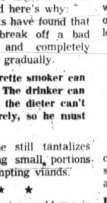
Overweight? Try Dehydration Diet

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE H-483: Irene B., aged 29, has been married six years.

"Dr. Crane, I am 30 pounds overweight," Irene began. "And I am ashamed of myself.

"On my wedding day I weighed 122, but now it is 152, and that is far too much.



DR. CRANE

"My husband says it is easy to lose weight, but I've tried to diet several times, yet without success.

"Now I'd like more information about your method for losing 10 pounds in 10 days?"

DIET NOW

Dieting is really more difficult than breaking the tobacco or the liquor habits. And here's why:

We psychologists have found that it is easier to break off a bad habit suddenly and completely than to taper off gradually.

Thus, the cigarette smoker can quit all at once. The drinker can do likewise. But the dieter can't stop eating entirely, so he must taper off.

That means he still tantalizes himself by taking small portions of his former tempting viands.

★ ★ ★

But the two major problems in dieting come within the first three days. One of these is purely psychological and consists of giving yourself the elation of quick victories.

That was the strategy in the 24-hour goal of the alcoholics anonymous group.

My dehydration (low fluid) diet enables you to lose about 4 to 5 pounds the first three days and is thus a great boon to your morale.

Meanwhile, it helps solve the second big problem in dieting, which is to kill your hunger without use of drugs, until your stomach shrinks down to maybe half its previous size.

KILL APPETITE

Try this effective dieting plan. Drink only one glass (8 oz.) of fluids of all sorts the first day.

You may have two glasses the second and three the third. Thereafter, till the end of the 10 day period, stay on three glasses of total fluids per day.

This dries out your system, and helps kill your appetite, apparently by reducing the acid secretion of the stomach.

Meanwhile, women should limit themselves to 800 calories per day, while men may take 1,200. You will feel fairly full on this number of calories, if you stick to your low fluid input.

Also, try to avoid liquid with your meals, for drinks stimulate you to eat more. You'll find that doughnuts and sweet rolls lose much of their charm if you don't swig down coffee or milk with each bite.

Without fluids at meal time, you can more easily stay away from such high calorie foods as rolls, pie and cake.

INCLUDE PROTEIN

Both men and women should take at least 400 calories in protein foods so their muscles will not shrink. For protein is not stored, although the body has a vast surplus of starch, fat and sugar. You need a fresh quota of protein each day.

Cottage cheese, lean meat, peas, beans, etc., are good protein foods. So is skimmed milk, but don't exceed your fluid quota with too much milk.

If you are working hard, a single bite of candy between meals helps perk you up and maintain the proper sugar level in the blood. But allow for such candy in your total calories quota for the day.

Vegetables, such as raw cabbage, lettuce, carrots, celery, etc., have few calories, but are filling.

Waives Nonrent Rule During Centennial

The Pontiac Board of Education has voted to break an established school rental policy, with certain reservations, for the Greater Pontiac Centennial Commission.

★ ★ ★

Upon request of various Centennial groups for extensive use of Pontiac Central High School facilities from now until June 16, board members last night waived a policy limiting use of facilities for more than three consecutive days.

The board stipulated, however, that use cannot interfere with established school programs.

It also ruled that no use of facilities will be made without a rental charge to the groups, and that any overtime charge incurred as a result of work required by the Centennial groups should be billed to the Centennial Commission.

Pleads Guilty to 1 Count; Held in Lieu of Bond

MUSKEGON (AP) — Gerald P. Mackey, 33, pleaded guilty in Circuit Court Thursday to one count of unarmed robbery in the April 27 holdup of a Fidelity Loan Corp. branch with loot of $1,668.

★ ★ ★

Judge Henry L. Beers accepted the plea and granted prosecutor Harry J. Knudsen's motion to dismiss a count of armed robbery in the case. Mackey was held in lieu of $5,000 bond for pre-sentence investigation.

An eight-year veteran of the Muskegon Fire Department, Mackey earlier had stood mute to both counts.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Aviation Agency Thursday announced a one-year ban on the use of portable FM radios on U.S. civil aircraft.

The ban will go into effect May 25.

'Can It Be That Phyllis Is . . .?'

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Some people debunk "Mother's Day" as being more from the wallet than the heart — but I haven't a single cynical word to say about it.

Especially now. After upwards of 30 years of feting other people's mamas, I am on my way to receiving some bon-bons in my own right.

★ ★ ★

I mention this publicly, not from any desire to be added to the Dydee Diaper Service mailing list, but because when one is 4-9ths of a mother, it is difficult to think of anything else.

★ ★ ★

Suddenly the words of Dr. Spock ring more urgent than those of the President, and as for vital areas — "lying-in hospital" has it all over Laos. At the typewriter, I am a blob of distracted ennui.

On the street, I peer into strange baby carriages. In the kitchen my forte has changed, unreasonably, from escargot to calves liver. I've often heard of the "pregnant pause," but never thought I'd be living it.

MY CONDITION

Another reason for revealing my "condition" this Mother's Day is that, at this stage, it is not so much "interesting" as curious.

Well-meaning friends in the office give me the once-over and quickly look away, strangely embarrassed and uncertain whether I need an obstetrician or a diet. I fancy voices behind my back:

★ ★ ★

"Could it be that Phyllis is . . .

"No. I think she's just let herself go."

Since one cannot differentiate between today's maternity frocks and Balenciagas, nobody is tactless enough to ask. And it doesn't seem seemly for a potential parent to confront a friend with, "Hey, you heard the latest?"

A FEW KNOW

Especially not around Mother's Day; it's like saying "Sure I'll be your Valentine" on Feb. 13.

★ ★

Of course, a few people know. My boss said he could tell by the way I walked at first — "like on eggs." And a golfing cohort spotted it about the fifth tee: "You're playing way over your head. I'll bet you're expecting." (Apparently, God gives good coordination to pregnant women.)

And it's true; I've gained about 10 pounds but dropped about 20 strokes.

Nine State Bills Become Law

Concern Builders and Drivers, Insurance and Tax Allocation

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson signed into law Thursday nine bills passed by the current session of the legislature.

Included were two measures exempting building contractors from the 4 per cent use and sales taxes on materials purchased to fulfill fixed price contracts negotiated prior to Dec. 13, 1960.

Other bills would:

—Permit a judge to return on a limited basis a driver's license revoked or suspended by the state police commissioner.

—Authorize the State Administrative Board to grant to St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Lapeer easement for installation of sewer and water lines through property owned by the Lapeer State Home and Training School.

—Authorize the executive board of the Legislative Service Bureau to direct the bureau to "prepare and publish a township officers' guide."

—Require that each chiropodist applying for annual renewal of license present evidence that he attended a one-day educational program during the preceding year.

—Require that special taxes on low-grade iron ore be distributed to school districts and other units of government in the same proportion as general property taxes.

—Authorize township boards to adopt ordinances for the licensing and regulating of hawkers, vendors, peddlers and solicitors.

—Grant the insurance commissioner and the courts jurisdiction over insurance companies not authorized to transact business in Michigan but who do so via mail and use false and misleading advertising.

House Extends Time for Mexican Labor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today extended the Mexican labor import program two years, turning back all amendments aimed at protecting wages and jobs of American farm laborers.

A strong coalition of Republicans and conservative Democrats voted down the amendments.

By a standing vote of 145-66 the House rejected an amendment by Rep. Alfred A. Santangelo, D-N.Y., to limit imported Mexicans, or braceros, to food farm work and to eliminate them from cotton processing.

Cuban Envoys Request Asylum

Husband and Wife Quit Posts in Mexico City, See Win Over Castro

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Two Cuban diplomats—man and wife—defected Thursday and predicted the struggle against Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro will "continue and succeed."

* * *

Antonio R. Montane and Gilda Portela de Montane, veterans of 24 years diplomatic service, quit their posts at the Cuban Embassy here and asked Mexico for asylum. Montane was a second secretary who ranked fourth among the embassy's officials, and his wife was consul general.

'RED BEEHIVE'

The Montanes said their embassy here is a beehive of Communist activity and a distribution center for Red propaganda going throughout Latin America. They said they were no longer willing to be used as Communist tools.

* * *

The diplomats, both Roman Catholics, said Castro's new campaign against their Church in Cuba was the final breaking point for them.

* * *

"I am also a mother and I see what communism is doing to Cuban children," Mrs. Montane said. "My husband and I cannot serve a government such as that of Fidel Castro."

Citizens' Rally Boosting School Bond Issue

OAK PARK — A citizens rally is under way here to promote a $3.5-million bond issue for a school building program which will be voted on June 12 in the annual school election.

Oak Park voters have approved additional taxes for school maintenance 10 times in the past nine years.

Under the organization of Supt. James N. Pepper, thirty people have already been named as a nucleus of the bond promoting committee.

Representing each of the schools in the district as well as the various grade levels, they will be asked to enlist as many subcommittee workers as they can.

★ ★ ★

All administrators of the school district also are slated to work actively on the campaign.

If the bond issue is approved, the money will be used to build a new 55-room junior high school and additions to two elementary schools.

"We want to organize this campaign as well as possible," Supt. Pepper said, "because this is a poor economic year and we need these new facilities."

★ ★ ★

Previously, the board had announced that the district would require 109 new classrooms by 1965 to meet the fast-growing student population.

3 County Youths Named to Service Academies

Two 17-year-old South Oakland youths will become West Point cadets this July, while a Rochester youth has been accepted for admission to the Air Force Academy, announced Congressman William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, today.

Named to the U. S. Military Academy were:

Edward T. Luttenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Luttenberger, 205 South Manlon, Clawson. He will be graduated from Clawson High School this June.

Luttenberger is a cadet executive officer in the Clawson Squadron (613-3), Civil Air Patrol; Clawson - Lamphere - Madison Science Seminar; Clawson High Camera Club; Chef's Club, and played junior varsity baseball and freshman basketball.

Gordon A. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson, 379 E. Breckenridge, Ferndale. He will be graduated from Ferndale High School this June.

Named to the Air Force Academy at Denver, Colo. was:

Lewis Benham, 20, son of Mrs. Margaret Benham, 243 Helen St., Rochester. Attending Wilmington College, Ohio, he was graduated from Rochester High School in June 1959.

The youths were selected on the basis of competitive examinations from among 41 applicants from Oakland County. "I am certain that these young men are the cream of the crop, and that they will be a credit to the armed services," said Broomfield.

Each will begin a four-year course of study at the Military or the Air Force Academy and will be commissioned second lieutenants upon completion of their course of study.

Warn Residents of Poisoned Meat —to Kill Dogs

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Hamburger containing a quick-acting poison is being placed on streets in the area of Oxbow Lake by an unknown person for the purpose of killing dogs, police warned residents today.

Police Chief Andrew Plano said that a patty of hamburger containing poison wheat was found yesterday by a resident in front of his home.

Plano asked residents to call the department if anyone is seen in the act of spreading the contaminated meat on area streets or roads.

"The poison wheat, which contains strychnine and can be purchased in feed stores, usually for the purpose of killing rats, paralyzes the nervous system and could be extremely dangerous to young children if they got hold of it in the hamburger form.

Two dogs have died from the poisoned meat in the last year. Six have died from eating the meat in the past several years.

John P. Langan, S. J., a former Detroit resident, captured first place and a $50 prize in the Greek translation contest.

In the Latin translation competition, Langan and Peter J. Harvey, S. J. were awarded second and third places respectively and prizes of $15 and $10.

Most of the students at the college become teaching novices in one of the four Jesuit educational institutes in Detroit and Cleveland.

Workshop Gutted in Shelby Township

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — A fire gutted the interior of a small workshop and did slight damage to the outside of a home at 14230 23-Mile Road early today.

★ ★ ★

The home is owned by Otto C. Herling who used the workshop for storage of paint, tools and gardening equipment.

★ ★ ★

Meitz estimated damage to the workshop at about $1,500 and approximately $150 to the home. The cause of the fire was undetermined.

Waterford, Birmingham, Cranbrook Thinclads Favored in Regional

PCH Opens Defense of Title

Pontiac Central's reign as state Class A track champion will be in double jeopardy Saturday.

The Chiefs open defense of their crown in regional competition at Detroit Thurston. PCH's hold on the laurels has been slipping. Waiting to battle for the honors are thinclads from Birmingham Seaholm and Waterford.

★ ★ ★

All three will be at Thurston. So will Pontiac Northern. The Huskies posted a 73½-35½ triumph over Farmington Friday. Waterford warmed up for the regional by trouncing Southfield, 79-30, in a tight meet. Walled Lake rolled past Berkley, 68-41.

Another county team with a good chance of winning a state championship is Cranbrook. The Cranes will send a strong team to the Class B regional at Thurston.

The top three finishers in each regional event will advance to the state finals May 20 at three different sites.

Although not as strong as previous years, Pontiac Central should qualify participants in at least two events and probably more. Bradell Pritchett, defending state champion, should win the shot put. Central's mile relay team of Bob Crockett, Bill Campbell, Jim Nelson and Ken Byrd has been beaten once this year.

Waterford has a strong team in the regional. Barring a misfortune, miler Joe Kaines and hurdler Joe Falls should win at Thurston and again in the state fina's.

Mike Sickels may not win the 100 or 220 at Thurston but he is expected to be among the top three finishers.

Birmingham has strength in the relays, 440 and broad jump. Pete and Bill Henderson, Scott Purvis and Tom Sweeney are the key members of coach Kermit Ambrose's team. Shot-putter Bob Teichman may place behind Pritchett.

Ferndale's Dorie Reid is favored to win the two dashes.

Cranbrook has a top rated sprinter in Barney Crouse. The Cranes are strong in the relays, mile, hurdles and high jump.

Unbeaten Lake Orion has two contenders for regional and state honors. Doug Gawne has turned in the best pole vault performance in the county, clearing 12 feet. Bucky Craven is a good sprinter.

Kaines ran the fastest reported high school mile in the state last night at Southfield. The Waterford star was clocked in 4:26. This is four-tenths of a second faster than his second place time at the Mansfield Relays and set school and field records.

Tom McArthur shattered the Skippers' 440 record, winning in :52.3.

Southfield's Fred Penness set a school shot-put record with a heave of 55 feet 1½ inches.

★ ★ ★

Northern's thinclads set school records in the 100 and 880 relay at Farmington. The relay team was clocked in 1:35.2. Bill Young lowered the century standard to 10.4. He also won the 220 and tied Chris Payne and Dave Shields for high jump honors.

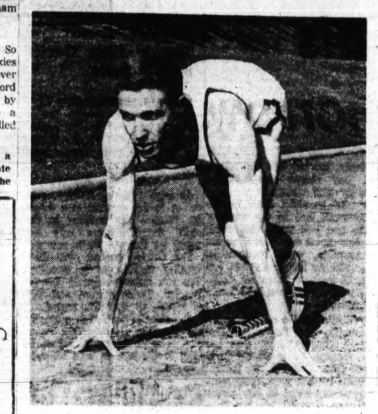
Mike Vanderwelde won both hurdles and Norm Smith captured the 100 and 220 and ran on the winning 880 relay team to lead Walled Lake's triumph.

In baseball, Wayne-Oakland powers Bloomfield Hills, Milford and Clarkston kept winning while St. Michael dropped a 7-6 verdict to St. Benedict.

The Barons scored twice in the opening inning and went on to whip Clarenceville 10-4 although out-hit. Bill Bennett was the winner backed by a double and single for Mark Miller. Joe Nye doubled twice for Clarenceville. Bloomfield and Milford are now 6-1-1.

The Redskins outlasted Holly to triumph 14-10 yesterday. They led all the way after a four-run 1st featuring three hits and three runs batted in by John Sitko. Doug Williams was the loser. There were 14 errors.

Clarkston held 2nd at 5-2 holding off a late bid for an upset. Bill Powell was the victor with relief help from Stan Gerbeck. Dick DeBose tripled in what proved to be the deciding runs in the 5th. Jerry Powell also had a triple in a 3-3 verdict over Brighton. Fred Dymond took the defeat.



Pontiac Press Photo

DASH THREAT—Barney Crouse of Cranbrook is one of the favorites to win the Class B state 100-yard dash championship May 20. The Crane sprinter must qualify in tomorrow's regional at Detroit Thurston. He has been clocked in 9.9 seconds this spring.

Pontiac Press Photo

SETS RECORD — Waterford's Mike Kaines ran the fastest reported mile in the state last night at Southfield. He was timed in 4:26, a school record, as the Skippers remained unbeaten in dual meet competition, 79-30.

Golf Off

By BILL CORNWELL

The National Golf Foundation, a non-profit organization devoted to furthering golf activities and facilities, is urgently calling for a plan of action that will provide the nation with 30,000 additional golf courses by the 21st century.

Obviously, this is a long-range program posing many problems and possible pitfalls, but it's a fundamentally sound idea based upon the so-called "population explosion" across the nation and the subsequent law of "supply and demand."

Oakland County certainly is not exempt from this long-range strategy. To be perfectly frank, despite the fact that this area now has 20 public golf courses and 36 altogether, more links are needed — unless you don't mind being kayoed by somebody's tee shot.

Playing golf on a public links nowadays is often a highly hazardous occupation, especially during the early and middle portions of the week when league action reaches its peak.

Yours truly has been struck twice by the hard white ball off the stick of some wayward shooter who carelessly neglected to yell "fore." Fortunately, the pellet happened to hit your reporter in the flabby part of a gradually-expanding waistline.

Although the foregoing is a flagrant case of carelessness, it does indicate that public courses are sometimes crowded beyond their actual capacity.

* * *

The city of Pontiac needs at least one extra municipal links—and maybe more. Pontiac, with approximately 82,000 people, has only one municipal layout. Our state capital of Lansing, on the other hand, has four city-operated layouts to handle a population approximately 20,000 higher.

Standing, fidgeting, practice swinging, practice putting and leaning on a club waiting in line to tee off, all are frequent sights at public links—and not just on the first tee, either.

If you're a member of a weekly league, such procedure is more or less expected. But if you like to play a relaxed, leisurely round, much of the enjoyment is removed by having to push the group ahead of you in order to keep from getting whacked in the noggin.

In this respect, of course, the private club golfer has many advantages. For numerous reasons, a private club player is seldom pushed from behind.

* * *

Granted that golfers could do several things during a round to speed up their play, there still aren't enough public courses to meet the ever-all demand.

Kensington Park will become Oakland County's 20th public layout May 27. This area will have two more courses next year when Al and Lee Kocsis begin operating their all-par-three Glenlore links and Michigan PGA president Don Soper opens his Royal Oak Golf Club, restricted to Royal Oak residents.

How many public courses will Oakland County have in the year 2000? Who knows!

SHORT PUTTS

Mrs. Ken Thayer and Mrs. Fred Frederickson shared low net honors in the Women's Silver Lake Golf League, season opener. Low gross honors went to Mrs. Elbert Looney while Mrs. Harry Freeman won the "blind hole" event and putting accolades fell to Mrs. Paul Castleberry and Mrs. Fred Stimpert.

* * *

Team competition in the Michigan Publinx Golf League will start Sunday. The 1961 loop will consist of two six-team divisions.

* * *

Tam O'Shanter pro Warren Orlick is bothered by muscle spasms in his back and probably won't be able to play until July . . . Prep Regional Golf Tests Today

Oakland County area golf teams hopefully shoot for berths in the state finals today in the Michigan High School Athletic Association's regional golf meets.

The annual state finals are scheduled Saturday, May 20, at Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo.

Oakland County area golfers are competing today at three sites — Swartz Creek Golf Club near Flint, Farmington Country Club and Burroughs Country Club at Brighton.

Four teams qualify for the Class A finals at Brighton and the 16-team field includes Pontiac Central, Pontiac Northern, Waterford, Berkley, Birmingham Seaholm, Bloomfield Hills, Walled Lake and defending state champ Ann Arbor.

Clarkston, Holly, Milford, South Lyon, West Bloomfield and host Brighton are among 13 schools in the Class B field with three qualifying for the state event.

Royal Oak St. Mary and Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes are among a dozen C-D teams at the Burroughs course with three advancing to the finals.

St. Frederick and St. Michael enter C-D competition at Swartz Creek while Royal Oak Shrine tries its luck in Class B and Rochester and Lapeer wade into the "A" division.

There are 18 "A" schools in the Farmington field with five qualifying for the state test. Area Class A teams at Farmington O.C. include Mt. Clemens, Oak Park, Roseville, RO Dondero, RO Kimball, Southfield and host Farmington.

Three schools qualify for the state meet in today's Class B regional at Farmington. The 12-team field lists six area teams — Birmingham Brother Rice, Clarenceville, Madison, L'Anse Creuse, Northville and Troy.

Competition is scheduled for 18 holes with winners and state qualifiers being determined by a four-man team stroke total.

Another Spree for Batters

City Softball League batters enjoyed another spree in Thursday night's four-game card at Beaudette and Northside parks.

* * *

Action in the newly-formed Continental loop found Big Bear Construction smothering St. Paul, 10-1; St. Joseph Hospital trouncing Stadium Inn, 18-7; and Sarko Investment routing Harry's Hideaway, 12-1.

Boys Club outscored State Hospital, 18-14, in a wild International game.

Big Bear launched a 17-hit attack against St. Paul with Dick Smith making three safe blows to set the pace. Jim Lund pitched one-hit ball for the winners.

The Hospital boys put Stadium on the critically-ill list with a 16-hit assault, featuring three safeties apiece by Anderson, Montgomery and Barbe.

Sarko's massacre of Harry's was stopped by the 10-run rule after three innings. The victors notched 10 hits and Bill Pittman hurled a three-hitter.

Malley and Bannon each clouted solo home runs for the Boys Clubbers in their free-scoring duel with State Hospital. Malley and Runyon both had four safeties to spark BC's 16-hit offense and Virgil socked three of the lower's 12 hits.

Divides Softball Games

Pontiac and Waterford softball teams split a doubleheader last night at Drayton Plains. Floyd Hicks combined for a three-hitter in Sno-Bol's 7-0 blanking of Waterford Stroh's with Jim Long slamming a triple and three singles. Scoring three in the 7th, Stroh's won the nightcap 4-3 behind a six-hit job by Bob Ferree.

Old-Time Saints Can Lose Designations

By JULES LOH

NEW YORK (AP)—When Philomena lost her sainthood a few weeks ago it surprised many Roman Catholics, as well as others, that what they considered an irrevocable title could be withdrawn.

It is true that canonization — the process of declaring a person a saint—involves an "ex cathedra" pronouncement by the Pope, which Catholics regard as infallible.

★ ★ ★

The fact is, Philomena never was canonized.

There is no chance of the same fate befalling Sister Bertilla Boscarin, the Italian nun and hospital worker who was made a saint Thursday in the Catholic Church's regular canonization process.

Originally the terms saint (from the Latin word sanctus, holy) was applied to all persons popularly deemed as holy.

★ ★ ★

Local bishops approved of public veneration of such persons, and they came to be listed as saints. The Roman martyrology roll lists about 4,500 persons titled as saints though never formally canonized.

FIRST IN 993

The first papal canonization was in 993 when Pope John XV proclaimed Biship Ulric of Augsburg a saint, and to end the abuses Pope Alexander III in 1170 reserved the right of canonization to the Pope alone.

★ ★ ★

BISHOPS CURBED

Finally in 1634 Pope Urban VII expressly prohibited all bishops from naming saints on their own, and the approximately 250 persons declared as saints by Popes since then stand no chance of being "un-sainted."

The Catholic Church today follows a rigid process of canonization set up by Pope Benedict XIV in 1750.

The procedure often requires centuries, and usually great expense — sometimes as much as $100,000—which must be borne by the person or group sponsoring the cause.

★ ★ ★

The church requires that a person be dead 50 years before the process can even begin, though this rule has been waived in certain cases.

Mother Cabrini, the only American citizen to become a saint, was canonized in 1946, only 29 years after her death; and the newest saint, Sister Bertilla, died in 1922. On the other hand, the two other saints canonized by Pope John XXIII, St. Carlo de Sezze and St. Joaquina de Vedruna de Mas, died in 1670—and 1854 respectively.

STARTS AT HOME

The canonization process begins in the home diocese of the "servant of God," as he is referred to throughout the procedure. The local bishop collects every shred of evidence available and sends it to the Roman Rota, the Vatican's "appellate court."

The Rota appoints an ecclesiastical lawyer known popularly as "the devil's advocate" to refute all the evidence the sponsor of the cause can produce. Often the evidence runs into volumes.

The Rota then either approves or disapproves of submitting the case to the Sacred Congregation of Rites, a permanent commission of cardinals established in 1588.

In three successive meetings the cardinals discuss the subject's sanctity and virtue. Proof offered must be specific, preferably eye-witness reports. The Pope attends the third meeting, and if he decides the subject possessed virtue "in an heroic degree" the subject receives the title of "Venerable."

Three more meetings are held to establish the second requirement of sainthood—proof of miracles wrought through the subject's intercession after his death.

This is the greatest stumbling block because in the case of instantaneous cures of organic disorders at least two recognized medical authorities must testify the cure could not have come about naturally.

★ ★ ★

If two miracles are proved, the subject receives the title of "Blessed" and is allowed to be venerated in certain localities.

But two more miracles must be proved before the person can be canonized a saint. Again, the cardinals meet three times with the Pope attending the third meeting to make the final and irrevocable decree.

At present there are about 700 cases under investigation by the Congregation of Rites, some of them pending since the 14th century.

Hair May Hold Secret to Mental, Heart Illnesses

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Does hair hold the secret to what particularly makes a person subject to mental illness or heart attack?

★ ★ ★

A Western Michigan University research team intends to find out. It has the backing of the National Science Foundation.

The team emphasizes that its investigations so far are inconclusive, but it has found that the magnesium content of women's hair is higher than that of men's; that as men age the magnesium content diminishes but increases with age in women's hair.

Men are more susceptible to heart attacks than women, but whether magnesium or the lack of it is responsible is a question it may take a long time to answer.

The team is made up of Dr. Stanley K. Derby, associate professor of physics; Lamar Bullock, a graduate students, and James Beardsley, a WMU senior. Their study already is a year and a half old.

Beardsley, from Lansing, will devote several months to the study of hair specimens collected from patients at Kalamazoo State Hospital, a mental institution. His goal: Can anything be found that points to the cause of mental illness?

The study will cover a wide range.

But up to now, Dr. Derby says, the trio has been recording primarily the presence of metalic elements in human hair. So far they have found 20 which appear in all samples.

Kangaroos Hop Into U.S. Zoos From Australia

CATSKILL, N.Y. (AP)—The kangaroo population of the United States took a giant hop today with the arrival of 34 animals from Australia.

★ ★ ★

The kangaroos, unloaded in Boston, were the first to reach these shores since Australia clamped an embargo on the export of its thinning wild life last year, a spokesmaa for the Catskill game farm said.

★ ★ ★

This shipment was authorized because the animals entered on a duty-free, exchange basis. U.S. zoos in return will send North American animals to Australia.

GOP on March to Raise Funds

Republican Volunteers in Oakland County Out to Collect $20,000

With a goal of $20,000, Oakland County Republican volunteers yesterday began wearing out the shoe leather as they marched in their annual "neighbor-to-neighbor" fund raising drive.

Those Republicans who contribute, to make "a pledge for progress," will automatically become financial shareholders in the party and members of a unique advisory board which gives them a voice in party decisions.

"We'd like to see every Republican become an active supporter of his party by making a sustaining financial pledge," Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. explained.

* * *

"Oakland County has an effective year-round GOP organization, and it requires year-round financial supporter," he added.

HEADS CAMPAIGN

Heading up the fund drive are Alvin R. Balden, 12732 Elgin St., Huntington Woods, and Mrs. Richard C. Van Dusen, 32305 Bingham Road, Bingham Farms.

To back up the organization's "shareholder's" concept, every person solicited will be given a 12-page "shareholders report" that describes the Oakland GOP's activities and goals.

Elliott said that each contribution will be divided among the county, state and national levels of the party. Thirty-thousand dollars was collected last year.

"That's why we're stressing the importance of contributing to the county organization," he said. "A political party is only as strong as the local units that comprise it, and a contribution to the county is really a contribution to the entire party."

* * *

The fund drive is expected to last through most of May, Elliott said.

Market Prices Up Irregularly

NEW YORK (AP)—Some large blocks in selected issues featured active early trading today as stock market prices showed an irregular edge to the upside.

Most gains and losses of key stocks were fractional.

Electronics and other stocks favored by traders produced a few gains running from 1 to 2 points.

The market was bringing an irregular week to a close and although economic news remained encouraging, cross currents in trading still prevailed.

Airlines resumed moderately their rally of Thursday. Rails were up narrowly on balance. Oils inched ahead. Motors were steady.

Rubbers lagged away from their latest improvement. Chemicals, aircrafts and nonferrous metals were mixed.

Biggest opening block was 17,400 shares of Graham-Paige, up ⅛ at 2⅝. Publicker Industries, Thursday's most active stock, rose 1⅛ to 13⅞ on a large opener of 13,000 shares. Sperry Rand was unchanged at 34 on 6,000 shares.

Avnet continued to rebound, adding 1⅜ at 57⅜, on 5,500 shares. American Machine & Foundry recovered another 2 points at 107.

Welfare Recipient Puts in Guilty Plea

A plea of guilty to a charge of fraudulent receipt of welfare funds was entered in Circuit Court yesterday by 25-year-old Jeanette M. Roteman, a former Waterford Township resident.

She admitted before Judge William J. Beer that she defrauded the county welfare board of more than $1,000 between 1959 and 1960.

During that period she was collecting welfare money for the supposed support of her two children who actually had been given in custody to her former husband, according to Assistant County Prosecutor Richard Condit.

Judge Beer scheduled sentencing for May 22, and she was remanded to the county jail.

Waite's Sets Up Fringe Benefit

Announces Retirement Program for Workers to Start Immediately

Clifford C. Grovogel, manager of Waite's Department Store, today announced a retirement program for store employes. It is the first such plan at the Pontiac store, he said.

* * *

The program, designed by management in a voluntary move, Grovogel said, is effective immediately and will be detailed to employes at a meeting Monday.

The retirement benefits will supplement Social Security, Grovogel said.

For qualifying employes with the company for at least 20 years, the program will include regular monthly benefits following retirement, he said.

* * *

For qualifying employes with the company less than 20 years and those whose regular work week is less than 30 hours long, the program involves a cash settlement at retirement, Grovogel said.

* * *

The retirement plan does not include any financial contribution on the part of employes, he added.

Will Study Contract for Detroit Water

City commissioners have under study today a proposed contract under which Detroit water would flow to Pontiac at a base rate of $1.51 a thousand cubic feet.

They are not expected to act on it officially for a couple weeks or more.

City Manager Walter K. Williman submitted the proposals to commissioners at an informal meeting last night as the product of seven week's negotiation with management of the Detroit Department of Water Supply.

The rate is just what he and engineering experts said it would be when the commission authorized the contract negotiations April 30.

TO TALK IT OVER

Commissioners decided last night that they probably would talk the contract over in detail at another informal meeting this month or next before any move that would see it go to the commission table for a vote.

They asked for a layman's summary of the contract from Williman, and a report from City Attorney William A. Searl on its legal soundness.

The proposed contract, almost identical with the ones Detroit has with its long-time users of Detroit water in Southern Oakland County, follows the lines made public after the April 30 meeting.

Not included in the contract is the rate Pontiac customers would be charged if the commission votes to replace the present well system with Detroit water.

It's up to the commission alone to determine local water bills. Factors include the base rate for Detroit water and the $3 million or more which engineers say it will cost to revamp the city's water distribution system.

Another factor that may push water bills higher is the cost of operating the new sewage treatment facilities that'll be under construction soon.

In Pontiac, the water bills include sewage treatment costs.

VFW 5th District Plans Marble Event Sunday

The 5th District Unit of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold its annual marble tournament Sunday for boys 15 years old and under from Oakland and Macomb counties.

The tourney is slated for 12:30 p.m. at Fraser VFW Post No. 6691, according to Dewey Guild, cochairman of the youth activity committee for the VFW 5th District.

An open house will follow the tournament. District winners will qualify for the state contest in Eaton Rapids next month.

Warns of War Against Ads

Ernest Jones Bemoans Impending Step-Up of 'Intellectualized Attack'

CINCINNATI — As the national economy climbs toward an estimated $800 billions, the volume of advertising necessary to attain that gross national product will draw increased critical fire, Ernest A. Jones, president of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., Bloomfield Hills predicted today.

The advertising agency head spoke before the Advertising Federation of America in convention here.

"The competitive pressure is likely to be unnerving to those who favor growth but detest growth pains," Jones said. "Or to those who stand four-square for progress but forget that progress means change and sometimes irritation. For every economic omelette some eggheads must be broken."

The predicted intellectualized attack will not be aimed at growth, progress, better living or increased freedom of choice for the consumer, Jones said.

"Instead it is likely to be directed at the phenomena which produces those values — advertising. The perfect target," he noted, "because it is everywhere and like anything omnipresent is likely to prove irritating to a certain number at any given time; something like the weather."

* * *

As an antidote, Jones urged assumption of a "tripartite responsibility" by business, media and advertising in presenting public faith which, he said, is the focal point of attack.

"ROAD-TESTED" WITHOUT ROAD — This heavy-duty GMC truck undergoes a series of tests on the electrically-driven chassis dynamometer in GMC Truck & Coach Division's new quality control testing program. A large percentage of GMC's light line, plus 80 per cent of the new medium and heavy-duty trucks, passes through this rigid procedure before leaving the factory.

GM Trucks Put Through Paces

A unique quality control program in which GMC trucks are scientifically "road tested" without leaving factory grounds has been launched by GMC Truck & Coach Division, reliability director Sheldon G. Little announced today.

★ ★ ★

He said light, medium and heavy-duty GMC trucks are put through their paces now on an electrically driven chassis dynamometer that simulates road travel and gauges the vehicles' performance under actual driving conditions.

"Since instituting this program, which incidentally is the only one in existence in the truck manufacturing industry today," Little said, "we feel we have struck another blow toward making highways safer and have also elevated our testing efficiency substantially.

"Brake tests are so comprehensive that they could hardly be duplicated by conventional road-test methods," he continued. "Gauges scientifically check full braking power, adjustment, drag, balance and pull.

"Besides the brake tests, we also check more than 21 other performance characteristics, including engine efficiency and drive train operation."

★ ★ ★

A sizable cross-section of GMC's light line, and virtually all of the division's medium and heavy-duty models, pass through this rigid dynamometer procedure before leaving the factory.

★ ★ ★

Each vehicle goes through a 30-minute checkup, which also includes a stiff under-chassis inspection. Two men handle each test, so one is free to observe the vehicle's performance and watch the gauges while the other man remains in the cab.

The dynamometer rollers spin the front wheels of each unit at normal road speeds to check bearings, wheel and tire runout and bounce, and steering performance.

★ ★ ★

Rear wheels of the test vehicle spin the dynamometer rollers which have been set to place a controlled load on the power train. This permits the technicians to determine how well the vehicle performs under partly or fully loaded conditions.

17-Year-Old Is Ordered to Circuit Court Monday

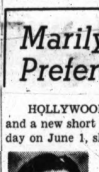
Charged with attempted breaking and entering in the nighttime, 17-year-old Larry Scribner, 44 Forest St., is scheduled for arraignment at 1:30 p.m. Monday in Circuit Court.

He is accused of trying to break into a home at 369 S. East Blvd. March 30, when he was arrested by Pontiac police.

Arraigned in Municipal Court Wednesday, he waived examination and was released by Judge Cecil B. McCallum on $100 personal bond pending appearance in Circuit Court.

Marilyn Likes Freedom; Prefers Playing Field

HOLLYWOOD—Marilyn Monroe's got back the old bounce and a new short hairdo, and as she approaches her 35th birthday on June 1, she gaily insists she's going to remain single—



WILSON

"I like my freedom," she says. "I like to play the field."

"Particularly the outfield, don't you?" I asked her—thinking of Joe DiMaggio.

"I think I'd prefer being the catcher," Marilyn laughed. Her white blonde hair which had come to her shoulders was now just below her ears; hair stylist George Masters had given her what he called "a killer cut" (because he thought it was sensational.)

She spoke of DiMaggio fondly. "But we tried marriage once" — a dismissal of that idea—"We're friends and that's a good way to end up after so many years."

Looking her prettiest and thinnest, she said she'll do "Rain" on TV "I don't care which year—one of these years." She's been sun-bathing "protected by the shrubbery" and, riskin ga pun, she said, "I can work or loaf, and now I'm in the mood for loaf."

In a couple of serious moments, she exploded the idea that she'd divorced playwright Arthur Miller despite the fact he'd written a "love poem" — "The Misfits" — for her.

Marilyn'll go back to drama studies with Lee and Paula Strasberg when she returns to New York.

"I've been criticized for being coached," she said. "I've seen baseball players coached right on the field. If they can do it in baseball, why not in the movies?"

CBS Handles Issue of Censorship Deftly

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Television peeked into the motion picture industry's boudoir last night.

★ ★ ★

"CBS Reports," in offering, "Censorship and the Movies," managed to be objective and well-organized as it surveyed the flammable subject.

The report included a brief history of motion picture censorship — from Fatima's hootchy-kootchy to Melinda Mercouri— along with general and specific discussions of local film censorship and the problems it raises, industry self-regulation, constitutional questions, the British viewpoint and religious considerations.

In presenting this ticklish problem, narrator Howard K. Smith and producer Arthur Morse's film crews succeeded in illuminating the subject without taking sides. Smith's conclusion, in fact, was a simple, "To see or not to see, that is the question."

★ ★ ★

The program managed to throw itself across the barbed wire barriers of motion picture censorship without getting emotionally entangled or cut up.

Some of the discussion about films such as "Never on Sunday" was as unabashedly frank as some of the dialogue on "The Jack Paar Show."

It's interesting to speculate on how professional censors who were interviewed on last night's show might react to their own appearances.

Or do they consider TV, unlike motion pictures, to be so far gone that anything goes?

THE CHANNEL SWIM: David L. Tolper Productions has begun work on "The Rafer Johnson Story," a documentary dealing with the life of the world's decathlon champion. Jack Haley Jr. will produce the hour-long program.

Perry Como has lined up George Gobel, Martha Raye, Johnny Puleo and his harmonica gang and Paul Lynde for his May 24 NBC-TV show, which originates in Chicago.

To Investigate Cuban Report

Morse Says Unit Will Check Report U.S. Has Invasion Survivors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said today his Senate Latin Affairs subcommittee will look into reports that the United States is holding some survivors of the Cuban invasion force incommunicado on the Caribbean island of Vieques, a U.S. Marine base.

The subcommittee, of which Morse is chairman, has been hearing secret reports on the invasion flop.

Reports that invasion survivors, some reportedly wounded, were being held on the Marine base cropped out at U.S. naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba, New York City, and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Newsmen have been denied permission to visit Vieques presumably because U.S. officials want furor over the Cuban debacle to die down.

OVERHEARS PLANS

It was learned from reliable sources that Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., only member of Congress to learn in advance of the invasion plans, overheard them by chance while a guest of President Kennedy enroute by airplane to Florida on March 30.

The same sources said that White House staffers masterminding the invasion included Arthur H. Schlesinger Jr., special assistant to the President, and Adolph A. Berle and Prof. Lincoln Gordon of the special Cuban task force.

Demand for Bible Stepped Up by Tense World

NEW YORK (UPI) — Increased political tensions have created a stepped-up demand for the Bible in all parts of the world, the American Bible Society reported today.

Korea, Cuba and the Congo, where missionaries faced a difficult time after turmoil broke out, accounted for the biggest increase by percentage in requests for the Scriptures, the society said at its annual meeting. Domestic distribution also showed a substantial increase.

The society said its record distribution of 23,210,485 volumes during 1960 was 32 per cent higher than the previous record year 1959.

GMC Gets Contract to Build 43 Buses

General Motors Truck & Coach Division has been awarded a $378,889 contract for construction of 43 buses.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit office of the Ordnance Tank-Automotive Command announced the contract recently.

Buses will be of the high headroom school, 45-passenger type, the contract said.

Enrollment Holds Key to Transfer of Students

Special housing arrangements for elementary students at four Pontiac schools were outlined at the Pontiac Board of Education meeting last night.

The arrangements for transfer of students will hinge entirely upon whether projected enrollment estimates for next September actually hold true.

Problems are expected to arise at Franklin, Herrington, Mark Twain and Whittier elementary schools.

According to administrative estimates, Franklin would be 25 over its capacity of 480 pupils based on school district standards.

★ ★ ★

This would mean three sections of kindergarten would be using one classroom on a half-time basis. If this happens, one section would be transported to Bagley School so the room could be used full time.

At Herrington and Mark Twain, administrators say projected enrollments may not be realized. It had been estimated that Herrington would be 52 over capacity and Mark Twain 30 over.

MAY TRANSFER SOME

"The housing construction rate in the Herrington area has diminished, but should it increase this summer we might have to change the service area boundaries," said Dr. Otto C. Hufziger, assistant superintendent.

"If overenrollment occurs, we would transfer children living on Cameron or Kenilworth streets, between Mt. Clemens and Featherstone, to Emerson School."

Occupancy rate of rentals in the Twain service area is decreasing somewhat, but it is likely there will be more pupils than school capacity in September.

If class sizes develop beyond expectations, some pupils will be transferred to McCarroll School.

If not, administrators may approve an increase in class sizes and provide compensating increases in physical education and library services.

★ ★ ★

The capacity of Whittier is 465. An estimated 460 pupils will enroll there next fall. To avoid cramped conditions, it was suggested that the special education room now at Whittier be transferred to either Bethune or Bagley schools.
