National LSD Probe Follows Blinding of 6

WASHINGTON (AP)—The case of six Pennsylvania college students who were permanently blinded by staring at the sun during an LSD "trip" is spurring a nationwide federal search for other such incidents.

Shortly after the Associated Press learned yesterday of the Pennsylvania case, federal health officials announced a state-by-state survey to see if other persons have lost their sight while under the influence of the powerful hallucinogen.

Federal officials had known of the case since last November, but a spokesman said no study was undertaken earlier because of policy questions involving federal and state jurisdictions.

The six college students, identified only as juniors at an unnamed western Pennsylvania college, suffered total and permanent blindness last spring while staring at the sun in an LSD-induced trance.

Health officials said it was the first instance they knew of in which total blindness resulted. But they noted another case last May in which four students at the University of California at Santa Barbara permanently lost their reading vision under nearly identical circumstances.

Norman M. Yoder, commissioner of Pennsylvania's Office of the Blind, said the Pennsylvania youths had lain on their backs because they thought it was a good position for experiencing the effects of the drug "and were not consciously looking at the sun." He said doctors surmise the drug caused the students' eyelids to remain open.

Yoder, interviewed by telephone from his office in Harrisburg, said the Pennsylvania students had gone in the morning to a wooded area within walking distance of the college campus.

They were found that afternoon, about six hours later, by fellow students who knew of the drug-taking plans. The victims were helpless when they were found, Yoder said.

The young men are receiving rehabilitation services from the Pennsylvania Department of Welfare, said Yoder.

'TERRIBLE THING'

Dr. Leon Jacobs, deputy assistant secretary for scientific affairs for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, expressed hope "the demonstration of what a terrible thing happened to them may keep other kids away from it (LSD)."

LAST ROMP — Air Force S. Sgt. John L. Wolfe plays yesterday with his two sons, Ralph (back), 4, and George, 5, at Columbus Air Force Base in Mississippi. Wolfe, who is a widower, has been ordered to Vietnam and plans to place three of his six children in an orphanage. Relatives will care for three other children who are too young to be accepted by the orphanage. (See story Page A-2.)

Romney Claims LBJ Failing to Combat Crime

From Our News Wires

MANCHESTER, N.H.—Michigan Gov. George Romney accused President Johnson today of slackening federal efforts to combat organized crime and said it will take Republican leadership to create "a genuine crusade" against the underworld.

Campaigning for New Hampshire's presidential primary, Gov. Romney said Congress should authorize the use of wiretapping and electronic eavesdropping by lawmen under specific court orders.

He chose crime and wiretapping as the topic for a talk in a school cafeteria in Raymond.

Romney said organized crime takes far more money from poor people in the cities than the war on poverty is spending.

"A genuine crusade against organized crime means new Republican leadership more than new laws," Romney said.

He said Johnson has promised but has not delivered legislative proposals to deal with organized crime. Since Johnson took office, the governor said, Justice Department activities in that field "have been dramatically reduced."

Almost every recommendation on organized crime by the President's own National Crime Commission has been ignored by the man who appointed the commission in the first place," Romney said.

"We must pursue peace with all the vigor and ingenuity at our command," Romney said last night, discussing Vietnam in a speech at Exeter. "And in working for peace . . ."

"How?" came a shout from amid the audience of some 800, largely made up of teen-age students at Phillips Exeter Academy.

EXPLAINS RELUCTANCE

"I'll tell you," Romney replied, "I'm going to make a talk here in New Hampshire in the next few days and I expect to spell out some of the alternatives. But in working for peace a Republican president will not be manacled by the mistakes of the past."

When Romney winds up his New Hampshire campaigning and returns to Michigan, he will find a bill before the State Legislature requiring the governor to resign if he runs for president.

The bill will be introduced Monday by Rep. Alex Philch, D-Dearborn, as a one-sentence amendment to the State Election Code covering vacancies in the office of governor.

"The governor shall resign immediately upon his publicly announced intention to seek the nomination or of his having been nominated as a candidate for president or vice president of the United States by a recognized political party, which-ever come first," it says.

Viet Copter Crash Feared Fatal to 41

SAIGON (AP) — A big U.S. Marine helicopter crashed into a mountain south of the Demilitarized Zone five days ago, and all 41 Americans aboard are feared killed, the U.S. Command reported today.

Rescue parties were waiting for the weather to improve before setting out for the rugged crash site. If they found all the men on the craft dead, it would be the worst helicopter disaster of the war.

Pending further reports, the U.S. Command listed as missing the five-man Marine crew and 36 passengers — 31 Marines, three Navy men, one Army man and a civilian employe of the Army's post exchange system.

Vietcong guerrillas are known to operate in the area, and the command declined to give a detailed report on the crash because, it said, "Additional information might endanger the lives of the survivors, if there are any."

The command said the hump-backed CH53 helicopter, the largest troop-carrying type operating in South Vietnam, crashed Monday night on a trip from Dong Ha, 11 miles south of the DMZ, to Phu Bai, 49 miles farther south. One spokesman said poor weather was a factor in the crash.

NO SIGN OF LIFE

The wreckage was spotted yesterday morning by an observation plane. An Air Force rescue helicopter hovered over the site for a few minutes but had to leave because of worsening weather. The rescue crew reported no sign of life on the ground.

A Marine spokesman in Da Nang said fighter-bombers have blasted a small landing zone in the overhanging forest. But efforts to get rescuers in by ground or air were thwarted by rain and fog.

VP Tells California Dems: Feud Could Defeat Johnson

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey warned California's feuding Democrats today that disagreements over the Vietnam war could defeat President Johnson in November.

"A Republican candidate could possibly be elected, if by our disunity and disarray we help him," the vice president said.

Humphrey, in California on a political peacemaking mission from Washington, made his unity plea in a speech prepared for delivery to a Democratic conference launching the state party's 1968 campaign.

But he found himself competing with U.S. Sen. Eugene McCarthy, from his own state of Minnesota, who also is in Fresno, campaigning against a pro-Johnson slate of delegates in the June presidential primary.

McCarthy, a Democrat who opposes the war, is backed by a slate of peace delegates.

PRIMARY STAKES

At stake in the primary are California's votes at the National Democratic convention, a block second in size only to New York's.

"If you want to continue our progress, reelect Lyndon Johnson," Humphrey said.

Humphrey, who supports the war, said "There is room for disagreement, discussion and debate in tnis party."

"All that I ask of my friends who have various degrees of disagreement on Vietnam is to remember that the issue of Vietnam is not the only issue that we face as a nation," he said. "Nor can it be allowed to obscure the other critical challenges before us today.

Hippie, Friends Held in Murder

BUNNELL, Fla. (AP) — Until a week ago, Melodie Rae Tuegel lived in the turned-on hippie world of LSD, crash pads, and cross-country hitchhiking. She avoided "plastic people."

The 19-year-old Portland, Ore., native now lives in the Flagler County jail. She describes herself as a sometime wanderer and a full-time hippie.

Miss Tuegel, or "Cricket" as she prefers to be called, is being held as a material witness in the murders of Daniel Schoultz, 18, of Bloomfield, Ind., and James Moore, 18, of San Anselmo, Calif.

The two youths were found shot to death in a weedy ditch alongside busy U.S. 1 near Daytona Beach Nov. 29, 1967.

Norman Garrett, 27, of Berns, Ore., and Kit Hayden, 21, of Baton Rouge, La., have been charged with first-degree murder in the two deaths.

Hayden was arrested about a week later as he got off a bus pulling into New Orleans and until yesterday refused to waive extradition.

Pontiac Sales Up for 10-Day Period

Pontiac Motor Division sold 19,002 Pontiacs, Tempests and Firebirds in the first 10 days of 1968, 2,037 cars more than in the same period a year ago, according to Thomas L. King, general sales manager.

In the Jan. 1-10 period of 1967, the division sold 16,965 units, King said.

Teen-Age Killers Come Cheap

CHICAGO (UPI) — Six dollars and a sandwich bought a murder on the south side. That can be a lot of money to a 13-year-old "hit man" of the Negro ghetto.

Other payments run as high as $61 for other "hit men" — juveniles 13 through 16 recruited by youth gangs to wipe out opponents or encroachers on their dope-peddling business.

But Asst. State's Atty. John Stamos today is pressing hard an investigation into more startling reports — that the gangs have been infiltrated by Black Power elements and the violence-encouraging Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

Stamos refused to confirm the Black Power reports, but one of his assistants said the office has evidence those elements have attempted to infiltrate such Negro gangs as the Blackstone Rangers, which has engaged in open warfare with police and rival gangs.

Stamos said the young "hit men" (a term for hired killers) apparently were being used because Illinois law and the courts are lenient with felony defendents under 17 and protect them from punishment as adults.

LAW CHANGE

The investigator suggested a change in the law which says a person under 17 convicted of murder must be turned over to the Illinois Youth Commission, which may release him at its discretion after two years.

"Boys 13, 14 and 15 years old are involved," Stamos said yesterday in revealing the murder ring. "The boys are paid to commit murder."

He said at least six murders by the young triggermen are known and that some have been taken into custody.

One 13-year-old was paid $6 and a sandwich for his part last September in shooting to death one man and wounding two others the Rangers said were selling narcotics in the South Side Woodlawn area without their permission.

NEW CLOTHING

A 16-year-old boy said he was paid with $50 worth of new clothing just before a shooting. His victim was Glenroy Stansberry, 13.

Jeff Fort, 20, and two 16-year-olds have been indicted for the Stansberry shooting. Fort was identified as a former leader of the Rangers.

Other juveniles arrested have implicated men in their 20s and 30s as leaders of the Rangers and other gang youth groups.

Police report a stepped-up movement to recruit youths in their early teens into the gangs. At the same time, they said, the gang warfare and killing appears to have spread far enough beyond the Woodlawn area to cause alarm.

Blanket of Snow Expected in Area

The weatherman reports he expects to whiten the landscape with one to three inches of light snow today.

Here is the official day-by-day U.S. Weather Bureau prediction:

TODAY — Light snow diminishing to flurries late tonight with from one to three inches of new snow accumulation by evening, mainly over southern portions.

High today 22 to 27. Low tonight 15 to 20.

TOMORROW — Cloudy with snow flurries and not much temperature change.

MONDAY — Clearing and a little warmer.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 80, tonight and tomorrow 50.

Fourteen was the low temperature reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury registered 28 at 12:30 p.m.

Sihanouk: Defeated U.S. Hawks

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Cambodia's Prince Norodom Sihanouk has claimed that Cambodia won "an enormous success" over American war hawks through the visit of U.S. Ambassador Chester Bowles this week.

He also says the Cambodian police have smashed a Communist plot to assassinate President Tito of Yugoslavia when he visits Phnom Penh next week.

Speaking on Cambodian Radio last night, Sihanouk said Cambodia had taken advantage of the differences between Vietnam hawks and doves in the United States to "cajole" President Johnson into sending Bowles to negotiate.

The Cambodian leader said the Americans had agreed not to pursue the Vietcong into Cambodia but had asked Cambodia to "denounce the Vietcong presence and chase them out."

He said he would "chase them out," but he would not denounce them because the Vietcong were friends of Cambodia.

'HOT PURSUIT'

Because the United States had agreed to "relinquish the right of hot pursuit," he had chosen peace with America, Sihanouk said.

He said Cambodia had two conditions the United States must fulfill before diplomatic relations, broken in 1965 over alleged border violations, were restored.

First was recognition of the current borders and the second was a pledge not to violate Cambodian territory. Sihanouk said the United States had fulfilled the second condition and "50 per cent of the first" by recognizing Cambodia's territorial integrity.

Sihanouk said four Chinese have been arrested in the Tito assassination plot and a radio and four crates of "very powerful hand grenades" seized.

BLOW UP CITY

"They were awaiting the arrival of Tito, at which point they were going to blow all Phnom Penh sky high in the hopes of assassinating Tito," Sihanouk said.

He said the police and military have been given orders to take "strict measures" against the Cambodian Communists, who would be brought before Cambodian courts "and shot if necessary."

The prince said the Communists had distributed pamphlets denouncing the Tito visit and accusing Sihanouk of being a "lackey of the Americans as well as of Tito." Tito has held Yugoslavia independent of both the Soviet Union and China in the world Communist movement.

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Israeli and Jordanian troops traded machine-gun fire across the Jordan River south of the Sea of Galilee today, an army announcement said. The Israelis accused the Jordanians of opening up with machine-gun fire on an Israeli border patrol jeep. The Israelis said they returned the fire and the exchange lasted about an hour. Later, the army said, the Jordanians again opened up with machine guns from the same position. The shooting was continuing more than an hour later.

King Urges Viet Protest

NEW YORK (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is calling for a mass rally of the nation's clergy and laymen in Washington, D.C., next month to protest the war in Vietnam. "We need to make clear in this political year, to congressmen on both sides of the aisle and to the President of the United States, that we will no longer tolerate, we will no longer vote for, men who continue to see the killing of Vietnamese and Americans as the best way of advancing the goals of freedom and self-determination in Southeast Asia," he said.

Heart Recipients OK

By The Associated Press

Doctors attending the world's two surviving heart transplant recipients today indicated qualified approval of their patients' progress although California steelworker Mike Kasperak was still on the critical list. Dr. Christiaan N. Barnard said today in Cape Town, South Africa, that retired dentist Philip Blaiberg has complained of tiredness, and routine tests on him were being relaxed to allow him more rest.

Strike Deadline Set

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers, in a drive to wrap up contract bargaining left over from 1967, set a Jan. 24 strike deadline in Canadian negotiations and planned their first Saturday meeting with American Motors Corp.

3 More U.S. Defectors

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The influx of American military deserters to Sweden continued today as three more U.S. servicemen sought refuge. The three—Army Pvt. Kennan Lee Fulks of Boulder, Colo. Lawrence Bertheaud of New Orleans, La., and Robert Bourroughs—came to the Swedish Vietnam Committee and have asked for political asylum, a committee spokesman said. It was reported that Fulks deserted from Ft. Bliss, Tex. Of the other two, one came from an Army unit in Mannheim, West Germany.

'200 Chinese Killed'

TOKYO (AP) — Moscow Radio said today more than 200 starving peasants were killed by Red soldiers when they rebelled againt the Chairman Mao Tse-tung leadership in Kwangtun Province last month. In a Japanese-language broadcast monitored in Tokyo, Moscow Radio said because of a food shortage, peasants revolted in a village 7 miles from Canton, capital of the province, in late December. Pro-Mao troops quickly quelled the revolt, the broadcast added.

Russia to Shift Envoys

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russian sources report the Soviet Union is preparing to reshuffle its diplomatic representation in the West, replacing Anatoly F. Dobrynin as ambassador to the United States and bringing back Jacob A. Malik as U.N. ambassador. Malik, 61, will take back his old post at the United Nations from Nikolai T. Fedorenko, 56, who has held it since 1962. The sources said Fedorenko is ready to step down next month.

Pole Expelled by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, responding to Poland's expulsion this week of an American military attache, has given an assistant military attache of the Polish Embassy one week to leave the country. The State Department made no charge yesterday against Lt. Col. Henryk Pojmanski in ordering his expulsion. Pojmanski, 39, joined the Polish Embassy staff in Washington last October.

Birmingham Area News

Substitute Teachers Are Sought

BIRMINGHAM — A call for substitute teachers has been issued by the Birmingham school district.

At the elementary level, teachers are needed in art, music and physical education.

At the secondary level, there is a need for junior high school mathematics teachers and counselors to assume assignments for the remainder of the school year. A few positions are available immediately.

Especially needed are former teachers who do not desire full-teaching at this time, but who would consider a substitute assignment.

Instructors who have had 60 semester hours or 90 term hours of college training may qualify for minimum certification. However, a bachelor's degree and teaching certificate are preferred.

Those interested in substitute full-time teaching may contact the district's personnel department, located in the Hill Building at Chester and Merrill.

A local development firm, Howard T. Keating Co. of 725 S. Adams Square, has begun construction on a new office building at 6366 Orchard Lake, West Bloomfield Township.

Half of the new structure will be headquarters for the company's new West Bloomfield real estate operation, but approximately 6,000 square feet of space will be available for lease to other companies.

The building, designed by Lorenz & Paski, Inc., is expected to be ready for occupancy in August.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Registration for the winter recreation program is under way.

The new term starts Jan. 27, for most children's and youth activities. Those desiring to register may do so at the recreation office, located in the Andover High School building, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

A full swimming program is offered, along with tumbling, acrobatics, ballet and modern dance among other classes. The natural ice rinks at Eastover Elementary and East Hills and Bloomfield Hills Junior High Schools are open to skaters.

Foe of Surtax Warns LBJ on Budget Hike

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills D-Ark., says he will continue to oppose President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent surtax if federal spending increases in the 1968-69 fiscal year as much as it did in the current fiscal year.

The chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee said Friday he had heard that the administration planned an administrative budget of $148 billion to $149 billion in fiscal 1969.

He said this was too large to meet the conditions laid down by him and his committee for considering the surtax on income tax, which was shelved last year by the committee. It wants a corresponding reduction in spending.

Expenditures in the administrative budget in the 1968 fiscal year are expected to be $136.2 billion compared to $125 billion in the previous fiscal year. No official figures for the 1969 budget have been announced.

HOLD SPENDING

Mills said he thought most federal agencies should hold spending in the next fiscal year to as close to $125 billion as possible and not let the level of expenditures rise "as they normally do from one fiscal year to the other."

Castro Offers Prisoner Deal

To Free 100 if Bolivia Gives Up Che's Body

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro says he will free 100 "ringleader" political prisoners if Bolivia hands over the remains of slain guerrilla leader Ernesto Che Guevara. But he apparently won't for French writer Regis Debray.

Debray is serving a 30-year term in a Bolivian prison on charges of helping a Castroite guerrilla band led by Guevara. Bolivian President Reine Borrientos has suggested Bolivia might consider exchanging him for Huber Matos, a former revolutionary who broke with Castro and has been a prisoner in Cuba since 1959.

Castro set forth his terms for an exchange Friday night in a two-hour speech in which he described the United States as "a truly universal enemy whose attitude threatens the entire world" and whose "policy reminds us today of the policy of Hitler, the acts of barbarism of Nazism."

CLOSED CONFAB

The speech, among Castro's most strongly anti-American pronouncements, closed the nine-day Havana cultural congress of more than 400 leftist intellectuals from 70 countries.

A former comrade-in-arms of Castro, Guevara was slain by Bolivian soldiers in October. Officials said the body was cremated. Castro said Cuba's enemies fear Guevara "more dead than alive."

If Barrientos wants Cuban prisoners freed, Castro said, "We say to him: produce the remains of Maj. Guevara and we will free them immediately."

Judges awarded trophies, supplied by the Pontiac Kiwanis Club, for excellent, superior and good performances.

China Claims Alleged U.S. Raid Was 5th

TOKYO (UPI) — An alleged raid on Yunnan Province Sunday by planes of "U.S. imperialism and its lackeys, the Loatian rightists" was the fifth such attack on China since Sept. Sept. 5, 1966, China charged yesterday.

The Chinese language broadcast, heard in Tokyo, claimed these other U.S. bombings of China:

- Sept. 5, 1966, U.S. plane bombed the Yu Yi Kuang area near the South China-Vietnam border.
- Sept. 9, 1966, two F105 fighter - bombers strafed, bombed and rocketed the Kwangsi Chuan autonomous area in south China near the Vietnamese border, wounding three tribesmen, damaging two houses and killing an ox.
- May 2, 1967, four F105s again bombed homes in the Kwangsi Chuang autonomous area, damaging three houses.
- July 12, 1967, four F105s fired missles over the western part of the Kwangsi Chuang area, injuring four border guards and damaging a building.

Viet-Bound GI Offered Aid as 6 'Orphaned'

COLUMBUS, Miss. (AP)—An Air Force sergeant, resigned to parting with his motherless children while he is in Vietnam, says he feels better about "being in the human race" since word of his transfer caused a flood of calls.

S. Sgt. John L. Wolfe, leaves Columbus Air Force base next Thursday on the first leg of his trip to Southeast Asia. He will go first to his family home in Valley Station, Ky., where he will leave his two preschool age boys with his mother.

The three oldest children have already gone to Kentucky to enter a childrens' home in Middletown. Another child is with a brother.

Friday, Sen. John C. Stennis said he had asked the Air Force to reconsider Wolfe's case. Mrs. Wolfe died in 1966 of a brain hemorrhage, and since then Wolfe has cared for five of the six children by himself in an apartment on the Air Force base here.

Through Friday evening, Wolfe had received 53 calls from people in 21 states offering to take care of some or all of his children.

When Mrs. Wolfe died, Wolfe was offered the opportunity to take a hardship discharge. But he had been in the military for 11 years then and didn't want to leave.

General Motors Recalls 35,250 1968 Chevelles

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. recalled 35,250 of its 1968 model Chevrolet division Chevelle models Friday. But it said a possible brake defect was not serious enough to cause major braking problems in most models.

GM said 250 cars with power brakes may have been assembled with a locknut missing from the end of the master cylinder push rod.

3 Men Survive 7 Days in Stormy Waters of Gulf

FREEPORT, Tex. (AP) — Three hardy bricklayers who rode out the stormy Gulf of Mexico for seven days with canned sausages, a six-pack of beer and an undying belief that they would be rescued came home Friday night to the cheers of friends and relatives.

The three were seen in their 19-foot boat late Friday by crewmen of the Coast Guard cutter Legare. The Legare at the time was steaming back to port, having given up the search for W. J. Morvant, 45, Richard Morvant, 23, and Paul Bailey, 22, all from Groves, Tex.

Twenty-five friends and relatives showed up at this gulf coastal city Friday night when the Legare and the fishermen came in.

"We never gave up," said W. J. Morvant. He said a few airplanes swooped over their 19-foot radioless boat without seeing them.

Morvant, his son and Bailey left early Saturday for a fishing trip far out near some offshore drilling rigs in the Gulf of Mexico. They carried beer, three cans of soft drinks, bread and Vienna sausages.

The bread and sausages lasted three days. They drank the beer and soft drinks the first day.

"It was so cold for the first four days we didn't even want a drink of water," Bailey said.

The three were tossed about in their boat as a bitter northern storm kicked up 10-foot swells in the gulf.

"The cold was the worst thing," Bailey said. "I have never in my life been so cold for so long."

CLEAN SHAVEN

The three came ashore clean-shaven and wearing borrowed Coast Guard clothing. It was almost impossible to distinguish the rescued from the rescuers, save for the shouting relatives and friends who rushed to greet them.

Eight of Bailey's nine brothers were on hand. The eight had taken off from their bricklaying jobs all week to search the coves and inlets around Sabine Pass, 100 miles up the coast.

The fishermen's 19-foot boat was disabled when salt water got into the engine coil. It was finally spotted 60 miles south of Freeport.

Murder Plot in NY Case, Lawyer Says

NEW YORK (AP) — An assistant U.S. Attorney says a plot to murder a government witness in the kickback case against former City Water Commissioner James L. Marcus had progressed to the point where "only the trigger had to be pulled."

Asst. U. S. Atty. Michael Fawer made the disclosure Friday as he argued successfully for $100,000 bail for Robert H. Roden, 39-year-old ex-convict accused of trying to hire the murder of the federal witness.

Meanwhile, there were published reports that federal authorities were seeking a second man in the alleged murder plot. The reports quoted sources close to the investigation as saying an arrest was expected soon.

At Roden's arraignment, Fawer said the suspected plotter met several times early this month with a man who turned out to be a government informer and offered the man money to murder the government witness.

Editor-Publisher to Get Freedom of Press Award

TUSCON, Ariz. (AP) — John S. Knight, 73, an editor and publisher whose journalism career covers nearly 50 years, today receives the John Peter Zenger Freedom of the Press Award.

The award, a plaque, was established by the late Douglas Martin, head of the department of journalism at the University of Arizona. It was given for the first time in 1955.

The award is for distinguished service to freedom of the press and the people's right to know. Zenger was colonial editor of the New York Weekly Journal, jailed in 1735 for criticizing British Gov. William Cosby. He was later acquitted of libel charges when a jury decided he had printed the truth.

County Family Escapes Blaze

An Oakland Township family of seven escaped without injury this morning when a fire of undetermined origin destroyed their home.

"They were lucky to get out alive," said Romeo Fire Chief Walter Werth about the occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Davis and their five children.

Werth said that when his department arrived it was too late to save the two-story frame house at 1741 Inwood, a quarter mile west of Dequindre.

"All we could do was protect the surrounding buildings," said Werth.

The blaze was reported to the department at 7:50 a.m., according to Werth. The house, he said, was owned by a gravel company in Detroit.

Area Burglars Hit Pharmacy

Burglars ransacked a Commerce Township pharmacy early today and made off with $80 in cash and merchandise of undetermined value.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said the Commerce Drug Store, 111 Commerce, was left in "a shambles" by the thieves.

A motorist who stopped in the store's parking lot about 3 a.m. noticed items strewn about the floor and notified authorities.

Deputies said the building had been checked less than two hours before.

Reported missing in addition to the money were nine watches, six radios, three cameras and an electric razor.

Investigators said the burglars, who broke in through a rear door, overturned numerous shelves and opened the fountain faucets onto the floor.

Identification officers checked the scene for fingerprints, according to deputies.

School Vote Near

ATLANTA (AP) — Montmorency County voters will decide Monday whether to combine their three school districts—Atlanta, Hillman and Lewiston—into one.

Fireman Dies of Apparent Heart Attack

A 16-year-veteran of the Pontiac Fire Department died yesterday at the main fire station, apparently of a heart attack.

BENTFIELD

A lieutenant since 1963, Lawrence R. Bentfield, 42, of 615 Melrose, had just finished lunch when he suffered the attack.

Witnesses said rescue efforts to revive him were futile. He was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

Benfield is survived by his wife, Jacqueline; a son, Gary, and a daughter, Lorry Ann, both at home; and a brother, Harold of Pontiac.

THE CORONER'S POSITION

Many people do not understand the role played by the Coroner. The Coroner is a public official, elected by the people, and is responsible for the control and establishing the cause of death in cases under his jurisdiction.

J. L. VOORHEES

Often the question arises as to when the Coroner has jurisdiction. He is in complete charge of any homicide, suicide, accident, or when the deceased has not been attended within a certain specified period of time.

Many hours of painstaking scientific research are spent finding and establishing the true cause of death. Most coroners today are highly educated and many are medical doctors. They all are devoted men who strive to fulfill their oath of office to you, the public.

Aviatrix Tries Different Plane

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Jean Saile, a Pontiac Press reporter, wife of a commercial artist and mother of six children, is learning to fly a plane. Having passed her first solo, she is now on her way toward winning a private pilot's license. This is another in a series of her impressions.)

By JEAN SAILE

The airplanes I fly need red flashing lights on the flap control lever.

MRS. SAILE

They would become active after touchdown, flaps are used to slow the craft to a more manageable speed immediately after touching down.

My first day with a different airplane in the Oakland-Pontiac Airport landing pattern was marked by a completely unexpected short field takeoff.

"And the instructor said this plane flew just like Zero Four Quebec," I muttered some considerable distance above where I might normally expect to be during takeoff.

INSTRUCTIONS

And then it came back. Instructor Art Trowbridge had previously put me through a flaps-down short field takeoff and that's what I was doing—sort of mushrooming up when I should have been climbing.

"Release the flaps one notch at a time," I remembered him saying, and once again things were normal.

Whether or not tower control had noticed my dilemma and figured I'd had enough, they cleared me for a full-stop landing.

"No. I'd like to go around again," I asked and I did — several more times.

The landings were uneventful.

NEXT PRACTICE

Next time out I drew the same plane again. This time the pattern was quite uneventful until after the final landing and taxi back to Aerodynamics Inc., once again I noted the flaps remained down.

"Never put on the brakes until you release the flaps," Trowbridge had said.

Well, I had used the brakes very gingerly due to the spotted ice and snow on the runway. Ahem!

The worst thing about flying in cold weather, I've discovered, is the preflight check of the airplane. Draining gas tank and engine sumps in zero weather, as well as checking fuel and oil quantities, is finger freezing work.

CABIN HEATER

Once installed in the cockpit though, the cabin heater provides the kind of warmth that allows you to shed your coat.

Ground school activity has started up again after the holidays, and I've been introduced to sequence reports and a computer.

The first are abbreviated weather reports that seem to be printed in a foreign language. It takes a certain ingenuity to read them.

The computer, which scares me to look at it, turned out to be easier than I thought.

USING COMPUTER

"That's all there is to it," said Trowbridge as I went through the various problems of speed and distance and fuel consumption.

"It's too easy," I said. "It must be going to get more difficult."

"It won't," Trowbridge promised.

We'll see.

Second Suspect Held in Assault

A second suspect has been taken into custody in connection with the assault of an Ortonville bar owner and a customer Tuesday night.

The suspect, Michael Engle, 18, of 88 W. Shadbolt, Lake Orion, is scheduled to appear before Orion Township Justice Helmar Stanaback for preliminary examination at 1:30 p.m. Jan. 22.

Engle and George R. Scharf, 26, of 8346 Horton, Goodrich, are charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than the crime of murder and felonious assault.

The complainant is Peter Tandski, 49, the owner of Pete and Jane's Bar, 411 Mill, Ortonville.

Tandski and a customer, Darwin Potvin of 167 South, Ortonville, were attached by two males inside the bar and cut with a broken bottle, according to Pontiac State Police who investigated.

Both were treated at Wheelock Memorial Hospital in Goodrich and released.

Evening of Song Offered Jan. 20 at Northern High

An evening of harmony with the silver anniversary parade of barber shop quartets is available Jan. 20 at the Pontiac Northern High School Auditorium.

The Silver Showboat, at 8:15 p.m., is being sponsored by the Pontiac chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.

Such groups as the Four Statesman, 1967 international champions of barbershop quartet contests; the Chicago Midnight Oilers, recently returned from Vietnam; and Pontiac groups such the Harmony Knights, the Resonaires and newly formed Merry Motor Men chorus will headline the show.

Tickets are $2.50. They are available at Hallman Drugs, 457 Elizabeth Lake, Waterford Township and Professional Center Pharmacy, 5770 Ortonville, Independence Township.

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Michigan Young Republicans will meet Jan. 19-21 at Traverse City to plan for election year activities, the Republican State Central Committee reports. Included in the session will be campaigning for election of state Young Republican officers at the group's state convention in April.

MSU Conference, Swine Sale Near

EAST LANSING (AP) — "Porky" heads for the auction block Jan. 20 at Michigan State University as the annual National Yorkshire Type Conference ends with a public sale of nearly 400 head of prize Yorkshire swine breeding stock. The conference is slated to begin Thursday. Last year the top boar sold for $6,000—more than $200 a pound—and total volume at the sale for about 350 animals was $71,000.

Mrs. M. G. Baker

The death of Mrs. M. G. BAKER deprives the community of a dedicated civic figure who had untiringly exerted herself on behalf of humanity.

MRS. BAKER

A native of Alabama and a graduate of Spellman University, Mrs. BAKER had been a Pontiac resident for nearly half a century. In 1963, she won a Pontiac Area Urban League award in recognition of her contribution to racial understanding and community improvement.

She was active in art, fraternal and ecclesiastic circles, and had worked diligently for such organizations as the YWCA, the Pontiac Area United Fund and Michigan Cancer Foundation.

Mrs. Baker's place in the community will not be easily filled, and her passing is mourned by an impressive number of friends and associates.

Foreign Travel Ban Would Travel Rocky Road

Like prohibition, a clamp-down on American travel abroad may generate more trouble than it is designed to cure, and be about as difficult to enforce.

The problem is the balance of payments deficit — the difference between what America spends abroad and what it earns abroad. In an attempt to solve it, President JOHNSON has ordered restrictions on U.S. business investments overseas.

But since the unfavorable balance is not one of imports over exports (the ratio is favorable to the United Seates) but is attributable to many sources, one of which is tourist spending, he has hinted that official steps may be taken to discourage tourism if his appeal for a voluntary curtailment produces no results.

Among such steps are a tax on airplane and ship tickets and a tax of up to $6 a day for every day spent outside the Western Hemisphere.

Already, large question marks are casting their shadows over such schemes.

How, for instance, are people to be prevented from going to Canada and boarding a transoceanic airliner there? And who is to determine what portion of a businesman's stay in Europe was devoted to business purposes, and would probably be tax-free, and how much was for pleasure, and thereby taxable?

Another trouble with travel taxes is that they usually hit the wrong people.

They would not keep the wealthy jet set and the big spenders at home, but they would hit hard at school teachers and students and others who saved up for years for a trip to Europe.

The balance of payments problem is a very serious one, and certainly every inducement should be offered to encourage Americans to see America first, and the neglected rest of the Western Hemisphere second.

But there is something that goes against the grain in the idea that the free-spending, deficit-ridden government of the United States, the bastion of individual freedom, can no longer afford to allow its citizens to come and go as they please.

Need for Billiard Balls Set 'Plastics' Rolling

It may be a little difficult to believe, but the plastics age is 100 years old this year. And it all came about because of a shortage of ivory for billiard balls.

In 1868, a young Albany, N.Y., printer and tinkerer decided to see what would happen if he mixed certain chemicals together. The substance he came up with—Celluloid—soon found use in a wide range of products, from dental plates to shirt collars.

It also incidentally created a revolution in photography—the roll film—and made the motion picture industry possible.

The next great development came in 1909, when Dr. LEO HENRIK BAEKELAND invented Bakelite, which could be heat-formed into such practical items as electric iron handles.

Today, the types and varieties of plastics and their uses would take volumes to describe. Since 1946, the plastic industry's output has increased by 1,257 per cent and it employs nearly 200,000 men and women.

So don't say that nothing good ever came out of a poolroom.

Desecration Contrasts Patriotism

By EVERETT McKINLEY DIRKSEN

Last week I received a letter of request from a soldier in faroff Vietnam. He asked me to send to his mother in Illinois an American flag that had actually flown from one of the flagpoles over the Nation's Capitol in Washington. We arranged very promptly for it to be sent to her.

DIRKSEN

The soldier's request brought to mind once again the thousands of examples of patriotism and dedication to our Country's flag that are shown every day by our fighting men overseas. And then, in awful contrast, I thought of numerous and recent incidents which culminated in desecration of the flag.

What impels any normal, healthy person to desecrate, trample, burn or spit upon the flag of his country or, for that matter, the flag of any country?

Our flag was burned at the Vietcong peace rally in New York as thousands watched and TV cameras recorded the indecent business.

At a college chapter meeting of Students For a Democratic Society at Purdue University, a man from Chicago spat on the flag, tore it apart, and then trampled it, and then returned to Chicago before he could be charged and tried for a misdemeanor under Indiana law.

There are other recorded incidents of such flag defilement. In few if any cases has the culprit been brought to justice under sound applicable law.

All states have laws on the subject, but there is no federal statute to cover this offense, although effort is now under way to remedy this omission.

It is the act of desecration itself, in whatever form, and the motive behind it that should be our very proper concern.

Is it contempt for the authority which the flag symbolizes and for the form and substance of our free government and what it represents? Is it a misguided prank?

That scarcely explains the desecrations done in such calculated and deliberate fashion.

Is it the emotionalism of a moment when mass feeling runs high and the restraint of long discipline to respect the flag somehow fails?

In a cynical, sophisticated age the whole matter is treated all too lightly. A tendency to scoff at those who would reflect suitable penalties for such an act has become all too prevalent and too freely condoned as free speech or expression.

One can readily imagine the impact of wanton and deliberate desecration of the flag upon the formative minds of millions of young Americans who recite with gusto the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, day after day in schools and institutions of this land.

How must the young soldier feel, the fighter in Vietnam who has such respect and reverence for the flag that he wants his mother to have a banner that has flown over the Capitol?

What must they think in other lands, where defiling the flag would quickly bring down the hand of very stern authority?

Perhaps there are two answers. The one is an adequate federal statute to deal with such an act for just what it is — contempt for authority and a supercilious view of what the flag really means.

The other would be to set ourselves to the important business of rethinking the history of this Republic and recalling what agony and sacrifice in all generations has gone into the origin and preservation of that resplendent banner.

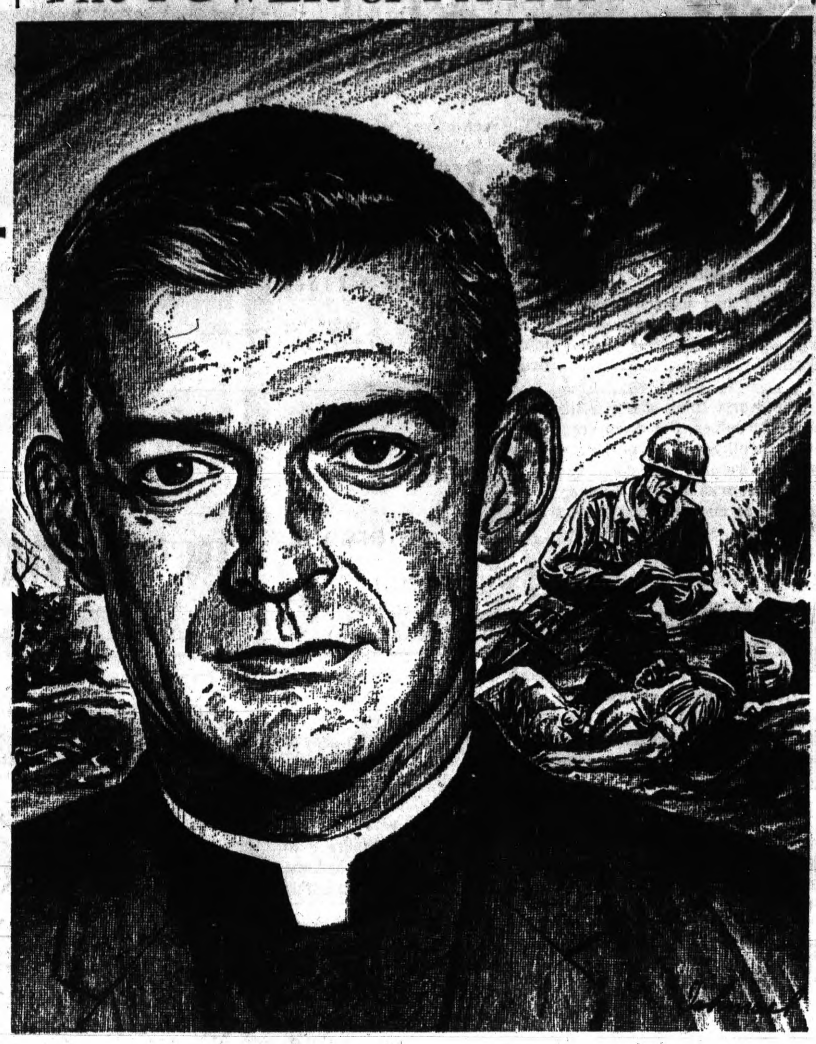
The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL



After Navy Lt. Vincent Robert Capodanno was killed in action in Vietnam on September 4, 1967, a fellow chaplain said this about him: "Chaplain Capodanno loved life and the lives of others so much that he gave his own for them."

Before receiving his Navy commission in 1965, Maryknoll Father Capodanno served for six and one-half years as a missionary in Taiwan. He requested duty with the Marines in Vietnam because he wanted to be where he could do the most good. After a year's tour he extended it for six months. During the fourth month he was assigned to the 3rd Battalion of the 5th U.S. Marine Regiment, which found itself in a rough fight in the Que Son valley, 30 miles south of Da Nang.

Father Capodanno was with Mike Company and as always was far from the comparative security of the battalion commanders group. They were nearly surrounded by North Vietnamese Army Regulars. With little regard for his own safety, Chaplain Capodanno moved among the dead and wounded administering last rites, praying and soothing. An enemy mortar shell mangled his right arm and hand but he continued until machine gun fire hit him in the back. He died serving God, his country and his fellow man.

Confident Living:

Fill Your Life With Excitement

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Anyone can live an exciting life without boredom. How can we be sure? Because many people have done just that. And what anyone else can do so can you also.

DR. PEALE

"I don't remember ever seeing you depressed or bored," I remarked to a man conspicuous for his unflagging zest and interest in everything. "How come?"

"I have a sure-fire technique which I use," he replied, "and it's this. Every morning I pass expectancy thoughts through my mind." That is a real good plan because expectancy plays a big part in living without boredom.

I ran into an old friend in a hotel coffee shop one morning. He seemed all steamed up for a good day's selling. Commenting on this obvious upbeat attitude he said, "Every morning I thank the good Lord for the eventful day He is going to give me."

How about that! Simple words out packed with expectancy. And it makes sense for this man really lives an exciting, eventful life devoid of boredom.

It is a fact that what a person deeply expects tends to happen. Expect dullness and you will get it; expect exciting living and you can have that. I was once on a radio show with Mary Martin . . . there, for sure, is an impressive upbeat personality!

She explained her attitude and philosophy in these words: "I never think about the past. I only think about the present and the future. I am always concentrating on new plans, new ambitions. And I always conceive of myself as growing. I never have one second of boredom."

A continuously interesting life without boredom is available to everyone. It really is. And it does not depend on pleasant circumstances either. The secret is in your attitude.

The disease of boredom is insidious. It causes unhappiness and saps creativity. So if you are suffering from boredom by all means try to get a new slant — a new spirit.

Everyone needs daily replenishment of inspiration: fresh infusions of expectancy, eagerness, interest in life. The Bible says: "A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you."

Another important factor in living without boredom is to get involved. This is a term much in vouge nowadays. It means to get out of yourself, out of the vicious circle of self-centeredness, and get going for objectives beyond your usual personal existence.

Involvement means participation in enterprises aimed at your country, the world generally, or just some group of needy persons in your immediate neighborhood.

One of the best specifics for that mental health in which boredom cannot flourish is to throw yourself into a good fight. Get out and fight for something you believe in.

Most of us sit around grumbling about things going on that we don't like. The more you do this the more gripy and bored you become. But if you really want to get excited and interested, skip the grumbling and get into a good fight for something worthwhile.

What is there to fight for? What isn't there to fight for? Justice, freedom, decency, morality, everything that is of good value. Of course, when you get into a fight you may get criticized, maybe even get into trouble. But so what?

If what you fight for is right you will be given a new heart and new spirit. It will be a lot of fun, and boredom will go out the window.

Some people weakly say, "I can't do anything about things. I'm only one person and not at all important." The tragedy of that excuse is, if enough people talk that way the kooks could take over and our country would go down the drain.

Remember the sturdy hard-hitting words of Edward Everett Hale: "I am only one, but I am one. I can't do everything, but I can do something. What I can do, that I ought to do. And what I ought to do, by the grace of God I will do."

Get inspired, practice expectany, really get interested, jump into the fight for some good cause — and you will never have a boring moment.

'Faulty Heating System Cause of Near Tragedy'

We appreciate the firemen and Consumers Power servicemen who answered our call for help in the early morning hours because of monoxide poisoning affecting our entire family.

A conversion gas furnace with a faulty dome allowed the monoxide gas to escape through the ducts. This may be detected if house plants are dying with no visible reason. Unaware of this and because the gas was odorless, we did not know of the faulty heating system which was the cause of a near tragedy.

Have your furnace checked periodically and beware of any danger signs.

'Should Know Facts on County Spending'

With regard to your editorial "County Airs Its Airport Plans," with the expansion of Oakland Pontiac Airport with two-thirds of the expense to be paid by State and Federal agencies and plans to expand Orion-Oakland (Allen) Airport for ILS operations only eight miles away, does the County believe it can get clearance from the Federal agencies for such a plan?

People are gullible enough to think that, because of State and Federal aid, it doesn't come out of their own pockets by much higher taxes that in turn take food out of people's mouths and deny them decent housing, roads, help for the mentally ill, safety, and many other "high-priced" luxuries. Is the majority to suffer because the County plans to buy up 1,500 acres at inflated prices so a minority will have an airport? Why are they not allowing the people to have a voice in the millions of dollars the County intends to spend?

I believe Supervisor Johnson of Waterford denied zoning for industry because the plans called for stripping the land and destroying the beauty of it. But it is okay to level hills and destroy 1,500 acres of land that should be used for housing and business to increase revenue and decrease the burden of higher taxes. Isn't it time for the people to know all the facts? If the County won't tell, people may learn by writing to the Senators and Representatives in Lansing, and the Federal Aviation authorities in Washington, D.C. and Kansas City. Missouri.

This is to voice a protest against the use of baboons or any other animals (for safety purposes) that are helpless and dependent upon man. Dummies could be used or people can volunteer to be used in these experiments. We were given intelligence, and the power to reason to find a way for safety as a way of survival. God did not intend for man to use animals for experiments.

Other means which could lead to more safety are reduction of speed and power, denying driving rights to alcoholics and drug users, raising the driving age, and enforcement of curfew laws.

'Volunteers Assist Nursing Home Patients'

I read a letter requesting magazines for a nursing home. I am a member of a new volunteer group visiting nursing homes. We know little about occupational therapy but try to do what we can for the patients in this area. We visit, shop and supply them with a few hobby needs and magazines. I feel that more women would enjoy working with folks in nursing homes and the patients need the little things which are impossible for the homes to get or do for them.

'New Constitution Should Be Voted Out'

Step by step Michigan is arriving at the fruition of the new constitution which among other things permits government servants to vote their own pay raises. The new constitution provided for assessments up to 50 per cent of the cash value of property. Many properties are assessed for more than they can be sold. Every legislator who voted for this should be thrown out of office. Better still, the legislature should be served notice to vote out the new constitution in this session. It is time to insist on our democratic rights or lose them forever.

'Superteen' at Northern Adds Honor

Jeanne Rayner is normally called "superteen" at Pontiac Northern High School, but this week she can be called Pontiac's Teen of the Week.

Her "superteen" nickname was given to Jeanne a senior for her many contributions to the activities of Pontiac Northern.

She serves as president of Northern's International Club. As a foreign exchange student in the Youth for Understanding program, she spent two months in Germany.

She is also secretary of the German Club, a member of the advisory board of the Student Council, a member of the Avalanche yearbook staff, a biology laboratory assistant and a Sunday school teacher at All Saints Episcopal Church.

In the past, Jeanne has earned a Salute to Youth Award for Leadership and one as a member of the Rae-Vens National Champion Drill Team for three years.

Next fall she plans to attend Oakland University with aspirations of becoming an elementary school teacher.

Jeanne says she bases her life on these few words: "The world belongs to the youth of today. The desire to be of true service to mankind will continue to be my life's goal so that I may be a contribution to a better world."

City GI Logs Career of Firsts

Being first is becoming a habit for Spec. 4 Ronald K. McLauchlin. The son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McLauchlin of 33 Court, he recently became the first member of the 134th Assault Helicopter Co., stationed in Vietnam, to receive the Air Medal.

The trend began when the 134th was just being formed at Fort Bragg, N. C., last February. Then Pvt. McLauchlin received his promotion to private first class. At the same time, Pfc. McLauchlin was made the "first sergeant" of the 134th Aviation Co. since the company was a fledgling and had none.

"The single-striped 'first sergeant' did his duties willingly and effectively," reported a company spokesman, who pointed out that McLauchlin was the company's first Pfc. First (first sergeant).

The company deployed for Vietnam in November, bringing the Pfc. "ex-Top" to his regular duties as an aircraft crewman. In his first 11 days in Vietnam, McLauchlin logged more than 100 hours of flying time, becoming the first member of his company to earn the Basic Air Medal.

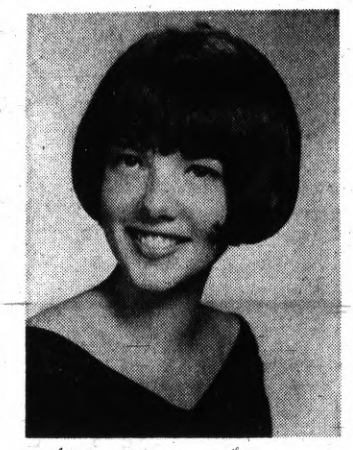
FEDERAL DEPT. STORES

DOWNTOWN AND DRAYTON PLAINS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. O'Donnell of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., (formerly of Detroit) announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Anne, to John Philip Narrin, son of the Joe W. Narrins of Lauren Court. The bride elect is a graduate of Florida Atlantic University. Her fiance attended the University of Cincinnati.



An early June wedding is planned by Tolly Jo Dickson and John Vincent Gaul. Miss Dickson, a graduate of Michigan State University, is the daughter of the Joe C. Dicksons of Spur Hill Drive. Her fiance, a junior in the School of Dentistry at the University of Detroit, is the son of the Bernard W. Gauls of Royal Oak.

Not Mannerly for Her Guest to Ask Question

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it good manners for guests at a meal to ask the hostess if she made the pie or cake, or other food that appears on the table? I have two or three friends who do just that. Sometimes I have bought a pie or cake but served it so that no one would know unless, of course, the question is asked.

Am I wrong to think this is my affair alone, especially when I give others this same consideration?—Mrs. A.

Dear Mrs. A.: It is not in the best of taste for a guest to ask whether the hostess baked the desert, or whatever. As you suggest, it may force her to reveal a secret she has gone to some lengths to protect, and it's no one's business where the delicious dish came from.

Ideally, the guest simply says how delicious the pie is and the hostess, if she wishes, may reply, "You couldn't have said anything nicer—I baked it myself," or "Thanks so much, that new Sugarsweet Bakery is marvelous."

In answer to several letters I have received concerning seating guests at the table, while I maintain that places should not be set differently for the left-handed person, never forget this rule:

By putting a "southpaw" at a corner curve or the end where he will not be bumping elbows with his neighbor as he eats, he and the person on his left will both be more comfortable.

Total Impact-Today's Style Trend

Instant impact, instant communication, instant color! Never before has there been such a race for immediate impressions — in news reporting, entertainment, business, and above all, fashion. "The modern eye is alarm-set for instant reaction," says noted designer Adele Simpson, who keys her new spring resort collection to this formula for today's jet-paced world.

"Today's fashion-wise woman creates an instant response," says Mrs. Simpson. "One glance at her and you get the message, the mood, the flair. It all happens in that critical first impression."

So, the Adele Simpson look is purposefully eye-arresting. The silhouette, the colors, the textures and the excitement are designed for instant — and powerful — impact.

The shape is youthful slenderness. The color is vibrant. The textures are striking. And the excitement is in the instant magnetism of the designs.

MIDDY DRESS

One chrome gray wool middy dress is flashed with a linen V-line inset at the neck. Another, in navy, is touched with an outburst of lingerie ruffles that flare with young feminity. A springwater green crepe middy dress has frog closings, and a shell-printed silk middy mixes colors of orange and bonnie blue.

Adele Simpson's coat costumes for spring and resort create instant harmony. For a busy day in town one silk coat-dress and shirt goes from morning until evening in eye-catching swirls of brown, black with white circles and dots. A navy coat-dress trumpets a fresh splash of white, and black Alaskine coat-dress version is springtime young.

Other coat costumes are planned in composition. A navy wool coat harmonizes with the contemporary print in a white and navy silk dress. A pink and navy coat of light wool streaks lines across squares and is set off by a navy pleated jumper-dress with a collage pink silk shirt. Adele Simpson's wily chameleon coat in a mixture of pink, green and blue blossoms that changes in color impact according to its dress-mate.

FOR EVENING

The evening impression is instantly feminine in Adele Simpson's soft laces and organzas. A stunning black jersey top has a neckline that plunges toward swirling lace-and-organza tucked skirt. A re-embroidered organza shirt-dress is sashed at the waist with collage pink satin, and blond blowered lace combines a full skirt with a little jacket. A navy lace schoolgirl dress is touched with white organdy, and black Alaskine skirt with an A-shape front panel and a tucked organza shirt is designed to stop traffic at a glance.

Among the instant-impact-patterns and fabrics in the Adele Simpson collection are paired geodesic prints. One is Alaskine suit costume with a black jersey top, and the other is an A-shape dress with its own matching silk scarf. Both dress and suit are presented in interesting double squares of beige on black. A pair in airweight wool features jacquard squares in flash red. The weskit jacket over the flash red dress adds up to a double impact.

Other suit costumes are in gay plaids and checks. A blond wool suit costume boasts a lined check jacket. A marigold cotton suit comes in a diminutive check. And one silk plaid combines many browns into a suit costume with a matching dress.

For the coming spring and resort season Adele Simpson sets a modern fashion pace that fills the modern demand for immediate sensory response — for total and instant impact.

Providing a youthful and refreshingly chic look from the Adele Simpson collection is this grey, glen plaid worsted little dress. Pique cuffs and overcollar add finishing touches to the princess styled ensemble.

Exhibition Intermedia to Explore All Forms of Art Starting Sunday

The farthest horizons of current art will be explored by Birmingham art buffs when the Bloomfield Art Association presents Exhibitions Intermedia opening Sunday.

Selected, piece by piece by artists Jeanne Gardner, Lillian Hoppin and Rosemary Allen, the exhibition puts on display works which represent a mixture of two and three dimensional media.

From the stainless steel by Pistoletto, whose work received acclaim in a recent Time magazine article, to the structurist reliefs of David Barr, the show will include the best works from local artists and galleries in this art medium which falls somewhere between painting and sculpture — as traditionally accepted.

INVITATIONAL

An invitational show, which includes such noted artists as Robert Rauchenberg, Andy Warhol, Glen Michaels and James Rosenquist, this will, more than any other exhibition presented by the BAA, command the participation of the viewer.

It demonstrates that the distinctions between painting and sculpture, drawing and even ceramics become more blurred as artists experiment with new media, expand the old and introduce a mixture of traditional two and three dimensional media. Each work has a third dimension. In some it is an optical illusion.

In some it is actual and in the case of the Pistoletto, it requires the participation of the viewer, whose reflection completes the picture.

The exhibition chairmen have arranged for the gallery visitors to create their own "Intermedia" with a catalogue, designed by Joyce Nagel, which can be folded into a cube.

The works on display have been loaned by the artists, the owners and by London Arts, Gertrude Kasle, J. L. Hudson, Franklin Siden, Lawrence Stevens, Lantern, Little and Kazimir Galleries.

Intermedia will be on display through Feb. 4 at the Birmingham Art Center, South Cranbrook Road, Birmingham. Gallery hours are 2 to 5 p.m. except Mondays.

Calendar

TODAY

Bonneville Duplicate Bridge Club, 8 p.m., The Pontiac Mall Community Room. All bridge players may attend.

MONDAY

Areme Chapter No. 503, OES, 8 p.m., special meeting at the Roosevelt Temple.

Chancel Players, 8 p.m., East Iroquois Road home of Mrs. Thomas Sherwood.

Chapter AW, PEO, 8 p.m., Newberry Street home of Mrs. Norman Allen. Marion Emery will read President's Letter. Mrs. William Kalwitz assists hostess.

Sylvan Shores Women's Club, 8 p.m., home of Mrs. William Hutchinson of Shore View Drive.

Drayton Woods Women's Club, 8 p.m. at Thomas Cooley School. "Inside Russia" topic of guest speaker, Mrs. David Saks.

Rockford, Ill., Setting for Recent Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Johnson of Rockford, Ill., announce the recent marriage there of their daughter, Barbara J., to Robert L. Morrison.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Morrison of Elizabeth Lake Road.

Chilly Weather Plus Mini-Maids Equal Fat Legs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Miniskirts and cold weather lead to just one thing, the Federal Housing Administration says: fat legs.

Chilly knees would not seem to be in FHA's normal jurisdiction but the federal agency has an employe health division that worries about all those government girls.

"The legs of young women respond quite rapidly to exposure to cold temperatures," a health division memo says.

"The bodily response is a quick build-up of successive layers of fatty molecules under the skin areas of the thighs, knees, calves and ankles of female legs."

Medics Terrify Grown Daughter--- She Must Want Help From Expert

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem which I have had for nearly 21 years. My daughter, Lulu, has been terrified of doctors ever since she was a tiny baby, and she seems to be getting worse every year. The few times she has had to have medical care she has passed out at the sight of a doctor.

ABBY

Please help me to get her over this, Abby.

A person has to see a doctor and dentist every once in a while, and I have to find some way of getting Lulu there without going through all kinds of hell. (Excuse the expression.) Thank you.

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: It's a pretty good guess that your daughter was frightened by a doctor (probably in a white coat) when she was a baby, and consequently the mere sight of a man in a white coat triggers this deeply-rooted fear.

If Lulu is to overcome this obsession, she will have to cooperate with still another doctor. (One who deals with emotional problems, but happily he won't wear a white coat.) You can move heaven and earth, Mother, but you can't help her until she wants to help herself.

DEAR ABBY: I have wanted to be an air line hostess for as far back as I can remember, and I know I would be a good one. But I have a problem. My mother and father don't like the idea. They say it is too dangerous.

Abby, there are risks in every profession, and I have spoken to girls who have flown with the different air lines for years and they don't seem to think it's dangerous. What do you think? I have talked my heart out. What can I tell my parents to make them change their minds?

AMY

DEAR AMY: According to the most recent statistics, air travel is one of the safest methods of transportation. Last year the fatality rate on scheduled United States air lines was 0.07 per 100 million passenger miles, as compared with 0.16 for railroads, and 2.4 for autos.

One air line has never had an injury or fatality to passengers or crew members in its entire 20-year history. In this time it carried 15 million passengers over two billion miles. If 15 million people were to take showers, you could expect a few to slip on the soap.

DEAR ABBY: You recently had a letter in your column from a service man who complained because he didn't get any mail. One very important question: Did he WRITE to anybody? My own case: My boyfriend (fiance) called me collect last MAY from Massachusetts, where he was in an army school. He said he was being shipped out the following day and would write to me as soon as he had an address where I could write to him.

In JUNE he sent me a postcard from Athens, Greece. He said he was having a "great" time and was on his way to Ethiopia. (Still no address where I could write to him.)

In AUGUST he wrote from Ethiopia saying he had been there for two months and it wasn't bad at all. This time he included an address, so I answered his letter right away and I haven't heard from him since.

He complained in his letter that nobody had written to him. (I wonder where he expected them to address their letters?) He isn't in a war zone, and he is not suffering any hardships because he writes that he is living in a bungalow and is teaching at the university at night. What do you think of this?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: I think your fiance is lazy, inconsiderate, and something less than gung ho about you. And unless he can explain his long silences, shower him with indifference.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BARBARA IN CLAYTON, MO.: You are not alone, my dear. When a man makes a woman his wife, it's the highest compliment he can pay her. And it's usually the last.

Troubled? Write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600 P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056. for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Marine Lance Cpl. Robert Beard, 19, Edmonds, smiles while his fiance, Miss Paula Davis, hugs him after a close brush with death. Beard had been aboard the Marine Transport plane that crashed and burned in northern Nevada killing 19 men Wednesday. Beard had left the aircraft at Denver, Colo., because of his hurry to get home and become engaged to Miss Davis.

Class Will Review Issues

The first winter term class offered by the Village Woman's Club on East Long Lake Road is "Themes and Issues in Contemporary Literature" under Seymour Riklin. It begins Jan. 31 at 9:30 a.m.

This is a brainstorming course hitting at philosophical themes and issues of the last two hundred years and how they relate to literature of the 19 and 20 centuries.

Professor Raklin, a graduate of University of Chicago has taught at the University of Michigan, Western Reserve University and Wayne State University.

In 1960 he was given the "Teacher of the Year" award by the Adult Education Association.

The eight - session class, along with others in crafts, bridge, history, international cuisine, dancing, slymnastics and languages, is open for registration on Jan. 22 from 10 a.m. until noon at the club.

Club members working on the details of winter term classes are Mrs. Chester Wisniewski, Mrs. John Ballantyne and Mrs. John C. Siegesmund Jr.

All classes at the Village Woman's Club are open to the public. Further information may be had by calling the club.

Charleston Woman Still Teaching at 96

CHARLESTON, Mo. (AP) — Pride in her ancestry, her adopted home in Charleston and 81 years' service as a music teacher highlight the life of Miss Kate Boone, still a voice and piano instructor at 96.

Miss Boone is a descendant of the Kentucky frontierman, Daniel Boone.

One of her voice pupils was Betty Cooper, who became the wife of Missouri Gov. Warren E. Hearnes.

"She has a beautiful voice," Miss Boone said.

The nearly blind woman gives lessons in her quarters at a nursing home. She began losing her sight 25 years ago.

Miss Boone uses a strong light on her piano to teach. She minimizes the glare by wearing an eyeshade.

One of her voice pupils is Kathy DeLaney, 16, a high school sophomore who is the sixth generation of her family Miss Boone has taught.

Miss Boone, who thinks she may be the nation's oldest music teacher, doesn't believe rock 'n' roll is music, but she insists "all music has its place."

"Every child should begin with classical music, because it is the basis of all music," she said.

JAZZ

She acknowledges jazz has merit.

"Guy Lombardo and a few other top band leaders produce beautiful music," she said.

Miss Boone lived 22 years in her native Clinton, Ky. Her great-great grandfather, Bryant Boone, was a brother of Daniel Boone.

The family moved to Charleston in 1893. She is the youngest and last surviving child of Judge and Mrs. William Fenton Boone's 10 sons and three daughters.

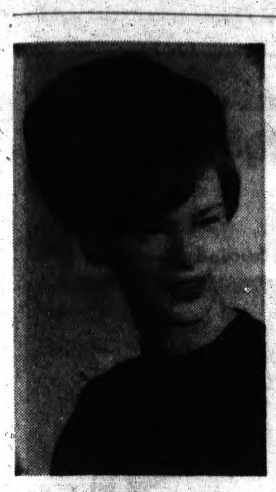
Miss Kate Boone, a descendant of Daniel Boone, is shown with Kathy DeLaney, 16, the sixth generation of the same family to receive voice lessons from Miss Boone. The veteran instructor has been giving lessons for 81 years and now receives her students in her quarters in a nursing home.

Membership Tea Set

A membership tea will be held Monday at 1 p.m. by the Bloomfield Republican Women's Club.

Guest speaker for the affair, hosted by Mrs. Robert H. Pastor of Bloomfield Hills is William P. Hampton, representative for the 65th district.

All members are encouraged to bring guests.



A Feb. 10 wedding is planned by Vontilla Fay Spivy and Gary Neil Wallace. The bride elect is the daughter of Ralph Spivy of Fourth Avenue and the late Mrs. Spivy. Parents of the prospective bridegroom are the Flavil Wallaces of Madison Street.

A mid-June wedding is planned by Barbara Ann McConnell and Gregory Lee Bucholz. Parents of the betrothed couple are the senior R. W. McConnells of Aquarina Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Bucholz of Levee Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Delasko of Watkins Lake Road announce the betrothal of their daughter, Rita Marie, to Patrick James Timulak. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Timulak of Central City, Pa. The bride elect is a graduate of Pontiac Business Institute.

Mrs. Padar Jr. Club Hostess

Mrs. Albert Padar Jr. gave a talk on "Lets Talk on Radio and Television" at Tuesday's meeting of Phi chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. The senior Mrs. Padar of Florida was a guest.

Treat Youth's Absurdities With Light Scorn

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: Our son, who is a college sophomore, either loses, lends or wears out his clothes so that on every vacation they have to be replaced. The problem is, he won't shop for them himself.

Yet he is never pleased with what I buy for him, and if I go shopping with him, he is so impatient with me and so rude to salespeople that we usually end by coming home with nothing. I am ashamed of the skimpy, worn clothes he has taken back to school this term.

If you know of any way to change this attitude . . .

ANSWER: Why do you trouble yourself with wishes to change it?

If he so despises decent clothes, let him despise them. At least, that is what I'd do. Just once would I try to decently outfit my rebellious young. Just once, friend. Told that he liked no slacks, no shirt, no sweaters or coats that were shown him, I'd say, "O.K. Have it your way. Take up loin cloths. Tear your sheets into sarongs. Go native. Go naked."

But then, of course, I'm quite tough with the young. I'm tough with them because I like them and know that our habit of trying to assume the consequences of their irresponsibilities is bad for them.

It's bad for them because we can't do it. For in the end, it won't be you who has to manage the results of resembling a beat-up hobo. It will be your son.

So we come back, you see, to this disgusting "togetherness" which suggests that we are the people who should feel shame because somebody else chooses to lose, lend or otherwise dispossess himself of his clothing. Sure we do. We come right back to this pernicious business of "I am my child and my child is I." But he is not we. And the Siamese twins we make of our children are freaks, distortions of nature.

The fact is, the young can do with a little scorn once in awhile.

Not the mean kind. The giggling kind, the genuinely amused kind. For their absurdities are absurd. So if we can laugh at them (and we can if we love them) they may join in our laughter with us. And with gravity say, "Loin cloth? Not such a bad idea." Then they'll go shopping.

Chapter Tells of Activities Coming Up

A clothing demonstration, spring dance and service project were all discussed at Tuesday's meeting of Zeta Eta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Hosting the event in her Kempf Street home was Mrs. Karl Dale.

Announcement was made of the advancement to Exempler chapter of Mrs. Clyle Haskill, Mrs. Byron Barnes and Mrs. Clifford Wilcox.

Mrs. Duane LaTurneau presented the cultural program and Mrs. Ferdinand Strohmeyer acted as cohostess.

Members Gather

The Union Lake home of Mrs. Richard Paschke was the setting Wednesday for a meeting of Xi Gamma Alpha chapter, Beta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Paschke gave sorority reports and Mrs. Robert Schmidt presented a program on the "Polar Regions."

Polly's Pointers

Help for Invalid

DEAR POLLY — In answer to Miss E. L. who wanted Pointers for helping invalids, I suggest that she take up painting. A lovely young lady in our town whose hands are sadly crippled with arthritis began painting a few years ago and this year she won the sweepstakes in an area art contest. —L. R. F.

DEAR POLLY — Miss E. L. and other invalids who need to occupy themselves could work on improving their mental horizons. There are self-help books available on almost any subject. Studying another language is especially rewarding and there are also reasonably priced language records to help in this study.

Crossword puzzles and word games are a help for increasing one's vocabulary and, if there are any school children about, help them with their spelling lessons and brush up on a few new words.—M. T.

DEAR POLLY — Miss E. L., the arthritic who showers with a sponge rather than taking a tub bath, may find bathing is a little easier if she were to cut a pouch in a sponge, insert a bar of soap (or some of those slivers we hate to throw out) and sew up the open end of the pouch.—B. B.

DEAR POLLY — In order that her freshly ironed extra curtains and tablecloths are neat and ready to use when needed, my wife bought two inexpensive garment bags. After ironing, she places the curtains and linens in these bags which are hung on a rod in the basement until needed.—MR. A. L. R.

DEAR POLLY — I have a big box of sea shells and want to make flowers with them, like I have seen in gift shops. I have no idea how to begin so I hope someone can tell me. — FRAN

DEAR POLLY — I have found that those pretty shopping bags with holiday decorations make wonderful sturdy wrappings for bulky packages. —MRS. L. J. K.

DEAR POLLY — The clips on my detachable shoe buckles snagged my nylons and also cut into my feet. I bought foam earring pads and slipped one over each clip, so now I have no more snags and no more sore feet.—ANNABELLE

Woman Board Member Will Speak Vows Today

DEARBORN (UPI) — Marilyn Jean Kelly, vice president and the only woman member of the state board of education, will be married here today to the man who just a year ago tried and failed to become her party leader.

Miss Kelly, 29, will marry Richard K. Stout, a 51-year-old dairyman from Grand Rapids, in a candlelight ceremony at the Martha-Mary Chapel in Greenfield Village. A reception for about 30 guests will be held at the Dearborn Inn.

Stout, who was divorced last year, has two college-age sons. Miss Kelly lives in Ann Arbor. A Democrat, she was first elected to the state board in 1964 and was elected its vice president last year.

She has taught at Albion College and is an assistant professor of French at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti.

Stout tried last year to become chairman of the Michigan Democratic party, but was swamped at the party's convention in February by Zolton Ferency. He did not run for the post last month after Ferency resigned.

A graduate of Albion College, Stout once ran the family dairy farm near Marshall and was chairman of the Calhoun County Democratic Committee from 1960-64. Gov. John Swainson named him to the State Agriculture Commission in 1961, from which he resigned to run for party chairman.

COOPERATIVE

He formed the Jersey Cooperative of Michigan, Inc., and now serves as its president.

Miss Kelly, a native of Detroit, was graduated from Eastern Michigan and has a master's degree from Middlebury College in Middlebury, Vt. She also studied at the Sorbonne of the University of Paris and is now taking law courses at Wayne State University.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Kelly of Detroit; he is the son of Mrs. Clara Stout of Mecosta.

Reception Follows Vows

A reception at Maurice's followed vows recently in St. Michael's Catholic Church for Bea Ann Dillard and James Oscar Hardin.

For the ceremony, the daughter of the Arthur Birchmeirs of Marquette Street wore a beige day length ensemble styled with Chantilly lace over satin.

A matching satin bow capped her short illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of pink tipped carnations with a center of red Sweetheart roses.

Honor attendants for the couple were Mrs. Michael Pieterzak and James Baldwin with Marie and Robert Birchmeir assisting in their sister's wedding as bridesmaid and usher. David Cole also ushered.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hardin of West Memphis, Ark., and his bride will make their home in Lake Orion.

A Lot of Beans!

It takes about 2,000 handpicked coffee beans to provide enough for one pound of roasted coffee. This is slightly more than the annual crop of one average coffee tree.

NOTICE!

A "no" vote on Jan. 15th is recommended by this committee to avoid having two cities. If the Avon Township area is to be incorporated, let us join an established community. The City of Rochester is an accepted, desirable community with developed services. It is a known fact that existing services can be expanded with greater facility and more money saved. Completely new services would be more expensive to the taxpayer. By joining together into one city it will lead to a more beneficial tax base for everyone and rid us of the present governing officials of Avon Twp. and their unfair tax assessing policies. Avon Township needs Rochester and Rochester needs Avon Township.

Social Security—11

Young Also Benefit

By BRUCE BIOSSAT
NEA Publications

WASHINGTON — Social Security stands in most American minds as an "old people's program," but in fact it has important meaning for young workers, for some young students, and for large numbers of children.

It IS designed basically to protect aging Americans against the risk of income loss that can go with age. And about 17 million of the 19 million aged 65 or older do draw benefits under Social Security. In addition, all 19 million are automatically safeguarded by the program's hospital insurance under Medicare.

But, as we have seen earlier in this series, some two million orphans — survivors of deceased workers who would have been qualified for retirement benefits under Social Security—get benefits today.

A breakdown indicates that, under the revised 1967 law, some 425,000 students aged 18 through 21 are qualified as survivors to get the higher cash benefits the revisions prescribe.

In the care of their widowed mothers, qualified under the program, hundreds of thousands of unmarried youngsters under 18 and disabled children who suffered disability before 18 get benefits — assuming their deceased fathers would have qualified for retirement payments under Social Security.

ASSIST TO STUDENTS

The payment to the students of late high school and early college age is obviously an assist to them in meeting steadily rising education expenses.

Children of disabled workers who qualify as do "survivor" children also get benefits. Again, this includes students up to 22.

In the disability field, young disabled workers also get a good break — a bit better under the new law than before.

Workers disabled before age 31, who presumably have barely begun their working careers, can qualify for benefits with less work under Social Security than the older disabled. The minimum, in fact, is set at 1 and one-half years of work. They get payments equivalent to those they would have if retiring fully qualified at age 65.

DIFFERENT STORY

With healthy young workers just entering the Social Security system and facing long decades of paying ever-rising Social Security payroll taxes, the story is somewhat different.

Argument is often made that the young worker does not get his money's worth.

Social Security actuaries respond, however, by saying that young workers paying at maximum contribution rates over a working lifetime generally will get protection worth 15 to 20 per cent more than their contributions.

30 PCT. ABOVE

As a matter of fact, because today's young workers will be helped by steadily rising wage rates and thus will attain higher earnings levels, their ultimate cash benefit prospect under Social Security is a peak 30 per cent above pre-1967 law — as against the average benefit increase of 13 per cent Congress provided.

Arguing the case another way, Social Security experts say the 1967 revisions give the "maximum earner" among young workers some $13,980 in additional protection — lifting his total in prospect from the old $49,140 to a new $62,120.

One last point the Social Security authorities make: It cannot be fairly assumed that there will not be further liberalizations of the program whose benefit may fall heavily to the younger workers who, right now, see only their mounting tax burdens.

Safety Bureau Hit for Ignoring Brakes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Highway Safety Bureau was criticized Friday by Rep. Joseph E. Karth, D-Minn., for what he said was inexcusable indifference concerning automotive brake safety.

Karth's criticism was in a letter to William Haddon, director of the bureau, and came after what Karth said was a 2½-month lag on the part of the agency to act upon his suggestions concerning brake improvements.

The congressman wants a study made of a dual diagonal brake system which he says has been used successfully for years by European car makers.

PNH Trims Skippers; PCH Defeats Flint Northern, 72-65

Waterford Five No Match for I-L League Leaders

BY JERE CRAIG

Pontiac Northern's Huskies parlayed superior shooting and rebounding into a ragged 86-54 conquest of Waterford Township Friday night before an estimated 1500 fans.

Holding the visiting Skippers without a field goal for nearly the first seven minutes, PNH jumped into a quick lead that continued to mushroom for three periods.

The Inter-Lakes League triumph was Northern's third without a loss. Farmington took over second place with a 2-1 mark by trimming Livonia Stevenson, 68-51 in the other loop tilt.

The Huskies — just as their football counterparts did — snapped back at WTHS expense. However, cage coach Dick Hall hopes the PNH squad won't now deteriorate as the gridders did.

The Huskies' last basketball outing was two weeks ago and they lost a tough two-overtime decision at Pontiac Central. They were understandably eager but ragged against WTHS.

NO PENETRATION

Waterford's Skippers failed to penetrate the PNH defense, forcing up long shots and not getting many second chances in the early going.

With sophomore Chuck Moncrief rebounding and scoring well, and seniors Bob Traylor and Keith Deaton also hitting regularly the Huskies moved to a 15-point lead, 21-6, in the opening period, and upped the margin to 20 at the half, 43-23.

The Skippers, now losers of four in a row, put in a quick basket to begin the second half but PNH hit nine points in a row and 12 of the first 14 for a 55-25 margin.

The Skippers did surpass their entire first half field goal total (four) with five in the third session.

HOLD LEAD

Northern, meanwhile, had 18 of 38 by the intermission, and finished with 37 of 79 and 60 rebounds. WTHS posted a 16 of 60 tempo and garnered 44 retrieves.

In addition, one of the Skippers sank an easy layup in the Huskies' basket for a gift of two points the winners didn't really need.

Only two players managed more than one bucket for the losers, and both entered the game as substitutes. Northern (4-2) had eight players with at least two baskets.

At Farmington, the host Falcons pulled away in the second half after tightening their defense following a 35 first half duel.

Mark Lynott tallied 18 points to lead the winners, and stopped the Spartans' Jim Olsen with three points after a 14-point opening half.

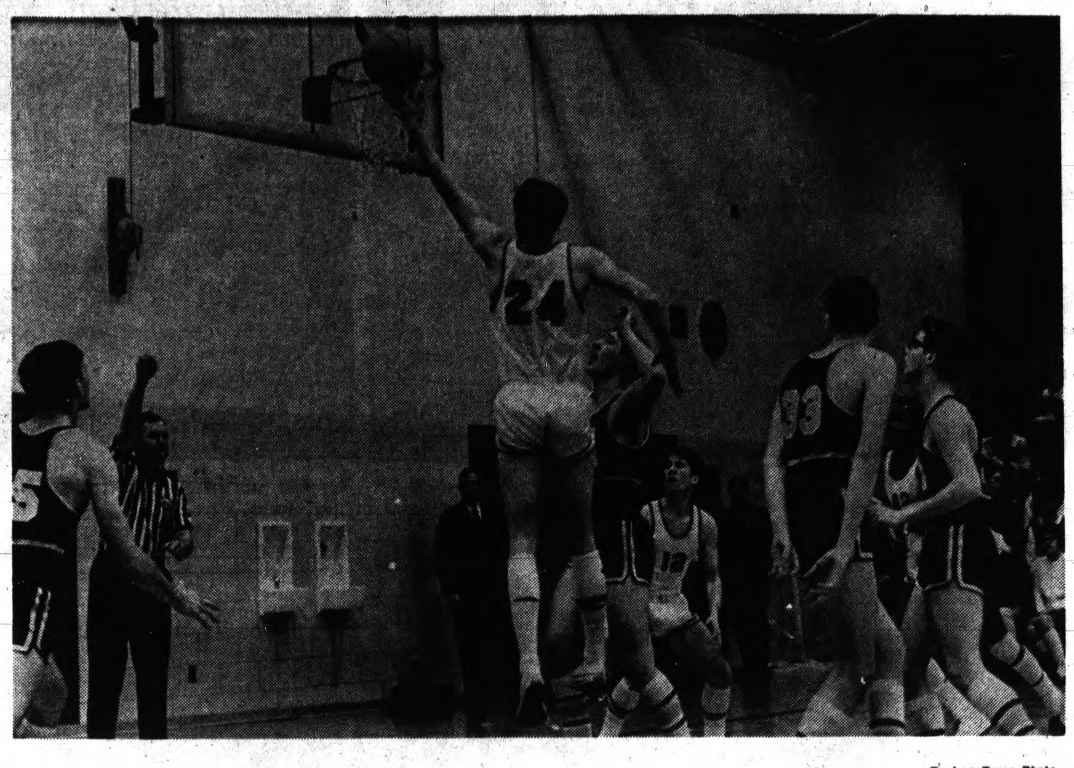
SKIPPER SHOOTS — Waterford didn't take too many good shots in close to the basket last night — particularly in the first half — but the Skippers' Bill Foley manages a clear attempt here despite the harrassment of Northern's Chuck Moncrief (42). The shot missed.



Pontiac Press Photo

NO BASKET, BUT A POINT — Pontiac Northern center Don Hayward (24) goes up for an apparently easy two-pointer but the shot was nullified by a foul committed before the attempt by Waterford's John Spanburg (33). Hayward made the charity toss in the Huskies' 21-point first quarter splurge. WTHS' Bill Foley (35) cuts in front of referee Ken Parady of Utica who is calling the foul. Others in on the play are Bruce Carlson (next to Hayward) and Bob Finkle of Waterford, and PNH's Rob Clancy (12) and Chuck Moncrief.

Pontiac Central's Chiefs made a modest gain last night on the Saginaw Valley Conference ladder, a night that saw one of the league's big guns fizzle.

The Chiefs of PCH, who seem to have shaken that losing rut they found a few weeks back, came on with a strong performance at Flint Northern and made away with a 72-65 decision.

The evening turned out to be a bad one for Flint quintets in SVC competition.

Flint Central's Indians, the preseason favorite to take the championship, were upset by Saginaw Arthur Hill, 70-66, while league-leading Midland bombed Southwestern, 88-69.

The other SVC outing found Saginaw moving ahead of Flint Central in the standings with a 68-33 decision over Bay City Handy.

Pontiac Central's Frank Russell, one of the top long-distance gunners in the area, hit on 14 of 24 shots and added five free throws for a total of 33 points, his finest performance of the season.

FINDS RANGE EARLY

The slender six-foot Russell hit on seven of nine shots in the first period and wound up with 15 of the Chiefs' 18 points in that frame.

PCH and the Flint squad wound up in a 36-all tie at intermission and the Chiefs opened it up in the third and early in the fourth.

With three minutes left in the game, the Chiefs had fashioned a 66-51 lead and coach Fred Zittel emptied his bench.

After that 18-standoff in the first period, Northern bolted to a 33-24 advantage early in the second frame, but PCH came back with a 12-3 edge late in the period to tie it at halftime.

Part of Northern's problem was tied to the exit of Bill Woods, who sat out much of the third period with four fouls.

Seaholm No Match for SEMA Leader

Southfield rolled along in front of the Southeastern Michigan Association basketball race by keeping Birmingham Seaholm in the cellar, 78-56, last night.

Royal Oak Kimball broke its second place deadlock with Hazel Park, sending the Vikings into a tie for third, 72-51, with Ferndale, a 60-40 winner over Berkley.

Seaholm's young lineup played Southfield even for most of the first half before falling behind, 34-24, at the intermission.

The Blue Jays came out shooting in the second half, were on target, and quickly opened a 30-point spread in the third quarter. They forced the Maples into numerous turnovers in the last half.

Dave Kontry led Southfield with 23 points. Eleven Blue Jays broke into the scoring column. Jim Hagen topped Seaholm, now 0-4 in league play, with 14 points.

PULLED AWAY

Kimball pulled away from Hazel Park in the fourth quarter to take over sole possession of second with a 3-1 record. Fred Shellnut tossed in 18 points and Les Little 17 for the winners.

Kimball piled up a 56-37 edge in rebounding. Jim Merchel of Hazel Park took game honors with 25 parks.

Ferndale (2-2) dominated the backboards and the game against Berkley (1-3). The Eaglets flew into a 22-13 first period lead and continued to pull away.

Larry Wells and Tyrone Lewis each scored 14 for Ferndale.

Local Golden Gloves Has 12 Bouts Listed Tonight at Central

The local Golden Gloves eliminations under the sponsorship of the Pontiac Police Association will begin at 8:00 p.m. tonight at Pontiac Central High School.

A program of 12 bouts have been scheduled with 11 boxers representing the Pontiac training gym located on Dixie Highway.

Winners tonight will be eligible to compete in the regional tournament next weekend at Flint and then qualify for the state championship in Grand Rapids two weeks hence.

Other boxers from Davison, Grand Blanc, Kalamazoo and Detroit are competing against the local entries tonight.

Named Top Colonel

TRENTON, N. J. (UPI) — Nick Werkman, who led the nation in scoring in 1962-63 while playing basketball at Seton Hall University, has been named player-coach of the Trenton Colonels of the Eastern Professional Basketball League.

DRIVING FOR TWO-POINTER — Guard Keith Deaton (40) of Northern successfully avoids the defensive maneuver of Waterford's Mike Sheldon for a first-half layup en route to a 16-point evening Friday at PNH. The Huskies rolled to an 86-54 conquest by making 37 field goals to only 16 for the Skippers.

Megge Hits 24 to Lead Eaglets in 61-38 Victory

Senior Tim Megge played his 50th straight varsity game, scored 24 points and led Orchard Lake St. Mary to an 8-0 league mark last night as the Eaglets whipped Ferndale St. James, 61-38.

After a comedy of errors in the first quarter which ended 6-6, Orchard Lake poured through 28 points in the second stanza to hold a 34-13 halftime lead.

Megge, who was tied this week with Jim Merchel of Hazel Park for the county point lead with a 24 per game average, has hit 741 points in his 50-game career.

OLSM posted a 32 per cent shooting mark with 23 of 70 while the Dales hit only 13 of 55 for 25 per cent.

WOLL Wisks as Titans Lose

The Titans of Pontiac Catholic wilted under a blistering early attack by Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows last night in dropping an 83-76 verdict in Northwest Parochial League play.

In another game, Waterford Our Lady of Lakes held on for a 47-45 triumph over Detroit St. Rita.

Action in those two games left the Titans, FOLS, and WOLL with 4-4 league marks and a share of third place behind Orchard Lake St. Mary and St. Francis de Sales. St. Rita is 2-6.

The Lancers of Farmington OLS flipped in 32 points in the first quarter in gaining an edge the Titans couldn't overcome. The winners held a 49-35 lead at intermission.

Bob Theisen paced the early attack, gaining 10 of his 16 points in the first frame. Sophomore Mike Hart topped the FOLS scorers with 22, a figure matched by the Titans' Sam Brady. Butch Finnegan checked in with 18 to help Brady with the scoring.

TAKES EARLY LEAD

St. Rita jumped off to a 12-2 lead, but WOLL battled back to trail after one quarter, 14-11 and then used a hot second quarter to gain a 29-23 lead at intermission.

Dots Dump Dondero

A fast start plus some steady shooting carried Wyandotte to a 74-63 victory over Royal Oak Dondero last night.

The loss was the seventh in a row for the Oaks, who fell behind 25-10 in the first quarter and couldn't catch up.

Orion Downs Utica, 44-42; Rallies Help Troy, Romeo

By FLETCHER SPEARS

The underdogs had the three coleaders on the ropes but couldn't deliver the knockout punch last night in Oakland A League basketball action.

Lake Orion, Troy and Romeo, who share the top spot with 5-1 records, had to come from behind in the second half to stave off defeat.

Utica scared Orion before bowing, 44-42, Clawson led at halftime but fell before Troy in the second half, 42-34, while Romeo started slow and turned on the power in the last two frames in taming Madison, 65-54.

In the other game, Rochester romped past Avondale, 76-57.

Utica's slowdown tactics kept Orion's Dragons off balance and the Chieftains looked like a winner as they took a 42-39 lead into the 1:30 of the game.

But the Dragons battled back and took the lead for good on a bucket in close by Bill Foss with 36 seconds left. That gave the Dragons a 43-42 lead, and Foss, fouled as he made the two-pointer, stepped to the line and canned a free throw for the final point.

SLOW GAME

The game was slow and relatively free of fouls — only 16 were called, eight a side — and it matched Utica's outside shooting against the close-in firing of Foss, John Mize and Tim Daigle.

Foss (6-5) finished with 19 points to spark the attack, while Mizze (6-7) added seven, and the tall twosome teamed to give the Dragons a 31-25 edge in rebounding.

Donn Somers paced the Chieftains (3-3) with 20 markers.

Rochester evened its record at 3-3 to move into a tie for fourth along with Utica and Madison. For Avondale, the loss was the sixth straight in league play.

BALANCED SCORING

Getting balanced scoring from Mike Scalley (23), Gary Sovey (17) and Mike Phillips (14), Rochester jumped off to a 42-36 lead at halftime and gained more daylight with a 21-13 advantage in the third stanza.

Leading Avondale were Bob Burt (15), Randy Polasek (15) and Duane McLaughlin (11).

Romeo was on the short end of a 31-26 score at halftime but came on strong by outscoring Madison in the second half, 39-23.

Guard Mark Cushingberry led the Romeo offensive parade with 26 points, while Donnell Craft added 18. Madison ace Tim Blach was held to only one field goal, but he collected 14 of 16 shots at the free throw line to finish with 16 points.

Clawson held the upper hand at halftime, 20-18, but Troy took control in the second half and posted a 24-14 scoring edge.

Cool 2nd Half Dooms Hawks

Flint Hamady Trims Ortonville, 72-51

Ortonville Brandon's Black Hawks looked sharp for a half, but they ran into a cold streak in the third stanza and wound up on the short end of a 72-51 score against a visiting Flint Hamady basketball squad last night.

The Hawks trailed by five at intermission, 36-31, but they managed only five markers in the third while Hamady was gathering 16 and they couldn't catch up.

Dil Taylor sparked the winners with 22 points.

Rick Wray tossed in 12 for the Black Hawks, Gary McDowell picked up 11 and Ed Westerby added 10. The loss left Brandon with a 2-6 record.

Michigan Christian Betters Loop Mark

Michigan Christian improved its league record to 3-2 by handing Detroit Bible College a 98-91 setback with Garth Pleasant accounting for 36 points.

Teammate Bill Leak added 29 and Jerry McKinnie had 22 as Christian held a 19 point lead at one time.

Lancers Improve, but Not Enough Against Roeper

Emmanuel Christian turned in its best defensive and offensive efforts of the season last night, but the winless Lancers still dropped their seventh game.

Roeper, led by Gregg Carter's 30 points, downed Emmanuel, 68-47. It was Roeper's second win, both over the Lancers, against seven setbacks.

Emmanuel started the game with six players on the varsity and finished the final minute with two. The Lancers played the final five minutes with four or less as persnnal fouls took a heavy toll.

West Bloomfield Victim of Hot-Shooting Quintet

The deadlock has ended in the Wayne-Oakland League basketball race.

Sitting atop the heap today are the Mustangs of Northville, who set a redhot scoring pace last night in galloping past West Bloomfield's Lakers, 60-48.

The triumph left Northville alone at the top with a 6-0 record, while the Lakers fell a game off the pace at 5-1.

In other games, Bloomfield Hills Andover downed a taller Brighton squad, 53-42, Milford surprised Clarkston, 69-67, to end a six-game losing streak, and Holly lost to Clarenceville, 66-59.

West Bloomfield shot well, making 20 of 53 shots for a 38 per cent pace, but it was no match for Northville.

The Mustangs took only 31 shots but made 20 of them for a blistering 65 per cent pace, and that shooting, coupled with a strong performance on the backboards, was too much for the Lakers.

TOP SCORER

Jim Peterson tallied 13 points for the Mustangs, but more importantly, he hauled down 18 of Northville's 33 rebounds.

Leading the Northville attack was Joe Andrews with 19 markers. Steve Westjohn sparked the Lakers with 14 points.

Milford is a different ball club now and making the difference is forward Mark Giegler, who has just returned after recovering from a leg injury.

With Giegler sparking the scoring attack, the Redskins took a 30-29 lead at halftime, and after falling behind in the third stanza, they came on in the fourth frame to take the squeaker.

Clarkston had plenty of chances in the final minute of play but the ball refused to go through the hoop. In all, the Wolves missed seven shots in the final minute.

GOOD BALANCE

Giegler topped all scorers with 30 points. Leading Clarkston was Mark Erickson (25).

Although they gave away about two inches per man, the Baorns of Bloomfield Hills Andover outscrapped Brighton on the backboards to gain a 32-24 rebounding edge and they kept the usually high-scoring Bulldogs' offense bottled up.

Andover held a 28-25 lead at intermission and posted a 25-17 advantage in the second half.

Steve Jones sparked the offense for Andover with 14 points and Fred Miller contributed 12.

Holly's defense was hampered by personal fouls, and the offense couldn't get the ball in the basket consistently.

The Broncos managed an 18-17 margin from the field, but they took 22 more shots than the visitors who won the game with a 32-of-51 performance from the charity stripe.

Four Holly starters fouled out. In all 58 personals were cited by the officials. Dave Brandemihl scored 11 of his 24 points in the third quarter when Trojans pulled safely ahead.

Groves Takes Second Loss

Birmingham Groves, unacustomed to losing the past two seasons, took it on the chin for the second time this year as Oak Park eked out a 45-44 triumph last night in Northwest Suburban League play.

In another league encounter North Farmington whipped Livonia Franklin 76-63 in a foul ridden game.

Groves had a chance to tie the count in the final 20 seconds after Layne Brown made the first of two bonus free throws.

He missed the second as Oak Park took the key rebound and Groves found itself a loser with a 6-2 overall record.

Neither team had any accuracy from the floor as Groves shot 29 per cent and Oak Park 28 per cent. The winners had the rebound advantage, 36-31.

Franklin lost four players on fouls and had another with four fouls, and as a result N. Farmington showed the advantage at the free throw line with 28 of 46.

Ron Fluter, top scorer for N. Farmington did not see action due to a sprained ankle, however Mike McCoy carried the victory with 28 points, as Ray Pfford hit 17 aided by 15 by Rick Knock and 14 by John Mann.

Imlay Romps in Second Half for Loop Win

A 49-point explosion in the second half carried Imlay City to a 76-58 victory over Harbor Beach last night in a South Central Contest.

In another league outing, Deckerville also staged a hot second half to subdue Millington, 76-68.

Jim Simons and Terry Schoenberg tossed in 18 points apiece to spark the Imlay City (5-4) attack. John White and Russ Brown netted 16 each for Harbor Beach. (1-7).

Trailing 31-30 at halftime, Deckerville outscored Millington 46-37 in the second half to gain the upper hand.

Leading the winners were Brice Tanton (17), Terry McGregor (17) and Jim Tanton (11). Larry Hourtienne tossed in 19 for the losers.

S. Lyon Falters to Zone Press

A 32 point effort by Doug Heath led Milan to an 80-61 league victory over South Lyon last night.

With Scott Bennett collecting 23 points, South Lyon stayed close after a 34-30 halftime deficit, but a tight zone press by Milan broke the game open early in the 4th stanza. Bruce Taylor had 11 and Ed Canfield 10 for the losers.

KEEP OFF GRASS, WET PAINT! — Workmen spray sideline boundary with a special solution at the Orange Bowl in preparation for Sunday's professional football Super Bowl at Miami. The Green Bay Packers of the National Football League and the American Football League's Oakland Raiders will clash at 3 p.m. for the world's championship and a rich payoff.

Super Bowl Teams 'Ready'

Record Gate for Pro Tilt

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — With a record gross of more than $3 million already assured, professional football's second annual Super Bowl has started its kickoff countdown.

"I think we're ready to play," said Green Bay coach Vince Lombardi, whose National Football League champion Packers remain two touchdown favorites over American League champion Oakland.

Raider coach John Rauch said his club is also set.

"We feel we've covered all the situations that need to be covered," said Rauch. "We'll be ready for the game."

POSSIBLE RAIN

Miami's Weather Bureau may not be. A forecast Friday night called for scattered rainfall Sunday with skies clearing about noon and temperatures dropping to between 65 and 70.

Kickoff is at 3 p.m.

"Weather," said Lombardi, whose Packers won the NFL title in 13 below zero temperature at Green Bay, Wis., two weeks ago, "is in the mind."

So is money and that's a major part of what the Super Bowl is all about.

With a sellout of more than 75,000 assured for the Orange Bowl and tickets scaled at $6, $8 and $12, the gate gross is expected to be $796,822. Add to that the $2.5 million paid by the Columbia Broadcasting System for network radio-television rights and the game income goes over the $3 million plateau.

OU Cagers Bounced to 7th Loss, 108-91

Special to The Press

BIG RAPIDS — Oakland University's Pioneers came here today still looking for their first basketball victory.

Their hopes for success last night were dashed by Alma College, 108-91. It was the seventh setback for the Pioneers who take on Ferris State here tonight.

Alma, now 4-5, gave the visiting Pioneers a lesson in rebounding. The Scots pile up a 50-29 edge in this depatrment with Tony Vandermeer hauling down 15 and Chuck Hudson 13.

Meanwhile, Gordon Hettrick and Hudson were supplying the needed firepower. Hettrick scored 28 points and Hudson added 23.

Gordon Tebo led OU with 27. Jay Shutt netted 19 and Gary Lincoln 15.

The Pioneers managed to stay within striking range until the final seven minutes. Then Alma started fast-breaking and ran up a comfortable margin, aided by several OU turnovers.

Forced to shoot from the outside the entire contest by Alma's 1-3-1 zone defense, the Pioneers connected enough in the first half to trail only 50-43 at the half.

However, the Scots hit 52 per cent of their field goal tries in the last half.

Alma finished with a shooting mark of 42 for 100 for 42 per cent. OU was 35 of 87 for 40 per cent.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Left-handed Bill Allen of Orlando, Fla., was one game away from winning his 10th Professional Bowlers Association championship before today's nationally televised finals of the $55,000 Showboat Invitational.

The nine-time champion finished the 40-game qualifier Friday with a 9,188 total. As the leader, he will be seeded into the title game which is worth $10,000 to the winner.

Joining Allen in the final will be Jim St. John of San Jose, Calif., with 9,199; Don Helling of St. Louis, Mo., 9,118; Dave Davis of Phoenix, Ariz., 9,042, and Skee Foremsky of El Paso, Tex., 9,038.

Ex-Leafs Help Check Stanley Cup Champion

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Leo Boivin and Noel Price began their National Hockey League careers with Toronto more than a decade ago—years before anyone even thought of the Pittsburgh Penguins.

But the veteran defensemen, who came to Pittsburgh in the expansion draft, still know what the game's about.

Just ask the Maple Leafs.

Boivin and Price led a close checking Penguin defense which keyed a 4-3 upset over Toronto Friday night and made the Penguins the first expansion club to pin two losses on the reigning Stanley Cup Champions. It was the only game in the league.

Huskies Host Tonight in Quadrangular

Pontiac Northern's unbeaten wrestling team moved into the No. 1 spot in weekly rankings of Michigan high school teams.

The Huskies, defending state champions, were rated 4th since the start of the season with Ypsilanti holding the top spot until this week.

After suffering a defeat, Ypsi dropped into the 4th position and as a result of Northern's championship in the Oakland County meet the Huskies moved up.

But, the rankings will get tested tonight at Pontiac Northern when the Huskies host a quadranglar meet which includes Ypsilanti, Hazel Park and Pontiac Central.

EARLY PRELIMS

The four teams weighed in at 10:00 a.m. this morning and began preliminary competition at noon.

The finals of the quadrangular will begin at 7:00 p.m. tonight.

At 5:30 the reserve teams of the four schools will compete.

In the state rankings Birmingham Seaholm, unranked up to this point, moved into the 7th position with Royal Oak Dondero in the 10th spot.

These are the teams ranked in order this week:

1. Pontiac Northern
2. Lansing Eastern
3. Owosso
4. Ypsilanti
5. Detroit Thurston
6. Battle Creek Lakeview
7. Birmingham Seaholm
8. Grand Ledge

Pott Holds Golf Lead

Beats Spyglass Greens for 71 in Crosby Play

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — John Pott survived Spyglass Hill's brutal greens—as bumpy as any sand on Treasure Island—but another tough challenge bore down on him today in the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament—Billy Casper.

"I think I aged a couple of years out there," a smiling Pott said after turning in a 71 Friday for the midway lead of 141. "I'm happy about my score on this course."

TIED RECORD

He should be. It tied the competitive record for the 2-year-old layout.

Spyglass Hill, named for the peak in Robert Louis Stevenson's novel, has played the toughest of the three courses used in the four-day Crosby clambake. And three of Pott's closest rivals for the top spot—Bruce Devlin, Mike Fetchick and Frank Wharton—got their chance to do a little aging today.

Hot Shot Celtics Turn Back Pistons

DETROIT (AP)—It took four hot-shooting Boston Celtics to overcome Dave Bing Friday night.

Normally, when Bing is hot, the Detroit Pistons romp over National Basketball Association opponents.

Despite Bing's 33 points, the Celtics demolished the Pistons 148-126 Friday night with four players combining for 101 points in the contest at Boston.

In other NBA games, Philadelphia dumped Baltimore 133-116, St. Louis beat San Diego 111-89 and San Francisco upended New York 127-117.

Former Piston Bailey Howell sparked the Boston victory over Detroit with 28 points while Sam Jones added 26, Tom Sanders 25 and John Havlicek 22. The victory helped the Celtics stay within 2½ games of Philadelphia in the Eastern Division race. Detroit, which meets Philadelphia tonight in Detroit, remains 9½ games off the pace.

The Celtics jumped to a 40-33 first-period advantage as Sanders connected for 14 points and Jones added 12. By halftime, Boston led 77-64.

Detroit narrowed the margin to 102-95 after three quarters but were outscored 18-6 in the next five minutes as Boston regained full command.

Bing, the league's top scorer, went over the 30-point mark for the 31st time in 46 games. Jimmy Walker added 23 for Detroit.

Former Michigan State star Johnny Green, just acquired by Philadelphia, scored nine points in the last period to assure the 76ers of their victory over Baltimore. Green got a chance to play because two 76ers — Luke Jackson and Bill Cunningham each had five personal fouls. He hit six straight points to stretch Philadelphia's lead to 107-94 late in the game and the 76ers were never headed.

PCH Tankers Break Ice; PNH Dunked

Pontiac Central broke the ice in its own pool last night but Northern came up cold at Birmingham Groves.

The PCH tankmen thumped Flint Northern, 67-38, for their first win of the season. John Mason set a pool record in the 100-yard freestyle with a 52.2 seconds timing and also won the 50 freestyle to pace the victory.

Groves limited PNH (5-3) to four first place finishes in outdistancing the Huskies, 61-44. The Falcons are now 3-3.

Opening lead—♠ 2

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

If we were going into the business of promulgating bridge riddles, we might start with "When is a finesse not a finesse?"

JACOBY

The answer is "When you don't care whether it wins or loses."

North showed considerable moderation when he bid only three hearts after South had rebid his heart suit. It was just as well that he did, because with all the spades bunched in back of the king there was no play for game.

East won the spade lead with the ten and returned the four of diamonds. South's jack forced West's ace and West led a diamond right back. South was in with the queen and took stock.

Obviously the deuce of spades opening had been a singleton, so there was no way to avoid the loss of two more spade tricks. He had already lost two tricks and his whole problem was to keep from losing a trump trick also.

South studied further and saw that after all there was a way, provided West held either two or three hearts. He took his king of diamonds and dscarded a club from dummy. Then he led a club to the ace and ruffed the last club.

His next play was the ace of hearts. The jack of hearts came next and when West played low, South finessed. The finesse worked and South had his contract.

"How did you work out that finesse?" asked West. "Don't you play for the drop with nine?"

"Not when I am not really finessing," replied South. "I didn't care an iota where the queen of hearts was. If East had it he would win the trick with it. Then it would be up to him to lead something.

A spade lead would set up dummy's king. A club or diamond lead would allow me to discard a losing spade and ruff in dummy. I was just making a safety play to insure my contract."

Pass	3 ♥	Pass	?

You, South, hold:

What do you do now?

A—Bid three no-trump. You don't want to raise either hearts or spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You bid three no-trump. Your partner continues to four hearts. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Sunday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): You could be bogged down with much detail. Not wise to skip essentials. Be slow and thorough. Those who urge otherwise may not be fully informed. Respond accordingly.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Come out of shell. Welcome opportunity to visit, to receive visitors. Day features communication of thoughts, wishes. Member of opposite sex lends spice to activities.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Take realistic view of possessions. May be necessary to temporarily pull in financial reins. Check budget. Heed advice offered by individual with experience.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Cycle moves up. But you should be prepared for special request from mate or partner. This is connected with residence, office or furniture. Involves extra cost.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Do not rush into projects. Take overall view. Perceive long-range effects of actions. Some of your fond hopes can be fulfilled. Depends upon effort of one close to you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Past actions are brought to forefront of attention. What was planned pays off to degree of worthiness. You find out what is worth keeping, what must be discarded.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Utilize diplomatic approach. Don't attempt to force issues. One who is at a distance attempts to communicate. Keep lines open. Be available—and enthusiastic.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Some around you may appear intense. If tempers flare, remember it is but a temporary state. Means don't compound error. Question of who owns what can be settled.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Roadblocks may be thrown in your path. Chalk this up to combination of challenge and envy. Nothing is handed to you on a silver platter. Be ready to put shoulder to wheel.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Pay heed to intuitive feelings about health, work, relatives and associates. Keep mind open to suggestions, ideas. Day features change, travel, variety. You learn, get chance to accomplish.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): Strive for adjustment to changing conditions within family. Young person asserts himself. First reaction could be one of indignation. Be mature and patient.

IF TOMORROW IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are dynamic, attractive to opposite sex and due for intensified social activity. You meet people, go places during upcoming year.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for CANCER, LEO. Special word to ARIES: you may feel restricted but if determined, you break through tangle of red tape.

For Monday

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): Don't be careless where long-range goals are concerned. Home, property and profession are spotlighted today. Neutralize opposition by being flexible, versatile.

TAURUUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Full moon emphasizes section of chart related to short journeys, ideas, relatives. You make decisions which may appear contradictory. Means you learn to teach.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Stress on what you have, what you contribute. Measure of your worth comes before day is finished. Live up to best in yourself. Money transaction due to be completed.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Full moon in your sign emphasizes direct approach. Don't skirt issues. Face them. Place cards on table. If others know what you desire, chances for fulfillment are enhanced.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Spotlight on what was hidden, undercover or secret. You find out where you stand. Encourage activity in conjunction with clubs, groups, organizations. Spread your wings.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Your outlook is due to change. There is challenge of opposition which causes an almost abrupt turnabout. Be ready for the new. Stress independence and originality.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): You may be faced with dilemmas connected with home and business duties. Rise above petty jealousy. Do what you know is right, not what is expedient.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Accent on travel, breaking through, changing the way you previously did things. General restlessness prevails. You seek added knowledge. Insist on obtaining answers.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Mate or partner puts forth problem which can be solved. Depends on your willingness to face issues. Frank discussion is called for, not fruitless argument.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): If you depend too much on others, there is likely to be disappointment. Means study situations from personal angle. Don't accept secondhand reports as gospel. Be analytical.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Guard health. Don't go to extremes. Today there is temptation to do too much, too quickly. Pace yourself. Don't buy beyond your means. Permit yourself mental relaxation.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): Avoid extravagance. Obtain hint from AQUARIUS message. Day features problem which is solved through creative approach. See lessons, situations in practical light. Build on solid base.

IF MONDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you desire the peace that comes through self-expression. You are never happy merely following, imitating. You need to create—and you have much artistic or literary ability. You can prepare now for project which will help you toward greater self-fulfillment.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for CANCER, LEO, VIRGO. Special word to TAURUS: garbled message could cause confusion. Be on guard.

Christian Unity Series to Start

In observing the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity beginning Thursday and continuing through Jan. 25, Holy Name Catholic Church in Birmingham is planning a series of eight ecumenical programs.

Lectures, movies, guest choirs and shared services will be features at evening meetings.

Speakers include a Presbyterian minister, three Catholic priests, a Jewish rabbi, a Greek Orthodox priest and a missionary worker active in Detroit's industrial area.

Members of all area churches are invited.

Programs are scheduled for 8 p.m. in the gymnasium of Holy Name Catholic School, 680 Harmon, Birmingham, except the Sunday concert which will be held in the church.

Light refreshments will be served following each program.

OPENS THURSDAY

On opening night of the series Dr. John Forsythe, an ordained minister of the Presbyterian Church and director of missionary activity for Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches, will discuss the late Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Lutheran theologian, and his influence on contemporary thought.

Dr. Forsythe studied with Bonhoeffer in the late 1930s.

The program for Friday will feature the Rev. George Hagmaier CSP currently with the Institute of Religious Research, New York City.

Active in many fields, Father Hagmaier, former professor at Catholic University and writer, will discuss "The Growing Child and Sex."

The Rev. Thomas Heath OP, author of "In Face of Anguish" and professor of moral theology at the Dominican House of Studies, will appear on Saturday.

"What Contemporary Literature Says to the Believer" will be his topic.

CONCERT SUNDAY

The 60-voice choir and organist of First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham will present a sacred concert in Holy Name Catholic Church Sunday.

Rabbi Leon Fromm and Cantor Harold Orbach of Temple Israel, Detroit will conduct the program Monday evening. It will consist of a musical presentation and Rabbi Fromm's talk on "Contemporary Judaism and Social Consciousness."

"Dimensions of Contemporary Atheism" will be discussed by the Rev. Paul Desch OFM, professor of philosophy at Dun Scotus College, Southfield, Tuesday.

On Wednesday evening Dr. Jessie Crissman of the Detroit Industrial Mission will speak on "Behavior, Science and the Gospel." The mission is composed of ministers and priests who work in the industrial areas of Detroit.

The series will conclude Thursday with the Rev. Demetrious Kavadas, pastor of Assumption Greek Orthodox Church, Detroit, speaking on "What the Greek and Roman Churches Have in Common."

The Assumption Choir will also present a musical program.

The Rev. Charles Grenville, assistant pastor at Holy Name Church, and William Jacobs, Holy Name religion director, are cochairmen of the program.

Minister's Fellowship in Dialogue

"Week of Prayer for Christian Unity" will be the theme of the observance in the Drayton Plains Community Church, Waterford Township at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. The service is sponsored by the Waterford Township Ministerial Fellowship.

Participating clergymen include the Rev. Frederick J. Delaney, pastor of Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church, who will preach the sermon, and the Rev. Wayne Peterson of Christ Lutheran Church who will offer the intercessory prayer.

The Rev. Walter Teeuwissen, pastor of the host church, will offer the invocation and pronounce the benediction.

Reading the Scripture lesson will be Dr. Milton H. Bank of Central Methodist Church. The Rev. Edward Lowry of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will read the litany.

SHOW FILM

Immediately following the service, the film strip entitled "Foundations for Dialogue" will be shown.

The film consists of a brief summary of six different traditions — Luthern, Episcopal Roman Catholic, Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian.

A period of discussion will follow with the program ending at 9:45 p.m.

The public is invited to participate in the evening dialogue.

In charge of arrangements are the Rev. Lawrence Kaiser, Rev. Donald Remillard, Rev. Crea Clark and the Rev. Mr. Peterson.

At 3:30 p.m. new officers of the church will be installed by the Rev. George Moore

Associate Pastor Going to St. Agatha

The Rev. David A. Britz, associate pastor of St. Michael Catholic Church, has been transferred to St. Agatha Church in Detroit.

His new assignment will take effect Wednesday.

The congregation of St. Michael Church will honor Father Britz with a farewell reception at 7:30 Sunday evening. The public is invited.

Father Britz received his education at Sacred Heart College, Detroit and St. John's Seminary in Plymouth. His present position was his first assignment.

Besides regular parish duties Father Britz directed the Mom and Dad Club and youth activities.

He was especially interested in front room dialog sessions with teen-agers.

UNITARIAN CHURCH DRAWING — The building committee of Unitarian Church offers the architect's drawing of the new building in which the sanctuary will be housed. Situated on a sloping terrain the lower level containing six new class rooms will be constructed first. The roof when completed, will not be replaced when the second or upper level is finished but will serve as the floor. Present units were designed by Yamasaki. The new building was designed by Stephen Page. Kroll & Reese of Southfield are the architects. The Rev. Robert Marshall is pastor. Stanley Stefancic is associate minister.

Members to Build New Lower Level

The 10-year-old dream of Birmingham Unitarian Church members is nearing reality today.

It was in September 1958 that members wielded spades and shovels at their L-shaped property at oLne Pine and Woodward, Bloomfield Hills for a ground breaking ceremony of the first units of a building program.

Built on a campus plan, the church includes a social hall and three religious education buildings which, with the new sanctuary, will house 11 classrooms.

The new building originally planned by Yamasaki, will have two levels. The lower level will provide classrooms, a Church School worship area and Fellowship Hall.

The congreagation plans to construct the lower level at the present time.

When completed the new sanctuary on the second level will seat some 350 persons, plus a choir loft for nearly 40.

The book store and circulation space in a glassed in foyer will open into the social hall.

Designer of the new sanctuary building is Stephen Page.

A sleigh ride or hay ride if there is no snow is on the agenda for adults and older teenagers Friday night at Upland Hills Farm, 481 Lake George, Oxford.

Sledding, skating and tobagganing are also available if anyone is so inclined. This also includes a spaghetti supper.

This is a repeat of last year's good time for members and friends of the Unitarian Church. Mrs. William Peterson is taking reservations.

Everyone is to be at the farm at 8 p.m. The evening will close at midnight, Mrs. Peterson said.

An open house for high school students at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Stefancic, 1027 Forest, Birmingham is scheduled from 3:30 to 5:30 Thursday.

Sessions will continue every other Thursday beginning Jan. 18. Everyone will take part in discussions.

Supper Slated

A parish supper will precede the annual meeting Friday at Christ Church Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills. The supper is scheduled for 7 p.m. Vestrymen will be elected.

YFC Rally Slated at Lincoln Jr. High

The regular monthly rally of Oakland Youth for Christ is scheduled for 7:30 tonight at Lincoln Junior High School with the Rev. Billy Walker, well-known evangelist, the speaker.

The Youth for Christ Chorus directed by William Ballard and Youth for Christ Trumpet Trio will present special music.

Norman Clothier, director, announces a good club time is also planned.

New Officers to Be Installed

Newly elected and appointed officers of Macedonia Baptist Church, 512 Pearsall will be installed at the 3:30 p.m. service tomorrow.

The Rev. Willie Wilson, pastor of Oakland Avenue Baptist Church in Detroit, will bring the installation message. Members of his congregation will be guests of Macedonia Church. The Rev. L. R. Miner is pastor.

Medieval Bell Foundry Found

YORK, England (AP) — A medieval bell foundry has been unearthed under the central tower of York Minster during engineering work being carried out to strengthen the building.

The foundry was built in the 13th Century to cast the bells for the belfry of John le Romanus, which was on the site of the present 15th-Century tower.

Christian Soldiers, Sunnyvale Theme

The second annual Loyal Legion Banquet of Sunnyvale Chapel will be held at 6:30 tonight in the multipurpose room of the church. Decorations for the catered dinner in red, white and blue will depict Civil War times. The theme is "Christian Soldiers."

The church staff will present a comedy skit and a string ensemble will provide music.

A color film entitled "Red Runs the River," produced by the Bob Jones University, will be shown.

There are 146 persons attending the banquet who didn't miss more than one Wednesday evening service a month for at least nine months. Forty-seven of these were present for 12 months. Sixty-four are children and young people.

Mrs. V. L. Martin, the pastor's wife said everyone is welcome to attend the midweek services at Sunnyvale Chapel.

Three classes are now being offered including "False Cults" taught by the pastor; "Teaching Techniques" by the Rev. Jim DeGraw; and "Soul Winning and Visitation" with the Rev. Bob Steward, the instructor.

Average attendance on Wednesday nights during 1967 was 288 persons.

Friendship Lunch; Men Plan Dinner

The Women's Society for Christian Service of Central Methodist Church will hold its Friendship Gardens luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday with Dr. Harriet C. Mills, associate professor of Chinese language at the University of Michigan guest speaker.

"What China Is Like Today" will be her topic.

Dr. Mills was interned in China with her missionary parents by the Communists following World War II.

Luncheon tables will be arranged for four in a garden setting. Church women will entertain friends for the luncheon program.

Men of the church will entertain Methodist Men of the Greater Pontiac Area at a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday

Guest speaker will be the Rev. Woodie White, coordinator of Methodist Inner City Church Work, Detroit.

A graduate of Paine College and Boston University School of Theology, the Rev. Mr. White was appointed to East Grand Boulevard Methodist Church of Detroit in 1961. He was appointed pastor in 1963.

"How We Can Support the Inner-City Ministry?" is his topic.

Head of World Vision

Dr. Bob Pierce Resigns

World Vision International has announced the resignation of Dr. Bob Pierce, who founded the global relief and missionary service agency 17 years ago and served as its president ever since.

Dr. Pierce submitted his resignation as president to a meeting of the organization's board of directors at its headquarters in Monrovia, Calif. saying that health considerations prevented him from occupying that position.

World Vision's board of directors accepted the resignation with regret and elevated Dr. Richard C. Halverson to the position of acting president.

Dr. Halverson is pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., and executive director of International Christian Leadership.

For Dr. Pierce, the resignation meant laying down a mantle of leadership which has kept him overseas during most of the past 17 years, including virtually living in South Vietnam the past four years.

Hospitalized repeatedly during the past four years, Dr. Pierce cited his physicians' repeated warnings against continued strain and physical hypertension as his reasons for relinquishing World Vision's multifaceted administrative responsibility.

He will continue to serve World Vision as a consultant, including speaking, writing, producing films and performing other functions as his health and time permits.

STARTED IN 1950

Under Dr. Pierce's leadership, World Vision began in 1950, providing emergency aid in war-stricken South Korea, and in the following years became one of the most significant missionary forces in the world.

Well over 100,000 children have received aid through efforts motivated by the compassionate heart of this missionary statesman.

Over 40 million dollars has been received and distributed under his supervision, making the organization one of the largest of its kind in the world today.

World Vision meets emergency needs in many corners of the world, provides funds and services for existing missionary agencies overseas, operates a wide program of Christian social welfare services, conducts pastors' conferences and other Christian leadership programs, and publishes missionary literature.

It is supported by thousands of individuals and groups in the United States, Canada and Australia, including sponsors who contribute funds regularly for care of more than 23,500 orphans and needy children in 19 nations.

Although his main identification has been with the needy and suffering, his work around the world has made him a personal friend of many national rulers and he has been decorated many times by grateful governments.

Dr. Pierce lives in Arcadia, near Pasadena, with his wife Lorraine and their three daughters.

Conference Scheduled for Gideons

EAST LANSING — Leaders and potential leaders of the Michigan Gideons and their Auxiliary will improve their talents for organization management in a Jan. 20 conference at Michigan State University.

About 150 members of the lay religious groups will attend the annual educational session.

Prof. Clark E. DeHaven, director of executive programs for the MSU Graduate School of Business Administration, will speak on "Supervisory Management."

The Gideons new "memorial Bible" program and facets of the Gideon ministry also will be discussed.

The conference is sponsored by the MSU University Committee on Church Related Programs, in cooperation with the Michigan Gideons and the Gideons, International.

Convention in Cobo Hall

Plans are underway for the 30th annual spring convention of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women.

According to Mrs. Keith Ackley, president of the DACCW, sessions will be held in Cobo Hall March 10-11.

The Rev. Thomas J. Radloff SJ, president of the University of Detroit High School, will be principal speaker for the banquet scheduled for 7 p.m. on the opening day.

Local women working on arrangements include Mrs. R. J. Partlan and Mrs. Frank Kussy, both of Birmingham; and Mrs. Lawrence Martin of Bloomfield Hills.

Theme of the spring convention is "Our Covenant Renewed."

Pray till prayer makes you forget your own wish, and leave it or merge it in God's will. — Frederick W. Robertson, English clergyman and lecturer.

A man has to live with himself, and he should see to it that he always has good company. — Charles Evans Hughes, American jurist.

Senators Hope for Softer Wiretap Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators battling to expand police powers under President Johnson's crime control bill express hope the administration will reverse its stand against police wiretaps.

But an authoritative source reports no administration assurance has been received that this will be the case.

Legislation aimed at combatting the rising tide of crime promises to be one of the hottest issues in the session of Congress starting Monday.

Amid signs of growing public alarm, Johnson has been bearing down on the subject in recent statements and is expected to make a strong new plea in his State of the Union address next week for passage of his Safe Streets and Crime Control bill.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., is leading a fight for a broader bill that would permit law enforcement officers to engage in wiretapping and other electronic surveillance in major criminal cases if they first obtained a court order similar to a search warrant.

The bill approved by a Senate Judiciary subcommittee McClellan heads also would remove Supreme Court restrictions on police questioning of criminal suspects and make willingness the only test for the admissibility of criminal case confessions.

Johnson urged Congress last year to outlaw all wiretapping and electronic bugging except in cases directly related to national security.

Prior to that, in 1965, he issued an executive order prohibiting wiretapping and electronic eavesdropping by federal agents other than in national security cases.

'ESSENTIAL TOOL'

McClellan contends wiretaps are an essential tool for law enforcement officers in fighting organized crime. He is known to have been pressing Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark for a reversal of the administration's position.

If necessary, McClellan is expected to take the issue directly to the President.

An effort also is under way to persuade the administration to accept easing of the present restrictions on the admission into evidence of confessions.

The President's recent signing of a District of Columbia crime control bill permitting police questioning of suspects for up to three hours before arraignment has spurred this effort. Johnson vetoed a similar bill a year ago.

FEDERAL GRANTS

The administration's anti-crime bill provides for federal grants to improve state and local police forces. Despite a dispute over handling the distribution of the money, this is acceptable to McClellan.

But the senator regards the President's grant program as mainly a long-range effort and feels other steps are necessary for quick, effective action to check soaring crime rates.

The administration bill, after being revamped to give state governors rather than the attorney general control over distribution of the funds, won House passage last year.

The broadened version approved by McClellan's subcommittee is now before the full Senate Judiciary Committee.

Still, It's an Idea

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Under a bill proposed in the Georgia legislature, equipment seized in raids on moonshine stills would be turned over to public schools. Rep. Tom Palmer of Dekalb County proposes that the equipment be given to the schools for "educational purposes."

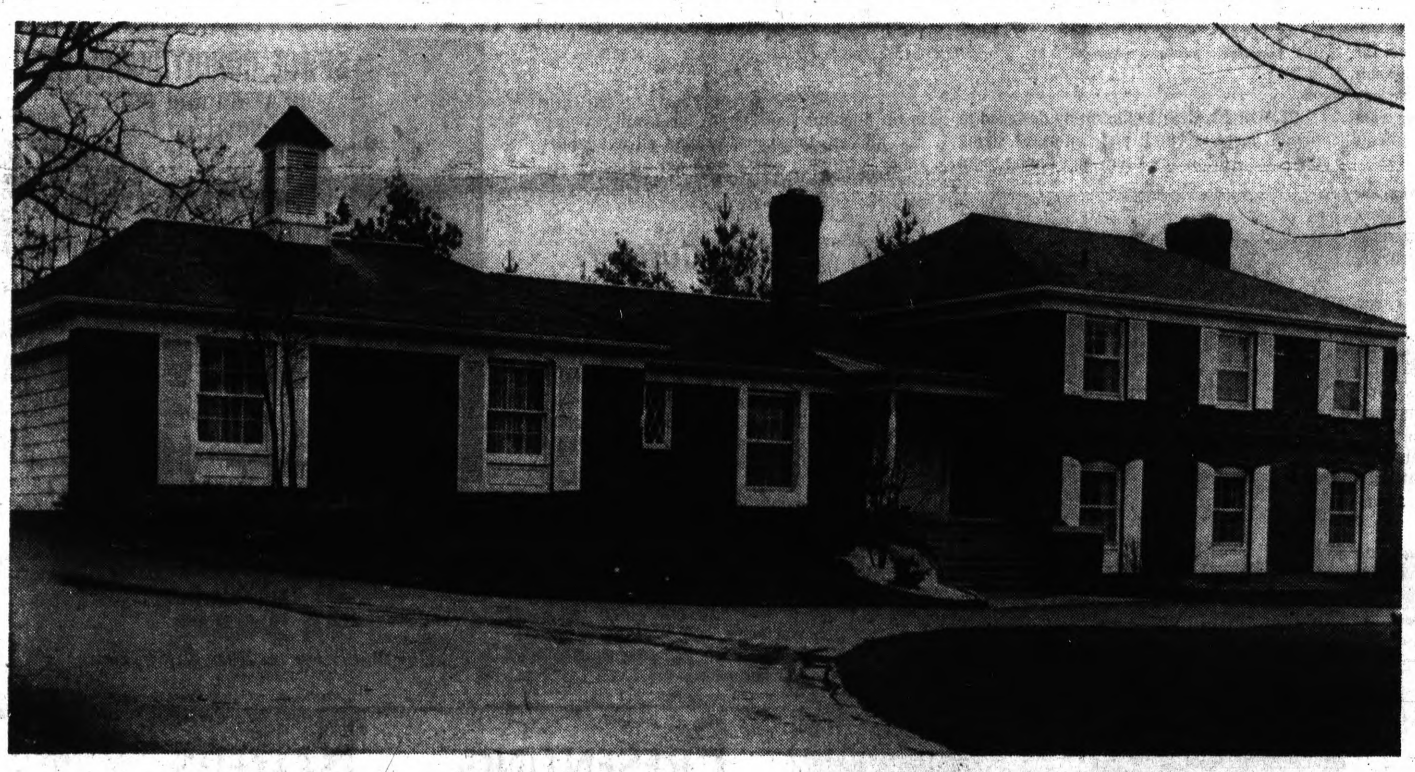
Pastel Of 7-Year-Old J-J Done By Mrs. Gemmell



French Provincial Home Of The John Gemmells Follows Contour Of The Building Site

Artist's Talent Is Mirrored

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Mrs. John Gemmell's talents as an artist are revealed throughout her French Provincial home in West Bloomfield Township. Her choice of color, line and texture stimulates warmth and decorator interest.

"I purposely chose a neutral background scheme," said Mrs. Gemmell, "because I did not want to clash with the colors of the outdoors."

Large picture windows at the back of the house disclose a wooded valley interesting in its black-and-white shadow detail in winter and a panoply of color during the growing seasons.

Complementing the off-white walls, carpeting and draperies are the bittersweet sofa with its toss pillows of moss green, beige, pumpkin and gold, the tall wing-back in moss green velvet and the pair of T-cushioned chairs in flocked pumpkin on white.

Quick to admit that she loves family pieces, Mrs. Gemmell has incorporated them into the over-all decorating theme. Green candles in brass candlesticks adorn a brass and green marble fern stand beside the sofa. The stand was a wedding gift to Mrs. Gemmell's grandmother.

The pastoral scene in the wall grouping above the sofa was painted by the same grandmother. Other heirloom pieces are displayed in the dark-stained oak china cabinet near the room's entrance to the foyer.

Black leather-seated arm chairs with brass detailing serve the table.

Resting on the easel in the corner of the room is a gold-framed pastel of J-J, the Gemmells' daughter.

"I intend to do another pastel for the other side of the room of our son, Tom," said Mrs. Gemmell.

The master bedroom suite wears elegance like a crown with its rich French blue spread of quilted velvet highlighting the off-white background.

Brass-washed copper candelebra light the two-mirrored dark-stained chests. Draperies repeat the blue of the spread.

CONTEMPORARY RANCH: The crisp look of this three-bedroom house evolves from a harmonious combination of stone, brick and wood — its long roof lines, completely unbroken — its interesting windows — and the pierced brick garage wall.

Long Ranch Makes Good Living Easy

There are two kinds of families that want larger houses: ● those who simply must have them because they require five or six bedrooms and ● those who want them because they have a better living scheme in mind.

Bigger is not always synonymous with better. It is therefore important that an architect designing for group 2 devote special attention to the living areas of the house.

Architect Lester Cohen has Done just that in this latest House of the Week.

While the rectangular shape is a practical matter in a small house, since unbroken roof lines are the least expensive, Cohen has also used it here, believing that it provides the best opportunity for incorporating rooms that flow into each other.

Thus, in his ranch house, we find the formal and informal living areas aligned to produce long expanses for easy living. There is no wasted hall space and the bedroom sizes are moderate.

CENTER HALL

Although based on a center hall plan, there are no excess halls. Traffic flows around the living areas directly to all other areas. Four entrances to the house — front door, patio door, porch and garage entries — all see to that.

To the right of het center hall entry, the living room and the dining room total 34', a fine size for luxury entertaining. The bay window area in the living rom uses diamond-paned verticals for striking effect.

This is an especially desirable feature in a room that is square, like the dining room. The arch from the hall and the one to the dining room give a feeling of greater spaciousness to the living room, so that it gains visually as well as actually.

The family room and the kitchen, placed in line in the same way as the living room and dining room, is 33' long. To this must be added the laundry-mud room and a vestibule, adding nearly 8' to the length of this complex.

The family room, with its window wall, corner fireplace and snack bar divider on the kitchen side, is what might be called an informal living room. The work space is easy to handle.

Appliances and counters are just where the housewife wants them, and the proportion of counter area to work zone is excellent. The lavatory and the laundry are most convenient, and while the plans call for a full basement, no housekeeper wants to be running up and down all the time.

STORAGE AREAS

There are storage areas in the tool closet in the adjoining two-car garage, the outdoor closet off the porch and the built-in cabinets in the laundry. With eight other closets, plus a master bedroom walk-in, storage is no problem in this house.

The three bedrooms are in the left wing. There is cross-ventilation in the master and second bedrooms. The third bedroom could be used as a den; its location is good for that.

A stall shower bathroom is off the master bedroom, while the family bathrooms is divided, with a guest vanitory with double basins at the entrance, and the tub and water closet beyond.

Design Z-23 is long, low and contemporary with the previously-mentioned unbroken roof lines and highlighted by a long planter, a pierced brick garage wall and a pierced roof overhang at the dining room end:

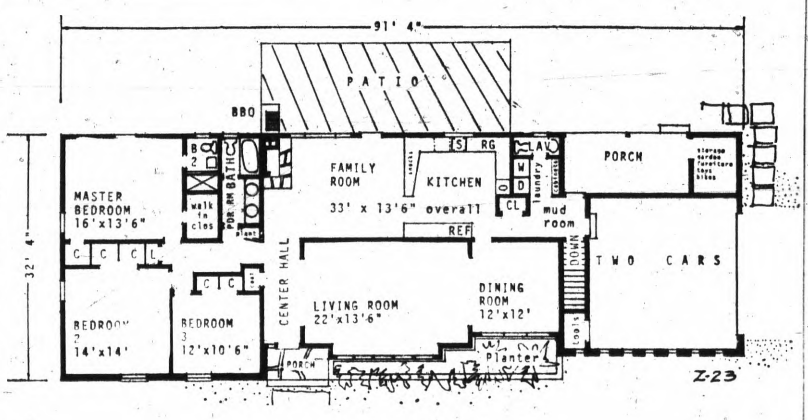
Its square foot area of 1882, excluding the service section and garage, provides plenty of room for the family that wants lots of space but is not excessively large.

Z-23 STATISTICS

Design Z-23, a rectangular ranch, has a living room, dining room, family room, kitchen, center hall, three bedrooms and two baths, with a habitable area of 1882 square feet. The service area includes a laundry, lavatory and mud room, off which are the two-car garage and a porch. A rear patio is accessible from the family room. Over-all dimensions are 91' 4" by 32' 4", including the garage and the porch.



FLOOR PLANS: Deliberately designed to provide large formal and informal living areas, with the living room and dining room in an alignment similar to the family room and kitchen, this house utilizes all available space, skimping on unnecessary halls.

Novel Placecard Holds Blossom

New two or three-inch clay pots, filled with florist's clay holding a single fresh flower or one of the marvelously colorful African violets, make imaginative placecard holders for all but the most formal dinner parties.

The little clay pots can be painted any color to vary table settings.

Paint Pamphlet Available Free

Versatility of color is one of the chief virtues of southern pine paneling. Because of its light color, this wood is adaptable to any of the darker hues, even ebony.

Such effects may be obtained with stain-type finishes. Since these finishes are transparent, the grain is exposed and the applied color seems just as natural as the wood's actual hue.

Care Lesson

Little care is required by cedar shingles or shakes. They carry with them their own natural preservative that protects them from storm and insects.

It's a Custom

Today's "customized" home has two basic requirements — a separate dining room and a spacious bath — and decorative ceramic tile is being widely used in both to provide a distinctive designer's touch, as well as easy maintenance.

Done by Mirrors

Placing a mirror on the side wall of a long foyer can help to make it seem wider. So can surfacing end walls with light ceramic tile and side walls with darker colored tile.

Two-Faced Fireplace

Several different types of design can now be used to gain the benefit of a single fireplace in two adjoining rooms.

A fireplace with a two-sided hearth can be placed between family room and living room, dining room and recreation room, or any two adjoining rooms, and provide comfort and warmth to both.

Using fireproof ceramic tile on facings, walls and floors will add to the safety and attractiveness of the installation.

Spruce tree needles are sharped tipped and four-sided.

Shower Bath Gains Favor

There's a widely accepted idea that people take cool showers in hot weather and hot baths in cold. This isn't so, the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau points out.

Both tub bathing and showering have their devoted adherents, and they tend to follow the same bathing habits in all seasons. Many people, of course take both, depending upon whether they want a quick, stimulating bath or a long relaxing one.

In the last 20 years, shower bathing has increased more than 300 percent, and few bathrooms are installed today without such equipment.

Product improvements that make showering a pleasure are among the reasons for this surge in popularity.

Here's how Howard Griesbach of Powers Regulator Co., a manufacturer of controls, sums up the changes:

- There was a time when a showerhead resembled the rose of a watering can, and water from it flowed in just about the same way.

Today you can get showerheads with as many as eight different spray settings, including, needle, fine, coarse and full-flow.

- The old-fashioned showerhead often became clogged. Today's are self-cleaning.
- With the older type showers, you couldn't count on even temperature. You might suddenly be hit with an icy shower or a near-scalding one whenever there was a change in pressure due to water being used elsewhere in the house or even on the name block.

Today, automatic controls enable you to preset the temperature you want before you turn on the water. The water then remains at that temperature despite pressure changes.

- Modern shower controls save money — both in the cost of water and in the cost of heating it. They're engineered to use as much as 50 per cent less water without detracting from the pleasures of showering.

FAMILY ROOM — Conversation grouping in the ranch model offered by Beauty-Rite Homes, 3538 Pontiac Lake, Waterford Township; in the new Huntoon Shores No. 3 subdivision accents a Mediterranean theme. Located on Pleasant Drive off Airport Road between Williams Lake and Hatchery Roads, the model is one of three open for public viewing. All were furnished by the decorating staff of Thomas Furniture Co., 4945 Dixie, Waterford Township.

Floors of Wood Winning Favor

Display of attractive floors and area rugs is on the rise, and this is renewing interest among home buyers in floors of genuine hardwood.

Favored for their natural beauty, lifetime durability, warmth and ease of upkeep, hardwood floors are offered in a wide variety of species, styles and grades.

Their cost range permits good floors of hardwood even in low-price houses, yet they're specified for the most sumptuous homes and apartments.

Oak is the predominant species because of its high quality for residential flooring and is grown in abundance, chiefly in the Southern and Appalachian regions. Others often used are hard maple, beech, birch, pecan, walnut, cherry, ash, hickory and teak.

Decorating Tip for Base Molding

A common decorating "wrong" is use of ceiling or base moldings which are too narrow. As a rule of thumb, a traditional cornice should be 1-14th the distance from the ceiling to the floor.

An eight-foot ceiling should call for a three to four inch base, while a nine-foot ceiling should have a four to five inch base.

Takes All Kinds

Twenty-five or more species of trees are used in plywood today. For decades, the only kind used in any quantity was the Douglas fir in the Pacific Northwest.

Cut branches off your discarded Christmas tree and use them for mulch in your garden.

New Booklet for Remodeling

Are you remodeling your old bathroom installing a compact one in a "waste" space such as an old pantry, closet or stairwell, or adding a new one with all the space you need?

In any case, there are many ways that your fixtures can be arranged for maximum convenience and beauty. A booklet containing 34 plans is available for 25 cents from the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau, 35 E. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill. 60601.

Beauty-Rite Homes Launches

First All-Electric Community

Huntoon Shores No. 3 marks a Southeastern Michigan first. All homes to be built in the new community developed by Beauty-Rite Homes will boast the Detroit Edison gold medallion.

To earn a gold medallion, a home must be geared for all-electric living including flameless electric heating.

The three Beauty-Rite models (ranch, trilevel and colonial) launching and new subdivision are open for public viewing today and tomorrow from 1-6 p.m.

Completely furnished, they are located on Pleasant Drive, east of Airport Road between Williams Lake and Hatchery Roads.

Each home features certified wiring and lighting with ample electric outlest, is fully insulated and completely stormed and screened.

Be sure your student has a quiet study corner of his own.

Insulated Glass Avoids Drizzles

When choosing windows for your home, remember that insulating glass in weather-stripped wood sash is the best way to avoid the dangers of condensation.

Condensation occurs when warm air strikes a cold window. Beads of moisture then condense and drip down to damage paint, wallpaper, floors and furniture.

Use of insulating glass—now available in all styles and stock sizes of ponderosa pine window units—solves this problem. Since wood is a natural insulator, pine sash tends to stay warm even in cold weather.

The same is true of the insulating glass, formed by hermetically sealing two separate panes of glass with a cushion of dry, warm, insulating air between.

More than a million persons are employed by timber-based enterprises in 12 southern pine producing states.

Conserve Heat, Save Fuel

Outdated Drafty House Windows Are Replaced By Low-Cost NU-SASH

Doing something about those old-fashioned, drafty, hard-to-wash house windows that cause high heating bills has been a vexing and costly problem for homeowners who want to modernize. However, a handsome new product now provides an easy, inexpensive solution.

BEFORE:

AFTER:

Old window is unsightly, hard to wash, is difficult to open, and lets in wind and cold.

Nu-Sash replacement window is attractive, seals tightly, lifts out for easy cleaning.

The product — Nu-Sash — is an aluminum unit specifically designed to replace old worn-out house windows. The low cost, including installation, is approximately 40% less than any other methods of renovating old windows.

One Low Price

There is no costly remodeling or construction work when you convert to Nu-Sash. Inside plaster and woodwork is never disturbed. The unique and sturdy installation process is one of the main reasons Nu-Sash are so economical. The average window can be converted in minutes

Savings in heating bills will pay for a Nu-Sash conversion. Although low in cost, Nu-Sash windows are packed with outstanding features unmatched by any other window. These features greatly reduce housework, eliminate maintenance, and add eye-appeal. For example:

Stretching and straining on ladders is completely eliminated since Nu-Sash lift out for easy cleaning.

Painting, puttying, and almost all other maintenance is completely eliminated since Nu-Sash are constructed entirely of aluminum and rigid vinyl.

Nu-Sash Pays For Itself

Nu-Sash are so sturdy that test results show the window superior to standards set by FHA for new home construction requirements.

The window comes in models that replace most all types of windows. Picture windows are available. A heavy duty model is available for schools, factories, apartments, and buildings.

As an important and permanent addition to the home, Nu-Sash qualify for low interest home improvement loans.

The Nu-Sash window has appeared in recent editions of Better Homes and Gardens magazines. The product was awarded the guarantee seal of that publication.

Details and drawings and cost estimates of Nu-Sash are available upon request. For additional free literature about the product, mail the coupon.

Correct Garden Errors

January Is the Time for Planning

January is the "stock-taking" or "correction month" for many good gardeners, for no garden is ever perfect . . . but it gets closer to it every year. All through the busy months good gardeners see things, some very small, some large, which might be bettered.

And, now, when there is more time, is the season to weigh them all and to decide which ones to change as soon as the weather and soil conditions permit.

For example, most older houses have foundation plantings which are noticeably overgrown. Some cutting back is possible but, usually, the best and most permanent cure is to yank out the old plants — a heavy rope or chain on your car's bumper after some preliminary loosening with a shovel — will do it.

Then replace them with new plants of a size more in keeping withh the house. Also when replanting, don't sit the house on a solid cushion of green. That went out with the depression. Let the foundation show through in places.

Likewise, don't use pines, hemlocks or spruces next to the house. They will grow into timber trees eventually. Try arborvitae, plume cypresses, umbrella pines, junipers, yews and others of less vigorous growth.

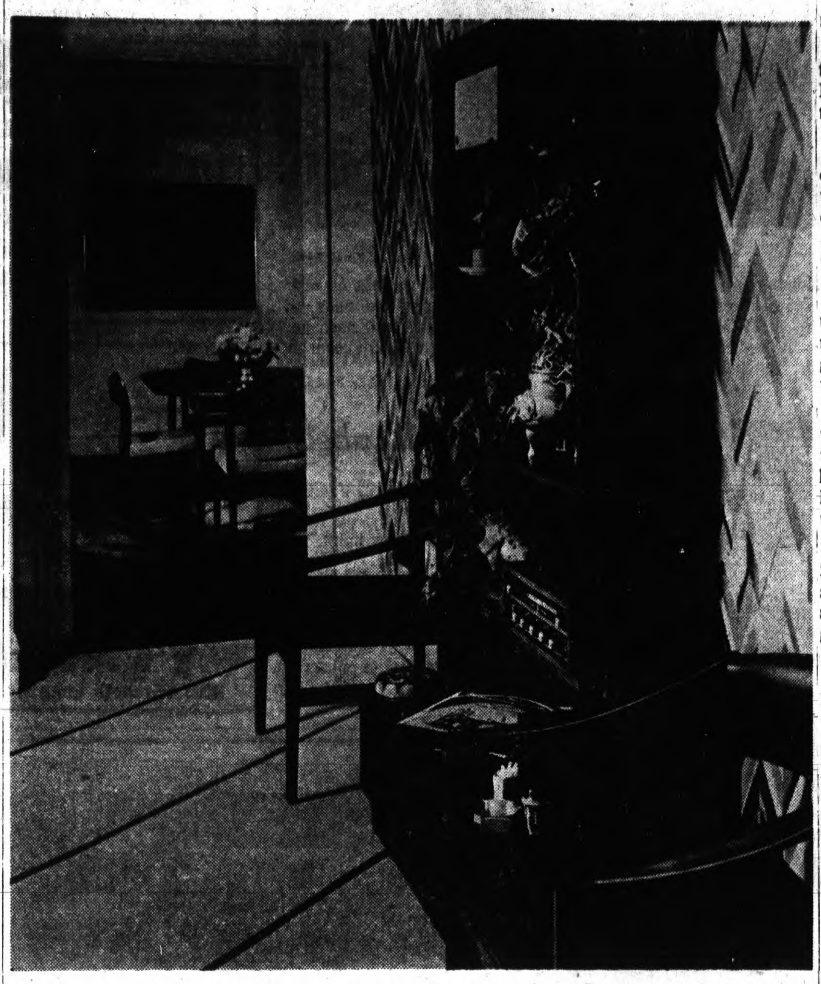
If your garden is nice in summer but lacks accent in winter, consider planting a few evergreens either the large or small-growing sorts and some-broad-leaved forms as hollies or rhododendrons.

SHADE NECESSARY?

On the other hand, if shade is a must around the house, plan on planting some new trees this spring. However, remember this: evergreens cast shade even in winter when the sunshine is appreciated. So, either plan on replacing with or making an original planting of leaf-dropping trees.



HALL TRANSFORMATION—Bursting at the seams, need more space for varied family interests and activities. The compact area above is a reformed foyer that served no functional purpose other than a hallway leading from the front door into the rest of the house. Transformed on a budget its neat five square feet becomes a hi-fi center, a decorative entity in itself. The walls have been brightened with colorful flamestitch wall paper. The floor has been lightened with easy car vinyl asbestos tile in a realistic stone chip pattern and widened optically with accent strips that repeat wall paper pattern. Dux rosewood stacking units house hi-fi components and matching pull up chairs insure comfortable listening.

But, should you need a screen from winter winds, an ugly garage or other unpleasant view, you will want evergreens. They will be on the job all year round.

Another thing to think about today is a screen from noise. For this evergreens, again, are the most effective.

In years gone by it was the custom to clutter up the lawn with trees, shrubs or even flower beds. Today this is especially a nuisance in these days of power mowers to cut down our work, as well as out of date. Consider moving those you can to the borders of the garden to act as screens or backgrounds and eliminate some that you can't move.

Another important chore is to watch where water settles in the garden. Then, if it causes harm, raise those places and lower others to drain it away to some harmless spot.

Often you can do this by taking up the grass in rolls with a spade, taking out some of the soil beneath it and putting the grass back.

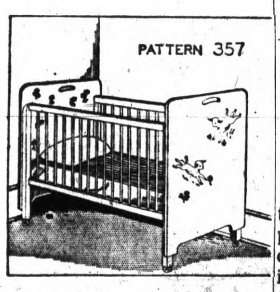
Finally, consider livening up your garden by plotting out locations for dual-purpose trees: flower and shade, shade and fruit or shade and nut trees. Any of these, as well as the evergreens mentioned above can be planted as soon as it is possible to dig.



IT'S EASY TO MAKE this crib with ordinary hand tools. It requires no unusual hardware. It is about four feet long and wheels through doorways of standard width. Pattern 357, which gives material list, cutting guides, directions and full-size design for the lamb docoration, is 35c. It also is in the Children's Furnishings and Toys Packet No. 61 which is $1. The Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., P.O. Box 50, New Windsor, N. Y. 12550.

Designer Ideas in Wood Noted

Two colorful new idea folders are available on the use of wood moldings.

"Design and Decorate with Wood Moldings" is an eight-page booklet packed with color photographs showing how to decorate walls, doors dividers and cabinets with standard wood moldings.

"Designer's Guide for the Use of Wood Moldings" includes 29 drawings illustrating uses of moldings, accompanied by descriptive text.

Each piece is available by sending 25c for either or 50c for both to Western Wood Moulding Producers, Box 25278, Portland, Oregon 97225.

Floor Temperatures Important

Since children are built closer to the floor than adults, it's important that home heating and cooling systems be designed to insure uniform floor-to-ceiling temperatures.

The fact that a thermostat placed five feet off the floor reads 70 or 72 degrees or more does not mean a small child is living in the same air temperature. Temperatures may be much cooler at floor level. In homes improperly heated, for instance, temperatures may vary as much as 10 degrees between floor and ceiling.

A hydronic (hot water) heating system and a separate overhead air conditioning system, could provide optimum comfort conditions. In a hydronic system, baseboard heating units installed around the perimeter of the house radiate heat to warm all room surfaces.

Tests conducted at the University of Illinois revealed a difference of only two or three degrees between floor and ceiling in a home heated with hydronic baseboard units.

Since cooled air has a tendency to fall, an overhead cooling system is ideal in the summer. That's because the cooled air can fall gently to the floor without causing drafts. If introduced at floor level, the cooled air must be forced upward to cool the entire area, thus producing drafts and forced air movement.

Walls Protected

Wood moldings decorate walls, doors and cabinets, but they're practical, too. Door and window casing and chair rails protect walls from bangs and bumps.

Prepare Room to Save Time

Don't overlook details in the excitement of painting a room! Remove all fixtures and hardware (lights, door knobs, outlets, etc.) before you plunge in.

This will save you the bother of cleaning off paint splatters and also will help you completely cover hard to reach areas!

For Rugged Roof

Red cedar shingles or shakes are ideal for the roof or sidewall adornment on vacation homes. They have a rugged, rustic charm, and require no maintenance for many years.

INFORMAL DINING — Ample eating space is available off of the spacious kitchen. All of the Provincetown Homes include storm windows and screens, paneled family room and fireplace, gas range, range hood and fan, dishwasher and disposer and finished two-car garage in the base price of $30,990.

Young Adults Prefer Apartment Living

Imminent expansion in the number of young households is expected to greatly increase the demand for apartments.

More than two million young Americans are now marrying each year and the number of young adults eligible for that step will rise sharply during the next decade.

The young adult population will increase faster than any other age group in the years between 1966 and 1985. The 22-to-29 group will rise 71 per cent; the 30-34 group, 78 per cent.

Most young couples are going to live in apartments—and probably for a longer time than their parents did in the early years of their marriage. Birth rates in younger families are decreasing, with the first child being born somewhat later than used to be the case. And most families do not buy a home until the youngest child is over six.

Young couples want living space and privacy in an apartment, a sense of feeling "at home." They want complete kitchens and baths and easy upkeep—surfacing materials like ceramic tile that are easy to clean.

Many of them will probably want a city rather than a suburban apartment, at least in the first years of marriage, so they can continue to live in the same environment they knew when single. And nearly all will undoubtedly appreciate interesting and exciting design, reflecting the growing nationwide concern with architecture and planning.

Mulch perennials, young fruit trees, strawberries and shrubs now that the ground is frozen.

Daily Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Saturday, Jan. 13, the 13th day of 1968 with 353 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full stage.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Mars, Saturn and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1733, James Oglethorpe and some 130 British colonists arrived at Charleston, S.C., with a charter to form a settlement which is now Georgia.

In 1864, songwriter Stephen Foster died in New York City with only 35 cents in his pocket. In 1963, President Sylvanus Olympio of the West African nation of Togo was assassinated.

In 1966, President Johnson named the first Negro in history to a cabinet position. Robert Weaver was named secretary of the new housing and urban development post.

The Guns of Judgment Day

What Has Happened

Dan Briscoe, on patrol in Yellow Lance as night marshal, felt this might be the last night. Dan didn't want to kill, but he did want to survive—and without running.

That was his dilemma with the Hatch brothers in town, plainly intent on settling a grudge against Briscoe. While Briscoe was having supper with the Mayor, Frank Buckman encountered the Hatch brothers and was killed.

Chapter 4

Dan Briscoe did not speak. The one who had just died must have been Clay Hatch. The older man at the end of the bar would be Jess Hatch, owner and ramrod of a big cattle outfit, whose brand was the Bar K, and whose headquarters were on Wind River, far away.

The thought came to Dan that he would not have known either of these men who had come here to kill him if he had met them on the street. Nor, no doubt, would they have recognized him as the officer they had sworn they would kill. This was the first time they had met, face-to-face.

"You've killed the wrong man, Hatch," Dan said. "He was my deputy. Just a young man who wanted to grow up too fast. I'm Dan Briscoe. I'm the one you were looking for."

Jess Hatch did not move for seconds. In him was a sickness and guilt. He had come here to avenge the death of one of his riders who had been killed by a bullet from Dan's six-shooter in this same saloon a year in the past.

A year to the day, almost to the minute. Palpably, this was the way Jess Hatch had timed it. It was to have been his tribute to one of his Bar K cowboys who had tried to defy the law and Dan Briscoe.

"I took my solemn word on the Book I'd kill you, Briscoe," Jess Hatch finally said. "I look after my riders."

HARD TO RENOUNCE

"An oath on the Book is a hard thing for a man like you to renounce," Dan said.

"Young Stevie Webb was more'n a man who worked for me," Jess Hatch said. "He was a friend."

"Pull that trigger, and we'll both go," Dan said. "Would that make Stevie Webb sleep easier in his grave?"

"He was drunk that day," Jess Hatch said. "You could have spared him. He had no chance ag'in the likes o' you."

A GLANCING SHOT

"He was drunk," Dan said. "But not too drunk. That kind are the hardest to deal with. He shot twice at me before I pulled a trigger. You won't believe this, but I shot two feet wide of him, trying only to scare him.

"But he dove for cover. My slug glanced from that cannon stove there to your right. It went through his heart. You can see the scar on the stove to this day."

Jess Hatch remained silent for seconds. Then he lowered his gun. He was a homely, box-jawed man, leaned and leathered by weather and hardship. He moved to where his brother's body lay and knelt beside it. He began to sob.

Dan felt John Cass' hand on his arm. He let himself be led out of the saloon and to the Mayor's office. John Cass locked the door, and drew a bottle of whiskey and glasses from a cabinet. "You could use this, Dan," he said, pouring a drink.

Dan waved it away. From a window, he watched Jess Hatch carry his brother down Lincoln Street, and turn the corner into the hurrah district on Dozeman Street. Torchlight still glowed there, but the gunfire uptown had muted the music and the sounds of revelry.

PUNISHMENT ENOUGH

"I could still arrest him," he said. "He broke the law. But he's been punished enough." He added, "More than enough."

A new procession came from Paddy's Bar. Frank Buckman's body, covered by a sheet, was carried on a stretcher, followed by a straggle of townspeople. There were women among the group. None was weeping. They were only excited and avidly curious.

The stretcher was borne into Henry Adams' undertaking parlor. The group still swirled around the door, chattering.

"Frank shouldn't have tried to back down the Hatch brothers," John Cass said. "And why did he want to get rigged out in all that fancy? He—"

FOLKS IN NEBRASKA

Dan interrupted him. "Frank had folks back in Nebraska. His parents and a sister, I believe. Farm people. Thay must be notified."

"I'll take care of it," John Cass said.

"Bury him in his fancy clothes, and wearing his two guns."

"That might not be fitting," the Mayor protested.

"That's the way Frank would want it," Dan said.

BADGE TURNED IN

He unstrapped his two guns, removed his marshal's shield and placed them on the Mayor's desk. "These things were only a front anyway," he said. "It wasn't me they feared. It was the reputation, not the man. They never looked beyond the tinsel."

"Hold on, Dan! You're not quitting?"

"That's the exact word for it, John. Quitting. I had made up my mind to step out weeks ago. Then I heard the Hatch brothers had taken oath to pay me off. So I stayed.

I had strutted too long. I was really beginning to believe in Diamond Dan Briscoe. To believe I was invincible. If I'd quit then, those two young men would be alive now."

"You're not looking at this right, Dan. If Frank had stayed out of it, likely there never wouldn't have been any shooting. He forced the fight. I doubt if the Hatches would have gone through with it against a man of your record, if Frank hadn't crowded them."

WHAT RECORD?

"A man of my record, John? Just what is my record?"

The Mayor frowned, started to speak, then went silent.

"They say I've killed five or six men," Dan said. "Or is it a dozen now? Each time I hear it the number grows bigger. The truth is I never killed a human being in my life."

The Mayor decided he was not being serious, and started to laugh uneasily. The laugh died. "What do you mean, Dan? What about—?"

"The three men they say I rubbed out here in Yellow Lance? One was a whiskey-crazed bullwhacker who went berserk on the street the first month I was marshal.

He had killed two innocent people, and was about to kill a woman. I shot him.

RAT-FACED FOOTPAD

Then there was a rat-faced footpad I found rifling the pockets of a man he had slugged back of a saloon. He's on the list of those I'm supposed to have killed."

"Supposed?"

"That thief was killed by his own gun, John. I traded shots with him in the darkness as he ran. He fell over an ash heap and dropped his gun. It exploded and the bullet hit him between the eyes."

The way it's told, that was a perfect example of how handy Diamond Dan Briscoe is with a gun. The truth is, I was shooting in another direction. I didn't even know where he was in the darkness."

He watched the Mayor's blank expression. "Up to now, I'm the only person who knew that," he continued. "As for the bullwhacker, I shot him in the leg.

"It knocked him down, but is was only a flesh wound. It saved the life of the woman he was threatening, but he died in Doc Petticord's office. It wasn't my slug that killed him. Alcohol poisoning was the real cause. Doc Petticord will tell you that.

"It's been sort of a secret between us. You might call it a joke. As for the cowboy, Steve Webb, my bullet killed him, but it was an accident. A ricochet."

CROSSING CRITICIZED — A series of railroad track crossings in the Oakland County Service Center is under fire from Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson for not having adequate devices to warn motorists. Three accidents occurred on the crossings last year. The building behind the two signs for southbound West Boulevard traffic is the County Courthouse.

Railroad Crossing Unsafe, County Prosecutor Says

The crossing of West Boulevard and the Grand Trunk Western Railway Tracks poses a safety problem, according to Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson. The tracks are marked with a stop sign and railway marker to warn motorists of the crossing.

Pontiac police said there were three accidents at the intersection last year, one a fatal collision.

Killed Oct. 16 when his pickup truck was hit by a passenger train was Oscar O. Halcom, 42, of 4801 Rochester, Orion Township.

The other accidents recorded last year constituted a property damage accident and an injury accident. Two Pontiac men were treated for cuts March 16 when the car they were driving in was hit by two coupled engines.

Bronson said the crossing is dangerous and that "the volume of traffic across that intersection increases daily with the development of the county service center.

"The potential for fatal and serious injury accidents has correspondingly increased," he said.

"The least that should be accomplished is the building of highly visible and mechanized warning devices along with the installation of readily observable signs warning the unwary driver that he is approaching a highly dangerous intersection," Bronson said.

Many county employes use the dirt road to get from Oakland to the county service center.

The Public Service Commission inspected the crossing after the fatal accident in October, but city officials have not yet received a report from the commission.

HARD TO SOLVE

Director of Public Works and Service Joseph E. Neipling said it would be difficult to construct adequate safeguards because of the nature of the crossing.

Seven widely separated tracks cross at that point. Neipling said even if gates were installed at each end, it is possible that cars could be caught in the middle when gates were lowered.

He said the best safety precaution would be to close West Boulevard to traffic.

Card Game Ends in $1,600 Robbery

A Pontiac man was robbed at gunpoint of $1,600 in cash following a card game, he reported late yesterday.

Larry Scribner, 24, of 736 E. Pike told police that when the game ended about 9 p.m., one of the other players brandished a pistol and demanded his money.

He said the man took his wallet and fled in a car.

Halt Bombing, Sen. Cooper Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., urged President Johnson today to halt the bombing of North Vietnam and thus test that country's offer to talk about ending the war.

He said the United States can afford any risk involved in such a move, and should act to avoid what he said would be "the greater risk" of having the war continue.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
Notice is hereby given of a scheduled public hearing to be held by the Pontiac Township Planning Commission at the Township Hall, 2060 Opdyke Road, on Monday, February 5th, 1968 at 7:30 P. M. to consider the following applications for rezoning:
Petition 68-1 to change from AG to C-2 for retail shopping center and office: That part of the northwest corner of Section 13 T3N, R10E, Pontiac Township, lying north of University Entrance Road and bounded by University Entrance Road, Squirrel Road and Pontiac Road, 31.41 acres.
Petition 68-2 to change from AG to C-2 for motel & gasoline service station: That part of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of Section 14, Pontiac Township, lying between Pontiac Road as widened and Mt. Clemens Road as widened, 6.83 acres.
Persons interested are requested to be present at this meeting. A copy of the zoning map and the proposed changes are on file in the office of the Township Clerk and may be examined at any time.

Friday News Briefs From State Capital

By The Associated Press

THE GOVERNOR
Was in New Hampshire campaigning for that state's March 12 presidential primary — the first in the nation.

THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE
Reported that 14 Republicans and two Democrats have filed as candidates for the 23rd District Senate seat vacated by the death of Sen. Harold Volkema, R-Holland.

THE CONSERVATION DEPARTMENT
Asked for a $70.8 million budget for the next fiscal year—mostly to implement activities asked for by Gov. George Romney in his State of the State message.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
Recommended dropping criminal charges against Wayne County Sheriff Peter Buback in order to speed ouster proceedings before the November election.

THE SUPREME COURT
Heard oral agruments concerning the authority of Gov. George Romney to appoint a probate judge to preside over Wayne County Sheriff Peter Buback's removal hearing.

THE SENATE
Met briefly for bill introduction and adjourned until Monday night.
Bills introduced included:
SB798, Richardson. Allow filling of probate judge vacancies by special election.
SB799, Toepp. Allow filling of probate judge vacancies by special election.
SB799, Toepp. Allow additional meetings of boards of review looking into local property tax matters.
SB800, Toepp. Provide additional fines for illegal taking or possession of Michigan game fish, including trout, salmon, bass, sturgeon and muskellung.
SB801, Bouwsma. Authorize payment of $50 a day to State Tourist Council members for performance of official duties, not to exceed 15 days in any fiscal year.

THE HOUSE
was in adjournment until Monday night.

Township Unit Has Successor to Area Man

Meridian Township Supervisor Robert R. Robinson Jr. of Haslett in Ingham County yesterday was elected president of the Michigan Township Association, succeeding Duane Hursfall, supervisor of Independence Township in Oakland County.

Jack B. Millard, Shelby Township treasurer, was named treasurer of the association as it ended a three-day convention in Grand Rapids.

The more than 1,000 delegates adopted resolutions asking that townships be given a more equitable split of tax money collected by the state and calling for the establishment of a state department of tourism.

Delegates urged legislation that would increase homestead tax exemptions to $15,000 for those over 65 years of age.

Other officers elected include Zae Robinson of Union City, first vice president; Carl Ammeraman of Genesee, second vice president; Bernard J. Fowler of Grayling, third vice president; and Donna M. Scott of Lake, secretary.

New Discussion Method Eyed

Experiment by School Group in Waterford

A new confrontation technique of discussion will be experimented with when a Waterford Township School District Citizens' study group meets at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday at Pierce Junior High School.

Members of the citizens' group consisting of 43 residents, and school administrators will participate in the meeting, which is designed to help improve communications between the schools and community.

Subcommittee members have been told that they can invite neighbors and friends for the discussion.

The meeting will be conducted by Dr. Wendell Hough, a professor of education at Wayne State University, who introduced the confrontation technique to Waterford Township teachers at a workshop.

Mrs. Delores Hosler, chairman of the subcommittee on communications, will chair the meeting.

SMALL GROUPS

The citizens and administrators will meet in separate rooms divided into small groups, according to school officials.

The groups will prepare lists of questions and suggestions on ways to improve communications which will be considered by the whole group the same night.

The confrontation technique of discussion is designed to permit a freedom of suggestions so that no individual feels he is responsible for the questions and recommendations, explained school officials.

GI Dies in Crash

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — William G. Webb, 20-year-old South Haven, Mich., soldier, has been killed in a one-car smashup near Ft. Lewis, where he was stationed with the 143rd Supply Co. Webb was a passenger in a car which hit a concrete sign abutment on a freeway just north of the Army fort's main gate, about 15 miles south of here. The accident occurred Thursday.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MINTIE Dye, who passed away January 13, 1967.
She who was feeble, weak,
and shackled to her bed,
now climbs eternal hills,
with light and easy tread,
she has escaped at last,
the cruel clutch of pain;
her lips shall never taste
its bitter cup again.
She bows in speechless joy,
Before the Seat of Him,
Whom, seeing not, she loved,
while yet her sight was dim,
Along the golden streets,
no stranger walks today,
But one who, long homesick,
is home at last to stay.
Sadly missed By Children and Grandchildren.

IN MEMORY OF CHARLES A. DEACON, who passed away January 14, 1958.
Deep in our hearts you are fondly remembered,
Fond memories will cling round your name.
True hearts that loved you with the deepest affection,
Will always love you in death just the same.
Sadly missed by dear wife Mrs. Fessie Deacon and beloved daughter Joan.

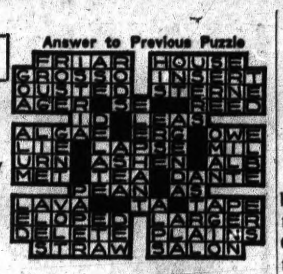
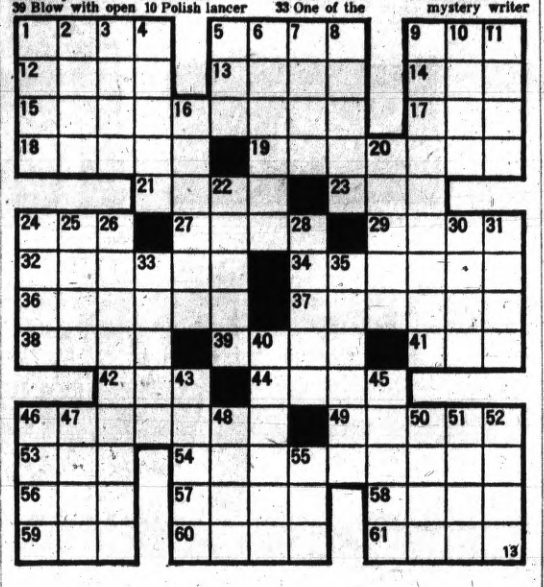
Answer to Previous Puzzle





Wilson Sees Album Future for Gal Who Wowed GIs

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—The next gal singer who's going to make it on albums is Barbara McNair of Chicago, Racine and San Francisco, who's been fighting a frustrating battle with fame since she took a job as secretary at the National Federation of Settlement in New York about 10 years ago because New York was Show Biz.

WILSON

"I've had a terrible recording career," confesses Barbara, with a frankness unusual for performers. "The companies I record for usually go under.

"I've never made more than two albums for one company."

Barbara was such a big hit with the GIs on the Bob Hope tour of Vietnam that you'd have thought she was the biggest singing star in the country. She came out in a low-necked red gown and sang "I Am a Woman," and from 10,000 to 25,000 GIs—depending on the base—got hysterical.

"It's flattering," Barbara said, "but I realized that they wouldn't have cared if I'd just come out and played with a yo-yo. I was home, mother, and Christmas to them. Actually, I think they gave me more joy than I gave them."

But Barbara would rush up to them and kiss them and pose for them—and just before she sang "Silent Night," she put a piece of gauze cover-up over her low neck.

"You know, when I was in the officers' clubs, though, some of the officers tried to put you in your place as an entertainer.

"One officer said, 'Well, well, well, the Bob Hope show is here again! If I have to go out there and sit in the hot sun, he'd better be good!'

"I told him what I thought of his attitude, and he apologized."

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Roger Smith's recovering from skiing injuries, Ann-Margret from a motor scooter crash; Jerry Lewis say he's giving 'em a joint present—a Blue Cross gift certificate . . . Footballer-turned-actor Jim Brown'll star in a cowboy-western version of "Othello" . . . The science-fiction film "2001: A Space Odyssey" will show one familiar item on the 'way-out space station—a Howard Johnson restaurant.

Joe E. Lewis'll dedicate the new "Joe E. Lewis Lounge" at the Miami Beach Eden Roc Jan. 19 . . . Huntington Hartford, at Oliver, wore dinner jacket and turtleneck, with his black tie as a pocket handkerchief . . . Biggest money-maker in '67: "Dirty Dozen" ($20,000,000 gross in five months) . . . Scenes for the "Sol Madrid" film were shot at John Wayne's cliff-top house in Acapulco.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Jim Mulhallond confesses his girlfriend has a weight problem: "In fact, if she gets any bigger she'll have to apply for statehood."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Traffic jams are getting worse—the Hollywood Freeway now offers valet parking.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Military science is that remarkable art in which the lessons learned in winning one war, if strictly followed, lose the next."

EARL'S PEARLS: Russia is actually very helpful to us. If we didn't have them, how would we know if we were ahead or behind?—Webster's Unfraid Dictionary.

Howard L. Cohan examined the batting and pitching averages, and has concluded: The N.Y. Mets have just been mathematically eliminated from the 1968 pennant race . . . That's earl, brother.

Flint NAACP Files Suit to Stop Fair Housing Vote

FLINT (UPI) — The Flint branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People filed suit yesterday against the city to stop a proposed vote on the city's open housing ordinance.

The suit, filed by three individuals as well as the NAACP, claims the referendum, to be held Feb. 20, violates the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

The proposed referendum would ask the voters to decide whether they want to discriminate in the sale, rental or leasing of housing, the suit charges.

"The referendum ballot title clearly shows the intent thereof is to allow, permit, encourage and authorize discrimination in the sale or rental of housing," the suit says.

J. Merrill Spencer, a local funeral director, Calvin U. Price and Ernest Taylor Jr. are the individuals filing the suit together with the NAACP.

Filed in Genesee County Circuit Court, the suit is patterned after a similar one now pending against a proposed statewide vote on open housing in California.

Circuit Judge Anthony J. Mansour granted an injunction against the city, asking Flint "to show cause why the election should not be stopped." He set the "show cause" hearing for Jan. 19.

Flint's open housing ordinance went into effect Nov. 11 after the City Commission had passed it despite strong opposition.

But a group of citizens, headed by Gerald A. Spencer, an office worker at a Chevrolet plant who is not related to the Spencer filing the suit, collected more than the necessary 3,000 signatures in a petition drive to hold a vote on the controversial measure.

SAID HE'D QUIT

Before the City Commission passed the ordinance, Mayor Floyd McCree, then the only Negro mayor of a U.S. city with more than 200,000 population, had threatened to resign unless the ordinance was passed.

A statewide open housing law was defeated in the Michigan House of Representatives during a special legislative session Dec. 21.

Waterford May Award Contracts for 9 Vehicles

The Waterford Township Board may award contracts for the purchase of nine new vehicles at its 7:30 p.m. meeting Monday, following a report and recommendations by the township vehicle committee.

Bids for the new vehicles — consisting of six police cars, a station wagon for the fire department, a one-ton truck and a one-half ton truck — were opened at last Monday's meeting.

Ten firms participated in the bidding and the apparent low proposals, including trade-in allowances, were $8,910 for the police cars; $2,571 for the one-ton truck; $2,438.95 for the station wagon; and $1,820.35 for the one-half ton truck.

In other business, the board is scheduled to hold a discussion with representatives of the Waterford Township Police Officers Association concerning a 1968 contract for policemen.

Also up for discussion is a cost analysis report on the proposed purchase of 13,000 feet of plastic water service tubing to be used this year for connections from mains to property lines.

Action is expected on a request by Lighthouse Lanes, 4443 Dixie, to serve alcoholic beverages on the bowling alley concourse and for a dance permit.

The board also is expected to appoint two members to the Waterford Township Board of Canvassers for two-year terms.

'Divider' to Keep Uninvited Out of GOP Convention

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Making certain that no uninvited guests make the scene, Miami Beach is planning to build a large "divider" around the convention hall where the nation's Republicans will convene in August to choose a presidential candidate.

The divider will be made of chain link and will rise six feet from the sidewalk surrounding the convention hall.

Some might call it a fence, or a barricade, but not Irving Ducoff, convention hall manager.

"It's a divider, not a fence," insists Ducoff, who said the hall will be under constant police patrol during the convention.

National LSD Probe Follows Blinding of 6

WASHINGTON (AP)—The case of six Pennsylvania college students who were permanently blinded by staring at the sun during an LSD "trip" is spurring a nationwide federal search for other such incidents.

Shortly after the Associated Press learned yesterday of the Pennsylvania case, federal health officials announced a state-by-state survey to see if other persons have lost their sight while under the influence of the powerful hallucinogen.

Federal officials had known of the case since last November, but a spokesman said no study was undertaken earlier because of policy questions involving federal and state jurisdictions.

The six college students, identified only as juniors at an unnamed western Pennsylvania college, suffered total and permanent blindness last spring while staring at the sun in an LSD-induced trance.

Health officials said it was the first instance they knew of in which total blindness resulted. But they noted another case last May in which four students at the University of California at Santa Barbara permanently lost their reading vision under nearly identical circumstances.

Norman M. Yoder, commissioner of Pennsylvania's Office of the Blind, said the Pennsylvania youths had lain on their backs because they thought it was a good position for experiencing the effects of the drug "and were not consciously looking at the sun." He said doctors surmise the drug caused the students' eyelids to remain open.

Yoder, interviewed by telephone from his office in Harrisburg, said the Pennsylvania students had gone in the morning to a wooded area within walking distance of the college campus.

They were found that afternoon, about six hours later, by fellow students who knew of the drug-taking plans. The victims were helpless when they were found, Yoder said.

The young men are receiving rehabilitation services from the Pennsylvania Department of Welfare, said Yoder.

'TERRIBLE THING'

Dr. Leon Jacobs, deputy assistant secretary for scientific affairs for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, expressed hope "the demonstration of what a terrible thing happened to them may keep other kids away from it (LSD)."

LAST ROMP — Air Force S. Sgt. John L. Wolfe plays yesterday with his two sons, Ralph (back), 4, and George, 5, at Columbus Air Force Base in Mississippi. Wolfe, who is a widower, has been ordered to Vietnam and plans to place three of his six children in an orphanage. Relatives will care for three other children who are too young to be accepted by the orphanage.

Romney Avoids Off-the-Cuff Viet Remarks

From Our News Wires

MANCHESTER, N.H. — Gov. George Romney is avoiding any off-the-cuff remarks on the Vietnam war during his New Hampshire presidential primary campaign which entered its second day today.

But he says he will outline his views on the war in a speech within the next few days.

After a 17-hour opening day of handshaking and speaking, sometimes outside in the snow and cold, the Michigan governor seeks votes for the March 12 primary in four towns today, beginning with an appearance at a school cafeteria in Raymond.

"We must pursue peace with all the vigor and ingenuity at our command," Romney said last night, discussing Vietnam in a speech at Exeter. "And in working for peace . . ."

"How?" came a shout from amid the audience of some 800, largely made up of teen-age students at Phillips Exeter Academy.

EXPLAINS RELUCTANCE

"I'll tell you," Romney replied, "I'm going to make a talk here in New Hampshire in the next few days and I expect to spell out some of the alternatives. But in working for peace a Republican president will not be manacled by the mistakes of the past."

In the crowded living room of a Durham home, Romney had explained his reluctance to discuss the war issue off the cuff.

"To hit a point or two here is to imperil myself the way I have in the past by answering press questions on Vietnam," he said

As he wound up his first campaign day, Romney pronounced his New Hampshire reception "wonderful."

'GREAT DAY'

"I've had a great day," he said. "I've had a friendly reception all along the line."

That was not the kind of reception he got to his challenge to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, his chief New Hampshire rival, to conduct a series of campaign debates.

A spokesman in New York said Nixon would have nothing to say on the Romney challenge now because the former vice president is not an announced candidate for the GOP presidential nomination.

Nevertheless, Romney's own polls indicate Nixon holds a lead in New Hampshire.

Viet Copter Crash Feared Fatal to 41

SAIGON (AP) — A big U.S. Marine helicopter crashed into a mountain south of the Demilitarized Zone five days ago, and all 41 Americans aboard are feared killed, the U.S. Command reported today.

Rescue parties were waiting for the weather to improve before setting out for the rugged crash site. If they found all the men on the craft dead, it would be the worst helicopter disaster of the war.

Pending further reports, the U.S. Command listed as missing the five-man Marine crew and 36 passengers — 31 Marines, three Navy men, one Army man and a civilian employe of the Army's post exchange system.

Vietcong guerrillas are known to operate in the area, and the command declined to give a detailed report on the crash because, it said, "Additional information might endanger the lives of the survivors, if there are any."

The command said the hump-backed CH53 helicopter, the largest troop-carrying type operating in South Vietnam, crashed Monday night on a trip from Dong Ha, 11 miles south of the DMZ, to Phu Bai, 49 miles farther south. One spokesman said poor weather was a factor in the crash.

NO SIGN OF LIFE

The wreckage was spotted yesterday morning by an observation plane. An Air Force rescue helicopter hovered over the site for a few minutes but had to leave because of worsening weather. The rescue crew reported no sign of life on the ground.

A Marine spokesman in Da Nang said fighter-bombers have blasted a small landing zone in the overhanging forest. But efforts to get rescuers in by ground or air were thwarted by rain and fog.

VP Tells California Dems: Feud Could Defeat Johnson

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey warned California's feuding Democrats today that disagreements over the Vietnam war could defeat President Johnson in November.

"A Republican candidate could possibly be elected, if by our disunity and disarray we help him," the vice president said.

Humphrey, in California on a political peacemaking mission from Washington, made his unity plea in a speech prepared for delivery to a Democratic conference launching the state party's 1968 campaign.

But he found himself competing with U.S. Sen. Eugene McCarthy, from his own state of Minnesota, who also is in Fresno, campaigning against a pro-Johnson slate of delegates in the June presidential primary.

McCarthy, a Democrat who opposes the war, is backed by a slate of peace delegates.

PRIMARY STAKES

At stake in the primary are California's votes at the National Democratic convention, a block second in size only to New York's.

"If you want to continue our progress, reelect Lyndon Johnson," Humphrey said.

Humphrey, who supports the war, said "There is room for disagreement, discussion and debate in tnis party."

"All that I ask of my friends who have various degrees of disagreement on Vietnam is to remember that the issue of Vietnam is not the only issue that we face as a nation," he said. "Nor can it be allowed to obscure the other critical challenges before us today.

Hippie, Friends Held in Murder

BUNNELL, Fla. (AP) — Until a week ago, Melodie Rae Tuegel lived in the turned-on hippie world of LSD, crash pads, and cross-country hitchhiking. She avoided "plastic people."

The 19-year-old Portland, Ore., native now lives in the Flagler County jail. She describes herself as a sometime wanderer and a full-time hippie.

Miss Tuegel, or "Cricket" as she prefers to be called, is being held as a material witness in the murders of Daniel Schoultz, 18, of Bloomfield, Ind., and James Moore, 18, of San Anselmo, Calif.

The two youths were found shot to death in a weedy ditch alongside busy U.S. 1 near Daytona Beach Nov. 29, 1967.

Norman Garrett, 27, of Berns, Ore., and Kit Hayden, 21, of Baton Rouge, La., have been charged with first-degree murder in the two deaths.

Hayden was arrested about a week later as he got off a bus pulling into New Orleans and until yesterday refused to waive extradition.

Pontiac Sales Up for 10-Day Period

Pontiac Motor Division sold 19,002 Pontiacs, Tempests and Firebirds in the first 10 days of 1968, 2,037 cars more than in the same period a year ago, according to Thomas L. King, general sales manager.

In the Jan. 1-10 period of 1967, the division sold 16,965 units, King said.

Teen-Age Killers Come Cheap

CHICAGO (UPI) — Six dollars and a sandwich bought a murder on the south side. That can be a lot of money to a 13-year-old "hit man" of the Negro ghetto.

Other payments run as high as $61 for other "hit men" — juveniles 13 through 16 recruited by youth gangs to wipe out opponents or encroachers on their dope-peddling business.

But Asst. State's Atty. John Stamos today is pressing hard an investigation into more startling reports — that the gangs have been infiltrated by Black Power elements and the violence-encouraging Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

Stamos refused to confirm the Black Power reports, but one of his assistants said the office has evidence those elements have attempted to infiltrate such Negro gangs as the Blackstone Rangers, which has engaged in open warfare with police and rival gangs.

Stamos said the young "hit men" a term for hired killers apparently were being used because Illinois law and the courts are lenient with felony defendents under 17 and protect them from punishment as adults.

LAW CHANGE

The investigator suggested a change in the law which says a person under 17 convicted of murder must be turned over to the Illinois Youth Commission, which may release him at its discretion after two years.

"Boys 13, 14 and 15 years old are involved," Stamos said yesterday in revealing the murder ring. "The boys are paid to commit murder."

He said at least six murders by the young triggermen are known and that some have been taken into custody.

One 13-year-old was paid $6 and a sandwich for his part last September in shooting to death one man and wounding two others the Rangers said were selling narcotics in the South Side Wodlawn area without their permission.

NEW CLOTHING

A 16-year-old boy said he was paid with $50 worth of new clothing just before a shooting. His victim was Glenroy Stansberry, 13.

Jeff Fort, 20, and two 16-year-olds have been indicted for the Stansberry shooting. Fort was identified as a former leader of the Rangers.

Other juveniles arrested have implicated men in their 20s and 30s as leaders of the Rangers and other gang youth groups.

Police report a stepped-up movement to recruit youths in their early teens into the gangs. At the same time, they said, the gang warfare and killing appears to have spread far enough beyond the Woodlawn area to cause alarm

Blanket of Snow Expected in Area

Sihanouk: Defeated U.S. Hawks

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Cambodia's Prince Norodom Sihanouk has claimed that Cambodia won "an enormous success" over American war hawks through the visit of U.S. Ambassador Chester Bowles this week.

He also says the Cambodian police have smashed a Communist plot to assassinate President Tito of Yugoslavia when he visits Phnom Penh next week.

Speaking on Cambodian Radio last night, Sihanouk said Cambodia had taken advantage of the differences between Vietnam hawks and doves in the United States to "cajole" President Johnson into sending Bowles to negotiate.

The Cambodian leader said the Americans had agreed not to pursue the Vietcong into Cambodia but had asked Cambodia to "denounce the Vietcong presence and chase them out."

He said he would "chase them out," but he would not denounce them because the Vietcong were friends of Cambodia.

'HOT PURSUIT'

Because the United States had agreed to "relinquish the right of hot pursuit," he had chosen peace with America, Sihanouk said.

He said Cambodia had two conditions the United States must fulfill before diplomatic relations, broken in 1965 over alleged border violations, were restored.

First was recognition of the current borders and the second was a pledge not to violate Cambodian territory. Sihanouk said the United States had fulfilled the second condition and "50 per cent of the first" by recognizing Cambodia's territorial integrity.

Sihanouk said four Chinese have been arrested in the Tito assassination plot and a radio and four crates of "very powerful hand grenades" seized.

BLOW UP CITY

"They were awaiting the arrival of Tito, at which point they were going to blow all Phnom Penh sky high in the hopes of assassinating Tito," Sihanouk said.

He said the police and military have been given orders to take "strict measures" against the Cambodian Communits, who would be brought before Cambodian courts "and shot if necessary."

The prince said the Communists had distributed pamphlets denouncing the Tito visit and accusing Sihanouk of being a "lackey of the Americans as well as of Tito." Tito has held Yugoslavia independent of both the Soviet Union and China in the world Communist movement.

King Urges Viet Protest

NEW YORK (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is calling for a mass rally of the nation's clergy and laymen in Washington, D.C., next month to protest the war in Vietnam. "We need to make clear in this political year, to congressmen on both sides of the aisle and to the President of the United States, that we will no longer tolerate, we will no longer vote for, men who continue to see the killing of Vietnamese and Americans as the best way of advancing the goals of freedom and self-determination in Southeast Asia," he said.

Heart Recipients OK

By The Associated Press

Doctors attending the world's two surviving heart transplant recipients today indicated qualified approval of their patients' progress although California steelworker Mike Kasperak was still on the critical list. Dr. Christiaan N. Barnard said today in Cape Town, South Africa, that retired dentist Philip Blaiberg has complained of tiredness, and routine tests on him were being relaxed to allow him more rest.

3 More U.S. Defectors

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The influx of American military deserters to Sweden continued today as three more U.S. servicemen sought refuge. The three—Army Pvt. Kennan Lee Fulks of Boulder, Colo. Lawrence Bertheaud of New Orleans, La., and Robert Bourroughs—came to the Swedish Vietnam Committee and have asked for political asylum, a committee spokesman said. It was reported that Fulks deserted from Ft. Bliss, Tex. Of the other two, one came from an Army unit in Mannheim, West Germany.

'200 Chinese Killed'

TOKYO (AP) — Moscow Radio said today more than 200 starving peasants were killed by Red soldiers when they rebelled against the Chairman Mao Tse-tung leadership in Kwangtun Province last month. In a Japanese-language broadcast monitored in Tokyo, Moscow Radio said because of a food shortage, peasants revolted in a village 7 miles from Canton, captial of the province, in late December. Pro-Mao troops quickly quelled the revolt, the broadcast added.

Russia to Shift Envoys

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russian sources report the Soviet Union is preparing to reshuffle its diplomatic representation in the West, replacing Anatoly F. Dobrynin as ambassador to the United States and bringing back Jacob A. Malik as U.N. ambassador. Malik, 61, will take back his old post at the United Nations from Nikolai T. Fedorenko, 56, who has held it since 1962. The sources said Fedorenko is ready to step down next month.

Pole Expelled by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, responding to Poland's expulsion this week of an American military attache, has given an assistant military attache of the Polish Embassy one week to leave the country. The State Department made no charge yesterday against Lt. Col. Henryk Pojmanski in ordering his expulsion. Pojmanski, 39, joined the Polish Embassy staff in Washington last October.

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Israeli and Jordanian troops traded machine-gun fire across the Jordan River south of the Sea of Galilee today, an army announcement said. The Israelis accused the Jordanians of opening up with machine-gun fire on an Israeli border patrol jeep. The Israelis said they returned the fire and the exchange lasted about an hour. Later, the army said, the Jordanians again opened up with machine guns from the same position. The shooting was continuing more than an hour later.

Substitute Teachers Are Sought

BIRMINGHAM — A call for substitute teachers has been issued by the Birmingham school district.

At the elementary level, teachers are needed in art, music and physical education.

At the secondary level, there is a need for junior high school mathematics teachers and counselors to assume assignments for the remainder of the school year. A few positions are available immediately.

Especially needed are former teachers who do not desire full-teaching at this time, but who would consider a substitute assignment.

Instructors who have had 60 semester hours or 90 term hours of college training may qualify for minimum certification. However, a bachelor's degree and teaching certificate are preferred.

Those interested in substitute full-time teaching may contact the district's personnel department, located in the Hill Building at Chester and Merrill.

A local development firm, Howard T. Keating Co. of 725 S. Adams Square, has begun construction on a new office building at 6366 Orchard Lake, West Bloomfield Township.

Half of the new structure will be headquarters for the company's new West Bloomfield real estate operation, but approximately 6,000 square feet of space will be available for lease to other companies.

The building, designed by Lorenz & Paski, Inc., is expected to be ready for occupancy in August.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Registration for the winter recreation program is under way.

The new term starts Jan. 27, for most children's and youth activities. Those desiring to register may do so at the recreation office, located in the Andover High School building, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Foe of Surtax Warns LBJ on Budget Hike

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills D-Ark., says he will continue to oppose President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent surtax if federal spending increases in the 1968-69 fiscal year as much as it did in the current fiscal year.

The chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee said Friday he had heard that the administration planned an administrative budget of $148 billion to $149 billion in fiscal 1969.

He said this was too large to meet the conditions laid down by him and his committee for considering the surtax on income tax, which was shelved last year by the committee. It wants a corresponding reduction in spending.

Expenditures in the administrative budget in the 1968 fiscal year are expected to be $136.2 billion compared to $125 billion in the previous fiscal year. No official figures for the 1969 budget have been announced.

HOLD SPENDING

Mills said he thought most federal agencies should hold spending in the next fiscal year to as close to $125 billion as possible and not let the level of expenditures rise "as they normally do from one fiscal year to the other."

"Now, we can't do it on interest on the public debt or the cost of the Vietnam war, but we can on other government agencies," Mills said. He spoke during a panel interview over station KARK-TV in Little Rock taped for presentation next week.

He said that if the $11-to-12-billion increase he understands the administration plans to seek was earmarked for the Vietnam war "that would be a different thing."

"But we are told the costs, the monetary costs, of the Vietnam war are beginning to level out," he said. "So such an increase in 1969 over 1968 could not be apparently attributable entirely to the additional costs in Vietnam."

Mills said the $11-to-12-billion figure doesn't represent "the degree of belt-tightening on the part of the government that I think must accompany the belt-tightening on the part of the individual when we ask him to pay more money."

Castro Offers Prisoner Deal

To Free 100 if Bolivia Gives Up Che's Body

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro says he will free 100 "ringleader" political prisoners if Bolivia hands over the remains of slain guerrilla leader Ernesto Che Guevara. But he apparently won't for French writer Regis Debray.

Debray is serving a 30-year term in a Bolivian prison on charges of helping a Castroite guerrilla band led by Guevara. Bolivian President Reine Borrientos has suggested Bolivia might consider exchanging him for Huber Matos, a former revolutionary who broke with Castro and has been a prisoner in Cuba since 1959.

Castro set forth his terms for an exchange Friday night in a two-hour speech in which he described the United States as "a truly universal enemy whose attitude threatens the entire world" and whose "policy reminds us today of the policy of Hitler, the acts of barbarism of Nazism."

CLOSED CONFAB

The speech, among Castro's most strongly anti-American pronouncements, closed the nine-day Havana cultural congress of more than 400 leftist intellectuals from 70 countries.

A former comrade-in-arms of Castro, Guevara was slain by Bolivian soldiers in October. Officials said the body was cremated. Castro said Cuba's enemies fear Guevara "more dead than alive."

If Barrientos wants Cuban prisoners freed, Castro said, "We say to him: produce the remains of Maj. Guevara and we will free them immediately."

General Motors Recalls 35,250 1968 Chevelles

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. recalled 35,250 of its 1968 model Chevrolet division Chevelle models Friday. But it said a possible brake defect was not serious enough to cause major braking problems in most models.

GM said 250 cars with power brakes may have been assembled with a locknut missing from the end of the master cylinder push rod.

3 Men Survive 7 Days in Stormy Waters of Gulf

FREEPORT, Tex. (AP) — Three hardy bricklayers who rode out the stormy Gulf of Mexico for seven days with canned sausages, a six-pack of beer and an undying belief that they would be rescued came home Friday night to the cheers of friends and relatives.

The three were seen in their 19-foot boat late Friday by crewmen of the Coast Guard cutter Legare. The Legare at the time was steaming back to port, having given up the search for W. J. Morvant, 45, Richard Morvant, 23, and Paul Bailey, 22, all from Groves, Tex.

Twenty-five friends and relatives showed up at this gulf coastal city Friday night when the Legare and the fishermen came in.

"We never gave up," said W. J. Morvant. He said a few airplanes swooped over their 19-foot radioless boat without seeing them.

Morvant, his son and Bailey left early Saturday for a fishing trip far out near some offshore drilling rigs in the Gulf of Mexico. They carried beer, three cans of soft drinks, bread and Vienna sausages.

The bread and sausages lasted three days. They drank the beer and soft drinks the first day.

"It was so cold for the first four days we didn't even want a drink of water," Bailey said.

The three were tossed about in their boat as a bitter northern storm kicked up 10-foot swells in the gulf.

"The cold was the worst thing," Bailey said. "I have never in my life been so cold for so long."

CLEAN SHAVEN

The three came ashore clean-shaven and wearing borrowed Coast Guard clothing. It was almost impossible to distinguish the rescued from the rescuers, save for the shouting relatives and friends who rushed to greet them.

Eight of Bailey's nine brothers were on hand. The eight had taken off from their bricklaying jobs all week to search the coves and inlets around Sabine Pass, 100 miles up the coast.

The fishermen's 19-foot boat was disabled when salt water got into the engine coil. It was finally spotted 60 miles south of Freeport.

Murder Plot in NY Case, Lawyer Says

NEW YORK (AP) — An assistant U.S. Attorney says a plot ness in the kickback case against former City Water Commissioner James L. Marcus had progressed to the point where "only the trigger had to be pulled."

Asst. U. S. Atty. Michael Fawer made the disclosure Friday as he argued successfully for $100,000 bail for Robert H. Roden, 39-year-old ex-convict accused of trying to hire the murder of the federal witness.

Meanwhile, there were published reports that federal authorities were seeking a second man in the alleged murder plot. The reports quoted sources close to the investigation as saying an arrest was expected soon.

At Roden's arraignment, Fawer said the suspected plotter met several times early this month with a man who turned out to be a government informer and offered the man money to murder the government witness.

Six Castro Foes Given Prison for Hijacking Ship

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) Six men convicted of hijacking a freighter for anti-Castro activities were sentenced Friday to terms ranging from six months to three years in jail despite a plea for probation by their attorney.

"These men are not criminals," attorney Aram Goshgarian told the court. "The only record they have is when they were imprisoned by Castro after the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion."

He said the "only crime these men have committed is a crime against property. There was no cruelty or hatred involved."

The six were convicted of trying to steal the 2,700-ton freight transporter off Miami Beach last July 11.

China Claims Alleged U.S. Raid Was 5th

TOKYO (UPI) — An alleged raid on Yunnan Province Sunday by planes of "U.S. imperialism and its lackeys, the Loatian rightists" was the fifth such attack on China since Sept. Sept. 5, 1966, China charged yesterday.

The Chinese language broadcast, heard in Tokyo, claimed these other U.S. bombings of China:

- Sept. 5, 1966, U.S. plane bombed the Yu Yi Kuang area near the South China-Vietnam border.
- Sept. 9, 1966, two F105 fighter - bombers strafed, bombed and rocketed the Kwangsi Chuan autonomous area in south China near the Vietnamese border, wounding three tribesmen, damaging two houses and killing an ox.
- May 2, 1967, four F105s again bombed homes in the Kwangsi Chuang autonomous area, damaging three houses.
- July 12, 1967, four F105s fired missles over the western part of the Kwangsi Chuang area, injuring four border guards and damaging a building.

Powell Exits; '$500 Motel Bill Is Unpaid'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Student leaders at the University of California at Los Angeles say Adam Clayton Powell has left a $500 motel bill unpaid and that they are going to send it to his home in the Bahamas.

Powell canceled some scheduled speeches Friday and there was some controversy over that as well.

The Associated Students at UCLA said they had paid Powell $1,250 that was to include expenses for a speech Thursday, the first speech of his U.S. tour after he ended his self-imposed exile.

For three days he stayed at a plush motel near the UCLA campus.

WINED, DINED

"We hosted the man, wined and dined the man, more than I thought was necessary," said one spokesman for the students, "But he seemed to expect even more."

Powell was paid the $1,250 but left the motel bill unpaid, the student leaders said.

They said he had asked for $2,000 plus expenses for speaking but was informed by letter that "due to budget limitations our maximum honorarium, to include expenses, is $1,250."

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. O'Donnell of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., (formerly of Detroit) announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Anne, to John Philip Narrin, son of the Joe W. Narrins of Lauren Court. The bride elect is a graduate of Florida Atlantic University. Her fiance attended the University of Cincinnati.

An early June wedding is planned by Tolly Jo Dickson and John Vincent Gaul. Miss Dickson, a graduate of Michigan State University, is the daughter of the Joe C. Dicksons of Spur Hill Drive. Her fiance, a junior in the School of Dentistry at the University of Detroit, is the son of the Bernard W. Gauls of Royal Oak.

Not Mannerly for Her Guest to Ask Question

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it good manners for guests at a meal to ask the hostess if she made the pie or cake, or other food that appears on the table? I have two or three friends who do just that. Sometimes I have bought a pie or cake but served it so that no one would know unless, of course, the question is asked.

Am I wrong to think this is my affair alone, especially when I give others this same consideration?—Mrs. A.

Dear Mrs. A.: It is not in the best of taste for a guest to ask whether the hostess baked the desert, or whatever. As you suggest, it may force her to reveal a secret she has gone to some lengths to protect, and it's no one's business where the delicious dish came from.

Ideally, the guest simply says how delicious the pie is and the hostess, if she wishes, may reply, "You couldn't have said anything nicer—I baked it myself," or "Thanks so much, that new Sugarsweet Bakery is marvelous."

The following letter makes a good point. While I maintain that places should not be set differently for left-handed people, Mrs. Davis' mother was quite right in considering where they were seated.

By putting a "southpaw" at a corner curve or the end where he will not be bumping elbows with his neighbor as he eats, he and the person on his left will both be more comfortable.

Total Impact-Today's Style Trend

Instant impact, instant communication, instant color! Never before has there been such a race for immediate impressions — in news reporting, entertainment, business, and above all, fashion. "The modern eye is alarm-set for instant reaction," says noted designer Adele Simpson, who keys her new spring resort collection to this formula for today's jet-paced world.

"Today's fashion-wise woman creates an instant response," says Mrs. Simpson. "One glance at her and you get the message, the mood, the flair. It all happens in that critical first impression."

So, the Adele Simpson look is purposefully eye-arresting. The silhouette, the colors, the textures and the excitement are designed for instant — and powerful — impact.

The shape is youthful slenderness. The color is vibrant. The textures are striking. And the excitement is in the instant magnetism of the designs.

MIDDY DRESS

One chrome gray wool middy dress is flashed with a linen V-line inset at the neck. Another, in navy, is touched with an outburst of lingerie ruffles that flare with young feminity. A springwater green crepe middy dress has frog closings, and a shell-printed silk middy mixes colors of orange and bonnie blue.

Adele Simpson's coat costumes for spring and resort create instant harmony. For a busy day in town one silk coat-dress and shirt goes from morning until evening in eye-catching swirls of brown, black with white circles and dots. A navy coat-dress trumpets a fresh splash of white, and black Alaskine coat-dress version is springtime young.

Other coat costumes are planned in composition. A navy wool coat harmonizes with the contemporary print in a white and navy silk dress. A pink and navy coat of light wool streaks lines across squares and is set off by a navy pleated jumper-dress with a collage pink silk shirt. Adele Simpson's wily chameleon coat in a mixture of pink, green and blue blossoms that changes in color impact according to its dress-mate.

FOR EVENING

The evening impression is instantly feminine in Adele Simpson's soft laces and organzas. A stunning black jersey top has a neckline that plunges toward swirling lace-and-organza tucked skirt. A re-embroidered organza shirt-dress is sashed at the waist with collage pink satin, and blond blowered lace combines a full skirt with a little jacket. A navy lace schoolgirl dress is touched with white organdy, and black Alaskine skirt with an A-shape front panel and a tucked organza shirt is designed to stop traffic at a glance.

Among the instant-impact-patterns and fabrics in the Adele Simpson collection are paired geodesic prints. One is Alaskine suit costume with a black jersey top, and the other is an A-shape dress with its own matching silk scarf. Both dress and suit are presented in interesting double squares of beige on black. A pair in airweight wool features jacquard squares in flash red. The weskit jacket over the flash red dress adds up to a double impact.

Other suit costumes are in gay plaids and checks. A blond wool suit costume boasts a lined check jacket. A marigold cotton suit comes in a diminutive check. And one silk plaid combines many browns into a suit-costume with a matching dress.

For the coming spring and resort season Adele Simpson sets a modern fashion pace that fills the modern demand for immediate sensory response — for total and instant impact.

Providing a youthful and refreshingly chic look from the Adele Sampson collection is this grey, glen plaid worsted little dress. Pique cuffs and overcollar add finishing touches to the princess styled ensemble.

Exhibition Intermedia to Explore All Forms of Art Starting Sunday

The farthest horizons of current art will be explored by Birmingham art buffs when the Bloomfield Art Association presents Exhibitions Intermedia opening Sunday.

Selected, piece by piece by artists Jeanne Gardner, Lillian Hoppin and Rosemary Allen, the exhibition puts on display works which represent a mixture of two and three dimensional media.

From the stainless steel by Pistoletto, whose work received acclaim in a recent Time magazine article, to the structurist reliefs of David Barr, the show will include the best works from local artists and galleries in this art medium which falls somewhere between painting and sculpture — as traditionally accepted.

INVITATIONAL

An invitational show, which includes such noted artists as Robert Rauchenberg, Andy Warhol, Glen Michaels and James Rosenquist, this will, more than any other exhibition presented by the BAA, command the participation of the viewer.

It demonstrates that the distinctions between painting and sculpture, drawing and even ceramics become more blurred as artists experiment with new media, expand the old and introduce a mixture of traditional two and three dimensional media. Each work has a third dimension. In some it is an optical illusion.

In some it is actual and in the case of the Pistoletto, it requires the participation of the viewer, whose reflection completes the picture.

The exhibition chairmen have arranged for the gallery visitors to create their own "Intermedia" with a catalogue, designed by Joyce Nagel, which can be folded into a cube.

The works on display have been loaned by the artists, the owners and by London Arts, Gertrude Kasle, J. L. Hudson, Franklin Siden, Lawrence Stevens, Lantern, Little and Kazimir Galleries.

Intermedia will be on display through Feb. 4 at the Birmingham Art Center, South Cranbrook Road, Birmingham. Gallery hours are 2 to 5 p.m. except Mondays.

Calendar

TODAY

Bonneville Duplicate Bridge Club, 8 p.m., The Pontiac Mall Community Room. All bridge players may attend.

MONDAY

Areme Chapter No. 503, OES, 8 p.m., special meeting at the Roosevelt Temple.

Chancel Players, 8 p.m., East Iroquois Road home of Mrs. Thomas Sherwood.

Chapter AW, PEO, 8 p.m., Newberry Street home of Mrs. Norman Allen. Marion Emery will read President's Letter. Mrs. William Kalwitz assists hostess.

Sylvan Shores Women's Club, 8 p.m., home of Mrs. William Hutchinson of Shore View Drive.

Drayton Woods Women's Club, 8 p.m. at Thomas Cooley School. "Inside Russia" topic of guest speaker, Mrs. David Saks.

The newlyweds, who will make their home in Rockford, are honewmooning in St. Petersburg, Fla.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem which I have had for nearly 21 years. My daughter, Lulu, has been terrified of doctors ever since she was a tiny baby, and she seems to be getting worse every year. The few times she has had to have medical care she has passed out at the sight of a doctor.

ABBY

Please help me to get her over this, Abby.

A person has to see a doctor and dentist every once in a while, and I have to find some way of getting Lulu there without going through all kinds of hell. (Excuse the expression.) Thank you.

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: It's a pretty good guess that your daughter was frightened by a doctor (probably in a white coat) when she was a baby, and consequently the mere sight of a man in a white coat triggers this deeply-rooted fear.

If Lulu is to overcome this obsession, she will have to cooperate with still another doctor. (One who deals with emotional problems, but happily he won't wear a white coat.) You can move heaven and earth, Mother, but you can't help her until she wants to help herself.

DEAR ABBY: I have wanted to be an air line hostess for as far back as I can remember, and I know I would be a good one. But I have a problem. My mother and father don't like the idea. They say it is too dangerous.

Abby, there are risks in every profession, and I have spoken to girls who have flown with the different air lines for years and they don't seem to think it's dangerous. What do you think? I have talked my heart out. What can I tell my parents to make them change their minds?

AMY

DEAR AMY: According to the most recent statistics, air travel is one of the safest methods of transportation. Last year the fatality rate on scheduled United States air lines was 0.07 per 100 million passenger miles, as compared with 0.16 for railroads, and 2.4 for autos.

One air line has never had an injury or fatality to passengers or crew members in its entire 20-year history. In this time it carried 15 million passengers over two billion miles. If 15 million people were to take showers, you could expect a few to slip on the soap.

DEAR ABBY: You recently had a letter in your column from a service man who complained because he didn't get any mail. One very important question: Did he WRITE to anybody? My own case: My boyfriend (fiance) called me collect last MAY from Massachusetts, where he was in an army school. He said he was being shipped out the following day and would write to me as soon as he had an address where I could write to him.

In JUNE he sent me a postcard from Athens, Greece. He said he was having a "great" time and was on his way to Ethiopia. (Still no address where I could write to him.)

In AUGUST he wrote from Ethiopia saying he had been there for two months and it wasn't bad at all. This time he included an address, so I answered his letter right away and I haven't heard from him since.

He complained in his letter that nobody had written to him. (I wonder where he expected them to address their letters?) He isn't in a war zone, and he is not suffering any hardships because he writes that he is living in a bungalow and is teaching at the university at night. What do you think of this?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: I think your fiance is lazy, inconsiderate, and something less than gung ho about you. And unless he can explain his long silences, shower him with indifference.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BARBARA IN CLAYTON, MO.: You are not alone, my dear. When a man makes a woman his wife, it's the highest compliment he can pay her. And it's usually the last.

Class Will Review Issues

The first winter term class offered by the Village Woman's Club on East Long Lake Road is "Themes and Issues in Contemporary Literature" under Seymour Riklin. It begins Jan. 31 at 9:30 a.m.

This is a brainstorming course hitting at philosophical themes and issues of the last two hundred years and how they relate to literature of the 19 and 20 centuries.

Professor Raklin, a graduate of University of Chicago has taught at the University of Michigan, Western Reserve University and Wayne State University.

In 1960 he was given the "Teacher of the Year" award by the Adult Education Association.

The eight - session class, along with others in crafts, bridge, history, international cuisine, dancing, slymnastics and languages, is open for registration on Jan. 22 from 10 a.m. until noon at the club.

Club members working on the details of winter term classes are Mrs. Chester Wisniewski, Mrs. John Ballantyne and Mrs. John C. Siegesmund Jr.

All classes at the Village Woman's Club are open to the public. Further information may be had by calling the club.

Miss Kate Boone, a descendant of Daniel Boone, is shown with Kathy DeLaney, 16, the sixth generation of the same family to receive voice lessons from Miss Boone. The veteran instructor has been giving lessons for 81 years and now receives her students in her quarters in a nursing home.

Charleston Woman Still Teaching at 96

CHARLESTON, Mo. (AP) — Pride in her ancestry, her adopted home in Charleston and 81 years' service as a music teacher highlight the life of Miss Kate Boone, still a voice and piano instructor at 96.

Miss Boone is a descendant of the Kentucky frontierman, Daniel Boone.

One of her voice pupils was Betty Cooper, who became the wife of Missouri Gov. Warren E. Hearnes.

"She has a beautiful voice," Miss Boone said.

The nearly blind woman gives lessons in her quarters at a nursing home. She began losing her sight 25 years ago.

Miss Boone uses a strong light on her piano to teach. She minimizes the glare by wearing an eyeshade.

One of her voice pupils is Kathy DeLaney, 16, a high school sophomore who is the sixth generation of her family Miss Boone has taught.

Miss Boone, who thinks she may be the nation's oldest music teacher, doesn't believe rock 'n' roll is music, but she insists "all music has its place."

"Every child should begin with classical music, because it is the basis of all music," she said.

JAZZ

She acknowledges jazz has merit.

"Guy Lombardo and a few other top band leaders produce beautiful music," she said.

Miss Boone lived 22 years in her native Clinton, Ky. Her great-great grandfather, Bryant Boone, was a brother of Daniel Boone.

The family moved to Charleston in 1893. She is the youngest and last surviving child of Judge and Mrs. William Fenton Boone's 10 sons and three daughters.

Chilly Weather Plus Mini-Maids Equal Fat Legs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Miniskirts and cold weather lead to just one thing, the Federal Housing Administration says: fat legs.

Chilly knees would not seem to be in FHA's normal jurisdiction but the federal agency has an employe health division that worries about all those government girls.

"The legs of young women respond quite rapidly to exposure to cold temperatures," a health division memo says.

"The bodily response is a quick build-up of successive layers of fatty molecules under the skin areas of the thighs, knees, calves and ankles of female legs."

And once a leg that's left out in the cold gets that chubby look it can be made trim again only by "extraordinary exercises that most women find difficult to maintain," the bulletin says.

Membership Tea Set

A membership tea will be held Monday at 1 p.m. by the Bloomfield Republican Women's Club.

Guest speaker for the affair, hosted by Mrs. Robert H. Pastor of Bloomfield Hills is William P. Hampton, representative for the 65th district.

All members are encouraged to bring guests.

PLAY SUNDAY — Rehearsing the duet they will play at morning service tomorrow in Fellowship Baptist Church are Anna Seavey of 2388 Pauline and Tracy Whitcomb of 1029 Olson, both of Waterford Township. Fellowship Church is located at 1240 Jay Rd., Waterford Township. Anna and Tracy are members of the church youth group.

REV. BILLY WALKER

YFC Rally Slated at Lincoln Jr. High

The regular monthly rally of Oakland Youth for Christ is scheduled for 7:30 tonight at Lincoln Junior High School with the Rev. Billy Walker, well-known evangelist, the speaker.

The Youth for Christ Chorus directed by William Ballard and Youth for Christ Trumpet Trio will present special music.

Norman Clothier, director, announces a good club time is also planned.

Medieval Bell Foundry Found

YORK, England (AP) — A medieval bell foundry has been unearthed under the central tower of York Minster during engineering work being carried out to strengthen the building.

The foundry was built in the 13th Century to cast the bells for the belfry of John le Romanus, which was on the site of the present 15th-Century tower.

Christian Soldiers, Sunnyvale Theme

The second annual Loyal Legion Banquet of Sunnyvale Chapel will be held at 6:30 tonight in the multipurpose room of the church. Decorations for the catered dinner in red, white and blue will depict Civil War times. The theme is "Christian Soldiers."

The church staff will present a comedy skit and a string ensemble will provide music.

A color film entitled "Red Runs the River," produced by the Bob Jones University, will be shown.

There are 146 persons attending the banquet who didn't miss more than one Wednesday evening service a month for at least nine months. Forty-seven of these were present for 12 months. Sixty-four are children and young people.

Mrs. V. L. Martin, the pastor's wife said everyone is welcome to attend the midweek services at Sunnyvale Chapel.

Three classes are now being offered including "False Cults" taught by the pastor; "Teaching Techniques" by the Rev. Jim DeGraw; and "Soul Winning and Visitation" with the Rev. Bob Steward, the instructor.

Average attendance on Wednesday nights during 1967 was 288 persons.

Friendship Lunch; Men Plan Dinner

The Women's Society for Christian Service of Central Methodist Church will hold its Friendship Gardens luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday with Dr. Harriet C. Mills, associate professor of Chinese language at the University of Michigan guest speaker.

"What China Is Like Today" will be her topic.

Dr. Mills was interned in China with her missionary parents by the Communists following World War II.

Luncheon tables will be arranged for four in a garden setting. Church women will entertain friends for the luncheon program.

Men of the church will entertain Methodist Men of the Greater Pontiac Area at a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday

Guest speaker will be the Rev. Woodie White, coordinator of Methodist Inner City Church Work, Detroit.

A graduate of Paine College and Boston University School of Theology, the Rev. Mr. White was appointed to East Grand Boulevard Methodist Church of Detroit in 1961. He was appointed pastor in 1963.

"How We Can Support the Inner-City Ministry?" is his topic.

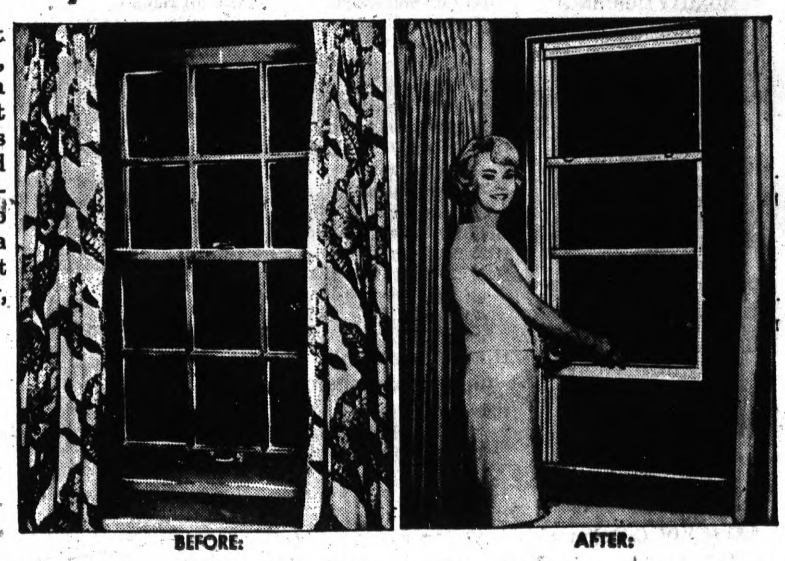
Conserve Heat, Save Fuel

Outdated Drafty House Windows Are Replaced By Low-Cost NU-SASH

Doing something about those old-fashioned, drafty, hard-to-wash house windows that cause high heating bills has been a vexing and costly problem for homeowners who want to modernize. However, a handsome new product now provides an easy, inexpensive solution.

The product — Nu-Sash — is an aluminum unit specifically designed to replace old worn-out house windows. The low cost, including installation, is approximately 40% less than any other methods of renovating old windows.



BEFORE: Old window is unsightly, hard to wash, is difficult to open, and lets in wind and cold.

AFTER: Nu-Sash replacement window is attractive, seals tightly, lifts out for easy cleaning.

One Low Price

There is no costly remodeling or construction work when you convert to Nu-Sash. Inside plaster and woodwork is never disturbed. The unique and sturdy installation process is one of the main reasons Nu-Sash are so economical. The average window can be converted in minutes

Savings in heating bills will pay for a Nu-Sash conversion. Although low in cost, Nu-Sash windows are packed with outstanding features unmatched by any other window. These features greatly reduce housework, eliminate maintenance, and add eye-appeal. For example:

Stretching and straining on ladders is completely eliminated since Nu-Sash lift out for easy cleaning.

Painting, puttying, and almost all other maintenance is completely eliminated since Nu-Sash are constructed entirely of aluminum and rigid vinyl.

Nu-Sash Pays For Itself

Nu-Sash are so sturdy that test results show the window superior to standards set by FHA for new home construction requirements.

The window comes in models that replace most all types of windows. Picture windows are available. A heavy duty model is available for schools, factories, apartments, and buildings.

As an important and permanent addition to the home, Nu-Sash qualify for low interest home improvement loans.

The Nu-Sash window has appeared in recent editions of Better Homes and Gardens magazines. The product was awarded the guarantee seal of that publication.

Details and drawings and cost estimates of Nu-Sash are available upon request. For additional free literature about the product, mail the coupon.

CROSSING CRITICIZED — A series of railroad track crossings in the Oakland County Service Center is under fire from Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson for not having adequate devices to warn motorists. Three accidents occurred on the crossings last year. The building behind the two signs for southbound West Boulevard traffic is the County Courthouse.

Railroad Crossing Unsafe, County Prosecutor Says

The crossing of West Boulevard and the Grand Trunk Western Railway Tracks poses a safety problem, according to Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson. The tracks are marked with a stop sign and railway marker to warn motorists of the crossing.

Pontiac police said there were three accidents at the intersection last year, one a fatal collision.

Killed Oct. 16 when his pickup truck was hit by a passenger train was Oscar O. Halcom, 42, of 4801 Rochester, Orion Township.

The other accidents recorded last year constituted a property damage accident and an injury accident. Two Pontiac men were treated for cuts March 16 when the car they were driving in was hit by two coupled engines.

Bronson said the crossing is dangerous and that "the volume of traffic across that intersection increases daily with the development of the county service center.

"The potential for fatal and serious injury accidents has correspondingly increased," he said.

"The least that should be accomplished is the building of highly visible and mechanized warning devices along with the installation of readily observable signs warning the unwary driver that he is approaching a highly dangerous intersection," Bronson said.

Many county employes use the dirt road to get from Oakland to the county service center.

The Public Service Commission inspected the crossing after the fatal accident in October, but city officials have not yet received a report from the commission.

HARD TO SOLVE

Director of Public Works and Service Joseph E. Neipling said it would be difficult to construct adequate safeguards because of the nature of the crossing.

Seven widely separated tracks cross at that point. Neipling said even if gates were installed at each end, it is possible that cars could be caught in the middle when gates were lowered.

He said the best safety precaution would be to close West Boulevard to traffic.

Township Unit Has Successor to Area Man

Meridian Township Supervisor Robert R. Robinson Jr. of Haslett in Ingham County yesterday was elected president of the Michigan Township Association, succeeding Duane Hursfall, supervisor of Independence Township in Oakland County.

Jack B. Millard, Shelby Township treasurer, was named treasurer of the association as it ended a three-day convention in Grand Rapids.

The more than 1,000 delegates adopted resolutions asking that townships be given a more equitable split of tax money collected by the state and calling for the establishment of a state department of tourism.

Delegates urged legislation that would increase homestead tax exemptions to $15,000 for those over 65 years of age.

Other officers elected include Zae Robinson of Union City, first vice president; Carl Ammeraman of Genesee, second vice president; Bernard J. Fowler of Grayling, third vice president; and Donna M. Scott of Lake, secretary.

New Discussion Method Eyed

Experiment by School Group in Waterford

A new confrontation technique of discussion will be experimented with when a Waterford Township School District Citizens' study group meets at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday at Pierce Junior High School.

Members of the citizens' group consisting of 43 residents, and school administrators will participate in the meeting, which is designed to help improve communications between the schools and community.

Subcommittee members have been told that they can invite neighbors and friends for the discussion.

The meeting will be conducted by Dr. Wendell Hough, a professor of education at Wayne State University, who introduced the confrontation technique to Waterford Township teachers at a workshop.

Mrs. Delores Hosler, chairman of the subcommittee on communications, will chair the meeting.

SMALL GROUPS

The citizens and administrators will meet in separate rooms divided into small groups, according to school officials.

The groups will prepare lists of questions and suggestions on ways to improve communications which will be considered by the whole group the same night.

The confrontation technique of discussion is designed to permit a freedom of suggestions so that no individual feels he is responsible for the questions and recommendations, explained school officials.

Following the first part of the program, participants will consider recommendations of Schools Supt. Dr. Don O. Tatroe on 1968-69 budget reductions because of inadequate funds.

Card Game Ends in $1,600 Robbery

A Pontiac man was robbed at gunpoint of $1,600 in cash following a card game, he reported late yesterday.

Larry Scribner, 24, of 736 E. Pike told police that when the game ended about 9 p.m., one of the other players brandished a pistol and demanded his money.

He said the man took his wallet and fled in a car.

Equal Measure Sugar Substitute

A new sweetener for weight watchers is a granulated product that can be substituted in equal measure for sugar in puddings, pie fillings, gelatin salads, desserts, beverages, sauces, pickles, relishes, condiments and salad dressings.

The low-calorie product combine lactose, which is a natural sugar, with calorie-free sweeteners. One teaspoon contains 3½ calories.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
Notice is hereby given of a scheduled public hearing to be held by the Pontiac Township Planning Commission at the Township Hall, 2060 Opdyke Road, on Monday, February 5th, 1968 at 7:30 P. M. to consider the following applications for rezoning:
Petition 68-1 to change from AG to C-2 for retail shopping center and office: That part of the northwest corner of Section 13 T3N, R10E, Pontiac Township, lying north of University Entrance Road and bounded by University Entrance Road, Squirrel Road and Pontiac Road, 31.41 acres.
Petition 68-2 to change from AG to C-2 for motel & gasoline service station: That part of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of Section 14, Pontiac Township, lying between Pontiac Road as widened and Mt. Clemens Road as widened, 6.83 acres.
Persons interested are requested to be present at this meeting. A copy of the zoning map and the proposed changes are on file in the office of the Township Clerk and may be examined at any time.

THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE
Reported that 14 Republicans and two Democrats have filed as candidates for the 23rd District Senate seat vacated by the death of Sen. Harold Volkema, R-Holland.

THE CONSERVATION DEPARTMENT
Asked for a $70.8 million budget for the next fiscal year—mostly to implement activities asked for by Gov. George Romney in his State of the State message.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
Recommended dropping criminal charges against Wayne County Sheriff Peter Buback in order to speed ouster proceedings before the November election.

THE SUPREME COURT
Heard oral agruments concerning the authority of Gov. George Romney to appoint a probate judge to preside over Wayne County Sheriff Peter Buback's removal hearing.

THE SENATE
Met briefly for bill introduction and adjourned until Monday night.
Bills introduced included:
SB798, Richardson. Allow filling of probate judge vacancies by special election.
SB799, Toepp. Allow filling of probate judge vacancies by special election.
SB799, Toepp. Allow additional meetings of boards of review looking into local property tax matters.
SB800, Toepp. Provide additional fines for illegal taking or possession of Michigan game fish, including trout, salmon, bass, sturgeon and muskellung.
SB801, Bouwsma. Authorize payment of $50 a day to State Tourist Council members for performance of official duties, not to exceed 15 days in any fiscal year.

THE HOUSE
was in adjournment until Monday night.

GI Dies in Crash

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — William G. Webb, 20-year-old South Haven, Mich., soldier, has been killed in a one-car smash-up near Ft. Lewis, where he was stationed with the 143rd Supply Co. Webb was a passenger in a car which hit a concrete sign abutment on a freeway just north of the Army fort's main gate, about 15 miles south of here. The accident occurred Thursday.

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO EXPRESS OUR heartfelt thanks to our friends, neighbors, and relatives for their many acts of kindness and floral offerings during our recent bereavement. Special thanks to Rev William Richard of St. Paul Methodist Church and the Pixley Funeral Home. The Family of Fred A. McCaslin.

WE WISH TO EXPRESS OUR heartfelt thanks to the nurses in the O. B. Dept. at General Hospital; the girls at General Lock, Leon and Chris and to all our friends and relatives for the lovely flowers and gifts. A special thank you to Dr. Shaddley, Dr. Norzo, Dr. Green and Dr. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Larry White.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MINTIE Dye, who passed away January 13, 1967.
She who was feeble, weak,
and shackled to her bed,
now climbs eternal hills,
with light and easy tread,
she has escaped at last,
the cruel clutch of pain;
her lips shall never taste
its bitter cup again.
She bows in speechless joy,
Before the Seat of Him,
Whom, seeing not, she loved,
while yet her sight was dim,
Along the golden streets,
no stranger walks today.
But one who, long homesick,
is home at last to stay.
Sadly missed By Children and Grandchildren.

IN MEMORY OF CHARLES A. DEACON, who passed away January 14, 1958.
Deep in our hearts you are fondly remembered,
Fond memories will cling round your name.
True hearts that loved you with the deepest affection,
Will always love you in death just the same.
Sadly missed by dear wife Mrs. Fessie Deacon and beloved daughter Joan.
