

FITZ BITZ

FITZ BITZ NUMBER FOUR FRIDAY FEBRUARY 5, 1965 FREE

DIANNE STURMAN, STOUTENBURG TO REPRESENT FITZ

DEAN TO BE SCULPTURED IN SNOW WITH BEARD ADORNING HIS CHIN

After an enjoyable evening meeting the possible candidates for the Fitz representative in the snow queen contest, the men of Fitz went to the polls. Or more correctly the polls came to them. The result is that Miss Dianne Sturman will represent Fitz in the Snow queen contest. Also on the ballot was the choice for a snow statue. A bearded Dean Stoutenburg was selected. Your help is needed to build this masterpiece. Also featured will be various athletic events. If you are interested in any of the events contact Don Inman.

MONEY APPROVED FOR FITZ FIREPLACE

The placing of the $60 allotted to Fitz from the vending machine profits into the fireplace fund was overwhelmingly approved Mon. night. The other business included the setting up of several committees. Chuck Prange will be the chief organizer of the Fitz pinochle tournament. A committee to fix up the study room will be headed by Bob Fachine. Dave Gamage will look into having tea or coffee in the lounge each night. Bruce Mitton will look into a new arrangement for the lounge furniture

POETRY BY LAMAR

Dear Mr. Editor:
Please excuse Lamar
from his parting this week. He didn't feel up to it. Sincerely
The Mommy

SUGGESTION OF THE WEEK

President Johnson would be a lot more popular in the south if he would stop riding around in that Lincoln.

OUR HONESTY IN ADVERTISING AWARD

This month goes to the Washington used car dealer who advertises: We would rather sell 300 cars for just a $50 profit than to sell 50 cars at a $225 profit.

WHO WOULDN'T?

"One thing scientists can't seem to get the bugs out of is fresh paint"

Changing Times