Castro Warns: Cuba Will Fire at Overflights

Threatens Use of Soviet Rockets Even if It Unleashes War

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro said yesterday that if negotiations fail to halt American reconnaissance flights over Cuba, his forces will use Soviet rockets to shoot down the U.S. planes.

"If by shooting down one of those planes, we unleash a world conflagration, we shall not be responsible," Castro said in a belligerent 2-hour and 17-minute May Day speech.

"We have made, are making and will make efforts to see those flights cease, and cease they must," Castro said.

In Moscow, Russia flaunted a new antiaircraft missile and issued a new warning to the United States that reconnaissance flights over Cuba could bring the world to the brink of war.

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev himself delivered the sharply-worded statement after the anti-aircraft missile was trundled across Red Square in the annual May Day Parade of Russian military might.

Western military observers said the rocket apparently was designed to bring down low-flying planes.

KREMLIN RECEPTION

Khrushchev, speaking of U.S. flights over Cuba at a Kremlin reception after the massive Moscow display ended, said:

"We would like to warn those who are playing with fire once again to make them understand that by subverting the principles of peaceful co-existence, displaying disrespect for other countries they could draw the world into the abyss of another world war . . . ."

The Soviet leader denied that the Kremlin had sanctioned the spy flights in a secret deal with the United States.

LOW AT STERN—The USS Card, victim of an explosion that blasted a hole below water yesterday, rests low at the stern in Saigon Harbor. The Card, a baby aircraft carrier, partially refloated at high tide, and it was hoped makeshift patching will prevent sinking again. None of the 73-man crew was injured in the blast.

Vessel Sunk; 8 Wounded by Hand Grenade

Viet Cong Is Blamed for Injured Men, Hole Ripped in Transport

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) —A bomb blast today wounded eight Americans —five officers and three enlisted men—on a Saigon boulevard in sight of a U.S. aircraft ferry crippled and temporarily sunk by a predawn explosion.

Security officers blamed both incidents on the Communist Viet Cong, considering them studied attacks of the May Day weekend.

The ship was the 9,800-ton Card, demoted to transport work since World War II duty against German U-boats in the Atlantic.

Identification of the casualties of the bomb attack was temporarily withheld. Four of them were hospitalized.

The others were treated at an American dispensary and dismissed.

One Vietnamese also was wounded by a fragment.

High tide at noon and laboring pumps freed the Card from the bottom muck of the river. Divers who inspected the gaping hole below the waterline in the baby flattop, a World War II carrier credited with seven Nazi U-boat kills, said they could not immediately determine whether the blast that sent her down was external or internal.

A man either in a car or on a bicycle — witnesses disagreed — hurled the grenade into a street running alongside the river front in the downtown area.

The full blast hit one man in the back. Fragments injured three others. Blood stains were strewn across a 30-foot stretch of pavement.

American and Vietnamese security officers rushed to the scene, about 200 yards from the U.S. Embassy. Ambulances carried the wounded to a hospital.

A U. S. spokesman said when the Card was hit it was presumed that Red Viet Cong guerrillas had crept under the Saigon commercial wharf where she was moored and exploded a charge against the hull.

The vessel settled to the bottom of the 48-foot deep river. All the 73 civilian crewmen escaped injury.

'All Military Bases Face Economy Cuts'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. MacNamara considers every U. S. military base a potential target of his economy drive.

Every post or installation is in "jeopardy" if it is inefficient, McNamara yesterday told a group of Massachusetts congressmen concerned about the future of the Boston Naval Shipyard and the Watertown, Mass., arsenal.

The defense secretary said he had a secret list of installations where costs could be cut and he would be "derelict" in his duty if he did not act.

The delegation met with McNamara to protest vigorously the scheduled closing of the Watertown arsenal that will cut 1,849 jobs from the area.

However, McNamara refused to change his plan to close the arsenal by September, 1967, claiming the defense department can get the arsenal's goods cheaper on a competitive basis through private industry.

He told the group that the defense department is studying 8,000 installations for possible economy moves and that a secret list has been made of bases likely to be affected.

The defense secretary said since he entered the cabinet he has taken 551 announced actions to get defense costs down.

He said these actions have affected 80,000 jobs.

McNamara said the difficulty in finding job possibilities for shipyard workers was a reason why no Navy shipyard closings have been announced.

'Caller' Held for Mind Test

Romney Laughs at Armed Intruder Visit

LANSING (AP) — Although Gov. George W. Romney laughed off the incident, police today held for mental examination the man who marched into Romney's office carrying a loaded pistol in his attache case and a folding knife in his pocket.

★ ★ ★

Held on a 48-hour psychiatric detainer in a Lansing hospital ward is Charles P. English, 37, of Bogota, Colombia, and formerly of Miami. Police said he has a history of mental disturbance for which he was once hospitalized.

English said he was sent here by former Vice President Richard Nixon.

He got one step inside Romney's inner office before state police bodyguard Jay Kennedy, 32, grabbed him by the shoulder and yanked him back.

★ ★ ★

"He said Nixon and I should run on the national ticket," Romney said with a laugh after he and Kennedy talked later with English privately.

NIXON APPOINTMENT

English had introduced himself to several of the workers in the outer offices and told Mrs. Margaret Little, Romney's appointment secretary, that Nixon had arranged his appointment.

He tried to follow her into the inner office, and in the doorway said to Romney: "My name is English and I want to talk to you." That was as far as he got.

Kennedy sat him down forcibly in a chair and asked him to open the case. When English refused, Kennedy opened it, saw the .38 caliber revolver, and arrested English.

Police said in Bogota, where English's wife and three children live, he has a permit to own and carry the gun, but this is not valid in Michigan.

Among the trim 3-year-old thoroughbreds answering the bugle for the 1¼-mile race were Western champion Hill Rise, unbeaten this season, and Northern Dancer, the Eastern ruler.

Barring last-minute withdrawals, America's foremost horse race held $114,300 for the winner. In addition to the 100,000 at historic Churchill Downs, millions could see the race at 4:30 p.m. EST on television.

The weatherman promised partly cloudy skies and temperatures around 70 by post time.

Long striding Hill Rise, from El Peco Ranch in California, came in with eight consecutive victories.

CANADA FIRST

A victory by Northern Dancer, owned by E. P. Taylor of Toronto, would be the first for Canada.

Opposing them were nine colts and a gelding, Roman Brother.

Ishkoodah, son of Needles, was the only son of a Derby winner in today's field. Needles, 1956 champion, holds the record winner's share $123,450.

State Senate Okays Legislative Pay Hike

LANSING (AP)—The Senate yesterday passed, 22-9, a bill which could make Michigan's 144 lawmakers the highest-paid in the nation at $12,500 a year, including expenses.

Over the nine Republican negative votes, the Senate sent the raise—included in the $32.9 appropriation for general government — to the House for agreement on several Senate changes.

The House already has approved the $4,250 pay increase, but the Senate knocked off House-opposed bonuses for party leaders of both chambers.

The House must concur in this and other amendments to send the measure to Gov. George W. Romney for his signature.

Five of the bills in Romney's proposed budget appeared headed for House-Senate conference committees after the House approved them with amendments.

KEY ISSUES

Among key issues slated for conference appeared to be a $250,000 appropriation for a traffic safety center at Michigan State University, and $100,000 stricken from a state scholarship program.

The traffic center money was left out as the House restored some $7.1 million in operating funds to state universities and colleges, which had been cut in committee.

The bill for higher education was approved by the House at a total of $147.5 million after the last of the $7.1 million was restored.

Lady Astor Dies; First in Parliament

LONDON (AP)—Nancy, Lady Astor, the Virginia belle who despised liquor but loved politics so much she became the first woman to sit in Britain's Parliament, died today.

She would have been 85 on May 19.

The woman whose acid wit riled countless Britons and delighted countless others during her quarter of a century in Parliament died at Grimsthorpe Castle, the Lincolnshire home of her daughter, Lady Ancaster, northeast of London.

The exact nature of her illness was not disclosed, but a member of her household said: "This is not a sudden thing. It is just old age."

June Decision on Districting?

Romney Aide Reports on High Court Suits

LANSING (AP) — A U. S. Supreme Court decision furnishing guidance for settling Michigan's legislative redistricting problem is expected before mid-June, Gov. George W. Romney's chief legal aide said today.

Robert Danhof reported to the governor on talks he held in Washington, D. C., yesterday with U.S. Solicitor General Archibald Cox, who has an intervenor in six legislative suits before the court.

He said Cox indicated the government expects a decision on all six cases before the U.S. court ends its term in June.

One of these could provide the "guidelines" the Michigan Supreme Court says it wants before making its own decision on legislative redistricting.

★ ★ ★

As Danhof reported on his meeting with Cox, efforts in the legislature to come up with a new districting plan appeared to have sustained a new breakdown.

WALKED OUT

Talks by a special 14-member House negotiating committee were broken off today when Rep. George Montgomery, D-Detroit, accusing Republicans of using false vote totals, walked out of a meeting.

"We still are willing to negotiate but I can't stand any more of their nonsense," said Montgomery. "They are trying to gyp us with arithmetic."

The dispute centered around efforts to devise a House plan that would give each party an equal number of "sure" districts in the 110-seat House with the rest set up as "swing" districts that could go either way.

Republicans caucused at mid-morning and agreed to try to resume negotiations with the Democrats after a long discussion on whether to try again to line up enough votes to push a plan of their own without Democratic help.

GOP members reported, however, "the 56 votes weren't there" when the question came up in caucus.

Bomb Blasts Dance Hall at Wixom Camp

A bomb made out of gunpowder exploded early this morning at a summer camp in Wixom, blowing up a portion of a dance hall.

★ ★ ★

Extensive damage was done to the roof, porch, dance floor and basement of the two-story frame building at the Detroit Finnish Summer Camp, 2490 Lyonia.

Police Chief Frank Jadzinski said the explosion, which could be heard three miles away, occurred at 2:55 a.m. He said about a quarter of the building was blown up by the blast.

The building was vacant at the time. The camp is open on weekends, but there was no activity there last night, said Chief Jadzinski.

The bomb was placed on a porch near a door on the east side of the building. In addition to the building, a juke box, tables and chairs and a public address system were damaged in the bombing.

Suspect in Kidnap Questioned, Freed

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Federal Bureau of Investigation early today questioned and then cleared a woman suspected of kidnaping the Fronczak baby.

Marlin W. Johnson, head of the Chicago's FBI agents, said after four hours of questioning that the woman, a blond who was dressed in a white nurse-type uniform, was not a suspect in Monday's abduction.

Johnson and William Murphy, leading the police investigative team, directed the questioning.

Vigil Protests Church's Stand

PITTSBURGH (AP) — About 1,300 Methodist churchgoers from throughout the country staged a demonstration in downtown Pittsburgh today, saying their Church's stand on integration is not positive enough.

They came from as far away as Chicago, Detroit, Birmingham, Ala., Atlanta, Ga., and Jackson, Miss., and belong to a group called Methodists for church renewal.

After an all-night vigil of prayers, sermons and hymn singing in two downtown churches the group, white and Negro, layman and minister, marched to the Civic Arena where the General Conference of the Methodist Church is holding its quadrennial meeting.

They knelt and joined hands on sidewalks outside the arena and quietly sang hymns. No police were about.

VOLUNTARY PLAN

The participants in the protest poured into the city Friday night just hours after the General Conference adopted a voluntary plan to remove racial barriers.

The plan calls for transfer over the next four years of the church's central jurisdiction, which represents some 375,000 Negroes, into the five other jurisdictions which are drawn on geographical lines. No enforcement mechanism was provided.

The plan passed by an overwhelming standing vote. But many of the 900 delegates feel it does not go far enough or fast enough.

One minister called it "very definitely a Southern victory."

PLANNED PILGRIMAGE

Ralph Roy, a layman from New York City, said the pilgrimage had been planned for several months.

"We are not so much protesting what they did," he said. "We are protesting the mood of the conference which was unwilling to move forthrightly for integration of the Methodist Church."

★ ★ ★

Immediately after Friday's vote some integrationists said they would push for a stronger program before the conference ends next Friday.

The Rev. William H. James, a Negro delegate to the conference and pastor of New York's Metropolitan Community Methodist Church, said the protest heightens the possibility of a new vote.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Mr. James said the plan as passed leaves intact a provision of the Methodist constitution passed in 1939 which calls for separation of white and Negro members.

He said he would not be satisfied until the conference "takes everything out of the constitution about race. What they did was only good publicity."

The plan sets up a committee to study elimination of the central jurisdiction but provides no finances or staff, the Rev. Mr. James said. He added that the main weakness was in its voluntary provisions "which means no one has to move under the constitution unless they want to"

Youths Injured in Racial Fight

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Scuffles between Negro and white youths injured several persons as racial demonstrations continued in Nashville, Tenn., for the fifth straight day.

John Lewis, chairman of the national Student Non-Vilent Coordinating Committee, was among those injured. He was among nearly 100 arrested earlier this week.

Lewis was charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors by persuading them to stay away from school and join the demonstrations.

The scuffles broke out when Negro and white youths swarmed around a sandwich shop which closed its doors and refused to admit customers.

★ ★ ★

The group of about 150 marched from a church earlier chanting "Freedom" and carrying signs saying "We Demand Freedom."

Two sticks of dynamite with a fuse that fizzled were found in a Kansas City driveway where private property was being sold to a Negro family. Officers said the 10-foot fuse was blackened and that it apparently was extinguished by an early morning rain.

Police in Fort Wayne, Ind., forced a path for Gov. George Wallace of Alabama through about 200 massed pickets.

Wallace walked through the pickets shortly after 20 firemen had searched a hotel following a bomb scare. An anonymous telephone caller said a time bomb was set to explode during Wallace's news conference in the hotel.

No explosives were found.

SOVIET MOBILE ROCKETS—At the May Day parade in Moscow yesterday, the Soviets showed their latest antiaircraft missiles mounted on tractors. The celebration was coupled with the warning that Russia stands ready to smash any attacker.

Goldwater Backer Sees No 'Stop-Barry' Candidate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., predicted Saturday opponents won't be able to "zero in" on a coalition candidate against Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., in the GOP presidential nomination race.

★ ★ ★

Tower, who has been campaigning actively for Goldwater, scoffed in an interview at reported recent efforts of backers of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge to effect a stop-Goldwater agreement with supporters of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller's strategists greeted coolly overtures reportedly made to them by Robert Mullen, national coordinator of the Draft-Lodge Committee.

"There won't be any effective stop-Goldwater movement because the opposition hasn't been able to agree on anybody to oppose Barry," Tower said. "They just can't zero in on any coalition candidate.

BIG HAZARDS

"One of the reasons is that there are some mighty big political hazards involved for anybody who heads up a stop-Goldwater drive, whether Barry wins the nomination or loses it."

Tower said he is confident Goldwater can win despite an expected setback in the May 15 Oregon primary.

★ ★ ★

Polls indicate that Lodge, serving as U. S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, will top the ballot which lists him, Goldwater, Rockefeller, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.

"The Oregon primary has already been discounted," Tower said. "Barry has virtually conceded that he isn't going to win it and is concentrating on California."

POOR SHOWING

Tower said he doesn't believe a poor showing in Oregon would affect the outcome of his candidate's head-on collision with Rockefeller in the June 2 California primary. He said even if supporters of Lodge, who is not entered in California, gave their votes to Rockefeller he doesn't believe the outcome would be affected materially.

"Lodge just isn't strong in California," he asserted.

If Goldwater gets California's nominating votes, Tower said he thinks the Arizona senator will go into the July San Francisco convention with at least 550 votes toward the 655 needed to win the prize.

"I think he can make it on the second ballot," Tower said. "It could happen on the first ballots, but only if some of the delegations start switching then. But if he comes close on the first ballot, it certainly will be difficult for his opponents to stop him on the second."

Rival Blasts GOP Unit for Romney Plug

Endorsement of Gov. George W. Romney for reelection by the Oakland County Republican executive committee has drawn a verbal blast from his only announced rival.

George N. Higgins, Ferndale auto dealer, rebuked the GOP executive committee for endorsing Romney in a primary election.

"No county committee has the right to endorse anyone in a primary election," said the former state senator.

Higgins promised that the committee would be in for some surprises.

"Well over 3,000 persons in Oakland have signed my petitions and more than 12,000 have signed them throughout the state," he said.

Higgins is the only announced GOP candidate for governor. Romney has not yet announced whether he will seek reelection.

However, party leaders have been circulating Romney petitions.

Fidel: Cuba Will Down Overflights

American talks on Cuba," apparently referring to reports of an informal cocktail party conversation here between U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler and First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan.

NOT CLEAR

It was not clear exactly what Soviet-American "understanding" Khrushchev was denying, since Kohler and Mikoyan during their conversation at a Japanese reception merely reaffirmed the positions of their respective governments.

The 70-year-old premier once again stated his government's support of Cuba in the event of any attack.

"The U.S.S.R. fully supports the five conditions Fidel Castro advances as slogans safeguarding the independence, security and peace of the Cuban people," he said.

"We have always said and declare once again that a threat to Cuba, the continuation of the violation of her sovereignty, the instrusions into Cuba's airspace can have disastrous consequences."

Castro said his position was not based on any Soviet pledge of air or intercontinental missiles in an armed showdown with the United States. He said he assumed all responsibility for Cuban actions against the U.S. flights.

He warned Cubans they must be ready "for a long fight that will never end" if the United States invades and occupies Cuba as a result of Cuban action against U.S. planes.

Laos Premier Controls Arms

Souvanna Merges Neutralists, Rightists

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma announced Saturday he was assuming direction of all military affairs in Laos after a merger of neutralist and right-wing factions.

He made the announcement on the eve of his departure for Khang Khay and a conference with his half-brother, Prince Souphanouvong, leader of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.

★ ★ ★

The premier of the shaky coalition regime met with reporters inside his residence for the first time since a right-wing military junta seized control in Vientiane two weeks ago. Previously he had talked to newsmen from an outside balcony.

As minister of defense as well as premier, he said, "I will effectively direct all military affairs."

NO WORD YET

There was no word from Gen. Phoum Nosavan, a deputy premier and right-wing leader. In the past similar proclamations of unity have not been followed by concrete actions to make them effective.

Souvanna said that he could not perform his defense duties before because the right-wing faction had control of the army. He added that reforms will be instituted in the armed forces to return it to the situation that prevailed prior to a coup staged by Gen. Kong Le, a neutralist, in August 1960.

★ ★ ★

This led to speculation that right-wing and neutralist armed forces would be merged. The neutralists have been under separate command since the 1960 coup.

"The group we used to call the 'Savannakhet group' (right wing) has disappeared," Souvanna declared. "I am speaking in the name of the center (neutralist) and right wing."

TO MAKE APPEAL

He addressed an appeal to the Pathet Lao to cease all military activity in order to create a better atmosphere for the Sunday meeting with Souphanaouvong. "I will ask them (Pathet Lao) to help me by softening their position so that I can solve the Loatian crisis which has lasted very long."

★ ★ ★

Fighting between the Pathet Lao and right-wing troops flared on the Plaine des Jarres last week. Western sources claim the Pathet Lao is backed by as many as 6,000 regulars of the Communist Vietminh.

Souvanna's statement followed a joint British-Soviet declaration in London Friday night demanding restoration of the coalition regime and denouncing the right-wing military coup.

Proposed Budget Jump Won't Boost Tax Rate

BIRMINGHAM — A 1964-65 municipal budget increased $70,348 but not costing property owners any more than they are now paying will be recommended by Manager L. R. Gare to the City Commission Monday night.

★ ★ ★

The hike to $1,939,711 includes salaries of two new city employes and a 2 per cent general raise for all personnel, among other items.

Suggested expenditures would require a 17.2-mill tax rate, netting the same amount as the present 18-mill levy, according to Gare.

The income would remain constant because valuations in the city have been increased about 20 per cent to bring them up to state equalized level.

★ ★ ★

The levy would bring in some $1,345,933, with the remainder coming from nontax revenue collected through municipal fees.

WAGES, INSURANCE

Gare said the recommended figure includes $34,740 for wage revisions and minor changes in the insurance program.

The manager also is asking for funds to allow the police department to hire another detective and the sign and parking meter department an assistant. Estimated salaries for the two would total $8,000.

Gare's tentative figures show $200,641 earmarked for capital improvements.

★ ★ ★

With a total of $313,241 in the fund, the city could afford several street improvements it has been considering, Gare noted.

PROJECTED PROJECTS

These include widening of Chester and Oakland, and improvement of the Forest-Woodward intersection.

The City Commission will begin its study of the budget Monday, gearing its work to a May 26 public hearing.

Cornerstone laying ceremonies for the new Birmingham Masonic Temple will be conducted tomorrow by Newton S. Bacon, most worshipful grand master for Michigan.

The 11 other grand lodge officers will accompany Bacon for the 2 p.m. rite.

Now under construction on the west side of Woodward south of Chesterfield, the new temple is expected to be completed by late August.

Surviving are his wife, Helen, and a sister.

Senator Fears Rights Snags

Wants House Okay Before Bill Changes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., told the Senate today it may be erecting obstacles to final passage of a civil rights bill if it amends the House-passed version.

★ ★ ★

He said he wasn't arguing that the House bill should be passed without change. But he suggested that before voting on an amendment, the Senate should consider whether the House would go along with the change.

The Illinois Democrat, an ardent civil rights supporter, led off Senate debate at another Saturday meeting in the eighth week of debate on the controversy, which has been pending for 46 sessions.

FIRST VOTE

Leaders expect the first vote on an amendment next week, probably on Wednesday.

Douglas said the Senate leadership should get assurances from House leaders than any Senate amendment will be agreed to by the House.

★ ★ ★

"I would like to have the best bill possible," he said. "But the choices we have in the real world are sometimes cruel."

Douglas said a major pitfall for getting any kind of bill passed — if the Senate tacks on amendments—was the chairman of the House Rules Committee, Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va.

AVOWED OPPONENT

He said Smith was an avowed opponent of the civil rights bill, had delayed the 1957 act considerably, and could be expected to do the same again.

Dems Try to Reshape Poverty Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—A major reshaping of the administration's antipoverty bill is being attempted by Democrats on the House Education and Labor Committee.

Although some provisions recommended by President Johnson may be scrapped in the process, the Democrats working on it say the end result should be a stronger bill than Johnson submitted.

★ ★ ★

There is trouble at the moment, however, because each member has a different idea of how the program should be focused, and agreement may be hard to come by.

There also is a problem of committee jurisdiction. The chairmen of two other committees have had to be brought in on an informal basis to work on some of the provisions.

MORE FUNDS

The chief trust at this stage appears to be to beef up the educational features in the bill, particularly to channel more money to schools in urban slums and impoverished rural areas.

Sections dealing with aid for poor farmers, small businessmen and unemployed fathers on relief are in trouble and will have to be drastically revised if they are to remain in the bill.

The Democrats also are considering a new program that is aimed at helping widows who are past the age when they can get a job but not yet 62, when they can qualify for Social Security benefits.

One change already agreed on would establish an allocation formula to fix the sum each state would get instead of leaving it to the director of the program to determine by his own means.

★ ★ ★

Another would permit the entrance of women into the Job Training Corps, limited by the administration to boys 16 to 22. How large a percentage should be women has not been settled.

Driver Charged in Car Deaths of Patrolman, Rider

NEW YORK (AP) — A patrolman questioning an auto driver on a Brooklyn street Friday night was run down by the driver and killed, police said. A passenger in the car was injured fatally when the speeding auto then crashed into a bus.

Police said patrolmen Edmond G. Schrempf, 25, and Cornelius Blackshear stopped a car and asked to see the driver's license. Without warning, the car shot forward, dragging Schrempf for several blocks and finally throwing him under the wheels.

The fleeing car then crashed into a bus, injuring the passenger, Adrian Valentine, 20, Brooklyn. He died later in a hospital.

The driver, Oscar Vazquez, 22, Brooklyn, was charged with vehicular homicide and driving while intoxicated.

Admits Killing, Police Claim

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —Joseph Francis Bryan Jr., charged with kidnaping in Tennessee and South Carolina, has confessed to killing a 7-year-old St. Petersburg boy, police said.

Chief of Detectives Walter Tipton said the FBI notified him Friday of Bryan's purported confession. The FBI in New Orleans, where Bryan was in custody, declined comment on Tipton's statement.

* * *

The body of Lewis Wilson was found Thursday in a palmetto thicket at Venice, Fla., 40 miles south of St. Petersburg. Police said a man identified as Bryan got his car stuck in the sand there the day Wilson disappeared.

John David Robison, 10, Mount Pleasant, S.C., was found dead March 31 just north of Miami. Bryan was charged in Robison's disappearance as well as the kidnaping of Dennis Burke, 8, Humboldt, Tenn. Burke was with Bryan when he was apprehended in New Orleans this week.

State Senate OKs Tax Exemption for Big Industry

LANSING (AP) — A $4.5-million tax exemption for heavy industry, including a sliding scale of reimbursement to soften its impact on local governments, passed the Senate 22-8 Friday.

However, this did not mean final defeat for a bipartisan group of senators who had fought for full and continuing reimbursement.

The downward-sliding, nine-year scale, plus a new local-option feature written in by the Senate, were not in the bill when the House passed it. The House version called for total reimbursement.

CHRYSLER IDEA

The property tax exemption for tools, dies, jigs and fixtures was asked by Chrysler Corp., which told Gov. George W. Romney its immediate expansion would be in Ohio instead of the Detroit area unless the bill passes into law.

Family Quarrel Erupts: Man Dead; 2 Wounded

CARO (AP) — A family quarrel burst into a three-hour seige Friday in which a Caro man wounded his wife and a policeman, officers said.

Police said the body of Orville Sybert, 43, was found in a tear gas-filled upstairs bedroom of his home. A rifle was found nearby, they said.

★ ★ ★

Police said Sybert had wounded his wife, Ladauna, 30, and Tuscola County Deputy James Barriger, 35. Both were treated at Caro Community Hospital.

Mrs. Sybert suffered a wood splinter wound on her right arm. She was fleeing the house when Sybert fired, officers said.

Barriger suffered a flesh wound in the neck when he answered a family trouble call at the Sybert home. He returned to duty after being treated.

Witnesses said more than 2,000 people in this Thumb-area community of 3,500 watched as some 20 police officers from neighboring communities attempted to get Sybert to surrender.

Police did not fire a shot, but later used tear gas in an attempt to get Sybert to surrender. He barricaded himself in the house after his wife telephoned Tuscola deputies following an argument.

Mrs. Sybert later told Caro Police Chief Clayton Montei that the quarrel was over "his licking" a stepchild last Sunday until she bled. The child, Christina Smith, 8, was not at home Friday.

Police said Mrs. Velva Holmes, of Caro, had fled the house with Sybert's son, John, 5, during the argument. Mrs. Holmes was working at the Sybert home.

Tuscola deputy Robert Larsen crashed through the front door to rescue another Sybert child, 2-year-old Sidney who had been seen sitting on the living room floor.

When police were assured that Christina, another stepchild, Kenneth Smith, 14, and a third Sybert child, 2-month-old Laurie, were not in the house, they fired four tear gas shells.

An hour passed and Sybert did not report. A deputy entered and found the body.

17 Italian Schoolboys Drown

MARSALA, Italy (UPI)—Skylarking schoolboys upset a motor launch off the coast of Sicily yesterday, dumping about 30 youths and 4 or 5 priests into the sea. Seventeen students were drowned.

Warm weather and a calm sea aided rescue efforts.

The boat was one of three rented to carry 90 students and a dozen priests from Marsala's Salesian Institute on a May Day outing to the isle of Mozia, a mile offshore.

It had traveled barely 200 yards when it overturned.

★ ★ ★

"The boys were excited and were acting up," said Father Vito C. Falzone. "The boat capsized and I lost my glasses. I couldn't see, and my robes were dragging me down.

COULDN'T HELP

"There was nothing I could do to help them."

Students on the excursion ranged in age from 10 to 18, and many of the younger boys could not swim.

Sixteen-year-old Michaelangelo Turrisi, who was studying for the priesthood, saved the lives of four or five nonswimmers by towing them to the overturned boat before he drowned.

★ ★ ★

All of the bodies were recovered and taken to a hospital here, where relatives were making arrangements for burial today.

The Bereans Did Their Own Thinking

Not many of us think for ourselves when it comes to matters in religion. We prefer to leave religious subjects and Bible issues to those supposedly trained and skilled in this field—the priests, theologians, pastors, and ministers. Sometimes we get the idea that the Bible cannot be understood by common people. Some religious leaders even teach and encourage this view.

Does the Bible say anything about the ability and the responsibility of the average person to understand its message? Most certainly it does.

To the Christians at Ephesus, Paul wrote: "Wherefore be ye not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is" (Ephesians 5:17).

Surely God does not require of man that which is beyond his ability.

The Jews of Berea, for example, are described in the New Testament as "noble." Yet, they were not famous, nor were they rich or powerful. In fact, they were somewhat obscure. The description of their nobility is recorded in Acts 17:11:

"These were more noble than those in Thessalonica in that they received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the scriptures daily, whether these things were so."

This reference to the Bereans is significant because it is plainly a tribute to a religious people. The Bereans were noble in attitude. They were noble because they were eager to be taught the truth—they were sincerely truth-seekers! Although ready to receive religious teaching from others, they were at the same time very careful to examine such teaching in the light of the scriptures.

Certainly the Bereans could not be called professional theologians. They were simple people of honest hearts and open minds—moreover, a people with a profound respect for the authority of the sacred scriptures.

Unfortunately, this attitude of the Bereans—the spirit of independent, personal investigation — does not prevail widely among religious people in the twentieth century. It is a sad commentary on our lack of love for the truth (2 Thessalonians 2:10-12). Man is in a pitiable state (a sad plight) when he possesses neither the intellectual vitality nor the spiritual interest to study God's will for himself.

The New Testament abounds with evidence that harmonizes with the attitude of the noble Bereans. The apostle Peter insisted that Christians should know what they believe and why they believe it, "ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you" (1 Peter 3:15).

The apostle John places the responsibility directly upon every Christian to follow the pattern of the Bereans and prove every teaching to be sure it is from God: "because many false prophets are gone out into the world" (1 John 4:1).

By revelation John commends very highly the favorable characteristic of the church of Ephesus of being ready at all times to check truth against error. They had "tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars . . ." (Revelation 2:2).

Members of churches of Christ today are simply trying to reproduce faithfully the church of our Lord as it existed in the first century—the same in doctrine, worship, name, organization, service, life and work. The Bible clearly teaches that the seed of the gospel—the word of God—will produce after its kind, pure and undenominational Christianity. The first century church was founded upon the basis of the word; it follows that the same word must serve as the blueprint for the twentieth century church.

We invite our friends to "search the scriptures" to see whether these things be so!

Citizenry Is Confused Over Prayer Decrees

There is a vast amount of confusion over the 1962 and 1963 U.S. Supreme Court decisions that required prayers or Bible readings in public schools violate the First Amendment of the Constitution.

★ ★ ★

And compounding the confusion is the proposed "prayer amendment" to the Constitution, barnacled by 35 different amendments proposed by 147 members of Congress.

Sponsors of the bill now before a House committee call it an act "to put God back in the schools."

This precept is as phony as a three-dollar bill. God was never put anywhere by law.

★ ★ ★

The Supreme Court, which has taken a pretty good public beating in connection with the issue, did not bar God or the Bible from classrooms. The decisions only said that COMPULSORY prayer or religious recitation was illegal.

The court spelled out clearly the principle of separation of church and state—one of the basic tenets of the American social structure — and pointed out that the proper role of the state is one of "neutrality."

Moreover, the 1963 decision specifically held that it was not banning the teaching of religion as a curricular study.

What backers of the amendment appear to have overlooked is that in guaranteeing Americans "freedom of religion" in the Constitution, the Founding Fathers also guaranteed us freedom from religion.

★ ★ ★

It seems to us that too much furor has been raised over a question that in the final analysis should be individually resolved under the Constitutional freedom now providing such personal latitude.

Fate of Stick-Up Man a 'Hairline' Decision

The technicalities of the law often appear as absurdities — at least to bewildered laymen.

Familiar to most is the provision of the Fifth Amendment under which an accused person has a right to refuse to answer questions that could be self-incriminating.

But now we have a defendant refusing to have a haircut for the same reason. (The illogic of what you have just read the French call a non sequitur.)

★ ★ ★

It seems that a hooded gunman stuck up a couple of Philadelphia establishments, and in his trial the prosecution sought to fix guilt by matching hairs adhering to the masking hood with those adhering to the head of the alleged hood.

★ ★ ★

However, when hairs were about to be clipped from the accused for comparison, defense counsel snippily halted the move, contending that the Constitution "intends that no man be forced to incriminate himself."

The court overruled him and, the hirsute exhibit was obtained. But since the defense planned an appeal, the hairy evidence was deposited in the courtroom safe pending the outcome.

There are grounds for belief though, that this hairline decision is headed for trouble, since the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in 1944 ruled that protection against self-incrimination applies only to verbal questions—not to compulsory physical or mental examination.

★ ★ ★

But again, like a woman who can't make up her mind about a new hat, the U. S. Supreme Court in 1952 held unconstitutional the evidence against an alleged drug addict obtained by forced stomach pumping.

It is inconsistent, wrote Justice Felix Frankfurter, "to hold that to convict a man, the police cannot extract by force what is in his mind, but can extract what is in his stomach."

We sort of go along, in our unjudicial way, with the Justice. Promiscuous stomach pumping could easily lead to license not stomached by the Constitution — the invasion of privacy.

GOP Unit Offers Cuba Solutions

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The Johnson administration, as the Kennedy administration was, has been baffled about how to get Fidel Castro's communism out of Cuba. There has been no visible progress. Castro is still there, still boss.

MARLOW

Now a special group of Republicans — headed by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, brother of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in whose time Castro came to power — has proposed solutions.

The group — called the Republican Citizens Committee's Critical Issues Council—came up with this:

"It must be clearly understood by the world the United States is prepared, as a last resort, to use military force to remove international communism from Cuba, just as it has long been prepared to use military force in Korea, Berlin, Lebanon, the Formosa Straits, and elsewhere."

These were poor examples. The United States was never prepared to use military force in those places except to stop attacks, invasions or takeovers. And Cuba isn't threatening to invade or take over anybody.

DIRECT ATTACK?

Then is the Republican council proposing to go beyond defense and into a direct attack on Cuba, in which case it would be an aggressor? No. It said: "We are not advocating hasty and improper military action against Cuba."

What would "improper military action" be, an invasion? The council doesn't say.

It hopefully suggests that just letting it be known the United States is willing to use force is "probably the greatest assurance that it won't be needed." So another question is raised but not answered:

★ ★ ★

If Castro doesn't attack anyone and the United States isn't willing to attack him first, how is the American military force going to mean anything?

OTHER SUGGESTIONS

The council has other suggestions:

1. Invoke sanctions against allies who sell anything to Castro. But this might hurt American alliances. Therefore, another question: Which is more important to the United States, getting rid of Castro or keeping alliances?

2. The Johnson administration prevents Cuban exiles from using American bases for raids on Cuba. The council seems to suggest this is all right but that the exiles should be encouraged to use other countries' bases.

3. The United States should help form a Cuban government-in-exile, and support it. This would take some doing, since the exiles are widely divided in their thinking.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help." Psalm 121:1

Stephen Tyng Mather has been called the father of our national parks. The scenic wonders of God's handiwork in Yosemite, Yellowstone, Zion National Park, to name a few, owe much to his concern and leadership. "God spoke clearly to him amidst the scenic wonders of the national parks and this message he sought earnestly to share with others," it has been said.

Born in California, Mr. Mather was an active churchman who supported with works and gifts Jane Addams' Hall House, United Charities of Chicago and the Illinois Home for Crippled Children. But his greatest contribution came when he was appointed assistant to the secretary of the interior and established a bureau of national parks. He laid the spiritual foundation of the national park idea, ". . . that these wonders should be left unimpaired for future generations to enjoy."

Days of All Faiths:

Ascension Day First Festival?

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

It may well be that May 7, Ascension Day, was the first big festival ever observed by the Christian Church. It is said that it was kept in Apostolic times, that is, in the first century, which would mean that Christians were commemorating the Lord's Ascension long before they had established any celebration of Christmas or Easter.

★ ★ ★

The Ascension of Jesus is mentioned three times in the New Testament, in Mark 16:19, Luke 24:51, and Acts 1:9, but only the account in Acts goes into any detail at all.

It states clearly that forty days after Easter the Lord took His disciples to "the mount called "Olivet" and there before their eyes He ascended by His own power into heaven.

In Mark and in Luke's Gospel no mention is made of the time lapse between Easter and this event, and the natural inference is that the Ascension happened only a few days after the Resurrection.

★ ★ ★

But both tradition and the Acts say there was a forty day interim, and the Church sets Ascension Day on the fortieth day after Easter. This is always a Thursday.

Sometimes it is called Holy Thursday, though some Christians mistakingly think Holy Thursday is the same as Maundy Thursday, the Thursday in Holy Week.

The big point if Ascension Day is, of course, the assurance that Jesus entered into heaven with our human nature and human body glorified. Certainly it does not mean to locate heaven as being straight up from Palestine.

NECESSARY TRAGEDY

To the little group that gathered to watch the Lord's departure, it was not a cause of rejoicing. They were left in utter, dejected loneliness. But it had to be. There was an unrecognized good in His going. It was like a parent taking his child to school and leaving him there. To the child it may seem almost rejection.

But it is the only way the child can learn to live with his contemporaries, to carry his own load, to get along without constant oversight. It is the only way to help him grow up.

Here it meant that the disciples now had to grow up. God wants persons, not puppets.

One mistake the disciples made — they thought Jesus would come back the way He went. One can understand why they thought this. Acts 1:11 tells that angels appeared and said, "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye here gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus . . . shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go."

On the surface, this could mean He would come back in a cloud. And so they watched the skies.

But ten days later they knew their error. He came back, but He came within them, as the Holy Spirit. And they did grow up—to responsibility, courage, initiative, and resourcefulness. They became "those who have turned the world upside down."

CUSTOMS

Ascension Day used to be a much bigger day in the Church than it is now. Perhaps a midweek day in our industrial culture tends to fall into obscurity.

In earlier times one dramatic feature of the service in many churches was a symbolic ascension, portrayed by slowly lifting a statue of Jesus from the altar through a hole in the roof until figuratively at least, "a cloud took him out of their sight."

All Roman Catholic churches and many others at Easter light a huge candle, called the Paschal Candle, which burns constantly during the forty-day Easter, or Paschal, season. In these churches the Paschal Candle is extinguished on Ascension Day.

'City Voters Decided; Let Commissioners Lead'

Voters have elected their leaders. Now let us uphold our democracy and let them guide our affairs. Let's not run to them with every petty grievance or tidbit of financial wisdom and demand their personal intervention.

If a grievance is necessary, let the friendly commissioner (whom we elected) take it to the head of the department involved and let paid professionals handle it. Let ours be the biggest little city in the U.S.A.

'No Shame in Not Paying for Vaccine'

"Nobody Owes Me a Living" was wrong in saying nobody forced people to have large families. Doesn't she know we have a God much more powerful than us? It seems her heart aches for things that don't concern her. We have four children and twelve grandchildren and love every one of them.

No one should be ridiculed or caused embarrassment for being unable to pay for the vaccine. I'd much rather see them get the vaccine than contract the disease.

Mrs. Pearl Vallad

"Nobody Owes Me a Living" was right about one thing — you can't get more for 50 cents. We have six children and were embarrassed only because we could give just $1. This vaccine is worth so much. Nobody made us have our six wonderful children, but if God hadn't wanted us to have a large family he wouldn't have blessed us.

It's people like "Nobody Owes Me a Living" who cause us embarrassment by finding fault. But we hold our heads high. Only God is the one to judge us.

'Don't Commit Your Political Beliefs'

There is evidence that canvassing and door-to-door crusading have a tendency to establish a record of the individual's political alignment, sympathy or participation. Such recordings in the hands of various radical or militant organizations or individuals could be used for blackmailing or so-called political discrimination.

★ ★ ★

It is important that every citizen protect his right and privilege to express his political sympathy or disagreement, provided by secret elections.

★ ★ ★

Do not commit yourself to unknown persons crusading with political literature or urging you to various actions. Accept their material, but reserve your ultimate action to yourself.

Dairy Cows a Stigma on Texans?

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Flying from Washington to Cleveland recently — shortly before an electrostatic discharge threw a bad scare into her party — Lady Bird Johnson was reminiscing to reporters about her Texas home.

Noting that the Johnsons — in addition to a large herd of beef cattle — own four dairy cows which have the run of the LBJ Ranch, the First Lady said:

★ ★ ★

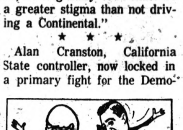
"Lyndon gets so mad when they wander in front of the house."

Later, one Washington observer agreed:

"I bet he does. Down in Texas, owning dairy cows must be a greater stigma than not driving a Continental."

★ ★ ★

Alan Cranston, California State controller, now locked in a primary fight for the Democratic Senate nomination with portly Pierre Salinger, former presidential press secretary, recently spoke before Washington's National Press Club.



Introducing Cranston as a reputed intellectual, Press Club President Joe Dear noted:

★ ★ ★

Several persons have noted that since he adopted his trim, new hair styling, Presidential Press Secretary George Reedy bears an uncanny resemblance to a white-haired, somewhat overweight John F. Kennedy.

Earlier, however, Reedy's shaggy mop of white hair prompted one observer to quip:

"He looks like an albino Beatle."

At a Senate Appropriations subcommittee hearing recently, Federal Power Commissioner Joseph Swidler revealed that his agency was planning to send gas companies a "very thorough" questionnaire to help to determine rates.

The questionnaire, to be mailed at government expense, was four inches thick, weighed 10 pounds.

Subcommittee Chairman Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., was astounded.

★ ★ ★

"I must admit," he said, "that I am now quite impressed with the Federal Trade Commission. When they were here last week, they said they were planning to mail out a questionnaire also.

"But theirs weighed only six pounds."

★ ★ ★

The Washington Senators baseball club — perennial tailenders in the American League — have now adopted the slogan, "Get the Senators off the floor in '64."

When Sen. Ken Keating, R-N. Y., first heard the slogan, he thought it meant that cots would be placed in the Senate chamber so that during the all-night civil rights filibuster sessions senators would not have to sleep on the floor.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — N. S. Savannah, the world's first nuclear-powered merchant ship, will make her first voyage to Europe in June.

The Atomic Energy Commission and the Maritime Administration announced yesterday that the Savannah would leave her year-old berth at Galveston, Tex., Tuesday and move to Houston for a five-day stay.

U.S. Troop Train Delayed

Reds Relent in E. German Flag Dispute

BERLIN (AP) — Communist authorities relented under U.S. pressure today in the latest border hassle, hauling down East German flags from locomotives for two U.S. troop trains bound for West Germany.

The May Day flag dispute caused a four-hour delay at the East German border when the U.S. train commanders refused to let the transports cross East German territory while the pennants flew.

★ ★ ★

Shortly after midnight, the East Germans provided engines without flags and the trains made an undisturbed trip across 110 miles of East Germany.

Western observers viewed the incident as another attempt by the East Germans to establish additional precedents for control of the access routes to West Berlin. The Western Allies do not recognize the East German regime and have resisted the Communists' tactics of trying to whittle away Western rights in the isolated city.

The two trains—one bound for Frankfurt with 144 passengers and the other for Bremerhaven with eight—left West Berlin shortly after 6 p.m.

At the Potsdam border point, East German authorities provided locomotives as usual but both engines flew East German flags, apparently in honor of May Day.

The train commanders jammed on the emergency brakes when they noticed the flags. The East Germans ordered the locomotives away, leaving the cars stalled on the tracks in the Berlin suburb. A Soviet officer was seen nearby.

The East Germans told the U.S. commanders their cars would not be allowed to proceed unless the Americans gave in. The East Germans customarily provide locomotives for the crossing.

HOLD GROUND

The U.S. commanders appeared to be under direct orders to hold their ground.

Sources said the East Germans tried the same thing on a troop train bound from West Germany to West Berlin Friday morning. U.S. soldiers pulled down the banners and the train continued on its way.

★ ★ ★

Under a postwar agreement with the Soviets, the Allies have road, rail and air access to West Berlin. For years the Soviets have sought to win recognition of the East German regime by turning over control of the routes to the East Germans.

Eye Radar Unit for Waterford

Requested by Police as Enforcement Aid

Waterford Township Board members Monday night will consider a police department request that a portable radar unit be acquired as a traffic enforcement aid.

Cost of the radar system would be $1,295.

The proposed unit, called a Speedalyzer, is the same type now used in Pontiac. It can be attached to the outside of a patrol car or used inside.

In other business the board will consider a request from the Oakland County Road Commission that the township vacate a piece of property between Farmridge and Cass Lake.

★ ★ ★

The parcel had been platted as a road but never developed.

Also Monday, a first notice of the proposed rezoning of a parcel at Hospital and Cooley Lake roads will be read.

TUTOR PROJECT—A Cultural Aids Project was launched Thursday at a meeting at the home of Mrs. H. A. Leven (center) 7420 Franklin, Bloomfield Township. Aimed at culturally deprived Pontiac school children, the propect was explained by Raleigh Hairston, director of education of youth incentive of the Pontiac Area Urban League. Mrs. Alfred Zweig, of 4640 Pickering, Bloomfield Township, will take part in the tutoring program.

Aimed at Deprived Children

Starts Pupil Culture Aid Plan

Forced to retire two years ago because of a heart ailment, a Bloomfield Township woman has instigated a "cultural aids project" aimed at Pontiac school children.

★ ★ ★

Former school teacher Mrs. H. A. Levin, of 7420 Franklin, Bloomfield Township, met Thursday afternoon with a group of volunteers to organize a tutoring program for culturally-deprived children.

An estimated 10-15 volunteers, mostly elementary school teachers, plan to tutor youngsters picked by the Pontiac Area Urban League, sponsor of the project.

Mrs. Levin, who taught at City and Country School of Bloomfield Hills before retiring because of ill health, said one-hour weekly sessions will be held on a one-to-one teaching basis.

★ ★ ★

The project will be kicked off with a picnic July 1 for participating children and their tutors.

TO CONTACT OFFICIALS

Mrs. Robert R. Turpin, 108 Franklin, a social worker, plans to contact officials at Bagley and Crofoot Schools in the process of selecting children for the project.

The Pontiac woman will also contact parents of children involved, hoping to furnish each tutor background on the individual youngsters.

Although the project is getting a small start, Mrs. Levin is hopeful that the program can expand as more volunteers come forward.

★ ★ ★

She said that the offices of the Urban League can be called for further information.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Levin emphasized that the one-to-one teaching ratio would enable the tutoring project to accomplish more.

In addition, most of the tutors will be school teachers or former school teachers.

Kenny Lane Holds Key to Boxer's Title Future

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Stoffel Steyn, a 22-year-old South African lightweight, hopes to make his May 9 bout with Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., a stepping stone to a title match with Carlos Ortiz of Puerto Rico.

About 10,000 fans are expected to attend the fight which has attracted more attention in South Africa than any since Vic Towee! won the country's first world title in 1950 in the bantamweight class.

Name Pair to Work on GOP Platform

Richard C. Van Dusen and Robert H. Flint have been picked as Oakland County members of the Republican preconvention resolutions committee.

They will be part of a 41-member body named by Arthur G. Elliott Jr., Republican state chairman, to meet Wednesday in Lansing to begin work on the 1964 Republican state platform.

Van Dusen, 32205 Bingham, Bingham Farms, served as Gov. Romney's legal adviser until resigning last year to return to private law practice.

Flint was elected to the Republican State Central Committee last December. Vice president of Flint Ink Corp., he lives at 1577 Island Lane, Bloomfield Hills.

★ ★ ★

The committee's platform will be revealed next Friday in Grand Rapids at the start of the Republican state convention.

Dies of Gunshot

DETROIT (AP)—Wounded in what police termed an attempted burglary, James P. Riley, 17, died in Receiving Hospital Friday. The owner of a drug store, Richard Johnson, 77, told police he shot Riley after the youth struck him on the head with a board.

Let Ushers Tell Plans to Guests

By The Emily Post Institut

Q: My daughter is going to be married next week and after the ceremony we would like our many friends to go down into the social hall of the church for a piece of wedding cake and a glass of punch.

★ ★ ★

However, I do not want to make any mention of a reception on the invitations as people might come expecting a good deal, and also I don't want them to feel that they have to bring a present.

Have you any suggestions as to how this might be handled?

★ ★ ★

A: It could be handled by the ushers stationed at the back of the church. They would announce to all the guests as they leave, "The bride and groom are receiving in the social hall downstairs."

Q: When addressing a letter to a person carrying a title in connection with his firm, do you drop the title Mr. before his name? In other words, do you address a letter:

Mr. John Smith, President
Hammer Manufacturing Company address

or do you address it to John Smith, President, etc?

★ ★ ★

I know you omit the title Dr. when using M.D. after a man's name, but what about such titles as President, Treasurer, etc.?

★ ★ ★

A: Doctor and M.D., mean the same thing, therefore you use one or the other, but not both.

When addressing the president or treasurer of a company, you address him as Mr. John Smith, followed by his title.

Daughter Feels Abused; Abby Says It's Just Love

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a 13-year-old girl with only one problem in the whole world—my mother.

ABBY

I hate her. This may sound awful to you, but I hate her. I really do. I used to think I'd get over it. But now I know I never will.

Sometimes I think I'll go out of my mind if she doesn't stop tearing me apart. She doesn't like my clothes, my hair styles, or my friends.

Don't get me wrong, Abby, I have nice friends. They are very polite, and they aren't wild or anything.

She doesn't like them because I picked them.

Please help me. I cry myself to sleep at night. She won't let me baby-sit because I spend my money on nail polish and hair spray.

I can't wait till I am 18 so I can leave home. Don't tell me to discuss it with my father. He is always on her side.

★ ★ ★

And don't tell me she loves me and is only doing if for my own good.

You may print this letter if it doesn't shcok you too much. And you can sign me—

UNHAPPY TEEN-AGER

★ ★ ★

DEAR UNHAPPY: Your letter doesn't shock me at all. I receive many such letters each week.

Almost every normal teen-ager alternately "loves" and "hates" his parents. It is not easy to be criticized, restricted, corrected and disciplined day in and day out.

★ ★ ★

But parents who really love their children prove it by consistently letting their children know what is expected of them.

★ ★ ★

Parents who are "soft" and permissive rear confused, insecure children. I don't expect you to agree with me today.

But keep this letter and read it again in five years, and then you will understand it perfectly. Good luck, honey. You are lucky. You are loved.

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter from the new grandmother who called herself "LUCKY."

★ ★ ★

Devotion to one's grandchild is admirable, but some grandmothers overdo it. I refer to the kind who will:

(1) Interfere when his parents try to punish him saying, "Don't pick on him. He's just a little boy."

★ ★ ★

(2) When the child goes to Granny's for the day, fill him with all the soft drinks, sweets and goodies he wants. He'll throw it up when he gets home and miss a day of school.

(3) Assure the child that if his parents are too hard on him, he can always pack a bag and "run away" to Grandma's house.

★ ★ ★

Let her get away with it, and I promise you that your son will be exactly like ours.

Eleven years old and spoiled rotten — thanks to his dotting grandmother.

ANONYMOUS, OF COURSE

CONFIDENTIAL TO "J" IN WEST L.A.: Don't lend her any more money until you find out what she is doing with it.

Anyone as desperate for cash as she appears to be could be supporting a very bad (and possibly dangerous) habit.

Get it off your chest. For a personal unpublished reply, write to ABBY, in care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

★ ★ ★

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding, send 50 cents to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Obesity Rooted in Emotions

Dr. A. I. Ragins spoke on "Substitutions for Obesity" before the Fashionette Club at a recent meeting in the Adah Shelly Library.

★ ★ ★

As a specialist in the fields of gastroenterology and internal medicine, Dr. Ragins briefed his audience on diseases that are prone to plague the obese person.

★ ★ ★

"Most cases of obesity stem from emotional pressures of various sources," he said, "and anyone seeking medical help for this condition must first be determined to lose weight. A 'lose weight goal' must substitute an 'eating goal'.

★ ★ ★

Club members will present a three-act play "Thin and Forty" at next week's meeting.

Match Fashions With Foundation

An appropriate go-together for today's plunging necklines is the scooped-front, bare-back bra made of stretch lace.

★ ★ ★

To retain the fit of this dainty inner item, launder it in warm suds after every wearing. Then finger-shape it while damp, and presto! no ironing needed.

New Men's Shoe

New ideas, in the offing: A new men's shoe, soon to be on the market, appears to provide the utmost comfort and warmth with a soft, quilted lining throughout. From Paris comes a report that a cut velvet dress tie, featuring the large knot, has achieved considerable popularity there.

Identify With Dots

Try marking your children's clothing with dots instead of initials. Just use a different number of dots for each child. They are easier to recognize than the lettering.

New Stockings Are More Snug

Better fit, greater comfort, and shape retention are promised by the new Cantrece nylon hosiery.

A self-crimping property, introduced right into the fiber, is said to remain with the stockings throughout a "normal life" of wearings and washings in soap or detergent suds.

Bridal Shower Tonight

The Voorheis Road home of Mrs. Ward S. Newman Jr. will be the setting this evening for a bridal shower honoring Renee Paulette Turner of Southfield. Cohostesses will be Mrs. Wesley E. Newman and Mrs. Lyle B. Saum.

★ ★ ★

Janet Chapman of Southfield was hostess at the recent trousseau tea and Carol Finley also of Southfield honored the June bride-elect at a dessert and kitchen shower.

★ ★ ★

Miss Turner's parents are the Fred C. Turners of Southfield and her fiance, Gary Michael Newman, is the son of the Erwin Newmans of Oriole Drive.

REMEMBER THE MASTOID SCARS?
You see very few mastoid scars around today — and, under 20 years of age, they are almost nonexistent.
But, not so many years ago (1934) it was a different story.
Independent drug research has produced chemotherapeutic compounds which make the cure of mastoiditis practically a routine, not even a worrisome, procedure. True, the cost may run as high as $15.00. Yet, ask the man who paid $1,000.00 for his mastoid scar which he would have preferred — if he had had the choice.

PRAYER AT SCHOOL—Children of St. Trinity Lutheran School walk to the lighted candle and cross to offer a personal prayer during the devotional period of the school day. Boys and girls are taught Bible lessons with regular school work. Sharon Altemann of 4978 Maycrest is in the foreground. Mrs. Marvel Barnhart of 167 Riviera, Waterford Township, is the teacher.

Boys, Girls Pray in School

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first in a series of articles describing religious teachings in daily sessions of Pontiac area church schools. It concerns St. Trinity Lutheran School.)

By MARY ANGLEMIER
Pontiac Press Church Editor

Children of St. Trinity Lutheran School begin each day with prayer.

"The forms in which the boys and girls pray and worship are varied in order to learn that true prayer and worship does not depend on a particular form but on Christian sincerity and faith," explained Rev. Ralph C. Claus, pastor of St. Trinity Church and School.

"The children," he said, "regularly lead in the prayers and worship so that they will not depend on someone else to do the worshiping for them, but will experience the joys of fellowship with God."

Mrs. Marvel Barnhart, kindergarten teacher, has an altar in her room where the youngsters take turns leading the group in a memorized prayer.

This is followed by a Bible story translated in terms of our daily living. One is always amazed at the parallels and direction to modern life that children are able to see in the Bible, the pastor said.

WRITE PRAYERS

In grades one and two, children write prayers, and sometimes lead in morning worship. This is a sample of an actual prayer:

"Dear God, please protect me as You protected Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Protect my family and all my relatives from harm. Protect the governor and government and anyone else.

"Help me not to be afraid when harm is here, and help me to remember You are always near. I ask this in Jesus' name, Amen."

Another example:

"Oh God, take care of the whole world, Amen."

Roger Morrison is the teacher.

Herman Schmidt and Mrs. Carol Nelson, teachers in the upper rooms, open the school day with prayers, reading of a short devotion or the singing of a hymn.

On Thursday mornings the entire school of eight grades begins the day in St. Trinity Lutheran Church with Pastor Claus conducting a 30-minute worship period.

The sermonette is directed to their joys, sorrows, problems and needs as children. An object or a childhood experience is used to demonstrate spiritual truth.

One day the pastor had the strongest student tied up securely with grocery string, each loop representing a lie. He demonstrated how one lie leads to another until one is completely entangled; and how easy it is to break the first ones by humble admission and repentance.

In speaking of the religious work in St. Trinity School, Pastor Claus said, "Here we find that our prayers and worship, our learning and doing of God's Word, are as new, refreshing and challenging as each new day of growth and life."

To Celebrate Easter

The Divine Liturgy of St. Basil will be celebrated at 9:30 tonight in the St. George Greek Orthodox Church, 97 Mariva. Holy Communion will be observed at 10:30 p.m. and the Resurrection service will begin at 11 p.m.

This is all in celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Greek Church observes the day according to the Julian calendar.

★ ★ ★

Before the beginning of the midnight service the Odes of Lamentation of the previous day are repeated. The Matins of the Resurrection begins when all lights are out and the church is in complete darkness.

Rev. Gus Tsompanas, the priest, will take a light from the vigil light and give it those who are holding candles.

The priest will sing "Come ye and receive light from the unwaning light, and glorify Christ, who arose from the dead." Everyone will join him in singing the same hymn again.

From this moment every Christian holds the Easter candle as a symbol of his vivid, warm faith in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ as Saviour, Pastor Tsompanas said.

★ ★ ★

At this time the priest holds the Gospel and Banner of the Resurrection and with the people sings the angelic paean, the song of exaltation. A procession follows.

When the priest starts the hymn of Resurrection the people join in singing "Christ Has Risen from the Dead."

The service then takes on a joyous atmosphere with the people saying "It is the day of Resurrection, let us be glorious, let us embrace one another and speak to those that hate us; let us forgive all things and so let us cry, Christ has arisen from the dead."

According to Father Tsompanas the people by singing the hymn admit that love of one's fellowman is the solid foundation for the faith in Christ's Resurrection.

★ ★ ★

Divine Liturgy of St. John will follow. At 4 p.m. tomorrow the vesper of love will be observed. During this service gifts will be given to all Sunday School children. Parents and children are asked to worship together.

The Feast Day of St. George is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Monday followed by Divine Liturgy at 10 a.m.

★ ★ ★

Communion will be observed at the evening worship service with Pastor Philip Somers preaching on the "Ten Commandments."

★ ★ ★

Prefers U.S. Schools

Climbs Highest Point

One of the highlights of John Parvis' two-year stay in Africa was climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro, (19,360 feet) the highest point on the African continent.

★ ★ ★

It is an extinct East African volcano with two peaks in the northern part of Tanganyika, near the Kenya border.

"Two of my friends and I were five days on the adventure, There was nothing to it. We just walked up and then walked down," said 16-year-old John.

He went on to say there were no cliffs or crevices just a path leading to the top. The three had a guide and five porters to carry food and luggage, a luxurious climb.

Rest huts dotted the path along the way.

Born in Minneapolis, Minn. the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Parvis, he went to India with his parents, when 12 years old. His father taught social studies in the University of Madras.

★ ★ ★

During this time John was at an American boarding school at Lucknow in Northern India. Everybody spoke English at the school so he had no difficulty with language.

His dad then became a professor at Uppheim College in Lusaka, Northern Rhodesia. John said he taught himself by means of a correspondence course from the University of Minnesota but didn't apply himself too much.

He enjoyed swimming and ping pong at the YMCA in Lusaka and made friends among both the European and the Africans.

When asked about missionaries John said they were usually out of the cities and near a hospital where doctors were so needed.

"There's no real system of education in Africa so when my grandparents visited us last summer my family and I decided I should return to American schools. It is sometimes difficult to make new friends moving around, but it is harder to leave friends once you have them," were his closing comments.

★ ★ ★

Here John skis, plays ping pong, swims, studies and attends Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian. He thinks he will become an electrical engineer.

Junior Editors Quiz on ANIMALS

QUESTION: I find "chowchow" defined as "mixed." Why is this name often used for a chow dog?

ANSWER: The chow is one of the oldest breeds of dog, believed to have originated in North China. One of the emperors is said to have kept 5000 of these dogs in his kennels.

Perhaps the emperors like them because of the haughty, highly-bred look these dogs have.

Their large heads with the ruff of heavy hair almost make them look like a small lion and their blue-black tongue, no doubt deliberately bred by selecting black tongued individuals, is another distinctive point, making them different from other dogs. They are muscular with beautiful coats.

When the outside world began to trade with China, using sailing ships, the captains brought back to England and America many unusual things from the East.

When they talked with Chinese traders, both parties used what was called pidgin-English — a simplified way of talking.

The word chow was used for food, but "chowchow" came to mean all sorts of odd and unusual things a captain might want to bring back home for sale.

Among these things were the lion-headed dogs—and so, after a while, people began to call them chowchow dogs.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: If you color the chowchow a fine red orange you will get a good idea of what these handsome dogs really look like. They can be well trained, but are not apt to be too polite with strangers.

In Primary, Conventions

More Barry Support Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — A republican preferential primary in Texas and GOP conventions in two other states today were expected to give some added support to Sen. Barry Goldwater's bid for the GOP presidential nomination.

★ ★ ★

The Texas popularity poll—instituted by party leaders in Texas in an attempt to emphasize Texas Republicans' support for the Arizona senator—is part of the state's primary election to nominate candidates for governor, Congress and state offices.

The GOP conventions—where Goldwater may pick up delegate support—were in Georgia and Tennessee. Maine's convention entered its second day.

AP SURVEY

The senator went into the day's activities with 200 first ballot votes, according to an Associated Press survey of the 491 deelegates already selected. This is based on instructions, pledges or stated preferences.

The rest of the votes are distributed this way: Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania 63, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge 43, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon 7, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine 14, favorite son candidates 34, and uncommitted 130.

★ ★

Results of the Texas primary are not binding on the 56 Republican delegates who will be chosen in a state convention next month.

Also in the primary were Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York—who tried unsuccessfully to have his name withdrawn—Sen. Smith and Harold E. Stassen. All are avowed candidates for the GOP nomination.

HOME STATE

Sen. Smith on Friday night received the support of her home state Maine delegation's 14 votes for "as long as she is a factor" in the San Francisco convention. However, the delegation is expected to be released after the first ballot. Supporters of Goldwater, Rockefeller and Lodge were maneuvering for second ballot strength in the delegation.

Georgia Republicans were naming four at-large delegates to complete a 24-vote slate. Eighteen already named favor Goldwater, two are uncommitted.

★ ★ ★

Tennessee was filling out its 28-vote delegation with 16 members. Of the 12 already chosen, seven are for Goldwater, one for Nixon and four uncommitted.

The Azores islands are administered as districts of Portugal with the same status as those of the parent nation. There is no central government.

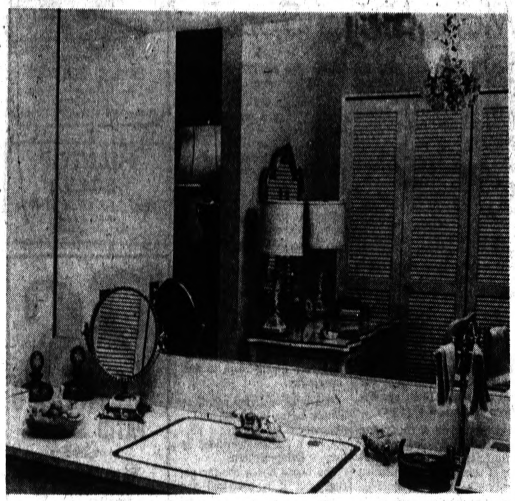
Two Approaches to One Floor Plan



Pontiac Press Photos by Phil Webb

CRYSTAL CHANDELIERS — Two crystal chandeliers light Mrs. Halsted's dressing room. Arranged on the blue, moire-covered walls are pictures of the Halsteds' sons, Willard and Robert, from babyhood to young manhood. Lavender and crystal perfume bottles and soap dish on the blue laminated vanity carry out the blue-lavender color theme of the adjoining bedroom. A gold framed mirror is hung above the French provincial dressing table reflected in the vanity mirror.

By JODY HEADLEE

Whether you have teen-agers still at home, as do the Linn Smiths, or grown children and grandchildren as do the Morris M. Halsteds, living at the Willits West Town Houses in Birmingham can prove exciting.

* * *

Pictured on this page are individual interpretations each family applied to identical floor plans. One chose stark contemporary furnishings and decor. The other decided upon traditional with an oriental flair on the upper level and modified contemporary on the lower.

Cece Smith, a sophomore at University of Michigan, has joined pink and orange as color mates in the second bedroom on the upper level.

The headboards of her twin beds and her draperies are in pink and orange stripe with bedspreads repeating the pink.

* * *

A Charlotte Hoyem original, "Mr. Ladybug," adds a bright touch of orange and blue to off-white walls.

ONE PANEL

One panel of her shuttered closet doors is painted orange as color emphasis.

Black wrought iron chairs with black leather seats carry out the contemporary feeling of the room.

The second bedroom in the Halsted home is distinctively masculine. Against a background of off-white walls and blue carpeting are twin beds covered by tailored, deep blue spreads.

* * *

On the oiled walnut bedside table is found a tall black lamp with silver overlay. Simple black and silver braid repeats the base colors on the silver shade.

Drawers on a slate-topped chest feature inlaid distressed mahogany in a harlequin pattern.

A collector of interesting timepieces, Mr. Halsted has on his master chest a clock that never has to be wound. It operates by a photoelectric cell which gains energy from the available light rays.

* * *

The Smiths' sons — Linn, Jr., 17, and Kim, 13, — share the large, lower level bedroom with adjoining dressing room and bath.

BOYS' SUITE

Their suite also offers a fireplace and sliding glass doors to a private patio.

The Halsteds have arranged their lower level into a family room and adjoining card room.

Hanging on the wall of the card room is an antique clock which was once a vital element in the business office of Mrs. Halsted's grandfather, who was an artist in his own right.

* * *

A collection of his pen and ink etchings is still preserved by Mrs. Halsted.

She keeps the drawings well protected in a rosewood inlaid sewing box which her grandfather gave to her grandmother two generations ago.

Hidden in a secret compartment in the quaint sewing box is also a yellowed copy of the Ulster County Gazette dated January 4, 1800. It proclaims to a grieving nation the death of President George Washington.

In contrast to the old fashioned clock, the balance of the card room is contemporary.

WAVERING STRIPES

Wavering stripes of olive green, light green and turquoise highlight the gray-blue background of the textured throw rugs.

Affixed to another of the card room's white walls is an Italian picture grouping depicting the French game Cameleon. The costumed figures are painted on the reverse side of the protecting glass.

A versatile folding card table is surrounded by four chairs with bronze leather seats and finely woven cane backs.

* * *

Louvered floor-to-ceiling cupboard doors conceal the Halsteds' stereo system.

The adjoining family room continues the contemporary decorating technique. Larger versions of the card room's throw rugs complement the room's white walls and green draperies.

Above the fireplace hangs a black and white Italian wrought iron and porcelain wall sconce. Black fireplace utensils attached to the white fireplace stress color contrast.

* * *

Japanese bird prints, 150 years old, hang above the sofa upholstered in a modern fabric using shades of blue and olive green against turquoise. On the teak end tables are brass Japanese stoves which have been converted into lamps.

The Noguchi coffee table of glass and ebony in front of the sofa is so heavy it takes two men to move it.

Centered on the wall above the pianola are four ivory coins. These coins, ivory carvings of a water lily, peony, rose and chrysanthemum, are mounted on black velvet and framed in bronze wood with a shadow box effect.

For convenience in patio entertaining, a summertime pantry has been installed. It is complete with running water, refrigerator and stove.

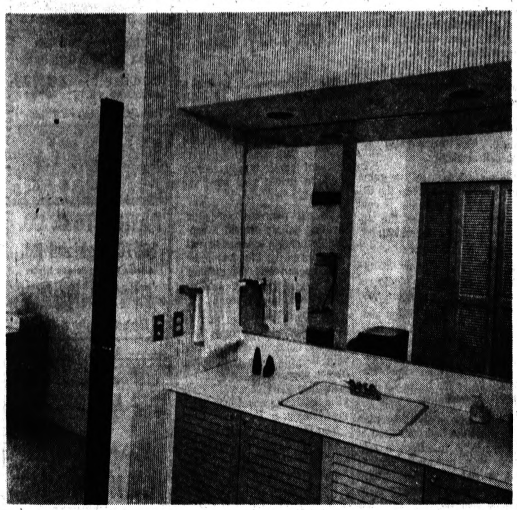
* * *

Both the Smiths and the Halsteads will graciously open their homes to the public for the Planned Parenthood League's Home Tour.

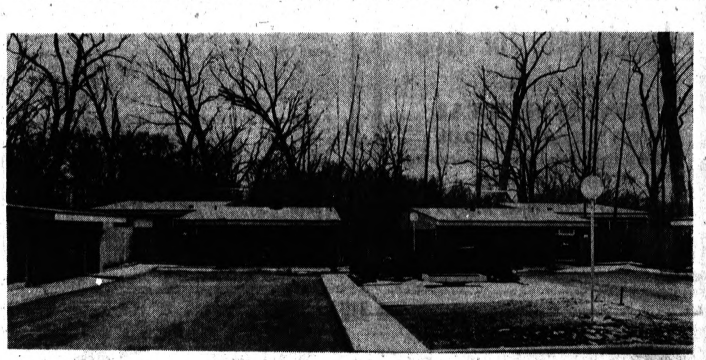
* * *

The tour, which includes 13 locations, will take place May 14 from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

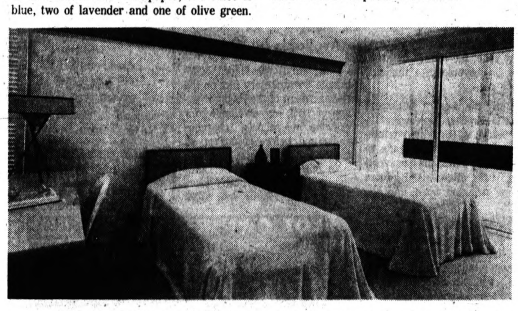
Mrs. Eliot F. Robinson, Linden Road, Birmingham, is general chairman of the event.



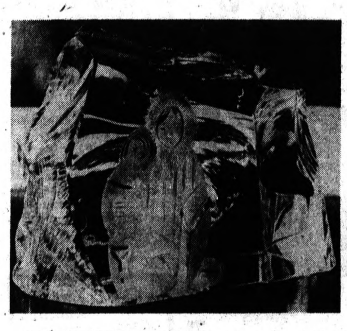
LOUVERED DOORS—The louvered doors of the Smith's dressing room, both on the vanity and closet walls, pick up the shades of the "broken line" wallpaper, two tones of blue, two of lavender and one of olive green. Spotlights light the wall-to-wall vanity with its counter-top of off-white laminate. Black ceramic tile is used in the adjoining master bath which is carpeted in lavender.



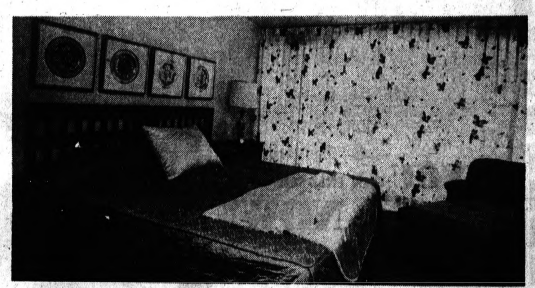
SIX UNITS—Designed by Architect Carl Luckenback, the Willits West Town Houses are unique. Six private units comprise the development. A landscaped central court permits easy access to the electronically controlled, two-car garages. Flanked by woods, the occupants enjoy pleasures of country living plus convenience of being within easy walking distance of downtown Birmingham. Each unit features an upper level patio, enclosed by a redwood fence for privacy. Wrought iron gates lead from the central court to the individual homes. A garage entrance into each foyer eliminates going out into the weather.



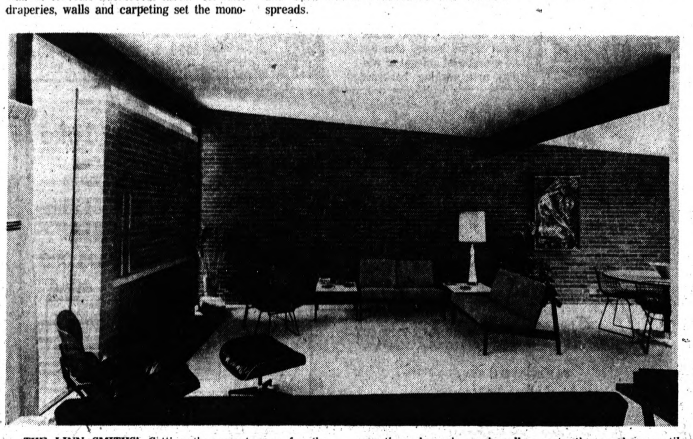
INDIRECT LIGHTING—Desiring to make the wall and ceiling the light source in the master bedroom, the Smiths had a 12-foot oiled walnut reflector installed on the side wall It conceals fluorescent tubes. Off-white draperies, walls and carpeting set the monochromatic color scheme. On the massive white laminate-topped desk is a tripod lamp of black wrought iron with a straw shade banded in black. The twin beds feature cane and oiled walnut headboards and white spreads.



SWEDISH CRYSTAL—Displayed on the pecan-finished walnut chest in the Halsted living room is a sparkling chunk of Swedish crystal. Etched on the piece's single flat surface is an Eskimo mother and her child.



LUXURIOUSLY FEMININE—Mrs. Halsted's bedroom suite of rooms reflects femininity of its mistress. The wall-to-wall white draperies with blue butterflies repeat the bicolor background of the room, white walls and blue carpeting. The chaise longue and bedspread of the king-size bed are covered in a quilted blue-lavender silk. Above the French cherry headboard hang four exquisitely etched china plates framed in gold.



THE LINN SMITHS'—Setting the accent pace for the Linn Smiths' contemporary living-dining ell is Charlotte Hoyem's "Red Nude." Predominately orange, the oil painting, also introduces shades of green, turquoise and blue. Off-white carpeting, draperies and walls create the area's versatile background. Black wrought iron chairs with black leather seats circle the white laminated dining table.

THE MORRIS HALSTEDS'—Deep piled blue carpeting and white walls unite to form the setting of the traditional living-dining ell of the Morris Halsteds' home. The floor-to-ceiling draperies shade from green to blue to lavender. Plastic hoods operated on a magnet system protect the draperies from the floor mounted heating ducts. A far Eastern motif is introduced by Chinese rugs and enhanced by the area's accessories. Facing each other in front of the fireplace are a blue sofa and a white loveseat.

Approximately 66 per cent of American children graduate from high school.

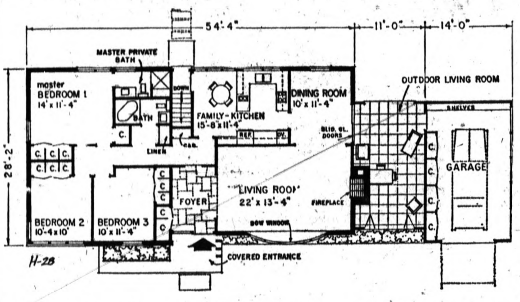
ECONOMICAL LUXURY—A fully developed breezeway between house and garage gives this modest sized ranch a low, expensive look and also provides an "outdoor living room." The house contains three bedrooms, two baths. The architect is Rudolph A. Matern.

H-28 STATISTICS

A one-story home with full basement containing a basic living area of 1,479 square feet excluding breezeway and one-car garage. Over-all dimensions are 28'2" deep by 79'4" wide, of which the breezeway accounts for 11' of width and the garage 14'. The basic house 1,479 square feet not counting the breezeway and garage.



FLOOR PLAN—Good design and use of natural sound barriers completely zones the bedroom area into a quiet and private wing.

Breezeway Adds More Living Space

Dramatic use of an ordinary breezeway transforms this modest one-story home into a ranch style house of luxurious, though basically inexpensive, proportions.

* * *

Architect Rudolph A. Matern, the craftsman who designed the home, made imaginative use of standard items—paneled walls, resilient tile floor, louvered shutters and a brick planter — and instead of a bare arcade the breezeway connecting house and garage becomes an exciting "outdoor living room" for entertaining and family relaxing.

Still it is basically just a breezeway: a sheltered area built at relatively low cost simply by extending the roof; or, in this case, stretching the roof across an 11-foot gap between house and garage.

Another benefit of the breezeway is that it elongates the house, giving it the sleek, low look of suburban sophistication.

* * *

The basic living area of the house is only 1,479 square feet, containing three bedrooms, two stylish bathrooms, living room, dining room, family kitchen and gracious entry foyer.

FULL BASEMENT

The house also contains a full basement which can be developed as the owner sees fit into recreation room, laundry, workshop and storage area.

The exterior features brick veneer on all four sides except the garage where vertical boards contrast nicely with the low silhouette of the house. The brick also is stacked vertically.

Clever treatment of the gable end of the house adds to the design and also provides a covered entry which has the appearance of being recessed.

* * *

A wide side window at the front door assures plenty of natural light in the large foyer.

Both the exterior design and the interior floor plan are simple and straightforward, relying on creative use of materials rather than expensive frills to give the home its distinctive personality.

A close look at the floor plan shows that the bedroom area of this house is in effect a separate wing providing privacy and, through the use of natural sound barriers (basement stair, closets and foyer), complete quiet.

* * *

Achieving this sort of zoning in a home of this size is a tribute to the architect's skill.

PRIVACY ZONE

Though located within this privacy zone, the family bathroom also is convenient to the daily living area.

Both the family bathroom and the master bath are rather lavish. A vestibule containing the linen closet leads to the family bath, thus preventing two often used doors from swinging open into the hall.

The bath also has a full ceiling lighting grille and a vent fan that operates with the light switch, assuring maximum light and ventilation despite the room's interior location.

* * *

The bedrooms are well proportioned, well ventilated, and contain an excess amount of closet space—if that's possible.

The family-kitchen, a 15'8" room which surely will prove to be the most popular indoor room in the house, also has an exceptional amount of window area making backyard supervision possible from any part of the room.

The kitchen work zone is efficiently U-shaped and has plenty of countertop work space and cabinets. On the counter dividing kitchen and family room is a separate burner handy to the breakfast table.

* * *

For this size home, the living room is exceptionally large.

GRAND MANNER

It also is styled in a grand manner with a sweeping bow window and a log burning fireplace which is the focal point of interest immediately on entering from the foyer.

Sliding glass doors lead from the dining room to the breezeway.

This outdoor living room, as Matern terms it, is perhaps the ultimate in indoor-outdoor integration, a feature demanded by today's living patterns.

The house has a one-car garage, but it is oversized and contains a bank of closets and storage shelves which make it more than adequate for a one-car family.

Stop Water Pipes From Dripping

If cold water pipes anywhere in the house drip during periods of high humidity, the solution is simple.

* * *

Cover the pipes with any one of several coverings that can be purchased in a hardware store.

The covering prevents the warm air from hitting the cold pipes and turning into moisture, which then drips to the floor,

Sometimes a home owner mistakes this condensation for a pipe leak.

* * *

Condensation can also be troublesome in the bathroom, where the water tank is susceptible because of its cold water contents.

COVER TANK

Here, too, covering the tank can be a help. But it is not a perfect answer, because the warm air sometimes works its way behind the fabric covering and eventually saturates it.

A ventilating fan in the bathroom reduces condensation and thus often is an effective solution.

* * *

Permanent cures call for professional plumbing aids.

* * *

Among them are the installation of a special water tank with an inner lining which keeps the outside surface at room temperature and the use of a mixing valve to warm the water in the tank.

You Get What You Pay For!

When it comes to buying a heating system, the cheapest price isn't always the lowest price.

You can easily be "taken" when you buy a heating system for your home if you merely compare prices and buy the cheapest.

To get the most for your heating dollar, contact a reputable heating contractor and ask him to list the size of the unit needed and the number and size of the heat distributors needed in each room.

He should also give you an estimate of heating costs with various types of systems and with the different fuels available in your area.

Another good check is to ask your neighbors about their heating systems.

You should also look into the contractor's service policies, his guarantee and his willingness to make final adjustments.

Remember also, that spending slightly more for a 20 to 40 year heating system will prove much more economical than replacing the entire system every ten years.

LAP OF LUXURY—The master bedroom suite of Ivan Frankel's new Gallery House is guaranteed to make homeowners feel like reigning monarchs. Its sitting room can be converted to a fourth bedroom or study, if desired. Located in Knollwood Heights . . . Fairways, entrance on Maple Road one-half mile east of Middle Belt Road, the furnished model is open to the public. Base price of the home, without lot, is $26,900.

Gallery House Opened in Knollwood Heights

Built by the Ivan Frankel Construction Company, Birmingham, Michigan, the Gallery House is located in Knollwood Heights . . . Fairways Subdivision, off Maple Road, one-half mile east of Middle Belt Road.

★ ★ ★

All planning for the Gallery House is part of the long-range Kelvinator research program, designed to create homes for better living.

The kitchen serves as the pivot center. From this point, facing toward the garden and children's outdoor play areas, a mother has a home which literally revolves around herself and her family.

The dining room and formal area to the right are a completely independent wing designed to avoid cross over traffic.

★ ★ ★

To the left is the family room. This informal section is not part of the kitchen. It has its own separate entrance from the foyer.

FRONT FOYER

The front foyer is more than a spacious greeting hall. It is the practical funnel, channelling traffic to each area of the home.

In addition to the ground floor laundry, the Gallery House has an extra large basement of 890 square feet.

Roads in the subdivision are paved. There is a central water system with fire hydrants and County approved septic permits. Gas is available.

★ ★ ★

Located in Bloomfield Township, the area is serviced by the Birmingham Post Office and school district.

Venetian Blinds Introduce New Narrow Slats

Something new has been added to the American concept of the venetian blind.

It's a blind with narrow slats of from one to one and three-eighths inches, about half the width of conventional blinds.

Although new in the United States, narrow slat blinds have been popular in Europe for more than ten years, especially in the Scandinavian countries.

To fix the design, the tapes are made of slim cord which, when the blinds are closed, virtually disappear from view.

When the blinds are tilted to an open position, the cord can be seen slightly.

The manufacturers of venetian blinds are hopeful that the introduction of the new line will expand the use of this already popular window covering.

Storage for Outdoor Grill

Convenient, protected storage for outdoor cookery equipment is provided in an attractive barbecue center that is easily constructed of wood framing and hardboard panels.

The storage cabinet for charcoal, fire starter, and other items is enclosed with panels of a factory-primed exterior hardboard.

A peg-board panel provides space for cooking tools plus shelves for plates, glasses, and other utensils.

The barbecue center is 36" high and 60" long.

Depth of the cabinet section is 30".

★ ★ ★

SIMILAR FRAMING

Similar framing also is used for the horizontal supports.

Grooves cut in the framing hold the peg-board panel firmly in place.

This type of construction also gives the barbecue center a professionally built appearance.

For a free plan with construction hints an a bill of materials, request AE-394 of the Masonite Home Service Bureau, 29 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill., 60606.

Plan for Expansion

When building a house that you plan to expand at some later time, you can save money by having the plumber install the necessary pipes at the start rather than pay expensive installation costs later on when a lot of tearing-down will have to be done.

Opening lead—♣3

By OSWALD JACOBY

East's opening bid of one club is correct. Even though he holds five spades, the suit is weak and the club opening makes his later bidding very simple.

JACOBY

South has a sound diamond overcall, and West has no problems except how to get out of the hand cheaply. North should raise his partner to two diamonds and if East keeps on competing for a while South should wind up playing a four diamond contract.

In National Intercollegiate Tournament play West is instructed to lead a club and East must play clubs until South ruffs in.

South will lead a diamond to dummy's queen and after East shows out, South will have a slight problem about making his contract. He will have to do something about West's trumps.

★ ★ ★

It won't look too difficult at first glance, but there is a real trap for poor South. If he comes off dummy with a spade, he will eventually have to lose a trick to West's jack of diamonds.

If he comes off with a heart, everything will be fine. South will make his contract and his par.

The best defense is for East to rise with the ace and lead a fourth club.

South will trump in his own hand. It won't do West any good to overruff, so he will discard a spade.

Now South will finesse dummy's nine of diamonds, cash the king of diamonds, return to his own hand with the king of hearts, draw the last trump and claim the balance of the tricks.

What do you do?

A—Bid one club. You have 20 points which is just too weak for two no trump, so you open with the suit most likely to produce a response from partner.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner responds one diamond. What do you do now?

Soviet Press Silent

Flood Fight Hindered?

MOSCOW (UPI) — A shortage of excavating machines was said today to be hindering the fight to keep a mountain flood from crashing down on the lush cotton fields above Samarkand.

Informed sources said the huge landslide that dammed up the river Zeravshan and created the still-rising lake behind it also cut off the main road from Samarkand.

The remaining bits of road are so narrow, they said, that the large excavating machines needed at the landslide site cannot be moved along it.

An ominous Soviet press silence grew up around the disaster. When the landslide first occurred a week ago, the Soviet press broke precedent by giving it relatively full coverage.

Now, however, Soviet newspapers have stopped writing about the struggle above Samarkand.

Despite earlier reports that a second explosion was being prepared to clear a diversionary channel around the landslide, there have been no reports of the blast itself.

Officials have said that Samarkand, the "golden city" of Genghis Khan and Tamerlane, is safe from any potential flood.

The channel is being dug to divert the lake's water and keep it from overflowing the natural dam and flooding the valley below.

Damage Is Slight in Texas Tornado

TEMPLE, Tex. (UPI) — A tornado played hop-scotch across a 30-block section of this central Texas town yesterday, causing slight damage and injuring 16 persons, including 10 children.

Only seven of the injured were hospitalized. The children's injuries were minor cuts from flying glass.

Authorities said it was miraculous there were no fatalities or serious injuries.

The funnel damaged a total of 10 schools, a hospital, a railroad yard and other buildings in its jaunt across town.

Favored Colts in Bad Spot

LOUISVILLE (AP) — As the years roll on, favorites stand less and less chance of winning the Kentucky Derby, America's greatest horse race.

Since the beginning in 1875 up to the 90th running today, the favorite has come in first 39 of 89 times. But since 1934 it has happened only 10 out of 30 times, and since 1944 only 4 out of 20 times.

George A. Pope's Hill Rise, ridden by Willie Shoemaker, was the 6-5 choice of the handicappers as post time neared. Northern Dancer, the Canadian-bred colt owned by Edward P. Taylor with Bill Hartack up, was the second choice at 5-2 in the field of 12.

ON TO FAME

Along with the declining chance for the favorite to win goes a rising certainty that when a favorite does win, the colt goes on to fame.

The four favorites who won in the last 20 years are ranked among the sports' greatest—Citation in 1948, Hill Gail in 1952, Needles in 1956, and Carry Back in 1961.

Going back a little further there were such favorites, who started toward equine immortality by winning the Derby, as War Admiral in 1937, Whirlaway in 1941, and Count Fleet in 1943.

★ ★ ★

In the list of those who tried and failed at the Derby with odds of 8-5 or less are redoubtable names, too, such as Candy Spots last year, Bold Ruler in 1957, Nashua in 1956, and Native Dancer in 1953. Other favorites who failed include Ridan in 1962, Tompion in 1960, Your Host in 1950, who finished a miserable ninth, Olympia in 1949, who finished sixth, Knockdown in 1946, and Stir Up in 1944.

To the crowd of 100,000 lured by bright skies, a fast track and a redoubtable entry list, the sentiment for Hill Rise was based not only on his impressive string of eight straight victories but also on his decisive victory four days ago in the Derby Trial in the sparkling time of 1:35 1-5 for one mile.

FIVE STRAIGHT

Northern Dancer has a string of five straight victories, including the Flamingo and Florida Derby. Neither Hill Rise nor Northern Dancer has finished out of the money.

Behind Hill Rise and Northern Dancer, in the opinion of the handicappers, came Quadrangle, with Bob Ussery up, and The Scoundrel, ridden by Manuel Yeaza, both at 8-1. Other entries were Roman Brother 10-1; Mr. Brick 15-1; Wil Rad and Dandy K., 20-1; and Extra Swell, Mr. Moonlight, Ishkoodah and Royal Shuck, 30-1.

The Derby disance is one mile and one quarter and each colt will carry 126 pounds.

WATER SAFARI WINNERS — Robert Gillings (in back) of Lansing and Albert Widing of Holly teamed up to win the 500-mile Texas Water Safari with this fiberglas canoe. The two finished the race Tuesday with an elapsed time of 80 hours and 27 minutes. They are shown here moving down the San Marcos River during the early part of the race.

SPORTS

Ex-Tiger Wins 3rd Straight; Phillies 10-2

Rookie Richie Allen Also Assists Spurt With Punch at Plate

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Philadelphia Phils are making merry with a torrid start in the National League race and two of the biggest reasons are a veteran pitcher and a rookie third baseman.

★ ★ ★

Right-hander Jim Bunning, a former American League strikeout king with Detroit, posted his third straight victory and young Richie Allen boosted his average to a hefty .431 Friday night as the Phils hiked their record to 10-2 with a 5-3 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves.

The 32-year-old Bunning, obtained in an inter-league trade, extended his scoreless string to 21 innings before he weakened in the ninth and was rescued by Chris Short and Ed Roebuck. Joe Torre was retired by Roebuck on an infield grounder with the bases loaded to end the game.

SIXTH HOMER

Allen, who hit 33 homers for Little Rock in the International League last year, hit his sixth for the Phils and also had a double in four official trips after he walked against southpaw great Warren Spahn in his first time at bat.

Bunning said he is pitching no differently than when he posted 118 victories against 87 defeats in nine years in the American League. An acquaintance recalled some of his feats with the Tigers and Bunning broke into a broad grin.

★ ★ ★

"I remember the day I struck out Ted Williams three straight times and should have had a fourth," the tall hurdler said.

"The next time we faced each other he hit two homers off me, but we won 5-3.

★ ★ ★

"Williams is the greatest I've ever faced. I haven't seen anycompare with him. I must have struck him out more than any other pitcher, but he also hit 11 homers off me. And I bet he hit over .400 against me. What a one in the league yet who can hitter he was."

Canoe Champions Fail To Negotiate Traffic

By FLETCH SPEARS

HOLLY — The setting was perfect. But the timing was off.

Several hundred persons lined the streets here yesterday afternoon awaiting the arrival of canoeists Albert and LeRoy Widing and Ed Adams, who were returning from Texas where they had taken part, with considerable success, in the 500-mile Texas Water Safari.

★ ★ ★

Albert had teamed with Robert E. Gillings in winning the marathon, and LeRoy and Adams grabbed the runnerup spot.

Banners were waving, the band was playing, flashy fire engines were on display and the mayor along with civic officials were on hand for a 'Key to the City' ceremony.

But Adams and the Widings failed to show. They were bottled up in heavy traffic in Fort Wayne, Ind., at 4 p.m. and called to say they probably wouldn't arrive before 8 p.m.

"We can't wait until tonight," Donald Campbell, publisher of the Herald Advertiser here, said. Campbell had undertaken the task of organizing the reception a little more than 24 hours before.

★ ★ ★

With the crowd waiting, Campbell decided to go ahead with the ceremony.

SHORT PARADE

Following a short parade, Campbell climbed onto the bed of a truck, set up as a speaker's platform, and informed the crowd that the canoe heroes would not make it.

Mayor John F. Oldani completed the final act of the newly-prepared script by presenting 'Keys to the City' to Albert's wife, Dorothy, and to six-year-old Mike Adams.

A major portion of the afternoon crowd was still milling around when Albert and LeRoy rolled into town.

It was 11:30 and those who waited wanted a glimpse of the brothers whose canoe-racing ability had put Holly in headlines.

Albert and Gillings, racing together for the first time, collected an estimated $7,500 in cash and prizes for their efforts in the Water Safari.

★ ★ ★

And in winning the 500-mile race, Widing and Gillings may have altered the design of canoes that will be used in future Safaris.

Manning a fiberglass canoe, they moved well in front of the pack during the 415-mile river portion of the race and paddled across 75 miles of saltwater in the bays of Arkansas and Corpus Christi.

They pulled ashore at Corpus Christi Tuesday at 8:02 a.m., with an elapsed time of 80 hours and 27 minutes.

All told, the journey from the headwaters of the San Marcos River to Corpus Christi took nine days. Only 11 of 44 boats finished the race.

Widing's canoe was a lighter

SUBSTITUTES COLLECT LAURELS—A gala reception for Ed Adams and the Widing brothers, Albert and LeRoy, was set for yesterday in Holly. But Adams and the Widings were tied up in traffic in Indiana and couldn't make it. Civic officials decided to go ahead with the ceremony anyway. On hand to receive 'Keyes to the City' for the absent heroes were Mike Adams, six-year-old son of Ed, and Dorothy Widing, wife of Albert. Making the presentations was Mayor John F. Oldani of Holly.

Wind, Sand Up Scores in Tourney

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — More wind—hopefully not as severe as Friday's — was promised golfers today as Chi Chi Rodriguez, the mighty mite from Puerto Rico, led the way into the third round of the $65,000 Tournament of Champions.

★ ★ ★

The 120-pound, 5-foot-7½ Chi Chi marched courageously through the wind and sand to take the lead at the midway mark Friday with a two-under par 70 and a 36-hole total of 139.

Hanging two strokes back was Jack Nicklaus, who had a 73 for 141 and this observation on the weather as he wiped reddened eyes:

★ ★ ★

"The conditions were as tough as they'll ever be. It was not so much the wind, but the sand in the wind."

'WORST WEATHER'

Gary Player of South Africa, who had a 71 and is tied in third place with Doug Ford and George Knudson at 142, said, "It was the worst weather I've ever played golf in."

Arnold Palmer, who is five strokes off the front end with a pair of 72s, added that he'd just as soon try to play golf in a wind tunnel.

★ ★ ★

The site of this 12th annual event is the 7,073-yard par 36-36—72 Desert Inn Country Club course.

Ford, the first round leader with a 67, settled for a 75.

Golf Buddies Play for N-S Crown

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Billy Joe Patton estimates that he and Dale Morey played perhaps 100 rounds of golf together during the three years they both lived in Morganton, N.C. before Morey moved to High Point last year.

Today they met for the first time under tournament conditions in the 36-hole finals of the North and South amateur championship.

★ ★ ★

Each scored an impressive victory in 18-hole semifinal play Friday. Patton put out Wayne Jackson of Hampton, Va., 4 and 3, the fourth of six matches this week he has won by that score. Morey surprisingly trounced Bob Allen of West Hartford, Conn., 6 and 5. Allen was runner-up last year when Patton won his second straight title and third since 1954.

Tigers Only Game Off Pace

BOSTON (AP) — Despite a puny .241 team batting average and a 4.15 earned run average by the pitching staff, the Detroit Tigers moved into the first full month of the baseball season just one game out of first place in the tight American League race.

The Tigers were idle Friday and were scheduled to open a two-game series with the Boston Red Sox this afternoon.

Dave Wickersham (2-1), one of the three new players who have kept the Tigers in contention in the infant season, was scheduled to start against Bill Monbouquette.

Phil Regan, a winner on opening day but still looking for his second victory, will pitch Sunday.

Four of Detroit's seven victories to date have been credited to pitchers who were chucking for other major league clubs last season.

Relief specialist Larry Sherry also has a pair of victories and received credit for a save on one of Wickersham's triumphs.

Mickey Lolich also has recorded two wins, one with help from Dick Egan, while Regan has the other triumph.

Catcher Bill Freehan's robust .464 batting average is currently the best in the AL. But he's only appeared in eight games and just does qualify for consideration in the averages at this stage of the season.

Jerry Lumpe, who last year was making the plays for Kansas City, is the best hitter among the regulars with a .268 average. Dick McAuliffe's .255 is next.

In fact, the Detroit infielders have carried the team through its first 15 contests. The four regulars have driven in 22 runs, compared to only 14 RBIs from the quartet of outfielders who have been employed by Manager Charlie Dressen.

The Tigers' skipper continues to scratch his head while wondering what to do with his pitching staff.

Frank Lary apparently left his best pitches in Florida, where he had his best spring in ages, and will be used in relief.

Sherry and Dick Egan have been most reliable when summoned in relief. But the rest of the bullpen has been a flop.

Dressen hopes Julio Navarro, acquired from the Los Angeles Angels earlier this week, will be the third big man in the bullpen.

Terry Fox's arm isn't any better and the Tigers appear ready to ship him out or place him on the disabled list.

★ ★ ★

Dressen and General Manager James Campbell continue their talks in hopes of making a few more deals. But it appears that the only changes that can be expected from now until May 14, when all clubs must trim their rosters to 25 players, will be between the parent club and the minor league affiliates.

After Sunday's game, the Tigers journey to New York for a single night game with the Yankees Tuesday, then return to open, against Boston, an 11-day, 13-game home stand Wednesday night.

Service Set Tomorrow for Ex-Northern Athlete

One of the brightest stars in Pontiac Northern's brief athletic history will be laid to rest tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

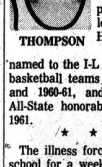
Steve Thompson, 20, who led Northern to an Inter-Lakes Conference basketball title in 1960, died Thursday of Hodgkins disease.

Funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. at Voorheis-Siple Funeral Home on Perry Street. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

★ ★ ★

The disease struck Steve during his senior year. "I noticed that he was fatigued," Hall said, "but he didn't slow down."

During two years with the Huskie varsity, Steve averaged 16 points a game and cornered rebounds at an 18.5-a-game pace.



THOMPSON

"For his size (six feet), he was the best rebounder we ever had," PNH coach Dick Hall said. "He was a tremendous competitor . . . a lot of desire," Hall said.

Steve was named to the I-L All-Conference basketball teams during 1959-60 and 1960-61, and he received All-State honorable mention in 1961.

★ ★ ★

The illness forced him out of school for a week near the end of the '61 campaign, and Northern had a date with Pontiac Central coming up.

Steve, although ill, wanted to play. Hall put him in the lineup and he responded with 25 points against the Chiefs.

Softball Meeting Set

An organizational meeting of teen-agers interested in playing slo-pitch softball in the Avondale Church League will be held at 631 Benson (off East Boulevard) at 7:30 p.m. Monday. Teen-agers from Auburn Heights and Pontiac are invited.

Battey's Bat Batters Kansas City, 10-5

By The Associated Press

Earl Battey put the bite on Kansas City, and both came away aching.

The only trouble for the Athletics, though, was that Battey's ache struck too late.

Minnesota's All-Star catcher pounded a grand slam home run and a tie-breaking two-run single in powering the Twins past Kansas City 10 - 5 Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Battey performed all of his destruction before being forced to leave the game in the eighth inning when a foul tip struck his mask. The foul ball aggravated a toothache that has been plaguing him.

The grand slam homer came in the sixth and gave the Twins a 4-3 edge. His clutch single sent Minnesota into the lead for good in the eighth.

TWO POSTPONED

Rain and wet grounds sliced the American League schedule to just one other game, New York's 10-0 victory over Washington. Cleveland at Baltimore and Los Angeles at Chicago were postponed.

Battey's single to left center in the eighth broke a 4-4 tie. Rollins also singled home two runs in the inning.

★ ★ ★

Home runs accounted for all of Kansas City's runs. Rocky Colavito stroked a two-run blast while Dick Green, Charley Lau and Jim Gentile connected for solo homers. Minnesota's Allison completed the four-bag barrage in the ninth.

The Yankees moved above the .500 mark for the first time this season behind Whitey Ford's two-hitter. Ford, gaining his second shutout, didn't allow a hit after the third. Tom Tresh singled cross the only run in the fourth.

Publinxers Get Started at Morey's

The Michigan Publinx Golf Association will open the 1964 handicap tournament schedule Sunday at Morey's Golf and Country Club, and Tam O'Shanter Country Club will be the site of the season's first Pro-Am tourney.

★ ★ ★

Some of Pontiac's ranking amateurs will be among the 290 golfers participating in the 18-hole Publinx play. Tee-off time is 6:30 a.m.

Entering from Pontiac are Mike Andonian, Jim Anderson, Wally Smith, Charley Barker, Ed Wasik, Tom Balliet, Ronnie Rothbarth.

Area pros who will be bidding for a share of the prize at Tam O'Shanter are Warren Orlick, head pro at Tam O'Shanter, and his assistant, James Picard; Walter Burkemo, Detroit Country Club; Bob Gajda, Forest Lake Country Club; Ted Kroll, Franklin Hills Country Club; Al and Tommy Watrous, Oakland Hills Country Club; and Mac McElmurry, Knollwood Country Club.

★ ★ ★

The tourney starts at 9:30 a.m.

Kalamazoo Nine Halts Broncos With 2-Hitter

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Bowling Green's Jack Thompson yielded only two hits and three walks in leading the Ohioans to a come-from-behind 2-1 Mid-American conference baseball victory over Western Michigan Friday.

Northern, Central Nines Win

Chiefs Topple Midland, 3-0; PNH Wins, 2-0

Huskies Trip Bears; Waterford Blanked by Walled Lake

Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern's baseball teams yesterday dispersed any gloom from the rainy weather with key victories yesterday.

Pontiac Central blanked Midland, 3-0, to remain unbeaten in the Saginaw Valley Conference race while PNH did likewise in the Inter-Lakes League against Berkley, 2-0.

At Waterford, the Skippers were held scoreless by Walled Lake, 3-0, and Farmington took a 9-1 win over Southfield for its first triumph of the season.

Chuck Owen yielded a lone first-inning single at Midland and walked only two in stopping the Chemics, the defending League titlists.

Dennis Burrill and Neil Roberts had back-to-back doubles in the third inning for the only run Owen needed. The catcher also singled in a fifth inning marker with his third hit in the game.

The Chiefs are now 2-0 in the SVC and 3-2 overall.

17 STRIKE OUTS

Roger Hayward fanned 17 batters and permitted two hits in halting Berkley, last year's I-L champions. The big right-hander drove in both runs for PNH.

He singled home Dave Tinkis in the first inning and squeezed in Mike Burklow in the seventh. Northern is now 5-0 this year and 3-0 in the loop.

Walled Lake pushed its mark to 5-1 to remain the I-L runner-up behind the one-hit hurling of John Thomas.

Farmington's Steve Page tossed a two-hitter at Southfield and had hitting support from battery mate Dick Johnston. The receiver homered with a man aboard in the fifth inning.

Bill Freeman had two runs batted in with a double. Page struck out nine and walked two. The first hit off him came in the fifth inning and drove in the only run for the Blue Jays.

Milford Nips Clarkston 9 in W-O Tilt

Redskins Keep Lead in Loop; Sparkman Fans 10 Wolves

Ed Sparkman put Milford's Redskins a step closer to the ball title yesterday by taming Clarkston on two hits, 2-0.

The win boosted Milford's record to 6-1 in loop play. Clarkston is 4-3.

★ ★ ★

Sparkman walked five, struck out 10, and drove in the first run of the game in the opening with a single that chased Jim Ward home.

In Oakland A games, Avondale edged Clawson, 2-1, and Rochester trimmed Fitzgerald, 5-2.

Lynn Thorpe went the distance for Avondale to pick up the win. The Yellow Jackets came up with the winning run in the sixth on doubles by Dick Reddaway and Dennis Acker.

Rochester opened the scoring with one in the second, two in the third, and added single runs in the sixth and seventh.

Steve Kendrick fanned 16 Spartans, striking out the side in all but the third and fifth innings. He gave up three hits.

OTHER GAMES

In other games, St. Agatha handed St. Michael a 6-4 setback; Cranbrook downed Birmingham Seaholm, 9-4; and Birmingham Groves came up with three runs in the last of the seventh inning to nip Oak Park, 7-6.

St. Michael picked up only three hits in dropping its second game of the season. Roger Cook had the biggest blow for the Shamrocks, a single that chased home two runs in the sixth inning.

'M' Nine Rolls on Late Homer

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan shortstop Dave Campbell drove in two runs in the third inning and hit a 370-foot seventh inning homer Friday to break a tie and give the Wolverines a 4-3 Big Ten baseball victory over Purdue.

★ ★ ★

The triumph moved Michigan into sole possession of first place in the Big Ten with a 4-0 league record. The Wolverines and Purdue had been tied for the lead with 3-0 marks going into the game.

Lefthander Clyde Barnhart pitched a nine-hitter for the winners, striking out five and walking one. Purdue hurler Mike Purvis struck out four, walked two and was tagged for seven hits in going the distance for the losers.

★ ★ ★

Michigan's victory was its 10th of the season against 11 losses. Purdue is 10-3 for the season.

'Rocky' Back in Homer Race

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Rocky Colavito is off to a fast start in the American League home run race and the proud, sensitive slugger makes it clear the pay cut he took from Kansas City owner Charles O. Finley has nothing to do with it.

Asked whether the $4,000 cut in his $50,000 Detroit salary furnished him an incentive, Colavito said:

"I didn't need that. My incentive is just putting on the major league uniform. I've always gone all-out for every club I've been with."

Colavito has slammed four home runs and is tied for the AL homer lead with teammate Jim Gentile, Cleveland's Leon Wagner and Washington's Bill Skowron. All four of Rocky's homers came during the current A's home stand and all were off right-handed pitching.

BATTING .270

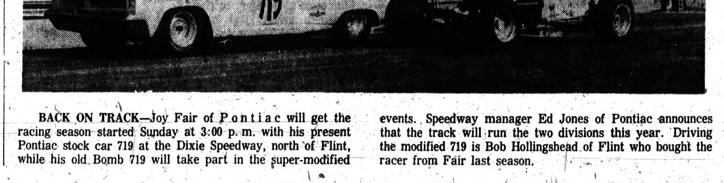
His eight runs batted in leads the A's and he's batting .270.

★ ★ ★

"My timing is good and I'm doing a good job of waiting for the pitch I want," Colavito said.

The handsome 30-year-old slugger is certain to be a top threat for the American League home run crown. The ball carries better to left field here than in any park in the league. The homer distance to left center is a respectable 363 feet, and he is a strong pull hitter.

In the past six seasons, Colavito has hit 222 home runs, more than any other American League hitter. He averaged 37 homers and 109 runs batted in during this span.



BACK ON TRACK—Joy Fair of Pontiac will get the racing season started Sunday at 3:00 p. m. with his present Pontiac stock car 719 at the Dixie Speedway, north of Flint, while his old Bomb 719 will take part in the super-modified events. Speedway manager Ed Jones of Pontiac announces that the track will run the two divisions this year. Driving the modified 719 is Bob Hollingshead of Flint who bought the racer from Fair last season.

Seaholm, PCH Class A Contenders Today

River Rouge, Pickford Win Central Michigan Relay Crowns

MOUNT PLEASANT (AP) — Tiny Pickford and powerful River Rouge each racked up their third straight prep track titles Friday in the 24th Central Michigan University Relays.

Coach Web Morrison's perennial Upper Peninsula powerhouse scored in 12 of 16 events to take the Class D championship. River Rouge survived a strong challenge from Willow Run to take the Class B crown.

★ ★ ★

Class A and C schools will vie for two more titles today. Flint Northern and Birmingham Seaholm are defending co-champions in Class A. Lansing Boys Training School is defending Class C titlist.

Pontiac Central and Waterford are expected to make good showings.

Pickford, Michigan School for the Deaf and Unionville, which have finished 1-2-3 in the CMU Relays for the past two seasons, would up in the same order again Friday. Pickford notched 71½ points. MSD was a distant second with 56 and Unionville had 38.

THREE FIRSTS

River Rouge scored in nine of 16 events to edge Willow Run 43 to 39. Willow Run made its bid by winning three team relay events. Lansing O'Rafferty took third with 30 points.

Only two meet records fell—both in field events—as the runners raced over a track dampened by week-long rains.

Rob Johnson, a 5-foot-11 junior from Vassar, put the 12-pound shot 54 feet 10¼ inches to snap the mark of 53-6½ posted last spring by another Vassar athlete, Jim Colosky.

Ionia pole vaulter Bob Banhagel broke the other mark with a vault of 12 feet 10½ inches. This bettered the 12-4 showing of Vassar's Mike May in 1963. May finished third Friday.

★ ★ ★

Haslett dropped from fourth place to 32nd position in the final Class B standings after officials disqualified two victorious Hornet relay teams for use of ineligible runners.

Two Haslett runners were disqualified for competing in more events than the rules specify, officials said. The ruling cost Haslett 20 points.

Pickford's Roger Hewer was the only double winner in Class D. He flashed to victory in the high and low hurdles, taking the 120 highs in 15.7 seconds, and coming back to cop the 180 lows in 20.9.

GM Plans Factory North of Montreal

QUEBEC CITY (UPI) — General Motors of Canada Ltd., yesterday announced plans to build a plant capable of producing 100,000 cars a year at Ste. Therese, 20 miles north of Montreal.

The announcement, billed previously by Premier Jean Lesage as of "great national significance," was made jointly by GM's Canadian president E.H. Walker and Lesage.

Walker said the plant, to be in production next year, was part of a $120-million expansion of GM's Canadian operations.

Sharp Losses Evened

Mart Adjusts After Low Week

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market took some sharp losses this week but balanced them out with a couple of rallies that left the averages about even as the week ended.

★ ★ ★

Analysts saw the declines as part of a correction of the prolonged rise since last November. How much further this correction had to go was a matter of doubt among Wall Street experts. Optimism prevailed for the longer term, based on rising profits and the general strength of the economy.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped .3 to 303.1.

The moves of all these indicators were minor. In the over-all list of 1,523 issues traded this week, however, losers outnumbered gainers by 792 to 537.

The comparatively steady performance of the averages appeared to reflect a reluctance of most high quality issues to yield much ground. The plurality of losers in the entire stock list showed a disposition to take profits on a wide assortment of issues that have advanced in the past six months.

★ ★ ★

Volume this week totaled 27,811,850 shares compared with 29,083,081 last week. About 3.9 million of this total was accounted for by two stocks, Texas Gulf Sulphur and Curtis Publishing. Texas Gulf gained 8⅝ at 52⅞ and Curtis rose 5½ to 17½. Demand for both stocks was based on their holdings of Ontario land, presumed to be rich in minerals.

Union, Rubber Firms Postpone Negotiations

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — The United Rubber Workers and three tire companies, Firestone, Goodyear and General, announced today they had mutually agreed to suspend negotiations on the pension and insurance agreement because of a failure to arrive at a satisfactory agreement.

★ ★ ★

The companies and union agreed to resume negotiations later, but no date was set.

Collegiate Editors Test Ford Mustang

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. is getting a drive-it-yourself sampling of collegiate opinion on its new Mustang car.

Forty-four college newspaper editors from across the nation are driving Mustangs — compliments of Ford—for the balance of the school year.

"We're trying to get their ideas on how to appeal to the youth market," a company spokesman said.

Ford invited 60 collegiate editors to drive the Mustang. Sixteen declined at a meeting here last week.

Chrysler May Obtain Mack Truck

DETROIT (AP) — A proposal under which Chrysler Corp. would obtain control of Mack Trucks Inc. will be considered by the respective boards of directors at special meetings in the near future.

This was announced Friday by Lynn A. Townsend, president of Chrysler, and C. Rhoades MacBride, chairman of the board of Mack Trucks. They said management representatives of the two firms have agreed tentatively on general terms.

★ ★ ★

The proposal is that Chrysler issue to Mack 20 year subordinated 4⅞ per cent debentures of Chrysler which Mack would offer to its stockholders at the rate of one $50 debenture for each Mack share outstanding on the date of purchase.

The debenture would be convertible until Dec. 31, 1969 into one share of common stock at Chrysler upon surrender of the debenture and payment of $15 by the debenture holder.

STOCK OPTION

Total issue of debentures will be from approximately $138.7 million to $164.5 million, the exact amount depending on the extend to which the outstanding warrants for purchase of Mack stock and employe stock options are exercised, a Chrysler spokesmen said.

Acquisition of Mack would permit Chrysler to diversify its commercial vehicles line, which currently is restricted to the Dodge truck line. Mack manufactures many heavy truck lines.

★ ★ ★

Spokesmen said that if the acquisition is approved, present plans are that Mack Truck, which has headquarters in Plainfield, N. J., will function as a self-contained operating division of Chrysler Corp.

MOVES LOWER—For the second straight week, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks moved lower, closing yesterday at 303.1 from 303.4 a week earlier. The Commodity Index, led by food and livestock, advanced slightly to 161.9 from 161.7 in the preceding period.

GM Says Records Show Hiring Nondiscriminatory

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors Corp., threatened with a protest demonstration next Monday, says its hiring policy and records prove that it does not practice racial discrimination.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says thousands of persons will demonstrate outside the G Mheadquarters building here.

Edgar Holt, NAACP president in Michigan, said the protest is being called because of "unfair employment, promotional and general malpractices of GM with reference to Negroes."

Louis Seaton, GM vice president in charge of personnel, said Friday the firm extends employment opportunities to qualified applicants and employes "on a non-discriminatory basis."

CONTRACT CLAUSE

Seaton also said that GM's contract with the United Auto Workers includes a non-discrimination clause.

In a letter to 30 business, religious and civic leaders in Detroit, Seaton reported that General Motors has about 44,000 nonwhites on its payrolls in this country. The number is 9.2 per cent of GM's nationwide employment.

★ ★ ★

Seaton also declared that employment of nonwhites in creased 13.2 per cent last year compared to a total job increase of 4.1 per cent. The figures compared with 1962 employment.

Seaton said nonwhites hold many skilled jobs and supervisory positions and that GM recruits for nonwhite engineering and other types of college graduates.

ONCE FOR ALL

Holt, the NAACP leader, the organization is "going to demonstrate to General Motors once and for all that we demand an end to racial discrimination in employment and job upgrading.

"The thousands of marchers who are coming here from as far away as San Francisco will be living proof. . . that Negroes will no longer live with this kind of job discrimination nor will they patronize a corporation whose products are produced in the Jim Crow tradition."

★ ★ ★

Holt said Monday's demonstration, scheduled for noon to 6 p.m., will be followed by smaller protest marches at GM facilities in other cities.

U.S. Bonds Rise 1st Time in 5 Months

NEW YORK (AP)—April was the first month of higher prices for U.S. government bonds since November. Corporate bonds fell back a shade, based on the Associated Press average of 60 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

Many intermediate and long maturity treasury issues gained 3-8ths of a point and one issue was higher by more than 1⅛ points. Governments had been lower in February and March after an irregular January.

The market steadied at the start of April, posted its best rally in five months during the second week and then finished with a gradual upward move. Just about every bond advanced. More than a dozen picked up ¼ point or more.

Auto Firms Set April Record

DETROIT (UPI) — The auto industry produced an estimated 785,000 cars during April, an all-time high for the month and the third highest monthly production rate in history, Ward's Automotive Reports said yesterday.

According to the statistical firm, truck production totaled about 155,000 units, a new high for any month.

General Motors reported that its divisions turned out a total of 427,046 passenger cars and 66,124 commercial vehicles during the month, compared with 383,093 cars and 51,768 commercial vehicles during the same month last year.

Chevrolet led the way with a new record of 228,856 cars and 55,317 trucks. The old record for cars was 228,039 units assembled last January and the previous high for trucks was 51,423, also set last January.

★ ★ ★

Chrysler said its production for the month totaled 99,065 cars and 12,436 trucks. During the same month last year, Chrysler produced 79,842 cars and 10,403 trucks.

Lower Prices Aid Weakness in Steer Market

CHICAGO (AP) — Continued liberal marketings and lower prices for dressed beef at wholesale outlets contributed to weakness in the slaughter steer market this week and the offerings sold steady to 50 cents lower. The decline was on choice grade and below.

The average price of all steers for the week slipped to $20.62 a hundredweight, the lowest weekly average in more than seven years.

Cattle slaughter for the previous week under federal inspection was reported at 480,000 head, largest of record. Indications are it may have increased slightly this week.

In the News From Washington

To Ask Ruling on U.S. Subsidizing of Books

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

USIA SUBSIDIES: Rep. Glenard P. Lipscomb, R-Calif., said today he will seek a ruling from the General Accounting Office on the spending of U.S. Information Agency funds to subsidize secretly the production of books.

Lipscomb is a member of the House Appropriations subcommittee that heard testimony about the program. Publication of a censored transcript this week showed that, among other things, USIA had put $14,863 into the production of an anti-Communist book being sold in the United States and abroad without disclosure of government sponsorship.

Lipscomb said the General Accounting office has ruled that USIA must confine its information activities to other countries and that on this basis the showing of some USIA-made motion pictures in the United States was stopped.

SMOKING: In the nation's capital, nearly one-fourth of the senior high school students and eight per cent of the junior high students are regular, daily cigaretie smokers, it was reported today.

The figures were obtained in a random-sampling survey of students in public, private and parochial schools by the District of Columbia division of the American Cancer Society and the D.C. Congress of Teens for Cancer Education.

The survey results include replies to questionnaires by 4,800 students; and 4,200 students in 19 junior high schools having total enrollment of some 30,000.

LIGHT SIDE: Republicans can keep their pennies, for the White House has never been brighter, says press secretary George Reedy.

★ ★ ★

President Johnson hasn't ordered one outside bulb turned off, said reedy, but has "exercised some care to see that unnecessary lights inside the White House are not burning."

Johnson issued orders back in December that unneeded lights be darkened — a move that prompted some Republicans to label him "Light Bulb Johnson."

A reporter called Reedy's attention Friday to a new GOP suggestion for contributions of pennies to underwrite a brighter White House. Said Reedy: "If the Republican National Committee wishes to deal in pennies —I don't think I'll finish that thought."

Says Selective Service Director

'Tension Must Ease Before Draft Cut'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, said today he believes there must be a considerable change in the international climate before the United States can end the draft.

"We have got to get this nation and the world to the place where mutual fear is tremendously different from now," said Hershey in an interview.

"I believe things can be better," he added, "but we ought not to check in our gun until we are sure."

Last month President Johnson announced plans for "a very comprehensive study of the draft system and of related manpower studies."

STUDY GOALS

The study, Johnson said, would "consider alternatives to the present draft selection system, including the possibility of meeting our requirements on an entirely voluntary basis within a decade."

★ ★ ★

There have been complaints that the draft system is unfair. Because the pool of eligible young men exceeds the need, some are called while others are excused.

The President said he was not predicting that the military manpower requirements could be met on a voluntary basis in the next decade but that the study "looks forward to that."

★ ★ ★

Emphasizing this point, Hershey said he has "very definite doubts" that military requirements can be met without some form of compulsion unless they are reduced "to 'little short of a police force."

BRITISH DIFFICULTY

He said Britain is finding it very difficult to keep her armed forces at a level of around 190,000 to 200,000 since the draft was dropped there.

"Some people say we can have forces of 1.5 million without compulsion," Hershey said, "but we've never done it." Now the nation's armed services number about 2.7 million, with only the Army relying on the draft.

★ ★ ★

"I have always felt that the military services got three or four enlistments for each of our inductions," Hershey said. "This fiscal year we are going to deliver about 160,000 men, up some 50,000 from last year. The services are going to receive some 600,000 to 700,000 men in all, from the inductions, voluntary enlistments and re-enlistments."

Among the changes Hershey feels are needed before the draft can be discontinued:

"We have to have a climate not only periodically friendly but have a world not of predator forces and people but of people who believe very firmly that other people don't want to hurt them. We've got to have a climate in which we would not need so many people in our armed forces. The nuclear test ban treaty and the reduction of nuclear explosives production would seem to be a good start.

★ ★ ★

"We have got to have active recruiting and incentives. It seems to me that every time the pay goes up inside the armed forces, pay goes up more outside, and the situation is only worse than it was before. Also, I don't want to depend solely on the money level. Some of us have become so sophisticated that we have forgotten about patriotism and the flag. I would hate to see the time when the nation needed a million men and the only way to get them would be some incentive of a material kind. Somebody else might offer to pay them more.

"We ought to think of our armed forces as the elite. We ought to take a man in on probation and judge him by his performance rather than take him in on the basis of testing on paper."

Money Switcher Makes Bad Deal

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — A man tried to pull a money switch on a teller at a savings and loan association and wound up losing $1.

He handed Alice Aldridge four $10 bills Friday in exchange for two $20s. Then he switched a $1 bill for a $20 and told her she had made a mistake.

★ ★ ★

"No, I did not. You'll have to wait a minute so I can count my cash on hand and prove it," she replied.

The man said he had to put money in a parking meter and disappeared, leaving his $1 behind.

Flagrant Violation on Parking Tickets

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP) — Richard Sutton of Ironton, Ohio, recently was jailed at Ashland until he paid $137.50 in fines for 31 overtime parking tickets.

In sending the man to jail, the judge said the case involved "the most flagrant violation ever to come before this court."

Parachute Maker Dies

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Manufacturer Allan C. Scott, 81, who was credited with development of a parachute which enabled men to bail out of airplanes, died Friday. Scott's idea in 1918, still used, was a smaller pilot chute that pulled out the main chute.

'Secret Data Used Politically'

ATLANTA (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater charged today that President Johnson's administration is using top secret information for political purposes.

The Arizona conservative, here to keynote Georgia's GOP convention, said the administration, released hitherto secret information on U. S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba, thereby making classified information available to the Russians.

Goldwater, addressing a $25-a-plate breakfast in advance of his keynote address, said that prior to the release of the information he, as a member of the U. S. Senate, had "sworn with my hand on a Bible," not to reveal the information.

The Arizona coriservative repeated his charge that the Soviet Union had a missile lead over the United States and that the Russian arsenal includes 750 immediate range missiles "aimed at Europe."

★ ★ ★

Goldwater, in obvious reference to an incident with a radio newsman last night, referred to it as "rudeness."

The radio newsman had tried to put a microphone in front of him, but Goldwater pushed it away.

Romney Will Get Report on U.S. Districting Powers

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney's chief legal aide is preparing a report to the governor today on what — if anything the U.S. Supreme Court may do on the question of legislative redistricting.

The report by Robert Danhof, legal advisor to Romney, was to be based on talks held in Washington Friday with U.S. Solicitor General Archibald Cox.

Danhof declined to discuss his hush-hush conversation with Cox, but described himself as "not discouraged."

This could mean he obtained an indication of when the U.S. court may hand down a decision in any one of six pending cases which could clear the way for solving Michigan's legislative districting snarl.

WAITING GUIDELINES

The Michigan Supreme Court, split over the question, is awaiting "guidelines" from the U.S. court before ruling on the propriety of reapportionment plans before it.

While the governor awaited Danhof's report, a 14-member, bipartisan negotiating committee in the House went ahead with its own efforts to map out new House districts.

★ ★ ★

The drive was aimed at agreement on a plan which would give each party in the 110-member House an equal number of so-called "safe" districts, with the remainder being "swing" districts that could go either way.

The committee worked out a plan Friday that, on the basis of past voting records, would give Democrats 51 seats, Republicans 52, and leave seven as "swing" districts.

ALLOW COURTS

Also proposed was a resolution aimed at amending the new constitution to let the new Court of Appeals take over the redistricting problem if the Legislative Apportionment Commission, already once unsuccessful, failed again.

Reflections

J. L. VOORHEES

GO BACK TO GO FORWARD:

The rocket failed. The scientists didn't abandon the project but carefully checked back for cause, found it, and that rocket performed perfectly. In the crucial game of life it is impossible to Go Back but it is very simple to check our plan and then Go Ahead to Success.

The minister asks, "Do you promise to —" and you answer, "Yes." That "Yes" commits you; it is a promise. Go Back before you go ahead, fully appreciate the deep meaning of those promises and you'll experience a little bit of heaven.

Gen. MacArthur did the impossible; before he issued an order he went Back time and time again before he Went Forward. Eisenhower planned the biggest battle ever fought; every detail was checked time and time again, for one error. He went Back To Go Forward.

Go Back To Go Forward is insurance for pleasant days ahead.

State Ranks 3rd in License Sales

LANSING (AP) — Michigan ranked third nationally last year in the number of sportsmen buying hunting and fishing licenses, says the Conservation Department.

The state had nearly 1,765,000 license-buyers to rank behind first place California and runnerup Minnesota.

Michigan was second in hunter numbers behind Pennsylvania, the leader. Nearly 860,500 gunners and archers purchased 1,142,745 licenses, permits and permits and stamps at a cost of $4,775,400.

The state slipped one notch to fourth place in the number of licensed fishermen, behind California, Minnesota and Wisconsin. Michigan had 903,190 anglers purchasing 1,079,322 licenses and stamps for a total of $2,272,541.

Whither the Weather? Speaker Snowed Out

The principal speaker's topic was to have been, "Predicting the Weather."

Bea Lillie Stops the Show as She Spoofs the Spooks

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Beatrice Lille actually believes in poltergeists—those spooks that move furniture while you're looking at it and snatch your shoes out of your grasp when the doorbell's ringing . . .

WILSON

Which makes her hilarious performance as the medium, "Madame Arcati" of the ouija board, in "High Spirits," doubly fascinating.

"Exist? Of course they exist!" Lady Peel shouted at me a recent 5 p.m. in Sardi's while she was having her pre-performance dinner. "And they're very naughty, too . . .

"In the summer theater," she said, "I had a fan that was very important to me in a scene. I'd put it right down here where I could get it quickly. I came to get it and it was not there. And nobody else had been in the room. Oh, I told them off, the silly so-and-sos. I told them, 'I'll get even wtih you, you blankety, blank blank poltergeists!"

★ ★ ★

One can never quite be sure with Miss Lillie. But she had stated this opinion before . . . about shoes being found tucked away on high shelves, above her reach, above the reach of anybody who'd been there lately.

"At home in England one night," she said, "suddenly the curtain came right out at me across the bed . . . and there wasn't even a breeze to blow it.

"Oh, they're very naughty, the poltergeists. Very naughty."

Miss Lillie goes so far as to claim that in one of the seance scenes in the Noel Coward musical hit, which is supposed to kid seances, she actually felt herself galvanized by something unnatural.

"Only once it happened," she says. "But I couldn't lift my hands from the table."

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Producer Ray Stark, who was annoyed at his "Funny Girl" premiere party when the band played tunes from the rival "Hello, Dolly," arrived in L.A.—and found a band at the airport playing "Hello, Dolly" (a gag by his aides—or ex-aides) . . . It'll be like the old days—Sammy Davis Jr.'ll do three shows nightly during his Copa stint.

William Redfield has publishers bidding for his "Letters From an Actor," about his experiences in the Burton-"Hamlet" show . . . famed actor John Mills takes second billing to daughter Hayley, 18, in "Chalk Garden" . . . Sandy Dennis, who won an award for "Thousand Clowns" on Broadway, refused the role in the film version. (She's now in "Any Wednesday."

EARL'S PEARLS: Bob Hope stuck a timely line in his movie, "Global Affair." Seeing an elephant run by, he shouted, "Go Barry!"

CLEVER IDEA — The Charles F. Hookers of Brooklawn Drive, Birmingham, are avid readers. Keeping their monthly magazine collection neat, however, proved quite an exhausting chore. Until, that is, Mrs. Hooker combined ingenuity and curtain rods. To their front entrance wall, she affixed three brass rods. The current issues are draped over the rods, allowing the living room table tops to remain empty and dustable without a major cleaning campaign.

COLONIAL GRANDEUR — The four bedroom colonial, built by Silver Lake Construction Company, may be duplicated for $31,500. Located at 2909 Shawnee Lane in the Jayno Heights Subdivision, off Walton at Schoolhouse Lake, the home offers many custom features. Among them are compartmentalized closets throughout. The large master bedroom is adjoined by a dressing room and bath. The model may be seen from 2 p.m. till dark daily.

FAMILY ROOM — The family room of the Silver Lake's Jayno Heights model has a broad curved window, dressed with center-tied glass curtains. Completely furnished to give prospective buyers decorating ideas, the room is wallpapered in green. A multi-colored oval rug highlights the peg floors. A maple scale planter emphasizes the Early American theme on the floor-to-ceiling fireplace.

Decorates Outside Old Wagon Wheel

Old wagon wheels sometimes can be seen as decorations outside of country homes and farmhouses.

Such wheels, which are still available at some outdoor furniture dealers, can be given at least two functional uses.

With a couple of coats of white paint, one can be hung or supported near the house to make an interesting trellis.

Or set one in a wooden frame and add hinges and you have a useful outdoor gate.

The dripless type of paints especially good for basement walls and other porous surfaces.

Old Apartments Need Up-to-Date Face-Lifting

Growth of new apartment construction, biggest factor in the housing market today, is increasingly turning owners of older buildings to modernization.

★ ★ ★

However, modernization must be more than skin deep if it is to do the job of meeting competition.

Pointing out that poor heating can be a major source of tenant dissatisfaction, apartment owners are urged not only to put heating and cooling systems in good condition, but to take advantage of the latest developments in hydronics (modern hot water and steam heating) as well.

One of the latest developments, modern hydronic zone control, with a thermostat in each apartment, permits tenants to select the temperature they prefer, and ends underheating and overheating.

With zoning, whether there are two units or dozens in the building, apartments on the shady side are just as comfortable as those on the sunny side, and the individual thermostats can correct instantly for changes in weather or usage.

Owners not only find they save as much as 20 per cent on fuel with hydronic zoning, but equally important, end a major source of tenant complaints.

Average Heating Bill

A recent study shows that average heating and cooling costs in a 1,200-square-foot house should be no more than $130 a year, providing the house has been thoroughly insulated, according to housing experts at Allied Chemical's Barrett Division.

Colonial Construction Up

By JODY HEADLEE

Oakland County's new home-owners have their eye on the sky as they insist on homes built "up instead of out." For reasons known only to themselves, instigators of this colonial trend are causing a rustle that may develop into a full fledged roar.

Ward Ross of Ross Homes stated that colonials represent 50 per cent of his new home construction.

"The current movement toward the traditional two-story," said Ross, "took place about four or five years ago. I think people were tired of the lack of home privacy and wanted definitive areas zoned off."

In the main, local builders and developers agree that there is a significant housing trend towards the construction of two-story homes in Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

They do not agree, however, on the cause. Some feel that the growth in the colonial field is due to an urge to return to the past. The majority interpret the current market as a definite reflection of the rise in the nation's economy.

At one end of the scale, L. H. Grimes, sales manager of Bateman Realty Company, expresses his opinions cautiously. "Prior to 1960, companywide, we had almost no call for colonials. Recently, we have noticed an interest in the two-story houses.

"Let me say, I don't foresee an overwhelming push toward the colonial market, but I do feel that buyers are more colonial minded.

NEED CONSTANT

"The need, however, for ranch and bi-levels remains constant. For example, of the 28 new homes that we have under construction, not one is a colonial."

★ ★ ★

Max Hawkins of Macksey, Inc. voiced a more affirmative stand. "I don't think this is just an Oakland County move," he said.

"Its roots are over the entire Great Lakes region. But I do feel it's in a particular price range.

★ ★ ★

"For instance, our homes in the $25,000 and up class, average 75-85 per cent two-story dwellings.

"Below that cost, I don't believe you can incorporate enough space to create a satisfactory colonial.

"Buyers don't want the standard colonial popular in the 1940's. If you remember, those models had formal living and dining rooms plus a kitchen and perhaps a half bath on the first floor. Upstairs, you found three bedrooms and a full bath.

★ ★ ★

"Today," Hawkins continued, "this would not sell. Prospective homeowners want all that was in the 1940 house plus a family room and a main floor utility area, basement or no. Upstairs are the four bedrooms and two or more baths.

BEDROOM SUITE

"In the foreseeable future, I think these colonials will also include a master bedroom suite on the main floor. The upstairs will be earmarked for other family members.

"Even in our ranch homes, many buyers seek a traditional feeling by using reclaimed brick and other colonial appointments.

"As to why the popularity of two-story houses? I think many of those in the market for a new home are second-home buyers looking for something different.

"And our high dollar economy has made it possible for them to achieve it."

★ ★ ★

Strengthening the trend theory but contradicting Hawkin's price range ideas, another Oakland county new-home dealer reported that of the last 20 houses he'd sold, 12 were colonials. These were in the $18,500 category.

He explains the buyer demand, "you get more house for your money in colonials. It is cheaper to build up than out."

★ ★ ★

"Yes," said Ray Rapaport, custom builder, "colonials are on the increase, particularly in southern Oakland County.

"The trend appears to be connected to the overall higher individual income. The higher a man's income bracket, the more he leans toward the conservative colonial."

"I would venture to say, that almost 50 per cent of the homes in the $25,000 and up class are two-story adaptations."

★ ★ ★

Agreeing with the majority, a representative of Mott Construction Company pointed out, "the last five years have represented an impressive growth in the two-story line.

"Colonials have eye-appeal. Also, there's a feeling of stability and elegance in a colonial home."

★ ★ ★

The totals of a recent Pontiac Press survey indicate that 85 per cent of the companies and individuals contacted recognize a rebirth of colonial popularity.

NATIONWIDE TREND?

Does this rising colonial market represent a nationwide trend? "No," writes Charles T. Stewart, public affairs director of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, Washington, D. C., "Colonial design in domestic architecture never seems to go out of style."

He concludes, "It would be hard to pinpoint any time at which a modern demand for this style started, since it has never really been absent."

Preston Figley, public relation department of the National Association of Home Builders, Washington, D. C., reports, "Our staff does not see a nationwide trend to the colonial style, but simply a steady popularity maintained through the various surges in other styles."

On the west coast, Jocelyn Cox, associate editor of "Home Individuality," states, "We have noticed a revival of interest in the traditional home.

★ ★ ★

"I think, however, that it is not so much of a trend back to colonial homes as a reawakening of respect for heritage in our homes and a blending of the best from both the past and present in architecture and decorating.

"The result is really a new type of home which defies any favorite label, or at least a home which would be called a modern colonial built for twentieth century living." In conclusion, the survey gives evidence that, regardless of the area, the building of modern colonials represents, if not a growing trend, at least a steady safe market for homeowners. One in which there would be little or no danger of the style being a passing vogue, or poor investment.

Paint Hints Help Owner

Your Spring paint job can be significantly improved by using proper brushing techniques.

Here are some rules to follow. Keep an even pressure on the brush, using long sweeping arm strokes. Use both sides of each brushfull and end each stroke with a light, lifting motion.

Try to work across, as much as possible, to avoid lap marks in the paint. Always apply paint to an unpainted area and work into the wet edge of the previously painted portion.

WON'T BE LONG — Before you know it winter will be back with youngsters' boots, ice skates and snowball soggy mittens. Are you prepared? Mrs. William Mara of Knob Hill Court is. She has mounted a piece of pegboard near the utility door entrance. The clever mitten line keeps pairs together by a clothespin as they dry. "You'll save your back and your lungs," claims Mrs. Mara. "The handy hanger teaches children neatness almost by remote control." Please note, she said, "almost, so don't expect miracles."

Many people would be at a loss in such a situation since they are not familiar with one.

The Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau advises that every homeowner should locate a qualified contractor and keep his name and phone number alongside those of the doctor, police and fire department.

A good way to obtain recommendations of fully qualified and reputable plumbing contractors in your area is to call the local association of plumbing contractors.

Basementless Homes Hide Furnaces Neatly

Where do you put the furnace in a home without a basement?

With the types, shapes, and sizes of furnaces available today, there are a number of answers.

The new horizontal furnaces, for instance, can be hung from the ceiling in a utility room. Or they can be installed in a crawl space, attic, or loft. Or, if you do have a basement, they can be suspended from the rafters.

Whatever the location, the heating plant requires no valuable floor space. With the furnace out of the way, there is more space for living and storage.

The homeowner has his choice of fuel—gas, oil, or electric—with the new horizontal forced air furnaces. And in all cases, the heating system is easily and economically adapted to summer air conditioning as well.

Another answer to the problem of where to put the furnace in a basementless home is the counterflow unit, so called because the conventional upward flow of warm air from the furnace into the ductwork is reversed.

HEATING PLANT

In this case, the heating plant is installed in a closet, utility room ,or alcove, taking up very little floor space.

Instead of the ducts being overhead, as with a basement furnace, they are underfoot, in the slab. The counterflow unit then moves the heated, filtered air downward into the duct system and throughout the house.

Here again, whole-house air air conditioning can be added at relatively low cost.

50th Anniversary Celebrated in 1964

Model Rooms Are Displayed at New York World's Fair

There's many a problem not found in arithmetic facing the American homemaker: how to make the most of space in the more compact homes of today.

★ ★ ★

How to provide storage space for the wardrobes and personal belongings of each member of the family is one of the vexing questions with which she must deal.

How to furnish a living room so that is is comfortable, attractive and with seating arrangements adequate for guests as well as the family group is another solution for which the amateur decorator must contend.

Problems such as these and many others are answered in the series of model rooms which nationally known designers have planned for the $2,300,000 Pavilion of American Interiors, New York World's Fair, in which more than 150 exhibitors are introducing approximately $10,000,000 in products for the home.

★ ★ ★

Living quarters for young America, for instance, have acquired vastly new concepts in the past decade.

CHILD' ROOM

Today, a child's room is planned with a scientific recognition of his growing needs as well as the psychological approach to neatness and order.

A designer for one of the Pavilion's model rooms for juveniles has created a group of clever wall units to save space and permit flexible storage arrangements.

Whimsy gives an added appeal to this room in reproductions of beloved nursery characters on the ceiling for the infant who must, of necessity, spend a good many hours on his back.

★ ★ ★

In another room, the problem of the unexpected guest in the small home is resolved with a decorator type sofa bed which conceals its utilitarian overnight use in clean contemporary lines, making it an admirable choice for the decorator-type living room or study.

An almost unbelievable accomplishment in the use of space for a living room-kitchen unit provides areas for recreation and family activities as well. Such a plan should have great appeal for the young couple starting out with a small home where every inch of space must be organized for efficient living.

Included in this model multi-unit room is the ultimate in modern equipment for all facets of homemaking.

Color, too, should be a prime consideration in the decoration plan of the smaller room. A wise choice of colors can give an atmosphere of spaciousness, making the small room seem much larger than its actual dimensions.

Under the imaginative direction of experienced designers, model rooms planned for the Pavilion will present many new and unusual approaches to color plans for homes of today, whether contemporary or traditional.

Burn Winter Accumulation

Spring cleaning produces a wealth of material that is destined for the trash heap. And much of this material is usually of a combustible nature.

Of course, the best way to get rid of this accumulation of litter is to burn it.

And the best way to burn it, fire officials point out, is in a steel burner.

Galvanized steel burners, available in several sizes, have perforated sides and covers which permit the trash to burn rapidly without the danger of having flaming particles spread to nearby buildings.

Actually, you can use rubbish burners to burn your weekly supply of newspapers, old magazines, and unusable boxes and cartons. In the fall, they're invaluable for burning leaves as well.

Practical Philosophy Homeowner's Answer

"Half a loaf is better than none" is an especially useful piece of practical philosophy for the homeowner — especially where there is a tight budget.

With thought, imagination and very little cash outlay you can add to the convenience and beauty of your home by concentrating on certain strategic areas against the day when a more bountiful bankroll will allow you to have the "whole loaf."

First, make a complete survey of your present home. Look for small areas that represent major cleaning problems.

As you do it, be alert to what can be accomplished with a specific material like ceramic tile that combines beauty and practicality.

Here are some examples of directions your quest may lead:

CERAMIC TILE

Perhaps, when your home was built, the ceramic tiling was limited to the area immediately around your tub or shower.

Trouble is that the wall areas around the lavatory, light switches and towel bars also receive a lot of moisture and — what with children's grimy hands — present a many-times-a-day cleaning chore.

Later on, you'll want to finish the entire bath, but for now, content yourself with tiling just the area that needs it most.

★ ★ ★

Another likely spot for a touch of tile is the floor immediately surrounding your laundry equipment in the basement. Rugged and attractive quarry tile is a natural for the few square feet involved here.

Window sills and mantels which take a lot of abuse from sudden storms and plant-watering accidents are two more natural areas for permanent improvement.

Another idea for tile that is part decorative and entirely practical is to set a course of decorative tile around your kitchen just at the height where chair backs do the most damage to your present walls. The result will be simple to achieve, distinctive and easy to keep clean.

★ ★ ★

Endless examples could be given, but you know your own home and needs better than anyone else. If you can't have the whole loaf just now, why not help yourself to several slices of comfort and convenience until you can?

Electronic Filters Are Effective

If you live in a three-bedroom home in a climate which requires heating for six months of the year, your furnace probably will circulate more than 100,000,000 cubic feet of air through the house during a heating season.

Multiply this figure by the millions of particles of dirt, dust, bacteria, and other foreign materials in every cubic foot of air and you get an idea of the importance of the filtering system built into all forced air furnaces.

Conventional furnace filters strain out huge quantities of foreign materials, returning clean air to the house. An even more effective job is done by the electronic filters now on the market.

These units will eliminate more than 90 per cent of the airborne villains floating through the house.

Although they use less electricity than a 10-watt light bulb, electronic filters will trap particles as minute as 1/100,000th of an inch in size.

Packing Pointer to Avoid Damage

Articles which could damage one another such as light bulbs and lamp shades should not be packed in the same container when packing for a household move, according to packing authorities.

This applies even if they are well cushioned.

Summer's Coming

Protect Winter Wear

With spring just around the corner (for optimists, that is!), it's time to think of storage space for all your winter garments and heavy bedding. Fur coats, too, must be put in a safe place during the summer.

Many handymen already have transformed one or more bedrooms or hall closets into moth-repellent storage areas by lining the areas with aromatic red cedar. This moth-repellent wood makes the closets ideal out-of-season storage areas.

If storage space already is at a premium, consider the possibility of adding an out-of-season storage area in a corner of the attic or basement. Cedar closet lining does not require solid backing; it can be installed over studs.

Since the material is tongue-and-grooved to simplify fitting, it can be put up quickly. The average do-it-yourselfer can line a closet with cedar over a weekend. The cost—less than $50! Such an improvement will increase the appraisal value of a house by at least $100.

Local lumber dealers carry aromatic red cedar closet lining, which comes in pre-packaged bundles. It is easy to slip the bundles into car for the drive home.

Just slit the packages open and you're ready for work. A hammer, nails, saw and rule are the only tools required. Cedar closet lining does not require any finishing. Paint or varnish would seal in the wood's natural fragrance, which repels moths but is pleasant to the human senses.

The first step in lining a closet with aromatic red cedar is to remove old fixtures and equipment from the walls. Then locate the studs by punching holes in the plaster with a thin nail.

Next build up the cedar lining, starting at the bottom and fastening the pieces to the studs with four-penny nails. When no corner molding is used, the joints should be measured carefully to assure a close fit.

Finish one wall at a time. Use the same installation technique for the ceiling. Whenever possible, line the inside surface of the closet door to gain maximum benefit from the red cedar fragrance. If the door isn't lined, weatherstrip it to prevent the moth-repelling aroma from escaping.

Remember, always store clean clothes in a cedar-lined closet.

Fence Adds Charm

According to the Southern Pine Association, a wood "basketweave" fence blends rustic charm with a nice touch of architectural styling. As the term implies, the fence is composed of horizontal lumber interwoven among wood posts.

Basement Space Put to Work

Basements are bacoming a part of the home's living area. Play rooms, dens and photographic darkrooms are among the many uses to which basement space is being put.

Since they get plenty of hard wear-and-tear, they should have easily cleaned, durable and economical surfaces.

Quarry tile and unglazed ceramic mosaics are ideal materials for this purpose.

CHILDREN'S PLAYHOUSE — This attractive redwood A-frame "cabin-in-the-woods" is actually a children's playhouse which was built for a cost of approximately $200.

The front door is only 5' rather than the normal 6'8" height. The roomy 8'x8' interior, which is 9' high at the peak, affords plenty of playroom for children.

Complete, detailed plans with working drawings and a materials list may be obtained by sending 50c to cover cost of postage and handling to Simpson Timber Company, Department P-1, 2040 Washington Building, Seattle, Washington.

Better Start Moving Soon

Are You Prepared to Beat the Heat?

The homeowner's time for dreaming is running out. If you and your family are to derive maximum enjoyment from the improvements you have been planning, the time for action is close at hand.

The transition from winter to summer — from concern over fuel bills to complaining about the heat — is all too short in many parts of the country.

If your object is to achieve a cool house during these too-soon-with-us summer months, you should provide shade, shade, shade — by every device possible.

Procedures for keeping heat outside the house are more efficient and economical than removing it once it is in.

To assist the homeowner in his hour of decision, listed below are some of the basics for maintaining a cool interior during the hot months:

SHADING WINDOWS: This is an absolute necessity, since glass is an excellent conductor of heat. One of the most efficient shading devices on the market is a new-style, roll-up aluminum awning which can be adjusted by inside controls to whatever position the angle of the sun requires.

The roll-up feature eliminates the chore of taking them down and putting them up, and their color variety permits choices which harmonize with the house decor and enhance overall appearance.

A REFLECTIVE ROOF: The closer the roof color is to white, the more effective it will be in keeping solar rays from getting inside and heating up the structure.

SHADING WALLS: Using any means devisable to deflect sunlight is the golden rule for comfort. Some fine old maples or elms, properly distanced from the house, are an ideal means.

If nature's lack of foresight (or a builder's depredations) have deprived you of this solution, the installation of a wide window awning or patio cover can bring about much the same effect.

This problem is most acute on east-west exposures, since the sun strikes at angles approaching the horizontal.

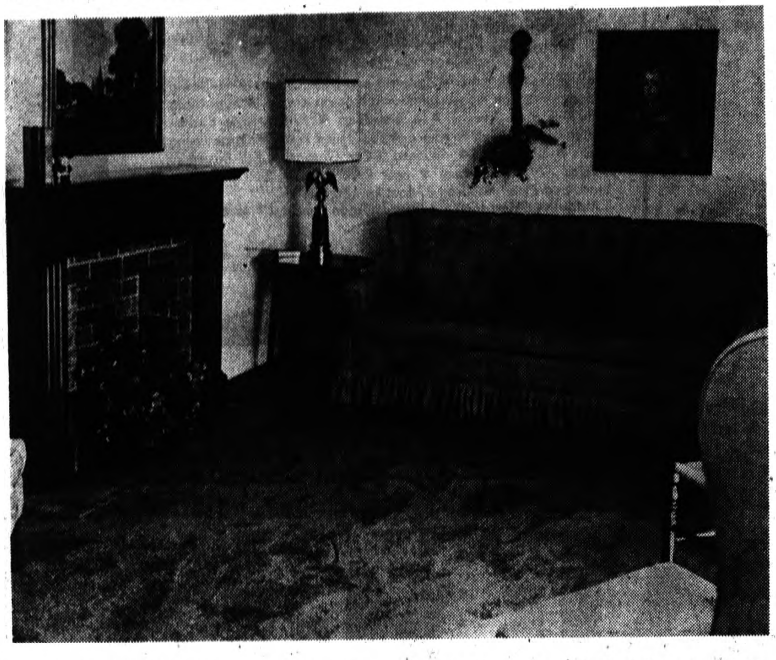
LAKE LIVING — The Mount Vernon in Laguna Vista Subdivision, bordering on Wolverine Lake, has 1,015 square feet of living space. Built by the Dlorah Building Company, the home sells for $12,325. The attached garage is optional. Sliding glass doors lead from the dining area to a future patio. White aluminum siding with black shutters are used on the exterior. Paved streets and community water add to the urban conveniences.



FURNISHED MODEL — The living room in the furnished model of the Mount Vernon is painted an off-white. Carpeted in moss green, the room is traditionally decorated. A matching sofa and chair in rose denim introduce color contrast. The print of an old fashioned girl over the sofa is balanced with an enlarged replica of a serving-spoon planter in antique green. Repeating the contrast is the high backed occasional chair covered in a floral print of rose on white. A cranberry glass and brass floor lamp illuminates the grouping.

Paint Numbers on Garbage Cans

Paint your house number on your trash cans and covers to deter loss or theft on garbage-collection days.

Paint adheres well to galvanized steel cans, providing the surface to be painted is clean before you start.

To clean, wipe the surface with a cloth that has been dipped in a solution of vinegar and water.

This will remove surface grease and let the paint "take" with better results.

Landscaping Important to Real Estate Value

Perhaps the most important exterior factor in determining real estate value and appearance is landscaping. No outward facet can give a better first impression than a beautiful carpet of green lawn.

Because it is so important to create this good first impression, a leading industry program this spring is being called "Better Lawns Mean Better Living."

Many more enjoyable summer evenings are spent in your outdoor area when there are no insects to pursue you or weeds to irritate you. Today, lawns are utilized for everything from a neighborhood playground to the scene of a formal wedding.

Better lawns DO mean better living when applied to the coming summer months, so it's up to us to make them the best we can. If your lawn is infested with weeds, it is actually a good sign of its capabilities.

Turf experts agree that any soil supporting an abundant weed growth can support a beautiful lawn. Investment of a few sunny afternoons in lawn maintenance will return not only monetary value in your real estate but will physically reward you and your friends during those pleasurable summer evenings ahead.

Briefly, here is what you should do to create your better lawn for better living! Clean all leaves, twigs and dead vegetation from the lawn. Work up the soil in bare spots.

Reseed with top quality grass seed adapted to your soil and climatic conditions. Fertilize to insure the lush green color in your lawn.

Then apply a pre-emergence crabgrass control containing Bandane. This is the product that allows the grass seed in those bare spots to continue germination unharmed while controlling crabgrass and soil insects.

Next, begin a watering program. Be sure the grass seedlings emerge in soil that never has been allowed to dry out. Continue to keep soil moist at all times, mow high, and enjoy your better lawn.

For more detailed information on lawn maintenance, contact your local lawn and garden dealer. He is prepared to assist you in your personal "Better Lawns Mean Better Living" program.

Ask to see his "Beautiful Lawn" shopping list that will show you exactly what to buy to convert that "Vacant Lot" appearance into the country club look.

If your dealer should not have this list, you can get a copy, plus many more educational tips from Velsicol Chemical Corporation, 341 East Ohio Street, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Interesting Room Effect

For an interesting effect in a recreation room, alternate hardboard panels of a selected woodgrain with a textured panel in the motif of travertine marble, advises the Masonite Home Service Bureau.

★ ★ ★

Both are factory-finished and easy to maintain by occasional wiping with a damp cloth.

The low - cost, durable panels are available at most lumber and building supply yards.

Whether the climate is hot or cold, home owners want insulation in their ceilings, say housing experts.

Hand Tool Convenient

The portable electric grinder, sometimes referred to as a hand grinder, is the first cousin to the portable electric drill.

It handles most of the same kinds of jobs as the drill, but because it is so much less powerful (with the exception of the type used in industry), it is used for lighter work.

With a grinder—and the various bits, abrasive wheels, cutters and brushes which fit into the chuck—you can handle almost any kind of precision work difficult or impossible with larger tools.

If there is any one sentence of advice more important than others in using a portable electric grinder, it is this: take it easy.

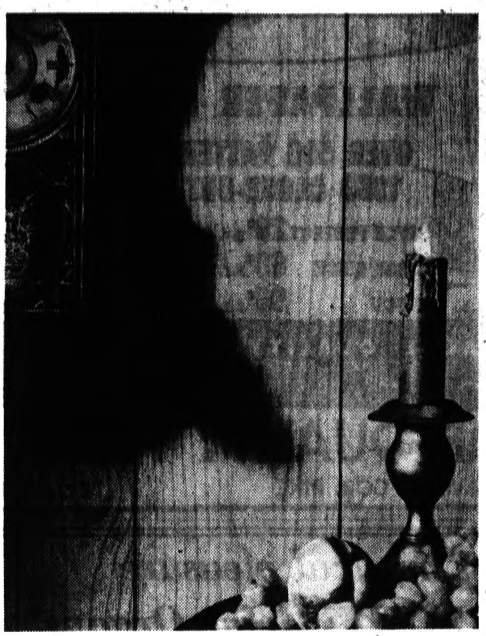
STERLING ENCLOSURE



LONG-TIME FAVORITE — Oak paneling now is available at lumber and building supply yards in factory-finished hardboard that offers top appearance, moderate cost; dent, wear and stain resistance, and easy maintenance by damp-wiping, it was announced by Masonite Corporation.

As expressed in the company's Royalcote line, oak has a subdued pattern with mild tonal contrasts that make it an ideal background wall in a study, bedroom, dining room and similar areas. The panels are effective also in offices, stores and other public places.

The distinguished looking panels are easy to install with common tools and are low in cost. They have color coordinated vertical grooves at random intervals. Matching wood and metal moldings are available; also putty sticks and colored nails.

Panels, one-quarter inch thick, come in two sizes: 4' x 7' and 4' x 8'. Installations may be made over wall studs in new construction or directly over old walls or furring strips in existing structure.

Beauty–Durability Furnished by Tile

If you're house hunting, here's a good indicator of whether a home is well designed.

★ ★ ★

Are the bathrooms convenient to all areas of the home?

Another point to check is whether surfacings used are durable as well as good to look at.

★ ★ ★

Ceramic tile in bathrooms and elsewhere indicates you're getting beauty and durability as well as good design.

★ ★ ★

And tile's impermeability is particularly important for any heavy-moisture areas.

Bigger 'n' Better

New Tract Homes

Tract homes are getting bigger and better all the time.

★ ★ ★

Today's tract home usually has three bedrooms, two baths and up to 2,400 square feet of living space, according to one community coordinating firm.

In 1947 the typical development house had two bedrooms and one bath, and covered only 850 square feet.

The modern tract home usually includes many features formerly found only in custom-built homes.

★ ★ ★

For example, ceramic tile is being used more extensively than ever before—on bathroom walls and floors, kitchen countertops and backsplashes, and even decoratively for entranceways and fireplaces.

CERAMIC TILE

The Tile Council of America, trade association of the leading domestic ceramic tile manufacturers, says there are four reasons why homeowners prefer ceramic tile:

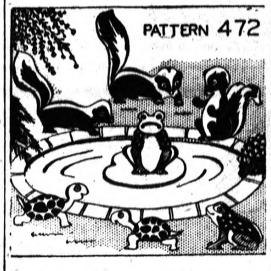
★ ★ ★

- It requires little maintenance other than an occasional quick wipe with a damp cloth.
- It cannot be scratched, stained or burned.
- It actually costs less today than it did even in the depression years.
- It now comes in a wide variety of decorative sizes, shapes and patterns. There are more than 250 colors and shades from which to choose.

★ ★ ★

Other features that today's tract buyer seeks are a family room, sliding glass doors, and a built-in range and oven.

For all this, the average tract family spends less of the husband's income than it did 17 years ago.



Have fun with cut-out animals by placing them in amusing groups. Here, a big frog is the center of attraction not only for his mate but also a pair of turtles and three baby skunks. Pattern 472, which gives actual-size cutting and painting guides for all seven, is 35c. This pattern also is in the Animal Farm Packet N. 76 along with Mamma Skunk and other beguiling creatures all for $1.

Tips on Repainting Dirty Surfaces

Here are some tips on repainting your wood home from the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association.

If the old paint is just faded, dirty and chalking, the only preparatory work needed is to dust the surface before painting.

★ ★ ★

If the surface is extremely dirty, a good practice is to wash it with a mild synthetic detergent and rinse thoroughly with water. Allow the surface to dry thoroughly before painting.

Remove loose, flaking or blistering paint with a wire brush and scraper.

Troublesome Cockroaches Can Invade Your Domicile

Spring and summer are the time of year when roaches and other common household pests become especially troublesome.

And even if you keep a taut house, you may still be invaded by the American, German or Oriental cockroach. These species are so adaptable, they can live on soap, paper, cloth, even ink.

In fact, the cockroach has learned during it's 250-million-year history to alter its digestive system to accommodate almost any diet.

While it prefers homecooked meals, it doesn't necessarily need them. When pickings are slim in the kitchen, the roach will meander to the bathroom for a repast of shaving cream, toothpaste, hair oil, anything containing grease.

How do roaches get into the house? YOU bring most of them in! You're even nice enough to pick them up at the grocery store and give them a nice, comfortable ride home in the grocery bag or soft drink carton.

You won't see the roaches, of course, but the eggs are there. Each egg capsule contains up to 35 potential roaches. Once home, these will hatch out in five to 14 days.

Unless you act promptly, your troubles are just beginning — another generation of roaches will be along in about three months, depending upon the climatic conditions.

★ ★ ★

According to the Terminix Division of E. L. Bruce Co., one of the country's biggest pest control services, the average roach infestation numbers about 2,000.

"But it can range anywhere from two to 5,000 roaches," says the company's technical director, Frank H. Lyons.

Once you've got a roach problem, how can you get rid of it?

★ ★ ★

Sanitation is the first step, notes Lyons.

LIVE FOR MONTHS

"Cleanliness can hold down the infestation and keep it from getting out of hand. But you can't starve out roaches — if necessary they'll live for months on inorganic matter inside wall partitions."

Positive control measures are necessary. Aerosol sprays will help temporarily, but the real trick is to kill the roaches you can't see.

This takes some doing. Even if you manage to kill all the adults, which is unlikely, egg capsules hidden in the walls and baseboards will continue to hatch. And you're constantly bringing home more eggs in the shopping bag.

★ ★ ★

The easiest way to rid your home of roaches and other pests is to call a professional pest control operator. Most companies offer a regular monthly pest control service.

Tile Makes Exteriors Different

If you're looking for something to make the exterior of your home decoratively different, why not surface a portion of it with ceramic tile?

This ancient and durable material now comes in an almost endless selection of sizes, shapes and colors so that it will be easy for you to find the tile that's right for your home.

Homeowners will like tile on exterior walls because, unlike most other materials, it never needs to be painted. Its colors are fadeproof, and the material itself is impervious to all weather conditions.

Because it requires no maintenance other than an occasional quick wipe with a damp cloth, tile means long-range economy.

That's just one of the reasons why this beautiful material is being used on the outside of more and more office buildings and institutions.

If you would like to use tile on the exterior of your home, it will be worth your while to have an architect work out an appropriate design.

No Shake, Rattle or Roll—Pack Tightly

ALUMINUM HOMES offering all-weather luxury are being introduced nationally by Master Vacation Homes. Featuring a maintenance-free aluminum and glass exterior, the homes can be purchased for $4,995 to $6,695.* The walls are Alcoa Alply Panels, a sandwich of an inner and outer surface of aluminum with an insulating core of foam plastic.

*Prices exclude foundation and freight.

Luxury Living in Vacation Homes

A line of new aluminum vacation homes providing year 'round luxury living, freedom from maintenance and eye-appealing contemporary design was announced today by Master Vacation Homes.

Utilizing Alcoa Alply sandwich wall panels in colorful combination with natural aluminum support beams, Master's new homes provide a maintenance-free exterior for many years of service as a vacation or retirement residence.

The carefully designed homes feature a large 16x16 foot living room, complete with two walls of sliding glass aluminum doors that open the room to the spaciousness of the outdoors.

Approximately 576 square feet of floor space are included in the two- or three-bedroom basic model called the Siesta.

Other models can provide from two to four bedrooms and up to 768 square feet of floor area. Suggested sale prices range from $4,995 for the Siesta model to $6,295 for the larger Sundowner or $6,695 for the Skylark model.*

★ ★ ★

Siesta homes can be erected by four-man Master Vacation Home crews on a prepared foundation in only three days. They are shipped to the site in large truck trailers.

COMPLETE RESIDENCE

When completed, the homes provide an almost completely equipped residence. Everything from the foundation up, except movable furniture, drapes and decorative items will be in place, including inside utilities, fixtures and appliances.

The completely built-in kitchen features a gas or electric range, broiler and oven, stainless-steel sink, five-cubic-foot refrigerator, birch cabinets, closets, and an electric hot water heater.

The compact modern bathroom in the homes includes all plumbing fixtures, vanity-type lavatory, medicine chest, exhaust fan, linen closet and tub.

★ ★ ★

The aluminum exterior on the vertical Alply sandwich wall panels is attractively decorated in Alcoa Alumalure baked-enamel color finishes.

Inner walls are either aluminum — finished with an attractive baked-on enamel—or finished V-groove birch paneling. The highly efficient insulating core of the Alcoa panels is foam polystyrene.

The aluminum sliding glass doors are equipped with screens and locks. They can also be supplied with insulating glass for use in the colder climates.

★ ★ ★

For further information write to Master Vacation Homes, Dept. AL, 333 W. First Street, Dayton, Ohio.

*Prices exclude foundation and freight.

Drill a Guide Hole Avoid Splitting Wood

Where there is danger that a nail will split the wood, drill a guide hole, drive in a small nail first, or blunt the point of the nail.

Drilling a guide hole, slightly smaller than the diameter of the nail, is the most effective method of preventing splitting, but it slightly diminishes the nail's holding power.

Check Before You Phone

You Might Save Cost of Service Call

You can sometimes save yourself the cost of a service call when something goes wrong with your heating or air conditioning system.

★ ★ ★

Be your own serviceman — up to a point — by checking the following things before calling for help, suggests American Furnace Company, St. Louis manufacturer:

- Make sure the thermostat is set above or below room temperature, depending on whether it is the cooling or heating season.
- Check the furnace on-off switch, particularly if there are youngsters with busy fingers in the house. At the same time, be sure the fuse is not blown.

★ ★ ★

- Take out the filter and make sure it is clean.

GAS FURNACE

- If yours is a gas furnace, look to see if the pilot is burning. If it is working properly, make sure the gas valve is in the "on" position.
- When the pilot is not burning, shut down the unit according to the manufacturer's instructions, wait 5 minutes, and relight the pilot, again following instructions usually found on a plate nearby.
- If you have an oil furnace, be sure the thermostat is properly set, then press the reset buttons on the stack relay and on the burner motor. Also check your oil supply and be sure the oil valve is open.

If the difficulty still exists, it is time to call a competent serviceman. Don't tamper with the mechanical equipment if you are unfamiliar with it.

Popular Hose for Laundry

The automatically retracting hose-spray, long popular on the kitchen sink, is finding its way into other parts of the home.

The Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau reports that the laundry room, for instance, is a prime spot for the hose-spray.

★ ★ ★

As an integral part of the laundry tray, it is ideal for spot-scrubbing badly soiled clothes before they go into the washer.

It's also perfect for small cleaning jobs that you wouldn't attempt at the kitchen sink.

★ ★ ★

The mud room and garage are other good places for the hose-spray. The home gardener and hobbyist will find it useful in cleaning dirty tools and hands.

Moving to Another State ---Don't Neglect Your Will

Moving is strictly a family affair — and so is your will. And the first can affect the latter more than you might think.

Here is some advice on the subject.

Caught between the requirements of a new job, usually, and the business of moving, heads of families are prone to neglect personal things.

The matter of a will is one of the things that have tripped more than a few intelligent people moving from one state to another.

Although a will that is valid in one state can be probated in another despite differences in state laws, a long-distance move can still create problems.

NEW STATE

For instance, guardian and trustee provisions might have to be revamped to conform to the requirements of the new state of residence.

Also, the executor you originally named in your former home area might be reluctant or unable to travel long distances to settle your estate.

In any event, his chargeable expenses for doing so would be much higher.

Similar delay and expense might be caused by the necessity of checking witnesses who live a long way off.

Since a will is a highly complex affair, the moving firm head advises that you make any desired changes only with the help of counsel familiar with the laws of the state of your new residence.

Resurfacing Wooden Floor?

Get the Most Out of Rented Machine

Renting a sander to resurface a wooden floor? Here are some tips that will help you to get the most out of the machine:

★ ★ ★

● Never rent the sander until you are ready to use it. Sounds like unnecessary advice, doesn't it? Yet it often happens that a do-it-yourselfer rents a sander, takes it home and finds he must first remove the furniture from the room, nail down loose boards and clean up generally. The result: his rental fee is higher than it should have been.

● Always rent an edger along with the sander. The edger will enable you to sand close to the walls, stairs and other places where the larger machine won't reach.

● Tell your renting dealer what type of floor you have and whether a lot of finishing material must be removed from the surface.

He will recommend the kinds of abrasive to use and whether two, three or more sandings are necessary.

SPECIAL ABRASIVE

A special open-coated abrasive must be used when heavy coats of varnish or paint are to be removed.

● Raise the sanding drum from the floor at the end of each cut before the machine comes to a standstill. Keep the drum off the floor when the sander is not in use.

● You may go back and forth as you wish. The sander cuts equally well on both forward and backward strokes.

★ ★ ★

● Use a closed metal container for holding the dust emptied from the sander's dust bag.

● Don't hurry the job. You'll get better results if you take short steps when guiding the machine.

● Vacuum the floor before applying the finish.

TEEN-TIME HOBBY — Laurie, the daughter of Mrs. Jane Kendall of Noble Road, Addison Township, practices one of her favorite teen-time hobbies, telephoning. To make use of every bit of space in their converted "little red schoolhouse" the Kendalls' had the phone recessed in the front entrance hall. The wainscoting rail of the red barn siding is an ideal spot to rest a weary arm when the conversation gets too long. Yellow wallpaper with red accents brightens the area.

Modern Sink Disposer Avoids Garbage Mess

Even folks who like early American decor aren't very fond of the old-fashioned kitchen garbage pail — it's too authentic. Odorous, unsanitary, it not only offends eye and nose but it's a nuisance to empty and clean regularly.

In today's modern kitchen, the garbage pail is truly out-of-place. Alongside the modern range, refrigerator and attractive decor, it is equivalent to wooden wheels on a new car.

The truly modern kitchen, says the Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau, is equipped with a food waste disposer in the sink.

Shredding food waste into fine pulp and flushing it down the drain, this appliance relieves the homemaker of garbage disposal inconvenience.

★ ★ ★

Almost all types of food waste can be handled — scrapings, parings, bones, fruit rinds, vegetable tops, pea pods and corn cobs included.

COMMON QUESTION

A common question raised about waste disposers concerns their possible clogging effect on sink drains.

Modern units, properly used, do not clog. To the contrary, they keep drains immaculate because of the continual scouring action of the waste pulp.

Disposal units cut down on the least liked of all kitchen chores — the after-meal clean-up.

★ ★ ★

Since everything is done right at the sink — both scraping and washing of dishes — countless steps and minutes are saved.

One of the earliest uses of ceramic tile was by the Egyptians in the pyramids and tombs.

EASY DOES IT: A couple of hammer blows on the drive rod of the new Shure-Set tool enables this housewife to fasten a fire extinguisher to the concrete block wall in her basement in seconds. The new fastening tool is being introduced initially in hardware stores, lumber supply houses and variety stores in the north central and northeastern part of the United States, from the Dakotas to the New England states. Total national distribution will be completed by the end of the year.

Estimate Amount Needed for Closet

Figuring the amount of aromatic red cedar needed to line a closet is easy.

★ ★ ★

Simply multiply the height of the closet by the width.

★ ★ ★

For instance, a section with a 8' ceiling and a 4' wall would require 32 sq. ft. of material.

When making the calculations, include the ceiling, floor and inside of door, as well as the walls.

★ ★ ★

Local lumber dealers carry aromatic red cedar closet lining. The tongue-and-grooved pieces come in pre-packaged bundles.

If Dampness Persists Mildew May Flourish

Is there mildew on any parts of the outside of your house?

If so, you can be sure it is in areas where dampness is persistent and the sun is a stranger.

That's why you'll find mildew so often at points on the house behind low-growing shrubbery.

Sometimes the growth of this fungus is hardly noticeable, in which case it can be removed easily with a stiff brush.

★ ★ ★

But where the condition has existed for some time, the scrubbing must be done with one of the household liquid cleaners which contains either sodium hypochlorite or trisodium phosphate.

ON HAND

You probably have one of them in your house right now.

The label will tell you its contents. If it contains sodium hypochlorite, mix one and one-half cups of it to a gallon of water.

If it contains trisodium phosphate, mix three heaping tablespoons to a gallon of water.

★ ★ ★

After scrubbing with this solution for about five minutes, rinse the area thoroughly with cold, clean water.

Unless you correct the condition which caused the mildew in the first place (such as removing the shrubbery to permit entry of the sun's rays), the fungus will return again.

To prevent its return, paint the area with a mildew-proof paint.

★ ★ ★

Should you already have the proper paint on hand, you can buy a mildew retardant to mix with the paint, although you sometimes may have to do a little hunting to find a hardware or paint store that carries it in stock.

Survey Finds Answers to Painting Questions

What does it cost to paint the "average" house?

How often is the average house painted

How often should the average house be painted?

Answered to these and a number of related questions were the objective of a study of painting costs by a leading manufacturer of building materials.

★ ★ ★

A national sampling of 1,000 painting contractors was undertaken to provide significant data on the advantages of a new plywood siding surfaced with a polyvinyl fluoride film.

AVERAGE HOUSE

A questionnaire distributed to the painting contractors defined the "average" house as a one-family residence with 1,200 square feet of wood siding, type unspecified.

Costs were based on a two-coat paint job.

Estimates from contractors in the Northeast the Midwest, the South and the West, showed that the average cost for repainting the average house came to $410.

Next came the question how often homeowners paint their houses. Striking the same average over the 50 states polled, it was learned that the average homeowner paints every 5.3 years.

As to how often this average house should be painted, it has been estimated that in most areas of the U.S. maximum time between paint jobs should be 3.5 years if the house is to be kept in presentable condition.

Even after the first year, a painted house loses its "new look."

SURVEY AVERAGE

Taking the 5.3 year figure, however, the survey showed that the average homeowner would paint his house three times in a 15-year period for an average total cost of $1,230.

This average encompassed a range from $1,365 in the Northeast to $1,065 in the South.

The premium for polyvinyl-fluoride prefinished siding on this average house comes to approximately $200 over the cost of conventional siding materials.

Its manufacturer guarantees it won't need painting for at least 15 years.

Eliminate Muddy Walk Entrances

An inexpensive way to prevent unpaved walks from becoming muddy during wet spells is to cover these paths with roll roofing or sheathing, advise home specialists at Allied Chemical's Division.

Roofing may be nailed to the tops of stakes and the stakes driven flush with the ground every few feet.

"CUSTOMERIZED" FEATURES — The Albee King model home on Saginaw Road (M-54), east of I-75, south of Grand Blanc, offers "customerized features with pre-fabricated economy. Redwood siding and sandstone trim complement the contemporary exterior of the three-bedroom home. The ease of traffic flow through every room and the ample closet-cupboard space delight all who view its interior. The model is open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Monday through Friday; 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Saturday and 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. Sunday. Its adaptable floor plan can be duplicated in three or four bedrooms with the exterior choice, modern colonial or contemporary.

TWIN LAKES SUBDIVISION — Built by Tru Kraft Builders, Inc. and offered for sale by Don White, Inc. of Pontiac, the gray brick model on Tull Lake Court features a sunken living room. At the back of the house is found the efficiently arranged kitchen and informal dining area. It overlooks the beamed ceiling family room. Italian globe lanterns light the foyer's wrought iron railing planter. Three bedrooms and one and one-half baths complete the interior. Selling for $18,990 plus lot, the model is found in the Twin Lakes Subdivision off M-59 in White Lake Township.

Be Thrifty— Buy Quality

The quality of materials used is of great importance in achieving a durable paint job.

The cost of paint to cover the average house is usually a small fraction of the total cost of labor and materials.

Hence, it is good economy to buy a quality product in order to lengthen the time between repaintings and thus reduce labor costs.

The grain and texture of redwood can be emphasized attractively with a stain or a coat of thinned paint wiped off with a clean rag before it gets dry.

Mud Rooms Help Mothers

To children, springtime heralds the end of "winter captivity" in the house. As the out-of-doors season begins, however, many mothers will trade a noisy house for a dirty one because most youngsters tend to become "mud magnets."

More and more smart homeowners are solving this dirty problem with a home-style "decontamination chamber" — the mud room.

Usually located adjacent to the kitchen or back door, the mud room provides a place to remove dirty boots, shoes and clothes — wash dirty hands — even take a shower — all beyond the bounds of the family "living quarters."

This buffer zone between yard and home has saved many a homemaker from cries of anguish by keeping her clean house clean.

★ ★ ★

Variations on the mud room theme are many — it can be joined with the laundry or utility room — even the workshop. Because the floor is usually concrete or tile, little concern is given to the dirt that is tracked in — in fact, it's expected.

NEW HOME

Persons planning construction of a new home are advised to consider including a mud room in their plans. For those already owning a home, there are several ways to add the room.

It can be placed in one end of a garage, in a converted breezeway, in the basement with a special outside entrance, in a utility room or in an addition built onto the side or back of the house.

In planning, be sure to include enough plumbing facilities for your needs. Along with lavatory and water closet, a shower stall is perfect for your summer swimmers when they arrive home from the beach covered with sand.

★ ★ ★

For specific information about a mudroom for your home, contact a qualified plumbing contractor. His experience and advice will be valuable in assisting you to choose the ideal arrangement for your needs.

Architect— the Key Man

Key man in the home building industry very often is the architect, who constantly searches for new and better solutions to the creation of living space.

Builders look to the architect for design ideas to sell houses, such as ceramic tiled hearth benches, entryways, countertops and snack bars.

Architects like ceramic tile because of its color, durability and easy maintenance.

Russia Issues New Warning on Overflights

Castro Says Cuba Will Down Planes With Soviet Rockets

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia, flaunting a new anti-aircraft missile, was on record today with a new warning to the United States that reconnaissance flights over Cuba could bring the world to the brink of war.

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev himself delivered the sharply-worded statement after the anti-aircraft missile was trundled across Red Square in the annual May Day Parade of Russian military might.

Western military observers said the rocket apparently was designed to bring down low-flying planes.

Premier Fidel Castro, in a Havana May Day speech, said that if negotiations fail to halt American reconnaissance flights over Cuba, his forces will use Soviet rockets to shoot down the U.S. planes.

"If by shooting down one of those planes, we unleash a world conflagration, we shall not be responsible," Castro said in a belligerent 2-hour and 17-minute May Day speech.

★ ★ ★

"We have made, are making and will make efforts to see those flights cease, and cease they must," Castro said.

KREMLIN RECEPTION

Khrushchev, speaking of U.S. flights over Cuba at a Kremlin reception after the massive Moscow display ended, said:

"We would like to warn those who are playing with fire once again to make them understand that by subverting the principles of peaceful co-existence, displaying disrespect for other countries they could draw the world into the abyss of another world war . . . ."

The Soviet leader denied that the Kremlin had sanctioned the spy flights in a secret deal with the United States.

Castro was reported to have raised objections to "Soviet-

LOW AT STERN—The USS Card, victim of an explosion that blasted a hole below water yesterday, rests low at the stern in Saigon Harbor. The Card, a baby aircraft carrier, partially refloated at high tide, and it was hoped makeshift patching will prevent sinking again. None of the 73-man crew was injured in the blast.

Explosion Cripples U.S. Ship in Saigon

SAIGON, Viet Nam, (AP)—A predawn explosion today sank temporarily the U.S. Aircraft Ferry Card in the Saigon River, and a grenade blast tonight injured four U.S. servicemen in a promenading crowd nearby. Police attributed both incidents to Communist terrorists.

High tide at noon and laboring pumps freed the Card from the bottom muck of the river. Divers who inspected the gaping hole below the waterline in the baby flattop, a World War II carrier credited with seven Nazi U-boat kills, said they could not immediately determine whether the blast that sent her down was external or internal.

A man either in a car or on a bicycle — witnesses disagreed — hurled the grenade into a street running alongside the river front in the downtown area.

The full blast hit one man in the back. Fragments injured three others. Blood stains were strewn across a 30-foot stretch of pavement.

American and Vietnamese security officers rushed to the scene, about 200 yards from the U.S. Embassy. Ambulances carried the wounded to a hospital.

A U. S. spokesman said when the Card was hit it was presumed that Red Viet Cong guerrillas had crept under the Saigon commercial wharf where she was moored and exploded a charge against the hull.

The vessel settled to the bottom of the 48-foot deep river. All the 73 civilian crewmen escaped injury.

Lady Astor Dies; First in Parliament

LONDON (AP)—Nancy, Lady Astor, the Virginia belle who despised liquor but loved politics so much she became the first woman to sit in Britain's Parliament, died today.

She would have been 85 on May 19.

Hoffa Striking at Former Pal?

May Seize Local Headed by Witness

WASHINGTO N(AP)—James R. Hoffa reportedly is trying to strike back at a former pal and associate who testified against him.

A source close to Hoffa said the groundwork is being laid for possible trusteeship action to seize the Baton Rouge, La., Teamsters local of Edward G. Partin, who turned star government witness in Hoffa's conviction in February on jury-tampering charges.

The stocky Teamster chief sat white-faced with anger when Partin showed up as a surprise witness in Chattanooga, Tenn., to testify that he heard Hoffa offer up to $20,000 to bribe a juror in a previous federal case.

His testimony led to the government's first conviction of Hoffa in several attempts. Hoffa drew an eight-year sentence, which he is appealing.

Since then, Hoffa's troubles have snowballed. He now is on trial in Chicago for conspiracy to defraud the union's pension funds.

OTHER PROBLEMS

He also faces a high-level internal dispute over payment of his huge legal fees.

Partin, business agent of Baton Rouge Local 5, is charged with embezzling union funds in an indictment dating from before he turned against Hoffa.

A high Teamsters official confirmed that Partin's activities are being investigated by top echelon union representatives.

"There was a meeting with Murray W. Miller in Baton Rouge last week in an investigation that may be a preliminary to establishment of a trusteeship," the official said.

BOARD MEMBER

Miller, Dallas, Tex., is an international vice president and member of the Teamsters' ruling 15-man executive board.

The high Teamsters source said a trusteeship over Partin's local "would call for the international revoking temporarily charter of the local, making it a ward of the international until its affairs are straightened out."

Such action would freeze out present officers, including Partin.

It is uncertain whether Hoffa can succeed in wresting Partin's local from him. He has the authority to put a local under trusteeship.

But the local can appeal to the executive board, which recently has showed signs of restiveness. Some of its members rebelled last week against continued union payment of Hoffa's lawyers' bills after the Teamsters general counsel warned that he believes the practice was illegal.

144 Lawmakers Could Become Highest Paid

Measure Now Needs Approval by House, Governor's Signature

LANSING (AP)—The Senate yesterday passed, 22-9, a bill which could make Michigan's 144 lawmakers the highest-paid in the nation at $12,500 a year, including expenses.

Over the nine Republican negative votes, the Senate sent the raise—included in the $32.9 appropriation for general government—to the House for agreement on several Senate changes.

★ ★ ★

The House already has approved the $4,250 pay increase, but the Senate knocked off House-opposed bonuses for party leaders of both chambers.

The House must concur in this and other amendments to send the measure to Gov. George W. Romney for his signature.

Passage came as the Senate passed finally on that portion of Romney's $633 budget which was it. These measures also were returned to the House for concurrence in amendments.

★ ★ ★

Five of the bills in Romney's proposed budget appeared headed for House-Senate conference committees after the House approved them with amendments.

KEY ISSUES

Among key issues slated for conference appeared to be a $250,000 appropriation for a traffic safety center at Michigan State University, and $100,000 stricken from a state scholarship program.

The traffic center money was left out as the House restored some $7.1 million in operating funds to state universities and colleges, which had been cut in committee.

The bill for higher education was approved by the House at a total of $147.5 million after the last of the $7.1 million was restored.

★ ★ ★

The Senate sweetened the proposed increase in state aid to public schools by $5.7 million and asked the House to approve the higher aid scale.

PUPIL ALLOWANCE

The Senate voted unanimously for the boost of $3 across the board in the per-pupil allowance to school districts, bringing the total cost of the school aid program to more than $380 million.

'All Military Bases Face Economy Cuts'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. MacNamara considers every U. S. military base a potential target of his economy drive.

Every post or installation is in "jeopardy" if it is inefficient, McNamara yesterday told a group of Massachusetts congressmen concerned about the future of the Boston Naval Shipyard and the Watertown, Mass., arsenal.

The defense secretary said he had a secret list of installations where costs could be cut and he would be "derelict" in his duty if he did not act.

The delegation met with McNamara to protest vigorously the scheduled closing of the Watertown arsenal that will cut 1,849 jobs from the area.

However, McNamara refused to change his plan to close the arsenal by September, 1967, claiming the defense department can get the arsenal's goods cheaper on a competitive basis through private industry.

He told the group that the defense department is studying 8,000 installations for possible economy moves and that a secret list has been made of bases likely to be affected.

The defense secretary said since he entered the cabinet he has taken 551 announced actions to get defense costs down.

He said these actions have affected 80,000 jobs.

McNamara said the difficulty in finding job possibilities for shipyard workers was a reason why no Navy shipyard closings have been announced.

'Caller' Held for Mind Test

Romney Laughs at Armed Intruder Visit

LANSING (AP) — Although Gov. George W. Romney laughed off the incident, police today held for mental examination the man who marched into Romney's office carrying a loaded pistol in his attache case and a folding knife in his pocket.

★ ★ ★

Held on a 48-hour psychiatric detainer in a Lansing hospital ward is Charles P. English, 37, of Bogota, Colombia, and formerly of Miami. Police said he has a history of mental disturbance for which he was once hospitalized.

English said he was sent here by former Vice President Richard Nixon.

He got one step inside Romney's inner office before state police bodyguard Jay Kennedy, 32, grabbed him by the shoulder and yanked him back.

★ ★ ★

"He said Nixon and I should run on the national ticket," Romney said with a laugh after he and Kennedy talked later with English privately.

NIXON APPOINTMENT

English had introduced himself to several of the workers in the outer offices and told Mrs. Margaret Little, Romney's appointment secretary, that Nixon had arranged his appointment.

He tried to follow her into the inner office, and in the doorway said to Romney: "My name is English and I want to talk to you." That was as far as he got.

Kennedy sat him down forcibly in a chair and asked him to open the case. When English refused, Kennedy opened it, saw the .38 caliber revolver, and arrested English.

★ ★ ★

Police said in Bogota, where English's wife and three children live, he has a permit to own and carry the gun, but this is not valid in Michigan.

SEVERAL OCCUPATIONS

Police said English told them he was an FBI agent. Romney said English identified himself as a Florida politician. His

Bomb Blasts Dance Hall at Wixom Camp

A bomb made out of gunpowder exploded early this morning at a summer camp in Wixom, blowing up a portion of a dance hall.

★ ★ ★

Extensive damage was done to the roof, porch, dance floor and basement of the two-story frame building at the Detroit Finnish Summer Camp, 2490 Lyonia.

Police Chief Frank Jadzinsaid the explosion, which could be heard three miles away, occurred at 2:55 a.m. He said about a quarter of the building was blown up by the blast.

The building was vacant at the time. The camp is open on weekends, but there was no activity there last night, said Chief Jadzinski.

The bomb was placed on a porch near a door on the east side of the building. In addition to the building, a juke box, tables and chairs and a public address system were damaged in the bombing.

Vigil Protests Church's Stand

PITTSBURGH (AP) — About 1,300 Methodist churchgoers from throughout the country staged a demonstration in downtown Pittsburgh today, saying their Church's stand on integration is not positive enough.

They came from as far away as Chicago, Detroit, Birmingham, Ala., Atlanta, Ga., and Jackson, Miss., and belong to a group called Methodists for church renewal.

After an all-night vigil of prayers, sermons and hymn singing in two downtown churches the group, white and Negro, layman and minister, marched to the Civic Arena where the General Conference of the Methodist Church is holding its quadrennial meeting.

They knelt and joined hands on sidewalks outside the arena and quietly sang hymns. No police were about.

VOLUNTARY PLAN

The participants in the protest poured into the city Friday night just hours after the General Conference adopted a voluntary plan to remove racial barriers.

The plan calls for transfer over the next four years of the church's central jurisdiction, which represents some 375,000 Negroes, into the five other jurisdictions which are drawn on geographical lines. No enforcement mechanism was provided.

The plan passed by an overwhelming standing vote. But many of the 900 delegates feel it does not go far enough or fast enough.

One minister called it "very definitely a Southern victory."

PLANNED PILGRIMAGE

Ralph Roy, a layman from New York City, said the pilgrimage had been planned for several months.

"We are not so much protesting what they did," he said. "We are protesting the mood of the conference which was unwilling to move forthrightly for integration of the Methodist Church."

* * *

Immediately after Friday's vote some integrationists said they would push for a stronger program before the conference ends next Friday.

The Rev. William H. James, a Negro delegate to the conference and pastor of New York's Metropolitan Community Methodist Church, said the protest heightens the possibility of a new vote.

* * *

The Rev. Mr. James said the plan as passed leaves intact a provision of the Methodist constitution passed in 1939 which calls for separation of white and Negro members.

He said he would not be satisfied until the conference "takes everything out of the constitution about race. What they did was only good publicity."

The plan sets up a committee to study elimination of the central jurisdiction but provides no finances or staff, the Rev. Mr. James said. He added that the main weakness was in its voluntary provisions "which means no one has to move under the constitution unless they want to."

Youths Injured in Racial Fight

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Scuffles between Negro and white youths injured several persons as racial demonstrations continued in Nashville, Tenn., for the fifth straight day.

John Lewis, chairman of the national Student Non-Vilent Coordinating Committee, was among those injured. He was among nearly 100 arrested earlier this week.

Lewis was charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors by persuading them to stay away from school and join the demonstrations.

The scuffles broke out when Negro and white youths swarmed around a sandwich shop which closed its doors and refused to admit customers.

* * *

The group of about 150 marched from a church earlier chanting "Freedom" and carrying signs saying "We Demand Freedom."

Police in Fort Wayne, Ind., forced a path for Gov. George Wallace of Alabama through about 200 massed pickets.

No explosives were found.

Perimeter Road Building Should Be Done by Fall

Traffic should be rolling along the length of Pontiac's $3.5-million perimeter road by early fall, and maybe sooner.

* * *

City officials said yesterday that work will begin Monday on the last phase of the tear-shaped, multi-lane thoroughfare around the central business district.

* * *

The last leg follows Cass extended south from West Huron to South Saginaw. It is slated to be open to traffic sometime in September, with the possibility that part will be in use by late August.

Work is already progressing toward completion of the stretch from South Saginaw to Mount Clemens on the East Side.

The highway should be open to traffic from its starting point (South Saginaw) to West Huron by July 1, barring any unforeseen construction delays.

* * *

Initial construction of the last leg will get under way on Cass between West Pike and Patterson and that portion of Cass will be closed to traffic Monday morning.

OTHER SECTIONS

City Traffic Engineer Joseph Koren said that other sections of Cass would close as construction progressed.

At the same time, West Pike will be reopened to through traffic between Saginaw and Cass Monday and West Lawrence will be closed, Koren said.

West Pike had been closed several weeks to allow construction of a large storm drain along the east side of Cass. The drain, which is part of the Clinton River drain project, will now move northerly to Lawrence.

* * *

"Barricades will be erected on Lawrence at the east curb of Cass, so motorists going easterly on Lawrence will be able to turn into Cass," Koren said.

MOST OF SUMMER

City Engineer Joseph E. Neipling explained that perimeter road construction "will probably close Cass to through traffic south of West Huron for most of the summer.

"North of Pike, construction only involves widening Cass, but south of Pike it calls for total removal of existing pavement and realignment of Cass."

Neipling said the work would be scheduled so cross traffic will be maintained most of the time.

"Pavement must be ripped up, utilities relocated and storm drains installed," he noted. "The bulk of the road bed will be prepared before the paving operation begins."

Rival Blasts GOP Unit for Romney Plug

Endorsement of Gov. George W. Romney for reelection by the Oakland County Republican executive committee has drawn a verbal blast from his only announced rival.

George N. Higgins, Ferndale auto dealer, rebuked the GOP executive committee for endorsing Romney in a primary election.

"No county committee has the right to endorse anyone in a primary election," said the former state senator.

Higgins promised that the committee would be in for some surprises.

"Well over 3,000 persons in Oakland have signed my petitions and more than 12,000 have signed them throughout the state," he said.

Higgins is the only announced GOP candidate for governor. Romney has not yet announced whether he will seek reelection.

However, party leaders have been circulating Romney petitions.

American talks on Cuba," apparently referring to reports of an informal cocktail party conversation here between U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler and First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan.

NOT CLEAR

It was not clear exactly what Soviet-American "understanding" Khrushchev was denying, since Kohler and Mikoyan during their conversation at a Japanese reception merely reaffirmed the positions of their respective governments.

The 70-year-old premier once again stated his government's support of Cuba in the event of any attack.

"The U.S.S.R. fully supports the five conditions Fidel Castro advances as slogans safeguarding the independence, security and peace of the Cuban people," he said.

* * *

"We have always said and declare once again that a threat to Cuba, the continuation of the violation of her sovereignty, the instrusions into Cuba's airspace can have disastrous consequences."

Castro said his position was not based on any Soviet pledge of air or intercontinental missiles in an armed showdown with the United States. He said he assumed all responsibility for Cuban actions against the U.S. flights.

He warned Cubans they must be ready "for a long fight that will never end" if the United States invades and occupies Cuba as a result of Cuban action against U.S. planes.

Laos Premier Tells of Merger

Right Wing, Neutrals Join New Coalition

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Prince Souvanna Phouma, premier of the shaky Laotian coalition government, announced today a merger of the country's neutralist and right-wing factions.

Souvanna, neutralist leader, told newsmen he was now able to speak for both parties. Similar proclamations of unity have been repudiated in the past.

* * *

"The group which we used to call the 'Savannakhet group'—right-wing — has disappeared," Souvanna said. "I am speaking in the name of the center—neutralist—and right-wing."

Souvanna expressed hope that the pro-Communist Pathet Lao faction would follow the same path.

BRITISH DEMAND

Souvanna's statement followed a joint British-Soviet declaration in London Friday night demanding restoration of the coalition government under Souvanna.

The two countries, in a declaration by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler, sharply condemned a coup by rightist officers 13 days ago which paralyzed the government.

* * *

In announcing the merger, Souvanna did not say whether it had the agreement of the rightist coup leaders, who broke with the top men in the right-wing camp, Prince Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, in staging the uprising.

* * *

The insurgent right-wing army officers clamped their control over the administrative capital of Vientiane April 19 and placed Souvanna and Phoumi under house arrest.

CABINET REVISION

The junta demanded revision of the Cabinet giving the right-wing a larger voice. The Pathet Lao opposed the demand and answered with an attack on rightist forces in the Plaine des Jarres.

Souvanna confers with his half-brother, Pathet Lao leader Prince Souphanouvong, at Pathet Lao headquarters in Kuang Khay Sunday.

Meeting with reporters for the first time inside his residence since the coup, Souvanna congratulated the rightist leaders and said: "If the Pathet Lao accepts the same procedure, the same way of behaving, my task will be greatly easier."

Birmingham Area News

Proposed Budget Jump Won't Boost Tax Rate

BIRMINGHAM — A 1964-65 municipal budget increased $70,348 but not costing property owners any more than they are now paying will be recommended by Manager L. R. Gare to the City Commission Monday night.

* * *

The hike to $1,939,711 includes salaries of two new city employes and a 2 per cent general raise for all personnel, among other items.

Suggested expenditures would require a 17.2-mill tax rate, netting the same amount as the present 18-mill levy, according to Gare.

The income would remain constant because valuations in the city have been increased about 20 per cent to bring them up to state equalized level.

* * *

The levy would bring in some $1,345,933, with the remainder coming from nontax revenue collected through municipal fees.

WAGES, INSURANCE

Gare said the recommended figure includes $34,740 for wage revisions and minor changes in the insurance program.

The manager also is asking for funds to allow the police department to hire another detective and the sign and parking meter department an assistant. Estimated salaries for the two would total $8,000.

Gare's tentative figures show $200,641 earmarked for capital improvements.

* * *

With a total of $313,241 in the fund, the city could afford several street improvements it has been considering, Gare noted.

PROJECTED PROJECTS

These include widening of Chester and Oakland, and improvement of the Forest-Woodward intersection.

The City Commission will begin its study of the budget Monday, gearing its work to a May 26 public hearing.

Session Today on Rights Bill

Debate Gets Slower as Test Vote Nears

WASHINGTON (AP) — Weary senators were called in today for another Saturday session of civil rights debate amid signs that the marathon talk finally is running down.

Senate oratory often diminishes once a time for voting is set, and an informal agreement finally was announced for the first test votes on amendments.

* * *

The party leaders, Democrat Mike Mansfield of Montana and Republican Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, advised their colleagues to expect these next Wednesday. Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., the Southern leader, agreed that as things now stand his forces would permit voting to begin on that day.

The nature of the first vote also was revealed. Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., did this by calling up a new jury trial amendment as the pending business. Under Senate rules, it cannot be displaced without the Kentuckian's consent.

REDUCED VERSION

Morton's proposal is a reduced version of the jury trial amendment of Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., for which the Southerners have been battling.

As it came from the House, the pending bill contained no jury trial provision for criminal contempt cases growing out of antidiscrimination injunctions which might be obtained under the bill.

* * *

The Talmadge amendment would guarantee jury trials in all criminal contempt cases, whether arising under the bill or any other law, except for those committed in the presence of the judge.

Morton's amendment would give the same guarantee except that it would be limited to cases arising out of the bill.

SHOVED ASIDE

The Kentucky senator's move had the effect of shoving aside temporarily a Mansfield-Dirksen substitute offered for the Talmadge amendment.

This substitute would provide for jury trials in criminal contempts growing out of the bill only if the penalty exceeded 30 days in jail or a $300 fine. The Southerners have termed this unacceptable.

Dems Try to Reshape Poverty Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—A major reshaping of the administration's antipoverty bill is being attempted by Democrats on the House Education and Labor Committee.

Although some provisions recommended by President Johnson may be scrapped in the process, the Democrats working on it say the end result should be a stronger bill than Johnson submitted.

* * *

There is trouble at the moment, however, because each member has a different idea of how the program should be focused, and agreement may be hard to come by.

There also is a problem of committee jurisdiction. The chairmen of two other committees have had to be brought in on an informal basis to work on some of the provisions.

MORE FUNDS

The chief trust at this stage appears to be to beef up the educational features in the bill, particularly to channel more money to schools in urban slums and impoverished rural areas.

Sections dealing with aid for poor farmers, small businessmen and unemployed fathers on relief are in trouble and will have to be drastically revised if they are to remain in the bill.

* * *

The Democrats also are considering a new program that is aimed at helping widows who are past the age when they can get a job but not yet 62, when they can qualify for Social Security benefits.

One change already agreed on would establish an allocation formula to fix the sum each state would get instead of leaving it to the director of the program to determine by his own means.

* * *

Another would permit the entrance of women into the Job Training Corps, limited by the administration to boys 16 to 22. How large a percentage should be women has not been settled.

U.S. Troop Train Delayed

Reds Relent in E. German Flag Dispute

BERLIN (AP) — Communist authorities relented under U.S. pressure today in the latest border hassle, hauling down East German flags from locomotives for two U.S. troop trains bound for West Germany.

The May Day flag dispute caused a four-hour delay at the East German border when the U.S. train commanders refused to let the transports cross East German territory while the pennants flew.

* * *

Shortly after midnight, the East Germans provided engines without flags and the trains made an undisturbed trip across 110 miles of East Germany.

Western observers viewed the incident as another attempt by the East Germans to establish additional precedents for control of the access routes to West Berlin. The Western Allies do not recognize the East German regime and have resisted the Communists' tactics of trying to whittle away Western rights in the isolated city.

The two trains—one bound for Frankfurt with 144 passengers and the other for Bremerhaven with eight—left West Berlin shortly after 6 p.m.

At the Potsdam border point, East German authorities provided locomotives as usual but both engines flew East German flags, apparently in honor of May Day.

The train commanders jammed on the emergency brakes when they noticed the flags. The East Germans ordered the locomotives away, leaving the cars stalled on the tracks in the Berlin suburb. A Soviet officer was seen nearby.

The East Germans told the U.S. commanders their cars would not be allowed to proceed unless the Americans gave in. The East Germans customarily provide locomotives for the crossing.

HOLD GROUND

The U.S. commanders appeared to be under direct orders to hold their ground.

Sources said the East Germans tried the same thing on a troop train bound from West Germany to West Berlin Friday morning. U.S. soldiers pulled down the banners and the train continued on its way.

* * *

Under a postwar agreement with the Soviets, the Allies have road, rail and air access to West Berlin. For years the Soviets have sought to win recognition of the East German regime by turning over control of the routes to the East Germans.

Akron Church's Move

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Nondenominational Hillwood Chapel is bucking the trend of churches moving from the city to the suburbs.

* * *

It has been moved closer to the center of the city—Akron's Metropolitan Housing Authority Wilbert Arlington Project — from its former location on the city's southeast edge.

The new $160,000 structure just was dedicated.

Church Big Factor in Recruiting Young

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — When young people go into full-time religious work, it "does not come about through one individual, such as the minister, but as a result of the flavor of the local church," says Dr. John I. Parr of Linden Avenue Baptist Church.

* * *

Contributing to this atmosphere, he says, are volunteers who work with the young people of the church in various programs.

Northern, Central Nines Win

Chiefs Topple Midland, 3-0; PNH Wins, 2-0

Huskies Trip Bears; Waterford Blanked by Walled Lake

Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern's baseball teams yesterday dispersed any gloom from the rainy weather with key victories yesterday.

Pontiac Central blanked Midland, 3-0, to remain unbeaten in the Saginaw Valley Conference race while PNH did likewise in the Inter-Lakes League Berkley.

At Waterford, the Skippers were held scoreless by Walled Lake, 3-0, and Farmington took a 9-1 win over Southfield for its first triumph of the season.

Chuck Owen yielded a lone first-inning single at Midland and walked only two in stopping the Chemics, the defending League titlists.

Dennis Burrill and Neil Roberts had back-to-back doubles in the third inning for the only run Owen needed. The catcher also singled in a fifth inning marker with his third hit in the game.

The Chiefs are now 2-0 in the SVC and 3-2 overall.

17 STRIKE OUTS

Roger Hayward fanned 17 batters and permitted two hits in halting Berkley, last year's I-L champions. The big right-hander drove in both runs for PNH.

He singled home Dave Tinkis in the first inning and squeezed in Mike Burklow in the seventh. Northern is now 5-0 this year and 3-0 in the loop.

Walled Lake pushed its mark to 5-1 to remain the I-L runner-up behind the one-hit hurling of John Thomas.

Farmington's Steve Page tossed a two-hitter at Southfield and had hitting support from battery mate Dick Johnston. The receiver homered with a man aboard in the fifth inning.

Bill Freeman had two runs batted in with a double. Page struck out nine and walked two. The first hit off him came in the fifth inning and drove in the only run for the Blue Jays.

Milford Nips Clarkston 9 in W-O Tilt

Redskins Keep Lead in Loop; Sparkman Fans 10 Wolves

Ed Sparkman put Milford's Redskins a step closer to the ball title yesterday by taming Clarkston on two hits, 2-0.

The win boosted Milford's record to 6-1 in loop play. Clarkston is 4-3.

★ ★ ★

Sparkman walked five, struck out 10, and drove in the first run of the game in the opening with a single that chased Jim Ward home.

In Oakland A games, Avondale edged Clawson, 2-1, and Rochester trimmed Fitzgerald, 5-2.

Lynn Thorpe went the distance for Avondale to pick up the win. The Yellow Jackets came up with the winning run in the sixth on doubles by Dick Reddaway and Dennis Acker.

Rochester opened the scoring with one in the second, two in the third, and added single runs in the sixth and seventh.

Steve Kendrick fanned 16 Spartans, striking out the side in all but the third and fifth innings. He gave up three hits.

OTHER GAMES

In other games, St. Agatha handed St. Michael a 6-4 setback; Cranbrook downed Birmingham Seaholm, 9-4; and Birmingham Groves came up with three runs in the last of the seventh inning to nip Oak Park, 7-6.

St. Michael picked up only three hits in dropping its second game of the season. Roger Cook had the biggest blow for the Shamrocks, a single that chased home two runs in the sixth inning.

★ ★ ★

The triumph moved Michigan into sole possession of first place in the Big Ten with a 4-0 league record. The Wolverines and Purdue had been tied for the lead with 3-0 marks going into the game.

Lefthander Clyde Barnhart pitched a nine-hitter for the winners, striking out five and walking one. Purdue hurler Mike Purvis struck out four, walked two and was tagged for seven hits in going the distance for the losers.

'Rocky' Back in Homer Race

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Rocky Colavito is off to a fast start in the American League home run race and the proud, sensitive slugger makes it clear the pay cut he took from Kansas City owner Charles O. Finley has nothing to do with it.

Asked whether the $4,000 cut in his $50,000 Detroit salary furnished him an incentive, Colavito said:

"I didn't need that. My incentive is just putting on the major league uniform. I've always gone all-out for every club I've been with."

Colavito has slammed four home runs and is tied for the AL homer lead with teammate Jim Gentile, Cleveland's Leon Wagner and Washington's Bill Skowron. All four of Rocky's homers came during the current A's home stand and all were off right-handed pitching.

BATTING .270

His eight runs batted in leads the A's and he's batting .270.

★ ★ ★

"My timing is good and I'm doing a good job of waiting for the pitch I want," Colavito said.

The handsome 30-year-old slugger is certain to be a top threat for the American League home run crown. The ball carries better to left field here than in any park in the league. The homer distance to left center is a respectable 363 feet, and he is a strong pull hitter.

In the past six seasons, Colavito has hit 222 home runs, more than any other American League hitter. He averaged 37 homers and 109 runs batted in during this span.

LBJ Asks Restudy of President's Office, Obligations

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

ANNIVERSARY: It was 175 years ago that George Washington was inaugurated as the country's first president and Lyndon B. Johnson, the 36th president, feels now "there is a genuine need to restudy, reevaluate, reassess many aspects of this office."

★ ★ ★

Johnson marked the anniversary Thursday by inviting a group of American historians to the White House for the occasion.

★ ★ ★

Flanked by the scholars in a White House reception room, Johnson proclaimed the year ahead as one to commemorate the office and to strengthen "the service of that office in meeting our continuing challenges."

CALL TO COLORS: The Defense Department has halved its draft quota for June, issuing a call for 6,000 men — all, as usual, ticketed for the Army.

VETERANS: The American Medical Association has registered with Congress its opposition to the treatment of veterans at government expense for illnesses not related to their military service.

★ ★ ★

"We do not believe that having spent time in uniform should confer upon one the right to receive free medical care from the nation for illnesses and injuries which are totally unrelated to military service," Dr. David B. Allman told a House Veterans subcommittee Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The Atlantic City, N.J., physician said it is each man's responsibility to provide his own health needs.

TRY AGAIN: Two months ago, the House defeated 222 to 184 a bill to boost the pay of members of Congress and all federal workers. Thursday, the House Post Office Committee voted 14 to 3 to try again, but with this difference:

Instead of a $10,000 raise for the 535 senators and representatives — they now get $22,500— there would be a $7,500 boost. And it would take effect next January instead of in July.

★ ★ ★

By delaying the increase until after the election, a congressman wouldn't be taking the political gamble of voting himself an on the spot raise.

President Johnson favors the pay increase.

PROBE: At Sen. Ralph Yarborough's request, the FBI is investigating published allegations that he accepted $50,000 from the Texas promoter Billie Sol Estes back in 1960.

Texas Democrat Yarborough termed the charge — issued by his opponent in Saturday's Lone State primary — "an infamous lie."

★ ★ ★

Spokesmen for the Justice Department and FBI refused to comment on the matter, but one department source acknowledged the FBI has agreed to Yarborough's demand for an investigation.

Texas broadcaster Gordon McLendon, Yarborough's opponent for the Democratic senatorial nomination, introduced two men on a statewide television broadcast Saturday and said they had made sworn statements they saw Estes give Yarborough an envelope containing $50,000 at Pecos, Tex., in 1960.

★ ★ ★

Estes has been convicted on state and federal fraud charges and his case is in the appeals courts.

The job tips are aimed at unemployed high school graduates and dropout students. The clinic is limited to 25 pupils.

The job clinic will feature several local business, industry and government officias.

Included will be Ted Ellison, of Michigan Bell Telephone; Ralph Dawe, salaried personnel office, Fisher Body Division of General Motors Corp., and John J. Barry, factory personnel, Pontiac Motor Division.

Says Selective Service Director

'Tension Must Ease Before Draft Cut'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, said today he believes there must be a considerable change in the international climate before the United States can end the draft.

"We have got to get this nation and the world to the place where mutual fear is tremendously different from now," said Hershey in an interview.

★ ★ ★

"I believe things can be better," he added, "but we ought not to check in our gun until we are sure."

Last month President Johnson announced plans for "a very comprehensive study of the draft system and of related manpower studies."

STUDY GOALS

The study, Johnson said, would "consider alternatives to the present draft selection system, including the possibility of meeting our requirements on an entirely voluntary basis within a decade."

There have been complaints that the draft system is unfair. Because the pool of eligible young men exceeds the need, some are called while others are excused.

The President said he was not predicting that the military manpower requirements could be met on a voluntary basis in the next decade but that the study "looks forward to that."

Emphasizing this point, Hershey said he has "very definite doubts" that military requirements can be met without some form of compulsion unless they are reduced "to "little short of a police force."

BRITISH DIFFICULTY

He said Britain is finding it very difficult to keep her armed forces at a level of around 190,000 to 200,000 since the draft was dropped there.

"Some people say we can have forces of 1.5 million without compulsion," Hershey said, "but we've never done it." Now the nation's armed services number about 2.7 million, with only the Army relying on the draft.

"I have always felt that the military services got three or four enlistments for each of our inductions," Hershey said. "This fiscal year we are going to deliver about 160,000 men, up some 50,000 from last year. The services are going to receive some 600,000 to 700,000 men in all, from the inductions, voluntary enlistments and re-enlistments."

CHANGES NEEDED

Among the changes Hershey feels are needed before the draft can be discontinued:

"We have to have a climate not only periodically friendly but have a world not of predator forces and people but of people who believe very firmly that other people don't want to hurt them. We've got to have a climate in which we would not need so many people in our armed forces. The nuclear test ban treaty and the reduction of nuclear explosives production would seem to be a good start.

★ ★ ★

"We have got to have active recruiting and incentives. It seems to me that every time the pay goes up inside the armed forces, pay goes up more outside, and the situation is only worse than it was before. Also, I don't want to depend solely on the money level. Some of us have become so sophisticated that we have forgotten about patriotism and the flag. I would hate to see the time when the nation needed a million men and the only way to get them would be some incentive of a material kind. Somebody else might offer to pay them more.

★ ★ ★

"We ought to think of our armed forces as the elite. We ought to take a man in on probation and judge him by his performance rather than take him in on the basis of testing on paper."

Romney Will Get Report on U.S. Districting Powers

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney's chief legal aide is preparing a report to the governor today on what — if anything the U.S. Supreme Court may do on the question of legislative redistricting.

The report by Robert Danhof, legal advisor to Romney, was to be based on talks held in Washington Friday with U.S. Solicitor General Archibald Cox.

★ ★ ★

Danhof declined to discuss his hush-hush conversation with Cox, but described himself as "not discouraged."

This could mean he obtained an indication of when the U.S. court may hand down a decision in any one of six pending cases which could clear the way for solving Michigan's legislative districting snarl.

WAITING GUIDELINES

The Michigan Supreme Court, split over the question, is awaiting "guidelines" from the U.S. court before ruling on the propriety of reapportionment plans before it.

While the governor awaited Danhof's report, a 14-member, bipartisan negotiating committee in the House went ahead with its own efforts to map out new House districts.

★ ★ ★

The drive was aimed at agreement on a plan which would give each party in the 110-member House an equal number of so-called "safe" districts, with the remainder being "swing" districts that could go either way.

The committee worked out a plan Friday that, on the basis of past voting records, would give Democrats 51 seats, Republicans 52, and leave seven as "swing" districts.

ALLOW COURTS

Also proposed was a resolution aimed at amending the new constitution to let the new Court of Appeals take over the redistricting problem if the Legislative Apportionment Commission, already once unsuccessful, failed again.

The plan would provide for such a procedure if the State Supreme Court failed to settle the issue by Jan. 1, 1965. There would be no appeal from the decision of the appeals court to the state high court.

'Secret Data Used Politically'

ATLANTA (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater charged today that President Johnson's administration is using top secret information for political purposes.

The Arizona conservative, here to keynote Georgia's GOP convention, said the administration, released hitherto secret information on U.S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba, thereby making classified information available to the Russians.

Goldwater, addressing a $25-a-plate breakfast in advance of his keynote address, said that prior to the release of the information he, as a member of the U.S. Senate, had "sworn with my hand on a Bible," not to reveal the information.

The Arizona conservative repeated his charge that the Soviet Union had a missile lead over the United States and that the Russian arsenal includes 750 immediate range missiles "aimed at Europe."

Goldwater, in obvious reference to an incident with a radio newsman last night, referred to it as "rudeness."

The radio newsman had tried to put a microphone in front of him, but Goldwater pushed it away.

Reflections

J. L. VOORHEES

GO BACK TO GO FORWARD:

The rocket failed. The scientists didn't abandon the project but carefully checked back for cause, found it, and that rocket performed perfectly. In the crucial game of life it is impossible to Go Back but it is very simple to check our plan and then Go Ahead to Success.

M. E. SIPLE

The minister asks, "Do you promise to —" and you answer, "Yes." That "Yes" commits you; it is a promise. Go Back before you go ahead, fully appreciate the deep meaning of those promises and you'll experience a little bit of heaven.

Gen. MacArthur did the impossible; before he issued an order he went Back time and time again before he Went Forward. Eisenhower planned the biggest battle ever fought; every detail was checked time and time again, for one error. He went Back To Go Forward.

Go Back To Go Forward is insurance for pleasant days ahead.
