10 Birmingham Residents File Nominating Petitions for 3 Commission Seats

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — Ten residents have filed nominating petitions in the race for three city commission posts in the April 5 election. Deadline for petition submission is 4 p.m. Saturday.

Seeking nomination are Gilbert C. Goode Jr., of 647 Woodland; Robert Ferguson, of 514 Chesterfield Rd.; James Cousins II of 976 Suffield Rd.; William Roberts of 1857 Derby Rd.; Robert E. Navin of 1386 Washington Blvd.; and Harry McGowan of 110 Aspen.

Others are George Mullin of 1420 Buckingham Rd.; Robert Owen of 303 Park; Harry D. Wise Jr. of 534 N. Glenhurst Dr.; and incumbent James Allen.

Mayor Ralph Main and other commissioners sharply rebuffed a suggestion from the Birmingham Real Estate Board this week that the fee received by commissioners be raised to between $25 and $50 per meeting, to draw more candidates.

The lawmakers now collect $5 for each meeting attended. "If they have to be paid like that, they're not qualified," Main said. "Serving on the commission is a civic duty."

A social meeting has been planned by Sororist members for tonight with dinner at 7 at the home of Mrs. C. S. Wooster, on Southside road. Miss Lindo Moore, of Baldwin Library, will present a film program on Williamsburg, Va. Miss Connie Vetrano has been appointed chairman of the Venture Club, junior group of the Sororists. Mrs. Ann Birrell will take charge of the monthly bulletin while Mrs. Thelma Zimmerman will make contacts with a sister club in West Birmingham, England.

Christ Church Cranbrook and First Presbyterian Church are still tied for first place in the YMCA Church Basketball League, both winning the last games played. Games tonight at the First Baptist Church pit First Presbyterian against Redeemer Lutheran at 7 and Congregation of the First Baptist at 8.

St. James and Kirk in the Hills will play at Barnum School at 9. Teams in the Y Intramural League will also play at Barnum. The public is invited.

Three Birmingham youths enlisted for four years in the U. S. Air Force during January, according to a report from the Royal Oak Recruiting Station.

They are: Richard C. Clark, 20, of 311 Smith; Thomas J. Fowler, 17, of 1540 Humphrey; and Kenneth D. Mahrie, 18, also of the Humphrey address.

Mrs. G. Howard Willet Jr., of 655 Filigree, presented the city commission with a 121-signature petition for street improvements in the Quanton Lake Estates area this week.

The matter was referred to the city manager for recommendation.

An annual Michigan Bell Telephone Co. dinner at 7 tonight at the Community House, for company drivers who have driven for three years without an accident, will honor two Birmingham men, among others.

While awards are made only every five years, Alvin Goodwin, of 5805 Putnam, will be honored.

Old Church Is Site for Sunday Meeting

BIRMINGHAM — The worship site on N. Woodward which has served Birmingham's Presbyterian families for 90 years, and with its present building for 36 years, will find its walls bulging for the last time this Sunday.

A membership of about 2,200 will move into the new First Presbyterian Church on W. Maple at Chesterfield on March 7, Dr. W. Glen Harris, minister, announced from the pulpit last Sunday.

Moving into the large L-shaped $1,100,000 church of contemporary Georgian design will bring another change. Instead of two services there will be three: At 8:30, 9:45 and 11:15 a.m.

The new sanctuary will have a seating capacity of almost 700. There will also be a small chapel and offices in the remainder of this uncompleted wing.

Devoted primarily to an enlarged religious education unit, the other wing contains a children's chapel.

The old First Presbyterian Church has been purchased by the Congregational Church formed here a year ago, and the first morning services will be held there Mar. 7.

He repeated that the United States got precisely what it wanted in arrangements for a Korean peace conference.

"It was agreed," he said, "that a conference will be held at Geneva, as we have long ago proposed, and that the composition will be precisely that which the United States also had proposed."

As to Indochina, he said that "was primarily and properly the responsibility of France," which has been fighting Communist Guerillas there for nearly eight years. He said the United States will continue advising the French and loyal native forces and supporting them with money and equipment.

THIRD OF ITS KIND—A unique feature of the new First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, where services will be held for the first time March 7, is the Children's Chapel. The pews, reading desk, organ and all other equipment are scaled down to size for the first through sixth grade children who will use the chapel. So far as is known, there are only two other such chapels in this country, one in Washington, D. C., and another in Cincinnati, Ohio. The Rev. Robert W. Gibson Jr., minister to youth, is shown placing candlesticks on a miniature table.

No Penalty Tax Due March 1st

Sylvan Lake Will Place Unpaid Assessments in County Office

Sylvan Lake July and December 1953 taxes, special assessment billings and sewer service charges remaining unpaid will be certified to the Oakland County treasurer's office for collection after Feb. 28, according to City Manager Ernest Ethier.

Penalty charges are added by the county, said Ethier. Because Feb. 28 is a Sunday, any payments made at city hall or postmarked by midnight March 1 will be accepted by the city treasurer, he added.

Any veteran eligible for exemption of 1954 taxes must file his claim by March 8, Ethier said, with blanks obtainable at the city treasurer's office or from City Assessor Ted Koella, 1945 Woodland Ave.

The Sylvan Lake Board of Review will meet March 2 and 3 to review assessment rolls and discuss assessment matters with property owners. Either announced.

The board will meet from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. It will examine and approve the assessment roll on March 8, Ethier said.

B. D. Charles, Edwin L. Williams and Harold James make up the board, with City Assessor Ted Koella as secretary.

More Witnesses Say Condemnation OK

retary Henry Smith testified that the walking distance of 1,500 feet from the lot to downtown stores could be reduced to 801 feet by providing a walkway through the adjoining city-county market building.

Frank Lyndall, Sears Roebuck Co. manager, said he has walked from the proposed parking lot to the city's business area and considers the spot ideal for a city-owned parking lot.

Both Lyndall and Gunderson said the property, owned by Jack Habel Chevrolet Co., is greatly needed for downtown shoppers parking.

Habel testified yesterday that three members of the Pontiac Retail Merchants Assn. urged him to sell the land to the city, and said it would be condemned if he refused to do so.

He said he purchased the property on Aug. 3 for $60,000 and the city approved condemnation proceedings on Aug. 11.

The city had been bargaining for the property before the sale to Habel but the owners were under no legal obligation to sell.

The suit, now in its third week before Circuit Judge George B. Harrick, is expected to go to the jury sometime tomorrow.

Three Await Court in Velez Stabbing

Two brothers and an AWOL Air Force private, accused in the Jan. 10 fatal stabbing of Raul Velez, 19, of 294 W. Wilson Ave., were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court Wednesday following an examination before Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

The trio, Roberto, 21, and Olivero Ortega, 16, of 381 Irwin St., and Pvt. George Theobald, 19, of 562 Arthur St., were returned to Oakland County Jail to await the March 8 arraignment. They failed to post bonds of $1,000 each.

The original charge of second degree murder was reduced against Theobald and Olivero Ortega to manslaughter. Judge Finnegan also altered the charge against Roberto to felonious assault.

Some 20 persons offered testimony during the three-week examination.

The younger Ortega told authorities he stabbed Velez in the left shoulder when his brother, Roberto, called for help. Roberto said a fight started between him and Velez at Nevada St. and Franklin Rd. The trio was returning from a wedding reception.

Bootleggers Facing Loss of Franchises of his warranty and additional services.

Curtice appealed to the dealers to "cooperate with General Motors in preserving the most valued franchise in the industry." At the same time he advised them GM will continue to review their performance in carrying out their obligations under the selling agreements with General Motors.

Curtice described car bootlegging as "a malignancy which, if it is not stopped, will eat away the very vitals of your business and ours."

Some dealers, encountering competition from used car dealers with new cars to sell, have complained of overproduction and maldistribution of new cars. These, Curtice wrote, were not factors in the situation.

"In fact," he said, "1954 models of General Motors cars were in the 'bootleg' market before there was sufficient production to supply our dealers with the necessary stock for display and sales purposes."

"Even now some models in short supply because of limited production are being 'bootlegged.'"

"Under these circumstances, there can be only one reason for this practice—the selfish desire on the part of some dealers for a quick nominal profit at the expense of the customer, the public, the dealer organization, and the manufacturer."

Committee of 9 Eyes Facilities for Teenagers

BIRMINGHAM — In an effort to curb youthful rowdiness and misbehavior, chairman of the Birmingham - Bloomfield - Franklin Council on Community Services, has named a nine-member committee to study the adequacy of teenage recreational facilities.

The council has been asked by a group of civic leaders to undertake the problem after the closing of a teenagers meeting place in the Community House due to youthful misbehavior.

The committee Kase appointed, composed of persons active in community affairs, includes Mrs. Carlton Isley as chairman and Mrs. William H. Jackson, Mrs. T. Hollister Mahley, Mrs. Harvey B. Greene, Estelle Martin, Paul N. Averill, Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley, Paul D. Carter and Carl F. Ingraham.

Stevens Demanding Showdown With Ike

tigating subcommittee on alleged Communist penetration of the service.

It also canceled a showdown hearing with Stevens that was scheduled before television cameras today.

"It has been said I have capitulated to Sen. McCarthy," the 54-year-old Stevens declared in a surprise statement Wednesday night. "I have not capitulated."

As if to prove his point, he then released part of the testimony he had planned to give the subcommittee today. In it he renewed his defense of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker whom he previously had said McCarthy had abused during a subcommittee hearing in New York last week.

"I am here because I feel the integrity of the entire Army is involved," Stevens said. "The prestige and morale of our armed forces are too important to the security of the nation to be weakened by attack on our military personnel."

A transcript showed that McCarthy told Zwicker he was "not fit to wear that uniform" during questioning about the honorable discharge of Maj. Irving Peress, a New York dentist McCarthy called a Fifth Amendment Communist.

Sens. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich.) and Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.), both subcommittee members, insisted today that Stevens did not "capitulate" in the memorandum agreement. Potter defended the agreement as "a suitable solution to the problem."

Sen. Harry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) also a subcommittee member, charged that the Democrats were not consulted about the pact and that Stevens should be permitted to make a "complete and candid statement of his position," presumably before the subcommittee.

High administration sources reported Stevens believed the agreement was far from a surrender because he privately got what he considered iron-clad assurances that McCarthy would not subject Army officers to "any more abuse."

These sources also said McCarthy told Stevens—called off today's scheduled showdown. The gray-haired secretary was ready to go on any time, they declared.

Stevens went along with the agreement, they said, because he thought it would be serving the President's interests to get fair play for Army witnesses and to cooperate with the subcommittee.

Other informants said Stevens joined in the pact only after McCarthy and the three other GOP members of the subcommittee told him bluntly that his position was "untenable."

These sources said the four senators warned Stevens that if he did not agree to their peace terms the rug would be pulled out from under him at the showdown hearing originally filled for today.

They cited three reasons:

1. That Stevens had no right—and indeed did not have the power—to advise Army officers to disregard the subcommittee's subpoenas.
2. That even the secretary's friends would not support his protesting personally to members of the subcommittee about the alleged abuse of Zwicker.
3. That an affidavit from Zwicker to which Stevens referred in his protest apparently went further than the hearing transcript in describing McCarthy's allegedly abusive language.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD) told newsmen he arranged Wednesday's meeting after Dirksen decided both sides should "thrust out the dispute in private" rather than fight it out in the newspapers and on television.

In the partial prepared testimony he released last night, Stevens emphasized that the honorable discharge of Peress was "not the issue" between him and McCarthy.

"The issue is the treatment given a distinguished combat soldier following official orders," he said.

Senate Committee Approves Warren

someone to lie under oath. He later was released, however, by a municipal judge.

The vote to recommend confirmation of Warren's nomination was 12-3, with Senators Kilgore (D-WVa.), Eastland (D-Miss) and Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) casting the opposition votes.

However, Kilgore said that his vote was "in protest against committee procedures" and that he would vote to confirm Warren when his nomination is brought up in the Senate.

Eastland said he voted against recommending approval of Warren's appointment because he didn't think the former governor had "the judicial experience" for chief justice.

Consideration of the nomination rocked along without much fanfare until late last week when a Judiciary subcommittee, at Langer's direction, publicly aired 10 unvalued and unworn charges against Warren.

Among these charges were accusations that Warren, as governor, had appointed dishonest judges, had been under the influence of "a notorious liquor lobbyist" and had followed the Marxist line.

Bratton Is Suspended for Poor Showing

PHILADELPHIA — The Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission today suspended welterweight Johnny Bratton and held up his purse of $4,770 for an "unsatisfactory showing" in his losing decision to Johnny Sexton last night in a nationally televised bout at the Philadelphia Arena.

Bratton, appearing before two of the state's three commissioners, argued that "I fought the best way I could and it isn't my fault that the crowd wasn't pleased."

The commissioners, George Jones of Williamsport, and John Holahan of Pittsburgh, reserved final decision until March 10 when commission chairman Frank Weiner returns from a vacation.

Flint AFL Fight Likely to Widen

Teamsters' Jurisdictional Dispute May Spread to Detroit

FLINT — A bitter jurisdictional fight between two AFL unions over the removal of government machinery from factories today threatened to spread to Detroit.

Representatives of two Detroit companies will meet with officials of the AFL Detroit Building and Trades Council tomorrow to seek a solution to the jurisdictional dispute between the AFL Teamsters Union and the Flint Building Trades Council.

One of the companies, the Commercial Corp. of Detroit, touched off the dispute when it hired teamsters to remove government machinery from the Flint Buick plant.

The Building Trades Council contended the work should have been done by carpenters and threw up pickets at the plant. The picketing has created a tense situation which has threatened to erupt into mass violence.

Attorneys for the trades council were scheduled to appear in Genesee County Circuit Court today to show cause why its members should not be restrained from maintaining the picket lines.

Circuit Judges Stephen Roth, Paul V. Gadoia and Philip Elliot will hear the restraining suit filed by Commercial Contracting Co.

Spokesmen for the teamsters said the union probably would order its members back to work if the restraining order is granted.

In Detroit, representatives of the Dearborn Machinery Movers Co. will meet Friday with union officials in a similar dispute involving the transfer of government machinery from the Packard jet engine plant at Utica and the Ford Motor Co. Livonia tank plant.

Rochester Confirms Vote for New Schools

Electors Back Tax Proposal

4 to 1 Margin Greater Than Support in Vote in December

ROCHESTER — By a more than four to one vote, electors of the Rochester Community School District again confirmed their Dec. 15 decision that they wanted new schools at yesterday's special school election.

The revote, called because an error had occurred in the pre-election notice in December, brought a total of 1,370 voters to the polls.

Supporting the tax limitation of $5.75 per thousand assessed valuation as equalized were 1,073 voters. The "no" ballots numbered 271.

By precincts, number one cast 151 "yes" and 40 "no," number two precinct, 748 "yes" and 197 "no," precinct number three, 173 "yes" and 34 "no."

Only one proposition of the bond issue had to be voted upon again. December's vote brought about two to one votes in favor with 1,833 voting, 1,281 endorsing the issue and 552 in opposition.

The Rochester Community Board of Education met following the closing of the polls and announced that plans are completed for the elementary additions to Hamlin and Goodison schools.

Contractors will submit their bids by 8 p.m. on March 15. Leonard Harding, president of the board, said that the bonds will be put up for sale on March 23 to be sold on a bid basis with the agency charging the lowest rate of interest to receive the business.

Harding stated that plans for the North Hill Elementary school will be started immediately and preliminary planning for the new high school will be initiated by a committee in the near future.

H. E. Beyster Associates of Detroit have been retained as architects and engineers for the building program.

The new fire hall will be an addition to the west side and the front of the present Community Center building. Tentative date for breaking ground has been set for April 1, according to Frederick.

Labor used in constructing the fire hall, Frederick added, will be donated by men of the community.

A group of 40 volunteer firemen will be selected from 50 charter members of the association. The firemen will be instructed in the operation of a new fire truck by six men who have trained with a Detroit fire equipment firm.

Two firemen's training classes will be held each Tuesday beginning March 2. Morning classes will meet from 9 to 1. Evening classes will be held from 7 to 9.

Meetings of the community club have been changed from the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month to the first and third Mondays at 8 p.m. Next meeting will be March 1.

Rochester Clergy Signs Petition Opposing Bingo

By HAZEL A. TRUMBULL
ROCHESTER — An anti-bingo declaration was signed this week by all Rochester ministers opposing a recently introduced bill to legalize the game in Michigan.

The bill will be opposed from the pulpit by the Revs. E. John Yuella, Kenneth W. Burgess, Donald Olson, Edgar A. Lucas, Walter C. Gerken, Roy E. Wilson, Frank Racine and Clarence Sanborn.

The ministerial group is following the stand taken by the Michigan Council of Churches.

"I believe," said Rev. Yuella, "that the Rochester churches, as the Council's eight-point statement helps to clear up much of the cloudy thinking and easy rationalization which is behind those who are in favor of easing the anti-gambling laws." Emphasizing that a compromise on the gambling law would "weaken morally because it promotes the something for nothing philosophy," their statement says that community institutions should never resort to any method for their support which would undermine the morality of the nation.

"Charitable work," they say, "should be supported through the exercise of the religious principle of stewardship."

Legalizing of charitable gambling, the group said, would soon obscure the line between commercial and charitable gambling interests.

Furthermore the group stated that "religious and charitable institutions should desire no special privilege in the use of questionable practices forbidden to society in general."

The Rochester ministers said they would urge their congregations to let their legislative representatives know how constituents feel about the proposal.

Teachers Get Salary Boost

Board of Education OKs $200 Increase in Pay at Walled Lake

WALLED LAKE — Teachers were voted a $200 increase in each step of the salary scale, and maintenance personnel got a $100 boost at this week's Board of Education meeting.

According to Supt. Clifford H. Smart, the move will result in deficit financing for 1954-55, but should make the hiring of additional teachers easier.

The starting salary for teachers holding bachelor's degrees will be $3,400, with a maximum of $4,700 possible. Holders of master's degrees will start at $3,600 and progress to $5,100.

Custodians won an increase in overtime from $1.65 to $2 an hour, and were also granted 12 days sick leave instead of the previous 10.

In other action, the board awarded a contract to outfit the science rooms in the new high school to the Ogelsby Equipment Co., of Detroit, which bid $24,337.50.

A contract was approved for Mrs. Retta Lewis to teach the fourth grade at Union School.

Sausage Bakes in Spicy Sauce

A quickly made barbecue sauce perks up the flavor and appearance of highly economical sausage meat in this recipe. No long cooking time is necessary as with similar recipes. The leaves, too, are a simple combination of sausage and corn flakes, seasoned moderately with onions and salt.

With the sauce poured over the leaves while baking, the result is a rich, spicy, tasty entrée that's very inexpensive. One pound of sausage makes 6 servings.

Individual Barbecued Sausage Leaves

4 cups corn flakes
1 pound bulk pork sausage
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon minced onion
egg, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup catsup
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cup Tabasco sauce
1/2 cup chopped onion

Crush corn flakes slightly; combine with sausage, milk, onions, egg and salt; mix well. Shape into 6 individual loaves. Place in greased shallow pan.

Combine catsup, Worcestershire sauce, Tabasco sauce and onions in small saucepan and heat to boiling point. Pour over loaves. Bake in 350 oven about 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Cream Cheese Spread Enlivens Gingerbread

Here's a way to dress up that gingerbread you've made from a handy package.

Soften a small package of cream cheese and gradually add enough light cream or homogenized milk to make it fluffy; now mix in some chopped maraschino cherries, sliced dates and nuts. Put a generous spoonful of this delicious topping on each square of warm gingerbread as you serve it.

Dental Scientists Working on Protection of Enamel

Dental scientists may have struck pay dirt in their efforts to reduce dental decay. If so, the average American can hope to have his sweets, yet have fewer decayed, missing and filled teeth than at present. But it is yet to be proved.

To lessen the degree of decay, dental scientists have studied the use of "chemical barricades"—the newly talked of anti-enzymes.

Anti-enzyme protection is based on the widely held theory that decay is caused by acids attacking the enamel of teeth; acids that are produced by the action of bacteria on foods containing high levels of sugar, foods that many people enjoy.

The little demons that cause the fermentation use enzymes as their tools to change sugar rapidly into enamel destroying acids. Those foods recognized as carbohydrate foods because they contain starch, sodium lauroyl sarcosinate and sodium dehydroacetate, hold the most promise.

Because these tongue twisters are absorbed by the film which covers the teeth their protection lasts for several hours.

It is hoped that evidence from clinical tests on tooth pastes containing the anti-enzymes will demonstrate that these "chemical barricades" are as effective in prevention of dental decay as the theory now indicates.

Winter Eggs Used to Be Scarce as Hen's Teeth

Angel food cake is in season now — as are other dishes calling for generous amounts of eggs. Homemakers of 20 years ago were careful how they used eggs in the winter time.

But thanks to the "modern" hen who lays more and more eggs each week during the winter, today's homemakers needn't exercise economy in the use of eggs during this season.

Sex Criminal Bill Is OK'd

State Senate Approves Bar to Petitions Putting Offenders in Hospitals

Michigan's Senate Wednesday approved a bill to keep sex offenders' families from filing petitions asking the offenders be sent to mental hospitals.

The bill went to the State House of Representatives, where a similar bill, introduced by Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) is still hanging fire in the Judiciary committee.

But Broomfield said he doubted if either bill would be passed, as many legislators favor repealing the earlier Michigan Criminal Sexual Psychopathic act—rather than making "piecemeal changes" in it.

Broomfield's bill, drafted by Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem and former Judge Glenn C. Gillespie, applies only to murderers. It would keep murderers from being sent to state mental hospitals under the state's criminal sex psychopathic law.

The Senate bill would let the prosecuting attorney, with permission from the attorney general, ask that a sex slayer or other sex offender be hospitalized; but ban the offender or his family from so asking.

The House bill grew out of the Donald V. O'Brien case here. O'Brien, who admitted slaying Mrs. Hallie Perkins, was committed to a mental hospital on his family's petition before he could be brought to trial. He can never be tried, now, even if released.

Cyclist Blinded by Snow Hits Car, Suffers Bruises

Alex W. Dillashaw, 14, of 168 Judson St., was treated at Pontiac General Hospital Wednesday for bruises suffered when his bicycle crashed into an auto backing out of a driveway on Auburn avenue near Ardmore avenue.

The youth told Pontiac Police he was blinded momentarily by snow and ran into the auto driven by Samuel K. Lemon, 24, of 240 N. Homer St., Lansing.

Ailing Pope Shows Slight Improvement

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Ailing Pope Pius "slept fairly well" during the night and his general condition early today showed a slight improvement, the Vatican press office announced.

Other Vatican sources earlier had described the Pope's general condition as still stationary. Severe attacks of hiccups had kept him from sleeping and severely weakened him during the first weeks of his month-long illness.

The pontiff, who will be 78 next Tuesday, is believed to be suffering from gastritis but his inability to retain the barium solution necessary for X-ray examination has prevented a complete diagnosis. He is on a semiliquid diet and is able to leave his bed for only brief periods.

The U. S. monthly milk production is around eight million pounds.

Farouk Hopes That Naguib Saves Skin

CANNES, France (AP)—"I hope poor Naguib can save his skin,"

Ex-King Farouk's secretary, Andre Chardonnens, said today that was Farouk's comment when informed that the Egyptian President who deposed him had resigned.

Chardonnens said Farouk expressed no surprise and recalled that he predicted at the time of his own downfall in July, 1952, that Naguib would be in power for two years at the most before being overthrown.

Farouk has little respect for Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, leader of the military council which forced Naguib out, Chardonnens said, adding:

"He knows he is just an adventurer."

Farouk, who is vacationing here and spent last night in his usual round of night clubs and casinos, also commented, Chardonnens told reporters:

"They say things have to get worse before they can get better. Egypt now is having the worst; let's hope the best is coming soon."

Ann Arbor Navy Airman Missing in Plane Crash

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Navy Lt. David B. Holcombe, 28, of Ann Arbor has been reported missing by the Navy following a plane crash off Korea Jan. 22.

Lt. Holcombe is attached to a nightfighter squadron aboard the carrier USS Essex.

The Navy said a plane search failed to turn up any trace of the missing airman.

Gamma Globulin Will Be Available for Polio Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two officials of the Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM) said today gamma globulin will be available for use against polio this summer despite a somewhat inconclusive report on its effectiveness last summer.

Stressing that their statement does not imply criticism of that report, the officials said ODM, which administered distribution of the material last summer under a rationing system, had not yet determined what role it will play this year.

Dr. A. B. Price and Joseph E. Brown of ODM's health resources staff said in a joint interview: "ODM is prepared to continue administering the distribution of gamma globulin for polio this summer, provided a satisfactory plan is agreed upon among officials of the ODM, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers who are planning to discuss the subject early in March."

"But even if, for any reason, ODM should decide there is no longer a need for it to administer the program, there would be no reason why gamma globulin could not be distributed by the Foundation and the Red Cross and used by doctors as they see fit."

Dr. Price and Brown made the comments in reply to questions as to what effect, if any, a recent report by a committee of polio experts who evaluated gamma globulin's use last summer would have on future plans of the government.

Crop-Killing Dust Chokes Farms, Bringing Drought

By HARMON KALEMAN
Denver Post Staff Writer

DENVER.—Drought seldom is dramatic. Ordinarily it spreads like a silent cancer. But in southeastern Colorado today it is a tangible, fearsome force. You feel the grit between your teeth, between your fingers, in your eyes, even though it may not be blowing. You begin to itch all over with it as you watch mile after mile of fences buried in blown dust and sand, telegraph poles and farm equipment banked high with the powdery stuff that kills rich farmland.

The farther south and east you go, the fewer furrows you can discern in what was plowed wheatland a short week ago.

You can drive 100 miles east of here and see little sign of the disastrous dust storm of last week and the blow Monday that added insult to injury.

But once into Hugo, the Lincoln County seat, you know the dust has been there. This is what I saw when I made a trip into the area:

Just a few miles to the south and the world turned gray. A few hundred yards off main Highway 109 on a section-line road you could see the first bitter evidence. It looked curiously like an ocean beach with a few weeds rising above the wind-eruptured sand. There was moisture beneath it. Broken cedar fence posts looked like driftwood.

Bob White of Rocky Ford, who superintends 70,000 acres of Colorado farmland for the Baughman Farms Co. of Liberal, Kan., was driving by.

"This is hardly anything," he said. "Go to Haswell and Eads. It'll break your heart."

"See, this winter wheat is still green, even though it's sick and you can barely see the furrows that were here until last week. With moisture this will still make wheat."

"It's not as bad as it was in Texas in the 1930s, but I've never seen one storm do so much damage as that one last week."

Farther south you noticed that the fences not covered by dunes were blown thick with weeds, like brown hedgerows.

On a side road in northeast Crowley County you came upon a grader plowing deep-banked dust that looked finer than the sand crystals you had seen in Lincoln County.

"I've lived here all my life," said the operator, Henry Manweiler, 71, of Sugar City. "I was a kid during the dust bowl days. But I never saw one like this anytime."

A woman was hanging out clothes to dry in the yard of a big ranch house near the Crowley-Kiowa County line.

"No, I won't tell you my name," she said. "I don't like publicity. But I can tell you about that dust storm last week."

"There are miles of broken fences all around here, but the cattle aren't wandering off—there's nothing out there to tempt them."

"People are almost in a panic. They want to know where they can get a job, to carry them over. Fellow over that way said all he'd have to do to get ready to leave this county would be to back his truck up to the door; his wife would do the rest."

Cosmopolitan State

BOISE, Ida., (INS).—Travelers in Idaho might easily adopt the airs of international tourists—if they take seriously the names of the cities and towns they pass through. Without leaving the state of Idaho, a traveler may boast that he has been to Naples, Moscow, Troy, Cambridge, Ontario, Amsterdam, Bern, Paris and Geneva.

Woman Beats Husband at His Favorite Sport

ATLANTA (UP).—Some women sit on the sidelines while their husbands enjoy sports. But Mrs. Guy Davis of Atlanta, tired of watching her husband sharp-shoot, took up his sport. One month after she fired her first shot, she qualified as a marksman under National Rifle Association rules.

Within the next three months, she won the women's division of an Atlanta match. A year later she took the Georgia state women's championship.

Then, she entered the same matches as her husband and beat him in some of the 22 automatic rifle contests. At last year's mid-winter Nationals in Tampa, Fla., she won high score for women with a .22 automatic, and second highest overall score for women. Her husband finished fourth in the civilian shooting class.

Mrs. Davis, mother of three preschool age children, said women often surpass men as marksmen, "because women have in-born timing and coordination."

Subway Opens Soon in Toronto

Fare on 4-Mile System Will Be 3 for a Quarter, Same as for Surface

TORONTO (NEA) — Canadians will no longer have to travel south of the international border to find out what a New York subway is like in rush hours.

They can now find out at home on the new Toronto underground system which officially opens this spring, just four and one-half years after the first excavations began.

For a long time to come Torontonians expect they'll have the cheapest subway ride on the continent.

While it cost the municipally-owned Toronto Transit Commission close to $50,000,000 to build the four and one-half miles of subway under the city's main north-south thoroughfare, Yonge Street, riders will pay the same as on the surface system—three fares for 25 cents, with free transfers thrown in.

Late this summer fares are expected to increase to a straight 20 cents with free transfers.

Incidentally, the Toronto Transit Commission built the subway largely from surplus piled up over the years when fares were four for 25 cents. They were upped to the present only two years ago.

Riders will be able to tell their 13 stations by color as well as by name. The glass masonry walls will be either of egg shell, primrose or pearl gray, with bands of red, forest green, blue or black.

The subway cars, which were built in England, have been acoustically treated with cork and other sound deadening materials.

Rails have been set on rubber cushions on solid concrete slabs for quiet operation. And there are no dark tunnels. Even between stations the subway has been brilliantly lighted.

Sees Cows Given Too Much Protein

URBANA, Ill. (INS)—A University of Illinois dairy expert believes many dairymen are feeding their cows rations which are too high in protein.

Karl Gardner says dairy cows will not respond to a high protein ration, and adds that such a ration will not profitably increase production.

Therefore, he says, the farmer who puts too much protein in his dairy rations is going to a needless expense.

Edward II of England established the inch as the length of three barley corns laid end to end.
