Hammaraskjold Will Leave for Peiping 'After Dec. 26'

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold announced last night after a meeting with Communist China's ambassador to Sweden that he still plans to leave for Peiping sometime after Dec. 26, but the exact date has not been set.

As Hammarskjold conferred at a luncheon with the envoy, Gen. Keng Piao, Peiping radio broadcast further legal arguments against the release of the 11 U. S. fliers China is holding as spies.

21 Lose Lives in State Traffic

Pedestrians Account for Almost Half of the Weekend Deaths

By UNITED PRESS
Michigan counted 21 persons killed in traffic during the first weekend following Safe Driving Day.

Although only one multiple-death crash was reported, a rash of collisions, pedestrian accidents and other highway mishaps marred the busy pre-Christmas weekend in the Wolverine State.

Nearly half of the victims were killed in pedestrian mishaps. Several of the other fatal accidents were blamed on slippery roads.

Killed in the only multiple-death mishap were Tom Cook Sr., 63, and Arthur Miles, 76, both of Farwell.

State Police said a car driven by Cook skidded on icy pavement into the path of a Chesapeake & Ohio freight train at a crossing at Farwell late Saturday.

The pedestrian toll included Melvin R. Kuitert, 28, Grand Rapids; Theodore Swiercan, 32, Flint; Genevieve Kells, 60, Detroit; Glen Shattuck, 38, Lansing; William C. Hercliff, 23, Pontiac; Frank W. Noel, 76, Trenton; Henry H. Carlson, 56, Ecorse Township; Herman Deo, 19, Dearborn; and Mrs. Lizzie Daniel, 70, Fullman, Ark.

Swiercan and Carlson were listed as hit-run victims.

A 79-year-old Jackson man, Theodore W. Wisniewsky, died Sunday shortly after the ambulance which was taking him to University Hospital, Ann Arbor, collided with a car near Jackson.

Mendes Reveals U. S. Aid Grant of $400 Million

Tells Assembly of Gift for Viet Nam Defense Slated in 1955

PARIS (AP)—Premier Pierre Mendes-France told the French National Assembly today that the United States will contribute about 400 million dollars in 1955 to the economic and military buildup of South Viet Nam.

Pleading with the deputies to support him in a vote of confidence later today on his Indochina policy, the Premier said that in his talks here last weekend with U. S. Secretary of State Dulles he had ironed out many details of the two country's cooperation in the Far Eastern territory.

The debate and vote on Indochina, which Mendes-France was expected to win by only a small majority, delayed start of the Assembly debate on the bitterly disputed Paris treaties to rearm West Germany.

Countering criticism that France often seemed to be blind following the U. S. lead in Indochina, Mendes-France told the deputies he and Dulles had agreed that the two nations would consult before decisions are made and that their representatives in the field henceforth will coordinate their activities.

The French government, he continued, believes the Southeast Asia Defense Treaty signed at Manila is a guarantee against a new outbreak of hostilities in Indochina. The South Viet Nam army, he said, is being trained to take over the job of maintaining internal security.

He said the French expeditionary corps in South Viet Nam will be withdrawn gradually, leaving only enough French soldiers to protect French citizens and interests there. The troops returning from Indochina will permit France to build up her European defenses, he declared.

Mendes-France stoutly defended the Indochina peace agreement he made at Geneva in replying to criticism by some deputies. He lashed out bitterly at the previous government for having left him with an "impossible" military situation.

Goodfellows Collect $3,200 for Yule Fund

Unless private contributions help the Pontiac Metropolitan Club's Old Newsboys meet the Goodfellows goal of $6,000, some of the city's needy children may not be visited by Santa on Christmas eve, said Sgt. Walter Baerwolf, chairman.

The Goodfellows collected $3,200 during the sale of Goodfellow editions of the Press Saturday.

According to Baerwolf, some 600 needy families have been reported to the Goodfellows for aid.

"Either Santa's gifts will be spread pretty thin or some youngsters may not have a 'white' Christmas," explained Baerwolf.

Baerwolf said that anyone wishing to make contributions may call him at FEderal 2-0171, or Fireman Arthur Carson at FEderal 2-9271.

It is estimated that more than 100 employees will be needed when the proving ground begins operations.

Robert W. Gains who has been with Ford since 1946 will be manager of the testing site. His technical assistant will be William A. McConnell and James H. Hough will be superintendent of facilities.

Winter Still 2 Days Away

Mercury at 2 Above for Season's Coldest

Although winter doesn't arrive officially until Wednesday, Oakland County residents got a preview today as the mercury plunged to a bone-chilling two degrees above zero, stranding about 5,500 Waterford Township school students and leaving hundreds of work-bound motorists with balky automobiles.

The temperature drop, which began early Saturday morning, plunged the mercury to its lowest point for the season. Winter will arrive at 4:25 a. m. Wednesday.

Officials at Waterford Township schools said students were left stranded when school buses failed to start. The balance of the township's 5,000 students walked to classes.

Superintendent William Shunch, who said the buses are stored outside, reported only two of the system's 23 coaches started. Waiting students took shelter in nearby homes and garages until notified that they would be excused from classes.

A spot check of towing services revealed hundreds of city and suburban motorists were unable to start their cars.

The immediate forecast, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau, predicts partly cloudy skies tonight and tomorrow with light snow likely Tuesday. The cold weather will continue with a low tonight of 15 to 18 degrees and a high tomorrow of 24 to 26.

Tomorrow night will be cloudy with light snow flurries and not so cold. Wednesday there will be more snow flurries and higher temperatures.

By 1 p. m. today the mercury had risen to 26 degrees.

Beginning shortly after midnight, Saturday, the thermometer registered 36 degrees, dropping until it reached 22 just before midnight. Early Sunday morning, it continued dropping until it hit 7 degrees by midnight. Today at 8 a. m. the temperature had reached three degrees above zero and dropped to 2 about 8:30.

The previous low for the fall season was 14, set Dec. 7. The all-time low for that period was six below in 1925.

In 1953, the coldest day of fall fell on the 17th of December, when the thermometer registered eight degrees. The entire Fall season was colder and wetter this year, with 31 days of freezing temperatures recorded, compared to 25 last year.

The record high last year was 84 degrees, recorded on the 19th of October, with 80 degrees the high (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Illness Critical

JAMES HILTON

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The condition of 54-year-old James Hilton, the noted novelist, was described as "very poor" today at Seaside Memorial Hospital.

Hilton, author of such novels as "Lost Horizon" and "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," entered the hospital Nov. 21. His physician has declined to disclose the nature of his illness other than to say he is suffering from an infection.

The doctor said yesterday that he is getting "progressively worse."

Plan to Raise Wrecked Plane

Believe Bodies of 17 Trapped in Fuselage in Jamaica Bay

NEW YORK (AP)—Salvage crews planned today to raise the wreckage of an Italian airliner that crashed into Jamaica Bay at the end of a Rome-New York flight Saturday.

Twenty-six persons died. Six others survived.

The Civil Aeronautics Board, which has been checking the crash near Idlewild Airport, scheduled closed preliminary hearings today.

Wreckage of the four-engine DC6B airliner was located yesterday by Navy divers, who reported it appeared to be in three main pieces.

They said the fuselage, in which 17 bodies are believed trapped, seemed to be intact but had slipped over with its nose pointing out into the bay.

Bodies of nine crash victims already have been recovered. The last, found yesterday, was that of 12-year-old Rosalia d'Ugo, daughter of Mrs. Natali d'Ugo, Chicago.

The six survivors were in the rear of the plane and got out or were thrown clear when the tail cracked off. Two young students returning from Italy were uninjured and able to go home. The others were taken to hospitals.

Investigators said the plane apparently struck the end of a 2,000-foot pier with its tail as it approached the airport through rain and mist. Officials said the pilot, Capt. Guglielmo Algarotti, 52, who had missed three earlier radar-guided approaches to the field, was warned he was coming too low.

A veteran transatlantic flier, he was among the victims.

Dulles Says NATO Meeting Successful

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles arrived back in Washington today from the North Atlantic Treaty Council meeting at Paris, which he said has made "very important decisions unanimously and in good spirit."

With Dulles aboard a Military Air Transport Service Constellation were Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Foreign Aid Chief Harold Stassen.

Dulles, in an off-the-cuff statement, said he was glad he had had the opportunity in Paris to talk with British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden and French Premier Mendes-France.

The secretary said he would discuss the NATO meeting in more detail at a news conference tomorrow. He said he also would report to President Eisenhower.

Actor Chooses World's Ten 'Worst-Dressed'

NEW YORK (AP)—Actor Robert Newton, who claims he's tired of "dressing up and showing off," has listed his choices for the "ten worst dressed persons on earth."

They include: former President Harry Truman, actor Charles Laughton, millionaire Howard Hughes, playwright George S. Kaufman, author Ernest Hemingway, Nobel Prize winner Albert Schweitzer, actresses Tallulah Bankhead, Greta Garbo and Bea Lillie, and party-giver Elsa Maxwell.

No harm meant, says Newton, adding: "An old suit is an old friend. There's too much emphasis on dressing up and showing off today."

The Day in Birmingham

City to Consider Financing Off-Street Parking, Drains

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — On tonight's City Commission agenda is the bond ordinance which would allow up to $400,000 in revenue bonds for off-street parking facilities.
With it is a resolution calling for the sale of $200,000 in bonds for construction of Municipal Parking Lot No. 1 on Pierce between Merrill and Brown streets.
Special assessment districts set up to defray construction costs for an alley south of Maple running east of Bates, and for Municipal Parking Lot No. 2 at the southeast corner of Bates and Maple, will be outlined by City Manager Donald C. Egber.
The commission will be asked to advance $3,000 to the Oakland County drain commissioner for engineering studies in connection with the Evergreen interceptor sewer project.
Two zoning requests will be studied. One is for rezoning lots 30 to 33, Birmingham Crestview subdivision, from single family residence to Business A classification. The other asks rezoning from business to residential, property at the corner of Maple and Larchlea.
Under the leadership of Eric Jacobson the YMCA model airplane group is meeting from 7 to 9 p.m. each Tuesday in the craft shop, while boys are instructed in kit building.
Christmas carols and a gift exchange will highlight a pot luck supper meeting of the Keystone Group of First Methodist Church at 8:45 tonight.
Celebrating "Ladies Night" at tonight's High Twelve Club 8:30 dinner meeting at the Community House, members have a Christmas program planned in the annual appearance of Victor Ulrich and the Birmingham High School A capella choir which he directs. The choir sang for the Rotary Club earlier today.
"Christmas Everywhere" will be presented in song at 8 tonight by fourth through fifth graders at Baldwin School, accompanied by sixth grade Pembroke School students. Carols will be narrated through the use of murals on stage.

Season's Coldest Hits Pontiac Area

est reading for fall 1934. Pontiac was hit by the first frost Oct. 17.
As for rainfall, October broke all existing records. The previous record for the month was 6.76 inches recorded in 1890, and the all-time high was 6.86 in April 1941.
Both records were surpassed before the month was half gone, with 3.72 inches falling on the 3rd alone. By the end of the month, Pontiac was drenched by 10.44 inches of rain.
Several times during the month roads were flooded and damage to homes was reported.
Snowfall this year has failed to equal that of 1933. An estimated 3.91 inches were recorded so far this year as compared to 4.43 last year. But neither compare to 1931, when 30 inches fell on Pontiac during the week of Dec. 14 to 21.
And the weather picture today in this area reflects the situation throughout the state. Pontiac was the nation's coldest spot as a temperature reading of minus 15 degrees was reported.
Faint reported five degrees below zero while Saginaw shivered in -2 degree weather.
Cadillac, known as the state's "ice box," reported a "comfortable" six degrees.
The Michigan Auto Club said highways in southwestern Michigan are slippery but local officials said arteries in this area are relatively dry.
Nationally, the nippy weather extended over the eastern third of the country, with freezing weather penetrating as far south as Florida.
The long range forecast for this area says that temperatures during the next 30 days will average below normal and snowfall will be about average.

Jury Starts 4th Day; Deadlock Possible men and five women for some sign.

There is little to read. Most of them appear to be avoiding his eyes. Occasionally, one of them shoots a quick glance at him.
When he came into the courtroom last night, Sheppard, as usual, first greeted his two brothers, Stephen and Richard. He made a peculiar little grimace as his eyes met theirs.
It was the same anxious expression that airmen exchange when they are sweating out a dangerous mission.
The jurors' faces have settled into a wooden blank when they come into court.
"I've never seen a jury like this one," a court officer said. "Usually, some hint slips out, maybe just a remark, or some little thing that tells you how it's going."
"But not these people. Once outside that jury room, they talk about everything in the world except this case. You can't even tell whether anybody is mad at anybody else, which is always a sign."
The trial lasted nine weeks. Because it has been so long and costly authorities are anxious to avoid a retrial, if possible, and the jury has been held much longer than is usual.

Slippery Roads Noted

LANSING (AP)—Extensive slippery sections were reported by the State Highway Department today on state trunklines in the Benton Harbor area. No abnormal driving conditions were reported in the Upper Peninsula.

U. S. Prisons May Be Probed

Rep. Celler Indicates Investigation May Stem From Remington Death

WASHINGTON (INS)—Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) said today the recent slaying of William W. Remington may result in a congressional investigation of the federal prison system.
Celler will become chairman of the House Judiciary Committee when the Democratic 84th Congress convenes Jan. 5.

The congressman said the brutal slaying of Remington, a former government economist serving a three-year term for perjury, might indicate existence of conditions in federal prisons which require correction.

He stated: "I am not yet prepared to say that an investigation is needed. However, the brutal slaying of Remington may bear looking into."
"I will probably take the matter up with James V. Bennett, director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Possibly the committee may want to call him for questioning."
Celler added that he had the highest personal regard for Bennett. He praised the federal prison director "for having done an excellent job over the years."
Bennett has been under attack in some congressional quarters, and previous demands have been made for a general investigation. These requests have increased since the slaying of Remington by fellow prisoners.

Negotiate for Return of Black Legionnaire

JACKSON (In)—Movers were under way today to return Edgar Baldwin, "Black Legionnaire" serving life at Southern Michigan Prison for murder.

Baldwin, 44, fled from a trusty block Sept. 4 with two other prisoners in a prison car. He was captured Saturday in St. Louis.

The FBI said Baldwin had been working as a taxi cab driver in St. Louis and was armed with a .32 caliber revolver when he was arrested.
Baldwin was sentenced to life in Detroit Oct. 9, 1933, after he and nine other "Black Legionnaires" were convicted of the kidnap slaying of Charles A. Poole. Members of the "Black Legion," a terrorist group, claimed that Poole had beaten his wife.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Franklin A. Farr

Mrs. Franklin A. (Millie Mary) Farr, 85, 43 Dakota Dr., died yesterday after a long illness.
A resident of Pontiac for 30 years, she was born in Brown City and was the daughter of James and Hanna Wallace.

A member of Bethany Baptist Church, she attended schools in Brown City and Lakeville.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Verna Underwood and Mrs. Erving Zuehlke, both of Pontiac, five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral service Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. will be from Farmer-Snow Funeral Home, the Rev. Fred R. Tiffany officiating. Burial will follow in Hart Cemetery, Macomb County.

William C. Hercliff

Service from the Sparks-Griffin Chapel Tuesday for William C. Hercliff will be observed at 10 a.m. with burial in Caseville.

Hercliff died Saturday in Pontiac General Hospital of injuries which he suffered early that day when struck by a truck on Pontiac road.

Born in Pigeon, he was the son of Harry Hercliff and Mrs. Martha Ver Helle of East Detroit. He was married to Margaret Shelton July 8, 1930.

Hercliff was an employee of the Oakland County Road Commission, a veteran of the Korean War and a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving besides his mother and widow are a sister, Mrs. Fred Empele of Port Austin, and two brothers, Richard and Earl, both of Pigeon.

Frank E. Wagner

Service for Frank E. Wagner, 69, who died at a local hospital after an illness of several months, will be from the Sparks-Griffin Chapel Tuesday at 2 p.m., with burial in Oakland Hills Cemetery.

A retired Pontiac Motor Division employee, Wagner had been a resident of Pontiac for 35 years. He was a member of Roosevelt Lodge 510, which will take charge of a grave-side service.

Wagner was born in LeRay, Minn., to Frank and Anna Wagner. His wife, Nellie died in 1932. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Wendell O. Hill of Oxford, Mrs. Clair V. Kelley of Drayton Plains, Mrs. A. James McKim of Waterford, eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Fred Winegar

Mrs. Fred (Loretta Matilda) Winegar, 66, 35 Union St., died Saturday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of one week.

The daughter of Wendell and Effie Matilda Densmore Wagner, she was born in Marine City and was married there June 2, 1908. A member of St. Vincent de Paul Church, she came to Pontiac from Port Huron in 1911.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, Leslie Frederick of Pontiac, and William John of Garden City, Calif.

Also surviving are two brothers, Charles of Port Huron and Wendell of Los Angeles, and a grandson.

Funeral service will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. from St. Vincent de Paul Church. Rosary will be said tonight at 8:30 in the Melvin A. Schutt Funeral Home. Burial will

Della Wakefield

Mrs. Peter M. (Della) Wakefield, 70, 486 First St., died yesterday in her home after a three-month illness.

Born in Jackson, Ala., she was the daughter of Robert and Hannah Lanham Reed. She was married in Huntland, Tenn., June 13, 1907.

A resident of Pontiac for 22 years, she came here from Winchester, Tenn.

Surviving besides her husband are a daughter, Mrs. Carroll Ellis of Pontiac, and two brothers, John and Ben Reed, both of Oakland Park, Fla.

Service from Voorhees-Siple Chapel will be Wednesday at 2 p.m., the Rev. Edmond I. Watkins of Joslyn Avenue Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will follow in Roseland Park Cemetery.

Hammarskjold Plans Trip 'After Dec. 26'

at the Japanese war crimes trials after World War II, as saying the case of the American fliers had nothing to do with the Korean armistice because the truce applied on the Communist side only to prisoners captured by the North Koreans and Chinese "volunteers."

This fitted in with China's contention that she officially was not involved in the Korean War.

The radio declared the fliers "were captured by Chinese peasants within Chinese territory, west of Antung in Liaoning province (Manchuria)." The United States maintains they were downed in North Korea and taken to China after their capture.

Countering the U.S. argument that spies would not be sent out in uniforms, Mei said:
"In determining whether a criminal is a spy, the court obviously does not make its judgment on what he was wearing but what he was doing and the motives and purposes behind his actions."

Foundations Called Menace to Country

trustees of some foundations which provided funds for the Institute of Pacific Relations "might have saved China from the Communists and prevented the war in Korea."

The institute has frequently been criticized by congressional groups.

The lengthy document ticked off a long list of names of organizations and individuals in connection with the alleged foundation-influenced "network."

Mentioned most often were the country's big three among fund groups: the Ford Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation, several Carnegie groups, and what it called "offshoots" of the big three. Among Carnegie organizations named were the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and the Carnegie Corp. of New York.

The GOP report also assailed the New York Times, the New York Herald Tribune and the Washington Post and Times Herald, which it said had connections with foundations and had criticized the investigation. The latter two newspapers said statements made in the report were not true.

Knowland Hits Payment of 'Blackmail' to Free 11

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) said today the United States will invite World War III if it pays any "blackmail" to free the 11 American airmen imprisoned in Red China.

He declared the stern measures he has urged—including a blockade of the China mainland—are less likely to plunge the world into atomic war than a new sign of Allied weakness or a peace-at-any-price policy.

Knowland conceded Russian subs might try to break up a blockade and sink U. S. ships but said he is "prepared to accept that risk." A major war is another possibility, he said, but a remote one.

The real danger, he asserted, is that the Allies in their desire to achieve peace will be weak in the face of Communist advances.

"Any time you pay blackmail you increase the demands and I think the more that is paid the greater the demands will be," he said, referring to proposals that 35 Chinese students in this country be swapped for the airmen.

"I think weakness invites war," he said. "The best chance of keeping out of war is maintaining

Parke, Davis Official Honored by Academy

NEW YORK (UP)—The New York Academy of Sciences announced today that Dr. Leon A. Sweet, 45, Detroit, has been elected as a "fellow of the academy."

The academy said Sweet, vice president and director of research and products development for Parke, Davis & Co., was chosen because of his "achievements in science."

Detroit Sentenced for Home Breakin

Thomas S. Murray, 30, of 210 Chandler, Detroit, today was sentenced to a maximum of four years in Jackson state prison by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Murray admitted Dec. 14 breaking into a home Dec. 8 at 21007 Beilensville, Royal Oak Township, and taking a suit plus a pair of shoes.

Cosmetics Always Welcome as Yule Remembrances

For presents that say, "I love you," to daughter, sweetheart or wife, there is nothing that quite can equal dainty perfumes and cosmetics.

Fresh and appealing fragrances have ranked as traditional Yuletide gifts since the time of the very first Christmas, when frankincense and myrrh were offered to Infant Christ.

Special, sweet-smelling Yuletide packages can be had in a wide range of prices—and in hundreds of fine containers, ranging from gold flacons to copies of antique sewing boxes.

Famous cosmetics houses, such as Charles of the Ritz, Yardley and Shulton, have packaged their finest products—colognes, lipsticks, bath salts, toiletries, etc.—in scores of combinations. There's one or more to fit every taste.

An excellent little stocking gift is a pretty box of eye cosmetics. Included is Blue Royale, a new color in creme mascara developed by Aziza. A similar type of present is a new body lotion called Bounce!

Set of toilet water and perfume in beautiful wrapping is traditional gift for women from men.

Regals scents come in small packages. Pick perfume you like. She wears it for your pleasure.

Beautiful shapes of fragrance bottles make them ideal stocking gifts for mother and sister.

Royal Oak Girls Known to Police

Pair Were Questioned in Sept. 12 Slaying of Gas Attendant

BIRMINGHAM—Two Royal Oak girls among six youths being held for questioning by Tuccumcari, N. M. police on the Sept. 12 shotgun slaying of Doyle Howe here have previously been questioned in the gas station murder, Det. Lt. Merlin Holmquist of the Birmingham police department said today.

He said Rosemary Anderson, 17, of 2425 Kenneth St., who Tuccumcari police said was carrying newspaper clippings of the Howe shooting and other Detroit area crimes, had dated Howe and so might understandably have saved news reports. The other girl, Delores Voch, of 4226 Berkshire, also knew Howe, Holmquist said.

The two girls were arrested with four men near Tuccumcari Saturday night on investigation of gasoline theft. The six had stopped for gasoline at a station on U.S. 66, 23 miles east of Tuccumcari and left without paying.

The others arrested were Robert Isaacs, 18, of 426 E. Kenneth St. and Richard L. Hartage, 23, of 585 Hudson St., both of Royal Oak Township, Clifford Moreland, 18, of 603 Waterfront Dr., Waterford Township and Clifford Gardner, 23, of Bloomington, Ill.

Holmquist said the men had not previously been implicated in the slaying.

Howe, 24-year-old gas station attendant, was robbed of $60 and killed in the washroom of the gas station at Woodward and Chaplin.

Looting of Parked Car Reported in Waterford

Mrs. Dorothy Wright of 1060 Durant Ave. told Oakland County sheriff's deputies Saturday that someone took about $25 worth of valuables and clothes from her car while it was parked near the Dixie Bar, 2592 Dixie Hwy., Waterford Township.

According to Mrs. Wright, thieves took a waitress' uniform and shoes, white hat and gloves and a ruby necklace and earring set from her unlocked auto.

What Soviets Call Circus Is Variety Show in U.S.

MOSCOW (INS)—Russians don't seem to mind one bit that their circuses don't have lion tamers, elephants and pretty girls.

A Soviet circus is more like a Saturday night TV variety show than an old-fashioned, thrills and chills American tent show.

The one-ering state "Tsirk" performs in its own brick theater not far from downtown Moscow. The lobby is all lined with marble.

But close your eyes and sniff and you know where you are, all right. It certainly smells like a circus.

Soviet circuses operate under plaster "big tops." They have no canvas, squads of roustabouts or painted wagons.

Permanent buildings in major Soviet cities house year-around circus theaters.

The Russian circus circuit apparently hasn't enough lion tamers, elephants or pretty girls to go around, because the current show at the Moscow arena stands short on all three items.

And a troupe of melancholy kypriotes doesn't nearly take up the slack. But even second-rate circuses can be fun.

Here's what this correspondent found at the "Tsirk."

Crowns wear ordinary stage makeup and normal Soviet street clothes—trousers broad enough to put on over snowshoes and double-breasted jackets.

This costume seems pretty funny to a westerner who hasn't been in the U. S. S. R. long enough to get used to men's trouser styles.

But what strikes the Russians about these clown suits are the maroon, light blue and tan jackets and odd pants.

These colors are pretty gay for these parts and the well-dressed Soviet man doesn't wear coats and trousers that don't match.

The circus troupes are under the colors of the Ministry of Culture. This means the foolery must be educational as well as funny.

The crowds roared when the clowns and singers lampooned buck-passing bureaucrats and the current scarcity of meat.

And a ballad about "American Imperialists" and the Korean War set off guffaws when a guitar-strumming pair sang reverently about "bees-ness," "dollars" and "Wall Streets."

The program included a series of fair to good acts—wire-walking, tumblers, balancing, sleight-of-hand, trained dogs and horses, and a team of Chinese jugglers—all accompanied by the 30-piece Order of Lenin Circus Orchestra.

A gray bear and his trainer grunted and growled through a wrestling exhibition.

The bear wasn't nearly as ferocious in the fur as he had appeared on the circus posters around town, but with a little polishing he might go far in Stateside TV wrestling.

Top billing went to an expert aerial clown. Muscovites roared when he lost his baggy sailor suit in mid-air, revealing a mazy pair of striped tights.

Then a terrible thing happened. The clown lost his grip and plunged toward the ring.

But springs attached to his safety line shot him back up to his perch under the plaster dome. The crowd recovered its breath and cried with laughter.

It would be a great act in anybody's circus.

Asks Continuing Housing Probe

But Sparkman Claims He Will Oppose Senate 'Carcass' Hunt

WASHINGTON (U. S. — Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) proposed today a "continuing and objective study" of the operation of government housing programs but said he would oppose any probe designed to "drag out a lot of dead carcasses."

Sparkman, a senior Democrat on the Senate Banking Committee, spoke out in an interview after release of a 140-page committee report which accused the construction industry of consistently misrepresenting to Congress "the existence of wrongdoing" in the huge postwar rental housing program.

The report, issued last night, assailed "a few greedy and sometimes dishonest builders . . . and incompetent, lax and sometimes dishonest FHA officials" as responsible for what it called multi-million-dollar "windfall" profits "at the expense of the American people."

The committee report summed up an eight-month probe of Federal Housing Administration programs.

Sparkman was primarily responsible for having deleted from a preliminary draft of the report an accusation that housing irregularities were the "worst scandal" in history and that "windfall" profits would total one billion dollars if all projects were examined.

Instead, it reported finding 76 million dollars of such profits in 437 of the 543 projects it investigated.

These profits resulted from FHA-insured mortgages in some cases far greater than actual construction costs.

Corral Stray Pups for Christmas Party

PINELLAS PARK, Fla. (U. S. — A dog's life around here is a pup's idea of paradise—this week anyway.

Three women are out rounding up all the stray dogs in this community, collecting dog food for Christmas Week feasts and for weeks to come.

Peggy Davis, policeman here, and Mrs. George England and Mrs. Joe Borders even plan a Christmas tree for homeless pups and if they are real good, like youngsters should be at this time of the year, the dogs will be put up for adoption.

Commissioner Wants School Buses Yellow

HARTFORD, Conn. (U. S. — School buses, says Connecticut Motor Vehicles Commissioner Charles F. Kelley, should be painted yellow and plainly identified so that they are "made to look like school buses."

"We have a conglomeration of vehicles used as school buses that often make it difficult for motorists to spot a school bus easily and drive accordingly," he says.

Social Security to Expand

(Editor's note: New social security laws go into effect Jan. 1 extending coverage to millions of Americans who previously did not come under the federal old age and survivors insurance system. The following is the first of two stories explaining some of the changes.)

WASHINGTON (UP)—The federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance System will undergo a big change Jan. 1 when some 10,000,000 additional persons start paying social security taxes.

Payment of these taxes for the first time will entitle farmers, clergymen, architects, engineers, and thousands of others gainfully employed to social security retirement benefits when they reach age 65.

Generally speaking, persons coming under the system Jan. 1 will have to continue to work and pay social security taxes for at least 15 months before becoming eligible for retirement benefits.

In addition to expanding coverage, the new social security law approved by the last congress calls for substantially higher benefit payments, for collection of more social security tax money, and for more liberal methods of computing benefit payments.

The expanded coverage under the new law means that about 58,000,000 persons out of a potential 63,200,000 are on the social security tax rolls.

The notable exceptions are physicians, lawyers, dentists, federal civil service workers, members of the armed forces, policemen and firemen.

The largest single group getting coverage under the new law consists of 3,000,000 self-employed farmers who make as much as $400 profit a year. About 3,500,000 employees of state and local governments also become eligible for coverage for the first time.

Other groups newly covered are funeral directors, many household workers and farm laborers not previously covered, citizens employed outside the United States, federal employees not covered by other federal retirement plans, fishing industry employees, and persons who work for business firms but do their work at home, such as sewing, telephoning or addressing envelopes.

Self-employed farmers, clergymen, architects, engineers, and funeral directors must pay the three per cent social security tax rate that applies to other self-employed already covered. This rate will continue until 1960 when it is scheduled to go up to 3 1/2 per cent.

Farm workers and others who come under the category of employee will pay a two per cent social security tax. This will be matched by a two per cent contribution from employers.

To get himself enrolled under social security, here's what a self-employed person, including a farmer, should do:

First, get a social security card from the nearest social security office.

Then, in 1956, when filling out his federal income tax return on 1955 earnings, this newly covered person should show his social security account number on his return.

French Yuletide Commercialized

Once Largely Religious, Christmas Now Festive Holiday

PARIS (U)—Christmas, which used to be largely a religious occasion in France, is turning more and more into the festive, tree-decorating and gift-exchanging holiday celebrated in the United States.

The traditional practice of leaving gifts for children on New Year's Eve has become almost as rare, at least in the cities, as the wooden shoes in which the gifts used to be placed. Christmas cards and tree ornaments, once available only in special shops patronized largely by foreigners, are now sold everywhere in Paris.

Some bewail all this as part of the "Americanization" of France. The younger set doesn't seem to mind, especially since there's a chance of collecting gifts on Christmas and New Year's too.

World War II had something to do with the change. Most means of celebrating were scarce and expensive during the German occupation, particularly the food for a good "revelion"—the big meal that is supposed to follow Christmas midnight Mass—but trees were available. Many Frenchmen were impressed with the big ones the Germans put up in their barracks.

The French have added some gimmicks of their own. This year, there are Christmas trees made entirely of sugarcandy, edible during and after the season. There are also chocolate tree ornaments, wrapped in gaily colored paper.

Department stores put out a big spread of toys, with elaborate moving displays in their windows that jam sidewalk traffic. One even has a big sign stratched across its facade "Santa Claus official Headquarters." Like the British, the French call Santa Claus "Father Christmas" (Pere Noel).

Sen. Sparkman Counsels Party

Cooperation Is Keystone to Ouster of President in '56, Southerner Says

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) said today Democrats can defeat President Eisenhower in 1956 if they write a "responsible record" on domestic issues in the 84th Congress.

Sparkman, the 1952 Democratic vice presidential nominee, said in an interview he expects that Democratic cooperation with the President on foreign policy and national defense will largely eliminate them as campaign issues.

"We Democrats can defeat Eisenhower or any other Republican nominee by writing a responsible record on domestic problems, by showing what a Democratic Congress can do," he declared.

"When the people vote their natural instincts, the Democrats always win. The Republicans win only when they can upset this natural inclination, as they were able to do in 1952.

"Since then, the Republicans have been destroying the confidence which the people temporarily transferred to them. They have destroyed it by not being able to carry out the promises they made in the campaign, promises which they knew they couldn't carry out.

"The Republicans promised to balance the budget and to cut spending, among other things. Instead, they are spending 2 1/2 billion more than President Truman did in his biggest year and the budget remains out of balance.

"I don't condemn the Republicans for this spending because I think it is necessary to build up our defenses and to join in mutual security aid to other free countries, but they had no business making promises they knew they couldn't keep."

Sparkman predicted a rerun of the 1952 contest which pitted Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson against Eisenhower.

Sparkman said that so far as he personally is concerned, he isn't a candidate for second place on the ticket.

Royal Family Plans Holidays in Country

LONDON (U)—Britain's royal family will spend the Christmas holidays at Sandringham.

Queen Elizabeth II, the Duke of Edinburgh, the children, Charles and Anne, Queen Mother Elizabeth and Princess Margaret will take a train to their country home Wednesday.

The Queen will make her annual broadcast to the British Commonwealth Christmas Day from the study at Sandringham House.

Hammarskjold Admitted to Academy of Literature

STOCKHOLM (INS)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, who has been busy with plans for his "mission to Peiping," was admitted to the Swedish Academy of Literature today.

The unprecedented action saw him take the chair left vacant by his father, the late Hjalmar Hammarskjold, who was prime minister of Sweden from 1914 to 1917.

U.S. Probing Soviet Espionage in Iceland

WASHINGTON (INS)—U.S. military intelligence agencies are reported investigating today accounts of apparently accurate and speedy Soviet espionage on American Armed Forces activities in Iceland.

Workmen on construction projects in Iceland are said to have told government sources that information about what is being done on the bases bounces back with amazing speed from a Soviet woman propaganda broadcaster.

Agents are also said to be looking into whether Russian gas, line, traded for Icelandic fish, is being relied upon by power plants or other local utilities serving U.S. air bases on the northern island.

On the Soviet broadcasts, an informed source said a workman recounted how the Russian woman, whose program is carried in English and is apparently beamed at the workers in Iceland, once reported that a light was out at a U.S. base.

The workman, he is quoted as having reported to their command, found that the Russian propaganda broadcast was correct. They speculated that the information must have been sent from a secret Communist radio station and probably was relayed to Moscow from a Soviet ship at sea.

The American workers have told also about uncanny accuracy in the propaganda broadcast about ships leaving U.S. ports for Iceland. Details are reportedly given out regarding what is in the ships' cargoes, and when the vessels will arrive.

On the reported use of Russian oil, Air Forces and Navy spokesmen said their services do not procure any oil on Iceland, so that the bases would not be dependent on Russian oil shipped to the island under a petroleum-for-fish arrangement.

The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, however, has heard testimony that while the Russian fuel is not used at actual bases, it does supply Icelandic power stations, a shut-down of which would at least inconvenience U.S. armed forces.

Samuel Nakasian of the Washington board of trade, testifying before the subcommittee, said technical experts told him that sabotage could be achieved at any time through adulteration of the oil.

He said: "I am advised by technical people that this could be done very easily, and it would be rather difficult to detect unless you established an elaborate testing mechanism."

Nakasian declared: "There is danger that in the event of a catastrophe, at a time the Soviets could pick, that oil could be doctored in such a way as to sabotage equipment and facilities."

He declared: "Whether they (the armed forces) dip into any local stocks at all, I don't know. But I am sure there are many ancillary facilities, such as power stations and so on, which would be served by these Soviet imports."

What Religion Means to Our Family Jewish Faith Breeds Understanding, Respect, Affection, Says H. S. Goldberg

By LULA B. OGDEN

As today is the second day of Chanukah the Jewish feast of dedication, two candles have been lighted on the Menorah in the home of the Harold S. Goldbergs at 1070 James K. Blvd.

Each day another candle will be lighted using the Shamash or servant candle. All of the candles will be lighted at the close of the eight-day festival.

"Our religion defines a basis for family relationship which breeds understanding, respect and affection," said Goldberg.

"This, we trust, reflects from the intimacy of our family group to our relation with members of the larger community of which we are a part," he said.

The spacious grounds of the Goldberg home located on Sylvan Lake affords the opportunity for garden planning and the well-planned landscaping is an evidence of this.

The lake at the door yard is always an invitation to use the rod and line, and the family also enjoys this sport.

Goldberg, who is a native of Detroit, came to Pontiac to live when he married Esther Koyinsky. He established his business here at that time.

Joel, the eldest child, is a senior at Pontiac High School and at the present time is deciding which college he will enter next fall. Rhoda is in the ninth grade at Washington Junior High School.

Goldberg, who has been president of Temple Beth Jacob for six years, was one of the persons instrumental in plans for the new temple located on Elizabeth Lake avenue.

Of course, he has been extremely busy during the construction of the edifice and with current plans for the dedication. He also has served as vice president of the board of directors.

Mrs. Goldberg was president of the Temple Sisterhood for two years and during the years has been vice president, secretary, treasurer and trustee.

Joel is vice president of Temple Beth Jacob Youth Group.

Pictures of Red Activities Horrid but Effective

KUALA LUMPUR (AP)—Horror pictures are drawing record crowds. The films show what happened to murder victims of Communist terrorists which British troops and security forces have been battling for six years. The general comment on the gruesome collection: "Horrible, but effective."

Bob Considine Says1st International Press Ball to Be a Gastronomic Orgy

NEW YORK (INS)—A pox on diets, I'm tired of reading about non-hunger pills, stewed ferns and dry pumpnickel. It's a genuine pleasure to plug a gastronomic orgy that will be committed at the Waldorf-Astoria next Thursday.

The important thing about the upcoming event is that it is the First International Press Ball. Several notable charities, including the New York Journal-American Christmas Veterans Fund and the Milk Fund will be served. But, if you don't mind, let's look beyond the facade of sweet charity and the struggling industry of the sponsoring body, the Foreign Press Association.

Let's look to the food to be served, as described by a fine publicity person with the arresting name of Agnetha Tryde, M. Mme., or Mlle. Agnetha writes with disarming indifference to the waistline and the strange tongue of the Anglo-Saxons:

Gastronomic specialties are steadily flown in from south an north, east and west, to bring the ultimate in luxurian appointments, in Lucullan food. The cosmopolitan dinner is a delightful trip around the globe, and the guests will be guided from 'country to country in an international spirit of epicurism.

"Monsieur Joseph Donon, the richest and most famous private chef in the world, is personally supervising the menu. As president of Les Amis D'Escottier, and famed $25,000 a year chef for Mrs. Hamilton McKay Twombly and her daughter Mrs. Ruth Vanderbilt Twombly through thirty-eight years, Mr. Donon has devoted his time to compose the fabulous menu in cooperation with Waldorf-Astoria's celebrated chef, Ernest Trevaud.

"The two masters of culinary art have combined their efforts in a banquet flavored with delicacies, so even the great philosopher and gourmet Jean-Jacques Rousseau would have been enthused."

Well, the fancy will start off with "Gin on the Rocks," described by Agnetha as "the bravissimo from Italy." But plainly this isn't enough. Immediately after this announcement there is raised a question which may have you turning and twisting at nights for weeks to come:

What is an international evening without France in the picture? When Mr. Donon chooses Les Delices de Foie Gras de Strasbourg for an entree, everybody is convinced. It will be truffled, glazed with port wine jelly and placed on toasted slices of brioche.

Some other dishes: La Tortue Verte Alsacienne (green as a crystal clear), and Les Truffes du Danemark (Danish brook trout served in their own cooking liquor, with "tiny, wheezy-crevettes from Greenland's ice-cold fjords") and La Grouse D'Ecosse au Genevree ("Five hundred grouse from the Scottish highlands will go on the wings for the last time.") The wild rice will be from India, natsh.

Les Petites Pois will be "simmered with sweet butter, sliced hearts of lettuce, small white onions, sprig of parsley..." The Fonds d'Archauts Italiennes bottoms will be stuffed with a mushroom duxelle. La Salade des Americas features "coeurs de palmiers from South America resting on crisp lettuce leaves," presumably from South Jersey. Bread for the abundance of cheeses will be Norwegian and Swedish.

Les Corbeilles de Fruits Exotique includes "richi con mandorli"—figs filled with soft-white almonds. The coffee will come in from Arabia and Guatemala... and shall be served with the douce bols from the Netherlands, the oldest golden cognac from France and the deep red sherry heering from Denmark."

Also Victor Borge.

Man Gets His Position
Through Error in Name

PALMYRA, Pa. (AP)—Edward Kreider is a member of the Palmyra Board of Health through an error in first names. Richard Kreider was appointed to the post and somehow the notice to appear for swearing in ceremonies was addressed to another Kreider—Edward.

Edward came and was sworn in. The next day the council discovered its mistake. All's well though. Richard says Edward can handle the job and wished him the best of luck.

57-Year-Old Vet Flier

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP)—After nearly 40 years as an airplane pilot, Bart Stevenson, 57, is enrolled as a freshman at Colorado School of Mines.

With 11,500 flying hours behind him, the father of three grown sons is carrying 21 hours a week at the engineering school.

His aviation career started during World War I when he became a navy flier. Later he demonstrated the comfort of early cabin planes by wearing a business suit, derby and spats. During World War II he was a Lockheed test pilot at Burbank, Calif.

Peggy Carter Says Vows in Home Rite

Taffeta and Lace Is Worn by Bride on Saturday

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — At a wedding Saturday evening in the Lone Pine road home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen Carter, their daughter, Peggy, was married to John Kemper Cannon whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cannon of Suffield road, Birmingham.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris of the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham read the service.

The bride came down the stairway on her father's arm wearing a gown of white taffeta and lace, the neckline with pearls and sequins and the full lace skirt fell in a sweep train.

Folds of taffeta held a sheer illusion veil and she carried white orchids.

Jerady Ann Carter was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a polonaise frock of red taffeta draped over a full white tulle skirt and carried red carnations.

The bride's small cousin Jeri Palmer was flower girl in a frock of red velvet. She also carried red carnations. Tommy Carter, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

John Kemper Cannon was his brother's best man and the bride's brothers Robert and Richard Carter were ushers.

Mrs. Carter wore a long gown of emerald peau de soie and a corsage of cypripedium orchids. Mrs. Cannon's gown was of garnet Barthele silk and her flowers were gloriosa orchids.

For her wedding trip to Chicago the bride wore an oxford gray suit under a champagne color coat. Her hat was winter white.

The couple will live in Ann Arbor where Mr. Cannon will resume his law studies.

Sunset Club Holds Christmas Dinner

A cooperative dinner was held by Sunset Club recently at Wilson School as a part of its Christmas celebration.

Songs were presented by pupils in the Wilson School kindergarten. Also providing entertainment was the Rev. C. L. Leavens of Clarkston who attended the party as a guest. Mrs. Hugh Watson was accompanist for him.

Mrs. Anna Bone and Mrs. Bertha Luke read Bible selections and Mrs. William Hothausen sang. Mrs. Pearl Kauffman was another guest of the group.

Sorority Gathers for Holiday Party

Iota Eta Chapter of Pi Omicron Sorority held its annual Christmas dinner at Colonial Manor in Royal Oak Friday evening. A party followed the dinner at the Orchard Lake avenue home of Mrs. Gerald Kirkby.

Gifts were exchanged and the pledge service was given by Mrs. Burt Burt, president, to Mrs. Paul Hoskins, Mrs. Dudley Moore of Auburn Heights, and Noreen Van Cleave of Birmingham. The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leon R. Skelley of Woodland avenue.

Employees Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moote were hosts at a dinner at Old Mill Tavern Saturday evening in honor of employees of Fred Moote Electrical Service and their wives.

PTAs Give Yule Programs

Christmas parties continue to highlight PTA meetings.

Owen School will present a program entitled, "Christmas in Many Lands" for its Wednesday meeting. The entire student body will have a part in the presentation which will feature Christmas customs, manners of dress, music and traditions of celebration. The program will be held at 1:15 in the school gymnasium.

Homeroom mothers, teacher and executive board members of the school were honored at a Christmas party recently.

Mrs. John Maxwell and Mrs. Gordon Allison were co-chairmen for the event. Mrs. Henry Sibary and Mrs. Phillip Frank assisted in distributing favors.

Mrs. Theodore Fauble and Mrs. Leah Horvath won prizes during the entertainment hour. Presiding at the tea table during the social hour were Mrs. Russell Holmes and Mrs. Joseph W. Fouts.

Crofoot

Peggy Warren and Barbara McClure were narrators for Crofoot School's pageant "The First Christmas."

Taking part in the pageant were Ted Hoffman, Joyce Hillier, David Cooper, James Berryman, Robert Tressle, Kenneth Byrd, Robert Rutherford, Terry Sandage, Melvin Riggs, Harold Logan and Milton Knott.

Bible Classes Hold Christmas Party

The annual Christmas event of Gleaners and Bible classes of Central Christian Church was held Friday evening at the church.

Mrs. Guy Leffel was in charge of the program. Charles D. Race led in the singing of Christmas carols and Mrs. Zola Phillips presented a devotional program. Carolyn McLain presented a reading, "The Gifts of the Wisemen." Helen

LeBaron

Children of the fifth and sixth grades of LeBaron School presented a five part dramatization for the school's Christmas program held Thursday.

Janet Sucko played harpsicord accompaniment for the children's singing. LeBaron School choir had a special part in the program.

Last Minute Drive Gives Lions 14-10 Victory

CLEVELAND (AP)—Budd Parker's Detroit Lions defeated the Cleveland Browns for the seventh time in eight tries Sunday, and after the blizzard-bowl game the rival coaches said:

Paul E. Brown — "We'd have liked a victory in that one, but we didn't get it."

Parker — "I wish that were the score of next Sunday's game."

The score was 14-10, and the Lions hit the airways for the come-from-behind touchdown in the last 50 seconds after it appeared the Browns had it wrapped up.

The game, except for the prestige involved, meant nothing, since each team had already clinched its division championship. It was a make-up tilt, postponed from Oct. 3, and served as a practice swing for next Sunday's clash between the same clubs for the world championship.

This marks the third straight year the Lions and Browns have tangled for the big prize, Detroit winning 17-7 in 1952 and 17-16 a year ago.

The outcome of Sunday's game gave the National League scoring title to the Lions by a single point, 337 to 336 for the Browns, but the Clevelanders clung to the best defensive mark with 182 points allowed against 180 for Detroit.

Most astounding thing about the game, played in deep snow which fell for hours before and during the game, was that Cleveland's vaunted passing attack, its most dangerous weapon, gained only four yards. Otto Graham completed only one of six tries.

But Detroit's Bobby Layne connected on 18 of 37 and 183 yards and both touchdowns. The first came on a 26-yarder to end Dorn Dibble to deadlock the game at 7-7 in the third quarter. Then Layne completed six of seven tries—four to Jug Girard for 55 yards—in the eight-play 74-yard drive which won in the final minute. The payoff was an 11-yarder to Girard.

Early in the fourth session Doak Walker, who had successfully booted 11 of 16 tries this season, missed a field goal from the 16 and things looked up for the Browns who led 10-7. But they had to kick with three minutes to go, and Detroit used two minutes and 19 seconds to get into the end zone for the winning counter.

Snow covered the yardlines, and the temperature was in the low 20's, but 34,188 fans stayed to the finish. The Browns made only 6 first downs and 109 yards on the ground while the Lions piled up 15 first downs and added 90 rushing yards to their 183 through the air.

The Browns, who lost two of their first three and then ran up eight straight victories, wound up the regular season with a 9-3 record and their fifth straight Eastern Division title—a league record. The Lions finished with a 9-2-1 record.

Cards' Moon Given Rookie Honors in NL

Young Outfielder Hit .304 After Replacing Veteran Slaughter

NEW YORK (AP)—Wally Moon, the kid who filled a man's job for the St. Louis Cardinals, is the National League "Rookie of the Year."

The 24-year-old outfielder was put on the spot from the start by the Cards, who, two days before the season opened, decided the time had come to replace their long-time right fielder, Enos Slaughter. Moon was the lad they picked to take over.

He rose to the occasion from the start, slugging a home run as leadoff man in the opening game. He kept up that kind of performance all season, finishing with 203 hits, scoring 106 runs and batting at a respectable .304 clip.

Moon collected 17 of 24 first-place votes in the balloting by the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America. The other seven votes were distributed among three other yearlings with Ernie Banks Chicago Cubs' shortstop the runner-up with four of them.

Two Milwaukee first-year men, pitcher Gene Conley and outfielder Hank Aaron, finishing three, four.

Benefit to Aid Pro After Loss in Fire

ARLHENE, Tex. (AP)—They're going to have a benefit golf tournament here for a pro who lost $4,500 worth of golf equipment when his shop burned.

The West Texas Pro-Amateur Golf Assn. will hold the one-day tournament Wednesday to help Harold Smith, pro at Lamesa, Tex., whose loss in the fire last week was not insured.

Pros will not be charged an entry fee but, instead, will contribute golf merchandise to replenish Smith's shop. Amateurs will pay an entry fee, net proceeds of which will go to Smith.

California Replaces NY as Racing's 'Big Apple'

NEW YORK (INS)—The New York State Harness Racing commission noted today that California has surpassed New York as the "big apple" of thoroughbred racing.

In its annual report the commission said that New York lost the lead "due to the inability of its licensed associations to meet increasing purse distributions which racing associations in other states can afford by virtue of their greater share of the 'take.'"

Montreal Trips Red Wings to Boost NHL Lead

Canadiens Move Into 5-Point Margin Over Detroit, Toronto

DETROIT (AP)—Montreal's Canadiens, victory hungry when they get near the Detroit Red Wings, had a feast last night while the Wings fasted, 3-0, in their National Hockey League game.

Canadiens increased their league lead by 5 points. Detroit's string of seven games without defeat was broken as goalie Jacques Plante scored his 1st shutout since returning from five weeks on the injury list.

Detroit, meeting the Boston Bruins Saturday night, easily took the 7th victory by beating the Bruins, 4-1. That game was delayed 45 minutes in starting when Boston's equipment failed to arrive on time.

Ken Mosell of the Canadiens scored twice last night — his 15th and 16th goals of the season. Floyd Curry got his 6th, Dickie Moore his 5th and Bernie Geoffrion his 22nd.

Montreal's victory was its 5th over the NHL's defending champions. The Wings were only in the game for 10 minutes, fading badly as Montreal took over rest of the way.

Curry, a dependable veteran, began the scoring with a slick backhand at 10:54 of the 1st period.

Sequoia Trees
Make ComebackOnce Near Obliterated
Giants Thriving Steadily
Under Cultivation

WASHINGTON (UP)—The gigantic sequoia tree, common in prehistoric times but almost obliterated in the Ice Age, may once again thrive as before.

Sequoia forests are now being carefully cultivated in New Zealand, Japan, India, Alaska, South Africa, Germany and at points in the eastern United States. Extensive areas in California also are given over to raising the giant trees, notably the giant forest of Sequoia National Park.

A group of the trees in Wales, imported from California 85 years ago, are now 100 feet tall. One thousand of the redwoods, shipped to Hawaii 27 years ago, are still flourishing in the tropical climate.

Fossil remains indicate that the sequoia covered sections of Europe, western Asia, and the Arctic before the Ice Age. Only three species survived the onslaught of the glaciers.

Largest of the existing family is sequoia gigantea, also called bigtree. It grows on the slopes of the Sierra Nevada range in California at altitudes of from 4,000 to 8,000 feet.

The General Sherman tree in the Sierra forests is 5,500 years old, 275 feet high and 168.4 feet around its base. It contains 400, 120 board feet, enough wood to construct 30 six-room houses.

A close relative of the bigtree is sequoia sempervirens, or coast redwood, which grows near the sea from southern Oregon to south of San Francisco. The world's tallest tree, a coast redwood near Dyerville, Calif., is 364 feet high, equal to the height of a 26-story building.

Specimens of the metasequoia or dawn redwood, the third species, were found in 1847 in several valleys of central China. Unlike the other two varieties, the dawn redwood sheds its leaves seasonally.

The sequoia was named in 1847 by Stephen Endlicher, a Hungarian botanist, in honor of the Cherokee Indian chief, Sequoyah.

The coast redwoods are especially desirable for use in commercial construction. They are heavier and less brittle than the bigtree.

Pfeiffer Five Keeps
Match-Game Title

DETROIT (U)—Pfeiffer's retained its Michigan match-game bowling title, sweeping six blocks from the challenging E. & B. team and winning by 743 pins in a tournament series which ended up in suburban Ferndale last night. Both are Detroit teams sponsored by breweries.

Pfeiffer's won the Ferndale matches 285 to 275 to add 100 pins to its lead. In a 5th block, rolled at Adrian yesterday, Pfeiffer's won, 298-290, a margin of 44 pins.

SHOW OF HANDS—Contrasting gloves and glove-hat at new Paris showings, is novel "marriage" in fashion by glove-maker Perrin and milliner Alexandre Carita.
