Cause of State Prosperity Divides Romney, Staeble

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—"Progress for Michigan" under his administration was Republican Gov. George Romney's Sunday punch in debate last night at the Michigan AFL-CIO Convention.

"More showmanship than substance," was the report of Congressman Neil Staeble, Romney's Democratic challenger in the debate and in the Nov. 3 election.

Chevrolet Previews New Cars

GAYLORD (AP)—Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corp. previewed its new cars today and featured the first major styling change in the Corvair.

So-called sports models—hardtops and convertibles—make up 20 of the 45 models offered in the five Chevrolet lines.

The firm said the regular Chevrolet, long-time industry sales leader, is the most luxurious car ever offered by the line.

The new Chevy is longer by three inches, wider by one and a half inches, and one inch lower than in 1964. The 119 inch wheelbase was retained, but the chassis was widened 2.2 inches in front and 3.1 inches in the rear.

The Corvair showed its first major styling change since it was introduced in the 1959 model year. The car is longer and lower with a slightly slanted front end, recessed dual headlights and downward tapered front and rear decks.

EN ROUTE WITH PRESIDENT JOHNSON (AP)—Lyndon B. Johnson flew into the Northwest today on his first foreign trip as president, alternately sounding like a diplomat and soft-sell candidate.

En route to Vancouver, B.C., for ceremonies marking the first ratification of the United States-Canada Columbia River Treaty, the President reminded Northwestern voters of the economic aid given their area by his and the Kennedy administrations.

In a speech prepared for delivery at Great Falls, Mont., Johnson recalled the $2 million he allocated last June in flood relief funds for northwestern Montana and said that today he had approved another $4.5 million for reconstruction.

He predicted that the Columbia River development project would provide jobs, power and recreational facilities.

The President, who repeatedly has made pointed efforts in this campaign to woo Republican voters, noted that the treaty resulted from the work of both parties in Congress.

PROMISED PROGRAM

"Four years ago," he added, "President Kennedy came to Billings and promised a broad new program for conservation and development of our resources."

"These promises have been fulfilled. There has been more legislation, more action, more construction in the past four years than at any time in our history. And Mike Mansfield (Senate majority leader from Montana) with the help of Sen. Lee Metcalf, D-Mont. and Rep. Arnold Olsen, D-Mont., has led the greatest conservation Congress in our history."

The President's two day sweep through the Northwest was not the first time he has swept the White House as political. Thus it is being paid for by government funds.

1,100 CONVENTIONEERS
They debated before an audience of some 1,100 convention delegates and guests reminded by state president August (Gus) Scholle to be "gentlemen and ladies... and listen with respect."

The admonition failed to quell cheers for points made by Staeble. But early bows and catcalls for Romney faded later in the program to applause in places as he pressed points of Michigan progress.

Romney cited a vast range of gains in fields of economic gains, unemployment reductions, a surplus in state funds, expanded programs to combat mental health and juvenile delinquency, expanded education facilities, a new State Constitution, better old-age assistance, highway safety and upgraded unemployment compensation.

A 90-minute question-and-answer period caught the fancy of debate spectators. A total of 21 questions was submitted from the floor.

"Without double talk," he asked Romney, "Do you support the Goldwater-Miller Republican national ticket?"

"I made my point clear some time ago," the governor answered. "Our Republican party has made its decision for the current campaign. It has adopted its candidates and platform. I accept them. I will vote for none other than the Republican party candidates."

Staeble volunteered that he supported the Democratic party national ticket without reservation.

In answer to another question, Romney said the Republican proposed Massachusetts ballot proposal facing Michigan voters in November, and bitterly opposed by the AFL-CIO, would strengthen the two-party system.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, in the heart of the South, today invited Democrats "by the tens of thousands" to enlist in the Republican cause.

He told an airport crowd estimated at about 10,000 people that the GOP better represents Southern Democrats' states rights constitutional views.

Goldwater praised Sen. Strom Thurmond, a South Carolina Democrat for declaring support of the GOP ticket and deciding to switch parties.

In the heartland of the Tennessee Valley Authority country, Goldwater reiterated his proposal that he portions of that agency be sold. He said that proposal is "within the general framework" of his drive against "a planned, socialized economy."

Goldwater said he stands behind his proposal for sale of some portions of TVA.

PRAISES SWITCH

He praised Florida State Rep. Mallory Horne, a Democrat who has switched to the Republican ticket.

A Confederate flag fluttering behind him, Goldwater said, "One of the great Americans in this country, Strom Thurmond, a Democrat, has decided that he's had enough."

Goldwater, in his prepared talk, challenged President Johnson to tell the American people where he stands on Communist China.

Goldwater's other stops today on the second of a four-day Southern campaign swing: Memphis and River Bluff, Tenn., Macon, Ga., and Montgomery, Ala.

Goldwater tied into Johnson on the Cuba question by accusing him of "blue-pencil attempts to delete political mistakes" from a speech he delivered yesterday to the International Association of Machinists in Miami.

Goldwater said Johnson asked reporters to delete two "seriously damaging or at least dubious statements in regard to Communist Cuba" from the text of his Miami speech.

One, he said, "was that Castro has failed to spread communism in this hemisphere. That is incredible."

He said the other statement was that "Castro's Communist dictatorship in Cuba poses no threat to the United States."

Coal Miners Rescued

BOTTFORD, Germany (AP)—The ceiling of a coal mine gallery collapsed 2,000 feet below ground today, trapping 16 miners for nearly 12 hours. The miners were brought to the surface in the early afternoon. None of them was injured.

'Can Destroy All Life'

K Boasts of Terrible Weapon

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev says the Soviet Union has a new secret weapon which could destroy all life on earth. His words seemed to be aimed primarily at Red China and not at the West.

Khrushchev, who did not describe the weapon, was speaking to a Japanese parliamentary delegation yesterday. The Japanese said he mentioned the weapon during a blast at Chinese Communist leader Mao Tse-tung.

Khrushchev accused Mao of wanting to take over Soviet territory. The Japanese said Khrushchev told them the Soviet Union hates war and doesn't want to use its new weapons, but "if you live among wolves, you should howl like a wolf."

Khrushchev made no mention of the West during his discussion of new weapons, the Japanese reported.

He told them that Soviet military men and scientists on Monday had showed him "new means of destruction" which the Soviet Union now possesses. He said he was amazed to learn that it could end all life.

ONE WEAPON?

Kenji Fukunaga, leader of the Japanese delegation, told a news conference today that he had the impression that Khrushchev was referring to one weapon, not several.

In Washington, U.S. government experts said Khrushchev might be talking about a cobalt bomb, which would produce huge amounts of lethal, long-lived radioactive fallout; a "death ray," possibly a highly concentrated, intense beam of light; a neutron bomb that would destroy life without damaging structures in the target area, or some major advance in chemical or germ warfare.

The Japanese said Khrushchev did not say specifically that the new Soviet weapon is nuclear, but they understood him to mean that. They said after telling them of it, he discussed the need to use nuclear energy for peaceful purposes.

The Japanese said Khrushchev accused Mao of "spreading warlike sentiments" and that Mao's territorial claims "are not the words of a communist but of a nationalist."

Showers to Hit Area Tomorrow and Saturday

A few showers will dampen the Pontiac area tomorrow and again Saturday with rainfall measuring near one-fourth of an inch.

Temperatures will warm up a little, the highs for the next five days averaging 3 or 4 degrees above the normal high of 73 and low of 55.

Tonight's low will be in the low 50s.

Winds will continue at 8 to 15 miles per hour south to southwesterly.

Forty-two was today's low reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. At 2 p.m. the mercury had climbed to 65.

OK Extending Sewer Service

Accord Between City and Waterford Twp.

The extension of Pontiac sewage treatment service to a portion of Waterford Township was officially okayed last night by the Pontiac City Commission.

Commissioners voted to extend a 1958 agreement to serve an area between Elizabeth Lake Road and Menominee, extending about three blocks west from Telegraph.

In effect, last night's formal action means that if and when the township installs sanitary sewers in that area, it may connect them to the city's sanitary sewer system.

Township officials had requested the extension last year.

City Engineer Joseph E. Neipring said that 200 homes, 10 commercial establishments and 30 vacant lots would be serviced by the proposed sewers.

Approximately 200 of Chief Pontiac's braves held a meeting Tuesday at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club to inspect the 1965 Pontiac automobiles.

Veteran warriors Russell L. Norris and Buel E. Starr were specially honored for their long, faithful and competent service to the community and Pontiac Motor Division.

UAW Warns 125,000 Men Will Walk Out

Another Ultimatum Looms at Chrysler on Salaried Workers

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers served a 48-hour strike notice on the Ford Motor Co. today, threatening to pull 125,000 men off the job at 10 a.m. Friday unless a new contract is reached by that time.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther served the strike notice on the company as union and management negotiators resumed contract talks this morning.

The strike threat came in the wake of prior company and union expressed hopes that an agreement could be arrived at by Friday without a strike.

Last week, the UAW and Chrysler came to an understanding on a new three-year contract less than an hour before a union strike deadline at that auto company.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Reuther announced the Ford strike notice to newsmen just before entering the bargaining room at Ford headquarters in Dearborn.

He said at the same time that the union was prepared to "join with the company in good faith to resolve the questions that are still unsettled."

Malcolm Denise, Ford vice president for labor relations, said the strike deadline came as no surprise. "I don't think this essentially changes the picture," said Denise.

The Ford strike threat was the second in the auto industry within 24 hours bearing on the union's contract talks.

A new one loomed at Chrysler.

The UAW said it would call out several thousand Chrysler salaried workers—also at 10 a.m. Friday—unless an agreement was reached for that group. Union sources said last week's Chrysler agreement covered only hourly workers.

Today's strike notice to Ford followed a negotiations crisis yesterday during which talks were suspended five hours because of a wildcat strike of some Ford Rouge plant workers challenging the Chrysler agreement.

The union has called the Chrysler agreement a pattern for the industry. The strikers ultimately went back to work.

11-Year-Old Killed as Car Strikes Bike

An 11-year-old Brandon Township youth died yesterday afternoon when he was struck by a car while riding his bike on M15 south of Orionville.

Dead is William S. Bretz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Bretz of 385 W. Glass.

State Police said the boy, a Brandon Elementary School sixth grader, was riding north on M15 when his bicycle veered into the path of a northbound car.

The driver of the vehicle, Bowen R. Brock, 30, of 1081 Kirkshire, Bloomfield Hills, was not held by police.

Sen. Thurmond to Bolt Dems

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina is to announce tonight he is leaving the Democratic ranks to become a Goldwater Republican.

The conservative senator's intentions were reported today by an unquestionably informed source who would not permit attribution.

The announcement is scheduled for a television speech which Thurmond plans to make from Columbia, S.C., at 6:15 p.m. EST.

Thurmond himself declined to comment on various earlier reports of his plan to make the shift, but he did say "I hope to help establish a strong two-party system in the South."

And he permitted advance quotations from an address he prepared for tomorrow, introducing Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the GOP presidential nominee, at the Spartanburg-Greenville airport.

At the very outset of that speech, Thurmond charts his new position:

"I am indeed happy to have the opportunity to present to you today the man whom I feel in my heart should have the support of all South Carolinians and all Americans who cherish the United States Constitution and the freedom and stability which this great document was designed to preserve for all Americans of all generations."

Tonight's announcement will not be Thurmond's first break with the Democratic party.

As the States Rights candidate he carried South Carolina, Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi against the Democrats in the 1948 presidential campaign.

ACCUSE DEMS

And tonight, it was learned, he plans to accuse the Democrats of having abandoned the people, breaking their trust and having led an evolution toward socialism.

Advertisements in several newspapers in South Carolina and North Carolina today said Thurmond's appearance on a two-state television hookup "will be of vital concern to every thinking citizen."

'Strom Thurmond voices his convictions," the ads said. "Watch history being made!"

Small print at the bottom of the ads said they were paid for by the South Carolina Republican party.

REALIGNMENT

The Columbia Broadcasting System says Thurmond, 61, has decided to become a Republican because he believes "there should be a realignment in American politics—with all liberals in one party and all the conservatives in the other."

Several sources in South Carolina also say Thurmond will bolt the Democrats.

Leader in Attempted Coup Gives Self Up in Saigon

SAIGON, Viet Nam (U-B)—Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat, the former interior minister who organized the abortive coup last Sunday, surrendered to government authorities in Saigon today, bringing an end to the crisis for the time being.

Phat was one of several rebel officers who withdrew with their troops and tanks to My Tho, 40 miles south of Saigon, after the coup collapsed Monday.

The Saigon Radio warned today that if he did not surrender to Saigon authorities, the government "would not be responsible for his safety."

Phat heard the broadcast in My Tho and came to Saigon. Also expected to surrender soon was another officer on the wanted list, an ex-chief of suburban Gia Dinh Province, Col. Nhan Minh Thuan.

Phat was the fifth coup leader to surrender to the government and to be placed under arrest.

Vital Clues Sought in 3 Slayings

DETROIT (U-B)—A missing gun and other vital clues still had top priority today as detectives tried to solve the slayings of former radio personality Pierre Paulin and two other persons.

"We think we're making progress but there's still a lot of investigating to do," said Police Lt. William Sheedy yesterday, nearly 24 hours after the discovery of the fatal slayings.

Paulin, father of five children, was found shot in the chest Monday in a control booth room at the Detroit School of Announcing and Speech, Inc. He owned the school.

Mrs. John H. Frazier, 40, and Clarence De Pote, 47-year-old used car dealer, were found in a soundproof lounge of the school.

Mrs. Frazier, mother of four children and wife of a railroad engineer, had been shot seven times. One bullet had pierced De Pote.

"RILED UP" Dr. E. S. Zawadzki, Wayne-Detroit County medical examiner, said the killings apparently were committed by "somebody pretty well riled up."

Police said there were no signs of a struggle and no indications of forcible entry at the storefront school on Detroit's northwest side. No weapon was found.

Already detained were Maj. Gen. Duong Van Duc, former 4th Corps commander; Col. Huynh Van Thon, former 7th Division commander who agreed to return to Saigon from My Tho earlier today; Col. Duong Hieu Nghia, commander of the rebel armor; and Brig. Gen. Duong Ngoc Lam, former mayor of Saigon.

The return of Ton to Saigon virtually ended fears that rebel remnants might try to organize a new power grab. It had been feared Ton and others might try to make the 7th Division area, which starts just south of Saigon, an autonomous zone.

During the day, Premier Khanh and other top officers conferred and reshuffled the military command structure.

Phat denounced Khanh as a traitor to the nation in a broadcast Sunday after his forced return to Saigon. Presumably, he faces more severe punishment than the others.

AUTONOMOUS STATE

Reports from reliable military sources said Phat and Ton had planned to convert the northern Mekong Delta into an autonomous state cutting off communications and the road to Saigon. By late afternoon, however, all of the bridges on the road were intact and Ton was back in Saigon.

Most of the 7th Division area is controlled by the Communist Viet Cong, which complicates the situation still more.

Loyalist generals in Saigon appeared to be exerting more control over government developments than Khanh himself. Air Force Commander Nguyen Cao Ky appeared to be the key man.

Ky, whose defiance of the rebels was a major factor in the failure of the revolt, said dissent leaders still at large were not strong enough to stage a successful coup.

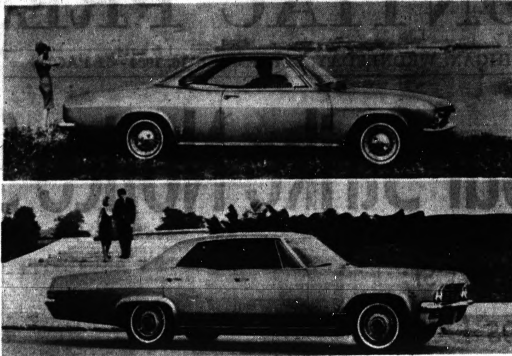

CALLS FOR PURGE

Calling for a purge of "corrupt and divisive" members of the officer corps, he said five commanders involved in the weekend rebellion allowed him to return to duty and he believed 9 or 10 other senior officers should go.

Ky said five generals exiled to the mountain city of Dalat after Khanh seized power last January should not be allowed to return to duty as Khanh had indicated they would.

Ky said the five, all supporters of Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, South Viet Nam's figurehead chief of state, were "obscene, unnecessary and incapable."

"They must be kicked out," he declared.

'65 Chevrolet Line Unveiled

The 1965 Chevrolets, Chevelles, Chevy II's, Corvairs and Corvettes were unveiled today by General Motors Corporation.

Of the 45 models, 20 are sport models — convertibles or hard-tops.

Corvair, the rear-engine compact, made its first major styling change since its introduction in 1959.

The new Chevrolet line will go on display Sept. 24 at Matthews-Hargreaves, Inc., 631 Oakland; Patterson Chevrolet Co., 1000 S. Woodward, Birmingham; Homer High Motors, Inc., 100 S. Washington, Oxford; Haskins Chevrolet, Inc., 6751 Dixie, Clarksville; and Taylor Chevrolet Sales, 142 E. Wallad Lake, Wallad Lake.

They will also be on display at Van Camp Chevrolet, Inc., 334 N. Main, Milford; Grissman Chevrolet Co., 755 S. Rochester, Rochester; Al Hanoute, Inc., 209 N. Park, Lake Orion; and Bill Root Chevrolet, Inc., 32715 Grand River, Farmington.

STYLING CHANGES

Styling refinements on basic 1964 designs are featured on the Chevelle, Chevy II and Corvair lines.

The Chevelle is longer by three inches, wider by one and one-half inches and lower by one inch. Major restyling marks the car.

Among approximately 400 accessories and optional features available on 1965 Chevrolets is the first FM stereo system offered by an auto maker.

The Corvair also becomes the first American car to provide four-wheel disc brakes as standard equipment.

Other new features on Chevrolet models will be a two-key lock system as added protection against vehicle theft and a "helicopter" steering wheel in Corvairs and Corvettes.

A wide range of engines and transmissions is offered in all lines.

U.S. Experts Speculate on Type of Destruction

WASHINGTON (AP)—The "new means of destruction" claimed by Soviet Premier Khrushchev could be a major advance in chemical or germ warfare, government experts said today.

Defense sources stressed they were speculating in the absence of any hard intelligence information about what Khrushchev meant in a talk to a Japanese group in the Kremlin yesterday.

Developments considered in the realm of the possible included:

The dread cobalt bomb, a nuclear device using a shell of cobalt instead of steel. Explosion of such a bomb would unleash huge amounts of lethal and long-lived radioactive fallout.

A "death ray," possibly a highly concentrated, intense beam of light.

NEUTRON BOMB

The neutron bomb, another kind of death ray weapon whose emissions would destroy all life in a target area but would do virtually no damage to structures.

Defense experts were not disposed to dispute the existence of a significant new Soviet weapon on hand. They noted that Soviet boasting of this sort generally has had some basis, although a few inflated for propaganda effect.

At the same time, they were not dismissing the possibility that this might be a ploy by Khrushchev to frighten his Communist Chinese foes and that the Soviet leader might have taken liberties with the truth.

Officially the Defense Department declined comment. This is usual in such instances.

NEW WEAPON CLAIMED BY K

He said Mao's claims are similar to Hitler's demands for living space for Nazi Germany.

Two weeks ago, the Russians accused China of wanting about 500,000 square miles of Soviet territory. The accusation was made after Mao had told a delegation of Japanese Socialists that the Soviet Union had too much territory which rightfully belonged to others.

Mao said the Russians should give back to the Japanese the Kurile Islands, which the Soviet Union has held since World War II.

Khrushchev told the Japanese the Kuriles would be returned only if the United States gave up Okinawa, also captured from Japan during World War II.

Program Set in Waterford

To Kick Off Plan for Community Schools

Two breakfasts and an all-day workshop next Tuesday at the Dryden Plains Elementary School will kick off the community school program in Waterford Township.

A 7:30 a.m. breakfast is scheduled for members of the township board, school board and recreation board as well as area business leaders.

School principals, area clergy and Parent Teacher Association organizations will convene for a 9 a.m. breakfast.

Throughout the day, activities included in the community school concept will be presented to acquaint the public with the workings of the program which encourages greater use of school facilities by all members of the community.

Demonstration classes for preschoolers and parents will be held in the morning with senior citizens activities slated for the early afternoon.

Elementary school functions will be presented later in the afternoon and teen-age and adult education activities are scheduled from 7 to 9 p.m.

The community school program is being aided by a $50,000 grant from the Mott Foundation on a matching fund basis.

Waterford's program is being patterned after the nationally known Flint community school program.

Boy Waves at Dad Who Shot Him

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI)—Four-year-old Paul Mender clambered up on the witness chair, smiled, waved and blew kisses at his father. Then he told how "Daddy shot me" seven times.

William Mender, 46, a San Francisco merchant seaman, is being tried on a charge of assault with intent to kill for the shooting of his son last July 6 while he was taking a "good-bye" stroll with the youngster.

The seaman told authorities he shot the boy because he would rather see his head than placed in the custody of Mender's estranged wife, Ruth.

Paul was called as a prosecution witness yesterday in the non-jury trial before Superior Judge Joseph Brason.

Paul actually was shot seven times. One bullet grazed his heart; another damaged his spleen so badly that it was removed; another remains in his leg.

On this grounds, they tended to discount the 100-megaton bomb, which is hardly new in Khrushchev's terminology.

The neutron bomb, it was noted, likely would have a relatively short killing range, and thus would not seem to fit Khrushchev's description of the new weapon as capable of annihilating life on earth.

LASER RESEARCH

He did not go into detail, but the House Appropriations Committee reported in April that "a death ray type of weapon might evolve from laser research."

Laser derives from "light amplification by stimulated emission of radiation," a very intense light beam.

The committee voted funds to push work on such weapons of the future as death ray and chemical agents that could "render persons helpless for short periods of time without causing large numbers of fatalities."

It is no secret that the United States has been experimenting with and manufacturing various kinds of nerve gases, some of which incapacitate and others that kill.

Pentagon specialists said they are always hearing rumors of Soviet experiments for chemical-biological warfare.

If, as some experts think, Khrushchev was talking about a new weapon of this kind, it would appear he was referring to something lethal and not a paralyzing or incapacitating nerve gas.

Bloomfield Twp. Board to Request Traffic Study

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP

The children have gone back to school, and the Township Board is heading back to the Oakland County Road Commission.

This year the board is concerned about children walking along Opdyke and Quanton.

Trustees will ask the road commission to conduct a traffic survey on Opdyke from Square Lake Road to the Bloomfield Hills city limit and on Quanton from Telegraph to Franklin Road.

Study of the first stretch, which is just north of two schools, was requested by the township police department. There is no posted speed limit, according to Supervisor Homer Case.

Both junior high and elementary school students use Quanton Road, where trustees want the speed limit reduced from 40 to 25 m.p.h.

NARROW SHOULDER

"It was reduced to 40 two years ago when the road was first blacktopped," Case said. He noted the route is dangerous for pedestrians because of a relatively narrow shoulder.

The supervisor said both he and police officers had received numerous telephone complaints about the road from residents of the area.

While requesting the two studies, Case was authorized to ask the road commission why nothing has been done about the township's last two requests, concerning Lahser at Brother Rice School and Adams at Harlan Elementary School.

Trustees accepted a $163,500 township library budget for 1965-66. The budget will be financed through a 1-mill tax expected to net $158,000 and $5,500 from other sources.

FIGURE INCLUSIONS

The budget figure includes salaries, $47,250; contract with Baldwin Public Library in Birmingham, $40,050; books and processing, $33,900; operating, $35,900; and furniture and equipment, $6,400.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Mrs. Aline B. Saarinen, widow of architect Eero Saarinen, is one of four outstanding Americans who will receive honorary degrees from the University of Michigan Saturday.

The degrees and a regents' citation will be awarded when the university dedicates its $4.25-million School of Music Building.

Others to be honored are conductor Leonard Bernstein, composer Aaron Copland and Earl V. Moore, chairman of the municipal department at the University of Houston and dean emeritus of the U. of M. Music School.

AUTHOR-LECTURER

Mrs. Saarinen, former art critic for the New York Times, is an author and lecturer in her own right. Last June, she was appointed by President Kennedy to the Federal Fine Arts Commission.

She now lives in Connecticut where the architectural firm founded by her husband and father-in-law is located.

The elder Saarinen, Eiel, was the first head of Cranbrook Academy of Art. Father and son were associated in a Birmingham office while living in Bloomfield Hills.

Paul Nick

Service for Paul Nick, 73, of 300 Woodward, Bloomfield Township, will be 1 p.m. tomorrow at St. George Greek Orthodox Church, Pontiac. Burial will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery, Pontiac.

Mr. Nick, a retired grocery clerk, died yesterday after a long illness.

A Trisitation service will be 8 p.m. today at Voorhes-Stile Funeral Home, Pontiac.

Another option offered Valiant owners for the first time is a factory-installed air-conditioning unit. The unit will operate with either fresh or recirculated air.

STOP THE MUSIC!—Inspector Carl Bear of the Cleveland Juvenile Bureau steps in front of the microphone during the Beatles' performance at Public Hall and tells the crowd of listening youngsters the show is over. Police feared a youngster might be trampled in the melee last night as teens rushed up the center aisle toward the Beatles. After a 15-minute delay, the show was resumed.

Johnson Bills Stalled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders are looking to President Johnson for help in getting three major segments of his program moving on Capitol Hill.

The President, off today on a Western trip, was reported to have discussed with leaders by phone Tuesday methods of leapfrogging a legislative reapportionment roadblock in the Senate that has stalled action on his foreign aid and Appalachian aid measures.

Leaders also were looking to him for suggestions on how to salvage the health care program passed by the Senate. It was sent by the House to an uncertain fate in a Senate-House conference committee named to iron out differences in its parent Social Security measure.

Johnson was confronted with a situation in which he would need all of his often-outlined persuasive powers to save any or all of the measures from a stalemate that threatened to keep the election year Congress in session indefinitely. Senate

Democratic leaders said it might last until Nov. 1.

LEADERS' CHOICE

There were indications that if he has to choose, Johnson would prefer the $1 billion aid program for 11 states touched by the Appalachian ranges where there are areas of deep economic distress.

Johnson, who toured some of the areas earlier in the year, made some firm promises that he would act to aid them. He stands to lose face — and votes — if that pledge goes unfulfilled.

The Appalachian bill, however, is stuck behind the bogged-down foreign aid measure. Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen has offered a rider to the aid bill to stay for a year or more court-ordered reapportionment of both houses of state legislatures on a population basis.

Senate liberals, directed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Johnson's vice presidential running mate, lost 42 to 40 an attempt to substitute a compromise Tuesday. It would have advised the courts to give adequate time for reapportionment but would not have attempted to compel them to do so.

NEW ATTEMPT

Humphrey promised a new attempt to compromise the issue. He noted that the original, in which he joined Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., had lost by only two votes. But Dirksen said that if there hadn't been so many absentees, the defeat would have been greater and McCarthy conceded that probably was true.

Any presidential effort to exert pressure in this situation was complicated by the fact that Mansfield, a passenger on the presidential trip to the West, had joined Dirksen in sponsoring the rider and in voting against the substitute.

DENIAL BILL

After it was beaten, Sen. Strom Thurmond, D. S. C., brought up a House-passed bill to deny federal courts jurisdiction over reapportionment cases. The Senate killed it, 51 to 21.

This left matters where they stood before Sen. Dirksen's move. Dirksen said he would not agree to take his proposal down for a vote on Appalachia. Neither was he willing, he said, to join in round-the-clock sessions to silence the talk.

Dirksen said there would have to be a vote on his proposal before there could be any attempt to pass a bill which would authorize continuance of foreign aid until June 30, 1965.

Administration supporters, who had hoped to get a vote in the House this week on the program of health care for the elderly, backed down Tuesday and allowed the measure to go to a conference committee without instructions.

Automobiles in 1925 averaged about 22,000 miles before they were scrapped. Now the age at which they are deemed useless has risen to 85,000 miles.

Court Orders Shelby Twp. to Issue Permit to Company

SHELBY TOWNSHIP—Township Board members were informed last night that the Macomb County Circuit Court had decided against them with regard to the Arlington Lumber & Supply Co. transit mix facility.

The township had earlier refused to issue an electrical permit to the firm at 21 Mile and Van Dyke, claiming that the transit mix facilities and the proposed purchase of a "batching stand" would be an expansion of nonconforming use of C2 property. The C2 classification is for "general business."

The township's grounds for refusal to issue an electrical permit included the height of the new stand, which is high enough to allow trucks to pull underneath for filling.

Orion Woman Reports Coin Collection Theft

Ruth Smith of 850 Pleasant Ridge, Orion Township, told sheriff's deputies yesterday that someone had stolen a coin collection valued at $900 from the trunk of her automobile. She said the collection was located in a white cooler and had been taken sometime during the past three weeks.

The stand would be in excess of the 35-foot maximum set for structures in a C2 zone.

VALID USE

The court decided that the use of the Arlington property for transit mix facilities in part was a valid use of C2 property, that the stand was to be considered equipment, not a structure, and that it would represent a lessening of any health hazard.

The latter judgment stems from the probability that the stand would reduce the amount of dust created by the transit mix operation by approximately 90 per cent.

The township was therefore ordered to issue an electrical permit to the firm, and township officials said last night that they will comply.

A similar matter will go to court tomorrow.

TOWNSHIP REFUSAL

The township's refusal to issue a permit to Ramona Land Corp. for a paper baler on landfill property at Auburn, east of Mound, will be argued in the Macomb County Circuit Court.

The township claims that the paper baler should be classified as light manufacturing, and that such an operation would not be a conforming use of C2 property.

A delegation of about 50 persons appeared before the board to complain about noise and late hours at two drive-in spots on Van Dyke.

The A & W Root Beer stand the Big Boy Drive-In at 21 Mile and Van Dyke were the targets of complaints by residents of the area.

EXCESSIVE NOISE

The residents said that the noise of blowing horns, squealing tires and general traffic noise from the two spots was excessive.

The matter was referred to township attorney Roy W. Rogenshaw for an opinion on the legality of an ordinance governing excessive noise from such sources.

In a similar case in East Detroit some time ago, a court ruling held that such an ordinance, setting closing and opening hours for drive-in restaurants, was unconstitutional.

Fourth District GOP Backs Barry, Romney

THREE RIVERS (AP) — Fourth Congressional District Republicans Tuesday night endorsed GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater and Gov. George Romney, two men who haven't thus far agreed on all issues.

Romney has said he would vote for the party's national ticket, but has not flatly endorsed Goldwater.

Open House Scheduled by Union Lake PTA

COMMERCIAL TOWNSHIP—An open house has been scheduled for the first meeting of the PTA year at Union Lake Elementary School Monday.

Parents will meet their children's teachers in their respective rooms during the 8 p.m. event. Teachers, PTA officers and committee chairman will be introduced by principal Hugh Davis.

Soil samples taken from frozen ground provide just as accurate samples, though they are more work to obtain. Some farmers use a brace and a 1-inch bit. Spread the sample on paper and let it thaw out and dry at room temperature.

Motion Filed to Halt Prayers for AAUW Season

Injunction Sought by Jenison Parents

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Parents opposing prayer and Bible reading at Jenison Public School filed motion Tuesday in U. S. District Court here for a preliminary injunction against such practices.

The action indicated that plaintiffs in the case are dissatisfied with a new policy adopted unanimously by the Jenison School Board Aug. 26.

The policy was filed with federal court Sept. 1 by the board to accompany a motion for summary judgment to dismiss the original complaint by the protesting parents.

No date was set by the court for hearing the petition which asks an injunction to restrain the defendant school board from:

—Enforcing the newly adopted statement of policy which authorizes, and encourages teachers to devise rules permitting prayer and Bible reading in class.

—Enforcing rules authorizing teachers to sanction and maintain prayers.

—Enforcing any procedures requiring parents or students to manifest objections to prayers, Bible reading or religious practices by means of petitions, letters or personal appearances at the school.

Episcopalian Bishop to Speak in Rochester

ROCHESTER — The Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, will be at St. Philip's Episcopal Church Sunday to confirm a class of 25 and preach the sermon.

A reception will be held in the underground of the church immediately following the 11 a.m. service.

new location at the Avon Township Library, the group will be introduced to Japan through readings of excerpts from the writings of Japanese thinkers and writers.

Readings will be presented by Mrs. John Solverson, Mrs. Michael Myle, Mrs. George Wallace and Mrs. James Sponseller.

A cooperative dinner will precede the program with members bringing their own table service and a dish to pass.

Newly elected president Mrs. Richard Kindinger will act as chairman for the meeting.

All area women who are college or university graduates are welcome to attend a tea for new members Oct. 1 at University Presbyterian Church, 1385 Adams.

2 Naturalists Named to Park Staff

MILFORD — G. Lee Curtis and W. Don Hollums, both former seasonal naturalists, have been appointed to the Kensington Metropolitan Park staff.

They will give lectures to youngsters visiting the park's nature center, explain exhibits to visitors and conduct the guided nature hikes available by appointment to school groups.

For the past year and a half, Curtis has been employed at the office of Hudson Mills Metropolitan Park near Dexter.

A 1957 graduate of Eastern Michigan University, he also attended Western Michigan University. Before becoming a seasonal naturalist at the Lower Huron Metropolitan Park in 1963, Curtis taught in the public school systems of Roseville and Chelsea.

Curtis won the 1952 Golden Gloves title in El Paso, Tex., while stationed there with the U.S. Army and the 1954 Golden Gloves title in Jackson.

Hollums, a native of Floydada, Tex., was graduated in June from Southwest Missouri State College, where he had majored in conservation education.

He served with the U.S. Forest Service at the Kamik National Forest, Sandpoint, Idaho, and also with the Idaho Fish and Game Department. For two years he was a junior high school teacher in the Banner School District in Goodman, Mo. Hollums and his wife have two children. They recently moved to Brighton from Springfield, Mo. He is a member of the National Wildlife Federation, National Parks Association and Conservation Education Association.

Welcome Mrs. Miller

LANSING (AP) — It was ladies' day in the Michigan political arena Tuesday as 700 women turned out to welcome Mrs. William Miller, wife of the Republican vice presidential candidate.

It was two Michigan women who spoke on the political issues, however.

Mrs. George Romney—wife of the governor—took up her husband's favorite theme, spelling out his administration's record in such areas as economic development, mental health, education and youth problems.

Mrs. Elly Peterson, former GOR national vice chairman and her party's candidate for the seat of Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich., urged the women to greater efforts for party victory.

Mrs. Miller confined her luncheon remarks to a note of thanks, and urged the women for party victories on the national, state and local levels.

In a news conference, she skirted political issues, saying she preferred leaving them to her husband. The conversation was limited to family questions.

She was not used to public appearances on her own, she said, and had held a news conference only once before.

She will be making more solo appearances, she said—the next one a Polish-American convention in Chicago over the weekend—"unless my husband is in the area at the time."

FEW REMARKS

She and her mother, Mrs. Stephen Wagner, will make a few remarks in Polish, she said.

She has met Mrs. Lyndon Johnson, she said and the two compared notes on the problems of running for office and rearing children. They belonged to the same international club—an organization of foreign ministers and members of congress.

The Millers' older daughters—Sue, 20, and Mary, 17, are close in age to Lynda Bird and Luci Baines Johnson.

The Bond addition will include a library and all-purpose room. Both expansion projects are a portion of the $5-million building program authorized by taxpayers in November, 1963.

Ladies' Day in State Politics

Although the children have never campaigned actively, Libby—now a senior at Newton College of the Sacred Heart—has become increasingly active and interested in politics, she said.

"You're looking at a woman who was buried by the polls—but I'm standing here today," she said.

She won a handy victory over two male candidates for the Republican nomination in the Sept. 1 primary.

Mrs. Peterson, a veteran politician, told the women to ignore public opinion polls.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Contracts for Sewer Work Let by Romeo Council

ROMEO — Contracts for two sewer projects, totaling more than $7,500, have been awarded by the Romeo Village Council.

Mello Consultants of Detroit was awarded a $3,699 bid for construction of a sanitary sewer on Prospect Street. The sewer is expected to serve about eight lots.

Clearhout Brothers Construction Co. of Detroit received a contract for a $3,805 storm sewer on East St. Clair.

Both firms were low bidders on the projects.

Four residents of East St. Clair appeared at Monday night's meeting to complain about the speed limit and no parking signs on that street.

CHANGES MADE

About six weeks ago, the Macomb County Road Commission put up the no parking signs and increased the speed limit on St. Clair from 25 to 35 miles per hour.

The council informed the residents that efforts to change the speed limit and/or parking classification of St. Clair through the commission had been unsuccessful to date.

Topic of PTA Is Teaching

AVON TOWNSHIP — Some of the new methods of teaching will be explained at tomorrow's 8 p.m. meeting of the Stone School PTA.

Speaker will be Assistant Avondale Schools Supt. Charles Johnson.

Parents also will have the opportunity to meet the teachers at the get-acquainted session.

Oakland County Circuit Judge James Thorburn and Frank Androni, vice president of Community National Bank, are local examples of school patrol boys who have gone on to bigger things.

SIGNIFICANT ROLE

The AAA states that the school safety patrol program has played a significant role in lowering traffic deaths among school-age children.

Since the program began in 1919, deaths among children 5-14 years of age have dropped from 300 yearly to 76 in 1963.

A patroler spends about 180 hours annually on street corners in all kinds of weather. He is at his corner 15 minutes before school opens and a few minutes before classes end for the day.

In most instances, the only reward is the satisfaction of protecting classmates from possible injury or death.

AAA does offer some reward to selected Michigan patrolers. Each year an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C., is given for outstanding performance. Last May, 130 youths made the trip.

Reject Request for Concourse Liquor Sale

City Commissioners last night rejected a request to allow liquor to be sold at tables on the concourse of a bowling establishment.

The seven-man commission voted a unanimous "no" to a request from Westside Lanes Inc., 199 Orchard Lake.

Generally, the concourse includes an area extending from the spectator seats to the outer wall or bar entrance. Some bowling establishments situate tables in this area.

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. emphasized that the commission's action in no way reflected on the city's bowling proprietors.

Instead, commissioners said that it was felt that nondrinkers should not have to be any closer to those that drink.

SIMILAR ACTION

The Pontiac commission's action followed by one day similar action by the Waterford Township Board.

In other business, commissioners approved a bid of $68,025 for an R20 urban renewal site improvement contract. Submitted by Stanley B. Jones of Pontiac, it was the lowest of two bids received on the contract.

Commissioners will formally award the contract to Jones at a future meeting.

Two recommendations of the City Planning Commission were upet in other action last night by the Pontiac City Commission.

REZONED LAND

A recommendation to deny rezoning as commercial property along the southeast corner of Walton and Joslyn was turned down.

Some 30 acres of land on 14 lots were rezoned to allow for a school bus dealership.

A majority of residents in the Malkin Farms subdivision had indicated they favored the rezoning in a hearing before the city planners.

However, the proposal was rejected by the planning commission because no plans were indicated for the remainder of the property. The bus dealership will cover only two lots.

SECOND REVERSAL

In a second reversal, the City Commission rejected a planning commission recommendation to deny rezoning to a proposed car wash.

The car wash, slated to be located on East Boulevard between Pike and Lookout, sought commercial zoning for a third back lot.

The car wash, which already has two lots on the site, wanted the third lot rezoned for added room. The City Commission agreed in granting the rezoning.

A proposal from the commandant of the Ninth Naval District, Rear Admiral H. A. Yeager, for a 10-year extension on a lease agreement with the city was also received last night.

TRAINING CENTER

The lease agreement, which is currently due to expire in June 1967, covers the Pontiac Naval Training Center, 469 S. East Boulevard.

The city leases the center to the Navy for a nominal $1 a year.

Rear Admiral Yeager wanted to know the future of the center.

Driver Denies Hitting Cyclist

The driver of an auto which was believed to have been involved in a Sunday night hit-and-run fatality appeared before sheriff's deputies Monday.

William L. Cox Jr., 3781 Saratoga, Oak Park, told deputies that his car had not hit the motorcycle driven by Gregory D. Strickley of Detroit, knocking him to the ground and killing him.

Cox said the cyclist was attempting to pass his car as it traveled south on Adams in Pontiac Township when a northbound vehicle came into view.

The driver said the cyclist evidently lost control of his bike as he jerked back into his own lane.

Deputies said there were no paint marks or dents on the 1964 Chevrolet, but there was a fresh black mark on the left rear bumper which could have been made by the tire of a motorcycle.

Cox said after he saw the motorcycle flip he stopped the car and waited for 20 minutes. When no one came up to the car, he left the scene.

Possible action by the prosecutor's office is pending further investigation.

Kansas in 1861 was the first state to give women the vote, but only in school board elections, the National Geographic says.

Hope to Entice Dropouts Back to Class

In a move to entice high school dropouts back to the classroom this fall, Waterford Township's adult education program will offer high school credit courses for a token $2 fee, rather than the standard $18 fee.

Byron Merritt, adult education director for the school system, said the $2 fee applies only for persons working toward a high school diploma.

Otherwise, the fee for credit courses will be $18, according to Merritt.

The fee for noncredit courses offered in the adult education program will be $7.

Registration for the adult education courses will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at Drayton Plains Elementary School and from 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday through Friday at Waterford Township High School.

BEGIN OCT. 5

Classes will begin Oct. 5 and will be held in various buildings in the school district, Merritt said.

Credit courses to be offered include elementary algebra, American government, American history, blue print reading, bookkeeping (beginning and advanced), chemistry and commercial law.

Others are crafts, drawing, sketching and painting; economics, English, beginning

French, beginning German, beginning Spanish, plane geometry, beginning shorthand, advanced typing and office machines, beginning typing, world geography and world history.

Noncredit courses being offered include advanced typing and office machines, business English, auto mechanics, furniture construction and re-

OTHER CLASSES

Others are knitting, advanced and beginning sewing, refresher shorthand, beginning typing, gas and arc welding and conversational German.

The credit courses will be offered two nights weekly. Noncredit courses are scheduled one night each week.

Havana, Exiles Blame Each Other for Attack on Ship

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Fidel Castro's government and Cuban exiles are blaming each other for the machine-gunning of the Spanish freighter Sierra Aranzazu.

Havana Radio said, "There is reason to believe" that "pirates" financed by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency made the attack.

Four East Berliners Escape to the West

BERLIN (AP)—Four young East Berliners, one of them a girl, slipped beneath the triple barbed wire fences at the outskirts of the divided city where there is no wall.

Two Cuban exile leaders — Manuel Artime and Manolo Ray — denied their men were involved. Friends of Artime in Panama said his organization believes the raid was carried out by Castro agents to discredit the exile group.

EXILE SOURCES

Other exile sources had said earlier that Artime's organization made the attack.

In Nassau, capital of the Bahamas, there was speculation among government circles that Castro gunboats may have fired on the Spanish ship. These circles suggested that Castro might want to create an incident he could exploit politically.

An anonymous telephone caller in Miami, Fla., said the attack was the work of a secret organization and added: "This is the beginning of attacks on any ship that trades with Cuba."

DEPLORE ATTACK

In Washington, a State Department spokesman said: "Whatever the nationality of the attackers, we cannot but deplore this attack on a merchant vessel on the high seas."

The Spanish ambassador in Washington, Marquis de Merri Del Val, asked to see Secretary of State Dean Rusk in connection with the incident.

An embassy official said the attack occurred in an area "very well controlled by U.S. forces and we are much surprised and naturally concerned about it."

The 17 survivors from the Sierra Aranzazu were flown to San Juan yesterday. They told newsmen the attacking boats fired three machine-gun bursts.

"It was too dark to see the boats approach," said Santiago Ibanez of Bilbao, Spain. "They fired machine guns at us and the ship caught fire."

"The attack lasted 5 to 10 minutes. We abandoned ship immediately for fear of explosion. The two attacking boats approached us and remained nearby for awhile. The captain and two officers wounded by the machine-gun fire died in the launch."

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their loose or dropped, slipped or wobbled in just the wrong time. Do not just sprain a little false tooth. The solution (and only) is to get your new plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not hurt. Checks "plate color" breath. Get PASTERS, at drug counters everywhere.

2 PANT SUIT DAYS AT HUGHES HATCHER SUFFRIN you'll find bigger selections . . . many more famous makers . . .

wider price ranges in 2 pant suits from Hughes Hatcher Suffrin

You won't find more in any store in Pontiac . . . in Michigan . . . on this side of the Rocky Mountains . . . or on the other side either. Fact is, we have the largest selection of two trouser suits assembled anywhere. Which means, of course, you won't find a better place than H-H-S to find what you want. Exactly what you want. Is it a famous brand? Actually no one carries more famous brands than H-H-S: Hart Schaffner & Marx, Eagle, "Botany" 500, Frost & Frost, Northbrooke, Belvedere, Kingswood, Montclair, Van Carr, Custom Quality, Charter Club. Is it a particular fabric? Imported or domestic, you're more apt to find it here. Is it a certain style? There are 2-button, 3-button, natural shoulder, and vested suits in our two-pant collection. And if it's an exact size—well, we can readily fit you, whether you're four feet or seven feet tall . . . whether you weigh ninety or two hundred and ninety pounds. And the price range is also extensive too, from $59.50 to $125.

OUR PONTIAC MALL STORE IS OPEN EVERY EVENING TO 9 P.M.

B. Hogue of Franklin, the group's first president in 1954-55; Mrs. Joseph C. Walker of West Ingham Road, president in 1958-59 and Mrs. Maxwell L. Shadley, 1955-57 president.

Association Commences Tenth Year

The Women's Association of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra, Inc., started its tenth year by honoring past presidents with a Devon Gables luncheon Tuesday.

During the business meeting the group decided to make a donation to the orchestra, using the funds from its May geranium sale. A November games party is planned under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Walker.

Presenting brief talks at the gathering were Mrs. William Furlong and Mrs. Donald Hogue. They discussed the concert program for the coming year and how the association might further aid the development and growth of the orchestra.

Soroptimists Name Heads at Meeting

The Soroptimist Club of Pontiac discussed fall and winter community projects at a dinner meeting, Monday, in the Waldron Hotel.

Committee chairmen appointed by the president, Mrs. Charles G. Doeren, include: Mrs. Karl Schultz, Mrs. Rita and Paschke, Mrs. Bud Holm, Mrs. Arnold Hillerman and Mrs. Frances Coons.

Delegates will be Mrs. Hillerman and Mrs. Harry Dyer. Dr. Carol M. Kulsavage and Mrs. Schultz will serve as alternates.

Tamara Surolo and Mrs. Schultz visited Pontiac State Hospital this month. Mrs. Coons and Mrs. Dyer will attend the October social evening for the patients.

Founders' Day dinner for the Midwestern Region will be held Wednesday in the Women's City Club, Detroit.

Study Group Opens Season

"Religion and Tomorrow" was discussed by Dr. Milton Bank at the Monday meeting of the Waterford Child Study Club.

The organization's first meeting of the season was held at the Olympic Parkway home of Mrs. John Sawyer, president. She was assisted by Mrs. Julian Greenlee.

Mrs. Richard Kuehn was welcomed as a new member. The program for the coming year was presented by Mrs. John Sauter and the new budget presented.

Mrs. Robert A. Lewis was a guest at the meeting.

The day after we moved in we found a note which said, "The neighborhood welcomes you, but we would appreciate it if the Mister would put a shirt on when he works in the yard."

It was unsigned. My husband said he would dress as he pleased.

We live in Florida and think it is our right to enjoy the sunshine. How should we handle this note?

FLORIDIANS

DEAR FLORIDIANS: The same way I recommend ALL unsigned notes should be handled. Ignore it.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think a boy respects a girl less if she smokes?

JUST CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: Yes, And I'll bet if she quits, he kisses her more.

CONFIDENTIAL TO M.G.C.: Don't put your trust in money. Put your money in trust.

Starting a Garden

A third "prairie flower" has arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Vernon R. Christensen, formerly of Pontiac, now of Wichita, Kan. Their third daughter, Gail Ann, was born Aug. 29. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer M. Haaseth of Middle Belt Road.

City Symphony Rehearses for Concerts

(Editor's note: Jeanmarie Elkins who wrote the following article is an alumni of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra. In 1954-55 she played tympani. Tuesday evening she went back to visit a rehearsal.)

By JEANMARIE ELKINS
Empty chairs and music stands on the Pontiac Northern High School auditorium stage await aspiring musicians each Tuesday evening as the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra begins another season.

First rehearsals are crucial. Musicians and conductor must feel out temperaments.

No musician, no matter how expert, can be expected to step into an unfamiliar orchestra and perform the conductor's interpretation of any selection.

INTERPRETS

Each conductor has his own interpretation, how he thinks the composer wished the number to be performed. Into this he molds his musicians. Into this he fits the music to the talents of his orchestra.

Last night, Felix Resnick began the task of molding his musicians. It is a varied group with which he must work. There are doctors, housewives, students, teachers and professional people.

But Resnick has met this challenge before.

Chairs and stands begin to fill. Jackets and empty cases clutter the adjoining room. On stage, Resnick asks, "Have you had an 'A'?" Rehearsal has begun!

In the group are some new faces. Unsure and nervous high school students stand so much to perform as the conductor wishes. They don't want to make any mistakes.

There are the calm reas-uring faces of the older members. Some like Robert Peterson, George Eckroth, Jack Boesen and Celia Merrill Turner, have been with the symphony since its inception.

The work is hard. Most of the musicians are not professional. Some are reading the music for the first time.

"Patiently Resnick stops, makes a suggestion, begins, stops again, corrects and begins again.

"Don't attack any note with the bow — glide into it," he cautions the strings. Difficult passages must be played over and over.

CHANGES

"I'd like to change my mind if I may." The conductor explains the fine line between messo forte and piano.

Rehearsal begins with the full orchestra on "Overture Anacreon" by Cherubini. Jackets and sweaters come off. Ties are loosened.

Eyes shift from the score to the conductor's baton. Resnick corrects, suggests, and gently prods the younger musician into a correct performance with words of encouragement.

With the older musicians he discusses changes and again offers suggestions.

He is striving for "the lightness of an Italian overture rather than the heaviness of Wagner."

He is striving for "the lightness of an Italian overture rather than the heaviness of Wagner."

The majority of last evening's rehearsal was spent on George Gershwin's "An American in Paris."

A complicated score, it blends unusual sounds and intricate timing to achieve the final instrumentation.

Toes begin tapping in time to the catchy rhythm.

Tense, young, percussionists count carefully as they wait their entrances.

Rehearsal ends at last. It has been a grueling three hours. But it has also been rewarding.

The program for the first concert has begun to take shape. Not everything can be done in one night. But with each rehearsal the progress, under Resnick's direction, is sure.

Chairs and stands are again empty. Students, doctors, housewives, professionals and teacher all go their separate ways.

Next Tuesday they will meet again.

How many people in the Oct. 13 opening night audience will be aware of the weeks of work, the hours of individual practice behind the concert they have come to enjoy?

Ray Symons of Mohawk Lane, Arvon Township, moistens his clarinet reed before one of the first rehearsals of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra in the Pontiac Northern High School auditorium Tuesday evening. The group's first performance will be Oct. 13 in the same place.

Her Parents Host Reception

Reception in the Green Street home of the Fred L. Wheelers followed the recent marriage of their daughter Frances June to Richard James Bray.

All Saints Episcopal Church was the setting for the afternoon ceremony performed by Rev. Charles Sturm.

A veiled pillow complemented the bride's street-length gown of white silk brocade with matching jacket.

Gardenias and Stephanotis rested on her prayer book.

Colleen Springer attended as maid of honor.

Jon Williams was best man for the bridegroom, son of the Hartley Brays of Newport Street. Seating guests were James Richardson and Gordon Davis.

The couple chose northern Michigan for the honeymoon.

May Send Flowers to Funeral

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: My neighbor has received word that her mother, who lived in England, died. The funeral will take place there and my neighbor is flying to England for the services.

I never met her mother. I would like to know what, if anything, is expected of me under the circumstances?

A: If you know this neighbor well and can find out in which church in England her mother is to be buried, go to your local florist and have him cable flowers to the funeral.

If this is not possible, send some flowers to your neighbor with your deepest sympathy as soon as she returns.

Q: Is six months after a wedding too late to send a present? At the time I was occupied with other things and never got around to buying one.

I would like to send a present now if it is proper. My husband thinks it will seem like an afterthought and it would be better to forget about it. What to you advise?

A: A wedding present is always welcome and you may quite properly send one at this late date giving some explanation for its delay.

Sorority Has Pledge Party

Mrs. Byron Barnes was joined Tuesday evening by members of Zeta Eta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority as the group held a pledge party for the rushing season.

Mrs. Dennis Lowes assisted the hostess. Guests included Mrs. Richard Ullrich and Mrs. Ford Strubmeyer.

Mrs. William J. Yates gave a program on "The Definition of Happiness."

AAUW Buffet Picnic Business Meeting Scene

Mrs. J. L. Van Wagoner opened her Andersonville Road home Monday evening for the Pontiac Branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW).

Cohostess for the buffet picnic was Mrs. Thomas Hollis. Assisting here were Mrs. Daniel Carmichael, Mrs. George Chesel, Mrs. Wayne McMeans, Mrs. Kenneth Ollis and Mrs. Leslie Purslow.

Others working on the affair were Mrs. George Robins, Olga Stewart, Mrs. Maxwell Shadley and Mrs. George Snyder.

Mrs. Ervin Bartel announced that the theme for this year's program will be "The American Family in the Changing World."

ATTEND CONFERENCE
Sept. 26, delegates from the branch will attend a conference on legislation at Dearborn.

Other members will attend the area AAUW conference Sept. 29 at Fairlane, the Henry Ford estate, Dearborn.

Guests for the evening were Margaret Morrison and Virginia Palmer.

Too Many Children

Need Family Planning

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I am 31, have been married for 12 years and have 10 children.

The baby is just three months old and I just found out I am pregnant again.

I love children and so does my husband. We always said we wanted a large family, but we didn't really want this many.

My mother helps me out when she can, but she isn't too strong and the children make her nervous. My husband's mother is dead so she's so help at all.

My husband is good to me, but he has to hold two jobs to make ends meet, so he isn't home much, and when he is, he's awfully tired.

There's a lot of work around here, Abby, and I never seem to get done.

My doctor says that children are a gift from heaven, and a woman who's able to have them should accept as many as she is blessed with, but I think we have enough.

What am I to do?

WORN OUT
DEAR WORN: Children are indeed a "gift" from heaven, but the money required to feed, clothe, and educate them has to come out of someone's pocket.

If it's not contrary to your religion, call your Planned Parenthood Center.

If none is listed in your telephone book, write to their national headquarters:

From Utica were best man Kenneth Rosemeck and Bob Natzel who ushered with James Schatz of Rochester.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold T. Aho of Utica.

The Stanley G. Andersons, parents of the bride, were hosts at a breakfast in their Rochester home following the ceremony performed by Rev. Thomas M. Sauter.

The evening reception was held in the American Boys' Club, Auburn Heights.

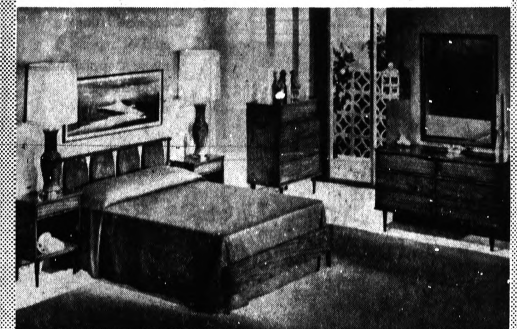

ROSE CIRCLET
Belgian lace applique enhanced the bride's floor-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta. Silk organza roses in a circlet of white velvet flowers held her triple-veiled veil of illusion.

Centering her bouquet of Stephanotis was a white orchid corsage.

Polly's Pointers

For Drying Sweaters

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — I do hope no one beats me with this one. For drying hand washables and sweaters that should not be hung on hangers, remove the tray from a folding snack table and it will resemble a low slung camp stool.

Fold a bath towel around the frame and pin or clip underneath with clothespins. Lay the article to be dried on the towel which will absorb all excess moisture. The larger the tray table frame is, the larger article it will hold. — DOROTHY.

DEAR POLLY — After sewing, I use an old hairbrush to pick up small ends of thread from my rugs. It is a time saver as I sew nearly every day. It also takes the lint off of clothes as I am ironing. — MRS. J. J. JR.

DEAR POLLY — Save those birthday, get well and Christmas cards to make needle case covers. Cut out card pictures of a suitable size, fold in the middle and stitch "leaves" of material through the center fold. Cut with pinking shears for a nice edge. These leaves hold the needles. They are fun to concoct and make nice gifts that cost nothing if you have scraps of material around the house. — VERDA

DEAR POLLY — This tip has been a lifesaver to my furniture. My little boy likes to play with trucks and cars and would often run them into the furniture and nick it.

New I glue soft strips of sponge across the bumpers of his cars and trucks. This has really saved the furniture and he still has fun.

I let the recently glued pieces stand overnight so the glue has a chance to harden properly. — JUANITA.

DEAR POLLY — Have a needle and thread ready when you cut buttons off a man's or boy's shirt that is to be discarded. Slip the needle through the buttons onto the thread, remove the needle and tie the thread ends together.

This makes it easy to find matching buttons or a full set when they are needed to replace lost ones. — INDRRA.

DEAR POLLY — If the members of your family always leave the top buttons unbuttoned on their sport shirts and also leave the neck open, remove the top button when a shirt is new.

This prevents a hole from wearing in the fabric from constant rubbing as well as making a smoother looking lapel. — LOUISE.

Pillar Club Sees Tour of Gardens

Beginning it's 40th year, the Pillar club opened the fall season with a dinner meeting at the West Iroquois Road home of Mrs. Theodore E. Wiersema.

A European garden tour in colored film was narrated by Mrs. O. H. Lundbeck, who recounted the highlights of a trip made with the National Farm and Garden conducted tour.

She exhibited several pieces of European handcraft collected on the trip. Nearly half the membership present had taken similar tours.

Others on the program were Mrs. Donald B. Hogue, Mrs. Earl Treadwell and Mrs. E. C. Russell.

Assisting the hostess in the dinner and program arrangements were Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Paul B. Taylor, Mrs. Fred A. Voelker and Mrs. Marcus A. Scott.

Couple Has Honeymoon at the Falls

In Niagara Falls for their honeymoon this week are the Larry Ray Minton (Dolores Ann Dunity) whose recent marriage was solemnized in St. Michael's Church.

A gown of traditional white satin for the daughter of the Stephen Dumitrys of Argyle Avenue was styled with beaded neckline and controlled floor-length skirt.

SWEDISH CROWN

Silk illusion, veiling fitted to a Swedish crown and a bouquet of white spider chrysanthemums and roses completed her ensemble.

Diane Dunity attended her sister as honor maid with bridesmaids Mrs. Robert Thompson, Kalamazoo; Mrs. Bryan Tompkins, and Mrs. Donald Ziegler.

Robert Thompson was best man for the son of Mrs. Betty Thompson of State Street. Ushers were Leroy Mironsky, Theodore Hoffman, Bryan Tompkins, Ronald Dunity and Donald Ziegler.

A reception in the Amvets Hall followed the nuptial ceremony performed by Rev. Herbert Mansfield.

Shower for Janet Vought

October bride-elect Janet Marie Vought will be honored at a trousseau shower this evening in the home of Mrs. Thomas J. Oliver on South Cass Lake Road.

The honoree is the daughter of Mrs. Bernice Vought of South Genesee Avenue and Max Vought of Seminole Drive.

Parents of her fiancé, Donald A. Robertson, are the William Robertsons of Oliver Street.

Announce Location of Luncheons

Members of St. Anne's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church, sponsors of the Birmingham Town Hall, held their first luncheon meeting Tuesday.

Mrs. Clyde Hagerman opened her home in Bloomfield Hills to Mrs. William Meese, president of the Guild; Mrs. Ralph H. Backus, president of the Birmingham Town Hall board, and others.

The Birmingham Town Hall programs begin Oct. 3 at 11 a.m. in the Birmingham Theater.

Immediately following the programs, luncheons will be scheduled at 1 p.m. in three different locations this year. Luncheon chairmen are:

Mrs. Sidney W. Huff and Mrs. Harland Walter.

Reservations are necessary. On Oct. 3 and 8 the Village Women's club will be setting for the luncheon, following a program by Kitty Carlisle.

Elle Abel will be guest of honor at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club Nov. 12 and 13. Space will be reserved in the Birmingham Country Club Dec. 3 and 4 for the Edward Week luncheon and Jan. 7 and 8 for Michael Bros.

On Jan. 28 and 29, Dr. J. Gaither Pratt will be honored in the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

The Village Woman's Club will be the setting Feb. 18 and 19 when Aline Saarinen appears.

SEW SIMPLE

By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice: Window shades seem to be coming back in style. This time they are made of the same fabric as the bedspreads to coordinate a bedroom. I would like to make some but my material isn't too heavy and I'm afraid the shades will be too sleazy looking. Is there anything I can do to make them look professional? — Mrs. J. S.

Mrs. J. S.: One of the most attractive bedrooms I have ever seen was done by a friend of mine. The way we treated her material produced perfect shades.

Trim off the selvage edges of fabric. Turn and press a single edge 1/4-inch wide on the long edges of the shade. Carefully cut light-weight non-woven PRESS-IN interfacing the same size as the finished shade.

Press to the back of your fabric according to instructions. This will give you the body you need without too much weight.

ABOVE EDGE

If you care to attach fringe, rickrack, scallopes or whatever to the lower edge, the fold for the strip of wood should be about 4 to 5 inches above the finished edge of your shade.

EASIER AND CHEAPER

Mrs. C. J. Unick, San Diego, Calif., is the Tailor Tris winner of the week with this suggestion:

When making a dress with pleats completely around the skirt, I find it very economical to use a 7-inch skirt slide fastener for the bodice of the dress instead of a long dress fastener running all the way down into the skirt. Insert with the key at the waistline.

The pleats of the skirt will overlap the opening below the waist and a fastener is unnecessary. This not only makes the dress easier to slip on and off but saves money since one can buy 2 skirt fasteners for the price of one long dress fastener.

Dear Eunice Farmer: I would like to add a very attractive detail to the suit I am making for fall. This detail is a large buttonhole with a small button on either end of it. Can I do this without a pattern? — Mrs. C. C. E.

Dear Mrs. C. C. E.: The attractive detail you have asked about will be used quite often this fall and it is very simple to change your pattern if you will follow my instructions carefully.

You will be changing a single-breasted pattern to a double-breasted. However, the overlap will not be as deep as you would usually find on double-breasted garments.

The length of your buttonhole will probably be about 2 inches. If this is the size you desire, you must allow 2 inches from the CENTER FRONT to the finished edge. Be sure to allow the 1/2 inch extra for a seamline.

The buttonhole will be spaced one inch EACH side of the center front. When you finish the back of this buttonhole, cut the facing just long enough so that the end button can be slipped through. The button on the left side of the buttonhole will be sewn on permanently.

ATTRACTIVE

This type of trim is especially attractive if you make bound buttonholes and use a contrasting fabric, such as satin, jersey, leather, etc. for the binding. The buttons can be made from the same fabric.

When using rickrack for trim of any kind, you'll be delighted with the NEW, improved type. A special process in weaving this rickrack has made it a no-iron variety. It won't curl up or shrink no matter how it is washed or dried.

YOUR SEWING GLOSSARY:

Gore: a section of a skirt which is shaped wider at the lower edge. This shape will give an A-line shape to your skirts.

Please let me hear from you, what are your special problems? Are you still struggling with Bound Buttonholes? If so, send for my FREE instructions, be sure to enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request. Send your request to Sew Simple, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Don't Let Shock Block Son's Commitment

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: I have just received a terrible shock. My son was briefly hospitalized for shock treatment two years ago.

His wife has just telephoned me to say that she is committing him to a state hospital on the basis of his psychiatrist's diagnosis of schizophrenia. She wants to be rid of him.

Mrs. Lawrence, my son is a brilliantly gifted man, the father of two little children. He will have to be forcibly taken...

ANSWER: The chances of recovery from schizophrenia when proper treatment is administered is 80 per cent, according to the National Association of Mental Health.

Out of every 10 patients in today's mental hospitals, seven either partially or totally recover from their illness.

CHECK STATISTICS

Please check these statistics with your local mental health organization. Talk to your son's psychiatrist. Then get behind your son's desire for health with all your love and strength.

As it is now, it sounds as though that strength and love were losing their power to his angry desire to obstruct his wife.

You yourself say that she wants to be "rid" of him. Surely you can't want this gifted and sensitive son of yours to go on trying to sustain the strains of life with a woman who wants to be "rid" of him!

The promise of recovery offered him by a state hospital's modern treatment methods is infinitely to be preferred to day-in, day-out association with such a woman.

wish to block her commitment of your son that you can't see how you are allowing her to monopolize all its advantages. The real advantages belong to you and your son.

Her desire to be "rid" of him is the instrument we are going to use to get him well. Let us exploit it for our own advantage. It exists to profit you and your son.

Windswept Is Scene of Reception

A reception at "Windswept," home of the Wilbur E. Saylor of Island Lane, followed the recent marriage of their daughter Lois Kathryn to Julian P. Donahue of East Lansing.

Dr. Harold C. DeWindt performed the double ceremony at Kirk in the Hills, Presbyterian.

Alencon lace embroidered with pearls accented the Empire bodice and train of the bridal gown of white peau de soie. The bride carried white roses and ivy.

Valerie Hart attended, as maid of honor.

BROTHER ATTENDED

Roger P. Donahue stood as best man for his brother. They are the sons of Dr. and Mrs. Roy L. Donahue, New Delhi, India. Seating guests were the bride's brother Robert of Los Angeles and William T. Giles, East Lansing.

After a honeymoon in upper New York State the couple will return for fall term at Michigan State University. The bride is in her junior year and her husband is completing work on his master's degree in entomology.

WILLIAMS-BUNCH

A Chicago honeymoon followed the Saturday marriage of Janet Alice Bunch to Gary Wayne Williams. The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Bunch of Second Street and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williams of Chicago. For the ceremony performed by Rev. Theodore E. Allbach in the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, the bride chose a floor length gown of silk organza over peau de soie. She was attended by Joan Ray, honor maid, Mrs. Ronald Bunch and Mrs. Gerald Bunch, bridesmaids. Gerald and Ronald Bunch were ushers while Rudolph Jackson, was best man, Randy and Cindy Jackson were ring bearer and flower girl. The reception was held in the Italian American club.

Dixie Negro Politicos Vow No Discrimination

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (AP)—The first two Negroes elected to public office against white opponents in Alabama in almost a century say they will represent all of the people regardless of race.

A clergyman, the Rev. K. L. Buford, and a college professor, Dr. Stanley Hugh Smith, made that promise after winning seats on the Tuskegee City Council in Tuesday's runoff election.

The heavy Negro vote in this racially conscious city where Negroes outnumber white residents both in population and in registered voters also brought the defeat of Mayor Howard Rutherford, who sought a second four-year term.

Rutherford lost to another white candidate, Charles M. Keever, a used car dealer who received the backing of most Negro voters. Keever got 943 votes, Rutherford 732.

LEADING FIGURE

Buford was a leading figure in the voter registration drive which, with the help of a federal court order, gave Negroes a voting majority both in Tuskegee and throughout Macon

County. He won over incumbent Dr. Riley Lumpkin, 918 votes to 732.

Smith unseated Councilman James Brawley, 918 to 704.

Buford, waiting outside the National Guard armory where the city's six voting machines were set up, promised to "try to do a good job in representing the total community."

Smith, 36-year-old head of the Department of Sociology at Tuskegee Institute, expressed gratitude that "both races thought we would be able to do a competent job in representing the community."

WHITE MAJORITY

The city governing body will retain a white majority. Three white council members were elected in the first city election Aug. 11. Buford and Smith fell short of a majority and were forced into Tuesday's runoff.

In the mayor's race, Rutherford led a field of four white candidates last month when the Negro vote was divided. Keever overcame the lead in the runoff.

Negroes outnumber white residents in Tuskegee about 4-1, but only in recent months have they gained a voting majority.

The door was opened by a stern no-discrimination order from a voter registration board to accept Negro applicants.

In the county, the picture is the same. Four Negroes won Democratic nomination for county office in the primary election last May 5.

BATTLE CLIMAX

Buford's election climaxed a long and often frustrating battle to get Negroes registered. A native of Pulaski, Va., he is vice president of the preintegration Tuskegee Civil Association and pastor of the Butler Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church in Tuskegee.

Smith, who was born at Salisbury, N.C., is a graduate of Fisk University, where he received bachelor's and master's degrees. His doctorate came from Washington State University.

Suspected Bank Thief
Tries to Poison Self

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. (AP)—

The Federal Bureau of Investigation said Tuesday a man wanted in Kentucky for bank robbery is recovering in a Rocky Mount hospital from self-inflicted poisoning.

The FBI said Junior Haskell Cordie, 47, took a pill containing poison when two Rocky Mount detectives arrested him Saturday on charges of participating in the $13,200 robbery of a Blaine, Ky., bank July 14.

Deposed Unionist Loses Appeal in Canada Case

MONTREAL (AP)—Deposed union boss Hal C. Banks lost an appeal of his five-year prison sentence Tuesday when he failed to show up in court.

Justice Lucien Tremblay of the Quebec Court of Appeal dismissed the appeal of the sentence for conspiracy to beat up a rival union leader.

The prosecution initiated steps for forfeiture of the $25,000 bail put up in behalf of the former president of the Seafarers' International Union.

Banks, 56, has been missing since mid-July after his conviction on a charge of disobeying a court injunction to stop picketing at Trois-Rivières, Quebec. He lost that appeal, too.

State's Candidates to Address League

LANSING (AP)—Speeches by Michigan's two major candidates for governor and for the U. S. Senate will highlight the three-day annual convention of the Michigan Municipal League starting today.

An anticipated 1,200 mayors, councilmen and city and village administrators will hear Republican Gov. George Romney and his Democratic opponent, Congressman-Lafayette Neil Staebler, at today's luncheon.

U. S. Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., and his Republican opponent, Mrs. Ely Peterson of Charlotte, will address the closing luncheon Friday.

State Okays Issuance of Bonds in Detroit

LANSING (AP)—Issuance of a $39 million revenue bond issue by Detroit, for improvements to the water supply system, was approved Tuesday by the State Municipal Finance Commission.

Another major borrowing approved was $4.6 million in school bonds by Delta College, Saginaw, Bay and Midland counties, to pay part of the cost of refunding all bonds now outstanding.

The 1965 cars in color. A searching report on the auto industry and its newest creations.

"The great thing about the American public," Chrysler's chief stylist tells The Saturday Evening Post in this week's issue, "is that they will go for something new, the car with the 'most goodies.' Detroit's biggest headaches, though, come from trying to forecast what the public will regard as 'goodies.' Ghosts from the past haunt Detroit's dreams of a great year ahead as it rounds 1959 car which people dubbed the 'pregnant Buick,' the 1957 Edsel with its front end that 'resembled a horse collar' and many other unfunny, multimillion-dollar flops. How does Detroit decide what 'next year's' models will look like? Is car styling simply a matter of playing 'follow the industry leader'? Is the new car buyer's major—if unconscious—motivation 'sex'? For a gallery of colorful pictures of the new models for 1965—and a cool analysis of why they look the way they do—read 'The Auto-makers and Their Mighty Works' in this week's Saturday Evening Post.

'Good' Witch Set to Hang Up Broom in Boston Area

BOSTON (AP) — The lament of the disappointed swain that his date was a witch takes on real meaning after an evening with Sybil Leek.

She says that even if she stopped wearing purple stockings and a black cape that flutters like a bat's wings she'd still be a witch.

Mrs. Leek, about 40, says she's a good witch out of an English forest near moors where the fog hangs low and the hounds bay at night.

Mrs. Leek is in Boston preparing to settle here permanently, preferably in suburban Concord where opening shots of the American Revolution were fired in 1776.

NOT CONCERNED

She says she is not concerned that within a few miles — in Salem, Mass. — 19 persons were hanged and one was pressed to death in the 1690s in the belief they were witches.

"Those people in Salem," she says, "were not witches as we know them today. They were wrongfully executed as being bewitched. Actually, they were serving as whipping boys."

Mrs. Leek says, "I'm a good witch. Certainly, I studied black magic, which is vicious and vile, but I have no desire to conjure harm. I have no evil spirits."

Mrs. Leek describes her witchcraft as a religion and the men and women who practice it as "persons endowed with occult powers who can work in another dimension."

Highway Department to Open Bids Oct. 7

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department will open bids Oct. 7 on projects costing a total $1.3 million—including construction of five overpasses and an interchange that will bring U.S. 27 in Clare up to full freeway standards. The other projects call for work on M-146 at Port Huron and installation of emergency ladders on the Lodge Freeway in Detroit.

answer listeners' questions after an interview by the station's Bob Kennedy.

One night this month Mrs. Leek was accompanied to the carriage house of an old castle in suburban Brookline, built by Larz Anderson, ambassador to Japan under President William Howard Taft.

GOOD SPIRITS

When Anderson died at the age of 71 in 1897, the carriage house was turned into a museum of old cars. Among them are the armored cars used by Adolf Hitler and President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"Well, well," said Mrs. Leek, "there should be enough good spirits in here to make this an interesting evening," as the party moved to the hayloft.

Upstairs, Mrs. Leek said she would summon some friendly spirits to lift a heavy table off the floor while 13 persons sat around it. There followed 42 minutes of deep concentration.

Disregarding the likes of Roosevelt and Hitler, Mrs. Leek said, "We seem to be dealing with weak spirits. Let's try a lighter table with fewer people around it."

But it wasn't a good night for witches or spirits. Nothing happened.

Deaths Laid to Freed Killer

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A man who pleaded guilty to two murders but went free because of the U.S. Supreme Court's Gideon decision, has been charged with killing two more persons.

Wallace Pless, 65, is charged with shooting Carrie Stinson, 50, and Precious Rollings, 47, Monday night.

Pless, whose criminal record started in 1917 when he was sentenced to five years for manslaughter, pleaded guilty in 1956 to killing Pearly Hall and John Lee. He was sentenced to life imprisonment. He was not represented by an attorney.

Last year, the Supreme Court ruled that penniless persons convicted without an attorney were denied constitutional rights. The decision was made in the case of Clarence Earl Gideon of Panama City, Fla., who had been convicted of breaking and entering.

Pless won a new trial. The charges were reduced to second-degree murder. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five years probation.

Kent County Plans Appeal

Ruling Orders Board
Based on Population

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Kent County will appeal a Circuit Court opinion which holds that the board of supervisors must be apportioned on a population basis, board legal counsel George R. Cook said Tuesday. The precedent-setting opinion, issued last Friday by Judge Fred N. Searl, has received wide publicity because of its possible significance in states other than Michigan.

Cook said the county must await a signing of the judgment by Judge Searl—expected by the end of the week—before entering a petition for leave to appeal with the State Supreme Court.

Judge Searl held that the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment of the U. S. Constitution requires that the board of supervisors meet the same basic constitutional standard as required of the state legislature.

POPULATION BASIS

This standard, he wrote, is that the board must be apportioned on the basis of population.

The opinion answered a suit filed last June by five Grand Rapids college professors who claimed that the board was unconstitutionally filled.

Court sources said the effect of the ruling would be that control of the board of supervisors would pass from the hands of rural interests to large cities.

County to Get Road Funds

Oakland County will receive $236,182 in federal matching funds for secondary road construction in the fiscal year beginning next July 1, the State Highway Department announced yesterday.

The sum is part of an $8.5-million total to be allocated to Michigan. The State Highway Department will retain $2,801,553 and the remainder will be apportioned to county road commissions.

Other counties receiving more than $100,000 will be Wayne $668,852; Kent, $146,705; Genesee, $137,253; Macomb, $132,658; and Saginaw, $105,470.

Miller Charges LBJ Practiced Discrimination in Land Sale

KEARNEY, Neb. (AP)—Rep. William E. Miller pushed on into the Midwest today after unloading a "bombshell" charge in Texas that President Johnson had practiced discrimination in a land sale.

After a Republican rally here this morning, the GOP vice president's nominee scheduled stops at Lincoln, Neb.; Topeka, Kan.; and Des Moines on the second day of his five-day campaign swing.

The peppery New York congressman sailed into the President in Johnson's own backyard Tuesday.

He accused Johnson of inserting an anti-Negro covenant in the deed for property he sold in 1945 to a former mayor of Austin and said this exposed Johnson's current stand for equal rights as hypocrisy.

There was no immediate comment from Johnson.

The Miller charge, delivered in dramatic fashion before a cheering crowd of about 4,200 at the Texas Republican State Convention, was billed by his aides as a bombshell.

"I have in my hand," Miller began, as he brandished certified copies of deeds that he said verified his accusations. Extra copies were distributed to reporters.

Miller said that Johnson and his wife acquired a tract of land in Austin and that the deed contained no restrictive covenant.

CLAUDE WRITTEN

Yet, he continued, when the Johnsons sold seven lots in 1945 to Austin's late mayor, Tom Miller, also a Democrat, an anti-Negro clause was written into the deed that conveyed the property.

He quoted this section from the 1945 deed:

"No part of the above described premises shall ever be conveyed or in any way transferred, demise, leased or rented to any person or persons of African descent; provided that this clause shall not prevent the employment of such persons as domestic servants and providing customary accommodations for them."

Miller declared, "I want to show the hypocrisy of Lyndon Johnson on this issue."

New Strike Talk Threatening Uneasy Railroad Labor Peace

WASHINGTON (AP) — New strike talk threatened today to break the nation's uneasy railroad labor peace that followed last April's extraordinary White House settlement.

A different set of unions are involved this time, but the basic issue is the same — demand for job protection in an industry with drastically declining employment.

The 150,000 members of six AFL-CIO railroad shop unions reportedly are ready to walk out

Monday, although a management spokesman said no formal strike notices had been served.

"Unless there's some agreement, they don't expect to be at work Monday," said Edward J. Carliough, spokesman for one of the unions.

"We should be given two-hour notice," commented chief railroad negotiator J. E. Wolfe in Boston. "I have not been told that they have set a strike date."

Other railroad sources said there was no question that a strike by shopmen who maintain railroad equipment would halt most of the nation's trains, precipitating a national emergency like the one that caused President Johnson to step in last spring.

Carliough, organization director of the Sheet Metal Workers' International Association, said all six shop unions had "agreed to take a united stand."

There has been no report of progress in negotiations since a presidential emergency board last month recommended certain protection for shop men who lose their jobs or are moved to lower paying jobs due to technological changes.

Sweeping changes in equipment and operations that cut railroad employment have been a source of labor friction in the industry for years.

Pan American World Airways inaugurated the first regular passenger service from the United States to Europe on June 23, 1959.

Treated Like All the Rest

Caroline Enters Private Catholic School

NEW YORK (AP) — The convent of the Sacred Heart, a Catholic school for girls, has a new pupil — Caroline Kennedy.

Hand-in-hand with her mother, the 6-year-old daughter of the late President John F. Kennedy went to her first day of school Tuesday. She wore the school uniform, a gray flannel Eton jacket, matching pleated skirt and a white blouse.

Some nuns and pupils watched from a second-story window of the school at the corner of Fifth Avenue and 91st Street as Caroline arrived.

Caroline's aunt, Mrs. Peter Lawford, wife of the actor, and Sydney Lawford, 8, accompanied Caroline and her mother. Sydney is entering the school, too.

The two girls moved through the chattering groups of pupils with apparent ease. Caroline entered the second grade. Last year, she attended special classes at the White House.

'LIKE THE REST'

"She will be treated just like all the rest," said the school secretary. "She will be mixed in with the other girls."

The private school, in a city where attempts to improve the racial balance in public schools has triggered boycotts, has a number of Negro pupils from families whose fathers are with African delegations to the United Nations. There also are some Asian pupils.

Mrs. Kennedy also visited the campaign headquarters of her brother-in-law, Robert F. Kennedy, Democratic senatorial candidate. She took along John Jr., 4.

They spent 10 minutes in the headquarters. When they left, a cheering crowd of 500 surged against Mrs. Kennedy and seemed about to make her lose her balance. But she got to a car, holding John by the hand.

The police apparently had not been notified of her appearance. Asked what she would do in Kennedy's campaign, she said: "I'll do whatever they ask me."

First Aid Class Set Thursdays by Red Cross

Standard and advanced first aid classes will be given Thursday evenings at 7:30 by the Red Cross at its chapter house at 118 Franklin Blvd.

The classes will begin Sept. 17 and will be taught by Mr. and Mrs. Vern McCracken of Drayton Plains, both experienced Red Cross instructors.

Instruction is free, though a $1 charge will be made for the instruction book, bandages and other materials.

Advance registration is necessary and can be arranged by contacting the Red Cross office.

Quick Relief from Pile Irritation

Staff of Life Has Many Varieties

There is probably no other food that is eaten as regularly or as often as bread, states the District Extension Agent, Josephine Lawyer. The bread in today's food market is of many varieties. The character of the loaf—crusty or soft, long or short, high or flat, light or dark—reflects a region or a country from which people have come.

It is estimated that Americans now eat a total of over forty million loaves of bread daily. That is approximately 88 pounds of bread per person annually. U.S. Department of Agriculture studies show that white bread is the only kind many homemakers buy several times a week, but that they use a variety of breads. This is understandable for there are over seventy different varieties of bread on the market. The most common breads include:

• White—containing refined wheat flour, liquid, salt, yeast, and certain optional ingredients.

• High Protein—quantity of milk used is higher than in standard white bread. May contain pure wheat germ and high protein flour. (Texture is coarser, color creamier than standard white bread.)

• French, Italian, Vienna—types using high protein flour—water instead of milk (to produce thick, crisp crusts).

• Potato—contains about six per cent potato flour to ninety-four per cent white flour.

• Salt Rising—leavened with a special, bacterial ferment (instead of yeast). Texture is fine and close-grained; flavor and odor are cheese-like.

• Raisin—containing at least fifty pounds of raisins for each 100 pounds of flour.

• 100% Whole Wheat—using 100% whole wheat flour.

• Cracked Wheat—using a combination of cracked wheat and white flour.

• American Rye—a combination of white and rye flour.

It's the law that bread and rolls for which Standards of Identity have been established by the Food and Drug Administration need not have ingredients listed on the label. These are: white bread, white rolls, whole wheat ("graham" or "entire wheat"), white enriched bread, white enriched rolls, and raisin bread.

Breads for which no Standards of Identity have been established frequently have a list of ingredients on the label although it is not required by law. Ingredients, other than preservatives, need not be listed if the bread is manufactured and sold within Michigan. Any leavening other than yeast must be listed on the label.

All minor ingredients used to improve taste, eating quality, or keeping quality must be approved by the Food and Drug Administration and listed on the label. Calcium propionate or sodium diacetate are used as mold inhibitors. Sodium propionate is a softener.

Michigan law has established standards of loaf size for white bread. They are twelve-ounce, one pound, one pound and four ounces, one pound and eight ounces, and two pounds.

Diet breads must be labeled according to the same standards as other diet foods. The number of calories and the food value for a specific unit (one slice) must be stated on the label.

Enrichment is the replacement of three important B vitamins—thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, and the mineral, iron to white flour. These nutrients are lost with the bran and germ in the milling process of white flour. Enrichment of bread is not required in Michigan; however, it is a law in about forty states.

A one-half inch slice of white bread has about sixty-three calories. "Low calorie" breads are often lower in calories only because they are sliced thinner. Many breads come in standard one-half inch slices and thin slices.

Buy bread by weight. A compact loaf will look smaller than a larger soft loaf, yet weigh as much. Compare the same brand and type bread. Specialty breads and rolls cost considerably more than standard types. Day-old bread may prove economical for the bread crumb jar, French toast, stuffing, bread pudding or croutons.

Baste Spitted Pork Roast With Honey Fruit Marinade

Cooked, strained apricots. — Dr. Gail S. Erbeck, 31-year-old universally considered a food Mason, Ohio, dentist, received for a vote-getting pork roast Kaiser foil, sponsor of the annual barbecue competition "for men only." Judges voted unanimously for Dr. Erbeck's recipe, considering it best from the standpoint of clarity, uniqueness, completeness, practicability, taste and attractiveness.

Luau Pork Ambrosia
1 (5-lb.) pork roast, chine bone removed, tied for roasting
4 jars strained apricots (baby food)
1-3 cup honey

1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
1/4 cup soy sauce
1/4 clove garlic, minced
1 small onion, minced
1 cup gingerale
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 can (1lb. 13-oz.) whole unpeeled apricots

1 tablespoon lemon rind, grated
1/4 cup coconut, freshly grated
Parsley sprigs
Quilted broiling foil
Place pork roast in marinating dish. Combine 2 jars strained apricots, honey, lemon juice, soy sauce, garlic, onion, gingerale, ginger and pepper; pour over pork. Marinate for 4 to 5 hours, turning occasionally. Line grill with quilted foil; let coals burn down until covered with gray ashes.

Remove pork from marinade; reserve marinade. Place roast on spit and cook over low coals for approximately 3 1/2 hours. (If using a meat thermometer, roast should register 185 degrees when done). During the last half hour, baste frequently with marinade. During the last 5 minutes, spread 1 jar strained apricots over roast. Heat marinade with 1 jar strained apricots; serve as sauce over meat. Heat whole apricots and lemon rind together.

Remove roast to hot serving platter; garnish with whole apricots, sprinkled with coconut, and parsley sprigs. Makes 6-8 servings.

Make a Tour of Exotic Lands From the Kitchen Table

Here's a way to provide a tour of exotic lands for your family at the dining table.

It will send your family's or guests' taste buds to the South Seas with this intriguing concoction.

Potato Chips Polynesian
1 large onion sliced
2 green peppers sliced long way
1 cup celery chopped coarsely
1 teaspoon salt
1 large pkg. potato chips
1 can water chestnuts

6 slices ham, sliced thin
1 cup apricot nectar
¾ cup pineapple juice (from can)
1 can pineapple spears, drained
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons ketchup
6 pieces cooking foil

(12" square)
Cover onion, peppers, celery, salt with water, cook until tender.
Put ½ pkg. potato chips in fry pan. Slice water chestnuts, arrange in layer on top potato chips. Put balance of chips on top.

Mix together apricot nectar, pineapple juice which you have drained from pineapple spears, lemon juice and ketchup. Pour over potato chips. Heat until most of liquid is absorbed. Sprinkle liberally with monosodium glutamate.

Cut potato chip mixture in 6 equal parts. Remove one at a time with pancake turner and place on each piece of foil. Drain vegetables. Spoon on top of potato chips. Place slice of ham on top of vegetables. Place two or three pineapple spears on top of ham.

Roll by pulling edges of foil together to fold tight and seal ends by folding.
Heat for about 20 minutes in 250 degree oven before serving. Serves 6.

If your preparation time is limited this recipe may be made ahead of time and stored in the refrigerator. This is an excellent party or patio main course because it is so easy to serve.

These Doughnuts Taste Wonderful Warm

Grandmothers have always seemed to come equipped with good food. Hot raised doughnuts, crisp apples, juicy grapes and icy cold milk sound just like Grandmother would serve, don't they? Who has time for homemade yeast doughnuts? You do or will have once you've tasted these delicious whole wheat creations. They're made with crumbs of bite size shredded wheat biscuits and have a delightful crunchiness and subtle malt flavor.

Make them when you are in the mood because these doughnuts can be frozen either before or after baking. You can have your doughnuts and eat them, too.

Can you think of anything more showy on a cool evening than to serve hot raised doughnuts freshly rolled in sugar? This is Grandmother food at its very best, no matter who serves it.

Hot Raised Doughnuts

1 package dry yeast
1/2 cup warm water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup shortening
2 eggs
1 cup bite size shredded wheat biscuits
1 c p milk, scalded
3 3/4 cups sifted enriched flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda

Dissolve yeast in water. Thoroughly cream sugar, shortening and eggs. Add cereal and milk. Cool in lukewarm. Stir in yeast and 1 1/2 cups flour. Let rise in a warm place until double, about 25 minutes.

Add 1 1/2 cups flour, salt, baking powder and baking soda. Mix well. Let rise until double, about 30 minutes.

Knead gently until smooth, approximately 3 minutes. Use just enough flour to make dough easy to handle. Roll 1/2 inch thick. Cut with floured cutter, 2 1/2 inches diameter.

Let rise until double, about 45 minutes. Fry in hot fat (350 degrees) 2 minutes or until brown. Turn often. Drain. Roll in sugar. Yield: 24 doughnuts.

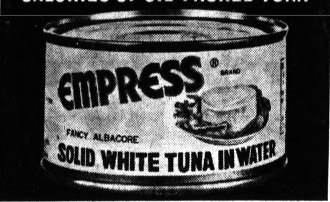

Note: Doughnuts may be refrigerated or frozen after cutting. To cook, let rise until double. Fry as before.

Doughnuts may be frozen after frying. To thaw, place in 250 degree oven 20 minutes. Roll in sugar.

Crumbs Take Place of Flour

As the fall season begins and vacations are over, it's time to collect recipes for festive cakes. Try this particularly impressive recipe for your next party.

Vanilla Wafer Cake

1/2 cup margarine
1 1/2 cups sugar
6 eggs
3 cups vanilla wafer crumbs (12-ounce package)
1/2 cup milk
1 cup chopped pecans
1/2 cup (about) flaked coconut
Creamy Sugar Frosting
Chopped pecans, or toasted coconut (optional)

Cream margarine; gradually add sugar. Then beat until fluffy. Add eggs one at a time; beat well after each. Alternately fold in crumbs and milk. Stir in pecans and coconut. (Batter may appear curdled.)

Spoon into 9-inch tube pan which has been greased, floured and lined on bottom with waxed paper. Evenly spread batter in pan.

Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour and 10 minutes. Cool in pan 15 minutes.

Remove cake to rack and remove wax paper. Cool thoroughly. Frost, letting some of frosting run down sides of cake.

If desired, sprinkle pecans or toasted coconut around edges. (Cake may be stored in refrigerator, in covered container, or may be wrapped in rum-soaked cheesecloth before storing and before frosting.)

Cake may be baked in 13x9-inch pan 45-50 minutes.

Creamy Sugar Frosting

1/2 cup light cream
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup margarine
Combine ingredients. Boil 3 minutes. Let cool; then beat until of spreading consistency—5 to 10 minutes. Makes 1 cup.

When you add fresh tomatoes to mayonnaise, it's best to skin the tomatoes and seed them before dicing.

Color Stokely's fruits and vegetables at the peak of color, because that's the way Stokely picks them. Color Van Camp's Pork and Beans, too—they're America's favorite pork and beans. Color the new labels according to the hints below.

COLORING HINTS: Golden yellow labels for yellow fruits and vegetables... green labels for green vegetables such as green beans... red labels for products such as tomatoes... contrasting blue labels for products such as sliced carrots... and the famous red and yellow label for pork and beans.

Ask Mommy to show you the new Stokely color-guide labels and the Van Camp Pork and Beans label in your kitchen or at your grocer's, although it is not necessary to match the colors to win.

HERE'S ALL YOU DO TO ENTER:

1. Color the Stokely-Van Camp cans above, using crayons, colored pencils or paints, and send this advertisement with your name and address to: Stokely Coloring Sweepstakes, Box 97, Dept. 18, New York, N. Y. 10046.
2. Entries must be postmarked by October 29, 1964 and received by November 5, 1964. Enter as often as you like. Each entry must be accompanied by an entry form. Additional entry forms available at your grocer's.
3. Winners will be selected in drawings by the D. L. Blair Corporation, an independent judging organization whose decisions are final. Only one prize to a family. Labels must be colored the color family indicated, however, it is not necessary to match the colors with those on the Stokely-Van Camp labels.
4. Sweepstakes open to boys and girls 14 and under (Mom and Dad's help is permitted) in the greater Detroit area except employees and their families of Stokely-Van Camp, Inc. and their advertising agencies. Offer subject to all governmental regulations.

Lowest in Saturated Fat of the nation's leading margarines

Because it's made from 100% corn oil, not a mixture of oils, delicious Fleischmann's is lowest in saturated fat of the nation's leading margarines. Fleischmann's is ideal for low saturated fat diets many doctors recommend. Scientific research indicates liquid corn oil such as used in Fleischmann's helps reduce the saturated fat content of your diet. Fleischmann's also comes Unsalted. It's ideal for low-sodium diets. Look for it in the frozen food section.

Cheese Pie Contains Olives

Excellent brunch or supper fare comes your way with "Bacon 'n' Egg Olive-Cheese Pie." On another occasion, you might glamorize scrambled eggs by stirring in hearty wedges of ripe olives. Or chop ripe olives and add to a ham omelet for delightful flavor and handsome color.

Bacon 'n' Egg Olive-Cheese Pie
1 cup ripe olives
Unbaked pastry for single 9-inch shell
4 slices bacon
¼ cup finely chopped green onion
1½ cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
3 eggs
2 cups grated sharp American cheese

Cut olives into large pieces. Line 9-inch pie pan with pastry. Fry bacon crisp; drain and crumble coarsely. Pour off all but 1 tablespoon drippings.

Add onion; cook slowly until transparent. Add milk, salt and mustard; heat to scalding. Beat eggs lightly; stir in cheese. Add hot milk mixture slowly.

Mix in olives and bacon. Turn into pastry shell.

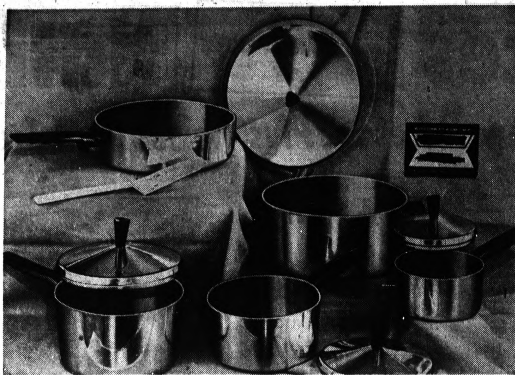

Bake in 450-degree (very hot) oven 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees (moderate). Bake 25 to 35 minutes longer or until custard is set in center.

Cool 5 or 10 minutes before serving. Makes 6 servings.

Cut Parsley

Fresh parsley is much more than a garnish. It's one of the most useful of fresh herbs for seasoning. Pierre Freney, renowned French chef now in command of the Howard Johnson kitchens, gives this tip for mincing parsley: use scissors rather than a knife or chopper. Reason: the essential flavor of parsley is in its juice, much of which is lost when its chopped or minced with a knife. Not so with scissors.

Ever add a little thyme to cornbread batter? Good with pork.

NEW COOKWARE—A complete set of Teflon-coated cookware featuring streamlined styling and new ease of cooking has been announced by The West Bend Company, West Bend, Wis. The No. 12-16 set includes 1, 2 and 3 quart sauce pans, a 5 quart dutch oven, a 10 in. skillet, a nylon spatula and spoon, plus a recipe book. Retail for under $25.

Green Filling Put in Center of Cut Tomato

Flower-cut tomatoes center a delicate mixture of cream cheese and black olives for a light summer luncheon. Serve salt sticks, seasoned rye crisp or triscuits on the side of this late summer salad for texture and complementary flavor.

Tomato Flower Salad
4 medium tomatoes
6 ounces cream cheese
¼ cup mayonnaise
¼ cup chopped pitted ripe olives
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion or chives
¼ teaspoon freeze dried chopped shallots dash hot sauce
salt to taste

Turn tomatoes stem end down; cut each one not quite through in six equal sections. Spread apart and sprinkle with salt. Turn upside down on paper towel and drain. Blend cream cheese and mayonnaise together.

er. Add other ingredients and mix well.

Divide mixture into four equal parts and drop in center of tomato. Serve on Iceberg lettuce and garnish with parsley or watercress. Makes 4 servings.

Substitute Waffle Iron

Use your waffle iron for desserts when you aren't in the mood to oven-bake. Gingerbread and chocolate waffles are great served with a dessert sauce.

Salads, Meats in New Books

By JANET ODELL.
Pontiac Press Food Editor. All of a sudden new cookbooks are coming to my desk. The Better Half wonders aloud just how there can be that much demand for new recipes. He doesn't understand the dedicated cook, does he?

Two of the books come from the Favorite Recipes Press, Inc. of Montgomery, Ala. A couple of years ago we reviewed their book on Desserts.

The Salads Edition of Favorite Recipes of Home Economics Teachers contains 2000 salad and appetizer recipes which makes it one of the most complete books of its kind.

Tested recipes from home economics teachers all over the country are included.

The only individual represented from the Pontiac area is Mrs. Ruth Dolsen of Walled Lake Senior High School. Here is her recipe:

Pineapple Salad Dressing
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ cup sugar
1 cup pineapple juice
1 egg beaten until thick
Combine cornstarch and sugar. Add pineapple juice and beaten egg. Cook in double boiler until thick. Use on fruit salad. Makes 8-10 servings.

The second book from the same company (both are spiral bound and open flat) is the Meat Edition of Recipes on Parade. This is a collection of meat, seafood and poultry recipes from 2000 military officers' wives stationed around the world.

Two of the more interesting sections are those on "Wild Game" and "Favorites from Foreign Lands."

Here is an unusual way to prepare a beef chuck roast. Such roasts are now on sale most reasonably at many supermarkets.

Belgian Beef
¾ pound chuck roast
1 or 2 cloves of garlic, minced
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 can (4 oz.) or ½ pound mushrooms salt and pepper
¼ teaspoon thyme
½ teaspoon rosemary
1 large bay leaf
1 medium onion, chopped mustard
4-6 slices soft French or Italian bread
1 can beer

Cut meat in ¼-inch strips or cubes. Brown with garlic in oil. Add mushrooms, mushroom liquid, salt and pepper. Mix well.

Place mixture in baking dish; sprinkle with thyme and rosemary. Add bay leaf in two or three pieces and onion.

Spread mustard and bread and place over meat mixture, mustard side up. Pour beer over all, allowing to soak through bread.

Bake at 300 degrees for 1½ to 2 hours, or until tender. Baste during cooking. Remove bay leaf before serving. Makes 6 servings.

You may order either cookbook by mail for $3.95. Send orders to Favorite Recipes Press, Inc. P.O. Box 3396, Montgomery, Ala. 36109.

Polish Sausage

Polish sausage, sometimes called kielbasa, is coarsely ground lean pork with beef added, ripened the American Meat Institute. It is often highly seasoned with garlic. Its diameter is 1½ inches in links either 4½ or 8-10 inches long. Polish sausage requires cooking.

Grapes, Pears for Good Salad

Two favorite autumn fruits, Tokay grapes and fresh pears, are spotlighted in "Tokay Pear Salad" with celery and a sour cream dressing. The garnish is a small cluster of crisp Tokays, for eating out-of-hand.

Ruby-hued Tokays are such an attractive fruit that many homemakers use them as centerpieces for dining tables before including the grapes in a host of recipes.

Tokay Pear Salad
1 cup Tokay grapes
2 fresh pears
½ cup sliced celery
½ cup dairy sour cream
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 teaspoons sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
Salad greens
Tokay grape clusters

Halve and seed 1 cup Tokays. Pare, halve core and dice pears. Combine pears, grapes and celery. Blend sour cream, lemon juice, sugar and salt. Add to fruit mixture; toss gently. Spoon onto salad greens; garnish with small clusters of Tokays. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Two New Recipes

Homemade Bread Is a Treat

Autumn is the season of change, as families get back into the routine of work and study after a relaxing summer. It's time for a seasonal change over of food habits, too. Fall's sunny days and brisk evenings call for hearty meals. Here's one that's sure to be a popular choice, savory baked beans and "New Fashion" Boston Brown Bread.

If you thought bread baking was a lost art, or too difficult for you to try, this recipe will be a revelation. It's amazingly simple, using corn meal, whole wheat flour, molasses and raisins for extra sweetness, and wholesome dairy foods like buttermilk and Cheddar cheese. Cheese, a surprise ingredient, gives this tasty brown bread a new taste, a new moistness.

The method of baking "New Fashion" Boston Brown Bread goes back to the early history of New England. In colonial days, the good housewife always baked beans and brown bread for Saturday night supper.

While the spicy beans simmered with pork in an earthenware pot, she baked brown bread in her brick oven beside the hearth. Later cooks set the bread to steam slowly in a kettle.

This modern recipe returns to the original custom of oven-baking with the pan set in a shallow pan of water to give it a little moisture.

Many American homemakers learn their bread making skills from a mother or grandmother of foreign birth. Whether your own background is German, Scandinavian, Hungarian, British, Italian or Russian, chances are you have some time-honored family bread recipe. For a change, add this good bread to your personal recipe collection.

Norwegian Wheat Bread is a good yeast bread, with a dash of cardamom to give it lightly spiced flavor. Mix it, knead it, let it rise, then slip it in the oven and settle back to enjoy a culinary triumph when this fragrant, tender-textured loaf emerges from the oven.

Even in this modern recipe, the amount of flour varies from 7 to 8 cups according to the weather, the humidity, and how long and how thoroughly the dough is kneaded. There's a generous amount of milk in the bread, so it's an excellent source of protein. Ideal for sandwiches and between-meal snacks.

"New Fashion" Boston Brown Bread
1 cup sifted regular all-purpose flour
1 cup white corn meal
1½ teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon baking soda
1 cup whole wheat flour

1 egg, lightly beaten
2 tablespoons butter, melted
½ cup dark molasses
½ cups buttermilk
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
½ cup raisins

1 tablespoon regular all-purpose flour

Stir together in mixing bowl flour, corn meal, baking powder, salt and baking soda; stir in wheat flour. Combine egg, butter, molasses and buttermilk; add to batter along with cheese and stir only until blended. Toss raisins with the 1 tablespoon flour, stir into batter.

Pour batter into 9x5x3½ loaf pan; cover top of pan with double thickness of aluminum foil; place in shallow baking pan; surround loaf pan with water. Bake 2 hours at 350 degrees; remove from oven and cool 10 minutes. Serve warm with butter. Makes 1 loaf.

Norwegian Wheat Bread
2½ cups milk
½ cup (1 stick) butter
2 packages active dry yeast
1½ cups regular all-purpose flour

¾ cup sugar
2 teaspoons ground cardamom
¼ teaspoon salt
Butter

Heat together milk and butter until scalding; pour into large mixing bowl and let cool to lukewarm. Stir in yeast. Sift together 7 cups of the flour, sugar, cardamom and salt and add to milk mixture, mixing well.

Turn dough out onto floured bread board and knead as much of the remaining 1 cup flour as needed into dough. Place in buttered bowl, brush with melted butter, cover and set in warm place to rise until double. Punch down; let rest 10-15 minutes. Divide dough in half. Knead lightly and shape into loaves. Place in loaf pans; cover and let rise until double. Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees. While warm, brush with melted or softened butter. Makes 2 loaves.

Dress Up Rice
With Nuts, Wine

Rice prepared this way should delight your guests.

Rice Pilafant

1 cup converted-type rice
¼ cup light raisins
¼ cup pale dry sherry

¼ cup butter

¼ cup pine nuts

Cook the rice according to package directions so it is tender and dry; keep hot. Wash raisins in hot water and drain; simmer them with the sherry in a 6-inch skillet, until sherry is absorbed; add to rice.

In the small skillet, heat the pine nuts in the butter; toss with hot rice and raisins. Serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

Loosen the Skin

For those who like fresh tomatoes to be peeled, U.S. Department of Agriculture home economists suggest: stroke the skin with the back of a knife until the skin loosens, then pull it off. It also is best to peel and cut tomatoes quickly just before serving.

NEW FASHION BOSTON BROWN BREAD—Follow New England tradition and serve the family baked beans and brown bread for Saturday night supper. This "New Fashion" Boston Brown Bread is moist, tender, made with good things like buttermilk and Cheddar cheese.

NORWEGIAN WHEAT BREAD—This authentic recipe for Norwegian Wheat Bread bakes up into a light, delicious loaf. It's ideal for snacks and sandwiches because it's rich in milk for extra protein.

Tomato Sauce, Herbs Flavor Pot Roast

Foods of other lands are found more frequently on tables in American homes today. But probably the best liked roast in the U.S. is the beef pot roast.

Pot roasts are cooked in the natural meat juices with perhaps a little water. Usually vegetables are added and a rich brown gravy is served with the roast.

But variety is achieved by each individual cook who adds herbs and other seasoners. A pot roast is a good way to try a gourmet flair yet still please the family with their favorite meat dish.

This Bavarian style pot roast combines a subtle blend of flavors with the fork tender beef. It's fine for the family and elegant enough for guests.

After browning the roast on all sides, slip a rack under the roast to hold it out of the juices so that the meat will cook evenly. Cover with a tight fitting lid and place over low heat to cook slowly.

The liquid should just simmer. It's the long cooking of the meat at low temperatures that gives more tenderness and less cooking loss.

Serve with hot buttered noodles that have been sprinkled lightly with caraway seeds.

Bavarian Style Pot Roast

4 pound blade bone chuck roast
 ½ cup flour
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon paprika
 ¼ teaspoon pepper
 1 tablespoon fat
 8-oz. can tomato sauce
 ½ cup water
 1 clove garlic, peeled and crushed
 1 teaspoon leaf marjoram
 1 teaspoon paprika
 ½ teaspoon caraway seed
 2 tablespoons cornstarch
 ¼ cup cold water
 Melt fat in a heavy Dutch oven. Combine flour, salt, 1 teaspoon paprika, and pepper. Rub seasoned flour into meat. Brown meat on both sides.

Blend together tomato sauce, ½ cup water, garlic, marjoram, 1 teaspoon paprika and caraway seed. Pour over meat. Cover and simmer about 2 hours or until meat is tender. Transfer meat to a hot platter.

Skim fat from drippings. Measure 3 cups of drippings. Blend cornstarch into ¼ cup cold water. Stir into 3 cups drippings in kettle. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Serve over pot roast.

BAVARIAN POT ROAST—Currently in high supply, beef should be used often during the easy-living summer months. The bone shape is an easy guide for deciding the cut of meat to buy. If a pot roast is desired, select a roast with a round bone or blade bone.

Stuff Celery as Appetizer

Blue cheese lovers will enjoy this stuffed celery branch—
Cheese Stuffing for Celery
 1 3-oz. package Bleu cheese, softened
 1 tablespoon catsup
 1 tablespoon mayonnaise

¾ teaspoon seasoned salt
 12 pieces celery, 3 inches each

Combine first four ingredients and mix into a smooth paste. Stuff celery and chill until ready to serve. Makes enough filling for 12 celery pieces.

To stretch mincemeat for a pie, mix it with unsweetened applesauce and a little extra spice.

Ham-Orange Salad

Ham leftover from that week-end roast? You might like to learn it with diced oranges and celery for a salad. Serve with French dressing or mayonnaise and, of course, salad greens.

You can count on a one-pound jar or can of small boiled onions serving at least four persons.

Lane Joins Practice Sessions

Buoyant Lions Prepare for Encounter With L.A. Rams

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Pontiac Press Sports Editor
PALO ALTO, Calif.—Buoyed by the opening game win over San Francisco, the Detroit Lions started preparation Tuesday for this Saturday's National Football League contest with the Los Angeles Rams.

Slapped with a fine for reporting back to camp late, defensive end Sam Williams took part in running drills but not in line workouts yesterday.

Williams, who left the Lions' camp late Sunday night, returned a day later.

The big former Michigan State griddle had very little to say except, "I guess my temper gets the best of me sometime."

He did say he asked the club to trade him and that his feud of several months with Lions' management could hardly be resolved.

Coach Wilson made no comment on Williams' statements, except that "he has a contract to play for us" and he expects Williams to live up to it.

For the first time since knee surgery a month ago, defensive halfback Dick "Night Train" Lane took part in workouts at his familiar cornerback position.

It is doubtful that Lane will play against the Rams, however Coach Wilson is hoping the veteran back will see action against the Green Bay Packers in the home opener, Monday night Sept. 20th.

Yale Lary who sustained a mild ankle injury in the 49ers' game also ran in practice, but his safety spot was filled by Bruce Mahler, the rugged little back who played the position in the final six games of 1963 when Gary Lowe was lost because of surgery on his Achilles tendon.

Among some of the other mild injuries are Nick Pietrosante, John Gordy and Roger Brown. All are expected however to be ready for the game.

It is probable that Bill Quinlan will start at defensive end in place of Williams, although coach Wilson plans to go along with his alternating method of shuffling the three defensive ends.

The Rams whipped the Steelers in their opener in Pittsburgh and Wilson said that Saturday's opponents displayed a strong defense against Pittsburgh's running and passing.

The Rams intercepted four Steelers passes and recovered four fumbles; and this being the home opener in Los Angeles, Wilson expects plenty of trouble, especially for his offense.

The game will be televised back to Detroit at 10 p.m. Saturday.

Phils' Slugger Continues His Victory Habit

Collision Stars Again in Win Over Colts; Cards Take Two

By The Associated Press
Winning ball games is getting to be a habit with Johnny Callison.

The Philadelphia Phillies' outfielder whose ninth inning homer won the All-Star game for the National League in July, delivered the decisive blow again Tuesday night.

His sixth inning single scored Richie Allen from second base with the run that gave the pennant-bound Phils a 1-0 victory over the Houston Colts.

The Phils now lead the second place St. Louis Cardinals by six games with 17 left to play.

DOUBLE WIN

The Cards whipped Milwaukee in both ends of a two-night doubleheader 11-6 and 3-1. Third place San Francisco beat the New York Mets 3-1 while the Chicago Cubs dined Cincinnati's hopes 6-1.

The Giants and Reds now trail the Phils by 7-1 and 8-1/2 games, respectively.

Los Angeles downed Pittsburgh 5-3 in the other NL game. Callison's game-winning single followed Allen's lead-off double in the sixth. Dennis Bennett and Jack Baldschun shared the pitching honors for the Phils by yielding only four hits. Bennett, lifted for a pinch-hitter in sixth, gave up three of them.

GAME SAVER

Baldschun saved the game for Bennett by putting down Houston threats. In the eighth Bob Aspromonte walked and went to third on a wild pitch. Anticipating a squeeze play, Baldschun threw three straight pitches. Aspromonte broke on the third outside pitch and was an easy out.

Al Spangler singled in the ninth and reached second on Baldschun's second wild pitch. Then Baldschun fanned Joe Gaines for the final out.

A five-run seventh inning gave the Cards their first game win over the Braves. Bob Gibson's four-hitter and Julian Javier's two-run homer defeated the Braves in the nightcap.

Juan Marichal pitched a four-hitter and Tom Haller homered for the winning run against the Mets to keep the Giants in contention, at least for second place tonight.

20th TRIUMPH

Larry Jackson became the first 20-game winner in the majors this season as the Cubs drubbed Cincinnati, Jackson yielded six hits, three of them in the first inning that accounted for the Reds' lone tally.

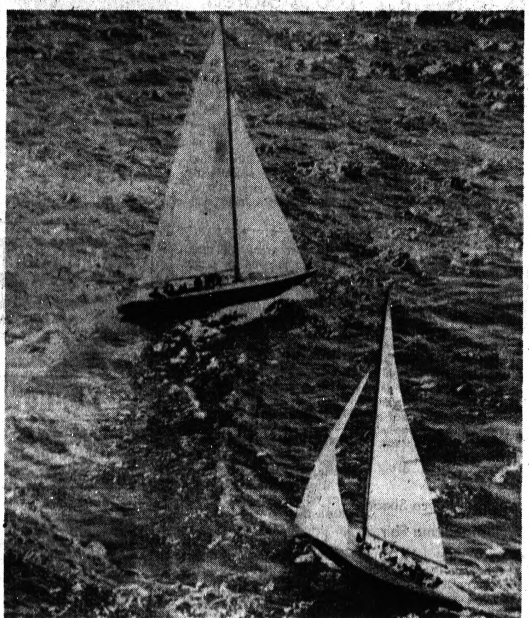

Willie Davis, Ron Fairly and Bud Shirley each got three hits to lead the Dodgers over Pittsburgh. Down 4-0, the Pirates pulled within 4-3 with two runs in the seventh before Bob Miller came in and saved the victory for Larry Miller.

Waterford Hill Tourney Finishes in Deadlock

Two teams placed seven-under-par 65 on the first two holes of the Waterford Hill Invitational Best-Ball tournament.

Pontiac city champion Dick Robertson teamed with former city titlist Lou Mitchell of Rochester for a 65, and Bill Curtis of Farmington and Lee Gots of Redford matched the score.

NOT EVEN CLOSE — The America's Cup defender Constellation (lower right) and Sovereign, the British challenger, jockey for position and a fair wind at the start of the America's Cup races off Newport, R.I., yesterday. Constellation ran away with the race, finishing nearly a mile in front.

U.S. Yacht Adds to Cup Tradition

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The British pride themselves on never having lost a war.

They've never won an America's Cup, either, and they may need their finest yachting humor to take the trophy to the home it left, so far for good, 114 years ago.

Constellation, the defender of the New York Yacht Club, showed the waterborne equivalent of her heels Tuesday to Sovereign, the English challenger.

per of the Royal Thames Yacht Club. But the British spurned their right for a day's postponement and will go at Constellation again this afternoon.

The closest the two yachts got to each other after the start Tuesday was at a post-race news conference attended by Eric Ridder and Bob Bavier, the U.S. 12-meter's helmsmen, and Peter Scott, the man at the wheel of Sovereign.

ANCIENT COMPLAINT

All three complained about interference from the spectator fleet (as ancient a complaint in cup history as the weather) and all said they were encouraged.

"Because we won," said Ridder.

And, said Scott, "the most encouraging thing for us was she didn't beat us by any more."

Nonetheless there wasn't much to cheer about in the British camp at Constellation's margin at the finish of the 24.3 mile opening race in the best-of-seven series. It was 5 minutes, 34 seconds, which represents a distance of about a mile in the 10-knot west-southwesterly winds that blew all the sky blue afternoon on Rhode Island Sound.

Baviera, 46-year-old advertising manager for Yachting Magazine, won the start after the two yachts circled for some time in ring-around-the-rose maneuvering.

TACK NEEDED
"I was getting giddy," cracked Scott. Baviera had the windward berth and although Sovereign was in free air to leeward, Constellation soon crept ahead forcing the challenger to tack to get free of the leader's slipstream.

From then on the defender turned it on, pointing as high and sometimes higher than Sovereign and travelling faster. On only one of the legs, a broad reach to the third mark, did Constellation not fail to increase her margin.

On the first leg, a windward beat, Sovereign showed that fear of the proper fit of her sails were not just puerile rumors. Her genoa jib constantly backedwinded her mainsail, disastrously cutting her efficiency. A different jib on the fourth leg fit better but by then Constellation was fast disappearing over the horizon.

Both captains, Ridder and Scott, said they were bothered by the spectator fleet although it was but to only about 300 craft, presumably by Monday's flogging appearance of ex-helmsman Baviera and the fact that Tuesday is a work day, even for yachtsmen.

Chicago Tries Yankee Formula

'Chance' Slips Past Yankees

By The Associated Press

Eight "percentage" points blanket the three American League pennant contenders today and it's more than a chance happening.

A good part of the credit, of course, belongs to Dean Chance, the Los Angeles Angels' marvelous right-hander whose two-hit, 7-0 mastery of New York Tuesday night helped send the Yankee reeling into third place in the flag race.

But Minnesota's Rich Rollins, who drove in both runs in a 2-1 close call over Baltimore that prevented the Orioles from padding their lead, rates a nod.

POINT AHEAD

The White Sox victory over Detroit put them one percentage point ahead of the Yankees, who trail the Orioles by seven points and 1 1/2 games. Chicago and Baltimore each have 14 games left, five less than New York.

Chance, the league's top winner and No. 1 Yankee killer, breezed by his 19th victory and 10th shutout. Four victories and three whitewash jobs have come against the Yankees, who have managed one run a Mickey Mantle homer — in 50 turns at bat against the fireballing Angel.

ROLLINS' SEVENTH INNING DOUBLE

Rollins' seventh inning double pulled the Twins into a 1-1 tie at Baltimore and his triple in the ninth broke the deadlock.

Boston rookie Ed Connolly fired a two-hitter against Kansas City and the Red Sox cracked 14 hits for an 8-0 victory in the only other game played. The Washington-Cleveland game was rained out.

ERA 1.49

Bobby Richardson's infield single in the fourth and opposing pitcher Al Downing's seventh inning single were the only hits off Chance, who lowered his major league-leading earned run average to 1.49. Even more impressive are his figures against the Yankees.

2-Ball Event Closes Season for WDGA

Mrs. John Hume of Red Run and Mrs. Bruce Hilkene of Indianapolis carded a two-ball total of 81 to pace the Women's District Golf Association in its first 1964 outing at Oakland Hills yesterday.

Mrs. Dorothy Thompson of Oakland Hills and Mrs. T. M. Werner of Forest Lake combined for a low net of 78.

The association elected officers for 1965 following the tournament. Elected were: Mrs. Virgil E. Boyd of Forest Lake, president; Mrs. Frank Campbell of Grosse Ile, first vice president; Mrs. R. F. Welf of Oakland Hills, second vice president; Miss Helen Hanley of Oakland Hills, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. David G. Harper, Plum Hollow, recording secretary; Mrs. W. D. Jordan of Detroit CC, treasurer; Mrs. Anthony Kostas of Dearborn, handicap chairman.

York is 0.18 and the Yankees have a meager .086 batting average in five season encounters with him. He set LA season records of 233 2-3 innings pitched and 187 strikeouts Tuesday night, fanning eight.

Minnesota used six pitchers to hold the Orioles, Al Worthington getting the final out in the ninth with the tying run on third base. Rollins' ninth-inning triple off Harvey Haddix, third of four Baltimore batters, followed a pinch single by Frank Kostro.

Back-to-back doubles by rookie Jay Ward and Rollins in the seventh matched the Orioles' run in the third, fashioned on a single by Jack Brandt, a sacrifice, intentional walk and Bob Johnson's RBI single.

POSTS NO. 20 — Chicago Cubs pitcher Larry Jackson shows the form that carried him to his 20th victory of the season yesterday, a 6-1 triumph over Cincinnati. Jackson was the first to reach the 20-game circle this season.

Pitcher for Chicago Cubs First to Post 20 Wins

CHICAGO (AP) — It isn't often that a pitcher for an eighth-place club wins 20 games.

Now comes Larry Jackson of the Chicago Cubs, who are destined to finish eighth in the National League.

Not only did Jackson, an industrious 33-year-old right hander, notch his 20th victory Tuesday, beating Cincinnati 6-1, but he became the first in the majors to reach the coveted plateau this year. Jackson has had 10 losses this season.

Several times in his 10-year career, Jackson has flirted with 20 victories but never made it. He won 18 with St. Louis in 1950 and last year he had a 14-18 record with the Cubs.

SEVEN REVERSES

He appeared to be a cinch to win 20 his first year with Chicago but finished the season with seven straight losses.

"But even a good pitcher needs luck to win 20 games," said Jackson, who credits his success to his distinct slider and his control.

"I once walked 14 men in one season in the minors," said Jackson. "This year, he should have yielded but 53 passes in 253 in that whenever I throw, I should throw at something. You know, have a target."

Jackson developed his slider in 1953, one year after he scored 28 victories with Fresno in the minor leagues.

Viking Runners Whip Berkley Squad, 17-45

Mark Karell paced the Vikings with a winning time of 16:56, followed by teammate Jim Lindler (second), Bob Coppitts (third) and Gary Sparks (fifth).

Berkley's Mike Murphy placed fourth.

2 Newcomers Lead Sox Past Detroit, 3-2

Burgess, Rookie Foil Wickersham's Bid for 19th Victory

DETROIT (AP) — The New York Yankees have been known to win a few of their many pennants by acquiring players late in the season and having these players come through in the pinch.

The Chicago White Sox appeared Tuesday night to have stolen some of the Yankees' formula as two players making their first appearance in the American League played major roles in their 3-2 extra-inning victory over Detroit.

Smoky Burgess, the aging National League veteran purchased from Pittsburgh Monday, hit a pinch-hit homer off Dave Wickersham in the eighth inning to tie the score at 2-2 and send the game into extra innings.

SOFT BLOW

The game-winning hit was a soft single to left by rookie Marv Staehle, recently recalled from Indianapolis where he hit .300.

"That Burgess is one of the best pinch-hitters in either league," Detroit Manager Charlie Dressen said. "You can't afford to give him a good pitch when he's pinch-hitting. But we did it and it cost us the game."

Wickersham, looking for his 19th win in the season, kept the White Sox in hand for most of the game.

But Chicago bunched all of its seven hits in three innings and that was all it needed to move back into second place.

FIRST RUN

Floyd Robinson touched Wickersham for a double in the fourth for the first Chicago hit. After Pete Ward grounded out, Bill Skowron singled to right to score Robinson.

That's the way it stood until the seventh when the Tigers scored their two runs.

Chicago starter Joel Horlen had held the Tigers to two hits through the first six frames — a second-inning single by Don Wert and a sixth-inning double by Wickersham.

The Tigers got a break in the seventh when Don Buford threw seven hits in three innings in the Chicago dugout allowing Al Kaline, who had singled, to go to third and Brown to take second.

TYING RUN

Dick McAuliffe's intentional walk loaded the bases and Bill Freehan beat out an infield hit to tie the score. Brown scored when Wert grounded out.

Then came Burgess' homer and the tenth-inning heroics by Staehle.

Cleveland May Keep Baseball Team

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland General Manager Gabe Paul says the picture has brightened about the Indians' chances of staying where they are.

Paul, largest single stockholder in the American League baseball club, said he met informally Tuesday with 15 directors of the club and all agreed they want the Indians to stay in Cleveland.

"They are willing to keep the team here at a huge personal sacrifice," said Paul, who took over the club three years ago.

BIG OFFERS

Paul once again repeated that he has made no commitment to move Cleveland to another home despite what he called fantastically attractive offers from 10 or 12 other cities trying to get the franchise.

What has made the offers from such cities as Dallas, Tex., Seattle, Wash., Atlanta, and Oakland, Calif., so attractive? Club directors note that each has guaranteed the Indians big television money and assured the owners of advance ticket sales in the neighborhood of $2 million.

Paul has revealed that the Indians' losses this year are expected to surpass the $12 million the club lost in 1963. He feels the club will continue losing money unless season ticket sales are much higher than the 2,800 for this year. This was below the 1963 total.

Another headache for Paul is attendance. The Indians so far this season have drawn 588,512, up 26,005 over total 1963 attendance. It is estimated the club needs around 800,000 per season to break even.

Play Production to Tell Truman's Life Story
INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Harry S. Truman has approved the production of a play that tells the story of his life from birth through his election as president in 1948.
The play is by J. Roy McCarthy, a member of the staff of a St. Louis radio station. It will be presented by the players of Central Missouri State College.

Burtons Take a Lunch Break in Public

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
MONTEREY, Calif. — The scene is bizarre, like something out of a movie.

After a morning of filming locations for "The Sandpiper" in a rocky cove, Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton climb the bluff to sit down to lunch at one of the picnic tables set up for the movie company.

THOMAS

A hundred yards away is California Highway 1 and it is lined with tourists who stare at the famous pair.

The stars sip their wine, a French rose, eat heartily of the plain location lunch, and regale their fellow workers and a few visitors with stories. Burton is a noted raconteur; his wife keeps up with his repertoire.

The Burtons are not unaware of the audience on the highway. HUGO SPYGLASS
"Notice the ones with binoculars," he says. "Yesterday there was a fellow up there with a huge spyglass. As I was leaving for the set, the wind was just right and I could hear his comment to his companion: 'Yes, he is pockmarked.'"

Elizabeth adds: "I was going into my trailer the day before when I heard a bunch of girls screaming, 'Liz! Liz!' I looked up and gave a little wave, and one of them said, 'We think you're still pretty.' I went into the trailer feeling very creaky in the bones and started to count the gray in my hair."

There are indeed a few strands of gray in her hair, but at 32 she is in splendid shape. A fortnight of diet and exercise at their Puerto Vallarta villa put both the Burtons in trim for "The Sandpiper."

may cause some lifted eyebrows, since the role in the Edward Albee play has been taken by forthright actresses.

The Burtons plan next summer to re-team in a movie version of "The Taming of the Shrew" to be made in Italy.

How does Burton think his wife will fare with the Bard? "Well, since she made her debut reading poetry in New York, she has her feet wet. And she has a raucous voice, so that's a good start for playing the shrew."

There are indeed a few strands of gray in her hair, but at 32 she is in splendid shape. A fortnight of diet and exercise at their Puerto Vallarta villa put both the Burtons in trim for "The Sandpiper."

They will need to be in trim for their future schedule. After locations in Monterey and Big Sur, they will film interiors in Paris. Burton will go immediately into "The Spy who Came In From the Cold," which will shoot in London, Ireland and Munich.

RETURN IN SPRING
The pair return to California next spring when she will star in "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" with Jack Lemmon as the probable costar. The casting

A Detroit woman accused of negligent homicide in the Aug. 16 traffic death of a Lake Orion youth pleaded innocent at her arraignment Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court.
Police say Mrs. Ruth Ann Forney, 54, was driving the wrong way on I-75 in Troy when her car collided with one driven by Gary D. Storch, 19, who was killed in the crash.

Mrs. Forney, who received minor injuries in the crash, is free on $500 bond. No date has been set for trial.

Garbage Man Has Nose for Antiquities

BLETCHLEY, England (AP) — Dick Griffiths dumps garbage on the municipal rubbish heap during the day and at night goes back there to dig for archaeological treasure.
Dick is a dustman (British for garbage collector) for the Bletchley Urban Council. He's also a keen amateur archaeologist.

He has made several discoveries in the garbage dump, which has the poetic name of Saffron Gardens.
A display case in the town library is filled with Griffiths' findings — pottery dating back 2,000 years, an ancient skeleton and the like.

Actually, Saffron Gardens only recently became a rubbish dump. The others got filled up. In daytime hours Dick collects his garbage and like dustmen empties his gatherings on Saffron Gardens knowing full well that in the evening he must go back there for his diggings.

DESTROYED SITE
"The council has now almost totally destroyed the site," said Dick ruefully, "but I shall fight to the end."
The rubbish is driving me back further and further and at times it seems hopeless. But what can I do? I have a wife and three children and I have to do my job."
A municipal spokesman said the city was forced to use Saffron Gardens as a rubbish dump as there was nowhere else at the moment.

Learning Made Easier

Students Need Organizational Skill

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.

The further a student goes in school, the more necessary it becomes to organize as he learns; otherwise, he is in no position to absorb more ideas. Organizational skill is the mark of a good student. Many organizations may produce good grades, but it's a shaky foundation for higher education, or for tackling the problems of life later.

DR. NASON

Listening to well-organized lectures, studying from well-organized textbooks and reviewing the summaries and outlines produced by someone else gives the student no practice in organization.

To gain this skill the student himself must do the organizing.

If you hear your youngster make remarks like these, you can suspect lack of organization.

"Class is a waste of time—teacher doesn't follow the book."

"Teacher always asks for little details. He expects us to have everything memorized."

"I always study the wrong thing."

The charge that the subject is not well-organized in the teacher's mind or was not presented in an organized manner is a dead giveaway that there is lack of organization in the mind of the student.

The organization of subject matter comes about in the mind of a student only through thinking beyond memorized facts. Memorization of outlines is not training in organization of ideas.

A student must put the ideas into his own words.

A minute or two following completion of a mathematics assignment he should ask himself, "What kinds of problems are these? What principles were used? How should I know by reading the problems that these principles apply?"

STOP MINUTE

He should stop a minute before reading an assignment in any course to ask himself,

"What have we covered up to this point?"

• Reread chapter I and then, with the book closed, summarize on one page what the chapter was about. What did the author say? Use complete sentences.

• Check this summary with the table of contents and the chapter heads. Determine what, if anything, was left out of your outline.

• Correct the outline.

• Start again with blank paper and this time incorporate the second chapter with the first and still keep the summary down to one page if possible. Again, it's important to check this summary against the book and correct it.

• Rewrite the outline starting at the beginning and include one additional chapter each time until the outline is brought up to date.

Outlines and review materials made by others should be used only after a student has personally organized the material for himself. They should be used as a check, not a crutch.

Opening lead—4 ♣

By OSWALD JACOBY

South really liked his chops in glee when he heard East's two diamond bid. He almost thundered out a double, then asked himself,

"Where are the spades?" North surely didn't have five spades, and probably didn't have four, so East and West would have an JACOBY escape to the spade suit.

So South reached the temptation to double and jumped to four hearts. He won East's king of diamonds with his ace. South proceeded to use the code word

ARCH. The "A" analysis of the lead and "R" review of the bidding marked West with a single-ton diamond. The "C" analysis of losers showed two spades and three diamonds.

If he could discard something on the ace of clubs and also manage to ruff a diamond, he would have 10 tricks. "How could he do this? He could lead the eight of trumps to dummy's nine and discard on the ace of clubs. This would leave no opportunity to ruff a diamond and South abandoned that idea.

Then he found the winning play. He led a low diamond. East won and returned a trump. South won the trick and ruffed a diamond with dummy's nine of trumps. Then he discarded a spade on the ace of clubs, ruffed a club to get back to his hand, drew trumps and claimed his contract.

Not Ghost Riders in Sky

'Jet' Along, Little Dogies

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It used to be that when a cowboy sang of "The Great Roundup in the Sky" you could assume that he was thinking of heaven. But no longer.

There is now a possibility that a job of punching cattle for Trans World Airlines. The fact is, Old Point, that just this week there is inaugurated regularly scheduled commercial airline flights to move live calves from the United States to Europe.

I guess this about does it as far as the Old West is concerned. Riding herd on horseback is going to seem like a pretty tame job of punching cattle for Trans World Airlines.

The fact is, Old Point, that just this week there is inaugurated regularly scheduled commercial airline flights to move live calves from the United States to Europe.

I expect that in a few years a whole new category of folklore will spring up, particularly if a range war breaks out between TWA and Pan Am.

It isn't too far-fetched to fancy that some day a movie studio will remake "High Noon" at 36,000 feet. This will be followed by a cluster of television programs based on the adventures of airborne cowpokes.

WESTERN TO OZONERS

Instead of westerns, we will be watching ozoners. The Chisholm Trail will be replaced by the great circle route. The cattle will carry parachutes instead of saddle bags.

As the hero of these aerial horse operas, I foresee someone like Tex Altimeter, a foreman at the Pan Am spread who is regarded as the fastest draw east of the Kennedy International Airport.

The big scene comes one night when they are moving 200 head from New York to Milan, Italy. A thunderstorm develops and it looks as if they might have a stampede on their hands.

Not only that, there is a gang of rustlers back at the tail compartment; a tribe of Indians is on the warpath in the rest room; and the pilot is really an escaped convict who is trying to get across the Mexican border.

SECOND CHANCE

To make matters worse, an unruly, no-good skunk who is present at the scene of the crash is trying to force a second chance on the stewards.

Just when it appears that all is lost, Tex whips out his trusty guitar and sings:

"Oh, give me air, lots of air."

Renaissance Paintings

Stolen From Collection

ROME (AP) — Search was pressed today for an international ring of thieves blamed for the disappearance of 16 paintings by some of Italy's greatest Renaissance artists from an Italian collector.

The value of the paintings stolen Monday night from Prince Alessandro Torlonia was estimated at first at $300,000. Art experts said later they might be worth more than a million dollars.

2 Vestrymen Leave Church in Ionia Rift

IGNIA (AP) — Two vestrymen at St. John's Episcopal Church have announced their resignations in what they said is a dispute with the church pastor over the excommunication of two church members.

Jesse Roberts and Robert Beach said the dispute involved the excommunication of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roberts earlier this year by the Rev. Raymond Bierlein.

The Cleres were excommunicated after criticizing Mr. Bierlein's protest to the Ionia Board of Education on the propriety of the play "Damn Yankees" as produced by Ionia high school students.

Both Roberts and Beach said their resignations involved church policy. Roberts said he was unable to work as a vestryman under Mr. Bierlein.

The Cleres have been partially restored to membership in the church, but still are not full communicants.

State OKs Contract

For Temporary Parking

LANSING (AP) — The State Administrative Board has approved a $43,228 contract for a temporary parking facility for state employees while a new underground lot is being built in the Capitol development area.

Construction of the temporary facilities will be done by Janney Construction Co. of Lansing.

A Junior Editors Quiz About BEES' WINGS

QUESTION: How many wings does a bee have?

ANSWER: Katrina, whose father is a beekeeper (you can see him in the background with a head net hanging from his hat) is answering the question in the picture.

There are two wings on each side, but when the bee flies, little books hold the two wings together so they actually act as one.

Flight is very important to the bee colony, as they need nectar and pollen from flowers — the nectar for making honey and the pollen for other kinds of food — and these must be gathered through the flights of the worker bees as they buzz actively from flower to flower.

In performance of these duties, a bee needs to master all kinds of aerial acrobatics, such as hovering in one spot to look the flower situation over, slipping sideways from flower to flower, or backing up to withdraw the nectar or pollen from the flower.

A worker bee is expert in all these maneuvers. It is interesting that hummingbirds, who also live by sucking nectar from flowers, have the same ability to hover and fly backward like a helicopter, something not possessed by other birds.

After having found good nectar-bearing flowers, a bee comes back to the colony and runs around the honey pot in a kind of dance, which seems to tell the other bees where to find the supply.

FOR YOU TO DO: The honey bees, with their complicated social lives, are among the most fascinating things in the animal kingdom. Find out more about them.

"Let me ride through the wide blue yonder that I love."

"Don't fence me in."

In the nick of time, there appears on the horizon a fleet of airplanes with red, white and blue insignia. It is a posse of air traffic control tower operators from the Federal Aviation Agency.

Meanwhile, back at the TWA terminal...

Cause of State Prosperity Divides Romney, Staeble

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—"Progress for Michigan" under his administration was Republican Gov. George Romney's Sunday punch in debate last night at the Michigan AFL-CIO Convention.

"More showmanship than substance," was the retort of Congressman Neil Staeble, Romney's Democratic challenger in the debate and in the Nov. 3 election.

Chevrolet Previews New Cars

GAYLORD (AP)—Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corp. previewed its new cars today and featured the first major styling change in the Corvair.

So-called sports models—make up 20 of the 45 models offered in the five Chevrolet lines.

The firm said the regular Chevrolet, long-time industry sales leader, is the most luxurious car ever offered by the line.

The new Chevy is longer by three inches, wider by one and a half inches, and one inch lower.

er than in 1964. The 119 inch wheelbase was retained, but the chassis was widened 2.2 inches in front and 3.1 inches in the rear.

The Corvair showed its first major styling change since it was introduced in the 1960 model year. The car is longer and lower with a slightly slanting front end, recessed dual headlights and downward tapered front and rear decks.

LBJ to Visit Canada; Barry in Tennessee

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson, embarking on his first major trip of the campaign season, racks up a couple of firsts today—by touching foreign soil and by traveling in a foreign plane.

Johnson, who will be gone from Washington two days on a Western tour labeled nonpolitical by the White House, flies first to Great Falls, Mont., to be picked up by Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada.

The two men were to fly to Vancouver, B. C., aboard the prime minister's American-made Jetstar transport—twin to the Air Force craft frequently used by the President in his American travels.

Veterans around the White House could remember no previous occasion on which an American president agreed to travel abroad an airplane of a foreign government.

Johnson's trip to Vancouver marks his first venture outside the United States.

Some time ago, the President said he would confine his travels to the continental United States because there is no vice president.

Recently—before the Vancouver journey was announced, Johnson said privately he might cross the border.

Johnson's meeting with Pearson was arranged ostensibly to jointly commemorate the 50th anniversary of an American-Canadian treaty aimed at orderly development of the Columbia River Basin.

It also provides some camouflage—season exposure in a nonpolitical light.

SECOND TRIP
The chief executive's trip yesterday to politically-doubtful Florida was his second in five days.

Republican National Chairman Dean Burch lost no time in labeling the "nonpolitical" journey "an improper use of taxpayer's money." He said Johnson's speech to the Machinists Union convention was "purely political and sought to gain votes" for the President.

At Miami Beach, the machinists gave Johnson a big greeting and he plugged for a stronger Social Security program, which would include medical care for the elderly.

Then the President flew 200 miles north and stopped off en route back to Washington at Cape Kennedy.

He inspected some of the space facility and plugged for the administration's space program.

A 90-minute question-and-answer period caught the fancy of debate spectators. A total of 21 questions was submitted from the floor.

"Without double-talk," one asked Romney, "Do you support the Goldwater-Miller Republican national ticket?"

"I made my point clear some time ago," the governor answered. "Do you support the Goldwater-Miller Republican national ticket?"

Staeble volunteered that he supported the Democratic party national ticket without reservation. In answer to another question, Romney said the Republican promoted Massachusetts ballot proposal facing Michigan voters in November, and bitterly opposed by the AFL-CIO, would strengthen the two-party system.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater pressed his hunt for Republican votes in the Deep South today, challenging President Johnson to tell the American people where he stands on Communist Cuba.

The Republican presidential nominee raised that point in a speech prepared for delivery here, in a state with a built-in political question mark.

The question: How will Tennessee react to the Arizona senator who has called for the sale of big portions of the giant Tennessee Valley Authority.

Goldwater has said TVA steam-operated power plants, plus the authority's fertilizer program, should be sold to states or communities, to private industry or to a special corporation.

Other TVA operations, he said, should be put in the hands of federal agencies that operate similar programs elsewhere.

Goldwater's other stops today on the second of a four-day Southern campaign swing: Memphis and River Bluff, Tenn., Macon, Ga., and Montgomery, Ala.

Goldwater tied into Johnson on the Cuba question by accusing him of "blue-pencil attempts to delete political mistakes" from a speech he delivered yesterday to the International Association of Machinists in Miami.

Goldwater said Johnson asked reporters to delete two "extremely damaging or at least dubious statements in regard to Communist Cuba" from the text of his Miami speech.

One, he said, "was that Castro has failed to spread communism in this hemisphere. That is incredible."

He said the other statement was that "Castro's Communist dictatorship in Cuba poses no threat to the United States."

After Johnson's prepared text was distributed to newsmen, aides asked that the portion dealing with Cuba be deleted. They said the remarks were premature.

In that section, Johnson said Castro is isolated and his appeal to the rest of Latin America is weaker now than at any time since he took power in 1959. The deleted remarks also said the Cuban regime is no major threat to the security of this country.

"There are all too many questions piling up at the door of the White House," Goldwater said, "Questions—about Viet Nam, questions about Bobby Baker, questions about private gains from public office, questions about the political use of defense contracts, and now questions about the President's policy and posture regarding Cuba."

ONE WEAPON?
Kend Fukunaga, leader of the Japanese delegation, told a news conference today that he had the impression that Khrushchev was referring to one weapon, not several.

In Washington, U.S. government decided to become a Republican because he believes "there should be a realignment in American politics—with all liberals in one party and all the conservatives in the other."

Several sources in South Carolina also say Thurmond will bolt the Democrats.

The senator himself, asked by a Washington reporter for comment, said: "I will neither deny nor confirm any speculation about my statement until I present it to the people of South Carolina on television tomorrow evening."

The South Carolina Republican chairman, J. Drake Edens, had no comment on the reports. Industrialist Roger Milliken of Artisanburg, another GOP leader, said he knew nothing about them.

Thurmond, once governor of South Carolina, ran for the Senate in 1950, but lost to Sen. Olin D. Johnston, a Democrat. In 1954, he ran as an independent against Democratic nominee Edgar A. Brown in the general election and was elected to the Senate by a write-in vote.

Like all the states of the old Confederacy, South Carolina traditionally has been Democratic.

It has rejected the party's presidential nominee only twice since the Civil War—in 1948 when Thurmond led the States' Rights revolt against Democrat Harry S. Truman, and in 1962, when Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower defeated Adlai E. Stevenson.

Coal Miners Rescued

BOTROP, Germany (AP)—The ceiling of a coal mine gallery collapsed 2,000 feet below ground early today, trapping 16 miners for nearly 12 hours. The miners were brought to the surface in the early afternoon. None of them was injured.

'Can Destroy All Life'

K Boasts of Terrible Weapon

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev says the Soviet Union has a new secret weapon which could destroy all life on earth. His words seemed to be aimed primarily at Red China and not at the West.

Khrushchev, who did not describe the weapon, was speaking to a Japanese parliamentary delegation yesterday. The Japanese said he mentioned the weapon during a blast at Chinese Communist leader Mao Tse-tung.

Khrushchev accused Mao of wanting to take over Soviet territory. The Japanese said Khrushchev told them the Soviet Union hates war and doesn't want to use live weapons, but "if you live among wolves, you should howl like a wolf."

Khrushchev made no mention of the West during his discussion of new weapons, the Japanese reported.

He told them that Soviet military men and scientists on Monday had showed him "new means of destruction" which the Soviet Union now possesses. He said he was amazed to learn that it could end all life.

Temperatures will warm up a little, the highs for the next five days averaging 3 or 4 degrees above the normal high of 73 and low of 55.

Tonight's low will be in the low 50s. Winds will continue at 8 to 15 miles per hour to south easterly.

Forty-two was today's low reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. At 1 p.m. the mercury had climbed to 61.

OK Extending Sewer Service

Accord Between City and Waterford Twp.

The extension of Pontiac sewage treatment service to a portion of Waterford Township was officially okayed last night by the Pontiac City Commission.

Commissioners voted to extend a 1958 agreement to serve an area between Elizabeth Lake Road and Menominee, extending about three blocks west from Telegraph.

In effect, last night's formal action means that if and when the township installs sanitary sewers in that area, it may connect them to the city's sanitary sewer system.

Township officials had requested the extension last year. City Engineer Joseph E. Neippling said that 207 homes, 10 commercial establishments and 30 vacant lots would be serviced by the proposed sewers.

him to mean that. They said after telling them of it, he discussed the need to use nuclear energy for peaceful purposes.

The Japanese said Khrushchev accused Mao of "spreading warlike sentiments" and that Mao's territorial claims "are not the words of a Communist."

FRONTIERS SACRED
"Our state frontiers," Khrushchev added, "are sacred and we have all the means to defend them."

Under the UAW placed Chrysler under a new strike threat yesterday, although Reuther announced only a week ago today that "an historic labor agreement worth 54 cents an hour" had wrapped up there.

Although he failed to mention it at the time, the national economic agreement Reuther announced covered only hourly rated production and maintenance employees at Chrysler. Agreement since has been worked out regarding parts depot workers.

Douglas Fraser, UAW Chrysler department chief, served notice yesterday that some 7,000 salaried office and engineering personnel represented by the union would walk out on Chrysler Friday at 10 a.m., unless agreement came by then on a new national contract for them.

ONLY THREE-FIFTHS
One union source conceded "we have only three-fifths of a national agreement at Chrysler, but it covers the vast majority." He also said that general gains, estimated by Reuther to be worth 54 cents hourly over the next three years and including a possible maximum $400 monthly pension at age 60, weren't in dispute.

Township officials had requested the extension last year. City Engineer Joseph E. Neippling said that 207 homes, 10 commercial establishments and 30 vacant lots would be serviced by the proposed sewers.

12-Year-Old Killed as Car Strikes Bike

A 12-year-old Brandon Township youth died yesterday afternoon when he was struck by a car while riding his bike on M-15 south of Ortonville.

Dead is William S. Bretz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Bretz of 385 W. Glass.

State Police said the boy, a Brandon Elementary School sixth grader, was riding north on M-15 when his bicycle veered into the path of a northbound car.

The driver of the vehicle, Bowen R. Brock, 30, of 10801 Kirkshire, Bloomfield Hills, was not held by police.

Say Thurmond to Bolt Dems

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina will bolt the Democratic party tonight and become a Republican supporting Sen. Barry Goldwater for president, according to several sources.

Thurmond, who carried South Carolina, Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi in the 1948 presidential election as the States' Rights party candidate, is expected to announce his decision in a television speech from Columbia at 6:15 p.m. EST.

Advertisements in several newspapers in South Carolina and North Carolina today said Thurmond's appearance on a two-state television hookup "will be of vital concern to every thinking citizen."

"Strom Thurmond voices his conviction that the Democrats are the only party that can win," "Watch history being made!" Small print at the bottom of the ads said they were paid for by the South Carolina Republican party.

SAIGON, Viet Nam UN-Brig. Gives Self Up in Saigon

SAIGON, Viet Nam UN-Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat, the former interior minister who organized the abortive coup last Sunday, surrendered to government authorities in Saigon today, bringing an end to the crisis for the time being.

Phat was one of several rebel officers who withdrew with their troops and tanks to My Tho, 40 miles south of Saigon, after the coup collapsed Monday.

The Saigon Radio warned today that if he did not surrender to Saigon authorities, the government "would not be responsible for his safety."

Phat heard the broadcast in My Tho and came to Saigon. Also expected to surrender soon was another officer on the wanted list, an ex-chief of suburban Gia Dinh Province, Col. Phan Minh Trang.

Phat was the fifth coup leader to surrender to the government and to be placed under arrest.

Vital Clues Sought in 3 Slayings

DETROIT (AP) — A missing gun and other vital clues still had to be pored over by detectives today to solve the slayings of former radio personality Pierre Paulin and two other persons.

"We think we're making progress but there's still a lot of investigating to do," said Police Lt. William Sheedy yesterday, nearly 24 hours after the discovery of the fatal shootings.

Paulin, father of five children, was found shot in the chest Monday in a control booth room at the Detroit School of Announcing, a C. Speech, Inc. he owned the school.

Mrs. John H. Frazier, 40, and Clarence De Pote, 47-year-old used car dealer, were found in a soundproof lounge of the school.

Mrs. Frazier, mother of four children and wife of a railroad engineer, had been shot seven times. One bullet had pierced De Pote.

"RILED UP"

Dr. E. S. Zawadzki, Wayne-Detroit County medical examiner, said the killings apparently were committed by "somebody pretty well riled up."

Police said there were no signs of a struggle and no indications of forcible entry at the storefront school on Detroit's northwest side. No weapon was found.

U.S. Experts Speculate on Type of Destruction

WASHINGTON (AP) — The "new means of destruction" claimed by Soviet Premier Khrushchev could be a major advance in chemical or germ warfare, government experts said today.

Defense sources stressed they were speculating in the absence of any hard intelligence information about what Khrushchev meant in a talk to a Japanese group in the Kremlin yesterday.

Developments considered in the realm of the possible included:

- The dread cobalt bomb, a nuclear device using a shell of cobalt instead of steel. Explosion of such a bomb would unleash huge amounts of lethal and long-lived radioactive fallout.
- A "death ray," possibly a highly concentrated, intense beam of light.
- NEUTRON BOMB

The neutron bomb, another kind of death ray weapon whose emissions would destroy all life in a target area but would do virtually no damage to structures.

Defense experts were not disposed to dispute the existence of a significant new Soviet weapon out of hand. They noted that Soviet boasting of this sort generally has had some basis, although often inflated for propaganda effect.

At the same time, they were not dismissing the possibility that this might be a ploy by Khrushchev to frighten his Communist Chinese foes and that the Soviet leader might have taken liberties with the truth.

Officially the Defense Department declined comment. This is usual in such instances.

Say Soviet Jet in Violation 2nd Recent Incident Over West Germany

HAMBURG, Germany (UPI) — A supersonic Soviet jet fighter violated West German air space today in the second such incident in two weeks, informed sources said today.

They said the jet crossed the East-West German frontier near Dannenberg, Lower Saxony, at 8:45 a.m. local time (2:45 a.m. Pontiac time), penetrated about 12 miles and returned without being challenged.

On Sept. 2, a Soviet jet fighter also crossed over the border and buzzed West German airspace while inside the federal republic.

British jet fighters at that time chased the Soviet intruder back across the Iron Curtain.

In the latest incident, the Soviet jet flew at nearly the speed of sound at an elevation of 20,000 feet, according to the sources.

They said there was reason to believe the plane was an early 24th Soviet Air Army stationed in East Germany.

It was apparently recalled by a Soviet control station after it crossed into West Germany, they said. It flew a circle and headed straight back for the border.

The Soviet jet was tracked by Western radar from the time it crossed the border until it was over East Germany again, the sources said.

They emphasized that "countermeasures" were initiated but came too late as the plane did not stay long enough over West Germany.

"Countermeasures" in such cases usually refer to interceptors sent up by the American, British or French air force to identify an intruder and prevent further penetration, if necessary.

Program Set in Waterford To Kick Off Plan for Community Schools

Two breakfasts and an all-day workshop next Tuesday at the Dryden Plains Elementary School will kick off the community school program in Waterford Township.

A 7:30 a.m. breakfast is scheduled for members of the township board, school board and recreation board as well as area business leaders.

School principals, area clergymen and Parent Teacher Association organizations will convene for a 9 a.m. breakfast.

Throughout the day, activities included in the community school concept will be presented to acquaint the public with the workings of the program which encourages greater use of school facilities by all members of the community.

Demonstration classes for preschoolers and parents will be held in the morning with senior citizens activities slated for the afternoon.

FUNCTIONS

Elementary school functions will be presented later in the afternoon and teen-age and adult education activities are scheduled from 7 to 9 p.m.

The community school program is being aided by a $50,000 grant from the Mott Foundation on a matching fund basis.

Waterford's program is being patterned after the nationally-known Flint community school program.

Boy Waves at Dad Who Shot Him

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI) — Four-year-old Paul Mendez clambered up on the witness chair, smiled, waved and blew kisses at his father. Then he told his "Daddy shot me" seven times.

William Mendez, 48, a San Francisco merchant seaman, is being tried on a charge of assault with intent to kill for the shooting of his son last July 6 while he was taking a "good-bye" stroll with the youngster.

The seaman told authorities he shot the boy because he was rather shy and he had then placed in the custody of Mendez's estranged wife, Rose.

Paul was called as a prosecution witness yesterday in the non-jury trial before Superior Judge Joseph Brason.

Paul actually was shot seven times. One bullet grazed his heart; another damaged his spleen so badly that it was removed; another remains in his leg.

Bloomfield Twp. Board to Request Traffic Study

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The children have gone back to school, and the Township Board is heading back to the Oakland County Road Commission.

This year the board is concerned about children walking along Opdyke and Quanton.

Trustees will ask the road commission to conduct a traffic study on Opdyke from Square Lake Road to the Bloomfield Hills city limit and on Quanton from Telegraph to Franklin Road.

Study of the first stretch, which is just north of two schools, was requested by the township police department. There is no posted speed limit, according to Supervisor Homer Case.

Both junior high and elementary school students use Quanton Road, where trustees want the speed limit reduced from 40 to 35 mph.

NARROW SHOULDER

"It was reduced to 40 two years ago when the road was first blacktopped," Case said. He noted the route is dangerous for pedestrians because of a relatively narrow shoulder.

The supervisor said both he and police officers had received numerous telephone complaints about the road from residents of the area.

While requesting the two studies, Case was authorized to ask the road commission why nothing has been done about the township's last two requests, concerning Lahser at Brother Rice School and Adams at Harlan Elementary School.

Trustees accepted a $163,500 township library budget for 1965-66. The budget will be financed through a 1-mill tax expected to net $158,000 and $5,500 from other sources.

FIGURE INCLUSIONS

The budget figure includes salaries, $47,250; contract with Baldwin Public Library in Birmingham, $40,000; books and processing, $33,900; operating, $35,900; and furniture and equipment, $6,400.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Mrs. Aline B. Saarinen, widow of architect Eero Saarinen, is one of four outstanding Americans who will receive honorary degrees from the University of Michigan Saturday.

The degrees and a regents' citation will be awarded when the University dedicates its $4.5-million School of Music Building.

Others to be honored are conductor Leonard Bernstein, composer Aaron Copland and Earl V. Moore, chairman of the music department at the University of Houston and dean emeritus of the U. of M. Music School.

The regents' citation will go to Charles A. Sink, president of the University Musical Society for 37 years.

AUTHOR-LECTURER

Mrs. Saarinen, former art critic for the New York Times, is an author and lecturer in her own right. Last June, she was appointed by President Kennedy to the Federal Fine Arts Commission.

She now lives in Connecticut where the architectural firm founded by her husband and father-in-law is located.

The elder Saarinen, Eliel, was the first head of Cranbrook Academy of Art. Father and son were associated in a Birmingham office while living in Bloomfield Hills.

Fresh Gunfire in Malaysia

LABIS, Malaysia (AP) — Helicopters airlifted British Gurkha troops into action against Indonesian guerrillas today as fresh gunfire broke out in the southwest jungles of Malaysia's mainland.

The Gurkhas were launching what could be the final offensive against Indonesian paratroop forces that landed in the Labis region of Johore State two weeks ago.

New Valiant Line in 18 Models

Eighteen 6-cylinder and V8 Plymouth Valiant models for 1965 were unveiled today by the Chrysler Corp.

Modifications on the low-priced compact include newly designed grille, front fenders, deck lid, tail lamps and body-side ornamentation.

The new Valiants will go on display Sept. 23 at Oakland Chrysler-Plymouth, 724 Oakland; Birmingham Chrysler-Plymouth, Inc., 112 S. Woodward, Birmingham; Alex Motors, 2222 N.W. Walled Lake; Patterson Motor Sales, Inc., 1061 N. Main, Rochester; Farmington Plymouth Valiant Sales, 3224 Grand River.

The new Valiants feature several interior changes. In 1965 models, the automatic transmission selector lever is mounted on the steering column.

VINYL INTERIORS

All vinyl interiors are standard equipment in all V-100 body styles. V-200 upholstery combines vinyl and ribbed cloth.

Buyers will have an opportunity to purchase a new Commando 273 high performance V8 engine in the new Valiants.

The engine has a 4-barrel carburetor, 10.5 to 1 compression ratio, high-lift, high-overlap cam, dome-top pistons, dual break points, solid lifters, special intake system with welded air cleaner, low back-pressure exhaust system with exposed tail pipe at the rear of the car and an engine dress-up package.

Another option offered Valiant owners for the first time is a factory-installed air-conditioning unit. The unit will operate with either fresh or recirculated air.
