MEMORIAL DAY: The University will be open on Monday, May 29, and closed on Tuesday, May 30.

COLLATERAL PROGRAM: The film, "Three, Two, One . . . Zero!" is the story of the scientific development of the atom bomb and the problems it poses for humanity.

LECTURE-CONCERT SERIES: Dr. Wernher Von Braun, chief of the Army's sp. ce research and missile program, will give two talks here on Friday, June 2. He will meet with the MSUO Science Club at 11 a.m. in 159 NFH and, at 2:30 p.m., will deliver a public address, "Why We Must Conquer Space," in the Student Center.

UNIVERSITY PICNIC: Games, an auction and a pie-eating contest will highlight the third semi-annual all-University Picnic which begins at 3:30 p.m., Friday, June 2, and ends at midnight, following the Cannon Ball. Both the picnic and the dance are sponsored by the Student Center Council. The Professor Auction is sponsored by the Teacher Education Association.

CONTINUING EDUCATION: Continuing Education is giving a dinner for its faculty this Friday evening in the Student Center. The Oaklandaires, a quartet under the direction of Mr. Collins will perform and Chancellor Varner will give the major address, "A New Concern for an Old Problem."

Mr. Eklund spoke on continuing education to the faculty and students of North Central College, Rochester, on Friday.

American life and national responsibilities will be examined by citizens in a course being offered this summer by the Continuing Education Department. Considering this course one of the most important it ever has offered, the Continuing Education Department is including two books in the regular course fee of $20 in an effort to make all necessary material available.

CONTINUING EDUCATION: Taught by Mr. Chernob, the eight-week Summer Seminar in American Values and Goals will meet on campus from 7 p.m. to 9, each Wednesday, beginning June 21. Two basic books are used. One is the well-known report of the President's Commission on National Goals -- "Goals for Americans." The other is Thomas Jefferson's "Political Writings." Reservations are being accepted now at the Continuing Education office, and by phone -- Federal 8-4515, ext. 2147.

FACULTY WOMEN'S CLUB: A Mixed Bridge Group is being formed by the Faculty Women's Club and will hold its first meeting at 8 p.m., Saturday, June 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Varner, 1300 S. Adams Road. Couples planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Hetenyi, OLive 1-8496, before June 2.

FRIDAY (MAY 26) ANNOUNCEMENTS: at 1 p.m. today, there will be a faculty panel discussion in the Student Center on "The Future of Michigan." The areas of discussion will include politics, economics, higher education, and cultural patterns. Members of the panel are Mrs. Collins and Messrs. Rhode, Shapiro, Hetenyi, and Heubel.

The following telegram was received by Mrs. Cusack:

SINCERELY REGRET UNABLE TO BE WITH YOU FOR THIS YEAR'S MICHIGAN WEEK OBSERVANCE AND HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO EXTEND IN PERSON MY WARMEST PERSONAL GREETINGS TO FACULTY AND STUDENTS OF MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY OAKLAND.
