First Space Trip for Man Nears

FLIGHT PLAN — Diagram shows the planned flight of the North American X-15 rocket research ship in the world's first effort to put a man on the edge of outer space and bring him back safely. The 50-foot, stainless steel, man-carrying "bullet" will be dropped from the belly of a modified B-52 bomber above Edwards AFB, Calif. Rocket engines, taking over with a 60,000-pound thrust, will develop a speed of 3,600 m. p. h. During 90 seconds of powered flight, the X-15 will zoom to a height of 100-150 miles above the earth. At this apex of flight, the pilot, aided by a highly advanced Sperry inertial guidance system, will maneuver the plane into the correct re-entry position. From there, it will make a gliding descent into the earth's atmosphere, landing at Wendover AFB, Utah, 400 miles from the start.

Senate Passes Johnson's Bill on Filibusters

Many Legislators Doubt That Compromise Will Be Effective

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has changed its rule governing debate, but the argument continued today over how big a step it had taken toward curbing filibusters.

"No gain at all," commented Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY), one of a group of Northern and Western Senators who had fought to make it easier to throttle filibusters against civil rights bills and other measures.

"A soothing syrup to lull the conscience of America," was the assessment of Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill), one of the leaders of the bipartisan fight for a rules change.

Some Southern Senators protested that the change — any change—went too far.

But an overwhelming majority of the Senate voted 72-22 for the new rule to allow two thirds of the Senators present and voting to cut off debate. A rule in effect since 1949 had required the votes of two-thirds of the entire Senate membership, or 66 of the 98 Senators.

The rules battle roared to its climax Monday night with Senators in sharp disagreement over what the effect of the new rule will be.

But no one questioned that the outcome was a spectacular triumph for Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader.

The change in rules went through just the way he proposed it on the opening day of the new Congress last Wednesday. Johnson and other Senate leaders of both parties called it a reasonable, middle-of-the-road solution.

Douglas said, however, that it marked a great victory for Southern senators.

With the aid of conservative Republicans, he said, they had been able "not to blunt but to reverse the drive for civil rights and an effective anti-filibuster rule."

In contrast, Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), said "it is a sad day when the Senate of the United States demeans itself by imposing new restraints" on freedom of debate.

2 State Dems Vote No

WASHINGTON (AP)—Michigan's two Democratic senators, Hart and McNamara, yesterday voted for the passage of the two filibuster proposals which were rejected by the Senate and against the one that was passed.

Kidnaped One Child to Regain 4 Others

From Our Wire Services

NEW YORK—Police said today they believed that a 43-year-old widowed mother of eight children kidnaped newborn infant Lisa Rose Chionchio in an effort to trap her boyfriend into marriage.

Ironically, authorities said, the alleged plot of the accused kidnaper, Mrs. Jean Iavarone, was designed to get back four of her children who have been placed in orphanages and foster homes because she was considered incapable of caring for them.

They theorized that Mrs. Iavarone, a stout, blonde grandmother who lived alone, had abducted the infant from a Brooklyn hospital nursery 2½ hours after her birth Jan. 2, with the intention of telling a boyfriend it was their child.

Assuming he would agree to marriage, Mrs. Iavarone believed that, with a husband and home, she would be permitted to regain custody of the four children who had been taken away from her, authorities said.

The plot failed, however, when a suspicious woman neighbor—in the 313th telephoned tip on the mystery—led police Sunday to a cluttered one-room apartment in a dilapidated Brooklyn brownstone apartment building.

There, only 200 yards from the Brooklyn police headquarters, police found Mrs. Iavarone and the Chionchio baby.

The baby, in good health, was returned Monday to the arms of her happy, tearful 26-year-old mother, Frances. In a jubilant reunion at St. Peter's Hospital, the mother said it was the happiest day of her life.

The infant, who had gained one ounce over her seven pounds at birth, had received good care in the first nine days of her life.

The Chionchio family expressed compassion for the alleged kidnaper and renewed a pledge made while the baby was missing that she could visit the child.

Neighbors generally described Mrs. Iavarone as "a nice person."

Detectives quoted Mrs. Iavarone as naming Joseph Pizzimenti, owner of a fruit and vegetable store, as the infant's father and as saying she had lived with him several months last summer.

Mrs. Iavarone, on the verge of collapse, was arraigned yesterday in Brooklyn Felony Court. Pale and obviously distraught, she nervously clutched at a handbag. At times, she swayed from side to side. Her voice was barely audible.

Magistrate James Roe Jr. finally adjourned the hearing until today to permit Mrs. Iavarone to get an attorney.

If convicted, she could receive a maximum penalty of 20 years to life in prison.

Ford Workers Get $1,000,000 in Jobless Pay

Top Michigan Judge Also Rule in Favor of Escanaba Teamsters

LANSING (AP) — Labor unions have won two big victories in the Michigan Supreme Court, one worth a million dollars in cash and the other removing a barrier to organizing activity.

The cash will go to 11,000 United Auto Workers employed by the Ford Motor Co. in the Detroit area in the form of unemployment compensation checks for idleness in 1953.

In the other case, the Teamsters Union won a ruling that state courts lack authority to enjoin peaceful picketing in labor disputes—specifically where a union is using pickets to organize non-union employes.

The Supreme Court split 5 to 2 yesterday in the Ford jobless pay ruling, with Chief Justice John R. Dethmers and Justice Leland W. Carr dissenting. Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh took no part.

Involved was idleness at the Mound Road, Highland Park and Ford Rouge plants in May, 1953, while a Ford forge plant at Canton, Ohio, was shut down by a strike April 20 of UAW members there.

The Detroit area units were dependent for continued operations on forgings supplied from Canton. Employes lost one to three weeks' work and claimed jobless benefits of from $27 to $105 apiece.

In effect, the majority held that the Detroit area men were forced off the job by circumstances other than a labor dispute in the Ford "establishment" as defined by the Michigan Employment Security Law.

Justice George Edwards said that in determining the Canton plant and those in Detroit were not part of the same "establishment," the majority was following the lead of high courts in seven other states.

Edwards said it was not the Legislature's intent to deny jobless pay benefits in such a situation.

Order Thompson to Stand Trial

Judge Says Evidence 'Sufficient' in Kierdorf Arson Case

Jack D. Thompson, Flint Teamsters business agent, today was ordered to stand trial for arson in the torch death of his friend, Frank Kierdorf.

Flint Municipal Judge Donald R. Freeman this morning held that Thompson, 41, be bound over to Genesee County Circuit Court following a two-day preliminary examination last month.

Judge Freeman ruled that "sufficient evidence" had been presented by the state to warrant the trial.

Thompson was permitted to remain free on a $1,500 bond pending Circuit Court arraignment on the arson charge Jan. 19.

Kierdorf, also a business agent with Flint Teamsters Local 332, died at Pontiac's St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Aug. 7, leaving investigators baffled about his mysterious death.

Genesee County Prosecutor Jerome F. O'Rourke paraded 32 witnesses to the stand during the preliminary hearing in an attempt to link Thompson as Kierdorf's accomplice in the bungled arson of the Latreille Dry Cleaners outside Flint on Aug. 3.

Although police are pretty positive this is how Kierdorf, an ex-convict who had refused to answer Senate Labor Rackets Committee questions, received his fatal burns, the motive behind the job still remains a mystery.

Police believed that Kierdorf might have been hired by a competitor of the Latreille cleaners to destroy the building because own-

LONDON (AP)—The Western Allies are expected to tell Moscow within the next 48 hours they are willing to resume East-West talks on prevention of surprise attacks — but with politics outlawed.

Control Battle Looms in Deadlocked House

LANSING (AP) — With fingers crossed, Michigan lawmakers will be counting heads tomorrow when they assemble in the capitol to open the 70th legislature.

Absence of a single Democrat from the noon session in the house could throw control of the lower chamber to the Republicans. And any Republican who fails to show up will be throwing away GOP chances to take command.

Michigan voters are responsible for this crucial and unprecedented situation.

Last November they elected 55 Republicans and 55 Democrats to the house. Neither party won a majority of seats, so neither won authority to elect a speaker, control committees or enjoy the other spoils that go to the majority party.

Like the statewide situation, Oakland County voters in November caused a split among its six representatives in the House, electing three Republicans.

All but two, Reps. Lloyd L. Anderson (R-Waterford Township) and Farrell E. Roberts (R-West Bloomfield Township), will be newcomers. During the last session there were four Republicans and two Democrats.

Taking their oaths for the first time tomorrow noon will be Pontiac's Democratic representative, Arthur J. Law, James Clarkson, Democrat representing the Fourth District, William Hayward, Republican from the Fifth District, and John C. Hitchcock, Sixth District Democrat.

Republicans and Democrats will huddle today in separate caucuses to map strategy and try to agree on a plan for organization of the house. They'll clash head-on tomorrow in an expected battle royal for control.

If only 109 representatives put in appearances, however, prospects for a prolonged tug-of-war may dissolve. In that event, the reigns of authority almost certainly will fall to the party with more members present.

Phone Warning Brings on Rush to Pay Tickets

Traffic offenders began converging on the Violations Bureau of the Municipal Court en masse late yesterday afternoon after being warned by phone if they didn't settle up quickly a warrant would be issued for their arrest.

The policy of the Violations Bureau, which was moved from under the wing of the Police Department to the court at the beginning of the year, is to give motorists seven days to pay fines, according to Leo F. McDonald, court clerk.

On the eighth day, offenders will receive a call telling them to come in within 24 hours or they will be arrested and taken into court, McDonald said.

If they have no phone, delinquent violators will be arrested after the seven-day period, he said.

McDonald pointed out that, in addition to the fine, delinquents will have to pay $5 for each warrant issued.

In addition, Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum said delinquents taken to court could be sentenced up to $100 or 90 days in jail—or both.

Thirty persons who failed to pay their fines since the first of the year were called yesterday, with 15 paying fines shortly after. The others gave assurances they would settle today.

Open Gangster Slaying Trial

Two Key Witnesses to Commerce Killing Still in Texas

The second-degree murder trial of Demitrios Tsermengas, an ex-convict from Ecorse, opened this morning with two important witnesses missing.

Tsermengas, 39, went on trial before Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty, charged with the fatal shooting in December, 1957, of George Kean, described by police as a narcotics peddler and accomplice in several Texas murders.

Assistant Prosecutor Jerome K. Barty Jr., said he will call 10 police officers, a medical examiner, and Donald E. Chandler, in whose Commerce Township home police say the shooting took place.

Missing, however, are two Texas hoodlum pals of Kean and Tsermengas, Thomas D. Smith and Lowell E. McComb. The four were en route to Sault Ste. Marie where Kean planned a robbery, Tsermengas said.

Smith is being held by Texas authorities on a past robbery charge, while McComb is appealing an extradition order to a higher Texas court.

'Gun Game' Proves to Be Real Thing

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Waitress Janet Bundy thought the little boy was playing when he slammed a gun on the restaurant counter and demanded money Monday night.

"I grabbed for the gun," said Miss Bundy, 20, of Detroit. "I thought it was a toy. But the boy grabbed it back first and fired a shot into the floor."

Now realizing it was the real thing, she grappled with the boy when he came around the counter.

"He broke away and ran out of the store swearing and cursing," she said.

She described the would-be robber as about 12 years old. He had two companions between 12 and 14 who fled with him.

Police recovered a .38 caliber bullet from the restaurant floor.

'Balmy' Weather Due to Stay Till Thursday

Pontiac's "balmy" temperatures are expected to last at least until Thursday, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau's forecast.

The low tonight will be near 25, and tomorrow's high about 38.

Today's winds at 10-18 miles an hour will become light and variable tonight and southeast to south at 8-15 miles an hour tomorrow.

A little colder with snow flurries mostly near the Great Lakes is the outlook for Thursday.

Twenty-nine was the lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a. m. The mercury rose to 33 at 1 p. m.

Ike Will Guard Allies' Position

Won't Take Solitary Stand on Crucial Issues in Talk With Mikoyan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower will refuse to negotiate with Deputy Soviet Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan on any matter that might jeopardize the position of U.S. allies, administration sources said today.

These sources also said the President, who will confer with Mikoyan at the White House Saturday, will not join with him in any major statement without discussing its contents with British, French and West German leaders.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was expected to air the administration's views on the Berlin situation and the ramifications of Mikoyan's U.S. visit at a news conference today.

It was Dulles' first news conference since Nov. 26, the day before Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev put in a formal note his proposal for a "free" Berlin with withdrawal of Allied troops from West Berlin.

Eisenhower's determination to protect the interests of U.S. allies in any negotiations on Berlin or the broader question of a German peace treaty appeared to rule out any agreement for bilateral talks with Russia on these subjects.

Some Western diplomats here have expressed the belief that such bilateral talks — possibly even an Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting — might be a purpose of Mikoyan's visit.

Top State Court Rules on Huron-Clinton Millage

A ruling yesterday by the State Supreme Court that tax collections for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority must be made a part of the 15-mill taxing limitation will be felt in Oakland County, according to Norman R. Barnard, county corporation counsel.

The high court reversed a Wayne County Circuit Court decision concerning levying of a one-quarter mill by five southeastern Michigan counties.

The eight justices, splitting 5 to 3 on technicalities of the ruling, said the case should be remanded back to the Wayne court for a judgment in favor of Chester J. Morse, who brought the suit against the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

However, the high court was unanimous in agreeing that the decision of Wayne Circuit Judge Frank Fitzgerald should be reversed. It said the authority is not a municipal corporation and is therefore not exempt from the constitutional limitation.

Oakland followed Wayne County this year in collecting tax outside the limitation, based on the decision of the Wayne Court that this could be done as it represented a voted increase by the people.

Barnard said this reversal of the Supreme Court will mean that in the preparation of the county's 1960 budget, the annual one-quarter mill will have to be included within the 15 mills.

"This won't affect us immediately," Barnard said, "as the county is already collecting for this year outside the limitation."

Oakland officials viewed the earlier Wayne court decision as an aid to the county's heavy welfare burden. That portion of the 15-mill limitation taken up in past years by the tax for the authority was slated to go toward lessening this welfare burden.

Based on state equalized figures, this represented roughly $441,000, said Robert Y. Moore, Board of Auditors chairman.

In other decisions affecting Oakland County, the Supreme Court ruled there was no fraud or misrepresentation in the sale of 91 lots to the A & M Land Development Co. in 1955.

The lots, located in the Bloomfield Knolls Subdivision in West Bloomfield Township, were sold to the company by Samuel A. Miller.

The development firm said it understands there were certain improvements on the land that later were found not there, and asked for damages before Wayne Circuit Judge Horace Gilmore. Gilmore dismissed the case.

The company appealed to the high court and was turned down yesterday when it upheld the dismissal of the suit.

In a third matter, the late Oakland Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick was upheld by the State Supreme Court yesterday on his decision involving a disputed $7,000 rental payment by Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Hartrick said the Adeline Realty Co. was not entitled to collect rent from the telephone company for a building in Royal Oak during a two-month period when ownership of the building was in question.

Bell had deeded the property to Excel Investors, Inc., with the agreement Excel could construct a building for lease to Bell.

The investment firm deeded the property to Adeline Realty Co., but Bell continued to make its rental payments to Excel.

Passive Gal May Be 1st Into Space

OAKLAND, Calif. (UP)—A passive, lonely woman may be the first space pioneer.

Col. John Stapp, director of the Air Force's Aeromedical Laboratory at Wright Field, Ohio, says research shows that men "start worrying about their families and become aggressive and irrational" too soon to stand a long and confining trip.

The longest a man has been able to stay in a test chamber has been 42 hours, the colonel told the Alameda-Contra Costa Counties Medical Assn. Monday.

But a single woman who tried, he continued, lasted five days and wanted out only after her food was used up.

"This particular woman was a passive personality and she had no family or close friends to bind her to vital, earthly concerns," he noted.

Jobless Figure Passes 4 Million in Seasonal Lull

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government was expected to report today that unemployment rose above four million in December.

Bad weather and curtailment of outdoor work was blamed for most of the increase in the jobless total to be announced by the Labor and Commerce Departments.

Unemployment in November was estimated at 3,833,000. It normally goes up at year's end because colder weather cuts down on outdoor jobs.

Despite the jobless increase, government officials said several bright spots showed up in the economy last month. Earnings of factory workers hit a record high and employment went up because of temporary Christmas hiring, they said.

State Sending Funds for 2 City Services

The state was preparing to send two annual checks to Pontiac today.

The State Board of alcoholism approved the annual $1,150 payment to operate the city's alcoholic clinic. The city matches the state grant.

Under the state library grant program, a grant of $2,947 was approved for Pontiac. This represents the first of four payments expected by the city.

A total of $19,413 was earmarked for alcoholism programs in three other cities and at University of Michigan and Wayne State University. A total $128,654 was sent out under the library program.

Mrs. Reed was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

BATISTA MEN ON TRIAL — Four followers of former Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista appear before a Cuban rebel tribunal, where they were convicted of crimes against the revolutionary movement. They were among 75 executed yesterday. Below, a Havana youngster peers through the bars at the La Cabana military prison as he seeks to talk with his father inside. Need Little Time for Cuban Verdicts

(A United Press International reporter describes the trial of three of Batista's soldiers in the following dispatch.)

By ANDRES LOPEZ

COLON, Matanzas Province, Cuba (UPI)—Cuban revolutionary justice allows plenty of time for testimony but needs only minutes to reach a verdict.

This was the pattern in yesterday's trial of three former Batista soldiers on charges they were responsible for 20 to 30 deaths in this sugar town 45 miles east of the provincial capitol of Matanzas.

A five-man tribunal headed by Capt. Julio Chaviano, local commandant of the July 26th movement, convened at 4 p.m. at a rural guard headquarters building.

In addition to Chaviano, a young Castro guerrilla veteran, the tribunal consisted of two other members of the rebel movement—a militiaman and a civilian member of the rebel underground.

The tribunal sat behind a bare wooden table holding documents relating to the alleged "war crimes" of the accused.

On trial were former army Capt. Isidoro Lopez, Sgt. Juan Leonard and a private soldier, Segundo Napoles, who sat on folding wooden chairs when not addressing the court.

PRESS WATCHES

The proceedings continued for four hours, with Chaviano reading the charge sheets accumulated during an investigation and with the accused rising to argue their defense.

At one point Leonard vigorously disputed his former commanding officers' assertions to the court.

The press and witnesses were permitted to attend the trial but residents of the area were excluded and could only peer in through the dusty windows.

Once the long testimony was finished Chaviano cleared the court and the accused men were returned to their cells. Five minutes later the verdict was ready and the men were brought again into the courtroom.

Chaviano read the verdict: "Guilty" and sentenced them to be shot. He then saluted Lopez who returned the salute, wheeled and again was sent to his cell.

The rebels sent a Roman Catholic priest, Fr. Juan Langlois of Montreal, into Lopez' cell where he spent several minutes hearing the captain's confession.

The priest had been gone only a few minutes when shouting echoed throughout the jail. Rebel guards rushed to Lopez' cell and found him clutching his throat, gurgling and gasping.

He had tried strangling himself with a mattress string but it broke. The rebels conducted him to a hospital.

The execution must await approval of the tribunal's sentence by the provincial military commandant, William Galves, in Matanzas.

But firing squads may be heard in Colon before sundown.

Battle Looms in Legislature

meeting that probably will last into June.

If house members organize, Gov. Williams will go before a joint session Thursday with a message recommending methods of meeting the state's current cash crisis. Williams said last week state government operations will be "seriously hamstrung" if the legislature doesn't produce between 35 and 75 million dollars in the next month.

The Governor said yesterday he will defer his recommendations on new taxes, "probably for a couple of weeks."

House Republicans and Democrats so far show no signs of relinquishing control to the rival party.

Republican leaders, led by house speaker George M. Van Peursem (R-Zeeland), proposed soon after the election to split control down the middle. They suggested that one party name the speaker, the other the speaker protem, and that both share equally on committee memberships.

Democrats, relegated to an underdog's role for the last 20 years, wouldn't buy the GOP plan. They insisted on full control, citing their bigger vote total on a statewide basis.

Republicans, in rebuttal, point to victories in more counties, more territory and more legislative districts.

Van Peursem, in an unexpected move, withdrew from contention for the speakership. Names cropping up as his possible successor included Reps. Allison Green (R-Kingston), now GOP floor leader; Don R. Pears, (R-Buchanan), the speaker pro tem; Emil Peltz (R-Rogers City); and Walter G. Nakkula (R-Gladwin).

SENATE CALM

Rep. Louis Mezzano (D-Wakefield), house minority leader, stands out as a slight favorite for speaker if Democrats win out. But opposition has come from supporters of veteran Reps. Michael J. O'Brien and Joseph Kowalski, both of Detroit. F. Charles Raap (D-Twin Lake) is another possibility.

Across the capitol rotunda, the senate, by contrast, will meet in an atmosphere of settled calm.

With Democrats in control of every fulltime elective state office, the upper chamber is the last stronghold of the GOP in Michigan. But there Republicans reign supreme, controlling 22 of the 34 seats.

Without fuss or fanfare, senate Democrats named Sen. Harold M. Ryan (D-Detroit) minority leader, replacing John B. Swainson, the new Lieutenant Governor. Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair) retained his job as GOP floor spokesman.

Deaths Mount in Cuban Purge

Thousands of Batista Backers Face Trial; 145 Already Executed

From Our News Wires

HAVANA — Rebel sources said today "several thousand" Batista men faced revolutionary justice throughout Cuba. It was certain the death toll would rise far above the known formal and informal executions.

At least 145 persons had been reported executed between Batista's flight on Jan. 1 and Monday night. More speedy trials were under way, including hearings for possibly 100 prisoners in Oriente province.

The toll took a big jump Monday when revolutionary firing squads reportedly shot 75 persons near Santiago, capital of Oriente, where Castro's rebellion was centered and anti-rebel repression was strongest.

Officials of the provisional government claimed all cases were being fully investigated, but otherwise there was no information on the trials of the condemned men.

Rebels in Santiago commanded by Raul Castro, brother of the revolutionary leader, have arrested at least 320 persons. Seventy of them faced a mass trial and 14 were executed immediately.

In addition 40 persons were reported "informally" executed by zealous Rebels in the early hours of victory before the Rebel command gained control over the overzealous civilians. At least 20 of the killings were reported in Havana.

The Day in Birmingham

Trip to Mt. Grampian Scheduled by Ski Club

BIRMINGHAM — Members of the newly-formed Birmingham Ski Club will forego their formal meeting tomorrow night in favor of a trip to Mt. Grampian near Milford.

Non-members interested in the ski club's first trip can get full details at the recreation office in the Municipal Puilding. Dr. Stewart Scott, chairman, and Don Kirby, acting club secretary, said the group will leave Birmingham at 7:30 p.m.

Now numbering 45 members the club is planning its first full weekend trip Jan. 21 to Caberfae.

Police this morning reported the theft of class room equipment valued at $400 from Baldwin Junior High School last night. Eight windows were broken and the door panel to the equipment room smashed.

Tape recorders, a table radio, microscopes, film-strip viewer and 18 rolls of tape are among the missing items.

Capt. Raph Bessig, commanding officer of the Birmingham Civil Air Patrol, said a recruitment drive by the group will highlight the 7 p.m. meeting tomorrow at Pembroke Elementary School.

Boys and girls 14 years of age or older are eligible for enlistment. Parents of CAP cadets may apply for membership in the parent club.

William T. Arlund heads the Birmingham High Twelve Club for the coming year. Other officers are Roy Thurman and Dean G. Beier, vice presidents, Arthur S. McCall, secretary; James L. Spence, treasurer; Walter Anderson, Norman R. Barnes, Harry M. Cook and William Troutfetter, directors.

William Wiese

Service for William P. Wiese, 72, of 2871 Bell Rd., will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday in the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Private burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit.

Mr. Wiese died yesterday in Harper Hospital, Detroit, after an illness of several months.

Starting with the Wabash Railroad in the early 20s, he had been actively engaged in the transit business for most of his life.

At the time of his death, he was a member of the Motor City and the Detroit Traffic clubs. He had been a vice president of the National Transit Corp. and the Merchants Forwarding Co. He also was general manager of the Detroit Trucking Assn. for two years, from 1930 until 1932, and at one time operated his own trucking business in Detroit.

Surviving is his wife, Lucille W.

Mikoyan Meets, Clowns With Jerry Lewis

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Soviet deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan continues his cross-country goodwill tour of the United States today with a trip to New York City before returning to Washington for talks with President Eisenhower next Saturday.

Mikoyan traded clowning capers on a Hollywood movie set with comedian Jerry Lewis yesterday and topped his successful three day visit here by appearing as a guest on a local television show (Paul Coates Show of Los Angeles station KTTV).

His visit to Los Angeles was unmarred by public demonstrations that punctured his stays in Cleveland, Detroit; Chicago and San Francisco.

"As far as we are concerned," Mikoyan told interviewer Paul Coates, "we do not want a war over Berlin, but it depends on the other side to keep the peace."

Mikoyan completed his busy day which included a tour of UCLA, a luncheon meeting with prominent businessmen and educators and a visit to Paramount Studios by taking a walk around the grounds of his hotel shortly before retiring to his suite about midnight.

Earlier, the glib Russian official clowned with Jerry Lewis on the set of the comedian's latest picture, and even planted a firm kiss in the European style on Lewis' cheek.

Mikoyan seemed to want to meet all the beautiful starlets in the studio, causing Lewis to wisecrack:

"I'm going to get a skirt and sweater, that's the only way you can make an impression on this guy."

Lewis gave Mikoyan three cigarette lighters with the remark, "here, take them home to the wife and kids, Mik."

Toastmasters to Hold Meeting at Hospital

The Pontiac Toastmasters Club No. 643 tonight will hold one of the most unusual regular meetings in the club's history.

Meetings are regularly held at the Pontiac YMCA, but because one of the members, Charles Dugas, is currently recovering from a foot operation at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, arrangements have been made to have the meeting in the hospital conference room.

The club will have dinner at the YMCA and then go to the hospital for its business meeting and weekly program beginning at 7 p.m.

Thompson to Stand Trial in Arson Case

ers had been charging cut-rate prices.

However, this was denied by the competitor, Herbert L. Harrison, during the earlier examination.

O'Rourke claims Thompson was with Kierdorf on the arson job. Thompson claims he had not seen Kierdorf for more than two days before the fire, and that he had spent the weekend at his cottage in Grayling.

The Genesee prosecutor produced two witnesses, the owner and caretaker of a Flint apartment house in which Thompson's mother resides, who contradicted Thompson's testimony.

Mrs. Dorothy Wallace, the caretaker, said she saw Thompson drive into the apartment driveway on the night of the fire.

She also said another bespectacled man, who might have been Kierdorf, was with him.

Both she and the owner, Roscoe W. Clark, said they smelled the odor of burned flesh at that time.

Club Members Boost Fund for Fire Victim

Response to the "Max Richardson Fund," established by members of Edgewood Country Club, Commerce Township, was reported excellent today.

Mrs. Robert Spengler of 8877 Edgewood Dr., Commerce Township, who started the fund for Richardson, who was critically burned, said, "We received a $200 donation from a group of 30 members over the weekend and another $160 Monday afternoon."

Richardson, 40, of 2624 Walton Blvd., Waterford Township, is widely known for his many years of service in area golfing circles.

He was burned Jan. 5 when an electric heater ignited gas fumes in his garage, causing an explosion and fire. Fighting for his life for seven days, he was taken off the critical list for the first time this morning at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Richardson, left a managerial position at Edgewood a month ago to become vice president and manager of Hillcrest Golf and Country Club near Mount Clemens.

Blood donations are being referred to the Pontiac Elks Lodge, which is handling donations through its blood bank.

Richardson was connected with various other golf clubs in the county and was manager of the Pontiac Country Club before going to Edgewood.

The Hillcrest owners have assured him he will remain on the payroll until he is able to assume full time duties once again. A close friend, Jack Hoffmann, ex-pro at Edgewood now at Hillcrest, is planning to promote a benefit dance at Hillcrest for Richardson.

The employes and management at The Hub Clothiers, where Richardson worked in the offseason, have offered to back any benefits planned and are expecting to make a donation to the fund later this week.

Richardson served in the Air Force during World War II and currently holds the rank of major in the Air Force Reserve.

He and his wife, Donna, have two children.

UAW, Teamsters Win Court Appeals

Town and Country, Inc., Escanaba General Motors dealer.

Unanimously, the Supreme Court held that Congress had reserved exclusively to the National Labor Relations Board the right to seek injunctive relief where a dispute hinged on alleged unfair labor practices.

The NLRB has the right, under the Taft-Hartley Act of 1947, to relinquish jurisdiction to states whose laws are consistent with federal law, but had not done so, the justices found.

By then declining to exercise its exclusive jurisdiction in disputes failing to measure up to certain economic yardsticks, the federal board left a "no-man's land situation," they continued, with neither employers or employes having a remedy as to a large number of unfair labor practices.

Fair From Rockies to Atlantic

Mild Weather Prevails

By The Associated Press

Dry and fairly mild winter weather was the outlook for most areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast today.

Showers dampened Western sections of the country and cooler air moved into northern California and the Pacific Northwest. It also was a little cooler in parts of Minnesota.

Considerable sunshine and generally southerly winds warmed nearly all of the Midwest and East Monday. Southwesterly Gulf winds sent temperatures rising in Florida.

Temperatures were higher than 24 hours earlier in nearly all areas east of the Rockies, with the greatest warming in a belt from northern Alabama and northern Georgia northward through the Virginias into Pennsylvania, Ohio and the Great Lakes.

Rain diminished along the Pacific Coast, with heaviest falls continuing along the central California coast. Light rain fell throughout southern Idaho.

Light drizzle sprayed eastern sections of Texas while light snow was reported in the lower Great Lakes region and northern New England.

Return to Command Is Eyed by Straley

By MAX E. SIMON

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley indicated yesterday he is uncertain of his future role with the Pontiac Police Department, but that he is operating on the assumption he will be restored as department commander.

Straley, stripped of his powers Nov. 12 by Public Safety Director George D. Eastman, has since been attached to Eastman's staff on "special assignment."

His two assignments have been to prepare an analysis of the Public Administration Service (PAS) report, which was highly critical both of Straley and the department, and a report on vice in Pontiac.

The chief has turned in his vice report, but is still working on the PAS report analysis.

Straley said yesterday, "I've never been in a position like this before. It's so unusual — I don't know what to make of it.

"I've served the city well for seven years and suddenly I find myself removed from command. I've had several talks with the city manager. I asked him why I was removed. But he has never given me an answer.

"When I asked him about it last week, he told me: 'Things will straighten out.'"

Straley said he had never discussed resigning with City Manager Walter K. Willman and had never been asked to do so.

Straley has said that he would never resign, and if the city wished to oust him, it would have to file formal charges before the Civil Service Commission.

"With my many years of experience, I feel I could be of great assistance in handling department problems. But I'm not called on to do so and I don't know why," the chief said.

Straley said he was operating under the assumption that he would be restored as department commander but had "no idea" when this would be.

"That's up to them," he explained, referring to Willman and Eastman.

At an informal City Commission meeting Friday night, Willman indicated a showdown on Straley is coming.

"I don't want to see the chief hurt if it can be avoided. He's served the city for seven years," Willman told the Commission in getting an informal agreement from the Commission for more time before deciding on Straley's status.

"A little more time won't hurt," Willman said. The Police Department troubles, after all, have been going on for quite a while."

Willman refused to specify whether he had in mind retaining Straley or bringing removal charges against him before the Civil Service Commission.

He refused to say whether he had discussed resignation with Straley.

New York Will Hike Gas Tax as 1st Step

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—New York State will raise its gasoline tax by two cents a gallon within a few weeks. It also may increase the income tax and raise its tax on cigarettes.

That was the outlook today as the legislature's Republican high command moved swiftly to carry out a call by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for higher taxes to balance a record budget of nearly two billion dollars.

After weeks of hinting, Rockefeller revealed last night he had decided the gasoline tax must be increased from four to six cents a gallon.

He had said previously there would be a 230-million-dollar deficit unless additional revenues were found.

167% Sales Gain for 1959 Ramblers Proves:

It Takes Built-In Rambler Quality To Give You These Built-In Savings

by GEORGE ROMNEY
President, American Motors Corporation

Recently, I overheard two men talking about cars. One said, "I'm just sick. I paid $5,000 for my car and in less than six months it rattles and squeaks like a milk wagon. And they can't seem to do anything about it!"

Unhappily, this is a remark that is heard far too often. A recent survey showed the greatest number of complaints about the big cars centered on gasoline consumption. Next came complaints about squeaks, rattles, poor workmanship, "poor body construction."

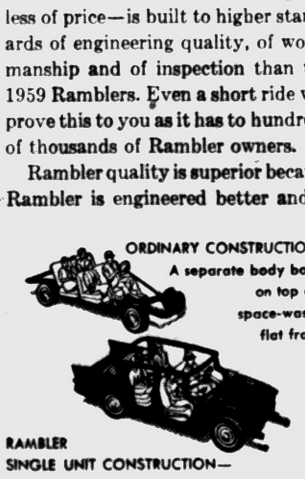

Rambler Owners are Happier because of Rambler's Finer Quality

By contrast, all-round satisfaction of Rambler owners was far higher than that of owners of any other make surveyed, all of whose cars cost more than Rambler. That's because no car manufactured in America—regardless of price—is built to higher standards of engineering quality, of workmanship and of inspection than the 1959 Ramblers. Even a short ride will prove this to you as it has to hundreds of thousands of Rambler owners.

Rambler quality is superior because Rambler is engineered better and is built with the basically superior construction method used in jet airliners, streamlined trains, transcontinental buses.

Single unit construction is the only modern, efficient way to build anything that needs to move swiftly, economically and comfortably. It gives more room without bulk. It has far greater torsional strength and rigidity, while reducing cumbersome, gas-wasting weight.

So, we invested $50,000,000 in new plant facilities to build cars this new and better way. As a result, hundreds of thousands of Rambler buyers have saved tens of millions of dollars on first cost, maintenance, fuel and depreciation.

ORDINARY CONSTRUCTION—A separate body bolted on top of a space-wasting flat frame.
RAMBLER SINGLE UNIT CONSTRUCTION—All-welded, strong, safe, gives more room with less bulk.

Safer Single Unit Construction

Passengers in cars with old-type construction ride above and outside the frame (see drawings at lower left). In Rambler, with single unit construction, structural girders surround the passenger compartment, making it much safer in case the car is struck from the side. Big box-girders also extend forward to protect passengers and engine from impact.

Now Even More Miles Per Gallon

For 1959, Rambler has a new, costlier, gas-saving carburetor which delivers up to 2 more miles to the gallon.

"Deep-Dip" Rustproofing and Wide Use of Costly Aluminum Save You Money

No other low-priced car gives you rustproof aluminum window frames, nor "Deep-Dip" rustproofing. And for 1959, Rambler has added costlier aluminized mufflers and tailpipes to give years more service.

Rambler Alone Offers Personalized Comfort

Inside Rambler's compact, easy-to-park exterior is full room for six big men, including plenty of legroom for the "middleman." That room is even more usable with new Personalized Comfort. Front seats are sectional sofas that glide back and forth individually, so driver and passenger can each adjust legroom to his comfort. Other exclusive comfort features include Airliner Reclining Seats, adjustable headrests and Twin Travel Beds.

Stricter Inspection Standards

"Not how many, but how well built," is our motto. Our employees are conscientious participants in this program. They build cars carefully and inspect every one thoroughly before it goes to a Rambler dealer for delivery to a customer.

Highest Quality— Highest Resale

You can ask no better proof of the true quality of a product than the price it will bring as a used car on the open market. According to both nationwide authorities, the Red Book National Market Reports and the Official Used Car Guide of the National Automobile Dealers Association, Rambler has the highest resale value of any low-priced car.

The Rambler Star is Soaring

As other cars grow bigger, heavier and more costly (yet with less usable passenger room), Rambler sales go higher. 1958 Rambler model sales were 88.6% above 1957. And already, sales of 1959 Ramblers are 167.4% above 1958 sales for the same period.

Who Will Be the Boss— You or Your Automobile?

In many families, the question is as simple as that. The expense of owning and operating a big, gas-hungry car can literally take control of the family finances and wreck the household budget. If you want to own your car instead of its owning you, you will be wise to see your Rambler dealer. See how the 1959 Ramblers, while not neglecting styling and comfort, have been built to "last longer" rather than to "look longer." You will not only save a substantial sum of money, you will have a finer quality car that is more fun to drive.

George Romney

Rochester Takes Offer of Land

Council Accepts Site Owned by Parke, Davis for Water Tank

ROCHESTER—The village council last night accepted the offer made by Parke, Davis & Co. to give the village a site for a new elevated water tank.

The location of the property is adjacent to Parkdale road east of the village limits.

Besides giving the village a site, the company will share in the cost of the tank and feeder main based on a contractor's price not to exceed $34,815. The council accepted the proposition on the condition that soil tests prove satisfactory to support the tank.

In other action, the council accepted the bid of Larry Jerome for two new police cars to cost $2,198.50 for both cars with two trade-ins.

Council members heard Maurice Richmond of the State Health Department explain the need for additional treatment at the sewage plant. Hunt for Bomb in Troy School

Building Evacuated by Students While Police, Faculty Search

TROY — Troy high school students had a brief holiday yesterday afternoon while police searched for a bomb "in the lockers."

An anonymous phone call to the school office reported a bomb planted in the lockers.

Police and school personnel checked the locker rooms and at 2:05 p.m. evacuated the school so the search of individual lockers could be made without the hindrance of heavy outer clothing.

Police Chief David Grattop said a plan prepared after his department assisted at an Avondale school bomb report last year paid off.

The hunt was quickly completed because master keys and lock combinations were immediately available.

Rex Smith, school superintendent, said that to ward off attempts on the part of students to dodge classes through such calls, the board has adopted the policy that lost class time must be made up at a later date.

The investigation is being continued at the school today.

Blood Bank Scheduled at Rochester Church

ROCHESTER — The blood bank will be at St. Andrew Catholic Church Tuesday, Feb. 3, from 2 to 8 p.m., Mrs. Russell W. Nowels, blood relief chairman and coordinator of the Oakland County American Red Cross for the Rochester area, announced today.

PREPARES FOR EXHIBIT — Displaying one of the ink drawings to be featured in the first exhibit in the new art building at Michigan State University Jan. 25 to Feb. 17 is Miss Ann Nutzhorn of Romeo. The drawing, called "Big Bear, the Fisherman at Sea," is one of several done by Hungarian-American artist Francis de Erdely for Miss Nutzhorn's late uncle, James B. Giern, who befriended the struggling young artist when he came to the United States during World War II.

Local Paintings to Be Loaned for Exhibit at MSU Jan. 25

BY LEE WINBORN

ROMEO — Anyone who ever knew the late James B. Giern knew his love of art and the uncanny gift he had as a collector to recognize greatness in talented young painters.

Giern, who died shortly before Christmas, had been planning for a year to lend some of the paintings in his collection to Michigan State University for an exhibit Jan. 25 to Feb. 17. It will be the first exhibition in the new art building on the campus at East Lansing.

The featured artist in this one-man show will be Francis de Erdely, internationally-known Hungarian artist whom Giern befriended in the early 1940s.

The story is told by Giern's niece, Ann L. Nutzhorn, who lived with her uncle and was his only relative. She said de Erdely was born in Budapest in 1904 and studied art at the Royal Academy there and later in Paris.

At the age of 20, he exhibited his works in Budapest. His fame spread, and he was commissioned to a portrait of Queen Maria-Christina of Spain.

The son of a Hungarian nobleman, de Erdley also painted and studied in Singapore, Brussels, Antwerp, Ghent and Bruges. In 1937 he returned to his homeland. With the rise of Nazism, he left Hungary to seek refuge in England and then in Detroit in 1940.

ACTS AS BENEFACTOR

It was at the Scarab Club in Detroit that Giern first met de Erdely. His interest aroused, Giern helped support the young artist until his reputation was established in the United States.

For many years Giern gave a prize for the best etching at the Annual Exhibition of Michigan Artists held at the Detroit Institute of Arts. De Erdely won the prize in 1943.

Art critics began acclaiming de Erdely as the "Van Gogh of Hungary," and among the honors he received was a citation from the former Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. for a poster he painted for the fifth war loan.

His war pictures, critics said, were painted "as if he had arrived on the scene only a few minutes after the enemy left." He also painted still lifes with the same sensitivity, they said.

ILLUSTRATES STORIES

Giern's and de Erdely's mutual admiration for each other, Miss Nutzhorn said, was evidenced by the charming pen and ink drawings the artist did for several stories Giern wrote. The stories are not yet published.

The collection to be exhibited includes 12 oils, 8 drawings — mostly crayon and ink sketches, all framed — and 9 other unframed drawings, five of them the story illustrations which have never been exhibited before.

The refugee-artist became an American citizen in 1944 and is now art professor at the University of Southern California.

MECCA FOR ARTISTS

Giern, who was 73 when he died, lived on a farm north of Romeo after he retired from business in Detroit. The farm became a mecca for new and established artists from all over the metropolitan area.

Now his niece is carrying on with the projects her uncle started during the past decade.

"He left a legacy of art appreciation that his friends and associates will long remember," Miss Nutzhorn said.

Farmington Board Okays School Salary Schedule

FARMINGTON — The board of education approved a new administrative salaries schedule for principals, the elementary school coordinator and assistant superintendents at last night's meeting.

The new schedule sets a school principal's maximum salary at one and a quarter times that of a teacher with a masters degree. Salaries of other central office personnel will be set up similarly on a lesser scale yet to be determined.

The board also approved the advertising for quotations on furniture and equipment for two new elementary schools now under construction.

A resolution on the qualification of the 1958 bonds was also passed. The bonds for 1½ million dollars, approved by voters Mar. 10, have not been sold yet, according to school Superintendent Gerald V. Harrison. And state qualification is necessary before they are marketed, he said.

The board also appointed two new teachers for the second term and accepted the resignation of Donald Burrel, eighth grade mathematics teacher at the junior high school, who was called into military service.

The new teachers are Constance Herrala, graduate of Western Michigan State Teachers College, who will teach kindergarten at the Middlebelt Elementary School, and Daniel P. French, also a graduate of Western, who will teach math at Farmington Junior High School.

ROCHESTER — New moderator of the First Congregational Church here is A. R. Munson who was elected during the recent annual meeting held at the church. Clerk for 1959 is Mrs. Earl Kohl, and treasurer is Leslie Gilmore.

Dinner was served before the business meeting, which also featured election of officers.

Pontiac Township Board OKs Temporary Facilities

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — The township board last night took one of the essential steps toward construction of adequate facilities to handle sewage disposal at Michigan State University Oakland and the adjacent area.

Board members adopted a resolution approving the servicing of the temporary sewage disposal plant planned for the MSUO.

This action matches that taken recently by the Avon Township Board in an effort to have some facility to dispose of waste ready by the time the first unit at MSUO opens next September.

The two boards are following the recommendation of a group of townships, county and state officials who met Jan. 7 with two members of the Michigan Dept., of Health to discuss the sewage disposal problem at MSUO.

The meeting was called by Roy Hardy, charman of the Utilties Committee of the Avon Township — Pontiac Township Planning Commission.

The group learned that the State Health Dept. will allow construction of a temporary sewage disposal plant as long as it fits into a master plan to be developed for the entire county.

This plant, Hardy said, could be expanded to one-million gallon capacity as the need arises.

"This will take care of the university and Auburn Heights," Hardy told board members, "And, if you don't approve this proposition now, you won't ever get it as cheaply again."

Board members then adopted a resolution to appropriate $1,250 to help pay for the services of Robert Hotaling, MSU urban planner, who is acting as advisor to the Planning Commission.

This action was taken upon the request of the commission itself which made a similar request of Avon Township.

The pressing problem of locating more street lights in the township was raised at the meeting. A motion was made to install one at the intersection of Perry street and Walton Blvd.

The board then tabled action on other suggested locations until the next regular meeting when the lighting committee is to have completed its survey of the township.

The minutes of the last electrical board meeting were read and the matter of registration fees for contractors was tabled until the results of a meeting of the Oakland County Reciprocial Electrical Council are known. The council meets tomorrow night in Pontiac City Hall.

Other action taken by township board members included the expression of their intentions to comply with basic state law and begin work on a building code for the township.

Some forty persons attended the meeting which lasted approximately four hours.

Township Association Convenes

LANSING (AP) — Some 500 township officials are in Lansing today for the sixth annual convention of Michigan townships association.

Joseph A. Parisi Jr., the group's executive director, reports a number of panel discussions have been set up to discuss municipal problems.

Special attention will be given to problems of taxation including assessing, equalizing and allocation, elections and annexation, and incorporation and consolidation.

The graduated state income tax plan recommended by the citizens tax advisory committee will be discussed by Dr. Raleigh Barlowe, a Michigan State University economist.

A state tax equalization panel will feature Louis Nims, chairman of the state tax commission; Edward W. Kane, the commission's secretary; and E. Sheldon Markle, the commission's director of field administration.

Gov. Williams is scheduled to get the three-day convention under way with a formal address to the delegates.

Utica Residents Ask Blast Cause

Suspect Jet Breaking Sound Barrier in Jarring Evening Roar

UTICA—Police in the Utica area were swamped with calls early last night from residents wanting to know what kind of an explosion had jarred their homes.

The alarmed citizens called police in Shelby Township, Utica, the Macomb County Sheriff's Dept., and Romeo State Police to learn the nature of the blast which occurred at about 6:30 p.m.

Firemen were alerted while police went out to check but no tangible evidence of a blast could be found. A jet breaking the sound barrier was suspected.

Shelby police called Selfridge Air Force Base and officials there said they had no record of a plane breaking the sound barrier although they had two planes flying in the area at the time of the incident.

Two residents had reported hearing planes before the blast, police said.

Pioneer Home Flaunts Modern Era

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Flanked on all sides by advancing modern development, the Percy King mansion in Waterford Township stubbornly refuses to merge with its unorthodox surroundings.

Situated on the oldest of Centennial Farms in Oakland County, the solidly built home stands as a defiant monument to Mrs. King's ancestors, the Huntoon pioneers who settled the farm in 1831.

The Kings, Percy, 80, and his wife, Grace, 77, (nea Huntoon)—have witnessed remarkable changes in and around the old house on Williams Lake road over a span of more than four generations.

Years ago, when road-building engineers laid out Airport road, they ran into difficulties. The Kings refused to allow their home to be destroyed for a right-of-way. Rather than start condemnation proceedings, the government detoured Airport road around the 14-room residence.

The home stands starkly today, trying to compose its splendor amid new gas stations, gigantic subdivision developments, a cement factory and an outdoor movie theater.

It all began 127 years ago when Mrs. King's pioneering ancestor Josiah Huntoon of New York, received a 640-acre grant in Michigan from the Federal Government.

Little did Huntoon know that the parchment-deed signed by the President of the United States would turn out to be a paradise of richly wooded land and scenic hills dotted with fresh spring-fed lakes.

ARRIVED IN 1831

When the family arrived in the area in 1831 by oxen-driven covered wagons, land was cleared and the first of three homes was constructed.

As the years progressed, the crude log cabin was repiaced by a six-room frame house, then the present early Victorian structure was erected in the center of the family's land.

One of the most colorful of all the various family members to live on the property, was Mrs. King's great uncle Phineas Huntoon, she recalls.

Phineas decided to build the biggest and best house in the whole county—so he joined the big rush to California in 1849, and soon accumulated enough gold to return and make good his promise.

Nothing was spared in building the present house, truly a showplace in its heyday, Mrs. King said.

There were unheard of cement sidewalks and an iron-spiked fence surrounding the gracious home. Fine walnut wood shutters were installed inside and out, with only the best cabinet-makers hired to do the work. Later, it was the first house in Oakland County to have electric lights.

The present Kings admit that things aren't like they used to be with "spanking white horses pulling their shiny black surrey." However, they are enjoying the luxuries of modern day miracles.

They are momentarily awaiting the delivery of a brand new television set, with remote controls, "so we won't have to get up to shut off unfavorable commercials," she concluded.

REFUSES TO SURRENDER — The Centennial Farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy King at 6028 Williams Lake Rd., Waterford, stands starkly unbending to its present-day surroundings. Once, grandiosely situated in the middle of a 640-acre estate the proud, Victorian-style farmhouse is hemmed in today by modern homes, gas stations, a factory and a drive-in movie. Like the Oakland County pioneers who settled the land in 1831, the house continues to master its environment.

Editor's Note: Centennial plaques are awarded to people whose ancestors have lived on the land continually for one hundred years or more.

There are many farms in Michigan that are more than 100 years old, but the fact that they have changed hands during the years makes them ineligible for the recognition.

The Detroit Edison Co., Consumers Power Co. and the Michigan Historical Society have united in making the presentations possible.

The society collects the facts, and the two companies pay for having the plaques made and installed. Inmates at Jackson Prison paint the individual signs.

Didn't go along with the voting which won Jimmy Brown the "Outstanding Player Award" of the National Football League.

Our vote went to Johnny Unitas, the "cool-cucumber" of the Baltimore Colts who was a master-engineer with a powerful right arm for coach Weeb Ewbank.

In the championship game against the Giants, Ewbank admitted it was the only game in which the bench failed to call at least one play.

Unitas called every single play and who can argue with the result? The Giants stopped Brown in three games, no one stopped Unitas in 13.

Six Aquinas Players Disciplined

Tidwell Scores 37 for 'M'

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Bill Perigo, Michigan's basketball coach, discovered last night exactly what had been wrong with John Tidwell's scoring eye—nothing.

The slender 6-3 sophomore, jittery in his first three Big Ten games, erupted for 37 points as the Wolverines beat Wisconsin 84-74. The victory jammed the Wolverines atop the conference standings with Indiana and Illinois. Each has a 3-1 league record.

Tidwell, a scoring whiz in non-conference games with an average close to 20 points, went into a mild slump at the start of the conference campaign.

Last night he made Perigo a prophet.

"Tidwell should be as good a soph as there is in the Big Ten," Perigo said before Michigan embarked on its conference schedule.

"Sophs are pressured. But it doesn't seem to affect him at all."

Tidwell's 37 points were the second greatest accumulation ever tallied by a Wolverine in a single game. M. C. Burton scored 38 last month against Butler.

The Wolverines now enter the examination break. They don't play until Jan. 28 when they meet Washington of St. Louis. Their next conference game is Jan. 31 against Iowa.

Little did coach Ray Null realize what would happen when he disciplined six of his players by booting them off the Aquinas college basketball team yesterday.

After all things weren't going too well for Aquinas anyway. The Grand Rapids team had lost four straight. So with makeshift lineup of five varsity holdovers and two hastily recruited reservists Aquinas broke its losing streak by beating Olivet 82-68 last night.

Null put six of his players on probation before the game when he learned they had been drinking on a road trip to Alma last week. He confronted the players and they admitted breaking training.

It was the second time in recent months that drinking has created a furor in Michigan College athletics. Frank (Muddy) Waters dropped several players from his Hillsdale football team when they admitted breaking training. Hillsdale rebounded to win its next game—as did Aquinas.

In another basketball game last night, Central Michigan scored an easy 73-41 victory over Ferris Institute.

Jim Orr of Steelers NFL's Rookie-of-Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Jimmy Orr, an unheralded offensive end who gained stature with the Pittsburgh Steelers as the season progressed, today was voted the National Football League 1958 Rookie-of-the-Year in a close race with Bobby Mitchell of the Cleveland Browns.

The 5-11 native of Seneca, S. C., who did his college playing for Georgia University, received 16 votes of the 41 football writers voting in the annual Associated Press Poll. Mitchell, the speedy halfback who started the season as if he were going to run off with first year honors only to slow down in the final weeks, received nine votes.

In all, nine freshmen were nominated. Los Angeles tackle Lou Michaels, Baltimore halfback Ray Brown and New York halfback Phil King received four votes each. Single votes went to tackle Alex Karras of Detroit, quarterbacks Mack Reynolds and Dale Meinert of the Chicago Cardinals and halfback-end Bill Anderson of Washington.

Orr, drafted by the Rams, caught Pittsburgh coach Buddy Parker's eye in an exhibition game when he grabbed a touchdown pass against the Steelers. Shortly thereafter, Parker made a deal for him for a future draft choice. It turned out to be one of the best trades Parker made.

The 21-year-old Orr, who weighs only 185 pounds, caught 33 passes, seven of them for touchdowns and gained 910 yards, an average of nearly 28 yards per catch. His grab of a 78-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Bobby Layne beat the Cardinals.

"Orr proved a valuable addition," said Parker. "He has a wonderful pair of hands and has deceptive speed. I expect big things from him next season."

The youngster leaves shortly for army service and will serve six months under the reserve program. He went to Clemson on a basketball scholarship but after one year switched to Georgia where he starred in football.

Mitchell, 23, got away winging for the Browns. He accumulated 17 yards in his first nine games, getting most of his yardage on long runs. The Illinois grad shone brigest on kickoff and punt returns. He ran back a kickoff for a 98-yard touchdown against Philadelphia and another time he scampered 68 yards for a score against Los Angeles after picking up a blocked field goal attempt.

Supreme Court Affirms Orders for Dissolution

New Group Maps Plans for World Heavyweight Title Fight

NEW YORK (UPI)—A new promotional group mapped plans today for a world heavyweight title fight at Madison Square Garden within three months while attorneys for the International Boxing Club considered means of partially reviving the IBC from its knockout by Uncle Sam.

Young Bill Rosensohn of Los Angeles reportedly heads the new promoting outfit; and Kenneth C. Royall of New York, former secretary of the army, heads the IBC attorneys who were slated for a meeting today with Truman Gibson, IBC president, and other IBC officials.

The attorneys and IBC officials were to discuss the advisability of asking New York's federal district judge Sylvester J. Ryan to "soften" some of the dissolution orders of his 1957 monopoly decree, which was affirmed yesterday by the U.S. Supreme Court at Washington.

Judge Ryan's sweeping antitrust decree provides that James D. Norris and Arthur M. Wirtz, longtime principals in the IBC, must sell all their stock in New York's Madison Square Garden corporation. And they must also dissolve the IBC Clubs of New York and Illinois.

When the supreme court upheld that decree, it delivered a knockout to the IBC, and it gave the government final victory in its six-year fight to bust the monopoly.

But it left the boxing world in an atmosphere of uncertainty — of hope mingled with doubt — doubt that the powerful Norris group, which had nearly absolute control over the fight game since May, 1949, would actually yield that control.

Optimistic Jack Dempsey said at Chicago the supreme court decision produced a "new birth" for boxing. The ex-heavyweight champion said it "will take the hobble chains off boxing and put the small clubs back into operation."

But in New York, Cus D'Amato — manager of heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson — said, "although I'm over-joyed at the decision, I'm also sure that the IBC now will try to attack me more viciously and aggressively than ever before — since they no longer have any reason for restraint — no longer have to pursue a soft-pedal policy while awaiting the supreme court's decision."

D'Amato, a crusader against the IBC, claims that the Norris outfit has persistently tried to interfere with Patterson defending his title for independent promoters.

Whether there's any basis for D'Amato's lingering suspicions will be determined when the Rosensohn group attempts to stage Patterson's next title defense as an independent operation at the garden.

Rosensohn prompted Patterson's last defense against Texas Roy Harris at Los Angeles, last Aug. 18. Young Bill is a former executive of the Teleprompter Corporation, which televised the Los Angeles fight to theaters in the United States and Canada.

Rosensohn was at the ringside in London last night when England's Henry Cooper became a world-title challenger by winning the British and empire championships from fellow-countryman Brian London. It's expected that Cooper will be the garden challenger if he accepts a reasonable guarantee.

Vossler Fires 273 for Victory, Record

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

TIJUANA, Mex. (AP) — Golf's professional wanderers today headed for Bing Crosby's big show at Pebble Beach next weekend with a new name and a new record written into the books here.

The name was Ernie Vossler of Midland, Tex., and the record was the 72-hole score of 273 which netted him victory in the $20,000 Tijuana Open yesterday.

Four pros, Vossler, Tommy Bolt John McMullin and Jay Hebert, were deadlocked as they turned into the final nine holes.

Former U. S. Open champion Jack Fleck placed third with a 68 for 276 and $1,400. Hebert and Mike Fetchick tied at 277 for $1,150 apiece. Mike Souchak's 71 for 278 earned him $1,000.

Shamrocks Aim to Clip Ravens

SCL Rivals Collide Tonight at PCH; Ritas at Orchard Lake

Highland Park St. Benedict cagers pay their first visit of the Suburban Catholic League season to Pontiac, tonight, and St. Michael's is taking aim at them in hopes of chalking up their 4th win. Mikemen and Ravens meet only once this winter.

St. Benedict now shares 2nd place with St. Frederick, which is idle tonight. St. Michael occupies the spot just back of this pair. The club coached by veteran mentor Art Massucci is always a tough opponent, and Jim Niebaur's Shamrocks expect a close, exciting scrap on the big PCH floor.

Unbeaten St. Mary of Orchard Lake is host to St. Rita tonight, and will be gunning for its 5th consecutive victory, as SCL's top team.

"We think we can get through the Ravens' zone defense, if that's what they use on us," Niebauer commented. "And I believe our style of play will be effective," he added.

Ravens will return to Pontiac on Feb. 6, for their 2nd tilt with the Rams, who administered their only defeat this year.

Game time is 7 p.m. for the preliminary and 8:15 for the varsity contest.

Tonight's starters:

ST. MICHAEL		ST. BENEDICT

Chuck Steinhelper	F	Ed Everhardt
George Drake	C	Art Massucci

Jewelers Upset, 76-71

Sports 5 Surprises Again

Soprts Shop, which last week upended the defending champion Lakeside Royals in the Class A City League basketball race, turned the upset tables again last night at Pontiac Central.

This time the Sports Shop quintet made Shaw's Jewelers the victim with a 76-71 triumph. All five of the Sports Shop starters hit double figures, led by Mel Taylor and Felix Brooks with 17 points apiece. Shaw's Dave Diehm took game honors with 22.

The Royals returned to their winning ways yesterday with an 84-75 victory over the Knights of Columbus. Five Lakeside players broke into double numbers with John Jackson leading the way on 20 points as the Royals hiked their record to 4-1. Bob McManus scored 18 for the Knights.

Monday's two Class D games at Lincoln were both runaways with one falling in the upset class. Boys Club handed Welden's its first loss in the American division, a 47-28 drubbing, and Eastside Shopping stayed undefeated in the National loop with a 38-15 rout of Coca Cola.

Gene Gidcumbe tallied 13 points to spark the Boys Club's surprise win over Welden's. Bill Davis netted 10 for the losers. Dexter Jarrett's 10 points paced the Eastside cagers to their easy conquest of winless Coca Cola.

Sawchuk Chosen First Team Goalie

Howe, Richard Not Among 'Stars'

DETROIT (UPI)—The National Hockey League all-star team for the first half of the season was full of surprises but the biggest saw superstars Gordie Howe and Maurice (Rocket) Richard not even making the second team.

The all-star team, announced out of Montreal today by NHL president Clarence Campbell, has two Detroit Red Wings on the first team—goalie Terry Sawchuk, who saw the red light flash six times behind him Sunday, and defenseman Marcel Pronovost.

Montreal took three places on the top unit—left wing Dickie Moore, center Henri Richard and defenseman Tom Johnson. Right wing went to New York's Andy Bathgate.

Not even Doug Harvey, first team selection for the last seven years, could make the second team. Jacques Plante, Canadiens' goalie who has a 30-goal Vezina Cup lead over Sawchuk, was named to the second team along with defensemen Bill Gadsby of New York and Fern Flaman of Boston, center Jean Beliveau of Montreal and wingers Bernie Geoffrion of Montreal and Alex Delvecchio of Detroit.

Howe and Richard, the two highest scoring players in NHL history, had a virtual lock on the right wing berth for the past 14 years. Bathgate held a 20-point margin over Geoffrion, the league's top scorer, and Howe had 40 of a possible 90 points. Richard got only three votes.

A first team berth is worth $1,000 to each player and his club usually matches that. Second place is worth $500 apiece. The team is selected by sports writers and sportscasters from the six NHL cities who will vote again at the close of the season with the cumulative points deciding the positions.

Only Henri Richard and Moore, linemates along with the Rocket, were holdovers from either the final voting last spring or the midway voting a year ago.

Sawchuk outpolled Plante, Vezina winner as the league's stingiest goalie the past three season, by 75-66.

The first and second all-star teams with the number of points polled in parenthesis:

FIRST TEAM	POS.	SECOND TEAM
Terry Sawchuk, Detroit (75)	Goal	Jacques Plante, Montreal (66)
Tom Johnson, Montreal (60)	Def	Bill Gadsby, New York (52)

NYC Railroad Makes Profit

President Says Final '58 Totals Will Cancel 11-Month Deficit

NEW YORK (AP) — Final figures will show that the New York Central Railroad made a profit in 1958, President Alfred Perlman said Monday.

For the first 11 months of 1958, the road reported a deficit of $1,135,900 compared with net income of $8,218,221 in the same months of 1957.

Perlman told a news conference the break-even point had been reduced from 3,900,000 freight carloadings a year to 3,172,000 cars. He admitted, however, that part of this improved efficiency "was accomplished at the expense of work we would like to have done."

In 1959, Perlman said, the road expects a 7 per cent increase in business, which he described as no great boom. The Central president added, "I don't feel the corner has been turned yet on heavy industry."

"With competition for American steel and other products from foreign countries, there has been no great pickup in industrial production in our territory." But, he is very hopeful industrial production will pick up.

UAW, Chrysler Contract Talks Open in Canada

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union and Chrysler Corp. of Canada began negotiating on a new contract here today under the threat of a potential strike.

The union said Chrysler workers have voted 98 per cent in favor of a strike the bargainers fail to reach agreement.

UAW workers at Ford of Canada plants in Windsor, Oakville and Toronto voted yesterday to accept a new contract agreed upon by the company and union.

Negotiators reached agreement Sunday four hours before the workers were due to strike. A settlement was agreed upon when union and company representatives conferred for 32 hours in a marathon bargaining session to avoid the walkout.

MARKETS — Trading Heavy; Prices Uneven

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices milled unevenly in heavy early trading today.

Changes of key stocks were mostly fractional, a few going as much as a point.

The market was moving just below the latest record high reached Friday. Technical resistance to a further rise developed.

U.S. Steel was off about a point despite the fact that steel production last week was at the highest level since October 1957. Other major steelmakers showed little change.

Higher copper prices in domestic and world markets failed to spur prices of copper shares, which were mixed. Kennecott was down a fraction, Anaconda up slightly.

Superior Oil of California rose 55 points to 1,830 in further response to officially voiced hopes of a higher dividend.

GM of Canada Decides Not to Build Vauxhall

LONDON (UPI)—General Motors of Canada has decided against producing the Vauxhall Victor, a medium-sized English car, on grounds it can be made more economically in England.

A spokesman for Vauxhall Motors said today the Canadian firm had decided the project would be uneconomic because of higher labor and material charges.

Pittsburgh Glass Strike Perils Chrysler Output

DETROIT (AP) — Full scale auto production at Chrysler Corp. is being threatened by a three month strike at 11 plants of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Pittsburgh also supplies glass for American Motors Corp. and some of the glass used by the Ford Motor Co. American, however, has found another source of supply and Ford has increased production at its own glass works.

Chrysler was unable to estimate how long its available glass supply would last.

5 School Bond Bids Opened in Clarkston

CLARKSTON — Five bids representing 25 companies were opened at last night's board of education meeting for the sale of one million dollars worth of bonds for construction of the new Clarkston High School.

These bonds, known as Series Number One of 1958 Bond Issue, were awarded to the low bidder, the First of Michigan Bank and Associates, at an average interest rate of 3.9 per cent.

Balance of the bonds, totaling one and a half million dollars will be offered for sale at a later date, according to Superintendent Dr. L. F. Greene.

Albion Glass Plant, Union Sign Contract

ALBION (AP) — The Albion plant of Corning Glass Works has signed a new contract with the American Flint Glass Workers Union.

Company and union officials said the pact provides a wage increase of 5 cents an hour, or 2¼ per cent, whichever is greater, retroactive to Dec. 1. Improved fringe benefits also are provided.

Spacemen May Settle for Home on Sahara

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The notion that earthlings some day will colonize the moon and Mars may seem fantastic.

But it is entirely reasonable to suppose, a current scientific report says, that, by exploring, spaceman will learn how to make better use of his own planet.

This view is expressed in a report on "astronautics and its applications" prepared by the Rand Corp. for the House Space Committee.

After some 50,000 words on space technology, dealing with everything from rocket propulsion to bases on the moon and Mars, the report says:

"It has been suggested that extraterrestrial residences may be a long-term solution to the problem of accommodating the enormously increasing population of the earth.

"This notion, while not entirely out of the question, does exert something of a strain on credibility.

MORE LIKELY SOLUTION

"However, it can probably be fairly asserted that developments for extraterrestrial bases may help by disclosing ways of dealing with unfavorable environments and thereby effectively enlarging the amount of usable land area on the earth."

The idea apparently is that after establishing bases on the airless and arid moon, and on nearly airless and mostly arid Mars, coping with something like the airy but arid Sahara would be pie.

The Rand Corp. is no science fiction outfit. It is an organization of scientists and engineers under contract to the Air Force.

Because of its "reputation for integrity and independence," the House Committee asked it to make "an authoritative study" of the "present and definitely foreseeable state of the art of space flight."

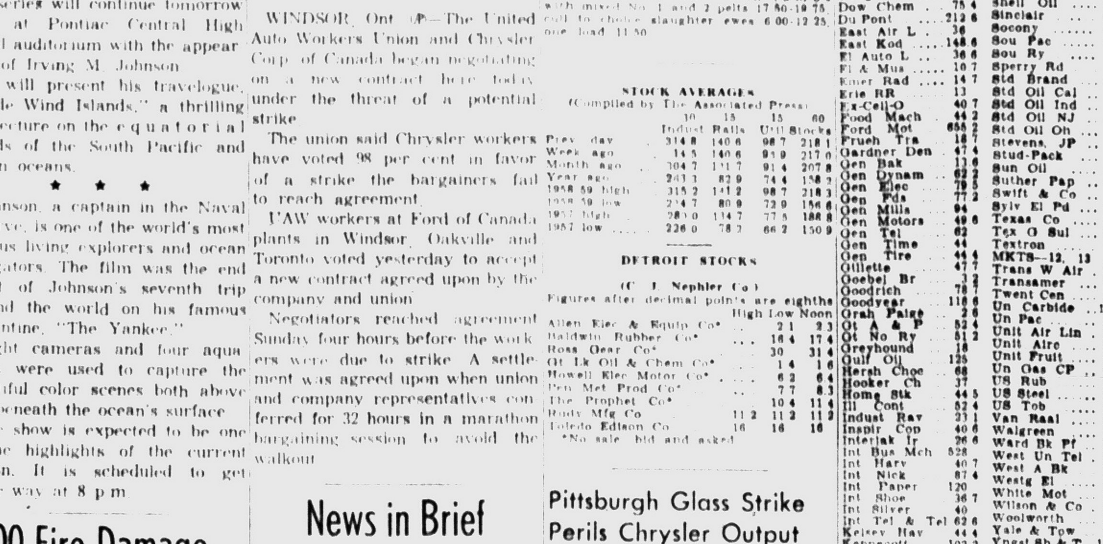

Reintroduce Du Pont Bill in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. Allen Frear Jr. (D-Del) has reintroduced a bill to provide that Du Pont company stockholders need not pay income tax immediately on their share of General Motors stock received from Du Pont.

The Supreme Court two years ago ruled in the government's favor in the Du Pont-General Motors antitrust case. The Justice Department is proposing that Du Pont now just distribute its 63 million shares of General Motors stock to the Du Pont stockholders.

Frear said yesterday that under present law Du Pont's 194,000 common stock holders would have to pay about 700 million dollars in income taxes upon receipt of the General Motors stock.

His bill would knock out any such tax, although a Du Pont stockholder still would have to pay a tax on the General Motors stock when he disposed of it.

Although manufacturers' sales in the metalworking industry declined in 1958 because of the recession, it is still the country's largest industry. At an estimated 119.5 billion dollars, sales were 15 per cent below the record 140.5 billion dollars of 1957, but still were the fifth highest on record. In the year-by-year comparison above, ordnance is not included, because the government does not reveal figures on it. But that classification accounts for only a small part of production for defense. Many defense items fall under other classifications, such as transportation equipment or instruments. Data here are from the Office of Business Economics, U.S. Dept. of Commerce, with figures for 1958 estimated by Steel magazine.

interest payment dates on and after the following dates, to-wit: Bonds maturing in the years 1963 and 1964, on and after June 1, 1963, and bonds maturing in the years 1969 to 1982, both inclusive, on and after June 1, 1968. Bonds called for redemption prior to maturity shall be redeemed at par and accrued interest plus a premium on each bond in accordance with the following schedule:

$50 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1963 but prior to June 1, 1968.

$25 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1968 but prior to June 1, 1971.

$20 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1971 but prior to June 1, 1974.

$15 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1974 but prior to June 1, 1977.

$10 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1977 but prior to June 1, 1980.

$5 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1980.

Notice of redemption shall be published not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the City of Detroit, Michigan, which carries as a part of its regular service, notices of the sale of municipal bonds. The remaining bonds will not be subject to redemption prior to maturity. Both principal and interest will be payable at such bank or trust company as shall be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds.

The bonds are to be a part of a total issue of $2,000,000 voted for the purpose of defraying the cost of erecting and furnishing a new Junior High School building, new elementary school buildings and additions to existing school buildings, remodeling existing school buildings or portions thereof, and acquiring sites for school buildings, and will be the general obligations of the school district which is authorized and required by law to levy upon all the taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay said bonds and the interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from February 1, 1959 to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the school district. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than their par value, will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $13,000 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the school district must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Dickinson, Wright, Davis, McKean & Cudlip (Claude H. Stevens, of Counsel), attorneys, Detroit Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of said legal opinion and of the printing of the bonds will be paid by the school district. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."
