

Monday, December 1, 2003

OU provost to deliver State of Academic Affairs

By Jeff Samoray, OU Web Writer

Oakland University Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Virinder Moudgil will deliver the annual State of Academic Affairs address on Monday, Dec. 8, at noon in Meadow Brook Theatre. Moudgil will examine efforts toward realizing the university's 2010 vision and its continual mission to provide a high-quality education that prepares learners for the workplace and society.

Some of the topics he will focus on include:

- quality academic programs;
- inspired faculty;
- research initiatives;
- inspired students;
- technology advancements;
- outreach and partnerships;
- the university budget.

All OU students, faculty, staff and members of the community are invited to attend. A reception with light refreshments will follow the address.

SUMMARY

Oakland University Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Virinder Moudgil will deliver the annual State of Academic Affairs address on Monday, Dec. 8, at noon in Meadow Brook Theatre. Moudgil will examine efforts toward realizing the university's 2010 vision and its continual mission to provide a high-quality education that prepares learners for the workplace and society. All OU students, faculty, staff and members of the community are invited to attend.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, December 1, 2003
Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, December 1, 2003
Article Start Date: Monday, December 1, 2003