Emergency Security Talk Calls Dulles From Tokyo

TOKYO (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles rushed through top-level military and economic conferences today and then left for an emergency meeting of the U. S. National Security Council in Denver Sunday.

Dulles' Constellation took off from Tokyo International Airport at 4:56 p. m. (2:56 a. m. EST).

Dulles delayed his departure almost two hours to allow time for military talks with Far East Commander Gen. John E. Hull, presumably on the Communist Chinese threat to the island of Quemoy, and for a meeting with Burmese acting Foreign Minister U Kyaw Nyein.

The meeting with the Burmese diplomat, coupled with Australian External Affairs Minister Richard G. Casey's trip to Rangoon this weekend, was part of a campaign to persuade Burma to join the new Southeast Asia collective security system set up at Manila earlier this week.

McCarthy Leaves Stand; 'Hot Paper' to Be Studied

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. McCarthy finished testifying in his own defense against censure charges today, and won agreement from the special Senate hearing committee to examine the "hot document" of the McCarthy-Army dispute and decide whether it will be accepted as evidence.

Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) ordered a recess of the hearings until 1 p. m. (EDT).

He said the committee would examine the paper meantime and announce when it reconvened whether it would admit the 24-page paper which has been gingerly handled by two Senate committees.

Also scheduled for the afternoon was the start of cross-examination of McCarthy who has been his own star defense witness. His counsel, Edward Bennett Williams, asked him only a couple of questions before the public session was called off today. Then he announced that McCarthy was ready for cross examination.

At a closed-door session just ahead of the brief opening hearing the committee decided "at least to inspect" the controversial paper which McCarthy has been trying to get into the current case.

The disputed paper was produced by McCarthy at the recent hearing on his dispute with Army officials, but members of the committee which investigated that quarrel refused even to look at it. And Atty. Gen. Brownell ruled it should not go on any public record.

McCarthy offered it at that time in support of his contention that his investigation of alleged Red infiltration at the Army's Ft. Monmouth, N. J., radar laboratory was needed. The paper purported to be a letter from the FBI to Army intelligence reporting on personnel at the laboratory.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said it was not a letter but contained accurate excerpts from a longer confidential FBI memorandum.

The outcome of the state voting may have a crucial effect on support which Adenauer so far has commanded for his pro-Western policy, even though after four years it has not produced the promised sovereignty and international equality for West Germany.

Some political observers predict that the CDU will run behind the opposition Socialists in the new contest.

The outcome of the state voting may have a crucial effect on support which Adenauer so far has commanded for his pro-Western policy, even though after four years it has not produced the promised sovereignty and international equality for West Germany.

Describing the progression toward a "woman's world" in the United States, Prof. Nelson N. Foote, director of the university's Family Service Center, told the U.N. Population Conference here yesterday:

"Diaper-changing, dishwashing, cooking, cleaning, laundering, shopping, all tend to become duties shared with the wife, especially when she works outside." And he said that 27 per cent of all American wives do work away from home.

"If sewing were not in severe decline generally in American homes," Foote added, "husbands might have invaded this province."

U.N. Takes Up U.S.-Red Row

Bitter Fight Expected to Explode in Debate of Plane Incidents

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UP)—The United States and Russia headed into a bitter fight in the U.N. Security Council today over their recent aerial clashes in the Far East.

The 11-nation council was called into session at the request of Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. to consider an incident last Friday off the Coast of Siberia in which two Soviet jet fighters shot down an American naval patrol bomber.

Western diplomats, however, expected Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky to counter with charges the U.S. bomber violated Soviet territory. The United States contends its plane was over international waters.

Sources close to Lodge said he would present a detailed account of the incident, which he previously had described as "of a type which might endanger the maintenance of international peace and security."

The initial discussion was expected to boil down mostly to an exchange between the United States and Russia. Other delegates have indicated privately that they cannot see what good the Council debate can accomplish.

The difficulty faced by the Council stems from the contradictory accounts of the incident given by the two powers.

The outcome of the state voting may have a crucial effect on support which Adenauer so far has commanded for his pro-Western policy, even though after four years it has not produced the promised sovereignty and international equality for West Germany.

Business Fine When He Paid, Says Witness

DETROIT (UP)—Edgar S. Mather Jr., Farmington sand and gravel dealer, says his business "ran like honey" as long as he paid off an AFL Teamsters Union official to "fix" wage demand cases.

Mather, who testified yesterday in the Recorder's (criminal) Court hearing of five Teamsters officials, said payments totaling $13,750 were made to Daniel J. Keating, president of Local 614, of Pontiac, during 1950, '51, and '52. He said the payments not only "fixed" wage cases but stopped the union from presenting grievances.

Keating is being tried on bribery and extortion charges along with Louis C. Lintea, business agent of Local 614; Michael E. Nicoletti, president of Local 247, and Samuel J. Marosso, Local, business agent of Local 247. Frank E. Fitzsimmons, Milford, business agent for Local 299, also is on trial for accepting and conspiring to accept bribes.

The balance of county expenditures went for construction and maintenance of drains, the purchase of land, buildings and equipment, interest on bonded debts, county parks, airports, libraries, fairs and other miscellaneous items.

Sox Manager Unsigned

CHICAGO (UP)—Manager Paul Richards and Vice President Chuck Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox today apparently failed to reach an agreement on a new contract. Richards will remain the White Sox manager through 1954, young Comiskey said after a meeting with his manager. "He will serve out his two-year contract with us. That's all I can say."

Warn Northeast That Hurricane Is Coming Close

Area Struck on Aug. 31 in Path of New Storm, Weather Bureau Says

NEW YORK (UP)—The U. S. Weather Bureau said today present indications are that hurricane Edna will come "fairly close" to northern New Jersey, the New York metropolitan area, Long Island and New England.

If it does, a forecaster said, "the worst" will be tomorrow afternoon—with a high probability of heavy rain and winds of at least 30 to 40 miles per hour.

He said that gales of 45 to 75 m.p.h. and even hurricane winds over 75 m.p.h. in some sections are possible, depending on the path of the hurricane.

Tides somewhat above normal are fairly certain today along the coast from northern New Jersey to New England, and abnormally high tides are highly probable tomorrow, the forecaster said.

He said there is no way to tell at this time whether the season's fifth hurricane will hit this region, but if it does it may be "as bad or worse" than hurricane Carol which caused widespread death and destruction Aug. 31.

Hurricane-jittery Long Islanders eyed darkening skies with growing uneasiness as the Weather Bureau tabbed the new storm "a definite threat" to this area. Hurricane Carol strewn three million dollars of wreckage on Long Island.

Northeast storm warnings were hoisted today from Block Island to Portland, Maine.

The Weather Bureau at Boston said winds will increase late today and tonight and will reach gale force tomorrow morning.

Tax Collections Net $169 Million

83 Michigan Counties Report Receipts in 1953 Up Nearly $15 Million

LANSING (UP)—Aud. Gen. John B. Martin today announced that the total revenue of Michigan's 83 counties in 1953 was $169,900,336. Compilation of the counties' financial reports for the year showed that total receipts exceeded 1952 by $14,900,000.

County expenditures for the year were $170,664,215, about $1,564,000 more than 1952.

The net deficit for all counties was $768,879. Thirty-four counties ran in the red during the year.

Martin said that the major source of county revenue was the property tax, which produced a total of some $1,000,000. State aid was second in importance as a source of revenue.

The state contributed about $49,750,000 for roads and $9,900,000 for county health, welfare and medical assistance programs.

Fees and other reimbursements produced the remaining $30,000,000. Maintenance and construction of highways represented the counties' highest individual item of cost. They spent $57,573,615 for the purpose exclusive of capital outlay for land, equipment and buildings. State aid produced more than 86 per cent of the amount.

The gross cost of county health, welfare and medical assistance programs was $55,576,978. The expense of operating court house offices totaled $33,484,145.

The balance of county expenditures went for construction and maintenance of drains, the purchase of land, buildings and equipment, interest on bonded debts, county parks, airports, libraries, fairs and other miscellaneous items.

CHICAGO (UP)—Manager Paul Richards and Vice President Chuck Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox today apparently failed to reach an agreement on a new contract. Richards will remain the White Sox manager through 1954, young Comiskey said after a meeting with his manager. "He will serve out his two-year contract with us. That's all I can say."

She is turning her back on the six-months, $250-a-week movie contract she won with the beauty title. The wholesome, country-reared blonde will return to classes at Lander College for girls at Greenwood, S. C., next Monday. She told newsmen: "I feel like a Cinderella at midnight."

Nationalists Again Pound Red China Coast Positions

TAIPEH (INS)—Chinese Nationalist warplanes and ships smashed again at Communist positions along the China coast today and air force headquarters said pilots saw a 2,000-foot "pillar of fire and smoke" over the Red strong point of Amoy Island.

It was the fifth straight day of joint Nationalist air-sea attacks against Red shipping, gun emplacements and troop concentrations in the Amoy area.

A Nationalist air force spokesman said the towering column of fire and smoke was spotted directly over a fort called Hochu on Amoy.

The air force also said another Amoy fort, called White Stone, was "damaged beyond recognition."

The Nationalist planes and warships got in what may be their last strikes before a typhoon sweeps over the target area. The typhoon, called "June" by weather forecasters, is expected to hit the coast tomorrow evening.

Targets on Amoy Island itself and on the mainland were struck by waves of bombers and hammered from the sea by American-contributed destroyers.

The same targets have been under fire daily since Monday in a massive retaliation for Red bombardment of Nationalist-held Quemoy Island.

The Nationalists, triumphantly claiming they had broken the back of the communist "junk invasion fleet" in the Amoy area, carried out a daring propaganda leaflet "raid" on the mainland's two biggest cities, Shanghai and Canton.

Swarms of American-made B-25 light bombers, manned by Nationalist crewmen, flew hundreds of miles overland to dump tons of leaflets denouncing Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai as "a murderer who now has turned into a Sovietized gentleman."

The leaflets called on the people of China to rise against their Red masters.

Quake Deaths Now Estimated to Be Over 1,000

Another 2,000 Believed Injured in Devastated, Isolated Town

ALGIERS, Algeria (UP)—The earth still trembled at Orleansville today, more than 24 hours after the disastrous earthquake that wreaked a death toll estimated at more than 1,000 Europeans and Algerians. Another 2,000 were believed hurt.

Shocks less violent than the first were felt five times last night and this morning.

One lasted several seconds, bringing down unsteady houses and great pieces of shattered walls. Blasted buildings in the heart of the town were crumbling into the streets.

There were 2,000 rescue workers and as many more troops, on the spot about 100 miles west of Algiers.

The French army, which rushed all available troops and ambulances to the area, also sent four bulldozers and eight big water tanks, along with eight tons of bread and other food, 50 field kitchens and 35 cooks to man them.

The mayor of the city was quoted as saying: "We've had to evacuate 85 per cent of the houses, but we won't evacuate the town. We're going to put everybody into tents."

Rescue teams returning here said identification of European victims was proceeding rapidly but they were having more difficulty with the Muslim dead.

Casualty estimates were made more difficult by the fact many Muslims were burying their own dead without sending in any report.

The French interior ministry said last night 500 deaths have been confirmed officially, but most of them appeared to be European residents of the area. They said an accurate accounting of the quake toll will take many days.

With railways cut and many highways impassable, aid was flown in from Algiers and Oran.

Some surface communications had been restored today, but most telephone lines were still out.

Two thousand soldiers from Algiers and Oran—bayonets bared—patrolled the region to prevent looting.

Planes which rushed doctors and medical supplies to the area returned with the most severely injured. The less serious cases were cared for in emergency field hospitals or simply in the streets.

Many able-bodied survivors were reported fleeing from Orleansville and the stricken villages. They traveled by horse, bicycle or afoot, carrying a few valued possessions.

Some officials estimated 90 per cent of the houses in Orleansville would have to be torn down.

Among the buildings almost demolished was a new secondary school. The prison was badly damaged. Its gates were ripped open by the shock. Bodies of 10 prisoners were found. Survivors were transferred to Algiers prisons.

Commitment Delayed

Ziem Says New Ryan Act for Dope Addicts Is Failure

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem today declared he's not going to invoke the Ryan Act (which calls for hospitalization of admitted narcotics users rather than jail) until the law becomes workable.

His decision was reached after the Michigan Department of Mental Health informed Ziem that it had no provisions under the law for instant commitment of admitted addicts.

The impasse developed about two weeks ago when Ziem used the Ryan Act (just passed April 5) for the first time in Michigan.

Prerequisites of the act include the waiving of all criminal charges against a defendant so that he can be committed to a hospital without being labeled a convict.

After Ziem complied with the requirements he discovered that no provisions had been made for turning the addict over to the mental health department for immediate commitment.

Ziem said he turned the person in question over to Oakland County Jail but that he had no right to hold him for the 10 days he spent in his cell.

"It was only because the addict agreed to his incarceration that we were able to hold him at all," Ziem said.

"With excellent cooperation from officials at Pontiac State Hospital we were able to turn the patient over to them Thursday, but I promised that the situation would not occur again until the law has been overhauled."

"Personally I think the idea behind the Ryan Act is an excellent one, but as a practical matter it just doesn't work out."

Under the present setup it is possible to have addicts committed to state institutions but they must wait their turn for commitment—which might sometimes be two years.

"That's where the workings of the Act fail—because when we comply with the prerequisites and displace all criminal charges there is no legal way to hold the addict until his commitment."

The Day in Birmingham

New Incinerator Expected to Start Operating by Oct. 15

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM—Construction finished ahead of schedule is rather unique in this day and age, but a good three months have been lopped off the estimated completion date of the incinerator which will serve Birmingham and 11 other municipalities.

With an original finishing time of January or February, City Manager Donald C. Egbert said yesterday it now appears that the $1,800,000 incinerator project to serve the Southeastern Oakland County Garbage and Rubbish Authority will be put into moderate operation around Oct. 15.

The city's Walkey Gravel Pit will continue to be used for the sanitary land-fill method of garbage disposal until the drying out process of the new structure, taking several weeks, is completed.

The 40-acre incinerator site on John R near 12 Mile road will serve other authority members Berkley, Oak Park, Ferndale, Hazel Park, Huntington Woods, Pleasant Ridge, Clawson, Royal Oak, and Troy, Southfield and Royal Oak Townships.

Thieves are stealing wire fence from Walter Payne, 3380 Joslyn Rd., Pontiac Township, on the installment plan.

Wednesday night, according to Mrs. Payne, someone made off with a 100-foot roll of fencing but left behind a 50-foot roll which was in Payne's back yard.

Last night someone came back and took the remaining wire, which Mrs. Payne said had been untouched since it was bought a year ago. Value of the wire was about $37, Mrs. Payne said.

Bares 1st Leprosy Case Among WW II Veterans

CHICAGO (INS)—The first case of leprosy contracted by an American serviceman during World War II overseas duty came to light yesterday.

Dr. Norman E. Levan of Bakersfield, Calif., disclosed in the current Journal of the American Medical Association that the victim was a native of Kansas who had served in the Philippines, an area where leprosy is "endemic" (prevalent), and lived in California since the end of the war.

The physician predicted "similar instances may be anticipated during the next 30 or more years in veterans of World War II and Korea who served in endemic regions."

Red Cross Chapter Drops Special Fund Drive Here

No separate fund drive will be held this year in Oakland County by the American Red Cross, as result of an agreement announced today between the county chapter and the Detroit Metropolitan United Foundation.

The Detroit organization will include $26,000 for the Red Cross in its 1954 Torch Drive goal, representing Southfield, Royal Oak, Troy and Bloomfield Townships' share of the county chapter quota of $96,000.

In previous years the Red Cross has solicited independently in these townships, said Harold Euler, chairman of the county chapter.

A sum of $31,000 for the Red Cross will be included this year in the Pontiac Area United Fund goal, according to Dwight Adams, executive director.

The Townships United fund, covering all but three townships north of Square Lake road, will include $19,203 for the Red Cross, making a separate drive unnecessary, Euler stated.

"Friends of the Red Cross are asked to make their usual donations as a contribution to the Torch Drive held in the Detroit area from Oct. 19 to Nov. 11 and in Pontiac from Oct. 19 to Nov. 4," said Euler.

The agreements provide that in event of a major local or national disaster, the Red Cross may conduct a special appeal for funds to meet the emergency.

Communities included in the latest agreement included Birmingham, Ferndale, Royal Oak, Berkley, Oak Park, Huntington Woods, Pleasant Ridge, Lathrup Township, Clawson, Hazel Park, Franklin Village and Bloomfield Hills.

Virginia Dare, the first white child born in America, was born on Roanoke Island, Va., which now is part of North Carolina.

Police Arrest Youth, Recover Stolen Loot

A 20-year-old youth, who police say admitted stealing about $350 worth of articles from autos, breaking into a restaurant and attempting another break-in, was apprehended last night only an hour after Pontiac Police received a complaint.

Held for investigation of breaking and entering and larceny from autos, is Paul R. Cremer, of 61 Gage St.

Det. Thomas Mitchell and two other patrolmen, dispatched to No. Perry St., learned that a bowling ball and shoes were taken from an auto owned by John Kerezy of 54 Gage St. While there officers also learned that a restaurant at 554 N. Perry, was broken into and seven other autos parked in the vicinity were ransacked. An attempted break-in was reported at a nearby shoe store at 552 N. Perry St.

Mitchell said that Patrolmen Forest Hatfield and Robert Rowland, after learning the description of the suspect, saw Cremer hurrying away on Glenwood avenue toward Rundell street.

Cremer was taken into custody and police recovered the bowling equipment, 13 golf clubs and a bag, and a flashlight. Nothing has been determined missing at the restaurant, police said.

Red Cross Chapter Drops Special Fund Drive Here

No separate fund drive will be held this year in Oakland County by the American Red Cross, as result of an agreement announced today between the county chapter and the Detroit Metropolitan United Foundation.

The Detroit organization will include $26,000 for the Red Cross in its 1954 Torch Drive goal, representing Southfield, Royal Oak, Troy and Bloomfield Townships' share of the county chapter quota of $96,000.

In previous years the Red Cross has solicited independently in these townships, said Harold Euler, chairman of the county chapter.

A sum of $31,000 for the Red Cross will be included this year in the Pontiac Area United Fund goal, according to Dwight Adams, executive director.

The Townships United fund, covering all but three townships north of Square Lake road, will include $19,203 for the Red Cross, making a separate drive unnecessary, Euler stated.

"Friends of the Red Cross are asked to make their usual donations as a contribution to the Torch Drive held in the Detroit area from Oct. 19 to Nov. 11 and in Pontiac from Oct. 19 to Nov. 4," said Euler.

The agreements provide that in event of a major local or national disaster, the Red Cross may conduct a special appeal for funds to meet the emergency.

Communities included in the latest agreement included Birmingham, Ferndale, Royal Oak, Berkley, Oak Park, Huntington Woods, Pleasant Ridge, Lathrup Township, Clawson, Hazel Park, Franklin Village and Bloomfield Hills.

Virginia Dare, the first white child born in America, was born on Roanoke Island, Va., which now is part of North Carolina.

Family Taught Lesson About Mother

LONDON (U.S.)—Mrs. Winifred da Costa, an attractive 39-year-old mother with a lot of spunk, was sure today she had taught her family the lesson of their young mother with a lot of spunk, was

In the Da Costa's suburban London home she was always picking up after son John, 14. Daughter Joan, 18, was constantly losing her slippers and fountain pen, and mother had to find them. For daughter Doreen, 13, mother worked till late at night making frocks, but Doreen wasn't helping with the dusting.

Daughter Sylvia, 20, a beauty contest winner, was thinking of a career and the excitement of the outside world. Home was just a place to sleep for her.

Father Jack didn't help much because he was so tied up with his vegetable business in London's Covent Garden that he couldn't find time to notice his wife very much.

The blow-up came last Monday morning.

Mrs. Da Costa, in the whirl of daily chores, had forgotten to buy the butter. There were murmurs of complaint. After the family dispersed for the day, Mrs. Da Costa left.

She went to a big hotel near Brighton—a place of happy memory because there, several months ago, daughter Sylvia had won the beauty contest, and in that very same competition Mrs. Da Costa herself was a finalist.

This time she didn't go for fun. She had a four-day cry.

Back home there was the hue and cry of a missing woman mystery, with police patching together clues. It didn't look like foul play, but it was very puzzling to persons who do not understand what mothers have to put up with.

Someone recognized Mrs. Da Costa and telephoned her husband. He raced down in his big yellow automobile. She explained all, and made him cool his heels in the lounge while she had pineapple and cream and thought over his promise to shake up the family.

Mrs. Da Costa went home with Jack last night, to be greeted joyfully by four children so polished that they gleamed. If there was a speck of dust you couldn't find it, and Mom had a dandy dinner which she didn't cook.

Van Fleet, Miss Greece Cross Over the Bridge

By EARL WILSON

ST. PETERSBURG — A lady columnist down this way recently wrote:

"Florida is getting too big for its bridges."

And so the forward-looking Floridians built a $22,000,000 architectural beauty called "The Sunshine Skyway," 15 miles long overall. They got Gen. James S. Van Fleet, lovely Miss Greece, and Jimmy Melton and a couple of his old-time gas buggies, to dedicate it.

That's why this New York columnist—who's covered everything from delicatessen openings on up—found himself just down here on the Gulf of Mexico.

Just to make it all perfect, one flier flew under the bridge just before the official opening.

The plane was a little Piper Cub and if you get the name of the pilot and kindly give it to the police they will beat the hell out of him.

Riding right up in front as we all crossed over the new span from St. Pete toward Sarasota was General Van Fleet in a hand-made Chrysler that we were told cost $72,000.

Naturally, we thought somebody drank too much Florida grapefruit juice when they told us that, and meant $7,200. "Nope, it's 72 thousand," the officials assured us. It's called a presidential parade car, there are only three in existence, and President Eisenhower has already ridden in this one six times, the man said.

Gen. Van Fleet—who's now associated with 20th Century Fox Pictures in Hollywood (that's the company that works for Marilyn Monroe)—was almost as big a hit as the bridge.

When Miss Greece—Ricca Diallyna—got smooched by acting Gov. Charley Johris during the ceremonies, somebody said to the general:

"I thought you'd be up there kissing her, general."

"Oh, I kissed her yesterday," replied the military man, soldier-like.

Sunshine Skyway—which actually links 10 counties—eliminates the famous St. Petersburg Ferry. The $1.75 toll isn't considered steep here because that's what the ferry cost—and half the time you had to wait, and wait, and wait to get on it.

St. Pete, Sarasota, Bradenton and Tampa are all expecting new business booms—and Florida is already one of the fastest growing states in the union.

Besides finding that Little Jack Little is here, I was most impressed by the signs hereabouts such as "The Hair of the Dog Liquor Store," the "Bluenose Motel." One that said, "She Sells Sea Shells," and a dandy over a mowing machine establishment that stated: "When you gotta mow, you gotta mow."

Xavier Cugat had a big hassle with an Italian movie producer who made eyes at his missus, Abbe Lane, in Rome . . . The Federal Trade Commission will crack down on some filter-tip claims . . . Bookie Harry Gross goes to court again this month, trying to get sprung.

Treasury agents are taking secret movies of the numbers racket right outside the Pentagon . . . Anchorage, Alaska, will import jazz groups. (It's really the coolest, dad) . . . Mary Linn Beller makes C38's "Brighter Day" radio show a lot brighter.

Earl's Pearls: A guy, enjoying the "do-it-yourself" fad, has this advice for painting a room: "To finish the bedroom I used a gallon of paint and four bottles of beer."—Ottawa Herald.

Wish I'd Said That: "A teenage boy may have his mother's eyes and disposition, but it's a bet he has his father's car keys."—Augusta (Kan.) Daily Gazette.

Today's Best Laugh: "Let's see," asks Allen Seserman, "what was it we were afraid of before they discovered the atom bomb?" . . . That's earl, brother.

Harriman Gets Major Backing

Dem Nomination Seems Sure, but F.D.R. Jr.'s Faction May Fight

NEW YORK — Four of New York State's leading Democrats have formally endorsed Averell Harriman for the party's nomination for governor.

All may not be clear sailing for the millionaire New Deal-Fair Deal stalwart, however, because some powerful backers of Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. threaten a floor fight at the Democratic State Convention.

But the leaders' endorsement probably has assured Harriman of a majority of the delegates.

A statement backing Harriman was issued late yesterday by Democratic State Chairman Richard H. Balch and Democratic National Committeeman Carmine G. DeSapio, who also is leader of Tammany Hall, the Manhattan party organization.

Several upstate Democratic leaders declared their continued support of Roosevelt for the nomination.

Harriman, 62, issued a brief statement last night saying he was gratified at the support of the four top party leaders. He said that, if nominated, he would lead a vigorous fight for the Democratic party's principles, which "I deeply believe are vital to the welfare of the people of our state."

Harriman, a traditional Republican, has been a Democrat since he voted for the late Alfred E. Smith for president in 1928.

As a possible Harriman-Roosevelt convention fight threatened, no Republican opposition developed against U.S. Sen. Irving M. Lyles who has been tabbed for that party's gubernatorial nomination by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and other GOP leaders. Nomination of the 58-year-old senator appeared certain.

Clawing, Biting Dallas Child, 9, Dies of Rabies

DALLAS, Tex. — A 9-year-old boy died from rabies today only hours after he was admitted to Parkland Hospital, clawing, biting and spitting.

The child was Ben Earl Ivery, the youngest of nine children of Mrs. Vessie Ivery.

The boy was first taken to Parkland July 18 after he was bitten by a stray dog, but his case was not diagnosed as rabies until yesterday, the mother said.

Parkland attendants said it took three doctors and two nurses to subdue the violently ill child so that anaesthetists could put him to sleep for a blood specimen. A young woman doctor must take rabies serum because of a scratch she received while helping with the patient.

Ben Earl was the second Dallas child to die with rabies this summer. Jody Allene Brown, 3, died a few weeks ago. The State Health Department yesterday listed no other deaths from the maddening malady this year. The two children lived within a mile of one another.

To Sell Cohen Home to Pay $50,000 Bond

LOS ANGELES — Mickey Cohen's Brentwood home goes up for auction today—to pay off a $50,000 bond on a henchman who disappeared.

Cohen himself is now at McNeil Island Penitentiary serving a five-year term on an income tax evasion conviction. He put the home up for collateral on a bond guaranteeing the appearance in court of Frank Niccoli on a conspiracy charge—and Niccoli hasn't been seen since. A bail bondsman forced on it to pay the bond.

At the time, when he was leading underworld figure, Cohen estimated the home's value at $80,000. It had bullets fired into it, and once was damaged by a dynamite blast, despite an elaborate electric-eye warning system Cohen had installed.

Irish Tulip Bulbs Gain Wide Recognition in U.S.

DUBLIN (UP) — Irish tulips have made their mark in America. In less than three years, Ireland has built up a huge important market of tulip bulbs to the United States, and orders continue to pour in.

The Irish tulip industry is concentrated mainly on a 400-acre farm at Finglas, near Dublin airport, on a sunwashed ledge of limestone land. It is run with the efficiency of a model-style factory. Head of the industry is Edward Browett, a Dubliner campaigning to have Ireland replace Holland as the leading power in the world of flowers.

Missouri River Trout Mystery to Observers

OMAHA — Who put the trout in the Missouri River?

U.S. Army Engineers are trying to solve the mystery because no one previously has seen trout in the muddy Missouri.

The trout, all beauties—the largest weighed four pounds and measured 21 inches—were pulled out

One theory is the fish might have come from the Niobrara River which runs into the Missouri at the Nebraska-South Dakota border, that somehow the trout made it to the Missouri and traveled some 50 miles upstream.

The most common causes of grain field fires at harvest time are exhaust sparks, fuel that leaked or spilled, and overheated engines or bearings, according to the University of Illinois.

President Plans Political Meeting at Denver Today

Eden Will Make Tour of West European Capitals

LONDON (INS) — British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden leaves London tomorrow for a five-day tour of Western capitals to take the pulse of opinion about the rearmament of Western Germany.

The British Foreign Office announcement of Eden's trip said he would talk with other foreign ministers "concerning the situation created by the French Assembly's rejection of the European Defense Community Treaty."

Specifically Eden is expected to sound out his opposite numbers on two important points:

- 1—Methods of bringing West Germany into the European defense system as an equal partner.
- 2—The date for a nine-nation conference on European security which Britain has proposed.

To round up viewpoints on these questions Eden will visit France, Italy, Belgium, West Germany, Luxembourg and The Netherlands—the six nations which were to have comprised the European Defense Community.

And from Washington, the U. S. has formally proposed that an emergency meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers be held to pass on admission of West Germany to NATO, not later than Oct. 15. Responsible diplomatic sources said today the proposal was made by the U. S. to the permanent NATO council, now meeting in Paris. It was suggested that the emergency meeting be held "about October 1," and in no event later than October 15, in New York.

Purpose of the session would be to deal specifically with a U. S. proposal that West Germany be permitted to rearm and be brought into NATO. This was seen as the answer to the problem raised by the French refusal to ratify the European Defense Community.

Eden's first visit will be to Brussels for a conference Saturday with Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, Dutch Foreign Minister Willem Beyen and Joseph Bech of Luxembourg.

From Brussels the British foreign minister will go to Bonn for a Sunday meeting with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. Monday he will leave for Rome for talks with Italian officials.

Eden's Rome conferences are not expected to get under way until Tuesday. And he will leave Wednesday for Paris and a meeting with French Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

He is scheduled to return to London Thursday.

$1,200 Allowed Retired Worker

Social Security Change Allows Persons to Make That Amount

(Editor's note: This is the fourth in a series of eight articles dealing with 1954 changes in the Social Security Act. Reprints are available by contacting the Pontiac Social Security Office, 323 Hubbard Road.)

Starting Jan. 1, 1955 persons drawing social security benefits will be able to earn up to $1,200 and still get monthly checks, compared with the former $900 ceiling.

Also in 1955, the ceiling on wages taxed for social security will be hiked from $3,600 to $4,200. This means deductions for social security will be taken out of pay checks each year until the worker has earned $4,200.

The $4,200 limit also applies to self-employment income covered by the law and a combination of wages and self-employment. The raise means higher benefits to people now getting checks and also to those becoming eligible in the future.

The tax rate will be the same as previously—two per cent for wage earners, three per cent for self-employed—but $600 more will be taxable.

The new $1,200 income limit means a person can earn up to that much in a year and still receive a social security check every month.

These earnings include wages from work for others or self-obtained money whether or not the work is covered by social security.

The number of social security checks received by persons with incomes over $1,200 per year depends on the amount of income over $1,200 and number of months actually worked.

Even when earnings exceed the ceiling, social security benefits will not be lost for any month when not more than $80 was made or for any month when a person does not work.

Another provision effective Jan. 1, 1955 makes it possible after age 72 to get benefits every month regardless of the amount of earnings.

A penalty is provided for receiving and cashing checks for months persons are not eligible because of the work provisions in the law.

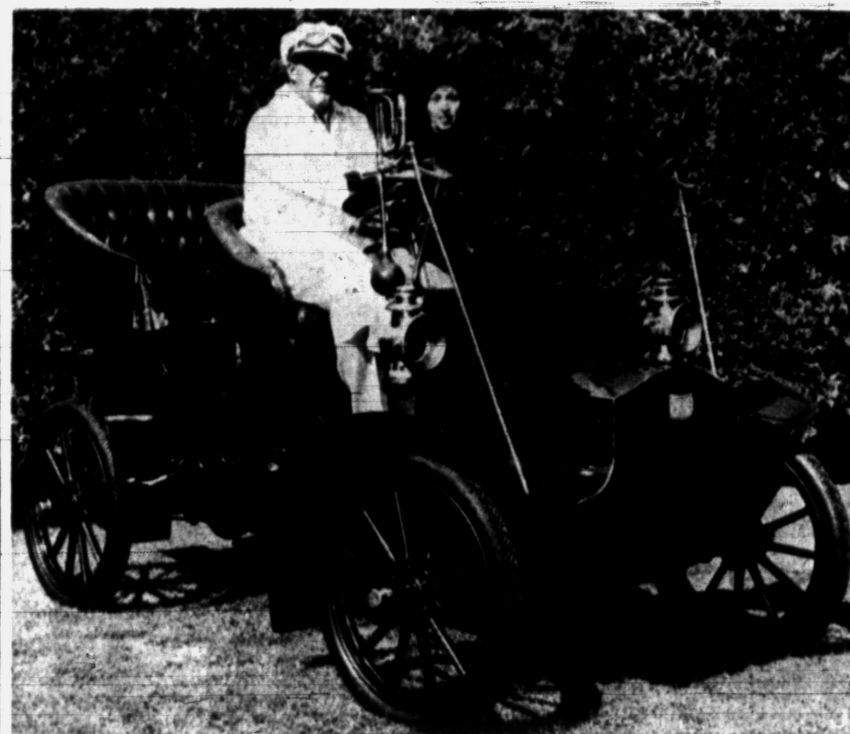

If you are receiving benefits and go to work, check with a social security office if not sure how the job will affect your eligibility for benefits.

New York Furor Rises Over Bingo

NEW YORK (INS) — Furor over the demotion and retirement of police official Louis Goldberg following his one-man crusade against Brooklyn bingo was injected with added fuel last night when his successor continued the crack-down on the game.

Goldberg was demoted yesterday from deputy chief inspector to captain on the ground of "insubordination." He immediately filed for retirement amid a controversy that threatens to spark a political issue in the coming election campaign.

The 61-year-old Goldberg, on the force for 36 years, was broken by Police Commissioner Francis W. H. Adams, who said Goldberg had failed to keep his superiors informed on his bingo activities.

ALL SET FOR OUTING — Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Donnell, of 247 Ottawa Dr., are shown in their 1904 Cadillac getting ready for their trip to Greenfield Village tomorrow for the annual old car show there.

Donnell, who works at the Pontiac Retail store, also owns an 1898 Duryea, but it needs new tires so it will stay in the garage for this year's show.

Pontiac Man Ready for Old Car Show at Greenfield Village Saturday

M. J. Donnell has an ordinary-size garage behind his home at 247 Ottawa Dr. But it holds three cars without bulging a wall.

One of the autos is a low-slung English Jaguar. The other two are short-wheelbase early vintage American models—an 1898 Duryea and a 1904 Cadillac.

The Duryea is but 9½ feet long, the Cadillac, 8½ feet.

Donnell will unstack the Cadillac tomorrow, (Sat.) don a duster, pick up Mrs. Donnell at the front door and head for a day's outing at Dearborn's Greenfield Village.

The occasion will be the annual old car show and parade sponsored by the Flint Chapter of the Veteran Motor Car Club of America, in conjunction with Greenfield Village officials.

He'll take the Cadillac because it's in better condition. The Duryea, which he bought a year ago, needs new tires, among other things.

A strike at a Firestone tire plant in Massachusetts kayoed any plans to put the car in shape for the event. (The rubber company still has all the molds for all the tires it's ever made, for which old car fanciers are mighty thankful.)

The four passenger Cadillac touring car rumbles along at a 25-mph clip without any trouble, Donnell says.

He reconditioned it himself and anticipates a good showing in the old car frolic.

This week, he spent off-hours from his job as used car sales manager for the Pontiac Retail Store to carefully polish and tune-up the car.

Judges at the affair will pick winners on both car looks and performance and driver and passenger's costumes. Donnell had his duster specially made by a woman in Charlotte.

Aside from the parade, there will be cranking contests and a gas light parade in the evening, during which only the kerosene and carbide lights on the autos will light Greenfield Village's roadways.

Donnell expects other members of the Flint chapter from Pontiac, Birmingham and other points in Oakland County to participate.

Strike Leaders Face Court

DETROIT (UP) — Four leaders of the striking local 957 United Electrical Workers (Ind.) union at the Square D. Co. plant here were ordered to appear in circuit court today to show cause why they should not be cited for contempt.

Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy ordered Charles Kelly, Dave Mates, Edward Perkola and Rudy Hoffman to appear after the company asked that they be cited for violating an order against mass picketing.

Square D officials presented Judge Murphy with an affidavit detailing alleged acts of violence that have occurred along the picket line since a court order against mass picketing was issued last week.

In another move to prevent violence at the plant, Square D let its workers out a half hour early Thursday to allow them to go to their cars before the surprised pickets could mass around the plant.

Only a token force of about 25 pickets were on hand as the workers left the plant early. When the workers reported to the plant in the morning a mass of pickets, estimated at 700 by police, swarmed around them but there was no violence.

Seeks Election of Republicans

Restrained Campaign Forecast by Aides Who Will Attend Session

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower arranged a political meeting today and aides predicted more of the same sort of restrained campaigning he has been carrying on for continued Republican control of Congress.

He scheduled a breakfast session with the GOP chairmen of 21 Midwestern and Rocky Mountain states.

The Republican leaders are meeting in Denver, the President's vacation headquarters, to figure out how best to try to elect party candidates to the House and Senate in November.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the President had no advance plans for any speech at the meeting.

Eisenhower told Washington news conferences weeks ago he would do no barnstorming for individual Republican candidates for Congress.

He said that instead he planned to get around the country this summer and fall to plug the records of his administration and the 83rd GOP-run Congress.

So far he has been doing just that. Party candidates have come away from the summer White House saying the President has wished them luck in their campaigns and that he wants them to win.

But since he came to Colorado Aug. 21 for a work and play vacation there have been no out-and-out Eisenhower statements endorsing individuals.

In Washington before that there were a couple of exceptions. For example, he specifically backed Joseph Meek of Illinois in his bid for the U. S. Senate seat of the Democratic incumbent, Paul H. Douglas.

The President also came out in Washington for Republican former Rep. Clifford Case of New Jersey, who also is seeking a Senate seat in an intra-party fight touched off by his opposition to the methods of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Otherwise, Eisenhower's campaign for continued GOP control of Congress has amounted largely to public appearances with GOP candidates for congressional and state offices.

He has had his picture taken with scores of party aspirants, and he has appeared with a good many on the same speaking platform.

Associates say Eisenhower still has great personal popularity among the voters, and the best way to woo their support in the congressional elections is through an appeal that Eisenhower personally must have a Republican Congress.

James Murphy of San Francisco, co-chairman of the National Citizens of Eisenhower Congressional Committee, told newsmen after a conference with the President yesterday that "the Eisenhower bandwagon is really beginning to roll again."

The committee's main objective—as it was in the 1952 presidential campaign—is to win the votes of independents and disgruntled Democrats.

This year the organization is out to elect a GOP Congress, primarily, Murphy declared, because it is "dedicated to the proposition to do whatever is necessary to back the President."

Education Office to Host 500 Foreign Educators

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Office of Education said today that during the next few weeks it will be host to more than 500 educators from 60 foreign countries.

The visiting teachers and educational officials will attend orientation meetings before leaving to spend varying periods of up to a year studying and observing American life and education.

Detroit UF Sets Goal

DETROIT (INS)—The board of directors of Detroit's United Foundation voted Thursday to raise a Torch Drive goal of $13,250,000, the largest amount in history. Funds will be split among Detroit area charities. The drive opens Oct. 19 and continues through Nov. 11.

Miss Michigan Scores in Talent Contest

By AP AND INS DISPATCHES

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Sultry Jan Somers of Lansing, Mich., wailed the blues right into a tie for first place in talent honors with Miss New York City last night in the second preliminary round of the Miss America contest.

Judges gave equal point totals to the 19-year-old Miss Michigan and Heather Jo Taftner, a coloratura soprano with a flutelike voice from Pelham Manor, N. Y.

The tie was an unusual occurrence in the contest.

The two talent winners and tall Ann Gloria Daniel of Dade City, Fla., the bathing suit winner, joined the circle of early leaders in the four-day pageant with a jackpot of $50,000 in prizes.

Miss Somers, who stands five-foot, six inches tall with short-cropped light brown hair and blue eyes, sang a swingy version of "You Made Me Love

You." She wore a white strapless gown that showed off her 35-inch bust, 24½-inch waist and 35½-inch hips.

A Michigan State College coed, Miss Somers, wants to be a school teacher.

Appropriately enough, the two girls from the states noted for their handsome beaches and gorgeous bathing beauties were the lassies to win the nod of the judges in swim suit rating.

Last night's winner was Miss

Florida, Ann Gloria Daniel, a tall brunette from Dade City with measurements of 37-24-36. She joined Miss California, Lee Ann Meriwether of San Francisco, another brunette, who took swim suit honors opening night.

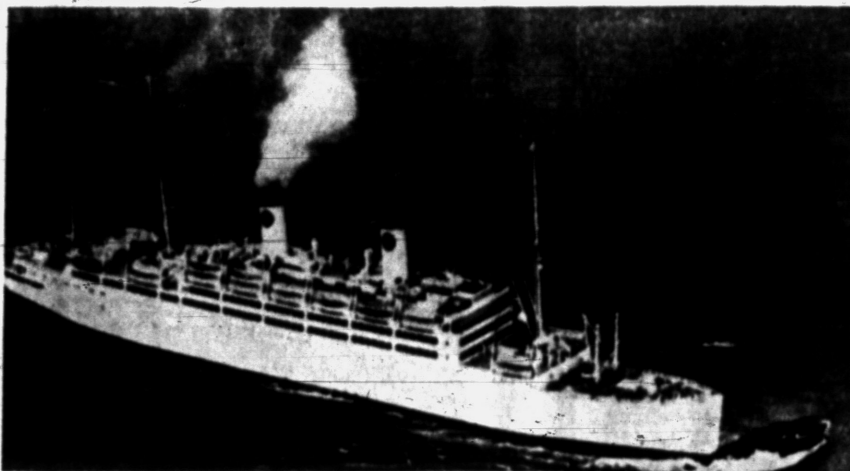

The talent competition ended in a deadlock last night when the judges failed to decide whether Miss New York City or Miss Michigan sang more sweetly.

The opening night talent winner was Linda Maud Weisbrod, a 21-year-old Washington, D. C., brunette with a lovely contralto voice.

Tonight the 50 beauties—representing 44 states, three cities, Hawaii, Canada, and Puerto Rico—will compete their appearances in the three main divisions of pageant judging: swim suit, talent and evening gown.

Five of the girls will appear in the finals Saturday night and one will be named "Miss America 1955" to succeed Evelyn Ay of Ephraim, Pa.

Police Chief Stunned by Semantic Attack

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—Police Chief Jeter L. Williamson, relatively new on the job, was startled to note that Greensboro reported more cases of aggravated assault last year than Richmond, Va.—

nearly three times as big. Officers were reporting more cases of aggravated assault than simple assault. Aggravated assault is supposed to involve a deadly weapon. Shedding some light on the situation was one officer's reply to questions about a typical fracas: "But, Chief, everybody there was aggravated."

Wife Pushes Pedal Best, Car Plows Into House

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio. (AP)—Mrs. Richard Teasley, 79, was behind the wheel, one foot on the accelerator; her husband, 73, had a foot jammed equally as firm on the brake pedal when their car crashed into a vacant house here yesterday. He told police he was teaching his wife to drive. Neither was injured.

Fair Flagpole Stander Claims World Record

DETROIT (AP)—Dixie Blandy, a 51-year-old professional flagpole stander, slid down from his perch above the Michigan State Fair yesterday, his ankles swollen twice their regular size, and proudly announced he had broken a record. He claimed the 237 hours and 35 minutes he stood on top of the pole was a new world's record, breaking his old one of 192 hours set in Milwaukee in 1952. He was paid $1,000 for his efforts and departed for a hospital to get treatment for his ankles.

Volunteers Help Expand Courses

Town Residents Teach Classes When School Funds Run Short

HENNIKER, N. H. (UP)—Funds just weren't available to embellish the scholastic curriculum at the local high school, enrollment about 125.

The school board in this town of less than 2,000 wanted the very best for students but could not justify additional expense by incorporating new courses. So, with peculiar small-town cooperation, residents decided to help, without incurring expense.

One parent started a volunteer class in basic commercial art. The response was great and it wasn't long before pupils were making all the school posters. A local organization sponsored a contest with a prize going to the outstanding art student.

The wife of a faculty member started a social dancing course. Many students wanted to learn typing. Three parents each took a class. Typewriters were supplied by the joint efforts of the school board, merchants and women's organizations.

When two of the typing "teachers" had to discontinue their volunteer work, the third offered to take charge of all three classes. And, at the end of the year, she proudly reported that many of the youngsters were typing better than 35 words per minute.

'Corpse' Revives in Hearse Going to Funeral Home

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—"They said I was dead," Harry Apperson Jones, 67, grinned, "but you can't prove it by me."

Jones was recovering in Veterans Hospital today. Nine days ago he was pronounced dead, only to come to life again in a hearse en route to a mortuary.

Jones blacked out in the garage of his San Gabriel home—"that's all I remember really." An inhalator squad failed to revive him and a doctor said he was dead.

But when the hearse attendants saw the blanket over Jones moving, they changed their course for an emergency hospital. Oxygen pulled him through although he was in a coma for two days.

Jones, a disabled veteran, is president-elect of the Los Angeles chapter of the Rainbow Division. He figures he'll be around for his installation now.

Grains Recover After Easy Start

CHICAGO (AP) — After an easier start grains righted themselves and recovered to around previous closing levels on the Board of Trade today. Dealings were fairly active.

All the market was a little lower at the opening. Rye was the first cereal to show signs of strength. Then some short covering lifted the September soybean future. Wheat, corn and oats made marked headway.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1/4 to 1/2 higher. September $2.17 1/2, corn 1/4 to 1/2 higher. September $1.65 1/2, oats 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher. September 78 1/2, rye 1/4 lower to 1 cent higher. September $1.47 1/2, soybeans 1 cent lower to 1/2 higher. September $3.08 1/2 and 1 cent lower to 10 cents a hundred pound higher. September $17.12.
