2 Brothers Out on $20,000 Bond in Till Kidnaping

Mississippi Defendants Waive the Expected Preliminary Hearing

GREENWOOD, Miss. (AP)—Roy Bryant and John W. Milam, charged with kidnaping the 14-year-old Chicago boy they were found innocent of murdering, were freed under $10,000 bonds today on the kidnap charge.

County Judge Charles Pollard set the bonds after the two men waived the expected preliminary hearing.

Bryant, 24, and his 36-year-old half-brother strode from Leflore County Jail with their attorneys. Bryant carried a paper sack containing personal effects. Milam carried nothing.

The men's wives did not appear at the jail when the men gained freedom.

An all-white male jury at Sumner in neighboring Tallahatchie County took 67 minutes last week to find the half-brothers innocent of murdering Emmett Louis Till.

Two Leflore County deputies testified at the murder trial that Bryant and Milam admitted kidnaping Till from the farm of his sharecropper uncle Mose Wright Aug. 28 but insisted they released him unharmed when it turned out he was not the one who allegedly whistled and made an indecent proposal to Bryant's 21-year-old wife.

The verdict gave rise to rumors that Till might still be alive. Sheriff H. C. Strider in nearby Charleston said he heard Till was in Detroit but added: "As far as knowing anything definite, I don't know it."

At Detroit, Mrs. Mamie Bradley, the boy's mother, called the rumors a "cruel hoax" and said she was willing to have the body exhumed for an examination.

Ike Has 'Excellent' Night; '56 Candidacy Questioned

DENVER (AP)—The direction of government shifted back to Denver today as President Eisenhower continued to improve from his heart attack and his chief deputy flew here from Washington.

One of his principal physicians added to the growing evidence Eisenhower will retire at the end of his present term by saying if he were the President he "wouldn't want to run again."

Dr. Paul Dudley White, asked whether it would be possible for the President to run again, told a television audience:

"Many things are possible that may not be advisable. It is up to him to make the decision. He may or may not have complete recovery. If I were in his shoes I would not want to run again, having seen the strain."

In the 7 a.m. Denver time medical bulletin, Eisenhower's doctors at Fitzsimons Army Hospital here reported he enjoyed an "excellent" night—their first use of that word since his heart attack last Saturday.

Previously they have termed his nights "comfortable" or "very comfortable."

For the first time also, the medical men said the President spent the night outside an oxygen tent, sleeping "almost continuously from 9 p.m. to 6:30 a.m." Heretofore he has been spending most of the day outside the oxygen tent but returning to it for assurance of nightly rest.

"His progress continues to be satisfactory without complication," the medical bulletin added.

The decision of Sherman Adams, the assistant to the President, to join the Denver White House party, spelled the virtual end of any possible plans to delegate any of Eisenhower's authority during his illness.

Adams is due here tonight from a Cabinet meeting in Washington over which Vice President Nixon is presiding.

SHERMAN ADAMS

This is 56-year-old Sherman Adams, who as President Eisenhower's No. 1 aide, has become one of the most influential men in the nation. Adams flies from Washington to Denver today to take charge of the temporary White House.

Gives Nearly $20 Million

NEW YORK (AP)—The Rockefeller Foundation said in its annual report its grants and other costs totaled $19,107,665 last year.

Weekend Weather: Cool and Cloudy

More cloudy weather is in store for this area according to the U. S. Weather Bureau. In fact the weatherman foresees cloudy skies for today, tonight and tomorrow. Cooler weather also is on the way.

Today's predicted high of 65 degrees was reached by 1 p.m. Tonight the mercury may drop as low as 43 degrees.

The high tomorrow is expected to be from 58 to 62 degrees.

Downtown today's low before 8 a. m. was 64 degrees. The thermometer registered 66 at 2 p.m.

Floods Roaring Down on Mexico in Janet's Wake

Hurricane Toll Climbs to 400 as Storm Beats Itself Out in Mountains

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Disastrous new floods roared down on Mexico's Gulf Coast today in the wake of Hurricane Janet as the killer storm beat itself out against the Sierra Madre Mountains.

The worst of three hurricanes that smashed into east Mexico this month, Janet already had killed at least 200 Mexicans plus 209 other persons on Caribbean islands.

In the storm's wake, torrential rains swelled rivers already flooding from the northern Tamaulipas state to Veracruz. The toll of dead and displaced was expected to rise hourly.

The three big trans-Caribbean hurricanes — Gladys, Hilda and Janet — already have caused an estimated 600 deaths in Mexico. Property damage is reckoned at some 200 million dollars, almost half the national government's 1955 budget.

Janet's course was obscured during the storm's late hours by the havoc its 120-mile-an-hour winds wreaked on communications. Nautla, a port of 1,500 persons about 75 miles north of Veracruz, was the only populated place in the path. It had just reported a growing gale and high water when connections were abruptly cut.

Tampico, already under water from the two previous hurricanes and the flooding Panuco River, reported a new rise in waters. Exhausted from their three-week battle against winds, floods and disease, thousands abandoned the city in a mass exodus.

Tampico's food supply was dropping daily, medical supplies were low, and both typhoid and dysentery had broken out.

Veracruz, important port of 120,000, had braced itself for the full force of the hurricane. Janet capriciously sidestepped the city, but accompanying rains and excessively high tides inundated the port, only four feet above sea level. Main streets were under several feet of water.

Checker and Chess Fans Polish Game

THEY'LL TAKE ON WORLD CHAMP — Getting in practice for the big Pontiac Press Chess and Checkers Exhibition Tuesday night, in which they'll try their skill against world champion Newell W. Banks, are checkers players Mrs. Paul Salzman of 28 State St. and L. E. Pace, 1101 Lakeview. Offering suggestions is one of Pontiac's well known checkers players, R. E. Dunham of 272 Cottage St. Newell will take on all players simultaneously at the exhibition and carry on three games of blindfold checkers at the same time.

Fans Preparing to Meet Champ

'Chess, Checker Expert to Meet All Comers in Press Exhibition

With the big Pontiac Press sponsored Chess and Checkers Exhibition only four days away, more players prepared to join the fun and try their luck against world champion Newell W. Banks.

Banks, holder of the world's speed record at mixed chess and checkers, will take on all comers simultaneously, and, at the same time, carry on blindfold games with three of the best checkers players.

The exhibition will be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in Stevens Hall, Pike street just west of Williams.

The game is free to all, and novices as well as experienced players in Pontiac and surrounding areas are enthusiastically preparing to try their luck.

Long-time players were honing the razor-edge of competition today, picking their favorites in the hope of beating Banks at his own game.

Chess fans are pinning their hopes on several keen players, among them 16-year-old Dennis Gibson of 137 Osceola Dr., who trounced Banks in a similar exhibition last year in Detroit.

Checkers enthusiasts were putting up Delos Dunham, 37, of 272 Cottage St. as their favorite. Delos and his father, R. E. Dunham, president of the Chess and Checkers Club of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept., have been playing Banks in every exhibition they could get to since 1934.

So far they haven't won, but

More Salk Shots Ready

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Public Health Service today announced release of another 2,604,153 cubic centimeters, or "shots," of Salk antipolio vaccine.

Dye Bound Over to Court on Farm Shooting Count

Former Fenton Village Attorney Clifford B. Dye, accused of deliberately shooting a tenant farmer the evening of Aug. 26, today was bound over to Circuit Court.

Charged with assault with intent to murder, the 53-year-old attorney will be arraigned Oct. 10. Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib, before whom Dye was examined, continued a $10,000 bond Dye has been on since his justice court arraignment.

William C. Clark, the 27-year-old Holly Township farmer Dye allegedly shot, testified this morning that Dye carefully took aim and shot him in a barnyard on a farm Clark leases from Dye and his sister, Viola.

The youthful farmer, who appeared shaky, said Dye drew a .25-caliber pistol from his pocket, accidentally fired one shot into the ground as he cocked it, then calmly drew a bead on Clark's stomach and pulled the trigger.

He had just completed caring for some cows, when Dye approached, and asked him about a door that was broken off the barn.

Clark, showing pain whenever he moved in the witness chair, said he and Dye had been having trouble over the lease. On his attorney's advice, he said he told Dye to see his lawyer, that he didn't want to talk to him.

Then Dye drew the gun and fired the two shots, he said. A third shot was fired but missed him, he added.

Clark broke down just after a recess was called. His wife, Lois, 26, said yesterday that she and her two small daughters accompanied Clark to Dye's farm. She was in the family's pickup truck, with the girls when she saw Dye, whose house is nearby, approach the barn where her husband was working.

She said after the first two shots were fired, Clark wrestled with Dye, trying to get the gun from him. Then they both slipped on a slight rise, the gun discharged, she said, and it fell from Dye's hand. She picked it up and put it in her pocket, she testified.

Mystery Blast Rocks Frisco

Near-Panic and Huge Traffic Jams Follow Odd Explosion

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—Source of a blast that rattled San Francisco and created a near-panic among residents remained a mystery today.

* * *

The blast was felt at 7:20 o'clock last night, rattling windows and doors in homes in nearly every district of the city, but caused no serious damage.

Thousands of jittery persons leaped to their telephones and flooded switchboards and police stations.

For a solid hour it was difficult to get any telephone calls through and a half dozen exchanges became completely inoperative because of the overload.

* * *

Many people ran into the street to exchange comments about the "big noise." A monster traffic jam developed in the Sunset district when a false report was broadcast saying a cleaning shop blew up in that area.

Police and the military services said they were as mystified as anyone else about the blast.

Experienced San Franciscans knew it was not an earthquake. This was confirmed by seismologists who said no shock registered on their instruments.

SCORES ON HOMER IN SECOND—Mickey Mantle, Yankee's centerfielder, leans into dugout for a word with Manager Casey Stengel just before surprise announcement that Mickey would start in today's game against the Dodgers. He missed the first two games because of an injury. Mantle hit a home run in the top of the second.

County Workers Get Boost in Pay

4 to 7 Per Cent Hike in Wages Next Year, Auditor Reports

Oakland County employes will receive 1956 wage increases ranging from 4 to 7 per cent, auditor John C. Austin said today.

The average over-all pay increase will be about 6 per cent.

A survey was made of wages paid by other public agencies and private business concerns and the hikes recommended to put the county in line with them, Austin explained.

It is hoped the increases will encourage employes to remain longer with the county, thus cutting down on turnover, he stated.

Salaries in 1956 will total $3,644,401.

Ready Next Fall, Will Stress Safety Features

Indiana Turnpike to Be Final New York-Chicago Link

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indiana's east-west toll toad which will be the final link in an 875-mile toll expressway between New York and Chicago, will have more built-in safety features than any of the toll roads built up to now.

The toll road commission says there is no other toll road with deicing equipment built into the concrete roadways at the toll plazas, where motorists will pay their fee as they leave the road.

Working something like an ice skating rink in reverse, the deicers will be composed of pipes embedded in the concrete through which heat will be circulated to prevent ice from forming.

Another safety feature will be the paving of the road shoulders with blacktop having an especially roughened surface to create a roar from tires, awakening any dozing driver whose car leaves the main roadway.

Ohio Turnpike Toll $3 for 241 Miles

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—At one minute past midnight tonight cars and trucks start using the entire length of the 241-mile Ohio Turnpike that sweeps across northern Ohio, joining the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

The Turnpike cost 326 million dollars. It serves four heavily populated areas—Cleveland, Toledo, Youngstown and Akron—and a host of smaller cities.

It will cost $3 to drive your family car the whole distance. The speed limit is 65 m.p.h. for cars and 55 m.p.h. for trucks.

In most respects the Indiana road resembles the Ohio Turnpike, which is being opened for its entire 241-mile length at midnight tonight, but the Indiana road has a 300-foot right-of-way, compared with Ohio's 250 feet.

Both roads have scooped-out dividing strips between the two dual lanes designed to prevent out-of-control cars from crossing over and causing collisions. The width of the strips also reduced headlight glare.

Indiana's road has a minimum distance of 56 feet between the two dual lanes.

All toll roads feature gentle curves and grades to make it unnecessary for traffic to slow down.

Even where no curves are necessary, the Indiana road will have a gradual curve at least every two miles to help eliminate the monotony of steady driving which leads to dozing at the wheel.

The minimum sight distance will be 900 feet, and there'll be no signboards to distract the attention of drivers. Advertising billboards are prohibited on the right-of-way and the toll road commission wrote into its purchase options a provision preventing the sellers of right-of-way land from putting up advertising.

Commission officials expect some signs will be erected on land over which it has no control.

Other states have met this problem by planting trees and shrubs in such a way as to block the view of such signs from the road.

The state's 65-mile-an-hour speed limit will be enforced on the toll road, even though it is designed to be safe for speeds up to 80 miles an hour. But engineers say motorists will be able to cross Indiana an hour and 25 minutes faster on the toll road than on the best competing free highway route.

They'll pay at the rate of 11-5 cents a mile for the time-saving and additional safety.

Enforcement of traffic regulations will be in the hands of a special detail of Indiana State Police whose training, equipment and salaries will be paid for by the commission. The detail will total 75 men, and the first group already is completing training at the State Police Academy at Indiana University.

The toll road detail will get several months practical experience with regular state police before the first section of the toll road is opened. The easternmost 50 miles is scheduled to be opened late next summer, extending west almost to Elkhart.

Only one construction contract remains to be let for the Indiana Road. This is for .6 of a mile at the western end, connecting with the Calumet Skyway, which is to be completed Jan. 1, 1958. This

Deputies Probe Three Breakins

Manufacturing Firm, Auto Sales, Garage Entered During Night

Three breakins during the past two nights were being investigated today by Oakland County Sheriff's detectives.

They were:

The Hi-Mill Manufacturing Co., located at 1704 Highland Rd., Milford, where an estimated $100 was taken from a small cash box in owners Robert and Richard Beard's office. Filing cabinets in the firm's offices were pried open and ransacked, officers stated. Entry was made Wednesday night through an unlocked rear door.

Nothing has been determined missing from Peterson's Sales and Service, an auto sales firm at 1684 Auburn Rd., Avon Township. Entry was made last night through a rest room where officers found a section of the wall removed.

An electric drill, gasoline and a gasoline drum were reported taken last night from a garage at 1684 Lake George Rd., Addison Township. Officers said means of entry has not been determined.

Cranbrook Club to Meet Tuesday for Film Show

The season's second meeting of the Foreign Film Club takes place Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. at the Cranbrook Institute of Sciences. One Italian and two English films are to be shown. On November 1, "The Imposter", a Japanese film will have its first showing in this area.

The Italian film, "Strange Deception", is Curzio Malaparte's work about an Italian soldier seeking a betrayer of his brother. One English film, "Between Two Worlds", attempts to weave dancers, sets and colors into a moving abstract pattern; the other, "Go Slow on the Brighton Line", deals with a speeded up trip from London to Brighton.

The Foreign Film Club, which meets the first Tuesday of every month at Cranbrook Institute of Science, is open to the public. Admission is by donation.

To Propose Moving Dodgers to Mexico

NEW YORK (INS) — Former Mayer William O'Dwyer is in New York on "legal business" and to root for the Dodgers against the Yankees in the World Series, but he has a proposition to move the Brooklyn club to Mexico.

The ex-ambassador to Mexico said he was meeting with Dodger President Walter O'Malley within a week on his proposition.

At his home in Amityville, L. I., O'Malley, whose team is two down in the Series, was asked about the proposed switch. He said:

"If we blow this Series, Mexico City won't be far enough south for us."

Hopes Tax Payments Will Help Her Sleep

LONDON (AP)—The British income tax collector received a letter today from an anonymous woman who said she couldn't sleep because of her unpaid tax.

She inclosed 10 pounds — $28 — and added in a postscript:

"If I still find I can't sleep, I'll send you some more money."

7 Soviet Journalists Granted U.S. Visas

MOSCOW (INS) — Seven leading Soviet journalists have been granted visas to visit the U. S. as official representatives of the Russian government.

A U. S. spokesman in Moscow said today the group, headed by Boris Polevoi, planned to start the trip to the U. S. next week.

As "official" representatives, the journalists were not required to be fingerprinted, a regulation which had blocked visits earlier this year by 11 editors of Russian youth newspapers who refused to comply with it.

Sleeping Sickness Strikes in Michigan

NILES (AP) — The dread disease of encephalitis (sleeping sickness) apparently has spread to southern Michigan.

With a toll of 10 dead in a tri-state area of Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois, a 7-year-old Niles boy now has been stricken with the mysterious disease.

Theodore William Christman, of rural Niles, has been taken to Indiana Children's Hospital at South Bend, Ind. His sickness was diagnosed as encephalitis Sunday.

A mysterious outbreak of the sleeping sickness has spread through the tri-state region in the past month, leaving doctors at a loss to explain it.

Chess Players Ready to Face Champion

Dunham Sr. got one draw out of three and Delos got eight draws out of 17 games when they met the champion Sept. 3 and Sept. 11 this year at the Michigan State Fair.

Of the 60 members of the Chess and Checkers Club, many have announced their intention to play against Banks, Leonard T. Buzz, Pontiac supervisor of recreation, said.

In addition to the big night exhibition, Banks also will appear at the Pontiac Boys' Club for a 4 p. m. exhibition. Boys at the club have been boning up on the games for the past week, preparing for the event.

Banks, one of the world's leading exhibitionists of simultaneous chess and checkers, loses only about one game in 2,000 at checkers, and possibly four in 100 at chess, in simultaneous exhibitions.

Freed American Balks at Journey

HONOLULU (INS) — A Houston, Tex., man freed last Monday by the Chinese Communists, was reported today to have refused to continue his journey home.

An eastbound Pan-American plane arrived in Honolulu last night and the passengers and crew reported that Dilmus Kanady, 36, who spent four years in Red prisons, got off the plane at Wake Island.

* * *

Plane Capt. Cliff George said Kanady told him he will "not budge" from Wake until the military sends a plane for him.

Passengers said that Kanady appeared dazed and that he apparently feared he was not really headed for home.

Maples Open EML Race; Shoot for Third Victory

Entertaining serious Eastern Michigan League title aspirations, Birmingham High School's veteran football team launches its EML campaign tonight at Mt. Clemens against the Bathers.

Coach Carl Lemle's ambitious Maples, undefeated in two non-league affairs, will be heavy favorites to down the Bathers. The invading Maples have the guns for the job and should get off to a flying start.

Mt. Clemens, considered the loop's "weak sister" this season, has suffered resounding setbacks at the hands of Grosse Pointe and Van Dyke. Coach Bob Shenky faces a rebuilding task at Mt. Clemens and has a squad largely constituted of sophomores.

Remaining Eastern Michigan League schools do not begin loop play until a week hence. Tonight will find Ferndale at Pontiac, Willow Run at Hazel Park, Monroe Catholic Central at East Detroit, and Port Huron at Lansing Eastern, all non-league games.

Royal Oak, 25-7 winner over Hazel Park in its season opener last Friday, starts its Border Cities League warfare tonight against defending champion Grosse Pointe in a crucial battle on the latter's gridiron. The Acorns, runners-up a year ago, will be pointing for their BCL rival, which handed them their only loss in 1954.

Coach Fred Campbell's Cranbrook team, which dropped its season inaugural to Birmingham last week, 22-13, faces Lake Forest from urban Chicago in a non-league scrap Saturday afternoon at Cranbrook. The Cranes belong to the Inter-State Prep League.

In the east, the only uncompleted part of the Chicago-New York route is the Delaware Memorial Bridge which will link the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Turnpikes. The New Jersey Turnpike will carry traffic to the edge of New York.

Completion of the entire Indiana Road is scheduled for Nov. 15, 1956, although construction now is slightly behind schedule.

Commie Guns on Amoy Fire on Nationalists

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Communist Chinese guns on Amoy Island fired more than 100 shells at Nationalist-held Little Quemoy and Chuyu islands today, the official Nationalist Central News Agency reported.

The agency said the shelling was sporadic and spread over 17 hours. It said Nationalist guns fired back vigorously.

No damage nor casualties were reported.

Bar New Industries, LA Urged in Smog

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, in an unprecedented recognition of the smog peril, recommends that new industries be barred from Los Angeles basin unless they can be made pollution-free.

The chamber's board of directors previously dedicated to the idea that "all business is good business" yesterday approved a "program of action" to meet the "serious threats to living values, business values and property values."

The statement listed automobiles, industry and incinerators as the chief contributors to smog, in that order.

Another smog alert — calling for a ban on open burning — was predicted for today.

Helps Negro Orphanage

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Novelist Theodore Dreiser's widow has left one fifth of an estate valued at more than $100,000 to a "worthy Negro orphanage." The orphanage was not named. Most of the remainder of the estate was left to relatives. Mrs. Dreiser died Sept. 22 in Gresham, Ore.

State Police Act to Prevent Tieup

Warn of U.S.23 Detour Expected to Jam Cars at UM-MSU Contest

Anticipating extremely heavy traffic to jam main state highways Saturday as grid fans head toward Ann Arbor for the Michigan State, University of Michigan football game, State Police today revealed plans to ease congestion.

Persons leaving from this area were warned that a detour on U.S. 23 will cause jamming at the north Ann Arbor city limits.

Heaviest congestion is expected between the junction of M112 (expressway) and U.S.112, dium. This traffic flow will be eased as necessary by routing cars northbound on 23 west on Ellsworth Road to State Road and north to the stadium.

In event of extreme congestion, expressway traffic will be routed southwest on U.S.112 and north on State Road.

Officials urged motorists leaving from this area to allow at least 1½-2 hours driving time to reach the game.

The Washtenaw County Road Commission will post special signs on principal and alternate routes giving directions to the stadium.

Troopers will use a low-flying plane to observe traffic and as needed, advise ground traffic officers by radio of congestion. Some 85 additional officers will be posted at intersections to direct cars and patrol roadways between Detroit, Lansing and Ann Arbor.

University officials have provided new parking places for about 600 cars in an area between the stadium and State Road, which is reached easily by traffic northbound on State Road.

Wilson Will Make 2 Trips to Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson plans to make two quick trips to Europe next month. First, he will attend the NATO defense ministers meeting in Paris, and later the foreign ministers meeting in Geneva.

The Pentagon chief expects to leave the capital on Oct. 8 and join the three-day defense meeting at Paris beginning on Oct. 10. He will head back to Washington on Oct. 13.

He will make his second trip in time to be in Geneva for the start of the foreign ministers conferences about Oct. 24.

Originally, Wilson had planned to be away until about Nov. 1, making visits to Turkey, Pakistan and Spain in between the defense and foreign ministers meeting. He now has changed that schedule.

The secretary and Mrs. Wilson expect to fly by commercial plane to Louisiana Saturday. They will visit the Wilsons' new farm home at Norwood. Wilson is scheduled to address a community meeting at Baton Rouge on Monday night.

Address Now Changed

The address is no longer correct which was listed yesterday for Patrick W. Duggan, 21, who pleaded guilty to a kidnaping charge in Oakland County Circuit Court Wednesday. Another family has moved into 56 Mathews St. since Duggan's arrest.

The Day in Birmingham

Recreation Board Seeks to Hire Full-Time Director

BIRMINGHAM — Lacking a quorum Recreation Board members took no formal action at a special meeting last night, but did consider channels to go through in seeking out a qualified man to serve as the city's full-time recreation director.

This authority was given the board last week by its "parents" financial and facility wise — the city and Board of Education, respectively. It is through these two bodies that the recreation board functions, with the city supplying cash and the school board donating its facilities.

The National Recreation Assn., municipal organs and university vocational bureaus will be looked to for aid in hiring an experienced person for the director's job. His salary will be the responsibility of both "parents" but his direction will stem from plans fostered by the Recreation Board.

Last week's joint meeting of all three groups led to what will be an innovation for the school board in the recreation program, that of taking over operating of its three school swimming pools for pupils in the school district. The city will control the rest of the program, which can be limited to Birmingham residents.

Mounting population brought on geographical problems, and since the school district involves several communities, it was felt school facilities could not equitably be limited to those living within city boundaries.

Monthly reports show a decrease in building and an increase accident-wise, through August. There were 65 building permits issued last month, compared with 58 in August, 1954.

Of the 65 whose valuation is estimated at $490,850, 21 were for new single family residences estimated to cost $316,000. Total permits issued this year number 432, as against 461 through this time last year.

The Police Department's accident report indicated an August, 1955 toll greater than either July, 1955 or August, 1954, for a total of 50 accidents causing an estimated $11,280 in property damage.

Following too closely and right-of-way violations again led in the cause of accidents, said Moxley, who stressed "courtesy and caution as the vital ingredients in any safe driving policy."

A report from the Fire Department shows 38 runs made last month. While $264,000 was the amount of property endangered by fire, $5,725 was the actual fire loss.

Firemen made 23 silent runs for fires and fire investigations, 9 for gas investigations, 3 first aid runs and 3 miscellaneous.

A little bit of businessman's ingenuity is paying off, according to Foster Toothacker, chairman of the Retail Merchants' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Tonight will be the third Friday when bargain rates are offered from 6 to 9 only by over 20 merchants, who are lowering prices on some particular piece of merchandise, The stunt is a step to induce more customers into the business district for Friday night shopping, and has been very successful, Toothacker said. Come Saturday, prices will be as usual again.

As an added attraction, the merchants' committee distributes free parking meter nickels between 6 and 8 p.m. They are attached to a list of the evening bargains.

New Comet Jetliner Again Takes to Air

HATFIELD, England (AP)—A new Comet jet airliner — the Mark — — took off today on the first long distance flight for the sleek British planes since they were grounded 18 months ago.

The original Comet Mark Is were involved in a series of crashes in the Mediterranean area in 1954. A government court of inquiry blamed metal fatigue for one crash off the Isle of Elba when 35 persons were killed. Another crash off Naples, believed from the same cause, killed 21 persons.

Williams Drops Alabama Talk

Governor Won't Give Address Due to Racial Discrimination

LANSING (AP)—Because Negroes are barred from publicly dining with whites, Gov. Williams announced he will not address a Democratic dinner at Birmingham, Ala.

* * *

Williams was scheduled to be the principal speaker at an Alabama Jackson-Jefferson Day dinner at Birmingham Oct. 5.

"When I originally accepted the invitation," Williams said, "I was not aware of the existence of a Birmingham city ordinance which would have the affect of banning Negroes from the dinner."

Williams said he talked to Alabama Democratic leaders when he learned of the ordinance "and told them I would not be able in good conscience to attend the meeting if such a racial barrier existed."

* * *

The governor said it was suggested by "certain people" that the dinner could be moved to some other city where the serving of both races was not prohibited by law. He said the possibility was thoroughly explored but it now appeared to be too late to change the site of the dinner.

"I am advised that the dinner committee is willing to sell tickets to all applicants regardless of race," Williams said. "But the Birmingham ordinance cannot be suspended, and there would be no assurance that it might not be enforced against any Negro Democrat who actually attended.

The cancellation came after Negro groups protested against the governor attending the dinner. A Montgomery, Ala., Negro leader, F. D. Nixon, complained he had been refused a ticket to the dinner because of the Birmingham ordinance.

YMCA Hits Goal of 882 Members as Drive Ends

The YMCA adult membership drive is over the top with 882 members signed up, exceeding the goal by 82.

At a victory dinner, held last night at the Y building, reports by teams who competed in the race to get new members showed Arnold Whittaker and his "All Stars" ahead by 14. Second were the "All Americans," under James Jenkins. Robert Sutton and his "Pros" had the best attendance at the dinner, which was put on by the Blue Star Mothers.

As part of the windup program, Jack Smith of Auburn Heights served as auctioneer for some 30 gifts, donations from Y members. Members of the campaign teams bought the prizes with bogus money they had received for signing up new members.

Here's How You Can Be Very, Very Unpopular

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—D'you think you're pretty smart?
And tell everybody where they're wrong?

The late Screen Writer Arthur Caesar won a Hollywood Oscar and—being a perfectionist—tried to improve movies by telling producers their mistakes. They didn't want to be told . . . they didn't like engaging anybody who told them they were wrong.

LIDA MORAY

Finally Writer Caesar, a brother of B'way's Irving Caesar, had to send the studio heads a placard, signed by him, which read:

"I'd Rather Work Than Be Right."

Hearing of Sam Hoffman's luck photographing glamour gals with a Polaroid, the camera company said it'd send a man to show him some photo tricks.

A model was waiting in the apt. of Sam's son Irving. The doorbell rang. Irving said to the model, Lida Moray, "Get into your towel, dear." She did. The visitor hesitated so long and so bashfully that Irving said, "Well, get started." The man finally said, "Start what? I'm from the phone company."

★ ★ ★ ★

Who was it who said, "You ain't learnin' nothin' while you're talkin'?" . . . A certain lousy leading man's been signed for a movie, but Producer Bernie Hart told the Sardi's crowd, "It's all right—they got an actor to double for him" . . . All Bertha Shore asks of a gift is that it doesn't have to be dusted or watered.

★ ★ ★ ★

Eddie Fisher must've had bridegroom jitters because when he phoned Rocky Marciano to invite him to the wedding — which Rocky couldn't attend because Eileen Barton was giving him a party—Eddie wished HIM good luck.

BARB MILLER

George Gobel's mom, Lillian, was selling their player piano—even their player roll of "Beautiful Ohio." As an alumnus of that glorious state, I asked for the roll and got it. Slugger—very talented musically—now plays it admirably. And the Gorgeous Mother-in-Law can play it when the TV set's busted, which is mostly.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Leo Durocher told party guests at Danny's Hideaway, "I'm out of baseball for next year—after that I don't know." (He can have Pittsburgh of St. Loo) . . . Since Frank Sinatra phoned Ava, friends are wondering if they might get together in Spain when he makes a film there next year.

Philadelphian Barbara Miller, 18, will be Saga magazine's Girl of the Month for November.

Gregory Peck took his honey, Veronique Passani, to Chez Vito and the Persian Room to hear Gilbert Becaud . . . Paul Valentine's grooming a new stripper, Jesebel, to outstrip his ex-wife, peeler Lili St. Cyr.

EARL'S PEARLS: Comes now the season of the year when a straight-A student ranks below a split-T quarterback.—Quote.

Alert Officer Captures 2 Thieves Dividing Loot

BOSTON — Patrolman John McCarthy, stationed at a hospital, solved a robbery without even leaving his beat.

McCarthy noticed two youths dividing a large number of quarters. One was waiting for treatment of a cut hand.

McCarthy investigated and got the pair to confess they had just broken into a tavern and were dividing the loot.

Names Dropped in Barker Case

Brando Mentioned as Acquaintance of Girl in Paternity Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Oscar winner Marlon Brando's name popped up with those of several other Hollywood personalities in the paternity suit of a movie bit player who claims actor Jess Barker fathered her unborn child.

* * *

The names of actors John Payne, John Carroll, Keenan Wynn, Steve Crane, Grant Withers, director John Barry, composer David Rose were brought up with Brando's yesterday. Yvonne Doughty, 25, admitted knowing them but denied any romances with the men named.

Miss Doughty, who appeared with Brando in "The Wild One," was asked if the actor had ever kissed her other than before the cameras.

* * *

"After I finished a scene with him, he kissed me and said, 'You did very well,'" Miss Doughty told Judge Elmer D. Doyle.

Barker testified that he has worked only two weeks since July 1, earning $1,000. He said he also received a $475 refund on his income tax.

* * *

Barker, 41, is still involved in a divorce contest with actress Susan Hayward. Her interlocutory decree, awarded in August 1954 is not final because Barker has an appeal on file.

Cat-Propelled Auto?

Pope Urges Mayors to Help World Unity

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Pius XII told 700 mayors from around the world today that neither cities nor nations "can pretend to remain isolated' in the modern world.

He urged the mayors to promote more active exchanges with cities in other countries to help along the present trend toward more closely uniting nations.

The 79-year-old Pope returned to the Vatican from his summer residence at Castel Gandolfo for the 35-minute audience with delegates to the 12th International Congress of Local Authorities. Seven hundred delegates and 500 members of their families heard the Pope welcome them — in French. More than a dozen U. S. city officials were in the audience.

120,000 Youths Land in Michigan Courts

LANSING (AP) — More than 120,000 Michigan children landed in juvenile courts during the past 10 years.

The State Social Welfare Department, summarizing a decade of juvenile delinquency and juvenile care problems, said the rate of delinquency is rising faster than the child population growth.

Annual referrals of children to the courts increased from a low of 10,000 in 1948 to 16,313 in 1954, but the agency said that 2,000 of these could be attributed to better reporting by the courts.

The totals included delinquency, non-delinquency cases and state wards.

Swinging Door for Dog Saves Pet Owner Steps

Dog-owners can be saved countless steps with a new unit that nearly any dog or cat can use without assistance. It consists of molded neoprene rubber parts that swing in a wooden frame that is easily installed in any flush door.

Six permanent magnets retract the swinging rubber door and prevent insects and drafts from entering. It can also be installed in panel doors by building up portions of a panel. Vertical sliding wood panels are provided to close up both sides of the door and inside panel has a lock.

TV Crime Reel Turns Out to Be the Real Crime

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—John W. Williams, giving his appliance store a coat of paint one evening, heard a voice in a grocery next door demand:

"Let's have the money—and don't waste time. This is a stick-up!"

* * *

He figured his friend, Grocer Gaylord W. Shiveley, was watching television. Williams, a crime program fan, decided he's take a break and go next door to watch, too.

At the door he was accosted by a young man holding a handkerchief over his face, making off with the store's receipts.

Realizing he had come face to face with the real thing, William jumped the man and with Shiveley's help subdued him. Leonard O'Neal Jr., 21, was charged with assault and robbery.

Has Largest Enrollment

HOUGHTON (AP)—Michigan Tech announced Thursday it has the largest enrollment in its 70-year history—1,786. With 555 freshmen, new dormitory facilities on the campus almost doubled the college's housing capacity and some students still are waiting for room assignments, the college said.

Boys should be taught such subjects as cooking, dancing and first aid, declares the dean of Exeter Academy, England.

NEW YORK (AP)—Sidewalk reflections of a Pavement Plato:

Do you feel like going into hibernation every year when baseball holds its World Series?

* * *

Many thoughtful people do. They can't stand the frightful mass hyprocrisy that grips the American people at these periods of general lunacy, a spectacle disheartening to all who hope for progress in the human race.

Who are you for — the New York Yankees or the Brooklyn Dodgers? That is the "croo-shul" question. Many an honest man, if he told the truth, would reply:

"I couldn't care less which team won if they both were made up of polar bears. What do they mean in my life?"

* * *

But tradition makes cowards of us all. Millions of Americans affect a phony interest in the outcome for fear that if they expressed the frank fact — that all professional baseball gives them a big fat yawn — they would be looked upon as radicals trying to destroy the American way of life.

As any real year-round fan knows, a World Series audience is basically a conclave of social snobs, not baseball enthusiasts.

Attendance is a sign of prestige, that you're one of the people in the inner circle. A ticket is a badge of success.

* * *

A dyed-in-the-wool baseball fan is as lonesome at a World Series game as a music lover at the opening night of the Metropolitan Opera.

However, it is difficult for anyone with common sense to work up any deep sympathy for the forlorn baseball addict unable to beg, buy or steal a World Series ticket.

There is something emotionally wrong with an adult who becomes upset or depressed because his favorite baseball team loses.

* * *

Anyone who worries about the outcome of a struggle between two groups of rival paid athletes is a victim of misplaced loyalty. He simply hasn't grown up.

An ardent baseball fan is like a high school boy who still believes in Santa Claus. He is as embarrassing to watch as a middle-aged bank president who enjoys blowing bubble gum in public.

Whenever I hear diamond tycoons who are in the business solely for profit, yammer that "Baseball is the national pastime" I feel like stuffing their mouths with a catcher's mitt.

* * *

As a sport, baseball is the national pastime with most kids only while they're in the pimple stage. After that the two sports in which the largest number of Americans of both sexes take an active participating interest are fishing and bowling.

Organized baseball is legally classified as a sport by the U. S. Supreme Court. But to others it is an industry, a career, an art form not unlike the ballet, or a series of contests not dissimilar to those between the old Roman gladiators. What other so-called "sport" pays pensions?

* * *

Baseball is a national pastime only for submarginal grownups. Here are the real national pastimes of most adult Americans:

1. Making money.
2. Trying to find a place to park.
3. Daydreaming.
4. Clock-watching.
5. Girl watching.

* * *

While on the subject of denouncing professional baseball, there is one other thing I would like to point out. The World Series is just about the worst example of — .

(Editor's Note: Boyle never finished this piece, the big hypocrite. Somebody just gave him a ticket to today's game — and off he ran.)

Ike's Steady Progress Cheers Worried Nation

President Eisenhower's continued good condition in the wake of his heart attack is encouraging his close associates in Washington as well as a worried Nation.

In some quarters there is even talk that he may be able to take the helm again within 30 days. However, this optimism is discounted somewhat by the Boston heart specialist, Dr. Paul Dudley White. He warned that while the President "is coming along nicely, he is not yet out of the woods." Dr. White, who flew to Denver to examine Mr. Eisenhower, added that his progress is neither faster nor slower than normal.

★ ★ ★

Nonetheless it was good news that the Chief Executive would be able to initial two lists of personnel appointments. It is fortunate that the Administration is so organized on a team basis that it has been possible so far to carry on the business of government without delegating any Presidential powers.

From the outset the President has given the vice presidency greater importance than in any previous administration. As a result Mr. Nixon already has presided over the Cabinet and has been regularly asked to act as the President's deputy at meetings of the National Security Council.

★ ★ ★

It must be a comfort to the President to realize that Messrs. Nixon, Dulles, Wilson, Humphrey et al are so well prepared to carry on his policies. So also should be the knowledge that the American people want everything done to insure complete rest for him as long as needed and earliest possible recovery.

Outlook in Argentina Favorable to Freedom

Despite success of the revolution in eliminating the Peron dictatorship, Argentina's provisional government is facing a difficult task.

Provisional President Lonardi and his colleagues undoubtedly will have to cope with the unrest which naturally follows such a violent change of government.

Yet the first steps the new regime has taken to counter considerable remaining Peron support have been reassuring. Political prisoners are being freed. The names of Peron and his late wife are being erased from cities and districts and the rubber stamp congress has been dissolved.

The temporary government is not yet able to outline its program. Its statement of motive, however, is reassuring. Reasons for the revolt were given as a desire to "defend the constitution, freedom of men, freedom of the press and freedom of worship."

★ ★ ★

Whether there will be the tranquillity necessary to orderly transition will depend largely on the Argentine workers' federation which was the source of much of Peron's power. So far labor leaders have urged the workers to stay on the job. But there have been threats of strikes and the Communists no doubt will try to sabotage the new regime.

Thus far the restraint and common sense shown by President Lonardi and his associates augur well for the restoration of complete freedom for Argentina.

A person may benefit in one of two ways in using a safety belt in a car. His life may be saved in case of a wreck, or if he does lose his life in a wreck, he'll most likely make a much better-looking corpse.

Toll Roads Stress Safety

Opening of Ohio's 241-mile toll road expands a pay-as-you-drive highway system on which safety is stressed.

Besides being the first postwar turnpike to be built within original cost estimates, this traffic artery has been engineered for greater safety at permitted speeds up to 65 miles an hour.

Among its outstanding features are a wide center dividing strip, broad, hard shoulders, gentle curves and easy grades. Free of traffic lights, the road also has no unseparated grades at intersections.

By next Fall a bridge over the Delaware River will link New Jersey and Pennsylvania turnpikes. At that time Indiana will have completed its toll road to the outskirts of Chicago. This will give motorists an ultra modern, high speed, 828-mile route from New York to the Windy City.

The Ohio section is to be patrolled constantly in the interests of adequate law enforcement with patrol cars stationed at 15-mile intervals. If motorists co-operate, there is no reason why it should not be one of the Nation's safest highways.

The issue of toll roads in Michigan still is in the debate stage. Present indications are that it will remain there unless and until State Highway Commissioner Ziegler abandons his opposition.

The Colorado woman who shot her husband and ran him away from home because he refused to kiss her may have been unduly influenced by the current song hit, "Love Me or Leave Me."

Read All About It

David Lawrence Says:

Ike May Be More Willing to Run in '56 Now That Voters Share Health Secret

WASHINGTON — It may sound paradoxical, but there is some ground for believing that President Eisenhower now may be more readily persuaded to run for a second term than he was before the heart attack came.

This theory was expounded to the writer by a politician of national standing who happens to be a Democrat. It is based on the fact, which my informant knew about, that Eisenhower has had one or two experiences over the years with what have been called digestive disturbances of more than ordinary severity but which are believed to have made him feel uneasy about accepting a second nomination.

One of these occurred while Ike was in military service. It gave him and those who knew about it considerable concern. The medical record says these were not heart attacks, but they were enough to make him a bit dubious about his future health.

The important point in the theory is that Dwight Eisenhower has been worried over accepting a second term without public knowledge about his possible impairment. Few men in robust health at the age of 64 talk about getting old and how they might not be able to accept a responsibility in public life which might carry them to the age of 70. Yet Ike has made several references to this without amplification.

CHURCHILL CITED

With the knowledge that Winston Churchill went back to the post of prime minister in his late 70's and that Adenauer is functioning as chancellor though 80, it is hardly plausible that Ike, at 64, would have talked publicly about his own health as a possible barrier if he had not been mindful of his previous experience with what he was told were digestive illnesses. With a secret like that on his conscience, he naturally would want the people to know about it before they considered him for a second term.

* * *

But now that the heart attack of last weekend has been given the widest publicity, the basic question is out of Ike's hands and off his mind. Do the people want him for a second term despite what they know about his health? It is for the people to answer.

Sen. Barkley ran for office in Kentucky at the age of 76 after leaving the vice presidency. His age was an issue in the campaign but it didn't prevent his victory at the polls. Sen. Green of Rhode Island, Democrat, now 87, won re-election only last year. Age was also an issue in that campaign.

If the ticket were Eisenhower and Nixon—and up to the time of the President's illness this was accepted as the probable slate and the commentators generally were saying it would be a winner—then the electorate would be in somewhat the same position anyhow but with the added knowledge it has now about the President's health. The voters would know that, in the event anything happened to Eisenhower during a second term, his successor would be Richard Nixon. If they were willing to accept that setup before the illness—as the public-opinion surveys showed—it will be asked why they wouldn't accept it now?

The appraisal must then turn on what effect the awareness of the President's heart condition would have on the voters. Would they preferably vote for a robust Democrat who might "rock the boat" and bring on a depression by a reckless attitude toward business? Or would they favor continuance of Ike even with a heart condition that might, if it took a fateful turn, bring Nixon into the White House to continue the Eisenhower policies?

* * *

The chances are that personalities would not in those circumstances influence the voters as much as would the assurance of a continuity of the Republican Administration which had brought them peace and prosperity.

There remains the other question: Would Ike himself consent to run and wouldn't the members of his family strongly urge him to retire? But would he be happy to go into retirement? Would the psychological effect of this on an active man be harmful?

The decision most certainly will be made by Ike himself. He is a soldier. All his life he has obeyed the call of duty. A soldier who volunteers to go to war and face death leaves behind as a rule a much younger family than Ike has, but he goes nevertheless and takes the risks because of a sense of duty.

Dr. Brady Says:

Home Is the Safest Place to Bring Babe Into World

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

"All six of our children," writes an American woman of the sort it is heartening to hear from, "were born in a Nursing Home instead of a hospital—Mrs. —'s nursing home. She never has more than three or four guests at a time.

"She lets mothers take care of their babies and she encourages them to nurse their babies. She is not only a fine woman, she lives by your teachings. She had a whole filing cabinet filled with them . . . (Mrs. S. R.)

* * *

There's a field of endeavor waiting for thousands and thousands of women throughout the country, especially in backward cities where people without homes fit to have a baby in, have no alternative but to go to a nineteenth century hospital and submit to all the quaint "regulations" imposed upon the customers by old-fashioned lying-in institutions.

You know the kind where newborn infants are crowded together in the show window where there is a much better chance that fatal infantile diarrhea or other infection may be transferred from one to the others by the ministrations of the nurse. The place for a newborn infant is in mother's arms or at her side, and the infant is happier and safer if mother takes care of her own.

While I think this woman was fortunate in having her babies in a nursing home rather than a hospital, still I wonder why she didn't have 'em in her own home. Home is the best and safest place to have a baby—and, please, Yankee Wiseacres, spare me that hackneyed argument about all the equipment for emergencies.

PROS AND CONS

There are some feeble arguments against having your baby at home, even though your home is safer than any hospital can be. Some multiparae (hold it, the word means women who have borne more than one child) declare that going to the hospital for a week or two for childbirth is the only time they ever get a good rest . . and I, even I, do not choose to argue with them about the need to rearrange their living habits.

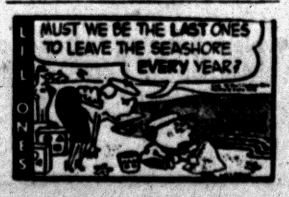

A more compulsive factor of hospitalization for childbirth is the refusal of many doctors to attend confinement unless the expectant mother goes to the hospital. This behavior is motivated, I believe, by inherent dishonesty.

The doctor can get away with all sorts of improper treatment, neglect and downright malpractice if the patient is isolated in a nineteenth century hospital, whereas if the patient is in her own home the doctor has to behave or else.

If you contemplate having a baby it will do you no harm to study Little Lesson No. 4, Preparing for Maternity, for which send 25 cent piece clean and a stamped, self-addressed envelope. And you should read Dr. Grantly Dick Read's book Childbirth Without Fear, Harper & Bros., $2.75—maybe you can find it at the public library.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Risk Element in Politics Illustrated by Ike's Illness

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

President Eisenhower revealed prophetic insight when he admonished his party weeks before his illness against identifying its fortunes too closely with one personality.

* * *

In taking so objective a position, Eisenhower was in keeping with the constitutional views of the founding fathers, who made short shrift of the indispensable man theory. On the contrary, the American constitutional system contemplates rotating in office.

At the same time, as a by-product, the President's detachment and sagacity alerted thoughtful observers to the risk element in politics, business, and the business of life.

* * *

While superficial guys had the political slates all doped out and the final results clearly in mind, it is now apparent that there is a big gulf between easy assumptions concerning the future and the actual turn of events.

PEEK INTO FUTURE

In this spirit, when I was a member of the Economic Forum of the National Industrial Conference Board, I would sit down toward the close of each year to take a peek into the future.

* * *

I made it a rule to preface my remarks with these words: "I want to qualify myself as an expert, and state candidly that I don't know what is going to happen next year. I will, however, give my views on the forces now at work and my concept of the logical sequence of coming events."

Such humility should leave a margin of safety for unexpected developments — war, hurricanes, illness and other contingencies.

Eisenhower's coronary attack is a reminder that the institution of the Presidency should be modernized.

With the centralization of power in the executive department, the job makes demands on the incumbent which are excessive.

DELEGATION OF WORK

The White House should be thoroughly reorganized, with vastly more delegation of work and authority to others.

* * *

The late Sen. Vandenberg, Michigan Republican, shrewdly suggested that the vice president be relieved of his duties as presiding officer of the Senate, so that he could devote his full time to being the executive vice president of the United States.

As Vandenberg envisaged it, the President would remain symbolic head and the policymaker, and the executive vice president would take over the administrative responsibilities. The time is now ripe for consideration of this revision of the institution of the presidency.

It is early to set down President Eisenhower's niche in history, but here are a few footnotes for historians:

Eisenhower has been important in this postwar period because he has dramatized the fact that a dedicated and highly patriotic man could be enthusiastically devoted to the private enterprise system—to our free-choice economic society.

His simplicity and common honesty have done much to create an emotional understanding of the fraud beyond the pro-Marxian, big government propaganda.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

8-Year-Old Boy Gives Blood to Sister Believing Transfusions Fatal to Donor

Billy is really a great hero. Nobody could make a greater sacrifice than he did. But his mental torture was unnecessary. He simply lacked proper information. This daily column attempts to dispel similar anxiety due to wrong ideas and false notions. Be grateful to American newspapers for the way they are banishing ignorance and mental ill health.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-353: Billy R., aged 8, lived on a farm with an older sister.

The latter received a bad cut from a scythe blade on which she had stepped, and had lost so much blood, she seemed lifeless.

* * *

The physician who arrived, saw that she desperately needed a blood transfusion and he didn't have time to get any from a blood bank.

"Billy," he finally asked the boy, "will you give your blood for a transfusion? Your sister is dying and unless she gets some fresh blood quickly, she will not last but a few minutes."

Well, Billy blinked apprehensively, but he was devoted to his sister, so he readily agreed to the transfusion.

The doctor stretched him out on the kitchen table and extracted about half a pint of his blood, which was then sent into his sister's vein.

SISTER REVIVES

She revived and the parents were naturally very grateful to the physician.

But when they walked back into the kitchen, there lay Billy on the table, as white as a sheet, and with his hands still clenched.

Before they had time to inquire what was wrong, Billy asked:

"Doctor, when do I die?"

Not until then did the doctor realize that 8-year-old Billy had actually thought he was to give all his blood to save his sister's life.

The boy had thus blindly agreed to die for his sister. And he was waiting in terror for his final breath.

Yet his fear was all due to misunderstanding. To lack of proper knowledge.

MILLIONS DISTURBED

And similar misapprehension disturbs millions of you readers of adult age, as well as teenagers.

Which is one reason why I initiated this educational column on medico-psychological problems 20 years ago.

For can't you imagine the inner torment and conflict in little 8-year-old Billy during the 10 minutes he lay there waiting to die?

It's a shame that any human being should suffer anguish and often undermine his health just because of ignorance and wrong notions.

Millions of boys and girls have labored under all sorts of terrifying secret dreads because of sex complexes.

* * *

Some of them have waited, like little Billy, for insanity or feeblemindedness to strike them because they were wrongly informed about auto erotic practices.

Others have carried an unnecessary load of worry and apprehension, waiting for their children to inherit venereal disease or turn criminal, because they believed in the false doctrine about the inheritance of veneral disease and the equally unscientific idea that babies can be "born criminals."

If you could look over my shoulder at the daily input of letters from all classes of Americans, you'd realize why I also maintain a mail service in connection with this educational column.

Even though this mail service is the most demanding and time-consuming task I have, I feel it is worthwhile to relieve teenagers, as well as their parents, of fears that scare them as much as 8-year-old Billy was terrified by equally unscientific notions.

* * *

American newspapers thus render a wonderful aid to people via the scientific counsel which they offer our citizenry.

To relieve youth of unnecessary sex dreads, send for my booklet "Sex Problems of Young People, enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

West Long Lake Being Recapped

Last Step in Project of Road Improvement Begun in March

The Detroit Concrete Products Co. today was expected to start recapping with bituminous concrete W. Long Lake Road from Telegraph to Orchard Lake Road.

The work will take from two to three weeks, according to the Oakland County Road Commission.

It is the last step in a $224,949 improvement project over the 4.13-mile stretch which began March 22.

The road, one of the first two paved in Oakland, has been widened from 16 to 20 feet and 8-foot shoulders installed where none existed before.

The recap will actually cover 2.72 miles, the rest has already had the old concrete replaced with new cement.

Some 633 trees were removed. Several lengths of fence and fence pillars were moved back to make room for the shoulders. Curves have been straightened and hills cut down for increased safety. The design speed had been upped from 25-30 to 50 miles per hour.

About 10,000 cubic yards of muck is being removed and replaced with sand to make a firm foundation over a 300 to 400-foot swampy stretch just east of where Franklin Road cuts off to the south.

An underpass was constructed in one spot to allow cattle to cross beneath the roadway without blocking traffic.

Planes Get Glass Tires

DETROIT (AP) — Now they have come up with a glass tire. Glass fibers are combined with silicone rubber in a product which may be used for supersonic aircraft, exposed to temperatures varying as much as 400 degrees Fahrenheit. The firms which announced the development explained the tires are not planned for auto use because costs are too high.

Fight for Custody of Tape Recording

LANSING (AP) — The tale of a tape recorder could tell was the key point of interest today in the preliminary examination of a Chicago optical company president charged with attempting to bribe three state officials.

The preliminary examination of Benjamin D. Ritholz, president of the King Optical Co., charged with offering bribes to three members of the State Board of Examiners in Optometry, resumed after a day-long session Thurday.

wrangling over a tape recording of a meeting in a Lansing hotel room between Ritholz and the three board members.

The state seeks to have the tape recording admitted as evidence. Earlier, Municipal Judge Earl E. McDonald denied a defense motion asking that the recording be turned over to the defense.

The defense als phas petitined the State Supreme Court for custody of the recording.

Non-Property Tax Rise

CHICAGO—A survey shows that more cities are levying non-property taxes and increasing rates on existing taxes. At least 678 cities of the 1,347 having populations above 10,000 were using admissions, sales, and other nonproperty taxes at the beginning of 1955.

Personnel Chief Sends Short Answer to Alumni

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — The Wake Forest alumni association, seeking to bring its membership list up to date, inquired about a John Marshall.

"Please advise whether Marshall still is in your employ," the association wrote to "Personnel Director, J. A. Jones Co." here.

"Yes," answered the personnel director—John Marshall.

You Just Can't Win

DURANGO, Tex. (AP)—On a very few and rare occasions Fred Greger's 5-inch rain gauge had overflowed, so he got himself a 9-inch gauge. A downpour promptly filled it to within an inch of the top.

Importation of movie cameras is still banned by Saudi Arabia and "still cameras" have now been added to the ban, Jidda reports.

Wallet Finder Nearly Makes Woman Pay

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Mrs. Martha Lynch pleaded innocent to a speeding ticket in Superior Court and then explained why:

The wallet she lost two days ago, containing all her identification, was returned in an anonymous letter. Inside the wallet was the ticket, which wasn't hers.

Judge George Gilson yesterday checked the license number on the ticket with that of Mrs. Lynch's car and decided the wallet-finder apparently used her identification when stopped by police. The charge was dismissed.

Indian 'Washermen' Up Current Price Scales

NEW DELHI, India—Something new has come to the dhobis—Indian "washermen" who wash customers' clothes in the river.

For centuries they have delivered laundry on donkeys or riding bicycles, but now some of them scoot around on motorcycles.

And prices have gone up accordingly.

A bundle of clothes used to be washed for a few rupees, whereas now $2.30 is not unusual for a day's washing and ironing.

UM Alumni Conference

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan has invited more than 100 committee men from alumni groups all over the nation to meet at the second annual conference of the university's development council. The conference, designed to give alumni a view of the university's present and future development, will be held on the weekend of the Michigan-Army football game, Oct. 7-9.

32 Hurt as Bridge Falls

FUKUSHIMA, Japan (AP) — Fifty Tokyo high school boys, skylarking today on an excursion, started rocking a small suspension bridge. A cable snapped, plunging them 25 feet into a flood-swollen river. Thirty-two were injured, nine seriously.

A leading southern electric utility has figured that the 3.5 million tons it uses annually would fill the cars of a train more than 460 miles in length.

20-Ft. Land-Water Cruiser Trails Engineer on Trips

GAYLORD (AP)—Cruising by land or cruising by water—it's all one with the rig of engineer Lew Morehouse.

He has fixed up a set of wheels for his 20-foot cruiser that rolls it from land to water and back again at the drop of a king pin.

* * *

A simple hitch between his car and the bow of the boat and Morehouse is ready to travel to the next handy body of water.

Morehouse, 67, an industrial engineer from Grand Rapids, has towed his cruiser, the Llewyn, all over the country in the past two years. He's convinced his device is just the thing to put more motorists aboard boats—and more boats on wheels.

Boats with wheels are nothing new—military craft have been so equipped for years. But Morehouse says his practical retractable wheels operate without the expensive hydraulic mechanism that most such devices require.

The Morehouse invention consists of a water-tight well on each side of the boat as far apart as the wheels of the car. The boat wheels are suspended on a bracket and held in place by a king bolt.

BOLT PULLED

When the boat is launched in shallow water, the bolt is pulled and the weight of the boat pushing down on the wheels forces them up into the bracket, clear of the boat bottom. Then the bolt is replaced to hold the wheel in place.

Ready to come ashore, Morehouse pulls both king bolts while in deep water. The weight of the wheels pulls them down into position for road travel. With the king bolts back in place, the wheels lock so the boat can be pulled up on shore.

Morehouse and his wife enjoy traveling with their mobile boat behind them. For a complete trip they have to use both road maps and navigational charts.

The sight of a boat rolling behind a car without benefit of a conventional trailer is too much for some onlookers. One motorist drew alongside the Morehouses, violently tooting his horn.

"Hey, mister!" he yelled, "your boat has fallen through your trailer."

* * *

Morehouse says laziness led to his invention—"I decided to take the hard work out of boat launching."

He expects to see his device in production by a leading boat manufacturer next year.

Believing that all tourists can be amphibious travelers, Morehouse thinks it may be possible someday for motorists to haul trailer-like houseboats behind their cars, able to park in as well as near water whenever they wish.

Ike's Illness Puts Nixon on Fast-Moving Schedule

By WILBUR JENNINGS

WASHINGTON (AP)—It is all work and no play these days for Vice President Nixon.

The sudden illness of President Eisenhower thrust the vice president into a new prominence in the public mind. More and more people want to see him.

* * *

He has assumed additional official chores although there has been no formal delegation of new authority.

His two daughters and wife have seen him only briefly since the President was hit by a heart attack Saturday.

Short days ago, reporters sought only occasional contacts with the vice president. Now, they trail him everywhere and record his every word.

As vice president, Nixon has had a Secret Service man either in his Capitol Hill office or with him at times. Now during the day, four are assigned to him. One rides in the front seat of his chauffeur-driven limousine and the other three travel in a car directly behind his.

At night, two Secret Service men take up duty in a car parked directly across the street from the Nixon home. On the rear seat, beside an agent, is a tommy gun. The agents make frequent checks of the grounds surrounding the home.

Reporters take up an all-night vigil in parked cars. If anything should happen to the President, Nixon would be one of the first to know.

Nixon's white brick home, for which he paid around $40,000, is in the Spring Valley area of northeast Washington. However, the house is on the outer edge and the neighborhood is not quite so high-priced, on the average, as that of the "Canyon" area a few blocks away. Nevertheless, it

Neighbors who regularly walk their dogs about 11 o'clock at night are no longer attracted by the presence of the Secret Service, reporters and photographers.

The vic epresident and Mrs. Nixon took their cocker spaniel, Checkers, for a late walk Monday night but since then the dog has been going it alone.

Humorous Gadgets Make Profits for Maine Family

BRIDGETON, Maine (AP)—"Why be disagreeable when with a little effort you could be a real stinker?"

Mottoes like that, printed on pieces of board, on plaques, on stools and other wooden items, have built an international business for two brothers.

Curtis, 37, and Albert R. Smith Jr., 42, say the trend is away from seriousness in signs of the times. They turn out thousands of fir plywood plaques each year with 50 to 60 different sayings.

There has been something added to the old familiar, "God Bless Our Home." It has become "God Bless Our Mortgaged Home," to the Smith brothers.

Many of the sayings they print by the silk screen method Curtis learned while still in high school are their own ideas. Others are suggested by brokers who buy their product.

The brothers say they've had considerable success with a little kitchen stool. They aren't sure whether it is the stool itself or the little verse:

STOOL STORY

"This little stool belongs to me
It makes me happy as can be
I now can reach the things I couldn't
And often times the things I shouldn't."

Eighty per cent of the production is shipped out of New England. They also have customers in Cuba, Canada, Alaska, Puerto Rico, England and South Africa.

"One thing led to another after I learned the silk screen process," said Curtis. He began his business in an alcove at his home. When he was graduated from high school in 1935, he was employing two men in a little shop. His dad, Albert Sr., an insurance man, joined the growing firm shortly afterward. Now 71, he retired two years ago. Albert Jr., who had been a grocery store manager, joined the company 10 years ago.

Curtis began as a sign painter. Today the brothers employ a dozen persons.

Newest Coiffure Craze —Colorful Green Hair

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Hair stylist Guy Tipton came up with a new green hair tint and actually found takers.

Two normally bond youths exhibited the green hair at a downtown corner, getting a mixed reaction — but no questions as to where the dye jobs could be obtained.

Tipton says it's really very simple in case anyone wants to try it at home. Just take some hot bluing—the kind used in washing clothes—and apply it to light hair. The blue mixes with the yellow pigments of the hair and the result is green. It won't work for burnettes.

Tipton says the stuff will wash right off.

PRESIDENT'S SON MEETS PRESS — Maj. John Eisenhower (center, facing camera), the President's only child, meets the press at Lowry Air Force Base near Denver, Colo., after he visited his father in Fitzsimons Army Hospital. James Hagerty, at John's right, White House press secretary, did most of the talking for Major Eisenhower, who saw his father for 30 minutes.

South African Bird Count Taken by Photo Process

CAPETOWN—A bird census is being taken by photographing them from the air, in South Africa.

Object is to determine the effect of the birds on the fishing industry around the Guano Islands off the west coast, Pretoria reports.

Scientist D. M. Davies estimates that every year gannets and cormorants in St. Helena Bay consume 51,350 tons of fish worth $2,800,000.

The penguins on the island consume another $700,000 worth, he says. South Africa's total fish catch annually amounts to about $12,600,000.

2 Gas Station Robbers Neglect Customer's Oil

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The report made by L. A. McLaughlin, a filling station operator, to police when two gunmen held up his night attendant and carted off his safe containing $150 was routine except for one thing.

During the holdup a regular customer drove in for gas and the two gunmen, posing as employes, filled up the customer's tank. But, complained McLaughlin, they neglected to check the oil and clean the car's windshield.

Adams' Influence Grows

Ike's 'Boss' Takes Over

WASHINGTON (AP)—"The Boss," as President Eisenhower has smilingly referred to him, flies to Denver today to take charge of the temporary White House.

"The Boss" is 56-year-old, white-haired Sherman Adams, a one-time lumberjack who as Eisenhower's No. 1 aide has become one of the most influential men in the nation.

* * *

With Eisenhower hospitalized by a heart attack, Adams' behind-the-scenes role becomes more important than ever. He will decide which few of the major and minor problems that develop are important enough to be taken up with the recuperating President. And his recommendations carry great weight.

Hard working, and with a temperament as rugged as the mountains of his native state of New Hampshire, Adams has gained a reputation around Washington as the man to see if you want something from the President. Officially, he's listed as "the assistant to the President."

* * *

Adams himself, a former two-term governor of New Hampshire, looks on his $20,000-a-year job as protection for the President against the tremendous pressures that go with the job of the nation's chief executive.

And if you want to make headway with Adams, you'll do better without frills or fanfare.

One New Hampshire friend reported beginning a telephone conversation with the White House staff chief by asking about his health.

"Before I could say anything else," the friend related, "Adams told me 'State your business.' So knowing Adams, I stated my business and got an answer . . ."

The 5-foot-8, 150-pound Adams has ruffled some prominent dignitaries with his brusqueness but he sets a fast work pace. It has been to bed by 9 p.m., up at 5:30 a.m. and conferences by 8:30 a.m. for Adams as White House staff boss.

Time Moves On, Again

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP) — New Yorkers can tell the time of day again just by looking across the Hudson River. The clock atop a soap factory's roof—a 30-year-old landmark on the west bank of the Hudson—has been repaired.

The clock is 50 feet in diameter—twice the size of London's famed Big Ben.

Elections, Football, Dance Spotlighted at Pontiac High

Pontiac Press Photos

TREAT FOR THE CHILDREN — Youngsters in Pontiac will soon have a chance to see "The Land of Oz," Pontiac High School's first fall Children's Theater presentation. Rehearsing for the eight-scene fantasy are Jerry Young (in chest) who plays the leading part of "Tip," Jack Larson, the Woggle Bug (painting), Dick Ramsdell (Jack the Pumpkinhead) seated; and, on the floor, scarecrow Bob Crandall. The play will be shown at 3:30 p. m. Oct. 12, 13 and 14 and at 7:30 p. m. Oct. 13 at the High School.

Keavy Heading Student Council

Play Ferndale Tonight; Fashion Show Attracts Good Crowd

By VICY MICU

Election of Student Council and senior class officers are sharing the spotlight this week at Pontiac High School with tonight's Pontiac-Ferndale game and what students hope will be a Victory Dance following the game.

Big news also was the Office and Retail Club's all high school fashion show which drew a large crowd Wednesday night. Everything from football attire to formals for prom and evening affairs was modeled by chic girl students.

Hard at work rehearsing for the Children's Theater play, "The Land of Oz," is the huge, 48-student cast. The eight-scene fantasy will be staged at 3:30 p. m. on Oct. 12, 13 and 14. There will also be an evening showing at 7:30 on Oct. 13. Tickets will go on sale next week.

Heading the Student Council this semester is senior Bob Keavy, assisted by vice president Margaret Selvala, a junior. Other officers, all seniors, are: Deanna Bradley, secretary; Ted Wiersma, treasurer; and Anton Simpson, sergeant-at-arms. Seniors elected Bill Hampton as class president, with Marie Meyer, vice president; Marilee Minesinger, secretary, and Patricia Smith, treasurer.

DANCE FOLLOWS GAME

Following the Pontiac-Ferndale tilt tonight, PHS students will attend a dance at the high school, sponsored by Student Council. It will be an informal affair. Tickets are being sold at 50 cents stag and 75 cents drag.

Activities and clubs at school are well under way now. The school paper, the Tomahawk, has completed its third issue. Work on the yearbook, the Quiver, is beginning.

The Debate Squad has had its first meeting and chosen teams for forthcoming debates.

* * *

OFFICERS CHOSEN

Thespians elected Dick Ramsdell president, with Carolyn Hawn assisting as vice president. Jerry Young is secretary; Marie Meyer, treasurer, and Jack Larson, social chairman.

Boys' Glee Clubs also elected officers. Second hour, Monday, Wednesday and Friday officers are: Rod Treals, president; Jim Cartier, vice president; Mike Boyer, secretary; Ron Nelson, treasurer; librarians Frank Whitlock, Dennis Swindell.

Third hour officers are: Raymond Freebury, president; Ted Brennen, vice president;

Jack Nelson, secretary; Phil Twichel, treasurer, Joe Giglio, librarian.

Fifth hour officers are: Archie Bell, president; Bill Price, vice president; Bob Johnson, secretary; Bob Pike, treasurer; and librarians, Ron Murray, Dick Hathaway.

The Virginia McDermett Chapter of the Future Teachers Clubs of America initiated new members and installed officers in a candlelight ceremony conducted by club adviser Mrs. Ann Morrow.

Caissus Gordon, president of the Pontiac Education Association, installed new officers. Joyce Whitfield headed the list as president.

Elizabeth Rodgers, PHS home ec. instructor, presented the new girl members: Toby Gilbert, Connie Scott, Lora Green, Gail Sedrick, Phyllis Cotter, Marie Dworin; Mary Kennedy, Sharon Malane, Danna Nolf, Darlene Homphrey, Alaymae Stephens, and Donna Nolf.

Robert F. Beauchamp, head of the PHS English department, introduced the new boys: Roy Green and John Osler.

Mrs. Morrow then led the candidates in the FTA pledge service, followed by the singing of the FTA song.

St. Michael Freshmen Initiated Friday; Father O'Reilly Is Honored on Feast Day

By JANET ENGLISH

Last Friday night, the ninth grade class officially became the freshmen of St. Michael High. This evening of entertainment, planned especially for the freshies, by the seniors, included everything from the very legal proceedings of Kangaroo Court to practice for the World Olympics during the running of the rickets. The seniors even thought to provide these new underclassmen with the finest of delicacies.

* * *

A special word of thanks went to Father William A. Immel. Without his assistance this wouldn't have been the success it was, seniors said.

The elections for senior class officers were completed Tuesday when Jerry Kucera came out on top in the race for treasurer between Bill Bookie and himself.

Jerry Steinhelper, Judy Marantette and Janet English are holding down the remaining offices of president, vice president, and secretary, respectively.

PASTOR HONORED

The entire school took part in a program honoring our pastor, Father Michael J. O'Reilly, on his feast day yesterday. He has been pastor here for 21 years.

Highlight of the program came when Father ascended the stage, took his place at the piano and accompanied the assemblage while they sang the school song, as well as many of his own published melodies.

* * *

Monday the senior homeroom held an added attraction for the student body — the Steve Griffin Memorial Trophy which was gained Sunday afternoon by our victory over the Rams.

CITY CHAMPIONS

St. Michaels will now house this trophy until and if the time comes when the title "City Champions" is removed from our crown of glory.

Could be our new athletic director, Father Norman Thomas, helped spark the flame that gave our team the drive needed for victory.

If anyone wishes instructions on the art of "withstanding a tackle" they should consult our cheerleader Yvonne Koprince who was victim to just such a mishap during Sunday's game.

Last Saturday night, Croc-a-Dolls gave a surprise birthday party for Jeanette Ganje at the home of Marge Bateman. Gloria Vizza, the club's pizza expert, aided Marge in providing the refreshments.

GIFT FOR FATHER — Students of St. Michael School collected a gift to honor their pastor, Father Michael O'Reilly, and presented it to him at an all-school assembly yesterday on his feast day. Making the presentation are officers of the senior class (l-r) Judy Marentette, vice president; Jerry Steinhelper, president; Jerry Kucera, treasurer; and Janet English, secretary. Father O'Reilly, pastor of the parish for 21 years, pleased the students by playing a number of his own published melodies following the presentation.

Music Fills Air at Waterford

Talent Show Features Singing, Acts; Pledge Drive Progresses

By JEAN LIMATTA

Music filled the air at Waterford Township High School this week.

Yesterday the first regular assembly of the 1955-56 schedule was held, with talented 10th, 11th, and 12th graders performing. Acts ranged from singing and dancing to pantomimes.

* * *

Football lights are getting closer to Waterford's field. Close to $6,000 in pledges already have been received toward the $25,000 goal to erect the lights.

Howard Bennetts is faculty adviser of the student council committee with Bob Hope as student chairman. Others on the committee are Jerry Kruskie, Judy Boardman, Janet Hudson, and Julie Hickman.

REHEARSING PLAY

Rehearsals for the first dramatic production are well under way. "Best Foot Forward," a three-act comedy, will be presented Oct. 13 and 14. Allan Olson plays the lead of bashful Bud.

* * *

The senior class held its first mass meeting Wednesday morning with Carole Fortin as president.

Tomorrow Hi-Y members will hold a car wash at WTHS from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The $1.50 charge for each car will be given to a charity fund.

Co-op Club's newly elected officers are Jim Williams, president; JoAnn Lowry, vice president; Harry White, secretary; Charlotte Johnson, treasurer.

* * *

Homecoming plans are tentatively drawn up. Featured in this two-day affair, set for Oct. 28 and 29, will be four big events. On Friday a bonfire and talent show will take place, and on Saturday a football game and the homecoming dance.

Junior Hi Programs Held

Welcome Assemblies for seventh graders, many of whom still feel ill at ease after their first move from elementary schools, were held at one junior high school and scheduled at another. At still another, a Family Night proved to be the event of the week.

New classes were holding students' interest, with audio-visual films designated as one of the most popular ways to acquire knowledge.

CUSTOM AT LINCOLN

One of the customs at Lincoln Junior High is a Welcome Assembly for the new students, put on by the 9A class. This was held Thursday, and the 7B students have promised a return program in the near future.

After an opening number by the 9A chorus, a speech of welcome was given by Joanne Johnson, school president. Vice president Ronnie Bunch gave a talk, "Opportunities of Lincoln," and an outline, "Hallguards and Their Duties," was presented by Derris Nichols, captain of hallguards.

Two pantomimes — "You and Me," by Sharon Booth and Janice Buttery, and "Seventeen," by Jovita Benavides and Judy Markle—drew volleys of applause.

A song, "I Believe," by Lee Collins, and "You'll Never Walk Alone," by Shirley DeRousse, were well received, as was the girls' trio number, "In the Still of the Night," by Mary Gibbs, Susie Hallenbeck and Karen Metz.

Evelyn Lange, director of the chorus, and teachers Mrs. Burrette, Mrs. MacAdams, Mrs. Meabon and Mrs. Young were thanked by the 9A students for their help in organizing the program.

Still in the beginning stages are two Thanksgiving assemblies, to be put on by the ninth grade Expression Class. Members are busy collecting material for the programs, which they will write, direct and produce themselves.

SCHEDULED AT EASTERN

Wednesday and Thursday are scheduled for the 9A Welcome Assembly for new students and teachers at Eastern Junior High. The 9A's have planned the program to inform everyone about the activities, clubs and services at Eastern.

An all boy assembly Wednesday by the Fisher Body Division of General Motors has students polishing up their tools and reading crafts books.

A movie, "Builders of Tomorrow," showed future trends of design for automobiles. The work of the Craftsman's Guild was explained, including the awards and scholarships which total almost $90,000.

* * *

Both students and teachers at Eastern had their pictures taken this week—with the privilege of ordering as many as each wished. If the pattern of other years holds, students will be exchanging pictures all over the school as soon as the photos are back.

FAMILY NIGHT AT WEVER

Wever Junior High 7B students pronounced the Family Night, held Wednesday, a big success. Students got a chance to introduce their parents to their teachers, as well as to meet the families of their new classmates.

Purpose of the gathering was to acquaint both parents and students with rules and procedures followed at Wever.

Refreshments were served to complete the Family Night, and thanks was given to the PTSA for help in organizing the affair.

* * *

After the mad scramble of club joining last week, students are finally getting settled in the club of their choice. Most appeared satisfied, though picking wasn't easy, students said.

Some of the popular ones: The Square Dance Club . . . Table Games Club . . . Camera Club . . . the school newspaper's Smoke and Signal Club . . . Drama Club . . . Glee Club . . . and, of course, the always popular Magic Club where you learn to pull rabbits out of a hat.

JEFFERSON SET FOR GAME

At Jefferson Junior High, activities are just starting to roll. Cheerleaders are organizing to keep up a keen spirit for the semester's first football game, scheduled for Tuesday with Eastern, at Wisner Stadium. Plenty of excited comments heard in the halls, with the hope of victory running high . . .

* * *

Drawing pleased comments from Jefferson's girls are two new work units in the cooking room, as well as the blond formica-top tables in the sewing division.

New black folding shades in the auditorium are designed for better showing of audio-visual films.

EASY LEARNING — Audio-visual films are being used more and more in schools, as teachers and students alike find learning by movies is both pleasant and effective. Preparing the film for the showing of a recent movie on chemistry for science classes at Lincoln Junior High School is ninth grader Bryen Marks.

Driver-Students Get Tips

Pontiac High students in driver training courses got a briefing Tuesday on just how the police Traffic and Safety Bureau operates in Pontiac.

Patrolman Gerald Gaedt of the traffic department explained to approximately 200 student drivers how the bureau works to prevent accidents, to handle the accidents as they occur, and to keep tabs on violations.

Photos of fatal and personal injury accidents often play a big part in determining who is at fault, the students learned, and fast police work in getting injured persons to a hospital can save lives.

Big cause of accidents and a number of safety measures were outlined.

A captain, a lieutenant, two sergeants and 12 patrolmen make up the traffic bureau.

St. Fred Picks Class Officers

Michael Carry Heads Seniors; Juniors Elect Michael Malloy

By ANN SCHACHERN

Class elections were the highlights at St. Frederick High School this past week. Seniors elected Michael Carry as president; Norma Thyle, vice president; Nancy Morey, secretary; and David Jones, class treasurer.

David already has been put to work collecting ring deposits. Seniors, measured for these last Wednesday, are anxiously awaiting their arrival.

Juniors elected Michael Malloy as president; Beverly Malinowski, vice president; Karen Kergan, secretary and Steve Rosina, treasurer. On the shoulders of these four officers stands the job of planning many of St. Fred's activities for the coming year.

Student Council President Arron Koeing announced some of the things the Council already has accomplished.

First was ratification of the constitution by the faculty. Copies of the document were placed on bulletin boards in every homeroom. Proposals of a yearbook also were discussed, but no definite conclusions reached.

MAY GET RINGS

The Council is considering letting the junior class get their rings later this year. It has been a time honored tradition at St. Fred's to wait until the senior year for class rings, so the decision is an important one.

Finally, a dance has been planned for the future.

Students last week were saddened to learn that Father Robert Fehriback had been transferred to St. Alphonsus parish in Dearborn. His loss is felt by all.

An enthusiastic reception was given to Edward Broom when he spoke to the junior and senior classes about Junior Achievement. He recruited many new members as well as a host of those who were members last year.

* * *

Area High Schools Busy With Elections, Dances

The Student Council of Walled Lake Senior High will sponsor its first project — a get-acquainted dance at the Junior High building —tonight.

Senior class officers elected Tuesday are Dick Woodworth, president; Nancy Austin, vice president; Sue Tobin, secretary; Carolyn Cummins, treasurer.

Bill Brown heads the Junior class, with Cynthia Tinder as vice president, Janice McBroom, secretary; Sheila Huebler, treasurer.

AT AVONDALE

"Strange Boarders," a comedy mystery, is the play Avondale High seniors will stage on Nov. 10.

Over 200 students turned out for the annual jug dance Friday. The little brown jug, object of Avondale-Troy rivalry, held the place of honor in the center of the dance floor. Music was on tape for the dance, sponsored by the seniors.

Avondale's new debate club met for the second time Tuesday. Fifteen students are participating.

AT BIRMINGHAM

At Birmingham High, tests of educational development will be given all students Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Object, to give each student a chance to know his strength and weakness before leaving high school.

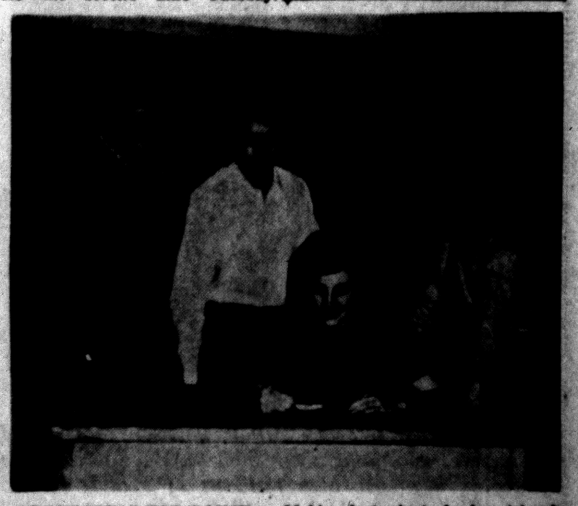

The Cicerone party, set for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the cafeteria, promises to be fun for new students and Cicerones alike. Plenty of excitement brewing over the football game with Mt. Clemens High.

AT BLOOMFIELD HILLS

The first Bloomfield Hills High School paper goes to press sometime next week . . . Cheerleaders are chic in new navy pleated skirts and white sweaters . . . gym floor is now ready for waxing . . . tickets to all sporting events selling to students for $2—double for adults.

Set for Emergencies

After a demonstration on what not to do in case of an accident, the St. Michael biology class boasts that it can handle any type of emergency. Demonstrators were Sandra Bailey, Carol Shell and Mary C. Kidd.

Sportsmen Torn Between Ann Arbor, North Woods

Wilderness Is Beckoning to Nimrods

Many Heading for Cabins Despite Big Football Game

The nimrod has triumphed over the football fan. In spite of the fact that Ann Arbor is the mecca of many sports enthusiasts this weekend, many others are treking north to their cottages and camps for the opening of hunting season.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold K. Jerome of West Iroquois road are leaving today for their cottage at Grayling.

Accompanying them are Mr. and Mrs. Ian Kiltie of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hardwick of Flint.

* * *

Another group of ardent hunters who are foregoing their seats at the stadium for Sleepy Hollow Camp near Curran are Robert Nelson, Edward Barrett, Robert Glenn, Ross Thompson, Jack Patterson and Roy Corwin.

* * *

James Nye, James Jenkins and Dr. L. Jerome Fink are spending the week-end at the Fink's cottage at Caseville.

These hunters will try their skill at Wildfowl Bay.

* * *

David Edstrom and Dr. George Petroff are sure they're fooling the "birds." They had an early start, leaving Thursday for Camp 24 near Curran where they'll stay for the week.

Louis Cole, who remained in town for the Saturday game hopes to join the group later.

* * *

Among the recent arrivals at The Cloister, Sea Island, Ga., was Mrs. John F. Gordon of Bloomfield Hills.

* * *

Judith Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Robinson of East Iroquois road has returned to Michigan State University for her senior year.

Judith will be located in Ithaca where she will do practice teaching in Home Economics for an 11-week period.

* * *

Richard E. Martz, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Martz of Bloomfield Hills, has been elected as this year's office manager of the "Dart" at Dartmouth College where he is a sophomore.

The Dart is the humor magazine of the College and is completely staffed by undergraduates.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bickford of Raeburn street have returned to their home from a motor tour of the West.

They visited friends and relatives in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and the Dakotas.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne W. Beatty of Hazel street announce the birth of a daughter, Janine Kay, Sept. 24 at Pontiac General Hospital.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Rhoun Beatty of Raskob avenue. Mrs. Elizabeth Green of Scott Lake is the maternal grandmother.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eichstedt, with their infant daughter Deborah Jean, have arrived in Omaha, Neb., where Mr. Eichstedt has accepted a position with the National Park Service.

Mrs. Eichstedt, the former Doris Bruce, made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kipp of Doris road.

* * *

Mrs. Alice Smith of Toledo, Ohio, has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Florence Lamoreaux on Hudson street, for several weeks.

She will remain in the city another week before returning to her home.

MARGARET FARRINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Farrington of Annandale, New Jersey, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Jeremy John. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar A. P. John of Birmingham. Jerry has been home on furlough from his Alaskan assignment and Margaret visited the family part of that time. She attended Sweetbriar College in Virginia and was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University where she was a member of Tri Delta sorority. Jerry was graduated from Cranbrook School and the University of Virginia where he was a member of Chi Psi fraternity.

Fashion Show to Highlight Meeting of UF Volunteers

Women Workers Will Receive Kits, Plus Advice on Soliciting Donations at Session on Wednesday Afternoon

A parade of fashions from Bloomfield Fashion Shop will highlight the program planned for the feminine contingent of United Fund Drive Volunteer Corps.

The affair will take place Wednesday from 1-3 p.m. in the CAI building on Williams Lake road.

Volunteers will be helped with their job of soliciting and will be given their kits.

Over a cup of tea, oldtimers will have the opportunity to pass on information and "know how" to new volunteers.

Geographic cochairman are Mrs. A. W. Gault and Mrs. Ralph G. Bump. Mrs. Lester Patton is assisting in the Waterford area.

The Pontiac geographic goal is $13,200. Assisting Mrs. Gault will be Mrs. Robert Anglemier Jr., captain district one; Mrs. W. H. Presnell, captain district two; Mrs. William Cumming, captain district three.

Mrs. Stanley Kipp and Mrs. George Gaches will serve as co-captains of district four; Mrs. John Howell, captain of district five and Mrs. DeVere Games and Mrs. Donald Bergeron, co-captains of district six.

Mrs. Thomas Fowler Jr. is captain of district seven assisted by co-captains Mrs. Ola Mae Paige and Mrs. Robert Turpin. In district eight, Mrs. William Hutchinson, district captain will be assisted by Mrs. Ralph Norvell and Mrs. Dave Wilson as co-captains.

OTHERS NAMED

Others serving as captains are Mrs. Richard Borchert, district nine; Mrs. James H. McGuire, district 10; Mrs. Lawrence Ferman, district 11 and Mrs. Newton Skillman, district 12.

Those named by Mrs. Bump to serve as district captains in the Waterford district are Mrs. Duane Lemaux, Mrs. Lester Howey, Mrs. A. W. Nevala, Mrs. Jack S. Hodges, Mrs. D. W. McIntyre, Mrs. Harry Ravell, Mrs. Robert Bruce and Mrs. William Liley.

Mrs. Dale Flowers will serve as district captain of district eight; Mrs. William Sanderson, district nine; Mrs. Fred Poole, district 10; Mrs. George Eldred and Mrs. Ralph Irish, district 11 and Mrs. Edmund Windeler, district 12.

Others are Mrs. William Katich, Mrs. Grant McDonald, Mrs. Kenneth Schluchter, Mrs. William R. Armstrong, Mrs. Martin J. Wager, Mrs. F. W. Heltman, Mrs. John Szeremet and Mrs. Richard Petrie.

Completing the district captains and co-captains in the Waterford area are Mrs. Roscoe Goddard, Mrs. Joseph Young, Mrs. Milton Harrington, Mrs. Charles Latta, Mrs. Francis Davis and Mrs. Norbert Harrington.

Pair Reveal Engagement of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart G. Dickie of Lakeland avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Mae, to Joseph Lucien Hardig of Birmingham. He is the son of Mrs. Herbert W. Suter, of Hamilton, Ohio, formerly of Birmingham.

The couple will exchange nuptial vows Oct. 22 at St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham.

The bride-elect has chosen Marilyn Miller of Keego Harbor, Mrs. Robert W. Hamilton of Detroit, Mrs. Houston H. Harte of Des Moines, Ia., and Mrs. Michael Ryan of Green Lake to be her attendants.

Carolyn attended Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and was affiliated with Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Joseph is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School and is a member of Sigma Chi and Phi Delta Phi Law fraternity.

Girl Scouts Stage Rally

All phases in Girl Scouting were presented in the program of the Girl Scout Leaders Rally held Wednesday evening in the Civics Room of the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Committee chairmen for the event were Mrs. Jay Hall, Dorothy Hollister, Mrs. Russell Kneale and Mrs. E. A. Reitmeyer.

The Brownie Story, presented by Troop 88 of Green Lake, was under the direction of Mrs. Albert Stanker. Washington Junior High Troops 73 and 91 presented a living mural of Camp Sherwood. Senior Mariner Ship Escanaba demonstrated the loading and handling of a canoe for scouting trips.

Mrs. Edwin Lally, council president, addressed the group and Mrs. Elwyn Tripp, troop camp chairman, talked on the National Senior Round-Up to be held at the Highland Recreation area next summer.

The movie, "The Leading Lady," was shown by field director Carolann Bingham and certificates of service were awarded to women participating in the scouting program from five to 35 years.

JANICE A. BARTLES

The engagement of their daughter, Janice A. Bartles, to Richard L. Adams is being announced by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bartles of Oliver street. He is the son of Mrs. S. Garner of Mechanic street and M. H. Adams of Drayton Plains. No date has been set for the wedding.

Recondition Hair Ruined by Heat

Maybe too much sun has made hay of your tresses! perhaps salt and chlorinated water have dulled and dried your hair. If so, don't despair—time and care will do much to recondition it. Proper hair care starts with brushing and massaging every day and frequent shampoos on a weekly or bi-weekly schedule.

Before every shampoo, give your hair a scalp-to-tip brushing and follow with a clear, warm water rinse. Then, pour the shampoo into your palm and work it gently through your hair. Make a special point of rubbing around the hairline because dirt and grime lodge in this area. Rinse with clear water with a hand spray or under a shower.

Repeat the sudsing once again and watch the mounds of rich suds pile up. Then rinse until every trace of grime and lather is gone, and your hair is bleamingly spotlessly clean.

Photographed at the recent membership tea sponsored by Amies Club were twins Martha Cowan (left) and Mary Cowan of Wenonah drive. Mary was appointed as Needlework Guild chairman for the club during the meeting.

MR. and MRS. FRANK ARTHUR LaLONDE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arthur LaLonde of Oakland avenue are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday. They have been residents of Pontiac for 45 years. Their seven children will be among friends and relatives attending the open house Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. LaLonde have 23 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Junior Music Clubs Resume Meetings

The Junior Music Clubs of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicale will begin their 1955-56 season Sunday. The affiliated groups will gather at 3 p.m. at the homes of members for their meetings.

* * *

Matinee Musicale will meet at the home of Pamela Griffin on Ogemaw road; Susan Larkin will open her home on Holcomb road in Clarkston to members of the Student League; Janet Thomas will welcome the Junior League at her home on Utica road, and the Senior League will gather at the Oxford road home of Mrs. Charles W. Buck.

The object of these clubs is to encourage the study, the performance and the appreciation of music for the good of the individual and the club, as well as the family and the community.

Meetings are held the first Sunday of each month, October through May, with members presenting musical selections for the programs.

COUNSELORS NAMED

Counseling the individual Clubs this season are Mrs. J. J. Wiley, Mrs. C. A. Scott and Mrs. F. M. Hathaway, Matinee Musicale; Mrs. W. S. Furlong and Mrs. L. G. Snell, Student League; Mrs. R. O. Allen, Mrs. P. J. Saghy and Mrs. T. E. Nelson, Junior League and Mrs Buck and Mrs. George Cameron, Senior League.

Auditions for new members will be held at the home of Mrs. Buck on Oct. 16. Prospective members for Matinee Musicale and Student League are to report at 3 p.m. Junior and Senior League prospective members are asked to report at 4 p.m.

Persons interested must provide their own accompanists, be studying at the present time and must perform acceptably one selection by memory.

Those interested in auditioning are asked to contact Mrs. Buck.

New Flexible Comb Hides Hearing Aid

A new flexible comb, designed to help hard-of-hearing women hide their hearing aids in their hair, is now on the market. The comb can be hidden under medium or long fluffy cuts, or under a ponytail.

House Furnishings Go Fashion-Minded

The home furnishings industry is becoming as fashion minded as the dress industry, with homeowners demanding new ideas in decorating styles.

Panelists at a 1955 wholesale home furnishings market agreed that this is a significant trend in American manners, and they promised new kinds of fabrics and furniture to meet the demand for change.

"Soon people will be shopping for new dining room and living room furniture every four or five years, just as they shop for new autos," said one manufacturer. Most families are refurnishing and redecorating their homes more frequently than ever before, remarked another panelist.

Bride-Elect Tells Plans

Bride-elect Shirley Jean Dunn named her bridal attendants at a shower given recently at Emmanuel Baptist Church.

Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunn of Seminole avenue, and Bill Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Turner of Drayton Plains, will exchange vows on Oct. 8 at Emmanuel Baptist Church.

Marlene Doolin will be the bride's honor attendant and Diane Williams and Shirley Blankenship will be bridesmaids.

The duties of flower girl will be performed by Diane Hale, with Stephen Doolin acting as ring bearer. Mary Mount will sing the bridal recital.

Hostesses for the bridal shower were Mrs. Dilyard Doolin, Mrs. Lowell Ellsworth, Mrs. George Powell, Diane Williams and Shirley Blankenship.

Janice Pierson Is Honored at Bridal Shower

Janice Pierson was the honoree at a miscellaneous bridal shower given Wednesday evening by Mrs. William Cummings of East Kennett road.

Janice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Pierson of East Howard street, is the bride-elect of Ronald James Cummings. His parents are William Cummings of East Kenneft road and Mrs. Albert Mathews of Williams Lake.

Guests attending were Mrs. Fred Eastman, Eileen Flanigan, Earline Smith, Brenda Burder, Marilyn Cremer, Mrs. Charles Turner, Mrs. Neil Fletcher, Mrs. Charles Cummings and Mrs. Mary Smith.

Others attending were Jean Smith, Mrs. Joseph Ehrmann, Mary Lou Ehrmann, Betty A. Sheridan, Velma Smith, Mary Tick, Beverly Flanders and Mrs. Evelyn Elmy.

Your Mouth Is Most Expressive Feature

Contrary to popular opinion, your eyes are not your most expressive feature. It's your mouth that best indicates your emotions, say psychologists.

So if you want to capitalize on a natural advantage and gather admiring glances at the same time, it's a good idea to choose a creamy, soft to the touch lipstick with exciting translucent color.

Association for Childhood Education Sponsors Tea at Whitfield School

Annual Fall Affair Is Held

New teachers and homeroom mothers of Pontiac schools were guests at the annual fall tea of the Association for Childhood Education held Thursday afternoon at the Daniel Whitfield School. Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. Dana P. Whitmer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank DuFrain and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald White.

Josephine Stillwell, president of the ACE, welcomed the group and gave the objectives of their organization. Mrs. Harry Killian, program, outlined the program for the year.

Cornucopias filled with fall fruits and flowers were centerpieces. Mrs. Robert Lazelle was chairman of the table decorations, assisted by Mrs. Philip Weber and Mrs. James Morrissey.

Mrs. Glen Wolford and Mrs. Emmett Buckley were in charge of floral decorations. Background music was provided by Mrs. Melvin Boersma, Mrs. Royal Exline and George Woodworth.

Mrs. Charles Coppersmith was in charge of refreshments assisted by Mrs. Fred Weist, Mrs. Richard Scribner, Mrs. Richard Stark, Mrs. Wallace Weiberg, Mrs. Merlin McNutt, Mrs. Ray Howard and Mrs. William Cotting.

Others helping were Mrs. Ray Caughill, Mrs. Victor Sutt, Mrs. Willard McRae, Mrs. Laura Crew, Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. Frank Kay and Mrs. Milton Young.

Mrs. Thomas Turner and Mrs. Clarence Stolpe were general co-chairman and assisting them was Mrs. Alton Madden.

Mrs. Ray Fleming Heads WCTU Unit

Mrs. E. J. Sweazey was in charge of the program when the Pontiac WCTU met Tuesday for election of officers. Mrs. Merle Monroe gave the devotions on the theme "Planting Seeds of Wisdom."

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. Ray Fleming, president; Mrs. Bertha Locke, vice-president; Mrs. Roy Riley, recording secretary; Mrs. Roy Fosbender, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Allen Ebey, treasurer.

Tricks for Tweedy Togs

PARIS (INS) — Paris designers have some special tricks that give a French flavor to the most functional tweed sport-togs.

Madeleine de Rauch, for instance, has one of the most original tweed outfits in Paris. It's a sport-styled suit in brown and beige tweed worn with a pair of long, side-buttoned gaiters in the same tweed.

The suit has buttoned breast-pockets and a slightly shortened skirt covering the top-edge of the gaiters. It's the gaiters that make all the difference for this all-tweed look and you can plan on these stocking-saving leg-covers for sports or week-ends in the country.

Designer Manguin also has a practical idea with tweeds. She shows a dark-green simple tweed suit which does a strip-tease trick: you can take off the skirt. It is worn over a black jersey sheath-dress with a high neck and long sleeves.

The sheath-dress top looks like a sweater if worn with the skirt and suit-jacket. For afternoon you remove the jacket and the slim wrap-around skirt to appear in the smart black jersey dress.

* * *

Teenage specialist "Virginie" proposes a practical and comfortable tweed style well suited for campus wear. The outfit consists of a jersey cover-all—combining a sweater-top with ballet tights—worn with a front-buttoned tweed-skirt tucked to super fulness.

Virginie considers this outfit more graceful than shirt and slacks. She shows it in dark-brown jersey with light-brown tweed or in black jersey with dark-green tweed.

Rose Enjoys First Choice in Lipstick

Recently, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) and Rep. Frances Bolton (R-Ohio) introduced bills to make the rose the official U. S. flower. Apparently the majority of "American Beauties" agree—if their choice of lipstick shades is any indication.

Dolores Hylla Is Honoree at Bridal Shower

Dolores Hylla, bride-elect of William O. Thomas Jr., was the honoree at a personal shower when members of Beta Alpha Chapter of Sigma Beta Sorority met recently.

* * *

Pat Sturgis opened her home on Going street for the affair and was assisted by Mrs. Grace Bollman and Mrs. Grover Sturgis.

Attending were Mrs. Leonard Hylla, Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. Paul Beith, Grace Campbell, Jackie Downer, Mrs. Jerry May, and Barbara McSkullin.

Others were Goldie Palaian, Joyce Setter, Mrs. William Smith, Carol Thomas, Esther Thomas and Marguerite Windiate.

MYRNA IRENE WEBSTER

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webster of Summit street announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrna Irene, to Robert H. Laity, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Laity of Pingree avenue. He will graduate from Wayne University in January. The couple plans a February wedding.

Movie Stars' Hairdo Requires Coiffure Trick

If you like Grace Kelly's hair-do—brushed back from her brow and drawn to her neck in back with ends of hair barely turned up—here's a new wrinkle she's wearing in her newest movie you might like to copy.

Set a deeply ridged wave across your hair in back, just a couple of inches above the turned-up ends. The idea of the ridged wave—more ridge than wave—is not so much for looks, although it looks very nice circling her head, as for shaping and mouling this oh-so-casual hair-style.

This is an excellent device for teen-agers, wearing Alice in Wonderland head-bands, who have trouble keeping the back of the hair close to their heads.

A flannel jerkin and matching slim skirt can change partners, vary blouses and enerally behave like an extensive wardrobe.

TV Invitation May Revive Romance

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I met the most wonderful boy this summer while we were both in the same place on vacation. He told me he would call me when he got settled down as a freshman in college.

"We have a mutual friend who might be on TV, and who promised to send me some tickets when it happens. The question is: Would it be forward of me to call my friend and ask him to go to the TV show?

"He said he wanted to go if I got tickets. I'm pretty sure he wasn't just giving me a summer line. He's a very nice boy!"

Answer: At the time your mutual friend was glowing to you both over the possibility of his TV performance your boy friend enthusiastically said he wanted to be in on it.

It was no line. He meant every word of it. And he'd probably be delighted to go with you if you get tickets.

That big "if" depends on things beyond your control. But should your friend be on the show, and should he remember to send you tickets, by all means get in touch with your friend at college to remind him, and invite him.

It's an excellent way to break any silence that may exist at that time. You needn't really wait until then, though—not if you have his college address.

"Dear Miss Woodward: We had just gone steady for one month when he asked for his class ring back, for no reason at all. I found out from one of his friends that his mother made him do it because she didn't believe in going steady at our age.

"I want to go with him more than any other boy around! I hear that he feels so awful about not going with me that he won't even speak to or look at me. So what can I do to get around his mother so I can go with him?

"There's going to be a free dance in town and I want to go with him. Even just to have a chance to dance with him there would help. Would it—or wouldn't it—be proper for me to send him an invitation?"

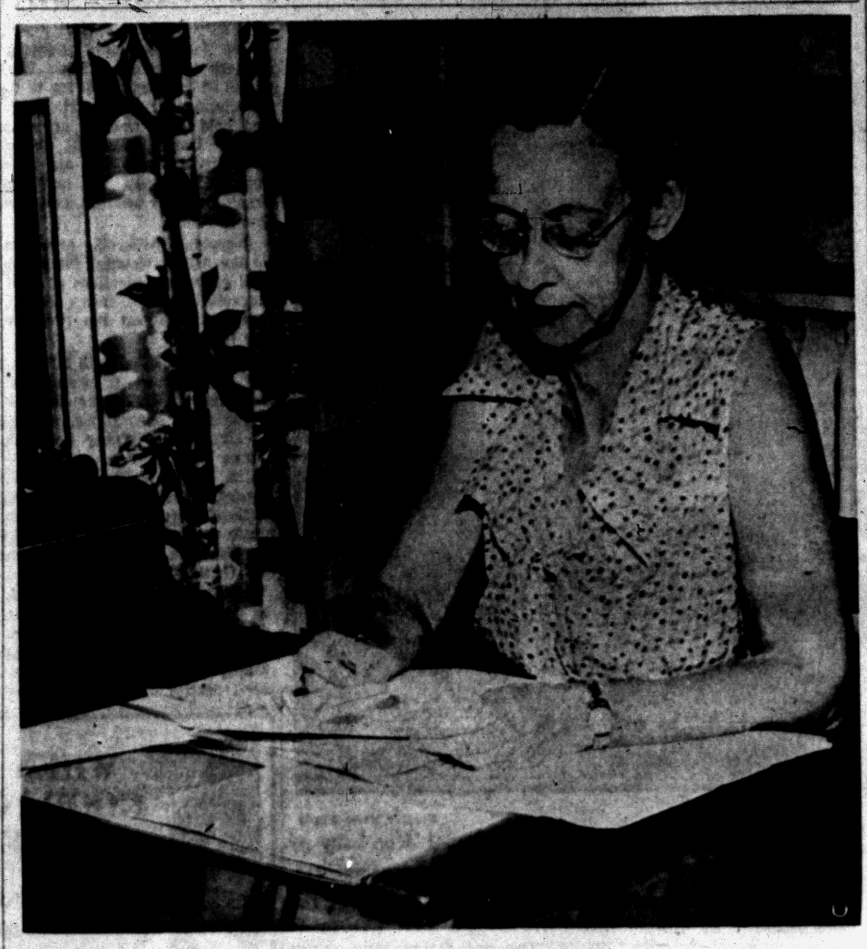

Answer: His mother's ideas on going steady are tough for you to get around. She probably has nothing against you personally. She just doesn't want her son too seriously involved with any girl at the moment. And so it was broken off for you.

But it's too bad he has taken it so seriously that he can't continue to be friendly. Perhaps an invitation to that dance would help him find his courage.

Send him one through the mail. Write in one corner, "I hope you'll be able to go," and sign your initials.

It's not a date you're asking him for. It doesn't say you expect to go with him. It's just an excuse for being in the same place at the same time. It might break the silence.

MRS. REBA ROSS NETZLER

Y Director Credits Blind Ad for Job

By JOAN RITTER

Answering a 'blind ad' led to Mrs. Reba Ross Netzler's current work with the YWCA. Mrs. Netzler, new executive director of the Pontiac YWCA, has been in 'Y' work for seven years.

A native of Ohio, she lived in Cleveland and attended Western Reserve College for two years. A career in the newspaper world seemed her destiny when she quit college to work on the social desk of a Cleveland newspaper.

Her college courses of creative writing and philosophy served her in good stead both in her newspaper work and in her work with the Cleveland Y'. It was there she met her husband, Sixten, who was then with the Cleveland and Buffalo Boat Line.

She is a much traveled person as she accompanied her husband who was with the Maritime service during World War II. While he was stationed in St. Joseph, she continued her newspaper work on the local paper. Mrs. Netzler also served with the Charleston, N. C., YWCA for one year.

ANSWERS AD

It was after working on the staff of a Miami newspaper doing copy reading and city desk work for six years that she answered the 'blind ad' that was her immediate incentive to a concentrated career in the YWCA. Her 'Y' work consisted of serving as public relations director and director of adult education for the YWCA throughout the United States.

* * *

In preparation for her executive position here in Pontiac, Mrs. Netzler attended Lake Erie College, Painesville, Ohio, this past July for additional professional training and stopped in Pontiac for a first peek at her new community before returning to Miami.

While in Ohio this July, Mrs. Netzler met women from many countries and every state of the union taking the concentrated executive course. Among those she met was the president of the YWCA from the Gold Coast of Africa.

This meeting of different nationalities and races of people associated in the 'Y' bore out ideas she expressed in a prize winning essay this spring for the YWCA Centennial Essay Contest.

In her essay, entitled, "What YMCA Membership Means to Me," she stressed the worldwide aspect of the 'Y' while still retaining a family feeling among all members. She believes the 'Y' affords "a common bond of people of divergent backgrounds."

* * *

Mrs. Netzler is the wife of Sixten Netzler, a captain on the Bob-Lo steamer, and the mother of two young sons, Sixten, 14, and Serwin, 9. Serwin is here with his mother and Mrs. Netzler is expecting her other son to join her when he completes his last year in junior high school in Miami.

RESIDENCE EYED

Mrs. Netzler's work here as executive director includes program planning, publicity and public relations.

She sees a need for a residence for business and professional women and is hoping to add more activities to the 'Y' program in addition to ceramics, sewing and knitting and instruction.

* * *

Her first impression of Pontiac has been very favorable and she plans to spend her first year here learning to know the membership and the community.

Some of the best family trees experience a crop failure now and then.

Physician Earns Title for Lifetime

Always Call Him Doctor, Even After Retirement

By EMILY POST

"Is it proper to introduce a doctor who is now retired as Dr. Jones, or does he become Mr. Jones? A friend of ours has recently retired from the medical profession and a discussion arose as to whether or not he is still called Dr. or whether this title is used only for a practicing physician."

Answer: His title has been earned for life. He is never called anything else!

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter was engaged a year ago. At that time my husband and I gave a large reception at the country club in honor of her engagement. Soon afterwards, however, the engagement was broken.

"My daughter is now going with another young man. In the event that she should become engaged again, would it be in good taste for us to give a second party for her, or would it be best to announce it in the newspaper without any fanfare."

Answer: Your second choice is best.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Are pearls the only earrings and necklace suitable with mourning clothes? I don't mean crepe veil mourning but black clothes unrelieved with the usual color.

"Would diamonds be permissable? What if a pin has some colored stones in it? And what about a watch that has some rubies with the diamonds?"

Answer: It is not considered necessary for those who go in mourning to discard all of their utility jewelry and buy items of gunmetal or other substances.

If the earrings—no matter what—have always been worn by this person, she may continue to wear them. The same is true of her watch and of her rings.

Fruit Halves Line Mold of Gelatin

Mrs. Homer Harless' Salad-Dessert Uses Pears and Peaches

By JANET ODELL

Bartlett pears and Elberta peaches may still be found in the produce department of your favorite grocery store. Combine them in an attractive gelatin mold that may be either salad or dessert. Mrs. Homer Harless says this recipe has been used in her family for a long time.

This fall Mrs. Harless makes her debut as a Brownie Scout leader for her daughter's troop. She is also a member of a social club.

Her talented fingers keep busy with sewing, crocheting, knitting and fixing up her home. She likes to tie quilts. Once she even experimented with making a pheasant hat!

SALAD-DESSERT
By Mrs. Homer Harless

1 package lemon gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup peach juice (may use peach nectar) or 1 cup cold water
1 jar (6 ounces) maraschino cherries
8 peach halves
10 pear halves

Make up gelatin and allow to cool until thick and syrupy. Arrange peach halves, each with a cherry in the stone cavity, upside down in the bottom of a mold. Place three cherries in the center of the mold. Place pear halves around sides and ends.

Mix the rest of the cherries with the chilled gelatin and pour over the fruit. Chill. Serve with salad dressing for salad or whipped cream for dessert.

In calculating how much wallpaper you need for a room, figure 30 square feet of coverage per single roll and buy an extra roll to provide for waste.

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Strange as it may seem, there are many communities in this country which have no accessible public library; towns with no library of their own and with no big city close enough for the community to use its library.

The following letter, from Mrs. J.B., is all too typical.

• • •

"Our town has never had a library and we are really beginning to feel the need badly. A group of us are working on it, with the city fathers, and within the next few years I think we can count on having our own library.

"The nearest one is miles away and our winters—and our roads—are such that getting to it is very difficult. Also, our town has no book shop, so we really are at a loss.

• • •

"However, some of the women, and myself, started a literary club. I thought you might be interested to hear what we're doing as a stop-gap measure.

MODEST BEGINNING

"First we each chipped in 10 dollars, then made a list of the basic classics we wanted.

"One of our members went to the city for a few days, staying with an aunt who lives there, and haunted the second-hand shops to pick up copies of the books on our list. That was the beginning of our 'library.'

"One of our members let us have the use of her basement game room," she continued, "and her husband lined it with bookshelves.

"Once a month, we have a bazaar or a bridge party or some social activity, and charge admission. The profits go toward a trip to the city for additional books.

"Also, instead of paying membership dues, each of us buys a current book per month which is donated to our library. We order them from a nice bookshop in the city, which promises—and gives—us speedy deliveries.

MANY DONATIONS

"At first, we thought that would be that—a small 'library' for our own club. But the townspeople got interested and we received many donations of second-hand books from village families.

• • •

"Now our library is open to the public, at no charge except for overdue books. It isn't much, but it is a nice beginning. And we feel better for having some kind of library, even a tiny one."

As the old saying goes, it is better to light one small candle than sit and complain about the darkness!

Bride-Elect Is Honored at Shower

Marilyn Stack was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower given by Mrs. James L. Brown of Vinewood avenue Wednesday evening.

Marilyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stack of Westacres, is the bride-elect of Wilfred D. Smith, of Highland road.

Guests were Mrs. Stack, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Joseph Stack, Mrs. Edmund O. Smith, Patricia Zimmerman, Mrs. Thomas Thornberry and Mrs. Thomas McGuire.

Others included Mrs. William Widman, Mrs. Franklin Harper, Mrs. M. S. Lincicome, Mrs. Ralph DeGraff and Ruth Ridley.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Judd Taylor of Walled Lake, Nancy Flynn of Westacres, Joan Stumpf of Rochester, Mrs. L. B. Coryell of Oxford, Mrs. Norman Jenkins of Clarkston, Mrs. H. C. Heym, of Royal Oak, Mrs. LeRoy Newton of Berkley, and Mrs. Donald J. Smith and Mrs. Frank Jalosky Jr. of Drayton Plains.

A Perfect Spot

Beneath a wall oven is the perfect spot for a revolving-shelf cabinet which brings every item it holds into easy view. And what better spot for deep drawer and shelf combinations than under the built-in range top unit? And for kitchen walls, wood paneling lends itself perfectly to expansive, yet shallow wall cabinets which provide ample storage space

Child Revived by Quick Action of Postal Clerk

ST.PAUL, Minn. (AP)—A postal clerk yesterday pumped life back into an apparently dead baby girl on the counter of his mother's St.Paul grocery.

Mrs. Baltazar Franco rushed into the small neighborhood store carrying the limp and blue body of her 7-month-old daughter Sylvia. She explained the baby had suffocated under blankets and pillows on a bed.

Chester J. Dyczkowski, 32, happened to be in the grocery, owned by his mother, Mrs. Margaret Dyczkowski, buying food for his family.

He laid the baby on the counter next to the cash register and applied artificial respiration for 10 minutes.

"The first sign of life was when the baby's color changed," said his mother. "Then one of her little fists started to double up. It was something to see, that limp little body getting life back into it."

Soviet Indicates Plan Rejected

Moscow Radio Attacks Ike's Proposal for Air Arms Inspection

WASHINGTON (AP)—Moscow radio broadcasts provided new evidence today that the Soviet Union has in fact rejected President Eisenhower's proposal for an exchange of aerial inspection and military blueprints in advance of an agreement on a complete global disarmament program.

* * *

While avoiding criticism of Eisenhower, Moscow broadcasts recorded here are beginning to attack it as an "inspection-without-arms-reduction plan."

One broadcast contended it would tend instead to speed up arms output if one nation found itself lagging behind the other.

* * *

Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin sent the President a long personal letter last week in which he raised many objections to the plan. He did not object to the principle, but argued that the steps Eisenhower proposed should be taken as parts of a fully developed arms reduction system.

Eisenhower's idea has been to short-circuit the lengthy negotiations necessary to develop a global program and get the United States and Russia to take directly the simple and dramatic actions he outlined as a means of creating world confidence in their peaceful intentions.

* * *

Some qualified officials privately considered Bulganin's reply "a polite rejection." Others publicly took the line that it kept the door open for further negotiations.

Bag-Toting Thief Can't Sack Cash From Theaters

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Some days a feller just can't bag a thing.

Movie cashier Rosaleen Thompson looked up when a man laid a note and a paper bag on her counter and commanded:

"Don't bother to read the note. Just fill up the bag."

"With what?" she asked.

"With money," he said.

"There's not enough here to fill it up," she said.

The man walked to a nearby theater and tried again, with a gun.

Cashier Bonnie Duste ducked and called the cops.

A few minutes later they arrested Arthur Bosey, 33, on suspicion of armed robbery.

He was carrying a paper bag—empty.

Smog Under Suspicion in Lung Cancer Cases

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—New suspicion was directed toward smog today as a factor in lung cancer. A top researcher reported he had produced lung malignancies in mice by forcing the animals to breathe synthetic smog.

This researcher, Dr. Paul Kotin of the University of Southern California, previously produced experimental skin cancer in mice with hydrocarbons taken from smoggy air.

The new results of this work, reported to the California Division of the American Cancer Society, fall far short of incriminating smog as the actual cause of human lung cancer. But someday, Dr. Kotin said, polluted air may be tagged as one of the chief causes.

The Tigers' Al Kaline, hitting sensation this season, is only 20 years old.

Detroiter, 102, Contesting Will

Aged Woman on Relief Left Out of Daughter's $3 Million Estate

NEW YORK (AP)—A 102-year-old mother, on relief and in a Detroit hospital with a broken arm, is contesting the three-million-dollar will of her late daughter, who cut her off without a penny.

* * *

The case came to light yesterday in Surrogate's Court when an attorney representing the estate of the late Mrs. Agnes Barringere Momand moved to dismiss the objections of the mother, Mrs. Wilhelmina Van Etten of Detroit.

Mrs. Van Etten, who reportedly has lived free with friends for the past 18 years, recently was taken to Haynes Memorial Medical Hospital in Detroit with a broken arm. Her doctor, Clinton A. Jackson, said all her medical bills are being paid for by Wayne County and that she appears penniless.

Mrs. Momand — reportedly a shrewd investor—died last May 25 at the age of 65. The Park Avenue matron remembered 30 legatees—including friends, doctor and nurses, her sister, her ex-husband, Don S. Momand of London, England, and the son of her estate's co-executor.

* * *

Mrs. Van Etten, through counsel Eunice M. O'Neill, charges Mrs. Momand's will, made four months before her death, was procured by "fraud and undue influence of some persons or persons at present unknown to this respondent."

O'Neill further alleges Mrs. Momand was "not of sound mind and memory" at the time the will was executed.

Coleman Gangel, counsel for the dead woman's estate, said Mrs. Van Etten had told him she had not seen nor heard from her daughter in 20 years. The attorney also described Mrs. Momand as a woman of "forceful personality."

'Teenage Loan Fund' Helps Chicago's Youth

CHICAGO (AP) — Teenage loan seekers are encouraged to borrow from the First Commercial Bank since it established its "Teenage Loan Fund."

Harold H. Stout, president of the bank, said no co-signers or guarantees of any kind are required and only the integrity of teenagers is necessary for a loan. Three teenagers are members of the fund's administrative board.

Evicted Crows Migrate to Metropolitan Area

SALISBURY, Rhodesia—Evicted from a plantation of gum trees on vacant lots here, a large community of crows has moved downtown.

One of Salisbury's tallest buildings, Tanganyika House, is becoming increasingly popular as a nightly roosting place and shows signs of becoming Salisbury's foremost bird sanctuary.

The crows were ousted from the gum trees when the city decided to make the place into a parking lot.

African Railways Long

DURBAN, South Africa — The South African Railways now operate 14,000 route miles of track. It also operates motor service on 27,000 miles of road. It carries more than 75,000,000 tons of freight and 275,000 passengers a year.

Beauty Winners in Massachusetts Seeking Careers

BOSTON (INS) — Beauty contest winners do not wither on the vine—at least, not the Massachusetts type.

Seven winners of recent beauty contests in Massachusetts still attract second looks from admiring males and several intend to compete again.

Last year's "Miss Massachusetts," the former Judith Drake, of New Bedford, now Mrs. Donald A. MacIsaac, is in Florida with her Air Forceman husband. A graduate of the St. Luke's Hospital nursing school, she intends to study advanced nursing.

"Miss Springfield," Jean Dernago, since winning that title, picked up another—"Western Massachusetts Flower Show Queen"—and is concentrating on a career singing or "as a photographers' model."

"Miss Greater Lynn," Mina Perry of East Lynn, now is teaching dancing and says her plans "consist of continuing to teach dancing or possibly more professional work."

"Miss Greater Beverly," Eugenia Bianchi, was busy in civic affairs, welcoming visitors to the city and "being present at different affairs." She is working in a dental surgery center, plans to marry "some day."

"Miss Swampscott," Madolyn McAdams, has been active in extra curricular affairs during her first year at Cornell University and twice made the dean's list. She "plans to further her work in the diplomatic service."

Laughing Frogs Disrupt Quiet Kent Countryside

LONDON, Eng.—Laughing frogs may be comical but they're a pain in the ear to people living around Romney Marsh in Kent, England.

From a group of 12 frogs imported to keep down mosquitoes, the colony has spread over 30 square miles of the marsh.

Every summer they break into a month-long chorus. It is thought that laughter is indulged in only by the male frogs, as part of their courtship, designed to attract the females and to warn off rivals. The laughing frogs, common in Hungary, are nearly a foot long.

Man Takes Cold Bath in Home of Stranger

MEXICO CITY — It gets awful hot in Mexico sometimes, as witness this recent news story.

A stranger, discovered splashing in Fernando Gonzale's bathtub, protested to police that he meant no harm. He said he found the door open and "it was so hot, I just wanted a bath."

Gas Pedal Device Shown as New Braking System

GOWANDA, N. Y.—An automatic braking system that slows down cars when pressure is eased up on the gas pedal has been developed by a Gowanda concern.

A metering control valve about the size of a man's fist is mounted on the engine or firewall and is vacuum controlled.

With this device connected to the accelerator, need for a separate brake pedal is eliminated, the company claims.

Businessmen Forsake 'Manana' for Today

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Members of the New Mexico Manufacturers Assn. have advocated the abandonment of the traditional "manana" of New Mexico's Spanish speaking heritage and advocated making it a "today" state.

The association said recently "every businessman who has been fit to take a membership should fully realize the time to act must be now to promote our great state for what it is."

UM Astronomer Claims October Month of Moons

October will be a month of moons—two of them full—according to Associate Prof. Hazel M. Losh of the University of Michigan Astronomy Department. The first full moon will fall on Oct. 1 and is called the harvest moon. The second full moon occurs on Oct. 31 and is known as the hunter's moon.

The harvest moon is defined as the full moon occurring nearest the time of the autumnal equinox in mid September. The hunter's moon, this year called the halloween moon, will appear sooner than any other time during the year and thus supply hunting evenings with full moonlight for several nights in a row.

The length of days will decrease noticeably in October, says Prof. Losh, and by the end there'll only be about 10 hours of daylight. This leaves plenty of time for observing planets, constellations and meteor showers during the 14 evening hours. There are two of the showers scheduled, one around Oct. 9 and the other around the 22nd.

Chin Strap Strangles Boy

ELGIN, Ill. (AP)—James Cole, 7, was strangled by the chin strap of his cowboy hat yesterday. Police said the boy apparently was sliding down a rope tied to a tree when he slipped. The hat caught in a loop in the rope. The chin strap held and broke the boy's neck, police said.

Deaths Last Night

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Donaldson, 86, film director, singer, dramatist, director and producer who was credited with producing the first talking picture in 1925. Born in Sweden.

ST. LOUIS—Edward Stanton Pillsbury, 89, board chairman of the Century Electric Co., and one of the founders of the firm which has offices in 34 cities.

CLEVELAND—Dr. Robert H. Bishop, 76, nationally known for his fight against tuberculosis, former director of University Hospitals in Cleveland and president of the American College of Hospital Administrators in 1943-44.

ENGLEWOOD, N.J.—Dr. Richard P. Deimel, 74, retired head of the Department of Mechanical Engineering at Stevens Institute of Technology and a nationally known authority on the gyro compass.

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Bruce A. Campbell, 75, retired East St. Louis, Ill., lawyer and former grand exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge.

DANIEL BOONE — By Russ Winterbotham and Ralph Lane

The Kentuckians met the strategy of their foes by countermining the tunneling of the redskins under the stockade.

Rain caused the Indians to give up their attempt to dig into Boonesborough.

On the ninth day, Dan'l Boone's old friend, Simon Kenton, pounded on the gate: "The savages have gone!" he cried.

Reinforcements were near. Boone's garrison of 30 men had fought off nearly 500 redskins and Tories.

Skinny Heifer Saves Texan From Clink

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Money Price of Brownfield, Tex., was acquitted of income tax evasion charges by Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson.

"When we look at a cow and her ribs are showing, it's hard to convince ourselves she is fat," the judge said.

Judge Davidson said the fact that the 55-year-old farmer-rancher quit his auto and farm implement business after five years showed he made no money in the business.

Price was charged with evading $4,887.56 of taxes in 1948 and $143.06 in 1949.

General 'Visits' Town From Air

Gruenther Makes Flying Call on Homefolks in Platte Center, Neb.

PLATTE CENTER, Neb. (AP) — "There he is. Right on time."

The shout rose from the folks at Platte Center yesterday.

"He" was Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme Allied commander in Europe.

"Al" is a Platte Cener "kid," born and raised here.

• • •

The general had returned to the United States for Washington talks and agreed to go to Norfolk, Neb., for the dedication of a memorial to the late Rep. Karl Stefan, native of that city.

His flying route from Omaha to Norfolk would take him over Platte Center, population 550.

He sent word to his home town that his big plane would fly smack down Main Street "not too low" at a certain hour.

• • •

The hour came. The streets and the schoolyard were full of grown-ups and kids. All stared upward. Out of the distant sky came the big plane. It wheeled around the town. Then it came right down Main Street — not too low yet in perfect view.

Druggist Ervin Cronin, who played with the general as a kid, gazed up and said, "One thing about Al, if he says he is going to fly down the main drag at a certain time, you can bet he'll be up there grinning at you. And there he is."

• • •

Husky farmer Frank Podraza grinned and said, "Wish he would land that thing. I got a bone to pick with him. He licked me when I was 9 years old. I weigh 220 now!"

There is more energy in one hurricane than in hundreds of atom bombs all exploding at once, says the National Geographic Society.

Women Not Using Their Freedom, Reports Female

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The attitude of women toward themselves is the greatest barrier to their complete freedom, says the feminine Lieutenant Governor of Vermont.

Mrs. Consuelo Northrop Bailey, the only woman in this country elected Lieutenant Governor, said women have not used to the fullest extent the freedom they have won since they received the vote 35 years ago.

She told south Florida business and professional women's clubs last night that women waste energy on unimportant details and by "just trying to keep up with the Joneses" and that they fear they are not so capable as men.

"Women are more free from a legal than from a psychological point of view," she said.

The most important job for a woman is still to be a good mother, she added.

Tibetans think that hail results from the mischief of devils and when it falls on the holy buildings of Lhasa, magicians who have been hired to prevent it are punished.

No Library Wooing at All-Girl College

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—The maleless academic world of Goucher College leaves its students "happily free" of such distractions as football and "hand-holding in the library" says president Otto F. Kraushaar.

Kraushaar, welcoming the college's 641 students back to school yesterday, called the girls to pursuit of the "serious aims of the institution."

But he added that despite Goucher's relative freedom from football and other coeducational college distractions, "l'amour seems to thrive very well indeed—even without hand-holding in the library."

Ralph Serves One Hour Jail Term for Assault

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Ralph Franklin, 26, completed his jail sentence in just one hour yesterday on a conviction of assaulting his landlord.

District Court Judge Luigi Depasquale described the one-hour sentence as the shortest he ever imposed.

However, Franklin had been in jail nine days awaiting sentence.

Bob Considine Says:

Series Too Nerve-Wracking for the Pros

NEW YORK (INS) — You seldom see a big league ballplayer among the spectators at a World Series.

Various reasons have been advanced to explain this phenomenon. It has been said that by and large they're too cheap to make the trip, that the clubs won't set aside tickets for them, that there's no more reason for them to attend than a plumber on his day off would think of watching some other plumber work, and that they're sore because they're not in the show.

There may be another reason: Anguish. The thought of suffering by remote control doesn't readily come to mind. You think of big leaguers as case-hardened pros. But it's there.

A few of us were watching the remnants of the American League race with Joe DiMaggio, a fellow who could catch a fly ball blindfolded while running barefooted across a bed of coals. Joe was sweating quietly.

The Yanks had a two-run lead over Boston. To the amateurs seated around Joe, all wase serene . . . the game would be over in a few minutes.

"They'll get the tying run at the plate," DiMaggio said with a note of resignation. "They always do."

The next guy walked and the hitter who followed him represented the tying run.

TIME TO PRAY

"Now," remarked one of the most gifted fielders of all time, "now is when you pray the fellow doesn't hit one to you."

* * *

An admirer's eyebrow went up an inch. "But you could catch a ball in your hip pocket . . ."

"Now" Joe repeated, looking at the play, "Is when a ballplayer prays the fellow doesn't hit one to him."

The batter promptly hit one to a fine boy named Andy Carey, playing third. DiMag closed his eyes. The ball went through Carey's legs and the Yankees blew the game.

The swarming fans around the World Series give a deceptive air of health to a pretty sick industry —baseball.

There aren't many smiling owners and stockholders among the brass in attendance. The condition of the game has aroused the attention of the Wall Street Journal. The financial paper made a spot check and has come up with these conclusions:

Fans through the country are tired of perennial Yankee victories. Night baseball is keeping youngsters away from ballpark. Television is killing off minor league interest ("why pay to see second-rate ball-players when you can see the best for nothing!")

PRICES GO UP

Everything has gone up in prices: Basic salaries, travel, hotel, food, even basevall caps (they sell from $6 to $10 each and the average team uses 15 dozen a year.)

The ballparks are old, demand much upkeep (painting costs up 30 per cent in five years.) New day fans find the parks uncomfortable, hard to reach. The owners, losing patronage, wonder whether to kill off telecasts or surrender further to the medium.

Branch Rickey would like to sell rights to Pittsburgh Pirates, road games but no sponsor wants to buy the shabby product. The pennant-winning Dodgers would have lost money this year if deprived of TV income. So would many also-rans.

The next move (to be made some dark night when nobody's watching): Increase ticket prices.

If any further proof was needed that the art of baseball writing has been replaced by statistics it was supplied by the press box announcer at the start of the second game in the Yankee Stadium.

"Temperature in the press box," the man intoned, "is 68 degrees."

It may live in history as the least important fact of the 20th Century.

Season Starts for Rash of Monoxide Fatalities

LANSING (AP)—The start of cold weather is the beginning of a season of deaths caused by carbon monoxide poisoning, the State Health Department warned today.

Drivers were advised to never warm up their car engines in the garage unless the doors are open. With the door closed, a deadly concentration of carbon monoxide can build up in a few minutes, the health dept. said.

U.S. Businessmen Plan Trip Through Far East

CHICAGO (AP) — Seven U.S. business executives are scheduled to visit the Far East—from Tokyo to Christchurch, New Zealand—to sell the American free enterprise system.

They will present the story of "Consumerism" under the sponsorship of the National Sales Executives International which believes it is the best answer to Communism.

$250 Fine Paid by Psychiatrist for Burglarizing

PIERMONT, N.Y. (AP)—Dr. Price A. Kirkpatrick, 33-year-old New York City psychiatrist, was fined $250 in Police Court last night for stealing curios and antiques from an unoccupied New York area suburban home last Memorial Day.

* * *

He was found guilty by a jury two weeks ago on a petty larceny charge.

He admitted burglarizing the Rockland County home of Charles Sparhawk, chemist and manufacturer. He said it appeared abandoned.

* * *

After his arrest Kirkpatrick resigned as director of mental health services for New York City Domestic Relations Court. He was free in bail pending his trial and sentencing.

The psychiatrist climbed through a window of the house and took curios and antiques while on a drive in the country with his fiancee, Patrick Letz, 27 — now his wife. She had no part in the theft. He said he wanted the items to put in his Manhattan office.

He paid the fine.

The CAB said any objections to its proposed order must be filed within 15 days, after which the proceeding will be heard before an examiner.

What Do You Know About Your Heart?

Golf Did Not Bring On Ike's Seizure

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—How can you best care for your heart to minimize your chances of a heart attack?

Living a full, active, good and sensible life may be a main rule.

* * *

No experts can lay down sure, hard-and-fast rules. Not enough is yet known about the fundamental cause of the heart attack process.

But they do have tips. And some authorities are finding good reasons to doubt many of the beliefs most of us hold about heart attacks. Beliefs such as these:

* * *

That exercise is bad, after 40 you should slow way down.

That tense business executives are most likely to sudden death from heart seizures.

That most heart attacks follow exertion — golf, tennis, shoveling snow, the dramatic incidents you read or hear about. Instead, half of all attacks appear to come during sleep and resting.

That we should blindly follow the advice to "take it easy" to avoid heart attacks.

That playing golf on Friday had anything to do with President Eisenhower's heart attack the next day.

You can easily find differences of opinion among heart experts. Here are some of the challenging newer viewpoints:

* * *

Dr. Paul D. White, famous Boston heart specialist who attended Eisenhower:

Speaking of Ike's golfing: "My own feeling is that golf has been often wrongly blamed, that those who play golf and have an attack at 65 might have had an attack at 45 if they hadn't played golf. We don't think that exercise itself is responsible.

"In fact, I am of the impression that it really helped to delay the onset of this (attack) rather than to cause it. Of course, very severe accidents or strains may be a precipitating effect, but they aren't the fundamental cause, and we are still studying the question of cause."

In a talk a couple of years ago, Dr. White said, "The general warning to stop all vigorous exercise at 40 seems to me to be ridiculous and, more likely than not, actually to lead to an increase of coronary arteriosclerosis." (This is the disease process in which fatty deposits form in the inner linings of arteries, narrowing them. Heart attacks usually come when a blood clot is trapped in such arteries and blocks the flow of nourishing blood to the heart muscle).

Heredity, Dr. White has said, plays a part. There's some evidence that too rich a diet can be involved. That question is not answered yet, but "Many of us believe that overeating is the most important faulty way of life in this country today."

* * *

Aggravating factors may include excessive, prolonged nervous tension, excessive overweight, excessive tobacco. As positive measures, he mentioned "conscious effort to acquire equanimity, habits of relaxation and repose, and a program of health exercise."

Dr. Arthur M. Master, well-known New York City cardiologist:

As tips: Be your age. If you're 64, don't act 44. Avoid obesity. Avoid excessive smoking and drinking. Avoid infections, and if you get them, knock them out with wise drug treatments. Be physically active. After 40, take less strenuous exercise, but don't choose inactivity.

* * *

Studying 1,700 persons who had coronaries, Dr. Master and his associates found 52 per cent of attacks came while these people were sleeping or resting; 21 per cent at ordinary mild activity; 9 per cent in moderate activity, except for walking; 16 per cent in walking; only 2 per cent during unusual or severe exertion. They concluded severe effort couldn't be much pinpointed as a cause of the timing of an attack.

* * *

As for occupation, the analysis showed attacks occurring "with equal frequency in all types of occupations and all types of society." Among 1,200 victims questioned, 36 per cent were manual workers and day laborers, 11 per cent businessmen, 8½ per cent professional people — percentages paralleling the occupational distribution of the general population of New Yorkers. Thus, "occupation, whether strenuous or not, did not play a role in coronary occulsion."

* * *

Dr. Theodore G. Klumpp, president of the New York pharmaceutical firm of Winthrop-Stearns, Inc. who served as chairman of the Hoover Commission's medical services task force:

"We don't wear out. We rust out." To him it appears, "The major evil is the excessive decline of physical, mental and emotional activity in adult life in relation to what it was in youth."

* * *

A "great American neurosis" over heart attacks is "born of the false notion that hard work is killing us and causing heart attacks." His opinion is that common-sense activity to keep all body organs and glands working efficiently combats aging and combats development of the artery disease process.

He and others caution the amount of exercise for health should be based upon what you were accustomed to. Starting in again suddenly, or at something too strenous, is foolish. It's also foolish not to have a heart checkup first if you suspect anything wrong with your heart.

Other physicians report fear and anxiety can lead a person to focus attention upon his heart, inducing "anxiety heart disease" — nothing wrong, but the person thinks there is. One estimate is that half the persons who go to see heart specialists really have anxiety heart disease.

A tip would seem to be: Get a checkup if you're worried, or if you have any signs that might indicate heart trouble of any kind. Get the facts, not your guesses.

Further, nobody knocks the idea of getting enough sleep and taking sensible care of yourself, being moderate, trying to be relaxed.

(Conclusion of Series)

Fake Heater Inspectors Burn Up Homeowners

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Fire Chief William Van Pfefferle and some Camden home owners are burning up over a new racket by phony heater inspectors.

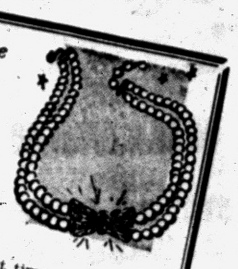

Pfefferle said the "inspectors" give the impression they have been sent by either the Fire Department or the Bureau of Fire Prevention to check home heating equipment.

They take the heater completely apart and then if the householder doesn't agree to "needed" repairs, the "inspector" leaves—without reassembling the scattered heater.

Chevalier Goes After Rock 'n' Roll Crowd

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Maurice Chevalier has come back to America, hoping to charm a tense new generation that has never felt the balm of his straw hat and cane. Whether he conquers or falls, this must be said of him first:

Only a Stradivarius or a fine French brandy could have aged as mellowly as Maurice!

* * *

You try to remember that this man, thoughtfully wolfing down a raw chopped steak, is more than old enough to be your father; that he has been cooing at women, from his mama on, for 67 years; that there must be some rust in his bon vivant's bones. But it doesn't work.

Even when he turns and declares, "I am pretty old now, it is a blow from the destiny," you don't believe it.

Chevalier's hair is gray, his eyes are solemn, much of the pout has left his lips, and his philosophies are not those of a boulevardier—yet any resemblance to a father is strictly chronological.

* * *

"So I seem, to you, youthful?" he says. "It this is so it's because I'm in love with my work and would burst my heart if I couldn't do it. That's why I came back here, because I want to carry it on as well as I can, as high as I can and as long as I can. This is the high.

"If I can get the new generation here to accept me, it will be the climax of all my years."

All Chevalier's years professionally are 55. He has sung ("If you call it singing") and acted ("Can you call it acting?") in every country of the world, he believes, in the last half a century, and "the old generation knows me very well. But to prove to myself something—perhaps to prove that I am not old hat—I must try to be successful with the younger generation.

"I must let myself be judged with the hearts and minds of our current time."

Chevalier, still tall and sturdy and with a face lined only around the eyes, from laughing and winking, will meet his new U.S. audiences in all the mediums. Broadway first, for a limited one-man engagement at the Lyceum Theater. Las Vegas, for a month's billing at $35,000 a week. Two NBC color spectaculars on TV, and probably a movie in Hollywood.

* * *

He is nervous. "Nobody who cares about his work is not nervous."

Yet he feels he will not flop, even amid a generation of rock 'n' roll fans. "I have had cool audiences in my life, but never a cold one."

MANY SOUVENIRS

And if he should flop? "Once I know that I've done my best, I'm not going to knock my head on a wall. I am too old. I have too many souvenirs in my heart and my head to grow deeply sad and not get over it."

Chevalier's "act" will be made of a potpourri of new material, with only an occasional strain of "Louise" and "Valentine," the songstuffs of which his success was made in the '20s and '30s when he was every woman's cherie in a straw bowler and cane.

"I don't like very much to rely on nostalgia," he explains. "I feel instinctively that I must bring something new to surprise the people. Otherwise, I am just champagne that has been open too long."

Chevalier has been quoted as saying that he has a grande passion for Marilyn Monroe, but denies the implication. "Since the last 15 years, I have done everything in moderation, and that includes drinking, loving, and raving about blondes. I think Miss Monroe is very attractive, but let us go no further than that."

He has also been credited for years with being a light-hearted man, with no room in his soul for sorrow. This idea makes him smile.

"I am a singer of hope. I want to make the people forget as much as possible their worries, and in so doing I want to forget as much as possible my worries."

But happiness? The dapper embodiment of life, love and lilting looks shrugs his shoulders.

"In my way, I'm kind of happy. Every year, you learn a little more the art . . . "

Discover Water Relic

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A waterworks crew has dug up a relic of city water equipment in use prior to 1900 — a wooden watermain fashioned from hollowed pine legs. Officials said castiron pipes connected the wooden segments to form the duct. The relic was discovered by a crew working in a near-downtown district.

More than 2,000 students competed recently for 60 scholarships in England's Slade School of Fine Arts.

Credit-Risk Service Being Offered to U.S.

NEW YORK—A New York firm has arranged with a European credit-insurance company to extend to United States exporters credit-risk insurance on their sales to West European countries.

This is the first time such private insurance has been available since 1938.

The cost will range between one half and one per cent of the export sales.

The insurance applies only to credit losses incurred as a result of the financial condition of foreign importers; it does not guarantee recovery of losses arising from political developments abroad.

Gals Get the Grades

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The registrar of the University of Michigan has announced that university undergraduates had a grade point average of 2:58 of C plus-B minus during the last school year. It tied a previous high mark set in the school years beginning 1951 and 1953. As the usual trend showed, women had a higher grade point average than men.

Pickets Picketed by Boss' Children

DETROIT (AP) — Union pickets found themselves picketed by two children yesterday.

The hecklers, Gary Parsons, 3, and his 4-year-old sister Kathy, carried man-sized signs opposing a CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers organizing drive on their father's dry cleaning shop. They walked beside union pickets for two hours.

Gary's sign read: "These Pickets Are Unfair to My Daddy." Kathy's said: "My Daddy's Employees Do Not Want to Join This Union."

Union officials had no comment.

Japs to Parade Strength

TOKYO (AP)—Japan will display her new armed strength tomorrow in a giant parade. The Defense Board said 2,500 soldiers, 120 vehicles including 40 tanks and 111 aircraft will pass in review at the Meiji Plaza on the first anniversary of the creation of the "Japanese self-defense forces."

Wrong Man Charged With Texas Stabbing

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Asst. Dist. Atty. George Miller asked Willie Anderson if he were guilty of aggravated assault in stabbing a man Feb. 22.

Anderson said he had never seen the victim before.

The wounded man, Claude Griffin, spoke up: "That's not the Willie Anderson that stabbed me. The one that stabbed me was a woman."

The case was reset for the appearance of the right defendant.

Committee to Expedite Farmington Water Plight

Developers Offer Aid to Dry Areas in Special Meeting

At the request of Dr. Joseph J. Gadbaw, chairman of the Farmington Township Water Development Committee, the Farmington Township Board held a special meeting last night in a continuing effort to bring water into dry areas of Farmington Township.

* * *

Charles F. Brown and Ross S. Campbell, president and vice president, respectively, of Thompson-Brown Co., developers of large sections of the township, offered a plan which would help to alleviate the situation.

They proposed a township-wide water authority, to have control over all of the water resources and systems in the township.

Such an authority would have the power to acquire well sites, establish pumping stations and water towers.

SUGGEST STORAGE TANKS

Brown and Campbell also proposed that water storage tanks of 1,500 gallon capacity be installed at the Gill Road and Middlebelt Schools, whose water supply and storage capacity are at present inadequate.

They advised that such tanks, filled once a day by fire trucks, would fill the needs of these schools.

Brown read a letter stating that the Michigan Department of Health advised that, subject to the approval of the Oakland County Department of Health, they would be agreeable to the transporting of said water by fire truck.

Brown and Campbell offered to the township, free of charge, water from two of their own wells, at Eleven Mile and Middlebelt Rds. now producing more than one million gallons of water a day, pending the time of finding satisfactory water in areas now being explored.

The Township Board discussed this proposal. However, no action was taken on it.

R. Pollock, financial and engineering consultant from Kalamazoo, was employed by the board to make a survey of the area and determine the possibility of financing a water system.

ASKS COMMITTEE

On the suggestion of Judge Arthur E. Moore, who acted in an advisory capacity, a committee was appointed to expedite the matter. Judge Moore pointed out that, "one thing should not wait upon the other, and a committee working simultaneously with the financial surveyors could speed up the process by which this program can be accomplished.

The judge agreed to work with the committee and give it the benefit of his legal knowledge.

Committee members are Judge Moore; Ward Eagle, trustee on the Farmington Township Board; Mrs. Elise Avery, also a trustee; and Mrs. Philip J. Newberg and Robert Schulkins, members of the Water Committee.

VFW Auxiliary Plans Card Party at Keego

KEGO HARBOR—A card party at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday sponsored by the V.F.W. Ladies Auxilary will be held at the Memorial Hall on Orchard Lake Rd.

Mrs. Frank Oerkfitz and Mrs. Harold Schingeck will be hostesses. There will be door and table prizes. Refreshments will be served.

Nurses to See Heart Film

METAMORA—The next meeting of the Lapeer County Practical Nurses' Association will be Monday, Oct. 17. An instructive talk on "Wills" was given at their recent meeting by Jack Smith, attorney. At the October meeting a film on "The Heart" will be shown.

Hadley to Vote on Prison Camp

Township Board Will Meet Monday to Make Decision

HADLEY—Residents of Hadley and vicinity were present when pictures of State Correction Camps and the Conservation Dept. were shown recently in Hadley town hall. Discussion was on the proposed 100-man camp which the state may build among the Hadley Hills.

* * *

The Correction Department screens every prisoner rigidly before placing him in a camp, thus in reality they are considered honor camps. At the present time there are ten similar camps located throughout the state.

The Conservation Department, in developing the Big Fish Lake area and other areas among the hills, is calling for much manpower, which is the reason officials wish to locate the camp here. Prisoners are already working in the community, being trucked from the Pontiac camp near Clarkston.

The Hadley township board will decide Monday evening whether or not they favor the camp.

Mrs. Whittaker to Represent Farm Bureau

METAMORA—Mrs. Harry Whittaker has been elected chairman of the nominating committee for Farm Bureau Women for the annual convention to be held in November in Lansing.

* * *

Mrs. Whittaker met with other members of this committee in Lansing to prepare reports on candidates to be sent to each Farm Bureau organization in the state so qualifications may be studied for voting in November.

Marlette Hospital Group to Meet at Town Hall

MARLETTE — The Marlette Community Hospital Auxiliary will meet in the Town Hall at 8 p.m. Monday.

A special thanks will be given to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lichtendelt for donating candy for the second round of Salk shots.

Receptionists for Sunday evenings at the hospital are Mrs. Charles Boyne, Mrs. Riley Ramsey, Mrs. Joe Diem, Mrs. Howard Morgan and Mrs. Walter Wood.

Women's Club to Meet

ORTONVILLE — The Ortonville Women's Club will meet at 2 p.m. Thursday in the home of Mrs. Mace Smith on Grange Hall road. Michigan Day will be observed. Mrs. William Sutton will give the history of Michigan and Mrs. Martha Lewis will speak on the "Blessings of Michigan."

Thieves Make 3 Stops in Rochester Spree

ROCHESTER—Police Chief Sam Howlett reported breakins during the night at Studebaker Sales, Standard Oil Station and an attempted breakin at Houghton and Sons, all on Main street in Rochester.

* * *

Officers Woel and Russell discovered the breakins on their rounds. The thieves did not get over $10 in change in the two buildings.

WCTU Sets Family Night

MARLETTE — The Marlette WCTU will observe family night, at the Methodist Church house at 7:30 Tuesday night with a pot luck supper.

A film "The Boy Joe," will be shown and a short program given.

Volunteer Still on the Job

Broken Leg Doesn't Stop Area United Fund Worker

By JANE WINDELER
Press Waterford Correspondent

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Despite the fact a broken leg allows her to sit up for only ten minutes at a time, Mrs. Dale Flowers, of 5646 Hanley Dr., is continuing her work in preparation for the Pontiac Area United Fund drive beginning Oct. 11.

"I believe so whole-heartedly in the good work done by UF agencies, I can't allow a broken leg to stop me," she stated.

Mrs. Flowers was a captain in the UF campaign last year, organizing a group of workers and soliciting a part of the area herself. She volunteered again this year and began lining up the program in August.

Late in August she traveled to Hagerston, Md., with her husband and three children. On the way home the family was involved in an accident south of Toledo.

Mrs. Flowers was the most seriously injured, suffering a broken leg and face cuts.

After two days in a Toledo hospital, she returned home but found it impossible to sit up for more than ten minutes or her leg would swell tight in the cast.

She has been putting those few minutes to good use, however, and has almost a complete list of workers for her area, bordered by Elizabeth Lake, Airport and Highland Roads.

Her son, Wayne, 4, does much of the leg work around the house for his mother, but is a trifle young, although willing, to do the soliciting.

But a former neighbor, Mrs. Robert Grosjean, of Avery Street, has promised to help out on that score.

Troy to Decide $1,500,000 Issue

Board Sets Oct. 31 for Vote on Building Program

TROY TOWNSHIP — Oct. 31 is the date Troy property owners will decide whether the school district should borrow $1,500,000 for a new building program.

* * *

The Board of Education set the date at their regular meeting. There will be no tax levy on the ballot. It will be set later by the school board.

This is what the $1,500,000 would purchase: One new elementary school, an addition to Baker Jr. High School, an addition to the senior high school, an administration building, sites for future buildings and equipment for the new rooms.

Voting will take place in the Big Beaver Fire Hall, 2780 Rochester Rd., Troy Township Hall, 60 Wattles Rd., and Troy Fire Hal, 5930 Livernois. Hours to vote will be from 7 a.m. 'til 9 p.m.

Troy Ordinance Controls Traffic

Board Names 5 Man Committee to Check Safety Measures

TROY TOWNSHIP — The Troy Township Board passed a traffic ordinance that will cover all of the operations and traffic control in the township.

A five-man committee set up to investigate safety measures, consists of one man from the board, one from the police department, one from the fire department and two citizens at large.

Representatives from the Big Beaver PTA were at the meeting to seek safety measures for the corner of Rochester and Hartland. The board said it would not be able to supply police duty at all times but that some form of safety measure could be taken.

The PTA representatives were also on the Board of Education's Thursday night agenda to plea for aid at this busy corner.

The board let a contract to Hubbell, Roth and Clark, Inc., engineers in Pontiac, to plan an overall method of sanitary sewer disposal. They were chosen from the five other engineering companies from Ann Arbor, Pontiac, and Hazel Park.

Utica Rotarians Slate Barbecue and Field Day

UTICA—The Utica Rotary Club is sponsoring a barbecue and field day starting at noon Sunday and continuing through 'til dark. The event will take place on VanDyke, a quarter mile south of Utica. Tickets are on sale now or can be purchased at the grounds. Proceeds from the affair will go to needed charities.

Silvercrest Group Fetes Rev. J. Luther

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The Gospel Carriers and Fellowship classes of the Silvercrest Baptist Church held a recent housewarming for the Rev. James Luther and family, 3820 Pontiac Lake Rd. Seventy-five persons attended the affair and presented the Luther family with many gifts.

* * *

The Gospel Carriers had their annual election at a recent meeting and named William Croteau as president, Arthur Simpson, vice president; and Mrs. Joe Fish, secretary-treasurer.

Thief Grabs $178 at Romeo Dairy

ROMEO—Nott's Dairy Bar was robbed of $178 at about noon yesterday.

Store manager, James Albaugh, was told of the loss after his bookkeeper left the office untended while she went to wait on customers. The employe had reached the bank with the deposit bag before she discovered the loss. There she found only checks and coins—the bills were missing.

Police Chief Gordon Osgood reported officers are investigating today but have no specific leads.

Marlette Council Issues Three Building Permits

MARLETTE — Three building permits were issued at the recent meeting of the Village Council. The permits went to Mrs. Doris Marshall, Mrs. Helen Kaminska, and H. T. Rasmussen.

President Emerson Kitely ordered the appointment of James Pruett, dog warden, rescinded.

The council voted to rezone some of the southern part of McGunegie subdivision into commercial property.

Galloway Lake WSCS Will Meet on Tuesday

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — The monthly meeting of the Galloway Lake WSCS will be held at the home of Mrs. Earl Morrow at 1200 Mt. Clemens St. at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

Farming Hard, Not Disastrous

Agriculture Secretary Says Land Investment Is Protected

WASHINGTON (INS)—One high government official sums up the situation by saying that there is difficulty in agriculture but there is no disaster.

* * *

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Wisconsin State Plowing Contest, Assistant Agriculture Secretary Ervin L. Peterson flatly assured farmers that their investments in land and operating equipment are protected.

Peterson apparently was speaking not so much of protective farm programs as of general economic policies of the Eisenhower administration.

He said: "The dollar is stabilized . . . It is possible to again plan for tomorrow knowing our savings, life insurance, annuities, and social security payments will not be swept away by rampant inflation.

"Taxes have been reduced. Government spending is under control. Peace-time markets are being opened in world trade. Surpluses have not demoralized the private marketing system."

Then the assistant secretary threw in the statement that accumulation of surpluses in government hands is expected to end this marketing year. This view was first taken in President Eisenhower's budget message last January, but not much had been said of it since.

As for price supports, Peterson claimed that the flexible provisions written into the farm act of 1954 still provide the highest supports ever devised in peacetime legislation.

Gay Timers Plan Dance Saturday at Union Lake

COMMERCE — The Commerce Gay Timers square dance club will hold their dance at the Union Lake School at 8:30 p.m. Saturday. Members should bring own lunch and the club will furnish the beverage.

HIS PRIDE AND JOY — Framed by an eight-pound cushaw he grew is 10-year-old Billy Labar of Brainards, N. J. Billy was so proud of it he exhibited the cushaw at the New Jersey State Fair in Trenton.

Cow Cafeteria Is Experimental Plastic Can

WASHINGTON (INS) —The New Jersey Experiment Station suggests that animals of the future may eat their corn, cafeteria style, from a plastic can.

* * *

Research workers at Rutgers University, which includes the New Jersey College of Agriculture, reached this somewhat facetious conclusion after a study of the problem of high moisture corn, a plague of humid areas.

They report that corn with close to 30 per cent moisture, sealed in containers, has kept well and may have a slight edge over dried corn in feeding value.

The Rutgers research group did its work on a modest scale, using half-gallon jars and 55-gallon steel drums, their lids sealed with rubber gaskets.

Because porcupines are fond of salt, they often chew, and ruin handles of golf clubs and canoe paddles impregnated by salty perspiration.

Rochester 4-H Club Lists New Members

ROCHESTER—Outstanding work in dairy and a second in showmanship in the whole state plus exhibits at the State Fair earned Stuart Hutchins, 4-H Club leader, membership in the Holstein-Fresian Club of America.

Twenty-three new members were taken into the 4-H Variety Club. They are: Sue Sutton, Mary Anderson, Linda Curnutte, Susan Swank, Gail Renard, Esther Bolinger, Leslie Posey, Doug Miller and Gary Kervin.

Others are Iva Engler, Harry Shemer, Larry and Ken Alles, Joan Hillcock, Tim and Mike Kholer, Carol Mann, Ruth Baker, Richard and Herbert Schomberg, Mary Lovelace, Viola Murray and Harold Lanktree.

Circle Miriam to Meet

FOUR TOWNS — Circle Miriam of the Guild is meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Ferrier of Lake Oakland, at noon for a dessert luncheon, Oct. 13.

County 4-H Leaders Attend Detroit Meeting

County and state 4-H Club leaders were in Detroit recently to attend the fourth annual 4-H electrical Workshop Training Meeting sponsored by Michigan State University and the Detroit Edison Co.

Attending from Oakland County were Frieda Bennett and Mary Hixon, Home Demonstration Agents, and Jack Worthington, 4-H Club Agent.

Candlelight Club Meets

METAMORA—Mrs. Leonard Russell was hostess to the members of the Candlelight Birthday Club recently. Honored member was Mrs. Robert Faulkner, whose birthday was celebrated, and who received a gift from the members.

Plan Guided Missile Test Firing in East

WASHINGTON (AP)—Preparations are under way for the first test firing of Nike guided missiles in the eastern United States.

The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics said yesterday it will fire Nikes from its Wallops Island, Va., test range within the next two months.

The tests are planned to determine the effects of high speed, high altitude and air flow on the missiles as part of research preliminary to the launching of space satellites and space travel sometime in the future. Only previous testing has been at the Army's White Sands, N.M., proving ground.

A Word to the Wise

It's early fall, but it's later than you think!

We mean when it comes to arranging your holiday business party.

Oakland is a big county—so big that holiday party facilities are limited.

So . . . a word to the wise . . . if you'd like to reserve a real country inn (15 minutes from anywhere in Oakland County) and the day and room of your choice, call Rotunda Inn.

If you'd like us to cater for you . . . in your home . . . in your office or in your factory . . . we furnish everything . . . but everything . . . and the best!

Let us take over the work part of your party so you can enjoy yourself with your guests.

Holland Speaker Named

HOLLAND (AP)—Dr. Karl Gruber, Austrian ambassador in the United States, will be principal speaker Oct. 24 at the civic center in the second annual Hawkinson memorial program. The event, sponsored by civic and educational groups, was inaugurated last Nov. 2 with former United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie as principal speaker.

A black market in bananas was described at a recent session of the Price Tribunal of Auckland, New Zeland.

NATURAL WONDER — The legend out Butte Falls, Ore., way is that these trees represent nature's way of helping when framing timber for wooden ships was in demand. The twin Douglas firs have root systems 40 feet apart, but their trunks are fused together about 80 feet up, from which point sprouts a single top. Foresters explain the wind may have tilted the trees together. The trees are dead, but they are being preserved as a curio by the Medco Tree Farm.

Flood waters carried silt that blocked intake water pipes and caused a water shortage in Kanoneiland, South Africa.

About Our History . . .
In 1921 the Wilkins family started in business here. Mother and dad rented the blacksmith shop for a garage and built and operated a hot dog stand next to it. Two years later, the first store was built. It is still being used for storage. In 1926 the new store and restaurant opened for business.
A constant effort has been made to make Wilkins a pleasant memory to each year's caravan of customers. We hope we have succeeded.

Hollywood Headlines

Paramount Bids for Play Before Bow on Broadway

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Doing a little nosing around, I discovered that a deal has been made, or is about to be made, by Paramount with Irene Selznick for her play, "The Chalk Garden," which has not yet opened in New Yrok.

The idea, I heard it whispered, is to put both Hepburns—Katharine and Audrey—in the one picture.

Buying pre-production plays is an old Paramount trick. They did it with a number of their top pictures, "Sabrina," "We're No Angels," and, of course, "The Desperate Hours."

YOUTHFUL GALE

Gale Storm continues to amaze me. She looks like a young girl, yet last week she celebrated 14 years of marriage to Lee Bonnell, by whom she has three tall sons.

Gale leaves for New York Sunday to do the Perry Como show, and when she returns she'll report to Hal Roach Jr. for a new television show.

"My Little Margie," which enjoyed several years of success, has TV serials after a certain period of look and listen.

'ROSE' PRAISED

You could have heard a pin drop at the preview of "Rose Tattoo," That's how lusty, earthy Anna Magnani affected reviewers.

Hal Wallis drank in words of praise for this picture, which, I must say, has skirted some of the delicate situations of the play without taking any of the force and color away. Personally, I felt the picture was better than the play.

Marisa Pavan can be put down as one of our best young stars. Burt Lancaster, in a completely different role, lightens the heavy, somber drama with his comedy.

And you can well understand that Virginia Grey felt the force of Magnani's blows, for there seldom has been a fight as primitive.

Heidi Mullinger, Donna Reed's attractive New York model sister, who now lives here, and Arthur Krim, head of United Artists, are seeing each other these autumn evenings.

Deborah Kerr had a call from Tony Bartey telling her he's taking off for London tomorrow to find a TV series for CBS.

Darryl Zanuck has all but cosed a deal with Sir Alexander Korda for three CinemaScope pictures starring Alec Guinness, Sir Laurence Olivier and Vivien Leigh.

Ol' Case Primes Guns for Quick Finish After 2nd Series Win

BROOKLYN (AP) —Crafty old Casey Stengel led his high and mighty but crippled New York Yankees into Ebbets Field poised and prepared to polish off the frustrated Brooklyn Dodgers in quick order.

* * *

Despite the disability of Mickey Mantle and Hank Bauer, two of his leading guns, the grizzled manager was confident his American League champions would sweep the World Series in four straight or, at worst, in five games. That means Casey doesn't expect the series to return to the Stadium where the Yankees took the Dodgers into camp in the first two games.

* * *

The odds-makers apparently are in agreement with Stengel since they made the Yankees a prohibitive 5-2 favorite to win their 17th series and sixth straight against the Dodgers. Not since 1921 has a team, after losing the first two games, gone on to win the title. That year the New York Giants did it, conquering the Yankees. But that was in a best five-of-nine games series. Never has it been achieved since the present four-of-seven system was restored the following year.

* * *

"I know those fellows have a good club," Stengel said last night, several hours after the Yankees had whipped the Dodgers 4-2 following their first game 6-5 victory. "But we got a better one. I also know that two of my power guys will be missing — maybe for the rest of the series — but I've got some pretty good fellows on the bench, too.

Having turned back the winless Brooks with two lefthanders in the Stadium, Stengel gave the third game assignment to Bullet Bob Turley, the righthanded ace who never before has appeared in a series game. Walter Alston, who saw his two top righthanders blasted off the hill on successive days, switched to a lefthander, Johnny Podres. By coincidence, today happens to be Podres' 23rd birthday. The youngster made one World Series appearance and yielded five runs in less than three innings, losing to the Yankees in 1953.

* * *

Podres finished the season with a 10-10 record but pitched his last complete game on June 14. He failed to finish his last 12 straight starts. Turley, the big man in the trade with Baltimore last winter, wound up with a 17-13 record during the regular season after a brilliant start. He fanned 210 but walked 177. Largely because they are the home team, the Dodgers have been made a slight 11-10 favorite to win their first game.

* * *

The weatherman, exceedingly cooperative up to now, has forecast occasional showers in the morning, clearing during the early afternoon. The temperature was expected to remain in the 70's with winds up to 20-25 miles per hour. Due to the small seating capacity, a sellout crowd of some 34,000 was expected to be on hand. Starting time is 12 p.m. (EST).

In contrast to Wednesday's defeat at the hands of Whitey Ford, yesterday's loss to Tommy Byrne left the Dodgers stunned. They could understand losing to one lefthander but to be beaten by two southpaws in succession was more than they could take.

The injury to Bauer forced Stengel to make a change in his lineup for today's game. Bob Cerv, who replaced Bauer yesterday, was the new centerfielder with Elston Howard in Bauer's place in right and Irv Noren in left. Bill Skowron replaced Joe Collins at first. Alston also made a change, starting Sandy Amoros in left and shifting Junior Gilliam to second place supplanting Don Zimmer.

Bauer's injury came as the Dodgers completed a double play in the first inning.

Byrne, the comeback man of the year, was magnificent. The 35-year-old Baltimorean who now makes his home in Wake Forest, N.C., fanned six including the dangerous Duke Snider with a man on base in the eighth and Gil Hodges for the last out in the ninth.

"I learned to throw the slider and not to throw the ball too hard," is his explanation for his rehabilitation.

The Bronx Bombers, who used the home run to bludgeon the Dodgers into submission in the opener, did it another way yesterday—with the big inning. They collected only eight hits off four pitchers, but five of them came in the big fourth when they put together four singles after two were out to score all their runs.

Loes, who had pitched a strong three innings, with the help of two double plays, appeared out of the woods in the fourth when the Dodgers pulled off another twin killing following a single by Gil McDougald.

But Yogi Berra singled to left and Joe Collins walked. Howard drove in the tying run with a single and Billy Martin put the Yankees ahead 2-1 with another one-bagger. The bases were filled when Eddie Robinson, batting for Phil Rizzuto, was hit with a pitched ball. Byrne, a good-hitting pitcher, then drove in the winning runs with a two-run single to center.

Records Reveal Hope for Bums Against Yanks

Giants Downed Bombers in 1921 World Series After Losing 1st Two

BROOKLYN (AP)—All is not lost for the Dodgers—yet.

If a fellow wants to dig deep enough into the record books ignoring such matters as the oldtime series going best-of-nine, he can find a ray of hope for Manager Walter Alston and his twice-beaten Brooklyns.

* * *

Way back yonder in 1921, when an all-New York series was shiny and brand new, the Giants lost the first two to the Yankees but bounced back to win the best-of-nine set, 5-3. If it had been played under modern rules, best-of-seven, the Giants would have won anyhow, 4-3.

* * *

They played the entire series in the Polo Grounds because Yankee Stadium hadn't been built. The Yanks had men to scare you in those days, too. Men like Babe Ruth in left field, Bob Meusel in right and pitchers like Carl Mays, Waite Hoyt and Bob Shawkey.

Mays shut out Phil Douglas in the opener 3-0 with Mike McNally, now chief of Cleveland's farm system, stealing home with one run. Hoyt blanked Artie Nehf in the second by the same 3-0 score.

* * *

The Yanks' first pennant winners in a long line to come were confident of winning their first series. But the Giants took the third game 13-5 and squared matters as Douglas beat Mays 4-2.

Back came Hoyt to whip Nehf again and the Yanks had a one-game edge. That was as far as they went. With Ruth out of the lineup due to an arm infection and a twisted knee, the Giants swept the next three to take the series.

* * *

Maybe the Dodgers can take heart from the record books and break their long losing streak. Maybe. Like a fellow said yesterday as he left Yankee Stadium:

"You know, I've got a feeling I saw this whole thing before."

HAPPY HURLER — Tommy Byrne, New York Yankees' veteran lefthander, had every reason in world for this pleased expression as he posed in dressing room after beating Brooklyn, 4-2, in Thursday's Series game. Besides setting Dodgers down with five hits, Tommy drilled single to drive in two runs that won game.

NO ROYAL WELCOME — Duke Snider of Dodgers is out on tag by Yankees' Phil Rizzuto trying to stretch his 4th inning single into a double in Thursday's 2nd Series game. Duke was out on Elston Howard's fine throw from the right field corner. Pee Wee Reese scored on the blow. Yanks won, 4-2.

Kramer Is Rated Nation's Top Collegian

By HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
(Pontiac Press Publisher)

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan officially unveiled the most publicized college football player of the year last Saturday.

Yes, and Ron Kramer exceeded expectations.

This sounds impossible to all save the 50,000 blinking, incredulous spectators who watched. Coach Don Faurot of the opposition, summed it up succinctly with this pronouncement:

"He's the greatest I ever saw."

Big Ron dropped the first pass thrown his way and then caught seven out of seven. How many times have you seen that? Covering a six foot three inch end who weighs 222 pounds and who high jumped six feet four inches in a dual meet last year and placed in the high jump in the Big Ten track meet is a rough assignment.

Want to volunteer?

His first kickoff dribbled 17 yards but as soon as he got his timing, they boomed into the end zone regularly. His punting average was 41 yards which is what he averaged all last year and that's only a whisker behind the leader in professional football.

If the colleges played two platoon football, Kramer would figure as an All-America purely on defense. He's a big, rough, rollicking boy that loves to charge but who's ready to drift all the way to the side lines if the backs prefer to be bashed to the turf out there.

Before the season opened, three national magazines respectively pronounced him:

"The end of the year."

"The lineman of the year."

"The player of the year."

If Kramer even approximates his first game during the balance of the schedule, Michigan adherents want the words "of the year" expanded. They suggest "since Alexander the Great," or "since Cain and Abel," just to be mildly fair about the whole matter.

When Kramer reported after the national avalanche of publicity, Coach Oosterbaan tossed him a head guard. Ron slipped it on.

"Same size head," cracked Bennie.

"Just the same, coach," answered Kramer. "Let's go."

Ford Criticizes Ryder Cuppers

PGA Titleholder Says Too Many Pros Skipped Long Island Tourney

HUNTINGTON, N.Y. (AP) — Doug Ford, National PGA titleholder who held the lead with a 68 at the start of the second round of the $15,000 Long Island Open Golf championship, today crititized fellow members of the Ryder Cup team for passing up the event.

"We have only three Ryder Cup nominees in this event," said Ford, winner of the All-American at Tam-O-Shanter and the $43,000 sponsors events in addition to the PGA.

* * *

In addition to Ford, the Ryder Cup nominees engaged in the tourney are Marty Furgol, who had 70, and Tommy Bolt, whose card showed 72, thanks to a 2-under-32 on the back nine.

* * *

As the golfers went into the second round of the 72-hole play over the par 70, 6,550-yard Huntington Crescent Club Course, Ford was a stroke in front of Al Brosch, veteran from the Cherry Valley club of Garden City, N.Y. and Billy Maxwell, former National Amateur titleholder from Odessa, Tex.

Edge for Michigan

Hoople Takes a Bow, Tabs Pitt Over Okla.

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
(Blocker for Willie Heston)

Egad! Huzzas for Hoople are resounding from all parts of the land. All over my peerless forecasts for the country's big football games to date!

It's true that here and there my sterling associates, Professors Wolfgang McGinty and Manchester Zlobotny, veered slightly off the orbit, but my own figures have been amazingly correct.

One of these days I'll reveal the scores I've selected, unaided by my conferees.

Now, for this week is the upset of upsets. Pittsburgh will overthrow mighty Oklahoma's Sooners 21-20. No other gridiron expert would dare to name this kind of a stunner.

Among the milder upsets may be found: Purdue 14, Minnesota 7; SMU 20, Georgia Tech 14; Oregon over Washington, 14-7.

For the home folks—U of M 20, MSU 14.

Many letters have come to me from the curious among my clientele. They want to know how in the world I ever arrive at some of the out-of-this-world results I predict. That, gentle readers, is a secret!

We magicians cannot reveal our tricks—heh-heh!

Now for the rest of the forecast:

Army 33, Penn State 20; Yale 19, Brown 13; Cornell 20, Colgate 12; Maryland 14, Baylor 7; Kentucky 32, Villanova 6; Illinois 20, Iowa State 7.

Notre Dame 21, Indiana 14; Wisconsin 14, Iowa 7; Colorado 33, Kansas 13; Kansas State 20, Nebraska 7; Michigan 20, Michigan State 14.

Purdue 14, Minnesota 7; Ohio State 27, Stanford 13; Alabama 14; Vanderbilt 7; TCU 21, Arkansas 13; Florida 27, Auburn 14; Tennessee 14, Duke 7.

SMU 20, Georgia Tech 14; LSU 20, Rice 14; South Carolina 14, Navy 7; California 19, Penn 7; Oregon 14, Washington 7; UCLA 27, Washington State 6.

Wichita Captures Global Tournament

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The U. S. champion Wichita Bombers needed 11 innings and a three-run rally last night to defeat the Hawaii Red Sox, 7-4, to capture first place in the Global World Series of semi-pro baseball and claim the prize money of $10,000.

The Red Sox, who carried the double elimination tournament to tonight's show-down came by beating the Bombers last night, came from behind to tie the final game at 4-4 in the third inning.

PHS Harriers Add 34th Win to Long String

That long skein of victories Pontiac High School's cross-country team has set up yesterday afternoon was given another stretch.

Chief runners, operating in a triangular meet, at Wyandotte, were figured to run a dual against the' Dots, won both the dual and 3-way events. The win boosted the string to 34 straight.

Pontiac's Bill Douglas and Perry Williams again ran a dead 1st place finish, to led the Chiefs to a 20-40 dual and a 25-49-50 three-way-count.

Wyandotte finished 2nd and Taylor Township high 3rd.

Other Pontiac runners in the top list included Gene Cretal, 5th Rod Treais 8th, Evans 9th, Pete Cox 10th and Alex Barge 12th.

Highway Department Helps Game Motorists

LANSING (AP)—The state highway department said today it will be able to give an assist to motorists driving down from the north to the Michigan-Michigan State football game Saturday.

The new bridge and approaches on U. S. 23 over the Huron River and the New York Central railroad tracks a mile and a half north of Ann Arbor will be open Saturday morning to help speed traffic going to the game.

Hope for 'Duck Weather'

Wildfowl, Archery Deer and Small Game Hunters Open State Seasons on Saturday

By The Associated Press

Michigan sportsmen will be out in droves Saturday for the opening of the 1955 waterfowl season, but whether the ducks will be with them depends largely on the weather.

The weather, always the $64,000 question on opening days, will mean everything to hunters out for ducks, geese and ruffed grouse.

Another smaller group of hunters, using bows and arrows on deer, will be worried about the weather too. The archers will be hopeful for rain, too, which improves stalking conditions.

A five-day forecast predicts warmer temperatures in the southern part of the state Saturday and Sunday, with scattered showers forecast in the North Saturday.

Rain earlier in the week was expected to drive ducks into the shelter of marshy areas and inland potholes.

The conservation department estimates 130,000 duck hunters will be out at one time or another during the season—and the bulk of them on the opening day.

The early morning Saturday opening, combined with rosy predictions on duck population, point to a record turnout of first-day shooters.

The department expects a record number of archers out for the opening of the archery deer season Saurday. Archery licenses should total 33,000 this year, 2,000 more than last year.

For the 1st time, archery hunters will be allowed to take bucks only in certain counties. These are Bay, Cheboygan, Emmet, Huron, Menominee and Chippewa county, with the exception of Drummond Island.

Saturday is also opening day for a collection of other small game, including coots, rails, gallinules, jacksnipes and sharp-tailed grouse and prairie chicken in the Upper Peninsula.

Shamrocks See Dangerous Eaglet Backfield Sunday

Orchard Lake St. Mary's Eaglets will field their own version of the famous Four Horsemen when they invade Wisner Stadium for Sunday's crucial Suburban Catholic League football encounter with Pontiac St. Michael. Starting time is 3 p.m.

St. Mary's 1954 backfield returned intact this season and potentially represents the greatest scoring punch of any quartet in the league. Quarterback Ted Kopacki, a smooth passer and T-formation operator, pilots the veteran unit.

Halfbacks Paul Franckowiak and Lou Mallat and bruising Gerry Leszczynski, a power-running fullback who starred as a dash artist on the Eaglet track team last spring, completes the potent foursome.

Shamrocks will counter with two outstanding backs of their own. Rev. Rakoczy's Eaglets will be forced to contend with halfback Dan Dropps, who pitched three TD aerials against St. Fred last Sunday, and fullback Ron Elmy, the Mikes' answer to Leszczynski.

St. Frederick's Rams will face Royal Oak St. Mary in Wisner Stadium Saturday at 7:30 p. m. St. Fred will be a slight favorite to win its 1st game in 19 attempts.

Pontiac Reserves Win Two Contests

Two Pontiac High School teams, one the Junior Varsity and the other a team made up of reserves, blanked two opposing elevens yesterday. Jim Hawkins led the Jayvees to a 14-0 win over Hamtramck on their home field when he ran for both markers.

In the reserve contest, Tom Conley was the big gun with two touchdowns in downing a visiting Dearborn Fordson reserve team, 33-0. Dan Johnson, Syl Boykins, and Tad Lewis also shared in the scoring.

Cincinnati proved Brooklyn's toughest rival this year, the Redlegs beating the Dodgers 10 times in 22 games.

Spartans Want Win Over 'M'

Daugherty Says State Desires Michigan Win Over All Others

EAST LANSING (AP)—"We'd rather win the Michigan game than any other," said Michigan State coach Duffy Daugherty.

You can bet that Duffy means it.

The big battle at Ann Arbor Saturday will be watched by the 8th sellout crowd of more than 97,000 in as many years.

It's almost entirely a local crowd too, fans who know the long history of the bitter rivalry dating back to 1898.

A win over Michigan, highly touted as a Rose Bowl favorite and currently rated 2nd in the AP standings, would help wipe out a lot of the sting of last year's 3-6 season.

It would serve notice nationally that the Spartans are building again to become the power they were a few years ago.

When Biggie Munn stepped out as coach and up into the job of MSU athletic director he had the proud record of winning the last four straight from Michigan.

Spieser to Face Willie Troy in TV Bout Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tonight's television fight fare matched Chuck Spieser, latest of the Michigan State boxing products, and Willie Troy, 23-year-old light-heavyweight veteran from Washington.

Troy used to be a middleweight but has been having trouble making the weight.

Spieser, a two-time NCAA light-heavy titlist, is under the direction of Pat Knowles of Chicago, who promoted Chuck Davey, a former popular welterweight who also attended Michigan State.

Tonight's fight, set for 10 rounds begins at 9 p.m., eastern standard time. It will be televised nationally over the NBC facilities.

Grid Schedule Packed to Hilt With Top Games

MSU Meets Old Rival 2nd Ranked Michigan; Sooners, Army Busy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas, the home of fabulous football backs, sends three of its upper-bracket performers into major games this week-end and if they're as good as their billings—and the figures—say, they're likely to create quite a disturbance in the college rankings.

Tonight (Friday) Joe Clements, the tall University of Texas sophomore, matches his passes against the running of Southern California's Jon Arnett. Tomorrow its Baylor and Bobby Jones against top-ranked Maryland in the big one, and Texas Christian's Jim Swink against defending champion Arkansas in a highly important Southwest Conference tussle.

These aren't necessarily the biggest games—even involving Texas teams — on an unusually hefty early-season slate. For instance, Southern Methodist, still well regarded despite a loss to Notre Dame, bumps into second-ranked Georgia Tech and Rice takes on Louisiana State in intersectional games.

Michigan, rated second in the AP poll after an impressive opening victory over Missouri, faces sophomore-loaded Michigan State. Notre Dame (No. 4) encounters Indiana. Oklahoma and Army, fifth and sixth in the poll rankings, take on a pair of the East's toughest teams, Pittsburgh and Penn State. Seventh-rated UCLA (first a week ago) meets Washington State.

The television game of the week pits Ohio State and Howard Cassady against Stanford and its passing combination of Jerry Gustafson and John Stewart.

Kramer MSU Target

ANN ARBOR (AP) — If Michigan State's Spartans are aiming for Michigan's bruising end, Ron Kramer, tomorrow as advertised, they couldn't have picked a more dangerous target.

Most accounts from the Spartan camp tell of their training for tomorrow's battle against their traditional rivals and Big Ten opponents, the Wolverines of Michigan, spelling out one command: "stop Kramer."

And the 6-foot-3, 219-pound Kramer is clearly the man to stop. But saying it and doing it are two different things.

Last Saturday, Missouri coach Don Faurot, a veteran of many All-America opponents, admitted his Tigers had a scheme to stop Kramer too.

Nevertheless "the horse" as his teammates call him, tallied 23 of Michigan's victorious points on three touchdowns and five conversions.

Every time a school comes up with a real star, not only at Michigan but at State or any other school, the opponents draw a bead on him.

Spartans have been very willing to talk about their plans for Kramer. With signs in their locker room like "Stop Kramer University" they've indicated a well-defined target besides a sense of humor.

One other danger in trying to stop Kramer is apparent. It's simple and physical — like putting out your foot to trip an army tank.

But aside from such speculation, the Michigan team has its own confident evaluation of the situation:

"Ron can take care of himself all right."

It's the test of a champion, if he can.

Michigan will go into the State game without sophomore center Bill MacPhee on the 3rd string. MacPhee, nursing an injured knee, is out for at least two weeks. Doctors have reported that Kramer's fine running mate, Tom Maentz, rated just a shade behind the East Detroit junior, will probably return for action by the Northwestern game (Oct. 15) or possibly the Army game (Oct. 8).

Wolverines completed a whole week's practice without a heavy duty scrimmage and only light offenseive drills were promised for today.

Pontiac's Band Boosts for UF in Game Program

A halftime feature of more than usual interest will be presented tonight during the Pontiac-Ferndale football game in Wisner Stadium.

The polished PHS marching band will give a three-part program in which the 2nd section will boost the United Fund campaign. Annual fund raising will start soon and the band will form the flaming torch symbol of the UF.

A "LHS" will honor the visitors, and the finale will have a "PHS" and the stirring school song.

Lions' Injury List Still High for Colts Game

Hunchy to Miss Game; Sewell Wears Brace, 3 Nurse Sore Legs

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Veteran halfback Bob Hoernschemeyer will remain sidelined with a bad knee when the Detroit Lions meet the Baltimore Colts in a National Football League game tomorrow night.

Halfbacks Doak Walker and Dave Middleton and guard Dick Stanfel, all slowed with leg injuries will be back, however, and guard Harley Sewell, nursing a pair of cracked ribs, is wearing a special brace that will give him a chance to see action.

Detroit will need all the strength it can muster against Baltimore.

Colts got off to a quick start in the league race with a 23-14 upset victory over the highly regarded Chicago Bears last Sunday while the Lions were edged out by the Green Bay Packers, 20-17 in the waning minutes of their game.

Detroit has five straight victories over Baltimore. But a group of talented rookies have transformed the Colts into a top offensive unit to pair with the defensive strength they maintained from last year.

Quarterback George Shaw of Oregon, fullback Alan Ameche of Wisconsin and halfback L. G. Dupre of Baylor all offensive starters, powered Baltimore in its opener. Ameche, All-America in 1954, got off a 79-yard touchdown run on his 1st rushing attempts and rolled up 194 yards on 21 carries against the Bears.

Ray Berry, offensive end from SMU, guard Jack Patera of Oregon, center Dick Szymanski of Notre Dame, and tackle Dick Chorovich of Miami (Ohio) are the other rookies who have helped spark the Colts' offensive machine.

Pontiac, Ferndale Contest Rated Tossup

By H. GUY MOATS

Tonight's meeting of long-time friendly gridiron rivals in Wisner Memorial Stadium may stack up as a real battle, with the odds about even.

For many years Chiefs and Ferndale's Railsplitters have met in these annual encounters, and the results have almost always been something to see. Chiefs hold an edge in the overall figures, but usually have had all out scraps, win or lose.

* * *

Tonight's elevens both have good passing games. Chiefs' just came into its own in the Waterford game. Ferndale used the air weapon effectively against Grosse Pointe in last weekend's game, according to PHS scouts Ed Heikkinen and Tony Pizza.

Each club also boasts fast and hard hitting backs. Pontiac may hold a slight edge in the speed department with Freeman Watkins Jimmy (Red) Taylor, Charley Spann and Charley Robinson, all members of last spring's state champion track team. Two others among the speedsters, little Kenny Fusilier and Jimmy Shorter may not see any action tonight.

"Kenny will not even dress for the game," Coach Ed Graybiel said last night. Same goes for Shorter. Both suffered ankle injuries in Wednesday's workout.

Several changes, besides the replacements for Fusilier and Shorter in the defensive lineup, were announced this morning by Graybiel.

Ferndale starters will include Jack Opie, a fast and elusive runner at halfback, along with quarterback Ken Brown, key man in the "T" system 'Dales coach, Ted Meister employs. He does most of the passing, Keikkinen and Pizza report, and is good. He has a pair of very good receivers in ends Capt. Myron Morey and Ted Dietrick.

'Dales use quick-opening plays frequently, scouts say, with fullback Larry Plessas and Larry Wapling, halfback, driving with the ball.

Tonight's game is set for 8 o'clock.

It will be the 3rd home attraction of the season and the last pre-Valley encounter. Next Friday night Chiefs travel to Bay City to tangle with the 2nd ranked Class A team in the state, in their Valley opener. Wolves are generally regarded as the "team to beat" this year for the Valley crown.

A victory tonight will put Pontiac on the winning side of the gridiron ledger. It now stands at 1-1.

Oklahoma Tests Panthers' Return to Grid Prowess

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—The question whether the University of Pittsburgh has returned to its former football greatness may be answered tomorrow when the Panthers run smack into Okahoma's 20-game winning streak.

* * *

Coach Johnny Michelosen, a Pitt alumnus from Jock Sutherland's powerful Panther elevens of the late 20s and 30s, has his crew keyed to snap college football's longest current victory skein.

How far the Panthers have slipped from the glory days of yesteryear is attested by the fact they have had only three winning seasons since 1939.

But Pitt this year started off in impressive style with triumphs over California (27-7) and Syracuse (22-12), while the Sooners sputtered to a 13-6 victory in their opener. Oklahoma exhibited a powerful offense in gaining 403 yards against North Carolina but seemed to lack its usual scoring punch.

Oklahoma is ranked 5th and Pittsburgh 12th in this week's AP poll.

* * *

But Wilkinson's proud Sooners, eager to perform better before the home folks than in last week's "scare" against the Tar Heels, are rated a two-touchdown choice over Pitt. But Wilkinson has warned this game could be the toughest on the Oklahoma schedule.

Slate Second Bear Hunt of 1955 Near Brimley

BRIMLEY, Mich. (AP)—The second be held in the Brimley are Saturday and Sunday.

Carl T. Johnson, president of the Michigan Bear hunters Association, said dogs will be set out after only the larger bear.

The association's first hunt this year, held in the same area in September, bagged 12 bear. Johnson estimated hunters could have killed 25 animals if they had been out after all sizes.

Cardinals Capitalize on Opportunities

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals made the most of their opportunities in a game against the Chicago Cubs here. The Cards scored four runs on only one hit in the sixth inning and won the game 4-2.

After a walk, a safe fielder's choice and an error, Stan Musial hit a grand slam homer.

Irish 14-Point Favorites Over Crimmins' Team

Terry's Terrors Seek 10th Straight Victory Over Invading Indiana

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—For a football team that was figured to have an "off season," Notre Dame is off and running in typically winning fashion.

Coach Terry Brennan's Irish—being referred to nowadays as "Terry's Terrors" after burying Southern Methodist 17-0—are a 14-point favorite to trim Indiana tomorrow and stretch their victory streak to 10 games.

* * *

A year ago they lost to Purdue, then won their last eight starts to wind up their first campaign under Brennan with a 9-1 record.

The structure for the 1954 team was inherited from Frank Leahy. But this season, after graduation wiped out 18 monogram men, including eight regulars, Terry is strictly on his own.

* * *

Already, his Terrors are ranked fourth nationally in The Associated Press poll—and this is excellent tribute to a team that has a brand new quarterback, junior Paul Hornung, and three sophomores, Aubrey Lewis, halfback; Bob Gaydos, guard; and Dick Prendergast, end, in the starting lineup.

Indiana can be dangerous, especially if quarterback Chick Cichowski is in form.

The Hoosiers lost to Michigan State 20-13, last week.

* * *

The game is in the teacher vs. pupil category, with Hoosier headman Bernie Crimmins opposing Brennan, one of his former backs when he was on the Notre Dame coaching staff. Crimmins was still backfield coach under Leahy in 1950 when Indiana last beat the Irish, 20-7.

Busy Weekend for Area Preps

After two weeks of tune-up contests for important league title races, prep gridders in the area will kick off in 30 games today, and tonight, highlighting the 3rd week of action.

All six Inter-Lakes league Schools participate in their 1st league clashes, with the Waterford and Walled Lake Vikings test rated a standout.

Last year's league champs, the Bears of Berkley travel to Southfield to seek win number one. In the 3rd I-L game, Van Dyke will match a 1-1 record at Farmington (1-1).

Four Wayne - Oakland league schools play their 2nd league games under the lights with West Bloomfield seeking its 1st win at home against defending league champs Clarkston. Other league contests are Milford (1-1) at Northville (0-2); Brighton Bulldogs (02) entertain Holly (1-1), and a single intersectional tilt between favored Clarenceville at home against Garden City.

Defending Oakland - B champions; Avondale Yellow jackets, hope to forget their loss of two 1st string players during the past week when they host Madison. Madison holds the best record to date in the league, 2-0. Coach Frank Crowell lost 285-pound center Alfred Hill when he transfered to Rochester and lost regular back Dick Gronski who suffered a broken leg during practice.

Fitzgerald takes on Lake Orion with the Spartans hoping for their initial victory while Clawson hosts Rosoville. Romeo with two wins tucked away journeys to Troy for an afternoon tussle.

In independent action, old rivals Bloomfield Hills kicks off against Country Day of Detroit, Rochester meets inter-sectional Flint Tech at home and the Oxford Wildcats play Millington (S-C). On Saturday, unscored upon Lapeer will have its hands full with class A Owosso.

In another Saturday test, Dryden plays Capac at Imlay City.

Lane Battles Paddy DeMarco

NEW YORK (AP)—Some 20 months ago, farm boy Kenny Lane won a preliminary bout on a boxing card featuring Paddy DeMarco and Ralph Dupas in New Orleans.

DeMarco beat Dupas that night and went on to win the lightweight championship from Jimmy Carter in his next fight. DeMarco lost the title right back to Carter the next time they fought.

Now the 23-year-old Lane, no longer a prelim boy but the sixth-ranking lightweight contender, hopes to use the strong, veteran DeMarco as a stepping stone to a title fight.

The speedy southpaw from Muskegon, Mich., meets the tough Brooklyn ex-champ in a television 10-rounder (DuMont-TV, 9 p.m., EST) at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night.

Collins Acting in Carter Bout, Referee Says

BOSTON — Tommy Rawson, who allowed the Jimmy Carter-Tommy Collins bout of two years ago to reach a 10-knockdown limit, now says that he would have been justified in stopping the bout—but not for the knockdowns.

"In my mind, Collins could have been tossed out for not trying," Referee Rawson says. "Most of those knockdowns came as a result of punches on the hip or phantom shots. Collins in an actor. He didn't figure he could beat Carter and after firing a right that didn't bother the champion, he went into this act.

"Sure, it makes me look bad. But I keep thinking how it would have been if I had thrown Collins out for not trying."

Light heavyweight Paul Andrews is managed by Joe Louis and Marshall Miles. Louis was managed by Miles during his last few years in the ring.

Area Gridders Jam Scots Squad With Dozen Players

An even dozen Oakland County gridders are members of the 1955 Alma College football team to comprise the largest area delegation at any Michigan college or university.

Heading the group is Pontiac's Dick Ayling, sophomore quarterback for coach Lloyd Eaton's Scots. Ayling has been a standout performer so far this season for Alma, which competes in the seven-team MIAA League.

Juniors on the squad are end Jack DeCou of Walled Lake, tackle Carl Rubel of Royal Oak, and guard Harold Lawton of Farmington.

Three other sophomores are listed besides Ayling. Included are end Harry Andreasen of Royal Oak, halfback Tom Johnson of Van Dyke, and halfback Bob Hill of Rochester.

Five of the 12 area players are freshmen. They include end Earl Kitchen of Rochester, guard Dick Ulrich of Royal Oak, center Jack Greenless of Auburn Heights, halfback Marvin Evans of Rochester, and halfback James Murdock of Troy.

Alma is undefeated in two games, spanking Indiana Central, 20-0, and crushing Northern Michigan, 33-0. Scots begin their MIAA campaign Saturday against Kalamazoo College at Kazoo.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

Bad habits are hard to break, and one of them is the exaggerated wrist turn. It spoils everything that was well done to that point. Over-turn the wrist in trying for a widely sweeping hook, and, 9 times in 10, the ball either drives high on the head pin or whoops across it to the left side of the setup.

Top bowlers today, almost without exception, use the short, sharp hook because it lends itself to control. They avoid wrist turn. As the sketch shows, they swing through to a full finish, lifting the arm straight up. In this way the swing stays in the groove, out at the target pin or pins. With the lifting motion the fingers apply what spin is needed. Forget about wrist turn, and you'll find it easy to swing all the way. I'm sure you'll quickkly develop an effective first (strike) ball.

Rankin, Platt Meet in Senior Semifinal

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Two oldsters who shot brilliant sub-par golf yesterday in defeating slightly younger men were paired today in the feature semifinal match of the USGA National Senior Golf Tournament.

They're Allen Rankin, 62, Columbus, O., former American Senior champion, and John Wood Platt, 57, Bethlehem, Pa., a semifinalist in the National Amateur back in 1919.

The finals will be played Saturday.

Trout, Walleye Fishing Good for the Weekend

LANSING (AP) — Some fairly good rainbow trout and walleye fishing can be expected this weekend in the northern Lower Peninsula, the state conservation department said today.

Fishing pressure was light throughout the area.

Rainbow fishing was fair in the Sturgeon River down from Wolverine, in the Black river, Alcona county; the Au Gres, Iosco county, and the Manistee, below Tippy dam.

Sees Pennant at Last

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Ted Lyons, after 32 years in baseball, finally became connected with a pennant winner when Memphis took the Southern Assn. flag. Lyons, who had been scouting for the Chicago White Sox, took over late in the season when playing manager Jack Cassini was hit in the face by a pitched ball.

At 36 Jackie Robinson is the oldest of the Dodgers.

Brooks to Capture Series Despite Losses, Reese Says

By PEE WEE REESE
(Special to Pontiac Press)

NEW YORK—When we lose to lefthanders we're in tough shape. It didn't happen all season, but now look.

Any pitcher who holds us to five hits and gets six strikeouts has had a good day. Too good, if you ask me right now. This Tommy Byrne is a very different pitcher from the one we faced in '49. Then he had a fast ball and a curve and, when the curve was wild, he was licked.

Now they both work and he has added a changeup that is a beauty. And he doesn't hesitate to use either one of them in a three-and-two situation. He's got plenty of nerve, believe me.

And don't forget Yogi Berra or whoever it was calling those pitches. That Yogi. What a team leader. You should have heard him telling all of us how foggy it was out there and how we couldn't see the ball. And was he right.

That's a lot of the story, the rest is Billy Loes' sudden loss of his stuff in the 4th. Up to then he was the boss, and they couldn't do anything against Spooner or Bessent or Labine.

But the ball game went when Billy lost Collins. Four singles, a walk, and a hit batter—all in a row.

From my own side, it felt good to get that 4th inning double and the single in the 8th, but I wonder if you know how foolish a guy feels when he sees that jug-handled curve slide past for a strikeout like I did in the 5th.

But there are more days coming. The series is far from over and we're still in there. Sure nobody ever lost the 1st two and came back to win, but watch what we do. My bet is we'll even things up today and Saturday—and then go on from there.

GUARANTEED RADIATOR PROTECTION ALL WINTER

refills...if needed...at NO cost to you

No need to wait for Cold Weather! See your Standard Oil dealer now!

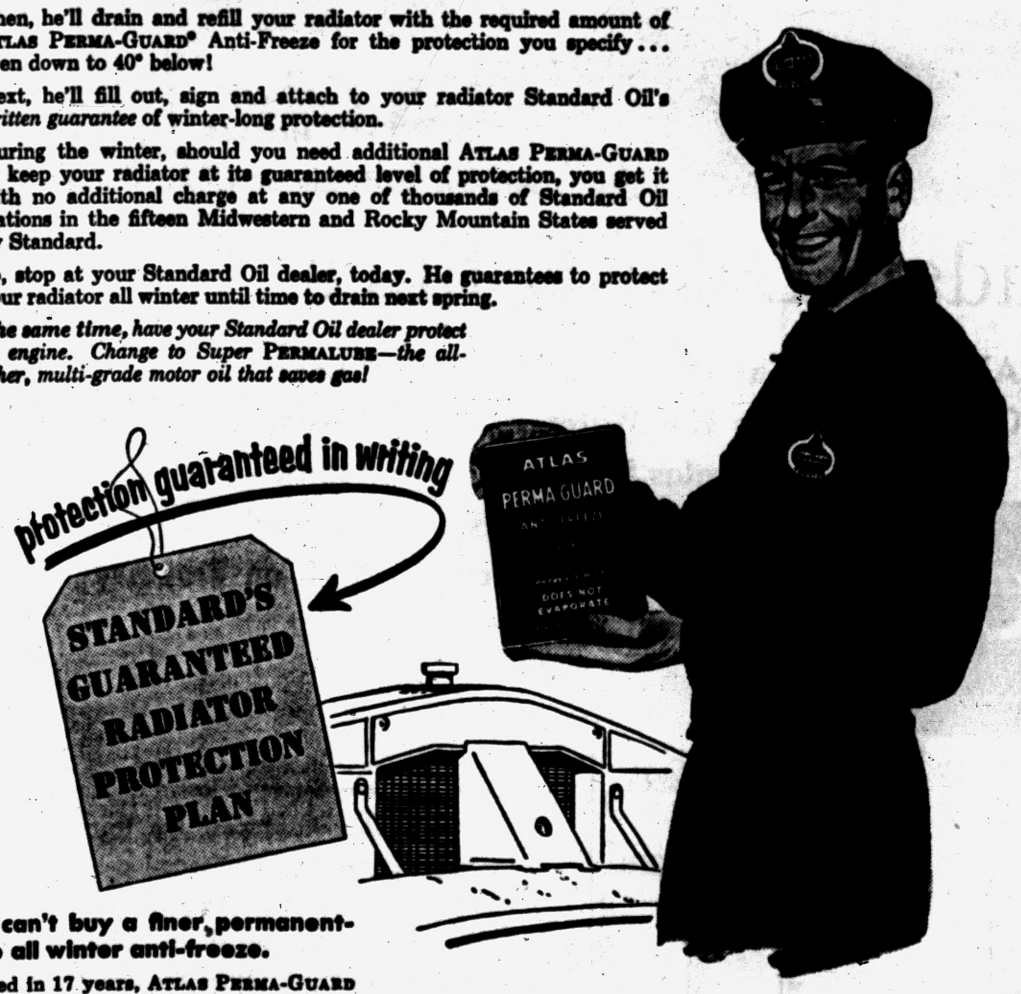

Why risk a costly radiator freeze-up when it's so easy to prevent it with Standard's Guaranteed Radiator Protection. It's a written guarantee, good all winter long. No fuss, no bother—nothing for you to sign.

Here's What He Will Do

- First, your Standard Oil dealer will inspect your car's cooling system and, if necessary, correct conditions causing leakage or corrosion in the radiator, hose connections and gaskets.
- Then, he'll drain and refill your radiator with the required amount of ATLAS PERMA-GUARD® Anti-Freeze for the protection you specify... even down to 40° below!
- Next, he'll fill out, sign and attach to your radiator Standard Oil's written guarantee of winter-long protection.
- During the winter, should you need additional ATLAS PERMA-GUARD to keep your radiator at its guaranteed level of protection, you get it with no additional charge at any one of thousands of Standard Oil stations in the fifteen Midwestern and Rocky Mountain States served by Standard.

So, stop at your Standard Oil dealer, today. He guarantees to protect your radiator all winter until time to drain next spring.

At the same time, have your Standard Oil dealer protect your engine. Change to Super PERMALUBE—the all-weather, multi-grade motor oil that saves gas!

You can't buy a finer, permanent-type all winter anti-freeze.

Proved in 17 years, ATLAS PERMA-GUARD meets the highest specifications for maximum radiator protection. Prevents rust and corrosion, does not evaporate—one fill lasts all winter long.

You expect more from STANDARD and get it!

Budget Balance Plan Wobbles

Humphrey's Proposed Cut-Spending Program Dimmed by Wilson

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey realizes his ambition to balance the federal budget, it looks as if he will have to do it without any more big help from the heavy-spending Pentagon.

* * *

Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, who has been nudged steadily in recent weeks by Humphrey and Budget Director Rowland Hughes to come up with a billion-dollar savings in spending this fiscal year, quashed that idea yesterday in a letter to a senator and in news conference comments.

Wilson, answering some pointed questions by Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) about what was behind reports of administration insistence on more savings in military spending, said:

1. A new and "very complete review" now indicates that spending for the year ending next June 30 will total 34½ billion dollars. That is above the 34 billion goal originally sought, though Wilson says that goal still is kept in mind. There are no plans to go below the 34 billion level (which means that the Humphrey-Hughes hope is out, as far as Wilson's department is concerned).

2. Wilson knows of no one in the executive branch of government "who advocates cutting the bone and muscle of the nation's defenses for any purpose."

* * *

Within two hours after publication of Wilson's letter to Johnson, Humphrey hastened to issue a statement for the press. He said he was "in full accord with the program outlined" by Wilson and that "a reduction in expenditures which would require an alteration of that (basic military) program was never in contemplation."

Senators Probe England's Spies

Try to Find Out What Burgess and Maclean Told Chinese Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The activities of the fugitive British diplomats Guy Burgess and Donald Maclean have been brought under investigation by the Senate Internal Security subcommittee.

Chairman Eastland (D - Miss) said in disclosing this that one point of inquiry is whether they could have tipped off Red China that its home bases would be immune from attack even if Chinese Communist troops were thrown into the Korean War.

* * *

"We want to find out, if we can, if they had that knowledge," he said in an interview.

Burgess, at the time, was second secretary of the British Embassy here while Maclean was in charge of the American desk in the British Foreign Office in London.

* * *

They mysteriously disappeared behind the Iron Curtain in the spring of 1951 and the British Foreign Office recently said it believed they were Soviet agents. They are reported to be in Moscow now.

Eastland wrote a letter Sept. 22 asking Secretary of State Dulles about the two men's "relations to the State Department, and the basic activity in connection therewith." He said he has not yet received a reply.

Farmer Gets Life Term for Lawyer's Murder

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Percy S. Haines was sentenced to life imprisonment yesterday for the courtroom slaying of Carlisle attorney John D. Faller last Aug. 2.

The 60-year-old Newville farmer was convicted of first-degree murder last week by a jury which fixed the life imprisonment penalty.

* * *

Injured in the shooting spree in Cumberland County Court, the same court where the sentencing and trial were held, were Judge Mark E. Garber, Haines' wife Lulu and George Black, Chambersburg attorney.

Haines had been brought into court on a nonsupport charge filed by his wife. Haines opened fire after Garber ordered him to pay support.

Polio Vaccine Work Revealed to Engineers

Dr. A. R. Taylor of Parke, Davis & Co., last night described the research and development of the Salk anti-polio vaccine before the Oakland Chapter, Michigan Society of Professional Engineers.

The meeting, first of the year for the newly formed chapter, was held at the Hotel Waldron. Parke, Davis is one of several companies producing the vaccine.

First Quarterly Meeting Planned for Red Cross

The first quarterly meeting of the newly constituted board of directors of Oakland County Chapter of American Red Cross will be held Wednesday, at 6:15 in the chapter house, 118 Franklin Blvd.

At the chapter's annual meeting last May, methods of election and the number of directors were changed to comply more closely with the policy of the national chapter.

Mrs. C. J. Reese, chairman of Volunteers for the Muskegon Chapter of American Red Cross will speak on the function of her office in her area. A discussion will be held on how an office of this kind would function in Oakland County.

Chairman of the meeting, to be attended by board members and staff members is Harry Rendell Jr. of Royal Oak. Executive committee members will act as hosts and Mrs. R. J. Dobbins, executive secretary of the Muskegon Chapter will be a guest.

Serving on the executive committee with Rev. William C. Hamm, chairman, are Leonard Lewis, Adolph Klein of Royal Oak, Mrs. John Blanchard of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. B. B. Roush and Harold Euler.

Others are Mrs. L. W. Martin of Pleasant Ridge, George Watson, Stanton Dondero of Royal Oak, Arthur Heaton, Mrs. P. A. Lewis of Pleasant Ridge, Phillip Pratt and Mr. Rendell.

Juror Not Employed

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — District Judge John B. McManus has ruled that a juror is not a county employe within the meaning of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

He refused a claim by Louis Burnham Seward who had a broke vertebra after a chair fell from under him while he was serving as a member of the county petit jury.

Jap Blind School

TOKYO—In 1948 Japan began to compel blind and deaf children to attend school. In 1949 a law was enacted providing for educational aid to the blind and deaf and special classes for the feebleminded were established.

Exposure, Ant Bites Cause Death of Child

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A stepbrother and sister were held for investigation of murder today after an abandoned baby they admitted was theirs died of exposure and ant bites.

The 2-day-old boy was found in a sewer catch basin swarming with red ants. Its cries attracted a passer-by, who summoned police.

The infant died in a hospital less than half an hour after 24-year-old Mary Louise White admitted abandoning it, Police Capt. William Dowie reported.

Dowie said Anthony Walgamotte, her 21-year-old foster brother, confirmed her story that he was the father.

The woman, who has a 4-year-old son, said she was separated from her husband and had been living with her step-mother and stepbrother.

Dogs Living Better Than Jail Inmates?

KITCHENER, Ont. (AP)—A city magistrate says an inmate of the Kitchener jail doesn't lead even a dog's life.

A proposal before the City Council calls for building a new Humane Society shelter for $40,000. Magistrate J. R. H. Kirkpatrick said last night he favors the plan but wants similar consideration for human prisoners.

The judge said animals at the Humane Society's kennels are better off in three respects — they have better food, more privacy and also enjoy exercising privileges.

Sale Pressure Lowers Grains

CHICAGO (AP) — Mild selling pressure depressed grains on the Board of Trade today. Soybeans dropped around 2 cents at times while wheat was off around a cent at the worst. Fractional losses were recorded in other cereals.

Part of the selling represented profit-taking at the end of the week.

This was particularly true in soybeans, which have enjoyed another week of strongly advanced prices.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅞ to ¾ lower, December $2.03½; corn ¾ to ⅞ lower, December $1.32¾; oats ⅛ to ⅜ lower, December 63⅜; rye 1¼ to 1⅝ lower, December $1.09¾; soybeans 1½ to 2 cents lower, November $2.46, and lard 12 to 22 cents a hundred pounds lower, October $10.77.

CIO Ends Contract With Michigan Bell

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO Communications Workers of America today served notice of contract termination on Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Negotiations will continue, a union spokesman said.

The notice becomes effective at 6 a.m. Saturday, a union spokesman said, and the contract expires at 6 a.m. Oct. 3, under a 48-hour contract termination agreement.

The current contract, which was due to expire Sept. 2, has been extended on a day-to-day basis.

State Labor Mediator Walter Mehler and Federal Conciliator Stuart Kelly will continue to sit in on negotiations, the union said.

Workers already have approved strike action if necessary to back up contract demands.

Aircrafts Buck Market Retreat

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market retreated quietly today into the early afternoon.

That made it two down and two up for the market since Monday's great break on news of President Eisenhower's illness.

Prices today were down 1 to 2 points and up around a point at the most.

Aircrafts were higher, against the general trend. They had the help of Washington estimates that defense spending would be greater than anticipated. They enjoyed an early buying flurry and then held quietly to the better part of their gains.

Higher were such aircrafts as Boeing, Douglas, United, and Lockheed. American Cyanamid was down around a point and then erased its loss and posted a gain in a flurry of trading that included blocks of 3,000 and 4,000 shares.

send the entire market down.

August Highway Toll in Michigan Worst Since 1941

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's Highway death toll in August—213 killed—was the worst for any month since before Pearl Harbor, State Police reported today.

The previous high was in November, 1941, when 219 persons lost their lives.

* * *

The August toll was an increase of 47, or 28 per cent, over the 166 persons killed during the same month last year.

Injuries were up 19 per cent, from 4,698 to 5,614, over August of last year. Total accidents rose 15 per cent, from 13,786 to 15,892.

State Police said although deaths were up both in rural and urban areas, the rural areas showed the sharpest increase over last year and accounted for 79 per cent of the death toll.

Most of the August fatality increase resulted from the "ran off the road" type accident, police said.

* * *

For the first eight months of the year, 1,250 persons were killed and 38,299 injured in 121,128 accidents. Deaths were up 13 per cent from 1,104, injuries increased nine per cent from 35,029 and accidents gained 3 per cent from 117,075.

News in Brief

Walter Bellamy, 38, of 1455 Vinewood St., paid a $100 fine yesterday after he pleaded guilty to driving under the influence of liquor before Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Charged with speeding, Warren Henderson, 19, of Milford, was sentenced to five days in Oakland County Jail yesterday after he pleaded guilty before Sylvan Lake Justice Joseph J. Leavy. He will serve a 30-day sentence if he fails to pay a $25 fine and $10 costs.

Willys Model 'CJ-6' Added to Jeep Line

TOLEDO, O.—Willys has added another utility vehicle to its growing family of 4-wheel drive products — a 101-inch wheelbase Jeep with a rated half-ton load capacity.

The makers point out that the CJ-6, as it is designated, simply will augment the current line of Universal Jeep vehicles, and is not a replacement for any model. They said it was designed specifically to supply a market for Jeeps in certain areas of industry and agriculture, and specialized fields where an increased payload is desired.

Overall length of the CJ-6 is 155.56 inches, 20 inches longer than the standard Jeep. It is powered though, by the same 4-cylinder, 75-horsepower F-head Hurricane engine, it was pointed out.

County Police Chief Dies After Emergency Call

DETROIT (AP)—Police Chief William P. Katke, 59, of suburban Pleasant Ridge, died of a heart attack yesterday after he had made an emergency run to the scene of a heart attack victim.

Katke was called when Charles Brown, 75, of Plesant Ridge, was fatally stricken on the street.

Ford Announces Huge Expansion

Half Billion Program to Be Financed From Company Earnings

RAMSEY, N. J. (INS) — Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Co., announced last night a $500,000,000 expansion program for 1956 and indicated company stock may soon be available to the public.

* * *

Ford said the half-billion-dollar stake on continued national prosperity was his answer to the "nervous nellies" of industry.

Speaking at a dinner in Ramsey honoring the company, the industrialist commented on management's responsibility to stockholders and said:

"Perhaps it well may be the Ford Motor Company will have a number of those (stockholders) in the future."

(The company's voting stock is now held by members of the Ford Foundation and the Ford family.)

He said the money for the expansion program next year will come from earnings and not from borrowing. He said the outlay for the year would set a record for the company.

Ford asserted that instead of "hanging fire," American industry should prepare for a "major break-through into a new, higher plateau of production and consumption."

* * *

The Ford Company already has spent nearly two billion dollars for modernization and expansion since World War II.

The dinner followed the dedication of the new Ford $70,000,000 car and truck assembly plant at Mahwah, N. J.

Frigidaire Planning Integrated Kitchens

Frigidaire Division of General Motors today revealed plans to manufacture entire kitchens as integrated units. The kitchens will be free-standing and modular, with their own interior walls, lighting, plumbing and exhaust facilities, so that builders need merely set them in as structural components of their houses.

Mason Roberts, GM vice president and Frigidaire general manager, described the units as an answer to home builders' demands for kitchens with maximum appeal to women and a minimum of installation time and effort. They will be known as Frigidaire Holiday kitchens.

Roberts also said that the announcement of the new product is being made at this early date in order that home builders can incorporate this radical new development in their long-range planning. He also said that a limited number of the kitchens would be built and installed next spring and that mass production would begin late next year.

Business Notes

Harry D. Sayton, formerly the manager of the local Kresge's store, has been appointed manager of the S. S. Kresge Co. district office in Pittsburgh.

Appointment of J. P. Bergmoser as purchasing agent to head the production parts and materials purchasing department of Ford Motor Company's Automatic Transmission Division was announced today by M. L. Katke, division general manager.

In this newly-established position, Mr. Bergmoser will be responsible for procurement of the division's requirements for production parts and materials. Creation of the new department is part of the recent decentralization of Ford purchasing. Mr. Bergmoser, his wife and three children live at 1436 Kirkway Drive, Pontiac.

Name Utica Doctor Head of State Medical Society

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Dr. D. Bruce Wiley of Utica today was elected chairman of the Michigan State Medical Society Council, the organization's boaord of directors.

He succeeds Dr. William Bromme of Detroit, who had served four one-year terms. Dr. Bromme remains a council member.

The elections conclude major business sessions of the 90th annual MSMS meeting which began last Monday.

India Announces Uptake in School Building Plans

NEW DELHI—India's Education Ministery has announced plans to establish three higher institutes of technical education and 500 junior institutes, at an estimated cost of $52,500,000.

The higher institutes will be in Madras, Bombay, and Uttar Pradesh states. The junior institutes will be set up all over the country, more or less in proportion to the number of secondary schools in each state.

Each higher institute will admit about 1,000 postgraduate engineering students. The junior schools will admit pupils between 14 and 17. All the schools will be situated near industrial concerns so pupils will be able to get practical as well as classroom training.

Chrysler Eyes Ohio for Stamping Plant

CLEVELAND (INS) — Mayor John M. Coyne of suburban Brooklyn announced today that the Chrysler Corp. has obtained an option on a 300-acre tract of land to build a $100 million stamping plant—the largest in the world.

Mayor Coyne has called a special meeting of the City Council to consider re-zoning the land from residential to industrial use.

He explained that Chrysler has plans to start building January 1, 1956, if the suburb decides to rezone the land. The plant would cover 1,500,000 square feet.

6 Millionth Car Due Off Line Tomorrow

DETROIT (INS)—Ward's Automotive Reports said today the six millionth U.S.-built car of 1955 should roll from an assembly line tomorrow.

The industry's statistical agency said the milestone thus was reached at the earliest point in automotive history.

Ward's estimated U.S. car production this week at 138,705 passenger cars and 23,920 trucks.

Near-peak production at all Ford divisions and a sharp upswing in operations at Chrysler gave 1956 car models a 52.3 per cent share of total U.S. auto production this week.

Georgia Cracks Down on the Unemployed

ATLANTA (AP) — Georgia's job insurance law requires that applicants for unemployment benefits be available for employment and be ready to accept a suitable job when offered.

And being available doesn't mean showing up at the unemployment compensation office in bathing suits, play suits, shorts or "dressed for the beach", says Labor Commissioner Ben T. Huiet.

"Not so long ago a man reported to one of the offices in swim trunks," Huiett reported. "He was denied job insurance for a week."

Plans Starting to Jell for Special Meeting of Legislature

LANSING (AP) — Preparations for one of Michigan's most controversial special legislative sessions in years began to jell today.

* * *

Gov. Williams announced definitely that he will call the lawmakers into special session at 10 a.m., Nov. 1.

He has said he would submit to the Legislature a plan to reduce highway fatalities and to reduce or eliminate a 1,220-odd list of mentally deficient children awaiting admission to state hospitals.

In a teelgram to legislative leaders Williams said he would issue the formal call after he received a report from the State Mental Health Commission on what should be done to reduce the waiting list. This report is expected within a few days.

* * *

The Republican-controlled Legislature's determination to take more time for any long-range solutions of the problem was highlighted yesterday when the Legislative Audit and Appropriations Committee virtually decided to bring in outside experts to blueprint a future for the state's mental and tuberculosis hospital systems.

The committee said it would act Tuesday on hiring the Public Administration Service of Chicago at not more than $15,000 to make a survey.

The Legislature has been beset by conflicting demands and statistics about available bed space from both the mental health agencies and the TB hospital groups.

The committee made it plain that it would not receive its survey report before Feb. 1.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The Sunday School of Calvary Baptist Church is presenting a rally day program this Sunday morning at 10. There will be songs, recitation and instrumental numbers. Promotion cards will be given and the merit pin system will be explained. Parents are urged to come and meet the teachers, Mrs. Henry Robbel, pastor's wife, will be in charge of the program.

Lake Michigan Cities Escape Wave Onslaught

NEW BUFFALO (AP) — A fresh water tidal wave 50 feet high developed in southeastern Lake Michigan 10 miles off the New Buffalo shore yesterday but dissipated before causing any damage.

The wave was sighted by a commercial airlines pilot en route to Chicago. He reported it between Michigan City, Ind., and Benton Harbor, Mich., some 50 miles north of the Indiana-Michigan line. It appeared to be heading for New Buffalo in the southwestern corner of the state.

The U. S. Weather Bureau issued an "all clear" some 20 minutes after the report.

Several thousand persons were evacuated from the Lake Michigan waterfront near Chicago for a few hours yesterday after a giant wave was reported approaching shore. The wave failed to materialize.

The Chicago Weather Bureau described the wave as a seiche. A seiche, generally caused by sudden changes in air pressure, took eight lives near Montrose Harbor in Chicago when it struck in June 1954.

New Routes Revealed for U.S. Highways

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Bureau of Public Roads today announced general routes of the national system of interstate highways into, through and around 102 cities or urban areas in the nation.

The new routes, to be built with federal aid to states, supplement the original 37,000 miles interstate network designated in 1947 to connect the nation's principal cities and industrial areas.

The Michigan routes will serve Battle Creek, Detroit and its environs, Flint, Grand Rapids, Lansing and Saginaw.

They include:

Detroit to Kalamazoo with a spur to Battle Creek; Detroit to Mackinaw City with loops cutting through Flint and Saginaw; Lansing to Benton Harbor with offshoots through Grand Rapids and Grandville linking up with a highway to Muskegon; Detroit to Grand Rapids crossing the outskirts of Lansing with an alternate loop cutting through the heart of Lansing rejoining the Grand Rapids route; a network of routes within Detroit leading out to — in addition to the above — Toledo, Ohio and Port Huron.

Sultan Reported Ready to Resign

Morocco Chieftain May Quit if France Agrees to Scuttle Regency Plan

RABAT (INS) — The Sultan of Morocco today was reported willing to give up the throne he has occupied for two years, provided the French government gives up its plan to create a Regency Council.

* * *

Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa wants a member of his own family to succeed him.

He was understood to have made his new position clear toward the French reform program it has in mind for Morocco in a letter addressed to President Rene Coty.

The Sultan was said to have taken the position that creation of a Regency Council would violate the Koran, the Moslem Bible.

THWARTS ARREST

These disclosures followed hours of excitement over attempts to arrest the Sultan's protocol chief, Si El Hajjoui. He escaped in a car from the palace by a ruse.

Security Director M. Petitjean asked the protocol official during the early morning hours to accompany him to the office of another official. But the Sultan's chief aide pleaded he was too tired and suggested he make the trip later in the day.

He fled a few hours later.

Typhoon Roars Up the Sea of Japan

TOKYO (AP)—A big typhoon roared up the Sea of Japan today, a little spent after wrecking the southern island of Kyushu but still a serious threat to the northern islands.

Police said the storm left 20 dead, 10 missing, 105 injured and 120 ships — mostly fishing craft—lost, in the churning seas.

* * *

Mountainous Kyushu took some of the wildness from the typhoon, which had blasted Iwo Jima earlier with 172 m.p.h. winds. Weathermen said its maximum gusts were down to about 78 m.p.h.

Police reported almost 1,000 houses destroyed and almost 1,500 seriously damaged on Kyushu. The threat of floods grew after rains ranging up to 16 inches.

Revision of County Taxes Hits Dublin School Hard

Distressing effects of the State Tax Commission's revision of Oakland County tax equalization figures are illustrated by the situation Dublin School District, of White Lake Township, finds itself in.

The revision, stemming from an appeal by Waterford Township, changed equalization figures in each city, township and school district.

Dublin's equalization was cut from $3,915,406 to $2,937,544, said Superintendent William H. Vander Ven.

The district's operating tax rate is 10.63 mills which applied against the original valuation would have brought in $41,622. The same rate taxed into the new figure will yield only $29,638, said Vander Ven.

Thus the district will receive $12,984 less for operating expenses than its budget is set up for. This could force a serious curtailment of programs planned for the 750 pupils in the nine-grade road between Cooley and Elizabeth Lake Roads, he pointed out.

"It still remains to be seen how much state aid we'll get," he explained.

The district also pays tuition for 110 of its pupils attending Walled Lake High School.

The district in 1951 voted to tax an extra 11 mills yearly to retire bonds floated for building expansion.

"We had thought we could get by this year with only levying 4.5 mills of the 11 allowed," said Vander Ven, "but now it looks like we'll have to raise it to 10.37."

Then the system could probably qualify as a distressed-school district and get an extra $3 state-aid per child—bringing in about $2,200, he said.

In 1954 the district voted 6 mills to establish a future building fund. It will lose about $5,000 this year from the future fund because of the changes, the superintendent declared.

"We can't plan a school budget then find 25 per cent of it taken from us just as school starts.

"If the changes had been worked out evenly we wouldn't have lost so much in comparison to larger districts." Walled Lake, a much larger system, lost only $16,000, he said.

"These changes have resulted in a great loss of funds for local support of schools."

County Superintendent of Schools Dr. William J. Emerson said Dublin was hit harder than any other Oakland school district.

"Others may suffer hardship because of reductions of their tax base, but none as much as Dublin."

What was taken from some districts was given to others and those added to will be able to get everything they counted on, he stated.

The county Board of supervisors has requested its equalization committee to meet with the State Tax Commission and try to agree on methods which will prevent the situation from recurring.

Peronistas Heed Police Threats

Disgruntled Laborites Back Down in Capital, Serious Clash Averted

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Well-armed labor supporters of ousted President Juan D. Peron backed down last night in the face of a grim police threat to blast them from their headquarters.

* * *

A possibly serious clash was averted at a building housing a city employes' labor organization, one of three raided by soldiers and police in a search for arms.

Officials of Provisional President Eduardo Lonardi's new government disclosed new information designed to show the Peron government was shot through with corruption. Newspaper reports said "official circles" have made known "new sensational revelations on the fabulous business conducted by the men of the deposed regime."

* * *

These disclosures included reports of a big shipment of gold to Switzerland by members of the former government and shakedown of national lottery agents during the 1954 election campaign.

paign.

Foreign Minister Mario Amadeo told a news conference Peron was still on a Paraguayan gunboat anchored in the outer harbor of Buenos Aires, spiking a spate of rumors that the fallen strong man had left the vessel. Amadeo said talks on the "delicate subject" of Peron's exile were holding up the ex-President's boat trip to asylum in Paraguay.

* * *

Police said they were questioning a 16-year-old girl—described as a "close friend" of Peron—about details of the former dictator's private life.

A high police official identified the young girl as Nelida (Nelly) Rivas and said she had a "fabulous" collection of jewels, apparently once the property of Peron's late wife Eva. Officers said Miss Rivas had given them leads on others of Peron's "many" girl friends. They said the girl told them she occasionally spent the night at the presidential residence, where Peron introduced her as his "niece."

India's Communist Party leaders are reported in New Delhi to be considering a political "truce" if they could become part of a coalition government.

Capital Increase Is Announced by Acceptance Corp.

General Motors Acceptance Corporation announced today an increase in its capital. Capital stock and surplus will amount to $232,000,000 consisting of $50,000,000 prefered stock; $100,000,000 common stock; and $82,000,000 earned surplus (June 3, 1955 adjusted).

An issue of $50,000,000 of 4 per cent cumulative preferred stock is being sold to General Motors Corporation on Sept. 30, 1955.

The common stock, which was formerly $50,000,000, has been increased to $100,000,000 as of Sept. 30, 1955. Of this $50,000,000 increase, $11,250,000 represents capitalization of paid-in surrplus and $38,750,000 a stock dividend out of earned surplus.

Hefty Boar Ruins Auto but Ends Up as Meal

MELUN, France — An automobile driven by salesman Marcel Regnier collided with a 242-pound boar on a highway near here.

The car went to the repair shop. The boar was taken to a hospital — not for a treatment, but as an adornment to the patients' menu.

Club to Have Holiday

LAPEER — Members of the Thursday Social and Study Club will go to Detroit Thursday to attend "Cinerama Holiday" at the Music Hall. The group will meet at 10:30 a.m. at Lapeer County Center building to arrange transportation.

Members are asked to bring a

County Draft Quota 67 for November

Oakland County draft boards have been instructed to deliver 67 men to the military services during November, as part of the state quota of 1,058, the largest since January.

The increased call comes from the Navy's decision to take draftees for the first time since World War II.

Oakland County board 65 will induct 11 men; board 66, 16 men; and board 67, 40 men.

MSU Establishes Jackson 'Campus'

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University officials announced today that 63 prisoners at the State Prison of Southern Michigan began courses this week along with the rest of the undergraduates.

The prisoners, however, will study their courses via television on the campus behind walls at Jackson.

"As far as we can find out, the prison is the first in the nation to allow its prisoners to use educational television on a daily basis," said Dr. Lawrence McKune, coodinator of the telecourses offered over WKAR-TV.

The prisoners are enrolled in such varied courses as the history of Europe and Asia, a music course and one on introductory physics.

At the Ionia Reformatory, where courses were laugched a year ago, 27 prisoners are enrolled in a history course and 18 in music.

Clergyman Visits Homes Selling 'Eternal Insurance'

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — The Rev. Joel B. Whitten Jr., pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church, does a lot of visiting but doesn't usually carry a brief case.

"Selling life insurance?" he was asked by a housewife after he knocked on her door.

"Yes, I am—eternal life insurance," the pastor replied.

Airport With Style

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Greater Pittsburgh Airport, completed three years ago at a cost of 33 million dollars, soon will have a fabulous entrance. Workmen are putting the finishing touches on a $240,000 water fountain. The fountain will be surrounded by a plaza and landscaping that will cost another $30,000. A 90-foot floral display will be featured.

Death Notices

BRAID, SEPT. 28, 1955, RALPH David, 2331 Lake George Road, Lake Orion, age 10; beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart E. Braid; dear brother of Margaret Ann and Edward S. Braid. Funeral service will be held Saturday, Oct. 1, at 2 p.m. from Howarth Methodist Church with Dr. Mont C. Oliver officiating. Interment in East Lawn Cemetery. Ralph will lie in state at Allen's Funeral Home until 11 a.m. Saturday, then will be taken to the church to lie in state until time of service.

Old Gag Device Is Overworked

Milt, Red, Gildersleeve Include Watery Dives in Season Openers

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—It's a commentary of some sort on the current state of so-called comedy in television that in three program de buts within a space of three hours the other evening three comedians did pratt-falls into pools of water.

Not since the infancy of the movies, in the hey-day of Mack Sennett, have so many comedians been so dependent on such a tiresome device.

* * *

Milton Berle returned to NBC-TV for a new season which will bring him to the screen 13 times in the next 39 weeks. Personally I think Berle is a pretty funny guy. But comedians are as much the victims of fashion as women's clothing, and last year Berle went out of fashion. I never heard a satisfactory explanation why.

Now he's back. The best thing about his return was that he came back giving his all, unlike certain other television personalities. But he still seems to be haunted by the fear of failure. He was pressing mighty hard.

* * *

Please relax, Mr. Berle. You can press pants and military advantages, but you can't press humor. When you fell into the Grand Canal in that Venetian sketch, even though you may have been burlesquing Katherine Hepburn in "Summertime," I was saddened instead of amused.

The next victim of water was Red Skelton, who made his season's debut on CBS-TV. Skelton was gently nudged into a sewer opening by Ed Sullivan, playing a bus driver. Incidentally CBS ought to scout this guy Sullivan as an actor. He has real talent.

* * *

Into New York and many another city these evenings is coming an NBC film package called The Great Gildersleeve. This situation comedy, in which Willard Waterman plays the lead, broke in New York the same evening as Berle and Skelton. There's some good fun in the show. But it was Gildersleeve's fate to fall in a fish pond and the fate of his rival in love to fall into another pond.

Perhaps you can't blame the victims of these dunkings too much. But what's the matter with so-called writers of comedy these days?

Joan Crawford Ailing

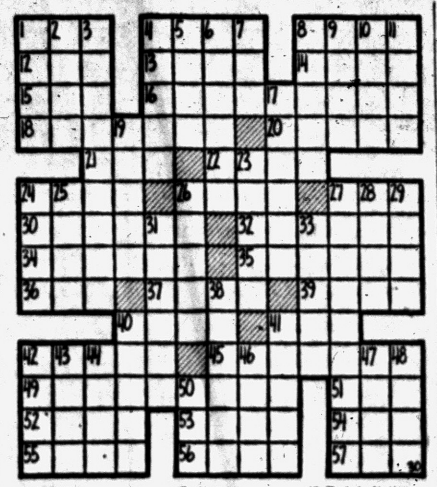

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Sciatic neuralgia has put Joan Crawford on the sick list. A painful back attack forced the star to halt work on her latest film at Columbia studio yesterday. Work will continue without her until she returns, the studio said.

Johnson Makes Good Progress

Texas Senator's Health Being Restored After Heart Attack

STONEWALL, Tex. (AP)—If the way a man looks, acts and talks means anything, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson has hit a steady stride on the comeback trail to good health.

Stricken in July with the same sort of heart attack that hit President Eisenhower, the Senate majority leader has been following a strict recovery routine of moderate work and relaxation since he returned to his ranch home on the sleepy Pedernales River.

* * *

He has just had a physical checkup at a Temple, Tex., hospital. Doctors reported he is making good progress. He faces two more thorough examinations before the medical men will be willing to give him a ticket back to Congress, but he says he'll make it.

The morning Johnson was host to Adlai Stevenson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn here, he was up before 7 a.m. and driving a group of newsmen and photographers over the ranch.

* * *

He avoids strenuous exercise, but by a rigid diet shared by Mrs. Johnson—who gives no appearance of needing it—the senator has trimmed his weight to 175 from 220. He stays outdoors much of the time. His face is lean and tanned, his eyes sharp, his speech crisp.

Johnson is up early every morning but takes a long afternoon rest, including a nap. Then he works late—sometimes until 11:30 p.m.—and says he sleeps extraordinarily well.

* * *

Johnson took the leadership in speaking for Rayburn and Stevenson at a news conference on their attitude toward President Eisenhower's illness. All three agreed that the Democratic leadership in Congress would not kick Eisenhower in the teeth politically because of his health.

Desperado Goofs, Shows Gunless Hand to Woman

BALTIMORE (AP) — A would-be desperado's holdup attempt fell flat like his pocket yesterday.

* * *

The collapse came at a loan office here, when the intruder told Mrs. Charles McComas, 19-year-old clerk, to open the safe and forced office manager Conrad Wegnerowicz into a washroom. The holdup man held one hand in his pocket, and it looked as if he had a gun inside.

But when he reached to take bags of money Mrs. McComas had removed from the safe, he used both hands and Mrs. McComas noticed that his pocket went flat.

"You don't have a gun! You don't have a gun," shouted the young wife.

* * *

The shout brought Wegnerowicz, who wrestled the stranger to the floor while Mrs. McComas ran for help. The manager held the bandit until police arrived.

11 Get Death Sentence

MANILA (AP)—Eleven persons were sentenced to death today in the Lipa city court for a year-old political slaying, the Philippine News service reported. They included the former police chief, Esteban de Guzman of Rosario.

Only 3 States Have Enough Water

By ROGER D. GREENE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fifteen years ago the residents of Grand Rapids, Mich., complained bitterly at the expense of building a 35-mile-long pipeline to bring water to the city from Lake Michigan.

* * *

Today the city's taxpayers are grumbling: "Who built that one-horse system back in 1940? Now we've got to build one a lot bigger."

A 48-state survey by The Associated Press shows the Grand Rapids episode is typical of hundreds of U.S. cities and towns.

Caught in a three-way squeeze between fast-growing population, booming industry and recurring dry spells, countless communities are suddenly discovering their water facilities just won't do the job.

WATER LAW MAZE

Only three states — Idaho, Mississippi and Rhode Island—reported no water shortage problems.

Inequities, smouldering feuds and open conflicts have arisen in many areas as water supplies run low. Laws involving water rights have become extremely complicated and conflicting. In the East, where the old Roman and English law of riparian rights prevails, you can be sued by just about anybody who thinks your use of the water is "unreasonable."

In the West, which still clings mostly to the pioneer law of "first come, first served," some water rights date back to the gold-rush era.

* * *

Just a few months ago, in Texas, the State Supreme Court ruled that the city of Corpus Christi acted within its rights when it pumped huge quantities of water from wells near the town of Pleasanton and transported it via the Nueces River more than 100 miles to Corpus Christi—even though the Pleasanton wells suffered from the city's "invasion."

Texas is desperate for new water supplies, and even Michigan, surrounded on three sides by 87,170 square miles of fresh water, has its tongue hanging out in many places.

In the booming Detroit area, some 20 outlying communities which have sprung up in the mass march to the suburbs have been tapping the city's water supply. As a result, Detroit has been forced to install a new 200-million-gallon pumping station, and police-enforced water bans have been clamped down in the area.

Detroit's giant auto industry is watching the situation with serious concern: it takes 15,000 gallons of water, mostly for cooling hot metals, to produce one automobile.

* * *

In Arizona, officials report that unless new water supplies can be found, 800,000 acres now under cultivation may go idle. The state's underground water table in some places has dropped as much as 150 feet in 10 years—18 feet in the last 12 months.

COLORADO ALSO

California, with a population of 13½ million which is expected to reach 23½ million by 1975, is working feverishly to bring in new supplies but is pumping water from ground sources at an alarming rate. The overdraft is estimated at a staggering 1,000 billion gallons a year.

Colorado, with water shortages in nearly every section of the state, gloomily watches the Colorado River quench the thirst of distant states while its mile-high capital, Denver, sweats out a critical shortage.

Experts say New Mexico's underground water table is dropping so fast in the eastern High Plains that supplies may be exhausted within 40 years.

* * *

Contrary to the picture in many states, North Dakota reports that its ground-water tables have risen "tremendously" as a result of abundant rains over the last decade. Officials say the state hasn't had a crop failure stemming from drought in the last 15 years.

OUR FRIENDS THE TREES—5.
Some of the Gifts They Bring Us

Trees are even more important in our lives than you may think.

We have already spoken of the fruit and some other important substances they yield. But did you know that the coffee bean comes from a tree that originated in South America? And that the cacao tree, also of South America, provides us with cocoa and chocolate?

Maple syrup and maple sugar are made of the sap of the hard maple tree, boiled down. Rubber comes from the sap of a tree that grows in tropical countries. Chewing gum also is made of the sap of a tree. Olive oil is pressed from olives that grow on trees.

Many drugs such as quinine and witch hazel are made from tree barks. Cork, turpentine, resins, balsams and pitch are tree products. So are many flavorings like nutmeg and cinnamon.

Still another way of preserving tree leaves is to wax them. If your mother will let you melt some paraffin in a double boiler, you can dip leaves quickly in the hot liquid and hang them up to cool and set hard.

TOMORROW: Trees Can Be Famous Too

The negative teams are: Richard Clark and Bob Everson; Bob McDonald and Charles Billings; Joyce Owens, Jeanette Davis and Mary Turvey; Bill Hertel and Bill Hampton; Jeff Seigel and Roy Green; Connie Simmons, Christine Lape and Marylee Mogg; Beverly Leadford and Gail Sedwich; Carol Simmons, Myradean Kilby and Pat Graham; Karen Bill, Karen Burnworth and Barbara Krasa.

Unclaimed Race Bets Turned Over to State

LANSING (AP) — Horse race tracks in Michigan have turned into the state treasury $73,082 in uncollected bets for the past year.

State Treas. Sanford A. Brown said the money would be held by the state Board of Escheats for seven years in case any absent-minded bettor wanted to cash in his still-valid pari-mutuel ticket.
