Nab Turnpike Killing Suspect

Arrested After 20-Mile Chase in New Mexico, Man Claims Innocence

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — John Wesley Wable, 24, was arrested late last night on a Pennsylvania warrant charging him with the "Phantom of the Turnpike" murders after a 20-mile chase by New Mexico state police.

Wable, described as "highly dangerous," told a reporter a few hours after his capture as he lay shivering in a small, dark cell in the Bernalillo County Jail:

"I'm not guilty. I don't know anything about the murders. I'm just cold and tired."

Only a while before the lanky, medium-sized Wable had led state police a high-speed automobile chase and then escaped on foot after two companions "who I picked up in California" were captured.

Wable finally was captured when a woman notified police she had seen him hitchhiking on the outskirts of Belen. He gave up without a struggle.

He is accused of shooting Harry F. Pitts, 39, Bowling Green, Va., and Lester B. Woodward, 39, Duncannon, Pa., last July on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, a 327-mile superhighway running from the Ohio border to near Philadelphia.

The two truck drivers were shot in the head as they slept in their parked trucks. Their bodies were found within three days of each other. Police said they had been robbed.

Wable, alone in the 4-by-7-foot, lightless cell, denied knowing anything about the foreign-made pistol used in the two killings and believed to be his.

"I don't know anything about any gun," he said. "I'm just cold."

Sheriff's officers said Wable threatened to kill himself and was put in solitary confinement. Wable, lying down with his knees huddled about his body for warmth, said:

"I told them if I'm ever found guilty of any kind of murder, then I'd kill myself. I'd hang myself. I didn't mean I'd kill myself now. But I'm innocent."

He said he'd left Pennsylvania "Monday a week in a car I borrowed from a friend after a drinking spree." He said he didn't know anything about the car being stolen.

"I went to California where I picked up the two guys," he said. "Then I was heading back to Pennsylvania."

The two picked up with Wable were Marvin H. Parson and a 17-year-old boy. Both gave their addresses as California, but would give no home town.

Cardinal Off for Rome; First Leg by Helicopter

NEW YORK (UP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman left Sunday — by helicopter—on his first leg of a trip to Rome.

The cardinal was whisked away from a parking lot in the heart of New York in a helicopter that took him to Idlewild International Airport to board a transatlantic airliner.

Commies Say They Are Set for PW Talks

U. N. Charges Shipping of Aircraft Into Korea by Reds

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The Communists indicated today they are ready to start interviews Wednesday for North Korean and Chinese war prisoners who refuse to return home. The POW repatriation commission took steps to get the delay-plagued explanations under way.

The development came amidst charges by the U. N. Command that the Reds had shipped crated combat aircraft into North Korea in violation of the armistice terms.

A UNC spokesman said an "urgent request" for investigation had been handed the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission, the fournation body charged with policing the truce.

However, at the same time, Gen. John E. Hull, new U. N. Far Eastern commander, told newsmen he knew of "no serious" violations of the armistice by the Communists.

"There have been some indications of violations," he said, "but I know of no serious ones at present."

The U. N. members of the Military Armistice Commission asserted in a statement that the Communists had shipped the crated aircraft from Manchuria to Uiju airfield on the south side of the Yalu River, just a few miles from the huge Red air base at Antung, Manchuria.

The U. N. statement gave no numbers of type.

Hull flew to Korea Monday in his first visit to the battered peninsula since taking over the top U. N. Command post from Gen. Mark W. Clark.

He first met with South Korean President Syngman Rhee in Seoul, then went to the Allied base camp at Munsan for conferences with Allied officers over the postponed "explanations" to reluctant POWs.

Spokesmen for the repatriation commission remained silent, but these signs pointed to a break in the dispute that has stalled the start of explanations since Sept. 26.

Group Suspends Eligibility Rule

But Status of 10 Youths Who Accepted Awards Is Still in Doubt

LANSING (AP)—A legislative committee today suspended the Michigan High School Athletic eligibility rule but left in doubt the status of 10 youths who had been declared ineligible for accepting merchandise awards.

Members of the legislative administrative rules committee said there is legal confusion over whether their action automatically reinstates the 10 youngsters, but that probably they will have to go to court.

George C. Dean of Hastings, attorney for six of the youths, said he had not determined their legal status yet but that he believed a court suit would be necessary.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron), the committee chairman, after a two-hour closed session said, "we have gone as far as we can go. We have suspended the rule and that's as far as our authority goes."

The committee action was a rebuke to Dr. Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public education, who last week refused to reinstate the boys despite a rehearing on their cases and an earlier meeting of the committee at which suspension of the rule was threatened.

Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville), a committee member, told Dean in the presence of reporters that there were strong doubts of the constitutionality of the legislative committee and that if the case went to the courts there was a possibility the committee's authority to suspend state agency rules would be voided.

Tito Is Seeking 4-Power Parley on Trieste Case

Also Informs U. N. That Row About Territory Threatens Peace

(From AP & UP Dispatches)

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UP) — A Belgrade mob seriously beat an American diplomat today in the most serious incident since the United States and Great Britain decided to turn their zone of Trieste over to Italy.

At the same time President Marshal Tito called for an urgent conference with the United States, Britain and Italy on the crisis and informed the United Nations that the Trieste situation is a threat to peace.

Angry demonstrators stormed the United States Information Service building and beat information officer William B. King, who was an Associated Press correspondent during World War II.

They seized news bulletins and burned them in a bonfire while others stormed the British reading room.

King suffered a possible broken nose and the United States Embassy made a "stern" protest to the foreign office.

It was announced that, in addition to reinforcing his occupation troops in the Yugoslav area of Trieste—Zone B—Tito has moved warships into Capodistria Harbor, about 10 miles down the coast from Trieste city. It was reported they included 15 motor torpedo boats and two sloops.

Tito, in his new double-action diplomatic move, first sent a note to the United States and British Embassies proposing the four-power conference.

He called the decision to turn over the Allied Zone A to Italy "a

Columbus Day No Holiday for Pontiac Kids

Pontiac school children are saluting today a chap who has caused them more trouble than any other fellow.

The person in question is Christopher Columbus, whose exploit in finding America in 1492 has been a standard school test question for decades.

Although students are observing Columbus Day in their classrooms, officials apparently figure that if Columbus hadn't discovered the New World some othe. fellow would have.

For Columbus Day is not a legal holiday and banks, along with federal, state, county and city offices, are open today.

Quiz Programs May Be Banned

Supreme Court Agrees to Review U. S. Efforts to Outlaw Giveaways

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today agreed to review government efforts to ban radio and television giveaway shows.

The Federal Communications Commission appealed to the high tribunal after a special three-judge federal court in New York said the ban should apply only where contestants were (A) required to furnish money or anything of value, or (B) have in their possession a sponsor's product.

The special court knocked out a commission ban on program schemes which directly or indirectly require audiences to listen to shows as a condition of being eligible to win prizes.

The commission rules were intended to enforce a federal law which forbids the broadcast of lotteries and similar schemes. Stations which do not comply would be denied renewal of their licenses. But the ban was held in abeyance pending final Supreme Court action on the FTC appeal.

National Broadcasting Co., Columbia Broadcasting System, and American Broadcasting Co. opposed a Supreme Court review of the case. In briefs filed with the high court they asked an immediate order upholding the special court's decision, without the customary hearing of arguments.

In another action, James P. Finnegan, a confidant of former President Truman, today was refused a Supreme Court review of his conviction for misconduct as internal revenue collector in St. Louis.

Finnegan was sentenced to two years in prison and fined $10,000 on two charges of receiving money for aiding two firms in dealings with the federal government.

Frank Flagels, Navy Vet, Dies of Polio Attack

Police Hunting 2 Convicts Who Escaped Prison Camp

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A state-wide search is on today for two convicts who escaped from a controversial state work camp and abducted two men and a 15-year-old boy in their flight from Traverse City to Grand Rapids.

State Police identified the convicts as Daniel S. Ockerman, 32, sentenced from Kalamazoo in 1950, and Gerald Ainsworth, alias George Albend, 36, a Detroiter sentenced from Macomb County in 1944. Both were serving 1½ to 15 years for burglary.

Ockerman and Ainsworth escaped Saturday night from a Conservation Department work camp at Hickory Hills outside Traverse City.

Scarcely more than an hour before Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, president of the National Music Camp at Interlochen, had obtained an injunction against the state's continuing construction of a work camp which the two had been helping to build for themselves and others now at Hickory Hills.

Maddy complained the new camp, La Victoire, would be less then four miles from the music camp and that escapees would be a menace to the hundreds of girls and boys who go there every summer.

Circuit Judge Charles Brown ordred the state to show cause Oct. 16 why the injunction should not be made permanent.

UF Announces Plant Captains

Leaders to Supervise Contacting of Employes in Area Industries

Pontiac Area United Fund today announced captains who will supervise contacting of employes in Pontiac Manufacturers Association plants during the 1953 fund drive Oct. 20-Nov. 6.

Earl A. Maxwell, personnel director of GMC Truck and Coach Division, is chairman of the campaign's industrial division.

Factories which are not members of the Pontiac Manufacturers Association are meeting with Maxwell today to map campaign plans within their plants.

Plant captains named for association factories include John F. E. Brady for Pontiac Motor Division; Owen J. O'Neill, GMC Truck and Coach Division, and Henry Stack, Fisher Body Division, General Motors.

Jig Bushing Company's captain is Thomas Mair; Nelson Manufacturing Company leader is Roland L. Larson.

Harold J. Bauer will supervise employe contacting in Pontiac Varnish Co.; Leslie R. Ware, Universal Oil-Seal Co., and Donald Rosie, Wilson Foundry.

Predicts Budget to Stay in Red

Director Dodge Holds Little Hope for Balanced Books Before 1956

DETROIT (UP)—Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge held out little hope today for a balanced budget before fiscal 1956 despite "vigorous" efforts at governmental economy.

Expenditures already authorized by law, he said, will hit their peak this year and next while at the same time the government will be faced with reduced income from authorized tax reductions.

"If the revenue conditions remain favorable, the tax reductions now in the law will cause an estimated loss of revenue in that year (1955, equal to or exceeding the amount of savings we expect to make in this year's expenditures," he said.

"This means that the budget balancing problem in the 1955 fiscal year (beginning July, 1954) is at least the same in magnitude as the one we faced this year," Dodge told the Economic Club of Detroit.

"There will be the same vigorous effort to meet it, but the farther you go on the road to government economy, the more difficult it becomes," he said.

He indicated the biggest cuts will have to come from the defense items in the national budget which now account for 70 per cent of all government expenditures.

Hall Confesses He Killed Bobby; Over State Line

FBI Returns to Case as Drug Addict, Alcoholic Describes Murder

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Dope addict Carl Austin Hall and his alcoholic woman friend confessed today they plotted 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease's slaying even before he was kidnaped.

The government immediately stepped back into the case under the Lindbergh kidnaping law.

The 34-year-old Hall, a ne'er-do-well son of a respected Kansas family, and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41, signed statements saying they took little Bobby across the state line into Kansas where Hall killed him shortly after the kidnaping in Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 28.

Hall, in his new confession, admitted he fired a bullet into the right side of the little boy's head. Only a short time before Bobby had been playing with schoolmates. It was Mrs. Heady who lured Bobby from a nun at the boy's school on the pretext she was his aunt.

Their confessions were announced by the FBI, which said the two kidnapers admitted digging the boy's grave behind Mrs. Heady's home in St. Joseph, Mo., before the kidnaping.

Thus the couple plotted the little boy's death even before the kidnaping took place. The FBI disclosed the lime found over Bobby's body was bought before the kidnaping.

The FBI said it has been determined that the boy, abducted from an exclusive private Catholic school, had been killed about 12 miles from Kansas City across the line in Kansas.

As a result the Lindbergh Law applies. It carries a possible death penalty when the victim is harmed.

Earlier when it appeared no state line had been crossed the government had decided to turn prosecution of Hall and Mrs. Heady over to the state of Missouri. State charges of both kidnaping and murder are pending against the pair.

Hall absolved Tom Marsh, 37, the tattooed ex-convict and sex offender, in his new confession. He had been named by Hall as the killer of the boy soon after Hall's and Mrs. Heady's arrest here last Tuesday night.

The FBI said a mechanical pencil of a type known to have been in little Bobby's possession

Outlook for Area: Cloudy and Cooler

Partly cloudy and cooler weather is the outlook for the Pontiac area tonight and tomorrow, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau.

The low tonight of 38 to 42 degrees is expected to rise to a high near 60 on Tuesday.

Sunday, the mercury climbed from a low of 51 to a high of 76 degrees.

Today at 8 a.m. the temperature stood at 48, but by 2 p.m. in downtown Pontiac the reading was 61 degrees.

AEC Committee Head Urges U.S. to Put H-Bomb on Wartime Urgency Status

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY) said today the United States should assign wartime urgency to its hydrogen bomb program because, he said, Russia may shortly have "hundreds or even thousands" of H-bombs.

Cole, chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee said the Soviets "exploded a hydrogen weapon" two months ago today, and he declared:

"If our own hydrogen effort falters, as it must not and need not, the Soviets have it within their capacity to outstrip us — and outstrip us decisively — within a relatively short period of time.

"Here is the stark arithmetic of the matter: Seven years elapsed between Hiroshima and our own hydrogen test of last fall; four years elapsed between the first Russian A-bomb that we detected and Moscow's hydrogen test. These are not very comforting statistics.

"The Soviets have progressed with unexpected speed because they have assigned supreme and overriding priority to their project from the very outset."

Cole, whose committee position brings him up-to-date information on the U. S. atomic program, spoke out in a speech prepared for a meeting of state and national officers of the American Legion.

America's atomic stockpile is large enough "to inflict devastating reprisal on any aggressor" who dares attack, he said, adding:

"But is our existing atomic and hydrogen effort big enough and bold enough to answer the challenge of the hour? My own reply is no . . .

He urged "a hydrogen effort comparable in scale, dollars, resources, daring and speed to our entire atomic effort of World War II."

Cole said that "perhaps . . . the most ominous point of all" about the Soviet H-bomb test is this:

"It more and more appears that the harnessing of hydrogen energy for military uses may be far easier than was commonly supposed a few years ago.

"If hydrogen weapons could be manufactured only at great cost, and with great effort, we might console ourselves with the notion that the Soviets could manufacture these dreadful weapons only in small quantities.

"But I fear the real facts are quite otherwise."

Cole presumably referred to reliable reports that U. S. scientists have found a way to trigger the H-bomb without employing the tremendous heat of a conventional A-bomb.

Weekend Traffic Accidents Take 12 Lives in Michigan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

At least 12 persons died in traffic accidents and one hunter died of accidental gunshot wounds in Michigan over the weekend.

Traffic victims to be reported included Mrs. Veda Main, 25, of Lansing, killed early Sunday in a two-car collision on US27 14 miles northeast of Charlotte.

Indalesio Polendo, 28, of Marshall, was killed Sunday as his car swerved off a rural road and smashed into a tree on a curve three miles southeast of Marshall.

Joe Pasyk, 62, of Toledo, was fatally injured as a car driven by his daughter, Mrs. Alice Heinemann, also of Toledo, failed to make a curve on a rural road between Monroe and the Ohio state line Sunday night.

Howard J. Danbeck, 23, of Brooklyn, Mich., became Jackson County's 35th traffic victim of the year when he was killed Sunday. His car went out of control and struck a tree a mile north of Brooklyn on M50.

John T. Demchuk, 17, of Detroit, was killed Sunday when his motorcycle rammed a car on M97 in Warren Township.

Russell Hoge, 28, of Lapeer, died Sunday in a Flint Hospital of injuries suffered when his garbage truck hit a pole at Lapeer Saturday.

Birmingham to Consider Report on Rouge Pollution, Zoning Ordinance Change

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM—Zoning changes and sewage will be the two main topics at tonights city commission meeting.

City manager Donald C. Egbert will present the report on Rouge River pollution he plans to give the State Water Resources Commission Oct. 30.

It contains a request for an extension until May 1, 1954, for Birmingham's final decision of whether the city will try to solve the Rouge pollution problem on its own, or in conjunction with other areas in an interceptor sewer up the Rouge.

Egbert also will recommend the annexation of a part of Troy Township north of Buckingham, east of Adams and west of the Grand Trunk railroad, so sanitary facilities may be extended to the area rather than have it develop with septic tanks.

On the zoning part of the agenda, the lawmakers will take up requested rezoning of 595 S. Bates, and rezoning of property on the east side of Adams road, from Lincoln avenue to the Porritt property.

Also a change from income bungalow to business A for four lots of the Birmingham Woodward subdivision, and a proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance permitting construction of two family dwellings in income bungalow areas will be considered.

Fowler Gets Ouster Letter

Birmingham Postmaster Plans to Fight Removal, Hires Two Lawyers

BIRMINGHAM — Bernard E. Fowler, Birmingham postmaster, today announced that he has received official word from Washington informing him of his removal from office.

The communication came from the office of N. R. Abrams, assistant U. S. Postmaster general.

The notification stated that the reason for the firing was "a result of unsatisfactory conditions disclosed in a recent investigation at your office."

The communication informed Fowler that a successor would be appointed at an early date.

Fowler revealed that he has hired two attorneys to check into his right to appeal the action under Civil Service law. He said he plans to fight the ouster.

Initial word of Fowler's removel came Thursday from Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Mich). "Postmaster irregularites" were cited as reasons for the action.

Fowler, 55, a disabled World War I veteran, has been postmaster here since 1948.

Police Hunt Felons Who Escape Camp

Ainsworth forced Claude Snow, 61; Harold Bowman, 29, and Kenneth Day, 15 to drive them to Grand Rapids.

Walking away from the prison camp after an 8:30 p.m. bed-check the two encountered Snow and Boman outside a restaurant and forced them into Snow's car, with orders to obey traffic signals and drive toward Kingsley.

As he drove near his Traverse City home, Snow asked permission to tell his family he had been called out of town. The convicts let him stop, but made him yell his message. When Day walked out of the house, they ordered him into the car and made Snow drive off.

En route the men recounted their escape. And when they got to Grand Rapids they took $11 off Snow before leaving the car in midtown.

Hay From Wreck Sold Quickly on the Site

SEDALIA, Mo. (UP)—R. E. Callen discovered an eager market for his hay the hard way. His truck, piled high with the stuff and en route to another county, cracked an axle and toppled over a few miles north of this Pettis County seat.

Almost immediately, hay-hungry farmers began converging on the trucker, who escaped injury. Before either the highway patrol or a wrecker arrived, Callen had sold his load.

"I didn't know Pettis County needs hay so badly," he said. "I had several offers almost before the truck stopped rolling on its side."

situation which is likely to endanger the maintenance of international peace and security."

He said that if a friendly settlement could not be reached, Yugoslavia will "have recourse to self-defense by all possible means."

Secondly, Tito in a 2,000-word cablegram formally advised the U.N. that "a danger to peace" exists in Trieste because of the Allied action.

This would mean an appeal to the Security Council for emergency action.

But Tito told the Western powers that the four-power conference he proposes might forestall the necessity for U.N. action.

If Italy carries out the Allied decision on Zone A—that is, moves troops into it—Yungoslavia will regard it as "the passing over to open aggressive action by the Republic of Italy," the note said.

A copy of it was sent to the Italian Embassy.

Tito stressed that his proposal for a four-power conference is "a very urgent one."

A U.S. protest against today's attack evoked a reply that Yugoslavia could not guarantee the safety of the 200 Americans living in Belgrade.

The British - American announcement that they would turn over Zone A to the Italians had touched off violent riots in Belgrade Thursday night during which the British and American Embassies, their information offices and the Italian Legation were stoned and their windows smashed.

The attack on King was the first anti-Western violence since then, however, though huge crowds of Yugoslavs paraded in orderly demonstrations against the Trieste action yesterday.

Following the rioting Thursday night, the government had thrown protective cordons around the U. S., British and Italian installations but these were later withdrawn.

The American Embassy's public affairs chief, John McGowan, called at the Yugoslav Foreign Office after the attack on King and protested it as a "very serious situation." He reported that the minstry's protocol office had expressed its apologies for the assault.

Tito's speech yesterday was followed a few hours later by cancellation of all military leaves. An American observer reported Yugoslav troops, tanks and artillery were converging on the Trieste territory, where the end of World War II installed Yugoslavia in the southern Zone B and permitted her 5,000 occupation troops there.

Yugoslav roads near the Trieste and Italian borders were reported clogged with soldiers.

In Rome, Premier Giuseppe Pella's government made no reply to Tito and was reported taking the attitude that the Yugoslav threats were something for Britain and America to worry about.

Nor was there any indication in Rome that Italy was sending more troops to her northeast frontier with Yugoslavia, where the finest soldiers of the NATO-pledged Italian Army already are stationed. Reports from the area said not even routine weekend leaves had been cancelled.

No Italian troops had entered the Trieste territory yet, but Washington sources expected the U. S. and British forces would not be withdrawn until the Italian soldiers had moved in.

In Trieste, Italians and Yugoslavs watched each other through barbwire road blocks closing the zonal frontier but there was little evidence of nervousness.

Pair Plotted Death Before Kidnaping

at the time of his abduction was found at the murder site. The pencil had been put out by the Greenlease Motor Co. as an advertisement.

The boy's 71-year-old multi-millionaire father, Robert C. Greenlease, runs the motor car company. Greenlease paid a $600,000 ransom in an effort to get his boy back.

The pivotal point leading to the new confession appeared to hinge on a .38 caliber gun found on Hall when he was arrested here in a swanky apartment rented for him by a taxicab driver, who later became suspicious because of Hall's spending spree and tipped off police.

The gun was turned over to the FBI by St. Louis Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell. Ballistic tests in Washington showed slugs found in a blue station wagon of the couple were fired from the weapon.

The station wagon was found abandoned in Kansas City soon after the arrest of the pair here.

When arrested here Hall had more than $295,000 in two suitcases in his apartment. He said he couldn't remember what had happened to the rest of it because he had been on a drinking spree.

But today the FBI indicated Hall, a drug addict, had given its agents additional information about the missing ransom money. They were not too hopeful the money could be recovered.

Both Hall and Mrs. Heady at first insisted she was an innocent pawn in the kidnaping. Hall claimed that she abducted the boy from a private Catholic school the morning of Sept. 28 by posing as the boy's aunt on the belief Bobby was his son, in the custody of a former wife.

The station wagon, the FBI said, had blood stains.

When confronted with the new evidence, Hall and Mrs. Heady broke down and told what had happened.

Joseph E. Thornton, FBI agent in charge at St. Louis, said he didn't know how many slugs had been fired into the station wagon nor whether the boy actually was killed in it.

Mrs. Heady, in her signed confession, admitted she was with Hall at the time of the killing.

Mrs. Heady, an alcoholic, at first claimed she was so drunk at the time the ransom money was dropped over a bridge near Kansas City by a representative of Greenlease that she didn't even remember anything about it.

Hall, a man of thinning hair, is held in cell No. 40 at the St. Louis City Jail. He is under guard day and night and is kept away from other prisoners for his own safety, Warden E. E. Hensley of the jail reported.

Mrs. Heady is confined in another part of the jail in a large room with four other women prisoners. A spotlight is played on her bed, in the center of the room, throughout the nights so that she might be kept under constant observation.

There was no announcement as to when the pair will be taken to Kansas City.

Russia to Receive Big 4 Talk Invitation

PARIS (UP)—The United States, Britain and France have agreed to issue a new invitation to Russia to attend a Big Four foreign ministers conference on Germany and Austria next month, a high allied source said tonight.

The Western proposal will be contained in a new note—the latest in a long series—which will be transmitted to Moscow later this week, the source said.

The note will suggest that the meeting be held at Lugano, Switzerland, during the second week of November, it was reported.

The United States, British and French governments previously had invited the Russians to attend a foreign ministers meeting at Lugano Oct. 15, but the Soviets evaded the issue.

MISS MARY S. HERRINGTON

Boy, 4, Attacked by Great Dane

Child Suffers Serious Head Gashes in Ordeal at Traverse City

TRAVERSE CITY (UP) — A 4-year-old Flat Rock boy is in a hospital here suffering from head wounds inflicted by a Great Dane dog. One gash measured seven inches.

The child is Ralph Sheer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sheer, and the dog which attacked him is owned by their brother-in-law, Francis Newman.

The giant dog apparently attacked because of excitement and fear that his nine-year-old master, Leroy Newman, was going to be harmed by the smaller child.

Leroy shouted and ran after the Sheer boy as he scampered into a street. In the excitement the dog snapped the chain that held him and dashed by Leroy, sinking his fangs into the boy.

Newman sent the dog to a pound for observation, although he had been vacinated with anti-rabies serum. After the observation period Newman said he planned to have the animal destroyed, "because I don't want it any more."

kin Township, was killed in suburban Detroit Saturday as he was struck by a car.

Two 28-year-old Galien men died Saturday when their car rammed a concrete bridge abutment at Niles. They were: Arthur M. Klingerman and Robert Clark.

Myrtle Kirtley, 52, of Okemos, was killed Saturday near Lansing as her car went out of control and hit a tree off M78.

Elmer Jacobs, 84, of Albion, died Sunday of injuries suffered Tuesday when he was struck by a car in downtown Albion.

John Copeland, 18, of White Cloud, was fatally wounded Sunday in what police described as "horseplay with a shotgun." The gun was accidentally discharged at the home of James W. Lewis in Romulus Township, outside Detroit.

Veteran Nurse Dies at 95 in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—Jennie A. Farnham, a Community Health Service nurse here until she was 87, died Saturday night at the age of 95.

A native of Ionia County, Miss Farnham was instrumental in setting up the clinic for infant feeding in Grand Rapids in 1914, and helped to organize three other children's clinics.

Girl, 4, Treated for Cuts After Being Hit by Car

Mary Christine Johnson, 4, of 155 Branch St., was treated for cuts and bruises at Pontiac General Hospital Sunday after she was hit by an auto at Clovese and Branch Sts.

Driver of the auto, Evelyn Wood, 18, of 230 W. Wilson Ave., told Pontiac Police the child ran in front of the auto.

concessions" and start interviewing the 22,600 anti-Communist POWs Wednesday in an effort to persuade them to accept repatriation.

2. The Indian command said the rules for "explanations" had been read to all the POWs. Last week a Indian spokesman said the reading of the rules would be held up until just a few days before the interviews were to start.

The explanations by Communist and Allied teams were postponed after each side rejected facilities built by the other. The Communists demanded detailed changes.

The UNC completed 20 temporary "explanation" booths Sunday for Red use, but the Indian command said the Communists wanted a complete camp of 32 winterized tents before starting the "explanations."

Briggs Plans to Quit as Bloomfield Mayor

Walter O. (Spike) Briggs Jr., president of the Detroit Tigers, reportedly plans to resign as mayor of Bloomfield Hills.

He was quoted as saying, "I haven't got the time to do the job to my own satisfaction."

The City Commission is expected to act on his resignation Tuesday.

Briggs served on the City Commission since April, 1947. He was appointed as mayor by the commission last April.

Educator Dies in Pontiac Home

Miss Mary S. Herrington Was Bagley Principal for Many Years

Miss Mary S. Herrington, 89, principal of Bagley School here for many years, died Sunday at her residence, 105 Franklin Blvd.

Miss Herrington was born in Four Towns on Feb. 13, 1864, the daughter of E. C. and Sarepta Warren Herrington.

Although she resided at the Franklin Boulevard address for over 40 years, she still felt a deep interest in the community of Four Towns where her father and grandfather resided. Four years ago, she and a sister, Mrs. Elmer Charles, donated several acres of land for a community center there.

In 1947, City Commissioner William W. Donaldson suggested changing the name of Diston and Gillespie streets to Herrington avenue as a tribute to the Pontiac school teacher. Donaldson cited Miss Herrington as one of Pontiac's "leading citizens."

According to Board of Education records Miss Herrington started her teaching career in Petoskey in 1885, after graduating from Pontiac High School. She came to Pontiac schools in 1901 and served most of her time as head of Bagley School until her retirement in 1924.

A resident of Pontiac most of her life, she was a member of the First Congregational Church.

Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Grace Charles of Pontiac.

Funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Sparks-Griffin Chapel. Burial will take place at Four Towns Cemetery, with the Rev. Malcolm K. Burton of the First Congregational Church officiating.

Mrs. Berthilda L. Coan

Mrs. Berthilda Light Coan, 83, of 1258 Spruce St., Detroit, died Sunday at Receiving Hospital, Detroit.

She was born in Canada on April 1, 1870, the daughter of Leonard and Hannah Pearson Morden. She married John Coan in Detroit in 1951.

Surviving besides her husband are three daughters and two sons, Mrs. Etta Gartung of Auburn, Mrs. Lefa Stewart of Rochester, Mrs. Alice Krause of Traverse City, Fred Light of Detroit, and Delbert Light of Grand Rapids.

Funeral will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. from the Pursley Funeral Home. Burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery, with the Rev. Paul Havens of the First Methodist Church officiating.

Baby Girl Beckett

The infant daughter of Herman and Alice Taylor Beckett of 2445 Snellbrook was dead at birth Sunday at Pontiac General Hospital.

Surviving besides her parents is a sister, Carol, at home.

Funeral will be Tuesday at 1 p.m. from the Huntoon Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Perry Mount Park Cemetery, with the Rev. Andrew Creswell of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church officiating.

Mrs. Lucy Jane Wheatley

Mrs. Lucy Jane Wheatley, 75, died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Irene Engholm of 344 Going St.

Mrs. Wheatley was born in Elsberry, Mo., on May 20, 1878, the daughter of Alexander and Fannie Watts Benear.

A resident of Pontiac for 23 years, she was a member of the New Hope Baptist Church of Elsberry.

Surviving are two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Frances DeSmith of Indiana, Mrs. Engholm of Pontiac, Charles Wheatley of Cudahy, Wis., and William Wheatley of Clarkston. Also surviving is a brother, Martin Taylor Benear of St. Louis, Mo.

Funeral will be Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the Pursley Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Perry Mount Park Cemetery, with the Rev. George Garver of the Ascension Lutheran Church officiating.

Say Ukraine Red Party Undergoes Change

MOSCOW (UP) — The Ukraine Communist Party has been reorganized along the lines of the all-union party, the newpaper Ukranian Pravda Ukrainy has announced.

The paper reported yesterday the action was taken at a full meeting of the Ukraine Central Committee which ended Saturday. The meeting heard a report by First Secretary A. I. Kirichenko on all-union organizations. "Appropriate decrees" were adopted, the paper said.

Tavern Bandit Steals a Kiss After Hold-Up

CHICAGO (UP)—A kissing robber took time out during a tavern holdup early Sunday to kiss a woman patron.

The gunman, a teenage youth with a missing front tooth, placed a smack on the cheek of Mrs. Edward Stalder, 33, after scooping $225 from the cash register of a tavern on the northwest side. Then he robbed her husband, Edward, 35, of $40 and took $10 from another customer. He fled with two companions.

The three robbers also held up two other taverns.

French Farmers Block Highways

Protest Gap Between Prices From Them to Consumers

LUSIGNAN, France (UP)—Farmer Pierre Rousseau dragged a two-wheeled farm cart onto Highway No. 11 this morning, stood defiantly in the middle of the road, raised his right arm and shouted to his comrades: "To the barricades!"

At least 200 farmers took up the inspiring cry that once rang throughout France during the French Revolution nearly two centuries ago.

They began tugging and pulling at carts, wagons and all kinds of farm machinery. A huge, broken down thresher was dragged across the highway.

Within minutes, National Highway No. 11 was solidly blocked at a point seven miles west of this village.

No one was allowed to pass and trucks and automobiles soon lined up on both sides of the barricade.

Thousands of other farmers throughout central and southwest France were shouting the same defiant call early this morning. They blocked both main and secondary roads leading into the heart of France's farm belt.

They were protesting against the wide gap between the prices they get for their produce and the prices consumers are paying for it.

"This is only the beginning," said one cattleman. "We'll go all the way to Paris if it is necessary."

"We are not satisfied with the government," said one farmer, but he denied that Communists were involved in the demonstration.

The farmers are seeking relief from taxation and middleman profits. They say these multiply the cost of beef on the hoof at least five times before it reaches the consumer.

Detroit Bar Backs Airman

Lt. Radulovich Accused by Association, Lawyers Subcommittee Says

DETROIT (UP) — Lt. Milo J. Radulovich of Dexter, charged with being a poor security risk because of the alleged Communist leaning of his father and sister, had the support of the Detroit Bar Association today in his fight to retain his reserve commission in the Air Force.

Probate Judge Patrick O'Brien, chairman of a special association subcommittee, said his group had decided that the airman had been accused of guilt by association and that his Constitutional rights had been violated. O'Brien said the subcommittee will submit a resolution expressing its feelings in the case to the association on Wednesday.

Radulovich, a University of Michigan student, defended himself against the charges before the Air Force Board of Officers at Selfridge Air Force Base. The Air Force is expected to announce soon whether he will be forced to surrender his commission or be allowed to remain on the reserve list.

Claims Faith Best Defense

Dulles Says Despotism Cannot Survive Impact of 'Gospel of Freedom'

WATERTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles holds that "our best reliance is not more and bigger bombs, but a way of life which reflects religious faith."

"There is no despotism in the world," Dulles asserted last night, "which can stand up against the impact" of a "gospel of freedom" based on Christian principles.

And he declared that "Soviet rulers are attempting the impossible" in trying to mold the citizens of satellite nations "to their materialistic and repressive rule."

"We believe that the subject peoples have faith and hopes which cannot indefinitely be repressed," he told an interdenominational community meeting.

About 1,700 persons attended the meeting, which marked the 150th anniversary of the founding of the first Presbyterian Church. Dulles recalled that his father preached there for 16 years.

Dulles cautioned against what he termed the view of "a small minority" that the thoughts and expressions of U. S. citizens should be repressed in the face of international dangers.

He said some people "honestly feel that the danger is so imminent that we should impose uniformity of thought, or at least of expression, abolishing diversity and tolerance within our nation and within our alliances."

Of that he said, "There is some confusion of thinking which needs to be dispelled."

"We do not intend to turn this nation into a purely material fortress and to suppress the freedom of thought and of expression," he asserted.

If that were done, he added, "our people would more and more assume the likeness of that which threatens and which we hate."

Disc Jockey Is Held in Dice Game Theft

FLINT (UP) — Earl West, 34-year-old disc jockey for radio station WMRP, was arrested Sunday as a suspect in the $700 holdup of a dice game.

Other participants said West drew a gun and grabbed up the money after losing $90. He was taken to city jail after police seized him on a Flint street.

Two of five persons killed in traffic accidents are pedestrians.

Psychology Aids in Correcting Speech Defects

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—Twelve years ago, an understanding teacher embarked on a specialized career here that has since been recognized nationally.

Miss Helen G. Rochmord established the first training class in the country to use scientific speech education for children with cleft palates.

The program originally was set up by the late Dr. J. Sutton Regan, who had specialized in palate surgery.

It called for the combination of scientific, medical, educational and psychological studies.

Since its inception, more than 70 students from western New York have been enrolled in the school department's speech class.

There are now 24 children with speech deficiencies at Public School 80 here who participate in regular classroom programs, in addition to attending Miss Rochford's class. This system, she explains, keeps them from developing complexes.

Miss Rochford noted that her pupils combine their tongue and breathing exercises with simple little games, such as blowing feathers, or ping pong balls.

One of the most important factors in encouraging the child with a speech impediment, added the teacher, was understanding and cooperation from the parents.

"Attitudes are caught, not taught," she explained.

Two British Airmen Wounded Near Suez

CAIRO, Egypt - 8 two British airmen were wounded slightly yesterday by pistol and Sten gun shots fired at them by three Egyptians near the Suez Canal Zone center of Ismalia, the British Embassy announced.

The attack occurred yesterday afternoon as the RAF men were returning from Ismailia to Britain's big base outside the town.

One airman was wounded in the shoulder, the other in one arm. A third RAF man with them ran for help to a nearby British army post.

Patrols combed the area but could not find the attackers.

Marines Find It Easy to Pass Up the Buck

CHERRY POINT, N. C. (UP)—Twenty-two red-faced Marines at the air station here came back from the firing range recently without boasting of their marksmanship.

As the group blazed away at targets, a buck deer ran across their line of fire unscratched.

Security Quiz Lures McCarthy

Bridegroom Cuts Short His Honeymoon to Fly to Hearing

NEW YORK (UP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy cuts short his honeymoon to fly here today for a hearing into the recent suspension of several civilian army employes at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., as "security risks."

McCarthy, a bridegroom of less than two weeks, described the investigation at the Ft. Monmouth Radar Laboratory as "a case of current espionage of an extremely dangerous nature."

He was scheduled to leave Appleton, Wis., by plane and arrive in New York in time for an afternoon hearing by his senate permanent investigating subcomittee.

McCarthy said his staff had been working for several months on the investigation of alleged information leaks at the secret radar lab.

The Wisconsin Republican and his bride, the former Jean Kerr, have been visiting friends at McCarthy's home town. They called off plans for a three-week honeymoon trip to the Bahamas.

Senators Hit Talk Proposal

Hickenlooper, Kefauver Say Big 4 Talk Must Have Definite Agenda

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators Hickenlooper (R-Iowa and Kefauver (D-Tenn) today opposed Winston Churchill's call for a Big Four informal discusion of world problems

The two senators said in separate interviews they believed the United States should demand advane agreement on specific topics to be discussed before approving any such meeting.

Although both said they were speaking only for themselves, their expressed views coincided with expressed White House and State Department opposition to any free-for-all conference.

Prime Minister Churchill said in a speech in England last week that 'one good thing might lead to another' if the heads of state of the United States, Britain, France and Russia got together and talked things over.

Hickenlooper, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said he is against "round-robin discussions."

"They never lead to anything," he said. "If we participate in any meeting of this kind, it should be limited to discussion of specific questions. If the Russians are unwilling to agree in advance on the topics to be studied, then there couldn't be much hope of success from such a conference."

Kefauver, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he thinks the groundwork for such a high-level conference would have to be laid in diplomatic exchanges long in advance.

"Unless things have been worked out so that diplomatic negotiations have reached the point where concrete agreements could be ratified by the heads of states, I don't believe any meeting has much chance of success," he said.

"Of course, we ought always to keep the door open to confer with the Russians, if it appears to us that there is any real chance of accomplishing anything."

Say 101 Americans Still in Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department estimates that 101 Americans are in China — 33 of them in Communist jails — detempts to get them out.

In response to questions Saturday, the department gave these figures and pledged that it would overlook no "possibility of obtaining the release of all Americans unjustly imprisoned . . . or denied the right to leave."

It said some of the Americnas have been imprisoned for two years.

Three of the most recently missing — Donald Dixon of the International News Service, Richard Applegate of the National Broadcasting Co. and Capt. Ben Krasner of the American merchant marine — were seized March 21 aboard a yacht by a Chinese gunboat.

Byrnes to Lead Charter Drive

Governor to Speak at U. N. Today in Debate for Revision

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. S. delegation in the United Nations began pointing today for debate on proposals to revise the U. N. Charter. South Carolina's Gov. James F. Byrnes was set as principal U. S. spokesman on the major East-West dispute.

Byrnes returned from a weekend trip home to renew consideration of an allied subject—admission of new members—in the Special Polical Committee this afternoon The delegation was looking for that question to be finished by mid-week, with Byrnes then moving to the Assembly's Legan Committee to handle the charter revision item.

The big question on revising the charter, whether to hold a special conference on the topic will not be decided until the 1955 Assembly.

But to be prepared for that, The Netherlands, Argentina and Egypt all have suggested that this year's Assembly start preparatory work to get all the documents in order and to find out whether most countries incline toward favoring a conference.

The Soviet bloc already has loudly denounced even this preliminary move. Attacked for its heavy use of the veto in keeping out non-Communist membership applicants, the Russians have charged that charter revision is only a plot to weaken Soviet veto power in the Security Council.

Save Your Child's Eyes

All parents of pre-school children in the Pontiac area should take advantage of the vision screening program which starts in Stevens Hall Tuesday, October 13.

There on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings from 9:30 to 12, for the next three weeks parents can learn if their children have any sight defects and how and where to get corrective treatment. The screening program is open to all children between the ages of three and five years. No charge will be made and no appointment is necessary.

This valuable community service has been arranged by the Junior League of Birmingham in co-operation with the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness. The tests are given by having the children play a number of enjoyable sight games under the supervision of trained personnel.

Also co-operating is a Pontiac advisory committee which includes professional personnel from the health and education departments and Drs. Robert J. Cooper, Campbell Harvey and Aaron D. Riker.

No effort will be made to diagnose defects, but if any visual handicaps are discovered, parents will be referred to their own eye doctors. Last year's program resulted in the discovery of 49 children who had faulty vision — more than 10 per cent of those examined.

The importance of correcting your child's visual defects before school work imposes an added burden on young eyes cannot be overemphasized. Corrective action, or lack of it, could make the difference between a happy, useful life, or inefficiency, ill health and even eventual blindness.

One More Parking Hurdle

The State's Supreme Court decision in a Detroit case is important to Pontiac for its effect in broadening the purposes for which parking meter revenue can be used.

Two Detroiters had sued in an effort to prevent that city from diverting $216,000 of such revenue to the establishment of off street parking lots.

In rejecting the suit, Pontiac's City Attorney Ewart points out, the court recognized the need for more parking facilities in crowded areas. He added that the decision sets a precedent which undoubtedly would sustain similar use of meter revenue here.

Moreover, the decision at Lansing upholds a decision handed down earlier this year by Oakland County Circuit judges. In that case an attempt to block use of Pontiac meter revenue and surplus funds, for the establishment of two off street parking lots, were thrown out.

The result of these decisions is that only one more legal hurdle needs to be cleared before the City can proceed with its long needed program. That hurdle, of course, is the already authorized condemnation suit involving that part of the Slater property on Parke Street sold to a private buyer.

Diamond Jim's Successor

In the old French Quarter of New Orleans is an Italian restaurant whose proprietor could claim to be one of the Kimberley diamond mines' best customers.

More than that, James Brocato is a glittering mid-century edition of the late "Diamond Jim" Brady. He even is known to his restaurant patrons as "Diamond Jim Moran."

Brocato has made a sizable fortune out of his fancy restaurant which has won him the appellation of Meatball King. While he denies ever having been a body guard to the late Kingfish Huey Long, nobody can deny that he sparkles from head to foot.

The $210,000 worth of diamonds he wears while playing Mine Host are topped by those in the rims of his eye glasses. There's a diamond in his tie. His shirt buttons are diamonds and there are diamonds in the zippers of his trousers and on the tips of his shoe laces. Diamonds also adorn the back of his watch, the clasp of his wallet and even his false teeth.

Besides gems, Brocato likes mink ties, of which he claims to have more than "any other human bein'," and he has them in all shades, including platinum. His shirt wardrobe is also something to be marveled at. Every one of the 700 has his name embroidered across the front.

Despite all this, New Orleans' Diamond Jim denies he is a show-off. To prove it he points out that he wears his bejeweled chompers "only in front of company."

"On a percentage basis, there is less polygamy in the country than ever before," says a statistician. This shouldn't surprise anyone. At the current cost of living, a man can scarcely afford monogamy, even.

I am sure that no Democrat has any thought of depriving anyone of a vacation or a little game of golf. We all know that the President needs relaxation just as much as you or I, but that is beside the point.

The main issue in discussing this subject is that a year or so ago the Republicans were criticizing the same thing in President Truman. How does it feel now that the shoe is on the other foot? The ones who criticized a year ago will now keep quiet for at least three more years about vacations around the White House.

Administration Mulls Over New Plan of 'Pay as You Go' to Finance Security

By CHARLES F. BARRETT
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress and the Eisenhower administration are mulling over a different way of financing the vast social security retirement program.

The idea under study, so basic it could alter the whole complexion of the government's program for the aged, is called "pay as you go."

Under this system, Congress or the administration would estimate the cost of social security benefits to be paid each year and then levy a tax to pay the bill.

As Rep. Curtis (R-Neb) once put it, "When the year closes, nothing is owed and nothing is promised."

Tax rates and benefit levels might vary from year to year, depending on economic conditions, the number of persons reaching retirement age, the attitude of Congress, and so on.

Or benefit levels could be held constant, with taxes varying to produce whatever revenue is needed.

This plan, which has some influential advocates, contrasts sharply with the concept on which the social security program has been operating for the past 18 years.

The present system contemplated that relatively few persons would qualify for benefits in the first 20 to 30 years, but that eventually the number would be several times greater than now.

So it attempts to strike, far in advance, an average tax level needed to finance the program on a permanent basis. Thus the plan calls for tax income to exceed payments greatly in the early years, with this surplus piling up a reserve called the "trust fund."

Later, when the steadily increasing payments rise above tax income, interest on the trust fund is expected to bridge the gap and keep the program solvent.

Theoretically, the tax rate, the trust fund and the level of benefits eventually would remain almost constant. Actually, to avoid too sudden an impact, the tax rate is stepped up at five-year intervals until it reaches 6½ per cent of payrolls in 1970.

Congress was expected to make minor adjustments as needs developed. But the theory, at least, called for a permanent and happy state of equilibrium extending well beyond the year 2000. If a bad year cut into the trust fund, a good year would build it back.

Here are some of the arguments pro and con, which may be aired with considerable heat in Congress:

Supporters of the present system say its biggest asset is that interest from the trust fund will help keep taxes down when the program reaches full costs.

They argue "pay as you go" would produce violent ups and downs depending on the political complexion of Congress, with aged people never knowing what to expect from one year to the next.

Even if constant benefits are attempted, they contend, the tax rate would be prohibitive during unusually adverse years with large numbers of workers unemployed and not contributing, costs would be greater than normal, and there would be no reserve to fall back on.

In effect, they say, "pay as you go" is an effort to whittle down the program.

Critics say the trust fund concept attempts the impossible by trying to estimate now such things as the number of births and deaths and economic conditions in 2050.

They insist political temptation will be too great and the trust fund will be raided to provide bigger benefits for current voters, thus committing the government to a program it won't be able to sustain in the future.

They claim each new actuarial study already pictures the trust fund turning downward or exhausting itself, instead of remaining almost level. They doubt if present voters will consent to raise taxes enough to build up a trust fund for future recipients.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Dr. George Crane Says Don't Fret Over Insomnia

The habit of using sleeping pills is unwise. Insomnia is not fatal. So why fret if you don't fall into a deep sleep, for your heart gets almost the same rest whether you lie abed with your eyes open or shut. So quit leaning on chemical pills to give you an abnormal type of slumber.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case J-313: Laura J., aged 29, is an attractive married woman.

"But, Dr. Crane, I simply cannot sleep!" she protested miserably.

"I am a victim of constant insomnia. And the more I try to fall asleep, the wider awake I become.

"Finally, I asked my physician for sleeping pills, and have been taking double doses of them.

"They help me somewhat, but I am taking such big doses I wonder if it is good for me.

"But what else can I do to get a good night's sleep?"

Beware of sleeping pills: They are the disgrace of modern America.

And quit worrying about insomnia. Nobody dies of insomnia, so why be so scared of it?

It makes little difference whether you sleep at night or lie awake, providing you stay in bed.

For the main purpose of sleep, anyway, is to keep you off your feet and in the horizontal plane.

That position lowers your blood pressure and slows down your pulse ate, so your heart thus obtains a double rest. And that is the primary aim for sleep.

So if you can't close your eyes and instantly drift off into deep slumber, don't fret about it. Lie there and think.

Or turn on a bed lamp and read some educational book. Try the Bible. Read a few chapters each night in the New Testament.

And don't prod yourself with caffeine beverages just before you go to bed. For they act as a nerve stimulant, which is just the opposite of what you need at bedtime.

Some Americans will fill up on coffee or cola beverages just at bedtime: then fret themselves into a nervous "stew" because they can't relax enough to sleep.

So they swallow a couple of sleeping pills to offset the exciting effect of their caffeine drinks. In cases like this, just omit the drinks and you will probably relax into deep sleep.

A cup of ho' milk or a bowl of milk toast will likewise promote sleep, so it isn't a bad idea to eat before retiring, unless you are trying to diet.

If you'd say your prayers at night and team up with God Almighty in a partnership arrangement, you could also relax more completely and drift off into untroubled slumber while God takes over the "night shift" for you.

Many people grow unduly worried about auto erotic sex practices and in their mental debate over their feeling of guilt, they awaken themselves.

Others, as married couples, may not follow the proper technique for marriage relations and hence be left tense and jittery.

In which case, send for the various sex bulletins offered via this column. But in any event, don't fall back upon sleeping pills:

If you are married, send for my bulletin "Sex Problems in Marriage," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus a dime.

Baering Down

International News Service

Almost impossible to believe that American soldiers would go for that Commie line. But facts are facts and salt won't change the flavor.

There's an answer to everything except the seniority of the hen and the egg.

And that's every organization has its malcontents and its crackaloos.

There's no poultice compounded by man or beast that will cure a sorehead on land or sea.

We had them in our first World War battery. They walked around using chips for epaulets. Then there is the silly bird whose head is a button to keep his spine from unraveling.

There is a saying that he who knows not and knows not he knows not is notty. You can do something with him if it's only de-butting the parade area.

But the guy you cannot handle is the GI who has blown his top like Mount Etna running hot lava.

We had a squad of those turnips in our outfit. A couple of them were gold-bricking like Yellow Kid Weil clipping a mark.

But the others were as batty as a Guano cave at twilight.

If the outside of your head comes to a point the insides never do.

And in an invasion army of a million you can figure at least a regiment of screwballs who will run a fish hook in their thumbs and use themselves for bait.

I'm no certificated psychiatrist experting on twisted pompadours.

I'm just an old soldier trying to stencil a reason for an American GI going haywire. The Commies aren't part of the assessment. The answer is you can sell a prospect anything if you'll accept counterfeit money in payment.

Complicated

Jones "Good evening. Thought I'd drop in and see you about the umbrella you borrowed from me last week."

Brown "I'm sorry, but I lent it to a friend of mine. Do you want it?"

"Well, not for myself, but the fellow I borrowed it from says the owner wants it."

Smarty

An inspector was visiting a village school.

"What kind of arms has a blacksmith?" he asked.

"Big ones," said one smart boy.

"Quite right," replied the inspector. "and why has the blacksmith bigger arms than I have?"

"He works!" came the reply from the back of the class.

Smart Lady

A post office clerk asked an old lady who was mailing a Bible to her brother in a distant city if there was anything breakable in her package. The woman snapped, "Only the Ten Commandments."

Thoughts for Today

And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.—Colossians 3:15.

Perhaps when the light of heaven shows us clearly the pitfalls and dangers of the earth road that led to the heavenly city, our sweetest songs of gratitude will be not for the troubles we have conquered, but for those we have escaped.—Amelia Barr.

Show-Off

The small daughter of a televisionless household regarded the arrival of a new piano with little enthusiasm.

"Can't we put something on the roof to show we've got it?" she asked her mother.

Brady Doesn't Seem to Be Too Worried That Diverticula Will Be Diverticulosis

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

From Philadelphia comes a letter that speaks for itself:

Dear Dr. Brady:

If you can spare the time from the bowling green (such impertinence could happen once around here) and your mind from next week's harangue on hydrophobia, why not write a couple of encyclopedic (the saucebox!) Philippics (now see here!) on diverticulosis.

This would offer you a beautiful chance to show off your Latin scholarship; besides, no one else is covering this section of the body's waterfront anyway, in spite of the long line of sufferers waiting on the left.

Also, all you lazy "sawbones" prescribe a bland diet for this condition. (On which section of the uncovered waterfront?)

This seems silly to a layman because most foods ought to be so altered by the time they get to the diverticulous part of the colon that stomach ulcer pap seems hardly necessary.

Or am I a stupid oaf to seek a special diet for diverticulum? And thanks.

(Signed)—

Diverticulum? That reminds me—two or three years ago I had an occasional bellyache—or at any rate vague distress hither and yon above and below the equator.

While the uneasiness was present (maybe 20 minutes, more or less) I considered numerous interesting possibilities.

When it subsided I got back in the game and forgot all about aneurism, sarcoma and such things. Finally I had one at home, lasting half an hour or more, and before I could say fiddle-faddle, the hired girl had made an appointment with another doctor.

So I had to submit to a thorough examination, including enough X-ray pictures to illustrate a serial ghost story.

One X-ray found a diverticulum. The doctor prescribed antispasmodic medicine to prevent or relieve colic or cramp and some slight dietary rules—I forget now just what.

Anyway, when the examination revealed nothing else than the diverticulum, I quit worrying about it and had less and less distress in the next week or two, and then forgot it.

If you don't know what a diverticulum is, maybe what you don't know won't hurt you, but if you must know, it is a bit of a pouch, offshoot or sac opening out from the alimentary canal, usually the colon.

Sometimes partly digested food in the pouch sets up irritation and the annoying little colic or bellyache occurs.

In these days some victims of diverticulosis end up you know where—I won't say because of bad judgment but because of bad luck.

Before we adjourn it may be well to remind doctors and people that nine out of ten persons who have diverticula never have diverticulosis—that is they never suffer any discomfort or illness from the thing.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Crosby Hurts Back in Crash Injuring Three

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bing Crosby is nursing a wrenched back today after a traffic accident that injured three other persons, one critically.

The crooner was driving his $12,250 German car, a pale ivory Mercedes-Benz, when the collision with another automobile occurred early yesterday at an intersection.

Three persons in the other car were taken to Queen of Angels Hospital. Frank Verdugo, 32, a Los Angeles city fireman, suffered critical head injuries, the hospital reported. His wife Lucy, 28, suffered face cuts and bruises and a possible broken nose. Eulalio Perea, 25, Verdugo's brother-in-law escaped with minor injuries.

Crosby's car was badly smashed. California Highway Patrolman W. L. Koehler said Crosby was driving alone at the time and after the accident complained that his back hurt. The singer's brother Larry said Crosby was in pretty good condition but was to be given a checkup by his physician.

The highway patrolman said Crosby told him: "I looked both ways, saw no cars and started across the intersection. There was a crash and I lost control."

Museum Guards Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Thousands of visitors were turned away yesterday from the Metropolitan Museum of Art and its uptown branch, the Cloisters, because of a strike of 170 museum guards.

Thugs Beat Up Romeo Woman

Grandma, 74, Attacked While Babysitting for Daughter in Detroit

DETROIT (UP) — A 74-year-old Romeo woman was beaten and terrorized by two thugs last night after being tricked into admitting the hoodlums into her daughter's home by a young woman she befriended.

Mrs. Elizabeth Metz told police she was baby sitting at her daughter's home in Detroit when she heard a woman screaming. She opened the door to investigate, and a young woman rushed to the porch and said two men were chasing her.

The girl apparently tipped off the men that Mrs. Metz was alone in the house when the older woman allowed her to telephone for "help."

The two thugs were waiting on the porch when Mrs. Metz opened the door to let the girl out. They forced their way into the house after slugging Mrs. Metz with a pistol.

Mrs. Metz said the pair left when they were unable to find any money in the house.

Sheffield Avenue Boy, 4, Hurt in Car Accident

Calvin T. Bryant, 4, of 65 E. Sheffield Ave., who reportedly ran into the side of an auto, was treated for a bruised head and knee Saturday at Pontiac General Hospital.

Driver of the auto, Mrs. Bessie C. Burton, 54, of 47 Hudson Ave., told Pontiac Police she didn't see the child in time to avoid hitting him.

Detroiter Fractures Knee in Auto Collision

Walter J. Rutka, 23, of 8357 Montlieu St., Detroit, was treated for a fractured knee at Pontiac General Hospital Sunday after his car's brakes failed and he hit an auto driven by Donald E. Krupp, 16, of 2739 Leach Rd., on Auburn Rd. at Leach Rd., according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Three Teenagers Hurt When Car Hits Pole

Three teenagers were injured Saturday when their car skidded off Dixie Highway at Sashabaw Rd. and hit a telephone pole, according to Michigan State Police of the Pontiac Post.

James Attart, 17, of 3937 Athens, Drayton Plains, was reported in good condition this morning in Pontiac General Hospital with a possible concussion and rib fracture. He was riding in a car driven by Raymond Campbell, 18, of 111 Waterly St. who was treated for bruises.

Another passenger, Susan Cline, 17, of 7142 Terrell Rd., Drayton Plains, was reported in good condition. She suffered a possible fractured jaw.

Campbell lost control of his car when he speeded up to make a caution light, said Troopers Gerald Tafel and Henry DeLoof.

Portable Drill Holds Tiny Built-in Spotlight

NEW YORK (UP) — The hobbyist with a workshop at home now can operate an electric drill featuring a built-in spotlight.

The portable drill, which has a quarter-inch capacity, is called "Work-Lite."

A tiny lamp located below the base of the bit focuses its light on the tip of the cutting piece.

The lighting system does away with the need for a separate lamp carried about on an extension cord. The three-pound drill also is designed for industrial applications.

Gunman Collects $134, Returns Second Night

WORCESTER, Mass. (UP)—A jittery gunman held up William R. Hooper, 17, for $134 Saturday night as he worked in a service station.

The same gunman went back last night, much more confident, and robbed Hooper of $200 more. And to make it worse, he took $3 of Hooper's own money.

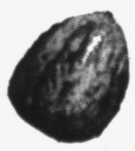
DISCOVER GEE, DEEP-MINED POCAHONTAS NUT

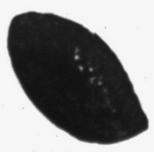
Costs Less Per Ton . . . Takes Less Per Year . . . the Cleaner Burning Coal That Is More Economical to Burn!

High in Quality!
Cleanly mined from America's richest coal veins, Gee Pocahontas Nut is high in quality, yet economical to buy and economical to burn.

Conveniently Sized!
Gee Pocahontas Nut is conveniently sized (about the size of a nut) . . . it forms an even bed that allows the maximum consumption of oxygen, giving an abundance of heat at a lower cost.



Clean Burning!
Cleanly mined, properly prepared at the mines and delivered cleanly to your home in our modern conveyor coal trucks, Gee Pocahontas Nut burns cleanly in your furnace leaving no soot stringers and very little ash.



Truly Economical!
Adaptable to all types of warm air furnaces, Gee Pocahontas Nut responds readily to automatic furnace controls giving an abundance of heat when wanted, holding a long, low fire as desired. This makes it the most economical of all Pocahontas coals.

True economy in coal as in every commodity is not in price alone . . . It's what you get for what you pay that really counts.

We honestly believe that Gee Pocahontas Nut is today's greatest coal value . . . this cleanly mined, cleanly prepared, better quality Pocahontas coal will give more heat per pound, last much longer than ordinary fuel, burn cleanly and evenly with little ash content and no soot stringers . . . comparison has proved that three ton of Gee Pocahontas Nut coal will last longer than four ton of ordinary fuel which makes it today's most economical fuel for all hot air furnaces.

Right now, at the start of the heating season, is the time to try better quality, deep-mined Gee Pocahontas Nut and find out for yourself why this fuel is preferred by a greater majority of thrifty families.

There is no substitute for quality.

Catholics Pray to Convert Reds

Public Mass Celebrated in Philadelphia Sunday Before 250,000

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some 80,000 Roman Catholic men marched in solemn procession through downtown Philadelphia last night reciting aloud the rosary of the Virgin Mary in a public prayer for peace and conversion of the Communist world to Christianity.

At the end of the line of march, a crowd estimated at 250,000 gathered on the vast stretches of the Benjamin Franklin Parkway to assist at the first outdoor evening mass in the history of the archdiocese and the second such service in the United States.

The religious rally was dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima. According to Catholic teaching, the Virgin Mary appeared to a group of Portugese children at Fatima on Oct. 13, 1917, and asked them to pray for peace and the conversion of Russia to Christianity.

The parkway had been converted into an amphitheater with a huge, glass-enclosed alter erected in the center of a traffic circle. Atop the flood-lighted altar stood a statue of Our Lady of Fatima, some 62 feet above street level.

The Most Rev. John F. O'Hara, C. S. C., archbishop of Philadelphia, who delivered the sermon, asked for prayers for local, state and national government officials in the great tasks of their office, and finally for peace and the conversion of the Communist world.

Before the archbishop spoke, the Rt. Rev. John J. McKenna read a telegram sent by Archbishop O'Hara to the Polish ambassador to the United States, Josef Winiewicz.

The message mentioned the rally which had assembled "for public worship . . . to pray for peace and to beg God to elighten the minds and move the hearts of the terrorists who have imprisoned Bishop Maczmarek and impeded Cardinal Wyzynski in his functions . . . in solemn pontifical mass tonight we pray that Poland and her sister states now enslaved by communism may soon be restored to the dignity under God they have earned in the past as saviours of European civilization."

Bishop Czeslaw Kaczmarek was sentenced last month by a Polish military court to 12 years in prison on charges of spying for the Vatican.

On Sept. 28, Warsaw radio announced that Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski, primate of Poland, had been relieved of his church post and "allowed to withdraw into a Polish monastery."

The cardinal was accused in the broadcast of violating Poland's church-state agreement.

Fluorescent Stand Sign an Aid in Tire Changing

NEW YORK (UP) — Ever get stranded on the road at night with a flat tire?

A new gadget won't change the tire for you, but it will help to protect you from being picked off by speeding cars while you work.

The all-metal stand is placed by the road some distance behind your stranded car. An arrow, which may be turned in any direction, directs oncoming traffic away from the car.

Fluorescent striping makes the stand and arrow glow red under the headlights of approaching automobiles.

The device is easily stored in the trunk of your car.

More than 4,000,000,000 pounds of meat and meat-food products destined for military consumption were inspected before purchase by Army Medical Service inspectors during 1952. Of that total more than 127,000,000 pounds were rejected as failing to meet safe standards for issue and consumption. the first paper manufacturers.

Banquet Honors Elks' Lodge 723 Ball Club

A large gathering in the hall at 153 Bagley street, Sunday, honored members of the Elks No. 723, Sylvan Lake Lodge, baseball team. A banquet and program of informal talks was held, starting at 2 o'clock. Chief speaker was Arthur King of Detroit, director of the Metropolitan organization's athletics. He talked of athletics and their value to young people.

Chairman was Alton VanDyke. The lodge team was captained by catcher Arthur Nelson and managed by David Lee. It won seven and lost three games in an independent season.

Schuman Nations Postpone Meeting

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands, (AP)—The six Schuman Plan nations have postponed the meeting their foreign ministers planned to hold here Oct. 22 to discuss organization of the proposed European political community.

The ministers had been scheduled to take up the statute their deputies now are drawing up in Rome for the supra-national political authority, which would control the projected one-uniform European army.

France particularly wanted the meeting delayed. The French Cabinet is split over how much national sovereignty should be released to the supra-national authority. Some Parliament members want a debate in the National Assembly to clarify the French position before the pact setting up the political community is signed.

Duke of Bedford Believed Hunting Accident Victim

TAVISTOCK, England (AP) — The gunshot-blasted body of the missing Duke of Bedford was found yesterday in tangled undergrowth on his vast Devonshire estate. A police spokesman said nothing indicated that the death was "anything but an accident."

The 64-year-old duke, one of England's richest men, went into the woods Friday. It was believed he was hunting a hawk that had been bothering his collection of tame parakeets. After he failed to return, 200 Marines and policemen combed the wilds of his 12,000-acre estate.

He was found shot in the head, his 12-gauge shotgun at his side. His body lay beside a footpath. The police spokesman said death was instantaneous.

The duke's outspoken political views and pacifism brought him wide publicity, especially his opposition to Britain's fight against Germany in World War II.

The Bedford family fortune, once estimated at five million pounds (14 million dollars) came from great land holdings and property in the center of London. The duke's titles go to his elder son, the 36-year-old marquess of Tavistock, who has been living in South Africa.

Hal Boyle Says:

Poor Peebles Can't Win; Quiz Test Is Boomerang

HOMETOWN, U. S. A. (AP)—Every married woman today is interested in who is divorcing whom and why—particularly why.

Trillis Mae Peeble, America's average housewife, had no intention of ever divorcing her husband, Wilbur, but she did like to let him know she had plenty of reasons if she wanted to.

By avidly reading the newspaper cases she had assembled a box score of 67 different situations in which a wife had won a divorce from her husband for doing something Wilbur, too, had been guilty of, at one time or another.

Wilbur thought this was gruesome of her, and would have preferred she follow some more pleasant hobby, such as studying poisons or collecting used murder weapons.

"Oh, goody, goody, now I am up to 68; chortled Trellis Mae, ripping an item out of the paper. "It says here a gal in Detroit got a divorce because her husband made her take intelligence tests and called her stupid if she didn't make a grade of 98. You called me stupid once."

"Well, anyway I never made you take any intelligence tests," remarked Wilbur, then a gleam came into his eyes as he added craftily.

"Not that you'd have any trouble batting 100 per cent in any old test I could dream up, honey."

"Do you really think so?" asked Trellis Mae, flattered.

"Sure thing. Look how easy you guess all the answers on those TV giveaway shows."

"Let's try it—just for fun," said his wife, falling into the trap. "Give me five questions."

"Okay, ready?"

"Ready!"

"What state has the largest population?"

"That's easy. Texas."

"Wrong. It's New York. Whose picture is on a $20 bill?"

"You haven't brought one home in years. How would I know? It must be a Republican. President McKinley? No, Teddy Roosevelt!"

"Wrong. It's Andrew Jackson, a Democrat. He got on by mistake. How do you spell etiquette?"

"E-t-t-i-q-u-e-t-e," said Trellis Mae. "And I know what it is, which is more than some husbands I could name do."

"Wrong again. Now, can you identify Beria?"

"Of course, silly. It's one of those cute little hats Frenchmen wear."

Wrong. He's an ex-Russian leader now missing. Last question. Who said, 'Give me liberty or give me death?' "

"Henry Patrick! Henry Patrick!" yelled Trellis Mae.

"Well, his friends called him Patrick Henry," said Wilbur. "But I'll give you half on that one—10. That's your score—10 out of 100."

"You cheated!" cried Trellis Mae. "Asking me all that junk! You didn't ask me a single important question."

"Okay," said Wilbur coolly. "Go ahead and ask me five questions more important then. Think hard now?"

"I don't have to think. Ready?"

"Ready!"

"When is my mother's birthday? What is the price of butter a pound? What vegetable will give you the most vitamins for the least calories? How can I possibly make my old cloth coat last another winter? What department store is having a sale of men's $5 white shirts for $2.95 tomorrow, and I'm going to buy you three they're such a bargain?"

Wilbur just stared at her, silent and slack-jawed.

"Those really are important questions," said Trellis Mae. "And you scored zero. Another thing. If I did get a divorce from you in this state, do you know how much alimony you'd have to pay?"

"No, do you?"

"Certainly," said Trellis Mae. "And now just one final question. If there is somebody stupid in this house about things that really matter, who do you think it is?"

"No comment," said Wilbur, although he knew the only possible answer.

Firemen Work Swiftly to Prevent Big Boom

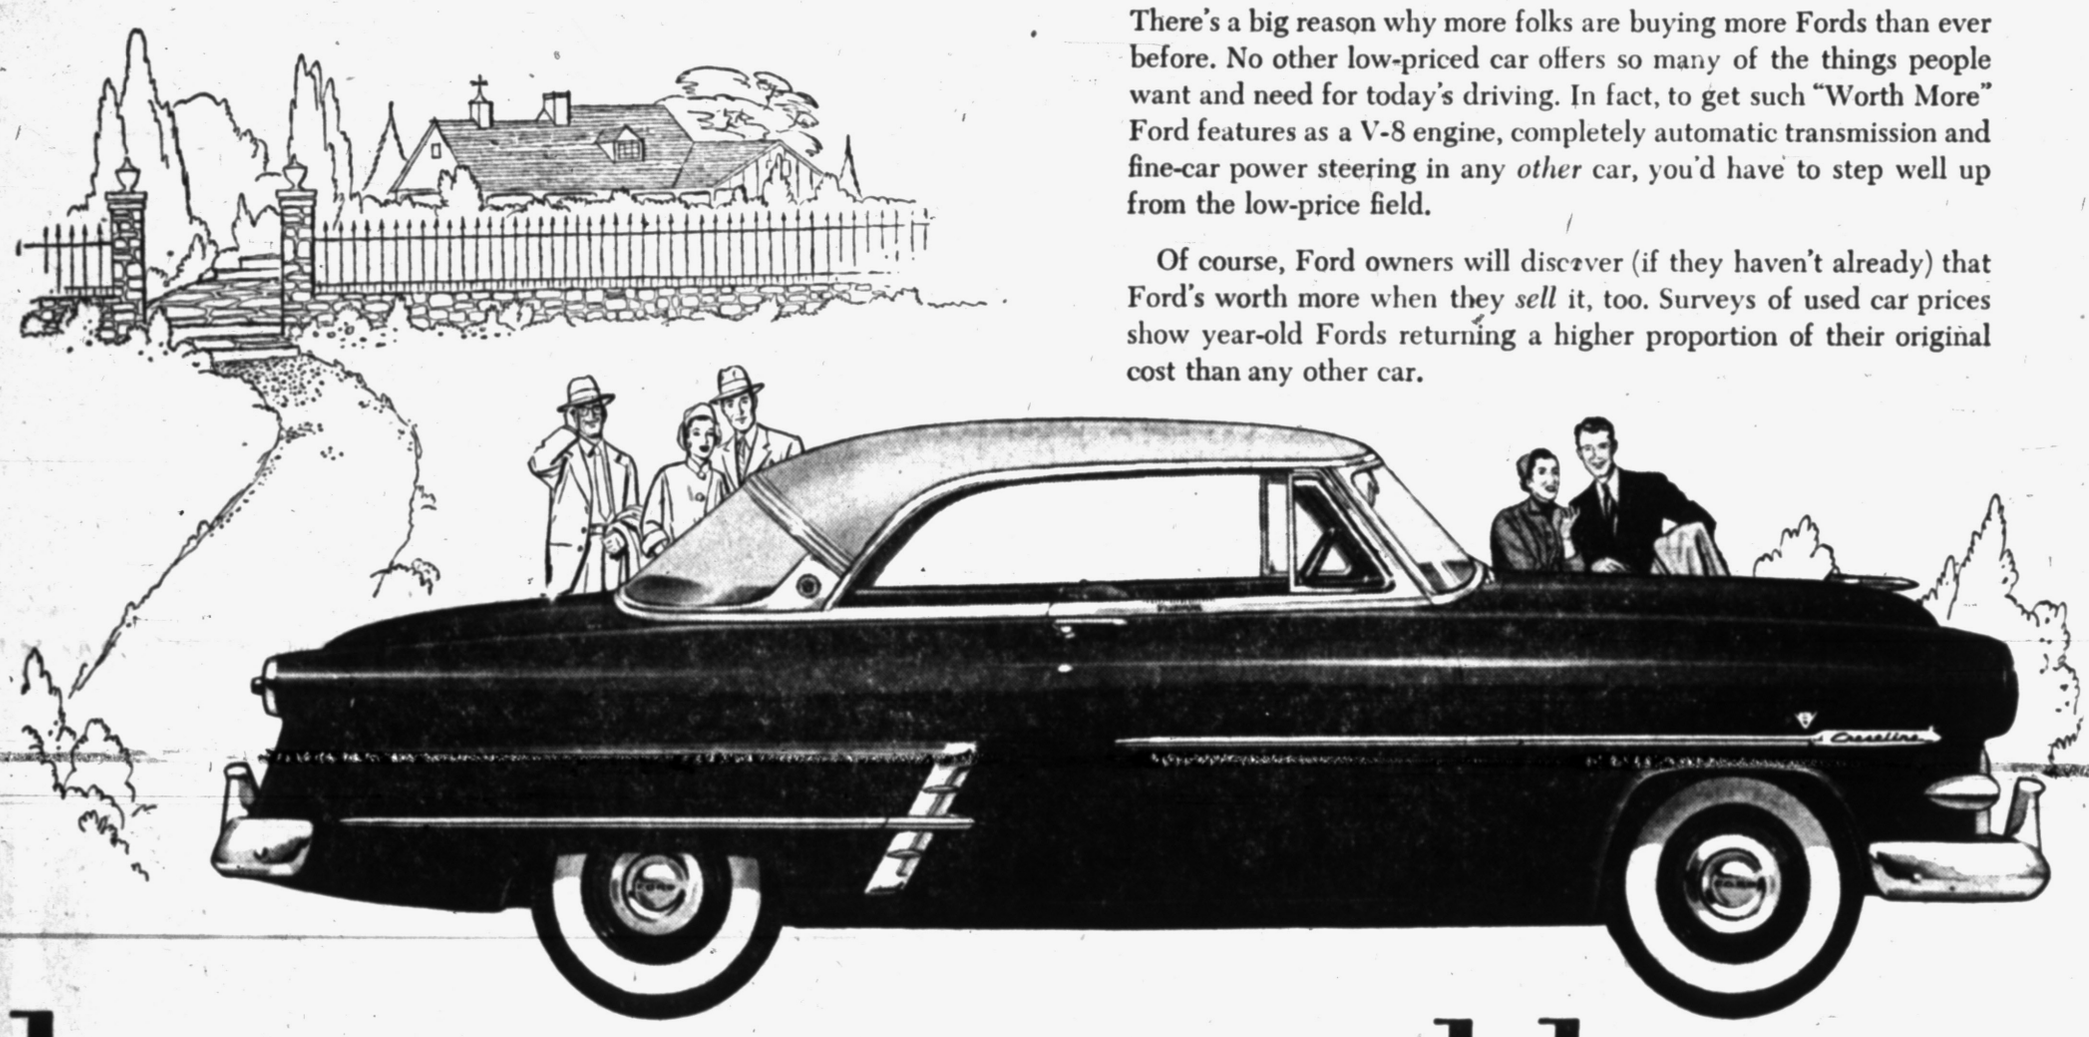
ST. ALBANS, W. Va. (AP)—Firemen got there with minutes to spare.

And in three frenzied minutes they put out a fire yesterday in a tractor trailer on nearby Coal Mountain.

Then firemen fanned their brows, nearby residents came out of hiding and truck driver James K. Morley breathed easier—now the fire was out.

The truck was carrying 25,000 pounds of black powder.

Most-liked low-priced car

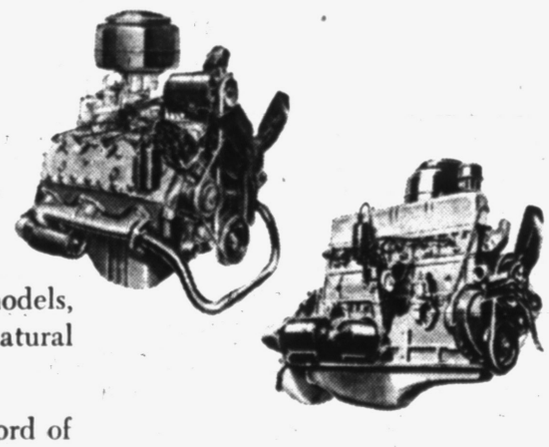


...among people who want more for their money when they buy...and more money when they sell!

There's a big reason why more folks are buying more Fords than ever before. No other low-priced car offers so many of the things people want and need for today's driving. In fact, to get such "Worth More" Ford features as a V-8 engine, completely automatic transmission and fine-car power steering in any other car, you'd have to step well up from the low-price field.

Of course, Ford owners will discover (if they haven't already) that Ford's worth more when they sell it, too. Surveys of used car prices show year-old Fords returning a higher proportion of their original cost than any other car.

because it's most like high-priced cars



Ford's 110-h.p. V-8 is the same type of engine now powering America's finest (and costliest) cars. And Ford's Mileage Maker Six is the most modern Six in the industry.

...more and more people are considering Ford as the one fine car in the low-price field!

It's hard to believe that a car which is built like the finest still sells in the low-price field. Yet a Ford with its hulltight Crestmark body, its Full-Circle Visibility (most in its field), its new fine car ride and roomy luggage locker (roomiest in its field) delivers at a figure that keeps it right down in its price class.

Ford's the only low-priced car which offers you a choice of a completely automatic transmission (Fordomatic), Overdrive or Conventional Drive. Ford Master-Guide, available on all V-8 models, makes turning up to 75% easier, retains the natural feel of the wheel on the straightaway.

See . . . Value Check . . . Test Drive the Ford of your choice at your Ford Dealer's. Find out why Ford is America's "Worth More" car.

General Strike Called in Guiana

Anti-British Boycott Asked by Ousted Leftist Cabinet Minister

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Ousted leftist Cabinet ministers in Britain's South American colony launched a general strike and anti-British boycott today but the Pan-American Day holiday delayed any effects until tomorrow.

Fired Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan said his People's Progressive party (PPP) had called the walkout and cold-shoulder treatment "because our country has been invaded by foreign troops and our democratic rights have been taken away."

Britain rushed 600 Royal Welsh Fusiliers here from Jamaica last week and kicked out Jagan and the five other PPP Cabinet ministers Friday, charging they were plotting to bring the 83,000-square mile colony of 438,000 persons under domination of communism linked with Russia.

The Privy Council in London also suspended the Constitution granted the colony five months earlier and gave Colonial Governor Sir Alfred Savage wide emergency powers.

The surprise move astonished the colony but was carried out without disorder. The U. S. government emphatically approved the British action.

It also won support from the strong-man leader of Jamaica's laborers—Prime Minister William Alexander Bustamante.

Bustamante, whose voice is influential throughout the Indies, said in Kingston the Guiana leaders could expect no sympathy from the free-thinking world. However, if they had been fighting for self-rule "within the democratic nations" Bustamante declared, "I would have paralyzed the entire country (Jamaica) to help Guiana."

Jagan yesterday labeled as "just nonsense" the British charges that he had tried to turn the rum and sugar producing colony into a Red puppet state. "If there is any Communist plot," the handsome 35-year-old East Indian told reporters "why haven't its leaders been jailed and details of the conspiracy revealed?"

The British Colonial Office accused Jagan and his American-born wife, the former Janet Rosenberg, 32, of heading the Red plot but did not arrest them or other PPP chiefs. London said Mrs. Jagan and others of the PPP were "closely associated with international Communist organizations."

Consumption of gasoline in 1952 rose to an all-time peak of 46.4 billion gallons.

Prime Minister Resigns in Ceylon

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Prime Minister Dudley Senanayake resigned today. His retirement was attributed to acute stomach trouble aggravated by political opposition.

Governor General Lord Soulbury named Senanayake's cousin, transport Minister Sir John Kotelawela, to succeed him.

Senanayake has been ill for some time.

Criticism of his government mounted with riots last August against spreading inflation and rising food prices. Troops were called out and at least nine persons were killed. The government also lost U. S. financial support when it agreed to sel (Communist China rubber in exchange for rice.

Bank Robbers Escape but Without Tool

ARAPAHO, Okla. (AP)—Bank robbers who were hoping for a big haul after they broke into the Custer National Bank here came up with a deficit instead.

An alert cashier showed up after dark to take care of some unfinished business and surprised the burglars. They hurriedly escaped, leaving behind an expensive set of drills, dynamite and caps.

The first printing press west of the Alleghenies was brought to Michigan by Fr. Gabriel Richard, a Catholic priest of Detroit.

Husband, Friend Held in Slaying

Woman Employe Sticks With Suspect in Wife's Bludgeon-Death

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (UP)—A comely office employe, being held as a material witness, continued to refuse bond and remained in jail today with her employer, who police say bludgeoned his wife to death.

The husband, Richard Russell, 39-year-old businessman charged with murder, said he knew nothing of his wife's death last Saturday. He told police he saw his wife before he went to sleep and found her body when he awoke.

Russell said that his petite 39-year-old wife was "agreeable" to his plans for a divorce but did not know of his love for Miss Barbara Griggs, 23, who worked in his pest-exterminating supply business.

Held under $5,000 bond as a material witness, Miss Griggs said she doesn't want to leave the jail where Russell is held without bond.

In police headquarters Saturday, Russell put his arms around the sobbing Miss Griggs and said, "I love her better than anything else in the world."

The body was found in the Russell's shop below their apartment. Police said bloodstains on the upstairs bedroom ceiling placed the killing in that room, where Russell maintains he slept through the night. He said he saw his wife as he retired in their bedroom at 1:30 a. m. Saturday, and found her body in a downstairs storeroom when he awoke about 7 a. m.

The coroner, Dr. M. W. Summerville, said she died about 2 a. m. Police said their investigations led them to believe the husband killed her at that time, dragged the body downstairs, spent the next five hours or so cleaning up evidence, then called police.

The coroner said Mrs. Russell was killed by a blow on the head. The weapon has not been found.

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (UP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt says she always has a cake on her birthdays.

He Went Wrong Way Looking for Excitement

DALLAS (UP)—Looking for excitement, Manager Charles Gower of a movie house hopped in his car last night and sped to the scene of a reported prowler disturbance.

While he was gone two men took more than $300 at gunpoint from his cashier, C. D. Hudson, and escaped.

New Type Razor Packs Forty-Inch Long Blade

NEW YORK (UP) — A new razor packs the equivalent of 32 shaving blades to do away with the familiar blade-change problem.

The secret is a thin strip of sharpened steel 40 inches long. This is wound on a reel insidethe razor.

When you want a new cutting edge on the blade, a twist of the fingers does the trick as the steel strip unwinds.

Nutrients Often Added to Foods for Sales Appeal

EAST LANSING (UP) — Sales appeal, not benefit to consumers, is too often the main consideration in the addition of vitamins and minerals to foods, a federal authority said today.

Dr. E. M. Nelson, chief of the division of Nutrition of the U. S. Food and Drug Administration, addressed 600 persons attending "Nutrition Day" at Michigan State College.

Dr. Nelson said an example of a beneficial addition to foods was the use of iodine in table salt to reduce goiter. He also applauded the addition of vitamin D to milk to prevent rickets in children, and the addition of vitamins and minerals to flour.

Dr. L. M. Turk, director of the MSC Agricultural Experiment Station, said there is no evidence that soil nutrients and fertilizers affect the nutritive quality of crops and the health of men and animals. He said animal products, including milk, are even less likely to reflect soil deficiencies than are plant products.

Final Hearing Today on New Business Tax

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's new business activities tax gets a final airing today before it starts to fatten state coffers.

The State Revenue Department will open a public hearing at 1:30 p. m. to give taxpayers a last chance to object to proposed rules and regulations.

Deputy Revenue Commissioner Clarence W. Lock said he anticipated a packed senate chamber for the hearing, but he said he did not look for many objections.

The rules, Lock said, have been threshed out with representative business groups and associations. He expressed belief they would prove acceptable without much argument.

The tax, which became effective July 1, must be paid for the first quarter of the fiscal year by Oct. 31. Between 60,000 and 100,000 taxpayers are expected to file returns.

The tax does not affect anyone whose income is less than $20,000 a year.

The average American farm family drives an eight-year-old car, says the U. S. Census Bureau.

LOVABLE LAME-BRAIN — Pattee Chapman shows how she used to tote a tray when she was working as a waitress in Will Wright's ice cream parlor in Beverly Hills, Calif. Ed (Archie) Gardner, proprietor of the "Duffy's Tavern" TV show, dropped in and Pattee gave out with the Miss Duffy chatter. Now she's signed to a five-year contract to play the likeable lamebrain in the show.

Asks Nations to Give More

Senator Says Parley Countries Should Boost Technical, Financial Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) told legislators from 32 nations today that other countries should contribute more to international programs of technical and financial aid.

Thus far the United States has "picked up most of the check," he said, but improved economic conditions within other nations require them to put up a larger share of the cost now for "genuine international collaboration."

Sparkman made his statements in a speech prepared for the conference of the Interparliamentary Union, being held in the House of Representatives chamber. He was the second U. S. delegate to raise the question of American aid abroad.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) last Saturday called on free world nations to explain why they could not assume a greater share of mutual defense costs.

Gore told the assembly the American people want "satisfactory answers," and unless these were forthcoming Congress would be unable to justify the necessity of large foreign aid appropriations every year.

Sparkman, in urging larger foreign contributions to technical assistance programs, said he doubted the job could be done by private agencies. Governmental participation is "imperative," he declared.

Heard in a Pontiac Church Sunday

Be Missionary at Home to Have Full, Happy Life

The Rev. Ralph C. Claus, pastor of St. Trinity Lutheran Church, spoke yesterday from the subject "Something to Live For."

This church was organized in 1885 and the Rev. Mr. Claus came here as pastor in March, 1952.

He used for his text, "He died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto Him which died for them and rose again." 2 Cor. 5:15.

"She died of a broken heart." "He has nothing to live for," "He has lost his will to live." These phrases when spoken imply that people must have something for which to live.

REV. RALPH C. CLAUS

People who are tired of life, and yet are afraid to die, are those who have lived to no good purpose; who have breathed rather than lived.

Do you have something to live for? Some people simply drift around in life like a cloud in the sky; they have no aims, no goals, no ambitions.

But to live is not merely to breathe, it is to act; it is to make use of our organs, senses, faculties, and of all those parts of ourselves which give us the feeling of existence, using them to live a life with God.

Our text points out that some people simply "live unto themselves." It has been the simple and natural thing for man to do ever since he turned away from God by the first sin. Living to one's self includes all sins of selfishness toward God, and one's fellow men.

Living to one's self exhibits itself in grumpiness and illtemper, in a lack of kindness an tolerence and in disregard of other people's feelings and safety.

It exhibits itself by all methods of placing one's own convenience and pleasure ahead of God. This involves all manner of sins against the first three commandments.

Show me an unhappy and miserable person and I will show you one who is "living unto himself."

Since God made, sustains and redeems us, He alone can really give us something to live for. He who has given us physical and spiritual life is the only one who can give us the proper aims of life.

Jesus, the eternal Son of God, took human nature upon Himself, lived under the Law in perfect obedience to God's Will, and thus kept the Law for us. Then, by His innocent suffering and death He paid the deb of sin fo rus.

Now, by accepting Christ as our Savior and trusting in His blood-bought payment for sin, we have forgiveness and are bought back to the family of God.

Christ has purchased and won us from all sin, death and the power of the devil in order that we might be his own, and live under His Kingdom and serve Him.

Our life belongs to God! The apostle states: "For ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's."

Live for the purpose of bringing the forgiveness and peace of Christ to the people of the world by being missionaries at home and by supporting missionaries abroad.

Live for the purpose of making the present blessed by loving God in words, deeds and attitudes.

Live for the purpose of securing a blessed future, a generation in which your children also enjoy the rich blessings of God by sacrificing now for the advancement of Christian education.

Live for the purpose of relieving physical suffering.

Live not to keep your mind muscle-bound with bigotry and intolerance, but live to keep your heart and head full and free with the truth and wisdom ow God."

Live for the purpose of keeping your faith in the blood-bought salvation of Chris' alive and active. In living thus you will find a greater and more abundant life.

Let every Christian realize: "He (Christ) died for all that they which live (by faith in Him) should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto Him which died for them and rose again."

Technical Personnel Shortage to Continue

HARRIMAN, N. Y. (AP)—Seventy-five experts at a manpower conference say shortages of trained medical, teaching and engineering personnel will continue for another decade.

The experts say the shortage will persist even if there is an economic recession, because of a "gross imbalance" between demand and available talent.

Sponsor of the conference was the National Manpower Council, set up in 1951 at Columbia University's Graduate School of Business and financed by a Ford Foundation grant. The four-day conference ended yesterday.

Fans Request Jane Be Kind

Apartment to Be Nicer; Whole New Format Is Being Prepared

NEW YORK—Irma Peterson is getting smarter! Yes, more intelligent, if you like. Intelligence, may startle you; heretofore that was a word unheard of in "My Friend Irma's" little world.

But the gods who see all and know all decreed that Irma was too dumb, that Jane was too mean and Al a bit too wild.

Result? A complete new format for one of CBS' pride and joy shows.

How is Irma taking it? In stride, of course. Although she is not as stupid as before, our friend is still far from bright, using such tried and true Irmaisms as "My uncle wanted to sell a dog house, and do you know what? He couldn't." Everyone then choruses in, "Not one dog answered the ad."

The phenomenally long-lashed blonde with the vacant smile was born 36 years ago in Anheim, Col. Strange as it may seem Marie Wilson (her real name) attended schools just as millions of normal little children.

Curvy Marie, though, knew a good thing when she saw it and realized her face as well as her figure would soon make a fortune.

Marie became a model and dabbled in dramatics before she realized her forte. Everywhere she went people commented on her "dazed" look.

Not in an uncomplimentary way of course, just as a matter of speaking.

Marie lapsed ito the habit of playing dumb. Even now, at press interviews, the demure Miss Wilson will pop out with a startling malapropism. It makes people wonder whether it's all an act or not.

"My Friend Irma" started out as an innocent radio show. It mushroomed into movies, television, even a comic book now carries the adventures of Irma Peterson.

The TV version came in for some strict revisions this fall. A new roommate, Kay Foster (Mary Shipp) was introduced to the public. Jane Stacy, fans wrote in, was too mean to Irma. Browbeat the poor darling, much too much. And Irma was just a little too unintelligent to be plausible, so the script now calls for Irma to give a semblance of mental balance.

Al was just not the right type for the sweet innocent girl, and a new boy friend is set to replace him in the near future.

The apartment the girls share is also a better one, even though Miss Peterson is still employed by the long suffering Mr. Clyde.

Another completely new character will be added to the series soon. A nephew of Irma's who will make his home with the two girls. All in all, "My Friend Irma" should provide some refreshing new laug'is.

Marie Wilson in real life is content to let people take their pick of her personalities. With husband Bob Fallon, she smiles, "Some people like me to be dumb and some smart. Isn't it lucky I'm both?"

IRREPRESSIBLE IRMA — Zany Marie Wilson, in the form of Irma Peterson, lighthearted secretary, again graces TV screens throughout America each Friday. A completely new format has been launched on the "My Friend Irma" series; so far results have been hilarious.

Track Meet Called Off When Coaches Forget

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP) — The Fulton High School coach, B. E. Sharp, waited an hour after the time for a track meet with Chattanooga High School to begin.

Then he put in a call to the new Chattanooga coach.

"Where's your team?" he asked. "The meet was supposed to start an hour ago."

"What meet?" the Chattanooga coach asked.

It developed the outgoing coach had not informed his successor of the schedule. The teams will try to get together next year.

Homeless Alumni Meet to Revive Old Memories

MOREHEAD, Ky. (UP)—Ghosts of the old Morehead Normal School were revived temporarily recently when 82 white haired alumni met in tribute to their now defunct alma mater.

Graduates and former students of the old school, which wnet out of existence 31 years ago, talked over old times.

The school existed from 1887 to 1922, sponsored by the Christian Womens Board of Missions.

Red Trial Ends on West Coast

Convict Five Defendents of Conspiracy to Teach Government Overthrow

SEATTLE (UP)—One of the longest criminal trials in Pacific Northwest history came to a close here Saturday when a federal court jury convicted five of six persons charges with conspiracy to teach and advocate the violent overthrow the government.

The sixth defendant, labor leader Karly Larsen, was acquitted by the six men and six women jurors.

Scheduled to be sentenced Friday by Federal Judge William J. Lindberg for violation of the Smith Act were:

Henry P. Huff, state chairman of the Communist party.

Terry Pettus, Northwest editor of the Communist Daily Peoples' World and a member of the party's district committee.

John S. Daschbach, a member of the Communist party's review commission and chairman of the state Civil Rights Congress.

Paul M. Bowen, leader of the state Negro Communist movement and member of the party's Northwest District Committee.

Mrs. Barbara Hartle, organization secretary for the Communist party's Northwest District.

They face a maximum sentence of five years in prison or $10,000 fine or both. Defense attorneys said yesterday they would appeal.

Larsen, ousted as district vice president of the CIO International Woodworkers of America shortly after the trial began, maintained throughout that he left the party in 1946 after being a member for 13 years.

The marathon trial began April 15, with seven defendants. But on Aug. 2, two days before he was scheduled to take the stand for cross-examination, William J. Pennock, president of the Washington Pension Union, was found dead in his Seattle home. The death was listed as suicide.

Americans each year eat 570 million pounds of macaroni, spaghetti and vermicelli; about 200 million pounds of egg noodles; and 10,350,000 pounds of plain noodles.

Pet Kangaroo Injures Young Australian Lad

BRISBANE (UP) — A 5-foot pet kangaroo jumped a 6 foot fence at Laidley, near Brisbane, and savagely attacked 10-year-old Rodney Welk. The kangaroo tore the child's clothes to pieces, but before it had seriously injured him Mrs. Welk, attracted by the noise, chased it off.

Rodney was taken to hospital with scratches from his legs to the top of his head. His parents said they had reared the kangaroo and its female mate, and this was the first time anything like this had happened.

The Welks are now giving both the kangaroos to the Botanic Gardens, Brisbane.

Rare Illustrated Book Presented to Princeton

PRINCETON, N. J. (UP) — An original copy of the first illustrated book ever published on this continent, the Rev. William Hubbard's "A Narrative of the Troubles with the Indians in New England" published in Boston in 1677, has been presented to Princeton University.

The 250-page literary treasure, presented to the university by a New York City attorney, and Princeton alumnus, Sinclair Hamilton, contains a map of New England engraved by John Foster, colonial America's first engraver and printer.

WHITE CROSS Sending Out FREE Information in Nation-Wide Drive

Are You Protected Against Doctor and Hospital Bills

...as completely and at such low cost as the 5 million people now under the WHITE CROSS PLAN?

[INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES ARE ELIGIBLE—NO PHYSICAL EXAMINATION REQUIRED COMPARE THIS PLAN WITH ANY OTHER PLAN IN EXISTENCE]

THIS happens every day. A family is getting along fine . . . making ends meet, planning for the future. Then suddenly, an unexpected sickness or accident brings a pile of doctor and hospital bills. Savings that took years to build up are wiped out in weeks. The family is forced to borrow so heavily it will take them quite some time before they can start saving for the future again.

Don't let this tragedy happen to you. Under WHITE CROSS, the famous low-cost plan, you can protect your whole family against doctor and hospital bills for just a few pennies a day!

No wonder over 5 MILLION PEOPLE have turned to WHITE CROSS—making it the fastest-growing health protection plan in existence. Last year alone, Bankers Life & Casualty Company paid out $33 MILLION to its policy holders.

Compare WHITE CROSS point by point with any other plan you have ever heard of. You can get the complete plan or any part of it. (See list below). Then rush coupon at bottom of page for fuller details on cash benefits and WHITE CROSS' low rates for individuals and family groups.

OPERATIONS

Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, you can get $5.00 to $250.00 for operations . . . for each member of your family . . . for each different sickness or accident.

It is impossible here to list all the operations which the Plan covers. Virtually every known form of surgery is listed . . . from stitching a simple wound (at the doctor's office or in your home) to the most complicated forms of brain surgery. And to allow for unique or new operations, it is provided as follows, "For any operation not specified, the Company will pay the fee provided for any operation of comparable gravity and severity." You see, the widest possible protection at low cost is always the aim under the WHITE CROSS PLAN.

Just a Few of the Operations for Which Payment is Provided Under The Plan

- Cutting into abdomen for diagnosis or treatment
- Abscess of the brain
- Amputations of legs, arms or fingers
- Appendix, removal of
- Brain tumor
- Breast removal or removal of cyst or tumor on breast
- Kidney removal
- Removal of stone or tumor from kidney or urinary tract
- Prostate operation
- Removal of tube or ovary
- Goitre operations
- Lung removal
- Cutting into chest for diagnosis or treatment
- Tumors (cancerous and benign) — removal of
- Varicose Veins, treatment by cutting or injection
- Operations to reduce dislocations of hip, knee, shoulder, jaw, finger, etc.
- Removal of shoulder or hip joint or removal of diseased portion of the bone
- Mastoid operations
- Tonsil removal
- Adenoid removal
- Sinus operations
- Hernia, single or double
- Hemorrhoids (Piles)—cutting operation for radical cure
- Eye operations for removal of cataracts, etc.
- Fractures, simple or compound, to legs, arms, wrist, finger, nose, skull, etc.
- Gall Bladder operation
- Spine operations
- Circumcision
- Removal of Uterus
- . . . and many more

HOSPITAL ROOM & MEALS

up to $1,500.00 for each different sickness or accident

Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, you can get from $4 to $15 per day for 100 days for hospital room and meals each time someone in your family goes to the hospital. This is not a yearly allowance but rather the amount which is allowed for each different sickness or accident to each different member of your family. Needless to say, in case of a family accident this could add up to a very large sum . . . a sum which no ordinary family could pay out of its own savings.

And, remember, one person in every 2 families will need hospital care this year.

X-RAYS, DRUGS, CARDIOGRAMS

Hospital benefits do not stop at mere room and meals. Under this famous low-cost plan, you can also get cash for many other hospital expenses for which you might not expect to be covered. You can get paid for operating room charges, anesthetics, X-rays, drugs, dressings. And you are even given an allowance for electrocardiograms for heart examinations as provided in policy.

FIRST AID & OTHER OUT-PATIENT BENEFITS

Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, you DON'T have to be a bed patient or stay overnight to receive hospitalization benefits.

X-rays and laboratory tests as well as medical treatment and operations are all covered, even though you do not remain in the hospital that night. Furthermore, Bankers Life & Casualty Company will pay the cost of emergency treatment (as specified) for any accidents even though no hospital residence is established.

CHILDREN'S AILMENTS

Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, it is easy to include children in the family's original plan and also to add children as they are born. It is very wise to do this. The cost is very little. And the benefits can be very great. Children need medical care so often for childhood diseases, tonsil and adenoid operations, and what-not. Hospital room and meals cost just as much for a child as for an adult, you know. So do X-rays, laboratory tests, and such things. Yet, these are all covered under the WHITE CROSS PLAN.

AMBULANCE, BLOOD TRANSFUSIONS

If you have had to pay a hospital bill recently, you know that there are many items you did not anticipate . . . items that run up a hospital bill. Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, every effort is made to cover these items. Not only is there money allowed for ambulance service, iron lung, blood transfusions, oxygen . . . but there is even a cash allowance up to $25 for "any other necessary hospital expense."

POLIO

With new treatment, many patients can look forward to recovery with no crippling after-effects. You can also get WHITE CROSS protection that provides money for this modern treatment, use of iron lung, etc.

DOCTOR VISITS—

even for ordinary sickness

Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, you get up to $150.00 (depending on the number of doctor visits) for each member of your family and for each different sickness or accident, where the doctor treats you, at your home, his office — or the hospital.

CHILDBIRTH BENEFITS

Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, you can get (after you have been a member for 9 months) hospital expenses up to 10 times your daily hospital rate for childbirth or any complication of pregnancy.

Leg Crushed—Gets $680.00

"Little did I realize when I took out your Hospital Expense protection . . . that just a little over a month later I would be in an accident . . . My right leg was crushed between two mine cars. Your company to date paid me a total of $680.00 on my claim."

Peter Zulick, St. Clair, Pa.

FEMALE DISORDERS

WHITE CROSS protection is wide and varied. Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, you can get cash paid direct to you for treatment of female disorders or urinary ailments (after six months), varicose veins, and other quite common treatments that can run up sizeable doctor bills.

MONEY TO LIVE ON

when you're laid up and can't work

Perhaps you've said this to yourself: "I wish I could be sure of a certain amount of money each month even when I'm laid up and unable to work." This is well worth thinking about. For, after all, at such times even though your earnings do not continue — you still have to meet payments for rent, food, clothing, gas and electricity, time payments on the car, and so on. Very often these bills become a mental burden to the person who is laid up and it makes it hard for him to concentrate on getting well.

WHITE CROSS saves you this worry

Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN, you can get up to $300.00 a month while in the hospital and up to $200.00 a month while you're at home getting well. In cases of extended illness or serious injury, this money often spells the difference between a family saved and a family deep in debt.

Gets Paid for Third Operation

"I'm out of the hospital and feeling fine again and even have my peace of mind thanks to Bankers Life & Casualty Co. who paid me my third surgery. Without this insurance, we would surely be in debt. My thanks to all of your company."

Genevieve L. Lenfert, Kankakee, Illinois

PROTECTS YOUR WHOLE FAMILY FOR A FEW PENNIES A DAY

Under the WHITE CROSS PLAN — the low-cost plan — you can protect your whole family against doctor and hospital bills for just a few pennies a day. That's for everyone—the children and all.

Although low in cost, the WHITE CROSS PLAN represents good cash benefits and good service. This low-cost, quick-pay policy has helped make it the fastest-growing health-protection plan in the entire world.

You May Choose Any Doctor or Hospital

You enjoy the utmost freedom under the WHITE CROSS PLAN. You are not limited to a few doctors or hospitals. Any accredited physician may treat you and you may use any hospital, large or small, and receive full benefits under the plan.

NO RED TAPE

- Money is paid to your hospital, your doctor, or you — as you direct.
- You don't have to join a group or go through red tape.
- No pro-rating—you get the full amount even if claim is covered by Workmen's Compensation or other insurance.
- You don't have to be a bed-patient to collect hospital benefits.
- You can get as little or as much protection as you want.

More Than Covers Cost of Operation

"I am writing to acknowledge your checks for my son's operations. We were very thrilled to have your policy pay us in full for this operation; in fact, a few dollars more. We have had many insurance policies and they have never satisfied us as your policy has. Thank you for the promptness and friendly way you handled this matter."

Arthur Lautner, St. Louis, Missouri

Receives $259.00 for Hospital Expenses

"I want to express my deepest appreciation for the claim of $259 for hospital bills which has been received. If I could only find words to help others receive the same wonderful benefits offered through your hospitalization that I have received. My heartfelt thanks go to you for this wonderful service."

(Mrs.) Sadie B. Seaton, Goodlettsville, Tenn.

Quiz Farmers on U.S. Controls

House Committee Goes to Minneapolis to Get Popular Opinion

MINNEAPOLIS (UP) — The House Agriculture Committee came to this midwestern livestock-dairy-grain center today to ask farmers what kind of role they think government should play in farming.

This question is shaping up as a major economic and political issue for next year's session of Congress and elections at which many lawmakers will be fighting to hold their seats.

Opening a 1,200-mile airplane and bus tour through seven major farming and politically-important states, the committee invited 60-odd farmers and farm organization leaders to give their views on how agriculture might be made and kept prosperous.

The Eisenhower administration's farm chief, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, has asserted that farmers should try to work out their problems with less government help.

The house committee, while controlled by Republicans, has indicated that it is not in full agreement with Benson.

Saturday it urged the secretary to act immediately to keep cattle prices from going below present levels to "head off economic disaster among livestock producers."

The committee also has been advising Benson to resist suggestions from some of his aides that he reduce price supports for grain crops important in this region — oats, rye, barley and flaxseed.

Chairman Clifford Hope (R-Kas) said the committee was particularly interested in ideas of farmers on whether the government should continue its present dairy price support program under which it has bought nearly 30 million dollars worth of butter, cheese and dried milk.

Secretary Benson has the power to lower dairy supports next April 1 and has indicated he may reduce them unless the dairy industry comes up with a "self-help" program.

IT'S CLEARER NOW—Cecelia Larrance, 5, of 141 S. Parke St. wears her new glasses as she demonstrates how "sight games" are played at the Pontiac Vision Screening Clinic. Holding the letter E, used in the vision tests, is Birmingham Junior League examiner Mrs. Edward Haskett. Cecelia took her tests last spring, discovered a serious vision defect. Tomorrow the sight clinic will reopen, offering free tests for children 3 to 5. Tests will be given from 9:30 a. m. to noon Tuesday and Wednesday through Nov. 4, at Stevens Hall, Williams and Pike Sts.

First Meeting Slated Tonight

200 Students Enrolled in Junior Achievement Program This Fall

The first of eight Junior Achievement companies to be set up in Pontiac this fall will hold an organizational meeting tonight at the JA business center, 53 Mill St.

Throughout the week, the seven other companies will also whip their firms into shape for the 1953-54 business season. Two hundred Pontiac students have joined the program this fall.

Another 3,000 teenagers also will begin operations of the 184 JA companies in Ann Arbor, Birmingham, Dearborn, Detroit, Monroe, Plymouth, Wayne, Wyandotte and Ypsilanti this week.

William J. Dean, chairman of Pontiacs' J A Board, announced that Pontiac as part of the Southeastern Michigan area of J A will be in the second largest area in the nation this year.

"With additional sponsors and two more companies being operated this year, J A is firmly established in Pontiac," Dean said.

Boys and girls from Pontiac High School, St. Michael's High and St. Frederick's High, who enrolled in the program at high school assemblies during the past two weeks, will operate firms producing products in wood, plastics, metals, ceramics, textiles and chemicals for the next eight months.

Each firm, averging 25 members, will be under the sponsorship of an established business or industrial organization which has volunteered three of its executives to meet with the Junior Achievers and work with them as advisers in management, sales and production.

The companies will meet at the business center one night a week for two hours from now through next May.

Sponsoring and advising J A firms in Pontiac will be:

Community National Bank, with Carroll L Osmun, Willard V. Johnson, Gordon M. McLeod, and Edward S. Ladd as advisers.

Fisher Body Division, advisers: Vernell E. Kaul, Homer A. Conant, and Carl Nordquest.

GMC Truck & Coach Division, advisers: G. A. Fredericks, G. W. Hall and D. C. Inman.

Michigan Bell Telephone, advisers: Maurice Brackenbury, Robert Sutton, C. D. Robinette and Russel Vessels.

Pontiac Motor Division, advisers: W. D. Hanby, G. R. Moran, and W. L. Criger.

Pontiac Retail Store, advisers: Clyde Howse, Jack Seebald, Garfield Richardson and Henry E. Gotham.

Pontiac Rotary Club, advisers: William J. Dean, Noyce Strait, Forest Wood, George A. Heenan and Ed L. Williams.

Standard Oil of Indiana, advisers: B. L. Cole, Stine Hale and Russell Granzo.

Subconscious Smart in Drink-Stupid Bum

By BILLY ROSE

When I was in Madrid last January, Edward Knoblaugh, the INS correspondent, told me an odd story about a bum and 45,000 pesetas. . .

BILLY ROSE

The bum's name was Manuel Santora and for years he had been a familiar figure around the famous bull ring known as La Arena.

He generally hung around the main entrance and, if Knoblaugh wasn't exaggerating, the aficionados knew him almost as well as they did the toreadors.

Like most beggars in Madrid, Manuel claimed he had been a matador in his younger days and that an accident had forced him to quit.

Details of the accident varied every time he told the story, but the end was always the same—while acknowledging the plaudits of the audience he had been gored by a bull.

"El sino es malo," he'd say, screwing up his face like Charlie Chaplin. And so it was that he came to be nicknamed "Sinomalo," meaning "hard luck." . . .

Our tale starts a couple of summers ago on the day of an important program when a tourist asked Manuel to hold a place in line for him and tipped him a hundred pesetas.

This is about $2.50 in U. S. money, but you can buy a lot with it in Madrid.

The bum decided to celebrate his windfall and set out for a wine shop near the arena. On the way over, however, it occurred to him that this might be his lucky day, and so when he got to the cantina he went upstairs to the gambling room.

The players grinned when the old bum picked up the dice and bet his hundred pesetas, but only Manuel was smiling when he finally laid the dice down. He had made 22 consecutive passes and was ahead 45,000 pesetas.

"What are you going to do with so much money?" one of the gamblers asked.

Manuel took a wadded-up handkerchief out of his pocket and opened it. In it was a small cameo of a woman.

"It's my mother," he said. "Long ago when she died there was no money to bury her. Men who work for the city came around and took the body, and buried it in the place for beggars and criminals.

"Such a disgrace will never happen to me. The first thing I will do is buy a piece of ground for my grave."

"What will you do with the rest of the money?" said the gambler.

"Two thousand pesetas," said Manuel, "I will spend to get drunk like a gentleman." . . .

Late that afternoon the bum drove out to a cemetery on the outskirts of Madrid and selected a burial plot. And he felt a foot taller as he counted out the 3,000 pesetas it cost.

"That's a great deal of money you're carrying," said the cemetery attendant. "Shouldn't it be in a bank?"

"A bank is where I'm going," said Manuel.

On his way back to the city, the bum passed one of the better cantinas. The temptation was too much.

"Brandy and a glass of manzanilla," he ordered.

"That's a strong drink," said the proprietor.

"I have just become a man of property," said Manuel. "It is a thing to celebrate."

When he left the cantina he was weaving a bit. Down the street was a cafe famous for its absinthe. He went in, resumed his drinking and, by midnight, was very, very drunk.

When Manuel regained consciousness it was morning and he was lying in an alley in a strange part of Madrid. There was a lump on his forehead and blood was dripping from a cut in his cheek. In a panic, he fumbled through his pockets. His money was gone.

"I've been robbed!" the old bum sobbed. "Ay dios mio! I've been robbed!"

The last place Manuel remembered was Horcher's Restaurant where he had been denied admittance. He tried to recall where he had gone after that, but his fuzzed mind wouldn't tell him a thing.

Perhaps he had hidden the money in his room. He ran all the way home. His bed hadn't been slept in and there was nothing under the mattress.

Perhaps he had handed it to a friend for safekeeping. For days he questioned everyone he knew. No one even remembered seeing him that night. . .

A month later, the heart-sick and half-starved bum fell asleep in a parking lot near the arena. Next morning pneumonia set in, and the following day he was dead.

When the gamblers in the room over the cantina heard the news, they shook their heads. "Sinomalo was the right name for him," said one of them.

"At least he has a place for a grave," said another. "It wouldn't be too much for us to buy him a box."

On the day of the funeral, several of the gamblers went out to the cemetery.

Shortly after the gravediggers went to work, they came upon something white.

It was a handkerchief—wrapped around a cameo and 40,000 pesetos.

UAW Assails Chrysler Policy

Says Feast or Famine Method Has Cut Pay to Bare Subsistence

DETROIT (UP) — The CIO United Auto Workers union charges that Chrysler Corporation's "feast or famine" policy of overproduction has cut the work week of some employes to less than 16 hours.

Norman Matthews, UAW Chrysler director, said the firm's "irresponsible and anti-social" policies have created a "rebellious state of mind both in its work force and among dealers who have been forced to take more cars than sales volume would indicate."

Matthews said in a letter to John Leary, Chrysler director of labor relations, that overproduction during the first half of 1953 cut the paychecks of "tens of thousands" of workers to bare subsistence levels since the end of July.

He said some workers have been on the job "only three or four days a week, some of them less than 16 hours."

The letter asked an early meeting with Chrysler officials in an effort to get employes back on full 40-hour weeks.

Chrysler replied that a production lag in recent months was caused by a tool and die strike earlier this year. It said the strike caused the firm to "stretch out" the 1953 model schedule to fill in what would have been 1954 model production.

"Most Chrysler divisions are now in the midst of model changeover," a company spokesman said.

Matthews said the Chrysler reply was a "weak attempt to find a scapegoat for over-production."

Community Service Talk Slated Oct. 13

The fourth in a series of six lectures on community services will be held Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. in CIO Local 594 hall, 90 Mt. Clemens St., with "Children's Services" topic of discussion.

Miss Madeline Half, director of Pontiac Guild Guidance Clinic, will discuss services available from private agencies and William McCarthy, director of the Juvenile Division of Oakland County Probate Court, will talk on public agencies.

The classes are sponsored by the Community Services Committee of the Oakland County CIO Council and the Pontiac Area United Fund under the chairmanship of Arthur Heaton.

The series is being presented without charge for all interested persons.

Open Midland Drive

MIDLAND (UP) — Eight-hundred volunteer workers launched a drive today to funnel $102,173 into the Midland Community Fund. Eugene E. Perrin of the Dow Chemical Company's public relations department is chairman of the drive which ends Oct. 25.

Snow to Herald Opening of New Hunting Season

A new kind of bird season that requires no hunting license and permits the sportsman to watch for his quarry from an armchair opens when snow falls.

And no elaborate equipment is required. Suet, sunflower seeds, crushed raw peanuts or baby chick scratch mixture will lure the game into the "Hunter's" backyard.

All he has to do is wait and watch. For the sport, described by Walter P. Nickell, naturalist at Cranbrook Institute of Science, is winter bird-watching.

Nickell said many varieties of birds can be persuaded to remain here through the winter by proper feeding stations.

Besides attracting a parade of living color to his yard, the lucky sportsman may get snapshots of such rare birds as the purple finch, tufted titmouse, pine siskin, bronzed grackel and cedar waxwing.

Once started, a feeding station should be kept stocked until spring because the birds might perish if their food supply suddenly was cut off, warned Nickell.

The naturalist said beginning "hunters" can get tips on good designs for homemade feeding stations from a booklet published by the Institute.

Controls White Products

NEW YORK (UP)—Edward Lamb Enterprises Inc., of Toledo, Ohio, has acquired control of White Products Corp. of Middlevile, Mich., a large producer of gas and electric hot water heaters. The Lamb firm acquired stock from Gerald E. White, president of White Products, amounting to about 70 per cent of the authorized capitalization.

Cecilia Larrance Outwits 'Blind Man'

Trip to Pontiac Vision Screening Clinic Brings Big Dividend to Local 5-Year-Old

By WILMA GREENWAY

Little 5-year-old Cecilia Larrance played a strange game for a very high stake, and won.

She played the game in Pontiac on a "set" stage, backed by a winning team of Junior League volunteers, against an opponent she couldn't see.

Her opponent was the "Blind Man"—the unseeing force that robs our school children of their precious sight.

The stake was Cecilia's eyesight, and all the things that go with it—the chance to do well in her school work, to compete on an equal basis with other children, to walk, not stumble, though life.

The stage was the Pontiac Vision Screening Clinic, held here last spring, and scheduled to re-open tomorrow for another three-week period.

Last spring 445 children between the ages of 3 and 5 played "sight games" when the clinic opened its project of free vision tests. Of those tested, 49 "struck out" the Blind Man by learning of vision defects in time.

This month a probable 750 will play the same game as the screening center holds tests from 9:30 to noon Tuesdays and Wednesdays at Stevens Hall, All Saints Episcopal Church, Williams and Pike Sts.

For the screening program, which is just fun for the kiddies, is a serious business for the Junior League of Birmingham which sponsors it—a business that pays off not in dolars and cents (league volunteers work for nothing) but in the knowledge that countless numbers of children have been saved unhappiness and possible tragdy by being steered toward better eyesight.

Little Cecilia is a case in point. She lives at 141 S. Parke St. here and she's winning, delicately-featured child with brown eyes.

Beautiful brown eyes that nobody suspected had difficulty seeing.

Cecilia's parents brought her in for a vision test merely as a routine precaution.

"We never dreamed there was anything wrong with her sight," Mrs. Larrance said. "She was aways writing and drawing."

But tests indicated serious trouble, and a subsequent examination by the Larrances' eye doctor showed that Cecilia was so near-sighted that, not only were glasses needed but the child was required to be kept out of kindergarten.

"I'm so grateful we found out in time," Mrs. Larrance said, "because in Cecilia's case a year late might have been 'too late.' As it is, she'll be able to enter first grade next year. And the doctor says her eyes have improved so much since she's been wearing glasses that by the time she does go to school she may be able to discard the glasses."

Little Cecilia's brown eyes will retain their brightness.

And at the screening center this month parents of many other youngsters will outwit the Blind Man as they bring their children for free sight examinations.

The league-sponsored clinic is held in cooperation with state and local health and education departments and is manned by specially-trained junior league women. Parents from Pontiac and outlying communities are invited to bring children aged 3 to 5 for testing. No appointment is needed. The clinic will be open 9:30 a.m. to noon Tuesdays and Wednesdays, Oct. 13 through Nov. 4, at Stevens Hall.

TV Audience Prays for POW Now With Reds

DETROIT (UP)— Evangelist Billy Graham and the mother of a Minnesota soldier who has refused repatriation from Communist Korea asked a nationwide television audience last night to pray for the GI.

The mother, Mrs. Portia Howe, and the famed North Carolina preacher asked the TV audience to join in prayer that Pvt. Richard R. Tenneson, of Alden, Minn., "may be reached by the Word of God."

The telecast, originating in Detroit, was carried by more than 35 stations.

Mrs. Howe, wife of a farmer and poultry processor, told the television audience her 20-year-old son was one of 23 Americans who have elected to stay with their Communist captors. She told Graham, who is currently conducting a four-week religious revival in Detroit, that she believed the only way to save her son was "through God."

Injunction Stalls Prison Camp

Interlochen Group Sees State Project as Threat to Music Center

TRAVERSE CITY (UP)—Circuit Judge Charles Brown has signed a temporary injunction restraining the state from starting construction on a proposed prison camp near the National Music Camp at Interlochen.

The injunction, signed by Judge Brown Saturday night, was on petition of Dr. Joseph Maddy, president and founder of the Interlochen music camp. Judge Brown ordered the state to show cause as to why the injunction should not be made permanent and set Oct. 16 for hearing date.

Dr. Maddy flew in from Florida to petition the order. He said he did not think it feasible for the state to build a work camp for prisoners so close to the music camp where thousands of children participate in music programs every summer.

The prison camp would be three and eight-tenths miles from the music camp under the proposal by the state.

Prisoners would supply labor for the Traverse City and Interlochen state parks and also work at the Fife Lake state forest to help in the state fishery program under the proposal.

C. of C. Assails CIO Annual Wage Plan

WASHINGTON (UP)— The U. S. Chamber of Commerce contends America's economy would be shackled by a plan advanced by the CIO to guarantee annual minimum wages for workers.

Some major CIO unions have argued that, unlike top managerial men, many employes on weekly salaries are docked when there are layoffs. They say employers would regularize production and employment if they had to pay penalty wages when there was no work.

The chamber of commerce, in a report Saturday, attacked this proposal as self-defeating. Rather than steady the economy, the report said, the plan would hamstring employers who can not control seasonal demand, monetary and tax changes and other factors.

TB X Rays May Uncover Heart, Lung Abnormalities

Free chest X-rays given to detect tuberculosis don't stop with TB alone, Dr. John D. Monroe, director of Oakland County Health Department, said today.

They also serve to detect lung cancer, heart conditions, and other abnormalities.

"Anything unusual which shows up on a chest X-ray is called to the attention of the person X-rayed or his family physician," Dr. Monroe said.

The health director commented that more people are making use of free X-rays, given from 8:30 until 11:30 a.m. Mondays through Fridays at Royal Oak Health Center and from 1:30 until 3:30 Mondays and Wednesdays and 2 until 4 p.m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at health department headquarters at West Huron and Wayne streets, Pontiac.

X-rays were given 10,234 people in 1952, as compared to 9,745 men and women the year before.

Dr. Monroe said that lung cancer death totals have been increasing growing population and more acbut that the rise may be due to curate diagnosis, and not to a higher rate per person.

Cancer of the lung, trachea or bronchus took 49 Oakland County lives last year, as against 40 in 1951.

Commission to Seek 'Outside' Advice

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Commission on Foreign Economic Policy announced today it will seek advice from non-governmental groups in drawing up its report for Congress.

It said "pertinent information" will be solicited, probably by letter, from organizations interested in international trade — including groups in American industry, agriculture and labor.

The 17-man commission, headed by Board Chairman Clarence B. Randall of Inland Steel Co., was set up by Congress last session to study what foreign trade policy the United States should follow. It is to report to Congress and the President early next year.

Practice Upsets Old Theory:

Managers Find Super Highways Not Always Safest

Freeways and expressways are not proving to the the safest highways, according to Walter K. Willman, Pontiac city manager.

Willman, who returned recently from the International City Managers' conference in Los Angeles, said the expressway idea was one of several long-established theories that city managers begin to doubt after sifting testimony from all over the United States.

"Experience is showing that human reflexes cannot cope with the high speeds permitted on these road," Willman said, "and resulting traffic accidents are terrific."

The four-day conference, attended by representatives from approximately 600 cities, was aimed at perfection of public management techniques through discussions led by technical experts.

Another theory that fringe area parking should be kept available for shippers has been pretty well upset, he said.

"Thinking is shifting to the view that fringe parking should be permitted for all-day parkers while shoppers should get complete first call on immediate, downtown parking.

"The notion of developing one-way streets as a means of maintaining a steady traffic flow has been compromised by commercial vehicle parking to unload and exit 'bunching' in heavy traffic.

"Better controls are essential to improve this kind of operation."

The theory that decentralization is inevitable has come under critical study, Willman continued, and is being replaced with a notion that it can be prevented if downtown areas are kept attractive to pedestrians.

"It has been shown that people prefer a concentration of stores, banks and office buildings within walking distance of each other.

"The problem is to get them out of their cars. This necessitates bringing them into the central business district by bus, taxi, jitney, etc., with adequate storage facilities for private cars.

"Experience is showing too," he said, "that curb parking in business sections can be eliminated with the 'towing away' policy gaining the eventual applause of both merchants and the public."

Other major topics of the four-day conference included joint city-county planning, policy on sewer and water service extension in fringe areas, problems of zoning, traffic and parking, public relations, informing the public, in-service training for city employes and juvenile delinquency.

Promoting industrial development, mass transportation, slum control, refuse and garage disposal special assessment procedures in financing capital improvements and pressure group relations were also subjects given attention at the conference.

Willman added that the commission - manager type government is winning favor the country over.

He said there are approximately 1,200 cities now using the commission - manager system, with about 60 cities adopting it every year.

The Pontiac manager was elected vice-president of the International City Managers Association at this year's convention.

Beau Refuses to Go Steady With Girl Till Her Sister Accepts His Best Pal

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

'Dear Miss Woodward: I'm crazy about Jack and he says he loves me and wants to go steady with me, but there's a hitch. He made an agreement with his best pal that he wouldn't go steady with me unless his pal could go with my sister.

"But she will have no part of that! I've talked it over with her but it's hopeless—she just won't go with him. So what can I do now?'

You could try to talk your Jack into talking his way out of that agreement with his best pal. Seems too bad that your dating arrangements should smash kerplunk all because some other lad's plans don't jell.

Maybe those two boys did agree that it would be a smooth deal if they could do their steady dating with two girls who lived at the same address — convenient, time-saving, economical.

And your Jack, in a cozy if weak) moment, promised to hold up the deal clinch until your sister was all signed up. The pal was counting on you and Jack to persuade your sister when his own best efforts had failed.

But she's pretty stubborn. She knows what she wants and doesn't want. And apparently has no intention of being roped in, even to save your hide, by a boy she does not want to date steadily.

It would be tough to be in your sister's position. Maybe she doesn't usually object to doing favors for you—but here's one that makes her gag.

She may approve highly of your going with Jack — but feel quite strongly that your boy friend is your business, not hers. And she undoubtedly feels bad about being responsible for keeping you two apart.

But she also feels that she has a right to pick out her own boy friends. She doesn't want to get stuck with someone she doesn't care about—even as a favor to you. She may figure she's winning the booby prize.

Her point of view is easy enough to understand—and to explain to your boy friend. Jack ought to be made to see that he should be free to make his own arrangements without any strings like an unsuccessful-at-love best pal) dangling around to trip him up.

See if you can't persuade him to get out of that agreement. Talk up some other girl for his boy friend. One who lives close enough to you to be equally convenient and time saving.

While that little broth is cooking on the back of the stove, reserve the steady part of your dating with Jack, but get the occasional-and-often dating started.

When his interest in you runs headlong into the stone wall that is his pal, he'll find a way through it, around it or over it.

After all, if the boy is Jack's best friend, he ought to want his happiness, not stand in his way.

Men Form Own Group at Parties

Hostess Objects to Having Her Guests Divided Up

By EMILY POST

A wife explains: "At several parties I have given recently, it seems that after a very short while the men gradually collect in a group and talk 'man's talk' and the women are left alone to 'gossip.'

"This does not make for a very successful party and I find it most annoying, but I don't know how to break it up. I would be grateful to your for any help you have to offer."

Answer: You could either have music to dance to or play games —otherwise there is little you can do.

Dear Mrs. Post: When an invitation reads "4 to 6 o'clock" or mentions any two hours, does it mean just to come in for a short time during those two hours? How long is it courteous to stay? Is the last hour mentioned the time the party is over?

Answer: When the invitation reads from "4 to 6," you may go at any time between those two hours and stay for as short or as long a time as you please. If the party is going well, and everyone is having a good time, it may well continue beyond the second hour.

Dear Mrs. Post: I've never made a practice of sending notices of my parties to the newspaper because I always have felt that it was not the proper thing to do.

However, most of the hostesses in this town send accounts of their parties to the newspaper and also the names of any houseguest who happen to be visiting them. Will you please tell me if such notices are in good taste?

Answer: If, as you say, everyone is doing it in your town, it would be quite proper for you to do the same.

Dear Mrs. Post: Isn't it a husband's duty to carve the roast at the table, even though the family has a maid? He thinks the maid should carve it before it is brought to the table.

Answer: It is a question of which one is the better carver! And whether you object to the longer time it takes to serve a meal when the roast is carved at the table.

Men's Belts Lend Color to Fall Garb

Men geared to fashion know that a variety of belts in the closet lends color to every outfit.

This fall, leather, braided and fabric belts are noted for their colors.

Side by side with the classic brown alligator tones are jet black and charcoal grey alligator belts. Not only do they represent the height of luxury, but they're also noted for long wear.

Ostrich is another luxury leather. For fall it's shown in a high fashion ringed contour belt.

Suede belts harmonize with flannel suits. Green, blue and tan are new suede shades that should receive nods of approval.

In braided belts, there's a trend away from navy to black and combinations of black with blue, red and silver.

Leather trim on braided belts matches dominant color in each braid combination.

New Paints for Every Whim, Need

By HUBBARD COBB

While we've been real busy doing nothing the people who make paints have been turning out all sorts of special paints for special painting jobs about the house.

We've told you about the range enamel which can withstand a temperature of 400 degrees or so and therefore is suitable for application to the outside of gas and electric ranges, and also the one-coat refrigerator enamel for those who don't care for white appliances.

There is also a special glass which can be applied to windows to give them afrosted effect—light will shine through but you can't see in or out through the glass.

There is also a special paint which can be applied to glass and china and then baked in the kitchen oven so that it will be washable.

There is plastic paint, of course, which can be used to produce a textured surface on a wall or ceiling and also a special plastic paint which produces a glass-smooth finish.

If you like a sand finish you can get a paint with fine particles of sand already added.

There is a gold paint which produces a finish that pretty well resembles gold leaf and there is another that when applied to wood gives the wood the aroma of cedar.

You can get paints today that have a fungicide added to prevent mildew and others that have DDT added to kill off insects.

There are paints that glow in the dark and, in fact, a paint for just about every sort of a job you could possibly dream up.

Carelessness Fostered by Fear of Self-Assertion

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Suppose I have a teenage daughter. When Betty makes her bed before going to school, it's carelessly made. I usually have to scour the pots after she's washed them. Three times this week I've had to tidy the bathroom after she showered. This afternoon she leaves school papers strewn over the dining room table that must be set for supper.

When I tell her to remove them I say, "You are the untidiest person I ever knew. The way you made your bed yesterday was a disgrace. What do you think I am — your personal maid?

"Do you know that you burned a cigarette hole in my new dishtowel last week? You never can take a shower that I don't have to hang up your towels. If you don't learn to take some responsibility . . ."

Betty becomes very angry with me. She shouts something at me, rushes up to her room and slams the door.

She does not remove the school papers from the table.

I remove them. I do so in rage and revolt.

If I had not overwhelmed Betty with so many accusations of carelessness, it would have been easier to concentrate her attention on the example of carelessness that immediately concerned us. I have allowed my resentment at past carelessness to trick me into a nagging situation that has impaired my authority.

So when we want Betty to remove her papers from the table, it's important to remember that while she can give us this co-operation, she cannot return to last month, last week or even yesterday to tidy what she then left in disorder.

She has no more control over the past than we have. Our reminders of it therefore confront her with pressure of disapproval from which she can find no realistic relief.

So, frustrated, Betty discharges her sense of guilt and anxiety in anger that is really based in helplessness.

It's our own fear of self-assertion that has encouraged carelessness in Betty. We dare not make a direct demand that she remove the papers from the table, but feel we must reinforce it with complaints of past mistakes.

So we find ourselves in constant conflict with her, doing her work for her in rage and revolt at the injustice of our position.

Fear of self-assertion stems from a dependence on others' approval we have not outgrown. We can't face the possible consequences of standing up for ourselves.

We think of the neighbors, relatives and friends who may discover our daughter resents us. To avoid possible disgrace by some defiant reprisal by Betty, we express our bitterness at injustice in complaints instead of firm self-assertion.

Our fear enslaves Betty and us in an intolerable bondage. My next column will suggest the way to overcome it.

Mrs. Flora Goodale arrived recently from Boston to visit her nephew, Dr. Aaron D. Riker, at the Riker home on Commerce road.

Mrs. Selden Tells of Trip to Europe

Mrs. Arthur W. Selden spoke on her summer tour of Europe as a guest at the recent meeting of the Saybrook Group of First Congregational Church held at the home of Mrs. Robert Gaff on Lotus drive.

Using the European churches as her theme, Mrs. Selden told of how deeply cherished these churches are in the hearts of their people and of the zeal and sacrifice of these people in protecting and maintaining them.

She described art treasures, mosaics, stained glass windows, hand-wrought doors and carvings peculiar to St. Mark's in Venice, Chartres Cathedral in Normandy, and the cathedral in Florence where one can see the famous Gilberti Doors.

St. Peter's in the Vatican City, LeMont Michel on the hill outside of Paris and Notre Dame Cathedral, whose windows were so carefully preserved from harm during the war, were still vivid in the thoughts of the speaker.

She used many pictures to illustrate her talk and she told of the sign which read, "This is a house of God and not a museum."

Mrs. E. D. Moessner led devotions following the luncheon.

Old-Fashioned, Unattractive Kitchen Proves Inspiration to Young Housewife

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"When Jim brought me to our first home," Sara L. told me the other day, "I almost wept at the sight of the kitchen. It was simply huge, very old-fashioned, and about as unattractive as you can imagine.

"I made my mind up that we would stay in that house for only one year," she continued, "and then we would move to a place with a nice, modern kitchen.

"But then, the first thing I knew, we had little Jim and another baby on the way, and no hope of an expensive move. Also, believe it or not, I had by that time fallen in love with the funny old kitchen!"

Sara L. is now the mother of four childen, and only 27 years old herself. She is a very intelligent girl, and a good illustration of my conviction that sometimes we get our luckiest breaks from things that seem at the time, ristinctly unpleasant.

In Sara's case, it was the big old-fashioned kitchen that started her good luck.

"I wanted to do everything I could to make that kitchen attractive," she told me. "I started by painting it a nice clear yellow.

"I put a big, chintz-covered screen over the ugly old pipes, and hung up a few pretty pots I owned. Then I decided really to outdo myself on dish towels, dishcloths and potholders.

"I got all my friends to give me discarded cloth—old pique dresses, faded chintz curtains, odd bits of old linen and percale.

"I made matching sets that were really quite attractive—dish towels and discloths and potholders done around the same color combination or with interesting borders.

"I even did one set with my monogram in wild letters slanting down the side. It wasn't fancy sewing—but I was very good at odd designs and interesting color combinations.

"After a while," Sara went on, "I began giving these sets as gifts to the people who had liked them in my kitchen.

"I made a deal with a small remnant shop, to get materials very cheap. I charged $1 for my labor per hour, and was able, by adding that to the cost of materials, to figure a good price.

"And now," she said, her face lighting up, "we are able to put away about $7 a week, out of my own money, toward the nice, modern home we want some day!"

If there is something about your own house, or your own wardrobe, that particularly disturbs you — maybe it's a clue.

Fall Is Time for Braised Oxtail Dish

Mrs. Eli G. Phillips Tells Way to Fix Meaty Treat

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Fall is the time to start fixing meats that demand long, slow cooking. Braised oxtails are just such a dish, and fixed as Mrs. Eli G. Phillips of Commerce Lake suggests are a mouth-watering treat.

Mrs. Phillips is an excellent, imaginative cook. She loves children and cares for several whose mothers work.

She is interested and active in her church work, especially in the social welfare part.

BRAISED OXTAILS
By Mrs. Eli G. Phillips

2 oxtails
2 onions
Garlic salt
Fat for browning
1 can mushroom steak sauce
Salt and pepper

Brown oxtails and onions in the fat. Season with the garlic salt and the salt and pepper. Add the can of mushroom sauce, then fill the can with water and add that. Cook 20 minutes in a pressure cooker for 2 to 3 hours on top of the stove at low heat. Carrots and peas may be added if desired. Serves 4 to 6.

Fur Trims Sweater

Ermine, once worn for evening only, is now used as trim for daytime sweaters and even goes to the office. If you don't want to put your money into a bit of ermin there are many inexpensive furs that are good substitutes.

A shield of heraldic import marks this sweater on the left. On the right, the circular shoulder stripes join in a broad pattern to reflect the newest style in sweaters geared to the blended tones of casual clothing.

Many Styles Featuring Simple Trim

Cashmere, Wool, Blends Are Shown in Varied Models

Fall sweaters show a soft hand and softer toned patterns to harmonize with the blended tones of casual clothing.

In tune with subtle patterned sport shirts and subdued swaeter colors, simple trim is featured on many models. Neck stripes have narrow borders, body trim is restrained.

Cashmere, wool and blended sweaters are shown in a variety of models and should please all types of sweater fans from golfers, hikers, skiers to spectators at football games.

In Australian lamb's wool, a leading model favors simple novelty trim with theme carried out on sleeve cuffs.

Navy is big fall color. One navy sweater has a V-neck trimmed with white, with navy and white crest favoring a red border. The crest is an eye-catcher.

There is a revival of turtleneck sweaters. These haven't been around in a number of years and should prove popular again. Darker colors are featured with contrast trim on collar and sleeve cuffs.

In ski type sweaters, two color combinations are tops. White and blue, white and black offer dramatic contrast. Patterns for active sportsmen are usually bold and bright with lots of color.

On some models snowflake patterns extend across shoulders and arms. Other patterned sweaters have designs extending across chest and back.

Knitted sweater vests in a variety of patterns can be worn in place of fabric vests. They're perfect mates to sport coats and provide warmth for active men in the suburbs.

Sleeveless sweaters can also be worn in place of fabric vests, are especially popular with the young college crowd.

Cashmere is a style leader. Intarsia designs, spaced patterns are featured on higher priced cashmere sweaters against gray and beige backgrounds.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Today's Likable Opera Prima Donnas May Sacrifice Glamour With Temper

Something has been happening to prima donnas and I can't decide whether I'm for or against it. Singers of the new crop are called by the old name but they don't live up to the old reputation.

Without exception they're slim, chic, agreeable, well-adjusted young women who would rather sit around and talk about babies, husbands and recipes than their stupendous successes.

MISS McBRIDE

I'm far from a musical expert so I can't make comparisons about performances, but I do know these youngsters are easier to get along with. The stars of another generation really let themselves go when even slightly annoyed, and they sometimes seemed to give exhibitions of temperament just to let everybody know they were prima donnas.

They say that one of the greatest in her prime had a secretary-of-all-work who wore a protective cap on his head each morning when he carried in madame's breakfast tray. If the lovely lady was feeling out of sorts, she would smash him over the head with the tray. His subsequent report to her staff guided their plans for the day.

In three encounters with the regal, uninhibited type of prima donna, I only once came out ahead. That time, I had been forewarned and before madame could take the iniative, I staged a bang-up tantrum of my own.

The incredible climax was the prima donna coaxing me to be calm, since it was bad for me to get so worked up. This advice, mind you, from a woman who was said to go into towering fits of rage if an unfortunate mispinned a curl.

I remembered that scene when I talked with Patrice Munsel of the Metropolitan Opera a short time before the birth of her first baby, Pat — as almost everybody, including the stagehands, calls her—was glowing with pride and happiness.

She had no notion of making a secret of the coming event, and had even allowed herself to be photographed by the news cameras. She simply couldn't believe that the prima donna of another day would have considered impending motherhood an unglamorous, almost shameful fact.

Pat, like her co-stars Roberta Peters and Nadine Connors, is as informal and friendly as the girl next door. They all seem interested in everybody around them, ask you questions and actually listen to your answers.

But pleasant as they are to deal with, there is still something to be said for the grand old model. I mentioned the changing prima donna to one of the most important New York music critics the other day.

"Yes, and I'm sorry for it," he declared emphatically. "We need romance and excitement today just as much as we ever did. And those old-timers, unpredictable and sometimes rather violent as they were, gave us thrills and chills in generous measure. There was something magnificent about even their rages and those who suffered from them were the first to admit it."

Well, as I said before: Something has been happening to prima donnas and I can't decide whether I'm for or against it.

Test Nylon Garments

Nylon garments can be washed in a machine if seams are well made. Test seam edges with thumb and forefinger. If threads pull out easily, wash the article by hand.

Wool Favored

Wool is now a favorite for late-day and evening fashions. Both evening dresses and coats in street lengths are made of wool and the coats are often fur lined.

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

When you visit friends who have small children, it's fine to praise the parents on their well-behaved offspring, but never belittle the behavior of some other friends' children to them. Realize that the folks you're visiting will wonder what you say about their children, to someone else.

Telling tales is an excellent way to lose your reputation for trustworthiness.

Smart Gals Must Know Hat Angles

Dache Emphasizes Tilt of the Chapeau in Fall Collection

The smart woman is the woman who knows all the angles at which her new fall hats will look beguiling, according to Lilly Dache.

In the autumn and winter 1953 collection of Dache hats, the tilt of the chapeau is sometimes as significant as the shape and size, and vital to its becomingness.

"The right hat at the right slant has always been an aid to beauty," she points out. "This season the hat becomes once more an essential part of the silhouette, a note of lovely richness that will add tremendously to the appearance.

"The woman who has been too casual about clothes to wear hats properly will have to learn the new angles," advises Miss Dache.

To give the "balance of beauty" to the new willowy curves, upward flaring bodice lines and backswept skirts of incoming fashion, Dache hats, however small (and some are mere postage stamps), have arresting line and pronounced "direction."

A case in point is the enchanting new "after dinner mint," a delicious bit of sweet nothingness that is likely to mean everything to a theater suit or cocktail dress.

All Dache hats are youthful, even when the slant is forward over the brow or dashingly sidewise. Many stand absolutely level on the head, encouraging a high, proud carriage. Some shoot out at the back or puff backward in whipped-cream softness, ending in a large soft bow.

Without exception, every hat is adjustable in some degree: In softly crushed bulk of deep "mobile" crowns, in the variety of ways a turban or pillbox can be set lightly level or pulled firmly down around the ears, or in the amount of hair you can fluff out from under a helmet, cap or turban.

In this collection, Lilly Dache makes nine specific fashion points, some major changes, others making only a subtle difference in the look of chic autumn heads. They include the turbans, the helmet, haircut hats and "after dinner mints."

Other fashion points include the mobile crown, lustrous hat fabrics, fur hats, the hat of many colors, and the "precious" evening hats.

Joan J. Baum Wed in Candlelight Rite

Before an altar banked with palms and white autumn flowers, Joan June Baum became the bride of Robert E. Cunningham Saturday evening in a candlelight ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church.

Joan, who is the daughter of George Baum of Joliet drive, chose a wedding gown of white Chantilly lace and satin fashioned in a princess style with a hooped skirt. Nylon tulle covered the scalloped cutout neckline, and leaves of lace appliqued at the throat formed a necklace.

A Juliet cap of lace and satin held her veil, and she carried a crescent of stephanotis, roses and ivy with a white orchid.

Beth Shuler was maid of honor in a long gown of ocean blue lace and net over taffeta with a small matching headpiece. Her flowers were a crescent of yellow roses and copper colored chrysanthemums with ivy.

In similar gowns of blush pink, in a ballerina-length, were bridesmaids Sandra White, Mary Lou Fournier and Betty Lou DeGroot. They wore matching headpieces and carried fan bouquets of pink roses, chrysanthemums and ivy.

Kathleen White was flower girl in white and yellow lace and net over taffeta with a crescent of yellow roses and white chrysanthemums.

Seating the guests were Clyde Perkins of South Bend, Ind., Donald Price of Birmingham and Clarence Shelton of Pontiac.

Behavior Problems Outlined

PTA Hears Psychiatrist

"One of the best indicators of a child's emotional health is his school record. If his grades drop suddenly, if he becomes anti-social, pugnacious, uncooperative or irritable, parents should examine themselves to see if there is something they are contributing. The trouble may be at home rather than with the teacher."

So spoke Dr. Clinton Mumby, consulting psychiatrist at the Pontiac Child Guidance Clinic, in a lecture Wednesday evening before members of Daniel Whitfield PTA.

Outlining some of the behavior problems of children, Dr. Mumby observed that parents of this generation are troubled and insecure and apt to have more concern about their children than any preceding group. This insecurity among parents, he suggests, may help create problems in children.

"Many annoying habits in a child," said Dr. Mumby, "may disappear spontaneously if we show no concern about them." And he pointed out, on the other hand, that a habit can "jell" if parents are unduly concerned and harsh.

"Love or attention as a love substitute is a child's desire," he stated. "If the child can't have attention, he builds on hate. However, you have won when you can get the child to express his anger verbally so he will not have to act it out in temper tantrums."

Mrs. Richard Stark, president of the group announced plans for a fair to be held in the school Oct. 30 from 5 to 8 p.m., and obtained approval for the project of the year, purchasing acoustical tile for the ceiling of the school cafeteria.

Fall Fair Planned by LeBaron PTA

Plans for a fall fair to be held Nov. 20 were made when LeBaron PTA members met Thursday afternoon.

Entertainment was provided by Mrs. John Kinert, who sang three solos. Freda Huggett, visiting teacher for Waterford schools, spoke and showed films on a trip she took through the Far East and India.

Bennie, Biggie Breathe Easier After Narrow Escapes

Dunc McDonald Sparks Drive to Nip Iowa, 14-13

Baldacci's Extra Point Is Winning Margin for Wolverines

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Bennie Oosterbaan had his breath back today after Michigan's narrow gridiron escape at the hands of Iowa Saturday.

And his first word was "blocking."

"Our blocking was very bad," he said. "We've got to improve or expect more trouble."

Michigan won its Big Ten debut, 14-13, over the Hawkeyes. But only a failure of Iowa's passing game and a heroic performance by Michigan's third-string quarterback, Duncan McDonald, saved the day.

Iowa, like the two previous Michigan opponents, made a poor showing in the air. Hawkeyes completed three of 15 throws for 28 yards.

On the ground, however, Iowa averaged 4.4 yards, on every play, slicing through and around the Michigan line with apparent ease. Halfback Earl Smith slipped around right end 23 yards for the fist touchdown in the opening period. He repeated in the second quarter on a seven-yard dash.

Fullback Roger Wiegmann made only the second conversion try in the all-Iowa first half. And the missed point set the stage for Michigan's victory.

Michigan rolled 65 yards after the intermission. End Bob Topp juggled a pass from Lou Baldacci, Wolverine quarterback, gathered it in and raced over the goal line in the play that covered 27 yards. Baldacci converted.

In the final period McDonald took over, engineering a 56-yard touchdown drive with the drama all packed in the fourth down play on the Iowa four-yard line.

Oosterbaan, after consideration, decided against sending in a play, and McDonald elected to handle the matter himself. He took a handoff from fullback Bob Hurley, faded back and threw a bull's-eye pass to end Gene Knutson in an end zone that looked like the site for an Iowa convention.

Baldacci converted the winning point.

Big Michigan play came with about 20 minutes left in the game. Iowa was still splitting the Michigan line with ease. Somehow Michigan outlasted the Hawks and won.

First half was the nightmare for Michigan fans. Twice, fumbles put the Wolverines in the hole. Four times pass interceptions halted the Michigan team. A fumble gave Iowa a 6-0 lead. And a pass interception set up the second Iowa score.

Spartans Keep Record Intact With Comeback

Trailing, 19-6, in Third Quarter, MSC Tallies 3 Times to Win

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP) — "Weren't they wonderful!" enthused Michigan State coach Biggie Munn after Saturday's 26-19 comeback conquest of Texas Christian.

"I've been figuring it out," Munn said, "and I find we had to either come from behind or break a tie to win 12 times in our current victory string. Those kids have never let me down yet."

The "current string" now extends to 27 straight victories.

For a while Saturday afternoon everyone of the 51,049 fans in Macklin stadium was sure that Michigan State would go down in defeat to provide the biggest surprise of what looked like a day of football upsets.

Michigan State was trailing 19-6 because of three Texas touchdown passes. The scoreboard clock showed only a few minutes left in the third period. "At least they're being beaten by a real good football team," said one MSC rooter.

"It looks like Munn will finally be able to stop wearing that lucky hat and coat of his," said another.

Members of the betting fraternity who were giving two and three touchdowns in wagers against Texas Christian were moaning. But the advice to "never bet against the champion" still held good.

Michigan State drove 69 yards in a dozen plays with Flint's Leroy Bolden, hero of the Minnesota game, scoring to revive a spark of hope

Then fullback Evan Slonac took a screen pass from Tom Yewcic and followed a platoon of blockers for a 34-yard touchdown run to make it 19-19. Slonac calmly kicked the extra point and Michigan State was in command again with a 20-19 score.

To show they still had some power in reserve, the Spartans rolled 65 yards in 11 plays for one more touchdown. Yewcic tossed a five-yard pass to Jimmy Ellis of Saginaw for the final score.

Harvard Grads Beam at Latest Gridiron Great

Dick Clasby Is Rated Equal of Ex-Crimson Star Eddie Mahan

BOSTON (AP)—Merry shouts and happy laughter re-echo throughout Boston's financial district these days as oldtime Harvard football heroes, now pouchy and balding, hail the gridiron Messiah they have been awaiting for almost four decades.

He is Dick Clasby, the Crimson's current captain, who, his admirers claim is the reincarnation of his fabulous Natick, Mass., fellow townsman, Eddie Mahan, thrice an All-America player from 1913-15.

Mahan, captain of the 1915 Harvard team could, all football historians agree, do everything on a gridiron—run, pass, kick, block and tackle.

And so can Clasby, if his sensational exploits against Ohio University and Colgate are any criterion.

Under this season's limited substitution rule, Clasby spearheads Harvard's single wing attack and also plays safety. During the Ohio University opener, Clasby took charge by intercepting two passes that set the stage for his touchdown pass to Bob Cowles and a field goal by Joe Ross.

Then Clasby clicked off a 50-yard scoring pass to Bob Hardy (Birmingham, Mich.) during the late minutes of the Crimson's 16-0 victory.

But Saturday, Clasby really emulated the famed Mahan. Dick ran for three touchdowns against Colgate and provided another by passing to Hardy. Harvard topped the Red Raiders, 28-26.

St. James Pulls Upset Victory Over Mikes '11'

Blanks Pontiac Eleven, 27-0; Irish Trample Orchard Lakers

By BILL MARTIN

Ferndale St. James, winless in two previous conference starts, pulled the biggest upset of the Suburban Catholic League football season here Sunday. Sparked by hard-running halfbacks Joe Ruhlman and Larry Kress, the underdog Dales blasted St. Michael, 27-0.

St. Rita took sole possession of 1st place in league standings by dumping St. Benedict, 19-6. Dick Drodzinski scored two touchdowns as Royal Oak St. Mary blanked Orchard Lake St. Mary, 21-0.

St. James marched .. yards for its 1st score early in the 2nd quarter, drove 31 yards for its 2nd, and later turned two pass interceptions into touchdowns to win easily.

Kress went the final six yards in the long drive for the opening tally, with Ruhlman running the extra point. Dales struck again in the 3rd period when Bud Schwartz' wobbly punt was downed on the Mikes' 31. Five plays moved the ball to the 10, and Ruhlman went the remaining distance. Ray Sayers picked up the point after on a quarterback sneak.

Ruhlman scored twice more in the finale, on runs of 1 and 18 yards, following pass interceptions.

Workhorses for the Ferndale eleven were Ruhlman, with 131 yards in 22 tries, and Kress, with 88 yards in 13 plays. They carried the ball on 35 of 43 running plays.

Rams' Passing Game Subdues Green Bay 11

Van Brocklin, Bukich Set Up 38-20 Win With Air Attack

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Watch out undefeated Detroit!

That was the advice of 23,352 football fans who saw the Los Angeles Rams butt the Green Bay Packers, 38-20, here Sunday.

Rams and the Lions tangle in Briggs Stadium Sunday.

Green Bay got off to a 3-0 lead on Fred Cone's 38-yard field goal midway of the first quarter, but from then on it was all Los Angeles.

Norm Van Brocklin and rookie Rudy Bukich poked pass after pass through Green Bay defenses, and while they scored only once via the air they kept the Packers continually off balance.

After Cone's opening field goal, it took the Rams only five plays to cover 43 yards and get the first of their five touchdowns, with Brad Myers circling right end for 13 yards and Ben Agajanian converting for the point after.

Myers scored a second time on the first play of the second period and then Green Bay came back, with Cone plunging over from the three and kicking the extra point to make it 14-10.

But it was never close after Van Brocklin hit Volney (Skeets) Quinlan on a 59-yard pass play to complete the first half scoring.

Johnny Papit closed out Green Bay's scoring, going seven yards with a Babe Parilli pitchout in the fourth period. That still left Los Angeles ahead, 31-20, and the Rams marched right back 51 yards for another touchdown.

Lions' Defense Stops 49ers

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — A solid, hard-hitting defense has catapulted the Detroit Lions to their quickest start in the National Football League since 1939.

Lions outlasted the San Francisco 49ers, 24-21, Sunday for their third straight victory, giving them the undisputed lead in the western Division.

And for the third straight week it was the defense, almost a lost art in pro football, which won for Detroit. Lions stopped the 49ers' vaunted one-two running punch of Hugh McElhenny and Joe Perry to win for the first time against the West Coasters since 1950.

McElhenny, highly touted sophomore flash, gained only 16 yards in 14 tries. Perry, veteran fullback who had gained more than 200 yards in the 49ers' first two victories, was bottled up and gained only 21 yards in 10 tries.

In fact, the entire San Francisco team was able to move only 76 yards along the ground against Detroit.

But this is nothing new. In the season's first game, Lions held Pittsburgh to 96 yards rushing. The following week, Baltimore was limited to 89 yards.

Lions showed a versatile attack in downing the 49ers before a record-breaking crowd of 58,079.

Detroit struck quickly, scoring on the third play from scrimmage when Doak Walker fired a 23-yard touchdown pass to end Cloyce Box. At the four-minute mark, Detroit made it 10-0 when Walker kicked a 23-yard field goal, his fourth of the season.

San Francisco bounced back and took a 14-10 lead after intercepting two of Bobby Layne's passes. Then the Lions snapped back and went ahead to stay late in the second period. Bob Hoernschemeyer drove four yards for the vital touchdown.

In the third period, Layne and end Leon Hart combined on a 49-yard touchdown pass play and that put the game beyond the 49ers' reach, although they made a game bid to pull it out.

They scored in the third period when Y. A. Tittle raced four yards around right end but the 49ers' hopes died with that play.

Traveling Man

Leahy Has Busy Week While Irish Are Idle

By FRANK LEAHY
Coach of Notre Dame

Just in case any coaches would become envious of one who has an open date in the middle of a season may I extend a word of caution.

The week just past developed into one of the busiest ever experienced, and even though each assignment was most enjoyable it certainly will feel good to settle down to coaching football again this week.

On Monday it was my pleasure to address the Chicago Quarterback Club; on Wednesday I was flown to Indianapolis to speak before a similar group.

We left Chicago late Thursday in order to be in New Orleans to attend a Sugar Bowl gathering on Friday and Saturday afternoon saw us in the Pittsburgh press box to scout next Saturday's opponent, Pitt.

Seeing Pitt perform brought very strongly to my mind that football must receive all our attention this week as the Panthers are strongly fortified with many of the men who beat Notre Dame last fall.

A sincere tribute must be paid to Ray Eliot, of Illinois, whose team not only outscored but outstatisticed one of the nation's real powerhouses, Ohio State. Eliot's faith in some of his sophomore performers was reciprocated as all six touchdowns were scored by sophs.

Among Notre Dame's future opponents, Iowa certainly convinced any skeptics that she is a midwestern power as she lost to mighty Michigan by but one point, 14-13. Other victories in addition to Pitt's were recorded by Georgia Tech over Tulane, Navy over Cornell, North Carolina over Wake Forest, and Southern Methodist over Missouri.

Hurons Mark Up 4th Straight

By The Associated Press

Michigan and Michigan State do not have the only undefeated football teams in the state.

Michigan Normal of Ypsilanti is unbeaten, too. And what is more, the Hurons have won four already, compared to three apiece for the "big boys."

Normal opened its 1953 Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic conference (IIAC) season by thumping Eastern Illinois, 34-6, at Charleston, Ill., Saturday.

If the Hurons whip their next four IIAC foes, as they're favored to do, that would bring them a season-closer with Central Michigan undefeated and with the conference crown likely depending upon the outcome.

Central, a three-time winner, lost to the powerful Great Lakes Naval Training Station, 39-16, at Saginaw. Sailors have eight former college players and two ex-professionals in their starting lineup.

Italian Baseball 9 Petitions Ike to Save Pilot

ROME (UP) — President Eisenhower was asked today to set aside the cares of state and consider the plight of the Lazio baseball club of Rome.

Lazio, currently leading the Italian Baseball League with a 16-2 record, is about to lose its American manager—Kenneth Opstein of Minneapolis, a worker in the United States information service. Opstein has been reassigned to the United States by the State Department.

But Lazio's 22 players are hoping Mrs. Eisenhower will come to their aid. They've petitioned Mr. Eisenhower in an airmail letter and cable to permit Opstein to remain at his post.

Hardy Is Instrumental in Harvard's Victory

CAMBRIDGE, Mass — Quarter-Back Bob Hardy, senior from Birmingham, Mich., scored a touchdown for Harvard on a pass play as the Crimson defeated Colgate, 28-26, Saturday. Late in the second quarter, with Harvard leading, 14-13, Hardy made a leaping catch of Dick Clasby's fourth-down running pass on the Colgate two and went across for the score.

Earlier in the second period Hardy had caught a 15-yard pass from Clasby deep in Colgate territory to set up the second Harvard touchdown.

Hungary Soccer Team Is Stoned

Fans in Vienna Storm Red Team Buses After Austrians' Loss

VIENNA (AP)—Infuriated at what they believed were fouls, crowds of angry sports fans stoned buses last night carrying Communist Hungary's national soccer team back to their hotel.

The Hungarians had beaten Austria's team 3-2 in the Reds' 2th international victory in three years.

Two Austrian players were hurt during the game and 14 policemen were injured in the melee that followed.

Immediately after the match, the crowd surged on the field. Police rushed the Communist players and the Swiss referee to the dressing rooms under a shower of cushions, bags and hats.

Diving Champ Hurt in Water Skiing Accident

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Olympic diving champion Patricia McCormick suffered cuts about the back and shoulders Saturday in a water skiing accident.

Thirty-four stiches were necessary to close the wounds. X-rays showed no fractures, attendants at Community Hospital said.

Mrs. McCormick, 23, was dashed against the rocks along Marine stadium when the speedboat towing her made a sharp turn.

North Carolinian Wins

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ted Swaim of Winston-Salem, N. C., easily outdistanced a field of 64 other drivers to win the 100-mile sportsman stock car championship at Langhorne Speedway yesterday.

Swaim finished three miles ahead of runnerup Bill Weidenhouse of Midland, N. C. His time was one hour, 28 minutes and 45.22 seconds.

Rolfe's Statistics Prove Theory That Southpaw Has Edge on Lefty Hitters

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—One of baseball's perennial arguments concerns the supposed "edge" that a southpaw pitcher has going for him when he faces a left-handed batter, and, conversely, the right-handed pitcher when he winds up against a righty hitter.

This one never fails to get batted around good during a World Series, especially, because that is when a couple of managers are having their tactics studied and dissected by millions of experts.

Never until one night during the recent playoff had we run into a man who had gone to the trouble to find out for certain what the percentages are. He was Red Rolfe who played a lot of third base for the Yanks and later managed the Detroit Tigers.

"I had wondered, myself," Red said, "so when I became manager I kept an exact book on every one of my batters, what he did against every pitcher he faced; and after a time I found that the figures were entirely convincing. The old theory is a long way from being nonsense.

"One day when I told one of my men he wasn't playing because we were facing a left-handed pitcher he yelled all over the place. He said he could hit any kind of pitching and that his average proved it. When I showed him the figures he wouldn't believe it at first. As I recall, they showed he was a .340 hitter against right-handers and a .270 hitter against lefties. His case was about typical too.

"After I knew for sure I followed the information right out the window, not only juggling my lineup to take advantage of it but rotating my pitchers as best I could to face the clubs they figured to have the best chance against. I didn't win any pennants but if you'll look it up you'll find we were the only club to break even on the season with two Yankee pennant winners."

HORNED FROG STOPPED—Two Michigan State tacklers halted a thrust by Texas Christian's back, Ron Clinkscale (42), in a 3rd period action at East Lansing Saturday. Another Spartan is coming in (background, left) to help. State won 26-19.

Numberless Jerseys

DALLAS (AP)—Fans may have a tough time identifying Mexican ball-carriers or tacklers when National University of Mexico plays a football game with Midwestern University of Wichita Falls, Tex., here tonight. The Mexicans don't wear numbers on their jerseys.

Notre Dame, Michigan State, Maryland Are Rated Best Possibilities to Finish Campaign Undefeated

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—How many teams, playing first-class schedules, have the chance to finish the season unbeaten? Spotless Town is a lone hamlet around late November. There won't be many citizens walking up Main Street.

As a starter, we'll take Notre Dame. This is the team with top ranking to date. When you look at the barricades ahead it seems an almost impossible job—Pitt, Georgia Tech, Navy, Penn, North Carolina, Iowa, Southern Cal and SMU. Rougher spots here should be Georgia Tech, Southern Cal and SMU.

Frank Leahy has a big, able squad which could win them all with some luck. A few good breaks are needed but the class is there. Next in line is Michigan State, rated second.

Notre Dame doesn't meet Michigan State this year so both have a chance to go through their schedules unbeaten. The Spartans wrapped up Iowa and Minnesota in their first two games without any trouble, then edged TCU.

They still have Indiana, Purdue, Oregon State, Ohio State, Michigan and Marquette left. From this group they have no one to fear but Ohio State and Michigan. I think they can take the others.

Ohio State has the material to face them on even terms. The Buckeye contingent has a good line and a number of fast backs. I saw the game with California where their defense was quite shoddy part of the time. Ohio State was much better on defensive than on defense.

Ohio State will have to improve its defense immensely to hold Michigan State. Michigan may be tough, also. Better than Michigan State thinks. Watch those Michigan backs.

* * *

Now we come to the third possibility. Jim Tatum's Maryland squad. Maryland routed Georgia this past Saturday and Tatum's team has a good chance. After Georgia, Maryland meets North Carolina, Miami, South Carolina, George Washington, Mississippi and Alabama.

One-Sided Scores by Cal, Illini Surprising

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) — The college football season isn't even half over but it already looks like most of the coaches who predicted dire things as a result of the one-platoon system were right.

The mentors weren't the least bit happy when the NCAA outlawed the two-platoon setup. Many said they wouldn't be able to cope with the new system.

The results after three weeks seem to bear them out. There always are upsets, but some of the scores are inexplicable, like California's 40-0 massacre of Penn and Illinois' 41-20 shellacking of Ohio State Saturday.

From the very first day of the season when Mississippi Southern trounced Alabama, the big name coaches have been holding their heads. Georgia Tech, until it whipped Tulane, 27-13, Saturday, had scored exactly one touchdown in two previous games. Oklahoma, until it whipped Texas, 19-14, had not won a game.

Musclemen like Michigan State, Michigan, Southern California, Baylor and Duke all had their troubles. All Southern Cal, rated the co-favorite for the Pacific Coast Conference title, could do was tie Washington 13-13 on a 70-yard return and a 78-yard pass interception.

Baylor edged Arkansas 14-7 in the last three minutes, and Duke beat Purdue 20-14, notching the winning touchdown just 39 seconds before the end.

The Ohio State debacle and the Penn trouncing probably were the biggest surprises of the season. The Buckeyes were supposed to fight it out with Michigan State and Michigan for the Big Ten crown. Now they could be out of it. Illinois definitely is to be reckoned with.

The fact that California—reputedly a sub-par outfit this year—beat Penn was not what amazed the experts. It was the way Pappy Waldorf's lads put the Quakers through the meatgrinder. Unless it was a fluke, UCLA and Southern Cal may have some competition fo the PCC title.

After enjoying a day off Saturday, Notre Dame plays Pitt this week. Michigan State continues its quest for the Big Ten title against Indiana, which isn't figured to offer much opposition.

UCLA, 13-0 winner over Wisconsin, plays Stanford while Southern Cal has a date with Oregon State and California takes it easy against San Jose State.

Duke travels to New York for a game with Army; Baylor, the favorite this week in Southwest Conference, crosses paths with Arkansas, and Georgia Tech meets tough Auburn, the team that fought Mississippi State to a 21-21 standstill.

BREADBASKET CATCH—San Francisco 49er end Gordy Soltau (82) cuddles the ball to his middle after a pass from back Y. A. Tittle in Sunday's NFL game in Detroit. After the catch near the goal line in the first quarter, scoring a touchdown was a matter of whirling and running a few feet. Lion back Bobby Layne is in the foreground. Lions won, 24-21.

Ruel Says Tigers Have Several Deals in Sight

Farm Boss Moved Up to Replace Gehringer as General Manager

DETROIT (AP) — Herold E. (Muddy) Ruel, new general manager of the Detroit Tigers, said today "we already have several ideas on trading and we plan to follow through."

Ruel, a one-time catching great, was promoted from director of Detroit's minor league farm system Saturday and succeeds Charlie Gehringer. John J. McHale, formerly Ruel's assistant, becomes farm director.

Walter O. (Spike) Briggs Jr., Tiger president, announced after a Sunday conference with Ruel:

"We're still concerned about the right side of our infield and a couple of outfielders. We're open-minded on any and all trades."

Then Ruhl told reporters:

"First business will be to get things lined up for the winter meetings (of baseball). We already have several ideas on trading and we plan to follow through on them as soon as we get things straightened away."

Gehringer, general manager since 1951, will remain with the club in an advisory capacity with a title of vice- president. A star Tiger second baseman of yesteryear and a member of baseball's Hall of Fame, Gehringer took the general managership at the insistence of the late Walter O. Briggs, Sr., Tiger owner. In private life he is a manufacturer's agent.

Ruel, 57, took over the Detroit farm system at the end of the 1951 season, coming from a similar job at Cleveland. He started his career in 1915 and caught for the St. Louis Browns, New York Yankees, Washington Senators, Boston Red Sox and Tigers. At one time he was a special assistant to the commissioner of baseball.

'Rasslers' Try Football, Lose Charity Game

Seattle Ramblers Win Over Groaners, 20-6, at Tacoma

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — The Rasslers turned their talents to football yesterday but didn't know enough "holts" to stave off a 20-6 defeat by the Seattle Ramblers in the "Muscle Bowl," played for charity before 7,256 delighted fans.

The approximate $10,000 gate went to the Tacoma Boys clubs, with the two teams collecting only a free meal following the tussle.

Not even the support of the crowd and the presence of one of football's all-time greats, Bronko Nagurski, could save the wrestlers from defeat. Bronko appeared briefly in a wrestler uniform at left end and emerged unscathed.

Winning their 10th straight, the independent and amateur Ramblers pushed over one touchdown in the second and two in the fourth periods. The wrestlers got theirs on the last play of the game when a "ringer," non-wrestling Mel Light, slanted 10 yards into the touchdown corner.

Sawchuk's Sub, Gatherum, Gets Shutout in First Try

DETROIT (AP) — "My knees were shaking so much I thought I wouldn't be able to stand up."

That's how rookie goalie Dave Gatherum of the Detroit Red Wings felt last night when he played his first game in the National Hockey League.

Rushed in as a last-minute replacement for the injured Terry Sawchuck, the 21-year-old netminder may have been nervous but he played with the calculated coolness of a veteran and blanked the Toronto Maple Leafs, 4-0. Wings lost to Canadiens, 4-1, Saturday.

He was called on to make 22 saves two of them in the last two minutes by the most dangerous Maple Leaf of all, Capt. Ted Kennedy.

Kennedy drilled a 10-footer at Gatherum and followed up with a hot rebound. But Gatherum, moving quickly with his pads and gloves, stopped both shots to preserve his shutout.

Twenty-four hours earlier Gatherum didn't have the faintest idea he'd be playing with the Red Wings. Sawchuck suffered a slashed knee in the Wings game in Montreal Saturday and a hurried call went out to Gatherum, who was playing with the Sherbrooke farm club in the Quebec League.

Gatherum's job was made easy when the Red Wings flurried for three goals in the first period. Red Kelly scored the first and then set up tallies for Gordie Howe and rookie Bill Dineen within the space of 95 seconds.

Capt. Ted Lindsay closed out the scoring in the second period with a rebound goal.

Victory was Detroit's second in three starts and moved the Wings into a tie for the lead with Montreal.

Eliot Wonders if Illini 11 Is 'Flash in Pan'

Illinois Coach Amazed by Fine Performance of Sophomorish Team

By TOM BRANAGAN

CHICAGO (AP)—Is the Illinois football team really as good as it looked in beating powerful Ohio State 41-20 Saturday? That's something even Illini Coach Ray Eliot wonders about.

"I just don't know," he mused on returning from the unexpected victory at Columbus "Maybe that was just a flash in the pan. Maybe we actually have developed into a steady team. How can you tell now?"

Eliot was still shaking his head over the performance of his sophomore-loaded squad.

"We were all simply amazed," he said. "I just didn't know they could do all that. Of course, we had our share of breaks. We recovered four Ohio fumbles—that sort of thing. But the boys were really great."

How does Eliot explain this sudden surge to the heights from the lacklustre Illini showing in being tied by Nebraska 21-21 in their opening game?

"Well, I think we were green against Nebraska. I wish we'd had a game under our belts before we played them. But we've been improving every week, apparently. We beat Stanford 33-21 and I think we were up for Ohio.

"Posibly Ohio State was looking past us to some of their future opponents.

"But it's hard to say. You just can't explain that sort of an upset."

Then Eliot turned with a frown to the future.

"Talking about upsets, how about Minnesota? My scouts tell me Wes Fesler's guys did a terrific job in knocking over Northwestern (30-13). We've got to play them next Saturday.

Babe's Health OK, She'll Return to Golf Full Time

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Babe Didrikson Zaharias, whose sports career was feared at an end six months ago when she underwent an operation for cancer, is recovering "perfectly" and will return to golf on a full-time basis.

The famous woman athlete is here to play in the Texas Women's Open, of which she is defending champion, and it will be the only tournament for her until next year. But she will start a national tour about Nov. 1 with Lew Worsham, winner of the World's Championship Tournament at Chicago this summer. They will visit 35 cities.

In January she will make the woman's golf tour starting at Tampa, Fla., where she lives and owns a golf course.

Mrs. Zaharias was in Beaumont, Tex., last week for the first six-month checkup following her operation. The physicians told her all tests were negative and she was recovering "perfectly."

The Babe now weighs 160 pounds but is dieting and will cut down to 145. "I feel wonderful and I am playing well," she said. "The only trouble is that I get tired on the back nine of a round."

* * *

But she makes the 18 all right and it was only a couple of months ago that she finished third in the women's division of the Worlds Tournament at Chicago. She played 18 holes at the Fort Sam Houston course in San Antonio Saturday and shot a 72.

Busy Week for Boxing; Bucceroni-Slade Feature

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — It's East vs West at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena tonight when Rocky Casillo, Chicago welterweight prospect, faces young Joey Klein of New York in the top 10-rounder.

Casillo, winner of 24 of 26 pro fights, is the favorite but that does not mean much at the Parkway. The arena is known as the "house of upsets."

Dumont telecasts the 10 p.m., EST bout.

Heavyweight contender Danny Bucceroni of Philadelphia takes a big chance on Wednesday when he meets cagy Jim Slade of New York of the week. This is a CBS, coast-to-coast TV bout, starting at 10 p.m..

Lulu Perez, 20-year old Brooklyn featherweight sensation, seeks his 23rd straight victory on Friday night with 23-year old Joey Cam of Boston as his opponent. The ten rounder will be fought at New York's St. Nicholas Arena, starting at 10 p.m., EST. ABC will broadcast and NBC will telecast the scrap coast to coast.

Bill Bossio, the mighty mite from Hartsdale, N. Y., who upset Gene Smith last month, tangles with Smith again in a ten-rounder at Washington's Uline Arena Saturday night. The capital area will be blacked out of the coast to coast Telecast. Starting time is 9 p.m. EST.

CASE—Topping the Ball.

Overturning the Wrist — When your ball goes "flat," as they say —fading to the right—your hand is too far on top. As the sketch shows, the thumb position is overdone. It is too far to the left of ball center.

Fingers, as you see, are then too far advanced; out of action. They're beyond the point where they can apply hook turn. Over-turning the wrist, turning it too quickly, also forces the hand to top the ball and causes a feeble push-release. No hook. Usually a reverse.

To correct it, turn the hand to the right, so that fingers are more behind and under ball.

Queen's Husband Plans Trip to Canada in July

LONDON (AP)—The Duke of Edinburgh, husband of Queen Elizabeth II, will visit Canada next year from July 29 to Aug. 17, Buckingham Palace announced today.

The dashing Duke will see the British Empire games—the Commonwealth version of the Olympics—in Vancouver and will visit Hudson Bay and the northwest territories.

The Army, at a cost of about $1,800,000,000, has recovered and rebuilt material worth $13,600,000,000 since World War II.

John Wayne Not Afraid of Television

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Chalk up John Wayne as one top film star who isn't afraid of television.

The strong-jawed actor from Winterset, Iowa, gagged it up on Jimmy Durante's TV show last night. It was the first time Wayne had played a role on the new medium, although he has walked on and delivered speeches before.

"I accepted the role because I Think Durante is the most lovable figure in the entertainment world today and it's a pleasure to be associated with him," he explained.

Also, he admitted that TV is a good medium for selling theater movies.

"It's bound to be a good advertising medium — look how fast the advertising agencies latched onto it," he reasoned. "There's no reason you can't sell pictures with it, as well as any other kind of product.

"No, I wouldn't even mind doing a weekly show, if I could find something that would be good. I see no reason why it would hurt me at the box office; it ought to be a big help.

"The only trouble is the work involved. It's just as hard to do a 25-minute film for TV and make it good, as it is to make a good hour-and-a-half movie for theaters.

Wayne foresees the time when TV and movies will be wedded, anyway.

"Some form of pay-as-you-see TV has got to come," he remarked. "Movies used to be the poor man's pleasure. He used to go out to a movie at 7 and be home at 9:30.

"Now he has to get the sitter and it's about 8 o'clock before he gets to the theater. Because of the double feature, there's little turnover and no place to park. He has to pay for parking. He has to buy popcorn and pop between pictures.

"The show is so long that his wife is hungry afterwards, and he has to buy a snack. By the time he gets home and returns the sitter, he has not only spent all that money but also lost a good night's sleep."

Wayne cited the popularity of the drive-ins as evidence that the public wants more convenient movie-going. He said pay-as-you-see movies at home would fulfill that need.

"Of course, it will be hard on some theaters," he admitted. "But that doesn't mean they will all go out of business. There will still be room for theaters playing top attractions.

"Pay-as-you-see will mean better pictures in the long run. The producer could get back his profit right away. He could spend more time and care in pictures.

"Nowadays a director is fighting a time schedule. He has to grind out a picture in 28 or 30 days. But if you would just add four or five days to that, he would have the time to create, to improve the characters and business. That makes the difference between a good picture and a great one."

As usual, Wayne is up to his chin in picture plans. He is wanter by RKO, Columbia and Warners, among others. He also has his own company with Robert Fellows. Their plans to shoot "The high and the Mighty," the gripping Ernest Gann best seller, have been delayed by Wayne's personal life.

Wayne is due to have it out in court with his wife, Chata, starting Oct. 19. The actor fears the battle may last six weeks or so.

STAR-SPANGLED SALUTE TO PW HEROES—Cheered and honored as a Broadway stage play for three solid seasons, "Stalag 17" opens here Wednesday on the screen of the Oakland theater. The Paramount comedy-melodrama stars William Holden, Don Taylor and Otto Preminger, with Robert Strauss, Hervey Lembeck and Peter Graves featured.

Fishing Thames From Hotel Roof Proved Possible

LONDON (AP)—Yes, it is possible to fish in the Thames River from the roof of the Savoy Hotel, rendezvous of the theatrical folk in the British capital.

Col. Edmond Drury proved it yesterday by casting a two-ounce lead sinker six feet into the Thames with a ten and a half foot salmon rod.

It settled a bet—rumored to be 1,000 pounds, or $2,800—made by two revelers recently at a Savoy party.

The Savoy roof is 150 feet high and the hotel stands 261 feet from the bank of the Thames.

Col. Drury is one of Britain's foremost flycasting experts.

The names of the people who made the bet were not disclosed. And there are no fisn in the Thames river where it flows past the Savoy. Too polluted.

About 83 per cent of present U. S. coal output moves to market by rail, 11 per cent by truck, and 6 per cent by waterways.

Lad Solves Traffic Jam as Bees Pursue Queen

NORWICH, Conn. (UP) — A swarm of bees turned a downtown street into a landing strip.

Traffic was tied up for a half hour as motorists and pedestrians ran for cover.

Teenager James Cook, who happened to be passing by, mastered the situation. The lad, whose hobby is studying bees, calmly searched for the queen.

He found her, followed her down a manhole, plucked the wings and placed the queen in a box. It wasn't long before the other bees joined her.

The youngster slapped a lid on the box and carted it away.

Official's Prison Visits Censured

Acting Lt. Gov. Wicks of New York Hit for Seeing Racketeer

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Dewey and acting Lt. Gov. Arthur H. Wicks meet here today to thrash out the growing issue of Wicks' visits to labor extortionist Joseph Fay in Sing Sing Prison.

The two arranged the meeting amid reports that Dewey might call on the Kingston Republican to resign his posts as acting lieutenant governor and majority leader of the state senate.

Dewey delcared Wednesday he was not satisfied with Wicks' explanation that he visited Fay only to enlist his aid in assuring labor peace on construction projects in Wicks' senatorial district.

The 65-year-old Wicks has denied any wrongdoing in connection with the visits.

Fay, former vice president of the AFL Operating Engineers Union, has served 5½ years of a 7½-to-15 year term for extortion and conspiracy to extort $368,000 from construction contractors on the Delaware Aqueduct project, part of New York City's water supply system.

Following the disclosure that Wicks and a long list of others, including labor leaders, public officials and politicians had visited Fay in prison, Dewey called for explanations from the officials involved.

Planning Technicians at Detroit Meeting

Pontiac and Oakland County planning technicians are in Detroit this week attending the National Conference of the American Society of Planning Officials Sunday through Thursday.

Representing the county is George N. Skrubb, Oakland County Planning Commission director. Henry C. Smith, Pontiac City planning technician, is attending, with John E. Linabury, city plan commissioner, going to some meetings.

Some 900 delegates from the nation's major cities, Canada and Europe are attending the conference at Hotel Statler. Clinics on zoning, location of industrial districts, shopping centers, schools and residential areas will follow this morning's keynote speech by General O. L. Nelson, New York Life Insurance Co., vice-president, on "Planning Cities in an Atomic Era."

Pontiac Man, 2 Sons Injured in Car Crash

Three members of a Pontiac family were treated for injuries Saturday at Pontiac General Hospital following a two-car crash at Elizbeth Lake and Scott Lake Rds., according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

A car driven by Alpo Nevala, 43, of 4048 Crocus Ave., collided with one driven by Norman Caverly, 43, of 139 W. Lawrence St., deputies said. Nevala and his sons Dennis, 8, and Steven, 10, were treated for cuts and bruises.

Demands Examination on Cheating Charge

Eleanoria M. Grundy, 36, of 916 Irving, Royal Oak, Friday demanded examination before Royal Oak Judge John E. Brondige on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. She was released on personal bond pending examination Oct. 19.

Royal Oak Police said she was accepting unemployment compensation from the Royal Oak office of the state Unemployment Commission while still employed.

Many Hits Go on Tour

'Tea and Sympathy' Play Rates High in New York

NEW YORK (NEA) — Nothing like a couple of good clean flops to start off a great theatrical season.

According to the advance lineup, the 1953-54 Broadway season should produce some terrific shows, but, as usual, the first couple have missed the target.

From here on, however, the outlook is rosier. Some of the best playwrights, finest actors and most respected producers are represented among 51 plays plays definitely scheduled to open on Broadway.

So far, the most excitement for a new play has been stirred up by "Tea and Sympathy," written by a newcomer, Robert Anderson.

This opened in New Haven to rave reviews; one inveterate New Haven playgoer unhesitatingly called it the best he's ever seen.

What makes it exciting is the subject matter: homosexuality. Once taboo, the subject is here treated so understandingly that reviewers have found nothing objectionable.

The stars are Deborah Kerr (pronounced Carr) and John Kerr (pronounced Kerr). Miss Kerr has a fifal curtain scene that may be the hottest thing to hit Broadway since "Tobacco Road."

Another show to stir pre-opening enthusiasm is "Kind Sir," with the provocative teaming of Mary Martin and Charles Boyer in the leads.

There is no new Rodgers and Hammerstein show due, and only an outside chance that Cole Porter will have a new one. He's working on "Ninotchka."

However, there will be some musicals. The one rated the best chance at the moment is "Kismet," which got good notices in the summer tryout on the West Coast. Veteran performers Alfred Drake and Doretta Morrow head the cast.

Other musicals which sound interesting are "By the Beautiful Sea," starring Shirley Booth, with a book by Herbert and Dorothy Fields; "Great Caresse," with a book by Anita ("Gentlemen Prefer Blonds") Loos, and starring Betty and Jane Kean; "Girl in Pink Tights," with Renee Jeanmaire wearing the tights of the same name, and music by Sigmund Romberg.

Non-musicals that sound like they should make good include; "Caine Mutiny Court Martial," an extract from Herman Wouk's hit novel, with Henry Foda, John Hodiak and Lloyd Nolan; "Colombe," starring the current feminine acting sensation, Julie Harris; "Girl Can Tell," by F. Hugh Herbert, who wrote "The Moon is Blue," with Janet Blair; a new play by George Axelrod, author of the continuing smash, "The Seven Year Itch," which is so far just called "Pfft."

"BEAUTIFUL SEA," a musical, will star Shirley Booth.

Outside New York, many established hits will go on tour. "Guys and Dolls," "New Faces," "Pal Joey," "Seven-Year Itch," "South Pacific," and "Time of the Cuckoo" are already out.

"Wish You Were Here" will close on Broadway this fall, then hit the road with everything including a swimming pool.

The Southern Pine Association announces that 4,300 tree farms in 36 states now include more than 28,000,000 acres of land. Nearly 60 per cent of the certified tree farm acreage is in the South.

Cleans Up Backlog of Anti-Trust Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—By negotiating settlements wherever possible, says Atty. Gen. Brownell, the Justice Department is cleaning up its big backlog of anti-trust cases.

One of the "old cases" in negotiation now, he told newsmen Saturday, is the three-year-old Justice Department suit asking that the A&P grocery chain be broken up into several smaller companies.

Brownell said the department started its docket-cleanup drive about a week ago. But he said new actions are proceeding in the anti-trust field wherever violations are indicated.

He said eight civil and 16 criminal anti-trust complaints he has filed since January should "refute charges that the new administration would favor big business."

Unused Iceboxes Claim 26 Lives

81 Tragedies Reported Over Past 8 Years by Refrigerator Society

CHICAGO (UP) — Abandoned iceboxes have caused the deaths of 26 children in the United States so far this year, a refrigeration industry group said today.

A compilation made by the Refrigeration Service Engineers Society showed the average age of the 1953 victimes was five years.

The report said there have been at least 81 such deaths in the last eight years.

In one of the worst 1953 tragedies, five children in one Proctor, Ark. family suffocated in an unused icebox stored on the back porch.

The Society said Illinois, California, New Jersey, Nevada, Massachusetts and Michigan have laws requiring discarded iceboxes or similar containers to be destroyed. He predicted all states will have such a law within two years.

There are about 50,000,000 refrigerators in service in this country, the Society said, and the replacement rate is about 3,000,000 a year.

The Society recommended that locks or doors be removed from abandoned boxes, that the doors be padlocked or wired shut, or that the box be stored with its door to a wall or floor.

Nixon Arrives in New Zealand

Vice President on 2nd Leg of Round-the-World 'Good Will Tour'

WLLINGTON N. Z. (UP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon arrived today on the second leg of his around-the world "good will tour."

The youthful vice-president's special Air Force Constellation set down at Ohakea airport at 10:45 a.m., two hours behind schedule, on a flight from Hawaii.

Strong headwinds and a late takeoff from the refueling station on Canton Island in the South Pacific caused the delay.

Before landing at Canton, Nixon played the role of "King Neptune" in a "Shellback" initiation for four passengers, including his wife, Pat, as they crossed the equator.

While in Hawaii, Nixon took up the statehood issue and predicted Congress would vote for it in the next session.

"I recognize the risk in predicting statehood because nobody can predict with absolute assurance what Congress will do," Nixon said.

"However, I know it is part of the President's program and, by taking the position that it is 'out front,' I believe it will have a beneficial effect in making the prediction come true."

Bob Considine Says:

Sailing Authority Villiers Tells of Chris and Henry

NEW YORK (INS) — People, places and things. . .

Alan Villiers, world's greatest authority on sailing ships, and a man who talks in a voice fitted to cut through a howling nor'easter, spoke to the Circumnavigators Club at Leone's the other day — and spoke of his friends Christopher Columbus and Henry the Navigator.

Villiers held the crowd of world travelers spellbound as he reproduced for us the lives and times of the great explorer and of the man—Henry—whose studies of navigation made the voyages of the 15th century possible.

He pictured the Moors as the Communists of the time, perpetually threatening to over-run Christian civilization. And he said that the one great monopoly of the world, trade with the Indies, was under their control. To break it, and in doing so to build ships that could weather the Atlantic, became the special passion of Prince Henry.

From the ends of the then known world, he assembled the finest mathematicians, and in a Portuguese cloister they plotted the stars and winds, and in time, sent forth their champions.

Villiers called Columbus an irascible, head-strong man with a single determination, to find a non-Moorish route to India or to a land that could be instantly exploited. Iceland, Greenland and Newfoundland were known to these people and discarded as not readily given to yielding profit. Columbus worked 15 years on his dream before he set sail.

Villiers traced his course across the Atlantic as if we are aboard, not 461 years removed in time and space and at the end he boomed:

"The fellow made an 'orrible blunder by calling the people of desolate Watling's Island and the other little places he touched at, Injuns. But, all in all, he did well. If it were not for old Chris this great country would not have come into being. I wouldn't be here in your pleasant company, nor would I have just consumed this magnificent grub."

The U. S. and Britain have had their differences of late, but it is plain they agree on one joint enterprise — Bob Hope, born there, reared here.

"We have many people and many forces today who are trying hard to break up the friendship between the British and American peoples," said R. J. Cruikshank in introducing Hope at a Variety Club of Great Britain luncheon in London.

"I believe that if they succeeded the whole of the precariously-poised civilization would collapse in chaos and anarchy. That solid keystone is what keeps the delicate arch in place.

"I haven't the vaguest idea whether Mr. Hope is a Republican or a Democrat, and I don't propose to ask him. All I know is that he is one of the big, generous, unifying forces between the Americans and the British, a man who unites not divides. Such, I would say most earnestly, belong to the salt of the earth in these troubled times. . .

"There is no need to try to be funny about Mr. Hope. He can do that for himself much better than we can. But I submit we ought to think of him quite seriously for a minute as a real contributor to Anglo-American friendship. His health!"

The new Collier's world atlas and gazetteer, out today, has some eye-raisers: Bruges, Belgium, has less people now than it did in the 1300s.

In the 1600s the biggest city in the western hemisphere was Potosi, Bolivia. Chicago is the world's largest city which has never been either the capital or the chief economic center of a country.

Tornado Workers Cap Building Bee

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Sponsors of "Operation Tornado Junior" proudly proclaimed today: "We beat winter."

A thousand volunteers turned out yesterday to put roofs and windows on 16 homes partially raised in "operation Tornado" Aug. 28-29. Around 200 helped on Saturday as well.

In August 8,000 volunteers completed more than 60 homes and got many others started on the northern outskirts of Flint, where a death-dealing tornado struck in June claiming over 100 lives.

Besides getting the roofs on and windows in before winter, yesterday's volunteers also put finishing touches on many homes raised in the August building bee.

Huron Valley Sets UF Goal

Potluck Supper Starts Campaign for $13,601 Tuesday

MILFORD — Total goal for the Huron Valley Community Chest United Fund has been set at $13,601, it was announed today by officials.

Kick-off time for the annual campaign will be in the form of a potluck supper in Presbyterian Church tomorrow at 6:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Bill Dildine, president.

Fund officials, team captains and workers set up detailed plans for the campaign which, as in former years, will be laid out in sub-areas with teams of workers assigned for each district.

Workers more than fulfilled last year's quota of $9,500. With a $4,000 higher goal this year officials are urging all who can attend the kick-of supper tomorrow night to help iron out last minute details for the campaign.

The campaign will begin officially Wednesday and is expected to be completed in two weeks.

Equip Romeo Police to Take Fingerprints

ROMEO—The Romeo Police Department has acquired fingerprinting equipment in order to provide more efficient police protection.

The fingerprinting will be used mainly for felony arrests, according to Police Chief Gordon Osgood.

Three prints of each finger will be taken. One set will be sent to the FBI, another to the State Police in East Lansing and the third will be retained by Romeo police.

Chief Osgood also announced today that Ernest Haase, former acting police chief, has been promoted to sergeant and will continue his duties as assistant to the chief.

Big Celebration Flops; Hero Fails to Appear

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Just one little item was missing in this hero's welcome for W. O. Felix McCool, a freed Korean prisoner of war at Municipal Airport.

No hero!

When the plane was settling down at Oklahoma City, McCool was on a television program in Miami, Fla.

He explained to anxious relatives and friends, who had everything but a brass band waiting to greet him, there was a mixup in reservations.

Another hero's welcome was planned today.

Sen. Ferguson Talks at Stepinac Rally

DETROIT (UP) — Sen Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) was principal speaker Sunday at a University of Detroit rally honoring Cardinal Stepinac of Yugoslavia.

Some 500 persons attended the rally for the cardinal, who was freed after serving five years of a 16-year prison term imposed by Marshal Tito's Communist government on a charge of "collaborating' with Nazis. Mayor Albert E. Cobo, Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan, The Rev. Joseph Misich of Cleveland and Rep. Thaddeus Machrowicz (D-Mich.) also appeared on the program.

Pastor Finishes Sermon After Fatal Heart Attack

ROCKWOOD, Tenn. (AP)—The Rev. John Lundy, pastor of the Eureka Baptist Church, grasped the edge of his pulpit as he was stricken by a heart attack during his sermon yesterday.

But he asked those who rushed to his assistance to help him to a chair.

"This may be my last sermon," the 55-year-old preacher said, "and I want to complete it."

And he did. When the service was over he was taken to a hospital where he died a few hours later.

75,000 to Parade

NEW YORK (AP)—An estimated 75,000 persons are expected to parade up Fifth avenue today in the annual Columbus Day observance.

Tuberculosis takes a toll of up to one million persons annually in parts of India.
