Fatal or Not Fatal?

'Slash Taxes by 5 Billion, Close Loopholes'—Truman

WASHINGTON (INS)—Ex-President Harry S. Truman today called for a five-billion-dollar tax cut and a long-range high spending program to bring the nation out of a "very serious" recession.

The former President told the House Banking Committee that what the public lacks is not confidence but income after taxes. He coupled his call for lower taxes with a proposal to close "glaring tax loopholes" which, he said, benefit "special privilege" taxpayers.

Describing himself as "a retired Missouri farmer," Truman warned that the nation's economy has grown only one-third as fast as Russia's during the past few years and declared: "It is almost impossible to over-emphasize the great danger in this situation."

The peppery former chief executive proposed that the five billion dollar tax cut go to middle and low income tax payers, saying that there are "various detailed ways of doing this."

"However," Truman added, "the Congress should be careful not to pass out tax benefits to investors and well-to-do people who, if they are suffering at all, are suffering only because the average American families do not have enough purchasing power."

'CLOSE LOOPHOLES'
Closing tax loopholes, he said, could bring in an additional two billion dollars in revenue to the government while another billion could be raised by "getting rid of some of the inequitable benefits to privileged groups" in the 1954 tax law.

This was apparent reference to tax deductions now given on part of stock dividends.

Truman also called for increased social security benefits, longer jobless pay benefits and approval of a two-billion-dollar loan program for local public works projects.

His long-range spending proposal included an additional five billion dollars a year in defense spending (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Detroit Mother Killed When Auto Overturns in Southfield

A 20-year-old Detroit mother was killed early Sunday morning when her husband's auto overturned on Northwestern Highway near Maple-ridge street in Southfield Township.

Township police said Mrs. Barbara Ketchum, 20, of 14825 Washburn St. was killed instantly when the car from which she had been thrown rolled over on her.

Her husband, Richard, 21, who was driving, said the car ran onto the shoulder of the road and then overturned as he attempted to get back onto the pavement.

He was uninjured. The couple has a two-year-old son, Ketchum was released after making a statement, said police.

Sputnik II, Dog Make Flaming Death Plunge

Soviet Moon Last Seen Over West Indies After 6 Extra Orbits

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Sputnik II fooled the professors by gliding around the world half a dozen times longer than expected but apparently broke apart last night and fell to earth.

Sections may have plunged into the jungles of Brazil.

A single sighting from Denver, Colo., indicated the heavy rocket motor may have completed one more orbit than the lighter fuel tanks and instrument section.

The dog rocket was seen glowing like a hot poker from air friction over New England at 8:47 p.m. the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said.

Eight minutes later it was reported in flames over the West Indies. If it continued a minute more, it would have been lost in Brazilian jungles.

Moonwatch teams in Milford, Conn., Millbrook, N.Y., and Bryn Athyn, Pa., reported sighting the satellite last night. The Millbrook and Bryn Athyn teams said it appeared to be glowing with a luminous tail of sparks.

The Smithsonian said the satellite would normally have been in (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

County Heads to Study Budget

Floor Battle Possible Over Incorporation of Rochester as City

The recommended 1959 county budget, the proposed incorporation of Rochester, and election of officers will occupy much of Oakland County supervisors' time tomorrow when they meet for their April session.

Meeting for the first time as a board since January, supervisors will be handed the proposed $12,762,280 budget to study. They are not expected to pass on it until April 21.

The 79 supervisors will learn from the Ways and Means Committee that it is $2,030,266 over the 1958 budget, the increase resulting mostly from a huge welfare case load.

A floor battle might develop when supervisors on the Board of Supervisors move for an Aug. 5 election to vote on incorporating the village of Rochester as a city.

The often-delayed election was made possible in March when the Supreme Court affirmed a lower court decision which now allows supervisors to set such an election.

Before supervisors tackle the budget and the incorporation, they will elect a board chairman and vice-chairman for 1958-59. Present chairman is Delos Hamlin, of Farmington, and Hiland M. Thatcher, of West Bloomfield Township, is vice-chairman.

An unprecedented move might be in the offing tomorrow to re-elect both to the same posts, it was reported today.

How the county will be run in case of enemy attack will be disclosed when Civil Defense Committee chairman Charles E. Cardon, of Oak Park, reports on a survival and continuity of government plan for the county. He will also report on the preservation of vital county records.

Death Interrupts Fun

SCENE OF DROWNING — Pontiac policeman Dallas J. Flesher points to spot on cement embankment where Gregory Hamilton, 7, of 61 Lull St., fell into the Dawson Mill Pond at Beaudette Park, Saturday. The boy's fishing reel and baseball glove were found floating in the water. It was Pontiac's first drowning of 1958.

Boy Drowns 2 Days Before 8th Birthday

Gregory Hamilton, who would have been eight years old today, became Pontiac's first drowning victim of the year Saturday afternoon.

He tripped and fell from a cement wall into the Dawson Mill Pond at Beaudette park while playing with his older brother Gordon, 9, and friends.

Gregory, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Zeal Hamilton of 61 Lull St., was one of five children. He was a second grade student at Bethune School.

Several onlookers tried to rescue the boy but all attempts failed. One of them, Mike Cervantes, 37, of 62 Sylvan Ct. was cleaning his car nearby when he heard a call for help.

"I used to swim in the pond as a kid," he said. "I immediately took my shoes and shirt off and jumped in to see if I could locate the boy, but the water was too cold and I had to get out after a few moments."

Pontiac police and firemen recovered the body about 45 minutes later and all attempts at reviving the boy failed.

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies assisted in the search for the body.

Tackles Items on Recession, Foreign Affairs

Space - Age Security Also Listed; Economy Stays in Forefront

By WILLIAM THIES
WASHINGTON (INS) — Rested and perhaps wiser, Congress reconvenes at noon today to tackle a mountain of post-Easter legislation dealing with the recession, space-age security and foreign affairs.

Economic problems remained in the forefront for both Democrats and Republicans who sampled grassroots feeling on the issues of tax relief, foreign aid, foreign trade and others during their ten-day Easter recess.

Of immediate concern to the returning legislators, who passed three major anti-recession bills before the mid-term recess, was an urgent call by President Eisenhower to act "as swiftly as possible" on his proposal to extend unemployment benefits by 50 percent.

The House Ways and Means Committee begins closed door hearings tomorrow but final action was not expected until late this week.

Senate action was set for this week on the pending Fulbright Bill to provide one billion dollars in (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Auto Labor Talks Start Hitting on All Cylinders

DETROIT (AP) — The new auto labor contract negotiations here for more than 600,000 workers start hitting on all cylinders this week.

The schedule of talks, involving the controversial profit-sharing demand, brought General Motors together today with both the International Electrical Workers and the United Auto Workers.

Tomorrow American Motors, the smaller producer, sits down for the first time with the auto union. AMC's proposal to stand fast on terms of the present three-year contract already has been rejected by the UAW.

At about the same time tomorrow the UAW, working with separate teams of negotiators, will resume with Ford and Chrysler.

Consensus in Pontiac:

Vacations Apart Are for Birds!

By DICK SAUNDERS
How are you taking your vacation this year? Are you REALLY getting away from it all, including the spouse in your life?

The question of separate vacations for husbands and wives is a lively one, and was asked of six persons.

Let there be no doubts as to the outcome. "Togetherness" is a many splendored thing, according to the majority.

Peter Slabinski, of 111 Parkhurst St., was outspoken.

"Definitely together," he asserted.

"My wife and I have always vacationed together and that's the way it should be. It's much more enjoyable to have someone along instead of trying to enjoy a vacation alone."

Also in agreement for much the same reason was Israel Contreras, of 40 Tregent St.

"I think a man and wife should take their vacations together so both can enjoy it," he said.

After a moment he added, "It would certainly be cheaper to take one vacation than two."

With no hesitation we got a firm

Another idea was brought to view by Mrs. Lois Chatman, of 77 Jackson St., who agreed that "husbands and wives would find a vacation together more enjoyable."

"While I think we should vacation together, I also think it's nice to get away from the kids for a few days. After all, most of a housewife's work is caring for her children."

"Until they are old enough to appreciate a vacation, I think it's (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

He has toured Japan arousing interest in recreational activities and training leaders for physical education programs.

Why does high humidity in the spring and summer make us uncomfortable?

The relative humidity (percentage of moisture in the air) has a noticeable effect on us because the body perspires constantly, the amount varying on activity and other factors.

On days when a high pressure system is above us, with its usual dry, cool air, we feel good. The drier air causes rapid evaporation of perspiration, and clothes do not become wet or sticky.

In addition, low pressure (which often accompanies high humidity) acts on our blood vessels with what is sometimes a depressing effect. Thus physically and physiologically high humidity directly affects our comfort.

Mother to Face Murder Charge

Ohio Woman Held in Slaying of 3 Children Described as Lovable

KENIA, Ohio (U) — A Xenia mother described by a neighbor as "a lovable, church-going woman" will be charged today with the first-degree murder of her three children, police said.

Patrolman Jack Thomas said he will seek three warrants charging that Mrs. Kathleen King, 36, used a hammer to crush the skulls of her daughter, Charleen, 5, and her sons, Donald, 3, and Brian, 2.

The children's father, Charles, 34, found the bodies early yesterday in the family's modest five-room home. Greene County Coroner Dr. H. C. Schick said the children were killed 14 to 18 hours before King found their bodies.

Mrs. King, who police said tried to commit suicide, is in Greene Memorial Hospital in fair condition.

Police have been unable to question her. She is unable to talk, apparently because her throat and mouth were burned by cleaning fluid she swallowed, they said.

Dr. Schick said she also attempted to cut her wrists, upper arms and throat. He termed the wounds superficial, however.

A neighbor, Mrs. Betty Marshall, who characterized Mrs. King as a lovable woman, also said she was a "doting mother, but a worry-wart."

Dr. Schick said Mrs. King had a history of emotional instability and had been given shock treatment at a private institution about a year ago.

Her husband, a 34-year-old postal employee, is staying in Dayton with relatives. He told a reporter who contacted him that Xenia police had told him not to talk about the slayings, but police denied this.

He told police he had left for work about 6:15 a.m. Saturday even though his wife asked him to remain at home for the day and told him:

"I'll kill the children and myself if you leave."

He said he returned to the house shortly after midnight Saturday and made the discovery.

Pontiac Resident Catches Intruder With No Pants

An intrepid householder, armed with a shotgun, held an intruder at bay Sunday morning until police arrived.

Charles Newsom, of 305 W. Hopkins St., told the officers he was awakened around 6 a.m. by a slamming door. Snatching up his shotgun he advanced into the living room to find Edward F. St. Croix, 22, of 16994 Fish Lake Rd., Holly, standing there in his shorts.

While Newsom kept the man covered, his wife called the police. St. Croix, who had been drinking, told the officers he was attending a housewarming at his brother-in-law's home across the street.

He was unable to explain what he was doing wandering about without his pants. The officers arrested him for investigation of burglary.

Few Wet Belts, but Elsewhere Spring Enjoyed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
There were a couple of major wet belts but generally pleasant spring weather appeared in prospect for most of the nation today.

Heaviest rains hit the southern Plains during the night and the wet weather extended eastward across the lower Mississippi Valley. Several funnel clouds were reported in northern Oklahoma, but none touched the ground.

Thunderstorms rumbled through Texas, with heavy showers and hail in an area from Austin to San Marcos. The Weather Bureau reported one of the heaviest rainfalls ever recorded in a short period at the Austin airport. The downpour during an eight-minute period measured .86 inches.

The second wet belt was in the Pacific Northwest.

visible in the shadow of the earth on its passage over the Northeast.

The sole report that indicated the heavy motor of the rocket may have continued onward another lap was from Kenneth Steinmetz of the Denver Moonwatch team.

Observing with his family, he reported sighting an object as bright as the North Star at 10:12 p.m. Steinmetz said the object was glowing orange-red and was observed for half a minute as it orbited towards the southeast.

Numerous observers in the West Indies said they saw a flaming object overhead about 8:55 p.m. The master of the Dutch tanker Mitra radioed from a position south of the Virgin Islands that a fiery ball was hurtling downwards across the sky at that time. The Navy ballistic range at Antigua also said the flaming rocket was seen.

Dr. Fred L. Whipple, Smithsonian director, said the rocket moon lasted 9 or 10 hours longer than predicted because it had apparently streamlined itself like an arrow when it plunged into denser atmosphere.

The rocket has been tumbling at random since its launching Nov. 3. By orbiting endwise on its last day, it cut down most of its air resistance and was able to fight off the pull of gravity a few hours longer, Dr. Whipple said.

by 1964 along with higher outlays for foreign economic aid and for U. S. education, public health and public assistance programs.

Truman rejected the argument of some administration economists that high spending probably would lead to inflation by saying that this conclusion is "defeatism of the worst order."

"I would not sit," he said, "in the midst of a pool of economic stagnation while the Russians are overhauling us because of some fear—whether it be real or fanciful—of inflation somewhere down the road in the future."

The 73-year-old former president appears as lead-off witness before the committee. He will be followed during the next five weeks by 10 governors and labor and industry officials in the House unit's full-scale probe of unemployment.

Republican panel members already have taken up the cudgel on the jobless inquiry. Ranking GOP member Henry O. Talle, Iowa, accused Democratic leaders of loading the hearings with anti-administration witnesses.

Talle said the probe will turn into "a loudspeaker for Democratic political propaganda."

Committee Chairman Brent Spence (D-Ky) countered that the testimony of Truman, with his "great capacity for decision and leadership in time of crisis," will be "particularly helpful in view of the indecision being manifested by the present administration."

GOP opposition to the former president's views was stirred even before he took the witness stand. In the House, a dozen young Republicans reserved time on the floor Tuesday for speeches to answer Truman's testimony and attack Democratic economic programs in general.

federal loans for local public works projects, a key anti-recession measure.

Anti-recession interest was stirred also by persistent reports that President Eisenhower might veto the one billion 800 million dollar highway bill as well as the one billion 600 million dollar rivers and harbors works bill.

Eisenhower already has one veto message before Congress—the bill it passed to freeze farm price supports and acreage allotments at no less than 1957 levels. Democrats have promised to try to override the farm veto, but are almost certain to fail to get the required two-thirds vote.

However, a Presidential veto of the highway bill might be overridden and would be regarded by many Republicans as a political mistake in an election year.

No immediate move on the tax cut issue is looked for. President Eisenhower is standing pat for the time being on his belief that no such "emergency" action is needed yet.

Democratic leaders have agreed to consult the administration, and vice versa, before launching any tax cut effort.

But some tax program must be decided upon before June 30. Unless extended, corporation and automobile excise tax rates drop automatically at that time.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) called yesterday for "decisive action," including tax cuts for lower and middle income groups, extended unemployment compensation and public works, among them school and hospital construction.

REDUCTION THREATENED
The executive director of the Tax Foundation, Inc., a private research organization, declared meanwhile that increased spending by Congress seriously threatens chances for future "prudent tax reduction."

Herbert J. Miller said in a statement that six appropriations measures already passed by the House show a potential increase of 1.4 billion dollars over budget estimates.

As a further index of recession interest, Sen. Norris Cotton (R-NH), came back to Washington with a proposal for a "thorough investigation" of the decline in the U. S. textile industry, both as to cause and cure. Urging the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee to act, Cotton warned:

"As a nation, we simply cannot afford to let this basic industry perish."

He cited the farm program which sells surplus cotton abroad at a cut rate, foreign trade and foreign aid programs as "major contributors to the disasters which have hit the U. S. textile industry."

nice for a husband and wife to be alone if they have reliable friends or relatives to leave the children with."

Searching for an outside view, we stopped a teenage couple walking arm-in-arm.

Pat Clauson, 16, of 5065 Wilson Dr., Drayton Plains, a student at Waterford Township High School, said, "Definitely together. It would be more fun to vacation with my husband, I think."

"Anyway, if I were off on a vacation, I'd be awfully worried—about my husband, not me!"

Fellow student LeRoy DeMasellis, also 16, of 2312 Crane St., Waterford Township, couldn't be talked into disagreeing for argument's sake.

"I couldn't see taking a vacation without my wife, or letting her take one without me."

"Even if I were going hunting or fishing I'm sure I'd have more fun with her along," he explained.

The conclusion seems to be that a solo flight either north or south is strictly for the birds.

Dr. Charles E. McLaughlin, 64, Grand Rapids, was killed Sunday when his car struck a tree in Grand Rapids.

Cherry Lynn Raymond, 3, Lawton, was injured fatally Sunday when she fell from the cab of a truck-tractor driven by her father.

Heart Ailment Fatal to Burroughs Head

DETROIT (U)—John S. Coleman, president of the Burroughs Corp. and 1956-57 president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, died of a heart ailment at his Detroit apartment last night. He was 60.

Coleman had been president of the big business machine manufacturing company since 1948.

He was stricken in October shortly after he had been made an honorary Knight Commander of the Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth on her Washington visit.

While the heart condition had persisted since, Coleman had returned to his duties and had worked through last Friday.

Gaillard Will Face Trouble in Assembly

PARIS (AP) — Premier Felix Gaillard faces trouble from the Conservatives tomorrow when France's National Assembly debates his acceptance of a U.S. British good offices plan to settle the Tunisian dispute.

Unless there is an outright right-wing revolt, however, Gaillard is expected to survive another of the Assembly storms he has weathered since he took office in November.

The rightists feel Gaillard yielded to U.S. pressure in accepting the plan after President Eisenhower indicated France could expect no American support if she brushed aside the good offices mission and went to the United Nations.

The dispute stems from France's Feb. 8 bombing of the Tunisian border village Sakiet Sidi Youssef on grounds it harbored Algerian rebels.

Bloomfield Civic Groups Gather

Formation of Unified Association Objective at Tomorrow's Meeting

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A meeting of delegates from all civic associations in Bloomfield Township will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Bloomfield Hills High School for the purpose of forming a unified civic association.

The association is being organized through the efforts of the Township Taxpayers Committee. Members of the committee said the united association will be a non-profit group consisting of three delegates from each township civic association. George Petzer, an attorney who served as chairman of a recent public meeting protesting increased property assessments, will act as chairman at the Tuesday meeting.

A. J. Picotte, chairman of the taxpayers committee, will present a report that will summarize the committee's activities to date. The committee has been studying the township tax structure to find out how township property tax monies are being spent.

2 U. of M. Editors to Travel in Russia

PHILADELPHIA (U) — Two University of Michigan student editors will leave for Russia April 20 for a month-long look at the Soviet education system.

David Baad, 22, of Royal Oak and Peter Eckstein, 21, of Hazelcrest, Ill., are among six selected to make the tour under an exchange program arranged by the United States National Student Assn. (USNSA).

Six Russian student and youth editors are scheduled to arrive in this country next month in exchange, the student group said.

The American collegians will live in student residences and attend lectures and classes in Russian education institutions. They will spend part of this week at Cambridge, Mass., where leading American educators in Russian studies will conduct briefing sessions.

Report 4 Burglaries During Weekend

Four burglaries were reported to Pontiac police over the weekend, including an elementary school.

Malcolm School was entered last night and drawers ransacked. What is missing has not been determined as yet.

Oliver Buick, 210 Orchard Lake Rd., was another victim Saturday night. The burglars broke into a fire-proof vault and ransacked desks and file cabinets. A small amount of change is all that is believed missing.

Kuhn's Car Wash, 149 W. Huron St., was burglarized last night. The loss has not been established but a cigarette machine was pried open.

The Joslyn-Columbia Sunoco Station, 1170 Joslyn Ave., was also hit by thieves who opened the cigarette machine and took the change.

WORTHWHILE SHENANIGANS — Spectators at the faculty-merchant benefit basketball game at the Lake-Orion Community High School gymnasium Saturday evening were trying to figure out where Kenneth Kuester (center) was going all dressed up like a fireman and carrying a glass of water. "I'm on my way to put out a fire," he told Mrs. Thid Schaar (left), and Miss Laurine Jarvis, who had stopped him. All are teachers at the high school. The merchants, by the way, took a licking from the teachers, 33-26. The game netted $300 for the Teachers Club scholarship fund.

Speak Wedding Vows in Royal Oak

BERKLEY — Dorothy Elizabeth Hinske of Berkley and George N. Allard of Milford spoke their wedding vows in a Nuptial Mass Saturday at the Shrine of the Little Flower, Royal Oak. The Rev. Florence Hoste officiated at the noon ceremony.

Dorothy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Hinske of 1811 Earlmont. George's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Allard of 10310 Mary Lee Rd., Milford.

An ivory lusted bombazine gown with bell-shaped skirt was the bride's choice for her wedding. Pearls and paillettes frosted the delicate Alencon lace bodice, fashioned with portrait neckline and brief sleeves. A bowknot caught the front of the floor-length skirt, which flared in back into a chapel train.

A coronet of pearls secured the bride's tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Alan Southard of Berkley, the bride's aunt, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Hinske of Ferndale, the bride's sister-in-law; and Anna Belle Vincent of Hazel Park.

MRS. GEORGE N. ALLARD

James Allard of Milford was best man for his brother. Ushers were Don Hinske of Ferndale and Arthur P. Hart of Pleasant Ridge, brother and brother-in-law of the bride.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at Elks Temple in Royal Oak.

The newlyweds will make their home in Berkley after a two-week trip to Washington.

Dog Plays Hero, Rescues Family in Commerce

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — A Commerce family has credited their Boxer dog with saving their lives last night.

Mrs. George LeGalle of 1535 Van Stone Dr. said the dog came into the bedroom about 1:30 a.m. and awoke her and her husband after the gas furnace had blown a pipe and filled the house with fumes.

The couple and their four children, including a 3-month-old girl, left the house in their night-clothes and spent the remainder of night at the home of a neighbor.

"The dog nudged me and barked," Mrs. LeGalle said. "I believe he saved our lives." They expect to be able to move back into the house this evening.

Tot Sets Fire in House; Father Suffers Burns

A father who fought a fire set by his two-year-old son rather than call the fire department, was treated for first degree burns of both hands.

Robert Terry, 25, of 274 S. Sanford St., fought the blaze in a bedroom. Window drapes and ventilation blinds valued at $50 were destroyed.

The fire was set by his son who was playing with a cigarette lighter in the bedroom Saturday evening.

Farm Students to Judge Soils

Oakland Pupils to Test Knowledge in Contest Here Tomorrow

Vocational agricultural students at Oakland County schools will test their knowledge of soils at the Geoffrey Holmwood farm at 1 p.m. tomorrow at a land judging contest and study sponsored by the Oakland County Soil Conservation District.

Plaques will be awarded by the district to the high individual scorer and the high scoring team.

Knowledge of soils is recognized today as a vital part in the training of future farmers, said Merrill Ray, district soil conservationist. On Tuesday these future farmers will be looking at the soils to determine if the land is best suited to growing trees, corn or grasses.

The slope of the land, amount of sand or clay, depth of soil and the amount of top soil lost are clues to best land use, Ray said.

Judges for the event will be Robert McCrory, vice chairman, Oakland Soil Conservation District, South Lyon; Leonard Braamse, extension soil conservationist, East Lansing; Robert Bryan, soil scientist, U. S. Soil Conservation Service, Pontiac; and Jay Poffenberg, assistant county agent, Cooperative Extension Service, Pontiac.

U.S. Seeking 'Lures' for Insect Control

WASHINGTON — The Agriculture Department is seeking natural and synthetic attractants to lure insects to their doom as modern weapons for more effective control of insect pests. The attractant used in the Department's gypsy-moth-eradication program, prepared from gypsy moths, is said to lure male moths from distances of at least half a mile.

Rocket Blast Injures Romeo Boy

Athletic Career Periled

ROME — A 14-year-old Romeo boy is in Mount Clemens General Hospital today worrying about whether the possible loss of two or three fingers will cut short his athletic career.

Carl D. Hart Jr. was making a home-made rocket Saturday night in the bedroom of his home at 269 Benjamin St. when it suddenly blew up in his left hand.

The explosion set fire to a blanket on his bed and ripped his hand to shreds. Dr. Donald Rosman treated the boy and sent him to the hospital.

Carl got his first baseball uniform this spring and loved to play hockey, his parents said. Now his doctor says it will be several days before he knows how many fingers Carl will lose. Only his thumb tip has been amputated so far.

The accident prompted Romeo State and Village Police to warn potential rocket builders that they must have police permission to work on such projects. They also must be supervised by a qualified instructor, they said.

Meeting to Discuss Annexation of Area

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Citizens interested in the proposed annexation of an eight-square mile area in the township to the city of Farmington have been invited by Supervisor Frank J. Stephenson to meet at the Gill Read School 21185 Gill Rd., at 8 tonight.

Pros and cons of annexation will be thoroughly discussed. Stephenson said. He also expects a research specialist from the University of Michigan to discuss city and township forms of government. At the same meeting, citizens of the township's "dry area" will be given a progress report on the proposed water system.

Vandals Flood Home

DENVER (U) — It was as if a dam had broken when Mr. and Mrs. Noam Golub opened the door to their home. In their absence, vandals had shoved their garden hose through a mail slot and turned on the water. It was six inches deep throughout the home.

AUBURN HEIGHTS — The newly elected Holy Name officers of Sacred Heart Church of Auburn Heights will take office at a meeting of the society at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Parish Hall.

They are Frank Caramitro, president; William Palmer, vice president; Frank Bilyeu, secretary, and George Williams, treasurer. Spiritual director is the Rev. Fr. Arthur J. Childs.

Sacred Heart pastor, the Rev. Francis T. Stack, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "The Holy Name Man."

A tentative program for the year includes plans for regular meetings every other month, a father and son event in June, festival bazaar in the fall, and a father and son Christmas meeting. The society receives Holy Communion at the second Sunday of each month.

Trouble Halts Airliner

KINGSTON, Jamaica (U) — A Chilean airliner en route from Panama to Miami with 64 persons aboard was forced to land at Palisades Airfield here last night because of engine trouble. Another plane was to pick the passengers up today and take them on to Miami.

Pontiac Racer Dies in Toledo Track Crash

Jack Morse of Grand Haven is the new singles leader in the State Men's bowling tourney with 764.

The University of Detroit Balling Club defeated Michigan State University and the General Motors Technical Center in a triangular meet yesterday.

A touring team of five U. S. athletes set six track records despite grueling heat at Colombo, Ceylon yesterday.

Otto Chanko of Detroit won the 100-pound championship in the National AAU Judo finals at Chicago yesterday.

Impressive Saturday performances drew raves for Martins Rullah, Belleau Chief and Pemberton and probable Kentucky Derby starters.

Despite political trouble, Havana plans to open its baseball state as planned Wednesday — if scheduled opponent Buffalo shows up. The Bisons have said they won't but the International League has threatened severe penalties for any clubs not abiding by the schedule.

Alex Hannum clinched a job with the St. Louis Hawks for next year by winning the NBA title in a 110-109 victory over Boston Saturday. Bob Pettit set a tourney record with 50 points.

The pre stars begin a 22-game exhibition tour tonight at Lincoln, Neb., led by Pettit and Bob Cousy. Detroit players George Yardley, Dick McGuire and Gene Shue will play on the Western squad.

Fans broke through the ropes set up by police and swarmed all over the Giants on their arrival in San Francisco last night.

Ohio State track star Glenn Davis is looking ahead now to the Ohio Relays and Penn Relays following his winning of five gold medals in the Quantic Relays.

Managers Cookie Lavagetto of Washington and Mike Higgins of Boston chose their hurlers for obvious reasons. Ramos, with an 11-5 career against Boston, has been more effective opposing the Red Sox than against any other club. Sullivan, a 6-foot-7 giant, is 10-4 against Washington in five seasons.

Higgins pondered one big question — whether to start league batting champion Ted Williams. An ankle injury has slowed Williams down in spring training, but in five recent pinchhitting appearances he has socked two homers and a single, driven in four runs and walked twice.

Washington slugger Roy Sievers also has been troubled by a sore leg but will work left field.

Probable lineups for the Washington Senators and Boston Red Sox are listed below.

In the National League, the San Francisco Giants wound up at the top of the heap with a 21-11 mark, for a .656 average. The Giants were the only team able to win 20 or more games, while the Red Sox were the only team which managed to lose less than 11.

The biggest disappointment of the exhibition season is not hard to spot. The Detroit Tigers' miserable 7-19 (.269) record, which placed the 'Bengals' far down in last place, was the shocker of the spring.

The standings were compiled strictly against major league opposition.

In fact, the Richmond Virginians of the International League accomplished what most major league clubs couldn't when they licked the Red Sox 5-1 at Richmond yesterday, in the exhibition finale.

The world champion Milwaukee Braves polished off the hapless Tigers 7-3 at Milwaukee. The American League victors, the New York Yankees, clubbed the Philadelphia Phillies 10-5 in Philadelphia with catcher Yogi Berra showing no ill effects from a 13-day layoff caused by a split hand. He hit a two-run homer to help the cause.

There even was a doubleheader.

The winners were the only team to score in every division. The other individual champions were:

89-lb.—Stuk (M) 120-lb.—Abara (E)
95-lb.—Rubble (M) 125-lb.—Ever (E)
105-lb.—Bills (L) 140-lb.—Miracle (M)

Play Ball! Ike Throws Out First Pitch

Major Leagues Launch Season in Washington

Senators Meet Red Sox With Capital Officials in Attendance

WASHINGTON (U) — President Eisenhower, an old ball player himself, goes out to Griffith Stadium this afternoon to make the pitch that launches another baseball season.

Following a custom established in the heyday of Mathewson and Cobb, Eisenhower will toss out the first ball and then watch several dozen Washington Senators and Boston Red Sox scramble for the prize.

Close to 25,000 fans are expected for the 1958 debut of Major League baseball. The game is the only one scheduled today. Other clubs in both leagues start tomorrow.

Plain fans will mingle at the park with the usual assemblage of congressmen, supreme court justices, military and government notables.

Eisenhower, who played semi-pro ball one summer as a youth, will be making his sixth pitch as a President. So far his deliveries have preceded two victories and three defeats for the home team.

After he performs, Washington's Pedro Ramos and Boston's Frank Sullivan will get down to the real business and pitching. Like Eisenhower, both are right-handers.

Managers Cookie Lavagetto of Washington and Mike Higgins of Boston chose their hurlers for obvious reasons. Ramos, with an 11-5 career against Boston, has been more effective opposing the Red Sox than against any other club. Sullivan, a 6-foot-7 giant, is 10-4 against Washington in five seasons.

Higgins pondered one big question — whether to start league batting champion Ted Williams. An ankle injury has slowed Williams down in spring training, but in five recent pinchhitting appearances he has socked two homers and a single, driven in four runs and walked twice.

Washington slugger Roy Sievers also has been troubled by a sore leg but will work left field.

Probable lineups for the Washington Senators and Boston Red Sox are listed below.

In the National League, the San Francisco Giants wound up at the top of the heap with a 21-11 mark, for a .656 average. The Giants were the only team able to win 20 or more games, while the Red Sox were the only team which managed to lose less than 11.

The biggest disappointment of the exhibition season is not hard to spot. The Detroit Tigers' miserable 7-19 (.269) record, which placed the 'Bengals' far down in last place, was the shocker of the spring.

The standings were compiled strictly against major league opposition.

In fact, the Richmond Virginians of the International League accomplished what most major league clubs couldn't when they licked the Red Sox 5-1 at Richmond yesterday, in the exhibition finale.

The world champion Milwaukee Braves polished off the hapless Tigers 7-3 at Milwaukee. The American League victors, the New York Yankees, clubbed the Philadelphia Phillies 10-5 in Philadelphia with catcher Yogi Berra showing no ill effects from a 13-day layoff caused by a split hand. He hit a two-run homer to help the cause.

There even was a doubleheader.

The winners were the only team to score in every division. The other individual champions were:

89-lb.—Stuk (M) 120-lb.—Abara (E)
95-lb.—Rubble (M) 125-lb.—Ever (E)
105-lb.—Bills (L) 140-lb.—Miracle (M)
115-lb.—Reed (M) 155-lb.—Stewart (L)
125-lb.—Peres (M) 165-lb.—Smith (M)

Tigers Close Exhibition Play

MILWAUKEE (U) — Memories of a disastrous exhibition season were shoved into the past today as the Detroit Tigers took a breather and prepared for tomorrow's opening of the 1958 baseball wars at Chicago.

The game with the highly rated White Sox, besides kicking off this year's American League campaign, also will give the Bengals a new slate to work on.

They wound up one of the worst pre-season efforts in club history yesterday when they fell before the world champion Milwaukee Braves 7-3, their 15th loss in the last 18 starts. It gave them a 7-19 mark.

Jim Bunning, a 20-game winner last season, will take the mound tomorrow in the first of a three-game series in the Windy City. Billy Pierce will start for the White Sox.

Low Burdette, last year's World Series hero, was the winner in yesterday's contest, his third triumph in four spring game starts. Bunning took the loss.

Burdette helped his cause with a home run in the third off Billy Hoelt. Andy Pafko and Frank Torre also hit round-trippers for the Braves.

Besides Bunning and Hoelt, Paul Foytack and Frank Lary hurried for the Tigers as manager Jack Tighe wheeled out his four starters in an effort to end the training season on a triumphant note.

Rusty Kelly Is Killed as Auto Crashes, Burns

Lack of Equipment Available at Track to Fight Fire

Rusty Kelly, 38, one of Pontiac's outstanding modified hardtop racers, died yesterday in a flaming crash at the Toledo Raceway.

Kelly was on the second lap of the time trials for the feature race when his modified 1958-model stock car went out of control heading into a banked curve.

Sheriff's deputy J. J. Becker of Toledo said Kelly's car rolled over the east embankment, flew 100 feet through the air, rolled another 100 feet and burned. Kelly was trapped in the wreckage.

Assistant Lucas County coroner Dr. Harry Mignerey said Kelly's neck was broken and he was badly burned.

There was no equipment available at the track to fight the fire, except a fire extinguisher and it was empty.

Kelly's death came just two and a half months after his marriage. He and his wife Jenny resided at 2101 Walnut Avenue.

The Toledo Raceway was one of his favorite tracks. Last year he was one of the top drivers and money winners at the half-mile track.

He had been driving a car for the Hertz Service station until recently when the car was sold to a Detroit man, Nick Zernyke.

His pitman was Arthur Trimm of Pontiac who was with Kelly in Toledo. Trimm had not yet returned to Pontiac and was not available for comment.

Just recently Kelly was awarded membership in the famous Daytona Beach Century Club for having been timed by NASCAR at better than 100 miles an hour through the measured mile on the famous beach track in Florida.

Two years ago, during the 1956 racing season, Kelly was the top point man at the Pontiac Speedway and last year he led the drivers at the Jackson Speedway.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Voorheis-Siple funeral home on Perry street.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (U) — Race driver George Felt, of St. Petersburg, Fla., was killed Sunday during a stock car race at the Williams Grove Speedway when his car went out of control on the second turn of the 6th speed event of the day.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (U) — Stock car driver Billy Myers of Winston-Salem suffered a heart attack during a race here Saturday night and died after driving his racer off the track. He is being buried here today.

Majors in Full Start Tuesday

With today's traditional Washington opener out of the way, major league baseball opens the 1958 season for real tomorrow.

The San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers, late of New York and Brooklyn, renew their long rivalry on rookie grounds in San Francisco as heroes of the National League's new West Coast outposts.

Kansas City at Cleveland (35, 000)—Ned Garver (6-13) vs. Herb Score (2-1).

National League President Warren Giles will attend the Dodgers-Giants game.

In Cleveland, Score starts the trip back from that terrible eye injury of last season—a dreadful accident that almost ended what may be the most promising career in baseball.

Score, the 24-year-old, fire-balling southpaw, new manager Bobby Bragan, the guy who jolted his way out of the National League; and new general manager Frank Lane, the man who made contenders of the Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Cardinals, spearhead the 'Jynx's' comeback bid in the AL. They finished sixth last year.

Spahn, the NL's only 20-game winner last season, will be going for his 25th victory, tops among active NL pitchers.

The New York Yankees are after their ninth American League pennant in the last 10 years.

PCH Thincads at Flint Central; 3-Way Meets Mark Area Action

A determined Pontiac Central High track squad today was due for a stiff workout in preparation for its 1st 1958 Saginaw Valley Flint Central. The PCH thincads were eager to wipe out some of the sting of the less-than-a-point loss at Mt. Pleasant, to Flint Northern. Central was 3rd, seven points back.

Hottest battles were expected between Larry Beamer and Bill Milum, millers (Milum's time) edged Larry at CMC; PCH's Bob Manning and Ron Watkins in the 60-yard dash (Bob won at GMC); and the half-mile relay.

One of the biggest weeks of the spring track season is under way today in the area with three duals going at the same time on Fitzgerald's field. Oakland-Bellefonte, Farmington at Van Dyke, Friday; Walled Lake at Cranbrook, Saturday; and Troy vs. Avondale and Madison against Clawson. Meet is a night affair.

There are also four triangulars, starting Tuesday, at Milford, with Brighton and Holly; at Cranbrook with Berkley and Troy; at OL St. Mary, with MC St. Mary and Oak Park, and Wednesday, at Fitzgerald, with Troy and Madison.

Other meets include Southfield at Redford Union; Waterford at RO Dandero; Bloomfield Hills at Keesee; Farmington at Van Dyke, Friday; Walled Lake at Cranbrook, Saturday; and Troy vs. Avondale and Madison against Clawson. Meet is a night affair.
