A Milestone in Trucks

DRAMATIZED BY DRAWING — The 60-degree "V" design of GMC's advanced family of V-6 gasoline truck engines is dramatized in this phantom drawing. With its 60-degree cylinder block, the narrow, compact engine lends itself to a variety of cab designs and fits between the frame rails without interfering with wheel or steering mechanisms.

GMC Division Announces New V-6 Truck Engines

Development of a highly advanced family of V-6 gasoline truck engines whose durability promises to be as much as three to four times greater than existing designs was announced today by Philip J. Monaghan, vice president of General Motors and general manager of GMC Truck and Coach Division.

These new engines—the first of their kind ever developed—include a 12-cylinder powerplant having the same 60-degree "V" design that is common to the entire group.

Monaghan said prolonged dynamometer tests indicate the engines have durability factors and advanced structural features making them far superior to existing designs.

"With proper application and maintenance procedures," Monaghan said, these engines have a potential of between 100,000 and 200,000 miles of continuous operation without major overhaul.

"Actual performance figures gained from operating the engines in current-model GMC trucks support dynamometer findings and indicate that this development is the first major advancement in truck engine design in over 20 years."

Although the availability date for these engines in new GMC truck models has not yet been determined, Monaghan emphasized that the engines are an integral part of the GMC truck engineering development program known as "Operation High Gear."

★ ★ ★

In addition to setting new durability standards, the V-6's hold promise of increased earnings for truck operators by providing a new level of truck performance, giving better fuel economy, holding main-

Revolt Rumors, Many Arrests Stir in Cuba

Castro to Answer Plea for Clarification From People With TV Report

HAVANA (AP)—Cubans looked today to Prime Minister Fidel Castro to clear up the welter of rumors of armed invasion and domestic conspiracy that attended sweeping arrests over the weekend.

While a government blackout obscured many details, Havana newspapers said Castro will report to the nation by radio and TV at an opportune moment. They didn't say when that might be.

An official source said Sunday up to 200 men — civilians and regular army men — had been arrested to smash a military plot against Castro's revolutionary regime.

Today the newspaper Revolution, which frequently speaks for that regime, said possibly more than 1,000 persons were detained in connection with "the counter-revolutionary conspiracy," it reported they included several large landowners. These were not named.

Military sources said most of the persons detained are held under precautionary arrest or for further investigation rather than on solid charges.

Castro leaders, they said, decided to make a clean sweep by detaining anyone within the armed forces who might conceivably have had a part in the alleged con-

Off to Soviet Union

PRESS PUBLISHER TO TOUR RUSSIA — First American newspaper editors to tour Russia since the visit by Vice President Richard M. Nixon are Harold A. Fitzgerald (left), publisher of The Pontiac Press, and W. D. Maxwell, editor of The Chicago Tribune. Both men are directors of the Associated Press. Along with Mrs. Maxwell (front) and Mrs. Fitzgerald (rear), the newsmen left Detroit Saturday. They will leave Berlin by automobile for Warsaw, Poland and will enter the Soviet Union Thursday for a two-week tour, talking mainly to newspaper reporters and editors.

241 Are Missing in Calamity on Chinese Island

27,000 Dwellings Are Ruined or Damaged in Century's Worst Deluge

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The death toll from the century's worst floods on this Nationalist Chinese island rose today to 773 by official count. Another 241 persons were listed as missing.

The official casualty list also reported 1,093 injured and 169,173 homeless. The floods destroyed 15,178 houses and damaged 11,890 more, the government reported. Most of the damage occurred in isolated communities hit by flash floods that followed the island's heaviest rains in 62 years.

The torrential rains fell Friday as Typhoon Ellen bore down on Japan after bypassing northern Formosa earlier in the week. But local weathermen said the rains on Formosa resulted from a storm in the South China Sea, not from Ellen.

Taipei, the capital and home of most Americans stationed on the Nationalist island, suffered little from the storm. Some low-lying streets were flooded Friday night, but there was little damage.

A spokesman for the U.S. command on Formosa said there were no reports of American casualties.

In the central Formosan town of Miaoli, 75 persons died and 750 houses were washed away.

Nearly 24½ inches of rain fell in 36 hours in Taichung, and water stood six feet deep in places.

President Chiang Kai-shek told the army to give all possible help to the flood victims and instructed the cabinet to get a relief program under way immediately.

The government estimated there was enough food on hand to cope with the crisis and threatened severe punishment for anyone boosting food prices.

Food Commissioner R. C. Li expressed hope that the crops might be saved if the waters recede quickly.

Peiping Radio meanwhile reported heavy rains around the Red Chinese capital. It said 20½ inches fell there in the past 37 days and that several million peasants were battling floods.

County Sees $1.5 Millon Budget Cut

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

There's a "Help Wanted" sign about to be hung outside the offices of the Oakland County Board of Auditors.

Not that they are looking for new county employes — far from it — they are seeking help in the form of "constructive suggestions" on how to cut nearly $1,500,000 from the county's 1960 budget of $13,997,018.

The cut could mean reduced services from the county and no new employes, and possibly layoffs, one official reported.

This ticklish trimming job confronts the auditors and the Board of Supervisors as they work toward final approval of the record-high budget at their Sept. 21 meeting.

It's necessary, officials point out, because the amount of money anticipated for next year during drafting of the budget won't be coming in.

A lot has taken place since the supervisors tentatively approved the budget in April and the Tax Allocation Board declared its "hold-the-line" policy on keeping the county's tax rate at $5.62 per $1,000 of equalized valuation.

First, the county's hopes that it might share in any new state taxes passed by the politically-stalemated Legislature has practically backfired.

REQUEST TRIM

Secondly, the Board of Supervisors has been asked by the city councils of Berkley and Sylvan Lake to trim the county budget because it "constitutes a burden on a majority of cities."

Thirdly, an independent survey of the 1960 budget is being made

Overcast Skies Will Stay Around a Little Longer

Partly cloudy tonight and tomorrow with temperatures rising and a chance of showers tomorrow is the U.S. Weather Bureau's prediction for the Pontiac area.

The low tonight will be 60 degrees and the high tomorrow 84.

Temperatures will average near the normal high of 82 and normal low of 62 for the next five days. It will be warmer Tuesday, a little cooler Wednesday and again a little warmer toward the weekend.

Precipitation will average near one-half an inch from showers Tuesday evening and again toward the weekend.

The lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a. m. was 60 degrees. The mercury reached 79 by 2 p.m.

Little Support for Williams

Confab Reveals Dems May Push Favorite Sons Out of Running

WASHINGTON (AP)—The contest for the Democratic presidential nomination appears to be tightening, with indications that top contenders may be able to push some favorite sons out of the running early in 1960.

The 51st Annual Governors' Conference in San Juan, Puerto Rico, last week gave little apparent support to the aspirations of Democratic Govs. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey and G. Mennen Williams of Michigan.

Meyner and Williams were unusually vocal in conference sessions but it was not noticeable that they made any political headway. Neither was there any outward surge of support for any of the other potential candidates.

Among the Democratic governors there was a recognition that Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass)

Fair Reminiscent of Twain's Days

By HARVEY ZUCKERBERG

Were Mark Twain of this day and age and in Oakland County, his cracker barrel would be as ripe and chock full of stories as when Hannibal, Mo., became legendary from his tales.

Twain's cracker barrel was the fair, big, colorful and pulsating with excitement . . . to which people would flock from miles around for their greatest event of the year.

The Oakland County 4-H Club Fair begins tomorrow and it is doubtful that Twain ever foresaw the likes of what was to come.

The 18th annual five-day exhibition will be held at the Fairgrounds at M24 and Walton boulevard. More than 2,000 Oakland County 4-H Club members will show the results of their talents and a year of hard work.

All entries must be in and set up by 7 p.m. Tuesday. The 4-H King and Queen will be picked at 7:40 and the winner of the freckle contest chosen at 8 p.m. A talent show will begin at 8:15 p.m., followed by a calvacade of horses show.

Besides exhibits, shows, social events for the next four days through Saturday, the Fair will include a host of competitions, including livestock, sewing, flowers, cooking, dairy, canning, gardening, electrical, home improvement, leadership, money management and photography.

Consisting of approximately 30 floats, cars, horse groups and marchers, the Fair Parade through Pontiac will begin at 1 p.m. Wednesday, starting from Raeburn Street on Saginaw Street and will proceed north to School Street.

Theme for the 4-H floats is "Exploring 4-H as a Family."

The reviewing stand will be located in front of the County Courthouse at Saginaw and Huron streets. Judges will be John Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac area Chamber of Commerce; Cleighton P. Melin, director of the department of music and parade, Michigan State Fair; and Charles Mortensen, president of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce.

Winners will be announced at the 4-H Parade of Floats, 7:30

Press Search for Dinner Killer

Long Island Businesses Closing Early After 3 Holdup Murders

WESTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP)—Uneasiness spread over Long Island as police stepped up the search for a killer they say has struck three times — and may strike again.

Three people have been shot to death during holdups around midnight, all within a week. In each case the victim was working alone, in a diner or delicatessen.

Many businesses are closing earlier since the third shooting last Friday night. A 50-year-old woman, bound and gagged, was found shot to death in the diner she owned. The cash register was empty and fried egg, untouched, lay on a plate on the counter.

This led police to believe that when the killer walked in someone else was in the diner, and the killer placed an order to allow the other customer to leave.

All three victims were shot with a .32-caliber pistol. But police say ballistics tests show that several guns were used. Despite this, they believe the killings were the work of the same man.

A lead developed over the weekend. Police know that a large quantity of small change was taken in the robberies, and they fastened on a report from a woman employe of a supermarket about a man who asked to exchange silver for bills Saturday. The employe said the man suddenly changed his mind and fled.

News Shout Brings Fine

LONDON (UPI) — Cyril Thompson, 42, a newsboy, was fined $5.60 for "using insulting words likely to have caused a breach of the peace." Thompson's offense—peddling his papers with the shout: "the Queen is in the family way."

Gives Eyewitness Account

Press Staffer Sees Drowning

An amateur skin diver drowned Saturday in Deer Lake in Independence Township as his horrified wife and thre other divers attempted to rescue him.

★ ★ ★

Among the eyewitnesses assisting in the rescue attempt was Pontiac Press Photographer Tom Gerls. This is his account of the tragedy:

"I was sitting in an anchored rowboat taking pictures of a salvage operation on Deer Lake when suddenly someone shouted for help," Gerls said.

PARTNER LOST

He then spotted a skin diver, Peter Raynor, of Yonkers, N. Y., about 100 yards away.

"Raynor shouted he'd lost his partner (Richard Bolger, 28, of 6839 Country Lane, Dearborn). I pulled up my anchor, backed into the salvage area to pick up two divers and started rowing as fast as I could.

"We reached Raynor in a matter of seconds. Both of the salvage

"He brought Bolger to the surface. Both he and his partner, Jack MacKay (26, of 4405 Cheeseman St., Waterford Township) while holding the victim at the surface grabbed the boat.

"I rowed quickly to a nearby dock. As we hoisted Bolger up on the dock, an inhalator crew from the Clarkston Fire Department arrived.

Ike Will Call on Bonn First

May Desire to Assure West Germany It Won't Suffer in Future Talks

Announcement here and in Bonn Sunday that Eisenhower will confer with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in Bonn on Aug. 27 came as a surprise in diplomatic circles.

While it has been stated all along that Eisenhower would see Adenauer while abroad, observers had been under the impression the chancellor would go to London or Paris rather than having Eisenhower go to Bonn.

★ ★ ★

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty came here to Eisenhower's vacation headquarters to tell reporters Eisenhower had accepted Adenauer's invitation.

The President is looking forward to the opportunity to meet with the chancellor and discuss with him "current problems of interest to the United States and the Federal Republic," Hagerty said.

Traveling by jet plane — the first time a U.S. President has done so — Eisenhower will arrive in Bonn Aug. 27 for the talks with Adenauer, and travel to London that evening for a five-day stay. During this period, he will confer with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and probably make a side visit to Balmoral Castle in Scotland, for a formal call on Queen Elizabeth II.

Eisenhower goes on to Paris Sept. 2 for meetings with French President Charles de Gaulle, Italian Premier Antonio Segni, and the two top civilian leaders of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. He has no plans to meet with all the heads of the NATO governments.

Hagerty said Eisenhower will remain in Paris for several days, but added no exact date has been set for his return to this country. Khrushchev is due in Washington Sept. 15.

Eisenhower is known to have set no date for his return visit to the Soviet Union. Instead, he is keeping his schedule flexible through next January to attend any East-West summit meeting that may be arranged. There is some thought this could develop from Khrushchev's visit here, although the odds are against it.

Will Buy Police Cars

Bids will be opened for three new police cars at tonights meeting of the Waterford Township Board. Also on the agenda for the meeting beginning at 8 p.m. at the Township Hall is a Recreation Department request for $2,000 of their annual budget.

Rain Dampens Many Sections of the Country

By The Associated Press

Showers dampened many sections of the country today.

A storm center south of the New England coast produced showers and thundershowers from New York and eastern Pennsylvania into New England. Widely scattered showers sprinkled the Ohio Valley and thundershowers were reported in northern Virginia. Falls in most places were light although one-half inch fell in parts of New Hampshire, New York and Virginia.

Another shower belt was in the central and northern plains and the middle and extreme northern Mississippi Valley.

CALL FOR HELP, DIVER DROWNING — The first note of tragedy is sounded as a skin-diver, with head and shoulders above water in upper right center of picture, calls for help. Other divers and bystanders look toward him, while the drowning victim's wife (center, with head submerged) scans the lake bottom for a glimpse of her husband, Richard Bolger, 28, of Dearborn. The drowning occurred Saturday on Deer Lake.

not much more than five minutes elapsed."

The inhalator crew worked for about 15 minutes. Oakland County Deputy Coroner Dr. Robert Buehrig of Clarkston pronounced Bolger dead shortly before 5 p.m.

"He was carrying a triple-tank with 1,800 pounds of air," Jackson said. "This would have lasted about two hours under water, more than I usually carry."

Bolger's equipment was in perfect working order, according to Jackson. Bolger's pretty wife, Doreen, 28, was also diving nearby and witnessed the entire incident.

★ ★ ★

NOT EXPERIENCED

According to Raynor, Bolger said he was going to swim underwater to a raft about 150 feet from shore.

"I noticed his air bubbles going in the wrong direction twice and each time went under to set him straight," Raynor said.

★ ★ ★

"After the second time I didn't see any bubbles at all. I couldn't locate him and called for help."

"You can buy good equipment, but you can't buy experience," said Jackson.

KILLER CAPTURED—In solitary confinement today was Mike Gisondi, Oakland County killer captured Saturday after a nine-day manhunt in Michigan's north woods. Serving a life term for the 1952 slaying of a Hazel Park bar owner and his son, Gisondi, 29, escaped from Marquette State Prison July 31 in a garbage truck. Captured, Gisondi said that "it was worth it," despite the long solitary confinement that he now faces.

Carrie Church Succumbs at 93

Was Mother of Former Pontiac Press Editor; Set Service Wednesday

Service for Mrs. Carrie M. Church, 93, mother of a former Pontiac Press editor, will be at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at William R. Hamilton Co. in Detroit.

Mrs. Church died Saturday at Brae Burn Convalescent Home in Bloomfield Hills. She recently had suffered a stroke.

Among the survivors is a son, Conrad N. Church, 218 Depew St. Sylvan Manor, who retired from the Pontiac Press in 1956.

Born Feb. 28, 1866 in Edgerton, near Grand Rapids, Mrs. Church spent many years in St. Louis in Gratiot County.

She lived most of her life in Detroit, in later years residing with another son, Felix, at 709 Seward Ave.

Mrs. Church was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Detroit Review Club, Women's City Club and Grand River Avenue Baptist Church.

Besides her two sons, she is survived by three grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Judging the King and Queen contest the previous evening (Tuesday) will be Murray D. VanWagoner, former Michigan governor and state highway commissioner, now serving as a member of the Mackinac Bridge Authority; and Lee Winborn, a staff writer for The Pontiac Press.

Contests and judging will begin 8 a.m. Wednesday and 9 a.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Evening programs are scheduled for each day of the Fair. The carnival will be open continuously.

The Fair will end Saturday evening with a square dance in the middle quonset beginning at eight.

tenance costs to a minimum, providing easier access to engine components, and reducing parts stocks through a high degree of parts interchangeability.

An extremely significant characteristic of the new engines is that they develop maximum torque or load-moving power at moderate engine speeds, increasing fuel economy and reducing engine wear while producing more usable power.

For example, a 401-cubic-inch displacement V-6 has been found to achieve maximum torque at around 1400 revolutions per minute compared with 2500 for typical V-8 engines.

Besides the 401, the engine family includes a 305 and a 351-cubic-inch displacement V-6 and the 702-cubic-inch V-12 that is generally referred to as the "Twin-Six."

With tremendous torque at low engine speeds, the Twin-Six operates at less than full power. This not only lengthens engine life and lowers fuel consumption but also provides the reserve power needed for large highway tractor-trailer combinations to take uphill grades at good speeds with a minimum of downshifting.

★ ★ ★

Passenger car operators as well as truck drivers would benefit from the highway tractor's ability to take hills in stride for the vehicle would tend to travel at normal road speeds without delaying traffic.

The engines are of an "oversquare" design, meaning the bore dimension of each is greater than its stroke. This holds internal friction and heat losses to a minimum, greatly extending engine life.

Designed to run on regular grades of gasoline, the engines have exceedingly high combustion efficiency for economical operation.

Fully-machined combustion chambers increase turbulence of the fuel-air charge and assure rapid burning of the charge during the start of the power stroke. They also provide freer breathing, closer regulation of the compression ratio and smoother operation.

All engine components, such as the block, head, crankshaft and rods, were designed for maximum rigidity and lasting strength, making the engines the most rugged of any now being manufactured.

Illustrating their ruggedness, the crankshaft of the 401 V-6 weighs about 110 pounds, almost twice as much as that of a V-8 engine of comparable displacement.

Areas of high stress have oversized sections to assure minimum flexing and reduce the chance of damage. Extra generous fillets and web reinforcements add strength and reduce wear on moving parts by holding them rigid in their correct positions.

★ ★ ★

Extra engine life is gained through the use of superior materials, elimination of engine hot spots, greater rigidity throughout, positive lubrication to all moving parts and proper cooling.

From two to three times more coolant is circulated through the new engines than in engines of previous design. Bores are surrounded by coolant for their full height and the coolant circulates at a rate of from 120 to 200 gallons per minute through the cylinder head, assuring a life expectancy far beyond that of present truck engine valves and valve seats.

All engines employ efficient rotor-type oil pumps that supply 14 gallons of oil per minute to the 6-cylinder units and 17 g.p.m. to the Twin-Six under 60 pounds of pressure, compared with 5 to 9 g.p.m. at 30 to 40 pounds on the usual gear-type pumps. The new pumps assure positive lubrication even at idling speeds.

The new engines also were designed for easy maintenance and a high degree of parts interchangeability. All 6-cylinder engines have over 70 parts in common and both 6-cylinder and Twin-Six units have over 50 parts in common.

This is especially significant to truck operators and dealers as it will tend to decrease the amount of capital needed to stock replacement engine parts. Even low-volume dealers would be able to have an adequate parts stock to do an outstanding service job for GMC truck owners.

Such components as spark plugs are easily accessible. Valve lifters, for example, can be readily removed through large access holes without removing the cylinder heads.

Little Support Seen for Gov. Williams

has at least secondary support in all the favorite son states. There was also an awareness of a continuing strong sentiment for Adlai E. Stevenson, who says he isn't making a third try for the party's nomination.

★ ★ ★

Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota got a polite reception —but no public recruits—when he sang the praises of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn). Humphrey is billing himself these days as a sort of favorite son of the Middle West.

There was discussion, but again no burst of support, for Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Humphrey is pitching his entire campaign on the assumption he can beat Kennedy in the April 5 Wisconsin primary. If he should lose there, he probably would be out of the race quickly.

Kennedy is almost certain to challenge Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in Ohio's May 3 primary if the latter assays a favorite son role. The Massachusetts senator is determined also that Gov. J. Millard Tawes shall not block Maryland off from him with an uninstructed delegate slate.

★ ★ ★

There have even been hints that Kennedy might take on Meyner in New Jersey's April 19 primary, although the result of the vote would not be binding on the delegates. Pennsylvania, where Gov. David L. Lawrence remains publicly undecided, also may offer Kennedy a target in its April 26 non-binding primary.

★ ★ ★

The one state that seems to be Kennedy-proof, so to speak, is California. There Gov. Edmund G. Brown has erected a fence against candidates in the primary that neither Kennedy nor Humphrey seems ready at this point to attempt to leap.

The Day in Birmingham

Thieves on the Day Shift Victimize Two Residents

BIRMINGHAM — Two residents discovered Saturday that some thieves work daytime hours — and practically under the noses of their victims.

Clarence Kidd, 2616 Dorcester Rd., Birmingham, keeps his power lawnmower in his back yard—or did until early Saturday afternoon. Someone opened the gate and made off with the mower.

Dr. Clarence Hall, whose office is at 177 Maple Rd., Birmingham left his front office unattended for about an hour Saturday afternoon, time enough for someone to drop in and remove three $10 bills from an unlocked cash drawer.

Another pair of Birmingham area residents found Friday that crime — in this case automobile racing on Hunter boulevard — doesn't pay.

Edward Kalaczynski, 20, of 59 Judy Lane, Bloomfield Township, and Rudolph Belian, 17, of 19660 Warwick Rd., Birmingham, were nabbed by Birmingham police at 9:30 p.m. Aug. 3 while using Hunter boulevard north of Maple road as a race track.

They were clocked at 90 m.p.h. Both appeared in Municipal Court Friday before Judge John Emery.

Both pleaded guilty and were fined $100 and $3 costs for reckless driving.

Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary will hold its annual meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Norman G. Currin, 26630 Captain's Lane, Franklin.

According to Chester S. Johns, general sales manager, Naas will serve selected companies in the Detroit and Windsor areas that use multiple-operation machine tools.

Allan R. Shilts of 1235 Dorcester Rd., Birmingham, has been named controller of the Stromberg-Carlson Division of General Dynamics Corp. in Detroit, according to Robert C. Tait, division president.

The Rev. Robert D. Dewey and family will be visiting in Birmingham this weekend. Formerly minister of the Congregational Church of Birmingham, he is now serving the Community Congregational Church of Garden City, New York.

Rumors of Revolt, Arrests Out of Cuba

A similar roundup was staged last month just before the anniversary of Castro's 26th of July revolutionary movement. At that time military and civilian detainees were estimated to total 1,500. A majority of them were released quietly two days after the celebration of the anniversary.

FAMILIES SEIZED

Families of a number of civilians seized over the weekend, including that of President Armando Cainas Milanes of the Cuban Cattle Raisers Assn., were seeking habeas corpus writs for their release.

"But our problem is to find our relatives," one man said. "They've just disappeared and no court can produce them."

Best estimates here were that only a few dozen of those detained would be formally held as conspirators.

Some sources said they believed disclosures made by Rafael del Pino, 32, of Miami, Fla., a Cuban born naturalized American wounded and arrested July 25, led to the roundup.

Police ambushed Del Pino's rented plane when he landed on a highway outside Havana. An old revolutionary comrade of Castro, he is accused of plotting against the government. A national police spokesman said his conviction might mean death before a firing squad.

Del Pino broke with Castro in 1956 after the bearded revolutionary leader accused him of tipping Mexican authorities of a Castro plan to send an expedition to Cuba. Castro charged that Del Pino betrayed him for $10,000.

Camp Libertad just outside Havana, where a number of those arrested were reported being questioned was closed off to civilians. By Midnight even telephone calls went unanswered.

An antigovernment plot was nipped at an army camp near Managua, about eight miles south of Havana. This brought about mass arrests there and at Camp Libertad of military personnel held over from deposed Dictator Fulgencio Batista's army.

Small armed bands from the Dominican Republic landed by sea and transport plane late Friday and early Saturday in a futile effort to free prisoners on the Isle of Pines. Castro forces broke up both attempts and captured a number of the raiders.

Twenty-eight mechanics of the rebel air force are being held at Camaguey after the crash of a bomber that killed the pilot and injured two others. Rebel troops there have been restricted to quarters.

Two conspirators were killed and 15 others captured in a battle with rebel troops at Cienfuegos, about 130 miles east of Cuba.

Although Raul Castro, Fidel's brother and commander in chief of the armed forces, denied invasion attempts had been made, reliable sources insisted that counterrevolutionaries made the attempts on the Isle of Pines. Radio-telephone communications with the island were out, but commercial air connections were normal.

County Faces Budget Cut of $1,500,000

by James Sherry of the Citizen's Research Council in Detroit in cooperation with the auditors.

Also, some supervisors — particularly freshman Robert J. Huber of Troy — have voiced increased interest in budget hearings starting Aug. 19 by the Supervisors' Ways and Means Committee.

Some other supervisors — who asked not to be quoted — have indicated they would be ready to fire away with many questions on certain proposed county expenditures in the coming budget at these hearings.

Norman R. Barnard, the county's corporation counsel, readily admits the county is in a "critical situation" as final approval of the budget nears.

ONE BRIGHT RAY

"We already know that we'll have to lop $1,460,800 off the preliminary budget to make it balance with expected revenues of next year," Barnard said.

The problem is where, he quickly added.

The one bright ray of financial relief for Oakland County, he said, is that the State Legislature still might approve a more even cost-sharing split in welfare costs this year. Counties have been heavily burdened since the 70-30 (with counties paying the larger share) ratio was passed several years ago.

However, this still wouldn't lessen the burden much on supervisors and auditors who must find a way of cutting the budget without upsetting county services too greatly.

Realizing that welfare costs were going to continue to climb steadily for a year or so, auditors, during drafting of the preliminary budget, had to deny many departments the individual budgets they requested.

Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the Board of Auditors, has been meeting lately with department heads to see where cuts can be made.

"They've been pretty cooperative right down the line," Moore said. He said most have consented to at least five per cent cuts in operating budgets, while in some cases cuts as high as 11 per cent will be necessary.

Yet to come before the auditors is the county's Social Welfare Department, which has asked for $2,733,700 for next year.

"They are going to take the big cut whether they like it or not," Moore said.

The county might have been able to follow through with its $13,997,018 budget had two additional sources of revenue materialized. Both are apparently dead, however, Barnard said, as the Legislature is more concerned with finding money for the whole state and not financially troubled counties like Oakland and others.

The county, with the leadership of Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors and Supervisors Inter-County Committee, pushed for a tax retention plan which would have guaranteed counties 30 per cent of any new state taxes. Schools and county government would have benefited.

This was followed up with a suggested plan for a tax on the transfer of property from one party to another.

"Both are shelved and apparently dead," Barnard said. "So it appears now there won't be any tax plan to help Oakland County."

Problems of finding new revenues aren't new for Oakland officials. "Funds don't seem available to keep up with the growing area," Barnard said.

So the Research Council — which has performed similar studies for the state and other counties — is probing the 1960 budget to see "what the major expenditures have been over the years and where the county is going," Sherry said.

Good 'Cut' Is Offered

Samurai Swords Wanted

NEW YORK (AP) — Some GIs are in for a good "cut" if they own certain ancient Samurai swords, considered by Japan to be national treasures.

The Japanese Artistic Sword Preservation Assn. has launched a treasure hunt for 42 of the fierce-looking, two-handed blades believed brought home by American servicemen after World War II. The 42 are among an estimated 350,000 carted home by the men.

Junzo Sato, representative of the association, said Friday he was prepared to present "suitable gifts" to anyone returning a valuable Samurai sword. The most treasured blades, the ones being sought, date back to the 11th and 12th centuries.

The value of the swords depends on the name of the sword maker, which is inscribed on the 30-inch blade, or the name of the family to which it belongs, Sato said.

During the war the swords were turned out by the thousands, and Sato said he was not interested in these. But the blade, he noted, has played an important part in the lives of Japan's military caste for centuries.

Sato said the Japanese consulate general here will receive returned swords and determine whether they are the treasured ones.

Finding 42 swords among a batch of a third of a million is somewhat like looking for a needle in a haystack, Sato said. And he added wryly: "There are more Samurai swords in the United States than there are in Japan."

Ex-Students to Honor Former Caro Teacher

She taught at the Conner School in Caro in the early 1900s when it was a one-room country school house.

Now Mrs. Libby Pearson of Holland, the ex-school teacher will be present to hear her former pupils join in song and reminescing. She is in her 70s. A pot-luck supper will be served.

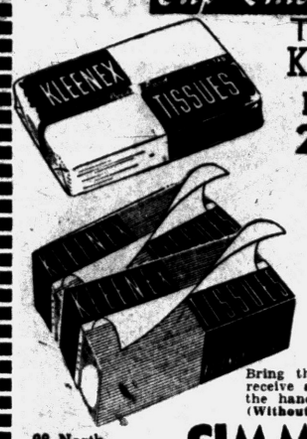

Afterthought No Good

CARLSBAD, N.M. (UPI)—Virgil Stowe, 23, following his arrest, told police he hauled a heavy safe three and one-half miles to loot it, then found he could have saved himself the trouble. "I just turned the handle and the door opened," he said.

Three out of four traffic accidents occur in daylight, on dry highways and in weather described as clear.

Spinsterhood Closes In for Margaret

Fairyland Princess Soon to Be 29

(This is the first of three dispatches providing a remarkably frank closeup of Princess Margaret as she approaches her 30th year.)

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UPI) — In a castle, or in a cottage, there is one human problem where the reactions are all the same. Daughter is getting on in years and there isn't a husband in sight. Has the family got a spinster in its midst?

They will be asking this question in one castle (and echoing it in cottages all over Britain) on Aug. 21 when little Princess Margaret Rose — is it possible? — enters her 30th year.

Queen Mother Elizabeth is frankly worried. Sister, Queen Elizabeth, is worried, too. So is brother-in-law, the Duke of Edinburgh.

What was laughed off five years ago, whispered about two years ago, is this year heartbreaking reality.

As the princess approaches her 29th birthday the shadow of spinsterhood falls ever more heavily across the celebrations planned under the towers and battlements of Balmoral in Scotland.

This situation was not foreseen by the soothsayers who rushed into print soon after the princess was born in Glamis Castle on a wild and rainy night in 1930.

LEGEND SAID 21

They said she would be married before she was 21 — generally a safe bet with royalty — as legend decreed for girls born in the storied Scottish castle where Shakespeare set "Macbeth."

As the years went on the prophecy seemed to be working out according to plan.

The girl had almost too much of everything — beauty, wealth, position and a circle of friends that included the most eligible young men of her generation.

Before she was 17 her name was linked with that of King Michael of Romania and she dated him in a plunging neckline that prompted an onlooking woman to remark to a United Press reporter: "If she was my daughter, I'd spank her."

★ ★ ★

Yet a dozen years and several dozen boy friends later Princess Margaret faces the cheerless prospect of an unmarried, childless future.

★ ★ ★

One of the grimmer aspects of the picture is the way loyal courtiers have been trying for some time to make this sound attractive. Royal princesses (they will confide) are not like ordinary people.

They can always do work of importance 'til the end of their days. They cite the case of Princess Victoria, sister of King George V and great-aunt of Margaret. She never married and she had a useful life.

And so on. But as any practicing spinster can tell Margaret, the nights get lonelier the longer you live.

So everybody is still hoping she will somehow meet a man she can love or respect enough to join before the altar in Westminister Abbey where her ancestors have married for nearly 900 years.

Even in this republican world, royalty is granted a larger-than-life vocabulary of its own. If a princess (for example) utters an occasional pleasantry, she is described as witty. If she has regular features, she is referred to as beautiful. Whatever she wears — and it sometimes can be pretty atrocious — she is praised right on to the lists of 10 best dressed women.

This screen of fairyland adjectives tends to obscure the real person. It is a buffer against the harsher judgments so often the lot of the ordinary person.

Margaret has had the protection of this golden cocoon for a long time.

But recently I had the rare opportunity of questioning someone who sees the princess as she really is from a vantage point within the royal circle.

In an hour of the frankest discussion I remember about a royal figure, a portrait of Margaret emerged which showed that she has many of the common failings as well as many of the regal virtues.

She can be arrogant — and generous. She loses friends easily — yet she can be loyal and steadfast to those she loves. She has rarely pulled her own weight of the royal family duties in the past —but now she thinks her sister, Queen Elizabeth, is working too hard and she is keen for extra assignments.

She is the highest-stepping member of the royal family since her Uncle Eddie was Prince of Wales and king of the night clubs — but she is also the most devout, with a deep and genuine feeling for the ritual of the Established Church.

One thing we both agreed upon — she is pretty by any standards though her nose is too long for photography.

She has spectacular blue eyes, white teeth, excellent skin. She is only five feet tall and under 100 pounds but movie star Jack Lemmon, who danced with her one night, considers her figure "sensatoonal."

However when I said I thought she looked younger than her age, my astringent royal source disagreed.

"I wonder why she has never married?" I said.

★ ★ ★

"Partly because of Group Captain Peter Townsend," said my source. "Partly for the rather remarkable reason that no one else has ever asked her — or if they have we have never heard about it."

(Next: Margaret and Townsend today)

Birthday-Celebrating Hoover, 85 Doubts Nikita Will Bring Peace

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert Hoover, 85 today, says Nikita Khrushchev could bring with him to the United States the greatest gift mankind has received in 1,000 years — peace.

"But this is unlikely to be the result of this visit," the former President added.

"He could interpret his oft-repeated statement as to peaceful coexistance," Hoover said Sunday, "as eliminating all international demands, all warnings, all threats and all conspiracies against free people."

Such a move, said Hoover, could win the Soviet premier "immorality among the leaders of all men."

But, he added, the possibility that Khrushchev would make such a move is remote because "the tactics of the Communists may change, but their determination to dominate the world continues."

Hoover appeared on "Meet the Press" over NBC-TV.

The forthcoming visit of the Soviet leader has hopeful possibilities, said Hoover. It could lead to a decrease in tension that might tide us over for a period in which there may be hopes of greater steps in peace," he said.

Meanwhile, he said, "We must not be lulled into any complacency. We must be alert and armed to the teeth."

Only one other former president, John Adams, celebrated more birthdays than Hoover. Adams died when he was 90.

The ruddy-faced, white-haired Hoover has a simple formula for longevity — work. He illustrates it today by spending his birthday at his desk.

He keeps six secretaries busy with his massive correspondence and activities in various organizations.

He indicated in the interview that he was confident of America's ability to meet any crisis that might occur, and to defend herself successfully if necessary. But he also saw room for improvement.

★ ★ ★

He saw need to curb "inflation, unbalanced budgets, overspending by Congress, and the growth of crime." He was outspoken on the need for improving the American educational system.

Hold Two Vassar Men for Investigation of Rape

VASSAR, Mich. (AP) — Two men were held in the Tuscola County jail at Caro today for investigation of raping a 16-year-old Vassar girl.

State police at the Bridgeport post said Wayne Withers, 23, and Robert Farnham, 21, both of Vassar, were identified by the girl as her assailants.

The men were arrested Saturday midnight after the girl's mother reported the attack. She said it occurred Friday night but she did not report it for 24 hours because the girl was frightened and did not immediately give a coherent account of what happened.

Vatican Getting Ready for Ecumenical Council

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — The Vatican City News Bulletin reports that preparations for the first Ecumenical Council here in 88 years were quickening pace, although the date of the meeting has yet to be announced.

★ ★ ★

Pope John XXIII called for the gathering in a declration last January. Some 2,700 religious leaders throughout the world have been sent letters asking for their "most frank" opinions of the council and for suggestions on problems to be discussed, the News Bulletin said.

A Heap O' Livin'

The passing of EDGAR A. GUEST, probably America's most widely known and beloved poet, leaves a void in his field that is not likely to be filled right away.

Not only will Mr. GUEST be missed by his family, but also by the thousands of friends he had made from his poems.

Guest made no pretensions of artistic greatness for his verses—literally tens of thousands of them over a fifty year period. Yet there was a greatness about them, the greatness of the simple, the homely, the sentimental.

★ ★ ★

There is room — and need — for that kind of verses in our lives, the kind EDGAR A. GUEST wrote so well.

EDDIE will be missed by all of us.

Hay Fever Season Soon Upon Us

The season for the big sneeze is fast approaching for all the millions of hay fever sufferers. If you fall in this category, make a note that August 15 is close at hand.

According to the Health News Institute the worst period is from August 15, when ragweed pollen is found in the greatest abundance, to the first Autumn frost. Hay fever still occurs in the Spring but not as severe as this time of year.

The Allergy Foundation of America estimates that at least 16,000,000 man days of working time are lost every year by hay fever sufferers. Although rarely fatal, hay fever is not a disease to be taken lightly, the HNI says. If not attended to promptly, it may well develop into bronchial asthma.

Most hay fever sufferers are allergic to ragweed pollen. However, there are a number of other substances which cause typical hay fever symptoms such as sneezing, wheezing, coughing, burning eyes and runny nose.

See your doctor if you are looking for relief. Most physicians can, through allergy tests, determine just which substances are the offenders causing your particular trouble. They are then able to reduce the sensitivity and prevent further attacks by injection of certain materials.

The pharmaceutical manufacturing industry has provided a number of medicines which do offer relief for hay fever victims. Antihistamines are best known of these products.

★ ★ ★

In many cases they will provide relief in from 70 to 90 per cent of the cases. Check with your family physician and keep your fingers crossed that you fall in the group that responds to treatment.

New Governor General Is Able Representative

Prime Minister DIEFENBAKER'S selection of retired Maj. Gen. GEORGE VANIER as Canada's new governor general representing Britain is a good one and politically astute. Confirmation of the choice by Queen ELIZABETH was merely a symbol of the ties between the two countries.

Gen. Vanier has had a long and distinguished career in diplomacy and in the army. He is an attorney and a decorated hero of World War I. In 1931 he was Canada's high commissioner to London and eight years later was envoy to France.

After that country's capitulation to the Germans, VANIER escaped to Canada and was made wartime commanding officer of the Quebec district. He campaigned vigorously against anti-conscription nationalists of that province. When war ended he resumed his ambassadorship to France and retired in 1953.

Gen. Vanier will be the second Canadian born governor general of Canada, retiring Vincent Massey being the first. The fact that the new governor general is of French descent may help to make Quebec more cooperative with the rest of Canada.

While playing an influential role in Canada's political life, French Canadians have more or less held themselves apart despite the fact that two of Canada's most distinguished and popular prime ministers, LAURIER and ST. LAURENT, were of French extraction.

It is to be hoped that Gen. VANIER'S appointment will tend to smooth out differences between Quebec and the other provinces and create a new era of amity and prosperity for the whole country.

4-H Motto: "To make the best better."

Tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at eight o'clock some boy or girl of 18 years or under gets a $50 U. S. savings bond from The Pontiac Press, at the Oakland County 4-H Club Fair.

It is to be given for the best display of freckles. Have you the brown spots, and do you need $50? Then it's up to you. Don't let this opportunity pass.

Simply be on hand just after the king and queen of the fair are selected, and make yourself known when the freckle contest is announced.

Do not hesitate to join the bunch. You'll be in good company. There is no entrance charge.

Some freckle experts will act as judges, and you may be selected as the champion, and get the $50—and a lot of publicity that will help you in future years.

David Lawrence Asks:

How Do Reds Aid 'Hate' in U.S.?

WASHINGTON—To what extent is Communist money back of the racist and "hate" literature being so widely spread throughout the world?

Are the bombings of synagogues in the southern part of this country in some way related to an international conspiracy?

★ ★ ★

If so, have not the people of the South been unjustly stigmatized and blamed for something with which they have had nothing to do? It is a Communist objective, of course, to foment discord and internal friction within all free countries.

LAWRENCE

The latest and most significant piece of information on the subject of "hate" literature has just come out in a formal report filed at the plenary assembly of the World Jewish Congress held in Stockholm, Sweden, only a week ago.

It says in part:

"There is evidence that anti-Semitic organizations, institutions or individual adventurers in this field have established interlocking international relationships in order to facilitate the dissemination of racist material on an international scale.

"Thus Australia has been regularly supplied with material of the vilest kind exported from the United States and the United Kingdom, while, from Australia itself, anti-Semitic literature has turned up in Turkey in quantities sufficiently significant to alarm the Jewish community.

"From Sweden there has come a ceaseless stream of anti-Semitic material ostensibly produced and distributed by a single individual, which has turned up in Germany, South Africa and various Latin American states, all areas carefully chosen because, for historical reasons, this material might make an impact.

"This by no means exhausts the story of the international effort to revive anti-Semitism; we have cited only a number of conspicuous examples which we have brought to the notice of the governments concerned and to the United Nations.

"These governments have invariably received our representatives with the utmost sympathy but, with rare exceptions, have equally invariably expressed their legal inability to deal with a phenomenon which we do not doubt they find deeply distressing."

On April 30, 1958, this correspondent wrote a dispatch calling attention to the bombing of a Negro school and a Jewish synagogue in Jacksonville, Fla., and pointed out that the anonymous telephone warnings used phrases about "undergrounds" and other words from the vocabulary of Communist agents.

On Oct. 14, 1958, this writer noted that the bombing of a Jewish temple in Atlanta followed the pattern of similar incidents in Miami, Jacksonville and other parts of the South.

Yet, as pointed out then, it is conceded widely that there is less anti-Semitism in the South than in any other part of the United States.

On Dec. 15, 1958 reference was made in these dispatches to a statement made by then Senator-elect Kenneth B. Keating of New York after a tour of the South.

He said there was a "strong suspicion" that the bombing of schools, homes and places of worship in the South may have been fomented by Communists.

Then on Jan. 26, 1959, this correspondent called attention to a series of five articles published by the New York Daily News.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Bowling More Effective Than Narcotics, Alcohol

"Try being nice to stupid people for a month and refrain from bowling on the green and see if you won't feel that some other escape, such as a highball or two before dinner or a tranquilizer two or three times a day is forgivable," writes a New York man.

DR. BRADY

"You just cast aside the ninny-hammers without further ado and go bowling. In business we must be courteous to these aggravating people a dozen times a day—and then go home to the demanding problems of a wife and children. Maybe if we could toss our troublesome customers into the chucker and relax on the bowling green before supper —"

You use the right words, sir, when you speak of relaxing on the bowling green and of highballs or tranquilizers as escape. The "escape" you get from alcohol, ether, cocaine, heroin, barbiturate or tranquilizer is only oblivion — for an hour or two, if not forever. You are indeed in danger if you confuse the stupefaction you get from such narcotics with the genuine relaxation and contentment obtained from a game of bowls or maybe a brisk walk home.

Speaking of bowls (bowling on the game under Bowls. A much more comprehensive, definitive and authoritative source of information about the game and about the building and maintenance of bowling greens is the Lawn Bowling Handbook by Harold L. Esch.

If I had to refrain from bowling on the green for a month, not to mention a long northern winter, I'm afraid I might hanker for a highball or two before dinner or a tranquilizer two or three times a day. That would be pretty stupid, but then, a lot of people who should know better are doing it.

Golf courses, which take up a lot of room, are so crowded these days that many players have to wait for hours for a chance to play. A bowling green, the size of a city residence lot, accommodates anywhere from 2 to 64 players at any time.

Here in paradise, within a five or ten minutes walk or ride from any place in the city, we have three regulation greens, built and maintained by the city, in a small park. One pays a small fee for the privilege of bowling — less than a dollar a week. A set of four bowls costs about $40 — they are good for a lifetime. Probably no other recreation, game or pastime at all comparable can be enjoyed by so many persons — from age 15 to 90 — so inexpensively.

Every town and village should have a bowling green. It would be a boon to the health, happiness and sociability of all the people. As F. H. Furman, of Denver, aptly expressed it:

"Lawn bowling is a method of putting life into the locality without marring its beauty."

Here's Mother's Answer to Complaining Fathers

In answer to "Leaving State" and all fathers who complain of contributing support, I write in defense of all mothers left with the responsibility you fathers shirked.

★ ★ ★

We mothers are doing the worrying, working, and tear shedding trying to mold he or she into a fine individual who will fit proudly into a social world in later life. Lucky is the woman who remarries a man noble enough to share this three-quarter balance of the burden.

★ ★ ★

Mr. whoever you are, you are a mathematical genius to be able to juggle figures and arrive at the conclusion that what you send supports two people for eighteen years. My figures tell me that what you send doesn't even cover equipment and worms for your boy's fishing — it doesn't begin to cover his food, clothing, and schooling expenses.

Labor Bill Confusion Reigns in Washington

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you look blank—thinking of the various labor control bills now kicking around in Congress—don't worry. only experts could understand them thoroughly. And they disagree.

This is one of the greatest mish - mashes in years. So most members of the House — which Tuesday begins debate on passing some kind of bill—will probably have only a vague idea of what they're doing.

None of them, unless he was a specialist in labor problems, could possibly know or guess all the implications in all the details and differences, major and minor, between the bills. For example:

A bill passed by the Senate months ago has 51 sections, scores of sub-sections and subdivisions. A bill approved by the House Labor Committee is similar to it but has at least 100 differences.

4TH MILDEST

A third bill, similar to both of them, has some more differences of its own, and is much tougher on labor unions than either. Still a fourth bill, mildest of all but in many ways similar to the others, is not quite the same as any of them.

All four bills, because of a general feeling in Congress that some labor controls are needed, propose doing something to the extent of setting up rules and penalties against despotic, unfair and corrupt labor practices.

And all contain a "bill of rights," or protections for individual union members in voting and saying what they think. But, starting there, the bills go in opposite directions. They differ on penalties and protections.

And they differ on what questionable union practices should be banned.

House members will not be acting in a pure and pious vacuum. They'll have different motives for the way they vote, for what they put in a bill or take out.

Some, particularly Democrats, are under obligation to organized labor for helping them get elected in 1958. They know they may lose their seats in the 1960 election if labor turns against them for what they do now.

Some House members, in sympathy with labor, want a mild bill. Some others will honestly want a tough one. Still others will want a tough one because they seem to have an ingrained antagonism to organized labor.

And some Republicans, being politicians, may be thinking how best they can create a profitable issue for themselves and against the Democrats in 1960 on the subject of labor control.

That's not all. Most members of the House by now have probably been put under great pressure by organized labor and big business, on opposite sides of lobbying on a labor bill has been terrific.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Brethren, do not be children in your thinking: be babes in evil, but in thinking be mature. —I Cor. 14:20.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Name Has Great Effect on Child

Notice the dire fate of Butch when he first entered school. And will you expectant mothers please avoid inflicting such cruelty on your sons? It is this fear of being "sissy" that often prods boys from cultured homes to become delinquents. So christen your sons with strong masculine names.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane," his cultured mother began, "I wish you could talk to him if only for five minutes.

DR. CRANE

"His teachers say he is smart enough, but he has a hot temper and gets into fights on very little provocation.

"Yet I have taught him not to make trouble, and I always send him to Sunday school.

"My family has been cultured and peaceable, so why should my son act like a tough child from the tenements?"

CHIP ON SHOULDER

★ ★ ★

But Shirley is normally used as a girl's name, so when her sensitive little boy got into school you don't need three guesses to figure out what happened the first week.

"Sissy" was the greeting he got from kids on the playground and when he walked to or from school. He was a shy little fellow who would normally have become a studious boy and probably have led his class with high grades.

But his mother's fondness for the name "Shirley" simply made him the butt of jibes and either forced him to shun school or else wage a vigorous fight to prove that he was no sissy.

In his tortured state of mind, although he wasn't trained to use his fists, he finally engaged in a battle with an older boy.

The latter knocked Butch down several times and normally would have won the battle, except for Butch's inner goading.

Butch had so much willpower that he kept on when normal kids would have surrendered. So he finally bested the bigger boy.

But Butch was pretty well beaten up or "butchered" in the battle, so he was nicknamed "Butch."

And he is now proud of that name, for he won it in open combat when the odds were against him.

CRUEL MOTHERS

Why will you mothers be so cruel to your sons as to foist on them such names that jeopardize their social success and often cause them to hate school?

★ ★ ★

Not all boys are able to meet the situation as successfully as Butch.

Many shy away and try to avoid school. Others try to compensate by becoming juvenile delinquents in a vain hope of trying to prove they have "guts" and don't even fear the cops.

A lot of our criminals come from effeminate kids who are trying to gain admiration from more athletic classmates by violating moral codes.

Thus, they smoked doped cigarettes or swill down whisky or boast of their fast driving or steal from dime stores or even rob gasoline stations, chiefly to win admiration from their associates.

Others who are saddled with feminine names are strong enough to win out in honest competition and laugh off their handicap.

For example, the recent edition of "Who's Who of American Women" contains the names of 19,000 prominent ladies and ONE man. The latter is Shirley Povich, talented sports columnist for the Washington Post.

He says he is used to such mixups by now, so laughs it off.

Hope to Clear Civil Rights Bill

Senate Group Annul Southern Opposition to Take Up Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee tackles the civil rights issue again today amid signs that leaders of both parties are hopeful of an early breakthrough.

The committee, at its meeting last week, overrode the opposition of Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss) and other Southerners and voted 10-5 to take a bill up for consideration.

The bill, called just a skeleton by advocates of stronger legislation, would extend the life of the civil rights commission from Sept. 9 of this year until Jan. 31, 1961.

It also would require that voting records be preserved for up to three years and be made available to the attorney general upon demand for use in investigations of alleged denial of voting rights.

Numerous proposed amendments are expected from both sides. Discussion of these could run on indefinitely, particularly if the committee should adhere to its regular schedule of meeting only once a week.

However, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill), a committee member and the Senate GOP leader, said he had been assured that at least two meetings will be held this week.

Some Integration Expected in Florida

"It will be limited," he told a panel of newsmen on a national television program, Face the Nation (CBS), Sunday.

Asked if violence could be expected to accompany the state's first integration in primary or secondary schools, Collins replied, "No, and I don't like it suggested."

If violence does occur, he said he will use the power of his office to enforce the peace.

Completion Is Announced of 3rd Moscow Airport

PUSH-BUTTON TELEPHONE — Comely Gayle Grebs tries out an experimental push-button telephone in New York. It is under development at Bell laboratories and may eventually replace the usual rotary setup. The arrangement of 10 buttons—one for each digit—consists of three horizontal rows of three each, plus the zero or operator button at the bottom. Push-button dialing takes about five seconds, compared to nine for rotary dialing.

Red Paper Plagued by Complaints

What's worse, says Rude Pravo, is that many of the critical letters it receives bear the obviously forged signature of influential party functionaries.

Czechoslovakia's people have had little opportunity to air their complaints since the Communists took over the country in 1948, and when the Communists said they welcomed "self-criticism"— Rude Pravo caught it in a continuing blizzard of letters.

Swiss Guards Get Pay Boosts and New Rules

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — New regulation for the Swiss Guards providing salary increases and allowing sergeants-major to marry have gone into effect yesterday.

The Swiss Guards protect the Pope and currently number about 100 officers and men. Details of the pay boosts were not disclosed, but a halberd bearer is believed to get about $112 a month. Previous regulations permitting only officers to marry were modified to include sergeants-major. Recruits and privates must remain single.

You'll Stay Up Later to Watch 'Dr. Joyce'

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Maybe there is something to the frequently discussed "trend" among Americans to stay up later and later. The Jack Paar Show and the late late movies are generally credited for increasing numbers of wakeful citizens after midnight.

★ ★ ★

Now the New York local outlet ing an added incentive to stay up. Beginning tonight it's presenting Dr. Joyce Brothers in a 15-minute "Consult Dr. Brothers" program following the Paar Show.

Dr. Brothers, a psychologist who won a pot of money as a TV quiz champion some time ago, has been doing a morning show for the station. Her new one will concern family problems which presumably are better discussed after the kids are asleep.

TV trade sources are betting that this late program will go network before the season's over.

Arresting quote of the week from an anonymous Western producer in Variety, the trade paper of show business, on the subject of more girls and sex appeal in Westerns: "We'll put her in low-cut dungarees."

Variety finds that "sex, all but eradicated from television by the Westerns, seems at last to be making a comeback" in the coming TV season. It notes increased importance of the feminine roles in some Westerns and "gals for sex's sake" being played up in numerous shows.

Inflationary note: The price of guest talent for television shows is going up and up. With so many specials scheduled in the new season, the variety shows are bidding everywhere for singers, actors — any kind of guest talent with a capital T.

But talent, in the persons of many performers, is being a bit coy this year. Many performers seem to feel that the longer they hold off, the greater will be their market price.

From an Associated Press correspondent in New Delhi comes word that the first TV program will flicker onto Indian screens in September. It's not a Western, not entertainment.

Instead, people in 10 villages will cluster around sets to see agricultural methods demonstrated. The experimental program is being undertaken by All India Radio, the government broadcasting division, with some aid from UNESCO.

MY TRUCK IS A TELEPHONE STORE ON WHEELS

I'm a telephone installer.

You've seen me and my green truck hundreds of times—putting in new phones and making changes in telephone service. I've probably visited your house, too.

But, you know, this isn't just an installation truck; it's really a telephone store on wheels, since I carry extra phones in every style and color, and you can get one from me, right off the truck! All you have to do is choose the kind of telephone you want and I'll install it on the spot.

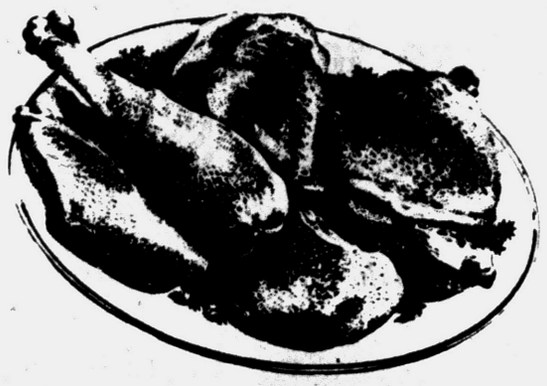

If you'd like to surprise the family with a new kitchen or bedroom extension, either call your Business Office or look for me . . . "the man on the telephone truck."

Study on Chemical War Should Be Speeded Up

WASHINGTON (UP)—A threefold increase in spending for research on chemical, biological and radiological warfare was recommended Saturday by the House Space Committee.

★ ★ ★

"Only an increase of such size is likely to speed research to a level of attainment compatible with the efforts of the Communist nations," the committee said in a special report to Congress.

The report told of extensive Communist research into what the committee called CBR (chemical - biological-radiological warfare.

"The conclusion is inescapable that the Soviet Union and other Communist countries plan to use CBR if they find it to their advantage," the report said. "This country must make sure that it is not to their advantage to use this form of warfare against us."

The committee said the United States now is spending 35 to 40 million dollars a year on CBR research.

"This represents about one one-thousandth of our defense budget," the report said.

Increasing this amount over a two to three-year period to a spending level of around 125 million dollars a year is needed, the committee said, to put this country more on a par with the Communists.

Along with the report, the committee released censored testimony of Maj. Gen. Marshall Stubbs, chief of the Army Chemical Corps.

Stubbs, in closed door testimony before the committee last June 22, said the United States is highly vulnerable to Soviet CBR attacks "that could . . . severely cripple this nation."

The only solution, he contended, is to give this country sufficient retaliatory power in the same field that it would act as a deterrent to an attack.

Both Stubbs and the committee said new developments in chemical warfare, such as nerve gases and psychochemicals that can incapacitate people without killing, could provide a swift and cheap method of conquest.

"One can conceive the possibility," the committee said, "that a very powerful nation with great industrial resources and standing military forces could be toppled by a latter-day David of a smaller nation by quiet and sustained effort in the CBR field.

"Only a thoroughgoing research program of our own, coupled with proper attention to warning devices and civil defense, will insure that this country is not the Goliath to fall."

LIFE-PRESERVER SHIRT — Happy miss floats like a cork, buoyed up by a novel new cotton shirt, shown in New York, which doubles as a life preserver. Made for men, women and children, the shirt inflates automatically in water. A replaceable chemical packet does the job. It can keep the wearer afloat for 45 minutes.

Conservationists Ask State Parks Fee

LANSING (UPI)—The Michigan United Conservation Clubs urges Gov. G. Mennen Williams to sign a bill requiring a $2 annual entrance to state parks.

MUCC executive director James L. Rouman said the bill provides "realistic, practical and much needed financial assistance to our state parks."

Mackinac Bridge Traffic Figures Down

ST. IGNACE (AP) — The Mackinac Bridge carried 273,558 vehicles and grossed $987,336 in tolls during July.

In July a year ago, the five-mile span across the Straits of Mackinac, carried 307,838 vehicles and grossed $1,082,895.

July figures indicate, however, according to Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, that "the curiosity traffic bulge is decreasing and normal traffic increasing."

In the first week of last month traffic was 24 per cent below the same 1958 week, but the second week was down only 15.8, the third, 9.7, and the fourth only 4.2 off.

The 1959 July traffic was 51.1 per cent greater than that carried by state ferries in 1957, their last year of operation, and trailer-truck traffic was up 25.3 per cent over July of 1958.

For the first seven months of 1959 thte bridge has grossed $2,264,607, compared with $2,474,636 in the similar 1958 months.

Paralytic Polio Increases but Pace Slowing Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—The number of paralytic polio cases continued to increase last week, but the pace was slowed somewhat.

The total for the United States last week was 183, a record number for 1959, the Public Health Service reported Friday.

★ ★ ★

That was an increase of eight over the total for the week before. Early last month, the figure had jumped 50 per cent in one week.

For the first eight months of the year, there have been 1,314 paralytic cases. In the same period last year, there were 579 such cases. In 1955, before Salk polio vaccine was available, 2,525 paralytic cases were reported in the first eight months.

LANSING (AP)—Two cases of paralytic polio — in Muskegon and Genesee Counties—were reported to the State Health Department last week.

In a corresponding week last year, Michigan recorded 23 cases as an outbreak in the southeastern part of the state neared its first peak.

The paralytic polio count this year is 21 compared with 48 in the same period in 1958.

The Public Health Service said that 83 per cent of this year's polio victims — both paralytic and non-paralytic—have been Negroes and that more than 75 per cent of the paralytic victims had not taken any polio vaccine.

Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said the epidemic in Des Moines was subsiding but the one in Kansas City, Mo., was continuing.

★ ★ ★

There was some question as to whether New Haven, Conn., had been added to the epidemic list. The Public Health Service said it had been advised that an epidemic had developed there. But New Haven authorities Friday called that a misunderstanding. They agreed however, that the city reported 20 new cases of all types last week.

★ ★ ★

In the nation, new polio cases of all types totaled 312 last week, compared to 276 the week before. For the year through Aug. 1, the total was 2,050 cases, compared to 1,168 during the same period in 1958.

Manufacturers reported that the vaccine situation had tightened. They had 695,498 doses on hand and most of them would be used to fill orders already placed.

Summerfield Miffed

McNamara Roadblocks State Postmasterships

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield said today he is seriously concerned about a roadblock Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich) has thrown up against Senate confirmation of President Eisenhower's nominations for Michigan postmasterships.

Summerfield told a newsman the nominations should not be blocked by "any ward-heeling politician" who can prevail upon McNamara to oppose them.

Eisenhower has nominated 56 postmasters for Michigan since the Congressional session began in January. McNamara to date has withheld approval of 30 of them.

A McNamara aide said the situation is not unusual.

"We are making the same routine check on all the nominees," he said. "It's the same procedure we have always followed."

He estimated about 14 of the 30 "definitely will not be approved." He declined to say which ones but indicated Charles Pratt, nominated as postmaster at Flint, is one of the 14.

He said Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich) is in agreement with McNamara in the handling of the nominations.

Customarily, postmaster nominations must be okayed by the senators of the state involved before they are cleared by the Senate Post Office Committee. The nominations must be acted on by the Senate itself before Congress adjourns or they become void.

The McNamara aide said these three areas are checked before the senator approves an appointment:

(1) What happened to the previous occupant of the position, including "whether he was removed on some flimsy excuse; (2) whether the nominee was selected fairly, and (3) how the community and the post office employes feel about the appointment.

★ ★ ★

He said no inquiry is made into the political affiliation of the nominees as it is but assumed all are Republicans.

Summerfield called the delay a violation of the "rules of the game."

"To me this is a major problem," he said. "These appointments are a presidential prerogative and the rules of the game are that they (the senators) don't object."

Williams Opposes Tax Vote by People

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today frowned on a suggestion of Republican legislators for a statewide vote on what kind of new taxes the people would prefer.

"I don't think the Legislature had better run any popularity contest," said Williams, meeting with newsmen a first time since returning from the national governor's conference.

★ ★ ★

"It is incumbent upon the legislators to make the decisions."

Class Bell Is Master Next Fall

One of the nicer things about a youngster's summer vacation is that hours and minutes don't have to count as much as they do the rest of the year. This all changes, of course, when the first class bell rings again.

★ ★ ★

With that ring, time becomes master. The student's life seems to become a timetable for getting up, going to school, meeting friends, going to ball games, dates, studying and an endless number of other activities. Watches seem to be consulted more often than parents.

★ ★ ★

A good watch has many values to growing children. One is in imposing a sense of responsibility on the young. Its presence eliminates that oft-cried excuse, "Gee, mom! I didn't know what time it was!" Some parents think it worth the price of a watch just to avoid listening to that excuse again.

★ ★ ★

Whatever your reason, you naturally want the youngster to have a watch that's suited to a full, active schedule. And you don't want it to cost a fortune. Benrus, for example recently introduced a low-priced Today series. Each watch comes with an unconditional three-year guarantee.

Million Embezzled at American Express

PARIS (UPI) — American and French businessmen in Paris expressed shock and near disbelief today at the arrest of a personable young American accused of embezzling more than a million dollars as chief cashier for the Paris branch of the American Express Company.

The suspect, Martin Allen, 33, of Philadelphia, was jailed in Fresnes Prison, south of the city.

Police said he turned himself in after a fantastic get-rich-quick conspiracy with an Italian gambler fell through. The Italian, Renato Grassi, 36, was locked up in Paris' La Sante jail.

★ ★ ★

Police and American Express Company officials could not — or would not — explain how Allen could have gotten away with a million dollars undetected.

Civil Air Patrol Closes Capital Headquarters

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Air Patrol — volunteer civilian auxiliary of the Air Force — formally closed out its national headquarters here Saturday.

The CAP has maintained its headquarters at Bolling Air Force Base, across the Potomac River from Washington National Airport, for 13½ of its 18 years.

The northern district of Lower California became Mexico's 29th state. The area has about the same latitude as that found in Christianity is by far the world's largest religion. Other major faiths are Islam, with 350,000,000 adherents; Hinduism 300,000,000; Confucianism, 300,000,000; Buddhism, 200,000,000; Taoism, 50,000,000; and Judaism, 15,000,000.

Either Talk to Russians or Fight Them . . . Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) —You either talk to the Russians or eventually you are going to fight them, Vice President Richard M. Nixon has told American television audiences.

"The alternative, to me, is unacceptable, not only for us, but to them, and for the world generally," Nixon said.

Nixon expressed his views Sunday on the exchange of visits by top U.S. and Soviet officials while narrating CBS and NBC telecasts of films made during his recent visit to the Soviet Union.

His opinions were in reply to the criticism that his trip and the scheduled exchange of visits by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and President Eisenhower are hypocritical and immoral.

Nixon said he considered it essential, in recognizing the differences between the United States and the U.S.S.R. that they not be discussed by trading insults 5,000 miles apart.

"What we should do," Nixon said, "is to sit down around the conference table, where we can, so that there will be no miscalculation on the part of either side as to the strength or the will that either side possesses."

★ ★ ★

Nixon gave these impressions of Khrushchev: He can do pretty much as he wants; he is sensitive about public opinion outside the Soviet Union; he likes to do the unexpected; he is an articulate defender of his point of view; he knows how to grab the headlines, and he doesn't like to concede anything.

Let Nikita Come, Says Johnson

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Allowing Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other Soviets to visit the United States poses no threat to the freedom of the American people, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson said Sunday.

"Let the Russians say what they wish. Let our people hear it to the bitter end. I have faith in them. I do not believe that there will be any Communist converts," Johnson said.

On his weekly broadcast recorded for Texas radio stations, the Senate Majority Leader said the proposed visit of the Soviet leader is "the type of exchange which could do much for the whole world."

"I have long advocated the open curtain," Johnson said. "I hope that this will be a wedge which will pry it open even further."

Wisconsin Synod Delays Severance Decision

SAGINAW (UPI) — Delegates to the 35th biennial session of the Wisconsin Synod of the Lutheran Church put off until this week any decision on a rupture in association with the Missouri Synod.

The two synods, together with the Slovak Lutheran Church, have shared common doctrine, mission work and pulpit exchange for 87 years.

But there has been growing criticism of activities by the Missouri Synod in providing chaplains for the armed services, and sanctioning Boy Scout work, as well as associating with so-called "splinter" Lutheran groups.

Father Killed in Crash on U.S. 23 Near Fenton

FLINT (AP)—Aubrey Robinson, 31, of Livonia, was killed early today in a three-vehicle collision on U.S. 23 south of Fenton in Livingston County.

Seriously injured were Robinson's wife Lila, 31; their daughter Sherry, 9; and stepson, Ricky Hodge, 11. George Horning of Farwell, the truck driver, also was hurt.

Everly Brother Jailed in Sports Car Drag Race

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Philip Everly, 20, a member of the Everly Brothers singing duet, has been jailed for drag racing and not having a driver's license, police reported yesterday.

Officers said Everly was driving his 1959 sports car and was racing with Wayne Keatherley, 19, of Nashville. Keatherley was arrested for drag racing.

Waterford Girl, Youth Hurt in Auto Mishap

A Dearborn teen-ager and a Waterford Township girl were injured when their auto went out of control on loose gravel and overturned Saturday night.

Cathy F. Barwig, 15, of 3940 Iris Dr., was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital where she was reported in satisfactory condition today with head and arm injuries.

★ ★ ★

The driver, Dale A. Bosch, 16, of 24731 Boston St., was treated and released. The accident occurred on White Lake road east of Teggerdine road, in White Lake Township, sheriff's deputies reported.

Boy Dies, 95th Victims of Chicago School Fire

CHICAGO (UPI) — A 14-year-old boy last night became the 95th victim of last December's fire at Our Lady of the Angels School.

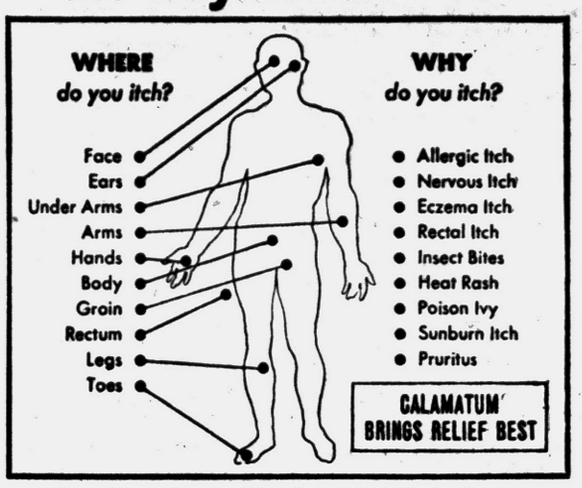

William Eddington, an eighth grade pupil, had been the last one still hospitalized as a result of the blaze which flashed through the grammar school minutes before classes were to be dismissed.

Frances E. Willard, first president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, did not go to school until she was 14 years old. Her early learning was the Bible and Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress."

Chevrolet's exuberant Impala 4-Door Sedan

Chevy's the hottest one on the road

Have you had a taste of pure engine efficiency recently? Well, it's standard equipment in Chevrolet's lineup of eight lively V8's. These are the powerplants that recently won the NASCAR* Outstanding Achievement award for "America's most efficient V-type engines."

One, in fact, produces over one horsepower for every single cubic inch of displacement. It's the only American engine to reach such a high level of deep-breathing efficiency. But whichever Chevy powerplant you pick, you're primed for some of the perkiest going you've ever enjoyed, and you'll know it for sure the moment you set your Chevrolet into silk-smooth motion.

Or maybe you're looking for a tightfisted six. Well, Chevy's got just the ticket for you—the savingest six in its field. To prove its saving ways, a pair of Chevrolet sixes (equipped with Powerglide) took the first two places in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, getting top mileage of any full-sized car entered. How's that for keeping an eye on your budget!

And wait, wait till you hook up your favorite Chevy engine to one of Chevrolet's five transmissions. There are those precision stickshift gearboxes, booming in popularity among the people who look on driving as a sport. And how could you top Turboglide for an ultra-smooth automatic? We'll leave it to you to choose your favorite from the five, and don't think you won't have fun doing that!

Oh, there's a long, long list of things to like about Chevy. More room, for instance—and oil-hushed hydraulic valve lifters in every standard engine for quieter running . . . a bigger lined luggage compartment . . . bigger, safer, longer lasting brakes. Your Chevrolet dealer will be more than happy to tell you all about it. Why not make it a point to visit him soon?

Defies Indian Superstition

Honor Reservation Postmaster

INDIAN WELLS, Ariz. (AP)—The postmaster of this tiny Navajo reservation community will be honored Friday by the Post Office Department for defying a superstition as old as man himself.

★ ★ ★

The postmaster is Herbert S. Hukriede, 50, and behind the award he is to receive is a story of death, fear and friendship that goes back to the hot afternoon of July 15.

That day, Harry Joe, a 17-year-old Navajo, was struck and killed by lightning while tending a flock of sheep near his family's hogan. His elderly parents found his body lying under an abandoned wagon.

Joe had been struck dead by the evil spirit of lightning, they believed, and an ancint Navajo superstitition came back to haunt them. They refused to go near their son's body.

★ ★ ★

Indian police also refused to touch the corpse.

"They built a fire about 50 yards from the body that night," Hukriede recalled Sunday, "but they wouldn't go near it. Next day they asked me to help."

Hukriede transported the body to the mission.

"They wanted a Christian burial for the boy," he replied, "but the missionary, Glen Davis, wasn't due back until the next day. It was pretty hot, so I sent a couple of the boy's relatives over to Holbrook to get some block ice so I could cool the body."

On July 17, Davis conducted the services at an Indian burial ground beside the mission. Hukriede dropped young Joe's saddle, his lariat, a few pieces of cheap jewelry and an empty suitcase into the grave.

From a hillside a quarter mile away the dead boy's family watched the ceremony. Superstition prevented them from going any closer.

"They think they'll go blind or something if they touch anything that has been hit by lightning," Hukriede explained. "They won't even touch a stone or stick that's been struck."

Hukriede's award — for public service above and beyond the call of duty—will be presented by Asst. Postmaster General Eugene Lyons in a ceremony at Indian Wells.

Arrest 2 Negroes After Restaurant Refuses Service

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A Negro alderman and two companions were arrested Sunday night in a north St. Louis restaurant which refused to serve them.

The three men filed a peace disturbance charge against Miss Congleton and she also was booked. The four were released on bonds of $500 each and are scheduled to appear today in city court.

New Cleaners

Home handy men and women will be happy to know that there are now waterless cleaners that take off grease, grime, tar, and paint while leaving the skin relatively untouched. These aerosol hand cleaners contain lanolin to keep hands soft and smooth.

To Dry Sponge

When you buy a new sponge, run a string through it with a tapestry needle. Tie this to form a short loop. Then wash the sponge often in clean hot soap or detergent suds, rinse, squeeze, and hang by the loop to dry.

May Give Him Gift, No Money

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I was in an automobile accident some time ago and one of the passersby who saw the accident occur gave his name and address and said that he would be a witness if necessary. My case came up recently and this man testified in my behalf and was instrumental in my winning the case. I would like to know what my obligations are to him. Should I offer him a sum of money or buy him a present, or what? I would like to show my appreciation in some way.

Answer: You thank him most sincerely and hope some day to be able to do something for him. If you have seen and talked with him enough to know of a present that would please him, give it to him, but do not offer money.

"Dear Mrs. Post: For the past several years I have always given certain children money on their birthdays, and they all love it. The parents of these children are people of means. My son-in-law now tells me that it is very improper to give money. Am I wrong?"

Answer: If you restrict your money gifts to children in your own family no one can criticize you, but your son-in-law is right when it comes to children not related to you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know if my grandmother should receive at my wedding, and if so, where in the receiving line should she stand?"

Answer: Certainly she should be asked to receive. The order of the receiving line would be as follows: First the mother of the bride, then the mother of the groom and then grandmother.

'He's Not Worthy'—Abby

Some Never Learn—You Should!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What would you think of a married man who would take another man's wife and travel through eleven states with her and pass her off as his wife? That's what my husband did.

ABBY

I married this man seven years ago. I took his two babies by a previous marriage, when they were 11 and 22 months old. I worked every day I was married to him to help meet our bills.

When he pulled this trick, I divorced him. Now he is back begging me to remarry him. His sister, who has been married five times, keeps his kids. I feel sorry for the kids, but I don't think I could ever trust him again. What would you do, Abby? LAURA

DEAR LAURA: Don't marry a man because you "feel sorry" for his children. Marry him only because you love him and want to share your life with him. He is not worthy of you.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 12-year-old boy and I have an uncle who is 18. Well, my mother makes me call him, "Sir." Like, "Yes, Sir," and "No, Sir." I feel like a nitwit. Please help me. NITWIT

DEAR NIT: Your mother is trying to teach you to be respectful. Since this young man is your uncle, it seems to me that you'd be showing him ample respect by addressing him as "Uncle So and So." But be sure to clear this with your mother first. Mothers outrank Uncles, Sir!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My son recently married a very nice girl. The only thing I have against her is that she can't cook.

She gives him chile and barbecue every night in the week. For lunch she warms up the barbecue they had for supper the night before.

Barbecued beef, chicken or ribs are all right once in a while but, Abby, she is killing my son with all that hot stuff. I don't want to be one of those butting-in mothers-in-law, but how can I save my son? His stomach must be on fire by now. Love. MOM

DEAR MOM: Perhaps that's all the poor girl knows how to cook. Stop stewing and broiling and teach your daughter how to.

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of a 4-year-old boy who is still on the bottle. I can't seem to break him. I have tried everything, including spanking him, but he won't go to sleep unless I give him his bottle.

I am so embarrassed when my friends come and see me filling bottles and sterilizing nipples. Is it unhealthy to let the boy continue on the bottle? I'm afraid he won't get enough milk if I make him drink from a cup. Can any of your readers help me? BOTTLE PROBLEM

DEAR B. P.: A four-year-old who "needs" his bottle could be suffering from an emotional problem. Discuss it with your doctor.

DEAR ABBY: Boy, are you square! "S.W.A.B.K." means "Sealed with a big kiss." And "L.O.L." means "Loads of Love." HEP

1959 Big Year for Versatile Little Jacket

1959 will go down in fashion history as the year of the little jacket. For this is the added attraction that turns dresses into costumes, separates and skirts into suits. So Rhoda Lee, noted designer of blouses and jackets, has created a bevy of versatile extra tops to help ingenious women build their own "one of a kind" ensembles.

Black and white states its case with boldness in many varied interpretations. Certified for chic is the big check, translated by Rhoda Lee into an outsize houndstooth checked pique jacket. Cut away to a curve in front, the jacket is perfect topping for slender black dresses or crisply pleated skirts.

Bright white pique, inked in a black paisley motif, is used for a straight and narrow jacket that is clipped off just at the hip tip and collared in washable black velvet. Pitch black coin dots, as big as fifty-cent pieces, completely spatter a back-belted hip-length jacket that can do double fashion duty as a "skirt mate" or as sheath coverage.

Keep His Interests in Many Little Ways

By RUTH MILLETT

If you want to keep a young man interested—

Don't wait by the telephone hoping he'll call. Keep busy, so you'll have something to talk about when he does get you on the line.

Don't say, "It doesn't make any difference to me," when he asks you what you want to do or gives you a choice. Even though you are just trying to be pleasant and agreeable you'll sound wishy-washy and uninterested.

Don't stop dating everyone else, unless the two of you are engaged. That makes you seem too eager to be his one and only.

Don't try to impress him by talking about other dates. You'll impress him a lot more if you give him your full attention.

If he is shy, do more than your share of making small talk. He'll be grateful to you for putting him at ease.

Don't get him into situations where he may have to spend more money than he can afford. That's a good way to get a reputation as a gold digger.

Don't run down other girls or he is sure to think you are jealous or catty.

Don't talk about yourself all the time. But let him talk about himself all he pleases.

When you double date don't pay more attention to the other girl, even if she is your closest friend, than you do to your date. Lots of girls make this mistake.

Don't try to make him think you are more sophisticated than you are. Just be yourself.

Don't call him at home or at work. He's far more likely to be annoyed than pleased.

Height Problem Only When You Let it Be So

The tall teenager, feeling that her height makes her awkward and conspicuous, probably has the notion that no one has ever felt just as she does. The truth is that every tall teenage girl has felt just this way. And eventually, she gets used to the idea and learns to live with it.

★ ★ ★

Every fashion model extant is a tall girl. And the fashion model group includes some of the most beautiful girls in the country. They are tall, slender and willowy. They are also chic, with an infinite flair for wearing clothes. Many actresses are tall, and the tall actress possesses the advantage of dominating the stage.

It's the Cut That Counts

by Rowena Wilson

If your summer coif is to hold its styling for any length of time, correct shaping and cutting is essential.

Be proud of your versatility but don't be a do-it-yourselfer when it comes to a new hairdo. This requires skill and professional know-how if it is to create the right affect. A becoming "do" is important and not one that looks well on your best friend.

If you are to enjoy your summer, every comfort should be available. There is nothing quite like an attractive and easy to manage coif. That means an early appointment at Rowena's Beauty Salon, 4831 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains. OR 3-3541. 14 S. Main, Clarkston, MA 5-1000. 1216 Baldwin, Pontiac, FE 5-3735.

If You Really Cared You Wouldn't Whine

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

He signs his letter "American Male." Reminding me that I said American women resent fathering their husbands' children, he writes:

"You're kidding yourself, lady. American women's aggressiveness has made them notorious throughout the world. They love wearing our pants, I know. I'm married to one. You're all just a bunch of female spiders who devour their mates as soon as their eggs are fertilized. . ."

Oh boy, am I sick of this line!

Why do you allow yourself to be devoured, sir? Why do you let us wear your pants? If you want them back, why don't you take them?

Do you know what you sound like? Like a baby whining because Mommy won't give him back his bag of lollipops.

The fact is, those American males who are continually complaining about the loss of their pants don't really want them back. Or they'd have grabbed them back.

It takes two people to make a dominating woman, sir. To make one you have to have another person who wants to be dominated. You have to have a person who needs to blame somebody else for his fear of disagreeable friction, of the loneliness involved in decision, of responsibility for mistakes.

Just as you can't have a tyrant without someone who loves submission, you can't have a dominating woman without someone who loves being her child.

Just reread what you've written to me. No woman has identified you with a helpless, exploitable male spider. You have identified yourself with this wretched insect.

And that is the problem.

If some members of your sex insist on regarding themselves as exploitable insects, you can't expect members of mine to restore you your human dignity.

That's something we all — both men and women— have to sweat out for ourselves. We can't beg Mommy to give it to us. It is not a lollipop. It's something we have to give birth to ourselves; something that must suddenly rise like a tower inside us so that nothing but our human importance matters—neither disagreeable friction, making mistakes, popular disapproval or loss of protection.

Mommy gives birth to us all only once, sir. Our subsequent births we have to give to ourselves.

Inner Glow

New Interests Add Sparkle

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Hobbies are wonderful because they turn a person's thoughts from himself and open his eyes to a whole new world. The impact of a new world on an intelligent person can have many splendid and shining results.

This was impressed on me after a chance meeting with Rosalind Nadell, the mezzo-soprano who has sung so widely in opera, concert and musicals. She looked wonderful but somehow different. When asked what she had done to herself, whether she had a new hairdo or had colored it or was using a new make-up, she laughed, "I HAVE cut my hair shorter but that's not it. It's nothing you can see because whatever it is comes from within."

"Vitamins? A diet?"

She laughed again, "No, nothing like that. I guess you might call it a new viewpoint."

Rosalind Nadell always had a flair as a performer as anyone would agree who has seen her on Broadway in "Helen Goes to Troy," or in opera or summer musicals. However, off-stage she had been a retiring type. She was responsive to friendliness but not outgoing in offering it, able to enjoy the sparkle of others but not likely to emerge from a sort of quiet modesty to sparkle herself.

Now she had glow, a sort of light in her face. There was a lilt in her voice and she seemed to radiate delighted interest. It was easy to see that this change was not due to a small cosmetic trick. It was as obvious as a flag waving in the breeze and as exciting.

"I think it all started," she said, "with an interest I began to take in painting. Merely as a spectator, you understand. I had no yen to take a brush in hand and try to paint a picture myself probably because singing satisfies my need for expression as housewifery, gardening, sewing or writing might another person's. BUT this gave me a fascinating creative field to explore; a field that was totally unconnected with my own career."

Tomorrow: "With 'Going Steady' in Mind, the Past Is Best."

Dark Glasses Have Glamour Plus Comfort

The day of the heavy frame in sunglasses is gone forever. In 1959, frames may look fashionably large but they are light on the face. The reason? It's because they're made of featherlight nylon.

★ ★ ★

There's something for everybody in sunglass frames this year. Oversized sunglasses in tortoise or black are eye-stoppers for bright days. For streetwear, there are wrap-around and modified harlequin shapes that can go anywhere.

★ ★ ★

For patio parties and picnics, frames become dressier. Some are trimmed with pastel Limoges and others get a treatment of silver filigree or colored stones. Others have rhinestone or pearl trim to be matched to jewelry.

The lenses in your sunglasses should, of course, be ground and polished whether you use a prescription or not. They prevent distortion and give maximum protection.

For Short Teeners

Stay Trim; Look Taller

The teenager who has attained her full height and is disappointed to find that it's 5 feet 3 inches can do something about it in addition to complaining.

She can start, right now, learning to pull herself up to her full height. She can walk tall and think of herself as tall. But if she wants to fool other people into thinking she's tall, she will have to see to it that her body is both slim and well-proportioned.

This means diet and exercise. It means that she cannot afford to have lumpy hips (which never seem quite so bad on a really tall girl). She cannot have a tire around the middle.

She cannot slop along in flat shapeless shoes. She can wear low heels, to be sure but they must be well-fitted and they should have a heel more than one inch in height. And she should be wary of blouses and skirts which tend to split her height in two.

Hamburger Mixture Broiled Right on Bun

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Instead of making regular hamburgers for a late evening refreshment, try these Open Faced Hamburgers of Mrs. Earl Straub. You can get the meat mixture all ready on the buns and refrigerate them until time to eat.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Straub works with her husband in his business. She is secretary of the Improvement Association of the subdivision where they live. Boating and fishing are her leisure time activities.

Open Faced Hamburgers
By Mrs. Earl Straub

1 pound ground beef
Salt and pepper
¼ teaspoon barbecue seasoning
Tomato-vegetable juice to moisten
¼ cup chopped onion
Hamburger buns

Mix first 5 ingredients together and spread on halves of buns. Place under broiler and broil until meat is done. This will make 4 servings, using 2 bun halves for each.

Why is the printed word so important in advertising?

ONE OF A SERIES

ANSWER: THE DAILY NEWSPAPER IS THE GREATEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM for many reasons. One of them is that it carries the power of the printed word. People believe in a message that is permanent; one that is written. They understand it better. Also, the newspaper because of its permanence lets the reader choose his own time for absorbing the message. And once put down it can always be picked up again. The message that lives is the message that is written in the newspaper.

12-Day Meeting Starts Tonight

Long Calls Special Session

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Unenthusiastic legislators drifted into town today for Gov. Earl K. Long's special session in which anything could happen.

★ ★ ★

The 63-year-old governor set 5 p.m. for the start of the 12-day meeting. Many legislators, opposed to the session so soon before their campaigns for the December Democratic primary, said they saw nothing pressing on the agenda. One bill would prevent airlines from firing hostesses who marry.

★ ★ ★

Long, who spent a strenuous week-end campaigning for re-election, first mentioned the possibility of the session after he was hustled off to a Galveston, Tex., mental hospital on May 30 after outbursts of profanity during the regular session.

★ ★ ★

After he engineered his release from the Southeast Louisiana State (mental) Hospital late in June, there were reports he would have four bills in his call for the session. The list has grown constantly and the final draft lists 21 bills, including one to make it more difficult to commit anyone to a mental institution.

★ ★ ★

State Sen. J. D. Deblieux of Baton Rouge said he would introduce a concurrent resolution calling for immediate adjournment of the session as soon as it started. Administration backers predicted the move would lose.

Blockade, Copter Save Policeman

YUMA, Ariz. (UPI) — Law enforcement officers from two states used airplanes, marine helicopters and large trailer trucks yesterday to make a dramatic rescue of a policeman, held hostage for six hours by a young gunman and his 17-year-old girl friend.

Police from Arizona and California drove six trucks crosswise on U.S. 80 near Wellton to form a solid roadblock that hemmed in gunman Jimmy Allen Crose, 24; his girl Donna Marie Weidemann, and their hostage.

Crose, wanted on suspicion of passing worthless checks, had vowed never to be taken alive.

While helicopters and two airplanes buzzed overhead, Crose, realizing he was trapped, put a revolver to the head of Yuma policeman Bill Penny, 28, and said:

"If I don't get out, neither do you."

Penny said he wrestled with Crose and managed to jam the web of his hand (the part between the thumb an first finger) in front of the revolver's hammer to prevent it from going off.

He was finally saved when a marine helicopter landed by the side of the road and pulled Crose and the girl off him.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Herter Heading for Conference in Chile Aimed at Easing Caribbean Tension

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter leaves today for an Inter-American foreign ministers conference aimed at easing tensions in the Caribbean area.

The meeting opens Wednesday at Santiago, Chile.

Several modest steps toward making an effective peace-preserving instrument out of the Inter - American system are favored by the United States.

Some of the more involved issues may be left for further study before a broader Inter - American conference to be held next Feb. 1 in Quito.

Cuban participation in the Santiago meeting had been indefinite because of friction between the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro and some other governments in the area.

But Sunday the Havana government announced Foreign Minister Paul Roa will head a seven-man delegation to the conference. Castro may attend later.

Herter plans to stay for about three days. He wants to return here to prepare for his trip to Europe with President Eisenhower Aug. 26 for conferences with Western leaders.

The council of the Organization of American States scheduled the Santiago meeting after finding it could not act effectively on the May 31 invasion of Nicaragua and the June 19 invasion of the Dominican Republic.

In addition to Caribbean unrest, the conference will deal with enforcement of human rights and democracy.

U. S. diplomats have indicated they would favor:

1. Ratification of measure requiring the signing states to prevent their territories from being used to launch attacks on other signers.
2. Formation of an OAS committee to keep an eye on the Caribbean area.
3. Strengthening of the Inter-American Peace Committee.

Paris, Bonn Have Bones to Pick

Set Hot Reception for Ike

By JOHN GALE

LONDON (AP) — It looks as if President Eisenhower will be forced into some hard and possibly defensive talking on his coming visits to Paris and Bonn.

Qualified informants expressed belief today that both President Charles de Gaulle of France and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer have plenty in store for the American leader—and that some of it won't be so pleasant to hear.

These informants said DeGaulle will not confine himself to talk about Eisenhower's exchange of visits with Nikita Khrushchev. They said he will use the opportunity to argue his demands for a bigger French say in NATO, an issue sharply focused by France's refusal to let American nuclear warheads be stored on her soil.

Adenauer is considered to be basically unhappy about the Eisenhower- Khrushchev exchange. This belief has persisted although West German Foreign Minister Heinrich Von Brentano stated Friday his government welcomes and regards it as useful.

Some British newspapers reported both Adenauer and Von Brentano are under fire within their own Christian Democratic party for failing to prevent the exchange.

They say Adenauer is disturbed as the late John Foster Dulles' policy of keeping the Soviets at a distance appears to give way to a more flexible era of negotiation.

In contrast, Eisenhower's visit to Britain at the end of this month is expected to be uncomplicated.

Khrushchev Invited to See Reds Defend Sports Title

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — The World Pentathlon Committee has invited Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to see the Soviets defend their title in the 1959 International Games which open here Sept. 25.

The five-sport competition is being held for the first time on the North American continent. It will conclude Sept. 30.

1. Tip From an Expert Skier

Kearns Mostly Below Surface 'Ski Diving'

Water Skiing Eassy—sSplash!

(This is the third of a series of articles dealing with fast growing sports and how a person feels experiencing them for the first time. After going through the experiences of judo and skin diving, Bruno Kearns, sports editor of The Press, today takes to the water on a pair of skis State water ski jumping champion Tony Mitchell does the tutoring on the trip on water skis around Cass Lake.)

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Onlookers at Cass Lake one day last week must have thought they were witnessing something new in water sports.

Actually, they were.

When I got on a pair of water skis supplied me by Tony Mitchell, the sport of water skiing moved into a new revolutionary stage.

This new version which seemed to be a combination of skin diving and water skiing could appropriately be called "ski diving."

At least it was different.

My complaint is that skis should come in trios instead of pairs. There should be one for each foot and a third for those who like to sit while skiing.

When Tony's powerful inboard took off and gave me a yank out of the water I felt like a fish who had just been hooked.

It was another new and thrilling sensation. With very little effort on my part, the rope pulled me out of the water. Before I knew it I was gliding over the top of the surface like a duck with its web feet.

(Of course I have the Navy to thank for giving me these sea legs but I don't know about the web feet.)

That glorious feeling of breaking water with the slats under my feet at 25 miles per hour didn't last long.

Before I really straightened out I suddenly went into the belly-skiing part of my act. Like a most persistent belly skier I hung on to the rope bare footed and minus my skis.

"Don't give up," Tony yelled.

Give up? "Never," I thought. So in the middle of Cass Lake I managed to get the skis back on my feet after a struggle.

Again I took hold of the rope, and as I emerged out of the water—splash! Tony again lost his passenger.

After nearly an hour and one dozen big splashes, we got back to the shallow water from where we started. (Temporarily, it was safe again for other boats and skiers to get back on the water.)

Our water skiing session wasn't over yet. After giving my water-beaten body a rest I asked for more.

This time the trip around the lake was more successful. Once all the way around without going down I felt like a veteran.

Now it was time to show off. Tony was on the pair of skis next to me and I decided to mimic him.

He zoomed away on both skis and I zoomed into the water head first. (Oh, well I guess that's why we wore bathing suits. Nothing like getting out of the sun for a cool dip.)

Tony's next demonstration was bare-footed water skiing. He started out with one ski and roughly got each foot onto the water. (This really didn't bother me, after all he knew how to foot-ski but I knew how to belly-ski).

"How about the ramp," I suggested. My courage was building and I was ready to try the 6-foot board.

But Tony and our fearful photographer Tom Gerls refused to accept the responsibility of my going through the board instead of over it.

With the beautiful form that won him the state water ski jumping championship Tony went over the board and gracefully went through the air like a bird.

The boat traveled at 35 mph, but he increased his own speed by cutting across the water from one side of the boat to the other just like the old game crack-the-whip.

By cutting like he did Tony actually went over the board at from 50 to 60 mph. With this speed his jump covered a distance of nearly 100 feet through the air.

(These water ski jumpers look like Tarzans of the water.)

There is something about the thrill of water skiing that makes you go back for more. Before calling it a day I had to take another jaunt around the lake after which we enjoyed something else in which Tony specializes — the art of making pizza.

(Of course in my case it was the art of eating pizza on a water logged stomach.)

Area's Skiers Dominate Meet

Pontiac area water skiers slid off with the lion's share of honors in the two-day state water ski championships at Ann Arbor, yesterday, almost sweeping the heavy weekend title competition with nearly a dozen victories. Event was on the Huron river.

Senior men's jumping—1st, Paul Boel, 77 feet; Jim Cole, Lake Sherwood, 2nd.
Senior slalom—1st, Bud Warren, Wolf Lake.
Senior tricks—1st, Jim Cole; Paul Boel, 2nd.
Men's slalom—1st, Bill Bilbie, Whitemore Lake.
Men's tricks—1st, Bill Weaver, Lake Sherwood.
Girl's jumping — Nancy Messler (Cass Lk) 50 feet, also 2nd in slalom.
Boy's slalom—1st, Ken Obert, Cass Lake.
Women jumping —Alice Shotwell, Pontiac.

Mitchell Not Veteran Skier, but an Expert

Tony Mitchell, the 26-year-old pizza maker from Pontiac, could hardly be classed as a veteran of water skiing. In three short years, however, Tony moved from the novice stage to being an expert.

Last year in his first competitive tournament he walked off with the state water ski jumping championship in the Michigan tourney at Lake Sherwood.

Up to 1952, he was really never interested in the water. He moved to Cass Lake road from Detroit 7 years ago and really took to water sports.

His first injury in learning to jump never discouraged him. He had seven stitches put in his head after he landed on a ski last year but he came back to win the state title.

2. On his way for his first solo flight on skis, Kearns takes off behind Mitchell's fine inboard motorboat.

3. This is great, and what is so hard about this?

4. Oh, oh, the first trip is coming rapidly to an end as Kearns suddenly hits a few waves and tries in vain to stay up.

5. Something tells Kearns he should have used three skis as he hits the water from the backside.

6. The ride through the cool refreshing water continues but not on skis.

7. Somebody forgot to tell Kearns to let go and when the skis came off the feet, he found himself doing some belly skiing.

8. Before Kearns decides he is ready for the ramp, Tony shows him the proper procedure.

9. Tony hits the 6-foot board after making a cut and he travels about 50 m.p.h. on the skis.

10. Like a gazelle over water, he appears to be climbing over the tree tops at the peak of the jump.

Senior Golfers Play Tomorrow

9-Hole Event for Men 65-and-Over Planned at City Course

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department is sponsoring its second annual Senior Men's handicap golf tournament Tuesday morning at Municipal golf course.

Competition is open to all men 65 years of age and over who live in the city and area. The tourney is part of the play-for-free golf program for persons 65 years old and above, which was put into effect by the Recreation department last year.

★ ★ ★

Play begins at 9 o'clock in the morning and is scheduled for nine holes. A nominal entry fee will be charged. Trophies will go to the winner and runnerup and all entries will receive a prize.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Post entries will be accepted and the only requirement for entry is to show up at the city course tomorrow morning by 9 o'clock and register. The Galloway Handicap System will be used.

Olmedo Will Relax After Finals Today

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—After Alex Olmedo's championship final today with Mike Green in the Eastern grass court tournament, the U.S. Davis Cup ace will not play a singles match until the Aug. 28-30 Davis Cup Challenge Round.

★ ★ ★

"I want Alex to relax this week," said U.S. Captain Perry Jones. "I don't want him playing too many tournaments and getting neurotic. He's the key guy."

★ ★ ★

Next week, Olmedo will play in the national doubles tournament at Longwood, Mass., but his partner is still in doubt. It might be Buchholz, the St. Louis slugger who lost to the Peruvian, 9-7, 7-9, 9-7, 6-2, in yesterday's semifinals.

★ ★ ★

Green, Miami, Fla., completed a 10-8, 6-3, 11-9 victory over 18-year-old Chuck McKinley, St. Louis, to gain the other final.

Kaline Loves Those Fenway Park Walls

His Bat Helps Tigers to One Win in Boston

Al Has Perfect Day at Plate; Don Mossi Is Mound Victor, 7-3

DETROIT (AP) — Some things might bother slugging Al Kaline when he stands at the plate but you won't find Fenway Park among them. He loves those walls.

★ ★ ★

The powerful centerfielder capped the Detroit Tigers' road trip with glory yesterday with a perfect day against the Boston Red Sox, banging out his 19th home run of the season and three singles.

His club-ribbon effort gave the Bengals a 7-3 victory and boosted Kaline's Fenway Park average to a fine .500 and his mark against the Sox to .418.

The triumph gave the Tigers something pleasant to mull over as they took a day off today before beginning a home stand against the American League leading Chicago White Sox tomorrow night.

Don Mossi picked up his 11th victory against five loses. But what was more important he broke the traditional jinx that Fenway Park has held for Tiger lefthanders. Mossi was the first Bengal southpaw to start and win for Detroit since May 5, 1956.

The triumph gave the Tigers a 3-3 mark for their brief road trip.

It took some uphill fighting in yesterday's game, but key runs by Harvey Kuenn and Gus Zernial in the ninth inning broke a 3-3 tie.

★ ★ ★

After Al Kaline drew an intentional pass to fill the bases, Boston sent Leo Kiely to relieve starter Tom Brewer. Then Dykes pulled Charlie Maxwell from the batting lineup and substituted Gus Zernial. He slammed in a two-run safety to left and Gail Harris singled for an insurance score.

★ ★ ★

Johnny Groth hopped up against the wall around the left field bleachers to pull the game out of the fire and break a four-game winning streak by Boston.

Kaline brought in a run on a wild pitch in the second inning and Harris' infield out in the sixth brought in a score by Frank Bolling from third.

Red Sox piled up a two-run double in the second by Sammy White and another run on a homer by Jackie Jensen — his 24th — in the third.

★ ★ ★

Keep Taking Close Ones in Sweep Over Nats

Chisox 3 Ahead of Tribe

By The Associated Press

Ability to win the close ones is what makes championship clubs and the Chicago White Sox have won 28 of the 33 one-run games they've played this season.

Therein lies the reason why Al Lopez' dashing Pale Hose are in first place in the American League today enjoying a three-game lead over runner-up Cleveland.

The White Sox swept a doubleheader from hapless Washington yesterday, winning the first game 4-3 on the superb relief pitching of 39-year-old Gerry Staley and adding the second game 9-0 on the shutout pitching of another 39-year-old "greybeard," Early Wynn.

Most one run games ever won by an American League club is 38 by the 1943 New York Yankees. The way the White Sox are shading their opponents they could beat that mark.

The Yankees won two uphill battles from Kansas City, 4-3 in 14 innings and 3-2 in 11 to climb into a third place tie with Baltimore although the Orioles defeated the Indians 4-3. Detroit moved past the Athletics into fifth place by defeating the Boston Red Sox 7-3.

Wynn became the American League's biggest winner when he blanked the Senators on three hits in the nightcap for his 15th triumph. The veteran right-hander, who gained the 264th triumph of his major league career, posted his fourth shutout, and 41st of his career. Wynn also banked a double and single in the White Sox' 11-hit attack.

Chicago won the opener in the ninth. A poor throw by Roy Sievers on an easy roller allowed Jim Landis to score the winning run. Landis had singled for his third hit of the game, and advanced to second on a wild pitch by reliever Dick Hyde.

Staley, third Chicago pitcher, halted a Washington rally in the fifth and pitched one-hit, runless ball thereafter to pick up his fourth victory. One of Washington's runs came on Harmon Killebrew's 35th homer.

Milt Pappas, Baltimore's 20-year-old right-hander, limited the Indians to six hits for his 12th victory against five defeats. The Orioles broke a 3-3 tie in the seventh on a two-out single by Joe Ginsberg, a walk to Bob Boyd and third baseman George Strickland's error of Brooks Robinson's grounder. Jim Perry lost his fourth in 12 decisions.

Gil McDougald's bases-loaded single in the 14th inning of the opener and Elston Howard's home run in the 11th inning of the nightcap gave the Yankees a double triumph over Kansas City and stretched their winning streak to four straight, longest since they won five in a row in June. The defeats ran the A's losing streak to six.

Yogi Berra kept the Yankees alive in the second game, hitting a home run wih two out in the ninth to tie the game at 2-2. It was his 16th of the season and 300th of his career. He is the only catcher among the 16 players with 300 or more homers.

BACK SAFELY — Frank Malzone of Boston got back to 1st safely when Tiger 1st sacker Gail Harris dropped the ball during a run down play in the 7th yesterday. The Tigers salvaged the final game of three-tilt set, 7-3.

Von Saltza, Collins Pan-Am Standouts

'Teen' Swimmers Star

EAST LANSING (AP) — A very young teenager is likely to consider competitive swimming more important than the competition for boys.

That's one explanation given by Michigan State swim coach Charles McCaffree for the spectacular performances turned in by a pair of 15-year-olds in the women's division of the Pan-American swim trials this weekend.

Chris von Saltza, representing the Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club, was the meet's first double winner with firsts in the women's 110 and 210-yard free styles.

Becky Collins of the Riviera Swim Club, Indianapolis, a dark haired little dynamo of a youngster, beat out more experienced competition to win the women's 110-yard butterfly.

Winners of the men's class finals Saturday were Frank McKinney, Indianapolis AC, in the 110-yard backstroke, George Harrison, Palo Alto, Calif., in the 440-yard free style, and Sam Hill, Ohio State diver, in the three-meter springboard.

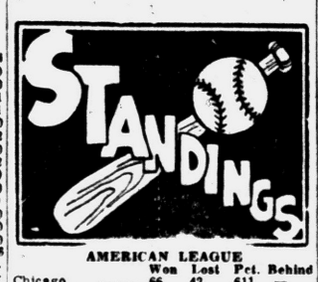

The swim statisticians figured, meanwhile, that there were 69 record shattering performances in the first two days of competition in the MSU outdoor pool.

These included 47 under American records, 50 under American citizens records and two under world records.

Miss Collins and Nancy Ramey, Seattle, Wash., AC, were the two swimmers figuring in the world record busting. Miss Collins' time of 1:10.0 in the 110-yard butterfly final and Miss Ramey's time of 1:09.8 in a preliminary both bettered the world record of 1:11.3 set by Miss Ramey in 1957.

★ ★ ★

Final makeup of the swim team to compete for the U.S. in Chicago will be decided in the two more days of competition ending Tuesday night.

Archie, Yvon Set to Go

MONTREAL (AP) — Ancient Archie Moore tipped the scales at an even 175 pounds — the light-heavyweight limit—today and was pronounced fit and ready for his title defense against Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., here Wednesday night.

We'll have no excuses," said Moore's manager Jack (Doc) Kearns. "We've had plenty of time. Moore is in good shape."

Reports from Durelle's side of the gym—both fighters are training in the same east-end gym—indicate the fighting fisherman is also in top shape.

The challenger weighs 176. He has stopped sparring and will work out "just according to how he feels" for the next two days, said manager Chris Shaban.

★ ★ ★

Durelle's trainer, Charlie Goldman, thinks the challenger has polished up his boxing a bit and won't be as open to lefts as he was in his first title go with Moore here Dec. 10.

★ ★ ★

In that wild brawl Moore, after being decked three times in the first round, wore down Durelle with left jabs and hooks and finally knocked him out in the 11th.

"Yvon is a better boxer than ever before," said Goldman. "He isn't a fancy Dan, never was, never will be. But when I took him over he was woefully weak on a few fundamentals."

He said he lost his temper at a fighter named Len Morrow once and hit him so hard he had a brain concussion.

"That scared me, taught me never to lose my temper," he said.

Conduct Rites Today for Ex-Tiger Ben Dyer

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP)—Funeral service for Benjamin Dyer, 66-year-old former major league baseball player, will be held today.

Dyer, born in Chicago, played for the New York Giants in 1914-15 and the Detroit Tigers 1916-19. He moved here in 1921 and played semi-pro ball in the old Midwest League.

★ ★ ★

Patty Defends Western Title In Coast Test

SEATTLE (AP) — Patty Berg, the 41-year-old queen of golf from Minneapolis, will defend her women's Western Open golf title this week on the tightly knit, 6,238 yard Rainer Golf and Country Club.

★ ★ ★

Miss Berg has won the crown seven times, the last two of them in succession. This year's meet, the 30th annual, opens Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Among the 153 entries, the top challenger is Betsy Rawls. The Phi Beta Kappa from Spartanburg, S.C., is the current leading money winner on the tournament circuit. Also entered here are the two who are right behind her—Louise Suggs, Sea Island, Ga., and Mickey Wright, San Diego, Calif.

Clarkson, Pearsall Horseshoe Leaders

President Jim Clarkson and Tom Pearsall are the individual leaders in the two divisions of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Horseshoe League.

Clarkson tops the entire loop with 91 points and on the tops doubles team in the Thursday group.

The local pitchers are looking forward to an open tournament which will be held Labor Day at Oakland Park.

Loop members are also hoping to arrange matches against teams from other communities. Any outside league interested should contact Clarkson at OA 8-2289 or call the Parks and Recreation office.

The leaders:

TUESDAY LEAGUE—Singles—Pearsall 88, John Vitton 87, Floyd Bartley 86, Herc Renda 74, Lloyd Bartley 70, Len Skaggs 68, Walt Barkham 68, Bill Bigford 67. Doubles—Barkham-M. Sepaluk 85, Pearsall-R. Oakley 84, Bigford-Vitton 80 and the Bartleys 77.

THURSDAY LEAGUE — Singles—Clarkson 91, Bill Dalby 89, Arlie Reed 83, Bob Hanna 78, Jack Brown 71, Harry Reilly 65, Milt Swigert 64 and Terry Cantrell 56. Doubles—Clarkson-Swigert 74, Dalby-D. Johnson 64, Brown-H. McCrary 59, Reed-M. Collins 56.

Fifth Title for Sam

SISTERVILLE, W.Va. (AP) — Sam Snead won an unprecedented fifth state PGA golf championship Sunday with a nine-under-par 195 for 54 holes.

YOU'RE THROUGH — Plate umpire Ken Burkhardt makes the appropriate gestures as he tells Fred Haney he's had it in the 7th inning of the Milwaukee-Los Angeles game Sunday. Haney, who appeared surprised at his sentence, was continuing an argument started by Johnny Logan. Logan was ejected for protesting a called 3rd strike. Despite all the trouble, the Braves won.

Giants Boost NL Lead Behind Arm of Sanford

By The Associated Press

The New York Giants won the 1951 pennant because of the trade they made the year before for Eddie Stanky and Alvin Dark. They repeated in 1954 because of the trade they made the winter before for Johnny Antonelli. If the San Francisco Giants win in 1959 it will be because of the trades they made for pitchers Jack Sanford and Sam Jones.

★ ★ ★

Sanford and Jones have added 26 victories to the Giants' cause and, along with southpaw Johnny Antonelli, a 16-game winner, are chiefly responsible for the Giants' game and a half lead over Los Angeles and 2½ game bulge over Milwaukee today.

★ ★ ★

Jones, who is due to pitch against the Cardinals tonight, has won 15 and saved a number of others in relief roles. Sanford now 11-9, hurled a strong five-hitter against Cincinnati yesterday as the Giants won in 10 innings, 4-3, on Orlando Cepeda's home run.

★ ★ ★

The triumph enabled the league leaders to pick up a full game on the Dodgers, who were beaten 8-7 by the Braves. Pittsburgh defeated Chicago's Cubs 5-3 in 10 innings for Elroy Face's 15th triumph without a defeat. It also was the Pirates' 15th victory in 16 overtime games this season.

Philadelphia's last place Phillies swept a doubleheader from St. Louis, 8-3 and 4-2.

Sanford, who missed nearly three weeks of action in June because of a hand injury, pitched his third straight complete game as the Giants took the rubber of the three-game series from the Reds. He walked two and fanned five.

Cepeda's homer, his 23rd, enabled the Giants to defeat Don Newcombe for the first time. The big right - hander has whipped them four times this season and holds a 10-6 career record against them. The Reds forced the game into overtime when Jerry Lynch smacked a game-tying home run with one out in the ninth.

★ ★ ★

The Braves gave Bob Buhl an early 8-0 lead, with six runs in the third and two more in the fourth. But the veteran right-hander gave back all but one and finally gave way to Don McMahon in the ninth after Duke Snider's two-run homer had narrowed Milwaukee's margin to one-run.

★ ★ ★

Joe Adcock highlighted Milwaukee's six-run rally by smashing his 14th home run with two on base. Eddie Mathews hit his 31st home run with a man on in the fourth. Snider, also had a double to extend his hitting streak to 12 games.

★ ★ ★

Dick Groat's scoring single in the 10th broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Pirates their second overtime victory over the Cubs in two days. The Pirates scored two in the ninth to tie the score at 3-3.

★ ★ ★

Face, who relieved Vern Law in the eighth, gave up an unearned run in three innings and was rewarded with his 20th straight victory since May 30, 1958. He is now only four behind Rube Marquard's single season record of 19 consecutive victories, and the same number behind Carl Hubbell's two-season record of 24 straight.

★ ★ ★

Gene Conley and Jim Owens pitched Philadelphia to its double win over the Cards who had beaten them eight straight times. Conley, now 11-7, pitched a steady seven-hitter and drove in what proved to be the winning run in the opener. Owens, now 8-9, got a big assist from Dave Philley, whose pinch single in the ninth broke a 2-2 tie.

Soccer Squads Hire Hypnotist

TORQUAY, England (AP)—A 65-year-old hypnotist announced today that he has been retained by two British soccer teams to try and charm them into a goal-scoring frenzy.

★ ★ ★

Henry Blythe said he will go to work on the lowly Gloucester City club and a "famous Scottish first division team" which he declined to name.

★ ★ ★

"My task will be to try and restore confidence to the players," Blythe said. "I shall give them hypnotic help."

Patterson Asks Ingemar 'What Goes' in Cable

Johansson, who won the title from Patterson last June 26, has been threatening to call off their tentative return date on Sept. 22 unless he gets a complete accounting of the receipts from the bout.

"Like you I don't like fight politics and have never indulged in them. Nor have I ever run away from an obligation as champion for personal convenience reasons or by using an excuse . . . in order to get attention in the newspapers.

"I refuse to believe that you will act different and not honor your obligation for a return match within the 90 days agreed upon in our contract. I have been assured that all accounting figures and contracts have been made available to your lawyers for at least the past 10 days and that a full accounting report of all money received has already been airmailed to you."

Patterson's attorney, Edwin Schweig, said the accounting report was mailed to Johansson on Friday. He added that he has an appointment to show the report to Johansson's lawyer Monday.

Lions' Coach Thinks 20-20 Deadlock Important

Wilson Encouraged by Tie

But it was just an exhibition game. The outcome didn't mean a thing where the tough 1959 National Football League race was concerned.

Still, Detroit Lions coach George Wilson feels that his team's 20-20 deadlock with the favored Los Angeles Rams last Saturday at Boulder, Colo., will be a big factor in how the Lions look when the regular season starts.

"Our guys proved they can still dig in and get the job done," said Wilson. "That's important."

The Lions need encouragement — badly. World champions in 1957, they started off the season last year with a loss to the College All-Stars and ended up next to last in the NFL.

"I thought it turned out well, considering everything," said Wilson. "Some of them looked good . . . but mostly I liked the way Danny Lewis and Ken Webb ran."

Lewis smashed over for a 21-yard touchdown and Webb led in ground gained with 88 yards on four passes and 26 yards on seven rushes.

Wilson had intended to use rookies freely. As it turned out, he did this only in the first half when the powerful Rams pushed to a 14-3 lead with quarterback Billy Wade and halfback Ollie Matson leading the way.

The Lion veterans came in at the start of the second half and stopped the Rams cold, holding them to two field goals while knifing into paydirt with a pair of touchdowns.

Jerry Perry's field goal in the last 27 seconds knotted the score. It was Perry's second of the contest.

Detroit's other touchdown came on a brilliant 40-yard pass from Earl Morrall to Hopalong Cassady. Lewis' score earlier was set up on quarterback Tobin Rote's 4-yard pass play with Cassady.

Jerry Reichow quarterbacked the first half, and Morrall and Rote split the second. Riechow completed three of nine passes, Rote one of four and Morrall six of 12.

Halfback Dewey Bohling, a rookie from Hardin-Simmons, has rejoined the Steelers after several days in Mercy Hospital for treatment of a head injury suffered in practice.

Ex-Lion Ken Russell, an offensive tackle obtained Saturday from the Green Bay Packers in exchange for a draft choice, was put to work immediately at the Cleveland Browns' training camp.

The Browns have a vacancy at the right tackle spot because of a knee injury to captain Mike McCormick. Russell, a former Bowling Green University standout, was with the Detroit Lions the past two seasons.

Willie Davis and Floyd Peters, plus rookies Francis O'Brien of Michigan State and Colorado's John Wooten who are with the College All-Stars, are his competition for the post.

Pontiac Baseballers Advance to Districts

They are Lytell - Colegrove in Class D, Pontiac Boys Club, Class E and Northside Kiwanis in "F". The Aces (Hall) won Widget honors to complete a big day of finals yesterday.

Lytell will play Waterford today at 4 p.m. at Jaycee No. 2 park in the lone opening round "D" contest. Warren, St. Clair Shores and Roseville have byes into Wednesday's play.

In Class E, Pontiac Boys Club vs. Warren in a 10 a.m. tilt at Jaycee No. 1 while Saginaw and East Detroit play at No. 2. Roseville and Waterford have byes and play the winners Wednesday.

The Class F setup calls for Northside Kiwanis and Center Line to meet a 1 p.m. at the Columbia-Joslyn south diamond. Roseville vs East Detroit at the north field at the same time. Warren and Saginaw have byes.

Chuck Kirken fired a two-hitter as Lytell blanked Don Nicholie 1-0 in one of the top games of the year yesterday. He fanned 15 in the eight-inning game. Jim Hoke singled in the deciding run to beat Rich Lamphere.

Pontiac Boys Club made nine hits count for as many runs in a 9-2 whipping of Auburn Heights Boys Club featuring a 3-hitter by Tom Zink. Bill Bennett's three singles paced the attack.

It took a doubleheader to decide Class F because B&B Sewers hung a 9-2 defeat on previously unbeaten Northside paced by the pitching and batting of Roger Hayward. He, brother Larry and Wes Harden all had triples.

Roger came back in relief to take the loss in the nightcap, 4-3 Victor Dave Tinkis gave up just three hits, one a homer by Harry Lawrence. Steve Daniels' run-scoring double in the 7th iced the verdict and offset a steal of home in the same frame by Walt Moore.

The Aces trailed 3-0 after three frames but put together three of their five safeties and tallied six times for a 6-3 win over Ultra-Stone.

14-Year-Old Is All-Gauge King

(Special to The Pontiac Press)

LYNN HAVEN, Va.—Compiling a perfect round of 250 for the tough (world) skeet all-gauge championship, a 14-year-old school boy from Roselle, Ill. Saturday was the sensation of the country's top shotgunners.

Slight, 130-pound Bob Shuley, who started skeet shooting four years ago, hit 100 straight to start the rugged all-gauge test. He added another straight the next day, and on Saturday finished up with 50 straight, to top some of the world's best marksmen.

Ken Sedlecky of Baldwin, Mich. was third after a shootoff. He had 250. Others in a shootoff were Bob Thiefels, Pontiac; Ains Borsum, Baldwin; Howard Confer, Detroit; Chet Crites, Detroit, all with 247.

SUNDAY'S HOME RUNS

AMERICAN LEAGUE

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Bouchee (13), Phillies; White (9), Cardinals; Banks (31), Marshall (8), Cubs; Cepeda (23), Giants; Lynch (15), Bell (15), Reds; Snider (17), Dodgers; Adcock (14), Mathews (31), Braves.

Maverick Takes It to Nevada

Gold Cup Abandons Seattle

★ ★ ★

Only one other time in 10 years has this hydroplane-happy city lost the Gold Cup—in 1956, when it moved to Detroit. The winner designates the site for the next race and William Waggoner of Phoenix, who owns the Maverick, is expected to set the defense for Lake Mead, where he bases the boat.

★ ★ ★

Stead's margin of victory over a local favorite—Bill Muncey in Miss Thriftway—was so small the unlimited hydroplane race was over for two hours before officials came up with the decision. Most of the crowd, estimated at more than 250,000, waited for the announcement.

★ ★ ★

At the end of 90 miles of racing Stead and Muncey were tied with 1,325 points. Maverick was given 13.3 seconds faster than did Miss the cup because she made the run Thriftway. A Washington, D.C., entry, Nitrogen, placed third with 714 points and Wahoo of Seattle was fourth with 700.

Fourteen boats were entered and—because of a rule permitting only seven to run at one time—each of the race's first two 30 mile heats was split into two divisions. The winner of each got 400 points and also-rans a lesser total. Two—the Breathless II of Lake Tahoe, Calif., and Thriftway Too of Seattle—failed to finish a heat and earned no points at all.

Miss Spokane was fifth with 691, followed by Miss Pay 'n' Save, Seattle, 616; Gale VI, Detroit, 469; Miss U.S.I., Detroit, 400; Miss Seattle, 352; Hawaii Kai III, the defending champion, 300; Gale V, Detroit, 240; and Kol-Roy, Seattle, 127.

Muncey pushed Stead to a record 104.003 miles per hour average speed and himself beat the 103.481 mark set last year by the Kai. Wahoo cracked its own 1958 record for a 3-mile lap, making one trip around the Lake Washington oval at 113.924 miles per hour.

Muncey, who won this race in 1956 and '57, lost it in 1955 to Gale V much as he lost it yesterday—finishing in front in the final heat only to learn his total time was slower than the Gale's.

Hopman Is Confident of Aussie Cup Win

"Now I think we can win back the Cup," said the stringy strategist from Down Under. "I have felt all along that if we could get past Mexico and Italy we could do it. I am very optimistic."

The Australians, who have held the big silver mug for seven of the last nine years, hurdled the Italian obstacle at the Germantown Cricket Club yesterday with a soggy but refreshing doubles victory.

The reigning Wimbledon champions, Neale Fraser and Roy Emerson, fought back after dropping the opening set to beat Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli and Orlando Sirola 3-6, 11-9, 6-3, 7-5.

The Aussies, 3-0 over Italy with two meaningless singles matches to be played today, now go to Brookline, Mass., for the inter-zone finals against India next weekend. But Hopman considers this one cut-and-dried.

Mrs. Jenny Oesch Wins State Crown

State women's shotgun crown was captured over the weekend by Pontiac's Mrs. Jenny Oesch. The comparatively new shooter won over another Oakland County expert, Mrs. Vi Vanderwater of Waterford, 11-8 in a shootoff at the state championships at Davison. Both had tied at 54 in the difficult 3-way contest.

Men's title went to auto dealer Bob Upthegraff of Davison, who also won in a shootoff, 20-19. He defeated Blissfield's Fred Knoblauch after both had fired 72x75.

More Softball on Tap Tonight

Wright's Upholstery scored twice in the 7th to nip Huron Bowl 5-4 in Class D while State Hospital, Sport Shop and Griff's Grill were IL victors.

State Hospital scored seven times in the 1st two frames and coasted to an 8-5 triumph over Drive-In Cleaners in an International upper bracket game. Sport Shop walloped Langdon's 11-0 in the same division on a two-hitter by Al Webster.

Tonight's slate has Wright's vs Autos of Europe at 7 and Pontiac Police vs Pontiac Retailers at 8:30 at Beaudette. State Hospital meets Sport Shop and Drive-In Cleaners vs Langdon's at Northside.

Caledonia Team State Champs in NBC Play

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Dairyland Valley-Lea of Caledonia ruled today as state National Baseball Congress champions and looked ahead to a best two-of-three-game series with a Columbus, Ohio, nine for a berth in the national tournament.

It was Dairyland's second victory over Sullivan's in the five-weekend, double-elimination tournament.

Frank Marino, a Dairyland pitcher who also is a batting practice hurler for the Chicago Cubs, was voted most valuable player in the tournament. He posted one 1-0 victory and then beat Sullivan's 6-5 a week ago.

If Missouri beats Kansas in football this fall (Nov. 21) their series will be tied at 30 victories each. Eight games ended in ties.

Detroit Is Contender

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Washington, D. C., winner of 22 championships in 44 years, is a heavy favorite to retain its title in the Union Printers International baseball tournament starting Monday.

Entered are teams from Washington, Boston, St. Paul, Chicago, New York, Detroit, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Baltimore and Pittsburgh.

Babe Ruth Honors Won by Birmingham

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Kirby, a curveball specialist, was hit for four hits and four runs in the first three innings but then settled down and retired the last 11 batters in a row.

★ ★ ★

The triumph gives Birmingham the right to represent the state in the Ohio Valley Regional Baseball Tournament, meeting the Illinois champ Thursday at 12 noon here.

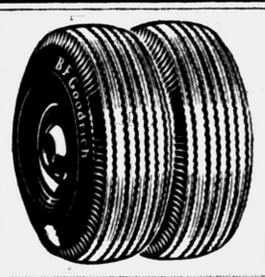

Don't put it off any longer, we had the hardest winter here in the longest time last year. Stop in today and let Benson's help you select the style, color and grade of Roofing Materials for your home.

Trials Tuesday for Motor City

Qualifying rounds for 66 open spots in the Motor City Open start tomorrow morning at Meadowbrook Country Club.

Host pro Chick Harbert said 173 entries were received for the week end golf tournament. PGA rules require qualifying rounds to narrow the field to 150.

Some 84 of the entrants were excused from qualifying rounds by virtue of previous tournament wins. The other 89 will seek the 66 places in the event.

Pan-American Torch Moving Through Texas

DALLAS, TEX. (AP) — The Pan American Games torch moves into north Texas on its slow but steady journey to Chicago's Soldier Field.

Boy Scouts from the Dallas Circle Ten Council took over the battery-powered light north of Waco, Tex. yesterday and carried it to the north central Texas city of Waxahachie by nightfall.

Otto and Paton Win Pairs Title

Fred Otto, one of last year's runnersup in the Oakland Hills CC invitational net doubles, last weekend teamed with the former U. of M. player Andy Paton to capture an easy title. This pair disposed of Otto's 1958 partner, Don MacKay, and Ted Peterson in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3.

Both pairs had an easy march to the finals. They were the outstanding teams in a 27-team field.

The Eventual champs set down Nick Beresky and Dean Bailey of Toledo 6-1, 6-3 in their semi-finals. MacKay and Peterson moved to the final bracket by means of a default, by Hamtramck's Jerry Dubie and Bob Martin.

Royal Oak Nine Wins 2nd Half Legion Crown

Saving his best for last, Bob Lyons hurled a nine-inning no-hitter as Royal Oak nipped Southfield 2-1 yesterday to win the 2nd half championship of the District Junior Legion League.

He lost a shutout in the 6th when he gave up one of his four walks. A sacrifice, wild pitch and error moved the runner around.

Lyons faced only 28 official batters, fanning nine. Greg Preston homered and Bill Pyle had a clutch single for the RO runs.

But Plans Changes

Stengel Hints He Will Return Next Season

Some of the younger players have him sore because they haven't been playing heads-up ball and he was grated all the more when some of the ex-Yankees on hand for the Old-Timers game Saturday pointed out blunders to him.

★ ★ ★

"I'm going to change all that in camp next spring," he said while waiting for the scheduled night game against the Boston Red Sox. "We're going to work on those things and if we can't do it one way, we'll find another."

★ ★ ★

That doesn't sound like talk from a manager who might be thinking of taking the side door out. The Yanks, despite their latest skein, The youngsters he was talking are 11½ games off the pace, and just 2½ out of the second division. about had little to do with yesterday's victories. They were by the old-timers and reminded even Stengel of the old-time Yanks — take advantage of the breaks and blast the opposition with the long ball.

★ ★ ★

"But some of these young fellows," Stengel said, "don't like to listen to the old guys. They could get a $10,000 raise if they'd listen."

Then, flushed by the rare winning streak, he blurted:

"If they'd make the plays the way they should, they could lick the whole world."

Stevens Keeps District Title

Long-Hitting Amateur Champ Buries Miller, 7-6, in DDGA Final

The long-hitting, powerfully-built swinger from Western Golf Club, who won the State Amateur title in mid-July, annexed the Detroit District Golf Association crown for the 2nd straight year Sunday.

Stevens, a 190-pound belter who knocks th-i out of sight of the tees, handed 21-year-old Steve Miller a 7-6 thumping yesterday in the 36-hole match play final at Country Club of Detroit.

The 26-year-old Stevens now has conquered 16 straight opponents in head-to-head combat in Michigan's two leading amateur events. He won five matches in last year's DDGA event, disposed of six foes this summer in the State Amateur and claimed five more victims over the weekend.

Miller, a former caddy champ from Jackson Arbor Hills, was no mach for Stevens yesterday at C. C. of Detroit. Stevens pulled away swiftly at the start of the afternoon round and went 5 up after 27 holes. He was even par for the 30-hole distance.

U.S. Oarsmen Tough Lot

DETROIT (AP)—A man who should know said today that the U.S. rowing team selected to compete in the Pan-American Games will be hard to beat and "might possibly win every event."

"This is by far a better crew than the United States sent to the games at Mexico City in 1955," commented Clifford (Tip) Goes of New York, chairman of the U.S. Olympic Rowing Committee.

Seventeen rowers were selected at the National Rowing Championships over the weekend to represent this country in the Pan-American Rowing events at Chicago.

The heavyweight eight crew from Syracuse University won the Pan-Am trials for eights in June at Syracuse.

The Detroit club won the national title for the fourth straight year with a record 233½ points. Lake Washington was second in the point-race with 118¾ and Philadelphia third with 81.

U. of M. Trampoliner Wins Pan-Am Place

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Jack Beckner, national champion and two-time Olympian, came from behind Sunday and won the top spot on the six-man gymnastic team which will represent the United States in the Pan-American Games.

In the two specialty events, Harold Holmes of Urbana, Ill., easily won the tumbling and Ron Munn, University of Michigan, took the trampoline.

Another Victory for Local Ace

VAXJO, Sweden (UPI)—When Sweden's Dan Waern beat Brian Hewson of Britain in the 1,000 meter event in an International track meet here yesterday, he missed by only one tenth of a second of tieing his own world record of 2:18.1. In other events, Ray Norton of Oakland, Calif. won the 100-meter dash, Jim Graham of Tulsa, Okla., the pole vault and Warren Cawley of Farmington, Mich., the 110-meter high hurdles.

Andonian Wins 4th City Title

Mike Fires 138 to Defeat Bada by Two Strokes

Pembroke Finishes 3rd in Annual Golf Event at Municipal Links

The Pontiac Central High School mathematics teacher who sells insurance as a sideline won the annual City Medal Play golf championship for the 4th time in his illustrious amateur career.

Andonian compiled a 36-hole total of 138, even par, for a two-stroke edge over Paul Bada, the talented red-headed golfer who took the city crown in 1957.

The triumph ended a six-year drought in the city tournament for the threetime State Publinx champion. Andonian won the title three straight years, 1951 through 1953, then skipped a couple of tournaments and couldn't repeat until yesterday. He took 3rd place last year.

Bada rifled a blazing three-under-par 66 Sunday, the lowest single round of the two-day tourney, but it was not good enough to offset the steady firing of Andonian, who grabbed Saturday's first round lead with a 67 and coasted home.

Andonian carded 33-34 on Saturday to take charge of the 28-man field and he never relinquished his advantage, although he did have to fight off challenges by Bill (Buster) Pembroke and Bob Hausman in yesterday's final 18-hole round.

Pembroke, who finished 3rd with a score of 142, and Hausman, medalist in the 18-hole qualifiers the preceding weekend, both came within one shot of Andonian yesterday, but each faltered in the stretch.

Bada got off to a bad start Saturday, shooting 36-38—74, and his closing effort of 32-34—66 still left him two strokes off the pace with 140. Andonian shot 34-37—71 in yesterday's windup.

Ron Rothbarth, 1956 city champ, placed 4th at 143 and Tom Balleit came next with 144. Hausman and A. K. Burton deadlocked at 145, followed by defending city champion Butler Cooper, Glenn Harding and Paul Barnum, all with 146.

One of the largest galleries in the history of the city tourney, approximately 300 spectators, followed the action yesterday with Andonian and Bada drawing most of the attention.

Dow Wins at Cleveland, Heads for Motor City

CLEVELAND (AP) — Dapper Dow Finsterwald, with $8,800 of Cleveland Open golf winnings in his wallet, flew home to Tequesta, Fla., today to see his wife and three youngsters.

★ ★ ★

The rest of the touring professionals headed for Detroit and the Motor City Open. Finsterwald will fly back and play there without benefit of a practice round over the unfamiliar layout.

★ ★ ★

Dow, the 1958 PGA champ from Athens, Ohio, roared from a seventh place deadlock and a three-stroke deficit yesterday to take the $25,000 Cleveland event in a hair-raising finish. He had a closing 68, three under par for the 6,966-yard Seneca Course and an eight under par total of 276.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Finsterwald, runnerup in 20 tournaments since he hit the trail in 1952, thought he was second again when he took his lone bogey on the closing hole, where he blasted a trap shot far over the green. But his challengers failed to take advantage of the lapse and Dow picked up the $3,500 top prize, a bonus of $5,000 for repeating his 1956 victory and $300 in appearance money.

Seven Harbors Picks Queen

2-Mile Parade Opens Festival

Hundreds Take Part in White Lake Area's Community Fete

HIGHLAND TOWNSHIP — Following a two-mile-long parade Saturday morning, a beautiful queen was crowned, and hundreds of people participated in the first community festival held in the White Lake area for many years.

At 9 a.m., Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and open convertibles with eight pretty girls congregated at the corner of Highland and Duck Lake roads along with firemen and the Oakland County Sheriff's Mounted Patrol to begin a parade to the Beaumont School grounds.

During the afternoon the festival took on the air of an old-fashioned county fair with a spirited horseshoe tournament attracting most of the older folks.

CONTESTANTS INTRODUCED

At 3 p.m. the girls competing for the queen's crown were introduced by contest chairman Gene Russell.

A tall blonde, Lois Marie Lemke, 17, of 3300 Lakeview Dr., was chosen the winner with a lovely brunette, Beth Kellogg, 17, running a close second.

The queen, oldest of 12 children, received a $25 savings bond. She was judged on posture, poise and personality. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lemke.

An avid sports enthusiast, Lois was graduated from high school in June and will begin work this fall for a Detroit attorney. She is also an accomplished accordionist.

Sponsored by the Seven Harbors Assn. at White Lake, all of the $500 proceeds from the festival will be used for area beach and road improvements, along with other community projects, according to cochairmen Mrs. Allen Simmons and Mrs. Ray Johnson.

★ ★ ★

Judges for the contest were Oakland County Sheriff Frank W. Irons, Highland Township Supervisor Lewis Oldenburg, Dr. W. O. Benjamin and Reba Heintzelman of The Pontiac Press.

★ ★ ★

Michigan Beauties to Vie for 1959 State Fair Title

Entries for the annual Michigan State Fair beauty queen contest are pouring in at a greater clip than in previous years, General Manager Donald L. Swanson reports.

With Aug. 28 set as the deadline for entries, a score of Michigan Queens already have applied for entry blanks in search of the title "Miss Michigan State Fair of 1959."

As in past years, to qualify for the contest, the candidate must have won a sponsored Beauty Contest in Michigan since the last State Fair. She must be between the ages of 16 and 25 years and single.

Miss Michigan State Fair of 1959 thus actually will be the Queen of all Michigan Beauty Queens. She will be chosen by well-known judges and crowned by Governor Williams on Wednesday, Sept. 9. The State Fair dates this year are Sept. 4 through 13.

Only one Queen may be sent by the sponsoring Michigan group which pays her expenses. Entry must be made on an official entry blank and returned to the State Fair in Detroit to the attention of Cleighton Melin.

Melin, who is director of music and parades in addition to the Queen contest, will see that the various Queens are invited to ride in convertibles in the opening day parade through downtown Detroit. They also will be guests of honor to other functions on the Fairgrounds.

Last year it was Miss Lila Verslype of Harper Woods, Michigan who as "Miss Chiropractic Michigan Posture" won the State Fair in competition with Queens from all parts of Michigan.

Holstein Show Set

In keeping with long-standing custom, the National Holstein Show will be held at the National Dairy Cattle Congress, Waterloo, Iowa this year. Holsteins will be judged Oct. 8-9 by Douglas S. Dunton of Brampton, Ontario.

Pontiac Township Board Will Vote on Counsels

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — At tonight's meeting of the Pontiac Township Board members will vote on the appointment of a financial consultant, a bond counsel and a consulting engineer.

★ ★ ★

Other business will include the adoption of a sewer ordinance and the awarding of bids on fuel oil and blacktopping.

★ ★ ★

The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. in the Township Hall, at 2060 Opdyke Rd.

Walled Lake Husband Missing Since July 1

Roy B. Scott, 37, of 321 Leon Rd., was first missed by his wife when he failed to show up at their restaurant to relieve her of duties there that evening.

They worked two different shifts to eke as much as they could out of their little business. But profits were mighty slim, Mrs. Scott admitted.

Their only son, Terry 18, graduated from Walled Lake High School last June. And the parents were trying to scrape up enough to send him to college.

KEEPS BUSINESS GOING

Mrs. Scott is keeping the business going, hoping for her husband's return.

"I think it just got to be too much for him," she said. "He was acting nervous and upset and wouldn't talk."

"When he didn't show up for work at 6 p.m., I went home and found all his clothes gone," Mrs. Scott explained. "He didn't have any money that I know of," she added.

But he phoned two weeks later from his parents' home in Middletown, Ohio. Nobody has heard from him this time, the worried mother reported.

Scott is believed to have driven off in the family's cream-colored '54 Chevrolet, Michigan license number GS 1549. He is 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighs 142 pounds, has blue eyes, and brown hair usually worn in a brush cut.

Head-On Crash Hurts 6 Saturday

One Driver Jailed for Driving Without License Family of 5 Injured

LAPEER TOWNSHIP — Six persons were injured when two cars crashed head-on at 7:40 p.m. Saturday on Imlay City road, one and a half miles east of Lapeer.

Driver of one car was Ted J. Oliver, 23, of 2441 N. Alba Rd., Oregon Township. He suffered minor injuries in the mishap and was lodged in Lapeer County Jail for driving when his license had been revoked and for further investigation of the accident, police said.

More seriously hurt were the driver of the other car, Thomas Barnes, 29, of Newberry, Ont.; his wife, Laura, 28, and their three young sons.

Jimmy Barnes, 7, had a broken leg and internal injuries; Johnny, 4, head injuries and a broken leg; and Lonnie, 2, a broken leg and internal injuries.

All were taken to Lapeer County General Hospital, and Johnny was transferred later to Hurley Hospital, Flint. They are listed in satisfactory condition today, hospital officials said.

★ ★ ★

Lapeer County Sheriff's deputies said Oliver's car pulled out of his lane of traffic to pass several other vehicles into the path of Barnes' car.

Both cars were total wrecks, police said.

PRETTIEST PEACHES — This trio of beauties won top honors in the Romeo Peach Queen competition over seven other Oakland County area title holders vying for the coveted crown. The 1959 Peach Queen is Lorelei Hoxie, 18, of Armada, center. She is flanked by her two maids of honor, Frances Goff, 18, "Miss Waterford Township" and Carole Bird, 19, "Miss Rochester." The queen and her court will reign over the 27th annual Peach Festival celebration Sept. 4 - 7 in Romeo.

Romeo Motorcyclist Hurt in Car Collision

ROMEO — A 35-year-old Romeo motorcyclist is reported in satisfactory condition today at Community Hospital after being injured in a traffic mishap on Van Dyke just south of town Friday night.

Jack Hamilton, of 303 Morton St., suffered a broken ankle and cut knee when his motorcycle hit a car pulling out of a gas station.

His cycle skidded 97 feet before coming to rest on the opposite side of the road. Hamilton was thrown clear by the impact, local police said.

Driver of the car was Samuel Zilkie, 51, of 188 Pleasant St. Police said a car parked near the gas station obscured the view for both drivers.

State Construction Up

DETROIT (AP) — Contracts for future construction in June in Michigan totaled $186,508,000, F. W. Dodge Corp. reports. The figure is an increase of 36 per cent over June 1958. Dodge said the cumulative total of contracts for the first half of 1959 amounted to $747,401,000, up 28 per cent over last year's first half period.

Tale of Preston Sturges . . . Fame Fades Away

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The death of Preston Sturges gives further testimony to the fleeting nature of success in the movie jungle.

When I started on this beat 15 years ago, there was no hotter film creator than Sturges. He had filmed a string of dazzling hits: "The Great McGinty," "Sullivan's Travels," "Palm Beach Story." "The Lady Eve," "Miracle of Morgan's Creek," "Hale the Conquering Hero."

THOMAS

A top screen writer, he had convinced Paramount to let him direct "McGinty" by selling the studio the script for $10. The picture won him an Oscar. His success was significant. It helped convince studios to let other writers like John Huston, Delmer Daves, Robert Rossen and Joe Mankiewicz to direct.

Sturges' decline started when he left the discipline of the big-studio operation. He hooked up with another eccentric, Howard Hughes, in an independent company. Their first film was a Harold Lloyd comeback, "The Sin of Harold Diddlebock." This typified Sturges' passion for long, unusual titles.

"Diddlebock" was not a success—it was released years later as "Mad Wednesday." Sturges went on to film a period piece, "Vendetta," while he and Hughes were having one of their own. Their partnership broke up and four or five other directors tried to finish the film to Hughes' satisfaction.

Sturges never recovered his spark. Darryl Zanuck hired him to pump some life into Betty Grable's sagging career. The result was "Beautiful Blonde from Bashful Bend." Satires on Western Westerns have never been successful, and this one was no exception.

The studios were afraid of Sturges' erratic behavior and none would hire him. He went off to Paris and gave biting interviews about contempt for the artist in Hollywood.

I saw him again a few years ago at Paramount. He was lunching alone, in contrast to the days when he held court with his staff and the corps of veteran actors he used in his films.

★ ★ ★

He had been brought back to polish the script of the Mack Sennett-Mabel Normand story, but the project never got off the ground. And so he was to end his days in bitterness against the Hollywood that had once called him master.

Aid Rushed In to Oregon Town

Eight Blocks Reduced to Rubble; Governor Appeal for Help

ROSEBURG, Ore. (AP)—Relief agencies sped aid to this stricken southern Oregon city today as construction workers battered down the charred remnants of blasted buildings.

Eight blocks of the business district were reduced to rubble early Friday when a parked truck, loaded with 6½ tons of explosives, blew up. The blast was touched off by a fire in a nearby building.

At least 13 persons were killed. More than 100 were injured. Property damage in a 22-block area around the blast scene totals more than 10 million dollars.

Financial relief began pouring in shortly after Oregon Gov. Mark Hatfield established a Roseburg Relief Fund. The little western Oregon town of Drain, with a population of 1,290, contributed $1,000.

The Red Cross set up an office to take care of emergency medical expenses and housing. The Small Business Administration is taking applications for loans from homeowners and businessmen who can't get money from other sources.

City and state agencies set up meetings to help get the city back on its feet. Mayor Arlo Jacklin travels to Salem today for a conference with Hatfield and Red Gordon.

Dutch Trawler Sinks, All 16 in Crew Saved

The trawler Geertruida Jacoba went down about 65 miles northeast of Great Yarmouth after an explosion that flooded her engine room. The crew took to lifeboats and the Rabenfels picked them up.

Copper Strike Readied Today

3-Year Pact Expires as Union Demands Not Met by Kennecott

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—A strike was scheduled to start today against Kennecott Copper Corp.'s Western division, the nation's biggest domestic producer of copper.

The International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind) and the United Steelworkers Union, which represent most of the employes, said they would post pickets on the morning shifts.

Kennecott offered an 18-cent package which included a five-cent general hourly wage increase each year to the steelworkers plus some provisions to meet union demands for supplementary unemployment compensation and elimination of geographical pay differentials.

Mine-Mill asked for a general wage increase of 15 cents an hour plus other demands in a package whose total cost was estimated at 45 cents.

The USW, which represents about 2,300 employes, sought much the same as Mine-Mill which represents about 5,000.

He'll Roller Skate Across Texas to Cut Monotony

MEMPHIS, Tenn., (UPI)—For a man who has climbed step-by-step up and down the Empire State Building and who stopped smoking, roller skating across Texas should be a breeze.

He has, in addition to his other methods of eluding monotony, spent a vacation in a Trappist Monastery, spent several days in a nudist camp, and delivered Lincoln's Gettysburg Address—at Gettysburg.

Cortese, Sunday editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, began his 1,000-mile roller skate jaunt from Shreveport, La., and has high hopes of arriving at Hobbs, N.M., in two weeks.

If his legs and his skates hold out, Cortese will probably make his journey another chapter in the book he's writing.

New York Reveals Plans for World Fair

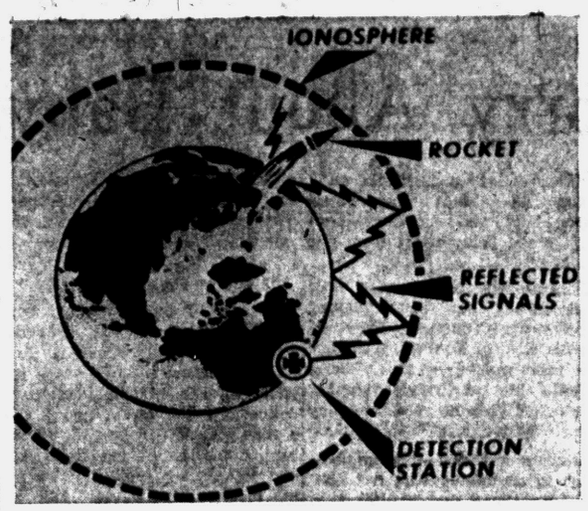

NEW YORK (UPI)—Plans were disclosed yesterday for a 500 million dollar New York City World's Fair in 1964.

Plans for the fair, which would be the biggest ever held, were announced by Mayor Robert F. Wagner who said he had given the project his "wholehearted endorsement."

Wagner said a committee of the 25 leaders from various fields had been set up to draw preliminary plans for the fair, which probably would be held at Flushing Meadow Park, the site of New York's last world's fair in 1940.

A joint resolution asking President Eisenhower to invite foreign nations to participate in the fair will be introduced in Congress this week by Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y) and Rep. Edna Kelly (R-N.Y.)

NAVY'S MISSILE DETECTION PROJECT — Drawing illustrates radar-like monitor system, called Operation Tepee, which U. S. Navy announced in Washington a few days ago that its Office of Naval Research is developing. It would detect firing of missiles or satellites or an actual nuclear detonation anywhere in the world, and can look beyond the curvature of the earth. Radio signals are bounced off the ionosphere, picking up telltale traces of ionized gas from launchings or blasts. Each reflection from the earth produces a 'back-scatter' signal which appears on radar scope. A rocket trail or blast produces a different form of echo on the scope and thus can be detected.

TV Quizzes Controlled, Not Rigged–Hal March

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Hal March entered the TV quiz show circus by frankly declaring, "It's possible to control quiz programs to a degree."

★ ★ ★

"I can't believe any contestants were ever given any answers," insisted the most famous of all the quizmasters. "But if Einstein had been alive and his category were physics, we could have come up with a question he couldn't have answered.

WILSON

"Furthermore, I don't think it's dishonesty," added the man who asked the $64,000 Questions for three-and-a-half years.

"Suppose," said March, now starring in "Two For the Seesaw" and soon to go on tour, "you have a contestant with a very negative personality . . . the public hates him.

"You're running your own store. It's the same as a merchant who fires a clerk that the customers don't like."

But some of these unpleasant personalities were just unpleasant enough to keep on winning, March said.

"I remember the producer of our show, Mert Koplin, saying, 'I wish this guy — or that gal — would miss' — but they were just too smart . . . and they didn't."

"I can't believe anybody was ever given any answers — because those people weren't good enough actors to carry it off," March said.

Unions to Join for Bargaining

Claim They Represent 600,000 Workers in Aircraft, Related Fields

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Two unions claiming 600,000 workers in the aircraft and related electronics industry announced Saturday a joint bargaining program for 1960.

Major objectives will be increased wages, severance and relocation pay.

The program was drafted at a joint conference of 400 representatives of the International Assn. of Machinists and the United Auto Workers.

IAM claims 400,000 union members in the industry and UAW 200,000. The conference was the first joint action in the bargaining field by the two AFL-CIO groups.

The actual cents-per-hour wage increase to be sought will be worked out at a "price tag" conference later this year or in January.

The unions will negotiate contracts with more than 90 companies next year. The first contract expiration is with Boeing Aircraft in April.

Spokesmen said these demands are prompted by expectation of major dislocation of workers and employment patterns as a result of the nation's changeover from production of manned aircraft to rockets and missiles as well as a predicted shift of a number of plants to inland locations for strategic reasons.

Baby Falls 30 Feet

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP) — Mary Ann Budd, 15 months, crawled onto a window while her parents were out Saturday and fell 30 feet—into her own baby carriage. She bounced out onto the pavement, breaking her jaw, arm and leg.

Start Early to Worry About Baby

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Having their first baby does peculiar things to women — even beauteous, blonde, cultured, curvy, award-winning type women like Joanne Woodward.

They begin worrying that maybe ttheir babies aren't normal. "She's extremely garrulous," said Joanne, "but she doesn't DO anything. You know, tries to sit up and then gets bored with it and flops over . . ."

And they start stewing about how poor the American educational system is. "We want her to learn to study, something I never learned because in grammar school there was never any subject difficult enough that you had to sit down and study it. That habit of learning has to start early, in a good school . . ."

Also, they begin wondering if the child might pick up some odious adult disease, like intolerance.

"I came from the south so I feel particularly strongly about that," said Joanne. "It wasn't till I got in the theater, where talent is the only criterion — and race and color are insignificant—that I found real democracy. I'd like the baby to have a dose of the theater for that reason alone, even if she doesn't want to be an actress . . ."

And then there is the challenge of learning several languages in this globally sophisticated era. "It's so embarrassing, and really disgraceful, to visit a foreign country and stumble through a few of their phrases while everybody speaks to you in flawless English. Makes us look so smug. And stupid.

"We want our daughter to to learn languages while she's young, while it's easy. That's why we'd like to take her to Europe as often as we can, while she's still learning to talk.

"So far," Joanne mused, "we don't quite know what language it is she's conversing in. We keep thinking, well maybe she's picked up a little Italian — or is it Russian. But you really can't tell yet. She's only three months . . ."

HAS SMART PARENTS

The babe in question, born April 8 to Joanne and her actor-husband Paul Newman, has not only a bright future but bright parents.

Both Joanne and Paul are college graduates — University of Louisiana and Yale, respectively — who hardly had stepped from the campus onto the stage before receiving acclaim as the finest young dramatic talents of the mid-century.

When they were married in January 1958, they agreed that Paul's career would come first (though Joanne won the 1957 Hollywood Oscar for "Three Faces of Eve") and that where his acting assignments took him — there Joanne would go.

"I didn't see any reason for our being separated," explained Joanne. "Why do you get married, if not to be together?

This is why they are in New York. Paul has been playing Broadway in Tennessee Williams' "Sweet Bird of Youth," so Joanne has been making a movie here, opposite Marlon Brando: another Tennessee Williams creation called "The Fugitive Kind."

Joanne has the supreme distinction of having won her Oscar about one month after she had been quoted as saying that the Academy awards were more "sentimental" than honest certifications of acting talent.

Then, on receiving her award, she broke down and cried. Wasn't there a discrepancy there? she was asked.

"I still shudder, remembering," she said. "I meant what I said about the Oscars, but it was rude, and I feel guilty about it. And when I got the award I cried because — well, all the intellectual callousness fell away, and I was a nine-year-old girl again, watching Vivian Leigh get an Oscar and telling my mother, 'I'm going to get that someday!' "

She smiled. "See why I'm concerned about the baby? You never can discount the ideas you learn as a child."

Wants Frisco Bay Park Walled In From Sharks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—State Senator J. Eugene McAteer Sunday proposed a tropical lagoon in chilly San Francisco Bay shielded from sharks.

He asked the state park commission to wall in aquatic park, with a sliding panel allowing small boats in and out. He said large steam boilers could raise the temperature five degrees for swimming comfort.

Chairman Joseph E. Knowland said the commission is glad to consider the proposal . . . but financing is doubtful.

India Builds Pipeline

LONDON (AP) — A British firm, Stewarts and Lloyds Ltd., is supplying $5,600,000 worth of steel pipe for a 270-mile oil pipeline in Assam, India's northeastern state on the Red China frontier. It will connect oilfields at Nahorkatiya to an oil refinery to be erected near Gauhati.

November Date Set for Valiant

Chrysler Is Expanding Plymouth and DeSoto for New Small Car

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. Saturday expanded its Plymouth-De Soto Division to include its new small car, the Valiant.

The car will be on the market in late November with a wheelbase of about 108 inches, some 10 inches shorter than the smallest 1959 Chrysler product.

Chrysler thus follows the pattern of the other Big Three manufacturers in assigning its small car to its big volume division. Ford's Falcon is being handled by Ford Division while General Motors' Corvair is being built by Chevrolet.

W. C. Newberg, Chrysler's executive vice president, indicated however, that the Valiant may be sold by some dealers in all Chrysler lines.

He said preliminary market and dealer studies "indicate that selection of Valiant dealers should be made on the basis of dealer location and market potential rather than exclusive distribution by a single dealer group."

Trade circles have speculated that any Chrysler Corp. dealer who does not distribute Simcas will be eligible for the Valiant. Simca is Chrysler's small car import from France.

'Let's Put Limit on Foreign Cars'

Solon Sees Danger in Loss of Gasoline Tax Revenue

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI) — Rep. William Dorn (D-SC) charged Sunday night that the rising number of foreign automobiles imported into the United States is one of the reasons the highway building program is running into many troubles.

Dorn said on the weekly radio forum of former Notre Dame Law School Dean Clarence Manon, "for the first time in history, more automobiles are coming into the United States than we exported.

"This is beginning to affect the filling station operators, the mechanics, the tire dealers, as well as the automobile worker in Detroit," Dorn said.

"No wonder we are having trouble with the highway building program through a loss of gasoline tax revenue.

"The government will continue to lose revenue from these low wage imports unless they are limited."

Dorn urged that import quotas be set for all products this nation produces in surplus "and those traditionally American."

Dorn also cited cotton, tobacco and other farm products as being adversely affected by what he termed "our unfair foreign trade policy."

Three Pontiac Teenagers Hurt in Smashup

★ ★ ★

Carl A. Romanelli, 16, of 745 E. First St., Lawrence W. Spencer, 17, of 40 Clarence St., and Tommie F. Thomas, 17, of 583 Peacock St., were taken to Pontiac General Hospital.

★ ★ ★

The driver, Thomas G. Muenstermann, 16, of 425 First St., told deputies he was going too fast and couldn't negotiate the sharp turn. He was uninjured.

Boy Struck by Car Doing Satisfactorily

Lawrence E. Davis, 10, of 3107 Margaret St., Auburn Heights, was listed in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital today with injuries suffered when struck by a car Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Sheriff's deputies said the boy ran from between two cars stopped for a light into the path of an auto driven by Theodore Murray, 39, of 104 Oak Hill Rd., Pontiac.

Deputies said he was not at fault.

Every state in the Union has reported tornadoes and they occur in every month of the calendar year.

Business and Finance

Market Takes Sharp Tumble

Pivotal stocks were down from fractions to about 2 points.

Steels, motors, rubbers and chemicals were about the most badly hit of the key stocks.

The space age issues, which fell sharply last week, were heavily traded and declined sharply.

Brokerage house comment over the weekend was to the effect that the market had put on a poor technical performance in the week just past and that a fairly sharp "correction" was a likelihood.

Meanwhile, economic activities appeared to be "coasting" as a settlement of the steel strike was still awaited.

Losses of about 2 points were taken by such issues as U.S. Steel, Goodyear, Eastman Kodak and Westinghouse Electric.

Philco, in a delayed opening, dropped 2¼ to 23 on 5,000 shares. Radio Corp. was off about a point and Thiokol more than a point.

Theft Victim Well Known on Police Force

For he — and every other man on the force — was well acquainted with the victim.

He reported that someone stole six uniform shirts from his car while it was parked near the intersection of Jackson and Bagley streets.

Like every other theft, the case will be investigated by detectives. And Gracey, with a special interest, plans to do some investigating of his own.

French Officials Say Atomic Test Slated

PARIS (AP)—French officials said today maximum security precautions have been fixed for a French atomic bomb test in the Sahara. There was no indication when the test might be held.

The London Sunday Times said President Charles de Gaulle might witness the test during his visit to Algeria Aug. 27-30.

A spokesman for Jacques Soustelle, minister-delegate charged with atomic matters, denied such a possibility. This spokesman said the French government has no intention of carrying out an atomic test in the next few weeks.

Held in Holland on Theft Charge

Former U. of M. Student Is Accused of Taking $19,000 From Store

AMSTERDAM, the Netherlands (AP) — Dutch police today arrested an American classical student accused of stealing $19,000 from a state liquor store his father manages in Seabrook, N.H.

Emory N. Eaton Jr., 26, was picked up in an Amsterdam hotel with a companion, Robert England, 27, of Ann Arbor, Mich.

In Concord, N.H., Deputy Atty. Gen. Warren Waters said he would seek Eaton's extradition. He said there are no charges against England.

The two young men arrived in Amsterdam by plane from the United States Wednesday.

He and England were classmates at the University of Michigan and had shared an apartment in Boston. Eaton studied for a doctor's degree in the classics at Michigan, taught at Furman University in 1956-57, and had worked at his father's store until July 16.

The young man's mother said they had talked of his going to Europe to study languages.

"He never did anything like this before," Mrs. Eaton said. "He has always been steady and reliable."

A police spokesman said Eaton was arrested as an undesirable alien after police were informed of press reports on the alleged theft.

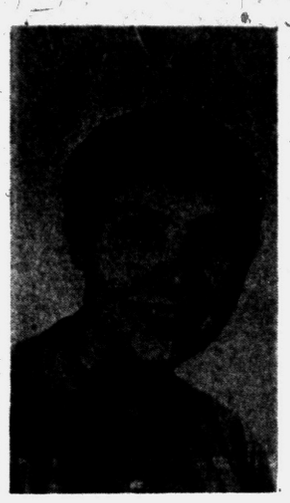

Eaton and England will be held until American authorities contact the police with instructions, the spokesman added.

Senator Wonders if He Has Rainmaker's Gift

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.) isn't certain he has rainmaker's powers, but . . .

In the interest of gathering facts to seek drought relief for his state, the senator has made four or five trips to South Dakota in the past few months. Each time it has rained.

"The last rain was a whopper," Mundt said in a TV speech. "While we were having our drought meeting in Huron we had almost a downpour."

CAROL SAUL

Area Student Best Speaker

Waterford Township Girl Wins National Oratory Contest

A Waterford Township High School student, 16-year-old Carol Saul, has won the National 14th Annual Knights of Pythias Public Speaking Contest.

The finals, held in Denver, Col., consisted of a 10-minute oration from the subject, "My Favorite Character in History."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Saul, 4240 Roseberry Ct., Carol will be given a $1,500 scholarship to any college of her choice. She plans to study for missionary work after graduation from high school next June.

Carol talked her way through three public speaking contests in the state to be chosen as the Michigan representative to the Denver finals.

Her speech was judged on delivery and composition, including grasp of subject and evidence of research, choice of language, constructive character of ideas, voice, effectiveness of poise, clarity, force of expression, sincerity and persuasiveness.

Teamsters Press Lobby to Squelch Labor Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An estimated 250 lower-echelon Teamsters' union officials start their second week of high-pressure lobbying today against a tough labor reform bill.

The lobbyists — nearly one for every two congressmen — were called into the nation's capital from practically every state by Teamsters' boss James R. Hoffa.

Hoffa, who has been branded a threat to decent unions by the Senate Rackets Committee, summoned help from Teamsters' locals in his drive to head off what he calls union-busting legislation.

Most top Teamsters who have been scored for taking the Fifth Amendment to avoid testifying on misuse of union funds are not in town for this campaign.

Instead, most of the lobbyists are experienced in political work. Many are old friends and supporters of the House members whose votes they are trying to influence.

★ ★ ★

Most of the 250 will stay in Washington until the House votes on a labor reform bill. Debate is scheduled to begin tomorrow.

There is little direct supervision of the lobbying activities. Officials from each local union talk to congressmen from their area in their own way.

All of Hoffa's emissaries, however, gather each evening at the union's five million dollar headquarters building to report on progress or lack of it.

Hoffa now is devoting most of his time to the lobbying camtive director Sidney Zagri are briefing the local officials on details of the labor reform measures.

The Teamster president gave a banquet for the lobbying team last week. Expenses are being paid by the various Teamster joint councils and local unions.

Hoffa has shifted his emphasis from trying to stop passage of all significant labor legislation to bathing mainly against crubs on picketing and "hot cargo" boycotts.

Holly Pastor Resigns to Accept Iowa Post

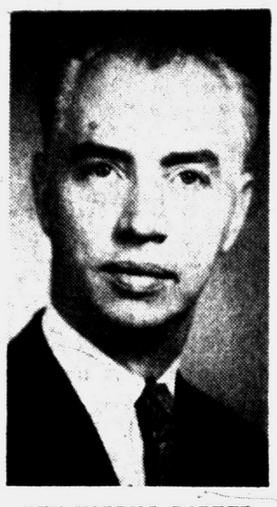

HOLLY—After 10 and a half years as pastor of Holly First Baptist Church, the Rev. Harry L. Parker has resigned to accept a pastorate at Muscatine, Iowa.

He and his family will be leaving later this month for Muscatine where he will assume duties at the First Baptist Church.

During Rev. Mr. Parker's pastorate here, approximately 300 new members have joined the church, and improvements worth over $70,000 have been made on the church property in addition to purchase of additional land for future expansion.

In addition to his duties as pastor, the Rev. Parker has been serving on the Board of Managers of the Michigan Baptist Convention, the Baptist Church's state committee on church and family life, the Juvenile Protection Organization and the Holly Area Ministerial Fellowship.

No successor to the Rev. Parker has been announced yet.

Berkley Father Saves 2; Drowns

Pushes Son, Daughter to Safety as Current Claims Him

BERKLEY — A Berkley father of three drowned Saturday in Huron River, five miles north of Dexter, after pushing his son and one of his daughters to safety.

Dead is Everett Gaylord, 47, of 2391 Cambridge Rd. His body was recovered by Washtenaw County sheriff's deputies beyond a 12-foot drop-off.

Gaylord had been fishing with his son, Robert, 12, and two daughters, Barbara, 9, and Mrs. Joyce McDowell, 20.

Mrs. McDowell told police that she and Robert were standing in a swift current fishing when the boy lost his footing. When she moved over to help, the youngster grabbed her around the neck and they both went under.

Gaylord, who was on the shore with Barbara, jumped in, pulled them up and pushed them toward shore where they were rescued by two bystanders. Police theorized that Gaylord's boots filled with water dragging him down in the swift current.

Funeral service will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the William Sawyer Funeral Home, Berkley. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Top Men Absent From Steel Talks

Stalemate Continues as Strike Almost Four Weeks Old

NEW YORK (AP) — Contract talks seeking to settle the nationwide steel strike resume today with the two top negotiators absent.

Joseph F. Finnegan, Director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, said Sunday: "I have seen no indication of any change since the talks recessed last week."

The negotiations between the United Steelworkers of America and the industry were adjourned last Friday until today.

Absent from today's talks were Union President David J. McDonald and R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator and executive vice president of the United States Steel Corp.

McDonald and the union's general counsel, Arthur J. Goldberg, decided they could be more useful attending to union matters elsewhere. McDonald's decision may have led Cooper to decide to stay away. They may rejoin the negotiations later this week.

The strike of 500,000 members of the union will be four weeks old at midnight Tuesday. An estimated 107,000 employes in allied industries have been made idle.

Finnegan conferred with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell in Washington Friday and Saturday. Mitchell is acting as fact-finder for President Eisenhower in the steel dispute.

Finnegan said he planned to rejoin the negotiations here Tuesday, and have his deputy, Robert Moore, take part in today's sessions.

Nancy Thayer Speaks Vows in Nuptial Mass

MRS. RONALD L. GOEDECKE

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thayer of 2908 Mann Rd. and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Goedecke of 1342 Maple Dr., Rochester.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Suzanne Springer of Pontiac. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Thomas of Chicago and Barbara Bancroft of Morenci.

Paul J. Symanski of Waldron served as best man. Accompanying him were Gary Kopena of Detroit and the bridegroom's brother, Walter of Rochester. Seating the guests were John Harrell, Ted Karla, Roger Bisschop, and Ford Grimshaw, all of the Detroit area.

The newlyweds will live in Kansas City where the bridegroom is attending medical school and where the new Mrs. Goedecke will teach elementary school.

Julie Andrews to Drop Role in 'Fair Lady'

LONDON (AP)—Julie Andrews took up the role of housewife full time today after shedding the rags of Eliza Doolittle, the role in "My Fair Lady" that rocketed her to international stage fame.

The 24-year-old singing actress said she plans to take a long rest, spending "just a quiet and ordinary time with my husband," stage designer Tony Walton, whom she married last May. She apparently has no immediate plans for a new part.

Anne Rogers, another British girl who has played "My Fair Lady" in the United States, takes over as Eliza tonight.

4 Face Riot Charges in Arrest of Negroes

NEW YORK (AP) — Four persons faced riot charges today after two white policemen, making an arrest in a Negro neighborhood, were roughed up by an angry crowd.

The crowd of about 300 persons, mostly Negroes, gathered Sunday when the officers made a raid on an east Bronx fish-and-chip store which allegedly sold bootleg liquor.

Wants 3,133 Seats for Dem Convention

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California oilman Edwin W. Pouley says he is willing to compromise on his demand for 5,000 tickets to the Democratic national convention next year.

He said Sunday he will accept 3,133 seats.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Pouley cabled from his home in Hawaii that he will return here for a meeting Tuesday with a committee set up by Poulson to try to mediate the dispute, which has been going on for months.

Pouley, credited with soliciting the $350,000 guarantee necessary for convention expenses, feels his host committee should get the big bloc of seats.

Have Some Leads in Brutal Murder

DETROIT (AP) — Police said today that they have some leads but have made no arrests in the brutal murder of mechanic Lee Stogsdill whose beaten body was found Saturday night behind a church in suburban Inkster.

Officers said Stogsdill, 41, apparently was bludgeoned to death trying to fight off robbers. His wallet was missing.

"His face was cut and horribly beaten," said Dr. Edward S. Zawadski, Wayne County medical examiner. "Every bone in his face was broken."

A resident of the Ypsilanti area, Stogsdill was en route to a little league baseball game to watch a nephew play when the vicious attack took place.

Many places in the Philippines have rainfall up to 150 inches a year.

Holly Man Claims Bride in Croswell Wedding Rite

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stack of 502 North St., Holly, and Mrs. James Mullen of Croswell and the late Mr. Mullen.

Serving as matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Barg. Bridesmaid was Geralda Mullen, also a sister of the bride.

Card of Thanks 1

THE FAMILY OF BEATRICE Healy wishes to than many, many, friends, neighbors, and relatives for their sincere kindness, cards of sympathy, and floral offerings, during the recent bereavement of our mother and grandmother. A very special thanks to Rev. Horace Thurston, The DeWitt Davis Funeral Home, and palbearers. Our expression of sincere gratitude can never be fully expressed in words.

WE WISH TO EXPRESS OUR thanks and appreciation to our many friends, neighbors and relatives for their floral offerings, cards of sympathy and kindness during the recent bereavement of my husband, James C. Sutherland. A special thanks to Dr. William H. Marbach & Rev. Galen E. Hershey of the First Presbyterian Church of Pontiac, Dr. L. G. Rowley and his staff and the Manley Bailey Funeral Home, Birmingham.
Mrs. J. C. Sutherland and daughter.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR baby daughter and sister Cathy Lynn Walker who passed away August 8, 1958.
There's a new star shining in heaven
God needed our darling Cathy,
To make us a guiding light.
Cathy darling how we miss you,
Our hearts are filled with pain,
Our arms ache for to hold you,
And kiss you just once again.
Although you've one so far away,
You're still within our hearts;
Some day we'll be together again,
Never more to part.

Bookkeeper Beaten to Death by Burglars

ALPENA (AP)—A 32-year-old bookkeeper, working late at a steel fabricating plant, was beaten to death last night after burglars broke in and bound his hands behind him.

Dr. Donald G. Henderson, who performed an autopsy, said Wallace had been beaten savagely with a blunt weapon on the skull and face. Police said the attack took place at about 11 p.m.

Crawford Deserts Highway Patrol for Scotland Yard

LONDON (UPI) — American TV and movie actor Broderick Crawford said today he had deserted the U.S. Highway Patrol for Scotland Yard.

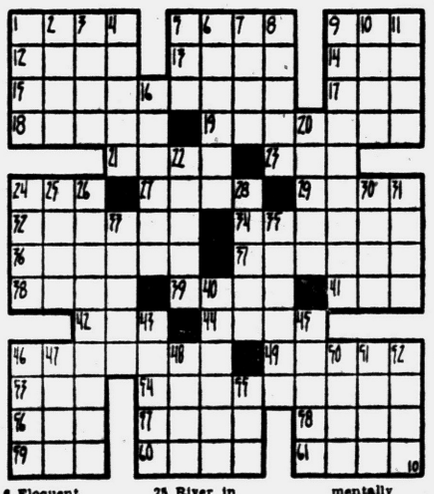

Crawford, who starred as patrol chief Dan Mathews in television's "Highway Patrol," said he was "going to be living in London for the next couple of years doing a sort of English highway patrol for television."

In the new series of 78 filmed programs, to be called "International Patrol," Crawford will be back on his wide-ranging beat as an American policeman assigned to Scotland Yard.

The three-million-dollar series will be made here with all-British supporting casts. It was being called the biggest TV project ever planned in Britain.

'Live' Factor Gives NBC Edge With Nixon Shows

By WILLIAM EWALD

EWALD

The NBC-TV and CBS-TV half hours both had Nixon on board as commentator and were almost imprints of each other in terms of film footage; the arrival at Moscow Airport, the visit to the American Trade Fair, the exchange between Khrushchev and Nixon, a look at an atomic icebreaker and a hydroelectric plant, Mrs. Pat Nixon dancing with a child, the phytological welcome in Poland.

However, there was one slight difference, the CBS-TV show was on tape and the NBC-TV show was live. Perhaps as a result, the NBC-TV effort seemed a little more informal, a little more free in its give and take, a little less stiff in the reactions of Nixon to the film on display.

One typical example occurred when the films of Mrs. Nixon were unspooled and the vice-president said he hadn't been with his wife at the time and was looking forward to seeing them.

Still another off-the-cuffer on the NBC-TV show that packed some unexpected spark took place when Nixon was asked about the flowers thrown in Warsaw.

"It's a little more pleasant than having bricks thrown your way," he noted. "You may recall we had that happen a year or so ago."

Both CBS-TV and NBC-TV unpackaged half hour pogrrams earlier in the day on the Communist-backed clambake—the CBS-TV offering, a special show; NBC-TV, on its regular Chet Huntley outing.

Both contributions were moderately useful although the most exciting portion of the fete—the physical clash between American anti-Communists and Communist squads—was not represented on film.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Two new candidates for NBC-TV specials late next season are "The Gershwin Years" and a topical musical with Mimi Benzell as star—producer George Schaefer has them on his planning board. . . Janet Blair is a strong possibility to star in "Strawberry Blonde," the Oct. 18 NBC-TV special.

Art Carney starts rehearsing three one-act plays Aug. 17 which will be presented on NBC-TV this fall under the title, "Three by one" — the plays are Chekhov's "On the Harmfulness of Tobacco," Tony Webster's "Call Me Back" and "Vaudeville" by Larry Gelbart and Shelly Keller. Some of the other specials Carney will do for NBC-TV include: "Small World Revue" on Oct. 2, "Man in the Dog Suit" on Nov. 13, "Full Moon Over Brooklyn" on Dec. 4, "Our Town" on Jan. 8 and "Goodbye Old Dry" on March 4.

Polio Clinic Tomorrow

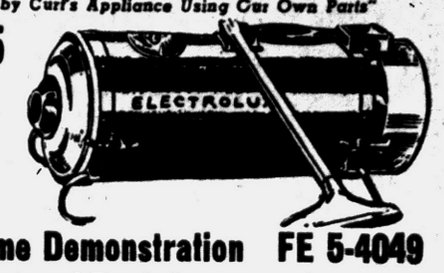

The third in a series of polio clinics will be held at St. Michael's Hall from 3:30 to 8 p.m. tomorrow. There will be a charge of one dollar for each shot to cover costs, said Mrs. William Brown, publicity chairman.

Car Throws Worker From His Motocycle

* * *

Newton told Waterford Township Police a car coming from the opposite direction on Frembes Road forced him off the highway. The motorcycle flipped, he said, and threw him to the pavement.

Search Plane for Bomb

SHANNON, Ireland (AP) — Three Pan American world airways planes — two of them bound for New York—were delayed several hours today after someone telephoned that a bomb was on board a plane. Baggage was checked but no bomb ws found. The airliners and their 214 passengers resumed their flights.

New Lie Test Set in Murder

Wife of Ex-Suspect Volunteers for Exam in Dr. Warrick's Death

The wife of a cleared suspect in the fatal shooting of Dr. W. Carleton Warrick, of Pontiac, today volunteered to take a he detector test at the Redford State Police Post.

Mrs. Fontella Tunnell of 1755 Williams Lake Rd., Waterford Township, a registered and licensed rest home operator, will undergo the polygraph test. Her husband, Lloyd J., 53, took two "inconclusive" tests himself and was finally cleared with a truth serum test.

Asked if Mrs. Tunnell was a suspect in the baffling murder of Dr. Warrick Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor said, "No, not in my opinion."

* * *

Dr. Warrick, 71, of 263 Chippewa Rd., died July 25 after an intruder stormed into his office at 24½ E. Huron St. the night before and announced he was going to rob him. However, the murderer left without taking $100 left on the office floor and $1,400 in the doctor's trousers. The doctor was fatally shot in the stomach.

Tunnell, who operates two nursing homes with his wife, was at one time the only suspect in the case as he discovered the bleeding doctor stumbling from his office when he went there for treatment of a back ailment upon returning from a vacation.

Taylor said Mrs. Tunnell was waiting in the car parked across the street. "Today's test is merely to support Lloyd Tunnell's story and make positive where Mrs. Tunnell was," Taylor said.

He said Mrs. Tunnell requested a truth serum test like her husband took and passed, but this was turned down in favor of the polygraph.

Trip Made Nixon Stronger, Say Dems

* * *

Senate Democratic Whip Mike Mansfield (Mont) said Nixon now would be harder for the Democrats to beat than New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Before the trip, he said, Rockefeller would have been the stronger candidate.

Sen. George A. Smathers (Fla), chairman of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, said the believed Nixon definitely would get the GOP nomination because of the trip and his "ever increasing stature."

Regardless of whether the Republicans select Nixon or Rockefeller as their presidential nominee, he added, the Democrats "will not have a runaway in either case."

* * *

Army Troops Take Over

MANILA (AP) — More than 1,000 Phillippine army troops took over police duties in the northern Luzon province of Ilocos today after killing of six persons in the past three weeks. At least four of the deaths were blamed on politics.

Satellite Reaches Unexpected Height

Explorer VI Extends Orbit

* * *

Scientists said the extended orbit was a bonus factor. They announced these statistics on America's newest satellite:

* * *

Orbit—26,400 miles at its highest point, 157 miles at its lowest. Original estimates on the maximum and minimum altitudes were 23,000 and 160 miles.

* * *

Time—12 hours, 45 minutes per orbit.

* * *

Space agency officials said the satellite appeared to be in smooth flight, with no evidence of wobbling or tumbling. It is relaying valuable scientific information needed for sending man into space.

8 Chute Safely From Crashed B52

* * *

First reports were that all eight crewmen parachuted before the plane crashed. Unconfirmed reports said the eight were uninjured.

* * *

The plane was based at Westover Air Force Base, Chicopee, Mass.

* * *

Committee Rejects Gasoline Tax Hike

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Ways and Means Committee today again rejected a proposal to hike the gasoline tax a penny a gallon to ease the interstate highway construction financing crisis.

* * *

Committee sources said the vote against the plan at a closed door session was 15 to 8.

Earlier this year, three similar proposals calling for federal gasoline tax hikes of a half-cent and a one-cent a gallon were turned down by the same committee. None got more than six favorable votes at that time.

Can Eat Meat Aug. 14

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII has granted dispensation to Roman Catholics from the obligation not to eat meat on Friday, Aug. 14, the Vatican announced today. The dispensation was given because Friday will be the eve of the Feast of the Assumption.

Princess Wed in Laos' Capital Despite Battle

LAUNG PRABANG, Laos (AP)—Royal elephants lumbered through the streets of this ancient royal capital today for the wedding of Princess Dala of Laos.

Princess Dala is the 24-year-old grand-daughter of King Sisavangvong, who in 1904 ascended the throne of what once was called "the land of million elephants and white parasols."

The wedding went on despite a Communist-led invasion in Sam Neua and Phong Saly provinces, only 100 miles away. Nothing was permitted to interfere with the festivities, which were attended by hundreds of diplomats, officials and foreign guests.

The pert princess, dressed in brilliant brocades, entered the royal palace accompanied by red-helmeted courtiers carrying bright parasols. She was married to Prince Si Souphanouvong, 26.

The couple was united by a silken thread, tied around their wrists. They were anointed by sacred wine poured from a banana leaf and then bowed before the elderly king and the queen, on a low dias covered with silk.

* * *

Traffic Safety Counsel for MSU Dies at 54

EAST LANSING (AP)—Edward R. Curtis, 54, legal counsel for the Highway Traffic Safety Center at Michigan State University, died here Friday after suffering a heart attack.

Curtis, a former Cooperstown, N.Y. magistrate, studied at Syracuse and New York universities and earned his law degree at Brooklyn Law School.

He came to MSU in 1956 after serving on the Traffic Safety Committee of the American Bar Assn.

Leave Apples Awhile
