Reigns Over State

Studying American Courts

JAMAICAN JURISTS — The view from Oakland County's Courthouse is a topic of conversation as Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore points out landmarks in three visiting lady judges from Jamaica. The jurists (from left, Mrs. Ena Blance Allen, Joyce Glover and Mrs. Ena Joyce Woodstock, toured the Court House yesterday and other county facilities with Judge Moore as their guide. They are visiting this country to compare the U.S. legal operation with Jamaica's system.

Jet Carrying 94 Vanishes in India

BOMBAY, India (AP) — An Italian jetliner carrying 94 persons vanished in a heavy downpour today while approaching Bombay's Santa Cruz Airport. Hours of search failed to reveal any trace of the aircraft.

Alitalia Airline headquarters in Rome said they assumed the DC8 had crashed. The airliner, reported carrying 85 passengers and 9 crewmen, was flying from Sydney, Australia to Rome.

Hours later there was still no trace of the airliner, which could have gone down in mountainous terrain surrounding Bombay or in the Arabian Sea, which lies only two miles from the airport.

It was not known whether there were any Americans aboard. The plane set out from Sydney with stops scheduled in Darwin, Singapore, Bangkok, Bombay, Karachi, Tehran and Rome.

The Indian government alerted all planes flying in and out of Bombay to keep a close watch for the missing plane, which reportedly last contact near Aurangabad, 200 miles northeast of here.

Thunderstorms and cooler temperatures are predicted.

Mon day will be different. Thunderstorms and cooler temperatures are predicted.

Morning southerly winds at less than 1 mile per hour will become southerly at 10 to 18 miles Sunday.

No Break Seen Soon in Doctors' Strike

REGINA, Sask. — The doctors' strike against Saskatchewan's compulsory medicare plan ended its first week today with no sign of a break in the deadlock that has left the Canadian province with only emergency medical service.

A move was afoot to force suspension of the medicare act until its validity is tested in the courts.

A hearing was set for Tuesday on the petition of three Saskatchewan residents for an injunction seeking to suspend further activity by the administering Medical Care Insurance Commission until the courts rule on its legality.

Both the socialist government of provincial Premier Woodrow Lloyd and the doctors have expressed willingness to negotiate, but the two sides appeared far apart on basic issues.

The government has refused doctors' demands that the compulsory medicare act be suspended before they return to their jobs.

MAY CALL LEGISLATURE

The government has indicated it might call a special session of the legislature to deal with the question of the doctors' right to practice outside the medicare plan at a later date.

But provincial authorities insisted that the doctors call off their strikes before the legislature convenes.

Meanwhile the provincial college of dental surgeons came out last night in support of the doctors. Dental care is specifically excluded from the medicare plan except for surgical operations.

Dr. H. L. Clark, president of the Saskatchewan College of Dental Surgeons said dentists would continue to provide normal service "as far as possible."

He explained however that dentists already were handicapped by lack of anesthetic facilities and pointed out that operations even of a minor nature could not be performed in some cases without medical case histories.

Waterford Carrier Honored

Scholarship Awarded by Press

The fourth Pontiac Press carrier in as many years will begin his school in Michigan State University today. The carrier, Jerry L. Johns, 18, of 2480 Maplecrest Drive, Waterford Township, is this year's recipient of a Pontiac Press college scholarship.

The scholarship will pay a total of $1,200. With MSU's new seven-semester system, the money can carry Jerry through to graduation.

A graduate this June of Waterford-Kettering High School, Jerry has been a Pontiac Press carrier since he was 14 years old.

He was named to receive the scholarship on the basis of his record.

WELCOME TO MSU — Scholarship winner Jerry L. Johns (middle) is introduced to MSU's Press scholarship winners, Phillip G. Williams, 18, of 805 E. Main St., at left, and Warren Cooch, 19, of 368 Hillcrest St., both now attending MSU.

Delay Second Above-Ground Test Exposition

Shot to Be First Since '58 in Atmosphere at Nevada Site

CAMP MERCURY (AP) — A nuclear weapon blast was scheduled above ground today at the Nevada test site. Another was postponed. Weather conditions caused a 24-hour delay.

Today's remaining firing — a few feet above the ground — was of a low yield device with a power up to 10 kilotons, equal to 20,000 tons of TNT. It was considered a possible forerunner of rumored tests next week using troops in battlefield conditions.

The government has refused doctors' demands that the compulsory medicare act be suspended before they return to their jobs.

Today's was the first atomic shrapnel shot scheduled for Nevada since 1958 when the United States, Great Britain and Russia agreed to halt nuclear testing. This country resumed testing after Russia broke the pact, and American atmospheric tests have been made recently in the Pacific.

Secrecy surrounded today's activities. All roads into the site were closed.

The military nature of the shots was indicated by a statement that the Department of Defense, not the AEC, would conduct various experiments to analyze the effects of nuclear explosions.

One of the devices was described as a weapon possibly a forerunner of the test set for next week.

SECRECY IN STRICT

The AEC said radioactivity from the shots would be monitored at distances up to 300 miles, but predicted that off-site radiation would be well within established limits.

Strict secrecy like that imposed after the shot of May 14, 1961.

WINS TITLE — Dimpled Carole Jean Van Valin, 18-year-old June honor graduate of Roscommon's Gerhart-Higgins High School and already holder of the title of National Trout Queen, is the new Miss Michigan. She was selected last night from a record field of 35 contestants.

Brainy Beauty Miss Michigan

MUSKOGON — Carole Jean Van Valin, an intellectual bathing beauty whose talent hinged around a bit of Upper Peninsula folklore, was crowned last night Miss Michigan of 1962.

The top prize was worth an estimated $5,000 to the 18-year-old June graduate of Roscommon High School, who was also selected National Trout Queen last April 28 at the National Trout Festival in Kalkaska.

The Miss Michigan awards included a $1,000 scholarship, more than $1,000 in clothes, a $500 television set and an all expense trip to the Miss America contest in Atlantic City, N.Y., in September.

Playing last in the contest was Mary Koberly, 18, of Waterford Township, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Koberly of 2339 Italian St.

Miss Van Valin, who was judged winner of the bathing suit competition at the pageant's first night Wednesday, also has free use of a 1962 automobile for the next year.

APPLAUD DECISION

The decision of the judges was applauded heartily by some 4,000 spectators at the final of the annual Miss Michigan pageant held at Muskegon.

Talented vocalist Jean Ann Heyer, a student with the Michigan State University Symphony Orchestra, was first runner-up. She represented Montcalm County.

Finishing next in order were Shirley Sheppard of Dowagiac as second runner-up, Audrey Jean Bauman of Elkhart as third runner-up, and an upper Michigan candidate, Catherine Chawki of Marquette, was fourth runner-up.

Sixty candidates in the field of 35 girls were Miss Fling-Jobilee Vonderberg, as Miss Congeniality. The title brings the Netherlands immigrant a cocker spaniel puppy and a $150 scholarship.

STRESSING FLEXIBILITY

At a news conference Friday, McNamara stressed the flexibility of U.S. nuclear strategy and said "we have a force so large that we can be certain that it can absorb a full first strike by any potential enemy and survive with sufficient power to destroy the military capabilities of that potential enemy."

"This permits us, should we choose to do so, to apply... strategy that would direct the surviving force... against the military targets of that potential enemy."

McNamara added: "I emphasize the word 'permitted' as however, rather than stating that it would be necessarily planned to be used in that fashion."

Hold It, Sarge! Mom Wouldn't Care for That

LONDON (AP) — Three British Army recruits are going into the army next week with their mothers.

The mothers will remain at the army camp only one week. Their sons, all volunteers, will stay considerably longer.

The mothers will go on special invitations from the British Army. "We aim to show the mothers exactly what goes on in the early days of a recruit's training," explained Maj. Edward Smeeden, a Royal Engineers adjutant.

The mothers and sons are Mrs. Olyven Billett and her Eric, 19; Mrs. Grace Collingworth and Barry, 19; Mrs. Joyce Bowler and Neil, 18.

"When Eric told me he was joining the army, I told him he must be out of his mind," Mrs. Billett said.

Getting into something with all that getting up early and discipline. Then they invited me to come and see for myself."

Mrs. Collingworth, who said her work with the army will be her first week away from housework for 25 years, told a reporter: "I want to see their kitchen."

Towers Planned in Denver Also

Three-Building Project to Be Similar to One Announced for Detroit

CHICAGO (AP)—The head of a mortgage concern said today plans are being made for building three 60-story circular buildings in Detroit and also in Denver.

Charles R. Swibel, president of Swibel & Co., said Marina City type projects are being planned in both cities.

Marina City — two 60-story, circular towers — is approaching completion on the north bank of the Chicago River at State Street.

Swibel is associated in that undertaking with William McFadden, President of the Building Service Employees Educational Union, and Bernard Edelman, architect.

APPROVAL ASKED

The Detroit and Denver projects would involve three buildings instead of two.

"In Detroit," he said, "we have asked FHIA preliminary approval of the site and studies."

The Marina City in Detroit would add the Detroit Civic Center. Swibel said the cost would be about $36 million.

One of the buildings would house a hotel and the other two would contain a total of about 1,000 apartments.

The buildings on the Detroit River would be complemented by gardens, a 3-hole pitch-and-putt golf course, a swimming pool and other features.

Swibel mentioned no dates for starting the projects.

N-Blast in Nevada Is Set for Today

Today was expected to black out news about next week's test, scheduled possibly for Tuesday or Wednesday.

Published reports said an undisclosed number of soldiers were expected from Ft. Lewis, Wash., over the weekend to prepare for the secret maneuvers, believed to be the first of their type here since 1955.

On May 5 of that year, a 30-kiloton device was exploded about a 500-foot tower. Manned tanks were sent into the area to maneuver under the resulting radioactive clouds.

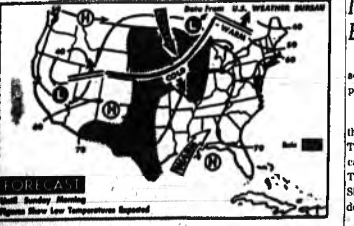

Two years earlier, on March 17, 1953, a 16-kiloton device was set off on a 300-foot tower while troops huddled in trenches two miles away.

Writ Protecting Soblen From Return

Wrangle Looms Over Runaway Spy

LONDON (AP)—A complex legal wrangle loomed today over the return of a Soviet spy, Robert Soblen, after he was granted a writ of habeas corpus by a British court.

A writ of habeas corpus granted by a high court judge Friday kept the 62-year-old fugitive safe for at least another 10 days.

Soblen himself lay in the hospital behind the grim gray walls of London's Brixton Jail—protected, for the moment, by one of the oldest laws of England.

A writ of habeas corpus granted by a high court judge Friday kept the 62-year-old fugitive safe for at least another 10 days.

Earlier he had fled to Israel on a forged passport after an American court rejected his appeal from the life sentence.

Before American officials could act Friday on the writ that Soblen's lawyers well enough to leave, Soblen's lawyers got the writ of habeas corpus.

This is one of the most jealously guarded writs in English law. Literally, it means "produce—the body."

Romney Hits 'Use' of President's Office

By The United Press International

George Romney said today there was improper use of the presidential office in plans by state Democrats to hold a $100,000 a plate brunch for President Kennedy.

The Republican gubernatorial candidate said:

"I certainly think that the whole incident involved improper use of the presidential office. And I don't believe it advanced as far as it did without the top people in the state knowing about it."

However, Gov. John B. Swanson has disclaimed any connection with the $100,000 affair. "It wasn't generated from this office," Swanson said.

Golf Pro Shop Hit by Thieves

Edgewood Country Club Burglarized; $1,550 in Merchandise Missing

Burglars who broke into the pro shop at the Edgewood Country Club in the Greenwood Township escaped with an estimated $1,550 in golf equipment, clothing, checks and cash during the night.

Two watchmen who were on duty at the golf club at 8:39 p.m. Sunday told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies they heard no noises in the pro shop all night.

The break-in was discovered at 6 a.m. when Paul Van Loosen, the club's head professional, found the door open.

He said missing merchandise included 45 shirts, 12 jackets, 14 golf balls, several golf clubs, a golf bag, $50 in cash and about $200 in checks.

Sheriff's deputies said thieves got into the shop by cutting open a screen and entering through an unlocked window. They escaped the same way, officers said.

Stolen 'Hippo' Is Too Hot for Boys to Handle

Seven young boys have found sculptor Thomas Brun's $500 hippopotamus too hot to handle.

They admitted today they took the 50-pound marble statue on Thursday from the Detroit artist's cabin at 1608 Lombard Lane, Avon Township, after questioning by Sheriff's detectives Alphonse Anderson and Everett Fredericks.

The detectives said the boys who live in the area also admitted breaking into the cottage and removing other valuables in three separate trips.

The hippo is on its way back to its owner, the detectives said.

Young Bandit Holds Up Shop at Miracle Mile

A young bandit armed with a pistol yesterday got away with $200 in loot from the Fanny Farmer Candy shop at Miracle Mile Shopping Center, Bloomfield Township police reported.

Police said the hoodlum showed a saleswoman to floor and held her head down to prevent her from looking at him. The woman was Mildred Ray of 7028 Hatchery Road, Waterford Township.

$100-Million Bid May Go to Area Chrysler Plant

DETROIT (UPI)—Chrysler Corp. is one of the leading bidders and may be in a good position to land a $100 million missile contract for the Detroit area. It was learned today.

The contract could provide thousands of jobs at the Chrysler Missile Plant in Sterling Township, said, "I'm sure the Chrysler's experience will be to their advantage."

U.S. Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., whose Seventh District includes the Sterling Township plant, said, "I'm sure the Chrysler's experience will be to their advantage."

Either was used in the civilian world as an aerospace within six months after his first successful demonstration in Boston in 1886. Always.

START AUDITORIUM — A lone power shovel did the ground-breaking honors yesterday as it took a healthy bite of ground where the County Service Center Auditorium will be south of the new courthouse. Construction of the $631,812 structure is to be finished by next spring. It will serve as a meeting place for the County Board of Supervisors and as a public meeting place for other purposes. A wing connecting it with the courthouse will contain offices permitting withdrawal of all county activities from the downtown Pontiac area.

Sterling Twp. Boy Is Drowning Victim

A 5-year-old Sterling Township boy drowned early yesterday in 2 1/2 feet of water at Metropolitan Beach.

Arthur C. Schacht of 4016 De Quindre Road was wading with other youngsters when he apparently fell.

The body was found by two teenage girls. Attempts at artificial respiration were unsuccessful.

The boy had gone to the beach with his mother, Margaret Schacht.

State, U.S. Hunt Missing Corn

6 Million Pounds Are Missing From Elevator at Lake Odessa

LANSING (UP)—Federal and state agencies joined in an investigation today to determine how about 6 million pounds of corn vanished from a grain elevator at Lake Odessa.

The corn was owned by private farmers and the Community Credit Corp. as part of the price support program.

Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley said yesterday he would take court action to prevent further removal of corn stored by the Woodbury Grain Co. at Lake Odessa. He set the shortage at 5,864,799 pounds, valued at $110,000.

State elevator inspector J. Edward Monette was making a routine check of the Woodbury elevators yesterday when he stumbled onto the shortage. Records and furniture also were missing.

Monette was blocked in his attempt to check the contents of an elevator at the Michigan Grain Co. at Decatur when he found all the doors locked. He said the elevator has been padlocked since June 30.

Heavy opposition to the project has been voiced by residents living in the area that it would serve. Most claim that new sewers would be an unnecessary expense. Cost of the project has been estimated at $180,000. If the city would assume 20 per cent of the cost, it would cost each property owner approximately $250.

The Day in Birmingham

Public Hearing Delayed on Proposals for Sewers

BIRMINGHAM — A public hearing on the proposed Chester, Wallace and Lincoln relief sewers has been postponed until the fall.

The hearing had been scheduled for Monday but because some of the property owners involved agreed on vacation it will not be held until September or October, according to City Clerk Irene Hanley.

A public hearing was held June 11 but a decision by the commission was deferred and the hearing adjourned until July 9.

Heavy opposition to the project has been voiced by residents living in the area that it would serve. Most claim that new sewers would be an unnecessary expense. Cost of the project has been estimated at $180,000. If the city would assume 20 per cent of the cost, it would cost each property owner approximately $250.

Beginning tomorrow Masses for parishioners of the recently organized St. Owen's Catholic Church in Bloomfield Township will be held at the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School, Quanton and Wing Lake roads.

Mass will be said at 8 and 10 a.m. according to Father Edward T. Walling, pastor.

Originally, Mass had been held at the Wing Lake School but the response from parishioners has been so great, said Father Walling, that it has been necessary to move to larger quarters.

Until a parish rectory is built, Masses will be held at the Wing Lake School.

Oxford Lions Plan Installation at Fete

OXFORD — Harold Van Vleet, 736 S. Lapeer Road, Oxford Township, will be installed as the new president of the Oxford Lions Club at the club's annual Presidents' Night dinner tonight.

Other officers recently elected are Louis Corryell, school board treasurer, first vice president; Alan R. McMillan, 58, mechanic, second vice president; and J. C. Webster, 18 1/2, first St., third vice president.

David Parrish, 11 Hudson St., will succeed Don Avery as administrative secretary. Avery had held the post for 14 years. Earl Neighbors will continue as financial secretary. New treasurer is Kenneth E. Marks, 600 Sebek Road, Oxford Township.

Joseph Kennedy Leaves Hospital, Flies to Hyannis

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Joseph P. Kennedy, father of the President, was discharged from a New York hospital today and was flown to his summer home.

The former ambassador, who suffered a paralytic stroke last December, came to Cape Cod in the family plane, the Caroline.

The President met him at Hyannis Airport, and with the President at the wheel of an open convertible, they drove immediately to the beach home.

To Cut Bus Service on Courthouse Run

Daily bus runs from downtown Pontiac to the County Courthouse will be cut from eight to five beginning Monday, according to Neil Pilson, manager of the Pontiac Transit Co.

Runs to be discontinued will be those leaving downtown at 9:45 and 11:45 a.m. and at 1:15 p.m. The remaining runs are 6:15 and 8:45 a.m. and at 2:15 p.m., 3:45 and 4:45.

Sir Winston Shows Slight Complication

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill, recuperating from a thigh fracture, showed early signs Saturday night of phlebitis in his left leg.

Phlebitis is inflammation of a vein.

A bulletin issued by Middlesex hospital said:

"Sir Winston Churchill had a comfortable night. There was no sign of phlebitis in his left leg and the appropriate steps have been taken to deal with the condition."

Land Grab New Threat to Algeria

and disillusioned by the land-grabbing move of Morocco's King Hassan II. But the Ben Khedda regime appeared powerless to move against the Moroccan occupation until it had set its own house in order, and the Algerian leadership split was as wide as ever.

Rebellious Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella, the radical leftist who split with the Ben Khedda regime in 1960, had been ousted in a steady drumfire of criticism of the Algiers regime from his base in Cairo.

In an apparent play for military support, he accused Ben Khedda of wanting to liquidate the 140,000-man Nationalist army and the "popular revolution." Defining economic policies, he said:

"Frankly, I mean socialism."

In Rabat, Mohammed Khider, a Ben Bella supporter who resigned from Ben Khedda's cabinet last week, accused Ben Khedda of trying to seize power in Algeria illegally. Khider said that Ben Bella supporters have entered possession of the Algerian Nationalist legion in the Moroccan capital.

The Moroccan move was disclosed only three days after Algeria was proclaimed independent from France. Algerian officials moved into several desert posts in the area of Tindouf and Colomb Bechar.

Low on Gas? Try the Supermarket

Auto Service Revolution at Hand

(Editor's Note — Not many gas stores are dispensing gasoline as yet but the day may come when auto parts and service already have moved from the traditional garage and gas station into a host of unlikely areas and the trend is continuing.)

By BEN FLEGAR
Associated Press Automotive Writer

DETROIT — The revolution in retailing which has begun to take place in the five and ten cent stores is reaching the foundations of the automobile service business and it is far from over.

In many areas you can buy parts at the drug or food store, tires at the dime store, gas at the supermarket and have your car greased at the city's leading department store.

During the fall and winter an increase in sale at almost as many stores as well cigarettes.

Not many places to take your car when you need repairs or service — the auto dealer, the independent garage or the gas station. The dealer got most of the major work. The gas station rarely figured in anything more serious than a change of oil and a grease job.

But today the dealers and the independent garages combined account for only a fraction over half of all major repair work. The rest goes to the service stations and the new specialty operations.

Almost every major department store now offers auto service. The dealer got most of the major work. The gas station rarely figured in anything more serious than a change of oil and a grease job.

CONTINUING TO EXPAND
Sears and Roebuck, the two general merchandise chains which pioneered the entry of otherwise non-automotive businesses into the auto service field, are continuing to expand their operations. Sears sells its own brand of gasoline in some markets.

The automobile manufacturers are trying to help their dealers counter the trend. General Motors, for example, has spent thousands of dollars publicizing its "Guardian Maintenance" program which urges owners of GM cars and trucks to seek service from their dealers.

But they also recognize the potential growth of service business outside their dealerships. Irving A. Duffy, vice president of Ford — general products group, noted in a speech last winter that service stations and specialty shops have steadily increased their percentage of total service work.

GOP Candidate Slate Speeches

Opponents for County Legislative Posts to Appear in Township

Five Republican candidates for county legislative posts and a state candidate for lieutenant governor have confirmed appearances at an upcoming political meeting in Independence Township, Clerk Howard Altman said yesterday.

Three GOP senatorial hopefuls — incumbent Farrell Roberts, Richard Kahn and Robert Huber — will be on the program with two rivals for the Republican 1st District representative seat — incumbent Lloyd Anderson and Michael Carl.

Also slated to appear in state Sen. John Stahlin, a GOP candidate for lieutenant governor.

The six politicians will take part in a panel discussion and debate at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Independence Township Hall, 90 N. Main St., Clarkston.

Another prominent candidate may appear on the program, Altman hinted, but his name was not disclosed.

Altman said each participant would be allowed several minutes for an opening statement, followed by rebuttals, and a two-minute summary after a question-answer session with members of the audience.

The meeting, sponsored by the Independence Township Republican Club, is open to the public free of charge.

Official Urges Denial of Lewandowski Appeal

LANSING (AP) — Russell A. Seel, assistant attorney general, has filed a brief asking the State Supreme Court to deny a request of Joseph A. Lewandowski of Hamtramck that it overrule a Bond of State Canvassers decision denying him a spot on the ballot.

The board held that Lewandowski, former Hamtramck mayor and municipal court judge, did not file enough valid signatures on his nominating petitions to qualify as a Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor.

Waterford Fires for 1962 Exceed January-June '61

Though fewer alarms were received by the Waterford Township Fire Department during the past month as compared to June 1961, total alarms for the first six months of this year far exceed those for the January-June period in 1961.

This year 46 alarms were taken in June while 53 were received a year ago during the same month. Total for the first six months of 1961 was 322 compared to 461 for the corresponding 1962 period.

An unusually dry spring this year resulting in an abnormal number of grass fires accounts for most of the difference in the 1961 and 1962 activity.

Total monetary loss in fires during the first six months of this year amounted to $118,325 compared to $83,350 a year ago.

and "they can probably expect a larger slice of a much larger market in the future."

Much of the new emphasis is on faster service. Surveys which disclose the switch to specialty shops and gasoline stations emphasize a major reason has been a desire for speed — new mufflers in 15 minutes; new brakes in an hour or less, rather than tying up the car for a full day.

PRICE IS FACTOR
Another factor is price, especially in the booming parts departments of discount centers. One major spark plug manufacturer says a discount chain advertiser noted in a speech last winter that service stations and specialty shops have steadily increased their percentage of total service work.

Another hot price item in many stores is the sealed beam headlamp while antifreeze has been popular discount merchandise for several years.

Union Carbide, which makes and markets Prestone, biggest seller among permanent antifreezes, this year is suggesting service stations sell the product at a considerably lower price and charge separately for installing it.

Department stores and some service stations also provide simpler credit than many new car dealers offer. The typical car dealer will have a customer finance a major repair bill through a bank or a loan company whereas a department store normally has an established credit system.

Some service stations permit major purchases, such as tires, to be financed for six months without extra charge.

James J. Clarkson, a Schenectady, N. Y., dealer, in a speech to the National Automobile Dealers Association convention this year, pointed out dealers "across the board" charge approximately 18 per cent more on average for replacement parts and labor than do service stations.

He maintained there still is a market for quality service, but that the dealers must first be sure they are giving such service and then make the public aware that they are.

The service battle is far from over. Whatever the result, the man most certain to benefit is the consumer.

Suspect in Arson Changes Guilty Plea

A Pontiac man withdrew his plea of guilty yesterday and chose to stand trial on a charge of setting fire to the house of a woman friend.

Lemmie Suval, 37, of 409 S. Edith St., withdrew his plea before his scheduled sentencing on an arson charge by Circuit Judge William Reer.

Judge Reer entered a plea of innocent for the defendant. Trial will be probably scheduled next fall.

Suval allegedly set fire to the home where he was living following an argument with the home's owner, Mrs. Louise Stroman.

Police estimated damage at $4,500.

Ex-Exchange Chief Dies

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (AP) — Clyde Paul, former governor of the Philadelphia Stock Exchange, died Friday. He was 61.

Author Sought to Explain

Yoknapatawpha Is 'Myth'

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Yoknapatawpha County is on the border between the land hills covered with scrubby pine and the flatlands of the Mississippi and its tributaries.

Its population of 15,611 persons is scattered over 2,600 square miles.

The mythical county and all of its 15,611 people belong to William Faulkner—sole owner and proprietor.

It is the setting for the turbulent world created by the Nobel Prize-winning author, who died Friday.

Little distinguishes Yoknapatawpha and its county seat town of Jefferson from many actual towns and counties of the Deep South. In some ways Yoknapatawpha County and Jefferson are like Lafayette County and Oxford, Faulkner's home.

The author drew heavily upon his native locale and the people for his invention of Yoknapatawpha.

Faulkner invented Yoknapatawpha County and Jefferson in 1929 in "Sartoris" in three subsequent books—"The Sound and the Fury" (1929), "As I Lay Dying" (1930), and "Sanctuary" (1931)—he added many geographical and historical details.

NOT ALL FICTION

The rest of his career was largely devoted to an exploration of the not entirely fictional domain.

Yoknapatawpha at the time of the Civil War was dominated by Col. John Sartoris, an overbearing man who raised a regiment and galloped off to Manassas. Demoted by his own men, he returns to Jefferson, raised a new troop and galloped off again. The war over, he built a railroad and was shot dead by a second.

William Cuthbert Falkner, the author's great-grandfather, raised a volunteer regiment which he headed at the first Battle of Bull Run. Like Col. Sartoris, William Cuthbert Falkner was demoted from his command at a yearly election of officers. Returning to Oxford, he assembled more soldiers and again went off to war.

William Cuthbert Falkner also built a railroad after the Civil War to link the area with the community of the Middle South. He, too, was shot to death.

Author Faulkner was born Faulkner, but a printer's error inserted the "u" in his first published work and he retained the different spelling the rest of his life.

Yoknapatawpha County of the 20th Century depicts a period that Faulkner regards as one of moral confusion and social decay. Violent images in his novels of the contemporary Southern life convey a sense of despair.

Faulkner will be buried today in Oxford in a cemetery described in the author's own words in "Sartoris."

IFK's Studying 'Nonpolitical' Trip West in August

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is considering what the White House called a nonpolitical trip west in August.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said yesterday that if he goes, Kennedy would inspect "a number of important reclamation projects."

Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California said after calling on Kennedy yesterday that the President wanted to make a western tour this summer and might participate in ground-breaking ceremonies at a reservoir project in his state's central valley.

Kennedy said he will campaign later this year, and California is one of the states in which he most likely would take the stump.

Brown said yesterday he was not yet ready to announce whether Kennedy actually would speak in his behalf in California. Brown is opposed for reelection by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

JFK Congratulates Record-Setting Pilot

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — President Kennedy has congratulated an Air Force helicopter pilot on setting a distance flight record held by the Russians.

Kennedy's message commanding Capt. Chester R. Ratcliffe of Buffalo, N.Y., was released on board his jet Friday as the President flew from Washington to Hyannis Port for the weekend. Ratcliffe flew an Air Force 1433B Hinkle rescue helicopter 900 miles from Ogden, Utah, to Springfield, Minn. Thursday.

This beat the old record of 781 miles established by the Soviet Union in 1960. It is the fourth world helicopter record recognized by the United States Air Force within the last nine months.

To Speak on Safety at Council Meeting

Donald Kraft, safety director of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, will discuss late safety measures and controls at Tuesday's meeting of the Greater Waterford Community Council.

Candidates seeking nomination in the August 7 primary election are also slated to appear at the meeting to state their views.

Kraft will cover state laws governing lake use and will also outline county recommendations on water safety.

The meeting, scheduled for 8 p.m. at Pierce Junior High School, is open to the public.

"Place of Dissatisfaction," Pastor's Sermon Topic

"How To Be A Mature Christian" is the topic for the sermon that Dr. Milton H. Bank will preach during July at Central Methodist Church. "Not Good If Detached" was the title of the first sermon in this series which Dr. Bank preached last Sunday.

During the summer Sundays

To Discuss Topics at Town-Country Leadership Event

EAST LANSING — Agricultural policies, minority groups, community development and world affairs are among topics scheduled for study at a Town and Country Leadership School July 16-27 at Michigan State University.

About 150 Protestant ministers from many denominations in the Midwest are expected to participate in the 16th annual program at MSU's Kellogg Center for Continuing Education.

The conference is designed to provide small town and rural pastors with increased understanding of the wide range of problems confronting them daily as spiritual leaders and counselors in their communities.

Other areas slated for discussion include social disorganization, mental health, problems of the aged, interchurch cooperation and rural community change.

Special sessions will be held for accompanying pastors' wives in exploring their particular problems.

The conference is a continuing education activity of the MSU Committee on Church Related Programs.

Youths Join to Form an Interchurch Team

EINDHOVEN, Holland U.S. — A group of Protestant and Roman Catholic youths have formed an interchurch team to "give visible and lasting form" to friendship started at a recent ecumenical youth conference.

The new group will do social service work and meet to study the movement for Christian unity and to discuss doctrines and practices. Their first project is a joint campaign to sell Bibles.

Mrs. Rudy Schelling and Mrs. Warner Schelling will sing a duet. Mrs. Charles Barch at the piano.
Giving the invocation will be Mrs. Norman Schmuck. Carol Wood will lead responsive reading. The pastoral prayer will be by Mrs. Earl Hall. Other prayers will be offered by Mrs. Loyd Edwards.

MISSOURI-SYNOD Plans Expansion of Education
During the Missouri-Synod Convention of the Lutheran Church in Cleveland, Ohio last week, members authorized the expansion of the Synod's educational system in resolutions to establish a new $7 million junior college in Southern California.
They also ruled to study the feasibility of establishing a senior college in the western area of the United States, and to purchase a site in the Southeast, preferably in the Atlanta, Ga. area for a junior college.

Mission work will be started in Portugal as a special project of the Brazil District of the Synod. Mission work will also be started in Bermuda.

Attending from the Pontiac area were Paul Stohmann, principal of St. Trinity Lutheran School, Auburn at Jesse Street; Rev. Norman Kuck, pastor of Gethsemane Church, Brookfield and lay delegate Robert McWilliams of St. John Church, Rochester.

Pastor Claus to Start Study

Members of St. Trinity Lutheran Will Hear Sermons on "Prayer"

Pastor Ralph C. Claus of St. Trinity Lutheran Church will begin a series of studies on "Prayer" at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday. His subject tomorrow will be "Christ's Teaching of Prayer."

Bible Class for adults and Sunday School is scheduled for 9:45 a.m. St. Trinity is located at 318 Auburn Ave.

Pastor Claus said as a result of the Supreme Court Decision concerning prayer in public schools he is elated to find so many people vitally interested in the spiritual matter of prayer.

"I find that the interest in prayer is not only among the sick and those in trouble, but also among people who are apparently healthy and in no particular difficulty," he said.

"People everywhere must guide their interest into what the Bible teaches concerning prayer," he added.

Campus Notes

Thomas Nesbitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nesbitt of Whittemore Street, who just completed his junior year at Olivet College, Olivet, received the Pontiac Alumni award annually given to the students from Pontiac showing the greatest progress.

Robert G. Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dawson of Acot Street, Waterford Township, has been accepted for admission to David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tenn., as a first term freshman. He plans a premedical major.

Two students from the Pontiac area were named among the scholastically high ranking students for the spring quarter at Michigan College of Mining and Technology, Sault Branch. Receiving better than a "B" average were Richard R. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smith of Red Mill Drive and I. Raymond Robinson, son of Mrs. Mary Madden Robinson of Eason Street.

Rhoda C. Goldberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Goldberg of James K. Boulevard, graduated from Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, N. Y. with a bachelor of science degree in art with education qualifications and with dean's list honors. In the fall, Miss Goldberg will be studying at Michigan State University for her masters degree in art education.

Henry E. Kieffer is among the 50 winners of scholarships from the Educational Fund for Children of Phillips Petroleum Company Employees. The awardees for 1962 were selected from 143 candidates who had qualified to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board. He may take the scholarship to any accredited college or university of his choosing. Parents of the recipient are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kieffer of Woodland Drive.

Pontiac area students receiving degrees from Harvard University at June commencement exercises were, from Birmingham: John W. E. Bing, bachelor of arts; David C. Campbell, bachelor of arts; Peter A. Cartwright, bachelor of laws; Dale B. Fruman, bachelor of arts; Charles R. Hummel, master of business administration; Robert S. Ketchum, bachelor of laws; Gordon D. Lapidus, bachelor of laws; Joni E. Lysett, bachelor of laws; David M. Roby, bachelor of laws; and Richard G. Russell, master of business administration.

Others were Gerald L. Thorpe of Auburn Heights, master of arts in teaching; Henry W. Vaillant of Bloomfield Hills, doctor of medicine; and Phillip M. Hubbard Jr. of South Berkshire Road, master of business administration.

Couple Wed 50 Years To Mark Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Castor will observe their golden wedding anniversary at an open house Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. in their home on East Cornell Avenue.

Planning the affair for their parents are the Louis W. Castors of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Castor, the Leland D. Castors, Lynn L. Castor, of Pontiac and the Ray Slaughters of Sanders Place, Bloomfield Township. The couple has 11 grandchildren.

Members of the couple's bridal party will honor the Castors, July 15, at a reception in the United Presbyterian Church, Weatherly, Mo., where they were married July 14, 1912.

Donna London, Henry Costantino Exchange Vows in Ceremony Today

Donna Joy London of Sherbourne Road, Waterford Township, exchanged vows with Henry A. Costantino of Williams Lake Road, before Rev. Giles E. Barlow, today in Our Lady of Refuge Church, Orchard Lake.

The Robert H. Londons came from Tulsa, Okla., for their daughter's wedding followed by a garden reception in the Watkins Lake home of the Walter W. Lagerquist.

Alonzo lace accented the bride's neckline of the bride's gown of white silk tulle, styled with skirt of unpressed pleats and chapel sweep.

MRS. HENRY A. COSTANTINO

Obligation Can Be Paid Later

By The Emily Post Institute Q: My father who lives in another city recently took sick and I was called home to take care of him. I was gone about three weeks.

During this time friends and neighbors were very kind to my husband, inviting him to meals or sending food into the house for him. I am very grateful to these kind neighbors and friends and would like to know how I can show proper appreciation for their kindnesses.

A: It is not necessary to do anything except to second your husband's thanks for their kindness to him while you were away, when you see them. Later if you should be able to do anything in return for these kindnesses, you will of course gladly do so.

Q: Our two children, four and five years old, have their dinners with the family in the dining room. Ordinarily their plates are served first because they are slow in eating. Should this same practice be followed even when we have guests, or could that possibly be considered rude to put the children of the family before guests?

A: You may properly serve your little children's plates first, explaining that you are doing so because they eat so slowly.

Q: My husband and I are taking a cross-country trip by car and will pass through certain cities in which we have friends. Most of them we haven't seen in years. I think it would be a splendid opportunity to renew these old friendships. To avoid missing them when we're in their towns, could we write ahead and give them some idea when we expect to come through? Would this obligate them to anything?

A: If you write ahead of time they will probably feel that they should invite you to at least a meal. For this reason it would be better to wait until you arrive in their towns and then telephone to see if they are home and say that they would like to stop by to see them for half an hour or so.

Q: My son is to be married shortly to a girl whose home town is 250 miles from here. The bride's mother has asked me for a list of guests to be invited to the wedding. It seems foolish to me to send invitations to a people that I feel sure cannot travel that distance to the wedding.

Would it be proper to send invitations to none but the immediate family and closest relatives? I have a great many friends but hesitate to send them invitations because of the distance. What should be done in this case?

A: Invitations are customarily and properly sent to all those who would like to have come to the wedding even though there is little possibility of their being present.

How to address and word invitations and announcements is described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Wedding Invitations and Announcements." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Emily Post Institute, care of The Pontiac Press.

For daytime wear these included naked wool jersey-sleeveless with scooped or plunging necklines—worn over simple skirts. By the time the ball gowns were on the scene the minimum had become even bolder. There were strapless tubes of wool, naked columns of weighted pastel crepe, cylindrical of ribbon lace, cut velvet, plain velvet or brocade. Rarely was there a shoulder strap.

A "MAGICIAN" The sparsely young designer is a magician with invisible construction tricks. Those lengthened skirts have hidden pleats front, back and sides. Flared center pleats and hidden closings on coats is more sleight of designing hand that make them appear to be open over dresses of the same fabric when they are buttoned shut. The bridegroom, son of P. A. Costantino of Tewksbury, Mass., and the late Mrs. Costantino, had Ralph Florio of Waterford for his best man. Seating guests were Walter Lagerquist, Watkins Lake, and Edward P. O'Rourke, Royal Oak.

The bride is a graduate of Baker University, Baldwin, Kan., where she affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. Mr. Costantino holds a master's degree from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. They will live at Union Lake after a honeymoon in Canada and the eastern States.

Mother-in-Law Is Problem, Hates the Name Grandma

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN DEAR ABBY: My problem is my mother-in-law. She refuses to be called "Grandma." She wants to be called "Mama"—which is what my children call me!

My own mother doesn't mind being called "Grandma." How can you explain to small children that they are both grandmothers, but one should be called "Mama"? I don't want to stir up trouble but don't know how to avoid it. The grandmother who thinks she is too young to be called "Grandma" is in her late forties. My own mother is in her late forties.

IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR IN: No grandmother should insist on being called "Mama." Tell your children to call her "Grandma Mary" (or whatever her name is) if she feels that being called "Grandma" ages her.

DEAR ABBY: I have an extremely sensitive 12-year-old daughter. She is very big for her age, and from the number of times she has heard it from adults who should know better, she certainly knows it by now. Her father is big (6 ft. 4) and I am big (5 ft. 11), so where would we get a small child? This child has been hurt badly when grown-ups see her for the first time and say, "My, she's big for her age!" Please print this for people who need to be told. There are so many of them.

Papal Blessing Is Bestowed on Nuptial Rites in Birmingham

A Papal blessing was bestowed on the marriage of Judith Ann Lukacs and Jerome P. Churchvava who pledged vows before Rev. Lucian A. Hebert this morning in Our Lady Queen of Marys Church, Birmingham.

A gown of white pearl de sole for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Lukacs of Birmingham featured re-embroidered Alton lace applique at the scoop neckline and skirt styled with chapel train. A crown of crystals and pearls held her elbow-length veil.

Wearing pink organza over tulle were John Lukacs, her sister maid of honor and Mary Denise Lukacs, junior bridesmaid.

SERVE AS BRIDESMAIDS Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Norma Shannan, Chicago. Sue Ann Hebert, Southfield, and Sandra Bob, Detroit, attired in green silk organza over tulle.

Usher at their brother's wedding were Mark and Paul Churchvava, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Churchvava, Detroit, also Stephen Valentine Jr. and Thomas Churchvava. Best man was Robert Slavin. All are of Detroit.

After an evening reception at Birmingham Court, Knights of Columbus, the couple left for Miami Beach. They will reside in Detroit where Mr. Churchvava attends the University of Detroit. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

Mrs. Lukacs chose a sheath dress of embroidered pink organza over tulle and the mother of the bridegroom appeared in a gold silk sheath dress. Both wore orchids.

MRS. JEROME P. CHURCHVAVA

Judith Ann Lukacs became Mrs. Jerome P. Churchvava today in Our Lady Queen of Marys Church, Birmingham. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Lukacs, Birmingham. The bridegroom's parents are the Peter P. Churchvavas of Detroit.

$100,000 Collection Bows

Hemline Sneaks Down

BY JEAN SPRAIN WILSON (AP) Fashion Writer NEW YORK K—James Galanos, one of the big four of American couturiers, sneaked the controversial hemline an inch below the knees Friday as he introduced his $100,000 collection to press and buyers.

But he balanced out everything beautifully by subtracting from the top whatever ever amount of fabric he had added to the bottom of his costumes.

A Californian who does not have to cope with winter winds and goose pimples, Galanos displayed his gaunt models in what he terms the "bare minimum."

For daytime wear these included naked wool jersey-sleeveless with scooped or plunging necklines—worn over simple skirts. By the time the ball gowns were on the scene the minimum had become even bolder. There were strapless tubes of wool, naked columns of weighted pastel crepe, cylindrical of ribbon lace, cut velvet, plain velvet or brocade. Rarely was there a shoulder strap.

Flared center pleats and hidden closings on coats is more sleight of designing hand that make them appear to be open over dresses of the same fabric when they are buttoned shut.

Another inside secret are ball gown skirts subtly ballooned at the hips. These taper to such narrowness at the ankle that a few manikins could not maneuver their appointed courses without hitching them up a bit. For all that bareness just barely above the bosom Galanos did provide some warmth in the form of casually tied great, loopy wool fur-lined scarves or padded and quilted velvet stoles that swished like

Exercise Is the Answer

Measurements Out of Line?

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Question Box)

Q. "Are my measurements in proportion? My bust measures 32 inches, my waist 26 and my hips 37."

A. Take bust-developing and hip-strengthening exercises to bring those two measurements closer together.

Q. "I have read in your column that one should exercise before meals or several hours afterward. Does the time you take your exercise affect the results you get?"

A. No, but it is better to exercise when digestion is not at its height, better for your digestion, that is, not your figure.

Q. "I am troubled with hair on my upper lip. Is there any safe way of removing it? I have heard that electrolysis is safe, even on the lip. Is this true and is this the safest way?"

A. Electrolysis is perfectly safe. Just be sure that you have a well-qualified operator.

Q. "I have a great problem. I am 14 years old and in high school. The problem is that I don't wear a bra. My mother still insists that I wear an undergarment. I have not said anything to my mother about this, but I feel inferior since all the other girls in the class wear one. My measurements are bust 34 inches, waist 22 and hips 34."

A. I feel sure that if you tell your mother how this makes you feel she will agree to allow you to wear a bra. Your measurements indicate that you are well enough developed to wear one and may even need one. If you do not tell your mother how you feel she has no way of knowing.

Perhaps subconsciously she hates to see her little girl grow up. This is not an unusual reaction and I feel sure she will help you when she understands. Q. "I want to start in on your exercise routine. I am 53 years old and have never taken exercise. Should I consult my doctor before starting?"

A. Yes, everyone should have heart and blood pressure checked before beginning exercises. The older the person, the more important it is.

Q. "I am 16 years old. When I was younger I had much longer legs and bust. As a result, I have stretch marks on my bust and legs. They are very embarrassing in a bathing suit or low-cut dress. Can you suggest some cream or make-up to cover them?"

A. Any good make-up base will help. There are many on the market. Today there are waterproof bases. If you would like the name of a good one, send a stamped self-addressed envelope with your request. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tips on Careers

Are You Eying Careers in Law?

(Editor's Note — This week's lawyer tips is the twelfth and final in a 12-week series of career articles, giving you in capsule form up-to-minute facts on job possibilities in industry and the professions. Source: U. S. Department of Labor.)

GILBERT YOUTH SERVICE

Educational Qualifications: Six years of full-time study after high school to complete the required college and law school work (usual program is three years' college plus three years' law school, though some law schools require a college degree).

Personal Qualifications: Logical, precise, yet nimble mind; interest in detail; ability to reason deductively; patience; good memory; in trial law, ability to present a case expertly.

Advantages: Favorable employment opportunities for graduates from widely-recognized law schools and those in the top 10 per cent of their classes (others will have difficulty finding salaried positions as lawyers, but may enter other fields where a knowledge of law is required); growing demand for lawyers who are specialists in such fields as corporation, patent, administrative, labor, and international law; lawyers in private practice can determine their own hours and workload.

Disadvantages: Long work hours; great deal of pressure; need to keep abreast of the latest laws and court decisions; some delay for the beginning lawyer in building a practice for himself, unless he chooses salaried employment with a large city firm; opportunities for women lawyers limited.

Salaries: Beginning lawyers in salaried positions with manufacturing and other business firms, about $6,000; lawyers with the Federal Government, starting salary from $5,855 to $6,435, depending on qualifications; beginning salaries highest in large law firms and Federal agencies, lowest for those working in small law offices or engaged in legal-aid work.

Grandma Shouldn't Manage Grandchildren

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

My 7-year-old girl and my mother don't get along. If my mother is around when my daughter wants to do something she's told to or talks back to me, my mother will say "I never heard of such a thing in my life" or something like that.

I think she is trying to defend me. But my daughter resents this very much. I don't know how to tell my mother not to interfere when I am having trouble with the children. I don't want to hurt her. She is a wonderful woman and only has my good in mind.

Answer: If your good is what your mother has in mind, then she should trust you to work out your problems with your daughter.

When she "interferes" in what is going on between you and your child, she demonstrates that she does not trust you to work the problem out. The fact that she feels obliged to try to reinforce your authority over your daughter tells us that she does not respect it as competent and sufficient.

Perhaps this is why your daughter resents her.

As children have to depend on your reliability as their leaders, they are made very uncomfortable by people who belittle it. In the presence of a relative who belittles it by interfering in your treatment of some misbehavior, children will increase their defiance.

Caught as we are in a situation that then involves three people instead of the two it ought, we get muddled and confused. We become angry as the child instead of perceiving that his increased defiance is not directed at us but at grandma's or aunt Cora's displacement of our ability to discipline him.

Instead of seeing him as the champion of our competence, we misjudge him and see him as a child who is trying to humiliate us before our relative.

I am sure that your mother must possess many wonderful qualities. However, people who declare "I never heard of such a thing in my life" seldom possess the quality of humility.

If I say of something you have done, "I never heard of such a thing in my life," I am really making a very arrogant statement to you. I am saying, "Any human behavior of which I have not heard does not exist."

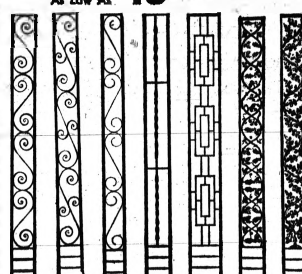

It is also a very silly statement. There are many kinds of human behavior of which your mother may not have heard. In Papua, for example, people first eat the brains of their dead departed and then use their skulls for pillows and other home decoration.

Though this form of human conduct may not be known to your mother, it is a fact that it exists.

So her declaration that she never has heard of an occasional defiant child does not mean that

Have You Tried This?

Chinese Fried Rice Is a Hearty Main Course

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Home Editor

If you have always used leftover pork roast for chop suey, now is the time to try something different. Why not serve Mrs. John Houston's dish, Chinese Fried Rice?

Mrs. Houston is active in the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, both on the local and the national level. She is continuing her education at Wayne State. When she has any spare time, she enjoys gardening, reading or sailing and camping with her husband and 3 children.

CHINESE FRIED RICE

By Mrs. John Houston

1 1/2 cups long grain rice

1 1/2 to 2 cups leftover pork roast

2 tablespoons bacon fat or oil

4 medium onions, coarsely chopped

1 green pepper OR stalk of celery, coarsely chopped

3 eggs, beaten

4 tablespoons soy sauce

spinach leaves

Cook rice in unsalted water. Saute onions and green pepper or celery in fat until just tender. Remove. Beat most quickly in frying pan and remove. Scramble eggs at high temperature. Remove. Add more fat.

Add rice and soy sauce gradually, stirring constantly to coat rice. Add and stir meat, then vegetables. Heat through. Mix in shredded raw spinach leaves and serve. Makes 4-6 servings.

Best to Plan for Life

Girls Should Play Field

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE M458; Lorna G., aged 16, is a pretty, high school junior.

"Dr. Crane," she asked during a forum following my address at her school convocation, "what do you think about a girl's going steady?"

"A lot of us girls in high school are debating this question."

"If we don't go steady, then we never know for sure if we shall be invited to the Junior Prom or other school activities."

"But if we do the ourselves down to just one boy, then we also miss the chance of getting better acquainted with other attractive classmates.

"So what should we do?"

MORAL YARDSTICK

The yardstick for morality also applies to this social problem, and it reads:

"Whatever does the most good for the most people over the longest period of time, is right."

Viewed from the short-range perspective of the next year or two in high school, it may reduce a girl's uncertainty about dates if she agrees to go steady.

PLAN FOR LIFE

But at the age of 18, when she graduates, should not be the focus of any girl's future thinking.

She should be planning for LIFE, not just for her junior or senior years.

And such long range strategy involves gaining a keen understanding of male psychology.

You can't do this as well by limiting yourself to conversation and dates with just one high school boy.

You need a wider range of male personalities to be sure you acquire enough knowledge of the masculine sex to win and hold a husband's devotion throughout your Golden Wedding anniversary.

So date many boys! Gain this wider experience and psychological insight.

Besides, you shouldn't even plan to marry before you are old enough to vote.

Finish high school, for Dr. Paul C. Glick, of the U.S. Census Bureau, has indicated that a high school diploma is worth $49,000 more than the grade school diploma, in future lifetime earnings.

Then you girls should take at least one year of college. If you can't finance more than one year, it is better to spend that year in business college.

Afterward, work for a couple of years before you actually marry, for this will give you broader insight into your husband's problems of earning a living.

GAIN SKILL.

And you will meanwhile gain skill at budgeting your own pay checks so you can then do a better job after you marry.

If you go steady in high school, you also are more susceptible to illicit pregnancy.

"We're already almost the same as married," is the insidious argument that soon leads to illicit affairs and unwed motherhood.

If you date many boys and remain on a friendly basis but not the close, intimate state of the "steady" couple, you are much safer and usually far happier in the long run.

So send for my booklet "Sex Problems of Young People," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents. Study it with care.

Britons' Model: See Too Much of Women of Street

STREET, England (AP) — Six men went to court here complaining they were seeing too much of women in the street.

The men, neighbors in the same street in Street, a small town in Somerset, said that a row of new houses abutting their back fences were built so close they had no privacy left.

"They appealed to a court for a cut in their tax rates."

"All you can see in the summer are women sunbathing with their clothes up to their backsides," another man complained. "I don't want to look at women's legs when I'm having a meal."

The chairman of the court didn't think their slight distress was sufficient to cut their rates.

Sweet-Voiced Girl Tells GIs to Quit 'Useless Cause' in S. Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — In the tradition of Tokyo Rose, a honey-voiced Vietnamese woman began a new program last night aimed by Radio Hanoi to U.S. servicemen in South Viet Nam.

The show, featuring Soviet jazz hands and heavy doses of Communist propaganda, follows a pitch like that used by German and Japanese broadcasters in World War II.

"In 1776 your own people did the same thing as our compatriots in South Viet Nam now are doing," the announcer cooed.

"Many of your fellow GIs have been killed or wounded for a useless cause. Think it over."

U.S. authorities are not worried about the broadcast. Similar efforts by enemy radio stations to undermine American troop morale never have had significant effect.

Delayed July 4th Set in Jackson

Fireworks Display to Be Held Tonight, Issue Still on Jurisdiction

JACKSON (AP) — A delayed Fourth of July fireworks display at the Jackson County Fair Grounds takes place tonight.

But this still doesn't settle the issue of whether the city of Jackson or the state of Michigan has jurisdiction over the county's property.

City Fire Chief Leo M. Fox forbade the Independence Day fireworks on grounds the fair grounds, titled in dispute, a park just from the city.

Yesterday, at a meeting of officials, Fair Grounds Manager Herman Gumpert and county prosecutor James C. Fleming conceded city jurisdiction — but only with respect to the fireworks.

So Fox, in a spirit of cooperation, is going to issue a permit for Saturday night's display, by-passing City Commission approval. The commission doesn't meet until Tuesday.

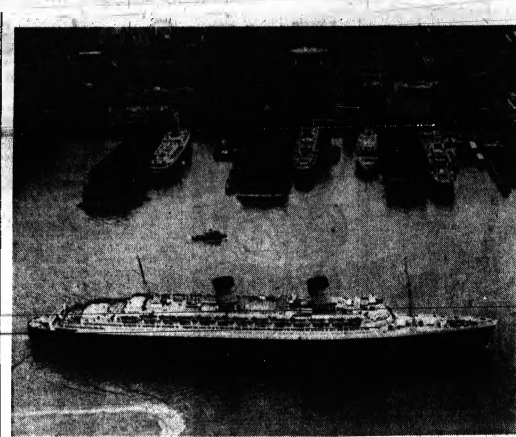

The question is whether the city has the right to enforce building and inspection codes on county property or whether this is strictly a state jurisdiction.

Prosecutor Fleming and City Attorney C. Edwin Carragher agreed that the question should be settled amicably.

EAST LANSING (AP) — Student parking fines are going to take a step climb next fall at Michigan State University.

There were 9,201 parking tickets issued during the last school year to the 10,558 MSU students with autos.

Rambler Sales Abroad Reach an All-Time High

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors International Corp. yesterday reported overseas Rambler sales last month hit an all-time high, five times as many sales as June 1961.

The firm said last month was the 27th consecutive month in which sales exceeded those of the same month one year previous. The company said countries showing an economic upsurge were making a special contribution to the sales increases.

To Acquire Site Near Port Huron

Detroit Buying Area for Proposed Water Plant; Still Negotiating

DETROIT (UPI) — A 288-acre site north of Port Huron will soon be the property of the city of Detroit following completion of negotiations on a purchase price for the real estate.

The property has been sought as a site for the Detroit water department's proposed Lake Huron water plant.

A price of $121,059 has been set on the land which is located at State and Metcalf, five miles north of the heart of Port Huron.

The sale will include easement rights through frontage property and a stretch of lands a few hundred feet inland. The plant itself will be about a mile from Lake Huron.

Detroit Water Department General manager Gerald J. Herms scheduled construction of the plant is scheduled to begin in 1964 with completion set for 1967. The total cost of the facility is expected to cost $172 million.

It's Antilitter Season

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson has issued a proclamation designating July and August as the antilitter season in Michigan and urging public support of a campaign to keep Michigan beautiful.

Swainson said it costs state taxpayers an estimated $1 million a year to clean up trash from public places.

They Knew Faulkner as 'the Quiet Man'

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va. (AP) — One of the admiring university professors of the late William Faulkner's shyness, said: "He is a man shy by nature, made more so by fame."

Faulkner established the William Faulkner Foundation in December 1960. It was chartered under Virginia laws to provide financial aid to students interested in creative writing and encourage appreciation of American literature.

The foundation was launched by gifts and manuscripts from the author. He was one of the directors.

Faulkner held the title of writer-in-residence until 1958. In 1960, he became a lecturer in American literature and was on the faculty when he died.

His last public appearance was May 17 when he spoke before students of 20 Virginia colleges and answered questions. He read parts of his new book, "The Reivers," which he said was written principally during his Charlottesville residence.

He said he liked Virginia "because Virginians are all snobs and I like snobs. A snob has to spend so much time with a snob that he has little left to muddle with you. It's so very pleasant here."

Faulkner told his first students that: "As far as you're concerned, I'm free game. Only do finish me first, don't shoot me sitting. When I'm on the fifth floor of Cabell Hall, I'm writer in residence. When I'm not there, then I'm just a Mississippi citizen that likes and admires Virginia."

AIR AMBULANCES READY — A plane engineer wipes the windshield on one of Saskatchewan's six air ambulances which are in readiness during the emergency in Canadian province's doctor strike. Air ambulance service, which is government operated, has been in operation 16 years and is a year-round project.

Compare Medicare Plans of U.S., Saskatchewan

As the United States goes through its own controversy over a Medicare plan, the King-Anderson Bill, Americans watch with interest the Saskatchewan doctors' strike against a compulsory medical care scheme of a different kind.

To present a clearer picture of the essentially different plans, a comparison is provided below.

In essence, the U.S. plan would provide hospitalization and nursing home care for the aged.

The Canadian province's scheme, on the other hand, extends existing hospitalization service into the realm of a doctor's private practice. It is this extension, the Canadian doctors are protesting.

REGINA, Sask. (UPI) — Here is a breakdown on Saskatchewan's controversial medical care insurance plan.

The plan, patterned after Britain's national health service program, covers all citizens. It provides all normal medical services except for spectacles, dentures and drugs.

Hospitalization also is not included in as much as all of Canada's 10 provinces already have a hospitalization services' plan in operation. Special services including psychiatric are provided on the recommendation of the patient's regular physician.

The plan, estimated to cost $2 million a year, will be financed by payments of $12 a year from single persons and $24 a year from families. The balance will be financed by increases in the province's sales and personal income and corporation taxes.

Options. Originally the plan was prepaid and compulsory. But last week the government, by orders-in-council, deleted the compulsory element as far as the doctors are concerned.

It now is possible for doctors to continue private practice. Doctors who do not sign up for the medical plan can bill their patients and the patients in turn can claim compensation from the government for the statutory amount only.

Doctors' objections. The doctors contend the plan turns them into civil servants and destroys the traditional relationship between doctor and patient.

The doctors rejected last week's decision by the government to delete the compulsory element of the plan, claiming the action did not provide the necessary guarantees.

The Saskatchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons is the lawful incorporated medical body in the province. It sets the rules, suggests fees and accredits doctors.

In 1961, one man received a $125 fine and a 30-day jail sentence for operating a boat under the influence of liquor and leaving the scene of a water accident.

Kratt said 168 tickets were issued in 1961. There were 168 convictions.

Kratt said the state funds for the Marine Division come from its $2 boat registration fee (soon to go to $3). Next year, he said, the state will provide matching funds on a 2 to 1 basis.

The water patrol then will be increased by 15 men.

Meanwhile, the combination of friendly persuasion and stern justice by the water deputies may save some grim work for the Marine Division divers.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Here is a breakdown on the Senate bipartisan medical care bill:

Coverage. It would provide health benefits for an estimated 15 million persons aged 65 and over who are covered by Social Security. Another 25 million elderly persons not covered by Social Security would also be included.

Cost. The estimated cost for a person making a minimum of $5,200 a year would be about $17 a year paid through a rise in the Social Security payroll tax.

Benefits for elderly persons not under Social Security would be financed through regular congressional appropriations.

Options. Persons over 65 and covered by Social Security would have the option of either having the government pay bills covering the specific benefits, or having them paid through a private insurance company, if they hold a policy.

In the case of policyholders, a person paying about $8 a month in insurance premiums would pay only about $1 or $1.30 after age 65.

Benefits. Payment for up to 90 days a year hospital care, providing the patient pay a minimum of $20 and up to a maximum of $50 of the initial costs.

Payment for 180 days of skilled nursing care home services. Home health care of up to 240 days a year. Payments of outpatient hospital diagnostic services, providing the patient pays the first $20.

Gets Centennial Post. LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson has announced the appointment of Abel Longoria of Wyandotte to the Civil War Centennial Commission to succeed Louis H. Lackoff of Detroit, resigned, for a term expiring June 30, 1966. The appointment requires Senate confirmation.

Waterford Board to Open Bids on New Patrol Cars

Opening of bids on four new police department patrol cars tops a relatively light agenda for the Waterford Township Board meeting Monday night.

Need for the replacement cars was established at a board meeting last month. Bid opening is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Board members will consider a request from Fire Chief Elmer Wagoner for permission to attend the annual Fire Chiefs Convention September 23-27 in Toronto, Canada.

Recent convention requests from other departments of the township had been approved. In each instance the establishing of a definite policy on such trips was discussed but no action has been taken.

Also slated for board attention is a request from residents of Nancywood Court, asking permission to use township water for sprinkling in the court area.

The group of residents plans to add the court to their own expense.

Victim's Move Frees Gem Theft Suspects

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP) — Three persons charged in a $45,000 jewel theft at Pebble Beach last January have been freed because the victim, Mrs. Igor Cassini of New York City, refused to return here for their trial.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Tom Moore said Mrs. Cassini declined to come here because she was preparing for a trip to Europe on July 28.

Mrs. Cassini is the wife of a New York society columnist who writes under the name of Cholly Knickerbocker.

UP Might See JFK in October

Gov. Swainson Says Kennedy May Attend Bridge Dedication

LANSING (AP) — There's a possibility President Kennedy will visit Michigan in October for dedication of the new international bridge between the cities of Sault Ste. Marie in Michigan and Canada, reports Gov. Swainson.

Swainson said he mentioned the event to the President. Kennedy was agreeable to the proposal if his schedule would permit the governor said. Date of the bridge dedication has not yet been set.

At a news conference, the governor also said if there is any court decision to require reapportionment of State Senate or congressional districts, he would call upon the legislature to take whatever action is ordered.

A decision is awaited in a Senate redistricting case filed by August Scholle, state AFL-CIO president, in the State Supreme Court. A congressional reapportionment case, filed in Federal District Court, will be heard Tuesday at Port Huron.

The governor could not call a special session to consider the matter since the legislature still is technically in session. Swainson said he could call the matter to their attention, however.

"With their usual arrogant attitude," the governor commented, "they probably would say 'no.'"

Air N-Explosion Delayed Again

3rd Attempt at Blast in Pacific Called Off by U.S. Due to Weather

HONOLULU (AP) — The United States delayed again today for a third attempt to explode a high-altitude nuclear blast over tiny Johnston Island in the Pacific.

Joint Task Force 8 officials said unfavorable weather caused the delay.

Clouds hovered over the antenna-dotted test island since mid-afternoon and high winds and rain squalls were predicted nearby.

Clear skies are necessary for the proposed one megaton blast so scientists can photograph the shot.

The same shot was delayed the previous night, also apparently because of high winds and possible for technical reasons.

It was to have been the United States' third attempt to detonate a high-altitude blast in the current test series, which began last April 24.

Efforts to explode a similar warhead 200 miles high flizzed on June 4 and June 19 when missile troubles developed.

They Prepare for Tragedy

Fifty husky men, outfitted with $106,000 worth of equipment spend hundreds of hours each year preparing for a job they hope won't have to be done.

The men, 35 scuba divers and 14 Oakland County Sheriff's deputies, aren't afraid of work.

They all volunteer for their jobs as skin divers with the Sheriff's Department Marine Division.

But each emergency call these men answer means a tragedy for at least one family. The divers are responsible for recovering drowning victims from a lake bottom somewhere in the county.

It is a little known duty, but each sheriff's department is required by law to be responsible for recovery of all drowning victims in its county, said Safety Director Donald Kratt, who heads the Marine Division.

The job is staggering when you consider that Oakland County with 27 lakes more than three acres in size has more inland water than any other county in the United States, Kratt said.

PAID EXPENSE MONEY. The men of the water patrol, who have the same authority on the lakes as regular deputies do, are paid only $17 expense money for each Sunday and holiday they are on duty.

"Actually," Kratt said, "The water patrol deputies are usually on duty seven days a week since each of them lives on the lake he patrols."

Two of the 11 regular deputies are on duty at all times. The volunteers are called in as more are needed if the divers' grim task is complicated.

Besides their emergency duties, the divers often provide a kind of underwater patrol service in the county.

While on emergencies or practice sessions, they are ever watchful for underwater hazards which would provide a threat to swimmers and boaters.

Unsafe conditions are reported to local authorities.

Since the division was formed in 1958, the divers have been outfitted with modern diving gear, specially equipped ambulance and three trailers, one built to carry a generator and two others for gear and boats.

Despite all this costly equipment, the price has been low for the county. The trucks, ambulance and trailers — valued at $100,000 — have been donated by private industry, Kratt said.

The county has provided $3,000 and the state an equal amount on a matching fund basis to pay for the diving gear.

The Marine Division's 40-man water safety patrol also provides a valuable service at little cost to county taxpayers, Kratt said.

deputies was credited with saving the life of a Detroit man who suffered a heart attack.

The deputy applied mouth to mouth respiration, one of the many skills the men learn in weekly instructional meetings.

Good public relations also is stressed, said Kratt.

But the special deputies, each outfitted in a blue uniform, all carry a gun and a badge on duty.

A boy on waterski who cuts a little too close to boats and docks may receive a polite warning.

But an overcooked boat filled with tipsy fishermen may end up with a ticket.

In 1961, one man received a $125 fine and a 30-day jail sentence for operating a boat under the influence of liquor and leaving the scene of a water accident.

Kratt said 168 tickets were issued in 1961. There were 168 convictions.

Kratt said the state funds for the Marine Division come from its $2 boat registration fee (soon to go to $3). Next year, he said, the state will provide matching funds on a 2 to 1 basis.

The water patrol then will be increased by 15 men.

Meanwhile, the combination of friendly persuasion and stern justice by the water deputies may save some grim work for the Marine Division divers.

Union Chiefs, Carriers Appear to Be Guiding Fight to White House

CLEVELAND (AP)—The nation's railroads and the union leaders of 200,000 rail operating employees appeared today to be guiding the long and bitter dispute over manpower economics back toward the White House.

A presidential mediation recommended last Feb. 28 the elimination of 40,000 freight train firemen and affecting other manpower economies. Negotiations between the carriers and the unions on the report opened April 2 and broke off June 22.

Meeting here Friday, leaders of five operating unions rejected as "premature" an offer from the National Mediation Board to arbitrate the dispute. They want to negotiate some more.

Wolfe, who was in New Orleans, noted that the railroads could not act until the Federal Mediation Board formally terminates its services in the dispute. This is expected within a few days.

In Washington, Robert O. Boyd, National Mediation Board member, said neither side could make a move until 30 days after the board formally notified each side of the other's response to the arbitration offer.

It is not easy to decide when to violate the second hand rule and play a high card from dummy, but you should consider doing this any time dummy holds a doubleton or triplet honor. If you find that the honor will do no value if you don't play it right away, you should play it and hope for the best.

Usually that honor will be king, queen or jack, but on occasion you should rise with a ten spot.

With 13 high card points and two apparent stoppers in the unbid suit, South had a sound jump to two no-trump and, needless to say, North's raise of game was correct.

West opened the seven of spades and South noted that it West had led from the ace his two spade stoppers might be reduced to one stopper only.

He also noted that dummy's ten spot might prove of great value to him if used right away.

and he played second hand high. When the ten spot held the trick, South was back to two stoppers. He came to his hand with a diamond and tried the club finesse. It lost but the loss did not hurt South. He was sure of 10 tricks.

Your Neighbor's House

Background for LIVING

Paul Morsey's Home Has a Sunken Living Room

By JANET ODELL

A year ago, when the Paul Morseys built their home, it was from a plan drawn up by Mrs. Morsey. Elmer Dunlap translated her ideas into reality.

Before moving to Van Stone (that's the name of the street), the Morseys lived in a rented house in Waterford. Their new home is placed on 3 lots, over 400 feet deep and 300 feet wide. Behind it is a canal to Commerce Lake.

Eighteen-month-old Kevin was a small baby when he took up residence in Commerce Township. Now he's a sturdy toddler, the apple of his parents' eyes.

As we often do, we entered the Morsey home through the kitchen door. We usually park in or near the garage and take the handiest entrance.

Tile on the kitchen floor is greige with yellow dabs. Walls are cream. The white counters have gold lines in the Formica. Birch cupboards are beautifully matched as to grain.

At one end of the counter near the built-in range there is a clothes chute.

In the breakfast area one wall is papered. The greige and yellow of the tile floor are repeated in the geometric design of the paper. A hanging copper lamp sheds light over the round breakfast table and Windsor chairs. There are short swinging doors to the front hall.

There is extra light in the front hall because the breakfast room wall stops about a foot below, the ceiling. Mrs. Morsey keeps plants up here.

SHOJI DOORS

The front hall has a slate floor. Shoji screens hide the clothes closet. A shoji-type lamp hangs over the stairs to the lower level.

The stair railing is black. On the wall opposite there are Oriental pictures. The wall itself is painted orange.

At the present time the lower level is unfinished. Outside in the rear is space for a future patio.

Just behind the stairs is the bath. In here ceramic wall and floor tile is white. Upper walls are aqua. The white vanity surrounds an oval basin, has a long mirror above. Fixtures are white.

Around the sunken tub on the opposite wall there is gray marbleized Formica. At the back is a shelf. Two aqua bottles provide a spot of color.

The cafe curtains have a harlequin design in aqua, green and royal blue. These hang from bamboo rings on a bamboo pole.

KEVIN'S ROOM

Kevin's room has pale blue walls. On one wall there is a train decoration with his name spelled out on five cars. Raggedy Ann and Andy preside over the tall birch chest; their printed counterparts are on the curtains. In one corner there's a rocker for pre-sleep rocking.

In the master bedroom walls are pale gold. The floor-length white draperies have a woven horizontal stripe. A wooden tub planter decorates one corner of the room.

Furniture is walnut. On the king size bed the white spread has a gold medallion design. The hurricane lamp on the dresser has an orange crackle glass shade.

Mrs. Morsey put the third bedroom off limits. How many of us have just such a room, especially in a new house?

The living room at the rear of the house is two steps down from the hallway. The beige carpeting is heavily textured. Walls are a paler beige. The stripes in the beige draperies is the same color as the background, but has a different texture.

The fireplace is built of gray stone. Multi-color slate was used on the raised hearth. Paneling above the mantel is stained walnut. Behind this area in the hall is a brick wall.

There's a fine wooded view out of the picture windows behind the low blue sofa. A second sofa on the adjoining wall is sandalwood with a silver thread. All occasional tables are Heywood Wakefield birch. Other room furnishings include a white leather armchair and a pair of TV pillows on the floor.

In what could be a dining room the Morseys have a grand piano and their desk. This area is two steps above the living room and on the same level as the kitchen. A beam in the ceiling is another visual divider.

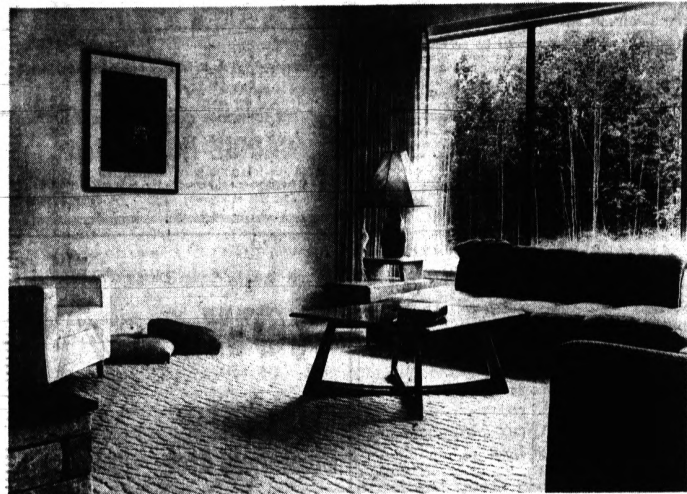

The exterior of the Morsey home is cream brick with wood trim. The long-ranch house sets well back from the road.

ORIENTAL MOOD — A plain black railing, Japanese prints on the wall and a hanging lantern with a shoji-like shade give an Oriental flavor to the stairway. The walls are painted orange in this area.

Pontiac Press Photos by Ed Vandervort

WOODS OUTSIDE — When seated in the living room, the family or guests can enjoy a wooded view outside the picture windows. Carpeting in this room is deeply tufted beige. Walls and draperies are a lighter beige. The sofa in front of the windows is blue. At the left is a white leather armchair. Tables are Heywood Wakefield birch.

NOW LET ME THINK — Young Kevin is not always allowed to sit on the hearth, but it seems a good spot for a picture. In the background can be seen the shallow steps leading to the hallway and to what could be a dining room at the left. The Morseys use it as a music room and den. Swinging doors in the left corner open to the kitchen.

UNUSUAL BATHROOM — Just a small section of the sunken tub can be seen in the mirror above the vanity. The area behind the tub has a marbleized surface. Tile is white. Upper walls are painted aqua. The design in the curtains combines aqua, green and royal blue.

NEAR COMMERCE LAKE — The Paul Morseys have lived in this cream brick ranch home for a little over a year. Elmer Dunlap built it from plans drawn by Mrs. Morsey. Right now, the Morseys live in a sea of sand and have a monumental job ahead of them to landscape the yard. Behind the house there is a canal leading to Commerce Lake. The house is on Van Stone.

CLEAN LINES — Mrs. Morsey's kitchen has an uncluttered look. With ample storage space, she can put supplies and utensils out of sight and leave her counters free. Cabinets are birch. Counter tops are white and gold. The floor is greige with dabs of yellow. Walls are cream with greige and yellow wallpaper in the breakfast room. This room is a corridor from the garage to the rest of the house.

FLOOR PLAN — Basic house contains 1,308 square feet; activity porch adds 196 square feet and garage adds 276 square feet. Dimensions are 51'3" deep overall and 54' wide.

Elegant Little Ranch Is Deceptively Economical

By JULES LOH
An outdoor activity porch, where children can play in all kinds of weather, links the garage with the main house in this compact little ranch and turns it into an exquisite L-shaped home.

From the curb, the house appears far more pretentious than it actually is. It does indeed have its share of genuine elegance—to a far greater extent, in fact, than you would expect in a three-bedroom home of only 1,305 square feet.

The best example is the activity porch. This type of thing usually is the first to be eliminated when your lot—and budget—are small. But architect Samuel Paul's unusual design allows for the room at very little extra cost—and the house can fit nicely on a 65-foot lot.

The porch could be screened in, if it desired, or enclosed with a screened-in porch to make an indoor rec room.

The house itself has two bathrooms, a living room-dining room which could be separated with a free-standing fireplace and hood, a 22-foot long family room-kitchen combination, and a large entry foyer. All three bedrooms are of good size with plenty of closet space. A basement extends under the right side of the house, with insulated crawl space beneath the bedroom area.

SERVICE COURT
In addition to the activity porch, architect Paul has designed a service court in the space between the garage and main house.

The house is design J-29 in the House of the Week series. It's over-all dimensions, including the

Roof Gutters Will Protect the Paint

Any good painter who has worked hard painting the outside of a house complains when rain painted surface. This needn't happen, says the Roof Drainage Manufacturers Institute.

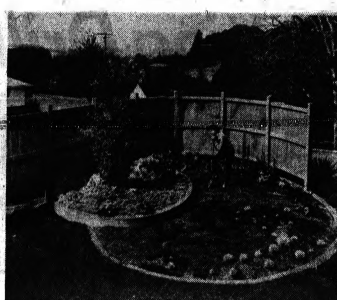

Uncontrolled rain water can be controlled so it doesn't splatter mud; all you need to do is call your local sheet metal contractor to check your home's roof gutter needs. He'll fix the mud spatter promptly and inexpensively. Roof gutters give other benefits, too, such as eliminating one of the major causes of wet basements.

Almost 56 per cent of the cement produced in the U.S. is the portland variety.

SAVE on another PATIO STONES

There's a new "package" home expansion idea on the market that slashes through all kinds of building and remodeling barriers—except one. Just on the market, this room addition represents "a long stride in the right direction toward a building technique that can mean better, cheaper houses for all of us," reports the July issue of Better Homes & Gardens.

FENCE AROUND—Fluid circular line makes this high fence more lovely, less formidable. Double Douglas fir 1x6s bend easily to shape, but are plenty rigid enough for fence framing. Fir 1x6s fill in panels, are spaced a half inch apart to give delicate touch while insuring privacy. Planting beds at far end of fence follow circle motif.

Cities Need to Modernize Certain Building Codes

This "room package" comes in large parts: all you do is put up the framework, fasten in the big one-piece sections. You can add a room with only eight tools, once foundation and floor are finished. Any of the three panels can be of glass or fully or partly enclosed—and all are styled to blend with any house. Heating, cooling, electrical service are handled in much the same way as in an ordinary room addition.

Extra Batting Drill Aids Wertz

Also Rewards Tigers as Vic's Homer Wins, 5-4

His Pinch Hit in 9th Lets Bunning Conquer Baltimore

DETROIT (AP) — Vic Wertz, a wide-eyed 27-year-old, figured his 16th major league season was a perfect time to try something new.

"Why not?" reasoned the oldest Tiger last night. "I hadn't been hitting. So I came out early for some extra batting practice and decided I ought to open up my stance a bit. I batted for about 20 minutes and started hitting them pretty good."

A few hours later Wertz came off the bench and delivered a booming homer off Hoyt Wilhelm's first knuckleball of the night. The pitch hit him hard and he hit the ball to a 5-4 victory over the Baltimore Orioles and snapped their three-game losing streak.

"Maybe now I'll start doing something where it counts," said Wertz, who'd been upset about his series of failures in the clutch at Cleveland during the losing streak.

He had expected manager Bob Scheffing to bypass him as a pinch hitter because of his personal foul, but when he had won two of the three games.

Mario drove in four runs with his homers and Mantle accounted for two, but Ralph Terry needed Luis Arroyo's no-hit relief for the final 2-13 innings to post the victory. Terry left after a pinch-hit homer by George Bunka in the seventh.

Gomez, formerly with the Phillies and Giants in the NL, was picked up by the Indians from Jacksonville of the International League. He scattered 11 hits before the White Sox caught up with him in the ninth and Gary Bell came on to get the final two outs.

Gomez' triumph ended the Indians' streak to break a deadlock with the Los Angeles for the top spot. Belled by Boston 12-7, the Angels tumbled into third place, a game back, while the Yankees moved into second place, a half-length back of the leaders in the tight race.

Wertz cracked the first pitch served by Orioles' knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm for the game-winning homer after Wilhelm had checked the Tigers on two hits since taking over for Robin Roberts.

Nedrick powered the Senators to the tying run on Jackie Brandt's single in the seventh.

Home runs by Bob Johnson, Chuck Hinton, Jim King and Bob Schmidt powered the Senators to a 9-5 badge over the A's but the seven-run uprising wiped it out. Jerry Lumpe's three-run double put the A's in front, then Norm Siebern struck his fourth hit to drive in the final run.

Ex-Knollwood Pro Shares Buick Lead With Tony Lema

Pete Cooper Halfway Home

By BILL CORNWELL

GRAND BLANC — It's "homecoming" for Pete Cooper, new week at Knollwood and he can't think of a better way to celebrate his return than by winning the rich Buick Open golf tournament now in progress.

The 47-year-old Cooper, former Knollwood pro, is by no means out of the woods here, but he's in excellent position to make a bid for Buick's $10,000 first prize at Warwick Hills Country Club.

Cooper, already entered in the Motor City tourney July 15 at Knollwood, shared the midway lead with 28-year-old Tony Lema today as the $25,000 tourney entered its third round.

Lema, an ex-Marine who has yet to win a regulation 72-hole event in six years on the PGA circuit, had Cooper's $10,000 first prize par 68's Friday for a 36-hole total of 140.

There was much talented company leavething down their necks, however, and it's still a wide-open race for the crown in this 35th annual Buick classic.

Juan (Chi) Chi Rodriguez, the 26-year-old Puerto Rican who weighs 116 pounds soaking wet, and rangy Bill Collins were next in line at 141, followed by Doug Sanders and little Jerry Barber with 142's.

Sanders, Rodriguez and Dr. Cary Middlecott joined Cooper and Lema in shooting 69's yesterday.

Middlecott's 69 moved him into the 113 bracket with Al Gelberg, Jim Ferre, Gardner Dickenson, Dave Hill, Johnny Pott and Paul Harney.

Thursday's first-round leaders, Art Wall and Ken Still, encountered all kinds of trouble in the second session.

Despite sinking a 60-yard wedge shot for an eagle three on the 59th yard 7th hole, Still zoomed to a 77 for a 195 total. Still four-puttered the 4th green to add to his miseries.

SOARS TO 78

Wall's halfway scorecard read 147 after the injury-plagued Peunbuntian ran into putting and chipping problems for a dismal 78. Wall won the Buick title in 1959.

Definitely in contention with even par 144's were 1958 Buick champ Bill Casper, Bob Goaly, Bill Collins, Bob Shave and veteran Ken Venturi, who's playing his best golf of the year.

Cooper, Knollwood pro in 1958-1959 and winner of the 1956 Michigan Open at Indianwood, hasn't fared victory on the tour since 1952 when he captured the West Palm Beach Open, although he's had a marked success in the Caribbean area where he's averaged five titles in the last four years.

A brilliant 32 on the back nine vaulted Cooper into a place of first place after a shaky front-side 37. He birdied five holes, four coming home, and bogied twice while hitting 14 greens.

Lema bogied only once and bagged four "birds." His lone bogey came at No. 9 where he lost a trap. "I just went to sleep and hit a fat 8-iron," Lema said.

Chi Chi, the popular bantamweight who gave up boxing after one bout when he had his front teeth chipped, birdied five holes and bogied twice. He made his

U. S. debut in the Buick event three years ago.

Collins, tied with Rodriguez, called his 71 round "routine." Collins hit 16 greens. The 33-year-old PGA veteran hasn't won on the circuit since 1950.

Sanders, currently the tour's 16th leading money winner, lost his chance to post Friday's low score by taking a bogey five at No. 18. He birdied five holes and bogied two while carding 34-35.

Sanders almost met his Waterloo on No. 9. He hooked his tee shot all the way across the 18th fairway to the edge of the out of bounds line, 150 yards from the green.

His recovery shot out of the weeds with a seven iron carried to the green, landing pin high. He needed two putts for his par four.

The good doctor shot perhaps the most spectacular round of the day. He carded six holes with putts ranging from 35 feet to 8 inches and required only 26 putts. But Middlecott also bogied the 13th hole and double-bogied the 37th.

FIVE EAGLES SCORED

Five eagles were posted yesterday and two of the beneficiaries failed to survive the 36-hole cut.

In addition to Still, eagles were fired where: Milwaukee's Randy Clark, Fred Lettingwell of Miami, Fla., and Randy Glover of Florence, S. C. Lettingwell and Clark didn't make the cut.

Post and Glover eagled the 507-yard 13th hole. Lettingwell, in the woods with his second shot, wedged the ball from under some leaves 60 yards into the cup at No. 7. Quick deuced the 64-year-old with a 1-iron.

Most pro Gene Bone birdied three holes coming home, but two double-bogies bogged him down as he rifled 33-38 for a 144 score, the same total owned by defending champion Jack Burke.

The field for the 3rd round was trimmed to 97 from plus 10 amateurs who will go the distance. For Sunday's 4th and final round, the field will be pared to the low 60 pros. The only big-name pro to fall by the wayside was Franklin Hill Wally Burkemo, who totaled 158. The cutoff point was 154.

Seventeen golfers beat par yesterday over the 7,280-yard course compared to 19 Thursday. Par at Warwick Hills is 36-36-72.

An estimated 10,000 spectators, largest weekday crowd in Buick Open history, watched Friday's action in intense heat.

NBA to Consider Transfer of One Team From ABL

NEW YORK (AP) — Maurice Podoloff, president of the National Basketball Association, said today a meeting of the league's board of governors had been tentatively scheduled for next Monday in New York to consider the possible admission of one American Basketball League team into the NBA.

Podoloff would not comment further, saying he would identify the team which might be transferred. He said the subject originally had been broached to him by Abe Saperstein, commissioner of the ABL. Reports have been prevalent in recent days that the ABL, which was organized only a year ago, would merge with the NBA before the start of the 1962 season.

Podoloff insisted, however, in his statement today that only the transfer of one ABL team was being considered.

Valley Open Lead Held by Mrs. Hagge

ELLIOTT CITY, Md. (AP) — Marlene Hagge of Delray Beach, Fla., without tournament victory on the ladies' pro golf tour since 1960, took command of the Turf Valley Open Friday with a 72 in the first round.

This gave her a one-stroke edge over Kathy Whitworth of Joliet, Ill., who took the title of Wilmington, Del., an amateur.

Sandra Hynle of Fort Worth, Tex., was tied with 74 followed by Shirley Hight of Englewood, Colo., with 75.

Mickey Wright, winner of three tournaments this season, was among three tied at 78.

Dixie Tops Hault Giving Only 1 Hit

John Nellenbach pitched a one-hitter for Dixie Bar of the Waterloo Class C Softball League in a 9-1 win over Hault Pontiac Friday.

Roy Clough was the only hit off Nellenbach, but nine walks kept Hault in scoring position during much of the game. Dixie's big hit was a double by Beedle with a double in the eighth.

The game will begin at 8:00, under the lights at Joyce Field, off Walton and Joslyn.

Golfers on TV Sunday

The final round of the 5th annual Buick Open golf tourney at Knollwood will be televised nationally Sunday by the NBC-TV network from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. The telecast can be viewed locally on WWJ-TV, Channel 4.

M-M Boys Share Spotlight With Tribe's Ruben Gomez

By The Associated Press

Washington 12-9 in other AL games.

Healthy Roger Maris and hobbled Mickey Mantle have detonated a homer explosion for the New York Yankees. But the world champions' sluggers had to share some of the spotlight today with a former National League who led Cleveland back into first place in the American League.

While the M&M boys each hammered two homers in a 7-3 bombing of Minnesota, 35-year-old veteran right-hander Ruben Gomez won his first game in the AL as the Indians extended their longest winning streak of the season to five games by beating the Chicago White Sox 5-3.

Gomez' triumph ended the Indians' streak to break a deadlock with the Los Angeles for the top spot. Belled by Boston 12-7, the Angels tumbled into third place, a game back, while the Yankees moved into second place, a half-length back of the leaders in the tight race.

Wertz cracked the first pitch served by Orioles' knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm for the game-winning homer after Wilhelm had checked the Tigers on two hits since taking over for Robin Roberts.

Nedrick powered the Senators to the tying run on Jackie Brandt's single in the seventh.

Home runs by Bob Johnson, Chuck Hinton, Jim King and Bob Schmidt powered the Senators to a 9-5 badge over the A's but the seven-run uprising wiped it out. Jerry Lumpe's three-run double put the A's in front, then Norm Siebern struck his fourth hit to drive in the final run.

Old Champ Returns in America's Cup

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Old champion Columbia bounced back to win the America's Cup in its first defeat in five days of America's Cup trial racing.

A stiff 20-knot breeze proved hot and Columbia needed and she crossed the finish line 1 minute and 27 seconds ahead after a race of approximately 26 nautical miles.

Nedrick defeated her Boston rival, Easterner, by 59 seconds.

Tigers' Rookie to Rejoin Team After Marriage

OSHKOSH, Wis. (UPI) — Howie Koppitz, 24-year-old rookie right hander of the Detroit Tigers, plans a baseball honeymoon next week.

Koppitz, minor league pitcher of the year last season after posting a brilliant 23-5 record with Birmingham, Ala., in the Class AA Southern Association, will be married tomorrow to his Oshkosh fiancée, Miss Norma Kimball at St. John's Lutheran church.

Following the ceremony, the couple will leave for Detroit, where Koppitz will rejoin the Tigers.

Tigers' Rookie to Rejoin Team After Marriage

Koppitz was discharged last Saturday from active army duty at Ft. Knox, Ky., where he had been in radio school. He was a member of a training regiment for six months at the armored center.

He was called up to the parent Tigers late last fall and completed a 29 record before going into the army for his short hitch. He was pitched in four games in the majors, winning in relief against the Los Angeles Angels and then winning 4-0 over Minnesota in his first major league start.

Lary Goes to Builpen After Faltering Starts

DETROIT (AP) — Frank Lary has been benched to the Tigers' bullpen following a series of shelling as a starter.

"I can't see starting him any more," said manager Bob Scheffing. "We can have them taken out during the AL break — but then we'll lose him for a while and we can't afford that the way we're going. They're keeping acting up on him and the only thing we can do now is have them taken out after the season ends and just before we go to Japan."

Hank Aguirre, the only left-hander on the American League All-Star team, has taken over the AL's earned run average leadership. Aguirre has yielded 16 1/2 earned runs in 77 1/2 innings — a one in his last 23 2/3 — for a 2.10 ERA.

The Tigers signed four school boys and a Western Michigan varsity player to minor league contracts Friday.

Charles Dodge, Western Michigan catcher who hit .350 in his senior year, was signed with a year contract to the Class C Northern League.

The schoolboy group included pitchers Gerald Farrington of Columbus, Ohio; Gene Morawski of Hamtramck, and Philip O'Brien of Silver Spring, N.Y. The fourth was outfielder Larry Haynes of Louisville, Ky.

Farrington was assigned to Thomasville of the Georgia State Class D League. Morawski was assigned to Jamestown of the New York Pennsylvania Class D League and Haynes was assigned to Montgomery of the Alabama-Florida Class D League. O'Brien went to Duluth.

Ralph Bunche Hits 'Affront'

Calls Refusal of Atlanta Hotel to Reserve Room for Him Insult to Race

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, an American Negro who won the Nobel Peace Prize, described the refusal of a hotel to reserve a room for him as an affront to his race in a speech shortly after he received the key to the city.

"I do not miss the hotel," said Bunche, who is undersecretary for special political affairs of the United Nations. "But I resent the rejection as an affront to my group, just as I experience deep insult whenever I see the hateful signs 'colored' and 'white'."

WROTE FOR RESERVATION

Bunche said he wrote the Hotel Dinkler Plaza for a reservation a month ago and was advised that additional reservations were not being accepted for July 5-6 "with any hope of fulfilling them."

George Fowler, the hotel manager, said the reservation had declined along with several others. We were just booked up." In reply to a question, Fowler said the hotel never has had Negroes as overnight guests.

The Dinkler Plaza was one of 10 hotels and 6 restaurants picked by about 600 of the 1,500 convention delegates during the week. The demonstrations protested segregation at some of the establishments.

Bunche said he has fewer racial experiences now than before. "I know why and I do not mind this, nor am I deceived by it," he said.

"In any case, this is beside the point I seek to make. The point is that no individual Negro can be free from degradation of racial discrimination until every Negro is free of it."

Williams to Leave for European Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — G. Mennen Williams, assistant secretary of state for African affairs, leaves tomorrow for Europe and a series of conferences with officials of countries which have interests in Africa.

The two-week series of talks will take Williams to Paris, Bonn, London, Brussels and Rome.

Williams has made four trips to Africa since his appointment to the State Department post but this will be his first trip to Europe in connection with duties as the chief U.S. officer for African affairs.

Cardinal Dies in Visit to Italian Home Town

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Giovanni Cardinal Panici, a member of the Vatican cardinals, died today of a heart attack while visiting his southern Italian home town, the Vatican announced.

His death — the first since March consecrated created 10 new members of the Roman Curia — ended membership in the College of Cardinals to 85.

Last week Hughes was released from standing trial with four other men charged with the $3,600 robbery of a Waterford Township service station.

A charge of conspiracy in committing armed robbery against Hughes was dismissed by Circuit Judge C. J. DeLoach after he had been found guilty of the robbery.

Trial of the four men resulted in hung jury and the case will be heard again in the fall.

Mr. Phillips, 47, died yesterday after an illness of several weeks. He was a retired employee of Ford Motor Co.

Survivors include a son Harold of Fremont; three grandchildren; and eight great grandchildren.

25 Boys Admit Destroying 100 U.S. Flags on 4th

NEVADA CITY, Calif. (AP) — Twenty-five boys between the ages of 8 and 14 have admitted destroying more than 100 American flags in vandalism on the Fourth of July.

Officers said none of the youngsters would say why they pulled down and ripped the flags, which were flying throughout the community in the Sierra foothills.

They were released in their parents' custody pending the filing of charges in juvenile court.

Nevada City residents had been urged to fly their flags from Sunday to Wednesday in a community-wide observance of "an old-fashioned red, white and blue Fourth of July."

Pontiac Area Deaths

NICHOLAS V. RUDELIC
The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Sunday in the John K. Orlich Funeral Home, 1360 Woodward Ave., Detroit for Nicholas V. Rudelic, 78, of 209 W. Walton Blvd., Waterford Township.

Prayers will be offered in the funeral home at 9:30 a.m. Monday followed by service at 10 a.m. at the St. Jerome Catholic Church, Detroit. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mr. Orlich died at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital yesterday. He was a member of the St. Joseph's Guild.

Man Sentenced on Breaking and Entering Charge

A Troy man released last week from trial in an armed robbery case has been sentenced for his part in a breaking and entering incident.

John Hodges, 31, of 1064 Houghton St., was ordered to serve 1 to 15 years in Jackson Prison by Circuit Judge Frederick Ziem.

Hodges was convicted in April by Judge Ziem of breaking and entering the Holiday Market, 1105 S. Main St., Royal Oak, last January.

An accomplice convicted with Hodges, Vernon Hughes, of 1115 S. Main St., Royal Oak, was sentenced earlier to serve 1 1/2 to 15 years.

Last week Hodges was released from standing trial with four other men charged with the $3,600 robbery of a Waterford Township service station.

A charge of conspiracy in committing armed robbery against Hughes was dismissed by Circuit Judge C. J. DeLoach after he had been found guilty of the robbery.

Man's Envoys Has 2-Hour Talk With Tshombe

ELIZABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP) — Brig. I. J. Rykhye, military adviser and acting Secretary General of U. Thant's personal envoy to Katanga, had a two-hour talk with President Moise Tshombe today.

Tshombe told Rykhye that he was not in a position to permit the United Nations to send a mission to Katanga.

Tshombe said Rykhye told him the United Nations wanted to find a solution as soon as possible because "the U. N. financial situation is not brilliant and the secretary general is under constant pressure from the Afro-Asian group."

Tshombe added that Rykhye gave him the impression that the United Nations had no intention of further hostilities in Katanga and before U. N. policy could be changed a "new mandate" from the Security Council would be needed.

Princess to Undergo a Tonsil Operation

LONDON (AP) — Princess Alexandra, 20-year-old first cousin of Queen Elizabeth II, will enter a hospital Sunday for a tonsil operation.

The princess has had several throat infections in the past two years, some while officially touring for the queen. Last week she cancelled a visit to Royal Air Force units in Germany because her doctors advised her not to travel by air.

The tunnel is on the Tokaido Line in Central Japan. It will be 23.3 miles long and will cut sharply the travel time between Maetsuda and Naoetsu.

West Berliner Dies Tunneling Into East

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany announced today its border guards killed a West Berliner who was tunneling into East Berlin.

The East German newspaper said the man was being built from West Berlin to slip "agents, terrorists and provocateurs" into the Red-ruled sector of the city.

The Communist said that on June 28 one "bandit" was killed, two wounded and one captured. An East German border guard was seriously hurt in the struggle, according to the Communist report.

The dead man's name was given as Siegfried Nofke. Dieter Hoerger of West Berlin and Juergen Koenig of East Berlin were also involved. The name of the wounded policeman was not given.

Plan Enrollment Period

LANSING (AP) — The State Civil Service Commission announced it will hold an open enrollment period for its state-employee life insurance program Aug. 1 through 35.

It will be the only time during the next three years that state employees not now covered can enroll themselves as dependents on the plan. New employees have 30 days in which to enroll.

Changes, Files for GOP Primary Race After All

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Rep. H. Carl Andersen, Minnesota Republican who said he would seek reelection as an independent, changed his mind Friday and filed as a GOP primary candidate.

Andersen's move, said the groundwork for a GOP primary fight in Minnesota's newly created 6th District. Republicans have endorsed a state legislator, Rep. Robert Odgaard, Princeton, Minn., for the nomination.

Andersen has served 12 terms as a Republican. His name was listed with Billie Sol Baker through sale of $4,000 family coal mining stock to the promoter.

Confessions by Officials Refire Estes Case Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dramatic confessions of two federal farm aid officials that they accepted money from a Billie Sol Estes emissary spurred wider ranging investigations today on several fronts.

On the verge of tears, Louis N. Dumas, 55, and Arthur Daniel Stone, 55, top officials of the McIntosh County, Okla., Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS), admitted Friday that they had received $1,640.80 from an agent of the Billie Sol Estes enterprises last summer.

They said they had lied about it under oath and had reported none of the money on their income tax returns.

Both men said they are amending their tax returns and, both tried to resign. But Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman rejected the resignations and suspended them instead—the start of a move to slam down bars against permitting either man ever again to be restored to the agency's payroll.

Although county officials, they drew their salaries—estimated at $8,000 to $20,000 a year—from the federal government.

It was not indicated immediately if any criminal action would be brought against Dumas and Stone.

Armed Bandits Hold Up Lapeer Youth, 3 Others

A Lapeer youth and three other knife-wielding bandits at the same location.

Stephen C. Bradshaw, 18, 461 N. Lapeer St., Lapeer, told police he was robbed by a man carrying a knife who approached him on Bagley near Jackson Street about 3 a.m. Bradshaw said he suffered a light cut on his back from the holdup man's knife.

Davis W. Forbes, 31, 414 Howard St., Independence Township, told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies he was awoke at 3 a.m. in his car in an alley off Bagley Street.

Forbes said he was picked up by a man and woman in his car on Baldwin Road in Pontiac Township last night. After getting in the car the man pulled a knife and they scuffled, Forbes said.

He told deputies he was knocked unconscious and was $88 missing from his wallet when he awakened. He suffered minor facial cuts and scratches.

Changes, Files for GOP Primary Race After All

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Rep. H. Carl Andersen, Minnesota Republican who said he would seek reelection as an independent, changed his mind Friday and filed as a GOP primary candidate.

Andersen's move, said the groundwork for a GOP primary fight in Minnesota's newly created 6th District. Republicans have endorsed a state legislator, Rep. Robert Odgaard, Princeton, Minn., for the nomination.

Andersen has served 12 terms as a Republican. His name was listed with Billie Sol Baker through sale of $4,000 family coal mining stock to the promoter.

Liquor Unif Sets Hearing

ESCANABA (AP) — The State Liquor Control Commission will hold a public hearing July 16 at the state office building in Escanaba on the proposed repeal of the prohibition of consumption of alcoholic liquors.

Studying American Courts

JAMAICAN JURISTS — The view from Oakland County's Court House is a topic of conversation as Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore points out landmarks to three visiting lady judges from Jamaica. The jurists (from left, Mrs. Ena Blanche Allen, Joyce Groves and Mrs. Ena Joyce Woodstock, toured the Court House yesterday and other county facilities with Judge Moore and his staff. They are visiting this country to compare the U.S. legal operation with Jamaica's system.

Jetliner Carrying 94 Ax Travel Curbs Vanishes at Bombay on Red Tourists

BOMBAY, India (AP) — An Italian jetliner carrying 94 persons vanished in a heavy downpour today while approaching Bombay's Santa Cruz Airport. Hours of search failed to reveal any trace of the aircraft.

Alitalia Airlines headquarters in Rome said they assumed the DC8 had crashed. The airliner, reported carrying 85 passengers and 9 crewmen, was flying from Sydney, Australia to Rome.

No Break Seen Soon in Doctors' Strike

FROM OUR NEWS WRITERS

REGINA, Sask. — The doctors' strike against Saskatchewan's compulsory medical care plan ended its first week today with no sign of a break in the deadlock that has left the Canadian province with only emergency medical service.

Medicare Plan OK Predicted

Sponsors in Senate See Passage of Bill by Next Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sponsors of President Kennedy's social security health care plan for the elderly predicted today it would pass the Senate by next Wednesday or Thursday.

Their confidence was bolstered by a voice vote defeat Friday of a Republican substitute in the first voting test—but not a very decisive one—on the strongly disputed legislation. Only about 15 senators were present at the time.

The substitute was offered by Sen. Thurston D. Morton, R-Ky.

It proposed that the program be financed from general revenues of the treasury and provide federal insurance premiums for persons over 65.

Winds Blamed in Delaying of 2nd Explosion

FROM OUR NEWS WRITERS

CAMP MERCURY, Nev. — The Atomic Energy Commission scheduled two above-ground nuclear blasts today — the first atmospheric shots here since 1958 — then postponed one of them.

Unfavorable wind direction was given as the reason for the postponement. The AEC said the shot would be delayed at least 24 hours.

Both shots were described as low-yield devices and their scheduling came amid unconfirmed reports that troops are en route to Nevada for a battlefield test early next week.

SHOTS OF LOW YIELD
Both shots were slated to be detonated only a few feet above the ground. Low yield indicates an explosive power of 20 kilotons—equal to 20,000 tons of TNT—plus.

Survey showed today's activities. All roads onto the site were closed.

The military nature of the shots was indicated by a statement that the Department of Defense, and the AEC, would conduct varied experiments to analyze the effects of nuclear explosions.

One of the devices was described as a weapon possessing a forerunner of the test set for next week.

SECRETARY IS STRICT
The AEC said radioactivity from the shots would be monitored at distances up to 200 miles, but predicted that off-site radiation would be well within established ranges.

Strict secrecy like that imposed today was expected to block out news about next week's test case histories.

He explained however that devices already were handicapped by lack of anaesthetic facilities and pointed out that operations—even at the Mississippi falls he loved and wrote about, the dirt of a heart attack Friday at 61.

MISS MICHIGAN — Dimpled Carol Jean Van Valin, 18-year-old June honoree graduate of Roscommon's Gerrish-Higgins High School and already holder of the title of National Trout Queen, is the new Miss Michigan. She was selected last night from a record field of 33 contestants.

Brainy Beauty Miss Michigan

FROM OUR NEWS WRITERS

MUSKOGEE — Carol Jean Van Valin, an intellectual bathing beauty whose talent hinged around a bit of Upper Peninsula folklore, was crowned last night Miss Michigan of 1962.

The top prize was worth an estimated $5,000 to the 18-year-old June graduate of Roscommon High School, who was also selected National Trout Queen last April 28 at the National Trout Festival in Kalkaska.

The Miss Michigan awards included a $1,000 scholarship, more than $1,000 in clothes, a $200 television set and an all expense trip.

Placing ninth in the contest was Mary Robertson, 18, Miss Waterford Township. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson of 2529 Mainline St.

In the Miss Michigan contest in Atlantic City, N.Y., in September.

Miss Van Valin, who was judge winner of the bathing suit competition at the pageant's first night Wednesday, also has free use of a 1962 automobile for the next year.

APPEAL DECISION
The decision of the judges was applied heavily by some 4,000 spectators at finals of the annual Miss Michigan pageant held at Muskegon.

Talented vocalist Jean Ann Fryer, a soloist with the Michigan State University Symphony Orchestra, was first runner-up.

She represented Muskegon County.

Finishing next in order were Sherrie Shepard of Dowagiac at second runner-up, Audreanne Bauman of Elkton at third runner-up, and upper Michigan candidate Catherine Ciesewski of Marquette, was fourth runner-up.

Sister candidates in the field of 25 girls voted Miss Fling—Johanna Vandenberg—as Miss Congeniality. The title brings the Netherlands immigrant a cooler special puppy and a $150 scholarship.

London (UPI) — Three British Army recruits are going into the army next week with their mothers.

The mothers will remain at the army camp only one week. Their sons, all volunteers, will stay considerably longer.

The mothers will go on special invitations from the British army. "We want to show the mothers exactly what goes on in the early days of a recruit's training," explained Maj. Edward Smerdon, a Royal Engineers adjutant.

The mothers and sons are Mrs. Olympe Billel and her Eric, 19; Mrs. Grace Collingworth and Barry, 19; Mrs. Joyce Bowler and Neil, 18.

"When Eric told me he was joining the army, I told him he must be out of his mind," Mrs. Billel said.

Getting into something with all that getting up early and discipline. Then they invited me to come and see for myself."

Mrs. Collingworth, who said her week with the army will be the first week away from homework for 25 years, told a reporter: "I want to see their kitchens."

Foulkner Funeral Today

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—Burial was slated today for novelist William Faulkner in the red clay at the Mississippi falls he loved and wrote about. He died of a heart attack Friday at 61.

The U.S. action personally approved by President Kennedy, was announced Friday by the State Department.

Beginning immediately, the approximately 2,000 Russians who visit the United States each year will be as free to travel as any other foreign tourists.

In a note handed by Undersecretary of State George Ball to Ambassador Anatoly E. Dobrynin, the State Department informed the Soviet government of its action and asked for a reciprocal Russian step to contribute to better mutual understanding and broadening of cooperation between the peoples of the two countries.

PREVIOUSLY CLOSED
Closed areas in the United States totaled up to one-fourth of total territory.

Cities previously closed and now moved under the new ruling include Charleston, W. Va.; Kalamazoo, Mich.; Memphis, Tenn.; Youngstown, Ohio; Hartford, Conn.; Rochester, N.Y.

Other closed cities were Springfield, Mass.; Westfield, Mass.; Palm Beach and West Palm Beach, Fla.; Houston and Dallas, Tex.; Santa Fe and Albuquerque, N.M.; Phoenix, Ariz.; Las Vegas, Nev.; San Diego, Calif.; and St. Louis, Detroit and Pittsburgh.

The move may result in a performance of the Bolshoi Ballet in Detroit, Moscow Auditorium manager Clarence Van Loyk said yesterday.

He said he has held three days in November open in case he can book the famous Moscow troupe. Van Loyk said if the act is not booked the famous troupe, the performance will be possible.

McNamara Warns Reds U.S. Not Committed to Spare Towns in War

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has let the Russians know the United States has not locked itself into a commitment to spare Russian cities from destruction in the event of a nuclear war.

Informed sources said today this was the import of words McNamara used Friday in answering questions about his strategy, which aims at confining any nuclear weapons to military targets as much as possible.

In a speech three weeks ago at Ann Arbor, Mich., McNamara had said the United States has concluded that, so far as is feasible, principal military objectives in event of nuclear war "should be destruction of the enemy's military forces, not of his civilian population."

He said then that "we are (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

New Cash Cache Found in Garage

NEW JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—A second jackpot garage in Jersey City has yielded $100,000 in gambling cash, bringing the total found this week to more than $2.30 million.

With the latest haul, found Friday, a block away from the first cache, police now figure they have uncovered two key installations in the gambling enterprise of Joseph (Newby) Moriaty—his office and his bank.

FOUND IN GARAGE
The newly discovered cache—found from $100 bills to pennies—was turned up by police in a garage at 47 Oxford Ave. On Tuesday, $24,000 was found in an old car left in a garage at 123 Oxford Ave.

The latest money was stuffed in two big paper bags. An additional $4,000 in grocery bags containing numbers slips and adding machines were also found.

Hudson County Prosecutor Lawrence A. Whipple said he was positive that Friday's find, as well as the $2.4 million, belonged to Moriaty, who is now serving a 2 1/2-year sentence in the state prison in Trenton on a gambling conviction.

MUM ON MONEY
Moriaty has declined to confirm or deny ownership of the cash hoard.

Police Director William V. McLaughlin said the garage apparently was the 32-year-old Moriaty's base of operations—in effect his office. The $2.4 million cache was his bank.

Police said the "office" had not been used since February, when Moriaty went to jail. The numbers slips covered 58 days of the year, ending Feb. 19, the day Moriaty was arrested.

Golf Pro Shop Hit by Thieves

Edgewood Country Club Burglarized; $1,550 in Merchandise Missing

Burglars who broke into the pro shop at the Edgewood Country Club in Commerce Township equipped with an estimated $1,550 in golf equipment, clothing, checks and cash during the night.

Two watchmen who were on duty at the golf club at 839 Commerce Road told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies they heard no noises in the pro shop all night.

The break-in was discovered at 6 a.m. today when Paul Van Loosen, the club's head professional golfer, opened the shop.

He said missing merchandise included 4 shirts, 12 jackets, 144 golf balls, several golf clubs, a golf bag, $50 in cash and about $200 in checks.

Sheriff's deputies said thieves got into the shop by cutting open a screen and entering through an unlocked window. They escaped the same way, officers said.

Other was used in the civilised world as an anesthesia within six months after its first successful demonstration in Boston in 1846.

Writ Protecting Soblen From Return

Wrangle Looms Over Runaway Spy

LONDON (AP)—A complex legal wrangle loomed today over runaway spy Robert Soblen's last-chance gamble to cheat American justice.

Soblen himself lay in the hospital behind the grim gray walls of London's Brixton Jail—protected for the moment, by one of the oldest laws of England.

A writ of habeas corpus granted by a high court judge Friday kept the 52-year-old fugitive safe for at least another 10 days.

BLOOD RETURN
The writ blocked his immediate return to the United States—and a life jail sentence for spying for the Soviet Union.

Soblen's attorneys followed this move with an application that he be granted asylum in Britain.

The Home Office announced it could not consider this application until after the habeas corpus hearing July 17. And Soblen cannot be shipped out of the country until earlier had fled to Israel on a forged passport after an American court rejected his appeal from the life sentence.

Before American officials could act Friday on the word that he was well enough to leave, Soblen's lawyers got the writ of habeas corpus.

This is one of the most jealously guarded writs in English law. Literally, it means "produce the body."

AWAITS TRIAL FOR ABORTION; SENTENCED ON 2ND CHARGE
A Bloomfield Township doctor today awaited trial on a charge of conspiracy to commit criminal abortion.

The doctor, Dr. Hugh H. Miley, 60, of 2130 Ford Road, was sentenced by Detroit Recorder's Court Judge Gerald W. Drust for a conspiracy to commit criminal abortion.

Dr. Miley, who operates an office in Detroit, was convicted after a jury found him guilty of conspiracy to commit criminal abortion.

DOWNED INDIAN PLANE FOUND; SOME SURVIVE
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The wreckage of an Indian Air Force plane has been found near Aurangabad, about 180 miles northeast of Bombay, United News of India said today.

The report said the plane, a Canberra, was on a cross country flight and that at least some of the crew survived.

SAYS U.S. COULD HIT RED CITIES IN WAR
(Continued From Page One) giving a possible opening to the strongest imaginable incentive to refrain from striking our own cities."

STRESS FLEXIBILITY
At a news conference Friday, McNamara stressed the flexibility of U.S. nuclear strategy and said "we have a force so large that we can be certain that it can absorb a full first strike by any potential enemy and survive with sufficient power to destroy the military capabilities of that potential enemy."

"This permits us, should we choose to do so, to apply a strategy that would direct the surviving force... against the military targets of that potential enemy."

McNamara added: "I emphasize the word 'permitted'—we have the choice of whether to strike."

This sentence raised questions as to whether McNamara was broadening the terms of his spare-the-cities strategy.

Source familiar with McNamara's thinking said the defense secretary was telling the Russians that the United States is mulling out a possible strike in the event of a Russian attack in the advantage of the United States—even if the Russians avoid hitting U.S. cities in a surprise nuclear assault.

The sources suggested the United States is leaving itself free to strike at Soviet cities if, for example, the Russians should start their massive ground forces in motion to overrun Free Europe.

AF Jet Bomber Explodes in Air

Copilot Survives; 2 Others Killed as Craft Rips Apart in Kansas

ST. FRANCIS, Kan. (AP)—An Air Force B-47 jet bomber exploded in the air over northwest Kansas last night after radioing that an engine had caught fire at 32,000 feet and the copilot was bailing out.

The copilot, who landed across the Nebraska border about 8 miles from the crash scene, was the only survivor of the crew of three. He is 1st Lt. Howard J. Stein, 29, of Ferguson Falls, Minn. Stein escaped with minor injuries.

Killed were the pilot, 1st Lt. Douglas Powell Bishop, 23, of Elberton, Ga., and the navigator, 1st Lt. Harry Dan Wolfson Jr., 27, of Baldwin Park, Calif.

There was no immediate explanation why Bishop and Wolfson did not parachute out. The distress message was radioed to Schilling Air Force Base at Salina, Kan., where the plane was stationed.

The explosion came just after sundown and was seen as far away as Dighton, Kan., 140 miles to the southeast. It struck buildings over a wide area in the northwest corner of Kansas.

William Butler, a farmer working in a field, heard the blast and looked up.

"I saw three smoking pieces coming down, and the largest one looked like it was going to hit my house where my family was inside," Burr said. "It gave me a mighty sick feeling."

POLICE SURVEILLANCE AT PLANT STEPPED UP
ROSEVILLE (AP)—Police stepped up surveillance at the General Electric Co. plant today in the wake of a recent strike.

The city council, told by City Manager Louis A. Meiorani that "serious bloodshed" was feared, last night rescinded a prior order reducing the number of police visits to the plant.

VIRGINIA CAR COLLISION FATAL TO SEVEN PERSONS
COLONIAL HEIGHTS, Va. (AP)—Seven persons were killed early this morning when two heavily loaded automobiles crashed head-on on four miles north of here on U.S. 1.

State police said 15 persons were in the two cars, one of which was traveling north, the other south.

The Day in Birmingham

Public Hearing Delayed on Proposals for Sewers

BIRMINGHAM—A public hearing on the proposed Chester, Wallace and Lincoln relief sewers has been postponed until the fall.

The hearing had been scheduled for Monday but because some of the property owners involved are on vacation it will not be held until September or October, according to City Clerk Irene Hanley.

A public hearing was held June 11 but a decision by the commission was deferred and the hearing adjourned until July 9.

Heavy opposition to the project has been voiced by residents living in the area that it would serve. Most claim that new sewers would be an unnecessary expense.

Cost of the project has been estimated at $180,000. If the city would assume 20 per cent of the cost, it would cost each property owner approximately $250.

Beginning tomorrow Masses for parishioners of the recently organized St. Owen's Catholic Church in Bloomfield Township will be held at the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School, Quanton and Wing Lake roads.

Mass will be held at 8 and 10 a.m., according to Father Edward T. Walling, pastor.

Originally, Mass had been held at the Wing Lake School but the response from parishioners has been so great, said Father Walling, that it has been necessary to move to larger quarters.

Until a parish rectory is built, Father Walling is residing at St. Columban's Rectory, 32500 Middle Belt Road.

Two new candidates have been appointed to fill vacancies in Birmingham Farms.

Walter Gerick, former village assessor, and Clayton H. Raymond, successor Donald Moran and Leonard Scheuer, both of whom resigned recently.

Leonard, a village resident 22 years, will complete the term of term of Scheuer, elected in March. Gerick will complete an unexpired one-year term.

Eugene Parmenter has been elected president of the Birmingham Lions Club and Ralph

Oxford Lions Plan Installation at Fete

OXFORD—Harold Van Vleet, 748 S. Lapeer Road, Oxford Township, will be installed as the new president of the Oxford Lions Club at the club's annual Picnic and Night dinner tonight.

Other officers recently elected are: Louis Curryell, school board treasurer, first vice president; Alan E. McMillan, 66, McDonald St., second vice president; and C. Webster, 151 1/2 First St., third vice president.

David Parrish, 11 Hudson St., will succeed Don Anvey as administrative secretary. Anvey held the post for 14 years.

Neighbors will continue as financial secretary. New treasurer is Kenneth E. Marsh, 690 Seibel Road, Oxford Township.

Cradle-Robbing Caltanpers Are Sought in Area

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies today were looking for some modern cradle robbers.

H. B. Childress, owner of a farm at 5386 Ormond Road, Springfield Township, told deputies yesterday that two of his 12-week-old calves were stolen.

One was taken Thursday night and the other Wednesday night, he said. Officers said the thieves apparently drove up next to Childress' barn yard on Schaeffer Road. They took the calves out of the barn and escaped in a car, according to the deputies.

Rums to be discontinued will be those leaving downtown at 6:45 and 11:45 a.m. and at 12:45 p.m. The remaining runs are 6:45 and 8:45 a.m. and at 2:15 p.m., 3:45 and 6:45.

The experimental service has been in effect since April 23, six days a week excluding Sunday.

Pilon yesterday said the service had netted the company an average of $18 a day, when its costs were $35.

The situation is such that it's a little difficult for us to carry the full service at a loss," he said. "The reduction will be in effect until a final determination on continuing the service can be made."

Land Grab New Threat to Algeria

By ANDREW BOROWICK
ALGIERS (AP)—Moroccan troops occupied areas of the Algerian Sahara today in a new challenge to National Premier Youssef Ben Khedda's moderate regime. Fears the Algerian leaders were shocked.

and disillusioned by the land-grabbing move of Morocco's King Hassan II. But the Ben Khedda regime appeared powerless to move against the Moroccan occupation.

Rebellious Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella, the radical leftist who split with Ben Khedda on the issue of Algerian independence, kept up a steady drum of criticism of the Algiers' regime from his refuge in Cairo.

In an apparent play for military support, he accused Ben Khedda of wanting to liquidate the 140,000-man Nationalist army and the "popular revolution." Defining his economic policies, he said: "Frankly, I mean socialism."

In Rabat, Mohammed Khider, a Ben Bella supporter who resigned from Ben Khedda's cabinet last week, accused Ben Khedda of trying to seize power in Algiers illegally. Khider and other Ben Bella supporters have seized possession of the Algerian Nationalist legion in the Moroccan capital.

The Moroccan move was disclosed only three days after Algeria was proclaimed independent from France. Algerian officials moved into several desert posts in the area of Tindouf and Colomb Bechar.

START AUDITORIUM — A lone power shovel did the ground-breaking honors yesterday as it took a healthy bite of ground where the County Service Center Auditorium will be south of the new courthouse. Construction of the $63,812 structure is to be finished by next spring. It will serve as a meeting place for the County Board of Supervisors and as a public meeting place for other purposes. A wing connecting it with the courthouse will contain offices permitting withdrawal of all county activities from the downtown Pontiac area.

Sterling Twp. Boy Is Drowning Victim

A 5-year-old Sterling Township boy drowned early yesterday in 7 1/2 feet of water at Metropolitan.

Arthur C. Schiact of 4016 Dequindre Road was wading with other youngsters when he apparently was pulled in.

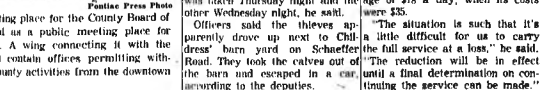

The body was found by two teenage girls. Attempts at artificial respiration were unsuccessful.

"The boy had gone to the beach with his mother, Margaret Schiact."

Young Bandit Holds Up Shop at Miracle Mile

A young bandit armed with a pistol yesterday got away with $200 in loot from the Penny Farmer Candy Shop at Miracle Mile Shopping Center, Bloomfield Township police reported.

Police said the hoodlum shoved a saleswoman to floor and held her head down to prevent her from looking at him. The woman was Mildred Ray of 7026 Hutchery Road, Waterford Township.

Families Attend Church Camp

First Presbyterians Leave for Recreation Area Near Hastings

Families of First Presbyterian Church have been looking forward to the annual get together at Family Camp held for the past four years at Long Lake Group Camp in the Yankee Springs Recreation Area near Hastings.

The camp has grown in numbers from 56 in 1959 to 89 this year. The largest attendance was 106 in 1960.

First Presbyterian Family Camp was organized in 1959 and has been directed entirely by lay members of the congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carlson, in charge of the camp, are assisted this year by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Everett, the Victor Browns and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis.

Families spending next week at the camp include Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cross, the Lowell Armstrongs, Harvey Batson, Erwin Barlein, Charles Buckle, John Hill, and the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Panaretos.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. Ford Everett, Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin, the Fred Sartells, Richard Irwin, the M. Robert Sartells, the Carlsons, Browns and Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Barnett Shepherd, student assistant pastor, will attend and handle crafts.

Dr. Harold F. Fredsoll who is preaching in the absence of Rev. Galen E. Hershey will preach on "Luke, the Gentle Christian Gospel" Sunday morning. Mrs. Richard Harris will sing "The Ninety-First Psalm."

Mrs. Roy Ashwin and Mrs. T. C. McFetridge will greet those attending the service in the vestibule.

Jehovah's Witnesses to Attend Conference

More than 4,000 are expected to attend the "Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses" Friday through Sunday in Saginaw. Congregations from lower Michigan will be represented.

William Strong, presiding minister of local congregations, announced Samuel Wallace, Edward Thornton and Richard Baugh, all of Pontiac, will serve on the food committee during the conference. Other local residents serving will be Clinton Duck and Erick Belter, ushers; Joseph LaBarge, Charles Shear and Robert H. Irwin Jr., water baptism; Warren H. Brown, photography; and Mr. Strong, news service.

300 Seventh-Day Adventists

Attending 94th Annual Camp Meeting

Some 300 members of Pontiac's Seventh-day Adventist Church, 156 Mt. Clemens St., are holding worship services today at the 94th Annual Camp Meeting of Michigan Adventists, Grand Ledge, along with more than 150,000 other church members from throughout the state.

This morning at the regular worship service, local Adventists heard H.M.S. Richards, Los Angeles, speaker on the denominations' weekly radio program, "The Voice of Prophecy."

Features of the 16-day session include a full line of services beginning with the early devotional services at 6:30 a.m. and preaching service at 7:30.

At Sabbath School services this morning, Pontiac's Adventist members joined in a program which featured the study program of the church, and a segment of the church's missions program in foreign lands.

TRUST CITY

The Rev. Paul R. Dolson of Ann Arbor, director of the Protestant Foundation for International Students at the University of Michigan, will be guest preacher at Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian, at both worship services tomorrow morning.

He has chosen for his sermon subject "Toward the Renewal of the Church."

The soloist for both services will be Mrs. Jean Carpenter, soprano, who will sing "Be Still and Know That I Am God" by Bilglood.

Planning and acting as host and hostess for the coffee hour after each service will be Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith.

Carroll Appel, chairman of the Christian education committee of the session, has called a meeting for 8 p.m. at the church.

Pastor and Mrs. Edward D. Aulchard who are visiting the Middle East expect to worship tomorrow morning with the Coptic Evangelical Church in Egypt.

Acting as counselor at Camp Greenwood, Greenville, this week is Mrs. Charles Unbehaun. Spending the week there are Terry Brennan, Richard Hill, Andrea Sento and Mary Unbehaun.

Atheistic Communism Hit by Pius IX in 1846

The Catholic Church, diametrically opposed to atheistic communism, denounced the social cancer even before it started to spread, says the Catholic Digest.

The magazine notes that in 1846 Pope Pius IX wrote an encyclical letter pointing to the danger of communism. This was two years before Karl Marx published the "Communist Manifesto."
