

Pontiac Man's Wife Tells of Hawaii Eruptions

Volcanic Cracks Appear

THIS WAS A ROAD—Roy Essayan, Associated Press correspondent, leaps across a crack that a volcanic outburst opened up in a sugar plantation road near the Hawaii Island village of Kapoho.

Wife Tells Press of Lava Flow

Former Pontiac Resident Charts Hawaiian Quakes

A former Pontiac resident was the first to learn of the earthquakes which preceded the volcanic eruptions which have torn the island of Hawaii since Monday.

Tornado Rips Into Tennessee

Damage Heavy; Three Injured as Storm Hits Rural District

MITCHELLVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A tornado struck along the Kentucky-Tennessee border here late last night, injured three persons and destroyed or damaged about 15 buildings.

The storm first struck a rural area just west of here, then swept down the main street of this town of 300 persons. The City Hall was destroyed and every other building along the street was damaged.

Two unidentified persons were hurt slightly when the storm damaged their home at State Line, a rural community 3 1/2 miles to the west.

Anti-Fluoridation Statement Untrue

NEW ORLEANS — "No court, attorney general of the State of Louisiana or city attorney of New Orleans has ruled that fluoridation of city water is against the law," declares James H. Gillis here.

Senators Take Look at Stock Tips

Lava Streams Toward Ocean; Damage Soars

$2 Million Loss Seen as Hawaiian Homes Are Engulfed

PAHOA, Hawaii (AP)—Two rivers of lava, fed by two half-mile-long fissures and lava fountains belching 500 feet in the air, moved closer to the sea today, leaving in their wake an estimated two million dollars damage.

The steaming lava streams cut a two-mile-wide swath across the rich cane land for four miles. Twenty square miles of the district, on the gentle slopes of Kilauea, is forbidden to all except civil defense officials and a few property owners.

Lava flows take months and sometimes years to cool. One property owner said "you could not bulldoze your way through it in 50 years."

Colder Weather Returns to City

Cold weather has returned to the Pontiac area, bringing promise of light snow tonight and tomorrow. Following a drop in temperatures yesterday, the mercury hit a high of 34 yesterday and continued dropping to a low of 27.

New City Cultural Building Honors Librarian

NEW ADAM SHELLY LIBRARY—To be dedicated Sunday at 4 p. m. is the new Adah Shelly Library at Rundell and Glenwood Sts. An open house for the public, sponsored by the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs, from 2 to 6 p. m. will introduce this new combination library and community facility for the north side.

Dedication Ceremony Slated Sunday for Pontiac's New Adah Shelly Library

Pontiac will pay tribute Sunday afternoon to its head librarian when a 4 o'clock dedication ceremony will officially open the new Adah Shelly Library at Glenwood and Rundell Sts.

How Congress Earns Its Keep Eager Solons Introduce 6,377 Bills in Two Months

WASHINGTON (INS)—If you've been wondering what the 84th Congress did to earn its $7,500-a-year pay raise, you might like to know that members of the House and Senate introduced 6,377 bills during their first two months in session and enacted eight of them into law.

Sharpen Your Wits for New Puzzle Game

Can you take a hint? If you can, you may be able to turn it into a $100 prize when Bonanzagram, the exciting new puzzle contest, starts Monday in the Pontiac Press.

Downtown Stores Open Monday Night

Pontiac's shoppers were reminded today that, starting next week, they will have two nights each week to visit downtown stores.

Atom Sub Nautilus Exceeds Hopes in Test

GROTON, Conn. (INS) — The atomic-powered submarine Nautilus returned to her berth at the Electric Boat Co. plant yesterday, but Navy officials withheld comment on the vessel's overnight cruise in Long Island Sound.

Group Studying Jump in Sales After Rumors

Winchell's Name Comes Up as Committee Eyes Legality Angles

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Senate Banking Committee said today a study is under way to find out whether stock prices are being illegally influenced by "tips and rumors" in the market.

Chevrolet, Ford Claim Top Spot

Both Companies Use Polk Figures in Bid for Sales Title

DETROIT (UP) — Ford and Chevrolet, whose all-out competitive struggle has driven the small auto companies to the wall in a fight for survival, both claimed the title as "America's No. 1" car today on the basis of the same registration figures for 1954.

To Reactivate Third Armored

Famed Tank Division to Be Rebuilt at Once in Army Adjustment

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Army announced today that it will increase its armored strength from three to four divisions in the belief that the hard-slugging battle outfits are still vital to success in modern war.

Monday is Deadline

The city clerk's office in City Hall will be open until 5 p. m. Monday, that last day on which voters may register for the April 4 election, City Clerk Ada B. Evans, said today.