Estes Predicts 1965 to Be Growth Year

Pointing out that earnings of Pontiac Motor Division hourly rated employees were at a record high in 1964, E. M. Estes, a General Motors Corp. vice president and general manager of the division, today predicted 1965 would be a "year of strong growth for us."

In a year-end statement, Estes said next year would not only be an "outstanding one" for Pontiac, but for the industry as well.

Weekly wages for General Motors wage earners averaged $147.13 in the first nine months of this year.

The national average for all factory workers, according to figures released last month by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, is $102.97.

Accompanying Pontiac's sales success in the market place has been a record payroll. Currently the division employs 18,000.

This total, Estes said, compares to an employment figure of 10,500 just two years ago.

"Traditionally, this is the time of year for looking ahead. But it is also the time to review the past year since the future is built on the present as well as the past," Estes said in his year-end review.

RECORD RATE

"In order to supply our dealers and our customers, we currently are producing cars at a record rate. December could well be the biggest production month in our history and the first quarter of next year should be our best ever," he added.

With an eye toward the future, Estes said plant facilities were being increased.

"During the year we broke ground, or finished construction, on a number of projects in a vast expansion and improvement program. When this program is completed, we will have increased our manufacturing and warehousing facilities by nearly one-fourth," he asserted.

He pointed out that sales in both the 1964 model and calendar year were at an all-time high. He said he was confident that the current sales stimulus will continue.

"One yardstick for measuring our strength in the market place is by the number of unfilled customer orders we have on hand," Estes said.

"Orders for Pontiacs and Tempests are currently more than double those of the corresponding period a year ago."

He said all indicators pointed toward a fourth consecutive good year for the automobile industry in general and Pontiac in particular.

Hotel Blasted in Downtown Part of Saigon

Device Was Largest Ever Used Against U. S. by Terrorists

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) —The most powerful terrorist bomb ever directed against Americans in Saigon ripped through the main U.S. officers billet here this Christmas Eve. There were scores of casualties.

Reports sent to the Pentagon said two Americans—an Army officer and a civilian — were killed and 50 injured. Also reported injured were an Australian officer and 15 Vietnamese.

Up to five long blocks away, windows were shattered and last-minute holiday shoppers thronging the downtown part of the capital were spattered with blood.

The bomb exploded on the ground floor of a seven-story building called the Brink Hotel, where several hundred U. S. officers lived.

The timing—6 p. m.—was such that most of the Americans living in the building were probably at home.

Fire broke out all along the ground floor of the Brink Officers' Mess, which is beside the Continental Hotel and opposite the Caravelle Hotel.

The Christmas Eve blast was probably the work of the Communist Viet Cong, who had threatened outbreaks of (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Thousands Homeless in West on Yule Eve

SAFETY (AP) —Thousands of victims in five flood-stricken Western states were homeless on this Christmas Eve, and more joined in the exodus to escape new flooding as rain pounded the afflicted areas for the third consecutive day.

Soiled Christmas trees floated among the surging debris.

The savage Pacific storm sent dozens of mountain rivers spilling into scores of cities and towns in California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and Idaho.

At least 28 persons have died and more than 5,000 left homeless. Damage has been so great that officials have stopped estimating.

Parts of every state have been declared disaster areas. Air Force, Navy, National Guard, Red Cross, Coast Guard, and Civil Defense units were working around the clock with local officials to rescue thousands.

Area Churches Set Christmas Services

By MARY ANGLEMIER
Church Editor,
The Pontiac Press

Men, women and children of the Catholic and Protestant faiths will celebrate the birthday of Jesus Christ in services at Pontiac area churches tonight and tomorrow.

Many will also mark the occasion with festive dinners at home.

Candlelight services with music and, in many churches, a celebration of Holy Communion are scheduled.

MT. HOPE LUTHERAN
Rev. Donald Holland announces Christmas Eve Vesper will be at 7:30 in Mt. Hope Lutheran Church, 517 W. Walton.

Mt. Hope Church will mark its first Christmas observance with a prelude of Christmas hymns, the presentation of the Lessons by children and youth of the church and a medley of well-known Christmas carols sung by the congregation.

A service of Holy Communion will be celebrated at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
Midnight Mass will be followed by Masses at 1 and 1:30 a. m. in St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church.

Mass will be celebrated at 6, 7:30, 8:45, 10 and 11:30 a.m.; and 12:45 p.m. tomorrow.

BETHANY
A traditional Christmas Eve service will be held from 8 to 9 p.m.

The worship, conducted by candlelight, will consist of the singing of carols, music by the choir and the reading of the Scripture.

The service is open to the public, Pastor Emil Kontz said.

ST. HUGO IN THE HILLS
The boy's choir will lead in the processional and singing of carols at Midnight Mass in St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church, Bloomfield Hills.

The regular schedule for Sunday Masses will be observed tomorrow.

OUR LADY OF THE LAKES WATERFORD
The vested choir of Our Lady of the Lakes, Waterford, will sing Christmas carols at the Solemn High Mass at midnight. A Mass of Thanksgiving will follow.

By The Associated Press
Christians around the world prepared today to celebrate the joy of Christmas but in many areas troubled by controversy and fighting, joy remained only a hope.

Men were fighting and dying in the jungles of the Congo and Viet Nam in the Christmas of 1964. Yet most parts of the Christian world were at peace, however uneasy it might be.

"We must prepare ourselves well for Christmas, rekindling in our hearts the desire, the thirst, the anxiety for the living God and the blessed certainty of finding Christ, the

Food Upsets the Tummies, but Not Yule

Nineteen Lake Orion School District schoolchildren almost had to spend Christmas in bed as a result of food poisoning yesterday afternoon.

The sick youngsters showed up at two Pontiac hospitals following a turkey-with-trimmings dinner at Carpenter Elementary School, 2990 Flintridge, Orion Township. They were among 50 to 75 children who became ill after the dinner.

All 19 were treated and released within a few hours.

Samples of the food served at the school were taken for testing, and Dr. W. F. Fidler of the Oakland County Department of Health pinpointed food poisoning as the cause of the sickness.

Dr. Fidler said this morning that tests indicated an "acute, self-limiting type of food poisoning that will cause no lasting effects."

City Merchant Chases Robber

Shots Fired in Air on Crowded Streets

Pistol shots cut the murky air in downtown Pontiac late yesterday afternoon as a merchant and a police officer chased a robber through streets crowded with holiday shoppers.

A suspect, Robert E. Smith, 46, of Detroit, was captured by police in a parking lot at Mount Clemens and Perry and is being held on a charge of larceny from a building.

A second man is still being sought, police said, along with $3,000 worth of diamond rings which are missing from Sacks' Jewelers, 33 N. Saginaw.

Owner Sidney Sacks told police two men came into his store at about 5:40 p.m. yesterday. One of the pair walked to the rear of the store to show Sacks a ring he said he was interested in buying.

While they were talking, the second man put a tray of diamonds into his coat and fled out the door, Sacks told police.

RUNS AFTER THIEF

The merchant said he ran after him, down Saginaw to Huron, to East Alley and then to Mount Clemens.

Officer P. L. Adams saw the chase and began running after the suspect at Huron and Saginaw. Sacks fired three shots in the air from a pistol during the pursuit, police said.

Adams said he lost the suspect for a moment, but a pedestrian pointed toward the parking lot and the officer spotted the fleeing Smith.

The officer drew his gun and took the suspect into custody. Later, the tray of diamonds valued at $1,000 was found under the front wheel of a car parked in the lot.

Sacks said when he returned to his store the other man, to whom he had been talking during the robbery, was gone. Two trays of diamond rings were also missing.

The second suspect was described as being about 50 years old and was wearing a dark coat and hat.

Probe Theft of Mail Sack

Pontiac Police are investigating the theft yesterday of a half-filled mail sack from a truck, parked in front of the Auburn Hotel.

Postal employee Edward J. Moore, 41, 5401 Pontiac Lake, Waterford Township, told officers he parked his truck on Auburn to make a pickup at the hotel.

When he returned one of the truck doors was ajar. He said one mail sack, which had been about half full, was missing.

LBJ to Ask Raise in U.S. Mail Rates

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has decided to ask Congress for higher rates on second and third class mail and is now reported giving serious consideration to asking pay raises for civil service and postal workers.

The decision on pay increases for Uncle Sam's 2.46 million civilian workers is one of the policy questions still facing Johnson in the final stages of his work on the federal budget.

Budget Director Kermit Gordon said Wednesday that work on the budget was "over the hump." He steered clear of specific figures, but said the budget would be "very, very substantially below" the $108.5 billion originally asked by departments and agencies for the fiscal year which starts next July 1.

Asked if the total would be kept under $100 billion, Gordon said he couldn't give precise figures. Spending this fiscal year is estimated at $97.2 billion.

CABINET OFFICIALS

The President has been discussing the budget with various Cabinet officials here this week. He had no official appointments today and planned to spend a relaxing day before Christmas with his family at their ranch home.

One of Johnson's decisions Wednesday was to ask for the higher rates on second and third class mail. Second class mail includes newspapers and magazines, third class consists mainly of advertising matter.

In announcing the rate increase proposal at a news conference in Austin, Postmaster General John A. Gronowski said the requested increase would be modest.

Gronowski said Johnson also would ask for legislation to require volume users of first class mail to sort letters by ZIP code before mailing. He said this also would be required of second and third class volume mailers, but legislation is unnecessary.

TO HIRE MORE

Gronowski said the Post Office Department plans to hire more employees to cut down excessive overtime and increase efficiency. He did not say how big the increase would be.

The postmaster general also said the closing down of the smallest post offices — four class — would be stepped up. In recent years these offices have been closed at the rate of 400 to 500 a year.

Gronowski said offices would be closed only in cases where equal or better services could be provided by rural or star routes.

Waterford Dogs Lose a Friend; Warden Resigns

Neil King, Waterford Township's kindly dog warden for nearly five years, resigned effective today to accept a post at the Oakland County Animal Shelter.

He joined the Waterford Police Force as dog warden after retiring from the Pontiac Police Department where he served 33 years.

King's gentle manner of handling animals and his conscientious approach to his job were widely recognized as evidenced by the many letters of commendation sent to his superiors.

Patrolman Fred Stitz will replace King as dog warden in Waterford effective Monday.

STORM RESUMES

Rain and winds slackened briefly yesterday but another low pressure system moved in from the Pacific and the heavy downpour resumed. The Weather Bureau forecast rain and strong winds from Northern California to Washington through tomorrow.

In California's rugged north country, entire communities were cut off by merciless torrents that tore out at least 15 bridges, knocked out telephone lines and washed away huge sections of highways.

Hundreds of persons were trapped, without food or medicine, clinging to rooftops or perched in islands awaiting rescue.

Every town along the Eel River in northwestern California was inundated. In the hamlet of Rio Dell city officials ordered phone and power poles toppled to convert the main street into an emergency landing strip.

About 2,000 refugees waited for helicopters to rescue them.

TOOK REFUGEE

The entire population of Willow Creek and Hoopa, in the heart of an Indian reservation, took refuge in the high school gymnasium on high ground.

Pepperwood, population 500, is gone—nothing visible but a few tree tops above the sea of water, air observers reported.

In Garberville, three pregnant women were reported in labor and in need of medical care.

Civil defense officials have written off the flood communities of South Fork, Myers Flat,

New Attorneys to Be Sworn In

Over 30 new attorneys, half of them from the area, will be admitted to the Oakland County Bar Association Monday in a swearing-in ceremony at the County Courthouse.

Presiding Circuit Judge William J. Beer will officiate at the 3 p.m. ceremony in the Superior Court Auditorium.

The candidates passed the Michigan Bar Examination given in September.

Edward Barrett, president of the Oakland County Bar Association, will give an address and Eugene A. Moore, admissions chairman, will introduce the candidates and their sponsor.

Following the ceremony there will be a reception sponsored by the Oakland County branch of Lawyer's Wives of Michigan.

LOCAL CANDIDATES

The following is a list of area candidates:

Pontiac—James R. Stelt, 365 Ascot; Robert E. Cunningham, 679 DeSoto; Robert G. Waddell, 978 Cherokee; and Charles D. Toby, 290 Liberty.

Farmington—Allan Rein, 23194 Tuck.

2 Boys Killed as Car Goes Out of Control

WARREN (AP) — A motorist on the way home from an office Christmas party lost control of his car and struck and killed two small boys Wednesday police said.

Officers said the driver, Arlie Glenn Coupeau, 23, Royal Oak, a carpenter, was going at a high rate of speed after colliding.

Playmates Frank Kloss Jr., 7, and Johnny Nixon, 6, were struck when Coupeau's car hit a stop sign and jumped a curb.

The chief minister of Madras State reported that 200 persons were washed into the sea and drowned at Dhanushkodi, in southern India.

The Indian Express said 500 were feared drowned on the tiny island of Rameswaram, between India and Ceylon. The storm washed out the rail link between the island and the Indian mainland and smashed hundreds of grass huts.

Recreation to Remain Education Budget Item

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The recreation department will remain as a board of education budget item next year, although how large an item is yet to be determined.

The recreation commission had asked the school board to seek a one-third-mill levy for recreation at the special election set for Feb. 8.

A month of study and discussion has resulted in board endorsement of the commission's work and assurance that additional funds will be forthcoming next year.

The recreation commission had decided at its last meeting to postpone asking for a separate millage levy.

However, it does want additional funds to increase its revenue from $50,000 to $71,000 next year.

ADJUSTED SCHEDULE

The school board has asked Recreation Director Edwin Wicher to come back with an adjusted fee schedule which would cover more of the cost of the program. Board members agreed the recreation commission should set the fees and the board approve them.

One of the proposed budget areas which has been questioned is a $7,000 allotment for contingencies.

Wicher said he would like a definite sum which he could rely on, but School Trustee David W. Lee said he thought that should be handled by the board.

The board had been debating putting the recreation request on the same ballot with that for a 3.3-mill increase for teachers' salaries.

Unions Brighten Yule for Retirees

Christmas has been made brighter for a number of retirees of two major automotive unions in Pontiac.

During the past several days the Community Service Committee of Pontiac Motor Division Local 653 has presented baskets of food for the holidays to over 30 former members.

Yesterday, Fisher Body Plant Local 596 held a Christmas party for over 150 retirees in the union hall at 821 Baldwin.

A 90-voice choir of students from Isaac E. Cray Jr. High School, Waterford Township, provided entertainment.

HUGE CLOUD

A huge brown cloud of shattered masonry, glass and debris was hurled into the street from the large corner building, and the whole central portion of the structure was engulfed in flame.

Screaming, bloody Vietnamese children stood on sidewalks near the building. Many of the wounded, screaming civilians were leaping into taxicabs to seek treatment since the traffic jam slowed movement of ambulances to a walk.

Congregational Church, Birmingham, will be guests of the Pine Hill members in their new church at 7:30 tonight.

Children in red capes will file into the chapel singing old traditional Christmas carols.

Poor Given Turkeys in Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Negro comedian Dick Gregory, who issued a $10,000 challenge to a segregationist group, planned to hand out the remnants of 12,000 turkeys to poor Mississippians today.

All but a few thousand of the turkeys, bought with an $80,000 fund promoted by Gregory and columnist Drew Pearson, were distributed yesterday at centers in 10 cities across the state.

Gregory, addressing a mass rally in Jackson last night, offered the Raleigh (white) Citizens Council $10,000 if they set up a competent lie detector test which showed a positive answer to the question: "Was it a cheap publicity stunt."

"They didn't know I'd jump over a truckload of sirloin steaks to get at a 'possum,'" Gregory said. "You know, the President likes 'possums. He's from 'possum country.'"

FEW WHITES

Long lines of poor Negroes, with a few whites, Indians and Chinese, gathered at the distribution centers yesterday. When the day's supply was exhausted, there were still many in the lines.

Another truckload of 750 turkeys was to have arrived in Jackson, where 1,000 were distributed yesterday, but by late last night mechanical troubles had delayed the delivery.

"Oh, lawdy, what a turkey," said one of the Negroes — many of whom were dressed in shabby clothes — who appeared at the Pratt Street Methodist Church in Jackson to pick up their turkeys yesterday.

The funds were raised at a benefit in Chicago featuring Gregory and Negro singer Sammy Davis Jr., and in contributions from unions and other groups.

Union Leader Taken Ill

CHARLOTTE AMALLE, Virginia Islands — Michael Quill, 60, international president of the Transport Workers Union, was hospitalized in the Virgin Islands with what apparently was food poisoning. He was released from the hospital at Charlotte Amalie later yesterday.

Propaganda War With Soviets

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The Chinese Communist party, digging in for a long propaganda cold war with the Soviet Union, is conducting a new witch-hunt for those who might be tainted by Soviet notions.

The Red mandarins have flushed a new victim and are parading his sins in an effort to demonstrate that Soviet ideas produce a cowardly unwillingness to risk death for the advancement of violent revolution.

This campaign is a sample of what is to come as the Russians push ahead with plans for an international Communist meeting in March, its purpose to prepare for a world meeting on the quarrel which has split the movement.

The new victim is Feng Ting, deputy chairman of Peking University's philosophy department and head of the Peking Philosophy Association. It took the Chinese party leaders five years or more to discover that a book he published — and which ran to six editions — in reality is an effort to "poison the minds of youth" with nonproletarian ideas of individual happiness.

News Analysis

IN DOGHOUSE
Feng now goes to the ideological doghouse along with Yang Hsien-chen, a former Central Committee member, leading theoretician and head of a higher political training college. He was purged in August for supporting "modern revisionism," the label for Soviet theories developed over the past decade.

Feng's book, "Plain Truth," evidently first published in 1959, commits the same sin as the "modern revisionists," who, despite the downfall of Nikita Khrushchev, still rule the roost in Moscow by Peking reckoning. China finds the trouble with modern revisionists is that they are anxious to preserve their own lines and thus are cowardly.

"The modern revisionists today prefer to have their heads rather than revolution," said a recent long article denouncing Feng. "This book by Feng Ting also acclaims this 'to live first' philosophy of modern revisionism."

The fury of this attack on Feng spells purge for all those even faintly tainted with Soviet ideas and foretells granite opposition to reconciliation with Moscow on anything approaching Kremlin terms.

ANTI-MAD THEORIES
Feng's sins are manifold. His theories are "anti-Mao Tse-tung." He "markets reactionary goods." follows "in the footsteps of the revisionist clique" and "disparages class struggle." He claimed, for example, that men, like animals, have an instinct for self-preservation, an idea which "slanders the noble sacrifices of revolutionary martyrs."

Feng even said it was possible for people of any class to "love labor." This, says the party, is absurd, because "exploiters" love only leisure and hate work. Only "the great masses of laboring people" can love labor.

Feng opposed a "prevailing ideological reform," says the article, evidently meaning a current campaign to weed out traces of pro-Soviet thinking.

The book "Plain Truth" is accused of saying that class struggle is not always necessary and that evolution toward socialism is possible. This is a blatantly vulgar modern revisionist view, says the article, and a stand "against violent revolution."

Feng, Peking says, excuses people who "seek gains in their own interests" and thus pursue happiness, which definitely is a sin in Peking's eyes. Worse than that, Feng speculates that if animals did not engage in fratricide, men of intelligence might avoid it. This is a "negative viewpoint."

The campaign adds up, unquestionably, to a "no-concession" stand as the two Communist camps head toward a fateful clash in 1965.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS — Eight-year-old Anita Crane is wheeled past well-wishing nurses at Camden, N.J., hospital yesterday as she left to spend Christmas at home where gifts and a special dinner were waiting. Anita was critically injured when she slipped and fell under the wheels of a moving freight train Oct. 9. Her right leg was nearly severed. She has received personal get-well wishes from President Johnson and New Jersey Gov. Richard Hughes.

2 Ship Collisions Occur in Dense Fog off Japan

YOKOHAMA, Japan (UPI) — Two ship collisions occurred in dense fog off central Japan today, causing some damage but no casualties.

The Japanese freighter Eiken was damaged in a collision with the Norwegian tanker Rinforn in the Uraga Channel, off the Yokosuka naval base. A short time later, the Liberian tanker Olympic Grace collided with the Japanese destroyer escort Isonami just outside Yokosuka.

Bolivia's lack of a coastline dates from a war with Chile which ended in 1883 and stripped the country of its province on the Pacific, together with the port of Antofagasta.

Plans Visit to Hungary

VIENNA (AP) — The Archbishop of Vienna, Franz Cardinal Koenig, said in an interview today he hopes to visit Hungary next month, but that he has no papal mission in connection with the case of Hungarian Cardinal Joseph Mindszenty. Cardinal Koenig indicated he saw no immediate solution of the Mindszenty case.

Big Commercial Jet Would Revamp Air Operations

By ROGER LANE

A.P. Business News Writer
NEW YORK — A 750-passenger commercial jetliner, if an economic version ever appears, would revolutionize today's scheduled airline operations.

However, its debut is unlikely before the mid-1970s. Its most exciting possibility then: sharp fare cuts for long-hop travel, greatly stimulating coast-to-coast and overseas passenger traffic.

That, in a nutshell, was first airline reaction to a prospect raised by government plans to pour $750 million into develop a giant military-equipment and troop carrier with 250,000 pounds of payload.

A regular transatlantic jet handles 45 tons of cargo on a standard flight, or 130 passengers. Economy flights can take as many as 170 passengers.

SPECULATION STIRRED

The government's announcement Tuesday stirred speculation of a commercial sequel, even though Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said there were no thoughts along that line.

Major airlines sidestepped on-the-record comment beyond general expressions of interest, citing the many "ifs" involved in operating characteristics, operating costs and purchase price.

Selig Altschul, an aviation financial consultant, said if a commercial version met severe demands of economic operation, it probably would open the way for sizable fare cuts and result in a "great stimulation" of travel, chiefly to Europe.

"But there would be offsets to economies of size, he added.

"Great improvements would be required by such a huge plane in ground handling facilities.

He mentioned extremely heavy demands on facilities for food service, baggage handling, sanitation, boarding and ticketing that today's airports are not equipped to cope with.

"How do you go about feeding a mob like that?" said a representative of Pan American World Airways.

An American Airlines official, asked about the attractiveness of a 750-ton behemoth in New York-Los Angeles service, observed that three airlines flying the route now carry roughly 1,500 persons each way spread among two dozen flights.

TWO LOADS

"You might say that would be two loads each way. What kind of frequency of service would this allow?" he asked. "Certainly not what today's air traveler has come to demand."

An Eastern Air Lines spokesman said "some limited use" could be foreseen in the 1970s for such a giant plane, assuming it could be designed for profitable operation.

At peak periods now Pan Am operates about 110 schedules a week to Europe, carrying perhaps 2,000 passengers a day in 16 flights.

Higher capacity planes conceivably would fit into such a dense, long-distance pattern of service.

"You're talking about another revolution in air travel," one executive said. "For a 700-passenger plane to be fitted into today's service patterns would require tremendous changes up and down the line—in waiting rooms, terminals, taxiways and all the rest.

"Can you imagine 700 people disembarking from one plane on a rainy night and heading for the telephones or cab stand?"

Some whippet dogs have attained speeds of 35 miles per hour.

Some Officers Picked for Duty

Special Forces Taking Nonvolunteers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Army now assigns officers on a "nonvolunteer" basis to the highly dangerous work of the much publicized counter-guerrilla Special Forces, proud wearers of the green beret.

All enlisted men within the Special Forces still are volunteers, however.

The Army said officially that the assignment of nonvolunteer officers was "a matter of policy." This policy has been in effect for a number of years and is followed to provide Special Forces training and experience for a larger group of officers within the Army.

This policy has never been publicized.

NOT VOLUNTEERING

Another source said the younger officers in the Army just were not volunteering because "too many have been reading the casualty lists of Special Forces in Viet Nam."

As late as 1960 the men in Special Forces were all volunteers. The Special Forces mission, either behind enemy lines or in counter-guerrilla activities, was considered above and beyond the ordinary call of duty.

This apparently still applies to enlisted personnel.

"Enlisted personnel in operational detachments are volunteers," the Army said. "There has been no difficulty in obtaining volunteers for such assignments."

OFFICERS REQUIRED

All Army officers are now required to take either ranger-commando-type training — or airborne training, which is ranger plus parachute training.

Special Forces training includes airborne, ranger, guerrilla and counter-guerrilla training plus special courses in working with what the Army calls indigenous personnel.

The Army spokesman said assignment to Special Forces is considered essential to the professional development of officers.

This means that the man who turns down Special Forces work may jeopardize his professional career as a regular officer. Certainly it would have a bearing on selection for promotion.

7,000 MEN

Those in Special Forces now number close to 7,000 although the official strength figure is classified. When it was an all-volunteer outfit, Special Forces probably numbered no more than 1,800.

There are specialists wearing the green beret who are not and have not been volunteers. They are known as special action forces and include such support groups as communications experts, medics, engineers, psychological operations and civil affairs experts.

At last report, this special action force numbered about 1,300 men.

The upsurge in Special Forces strength began Feb. 18, 1961, when President John F. Kennedy ordered a 500-man increase in the unconventional warfare forces.

18-MAN TEAMS

Originally, the Special Forces were designed to operate in 10-man teams behind enemy lines to organize and train dissident groups into irregular fighting forces to carry out sabotage and conduct hit-run attacks.

In January 1961, the Special Forces mission was enlarged to embrace counter-guerrilla activities. This enlargement was a direct result of Communist Viet Cong operations in South Viet Nam.

By September 1962, the Special Forces had been enlarged three times and, apparently, its required officer strength could no longer be met on a volunteer basis.

Pentagon Says Most of Yanks in S. Viet Nam Not Volunteers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says the big bulk of the approximately 22,000 American military men serving in South Viet Nam are there because they were ordered there — not because they volunteered.

It adds that "no formal inducements" are being made to get volunteers to sign up for duty there.

When the United States began giving military aid to South Viet Nam four years ago, a substantial part — if not an actual majority — of the American military men who went over to help in the war against Communist guerrillas were volunteers.

In answer to a question, the Defense Department said today that now "most people of all services are assigned as individuals, with few exceptions."

EXCEPTIONS

These exceptions include, in addition to the individual volunteers, units which are deployed to the war zone. These include Army Special Forces outfits and crews of Marine helicopter units which are rotated on Viet Nam duty.

The Pentagon said that when volunteers for Viet Nam duty are qualified and there is a need for military occupation specialists, the volunteers are assigned before nonvolunteers.

Presumably, there are several reasons for the emphasis on ordering men to Viet Nam and the de-emphasis on relying on volunteers.

The U.S. effort to assist the South Vietnamese government has been expanded severalfold since 1961. Volunteers would be insufficient to provide the numbers and specialized skills required.

COMBAT PAY

Not all of the U.S. Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force personnel in Viet Nam are eligible for the extra $65 a month combat pay. This goes to volunteers and nonvolunteers alike in both South Viet Nam and Laos.

That directive specifies that for men to qualify they must be:

"Subject to hostile fire or explosion of hostile mines or in an area in which they are in imminent danger of being exposed to hostile fire or explosion of hostile mines."

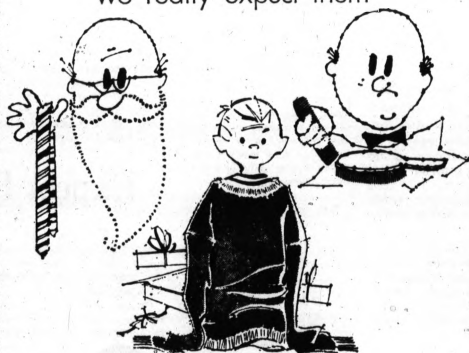

The combat pay provisions cover not only men in the ground forces but aboard aircraft and vessels, including minesweepers, which may come under fire during operations.

STANDARD TOUR

The standard tour of U.S. servicemen in Viet Nam is 12 months when unaccompanied by dependents, 24 months for those with dependents.

Once Again . . . Merry Christmas

It was the night before Christmas
When all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there.

The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads.
And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
To open the shutters and throw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow,
Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below,
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer,

With a little old driver, so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than eagles his coursers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name.

Now, Dasher! now, Dancer! now, Prancer and Vixen!
On! Comet, on! Cupid, on! Dunder and Blitzen!
To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!
Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky,
So up to the house-top the coursers they flew,
With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas too.

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.
As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his foot,
And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot.
A bundle of toys he had flung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack.

His eyes how they twinkled! his dimples how merry!
His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow.

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath.
He had a broad face and a little round belly,
That shook when he laughed, like a bowlful of jelly.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf,
And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself,
A wink of his eye and a twist of his head,
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,
And laying his finger aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose.

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.
But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,
MERRY CHRISTMAS to all and to all a good night.

Is There Room for Christ?

(Editor's Note: In keeping with our policy of running guest editorials from time to time, our Christmas message has been written by Rev. Arnold Q. Hashman, First Assembly of God.)

By REV. ARNOLD Q. HASHMAN

Once more the Christmas carols have filled the air and the wonderful story of the birth of Christ is told. We sing of the star of Bethlehem, the wise men and the cradle manger where lay the Holy Infant so tender and mild.

The birth of Christ was at a time not unlike today. Into a dark world the Saviour was born and a new day and a new hope dawned for the human race. There was fear in the world then and certainly we have our share of in the present. Viewed from the natural standpoint it would seem that God had deserted the world and left men to find their own way out or perish in self-destruction. However, such is not the case.

Could it be that our reception of Christ of Bethlehem meets with the same coolness that JOSEPH and MARY met when they were turned away, "Because there was no room for them in the inn?" In the estimation of the vast majority of us, Christmas is a time for exchanging gifts, a time of cheer, joy and festivity—all in connection with the presumed anniversary of the birth of the Saviour of men.

We would do well to give more serious thought and enlarge the room of our thinking on this Christmas day. Let us include Him. It is His birthday we celebrate. Let us solemnly consider the real reason for His advent into such a world as this. Let us take time and make room for the giving of thanks as the family surrounds the table on this wonderful day.

How fitting that the story of our Saviour's birth be read from the gos-

Rosy Picture Painted of Aid for Arid Areas

If you happen to have about 100 square miles of desert lying around loose, it might be well to contact a group of scientists busy painting the desert near Yuma, Ariz.

Putting their findings to work, their plan is to cover with heat-absorbing substance that much desert somewhere on the globe within the next few years in an experiment they believe could triple rainfall in a vast surrounding area.

The experts theorize that the blackened earth baked by the sun would produce powerful masses of rising air. They would meet incoming moist air from the sea and carry it to great heights, where the moisture would condense and fall as rain.

Should the idea pan out, huge waste areas like North Africa, the west coast of South America and much of Australia could be opened up for agriculture and habitation.

Currently, the researchers, employed by a research and engineering firm, are testing small 10x10-foot plots of different types of asphalt and other preparations.

From 100 square feet to a 100 square miles is quite a jump. But even if it doesn't work, think what a fantastic parking lot you'd have.

pel of Luke, chapter two, while the family is gathered around. The joy and peace and good will that angels announced is not far from us if we will but make room for it.

GOP and Dems Eying Changes

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — In the wake of their election disaster, some Republican mourners are formulating themselves over the new kind of life they want to lead.

If this seems melancholy just before the new year, Republicans don't have a monopoly on it. Some Democrats in Congress are unhappy with some of their elders.

All this gives a sense of motion, suggesting change. But political discontents come and go, like enthusiasm for Elvis Presley, and in the end nothing may change much.

Some Republicans want to chase Dean Burch off the field as chairman of the Republican National Committee. He won't budge. They've tackled him, but he's still on his feet.

This is a postelection search for a new head coach since Sen. Barry Goldwater, who was the Republican standard bearer, said it would be a vote of no confidence in him if Burch is thrown out. He had hand-picked Burch as chairman.

This is being realistic, since the issue is whether Goldwaters are to remain in position to run the party and speak for it. But birching Burch isn't all that's troubling Republicans.

SOFT-SHOE REVOLT

In Congress some of them are in a kind of soft-shoe revolt against their House leader, Charles Halleck of Indiana. There's a little irony in this for the 64-year-old Halleck.

The man who wants his job—Michigan's Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr., 51—only five years ago helped Halleck get the leadership award from Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts who is now 80 and still in Congress.

Halleck, a conservative, has been criticized by some for what they called his "negativism" as a leader.

But if Ford should replace Halleck it wouldn't mean a change in ideology. Ford is a conservative, too, although he might give the Republicans a larger look of up-and-at-'em.

Meanwhile, liberal House Democrats, with their numbers swelled by the election to the point where they may outnumber the conservative Democrats, want to shake the House out of ways which seem fixed in cement—like the Washington Monument and just as unchangeable.

Christ's Wish... Our Challenge

David Lawrence Says:

Killing Cites Gun Control Need

WASHINGTON — This is the story of a single life lost in the unsafe society of today. But it has significance for the lives of many other persons who could face the same dangers.

Charles W. Fitzmaurice enlisted in the Marine Corps as a private in 1938 and became a second lieutenant in LAWRENCE 1943. He served 18 months in the Pacific area during World War II, and participated in the campaigns on Saipan and Iwo Jima.

In 1952 and 1953, he fought in the Korean War. He was given several citations and battle stars, became a lieutenant colonel, and was regarded as an outstanding officer in the Marine Corps.

The colonel and his wife and four children were in their home in a Virginia suburb of Washington on the night of Dec. 12, when there came a knock at the entrance.

As the colonel opened the door, he was shot in the abdomen and killed. Later, police said the weapon used was a shotgun.

NOT FOUND The assassin has not yet been found. Since Col. Fitzmaurice was serving as assistant head of the promotions branch in the personnel department of the Marine Corps at the Navy annex in Arlington, Va., it is being widely speculated that perhaps the killing was done by someone with a personal grudge connected with the colonel's work.

Another possibility is that a deranged mind — similar to that of Lee Harvey Oswald who killed President Kennedy — was responsible for this heinous crime.

The Marine colonel was not a national figure, so there will be no memorial centers or monuments built to honor him. He will doubtless soon be forgotten — though he served his country faithfully and with distinction both in war and in peace.

The bereaved family has received the condolences of the community, but for them and the rest of the country the unanswered question is why nothing has been done since the assassination of President Kennedy to prohibit the continued possession of lethal weapons by individuals who ought not to be permitted to own or rent them.

WIDESPREAD OPPOSITION There is, of course, widespread opposition to any limits being placed on the sale of weapons intended for lawful use.

It would be unwise to abolish altogether the possession of guns for protection against marauders or for enjoyment in sports.

But certainly there is a rising public opinion in favor of requiring licenses for all those who own guns, and periodic examinations to determine whether the individual can be expected to refrain from using such weapons improperly.

It may be wondered how many crimes of violence will have to be committed before the local authorities throughout the country will begin to take steps to protect their communities against the irresponsible use of rifles or pistols or shotguns.

Wilson's American Style of Politicking No Accident

By PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst

As a politician British Prime Minister Harold Wilson greatly admired the winning tactics of the late President Kennedy.

As an individual, long before Vice President-elect Hubert Humphrey ever became his party's candidate for the nation's second highest office, Wilson also admired and considered himself a close friend of Humphrey.

It was no accident then that Wilson's own campaign for office took on an American style, complete with spotlights, handshakes and entertaining and with Wilson himself always on center stage.

The Labor party's winning margin was razor-thin, giving Wilson a working majority of only five votes in the House of Commons and it freely was predicted that his would be a short-lived government.

But, using the same razzle-dazzle which helped him win the election, Wilson in the last two months has been confounding his critics.

PUBLIC FANCY

As Wilson has captured the headlines, he also has captured the public fancy to an extent far greater than the election outcome would have predicted.

Immediately after the Oct. 15 election, the new government quickly survived two no-confidence motions, one of which involved the touchy issue of the renationalization of the steel industry.

It seemed that neither the laborites nor their conservative opposition would seek an early new test of strength at the polls.

Labor was unwilling to risk its already thin margin, and the Conservatives were faced with a reorganization task, including the choice of successor to former Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home.

BROUGHT CHANGES

But subsequent events brought changes, and now it is being predicted that Wilson might call for new elections as early as next March, confident that his majority will be increased.

In the field of personal diplomacy Wilson continued to press one-man bandmanship. First he visited President Johnson. Then the word circulated that an exchange of visits with Soviet leaders also was under consideration.

It meant continuing close ties with the United States, while at the same time promoting improved relations with the East.

COSTLY DETERRENT

Wilson agrees with U.S. leaders on the importance of a strong NATO, but he also would like to drop Britain's own costly independent nuclear deterrent. He proposes that it be integrated with NATO and its use be made subject to U.S. veto.

But to do it he must convince the West Germans that his plan is better than the multi-lateral nuclear force already proposed by the U.S. He has been told to go ahead and try. He is indeed a busy man.

Expect Panama Demonstrations

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Saturday, Jan. 9, 1965, will be the first anniversary of the Panama Canal Zone riots.

On or about that date, give or take a week or two, officials here privately anticipate there will be a fresh series of demonstrations which could turn into riots, unless the Panamanian students can be sidetracked in advance.

American officials in Panama see the signs. The students had a test run in November.

The Panama government cracked down, put about a dozen of the ringleaders into jail for 30 days. This will keep them out of circulation through the dangerous January period.

This jailing isn't expected to help much, however. The students are not short of radical leaders. Their two top agitators, Floyd Britton and Victor Avilla, have been going to college in Panama for many years. They stayed in the background after whipping up the students in November and were not arrested.

To prevent inflammatory incidents, plans are under way to try quietly to divert this parade away from the Canal Zone area.

Voice of the People:

'Many Americans Yield to Blind Partisanship'

I expected a letter of the sort that was signed "A True Democrat" to appear soon after the election, gloating over a victory that did not win anything. Instead, it proved a vote of confidence to the continuing of the present system of allowing the Reds to bury freedom, all for the lack of a firm stand against the petty things they have been calling the cold war. I would not sign my name to a letter like that either. It sounds as if the author does not know what his party has been up to.

That letter reflected the attitude that politics is a grudge game rather than a sober investment in the future of a nation that could once boast of being morally as well as materially great. Too many Americans submit and lower themselves to this blind, bigoted partisanship.

Says Experts Have Given Away Billions

If someone had started tearing up $1,000 daily from the time of the birth of Christ, it would take another 800 years to tear up $1 billion. In only 18 years the Washington experts have given away $100 billion.

We are headed for a one-party system and dictatorship. The Republicans will win the slogan "Had Enough," but their reign will be short-lived. Too many are voting Democratic for selfish reasons and letting the country go to the dogs.

A Widow Comments on Social Security

I am a disabled widow, aged 49, with no minor children. There are no Social Security benefits for this age. My husband contributed to Social Security from the beginning of its enactment until his death in 1961. I have also worked under this act. As long as I live, no one can collect my husband's Social Security benefits.

Being a resident of Michigan I can get Aid to Disabled through the Bureau of Social Aid which is $60 per month maximum for all needs. Medical and Doctor bills are supplemented by the County property taxes for 1963 and 1964 were exempted but my home may be sold for unpaid 1962 taxes.

I am grateful for aid. All needy and disabled are not by choice, but circumstances beyond control.

DONOR

'Will Say "No" to Requests for Donations'

Recently my mother stopped at my apartment on Onida Street. She pulled in the driveway and left her five-year-old grandson and her purse in the car as she figured it would only take a minute. She said that a colored boy stole her purse out of the car. I can replace the money but the credentials are needed.

Saturday night I was asked for a donation for the underprivileged colored people in the Pontiac area and have been asked more than once to give to the colored college fund. From now on my answer will be "no."

DISGUSTED

'Men Seek Answer to Star of Bethlehem'

For thousands of years men have wondered what the Star of Bethlehem was. Some say it was the Planet Venus, a collection of planets at one point, or a comet. If it was any of the above, it would have to be a stationary spot to be used as a guiding point for the shepherds to follow.

Could it be possible that it was a "UFO" that guided the shepherds and hovered over the one spot in Bethlehem where the Christ child lay? Since the earth is one of many God's mansions in the universe, the birth of Christ is a step in God's will for His Kingdom on earth as it is in Heaven. If man ignores the purpose of Christmas, he will only send himself back to the cave and destruction. The choice is yours.

Forgotten Man in Guard Probe

Officer Asks Legal Basis for His Ouster

LANSING (AP) — The attorney general's office is studying the case of a forgotten man—a lieutenant colonel who was fired along with two National Guard generals but, unlike them, has not been granted a hearing.

1st Col. Versel Case Jr. has asked Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley to determine by what legal authority he was fired from his staff job with the Michigan military establishment Oct. 8.

Gov. George Romney fired Case along with Maj. Gen. Ronald McDonald, the state adjutant general, and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, quartermaster general, after an auditor general's report disclosed irregularities in the Michigan National Guard.

Acting on Kelley's advice, Romney reinstated McDonald and Neifert a month later, and they were then suspended pending a hearing before the governor some time next month.

NOT ENTITLED

Romney said at the time, though, that state law did not protect Case and the quartermaster general's executive officer thus was not entitled to a formal presentation of charges and a hearing.

In a petition to Kelley, Case cited state law which provides, in part:

"Staff officers... shall hold their positions until they shall have reached the age of 64 years, unless retired prior to that time by reason of resignation, disability, or for cause to be determined by a court-martial legally convened for that purpose."

Amid preparations for the generals' hearing, and pressure for their reinstatement, Case has dropped from attention.

He has been off the state payroll since Oct. 8.

"I've been in the Christmas tree business for the past two months," he said, "but that is pretty well washed up this week."

Robber Is Flustered by Yule Spirit

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (U)—A man handed Billye Kriss a handwritten note Wednesday across the bank counter.

It read, "Give me some money and you won't get hurt. Give me a stack about 3 inches high, with no ones." He held his hand under his coat.

Mrs. Kriss said: "I can't give you the bank's money, but if you are that desperate I'll give you some of mine."

She opened her purse and handed him $7.

The man stood flustered for a moment, then turned and left. WAS ARRESTED

A motorcycle patrolman arrested Ellis Thayer Van Nattan, 55, of Tulsa, Okla., as he walked out of the Security National Bank.

Van Nattan was charged with bank robbery and held on $5,000 bond.

The $7 was returned to Mrs. Kriss.

Will Ol' St. Nick Come to Our House?

Santa Claus Story Answers Big Question

Editor's Note: "Will Santa come to our house?" That is the question in America today. It is answered in the following columns, written for parents to read to their children. Since its first appearance in 1948, it has become a favorite in many homes.

By HAL BOYLE

NORTH POLE (AP) — He's off!

Santa Claus is on his way at last.

The jolly old saint and his famous reindeer are zooming through the arctic skies right now, heading for the American border. He'll reach it tonight.

The northern lights switched on to a clear, steady green—the "go ahead" signal. And the Royal Canadian Mounted Police sent Santa Claus this message:

"We are clearing all air lanes in your path, old boy. There is no speed limit for you tonight. The sky is yours. Go as fast as you like. Good luck!"

NEEDED WIDE ROAD

And Santa needed that wide clear road in the sky, for his big red sleigh was piled so high with gifts it overflowed. It looked like a flying haystack as it raced through the cold crisp air.

"Oh, dear, oh, dear," worried Santa, just before the takeoff. "I do hope none of the presents fall out and bean some poor innocent rabbit down below. I believe this must be the heaviest load I've had in 20 years."

"What is he fretting about?" whispered Donner to Vixen. "He's only riding in the sleigh, we have to pull it."

Vixen laughed so hard the bells on her harness tinkled in merry music. And all the other reindeer laughed, too.

CLIMBS INTO SEAT

As Santa Claus climbed up into the seat of the sleigh, puffing a little because he has gained some weight this winter, three black and white penguins waddled across the snow in front of the reindeer.

"Here, here, get out of the way, please!" said Santa Claus importantly. Then he asked in surprise:

"Why, what are you penguins doing up at the North Pole anyway? You're supposed to be at the South Pole."

"We're on a vacation," said one of the penguins. "We're looking for Florida. Have you seen it anywhere?"

INVITES PENGUINS

"Climb aboard! Climb aboard!" boomed Santa. "I'll drop you off there. But, I must say, this is the first time I ever picked up three hitchhikers wearing tuxedos."

Just then Mrs. Santa Claus came running out waving a long piece of paper.

"You almost forgot your list of good children," she said.

"Never mind," replied Santa. "I don't need it. This year I'm going to give a present to every little boy and girl, good or bad. The bad ones will feel sorry then, because they know they don't deserve a nice present. It'll make 'em try harder to be good next year."

MRS. CLAUS

"That isn't according to Hoyle," said Mrs. Claus, who likes to play bridge. "But it does make sense, you old sofie."

Santa stood up to crack his knee in the air—the signal to be off. But then he heard a small voice crying:

"Wait! Please wait!"

It was Cluny, Santa's favorite little elf. The other elves gossiped about Cluny and said she was clumsy at making toys. But Santa knew it was only because she was so young. He liked her because she had a good heart.

SHINY FIGURE

"Here," said the tiny elf, holding up a small shiny figure. "What's this? What's this?" grumbled Santa. "You're too late, my pack is already loaded."

"It is only my present to the world," said Cluny. "I made it at night in my room—all by myself."

Santa took the little figure from her hands. It was a beautiful angel with butterfly wings and a robe of purest white. In her hand the angel held a small magic wand.

ANGEL OF PEACE

"It is the angel of peace," explained Cluny.

"Why Cluny!" said Santa, "this is better than all the other gifts put together. I'll see that your angel waves her wand for one day at least over every home in the land."

And he picked up Cluny and gave her a big whisker-tickly kiss on her cheek. Then he picked up his long whip again and cracked it sharply in the frosty air.

THEY'RE OFF

The eight reindeer leaped forward and the big sleigh began sliding through the snow. Faster, faster, faster—and then they were off the ground and into the air.

Santa was on his way. And tonight, if you go to bed, he will come to your house, wherever you are.

Johnsons' Holiday
Will Be Traditional

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — Christmas stockings marked "Daddy," "Mother," "Lynda" and "Luci" are hung by the chimney with care.

Colorful decorations of an eight-foot balsam tree sparkle in the President's library-office, and the Johnson family is ready for the excitement of Christmas at their ranch home.

There are a hand-made ornamental angel, pine cones and bouquets of balsam on the mantles and stairways, a Nativity scene.

Mrs. Johnson says the ornamental angel which she received from a friend in Germany is a special favorite of hers. The First Lady did most of the decorating of the ranch home herself.

The President, Mrs. Johnson, and their daughters, Lynda, 20, and Luci, 17 will open their gifts from each other tonight. Then, if they follow their usual custom, they will wait until Friday morning to open their other packages.

The Johnsons plan to attend Christmas services at St. Barnabas Episcopal mission, 15 miles away in Fredericksburg. For the holiday dinner there will be turkey and all the trimmings.

The Johnsons also spent last Christmas at the ranch and entertained 27 kindfolk at Christmas dinner in the President's 12-room stone and frame home.

Last year's Christmas was far from a relaxing one for the chief executive. He kept busy on the holiday inspecting his cattle, delivering poinsettias to his neighbors, and taking a speedboat spin on a nearby lake.

He even took time last year to lease 40 acres more of "stomping ground" to add to the Johnson holdings of 400 acres along the Pendarnales River.

Will Return to State in Dow Theft

NORWICH, Conn. (UPI) — A Dow Chemical Co. chemist, arrested in connection with a $1 million blueprint theft agreed yesterday to return to Michigan by Dec. 30 to face charges.

Stanley Tabol, 41, was arrested as a fugitive from justice early Tuesday and later appeared in Norwich Circuit Court on the charge.

Through his attorney, Orrin Silverberg, Tabol agreed to return to Midland, Mich., to face a charge of felonious taking of the blueprints for a plastic processing plant from Dow.

The company claims Tabol intended to use the plans to establish his own business.

Tabol said he left Midland, the company's international headquarters, with the permission of his company and no knowledge of charges.

$5,000 BOND

He was released on $5,000 bond and the case stemming from the fugitive charge was continued until Jan. 18.

Police said Tabol was taken into custody at the home of his father-in-law, Stanley Ciroski, early yesterday after State Police were notified by Michigan authorities.

He offered no resistance when officers appeared and took him to the Grooten State Police barracks to await Circuit Court arraignment.

According to investigators, Tabol left Midland Monday with his wife and two children when he had been scheduled to take a lie detector test.

TREATMENT

They said he had a history of mental instability and recently underwent treatment in Michigan. They said he had suicidal tendencies.

State and local police had the Ciroski home under surveillance and made their arrest when they spotted Tabol's 1964 car in the driveway.

Police said some of the missing papers had been recovered in Midland but that there were some technical papers found in the car which they were unable to connect with the missing blueprints.

Before being transferred to Midland, Tabol worked for 10 years in the Dow plant at Ledyard.

Shropshire in western Britain was organized as a county in the 10th century. It is noted for agriculture and the raising of Shropshire sheep.

Secret Plane 'Met

All Test Objectives'

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Lockheed Aircraft Corp. reports its SR71 strategic reconnaissance plane reached a top speed of more than 1,000 miles an hour and climbed to more than 45,000 feet on its first flight.

Lockheed said yesterday that the top-secret craft "met all test objectives." The plane was designed to operate at more than 2,000 miles an hour and altitudes of more than 80,000 feet.

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS

And they came to a city called Nazareth, and lived there, which is why, at the prophets foretold, Jesus was called a Nazarene.

Long after this first Christmas, Dor, now a man, continued to marvel that, though he never owned another scarf, he had never been cold.

And, of all things, trouble, the black sheep reformed, Dor always credited the right produced by the flaming star on Christmas Eve with the improvement in Trouble's deportment.

By Ralph Lane

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

German Measles Usually Hits but Once

Q—About a month ago my 11-month-old daughter caught German measles from her older sister.

The doctor says you can only get the disease once, but the baby has just developed the same rash and symptoms all over again. Is it possible to get this disease BRANDSTADT more than once?

A—One attack of German measles usually confers lasting immunity. When a second attack does occur, it is usually several years later.

In the case of your 11-month-old daughter, I would strongly suspect that one of her attacks was some other disease associated with a rash and fever, such as measles, scarlet fever or pink disease.

Q—My husband developed pains in his joints following a recent attack of German measles.

Our doctor told him he had rheumatoid arthritis. Is this an aftermath of German measles?

A—Although this is not a common complication, joint pains may persist for several weeks after an attack of German measles.

Let's hope this is the cause of your husband's pains, since this type of arthritis usually subsides spontaneously.

Q—My son has just recovered from German measles.

I told our pediatrician that I might be pregnant but he said that, as long as I had German measles as a child, I had nothing to fear. What do you think?

A—Although it is unlikely that you will contract German measles a second time, any contact with the causative virus during the first three months of pregnancy may endanger the baby.

When such a contact cannot be avoided, as in your case, an injection of gamma globulin should be given.

Q—Can dogs carry the ticks that cause paralysis? Are these ticks found near lakes?

A—The dog tick and the wood tick have been known to cause a temporary paralysis in human beings, especially in girls, because the tick may fasten itself to the skin of the scalp where it is not readily found and removed.

The paralysis develops as a result of a nerve poison that the tick injects into the skin.

This occurs only after the tick has been attached for several days.

The best prevention, therefore, is to find and remove the ticks.

This disease may be found in the vicinity of woodland lakes and is most prevalent in Canada and northern United States.

Seek to Avoid Cash Outlay

Renewal Project Due Early Revision

Pontiac's R44 urban renewal project, first drafted in August 1962, is slated for revision early next year.

City officials hope to revise the project's budget so the city can pay its share without an actual cash outlay to the federal government.

Pontiac has two urban renewal projects—R20 and R44. The latter project is smaller and newer.

A revised R20 plan was recently submitted to federal urban renewal authorities. City officials also hope to avoid a cash payment at the conclusion of R20.

As in the older R20 project, city officials will seek increased credit in R44 for the Clinton River drain, which cost the city $2.5 million to construct.

ITS SHARE

The city can pay its share of urban renewal costs in two ways: a straight cash payment, or a noncash credit (funds already spent on related improvements which the federal government agrees to "credit" toward the city's share of the bill).

The R44 project, which is split with the federal government on a 3/4-1/4 basis, now allows a $236,000 credit for the river work.

Under the expected 1965 revision, the city will ask $583,968 in noncash credits, a hike of $347,368.

Thus, the city would gain credit in R44 for about 22 per cent of the $2.5-million river improvement project, if the proposed revised plan is approved.

REVISED PLAN

In its revised R20 project plan, the city has asked for 78 per cent of the drain's cost.

Hence, between both urban renewal projects the city may recover 100 per cent of the costs for the river improvements.

The gross project cost for R44 is now $2.6 million. The sale of land is estimated to bring in $983,950, giving a net cost of $1.6 million.

Under the proposed revised plan, the gross cost would jump to $3.2 million. Land sales would bring $500,000, giving a net cost of $2.7 million.

The city's share of the net cost would be $675,000 (paid through noncash credits), while the federal government would pay $2 million.

Pay TV Hit With Suit by Los Angeles Lakers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The owners of the Los Angeles Lakers, alleging breach of contract, filed suit in California, Inc.

The Superior Court action asks $550,000 from the television firm, plus the costs of prosecuting the suit.

California voters outlawed pay television in the state through passage of an initiative measure in last November's general election.

To supplement their church incomes, 15 per cent of the nation's Protestant ministers do outside work, the National Council of Churches reports.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

"Unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." To humble shepherds keeping watch over their flocks in starlit fields, the triumphant message of the herald angels burst forth in fullest glory. And for the Wise Men from afar, the brilliant light of a Star shone in the heavens, guiding them on their way. Then to the sacred manger, shepherds and Wise Men came, to worship and rejoice. Each year, as we hear the Christmas story and welcome anew the Christ Child in our hearts, we find a new meaning for life, a new hope for the future. For Christmas is not an ancient tale of bygone time. Christmas lives. Christmas is now. Christmas is ever wondrous, ever radiant with joy and promise. May all its blessings be yours.

RONALD BAKER

Teen With Cancer Will Go Home

VAN NUYS, Calif. (P) — Ronald Baker — a teen-ager who ran away when a doctor said he would have to lose his left leg — is coming home for Christmas.

But from Flagstaff, Ariz. he told a newsmen yesterday by phone:

"I'm still not going to have that operation."

Flagstaff was as far as Ronald got when he left home to hitchhike his way to Chicago.

The slim, 16-year-old youth fled Tuesday when his mother told him what his doctor had told her:

Ronald has cancer. An attempt to remove the malignancy failed. His left leg would have to be amputated above the knee — or he would die within six months.

"I'd rather die than have my leg cut off," Ronald said. "I don't want to be a cripple."

But last night, hungry and weary — he wears a brace on his leg — Ronald turned himself into sheriff's deputies at Flagstaff.

Ronald said he had been told that his Los Angeles doctor was the best specialist west of Chicago, "so I decided to go to Chicago to see what that doctor could do for me."

After he went to Flagstaff authorities he called his mother. He insisted he didn't want the operation. "My mother said we could talk it over," he said, afterward.

Mrs. Lois Eisenbeiss, 51, Ronald's mother, had kept a vigil at their apartment in the Panorama City section of Van Nuys, a Los Angeles suburb. When she got his phone call her hopes for a merry Christmas rose.

"Now all I want to do for him is to get him home and do the most I can," she said. She said Ronald's father died of cancer when Ronald was 4 months old.

Pay Their Own Way

Yank Doctors Aid Victims of Viet War

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI) — An American surgeon applies his skilled hands to the mangled limb of a Vietnamese soldier wounded in an ugly war. This is his Christmas 1964. He chose to spend it this way.

He is one of the more than 60 American doctors who, over two years, have paid their way to come to Viet Nam to give their skills to the shattered victims of war and to share their knowledge with the doctors of Viet Nam.

It costs the doctors about $1,800 to fly here. They must spend about $12 a day for a good hotel room and they must pay for their food and their laundry, even the taxi fare to the operating rooms of Saigon's Cong Hoa military hospital. The expenses probably come to $3,000.

And, since these are skilled, experienced surgeons, greatly in demand back home, the income they lose by deserting their practices for a time must equal their expenses.

Why do they come?

"Call it a working vacation," laughs Dr. Alfred B. Swanson, a six-foot-one, wavy-haired orthopedic surgeon from Grand Rapids, Mich. He has been here twice. He is chief of staff at the Mary Free Bed Children's Hospital and chief of orthopedics at Blodgett Hospital in Grand Rapids.

PLANS 3RD TRIP

Dr. Swanson has returned to Grand Rapids since being interviewed in Saigon. He is preparing to make a third trip to Viet Nam.

"I'm a successful doctor," he said. "If I didn't spend my money this way, I would probably just buy a new car."

Pressed further, he turns serious: "I care about what happens here. This is the testing ground. If our side can succeed here, it can succeed everywhere. I think it behooves all Americans to participate as much as they can, in any way they can. They have a duty to do so."

Swanson was one of the first doctors to pay his way to Viet Nam under a program called Orthopedics Overseas, which started in November 1961. The medical program of CARE, Inc. began finding volunteers in field other than orthopedics in 1962, including plastic surgeons, gynecologists and general surgeons.

STRAIGHTEN SOLDIERS

The term "orthopedics" comes from the Greek words "to straighten children." But here it usually means "to straighten soldiers."

Swanson is a hand specialist. The day he talked with UPI he had operated to recreate a functioning hand which had been mangled by shrapnel.

He operated most of the day, every day, during his visit. Even more important, Vietnamese army doctors were able to study his techniques so that his skills remain behind him.

Other American doctors train their Vietnamese colleagues in their own specialties. This month five specialists from Wilmington, Del., were teaching and working at three other hospitals. They were Drs. Edgar R. Miller Jr., a general surgeon; Allan G. Smith, an orthopedic surgeon; David E. Saunders, a plastic surgeon, and Charles R. Green Jr. and John M. Levinson, both gynecologists. This was Levinson's second trip to Viet Nam.

COPTER CREWS

Swanson deferred attention from himself. He wanted to talk about the speed and courage of American helicopter crews whose risky job it is to rescue wounded Vietnamese soldiers from the battlefield.

"It's so important for the war effort," he said. "If you can take care of them within eight hours, your chances are tremendously higher."

"I've got the greatest admiration for the guys in these helicopters. They are the real heroes of this war. The American people should be proud of them."

"What is the first thing that an American soldier will yell when he gets hit?"

"He yells 'medic!'"

NOT LEFT

"It's the same with the Vietnamese soldier. If he gets hit, he knows he's not going to be left there to die. This big American walks out of a helicopter, picks him up in his arms like a baby and rushes him back to an excellent hospital."

But wounded soldiers are one thing, and the war's horrors for civilians are something else.

"The thing that impressed me was the lack of concern about who got wounded," Swanson said of the Communist enemy.

"This morning they brought in a young mother. She was all shot up, but she was still nursing an infant at her breast."

"It made me boil."

Junior Editors Quiz on RHINOCEROS

QUESTION: Why has a rhinoceros such poor eyesight?

ANSWER: A rhinoceros does have weak eyesight, but at the same time it is quick to become aware of the presence of intruders in the territory where he is peacefully browsing. This quickness is because of the high development of the rhino's senses of hearing and smelling.

In the large picture, notice how big the ears are and how widely the nostrils are opened, bringing information his dull little eyes could not pick up.

Animals' senses are generally adjusted to the particular environment they live in. Since the vegetarian rhino generally grazes in high reeds or grass, sharp eyesight would not be as valuable as hearing and sense of smell.

There are several kinds of rhinoceros. The Indian rhino (upper left) has a single horn; its thick skin hangs in folds. The two-horned rhinos (right and below) come from Africa.

The horns—actually composed of highly specialized hairs—are used for grubbing up vegetable growth of different kinds. They are also formidable weapons.

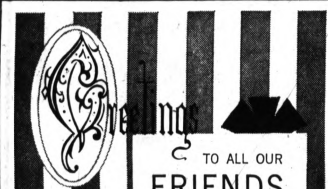

FOR YOU TO DO: Could a heavy, clumsy-looking rhino run as fast as a horse? Think and guess. The answer is below.

(Answer: Yes, for a short distance.)

SANTA and the SINGING TURTLE

By LUCRECE BEALE

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN
Womp stood in disgrace with the snowman's hat down over his face. He could not escape, for all the Fairyland folk surrounded him.

"Now," said Santa. "Perhaps you will tell us what is going on."

"I'll tell you!" cried George. And he told Santa how Womp had left the prince in an enchanted circle in the forest east of Santa Land and how he had come to Fairyland to bewitch Santa and all the fairy folk with his flute-playing.

"Why is this?" Santa asked Womp sternly. "What have I done to you?"

BLAMES MASTER

Womp tried to blame it all on his master.

"I am the servant of Kerchew, acting king of the kingdom of Razenpie," he babbled in a muffled voice from inside the snowman's hat.

"His nephew Prince Chad is to become the rightful king on Christmas Day."

"My master thought that if Christmas did not come to Razenpie, he would himself remain the king and I, of course, would remain his faithful servant."

PICKS UP FLUTE

Santa picked the manwitch's flute from the floor.

"So," he said, "you planned to play a magic tune on this flute that would put us all to sleep? Well, I, too, can play a magic tune and it will be just for you."

Santa put the flute to his mouth and played a tune never heard before.

Strange, spine-prickling notes filled the air, and indeed, they were magic, for when it was over Womp was a manwitch no longer. He had been turned into a rubber doll!

"He caused harm," said Santa. "Now I shall put him in a child's Christmas stocking and he will cause pleasure for a change."

"When he is worn out and the child has thrown him away, I shall turn him back into himself and I think he will have learned to change his ways."

He turned to George and said, "Will you sing now for the Festival?"

"Oh, no!" protested George reluctantly. "I must get to the prince, for tomorrow is Christmas Day and his kingdom must be saved."

'SING FIRST'

Santa smiled. "Sing first. Then we will go to the prince."

So the turtle had his turn at first. He threw back his head and shut his eyes and sang from his heart.

But, alas! He had suffered too much since the Festival began and his voice was out of sorts.

Nevertheless, when it was over, all the fairy creatures clapped and shouted "Bravo! Bravo!" and Santa said, "I would like for you to come to live with me and be my Singing Turtle."

BEATS WINNING

This was even better than winning first prize at the Festival. George said, "Hurrah!" and the snowman said, "Can I come, too?"

"Indeed you can," said Santa, "and there will be plenty of snow to make you whole again."

Santa took the turtle and the snowman in his sleigh and flew to the forest east of Santa Land where they found the prince imprisoned inside the circle Womp had drawn in the snow.

'Brush away the line,' said Santa.

The snowman hopped on his one foot and swept away the line with his broom.

LEAVES CIRCLE

"The prince flew out of the circle and into Santa's arms crying, 'Come to Razenpie! Oh, you must come to Razenpie with me!'"

"I intend to," said Santa. "We'll go this very night, for it is Christmas Eve. We'll put wicked Kerchew off the throne and Razenpie will have you for its proper king!"

The prince rushed to pick up his crown which had fallen in the snow.

He put it on his head and cried, joyfully, "From now on every day will be Christmas Day in Razenpie!"

Then he and the turtle and the snowman marched with Santa to Santa Land singing "Merry Christmas! Merry Christmas to all."

The End

Little Gift for the Givers

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — The kids who cross the guarded corner near the Schmitz Park School can't help wondering what William J. Lanksbury is going to get for Christmas.

Wednesday, they presented Lanksbury, who supervises the intersection, $14 they had raised for his present. Last year they gave him a full piggy bank and he promptly bought a hand warmer.

"It's a neat hand warmer," one of the youngsters said. "He let's us use it all the time."

Warren Blaze Fatal to Mother

WARREN (P) — A mother who lost six of her children in a fire at their home died yesterday of burns suffered in the same blaze.

She was Mrs. Marie Cox, 35, of Warren.

Her three daughters and three of her six sons died in the house fire Saturday.

The three boys who survived escaped the flaming house by sliding down knotted sheets from their second-story bedroom window.

Her husband, Elbert Turner Cox, was working at a part-time job as a cab driver when the blaze broke out.

Study on Guard, Reserve Merger

Air Force Report Due Jan. 25

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force recommendations on merging the Air Reserve and the Air National Guard are due Jan. 25, it was learned today.

This is only six days before retirement of Gen. Curtis E. LeMay as Air Force chief of staff. LeMay is reputed to favor combining the 72,000-man Air Guard into the 182,000-man Air Reserve.

But there appears to be considerable high level sentiment to accomplish the merger in the other direction — to eliminate the Air Reserve and leave only the Air Guard.

This was the pattern set for the Army on Dec. 12 when Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced that the Army National Guard would increase to 550,000 men by absorbing about half of the 300,000-man organized Army Reserve. The Army Reserve will disappear, except for a reinforcement pool.

SOURCES INCOMPLETE

Sources said studies on unifying the Air Reserve and the Air Guard still are not finished.

The Reserve Officers Association, which is fighting obliteration of the Army Reserve and the Air Force Reserve, has contended that the administration is waiting for LeMay to retire before acting.

Informed authorities challenged this, saying that LeMay had informed top officials that it would be impossible to finish the Reserve-Guard studies by Jan. 1 and that LeMay himself held to the Jan. 25 objective date.

The sources said the studies were ordered five or six months ago and the deadline assigned at that time.

ONE ORGANIZATION

At LeMay's insistence, a board which determines Air Reserve policy decided about a year ago that the Reserve and the Air Guard should be combined and that one organization should remain. The board did not take a position on whether the Reserve or the Guard should survive.

Officials who have been working on this problem said they had been unable to detect from LeMay any leanings either way.

The Air National Guard earned considerable praise during the Berlin crisis when it sent 218 fighters and reconnaissance jets, plus their supporting elements, to France and Germany within a month of being called into federal service in October 1961.

McNamara's emphasis, so far as the Guard and Reserve are concerned, is on quick reaction.

HIGH PRIORITY

The Air Guard and the Air Reserve are in a somewhat different position from their Army counterparts. All Air Reserve and Guard units are considered high priority outfits and are equipped and staffed accordingly. The Army Guard and Reserve have considerable numbers of men in low priority units which, under present circumstances, would not be ready for use in much less than a year after being mustered into federal service.

The entire 72,000-man Air Guard is drawing drill pay and training regularly. Only 54,000 Air Force ready reservists are in the same status. Another 128,000 are in the ready reserve but do not get drill pay.

Soviets Reject Pay Plan; Christmas Crisis in U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. delegates struggled today with a Christmas Eve crisis caused by Russian rejection of a plan accepted by the United States to break a Soviet-U.S. deadlock over peace-keeping assessments and voting rights.

The delegates were expected to negotiate in an attempt to bypass the big power dispute over whether the Soviet Union should lose its General Assembly vote for refusing to pay Assembly assessments to finance the peace-keeping operations in the Congo and the Middle East.

The Assembly was recessed for Christmas until Tuesday.

His president, Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, canceled meetings for yesterday afternoon and this morning because he failed to get a Soviet-U.S. agreement on the latest draft of a resolution he was promoting to avoid a Soviet-U.S. showdown on the financial issue.

His last futile effort came at a 90-minute meeting in his office last night with delegates from the United States, the Soviet Union and regional groups.

Participants said the Americans accepted Quaison-Sackey's draft, the Russians wanted to amend it and the French — who are liable to lose their Assembly vote after Jan. 1 — were not even there.

TOUGH ATTITUDE

Delegates at the meeting said both Nikolai T. Fedorenko of the Soviet Union and Adlai E. Stevenson of the United States were "very tough."

Both Fedorenko and Stevenson said afterward that their governments' positions remain unchanged.

"Let's say there has been an armistice, but no peace treaty," said Stevenson.

REFUSES TO PAY

The Soviet Union refuses to pay the assembly's assessments for financing the peace-keeping operations on grounds that only the Security Council is empowered to start and finance such operations.

The refusal has put it more than two years behind in its U.N. dues and article 19 of the U.N. Charter says any country two years behind "shall have no vote" in the Assembly.

The United States has contended that unless the Soviet Union pays a substantial sum, it should not be allowed to vote. To skirt the issue, the Assembly since convening Dec. 1 has taken all necessary actions on a general consent basis without voting.

Quaison-Sackey wants the Assembly to adopt a resolution by general consent setting up a fund for voluntary contributions to pay off the peace-keeping deficit and thus enable the Assembly to start voting on disputed questions around mid-January.

LATEST DRAFT

He gave key delegations his latest draft Tuesday night. Informed diplomats said Fedorenko proposed some amendments and Francis T. P. Plimpton of the United States rejected the amendments.

Swallowed Safety Pins for 20 Years

LONDON (AP) — For the last 20 years, Edwin Oliver swallowed safety pins.

"It was a strange quirk—but not an unknown one," commented Coroner Arthur Gordon Davies.

He was holding an inquest into Oliver's death after an operation Dec. 8 to remove three safety pins he had swallowed.

The coroner said that Oliver began swallowing safety pins after he was divorced in 1944. "He had many, many operations for them," said the coroner.

"Finally it was one of those operations that aise his death. He was so covered with scars that the surgeons had a terrible time operating on him."

"I do not think he intended killing himself, and I shall record it that he died as a result of opening up a wound—verdict, accidental death."

Service Set for Critic

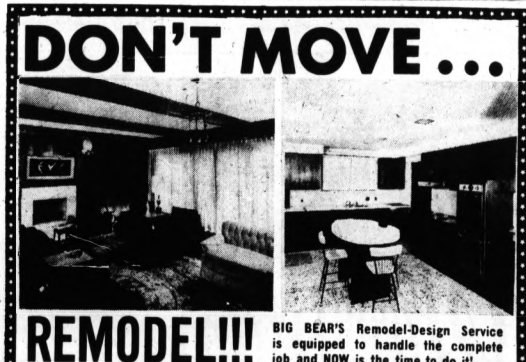

DETROIT (AP) — Funeral services for Helen Bower, a newspaperwoman for 47 years, will be held in Detroit Saturday. Miss Bower died Wednesday at the age of 89. Before her retirement in 1961, she had been movie critic for the Detroit Free Press for 14 years.

The newlywed Richard Browns, North Cass Lake Road, will host dinner for both sets of parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Vere Hodges and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown on Saturday.

January vows are planned by Julie Linnea Erickson, and Airman 2 C. Frederick W. Satow, son of the Frederick W. Satows of Sylvan Lake. The bride-elect's parents are Mrs. Wilbur V. Stanford, Spring Hill Lane, Southfield Township, and the late Ivan Erickson. Airman Satow is en route to a new station in Alaska with the USAF Security Service. The couple previously attended Oakland University.

Mrs. Billy Graham Speaks of Christmas

MONTREAT, N.C. (AP) — Stockings are hung from the mantel, gifts piled beneath a gaily decorated tree, oysters for breakfast, but above all an emphasis on the birth of Jesus Christ.

This will be Christmas in the mountaintop home of evangelist Billy Graham.

The highlight of the family's observance Friday will be the traditional biblical reading by the head of the household.

The five Graham children know that the festivities associated with Christmas are only symbolic of the world's joy at the birth of Christ.

TOO COMMERCIAL

Like many parents, the evangelist and his wife sometimes have found it difficult to keep the commercialization of Christmas in its place and not let the children forget "whose birthday it is."

"Some things are make believe and fun — like hanging your stockings and fairy tales," Mrs. Graham explained.

"They are important to the celebration of Christmas."

"But some things too are absolutely real — like the Bible," she continued. "The children know the difference." Christmas Day in the Gra-

Barbara and Pamela Griffin, both students at the University of Michigan preferred to spend the holidays at home with their parents, the Glenn Griffins of Ogema Road, rather than attend the Rose Bowl.

Besides the two girls at the family dinner table Christmas day there will be Tom and Christine, Mrs. Bert F. Griffin and Mrs. Wellington E. Blynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Huttenlocher, Middle Lake Road, are planning a family get-together on Christmas day.

Both of their sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. James Huttenlocher with children, Richard and Susan, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Huttenlocher with son, John, will be on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Fitzgerald II and children, Ann, Cathy, Hal and Craig will spend their first Christmas in their new home on Echo Road. They formerly lived in Birmingham.

Dr. and Mrs. Clare Johnson, Menominee Road, start their holiday festivities on Christmas eve. His parents, the Elmer Johnsons, will be dinner guests.

On Christmas Day, 29 members of the family will gather with the Johnsons and their children, Jackie, Jari, Josie and Chris.

Christmas day at the W. B. Hartmans, of Watkins Lake, will include dinner for 16. Attending the celebration will be Mrs. Hartman's mother, Mrs. W. O. Moll, her sister-in-law and brother, Mr. and Mrs. James Nye, with Richard, James, Carol, and Susan.

Mr. Hartman's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Lee and their daughter, Nancy, home from the University of Michigan, will also be present. The Lees' other daughter, Susan, is unable to get home from Germany for the holidays.

The two Hartman daughters, Lynde and Mrs. Richard Sandage, with her husband and small daughter, Kathy, will complete the family picture.

After attending a candle-light service at church, Mr. and Mrs. H. Vere Hodges will celebrate Christmas eve in their home on Ottawa Drive.

Those present will include the Richard Browns; Mr. and Mrs. James Purkiss Jr. and family; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Jenks and son, L.B.J., and Hugo Peterson.

Coming also will be Mrs. Dorothy Bigelow and her children, Mrs. Marge Spalding and her family and Mrs. Hodges' brother, Justin Peterson of Detroit.

More guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Peterson Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brown with their son, David.

Dr. and Mrs. Douglas P. Campbell, Crabtree Road, will be entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orley E. Hill of Osceola for the holidays.

ham home begins with a call to an oyster stew breakfast—a once-a-year tradition carried over from Mrs. Graham's childhood.

She said she didn't know the origin of the tradition and confessed she really doesn't like oysters.

BREAKFAST FIRST

The opening of gifts must wait until after breakfast.

Once every gift is opened, the children find an overstuffed chair or couch or settle down on the living room floor to hear the story of the first Christmas.

With Christmas music playing in the background and a fire snapping in the large fireplace, their evangelist-father begins:

"And it came to pass in those days that there came a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed . . . and Joseph went up . . ."

The big mountain top home of the Graham family, set in the Blue Ridge Mountains near Asheville, will be filled again this year with cousins, grandparents and house guests.

Mrs. Graham expects 20 for Christmas dinner.

Merry Christmas to All

Gov. and Mrs. George W. Romney have planned a family dinner in their Bloomfield Hills home.

Arriving from Ann Arbor will be Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Robinson (formerly Jane Romney) and their three youngsters.

Another daughter and son-in-law attending will be the Lauren Keenans and their five children. Mrs. Romney's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Richards, will also be present with their two sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Warren, Cherokee Road, are looking forward to having son, Joseph Jr. home from Michigan State University for the holidays.

Christmas day will find the Warrens entertaining his brother, Douglas C. Warren of Detroit at dinner.

An old fashioned Christmas day dinner for the family has been planned by the James Corwins of Bloomfield Hills.

With them from Birmingham will be their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Swin Jr.

The Robert Flynn's and their small daughter, Roberta, of Ogema Road will be spending Christmas with Mrs. Flynn's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. William Flynn in New Lothrop.

Mrs. John Murphy of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. and her daughter, Patricia of Washington, D. C. will also be guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gordon, Bloomfield Hills, will have as their houseguests for the holidays, the Harold Hoovers of Glenview, Ill.

A Christmas day dinner planned by Mrs. Gordon will include, besides the Hoovers, the Gordons' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitling Jr. and their three children.

The Village Woman's Club was the setting for a recent 'round-the-clock' shower and luncheon given by Mrs. Edmund Steeves, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Ray E. Hayes of Lake Argus.

Wrapping up their Christmas good wishes for Pontiac Press readers are members of the social department staff. In the background are (from left) Mrs. Madeline Doeren and Mrs. Jeanne Nelson who is the newest writer of women's news. Mrs. Janet Odell (right) has just finished addressing the package. Merry Christmas to everyone!

Mom Missed the Boat About Four Years Ago

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is 17 and a senior in high school. We have never had any trouble with her. But we have never told her anything about the facts of life, either, so we can't be sure what she knows and what she doesn't know.

ABBY: She and her girlfriend were invited to a university for a college weekend. It is about a two-hour ride on the bus from here.

If you have a book on ALL the facts of life for girls that age, please sent it COD right away because she is leaving Friday on the 4 p.m. bus. I think you.

WORRIED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I could send a book, but even if it were to arrive before the bus left, it would be approximately four years too late. You had better have a mother-daughter chat with her before she boards the bus.

ABBY: Lately my home has been like a public telephone booth. We seem to be the only ones in this neighborhood with a phone.

For instance, this week we got three long-distance calls for people who live down the block. They gave our number as their contact without even asking us.

Then a woman I never saw before rang our bell and asked if she could use our phone. I thought it was an emergency (car trouble or something) but it turned out she just wanted to confirm some plans with a friend. She sat and talked for half an hour while I felt like a stranger in my own home.

Last night another woman came over around midnight to call a tavern to see if her husband was there.

I hate to be unfriendly, but I don't like being taken advantage of. How can I get this across? Don't use a real name or it will be mud.

WAVERLY, OHIO

DEAR WAVERLY: Why anyone should apologize for guarding his privacy is beyond me. Helping a neighbor is friendliness. Letting people "use" you is foolishness.

Let each presumptuous neighbor know how you feel the first time he oversteps his bounds, and don't worry about what your name will be.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "AN A THEIST IN ANAHEIM": What a sad day it will be for you when your heart is full of gratitude and you have no one to thank.

Troubled? Write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Garrison will also be present.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Allen Jr., Wenonah Drive, will begin the holiday week-end by celebrating Christmas Eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Warriow, Dick Avenue.

Others expected for the fun are: Mrs. Lynn Allen Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. David Scriven. The Warriow's daughter, Carol, will also be present.

On Christmas day, the junior Allens will entertain Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Faulman, Mrs. Vina Mumbue, and Mrs. Allen Sr.

Mrs. Myron L. Buck, West Iroquois Road, will entertain Christmas day for her son and daughter-in-law, the Charles W. Bucks and children, Katherine, Steven and Andrew.

The James Clarksons, St. Jude Drive, will have as their dinner guests on Christmas his parents, the Calib Clarksons of Ferndale.

Mrs. John Murphy of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. and her daughter, Patricia of Washington, D. C. will also be guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gordon, Bloomfield Hills, will have as their houseguests for the holidays, the Harold Hoovers of Glenview, Ill.

A Christmas day dinner planned by Mrs. Gordon will include, besides the Hoovers, the Gordons' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitling Jr. and their three children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Kipp, North Eastway Drive, announce the engagement of her daughter, Sue Ann Henderson to Delmer Lee Mitchell, son of the Earl M. Mitchells, Paint Creek Drive, Oakland Township. Miss Henderson's fiancé attended Western Michigan University.

SEEKING TITLE—One of these girls will be crowned Milford's Junior Miss for 1964-65 will be crowned Saturday at a community dance and pageant at Milford High School. Contestants are (clockwise from top) Linda Pohl, Cindy Diehl, Rose Saliba, Jill Powers and Trudy McMarrin. The girl picked as winner during the 7:30 to 11 p.m. event will receive a scholarship and chance to compete for the state title in Pontiac in February.

To Crown Junior Miss of Milford

MILFORD — The girl chosen as Milford's Junior Miss for 1964-65 will be crowned Saturday at a community dance and pageant.

Adults and teen-agers will be on hand to honor the new Junior Miss and spend the evening dancing.

The 7:30-11 p. m. event is being sponsored by the Jayettes and the Milford Youth Center.

Music for the dance in the high school cafeteria will be furnished by the Jack Braun Orchestra of East Lansing.

The talent portion of the Junior Miss pageant will be held during intermission and judges will announce the winner later. She will be crowned by 1963-64 Junior Miss Judy Pippert.

OTHER FACTORS

Other factors to be considered are scholastic standing, physical fitness, poise, appearance and personality.

Winner of the contest will be awarded a scholarship and all of the contestants will receive gifts.

Milford's Junior Miss will compete for the state title in Pontiac in February.

Among the Milford High School seniors in the local contest are Trudy McMarrin, 625 E. Commerce, and Linda Pohl of 411 Elkford, White Lake Township.

Others are Cindy Diehl of 7547 Biscayne, White Lake Township; Rose Saliba, 10279 Lakeside, White Lake Township; and Jill Powers, 497 Middle, Highland Township.

Jaycee John Kimball will be master of ceremonies at the pageant-dance.

Judges are Jaycee President Joseph Heuser, Milford Township Justice of the Peace James VanLeuven and Valerie Houston, former Milford resident who is now teaching home economics in Lansing.

In Four Area Villages

Candidate Deadline Near

Candidates for office in four area villages have until 4 p.m. Monday to submit nominating petitions to their respective village clerks.

Those seeking to compete in the March 8 general election in Oxford, Lake Orion, Romeo and Holly must meet the deadline.

Where a sufficient number of candidates file petitions, two or more from one party for any vacancy, primary elections will be held on Feb. 15.

Following is a list of the posts open and the names and parties of both incumbents and those candidates who have already turned in their petitions:

Oxford

Three council seats will be open in a nonpartisan race. They are now occupied by Homer Hight, Edmund Unger and Gerald Olrich.

Hight, ending a one-year term, and Unger, a two-year term, have filed nominating petitions. Olrich has announced his decision not to seek reelection. He has served three 2-year terms.

Petitions also have been submitted by Stanley Schlicht of 29 Enslay and Edward J. Boscard of 48 W. Burdick.

In the general election, the two highest vote-getters will receive two-year council terms, and the next highest the one-year term.

Lake Orion

Seven positions are to be filled by the electorate in a two-party race, including the village president now held by Village party member William V. Shoup.

Other expiring terms are those of Clerk Mary Parkinson (Citizens party), Treasurer Geraldine J. Campbell (C), As-essor Mrs. Myrtle Longpre (C) and Trustees Michael La-Magna (V), Stewart Drahner (V) and Robert Hauxwell (C).

The trustee vacancies are all for two-year terms. No nominating petitions have yet been filed.

Romeo

There will be a new village president in March, as incumbent Edgar Welsh has announced that he will not run for reelection.

Other incumbents whose terms will be up are Clerk Norman Engel, Treasurer Mrs. Elaine Hosner, Assessor Fred Ebeling, Trustees Stanley Holmes, Howard Pallister and Marvin Siewe and two library trustees.

The library trustees whose three-year terms are expiring are Mrs. Elizabeth Spencer and Mrs. Helen Davidson. Mrs. Davidson will not be a candidate since she is moving to Florida.

Engel, Mrs. Hosner and Holmes all have filed petitions for reelection.

Byron E. Nichols of 12548 S. Lane has submitted a nominating petition for village president, while Merlin J. Kerr of 153 Croswell and Donald R.

Mosher of 439 Benjamin have filed for trustee positions.

All of the incumbents, whose terms are expiring, and the other new candidates are Republicans.

The three council trustee posts are all for two-year terms.

Holly

Union party incumbents in the seven offices to be filled in Holly are now circulating nominating petitions.

Preparing to seek one-year terms are Village President John F. Oldani, Clerk Mrs. Betty Oliver, Treasurer Hulda Anderson and Assessor Grant H. Hulet.

Trustees whose two-year terms will expire are Clarence Lester, Lott Everly and Arron Ganshaw.

To Aid Needy Children

CLARKSTON — Members of the Clarkston Area Junior Chamber of Commerce will deliver gift packages tonight to some 160 needy youngsters in the area.

Dave Skillman, chairman of the second annual gift program, said 30 Jaycees will work in pairs on the package distribution.

Pontiac Twp. Recount Slated

Canvass of Vote for Supervisor Tuesday

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP—A recount, called for by Mont D. Bodman, unsuccessful candidate for supervisor in the Nov. 3 election, will be conducted by the Oakland County Board of Canvassers Tuesday.

Bodman, a Democrat, petitioned for the recount after losing to incumbent Supervisor Leonard Terry by 39 votes. Bodman is a former township trustee.

Only three of the six precincts in the township will be recounted — the first, second and fifth, according to County Elections Clerk Mabel Child.

The recount will begin at 9 a.m. in the township hall. Terry retained his post by polling 1,389 votes to Bodman's 1,350.

Draws Probation for Robbery Try

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP—An unsuccessful attempt to rob a bank here in September has netted two years of probation for a White Lake Township father of three.

Robert A. Prince, 31, of 2919 Kingston was sentenced yesterday by Judge Thaddeus Machrowicz in U.S. District Court in Detroit.

Prince had pleaded guilty to an attempted unarmed robbery charge in connection with the unsuccessful holdup of the National Bank of Detroit branch, 32900 Middle Belt, Sept. 21.

New Building Inspector Also Avon Tax Assessor

AVON TOWNSHIP—The township has a new building inspector, but the face is familiar. Supervisor Cyril E. Miller has appointed Township Assessor John Marmon to act as building inspector for a three-month trial period, after discussing the idea with other officers and the board trustees.

Miller said today that the action involves the changing of Lawrence Porter's job from building inspector to custodian of the township hall building.

The move practically duplicates action proposed by Miller in January, when he suggested that the posts of building inspector and assessor be combined.

At that time, Miller cast the only dissenting vote a s/he board chose to retain Porter as building inspector and keep the jobs separate.

FIGHT DECISION

Miller said then he would fight the board decision "in the future," and apparently won the battle last night, at least for the time being.

Donald J. Campbell, who spearheaded the opposition to Miller's proposal in January, said today that he was not satisfied with yesterday's action.

"I'm not the only one that's objecting," he said. "I don't think any of the trustees are too enthusiastic about the idea." "We're going to let him try it for three months," he added, "which will give us time to come up with an alternate plan."

MAIN OBJECTION

Campbell said his main objection to the move "is to put Mr. Marmon in as building inspector as well as assessor." "I don't like the idea of having a building inspector and tax assessor being one and the same man, eliminating any checks and balances."

Miller said his reason for the move was to give him a chance to increase the efficiency of the building department.

Romney Gives Yule Warning

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gov. George Romney warned motorists Wednesday not to drink and drive on Michigan highways during the Christmas holiday weekend.

An estimated 1.5 million cars will travel 150 million miles on Michigan roads during the 3½-day period, the Automobile Club of Michigan said.

"I am giving fair warning," Romney said, "that special efforts will be made to insure that those who drink and drive do not ruin the jobs and blessings of the weekend ahead for others."

Intensified state police patrols were to begin at noon today, supplemented by 106 National Guardsmen working as second men on night duty.

LAST YEAR

Last year, 17 persons died—one every hour and 48 minutes—during the 30-hour Christmas holiday period, state police said.

This year the holiday period is 78 hours long, officially beginning at 6 p.m. tonight and lasting until midnight Sunday, in the most recent such holiday periods. In 1960 and 1961, traffic claimed 32 lives each year.

Weather forecasts and road reports indicated highways in southern Lower Michigan would remain relatively clear throughout the holiday period.

Prepare Site for Romney's Oath-Taking

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney's platform for his second term in office is nearly ready—the platform on which he'll take the oath of office, that is.

Workmen are putting the finishing touches on the structure in front of the Capitol Building, which must be big enough to let at least 25 others share the platform with Romney.

Besides the governor, Chief Justice Thomas Kavanagh of the Michigan Supreme Court will administer the oath to Lt. Gov. elect William Milliken, secretary of State James Hare, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley, the eight members of the State Board of Education, two members each of the Michigan State University and Wayne State University governing boards and the nine judges of the State Court of Appeals.

The program opens at 10:40 a.m. New Year's Day with a concert by the 46th Infantry Division band.

Justice 'Shoveled' Out

Sentence: Clean Zoo

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit Zoo Director Frank McInnis says he has just the ticket for two young men found guilty of loitering and disorderly conduct in a suspected attempt to kidnap a macaw parrot from the bird house.

McInnis said some of his tenants, notably the elephants, hippopotamuses, giraffes and apes were a little messy in their personal habits and he would welcome two strong young men to help in cleaning up their cages.

The pair, Theodore Guething III, 18, Birmingham, and John Cole, 20, Oak Park, pleaded guilty yesterday to charges of loitering and disorderly conduct at the zoo.

They were caught on the grounds after closing hours several days ago. They said they were out to kidnap a macaw from the bird house after a Michigan State University fraternity offered $100 for a bird mascot. Cole is a student at MSU.

Royal Oak Municipal Judge Keith Leenhouts sentenced the youths to work 30 days at the zoo as a condition of their probation.

ORDERED TO WORK

Leenhouts ordered the two to start work next week and arrange to spend free weekends and school vacations at their housekeeping chores.

Is Sought by State Senator

LANSING (AP)—Is a non-profit charitable home for the aged subject to state sales tax when it charges its residents for room and board?

That question was at the bottom of a query Wednesday from Sen. Robert VanderLaan, R-Grand Rapids, to Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley. VanderLaan said he was asking Kelley to rule on the State Revenue Department's practice of imposing a sales tax on the homes.

"For many years, non-profit homes for the aged have been exempt from the sales tax on food and other personal property furnished aged persons," VanderLaan said. "Although the legislature has not amended the law to withdraw such exemption the revenue department has recently decided to tax the food served to our citizens."

The tax is imposed on a percentage of the room and board charge levied against the residents, said State Revenue Commissioner Clarence Lock, and is nothing new.

"The question," Lock said, "is whether when these charges are made, the home is not actually selling the food to the residents. State law exempts sales to the homes, but not sales by non-profit charitable institutions. Other items which they purchase for their own use are not taxed."

Another Yule With Bob Away

No Regrets for Dolores Hope

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD—"It's our life, and I'm used to it. I think a lot of people try to fight against the kind of life they have, and they end up making themselves miserable. It's much easier to accept the life you have, and enjoy it."

This was the philosophy of Dolores Hope as she faced another Christmas without her husband, the ubiquitous Bob. While he is entertaining American soldiers in South Viet Nam, she will be spending Christmas Day at their home in North Hollywood.

There will be no sighs, no regrets. "Our holiday has pretty much fallen into a routine," Mrs. Hope explained.

COMPENSATIONS
"It's not like other people's," but it has its compensations. "The routine is this: before his departure overseas, Bob spends a half-day selecting gifts of fruit to send to friends all over the United States. About 10 days before Christmas, he departs with his troupe. Mrs. Hope completes the shopping, has Christmas Eve dinner with the children. In recent years, eldest son Tony also has been on the trip with Bob."

The stay-at-home Hopes attend midnight Mass and in the morning open a few of their gifts. Then they have Christmas dinner with close friends.

"Last year it was the Crossbys," Mrs. Hope said. "They wanted us to come up to their home at Burlingame this year, but it was too far for us."

Bob often calls home during his trips, but seldom on Christmas Day. "That's his busiest day; he does three or four shows in widely separated places," his wife explained. "The time difference also makes it difficult."

He returns a few days after Christmas and then the celebration really begins. Assorted Hopes come out from Cleveland to join the festivities. Last year the crowd for dinner numbered 32, only two of them non-Hopes. The family celebration continues until Epiphany, Jan. 6.

This week Mrs. Hope was busy with preparations for Christmas and Bob's return. One of her favorite chores is overseeing the setting up of the manger scene that overlooks the street in front of the house. Carved almost life-size in wood by Italian artists, it depicts three successive portions of the Christmas story.

NO REGRETS
I asked Mrs. Hope if she didn't regret not having her husband home for Christmas some years.

"Not any more," she replied. "I used to — until I went along on one of the tours. Since then I've had no reservations — as long as Bob is up to the trip."

"Regrets? Not a one. God has been awfully good to us. We've had a wonderful life."

Christmas Shopping Alone, Blind Pianist Scores Well

By EARL WILSON
TOLUCA LAKE, Calif. — George Shearing, the celebrated blind pianist, started out Christmas shopping the other day . . . and his wife Trixie said she'd go along, as usual.

"I don't need you any more," George confidently informed her.

He and his guide dog Leland, a Golden Retriever, set out for a store two miles away, walking briskly, and made it in about half hour.

"I don't think you could have made it any faster with eyes," Shearing cheerfully told me at his home here. Christmas-shopping alone for the first time, he had one difficult moment.

"A guy came over and started talking to me in the store," George said. "I thought it was the manager, but it was a nice man who handed me 50 cents. I said, 'Oh, no thank you,' but he said, 'Yes, please take it. Merry Christmas.'"

Shearing got his guide dog last year (he'd moved here from Tappan, N.J., shortly before)—and they'll probably be playing jokes on what George calls "the sighted world."

For, when somebody says, "Have you been blind all your life?" George is likely to reply, "Not yet." In his middle 40s, blind since birth, he seems one of the happiest men. He has his shirt pockets initialed—in Braille.

He's a speed demon, and, with stairways that are familiar, he takes the steps two or three at a time. In a restaurant in London where he appeared, he knocked over more waiters bearing drinks that way.

Navy Probing
Crash of Jet

SANFORD, Fla. (UPI) — The Navy continued probing today the crash of a jet attack bomber which killed one, injured four, and destroyed two homes.

The Navy said its RASC Vigilante jet went out of control following an in-flight explosion. It crashed at Debarry, a retirement community of 4,000 about a mile from the winter home of Republican Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois.

As it thundered downward, the craft scattered debris over a five-block area, spewed jet fuel onto an occupied automobile, demolished two homes and set a third afire, and finally ripped a 20-foot deep crater into the ground.

Dirksen rushed to the scene immediately and said "It plowed an honest-to-goodness nuclear-hole in the ground."

The Senate minority leader said he started to the scene just after he "heard the fire engines tootle." He said the largest visible piece of wreckage he could see "was about the size of a washtub."

DIDN'T EJECT
Cmdr. Cornelius V. Nolte, 39, of Detroit was killed, apparently because he stayed with the craft too long to eject safely.

Lt. (jg) Paul A. Stokes, 35, of Fort Smith, Ark., the navigator — bombardier, ejected in time and was found dangling by his parachute from a tree, cut and bruised, but otherwise uninjured.

Mrs. Ann Hessler, 58, who was standing in her back yard at the time of the crash, was injured and at first reported dead.

But when the Navy ended its news blackout on the civilian Seminole Memorial Hospital, it was learned that Mrs. Hessler was alive, after having undergone surgery.

The hospital also treated Nils Lungberg, 40, a real estate man, who was in the car that was splashed with burning jet fuel.

Detroit Village

DETROIT (AP)—Three public utilities and Ford Motor Co. have joined in the drive to back the International Village project in downtown Detroit.

Ford took a $25,000 subscription in third mortgage certificates Wednesday as did Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. and Michigan Bell Telephone Co. Detroit Edison Co. took a $50,000 subscription.

Walter Shamie, president of International Village Inc., said that despite these and other subscriptions it did not appear a goal of $925,000 would be reached by a Jan. 1 deadline.

Shamie said the money was needed before federal funds and local loans could be made available.

The project visualizes creation of a complex of downtown shops and entertainment facilities on cleared urban renewal land.

Ionia Probe Chief Sees No Major Scandal

By The Associated Press

"I see nothing that looks like a major scandal," observed the chairman of a legislative committee checking charges of mismanagement and abuse of patients at the Ionia State Hospital.

"We have so far not been able to substantiate the various charges about mismanagement, brutality and cheating of patients," he added.

Rep. David Upton, R-St. Joseph, made his statement after his House Mental Health Committee spent a second day at the Ionia institution.

"We had testimony first from at least 20 employees during the afternoon. And not one had anything but good to say about the administration," Upton said. "Then a few more came in later and we heard them too."

WERE CHEATED

Walter McCabe, an attendant at the institution, had said some patients were locked up for entire weekends without food and that others were cheated when ordering some few luxuries.

"The records indicate the food was served," said Upton. "It now comes down to the word of one man against another."

SWORN TESTIMONY

"We have sworn testimony by some saying these men were given food. Then we have another account," said Upton.

On the charge that patients were cheated when buying small luxuries, like cigarettes, candy and magazines, Upton said an auditor general's report was not yet completed.

NOT PROVEN

Brutality charges were not proven, he said.

"The weapons were shown us that were taken off patients," said Upton.

Rep. Joseph Snyder, D-St. Clair Shores, one of the few committee members who will be around next year, commented:

"We haven't come up with anything positive yet, but I hope we will be more aware of our responsibility next year."

Members of the committee reached the hospital shortly after 10 a.m. Wednesday, were given a meal of pork chops, mashed potatoes, peas, apple cider and ice cream at noon and were still working at interviewing late Wednesday night.

Upton promised a sum-up of his findings next Tuesday.

A meeting, meanwhile, was set for today between Robert Grosvenor, director of the Michigan State Employees Union, and Dr. Robert Kimnich, State Department of Health director.

The discussions will include picketing at the Newberry State Hospital and picketing threatened at the Caro State Hospital. The union claimed working conditions are unsafe in both institutions.

Nurses at Newberry have been saying the hospital was understaffed and said they were afraid to check outside cottages. Union representatives have said conditions at Caro are unsafe also and that patients are not given proper care.

Both union and management representatives said the meeting today between the unionists and management could not be expected to bring agreement.

Say NY Addict Admits Slaying

NEW YORK (UPI) — Police said a dope addict today confessed to the rape and strangling of an attractive brunette socialite who lived quietly in an inexpensive rooming house.

The addict, Robert Sims, 22, was booked early today for the murder of Felice Bradley, 37, who was killed Monday night or Tuesday in her $10-a-week apartment in the same building where Sims often stayed with his parents and older brother.

Police said Sims also confessed to another rape in the same area on Manhattan's upper West Side.

It was not determined whether the murdered woman was acquainted with Sims, an unemployed mechanic.

Temporary Dock Peace

OLD CONTRACT

The old contract covering longshoremen from Lake Charles, La., to Brownsville, Tex., expired Sept. 30 and an 80-day federal injunction ended Sunday. Since then the dockers have been working on a day-to-day basis.

A union demand for a clause in the Gulf Coast contract fixing a minimum size for work gangs—depending on a ship's cargo—has been the big stumbling block. The old agreement set no minimum.

In New York, a new four-year contract would permit gradual reduction in the size of work gangs.

Reynolds expressed optimism at the decision to reopen negotiations.

The first joint session is scheduled for 2 p.m. (EST) Tuesday. Others will be held Wednesday and Thursday, he said.

New Talks in Labor Rift

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — A Johnson administration troubleshooter apparently has put Gulf Coast longshoremen and ship-shippers back on speaking terms. He said new contract negotiations would begin Tuesday.

Assistant Labor Secretary James J. Reynolds said the International Longshoremen's Association also had agreed to hold off a threatened strike of Gulf Coast ports during the new talks.

A Gulf strike could set off a walkout that would paralyze ports from Maine to Texas.

Reynolds told newsmen of the plans for joint sessions yesterday after a series of secret meetings with both sides. He then flew back to Washington but said he would return Monday night.

Wilson's 15 Years with Lions Filled by Problems, Patience

Genial George Ends Career With Detroit

Resignation Results Just 48 Hours After Aides Dismissed

Fifteen years with the Detroit Lions, filled with problems and appeased with patience, ended for coach George Wilson yesterday.

He served seven years as assistant and eight years as head coach and the exit for "genial George" came less than 48 hours after his entire staff was dismissed by owner William Clay Ford.

Through the years, Wilson's job was on the firing line many times.

He went from a National Football League title in 1957, his first year in charge, to fifth place the next year with a 4-7-1 record.

Lions' fans were angered over the trade which sent the idolized quarterback Bobby Layne to Pittsburgh in 1958.

Layne had broken a leg the year before and Tobin Rote, obtained from Green Bay, led the championship drive.

It included a 31-27 victory over San Francisco for the Western Division title and a 59-14 thrashing of Cleveland in the NFL championship game.

Wilson later admitted that he should have traded Rote instead of Layne. With Rote at quarterback, the Lions again finished fifth the next year.

JOB SAVED
After the disastrous finish in 1958, Wilson said: "I don't doubt that I would have been fired if it hadn't been for Andy (General Manager Edwin J. Anderson)."

In a 1961 stockholders' fight, Wilson sided with Anderson. He put his job on the line by sending a 600-word letter praising Anderson to 144 stockholders.

One of the stockholders was Ford, who purchased the Lions last January from the rest for $6 million. Anderson won the proxy fight and Wilson stayed.

Ford became Lions' president. Wilson's next battle was with NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

It came after all-pro defensive tackle Alex Karras was suspended for betting on games. Several other Lions and the club itself were fined.

Wilson stood up for his players. "As coach," he said, "I want to assure them that we support them 100 per cent both on and off the field."

FINEST PLAYERS
But he was not soft on his men. He fined four Lions $25 each after losing an exhibition game in 1963. Another time, he chewed them out over a regular-season loss to New York in 1961.

Wilson coached teams with the Lions. Wilson-coached teams won 58 games, lost 45 and tied six, including three Playoff Bowl titles.

AP Photos

COACH EXITS — Less than 48 hours after his five assistants were fired, coach George Wilson offered his resignation with the Detroit Lions. He took over the head coaching job in 1957 when Buddy Parker quit.

Patriots Prefer Green
BOSTON (UPI) — The Boston Patriots have signed their 12th draft choice, 6-1, 199-pound quarterback Charlie Green who set 14 Ohio Conference records including Wittenberg to four undefeated seasons.

Declines Comment
CHICAGO (AP) — Owner Coach George Halas of the Chicago Bears said he has had no discussions with former Bear player George Wilson, who resigned as head coach of the Detroit Lions Wednesday.

Wilson's Resignation May Get AFL Choice
DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Lions of the National Football League probably lost a 1964 collegiate draft choice to the rival American Football League when head coach George Wilson resigned Wednesday.

The player was Detroit's 20th choice in the recent draft. Being a junior quarterback at Xavier he was selected as a "future" and so couldn't be signed until after the 1965 season.

His name: George Wilson Jr.

NFL Santa Arrives Sunday

Big Dividends for NFL Titlists

Browns-Colts to Meet Before 83,000

CLEVELAND (AP) — Christmas is Dec. 27 as far as the Baltimore Colts and Cleveland Browns are concerned.

That's the date of the National Football League championship game in Municipal Stadium, and Santa will leave over $8,000 in each winner's stocking. Each loser will receive over $5,000.

Radio and television receipts are $1.8 million.

The game will be witnessed by about 83,000 here, an attendance drop in the bucket when compared with the television audience scattered over 98.1 per cent of the country and into Canada, where 30 French-language stations will be among those telecasting the action.

Kickoff is 1:30 p.m., EST. The Weather Bureau predicts temperatures in the upper 20s or low 30s, but as of Thursday no snow is forecast.

COLTS FAVORED
The Colts have been a 6-to-7-point favorites for about a week now.

The outcome could hang on several questions.

Can the Browns' defensive line get to Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, considered the best flogger in the NFL?

Can the Colts contain fullback Jim Brown, the league's leading rusher and also considered the finest in his field?

How about the receivers? The Browns must handle flanker Jimmy Orr and ends Ray Berry and John Mackey.

Baltimore will meet rookie flanker Paul Warfield for the first time. The former Ohio State halfback who has earned double coverage by many NFL teams.

Also, the visitors can't neglect flanker Gary Collins or end Johnny Brewer, two veterans who have engineered the Browns to a dramatic.

Cleveland's fortunes may rest in the hands of quarterback Frank Ryan, the mathematics wizard from Rice University who has engineered the Browns for two years.

He has had both good and bad days in directing Cleveland to a 10-3-1 record and the Eastern Division title.

CAN SCRAMBLE
Ryan can scramble out of the pocket and statistically he appears on a par with Unitas. Frank has a 32.1 per cent completion record for 2,904 yards and 25 touchdowns.

Unitas compiled a 51.8 per cent average for 2,824 yards and 19 touchdowns during the Colts' 12-2 record and the Western Division crown. But Ryan has had 19 passes intercepted while only six of Unitas' aerials fell into enemy hands.

Unitas also has a combination runner-receiver in halfback Lenny Moore, voted by the Associated Press as Comeback Player of the Year. Moore finished as NFL scoring leader with a record 20 touchdowns.

Jerry Hill is Moore's running partner, while Ernie Green shares similar duties with Brown.

300 to Skate Here in Rolladium Meet

Over 300 roller skaters from eight states are expected to be on hand Saturday afternoon when the Pontiac Rolladium's Invitational Championship gets under way.

Several North American champions will compete. The skaters will be from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Delaware.

Competition will start at 4:30 p.m. The event continues through Monday night.

Sunday's events will be from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. and at 7:30. Finals are scheduled through Monday.

Highlights of the meet are expected to be the senior men's and ladies' singles and intermediate dance.

Colts Needle Lions' Scene

BALTIMORE (AP) — "Stay loose" is a sports maxim. It means don't choke up when the chips are down. The dressing room of the coaches of the Baltimore Colts was a picture of relaxation.

That is after the day's practice was over — or almost — for Sunday's National Football League championship game at Cleveland.

Carroll Rosenbloom, wealthy owner, peeled off sweat pants, munched a sandwich and read a tip sheet.

"I see we're picked to lose," he remarked. "No sense bothering to go to Cleveland."

Inwardly, the man is a hard loser.

The telephone rang. "Don Shula's publicity agent," answered Bert Bell, son of the former NFL commissioner and now in the Colt public relations department.

"By the way, what's new?" asked assistant coach John Sandusky, a whale of a man on his way to wallow in a shower.

"Les Bingham is coming here as an assistant," replied Bell. "That will give us the heaviest coaching staff in the league."

Loan of Racer Merits Award for Lloyd Dane

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Lloyd Dane of Buena Park, Calif., who loaned his car to a driver who had wrecked his own has been selected as the recipient of the 1964 annual Naughton Award for Sportsmanship in NASCAR racing, President Bill France announced Wednesday.

France also announced a special award for heroism will go to five NASCAR members: Ned Jarrett, Camden, S.C.; Fred Lorenzen, Elmhurst, Ill.; Larry Frank, Greenville, S.C.; Grover C. Spencer, Inman, S.C.; and James D. Ellmore, Falls Church, Va.

The Naughton Award will be presented to Dane at the Pacific Coast late model division's annual awards dinner at Anaheim, Calif., Jan. 9. The five awards for heroism will be presented at the annual NASCAR victory dinner in Daytona Beach in February.

ASSISTANTS IN RUNNING
"Yes, I might hire one of them, if I thought he could do the job," Ford said. "And you can't rule out the assistants who were just fired, either. They're candidates, too."

He added that the new coach might now be an active player, calling middle linebacker and defensive captain Joe Schmidt "a man who probably would make a very good coach."

"I don't intend to rush into this," he said. "I want to look around at all the men available. We have a chance now to build a good staff and we intend to do that."

"After that all available names and applications, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Thomas and I will sit down and pick our man."

Starting salary? It would depend upon past experience, but probably in the $30,000 bracket.

Mentioned as possible successors were former Navy coach Wayne Hardin, former Chicago Bears coach Joe Stydahar, former Cleveland Browns' coach Paul Brown and former Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne.

COACHES STILL on Assignment
George Wilson, Les Bingham and Bob Nussbaumer have one last official assignment remaining as a coaching team.

Wilson said he will coach the North team in the Senior Bowl, although he's not a National Football League coach. Nussbaumer and Bingham will serve as his assistants in the Jan. 9 game at Mobile, Ala.

Wilson's coaching opponent in the game that matches players who have been drafted by pro teams will be Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys — a man who just signed a 10-year contract.

Meanwhile, owner Bill Ford said he has no candidates in mind for the Lions' vacancy and "anyone's a candidate."

ASSISTANTS IN RUNNING
"Yes, I might hire one of them, if I thought he could do the job," Ford said. "And you can't rule out the assistants who were just fired, either. They're candidates, too."

He added that the new coach might now be an active player, calling middle linebacker and defensive captain Joe Schmidt "a man who probably would make a very good coach."

"I don't intend to rush into this," he said. "I want to look around at all the men available. We have a chance now to build a good staff and we intend to do that."

"After that all available names and applications, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Thomas and I will sit down and pick our man."

Starting salary? It would depend upon past experience, but probably in the $30,000 bracket.

Rose Bowl 11s Lack Sparkle

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The Michigan and Oregon State Rose Bowl squads ran through two practice sessions Wednesday and neither coach seemed particularly happy with the results.

Oregon State Coach Tommy Prothro said his team was tired but looked a bit quicker as it worked on almost all phases of its game.

He added later in a telephone interview that he was pleased with the way the team was coming along, although the players still lack the sharpness he would like to see.

"I expect we'll be ready on New Year's Day, though," Prothro concluded.

Michigan Coach Bump Elliott meanwhile, said the Wolverines looked sluggish. "But that may be normal for this stage of the drills," he observed.

Michigan held light workouts, the morning session devoted mainly to the kicking game.

Michigan tackle Tom Mack lost a contact lens during the Wolverines' morning drill. A few players and equipment managers tried to find the tiny lens in the turf but were unsuccessful.

A telephone call was made to a Chicago firm which promised to send one out by air in time for practice Thursday.

Lakers' Baylor Regaining Style of Former Self

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Elgin Baylor, his leg trouble apparently a thing of the past, is looking like the Baylor of old these days.

The evidence: 83 points in his last two games.

Baylor collected 43 points Wednesday night in leading the Los Angeles Lakers to a 135-117 National Basketball Association victory over the Philadelphia 76ers.

It was his best performance since March of 1963 when he contributed 46 points to the Lakers cause.

He got strong help Wednesday from LeRoy Ellis and Jim King. Together with Baylor, they served to make up for the loss of stars Jerry West and Rudy LaRusso—both sidelined with back injuries.

Ellis put in 23 points and King 22.

Macedonia Cagers Take YMCA Lead

Macedonia Baptist took over first place Wednesday night in the YMCA's Senior Division boys basketball program with an 84-45 triumph over First Congregational.

First Baptist squared its record by trimming Oakland Park Methodist, 67-53, as Bob Martin tallied 32 points.

Cedric Patterson paced Macedonia to its fourth straight triumph with a 21-point effort. Lew Krantz and Bill Mair topped First Congregational with 17 each and Oakland Park was led by Larry Walker's 24.

The league is idle tomorrow.

Young Cuban Griddler Finds Niche at Tackle

JONESBORO, Ark. (P)—Manuel Fernandez Montes is a Cuban refugee who made good in his adopted country — the United States, and his adopted sport — V football.

Montes, who fled Cuba with his parents in 1960 after Fidel Castro came to power, is expected to be a varsity tackle on the Arkansas State football team next fall, Coach Bennie Ellender said. He starred on the freshman team this year.

"I was fat when we lived in Cuba," Montes said. "The only sport I ever tried was rowing." Now he's a trim 215 pounds and Ellender says he hits like a mule kicks.

Montes became interested in football when he saw the Orange Bowl game in Florida four years ago.

The next season, as a high school sophomore, he went out for the Fort Meyers, Fla., High School team.

"At first I was just a tackling dummy," he said.

His father was a lawyer in Havana and his mother was a pharmacist, but they could not work at their professions in this country because of difficulties getting licenses.

WORKS AT TRACK

So Montes went to work for a dog racing track, and began touring the country with track personnel.

The Montes family settled in West Memphis, Ark., where a dog track is located.

VISIT PATIENT — Eastern Squad football representatives in the annual East-West Shrine game visit the Children's Hospital in San Francisco. Dick Butkus of Illinois and coach Pete Elliott of the Illini were the visitors to the hospital which benefits from the proceeds of the game. The little patient's name is Sherry.

Bob Hayes, Jerry Rhome Should Give South Edge

By The Associated Press
Wayne Hardin and Ara Parseghian have their Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks — Roger Staubach and John Huarte — for one more game, but Hardin and the South have Bob Hayes and Jerry Rhome, too.

That added duo could provide the difference Friday in the North-South all-star college football game at Miami, one of three post-season contests, scheduled for this holiday week-end.

Georgia and Texas Tech clash in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., Saturday while the Blue and the Gray all-star teams meet at Montgomery, Ala.

Hardin, who recently resigned as coach at Navy where he had Staubach for three years, is one of the coaches of the star-studded South squad.

Parseghian, who helped pull Huarte from the ranks of obscurity to the Heisman Trophy, coaches the North along with Paul Dietzel of Army. Hardin's archival for three years.

Staubach, along with Tulsa's Rhome, will have an unusually speedy target in Hayes, the Florida A&M flash who is receiving his first crack at major competition.

The North spent 1½ hours Wednesday on ways of stopping the double goal medalist.

"They'll complete some passes on us, but our main concern is to stop them from getting the long bomb," Parseghian said.

Dietzel and Parseghian hope to offset Hayes' potential with Herman Johnson of Michigan State, a defensive specialist who has range, speed and size needed to stop the South end.

Georgia will have a problem of its own in the Sun Bowl. The Bulldogs must stop Donnie Anderson, third best rusher in the nation who also caught 32 passes for 396 yards. He ran for 966 yards, an average of 4.6 yards per carry.

Georgia has no one to match

Anderson, but quarterback Preston Riddlehuber likes to run with the ball. In fact, he set a school record this season for yards gained rushing by a formation signal-caller.

The Blue and Gray squads meanwhile, finished up their workouts today with Blue Coach Murray Warmath of Minnesota and Gray Coach Paul Davis of Mississippi State both optimistic.

The big bowl weekend comes next week with the Rose, Cotton, Orange and Sugar Bowls set for Friday and the Gator Bowl and East-West set game scheduled for Saturday.

AFL's Leading Rusher Paces Bills

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cookie Gilchrist fell short of his second 1,000-yard rushing season, but his league-leading 981 total was enough to send the Buffalo Bills into the American Football League title game.

Gilchrist, stymied by Boston in their Eastern Division showdown battle last Sunday, previously captured the rushing crown in 1962 and now is the only two-time ground-gaining champion in the AFL.

Matt Snell, the New York Jets' prize rookie, finished 36 yards back of Gilchrist for second place. Snell's 945 yards set a season's rushing record for AFL freshmen.

Gino Cappelletti, Boston's receiver-chasing specialist, retained his scoring championship with a record 155 points.

The Patriot bunter snared seven touchdown passes, kicked 25 field goals and amassed 38 points in conversions. Pete Gogolak of Buffalo was the only other scorer to go over the century mark with 102 points.

Quarterback Len Dawson of the Kansas City Chiefs won the passing championship for the second time in the three seasons by posting a total of 58 efficiency points out of a possible 60.

The efficiency points are derived by rating the passer on interception percentage and yardage percentage.

TOP PERFORMANCE

A record performance by Houston's Charley Hennigan ended Lionel Taylor's four-year reign as the league's pass receiving artist. Hennigan caught an AFL record 101 passes to eclipse Taylor's mark by one.

New York's Dainard Paulson won the interception crown with 12 steals. Houston's Bobby Janicki capped the punt return title with a 15-yard average on 15 attempts while Oakland's Bo Robinson won the kickoff return title on the last day of the season with a 26.8 average on 36 returns.

Jim Fraser of the Denver Broncos retained his punting title and became a three-time winner with an average of 44.6 yards a kick.

Retiring Rote Named Starter for San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Quarterback Tobin Rote, who says he is retiring at the end of this season, will start for the San Diego Chargers in the American Football League championship game Saturday with Buffalo.

Rote, a veteran of 15 years of professional football, got the starting assignment Wednesday from Coach Sid Gillman.

Gillman said Rote's experience made him the choice over John Hadl, the Chargers' starting quarterback through most of the season.

Tobin has never lost a big game. He lost a few battles but he has never lost a war."

Rote led Detroit to a 54-14 win over Cleveland in the 1958 National Football League championship game. He directed Toronto to a Canadian League Grey Cup win over Hamilton and last year was the quarterback in the Chargers' 51-7 triumph over Boston in the AFL playoffs.

"All I want is a win," Rote said. "My arm feels good and I know the team is coming up to a good game."

Huskie's Handed Loss

By Hazel Park Matmen

Hazel Park was too strong in the lighter weights last night and took a 23-15 wrestling decision from Pontiac Northern's Huskies.

The Vikings swept the first five classes and then clinched the victory with wins at 165 and 180 pounds. The winners' Tom McKinnon (127 pounds) posted the only pin in the meet.

The PNH reserves won 42-10, by recording six falls.

Army, on its way to next week's Far West Classic at Portland, Ore. was booted at Dayton, Ohio, in losing to the Flyers 41-33. The Cadets played a ball-control game that aroused the fans' ire.

Pontiac Pro Quint Adds Player to Roster

University of Detroit, will make his second start in the pivot replacing the 6-10, 222-pound playing coach.

Otherwise, the starting lineup will remain unchanged with Henry Hughes and Charley North at forwards, Willie Merriweather and Manny Jackson at guards.

RETURN TRIP
This will be Pontiac's second visit to Muskegon and its seventh game of the campaign. The Nationals won their first game in their initial trip to the Panthers' lair, 109-103.

Since then, however, Muskegon has added two ex-Ohio State stickouts to their playing crew and improvement has been evident. Joe Roberts, 6-5 forward, and Mel Nowell, 6-1 guard, have brought spark to the team.

The Nationals will enter the contest at 2-4 and trying to snap a two-game losing string. The tilt can be billed a fight for fourth place since the winner will control that spot in the NABL standings.

The Pontiac-Muskegon affair will also start the busiest eight days for the Nationals this campaign. After the tilt, the local pro five has games in Grand Rapids and Benton Harbor the following Friday (New Year's Day) and Saturday nights.

The Grand Rapids' visit actually will have Pontiac meeting Chicago in the opener of a holiday double-header that will have the Tackers playing Benton Harbor in the nightcap.

Duke to Spend Yule Quietly

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Duke of Windsor, with three exotic Christmas trees of varying size, is spending Christmas Eve reading, walking and resting.

He also is checking a number of an estimated 3,000 Christmas cards and greetings received from friends and strangers around the world.

Methodist Hospital spokesmen said the former British king, now 70, is making an excellent recovery from a Dec. 16 operation for removal of an aneurysm from an abdominal artery.

Hospital spokesmen said Wednesday the duke now is sitting up as much as four hours a day and is spending much of his time reading books on various phases of Texas history.

Hospital officials were silent on Christmas Day plans but there was no indication either the duke or duchess will leave their six-room fourth-floor suite.

There were unconfirmed reports the couple may move next weekend to a nearby hotel for one or two weeks.

U.S. output of wool cloth is slightly more than 60 per cent of production in the years immediately following World War II.

By OSWALD JACOBY

There is a certain small group of so-called expert players who just hate to show that they have a really good hand. The idea is to keep their partner in the dark as long as possible so that they will be able to make the major decisions.

JACOBY

When Bob Hamman of the U.S. World Bridge Olympiad team held the North cards, he jumped to two hearts as his first bid. This eminently correct procedure is quite foreign to this minimum school, but it made it very easy for Bob to bid only four spades at his next turn. His two heart bid had told his partner, Don Krauss, that Bob had a very good hand so the four-spade bid was not a request to stop. Of course, Don did stop. He really held a minimum opening bid.

West led king, ace and another diamond to start. Don ruffed the third diamond in dummy with the nine spot, drew trumps and took a heart finesse to make 11 tricks. He decided that the chance of a successful finesse was better than to hope for a club break.

It all looked easy, but the hand turned out to be a big swing for us. The enemy North bid and merely bid one heart at his first turn. Later, he jumped to three clubs over his partner's one spade rebid and went to five spades after his partner bid three no-trump. South bid six spades.

Of course, most of the blame must go to South. His partner had bid very strongly and gone past game all by himself, but not only did South have a rock bottom minimum opening, but he could do nothing about the first two diamond leads. North had clearly indicated that he could not handle them, so South was looking right at two quick losers.

Justice of the Peace Francis A. Castellucci ordered Mallen held without bond on the charge and set examination for Jan. 12.

Mallen, 25, said he fired five shots at his wife, Mrs. Olive Mallen, 35, after forcing the car in which she was riding off the road.

The victim was riding with her cousin, Mrs. Gladys Wilk, who was shot once in the right hip.

Mallen told police he got angry when his wife refused to talk to him.

Nasser Blast Worsens U.S.-U.A.R. Ties

CAIRO (AP) — Relations between the United States and the United Arab Republic deteriorated further today in the wake of a speech by President Gamal Abdel Nasser telling America, in effect, to take its aid and "go to hell."

Speaking in Port Said yesterday, Nasser accused U.S. Ambassador Lucius Battle of trying to put economic pressure on Egypt and declared:

"Anyone who does not like our attitude can drink from the sea. And if the Mediterranean is not big enough, we will give him the Red Sea to drink, too."

To "drink from the sea" is the Egyptian slang equivalent of "to go to the devil" or "to hell."

U.S. MUM

No official U.S. comment was available immediately in Washington. U.S. officials indicated, however, that a request by Nasser for $35 million worth of surplus food would be shelved because of his aid to the Congolese rebels.

Nasser's outburst apparently was touched off by U.S. accusations that he is aiding the Congolese rebels and intimations that U.S. aid would be curtailed because of this.

Speaking to a rally celebrating the end of the 1956 Israeli-British-French invasion of the Suez, Nasser declared:

"We have sent arms to the Congolese rebels and we will continue to send arms because the rebels need them and need the support of the honest nations of the world. The U.A.R. cannot watch aggression against the Congo and stand handcluffed.

RELATIONS WORSENE

"We do not accept any words against us and we will cut off the tongue of anyone who uses them. We do not need their money."

Relations between the United States and the U.A.R. worsened when a mob sacked the U.S. Information agency library in Cairo last month in protest against the American-Belgian mission in the Congo. Last week an American oil company's plane was shot down by the Egyptian Air Force as it was flying from Jordan to Libya, and the two crewmen were killed.

The United States has been providing the U.A.R. about $140 million a year in food under a three-year agreement that expires next June 30. Nasser's government had asked for an additional $35 million worth for the coming year to ease a serious shortage.

Nasser said Ambassador Battle, in a call on the U.A.R. minister of supplies Tuesday, "stayed only two minutes" and "said he could not possibly speak about (supplies) because the conduct of the Egyptians was not good."

CHEERING CROWD

"If the Americans want to give us aid at the price of dominating our policy," Nasser told the cheering crowd, "I say we are sorry. We are ready to cut our rations and minimize our daily consumption to keep our independence."

He called the U.S.-Belgian rescue operation in the Congo "aggression similar to the 1956 attack on Suez" and said his government cannot recognize Congolese Premier Moise Tshombe as "the legitimate representative of the Congolese people."

Soviet Deputy Premier Alexander Shelepin was beside Nasser as he told the crowd: "The Soviet people will always stand by your side under all conditions, and let everybody rest assured of this."

"Christmas comes but once a year," chorled South as he marked 480 below the line and 1,150 above the line for the 700 rubber and the contract and overtrick bonuses.

South had won the second spade in dummy. That he led a heart to JACOBY to his king, noted that East held all the trumps, and proceeded to lead clubs from dummy. East ruffed the fourth club lead, but South, who had discarded one low diamond on the third club, just discarded another low diamond. After that there was no problem about making the rest of the tricks.

East's double had exploded in his face and cost his side 780 points—the difference between the actual 1,830 and 850 that North and South would have collected for making four hearts with an overtrick, but the actual man with the Christmas spirit had been West.

Rebuilders of Church Set Services

RIPLEY, Miss. (AP) — There will be biracial Christmas services Friday in the raw shell of a new church rising on the ashes of one burned in racial anger.

"We won't have it finished and we might not have a roof," said Prof. Paul F. Schmidt, "but we're going to have two services Christmas Day, no matter what."

The professor headed the group of 31 Oberlin (Ohio) College students who formed the "Carpenters for Christmas" church rebuilding project.

The Antioch Baptist church went up in flames shortly after it was used for a rally of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party. It is one of at least 30 destroyed by fire or explosion in Mississippi last summer. The site is about six miles east of Ripley.

Two walls are standing and others are taking rapid shape. But Schmidt does not expect to complete the work before the group must return to Oberlin Jan. 2. They travel by car. "It may be," said Schmidt, "that five or six of us might have to come back later to do some of the brick work."

"We can't hope to have the roof on until sometime next week. We've got the backbone of the thing built," he added.

The Christmas Day service will be open to all races, said Schmidt.

3 Cuban Exiles Are Freed on Bond

NEW YORK (U.P.)—Three anti-Castro Cubans accused of the abortive Dec. 11 invasion attack on the United Nations Secretariat Building were released last night in $5,000 bail each.

Judge Albert Bosch of Manhattan Night Court ordered the trio freed from police custody after a bondsmen appeared with the necessary bail.

The three have been identified as officials of the Cuban National Association, an anti-Castro exile group headquartered in Miami. They are Julio Carlos Perez, 31, of the Bronx and brothers Ignacio Norvo, 26, of Manhattan and Guillermo Norvo, 25, of North Bergen, N.J.

At their arraignment yesterday in Queens, their trial was set for Jan. 6.

Season's Greetings

Christmas means a lot of things, but to our firm this season centers chiefly around two of the finest things in life — Home and friends. Looking back over the years and thinking of Christmas days gone by, makes us realize just how empty life would be without the proper home life and good true friends.

So at this season of the year, we are thinking of you and your family who's friendship has helped us along the way.
We hope this will be a truly
Merry Christmas for you and everyone at your house and that the New Year will bless your home with all the good things of life. "Remember, give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you."

Crash Hospitalizes Waterford Man

A Waterford Township man is in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital following an auto accident yesterday in Commerce Township.

Santo C. Pretto, 42, of 95 Edgelake, was traveling north on Haggerty near Walnut Lake Road when the accident occurred.

Sheriff's deputies said the car Pretto was driving went into the ditch on the east side of the road, crossed the road, went down a bank and hit a barn.

Youth Given Prison Term

A Pontiac Township youth was sentenced yesterday to 1½-4 years in the state prison at Jackson for malicious injury to personal property that resulted in an eye injury to a Detroit youth last summer.

The prison term was set for Gary Webb, 17, of 2730 Glen Rose, by Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

Webb pleaded guilty Dec. 4 to smashing the windows of a car with a baseball bat. The driver, James K. Gardner, 19, had to undergo eye surgery to remove imbedded glass.

The incident occurred in Pontiac June 7 following a minor traffic accident between Gardner's car and the one Webb was riding in.

Judge's Sentence Has Familiar Ring

A Ferndale man was sentenced yesterday to his second 2½ year prison term in as many days.

Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt ordered the sentence for Ronald D. Ketchum, 28, for attempted uttering and publishing to run concurrently with the sentence handed down Tuesday by Judge William J. Beer.

Beer had sentenced Ketchum, 2735 Grayson, for leaving the scene of personal injury auto-mobility accident.

Youths Take $130 off Oak Park Man

Four young men held up an Oak Park man at gunpoint last night and made off with $130 in cash.

Edward C. Bloom, 35, told police he was working at the Orchard Furniture Co., 164 Orchard Lake, when he heard the delivery door bell ring.

He said when he answered the door he was met by four young men, one carrying a pistol and another carrying a rifle.

The four forced him outside, took $130 from his wallet and fled on foot, Bloom told police.

Orion Twp. Woman Is Injured in Accident

Ethel M. Bates, 60, of 2410 Laper, Orion Township, is in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital following an auto accident yesterday morning in Orion Township.

Sheriff's deputies said the Bates auto skidded on Laper Road near Silverbell and struck the median.

May we take this opportunity to express to the many families of this community our appreciation for the confidence they have placed in us during this past year

We have done all that we could to merit this confidence and have tried to serve as we would want to be served if the circumstances were reversed

We have great faith in the future of Pontiac. Products of our industries are among the best. We have competent and honest professional and business men, a progressive and well-administered education system, and numerous and beautiful churches. The recent United Fund drive also proves that our citizens are sympathetic and responsible. Appreciating the opportunity to be a part of all this, we pledge to be continually progressive in our particular profession.

We wish for all the people of our community, as well as the Greater Pontiac Area, a very happy and significant Holiday Season. In this coming New Year may it be a reversal for those who suffered adversity, in 1964 May it be continued success for those who were more fortunate.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Those two words have brought a million billion happy smiles.

Christmas around the world has the same connotations; a festival of joy. Every man interprets Christmas in his individual way; the man on skid row takes another drink, the social worker brings food to hungry children, children sing songs of joy and ecstasy of people in far away.

J. L. VOORHEES places his eye on their loaded Christmas tree and mom and dad greet grandchildren, their parents and grandmothers and grandfathers. The house is sparkling clean, an aroma of cakes and turkey permeates the air; friends call, are given gifts in memory of Him whose birthday they celebrate. In churches everywhere there are scenes of happiness, people greet each other with sincere joy in their hearts. On the streets, in the frosty air of night we hear the inspirational music of Christmas. It is indeed a joyous time.

We send to you all the best wishes of Christmas joy. May your day be filled with the essence of Christmas — peace and goodwill for all mankind.

Pedestrian Hit, Ran

MELUN, France (UPI) — Police here are searching for a novel hit-run accident suspect — a pedestrian. He ran away after colliding with a motorcyclist, who fell off his cycle and was admitted to hospital for treatment.

Ex-Miss America Honeymooning With In-Laws

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP) — Mrs. Michael Allen Buckley — better known as Donna Axum, Miss America of 1964 — and her husband were on their honeymoon today at the home of Buckley's parents.

Donna, 22, eloped with Buckley, her 22-year-old college sweetheart, Monday and was married in a small Methodist church at Pine Bluff, Ark.

Both are senior students at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Her parents announced news of the wedding yesterday at their home in El Dorado, Ark.

In Bloomington, the former Miss America expressed the desire to be treated just like any other bride. "Maybe everyone will be over the shock of it pretty soon, and leave us alone," she said.

Oakland County Nominees

37 Bid for Service Schools

Oakland County nominees for seven openings at West Point, Annapolis, and the Air Force Academy have been announced by Congressman William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County. The 37 youths were the high scorers of 86 who took a civil service examination last July and October. From the nominees, two go to the Air Force Academy, two to the Military Academy, and three to the Naval Academy.

Those who will enter next July must first pass an academy entrance test and a final physical examination.

After successfully completing four years of study, they will graduate as officers in their respective service.

The two candidates out of 12 who score highest in the Air Academy examination next spring will become Air Cadets at the academy near Colorado Springs.

BASED ON SCORES
Principal candidates and alternates to West Point and Annapolis were selected "strictly on the basis of their scores in the civil service examinations," Broomfield said.

Among Pontiac area Air Academy nominees for two cadet positions are: Edward F. Lundberg, 1875 Cambridge, Lathrup Village; Richard D. Bowles, 2300 Wellington, West Bloomfield Township; Richard A. Oyen, 1690 Mansfield and Gregory B. French, 2560 Dorchester, both of Birmingham; and David M. Holmwood, 2884 McKeachie, White Lake Township.

Others include: David L. Hamilton, 29934 Robinsonwood, Farmington; Joseph F. Emmerth III, 161 Robert, Pontiac Township; Daniel R. Brown, 159 Northwood, Rochester; and John L. Salter, 3172 Pebble, Bloomfield Township.

Principal candidates for two appointments to West Point from this area are John F. Anderson, 3905 Hazelton, Avon Township, and Ronald O. Holcomb, 6430 Houghten, Troy.

ALTERNATES
Among the alternates are Michael M. Kile, 1727 Washington, Birmingham; Brian G. Dates, 22512 Floral, Farmington; Richard L. Miller, 2716 Colonial Way, Bloomfield Township; and Michael A. Lawing, 29117 Barlett, Farmington Township.

Principal candidates for Annapolis are Paul M. Grahek, 35 Wenonah; Roger K. Roosa, 4033 Athens, Waterford Township, and Robert F. Gillon, 4142 Butternut Hill, Troy. Among the alternates are Charles F. VanLoan, 175 Chewton, and Stephen E. Zimmer, 2880 Middlebury, both of Bloomfield Township; Richard W. Redding Jr., 2507 Littlefield, and Keith A. Swanton, 7261 Tratham, both of West Bloomfield Township; Gerald W. Jenkins, 28602 East Kalong Circle, and Robert R. Genso, 21383 Mada, both of Southfield; Donald M. Hackbaird, 534 Middle, Highland Township; Bruce C. Adams, 23815 Wilmarth, Farmington; Richard P. Corte, 23912 Wesley, Farmington Township, and Ralph E. Reinhart III, of Hatchery, Waterford Township.

Viet Cong Bomb Injures 52 Yanks

Estes Predicts 1965 to Be Growth Year

Pointing out that earnings of Pontiac Motor Division hourly rated employees were at a record high in 1964, E. M. Estes, a General Motors Corp. vice president and general manager of the division, today predicted 1965 would be a "year of strong growth for us."

In a year-end statement, Estes said next year would not only be an "outstanding one" for Pontiac, but for the industry as well.

Weekly wages for General Motors wage earners averaged $147.13 in the first nine months of this year.

The national average for all factory workers, according to figures released last month by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, is $102.97.

Accompanying Pontiac's sales success in the market place has been a record payroll. Currently the division employs 18,000.

This total, Estes said, compares to an employment figure of 10,500 just two years ago.

"Traditionally, this is the time of year for looking ahead. But it is also the time to review the past year, since the future is built on the present as well as the past," Estes said in his year-end review.

RECORD RATE

"In order to supply our dealers and our customers, we currently are producing cars at a record rate. December could well be the biggest production month in our history and the first quarter of next year should be our best ever," he added.

With an eye toward the future, Estes said plant facilities were being increased.

"During the year we broke ground, or finished construction, on a number of projects in a vast expansion and improvement program. When this program is completed, we will have increased our manufacturing and warehousing facilities by nearly one-fourth," he asserted.

He pointed out that sales in both the 1964 model and calendar year were at an all-time high. He said he was confident that the current sales stimulus will continue.

"One yardstick for measuring our strength in the market place is by the number of unfilled customer orders we have on hand," Estes said.

Orders for Pontiacs and Tempests are currently more than double those of the corresponding period a year ago.

He said all indicators pointed toward a fourth consecutive good year for the automobile industry in general and Pontiac in particular.

Hotel Blasted in Downtown Part of Saigon

2nd Bomb Reported at Airfield; Security Increased for Officials

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bomb, presumably planted by the Viet Cong, blasted a U.S. military officers' hotel in Saigon today, injuring 52 Americans, the Pentagon was advised today.

The first report said there were no dead.

The building is in the heart of the city, near the Caravelle Hotel.

The Pentagon said initial reports sent here showed that in addition to the 52 Americans injured, one Australian officer and 15 Vietnamese were hurt.

It was reported from Saigon that the bomb was a 100-pound device set off in a car parked under the officers' quarters, known as the Brink Hotel.

Windows were shattered eight blocks away.

SECOND BOMB

There were reports a second bomb had been detonated at the airport headquarters of a U.S. Signal Battalion.

Security precautions were tightened at the quarters of U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the commander of U.S. forces in South Vietnam.

Thousands Homeless in West on Yule Eve

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Thousands of victims in five flood-stricken Western states were homeless on this Christmas Eve, and more joined in the exodus to escape new flooding as rain pounded the afflicted areas for the third consecutive day.

Soiled Christmas trees floated among the surging debris.

The savage Pacific storm sent dozens of mountain rivers spilling into scores of cities and towns in California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, and Idaho.

At least 28 persons have died and more than 5,000 left homeless. Damage has been so great that officials have stopped estimating.

Parts of every state have been declared disaster areas. Air Force, Navy, National Guard, Red Cross, Coast Guard, and Civil Defense units were working around the clock with local officials to rescue thousands.

Christmas Eve Will Wear New Mantle of Snow

Christmas Eve festivities will be brightened by a new mantle of snow tonight.

Today's rain will change to snow flurries, when temperatures turn colder tonight. The low expected is 25 to 33.

Colder with snow flurries is also the prediction for Christmas Day and Saturday. A high of 23 to 34 is forecast tomorrow.

Forty-four was the low mercury reading preceding 8 a.m. At 1 p.m. The Press thermometer read 51.

Area Churches Set Christmas Services

By MARY ANGLEMIER
Church Editor,
The Pontiac Press

Men, women and children of the Catholic and Protestant faiths will celebrate the birthday of Jesus Christ in services at Pontiac area churches tonight and tomorrow.

Many will also mark the occasion with festive dinners at home.

Candlelight services with music and, in many churches, a celebration of Holy Communion are scheduled.

MT. HOPE LUTHERAN
Rev. Donald Helland announces Christmas Eve Vesper will be at 7:30 in Mt. Hope Lutheran Church, 517 W. Walton.

Mt. Hope Church will mark its first Christmas observance with a prelude of Christmas hymns, the presentation of the Lessons by children and youth of the church and a medley of well-known Christmas carols sung by the congregation.

A service of Holy Communion will be celebrated at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
Midnight Mass will be followed by Masses at 1 and 1:30 a.m. in St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church.

Mass will be celebrated at 6, 7:30, 8:45, 10 and 11:30 a.m.; and 12:45 p.m. tomorrow.

BETHANY
A traditional Christmas Eve service will be held from 8 to 9 p.m.

The worship, conducted by candlelight, will consist of the singing of carols, music by the choir and the reading of the Scripture.

The service is open to the public, Pastor Emil Kontz said.

ST. HUGO IN THE HILLS
The boy's choir will lead in the processional and singing of carols at Midnight Mass in St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church, Bloomfield Hills.

The regular schedule for Sunday Masses will be observed tomorrow.

OUR LADY OF THE LAKES WATERFORD

The vested choir of Our Lady of the Lakes, Waterford, will sing Christmas carols at the Solemn High Mass at midnight.

A Mass of Thanksgiving will follow.

Christmas Day Masses will be at 6, 7:15, 8:30, 9:45 and 11:15 a.m.; and 12:30 p.m.

Pontiac Press Will Not Publish Christmas Day

The Press will not publish a Christmas Day edition tomorrow so that its employees may spend the holiday with their families.

Little Joy in Troubled Parts of World

By The Associated Press
Christians around the world prepared today to celebrate the joy of Christmas but in many areas troubled by controversy and fighting, joy remained only a hope.

Men were fighting and dying in the jungles of the Congo and Viet Nam in the Christmas of 1964. Yet most parts of the Christian world were at peace, however uneasy it might be.

"We must prepare ourselves well for Christmas, rekindling in our hearts the desire, the thirst, the anxiety for the living God and the blessed certainty of finding Christ, the God-made man," said Pope Paul VI in an audience at Vatican City.

From Washington, President Johnson sent "warmest Christmas greetings" to the 22,000 U.S. servicemen who are spending the holiday in Viet Nam fighting a war against communism.

More fortunate American servicemen elsewhere in the world were not engaged in open warfare.

SOUTH KOREA

In South Korea, another divided nation, U.S. servicemen will light a 20-foot cross on a hill overlooking Communist positions across the demilitarized zone.

The U.S. Army's Berlin brigade is playing host to more than 2,000 needy persons in West Berlin.

Thousands of West Berliners passed through the Berlin wall to spend the holiday with relatives in the Communist sector of the divided city.

In the holy city of Jerusalem, the wall between Jordan and Israel opened today to let Christian Arabs from Israel join their families in Jordan for Christmas.

Food Upsets the Tummies, but Not Yule

Nineteen Lake Orion School District schoolchildren almost had to spend Christmas in bed as a result of food poisoning yesterday afternoon.

The sick youngsters showed up at two Pontiac hospitals following a turkey-with-trimmings dinner at Carpenter Elementary School, 2990 Flintridge, Orion Township. They were among 50 to 75 children who became ill after the dinner.

All 19 were treated and released within a few hours.

Samples of the food served at the school were taken for testing, and Dr. W. F. Fidler of the Oakland County Department of Health pinpointed food poisoning as the cause of the sickness.

Dr. Fidler said this morning that tests indicated an "acute, self-limiting type of food poisoning that will cause no lasting effects."

Crash Hospitalizes Waterford Man

A Waterford Township man is in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital following an auto accident yesterday in Commerce Township.

Santo C. Pretto, 42, of 95 Edgelande, was traveling north on Hagerty near Walnut Lake Road when the accident occurred.

Sheriff's deputies said the car Pretto was driving went into the ditch on the east side of the road, crossed the road, went down a bank and hit a barn.

Youth Given Prison Term

A Pontiac Township youth was sentenced yesterday to 1½ years in the state prison at Jackson for malicious injury to personal property that resulted in an eye injury to a Detroit youth last summer.

The prison term was set for Gary Webb, 17, of 2730 Glen Rose, by Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

Webb pleaded guilty Dec. 4 to smashing the windows of a car with a baseball bat. The driver, James K. Gardner, 19, had to undergo eye surgery to remove imbedded glass.

The incident occurred in Pontiac June 7 following a minor traffic accident between Gardner's car and the one Webb was riding in.

Judge's Sentence Has Familiar Ring

A Ferndale man was, sentenced yesterday to his second 2½ year prison term in as many days.

Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt ordered the sentence for Ronald D. Ketchum, 26, for attempted uttering and publishing to run concurrently with the sentence handed down Tuesday by Judge William J. Beer.

Beer had sentenced Ketchum, 2735 Grayson, for leaving the scene of personal injury automobile accident.

Youths Take $130 off Oak Park Man

Four young men held up an Oak Park man at gunpoint last night and made off with $130 in cash.

Edward C. Bloom, 35, told police he was working at the Orchard Furniture Co., 164 Orchard Lake, when he heard the delivery door bell ring.

He said when he answered the door he was met by four young men, one carrying a pistol and another carrying a rifle.

The four forced him outside, took $130 from his wallet and fled on foot, Bloom told police.

Orion Twp. Woman Is Injured in Accident

Ethel M. Bates, 60, of 2410 Lapeer, Orion Township, is in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital following an auto accident yesterday morning in Orion Township.

Sheriff's deputies said the Bates auto skidded on Lapeer Road near Silverbell and struck the median.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

These two words have brought a million billion happy smiles.

Christmas around the world has the same connotations: a festival of joy. Every interprets Christmas in his individual way; the man on skid row takes another drink, the social worker brings food to hungry children, children sing songs of joy and rest of people in far away places with one eye on their loaded Christmas tree and mom and dad greet grandchildren, their parents and grandmother and grandfather. The house is sparkling clean, an aroma of cake and turkey permeates the air; friends call, are given gifts in memory of Him whose birthday they celebrate. In churches everywhere there are scenes of happiness, people greet each other with sincere joy in their hearts. On the streets, in the frosty air of night we hear the inspirational music of Christmas. It is indeed a joyous time.

We send to you all the best wishes of Christmas joy. May your day be filled with the essence of Christmas — peace and goodwill for all mankind.

Outstanding in Pontiac For Service and Facilities

May we take this opportunity to express to the many families of this community our appreciation for the confidence they have placed in us during this past year.

We have done all that we could to merit this confidence and have tried to serve as we would want to be served if the circumstances were reversed.

We have great faith in the future of Pontiac. Products of our industries are among the best. We have competent and honest professional and business men, a progressive and well-administered education system, and numerous and beautiful churches. The recent United Fund drive also proves that our citizens are sympathetic and responsible. Appreciating the opportunity to be a part of all this, we pledge to be continually progressive in our particular profession.

We wish for all the people of our community, as well as the Greater Pontiac Area, a very happy and significant Holiday Season. In this coming New Year may it be a reversal for those who suffered adversity in 1964. May it be continued success for those who were more fortunate.

Most Changes Small

Trading Dull on Mixed Mart

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was mixed in dull pre-holiday trading early today. Exchanges will be closed Friday in observance of Christmas. Fractional changes were the rule.

ACTIVE GAINER

Du Pont resumed its uptrend after interrupting it Wednesday. The stock rose more than a point.

COMSAT took a similar loss.

Big Three motors all lost

Small fractions. Steels were narrowly mixed.

Poland lost 2 points. IBM gained nearly a point. Many stocks were unchanged. The trend among oils, and mail order retail stocks was unchanged to slightly lower.

The three-day holiday week-end ahead prompted traders to even up their positions—off-setting losses with profit taking. But many Wall Streets were planning to get away from their job early and some commodity exchanges were shutting down after half a day.

Fulbright Quits Aid-Bill Job

'Not in Sympathy With Legislation'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., says he will no longer serve the administration's foreign-aid bill through the Senate, The Washington Post reported today.

Fulbright, as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, has borne the major responsibility in the Senate for legislation on the nation's international undertakings, including military and economic aid to other countries.

The Arkansas Democrat said he is out of sympathy with the way foreign-aid bills are handled.

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Santa's sleigh will be more jam-packed tonight with goodies than ever before. There will be one or more economic gains for almost every American—workers, investors, merchants, consumers, manufacturers, taxpayers—to mark a year that has been more than usually kind to most.

Wall Streeters are happy with the biggest volume of stock trading ever. For many brokerage house workers there are visions of big year-end bonuses.

Main Streeters are rejoicing in record retail sales—with no letdown yet in sight—and with customers upgrading their purchases this year.

Consumers are counting increased incomes from larger take-home pay or fees or investments. And they can be relieved to know that the cost of living, while still rising slowly, isn't trying to jump higher than Santa's reindeer, as some had feared earlier in the year.

Auto workers will be celebrating the most generous financial package their union and employers have ever put together.

STEELWORKERS

Steelworkers will be dreaming of an equally bountiful pay before spring. And their employers are enjoying record production and sales, rising profits, higher prices on some of their products, and smiles instead of frowns from the White House.

Many railroads are celebrating their return to higher ground of volume of business and profits, after years of being stalled in the lowlands.

Airlines, with most of their jets now paid for, are receiving the fruits of traffic growth and revenues in the form of profits instead of losses.

Manufacturers, as a whole, are doing more business and hiring more workers and planning larger and faster expansion than they were last Christmas.

taxpayers HAPPY

Millions of taxpayers are happy right now that the federal income tax rates have been lowered. And Santa will be reminding them tonight that the rates will be lowered a bit more in the New Year. There are also promises of cuts in other federal levies, such as the excise ones that resemble sales taxes.

These are the season's gifts that most Americans will be sharing, at least in part.

But Santa will be skipping some—the chivalrous, unemployed, those in the pockets of poverty, some pensioners, many who are ailing. Even these, he will be leaving pledges that efforts will be made to relieve their plight.

For the rest, for the majority, it will be a Merry Christmas!

STOCKHOLDERS REJOICE

Stockholders are rejoicing that dividends are running 10 percent above 1963, that year-end extras have been generous, and that the year has produced a spurt of stock splits, as well as generally higher stock prices than a year ago.

Savers are all set to get higher interest on their savings accounts.

Borrowers are content after their fashion that there is plenty of money to finance their projects and purchases and that charges haven't gone up as they threatened to a time.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q: "I am a working girl of twenty, just beginning to save money. I would like your advice on how to invest it for the future. I am undecided as to whether to start a savings account or to invest in stocks. Can you advise me as to what to do?"

O. B.

A: I believe you should build up a savings account, adequate for all possible contingencies, before you buy any stocks. These have only one feature in common, namely, that they fluctuate, sometimes very widely.

You should never rely on stocks to raise funds during an emergency. There is no exact rule of thumb, but in your case, presumably with no one to consider but yourself, I would regard one-half a year's wages as an adequate reserve.

Claim Indonesia Troops Are Massing on Border

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (UPI)—Malaysian officials charged today that regular Indonesian troops are massing along the Malaysian border on Borneo and on island invasions bases of the Malay Peninsula.

The officials indicated that any full-scale attack by Indonesian troops would be countered by retaliatory raids against invasion bases.

reported to the U.N. Security Council.

Ismael declined to say exactly at what stage Malaysian retaliation would be triggered. But he said it would have to be an invasion bigger than Indonesia's past operations.

The home minister said Indonesian troops were building up strength along the 900-mile border between the two nations.

Ismael said the island invasion bases "are full." He appealed to Malaysians "to be calm in the face of this increased threat and to be vigilant to keep security forces informed of new landings."

Gordon Sees Big GM Year

DETROIT (AP)—President John F. Gordon of General Motors Corp. predicted "another good year" for the company in 1965 in a Christmas party talk Wednesday.

Gordon, who is retiring next April under GM's age 55 retirement policy, said he wished he could "look back at the 1965 accomplishments."

Reviewing 1964, Gordon said it was a record year for General Motors despite "long and difficult labor negotiations" and last fall's strike. The United Auto Workers struck GM over new contract terms.

"Throughout the world," Gordon said, "we provided more jobs than ever before, paid our employees and stockholders more money than ever before and, for the third year in a row, set new records in both sales and earnings."

5 Million to Display

State Christmas Trees. EAST LANSING (AP)—This Christmas, nearly five million homes will be displaying Michigan Christmas trees—nearly one million more than last year, a Michigan State University agricultural economist says.

R. T. Hartwig, stationed at Marquette, said that Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin together produce and sell one-third of the Christmas trees used in the United States each December.

Can Accept 'Friendly' Gifts—Navy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy says it's okay for its personnel to accept gifts from people doing business with the Defense Department—provided it is a "customary exchange of social amenities between personal friends and relatives."

This ruling, issued earlier in the month, came in time to cover Christmas giving. However, it is intended to apply much more widely than that.

In effect, the Navy relaxed a bit a stern "standards of conduct" directive put out by the Defense Department in late September.

The Defense Department ordered that virtually all individual discretion in the matter and just about banned all gift-accepting by military and civilian personnel from persons or firms doing business with the Pentagon.

RATHER HARSH

Questions were raised at the time as to whether the Pentagon order didn't dent rather harshly in cases where people on the defense payroll happened to have old friends or relatives working for defense contractors.

After pondering this, officials told newsmen that that a military man or civilian employee would have to decide for himself whether the donor of a gift or entertainment was "a person of integrity."

The Navy allowed its people some leeway when it formulated its own instructions to carry out the over-all defense "standards of conduct" directive.

Also excluded were "specialty advertising items of trivial intrinsic value."
