Escort Owns One Weapon

Police Check 2 Guns in Secretary Slaying

NILES (INS)—Two .22 caliber firearms were being checked today in connection with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Marion Davenjay, 27, found outside a Niles night club early Sunday morning.

One of the weapons is a rifle found in a field at the rear of the Powatin Hospital, 10 blocks from where the woman was shot. The rifle had been fired recently.

Also being checked was a pistol belonging to Gene McClane, Mrs. Davenjay's companion on the night she was killed.

Niles Police Chief Arthur Pears said he learned McClane had given the pistol to his brother, Don, Sunday morning and that Don had taken it to Norwalk, Ohio.

Pears also reported he had been informed Mrs. Davenjay and McClane had been keeping company for several weeks, although McClane first said he had not seen her since 1948.

Mrs. Davenjay was estranged from her husband.

The police chief has returned to Niles from Norwalk, where the weapon and cartridges had been turned over to police. Pears said they will be submitted to the State Police Laboratory in East Lansing for examination.

Pears said information obtained so far has failed to link "definitely" the .22 caliber bullet taken from the victim's body with the gun that was turned over to police at Norwalk. He said tests showed the bullet apparently was fired from one of three makes of firearms, including pistols and revolvers.

A woman member of a magazine subscription team has agreed to take a lie detector test following a coroner's inquest tomorrow, the police chief said.

She was identifed as Rita McGraw, 23, of Greensburg, Pa. She was described as a fellow worker with magazine salesman McClane, 40.

54 Will Receive School Diplomas at St. Frederick

The Rev. Edmund A. Fournier, prefect of studies from Sacred Heart Seminary at Orchard Lake, will give the address to the graduates.

Dominic Kline and the St. Vincent choir will provide music for Commencement.

City Bank Eyes Future Addition

Proposed New Project Would Include Ramp Across Alley

Tentative plans for an addition to the Community National Bank building, at 15 East Lawrence St., and connected with the present building through a ramp over the alley have been revealed.

The new building, on which work could not begin before January of 1958, would be on the site now occupied by Backenstose Bookstore.

Plans were revealed when the bank asked permission of the city to bridge the alley behind its present building.

A. C. Girard, president of the bank, said cramped quarters in the present building has necessitated the new addition, estimated to cost approximately $500,000, including the ramp.

"Our ideas for expansion are very nebulous until we get permission for this ramp," Girard said. Present plans are to request a 60 foot wide ramp to be 13½ feet off the alley level. It will be a one-floor enclosed bridge between the two structures and will include office space.

Marines Are First

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Marines have established the first mobile, land-based (at Twenty Nine Palms, Cal.) anti-aircraft battalion to be equipped with guided missiles. A battalion normally consists of about 900 men.

Tito to Demand Freedom Move From the Soviet

MOSCOW (AP)—Yugoslav President Tito opened formal negotiations with the leaders of the Soviet Union today to complete the reconciliation of his version of communism and the Kremlin's post-Stalin brand.

Yugoslav circles said their chief of state would insist on retaining complete independence of action and freedom to continue the equable relations he established with the West after Stalin booted him out of the Soviet bloc in 1948.

Tito in a speech at the Kremlin yesterday proclaimed his willingness to be friends with the Soviet Union—as an equal.

WASHINGTON (INS) — House leaders said today the next few days may be crucial in U.S. relations with strategic Yugoslavia, whose Marshal Tito is now being wined and dined in Moscow.

They reported strong sentiment to halt American aid to the country whose president is cementing close ties with Russia after being in the Communist "doghouse" for years.

Promoted

WALTER C. KRAUSE

Police Officer Named Captain

Pick Lt. Walter Krause Head of Night Activities for City Department

Pontiac police officer Walter C. Krause was promoted today to fill the newly-created position of night police captain.

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley said the new post will increase the efficiency of police operations at night.

Krause, 57 years old last month, had served as a lieutenant 10 years. He joined the force over 25 years ago.

Straley emphasized that there has been no particular increase in the night-time crime rate here, but explained the night captaincy has long been needed to handle existing police business.

"Many of our serious crimes and police problems," he said, "do occur at night, requiring executive command by an officer with long experience in police work."

Krause will take over the job June 19, when he returns from vacation.

The new captain has worked in combatting juvenile delinquency since last August. He was promoted to detective in 1926 and to sergeant in 1938. Following his promotion to lieutenant March 7, 1946, he remained on general assignment in the detective bureau.

Atlanta Hammer Case Suspect Under Arrest

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Florida man who police said admitted killing an attractive secretary in a $2,400 payroll robbery in Atlanta, Ga., was held without charge today pending arrival of Georgia authorities.

Capt. David E. Kerr, chief of the Cleveland homicide unit, said Don Mitchell, 25, of Miami, admitted in a signed statement last night that he killed Mrs. Inez Johnson, 30, with a hammer last Friday in the office of the Ingram Mantle and Tile Co. in downtown Atlanta.

Mrs. Johnson was slain as she worked alone on the payroll during the lunch hour.

French, Germans Agree on Saar Basin Transfer

Adenauer, Mollet Meet to Spur Treaty Action by January First

LUXEMBOURG (AP) —French Premier Guy Mollet and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer agreed early today on the procedure for transfer of the rich Saar valley back to Germany.

Officials said the accord would permit speedy preparation of a treaty making the disputed border area a political part of West Germany by Jan. 1.

The agreement includes provisions for (1) a three-year transition period for termination of the customs and economic union between France and the Saar, (2) continued French rights to some coal production in the region and (3) building an international canal linking the Moselle and Rhine rivers.

France and West Germany have long sought to eliminate the Saar as a major point of friction in their relations.

The German-speaking industrial sector supplies much of the coal to process the iron from France's great Lorraine mines nearby.

Groundwork for returning the 991-square-mile industrial valley to West Germany has been laid in a series of recent elections won by the region's pro-German parties.

The Saar was separated from Germany after World War I and administered by the League of Nations through a commission. In 1935 the Saarlanders voted to return to Hitler's Third Reich. Since World War II the Saar has been nominally an autonomous state, subject to French economic law, currency and customs.

Fair and Warmer Tomorrow's Forecast

The U. S. Weather Bureau's forecast for the Pontiac area tonight is fair with a low of 50 to 54 degrees.

Warmer weather is expected tomorrow with fair skies. The high will be 76 to 80.

The lowest thermometer reading preceding 8 a.m. was 50 degrees. At 2 p.m. the mercury rose to 68 degrees.

Nature Delays Spring Sports

United Press Photo

RAIN AGAIN — This was a typical scene in the Pontiac area during the past month, when approximately 6.5 inches of rain was dumped on 21 of 31 days. Besides hindering the baseball season, and flooding area golf courses, it set the farmers back several weeks in spring planting.

May Chock-Full of Rainy Days

By PAT PAXTON

Rain monopolized the weather for the month of May as it rained 21 of the 31 days for a total of 6.48 inches. This was almost three times as much as May last year, 2.30 inches.

State and county farmers were late planting their crops as a result of the heavy rains during the first week of May.

Thunderstorms pelted down close to two inches of rain on Pontiac and the rest of Oakland county May 9 and for the second time in two weeks caused flooded basements, streets and highways.

On the 11th, after the state's third tornado alert the mercury hovered around 80 degrees for the first time this year.

Death and destruction struck the state on May 12, as six persons died and 200 were injured by screaming whirlwinds. In the Flint area three persons were killed.

Twisters battered Oxford, the night of the 12th. Along with South Lyon and New Hudson Power lines went down, and barns and homes were smashed.

Brief snow flurries fell on Pontiac May 16, as the weatherman pushed aside the calendar and brought back traces of Winter.

By May 18 all the county's 400 lakes were at high levels, and many were ready to roll over their banks, because of the great downpour the first half of the month. A total of 6.12 inches of rain had been dumped on Pontiac in 13 days of rain.

Light frost was reported in the Pontiac area on the 23rd as the mercury dropped to 29 degrees.

Windstorms, hail and brief torrential rains hit portions of Oakland County May 30, sending holiday crowds scattering for shelter toward the end of a sunny Memorial Day.

A sudden downpour the last day of May plunged the mercury from 76 degrees at 4:15 to 66 at 4:45. Later there was a drop of 30 degrees in the temperatures which brought a chilly end to the month of May.

The average high temperature for the month of May was 67 degrees. The month's average low was 46 degrees.

'Gold' Rules Important

Talk about thankless jobs! Even a baseball umpire is better off than the person behind the scenes who tabulates the thousands of POT-O-GOLD entries each week.

It's for these hard-working organizers that we have certain contest rules — like the one about attaching entries to postcards. Envelopes take time to open, thus cutting efficiency and time in picking winners.

The many envelopes, some containing postcards, are not in accord with Rule No. 3. The judging problem, therefore, will make it necessary to rule ineligible any entries sent in after June 11 via envelopes. Thank you for your cooperation.

Primary All-Important

Nation's Democrats Watch Voting in California Today

LOS ANGELES (INS)—California votes today in an all-important presidential primary that is expected to be the deciding match between Democratic contenders Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Both Stevenson, the 1952 party standard-bearer, and Kefauver, who captured the state primary in that year, were confident of victory in this largest and last primary.

Failure of either candidate to win convincingly, observers point out, could well touch off full-blown campaigns for Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri or another "favorite son" candidate.

President Eisenhower is without opposition on the Republican ballot, which consists of a "harmony" slate devoted to policies of his administration.

Kefauver put to an end yesterday recurrent rumors that he might settle for second spot on this year's Democratic ballot when he declared: "I'll either get the Democratic nomination for the presidency or I will stay in the Senate."

The tall, deliberate - speaking Southerner predicted victory in California "by a majority of 185,000 votes or more."

Stevenson declined to make a prediction but said he is "quietly confident" of adding the state's 68 Democratic electors to his list of supporters.

Both candidates have stumped the vote-rich state from the arid Mexican border region to the tall timber of the north, and both showed signs of fatigue from the rigorous campaigning.

Ike Calls in Leaders for Meeting Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has asked House Democratic and Republican leaders to meet with him tonight for talks about the $1,109,000,000 cut in foreign aid voted by the House Foreign Affairs Committee. He hopes to get the cut rescinded.

Mayor Suggests Project to Serve 2-County Area

Revenue Bonds Seen as Financing Method for $85 Million Job

Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo proposed yesterday an $85 million pipeline from Detroit to Lake Huron to supply water to Pontiac, and other Oakland and Macomb County municipalities.

He said the line would be financed by revenue bonds, "paid for and retired by the communities that buy water from Detroit."

The mayor did not reveal what, if any, connection there would be between the city's pipeline plans and plans of the newly-created Southeastern Michigan Water Authority, an Oakland-Macomb partnership formed to run its own pipeline to either Lake Huron or Lake St. Clair.

Royal Oak Mayor Howard K. Kelley, chairman of the Authority, was not available for comment.

Officials in the Detroit Water Board said this morning the city's proposed line would be run from Detroit to "a point on the St. Clair River between the lake and Marine City."

They said the location of the intake will depend on solutions to the pollution problem created by refineries in Sarnia.

Detroit's proposed seven-foot pipe would carry 300 million gallons of water a day, most of which would be drained off to rate-paying cities along the route before it reaches Detroit.

Williams Calls Special Session

Legislature to Consider Roads, Unemployment, Prison Problem

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today set June 13 as the opening day for a special session of the legislature to study problems of unemployment and highway and prison needs.

Williams said legislators of both parties had told him that date is the earliest practical day for their return.

The Governor said highway bond money should be available for this year's road-building season if the legislators act promptly.

"At the same time," he said, "unemployment benefits can be strengthened to provide a real shot in the arm for the unemployed and the retailers from whom they buy the necessities of life."

Williams first spoke of calling the special session when he was informed that a hitch in the language of the 1955 Highway Act might prevent the sale of bonds for an arterial highway system.

He then decided a special session would be called to boost unemployment compensation for the state's unemployed workers.

GOP MIGHT BALK

The session will also consider a proposal to appropriate more funds for the new medium security prison at Ionia to avert union threats of a strike in protest over the use of inmate labor.

Republican spokesmen gave early indication they might balk at Williams' proposal to raise unemployment benefits.

Wade S. Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo), speaker of the House, had charged the Governor was calling the session "because he feels it is to his advantage politically."

Van Valkenburg said he thought law-makers might go along with the Governor on the highway and prison legislation but might turn down the increased unemployment benefits.

"Michigan now pays the highest benefits of any state in the union," he said.

Modern Fire Hall Slated for Huron and Genesee

When construction begins on Pontiac's new west side fire hall, to be built on the southwest corner of W. Huron and Genesee, it will mark the start of the city's most modern station and the first to be constructed since 1928.

A project of City Commissioner Philip E. Rowston, in whose District 2 it will be situated, the one-floor structure will become the city's fifth fire station.

On Feb. 21, the City Commission hired architect Leo J. Heenan as designer for the new station. He has designed both the City Hall and the Public Safety Building, now under construction.

Heenan is presently making working drawings for the station, and he estimates it will cost between $80,000 and $85,000. It is being financed from the 1956 capital improvement program.

He said work should begin in about five weeks with construction to take between four to five months.

The brick and cinder block building will have an 89-foot frontage on Huron street and run 74 feet along Genesee avenue. To prevent blocking traffic on Huron when trucks return from a fire, a back entrance will be off Oriole road allowing the vehicles to enter and be facing into Huron prepared for another call.

The large apparatus room will have space for two engine companies, one 100 foot aerial ladder truck and the battalion chief's car.

A device will electrically close the front doors on the station two minutes after the trucks leave to save heat in the winter time and to secure the station when most men are on a call.

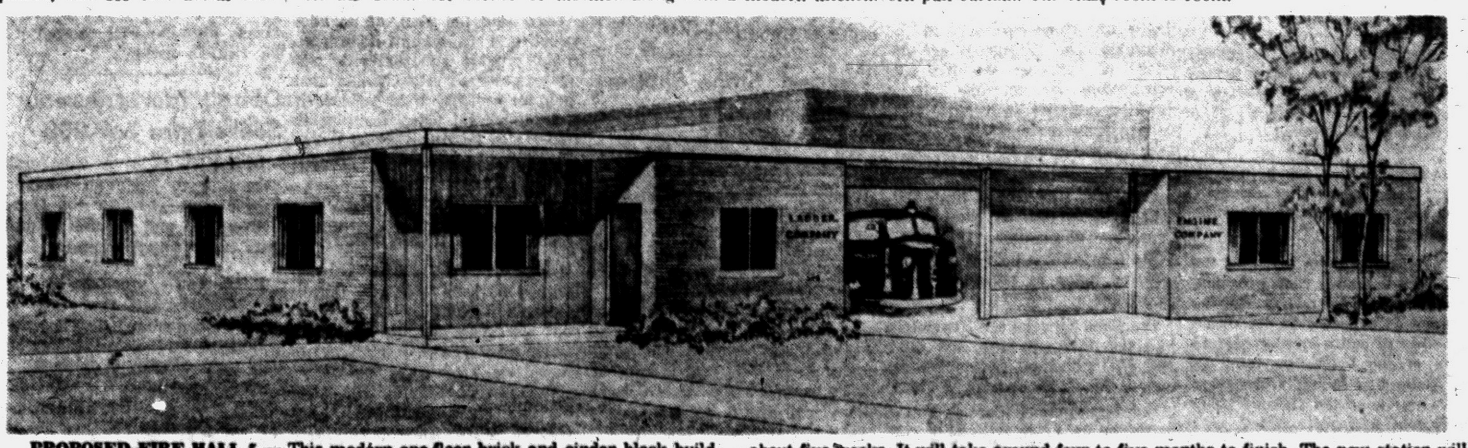

At the southwest corner of the flat-roof building will be a 14-bed dormitory for the men. Nearby will be the officer's sleeping quarters with three beds. Adjoining this will be a lounge and office for the officers.

The most up-to-date dining room facilities will be available for 14 men along with a modern kitchen.

In the front of the hall will be a watch room for a man on duty to await alarms and also a lounge and reading room for the men.

The dining room will be separated from a class room by a modern pull curtain. The class room is designed for monthly refresher courses, Civil Defense classes, and if the need be, a voting precinct for the city.

There will be plenty of storage rooms and closets and a work shop for needed repairs of vehicles and equipment, and a hose-drying room.

PROPOSED FIRE HALL 5 — This modern one-floor brick and cinder block building will soon be constructed at W. Huron and Genesee to serve the city's west side. It was designed by architect Leo J. Heenan who estimates construction will begin in about five weeks. It will take around four to five months to finish. The new station will be financed from the 1956 capital improvement program.

Ike's 'Double' Has Capital in Tizzy During Weekend

While President Eisenhower was resting on his Gettysburg farm last weekend, Pontiac's "double" to Ike was playing the role of president and causing quite a turmoil in the capitol.

Hector J. Chambers, 52, 388 S. Anderson St., along with his wife, joined a tour of Miss Janice Antona's, local teacher of citizenship, on a weekend trip to Washington, D. C.

He had no sooner left the train on which the 40-member group journeyed, when people began giving the Pontiac visitor more than a second look.

"Everywhere I went during the entire weekend I was hounded for autographs by kids and grown-ups alike," Chambers recalled. "People wanted me to pose with their children even though I kept telling them I wasn't President Eisenhower."

Members of the tour became so accustomed to listening to people call Chambers "President Eisenhower," that they tagged him "Our Mr. President."

"His resemblance to Ike certainly added a lot of fun to our trip," Miss Antona said.

One little tot broke loose from his mother's grasp and remarked: "You certainly have more hair than you do on television."

In a visit to one of the historical museums in Washington, Chambers and his wife became separated from the rest of the group. Badge-wearing guards soon began to follow the couple. When the group returned to join them, additional guards tried to keep them back from "the President."

"Only after we convinced them who I was did our group get back together," Chambers, a Grand Trunk conductor, said.

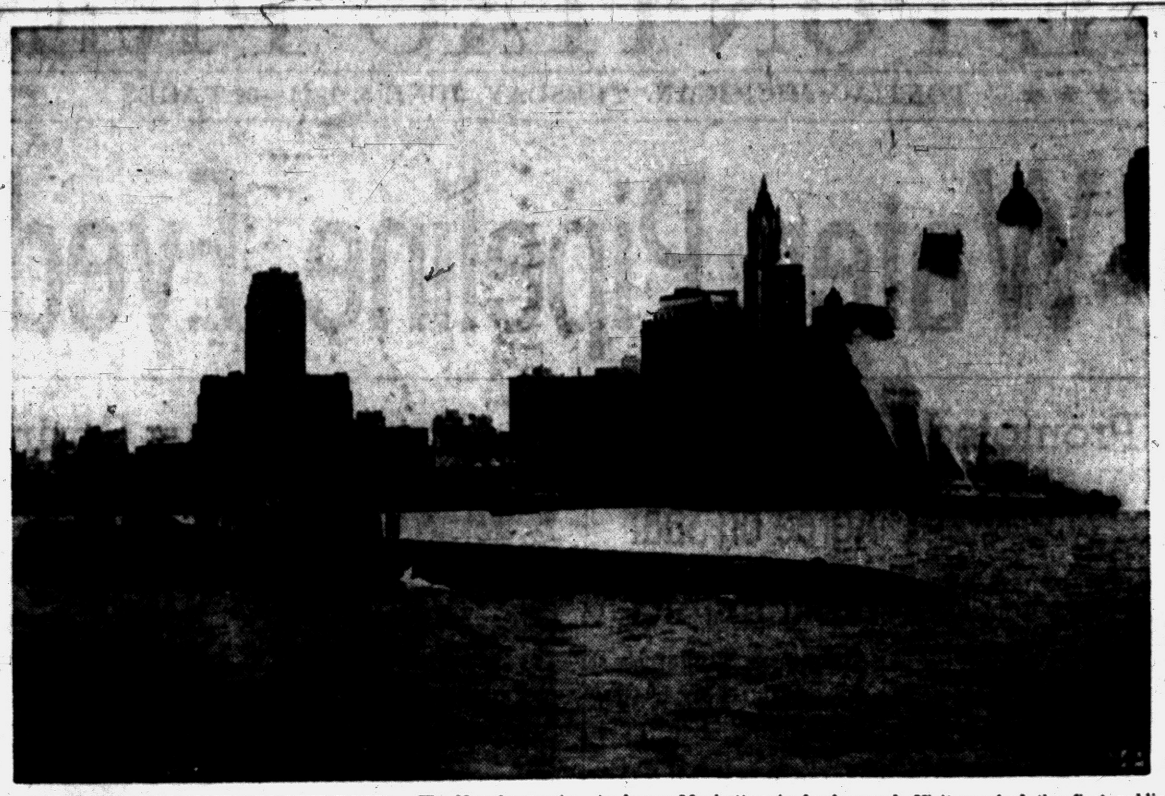

During the trip the red carpet was rolled out by Rep. George A. Dondero who ushered the visitors into many of the "hard to visit" areas. A dinner was held in the private dining room of the speaker of the House of Representatives Friday night with Dondero the honored guest.

Addressing the contingent, Dondero said: "Mr. President, Miss Antona, and guests."

In church Sunday, Chambers said he could hear people whispering about his identity during the service.

During the visit to the Capitol Building, a 12-year-old girl rushed to Chambers and threw her arms around him thinking he was Ike. After being a bit hesitant on returning the welcoming, the girl said: "You are the president aren't you?" A "no" sent the girl scurrying back to her teacher.

"All the fuss over my resemblance didn't bother me and I had a very fine trip," he said. "My only regret is that I went to get some pictures but couldn't break away long enough to take many."

The Day in Birmingham

City Questions Addition to Land Value by Paving

BIRMINGHAM — City officials found themselves in the position of objecting property owners last night as they eyed assessments for street improvement projects.

Both the Lincoln street and Holland street paving projects include city lots, which may or may not be increased in value by the street work.

City Commissioner Charles Renfrew questioned the new city assessor's policy of refusing to project into the future in evaluating property. Assessor Clark Hagstrom contends, "The benefit is to what is there now," but Renfrew calls street improvement "capital gains" for property owners.

The project on Holland Street will cost about $12,000, Hagstrom reported, with the city land assessed 31.99 per cent and the city paying 15 per cent of the total cost.

TO PRESENT REVIEWS

Review of the Holland project and the Lincoln project will be furnished by Hagstrom at next week's commission meeting.

The Lincoln project's assessment roll was tabled until next week. Hearing on another roll, for Eton paving, was continued indefinitely. The Holland hearing will be June 18.

* * *

"It would be nice to get the paving done while the people wanting it are still living," said Mayor James Allen as City Engineer L. R. Gare said that if paving were held over till next year, a larger project would reduce the cost per square yard.

The bid for paving projects on portions of Edgewood, Willits, Bates, Bird, Grant, Lincoln and Eton was accepted although it means a cost of $3.95 a square yard. Last year's paving was at a $3.30 figure.

Gare's appointment to the DPW director's post and that of Grover Serenbetz as city engineer was approved unanimously by commissioners.

Citywide bus service will begin Friday, according to the management of the Suburban Shoppers, Inc., bus company. "Indications are that it is going to be a profitable venture," one of the partners said of the bus operation. He mapped out the four half-hour routes the three buses will follow.

One more budget session, when commissioners will hear representatives of the library and police department plead for their desired funds for next year, is planned this weekend. Completion of the budget is expected then.

Advertising for bids for alterations to the municipal building was approved by commissioners after seeing drawings of the planned changes.

ENGINEERING PLANS

Utilizing the former fire hall part of the building for the engineering section, the plans call for large central reception room opening onto the engineers' and planner's offices. A spiral stairway will lead up to these offices on the second floor, and a hallway will connect them to the commission room area in the main section of the building.

Plans for reworking the commission room are not ready for asking bids yet.

Ashton Berst, coordinator of the Twelve Town Relief Drains, explained routes of drains along streets in Birmingham and nearby towns. Formal approval of use of streets was deemed unneeded at this time but preliminary permission was granted to make bonding possible.

Bid of $12,700 won the United Heat Engineering Company, Inc. the job of installing a new boiler for the municipal building. A $495 hammer-knife mover was ordered from the W. F. Miller company. Cost of 24 86-pound waste receptacles for city streets is to be $38.90 each, from United Waste Receptacles.

MSU Will Honor County Resident

Former Board Official Is Among Six Named to Receive Degrees

Dr. Sarah Van Hoosen Jones of Rochester is among six persons prominent in the fields of science and education who will receive honorary degrees Sunday at the 98th annual Michigan State University spring commencement.

Dr. Jones has operated her own dairy farm at Rochester since 1927 and retired from the State Board of Agriculture, the MSU governing body, after 12 years' membership in 1955.

Others to be honored include:

Dr. Albert H. Compton, Nobel prize winning physicist. Dr. Compton was a visiting distinguished lecturer at MSU during the spring term.

Dr. Grover C. Dillman, an MSU alumnus who recently retired as president of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology Houghton.

Dr. Marie A. Dye, who retires this summer as Dean of the College of Home Economics at MSU.

Dr. Virgil M. Hancher, president of the State University of Iowa, who will deliver the commencement address.

Dr. Andrey A. Potter, former dean of engineering at Kansas State College and Purdue University. He was also former acting president at Purdue.

Dr. Potter will receive an honorary doctor of engineering degree. All the others will receive honorary doctor of laws degrees.

Detroit Woman Kills Her Driving Teacher

DETROIT (AP)—A woman learning to drive wrecked her car and killed her teacher last night.

Mrs. Alice Dixon, 44, told police she was practicing in a supermarket parking lot and became excited when another auto started to enter as she was leaving. Her foot hit the accelerator instead of the brake.

HITS HEADON

The car slammed into the other auto head on, then shot across a street intersection into a parked truck.

Mrs. Eddie Mae Clark, 48, who was teaching Mrs. Dixon how to drive, was killed. Mrs. Dixon and her husband Wilbur, 56, who was in the back seat, were injured seriously.

John Houston, 37, driver of the other car escaped injury.

Officers said Mrs. Dixon did not have a learner's permit and would be held for investigation of involuntary manslaughter.

She was born in Saginaw County Oct. 7, 1878, the daughter of Leonard and Jennie Gensiver and was married to the late Frank L. Vasbinder in Saginaw April 13, 1898.

Mrs. Vasbinder had lived in Pontiac and Oakland County 49 years. She was a charter and life member of White Shrine 22.

Surviving is a son, Lorenz Vasbinder and one granddaughter, both of Pontiac.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Thursday from the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home with the Rev. Fred R. Tiffany of Bethany Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Saginaw Captures Last of 4 Robbers

SAGINAW (AP) — Acting on a tip, Saginaw County sheriff's officers last night seized the last of four young bandits wanted in the $233 holdup of a Saginaw gas station.

Sheriff C. A. Kachmeister and deputies surrounded a summer home 12 miles west of here where Dallas H. Bobo, 24, had hidden out earlier in the day. At Kachmeister's command, Bobo walked out with his hands in the air.

Deputies confiscated a .22 caliber sawed-off rifle and $180.50. They said Bobo admitted all but $20 was taken in the holdup Saturday.

Occupants of the house, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Crawford, were at work when Bobo broke in.

Dutch Airliner Returns to Avert Possible Crash

NEW YORK (AP)—A trans-Atlantic plane carrying Gov. George M. Leader of Pennsylvania among its 37 passengers developed engine trouble five hours out of New York last night and returned here early today.

The No. 3 engine of the four-engined Dutch air lines Super Constellation failed near Gander, Newfoundland, where the craft had been scheduled to make a refueling stop.

But Gander was weathered in, preventing any immediate landing, and the pilot brought the plane back to Idlewild Airport here on three engines. The flight is scheduled to take off again at 6 p.m. today.

Doggone Good Idea!

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP)—As it turned out, nine-year-old Andy Bailey didn't have to evict either Wimpy or Laddie. When Wimpy, who had been missing since last June, limped in recently to find Andy's replacement Laddie, the thrifty parental decision was "one dog must go." But when the deadline on Andy's choice came yesterday parent Ralph Bailey relented and said, "we'll try our best to keep them" both.

RANGOON, Burma (INS) — U Nu resigned today as prime minister of Burma and announced a new 24-man cabinet headed by Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Ba Swe. The latter served as defense minister under Nu.

Khrushchev's Talk Shows Little Change in Red Ways

WASHINGTON (INS) — Analysis of Soviet Boss Nikita Khrushchev's blistering attack on the late Joseph Stalin indicated today that violence is still the rule in Russia—only the victims have been changed.

* * *

Implications of the unprecedented February assault on the reputation of the former Russian dictator were the subject of careful and detailed scrutiny by State Department experts.

Some officials indicated conclusions thus far show the violent denunciation — delivered behind closed doors before the 20th Communist Party Congress in Moscow — was not directed at the bloody purges in themselves.

Instead, the Khrushchev charge was the purges were directed at what the present regime calls "Good Communists."

MORE VIOLENT

The text, as released by the State Department yesterday, showed the indictment of Stalin by Khrushchev—his successor as head of the party—was both more complete and more violent than any attack ever made on the late dictator, even by an enemy, during his lifetime.

However, experts noted that there was no criticism of killing, torturing, or exiling persons favoring democracy or moderate socialism.

Some officials expressed belief that the release of the amazing speech would show the world that violence is still the rule in Russia.

WAS HE MURDERED?

It also touched off immediate speculation that Stalin was murdered by the present Soviet leaders to save their own lives.

Khrushchev told the 1,400 assembled delegates that the death of the 72-year-old dictator on March 5, 1953, may have spared V. M. Molotov and First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan from being killed on Stalin's orders.

The present Communist party chief labeled Stalin a "monstrous" murderer, and a "sickly suspicious" madman, responsible for killing "many thousands of honest and decent Communists." He asserted the late and now degraded hero "evidently had plans to finish off the old members of the politburo."

U. S. officials suggested today's Soviet leaders, fearing they were next on Stalin's purge list, may have succeeded in assassinating the late Dictator. Previously, the experts had been inclined to accept the official Moscow version that Stalin died of a brain hemorrhage.

* * *

Khrushchev speech was read into the Congressional Record by Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland.

State Representative Jailed in Drunk Driving

The representative, who neither affirmed or denied the charge, spent a night in the city jail following the accident.

AFL-CIO Council Meets, Tackles Many Problems

WASHINGTON (INS)—The AFL-CIO Executive Council meets today to decide what to do about endorsing a presidential candidate.

* * *

It will consider what action to take regarding the giant Teamsters' Union, which is charged with violating the federation's constitution.

The council, which is the governing body of the big labor federation, has scheduled three days of meetings during which a lot of ground will be covered.

* * *

Matters to be taken up will range from organizing drives to the Moscow visit of Yugoslav President Tito.

No effort will be made at the sessions to decide what presidential candidate to endorse. But the council is expected to determine whether to call a special convention of the federation later on to endorse a ticket, or to leave this matter to the 170-man AFL-CIO general board.

Indications are that some arrangement will be made for endorsing a ticket after the Democratic and Republican national conventions. The labor leaders lean strongly to the Democrats, although some of them recently have proclaimed their political independence.

ILA PROBLEM

The question of what action to take concerning the teamsters likely will come up early in the meetings. The Teamsters are accused of violating the AFL-CIO constitution by entering into a working alliance with the independent International Longshoremen's Association.

* * *

The ILA was ousted from the old AFL in 1953 on charges of gangster domination. The AFL-CIO constitution forbids any affiliated union to recognize such a union.

The pact between the Teamsters and the ILA was canceled after AFL-CIO president George Meany called the Teamsters to account.

But Meany says there is still a principle involved in such agreements, and that the executive council will be asked to lay down a policy to cover cases of the kind in the future.

Heavy Rains Delay New Safety Building

Work is one month behind on the $800,000 Public Safety Building due to a combination of heavy rains last month and a strike of reenforcing steel setters.

The steel setters, according to City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn, insert the steel rods into frames prior to the pouring of concrete.

"They went on strike soon after the crews had succeeded in pumping out all the water at the site," he said. "Just about the only work being done is a little plumbing and electrical work."

The strikers are members of a AFL local of the Reenforcing Steel Workers. They are requesting that a member of their union be present when the concrete is poured and that they be allowed a "coffee break," Wrenn said.

Alleged Knifer Held on Assault Charge

A charge of assault with intent to commit murder was issued today by Oakland County Prosecutor Fred Ziem against Major Porter who is alleged to have stabbed his common-law wife three times and driven his car over her Friday night.

Porter, 34, of 72 Gillespie St., was arrested near his home Saturday morning. He will be examined on the charge June 13 in Municipal Court.

The victim, Mrs. Doris J. Fields, 26, of 503 Franklin Rd., is reported in good condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

Mrs. Fields said she was forced into Porter's car at 204 Wessen St. and later stabbed when she tried to escape. The enraged man backed the auto onto her when she fell to the pavement, according to her story.

Municipal Leaguer Talks on Beverlies

BIRMINGHAM — About 75 members of the Beverly Golf Club heard John Huss, of Ann Arbor, director of the Michigan Municipal League talk at the Community House last night.

Huss outlined procedures and possible obstacles and advantages of the Beverly area becoming annexed to Birmingham.

'Winged' Stone Shatters Windshield, Hurts Driver

A Tecumseh man was the victim of a flying stone as he was driving on Livernois road in Troy Township this morning.

He told hospital officials his hand was cut when a stone flew up from the road and shattered his windshield. Armstrong said it appeard that a passing truck had struck the stone, causing it to be thrown back.

Fenton Dinner Honors Cobo

Detroit Mayor Is Guest of Club at Village Community Center

FENTON — Absolutely devoid of any surface political implications was the capacity house dinner here last evening, honoring Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit.

Under the sponsorship of the Fenton Economics Club, it nevertheless proved to be an admirable community kickoff for his campaign for the Republican nomination for Governor of Michigan.

The setting was quite ideal. Staged in Fenton's beautiful community house, given the village by the Rackhams, it had the background to provide a reminding touch of what is going on in Detroit's new civic center on a much larger scale.

Then there was Judge Ira B. Jayne, widely known Detroit jurist, native of Fenton, and intimate friend of the guest of honor. He served as toastmaster and reminisced in a manner that provided the foundation for the theme of the speaker.

That theme was an explanation of what can be accomplished when the people are given a chance to express themselves, and when the executive officer of a city "or state" pulls together with his legislative branch and works to an economic and not a political end.

Mayor Cobo in his talk never even remotely intimated that he is a candidate for anything, but none of the 260 diners went away without the impression that Michigan needs an atmosphere in its government somewhat akin to the kind which has accomplished so much for Detroit. He was presented with a buckskin coat "as an adjunct to the traveling he has ahead of him."

Previous to the dinner, officers of the club spent a good part of the late afternoon in escorting Cobo to the village's business places, where he personally greeted several hundred people.

Detroit Eyes Plan for Water Pipeline

Northeast Station, with a capacity of 180 million gallons a day, will be dedicated June 27. Cobo said yesterday part of the pipeline project near the pumping station could be started "almost immediately."

Gerald Remus, general manager of the Detroit Water Board, said yesterday the master plan for the city's water supply, created in 1924, now has run its course.

The pipeline plan is part of a new master plan, he said.

Remus added the Lake Huron project "will take a lot of study and planning on our part, and cooperation on the suburbs' part."

Cobo said the plan, at no additional cost to Detroit taxpayers, could provide suburbs with adequate water service cheaper than they themselves could provide it.

Officials said today the pipeline would also be regarded as a "reserve" for Detroit's water supply.

Detroit Nurse's Aide Held in Ring Switch

DETROIT (INS)—A 26-year-old former nurse's aide at Detroit Women's Hospital pleaded innocent yesterday and waived examination on a charge of stealing two rings from a patient.

Mrs. Florence McCoy told police that her rings, worth $300, were replaced with two cheap rings after she had given them to the nurse's aide, Mrs. Alice Shaw, for safekeeping. Police later found the rings in Mrs. Shaw's car.

Locate $90,000 of Brink's Loot

Routine Arrest Leads to Money Walled Up in Boston Cellar

BOSTON (AP)—A routine arrest in Baltimore has led to what the FBI calls the first sizable recovery of loot from the $1,218,000 Brink's robbery of more than six years ago.

* * *

Some $90,000 was found yesterday by FBI and Boston police behind false paneling in an office in the sub basement of a South End rooming house. Authorities said serial numbers check with those on the Brink's loot.

The find came within 18 hours of the arrest of Jordan Perry Jr. 31, a Boston stone mason and ex-convict, who was taken into custody after passing suspicious money in a Baltimore amusement park.

Two men were arrested in Boston, charged with being accessories after the fact of the Brink's robbery, the largest cash haul in the nation's criminal history.

They were identified as Edward Bennett, 36, of Weymouth, and John F. Buccelli, 41, of Brookline.

The FBI said Bennett was arrested as he arrived at the South End office. Buccelli, whom the FBI said it had shadowed in Bennett's company, was picked up a few blocks away.

Meanwhile, trial date for 10 men indicted as participants in the Brink's robbery was set for Aug. 6. The 10 were indicted — and eight of them arrested—last January.

The roundup of money began Sunday night when Perry cashed a ragged and moldy $10 bill in the amusement park. The park operator, suspicious, showed the bill to police.

Authorities looked up Perry and, they said, found more than $1,000, mostly in $5 and $10 bills, on his person. The bills, they said, "had a smell of mold and were brittle and brown with age."

Perry admitted having more money in his hotel room, officials said, and they found $3,770 hidden under a carpet. The bills were numbered in sequence, indicating robbery money, officials said. A check with the FBI showed it to be Brink's money.

Detroit Tourist Bureau Seeks Extra $62,000

DETROIT (AP) — A membership campaign to raise an additional $62,000 each year for the Detroit Convention and Tourist Bureau gets under way Wednesday.

* * *

Henry Tuttle, president of Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., will serve as chairman. The bureau is trying to increase its annual budget from $88,000 to $150,000 for expanded facilities.

The convention bureau eventually will promote and use the 42-million-dollar Convention and Exhibits Building which will be built shortly in Detroit's new Civic Center.

Ghost Engineer and Train Crew Are Unmasked

DETROIT (AP)—The engineer of a phantom train crew that spirited a diesel engine and string of box cars from under the noses of railroad yard hands has turned out to be a 16-year-old model train enthusiast. He gave himself up last night.

The boy, whom police identified only as a Detroit high school student, and his two "firemen" spent more than two hours highballing through a maze of complicated switch tracks early Sunday. They added nine extra box cars from three sidings before they brought the stolen diesel back to the West Side yard.

"I m a model train enthusiast," police quoted the youth as saying. "I used to hang around the Grand Trunk roundhouse in Pontiac, and got to know the engineers and a lot about the engines."

He told police he suggested to his pals it might be fun to swipe an engine.

"I knew how to operate it," he said, "and my friends who came along for the ride made good switchmen after I told them how to do it."

"We slipped out of the yard on the heels of another train," the youth said.

Police said the boy will be turned over to his parents to appear before juvenile authorities today. His "crew" will be picked up for questioning.

Edwards Sworn In as Michigan Justice

LANSING (AP) — Judge George Edwards of Wayne County Circuit Court was sworn in today as a justice of the State Supreme Court.

* * *

Edwards, at 41 the youngest justice ever to sit on the state's highest bench, was presented for the post - taking ceremonies by Gov. Williams who appointed him last month as successor to the late Justice Neil Reid of Mount Clemens.

A throng of friends, relatives and admirers who overflowed the court chamber into a corridor outside witnessed the brief but impressive ceremonies.

One of them was Edwards' father, introduced by Chief Justice John R. Dethmers as a practicing member of the bar in Houston, Tex., for 56 years.

Arsenic Killer Will Get Chair

Alabama Jurors Enter Death Penalty for Wife Who Poisoned Family

MONTGOMERY, Ala., (AP) — A hefty, auburn-haired waitress who killed her fourth husband with arsenic was sentenced last night to die in the electric chair.

Mrs. Rhonda Belle Martin, 49 and 170 pounds, admitted killing Claude C. Martin and five other members of her family, but she was tried only for the death of her fourth husband.

190 MINUTES

Her other victims were three daughters, her mother and another husband.

A jury of 12 men deliberated 3 hours and 10 minutes last night before convicting her of poisoning Martin after about a year of married life.

When the verdict was read, Mrs. Martin buried her head in her arms and sobbed.

The prosecution countered that Mrs. Martin served arsenic in coffee to her husband in order to "collect some paltry amount of insurance and to get him out of the way so she could marry his son."

SENTENCE DELAYED

Eight months after Martin's death on April 27, 1951, Mrs. Martin married her stepson, Ronald C. Martin, 21 years her junior. He now lies in a veterans' hospital paralyzed by arsenic poisoning.

Ronald Martin's illness, for which Mrs. Martin is under indictment for attempted murder, touched off the investigation that brought to light the series of poisonings.

Under Alabama's automatic appeal law, last night's conviction will go to the Supreme Court. The sentence is postponed until the appeal is decided.

Solicitor William F. Thetford introduced evidence that Mrs. Martin collected $2,750 on three insurance policies soon after her husband's death.

18 Area Youths Start Army Life at Fort Wayne

Six Pontiac men were among the 18 Oakland County residents who left Monday for Detroit to be inducted into the Armed Services. Local Draft Boards 65 and 67 said today. The group reported to Ft. Wayne for processing.

John Salow, of 468 Harper St., led the city men departing from Board 65. The others were: Clayton Marsh Jr., of 35 Lorraine Court, Gene A. Smith, of 5655 Clinton River Dr., Robert E. Lynch, of 666 Lenox Ave., Charles R. Long, of 461 Montana Ave., and Henry Banguil Jr., of 274 Rockwell St.

The Board 67 inductees representing the outlying areas were led by Douglas W. G. Forrester, of Rochester. Others leaving from outside Pontiac were: Vincent E. Stock, of Farmington, Jack D. Osborne, of Milford, Thomas McNamara, of 1612 Parkway St., Waterford Township, Michael J. Carr, of Pinckney, and Roy L. Patterson, of Highland.

Also, Dennis P. Huff, of Keego Harbor, Harold E. Donaldson, of Highland, Gary L. MacKay, of Walled Lake, Robert G. Moore, of Wixom, David A. West, of Birmingham, and Louis B. Coryell Jr., of Oxford.

The group represented the regular county quota for the month of May.

Chaos on White Street —It Must Go Some Way!

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — There's chaos on White Street. Only a block long, the street is intersected by the Cambridge-Somerville city line, and when Cambridge made it a one way street, going toward Somerville, it neglected to tell Somerville.

The new regulation went into effect yesterday and Somerville motorists bound for Cambridge soon found themselves going the wrong way on a one way street. Some turned around, jamming traffic. Others bulled their way through, collecting warnings from Cambridge police. And that's the way it stands today.

THE BERRYS — By Carl Grubert

Tax Rate for 1956 Is Scheduled for Discussion by City Commission

A resolution establishing $13.70 per $1,000 of assessed valuation as the 1956 tax rate—the same as last year—is slated for possible passage by the City Commission tonight as they meet to tackle a 22-point agenda.

Acceptance of the resolution hinges on results of a public hearing and possible adoption of an amendment to the 1956 city appropriation ordinance. Both are slated on tonight's agenda.

The amendment involves allocations totaling $234,448.48 resulting from increased assessed valuations in the city. These will call for a slight revision of the estimated budget formulated earlier this year.

Slated for possible approval by the Commission is another resolution adjusting the assessment proportions and the city's share of financing sewers and water mains for side lots in Pontiac.

The proposal will result in 75 per cent of the first 150 feet of the side lot being paid for by the city while the owner will be assessed the remaining 25 per cent. Previously, the ratio was, 60 per cent assessment and 40 per cent city share.

After being deferred several times, the matter of uniform allowance for Pontiac policemen is expected to be settled at tonight's session. It begins at 8.

Other business will include the first reading of an ordinance to raise the pay of Municipal Court jurors to $4 a day, maximum under the present ordinance.

Another communication, from attorney Bernard Girard, regarding claims arising from the Feb. 17 gas explosion at the Leonard Gravitt residence, 179 W. Columbia Ave., also has a place on the agenda.

Public hearing and possible adoption of two ordinances to amend two sections of the city's building zone ordinance 941 are included.

The commissioners will hear about the bill of complaint against the city and Police Chief Herbert W. Straley regarding the city's ice cream peddling ordinance. The plaintiff is Sol Greenwald, 36, of Detroit.

A proposed charter amendment, which the voters will decide in November, regarding the residency of police and firemen in the city, will be presented by the city attorney.

Only three public improvement items, engineer estimates, are tapped for action tonight.

A warranty deed for lot 45 in assessor's plat 112 to be used for municipal parking purposes, is expected to be accepted by the commission.

The city clerk is scheduled to read the bids received for city owned property for sale.

Final action will be a resolution requesting the Michigan Department of Conservation grant parcels of land for public purposes.

Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Texas produce about 12 per cent of the nation's hogs.

Warrant for Murder Issued in Shooting

Upon arraignment yesterday, Davis was remanded to Oakland County Jail without bond. Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum scheduled a requested examination for June 13.

LADIES, ESPECIALLY, love this handling!

Buick Super 4-Passenger 4-Door Riviera

IF THERE was ever a "big, strong, silent type" in automobiles that a lady can lace round her little finger—this brawny beauty is certainly it.

It's a '56 Buick—with a sweet new Safety Power Steering†—and it's a happy dream to handle.

You park it—even in tight places—with hardly more effort than a flick of two fingers.

You guide it through traffic with the consummate ease of a caress—and nothing will prove that to you more vividly than an actual sampling at the wheel.

But blissful new steering is just the start of wonderful new things in this buoyant and beautifully balanced two-ton Buick for 1956.

You'll have to try the great new ride that cradles you here in a soft and sure-footed road hold—that heightens your safety with a new and almost uncanny "sense of direction."

You'll have to try the instant response of great new power that comes from a new and mighty 322-cubic-inch V8 engine.

And you'll most certainly have to sample the simplicity and the spectacular command that are yours with Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

With just a toe-touch, you get a brisk new getaway response and liquid-smooth cruising pace for all your normal driving—plus better gas mileage on top of it all.

And when you go beyond the toe-touch—when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch for safety's sake—you get the smoothest, the most modern and the most thrilling surge of safety acceleration in the land today.

So what's left to tell?

Except the story of high-fashion luxury (which you can see for yourself)—and the story on low, low prices (which will sound sweet to your ears)—when you come in for a sampling.

Will you do just that soon—maybe this week?

Big Boy Blues

By DAMON RUNYON

I'm sitting in Mindy's restaurant which is vacant except for about three characters when in busts a large soldier shouting "Hello, hello, hello, hello" who turns out to be none other than West Side Willie who is formerly a ticket speculator on Broadway. He tells me he is in town with a new Army show "Gee Eyes" which opens this week on the big street. Seems Willie's commanding officer sends him from the desert to join the show because of his former connection with show business and he gets an old pal who makes him ticket taker at the door on account of because West Side Willie's connection with show business ain't been strictly legit. Then Willie says . . . .

(PART TWO)

"I become a terrific ticket taker. In fact," he says, "I am known as the Eisenhower of the front door. Furthermore, this assignment come to me in nick of time because my original outfit is sent to Europe where I understand the victuals are even worse than they are in camp and there is practically no hotel life for an enlisted man."

* * *

"Willie," I say, "I am glad to see you again and I congratulate you on your military career and hope and trust you do not sustain any wounds such as tearing off a hangnail by mistake for the stub of a ticket some night. I am sure that your engagement on Broadway will be most auspicious."

REMEMBER BIG BOY BLUES?

"Thanks," Willie says, "but we are all nervous and worried over a situation that developes here. Do you remember Johnny Blues? The one they call Big Boy Blues?"

* * *

"Why, certainly," I say. "I remember him as well as if he is my brother only I am thankful such is not the case."

"Do you know Big Boy Blues has a son?" Willie says.

* * *

"Yes," I say, "I know it. They call him Little Boy Blues."

"Well," Willie says, "Little Boy Blues is the star of our show. He is the greatest thing in it. He slays the customers. He is wonderful."

* * *

"Why, Willie," I say, "I am glad to hear this news. I not only remember Big Boy Blues but come to think of it I remember his ever-loving sheriff who is the mamma of Little Boy Blues, I hope. If he has any talent it must come from her because the only talent Big Boy Blues ever has that I recall is that he can crush a human skull with one blow of his fist even though the skull belongs to a copper.

DRESSES AS A DAME

"In fact," I say, " recall the night he performs this feat on a copper by the name of Caswell. I seem to remember that Caswell is in Polyclinic hospital for eight weeks but he finally recovers and is now a captain."

"Listen," Willie says. "Little Boy Blues appears in our show as a female ballet dancer. He dresses as a dame in a short skirt and one thing and another."

* * *

Well, at this I am slightly horrified as I can see what West Side Willie has in mind. I can see that it is going to be a great shock to Big Boy Blues if he learns of the matter because it is only about a year back that he is along Broadway bragging about his son being in the Army and stating that Little Boy will undoubtedly destroy a large number of the enemy single-handed.

IN ATTIRE OF A DOLL

Naturally, everybody agrees with him as Big Boy Blues strongly disapproves of anyone not agreeing with him and it is plain to be seen that after putting his son away as a destroyer he is apt to be displeased when he finds Little Boy is not only a ballet dancer but one is the attire of a doll and I so state to West Side Willie.

* * *

"Yes," Willie says, "that is exactly what we fear. We fear Big Boy will be so vexed he will tear the theatre down stone by stone and maybe peg the stones at us. However, it is our information from Little Boy's mamma that Big Boy thinks his son is somewhere overseas and has no idea he is in our show and it is our hope that he does not hear of it until after opening night anyway.

* * *

"Then," Willie says, "we expect to be rolling so good that we can replace Little Boy if necessary, but," he says, "we positively need him for the first night because he is the best thing in the show by seven or eight lengths and it is a great pity we dast not give him some advance publicity.

* * *

Well, I will bid you good night as I must catch myself a few snores. Our company gets into Grand Central at noon and I wish to be there to meet it."

HE IS A CRUDE CHARACTER

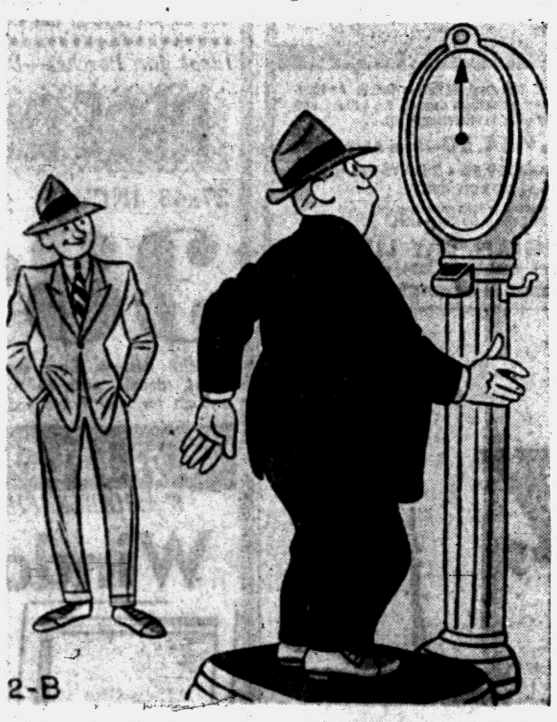

Then Willie takes his departure and I remain sitting there awhile thinking of what a great surprise it is to Broadway years ago when Big Boy Blues hauls off and marries a small canape by the name of Miss Rosie Flynn who is singing in the old Golden Slipper Club in West Forty-eighth Street and how Bookie Bon goes around offering to lay plenty of 9 to 5 that Big Boy gives her at least two broken arms inside of two weeks and finding no takers as Big Boy is known to one and all as a crude character.

He is at least six feet three inches high and he weighs anyway 220 pounds and he has a loud voice that causes parties four blocks away to tremble when he lets it out and he has a record at police headquarters that consists mainly of mayhem.

He is a doorman and a bouncer at the Golden Slipper when I first know him but one day he climbs on the seat of a stray truck and drives it off and the next thing anybody knows he has one of the largest trucking businesses in the city.

Mollet Expects Confidence Vote

Single Ballot to Decide Fate of French Regime; Red Choice Crucial

PARIS (AP)—Observers predicted Premier Guy Mollet would win a vote of confidence today in the National Assembly, winding up a three-day debate keyed to France's policy in rebellious Algeria.

* * *

Instead of separate ballots on Algeria and each major phase of the Cabinet's program, the Socialist Premier called for one vote endorsing—or rejecting—his entire government policy. This strategy faced many assemblymen, particularly Communists and extreme right-wingers, with difficult choices.

UNDECIDED REDS

They wanted to support Mollet to further their own aims of an eventual Socialist-Communist alliance. But they have organized grassroots fights throughout the nation against Mollet's policy of suppressing the Algerian rebellion with ever-increasing military force. A Red vote that implied approval of the Algerian policy would be a glaring contradiction.

Conversely right-wingers approve the strict Algerian measures but object to Mollet's concessions to Tunisia and Morocco as those two former protectorates move toward independence. They undoubtedly would vote against the Premier if the issue was narrowed to Tunisia and Morocco.

Finance Minister Paul Ramadier told Parliament yesterday it would have to raise a quarter of a billion dollars in new taxes to support the massive campaign in Algeria. France has upwards of 350,000 troops there.

He's Not Impressed

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) — A marbles champion of 75 years ago wasn't awed by the way "these modern boys play marbles." G. H. Ogden, 87, of Ahsland, Ky., came across the state line to see a mibs tournament. Comment: "There was a time when I could give them a battle, and I could beat them, too."

Hickenlooper Victor in Iowa Primaries

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — U.S. Sen. B. B. Hickenlooper, 59, seeking a third term as a backer of and flexible farm price supports, won Republican renomination with ease in yesterday's primary election.

* * *

Although indications were that the total vote would be lighter than usual for a presidential year, the Democrats polled more than 100,000 votes for the first time in a decade.

* * *

On the basis of the senatorial results, however, the Republicans cast about 68 per cent and the Democrats about 32 per cent of the total vote.

* * *

Hickenlooper's opponent was Atty. Gen. Dayton Countryman, 38, who campaigned for high rigid price supports. He counted on heavy backing from the southwest Iowa drought section and the membership of the new National Farmers Organization, which was founded there.

* * *

Here's the Final Tally on Florida Primary Vote

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson won the May 29 Florida Democratic victory over Estes Kefauver by a tight 13,736-vote margin.

Complete returns tabulated by the secretary of state's office yesterday gave Stevenson 230,285 and Kefauver 216,549.

Ancient Egypt Had Reservoirs

Amenemhet II Ordered First Irrigation Project Known to History

WASHINGTON — Nearly 40 centuries ago, rulers of Egypt established Nile reservoirs and water systems that were forerunners of the great river-taming projects of modern times.

* * *

One of these rulers was Amenemhet III, whose Hawara Pyramid—in the Faiyum region some 60 miles southwest of Cairo—has recently yielded new relics of gold, silver and alabaster linked with the progressive and prosperous era of the XIIth Dynasty.

Amenemhet III was the last of the great pharaohs of the Middle Empire family that held power from about 2,000 to 1790 B.C., says the National Geographic Society. Like his predecessors, he was noted for monument building and encouragement of the arts. He carried on profitable trade with his neighbors and worked Sinai's copper and turquoise mines.

But he is perhaps best known for irrigating and reclaiming land in the Faiyum, where fertility then —as now — was possible only through efficient use of Nile waters.

PREVENTED FLOODS

The Greek historian, Diodorus, who visited Egypt in the first century B. C., credited Amenempet III with creating a remarkable canal-and-dam system in the Faiyum, and even with digging the oasis' big Lake Moeris, now called Qarun.

The lake was made "to accommodate superfluous water," Diodorus wrote, "so that the river should neither . . . flood the land unseasonably . . nor, by rising less than was advantageous, damage crops by lack of water."

The achievement cost "incredible toil," the Greek traveler commented. "Who, on estimating the greatness of the construction, would not reasonably ask how many tens of thousands of men must have been employed and how many years they took? . . . No one can adequately commend the king's design, which brings such advantage to all the dwellers in Egypt."

* * *

Now in ruins, the vast, sprawling complex of Faiyum buildings include the crumbled Hawara Pyramid. One of two memorial structures that King Amenemhet raised to himself, the Hawara mortuary temple is blieved to be the one in which the ruler's body actually rested.

Curiously, Amenemhet's irrigation works have helped destroy his tomb, and perhaps the mummified princess. Both Petrie and current investigators found the pyramid's burial chambers flooded with waters seeping in from old Lake Moeris.

2 Youths Stand Mute on Charges of Rape

Two youths charged with the statutory rape of a 14-year-old girl March 14 in Birmingham stood mute yesterday on arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Lawrence A. McDaniel, a juvenile, and Thomas Trisler, of Royal Oak, are in jail awaiting trial under $5,000 bonds. Judge Frank L. Doty entered pleas of innocent for the pair.

Enters Plea of Guilty to Breakin of School

Charged with the nighttime breakin May 26 of Lincoln Junior High School in Pontiac, James O. Vandever of 697 W. Kennett Rd. pleaded guilty yesterday at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge Frank L. Doty, who will sentence Vandever June 11, returned him to Oakland County Jail under bond of $1,000.

Guilty Plea Entered to Delinquency Charge

Charged with the statutory rape April 12 of a 15-yera-old girl in Addison Township Paul A. Donnelly yesterday pleaded guilty to a lesser count of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Donnelly, who had stood mute at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court, had his bond of $1,000 continued by Judge Frank L. Doty. He will be sentenced June 11.

Piles No Longer A Problem

If they are the bleeding kind, suffer no longer

Medical research has developed a miracle medicine called RECTORAL. It does away with the continual use of old-fashioned ointments, suppositories, injections, etc., that give little, if any, even temporary relief. RECTORAL has a tendency to shrink the piles and usually in a few days, the bleeding, soreness, irritation and pain start to disappear and in a few days more are completely gone. Thousands of sufferers have used this remarkable medicine and have never had any further trouble, even years afterwards. Many of these people had been advised that only an expensive and painful operation would help them. Why suffer any longer? Get well NOW! Stay well! Get a bottle of RECTORAL today at

Island-Claiming Starts Confusion

Everybody Now Wants 'Freedomland'

MANILA (AP)—President Ramon Magsaysay warned his Foreign Office today to step warily in the international dispute boiling over a Filipino citizen's claim to an island domain in the South China Sea.

Nationalist and Red China and South Viet Nam all are shouting their claims to the group of 100 or more islands, reefs and sandbars lying about half way between the Philippines and Indochina.

Tomas Cloma, a former newsman who heads a nautical school, touched off the fireworks when he explored some of the islands in March and claimed them May 21 "by right of discovery and occupancy as a result of abandonment."

* * *

Cloma says he has landed 29 men on the islands, which he calls "Freedomland," and will send out another expedition later this week to supply them. The otherwise uninhabited islands, many of them located in uncharted and dangerous waters, are a potentially rich fishing area.

Cloma distributed a "declaration of status" to the foreign diplomatic missions. In it, he claimed rights over the island group until it is "formally annex by any government."

Magsaysay advised his foreign minister, Carlos P. Garcia, to "study carefully" the claim "in view of the international complications." A high official said it is "unlikely the Philippine government will claim the islands."

"They are not worth the trouble and the risk involved in clashing with other governments," he explained.

"Since we can not afford to fortify the islands or turn them into a communications center, they will be of little use to us."

* * *

During World War II Japan used Spratly island, one of the group, as a submarine base. Nationalist China stationed a garrison in the islands for a time after the war. France claimed Spratly before the war but apparently has lost interest.

Transit Worker Is Fired Because He Grew Beard

ATLANTA (AP)—A former transit operator who claimed he was fired because he grew a beard filed a $25,000 damage suit against the Atlanta transit system and Amalgamated Street Car Local Union No. 732.

Gerald F. Barnes charged in a court suit that his civil rights were violated when he was discharged April 23 because, he said, he exercised his constitutional right to "have and enjoy chin whiskers."

The transit firm's reason for Barnes' discharge, according to the suit, was "conduct disturbing to discipline and harmony in our operating force and as a result he was given a direct order which he willfully disobeyed."

new safe All-in-One capsule discovery for

Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy, potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why . . .

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories, yet expands when it absorbs water, thereby helping give the feeling of a full contented stomach. In fact, these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

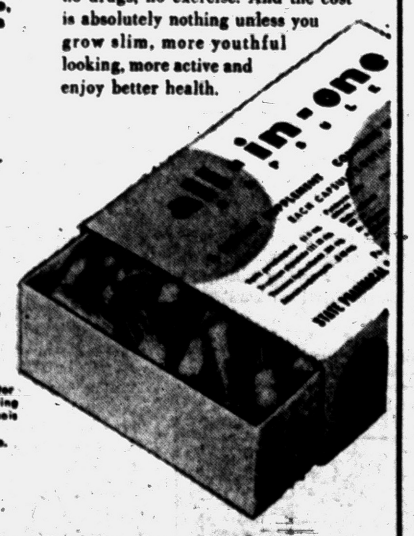

fat goes fast

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

Oakland Trio Learns High Cost of Crime

Three Hazel Park youths have good reason to be thankful that Auglaize County, Ohio, authorities could find legal reason for arraigning them on a charge of second degree murder.

If it hadn't been for this move agreed upon by County Prosecutor George Monahan and Judge Koenig, the trio now might be awaiting trial on a first degree murder charge. Conviction would bring mandatory sentences of death in the electric chair.

Instead, they were allowed to plead guilty to a second degree murder charge in the holdup slaying of a Wapakoneta, Ohio, tavern owner. Judge Koenig immediately sentenced all three to life imprisonment.

There is a powerful lesson for all youths in the plight of these three young men. Even if they qualify for parole in ten years, they are paying a terrible price for their brief experiment with crime. Not only have they forfeited the good names they once had, but at least ten of the most precious years of their young lives.

★ ★ ★

Pravda's Editor Named Successor to Molotov

V. M. Molotov no longer is Russia's foreign minister.

The resignation of this obdurate Old Bolshevik normally would be something to cheer about. That is, it would be good news if it portends any improvement in Russia's foreign policy or that the new foreign minister promises to be any improvement.

Dimitri Shepilov goes to the foreign office from the editorship of the Communist Party's official newspaper, Pravda. In that post which he had held since December, 1952, he was the party's master propagandist. As foreign minister the scope of his propaganda operations will become worldwide.

Nothing can be taken for granted about Soviet government changes. Yet there is evidence that Molotov's resignation was forced. There also are hints that he eventually may succeed the aging Kliment T. Voroshilov as president of the U.S.S.R.

★ ★ ★

Finally, there is ample room for suspicion that Molotov's ouster was carefully timed as a sop to Marshal Tito, now visiting Moscow. Certainly Messrs. Khrushchev, Bulganin et al are going all out to rewin the goodwill of the Yugoslav dictator. The Marshal, of course, never will forget that it was Stalin and Molotov who drummed him out of the Cominform as a deviationist in 1948.

★ ★ ★

As for the new foreign minister, Shepilov, he is a protege of Khrushchev and a bitter critic of of the United States. As we see it, nothing in this shift at the foreign office makes it any safer to trust Russian foreign policy than it ever was.

"Red China boasts that she doesn't impose an income tax on her citizens."—Press report. And nobody tries to extract blood from a turnip.

Jesse H. Jones

With the death of Jesse H. Jones the Nation lost an outstanding citizen who had made himself a unique niche in U.S. financial history.

Jones, a native of Tennessee, was a rarity among Texas multimillionaires in that oil had played no part in the building of his $100,000,000 fortune. Although he had only a fifth grade education, his success story began when he started a lumberyard on borrowed capital.

Over the years his interests expanded rapidly. Not only was he the publisher of the Houston Chronicle, but he owned 36 of that city's largest and most important buildings, including three of its best hotels.

It is part of our history that Jones' great financial ability attracted the attention of three Presidents—Woodrow Wilson, Herbert Hoover and Franklin Roosevelt. Besides his work as wartime Secretary of Commerce under FDR, Jones was chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, a post to which he was appointed by President Hoover in 1932.

★ ★ ★

Jesse H. Jones will be remembered as much more than a possessor of vast wealth. In the fullest sense he contributed mightily to the growth and development of modern Houston. His philanthropies are equally noteworthy. Through his Houston Endowment Corporation he literally gave away millions to educational, medcial and charitable institutions.

The Old Struggle for Hitting Position

David Lawrence Says:

Revolution Has Begun Inside Soviet Russia Which Will Affect Kremlin Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON—How do you rub out 30 years of history with a single speech of denunciation?

* * *

That's the question Russians are wondering about today as they hear, over the "Voice of America" extracts from the Khrushchev address of February 25 at the 20th Communist Party Congress.

Stalin was repudiated, along with the "cult of the individual" as it applies to one-man government.

What the text, which has never been printed in full in Soviet Russia, says is less important than the motives of the Kremlin in adopting the change in policy. The purpose of the Department of State in giving the wide publicity at this time is part of counter-strategy in psychological warfare now being waged.

The object of the Kremlin today is to give the impression that freedom has come to Russia and that democracy rules and one-man dictatorship is at an end. The speech itself is full of contradictions. It is apparent the reign of terror is not over and that repressive methods have by no means been abandoned.

TIMING BAD?

In forsaking Stalin's philosophy and going back to Lenin, the Khrushchev speech is a warning to all those who plan now on any deviation or dissent.

It seems that Stalin's timing was bad. Khrushchev shows an uneasiness through the speech—his worry about the big question—as to why all this has gone on so long. He says:

"If we sharply criticise today the cult of the individual which was so widespread during Stalin's life and if we speak about the many negative phenomena generated by this cult which is so alien to the spirit of Marxism-Leninism, various persons may ask: How could it be? Stalin headed the party and the country for 30 years and many victories were gained during his lifetime. Can we deny this?

* * *

"In my opinion the question can be asked in this manner only by those who are blinded and hopelessly hypnotized by the cult of the individual, only by those who do not understand the essence of the revolution and of the Soviet state, only by those who do not understand, in the Leninist manner, the role of the party and of the nation in the development of the Soviet society."

SOME KIND WORDS

What a way to avoid an answer! But the mere fact Khrushchev asked the question indicates an awareness that it will be asked over and over again—and he tells anybody in Russia not to dare to ask it, either, where the secret police can hear him.

But after 30,000 words of denunciation, almost at the end of the speech, some kind words for Stalin appear. Khrushchev says in his conclusion:

"Comrades! In order not to repeat errors of the past, the Central Committee has declared itself resolutely against the cult of the individual. We consider that Stalin was excessively extolled. However, in the past Stalin doubtlessly performed great services to the party, to the working class, and to the international workers' movement.

* * *

"This question is complicated by the fact that all this which we have just discussed was done during Stalin's life under his leadership and with his concurrence. Here Stalin was convinced that this was necessary for the defense of the interests of the working classes against the plotting of the enemies and against the attack of the imperialist camp. . . .

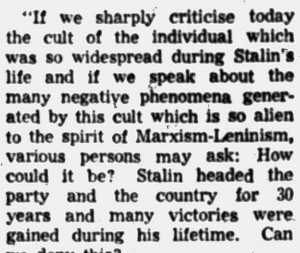

NO GIDDY DESPOT

"We cannot say that these were the deeds of a giddy despot. He considered this should be done in the interest of the party, of the working masses, in the name of the defense of the revolution's gains. In this lies the whole tragedy!"

* * *

The Soviet peoples have evidently been exerting a pressure which the men in the Kremlin have not been able to withstand. The cycle of revolution has started and, though it may take years to complete, the unrest inside Russia is bouund to affect the external policies of the Kremlin. It is always a period of great danger for the whole world when dictators try to consolidate a restless internal situation.

I should like very much to know your reason for making such a statement and to know why you are against our public school system, if you are.

(Signed)

Anyway, thank you, Ma'am, for the last three words in your letter.

Our American public schools were good enough for me, for my children and for my grandchildren, and I hope they will be good enough for their children.

Still I repeat the criticism of our public schools, a criticism I have made many times before, that children in grade school or high school do not get a fair break in two components of education, namely, physical training and what everyone over sixteen should know about embryology, anatomy, physiology, and hygiene as such knowledge pertains to marriage, pregnancy, childbirth and the care and feeding of infants.

The shameful record of the public schools in these essentials of good education is attributable to the fact that the policy of public education is set and controlled by nasty-minded prudes.

There may have been a time when teenage children had to be protected against knowledge of these vital subjects even knowledge imparted by parent, physician or other qualified instructor. And so far little or no instruction of the kind approved by medical, health and educational authorities has been given to high school pupils because of the ostrich attitude of many parents.

As for physical education, when the physical unfitness of most young men was revealed by World War I draft examinations, we made a great pretense of combating or correcting this deficiency in the public-school curriculum. We made daily exercise more or less compulsory for every pupil—more while the heat was on, less and less as the years passed.

In World War II a still larger proportion of young men were found unfit. This physical decline is attributable not just to our failure to provide physical education in the public schools but also to increasing encorachment upon play time by radio, TV and the movies.

In the twelve years I attended the public schools in Canandaigua, I never heard of "physical education." There was no gymnasium. Nobody ever gave it a thought. Occasionally a teacher would lead his class in a few minutes of "calisthenics"—a few silly little movements of hands or arms. Nevertheless, most of boys received the very finest physical education, at play. We played after school, Saturdays, in vacation time—because there were no radios, TV sets, movies, or, I was going to say pop or soda fountains, but I should say we were not permitted to indulge in such luxuries except on rare occasions.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan.

Urges Unemployed Be Put to Work Building B-52's

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Everyone who has not read Arthur Godfrey's address before the 6th Annual Conference of the National Aviation Education Council in New York March 16 and printed in Congressional Record should drop a Postal card to Arthur Godfrey, P.O. Box 1702, Washington, D.C.

I do not know what action has has been taken, but it seems to me as a layman and in view of the many unemployed in this area, of which I am one, everyone ought to be concerned with the facts presented in this address, especially since unemployment should concern everyone.

The butcher, the baker and everyone are affected by the payroll in this area, and there should be united action urging speed in putting this vast number of unemployed to work building up our air force with B-52's, thus killing two birds with one stone.

I realize this cannot be done overnight, it takes time, but if action has not already been started on it, surely it ought to receive immediate attention by our Congressmen and those in authority.

'Biggest Squawkers Are Ones Behind in Paper Bill

I, too, say there is no one smaller than a person who cheats a newsboy. My son was a paper boy, and I remember one family in particular.

My son delivered their paper in pouring rain, sleet and deep snow. He would go to collect, and they said they had no money. Yet many a time he met the man carrying a case of beer. They ran up a three-month bill and then moved away.

Those who were from two to six weeks in arrears were the ones who squawked if the paper was late or the least bit soiled or if the paper was not folded right. But maybe it was the hard knocks like that that made my boy graduate from Pontiac High, join the Army for three years, come back to college, and now at 23 is a state policeman, of which I am very proud.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Freud Says Success of Psychoanalysis Due Simply to Outliving His Opponents

Dr. Freud had the odds against him in a four to one ratio. But he faithfully plugged away at his psychoanalysis One by one his chief opponents said he just outlived his opposition. That wasn't the sole reason for his final success, but it was a logical one.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-374: Dr. Sigmund Freud, chief advocate of psychoanalysis, offers an admirable motto to all of us.

"Dr. Freud," a student once asked him following an address which Dr. Freud had delivered, "how do you account for the the great success of your psychoanalysis.

"When you first began expounding your new ideas, I understand that you were attacked by the leading psychologists of the world. "How did you win out?"

* * *

"Well, son, I just outlived my opposition," he added, "so I had the last word."

"When I started, four leading psychologists were violently opposed to my principles.

"They argued against me, while I argued in my own defense. Then one of them died.

"The remaining three opposed my ideas of psychoanalysis most vigorously, but I defended them with all the energy I could muster. At length, another of my opponents died, leaving only two.

"These two contniued the attack, but I meanwhile firmly defended psychoanalysis. Then one of those two died.

"That left one famous psychologist against me. It was now a one-to-one battle. And then my last opponent died, leaving me an uncontested field."

VOCATIONAL ADVICE

In this modern competitive age, price and quality are often almost identical so that salesmen must inject his personality to tip the prospect's decision.

* * *

Thus, it makes little difference which brand of cereal or gasoline or life insurance you purchase.

They are all good and give you

So this is an age where the power of personality tips the scales. That should be a tonic to the morale of all of you teen-agers who are thinking about a career.

Despite the invested billions in manufacturing equipment, the thing that actually sells the merchandise is the greater tact and friendliness and other personality traits of one salesman versus another.

Such mechanical items as caloric values or tensile strength are now fairly standardized.

But psychological qualities are not so standarized!

Although one firm may not be able to exceed another even by one per cent regarding tensile strength or caloric content, it may exceed its rival by 100 per cent in the stellar salesmanship or personnel efficiency of its manpower.

HURRAH FOR PERSONALITY

You poor boys who are getting an education don't need worry about the billions of money invested in business firms and factories.

You don't even have to marry the boss' daughter. If you learn how to get along successfully with people, you can start out as a salesman and soon recruit a thriving clientele.

The customers buy primarily from the salesman and not from his firm! Those clients are thus your property. You can take them with you if you leave your present employer and link up with a competitor in that same field.

However, it does occasionally require a long period of time to unseat a rival who is also talented in using psychology and who has a 10-year or 25-year head start.

Just keep plugging intelligently, for you may outlive him!

Send for my booklet "The New Psychology of Advertising and Selling," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents in coin.

It will be a tonic to your morale even if you never decide to go into advertising or selling as a lifetime career.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Woman Invades Masculine Realm of Angling

She's Fishing for More Than Compliments

BY PHYLLIS BATTELLE

* * *

"Makes me sound like a disposable paper plate, doesn't it, sort of?" she says, turning up her dainty nose distastefully. "Actually, I'm not that way at all. I'm pretty durable, matter of fact."

And so she is; a slim, pretty girl made of muscle and spice. Miss Salvato is a champion fly and plug caster. She has spent roughly the last decade of her 29 years beating the men at the game of fishing.

"You know, this was the one active sport that men held a tight grip on, and it's taken quite a while for women to get their hooks in—you'll excuse the pun," Joan reveals.

"I don't think women really wanted to fish very much. They thought that to fish you had to be a horrible tomboy and rather unclean.

"Well, that's all nonsense, really."

* * *

RHYTHM, ACCURACY

"There is no reason on earth why girls should not be just as good fishermen as boys, because with the new light tackle, there's no particular strength required. Fishing is like golf: The requirements are rhythm and accuracy."

As for baiting hooks, a gory piece of business that has discouraged sensitive ladies for years, Joan says it is unnecessary and silly. "More fish are attracted to lures than worms anyway."

About the fish—how can a good sympathetic woman bear to kill a fish that might be some salmon's mother?

"That is a problem, I admit," Joan concedes, bowing her head respectfully. "Personally, I throw most of mine back if the hook hasn't penetrated too deep—and I know they get well from the way they swim off.

* * *

"When I catch one so big I can't afford to throw it away (we've got to eat, you know), then I turn it over to somebody else to kill." Joan looked green, in a freckled way.

"But I always remember that a fish doesn't have the same kind of nervous system that dogs and people do. They are not very sensitive to pain.

"That makes me feel," she brightened, "better."

22-POUND CATCH

The largest fish she's ever caught was a well-fed salmon of 22 pounds in the waters of British Columbia, three years ago.

"It took a long time," she recalls, "and he fought me every inch of the way—mentally as well as physically. So I looked him in the eye and said 'You so and so,' and kept him."

Joan is, in non-professional life as of one year ago, Mrs. Walter Cummings. Her husband is a sailor and they lived on a schooner through '55, sailing north in summer and to the Bahamas in winter.

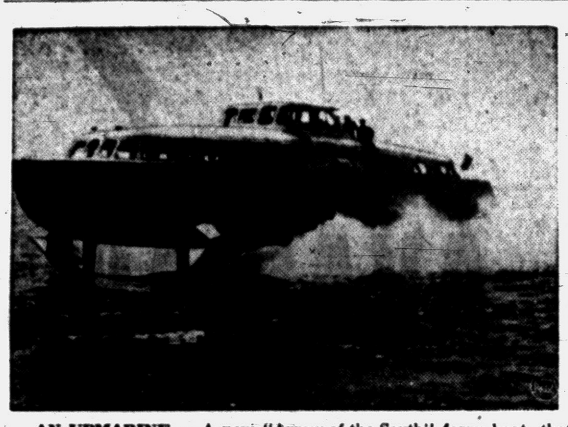

Now she is expecting a baby, and they've had to settle on land: In Connecticut, alongside the Atlantic.

* * *

But thanks to a maker of light tackle, which sent Joan to see us and explain the fine points of fishing, she intends to keep casting and spinning and catching until the wee fisherman-potential arrives.

And now, about those fine points of fishing. What's really in it for the ladies?

"It's the best thing in the world for removing the artificiality from a woman," says Joan, "and men love it. Any activity that keeps a woman from combing her hair every five minutes adds to her charm—for the right kind of man."

Sawed Skeleton Worries Woman

Macomb Wife Believes Bones May Be Missing Husband's Remains

DETROIT (AP) — An East Detroit woman has asked state police to investigate her fears that the skeleton of a man found near Smith Creek may be that of her husband who vanished four years ago.

* * *

Missing is Harold Phelps Badgley, who was 28 when he disappeared while working on a farm near Memphis, Mich.

His wife, Betty, 27, said the description of the dead man as reconstructed by the FBI fitted her husband perfectly.

State police said the information was being turned over to sheriff Ferris E. Lucas who is in charge of the case.

Lucas said there was "no question" that the man had been slain. He said the skeleton, which was found near a remote creekbed last week, showed signs of saw marks where the legs and chest were severed.

Badgley, a World War II combat infantry veteran, was living at a farmhouse near Memphis and working about 10 miles from the spot where the skeleton was found.

ARMY DENTAL WORK

Mrs. Badgley said she awakened the morning of June 17, 1952 to find her husband gone.

Badgley's aunt, Mrs. Nellie Sutton, said her nephew had undergone dental treatment in the Army similar to that reported in the description of the skeleton.

Badgley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Badgley, said they still are convinced their son is alive.

* * *

"About two weeks after his disappearance, Van Dyke police came to me and said Harold was wanted in Lapeer for a traffic violation," the father said. "They told me he had given my address and then failed to appear in court. I don't know whether this happened before or after he vanished."

Badgley's wife said he did not have a driver's license before he disappeared.

BURN LESS GAS USE LESS OIL... or both!

CHALLENGING 1000-MILE OFFER on PURE'S High-Horsepower Combination of Gasoline and Oil

Offer open to both regular and premium gasoline users

Use High HP Purelube Motor Oil and PURE Gasoline (Premium or regular, whichever you normally use) for 1,000 miles. If you have been using a 10-W, 20, or 30 grade oil, you will burn less gasoline . . . use less oil, or both . . . or we will give you any oil which may have to be added in a 1,000-mile oil change period. Offer good until July 31, 1956. Ask your Pure Oil dealer for details.

Why we make this offer

We want to help our regular customers and make a lot of new friends. We figure the best way to do this is to let you prove to yourself that you can save on gas, oil, or both, by using High HP Purelube in your crankcase and PURE gasoline in your gas tank.

How the High-Horsepower Combination works

PURE'S two great gasolines burn clean because they are made clean by careful processing and refining.

Used together, High HP Purelube and PURE gasoline clean up your engine and keep it clean. They maintain your car's High-Horsepower performance and economy. Prove it in your car.

SPECIAL OCTANE BONUS for High-Horsepower Engines

If your car is a 1953 to 1956 model, it has a high-compression engine, designed to deliver high horsepower. After the "break-in" period, these modern engines tend to develop a thirst for more octane in the gasoline they burn. Unless they get it, they tend to knock and lose power.

PURE'S High-Horsepower Combination keeps your engine clean, actually reduces the deposits which cause this octane thirst.

The result: Your engine gets a special bonus in knock-free power—the equivalent of up to 4 octane numbers. New cars keep their showroom power, older cars regain it.

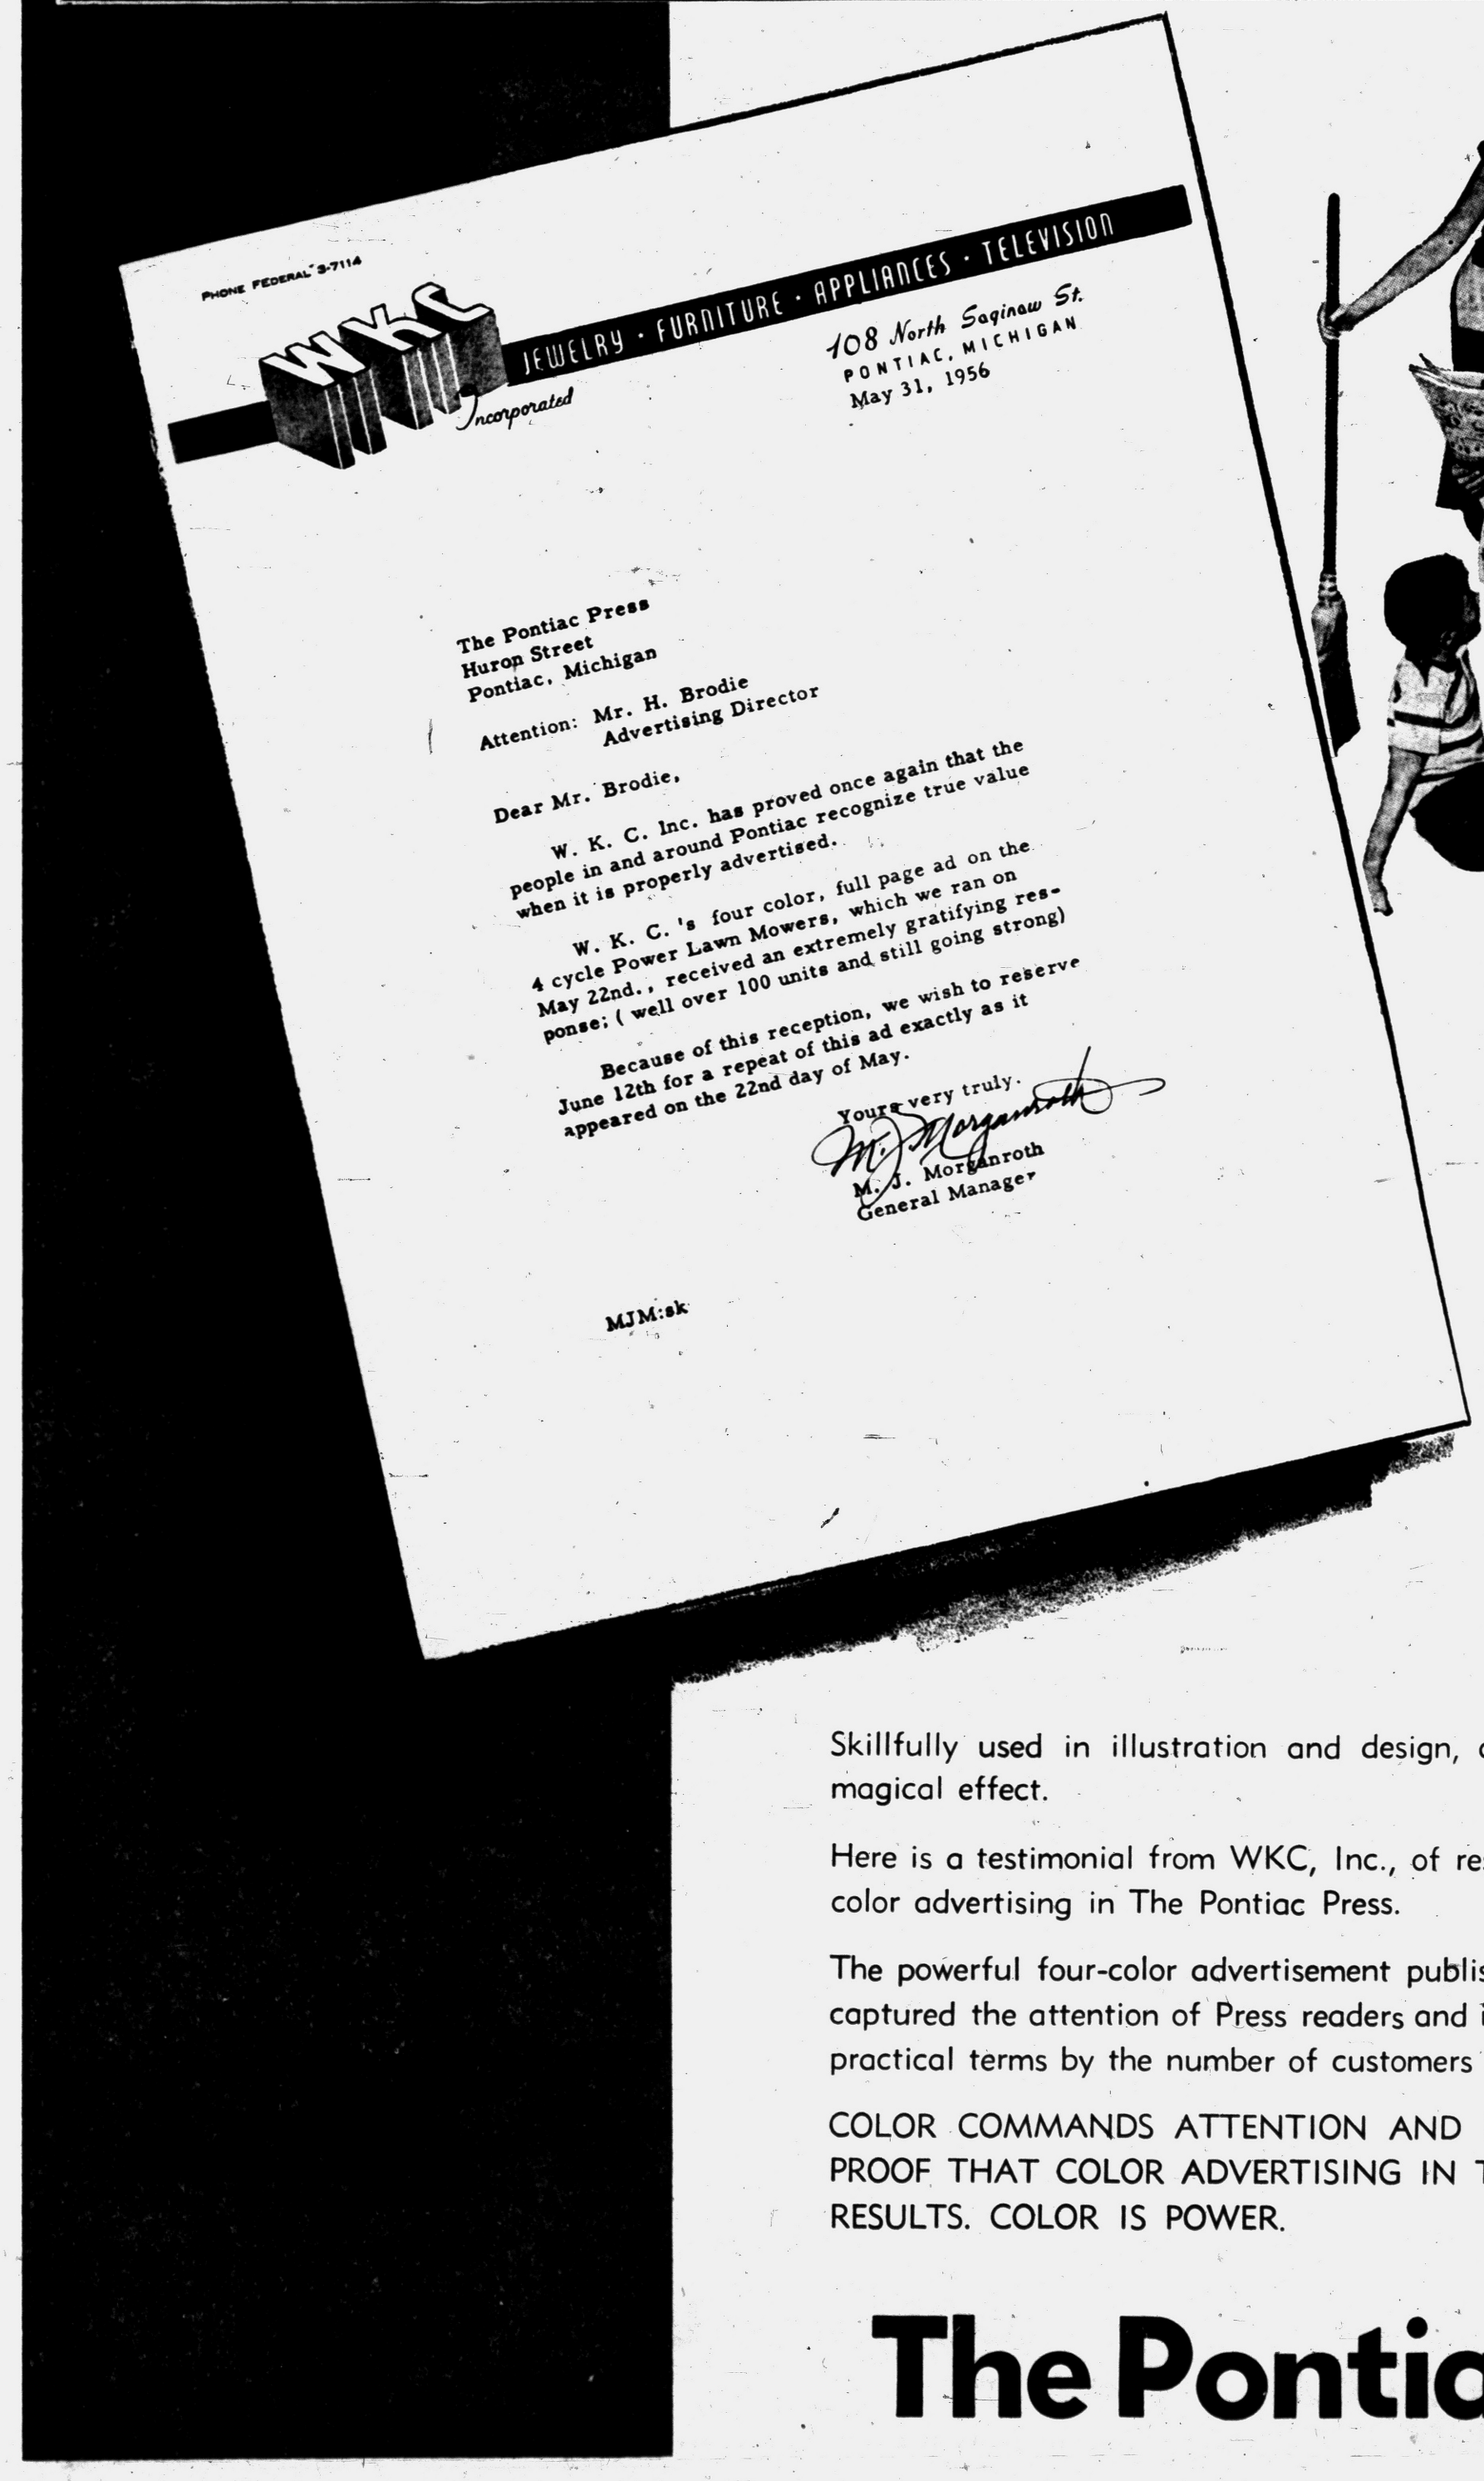

This special OCTANE BONUS is yours when you use High HP Purelube motor oil and either of two great PURE gasolines. Why not give it a try, starting today?

Proof that COLOR IS POWER

The powerful four-color advertisement published on Tuesday, May 22nd, captured the attention of Press readers and its success can be measured in practical terms by the number of customers it brought to the store.

Dr. Meyer A. Perlstein, specialist in the treatment of cerebral palsied children, will be inmPontiac Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. Perlstein, of Chicago, will conduct his diagnosite clinics at Stevens Hall, All Saints Episcopal Church, on West Pike Street.

Some 32 children will be seen by Dr. Perlstein in the two day session.

The clinic is sponsored by the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children, the Easter Seal agency, in cooperation with the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Disabled Adults.

Local agencies assisting besides the Crippled Children's Society include Iraq Grotto furnishing transportation, and the Junior Women's Club of Rochester whose members will act as hostesses.

Dr. Perlstein is a charter member and was first secretary for the Academy for Cerebral Palsy; is a member of the Medical Advisory Council on Cerebral Palsy to the National Crippled Children's Society and is a consultant to the Division of Services for Crippled Children at the University of Illinois.

He is also chairman of the Medical Committee of the Michael Reese Cerebral Palsy Therapeutic Nursery; chairman of the Medical Advisory Board of the Illinois Hospital School; medical director of the Children's Neurological Clinic of Cook County and on the pediatrics staff of Northwestern University.

Livestock Swindle Hits Jackson Area

JACKSON (INS) — A possible $750,000 swindle by a group of Michigan livestock buyers, acting either as individuals or as a ring, was being investigated today by federal, state and county officials.

* * *

Jackson County Prosecutor Kenneth B. Johnson said operators bought and sold, even though the market was in a decline, and continued their business despite the fact they apparently were short in their accounts.

Johnson said the latest development in the case was the discovery of $62,000 in bad checks given to farmers in the Jackson area by an established cattle auction house.

* * *

The prosecutor said there was a lot of checks floating and that they "began backing up" about May 15. He said it was not known whether the kiting was deliberate or accidental.

Johnson claimed 150 or more farmers had been victimized.

Nobel Winner Suggests

New Theory on Cancer: Virus Activates Germs

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

DETROIT (AP)—A Nobel Prize scientist today said he thinks viruses cause most or all cancers, including human.

* * *

The evidence is all logical, and it is increasing, said Dr. Wendell M. Stanley, University of California virologist.

URGES NEW ATTACK

He urged a wholly new attack against cancer from this theory. It could lead to vaccines to prevent cancer, like a Salk vaccine against polio virus, and new ways to cure it.

It is possible that all of us are walking around with "sleeping" cancer viruses, Dr. Stanley said. We might even "catch" noninfectious doses of viruses from other healthy people. But he stressed that you cannot "catch" cancer itself from another person. Cancer itself is not contagious.

OPENS NEW VISTA

The cancer viruses wouldn't do us any harm, until and unless something made them become active. The something could be aging, changes in hormones, dietary faults, chemicals, radiation, or other things, or a combination of them.

* * *

Far from being a scary idea, the virus theory opens the way to new experiments to find methods of controlling cancer, Dr. Stanley told the third National Cancer Conference. The conference, attended by 1,200 physicians and scientists from the United States and 23 foreign countries, is sponsored by the National Cancer Institute and the American Cancer Society.

* * *

Dr. Stanley won a Nobel Prize for the first purification and crystallization of a virus. He heads the Laboratory of Virus Research at California.

Aged Student Insists Exams Deter Learning

LOS ANGELES (INS) — James B. Ely is 86. His life has spanned careers from gold-digging to music teaching.

* * *

About to launch on a new career, he has taken his final examination for a bachelor of arts degree from the University of California at Los Angeles.

Saturday, if all goes well, his white hair and goatee will be set off by a black cap and gown.

Ely joined the gold rush to the Klondike in 1898 and once sailed a small boat 20,000 miles around Cape Horn from New York to San Francisco.

Says Ely:

"The mind requires food the same as the body. Anybody who doesn't go to college doesn't know life. I believe more elderly people should return to college—and many have because of me.

"But exams are a holdover from the dark ages. They are a deterrent to learning."

Experts Suggest Federal Tax Cut

Economic Development Unit Recommends Slice of $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The committee for Economic Development today recommended a tax cut of two billion dollars or more next Jan. 1 — provided such a cut would not toss the nation's cash budget in the red.

The CED further qualified its proposal by saying there should be no tax reduction if only a small budget surplus is sighted for the fiscal year beginning July 1, or if inflationary pressures should build up.

SEES TAX CUT

On the other hand, the CED said Eisenhower administration budget estimates of revenue for the new fiscal year "may not have made sufficient allowance for the growth of incomes, profits and consequently tax receipts that would come from normal, non-inflationary growth of the economy."

Also, the CED added, a tax cut would be in line if "there is a marked reversal of economic conditions which requires strong action to combat recession."

* * *

The CED views were contained in a new study of the budget, the economy and taxes. The CED describes itself as a "nonprofit, nonpolitical economic research and education organization supported by voluntary contributions from business concerns."

Whooping Crane Disappears From Dixie Zoo

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—One of the two rare whooping cranes hatched in Audubon Park Zoo last week has disappeared.

Officials said today they feared a hawk or an owl swooped into the cage during the weekend and made off with the baby crane which came from egg No. 2 hatched Friday.

* * *

George Douglass, park superintendent who has stood watch over the cage since the eggs first appeared more than a month ago, said the top of the cage is being covered with wire to protect the remaining chick.

No trace of the little crane has been found in the cage.

* * *

Crip and his mate Josephine, parents of the baby cranes, appeared unconcerned about the chick's loss. They devoted themselves to feeding their No. 1 fledgling.

The loss of chick No. 2 reduces the known world crane population to 31.

Tornado Bombs Fail

Bob Considine Says:

California GOP May Pick Dem Candidate

NEW YORK (INS) — It's just as well the primaries are coming to an end. The losers are running out of ways of saying that their defeat was a victory. Moral, to be sure, but a victory.

* * *

Adlai Stevenson felt that way after having his brains knocked out in Minnesota; Estes Kefauver has been saying it since Wisconsin and Florida.

Fewer Republicans are turning out for these shows (which Truman has guardedly called "eyewash") because Eisenhower generally has been unopposed, the GOP always says.

In California, where Stevenson and Kefauver wind up things today, most of the action will center around those two. Between them they'll get many more X's than Ike. But chances are that California will go Republican in November.

It has many more registered Democrats—picked up during the past 15 years by the heavy influx of industrial workers from elsewhere in the nation. But something happens to them when the chips are down. The state's two senators in Washington are Republicans and it has 19 GOP representatives against 11 Democrats.

FAVOR THE GOP

Both houses of the California Legislature are tipped in favor of the Republicans. Culbert Olson was the only Democrat elected governor of the state in more than half a century.

* * *

Thus it appears that a subtly Republican state, and perhaps many Republican voters who will vote in the Democratic primary just for the fun (or hell) of it may decide the fate of the Democratic nomination race.

The loser of today's showdown can forget the alibis. He's a dead duck.

The primary is an unwieldy and unfair device, considered so unstable through most of the country that less than a quarter of the states even offer one. The primary's chief aspect is to deal out harm.

* * *

Harold Stassen, who very well might have become president in 1948 on the strength of votes from labor and his fellow veterans, never got the bid because Paul Lockwood, Jim Hagerty and a couple of others knocked him off in Oregon on behalf of their man, Thomas E. Dewey. Stassen had been going like a house afire before that.

TERRIFYING TIME

If Stevenson loses California's 68 delegates he'll have a terrifying time ever getting that nomination at Chicago. If Kefauver loses he will blow all claim to the "ground swell" championship—all claim to his claim that the bosses should recognize that the peepul want him.

But if it's a Mexican stand-off, or Baja California draw, both of them could be destroyed. Kefauver could gain a bit by winning by a shade; Stevenson must win by a mile.

Republican hats were thrown into the air in Washington last week when the President seemed to say that he was going to make a vigorous campaign for a second term, after he is renominated by acclamation at San Francisco.

But a careful reading of the text of his remarks made many cheerers wonder. The President's promise of a vigorous future, instead of a rocking chair one, could have applied to the conduct of his official rather than political duties.

* * *

We mention this for only one reason: Despite the optimism of the polls, the statements from Leonard Hall and the general air of "it's a shoo-in even if they run the Chinaman who could have beaten Harry Truman," the Republicans want Ike to campaign.

Indeed, a number of them feel he must in order to win.

Relaxation Is Key to Vacation Fun

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

"Holidays should be like this
Free from overemphasis,
Time for soul to stretch and spit
Before the world comes back to it.

* * *

Vacations should provide some time for stretching the soul as well as the body, for the real relaxation which comes when there is no pressure, no hurry, when there are no deadlines, not even those humdrum ones we meet in everyday living.

This sort of relaxation comes from lying on the grass and looking up at the sky, from listening with the heart as well as with the ears to the sounds of the countryside in the early morning and twilight, from lazy sun-drenched days and the sound of water lapping against the shore and wind sighing in the trees, from sleeping or exercising when and as much as you wish.

I think that the only real vacation is doing what you feel like doing at the moment, not because you planned it ahead of time.

While a change of pace and a change of scenery are stimulating and restful, we are likely to try to do too much in too short a time so that the real meaning of a vacation is lost.

SO MANY MILES

Some people plan their vacations somewhat like train schedules. They must make so many miles each day so that they will arrive at such and such a spot an time, or they will miss the train. They push and huff and puff while taking hurried glances at the gorgeous scenery as it flies by.

* * *

Some indestructible folks can drive 3,500 miles in two or three weeks and seem none the worse for wear, others may feel as though they have had a nervous breakdown instead of a rest. After some vacations men and women and children are glad to crawl back into the old rut. It seems peaceful.

I am suggesting only that you do not fool yourself. If the wear and tear are worth it to you, fine for you.

If you realize that you have returned from your vacations in the past tired rather than rested, why not cover less distance and build more health and have more real fun?

* * *

Real relaxation can come from lying on the grass and looking up at the sky . . . from doing what you feel like doing at the moment.

Mary Catherine Zwicker and Frank J. Muscat were married Saturday at St. Vincent de Paul Church. Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Zwicker of Cherry court. Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Muscat of Walled Lake are his parents.

MR. and MRS. FRANK J. MUSCAT

Mary Catherine Zwicker Repeats Marriage Vows

Mary Catherine Zwicker became the bride of Frank J. Muscat Saturday morning at St. Vincent de Paul Church. The 9 o'clock Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Joseph Immel.

* * *

Mary Catherine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Zwicker of Cherry court. Frank's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Muscat of Walled Lake.

A floor-length gown of lace and tulle over satin was chosen by the bride. The skirt extended into a chapel train. A pill box-type crown held her fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a crystal rosary, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Herbert Ward wore a blue crystalette gown with a banded white scoop neckline and white paneled back for her duties as matron of honor. The white was repeated in the bustle bow.

* * *

ATTEND BRIDEGROOM

Serving as best man was Ralph Caldwell of Detroit, and ushers were Joseph P. Zwicker, Arthur Sans, Robert LeMay of Garden City and Frank Zwicker Jr. Charles Zwicker of Detroit was ringbearer.

* * *

Mrs. Muscat chose a powder blue lace dress with white accessories. Their flowers were white carnations.

For traveling, the bride changed to a forest green shantung dress with white accessories. Following their honeymoon in Colorado and the Rocky Mountains, the newlyweds will make their home in Pontiac.

Two Style Errors: Too Much, Too Little

There are two large fashion errors to avoid; too much color and too little color. Don't go wild with red and don't be afraid of it. Learn which colors are becoming to you and then stick with them despite color trends.

Careful planning is the secret of a wardrobe of costumes instead of a collection of miscellaneous garments.

Donna Jean Cole Speaks Vows at First Methodist

First Methodist Church was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Donna Jean Cole and Douglas Eugene Barnard. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cole of Glendale avenue, and Douglas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Barnard of Waterly street.

* * *

* * *

Merle Barnard served as his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Patrick Thompson of Clarkston, Warren Rutterbush and Carl Barnard.

At the reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Cole wore a gray rose lace dress with cream and tan accessories. Mrs. Barnard wore a dress of blue chiffon over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Council Fire Conducted at School

Girl's Achievements Are Rewarded at Annual Ritual

Families and friends of Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds were entertained by the Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls at the 1956 Council Fire held at Wever School Saturday evening.

* * *

In Camp Fire, the Council Fire is the highlight of the year. Achievements are rewarded at the Council Fire through the presentation of certifi ates and symbols to adorn the ceremonial jackets worn by Camp Fire Girls.

The program opened with a processional sung by the girls as they marched into the auditorium and sat forming a semi-circle. In the fire-lighting ceremony, Cathy VanGilder from the Pretty Blue Birds Group of LeBaron School lit the Blue Birds Light, Sharon Tyrrel from the Tekakwitha Group of St. Frederick School lit the Light of Work; Sharon Winters from the Nettopew Group of Willis School lit the Light of Health, and Kathy Miller represented the O-A-No-We Group of McConnell School.

* * *

The three and five-year membership pins were awarded by Mrs. William Graves, and Needlework Guild beads were awarded by Mrs. John Wilson. Mrs. William Wright presented emblems for the birthday project to the 30 girls who bought and sent seeds to the Far East in the "Plant Seeds—Reap Friendship" project.

A three-year leadership renewal seal to be placed on her group charter was presented Mrs. Kenneth Lyons by Mrs. Phyllis Zamorski. One-hundred and one Blue Birds were given "fly-up" certificates by John Wilson.

Awarding of the Trailseekers rank was explained by William Wright. Woodgatherers certificates were presented by Mrs. George Carpenter, and Firemakers rank was conferred by William McLean, president of the Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls.

* * *

Mr. McLean gave the welcoming address. He pointed out that there are no juvenile delinquents among youngsters engaged in worthwhile youth organizations.

MARILYN G. PERSINGER

Marilyn G. Persinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Persinger of Maplewood avenue, received a bachelor of arts degree, with a major in art, at commencement exercises held Saturday at Alma College. During her four years on the campus, Marilyn was a member of Kappa Iota sorority.

League Slates Annual Party on June 21

Mrs. Arthur Crawford presided at the Monday evening meeting of the League of Catholic Women held at the League Home.

June 21 was announced as the date that the Northwestern Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women will hold its annual dessert card party. The affair will be held at Holy Name Parish in Birmingham.

On June 24 the quarterly Deanery meeting will be held at Guardian Angels Parish in Clawson. Mrs. W. J. Hinds reported on the 18th Michigan State League of Catholic Women's convention held recently in Alpena.

Three representatives of the Oakland County Convalescent Home attended the meeting and helped members with their new volunteer project, that of assisting patients at the home.

Everything Goes Into This One!

Mrs. Martin Takes Noodle Casserole to Summer Picnics

By JANET ODELL

When you take a casserole to a picnic, you want one that tastes as good after several hours as it does when it comes out of the oven. Mrs. K. B. Martin of Rochester guarantees this standby of hers.

Still a new resident in town, Mrs. Martin has made a place for herself in community affairs. She is treasurer of the Planner club, the newcomer organization.

With two of her three children in school, Mrs. Martin works in the PTA. She belongs to a bridge club. Her hilly yard is a challenge this year to her gardening ability.

NOODLE CASSEROLE
By Mrs. K. B. Martin

1½ pounds ground beef
1 large onion
1 small can tomatoes
1 can tomato paste
1 can peas
3 stalks celery, diced
½ package (6-8 ounce size) raw noodles
Salt and pepper

Brown beef in a skillet with chopped onion. Add other ingredients and pour into a casserole. Bake 1 hour at 350 degrees.

This may be cooked on top of the stove in hot weather. Simmer at lowest heat for 1 hour. Serves 6.

It's no crime to mix period furniture when you are furnishing a house. It is necessary, though, to make sure that the design and line of the pieces harmonize.

Ceiling Comes First

No. 8369 with Patt-O-Rama included is in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48. Size 36 dress, 5¼ yards of 35-inch; bolero, 2 yards; ⅝ yard contrast.

Her Lone Talent Transforms Life

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Have you ever sat and contemplated your life — the drudgery, the boring details, the similarity of daily events?

And have you wished that something really exciting, something flashy and unexpected, would come along and break up the dullness? Most of us do, at times—until we learn better.

The harsh fact is, that exciting things don't happen out of the blue. They happen out of other things we're doing. Life is a kind of unfolding process and one thing grows out of another.

That's the way it was with Gertrude B

* * *

Gertrude wrote me a couple of years ago. You could tell that the letter had been written when she was at an all-time low!

EXCITING DAY

She had seen her husband off to work, to a full and—to her—an exciting day.

She had seen the children off to school and was suddenly aware of how self-reliant they were becoming. They seemed to need her less and less.

Meanwhile, she was faced with a big batch of breakfast dishes, a pile of laundry and a really messy house.

"Nothing exciting ever happens to me," her letter began. "I'd like to have something really creative to do , something stimulating, something artistic, maybe.

"I've tried to think of a suitable home business, but nothing occurs to me. I don't have any big talents, or anything."

ONLY FLOWERS

She went on that way and ended with, "I tried to make a list of my skills. The only one I could think of is flower - arranging. Now really!"

* * *

I insisted that she begin with that. I suggested books about it and told her to practice at every opportunity, to do the flower arranging for her clubs, to give friends a hand when they were having parties.

Gertrude took my advice and began to have a lot of fun at it. Recently, I received another letter from her, which was much more cheerful.

"The funniest thing happened," Gertrude writes. "I've gotten along fine with the flower arranging. Then one day I got fed up with the vases. They are all so dull, really, unless you spend a fortune.

"I decided to take up ceramics and make some really lovely bowl vases and odd-shaped containers.

It was hard, at first, finding a way to do it. But our high school adult education program has a course in ceramics which I took.

PRETTY GOOD

"I was pretty good at it from the start," she continued, "and pretty soon I found a kiln I could rent, so I can do the whole works.

"I've made some beautiful vases and am using them for my flower arrangements. I've gotten a lot of attention—and I'm frank to say I love it!

"Some day I may have my own little ceramics business, in a small way, but what fun!"

If you are interested in the field of ceramics, send me a stamped envelope in care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you a list of books on the subject.

January PHS Graduate Wins PTA Scholarship

MARIE MEYER

Marie Meyer has been selected as the third student to receive the Pontiac PTA Council Teacher Scholarship which totals $1,250 over a four-year period. Marie, a January graduate of Pontiac High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evert Meyer of Beverly avenue.

* * *

She was vice president of her graduating class. A member of National Honor Society, she was also active in the Student Council, Glee Club, Playcrafters and Radio Workshop, and was captain of the cheerleader squad.

Marie is now employed at Pontiac Motor Division's Engineering Building doing general office work and will continue there through the summer. This fall she plans to attend the University of Michigan where she will major in English.

The scholarship is non-sectarian and is open to all races, colors and creeds. Requirements are that the student be a Pontiac High School graduate with an average or better academic record and must plan on entering the teaching profession.

* * *

The student must also like children, be socially well adjusted, with a good personality, initiative and resourcefulness, and must have high moral and spiritual ideals and be physically healthy.

The scholarship, a grant, amounts to $500 for the first year of the college course and $250 annually for the next three years.

Progress of the recipients of these PTA scholarships is reviewed annually by the scholarship committee. The committee is composed of the principal of Pontiac High, the president and the finance chairman of the Pontiac PTA Council, and an elementary principal.

* * *

Miss O'Neil Entertained at Shower

Mrs. H. B. Skillman of Birmingham and Mrs. Verne C. Hampton entertained for Nancy O'Neil of Wilmette, Ohio, formerly of Pontiac, at a linen shower and luncheon Monday at the Hampton home on Cherokee road.

* * *

Nancy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Neil, will marry Jim Wingerden Aug. 25. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wingerden of Hastings.

Guests attending the shower were Mrs. O'Neil, Mrs. Wingerden, Judy Bradley, Mrs. H. B. Euler, Mrs. Joseph Bennett, Mrs. Joseph Christie, Mrs. Theodore Koella, Mrs. John Peck, Mrs. Mel Werden and Judy Robinson.

* * *

Others attending from out-of-town were Mrs. Herbert Ashbaugh of Dearborn, Alice Waterhouse of Inkster, Dorothy Gaire of Royal Oak, Judy Strong and Ilene Widdis of Detroit.

Male Clothing Goes for Lighter Colors

This spring will see the beginning of a series of trends in men's clothes—trends that will include a switch to lighter, brighter colors, lighter fabrics and patterned fabrics.

Charcoal flannels and dark wool worsteds will doubtless retain much of their popularity during the transition period, but the change to lighter colors and lighter fabrics is certain to be one of the most important and far-reaching events in men's wear history.

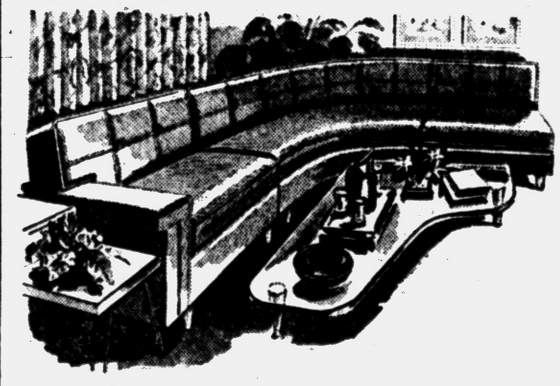

7 Weeks Needed for Every Gown

Harvey Berin, whose exquisitely embroidered, beaded and appliqued party dresses make all of us swoon, astonished a group of fashion reporters the other day when he revealed that it takes seven weeks to make a single dress of his special confectionery type!

Countless hours of hand work, not to mention days of patiently tinting beads, lace and sequins to match the delicate pastel silks and organdies, are put in by dozens of skilled workers, pattern makers, seamstresses, embroiderers, lace and applique experts and finishers between the time the buyer places the order and the finished creation reaches the store. Even the tiny buttons and button loops are handmade.

Open Evenings by Appointment

Youthful members of the "Our Town" cast are (top row) Natalie Adams and Wendy Hutton, who will alternate the role of Rebecca Gibbs. Brent Miller and Peter Hutton will take the part of Wally Webb and Joe Crowell, respectively. Performances for June 8, 9, 15 and 16 are scheduled at 9 p.m. at the Cranbrook Greek Theater. The play, by Thornton Wilder, is being presented by the St. Dunstan Guild.

A Feminine Ezio Pinza

Marlene Promotes Over-40 Love

By ROBERT HORIGUCHI

PARIS (INS) — Marlene Dietrich has set out to do for the women of her generation what Ezio Pinza did, some years ago, for men over 40.

The most glamorous grandma of our times is returning to the screen for the first time in three years intending to show that age is no obstacle to romance.

For the purpose, Marlene is shifting her base of operations from one gaudy gambling town to another—from Las Vegas to Monte Carlo. The spinning wheels of roulette will play a big role in the picture, appropriately named "The Monte Carlo Story."

Around the green-baized betting tables, Marlene, a none-too-wealthy widow, will meet a near-bankrupt Italian nobleman and a well-heeled retired American tin-can magnate from Indiana.

The American's home state is important. It will give Marlene a chance to sing "Moonlight on the Wabash"—both in English and in Italian.

The nobleman's part will be played by Vittorio de Sica, who has been variously called "Europe's answer to a matron's prayer" or "the most seductive middle-aged man alive." De Sica is an Italian film producer, director and actor.

During a brief stopover in Paris on her way to Rainier-land, Marlene made it plain that movie-making has lost its charm for her.

"It's lots of hard work," she said. "I much prefer personal appearances."

The sultry-voiced actress added she would be heading back to Las Vegas for another series of night-club appearances as soon as her filming chores were over in September.

Most of the shooting will be done in Monte Carlo with the company moving to Rome for studio work. The picture will be produced in both English and Italian.

EUGENE HAMILTON PATTISON

Eugene Hamilton Pattison received a bachelor of arts degree, with a major in both English and psychology, in commencement exercises Saturday at Alma College. Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Pattison of Pontiac trail, plans to enter the University of Michigan upon graduation, under a state college scholarship to do graduate study in English.

Loyal Philathea Class Observes Silver Birthday

One hundred members and honorary members of the Loyal Philathea Class of the First Baptist Church attended the 25th anniversary dinner of the class held Saturday evening in the church parlors.

"Things That Change Not—Our Christian Heritage" was the topic for the message delivered by Mrs. Rosalind Smith.

Mrs. Herbert Flemington, class teacher during the 25 years, and Mrs. C. L. Baker, the first vice president of the class, told of some of the outstanding events and activities of the class.

Girl Finds She Alone Omitted Gift

Should She Send Belated Present or Forget About It?

By EMILY POST

A young woman writes: "I was invited to an engagement party several days ago. The girl is not an intimate friend of mine although I have known her for some time. As it is not customary among my friends to give engagement presents, I did not take one to the party.

"Much to my surprise I was the only one who had not brought one. Would it be proper to send a present now, or should I forget about it?"

Answer: This depends upon your personal feelings. If she were someone you liked very much you would want to send a present. But since she is one whom you do not know intimately, a present will not be necessary.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Friends of ours lost a daughter about six months ago. Very shortly they will have their 25th wedding anniversary. They had planned on having a large party but due to their bereavement are not going to.

"We wondered whether there was anything we could do about their anniversary even though they are not entertaining as they had planned. Should we send a gift of flowers—or what would be nice, if anything?"

Answer: To send flowers would be the most lovely way possible to show your thoughts of them.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When we have a woman guest at the table, should all the serving dishes be passed to her first to help herself?"

Answer: The dishes that are nearest to her would be passed to her first, but the dishes on the other side of the table would be passed to her in turn.

It would be conspicuously awkward to have all others at the table hand dishes around the table twice—once without helping themselves, and then again to do so.

Answers Problem

A lovely gift for the new bride, one becoming increasingly popular, is a purse perfume atomizer. It is refreshing after shopping or work, to apply your favorite scent.

And a purse atomizer is especially handy for an evening of dinner and dancing, the theater or a party.

Married Saturday at Our Lady of Refuge Church were Beverly Claire Wynne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Wynne of Avondale road, and Donald Thomas Eustice. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eustice of Monticello avenue are his parents.

MRS. DONALD T. EUSTICE

Beverly Wynne Chooses Lace Gown for Wedding

Baskets of white gladioli and stephanotis decorated the altar of Our Lady of Refuge Church Saturday morning for the marriage of Beverly Claire Wynne to Donald Thomas Eustice.

• • •

The 10 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Giles Bartol in the presence of 300 guests.

Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Wynne of Avondale avenue, and Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eustice of Monticello avenue.

A floor-length princess-style gown of Chantilly lace was chosen by the bride. The bodice of nylon tulle gave a drop-shoulder effect and featured appliques of lace at the throat. Inserts of nylon tulle accented the skirt.

• • •

ATTEND BRIDE

Maryann Clifton served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Nancy Clifton, Mary Samson and Mary Lucas. Patti Plouffe of Kalamazoo served as flower girl.

• • •

The attendants' waltz-length gowns were styled alike on princess lines. The maid of honor wore dusty pink and the bridesmaids wore powder blue. They all carried flowered parasols.

A pink dress modeled after that of the bride was worn by the flower girl. She carried a basket of pink roses.

• • •

Mrs. Eustice chose a dress of navy blue silk with pink accessories. They both wore corsages of shattered carnations to match their accessories.

Picking a Print Is Simple Matter

Whether your taste runs to the neat, sophisticated modern, the blurred floral or the realistic reproduction of roses and carnations, there's something for your money. It will be something flattering and suited to your type.

Blooming print gowns have returned to grace summer evenings as they have not done in some seasons.

1666 S. Telegraph Rd., South of Orchard Lake Road

Carpeting

Can You Read These Fine-Print Listings? If not, call us and we'll cheerfully quote the most interesting fine carpet values that we, as carpeting specialists, have ever seen. Or just ask a MOLLS patron. You will be advised to start early and select your carpeting here tomorrow!

This Is WHY—

Twice a year, and only twice, MOLLS conduct a selling event of this unusual character. At this time of year, we take a careful, close look at all our carpeting and fabrics. We confess we do not know why certain colors, patterns or quantities remain unsold. We do know that prolonged wet weather in Oakland County has delayed the normal pace of new home building, decorating and furnishing. MOLLS were prepared for this market a month ago, but we're still waiting for many of you to come in.

Also, this month we have a special problem. Several large carpeting orders, placed with factories for early-spring delivery, are only now arriving. These carpetings are new, fresh weaves of top quality and style, and it is time they were on display. We have already lost 30 to 60 selling days for these new materials. Our decision therefore has been to offer BOTH our new and our slow-moving stock at price levels that are certain to interest every home-maker in range of our advertising. This means you can purchase the slow stock at a discount, and the fresh patterns at a first-time pricing that will return to regular list after this 5-days event.

Ends of ROLLS

CHECK SIZE YOU NEED

12 ft. Wide:

6 ft. Black-Tan Wool Tweed, value $95.60 for only $39.50.

6 ft. 4 in. Beige Wool Wilton, regular $110 value, now $49.50.

7 ft. Gold Tweed Wool, worth $83.50, but someone will spend only $39.50.

15 ft. 9 in. Green Heavy Wilton. This figures $292.95, but we're asking just $189.

27 ft. Green Heavy Wilton. You'd have to be in clover at $610.20, but you can keep up with the Joneses and pay only $395.

15 ft. Wide:

8 ft. Green Viscose-Nylon, regular $106, will have a new home for $49.50.

8 ft. 2 in. Grey Plain Wool, worth $154, to sell to a kind owner for $75.

16 ft. Tangier White Viscose-Nylon. Yesterday we had to quote $212, and now we unquote: $160.

21 ft. Rose-Beige Viscose-Nylon. On the other end of the roll, it would have cost $278.25. Your yardstick will tell you whether to invest $195 in gracious living.

29 ft. Sandalwood Viscose-Nylon. Those who are stepping up in homes this year should step right over to MOLLS. The price hurts us more than it does you: $285.

100% VISCOSE YARN in Hunter Green, Gold, Champagne and Honey Beige. Worth $7.95 regular price. You can buy this week at $4.95 a square yard. No limit to your purchase.

Soil Plan Exempts Natural Crop Curbs

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farmers will get payments under the government's new $1,200,000,000 yearly soil bank program only for what they themselves do to reduce production of crops now in surplus.

* * *

They will get no payments on reductions caused by nature through drought, floods, hailstorms, insects and the like.

Agriculture Department officials said today this will be the rule in fixing payments under the soil bank plan for 1956 crops.

The soil bank is designed to reduce production of wheat, cotton, corn, peanuts, rice and tobacco by the offer of government subsidies to farmers for planting fewer acres than are allotted them.

* * *

The farmer may plow under a poor immature crop and get a soil bank payment—but only on the amount of the estimated production thus eliminated.

These rulings greatly narrow the 1956 program from that indicated by Secretary of Agriculture Benson at a news conference May 31. At that time, his comments and a press release distributed by his department were interpreted as indicating that any immature crop—whether it had good or poor prospects—would be eligible for full payment if plowed up.

"To the end that I am able I intend to see that the nation gets a dollar's worth of surplus reduction or a dollar's worth of conservation for every dollar paid out," he said. "We should not also load upon the program responsibility for drought relief, flood relief and credit needs."

The administration had proposed to determine the size of payments for underplanting allotments by multiplying the normal yield of the idled acres by a crop unit rate. These rates have been set at 90 cents a bushel for corn, $1.20 for wheat, 15 cents a pound for cotton and $2.25 a hundred pounds for rice. No rates have yet been set for peanuts and tobacco.

Thus a farmer who ploughed up 10 acres of corn having a normal yield of 50 bushels an acre would get a soil bank payment of 500 times 90 cents or $450.

But under a payment method tentatively adopted for this year, the yield of ploughed-up land would not be based on the normal figure, but on an appraisal of the crop outlook at the time the farmer applied.

Thus if a field which normally produced 50 bushels was appraised at 20 bushels because of adverse weather, the payment for plowing under each idled acre would be 20 times 90 cents or $18. That would be only $180 for 10 acres.

U. S. Visitors Describe Soviet Farming: 'It's a Monstrosity of Wasted Manpower'

WASHINGTON (INS) — Two American farmers home from Russia reported today that Soviet agriculture is a "monstrosity of wasted manpower"—50 years behind the United States.

* * *

Charles Hollopeter and Harry Bathurst, both of Blackwell, Okla., added, however, that Communist agriculture has made tremendous gains and should continue making progress during the next decade.

The two men went to Russia along with 27 other Americans—including doctors, lawyers, businessmen and educators. They paid their own way, but were sponsored by the Oklahoma Publishing Company and Station WKY-TV of Oklahoma City. Both Oklahomans said they were "readily accepted by the Russian people."

Hollopeter and Bathurst left the U.S. May 5, returned yesterday.

WOMENPOWER ALL

The women, Hollopeter and Bathurst explained, milk the cows, plow the fields, shovel dirt and harvest the crops.

* * *

He added, however, that some of the men on collective farms drive trucks and tractors, although they generally show far less industry than their wives, mothers and daughters.

$20,000 A YEAR

Bathurst described Russia's finest collective farm, in the Southern Province of Georgia, as a bustling "capitalistic enterprise."

The general manager of the farm, he said, receives approximately $20,000 a year, and one tractor driver — the national champion—takes in about $9,000.

Each family working on the collective farm is given a house on a plot of land approximately two acres. Each farm is allotted three cows, one horse, and all the poultry and hogs the women of the family can tend.

COMMON UNDERSTANDING

The economic lot of the Russian "common people," according to the Oklahomans, is better today than ever before. They added, however, that the Russians seem tense and sombre, but extremely friendly.

Hollopeter explained: "We have realized they are people of common understanding. It doesn't make any difference what their government does; we understand them and they understand us."

He said also that Russians do not seem anxious to improve farm techniques or skills. Both Americans concluded Russians prefer some of their old world farm methods because they permit more people to be occupied on farms.

He pointed out, however, that by next year the Red farmers hope to knock one-half day off their six and one-half day work week. By 1960, Bathurst said, they hope to eliminate a full day of work.

But, despite the advances in Soviet agriculture, Bathurst stated, "it will take them 50 years to catch up with us, because they have so far to go."

Detroit CD Groups Ready for 'Tornado'

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's director of Civil Defense says his organization is ready to cope with any tornado or other natural disaster.

Maj. Gen. Clyde E. Dougherty, director of the Detroit office of the Civil Defense, expressed confidence in the city's plan for natural disasters after Civil Defense agencies went through a make-believe tornado yesterday and passed with flying colors.

The imaginary twister was patterned after the Flint disaster of June, 1953, that claimed 115 lives. It was supposed to have hit an area in the southwest section of the city. On paper, 340 persons were killed.

Dougherty said a master plan which the city has had since November, 1953, was revised after a study of recent tornadoes at Grand Rapids and Lincoln Park.

Seaton Appointment Decision Imminent

Democrats promised questions about the ex-Senator's resources policy but practically guaranteed his confirmation.

Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.), a chief critic of Douglas McKay, who recently resigned the Interior post, said Seaton would be "given the benefit of every doubt."

The Senate Interior Committee, of which Neuberger is the newest member, scheduled a public hearing on the appointment.

A FEW QUESTIONS

Oregon's junior Senator said he and other Democrats "might like to ask a few questions about Seaton's policy on natural resources," but indicated such quizzling would be fairly perfunctory.

* * *

Neuberger and Morse have bitterly attacked McKay's resources policies as a "giveaway," and have made this a major issue for 1956 in Oregon.

Democrats privately conceded the President's appointment of Seaton—a Nebraska newspaper publisher and a liberal Republican well liked by senators on both sides of the aisle—may have somewhat blunted the public power issue on the national scene.

But they also felt it could only hurt McKay in Oregon. Morse is expected to argue that selection of Seaton, instead of Under Secretary Clarence Davis, was a "repudiation" of McKay's policies.

CAUGHT OFF BALANCE

A large group of Western Republican senators had joined in urging appointment of Davis as secretary. Seaton's nomination caught them off balance and surprised the entire Senate.

* * *

Interior Chairman James E. Murray (D-Mont.), at first found Seaton's appointment so welcome he indicated his committee would not even require a formal hearing before acting favorably on it. Later he announced today's public hearing and said Seaton probably would be questioned for the record on how he feels about some of the issues involved in the Interior Department's work—public vs. private power, conservation of natural resources, and similar matters.

Seaton, 46, has been active in Republican party affairs since his 20's, spent a brief time in the Senate, served President Eisenhower during the 1952 campaign, and backstopped the administration in the Defense Department before joining the President's White House staff.

Adenauer Due in States for Talks With Ike, Dulles

The West German Embassy today announced the itinerary for the 80-year-old statesman's seven-day trip to the United States, during which he will receive an honorary degree from Marquette University, Milwaukee. Adenauer last visited this country a year ago.

TO SEE DULLES

Adenauer's plane is due in New York next Saturday. After a weekend in New York, the German leader will take part in Yale University commencement exercises Monday at New Haven, Conn. From Yale, he will fly to Washington.

On Tuesday, Adenauer will confer with Dulles at the State Department. The next day he will be honor guest at a White House luncheon given by Eisenhower.

After a one-day return visit to New York, during which he is scheduled to address the Council on Foreign Relations, Adenauer will fly to Chicago to speak Friday at a luncheon of the Executives' Club.

Later that day, Adenauer will travel to Milwaukee to receive an honorary doctorate from Marquette. Immediately afterward, he is booked to leave Milwaukee on his return flight home.

In the Chancellor's party will be Walter Hallstein, state secretary in the Federal Republic's Foreign Office; his eldest son, Konrad Jr.; one of his daughters, Mrs. Libeth Werhahn, and a number of German officials.

Lake Shippers Told: 'Prove Your Claims'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spokesmen for Great Lakes shipowners seeking more government help to modernize the aging lake fleet have been challenged to prove their problems differ from those of salt water operators.

* * *

Chairman Bonner (D-NC) and other members of the House Merchant Marine Committee said yesterday they would like to see new ships replace those up to 72 years old, still plying the lakes. But Bonner said the committee could expect similar appeals from operators of ships plying between U. S. ports on the ocean coasts.

Lyndon Spencer of Columbus, Ohio, president of the Lake Carriers' Assn., said the big difference between lake and ocean operations is that lake steamers switch back and forth constantly between coast-wise and foreign commerce—between runs from one U. S. port to another and service to both Canadian and U. S. ports.

Michigan Blue Cross Breaks Payment Record

Michigan Blue Cross broke all previous records for payments to hospitals for care of members during the first three months of this year, William S. McNary, executive vice president, said Michigan Blue Cross paid for more than $25,550,000 worth of care for over 128,000 members during the period.

First quarter payments for 1956 ran 21 per cent higher than for the same period last year. McNary said hospital payments represented 98.53 per cent of total income. Operating expenses took 3.93 per cent, which meant there was an operating deficit which came out of reserves of $637,000, 2.46 per cent.

DSR Bus Drivers Request Pay Boost

DETROIT (AP) — AFL bus drivers for the city-owned Detroit Street Railway have asked for a 15 per cent wage boost and benefits which DSR officials estimated would cost $6,783,000 a year.

* * *

Joseph Cardonna, president of Coach Operators' Union Division 26, representing 2,400 drivers, presented these proposals to the DSR Commission yesterday:

A 31-cent hourly pay raise from a base of $2.05, a 40-hour work week instead of 48 with no pay cut; maximum vacations of four weeks instead of three; longevity pay; eight paid holidays yearly instead of six; and one free uniform a year.

The present contract runs out Aug. 31.

About half the drivers work 40 hours, the rest 48 hours at straight pay on a volunteer basis.

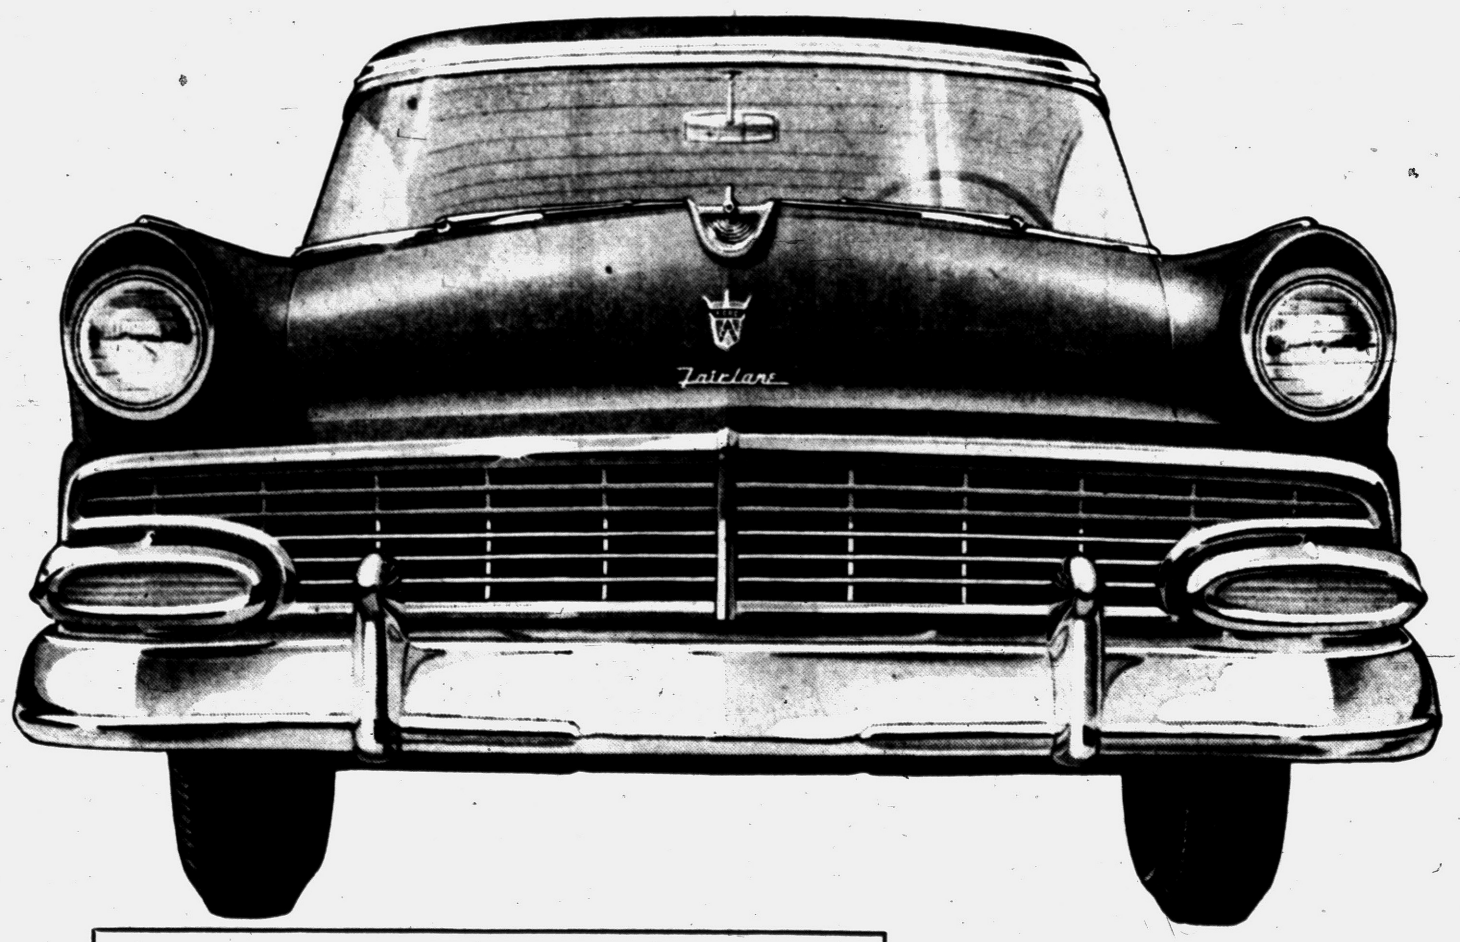

* * *

Colorado Dam Breaks Loose

Georgetown Dike Falls Deluging 140-Mile Area; No Lives Lost

• • •

NO LIFE LOST

Early warnings by state, county and federal officials were credited with averting possible loss of life.

A sedan-truck driven by Arthur Williams, 50, of Wheat Ridge, Colo., hit a rock and plunged into dragged the vehicle half a mile before Williams could free himself and clamber ashore. He suffered cuts and bruises.

The waters engulfed motor courts between Georgetown and Idaho Springs and damaged some dwellings and business houses at Idaho Springs.

• • •

Temperatures to 90 degrees the past few days hastened the melting of snow at higher elevations. Strong winds kicking up waves on the dam reservoir were believed to have helped weaken the dike.

South Dakota Vote Issue All Settled

PIERRE, S. D. (AP)—National issues were all but settled before South Dakotans started voting today in their primary election.

• • •

President Eisenhower was assured of winning 14 Republican convention votes and Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) had the eight Democratic votes. Neither slate has any opposition. Voters are prohibited from crossing party lines and write-ins are banned.

Both parties were watching the turnout closely for any alteration of the voting pattern set in the 1952 primary. Republicans then cast a total of 128,000 votes in a contest between an unpledged Eisenhower slate and one pledged to the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

• • •

A Kefauver slate drew 22,812 ballots that year against 11,741 cast for an unpledged Democratic one. Democrats, however, were looking for a boost in that total today because one of the main races is for the party's senatorial nomination.

State Pupils Asked to Sign Safety Pledge

LANSING (AP) — Half a million Michigan school children in the lower five grades will be asked to sign a summer safety pledge this month in an effort to reduce last year's toll of 140 youngsters killed and 4,400 injured in traffic accidents.

• • •

The pledges are being distributed to public and parochial schools by the traffic safety committee of the Michigan petroleum industry.

Dr. Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, has endorsed the campaign, writing to local school administrators:

• • •

"We wholeheartedly endorse the idea because it is our own feeling that a pledge of this kind, signed by the child to take home for the parents' attention, may have a beneficial effect on the child and older brothers and sisters."

• • •

The pledge adopts the Detroit Traffic Assn.'s safety sermon for children:

Michigan's Unique Artist Conquers Polio Handicap

FRANKFORT (AP) — Gwen Frostic, who suffered a severe attack of polio as a child and was believed cripped for life, has emerged as one of Michigan's most unique artists.

• • •

She creates block-print note papers and greeting cards in her one-room print shop here.

Miss Frostic became interested in art early in childhood, after recovering from polio. She is a graduate of Michigan State Normal College and Western Michigan College where she studied art formally.

After a year of teaching she began a career in art metalwork and design in her own shop at Wyandotte. World War II halted her metal supplies and she joined the tool and fixture designing staff at the Ford bomber plant at Willow Run.

"My next venture was in the printing field," says Miss Frostic. "My original idea was to make what we call 'shadow prints,' but the whole thing got away from me. I found myself doing all sorts of things for which I had no interest—wedding invitations, programs and so forth."

AUTHENTIC LOOK

In 1951 Miss Frostic began a series of summer trips to the Frankfort resort area to do the type of art work she wanted to do and to be "nearer the things I wanted to draw."

By January of 1955 Miss Frostic had become a permanent resident.

Miss Frostic's prints are stamped by the authenticity of subject matter. Extensive research goes into every sketch from nature.

She is asked: "How do you know it is one day old?"

Miss Frostic also teaches a crafts class for the Benzie County Art Club. Among other activities, she is a member of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., Wyandotte chapter, and editor of its state bulletin.

Security for You

Our Social Security Law Parallels Insurance Plan

By RAY HENRY
AP Writer

The nation's Social Security law, like an insurance policy, doesn't make very good bedside reading. But it's something most people should be fairly familiar with to be sure they're getting what they've got coming.

Probably the best way to get a bead on Social Security is to look at it as if it were an insurance policy.

You pay a small percentage of your earnings, up to $4,200 a year to the government for a certain period of time. In return you're promised monthly payments when you retire after reaching age 65, or at 72 even if you don't retire; or, if you die, no matter what your age, your survivors may be eligible for certain payments.

With the broadest possible strokes, that's the way Social Security can be painted. But it's like saying that life insurance is simply the payment of premiums to assure your beneficiaries some money when you die.

Figuratively, there's fine print for Social Security, just as there actually is in an insurance policy. The fine print is where the dull bedside reading comes in. But knowing what's in the fine print is about the only way to understand Social Security.

FEW UNAWARE

For example, few people seem to be aware that aged parents are sometimes eligible for Social Security benefits as survivors of a son or daughter who made payments to the government. They are if they can meet five requirements.

1. They must be the surviving parent of a fully insured son or daughter who died after 1939 and who left no widow, widower or child to whom Social Security benefits are payable. In general, a "fully insured" person is one who paid into Social Security for (a) at least 10 years, or, (b) at least half the time between Jan. 1, 1951, and the date of his death.

2. They must be 65 or over.

3. They must have been getting at least half their support from the deceased person at the time of death and must have filed proof of such support within two years of the date of death.

4. They must not be entitled to Social Security payments on their own earning records equal to or greater than the payments they're eligible to receive as survivors of a son or daughter.

5. They must not have remarried since the death of the deceased person.

The amount of the monthly benefit payments made to a parent may not be more than three-fourths of what the deceased person would have received had he been eligible for Social Security at the time of his death. For example: If the son or daughter were eligible for today's maximum payment of $108.50 a month for a single worker, a dependent parent would be eligible for about $81.40 a month.

However, a parent—like almost every person who draws Social Security benefits—is subject to having the benefits reduced for earnings in excess of $1,200 a year.

The benefits are payable until the month in which (a) the parent dies, or, (b) he or she remarries, or, (c) the parent becomes entitled to at least the same amount of Social Security on his or her earning record as is now being paid.

Americans Need Short Course on 'How to Sleep'

By EDWIN DIAMOND
INS SCIENCE WRITER

We spend at least one-third of our lives sleeping.

Unfortunately, this does not mean we are getting eight hours of necessary rest each 24-hour day. The sleep experts say:

Sleep is not the same as rest: We can sleep without getting needed rest and we can rest without going to sleep.

What counts is the kind of sleep we get rather than the number of hours of "shut-eye." Quality counts more than quantity.

What Americans need in the opinion of sleep psychologist Peter Seigle is a short course of instruction in "how to sleep."

IMPROVE SLEEPING HABITS

The aim of such a course would be to improve our sleeping habits and get the most health-giving values of sleep. One of the most important ingredients is "taking it easy" in the quality of the sleep you get.

To set the stage for this course, consider first the results of 30 years of sleep research by Dr. Nathaniel Kleitman of the University of Chicago.

What goes on when we sleep? Everything that goes on when we are awake only at a slower, reduced pace. Highest brain level functions are practically suspended; the entire body slows down—heart beat, metabolic rate (the continuous building up and breaking down of the cells), deeper and more regular breathing, reduced glandular activity and relaxation of the body muscles.

WHY DO WE SLEEP?

Why do we sleep? A person will stay awake, Dr. Kleitman says, as long as the brain is sufficiently stimulated by outside elements and the body's own movements or muscular tensions. Sleeping involves two-way traffic. When the body stops sending nerve impulses to the brain and the brain stops sending "stay alert" signals to the eyes, ears and body muscles, we sleep.

Comments Psychologist Seigel:

"To reduce this traffic along the nervous system and achieve a state of relaxed unconsciousness, some degree of quiet and darkness is helpful. In addition the inner sensations of pain, hunger, thirst . . . must be cut down."

Seigle recommenrs a "regularized routine and a suitable environment." While individual details will differ from person to person, here is his seven-point list for inducing sleep:

1. A certain amount of moderate fatigue following a day with moderate exercise—and try to go to bed at the same hour every night. Above all, relax every muscle, nerve and thought.

2. A moderately-filled stomach — one of the things that keeps you awake is a stomach a little too empty that sends grumblings to the brain and inhibits relaxation. On the other hand, exotic, heavy, or ice-cold foods make bad pre-bedtime snacks.

3. Fresh, but not necessarily cold air and a reasonable amount of blanket warmth — abrupt changes of temperature during the night prevents sound sleep.

4. A darkened room. In our culture, we are accustomed to sleeping at night. Workers on night and swing-shifts report they can only sleep when they duplicate the established "night-time atmosphere."

5. Familiar sounds and sights. The importance of this was borne out during interviews with persons who recently moved into the suburbs. They couldn't get used to the "country sounds" such as crickets.

6. Comfortable bed and mattress. The Veddahs of Ceylon sleep on the ground. The Maori of New Zealand sleep squatting on their heels with a mat tied on their neck to keep out the rain.

In this country we are used to beds, pillows and shelter.

7. A room with consistent, restful decor. Certain colors are known as exciting, others as cold. Choose warm, quiet tones —those with a lot of white in them. Distractions, such as flapping shades and inappropriate pictures on the wall, should be avoided.

Seigle concludes:

In general, you can not sleep unless you are relaxed and comfortable. There are as many ways of achieving these states as there are individuals. What we have suggested are merely generalizations to which each person must add and adapt and integrate with his or her own systems of responses."

Psychologists Study Causes for Suicide

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two Los Angeles psychologists today begin a three-year study to find out the answer to a little-known question: Why do people kill themselves?

* * *

The U.S. Public Health Service is financing the research because of an alarming jump in the suicide rate. It's officially reported at 20,000 yearly in the United States, with at least twice that number not reported.

The scientists are Dr. Edwin S. Schneidman, of the Veterans Administration Hospital and a faculty member of the University of Southern California; and Dr. Norman L. Faberow, of the VA's mental hygiene clinic and a UCLA faculty member.

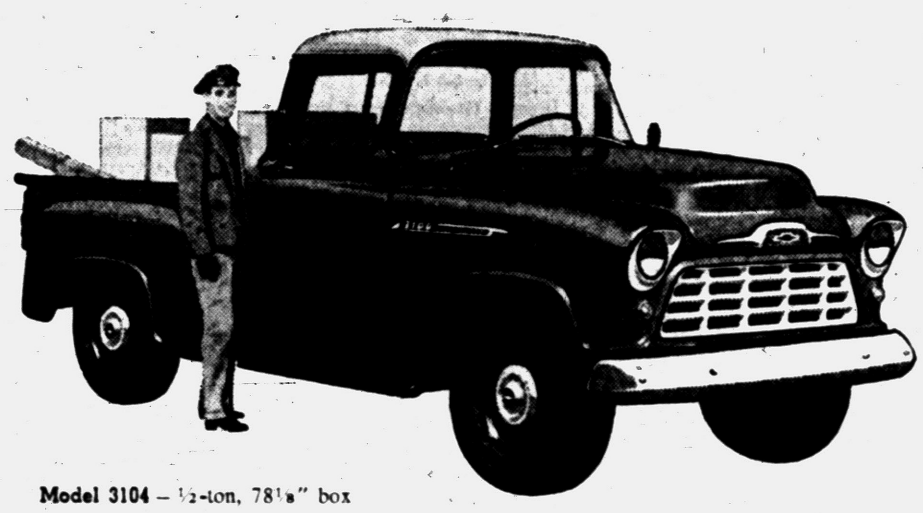

The two experts said they hope to find out why more men—nearly three to one—commit suicide than women and why the West Coast leads the nation in self-destruction. San Francisco is the No. 1 city for suicides.

Plans for Proposed Farmington Interceptor Dissolved

Waterford Out; Seeks New Plan

Supervisor Suggests Building Own Sewage Disposal Plant

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Solution to Waterford Township's No. 1 problem—sewers—became more remote this week when plans for the proposed Farmington interceptor were dissolved, township Supervisor Lloyd Anderson informed the Township Board Monday night.

* * *

Plans, according to Anderson, caller for the interceptor emptying into the Detroit sewer system but the city of Dearborn has had an agreement with Detroit for some 10 years that Detroit would take care of Dearborn sewage if Dearborn so desired. To date Dearborn has operated its own disposal system, but has now decided to discontinue its operation and join the Detroit system. Consquently, the Detroit system is unable to take care of all the participants of the proposed Farmington interceptor plan, namely, Southfield, Farmington City and Township, West Bloomfield and Waterford Townships. The city of Farmington is the only participant of this group that can be served by Detroit, Anderson said.

What alternative does Waterford have? Supervisor Anderson suggested the township can build its own sewage disposal plant or join with a nearby area or areas and build a plant jointly.

If the township builds its own plant, the only method of financing would be by the sale of revenue bonds supported by one or two mills voted by the people, Anderson pointed out.

Man of Vision Was Druggist 50 Years

Brandon Supervisor Honored Today

By MARTHA LEWIS
Ortonville Correspondent

ORTONVILLE—Brandon Township's Supervisor Frank D. Brigham will be honored today when the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Assn., meeting in Grand Rapids, presents him with an award for having served the Ortonville community 50 years as a registered pharmacist.

Brigham purchased his drug store on East Mill street here from Albert I. Wilders in 1900. At that time he served as an assistant druggist, graduating as a pharmacist in 1902.

Drugs and powders were not enough to capture all of his interest and energy, so he installed the first soda fountain in the village in 1901. It was that same year that it became necessary for Ortonville to have a bank of its own. Since there was available space in the Brigham Store, this became the first location for the State Bank of Ortonville.

Among the townsfolk and nearby farmers a need was felt for telephone service and so in 1903, he purchased the first switchboard here and had it installed in his store. (This exchange was later replaced by another company and then moved to another location.)

About this time, the "horseless carriage" could be seen here and there about town. It was Brigham the man of foresight, who had the first gasoline pump installed here. This was placed out in front of his now very active business.

ANOTHER FIRST

Brigham also opened the first radio and equipment branch in Ortonville.

* * *

FRANK D. BRIGHAM

Since 1952 this active man has been supervisor of Brandon Township.

Last winter, Brigham, on his way to a board meeting, broke his ankle. After his release from the hospital, township affairs were carried on as usual—board meetings were held in his home!

All down through the years, the supervisor and the late Mrs. Laura Brigham made the acre of property where they lived a place of beauty. It was their custom to plant thousands of gladioli bulbs, besides many other flowers and perennials, plus a luxuriant vegetable garden.

This year, alone, Brigham is planting about 1,000 glad bulbs and a small garden patch. Mrs. Brigham passed on last August after the couple had been married almost 45 years.

There is one son, Gordon, a druggist at East Tawas; five grandsons and two granddaughters.

Waterford Granted 1.32 Mill Allocation

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The tax allocation for Waterford Township has been increased from 1 mill to 1.32 mills, Township Supervisor Lloyd Anderson, who appealed the original allotment for township operation, told the township board last night.

The Oakland County Tax Allocation board granted the larger rate after Anderson appeared to justify the increase.

The rate of 1.32 mills is less than 1.38 granted last year, but due to the increase in valuation of the township, it will approximately equal the amount received last year in dollars and cents figures, Anderson said.

Other township board business last night included acceptance of sewer bonds for Riteway Electric Sewer Cleaners and E. J. Duffy.

Calico Swingers Plan July 7 Potluck Picnic

The Calico Swingers Square Dance Club of the Oakland County area is planning a potluck picnic, to be held July 7 at the Ray Darling home in Foxcroft. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Joan entertained the group recently at a barn dance and steak roast near Clarkston.

Ballot to Decide 2-Mill Tax Hike

Southfield Votes Aug. 7 on Funds to Buy Sites for Park, Civic Center

SOUTHFIELD — At the Aug. 7 primary election, residents here will be asked to approve two mills in special taxes for recreation sites and a civic center.

Two separate one-mill proposals have been placed on the primary ballot by the township board. They are:

1. Buy land for neighborhood and civic center development, and provide funds for the civic center and capital improvements in the parks.

2. Purchase a major park and equip it.

Supervisor Eugene Swem told the board that a new state law will permit Southfield to set aside "flood plains" of the Rouge River for parks.

Swem said the flood plains would prevent narrowing of the Rouge river basin and ease further flooding of down-stream communities.

It has not yet been decided for the land purchase and impr whether there will be a bond issue for the land purchase and improvements.

Detroit Waiter Wins Freedom

Escapes Murder Count but Witnesses Are Held on Perjury Charges

NEW YORK (AP) — A Detroit waiter accused in a 19-year-old killing here — and caught when his wife had him arrested for assault and battery — has won a direct verdict of acquittal.

* * *

But the judge who acquitted Ralph Maceroli in the old Brooklyn slaying ordered three other men held for possible perjury action because they declined to testify against Maceroli.

The waiter, who once lived in Brooklyn, now lives in Lincoln Park, with his wife and 14-year-old twin sons. He is known in Detroit as Albert Louis Martino.

When his wife had him jailed he was fingerprinted, and a check proved he was the man wanted in the 1937 bludgeoning death of Michael Mazzadri in a Brooklyn bar fight. Later he was brought here for trial.

'DELIBERATE LIES'

Two men who have served time for the 1937 killing, and a third who was a witness, all claimed yesterday they could not remember anything about the 1937 incident, even when their own testimony and statements were read to refresh their memories.

The two convicted killers, James Scarano and Joseph Parisi, also claimed they did not recognize Maceroli.

* * *

Kings County Judge Samuel Leibowitz said he believed they and the witness, Carmine Braccio, were guilty of "deliberate falsehood."

Milford Resident Fined by Sylvan Lake Justice

Charles Creamer, of Milford, was fined $15 and paid $15 costs for illegal possession and transporting in an auto yesterday. He He pleaded guilty before Justice Joseph J. Leavy of Sylvan Lake.

Milford Youth Receives Jackson Prison Term

Jack W. Rivers, 18, of Milford, who pleaded guilty May 25 to stealing and stripping a car from the Pontiac Motor Division parking lat, was sentenced yesterday to 1½-5 years in Jackson State Prison by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

TEEN-AGE VOTER — Mary Ann Crimmins, 17, poses prettily with one hand on the control lever of a voting machine in Louisville, Ky. Miss Crimmins, who will be 18 in July, thus making her eligible to vote, was one of the first teen-agers to cast her ballot under Kentucky's new law.

Kavanagh Decision Given on Contracts

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh held today that a township has no authority to contract with a county road commission for the expenditure of township funds to purchase or operate street maintenance equipment.

* * *

The opinion, requested by F. Jack Neller, Battle Creek prosecuting attorney, also held that the township cannot buy, maintain or operate a public street cleaning vehicle at township expense.

In other opinions, the Attorney General held that:

A truck used for hauling of waste material from a factory to fill in and reclaim land for the planting of jack pine is not eligible for a farm commercial registration under the Motor Vehicle Code.

* * *

The 1955-56 appropriation for salaries for members of the State Labor Mediation Board is restricted to services perforfed during that fiscal year and cannot be used to pay for services performed during a prior fiscal year.

County drain commissioners cannot issue drain orders to bear interest and interest is payable only in cases specifically authorized by statute.

Lake Orion Resident Gets Two 90-Day Terms

Cecil Hendricks, 44, of Lake Orion, was sentenced to separate terms of 90 days in Oakland County Jail Monday after pleading guilty to two traffic violations before Justice Helmar G. Stanaback of Orion Township.

* * *

Hendricks admitted to reckless driving and driving without an operator's license. The sentences were increased on failure to pay a total of $165 in fines and costs.

Service Station Breakin Probed by Detectives

The county officers were alerted after the early morning entry at the station at Jackson boulevard and Ormond road. Owners had been unable to determine the amount of loss when the detectives were contacted.

Madison Heights Resident Enters Plea of Guilty

Hershal M. Roberson, alias Skip Robinson, of 714 E. 11 Mile Rd., Madison Heights, pleaded guilty yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court to writing a worthless $15 check to a Farmington Township hardware store March 24.

Judge Frank L. Doty, who will sentence Roberson June 11, returned him to Oakland County Jail under bond of $1,000.

Hollywood Headlines:

Movieland Woes Authors in Hunt for Better Scripts

By BOB THOMAS

* * *

This becomes more evident each day as the emphasis continues to shift to the story, both in movies and TV. Producers in both mediums are proclaiming their dire need for good story material. Some are even taking definite steps to promote it.

OFFERS FINANCING

Columbia Pictures has notified book publishers that the studio will help finance unfinished books that present good film possibilities and will assist in publicizing the books when they are published.

* * *

"We need properties," Columbia boss Harry Cohn declared. Other producers heartily agree, and some are offering fellowships and prizes to encourage new writers.

One of the pioneers in this matter is Samuel Goldwyn, who has been a booster of story values throughout his long career. During the '20s, he imported a group of big-name authors from New York and London. The experiment was not a rousing success, but it did improve the literary tone of the Hollywood product.

HIS THOUGHTS

Last week Goldwyn presented his annual $1,000 prize for the best creative writing by a UCLA student to a pretty young Chinese girl from Formosa, Lee Hwa Yu. The producer, whose own English is not polished but who still possesses a convincing earnestness, gave some of his thoughts about writing.

* * *

"Writing is a work of love," he remarked. "You have to sweat if you expect to create something convincing . . .

* * *

"Without good writing, a picture cannot succeed. I have failed many times for that reason. I can produce a picture beautifully, but if I do not have a good story, it means nothing."

Dem Platform Unit to Break Precedent

CHICAGO (AP) — Democratic Chairman Paul Butler says the party's Platform Committee will convene a week before the 1956 national convention "to get substantial agreement on civil rights."

* * *

He told a news conference yesterday he is confident a civil rights plank acceptable to Northern and Southern Democrats will be drawn up during the preconvention deliberations.

Democrats, Butler declared, "will not have any difficulty with the platform."

The drafting committee will meet Aug. 6, one week before the convention opens for business Aug. 13 in Chicago's International Amphitheatre.

Butler said it was "the first time in party history" that the Platform Committee would meet a full week before the convention opened.

Sentence Drayton Man

John W. Cutcher, 26, of Drayton Plains, who pleaded guilty May 9 to committing an act of gross indecency March 23 with a 14-year-old boy was sentenced yesterday to 4-5 years in Jackson State Prison by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

International Geologists to Evolve Map of Asia

TOKYO (AP)—Geologists of 13 nations met here today to start work on a unified Asian map under auspices of the United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East.

The session will last six days.

Russia's delegate told the opening session that Russia considered that Red China and Outer Mongolia should be present but did not demand they be represented. Nor did he demand that Nationalist Chinese delegates be ousted.

A good treated, wood fence post will last 15 years or more.

Innocent Plea Voiced by James A. Harry

Charged with driving away another man's car May 21 in Pontiac, James Albert Harry of 83 S. Shirley Ave. pleaded innocent yesterday at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Virgil Trucks Hurls Tonight Against Bosox

Fireballer Has Chance to Pitch Bengals Into First Division Berth

BOSTON (AP)—Virgil Trucks, who played with the Tigers when they were a pennant contender, gets a chance tonight to pitch Detroit into an undisputed 1st division berth in the American League.

The veteran righthander is one of the two members of the 1956 Tigers who were with the club back in the pre-1952 era when first division was the accustomed spot for a Detroit team. The other survivor of that era is catcher Frank House.

Trucks, of course, has been gone—traded away after the 1952 season to the old St. Louis Browns. He moved to the Chicago White Sox and came back to the Tigers in their only winter deal after the 1955 season.

Only once so far has he shown signs of regaining his once-brilliant form. But forunately that once was on the current all-winning road trip — Memorial Day in Kansas City.

Pitching with a swollen ankle Trucks limited the A's to three hits in scoring his 1st victory. That was the Tigers' third straight road triumph. Now they've won six in a row and are here to face the Boston Red Sox.

The Red Sox never have been an easy club for Virg. His lifetime record against them is 14-26, worse than against any other team in the league.

But everything has been going right for the Tigers the past week and the experts hope the big righthander will find the new spirit infectious.

Bob Porterfield, who has won two and lost three for the Red Sox this season after moving from Washington, probably will start for Boston.

Rush to Victory

Thomson Wins Dallas Test

DALLAS (AP) — Peter Thomson, the sturdy Australian who dominates British golf, showed Americans a thing or two about stretch running yesterday when he won his first tournament in the United States.

* * *

The cheerful young man from Down Under came from a tie for eighth place with a seven-under-par 63 to deadlock with Cary Middlecoff and Gene Littler for first place then won a playoff and first money in the $70,000 Texas International Open.

As Thomson departed today for New York where he will play in the Round-Robin tournament, he carried a check for $13,478, the top prize in one of the finest fields ever to play in an American tournament.

Thomson, 26-year-old two-times British Open champion from Melbourne, Australia; Middlecoff, the ex-dentist from Memphis, and Littler, the big money winner from Singing Hills, Calif., tied over the regulation 72 holes at 267. Then on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff, the sturdy Australian sank a 12-foot putt for a birdie.

Top Women Pro in Round-Robin

Miss Suggs, who plays out of fourth annual $12,000 Round-Robin Sea Island, Ga., isn't expected to have an easy time in this "plus and minus" derby. Veteran Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., is currently playing some of the finest golf of her long career and is anxious to regain the Round-Robin championship she lost to Miss Suggs a year ago.

There are others, too who may cause the defending titlist trouble. Among them are Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C., Mickey Wright of LaJolla, Calif., and Marlene Bauer Hagge of Sarasota, Fla.

Burkemo Sets Open Qualifying Pace

By H. GUY MOATS
Pontiac Press Special Writer

Two veteran Pontiac area golf professionals took over the first and last places in Michigan's sectional qualifying trial for the National Open tournament yesterday at Pine and Orchard Lake country clubs. Another Oakland county pro provided some fireworks in a final round surge to force a two-way playoff for the eighth spot. Eight others engaged in a "sudden death" playoff for the alternate position.

After results from the other 23 tests held yesterday were in, Wally's 10 under par round stood up as the best in the nation. A 136 by Ray Moore Jr. of Memphis, Tenn., at Nashville was 2nd best.

Both the fine club layouts on which the qualifying rounds were played proved to the liking of Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills.

The stocky, curly-headed former National PGA titlist was the only player to clip 70 on both courses. Burkemo hung up a sizzling 66-68—134 for the 36 hole round. He was seven strokes under Forest Lake's Bob Gajda, at 141.

* * *

Others in the 8-man list were, in order: Indianwood's Mike Dietz with 143, a spot he shared with another ex-National PGA king, Melvin (Chick) Harbert, of Meadowbrook; Pete Cooper of Knollwood at 144; personable Rudy Horvath, the Canadian insurance writer at 145; amateur Ed Ervasti of Royal Oak at 146; and the genial veteran Al Watrous of Oakland Hills at 147, plus a playoff victory.

* * *

Qualifiers and alternates were all that was left of a field of 138 that started play Monday morning, simultaneously on the two courses.

Al, qualifying in his 1st try in five years for the big event, pushed Dr. Wendall R. Aldrich out of the last place in a "sudden death" playoff. Watrous carded even par 5 "down the middle" for the 1st hole. Dr. Aldrich was in the rough on his tee shot. His 2nd found a trap at left of the fairway and his 3rd rolled off the back of the green. Al was on in three, two-putted for his par: The Kendallville, Ind., doctor was a foot short on his putt.

* * *

Harbert, last of the finishers at Pine Lake, added a 2-under 70 to his round of 73 (one over par) at Orchard Lake to break into the top eight. Dietz compiled his 143 on rouds of 72-71 (OL).

Cooper played steady golf for his 69-75-144. Horvarth coupled a Pine Lake 70 to 75 at Orchard Lake, and Ervasti, only amateur to break the pros' dominance, had 75-71 (PL).

* * *

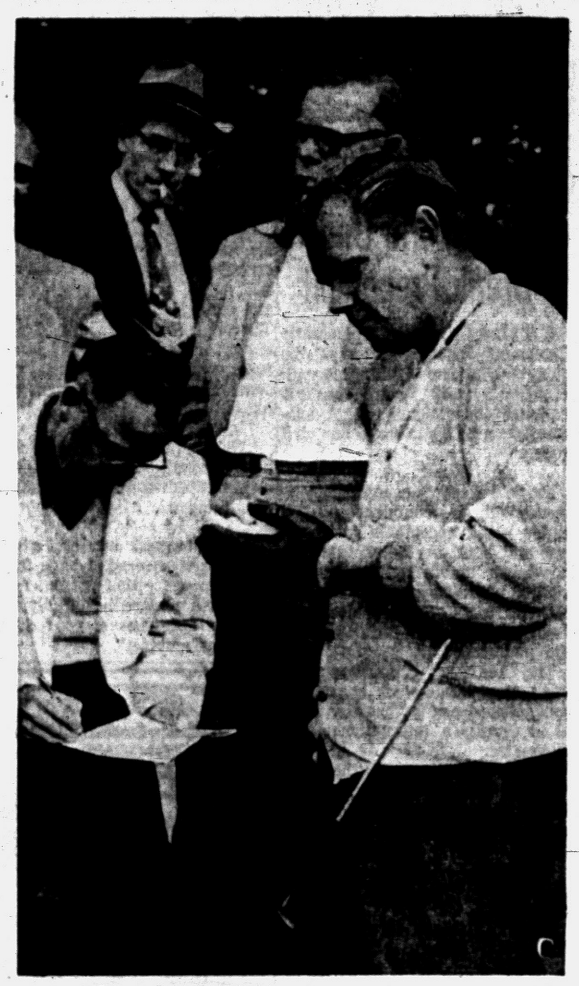

Burkemo had a single bogie for his two rounds. That was a tipoff on the brilliance of his play in setting the medialist pace. He bagged 6 birdies on Orchard Lake, 5 on Pine Lake, which played harder and longer all day. Good-sized galleries followed both Wally and Harbert on their final rounds.

Here's Burkemo's card, with par:

At Orchard Lake—
Burkemo out	343	443	345	33
Par out	453	444	345	36
Par in	445	354	344	36-72
Burkemo in	436	364	333	33-68
At Pine Lake—
Par out	535	344	444	33
Burkemo out	434	354	444	35
Par in	543	534	534	36-72
Burkemo in	443	434	434	33-68
Par for 36 holes	144
Burkemo, 36 holes	134

Alternates:

* W. R. Aldrich		71-76—147
*Joe Grace, DGC	+3	76-72—148
Joe Zakarian, Detroit		75-73—148
*Art Olfs, Lansing		71-77—148
Jimmy Johnson, Farmington		75-73—148

Coachers Crush Fowler's, 15-0

GMC Wins 6th in Row in Class A Baseball Game at Wisner

* * *

Last night at Wisner Field the Coachers rapped a dozen safeties and Dick Goldsworthy pitched a one-hit shutout as Fowler's Fine Foods went down to a convincing 15-0 defeat.

It was the 6th straight victory for the unbeaten Coachers and their 3rd shutout of the season.

Goldsworthy turned in a masterful job. The strong righthander struck out seven, walked three, and hit one batter, and issued a lone single to Max VanKuren in the 6th inning.

Second baseman Bob Swindell led GMC's assault against hurler Delmo Chapdelaine. Swindell collected four singles in five times at bat and scored three runs.

Cardinals Sign Veteran Hurler

Jim Konstanty Replaces Surkont, Sold to San Francisco

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals today announced the signing of veteran relief pitcher Jim Konstanty, 39-year-old palm ball specialist released earlier this season by the New York Yankees.

* * *

Konstanty had been working out before Manager Fred Hutchinson and General Manager Frank Lane the past week. Terms were not disclosed.

* * *

The big righthander was the National League's most valuable player in 1950, when he pitched the Philadelphia Phillies to their first National League pennant in 35 years with a 16-7 record. He appeared in a record number of 74 games and had a 2.66 earned run average.

* * *

The Redbirds made room for Konstanty by selling Max Surkont, obtained earlier from Pittsburgh, to San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League in a straight cash deal. The amount of money wasn't announced.

Hose Add Heft; Bucs on Top

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Chicago White Sox have gained a little weight and appear recovered from their most recent attack of Yankee-itis, but the question is—how long can it last?

* * *

Manager Marty Marion's crew looked just as healthy a couple of weeks back, having won six straight and edging to within 1½ games of the American League leading New Yorkers. Then the Yankees laid 'em low, winning three in a row to touch off a five-game losing streak for the Pale Hose. Before it ended they were 6½ games behind and in fourth place.

* * *

Chicago continued to fatten up at Baltimore last night, trimming the Orioles 13-4 and cutting the Yanks' lead to four games. Cleveland, in third and only 4½ back, defeated Washington 7-0 in the only other American League game scheduled.

In the National, meanwhile, Pittsburgh slipped into first place while enjoying a day off as Sal Maglie and Brooklyn's Dodgers combined to dump the Milwaukee Braves out of the lead 3-0. The Braves now trail by a full game, as do the Cardinals, 11-5 winners over New York, and Cincinnati, an 8-2 winner over Philadelphia.

* * *

Billy Pierce, the 5-10 lefthander who calls the Orioles "cousins," had only a slight bit of trouble gaining his seventh victory for the Sox and his ninth straight over the Birds.

It was the third straight victory for the Sox, who test their recovery against Washington and Boston before running into the Yankees again a week from today.

* * *

Mike Garcia got the job done for the Indians with the help of home runs by rookie Earl Averill and Jim Busby and three runs batted in by Vic Wertz. The Big Bear struck out 12 for a 4-5 record and his first shutout since last August 24.

* * *

Maglie had to go back farther than that to find his last shutout. The ex-Giant righthander hadn't blanked anybody since April 25, 1954, (against the Phils) and he hadn't won since last July 2. He hadn't gone the distance since last June 22.

Records in Danger

9 Conferences in Big Meet

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—World records may fall when 125 outstanding athletes from nine collegiate conferences compete in the first annual University of Houston Meet of Champions Friday night.

* * *

Thirty-six individual conference champions are entered. They include such nationally known athletes as Pitt's Arnie Sowell, Penn's John Haines, Texas' Eddie Southern and Bobby Whilden, Kansas State's Gene O'Connor, Texas Christian's Bill Curtis, and Houston's Ronnie Pruitt.

* * *

Sowell, Pitt's great 880 man, has asked for a shot at the world 400 meters record, a race in which he will duel Haines and Rice Institute's Harold Griffin.

Sowell has done 47.3 in the event, while Griffin has a 47.1 best time and Haines, four times National AAU indoor sprint champion, a 47.3.

Runners will be clocked over both metric and yardage distances in anticipation of possible world marks in each.

Eddie Southern, who Saturday recorded the nation's fastest time for the event, 51.6, at the Texas AAU tourney, meets Kansas State's Gene O'Connor, previous holder of the best time, nationally this year, a 52.2. They will be pushed by Rice's Roy Thompson, holder of the nation's fourth-best time for the year, 52.4, and Pitt's Paul Thrash, the 1955 Penn Relays champion who has done 53 flat.

Softball Hurlers Sparkle

Percy McConner outlasted Hank Dudzinski in a standout mound duel as Shaw's Jewelers defeated Bicmar Inn, 2-0, in nine innings. Two infield errors, a sacrifice fly, and Ed Mullen's single ended proceedings in the 2nd extra stanza. McConner yielded only two hits while Dudzinski was touched for four.

Two runs in the 3rd frame was enough to give Royal Bar a 2-1 victory over Stadium Inn as Cal Atwood outpitched Ed McManus. A pair of walks and singles by Walt Allison and Don Moorhead accounted for Royal's deciding runs. Atwood hurled a three-hitter and McManus gave up six.

Drive-in Cleaners slapped out 14 safeties while trouncing Oxbow Pavilion, 19-4, and Gingellville collected 10 hits to blank Michigan Bell, 11-0, in a girls' league game. Nancy Wickman tossed a one-hitter and Nancy McCarter clouted a home run for Gingellville.

Jaycee Tennis Tournament June 16 at Oakland Park

The 1956 city tennis tournament for boys, sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, will be held Saturday, June 16, at 10 a.m., on the Oakland Park courts.

* * *

To encourage greater participation in the event, an instructional tennis clinic will precede the tourney this Saturday morning, also at Oakland Park. The clinic starts at 10 o'clock.

Frank Beeman, head tennis coach at Michigan State University, will be in charge of the clinic. Beeman will bring along two or three of his Spartan netters to assist in the instruction.

"Basic Tennis Strokes," a colored film made by Beeman and involving MSU players, will open the one-day session. There is no fee for the clinic.

Tournament competition will be divided into two groups—juniors, for boys between the ages of 18 and 15, and boys, for youths 15 years old and under. Those boys who reached their 18th and 15th birthdays before Jan. 1, 1956, are ineligible in their respective divisions.

Trophies will be award to the winner and runner-up in each division and all four will enter the state Jaycee tourney at Kalamazoo in July. The Biallas brothers, Leonard and Mike, were last year's city champions, with Jack O'Dea and Charles Merithew taking runner-up honors.

An entry fee of 50 cents will be charged for the tournament and tennis balls will be furnished for the championship finals only. All players must bring shoes and racquets. No applications will be accepted after Friday noon, June 15.

Entry blanks may be obtained at the Junior Chamber of Commerce office, the Department of Parks and Recreation, or Oakland Park on the day of the clinic. Dick Mineweaser of the Pontiac Jaycees is the tourney chairman.

Gonzalez Is Victor in Telecast Battle

NEW YORK (INS)—Tony (Tex) Gonzalez of East Orange, N. J., floored Hardy Smallwood for an eight-count in the first round last night and went on to score a unanimous ten-round decision over the Brooklyn middleweight at the St. Nicholas Arena.

Lands Big Garfish

Maceday Lake, along with some others in Oakland County has quite a population of garfish, One of these finny predators with the long sharp studded bills, was taken by a Clarkston angler while fishing for Pike. It was one of the largest reported this season, weighing 13 pounds.

H. A. Daniel, 7283 Andersonville road, Clarkston, took the big gar on a hook baited with a chub minnow. The gar was 54 inches long.

Foreign Threats

Aussie, Briton, Argentine Aim at Open

By The Associated Press

It's been 36 years since a foreigner was able to win the U.S. Open golf championship but two incidents a continent apart yesterday magnified a threat for the approaching tournament.

* * *

In Dallas, the young Australian, Peter Thomson, outclassed America's brightest stars to win first money in the $70,000 Texas International tournament.

* * *

In Rye, N.Y., Henry Cotton, the old English master, 49 and semi-retired, shot two sparkling rounds of 68 and 69 to lead sectional qualifying for the championship at Oak Hill Country Club in Rochester, N.Y., June 14-16.

* * *

A third outside menace, long-hitting Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina and Mexico, is favored to seize one of the 37 berths contested in the delayed trials today at Dallas. Leading tournament pros are in the scramble.

* * *

The Englishman has won the British Open three times, the last in 1948. He will sharpen his game further this week in the Wykagyl Round Robin.

* * *

Thomson, present holder of the British Open crown, is exempt from qualifying along with 15 others, including defending champion Jack Fleck, former champions Ed Furgol, Ben Hogan, Julius Boros and Cary Middlecoff; amateur champion Harvie Ward Jr., and leaders of last year's Open, including Sam Snead.

* * *

Twenty-four qualifying tests, all but Honolulu and Dallas, were staged yesterday, with 1,781 golfers shooting for 108 places in the 162-man field. Honolulu decided its single candidate earlier. Dallas' trials were postponed until today.

* * *

Roy Moore Jr., an 18-year-old Memphis amateur, was second low with 70-66—136 at Nashville while John Deal of Nashville shot 137. The youngest qualifier was Phil Rodgers of La Jolla, Calif., 17, who had 70-68—138 at Los Angeles.

UPS AND DOWNS — Playing in the National Open qualifying rounds at Pine and Orchard Lake CCs, yesterday, shy, 24-year-old Herb Marcussen (above) of Lansing CC had his ups and downs. He was thrilled and elated over a shining 66 at Orchard Lake. When at Pine Lake in the afternoon, his hot start for a spot in the list of 8, chilled off speedily. Herb wound up with 82, for 148, and out by a stroke. Marcussen has been a pro only three years.

Field Completed for College World Series

OMAHA (AP)—The field for the NCAA college world series opening here Saturday was completed last night with Mississippi making the grade from District 3 which produced the champion last year in Wake Forest.

"Old Miss" was the last team to qualify for the series.

MONDAY'S STARS

PITCHING — Sal Maglie, Dodgers, knocked the Braves out of first place with a three-hit 3-0 victory, striking out five and walking one in his first shutout since April 25, 1954.

HITTING—Ken Boyer, Cardinals knocked in five runs with a homer, two doubles and a single in five trips in 11-5 victory over Giants.

WILMINGTON, Del — Roman Fan ($8.80) squeezed through in the stretch to capture the Black Helen Purse at Delaware Park.

Veteran Editor Dies

A newspaperman for 47 years, Stedler worked for the Buffalo Times before going to the News, where he was sports editor from 1928 until 1953.

Yale Dominates Tank Team

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — The 12th annual All-American college swimming team was announced Monday by a committee of coaches, with Yale dominating the selections by placing 11 men in ten of the 14 events.

The team's only holdover from last year is Al Wiggins, Ohio State junior from Pittsburgh, who headed the individual medley swimmers.

Three swimmers finished on top in two events. They were Lincoln Hurring, Iowa backstroker; Dick Fadgen of Woonsocket, R. I., who set a new record of 2:19.9 in the NCAA 200-yard breaststroke, and Bill Woolsey, Indiana Hawaiian import freestylist.

Sprint honors went to Yale's Australian champion, Rex Aubrey, in the 50 and Northwestern's Al Kuhn in the 100.

City Golfer Hits 33 at Clarkston Course

Pontiac's Harley Lawson, 132 N. Telegraph, fired a sizzling 33 last weekend at the Clarkston Golf Club to post the 1st sub-par round in the history of the 9-hole course.

Lawson, playing in a foursome, carded the record score on his 2nd trip around the par 34 layout after shooting an opening 44 for an 18-hole total of 77.

Several golfers had shot 36s over the Clarkston course. But no one had equaled or bettered par until Lawson turned the trick.

Ted Denies He's 'Washed Up'

BOSTON (AP) — Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams says "they'll never stop my hitting" in emphasizing that he is not even considering retirement from the sport which pays him $100,000 a year.

Williams, although irritated and disappointed by his performances this season, yesterday ridiculed his statement "I'm all washed up." He said he has no thought of retiring.

* * *

"The only way I would (retire) is if I couldn't hit," the 37-year-old slugger said. "But that will never be because they'll never get me out. The only thing that will stop me will be my legs. They'll never stop my hitting."

* * *

Ted, hobbled by an instep injury suffered in a slip off a wooden shower clog, told a Boston sports writer following Sunday's 7-6 loss to the Kansas City Athletics:

"I'm all washed up. I'm through. I can't hit. They are throwing the fast ball right by me. I can't hit anymore."

* * *

Williams displayed temperament on two occasions on the field. In the third inning he threw his bat into the dugout after striking out with two runners on base and in the fourth he lobbed the ball high in the air back to the infield after making a catch.

* * *

But yesterday, the big slugger said he was just clowning and his remarks about being "all washed up" were sarcastic.

* * *

"Me washed up? It will never be," he said. "But I'll not deny it because the idea is ridiculous."

His earlier remarks were taken lightly by observers close to the Red Sox who are accustomed to heated pop-offs by the colorful outfielder.

* * *

Besides being disappointed by his performance on the field, he also is annoyed by reports he may be forced to retire because of the instep injury.

* * *

Ted has started eight games and appeared in 17 others as pinch-hitter, connecting for 13 hits in 40 times at bat for a .325 average.

He is listed to start in left field tonight when the Sox meet the Detroit Tigers in the opener of a three-game series.

Archie's Title at Stake

LONDON (AP)—Archie Moore puts up his world light-heavyweight title for the last time tonight in a fight which either opens the gates for Moore to get another heavyweight title chance or closes the books on a long and fine ring career.

The aging and running-to-fat champion takes on Yolande Pompet, a hard-jawed Trinidad Negro with a weak record but plenty of hitting power.

Moore admits to at least 39 years of age although some records have him two and three years older. He took a heavy beating last September in losing to Marciano in his first heavyweight title shot.

Highly respected Nat Fleischer, boxing's historian and record keeper, as well as other ring officials and authorities, have said that if Moore loses, he hardly will have time to re-gain the lost ground before very advanced fighting age puts him down for the final time. He has no re-match clause in his contract with Pompet.

But, they also say, that if he whips Pompey, the momentum and good conditioning gained here, should carry him into a world-heavyweight fight in fine fettle.

Moore has been fighting since 1936. On the record he has been into the ring 148 times and fought everyone his size or bigger who would meet him. He is the only 20-year veteran in recent years among the big leaguers and his record of 15 losses and only 5 defeats by knockouts stands as one of the all-time best.

Detroit Pair Posts Best Time in 5th Paddle Push

Approximately 1000 spectators braved cold wind and rain Sunday to watch the 5th annual Paddle Push, the lengthy canoe race which runs from the Milford bridge across Kent Lake in Kensington Metropolitan Park.

Tom Krouse and Dick Griese, a pair of boat enthusiasts from Detroit, won the race for men over 21 years of age and their clocking of 1 hour, 12 minutes and 1 second was the day's best time.

Three teams successfully defended their titles. Inez and Lois Ashley from Owosso won the gruelling test for women over 21 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Millard Newman of Clio took the mixed race for couples over 21, and Jerry Cusenza and Gerry Goble of Detroit repeated as champions in the race for mixed couples under 21.

* * *

The Paddle Push is co-sponsored by American Youth Hostels, the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, and the Milford Board of Commerce.

* * *

Complete results:

Women over 21—Inez and Lois Ashley of Owosso, 1:32.38.
Men 16 to 21—William Unruh and Jerry Burklund of Milford, 1:16.14.
Women 16 to 21—Audrey Ross, Allen Park, and Joyce Wilson, East Lansing, 1:34.35.
Women under 16—Tucker Guice and Maxine Storich of Detroit, 2:06.12.

BACK IN BUSINESS—Sal Maglie, former Giant mound star, was back in business today as the "Barber of Brooklyn" following his 3-0 three-hit victory over Milwaukee last night. His triumph knocked the Braves out of first place in the National League.

Chiefs Blanked in 12 Innings

Waterford's Skipper baseball club yesterday afternoon compiled its season's 7th shutout, a 3-hit masterpiece of good pitching and defensive play. Suburban nine blanked Pontiac High 1-0 in a 12-inning pitchers battle at Waterford.

For Chuck Gillis it was the 4th shutout of the year. Gillis gave up two triples and a single. Jim Jones for the Chiefs was not quite as effective, with 7 hits. Both fanned 15, Gillis walked one, Jones 6.

Bud Hayward and Art Poe tripled for PHS, Bill Hayward got the single. Poe was on 3rd in the 5th after his three-ply hit, but was left.

Chiefs go to Bay City today for a "makeup" Valley game with the Wolves, that can determine the final standing of the SVC, a win would tie Bay City and Northern for the title. Defeat for PHS would give Bay City the title outright. Chiefs are out of the title chase.

Herr Sparks Lakeland

Don Herr pitched and batted Lakeland Pharmacy to a 3-0 victory over White Brothers in a Waterford League softball game Monday night at Drayton Plains.

Herr spun a three-hit shutout and slammed a triple off the fence in the 6th inning to score two runs. Dave Ruelle's sacrifice bunt tallied Lakeland's other run in the 1st frame.

Confident Fans Expect Pirates in 1956 Series

PITTSBURGH (AP) — At least two baseball fans (and from Milwaukee at that) apparently believe the Pittsburgh Pirates will wind up in the World Series.

John N. Penn, manager of a downtown hotel reported today that Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stargo have obtained reservations for early in October in the belief the Pirates will play in the series.

Penn said his reservation clerk was so startled at the phone call from the Stargos that he forgot to ask their address for confirmation. But he added:

Tigers Suffer First Setback in Midget Loop

Two runs in the final inning enabled the Athletics to hand the Tigers their 1st defeat of the season last night in the Pontiac Federal Savings Bank's Midget baseball league.

* * *

A triple by Phil Williams, a wild throw, Bob Goff's single, a base on balls, and Jimmy Spencer's single gave the Athletics a 4-3 decision at the Boys Club. Doug Johnson homered for the Tigers.

The Red Sox scored six runs in the 3rd inning to hand the Indians their 4th setback. Billy White slammed a single and double to drive in four runs for the winners.

COMPARISON CHART
91% say Blue Sunoco matches or excels premium-priced brands for power and pick-up
86% say Blue Sunoco matches or excels premium-priced brands for miles per gallon
We recently invited a large group of automotive engineers to try New 1956 Blue Sunoco in their own cars and give us their reaction. Of the 1,166 auto engineers who answered, a total of 43% told us they were already users of New Blue Sunoco. This was a far greater number than reported using all other premium gasolines combined.
Blue Sunoco is recommended for the newest high-compression cars when owners' manuals specify a premium gasoline. It's the only gasoline that meets the new higher premium octane standards and sells at regular gas price. Make your own 10-gallon test today.

Unique Michigan Event

Live Steam Rodeo Set

MARSHALL (AP) — The chuffa of the steam engine will sound again next weekend at Michigan's unique live steam rodeo.

The four-day event Thursday through Sunday is sponsored by enthusiasts who favor the picturesque commotion of a puffing steam turbine and electric power.

This year's show at the Calhoun County fairground includes water economy and speed races; a 45-degree ramp climb; a balancing contest between two engines on giant four-ton teeter-totters and a water pumping demonstration by a 75-year-old steam fire engine.

Visitors will be able to ride on two model locomotives running along a 150-foot and a 500-foot track and will hear concerts by a steam calliope.

Club members themselves have been surprised at growing popularity of the affair. The first steam rodeo in 1952, planned as a field day for club members, drew 2,000 spectators. Last year's show, held at Galesburg, attracted 30,000 visitors.

The club now has 110 members ranging from an 11-year-old boy to a steam engine fan in his 80's. Its nostalgic goal is "the preservation and glorification of steam power."

Skin Research Slated

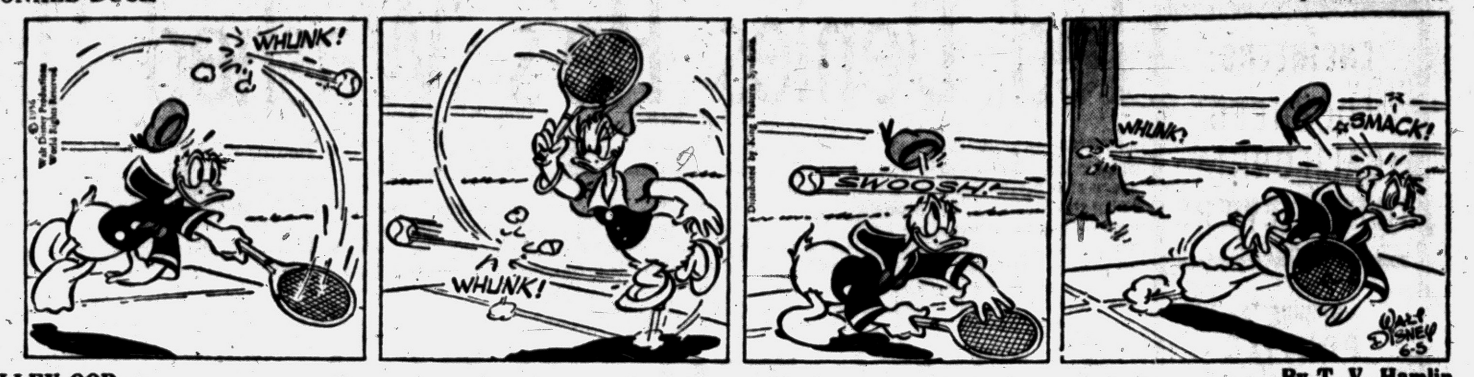

DURHAM, N. C.—Researchers at Duke University's Department of Plastic Surgey will attempt this year to reproduce a patient's entire skin—both the outer layer, the epidermis, and the true skin, the derma—in the laboratory. The experiments in growing patches of skin grafts, if successful, could result in saving thousands of lives now lost each year because of burns.

Averts Plane Stalls

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.—A White Plains company has developed a device that it says can avert airplane stalls. The instrument measures the amount of wing lift available, warning the pilot well in advance if his wing lift is disappearing, the manufacturer says.

The number of people in the United Kingdom is increasing at the rate of 34 one hundredths of a per cent a year compared with 1.7 per cent a year in the United States.

Stocks Steady, Tending to Rise

* * *

* * *

Trading was quiet for the third straight session with the total right around yesterday's 1,500,000 shares.

* * *

Steels and motors were in moderate demand at fractionally higher prices, and also higher were the nonferrous metals, chemicals and oils. Railroads were steady at best, as were the aircrafts, rubbers and utilities.

* * *

Stocks going up included Chesapeake & Ohio, Standard Oil of California, Pan American Airways, Johns-Manville, Kennecott Copper, International Nickel, American Cyanamid, U. S. Steel, General Motors, Ford and Boeing.

* * *

Southern Production, yesterday's most active issue up 1½ at 40⅛, was slightly higher today but not very active as merger rumors continued to circulate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 30 cents at $179.80. Yesterday it gained 90 cents on the day.

Ads Cannot Violate State FEPC Law

LANSING (AP) — Newspapers should be extremely cautious in accepting advertisements to avoid violations of the state's new Fair Employment Practices (FEPC) law, Atty. Thomas M. Kavanagh advised today.

Among other things, the law prohibits newspapers from accepting advertisements recruiting employes of a certain race or creed, he said.

Kavanagh interpreted this provision of the act in answer to a series of questions posed by Rep. Clyde E. Cooper (R-White Cloud), a publisher himself.

The attorney general noted that under the law newspapers can accept advertisements for employes of a certain race or creed if the employes are needed as domestic help.

Business Notes

The Oakland County Electronics Assn. will meet Wednesday evening, at Scrib's Restaurant. The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. will present a program on resistors.

G. Donald Kennedy, president of the Port Cement Assn. and a former Pontiac resident, recently announced that the organization will build two new laboratory buildings in Skokie, Ill.

The president, a onetime official of the Michigan State Highway Dept., stated that the structures will be used in an expanding research program on concrete buildings and the material's resistance to fire.

DETROIT (INS) — The Goebel Brewing Co. announced today that Robert A. Schiffer has been elected vice president of the firm and been made acting sales manager. He formerly was assistant to President Edwin J. Anderson.

Grand Trunk Revenue Up; Expenses Higher

Even though the favorable trend in operating revenues recorded in the first quarter this year continues, the Grand Trunk Western may end 1956 with a net deficit of about $2,000,000 according to present estimates, Francis A. Gaffney, vice president and general manager of the railroad, told the board of directors at their annual meeting Monday. This compares with a net surplus in 1955 of $811,195.

Increase in wages of $2,300,000 over the previous year is the principal reason for the estimated deficit, Gaffney said.

Operating revenues in the first three months of 1956 amounted to $16,193,000, compared with $15,001,000 in the corresponding period of last year, an increase of $1,192,000 or 7.95 per cent. Operating expenses in the first quarter of this year totaled $13,419,533, against $11,421,118, an increase of $1,998,415, or 17.50 per cent.

GM Names Megee to Comptroller Post

DETROIT (AP) — Appointment of Howard W. Megee as general assistant comptroller of General Motors Corp. was announced today.

Megee, who will be located in Detroit, joined the GM financial staff in New York in 1926 and has been assistant treasurer in its New York office since 1949.

Frankline H. LaRowe and John P. Sullivan were named assistant treasurers, LaRowe to succeed Megee and Sullivan to supervise the central office payroll department and continue as director of GM's tax section.

Local Marine Injured as Car Leaves Highway

Harmon reportedly suffered a possible concussion and back injury in a crash at East Shore and Commerce Roads in Orchard Lake Township.

The Marine went off the right side of the road, struck a fence, then crossed the highway and ran over a culvert, according to the Orchard Lake police department.

Telegraphers Meet Again on Pay Pact

Wage contract talks between the Western Union Co. and the Commercial Telegraphers Union resumed today after bargainers for both parties reported no noticeable progress in a similar session yesterday.

Indications are that the discussions may continue for several days more.

Temporary walkouts in Chicago, Philadelphia and Cleveland idled several thousand employes yesterday, but local officials indicate that normal operation has since resumed at the three offices.

The telegraph company's Pontiac office, with a staff of 23, has not been affected by any walkouts.

City Woman Bruised in 2-Car Collision

Mrs. Dorothy Harris, 43, of 79 Wall St., suffered a bruised ankle when the car in which she was a passenger collided with another vehicle at Whittemore and Paddock streets Monday afternoon. She was treated and released at Pontiac General Hospital.

The cars involved were driven by William J. Harris, 52, and Lois Bennett, 48, of Keego Harbor, who were not hurt.

Harris told Pontiac police he did not see the Bennett car in time to avoid the accident. Mrs. Bennett reported she had started through the intersection thinking she had a clear road but was struck from the side.

Five Missing Juveniles Sought by City Police

Five teenagers from the Oakland County Juvenile Home have been missing since Monday at 11:45 p.m., Pontiac Police reported today. Four had been living at the home and the other was a ward of the Juvenile Court.

A spokesman for the home said the missing residents have not been heard from since they were discovered off the premises late last night.

Missing are: George Boomer, 15, of Royal Oak; Barbara Cicos, 18, of Royal Oak; Duane Ferrand, 15, of Clawson; Ronald Wilhite, 15, of 1406 W. Marshall St., and Victor Wood, 14, of Detroit.

Flint Resident Killed

SMITHVILLE, Ont. (AP)—Two men were killed and three persons injured last night in the head-on collision of a taxi and car about 20 miles southeast of Hamilton.

The dead were: W. L. Auld, 40, of Flint, Mich., a passenger in the car, and Wilson Manthorne, 27, of Seal Harbor, N. S., riding in the taxi.

Mrs. Lucille Auld, suffered knee injuries and shock. Robert Durocher, 34, John Carivel, 27, both of Hamilton, also were injured.

Argentines See Strange Missile Whiz Overhead

BUENOS AIRES (INS)—National police headquarters said today an aluminum, cigar-shaped object was spotted flying at great speed over North Argentina on April 13.

* * *

More than 50 persons in the province of Salta were said to have seen the object, the police said, leading to speculation that it was an experimental inter-continental ballistics missile.

* * *

The police statement said there was no doubt that the missile was seen, that it was flying north to south, that it took less than three minutes to disappear from sight and that it left behind a mile long trail of white vapor.

* * *

The police and soldiers who reported seeing the object were forbidden to speak of it until the official investigation was completed.

Goodyear Announces Revolutionary Tire

* * *

E. J. Thomas, company president, said the new tire may eliminate the need for a fifth tire in the automobile trunk

* * *

The tire, called "captive-air," has a tire within a tire. If the outer air chamber blows, you can drive on the inner tire without changing.

* * *

Company officials said that after deliberately blowing out one tire, a car was driven 261 miles without damaging the inner tire. In another blowout test, the car was driven at 70 miles an hour and the ride was so steady that the driver could take his hands off the wheel, the firm said.

City Commissioner to Attend Conference

City Commissioner John A. Dugan will represent Pontiac at a United Auto Workers conference on the unemployment in the auto industry to be held Friday in Detroit.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams has also accepted an invitation from the union.

Cities which have said they will be represented are Kenosha and Milwaukee, Wis., South Bend and Anderson, Ind., Toledo, Ohio, Flint, Lansing, Grand Rapids, Saginaw, Lincoln Park, Mt. Clemens, Ecorse, Livonia, River Rouge, Adran, Bay City and Taylor Township.

Dugan has been an employe of Pontiac Motor Division for 26 years and is a member of the executive board of Local 653 UAW-CIO.

Sentence Three Men for Area Breakins

A gang of breakin artists who reportedly burglarized at least 50 homes and netted between $4,000 and $5,000, were sentenced yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Voll Philip Hughes, 17, of Clawson, who confessed 50 breakins, pleaded guilty to two counts and was given two concurrent sentences of 1-15 years in Jackson state prison by Judge Frank L. Doty.

* * *

Frederick D. Rendell, 18, of Clawson, who admitted being involved in 35 breakins, was placed on probation for three years by Judge Clark J. Adams. Rendell also was told to make restitution of $500, pay court costs of $100, and spend the first 60 days of his probation in Oakland County Jail.

Lawrence A. LePage, 20, of Clawson, confessed 20 breakins with the other two. He was sentenced to three years' probation and payment of $100 court costs by Judge Doty.

Probation officials say LePage, who will spend the first 60 days of his probation in Oakland County Jail, already has made restitution of nearly $2,500 of the stolen money.

Two Waterford Men Admit Taking Boats

George E. Brown, 31, of 2134 Rosemary St., and John D. Povey, 38, of 2146 Rosemary St., admitted to taking two 13-foot rowboats from Long Lake in Bloomfield Township. The boats were owned by Franklin Road residents.

The pair were arrested Monday by Bloomfield Township police who were aided in the investigation by detectives from the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

State Supreme Court Disagrees on Own Rules

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Supreme Court, often at odds lately, split four to three Monday on an interpretation of its own rules.

The question was on the legal method used by four Kent County residents in seeking a Supreme Court review of statutory proceedings on damages which had been conducted by the county drain commissioner.

James Ambrose Admits Breakin of Gas Station

Charged with stealing $68 from a Royal Oak gas station May 25, James Ambrose of 8829 DeSoto Ave., Detroit, pleaded guilty yesterday at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge Frank L. Doty, who will sentence Ambrose June 11, returned him to Oakland County Jail under bond of $2,000.

Sentence Pontiac Woman to House of Correction

Mary Payne, 36, of 606 Bloomfield Ave., was sentenced to a term of 1-4 years in Detroit House of Correction yesterday by Judge Frank L. Doty for the felonious assault with a rifle of another Pontiac woman March 10.

Mrs. Payne was found guilty by an Oakland County Circuit Court jury May 9.

Area Farm Bureau Gives Turnpike OK

The Clarkston Farm Bureau has gone on record favoring construction of the proposed 113-mile Rockwood-to-Saginaw toll road through Oakland County, Michigan Turnpike Authority Chairman George N. Higgins said today.

Higgins said he has received a copy of the Bureau's resolution, which was proposed by Floyd Andrews, former chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

The action came two weeks after Pontiac's City Commission approved the proposed turnpike route through the city.

"It is gratifying to know that the Turnpike Authority has this well considered support in its efforts to help solve Michigan's serious traffic problem in the fastest possible way," Higgins said.

Building Material Theft Under Investigation

City Resident Sentenced for Reckless Driving

Reckless driving resulted in a 30-day sentence to the Oakland County Jail for Raiford L. Malone, 21, of 29 Liberty St., in Justice Court yesterday.

He was committed to the jail after failing to pay fine and costs totaling $75. Malone was arraigned by Sylvan Lake Justice Joseph J. Leavy after being arrested Monday by Sylvan Lake police.

Illinois Democrats Cheer, Not OK, Adlai

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson's name was cheered by Democrats at their state convention yesterday but they did not formally endorse the former Illinois governor as the party's candidate for president.

* * *

The demonstration for Stevenson was touched off when Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago said, "With the united support of people in this room we shall elect president of the United States a native son of Illinois— Adlai E. Stevenson."

* * *

Daley, principal speaker at the one-day convention, told the some 700 delegates that "democracy in Illinois in 1956 will not be divided. I hope your help and assistance will carry Illinois for a native son in the person of Adlai E. Stevenson."

Chief business of the meeting was selection of 28 national convention delegates, each with half a vote.

Admits Bigamy in Circuit Court Trial Yesterday

A Mount Clemens man who married a second wife when he was drunk and then couldn't resist teasing his first wife about it pleaded guilty to bigamy yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

* * *

Edward Guerriere, 29, told Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor William Lang he married Bessie Carlton last October 3 in Angola, Ind.

"We both knew we weren't free to marry, but we were drunk and we just did it on the spur of the moment," Lang quoted Guerriere. He said Mrs. Carlton was applying for a divorce from her first husband at the time.

Guerriere and Mrs. Carlton set up housekeeping in Royal Oak, Lang said.

Visiting his first wife, whom he married in 1947, and their six children in Van Dyke, Macomb County, Lang said Guerriere told her he was married to another woman, so he didn't have to support her any more.

Guerriere now is in Macomb County Jail under bond of $2,000, awaiting sentence June 11 by Judge Frank L. Doty.

Wilson Predicts Diana Will Stay on the Wagon

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Diana Barrymore—very "on the dry" now, and sweating it out in a play—explained to me how she's winning her Battle of the Bottle.

"I didn't want to become one of those people I saw reeling into —— Sanitarium while I was there, Diana said.

★ ★ ★

"You taper off there with a cocktail every hour, then one every two hours, then every three hours, then every four hours. It was strange seeing them all line up at 'cocktail time.'

"Wines are the worst kind of drinks," she said. "I just had to quit on willpower."

Diana, at around 35, is making the good fight and deserves our cheers. Her industriousness has impressed the most skeptical.

She's ready to take a fling at TV. Seven or eight years ago she got her own show, but she blew it before it started.

Well, I am going out on a limb and saying Diana will stay "dry" and reestablish herself very big. I think she has the will to do it.

"I can look in the mirror now," she says. "My face is getting its heart shape back again. I said to myself the other day, 'You know, you're not so bad looking! All due to not drinking, my dear.'"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Johnnie Ray's packing the prom kids into the Latin Quarter . . . Charlie O'Curran's flying to Scandinavia to join Bill Holden and Ray Ryan, who are Russia-bound, then returns to marry Patti Page . . .

Art Lund (of "Most Happy Fella") settled a lawsuit with Benny Goodman, who was set to attach his salary . . . Red Buttons and the missus moved into a swank new duplex . . . Errol Garner's auto smashup has cost him 25G's in cancelled bookings . . . Jersey Joe Walcott and his long-time mgr., Felix Boccicchio, busted

Belita, Joel Riordan in Divorce Squabble

LOS ANGELES (AP)—British-born ice skater Belita Jepson-Turner has filed a cross complaint for divorce against her husband Joel Riordan, Hollywood actr.

• • •

Miss Jepson-Turner, 31, known professionally as Belita, filed her action in Superior Court yesterday. Riordan, 32, brought the original divorce suit last December, charging the actress-skater deserted him Sept. 4, 1954.

• • •

Belita asked the court to cancel the managerial agreement, which gave Riordan 40 per cent of her earnings.

Networks Plan Full Coverage

Attention Concentrated on August Conventions in Chicago, Frisco

NEW YORK (AP)—If you're somebody who can take politics or leave it alone, this is a good time to take to the hills.

• • •

Whether you like it or not, the summer's staple diet of television and radio is going to be national politics. And during the last two weeks of August, when the Democratic and Republican conventions are in progress, apparently the only escape will be a blown fuse.

Summer hasn't officially arrived yet, but all TV signs already lead to Chicago and San Francisco.

$5 MILLION DEAL

CBS already has peddled its convention coverage for a reported five million dollars to Westinghouse, which apparently was happy with its similar 1952 package. ABC has sold its operation—for some four million dollars—to Philco. NBC, which hasn't officially announced convention sponsorship yet, is planning to split the conventions among three, probably Oldsmobile, Sunbeam and RCA, and at a price of around five million.

• • •

None of the networks, however, expects to make much money. All are engaged in a race to attract an audience, throwing in their top trained seals as reporter-analysts and pulling out all the electronic stops on the use of equipment.

'PUBLIC SERVICE'

All this excitement is done in the name of "public service." Actually, the convention coverage is a dandy exploitation device for television itself and gives the industry a chance to show its muscles in public. Political conventions, like prize fights and baseball, are perfect for television. All are conducted in confined spaces, making it possible to concentrate on a captive cast of players.

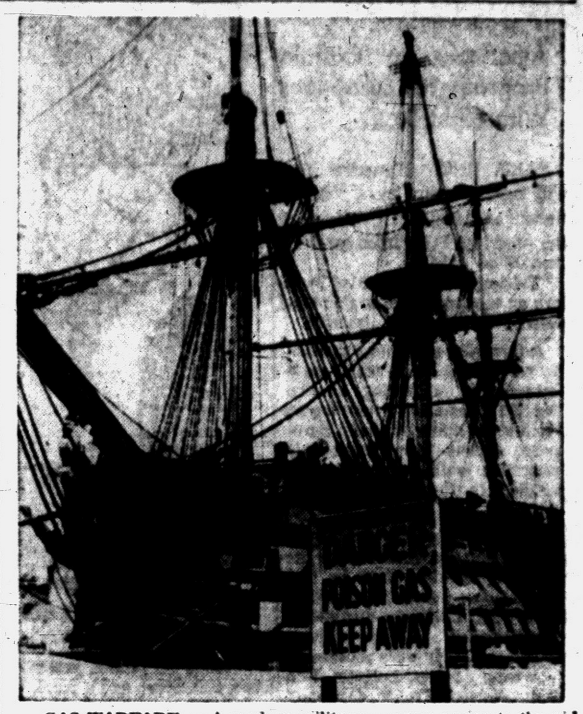

• • •

Each network will throw staffs of about 300 into the convention battle. CBS estimates it will use 22 tons of equipment. NBC and ABC apparently forgot to weigh their equipment, but promise just about everything on wheels so equipment as well as people can rove among delegates.

• • •

It all sounds wonderful and exhausting. May the best man win.

GAS WARFARE — A modern military weapon comes to the aid of an ancient war vessel in Portsmouth, England. Lord Nelson's historic flagship, H. M. S. Victory, is pumped full of poison gas and her hull sealed off to kill death-watch beetles eating at her timbers. Fumigation by methyl bromide gas is carried out periodically.

Legislator in Alberta Kills Seven, Himself

ERSKINE, Alta. (AP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police have decided an Alberta legislator shot his wife, their four children and two men in his farm home and then turned the murder weapon on himself.

• • •

Police found the body of John E. Clark lying face down in a mudhole only 600 yards from the farmhouse where the other bodies were discovered Sunday. A bullet wound gaped in his head and a .22 rifle lay at his feet. The body was clad only in nightclothes.

Asst. Commissioner G. M. Curleigh said the mounted police were satisfied the case was one of multiple murder and suicide.

• • •

Clark, 41, had represented the Stettler district in the Alberta Legislature since 1952. He had suffered several nervous breakdowns.

Talking Books Boon to Blind

Americans to Explain Program to Europeans With Sight Loss

PARIS (INS) — European blind will receive many more "talking books" as a result of a decision by the American Foundation for Overseas Blind (AFOB).

"Talking books," recorded literature on tapes or discs, enable blind persons to "read" by listening.

A three day conference decided to establish a Paris studio as a centralized duplicating service for the production and distribution of the material. Some European nations have small-scale programs while others produce nothing in the field for their blind citizens.

The AFOB program provides for the participating countries to prepare original recordings in their own countries and to forward them to the Paris studio for duplication.

Participating in the program planning in Paris were representatives from Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Holland, Israel, Italy, Norway, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and Turkey. Observers from Great Britain and Yugoslavia attended.

Three Dearborn Men Deny Store Breakin

Judge Frank L. Doty returned Richard Young, Benjamin Mersman and Michael Lancina to Oakland County Jail under bonds of $1,000 to await trail.

Charged with the attempted breakin May 24 of a Hazel Park market, Walter Peters, Jr., of no fixed address, pleaded innocent yesterday at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge Frank L. Doty returned Peters to Oakland County Jail to await trial under bond of $2,000.

County Area Resident Mute on Dope Charge

Charged with selling marihuana in Royal Oak Township April 7, Alice Marie Hicks, 10743 Holcott Ln., Royal Oak Township, stood mute yesterday at her arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Drayton Plains Resident Mute Upon Arraignment

Charged with stealing two tires and wheels from a car in Birmingham May 22, Raymond Smith of 3415 Shaw St., Drayton Plains, stood mute yesterday at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Draws 1-5 Year Term

Louis R. A. Hayes, 22, of Mount Clemens, who pleaded guilty May 21 to carrying a concealed revolver in a car in Pontiac May 11, was sentenced yesterday to one to five years in Jackson State Prison by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR JUNIOR EDITORS

HOME ON THE RANGE—?

A RIDER FOR FRISK

Bob, a visitor to the "J-Bar-E" ranch, is sure he can ride Frisk, the bronco we printed yesterday. Bob is dressed for riding, and even has a gun, spurs and a lasso. Watching him is Chico, a yearling steer.

Use your crayons to color this pictrue, and then paste it down on cardboard. Cut out the parts carefully.

Put Bob's hat on his head ,and sit him astride Frisk. Cut the slot in the lasso, slip it over his right hand, and let the rope hang down behind the bronco. If you put Bob's toes into the stirrup slips he may be able to stay on while you flick the tab and make Frisk buck up and down.

Fold the triangle marked "B" at the feet of Chico forward, and fold the tab "A" back, so that the steer will stand up. Fold the tab at the side of the water pail back at the dotted line, and stand it near Chico so he can have a drink.

(For this idea Virginia Demos, Birmingham, Ala., wins $10. Send in your idea for Junior Editors care of this newspaper and it may bring you a $10 award. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures).

U. N. Names Dag to Head Arab-Israel Negotiations

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Backed by a unanimous Security Council vote, U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold today began the second phase of his campaign to ease Middle East tension.

He was ready to assist Israel and her Arab neighbors in keeping up the momentum toward peace which he reported last month at the end of his special mission to the Middle East.

GO-AHEAD SIGNAL

The 11-nation council gave him the go-ahead for a further effort after a week of debate on a British proposal which originally left the way open for broad peace negotiations. However, the resolution was drastically watered down to meet Arab and Soviet objections.

In the end, it limited the secretary general to continuing his "good offices" with Israel and the Arabs in an effort to obtain full compliance with the armistice agreements of 1949. How he would do this was left up to him.

Informed quarters said he had no plans for a second personal mission to the Middle East at this time. He had made it known that he felt the initiative was now in the hands of the Middle East countries themselves and that he would merely make himself available for any assistance they might want.

* * *

The main Arab criticism of the original British proposal, which had been worked out with the United States and France, was that it appeared to be aimed at a permanent peace settlement rather than at prevention of military clashes. They insisted it must be made clear that the intention was only to relax Arab-Israeli tension.

* * *

The British reluctantly agreed to take out a reference to "the need to create conditions in which a peaceful settlement on a mutually acceptable basis" can be made.

Beatification Set

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The beatification of Pope Innocent XI probably will be held on Oct. 7, Vatican sources now say. Previously it had been expected late this month. Prelates attached to the Vatican's Congregation of Rites indicated the earlier date would not have permitted enough time to prepare for a solemn and elaborate ceremony.

Jokers Take Navy Tug —and Crew—on Joyride

* * *

Held were John DeShazo, a sailor attached to the nearby Terminal Island Naval Station, and William F. Burns, a civilian from Long Beach.

* * *

Witnesses said the craft was piloted away from its moorings at Terminal Island in the early morning hours yesterday. The tug was off Huntington Beach, 10 miles south of here, when crew members awakened, went on deck and "recaptured" their vessel.

Newsboy Now Bishop

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A onetime Los Angeles newsboy has been consecrated a Roman Catholic bishop. The Most Rev. Aldon J. Bell was consecrated yesterday in St. Vibiana's Cathedral, where he was ordained in 1932. James Francis Cardinal McIntyre officiated.
