Confesses Kidnap Murder

Stevenson Hat Will Be Thrown Into Ring Today

Formal Announcement for Dem Nomination to Come From Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson was expected to formally announce today that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President in 1956.

Those close to the 1952 Democratic presidential standard bearer said the statement—which Stevenson is to read to newsmen at the Conrad Hilton Hotel this afternoon — will announce that he is a candidate.

The statement will reeval his political plans and outline briefly his philosophy of government, but he will answer no questions. He will hold a news conference tomorrow at 11 a.m.

At that time, he is expected to announce the selection of James A. Finnegan of Philadelphia, present Pennsylvania secretary of the commonwealth, as his campaign manager.

This is regarded as a peace move toward those party leaders who favored Finnegan as Democratic national chairman over Paul M. Butler of Indiana, elected a year ago. Butler was Stevenson's choice succeeding Stephen Mitchell.

In 1952, Stevenson shied away from the nomination up to convention time and, in fact, paraphrased the scriptural prayer to "let this cup pass from my lips" even when the nominating sessions were under way.

But he accepted the nomination and campaigned aaginst Dwight B. Eisenhower, the Republican winner. Stevenson carried nine states. He drew, in round numbers, 27 million votes to 33 million for Eisenhower.

No Deaths Reported

Commerce Man Injured; 3 Shot as Season Opens

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

As of noon today, State Police reported they had no word of any fatalities caused by the opening of Michigan's 1955 deer season.

Four hunters were wounded by stray bullets, however, three this morning and one last Sunday.

Kenneth S. Jacques of Detroit was one of those who got into the woods early prior to the start of the season. He was hit by a stray bullet in the left leg below the knee as he was walking through woods near West Branch Sunday.

Three woundings were reported this morning.

Bernard Janeck, 40, of Commerce was hit in the left shoulder by a stray bullet from an unknown hunter's gun while hunting near Au Train in Alger County. He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital in Marquette.

Linden Nickert, 43, of Carson City, was shot in the right arm while hunting in Roscommon Township, near Houghton Lake. Adam Sally, 27, of Plymouth, told police he shot at a squirrel, accidentally wounding Nickert.

Robert Morrison, 37, of Detroit was shot in the left side while sitting in a blind near Haines Township, Alcona County. The bullet was deflected by a rib and his wound was a minor one.

Meanwhile, the State Highway Department reported that the first hunter to return from the Upper Peninsula with his buck was Ralman J. Katona of Garden City. Katona, making the trip on the 10 a.m. ferry, reported he shot his eight point, 150-pound buck around 8 a.m. near Rudyard.

The Highway Department reported that 21,108 persons crossed the Straits into the Upper Peninsula during the four days preceding the opening of the hunting season. This compared with 22,445 during the same period last year.

Opening day found most of Michigan cool and cloudy. A light rain dampened much of the Lower Peninsula.

Hunters hope for snow to improve their chances of tracking a deer.

Noted Teamster Unionist Dies

Irish Immigrant Rose From Poverty to Fame as Labor Leader

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Daniel J. Tobin, Irish immigrant boy who became head of the biggest American labor union, died last night of high blood pressure and heart disease.

The president of the AFL Teamsters Union from 1907 until 1952 was 83 but didn't know the exact date of his birth in County Clare, Ireland.

Tobin was a confidant of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and headed the labor division of the Democratic National Committee in each of FDR's election campaigns.

He fought communism, urged his followers to consider the strike only as a weapon of last resort, and advocated merger of the AFL and CIO.

He was a man of strong opinions in his 45 years as head of the teamsters, but his conception of craft unionism finally was swallowed up by the unlimited jurisdiction policy of Dave Beck of Seattle, who succeeded him.

Tobin came to the United States in 1890 and made $11 a week on one of his first jobs. The Teamsters Union paid him $30,000 a year and traveling expenses, and provided a winter home for him in Miami Beach.

When he became president emeritus, he and Beck each were given salaries of $50,000 a year.

Plane Saboteur Tells How He Destroyed 44

Says He Put Lethal Bomb in Luggage

DENVER (AP)—In dispassionate tones, John Gilbert (Jack) Graham related last night how he rigged 25 sticks of dynamite to explode aboard an airliner carrying his mother and 43 other persons.

All 44 were killed Nov. 1 when the big United Air Lines DC6B blew up near Longmont, Colo., and crashed 11 minutes after it had left Denver.

Graham, a 23-year-old convicted forger, did not reply when asked whether he felt remorse.

U.S. Atty. Donald E. Kelly said the Denver constructior and restaurant worker signed a "written admission" earlier that he killed his mother, Mrs. Daisie E. King, 54, to collect he.: $37,500 air flight insurance.

Ironically, the insurance was invalid because his mother had failed to sign it before she left Denver's Stapleton Airfield for Spenard, Alaska, and a visit with her daughter Mrs. Helen Ruth Hablutzel. The policies were taken out at the airport by Graham.

Graham was also in line to receive a fourth of his mother's estate, estimated at $150,000.

Details of Graham's plot were reported by David Stolberg of the Rocky Mountain News.

Construction of the bomb was begun Oct. 18 or 19, Graham said. Parts of it included the dynamite—40 per cent explosive and 60 per cent packing, a timing device, a 6-volt dry cell "hot-shot" battery, and two dynamite caps. Each of the caps was

Frisco Suspect Admits Killing in Kansas

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Arthur Ross Brown, arrested here for crimes reaching from the corn belt to the Pacific, was held under $100,000 bail today after the FBI said he confessed the kidnap-murder of wealthy Mrs. Wilma Allen of Kansas City Aug. 4.

Technically, Brown is held on a charge of transporting a stolen automobile across state lines.

He was arrested yesterday while sleeping in an automobile stolen in Omaha. He had two loaded weapons in the seat beside him.

The FBI had been hunting him since Aug. 31 for the shooting of Sheriff Willard H. Marshall at Sheridan, Wyo. The sheriff was questioning Brown about a burglary there.

The FBI said that Brown while being questioned about that shooting yesterday, suddenly burst out: "Where I'm really wanted is in Kansas City," and then described the kidnaping and slaying of Mrs. Allen, 34, wife of William R. Allen Jr., a wealthy Kansas City automobile dealer.

Mrs. Allen was kidnaped while shopping in south Kansas City. Her nude body with the hands tied behind the back was found three days later in a cow pasture south of Kansas City.

Percy Wyly II, FBI special agent in charge in Kansas City, said Brown told agents he had not raped Mrs. Allen; that robbery was his motive. The coroner's report said tests were inconclusive as to the possibility of rape.

An FBI agent reported Brown admitted (1) forcing his way into Mrs. Allen's convertible at the point of a revolver; (2) forcing her to drive out of town; (3) shooting her twice through the head; (4) stripping her of her jewelry and taking her purse and (5) tossing the body out in the field.

Brown, 30, a native of San Francisco, "has been a mental case since he was 14," said his mother, Mrs. Mary Brown.

The name of Arthur Ross Brown apparently never was listed among the hundreds submitted to the Kansas City Crime Commission, which had offered a $10,000 reward for information on the slayer of Mrs. Wilma Allen.

Hirsute Mexican 'Hairless' Gone; Child Despairs

A Mexican hairless dog which has hair, the constant pet of Lana Woznak, 5, is missing since Saturday afternoon.

"Lana will be a heartbroken little girl if she doesn't get 'Chico' back," said her mother, Mrs. Hazel Woznak, 611 Oakcrest Ln., White Lake Township.

The little girl and 15 other neighborhood youngsters vainly searched after the Chihuahua failed to return from a romp. Mrs. Woznak thinks he was stolen.

She said "Chico" is one year old and has tan and white hair. She attributed the hair to a rat terrier in "Chico's" ancestry.

There is a $10 reward she said.

Downtown Pelted by Large Hailstones

Hailstones pelted downtown streets during the lunch hour today sending scores of pedestrians scurrying for cover.

The moth-ball sized pellets, which clattered down for about five minutes, came on the heels of a driving rainstorm that struck shortly before noon.

For tomorrow, the weatherman foresees cloudy skies, windy and colder weather, with snow flurries likely. The high will be in the 36-40 degree range.

It will turn colder late tonight with a low between 32 and 36 degrees.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 36 degrees. The temperature in downtown Pontiac was 39 at 2 p. m.

Asks Early Speed Cut

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams today called for a special highway safety program starting Dec. 1 and asked Michigan motorists to begin voluntarily observing the state's new speed law which does not become effective until Feb. 3.

Capture Teenage Vandals

Two Keego Harbor juveniles faced charges of vandalism today after a weekend spree of destruction in three Cass Lake summer homes.

The pair, boys aged 13 and 14, were apprehended after a neighbor called police yesterday to report they were ripping shingles off the roof of one of the unoccupied residences.

Placed in custody by Keego Harbor Police Chief Calvin Baxter and Patrolman Richard Hurtubise, the youngsters were taken to Oakland County Children's Home to await preliminary hearings in Juvenile Court.

They admitted entering the home of Sam Borin, 1820 Cass Lake Front Friday, and re-entering it yesterday afternoon.

They also told police they had entered the home of Joseph Lenhard, 1828 Cass Lake Front, and the residence of Louis Lumberg, 1892 Cass Lake Front.

No damage estimates have been made of the damage in the homes, but furniture was slashed, radios smashed, paint poured over a television set, and dishes and glassware broken throughout the homes.

Walls were marked with lipstick and paint. During their work in one home, they paused to open canned goods and prepare a meal.

Taken to the scene of destruction, parents of the youngsters expressed amazement of the amount of vandalism.

Both boys told police they "didn't know" why they did it.

Chief Baxter said it is believed that the boys missed school, and part of the action had taken place during the daytime.

Dulles Attacks Molotov Politics

'Bad Faith' Accusation Brings Query About Red Growth in Socialism

GENEVA (INS) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov clashed bitterly today on the eve of the breakdown of the Big fFour Foreign Ministers' Conference.

Molotov accused the Western allies of "bad faith" in fostering proposals on improved East-West relations he said they knew he would reject.

Dulles resented this and then touched Molotov on a point politically sensitive to Molotov personally when he said:

"We had thought Socialism was so fully established in the Soviet Union that it would not topple if some contradictory ideas found their way into the Soviet Union.

"But apparently socialism is not as strongly established in the Soviet Union as we had thought and we must reconcile ourselves to the position now taken by the representative of the Soviet Union.

"That is, that it is dangerous to the Soviet government to have in the Soviet Union any ideas which do not conform precisely to those of the Soviet government. That the nervousness and fear of the Soviet government for its own future is something we have to take into account and evaluate when we consider the possibility of further contacts."

Molotov apologized last month in the Soviet Communist Party magazine "Communist" for having said that only the "foundations" of a Socialist society have been built in Russia. He corrected a speech of last February and said that he meant to say that Russia already has built a Socialist society.

Woman Killed in Truck Crash

Children Escape Injury in 2-Vehicle Smashup at Intersection

A 33-year-old Birmingham woman was killed today when her auto collided with a truck at 13-Mile Rd. and Northwestern Hwy. in Farmington Township.

Her two children, also in the car, were not injured seriously.

Dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital was Mrs. Marjorie Buell, of 15775 Birwood. Her daughters, Marty, 3, and Robin, 5, were treated for minor injuries.

The truck's driver, David Brandt, of 765 Walled Lake Dr., Walled Lake, told State Police Mrs. Buell's auto made a right turn onto Northwestern in front of him.

He said he swerved to the outside lane of the divided road but that she struck the truck, sending it out of control.

The truck tipped over but Brandt, who said he was a former Greyhound bus driver with two safety citations, was not injured.

Mrs. Buell was thrown to the pavement. The children remained in the car, a 1955 convertible.

Turf Club Ends Troy Track Try

Inglis Closes Books on Race Application by Syndicate

Racing Commissioner James H. Inglis today closed his books on the Michigan Thoroughbred Turf Club's application for a track in Troy Township.

Inglis officially accepted the group's withdrawal of its application yesterday.

At the same time, he said he would not have approved the track proposed for construction at 14-Mile Rd. and John R.

He said the club sought improperly to acquire the 200-acre site, didn't have sufficient stock subscriptions, the site was not zoned for a track and did not have adequate police, fire, water or sewage facilities.

The Township Board reversed an earlier stand last month and disapproved plans for the track after it was learned two Troy officials stood to share a $169,303 profit by obtaining options on the land.

One official, attorney Malcolm M. Heber, was discharged by the board. The other, who is elected, refused to resign and still holds office. He is Fred W. Hildebrandt, treasurer and a board member.

None of the Turf Club witnesses called by Inglis appeared at yesterday's session. The club submitted its withdrawal by letter last week.

Meanwhile, George F. Taylor, chief assistant Oakland County prosecutor, said today the prosecutor's office will await a transcript of the hearing testimony before investigating possible criminal charges.

Once the records are completely transcribed, he said, he will take up the matter with Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem and State Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh.

Taylor sat in on several sessions of the hearing conducted by Inglis.

Jackson was hospitalized but was reported improved.

Clarkston Hunter Bags Deer Contest Entry Early

First entry in the 1955 Pontiac Press deer contest was brought in by a 33-year-old Clarkston hunter only a few hours after the season opened early this morning.

Louis Henson, of 4845 Waldron Rd., registered his prize, an 8-point 140-pound buck, at 9 a.m. He had bagged the deer in Groveland Township near Ortonville at 7:40 this morning.

The hunter took two shots from a 20-gauge shotgun to stop the buck as it was walking through open woods when Henson spotted him.

Henson, married and father of one child, works as a Fisher Body press operator when he is not enjoying his jaunts to the woods. He has been taking these annual hunting trips for the past six years. He was alone on this one.

Henson reported that he bagged a 6-point prize last year on the second day of the season.

Another early kill was made by Mrs. Frances Stillwagon, daughter of Mrs. Edith Downing, of 100 Mt. Clemens Street, who brought down a 6-point buck at 7 a. m. a few miles north of Gladwin. It was Mrs. Stillwagon's first hunting trip. The buck has not been entered in the contest, as yet.

The rack on Henson's buck measured 8¾ inches between the tips of the antlers for the widest spread.

He shot it near Ortonville at 7:40 a. m. today. The contest is a three-way affair and runs through the regular season. Best head, best rack and heaviest deer have a U. S. Woman's Death Brings Inquest

Attorney Asks Move Following Death of Southfield Resident

A coroner's inquest was requested yesterday by Pontiac attorney William John Beer into the death last Friday of a 33-year-old Southfield Township woman who succumbed in a Royal Oak osteopathic surgeon's office.

The request is being considered today by Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

Mrs. D. W. Campbell, of 17325 W. Fourteen Mile Rd. died about an hour after she entered the doctor's office for treatment of an asthma condition, said Beer.

In the death certificate, Deputy Coroner Dr. E. W. Spohn said the condition directly leading to death was, "Anaphylactoid shock acute secondary to intravenous injection of Benadryl and adrenalin."

A six-person coroner's jury if approved by Ziem, would meet to determine the manner and means of death; if it appears unlawful and who, if known, was guilty or in any manner caused the death.

Hijacking Food Becomes Habit for Tricky Eagle

LANSING (AP) — The bald eagle, symbol of U. S. might, is an opportunistic creature with little claim to boldness, says Dr. Donald Douglass of the Michigan Conservation Department. Eagles have been known to attack lambs but weighing only from 7 to 11 pounds themselves, they would find kidnaping a tricky task.

Rather than forage for themselves, most eagles prefer to sponge off the osprey, an excellent fisherman. The osprey catches a fish. The eagle swoops. The osprey drops his fish, and the eagle—with a juggler's coordination—darts in to catch it.

When the eagle isn't hijacking a meal, he tries to find his own fish, ducks or rodents.

Are eagles vanishing?

Although protected by state and federal laws, their population has certainly decreased, but the drop hasn't been sharp.

The adult bald eagle, Douglass says, is about the most impressive and handsome bird there is. Brownish-black in color, an adult female is normally about three feet long, with a wingspread of 6½-7½ feet. Males are slightly smaller.

In the field of legend is their courage. Though far from timid, their boldness is surpassed by many another of nature's creatures.

Peronistas' Strike Wobbly

New Argentine Chief Calls Troops to Stave Off Riots

BUENOS AIRES (INS)—A nationwide general strike called by Paronista labor leaders against the new Argentine government began today with scattered success.

Army tanks and troops were ordered to key industrial areas throughout the country by the two-day-old regime of Provisional President Gen. Pedro Aramburu.

The government had warned against "politically" motivated work stoppages and threatened the arrest of the General Confederation of Labor (CGT) chiefs who ordered the walkout.

The troops were called out to prevent violence and safeguard the "right to work" of those who refused to heed the CGT's orders.

The strike call appeared most effective in the capital's industrial suburb of Avellaneda, site of packing houses, a Firestone rubber plant and other heavy industry.

At the time the strike call went into effect at midnight (11 p.m. EST), the work stoppage there was complete.

The railway workers union was one of several whose leaders were opposed to deposed dictator Juan Peron and urged their rank and file to pay no attention to the strike call issued by men who were Peron's close supporters.

The labor unrest facing the new president was a legacy from his predecessor, Gen. Eduardo Lonardi, whom Aramburu replaced Sunday in a bloodless shift of power to less conservative forces. Lonardi had been in office for 51 days after the military revolt which ended Peron's decade of power.

38 State Policemen Graduated Yesterday

EAST LANSING (AP) — Thirty-eight new State Policemen graduated in ceremonies at State Police headquarters yesterday.

Practically all of the new troopers were assigned to posts in the southern half of the Lower Peninsula, where there is the heaviest concentration of traffic.

The class was the first to be graduated of 50 additional troopers authorized by the Legislature last spring. A new school will open soon to train the remainder and to fill vacancies.

State Police have launched a campaign to recruit an additional 200 troopers authorized by the Legislature at its special session this fall.

Pontiac will get two troopers out of class of 38 as replacements and for general duty. They will indirectly assist patrolling of Telegraph road although they are not assigned specifically to that job.

The Cost—$11.00 Each Also Is Unmentionable

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (INS) —Movie Starlet Gloria Rhodes told police that someone stole 18 pairs of panties from her clothesline.

She estimated the loss at $150 to $200, explaining:

"One pair was very valuable. They were embroidered with a fig leaf and had rhinestones on them."

Lawmen Locked on Mental Issue

6th Session Scheduled for Wednesday as Bed Plan Confusion Mounts

Welfare of the state's mentally retarded children was still at stake again today as the Legislature's House and Senate continued to lock horns over a program.

The objective is more hospital beds for the youngsters. Plans to meet this are numerous, but proponents of each solution have been unwilling to negotiate a real compromise.

The Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium on Cooley Lake Road, and the Farmington Children's Home continue to be embroiled in the confusion of plans.

The Legislature's fifth attempt in 10 days to settle the dispute was deadlocked again today.

The Senate passed a new "compromise" last night, but the House promptly rejected it — the same stalemate which has existed since the two chambers became locked at midnight Nov. 4.

The Senate and House adjourned until 8 p.m. Wednesday. In the meantime a Conference Committee will be appointed to discuss a solution.

Client's Thief Faces Car Insurance Man

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — W. A. Wallace's car was stolen and all week he kept in close touch with his insurance agent. Finally the abandoned car was spotted and a policeman went to check it out. By the time he got there it was gone again — but the cop didn't give up

He kept checking and finally ran it down, just in time to see a young man jump out and run. A resident of the area came out to check the commotion in front of his house.

It was Wallace's insurance man, J. N. Trice. He promptly advised his client.

Aim to Break Deadlock on Admitting 18 Nations to Ranks of U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States and Russia scheduled private talks today aimed at breaking a deadlock over admitting 18 nations to the U.N.

Western sources said hurried arrangements for the talks were being made as attempts to solve the long-standing problem bogged down over U.S. opposition to giving Soviet-sponsored Outer Mongolia a seat.

Meanwhile, two plans were reported afoot to speed U.N. action on membership.

1. The Special Political Committee, in an unusual move, offered special priority to a plan drawn up by Canada and supported by Britain to admit all 18 applicants.

2. Informed sources said plans were under way to call an early Security Council meeting on the question.

Guam to Launch Safety Campaign to Cut Fatals

EUGENE, Ore. (INS) — "The world's most dangerous place to drive" is being made more safety conscious through the efforts of Ted Brown, former chief of police at Eugene, Ore.

The place is Guam and word of Brown's activities was brought to Portland by F. T. Carbullido, chairman of the Guam legislature's committee on government affairs.

He was in Portland to inspect the police bureau — his committee directs police activities in Guam.

Carbullido said Guam, with a population of only about 60,000, had 454 traffic deaths last year — a fearfully high figure.

But Brown has laid out a safety program, backed with stiff penalties, which the public in Guam is beginning to accept, according to Carbullido, and already the program is showing results.

Carbullido credited Brown's modern traffic control methods with the fact Guam had gone 67 days without a traffic fatality at the tlime he left the island.

DETROIT (AP) — A Russian-born factory worker was charged with destroying federal property yesterday after guards found him Sunday morning wandering around the eighth floor of the closed Federal Building.

Authorities said Joseph Owsianyk, 60, of Detroit, broke a glass in the door of the U.S. Attorney's office. He was charged in a warrant issued by Federal Judge Arthur A. Koscinski with "unlawful injury to public property."

Owsianyk, a naturalized citizen, said he wandered somehow into the federal building Friday when he came downtown to place a horse race bet.

Judge Koscinski delayed arraignment pending psychiatric examination.

Canadian Navy Doctor Discovers Drinking Cause

TORONTO (AP) — Watch your choice of drinking companions, says a Canadian navy doctor, or you may wind up a drunkard.

Cmdr. Marvin Wellman of the naval hospital at Esquimalt, B. C., says many young men become alcoholics because they are thrust into heavy-drinking social groups. Dr. Wellman reports the results of a two-year study in the current issue of the Canadian Medical Assn. Journal.

O. Henry wrote about 600 original pieces of fiction.

Ike Eases Back Into Work Load

Gettysburg Study Site of Session With Adams This Afternoon

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower eased back into the routine of his high office today and his "home town" adjusted with hardly a ripple to his presence.

He scheduled a meeting in mid-afternoon with his chief assistant Sherman Adams, who planned to fly here with official business stemming from a Cabinet meeting in Washington.

USES STUDY

Tomorrow he will see Secretary of Commerce Weeks, only member of the Cabinet who wasn't able to confer with him at Denver.

In the big, rebuilt house on the farm, Eisenhower is using a ground floor study as a bedroom — presumably to avoid unnecessary stair-climbing while he continues his recovery from a heart attack.

It's a quiet household nowadays. White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen, in response to questions, that the staff is limited to the President's valet, a cook and Mrs. Eisenhower's maid.

Later some Filipino messboys from the Navy will be added—an indication the Eisenhowers may be doing some entertaining once they have settled in and the President's doctors have given a go-ahead.

WHIRLYBIRDS VISIT

The White House has fixed up a field so helicopters can land on the farm with visitors from Washington, though most callers will use the Gettysburg airport and travel in regular small planes of the Air Force or Army.

Gettysburg turned out just about en masse yesterday to welcome its neighbors the Eisenhowers. But it looked normal enough today despite the presence of a couple dozen White House staff members and around 100 newspaper, radio and television correspondents and technicians.

Fourteen Signal Corps technicians keep Gettysburg in constant touch with the White House.

There's one new feature to life in Gettysburg too: uniformed White House policemen at the door of the post office. You don't need to pass a security check to go in and buy a 3-cent stamp, of course—the officers are there just as a precaution.

British Will Inspect Red A-Power Plants

LONDON (AP)—Six of Britain's top atomic scientists left for Russia today to inspect the Soviet's atomic power plants.

Two other officials will join them later in the Soviet Union.

The British experts were invited to visit Russia at the Geneva "atoms for peace" conference three months ago. At the close of that conference, Soviet atomic chiefs visited Britain and inspected the top secret research station at Harwell.

Sir John Cockroft, head of the Harwell station, who was invited to lead the British team to Russia, decided to withdraw at the last minute.

"His withdrawal has no connection with any worsening of relations with Russia—he is just too busy," a spokesman at Harwell said.

Dr. B. F. J. Schonland, deputy chief at Harwell, will lead the delegation in Cockroft's place.

CAREER ENDS — A literary career which produced three Pulitzer prize-winning plays came to an end with the death of Robert E. Sherwood. Sherwood, who died of a heart attack in New York at the age of 59, also authored "Roosevelt and Hopkins: An Intimate History," which won the Pulitzer biography prize and the Bancroft prize for history. He also wrote speeches for the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt during the 1944 campaign.

The Day in Birmingham

Rink Hours Presented at Commission Meeting

BIRMINGHAM — Eton Park ice skating rink, which is not expected to open much before the first of the year, will operate from 1:30 to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursdays; 1:30 to 10:30 p.m. Fridays; 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. Saturday and 12:30 to 10 p.m. Sundays.

This was the schedule submitted by the Recreation Board to the City Commission last night, which drew only the comment that the rink should perhaps be open Sunday mornings.

Recreation Board members explained that this was done to avoid interference with church activities but added that the schedule will be very flexible with changes made as necessary. Requests for hockey, advanced instruction, etc. will also be considered.

Fees set down by the board include 15c for children and 50c for adults during 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. skating periods with the cost raised to 25c for children during other hours.

Estimated operating costs of $16,500 a season would make the rink self supporting, based on another estimate of 50,000 skaters each Nov. 15 through March 15, the period when the ice rink will function as such.

Saboteur Explains How He Killed 44

connected to about eight feet of wire.

Graham said he unpacked parts of the contents of a large suitcase belonging to his mother and replaced them with the bomb.

"I placed this suitcase in the trunk of my car with another smaller suitcase and a briefcase which my mother had packed to take with her on the trip," he recounted.

Graham said he picked up his mother, his wife Gloria and 20-month-old son Allen at a Denver garage, where Mrs. King had stored her car, and drove them to the airport. He let them out at the terminal and parked his car.

Graham, who also is the father of a 9-month-old daughter, Susan, said he then bound the large suitcase with web straps while at the parking site. He carried all the luggage to his mother in the terminal and waited about 30 feet away while she checked it.

Ironically, Mrs. King paid the freight for her death and those of 43 other persons aboard the plane.

Records disclosed that her suitcase, weighed down by the dynamite time bomb, was 37 pounds overweight when checked by UAL at Stapleton Airfield.

She paid $27 for the additional weight.

"My wife and I went with her to the passengers' gate where we told my mother goodby and watched her board the plane with the other passengers," Graham continued.

Then he took his wife and son into the airport coffee shop.

"We were in the coffee shop for approximately one hour, and as we were leaving I heard the cashier (say) that there had been a wreck of an airplane about 40 miles out of Denver," he related.

Graham, who has been a student at Denver University, was arrested early yesterday at his home, where his mother also lived.

He waived a hearing on a "peacetime sabotage" charge yesterday and was jailed in lieu of $100,000 bond. The charge carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and $10,000 fine.

A decision is expected within a day or so on further prosecution, Kelly said.

The U. S. attorney met with state prosecutors to consider whether Graham should be turned over to them for prosecution on murder charges, punishable by death in Colorado.

With his mother, Graham had been operating a drive-in restaurant in South Denver. Officers said he was paying off $4,200 worth of checks he forged against a Denver concern. Mrs. King paid $2,500 of the amount at the time her son received a five-year suspended sentence on conviction of forgery in 1951.

In Washington, the FBI and the Civil Aeronautics Administration are seeking ways to protect commercial airliners from such sabotage.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and CAA Administrator F. B. Lee ordered a joint study yesterday. They acted after meeting to discuss "various types of preventive action, including the careful examination of baggage and possible development of devices to detect explosives concealed in luggage."

Bob Considine Says:

Shakespeare Can Explain Geneva Muddle

NEW YORK (INS)—In view of what happened to the Big Four foreign ministers' meeting, let's start with a slab from Shakespeare's Hamlet:

O villain, villain, smiling, damned villain!
My tables,—meet it is I set it down,
That one may smile, and smile, and be a villain;
At least I'm sure it may be so in Denmark.

And Geneva, too, Willie.

At a time when science and math are being waived in our high schools, Russia is bearing down on same. It's now graduating twice as many technical specialists in certain fields as the U.S.

Some 40 per cent of its high school kids major in scientific subjects. These Red scientists-to-be get draft deferments, better living conditions, prestige.

Our kids, happily freed in many cases of math and science, find it increasingly difficult to qualify for enrollment in college science classes. In recent years while the U.S.S.R. was graduating 682,000 engineers, we turned out 480,000.

PAST AND PRESENT

A. J. Beveridge, traveling in Russia in 1901, feared its expansion and wrote: "If Russia is to be checked she must be confronted with a clearly thought-out policy, continuously adhered to and backed by the certainty of something more than paper hostilities." Also:

"'Yes,' said a Russian, 'you of the United States may be stronger now, richer now, than we are, but we shall be stronger tomorrow than you—yes, and all the world; for the future abides with the Slav. Would you know another name for Russia? Very well, then, call her 'The Inevitable'."

Sounds like yesterday's newspaper. Or today's.

A year ago today my presence at a murder trial in Cleveland stood in the way of a flight I wanted to make: Scandinavian Airlines' leap across the top of the world from Los Angeles to Copenhagen, via northern Canada and Greenland. It was the first new Arctic commercial route in a thousand years.

Well, a checkup after a year shows that the air traveler of today has few qualms about the terrain over which he flies. Nearly 6,000 passengers flew the polar route a total of more than 29,500,000 passenger miles.

The line's Douglas planes functioned without trouble. Flying weather was so consistently good, as contrasted with the general concept of travel in that region, that better than 90 per cent of the flights were on time.

The Bendix "Polarpath" compass and other precision instruments have smoothed the desperate paths, high and low, of Peary, Amendsen, MacMillan, Stefansson, Byrd, Lindbergh and Post.

WHY GETTYSBURG?

Decisions concerning the health of the President of the United States are not lightly made. Therefore there must be compelling reason behind the decision to put Eisenhower back to work in the Gettysburg area rather than at the White House. But, if so, I didn't read the paper the day the logic was spelled out.

Wouldn't it be simpler at the White House, a functional building designed to bring everything a President needs within arm's length?

An ordinary sneeze travels two or three feet.

Enemy Attacks, Breaking Truce

Aggressor Strikes Fast as Biggest War Games Begin for U.S. Forces

FT. POLK, La. (AP) — Zero hour came today in the United States' biggest peacetime military maneuvers—a war game with a pattern strikingly similar to what could happen if Reds break the Korean truce or choose aggression elsewhere.

Generals disclaimed intention to shape the tactics and theoretical situation in Exercise Sagebrush to any existing condition.

But as 140,000 men and 1,200 warplanes poised for the beginning of an "aggressor" offensive, the picture had a grim similarity to that in the Far East.

ATOM EMPHASIS

And there appeared also to be this forewarning to real aggressors: The emphasis this time was on atomic weapons for both air and ground forces.

The script which set the situation for the huge war game over seven million acres of western Louisiana plains was this:

A truce between aggressor and United States forces had been in existence. Standing between the two forces was a demilitarized zone. To this point, only the 38th Parallel seemed to be lacking to make the picture match Korea.

The aggressor broke the truce and attacked United States forces across the demilitarized zone.

TACTICAL MOCK WAR

This mock war is tactical in nature, involving no strategic bombing missions deep into a sanctuary land. That too was like Korea.

Like the Air Force, the ground force's emphasis was on swift mobility and atomic firepower—the Corporal guided missile, the Honest John bombardment rocket, the 280 mm. cannon.

The foot soldiers and airmen were armed with simulated weapons as deadly if not as spectacular as the nuclear bombs and projectiles—radiological, biological and chemical.

Flight Stops Added

First in a Series on 'The Farm Issue'

Reduction of Income Is but One Factor Causing Growth of Rural Dissatisfaction

Ovid A. Martain, Associated Press farm reporter, has just returned from a 4,500-mile cross-country swing to sound out grass roots sentiment on the politically potent farm issue. Here, in the first of five articles, Martin writes of problems confronting farmers in addition to falling prices.

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The pinch lower prices is putting on farmers' pocketbooks is the major—but not the sole—factor back of current rural unrest.

The bulk of the testimony farmer-witnesses gave before a series of farm-belt hearings held by the Senate Agriculture Committee in the last three weeks emphasized reductions in farm incomes. But sprinkled throughout were complains about other things.

Sample criticism of the farm income drop was that of an Iowa cornhog farmer. He said it now takes 137 hogs to buy a tractor that could be bought in 1948 with 38. A South Dakota farmer protested that he was losing his two sons from the farm because they were making not quite $2 a day from their share of the farm's operations.

OTHERS CRITICIZE

As for other types of complaints, some farmers found fault with the way crop control measures work. Some disliked tariff and import policies, especially with regard to farm products.

Others criticized milk control programs. Many demanded a halt to reclamation of new farm land. Some voiced concern that farmers in other areas were trying to take over their markets.

A standout complaint was that advanced by wheat growers in North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana, who grow top quality milling wheat greatly in demand by millers.

Growers told the committee that despite the present record high surplus of wheat there is an actual shortage of this good quality grain. Mills are paying premium prices to get it. Yet, because the crop control law does not take quality needs into account, growers who produce the high quality wheat must reduce their acreages just as much as do farmers who produce poorer qualities.

WANT LAW CHANGE

The Dakota and Montana farmers want the law changed to allow them larger planting allotments and to reduce still further allotments of producers of other grades.

In the Pacific Northwest, farmers complain that both the government's price support and crop control laws are shutting them off from a big market they once had—that of providing wheat for livestock and poultry feed on the Pacific Coast. Little corn, the major feed grain, is grown in the West.

Price supports hold wheat prices above prices of corn imported from the Midwest and crop control measures do not permit them to produce enough to supply their own feed grain market, the Pacific Northwest farmers say.

They want a two-price plan under which wheat they sold for human consumption would be supported at 100 per cent of parity—the price said by law to be fair in relation to farm costs. The remainder of their production—which would be unlimited—would be sold for feed use in competition with corn.

RICE GROWERS TOO

Rice growers in California voiced a complaint similar to that of the Northern Great Plains wheat farmers. There is an overall surplus of rice, but not of the type the California growers said they produce. Hence, they object to taking the same percentage reduction in production as that assigned growers in Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas.

Past actions of the government in allowing imports of oats and barley from Canada at a time when this country has surplus grain supplies were targets of bitter criticism in grain-producing areas.

Perhaps the most widely-voiced complaint against government farm policies, aside from price supports, was about the lack of restrictions under present control programs on a farmer's use of land diverted from surplus crops like wheat, corn, cotton, rice, peanuts and tobacco.

AGAINST REDUCTIONS

Farmers shifted much of this diverted land—equal to nearly 10 per cent of the total cropland—to other crops like soybeans, sorghum grain, oats, rye, barley, flaxseed, dry beans and potatoes. The result has been surpluses in these other crops.

In semi-arid areas of the Great Plains, where wheat and cotton are about the only crops that can be grown, there is a feeling that farmers there should not have to reduce plantings of these crops under control programs as much as farmers in areas with a bigger variety of crops.

Likewise, traditional producers of cattle, hogs, poultry and milk complained that government restrictions and reductions in price supports on crops have encouraged many farmers to turn to livestock, poultry, and dairying, bringing about overproduction and price declines in these fields.

DAIRYMEN ANGRY

Midwestern dairymen are hot under the collar about sanitary and other barriers that tend to keep their milk out of higher-priced Eastern city markets.

The city banker, lawyer and businessman was a target of many complaints. Oldtime farmers said much of the present overexpansion in agriculture could be laid at the feet of city folk who got into farming when prices were good during the war and early postwar period.

Sprinkled sparsely among the farmers who testified were some who said they were "sick and tired" of government reulations. They wanted all farm programs abandoned.

During the first half of 1955 Malaya imported about 500,000,000 pounds of rice, more than double its imports in the first six months of 1954.

Missing Mother Found in Illinois

Wife Left Threatening Letter to Scare Spouse; Visited Daughter

DETROIT (UP)—A Detroit woman who left home over the weekend threatening to kill herself and her four children has been found in Waukegan, Ill.

Detroit police said Mrs. Lillian Brooks, 40, and the children, all unharmed, were traced to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Caroline Simkens.

Mrs. Brooks' husband, Jack, told police he found his family missing when he returned home from his night shift job early Sunday morning. He turned over to police a note he said his wife had left saying:

"You have driven me crazy and I asked the kids if they wanted to go with me and they said yes. As you know, we have no insurance and you're going to have a big funeral bill. You can have the car when they find it, if there is anything left of it."

Brooks, who said he and his wife had argued shortly before she left, broadcast an appeal to the children to return.

Illinois police said Mrs. Brooks told them she hid five guns and shells in her home, leading her husband to believe she took them with her.

Jap Conservatives Create New Party

TOKYO (UP)—Japan's two conservative parties merged today into the Liberal-Democratic party, with an absolute majority in the Diet (Parliament).

The new party, favoring the West and free enterprise, is the first single Tory party since Japan's Parliament was established 65 years ago.

It was formed of all but three former members of the conservative Liberal and Democratic parties in a speedy joint session. It has 300 of the 467 seats in the powerful lower house of the Diet —64 per cent.

The Socialists, who merged into a single opposition group last month, hold 154 seats—31 per cent.

Sponsors of the new party said they hoped to give the nation stable, anti-Communist government for at least two years before calling for new elections.

Seek Murder Charges for Plane Saboteurs

DETROIT (UP) — A Michigan group representing state law enforcement agencies seeks a federal law that would make liable for murder charges persons responsible for violent death in an aircraft flying interstate.

Donald S. Leonard, former state and Detroit police commissioner and spokesman for the group, said yesterday he will ask Michigan congressmen to introduce such legislation.

Leonard cited the sabotage of a United Air Lines plane in Colorado Nov. 1 with the resulting deaths of 44 persons was prompting the request for the federal law.

Leonard said there is precedent for such a law in that Congress has authority to define crimes involving interstate commerce.

Leonard said the only federal law applicable in the bombing of the plane carries a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Ohio Vote Won't Block UAW Supplemental Pay

Rejection by Ohio voters of a three point UAW-CIO proposal may delay but won't block operation of the union's contracts with General Motors and Ford.

Put on the ballots by petition, the plan calls for: 1. Increase of maximum jobless benefits from $33 to $59. 2. Extension of coverage from 26 to 39 weeks. 3. Simultaneous payments to laid-off workers from GM and Ford plants for 26 weeks.

The vote against the UAW proposal was overwhelming. Union officials believe, however, that had the issue of the GM-Ford plans been on the ballot separately, it might have had a chance. Ohio still can approve these supplementary unemployment compensation contracts either by legislative action, or action of its attorney general as was done in Michigan.

Finally, the outlook still is favorable for the UAW contracts with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler to become operative by June 1 next. The contracts require approval by states in which two-thirds of the employes of each of these corporations reside.

In the case of General Motors the contract could become operative upon approval by Indiana with 11 per cent of GM employes and Illinois with four.

The Ford contract needs approval only by any two of the states of Illinois, Missouri, New Jersey and California. Because most of the Chrysler employes reside in Michigan, there is no doubt about that contract becoming operative.

Army Doctor Surveys Soviet Medical Care

When Major PAUL W. SHAFER, Army surgeon, and his wife, a nurse, surveyed Russian medical care, they uncovered some thought provoking facts.

Dr. SHAFER, chief of chest, heart and blood vessel surgery at Walter Reed Army Hospital, and Mrs. SHAFER visited 35 hospitals, research centers and clinics. They talked with some 200 Russian doctors and apparently were permitted to see all they wanted and got answers to all their questions.

Their conclusion is that Russian medical care is comparable to ours. Moreover, they were told that Russia now has 300,000 practicing physicians, 60 per cent of them women, compared to our 209,000. This gives Russia one doctor for each 666 persons while the ratio here is one to 790.

Equally surprising is the Russians' report that their 75 medical schools accepted 27,000 new students this year compared to 7,000 in a like number of American schools. Next June the Soviet Union will graduate 20,000 new doctors, while only 7,000 will be graduated here.

The SHAFERS found that Russia is doing more work in preventive medicine than is done in the United States. They also learned that, except for polio, the major medical problems are the same as here, heart disease and cancer.

These findings don't indicate that Russian medical care is superior to ours. They do seem to suggest, however, that we, with our vastly greater resources, are doing less than the Russians to provide adequate medical care for all our people.

Lampreys in Lake Erie

Though far from alarming, the appearance of sea lampreys in Lake Erie in larger numbers than ever before is a matter of vital concern to the commercial fishing industry.

That is the case because these marine predators have all but destroyed the multimillion dollar trout industry of the upper lakes.

The lampreys' invasion of Lake Erie also rates special attention because in the past they have shunned those waters, preferring the clearer, colder lake streams to the north.

In Washington, WILLIAM CARBINE of the Inland Fisheries section, said fishermen started spotting these lampreys this year in the western end of the lake. That is, they were finding seven or eight of them in a day in their nets whereas in previous years they wouldn't find that many in an entire season.

So far experts don't consider the situation a threat to commercial fishing on Lake Erie. But if the lampreys continue to appear there, the U.S.-Canadian joint commission established to fight them in the upper lakes, undoubtedly will take appropriate action.

IT MIGHT as well be conceded that snakes are unco-operative and unreliable. While an Arizona biology teacher was trying to show his students how to handle a snake, the snake hauled off and bit him.

Incidents in Connection With the Quest for Deer

Bullet: A death missile you can't call back.

Getting a good start on his northern peninsula deer hunting trip,

Max Kelland

of Bloomfield Hills left home at two o'clock in the morning. At six o'clock he phoned his wife from Flint that he was held up for a day to get his car radiator repaired after hitting a deer on Oakland Ave. in Pontiac. The deer escaped. A letter from of Birmingham says his old time system to beat the jam at the Mackinaw ferry didn't work this time. In previous years he has been turning left off highway 31 just before it merges with highway 33, taking a dirt road and coming to the ferry entrance from the north, usually being let into the line at once. But he waited seven hours Saturday, the police getting wise to the stunt. Already having brought home 25 deer in 26 years, of Walled Lake told me before leaving Saturday for Cheboygan that he is taking along Mrs. Wessinger for her eleventh season. A deer with an arrow stuck in its neck is reported by as roaming the woods inside the Pontiac city limits, north of Walton Blvd. and west of Baldwin Road. Just before starting for the northwoods Sunday morning, of Waterford could have shot a deer in his own driveway, but wanted to make the trip anyway, so watched a lovely spikehorn walk leisurely away.

Pat Wessinger

Chauncey Mellus

"One of the finest things I ever saw in a newspaper," phones

Welcome Richards

of Birmingham, in commenting on the color picture of

President Dwight D. Eisenhower

in Saturday's Pontiac Press, which he says he is having framed.

Also Making Quite a Recovery

Hal Boyle Says:

Pushbutton Hotels of the Future to Be Great Boon to Travelers

NEW YORK (AP)—The pushbutton era is just dawning in the hotel industry — but what a glorious dawn!

It promises a golden time a-coming when the weary wayworn traveler will be less dependent on the sometimes frigid hospitality of an officious desk clerk, or the tired courtesy of an overworked bellhop.

In the electronic age now coming to flower, a hotel guest will be able to lie in bed and by pushing a series of buttons in a panel accomplish the following things:

Summon a valet without having to go through the switchboard downstairs.

Order fresh ice and glasses or the morning newspaper, which will pop into the room via a pneumatic tube.

Lock or unlock the door.

Turn the lights off or on throughout the room.

Dictate business letters at night and find them typed and ready for signature at his bedside in the morning.

Control the temperature and humidity in the room—and determine what the weather is like outside.

Open or close the window shades.

Get the latest radio news or watch a television program in the panel of one of the walls.

Set a clock that will waken him with soft chimes at any hour he chooses.

Protect him or any other guest against fire. An automatic alarm will detect and signal the location of fire anywhere in the hotel.

These pushbutton servants on a bedside console are just a few of the revolutionary gimmicks designed by the Minneapolis Honeywell Regulator Co., and shown here at the recent convention of the American Hotel Assn.

Another time-saving idea was an electronic brain device called "the computer center-registration desk."

Some of its possible function: automatic registration of guests, assignment of rooms, transmission of mail and messages to guests, and computing of bills.

The machine can even make change. It probably could be taught to say "thank you," too—except who even dreams any more today of being thanked when he pays a bill? Most people today are grateful if they get all their fingers back.

But desk clerks and bellhops need have no fear that the spread of automation to the hotel field will wipe out their jobs. The completely automatic hotel might be a technical possibility, but it isn't in the cards now.

"Hotel men tell us the personal touch is a big factor in their business, and they don't want to lose it," said W. T. Grove, an official of the regulator firm who helped pioneer many of the new gadgets. "The guests like the personal touch, too."

But there may be fewer opportunities for bellhops to make so many personal touches in the hotel of the future.

A guest often has to cross three palms with silver now just to get into his hotel room—the hotel doorman, who unloads the bag from a cab; the bellhop who carries it to the registration desk; and the bellhop who ferries it from there to the room.

Grove thinks moving belts will ferry baggage upstairs automatically—and before very long.

"There were fewer than 100 hotels built in America—or the whole world, for that matter—between the depression and the end of the second world war," he said. "That doesn't include motels, of course.

"But a hotel building boom is on the way now. Many of the pushbutton improvements already developed will be found in new hotels now on the drawing boards, and a lot more are coming."

All a veteran traveler hopes is, they'll improve everything but the Gideon Bible. It's fine as it stands.

Belly-Breathing Exercise Helps Blood Circulation

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

One of the benefits ascribed to natural breathing in Little Lesson No. 21, a volumette of Ol' Doc Brady's undoctorbookish pocket encyclopedia of health, is equalization of the circulation.

This and other benefits, I quote from the portable encyclopedia, are "due to the booster pump action of the diaphragm which prevents blood from stagnating in the veins."

And that's the trouble with a lot of you poor geeks—your blood stagnates in your veins, particularly the vast network of veins and venules in the abdomen, the splanchnic pool, which is capable of holding a quarter of all the blood in the body.

Don't take my word for anything. After all, I'm just a plodding old one-horse-and-buggy man, as any trick specialist or "clinic" racketeer will snort if you ask the humbug embarrassing questions about health, ask a physiologist, or consult a standard textbook of physiology.

Mrs. A. H. H. says:

". . . my husband's high blood pressure and you prescribed a breathing exercise which brought down the blood pressure faster than any medicine ever did . . ."

The late great Dr. S. Adolphus Knopf recommended what I call belly breathing exercise for, of all things, what he called chronic arthritis, and he quoted the opinion of another physician that "it helps to relax, it quiets the heart, it lessens fatigue and increases endurance.

IMPROVES CIRCULATION

"It improves the portal circulation" (which carries blood from digestive tract to the liver) "and thus prevents the distress of gas accumulation."

Please don't assume that natural breathing is done with the chest.

If you can spare two bits, two shillings, 25 cents in clean coin for a poor but honest teacher, send it to me with a stamped, self-addressed envelope, for Little Lesson 21, the booklet How to Breathe.

IT'LL TEACH YOU

It will teach you, if your're teachable, how to use your diaphragm to improve your circulation, no matter what, if anything, ails you.

A seance of natural, belly, bellows, (no, not a word about the diaphragm now) breathing after you say your prayers every night helps to relax, get your feet warm, and bring natural sleep.

That's why you should say your prayers first, for many persons drop off asleep before they finish the breathing exercise.

NEVER MIND CHEST

Never mind your chest or chest expansion. Never mind your blood pressure. Just practice natural breathing regularly, to counteract in a degree the bad consequences of a funny habit of throwing out your chest and holding in your bellows.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

State Road Commissioner Explains Toll Road Stand

Editor's Note: Due to the unusual interest in toll roads, we are carrying State Highway Commissioner Ziegler's letter in full, overlooking the normal length of Voice of the People letters.

I am writing this letter because I am greatly disturbed over published reports that I am opposed to the construction of a toll road between Flat Rock and Saginaw.

In truth, it is my opinion that a turnpike linking these two points would be desirable for the people of Michigan providing it can be soundly financed and it can be done without sacrificing the construction of multiple-lane highways already planned or under construction. These improvements, I'm sure you will agree, are highly necessary if local congestion is to be alleviated in your immediate area.

So that you and your readers may understand the problem, please permit me to present the following facts for your information:

The first duty imposed by the Legislature upon the Michigan turnpike authority, of which I am a member, was to study the feasibility of two turnpike projects and that if either of the projects can be successfully financed and constructed to proceed in accordance with the act.

Such a study has been made by the competent engineering firm of Coverdale & Colpitts. Its final report under date of April 15, 1955, emphatically states that a toll road between Flat Rock and Saginaw cannot be successfully financed unless the state highway department agrees to halt construction of "competing" free roads running north and south in a corridor of congested traffic from Lapeer on the east all the way to Lansing and Alma (US-27) on the west.

If you will but glance at a state highway map you will readily see the tremendous area in which we have been asked to suspend virtually all construction and expansion in order to satisfy bond purchasers.

(Coverdale & Colpitts describe as principal "competing highways," US-127 from Somerset, through Jackson to Lansing, and US-27 from Lansing to Alma; US-223 from the Ohio line to Somerset; US-16 from Detroit to Lansing; US-10 from Detroit to Saginaw; US-23 from the Ohio line to Saginaw; M-15 from US-10 to Bay City; US-24 and M-24 from Rockwood to Lapeer and M-150 north to Detroit.)

Their reference to "other free roads in competition" must mean M-47 from Owosso northerly to Bay City; M-13 from M-78 northerly to Saginaw; M-53 from the north end of the divided pavement north of Detroit northerly to Imlay City; and the extension of Northwestern Superhighway northwesterly to connect with US-23 near Fenton.

The case in point, therefore, is not whether I do or do not oppose a toll road. It is whether I will or will not agree to stop building and expanding our free trunkline roads needed so badly to serve the heavy traffic in southeastern Michigan.

It should be clear, then, that I have no objection to the turnpike authority building a toll road, but I refuse and will continue to refuse to stop building needed free roads in order to make a toll road pay its way. For me to agree to such a scheme would mean renouncing my oath of office and my obligations to the people of Michigan.

I am certain also that neither you nor your readers would be willing to trade improved highways over which they travel each day to and from work and for which they are paying in higher gasoline taxes, for the luxury of an occasional turnpike trip.

To further understand my position on this question, I would like to quote directly from the Coverdale & Colpitts report to the turnpike authority:

"As to free public highways in the Bay City-Detroit-Toledo corridor . . . we have assumed that route US-23 will not be made a four-lane superior facility within the next five years for any substantial portion of the distance between Flint and Dundee . . . We have assumed that the other free roads in competition with the proposed turnpike will be maintained in first-class condition but that . . . no other major new highway construction or relocation projects will be made on these north-south highways . . . We have assumed that no high-caliber limited-access freeway or expressway . . . would be built within the next five years, since the existence of such a parallel competing facility in the turnpike's early years would materially diminish our estimated toll revenues."

Any road between Bay City and Flat Rock must serve local traffic as well as through traffic to justify its construction. It should be obvious that the proposed toll road would fail in this because of the distance between entrance and exit points, sometimes from 20 to 30 miles apart.

All of this means to me that a toll road to exist must be subsidized by forcing local traffic to use it. I cannot, in good conscience, penalize the 3,000,000 citizens who live in the Detroit, Pontiac, Flint, Saginaw, Bay City, Monroe, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Lansing and St. Louis-Alma areas by cutting off improvements already planned or under construction. Further, I do not intend to do it in order to insure toll road financing.

Millions of dollars of tax money have already been spent on freeways in the Detroit area. Planning has been done on extensions which will go forward to completion, giving all motorists an integrated system connecting with the National Interstate route. The freeway route was planned and started three years before creation of the turnpike authority. The highway department, which is charged by law with the construction of roads for all the people, simply cannot forget the time and millions of dollars already being spent for locations, structures and ribbons of concrete and let them disintegrate, not fully used and of little benefit to the people who paid the bill.

Because of my responsibility, I'm sure I would be justly criticized if these routes were not carried through to completion.

I hope you have found the foregoing of interest and trust it will end once and for all a controversy which has existed only in the minds of those who apparently have something to sell. If there is any further information you desire, I will be happy to be of service.

State Highway Commissioner

Challenge Church Members to Diet, Quit Smoking, Then Donate Savings

Lorna wants to help build a new church. So I showed her how 100 ordinary folks can contribute an additional $15,000 per year without costing them a penny! Priests, ministers and rabbis, please note! Your church budgets gain the $15,000; your parishioners are happier and healthier. Yet it doesn't cost them a red cent! So launch a weekly "weigh-in" ceremony and its companion experiment.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-392: Lorna S., aged 33, is president of a women's group in the church described yesterday.

"Dr. Crane, our Women's Society wishes to pledge money to help start the new building project," she began.

"We are willing to sacrifice and work hard to get a new church, for we see the crucial need.

"No other church is located anywhere near the hundreds of children in our residential area. So we are the only hope of those children for moral instruction in Sunday school.

"What can we do to get the most money pledged for a new church?"

QUOTA SYSTEM

It is usually helpful to divide a group into many teams and set a quota or goal for each and aim high.

Lorna told me there were about 100 women in her organization who could be counted on to help.

So I suggested that those Christian women talk with their husbands and stress the fact that prayer and sacrifice are needed to succeed in building a new church. It is a big project.

Then diligently analyze their own budgets to see the maximum which they could pledge. But here is also a no-cost plan!

If a man (or woman) smokes cigarettes, he burns up an average of about $100 per year on the end of his cigarettes.

If Lorna could thus persuade exactly 100 men and women in the entire church to stop the tobacco habit and then contribute the savings thereby to this church building, those 100 would be able to give $10,000 per year, and not even disturb their present domestic budgets an iota!

MONEY GALORE

If you Catholic priests, Protestant ministers and Jewish rabbis find your congregations rather unyielding as regards new and laudable moral projects, then challenge 100 men and women to make this modest sacrifice.

Actually, it takes a very slight sacrifice to quit tobacco. In just one week the victory is won. So the struggle is brief.

And if the former smokers will meanwhile use candy coated gum, carried in the same pocket or purse where they formerly stored their cigarettes, this will give their arm a chance to exercise itself in the old pattern, and thus relieve their nervous tension.

And those 100 smokers who quit their tobacco, will be able to contribute an additional $10,000 to your church without disturbing their budget a single penny.

Meanwhile, you clergymen will have saved them a lot of money on later medical bills, for the effect of tobacco on heart trouble, strokes of apoplexy and lung cancer, is considerable.

Non-smokers outlive smokers, so you will give them longer life.

This means, too, they will then be able to draw their Social Security pensions for more years and thus be ahead of the game on that score.

PROMOTE RIVALRY

You can add more zest and rivalry to this project of raising money for church needs, if you will likewise urge the obese parishioners to diet.

Ask for 100 volunteers to sacrifice a little at the table, to match their mates who are giving up cigarettes.

Every pound shed by dieting saves that person $2.50 in groceries, so have a church "weighing in" party each week.

Have the plump folks agree to lose at least one pound per week, and offer the salvaged $2.50 to the church.

Weigh them in every week. If they fail to lose, add a penalty of maybe an extra dollar so assess them $3.50 per week.

By these methods you can build new churches and not cost your parishioners an extra penny.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Fair Hunting Conditions Forecast for Deer Slayers

Fair hunting conditions are forecast for an estimated 400,000 sportsmen who will be out for the opening of the 16-day deer season today.

The weatherman predicted snow for the opener in the Upper Peninsula and chilly temperatures throughout the state.

The bulk of the hunting army, which will total 425,000 before the season ends Nov. 30, is already poised throughout the deer country.

The State Highway Department reported an 18-mile line of cars at the Straits of Mackinac had vanished by Monday morning. The State Conservation Department says hunters will kill some 65,000 deer — about the same number that were killed last year.

Conservation Department field workers report that the deer herd looks better than last year's.

A department census in the northern part of the Lower Peninsula indicates the herd has grown about 20 per cent there. In the Upper Peninsula, the department says, the herd is as large or larger than last year's.

MORE DEER NOW

Although the deer population has grown since 1954, the kill is expected to be about the same because hunters will not have a special one-day "any deer" season in which they can kill does, fawns or bucks.

The "any deer" seasons, begun in 1952, were ended this year by the Legislature. Game experts say hunters may have a tougher time finding their quarry this year because of a poor acorn crop. This is expected to cut down concentrations of deer.

Hunters should find more deer in the southern part of the Lower Peninsula than in past years, although by far the greatest number of sportsmen will head for the northern part of the Lower and the Upper Peninsula.

As in the past year, Conservation Department workers and state police will handle emergency messages to hunters.

Racketeer Joe Adonis Will Deport Himself

WASHINGTON (AP) — Racketeer Joe Adonis agreed today to deport himself by Jan. 1. In return for that move he will be allowed to avoid serving a prison term for perjury.

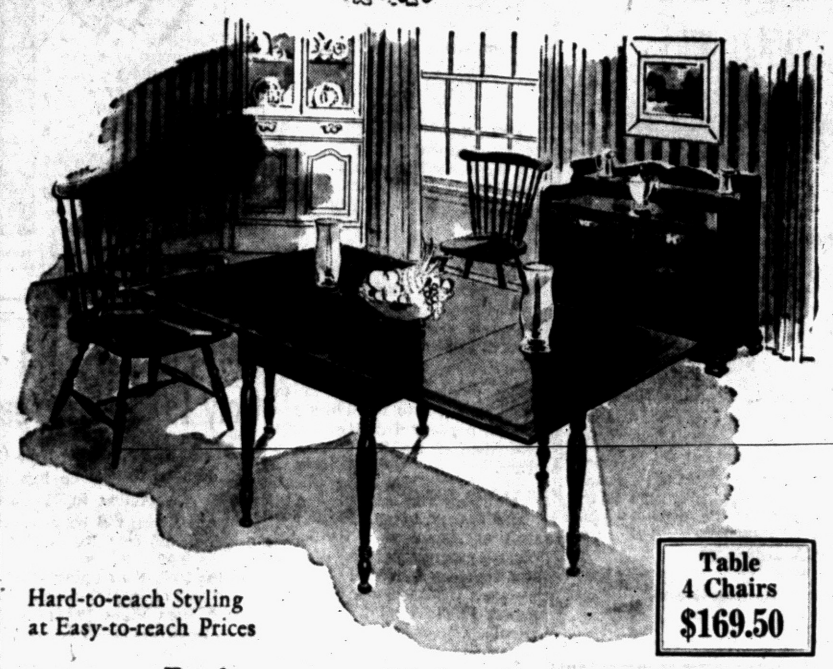

Adonis' attorney, William H. Collins, told reporters that the racketeer, whose real name is Joseph Doto, intends to go to Italy.

More than one million acres of land in Oregon are now under lease for oil and gas exploration surveys.

Polio Vaccine Production Rises

Public Health Reports Claim Youths Under 21 Will Receive Serum

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (INS)—Salk anti-polio vaccine may be available to every American boy and girl under 21 before the "polio season" begins early next summer.

This possibility emerged as 5,000 public health specialists and medical researchers gathered in Kansas City for the 83rd annual meeting of the American Public Health Assn.

Pharmaceutical houses, whose representatives are at the convention, have indicated they would like to gear production of the Salk vaccine to provide for the 63 million Americans under 21.

The problems involved in expanding output to fulfill this goal will be considered during a panel evaluation of the Salk polio program.

SUCCESS REPORTED

The nearest to an official government summary of the entire vaccine program in 1955 will come at a Thursday session of the meeting when Dr. Alexander Langmuir of the Public Health Service in Atlanta, Ga., speaks.

One of the most encouraging reports came from the Pennsylvania Health Department. Pennsylvania figures showed there were 14 cases of polio in the non-inoculated group of school children for every one case in children of the same age who received one Salk shot.

This would mean the Salk vaccine was more than 93 per cent effective in Pennsylvania.

Cadillac Salesmen OK First GM Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — The world's best-paid strikers last night unanimously ratified their first contract with the world's richest corporation. Their union said they got what they wanted.

Eighty-four New York area salesmen with an average yearly income of $17,000—and some reaching $40,000—struck the Cadillac Division of General Motors Corp. Oct. 27.

A spokesman for the AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters said the contract provides for no discharge except for cause, no transfers, layoffs on a seniority basis, a 40-hour week and a guaranteed commission of $100 per sale.

The cement industry in 1954 used almost one-third of a ton of coal for every ton of cement produced.

Bets Polio Will Hit Only 1,000 Next Year

KANSAS CITY (AP)—One polio expert disclosed today he has bet another expert that in 1956 only 1,000 Americans will be paralyzed by polio, and only 100 in 1957.

In the past, the number actually paralyzed to some degree has ranged from about 15,000 to 25,000 in the worst epidemic year, he said.

This polio authority, who asked not to be named, made his bet last January. That was a time when lots of polio vaccine was expected to be available this year. It was before production was halted for a time and safety standards revised after an outbreak of polio was associated with vaccine from one manufacturer.

He said he experts to lose the bet, on actual figures, but "to win a moral victory" because he thinks the vaccine is both effective and safe, but not enough will be available to make his prediction come true that soon.

Virginia Seeking to Keep Racial Bar for Schools

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Gov. Thomas B. Stanley has set in motion a program intended to prevent compulsory integration of the races in Virginia's public schools.

As the first step, he called a special session of the State Legislature for Nov. 30 to act on legislation providing for a constitutional referendum. If the General Assembly adopts a proposed bill, the electorate will be asked to vote on whether a constitutional convention should be held to amend the state constitution so that public money may be used in financing the private schooling of Virginia children.

FROM THE MOMENT you awaken until you go to bed, almost everything you do is closely dependent upon the operation of trucks. In fact, even while you're asleep, trucks are working for you. (Beds arrive by truck, too, of course.)

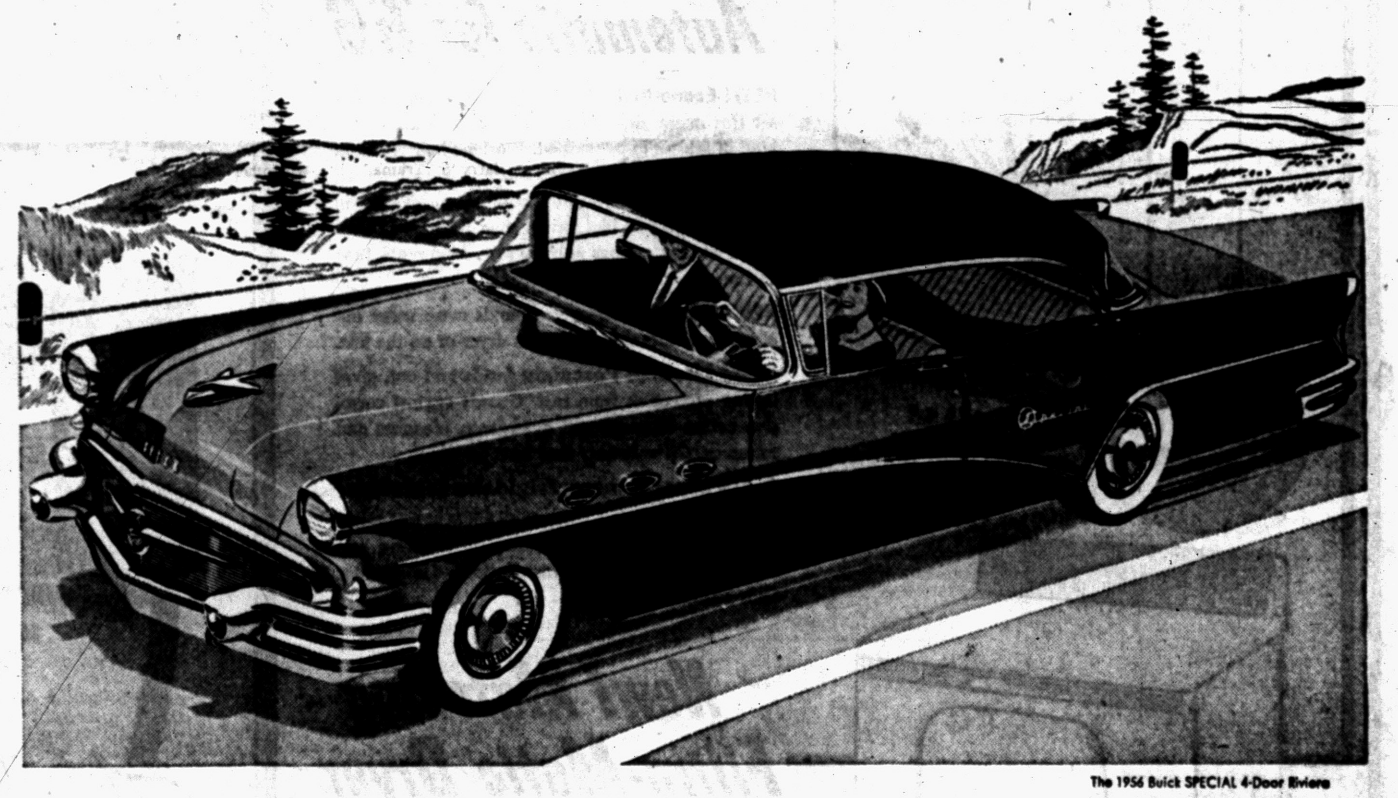

Without trucks, your favorite food market would have empty shelves. Without trucks, you wouldn't find gas stations located conveniently almost everywhere you turn. Without trucks, the building of new homes, factories, and stores would slow to a walk and businesses of all kinds everywhere would suffer.

Sooner or later, everything you eat, wear, or use depends on trucks for transportation. Eventually, everything has to get to you — the consumer. So, when you consider that trucks haul three times the tonnage handled by all the other forms of transportation combined, you realize how very important they are to you!

Closeup of Our New Six-Month Reservists

How to Change a Bunch of Raw Kids Into Soldiers

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
(Second of 3 Articles)

FT. KNOX, Ky. (NEA)—Somewhere along the line the U. S. Army has learned how to transform a heterogeneous bunch of skinny, fat, bewildered, smart-alec kids into strong, confident soldiers.

That's the story of the Army's handling of the new six-month "raffa" training program created by the new Reserve Force Act.

The first class of 250 of these six-month reservists has now been at Knox more than five weeks. What the Army is doing to the boys is important to every lad in the U. S. and to every parent of a draft-age son because this unique program offers a brand new method for discharging military service.

If a man finishes this training successfully he has seven and one-half years of reserve or National Guard duty left, free from active duty unless there is a war.

When the program was being planned in the Pentagon there was much fist-banging about the fact that any kids who elected it must be treated like any other draftee or enlisted man.

TOUGHENING UP THE YOUNGSTERS — "Raffa" trainees at Ft. Knox put on muscles with conditioning exercises. Program had to be adjusted to fit special needs of the new volunteers.

That's still the basic, official approach to the program, headed by Maj. Gen. Philip D. Ginder, special assistant to the Army Chief of Staff for the reserves.

But when Brig. Gen. Samuel L. Myers, boss of the training here, saw his first class he quickly adjusted all schedules and plans to the special needs of these kids.

Up until this batch of trainees arrived, the typical draftees the Army was getting were in their middle 20s, matuure and in good physical shape. Because this program is for boys 17 and 18, the lads they got for it were something different.

More than half of them were underweight. In fact, many hadn't had a full meal for several days before their arrival here. Close to 50 of them had come from broken homes.

Average grades on intelligence tests were far below the averages for draftees. Only seven per cent of the class passed the physical ability tests.

The average score for the class was 120, compared to 170 for the average of previous draftees. Two lads got one point each.

When Gen. Myers saw the figures and discovered that the lads were not in top physical shape, he modified the standard basic training regimen which had existed for the older trainees.

He ordered more frequent breaks between marching and other field instructions. He ordered that no trainee should be kept on the rifle range after 4:30 p.m., when the training day ends. The practice had been to keep men on the range until their targets had been completed, until darkness if necessary.

The men are not being put through the "obstacle" course which involves climbing over high walls, squirming under rows of fences and climbing ropes. "Maybe we'll give them the obstacle course in a couple of months when they are better able to stand it," says an officer.

KP is the only work detail trainees get.

To make their weekends interesting and wholesome the boys are given sightseeing tours, shown movies and taken to football games. And Gen. Myers has offered to take any one of them who want to go, on a 'coon hunt some night soon.

More than half of the class has been encouraged to take some special extension or correspondence course toward high school and college credit.

Trainees eat in a large, central mess hall which looks like any average restaurant in the U. S. and probably serves better food.

Barracks are the World War II wooden variety, the same found on any Army post. But a group of buildings are being remodeled here for future trainees. They will provide better ventilation, better heat and semi-private compartments.

The great majority of the trainees are satisfied with the program. The skinny ones have gained from three to six pounds since arriving. The fat ones have slimmed down.

The first eight weeks are being devoted to basic Army training. The next eight weeks will give advanced individual training and the final eight weeks will give unit training. The men get two weeks leave and $50 per month pay.

National Guardsmen in the program get $73 per month because they have a greater commitment for service than the reservists.

In spite of the shortcomings of the first class, and the youth of the boys, Gen. Myers is confident that he will turn out well-trained reservists by the end of six months.

Next: The rights of the new reservists.

Jerseyans Watch Their Governor

Will Margaret Truman Keep Dating Meyner?

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—The burning question about the New Jersey State House these days is whether Gov. Robert B. Meyner, handsome bachelor, and Margaret Truman are serious about each other.

Meyner will admit no courtship with the daughter of former President Harry S. Truman. Nor will she be drawn out by questions concerning Meyner.

But, to the romantic minded, all the signs are visible.

The two have danced together, gone to dinner and the theater, visited each other, and attended the Princeton-Yale football game Saturday.

VISIT HIS HOME

It was that football game that increased the speculation.

On the way to Palmer Stadium in Princeton, Meyner and Margaret stopped off to look at Morven, the colonial mansion that will become the governor's official residence in a few months.

Meyner gets irritable when he is asked about the dates with Margaret. He says they are his private business.

He also says that Margaret is "charming" and "unspoiled" despite the fact that she's a former president's daughter and a stage, radio and television personality.

Since he became governor in January 1953, the 47-year-old Meyner has not been known to date anyone but Margaret. He has never been married.

Margaret, 31, has had several other escorts.

Californians Like California in Europe

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

LUGANO, Switzerland (INS) — You can lead a Californian to the Alps—but you can't make him drink in their grandeur without observing, "Where are those St. Bernards bearing bottles?" or "Nature's wonderful, but think what Disney could do with this!"

It is not that the native Californian is alcoholic, nor insensitive to limpid pools and hoary peaks. It's simply that he is accustomed to beauty (e.g. Catalina, Lake Tahoe, Ava Gardner) and after a few quiet moments of admiration, he wants to get to the bottom of things.

"I'm serious," said one newsman from San Francisco, after heaving to the peak of a 4,200-foot mountain, "don't you have any St. Bernards on this Alp?"

The guide looked uneasy. "You wouldn't want to see an Alpine St. Bernard."

"Why?" nagged the Californian.

"Vicious dogs, really. They'd as soon bite you as give you a drink."

'GUY'S CRAZY'

Another Californian suggested that he'd like to take a sled and skim back to his hotel in the valley, instead of taking the funicular railway. Behind his back, a friend explained to the guide — "Guy's crazy. Thinks he's a sledder ever since he did it so easy in the balcony at "Cinerama."

This air of dignified nonsense pervaded the company of California newspapermen with whom I—an interloper from New York—traveled for days. We were ferried luxuriously to Europe to celebrate inauguration of the first one-stop, California-to-Europe plane service.

Through England, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France the Westerners went—thoroughly impressed by the Old World, but always by the suspicion that maybe DeMille could have improved on the sets.

"Gee, this is great," remarked a Hollywoodian as he was driven down the Old Appian Way toward Rome, "but don't you think it's overdone?"

His friends agreed. To make the scene believable at Grauman's Chinese, a few tombs would have to go.

NO FOG IN LONDON

And in London, the sun was shining. There was no fog. Said a Los Angeles editor: "Let this get out and Hitchcock's dead."

Paris, it seemed, was Hollywood and Vine with sidewalk cafes . . . with uncensored versions of the Mocambo . . . with a restaurant on the Eiffel Tower that was a pretty good imitation of the "Top of the Mark" in San Francisco . . . with an accumulation of chic and shapely women who were roughly—that is to say, smoothly—the same types to be found in California.

Like all tourists in Paris, the Californians enjoyed themselves. Yet, with the inborn pride of the U. S., they were loyal to home. As one gent put it after an evening on the town: "They really hold you up here for imported California champagne."

West Coast newspapermen are wonderful, casual, curious, fun-loving people, and the idea of the trip was to give them the material to write glowing pieces which will lure their readers to European holidays. After witnessing their verbal onslaught upon Europeans, however, I predict an upset of sorts . . .

Now all the starry-eyed Europeans are intent on coming to see California.

Democrat Says: 'Ike Won't Run'

Sen. Jackson Predicts President Will Refuse 'Part Time' Position

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jackson (D-Wash) predicted today that President Eisenhower won't run next year as a "part-time President" or be elected if he does.

Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) said in a separate interview, however, he is "prayerfully hopeful" that Eisenhower will recover sufficiently from his heart attack to seek a second term.

A number of Republicans have said they think the burdens of the presidency can be cut down enough so that Eisenhower, despite his heart attack, could fill the office for a second term.

If the President does run, Flanders said he thinks the public will be satisfied that Eisenhower feels "he can do all the things that a president needs to do."

"I think the voters will feel that he will be justified in giving more attention to major problems and less to ordinary, routine burdens of the presidency," he said.

Jackson said he thinks Eisenhower is "too conscientious to offer his services on a part-time basis when he knows that the responsibilities of the office are such that full-time service is required."

Jackson said he looks for a "substantial contest" for the Democratic presidential nomination at next year's party convention. He indicated he believes the nominee will be Adlai E. Stevenson, Gov. Averell Harriman of New York or Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn).

Gun Blast Frees Boy From Bobcat's Hold

STANTON, Ky. (AP) — A shotgun blast was used to break the unyielding grip of a rabid bobcat on a 15-year-old boy.

Raymond Tharpe was treated for facial and body cuts and for powder burns. He will be given anti-rabies inoculations.

Efforts to pull the cat off young Tharpe failed, so Millard Pelfrey, a neighbor, shot the animal. It grabbed a young dog and ran under a house. Pelfrey fired through a crack in the floor to kill it.

Metropolitan Opera Opens 71st Season in New York

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — The opening of the 71st season of the Metropolitan Opera last night was a colorful pageant of beautiful clothes, sparkling gems, rich furs — and exemplary conduct.

The high-style audience — most of them conducting themselves like bona fide music lovers — left the famed red damask Sherrys Restaurant over the Diamond Horseshoe almost deserted except at intermissions.

The opening opera was Offenbach's "The Tales of Hoffman," a not-too-heavy opera which included pretty girls, a pantaletted chorus line, light, love, laughter and dance.

W. G. Rogers, Associated Press arts editor, found it a "modish work for the modish audience."

"It was grand opera but that didn't keep most people from having a grand time," reported Rogers. "It was the Met moving into the entertainment field."

Although all the hi-jinks were confined to the stage side of the footlights, the premiere remained an extravagant fashion show.

One interested observer was Russian pianist Emil Gilels, who walked unsuspectingly with his wife into the "carriage trade" lobby as batteries of photographers were blazing away at opera stars Blanche Thebom — in gold lame dress and elaborate headdress — and Jarmila Novotna in rich green velvet and handsome jewels. He looked bewildered.

Fashionwise, it was evident that the new tight sheath dresses have established an American beachhead. So has the Oriental influence—any number of women wore dresses showing Indian and Japanese influences. Many women also wore gold and silver flecked eye shadow.

Son Mitsuo Robs Mother Katsuo of Her 20,000 Yen

TOKYO (AP)—Mr. Katsuo Muto, a maid in a wine shop, told police today how a burglar had broken in, bound and gaged her and made off with 20,000 yen ($55).

After she freed herself, she said, she thought a "long time" before telephoning police.

She had got a good look at the burglar, she said; and he was her son Mitsuo Muto, 21, who had left home a year ago.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—While 14 policemen and 20 civilians combed a suburban Louisville area for 5-year-old David Phelps last night, he was homeward bound.

Mrs. Charles Phelps said the tot was gone from her car when she returned from a dentist.

After an hour of searching, she started home, five miles away. As she approached her house her headlights picked up David mushing along.

The boy had made his way along an extremely dangerous stretch of Dixie Highway.

'Foul Play' Theory Probed in Cremation Death of Boys

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Police today investigated the possibility of foul play in the death of two young brothers in a fire-razed shack which had been used as a clubhouse by teen-agers.

Firemen who were called to quell the blaze in the padlocked shack yesterday discovered the burned bodies of William Stengele, 8, and his brother David, 6.

They were identified by their mother Mrs. Adele Stengele, 26, from bits of clothing found in the ruins.

Coroner Clayton O. P. Werley withheld a certificate stating the cause of death pending an autopsy today at Allentown Hospital.

MISSED AFTER SCHOOL

Mrs. Stengele first missed her children when they failed to return from school for lunch with their brother Dale, 7. She learned of the tragedy while searching the neighborhood.

Her husband Roland, 27, a laborer at the Bethlehem Steel Corp. plant in nearby Bethlehem, was at work.

A woman noticed the shack was on fire and called firemen. They put out the blaze by dumping the structure on its side into a creek running along side of it. That's when they discovered the bodies.

Police found a red smear on a stone wall near the shack. It was being analyzed to determine if it was human blood.

QUESTIONS YOUNGSTERS

Four of the teen-agers who used the shack were questioned by police. One reported that he and his companions locked the door Sunday night shortly after dark before leaving for the night.

When firemen reached the scene yesterday, the one door on the shack was secured by three closed padlocks, all on the outside.

Police said the children might have gotten in by crawling through a loose section.

OMAHA (AP) — The cops found $646.11 in cash in the pockets of Angelo DeMelelo, itinerant railroad worker. They took him to the station for "safekeeping."

Angelo was asked by Judge Patrick O'Connor why he didn't put his money in a bank. He replied:

"It is too much bother to write checks. I am no criminal. I am an American. We Americans have freedom to do as we wish as long as we obey the law. Yes?"

During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Cecil McCallum, an election was held and Mrs. John Pump was accepted as a new member.

NEWSMAN SPEAKS

Speaker of the evening was Jack White, news editor of a radio station and president of Oakland County Chapter of "The Big Brothers."

* * *

Mr. White spoke entirely on the subject of Big Brother organization, which is comparatively new in Oakland County and is a nonsectarian organization of men whose aim is to give love and guidance to less fortunate boys, but does not necessarily encourage financial help.

The executive director of this organization in Pontiac is William Clark, and on the board of directors are such men as Judge Arthur E. Moore, James Hunt and the Rev. John Trese.

Two large tables were set up for the tea which followed the program. One contained a 3-foot centerpiece made of ice logs on which were mounted 2-foot-high letters, 25 and JPWC, made of ice.

Pink lighting under the logs sent illumination up through the ice letters. Ivy twined in and about the entire centerpiece, which was flanked by silver candelebra.

The other table contained a three-tiered pink and white cake, lettered with "25th Anniversary." Mrs. Ferdinand Jesse, the first club president, and Mrs. Floyd Boardman, the second club president, poured. Mrs. Rose Doig, sponsor of the club, cut the cake.

Sorority Sponsoring Symposium

Teacher Shortage to Be Explained

A symposium designed to explain to the people of Pontiac the need for teachers and the causes of the teacher shortage will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in the City Hall.

The symposium is sponsored by the Xi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honor society for teachers, as its part in making the community aware of the acute teacher shortage. Members also hope, through the symposium, to receive help from the citizens of Pontiac to alleviate the local condition.

The symposium, open to the public, is made up of persons familiar with the local situation and its relation to statewide and nationwide problems.

Members are Louis Schimmel, president of the Pontiac Board of Education; J. C. Cox, assistant superintendent of Pontiac schools; Dr. John English, president of Michigan Education Association; Ralph Norvell, president of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. William Wright, president of the Pontiac PTA Council, and Mrs. Claire Hinckley, teacher at Crofoot School.

The teacher shortage is one of the most critical problems facing school administrators in Michigan. This shortage is evident in all phases of education.

As an example, according to "The 1953 Teacher Supply and Demand Report," there has been a national decrease of 38.8 per cent in the number of college graduates preparing to teach the business subjects.

George E. Martin of the Business Studies Department, Michigan State Normal College, in a recent article in the Michigan Education Journal, states major causes of teacher shortage to be: Inadequate salaries, inadequate retirement and welfare benefits, and overworking of teachers by unthinking administrators.

Dr. English, superintendent of schools at Inkster, will moderate the symposium Thursday. The members plan to emphasize the following areas of the teacher shortage problem:

1. Why is there a teacher shortage? 2. What is the teacher's role in recruitment? 3. How can community awareness of recruitment needs be developed? 4. How will the community benefit from better selective recruitment? 5. What does the future hold?

Mrs. John McCou is chairman of the symposium. She is being assisted with arrangements by Mrs. Hinckley, Mrs. Charles Wait, Lucille Brown and Vera Mae Adams, president of Xi Chapter.

YW Adds Foreign Note to Traditional Box Social

Box socials are nothing new, but the YWCA is attempting to give a new twist to the time-honored custom of buying a box supper and eating with the donor, by asking those bringing the boxes to "put in something foreign."

If you have a pet recipe your grandmother brought with her on a sailing vessel from olde England, ancient Greece, or wherever—or a new (to you) recipe you picked up on a jaunt south of the border, here is your chance to show it off, for the YW's box social, Thursday at 7 p.m., is open to the public.

Proceeds from the auctioning of the boxes will be devoted to the Y's World Fellowship Fund, which is used to rebuild Ys in foreign lands which have suffered from war or Communist aggression, to send American staff workers abroad and to bring foreign staff workers to the States for training.

If your culinary skill does not extend to concocting Scotch scones, tamales, brioches or whatever, the World Fellowship chairman, Mrs. Robert Anderson, suggests you put in some foreign food such as Swiss, Danish or Italian cheese, Canadian bacon or even bananas, which come mostly from Central America.

Or, says Mrs. Anderson, you can wrap your box in nationality colors. However the "foreign flavor" of the box is worked out, it should add a little spice—spices of course, being foreign, too!

California Unveils Fashions for Resort Wear and Spring 1956

Italian silk is used here by Stanley Sherman, designer for Spectator, Ltd., in a brilliant California gold, with a print silk surah lining the wedge-shaped jacket and used for an ascot tie. The longer jacket has a flat, buckled self belt, stitched along the base of the jacket in the back.

Summer street scene is fashion's forecast in this suit from Philippe of California styled of imported textured silk, with high notched lapels and unusual tab closing on the jacket. A single rose is tucked in the top tab of this gold colored suit; its bracelet-length sleeves are an easy width, and carry the same tab treatment as on the front closing.

An imported textured silk in natural is used by Harrod's of California in this stunning suit that is tailored, yet feminine in every detail. The hand-sewn silk taffeta collar in brown is the only accent that contrasts with the simple lines of the jacket.

Wives Angered Over Electricity

Power Cut in Norway May Prove Permanent as Appliances Mount

OSLO (AP)—Norway, long with a surplus of hydroelectric power, has run into a shortage. Housewives are irate over the necessity of using oil stoves to cook—or even to keep warm.

The Norwegian economy to a very great degree is dependent on electric power. Cooking with electricity is much more common in Norway than in most countries. Gas is used hardly at all. New apartment buildings use electricity for heating.

Before World War II, Norway had a surplus of electric power. Before and after the war the government campaigned to make people use electricity. Now a power shortage is becoming permanent, while postwar buying power has led Norwegians to buy ever more electric stoves, water heaters, refrigerators and washing machines.

An inter-municipal power authority distributes power to various areas according to need. Unfortunately this inter-municipal authority has sold considerably more power than it can deliver. To keep vital industry going, power consumption has been cut 25 per cent. Street lighting has been reduced or abandoned entirely. A brown-out has been followed by a complete general switchoff at least two hours every night, vital industry excepted.

To keep warm, Norwegians are buying oil stoves. To cook their meals, many have to buy small camp stoves.

The government has been forced to liberate half a million kroner (about $72,000) in hard currency for the import of stoves—mainly from Great Britain and Sweden. The only Norwegian manufacturer of oil stoves has sold his production for a half year in the future.

It is estimated that if all the lake water in the world was poured into the oceans, the level of the sea would be raised only about two feet.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

THE MOUSE GETS AWAY

Here is a young cat named Kitty who heard some mice in the attic. Kitty watched the hole in the woodwork with great patience. She even put her head inside the hole several times but she always pulled back because she had crawled into a small hole once and couldn't get out and it had caused her family a lot of trouble.

When Kitty heard the scratching in the wall, she waited for the mouse to appear. Suddenly one did — a little gray mouse, and she looked right at Kitty. Kitty wasn't experienced with mice so she didn't move fast enough. By the time Kitty reached the hole, Mrs. Mouse had turned around and disappeared.

Paste this picture on cereal box cardboard and color it with crayons. Kitty is a handsome yellow tortoise shell cat. Little Mrs. Mouse is gray with pink ears.

Cut out the top panel. Cut out the hole along the heavy outline. Cut out the double panel at the bottom. Put it behind the opening and fasten a pin or brass fastener through the hole.

Fold the picture forward at the dotted lines. Then you can turn the small panel and make Mrs. Mouse appear and disappear.

Junior Editors pays $10 for any reader's idea that is used. Write your suggestion to "Junior Editors" in care of this newspaper; it cannot be acknowledged or returned.

High Court Outlaws Racial Tag on Ballots

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Supreme Court in effect today held as unconstitutional an Oklahoma law requiring a candidate's racial identification on election ballots.

The tribunal took the action by refusing to review a case involving A. B. McDonald, a Negro who unsuccessfully ran for U.S. Senator in the 1954 Democratic primary in Oklahoma.

4 Cosmetic Firms Are Cited by FTC

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Federal Trade Commission has charged four of the nation's largest cosmetics manufacturers with illegal discrimination in granting sales promotion aid to some customers.

The four are: Elmo, Inc., of Philadelphia; Helena Rubinstein, Inc., of Long Island, N.Y.; and Hudnut Sales Co., and Yardley of London, Inc., both of New York city.

They were accused of violating the Clayton Anti-Trust Act by failing to make promotional allowances and services available to all their competing customers on proportionately equal terms.

At the same time, the FTC disclosed it is considering similar complaints against other major cosmetics firms.

Milford Rezones Land to Commercial

Council Passes Proposal for Shopping Center Site

MILFORD — A formal proposal to amend the village zoning ordinance to rezone a ten-acre tract of land commercial was passed by the council here at last night's meeting.

The land, owned by the Compass Reality Company of Detroit, fronts General Motors and South Milford Roads, adjacent to Huron Valley School property. The company purchased 131 acres from the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority recently.

Some 20 objectors from the south side of Milford were present to discuss the pro and cons of rezoning the area.

In zoning the land commercial, council specified that the company would have to build 60 homes before construction of a proposed shopping center could begin.

President of the reality company Irving Cane said that surveyors are working on the property at the present time and actual construction would begin April 1.

$3500 GUARANTEE

Chamber of Commerce members present to discuss off-street parking ran into a snag when Attorney Harry S. Mead told the group that the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission would have to have a guarantee of $3500 to complete the proposed parking lot.

If the chamber can raise this amount the commission will okay the necessary $16,000 bond issue needed to buy the Arms home. The problem was tabled until the next regular meeting of the council.

Another Detroit Firm has taken option on 51½ acres on the west side of North Milford Road, adjacent to the village limits and owned by John Daniels. A representative of the Apex Realty Company asked about extending water and sewage facilities into the proposed subdivision.

President Bartlett Smith replied that is was a village practice to extend water and sewer lines in the event they develop the proposed subdivision.

The council purchased a new Chevrolet police car from Van Camp Chevrolet, Milford.

Band Boosters Schedule Event

Milford School Plans 'Parade' for Groups of Area

MILFORD — Some 200 boys and girls will participate in a "Parade of Bands" at a special meeting of the Band Boosters Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Highland Junior High School.

The band with the largest percentage of parents and friends joining the Band Boosters organization, plus extra scores for parents attendance, will be the winner of the party.

This meeting will also be the "kick-off" for the third annual Community Calendar project. This has been advanced two weeks over previous years to avoid the mid-December rush of Christmas activities, according to Phil Haddrill, band director.

Mrs. Harold Edwards, who is this year's chairman, will organize the player and parent committees and teams to carry out the project.

Newly elected officers of the Band Boosters are: Mrs. John Watson, president; Mrs. James Haggerty, vice-president; Mrs. Jack LaBreche secretary and Mrs. Everett Cole, treasurer.

Welcome Wagon Hostess to Call on Milfordites

MILFORD — A Welcome Wagon hostess will be calling on newcomers in the area, for the first time as Mrs. Dorothy Ely begins a project long contemplated by various people in Milford.

One of Welcome Wagon's 5,000 hostesses throughout the entire world, Mrs. Ely resides at 1640 Pettibone Lake road. Not only will she call on new families moving into the area, but will visit on important family occasions such as the birth of a baby, sixteenth birthdays, engagement announcements, and golden wedding anniversaries.

Welcome Wagon's basic policy includes cooperation with Churches of all faiths, and worthwhile civic and welfare groups. Mrs. Ely on behalf of her sponsors in the Huron Valley area will bring church and civic information to the families on whom she calls.

Milford Churches to Show Luther Film

MILFORD — On Wednesday evening two churches will present "The Life of Martin Luther."

This film produced for the Lutheran Church, will be shown at the Milford Methodist church at 6:30 p.m. and again at 8 p.m. at the Presbyterian church.

Costing over half a million dollars to produce, the picture in color, depicts Martin Luther, the Augustine Monk, who began the Protestant Reformation.

Suspect Pirates Hit Ghost Vessel 'Joyita' in Pacific

SUVA, Fiji (AP)—The ghost launch Joyita may have been the victim of South Sea pirates, Naval experts reported after examination of the derelict vessel.

The searchers found the seacock in the Joyita's engineroom open and the deck stripped of all gear, even that which would have been of no use on life rafts.

The 70-ton launch, a luxury craft converted into an island trading steamer, disappeared 39 days ago with 25 persons aboard. It was on a routine trip from Apia, Samoa, to the Hokelau Islands. Last Thursday it was found drifting and waterlogged 904 miles north of Fiji and 600 miles off course.

No one was aboard.

The vessel was towed here to be pumped out and inspected. There was some exterior damage to the hull but no hole. Experts say pirates may have opened the seacock in an attempt to sink the Joyita, but half-empty oil drums kept it afloat.

Indecent Book Drive Organized in Ontario

TORONTO (AP) — One thousand Roman Catholic women in central Ontario have set out on a "Crusade of Decency" aimed at ridding every bookstore and newsstand of indecent literature.

Working in teams of two, the women, members of the Ontario Catholic Women's League, will check the dealers' book racks against a list of more than 300 books blacklisted by a Chicago organization for decent literature. The initial campaign lasts until Nov. 26.

Mrs. George Davis of Toronto, the league's governor of education, said the women have been specially trained for the campaign.

"They have been instructed to be friendly and courteous and to stress that the campaign is being carried out solely to create high moral standards for children," she said.

Police Say Father Gave 2 Children Overdoses of Sleeping Pills

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A complaint charging two counts of attempted murder was on file today against Peter R. Stitick, 39, who police said gave his two sons overdoses of sleeping pills.

Both Joe, 10, and his brother Thomas, 12, were found unconscious Sunday night at their Van Nuys home by a family friend, who summoned police. The boys were taken to a hospital, where their stomachs were pumped.

Police said Stitick, a drafting engineer, told them: "I gave them those pills, all right. I had no reason. For six years I've been both mother and father to those kids."

Stitick said he gave each boy three pills but his sons told police they each took "about 10 of them."

Stitick's wife Mary, 42, has been a mental patient at Camarillo Hospital for six years. He is held in Van Nuys jail. The boys are in juvenile hall.

Two Ships Begin Trek Toward Icy Antarctic

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Two cargo ships bound for the Antarctic headed southward along the Atlantic coast today on the first leg of an expedition whose leader, Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd, called "an important milestone in history."

The ships Wyandot and Arnes, the latter the flagship of Rear Adm. George Dufek, were wished godspeed by Byrd and other naval and government dignitaries yesterday as they left here to begin this nation's permanent occupation of bases at the bottom of the world.

Dufek is commander of the task force. The five other ships in the expedition sailed last week.

Byrd, America's foremost polar explorer, came to Norfolk to see the vessel off. He will join the convoy later in New Zealand. He plans to remain in the antarctic for two years, except for an occasional trip back to the United States to "have legislation enacted" for benefit of the project known as Operation Deepfreeze.

Seven stations will be established on the antarctic continent by the expedition and 70 American scientists will conduct geophysical studies at those stations in 1957 and 1958.

"Fourteen thousand dollars worth of flowers!" they said.

Callahan, after recovering, wired Havana, California, Miami, Chicago and Honolulu, and used trailers, trucks and planes to deliver for 10 days. All because Callahan delivers via the Truck Drivers Union. "It pays to belong to the union," Callahan reportedly commented as he left on a prolonged vacation.

'Dales' Clark Compiles Amazing 124 Point Total

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Did the great Willie Heston ever score as many points in one football season as Hillsdale's Nate Clark did this year?

That's a good question, but it apparently defies an answer.

Clark, the Negro flash from Benton Harbor, ran up a whopping 124 points on 24 touchdowns. That's better than Heston averaged at the University of Michigan in his fabulous career on the point-a-minute teams of 1901-02-03-04.

Heston amassed 465 points in those four years, but a breakdown by seasons is not available.

Menke's Encyclopedia of Sport, an authority on the subject, says Heston's four-year total is an all-time career record.

Clark's total surpassed the previous Hillsdale record set by Bill Young in 1949 when he tallied 121.

In the half century since Heston cavorted at Ann Arbor, only two players in the state besides Clark have scored more than Young. Tom O'Connell posted 126 for the University of Detroit in 1928 and Jerry DePrato got 124 for the Michigan Aggies (now Michigan State) in 1915.

Clark's closest rival in Michigan this year was Bernie Raterink of Central Michigan, 36 points back with 108 on 18 touchdowns.

* * *

Behind these were Marv Raab of Alma with 85, Russ McLean of Ferris with 66 and John Adams of Hope with 56.

MSU Crowds Terps for 2nd in AP Grid Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oklahoma, Maryland and Michigan State again are the big three in the balloting to determine the nation's top college football teams, proving once more that you not only have to win but you have to win big to stay on top.

These three retained the positions they assumed last week in The Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters, but easy-winning Oklahoma stretched its lead while Maryland, the leader two weeks ago, barely clung to second place. Meanwhile UCLA lost considerable face and one place in the rankings due to a close call against Washington and West Virginia took a terrific tumble on the heels of its first defeat.

With 204 sports experts casting ballots, a smaller number than the week before, Oklahoma's margin over Maryland jumped from 51 points to 167. Maryland's second-place edge over Michigan State dwindled to just 8 points. Scoring is on the basis of 10 for each first place vote, 9 for second, etc., down to 1 for tenth.

Oklahoma came first on 103 of the 204 ballots for a total of 1,844 points. Maryland, with 46 firsts, tallied 1,677 points and Michigan State drew 37 firsts and 1,669 points. Notre Dame took over fourth from UCLA by a margin of 1,193 to 1,164. Heaviest balloting for each of the first four teams was for the positions in which the totals put them.

West Virginia, sixth a week ago, polled only 109 points after taking a solid 26-7 beating from Pittsburgh and fell to 13th. The teams behind the Mountaineers each advanced one place so Michigan, Texas Christian, Texas A&M, Ohio State and Georgia Tech round out this week's first ten.

The scores show the obvious reasons for the changes in the balloting. Unbeaten Oklahoma racked up Iowa State 52-0 for its 53rd consecutive game without defeat in Big 7 Conference competition. Maryland had to come from behind to beat Clemson 25-12 and stay on top of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Oklahoma has two more games, and Maryland one, to play in the regular season and then, in all probability, they'll meet in the Orange Bowl.

Meanwhile Michigan State, scenting a Rose Bowl possibility, concluded its Big 10 campaign by assaulting Minnesota, 42-14, another big win, while Notre Dame trampled North Carolina 27-7. UCLA needed a last minute field goal to hand Washington its fifth straight defeat and to keep its Pacific Coast conference record unsullied.

Oklahoma still has to beat Nebraska next Saturday to win the Big 7 title although it already has earned the Orange Bowl berth. Maryland needs a final victory over George Washington to clinch the other spot in the Orange Bowl. Michigan State winds up with a non-conference game against Marquette and can't get the Big 10 title outright, but if Ohio State knocks off Michigan, the Spartans can get the Rose Bowl bid.

Another big game with bowl implications Saturday sends UCLA against Southern California. The Bruins have to win to clinch the Rose Bowl berth. Otherwise Oregon State may get it.

Kennedy Takes IC4-A 1st; Pitt Wins Team Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—Henry Kennedy, a 23-year-old Michigan State sophomore by way of Glasgow and Toronto, is a young fellow who bears watching.

Winner of the IC4A cross-country run with ridiculous ease yesterday, Kennedy whipped England's Gordon Pirie last summer. That's when they started to talk about him.

The jury was out for some time, but now it seems safe to conclude he's the real McCoy.

Kennedy is undefeated in dual competition this year and on his record he will be installed as the favorite for the Big 10 run Friday.

Before zipping to a 24:30.3 victory over the 5-mile Van Cortlandt Park trails, he never had laid eyes on the course.

Several runners, including defending champion George Terry of Boston University, took spills and 11 of the 183 starters didn't finish.

But Kennedy shrugged it all off. "Back in Scotland, we run over hills like Van Cortlandt," he said. "The ground conditions often are as soft and dangerous to runners as here."

Kennedy was born in Glasgow and has lived in Toronto for more than two years. He is a straight A student.

But it wasn't all Michigan State. The favored Spartans couldn't cope with Pitt's depth and the Panthers won the team title for the first time in 31 years with 99 points to State's 114.

Higgins 'Manager of Year'

NEW YORK (AP)—Mike (Pinky) Higgins, freshman manager of the fourth-place Boston Red Sox, was voted today American League "Manager-of-the-Year" by The Associated Press, winning the award in a close race with Casey Stengel.

The big, soft-spoken Texas, who more than made good his two promises—"We won't finish 42 games behind the pennant winner again" and "We won't lose 20 out of 22 to Cleveland"—nosed out the New York Yankees' pennant-winning manager by four votes.

Of the 99 members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America who participated in the AP poll, 39 voted for Higgins and 35 for Stengel, Walter Alston, only Brooklyn manager to win a world championship, won the National League award.

Four other AL managers received recognition. Marty Marion, who had the "dark horse" Chicago White Sox in contention all the way before they finally finished third, picked up 16 votes to finish third in the balloting, too. Lou Boudreau, who surprised by piloting his ragtag Kansas City Athletics into sixth place, got four votes.

The remaining four ballots were divided evenly between Bucky Harris and Al Lopez. Harris, oldest manager in point of service, did an outstanding job bringing his Detroit Tigers into fifth place. Lopez, one of the ablest managers in baseball, led his Cleveland Indians into second place and for the fifth straight season, bagged over 90 victories.

This marked the first time since the AP managerial poll was inaugurated 10 years ago that a fourth-place manager won the award. Admittedly no genius, the 46-year-old Higgins credits his success to infinite patience and understanding the problems of his players.

Observers who watched him during eight seasons in the minors and his freshman year in the major leagues go one step further. They credit the silent and sincere southwesterner with parlaying baseball knowledge, sufficient skill as a psychologist and ability to instill confidence in his players as the reason for his success.

The Red Sox didn't improve their position last season but under Higgins' able direction they won 15 games more than they did in 1954 and, from the time they got rolling in June until the last month of the season, they were right in the middle of the pennant race.

The Red Sox players themselves will tell you that Mike was a prominent factor in their upsurge.

"More than anybody else, Higgins was the one man who made us into a winning club," said Frank Sullivan, the club's leading pitcher. "He gave us the feeling he knew we were big leaguers. He believed in us and he didn't blast us if we made a mistake."

HUSKY HONKERS — A pair of husky Canada geese fell to the above young hunter the other day. Larry Leach, 16, Lake Orion High junior, bagged the pair near Lake Orion. They weighed about 10 pounds apiece. One bore a Jack Miner band.

Bloomfield Huntress Wins 1955 'Big Pheasant Derby'

A Bloomfield Hills housewife proved the oft-spoke phrase, "never underestimate the power of a woman" as she captured the top prize in the Pontiac Press 1955 Big Pheasant Derby.

CHAMPION — Proving that a woman's place is not always in the home is Mrs. Paul Pace, 5060 Lone Pine Rd., Bloomfield Hills, (above), who captured top prize of a $50 U.S. Savings Bond with a 3-pound 12-ounce pheasant in the 1955 Pontiac Press Big Pheasant Derby.

Mrs. Paul Pace, 35, 5060 Lone Pine Rd., will be awarded a $50 United States Savings Bond for her Oct. 28 entry of a colorful 3-pound 12-ounce ringneck. From that day on until Nov. 11 at noon Mrs. Pace's lead was never challenged.

Mrs. Pace, whose husband is caretaker on the Bloomfield Hills estate of Everell E. Fisher, has hunted for the past 10 years. She bagged the prize-winning bird while hunting with her husband Oct. 27 off Pontiac Lake Road in Rochester.

The lucky huntress took over the lead in the contest from James Green, 3431 Lexington, Pontiac who registered the next heaviest pheasant (3-pound 7-ounces). Next two contenders were Earl L. Donaldson of Highland and Tom Coomer of Ortonville who recorded entries of 3-pound 6-ounces and 3-pound 5-ounces respectively.

The contest, which began Oct. 20 got off to a fast start the 1st day when Edward J. Hockey of Waterford entered a 2-pound 12-ounce ringneck 2 hours after the opening gun. Youngest hunter to register was 13-year-old Dick Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks of 3122 Devondale, Avon Township who brought in his 1st game, a 3-pound bird.

Richmond Club Sold at Auction

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A six-man syndicate bought Richmond's International League baseball club yesterday in a surprising deal in which the only big loser apparently was former Owner Harry C. Seibold.

The syndicate purchased the team's Triple-A franchise, equipment and player contracts for $20,000 at an auction held by the internal revenue service, which had seized the club's assets. The government put the team up for sale to satisfy tax liens totaling $79,218.68.

Not only did Seibold lose his club, but he still owes the government $45,315.97 on the tax claim. Applied to the original lien were the $20,000 auction sale price and $13,902.71 received for recent player sales.

Tiger Boss Man on Scouting Trip

DETROIT (AP)—General manager Harold (Muddy) Ruel of the Detroit Tigers was ready to take off today on a week-long trip to the Caribbean, but not exactly for a vacation.

Ruel plans to scout teams in the Cuban and Puerto Rican leagues, and check up on how Tigers are doing on the winter circuit.

Currently outfielder Bubba Phillips and pitcher Babe Birrer are playing with Mickey Owen's Ponce team in Puerto Rico. There are no Tigers playing in the Cuban League.

OCSC Squad Trims Brewster in Rifle Shoot

Led by Nancy Newman in both actual and handicap scores, the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club defeated the Brewster team of Detroit in a league rifle shoot last weekend at the OCSC range.

Nancy posted scores of 192-205 as the OCSC Hot Shots won their 4th straight league victory. The OCSC squad's high five shot an actual total of 944 and a handicap of 1014.

OCSC's other top riflemen were team co-captain Frank Brusha, who shot 190-204; Kjell Danielson, 189-200; Jane Martini, 186-203; Howard Collins, 187, and John Strasser, 202.

Brewster gunners shot totals of 868-966. S. Rutland was their lead rifleman with scores of 190-200.

PINKY HIGGINS

Montreal Pair Paces Scoring

MONTREAL (AP) — A week's activity brought no change in position among the top four scorers in the National Hockey League. Jean Beliveau of the Montreal Canadiens still holds 1st place with 22 points.

Teammate Bert Olmstead kept the runnerup spot, adding a goal and an assist for 20 points as the Canadiens gained two victories and a tie in last week's play.

Ted Lindsay of the Wings, Beliveau and Tod Sloan of Toronto are the top goal-getters with 10 each. Olmstead leads in assists with 15.

Jacques Plante of Montreal still leads the parade of goalies.

Terps' Signal Caller May Miss Last Game

BALTIMORE (AP)—Unbeaten Maryland may go into its last 1955 football game without the services of Frank Tamburello, No. 1 quarterback.

The husky Baltimore junior was thrown for a loss by a bug over the weekend, and doctors at University Hospital here said he might miss Saturday's game against George Washington.

Press Inside Ohio State's Iron Curtain

Three Reporters in Red Shirts Watch Buckeye Drills

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Three "comrades" in red shirts will watch from inside the "iron curtain" this week as a squad of uniformed gridiron players go through their daily workouts.

Football in Russia? Heck, no. It's the Ohio State University practice field.

The "comrades" will be reporters from the three Columbus newspapers. The red shirts will identify them as such. And the "iron curtain," well, that's coach Woody Hayes' idea.

Hayes told his weekly press luncheon yesterday, ". . . We must guard against leaks." He was explaining his decree that no one should see the Bucks' final preparations for the game with Michigan Saturday.

At first, Hayes wanted to keep everyone out of the practice field. When newsmen objected, he decided to let three reporters watch the practice sessions.

Hayes and assistant coach Esco Sarkkinen were not too optimistic about OSU's chances in the Michigan clash—with the Western Conference title hanging in the balance.

Hayes was "worried" about his All-America halfback, Howard (Hopalong) Cassady. "This morning he reported in fine shape," said Hayes, "the 1st Monday he's done it. Maybe it's an omen unless he steps in a post hole this week . . ."

The "hard-luck kid," as Hayes describes his injury-plagued right halfback, Jerry Harkrader, was hurt again when the Bucks stomped Iowa, 20-10, last Saturday. He'll miss the Michigan game, Hayes said.

USGA's Prexy Hits Gambling

Grainger Says Recent Calcutta Incident Is Note of Warning

NEW YORK (INS)—The president of the U. S. Golf Association says the recently-disclosed Deepdale, N. Y. Calcutta pool scandal has "disgraced the good name of golf."

In a message to the governing boards of member clubs, Isaac B. Grainger said last night that the Calcutta incident, in which two players used fradulent handicaps to win the tournament, "emphasizes some of the many dangers inherent in organized gambling."

He pointed out that the USGA "for many years has expressed unqualified disapproval of organized gambling in golf."

* * *

He added that the standards of the sport are being lowered by such practices as: Attempts by some to keep their handicaps high; soft local rules when there is no justification; over-commercialization and "winking at violations of the rules of amateur status."

Ez's 3rd Straight Loss Fails to Dim Ring Hopes

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Despite three straight losses, former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles is firm in his determination to continue fighting.

Charles, the 34-year-old Cincinnati slugger, lost a close split decision to Toxie Hall of Chicago last night. Charles weighed 197 to 194½ for Hall.

"I plan to keep fighting," a disappointed Charles said after the decision was announced.

In fact, Charles' co-managers, Tom Tannas and Jake Mintz, think Ez looked so good he will still get a Dec. 21 date with young Floyd Patterson in San Francisco. Charles was certain of the Patterson fight if he had won.

Tannas and Mintz are banking on the fact the fight was so close and Charles looked better than in any of his previous seven appearances since his second defeat by champion Rocky Marciano.

"Charles has plenty left," Hall said.

In this slugging match, Judge Angus McAdam voted 96-94 and Referee Sharkey Buonanno 96-95 for Hall. Judge Eddie Jansen voted 97-95 for Charles. Under the Rhode Island scoring system, the winner of a round is awarded 10 points and his opponent 10 or less. Hall staggered Charles with a right to the chin in the first round and had him in trouble in the eighth and ninth rounds. Charles was at his best in the middle rounds and hurt Hall with a combination in the fifth.

Answer in 10 Days on Podres' Future

BROOKLYN (AP)—Johnny Podres, the southpaw with the pain in the back who became a pain in the neck for the New York Yankees in the World Series, probably won't know for 10 days or so whether he'll be drafted.

The 23-year-old lefty, who won twice for the Brooklyn Dodgers in the series, including the decisive seventh game, went through not one but two physical examinations yesterday. After an Army doctor and an orthopedic specialist finished their probing, however, there still was no decision on his draft status.

It's probable the doctors' reports have been forwarded to the Surgeon General's office in Washington for the final decision, which will be announced by Podres' Ticonderoga, N.Y., draft board.

Sooners' Coach Sees His Squad Upset Saturday

Bud Wilkinson Thinks Nebraska Might Upend Oklahoma at Lincoln

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Some Saturday afternoon a regular season football opponent will bowl over the mighty Oklahoma Sooners with a crash that will resound throughout the nation.

Coach Bud Wilkinson, whose team currently is rolling along with 27 straight victories and top-ranked in the country, thinks the "Big Upset" may happen this Saturday when Oklahoma meets Nebraska in a showdown struggle at Lincoln for the Big 7 Conference championship.

Nebraska, once the scourge of the league, hasn't been able to defeat the Sooners in 12 years, but that's one of the things that worries Wilkinson. In fact, no conference team has taken the measure of Oklahoma since Kansas turned the trick in 1946—or 53 league games ago.

The tall Oklahoma mentor tried to explain the possibilities for the "Big Upset":

"I don't recall a game in the time I've been at Oklahoma when all the factors are so in favor of a team like they are for Nebraska" to upset the Sooners.

Wilkinson pointed out that Nebraska started the season with a barrage of criticism after a humiliating 6-0 setback to Hawaii in the first game.

"But the players and the coaches had enough organization to come back and make themselves into a whale of a football team," Wilkinson said. "It's a tremendous tribute to the ability of the players and coaches."

Coach Bill Glassford called the Cornhuskers the best he's ever had at Lincoln and Colorado Coach Dal Ward agreed after Nebraska defeated the Buffaloes 37-20 last week.

Wolverines in Top Condition for Buckeye Tilt; Kramer, Maentz, Branoff Going at High Speed

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan, sighting its 19th Big Ten title and 4th Rose Bowl bid, moved up one notch to 6th today in the weekly Associated Press poll.

Wolverines are much more comfortable there than they were in the top three, positions now occupied by Oklahoma, Maryland and Michigan State.

There is pressure enough on the Wolverines this week. Saturday they face Ohio State for football's biggest jackpot: The conference title and the holiday West.

Despite their seven victories and one defeat, Wolverines have yet to prove that they can carry the Western Conference banner with proper dignity and flourish this season. Both Notre Dame and UCLA rate above Michigan in the poll.

Yesterday, coach Bennie Oosterbaan had some good news that his squad might make the grade, or at least have an improved chance.

"We're in as good shape now as we have been all season," Oosterbaan said cryptically. He meant, "Don't say it too loud but there are no serious injuries that we can see."

For Oosterbaan's team, this was a respite from injury long overdue. With one of the deepest squads in the Big Ten, Oosterbaan has been lucky to find a winning combination amid the adhesive tape on some Saturdays.

But now some, like ends Ron Kramer and Tom Manetz, are in good shape, and others like halfback Tony Branoff are performing near top efficiency for the 1st time in a long while.

As Michigan beat Indiana 30-0, Branoff showed more speed than he has had since his 1st year. Knee operations and bad ankles have slowed him down, but his 41-yard run around the Indiana left end made many remember the Branoff of old.

Even fullback Lou Baldacci seemed to have shaken off the hindrance of a recurring ankle injury. He helped Michigan drive to one touchdown and scored another.

Jerry Musetti Out of Spartan Finale

EAST LANSING (AP)—Team physicians say 2nd string left halfback Jerry Musetti will miss Michigan State's game against Marquette Saturday.

The Detroit senior suffered a fractured elbow in last Saturday's game with Minnesota.

Dennis Mendyk and Willie Kaae will move up into the No. 2 and 3 spots behind Clarence Peaks for MSU's final game of the season.

Courchesne Is Victor

Betty Encourages Duffers

After 25 Years of Activity Jameson Finally Begins to Understand Golf

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Betty Jameson, a veteran of women tournament golfers, says after 25 years of playing the game she has finally begun to understand what it's all about.

This frank statement by the gal who set an all-time scoring record for women over a par 72 course last winter at Sarasota, Fla.—285 for 72 holes—and who picked up $11,493.11 in winnings during the year, undoubtedly will have two different effects on the golfing public.

It's encouraging for the duffers, who have been trying for years to break 100, to know there's still hope. It's heart-breaking to those who are just taking up the game.

But before golf clubs get tossed away it should be pointed out that Miss Jameson, for most of the quarter of a century, has been playing the game better than 99 per cent of those who have taken a divot.

It's in her quest for perfection that Betty still is learning about golf.

She has returned home from her greatest year on the links—not the most money won but her play was more consistent. She won four tournaments—Sarasota; the Beaumont, Tex., Babe Zaharias; the New Hampshire White Mountain and the Richmond, Calif., opens — and always was in the money. She was the only woman pro to play in every tournament of the cross-country schedule.

"Approach putting always has been my biggest weakness," Miss Jameson said. "I've never been able to master that phase of my game. That is why I scored so erratically at times. I tried all makes of putters and all different putting theories, but I never could quite get the feel that gave me confidence. Then all of a sudden the secret of approach putting came to me. It was on the 13th hole of the second round of the Clock Country Club Open at Los Angeles a few weeks ago. I can't explain it, but what I've been trying to do for 25 years finally came to me."

By approach putting, Miss Jameson meant the theory of many top golfers that when a player putts he should try for a 3-foot circle around the hole instead of the cup. Betty said it was hard to get the idea across to her.

PHS Early Cage Outlook Good, Van Ryzin Says

By H. GUY MOATS

With only two lettermen back from the 1954-55 Pontiac High school basketball squad, plus one day of official rehearsal, Coach Art Van Ryzin today came up with some interesting, optimistic views.

Van Ryzin, respected veteran PHS mentor, usually has a crew that finishes well up in Valley Conference play. And for the coming season, from what Art reported today, Chief cagers will be a very good outfit.

Pontiac finished 3rd last year in a SVC race that had Chiefs only one game off 2nd spot. Arthur Hill won the crown, with Flint Central second.

Both 'Jacks and Indians will have strong quints this winter, is the word that comes from the respective camps.

But the club with the greatest potential, says Van Ryzin, is Flint Northern. Northern's Vikings have all their 1954-55 squad back. Vikings, with Pontiac, are the only SVC teams that managed to beat Arthur Hill in last year's hectic league battle.

Chiefs open their season with a strong Catholic Central squad Dec. 2 in Detroit. "This game should be a good test of what we've got this year" says Van Ryzin. "Down there they expect the best team in years."

First Valley argument brings defending champ Arthur Hill here, Dec. 9.

Chiefs' coach expected to make this an "exploratory affair." He plans to try out all his possible combinations, but not too exploratory, to jeopardize the chance of winning.

Monday was the 1st official day of practice. All the squad was on hand for the 1st time. Football players who joined the crew will have just a little harder row to hoe than those who have been working out for several weeks.

Van Ryzin pointed out this morning that his 1st combination should be good. He has Rod Treais, a junior forward and Jimmy (Red) Taylor, who has apparently made up his scholastic deficiencies, in a guard spot. Taylor was lost to the football squad during its last two games. He was a flashy halfback.

Others in the top combination include gridder Bob Casteel, a forward; Jim Jones, forward, Freeman Watkins, forward. All were on last year's squad, but did not win letters.

Up from the reserves are Terry Zellhart, 6-1 junior guard; Dave Diehm, 5-9 junior guard; Dave Simmons, junior guard, a 5-10 lad; Hudson Ray, 6-4, Valley champion high jumper who is tagged as a sure bet for the center spot ("He's definitely varsity material," says the coach); Dave Scriven, 6-2 junior forward; Bill Kennedy, gridder, 6 foot junior forward.

Good looking prospects without previous reserve or junior varsity experience include Willie Dewalt, 5-11, senior forward; Lawrence Peet, 5-6, a little sophomore who can scoot and shoot; Jimmy Skinner, 6-3 soph center, sure to be up with varsity players.

Because of the loss of three squadmen, who forfeited their eligibility by playing in an "outside" paid-admission game after the regional tourney last spring, race for positions on the varsity is a wide open affair, the coach declares. Those dropped were Walter King, forward; Clay Williams, a guard and Johnny James, forward, who later quit school.

Here's how Van Ryzin sums up his squad:

"They will be a good-sized team. I'm sure they will develop into a real good squad when they get the necessary experience."

Willie Hartack rode 15 winners in four days the 2nd week of the Laurel meeting..

Seven of the University of Wyoming's 12-man basketball squad are 6 feet 5 inches or taller.

Fulfillment of Dream

Shelleys Get Big Moose, See Many More on 16-Day Trip Into Canada

By HOWARD SHELLEY

A 16-day hunt for a big bull moose was the object, and the successful reward for our recent trip into the Canadian northlands. The moose, plus many feet of motion pictures, was the fulfillment of a year and and a half of planning.

Site of the hunt and the camp where we remained for our stay was in wilderness country 245 miles north of the Canadian Soo. Accessible only by rail or plane, we rode the Algoma Central to Mile 245, then met our outfitter, Dick Watson. By canoe we hit the Oba river to the base camp. Good duck shooting was enjoyed on the way.

Then we moved 10 miles farther on, where our camp had been set up. Here, for several days we were constantly on the lookout for moose.

On two occasions we were literally surrounded by moose.

One young bull, and a cow visited our camp site, just 55 steps from our tent, one night.

Next evening produced action aplenty. A big cow confronted us (Mrs. Shelley and Howard) as we walked along the shoreline. We stared at each other. The cow turned into the woods and soon her call echoed through the timber. Without thinking I returned it, got an answer, and did it again.

Then, from the dense brush stepped a young bull, apparently taking it all in. But finally tiring of the performance, he decided to break it up. He did. Mrs. Shelley led me to the camp site in fast time.

We saw some 15 moose, of which we could have taken six.

On the day of the kill we sighted two bulls. One was feeding at the water's edge. The other was on the opposite side of a small point. We stalked the 1st one, found he had skipped. The other left also.

Later we glassed the big one we were looking for. As we went in towards him he started to run along the shoreline. First shot stopped him and a second completed the taking of an estimated 1,200 pounder. He had well-balanced palm-mate antlers.

Real work then began. Dressing out, skinning, cutting it up proved the toughest job of all.

SUCCESSFUL HUNTER — Here's proof of a dream that came true. Howard and Mrs. Shelley, Pontiac residents, planned a moose-hunting trip into northern Canada a year and a half ago. Plans materialized a week or so ago in a 16-day jaunt that produced the big head, shown atop the car. It was a 1,200-pounder with heavy, palmate antlers bearing 8 points to a side.

Hunters Make Ready for Start of Season

By JACK PATTERSON

ALPENA—There probably was a better day than Monday, once, but we weren't there to see it. You won't see a nicer one either, this side of Paradise.

PATTERSON

Like all "days before" this one has been a mixture of last minute preparations and time-killing operations which probaby neither speed nor slow the earth's rotation by more than a turn or two.

On our own part we organized a new veteran's group "Post 1 of the Veterans of World War III." Had rather a touching little ceremony up at the old fort—raised a flag and all that sort of thing which goes to show how busy we were.

Maybe a better example of how people get ready to work mischief on deer can be culled from a visit over to the big Oakland Hunt Club, which is just a whoop and a holler up the road from us. Took Charles Wood along as gate opener and moseyed over to see how the O.H.C. group was killing time until opening day.

Well sir, we ran into a whole pod of Pontiac people who were making a big production out of doing nothing.

At the club we ran into Bob Swanson who had just arrived and predicted enormous success for everyone today. Somehow or other that particular part of the club seemed to be doing a land office business and before Bruce Hubbard could speak more than once we encountered Floyd Baker, Mike Daniels, Bryon French, Jim Hampton, Frank Holecheck, Bill Lane, Frank Stout and Maurice Whitfield, all of Pontiac.

It didn't take too much wandering around to find a pretty good out-county contingent, either. From Birmingham and Bloomfield we ran into Angus Campbell and Carl Holecheck. Royal Oak was represented by Harry Merritt, Carl Reynolds and A. B. Corbin.

Milford was represented by Gordon Alton, Lakeville by Bansford Broomley, Lathrup Village by John Campbell and Ortonville by Mead Myers.

General concensus of opinion by Oakland Hunt Club members is that deer aren't as plentiful as they used to be. First Indian that Columbus bumped into probably had the same sad story.

Acutally, in our area, there seems to be a deer behind every jack-pine. They look fat, happy and sassy. Tomorrow they will be just as fat, maybe not so happy, but quite a bit sassier. There just happens to be a crossing of two major deer paths, though, that gets a lot of traffic. Not too far away there's a jack-pine that was toppled by the big wind a couple of weeks ago. It could be that a fella could ease out sneaky-like before dawn and erouch down in the lee of that down pine and maybe, if he was real patient, and didn't wiggle too much shivering himself warm in the cold darkness, he just might take some of the sassiness out of one of the simpler bucks. Tune in tomorrow for the next thrilling chapter.

White Sox Talk Trade Terms

Seeking Deal With Boston Red Sox for Infielders

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Chuck Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox said he'll resume negotiations with the Boston Red Sox today in an attempt to pull off a baseball deal.

Comiskey and General Manager Joe Cronin held a lengthy telephone conversation yesterday in which "we threw around some names," Comiskey said.

Comiskey said he'd get in touch with White Sox Manager Mary Marion first and then talk to Cronin again.

Colorado Plane Disaster Recalls Other Bomb Plots

(FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES)

Gruesome murder plots which killed dozens of innocent air passengers and fliers as well as the intended victims destroyed planes in Canada and the Philippines six years ago in circumstances much like the crash of a United Air Lines plane on which 44 lost their lives on Nov. 1.

On Sept. 9, 1949, 23 were killed when a Canadian Pacific Airline plane was downed by a time bomb 40 miles from Quebec. Three persons were hanged for the crime: J. Albert Guay, whose aim was the murder of his wife, a passenger; Generaux Ruest, a cripplied Quebec watchmaker who fashioned the bomb, and Mrs. Arthur Pitre, Ruest's sister, who placed it aboard the plane. The motive was said to be Guay's love for another woman and an effort to collect insurance.

In the same year on May 7, a Philippines Airlines plane flying between Manila and Daet, exploded and 13 were killed. Three Filipinos were convicted and sentenced to die in the electric chair for planting a bomb loaded with TNT. Their purpose was to kill the owner of a motion picture theater. The motive never was made clear. Appeals of their convictions are pending in the Philippines Supreme Court.

On Sept. 24, 1952, a bomb exploded in the luggage compartment of a plane bound for Oaxaca, Mexico, but the aircraft made an emergency landing and only a few of the passengers were injured. Paco Sierra, an actor, and Emilio Arellano Schtelige, convicted of planting the bomb to kill seven passengers whose lives they had insured, were sentenced to 30 years' imprisonment.

Also in Mexico, a bomb exploded on May 9, 1953, in baggage being unloaded from a plane at Mazatlan killing three airport attendants. Jose Alfredo del Valle confessed he had put the bomb in his baggage to kill himself so that his relatives could collect insurance. But the bag in which it was concealed missed the plane on which he traveled. Del Valle also was sentenced to 30 years.

A time bomb also caused the crash on April 12, 1955 of an Air India Constellation in the South China Sea, killing seven crew members and 11 Red Chinese delegates to the African-Asian conference at Bandung. Last May 27th an Indonesian Investigating Commission announced that a bomb blew the liner apart a short time after it left Hong Kong.

I NEVER HAD IT SO GOOD

By a Wall Street Journal Subscriber

During the past 12 months, my income has increased more than $2,000 — thanks largely to things I have read in The Wall Street Journal. I hear people around me complaining about this and that. But not me. I never had it so good!

The Journal not only helps me earn more money — it also tells me how to get more value for the money I spend. For example, an automotive article helped me trade in my old car at the right time. An article on building supplies gave me ideas on remodeling my home and showed me how to save $700. Articles on taxes guide me on what to do to keep my taxes down.

This story is typical. The Journal is a wonderful aid to salaried men making $7,000 to $20,000 a year. It is valuable to owners of small business concerns. It can be of priceless benefit to ambitious young men.

The Wall Street Journal is the complete business DAILY. Has largest staff of writers on business and finance. The only business paper served by all four big press associations. It costs $20 a year, but you can get a Trial Subscription for three months for $6. Just tear out this ad and attach check for $6 and mail. Or tell us to bill you.

Published daily right in the Midwest to bring you vital business and Washington news immediately. Address: The Wall Street Journal, 711 W. Monroe St., Chicago 6, Ill.

Red Leader Waits High Court Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today takes up the case of Communist Leader Steve Nelson to decide whether enforcement of state sedition laws is barred by the federal Smith Act.

Oral arguments were to supplement those set forth in written briefs filed in advance with the court.

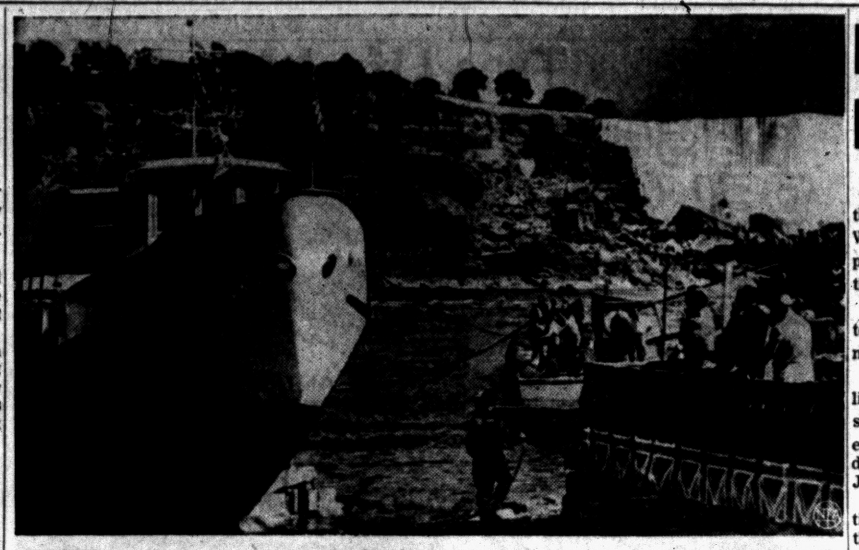

Nelson, former chairman of the Communist Party of Western Pennsylvania, was convicted in a state court in Pittsburgh on charges of violating the Pennsylvania Sedition Law.

He got a 20-year sentence, but Pennsylvania's Supreme Court set aside the conviction. It is said that sedition against the United States is a federal offense that can be prosecuted in federal courts only.

A 4-year course in motor transportation management, which planners say will fill an "urgent need" for administrative and supervisory personnel in the industry, will be opened next fall at the Tri-State College of Engineering and Commerce at Angola, Ind.

To be offered as a major in the college's department of commerce, the course will lead to a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

The move was officially endorsed recently by the National Committee on Education of the American Trucking Assns.

The 12-quarter course will include subjects in general business categories as well as a comprehensive group of subjects pertaining exclusively to the motor transport field.

Williams Says Dems 'Seize the New' Ideas

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams says the difference between Republicans and Democrats is that Republicans "cling to the old things," and Democrats, "seize the new."

"Because of this difference," Williams told the Wayne County Democratic Business and Professional Commiteee yesterday, "the role of business leadership in tomorrow's world will belong more to the Democrats than to Republicans."

"Time has got to run in our favor," Williams said. "If it doesn't, America is going to go down hill, and down hill fast."

More than 300 Democratic business and professional people attended the meeting. It was the second meeting of its kind. The first was held Nov. 8 in Lansing.

Mother, 101, to Fight for Will Settlement

DETROIT (AP) — Attorneys representing a 101-year-old Detroit woman seeking a share in the three million dollar estate of her daughter refused yesterday a $100,000 settlement in the case.

Milton Selander, attorney for Mrs. Wilhelmina Van Etten, told Probate Judge James H. Sexton his client would take the legal fight to New York courts.

The estate was left by Mrs. Agnes Barringere who died six months ago in New York at the age of 69. Mrs. Van Etten was ignored in her daughter's will.

Selander and the National Bank of Detroit were named general guardians to represent Mrs. Van Etten's interests in the case. She has been a bed patient in a Detroit hospital since last June.

Directors Vote Higher Dividend

An annual dividend of 75 cents a share was voted for the 40,000 outstanding shares of Pontiac State Bank stock yesterday by the bank's board of directors.

President Milo J. Cross said the dividend was an increase of 15 cents per share over last year.

He also pointed out the dividend was paid on a larger number of shares.

In September, the board approved a one-for-three stock split which increased the number of shares from 30,000 to 40,000.

Public Service Auditors Recommend Rate Raise

LANSING (AP) — The staff of the state Public Service Commission has recommended a $103,000 rate increase in the contract between the Upper Michigan Power and Light Co. and the City of Escanaba.

In a report presented at a hearing yesterday, staff auditors recommended a rate of 1.243 cents per kilowatt hour, against 8.85 cents per kilowatt hour paid by the city in 1954.

This would give the company a fair return of seven per cent on its investment, staff members said.

John H. McCarthy, commission chairman, said the staff's report would be studied and acted upon by the commission in "a few weeks."

Bank Merger Rumored Near

DETROIT (INS)—A merger of the Detroit Bank and the Detroit Wabeek Bank and Trust Co. reportedly may be affected within the next 10 days to two weeks.

Merger negotiations were said to have been going on for several months.

The negotiators reportedly would like to get their agreement into shape and submitted to stockholders in time for the new consolidated bank to begin operations Jan. 1.

The enlarged Manufacturers National Bank will be launched on the first day of 1956. Stockholders of Manufacturers and Industrial National were to meet today to approve the merger terms.

Merger of the Detroit Bank and the Detroit Wabeek has been reported ever since the Detroit Trust Co. and the Wabeek State Bank of Detroit consolidated July 30.

Detroit-Wabeek was said to be looking for another merger in order to provide city-wide banking service.

Another reason reported was the fact that the combined manufacturers-industrial deposits will be almost on the same level of the Detroit Bank.

'Educators Must Up Productivity'

President of University Urges Schools to Ease Enrollment Problems

EAST LANSING (AP)—Two speakers told the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities today that higher education must increase the productivity of its staff and plants if it is to keep up with mounting enrollments.

* * *

Dr. Lewis Webster Jones, president of Rutgers University and of the association, said that college enrollments will be doubled by 1960 or 1970 on the basis of population increases and a growing desire of Americans to go to college.

Educators must be inventive in devising labor-saving methods for teachers, Dr. Jones said.

He and Dr. Glen W. Giddings of the General Electric Co. both argued that industry has increased the pay of workers only by increasing their productivity and that the same must be done in education.

Dr. Jones suggested as possibilities larger classes, fuller use of classrooom space, removal of many "narrow specialties" to graduate, professional, trade schools and to extension and short courses.

The number of classes in such subjects where reading, writing and digesting information are essential could be reduced, he said.

Auto Parts Owners Seek License Aid

Two men, who own an auto dismantling and parts company at 537-43 S. Saginaw St., are seeking an Oakland County Circuit Court order forcing Pontiac to issue them a new license.

Samuel Toby and Manuel E. Gorman, co-partners in General Auto Parts, claim the city has refused them a new 1-year license because their property lies partly on commercial zoned land and partly on residential.

The two allege a license has been issued them each year since 1936 and they have the right to continue their operation as a nonconforming use. No hearing date has been set.

Poland Discloses Trade Agreement With Yugoslavia

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Poland announced today a trade agreement with Yugoslavia which appeared part of a new Russian play to induce Marshal Tito back into the Soviet economic sphere.

Under the agreement, Poland is offering Marshal Tito credits at 2 per cent yearly interest to buy installations for food factories, mines and railway car plants.

SIMILARITY SEEN

Western diplomatic observers in Vienna saw in the agreement a similarity with Czechoslovakia's arms deal with Egypt and Russia's offer to provide India with industrial plants.

(In Belgrade, Associated Press Correspondent Boris Boskovic reported the deal was not likely to impress the Yugoslavs much, nor re-establish the close economic ties which existed between Marshal Tito and the East before 1948).

Radio Warsaw said the goods exchange in 1956 would total 28 million dollars. Poland will deliver coal, coke, rolled iron, sugar and machinery while Yugoslavia will export lead, zinc, pyrites, timber, cellulose, cast steel, tobacco and consumer goods.

Detroit, Wayne Lose $2 Million Tax Claim

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit and Wayne County today appeared to have lost a claim for more than $2,300,000 in back personal property taxes because of a U. S. Supreme Court decision.

The high court yesterday refused to receive a June 23 ruling by Federal Judge Thomas P. Thornton barring the city and county from collecting personal property taxes from corporations manufacturing parts for the nation's defense program.

The ruling was based on a suit by the Murray Corp., a contractor for the Air Force, which sought refund of a personal property tax of $67,714 paid to Detroit and $12,572 paid Wayne County in 1952.

First Reading Scheduled for Parking Bond Issue

First reading of an ordinance authorizing a $600,000 revenue bond issue is slated for tonight's City Commission meeting.

The money will be used to finance new municipal parking lots in the downtown area.

Also scheduled on the 29-point agenda is the introduction of two ordinances changing the zoning map and second reading of another change in the zone map.

The Commission is also set to consider communications from two attorneys and a clergyman, plus a circuit court summons on an injunction case filed by owners of an auto parts company.

Action is also slated in connection with street changes in the Pontiac Knolls Subdivision.

The city attorney is scheduled to report on the decision in a city suit against Waterford Township.

A report is due from the police department on a license application by a used auto parts firm and the Commission is scheduled to appoint two members to the Zoning Board of Appeals.

Also planned is a resolution requesting State Highway Dept. permission to place Christmas lights over Saginaw street.

The City Plan Commission is to report on rezoning property near Paddock and Perry Sts. to residential 1 and commercial 2 classifications.

Curb, gutter and drainage on Pearsall street from Franklin to Motor.

Sanitary sewer on Pearsall street from Franklin to Motor.

Water main in South boulevard from Bradford to Meadow; Tex avenue from South boulevard to end of existing main, and Meadow avenue from South boulevard to Michigan Airline Railroad.

Special assessment rolls are to be confirmed for sidewalk on north side of Menominee road from Seminole to east line, lot 18, Crofoot Western Addition, and sanitary sewer on Luther street from Highland to Bloomfield.

Worker, 66, Charged for 1926 Murder

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—A 66-year-old laborer who has lived here for more than a quarter of a century with his wife and four children was charged last night with the fatal shooting of a man in Pittsfield, Mass, 29 years ago.

Massachusetts police who placed the charge against Filipo Mancuso said he had agreed to waive extradition today and return to Pittsfield to face the charge.

Mancuso, known here as Michael Bertolinio, is charged with slaying Frank Litano, of Pittsfield, in front of Litano's home on June 20, 1926. Detective Michael Berry of Pittsfield and Massachusetts State Police Lt. John F. Horgan said Litano had pulled a knife on Mancuso following a night of drinking.

Mancuso notified his family some time thereafter of his whereabouts and his wife and three children came here. A fourth child was born in Easton.

Neither Berry nor Horgan would discuss the circumstances which led to Mancuso's arrest except to say it was the result of a "long investigation."

Carrying Gun Illegally Nets Probation Term

Robert Walter Jr., 34, of 484 Franklin Rd., yesterday was placed on one-year probation and assessed $200 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

Walters admitted Oct. 31 carrying a pistol illegally in Bloomfield Township Oct. 16.

Just a Washout

SANTA MARIA, Calif. (AP) — A movie crew spread 2,400 gallons of green vegetable dye over the 4,000-foot runway at Santa Maria Airport, location for scenes of "The Spirit of St. Louis." More than an inch of rain fell and the coloring disappeared. The crew will do it over and hope for sunshine.

TV Responsible for Innovation

Fans Want Quiet Video Announcers; Husing, Slater, Others Praised

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Stern was reminiscing about his 21 years as a sports broadcaster when he suddenly said:

* * *

"Now that television is here there never again will be big name sportscasters. These days on television everybody prays for the announcer to shut his mouth. And that's hard for a guy who's been trained to keep talking.

"We used to be the eyes of the nation. Now the nation can see."

Stern who is heard and seen on ABC radio and television and on movie newsreels, is one of the direct vocal descendants of the late Graham McNamee.

PRAISES HUSING

After McNamee the royal succession of sportscasters runs in part like this:

Ted Husing — "The greatest sports announcer ever born," says Stern. "I've always tried to pattern myself after him. More than any other person I think he's responsible for building football to the size it is today."

Bill Slater—"A great technician with tremendous erudition that he applied ideally to sports."

Red Barber—"The only sports announcer who with Ted Husing has the universal respect of sports writers."

Stern was stage manager for the Radio City Music Hall in New York back in 1934 when he wangled a chance to assist McNamee in a football game. Previously he'd done some radio announcing in his native Rochester, N.Y. He clicked with the radio audience in his broadcast with McNamee—and has been clicking ever since.

TV HURT FOOTBALL?

Are televised games seriously hurting college football?

"We went through the same hassel with radio in the 1930's," he says. "There were many efforts to bar radio from games. But gradually it became accepted. It's true that in bad weather television can cut down attendance at a game. But I think that after the novelty of television wears off it won't affect game attendance any more than radio has."

Lie Test Shows Widow Knew Nothing of Slaying

DETROIT (AP)—A lie detector test taken by Mrs. Mary Babel, 74, indicated she had no knowledge of the fatal shooting of her husband, police reported yesterday.

Her husband, Charles, 67, was found dead last Wednesday in the kitchen of his suburban Dearborn home.

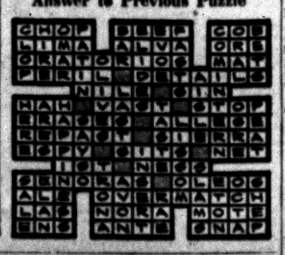

It was first believed Babel died of natural causes. An undertaker, however, found a .25 caliber bullet in the man's skull.

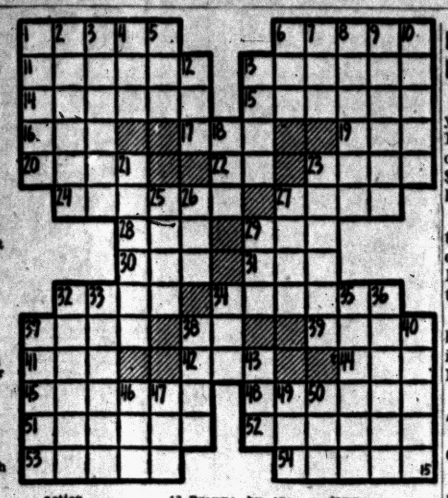

State Police Sgt. Jack Pletzke said the test also showed the widow knew nothing about a gun.

Gunman Robs Grocery

DETROIT (AP)—A gunman held up a Detroit grocery on the city's east side Monday and fled with $3,000 in cash, police reported. Police said the man fled in a car driven by an accomplice. It was believed the same pair who held up another east side market Friday.

Hollywood Headlines:

Former Vamp Criticizes Dog-Faced Screen Idols

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The trouble with today's film idols is that they're dog-faced, says Betty Blythe, a movie star before many of them were born.

Miss Blythe was one of the vamps of the silent screen, her most notable role being "The Queen of Sheba" in 1921. She knew how it felt to be world famous, then to fall from favor. Having recovered from the death of her devoted husband, director Paul Scardon, she has returned to acting.

She made her return on last week's Video Theater over NBC-TV. She paused to make this observation about today's leading men:

"It's too bad that they're dog-faced. They have pug noses and square faces, just like dogs. They may be good actors and have rugged qualities, but I always looked for beauty in actors. I think they should be pleasant to look at, the way they were in the silent days.

"We had them then. Men like Ramon Novarro, whom I discovered for films. And Ronald Colman, who was an extra in one of my pictures."

On the other hand, she admired present-day film queens for their freedom.

"They can do anything they want; I think it's wonderful," she remarked. "They can wear blue jeans in public or scarves on their heads. Nobody cares.

"When I was working for Sammy Goldwyn, he would never allow me to appear in public unless I was the height of elegance. How I longed to hop on a Fifth Ave. bus and take a ride! But it would have been unthinkable to mingle with the public."

What happens when a top star falls from fame? Miss Blythe, an attractive, lively woman at 62, was frank in discussing this.

"Suddenly the curly-headed, cute face of Clara Bow appeared on the screen," she said. "The Vamp was banished to make way for the coed."

The change came swiftly, she said. At the height of her career, she went to Europe to make films. She also appeared at London's Coliseum, breaking the record of the Russian Ballet.

"I was booked in for two weeks and stayed 12," she recalled.

When she came home after two years' absence, a columnist printed, "The Queen of Sheba has returned to Hollywood. Why?"

Between 1916 and 1928, she earned as high as $3,500 a week. In the year following her return, she didn't make a picture.

Miss Blythe returned to the stage, then joined her husband on a turkey ranch at Fontana, Calif. They lived there for 24 years and she gradually learned to forget that she was a movie star.

FCC Head, Radio Expert Declare New Method May Be Realized

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new technique may allow broadcasts up to 1,000 miles—perhaps paving the way for intercontinental TV—an FCC official and an industry radio expert suggested Monday.

Federal Communications Commissioner Edward M. Webster said a new "scatter" broadcasting method appeared to make possible "extremely reliable" circuits over distances of 100 to 1,000 miles.

This, "has opened up many interesting possibilities and will undoubtedly have a great impact upon future communications circuits between fixed points," Webster said in a paper prepared for a two-day symposium sponsored by the Institute of Radio Engineers and George Washington University.

Coleman Goateley, a Melpar Inc., electronics engineer, said the still - experimental system might "permit intercontinental television and perhaps reduced rates in radio-telephone systems." Goatley also said long distance defense communications might benefit.

A big barrier to putting European TV shows on American screens, and vice versa, has been the distance limitation. TV generally is limited to line-of-sight reception—perhaps about 50 miles.

* * *

Goatley likened the new technique to what happens when a powerful searchlight is aimed at the sky on a hazy night. The light is scattered by dust and small water droplets in the air.

Intent to Defraud Count Brings Probation Term

In Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday, Wyman G. Hall, 46, of 1991 McKean, Detroit, was placed on two-year probation and assessed $200 court costs by Judge George B. Hartrick.

He pleaded guilty Oct. 27 to obtaining the services of dirt hauling equipment owned by Charles Mayle, of Troy Township, with intent to defraud.

Hall falsely represented to Mayle he had a hauling job with a building contractor who would pay Mayle for use of the equipment.

'90 Red Subs Capable of Blocking Japs in War'

TOKYO (AP)—The commander of U.S. Navy forces in the Far East said today the 90 Russian submarines now stationed at Siberian bases could blockade Japan effectively in event of a war.

Vice Adm. William M. Callaghan told a luncheon at the Foreign Correspondents Club that at least 90 Russian submarines "are capable of blockading Japan unless additional forces are supplied by Japan or the United States."

HE'S HANDLED MY INSURANCE FOR YEARS...

You've often heard people say that, haven't you? And it implies an American way of doing business — a complete confidence in the other fellow's ethics and knowledge of his field.

The only important question is "Who is HE?" If the man who handles your insurance is a PROFESSIONAL independent insurance agent, you can rest easy. This man knows his business — and his business is one of the most complex of today's business sciences. More than that, he represents — not one company and one kind of policy — but the greatest insurance companies in the world with literally hundreds of policies to work with in setting up your insurance program so it is both CORRECT and CORRECTLY PRICED.

If, on the other hand, your insurance, like Topsy, has "just growed" . . . buying this policy because the seller was "a good guy" . . . or that policy because it seemed to be a "bargain" . . . don't let another day go by before you have your insurance situation analyzed.

We will be happy to make such an analysis for you without obligation. If your insurance is good, we'll tell you so. If not, we'll make suggestions and the decision is yours.

Very often such analysis reveals premium duplication, uninsured risks, and may result, too, in an actual saving to you. In any event, you will KNOW FOR SURE before you suffer a loss.

GOP Chairman Predicts Victory

Hall Says Republicans Will Sweep Congress, Presidential Elections

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Discounting any national political trend from results of last Tuesday's "odd year" elections, Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall says the GOP will sweep the 1956 elections.

At a news conference yesterday, preceding his speech before an Ohio Republican campaign conference, Hall said Republicans will win both the presidency and the Democrat-controlled U.S. Senate and House.

Whether or not President Eisenhower will run for re-election, Hall commented: "The decision will be his and his alone."

Hall said the farm situation is not good. But he blamed it on the Democrats who, he said, built up billions of dollars worth of surplus commodities during the Truman administration.

Abandoning flexible farm price supports in favor of rigid supports is not the answer to the problem, Hall insisted

The GOP chairman denied that certain Republicans in Congress failed to support the President's program.

He also said he would be surprised if Adlai E. Stevenson, 1952 Democratic presidential candidate, did not announce his 1956 candidacy today as certain quarters have predicted.
