Detroit's Mayor Cavanagh Tours City With Winford E. Bottom

Cavanagh Praises Pontiac for Urban Renewal Projects

Pontiac's guest mayor, Jerome P. Cavanagh, liked what he saw during his brief visit to this city yesterday.

Addressing some 250 persons at the Mayors' Exchange Luncheon at the Elks Temple, the 34-year-old Detroit mayor had nothing but praise for this city.

"I am amazed at the vitality of your urban renewal projects," he said.

"After having traveled throughout the state over the past 16 months, I can say with all honesty that no city compares with Pontiac for its urban redevelopment — except the City of Detroit," he said with a twinkle in his eye.

"It is not every city, for example, that decides to harness a river flowing through its downtown area the way you are handling the Clinton, by putting in a tunnel," the mayor noted.

He termed the perimeter road on which construction will start tomorrow, "a magnificent model — a tonic to your downtown business area."

★ ★ ★

"When you also consider that Pontiac will have a new sewage treatment plant, more sanitary sewers, a new and expanded water system as well as a million-dollar headquarters of the board of education, it is apparent that the citizens of this city are keeping pace with the times," he said.

METRO COOPERATION

Cavanagh's message was aimed at metropolitan area cooperation.

"We need each other today, and we shall become more interdependent as the years go on," the mayor said.

The mayor noted that the city of Pontiac will receive its water supply from the Detroit water system on July 1.

★ ★ ★

He also lauded Pontiac's efforts in behalf of Detroit's bid for the 1968 Olympic Games.

The mayor said he was "very optimistic" about the chances of the metropolitan area getting the 1968 games.

PARTY CONVENTIONS

He expressed the hope that the same effort used to get the U.S. bid for the Olympics could be made to convince the two political parties to meet in Detroit next year.

He also urged metropolitan cooperation in solving the state's tax problems. He called them a sore spot which "particularly accounts for many of the problems of the metropolitan area."

Mayor Cavanagh arrived in Pontiac's City Hall at 11:30 a.m. yesterday, where he was officially greeted by Mayor Pro Tem Winford E. Bottom and City Manager Robert A. Stierer, who guided the mayor on a tour of the civic center area.

Following the luncheon, at which he was presented with a key to the city, the mayor viewed firsthand many of Pontiac's development projects, including the sewage treatment plant, the water pumping station and several other city facilities.

In Detroit, his counterpart, Pontiac Mayor Robert Landry, was conducted on a whirlwind tour of the City-County Building and Cobo Hall, and was guest of honor at an Economic Club luncheon and a Detroit Athletic Club dinner.

Court Ends Strike

Workers Back at Ford

CHICAGO (AP)—Members of Local 588 of the United Auto Workers (UAW) were back on the job today after a court order ended a nine-day wildcat strike at the Ford Motor Co. stamping plant in suburban Chicago Heights.

ROBERT M. CRITCHFIELD

The strike of 3,700 UAW workers, which started over health and safety grievances, had threatened to idle 40,000 production workers in Ford plants in 11 states. The Chicago Heights plant manufactures body panels for assembly plants.

Circuit Court Judge Charles S. Dougherty yesterday ordered the strikers back to work and also issued an injunction against any further picketing.

Dougherty's order confirmed the company's contention and a finding by Harry H. Platt, a permanent referee under the UAW-Ford work contract, that the walkout on May 11 over the grievances was a wildcat strike.

'CLEAR VIOLATION'

Platt said the strike was in "clear violation" of the existing UAW-Ford work contract. "Such a strike," he said, "is neither pursuant to the procedure described in the agreement nor authorized by the international union, both of which conditions must exist in order for a strike to be permissible under the agreement."

Platt's finding ordered Local 588, its officers and members to end the strike immediately, withdraw picket lines and cease encouraging or permitting any employes to refrain from working or to strike.

The striking UAW members had voted earlier yesterday to ignore a Ford threat of mass dismissal. An estimated 3,000 workers marched from the union hall to the plant gates where they burned back-to-work letters they had received from the company.

Bernard Fox, president of Local 588, said officers of the local, after being served with Dougherty's order, called off the strike and ordered the members back to work.

"It's felt that for the best of all concerned that all members return to work," Fox said.

"We shall continue the fight for safe working conditions within the channels that are left open to us."

A few hours later operations were resumed at the plant as workers reported for the midnight shift.

UF Campaign Gets Chief for Advance Gifts

Robert M. Critchfield, former general manager of Pontiac Motor Division and retired General Motors vice president, has been named chairman of the advance gifts committee of the 1963 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

The more than 50 members of the advance gifts committee will begin their activities in September, one month before the regular campaign opens.

They will solicit funds from the more than 300 individuals and companies whose contributions top $100.

Last year, the advance gifts committee raised $86,817, or 103 per cent of its goal. No goal has been set for the 1963 UF campaign at this date.

Critchfield, who lives at 901 N. Lake Angelus, Waterford Township, has been active in past years for the United Fund and other civic organizations.

He has served on the board of trustees of the Pontiac Area United Fund, was its general drive chairman in 1955, served on the board of the YMCA and also was chairman of the YMCA fund drive.

Credit for Progress Given to W. German Vice Chancellor

GENEVE (AP) — U.S. and Common Market delegates said today they had reached virtual agreement on how to cut trade barriers in the Western World. A mood of optimism soared over the Tariff Conference which has been on the verge of failure.

The American delegation gave much of the credit to West German Vice Chancellor Ludwig Erhard who reportedly has been sticking up for American ideas in arguments with his common market partners.

A U.S. source said Washington has agreed to the European demand that some "special rule" be adopted for reducing American tariffs which are, in general, higher than European ones.

"So the differences between us now are small," said French Finance Minister Valery Giscard D'Estaing.

There was hope the conference, which began Thursday, would end today with adoption of a system of tariff negotiations by the conference of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT).

★ ★ ★

The optimism appeared after cabinet ministers of the Common Market offered a new compromise early this morning.

The European counter-proposal followed a transatlantic telephone intervention by President Kennedy in an attempt to break the stalemate at the 73-nation ministerial conference sponsored by the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

The stalemate posed a grave threat to Kennedy's Trade Expansion Act of 1962, which previously had promised to be one of the major achievements of his administration.

The Common Market proposal was being submitted to Christian A. Herter, Kennedy's chief negotiator.

The Europeans refused to disclose the content of their proposal. American delegates had been annoyed Monday when another compromise offer was outlined to newsmen before it reached them.

The GATT conference was called in an attempt to agree on a tariff-cutting formula that would be worked out in detail at the negotiations scheduled to start next year.

Red Proposal 'Propaganda'

U. S. Hits Russia on Mediterranean Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia has proposed to the United States that nuclear weapons be banned from the Mediterranean Sea, diplomatic authorities reported today. U. S. officials regard the move as propaganda.

★ ★ ★

The proposal on its face is aimed at obtaining the withdrawal of U. S. Polaris submarines from the Mediterranean.

But the timing suggested to Washington officials that the Soviet government was trying to stir up some new trouble over the nuclear arming of NATO countries.

The 15-nation North Atlantic Treaty Council is meeting in Ottawa, Canada, this week with the organization of a NATO nuclear command structure as the outstanding issue.

★ ★ ★

Involved are three U. S. Nuclear submarines stationed in the Mediterranean and assigned to NATO.

The Soviet proposal was delivered by Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin last night. With only a few minutes of notice, he delivered a note containing the plan to acting Secretary of State George Ball.

In the note, not yet made public, the Soviet government proposed that the entire Mediterranean Sea be designated as a zone in which nuclear weapons would be prohibited.

★ ★ ★

The prohibition would also include control measures against nuclear weapons in and around Mediterranean ports.

The three Polaris subs were sent to the Mediterranean earlier this year. At the same time, the United States began dismantling land-based nuclear missiles in Turkey and Italy.

Russia is not a Mediterranean power. The sea between Europe and Africa is dominated by the naval and air might of the United States and its allies.

★ ★ ★

Russia has long had a great interest in the region, however, and access to the Soviet-dominated Black Sea is through the Dardanelles, the Aegean Sea and the Mediterranean.

Named Ambassador

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy today named Adm. George W. Anderson Jr., retiring chief of naval operations, as U.S. ambassador to Portugal. The White House said Anderson would succeed Ambassador C. Burke Elbrick this summer.

Requests for Funds Far Exceed Supply

By DICK HANSON

Another miracle like that of the loaves and fishes would be needed to satisfy all the governmental and educational agencies participating in the annual 15-mill county tax levy.

The observation was made by James Ludwick while heading yesterday's Oakland County Tax Allocation Board proceedings.

The board set preliminary rates for the 53 local agencies, none of which was completely satisfied with its share of the levy.

To fill their requests for tax dollars would have required as much as 23.2 mills instead of the 15 allowed by state law for local consumption.

The preliminary rates would provide 5.16 mills for county government in 1964, 13 mills for the County Board of Education, between 8.31 and 9.71 for the 30 school districts and approximately 1.15 mills for the 22 requesting townships.

★ ★ ★

Last year the county got 5.25 mills, the school districts as much as 9.75 mills and townships generally the same as indicated for this year.

FIRST TIME

This was the first time the county school board has made a separate request. Last year it received between .08 and .10 mills from the county government's share.

Just what the share actually

NASA Award Presented by the President

Space Hero Praises Fellow Astronauts in Address to Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The national capital poured a hero's honors on Gordon Cooper today, and the 22-orbit spaceman took it all in stride, as unruffled as he was 100 miles up in space.

And, as when he set his Faith 7 down in the Pacific last week, the laconic 36-year-old major tended to operate manually.

★ ★ ★

He could muster little more than a smile and thank you when President Kennedy presented the NASA Distinguished Service Medal at the White House and told him:

"You have given the country a great day and a great lift."

For an applauding joint session of Congress, he had only a little speech that was mainly praise for his fellow astronauts.

★ ★ ★

But during the 10-mile-an-hour, 20-minute drive up the road of heroes — Pennsylvania Avenue — the American space champ nearly wore out both arms waving to the wildly cheering throngs.

DOZENS DEEP

People were massed dozens deep on the sidewalks, faces filled every inch of window space in the buildings along the route.

At two points, clouds of confetti — apparently the Washington equivalent of New York's ticker tape — showered down from upper windows.

"Yeah, Gordo," the people roared.

Washington Police Chief Robert V. Murray estimated the crowd along the parade route and jamming the plaza at the capitol at 250,000.

★ ★ ★

It had rained heavily in the morning, but the showers stopped before Cooper reached town by plane from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

So he had a dry ride down the Avenue in contrast to the pouring rain Astronaut John Glenn found a year ago in a similar ceremony.

There was thunderous applause, lasting nearly two minutes, as Cooper was escorted into the House chamber to address the joint Senate-House meeting.

★ ★ ★

There was another standing ovation as Speaker John McCormack introduced Cooper.

RISING OVATION

Cooper's astronaut colleagues had received a rising ovation a few minutes earlier when they filed into seats near the rostrum.

Negroes Set to Fight School Ouster Order

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Negro leaders say they will go to federal court in efforts to void a Birmingham school board order to expel or suspend more than 1,000 Negro pupils who demonstrated against segregation.

The school board's action Monday was not unexpected, and Negro leaders said they planned to fight the move only by legal means.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said on his return from Atlanta, "We will not call for a mass walkout or boycott of the schools, nor will we call for a renewal of demonstrations at this point."

★ ★ ★

After a meeting with other integration leaders, King said, "We will not seek to correct an unwise act by moving hastily into another unwise act."

The decision by the Negro leaders saved a shaky biracial agreement which had been threatened by the school board's handling of the dispute.

"We know there are certain forces in Birmingham trying to sabotage this agreement," King said.

He called the board's action "a tragic move, immoral . . . a dastardly act."

In a letter to school principals, Supt. Theo Wright ordered immediate expulsion of pupil participants over 16 and suspension of those under 16. It affects 1,081 pupils arrested in protest marches over the past several weeks.

★ ★ ★

A school board spokesman said the action was in keeping with the board's policy on truancy.

★ ★ ★

On another front, Commissioner-Mayor Arthur Hanes called a Supreme Court decision outlawing city and state interference in sit-in demonstrations "an accommodation for those arrested here."

★ ★ ★

"It seems to me that any person in business does not now have that old traditional right to refuse service to anyone he desires," Hanes said. "It seems that all bars are lowered."

There were these other developments:

—University of Alabama trustees asked U.S. District Judge H. Hobart Grooms to delay admittance of Negroes to the university at Tuscaloosa until racial unrest in the state has improved.

—A Negro voter registration drive at Selma, Ala., about 100 miles southwest of Birmingham, failed to produce hoped-for masses of Negroes, but a campaign leader said the turnout of about 38 still was encouraging.

—Two white men were arrested at Anniston, Ala., in connection with violence at Anniston May 12 when shotgun blasts were fired at two Negro homes and a Negro church.

No Delay in Admissions

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Federal Judge H. Hobart Grooms refused today to delay the admission of two Negroes to the University of Alabama despite arguments that racial unrest might result in violence on the campus.

"I take judicial notice of the condition that exists in this state," Grooms said. "But the governor had said he will maintain order in this state. I think that granting of the motion would be tantamount to saying law and order has broken down."

Grooms also turned down a motion by university attorneys for an appeal stay of his injunction ordering the admission of the Negro students to the summer session.

The university board of trustees, in a petition filed yesterday, had asked Grooms to suspend his order until such time as he felt it would be safe to admit Negroes to the state school.

Grooms' action meant the university must admit Vivian J. Malone, 20, of Mobile to the main campus at Tuscaloosa and Dave M. McGlather of Huntsville to the University Center in Huntsville for the summer session, which opens June 10.

The trustees said earlier they had ordered the university dean of admissions, Hubert Mate, to accept the Negroes' applications.

The motion does not mention Sandy English, 21, Birmingham; Jimmy Hood, 20, of East Gadsden, and Marvin T. Carroll, Huntsville, who also seek admission to the university.

Miss English and Hood want to attend the regular university and Carroll, like McGlathery a scientist, seeks to attend the extension center in Huntsville.

The school officials said they fear possible bodily harm to each of the Negroes and other students who will be attending the summer sessions.

Orders Trial in Mall Death

Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer yesterday ordered the trial next Tuesday of two 22-year-old Pontiac men for the torture-murder of a Kroger supermarket comanager.

Defendants in the case are Adoise White, of 79½ Wall, and Charles E. Hodges, of 174 Prospect.

They will stand trial on a charge of first-degree murder for the March 16 slaying of Robert A. Greene, also 22, after forcing Greene to open a safe at the Pontiac Mall Kroger store.

Greene was stabbed 42 times and shot in the back of the head.

He had been surprised in the garage behind his home at 122 Summit St. after closing the store the night of the murder and forced to drive back to the store.

★ ★ ★

Hodges and White admitted the killing and told police they took some $1,500 from the safe.

Loyal Troops Overcome Another Revolt in Turkey

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Loyal troops today crushed a former army colonel's second attempt in 15 months to overthrow Turkey's government. Radio Ankara announced the proclamation of martial law in three cities—Ankara, Istanbul and Izmir.

The decision to impose martial law on the metropolitan centers was reached at an urgent meeting of the cabinet with the military security council.

The constitution provides for such a step "in case of war or uprising or in view of indications of a strong movement against the country or the republic."

LASTS 12 HOURS

The revolt, headed by ex-Col. Talat Aydemir, lasted less than 12 hours. Among forces backing him were cadets of the War College, Turkey's West Point.

Radio Ankara announced Aydemir and 10 other top insurgents were arrested. They are expected to be tried shortly.

★ ★ ★

Seven persons were reported killed and 23 wounded during fighting in the capital. Most of them fell when government forces attacked cadets who defied an ultimatum to return to their barracks and surrender.

Gen. Cevdet Sunay, chief of staff of the Turkish armed forces, said in a broadcast shortly after dawn, "a treacherous attempt by a small group to seize power has been completely crushed."

★ ★ ★

Aydemir was ousted from the military and jailed after masterminding a short-lived rebellion in February 1962. Parliament pardoned him and his accomplices.

Government troops quickly arrested four colonels who tried to seize a radio station in Istanbul. Otherwise the metropolis was quiet.

New Fire Chief Named Today in Waterford Twp.

Lewis (Bud) Goff, 45, veteran of 13 years in the Waterford Township fire department, was named fire chief today.

Acting chief since April 2 when former chief Elmer Fangboner resigned to assume duties as township clerk, Goff has served as fire marshal the past three years with the rank of captain.

Goff and Captain Clayton Soncrainte both took oral and written exams last week for the top post.

The three-member examining committee recommended Goff, and the selection was confirmed this morning by the township civil service commission.

Township Supervisor James Seeterlin then made the formal appointment.

Married, with five children, the new fire chief lives at 130 S. Tilden.

Fatigued Pope Halts Meetings

Cancels Audiences for 9-Day Period

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope John XXIII, fatigued by a heavy round of public appearances, is canceling private audiences for a nine-day period of "spiritual retirement," a high Vatican source said today.

★ ★ ★

The source said the 81-year-old Pope planned to go ahead with tomorrow's weekly general audience in St. Peter's as scheduled.

Reliable sources inside the Vatican said the Pope has suffered another "weak spell" in the last few hours and there is preoccupation on his condition.

But he said private audiences, including regular meetings with aides would be canceled beginning Friday for a solemn novena, nine days of prayers, leading to the Feast of Pentecost, June 2.

★ ★ ★

Such a period of retirement and spiritual exercises is normal in the pre-Christmas season, but unusual as a preparation for Pentecost.

The source said the Pope made the decision to give special solemnity to Pentecost in this year of the Ecumenical Council.

But the source also admitted that the Pope overexerted himself during long public ceremonies this month in which he was awarded the Balzan Peace Prize.

★ ★ ★

Another reliable Vatican source said the Pope has felt "very weak" in recent days.

Romney OKs Ford-Canton Bill Into Law

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney, ignoring Democratic protests, today signed the controversial Ford-Canton strike benefits bill into law.

★ ★ ★

Romney's action came after he received information concerning the so-called "negative balances" of the state unemployment compensation fund from a three-man House committee composed solely of Democrats.

"The figures have no relevance to the legislation," the governor stated.

Democrats have contended signing of the bill by Romney would constitute a "conflict of interest" because of his position as major stockholder of American Motors Corp., one of 19,000 firms whose negative balance, or deficit, in the fund could be wiped out.

★ ★ ★

Romney has denied repeatedly there would be any conflict of interest.

★ ★ ★

Both he and the Democrats who supplied him with the secret by law data on negative balances, after obtaining it from the Michigan. Employment Security Commission, declined to reveal what the records show.

Commission Gives OK to Two Street Projects

BIRMINGHAM — Two of the city's 1963 street improvement projects were approved by the City Commission at hearings last night.

★ ★ ★

The proposed light oil and seal coat programs passed public review at hearings on necessity at the City Commission meeting.

Four hearings on sidewalks were postponed for one week.

No objections were raised for the light oil application on 5,930 feet of city streets, but residents questioned the necessity of the seal coat program.

This consists of two applications of asphaltic oil and tone chips to 58,290 feet of city streets.

Estimated cost to residents for the project is 22 cents per front foot with side street frontage one-fourth of that amount.

★ ★ ★

The city will recheck those streets where necessity for the improvement is questioned by the residents.

Another 7,060 feet of streets will be deleted from the seal coat program because of construction projects this summer.

REVIEW ASSESSENTS

Individual assessments will be reviewed and the assessment roll confirmed at the second hearing June 3.

Three commissioners were out of town, so the sidewalk necessity hearings were moved up one week.

They include sidewalk on the west side of Coolidge, north of Yorkshire; sidewalk on the east side of St. Andrews, north of Dorchester; and on the west side of that street, south of Dorchester; and sidewalk on the west side of Torry, from one-half block south of Lincoln to Bennaville.

In other action, the commissioners gave permission to the Cub Scouts of Adams School Pack No. 1008, for a family picnic at Springdale Park, June 9.

They also gave particular attention to a letter from Consumers Power Co. describing summer uniforms.

So the readers will be easily identified by homemakers, they will wear light blue shirts and dark blue trousers with a light blue skier's cap.

A Consumers' symbol will be worn over the breast pocket of the shirt and the dark blue jacket reading "Consumers Meter Reader."

The summer uniform should be in use by the middle of this month.

COMMUNICATIONS

In other communications, Administrative Aide John F. Saefke reported fallout shelter supplies have been placed in two more public fallout shelters, the Post Office and the Townsend Apartments, corner of Townsend and Chester.

This raises the city's shelter capacity to a total of 991 spaces. An additional 1,872 spaces in five other locations will be announced, Saefke said, when supplies are received and put in the shelters.

When these are prepared the city's fallout shelter program will total 3,000 shelter spaces.

Taylor Forms Group to Push Barry in '64

Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor yesterday announced he was forming a countywide Volunteers for Goldwater group to promote U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater's principles and his candidacy for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

Taylor said he already had 15 members and hoped soon to have 25 in his group.

"I haven't had one refusal yet," he said. He named five of the 15 members of his staff of assistant prosecutors.

Taylor said he had hoped Michigan Gov. George Romney would become a presidential candidate, but was going ahead with his group for the Republican senator from Arizona because "I'm taking Romney at his word that he does not wish to run."

Taylor described Goldwater as a "middle-of-the-roader" between "liberals who now run the federal government and the John Birch Society."

He said Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York was "more liberal than I think is necessary."

In Waterford

Hire Supervisor's Aide

Waterford Township Board members last night approved the immediate hiring of an administrative assistant to the supervisor despite a plea by trustee Loren Anderson that the matter be tabled for further study.

★ ★ ★

Anderson, the only Republican on the seven-member board, objected to the action because the matter was not on the agenda. He was overruled by a 6-1 vote.

Hired to assist Supervisor James Seeterlin was Robert Richmond, 36, of 5621 Cleary. He began his duties today at a weekly salary of $125.

Seeterlin explained to the board that he has been functioning as supervisor since early April without an executive assistant.

Former Supervisor Elmer Johnson had a combination office manager and senior secretary whose annual salary was $4,800. The job was abolished when the new administration took office.

Anderson's main objection to the requested appointment was the lack of notice.

"I don't think it's asking too much to have this request taken up at a future meeting," he said. "I'd like to take some time and check on the need for the job as well as on the man proposed for it."

OWN PREROGATIVE

Seeterlin said he felt it was his prerogative to handpick his chief assistant. Richmond, who has been employed as a manufacturer's agent representing four firms, has a fine background and should be an asset to the township, Seeterlin said.

Seeterlin said he selected a man for the presently unclassified post with the intent of delegating new duties such as representing him at meetings.

In other business, the board adopted a disorderly persons ordinance designed to permit better enforcement, particularly in cases involving juvenile offenders.

★ ★ ★

The ordinance would allow the township justices of the peace to issue warrants. Under the state disorderly persons law, previously governing the township, warrants came from the county prosecutor.

Board members also confirmed the special assessment roll for Benson's Old Orchard district following a public hearing.

Cost of the black topping project will amount to $46,917.21. Work would probably start in September, according to Seeterlin.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, the board authorized taking bids on lots of both three and four new police cars. Bids will be opened at the June 3 meting.

A request from the Firefighters Association that compensation paid to the group be increased from the present $3 per man per run to $4, was tabled for further study.

Spokesman for the organization called the present payment inadequate and cited compensation plans in other communities in support of this contention.

★ ★ ★

The board, however, did authorize increased insurance coverage for association members at an annual increased premium of $141.90.

Not Enough Funds Available

was depends on whose figures you use — those of the County Board of Auditors or those of William J. Emerson, school board director. Emerson claimed .10 mills, the auditors .08.

Emerson asked the allocation board for .16 mills this year to finance a proposed $370,832 general education budget.

He said the additional millage was needed to carry the department from Jan. 1, 1964, when it is dropped from the county budget, to July 1, 1964, when it begins to operate on its own.

★ ★ ★

A reduction to .13 mills, amounting to an estimated $66,078 cut, would prevent the department from meeting the needs of a growing population, he said.

SAME PREMISE

Township and county officials based their requested increases on the same premise.

All agreed that needs for service in both the educational and governmental fields locally are rapidly outstripping periodic increases in the county's tax base.

★ ★ ★

The county government had asked for 5.94 mills to raise an estimated $13 million toward a proposed $17-million budget next year. The difference would come from county receipts, including state matching funds for the most part.

The townships' requests varied, but all asked for increases. Royal Oak Township was high with a reqeest for 8.75 mills this year.

Township Supervisor Edward Kennedy said the shortage of tax dollars was hindering the development of otherwise valuable commercial property.

"We have to manipulate township funds in order to meet payrolls," he said.

★ ★ ★

All of the requesting township supervisors cited demands of growing suburbia for more urban-type services such as better water, drainage and sewage systems and increased police and fire protection.

FINAL HEARINGS

Final hearings of the requesting agencies will begin May 27 when the county's tax base is expected to be confirmed by the State Board of Equalization in Lansing.

The local allocation board must set the final rates by June 3.

Both the County Board of Supervisors and the State Tax Commission have recommended a $2.2-billion equalized valuation of countywide private property as this year's tax base.

The figure represents a $90-million increase over last year. It would provide approximately $33 million in local taxes at the 15-mill rate. Each mill spread countywide would produce $2.2 million.

Cities do not fall within the 15-mill limit. They have the power to levy their own taxes. In cities, school districts are not obliged to share tax dollars with township governments and would get a full 9.71 mills under the preliminary rates.

★ ★ ★

This is the first year that White Lake Township has asked for a share of the 15 mills. The allocation board set a preliminary rate of 1 mill, the minimum set by state law for townships with budgets requesting that much.

Lyon and Springfield townships are the only two left in the county that haven't requested a share of the 15 mills.

'Blue Shield Losing Daily'

DETROIT (AP) — Consulting actuaries for Michigan Medical Service (Blue Shield) testified in Wayne County Circuit Court yesterday that the prepaid medical insurance program was losing money at the rate of $45,000 a day.

The actuaries and Blue Shield staff members met with Judge Theodore R. Bohn to gather facts on the financial condition and needs of Michigan Medical Service.

Judge Bohn will determine the amount of increase to be allowed — at least 1 per cent and not more than 22.9 per cent — on the basis of the findings. This was the agreement made in his court last week by Blue Shield and State Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn.

U.S. Haitian Policy Still Undetermined

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti (UPI) — United States policy toward Haiti remained undefined today despite an end to six days of "silent treatment" of President Francois Duvalier's government by the U.S. Embassy.

★ ★ ★

U.S. officials yesterday made their first contact with the Haitian government since early last week to lodge an informal protest against a march of 500 peasants across U.S. Embassy grounds.

An embassy spokesman said no violence resulted from the incident, but he said many of the peasants carried large machetes and two had 38-caliber pistols in holsters at their belts.

A U.S. Marine guard locked the embassy door, but the Haitians merely walked on by. It was believed they might have crossed the embassy grounds unintentionally while taking a short cut to a bivouac area.

The peasants, some of whom carried signs saying "Duvalier or Death," were part of the several thousand country folk brought into the capital in recent days to "celebrate" Duvalier's continuation in power.

(In Washington, the State Department said yesterday a small bomb exploded in the backyard of Maj. John W. Warren, the U.S. Army attache. No one was injured and there apparently was no damage to the Warren home.

It was the first violent incident directed against American officials in Haiti since the beginning of this month, but officials in Washington attached no major significance to it.)

U.S. Embassy personnel were reluctant to discuss the current status of Haitian-American diplomatic relations. It appeared they were awaiting instructions from the State Department.

American officials here, acting on orders from Washington, cut off all contacts with the Haitian government at midnight last Wednesday, the day Duvalier's legal six-year term ended.

He claims a second term on the basis of a 1961 congressional election in which his name appeared on all ballots.

The unsual U.S. move was explained as leaving the way clear for breaking diplomatic relations with Haiti on the basis of Duvalier's illegal second term.

At the same time, it gave U.S. officials a flexible position and permitted American Ambassador Raymond Thurston to remain in Port-au-Prince to protect U.S. interests.

★ ★ ★

An embassy spokesman said U.S. officials had "called attention" to yesterday's trespassing incident in informal verbal contacts with the Haitian foreign relations ministry.

Earlier in the day, Duvalier made four public appearances, apparently to demonstrate his confidence in the face of assassination threats.

Bonn Rejects Bidault Asylum

BONN (UPI) — The government said today it has rejected former French Premier Georges Bidault's second bid to win political asylum in West Germany.

★ ★ ★

A Federal Interior Ministry spokesman said Bidault's request, sent to the government through a newspaperman, was rejected on grounds he is an undesirable alien.

The spokesman said the government's decision was given to a French journalist named Ribaud, who recently asked the Bavarian state government if Bidault, a sworn enemy of French President Charles de Gaulle, could return there from his Brazilian exile.

Ribaud acted as middle-man for Bidault two months ago when the latter was placed under house arrest in Bavaria.

King of Morocco Loses Majority in Parliament

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — King Hassan II faced the prospect today of ruling without a majority of supporters in Morocco's first parliament under a new constitution approved last Dec. 7.

★ ★ ★

The constitution, however, vests virtually absolute powers in the king.

Complete but unofficial returns from Friday's parliamentary elections gave 70 of the 144 seats — three short of a majority — to the Royalist Front for the Defense of Constitutional Institutions (FDIC).

★ ★ ★

The main opposition party, Istiqlal, won 40 seats, the leftist National Union of Popular Forces 28 and independents 6.

★ ★ ★

Seven of Hassan's nine cabinet ministers failed to win seats in the National Assembly.

★ ★ ★

Six former ministers now in opposition were also beaten. So was the leader of the banned Moroccan Communist party.

Mayor Stands Late, Alone Against Budget

TROY — City commissioners present for the first part of last night's special meeting unanimously adopted a record high $1,230,070 budget for the 1963-4 fiscal year.

Shortly afterwards Mayor Robert J. Huber went on record as officially opposing its adoption.

Arriving late because of his Mayor Exchange Day activities in Cadillac, Huber was informed that the public hearing on the budget had been completed, with no comments from the audience, and the document had been accepted.

Proposed spendings are substantially as first presented by City Manager David E. Firestone.

The $10,000 set aside for a pension plan for city employes, which Huber so vigorously opposed at last week's session, is retained in the budget.

"Some things adopted in this budget do not show sufficient judgment on the part of this commission," Huber commented after the meeting.

He talked of the "gross amount" alotted to the pension plan and said its inclusion in the budget was "misleading."

FULLER STUDY

Huber earlier said he was opposed to setting aside the money without a fuller study of the plan's cost and without determining how many employes want the pension.

Requesting that the commission give him "the opportunity to vote against the budget for the record," Huber was met with silence. "The commission does not wish to reconsider," he concluded.

The new budget calls for no increase in Troy's present $7 per $1,000 assessed valuation tax rate.

★ ★ ★

As adopted last night, the total is $10,000 higher than first presented by Firestone, due to a jump in expected revenue and cost in the engineering department.

★ ★ ★

This boosts the general account from $748,090, as first proposed, to $758,090.

In addition to the general or operating fund, other major expenditures are: garbage-rubbish cost, $48,200; city equipment, $83,075; financing of the water department, $220,795; and debt service, $119,910.

These figures were unchanged by the commission in its four budget study sessions.

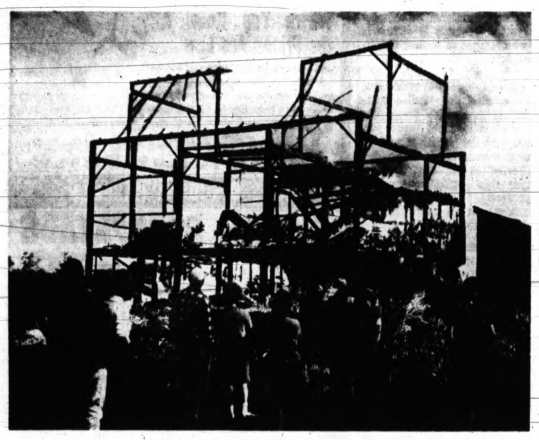
★ ★ ★

Adoption of the proposed income and expense figures was necessary at last night's meeting due to a charter stipulation.

Firestone explained the document to Troy High School students attending the session in conjunction with Student Government Day.

He called it a "whittled-down budget" and added that requests for an additional $70,000 for other services had to be rejected in the past two years.

NEWS OF THE AREA



Pontiac Press Photo

FIRE LEVELS BARN — Spectators watch as an early morning blaze today destroys a large barn and some $10,000 worth of farm machinery, on Gunn Road, west of Rochester Road; in Oakland Township. It is the second time fire has struck the farm owned by Henry Axford Jr., of 390 W. Gunn, in recent years. The home on the property burned down two years ago. Rochester firemen confined their efforts to saving adjacent outbuildings. Cause of the fire is undetermined.

White Lake Bans Car Race

M59 Track Denied Zoning Title Change

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—Auto racing will not return to White Lake Township.

A highly responsive audience applauded heartily as the planning commission announced its decision last night.

The commission had listened to comments that reopening the M59 Speedway would make surrounding property "absolutely worthless," would draw a "nuisance gang" to the area and would create an unbearable amount of noise.

The 26-acre speedway site, about three-quarters of a mile west of Pontiac Lake, is circled by heavily developed residential property.

★ ★ ★

Represented at the public hearing were the improvement associations of both the township and Twin Lakes subdivision.

The subdivision is directly across M59 from the speedway. It has been developed largely since the oval closed four years ago.

In the end, the commission polled the audience and found all 45 residents and-or property owners present to be opposed to the speedway.

★ ★ ★

The commissioners were equally unanimous in denying an application for rezoning the speedway property.

OWNERS' REQUEST

The Royal Oak owners had requested the change to a commercial-recreational zone in order to resume operation.

Because the speedway had been closed for more than eight months, it had lost its nonconformance status in commercial and agricultural zones.

The grandstand at the quarter-mile track was condemned about a year ago by the township building inspector and County Health Department.

★ ★ ★

Township Supervisor Edward Cheyz commented that the grandstand was probably unusable even as a shell for improvements.

"They would just about have had to start from scratch to meet our standards," he said.

Still in the Michigan Supreme Court is an appeal by Robert Amos, former owner of the speedway who started to build a drag strip on the adjacent property.

★ ★ ★

The township sought and obtained a Circuit Court injunction against Amos three years ago.

TOPS IN CONTEST — Awarded a $50 bond for her entry in the "Advertise Troy" billboard contest was 18-year-old Jamie Lu Blair of 299 Olympia. Troy City Commissioner Wallace B. Hudson last night presented the bond along with two others to brothers Jon and James Wolf, 16 and 13, of 6177 Livernois, for their ideas. Jamie Lu's sketch illustrated the swinging doors of a "Gateway to Troy." The billboards were designed to be placed on the Chrysler Freeway at the city limits.

Tax Levy Set at 11.5 Mills

Farmington Operation Up About $9,000

FARMINGTON — Property owners here will pay 11.5 mills in city taxes again next year.

While the millage will not be changed, the general operation fund is up about $9,000.

City councilmen approved the $642,096 total at their meeting last night.

The capital outlay portion of the budget includes $31,500 for completion of the new city hall. The balance due on the building is $22,500, and the city will pay $9,000 for furnishing and landscaping.

Breakdown of the $466,434 general fund shows $134,490 earmarked for public works; $130,095 for public safety; $92,850 for miscellaneous; $59,832 for general government; $36,347 for staff agencies; $12,400 for the library; and $420 for public health.

The water and sewer fund has been set at $175,662.

This year's budget is based on an assessed valuation of $22,637,720, compared to $20,646,050 last year, according to City Manager John D. Dinan.

Octagonal Museum Gains New Backing

WASHINGTON — The supervisors of Washington and Shelby townships have joined ocal residents and historians campaigning for conversion of the octagonal house here into a historical museum.

★ ★ ★

The fate of the 100-year-old landmark rests with the Macomb County Board of Supervisors.

Shelby Township Supervisor Lorin E. Evans and Washington Township Supervisor R. Eugene Inwood have submitted a letter to the board urging it to purchase the building.

Wayne State University has put the structure up for sale, as well as the 330-acre site on which it is located.

REASONS TO BUY

Evans and Inwood said in their letter that the county should purchase the eight-sided dwelling because of its age, excellent condition and location.

★ ★ ★

The house is on Van Dyke just north of 26-Mile Road.

Not far away are two other tourist attractions, Stony Creek Metropolitan Park (now being developed) and Temrowski's Automobiliana in Shelby Township.

Before his recent death, the automobile museum's owner expressed the wish that it should become the property of the township, according to Evans.

★ ★ ★

History of the unique octagonal building dates back to 1860, when Loren Andrus, the original owner, almost went broke trying to outdo three other township residents in building a unique home.

In 1961, after seven changes in ownership, the farm was operated by Wayne State on a self-financing basis, with 75 head of cattle and 2,000 laying hens.

Keeping up the structure in its near-perfect condition proved to be too expensive for the university landlord.

★ ★ ★

Possible purchase of the house is being studied by the board of supervisors' industrial and public relations committee.

It is expected that the committee's findings and recommendations will be reported at the board's June 10 meeting, when action may be taken to determine the house's fate.

GOP to Make Charter Awards

Will Be Presented to Nationality Clubs

LANSING (UPI) — Republican State Chairman Arthur Elliott Jr. will award charters to 17 GOP nationality clubs in Detroit ceremonies Saturday as his party launches an attempt to break the Democrats' stranglehold on ethnic politics in Michigan.

★ ★

Elliott said yesterday Gov. George Romney's victory last fall when he became Michigan's first GOP governor in 14 years, was an indication that Republicans can hope for better things from urban voters in the future.

Elmar Heinaru, an Estonian-born American from Detroit, is chairman of the party's new nationalities division.

Heinaru, 36, a member of the GOP State Central Committee, headed the nationality group drive for the Romney volunteers last November.

★ ★ ★

He expects the nationality division to open Republican lines of communication to more than 1.8 million Michigan citizens of foreign nationality.

★ ★ ★

Charters will go to Republican clubs and associations of Americans whose ancestry represents Arabs, Latvians, Rumanians, Ukranians, Estonians, Slovaks, Macedonians, Germans, Lithuanians, Armenians, Greeks, Italians, Mexicans, Scandinavians, Hungarians, White Russians, Poles and Czechs.

★ ★ ★

Ceremonies will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Pick-Fort Shelby Hotel's Terrace room.

Plan Campaign in Detroit 'to Achieve Integration'

DETROIT (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says it will ask the Detroit Board of Education to bus Negro children "to schools at a distance from their home, if necessary, to achieve integration."

Arthur J. Johnson, executive director of the Detroit NAACP branch, disclosed his plans for an appeal to the Detroit school board today.

He said it was part of a national drive by the NAACP in Northern states to start a movement "toward integration, not just banning enforced segregation."

"I know of no other way to prevent the negro child from being short-changed in education in the years ahead," Johnson said.

The Detroit school board, Johnson charged, presently is "completely against any aggressive, active steps to achieve the highest possible degree of integration."

NAACP PLANS

Because of this, he said, the education committee of the Detroit NAACP branch "is working on a statement of NAACP concerns and demands which we intend to present to the board soon."

Although specific proposals have not been determined yet, Johnson said they probably would propose that "the board should encourage Negroes to put their children in mostly white schools whenever possible."

"I would not be opposed to moving children by bus to schools at a distance from their homes," Johnson said. "I believe the price would be worth it."

Sixth Annual Safety Check Set for Cars

KEEGO HARBOR — The sixth annual auto safety check will be held here Thursday and Friday.

More than 5,000 autos have been checked since the program was initiated.

Lanes for the checks will be set up on Cass Lake Road in Keego Harbor.

Inspections will cover 10 items: Brakes; front and rear lights; steering; tires; exhaust system; glass; windshield wipers; rear view mirror; and horn.

Police Chief James K. Sisk, director, said volunteers are needed for the safety project. Those interested in helping should report to the city hall.

School Execs Get Pay Hikes

Action in Rochester Part of 2-Year Plan

ROCHESTER—Drawing from a budget based on 4 additional mills for the 1963-64 school year, the board of education last night raised the salaries of school principals and assistant superintendents.

The pay hike was given "to bring their salaries more in line with others in the county," Schools Supt. Donald C. Baldwin said today.

He added that it was the first move of a two year salary adjustment program.

★ ★ ★

Asst. Supt. Douglas B. Lund received a hike which boosts his salary from $10,950 to $12,750. The salary of Asst. Supt. Richard F. Huizenga was increased from $13,250 to $14,250.

Under terms of the new pay scale high school Principal Harlan Johnson will receive a salary of $12,000, an increase of $1,250.

The two junior high principals received $1,200 raises.

★ ★ ★

Salaries of elementary school administrators will range from $8,500 to $10,050. The seven principals received an across-the-board raise of $1,000.

Birth certificates are required for registration.

LANSING (UPI) — An estimated 250,000 Michigan motorists will be interviewed this summer as part of a statewide traffic survey to be made by the State Highway Department, it was announced yesterday.

The survey will start June 17 to help highway department engineers plan future road needs.

In Rochester

Married at St. Paul

ROCHESTER — Sharon Lynn Goldsworthy became the bride of Michael James LaFave in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at St. Paul Methodist Church.

Rev. J. Douglas Parker officiated.

Her bouffant veil of French illusion fell from a rose crown. She carried a cascade of Stephanotis and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert Schlecte of Ann Arbor was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Susan Kay LaFave, sister of the bridegroom, and Judy Fanson, both of Rochester; and Peggy Peabody of Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Serving as best man for the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merne E. LaFave, 320 Castell, was Michael B. Vallee of Pontiac.

The guests were seated by Michael Marino and Charles Crump of Rochester and Dwight Hughes of Royal Oak.

★ ★ ★

Following the nuptials a reception was held in the church's Friendship Hall.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Goldsworthy, 317 Highland, wore a gown of white peau de soie with a scoop neckline and floor-length belled skirt.

That's what parents often say when told about the decline in our children's physical fitness. To be sure, parents can't assume full responsibility for this problem. But parents should see to it that their children get proper health care—and that physical fitness isn't neglected in schools.

Urge your local school officials to provide a physical education program that calls for at least 15 minutes of vigorous activity every day for all girls and boys. A basic program has been developed that is improving the fitness of our children. It is easy to administer in any school. It costs little to get it started. It can improve any child's physical fitness.

If you'd like to know more about this program, write to The President's Council on Physical Fitness, Washington 25, D. C.

Trumpets Slay Cows

Music Proves Fatal

HORNCHURCH, England (AP) — The Hornchurch Drum and Trumpet Corps went for a weekend rehearsal in Peter Read's pasture.

Read's 50 cows lifted their heads with interest as the bandsmen unpacked their instruments and band master Brian Keeler raised his baton for John Philip Sousa's "Semper Fidelis."

The drums crashed out and the horns blared. Five cows dropped dead. The rest stampeded.

Keeler apologized profusely.

"Brass bands may not be everybody's cup of tea," he said, "but I've never before heard of anyone dying after hearing us play."

"They were obviously terrified by the noise," said Read. But he added that he wouldn't sue—"these things happen."

"Everywhere we go someone objects," said Keeler.

JFK's Jetliner Sets Speed Mark in Moscow Flight

MOSCOW (AP)—President Kennedy's jet airliner has set a speed record for a Washington-to-Moscow flight, answering Soviet taunts that no American aircraft could make the 5,004-mile trip without stopping.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy's personal pilot, Col. James B. Swindal of Birmingham, Ala., landed the Boeing 707 here Sunday after a flight of 8 hours 38 minutes 42 seconds. He said the only other Washington-Moscow nonstop flight he knew of was a Soviet flight which took 12 hours.

Michigan Week Event Is Progressive Move

The PRESS salutes the observance of Michigan Week and congratulates the dedicated workers who have given time and effort toward organizing it.

Objectives of this tenth annual statewide program are:

- Making the State a better place in which to live and work.
- Increasing the knowledge and appreciation of its citizens.
- Publicizing its advantages to the Nation and the world.

★ ★ ★

Under the chairmanship of ROBERT J. HUBER, mayor of Troy, county and area divisions have planned daily activities to coincide with the statewide schedule of themes.

Beginning last Sunday with the religious observance of Spiritual Foundations Day, the following days, which conclude Saturday, are signalized: Our Government; Hospitality; Our Livelihood; Education; Our Heritage; and Our Youth.

Locally, Detroit's Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh was honored at a Mayor's Exchange Day luncheon, while our mayor, Robert Landry, was similarly recognized in Detroit. This and other city functions commemorating the week were developed by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

★ ★ ★

Two countywide events are scheduled. One is the Wednesday conference on "Woman's Place in This Perplexing Century" at Oakland University.

The other is a luncheon featuring a heritage fashion show and historical ceremony at Farmington's Botsford Inn.

National recognition of the State's project is given by the Annual Michigan Week Congressional Breakfast in Washington, sponsored by the Michigan Society.

★ ★ ★

Michigan residents can be proud not only of their beautiful and progressive State, but of the splendid body of its citizens who annually herald its advantages and significance.

Canada's New Leader Is Betterment for U.S.

Canada's shift of government reins bodes well for Commonwealth-U.S. relations.

Though Lester B. Pearson, the new Prime Minister, has not always agreed with American attitudes and aims, no one can fault his brand of healthy, constructive criticism.

On the contrary, his predecessor John Diefenbaker, motivated by political craft, had become a carper at everything American.

★ ★ ★

The new head of government has not exploited international differences for partisan purposes.

And he does not fear that close association between the two countries must always be to Canada's disadvantage.

As a first step, it is reported that he will soon move to bring Canada into the Organization of American States.

Such alignment would mean that Canada would assume meaningful hemispheric responsibilities and henceforth take official part in the deliberations of her allies.

★ ★ ★

Moreover, the recent contention over acceptance of American nuclear warheads by Canada as part of the two-country defense plan seems well on the way to solution.

Opposition to this commitment played a big part in toppling DIEFENBAKER'S Conservative regime.

The new government plans to move speedily to implement an agreement with the United States toward that end.

But PEARSON, as might have been expected, has some knotty internal problems.

The Liberals, the party he heads, are a minority. The support they were promised by some Social Credit representatives has been withdrawn.

But underlying stability for the coalition government and the country itself for the immediate future lies in the general distaste of all Canadian parties for staging another election. They have done so twice within a year.

The best wishes of Uncle Sam go to Prime Minister PEARSON as he settles into the driver's seat of our esteemed neighbor nation.

"THE majority of people can't really think," says an educator. And the minority who can think don't know what the heck to think about these days and times.

THE person who is living beyond his income should guard against doing so to the point of no return — no return, that is, to solvency.

South's Wallace Out to Get JFK

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy was described today as knowing that in Gov. George Wallace of Alabama he is dealing with a man who hopes to take the South away from him in 1964.

A close associate said the President is aware that Wallace hopes to hold himself out as a martyr to Southern segregationists by a dramatic stand against integration at the University of Alabama.

News Analysis

★ ★ ★

This could come either at the university branch in Huntsville in June or on the Tuscaloosa campus next September.

In either setting, those who know him well say they expect the governor to carry out his repeated pledge personally to block the doorway against admission of a Negro student.

It apparently would fit the governor's political purpose if he were arrested by U.S. marshals.

But the assumption is that news pictures showing U.S. officials jostling him aside would do about as well.

According to one of those present, Kennedy got the governor's personal pledge in a brief helicopter confrontation last Saturday that local and state civilian authorities would maintain law and order in Birmingham.

NO TROOPS

Saying that nothing could please him more, the President replied that he would not use federal troops dispatched to military reservations in Alabama unless there were fresh and uncontrolled racial disturbances.

But the President made it plain he would use federal force if necessary to maintain the rights of Negroes to peaceable assembly and petition.

Nothing was said about the prospective forthcoming university showdown.

★ ★ ★

But national Democratic officials are convinced this action will be the forerunner of an effort by the governor to keep Kennedy's name off the 1964 party ballot in Alabama—and as many other Dixie states as will go along with the idea.

In Alabama, the Democratic state committee, which the governor controls, could designate a slate of electors pledged to Wallace, as officially uninstructed, to carry the party emblem on the November ballot.

Kennedy electors presumably could be put on the ballot too, without the Democratic party designation.

★ ★ ★

In conferences he has held with some Southern senators, Wallace has outlined plans to run for president.

He has expressed the belief that he could sweep the South and throw a close election into the House of Representatives.

Tough Way To Conduct A Business

David Lawrence Says:

Court's Unclear on Race Disorders

WASHINGTON — Who knows what the "law of the land" is with respect to Negro demonstrations and resultant disorders in Birmingham, Ala., and other cities throughout the country?

★ ★ ★

Are state or city police forbidden to arrest anyone for inciting disorder as long as the purpose or objective is to demonstrate for a lawful cause?

LAWRENCE

These questions are touched upon in one way or another in a series of decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States which were handed down this week.

But the opinions rendered do not clarify the issue.

★ ★ ★

The Supreme Court decided that in one city, which has an ordinance forbidding integration, it was lawful for sit-in demonstrators to demand service alongside of whites in restaurants. The decision said, in effect, that the proprietor was ordered by state law and didn't segregate lunch counters of his own free will.

In another city, where there was no state or city law requiring segregation, the Supreme Court held that statements made from time to time by public officials amounted to the same thing as a law.

Hence, demonstrators were within their rights in pursuing their objectives and the restaurant owner was being "coerced" by city officials and was not acting of his own accord in maintaining segregated lunch counters.

★ ★ ★

These confusing interpretations were by no means unanimous. Justice Harlan, one of the most learned of the members of the court, took issue with the other justices on the extent to which private rights may be invaded.

Most significant is the court's view that when a demonstration leads to violence and disorder, the demonstrators are not held to be at fault.

NEW DECISION

The week's Supreme Court decision makes it plain that Negroes who were playing basketball in a public park and who were themselves peaceable could not be legally arrested, and that the impact of the incident on those who opposed the use of public facilities by Negroes is not relevant.

In the South Carolina case, where the manager of a store refused to serve his Negro customers except at separate tables, the court held that, since the city ordinance requiring segregation was not constitutional, any act based upon it by an individual was also invalid.

In the Louisiana case, where there was no law requiring segregation, the Supreme Court took cognizance of the absence of such a statute.

★ ★ ★

It ruled, however, that, because city officials had publicly denounced "sit-ins" and because the store managers conferred with those officials and the police when a demonstration in the store took place, they were guilty of collaboration with city authorities.

It was declared by the court that, in effect, the store was operating at the dictate of city officials.

The manager of the department store in question declared that he was maintaining segregated facilities in accordance with "state policy and practice" as well as local custom.

From this, the Supreme Court majority drew the conclusion that the store officials were "coerced by the city."

7 Obscure Test Pilots Come to Rescue of U.S.

NEW YORK — People . . . places . . . things . . .

The good Lord loves us, for some reason or other. There has never been a time in the history of the nation that good men strolled on stage to attend to tasks that only good men could achieve.

CONSIDINE

When we made the incredible and risky move to break with Britain we made it at a time when there lived, as close contemporaries, Washington, Jefferson, Adams, Franklin, Paine, Morris. When we needed a Lincoln, he appeared. Wilson came on time (so did Babe Ruth, as a matter of fact). And FDR and MacArthur, each on time.

★ ★ ★

Then, as we wallowed in the frustration and humiliation of being a second-rate nation in manned space flight, we found seven obscure test pilots hardly known beyond their immediate families: Men with names the public couldn't remember, at first—Shepard, Grissom, Glenn, Carpenter, Schirra, Slayton, Cooper.

"They must have picked them out of an alphabetical list," a cynic said at the time of their selection. "Somebody just reached into the list of applicants and picked guys from categories "'C', 'G' and 'S.'"

They have put us back in the game. Each has become an authentic American legend, a knight. Each is the embodiment of good looks, good temperament, good training. Each speaks fluently and in the tongue of the people. Each has his wholesome family, good jaw, good intention.

We're blessed.

CHARMING SORCERY

Met a charming sorcerer at the St. Regis the other day, 78-year-old Mrs. Gina MacKinnon.

Every so often she excuses herself from the company she is keeping at her ancestral place in Linlithgow, outside Edinburgh, retires to what amounts to a tower, enters a room, locks the door and stirs up a magic potion whose ingredients and proper measures are known only to herself.

Have always wanted to meet a person like that, but never expected him or her to be a bonnie Scotswoman who also raises prize boars and cattle and owns a golf course on the side.

How she came by the recipe is a long story, dating back to the alchemists who — as was the custom of the time — concocted a special liqueur for their patrons, in their case Bonnie Prince Charles.

His life in exile was said to have been saved by a MacKinnon, and, for a reward, he gave his savior the recipe.

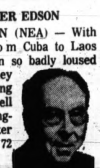
Reveal OSS Cloak-Dagger Tricks

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA) — With everything from Cuba to Laos and back again so badly loused up, maybe they should bring Stanley P. Lovell back to Washington again. After all, he's only 72 now.



EDSON

Lovell, in case you have forgotten was World War II director of research and development for the Office of Strategic Services.

Gen. William J. (Wild Bill) Donovan, who headed OSS, swore Lovell to secrecy for 20 years on all the devious tricks they played in this cloak - and-dagger outfit. But now that the 20 years are up, Stanley Lovell has written a book, "Of Spies and Strategems," (Prentice-Hall $3.95).

It reveals at least some of the inside stories. If it isn't required reading in the more circumspect Central Intelligence Agency, housed in its multimillion dollar palace up the Potomac from Washington, as successor to the screwball OSS, it should be.

Lovell was and still is a manufacturing chemist. He holds some 70 patents in his own name. He was recruited for OSS by Dr. Karl T. Compton of MIT and put to work by Vannevar Bush of the Carnegie Institution — men who knew good brains when they found them and knew what to do with them.

★ ★ ★

Maybe that's what's needed now — more and better brains with a sense of humor thrown in for good measure.

One of Lovell's first jobs was to hire good paper and ink chemists and put the Bureau of Engraving and Printing to work manufacturing genuine imitation Nazi passports.

Also on the OSS staff was America's most notorious forger, known only as Jim the Penman, who signed Hitler's and Mussolini's names to all kinds of official documents they never wrote.

Lovell's next job was to make counterfeit Japanese currency used in the Philippine Islands occupation. A plane load of it put a severe strain on Japan's economy, but the Japs never caught on.

One Lovell invention was a harmless firecracker called a "Hedy Lamarr." When you pulled a small wire loop, it simulated the screech of a falling Nazi bomb. It was used to create panics in enemy territory. Lovell threw one into a wastebasket to show the Joint Chiefs of Staff how it worked. They never came back.

★ ★ ★

Lovell went on from there to develop a magnetic bomb which attached to railroad cars, would blow up only when the train was in a tunnel, thus wrecking the tunnel. Next was a silent and flashless pistol for use by underground fighters and saboteurs.

Donovan demonstrated one of these guns to President Roosevelt in his White House office one day, firing six silent but deadly shots into a sandbag. After he recovered from surprise and shock, FDR, said: "Bill, you're the only Republican I'll ever allow in my office with a weapon like this."

Lovell's greatest achievement in espionage was performed right here in Washington. A message came in one day from Allen Dulles, then Agent 110 in Switzerland, later head of Central Intelligence Agency. He reported that a Frenchman escaping to Switzerland had said he was a guard for water shipments from a big power plant in Norway to Pennemunde, on the Baltic coast.

Lovell had been briefed on the U.S. Manhattan Engineer project and knew that heavy water was used in atomic energy research. He also knew that aerial reconnaissance had revealed some 70 mysterious ski slides on the Baltic coast, all aimed at Britain.

Lovell reasoned that the Nazis were developing rockets that would carry atomic bombs so he persuaded Donovan to alert the Royal Air Force. The RAF raid on Peenemunde in August 1943 set the German V-2 program back a year, thus saving the Normandy invasion.

Actually, the heavy water wasn't shipped to Pennemunde but to Wolgast, where the Germans were working on atomic submarines. But they never got them built in time.

★ ★ ★

Lovell's greatest achievement in counter - intelligence came after President Roosvelt told Donovan one day, "Bill, you must treat the Russians as you treat the British. They're killing Germans every day, you know.

Shoftly thereafter a team of Russians appeared at OSS headquarters to inspect Lovell's bag of tricks. He made sure that his silent, flashless gun went off with a blinding flash and that his booby traps didn't work.

'Wasn't Ridiculing Aviation's Progress'

My amusement at Dick Buck's article was not ridicule of aviation. I greatly approve as I was a paratrooper during World War II and can fly a plane.

★ ★ ★

My amusement was for the attempt to brainwash the public into approving a large sum of tax money to be used to benefit the major airlines, industry and the owners of private aircraft. I garage my own car and pay taxes to support the building and maintenance of the roads I drive on. Let the airlines, industry and owners of private aircraft pay their own way. I am taxed enough.

Aviation is wonderful in many ways, but at present I don't enjoy the use of it and therefore do not desire to foot the bill.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court struck down yesterday a railroad freight rate differential authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission on exports and imports moving between East Coast ports and the Midwest.

The court's vote was 4-4, Justice White having disqualified himself.

The southern tier ports of Norfolk, Baltimore and Philadelphia have a rate advantage of 40 to 60 cents a ton over northern tier ports of Portland, Boston, Albany and New York City under the ICC order.

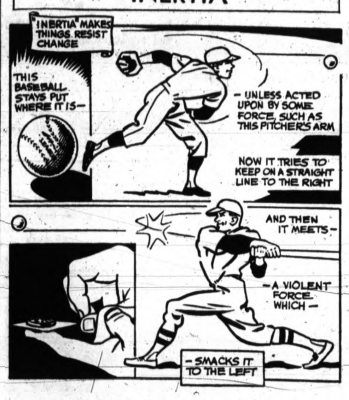
Junior Editors Quiz on INERTIA



QUESTION: Is inertia of any value to us?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: If by having inertia you mean a person is slothful and lazy, this is obviously not good.

But you are probably thinking of the word in its scientific meaning and here it is very useful indeed. Inertia is defined by Newton's first law of motion: a body moving in a straight line or in a state of rest will remain moving that way or be at rest until acted upon by some outside force.

In our first picture the ball is at rest. Of course gravity is pulling it down, but remember that gravity is a force acting on the ball; it is not the same as inertia, even if gravity and inertia, in this case, ar producing the same result.

But when the pitcher hurls it, force have overcome both gravity and inertia and a new inertia is started, the tendency of the ball to move straight forward.

After a while, gravity would overcome this and pull the ball down. But before it can do this, another force suddenly overcomes the ball's inertia, the batter's bat!

Now the ball streaks off in a new direction with a new inertia to continue its movement. The value of inertia here is that the ball has kept in motion. And without a ball in motion, where would your ball game me?

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Look around for other examples of inertia and try the experiment we show. Balance card and nickel carefully and flip card sharply with forefinger of right hand. It will give you a queer feeling to see the card sail away and leave the nickel still on your finger, kept there by its inertia.

Romney Vetoes Two Measures

One Bill Sought to End 'Elective Coverage'

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney yesterday vetoed a bill which would have eliminated so-called "elective coverage" employers with negative balances from the state unemployment compensation fund.

Romney also announced the veto of a bill calling for workmen's compensation to be given automatically to firemen suffering from lung diseases incurred on the job.

Veto of the "elective coverage" jobless pay bill had been urged by unions, particularly the building trades unions, but was supported by employers.

It would have required that firms with less than four employes, and having a negative balance, or deficit, in the jobless pay fund for two years, would be eliminated.

Such firms have the right to join or refrain from joining the fund voluntarily.

Romney noted that the bill was written to correct abuses and strengthen the fund, but would conflict with the Ford-Canton bill which he will sign in the next day or so.

One of the provisions of the Ford-Canton bill is that any firm with a negative balance could have it wiped out on request, but would thereafter have to pay maximum tax rates into the fund for at least the next three years.

New-Winged Plane Passes Flight Test

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The Northrop Corp. reports the Air Force X21 research plane, utilizing a new air flow control device on its wings, has passed its first test.

★ ★ ★

The X21, test flown Monday, has thin slots on its wings which suck in surface air. Compressors under the wings take the air through ducts and expel it to the rear.

The method, called laminar flow, decreases friction drag on the wing surfaces to zero, resulting in increased range and payload capacity.

What Should Community College Offer Area It Serves?

(Editor's Note — Community colleges are booming in Michigan. Two are being considered in Oakland County. What is the role of the Community college in the overall state education picture? This is the second of a three-part series.)

By STUART GROSS
Education Writer
Saginaw News

LANSING (AP) — Whenever expansion of higher education to meet increased enrollments is discussed, the community college plays an important part in the discussion.

The reason is obvious. It is relatively cheap for Michigan to encourage the development of community colleges within driving distance of the potential student population.

The legislature now pays state aid to community colleges at $224 per student. This is less than half the amount the state grants four-year colleges and universities per student for operating costs.

Also the state pays the full shot on classroom construction at four-year colleges. In community college districts, this cost is shared or borne entirely by local taxpayers through bond issues paid for out of local property taxes.

BOND ISSUE

For example, when Delta College's district of Saginaw, Bay, and Midland counties was organized, the residents approved an $8 million bond issue to build the college. The state contribution toward this structure was less than $500,000.

Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, school superintendent, said community college development is economical for the state, but community college education is not cheap education. Finances for community college operation are split into thirds — one third from the state, another from local taxes, and a third from tuition.

The cost per student averages out at around $500 for the institution. If the community college is part of a secondary school system and under the board of education control, all money allocated by the state or coming from tuition is expected to be used for community college operation and not for secondary or elementary costs.

* * *

There is some talk that future college education will be devised around a system of community colleges serving as feeder colleges for a senior college offering the junior and senior years plus graduate work. This is the pattern to be followed by Florida Atlantic University, which opens in 1964.

This also was the pattern advanced for Michigan by Dr. John X. Jamrich, consultant for a special legislative committee seeking a solution for a four-year college need in the Saginaw Valley.

This senior college, an autonomous institution, would accept transfer students from Delta and any other college for the last two years.

FAILED

The plan failed in the legislature. It was not supported by Delta College, but was supported by the Michigan Council of Community College Administrators.

The pattern, to be successful in the state, would require the existing public colleges and universities to stop expanding at the freshman and sophomore level, or to turn this phase of education over to the community colleges leaving such places as University of Michigan, Wayne State University, and Michigan State University as upper division and graduate schools.

Dr. Bartlett and Eugene Power, chairman of the U. of M. Board of Regents, said they knew of no contemplation for any Michigan college or university to drop freshman and sophomore years from their undergraduate curriculum.

Another proposal advanced, to establish a U. of M. campus on the Delta Campus to solve the Saginaw Valley college need, was killed in the legislature after arousing controversy that involved the strong opposition of the Council of State Public College Presidents and the Community College Association.

The Community College Association fought the proposal on the grounds it would "destroy the concept of the community college" in Michigan.

This term "concept of community college" has been used widely by community college people, its exact definition is hard to come by. Bartlett said it is a five-part concept.

CRITERIA

A good community college, he said, should offer:

1. A good 2-year academic program for degree-bound students.
2. A wide variety of terminal programs up to two years in length to meet the labor requirements of a community.
3. Good guidance services to help youngsters determine what occupation to follow in life.
4. Cultural programs for the community and become a cultural center for the community.
5. Good adult education programs.

* * *

"No one community college," he said, "is equally strong in all five of these points. Some do a better job in some of the areas than the others."

Community colleges are developing into a great proving ground for students in Michigan. There are no entrance requirements in Michigan community colleges, and any high school student with deficiencies can be accepted.

When he makes up his deficiencies, he can advance to regular college work.

TRANSFER WORK

Those students planning for a degree are enrolled in transfer programs. At the end of two years, they transfer to a four-year school and, according to studies made in Michigan, perform capably on as junior students.

The number of students who transfer is not known. There are no statistics in Michigan to prove or disprove actual figures on those who transfer to degree work.

Dean Lewis R. Fibel, Flint Community College, estimates 60 per cent of community college graduates go on to a college or university. The actual number has been estimated at less than 4,000 a year—but that is a guess.

Dr. Bartlett admits such figures should be available, but said his office doesn't have the staff or money to do it.

Job Offers Plentiful

Jane Powell Chirps Briskly

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD—"Thank heaven I can still sing and dance," said Jane Powell as she discussed the changing patterns of show business.

THOMAS

"A lot of actors and actresses — some of them big names — can't entertain an audience. The result is: They aren't working."

Not Jane. She has more job offers than she can handle. Recently diovroed from Pat Nerney, she is getting her career back into high gear....

Wednesday night she appears on Perry Como's television show on NBC. This summer she will appear in arena theaters in the East and at the new Melodyland in Anaheim, Calif., as "The Unsinkable Molly Brown."

* * *

Her aim: "To let people know I can play something beside Jane Powell roles. It's the first really good part for a woman in a musical for years. Nearly all the standard musicals are designed for me, except for Mary Martin. Or Ethel Merman. But somehow I can't see myself in 'Gypsy.'"

Nor can I. In fact, it's hard for anyone to conceive of her in anything but a Jane Powell role, so parallel have been her screen and personal identities.

She is so naturally sunny that you expect her to break into a chorus of "It's a Most Unusual Day." And she will, if asked. But still, she is no longer a curly-topped co-ed. She is a lovely 34 and mother of three growing children. She'd like to act her age.

SEES MANY CHANGES

Jane has seen many changes during her more than two decades in the show world. She started in her native Portland, Ore., as a singer on radio. Her sweet soprano brought her to Hollywood, and she served a double term (two seven-year contracts) as one of the stars of MGM musicals.

Those were wild, wonderful days. Her fellow students in the MGM school included Debbie Reynolds, Butch Jenkins, Skippy Homeier, Darryl Hickman, Claude Jarman, Dean Stockwell, Margaret O'Brien and a girl named Elizabeth Taylor.

"I remember Elizabeth as the safety-pin girl," Jane reminisced. "She always came to school pinned up—a strap here, a torn seam there. One day she came with the entire hem of her dress fastened with safety pins."

* * *

After the movie musical dwindled, she moved into television, doing a four-star anthology and numerous specials. She has also mined the gold to be found in Las Vegas and in the lush field of summer musical theaters, which are getting to be almost a year-round industry.

JFK Boosts Dinner

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

★ ★ ★

KENNEDY TRIP: President Kennedy's planned four-day trip to the West Coast next month includes an appearance at an entertainment industry dinner in Los Angeles to raise funds for the Democratic party.

The dinner June 7 is to be attended by top members of the film-making community. There have been reports the affair carries a $1,000-a-plate tab but White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said he did not know what the admission price was.

The schedule calls for the President to fly to Colorado Springs, Colo., June 5 to speak at the Air Force Academy commencement. Then he is to inspect the White Sands, N.M., Proving Grounds; watch naval maneuvers at San Diego, Calif., attend the dinner and return to Washington June 8.

CUBAN FLIGHTS: Nonscheduled Cuban aircraft have been barred from flying over the United States without permission from the Federal Aviation Agency.

The agency issued the order because of three reported crossings of the nation in the past two months by Cuban planes bound for Canada.

The rule adopted Monday requires civil aircraft of Cuban registry over the United States to operate only in controlled air space and under FAA air traffic control instructions.

NEWS CONFERENCE: President Kennedy plans to hold a news conference at 3 p.m. EST Wednesday.

ROUTS ATTACKER — Ruth Meyer, 28, of Newton, Mass., fought off an attacker who tried to strangle her last night as she was going home from a part-time job at a hospital. Her screams awakened people in nearby houses, and the attacker fled.

INDIA AID: India has President Kennedy's good will but whether she will get the millions of dollars she wants in military assistance to meet Red Chinese pressures remains doubtful.

Indian diplomatic sources disclosed Monday the Asian nation is seeking $1.5 billion in military aid from the United States, Canada, Britain and Australia. Indications were that U.S. authorities are considering assistance equal to about one-third of India's request.

"We have the American President's good will, and that is worth several billions," said T. T. Krishnamachari, minister for economic and defense coordination, after talking with Kennedy. Obviously, he added, the President will have to seek the funds through Congress.

RUSSIANS IN CUBA: Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., says Russia is building 16 industrial plants in Cuba, including an automobile repair plant, three metallurgical factories and an oil refinery.

In a report to constituents, Mundt said Moscow Radio had confirmed this industrial activity. "Leningrad engineers have completed plans for an oil refinery to be built in the Santiago de Cuba area," Mundt said. "This plant will process 2 million tons of oil a year."

Moscow Radio, Mundt said, is calling Cuba "the first vanguard of socialism in that continent."

China Character Philosophical, Patient Compared to Soviets

(EDITOR'S NOTE — How do the Red Chinese look on Soviet Russia in the midst of today's intense ideological split between the two countries? Here, in the second of a series of articles, is a report which provides some answers.)

By RICHARD P. LISTER

PEKING (AP) — To go to China, you stop in Moscow on the way and again on the way back. It's a good chance to look at the Red giants, old and new.

* * *

Every major city in China has its Sino-Soviet Hall of Friendship. The halls remain, but where is the friendship? Ivan, carved in stone, stands shoulder to shoulder with Chang outside, but flesh-and-blood Ivan, if he is in China at all, is not readily to be seen.

The Chinese look on Soviet Russia as a loved and respected teacher who has gone astray. They're sad about it but they're not going to budge an inch in their views. The Chinese simply know that they have the right answer. It is the Russians who erred.

* * *

The difference in atmosphere between Moscow and Peking is sensed immediately. China is still in the first stages of its revolution. Everyone must have enough to eat and enough to wear, but there is little room for luxury. Much hard work is needed still to achieve ambitious aims. There can be gaiety but it is Puritan, expressed in energetic dances and anti-imperialist songs. There is no space for night clubs, gambling dens or dance halls. Chang may go out in the evening to the opera or a play or to some doctrinal go-round, but he is back home in bed not long after 10 o'clock.

GAY CHINESE

And yet, where Russia may often seem grim or hostile, China as often seems friendly and gay. Why? Not the system, certainly; China's regime is probably the stricter. It may lie in the people themselves, moulded to a less rugged pattern than the Russians by a mellower climate and a long tradition of civilization.

* * *

Russia has transformed its drab scene with consumer goods in recent years. The contrast in China is striking. There are plenty of things in the Chinese shop windows but the monotony is oppressive. The same shirt, the same teacups, the same hairbrushes, pipes, bicycles, cigarette lighters, face towels, are to be found in every shopping street in every town in China.

Luxury goods of exquisite design and workmanship also be purchased freely, to the ordinary Chinese they are hardly even a hypothetical interest. When a bicycle or a radio costs two and a half months' wages, a TV set (nine-inch screen) seven months' wages, and a man must work for nine days for the price of a pair of leather shoes, but he does not think about buying jade Buddhas.

* * *

In contrast to this austerity, the scene in Moscow looks more and more like the luxurious West. Is it the slackening of pure Communist standards, or merely a sign of the national character? For instance, hordes of youths on the Moscow streets beg the tourist for ballpoint pens while in China you cannot even persuade a child to accept a piece of candy.

SENSITIVE PRESTIGE

There's another striking difference. Chinese "face" seems more important than Russian "face." A Chinese waiter or porter will not accept a tip any more than a child a piece of candy. He is unwilling to consent to anything that puts him in an inferior position. This age-old sensitivity to any loss of prestige is reinforced in present-day China by a fear of public opinion.

* * *

In the West, the Smiths must keep up with the Joneses on motor cars, TV sets, washing machines; in China what worries Chang is that he may fall too far behind Chen in output per shift. It is only the citizen with a rare thick skin who backslides so far as to need more stringent "re-education."

The disinclination to accept favors from foreigners is accounted for to some extent by the sheer unfamiliarity with foreigners. The traveler in China is soon aware that he is a rarity. Once he goes more than 10 yards from his hotel he is unlikely to see a Western face. He is stared at in frank curiosity. If he stops to buy something he is immediately wedged against the counter by a curious crowd.

They stare and often they laugh. The chances are they're not being rude by their lights. Laughter itself can mean embarrassment. If you greet them with the universal "Ni-Hao" hello they ni-hao back with enthusiasm and laugh even louder. On festive occasions, they are likely to fall back into orderly lines and applaud. The traveler claps back, Russian style.

The crowds, though curious, are neither suspicious nor hostile. These are our Western friends they seem to say; if they were not our friends they would not come to see us. The fact that official Chinese eyes see Western governments as "predatory imperialists" seems to make no difference.

Whether it has anything to do with the scarcity of foreigners or not, a further point gradually reveals itself: The ignorance of the Chinese concerning the West is almost total. A Chinese who traveled with our group naturally developed a sense of belonging to us and thus a feeling of confidence. At last he hesitantly asked an unforgettable question.

He clearly did not want to make the friendly foreigner lose face but he simply had to know:

"Tell me," he asked, "in your country, can you still buy a slave?"

Negro Colonies in S. Africa

Segregation Expanded

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Premier Hendrik Verwoerd's government is creating African homelands for millions of nonwhites to further its race segregation policies.

* * *

The all-white Parliament last Friday approved a law granting limited self-government to the first of eight such racial enclaves, known as Bantustans.

The bill grants an all-black parliament, a flag, national anthem and the official language Xhosa to 3 million Xhosa people in 64,000 square miles of Transkei territory on the Indian Ocean side of the country.

The new law is a far cry from independence for the Xhosas. Final control remains in white hands, and any complete handover promises to be a long way off, if ever.

IDEA 'RIDICULOUS'

Critics say the project is ridiculous and that the blacks are being herded onto South Africa's least productive lands.

But Daan Nel, minister of African administration and development, who piloted the bill through parliament, forecast that South Africa would "be hailed as the creator of a policy that can also be fruitfully applied elsewhere."

Nel said the bill "crowns all our apartheid (race segregation) policy."

* * *

"We are prepared to defend it against the whole world with all our power," he said. "We believe it to be right and just."

The English language Johannesburg Star, often an opposition mouthpiece, said that granting of political rights to Africans in the Bantustans would not satisfy the demand of millions of Africans who would continue to live in the white areas.

MAIN LABOR FORCE

Africans are the main labor force in South Africa's currently booming economy.

The multiracial Liberal party said there is no chance of making the bantustans succeed as self-sufficient economic units.

This feeling is shared by the Progressive party whose single representative in parliament, Mrs. Helen Suzman, called the bill "a fraud" that would do "nothing whatsoever to dispel South Africa's unfortunate position in the eyes of the outside world."

* * *

Opposition also came from the right, with the United party claiming that the Bantustans will become black Trojan horses that pan-Africans will turn against their white sponsors. One party member said the project would lead to fragmentation of the state and bring the end of white civilization in South Africa.

Legion Drops New Orleans for Convention

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Segregation problems caused cancellation yesterday of plans to hold the American Legion's 1963 national convention in New Orleans.

* * *

The Legion's executive committee faced the task of finding a new site for the convention, which had been set for Sept. 6-12.

A spokesman said it would be a day or two before steps would be taken toward naming a new host city.

Louisiana legionnaires withdrew their invitation because of inability to guarantee unsegregated facilities for delegates.

ISSUE STATEMENT

National Commander James E. Powers of Macon, Ga., said in a statement issued by national headquarters:

* * *

"Because of circumstances beyond its control in being unable to meet the housing requirements of the National Organization of the American Legion, and with due regard for the best interests of the American Legion, the City of New Orleans and the State of Louisiana, the American Legion First District Convention Corporation regretfully announces the withdrawal of the invitation to hold the 1963 convention of the American Legion in New Orleans, Louisiana."

Latin Will Ask Terrorist Laws

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — President Romulo Betancourt announced last night he would ask Congress for tougher laws against political terrorists.

Betancourt made a radio-television address opening a campaign to mobilize public opinion behind his fight against his ultra-leftist opponents who for months have been throwing bombs, shooting policemen and burning factories.

* * *

The president denied opposition charges that he drove the Communists and their allies of the Movement of the Revolutionary Left (MIR) to violence by persecuting them.

He declared he would not negotiate to "appease the extremists" and would not withdraw the government's petition asking the Supreme Court to outlaw the Communist party and the MIR.

Lion Mauls, Kills Man Cleaning Cage

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (UPI) — A 45-year-old attendant at the Ross Park Zoo here was mauled and chewed to death early today by a lion while cleaning the animal's cage.

* * *

Attendants said the victim, Guy Carey, father of three, apparently died sometime between midnight and 5 a. m.

Authorities said Carey's body was found in the cage which housed the lion, Timba. Timba had been an attraction at the zoo for the past 10 years. He was destroyed by police.

Korea Frees 45 Without Trial

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Forty-five army officers who staged a prohibited demonstration in March demanding extension of military rule have been quietly released without trial.

Informed military sources said that the officers were either transferred out of the Seoul defense command or given light reprimands for taking part in the demonstration.

The officers were arrested for defying a ban on political activity by military personnel.

* * *

The ruling military junta had prohibited all political demonstrations, by civilians as well as military personnel. But more than 100 politicians arrested for demonstrating against continuation of military rule were acquitted and freed early in April.

Fire Fighter Loses Child

DANVILLE, Calif. (UP) — The rescue squad of the Danville Fire Department responded to a call yesterday to administer artifical-respiration to and 8-month-old girl, apparently suffering from pneumonia.

Fireman Dwight Needham administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation but was unable to revive the child — his own daughter.

The Gulf stream is only about 15 miles wide and it flows at a speed of about six miles per hour.

Marquette Prof Dies

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—The Rev. Francis A. Ryan, S.J., 69, associate professor of classics at Marquette University, died Monday of a stroke. Father Ryan, who had been at Marquette since 1931 and was former dean of men, was born in St. Louis.

Camp Out Near a Motel

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We've been married 16 years. For the past 15 years we have had a camping vacation every summer.

I've camped while pregnant, and with children of all ages. We have four children now. The youngest is 2 and the oldest is 15.

ABBY

Our children would like to go to Disneyland. I don't care where we go as long as I don't have to sleep in a tent and go without a real bath for two weeks.

What can I do? My husband claims this is the only way we can afford to go. He's now planning to buy another tent, which will cost $110, plus other camping equipment.

We already have enough to outfit the Boy Scouts of America. He earns over $12,900 a year.

SERVED MY CAMPING TIME

DEAR SERVED: Compromise. Camp near a nice, modern motel and you check in while your husband enjoys the wide open spaces.

Are you sure that before you married him, you never told him you'd "live in a tent"?

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My sister is over 16 years old. She received a letter from a boy she corresponds with.

My mother steamed open the envelope, read the letter, and resealed it. She is proud of herself for doing it, although she didn't find what she was looking for.

Sis and I know that parents have charge over their children's mail until they are 21, but do you think my mother should have read it secretly?

THE OTHER DAUGHTER

DEAR DAUGHTER: Absolutely not! Parents can preach truthfulness, honesty and integrity from now until doomsday, but their children will do as their parents do eventually.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: The proper clothing for 100 head of cattle is not Bermuda shorts, but moo moos.

Three Attend MSU Reunion

Three local residents attended their 50th reunion at Michigan State University Saturday.

Graduates of the school, when it was called Michigan Agricultural College, are Standish Sibley, Oriole; Emil L. Kunze, Normanwood; and Stanley Filkins, Sylvan Lake.

Mrs. Filkins and Mrs. Sibley accompanied their husbands. The Sibley's also visited their grandson, Bruce Rogers, Linden Road, a freshman at MSU.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce J. Annett of Sylvan Shores Drive attended the Society of Industrial Realtors convention last week in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold W. Longyear, West Long Lake Road, announce the engagement of their daughter Sylvia Jean to Donald Meroy Heggen, son of Mrs. Abner M. Heggen, Cottontail Lane, and the late Mr. Heggen. Both are seniors at the University of Michigan.

SYLVIA JEAN LONGYEAR

Jo Ann Moore Weds

A breakfast in the Villa Inn followed noon vows of Jo Ann Moore to Frederick H. Alt of Benvenue spoken before Rev. James Hayes Saturday in St. Michael's Church.

Parents of the couple, the Shirley J. Moores, Niagara Avenue, and the Herbert J. Alts, Spring Green, Wis., joined them at an evening reception in the Middle Straits Community Club.

The bride wore a Chantilly lace jacket with her gown of white taffeta, styled with lace overskirt and chapel sweep. A bouffant illusion veil and cascade of white rosebuds and Stephanotis completed her ensemble.

Honor matron Mrs. George Moore appeared in full-length mint green silk organza. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Michael Clever, Mrs. Dean Kleino and Patricia Harbert, wore Nile green organza and carried yellow snapdragons and carnations.

FLOWER GIRL

Flower girl and ring bearer were Patty Lou Loeffler and Michael Moore.

James Alt, Cazenovia, Wis., was his brother's best man. Kenneth and Roger Alt, Spring Green, Wis. ushered with the bride's brother George Moore.

The new Mrs. Alt was graduated from Cleary College, Ypsilanti, and her husband is an alumnus of University of Wisconsin.

Wed Saturday in St. Michael's Church were Jo Ann Moore, daughter of the Shirley J. Moores, Niagara Street, to Frederick H. Alt, son of the Herbert J. Alts, Spring Green, Wis.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Once baby passes the mid-year mark, each day sees new skills acquired. While ball-of-fire babies are apt to do things a bit faster than take-it-easy babies, most babies do these things at about these ages:

• 6 to 7 months. Eyes and hands co-ordinate. Hands hold securely, explore eagerly—eyes examine intently. Sitting up starts, rolling over is easy now.

• 8 to 9 months. Creeping comes into its own. Cup feeding usually handled reasonably well. Can switch objects from hand to hand.

• 12 months. Walking and talking may get real tryouts now. Simple instructions can be understood. Simple games like "pat-a-cake" are easily managed.

P.S. Whether your baby follows the above pattern or not doesn't matter. When mind and spirit are ready, he'll do everything.

Toothsome tale. Teething really starts in earnest after the 6-months mark. Gerber Teething Biscuits are extra-hard and waffle-surfaced to give baby the biting satisfaction he wants and needs. Scalloped edges make them easy to grasp and hold.

Toothsome treat with built-in nutrition and fun. Gerber Animal-Shaped Cookies for toddlers have twice as much protein as most other cookies, plus B-vitamins in the icing. Crunchy to munch, fun to, look at and figure out animal names. (With your help, of course.)

Helping hand division. The baby who is encouraged to try things within his capabilities will reward you with a good progress report. The baby who is urged beyond his limits may lose his desire to try.

Vegetable review. Many different vegetables help build good food habits at an age when food acceptances are most easily established. Gerber offers wonderful vegetable variety with 9 strained and 6 junior choices. All are famous for garden-true colors and flavors. All are specially processed to preserve the utmost in precious food values. Gerber Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Michigan.

Polly's Pointers

A Hobby for Retirees

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Mine is not a homemaking but certainly might be a homesaving idea.

Many women have husbands who are retired from their jobs, have no particular hobbies and just don't know what to do with themselves.

I suggest their husbands to visit for an hour or so every day with some of the elderly men lying helpless in hospitals and longing for someone to talk to.

★ ★ ★

It would be a most rewarding contribution and both parties would enjoy it. Lonely widowed men would find this a blessing, too. I hope this hint helps to start a little crusade. A. A. J.

★ ★ ★

DEAR POLLY — To repair rubber gloves, turn them wrong side out. Cut the sticky end from a plastic bandage to fit over the hole. Round off the corners and press down firmly to make a waterproof job that will last quite a while.

When I plant tiny seeds, I use a big comb to draw tiny rows on well-pulverized soil. After sprinkling on the seeds, comb lightly in the opposite direction to cover them. MRS. B. M. G.

New Members Are Welcomed

New members were welcomed and a lifetime membership presented at the Monday evening meeting at Roosevelt Temple of Areme Chapter No. 503 of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Initiated into the order were Mrs. Winford Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Byrd and Fred Wilder.

Worthy matron Mrs. Harry Eaton presented Mrs. William Vogel with a life membership in the Areme Chapter.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Victor Bodamer, Mrs. Carl Panky and Mrs. Ray Keith.

It's Bride's Choice

It's up to the bride to decide whether the wedding punch will be alcoholic or non-alcoholic.

Members of ESA Unit Hold First Breakfast

Guest speaker for the breakfast was Mrs. Joseph L. Bennett who spoke on "Bells at Home and Abroad."

Mrs. Bennett is a past director of the youth choir of Christ Church Cranbrook.

Michigan's ESA Girl of the Year, Mrs. Edgar Plympton gave the founders' day message and a resume of the chapter's philanthropic projects for the year.

The main project was the refurnishing of the day room for the women in the geriatrics ward at Pontiac State Hospital and was under chairmanship of Mrs. Plympton.

Also on the program were Mrs. L. L. Schiefler and Mrs. Donald Stone.

Use Family to Help Cut Wedding Costs

Consultant in Money Management

The season most favored for weddings is fast approaching. Much has been written, humorous and otherwise, about the way wedding costs mount up.

MARY FEELEY

A letter from a prospective bride asks for advice on handling this joyous, but sometimes bankrupting, occasion.

Dear Miss Feeley: I am being married in about two months. It will be a church wedding and small reception at my home. Since I must be careful about expenses, can you tell me some ways I can cut down on costs?

Rhoda, Richmond, Va.

Dear Rhoda: With the possible exception of the gown, the biggest expense the bride's family usually has is the cost of catering the reception. Why not enlist your family and relatives to prepare the food?

The average allowance for catering is from 35 to 40 per cent of the total wedding costs. You can certainly trim this amount if your relatives will do the job.

One of the nicest receptions I ever attended was truly a family affair. Every dish and platter — and there were plenty of them — had been prepared at home.

Such things as molded salads and sweets can actually be very inexpensive, yet look quite elegant. And somehow it all seems to have a more heart - warming atmosphere.

You might also check with your church to see if there are other weddings scheduled for the day you have set. Many brides arrange to share floral decorations — which can save enough to be worth while. And ask a friend to act as photographer.

Dear Miss Feeley: In a recent column you gave estimates of the life expectancy of certain household equipment, but not that of an electric range or refrigerator.

My refrigerator is over 13 years old and the range about 17 years old. I am in sad need of a range as it was over 4 years old when I got it.

Mrs. F. R. W., Orlando, Fla.

Dear Mrs. W.: That range has done pretty well, considering the fact that its life expectancy is only 16 years!

And that's based on being bought new and serving only one owner. So I'd say you've gotten your money's worth.

The refrigerator should hold up another three years, since its life expectancy, too, is 16 years, according to the National Electical Manufacturers Association.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mary Feeley: I'm planning to marry a man who is now paying $100 a week alimony. Fortunately he's making a good salary — $250 a week.

But I'm wondering if supporting two households will cramp his style so much that we'll get off to a bad start. What do you thing?

Maureen, New York City

Dear Maureen: If all the men who are paying alimony stayed single, we probably wouldn't have to worry about a population explosion.

Just stop thinking he's making $250 a week. As far as you both are concerned, he's making $150. Proceed on that basis.

Many a couple is living lovingly on that amount. Of course, if he's now enjoying some luxuries he'll have to cut out, he'll miss them. But no more, probably, than any other single man who decides to get married.

Ask yourself if you're really worrying over his attitude toward that alimony, or your own. Would you marry him on $150 a week if there were no previous marriage in the picture?

You can obtain Mary Feeley's budget saver leaflet by writing to her in care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed long envelope.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

There's something new on the permanent front! The other day in New York I had an interesting and pleasant experience at Michel Kazan's Salon where Mr. Philip gave me a permanent wave.

The new theory is to roll the hair for a permanent from the roots toward the ends instead of from the ends toward the roots.

This makes it possible to curl the rest of the hair without touching the ends. The ends are not rolled.

★ ★ ★

This has many advantages. It does away with that "waiting for a new permanent" period which is so trying since you do not have to wait for the old permanent to grow out.

You can have only the new growth waved. As you know, putting a permanent over a permanent often leads to brittle frizzed ends.

Mr. Philip was especially anxious to try this on me because I have very fine hair and have had one or two unfortunate experiences in the past with fuzzed ends.

This is a great idea for those women who have very fine hair. This is always a problem without a good permanent.

Churchmen May Renew Report Talk

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — United Presbyterians may resume debate today on a controversial report opposing prayer in public schools, Sunday closing laws and tax privileges for churches and clergymen.

★ ★ ★

In addition, the disputed removal of a minister as pastor-elect of a church in New York City was to be laid before the 175th Geenral Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

The assembly's 840 commissioners (delegates) yesterday voted to speed up the denomination's integration efforts and approved allocation of $500,000 to implement its efforts in the area of race relations.

The money went to a Special Commission on Religion and Race, which was included in the report by the Standing Committee on Christian Education.

★ ★ ★

The committee contended the United Presbyterian Church "has shown little evidence of concerted and serious efforts to close the gap between profession of intent and performance of duty" in regard to race relations.

Discussion on the church-state relations report, which was first drawn up a year ago and given to a committee for study, began yesterday.

When opposition developed in floor debate, assembly moderator Rev. Silas G. Kessler, Hastings, Neb., ordered a delay in discussion until all standing committees had reported.

This was not expected to be completed until sometime today.

See Slim Vote in Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Fewer than half of Pennsylvania's 5½ million registered voters were expected to cast ballots today in a primary election that has aroused little interest.

There was only one major contest. That was in Philadelphia, the state's largest city, where an independent threatened the Democratic organization's iron grip. There were other contests only in scattered localities.

The weather forecast called for partly cloudy to fair weather across the state, but no rain.

Some estimates of the turnout have been as low as 35 per cent of the state's registration of 5,402,739. There are 2,709,595 registered Democrats, 2,624,370 Republicans.

★ ★ ★

The only statewide contest is for two seats on the Superior Court, but there seems little voter interest in that.

The Philadelphia wrangle involves Democratic Sen. Joseph Clark and other state party leaders headed by Rep. William Green, chairman of the Philadelphia City Democratic Committee.

State Is Topic of Romney Talk for Press Club

LANSING (AP)—It being Michigan Week, Gov. George Romney says he plans to "talk about Michigan" in an appearance tomorrow before the National Press Club in Washington D.C.

"One thing I want to do is eliminate some of the misconceptions about Michigan, and acquaint those people with some things they may not be aware of," said the governor.

Romney said one of the "misconceptions" to which he referred is the belief, among some people, that Michigan is still in the midst of serious financial problems.

"I also may discuss state-federal relationships, and how a state can be more effective in carrying out its responsibilities," he said.

Homer Happy Orioles Blur Tigers' Vision, 6-0

Pappas Scores 4th Victory With 5 Hitter

Ex-Detroit Sandlot Pitcher Receives Help With 4 Homers

From Our News Wires

BALTIMORE — The Detroit Tigers had a little trouble with their night vision last night and with a home-town product by the name of Milt Pappas.

★ ★ ★

Pappas limited the Bengals to just five hits and shut them out behind the home run power of the Baltimore Orioles. The Orioles clubbed four home runs to power Pappas to a 6-0 shutout.

Pappas, the Detroit boy who was signed out of Cooley High School for a sizeable bonus, has now won four and lost none. Two of his victories have come via the shutout route. The other two have been one-run games.

And if that isn't enough, it was his 14th shutout in his career. He struck out seven Detroit batsmen and walked only three.

Detroit starter Phil Regan allowed four hits in the three innings he worked. Three of them were for the circuit.

SOLO BLAST

Jim Gentile opened the scoring with a solo homer—his eighth—leading off the second inning. After Boog Powell walked, Jackie Brandt clouted his sixth home run of the season and scored behind Powell.

In the third, Jerry Adair picked on another Regan offering and hit his second homer of the season. Powell singled to center later in the inning for the only other hit off Regan.

The Orioles scored their last two runs in the fifth off reliever Bob Anderson as Powell blasted his eighth of the year after Gentile had walked.

The Tigers stranded nine men.

Jake Wood opened the game by drawing a walk, and promptly stole second. Billy Bruton also walked. Pappas then got Al Kaline, Norm Cash and Rocky Colavito on flies to the outfield.

The Tigers put two men on base again in the fourth. Bill Freehan doubled with one away and moved to third on Dick McAuliffe's first single. Pappas struck out Don Wert and got pinch-hitter Frank Kostro to line out.

★ ★ ★

Detroit had three base runners from the fourth inning on.

Cash was ejected from the game in the eighth inning for kicking a baseball lying on the ground after a third strike.

Mickey Lolich was manager Bob Scheffing's choice for tonight's second game of the series. It will be Lolich's major league starting debut. Chuck Estrada was slated to start for the Orioles, who share first place in the American League with Chicago.

Western's Win Streak Ended by Michigan 9

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan scored all of its runs in the eighth inning and snapped Western Michigan's 15-game winning streak with a 3-0 baseball victory yesterday.

★ ★ ★

It was only the second loss of the season for Western, which has an 18-2 record. Michigan is 18-9. WMU has lost only eight games in the past two years—six of them to the Wolverines.

8 Prep Baseball Teams Set for County Tourney

Two possible invitees to the Pontiac Press Parks and Recreation Department's 1963 High School Invitational Baseball Tournament will clash Wednesday in a potential preview to next week's diamond affair.

Royal Oak Kimball, sailing along undefeated, will journey to Cranbrook for an afternoon clash. The Knights lead the Eastern Michigan League race with a 6-0 mark and have won nine straight.

Cranbrook is the winningest team in the county, boasting a 10-3 record. Right-handers John Billesdon and Dick Mosher have been a potent one-two punch both on the mound and at the plate.

★ ★ ★

This year's invitational baseball tournament is slated for May 30, 31 and June 1 on the Jaycee No. 2 diamond. Two doubleheaders are scheduled for the first day.

EIGHT TEAMS

Eight of the top high school nines in the county will be invited. The four first day losers will drop out. The four winners will collide in a twin bill the following day.

★ ★ ★

The two losers from it will play the third day in a consolation game and the finals are slated for the same night at 7:30 o'clock.

Tickets are presently on sale at the city Parks and Recreation Department or from managers of the Class A recreation baseball teams.

A $2 ticket is good for all eight games.

Final selection of the teams is anticipated later this week. Other potential entrants include Pontiac Northern and Pontiac Central high schools, plus winners in the Wayne-Oakland, Tri-County, Oakland A, Northwest Catholic and Inter-Lakes leagues.

Avon Softballers Start

The Avondale Area Church Softball League's opening games saw Memorial Baptist defeat Social Brethren, 5-2, and First Church of God pin a 9-7 loss on Pontiac RLDS.

Stan Jaworski was the winning pitcher for the Baptists and Warren Kennedy hurled for the First Church team.

Scoring Barrage Greets City Softball Hurlers

The Pontiac softball progam saw the hitters dominate the opening night's games while Waterford Township's Class B teams played according to form.

The city's biggest batting barrage took place between Berry Door and Buettner's Cleaners with the former taking a 15-10 win led by Jim Patrick's two solo home runs, and three-run blast by Basil Putman.

Motor Car Transport whipped Pontiac State Hospital, 9-4; G&M Construction took Bob & Larry's Bar, 9-5; and Local No. 653 topped First Church of Brethren, 10-2.

In Waterford Township, Lakeland Pharmacy took its fourth win in seven days, 7-3, over Westside Lanes; and Spencer floors won its third straight after an opening loss, 4-0, at the expense of Midget Bar.

Otto Jancik rapped out three singles and Gary Acker a triple and single in the MTC victory. Bill Donnel homered for the losing hospitalmen.

Dick Nichols also had a home run in a losing cause, an inside the park belt against G&M. Herb Morgan swatted a triple and two doubles for the winners.

Paul Miller had two doubles and scored three times in the union victory over First Church which managed only three hits off three pitchers.

The fifth inning produced the runs that gave Lakeland and Spencer their wins. The pharmacy team scored three times to break a 3-3 tie and Spencer tallied the only run Jerry Thomas needed on his two-out single. The latter pitched a three-hit shutout.

Tonight at Drayton Plains Softball Park, Lakeland will meet Haskins Chevrolet at 7 p.m. and A&W Root Beer will play Huron Bowl at 8:30 p.m. in Class C contests.

American League action in Pontiac tonight will have twin bills at Beaudette Park and at Northside, both beginning at 7 p.m.

Basketball Federation Claims Win Over AAU

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — The U.S. Basketball Federation has gained "a major break through and a victory for the entire federation movement," says Arthur C. Lonborg, federation president.

The International Amateur Basketball Federation decided Saturday in Rio De Janeiro that the basketball federation may sanction international games for its members if an agreement isn't reached with the Amateur Athletic Association by Jan. 1.

Previously, only the AAU had this sanctioning authority.

Pappas, Drott Are From Same School

By The Associated Press

Milt Pappas and Dick Drott pitch in two different worlds, but both are students of the same school.

★ ★ ★

Pappas, 24-year-old Baltimore right-hander who earned his Paul Richards diploma a few years back, and Drott, a 26-year-old Houston right-hander who graduated from the Paul Richards school only recently, came up with outstanding pitching performances Monday night.

Pappas limited Detroit to five hits, pitching Baltimore into a tie for the American League lead by blanking the Tigers 6-0. Drott checked Pittsburgh on the same amount of hits as Houston defeated the Pirates 2-0 in the only National League game scheduled.

In the other AL games, Chicago's White Sox moved up into the top spot with the Orioles by edging Washington 5-4, Minnesota dropped Boston from first to fourth by downing the Red Sox 6-5 and Cleveland whipped the Los Angeles Angels 7-5. New York and Kansas City were idle.

ERA NOW 1.7

Pappas, a Richards protege when the master manipulator of pitchers was manager at Baltimore, recorded his second shutout of the season and his fourth complete game in bringing his record to 4-0. He struck out seven and lowered his earned run average to an amazing 1.17.

Drott, a Richards reclamation project now that he's the Colts' general manager, surprised teacher even more, pitching his first compete game in 23 starts over four years—since June 14, 1959. And it followed by only three days the no-hitter pitched by Houston's Don Nottebart, still another Richards' pupil.

★ ★ ★

Lifted from the Chicago Cubs in the 1961 expansion draft, Drott has been trying to regain the form that made him a 15-game winner for the Cubs in 1957 and one of the league's most promising prospects. Under the Richards' method, he was brought along slowly and now has won two of his last three starts and brought his earned run average down to 1.80.

The Colts managed only four hits off Pittsburgh starter Don Cardwell in the seven innings he worked, but put together two for the only run they needed when Bob Aspromonte singled and Johnny Temple tripled in the fifth inning.

UNEARNED RUN

An unearned run came across in the seventh when Bob Lillis singled, stole second, continued to third on catcher Smoky Burgess' bad throw and scored on a sacrifice fly by John Bateman.

The White Sox scored the decisive runs in the sixth inning on a single by Floyd Robinson, Joe Cunningham's double and sacrifice flies by Dave Nicholson and Charlie Maxwell, but needed Jim Brosnan's 2 1-3 innings of tight relief pitching to subdue the Senators. Brosnan now has allowed only one earned run in 11 1-3 innings since he was acquired from Cincinnati two weeks ago.

★ ★ ★

A three-run homer by Earl Battey that capped a four-run first inning uprising and solo shots by Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew powered the Twins and dropped the Red Sox all the way down to fourth place. Reliever Bill Dailey retired the last seven men in order to preserve the triumph for Camilo Pascual, now 5-4.

★ ★ ★

Consecutive third inning homers by Willie Kirkland and Tito Francona gave the Indians a lead they never relinquished. Despite the addition of four unearned runs Cleveland had to hold on as Leon Wagner drove in five runs for Los Angeles with two homers. They were the 12th and 13th for the AL leader.

Huskies, Captains Suffer 1-0 Losses

An unearned run in the last of the seventh inning last night gave Berkley a 1-0 victory over Pontiac Northern and all but eliminated the Huskies from Inter-Lakes League title contention.

★ ★ ★

Bill Sharpe's soft line drive single to center drove in the winning run with two outs in the final inning.

A walk and then a throwing error on an infield roller put runners on first and second for the host Bears. The Huskies came up with a double play with Jim Melasko moving to third. Sharpe then ended the game with his single.

Dick Kakkuri overcame a rough start to hold PNH scoreless. The senior righthander lefteight Northern runners stranded in the first three innings. He fanned 15 while scattering five hits.

Roger Hayward was the losing pitcher. He yielded four hits and struckout seven.

Three sparkling defensive plays by the PNH outfield kept the Bears from scoring before the seventh. Wayne Daniels speared a long drive just as it was going over the fence.

OUT AT HOME

Jim DeFlorio and Mike Burklow threw out runners trying to score from third after fly balls.

The victory gave Berkley a 7-0 league record. Northern is second with a 5-2 mark. Both losses were to Berkley.

Northern hosts Southfield and Berkley is at Waterford this afternoon.

Kettering's slim chance for a Tri-County League tie with Romeo became a thing of the past yesterday as L'Anse Creuse beat the Captains 1-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Ed Stivers.

Romeo, which has clinched a tie for the championship, got one-hit pitching from Keith Simunik in a 7-1 non-league win over Oxford. Rochester, the only team with a chance to catch Romeo, was idle.

Stivers' wrong field double just inside the left field line in the fourth inning drove in the game's only run. He fanned nine and walked one.

Bob Bogert pitched his best game for Kettering, yielding four hits, striking out nine and not walking a batter.

Kettering missed three scoring opportunities.

Rick Pankey was out on a close play trying to steal home in fourth. The Captains had runners on first and third with one out in the sixth and had a runner on second with none out in the seventh.

Simunik put Romeo in front 1-0 with a homer in the fifth. The Bulldogs broke lose for six hits and six runs in the sixth to clinch their eighth win in nine games.

Team Plane Troubled

MILWAUKEE (AP) — No one was injured when a chartered plane carrying the Cincinnati Reds baseball team from St. Louis to Milwaukee made a forced landing at Chicago's O'Hare Airport Monday after developing engine trouble.

Clarkston, Milford, Anchor Bay Win

Barons Triumph, 1-0

Bloomfield won its biggest game of the season yesterday.

The Barons defeated host Northville 1-0 to move within striking range of the Wayne-Oakland League baseball championship.

★ ★ ★

The victory gave the Barons a 10-2 record and a one and a half game bulge over the Mustangs (8-3). The Hills needs one more victory to clinch a tie for the crown and can take it outright by winning the last two.

Clarkston (7-3) moved to within a half game of Northville and kept its slim title hope alive by downing Clarenceville 9-1. Milford tripped West Bloomfield 4-1.

Anchor Bay moved into a tie for first place in the Southern Thumb by defeating Capac 1-0 as Dennis Folan hurled a one-hitter.

Dick Janz doubled home Marshall Sherba with Bloomfield's winning run in the fourth inning. Sherba had led off with a single and was sacrificed to second by Bruce Perkins.

Winning pitcher John Augusten yielded six hits and walked four, but he was tough in the clutch.

PUT OUT FIRES

Northville put runners on second and third with none out in the sixth and Augusten struckout the next three batters.

Eric Peterson allowed the Barons only four hits and fanned six.

Clarkston scored four runs in the first inning to pull away from the Trojans in a hurry. Ken Miskin had a double and single, Dave Haviland a pair of RBI singles and John Gary a triple and two RBI for the Wolves.

★ ★ ★

Johnny Williams scattered nine hits to get the win.

Four West Bloomfield errors gave Milford two first inning runs and the Redskins added two more in the third with Randy Clinard's double being the big blow.

Duke Peterson yielded the Lakers three hits and fanned seven.

Folan won his own game against Capac by doubling in the only run in the sixth inning. He fanned 15 Capac batters and walked one. It was the second straight shutout suffered by the Chiefs in league play.

Folan allowed only two balls to be hit out of the infield, one a first inning single by losing pitcher Dan Petz. Anchor Bay and New Haven are 5-1 in league play with one game to play. Capac finished loop action at 5-3.

The Chieftains won a non-league night game at home 4-3 against Port Huron St. Stephens. Petz was the winning pitcher in relief.

Capac won with two runs in the last of the seventh. John Staniloui's double drove in both runs.

THE CHAMPIONS — The Twin Pines team scored what they may call a "dairy delight" over the weekend when they captured the first Bowling Proprietors of Oakland County-sponsored Champion of Champions Team Tournament at Wonderland Lanes. Posting the winning 3,149 handicap total were (left to right) Clyde Ickes, Bill Benjamin, Bob Servo, Bill Kane and Harold Walker. Dairy Team Tournament Champions

By JERE CRAIG

Twin Pines experienced a financial windfall over the weekend but it is one in which all the employes won't share.

The dairy's bowling team in the 850 House League at Wonderland Lanes capped its most successful season by winning the first Champion of Champions Team Tournament on the "home" lanes.

The victory was worth $1,000 to the five-man entry that posted its winning handicap total (3,149) Saturday night and then had to sweat out the challenge of Tom's Hardware Sunday afternoon.

The Sylvan Lanes' qualifier made a strong run at the first prize but came up 53 pins shy after the final frame of the third game, putting it in third place, but good for $400.

The sponsoring Bowling Proprietors of Oakland County presented the winners with individual trophies and awarded a travelling trophy to the establishment represented by the winning team.

SUCCESS

A total of 332 entries participated in the first team championships for the $5,000 prize fund.

The top three teams from each sanctioned league of member houses could enter the competition. Rolloffs held at each establishment determined the qualifiers for last weekend's finals at Wonderland.

★ ★ ★

Another group member will stage next year's finals.

Men's teams received 70 per cent of 200 scratch and women's squads were awarded 80 per cent handicaps.

Leading the six female qualifiers in the finals was the C&C Sanitation entry which finished 17th with the help of Pat Porritt's 247 actual, tops among women.

Twin Pines had a "double billed" attack led by the 610s of Bill Kane and Bill Benjamin. A 276 handicap helped the champions overcome the 3,031 actual score rolled by 300 Bowl No. 1, the team that captured the $600 second-place money.

The winners' five-man combination completed its third year together by winning their first league championship and then capturing the county team title.

Porsche Cars Will Not Enter in Grand Prix

STUTTGART, Germany (AP) — The Porsche automobile factory announced today it will not enter any formula one cars in Grand Prix races this year.

The firm's recent decision to produce its own bodies for its production models has resulted in additional strain on personnel and finances and has made the temporary suspension necessary, the announcement said.

DEKALB, Ill. (AP)—Northern Illinois University named former Iowa star athlete, Everett Cochrane, as head basketball coach Monday.

Minute of Silence for Grid Star

Elmira Schools Pay Tribute to Davis

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP) —Team athletics, the center of the late Ernie Davis' life after he moved here 11 years ago, came to a one-day halt at the city's three high schools today in tribute to him.

The body of the former Syracuse University halfback, who was a two-time All-America and the nation's finest collegiate football player of 1961, laid in state at the Neighborhood House. Davis played basketball in the building before entering Elmira Free Academy.

★ ★ ★

Pupils at the academy observed a minute of silence Monday in memory of Davis, who died Saturday in Cleveland of acute leukemia. He was 23.

Flags at school and city buildings were flown at half-staff. A committee was organized to plan a memorial to Davis.

Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson, in a telegram, said:

"The untimely passing of Ernie Davis is one of those tragedies that leave us silent with grief and heartache. I know that Gov. Rockefeller shared the pride of all New Yorkers in that gallant and brilliant young man. In his name and my own, personally and on behalf of the people of the State of New York, I extend deepest sympathy to his family and his legion of friends."

Rockefeller currently is honeymooning.

FUNERAL SITE

The site of the funeral Wednesday was changed from Monumental Baptist Church to the larger First Baptist Church, in anticipation of the large number expected to attend. First Baptist has a capacity of about 900.

★ ★ ★

Six of Davis' football teammates at the Academy were chosen to be pallbearers.

Honorary bearers will include fullback Jimmy Brown, another Syracuse All-America now starring with the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League; other members of the Browns, and Syracuse coach Ben Schwartzwalder.

★ ★ ★

Davis signed a three-year, $80,000 contract with the Browns, but never played for them. The leukemia was discovered last summer.

Cup Boat Unnamed

GLASCOW, Scotland (AP) — Britain's as yet unnamed challenger for the next America's Cup yacht race is nearing its last stage of building at Holy Loch. The hull is finished and deck laying has started.

Rochester Is Track Winner

Despite 27½ points scored by two runners, Troy still lost a 63-47 track meet to Rochester yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Ken Holder won the broad jump in 20-feet-11½; the 100 dash in 10.5; the 220 in 23.0 and ran a leg of the 880 relay for 16¼ points.

Bill Muir was first in the high and low hurdles in 16.5 and 21.8 and was also part of the 880 relay for 11¼ points.

★ ★ ★

Rochester took only five firsts and a tie for one, but won with better depth.

In the conclusion of the Marysville relays which were partially rained out last week, Romeo finished 5th with Larry Bozyk winning the 880 and Bill Savage the 440.

★ ★ ★

Walled Lake won a close decision over Redford, 57-52, with Steve Pitcher going 19-3 in the broad jump and 11-6 in the pole vault. Bob Wozniak won the high and low hurdles and the Vikings won the mile relay to clinch it.

Look at the record...

FORD'S WAY OUT FRONT IN PERFORMANCE AND DURABILITY!

Ford's the one to watch this year! The record proves today's great Super Torque Ford is certain to be a better car for the kind of driving you do every day. It's a standout road car!

Performance and durability make a combination that's hard to beat. Mechanical failure forced some pretty hot performers to quit at Riverside . . . Daytona . . . Atlanta . . . Bristol. Fords won them all—proving it takes more than speed and acceleration. It takes durability, too. Open competition is a speeded-up test program. It tests brakes . . . suspension . . . cornering . . . steering . . . roadability. It tests total performance. And Ford delivers—not only in competition, but in your kind of driving, too. See your Ford Dealer for the proof—sample total performance for yourself.

Riverside, Calif. A '63 Super Torque Ford crossed the finish line first in a field of 40 cars. This 500-mile event is run over a twisting, turning 2.7-mile sports-car track.

Daytona, Fla. In the toughest 500-mile event of the season, Fords came in 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th. Over half the starters in a field of 50 at Daytona never even finished.

Atlanta, Ga. Score another big win for Ford in open competition—the Atlanta 500. Atlanta's 500 miles equal, roughly, the wear and tear of 100,000 miles of ordinary driving.

Bristol, Tenn. This 250-mile event on a half-mile track is one long, continuous left turn. Fords finished 1st and 2nd—another dramatic victory for total performance.

Sugar Continues Strong

Blue Chips Recover on Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Continued strength in sugar shares and a recovery in blue chips accompanied an irregular stock market rise early Tuesday afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among most key stocks. Wider movements occurred among some of the sugars and selected issues.

The sugars resumed their strong rally based on leaping prices, but some gains were shaded by profit taking.

TIDE SHIFTS

As the stock market tide began to shift once again, the "resting" blue chips which have been neglected recently as more exciting issues won buying favor, began to perk up. Simultaneously, some of the volatile gainers among secondary issues were clipped by profit taking.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were irregularly higher in moderately active trading.

Bonds Open Steady and Mixed

NEW YORK (AP) — Bond prices were steady to narrowly mixed at the opening today.

Over the counter dealers in U.S. government securities said most issues were unchanged from yesterday's close. Trading was extremely light.

Government prices have declined slowly in the last two sessions, mostly on increased talk of higher interest rates.

★ ★ ★

Rails were the most active section in early corporate trading on the New York Stock Exchange. However, prices were irregular.

Farmers Vote on Wheat Plan

U.S. Farm Program and Cost at Stake

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's decision day in the great wheat plan controversy.

After weeks of hot debate, record numbers of farmers — possibly more than 1.5 million — are expected to vote today on a plan to curb wheat production.

★ ★ ★

Their decision may cast the future of government farm programs and their costs.

In a nutshell, the question is whether wheat farmers want rigid controls and high price supports or no controls and low price supports.

And the referendum's outcome, after the biggest campaign ever waged among farmers, was expected to have widespread economic and political repercussions.

★ ★ ★

Reports from the wheat areas indicated a close vote. Neither the plan's proponents nor opponents would predict the result as the zero hour approached.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps overshadowing the wheat proposal itself is the overall question of whether the federal government should plunge deeper into the business of farming or pull away, leaving a more free competitive market system.

SHARP WATCH

Watching today's balloting with sharp interest were President Kennedy, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and other administration leaders, as well as leaders of the major farm and grain trade organizations.

★ ★ ★

In the referendum, wheat farmers were asked "yes" or "no" on whether they approved the administration plan designed to halt costly overproduction of wheat.

At least two-thirds of those voting must approve for the plan to become effective for the 1964 crop.

May Wheat Futures Move Strong, Weak

CHICAGO (AP) — Short covering and liquidation drove the May wheat future over a broad price range from strong to weak today in early activity on the board of trade. All other contracts shifted mostly within a small fractional range.

★ ★ ★

The activity in all commodities consisted largely of balancing commitments in the May contracts. It was the final day of trading in them.

May wheat started off as much as three cents a bushel higher but fell back rapidly when offerings increased.

All the advance had been lost within a half hour or so.

Bearish government reports on inspections last week for export and the crush for April induced further selling the soybean pit.

Big Problems at Stake

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—More is at stake in the tariff battle between the United States and the Common Market than an American-French clash over formulas for duty cutting.

DAWSON

Two of Washington's biggest problems—loss of gold and unemployment—are involved.

Washington has tied its efforts to spur U.S. exports to its plan for wide tariff cuts—up to 50 per cent across-the-board—and the Common Market regards this coolly.

The United States needs greater export totals to combat its currently increasing balance of payments deficit and loss of gold reserves, and also to spur industrial output at home and thus create more jobs.

At Geneva the six European countries in the Common Market gave some ground Monday. They agreed to American demands for across-the-board tariff cuts —but only if the United States will accept an automatic formula for adjusting any gaps between high American tariffs and lower European ones. They said nothing about other instances where European tariffs on certain items are higher than American ones.

HARD TIME

Washington will have a hard time convincing many U.S. industries that this protection should be slashed while the gate to European markets is opened to a less degree. A number of industries, such as steel, are clamoring at the moment for still higher protection against what they call European or Japanese dumping.

★ ★ ★

Some have dubbed this a rise in protection sentiment here, reversing the big swing to freer trade last year when Congress gave President Kennedy unprecedented power to negotiate tariff cuts running as high as 50 per cent.

Others have reported a rising protectionist tide in Europe, notably in the Common Market and especially in France.

SPUR PRODUCTION

The thinking behind the U.S. Trade Expansion Act of 1962 was that a general lowering of trade barriers around the world would allow American industrial efficiency to increase U.S. exports greatly. This would spur production here and add to the economic growth sought as a means of whittling down the 5.7 per cent rate of unemployment.

The exports also would bring in more dollars. And they are needed if the United States is to combat its deficit in international payments, which in April increased to an anual rate of $3.3 million, compared with $2.2 billion in 1962.

No Change in Edge as Recount Opens

LANSING (AP)—A recount of the vote by which Michigan appeared to have adopted a new constitution last month was started today, and first reports showed no change in the margin.

The State Elections Office reported that a recheck of 13 scattered precincts in Genesee, Arenac, Charlevoix and Clinton counties resulted in a loss of three "yes" and three "no" votes.

Special teams of canvassers blanketed the state to conduct the recount of 1,969 precincts in 77 counties. The canvass is expected to require about three weeks, unless it is called off before it is completed.

Voters ratified the revived constitution in the April 1 election by a margin of 7,829 votes, according to the official canvass.

But the Democratic party — after waging a vigorous campaign against adoption — filed for a recount of 1,891 of the state's 5,209 precincts.

MORE ADDED

Another 78 precincts were added to the total in petitions filed by the coordinating committee for the new constitution, representing 20 nonpartisan groups supporting the revised document.

★ ★ ★

Both sides posted $5 for each precinct they asked to be rechecked — with the Democrats putting up $9,455 and the committee $390. Election officials have estimated the actual cost to be about $50 per precinct.

If the official vote is overturned by the recount, the Democrats will get their money back.

The coordinating committee would receive a refund if the vote stands, and if its request is officially regarded as a counterpetition. This point has not yet been decided, officials said.

★ ★ ★

Seventy - two attorneys have been sworn in as special assistant attorneys general by Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley to supervise the operation in 19 counties where the recount is expected to be complicated by absentee ballots in machine precincts. Four teams have been assigned to Wayne County alone.

SUPERVISORS

Recounting in five groups of outstate counties will be supervised by the state elections division staff, moving from one county to another.

Volunteers for the Democratic party and the coordinating committee will be allowed to watch the recount in each precinct.

The committee announced that it also was setting up a recount information center in Lansing to be named by volunteers, most of whom are members of the Michigan Council of Churches, the League of Women Voters, the Michigan Farm Bureau or the Michigan Education Association.

Duel Rages on Plaine in Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Neutralist and pro-Communist Pathet Lao forces are dueling heavily on the Plaine des Jarres with mortars and artillery, informed sources said today.

The informants said the shelling intensified yesterday after six days of sporadic action and continued late this afternoon. At one time, one round was reported fired every minute for 85 consecutive minutes.

One of Gen. Kong Le's neutralist officers was quoted as saying Pathet Lao troops tried to occupy a neutralist position near Xieng Khouang, a leftist-held provincial capital, but were beaten back.

The leftist voice of Laos Radio declared in a dispatch relayed by Radio Peking that Kong Le's neutralists and rightists troops of Gen. Phoumi Nosavan heavily bombarded Xieng Khouang at the weekend, but were repulsed Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Now, it said, "the reactionaries" are bombing Lat Houang, Phong Savan and Khang Khay.

Khang Khay is the headquarters of the Pathet Lao and field office of deputy Premier Prince Souphanouvong, who represents the pro-Communist faction in Laos' coalition government.

Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma, neutralist half-brother of Souphanouvong, told newsmen that violent fighting erupted Sunday in the Lat Bouac region, about 10 miles northeast of the Plaine.

During the weekend, informed sources here reported that there had been sporadic exchanges of mortar fire on the Plaine, but that neither side had made any attempt to advance from their present positions.

News in Brief

An electric range, vent fan and miscellaneous other items of undetermined value were reported stolen yesterday from a model home at 5043 Ridge Top, Waterford Township.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I would like to know something about margin buying. Why do brokers charge interest on unpaid balances, and why do they pay nothing when they use your stocks to cover short sales of others?" R. D.

A) If you will allow me, I will answer the first part of your letter by asking you a question. Aside from a close friend or relative, do you know of any source where you can borrow money without paying interest? When you buy on margin, the broker must put up 50 per cent of your purchase price—the money coming either from bank loans on which interest must be paid, or from his own capital which might be employed profitably elsewhere.

Now for the last half of your question. It is a fact that when you open a margin account the broker expects you to sign a card which gives him the right to lend your margined stock. If he does so, he makes no charge to the short account and so makes no payment to you.

Q) "I am fifteen years old and a sophomore in high school. I have accumulated $250 which I would like to invest in something which will grow and help me toward a college education. My parents have given their consent. What would you suggest?" D. B.

A) It is a considerable pleasure to advise a young and ambitious person like yourself, who has definite plans for the future.

In most instances, because minimum charges are relatively large, I suggest that investment of moderate sums like yours be deferred until at least $500 is accumulated. In your case however, I do not believe that the commission charge is important at your age and with long-range plan.

I advise you to invest your $250 in 6 shares of Consolidated Foods, a relatively safe situation yielding 3 per cent, with earnings showing expansion partly because of wider distribution of Sara Lee products.

Firm Will Pay Stock Dividend

The Michigan Seamless Tube Co. of South Lyon has announced payment of dividends in the amount of 25 cents per share to stockholders of record on May 6.

Net sales of $13,638,111 were reported by company president William A. McHattie for the first half of the current fiscal year ending April 30.

This represents a slight increase over the same period one year ago, he said.

Second quarter earnings were $368,740, or 23 per cent higher than the first quarter of the current fiscal year.

This represents a 10 cent increase in earnings per share, McHattie noted.

Healthy Man Gets Oxygen on the Hoof

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

A Saskatchewan man writes: "I have been following your advice to do more walking to improve one's health. As you suggest approximately three miles a day, I have been doing two miles on the hoof first thing every morning, and another mile in the course of the day. After three months of this I am amazed at the results:

1. Eat and sleep better.
2. Pains around knees all gone.
3. Fewer coughs and colds than for many winters past.
4. Helps reduce excess weight and keep trim.
5. Mind clearer, able to think out matters that pose problems.

"Following the initial two miles, which I can do comfortably in half an hour, I experience a feeling of exhilaration to face the new day and its problems.

"I am middle-aged and live in Saskatchewan, Canada, where the mercury sometimes drops to 30 below zero in winter, but so far have managed to get in my daily walk in spite of the cold weather. Today it was 24 below. I wear a sheepskin coat, Balaclava (woolen head cover, and fur cap, and enjoy every step of the way.

"I might add that my diet is almost entirely vegetarian, and I never eat pork.

"More power to your pen, and keep up the good work."

(Signed) .....

In Little Lesson 16, "The 7 Keys to Vite," (for which send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope), I say:

"Rain, shine, snow or blow, a fair day's ration of exercise for adults who wish to keep fit is two miles of oxygen on the hoof three times a day or six miles in one dose."

It's like getting your ODR (optimal daily ration) of "candy" (Ca and D) to prevent or, if taken in time and the year around, perhaps cure rheumatiz, osteoporosis, allergy, nocturnal leg cramps, asthma, hay fever, eczema, urticaria, angioneurotic edema, periodic sick headache (migraine) or what have you.

* * *

Makes no difference whether you get your "candy" three times a day or once a day, as long as you get it. Ca and D is not medicine. It is merely one of the essentials of good nutrition which our ultrarefined American diet generally fails to provide, in most instances because we try to worry along on less than 1½ pints of milk a day.

ENJOY BENEFITS

A good many readers who have developed or acquired the habit of walking enjoy the benefits described by the Saskatchewan man. One young woman says quite casually:

"My husband is 36 now and I am 29. Until about 2½ years ago, we did not take much care of ourselves physically. We were both overweight. By sensible dieting and daily walking my husband has lost 200 pounds and I have lost 100 pounds.

* * *

"The only pills we took were calcium capsules and iodin . . . We benefit daily from your column and feel that the many things we learn have added years to our lives. The only exercise we get is about 5 miles of oxygen on the hoof every day. We never knew walking could be so enjoyable."

Yes, indeed, I think I'd doubt the authenticity of the young woman's letter myself, but I have the letter here, with the writer's name and address. It is contrary to my religious principles to reveal the identity of a correspondent without his or her written permission. So you'll have to take it or leave it.

The 50-mile hike may be a suitable test of a soldier's fitness, but it is hardly the way for civilians, particularly those who do no honest work or play, to get publicity.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

In a recent duplicate every South player became declarer at one spade after the "stirring" bidding shown in the box.

JACOBY

The worst player in the group received a three of hearts lead. He went up with the ten in dummy and led a spade to his ace. When the jack dropped he continued with a low spade to drop West's king. Then it was no problem to make four odd for a top score.

When asked about his trump play he replied, "I never finesse at low contracts."

The best player managed to make only seven tricks for a bottom score.

The deuce of clubs was opened against him and he dropped the king under the ace in order to manufacture an extra entry to dummy. This allowed him to finesse both the ten and queen of spades and to lose both. Later he had to lose tricks to the nine of trumps and jack of hearts.

In case any of you readers plan to follow the dub's winning strategy my advice is, "Don't."

The expert really gave the hand a fine play and the dub, after gaining a trick on the opening lead, played the hand badly. The cards don't always lie the way they should and bridge plays are based on percentage. If you use the best line you won't gain tricks every time, but over the years you will make many more tricks than if you go against percentage.

Count Begins on New-Con

The recount of the April 1 vote on the new state constitution in 206 Oakland County precincts was to begin today in Farmington or Farmington Township after a morning meeting of officials and recount workers.

★ ★ ★

County Clerk - Register Daniel T. Murphy said he hoped to get approval from representatives of the State Board of Canvassers to have two recount teams working at the same time, one with each of two state representatives to be on hand.

★ ★ ★

Murphy said the recount in the City of Farmington would be at 1:30 p.m. today in conjunction with a local recount in the city.

He added that the recount would begin before that in Farmington Township if there was time after this morning's meeting.

Murphy said the county's three-member board of canvassers would not go to Farmington, but would begin the recount in four Birmingham and Bloomfield Township absentee ballot - counting precincts with a second team of recount workers if state recount officials accepted his two-team suggestion.

★ ★ ★

Murphy said the recount could be completed much faster with two teams.

He had predicted 15 days for the recount in the county, but said yesterday that rules received from the state canvassing board called for an unexpected volume of paperwork and he was no longer sure of his 15-day prediction.

A tentative schedule prepared by Murphy's office will take a recount team to Madison Heights at 9 a.m. tomorrow when a recount in a local judgeship race is scheduled.

The team would then go to Southfield and Royal Oak, according to the tentative schedule.

For Free Lots

City to Consider Parking Funds

A public hearing on an amendment to provide city funds for free parking on downtown municipal parking lots through June 30 will be held at tonight's City Commission meeting at 8.

★ ★ ★

The amendment to the 1963 appropriation ordinance is necessary because no provision was included in the 1963 city budget for appropriating general funds for free parking after April 30.

The budget was adopted in January.

★ ★ ★

Free parking on downtown metered lots will cost $13,625 for three months. The city is paying $8,625 of the cost and the remaining $5,000 is paid by the Downtown Pontiac Business Association.

The money goes toward retiring bonds which were originally sold to finance construction of the lots.

Other matters on the lengthy agenda include two leases of Pontiac Municipal Airport property which are up for renewal.

★ ★ ★

One is the annual lease to the federal government covering space in the airport terminal building used by the Federal Aviation Agency.

The other is a five-year lease to Maynard and Alicia V. Easley covering a lot at the airport.

OTHER ACTION

Action may also be taken on an amendment to a lease with Detroit Edison Co. involving the relocation of an Edison substation at the new water plant site.

City Manager Robert A. Stierer will report on bids received for mobile food, beverages and ice cream concessions at City parks this summer.

Stierer will also report on plans for groundbreaking ceremonies for the perimeter road to be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Up for adoption will be ordinances controling pedestrian traffic on public highways and regulating the installation of wires, cables, conduits and water and gas pipes.

Public hearings are slated on special assessment rolls for 15 proposed black-top projects. A hearing will also be held on the city's plans for black topping part of Mohawk.

Action is also slated on a request for tentative approval to move the Bicmar Bar, 94 W. Huron, 60 feet north of its present location to allow for perimeter road right-of-way.

The commission will also get a recommendation from the planning commission calling for rezoning from residential to either commercial or manufacturing a land parcel bounded by Oakland, West Boulevard, Kennett and the Belt Line Railroad.

The land is owned by the county.

Citizen Participation Drive Launched by GOP Group

A group of Republicans last night launched a drive to infuse new life and leadership into the Oakland County GOP by building a strong organization on "year-around citizen participation" in the home legislative district of Gov. George Romney.

★ ★ ★

At an unofficial caucus of the county's 3rd Legisltive District in Birmingham, some 75 Republicans accepted a study committee report recommending organizational changes to give citizens a voice in party affairs between elections.

District GOP Director Robert Lowry immediately put the report's proposals into effect as the first steps in what he says is "the kind of citizen participation Romney is advocating."

Lowry appointed a committee to "canvass the field of possible candidates for the principal public offices" and "encourage able and qualified people to run." He named Birmingham patent attorney Dale Winnie as chairman.

COUNCIL PLANNED

Lowry also announced that a "district council" proposed to give citizens a voice in the district organization's affairs would have 24 members, 16 to be appointed by Lowry and eight to be elected at the next caucus.

A second such caucus is tentatively scheduled within three months, said Lowry, who hopes to "keep people interested in what their government is doing" between elections and "give citizens more control" over their legislators and officials through organization.

He hopes to bring 3rd District State Rep. Henry M. Hogan Jr., R-Bloomfield Township, and State Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, back for a return appearance.

Hogan and Roberts last night gave a report on the 1963 legislative session and answered questions about their votes and stands on a number of issues.

Among other changes by Lowry and his supporters are creation of new district organization posts to be filled with party members backing their drive to "bring new people into politics" and continue carrying out the philosophy of citizen participation after elections are over.

Ex-Con Mute at Arraignment

A 31-year-old ex-convict who admitted clubbing his estranged wife to death with a 22-caliber rifle in Southfield stood mute yesterday at his Oakland County Circuit Court arraignment on a first-degree murder charge.

James Butler was ordered held for trial in the Oakland County jail by Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore.

★ ★ ★

Butler is accused of beating his wife, Virginia, 23, with a rifle until the weapon splintered in his hands. The couple lived at 28493 Brentwood.

He surrendered to police without resistance after carrying his wife's body back into the house.

Pleads Guilty to Armed Theft of 2 Markets

Gerald Quick, 22, of 3369 Rockhaven, Avon Township, yesterday pleaded guilty in Oakland County Circuit Court to armed robbery.

Quick was accused of holdups at two markets, one in Pontiac Township and one in Troy, within two hours May 13.

★ ★ ★

He was arrested a few hours after the second robbery, at Holdsworth Market, 2653 Auburn, Pontiac Township.

★ ★ ★

Quick also admitted a holdup earlier of Paul and Irma's Market, 6975 Livernois, Troy.

Curcuit Judge Arthur E. Moore scheduled sentencing for June 18.

BIG HALL, LONG HAUL — The 3,500-ton Woodrow Wilson Hall at Princeton University gets under way to its new site 300 feet away with 60 workmen in attendance yesterday. Mounted on 12 thick steel tracks, which in turn, are mounted on roller bearings, the L-shaped structure moves along five feet at a time. The operation was completed in 13 hours.

To Discriminatory Programs

Hart: U.S. Should Withhold Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., piloting the first of the administration's civil rights proposals into a congressional storm, said today the government should withhold federal funds from programs marked by racial discrimination.

Hart's remarks were in testimony prepared for the start of hearings by the Senate Constitutional Rights subcommittee on legislation to extend the life of the federal Civil Rights Commission and widen its authority.

Subcommittee chairman Sam J. Ervin, D-N.C., in a prepared statement of his own, denounced as "ridiculous" and unconstitutional a commission recommendation he said suggests that President Kennedy "explore the legal authority he possesses as Chief Executive to withhold federal funds from the State of Mississippi."

★ ★ ★

Ervin called the commission a biased agency and said it should be allowed to expire as scheduled next Nov. 30, along with the act creating it. "There is no reason," he said, "to extend a life already too long."

CHIEF SPONSOR

Hart is chief sponsor of the bill based on President Kennedy's civil rights message to Congress. The measure would extend the commission's life for four years, give it new authority to provide technical assistance and establish a "clearing house of information" to help eliminate racial segregation.

★ ★ ★

The bill represents one part of the administration civil rights program, and is the first to be called up for Senate hearings this session.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., a top strategist for a rival Republican-sponsored measure to give the commission permanent authority, praised the panel's work in a prepared statement.

Javits termed the commission's recommendations to Congress and the White House "landmarks in U.S. governmental history" and said it should be made permanent rather than "living on borrowed time."

★ ★ ★

Both Hart and Javits pointed to recent racial troubles in Birmingham, Ala., as evidence of a continuing need for the agency.

QUOTES RECOMMENDATION

Hart quoted a commission recommendation that Congress and the President should "consider seriously whether legislation is appropriate and desirable to assure that federal funds . . . not be made available to any state which continues to refuse to abide the constitution and laws of the United States . . ."

Hart said this placed squarely before Congress the question "shall the federal government, through grants and loans of its funds, continue to support patterns of racial discrimination throughout this country?"

Javits said "racial strife in Birmingham . . . illustrates all too vividly how unwilling, and justifiably unwilling, is the Negro community of our nation to endure any longer the denial of their constitutional rights and second class citizenship."

Hart said history might have been changed if Congress had created the commission 16 years ago.

"If Birmingham teaches us anything," he said, "it illustrates what happens in a community when the lines of communication between the races fail and what happens when a sizeable portion happens when a sizable portion of American citizens are frustrated beyond the breaking point in their efforts to exercise the most basic rights of citizenship . . .

"Time ran out in Birmingham. It is clear that there is no moment when the nation can again say 'wait' to the American Negro in his effort to achieve his rights."

Navy Holds Closed Talk on Thresher

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (UPI) — The Navy court of inquiry investigating the Thresher disaster met behind closed doors today after examining 15 photographs of debris that could be from the lost nuclear - attack submarine.

★ ★ ★

At sea 220 miles off Cape Cod, the Atlantis II, a research ship from the Woods Hole, Mass., Oceanographic Institution that took the photos, rejoined a flotilla of Navy and research ships making a yard-by-yard search of a 300-yard area near where the Thresher was lost.

It was in this area that Atlantis, equipped with special underwater cameras, took the pictures of the ocean debris.

The Navy in Washington said last week that the photos, while not conclusive in themselves, showed debris "enough to be the missing sub."

★ ★ ★

The investigators here did not say whether they believed the pictures were those of parts of the Thresher's hull.

During yesterday's session, the court also reviewed testimony given previously by Navy officers and personnel of the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard where Thresher was built and overhauled just before her fatal dive.

With hopes pinned on the photographs, the Navy postponed for at least nine days the planned scuttling of the obsolete World War II submarine Toro near where the Thresher was lost.

★ ★ ★

By following the underwater course of Toro, the Navy hoped it might yield clues as to the whereabouts of Thresher. It also would give scientists an example of the kind of sonar "pings" received from a sunken submarine at such great depths.

British Guiana Police Chase Striker Bands

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Police firing tear gas bombs Monday chased roving bands of strikers who stormed the downtown shopping district and forced stores and theaters to close.

★ ★ ★

The demonstrations came while the legislative assembly debated Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan's request for extension of the state of emergency proclaimed by his leftist government.

Volunteer Tutors to Be Sought at OU

Student volunteers for a unique tutoring program will be sought Thursday in an organizational meeting at Oakland University.

★ ★ ★

Three Oakland University students and two OU graduates have announced plans to organize a local unit of the Northern Student Movement (NSM), the brainchild of a Yale University student.

The NSM, which has 2,200 members on 50 college campuses, provides help for high school students who lack the skill or incentive to succeed in school.

The Oakland group was planned by Karen Peterson, 21, of 2704 Winkleman; Thomas Maile, 20, of 935 Dedham, Bloomfield Hills; Robert Surovell, 18, of Virginia; and Robert Devlin, 22, both of Royal Oak and each an April graduate.

★ ★ ★

The OU volunteers will work with Detroit high schools and will conduct tutorial sessions 7-9 p. m. during the week and on Saturday afternoons.

Named Chairman of Liquor Control

LANSING (UPI) — Donald S. Leonard, former Michigan state and Detroit police commissioner, has been named chairman of the State Liquor Control Commission.

★ ★ ★

Leonard was named to the five-member commission by Gov. George Romney.

The bipartisan commission supervises the issuance of licenses and control of the state's liquor laws. The post pays $12,500 a year starting July 1.

School Days Were Tough for Touring Brenda Lee

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—It's Sweet Girl Graduate time—and Brenda Lee, 19, recently married, a cafe star, a globetrotter who's been in 23 countries, will be doing the cap-and-gown routine . . . at the Hollywood Professional School.

WILSON

If you had trouble getting through high school—who didn't?—consider Brenda.

"I did my homework on jets crossing the ocean . . . In Paris, going to the American High School outside the city, I wanted to be grown up and always rode a bus . . . and got lost . . .

"In Hollywood, it was a little ridiculous when I was making a film. My schoolroom was a dressing room.

"The teacher taught me . . . a high school student . . . and two little guys in the first and second grade . . . in the same room. We'd go right from American History to spelling 'dog' and 'cat.'

★ ★ ★

"The other actors would stand outside peeking in through a crack, kidding me about going to school with these two littybitty guys. They'd give me all-day suckers."

Four-foot-9¼-inch Brenda nevertheless wants to go to college.

"To take a business course . . . I'd like to learn more about what I'm doing," she said, surprisingly.

Meaning, I suspect, that Brenda, probably the richest Sweet Girl Graduate in her class, wants to know about handling that money she'll come into when she's 21.

Coop Arrives for Big D.C. Welcome

See Agreement on Trade Woes for U.S., Mart

Credit for Progress Given to W. German Vice Chancellor

GENEVE (AP) — U.S. and Common Market delegates said today they had reached virtual agreement on how to cut trade barriers in the Western World. A mood of optimism soared over the Tariff Conference which has been on the verge of failure.

The American delegation gave much of the credit to West German Vice Chancellor Ludwig Erhard who reportedly has been sticking up for American ideas in arguments with his common market partners.

A U.S. source said Washington has agreed to the European demand that some "special rule" be adopted for reducing American tariffs which are, in general, higher than European ones.

"So the differences between us now are small," said French Finance Minister Valery Giscard D'Estaing.

There was hope the conference, which began Thursday, would end today with adoption of a system of tariff negotiations by the conference of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT).

★ ★ ★

The optimism appeared after cabinet ministers of the Common Market offered a new compromise early this morning.

The European counter-proposal followed a transatlantic telephone intervention by President Kennedy in an attempt to break the stalemate at the 73-nation ministerial conference sponsored by the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

The stalemate posed a grave threat to Kennedy's Trade Expansion Act of 1962, which previously had promised to be one of the major achievements of his administration.

The Common Market proposal was being submitted to Christian A. Herter, Kennedy's chief negotiator.

The Europeans refused to disclose the content of their proposal. American delegates had been annoyed Monday when another compromise offer was outlined to newsmen before it reached them.

The GATT conference was called in an attempt to agree on a tariff-cutting formula that would be worked out in detail at the negotiations scheduled to start next year.

Detroit's Mayor Cavanagh Tours City With Winford E. Bottom

Cavanagh Praises Pontiac for Urban Renewal Projects

Pontiac's guest mayor, Jerome P. Cavanagh, liked what he saw during his brief visit to this city yesterday.

Addressing some 250 persons at the Mayors Exchange Luncheon at the Elks Temple, the 34-year-old Detroit mayor had nothing but praise for this city.

"I am amazed at the vitality of your urban renewal projects," he said.

★ ★ ★

"After having traveled throughout the state over the past 16 months, I can say with all honesty that no city compares with Pontiac for its urban redevelopment—except the City of Detroit," he said with a twinkle in his eye.

"It is not every city, for example, that decides to harness a river flowing through its downtown area the way you are handling the Clinton, by putting in a tunnel," the mayor noted.

He termed the perimeter road on which construction will start tomorrow, "a magnificent model—a tonic to your downtown business area."

★ ★ ★

"When you also consider that Pontiac will have a new sewage treatment plant, more sanitary sewers, a new and expanded water system as well as a million-dollar headquarters of the board of education, it is apparent that the citizens of this city are keeping pace with the times," he said.

METRO COOPERATION

Cavanagh's message was aimed at metropolitan area cooperation.

"We need each other today, and we shall become more interdependent as the years go on," the mayor said.

The mayor noted that the city of Pontiac will receive its water supply from the Detroit water system on July 1.

★ ★ ★

He also lauded Pontiac's efforts in behalf of Detroit's bid for the 1968 Olympic Games.

The mayor said he was "very optimistic" about the chances of the metropolitan area getting the 1968 games.

PARTY CONVENTIONS

He expressed the hope that the same effort used to get the U.S. bid for the Olympics could be made to convince the two political parties to meet in Detroit next year.

He also urged metropolitan cooperation in solving the state's tax problems. He called them a sore spot which "particularly accounts for many of the problems of the metropolitan area."

Mayor Cavanagh arrived in Pontiac's City Hall at 11:30 a.m. yesterday, where he was officially greeted by Mayor Pro Tem Winford E. Bottom and City Manager Robert A. Stierer, who guided the mayor on a tour of the civic center area.

Following the luncheon, at which he was presented with a key to the city, the mayor viewed firsthand many of Pontiac's development projects, including the sewage treatment plant, the water pumping station and several other city facilities.

In Detroit, his counterpart, Pontiac Mayor Robert Landry, was conducted on a whirlwind tour of the City-County Building and Cobo Hall, and was guest of honor at an Economic Club luncheon and a Detroit Athletic Club dinner.

1.5 Million to Vote

D-Day for Wheat Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's decision day in the great wheat plan controversy.

After weeks of hot debate, record numbers of farmers—possibly more than 1.5 million — are expected to vote today on a plan to curb wheat production.

ROBERT M. CRITCHFIELD

Their decision may cast the future of government farm programs and their costs.

In a nutshell, the question is whether wheat farmers want rigid controls and high price supports or no controls and low price supports.

And the referendum's outcome, after the biggest campaign ever waged among farmers, was expected to have widespread economic and political repercussions.

★ ★ ★

Reports from the wheat areas indicated a close vote. Neither the plan's proponents nor opponents would predict the result as the zero hour approached.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps overshadowing the wheat proposal itself is the overall question of whether the federal government should plunge deeper into the business of farming or pull away, leaving a more free competitive market system.

SHARP WATCH

Watching today's balloting with sharp interest were President Kennedy, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and other administration leaders, as well as leaders of the major farm and grain trade organization.

★ ★ ★

In the referendum, wheat farmers were asked "yes" or "no" on whether they approved the administration plan designed to halt costly overproduction of wheat.

At least two-thirds of those voting must approve for the plan to become effective for the 1964 crop.

Ballots will be counted today after polls close in some 40,000 farm communities. Results are expected to be known by early Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Under the plan, growers would be required to reduce their 1964 wheat output 10 per cent below this year's crop allotments.

TWO CLASSES

Wheat would be divided into two classes — one for domestic food use and export and another

UF Campaign Gets Chief for Advance Gifts

Robert M. Critchfield, former general manager of Pontiac Motor Division and retired General Motors vice president, has been named chairman of the advance gifts committee of the 1963 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

The more than 50 members of the advance gifts committee will begin their activities in September, one month before the regular campaign opens.

They will solicit funds from and companies whose contributions top $100.

Last year, the advance gifts committee raised $86,817, or 103 per cent of its goal. No goal has been set for the 1963 UF campaign at this date.

Critchfield, who lives at 901 N. Lake Angelus, Waterford Township, has been active in past years for the United Fund and other civic organizations.

He has served on the board of trustees of the Pontiac Area United Fund, was its general drive chairman in 1955, served on the board of the YMCA and also was chairman of the YMCA fund drive.

JFK to Present Medal; Parade Slated for Hero

Astronaut Received by VIPs on Arrival From Cape Canaveral

WASHINGTON (AP) —Astronaut L. Gordon Cooper flew to the capital today to pick up a medal from President Kennedy, receive the cheers of his fellow countrymen packed along a parade route, and tell Congress how it feels to orbit the earth 22 times.

The 36-year-old Air Force major, accompanied by his glowing wife and two pretty daughters, came by transport plane from Cape Canaveral, Fla., landing at Andrews Air Force Base at 10:37 a.m., (Pontiac time).

On hand for official greetings were a group of bigwigs — Secretary of the Air Force Eugene Zuckert, Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, the Air Force chief of staff, and James E. Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

And packed along the fence around the flight enclosure were hundreds of eager spectators. There were some standing atop buildings, too.

In the crowd were women with baby strollers.

★ ★ ★

Several children from Junior Village, a home for the underprivileged, bore a placard emblazoned with the greeting:

"Junior Village thanks you, too!"

Two children from the village carried American flags.

IN JFK'S JET

The Cooper party came from Cape Canaveral in the President's big jet liner — the same plane that made a record flight to and from Moscow over the weekend.

★ ★ ★

The plane taxied up 50 feet from the waiting crowd.

An honor guard of Air Force men with bayoneted rifles immediately marched out to the aircraft accompanied by Zuckert, Webb and LeMay.

Cooper, in a dark suit, was the first to leave the Air Force jet. Behind him came his wife, Trudy, and their children.

The smiling Cooper talked briefly at the base of the ramp and shook hands with Zuckert and the other officials. Then he and his family walked between the two lines of Air Force honor guards to a helicopter, waiting to whisk them to the White House.

★ ★ ★

The helicopter was airborne four minutes after Cooper and his family stepped from the big jet.

A second helicopter took others in the party.

Waiting at the White House were a group of NASA officials who had come in by plane from

Requests for Funds Far Exceed Supply

By DICK HANSON

Another miracle like that of the loaves and fishes would be needed to satisfy all the governmental and education agencies participating in the annual 15-mill county tax levy.

The observation was made by James Ludwick while heading yesterday's Oakland County Tax Allocation Board proceedings.

The board set preliminary rates for the 53 local agencies, none of which was completely satisfied with its share of the levy.

To fill their requests for tax dollars would have required as much as 23.2 mills instead of the 15 allowed by state law for local consumption.

The preliminary rates would provide 5.16 mills for county government in 1964, .13 mills for the County Board of Education, between 8.31 and 9.71 for the 30 school districts and approximately 1.15 mills for the 22 requesting townships.

★ ★ ★

Last year the county got 5.25 mills, the school districts as much as 9.75 mills and townships generally the same as indicated for this year.

FIRST TIME

This was the first time the county school board has made a separate request. Last year it received between .08 and .10 mills from the county government's share.

Just what the share actually

Russ Propose N-Free Zone in Mediterranean

Letter Contains First Such Act by Moscow; Aimed at Polaris Subs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russia has proposed to the United States that nuclear weapons be removed from "the entire Mediterranean Sea," officials disclosed today.

The proposal was contained in a note delivered by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin to Undersecretary of State George W. Ball shortly after 6 p.m. EDT (5 p.m. Pontiac time) yesterday.

Officials said it called for a nuclear - free Mediterranean, a proposal Russia apparently has not made in such terms before.

The move appeared directed almost entirely at the deployment of U. S. nuclear powered Polaris missile - firing submarines in the Mediterranean.

The United States announced earlier this year that it was withdrawing Jupiter missiles from Italy and Turkey and replacing them with three missile firing submarines on Mediterranean duty.

It recently was announced that two of these submarines have arrived on station.

Sources here said the Soviet note appeared to call for banning nuclear weapons from the Mediterranean Sea itself, but not the countries surrounding it.

There have been proposals for "nuclear free zones" before, but not quite like this one, as officials described it.

The State Department was expected to make a statement on the note later. The initial reaction of U.S. officials available for comment, however, was decidedly negative.

Romney OKs Ford-Canton Bill Into Law

LANSING — Gov. George Romney, ignoring Democratic protests, today signed the controversial Ford-Canton strike benefits bill into law.

Romney's action came after he received information concerning the so-called "negative balances" of the state unemployment compensation fund from a three-man House committee composed solely of Democrats.

"The figures have no relevance to the legislation," the governor stated.

Democrats have contended signing of the bill by Romney would constitute a "conflict of interest" because of his position as major stockholder of American Motors Corp., one of 19,000 firms whose negative balance, or deficit, in the fund could be wiped out.

Romney has denied repeatedly there would be any conflict of interest.

Both he and the Democrats who supplied him with the secret by law data on negative balances, after obtaining it from the Michigan Employment Security Commission, declined to reveal what the records show.

News Flashes

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Pistons plan to name a new coach today, at a news conference called by the National Basketball Association Club.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today named Adm. George W. Anderson Jr., retiring chief of naval operations, as U.S. ambassador to Portugal. The White House said Anderson would succeed Ambassador C. Burke Elbrick this summer.

Negroes Set to Fight School Ouster Order

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Negro leaders say they will go to federal court in efforts to void a Birmingham school board order to expel or suspend more than 1,000 Negro pupils who demonstrated against segregation.

The school board's action Monday was not unexpected, and Negro leaders said they planned to fight the move only by legal means.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said on his return from Atlanta, "We will not call for a mass walkout or boycott of the schools, nor will we call for a renewal of demonstrations at this point."

* * *

After a meeting with other integration leaders, King said, "We will not seek to correct an unwise act by moving hastily into another unwise act."

The decision by the Negro leaders saved a shaky biracial agreement which had been threatened by the school board's handling of the dispute.

"We know there are certain forces in Birmingham trying to sabotage this agreement," King said.

He called the board's action "a tragic move, immoral . . . a dastardly act."

In a letter to school principals, Supt. Theo Wright ordered immediate expulsion of pupil participants over 16 and suspension of those under 16. It affects 1,081 pupils arrested in protest marches over the past several weeks.

* * *

A school board spokesman said the action was in keeping with the board's policy on truancy.

* * *

On another front, Commissioner-Mayor Arthur Hanes called a Supreme Court decision outlawing city and state interference in sit-in demonstrations "an accommodation for those arrested here."

* * *

"It seems to me that any person in business does not now have that old traditional right to refuse service to anyone he desires," Hanes said. "It seems that all bars are lowered."

There were these other developments:

—University of Alabama trustees asked U.S. District Judge H. Hobart Grooms to delay admittance of Negroes to the university at Tuscaloosa until racial unrest in the state has improved.

—A Negro voter registration drive at Selma, Ala., about 100 miles southwest of Birmingham, failed to produce hoped-for masses of Negroes, but a campaign leader said the turnout of about 38 still was encouraging.

—Two white men were arrested at Anniston, Ala., in connection with violence at Anniston May 12 when shotgun blasts were fired at two Negro homes and a Negro church.

Says NAACP

Sit-In Protests to Increase

ATLANTA (AP)—Negro sit-in activity will increase as a result of the Supreme Court's decision on sit-in demonstrations, says a top attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

* * *

Mrs. Constance Baker Motley, associate counsel of the NAACP's legal defense fund, told a news conference in New York Monday the decision would increase the desire of Negroes to be served in restaurants and other establishments.

She said this would lead to many more demonstrations throughout the nation.

The court ruled Monday that a state or city may not interfere, in any fashion, with peaceful sit-in demonstrations in public places of business. However, the court did not draw a clear line of when a shopkeeper may on his own refuse to serve Negroes or call police to have them evicted from his property.

* * *

Mrs. Motley later told a mass rally of Negroes in Birmingham, Ala., that the decision would clear about 300 students convicted in Southern sit-ins. She said the decision left Birmingham department store owners "free to serve Negroes on the same basis as other citizens."

'GREAT DECISION'

"I think the decision was as great as the Supreme Court decision in the school cases," she said.

The court threw out convictions of lunch counter sit-in demonstrators in Alabama, Louisiana, North Carolina and South Carolina, and declared it unconstitutional for a state to require segregation and use its powers to enforce it.

* * *

Commissioner - Mayor Arthur Hanes of Birmingham, scene of recent sit-ins and mass desegregation demonstrations, said he had not read the decision, but added, "I feel it's going a little far afield.

"It seems to me that any person in business does not now have that old traditional right to refuse service to anyone he desires," Hanes said. "It seems that all bars are lowered."

* * *

Floyd McKissick, a Durham, N.C., attorney who successfully appealed the convictions of seven antisegregation demonstrators to the high court, said the decision overturning the convictions "is far more important than the 1954 school segregation decision."

Orders Trial in Mall Death

Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer yesterday ordered the trial next Tuesday of two 22-year-old Pontiac men for the torture-murder of a Kroger supermarket comanager.

* * *

Defendants in the case are Adoise White, of 79½ Wall, and Charles E. Hodges, of 174 Prospect.

They will stand trial on a charge of first-degree murder for the March 16 slaying of Robert A. Greene, also 22, after forcing Greene to open a safe at the Pontiac Mall Kroger store.

Greene was stabbed 42 times and shot in the back of the head. He had been surprised in the garage behind his home at 122 Summit St. after closing the store the night of the murder and forced to drive back to the store.

* * *

Hodges and White admitted the killing and told police they took some $1,500 from the safe.

'Blue Shield Losing Daily'

DETROIT (AP) — Consulting actuaries for Michigan Medical Service (Blue Shield) testified in Wayne County Circuit Court yesterday that the prepaid medical insurance program was losing money at the rate of $45,000 a day.

The actuaries and Blue Shield staff members met with Judge Theodore R. Bohn to gather facts on the financial condition and needs of Michigan Medical Service.

Judge Bohn will determine the amount of increase to be allowed — at least 1 per cent and not more than 22.9 per cent — on the basis of the findings. This was the agreement made in his court last week by Blue Shield and State Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn.

Loyal Troops Overcome Another Revolt in Turkey

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Loyal troops today crushed a former army colonel's second attempt in 15 months to overthrow Turkey's government. Radio Ankara announced the proclamation of martial law in three cities—Ankara, Istanbul and Izmir.

The decision to impose martial law on the metropolitan centers was reached at an urgent meeting of the cabinet with the military security council.

The constitution provides for such a step "in case of war or uprising or in view of indications of a strong movement against the country or the republic."

LASTS 12 HOURS

The revolt, headed by ex-Col. Talat Aydemir, lasted less than 12 hours. Among forces backing him were cadets of the War College, Turkey's West Point.

Radio Ankara announced Aydemir and 10 other top insurgents were arrested. They are expected to be tried shortly.

* * *

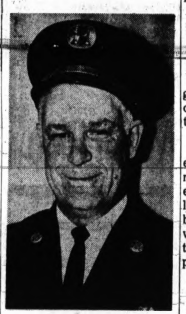
Seven persons were reported killed and 23 wounded during fighting in the capital. Most of them fell when government forces attacked cadets who defied an ultumatum to return to their barracks and surrender.

Gen. Cevdet Sunay, chief of staff of the Turkish armed forces, said in a broadcast shortly after dawn, "a treacherous attempt by a small group to seize power has been completely crushed."

* * *

Aydemir was ousted from the military and jailed after masterminding a short-lived rebellion in February 1962. Parliament pardoned him and his accomplices.

Government troops quickly arrested four colonels who tried to seize a radio station in Istanbul. Otherwise the metropolis was quiet.



LEWIS GOFF

was depends on whose figures you use — those of the County Board of Auditors or those of William J. Emerson, school board director. Emerson claimed .10 mills, the auditors .08.

Emerson asked the allocation board for .16 mills this year to finance a proposed $370,832 general education budget.

He said the additional millage was needed to carry the department from Jan. 1, 1964, when it is dropped from the county budget, to July 1, 1964, when it begins to operate on its own.

* * *

A reduction to .13 mills, amounting to an estimated $66,078 cut, would prevent the department from meeting the needs of a growing population, he said.

SAME PREMISE

Township and county officials based their requested increases on the same premise.

All agreed that needs for service in both the educational and governmental fields locally are rapidly outstripping periodic increases in the county's tax base.

* * *

The county government had asked for 5.94 mills to raise an estimated $13 million toward a proposed $17-million budget next year. The difference would come from county receipts, including state matching funds for the most part.

The townships' requests varied, but all asked for increases. Royal Oak Township was high with a request for 8.75 mills this year.

Township Supervisor Edward Kennedy said the shortage of tax dollars was hindering the development of otherwise valuable commercial property.

"We have to manipulate township funds in order to meet payrolls," he said.

* * *

All of the requesting township supervisors cited demands of growing suburbia for more urban-type services such as better water, drainage and sewage systems and increased police and fire protection.

FINAL HEARINGS

Final hearings of the requesting agencies will begin May 27 when the county's tax base is expected to be confirmed by the State Board of Equalization in Lansing.

The local allocation board must set the final rates by June 3.

Both the County Board of Supervisors and the State Tax Commission have recommended a $2.2-billion equalized valuation of countywide private property as this year's tax base.

The figure represents a $90-million increase over last year. It would provide approximately $33 million in local taxes at the 15-mill rate. Each mill spread countywide would produce $2.2 million.

Cities do not fall within the 15-mill limit. They have the power to levy their own taxes. In cities, school districts are not obliged to share tax dollars with township governments and would get a full 9.71 mills under the preliminary rates.

* * *

This is the first year that White Lake Township has asked for a share of the 15 mills. The allocation board set a preliminary rate of 1 mill, the minimum set by state law for townships with budgets requesting that much.

Lyon and Springfield townships are the only two left in the county that haven't requested a share of the 15 mills.

New Fire Chief Named Today in Waterford Twp.

Lewis (Bud) Goff, 45, veteran of 13 years in the Waterford Township fire department, was named fire chief today.

* * *

Acting chief since April 2 when former chief Elmer Fangboner resigned to assume duties as township clerk, Goff has served as fire marshal the past three years with the rank of captain.

Goff and Captain Clayton Soncrainte both took oral and written exams last week for the top post.

The three-member examining committee recommended Goff, and the selection was confirmed this morning by the township civil service commission.

Township Supervisor James Seeterlin then made the formal ppointment.

Married, with five children, the new fire chief lives at 130 S. Tilden.

Everest Hero Had No Oxygen 3 Hours

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI) — James W. Whittaker, first American to conquer Mt. Everest, had to struggle down from the world's highest peak for three and a half hours without oxygen, he disclosed yesterday.

Whittaker, 32, of Redmond, Wash., was accompanied by Nepalese Sherpa guide Nowang Gombu on the successful summit assault May 1.

Details of the climb were made known in Whittaker's first personal radio transmission to Katmandu from the base camp of the American expedition on the slopes of the 29,028-foot peak.

Fatigued Pope Halts Meetings

Cancels Audiences for 9-Day Period

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope John XXIII, fatigued by a heavy round of public appearances, is canceling private audiences for a nine-day period of "spiritual retirement," a high Vatican source said today.

* * *

The source said the 81-year-old Pope planned to go ahead with tomorrow's weekly general audience in St. Peter's as scheduled.

Reliable sources inside the Vatican said the Pope has suffered another "weak spell" in the last few hours and there is preoccupation on his condition.

But he said private audiences, including regular meetings with aides would be canceled beginning Friday for a solemn novena, nine days of prayers, leading to the Feast of Pentecost, June 2.

* * *

Such a period of retirement and spiritual exercises is normal in the pre-Christmas season, but unusual as a preparation for Pentecost.

The source said the Pope made the decision to give special solemnity to Pentecost in this year of the Ecumenical Council.

But the source also admitted that the Pope overexerted himself during long public ceremonies this month in which he was awarded the Balzan Peace Prize.

* * *

Another reliable Vatican source said the Pope has felt "very weak" in recent days.

Expect 1.5 Million to Vote on Wheat for other uses, such as livestock feed.

The food-expert wheat would bring growers a national average of $2 a bushel and the other $1.30.

In addition, farmers would get government payments which could run up to $300 million on the idled wheat acres.

* * *

If the plan is defeated, growers would operate under an alternative program which would eliminate all control and offer low supports—possibly $1.25 a bushel—but limited to those who voluntarily reduced plantings to the level set under the rejected plan.

Strong forces were lined up on both sides of the controversial issue.

A record Michigan turnout appeared certain as farmers went to the polls today.

From 35,000 to 45,000 wheat growers were expected to cast ballots if good weather prevails in the state, according to a tentative estimate from the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) in East Lansing.

The highest previous vote in a wheat referendum in Michigan was in 1953 when about 12,000 cast ballots. Some 6,000 voted in 1962.

Commission Gives OK to Two Street Projects

BIRMINGHAM — Two of the city's 1963 street improvement projects were approved by the City Commission at hearings last night.

* * *

The proposed light oil and seal coat programs passed public review at hearings on necessity at the City Commission meeting.

Four hearings on sidewalks were postponed for one week.

No objections were raised for the light oil application on 5,930 feet of city streets, but residents questioned the necessity of the seal coat program.

This consists of two applications of asphaltic oil and tone chips to 58,290 feet of city streets.

Estimated cost to residents for the project is 22 cents per front foot with side street frontage one-fourth of that amount.

* * *

The city will recheck those streets where necessity for the improvement is questioned by the residents.

Another 7,060 feet of streets will be deleted from the seal coat program because of construction projects this summer.

REVIEW ASSESSENTS

Individual assessments will be reviewed and the assessment roll confirmed at the second hearing June 3.

Three commissioners were out of town, so the sidewalk necessity hearings were moved up one week.

They include sidewalk on the west side of Coolidge, north of Yorkshire; sidewalk on the east side of St. Andrews, north of Dorchester; and on the west side of that street, south of Dorchester; and sidewalk on the west side of Torry, from one-half block south of Lincoln to Bennaville.

In other action, the commissioners gave permission to the Cub Scouts of Adams School Pack No. 1008, for a family picnic at Springdale Park, June 9.

They also gave particular attention to a letter from Consumers Power Co. describing uniforms.

So the readers will be easily identified by homemakers, they will wear light blue shirts and dark blue trousers with a light blue skier's cap.

A Consumers' symbol will be worn over the breast pocket of the shirt and the dark blue jacket reading "Consumers Meter Reader."

The summer uniform should be in use by the middle of this month.

COMMUNICATIONS

In other communications, Administrative Aide John F. Saefke reported fallout shelter supplies have been placed in two more public fallout shelters, the Post Office and the Townsend Apartments, corners of Townsend and Chester.

This raises the city's shelter capacity to a total of 991 spaces. An additional 1,872 spaces in five other locations will be announced, Saefke said, when supplies are received and put in the shelters.

When these are prepared the city's fallout shelter program will total 3,000 shelter spaces.

Robert Veryzer, Central Birmingham Residents' Association (CBRA) president, reported "over 1,700 signatures on the petition against the proposed parking lot south of Shain Park.

"These signatures cover all corners of Birmingham," he noted.

Taylor Forms Group to Push Barry in '64

Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor yesterday announced he was forming a countywide Volunteers for Goldwater group to promote U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater's principles and his candidacy for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

* * *

Taylor said he already had 15 members and hoped soon to have 25 in his group.

"I haven't had one refusal yet," he said. He named five of the 15 members of his staff of assistant prosecutors.

Taylor said he had hoped Michigan Gov. George Romney would become a presidential candidate, but was going ahead with his group for the Republican senator from Arizona because "I'm taking Romney at his word that he does not wish to run."

Taylor described Goldwater as a "middle-of-the-roader" between "liberals who now run the federal government and the John Birch Society."

He said Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York was "more liberal than I think is necessary."

Hire Supervisor's Aide

Waterford Township Board members last night approved the immediate hiring of an administrative assistant to the supervisor despite a plea by trustee Loren Anderson that the matter be tabled for further study.

* * *

Anderson, the only Republican on the seven-member board, objected to the action because the matter was not on the agenda. He was overruled by a 6-1 vote.

Hired to assist Supervisor James Seeterlin was Robert Richmond, 36, of 5621 Cleary. He began his duties today at a weekly salary of $125.

Seeterlin explained to the board that he has been functioning as supervisor since early April without an executive assistant.

Former Supervisor Elmer Johnson had a combination office manager and senior secretary whose annual salary was $4,800. The job was abolished when the new administration took office.

Anderson's main objection to the requested appointment was the lack of notice.

"I don't think it's asking too much to have this request taken up at a future meeting," he said. "I'd like to take some time and check on the need for the job as well as on the man proposed for it."

OWN PREROGATIVE

Seeterlin said he felt it was his prerogative to handpick his chief assistant. Richmond, who has been employed as a manufacturer's agent representing four firms, has a fine background and should be an asset to the township, Seeterlin said.

Seeterlin said he selected a man for the presently unclassified post with the intent of delegating new duties such as representing him at meetings.

In other business, the board adopted a disorderly persons ordinance designed to permit better enforcement, particularly in cases involving juvenile offenders.

* * *

The ordinance would allow the township justices of the peace to issue warrants. Under the state disorderly persons law, previously governing the township, warrants came from the county prosecutor.

Board members also confirmed the special assessment roll for Benson's Old Orchard district following a public hearing.

Cost of the black topping project will amount to $46,917.21. Work would probably start in September, according to Seeterlin.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, the board authorized taking bids on lots of both three and four new police cars. Bids will be opened at the June 3 meting.

A request from the Firefighters Association that compensation paid to the group be increased from the present $3 per man per run to $4, was tabled for further study.

Spokesman for the organization called the present payment inadequate and cited compensation plans in other communities in support of this contention.

* * *

The board, however, did authorize increased insurance coverage for association members at an annual increased premium of $141.90.

Sugars Continue Advance

Moderately Active Mart Mixed

NEW YORK (AP) — Sugars continued to advance early today while the over-all stock market was mixed in moderately active trading.

★ ★ ★

Some recent high-flyers in other groups were hit by profit taking. At the same time, a number of blue chips which have been "resting," showed signs of life.

The bullish drive in the sugar stocks, based on higher prices for sugar and also some improved earnings, continued strong.

Gains of a point or better were made by American Crystal Sugar, North American Sugar and Great Western Sugar. Central Aguirre sugar added another fraction.

South Puerto Rico Sugar was firm.

Du Pont recovered a point of yesterday's sharp loss. Among other blue chips, American Telephone, Jersey Standard, Consolidated Edison and Kennecott advanced fractionally.

Prices moved irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange. Gains of a point or better were scored by Michigan Sugar, Utah-Idaho Sugar and Sherwin-Williams.

Bonds Open Steady and Mixed

NEW YORK (AP) — Bond prices were steady to narrowly mixed at the opening today.

Over the counter dealers in U.S. government securities said most issues were unchanged from yesterday's close. Trading was extremely light.

Government prices have declined slowly in the last two sessions, mostly on increased talk of higher interest rates.

Rails were the most active section in early corporate trading on the New York Stock Exchange. However, prices were irregular.

Nine-Day Strike Ended by Court

Ordered to Work in Illinois Ford Plant

CHICAGO (AP) — Members of Local 588 of the United Auto Workers (UAW) were back on the job today after a court order ended a nine-day wildcat strike at the Ford Motor Co. stamping plant in suburban Chicago Heights.

The strike of 3,700 UAW workers, which started over health and safety grievances, had threatened to idle 40,000 production workers in Ford plants in 11 states. The Chicago Heights plant manufactures body panels for assembly plants.

Circuit Court Judge Charles S. Dougherty yesterday ordered the strikers back to work and also issued an injunction against any further picketing.

★ ★ ★

Dougherty's order confirmed the company's contention and a finding by Harry H. Platt, a permanent referee under the UAW-Ford work contract, that the walkout on May 11 over the grievances was a wildcat strike.

'CLEAR VIOLATION'

Platt said the strike was in "clear violation" of the existing UAW-Ford work contract. "Such a strike," he said, "is neither pursuant to the procedure described in the agreement nor authorized by the international union, both of which conditions must exist in order for a strike to be permissible under the agreement."

Platt's finding ordered Local 588, its officers and members to end the strike immediately, withdraw picket lines and cease encouraging or permitting any employes to refrain from working or to strike.

The striking UAW members had voted earlier yesterday to ignore a Ford threat of mass dismissal. An estimated 3,000 workers marched from the union hall to the plant gates where they burned back-to-work letters they had received from the company.

★ ★ ★

Bernard Fox, president of Local 588, said officers of the local, after being served with Dougherty's order, called off the strike and ordered the members back to work.

May Wheat Futures Move Strong, Weak

CHICAGO (AP) — Short covering and liquidation drove the May wheat future over a broad price range from strong to weak today in early activity on the board of trade. All other contracts shifted mostly within a small fractional range.

★ ★ ★

The activity in all commodities consisted largely of balancing commitments in the May contracts. It was the final day of trading in them.

May wheat started off as much as three cents a bushel higher but fell back rapidly when offerings increased.

All the advance had been lost within a half hour or so.

Bearish government reports on inspections last week for export and the crush for April induced further selling the soybean pit.

Big Problems at Stake

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—More is at stake in the tariff battle between the United States and the Common Market than an American-French clash over formulas for duty cutting.

DAWSON

Two of Washington's biggest problems—loss of gold and unemployment—are involved.

Washington has tied its efforts to spur U.S. exports to its plan for wide tariff cuts—up to 50 per cent across-the-board—and the Common Market regards this coolly.

The United States needs greater export totals to combat its currently increasing balance of payments deficit and loss of gold reserves, and also to spur industrial output at home and thus create more jobs.

At Geneva the six European countries in the Common Market gave some ground Monday. They agreed to American demands for across-the-board tariff cuts —but only if the United States will accept an automatic formula for adjusting any gaps between high American tariffs and lower European ones. They said nothing about other instances where European tariffs on certain items are higher than American ones.

HARD TIME

Washington will have a hard time convincing many U.S. industries that this protection should be slashed while the gate to European markets is opened to a less degree. A number of industries, such as steel, are clamoring at the moment for still higher protection against what they call European or Japanese dumping.

★ ★ ★

Some have dubbed this a rise in protection sentiment here, reversing the big swing to freer trade last year when Congress gave President Kennedy unprecedented power to negotiate tariff cuts running as high as 50 per cent.

Others have reported a rising protectionist tide in Europe, notably in the Common Market and especially in France.

SPUR PRODUCTION

The thinking behind the U.S. Trade Expansion Act of 1962 was that a general lowering of trade barriers around the world would allow American industrial efficiency to increase U.S. exports greatly. This would spur production here and add to the economic growth sought as a means of whittling down the 5.7 per cent rate of unemployment.

The exports also would bring in more dollars. And they are needed if the United States is to combat its deficit in international payments, which in April increased to an anual rate of $3.3 million, compared with $2.2 billion in 1962.

Canvassers Blanket Michigan in Recount

LANSING (AP) — Special teams of canvassers blanketed the state today to conduct a recount of the votes by which Michigan appeared to have adopted a new constitution last month.

The canvass of 1,969 precincts in 77 counties is expected to require nearly three weeks, unless it is called off before it is completed.

Voters ratified the revived constitution in the April 1 election by a margin of 7,829 votes, according to the official canvass.

★ ★ ★

But the Democratic party — after waging a vigorous campaign against adoption — filed for a recount of 1,891 of the state's 5,209 precincts.

MORE ADDED

Another 78 precincts were added to the total in petitions filed by the coordinating committee for the new constitution, representing 20 nonpartisan groups supporting the revised document.

★ ★ ★

Both sides posted $5 for each precinct they asked to be rechecked — with the Democrats putting up $9,455 and the committee $390. Election officials have estimated the actual cost to be about $50 per precinct.

If the official vote is overturned by the recount, the Democrats will get their money back.

The coordinating committee would receive a refund if the vote stands, and if its request is officially regarded as a counter-petition. This point has not yet been decided, officials said.

★ ★ ★

Seventy - two attorneys have been sworn in as special assistant attorneys general by Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley to supervise the operation in 19 counties where the recount is expected to be complicated by absentee ballots in machine precincts. Four teams have been assigned to Wayne County alone.

SUPERVISORS

Recounting in five groups of outstate counties will be supervised by the state elections division staff, moving from one county to another.

Volunteers for the Democratic party and the coordinating committee will be allowed to watch the recount in each precinct.

The committee announced that it also was setting up a recount information center in Lansing to be named by volunteers, most of whom are members of the Michigan Council of Churches, the League of Women Voters, the Michigan Farm Bureau or the Michigan Education Association.

★ ★ ★

Much of the volunteer recruiting was done by the Republican party and the Volunteers for Romney, which strongly supported adoption of the new constitution.

Duel Rages on Plaine in Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Neutralist and pro-Communist Pathet Lao forces are dueling heavily on the Plaine des Jarres with mortars and artillery, informed sources said today.

★ ★ ★

The informants said the shelling intensified yesterday after six days of sporadic action and continued late this afternoon. At one time, one round was reported fired every minute for 85 consecutive minutes.

One of Gen. Kong Le's neutralist officers was quoted as saying Pathet Lao troops tried to occupy a neutralist position near Xieng Khouang, a leftist-held provincial capital, but were beaten back.

The leftist voice of Laos Radio declared in a dispatch relayed by Radio Peking that Kong Le's neutralists and rightists troops of Gen. Phoumi Nosavan heavily bombarded Xieng Khouang at the weekend, but were repulsed Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Now, it said, "the reactionaries" are bombing Lat Houang, Phong Savan and Khang Khay.

Khang Khay is the headquarters of the Pathet Lao and field office of deputy Premier Prince Souphanouvong, who represents the pro-Communist faction in Laos' coalition government.

Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma, neutralist half-brother of Souphanouvong, told newsmen that violent fighting erupted Sunday in the Lat Bouac region, about 10 miles northeast of the Plaine.

During the weekend, informed sources here reported that there had been sporadic exchanges of mortar fire on the Plaine, but that neither side had made any attempt to advance from their present positions.

News in Brief

An electric range, vent fan and miscellaneous other items of undetermined value were reported stolen yesterday from a model home at 5043 Ridge Top, Waterford Township.

Q) "I would like to know something about margin buying. Why do brokers charge interest on unpaid balances, and why do they pay nothing when they use your stocks to cover short sales of others?" R. D.

A) If you will allow me, I will answer the first part of your letter by asking you a question. Aside from a close friend or relative, do you know of any source where you can borrow money without paying interest? When you buy on margin, the broker must put up 50 per cent of your purchase price—the money coming either from bank loans on which interest must be paid, or from his own capital which might be employed profitably elsewhere.

Now for the last half of your question. It is a fact that when you open a margin account the broker expects you to sign a card which gives him the right to lend your margined stock. If he does so, he makes no charge to the short account and so makes no payment to you.

Q) "I am fifteen years old and a sophomore in high school. I have accumulated $250 which I would like to invest in something which will grow and help me toward a college education. My parents have given their consent. What would you suggest?" D. B.

A) It is a considerable pleasure to advise a young and ambitious person like yourself, who has definite plans for the future.

In most instances, because minimum charges are relatively large, I suggest that investment of moderate sums like yours be deferred until at least $500 is accumulated. In your case however, I do not believe that the commission charge is important at your age and with long-range plan.

I advise you to invest your $250 in 6 shares of Consolidated Foods, a relatively safe situation yielding 3 per cent, with earnings showing expansion partly because of wider distribution of Sara Lee products.

Firm Will Pay Stock Dividend

The Michigan Seamless Tube Co. of South Lyon has announced payment of dividends in the amount of 25 cents per share to stockholders of record on May 6.

Net sales of $13,638,111 were reported by company president William A. McHattie for the first half of the current fiscal year ending April 30.

This represents a slight increase over the same period one year ago, he said.

Second quarter earnings were $368,740, or 23 per cent higher than the first quarter of the current fiscal year.

This represents a 10 cent increase in earnings per share, McHattie noted.
