Soviet Union Brings Back Man From Space Trip Around Earth

Commissioners Allot $89,000 for City Airport

Act Upon Finding Out $294,000 in Federal, State Funds Due

An advance commitment of $89,000 in city matching funds for airport improvements next year was okayed by City commissioners last night after they learned in an informal session that another $294,000 should be forthcoming from state and federal sources.

City manager Walter K. Willman said he would push development of a secondary runway as part of the 1962 federal-aid-to-airports program.

Current planning on local and state levels, he said, calls for total expenditures of $388,000 next year. Besides the city's share, this includes $203,000 in federal aid and $91,000 from the state.

He said the commitment would be forwarded to the State Department of Aeronautics for use in its negotiations with the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) on the 1962 allocations.

Proposed allocations must still be approved by the Legislature and the FAA.

Current plans mainly involve improvements to the existing runway system. FAA allocations depend on a priority system based mostly on safety factors.

Willman said he would try to work for development of the secondary runway as a substitute improvement, saying this is considered an important facility by commercial and corporate aviation officials.

The second runway has been shoved aside in the past because its priority rate by the FAA was too low. Its exact location at the airport has not been decided.

Ford Co. Names New President

Dykstra, of 1074 Glengarry Road, Bloomfield Township, has been vice president in charge of manufacturing at Ford. He succeeds Henry Ford, II, who took over temporarily after Robert McNamara resigned to become secretary of defense.

Ford will continue as chairman and chief executive officer of the company founded by his grandfather.

Dykstra, a native of Steins, Holland, will be 63 years old on Sunday. He is a former executive of the old Hudson Motor Car Co. and former manufacturing manager for Oldsmobile Division of General

Russian Up 108 Minutes to Win Astronauts' Race

By HENRY SHAPIRO

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia won the man-in-space race today by shooting a young Air Force officer around the world in a space ship and bringing him back alive.

The Soviet Union announced that Maj. Yuri Gagarin, 27-year-old father of two children, had orbited the earth in a 5-ton space ship on a flight that took an hour and 48 minutes.

In that brief span, hardly more than the time of a train trip from New York to Philadelphia, man broke the barrier to space travel and raced closer to the eventual goal of flights to other planets.

A noted British scientist called the flight the "greatest scientific achievement in the history of man."

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev messaged Gagarin: "The entire world admires your deed, which will be remembered down the centuries as an example of courage, gallantry, and heroism in the name of service to mankind."

President Kennedy in Washington said: "The achievement by the U.S.S.R. in orbiting a man and returning him safely to the ground is an outstanding technical accomplishment. We congratulate the Soviet scientists and engineers who made this feat possible."

Related Stories on Pages 2, 26

The first space man himself was quoted by Moscow radio as saying: "The realization of man's flight into space opens up grandiose prospects in the conquest of space by mankind."

The epic flight was made while the United States apparently was still weeks away from putting its first man into space and months from shooting him into orbit around the earth.

MOSCOW GOES WILD

As the news spread through Moscow crowds swarmed into the streets in the wildest display of jubilation seen here since Nazi Germany collapsed on May 8, 1945.

Celebrants paraded through the main streets, children were dismissed from school, radios and television sets proclaimed the news over and over. Snow that had been falling on Moscow ceased, and the sun came out.

So sure were Soviet scientists of success that they announced the launching of the manned space vehicle before it had returned to earth. (They said it took off at 9:07 a.m. (1:07 a.m. Pontiac time) and later they announced it had passed over South Africa and South America.

Then, they said, at 10:25 a.m., the space craft began applying its retroactive braking engines, and at 10.55 a.m. it landed, signaling the start of a new phase of man's

Red Shot Stirs World Reaction

From Our News Wires

LONDON — Dancing, superlatives and predictions of more great things to come — perhaps a trip to the moon — greeted Russia's man-in-space achievement today from all corners of the world.

"This is the greatest scientific achievement in the history of man," said Sir Bernard Lovell, director of the Jodrell Bank here and one of the world's top scientists.

In Moscow, the people in the streets felt much the same. They danced and hugged each other in the biggest celebrations since the end of World War II.

"I feel we should take off our hats to the Russians . . . and then tighten up our belts to do the best we can in space exploration," said a state trooper in Utah, summing up the general mood.

James E. Webb, director of the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration which was racing to beat the Soviets, said the flight was a "splendid achievement — a significant event in terms of the Soviets' own time-table."

Webb, whose astronauts are now in training, said he hoped the Soviets will provide the scientific community the information gained from the experiment.

WON'T COMPARE

At an international symposium in Florence, Italy, leading space scientists from throughout the world said the U.S.S.R. has achieved a great success but declined to compare Soviet and U.S. achievements in rocketry.

A top Soviet scientist said the Soviet Union will launch another man into space when it is established beyond doubt that Yuri Gagarin suffered no ill effects.

NASA's representative at the scientific gathering, Gerald M. Truszynski, said he expected the Soviets to orbit a man during the symposium.

Rep. Overton Brooks, D-La., chairman of the house space committee, said it "is not unexpected. We knew the Russians had that capability. At the same time it is an amazing feat."

He said "we have to move on with a stepped-up plan."

Feature Cosmonaut's 'Good, Honest Smile'

The portrait of Maj. Yuri A. Gagarin was shown and then came this broadcast comment, repeated by Moscow radio: "For those who did not see this picture we should like to give a description of this splendid man.

"On the screen appears the image of a man aged about 25-28 with a kind, Russian face, eyes set well apart, fine bushy brows and high forehead.

"He wears a flying helmet, a light overall suit. He smiles a good, honest smile. And is there any need to add that this man who has been the first to dare to fly to space, to reach for the stars, to look down on our earth, is a man of a very great and very real character. This is eyldent in his smile, in the intelligent, fine eyes."

Gagarin was 27 just a month ago.

He is married to Valentina Gagarina, 26, who also has a scientific background. She was graduated from medical school at Orenburg.

They have two daughters, Yelena, 2, and Galya, just a month old.

Gagarin was born March 9, 1934, in the Gzhatsk district of the Smolensk area. As a child of 7, just starting school, he and his family experienced the Nazi invasion and fled into the hinterland.

To Try Pontiac Man for Biting Off Ear

A Pontiac man accused of biting off part of another man's ear has been ordered held for trial following an examination today before Municipal Court Judge Cecil McCallum.

Donald D. Martell, 35, 571 Desota Place, is specifically charged with assault with intent to maim in a March 30 battle with Grant H. Sutton, 32, 5308 Lynsue Lane, Waterford Township.

The two men got into a fight after they reported a traffic accident to police. Sutton underwent plastic surgery on his ear at Pontiac General Hospital.

Martell will be arraigned in Circuit Court April 17.

Conservationists to Keep Charge of Deer Herd

LANSING (AP)—Without a word of debate, the house today resoundingly defeated a bill to strip the conservation department of its authority to manage the state's deer herd. The vote was 39-56.

Lawmakers' familiarity with the issue and urgency to beat the deadline for passage of scores of other bills were the reason for the unwritten agreement to skip all debate.

The bill was hashed over thoroughly at a public hearing last month and has come up for a vote in the legislature at every session in recent years.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, D-Negaunee, and 27 other Democrats, would have forbidden the conservation department to schedule special seasons for the shooting of does and fawns.

Who Is First Man in Space?

From Our News Wires

UPI reporter Henry Shapiro said many persons in Moscow are convinced after today's announcement that another manned flight into space was attempted Friday and there was speculation something may have gone wrong.

This may be borne out by a story in the Communist London Daily Worker. The paper's banner story Tuesday told of "The First Man in Space."

It is said the man was back alive after circling the earth three times, but that he was suffering from effects of his flight."

The Daily Worker said today it is standing by its story.

A spokesman for the editor said: "Our story came from good sources. All we know is what we published today. Now of course there is this one."

By "this one," he referred to today's Moscow announcement.

They said there had been tracking since 8:30 a.m. (Pontiac time), however, of an object which presumably is the burned out case of the rocket which put the spaceship aloft.

Eichmann Prosecutor Tells Court:

'Jews Will Never Forget'

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel's attorney general pointed a finger at Adolf Eichmann in court today and vowed that Jewry always will remember him as the man who succeeded in part in carrying out the Nazi plan to exterminate Europe's 11 million Jews.

★ ★ ★

"There is no pardon and there can be no forgetting," Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner cried out, his voice ringing with emotion.

Picture on Page 2

"If we don't try Eichmann," he told the three-judge panel, "it is quite possible that he will not be tried at all, and a crime without precedent would not be punished."

Throughout much of the second day of the trial, Hausner hammered persistently at defense challenges regarding legality of the proceedings.

If Hausner's impassioned words had any effect upon Eichmann, the defendant's expression failed to show it as he stared at the attorney general.

Eichmann is being tried on Israel's charge that he committed "crimes against the Jewish people and crimes against humanity" as chief of the Jewish affairs section of the Nazi Gestapo. Israel holds him responsible in the death of about six million Jews.

DISPUTES COURT

"What international court, may I ask?" Hausner asked. "The International Court in The Hague has no jurisdiction over individuals."

The attorney general said the International Court that tried Nazis at Nuernberg in 1946 no longer exists, nor does the one that tried Japanese leaders on war crimes charges in Tokyo. What, he asked, should Israel do?

He said any proposal that the United Nations set up a tribunal would simply raise Cold War difficulties.

★ ★ ★

Hausner said that if Israel should forego the right to try Eichmann, "we would have to set him free; we would have to return him to Argentina." Eichmann was captured by Israeli agents in Argentina a year ago and spirited to Israel.

★ ★ ★

The defense has argued that Israel was nonexistent when the Nazi crimes were committed and thus has no right to try Eichmann. Hausner replied that the Jewish people are not only in Israel. Israel came into being in 1948, but Hausner said the Jewish community's rights already had been recognized by the United Nations.

Those Centennial Permits All in Fun, Says Rowston

Mayor Philip E. Rowston and other city commissioners gave assurances last night that centennial boards and cosmetic permits are "all in the spirit of fun."

"We hope that everyone will enter into the spirit of festivity, but of course those who don't won't be penalized," the mayor said. The comments came in response to reports that some people are worried about arrests by Keystone Cops of the centennial's Kangaroo Court.

"Anyone stopped on the street by the Keystone Cops who doesn't agree with our spirit of fun will certainly not be unduly bothered," said the mayor.

After consulting with centennial headquarters today, Rowston said that there is agreement there on this policy.

Most of the public concern, he said, apparently is connected with the permits and buttons for the women to wear cosmetics and for the men to shave or grow beards.

Rowston noted regretfully that some people would like to join in wearing centennial regalia but are concerned about the expense of frivolities. He and other commissioners expressed sympathy with them.

Swinging into the centennial spirit, Commissioner John A. Dugan, a Pontiac Motor Division employe, noted that hourly workers at the plant are apparently more beard-conscious than the salaried employes.

He issued a sly dig at both white collar workers and downtown merchants for any lack of beards among their ranks.

Rowston in a mock presentation pinned a shaver's permit on the lapel of Commissioner William H. Taylor Jr., the only commissioner without a beard or mustache. Taylor then said he might grow a mustache.

Rain and Snow Make Weather Outlook Frightful

In the words of an ever popular song, "The weather outside is frightful. . . . Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow."

The day dawned with temperatures rising from 38 degrees at 6 up to 44 at 11 this morning, then dropped back to 34 at 2 p.m.

For the next five days the weatherman said temperatures will average near or above normal high of 53 to 58 and normal low of 32 to 37.

Precipitation will total 5 to 7 tenths of an inch, mostly as rain tonight, Saturday and again Monday.

Thursday is expected to be partly cloudy and cool with a few light showers likely. The high will hit about 46.

Morning easterly winds at 5 miles per hour will increase to 20 to 30 m.p.h. late this afternoon and become northerly Thursday.

However, the President's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said in Washington: "We know nothing about it. It (any report or announcement concerning the flier's release) is not coming from us."

Powers said he had no further comment.

The London Daily Mail said Tuesday the U2 pilot would be freed "within the next few weeks and will choose to stay in Russia."

NATO Is Discussed by JFK, Adenauer

The President and Adenauer conferred for 90 minutes at the White House. Also at the meeting were Secretary of State Dean Rusk and West Germany's foreign minister, Dr. Heinrich von Brentano.

After the session, the first of what is to be a series of conferences, White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger told newsmen:

"The chancellor and the President had a personal discussion for about an hour and a half's duration on the problems of NATO and on ways to achieve greater unity in NATO.

"The talks this morning were in general a continuation of discussions held between the chancellor and Dean Acheson in Germany."

Acheson, who served as secretary of state in the Truman administration, is a Kennedy adviser on NATO problems.

Salinger said Kennedy and Adenauer also reviewed world problems on a generalized basis.

Originally the morning meeting of Kennedy, Adenauer, Rusk and Von Brentano was to be followed immediately by a conference of those four and a large group of other U.S. and West German officials.

But Salinger announced this follow-up session had been postponed until Thursday.

Flanked by advisers, the chancellor arrived at the White House at 9:55 a.m. and was quickly led into the President's office.

* * *

Reports from Bonn in advance of Adenauer's departure for Washington said the German leader was worried that the Kennedy administration's efforts to improve relations with the Soviet Union would slow down the strengthening of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's defense system.

Adenauer arrived here Tuesday night and promptly declared that "we are prepared to make a contribution in keeping with our abilities."

WANTS HELP ON COSTS

One problem between the United States and West Germany for many months has been U.S. urging that West Germany bear a greater share of the cost of Western expenses for defense and for aid to underdeveloped countries.

* * *

Shortly after Adenauer left Bonn, the West German government announced that it would pay ahead of schedule $587 million on its postwar debt to the United States.

The chancellor flew to Washington in a German jet airliner and was met by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

"It is most opportune that you could arrange to consult with us at precisely this time," Rusk said, "when a new American administration is shaping the major policy lines which we will expect to follow during the years ahead."

The chancellor has the reputation of always advocating a tough policy in dealings with the Soviet Union.

Break Ground for Clinic

Ground was broken today for the $420,000 physician's clinic on Woodward Avenue that earmarks some space for an 11th branch office of Community National Bank.

* * *

On hand for the 10 a.m. ceremony were Dr. Edwin J. Dobski, a Pontiac physician and president of Physicians Real Estate Development Corp.; representatives from the bank and from Harry M. Denys Jr. & Associates, the architects; Rev. Edwin Schroeder, chaplain of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital; and Phillip J. Schurrer, head of Schurrer Construction Co., the general contractors.

The bank disclosed that it has applied to the U.S. comptroller of the currency to open the branch office. Community now has 10 branches in the Pontiac area.

* * *

The one-story, 17-office building, occupying 23,500 square feet of a 9-acre site on the east side of Woodward, opposite St. Joseph's, is scheduled for completion in November.

An unusual design will have the offices facing Woodward in a semi circle. Air conditioning and a pharmacy are included.

Harry M. Denys, the architect, said the price tag included such elite improvements as a 250-car parking lot.

Henry Ford II stepped down as president last Nov. 9 in favor of McNamara. That shift lasted only one month before President Kennedy summoned McNamara to Washington. Ford officially resumed his dual role of president and chairman on Jan. 3.

At that time he said the move was temporary because he felt the job should be divided.

Others included John Bugas, vice president in charge of Ford's international operations, and James O. Wright, who was elevated into McNamara's old job as head of the car and truck groups when McNamara became president in November.

Both Bugas and Wright are considerably younger than Dykstra.

TRIBUTE TO SKILLS'

Commenting on Dykstra's election, Henry Ford said:

"The results Mr. Dykstra has obtained from the wide-reaching quality program he conceived and put in effect are a tribute to his executive skills and a testimonial to the depth and breadth of his knowledge of our business.

"To his new position as president of Ford Motor Co. he brings long experience and an outstanding record of management accomplishment.

"As a senior executive and member of the board of directors, he has made significant contributions to the progress of this company in virtually every aspect of corporate activity."

M59 Crash Kills Howell Man, 30

Last Year to Date: 34

The youth, Ronald L. Nicholls, 17, of 1245 Waterbury Road, was rushed to Pontiac General Hospital where he was reported in serious condition. He suffered a fractured skull, severe cuts on his face and a broken ankle.

Nicholls, westbound on M59, evidently was waiting to make a left turn onto Milford Road, en route to classes at Milford High School this morning, when his car was struck by Combs' oncoming car. Both drivers were alone.

The force of impact drove Combs' car 200 feet and spilled Nicholls onto the road. Combs' car immediately burst into flames.

The fire was extinguished by three county road commission employes, Wesley Campbell, Gerald Hawes and Howard Smith, who arrived at the scene seconds later. Combs was pinned in his car. He died apparently of a broken neck and chest injuries.

Sheriff's deputies were unprepared to say which driver was at fault until they have completed their investigation.

Nicholls is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stanley of the same address.

Waives Exam on Charge of Taking Vehicle

An 18-year-old Pontiac youth waived examination in Municipal Court yesterday on a charge of illegally taking and using a motor vehicle.

Robert Martin, 18, of 1557 Lone Pine Road, Commerce Township, will be arraigned in Circuit Court April 17.

Municipal Court Judge Cecil McCallum set bond at $100.

He is accused of having participated with two boys, one 17, and one 12, in six auto thefts.

Police said the 12-year-old told them he stole the cars, then met the others at a predetermined spot.

Donald L. Geisner, 17, 102 Henderson St., and John E. Carter, 17, 7005 Cooley Lake Road, Commerce Township, have demanded examination on the same charge, a high misdemeanor with a maximum two-year prison sentence.

The examinations have been scheduled for April 19.

Orion Methodist Church Reports Theft of $20

Thieves took approximately $20 from an office in the Lake Orion Methodist Church, it was reported to village police yesterday by Rev. Albert Johns.

Police said the thieves apparently took a screwdriver from a boiler room in the basement of the church, which was left open all night, and used it to pry open the locked office door.

Rev. Johns said the money was left in a desk drawer of the office. The church is at 140 E. Flint St. in Lake Orion.

After he alighted from the craft Gagarin, whose last name means "wild duck", said he felt fine.

89.1-MINUTE TRIP

The actual orbiting time was announced as 89.1 minutes for the trip of more than 20,000 miles at heights ranging from 109 to 187 miles over the earth in the space ship named Vostok (East).

The craft was controlled from the ground all the way, and the Soviet scientists said they were in touch with the "cosmonaut," as the Russians call him, by radio and television all the way.

The additional time given for the trip apparently covered landing time. And although it was announced Gagarin returned to a predetermined spot in the Soviet Union, it was possible his takeoff and arrival sites were widely separated.

The first American attempt to put a man into orbit is not expected until late this year or some time in 1962.

The Soviets opened the space age on Oct. 4, 1957 with the launching of Sputnik I, but the United States got into contention with the orbiting of Vanguard I on March 17, 1958.

Soviets Widen Lead in Space

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union's success in putting a man into earth orbit has given it a running lead in the race to control space.

Before 1961 is over the Soviets may give the United States additional cause to feel a sense of angry frustration.

* * *

There is not much doubt anymore that the Soviets have developed far more powerful rockets than the United States and hence have a greater capability in space activities.

WORK ON TIMETABLE

Indeed the Soviets appear to be working to a space timetable and solving the problems encountered along the way on schedule.

But even if the Soviets are not in position to gain control of space uncontested, the fact remains that a successful man orbit will damage the image of the United States once more as the world's most advanced nation technologically.

Measured by the reported Soviet astronaut shot, the first U.S. effort to send a man on a ballistic trajectory will be scientifically primitive.

The first blow to U.S. scientific pride came on Oct. 4, 1957, when the Soviet Union became the first nation to put an artifical earth satellite into orbit.

FIRST BLOW TO U.S.

While the United States has since put 38 satellites into orbit (22 are still there), the Soviets have had but 13 successful launchings. But the Soviet payloads have been larger, indicating their rocket boosters are far more advanced than those of the United States.

The United States has never been able to match the Soviet payloads pound for pound.

Discounts Gravity Fear

LANCASTER, Calif. (UPI) — Zero gravity for a prolonged period would not cause physical discomfort for an astronaut, according to test pilot Joseph A. Walker, who experienced two minutes of weightlessness last March 30 in the X15 rocket plane.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The Redstone rocket which the United States had hoped would boost the first man into space stands on a launching pad here. The Soviet Union beat its firing date by at least two weeks.

"So close, yet so far," commented a technician who is helping groom the Redstone to send one of America's astronauts on a short suborbital flight, hopefully late this month or early in May.

SICC Trio in Washington

Seeking Work for Area

Armed with the proof of where federal funds could be put to work, a trio of officials representing the six - county Supervisors Inter County Committee were in Washington today trying to sell a program to spur the economy and get public works projects started.

* * *

The delegation was headed by Delos Hamlin, chairman of the SICC and the Oakland County Board of Supervisors; R. J. Alexander, director of the county department of public works, and Gerard H. Coleman, executive secretary of the SICC.

They were scheduled to meet with Sens. Patrick V. McNamara and Philip A. Hart, members of Michigan's congressional delegation including Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, and representatives of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, which must approve the federal grants.

Alexander, Hamlin and other Oakland County public works and road officials visited Washington last month to make a plea for any federal funds which may become available under President Kennedy's plan to assist local communities in meeting today's critical needs for new and expanded public facilities and services.

NO GIVEAWAY PLAN

"This is not a giveaway program," Hamlin told the board of supervisors meeting in Pontiac yesterday. "It is more or less like a Federal Housing Administration municipal loan."

The officials carried with them a detailed report of projects — with a grand total of $1,356,206,000 — for which federal funds could be employed in Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, St. Clair, Wayne and Washtenaw counties, including the city of Detroit.

The counties make up the SICC, which was formed in June 1954 to solve problems which one county couldn't solve by itself.

The report is divided into projects that Detroit and the six counties could (1) place under contract in 30 to 90 days; (2) start construction in a period of three to six months; and (3) start construction in one to two years but still require general planning.

Hamlin said Oakland had on tap about $21,011,830 of what the report calls "immediate projects," and about $58,600,000 in the latter category of projects were feasibility has been established but planning must be done.

All the projects in the report could mean an estimated 300,700,000 in labor man hours, Hamlin said.

Considering the third category of projects, Hamlin said:

"This is not a program solely concerned with helping to solve the Detroit metropolitan areas immediate economic and employment problems, but one that has a long range future needs concept that is so vital if this area is to continue its phenominal growth pattern of the last 20 years."

In the category of projects ready to be placed under contract the soonest, the report listed the long-awaited Clinton River sewage disposal system to serve northeastern Oakland County, extensions of the Farmington sewage disposal system, and a water system for Farmington Township.

Hamlin has been requested by Gov. John B. Swainson to have the SICC compile the prospectus on public works after President Kennedy made clear his intention of accelerating essential building and expenditure programs that would help reinvigorate the economy.

Included in the second class of projects are some sections of the Clinton River system, a sanitary sewer system for Troy, and extensions of the system at Michigan State University Oakland, which eventually will be part of the Clinton River project.

* * *

In the last class, Hamlin pointed out in the report that federal funds could speed up a similar system for southwestern Oakland County, to be called the Huron River Sewage Disposal System. This cost is $22,658,000.

* * *

This is the third time that Beresford, a city commissioner since 1948, has been elected mayor. He held the top city office in 1954 and 1955.

Bugas and Craig were re-elected and Frye, a Detroit attorney defeated Dominick Vettraino, a city commissioner since 1955.

A resolution expressing appreciation of Vettraino's six years of service to the city was adopted by commissioners.

* * *

City clerk and treasurer Robert J. Stadler and city assessor Elmer Kephart were reappointed to their respective posts. Kephart also is the city manager.

Two Arraigned in Separate Burglary Cases

* * *

He scheduled the examinations for April 19 in his court and set bond for both at $5,000 each.

Forgette is accused of breaking into Aunt Leon's Drive-in restaurant, 891 S. Milford Road, April 9, and stealing approximately $25 from vending machines and a radio.

* * *

Dockstader is charged with taking part in a burglary at the Multi Lakes Conservation Club in Commerce Township Thursday night when several bottles of liquor, cigars and cigarettes were stolen.

* * *

Also charged with the Multi Lakes burglary are Larry G. Hill, 20, of 3140 Fisher St., Commerce Township; Harry Medaris, 19, of 309 McPherson St., Highland Township; and Frank Parsons Jr., 18, 1790 Sheffler St., Walled Lake.

* * *

They will face examination before Welck April 19 also.

Ex-City Resident Dies in the East

Harry A. McBride, 73, Served Many Years in Diplomatic Posts

Harry A. McBride, former Pontiac resident who has served as assistant to the secretary of state and as consul in many corners of the world, died in a hospital in Washington, D.C., yesterday. He was 73.

* * *

McBride was born in Flint. He spent his early life in Pontiac. In 1908 he was appointed a clerk in the office of the consulate general at Dresden, Germany.

He later served as consular agent at Bilbon, Spain, and in 1910 was deputy consul general at Barcelona, Spain. The following year he was vice consul general at Zurich, Switzerland.

After passing a consular examination in 1912, McBride was selected in 1913 as vice and deputy consul general at Bonn in the Congo. By 1916 he became vice consul at London, England. From 1918 to 1919 he was acting general receiver of customs and financial advisor of Liberia and member of the Liberian Internal Debt Commission.

In 1919 he was assigned to consular service in Warsaw, Poland. McBride served in the Department of State from 1920 through 1922 in Eastern and Southern Europe.

For eight years he represented a concern engaged in a wholesale olive, grape and almond business at Malaga, Spain.

During his residence in Spain, McBride wrote several travel articles for National Geographic Magazine and served as vice consul in Malaya.

His next appointment was as assistant chief of foreign service buildings office of the Department of State. When William H. Peck was named consul general of the United States at Ottawa, McBride was selected as assistant to the secretary of state.

At the time of his death he had retired as administrator of the National Gallery of Art in Washington.

* * *

More People Buying More Stocks With More Hope

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK — More stocks to buy and more persons bidding for them are bringing the nation's stock exchanges heavy trading days and price records.

And the same rush to buy or sell is spilling over into an even bigger market. This is the much larger number of stocks that are unlisted on any exchange but are traded over hundreds of counters of dealers across the nation.

It all adds up to a huge turnover in ownership, to a spreading of stock holding to still more first-time owners.

The very volume of trading helps build up enthusiasm. It is part of the snowballing confidence that of late has sent the stock price averages to new highs.

Stock ownership has mushroomed in the nation in the last 10 years. The public that turned wary after getting its fingers burned in 1929—and a large public that was too young then to buy, or not even born—is in the market now in volume.

MORE STOCKS

The number of stocks available also has grown several fold since those earlier days of stock market exuberance. More companies offer stocks, either listed or unlisted. And the big companies have many times the number of shares outstanding they did only 10 years ago, not to mention 30 years ago.

These two factors account for much of the rise in volume on the stock exchanges.

There are 15 million stock owners now to follow the market. They may shift from one share into another that looks better to them. They may add to their holdings, some on a regular buying schedule, or urge their neighbors to consider stock owning as a way of saving or investing.

The examples of those of the 15 million lucky enough to have made big profits, if only on paper, inspire still more to try their luck.

Personal incomes have risen steadily, meaning more money available for stock buying, or other use, after the essentials of life are provided.

And those individuals who put sizable parts of their incomes into pension funds, mutual funds, insurance policies, savings institutions, all are adding to the total of funds available for investing, whether it be in mortgages or in stocks.

The competition of these various investment pools—institutional or individual—has played a part in bolstering stock prices and in sending some sudden favorite to giddy heights.

A bigger factor right now is a growing confidence that the economy will turn upward. Coupled with this is a fear in some quarters that the advance will be bought at the cost of more inflation.

If the economy turns upward, the better the chance of stock prices to do so, too. If more inflation comes, stocks are a traditional hedge against loss on the purchasing power of savings.

A special factor now is the capture of the public's imagination by the scientific wonders, new or promised. Companies which seem likely to profit by this development acquire a following overnight.

And a final factor is the spirit of speculation. Stock exchange officials have warned against it, but many are saying, "If my neighbor could make money in the stock market, why can't I, even if I don't know what I'm buying?"

U2 Pilot's Wife Hears Nothing

Says Powers Is Loyal to U.S. and if Released He'll Return

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (AP)—The wife of imprisoned U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers said today that reports of her husband's impending release and decision to remain in the Soviet Union "were all a misunderstanding."

"I have heard nothing officially. I haven't heard one word that would lead me to believe such a thing," said Mrs. Powers in a telephone interview from her mother's home here.

The London Daily Mail said Tuesday that Powers would be freed from a Soviet prison May 1—exactly a year after his reconnaissance plane was shot down over the Soviet Union.

Mrs. Powers conceded that she had talked with a reporter from the Mail, but denied telling him that her husband was to be released.

"I have read that in some instances a prisoner in Russia is permitted to have his family join him when he is transferred from prison to a work camp," she said. "As you know, Gary's original sentence was three years in prison and seven years in a work camp.

"Neither my husband nor I have ever been notified whether he is in the classification eligible for the work camp. And even if he were, he would still have to serve two more years in prison before I could join him."

FBI agents said the money has been recovered. It included $2,385.12 in cash. The rest was in checks.

Waives Examination in Manslaughter Case

Coleman, who denies recalling a scuffle with Guy, was held to Superior Court in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Airline Asks CAB to Reconsider Action

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American Airlines has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to reconsider its decision in the Southern transcontinental case.

American said it would lose more than $20 million annually if the decision stands.

The decision gave National and Delta airlines authority to operate between Florida and the West Coast. It allowed Eastern Airlines authorities to operate between Florida and Dallas-Fort Worth.

American claimed this decision will eliminate it completely from a primary traffic market it developed over a period of 30 years.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain of strain. (2) COLONAID's unequalled rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Education in Michigan Faces Crucial Time in Legislature

The whole problem of higher education in Michigan stands on the brink of a precipice.

While the State was wallowing in the depths of our financial morass, colleges and universities bravely girded their loins and ploughed ahead as best they could. They even accepted a few delayed payrolls without outward protest.

★ ★ ★

The Governor and the legislature bared their respective chests and battled away to a continuous "no decision" contest. However, when G. MENNEN WILLIAMS decided to step aside, Michigan citizens believed that our tax problems could be settled.

And yet, right now, the general educational problem is in the gravest danger it has been. Beginning with 1961, State citizens, in general, felt that the losses over the past several years could be retrieved in part. At the very worst, it looked as though the downward trend would be reversed, even though all the sins of the past could not be cured in one fell swoop.

★ ★ ★

However, current appropriation budgets take no recognition of our wavering educational programs. Michigan education is actually shaky.

★ ★ ★

All over the United States, higher education has witnessed a breathtaking upsweep and forward surge. Young people are determined to go to college today as they never have been before. Surely, nowhere are there any considerable number of people who believe the upcoming generation should be denied the education which it wants and which it is capable of absorbing.

For more than a century, Michigan has enjoyed a national and even a worldwide reputation for fine education. Over 50 years ago the University of Michigan was actually known internationally and students were sent here by foreign governments through deliberate preference and choice. Since then, Michigan State University has leaped into the very top levels and Wayne is asserting herself proudly these days with our other sound colleges following swiftly.

★ ★ ★

Nor has the money expended by the taxpayers been wasted. There are no marble halls here like there are in the heavily-endowed universities such as Yale, Princeton, Leland, Stanford, Duke, Texas Christian and others that possess the great shrines and memorials. Largely, Michigan has been functional in plant equipment and design.

★ ★ ★

Unless we face the issue squarely, the magnificent teaching staffs that we have assembled in Michigan will begin to drift away. Replacements on the same level will be difficult if not impossible. Especially competent teachers are in heavy demand. No one wants stagnation or retrogression.

★ ★ ★

Unhappily, we've lost some already because of our money mess, but the unfortunate pace might be accelerated. This is a crucial time. The State must look the facts in the face and act accordingly.

★ ★ ★

No taxpayers want money thrown away. We can't afford glistening castles. We can't finance ultramodern experimental work that may boomerang. We can't pay for frills and luxuries. But on the other hand, we can't afford insufficient buildings, inadequately paid faculties and a crumbling, disintegrating movement that will accelerate as time passes.

★ ★ ★

By and large, Michigan has been wisely governed in Lansing for more than a century. We believe the current legislature is a worthy successor to its illustrious predecessors.

The Man About Town

No Such Places

Visionary People Like to Dub Imaginary Names

Smart Alec: A guy whose mental synthesis can easily overcome his good sense because he has very little of the latter.

Answering several requests for its location, there is no municipality in Michigan called "Heil." Nor is there a "Podunk." There's a "Paradise" in the northern peninsula, but it is no more entitled to the name than dozens of communities in the Pontiac area.

In order to satisfy the queer demand in letters received from prospective Michigan tourists from other states, who ask if we have such a place as "Heil," because they want to visit it, they are given an assortment of locations, all phony. We say to let them go there.

One of these locations is in a county that adjoins our Oakland, but nobody there seems to know how the thing got started. Perhaps somebody was given the admonition when they made a neighbor mad and were leaving their former community.

It is immensely more uplifting to remember that we do have post offices in Michigan with such names as Acme, Alpha, (no Omega), Atlas, Bath, Blissfield, Boon, Chief, Eden, Gaylord, Good Hart, Hale, Hope, Kinde, Mass, Maybee, Mesick (no Yousick) Nazareth, New Era, Palms, Richland, Rock, Romeo, (they overlooked Juliet), Rosebush, Stalwart, Sterling, Sunfield, Whittaker, (no Gee), Winn and Woodland.

Cressy B. Larsen,

makes a personal appeal to local lads (and their parents) to take advantage of what is being offered here in the national observance of Boys Club Week.

It is my candid opinion that

was the key figure in pioneering barber shop singing in Pontiac. He still directs the local chorus which is going all out for this week's national observance.

Still mindful of a subject in our lead story today, it was a rather unique incident when the good Pontiac area people, who planted tulips to say "Hello," ran out of bulbs for the final letter.

An empty dog house has been in the backyard of

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Presswell

of Drayton Plains since their pet canine was killed by an automobile two years ago. But it now has a tenant. The other morning a mother dog and her four new puppies were found in it. She has no collar or license tag—but she has a good home for her family. The adoption is absolute.

of Rochester, which says that today's radio or TV doesn't have a personality that appeals to the millions as did

Mr. and Mrs. Fibber McGee,

the latter of whom recently died.

of Waterford, who continues, "And I want to join the odoriferous procession. We're eating fresh onions from our garden, grown from sets that were started indoors, and they're more palatable than skunk cabbage and will keep your enemies just as far away."

Drop in the Bucket

David Lawrence Says:

Taxes May Cut JFK's Popularity

WASHINGTON — Within a few days the American people will get for the first time some basic information which will enable them to begin to make up their minds whether or not they like their new president.

LAWRENCE

For what has happened thus far hasn't really been decisive. It doesn't matter much whether the Kennedy household hires a French chef or whether the peace corps is going to convert native Africans to civilization.

★ ★ ★

What does matter is whether the federal government is going to collect more tax money out of the worker's take-home pay.

The President is planning to send his tax message to Congress next week.

It has been delayed for unexplained reasons, though it is widely suspected that the drafts of the message proposed by the President's "task forces" and advisers—the "theoretical" boys —have run into some penetrating criticism from members of Congress—the "practical" boys.

Tax rates and regulations are at present a complicated affair that cannot be defended as either equitable or productive of adequate tax revenues.

There isn't, to be sure, any tax system that will yield enough revenue for the "spenders." But the important fact today about new taxes is not whether they are going to be made more equitable as between different classes of taxpayers, but whether forthcoming changes will disrupt the economic stability of the country for a long time to come.

Far from being a cure for recession, tax changes can prolong a recession by producing a disequilibrium in the economy.

The average citizen will be affected in many ways and particularly in his purchasing power. It seems ironical that, with all the talk about increasing consumer power to buy, the government should be considering a tax program that will curtail incomes for many people and many businesses.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Take, for instance, the social security taxes which affect almost everybody. Some will go up in a few months, and some will be further increased at the end of next year. If Congress goes ahead with pension changes and medical care for the aged, the social security taxes on the whole program will go up by nearly 33 per cent on a person who makes a little less than $90 a week.

Thus, the man who earns $4,800 a year or more now pays $144 a year in social security taxes, but the amount the federal government will take from his will go up to $193.75.

This means that the employer and the employe together will pay nearly $100 a year more than they do now. This may subtract billions of dollars in purchasing power.

Perhaps the most irritating change is coming in the plan to withhold taxes on interest and dividends at the sources. Low-income persons, especially retired people who do not have much income, will find their regular monthly stipend decreased.

There's another item that will cause much controversy. It is the proposal to remove the limited tax credit on dividends. The argument against full taxation of dividends is that the citizen is taxed doubly if he puts his money in a corporation but not if it is invested in a partnership or a proprietorship.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Little Book Can Spare Women Painful Moments

In her famous little book "Personal Hygiene for Women," (probably to be found only in your public library), Dr. Clelia Duel Mosher, for many years medical adviser of women, Stanford University, told how, in a large number of cases of painful menstruation (dysmenorrhea) and, excessive loss of blood (menorrhagia), she corrected those conditions by this physiologic method:

"All tight clothing having been removed the woman is placed on her back on a level surface, in the horizontal position. The knees are flexed and the arms are placed at the sides to secure perfect relaxation.

One hand is allowed to rest on the abdominal wall without exerting any pressure, to serve as an indicator of the amount of movement. The woman is directed to raise the hand by lifting the abdominal wall without straining, then to see how far the hand can be lowered by the voluntary contraction of the abdominal muscles, the importance of this contraction being especially emphasized.

This exercise is repeated eight or ten times, night and morning, in a well-ventilated room, preferably while she is still in bed and in her night clothing.

She is cautioned to avoid movements and to strive for smooth rhythmical raising and lowering of the abdominal wall.

The breath must not be held — if she is inclined to hold her breath while doing the exercise let her keep her mouth open, breathing naturally.

CONCENTRATE

The voluntary contraction of the muscles will at first be very slight, particularly in those who need the exercise.

It is often necessary to urge the concentration of attention of the abdominal muscles and to forget the breathing, which will take care of itself.

Not until these muscles are developed to a point where a good contraction is possible can any marked results be expected."

Dr. Margaret L. Johnson reported that use of the Mosher method brought relief in 72 cases of dysmenorrhea, 17 cases of menorrhagia and 14 cases of metrorrhagia (bleeding between menstrual periods).

"The method is so simple," Dr. Mosher cautioned, "that a certain number of failures have been recorded because the girl has been simply directed 'to do abdominal breathing'."

I am 70, retired, in good physical condition, take long brisk walks an hour of calisthenics four times a week, practice belly breathing.

I was a Marathon runner in my thirties. I am a chain smoker and enjoy the pipe even while hiking. Please tell me if it is harmful. . . . (O.H.)

Ans.—Now you're a Marathon smoker, eh? If you smoke constantly of course it is harmful. Pipe smoking is probably less harmful than cigar or cigaret smoking, because the smoker inhales less carbon monoxide. Don't smoke while exerting yourself — in play, work, hiking, calisthenics.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Stay Slave of Foolish Fears

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

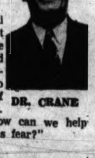
"He will actually scream and grow rigid in my arms. Indeed, he has become so hysterical at times that I have feared he was in a convulsion of some sort.



DR. CRANE

"Once I called the doctor about Ronnie, and the doctor finally had to throw ice water in his face to bring him out of his fit of terror.

DIAGNOSIS

According to Dr. John B. Watson's extensive investigation of young babies, there are only two native (inborn) fears.

An infant seems to dread loud noises and also the feeling of falling. All other fears must be learned.

Ronnie's terror of the vacuum cleaner thus has been acquired. His mother didn't know how it started, but we know that every emotional reaction has a beginning in some specific situation.

Maybe the maid or baby sitter startled him by turning on the motor unexpectedly while he was already under the tension of knowing his mamma was away from the house.

Anyway, Ronnie has developed a specific emotional habit with reference to the noise of the vacuum sweeper.

BUILD GOOD HABITS

This process is called "re-conditioning" of the child to the sound of the vacuum sweeper.

We must get Ronnie to link pleasure and fun with that same noise, instead of his present fear and panic.

But how? Well, a child normally is very fond of his parents. He feels happy and expansive when they are around.

So let's begin by having his parents play a game with Ronnie in which the vacuum sweeper participates.

Suppose they play that the vacuum sweeper is an army tank.

Without turning it on, Ronnie could then be encouraged to push it after his father.

After several days of such play, Ronnie can then be persuaded to turn on the motor, under the ruse that the noise is the sound of machine guns blasting the enemy.

Let his father be the enemy while Ronnie turns the vacuum sweeper in the direction and launches an attack.

CHILDREN LIKE OWN NOISE

Children are not greatly disturbed by noise, if they themselves are making the noise! For then they feel no uncertainty about its origin or meaning.

Many nuisance fears that develop in childhood are traceable to unexpected loud noises, such as a dog's sudden barking or a train's shrill whistle. Or a "boo" from somebody hiding in a dark bedroom clothes closet.

But more fundamental than the noise, is probably the child's general nervous tension at the moment.

This is often based on his fear that he may be torn away from his parents or from his familiar environment and thrust into a strange situation.

Never let your child remain a slave to foolish fears when you

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you ask for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

There are always a few diehards and I-won't-play individuals in everything that comes along. They'll be better sportsmen, better citizens and spill less vinegar if they pipe down, creep in a dusty corner and hide.

The Lord meant us to be joyful, play games and smile and laugh as we go along. If you can't play the regular rides, go your own way, but don't try to spoil the fun of those that are celebrating.

Centennial Booster

I can go along with Pontiac having a centennial celebration, but I think it is getting to be just a money grab.

The Kangaroo Court and bonnets and buttons are fine for the week of the centennial.

My husband is laid off and we draw $55 a week for eight people. There are no dollars for bonnets or buttons so I will shop elsewhere to keep out of Kangaroo Court.

Mrs. Charles Goss

Rochester

I think the centennial is fine, but I don't think people should be forced to do things. Many people say if they have to shop on Friday they will go to a nearby town because they are not going to run around looking like clowns.

If all of us came downtown without make-up, the men would send us home. I am not about to wear a sunbonnet, leave my make-up off or pay $2 to be permitted to do as I like.

An Adult Who Tries to Act Like One

Why call it centennial fun? It seems it's just a gag to collect money. You pay to grow a beard or pay not to. The women pay to wear garb or not to wear garb, make-up or no make-up. You can't win for losing.

Disgusted

If many housewives and mothers feel as I do about this centennial costume bit, it may cost the stores in sales.

★ ★ ★

I am going to make myself pretty scarce around town if I have to go in with the fear of being picked up and hauled to "court" just because I cannot afford to purchase their mementos to wear.

'Dislike Divorce? Don't Feel Odd'

One thing that really stirs me up is people who say something is right because it is accepted by society. Divorce has become so much a part of our way of living one feels maybe we're odd for having such strong convictions against it.

I believe the "Bible way" is the only way to live. Jesus said, "Search the Scriptures." They will not confuse anyone who is willing to pray for guidance from God. Fear God, and keep His commandments.

'Need Regulations to Control Boating'

The boating season marks the competition between the boat enthusiasts and the outnumbered fishermen.

The legislature was supposed to impose regulation, but none has passed. Is it possible that the boat companies have considerable lobbying power in Lansing?

The sale of fishing licenses dropped last year and will decline again, primarily because of motorboat activity.

There should be regulations passed that will give both the fisherman and the boater equal opportunity.

Convicted in Murder of 282 at War Camp

ANSBACH, Germany (AP) — A former German concentration camp commandant today was found guilty of the death of 282 camp inmates and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Karl Chmielewski, 58, once was head of the Gusen camp in Austria. Most of the inmates were Poles. More than 10,000 persons are believed to have died in the Gusen camp.

The state attorney described Chmielewski as "one of the worst murderers in history." The defense maintained Chmielewski had only followed orders from higher authorities.

Get Massive Thrust From Rocket Engine

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A massive 1.64 million pounds of thrust was developed recently in a test of the nation's most powerful single-chamber rocket engine.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Tuesday Rocketdyne's F1 liquid propellant rocket engine fired at that level for 13 seconds on April 6.

The engine is designed to operate at a thrust level of 1.5 million pounds. This is the same thrust developed by the eight-engine cluster rocket being developed for the Saturn space vehicle.

The F1, in turn, may be clustered for the huge Nova space vehicle—still not designed—to provide 6 to 9 million pounds of thrust.

Liz Taylor's Family Reunited in California

The youngsters are Michael, 8, and Christopher, 5, Miss Taylor's sons by her second husband, Michael Wilding; and Liza, 3, daughter of her third husband, the late Mike Todd.

Sheriff's Rescue Unit Ends Training

They're Ready to Swim for Safety

Having completed three months training in indoor swimming pools, the sheriff's underwater rescue and recovery auxiliary unit is prepared to take to the lakes for any emergency.

The 35 volunteer members already are augmenting their training by diving deep into area lakes, practicing the methods that can save more lives this summer.

Under the tutelage of Sheriff's Deputy Medward Tessler, who for the past three years has done most of the diving for his department, the men have learned safe methods of underwater rescue and recovery.

Many of the volunteers for scuba diving are also regular deputies. Others are private citizens interested in what is commonly called skin diving, and willing to work with the department towards making Oakland County waters safer for swimmers and boaters.

Actually "skin diver" is a misnomer for underwater divers who wear oxygen tanks for their air supply, according to the experts.

In the strict sense the term skin diving applies to diving without breathing equipment — in the skin as it were, although this interpretation shouldn't be followed too closely.

SEES NECESSITY

The necessity for a trained unit of underwater deputies came to light last winter, when sheriff's divers were searching the depths of then-frigid Green Lake for the body of a drowned scuba diver.

Hundreds of volunteer divers joined the hunt, and in the words of Sheriff Frank Irons, "It was imminent that we might be seeking out two or three more bodies of the would be searchers, who obviously lacked training in this sort of work."

With that, the sheriff's department decided to offer training to as many volunteer skin divers as could physically qualify.

The response was immediate. Those who volunteered included members of the sheriff's department, and other local police units as well as several private citizens. Several airmen from Selfridge Air Force Base have also been training with the group.

The men have formed an expert auxiliary unit and elected officers responsible for its efficient operation. These include safety officers William Periard, who also is president of the organization, Howard Wilcox, Larry Miller and Henry Hansen.

Others are Everett Brown, treasurer; Bob Owen, first aid director; Bob Underwood, program director; and Art Miller, public relations director.

They are on immediate call to perform any underwater rescue and recovery work for the sheriff's department, and have been deputized.

Stewart-Glenn Co. Buys Out the Glenn Interest

Furniture Man's Son Sells

John F. Stewart, president of the Stewart-Glenn Co., organized in 1917, said the company this week acquired the interests held by Robert Glenn, son of one of the founders of the company.

The name of the firm will remain the same.

At the same time, Stewart announced that the transaction will result in the closing of the S-G Warehouse Furniture Sales, 20 Franklin Road. A close-out sale will begin April 6.

No purchase price was disclosed.

The company will center all its business in its store located at 1680 S. Telegraph Road, and hopes to increase the floor space of the two-year-old building by at least 50 per cent, according to Addison K. Oakley, manager and secretary of the company.

Glenn said he sold his interests in the company in order to expand the operations of the Automat Corp. of which he is president.

Films Fan Controversy

LANSING (AP) — The controversial movie, "Operation Abolition," was screened before the State Legislature Tuesday night and evoked mixed emotions that were pro and con — but seldom indifferent.

Some 500 senators, representatives and spectators jammed into the House chamber on a standing-room-only basis to see the film which Gov. Swainson has ordered the state police subversive activities squad to stop showing in public on grounds it contains inaccuracies and distortions.

Protests were voiced over Swainson's actions by American Legion leaders and some Republican legislators.

After the showing, the governor said the order will remain in effect. It also applies to a slide-film presentation, "Communism on the Map," which was not shown to the lawmakers.

Swainson reportedly objects more strongly to "Map," — which purports to trace the expansion of Communism around the world — than to "Operation Abolition," a pieced-together movie on the student riots in San Francisco last May at a hearing of the House Un-America Activities Committee.

Before the film was shown, Speaker Don R. Pears, R-Buchanan, warned the packed House that he would not tolerate any demonstrations before, during or after presentation.

State Police Commissioner Joseph R. Childs said he had some 20 detectives on hand to keep order if necessary. But it wasn't necessary.

Rep. Frederic J. Marshall, R-Allen, who introduced the resolution resulting in the joint legislative meeting, commented:

"I'm disappointed that the governor still refuses to rescind his ban. These films should be viewed by every man, woman and child in America."

HAVE NO QUARREL

But some Republicans said they had no quarrel with the governor's right to order the state police to cease public showings.

Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, R-Grand Ledge, said he sees nothing objectionable in the film itself.

On the other side of the political fence, Rep. Albert R. Horrigan, D-Flint, Democratic floor leader, said he agrees with the governor 100 per cent.

"It's not the function of a state agency to show films like this," he said. "Let the Farm Bureau, the Ladies Aid and the Holy Name Society do it if they want. The film itself doesn't do much to point up the Communist menace.

Msgr. John D. Sloway of the Catholic Social Services of Lansing said he doesn't see what all the excitement is about. He added:

"I'm still trying to figure out what the film is all about. If it's intended to portray Communist methods, it does a fair job. If it is intended to show its philosophy, it's doing poorly."

Hart Will Brief Rowston and Willman May 5

Mayor Philip E. Rowston and City Manager Walter K. Willman will attend Sen. Philip A. Hart's all-day conference in Washington May 5.

Some 216 Michigan mayors have been invited.

Purpose will be to provide the mayors with a better understanding of the benefits available to American cities under new programs of the Kennedy administration.

Hart said that local officials "could help our officials in Washington better understand the problems facing our cities."

The mayors are to pay their own way and make their own travel arrangements. City commissioners agreed to this last night.

The conference will be in the auditorium of the new Senate Office Building.

Hart promised to have top officials from such agencies as the Federal Housing Administration, the Community Facilities Administration, the Defense Department and the Federal Aviation Agency available to answer questions by the mayors.

200 School Children to Chorus at Donelson School on Friday

The Donelson School gymnasium will ring with music Friday afternoon when some 200 fifth and sixth grade children from one Pontiac and two Waterford Township schools get together in the first song fest of its kind in the township.

Under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Proud, the Donelson School will be hosts to choruses from the Sandburg School, directed by Carol Stephens; the Monteith School, directed by Mrs. Helen Glenn; and Pontiac's Baldwin School, directed by Mrs. Rosemary Northorn.

Each group will present several numbers for the other school choruses, and the program will conclude with the four choruses singing together "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Miss Mary Phipps, elementary music supervisor for Waterford Township, will direct the concluding number.

Following the song fest, refreshments will be served in the cafeteria.

Hathaway's white broadcloth wears and wears and wears

Here is a shirt you can wear week after week, year after year. American broadcloth is stalwart stuff. Laundering just adds to its luster. And not one grain of starch is needed to keep it looking crisp all day.

Hathaway tailors this all-cotton shirting with their usual finesse. Strong but tiny stitching. Big, easy-to-handle buttons that won't break or pull off. Extra-long tails that won't wriggle out.

And note the cut of that collar. Hathaway calls it the shorter-point spread—ideal for jackets with slim lapels and cutaway fronts.

The shirt comes with French cuffs. 6.50

Who Does the Cooking in Your House?

BY GAY PAULEY

In a national poll of cooking and marketing habits, 19,000 women discussed who does the cooking in the family and why, who does the marketing, whether hubby is a good cook, what objections wives have to their husbands in the kitchen, and how frequently the man of the house takes over the meal preparation.

Forty-four per cent of the 19,000 women said their husbands now do the food shopping; 42 per cent are preparing at least one meal a day.

An unpublished study made by the same pollsters in 1958 showed only 21 per cent of the men doing the shopping and 28 per cent cooking for their families.

MARKETING TRENDS

The studies were made by the Avery Label Co., of Monrovia, Calif., Cleveland, Ohio, and New Brunswick, N. J., as one of a series of consumer research projects to keep manufacturers and retailers posted on marketing trends.

Annual income of the families polled ranged from $4,400 to $10,000.

The researchers said they questioned in further detail the 42 per cent of women who said their husbands cook. Almost one-third of them answered "yes" to the question: "Does your husband cook better than you?" The rest said no.

Only 11 per cent of the women objected to their husbands in the kitchen—giving varying reasons including, "He messes up too much" and "I have to clean up after he is finished."

But many of the wives praised their husbands for washing dishes and generally tidying up after meal preparation.

To the question, "Why does he cook?" the wives' replies generally ran this way: "We both work;" "It relaxes him;" "To give me a rest;" "It's his hobby;" "I work full-time and he works part-time" and "I don't like to cook."

BARGAIN HUNTERS

As for shopping habits, in families where the men do all the food buying, the women listed such reasons as their own jobs, their lack of time, someone must be at home to care for the children, and only one car in the family.

The 19,000 women agreed by a narrow margin (51 per cent) that husbands are inclined to go beyond what's on a shopping list. But 57 per cent said their husbands are bargain hunters who look for specials and sales items.

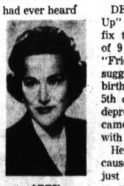
Abby Lets 'Em Talk

Debate Goes On and On

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I boiled when I read the letter from the woman who signed herself "Fed Up." She was annoyed because her clergyman (Protestant) visited her in the hospital after her seventh child was born and asked her if she had ever heard of birth control.



ABBY

She said that the size of one's family was a personal matter. Well, she is gravely mistaken. When children are abandoned by their parents because they can't feed and clothe them properly, who takes care of them?

And who pays for public education and juvenile delinquency and homes for unwed mothers? The taxpayer!

As long as I am a taxpayer, the number of children produced in this country IS my business.

ALSO FED UP

DEAR ABBY: I agree with "FED UP" that the size of one's family is one's own personal business. I know how she must feel because I have born 18 children. I was quite a "curiosity" in town.

People would point me out and make all sorts of foolish remarks about this "tremendous" accomplishment, which was really the most natural thing in the world for a woman to have done.

When they asked, "Why so many?" I would reply, "When I go to face my Supreme Judge He cannot say to me, 'Where are the children I sent you?'" —because I accepted them.

MOTHER OF 18

DEAR ABBY: My hat is off to that minister who asked the woman in the hospital if she had ever heard of birth control.

If that lady can write, I assume she can read. Doesn't she know that in 40 years the population of this world will be doubled? Doesn't she know that today one man with a machine can do the work of 120 men? And if we continue to populate this country at the present rate, unemployment will choke us?

I used to raise pure bred dogs at one time, but just because my dog came in season every six months did not mean I had to breed her that often. But I guess I thought more of my dog than that man did of his wife.

DEAR ABBY: Tell "Fed Up" to cheer up. Time will fix things. I was the mother of 9 when my eldest was 12. "Friends" would come with suggestions all the way from birth control to divorce. Our 5th child was born during the depression, and a cousin even came to take the baby home with her, like a stray kitten.

Her heart was broken because I couldn't spare her just this one . . . ("You have so many!". You should have heard the cruel comments in town. ("Don't they know any better? How ignorant can people be?")

Now, years later, to our faces they tell us how proud we ought to be, and they look with envy upon our 16 beautiful grandchildren. But I can't let myself hate them. There is no room in a mother's heart for hate. It's full of too much real love.

MOTHER OF TEN AND PROUD

DEAR ABBY: "FED UP" is encouraging the very condition she objects to. As the number of people increases, the more limited will become personal freedom of action. One hundred years ago, the number of children a woman had was her business.

Child-bearing is no longer a "personal matter" since the number of children my neighbor has will affect the health and welfare of my children, and vice versa.

Heritage Club Is Given Talk

Mrs. C. W. Salton will read a paper on pressed glass at the May meeting in the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. John Napley on Kellen Lane. Programs for the 1961-2 season will be distributed at the June meeting.

Guests of the group were Mrs. Francis McDowell, Mrs. F. R. MacKercher and Mrs. Walter Obenauf.

Duo Pianists Give Musicale Pleasure

By CHRIS GAENSBAUER

One of the finest programs ever heard by a Tuesday Musicale audience was presented by duo pianist Eugene Bossart and Charles Fisher Tuesday afternoon at Fellowship Hall of Grace Lutheran Church.

Both men are members of the piano staff of the University of Michigan's School of Music. Both have been heard by the club as solo pianists and accompanists, so their artistry was well-known. In spite of this, the large audience was not quite prepared for the exciting musical experience the performers provided as a team.

Mr. Bossart and Mr. Fisher have just begun their career as duo pianists but have already realized a togetherness that some teams take years to achieve. It was as if the music and the emotional expression of it came from one source and flowed in one current throughout the afternoon.

VARIETY OFFERED

Representative compositions of every musical period were performed, some of them refreshingly unfamiliar works in the rather limited two-piano repertory. The classical group included a "Prelude and Gigue" by Zipoli and works by Bach and Mozart. With the clarity needed for this style, the artists demonstrated their brilliant technique, fine balance in the give and take of themes, perfect coordination of notes and apparently identical feelings as to the emotional content of the music.

★ ★ ★

The lovely "Romance" from Rachmaninov's "Second Suite" opened the second group, followed by a Poulenc "Sonata" in three movements. The Poulenc "Waltz" which ended the section was a favorite with the audience. The pianists brought out all the wit and romance possible in a waltz rhythm that was irresistible. They obviously enjoyed it too.

HAVE GREAT FUTURE

Completing the program was the popular "Scaramouche Suite" by Milhaud and two parts of Brahms' "Variations on a Theme by Haydn"—encores at the enthusiastic insistence of the audience.

There seems no doubt that as Mr. Bossart and Mr. Fisher build and polish their repertoire they can have a truly distinguished career as a duo-piano team.

Tuesday Musicale president Mrs. J. B. Forman and vice president Mrs. George H. Putnam reported on the state convention of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs which they attended last week in Battle Creek. Mrs. Ralph Norvell announced the award of the Tuesday Musicale scholarship to Jean Huttula, violinist at Pontiac Central High School. Bridge parties to benefit the scholarship fund will be held April 27.

★ ★ ★

Introducing the artists was Mrs. Donald Hogue. Other committees for the day were Mrs. Harold Steinbaugh and Mrs. J. Robert Greenhalgh, cochairmen of the social committee; Mrs. James W. Briney, Mrs. B. Jack Habel, Mrs. William W. Donaldson and Mrs. Walter Wharton, social committee.

Door hostesses were Mrs. O. L. Smith and Mrs. W. A. Schmitz. At the tea table were Mrs. L. W. Stoddard and Mrs. R. C. Stuckmeyer. Mrs. A. L. Hulet and Mrs. J. A. Ramines were the floral committee.

Couple Exchange Rings at Nuptial High Mass

Wedding rings and vows were exchanged by Joann Anna Rie and Dolan T. Sontag before the Rev. Francis J. O'Donnell at a nuptial high Mass Saturday in St. Michael Church.

The couple, with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rie of Newport Avenue and the Dolan Sontags of Pittsfield Avenue, received some 200 guests at Walt's Hall on Opdyke Road where an orchestra played for dancing following the wedding breakfast.

The bridal gown of white silk organza over taffeta was styled with bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves. Sequin-embroidered Alencon lace formed a panel on the princess bodice and full skirt, styled with bustle back and chapel sweep.

JoAnn Kiszka of Flint attended her cousin as maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Sue Sontag, sister of the bridegroom, Nancy Weaver, Donna Parsons and Donna Mapley.

A purple organza cummerbund distinguished the honor maid's frock of white organza over taffeta, styled with cap sleeves and bustle back. For the bridesmaids, gowned like the honor attendant, there were lavender cummerbunds. All carried white carnations.

MRS. DOLAN T. SONTAG

The mother of the bride appeared in lavender silk organza over taffeta and the bridegroom's mother chose green silk organza. Both wore pink carnations.

Leaving for a two-week honeymoon near Denver, Colo., the new Mrs. Sontag was wearing a light blue wool suit. A home on First Avenue awaits the newlyweds on their return.

What's In a Name? It Still Has Calories!

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Oregon School Food Service Association defines the school lunch this way:

In the primary grades it's a threat;
In the grades it's a contest;
"My plate's clean first; can I have my seconds now?"
In the faculty room it's a wail;
"If I eat it, I'll get fat."
In the kitchen it's a worry;
"Will they like it today?"
To the manager it's a challenge;
"How can I make it on this budget?"
To the federal government it's a type A. meal;
One glass of milk
Two ounces of protein food
Three-fourths cup fruit or vegetable
Bread and butter.

Exercise Is Optional

Diet Your Pounds Away

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Why just hover around a good figure? If a woman is only five or 10 pounds too much, she is apt to drift without doing anything about it. Yet just this much can make the difference between only a fair figure and a lovely one.

It seems especially too bad since she can lose this much weight in such a short time.

As most of you know, I am bringing you my nine-day Reducing Diet this week. Many women wonder whether they can make some substitutions if there is some food they do not like.

The answer is yes. However, be certain to substitute in the same category. In other words, do not substitute a vegetable for meat or a soft drink for fruit juice.

SAME CATEGORY

Also be sure that your substitution is in the same category so far as calories are concerned. Some vegetables and fruits have more calories than others. My Nine-Day Diet booklet gives you help with substitutions.

Women ask, too, if they should exercise on the Nine-Day Diet.

You can lose the pounds without the exercises, but if you wish to tone up the muscles while you do so, try this: Stand erect with your feet a comfortable distance apart, arms raised over head, hands clasped together. Bend over as far toward the floor as you can, keeping knees straight.

Raise the trunk and arms, stretching up toward the ceiling. Twist toward the right as you raise trunk the first time.

BREAKFAST

One poached egg on toast
Black coffee

You don't have to exercise while you diet, but you may wish to tone up your muscles while you lose pounds as this girl is doing.

LUNCHEON

One medium hamburger cake (cooked without butter and made of lean meat)
Celery sticks
One glass skimmed milk
Two raw carrots

DINNER

Small lean steak
One-half cup cauliflower
One baked potato (no butter. Medium sized potato has only about 90 calories)
One orange
One glass skimmed milk before bedtime

If you have missed some of the Nine-Day Diet and would like to have the complete diet with directions in a small booklet form, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Many Women Crude When Out in Public

By RUTH MILLETT

Women have often tried to be "just as good as men" in one endeavor after another. But it seems they have overlooked one bet.

★ ★ ★

We make more noise in public than do men.

We cause more commotion in restaurants, taking longer to decide what we will eat, then often changing our minds and our order, etc. And for this extra trouble, we leave smaller tips, than men.

We sit in waiting rooms, hotel lobbies, and all such public places and stare with hard, appraising eyes at every other woman who passes.

We haven't men's knack for being friendly and at the same time impersonal with strangers. Instead we either appear aloof and standoffish or entirely too quick to become confidential on short acquaintance.

All too often we accept men's courtesies without thanks, apparently assuming that having doors held open for us is our natural right.

It just hasn't seemed to occur to women that when it comes to public politeness men are way ahead of them, and that here would be a fine place to start showing the world we are "just as good as men."

Some thoughts for the other half of the team are in Ruth Millett's "Happier Wives (hints for husbands)." Just send 25 cents to Ruth Millett Reader Service, care of The Pontiac Press, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N.Y.

Always Ask Reason Why You Are Angry

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Because of the little sister's lack of consideration, the arrangement made it impossible for Mrs. W to maintain any order she had made.

Her school books were always getting lost under the jumble of Cora's so that she never could find one where she'd put it.

Mornings, as she would braid her hair for school before their mirror Cora would elbow her aside, pull open her bureau drawer and say, "Have you got my clean slip in here"?

Since complaining of this situation only made their mama angry, Mrs. W stopped complaining — and with increasing but unexpressed resentment endured the disorder forced on her.

SHOOK HER FINGER

As her mother took it in, anger tightened to fury in her chest. Calling Mona, she pointed a shaking finger at the items of disorder and asked God to tell her what she'd done to deserve such an inconsiderate child. She said many other hurtful but ineffective things.

They were ineffective because Mona had no way of knowing that the intense anger she had exploded belonged not to her but to her Aunt Cora.

She is not aware of the sense of injustice accumulated by years of her mother's struggle with her younger sister's lack of co-operation. Nobody has ever told her that those years developed a special need for consideration in her mother.

All Mona knew was that her mother's anger was out of proportion to her offense.

We can't expect children to know why some kind of misbehavior explodes extravagant anger in us. So when we explode it, we have to wonder why an untidy bathroom, a broken promise, a criticism seems the very last straw to us. We have to wonder whether we have somehow confused the child who has affronted us with someone else who has affronted us.

We have to learn to ask ourselves:

"Why does this special kind of misbehavior arouse such anger in me?"

SEW SIMPLE

"Dear Mrs. Farmer:

"I am making a robe that is giving me fits. How can I attach these pieces without spoiling the 'V' Shape?"

Mrs. J.C.C.

Do not machine stitch the center back seam all the way to the edge of fabric. Instead, stitch to a mark ⅝" from the edge and then back stitch. The edge you have left open will make it possible for you to fit the yoke in and still have a perfect "V".

If you are fitting in a similar type part of your pattern where there is no seam at the point of the V, you should reinforce each side of the V by stitching on the seamline and then CLIP the fabric to the point you have reinforced. You will now proceed as above.

"Dear Eunice:

"However, the other night on TV, June Allyson had on a beautiful dress with the buttonholes on the left side. Which way is correct?"

Mrs. M.C.

"Rules are made to be broken," as the old saying goes. There is a rule that is more or less standardized for men's and women's clothes concerning the direction for the closing.

In more expensive clothes, designers take great joy in doing the unconventional just to be unique. This is undoubtedly the reason for the unusual closing in the dress you saw.

SHE NEEDS EASE

"Dear Eunice,

"I have what they call a large 'rib-cage' and when a sheath dress is fitted like most of them are, it is much too tight above my waistline. It also doesn't look very good. Is there some special kind of pattern that would look good on me?"

Mrs. C.S.

Dear Mrs. C.S.:

Instead of making one large dart under the bustline, I would suggest making one smaller dart and one small, unpressed pleat. This would give you some ease above the waistline.

You could also gather the fabric allowed for darts and have a slightly bloused effect for the bodice. I would avoid a tight-fitting bodice.

Busy Kids Have No Time for Breakfast

By EUGENE GILBERT
President, Gilbert Youth Research Co.

"Life," said Nathaniel Hawthorne a century ago, "has few pleasanter prospects than a well provisioned breakfast table."

And of the 74 per cent who do, only a scant 7 per cent sit down to what could be called a well-provisioned board.

"Breakfast usually is crammed into about three minutes every morning," said Ann Hege, 15, of State College, Pa.

Hers was a typical comment, expressed another way by 16-year-old Judy Wilkes of Seattle, Wash. Judy eats breakfast every morning, she said, "unless I'm late for school."

Time, or the lack of it appears to be the deciding factor, because 67 per cent of the teen-agers (56 per cent of the boys and 78 per cent of the girls) say they have a bigger breakfast on weekends and holidays.

THEY EAT AND EAT

But this isn't always the case. Mary J. Hall, 18, of Louisville, Ky., for example, spoke for the 38 per cent (44 per cent boys and 31 per cent girls) who eat a medium sized breakfast every day — holidays included.

"In the morning," said Mary, "all I want is something to keep my stomach from growling."

The great majority (72 per cent) make up for a small or medium breakfast with between-meal snacks, and 33 per cent of the boys and 19 per cent of the girls said they had a hot lunch. The rest eat sandwiches for lunch.

And there are the real trencher-men, like 16-year-old Roy Duncan of Seattle, who eats a breakfast of bacon and eggs, hotcakes, coffee and toast, and for lunch puts away three sandwiches, a bowl of soup, a banana and a slice of cake.

Roy is among the 25 per cent of the boys and 15 per cent of the girls who don't eat between meals.

"Three meals a day is enough for anyone," declared Emily Simons, 17, of Eugene, Ore. But Emily and Roy are in the minority.

Judy Brink, 16, of Waterloo, Iowa, likes to have a sack of popcorn handy because "it fills you up fast;" Carla Fagan, 15, of Brooklyn, N.Y. confesses she has a yen for candy; Eileen Bernstein, 15, of New York, calls herself "a tuna fish addict;" and undiscerning Rocky Kershaw, 15, of State College, says he'll eat "anything that happens to be in the cupboards."

If their eating habits appear unusual to adults, the teen-agers can point to the fact that 69 per cent of them (75 per cent boys and 63 per cent girls) don't feel they have a weight problem.

Girls, perhaps, are more conscious of these matters. Twenty-six per cent of them felt they were over weight (or, like 16-year-old Debby Rubin, 16, of New York, "overweight in places"), and 53 per cent of them said, they had been on a diet at one time or another.

Only 15 per cent of the boys had found it necessary to diet, and they seemed to be more successful at it than the girls.

Just 2 per cent of the boys, compared with 12 per cent of the girls, said they had not maintained the weight they established after dieting.

Sue Cook, Raymond Freebury

Marry in Fenton Church

Following a wedding luncheon for some 150 guests at the Hotel Fenton, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Cook Jr., opened their home for an afternoon reception. The Raymond E. Freeburys of Blaine Avenue are parents of the bridegroom.

The bridal gown of white Chantilly lace and silk organza over taffeta was styled with molded bodice and chapel train. A halo of handmade simulated orange blossoms secured the veil of silk illusion.

Mrs. James B. Morse of Otemos attended her sister as matron of honor and Mrs. Fred Mueller of Drayton Plains served as bridesmaid. They wore identical dreses of orchid silk with harem-style skirts and wreaths of orchid straw. Champagne cymbidium orchids and ivy comprised their semi-cascade bouquets.

The couple will live in Spartan Village, East Lansing, while Mr. Freebury completes his senior studies at Michigan State University. His bride attended Ferris Institute, Big Rapids.

For the ceremony and reception, Mrs. Cook appeared in champagne Chantilly lace with short jacket, worn with beige accessories. Pink sweetheart roses were pinned to her purse. The mother of the bridegroom chose a beige and blue silk sheath dress, and an off-the-face flower hat. Her purse corsage was yellow tea roses.

Advice to Career Gals:

Live Alone, Like It or Learn These Rules

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — If you're a working girl who isn't completely sold on living alone, you may be tempted to exchange your privacy for a roommate who will help you face the landlord on the first of every month.

Yet if you're not the roommate type, you may live miserably ever after. And so might your roommate.

His own frustrating search for a compatible man to share the high cost of his big city apartment led the handsome 32-year-old bachelor into business last spring.

Since then he has found a suitable tenant for himself, and he has also evaluated apartments, interviewed, investigated and eventually matched up hundreds of applicants. Baum says he has had almost 100 per cent satisfied clients.

During an applicant's interview he gathers personal and financial information and makes notes about appearance and personality traits. He follows up by questioning past landlords, acquaintances and creditors.

If the professional roommate-finder does not like what he discovers, or if a woman hedges about her age or balks at certain questions, Baum becomes wary. Or, if he notes in conversation that his applicant is extremely emotional, strongly opinionated, or unduly withdrawn, he politely suggests she would be happier living alone.

However, for those who are the types who can sacrifice privacy without suffering, there are other advantages besides shared expenses. Two can divide cooking and housekeeping chores and two can multiply friendships.

THE LAW

Baum offers these rules as a guide to being a better roommate:

1. Make up your mind that nobody is going to see eye-to-eye all the time.

2. Be considerate of the other person's sleeping habits.

3. Keep reasonably neat about belongings, but don't be so fastidious that you are nerve-wracking to live with.

4. Reach a common agreement about house rules. Avoid being bossy.

5. Hire someone to clean the apartment at least once a week, if possible. The expenditure will prevent battles on the homefront.

6. Work out an equitable agreement for sharing food bills according to the average number of meals eaten at home.

7. Don't borrow your roommate's clothing or toilet articles.

8. Be quiet but don't be too quiet. Nobody likes to live with a vegetable.

9. Entertain and expect your roommate to entertain. But keep each other advised as to expected guests so that each may or may not join the party as he likes.

Hostess Allowed to Slip

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My husband and I were invited to a rather large tea and cocktail party last Sunday. The host and hostess were people we had met only twice before. When the hostess introduced us to some of the other guests, she mispronounced our name, and I immediately corrected her.

My husband took me to task later and said that I had embarrassed the hostess by doing this. He thinks I should have just let it go. I can't see that there was anything wrong in what I did and would like your opinion on the matter.

A: If she had used the wrong name in introducing you, you would have been right in correcting her, but it would have been better to let her mispronouncing of the right name go unnoticed at a big party where many rather casual introductions were being made.

Q: I recently received an invitation to a church wedding and reception. The invitation did not carry the usual RSVP so I did not reply and I understand that several other guests did not reply either. We were told later that RSVP was unnecessary and that anyone receiving an invitation to a wedding reception should know enough to acknowledge it. Will you please tell me if we were wrong?

A: You were not wrong. The family of the bride should have added RSVP to their invitations if they were interested in knowing how many would come to the reception.

Q: When speaking of my husband to my son's young friends — 19 to 21 age bracket —I refer to him as Mr. Jones. My son thinks this sounds very snobby and that I should refer to him by his given name, Bill. Your opinion, please.

A: Correctly, you refer to him as "my husband."

PINOLE, Calif. (UPI) — Mark Ferreira, 5, is told to stay in bed even though he awakes an hour before his parents. He disobeyed these orders recently when he awoke to find the home was burning.

He called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ferreira, who managed to get Mark and two other children, Nancy, 3, and David, 11, to safety.

He Finds Races in New Guinea Mingle Well

PORT MORESBY, New Guinea — Prominent Australian Methodist churchman Reverend Arthur Preston said at the end of a three-week visit to the Australian Territory of Papua, New Guinea he had seen little evidence of racial discrimination.

Five different nationalities had been represented at a church service he had conducted at Rabaul (New Britain), and there were multi-racial schools in Rabaul and Port Moresby.

The general opinion arising from conferences he had had with indigenous leaders and officials of the administration was that it would take at least 30 years to prepare the indigenous peoples of the territory for self-government.

Area Officials to Act on Sewage Plant Plans?

OXFORD — Officials of Oxford, Lake Orion, Orion Township and Oxford Township may decide Tuesday on preliminary plans for construction of a sewage treatment plant to serve the four municipalities.

Representatives of the Oakland County Department of Public Works and the engineering firm of Johnson and Anderson, Inc., which are working together on the plans, also are slated to attend.

Smalley, who was instructed to set up the special session, said official confirmation of the meeting date will not be made until officials of all four municipalities indicate that will be able to attend.

The State Department of Health already has approved the location of the proposed plant at a site south of Lake Orion.

The village councils of Lake Orion and Oxford agreed last June on the need for sanitary sewage disposal facilities in the area before the proposed Clinton River Sewage Disposal System is developed.

Donald L. Ringler, deputy DPW director, advised the communities that the Clinton River system, which would serve 13 municipalities in northeast Oakland County, is still a long-range project.

Because of this, Ringler advised officials to construct interim plants which would serve the needs of this area for the next 10 years.

The interim plant later could be worked into the Clinton River system when it is completed, Ringler said.

In local business last night the Council voted to change two thoroughfares in the village into one-way streets.

Under the revised setup, Stanton Street would be one way eastbound from Mill Street to South Washington Street. Mill Street will be northbound one way from Stanton Street to East Burdick Street.

Name Troy Firm in Electric Suit

Kuhlman Firm Is 1 of 3 Listed as Defendant in Price, Bid Fixing

The Government yesterday filed additional suits asking millions of dollars in damages against 11 of the 29 electrical firms recently convicted of price fixing and bid rigging including Kuhlman Electric Co. of Troy.

Named as the main defendants in all six complaints were General Electric Corp. and Westinghouse Electric Corp. Allis Chalmers Manufacturing Co. was named in four suits and a coconspirator in another.

The Troy firm, located at 2565 E. Maple Road, was one of three concerns named as a defendant in one suit. The other two are Cutler-Hammer Co. of Milwaukee and Square D Co. of Detroit.

Four other firms also were named.

The suits allege the companies as early as 1956 defrauded the government by fixing noncompetitive prices and bids that were substantially and unreasonably high.

According to Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, the Justice Department's antitrust and false claims suits covered six types of electrical equipment sold to the Tennessee Valley Authority Defense Department and other agencies.

Yesterday's action followed by two months the conviction of 29 companies and 44 of their executives.

Working Hard to Delay Trial

Defense for Lassiter and Watson Pull Out Stops in Murder Case

Defense attorneys for 38-year-old Beverly Hills widow Mrs. Nelle Lassiter and Gordon Watson are maneuvering frantically in a last-ditch effort to delay the couple's murder trial.

Several motions have been filed in Wayne County Circuit Court following the State Supreme Court's refusal to delay the trial which is scheduled to begin Monday.

The state's highest tribunal denied a motion by Mrs. Lassiter's attorney that the trial be postponed to give him time to prepare an appeal of a ruling by Wayne Circuit Judge Joseph G. Rashid.

Rashid refused on March 13 to quash murder and conspiracy charges against the pair in the April 1959 murder of Mrs. Lassiter's husband, Parvin (Bill) Lassiter, wealthy Royal Oak auto dealer.

The Supreme Court gave no reasons for denying the defense motion.

The court had earlier rejected a defense plea that Rashid be disqualified as trial judge on grounds that he would be prejudiced because he heard the murder trial of three Chattanooga, Tenn., men who pleaded guilty to reduced charges of second degree murder.

Meanwhile, several other defense motions were filed which, if granted, could delay the scheduled start of the long awaited trial.

Ralph R. Goldsmith and Harry K. Rosen, Watson's attorneys, filed motions for a separate trial for Watson, a former business associate of Lassiter and now a resident of Los Angeles.

Stalling Tax Return Only Makes Headache Bigger

Taxpayers who haven't filed their income tax returns may think they've got headaches now, but it's nothing compared to what they'll suffer a week from today—if they still have their tax forms.

Persons still trying to figure out ways to make ends meet had better make up their minds to pay now and mail their forms. The "ends" will be further apart than ever by next Wednesday.

All income tax forms must be postmarked not later than midnight, April 17. To file later means you will have to pay more, in the form of a penalty for late payment.

The Pontiac Branch Office of the Internal Revenue Department is located at 65 Oakland Ave. It will be open today, Thursday, Friday and Monday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Taxpayers with problems may call the office for assistance (FE 2-0208) or bring their forms in for direct assistance.

The usual deadline of midnight April 15 was moved to April 17 because it falls on a weekend this year.

To Show Work of 600 Students at Art Exhibition

Over 600 students in elementary, junior and senior high school art classes have entered art work in the second annual "Art Builds Creativity" exhibition of the Oakland Art Education Association. The 10 day exhibit, free to the public opens Thursday at 3 p.m. in the geodesic dome, located on the Northwestern Highway side of the J. L. Hudson Co. store at Northland Shopping Center.

The exhibit will show a cross section of art work done by children in kindergarten through the 12th grade, and acquaint the public with the wide range of art education activities being done in the public schools of Oakland County.

Leo Dworkin, Oak Park schools, president; Margaret Nichols, Birmingham schools, vice president; Howard Malwitz, Birmingham schools, secretary; and Harvey Sterns, Oak Park schools, treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Also Earl Smith, Southfield schools, membership chairman; Dorothy Rossetti, Birmingham schools, program chairman; Pete Mangiaracina, Royal Oak schools, exhibits chairman; Harold Jaslow, Oak Park schools, assistant exhibits chairman; Julius Kusey, and Sue Preston, Rochester schools, and Faye Geyman, Birmingham schools, exhibits committee.

Scandal Feared by Broomfield

Says Pages Shouldn't Be Allowed to Roam Unsupervised in D.C.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Mich., said today he thinks Congress is "sitting on a keg of dynamite" in permitting its teen-age page boys to roam unsupervised in Washington.

"One of these days we are going to have a real scandal or a tragedy," Broomfield told a reporter, "and we'll have no one but ourselves to blame."

Broomfield and others have sponsored bills in the past to establish supervised residence for the 75 congressional pages from all over the country who now make their own housing arrangements. None of the bills ever has become law.

The Michigan Republican's proposal, which he supported at a House Administration Committee hearing Tuesday, also would require that the pages be selected on merit rather than by the seniority of their congressional sponsors.

Broomfield said the risks of letting inexperienced youngsters run free in a strange city after their congressional errands are completed is compounded by "the good salaries these boys are making." He added:

"Many a full-grown man in my congressional district would be envious of this pay scale. These boys are getting $362.58 a month, or $270.80 take-home pay."

Bar Denied Saginaw Site

For a variety of reasons, City commissioners last night denied the bid by a so-called "skid row" bar in the urban renewal clearance area to relocation in a new spot on downtown Saginaw Street.

David E. Utley, Pontiac lawyer representing David Saks, owner of Ivan's Bar, 42 S. Saginaw St., said after the rebuff that he would consider legal action to force the city to allow Saks to transfer his Class C and SDM liquor licenses to a place at 4 N. Saginaw.

OPPOSED BY MANY

Robert Sneed, manager of J.C. Penny Co., 17 S. Saginaw St.; Dr. Jerry Lynn, owner of Lynn Jewelers & Opticians, 1 S. Saginaw St.; and property agent Howard J. Muldowney, representing the interests of a number of downtown properties, all expressed opposition in person.

Commissioner John A. Dugan voiced opposition with the qualification that the commission "still has no firm policy against bars relocating on Saginaw."

Commissioner William H. Taylor Jr. was against the move because, he said, there is already one bar across the street from 4 N. Saginaw and three more a block or so east of there. He said concentration of bars contributed to "skid row" conditions.

Commissioner Wesley J. Wood, representing the east side of Saginaw Street, said relocation on Saginaw would "defeat the purpose of urban renewal."

Acknowledging the neighborhood opposition, Commissioner Robert A. Landry nevertheless predicted that the city was walking a legal tightrope in denying a transfer to a legal business.

"In essence we're giving a monopoly to the bars on Saginaw Street north of the urban renewal project and we won't get away with it forever," he warned.

Commissioner Winford E. Bottom, angered two weeks ago when an East Pike Street bar was permitted to transfer to his neighborhood over his objections, claimed there was no policy against relocation on Saginaw.

Mayor Rowston indicated that he would favor relocations to downtown side streets, but not to Saginaw Street.

He said this was in line with the thinking of the administration and urban renewal planners.

FOUR OTHER BARS

Besides Ivan's, there are four other bars affected by urban renewal that are still without new homes.

Utley claimed the commission had ignored professed plans for a "high-class" bar under a new name, such as Ivan's Place or Music Bar.

He said a big financial investment in the new place would provide a new atmosphere "lovely to look at and lovely to be in, just as nice as any place on Saginaw Street."

The threat of a law suit came after Utley mentioned the heavy investment involved in a Saginaw Street liquor license.

"The commission is destroying our business and our investment," he said.

Mother Held in Kidnaping

Pontiac police today were holding Mrs. Rachel Balch, 23-year-old mother accused of kidnaping her 5-year-old daughter from a foster home in Ortonville last June. The child is being cared for today at the Oakland County Juvenile Home.

Both the mother and child had been sought by police since June 18.

They were found by police yesterday while officers were investigating an auto theft at 86 Cottage St. Mrs. Balch, a divorcee, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. John L. Schmidt there. She had her daughter with her.

Charged with carrying away a child under 14 from a legal guardian, she was arrested on a warrant, and will be turned over today to Pontiac State Police, who originally investigated the kidnaping.

Mrs. Balch allegedly forced her way into the home of the child's foster parent, Mrs. Frank Bouren at 603 Barron Road in Ortonville, and took the youngster.

The mother is separated from her husband and had returned here to attempt a reconciliation, she said.

A 7-year-old Avon Township girl was reported in satisfactory condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with injuries sustained when she darted into the side of a moving car in front of her home yesterday.

The driver of the car, Lee T. Lamoreaux, 45, of 1660 N. Britton Drive, Avon Township, said the child suddenly darted from the curb into the side of his car as he came to the top of a hill.

He told sheriff's deputies he was driving at about 25 miles an hour. He was not held.

County Working on Water Safety

Plans to Spend $20,000 for 10 More Deputies on Lakes Patrol Duty

Oakland County will spend $20,000 this summer to make its water wonderland the safest in the country.

The board of supervisors yesterday approved granting an additional $5,000 to Sheriff Frank Wirons' water safety program, which will be its fourth year of operation. Already $5,000 had been appropriated.

Supervisors approved asking the state to match the $10,000 county contribution.

Sgt. Donald Kratt, director of the safety division of the sheriff's office, said the additional money will provide for 10 additional deputies to patrol the county's 423 lakes, bringing to a total of 45 the men available.

It also will provide compensation for what the men themselves used to pay for gasoline, bonds, insurance on boats, and radios; as well as providing for 12 trained Skuba divers.

"This will provide us with the best all-around program in the country," Kratt said.

He said instead of the one diver who used to be available on each shift, there will be four.

"This will mean faster and safer recovery than in the past when we had to dive alone, which is against all diving safety codes," Kratt said.

Kratt said the divers had just completed a course at the Pontiac Central High School pool, where they were trained to go to depths of 60 feet.

Asks Leveling of Condemned Kennett Houses

He said that at least a half dozen ramshackle buildings, vacant since condemned by the health department several years ago, still are standing in the area north of Kennett Road and east of the Kennett Road dump.

The eyesores, Bottom said, discourage improvements to other homes in the neighborhood, although the area is experiencing a rejuvenation now that it is serviced with sewers.

"People out there find it hard to get home improvement loans because the condemned dwellings still exist," Bottom said.

City Manager Walter K. Willman promised to pass Bottom's report to the substandard housing committee. If owners of the condemned houses won't level them voluntarily, the city will have to turn to legal action, he said.

Pontiac Cub Scout Pack 25 will be the first youthful group to take advantage of North Central Airlines for an unusual outing.

Fifteen cubs are scheduled to fly from Pontiac Municipal Airport to Bishop Field at Flint Saturday morning, returning by car after a tour of the Flint airport.

A four of the new Pontiac terminal building will precede the scheduled 10:12 a.m. takeoff in a North Central Convair.

Flint is the first stop on the regularly scheduled morning flight between Pontiac and Sault Ste. Marie. The price to Flint is $5.50 a person.

J. O. Edwards, North Central stationmaster, said the company is promoting similar trips by other Pontiac groups, both children and adults.

Claim Ann Arbor Man Cast Ballot Twice

ANN ARBOR (UP) — A University of Michigan laboratory technician faces a court hearing on charges that he voted twice — once by absentee ballot and once in person — in last week's spring election.

Ronald Pivnick, 28, will appear for examination next Monday on the charge, a felony. He demanded the exam at arraignment before Acting Municipal Judge Chandler A. Rogers and was freed under $100 bond.

★ ★ ★

Pivnick was arrested after the city clerk's office discovered he had voted by absentee ballot from Washington, D.C., before the election and again last Monday at a local polling place.

Police quoted Pivnick as saying he "forgot about the absentee ballot."

They are all getting set for the McVittie School Fair in Waterford Township, to be held Saturday. There will be "Rickey the clown," game rooms, white elephant booths, and a carousel and pony rides outside. A ham dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p. m., and all proceeds from the fair will be given to purchase an opaque projector for the school. Pontiac Press Photo

DETROIT (UP)—A prepaid group dental-care plan was approved by the Michigan State Dental Association at its annual conference Monday.

The Michigan Dental Service Corp. was formed to administer the plan.

Dr. F. Darl Ostrander, a University of Michigan dentistry professor who was named president of the administrative corporation, said the plan would cover limited dental work only, such as fillings, gum diseases and denture work.

Teacher Pay Is Top Problem

Education Board Faces Big Decisions

The Pontiac Board of Education will be asked to make several major decisions during its regular meeting Thursday night at 7:30 in the central administration building, 40 Patterson St.

Board members will be asked to approve an operating budget, a salary schedule for teachers and recommendations for probationary and tenure status for teachers.

Contracts also are expected to be awarded for rehabilitation projects at Lincoln Junior High School and Webster and Whitfield Elementary Schools, and for National Defense Education Act projects at Pontiac Central High, Bagley and Whitfield elementary schools.

The board also will be asked to approve a request for summer use of school facilities by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept., and will hear a report on preliminary plans for an addition to Jefferson Junior High School.

The hottest item on the agenda is expected to be teacher salary schedules. Administrators, in working with teacher representatives, have proposed an increase in the pay schedule totaling about $175,000.

Board members have indicated willingness to approve this, but feel that a higher pay increase would necessitate either a higher school tax rate or a cut in other services.

REJECTED BY TEACHERS

Representatives of the Pontiac Federation of Teachers and the Pontiac Education Association have rejected the $175,000 increase as insufficient to bring them into a favorable salary position with teachers in other school districts in the Detroit metropolitan area.

Teacher representatives are expected to make new proposals at tomorrow's meeting. Their initial proposals asked for pay raises totaling from $360,000 to $385,000.

The operating budget must be adopted at this meeting. The school system is required to submit its 1961-62 operating budget to the County Tax Allocation Board by April 15.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, school superintendent, is expected to place a $9,719,777 budget before board members for adoption.

This figure represents the total needs of the school district during the coming school year. It is estimated that $9,300,462 operating budget would keep the school system operating at its present level without necessitating an appreciable tax rate increase.

A supplementary budget of $419,315 will be included in figure for presentation to the tax allocation board.

NO CHANGE ASSUMED

The board assumes that allocated millage to the school district will remain the same in 1961-62 and supplementary budget estimates will have to be cut before final adoption in June.

The bulk of supplemental needs lies in the fields of maintenance and instruction.

Dr. Philip J. Froud, assistant superintendent, will present the probationary and tenure teacher recommendations.

He is expected to recommend 74 teachers for tenure status, 106 for a second year of probation, and three for a third probationary year.

Under state law, teachers must work in a school system for a two- or three-year probationary period, whichever the local board chooses, before they may be granted tenure status.

Backers of Week Get 5,000 Copies of Home Booklet

The city's Substandard Housing Committee has furnished an initial printing of 5,000 copies of a 12-page booklet entitled Homeowners Handbook to the sponsors of "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up Week."

The booklet will be distributed by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Pontiac Board of Realtors, the Pontiac Lumber, Fuel & Builders Supply Exchange and other organizations.

"The booklet is being published by the city at this time in hopes it will stimulate home improvement efforts throughout the city in connection with the centennial," said City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Some of the subjects:

Tempest, Pontiac Chrome Termed Firm's Best Ever

A highly reliable front-and-rear-bumper plating process is providing new 1961 Pontiac and Tempest owners with unprecedented chrome protection, according to S. E. Knudsen, General Motors vice president and Pontiac Motor Division general manager.

Called the duplex nickel process, the treatment features application of two layers of nickel over a copper plate before the final coating of conventional chrome.

"Pontiac field service reports indicate the added nickel layer is improving chrome life even in areas where rust and corrosion are accelerated by winter road salt or high humidity," Knudsen says.

"The layer of copper is buffed to a high lustre," he continues, "which contributes to an exceptional mirror-bright finish on the completed bumper."

Electronic test equipment in the manufacturing laboratory checks plating density to one-millionth of an inch and at least one set of bumpers per day is subjected to a harsh, 18-hour salt spray test to determine chrome durability.

Meany Opposes 'Buy American'

Says Anti-Import Cry Can Do Real Harm to U.S. Workers

Meany spelled out the AFL-CIO's position on anti-import drives in a letter to Larry Russell, secretary of the union label committee of the Polk County Labor Council in Des Moines, Iowa.

"Many millions of Americans are dependent for their livelihood on the sale overseas of the goods they produce," Meany stated.

"The United States cannot help to sell goods on the world market unless we are willing to buy goods from other free nations," he said.

If this nation stops trading with other free world countries, Meany said, they would be forced to deal with Communist-bloc nations and assist the Communist cause.

"For these reasons—jobs of U.S. workers, U.S. economic health and U.S. foreign policy—we must support more, not less foreign trade," the AFL-CIO leader said.

The AFL-CIO will insist that action be taken to deal with "real harm to American workers and U.S. industries that may result from large-scale foreign imports of certain products," he said.

Okay Water Contract for New Courthouse

A water system for the new county courthouse in the County Service Center moved another step closer yesterday when the board of supervisors approved executing a $83,553 contract for the project.

The board of auditors was authorized to approve the contract for the work with the Pontiac firm of Eames & Brown, 55 E. Pike St.

The plumbing firm submitted the low bid among six companies which sought the job. The engineer's estimate was $85,000.

Supervisors approved taking $44,000 out of a special construction fund for water mains and $39,553 from the county's contingent fund to pay for the work.

Shell's automotive experts have developed many ways to make their own cars run better and last longer. The numbers on this classic 1930 V-16 indicate some of the areas deserving attention, as described below.

Shell recommends 21 ways to make your car last longer

Shell scientists dedicate their working lives to the care and feeding of automobiles.

They can offer dozens of tips on prolonging the life of your second biggest investment. Here are some useful samples:

AMERICANS spend more than 2 billion dollars a year on automotive replacement parts. This expense is enough to give every man, woman, and child in the U. S. a $12 birthday present.

With a little care you can avoid much of this expense and keep your car youthful. Here are a few tips from Shell's experts.

1. Break in a new car properly. A long break-in period at low speed is no longer necessary. But manufacturers recommend:

A. Don't accelerate at full throttle or change gears abruptly. Sudden shocks to gears in the rear axle and transmission can cause lasting damage.

B. Vary your speeds—and especially avoid sustained high speed.

C. Try not to stop too suddenly—it can harm brake surfaces.

2. Warm up slowly. Racing an engine to warm it up ages it fast. A short warm-up at moderate speed is good for your car even in summer, and even more necessary during colder months when the oil tends to move sluggishly at first. Never race your cold engine to warm up, though. It may damage critical working parts before lubrication can be fully established.

3. Use your engine to save your brake linings. Anticipate your slowdowns. Use the brake as little as possible.

When you see you'll have to slow down, take your foot off the accelerator early and let the engine's compression do some of the job.

4. Have your engine's spark timing set to proper specifications. The spark timing determines whether your plugs fire at exactly the right instant. With incorrect timing you lose power and cut mileage. Also your car may knock. Chronic knocking can eventually damage your engine.

5. Use a gasoline that controls knock. If your engine persists in knocking, you may need a gasoline with more anti-knock components, for a higher octane rating.

6. Learn to read tail pipe smoke signals. Blue smoke means too much oil is getting into the combustion chambers.

Excessive blue smoke is a warning that piston rings may be worn—and need replacing. Your mechanic calls this a "ring job."

White smoke is mostly water vapor. Don't worry about it. Your engine makes a gallon of water for every gallon of gasoline burned. On cold days some of this shows up as vapor.

7. Have your oil checked whenever you fill up with gasoline. An oil check is a simple safety check for your engine. It is also free, and takes less than a minute.

By the way, oil does not wear out. But it can be lost through leaks or burning. And it does get dirty. Worse yet, oil can become contaminated by combustion by-products—including acid.

To be really safe, use new Shell X-100® Premium Motor Oil. It only costs about $3.60 more per year than regular oils—no more than most premiums.

New Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil fights engine acid a brand-new way—with an amazing chemical shield that clings tightly to all metal surfaces.

For most cars Shell recommends an oil change once a month in winter, every 60 days in summer—never more than 2,000 miles between changes.

8. Avoid high speeds and save your tires. Every extra mile your tires last is money in your pocket. High speeds increase wear drastically—by as much as 80% over normal wear—so it pays to go easy.

9. Rotate tires every 5,000 miles. Your tires will last longer because they will all wear evenly, and at the same rate. Note: See your Shell dealer for a set of valve caps; they will prevent air from getting out and dirt from getting in around the tire valve.

10. Check wheel alignment and balance. The shock of hitting curbs or dropping into deep holes can cause misalignment.

An out-of-line wheel can increase tire wear as much as 50 per cent. An unbalanced wheel pounds the tire against the pavement, wearing the tread unevenly.

11. Save your battery with 11¢ worth of baking soda. Dirt and corrosion can actually cause current leaks—and can shorten your battery's life by many months. If corrosion is visible, wash the battery off with a solution of baking soda and water. Use a wire brush if necessary. Then rinse thoroughly with warm water. Ask your Shell dealer to check your battery terminals.

12. Change your oil filter element every other oil change. Abrasive specks as small as 1/1000th of an inch in diameter can shorten the life of your engine. The oil filter element in your car has the exacting task of keeping tiny, dangerous specks of metal and other abrasives out of the engine, while allowing oil to flow freely.

The filter catches and holds these foreign particles until it can hold no more. But when the oil filter is clogged up, it cannot work effectively.

Replacing the filter element every other oil change helps your engine to last longer.

13. Get a lubrication job regularly. Dirt and moisture can work into chassis joints and bushings, causing friction and wear. Grease can also eventually pound out, leaving the parts unprotected.

See your Shell dealer for a Shellubrication. He has the charts, equipment, Shell lubricants for your car, and the skill for a really thorough job.

14. Have your car's cooling system checked twice a year. In time, the inhibitors in your anti-freeze lose some of their ability to prevent rust, corrosion and sediment from forming in your cooling system.

Let your Shell dealer check the cooling system—including hoses and hose connections—no less than twice a year. When he drains and refills he will add a special Cooling System Protector.

15. Keep door and body panel drain holes clear to foil rust. You never see them, but there are little drain holes at the bottom of body panels and doors. They can get clogged so that the panels actually hold water. Rust forms more easily and can eat holes right through the metal.

You have probably noticed this ugly sight in other cars. Make sure drain holes are always kept clear.

16. Keep road salt washed off. Nothing can damage a car's appearance more than the chemicals used to clear icy, snowy roads. They can eat not only the finish, but the body structure itself. Make sure you get it all off—not only from the paint but from the bright metal parts, as well.

17. Use these tips to help your car stay new looking longer. A good coat of polish provides a film that protects your car's finish. But before you polish your car, always wash it—and always in the shade.

Some new car finishes need only a good washing to keep them bright, but others require waxing. It's a good idea to check your owner's manual. Older cars are almost certain to benefit from a good waxing.

18. Protect chrome against rust invasion. Chrome, itself, can't rust. But it actually has millions of tiny holes which can let the moisture right through to the metal beneath. Dirt invites this invasion, so clean the chrome thoroughly and frequently, and wax it for further protection.

19. "Bandage" minor scratches in your car's finish. Small scratches in the finish expose bare metal which can rust. Until you can have the scratches refinished, keep rust from forming with a coat of touch-up paint or even a strip of cellulose tape on the scratches. Use clear nail polish on scratches in the chrome.

20. Pamper carpets and upholstery. Ground-in dirt wears out carpets before their time. Give them a weekly whisking or vacuuming; shampoo once in a while.

21. Let your Shell dealer help your car last longer. Your car may have cost you thousands of dollars. After your home, this is probably your biggest single investment.

Rocky Points Ambitious Political Tasks Toward '64

(Editor's Note—The governorship in political crucial New York state will be up for grabs in 1962. Nelson Rockefeller is seeking re-election—perhaps with an eye on presidential '64. That's why his recent legislative record may have wide implications. Here is an informed look at that record and the possibilities ahead.)

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is slowly revamping Republican politics in New York State in what well may be much preparation for a bid for the GOP nomination for president in 1964.

"We've got to get close to the people," is his prescription for returning a Republican — he's not saying whom he has in mind—to the White House.

The governor gained new ground in the 1961 legislature on a broad, liberal program he has mapped for the Republican party in New York. He also looks on it as a model for a national policy.

★ ★ ★

Basically, the program is concerned with state spending for education, commuter transportation and other big-city problems, minority groups and steps to stimulate the state's economy.

CALLS FOR BIG FUNDS

Because much of this plan entails big spending, the Rockefeller program generated a good deal of private grumbling among the conservatives who dominate the Republican majorities in both houses of the legislature.

★ ★

The governor met opposition and reluctance, sometimes had to compromise. But he won passage of a $26-million a year plan for state grants to students in private colleges, $8 million in financial assistance for commuter railroads serving New York City, $33.7 million State Theater for ballet and operetta and other new spending that brought the state's 1961-62 budget to a record $2.4 billion.

The legislators also voted a 10 per cent, $90-million rebate on 1960 income taxes. The governor was quick to point out that "while many other states were increasing their taxes, New York was the only state in the union to make such a refund."

The effect his legislative approach will have on the governor and the New York Republican party will be measured in the 1962 election, when Rockefeller will be up for re-election.

HARDER IN 1962?

The 52-year-old multimillionaire, who won the governorship in his first try for an elective office, may have a harder campaign in 1962 than he did in 1958.

★ ★ ★

There were few, clear-cut issues discussed. The election, many observers felt, was a popularity contest between the aging, somber W. Averell Harriman and the breezy, youthful-looking Rockefeller.

Next time, however, the governor will have a record to offer —and defend—plus all other difficulties an incumbent meets—demands to do things, complaints over things not done and, always, appeals for more spending.

But if, as a result of his program, a present split in the New York Democratic organization and other factors, Rockefeller won a substantial victory next year, it would have an important psychological effect on his chances for selection as the Republican nominee two years later.

The Rockefeller program for "Getting closer to the people" is not, however, without its political problems. In wooing New York City votes, the governor has lost strength in upstate, conservative areas.

He still has not full recovered politically from a record tax boost the legislature voted in 1959 at his request. The $90-million rebate this year, from increased collections of $400 million a year, was designed to win back support.

One Republican leader said he was worried that the 1959 tax increases and the possibility of new ones under the Rockefeller spending programs would alienate party conservatives, including big contributors.

An upstate Republican senator who fought the governor's student-grant plan said the $26-million estimated cost was only a beginning on the total bill.

The plan provides for annual payments ranging to $300 for undergraduates and $800 for graduates who are New York residents and attend colleges and universities within the state. The size of the grants will be based on financial need. The State Education Department will set standards students would have to maintain to qualify for the grants.

★ ★ ★

The governor asked for $200 grants for all students, regardless of need and without academic standards.

CHURCH MAKES POINT

The State Council of Churches, representing two million Protestants, pointed out the plan would encompass students at Roman Catholic and other church-affiliated schools. The state constitution bans direct or indirect help to sectarian institutions.

Rockefeller insisted that he was trying to help the students, not their colleges and grew increasingly irritated over charges his plan would breach separation of church and state. The governor, a Baptist, told one group that tradition "is part of my heritage."

It was about that time that Roman Catholic leaders began criticizing plans of President Kennedy, a Catholic, for proposing federal aid to education, excluding parochial schools.

Much of the opposition to the Rockefeller college-student plan died out when he revised it and added the financial-need test and provision for academic standards.

But there still was upstate Republican opposition and the plan would not have been approved without Democratic support.

In general, Rockefeller appears to be trying to do in New York what he believes the party should do nationally—pay more attention to big-city problems, minorities, aid to education and other programs affecting great numbers of people.

His formula is designed to make it a majority party through liberal programs that will attract young voters, win over Democrats and not alienate conservatives.

Mercury and Comet See 50 Pct. Jump

DEARBORN (AP)—Ford's Lincoln-Mercury Division said it will turn out more than 50 per cent more Mercurys and Comets this month than were produced during March.

Comet schedules are some 58 per cent higher than March and Mercury assemblies will be up 56 per cent, spokesmen for the auto firm said. Some 29,000 units of the two makes are scheduled for April.

Spokesmen said an unexpected volume of dealer orders for the new "luxury" model of the compact Comet, the $22, contributed to an increase in production schedules for that model alone by some 25 per cent.

First chloroform for use as an anaesthetic in America was believed produced by a Nova Scotia druggist and early medical records have established the year as about 1833.

Rocky Points Ambitious Political Tasks Toward '64

(Editor's Note—The governorship in political crucial New York state will be up for grabs in 1962. Nelson Rockefeller is seeking re-election—perhaps with an eye on presidential '64. That's why his recent legislative record may have wide implications. Here is an informed look at that record and the possibilities ahead.)

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is slowly revamping Republican politics in New York State in what well may be much preparation for a bid for the GOP nomination for president in 1964.

"We've got to get close to the people," is his prescription for returning a Republican — he's not saying whom he has in mind—to the White House.

* * *

The governor gained new ground in the 1961 legislature on a broad, liberal program he has mapped for the Republican party in New York. He also looks on it as a model for a national policy.

* * *

Basically, the program is concerned with state spending for education, commuter transportation and other big-city problems, minority groups and steps to stimulate the state's economy.

CALLS FOR BIG FUNDS

Because much of this plan entails big spending, the Rockefeller program generated a good deal of private grumbling among the conservatives who dominate the Republican majorities in both houses of the legislature.

* * *

The governor met opposition and reluctance, sometimes had to compromise. But he won passage of a $26-million a year plan for state grants to students in private colleges, $8 million in financial assistance for commuter railroads serving New York City, $33.7 million State Theater for ballet and operetta and other new spending that brought the state's 1961-62 budget to a record $2.4 billion.

Russia's Space Success a Victory for All Men

BY JOSEPH L. MYLER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A man has gone into space and come back.

* * *

His name is Yuri Gagarin, and he is a Russian. He is the first human being to ride a man-made spacecraft around our planet.

* * *

Many will regret that his name was not, say, John H. Glenn Jr., and that he was not an American.

"As members of the human race we can all take pride in what this man has done. He has broken the space barrier. He has made the most hostile of environments seem less fearsome. He has blazed a trail that will lead man to the moon, and to the planets."

Not Columbus, mistaking a Caribbean isle for India, nor the Wright Brothers at Kitty Hawk, in their "box kite stuck together with glue and powered by sheer courage," could claim a prouder achievement.

* * *

Yuri Gagarin, the "wild duck" of Russia, has gone into space.

As though it were expected of them, U.S. space officials to a man said, "We were not surprised."

* * *

That is true. Russia proved in 1957 that she had the rocket power to put a man, or several men, into space.

Last August, by bringing the dogs Belka and Strelka down from orbit, she proved that she had the vastly greater skill needed to sustain life in space and to return it to earth unharmed.

DELAY DEVELOPMENT

The United States, for what seemed cogent reasons, had put off development of big rocket boosters until eight years after the Russians went to work on them.

What Yuri Gagarin did today, this country cannot hope to do until late this year. Shortly before the "wild duck" was fired into orbit an official of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) was telling a committee of Congress that the United States hopes to put a man in space in late 1961 "if no setbacks are encountered."

He and most other U.S. space experts might agree that a more probable date would be "early 1962."

Yuri Gagarin has made the first U.S. astronaut's venture into the space frontier less awesome by proving the journey is possible. He has proved that many, if not most, of the fantastically difficult problems of space travel have been solved.

* * *

'OPENS THE DOOR'

* * *

"Surely this puts the cap on all of the things that have been done to date in space.

"It opens the door for the very tremendous things yet to come — travel by man to the moon, and the planets . . .

NASA administrator James E. Webb and his scientist-deputy, Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, both said they hoped the Russians would "make available to the world scientific community the information gained from this experiment."

Dryden, his eyes on the future, added: "This is only a beginning. We must and we will go forward with our own program."

Only Tuesday, Dryden had told a congressional committee the United States plans to put men in an orbiting space laboratory in 1965 or 1966. This country also expects to send men around the moon and back, perhaps as early as 1965, and to land human beings with return tickets there by 1971.

Red Spaceship Was Controlled From Earth

MOSCOW (UPI) — A Soviet specialist on astronautics said today the manned Russian spaceship was fully automatic with its passenger under control from earth.

* * *

The specialist, Nikolai Varvarov, a professional pilot, said that man's first role in space was that of an explorer rather than a pilot.

Automatic devices not only controlled the spaceship but even "took care" of the man himself.

He said the role of Yuri Gagarin was that of discoverer of new laws of nature and explorers of celestial bodies.

* * *

Varvarov explained that the space man could not control the ship by means of a "stick" because the velocity of his ship was so great it would take "fabulous strength" to turn it by mechanical means. A man's reaction would be too slow anyway, he added.

Street Is Renamed for Heroic Spaceman

MOSCOW (UPI)—Within hours after he had landed, Soviet spaceman Yuri Gagarin today won one of the Soviet Union's highest honors.

Much Propaganda, but Few Facts

Mum Was Word on Soviet Astronauts

MOSCOW (UPI) — Prior to the announcement of a successful manned space flight, the Soviet Union had produced tons of propaganda but only a thimbleful of hard facts about its astronaut training program.

* * *

In sharp contrast to the publicity surrounding the American Project Mercury astronaut, only an occasional mention had been made in the Soviet press about Russian space trainees.

The Russian astronauts' training site, their personal lives and even the number of candidates have been kept secret although Soviet scientists claimed they had received hundreds of applications for space training.

The first Soviet disclosure that an astronaut training program did exist was made in October 1959, in the Soviet weekly magazine "Ogonyok" (Little Flame).

The Ogonyok article said the Soviet man-in-space program was well under way at that time. It also gave the names of three trainees.

REVEAL INFORMATION

Some of the Soviet Union's top scientists shed another glimmer of light on the astronaut program in a press conference in the academy of sciences on March 28, this year. Replying to questions of newsmen, the scientists made these points:

* * *

The scientists declined to state whether the astronaut was likely to be a married or single man, stating his marital status was "of no significance."

From the beginning Soviet scientists engaged in the astronaut program stated no man would be launched into space until they were absolutely certain of his safe return.

News of Soviet Feat Leaves Officer Cold

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lt. Col. John Powers, press officer for the U.S. astronauts, was unimpressed when a reporter told him today that Russia had a man in space.

"It's 3 a.m. in the morning, you jerk," Powers shouted into the telephone from Langley Air Force Base, Va.

The reporter suggested that Russia didn't put a man in space as a regular thing and wondered whether Powers might be able to get the views of the American astronauts on the Russian success.

"If you're wanting something from us, the answer is we are all asleep," the press officer snapped.

Orbit Around Earth 'Anything but Joyride'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) —The life of a spaceman may sound glamorous, but whirling through an orbit around earth in a small capsule — Russian or American — shapes up as anything but a joyride.

Scientists say it is probably something like all the jolting rides in a carnival rolled up in one and multiplied by ten. Top Russian scientist V. Dobronravov says, "It could have the most oppressing effect on man."

Perk Up Salad With Pickles

Top vote-getter among main dish salads is probably the chicken salad. Simplest version, of course, is cubed chicken, chopped celery, chopped hard-cooked egg, mayonnaise or salad dressing and necessary seasonings.

* * *

We vote for pickles in our chicken salad, however. And we think you will, too, once you've tried this tempting recipe.

Chopped sweet pickles add such a perky flavor note. For pickles to chop, you can use the whole sweets, gherkins, cross-cuts, sweet pickle sticks or sweet pickle tidbits. Or, if you like, you can use the economical and convenient sweet pickle relish. It's a fine chop, of course.

Piquant Chicken Salad

2 hard-cooked eggs
2 cups cubed, cooked chicken
½ cup chopped sweet pickles
1 cup chopped celery
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon lemon juice
½ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing

From center of eggs, cut 3 or 4 slices and keep for garnish; chop remaining eggs. Mix chopped eggs lightly with next 6 ingredients. Mound on bed of lettuce. Garnish with egg slices and sprinkle with paprika. Makes 6 servings.

* * *

Waldorf chicken is a delightful variation of this salad. For the hard-cooked eggs, substitute ½ cup diced, unpeeled red apples. If the apples are sweet, add a bit more lemon juice.

PIQUANT SALAD—The old favorite, chicken or turkey salad is dressed up with almonds, grapes and candied dill pickles. With it are served spiced peaches and hot rolls.

'Souper' Start for Teen Party

The menu starter for a teen-age party is a "souper delicious" beverage with the musical name of Tomato Blossom Soup. Serve it from a pitcher or carafe in heat-proof glasses, mugs or cups — and sip it as a beverage along with the main course.

Tomato Blossom Soup

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed tomato soup
1 cup milk
1 cup water
½ cup shredded process cheese
Dash of cloves

In saucepan, combine soups, milk, water and cloves. Gradually blend in water. Add cheese and oregano. Heat; stir now and then. Garnish with one of the suggested garnishes. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

Suggested Garnishes for Tomato Blossom Soup

Choped Green Onion
Thinly Sliced Celery
Chopped Parsley
Popcorn

Slit Frankfurters to Fill With Tangy Relish Butter

Pizza may be in first place in the list of foods that teen-agers like, but franks will follow closely. And ask any small child what he wants to eat; the answer is automatic, "A hot dog."

This is easy to understand. Franks are convenient, versatile and mighty good eating. They can be consumed "as is," if you can't wait until meal time. They taste equally good, simmered in hot water, roasted over a campfire or broiled on the indoor grill.

Franks can be stuffed before they are cooked. Kids should like the combination of butter, mustard, pickle relish, onion and celery seed. That leaves only catsup to be added when the dogs are eaten. Have the relish butter ready for each person to fix his own.

Franks Stuffed with Relish Butter

1 pound franks
¼ cup butter or margarine
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
½ teaspoon celery seed
1 tablespoon pickle relish
1 tablespoon chopped onion
10 frank buns
Tomato wedges

Combine butter, mustard, celery seed, pickle relish, and onion. Cut a slit in each frank and fill with relish-butter mixture. Place each frank in a bun and wrap in foil. Heat in oven or on a grill for about 5 minutes or until butter is melted. Garnish with tomato wedges. Makes 10 sandwiches.

Sauce for New Potatoes

A spicy spring dip with the tiny new potatoes on the market is easily prepared by combining a half a cup of sour cream to a family size can of deviled ham together with a little horseradish and chopped chives. Then dunk the delectably tender new potatoes (after they've been scraped and boiled) into this tangy sauce. Just scrumptious!

Sugar, transformed into industrial alcohol, is used extensively in the manufacture of explosives.

Cobbler Needs Peanut Butter

In any family with children at home, it's safe to assume that peanut butter is a staple item on the pantry shelf. That means it's available to be used for its novel flavor in a dessert such as Peanut Butter Peach Patsy.

* * *

This cobbler-type dessert, which can be put together easily with ingredients you have on hand 'most any time, is a favorite with young and old. Just arrange peaches in a casserole and sprinkle with cinnamon. Then drop on the biscuit topping. Whole bran cereal blends with the peanut butter in the dough to produce a tempting combination. Peanut Butter Peach Patsy is at its best served warm with cream.

Peanut Butter Peach Patsy

1 egg, well beaten
½ cup milk
1 cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons soft shortening
2 tablespoons peanut butter
2 cups sliced, canned peaches
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ cup peach juice

Combine bran, egg and milk; let stand about 5 minutes. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut in shortening and peanut butter until mixture resembles coarse corn meal. Add bran mixture, stirring only until combined.

Arrange peaches in greased 8x8-inch pan or shallow 1½-quart casserole; sprinkle with cinnamon. Pour on juice. Drop batter by spoonfuls over peaches. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 35 minutes. Serve warm, with cream, if desired. Yield: 6 servings.

Sherbet Will Keep Punch Icy Cold

At your next party, try a Punch that is pink and pretty as a picture as well as provocative to the taste. Pink Lady Punch is made by mixing deep colored and heartily-flavored cranberry juice, delicate yet distinctively - flavored pineapple juice and a splash of maraschino cherry juice. To provide the lively sparkle that every punch needs, lemon-lime carbonated beverage is slowly poured into the Punch just before serving.

To make the Punch even prettier and more flavorful, float a ring of raspberry sherbet on top. The sherbet adds richness and froth as it melts.

Pink Lady Punch

1 (7-ounce) jar maraschino cherries
1 quart raspberry sherbet
1 quart cranberry juice, chilled
1 (46-ounce) can pineapple juice, chilled
1 (7-ounce) bottle lemon-lime carbonated beverage

Drain cherries and reserve liquid. Arrange cherries in bottom of 1-quart ring mold. Spoon slightly softened sherbet into mold and pack into mold. Freeze for at least one hour. Combine chilled cranberry and pineapple juices with preserved cherry juice in a punch bowl.

Slowly pour lemon-lime carbonated beverage into punch. Dip molded sherbet briefly into warm water to loosen. Insert and float sherbet ring on punch. Makes 28 servings.

Easy and Pretty Too

Easy to prepare and pretty to serve is this Frozen Fruit Salad: Drain a Number 2½ can of crushed pineapple and combine with a creamy smooth dressing of 2 small (3-oz.) packages of cream cheese, ½ cup mayonnaise and ¼ cup of cut-up Maraschino cherries. Turn into refrigerator tray and freeze until firm.

Because U.S. So Complacent

Communism May Conquer World

CHICAGO (UPI) — Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, U.S. chief of naval operations, said today totalitarian communism may conquer the world because of what he termed traditional Yankee optimism.

★ ★ ★

Burke said an optimistic refusal to acknowledge the extent of the Communist threat, and a preoccupation with the military aspect of the struggle has caused many Americans to "fool themselves that there is no threat."

★ ★ ★

The Communists, he said, "hope that our own indifference, our own apathy, our own preoccupation with material things will in themselves weaken the ideas and the ideals they seek to destroy."

Burke, speaking at the seventh annual National Military-Industrial and Education Conference, said "Americans are naturally optimistic."

He said Americans "often tend to indulge in wishful thinking. And when faced with stern realities, Americans often have a nostalgia for the good old days."

Many recognize the urgency of the Communist threat, he said, "but there remain many others in private life in our affluent society who are so self-satisfied, so comfortable, so content that they cannot be bothered with the dangers which surround them."

Burke said many nations have fallen to conquerers because their "citizens were self-satisfied, placid, self-confident, money-getting, pleasure-loving people, honoring success and hugging their financial security."

The nation's military strength must be maintained, he said, but "national security is based on courage, not on money nor on material wealth, nor on military power."

State Signing for Insurance

Says Private Firm Has Better Employe Rates Than Blue Cross

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan's some 31,000 state employes are getting a better insurance deal from a private company than they would under the Blue Cross-Blue Shield program, says the State Civil Service Commission chairman.

George N. Higgins, former Republican senator from Ferndale, said the commission is proceeding with final contract details with the Aetna Life and Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn.

Higgins said the basic health program being negotiated with Aetna would offer state employes the same coverage as Blue Cross-Blue Shield plus better surgical rates.

Said Higgins:

"It is interesting to note Blue Cross-Blue Shield has joined a few unsuccessful bidders for the state group life insurance program to try to generate pressure on the commission to change its decision on the insurance carriers in the face of the fact that three private companies made better offers than Blue Cross."

★ ★ ★

The Aetna cost for the program would be $2.45 million, Higgins said, against the Blue Cross cost of $3.3 million.

★ ★ ★

"In view of these facts," he said, "there is little wonder there is grave public concern over the Blue Cross-Blue Shield operation and costs."

Northern Band Concert Will Start at 8 Tonight

The Pontiac Northern High School spring band concert will begin at 8 tonight in the PNH auditorium.

JFK Recommends Economic Drive

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—President Kennedy in a special message to the International Labor Organization Tuesday called for a vast effort to satisfy basic economic needs of the Western Hemisphere.

Kennedy's message was delivered by George Weaver, U.S. government representative to the seventh Inter-American regional conference of the ILO.

Kennedy called for the peoples of the Americas to join in a "vast effort, unparalelled in magnitude or magnitude of purpose, to satisfy the basic needs of the American people for homes, work and land, health and schools."

Airport-Slaying Suit Is Settled Out of Court

PORT HURON (UPI) — A $250,000 damage suit resulting from the 1956 Willow Run Airport slaying of 41-year-old LaVerne Wegner of Port Huron was settled out of court Tuesday.

The civil suit, filed by Wegner's widow, Lois, 44, was being heard by a 14-member jury. The terms of the settlement were not disclosed.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Wegner's suit named as defendants the operators of the airport, a parking lot firm and a Detroit private policy agency. Wegner was robbed and beaten to death in a parking lot at the airport.

Mrs. Clyde C. Bennett Jr. of 889 Suffield, Birmingham, has been named Oakland County chairman of the community campaigns division of the 1961 Metropolitan Detroit Torch Drive.

Mrs. Bennett has worked on the torch drive each year since it was founded in 1949. During the 1959 and 1960 drives she was regional chairman for Birmingham, Bloomfield Township and Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Bennett will direct the house-to-house and community business solicitation in Southern Oakland County. Last year, 6,500 volunteers raised $326,745 in that area.

Agency Offers Total Planning for Party-Givers

With the opening April 20 of Mead and Adams Agency, 614 N. Woodward Ave., a new service is offered Birmingham area residents — a service geared to eliminating the time-consuming details of party giving.

A client has only to lift her phone, indicate the type of function she is planning, and relax.

Such matters as ordering and addressing invitations, checking floral arrangements, obtaining music and caterers, and making photographic appointments are included in the service.

Weddings will be supervised in detail from the day of the engagement announcement until the last handful of rice is thrown following the marriage ceremony.

Children's parties, teas, and anniversaries will also be handled.

Both Mrs. Mary Ellen Mead and Shirley Adams, agency partners, are long time residents of the Birmingham area and familiar with the over-all social picture. Both have had considerable newspaper experience, both have worked in public relations.

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Troy Beeson, 38, filed suit for $77,000 from his former employer because a "rope" he picked up turned out to be a live rattlesnake.

He said that when he got out of the hospital, he tried to return to work as a cook for the J. S. Gissel Co., but was fired on account of illness caused by anti-snakebite serum.

Spoon Bread Gets Changed With Rice

You'll be considered a mighty hospitable hostess as well as a fine cook, if you serve foods that really delight your guests. Somehow, folks just seem to associate this delight with both talents.

Some foods will delight your family and guests much more than others, but you can count on many tasty rich dishes to bring on the smiles. Rice is so low-costing too, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture reminds us how plentiful it is right now.

Stir 1 part of boiling water into ¼ part of white corn meal in a double boiler. Add ¼ part of flour, salt and sugar, and cook until thick. Stir in 1 part rice and a pat of butter. Add 1 part milk, beaten egg yolks, and baking powder (allowing 2 eggs and 2 teaspoons of baking powder per cup of milk).

Fold in the remaining stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in a greased dish placed in a pan with one inch of hot water, for 40 minutes at 350 degrees.

COUNTRY CAPTAIN—It's an old-time recipe, brought up to date to use with today's broiler-fryer — the versatile chicken. Herbs and spices make the casserole a fragrant one. Serve it with hot rice and a currant-studded sauce.

Casserole of Chicken Sets Tone of Company Meal

Country Captain is a southern chicken dish destined for nation-wide popularity. It offers a rare combination of good eating and delightfully subtle seasoning so pleasing to the gourmet.

Broiler-fryer chicken, weighing three and one half pounds, is the meat upon which all this good eating is based. The chicken, cut in serving pieces, is first coated in seasoned flour and browned quickly in hot fat; then, it goes into a casserole to finish cooking in the oven — bubbling gently in a luscious, subtly seasoned sauce. Topped with plump, juicy currants, and toasted almonds, Country Captain makes a dish fit to set before a captain or a king.

This gourmet dish is a special treat for company, so we offer it as the feature of a menu that calls for a minimum of last-minute preparation.

Tip to the cook: Combine flour, salt, pepper and monosodium glutamate in paper bag. Shake chicken, two or three pieces at a time, in bag to coat evenly:

Country Captain

3½ pound broiler-fryer, cut up
½ cup flour
1½ teaspoons monosodium glutamate
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup fat or oil, for frying
1½ cups finely chopped green pepper
1 cup finely chopped onion
1 clove garlic, minced
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons curry powder
½ teaspoon ground thyme
6 cups canned tomatoes (2 No. 2 cans)
1 teaspoon snipped parsley
1 cup blanched almonds, split in half
1 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ cup currants
8 cups hot cooked rice

Combine flour, monosodium glutamate, salt and pepper. Dredge chicken in flour mixture, coating evenly. Brown on all sides in the hot fat or oil. Remove from skillet; place in a 3-quart baking dish or casserole.

Add green pepper, onion and garlic to drippings in skillet. Cook until softened, but not brown. Blend in salt, pepper, curry powder and thyme. Add tomatoes and chopped parsley. Pour tomato mixture over chicken; cover. Bake in a 350-degree (moderate) oven about 45 minutes or until chicken is fork-tender. Brown almonds lightly in the butter or margarine.

To serve: Place chicken in center of large, heated platter; pile rice around it. Add currants to hot sauce to plump them. Pour over chicken. Sprinkle almonds over sauce. Garnish with parsley, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

Wine Marinade Flavors Lamb

If you're planning a dinner party soon, consider these barbecued lamb chunks for the main course. They're simple to get ready in advance and delicious to eat. California Sauterne or Rose, combined with wine vinegar and herbs, gives the meat a highly desirable tang. Once the meat is marinated, it can be grilled over charcoal or broiled in the oven.

★ ★ ★

Either way, it will be at its savory best if accompanied by glasses of the same white or pink dinner wine, well chilled, as the mealtime beverage.

Barbecued Lamb Chunks

½ cup California Sauterne or Rose wine
¼ cup red or white wine vinegar
1 (7½-oz.) can pineapple juice (about 1 cup)
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 teaspoon bouquet garni for lamb (or, ½ teaspoon each dried rosemary and oregano)
1 (5 or 6 lb.) leg of lamb, boned and cut into chunks for skewering

Combine wine, vinegar, pineapple juice, soy and herbs. Pour over lamb chunks. Cover and refrigerate several hours or overnight; stir once or twice to distribute marinade. Drain, saving marinade. Thread meat on skewers.

★ ★ ★

Grill over charcoal, brushing often with marinade, to desired degree of doneness. These marinated lamb chunks may be broiled, if you prefer. Spread meat in a shallow pan; spoon on the marinade generously during cooking. Serves 8 to 10.

Good Any Way

A broiler-fryer by any other name would taste as good, but the name doesn't reveal the bird's versatility. True enough, the tender young chicken is delicious broiled or fried. But a broiler-fryer can also be baked, stewed, roasted, braised, or made into soup. Once this bird is in the hand, it can be cooked in any fashion.

Browned Cake Crumbs

Day-old cake crumbs browned in butter make a tasty topping for big dishes of canned apple sauce. And you might try adding a handful of raisins to the apple sauce and serving the whole affair with light cream.

New Books and Foods Parade for Readers

BY JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Two new cook books have come to my desk recently. The newest one is Betty Crocker's Outdoor Cook Book (Golden Press, New York, $1.00). Published in time for the 1961 outdoor eating season, this little spiral bound book is another in the Betty Crocker series.

It could well turn out to be the outdoor chef's indispensable guide for it goes into detail on all important items like fire building, equipment and methods of cooking.

The menus are interesting and the recipes tempting. The book would make a nice gift for a family just completing an outdoor grill or new outdoor eating area.

The second book, a soft cover volume, is called "Cook Book of Glorious Eating for Weight Watchers." It's slanted toward those who are interested in controlling their weight or even taking off a few pounds.

Put out by the Wesson people, the book makes extensive use of oil in its recipes. These recipes will please the cooks who are looking for substitutes for solid shortening.

There's nothing dull about the foods described. You could follow the menus and feel yourself well and interestingly fed.

Edam cheese to us has always meant a squatty little ball of good tasting cheese. Now this same cheese comes sliced in a flat package. You'll like its convenience.

Campers may want to take the new tomato soup mix with them this year. It can be plain tomato soup or creamed style; it can be a sauce or a dip. It's versatile.

The newest in chiffon cake mixes is a Lemon Chiffon. We used lemon juice instead of water when we made it and liked the extra lemony flavor. The cake is a light and delicate one.

Another company comes out with Au Gratin potatoes. Potatoes and cheese come in separate packages, ready for mixing. You can make a one-dish meal by adding meat of some kind.

The 1961 Pillsbury Bake-Off will be in California again this year. Now's the time to dust off your special recipes and enter them.

From past Bake-Offs three package cakes are now available. Recipes submitted in earlier contests have been put into mixes. Each is a nut cake, including banana, chocolate and date.

Have you tried the new instant meat tenderizer? No longer must you wait for the enzymes to act before you cook the meat. Good too, on hamburgers.

Modern Peiping has a population of about 1,800,000.

Molasses Cake an Heirloom Recipe From Civil War

It wasn't the finest coffee ever brewed, but the coffee a Civil War soldier made in his tin cup tasted better than any he'd ever had before. At night, sitting in front of his campfire with a cup of coffee in his hands, a soldier could dream about the comforts back home.

Sweets weren't part of a soldier's daily ration, so hardtack usually accompanied the coffee. But troops stationed near Washington, D.C., got an unexpected treat. A baker supplied them with delicious, freshly-baked molasses cakes which no doubt tasted heavenly to the war-weary men. It's safe to assume that many wives and sweethearts learned to bake similar molasses cakes when their men returned after the war.

Luckily, we've fallen heir to the same wonderful treat the soldiers savored. This moist, rich Campaign Molasses Cake is a duplicate of the ones the soldiers got from the Washington shop. For party prettiness, we've topped it with a sweet, white icing and a big "1861" to commemorate the Civil War Centennial.

Campaign Molasses Cake

2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons ginger
4 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1 cup shortening
1 egg — 1 cup sugar
2 cups hot water — 2 cups molasses

Mix and sift flour, salt, baking powder, baking soda, ginger, cinnamon and cloves. Cream shortening and sugar. Blend in molasses. Stir in ½ cup flour mixture; beat in eggs. Add hot water alternately with remaining flour mixture. Turn into greased and waxed paper lined pan (8x12x2-inches). Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 50 to 60 minutes. Cool. Cut into squares.

Sioux Indian Has Bad TV Problem

"I have a 3-year-old son. He just lives these programs. And when they're over he runs through the house pointing his cap gun and shouting, 'Bang-bang! I'm killing Indians!'

"It can be very embarrassing when we have visitors."

Therapist Wants Outside Job for Mental Patients

MELBOURNE — President of the World Federation of Occupational Therapists, Prof. Clare Spackman of the University of Pennsylvania, said here after a tour of mental hospitals in the State of Victoria, she was greatly impressed by a scheme in which outside industry gave work to patients employed in sheltered workshops.

Prof. Spackman, visiting Australia to attend a Federation conference in Sydney, said the sense of usefulness and the income derived from such work gave even long-term patients an entirely new outlook.

Employment of this kind was a vast improvement on the system under which most mental hospitals taught arts and crafts of little practical value.

Prof. Spackman said she would like to see the Australian system adopted in other countries, including the United States.

This One Probably Burned Up the Mayor

BALTIMORE (UPI) — The copy of Mayor J. Harold Grady's schedule sheet that informed him of Fire Prevention Week arrived at his desk in a slightly burned condition.

One of the mayor's secretaries dropped a cigarette cinder on the very paragraph which mentioned Fire Prevention Week. It scorched the word "hazards" in a sentence reminding the mayor he was to say a few words of warning about fire hazards.

Devised Snappy Way to Stretch the Dollar

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — If the discoverer of vulcanization had had his way, it would be a snap to stretch a dollar.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)— Even the Phantom has a sweet tooth. San Antonio police said a note on a burglarized drive-in theater office desk said, "The Phantom strikes again." Loot in the burglary included 600 candy bars.

Fickle Tiger Fans Should Know by Now—Don't Pepper Piersall

AP Photofax

CALM BEFORE STORM—It was quiet as the Star Spangled Banner played at Tiger Stadium when the players of the Detroit and Cleveland baseball teams lined up for opening day ceremonies yesterday. A short while later the Indians made a barrage of hits to whip the Tigers, 9-5, before 41,000 fans who boisterously booed all afternoon. The centerfield bleachers and grandstand seen in the background were guilty of tossing everything from eggs to hair brushes at Cleveland centerfielder Jim Piersall.

Tribe Collects 18 Hits in 9-5 Win in Detroit

Indian Centerfielder Retaliates by Getting on Base 5 Times

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DETROIT — Oh, those Tiger fans, they're a real fickle sort. They aren't content in "knocking the Rock" but when they start "peppering Piersall" they are asking for trouble.

Oh yes, they did some cheering. That was when Al Kaline came through with a two-run triple in the third inning and when Jake Wood hit his first major league homer in the 7th with pinch hitter Larry Osborne on base.

But for the remaining time of the 2:48-minute game which the Tigers lost 9-5, they were happy booing everything and everyone.

Chico Fernandez was booed when he came to the plate in the third inning after his error allowed Cleveland to score more runs during the six-run outburst in the second inning.

Detroit's mayor Louis C. Mariani was booed, Governor Swainson was booed, Bob Scheffing got the raspberries, Rocky Colavito was knocked by boos coming back to the dugout after failing to hit in four trips and starter Jim Bunning was booed when he left the mound in the big Indian second inning which made the score 6-0.

They made one mistake however. That was booing Jim Piersall and peppering him with junk and debris.

Piersall retaliated by getting on base the first five times up. He collected a double and three singles and was safe on an error.

They threw hair brushes, tape measures, golf balls and even some moldy old Easter Eggs at him out in centerfield.

What made Piersall more angry was when Bunning dusted him away from the plate in the first inning. He made a few gestures to the Tiger hurler and then slapped a clean single to center for the first hit of the 1961 season in Tiger Stadium.

In all, the Indians got 18 hits off four Tiger pitchers as everyone in the starting lineup got a hit.

After Wood's homer brought the margin to 7-5, Phillips sent one of Bill Fisher's pitches into the left field stands in the 8th to make it 9-5 and the final score.

Actually the Indians really didn't take advantage of all their scoring opportunities as they left 16 men on base. There wasn't one inning in which they were retired in order.

"I was happy with the way our rookies played," said Scheffing, "we didn't play badly, the Indians were really hitting the ball."

The Indians are in town Thursday when Frank Lary goes to the mound and then the White Sox come in for the weekend.

UNWANTED GIFTS—Outfielder Jim Piersall of the Cleveland Indians displays the items which Tiger center field fans tossed at him in yesterday's baesball opener in Detroit. Among the items were golf balls, hair brush and a tape measure. He got even by getting on base five times, including four by hits, to pace the 9-5 win over the Tigers.

'Paw Paw' Says Again, 'Play Me or Trade Me'

Two years ago, he hit a three-run pinch homer. Last year he was on base four times in five trips to the plate.

But yesterday he got to the batter's deck in the last inning waiting to pinch hit but never made it to the plate. Chico Fernandez struck out to end the game and Maxwell headed back for the dugout.

The popular outfielder from Paw Paw started the fans humming when he came out of the dugout in the 9th inning. Most thought he was going to hit for Fernandez, but he was going to hit for pitcher Bill Fischer.

Ossie Virgil and Larry Osborne had been used as pinch hitters earlier in the game and both came through with hits.

In the dressing room afterward, Maxwell repeated his wish that the Tigers trade him.

"What else can I hope for," said Maxwell with disappointment, "who wouldn't want to be traded if he's not going to play."

He first asked to be traded last winter when the Tigers traded Frank Bolling for Bill Bruton and the Tigers announced that Bruton would take over in centerfield, leaving left field for Rocky Colavito and right field for Al Kaline.

He repeated his wish in spring camp although he carried hopes he might even get a crack at first base.

OPENING DAY NOTES

The 41,643 at Tiger Stadium yesterday was the biggest of five American League openers. Tiger officials predicted only 35,000 but sunny skies helped the turnout. Last year's 53,563 when the temperature was in the 80's was a record opening day turnout.

Ex-Tiger manager Jimmy Dykes feels that Cleveland is definitely a pennant contender this year. He admits he must get help in his pitching however and admits his bench strength is weak.

The Hershey Bears hope that home ice is friendly tonight when they play host to the Springfield Indians in the 3rd game of their best-of-7 Calder Cup series. The favored Indians held a 2-0 lead over Hershey in the American Hockey League's annual playoffs after winning twice at home.

Wings Must Win Tonight

Trail Chicago by One; Game Is at Olympia

Neither Team Has Won Away From Home; Two Wings Hurt

DETROIT (AP) —Detroit's banged-up Red Wings, claiming they are every bit as hungry as the Chicago Black Hawks, aim to square the Stanley Cup championship playoffs on their home ice tonight.

Trailing the rugged Black Hawks two-to-one in this best-of-seven, all-United States series, the Red Wings are looking forward to the faster ice at Olympia.

Neither team has been able to win away from home in the playoffs and the Black Hawks hope to break up this home ice domination and put an end to the series in Chicago Friday.

Detroit coach Sid Abel, troubled because of injuries, was complaining about the slowness of the ice in Chicago Stadium Monday when the Hawks hammered out a 3-1 victory.

Abel called it the worst ice he has ever seen and in answer to Chicago coach Rudy Pilhous' remarks of the Hawks being hungry said:

"They're not any hungrier than we are. They just grabbed control of the game in Chicago. We certainly didn't want them to control the game but they did."

Abel said one reason the Hawks took charge was due to the loss of defenseman Marcel Pronovost who suffered a foot injury before Detroit's 3-1 victory at Olympia Saturday night.

"They just fire that puck into out ice and we have trouble getting it out. Without Pronovost we lack the experience of fighting them inside our blue line," added Abel.

In addition to Pronovost, Warren Godfrey and goalie Terry Sawchuk have been injured in the series. Godfrey suffered a bruised knee Monday night and it is doubtful he will be ready tonight.

The Hawks, believing they have found a way to stop Gordie Howe, thereby jamming Detroit's most potent threat, feel they can win tonight and then lock up their first title in 23 years before their home crowd Friday.

NFL West Division Gets Minnesota Team

NEW YORK (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings have been placed in the Western Conference for their debut in the National Football League and will open play Sunday, Sept. 17 at home against the Chicago Bears, NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle announced today.

Minnesota's placing in the West and the switch of the Dallas Cowboys to the Eastern Conference were part of the release of the official NFL schedule. Now a 14-team league with the addition of the Vikings, the NFL will play 98 games next season—an increase of 20 over last season.

Under the new schedule, each team will play home-and-home series with the six other clubs in its conference and also will play two inter-conference games—one home and one away. Although the league had authorized Rozelle to draw up a schedule with both Minnesota and Dallas playing "swing schedules" as Dallas did last year, the commissioner said this was unnecessary "because of increased availability of playing sites, including a new stadium in Washington."

The season starts for all clubs Sept. 17 and ends Dec. 17, with all but four games on Sundays. The Bears will play at Los Angeles on Saturday night, Sept. 23, and Green Bay will play its traditional Thanksgiving Day game with Detroit on Nov. 23. In addition, two late-season games—still not selected—will be switched from Sunday to Saturday to permit national telecasts.

Russell, Cousy Propel Celtics to NBA Title

BOSTON (AP) — The old pro and professio nally proud — today reign from the high position they have held for three years, champions of the National Basketball Association.

"Fantastic, fabulous," Coach Red Auerbach beamed at his champions after their 121-112 victory over St. Louis Tuesday night eliminated the gallant Hawks 4-1 in the best-of-seven final playoff.

"We're the greatest," Auerbach shouted into the confusion of the steaming, crowded dressing room. "The 1961 Boston Celtics are the greatest ever. There was never anyone like us."

As usual, it was a team effort, but as usual, it was keyed by the great Bill Russell and the incomparable Bob Cousy.

Russell, the 6-foot-10 post man and the league's most valuable player, scored 30 points — 22 of them in the first half as Boston struggled to a 62-61 intermission lead — and hauled down 38 rebounds, blocked 8 shots and stole the ball frequently.

Cousy, the veteran backcourt man who wears the label "Mr. Basketball," scored 18 points, 13 of them in Boston's third quarter burst that broke open the game and contributed 12 assists.

The Cooz, who played 42 minutes on the dead run in Boston's lung-straining fast break, collapsed after the game and took no part in the victory celebration.

He lay on a table panting, gasping for breath beneath a layer of towels, blinking his eyes as if to clear his vision.

"Russell was fantastic," St. Louis Coach Paul Seymour said. "He kept them alive in that first half. He gave them life. Thirty-eight rebounds. And then that third quarter. That did it."

The third quarter spurt, in which Boston outscored St. Louis 37-23, gave the Celtics a 15-point lead and apparently put it out of reach. But the Hawks came clawing back.

Moved by the scoring prowess of Cliff Hagan and Bob Pettit, who had 26 and 24 points respectively, St. Louis closed to within five points before Cousy, Tommy Heinsohn, Frank Ramsey and Sam Jones finished the job.

Russell explained the St. Louis comeback this way:

"Well; a team gets ahead and feels like it's gonna win, then you're gonna have a letdown. But we didn't let down all the way. You can't against a great team like St. Louis. They never let up. They fought us all the way."

And then he summarized:

Chiefs, Skippers, Vikings Win; Kaines Sets Record

The Chiefs relied on strength in the field events to overcome Flint Central, 67 and two-thirds to 41 and one-third. Waterford rolled past Royal Oak Dondero, 73 and one-sixth to 33 and five-sixths.

★ ★ ★

Walled Lake won its first track meet of the season yesterday over Milford; 60 and one-third to 48 and two-thirds.

★ ★ ★

Joe Falls won three events and Mike Sickels both dashes for Waterford, but the big story was Mike Kaines' victory in the mile run. Kaines was timed in 4:27.4 on the Dondero course.

This was a new Waterford record and also bettered the Oakland County mark of 4:28.2 set by Barry Armstrong of Bloomfield Hills in the county meet last year.

It was the third dual win for the Skippers without a setback.

The Chiefs garnered 42 and two-thirds points in the field events and both relays. This erased a Flint Central edge of 13 points gained in the running events.

Bobby Trotter of PCH was the only double winner. He was the broad jump and tied for first in the high jump.

Walled Lake's Norm Smith won both dashes and the pole vault and anchored the winning half mile relay team. Mike Vanderveide turned in firsts in both hurdles for the Vikings.

Speedy LA Club Opens With 6-2 Win Over Phillies

Dodgers Enjoy 'Fast' Start

By The Associated Press

The Los Angeles Dodgers, a speedy bunch of kids who may lack power but who could run everybody ragged in the National League race, are off a-flying, making runs out of singles, sacrifice bunts and infield hits.

It was that sequence that did the damage Tuesday night when the Dodgers opened the season with a 6-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and hustled in to join the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds in a knot at the top of the standings.

* * *

Duke Snider, one of the Dodgers' older greyhounds, opened a three-run seventh inning with a single and galloped to third on a sacrifice and an infield out. Snider came in with the tie-breaking run when Charlie Neal smashed an infield single off the leg of losing pitcher Robin Roberts.

In the other NL openers, all afternoon contests, the Pirates were back in the old groove, coming from behind on Bill Virdon's three-run homer with two out in the ninth for an 8-7 victory at San Francisco. St. Louis defeated Milwaukee and Warren Spahn 2-1 on Daryl Spencer's solo home run in the 10th inning, and Cincinnati, rolling on homers by Frank Robinson and Wally Post, walloped Chicago's Cubs 7-1.

Roberts, setting a NL record with his 12th opening day assignment for the Phils, wound up with a 5-6 record for the inaugurals. (One ended in a "no decision" for the right-handed veteran) after the three-run Dodger seventh. Pinch-hitter Ron Fairly capped that rally with a two-run double, and rookie Carl Warwick drove in the final run with a pinch single, following two walks by Phillie reliever Ken Lehman, in the eighth.

The Dodgers started fast, scoring in the first inning when speedster Maury Wills singled, went to second on a sacrifice and then scampered home on a single by Tommy Davis. Wally Moon homered in the second, but Johnny Callison then squared it for the Phils with a two-run homer in the third inning off winner Don Drysdale. The Phils managed just five hits off the big right-hander, who struck out eight in his seven innings, Larry Sherry mopped up, fanning five and allowing one hit in two shutout innings.

* * *

The Cardinals, blanked on two hits for seven innings, scored the tying run in the eighth off Spahn on Hal Smith's triple and a pinch single by Bob Nieman. Spencer's shot then put it away, leaving Saphnie, who allowed six hits, still a dozen victories shy of 300. Lindy McDaniel pitched three hitless innings and gained the decision in relief of Ernie Broglio, who gave up four hits, one Ed Mathews' fourth inning home run.

MIGHTY TED—Big Ted Kluszewski, the oft-traveled first baseman of the Los Angeles Angels, put on a display of power yesterday by hitting two homers, his first two times up and driving in five runs to help defeat the Baltimore Orioles, 7-2.

Ramos Blanks New York, 6-0, on Three Hits

By ED WILKS
By The Associated Press

Pedro Ramos, who led the league in games lost last season, and Eli Grba, a guy as short on victories as he is on vowels, have turned the American League upside down right at the start.

Ramos, a curve-balling Cuban, stopped the pennant-favored New York Yankees cold in their season opener Tuesday, blanking the defending champs on three singles as the Minnesota Twins made their debut with a 6-0 victory at Yankee Stadium.

And Grba, one of those $75,000 picks Los Angeles made in the expansion process, tripped up Baltimore's hopeful Orioles 7-2 with a six-hitter as the Angels joined the Chicago White Sox, Cleveland, Kansas City and the Twins in a five-way tie for the first day lead. All of which dumped the Yanks and Orioles, 1-2 selections in the pennant picks, into the expanded second division.

Cleveland took off a-running with a 9-5 decision at Detroit, and Kansas City smacked the Boston Red Sox 5-2. The White Sox and Washington, who opened a day earlier, were idle.

Ramos, who lost 18 and won 11 last season, walked just one man and struck out five while putting away the second three-hitter of his career and the first opening day shutout suffered by the Yankees in eight years. The right-handed veteran also lined a two-run single off loser Whitey Ford in the seventh after Bob Allison's inning-opening home run had ended the stubby southpaw's two-hit shutout bit. Reno Bertoia also homered for the Twins.

Grba, never a winner against the Orioles in two seasons with the Yankees, squared his major league record at 9-9 after getting all the backing he needed from Ted Kluszewski. Big Klu, who hit only five home runs last season when he was with the White Sox, walloped a pair and drove in five runs as the Angels counted three runs in the first and four in the second against loser Milt Pappas and John Papa, a 21-year-old right-hander making his major league debut. Bob Cerv also homered for the Angels.

Ray Herbert allowed only six hits, but needed relief by Don Larson and a mop-up save by Bud Daley as the A's defeated the Red Sox at Boston. Four Red Sox errors led to four unearned runs for Kansas City with Herbert bringing in the first two with a second-inning single. Bill Monbouquette was the loser.

By CHUCK ARAIS

The biggest day in the short history of the Pontiac 700 Club comes up Saturday when the local group is host to the organization's national convention.

Plans are nearing completion for a full day of activity for the visiting and area bowling stars.

Highlighting the affair will be an afternoon business meeting for members and a banquet at night for all 700 men and their wives at Elks Lodge 810.

Representatives from chapters throughout the nation are expected to be here for the event.

The appearance of Frank Baker, Executive Secretary and Treasurer of the American Bowling Congress, will be a feature of the fete. Mayor Philip Rowston will be on hand to welcome the guests from across the United States.

An entertainment program is also being arranged as part of the banquet.

Special transportation will be available to delegates and their wives staying in Detroit. This is to accommodate several who will be attending ABC meetings. Wives of the bowlers will be taken on a tour of Pontiac during the afternoon business session.

Securing such an event in only the 2nd year of their existence as a chapter is quite an accomplishment for the "Pontiac Gang" led by king pin Bill Bull, prince pin Jay Lovett and pin buoy Clark Balch.

The other officers are: scorer Lou Koprince; Stan Mayes, Joe Bonfiglio and Bob Kuklinski, turnkeys; foul judges Sam Perna, Arnie Osta, Paul George and Monroe Moore and Paul Karas, rex honore.

Needing 265 to reach the charmed 800 circle, the big city bowling ace started his final game with a spare and seven straight strikes before falling victim to a 4-6 split.

697 by Shablis Tops Farmington Classic

Wildflowers Losing Battle of Survival

By United Press International

Spring is the time for wildflowers in Michigan woods, but each year the range of the once-plentiful plants diminishes.

Many factors have contributed to the decline of the wildflower in Michigan.

Drainage, burning, logging, grazing, increased cultivation and ever-growing residential areas have all taken their toll. The greatest toll, however, is chalked up by indiscriminate picking.

Michigan has a plant protection law which provides a fine of $25 to $100 and/or a jail sentence of up to 90 days for violations. The law has not been too effective and, in fact, is very difficult to enforce.

Most of the trouble is caused by lack of education in the manner in which the wildflowers reproduce.

In their haste to collect the flowers people don't realize that they may be destroying next year's crop of such native plants as trillium, arbutus, lady's slippers and trout lilies.

Most orchid-type plants, lady's slippers and trillium are perennial plants which bear their flowers on leafy stems. Picking the flowers prevents seed production and also causes starvation of the rootstalks and tubers.

Leaving a few flowers doesn't help much. Naturalists estimate that only about one or two seeds from these plants out of every 10,000 can be expected to germinate.

Growth of the plants is very slow. It takes five to seven years for a lady's slipper plant to mature and bear flowers.

Thus, groups like the Michigan Conservation Department take to marking fish and birds and watching tracks of other animals. And each year they ask the hunters and other state residents to help in the search for information on the habits of game.

At this time of year, the appeal is out for bird watchers.

The Maryland department recently marked a number of swans with dye to keep track of the birds during their migration northward. The swans were marked on the upper and lower surfaces of both wings with a purple-hued dye.

The lookout for the Canada geese was started by the State Conservation Department in their attempt to learn more about the movements of the geese during the late winter.

Some 100 of the honkers were released from Fish Point wildlife area in Tuscola County recently with white nostril tags. Additional releases of the geese were made in the Shiawassee River state game area, the national wildlife refuge in Saginaw County and the Lapeer state game area.

Seine Used for Smelt on Canadian Shores

By DON VOGEL
Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press

A few smelt are beginning to enter streams flowing into Lake Huron between Bay City and Standish, but the heavy run is not expected for another six or seven days.

This group will be trying for a large haul so the post can hold a smelt fry. The reason they are going to Pelee, according to Harrington, is that a seine can be used on the Canadian side. Over 800 pounds of smelt were netted this way by post fishermen in one night last spring. Only nets five feet in diameter can be used in Michigan.

A few fishermen have been trying their luck on Maceday Lake. These early season specialists are after Lake trout. Most anglers associate the lake with deep water—Maceday is 100 feet deep—and heavy trolling gear.

But in the spring, lake trout move out of the deep. Sometimes they are found near shore in shallow water. At other times the fish will be about 10 feet under the surface.

Have the spring enthusiasts been having any luck on Lakers?

That is one thing that is seldom made known. With Cass and Maceday being the only area lakes with this trout, any fisherman catching one generally keeps it to himself. He doesn't want a bunch of others flocking to the lake.

The monthly bulletin of the National Wildlife Federation has a short story on the Michigan Conservation Department. The deer management hassle is mentioned.

Ernest Swift, who wrote the article, put this in print: "Like those in many other states, the Michigan sportsmen cannot see the deer for the trees."

The Michigan Bow hunters will hold a night-time sucker shoot at the Tuscola County Sportsmen's Club near Care on May 6. Registration is at 5:30 p.m. that day.

Bill, Eddie and Leland Brown, all of Birmingham, and Florence Schmidt of Royal Oak were named to the All-America Trap Team by Sports Afield magazine. Bill is on the men's second team and Eddie and Leland on the junior squad. Florence made the women's first team.

The Oakland County Sportsmen's Club lost in its bid to hold the national skeet shoot this year. Reno, Nev., was picked over the OCSC range.

Thiefels Elected Skeet Director

Replaces Ken Sedlecky on State Association; Confer Wins Shoot

Bob Thiefels of Pontiac has been elected a director of the Michigan Skeet Association.

Sedlecky and Chet Crites of Detroit will represent the United States in the International Shooting Union World Championships at Oslo, Norway in June.

Crites win the Class AA division of the Pee Wee Open skeet shoot at Ted's Gun Club near Center Line Sunday. Howard Confer of Detroit took overall honors by breaking 98x100 with a 410 on a course buffeted by high winds and show.

Trout Are Being Stocked in Area Lakes, Streams

Eight streams, 18 lakes and four special ponds will receive a new stock of trout before the April 29 opener.

The plantings are part of the Conservation Department's program to give Southern Michigan fishermen a chance at catching brooks, browns and rainbows. Most of the fish stocked in streams are caught in the first week of the season.

Some survive, however, and every so often an angler reports catching a three or four pound brown or rainbow in one of the streams. Rainbows are turned loose in the lakes, and although easy to catch when located, many manage to survive and grow to five pounds or more.

The four ponds receiving trout are the two near Fenton, one at Davisburg and one in the Bald Mountain recreation area. Flies only is the rule on the ponds and the limit is two trout daily. The fish must be 10 inches in length.

Listed below are the streams and lakes which will be stocked with trout before the first day:

STREAMS

LAKES

Alderman, Cedar Island, Cemetery, Crotched, Deer, Elizabeth, Hartwig, Horseshoe, Maceday, Lotus, Orchard, Oxbow, Reed, Schoolhouse, Square, Stony, Sutgen and Union.

SPECIAL PONDS

OTHER STREAMS, LAKES

LAPEER COUNTY—Bottoms, Hunters, Kinks and Pine Creeks, Davison, Superow and North Twin, Alloe and Cedar Lakes.

MACOMB COUNTY—Townsend Creek.

ST. CLAIR COUNTY—Ruby Creek.

WAYNE COUNTY—North Branch Rouge River.

WASHTENAW COUNTY — Portage, Halfmoon and Pickerel Lakes.

LIVINGSTON COUNTY—Appleton and Chemung Lakes.

Conservation Heads Working on Policy

LANSING (UPI) — The State Conservation Commission will bring its regulations into line with newly-developed policy at its monthly meeting Thursday and Friday.

Currently a 50 cent fee per acre is charged to holders of oil and gas leases on state parklands for not drilling after the first year of leasing. The commission recently adopted a policy barring exploratory oil and gas drilling on state parks and recreation areas, making the fee unnecessary.

The department also recommended an exchange of land in Schoolcraft County, in which the state would give up 242 acres and acquire 318 acres of federally-owned property.

Aussies Win Easily in River Oaks Play

But Bernard Bartzen of Dallas, rated No. 1 in the U.S. and seeded fourth in the 27th River Oaks tournament, lost to unseeded Frank Froehling, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4.

According to Government Officials

Lamprey Battle Being Won

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government appears to be winning after years of trying—its battle against the fish killer of the Great Lakes, the sea lamprey.

The program, a government official said, is reported to be so successful that a hatchery can be built and the lakes can be restocked with lake trout—a fish nearly eliminated by the lamprey.

The hatchery, if Congress will appropriate the requested $892,000, will be built in Antrim County, Mich., on the Jordan River, about 40 miles from Lake Michigan, and be completed by the spring of 1963.

The progress report on elimination of the lamprey was given to a house appropriations subcommittee by Abram V. Tunison, assistant director of the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and wildlife. The hearing transcript was made public today.

Sea lampreys are predatory eels, up to two feet in length, with sucking mouths and teeth to attack fish.

After invading the lakes in the 1930's they eliminated all trout from Lake Michigan and killed most of them in Lakes Superior, Huron and Erie.

More recently, bureau officials say, they have been using poison that kills the baby lampreys but is harmless to fish.

Assistant bureau director Tunison was questioned about plans for restocking the lakes with trout as follows:

Q. What lakes would be first?

A. Lake Superior would be first, and Lake Michigan and Lake Huron—those three.

Q. Has Lake Erie a good potential for lake trout?

A. I am not so sure we will ever have lake trout in Lake Erie at a commercial level . . . I think the record will show there was never a great commercial catch of lake trout in Lake Erie.

They Like President

MIDLAND (AP) — Kenneth Hoffman of Midland has been re-elected president of the Michigan Bow Hunters Association.

The new vice president is Everett Machette of Saginaw. New governors on the board are Frank Irwin of Rudyard, Hewitt Gall of Onaway and Ed Curtis of Kalamazoo.

Michigan vs. Federal Government

State conservation attorneys last week filed a motion in a Washington, D.C., district court for a cross summary judgment on their appeal for release of some $450,000 being withheld from Michigan's wildlife programs.

The motion, submitted as a follow-up to a recent meeting of state and federal attorneys and officials of the Conservation Department at the district court, contends that certifications for Pittman-Robertson allotments should include the total number of hunting licenses sold in each state, as formegly was the practice.

This is in contrast to the Solicitor General's 1959 interpretation which says a hunter is to be counted as only one license holder regardless of how many licenses he bought.

The interpretation has caused some $1,000,000 to be withheld from Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Colorado. All four states have duplications in their 1958 and 1959 certified listings of paid hunting license holders, according to the solicitor general's interpretation.

During the recent meeting in the district court, federal attorneys admitted that from 1938 to 1959 P-R apportionments were based on the total number of hunting licenses sold.

Also, in checking congressional records, state conservation attorneys determined that this 21-year practice of including all hunting license categories in certifying "paid hunting license holders" was consistent with the intent of Congress.

This, they say, is clearly borne out by Senate and House reports, floor debates, and a report of a special committee which studied the P-R proposal enacted in 1937.

Fight Manager Can't Remember Deal With IBC

A bitter exchange between attorneys ensued when special prosecutor Alvin H. Goldstein probed into two loans Daly allegedly made Hollywood promoter Jackie Leonard.

Deer Count Under Way

LANSING (UPI) — Counts of the state's deer herd began this week in the Baldwin and Gladwin districts, the Conservation Department said today.

Michigan Land Auction Due Here This Month

The Oakland County office building in Pontiac will be the scene of a land auction April 19.

The State Department of Conservation is placing 143 parcels of tax-reverted lands on sale. The land is located in Oakland, Macomb, St. Clair and Jackson Counties.

Four other similar sales will take place in Monroe, Detroit, Flint and Paw Paw. The list of land to be sold is available from the Conservation Department.

Platted lots make up the bulk of the sales. All sales receipts are returned to the counties in which the auctioned lands are located. Minimum prices are set on each parcel.

Predict Shooting Preserve Increase

EAST LANSING (AP) — The numbers of privately owned shooting preserves will increase substantially in the next few years — due to growing shortages of open land — operators of the sports areas said here.

Michigan has about 45 of the areas, and there are 1,500 in the nation they said. Last year, the pheasants, quail, shukar partridge and mallards, supplied hunters with a kill of 1.5 million birds, they said.

Drayton Drug Leads in Waterford Archery

Drayton Drug swept all six points from Pony Express quintet to grab a one-point lead in the Waterford Township recreation department's archery league over the weekend.

The Drug team, captained by Chuck Walters, has compiled 35 points to second-place Straight Arrows' 34, with just two shoots left on the schedule. The Arrows are captained by Bill Spamburg.

The department issued a reminder there is a ban from April 15 to July 15 on training or running dogs in the field. Officials said the ban was called to give young game animals time to mature.

Summer Scholarships

LANSING (UPI) — Thirty scholarships to the State Conservation Department's summer school at Higgins Lake are available this year.

Department spokesmen said the scholarships would be awarded to teachers and school administrators interested in conservation.

Said Dulles in '54 . . . Says Kennedy in '61

We Must Be Flexible Both in War or Out

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles had a knack for making his critics at home and Communists abroad grit their teeth. He could convey a sense of violence by the way he used the language.

* * *

President Kennedy can say almost the same things—emphasis on almost — and yet manage to look peaceful and restrained.

The Kennedy administration is committed — as the Eisenhower administration was—to a single, paramount assurance: That this country will not start a war.

The policy of both administrations: Keep the Communist world guessing so that it won't know what it will be hit with if it starts aggression.

* * *

But Dulles used a phrase he seemed to like—"massive retaliation"—which his critics threw at him for most of his time in the State Department.

the Kennedy administration has scrapped the idea of "massive retaliation.", Kennedy's own statements do not bear this out. He avoided using such a provocative phrase as massive retaliation but still used language which, while it looks much milder, the Communists can interpret as meaning retaliation against them may well be massive if they go too far.

* * *

Both the Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations have emphasized the need for building up local defenses against attacks which might be short of all-out war, although Kennedy has stressed this more.

But Dulles in his dramatic way added this:

"Local defense will always be important. But there is no local defense which alone will contain the mighty land power of the Communist world. Local defense must be reinforced by the further deterrent of massive retaliatory power."

* * *

He made this statement Jan. 13, 1954. It may have sounded big. But if it was intended to scare the Communists it didn't.

Within a few months after he talked of "massive retaliatory power" the Communists smashed the French in Indochina and took half the country while this country sat by doing nothing but talking.

* * *

MUST BE FLEXIBLE

On March 16, 1954 Dulles said: "To deter aggression it is important to have the flexibility and the facilities which make various responses available. In many cases, any open assault by Communist forces could only result in starting a general war.

"But the free world must have the means for responding effectively on a selective basis when it chooses. It must not put itself in the position where the only response open to it is general war."

Kennedy, in his defense message to Congress March 28, said: "Our defense posture must be both flexible and determined. Any potential aggressor contemplating an attack on any part of the free world with any kind of weapons, conventional or nuclear, must know that our response will be suitable, selective, swift and effective.

"We must be able to make deliberate choices in weapons and strategy, shift the tempo of our production and alter the direction of our forces to meet rapidly changing conditions or objectives at very short notice and under any circumstances."

In both those statements the Communists were left guessing as to what kind of retaliation the United States would use.

Setback Lowers Soybean Futures

CHICAGO (AP)—The first setback in almost a week knocked soybean futures down about 4 cents a bushel today in early transactions on the board of trade. The grains also were weak.

The liquidation of soybeans for profits was expected, brokers said, in view of the recent advance which had mounted to 25 cents or more on the old crop months. These deliveries Tuesday moved up the limit of 10 cents allowed for one day on the board.

Sheriff Irons Gets FBI Credit

Article Cites Lawman for Contributing to State Blockade System

The article appears in the April edition of the FBI's Law Enforcement Bulletin, which is disseminated to law enforcement agencies throughout the United States.

Purpose of the booklet is to keep police officers informed of new techniques in dealing with crime detection and prevention.

Michigan's blockade system for the apprehension of fleeing criminals or suspects was revised in 1957 when two gunmen managed to escape the state after slaying a state trooper and critically wounding another.

The gunmen eventually were arrested in Indiana but not before they killed a second trooper there and wounded two more officers besides kidnaping a private citizen.

Methods consequently were devised through the cooperation of various police agencies in Michigan to establish a blockade much more quickly. The revision was necessitated by the growing network of roads and faster highways in the state.

The plan involved further unity among police agencies, simplifying the inter-communications system, and establishing predetermined road-block locations in any given area of a crime.

Bell Firm Makes $1.36 Last Quarter for High

The giant utility cleared $315,299,000, equal to $1.36 a share on the parent company stock, compared with $282,223,000, or $1.32 share, in the year earlier period.

In the previous quarter net income amounted to $321,841,000, or $1.40 a share. Usually the first fiscal quarter is the low point of the year in earnings and the fourth is the high point.

* * *

City, Detroit Officials Hold Water Meeting

Pontiac and Detroit officials met yesterday on the subject of water in the first meeting to draft contracts to bring Detroit water to Pontiac.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said "good progress" was made.

Accompanying the manager were consultants from the engineering firm of Jones, Henry and Williams, the city's engineering aides.

City commissioners two weeks ago gave Willman the signal to have contracts prepared for their consideration. The pacts will set the cost of pumping Detroit water to Pontiac for distribution here through a revamped water system.

Space Issues Gain on Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and some space age issues advanced in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

Gains and losses of fractions to a point or more prevailed among most key stocks.

Profit taking, which was well under way Tuesday, continued in the wake of a 5½-month upward drive to new tops in the Dow Jones industrial average. Analysts said a period of consolidation was normal.

Steels, helped by a report of rising operations at Bethlehem and rotation of trading interest to this group which is well below its highs, posted a string of plus signs. Most gains were moderate.

Martin Co. and Boeing advanced about a point each while Hewlett-Packard added about 2. Raytheon was up fractionally.

Pontiac City Affairs

Trailer Camp Site Seems Acceptable

The planning commission may have no objections, in principle, to the proposal for a third trailer camp within the city limits, this one on Telegraph Road in the Beaudette Park area.

Planners reported to commissioners last night that the proposed camp site seems acceptable since the land immediately south is occupied by the Richards Trailer Camp, one of two in the city now. The other is on East Walton Boulevard.

But the planning commission investigation has uncovered technical problems concerning the proposed site, it was reported.

These concern the amount of dry land in the swampy Clinton River area that actually is available for commercial purposes, it was stated.

VIRTUALLY USELESS?

Owners of the land have asked the city to relent on its trailer-park ban, claiming that the land is virtually useless for other commercial purposes because it is off the beaten track now that the Orchard Lake Road underpass funnels traffic over the Telegraph Road bypass.

On the subject of taxis, an ordinance amendment was adopted requiring liability insurance of at least $25,000 and $50,000 on each cab, and property damage coverage of at least $10,000.

The previous minimums were $5,000 and $10,000 liability coverage, and $5,000 property damage.

It was agreed that alley requirements would be relaxed in connection with Chief Pontiac Federal Credit Union's plans for a new headquarters on the east side of Dalyn Avenue, between Raskob and Markell.

A hearing on rezoning there was continued until next week, allowing time for drafting of an agreement under which right of way for any alley will be given the city if ever the credit union sells the land.

Commissioners concurred in a planning commission recommendation denying the bid for rezoning to commercial of eight lots on the north side of Sanderson Avenue, close to Cass.

Trimmed from the public improvement program because of neighborhood opposition were proposals for a water main on Fiddis Avenue and curbs and gutters on Poplar Street, Baldwin to the railroad.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said that special services to the Tasmania Street water main would be permitted for two new homes on Fiddis.

Scheduled for hearings April 18 are the assessment rolls covering proposed recapping of North Saginaw Street, Chamberlain to Ruddell; Clinton Street, Williams to Wayne; and Joslyn Road, Columbia to Walton.

Initial hearings last night covered proposed curbs and gutters on Manitou Road, Ottawa Drive to Seminole Hills subdivision; First Avenue, Arlene to Fuller; Kenilworth Avenue, Mt. Clemens to Perry; and Monticello Avenue, Oakland to Orlando.

Other hearing involved special assessment rolls covering proposed black topping on Melrose Avenue, Mt. Clemens to Perry; Tennyson Avenue, Fuller to Arlene; Third Avenue, Joslyn to Highwood; Clifford Avenue, Auburn to Osmun; South Jessie Street, Prospect to Raeburn; Russell Street, Auburn to Osmun; Seward Street, Auburn to Osmun; Oxford Road, Argyle to Canterbury; and Raeburn Street, Sanford to Bexter.

Bids for the black topping and recapping contracts will be opened May 8.

A petition calling for rezoning of one lot on the south side of South Boulevard, west of Franklin Road, was referred to the Planning Commission for consideration. It was signed by 66 per cent of the property owners.

Slashes 2 Women With Machete

The mad sniper of Oakland County, 24-year-old Gary A. Taylor, was being held today by Detroit police for attacking two women with a machete.

* * *

Detroit police said Taylor has admitted slashing Mrs. Addie Dixon, 53, and her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Kraus, 30, last Monday night in their home because they refused to give him money. They suffered superficial cuts before the machete broke and Taylor fled.

Taylor, who reportedly was released from Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane last fall as being cured, was a roomer at Mrs. Dixon's house.

He had been committed to the hospital by the Oakland County Circuit Court following a pretrial sanitay hearing in March 1957, after he allegedly fired a .22 rifle at 13 Royal Oak women over a two-month period. He admitted shooting at three women. Two were wounded.

* * *

Taylor said then, "I had a compulsion to shoot at women."

Circuit Judge Frank Doty had Taylor, termed insane by psychiatrists, committed to Ionia Hospital and refused to concur with repeated recommendations later that he be released as cured.

According to Asst. County Prosecutor Robert Long "there is nothing in the files to show Taylor's release was even authorized, Long indicated that Taylor's release will be investigated.

Detroit police said they were holding Taylor for action by the Wayne County prosecutor's office.

Open Gift Shop at City Hospital

Auxiliary Says It Will Be Handy for Relatives, Friends of Patients

A gift shop has been opened by the Pontiac General Hospital Women's Auxiliary.

* * *

Located on the main floor in the east wing at the end of the main Huron Street corridor, the shop offers a convenient shopping place for patients' relatives and friends.

Operating between noon and 4 p.m. and again from 7 to 8 p.m. Monday through Saturday, the shop will be formally opened during National Hospital Week in May.

* * *

In another move, the auxiliary has ordered a bird respirator and four isolettes. The respirator is for emergency resuscitation for patients whose lives are in danger. The isolettes are a new style of incubator for premature babies.

* * *

Business Up, Says Ford VP

Iacocca Reports That Some of Orders Run Ahead of Supply

DEARBORN (AP)—Lee A. Iacocca, a Ford Motor Co. vice president, says a real upswing in business is under way because people have regained their "credit-cash confidence."

* * *

Iacocca, who is general manager of the firm's Ford Division, says in some cases people "are already buying in higher volume than we are ready to handle from the shelf."

The Ford official made the comments in speaking to some 3,000 salesmen attending the 13th annual sales rally of the Detroit Sales Executives Club Tuesday.

* * *

Iacocca said March car sales showed evidence of an upswing. He said the daily sales rate of autos jumped from 16,000 in February to 19,000, in March because of renewed "confidence in the market place."

He will be sentenced May 8.

He admitted stealing $527 from the Keego Hardware store on Feb. 16. He was nabbed by store owner Jerry Cobb when he attempted to run out the back door with the money in his pocket.

Judge Dismisses Charge in Fatal Crash on Osmun

Mrs. Queen Elizabeth Obey, 58 Wall St., was cleared of the charge stemming from a March 10 traffic accident because testimony of witnesses failed to show any evidence of negligence by Mrs. Obey, the judge said.

The two-car accident at Osmun and Paddock streets claimed the life of Mrs. John Whitmarsh, 68, of 2421 Pauline St., Waterford Township.

The prosecution contended that Mrs. Obey did not have her car under control at the time and made an improper turn into the path of the Whitmarsh car.

Blacktop Plans to Be Discussed

Sylvan Lake to Review Manager Applications, Talk Over Surfacing

The Sylvan Lake City Council will discuss final plans for its 1961 black topping program and review applications for the position of city manager at its regular meeting tonight at 8 in the Sylvan City Halls.

* * *

Along with announcements concerning the black top program, which will cost an estimated $40,000, a statement will be made regarding a proposed storm drain project on Lakeland Street.

It is doubtful the city will undertake the drain project this year, thus cutting Lakeland from the list of streets to be surfaced this summer.

Councilmen have not indicated they will make any choice tonight for a city manager, but are expected to discuss the matter.

* * *

Earle Knapp, superintendent of public works, has been filling in as acting city manager since the resignation of Marshall H. Woodburn last month.

Other items on the agenda will be passage of a resolution increasing electrical permit fees and discussion of a mosquito control program this summer.

They were: Edward J. Johnston, Berkley city manager, who replaced Mrs. Genevieve C. Schock, a veteran of 13 years; Robert J. Huber of Troy, returning to the board after a brief absence and replacing Mrs. Beulah Schmansky; and Wallace B. Hudson replacing Fred W. Hildebrandt in Troy.

JFK Review Spiritless but Generally Competent

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—Last night's NBC-TV special, "JFK—Report No. 2," rattled through a spiritless but generally competent roll call.

President Kennedy himself was called upon to deliver oral captions as still photos of his key White House aides were shown. The thought occurred that this chore might have been delegated to one of those aides if novelty value on TV did not outweigh discretion.

Better still, I believe we would have a more lasting impression of the men around the President if videotape replaced still photos in this presentation.

Mr. Kennedy did get a chance to break off a few quips during his card-holding act, though in general, his performance was subdued. Narrator Edwin Newman delivered some judgments on the spectrum of achievement—dig that "new frontier" dialogue—and also brought in some pithy overseas reports with some meaningless stagecraft.

An interview with the beautiful Mrs. Kennedy concluded things. Mrs. Kennedy, who appears to be performing her role with great care, spoke about the White House and the problems of raising children in it. It was the freshest section in the show.

Tired of taking baseball games through a TV filter, I toddled over to the Yankee Stadium Monday to remind myself how the game looks in living life.

After three innings, I grew accustomed to the luxury of being able to see the entire field in a single glance, without a dish of pretzels in front of home plate.

Man in Space

Moon Explorer to Provide Challenge to Medicine

By CARLTON WILSON

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Dr. Hubertus Strughold, a wispy 62-year-old German doctor, is slated to be the physician for the first American man on the moon.

While getting that man to the moon is a big enough problem, Dr. Strughold is faced with the bigger problem of bringing him back alive.

Strughold is an Aerospace Medical Research advisor for the U.S. Air Force and the Aerospace Medical Center. He is regarded as the foremost authority on space medicine.

"This is probably the greatest challenge to medicine in its entire history," he said.

* * *

Dr. Strughold said there are six "striking novelties" that will affect man's health in space:

—An absence of life-supporting atmosphere.

SPACE THRESHOLD

The threshold of space begins about 12 miles above the earth—an altitude where blood and other body fluids begin to boil. "With the disappearance of air resistance at about 120 miles the environmental picture of space is practically completed," he said.

Dr. Strughold said the radiation climate will limit the arena for manned satellite flight to 120 to 480 miles above the earth.

From that point, space passengers will have to be protected from radioactivity, but it is still too early to determine what degree of shielding will be required," he said.

"Tremendous variations within the solar system of the amount of electro-magnetic radiation may be harmful for manned space flight on the one hand, and may be put to work on the other," he said.

"There is a zone in our solar system in which the heat radiation is not too hostile to space operations, and it includes Vegus and Mars," he added.

HEAT BARRIER

"But temperatures present a kind of solar heat barrier further on and a trip into the region of the outer planets requires temperature control measures very different from those in the realm of the inner planets," Dr. Strughold said.

The spacemen will also have to guard against the amount of light hitting their space craft.

"Looking into the sun for less than 10 seconds can produce retinal burns," Dr. Strughold said, "and space travelers will have to wear automatically functioning light-absorbing glasses."

Satellite experiments so far have shown that collisions with meteorites won't be too great a problem but for extended space operations Dr. Strughold believes meteor bumpers might be combined with shielding devices against radiations.

Record School Budget

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Board of Education approved a record $144,829,650 budget Tuesday for the fiscal year beginning July 1. The budget provides for pay increases for the city's 10,000 teachers and 5,000 nonteaching employes.

Commissioners Allot $89,000 for City Airport

Act Upon Finding Out $294,000 in Federal, State Funds Due

An advance commitment of $89,000 in city matching funds for airport improvements next year was okayed by City commissioners last night after they learned in an informal session that another $294,000 should be forthcoming from state and federal sources.

City manager Walter K. Willman said he would push development of a secondary runway as part of the 1962 federal-aid-to-airports program.

Current planning on local and state levels, he said, calls for total expenditures of $388,000 next year. Besides the city's share, this includes $203,000 in federal aid and $91,000 from the state.

He said the commitment would be forwarded to the State Department of Aeronautics for use in its negotiations with the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) on the 1962 allocations.

Proposed allocations must still be approved by the Legislature and the FAA.

Current plans mainly involve improvements to the existing runway system. FAA allocations depend on a priority system based mostly on safety factors.

Willman said he would try to work for development of the secondary runway as a substitute improvement, saying this is considered an important facility by commercial and corporate aviation officials.

The second runway has been shoved aside in the past because its priority rate by the FAA was too low. Its exact location at the airport has not been decided.

Dykstra, of 1047 Glengary Road, Bloomfield Township, has been vice president in charge of manufacturing at Ford. He succeeds Henry Ford, II, who took over temporarily after Robert McNamara resigned to become secretary of defense.

Ford will continue as chairman and chief executive officer of the company founded by his grandfather.

108-MINUTE GLOBAL TRIP — The drawing provides a rough idea of the Russian spaceman's trip around the world. The drawing is not done according to scale. Moscow has not specified where the astronaut took off, or where he eventually landed.

Race of the Astronauts Is Won by Soviet Union

By HENRY SHAPIRO

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia won the man-in-space race today by shooting a young Air Force officer around the world in a space ship and bringing him back alive.

The Soviet Union announced that Maj. Yuri Gagarin, 27-year-old father of two children, had orbited the earth in a 5-ton space ship on a flight that took an hour and 48 minutes.

In that brief span, hardly more than the time of a train trip from New York to Philadelphia, man broke the barrier to space travel and raced closer to the eventual goal of flights to other planets.

A noted British scientist called the flight the "greatest scientific achievement in the history of man."

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev messaged Gagarin: "The entire world admires your deed, which will be remembered down the centuries as an example of courage, gallantry, and heroism in the name of service to mankind."

President Kennedy in Washington said: "The achievement by the U.S.S.R. in orbiting a man and returning him safely to the ground is an outstanding technical accomplishment. We contratulate the Soviet scientists and engineers who made this feat possible."

The first space man himself was quoted by Moscow radio as saying: "The realization of man's flight into space opens up grandiose prospects in the conquest of space by mankind."

The epic flight was made while

LONDON (AP) — Moscow television presented a picture of the Soviet Union's first space man today, describing him as a man with "a good, honest smile."

The portrait of Maj. Yuri A. Gagarin was shown and then came this broadcast comment, repeated by Moscow radio: "For those who did not see this picture we should like to give a description of this splendid man.

"On the screen appears the image of a man aged about 25-28 with a kind Russian face, eyes set well apart, fine bushy brows and high forehead.

"He wears a flying helmet, a light overall suit. He smiles a good, honest smile. And is there any need to add that this man who has been the first to dare to fly to space, to reach for the stars, to look down on our earth, is a man of a very great and very real character. This is evident in his smile, in the intelligent, fine eyes."

Gargarin was 27 just a month ago.

He is married to Valentina Gagarina, 26, who also has a scientific background. She was graduated from medical school at Orenburg.

They have two daughters, Yelena, 2, and Galya, just a month old.

Gagarin was born March 9, 1934, in the Gzhatsk district of the Smolensk area. As a child of 7, just starting school, he and his family experienced the Nazi invasion and fled into the hinterlands.

From Our News Wires

UPI reporter Henry Shapiro said many persons in Moscow are convinced after today's announcement that another manned flight into space was attempted Friday and there was speculation something may have gone wrong.

This may be borne out by a story in the Communist London Daily Worker. The paper's banner story Tuesday told of "The First Man in Space."

It is said the man was back alive after circling the earth three times, but that he was suffering from effects of his flight."

The Daily Worker said today it is standing by its story.

A spokesman for the editor said: "Our story came from good sources. All we know is what we published today. Now of course there is this one."

By "this one," he referred to today's Moscow announcement.

From Our News Wires

LONDON — Dancing, superlatives and predictions of more great things to come — perhaps a trip to the moon — greeted Russia's man-in-space achievement today from all corners of the world.

"This is the greatest scientific achievement in the history of man," said Sir Bernard Lovell, director of the Jodrell Bank here and one of the world's top scientists.

In Moscow, the people in the streets felt much the same. They danced and hugged each other in the biggest celebrations since the end of World War II.

Americans greeted the news with pride in the achievement of man but concern for the United States.

"I feel we should take off our hats to the Russians . . . and then tighten up our belts to do the best we can in space exploration," said a state trooper in Utah, summing up the general mood.

James E. Webb, director of the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration which was racing to beat the Soviets, said the flight was a "splendid achievement — a significant event in terms of the Soviets' own time-table."

Webb, whose astronauts are now in training, said he hoped the Soviets will provide the scientific community the information gained from the experiment.

WON'T COMPARE

At an international symposium in Florence, Italy, leading space scientists from throughout the world said the U.S.S.R. has achieved a great success but declined to compare Soviet and U.S. achievements in rocketry.

A top Soviet scientist said the Soviet Union will launch another man into space when it is established beyond doubt that Yuri Gagarin suffered no ill effects.

NASA's representative at the scientific gathering, Gerald M. Truszynski, said he expected the Soviets to orbit a man during the symposium.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Overton Brooks, D-La., chairman of the house space committee, said it "is not unexpected. We knew the Russians had that capability. At the same time it is an amazing feat."

He said "we have to move on with a stepped-up plan."

Eichmann Prosecutor Tells Court:

'Jews Will Never Forget'

By RELMAN MORIN

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli Attorney General Gideon Hausner, pointing his finger directly at Adolf Eichmann, cried out in court today that the Jewish people will never forget Eichmann "succeeded in part" in carrying out the Nazi plan to exterminate Europe's 11 million Jews.

The court adjourned at 5:11 p.m. (10:11 a.m. Pontiac time), ending its fourth session.

Hausner's outburst came in the second morning of Eichmann's trial on Israeli charges of "crimes against the Jewish people and crimes against humanity." One of these is the crime of genocide—mass murder. The state alleges that Eichmann, as chief of the Jewish Affairs Section of the Nazi Gestapo, bears direct responsibility for the slaughter of an estimated six million Jews.

Hausner reminded the three-judge court that in thousands of years of Jewish history there had been previous efforts to wipe the Jewish people off the face of the earth.

Then, suddenly raising his voice and stabbing the air with his left hand, he said: "There is no no pardon and there can be no forgetting."

Eichmann looked a little haggard when he came into court on this second day. His wispy hair was slightly rumpled. Dark circles ringed his eyes. He JERUSALEM (AP)—The Eichmann trial adjourned for lunch at 12:59 p.m. today. The afternoon session will begin at 3:30 p.m. (8:30 a.m. EST) and will end at 5:30 p.m., the court announced.

Through most of the morning session, he sat quite still, cupping his chin on his right hand. He made only one or two penciled notes on the paper in front of him.

The only time he showed any animation was in the moment before the judges came into the courtroom. Then, speaking through the private microphone in the glass-enclosed prisoner's dock, he exchanged a few words with his chief defense lawyer, Dr. Robert Servatius of Cologne, West Germany.

As they talked, Eichmann's face suddenly came alive. He seemed to be eagerly emphasizing a point.

Hausner spent the whole morning session in arguments to refute the challenges Servatius made Tuesday of the court's and Israel's right to try Eichmann. The German lawyer had contended that the Israeli law under which Eichmann is being tried was ex post facto—adopted after the event—and that Eichmann was only an instrument of the Nazi hierarchy, "dragged into these actions."

Citing precedent after precedent, decision after decision, Hausner contended that the crimes charged to Eichmann had been considered crimes throughout the civilized world long before Israel's 1950 law brought them into this nation's legal code.

Those Centennial Permits All in Fun, Says Rowston

Mayor Philip E. Rowston and other city commissioners gave assurances last night that centennial boards and cosmetic permits are "all in the spirit of fun."

"We hope that everyone will enter into the spirit of festivity, but of course those who don't won't be penalized," the mayor said. The comments came in response to reports that some people are worried about arrests by Keystone Cops of the centennial's Kangaroo Court.

"Anyone stopped on the street by the Keystone Cops who doesn't agree with our spirit of fun will certainly not be unduely bothered," said the Mayor.

After consulting with centennial headquarters today, Rowston said that there is agreement there on this policy.

Most of the public concern, he said, apparently is connected with the permits and buttons for the women to wear cosmetics and for the men to shave or grow beards.

Rowston noted regretfully that some people would like to join in wearing centennial regalia but are concerned about the expense of frivolities. He and other commissioners expressed sympathy with them.

Swinging into the centennial spirit, Commissioner John A. Dugan, a Pontiac Motor Division employe, noted that hourly workers at the plant are apparently more beard-conscious than the salaried employes.

He issued a sly dig at both white collar workers and downtown merchants for any lack of beards among their ranks.

Rowston in a mock presentation pinned a shaver's permit on the lapel of Commissioner William H. Taylor Jr., the only commissioner without a beard or mustache. Taylor then said he might grow a mustache.

Films Fan Controversy

LANSING (AP) — The controversial movie, "Operation Abolition," was screened before the State Legislature Tuesday night and evoked mixed emotions that were pro and con — but seldom indifferent.

Some 500 senators, representatives and spectators jammed into the House chamber on a standing-room-only basis to see the film which Gov. Swainson has ordered the state police subversive activities squad to stop showing in public on grounds it contains inaccuracies and distortions.

Protests were voiced over Swainson's actions by American Legion leaders and some Republican legislators.

After the showing, the governor said the order will remain in effect. It also applies to a slide-film presentation, "Communism on the Map," which was not shown to the lawmakers.

Swainson reportedly objects more strongly to "Map," — which purports to trace the expansion of Communism around the world — than to "Operation Abolition," a pieced-together movie on the student riots in San Francisco last May at a hearing of the House Un-America Activities Committee.

A crowd of 400 in Waterford Township last night watched the two films which Gov. John Swainson has stopped the state police from showing.

Originally scheduled for showing to the Waterford Township Republican Club, the films were opened to the public at no charge when the controversy rose over Swainson's order.

"Communism on the Map," an hour-long film strip, detailed the rise of communism throughout the world. It quotes Lenin's plan for conversion of Europe first, then Asia, and then for completion of the encirclement of the United States.

The second film which the governor ordered the troopers to stop showing was "Operation Abolition," a 40-minute movie which held most of the audience, despite two other films which preceded it.

The intervening films were "The Crimson Shadow," also about communism, and "My Latvia," story of the Red takeover in that country.

State Police Commissioner Joseph R. Childs said he had some 20 detectives on hand to keep order if necessary. But it wasn't necessary.

Rep. Frederic J. Marshall, R-Allen, who introduced the resolution

Adenauer Seeking Support for Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP) — German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer visited President Kennedy today seeking personal assurance of full U.S. support for West Berlin and the defense of Western Europe.

Flanked by advisers, the chancellor arrived at the White House at 9:55 a.m. and was quickly led into the President's office.

Reports from Bonn in advance of Adenauer's departure for Washington said the German leader was worried that the Kennedy administration's efforts to improve relations with the Soviet Union would slow down the strengthening of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's defense system.

Adenauer arrived here Tuesday night and promptly declared that "we are prepared to make a contribution in keeping with our abilities."

WANTS HELP ON COSTS

One problem between the United States and West Germany for many months has been U.S. urging that West Germany bear a greater share of the cost of Western expenses for defense and for aid to underdeveloped countries.

Shortly after Adenauer left Bonn, the West German government announced that it would pay ahead of schedule $587 million on its postwar debt to the United States.

The chancellor flew to Washington in a German jet airliner and was met by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

"It is most opportune that you could arrange to consult with us at precisely this time," Rusk said, "when a new American administration is shaping the major policy lines which we will expect to follow during the years ahead."

The chancellor has the reputation of always advocating a tough policy in dealings with the Soviet Union.

★ ★ ★

Diplomatic officials said it was a foregone conclusion that the talks here would bring a joint restatement of U.S. commitments to the protection of West Berlin regardless of Soviet threats and pressures against that city, which exists as an island in Communist East Germany.

★ ★ ★

More important and destined to take more time in their conversations is the problem of developing and strengthening NATO. Adenauer has called for strong U.S. leadership in NATO.

★ ★ ★

Officials said Kennedy's primary emphasis at present is on the increase of NATO's conventional military power. He is described as anxious to see that the NATO armies in Europe would be strong enough to meet a conventional military attack from the Communist bloc without immediately plunging into a great nuclear war.

May Include Branch Bank

Break Ground for Clinic

Ground was broken today for the $420,000 physician's clinic on Woodward Avenue that earmarks some space for an 11th branch office of Community National Bank.

On hand for the 10 a.m. ceremony were Dr. Edwin J. Dobski, a Pontiac physician and president of Physicians Real Estate Development Corp.; representatives from the bank and from Harry M. Denys Jr. & Associates, the architects; Rev. Edwin Schroeder, chaplain of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital; and Phillip J. Schurrer, head of Schurrer Construction Co., the general contractors.

The bank disclosed that it has applied to the U.S. comptroller of the currency to open the branch office. Community now has 10 branches in the Pontiac area.

The one-story, 17-office building, occupying 23,500 square feet of a 9-acre site on the east side of Woodward, opposite the hospital, is scheduled for completion in November.

An unusual design will have the offices facing Woodward in a semi circle. Air conditioning and a pharmacy are included.

Harry M. Denys, the architect, said the price tag included such site improvements as a 250-car parking lot.

Henry Ford II stepped down as president last Nov. 9 in favor of McNamara. That shift lasted only one month before President Kennedy summoned McNamara to Washington. Ford officially resumed his dual role of president and chairman on Jan. 3.

At that time he said the move was temporary because he felt the job should be divided.

Others included John Bugas, vice president in charge of Ford's international operations, and James O. Wright, who was elevated into McNamara's old job as head of the car and truck groups when McNamara became president in November.

Both Bugas and Wright are considerably younger than Dykstra.

'TRIBUTE TO SKILLS'

Commenting on Dykstra's election, Henry Ford said:

"The results Mr. Dykstra has obtained from the wide-reaching quality program he conceived and put in effect are a tribute to his executive skills and a testimonial to the depth and breadth of his knowledge of our business.

"To his new position as president of Ford Motor Co. he brings long experience and an outstanding record of management accomplishment.

Last Year to Date: 34

The youth, Ronald L. Nicholls, 17, of 1245 Waterbury Road, was rushed to Pontiac General Hospital where he was reported in serious condition. He suffered a fractured skull, severe cuts on his face and a broken ankle.

Nicholls, westbound on M59, evidently was waiting to make a left turn onto Milford Road, en route to classes at Milford High School this morning, when his car was struck by Combs' oncoming car. Both drivers were alone.

The force of impact drove Combs' car 200 feet and spilled Nicholls onto the road. Combs' car immediately burst into flames.

The fire was extinguished by three county road commission employees, Wesley Campbell, Gerald Hawes and Howard Smith, who arrived at the scene seconds later. Combs was pinned in his car. He died apparently of a broken neck and chest injuries.

Sheriff's deputies were unprepared to say which driver was at fault until they have completed their investigation.

Lawmakers Eye Deer Herd Bill, School Ruling

LANSING (AP) — State lawmaking machinery moved into high gear today as members of the legislature got set to act on some of the more important bills of the year.

Bills to remove the State Conservation Department's discretionary authority over the deer herd and to eliminate school districts that don't operate high schools were among those readied for a vote in the House.

In the Senate, a bill to prohibit bill boards along interstate highways was ready for passage. Favorable action would increase federal highway funds for Michigan by more than $5 million.

resulting in the joint legislative meeting, commented:

"I'm disappointed that the governor still refuses to rescind his ban. These films should be viewed by every man, woman and child in America."

HAVE NO QUARREL

But some Republicans said they had no quarrel with the governor's right to order the state police to cease public showings.

Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, R-Grand Ledge, said he sees nothing objectionable in the film itself.

On the other side of the political fence, Rep. Albert R. Horrigan, D-Flint, Democratic floor leader, said he agrees with the governor 100 per cent.

"It's not the function of a state agency to show films like this," he said. "Let the Farm Bureau, the Ladies Aid and the Holy Name Society do it if they want. The film itself doesn't do much to point up the Communist menace.

Msgr. John D. Sloway of the Catholic Social Services of Lansing said he doesn't see what all the excitement is about. He added:

"I'm still trying to figure out what the film is all about. If it's intended to portray Communist methods, it does a fair job. If it is intended to show its philosophy, it's doing poorly."

Soviets Bring Man Back From Space

the United States apparently was still weeks away from putting its first man into space and months from shooting him into orbit around the earth.

MOSCOW GOES WILD

As the news spread through Moscow crowds swarmed into the streets in the wildest display of jubilation seen here since Nazi Germany collapsed on May 8, 1945.

Celebrants paraded through the main streets, children were dismissed from school, radios and television sets proclaimed the news over and over, Snow that had been falling on Moscow ceased, and the sun came out.

So sure were Soviet scientists of success that they announced the launching of the manned space vehicle before it had returned to earth. (They said it took off at 9:07 a.m. (1:07 a.m. Pontiac time) and later they announced it had passed over South Africa and South America.

Then, they said, at 10:25 a.m., the space craft began applying its retroactive braking engines, and at 10.55 a.m. it landed, signaling the start of a new phase of man's existence that may allow him to reach for the stars.

Gagarin made the epic journey in what was called a "stepped-lying" position, with his torso on the ship's floor and with his legs in a chair-like device.

After he alighted from the craft Gagarin, whose last name means "wild duck", said he felt fine.

89.1-MINUTE TRIP

The actual orbiting time was announced as 89.1 minutes for the trip of more than 20,000 miles at heights ranging from 109 to 187 miles over the earth in the space ship named Vostok (East).

The craft was controlled from the ground all the way, and the Soviet scientists said they were in touch with the "cosmonaut," as the Russians call him, by radio and television all the way.

The additional time given for the trip apparently covered landing time. And although it was announced Gagarin returned to a predetermined spot in the Soviet Union, it was possible his takeoff and arrival sites were widely separated.

The first American attempt to put a man into orbit is not expected until late this year or some time in 1962.

The Soviets opened the space age on Oct. 4, 1957 with the launching of Sputnik I, but the United States got into contention with the orbiting of Vanguard I on March 17, 1958.

Since then the United States had hurled 40 satellites successfully into space as compared with a total of 16 for Russia, including today's success.

Soviets Widen Lead in Space

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union's success in putting a man into earth orbit has given it a running lead in the race to control space.

Before 1961 is over the Soviets may give the United States additional cause to feel a sense of angry frustration.

There is not much doubt anymore that the Soviets have developed far more powerful rockets than the United States and hence have a greater capability in space activities.

WORK ON TIMETABLE

Indeed the Soviets appear to be working to a space timetable and solving the problems encountered along the way on schedule.

But even if the Soviets are not in position to gain control of space uncontested, the fact remains that a successful man orbit will damage the image of the United States once more as the world's most advanced nation technologically.

Measured by the reported Soviet astronaut shot, the first U.S. effort to send a man on a ballistic trajectory will be scientifically primitive.

The first blow to U.S. scientific pride came on Oct. 4, 1957, when the Soviet Union became the first nation to put an artifical earth satellite into orbit.

FIRST BLOW TO U.S.

While the United States has since put 38 satellites into orbit (22 are still there), the Soviets have had but 13 successful launchings. But the Soviet payloads have been larger, indicating their rocket boosters are far more advanced than those of the United States.

The United States has never been able to match the Soviet payloads pound for pound.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Redstone rocket which the United States had hoped would boost the first man into space stands on a launching pad here. The Soviet Union beat its firing date by at least two weeks.

"So close, yet so far," commented a technician who is helping groom the Redstone to send one of America's astronauts on a short suborbital flight, hopefully late this month or early in May.

Elect James Beresford Hills Mayor Third Time

This is the third time that Beresford, a city commissioner since 1948, has been elected mayor. He held the top city office in 1954 and 1955.

He was appointed to the office in April 1953 to fill the vacancy created with the resignation of Walter O. Briggs Jr.

Bugas and Craig were re-elected and Frye, a Detroit attorney defeated Dominick Vettraino, a city commissioner since 1955.

A resolution expressing appreciation of Vettraino's six years of service to the city was adopted by commissioners.

Confusion Surrounds First Man in Space

But he pointed out, in commenting on the Daily Worker report that the Russian ship had made three orbits around the earth before being brought back, that American trackers would not necessarily pick up a space ship that was limited only to three orbits.

Orion Methodist Church Reports Theft of $20

Thieves took approximately $20 from an office in the Lake Orion Methodist Church, it was reported to village police yesterday by Rev. Albert Johns.

SICC Trio in Washington

Seeking Work for Area

Armed with the proof of where federal funds could be put to work, a trio of officials representing the six - county Supervisors Inter-County Committee were in Washington today trying to sell a program to spur the economy and get public works projects started.

The delegation was headed by Delos Hamlin, chairman of the SICC and the Oakland County Board of Supervisors; R. J. Alexander, director of the county department of public works, and Gerard H. Coleman, executive secretary of the SICC.

They were scheduled to meet with Sens. Patrick V. McNamara and Philip A. Hart, members of Michigan's congressional delegation including Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Oakland County, and representatives of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, which must approve the federal grants.

Alexander, Hamlin and other Oakland County public works and road officials visited Washington last month to make a plea for any federal funds which may become available under President Kennedy's plan to assist local communities in meeting today's critical needs for new and expanded public facilities and services.

NO GIVEWAY PLAN

"This is not a giveway program," Hamlin told the board of supervisors meeting in Pontiac yesterday. "It is more or less like a Federal Housing Administration municipal loan."

The officials carried with them a detailed report of projects — with a grand total of $1,396,896,630 — for which federal funds could be employed in Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, St. Clair, Wayne and Washtenaw counties, including the city of Detroit.

The counties make up the SICC, which was formed in June 1954 to solve problems which one county couldn't solve by itself.

The report is divided into projects that Detroit and the six counties could (1) place under contract in 30 to 90 days; (2) start construction in a period of three to six months; and (3) start construction in one to two years but still require general planning.

Hamlin said Oakland had on tap about $81,011,850 of what the report calls "immediate projects," and about $35,600,000 in the latter category of projects were feasibility has been established but planning must be done.

All the projects in the report could mean an estimated 300,700,000 in labor man hours, Hamlin said.

Considering the third category of projects, Hamlin said:

"This is not a program solely concerned with helping to solve the Detroit metropolitan areas immediate economic and employment problems, but one that has a long range future needs concept that is so vital if this area is to continue its phenominal growth pattern of the last 20 years."

In the category of projects ready to be placed under contract the soonest, the report listed the long-awaited Clinton River sewage disposal system to serve northeastern Oakland County, extensions of the Farmington sewage disposal system, and a water system for Farmington Township.

Hamlin has been requested by Gov. John B. Swainson to have the SICC compile the prospectus on public works after President Kennedy made clear his intention of accelerating essential building and expenditure programs that would help reinvigorate the economy.

Included in the second class of projects are some sections of the Clinton River system, a sanitary sewer system for Troy, and extensions of the system at Michigan State University Oakland, which eventually will be part of the Clinton River project.

★ ★ ★

In the last class, Hamlin pointed out in the report that federal funds could speed up a similar system for southwestern Oakland County, to be called the Huron River Sewage Disposal System. This cost is $22,639,000.

Ex-City Resident Dies in the East

Harry A. McBride, 74, Served Many Years in Diplomatic Posts

Harry A. McBride, former Pontiac resident who has served as assistant to the secretary of state and as consul in many corners of the world, died in a hospital in Washington, D.C., yesterday. He was 73.

McBride was born in Flint. He spent his early life in Pontiac. In 1908 he was appointed a clerk in the office of the consulate general at Dresden, Germany.

He later served as consular agent at Bilbos, Spain, and in 1910 was deputy consul general at Barcelona, Spain. The following year he was vice consul general at Zurich, Switzerland.

After passing a consular examination in 1912, McBride was selected in 1913 as vice and deputy consul general at Bonna in the Congo.

In 1916 he became vice consul at London, England. From 1918 to 1919 he was acting general receiver of customs and financial advisor of Liberia and member of the Liberian Internal Debt Commission.

One Way to Measure Success

How Would You Rate on This List?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Are you a success?

There are many ways to measure success, but the chances are that you've done pretty well in life—at least in the eyes of your neighbors—if:

BOYLE

You have been living at a rate of only $1,000 a year over your income for the last five years, and your credit is still good.

The boss, instead of pushing a buzzer when he wants you, strolls out to your desk to ask advice.

The barber can tell you in complete honesty, "Nope, it isn't getting any thinner on top."

None of your children has been sent to reform school.

All your brothers-in-law have steady jobs.

* * *

You can play pool instead of golf and still keep your standing in the community.

Your home has one more bathroom than it does bedrooms — and the garage has a door that opens automatically.

Both the minister and the postman call you by your first name, but the bank president addresses you as "mister" with a note of firm respect.

The family dog is too old to have any more pups, and the family cat is still too young to have kittens.

* * *

She trusts you absolutely — but still gets a bit upset if you talk more than 10 minutes to a strange blonde at a party.

Your daughter, who insisted on going steady at 13, decides at 14 she is through with boys forever.

LETTER FROM IRS

A letter arrives from the Internal Revenue Service, and when you fearfully open it you find inside a message congratulating you on the detailed accuracy of your last income tax return.

You are able to take martinis or leave them alone, and you prove it— by letting them alone.

* * *

* * *

The doctor envies you because he's on a diet—and you can still eat anything you want to.

You don't have to worry about your job at the office. Nobody else wants it.

You can still bend over—knees stiff—and touch the ground 15 times without puffing or bragging, on some days.

* * *

Marriage hasn't made you a complete prisoner. In a real emergency you could sew on a button without stabbing yourself, or heat up a can of meatballs and spaghetti without setting the house on fire.

* * *

Most people seem more admirable to you now than they did when you were younger.

You are reconciled to the fact the world can endure without you, but if you did go unexpectedly, some hearts would be left sadder.

There is still a remote possibility you might inherit real money, and wind up wealthy after all.

Now go back over the list and check those that apply to you. What is your own success quotient?

Warns Officers They Must Learn 'No Comment'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Navy John B. Connally told Navy and Marine Corps officers Tuesday to keep their mouths shut unless they are willing to be quoted and identified.

He aimed specifically at anonymous news leaks and statements contrary to Pentagon policy.

Couple Exchange Rings at Nuptial High Mass

Wedding rings and vows were exchanged by Joann Anna Rie and Dolan T. Sontag before the Rev. Francis J. O'Donnell at a nuptial high Mass Saturday in St. Michael Church.

The couple, with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rie of Newport Avenue and the Dolan Sontags of Pittsfield Avenue, received some 200 guests at Walt's Hall on Opdyke Road where an orchestra played for dancing following the wedding breakfast.

The bridal gown of white silk organza over taffeta was styled with bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves. Sequin-embroidered Alencon lace formed a panel on the princess bodice and full skirt, styled with bustle back and chapel sweep.

A Swedish crown of cut crystals secured imported silk illusion veiling edged with lace. The bridal cascade of white roses and lilies of the valley was centered with a orchid wrist corsage.

JoAnn Kiszka of Flint attended her cousin as maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Sue Sontag, sister of the bridegroom, Nancy Weaver, Donna Parsons and Donna Mapley.

A purple organza cummerbund distinguished the honor maid's frock of white organza over taffeta, styled with cap sleeves and bustle back. For the bridesmaids, gowned like the honor attendant, there were lavender cummerbunds. All carried white carnations.

The mother of the bride appeared in lavender silk organza over taffeta and the bridegroom's mother chose green silk organza. Both wore pink carnations.

Leaving for a two-week honeymoon near Denver, Colo., the new Mrs. Sontag was wearing a light blue wool suit. A home on First Avenue awaits the newlyweds on their return.

Audrey Samson Now Mrs. Robert L. Force

Audrey Anne Samson of Lakena Street exchanged wedding vows and rings with Robert L. Force of Williamston at noon today before the Rev. Robert Wyzgoski in St. Benedict Church. Altar flowers were white gladioli.

Daughter of former Bloomfield Township residents, the C.A. Samsons of San Diego, Calif., the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Lawrence Samson. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Force of Williamston are parents of the bridegroom.

Fingertip veiling of silk illusion held by a Swedish crown, complemented the bride's gown of white taffeta, styled with chapel train. The fitted square-neck bodice and short sleeves were of Alencon lace.

Coming from Hillman to attend their sister were Mrs. George Muto, matron of honor and Mrs. Charles Bowler, who served as bridesmaid with Mrs. Jerry Jason of Williamston, sister of the bridegroom.

Headands of feathered aqua carnations complemented their dresses of aqua silk organza over taffeta. Their cascade bouquets of aqua and white carnations were streamered with white feathered carnations.

Keri Nan Kelly of Union Lake, in floor-length white silk organza over taffeta and wearing a coronet of white carnations, held a basket of white rose petals.

After greeting some 200 guests at an afternoon reception in the Eagles Hall, Highland Road, the new Mrs. Force donned an olive green wool suit for the honeymoon in Chicago and the Wisconsin Dells. The couple will live in Williamston.

MRS. ROBERT L. FORCE

Hostesses at pre-nuptial showers for the bride were Mrs. Jay Smith and Mrs. Fred Beckwith of Pontiac and Mrs. Frank Kelly, Union Lake.

Who Does the Cooking in Your House?

BY GAY PAULEY

In a national poll of cooking and marketing habits, 19,000 women discussed who does the cooking in the family and why, who does the marketing, whether hubby is a good cook, what objections wives have to their husbands in the kitchen, and how frequently the man of the house takes over the meal preparation.

Forty-four per cent of the 19,000 women said their husbands now do the food shopping; 42 per cent are preparing at least one meal a day.

An unpublished study made by the same pollsters in 1958 showed only 21 per cent of the men doing the shopping and 28 per cent cooking for their families.

MARKETING TRENDS

The studies were made by the Avery Label Co., of Monrovia, Calif., Cleveland, Ohio, and New Brunswick, N. J., as one of a series of consumer research projects to keep manufacturers and retailers posted on marketing trends.

Annual income of the families polled ranged from $4,400 to $10,000.

The researchers said they questioned in further detail the 42 per cent of women who said their husbands cook. Almost one-third of them answered "yes" to the question: "Does your husband cook better than you?" The rest said no.

Only 11 per cent of the women objected to their husbands in the kitchen—giving varying reasons including, "He messes up too much" and "I have to clean up after he is finished."

But many of the wives praised their husbands for washing dishes and generally tidying up after meal preparation.

To the question, "Why does he cook?" the wives' replies generally ran this way: "We both work;" "It relaxes him;" "To give me a rest;" "It's his hobby;" "I work full-time and he works part-time" and "I don't like to cook."

BARGAIN HUNTERS

As for shopping habits, in families where the men do all the food buying, the women listed such reasons as their own jobs, their lack of time, someone must be at home to care for the children, and only one car in the family.

The 19,000 women agreed by a narrow margin (51 per cent) that husbands are inclined to go beyond what's on a shopping list. But 57 per cent said their husbands are bargain hunters who look for specials and sales items.

Abby Lets 'Em Talk

Debate Goes On and On

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I boiled when I read the letter from the woman who signed herself "Fed Up." She was annoyed because her clergyman (Protestant) visited her in the hospital after her seventh child was born and asked her if she had ever heard of birth control.

ABBY

She said that the size of one's family was a personal matter. Well, she is gravely mistaken. When children are abandoned by their parents because they can't feed and clothe them properly, who takes care of them?

And who pays for public education and juvenile delinquency and homes for unwed mothers? The taxpayer!

As long as I am a taxpayer, the number of children produced in this country IS my business.

DEAR ABBY: I agree with "FED UP" that the size of one's family is one's own personal business. I know how she must feel because I have born 18 children. I was quite a "curiosity" in town.

People would point me out and make all sorts of foolish remarks about this "tremendous" accomplishment, which was really the most natural thing in the world for a woman to have done.

When they asked, "Why so many?" I would reply, "When I go to face my Supreme Judge He cannot say to me, 'Why are the children I sent you?'"—because I accepted [illegible].

DEAR ABBY: My hat is off to that minister who asked the woman in the hospital if she had ever heard of birth control.

If that lady can write, I assume she can read. Doesn't she know that in 40 years the population of this world will be doubled? Doesn't she know that today one man with a machine can do the work of 120 men? And if we continue to populate this country at the present rate, unemployment will choke us?

I used to raise pure breed dogs at one time, but just because my dog came in season every six months did not mean I had to breed her that often. But I guess I thought more of my dog than that man did of his wife.

DEAR ABBY: Tell "Fed Up" to cheer up. Time will fix things. I was the mother of 9 when my eldest was 12. "Friends" would come with suggestions all the way from birth control to divorce. Our 5th child was born during the depression, and a cousin even came to take the baby home with her, like a stray kitten.

Her heart was broken because I couldn't spare her just this one. . . ("You have so many!". You should have heard the cruel comments in town. ("Don't they know any better? How ignorant can people be?")

Now, years later, to our faces they tell us how proud we ought to be, and they look with envy upon our 16 beautiful grandchildren. But I can't let myself hate them. There is no room in a mother's heart for hate. It's full of too much real love.

DEAR ABBY: "FED UP" is encouraging the very condition she objects to. As the number of people increases, the more limited will become personal freedom of action. One hundred years ago, the number of children a woman had was her business.

Child-bearing is no longer a "personal matter" since the number of children my neighbor has will affect the health and welfare of my children, and vice versa.

Mrs. C. W. Salton will read a paper on pressed glass at the May meeting in the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. John Napley on Kellen Lane. Programs for the 1961-2 season will be distributed at the June meeting.

Guests of the group were Mrs. Francis McDowell, Mrs. F. R. MacKercher and Mrs. Walter Obenauf.

Duo Pianists Give Musicale Pleasure

By CHRIS GAENSBAUER

One of the finest programs ever heard by a Tuesday Musicale audience was presented by duo pianist Eugene Bossart and Charles Fisher Tuesday afternoon at Fellowship Hall of Grace Lutheran Church.

Both men are members of the piano staff of the University of Michigan's School of Music. Both have been heard by the club as solo pianists and accompanists, so their artistry was well-known. In spite of this, the large audience was not quite prepared for the exciting musical experience the performers provided as a team.

Mr. Bossart and Mr. Fisher have just begun their career as duo pianists but have already realized a togetherness that some teams take years to achieve. It was as if the music and the emotional expression of it came from one source and flowed in one current throughout the afternoon.

VARIETY OFFERED

Representative compositions of every musical period were performed, some of them refreshingly unfamiliar works in the rather limited two-piano repertory. The classical group included a "Prelude and Gigue" by Zipoli and works by Bach and Mozart. With the clarity needed for this style, the artists demonstrated their brilliant technique, fine balance in the give and take of themes, perfect coordination of notes and apparently identical feelings as to the emotional content of the music.

★ ★ ★

The lovely "Romance" from Rachmaninov's "Second Suite" opened the second group, followed by a Poulenc "Sonata" in three movements. The Poulenc "Waltz" which ended the section was a favorite with the audience. The pianists brought out all the wit and romance possible in a waltz rhythm that was irresistible. They obviously enjoyed it too.

HAVE GREAT FUTURE

Completing the program was the popular "Scaramouche Suite" by Milhaud and two parts of Brahms' "Variations on a Theme by Haydn"—encores at the enthusiastic insistence of the audience.

There seems no doubt that as Mr. Bossart and Mr. Fisher build and polish their repertoire they can have a truly distinguished career as a duo-piano team.

Tuesday Musicale president Mrs. J. B. Forman and vice president Mrs. George H. Putnam reported on the state convention of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs which they attended last week in Battle Creek. Mrs. Ralph Norvell announced the award of the Tuesday Musicale scholarship to Jean Huttula, violinist at Pontiac Central High School. Bridge parties to benefit the scholarship fund will be held April 27.

★ ★ ★

Introducing the artists was Mrs. Donald Hogue. Other committees for the day were Mrs. Harold Steinbaugh and Mrs. J. Robert Greenhaigh, cochairmen of the social committee; Mrs. James W. Briney, Mrs. B. Jack Habel, Mrs. William W. Donaldson and Mrs. Walter Wharton, social committee.

Door hostesses were Mrs. O. L. Smith and Mrs. W. A. Schmitz. At the tea table were Mrs. L. W. Stoddard and Mrs. R. C. Stuckmeyer, Mrs. A. L. Hulet and Mrs. J. A. Rammes were the floral committee.

AP Photofax

A White House luncheon for Washington newswomen found Mrs. John F. Kennedy, wife of the President, hostess to 250 women. She is shown talking with luncheon guests in the East Room. Service was buffet style and talk ranged from coiffures to Caroline to Cassini.

What's In a Name? It Still Has Calories!

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Oregon School Food Service Association defines the school lunch this way:

In the primary grades it's a threat;
In the grades it's a contest;
"My plate's clean first; can I have my seconds now?"
In the high school it's a tool for asserting new found sophistication;
In the faculty room it's a wail;
"If I eat it, I'll get fat."
In the kitchen it's a worry;
"Will they like it today?"
To the manager it's a challenge;
"How can I make it on this budget?"
To the federal government it's a type A. meal;
One glass of milk
Two ounces of protein food
Three-fourths cup fruit or vegetable
Bread and butter.

Exercise Is Optional

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Why just hover around a good figure? If a woman is only five or 10 pounds too much, she is apt to drift without doing anything about it. Yet just this much can make the difference between only a fair figure and a lovely one.

It seems especially too bad since she can lose this much weight in such a short time.

As most of you know, I am bringing you my nine-day Reducing Diet this week. Many women wonder whether they can make some substitutions if there is some food they do not like.

The answer is yes. However, be certain to substitute in the same category. In other words, do not substitute a vegetable for meat or a soft drink for fruit juice.

SAME CATEGORY

Also be sure that your substitution is in the same category so far as calories are concerned. Some vegetables and fruits have more calories than others. My Nine-Day Diet booklet gives you help with substitutions.

Women ask, too, if they should exercise on the Nine-Day Diet.

You can lose the pounds without the exercises, but if you wish to tone up the muscles while you do so, try this: Stand erect with your feet a comfortable distance apart, arms raised over head, hands clasped together. Bend over as far toward the floor as you can, keeping knees straight.

Raise the trunk and arms, stretching up toward the ceiling. Twist toward the right as you raise trunk the first time.

BREAKFAST

One poached egg on toast
Black coffee

You don't have to exercise while you diet, but you may wish to tone up your muscles while you lose pounds as this girl is doing.

LUNCHEON

One medium hamburger cake (cooked without butter and made of lean meat)
Celery sticks
One glass skimmed milk
Two raw carrots

DINNER

Small lean steak
One-half cup cauliflower
One baked potato (no butter. Medium sized potato has only about 90 calories)
One orange
One glass skimmed milk before bedtime

If you have missed some of the Nine-Day Diet and would like to have the complete diet with directions in a small booklet form, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Many Women Crude When Out in Public

By RUTH MILLETT

Women have often tried to be "just as good as men" in one endeavor after another. But it seems they have overlooked one bet.

★ ★ ★

We make more noise in public than do men.

We cause more commotion in restaurants, taking longer to decide what we will eat, then often changing our minds and our order, etc. And for this extra trouble, we leave smaller tips than men.

We sit in waiting rooms, hotel lobbies, and all such public places and stare with hard, appraising eyes at every other woman who passes.

We repeat gossip and discuss intimate family affairs in voices shrill enough to be overheard.

We haven't men's knack for being friendly and at the same time impersonal with strangers. Instead we either appear aloof and standoffish or entirely too quick to become confidential on short acquaintance.

All too often we accept men's courtesies without thanks, apparently assuming that having doors held open for us is our natural right.

It just hasn't seemed to occur to women that when it comes to public politeness men are 'way ahead of them, and that here would be a fine place to start showing the world we are "just as good as men."

Always Ask Reason Why You Are Angry

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Because of the little sister's lack of consideration, the arrangement made it impossible for Mrs. W to maintain any order she had made.

Her school books were always getting lost under the jumble of Cora's so that she never could find one where she'd put it.

Mornings, as she would braid her hair for school before their mirror Cora would elbow her aside, pull open her bureau drawer and say, "Have you got my clean slip in here"?

Since complaining of this situation only made their mama angry, Mrs. W stopped complaining — and with increasing but unexpressed resentment endured the disorder forced on her.

SHOOK HER FINGER

As her mother took it in, anger tightened to fury in her chest. Calling Mona, she pointed a shaking finger at the items of disorder and asked God to tell her what she'd done to deserve such an inconsiderate child. She said many other hurtful but ineffective things.

They were ineffective because Mona had no way of knowing that the intense anger she had exploded belonged not to her but to her Aunt Cora.

She is not aware of the sense of injustice accumulated by years of her mother's struggle with her younger sister's lack of co-operation. Nobody has ever told her that those years developed a special need for consideration in her mother.

All Mona knew was that her mother's anger was out of proportion to her offense.

We can't expect children to know why some kind of misbehavior explodes extravagant anger in us. So when we explode it, we have to wonder why an untidy bathroom, a broken promise, a criticism seems the very last straw to us. We have to wonder whether we have somehow confused the child who has affronted us with someone else who has affronted us.

* * *

We have to learn to ask ourselves:

"Why does this special kind of misbehavior arouse such anger in me?"

"Dear Mrs. Farmer:

"I am making a robe that is giving me fits. How can I attach these pieces without spoiling the 'V' Shape?"

Mrs. J.C.C.

Do not machine stitch the center back seam all the way to the edge of fabric. Instead, stitch to a mark ⅝" from the edge and then back stitch. The edge you have left open will make it possible for you to fit the yoke in and still have a perfect "V".

If you are fitting in a similar type part of your pattern where there is no seam at the point of the V, you should reinforce each side of the V by stitching on the seamline and then CLIP the fabric to the point you have reinforced. You will now proceed as above.

"Dear Eunice:

"However, the other night on TV, June Allyson had on a beautiful dress with the buttonholes on the left side. Which way is correct?"

Mrs. M.C.

"Rules are made to be broken," as the old saying goes. There is a rule that is more or less standardized for men's and women's clothes concerning the direction for the closing.

In more expensive clothes, designers take great joy in doing the unconventional just to be unique. This is undoubtedly the reason for the unusual closing in the dress you saw.

SHE NEEDS EASE

"Dear Eunice,

"I have what they call a large 'rib-cage' and when a sheath dress is fitted like most of them are, it is much too tight above my waistline. It also doesn't look very good. Is there some special kind of pattern that would look good on me?"

Mrs. C.S.

Dear Mrs. C.S.:

Instead of making one large dart under the bustline, I would suggest making one smaller dart and one small, unpressed pleat. This would give you some ease above the waistline.

You could also gather the fabric allowed for darts and have a slightly bloused effect for the bodice. I would avoid a tight-fitting bodice.

What! Wait for 3-Minute Eggs?

By EUGENE GILBERT
President, Gilbert Youth Research Co.

"Life," said Nathaniel Hawthorne a century ago, "has few pleasanter prospects than a well provisioned breakfast table."

Novelist Hawthorne would be surprised to learn that today nearly a fourth of America's young people don't even eat breakfast.

* * *

"Breakfast usually is crammed into about three minutes every morning," said Ann Hege, 15, of State College, Pa.

Hers was a typical comment, expressed another way by 16-year-old Judy Wilkes of Seattle, Wash. Judy eats breakfast every morning, she said, "unless I'm late for school."

Time, or the lack of it appears to be the deciding factor, because 67 per cent of the teen-agers (56 per cent of the boys and 78 per cent of the girls) say they have a bigger breakfast on weekends and holidays.

* * *

THEY EAT AND EAT

But this isn't always the case. Mary J. Hall, 18, of Louisville, Ky., for example, spoke for the 38 per cent (44 per cent boys and 31 per cent girls) who eat a medium sized breakfast every day — holidays included.

"In the morning," said Mary, "all I want is something to keep my stomach from growling."

The great majority (72 per cent) make up for a small or medium breakfast with between-meal snacks, and 33 per cent of the boys and 19 per cent of the girls said they had a hot lunch. The rest eat sandwiches for lunch.

And there are the real trencher-men, like 16-year-old Roy Duncan of Seattle, who eats a breakfast of bacon and eggs, hotcakes, coffee and toast, and for lunch puts away three sandwiches, a bowl of soup, a banana and a slice of cake.

Roy is among the 25 per cent of the boys and 15 per cent of the girls who don't eat between meals.

"Three meals a day is enough for anyone," declared Emily Simons, 17, of Eugene, Ore. But Emily and Roy are in the minority.

Judy Brink, 16, of Waterloo, Iowa, likes to have a sack of popcorn handy because "it fills you up fast;" Carla Fagan, 15, of Brooklyn, N.Y. confesses she has a yen for candy; Eileen Bernstein, 15, of New York, calls herself "a tuna fish addict;" and undiscerning Rocky Kershaw, 15, of State College, says he'll eat "anything that happens to be in the cupboards."

If their eating habits appear unusual to adults, the teen-agers can point to the fact that 69 per cent of them (75 per cent boys and 62 per cent girls) don't feel they have a weight problem.

Girls, perhaps, are more conscious of these matters. Twenty-six per cent of them felt they were over weight (or, like 16-year-old Debby Rubin, 16, of New York, "overweight in places"), and 53 per cent of them said, they had been on a diet at one time or another.

Only 15 per cent of the boys had found it necessary to diet, and they seemed to be more successful at it than the girls.

Sue Cook, Raymond Freebury

Marry in Fenton Church

* * *

Following a wedding luncheon for some 150 guests at the Hotel Fenton, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Cook Jr., opened their home for an afternoon reception. The Raymond E. Freeburys of Blaine Avenue are parents of the bridegroom.

* * *

Mrs. James B. Morse of Okemos attended her sister as matron of honor and Mrs. Fred Mueller of Drayton Plains served as bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of orchid silk with harem-style skirts and wreaths of orchid straw, Champagne cymbidium orchids and ivy comprised their semi-cascade bouquets.

The couple will live in Spartan Village, East Lansing, while Mr. Freebury completes his senior studies at Michigan State University. His bride attended Ferris Institute, Big Rapids.

* * *

Advice to Career Gals:

Live Alone, Like It or Learn These Rules

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — If you're a working girl who isn't completely sold on living alone, you may be tempted to exchange your privacy for a roommate who will help you face the landlord on the first of every month.

Yet if you're not the roommate type, you may live miserably ever after. And so might your roommate.

Since then he has found a suitable tenant for himself, and he has also evaluated apartments, interviewed, investigated and eventually matched up hundreds of applicants. Baum says he has had almost 100 per cent satisfied clients.

During an applicant's interview he gathers personal and financial information and makes notes about appearance and personality traits. He follows up by questioning past landlords, acquaintances and creditors.

If the professional roommate-finder does not like what he discovers, or if a woman hedges about her age or balks at certain questions, Baum becomes wary. Or, if he notes in conversation that his applicant is extremely emotional, strongly opinionated, or unduly withdrawn, he politely suggests she would be happier living alone.

However, for those who are the types who can sacrifice privacy without suffering, there are other advantages besides shared expenses. Two can divide cooking and housekeeping chores and two can multiply friendships.

THE LAW

Baum offers these rules as a guide to being a better roommate:

1. Make up your mind that nobody is going to see eye-to-eye all the time.

2. Be considerate of the other person's sleeping habits.

3. Keep reasonably neat about belongings, but don't be so fastidious that you are nerve-wracking to live with.

4. Reach a common agreement about house rules. Avoid being bossy.

5. Hire someone to clean the apartment at least once a week, if possible. The expenditure will prevent battles on the homefront.

6. Work out an equitable agreement for sharing food bills according to the average number of meals eaten at home.

7. Don't borrow your roommate's clothing or toilet articles.

8. Be quiet but don't be too quiet. Nobody likes to live with a vegetable.

9. Entertain and expect your roommate to entertain. But keep each other advised as to expected guests so that each may or may not join the party as he likes.

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My husband and I were invited to a rather large tea and cocktail party last Sunday. The host and hostess were people we had met only twice before. When the hostess introduced us to some of the other guests, she mispronounced our name, and I immediately corrected her.

My husband took me to task later and said that I had embarrassed the hostess by doing this. He thinks I should have just let it go. I can't see that there was anything wrong in what I did and would like your opinion on the matter.

A: If she had used the wrong name in introducing you, you would have been right in correcting her, but it would have been better to let her mispronouncing of the right name go unnoticed at a big party where many rather casual introductions were being made.

Q: I recently received an invitation to a church wedding and reception. The invitation did not carry the usual RSVP so I did not reply and I understand that several other guests did not reply either. We were told later that RSVP was unnecessary and that anyone receiving an invitation to a wedding reception should know enough to acknowledge it. Will you please tell me if we were wrong?

A: You were not wrong. The family of the bride should have added RSVP to their invitations if they were interested in knowing how many would come to the reception.

Q: When an attendant in a dressing room of a theater or a restaurant has rendered no special service, except perhaps to hand you a towel, is it necessary to leave something on the plate which she provided for tips, and if so, how much?

A: Yes, 10 or 25 cents depending on how luxurious the theater or restaurant may be.

* * *

* * *

Q: When speaking of my husband to my son's young friends — 19 to 21 age bracket —I refer to him as Mr. Jones. My son thinks this sounds very snobby and that I should refer to him by his given name, Bill. Your opinion, please.

A: Correctly, you refer to him as "my husband."

PORT MORESBY, New Guinea — Prominent Australian Methodist churchman Reverend Arthur Preston said at the end of a three-week visit to the Australian Territory of Papua, New Guinea he had seen little evidence of racial discrimination.

Five different nationalities had been represented at a church service he had conducted at Rabaul (New Britain), and there were multi-racial schools in Rabaul and Port Moresby.

The general opinion arising from conferences he had had with indigenous leaders and officials of the administration was that it would take at least 30 years to prepare the indigenous peoples of the territory for self-government.

Area Officials to Act on Sewage Plant Plans?

OXFORD — Officials of Oxford, Lake Orion, Orion Township and Oxford Township may decide Tuesday on preliminary plans for construction of a sewage treatment plant to serve the four municipalities.

Representatives of the Oakland County Department of Public Works and the engineering firm of Johnson and Anderson, Inc., which are working together on the plans, also are slated to attend.

Smalley, who was instructed to set up the special session, said official confirmation of the meeting date will not be made until officials of all four municipalities indicate that will be able to attend.

* * *

The State Department of Health already has approved the location of the proposed plant at a site south of Lake Orion.

The village councils of Lake Orion and Oxford agreed last June on the need for sanitary sewage disposal facilities in the area before the proposed Clinton River Sewage Disposal System is developed.

Donald L. Ringler, deputy DPW director, advised the communities that the Clinton River system, which would serve 13 municipalities in northeast Oakland County, is still a long-range project.

* * *

Because of this, Ringler advised officials to construct interim plants which would serve the needs of this area for the next 10 years.

The interim plant later could be worked into the Clinton River system when it is completed, Ringler said.

In local business last night the Council voted to change two thoroughfares in the village into one-way streets.

Under the revised setup, Stanton Street would be one way eastbound from Mill Street to South Washington Street. Mill Street will be northbound one way from Stanton Street to East Burdick Street.

* * *

AREA NEWS

Name Troy Firm in Electric Suit

Kuhlman Firm Is 1 of 3 Listed as Defendant in Price, Bid Fixing

The Government yesterday filed additional suits asking millions of dollars in damages against 11 of the 29 electrical firms recently convicted of price fixing and bid rigging including Kuhlman Electric Co. of Troy.

Named as the main defendants in all six complaints were General Electric Corp. and Westinghouse Electric Corp. Allis Chalmers Manufacturing Co. was named in four suits and a coconspirator in another.

The Troy firm, located at 2365 W. Maple Road, was one of three concerns named as a defendant in one suit. The other two are Cutler-Hammer Co. of Milwaukee and Square D Co. of Detroit.

* * *

Four other firms also were named.

The suits allege the companies as early as 1956 defrauded the government by fixing noncompetitive prices and bids that were substantially and unreasonably high.

According to Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, the Justice Department's antitrust and false claims suits covered six types of electrical equipment sold to the Tennessee Valey Authority Defense Department and other agencies.

Yesterday's action followed by two months the conviction of 29 companies and 44 of their executives.

These defendants were fined a total of $1,925,500, and seven men spent about four months in jail.

Programs Being Planned

Rochester YM Reaches 70 Pct. of $8,000 Goal

ROCHESTER — The third annual membership enrollment campaign of the Rochester Branch YMCA has reached 70 per cent of its quota, Tage Ketelsen, 1961 campaign chairman, announced today.

The drive to raise $8,000 in membership dues and fees is in its final stages with some solicitors already finished, Ketelsen reports.

While residents may join the YMCA at any time, the results of the membership campaign help determine the extent and kind of program offered by the local branch for the coming year.

No restrictions are made as to race, creed or color by the YMCA for joining the organization, according to Ketelsen.

Several new programs are being added while others are undergoing schedule changes Saturday afternoon swimming classes at the Pontiac "Y" for Rochester "P" members now are slated as follows:

Two movements from Milhaud's "Two Cities" will be performed as well as two choruses from Thompson's "The Peaceable Kingdom."

Heard in the third portion of the four-part program will be selections composed by two members of Albion's music faculty.

For Armada Schools

Tax Vote Up 4th Time

ARMADA — A millage proposal for school operation — defeated three times in the past four months by Armada Area School District voters — will be placed on the ballot again May 1.

In next month's special election, the Armada Board of Education will ask for approval of a three-mill operational levy for two years.

It is the same request which lost out by a 29-vote margin in a school district election March 28.

However, the vote on the three-mill, two-year levy late last month was the closest of any of the three elections held on the operational millage issue since December.

When the school board asked permission to levy a six-mill tax for school operation in December, a record turnout of voters overwhelmingly defeated the proposal, 859 to 150.

School officials lowered their sights and asked that four mills be approved in a March 6 elec-

For Rochester Teachers, Others

$55,000 Hike OK'd by Education Board

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Board of Education has granted pay raises totaling approximately $55,000 to teachers and secretarial and custodial personnel.

The teachers' revised salary schedule for the 1961-62 school year will raise the pay of a beginning teacher with a bachelor's degree from $4,500 to $4,600.

Teachers with M.A. degrees may begin at $4,800, also an increase of $100 over the current year.

Maximum salaries after 12 years of experience will be $7,120 for teachers with B.A. degrees and $7,370 for those with masters'.

The Rochester Education Association had asked for a percentage factor which would have pushed the maximum to $7,620 from the present $7,030, according to School Supt. Donald C. Baldwin.

A sliding scale of increments, up over this year, also will go into effect with new contracts, the superintendent explained. They will result in giving teachers at the top of the salary schedule $340 more than they receive now.

The salary schedule for custodians also was improved by $100.

The board plans to investigate further several fringe benefit requests from the personnel classifications.

The final budget, taking these adjustments into consideration, will be presented to the board by the superintendent at the April 17 board meeting.

Rochester Hotel Razing Delayed

Possible Lawsuit by Owner Puts Off Action Until April 24 Meeting

ROCHESTER — Because of a possible lawsuit, the Rochester Village Council will delay awarding a contract for demolition of the old Rochester Hotel until its April 24 meeting.

* * *

Village Manager Paul York said he had heard that owners of the old building, which was condemned by the council Feb. 16, were planning to sue the village once condemnation gets under way.

After hearing the manager's report, the council decided to hold off on awarding the contract until newly appointed Village Attorney Arthur R. Cox has time to study the project.

York said the Wolverine Wrecking Co., 320 S. Paddock St., Pontiac, placed the low bid of $1,800 for the work.

* * *

The company agreed to have the building torn down 30 days after the contract was awarded.

In addition to the appointment of Cox, who replaces Roscoe R. Martin as village attorney, Thomas V. Case of 407 Castell St. was named to a three-year term on the Board of Review.

The new attorney received his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan and is a 1956 graduate of the Wayne State University Law School. He is a member of the Rochester Area Youth Guidance Committee.

Freeman Lee Gunter of 21304 Glenn Lodge St. is charged with second-degree murder in the death of Arvie Patterson, 26. Arthur L. Jones of 21012 Glen Lodge is charged with assault with intent to murder.

Royal Oak Township police say that a fight broke out about 11:30 p.m. at Glen Lodge and W. 8-Mile Road.

Jones, Gunter and another youth, Jesse Timmons of Detroit, claimed their car was blocked by two other cars. Patterson, Ira Thompson, 22, Willie Blossengane, 26, and Patterson's two brothers were in the other car.

Patterson was dead on arrival at New Grace Hospital in Detroit.

1. Eichmann, together with others, during the period 1939 to 1945, caused the killing of millions of Jews, in his capacity as the person responsible for the execution of the Nazi plan for the physical extermination of the Jews, known as "the final solution of the Jewish problem."

2. From 1939 to 1945, Eichmann and others placed many millions of Jews in living conditions which were calculated to bring about their physical destruction; these included putting Jews to work in forced labor camps, sending them to ghettos and detaining them there, driving them into transit camps and other concentration points, and deporting them and conveying them by mass transportation under inhuman conditions.

3. Eichmann and others caused the serious harm of millions of Jews by their enslavement, starvation, deportation and persecution. He also caused them inhuman suffering and torture.

5. Eichmann caused the murder, exterminination, enslavement, starvation of the civilian Jewish population in those countries and areas controlled by Germany and other Axis countries.

6. Eichmann, in carrying out the acts described in counts 1 to 5, persecuted Jews on national, racial, religious and political grounds.

7. Eichmann and others caused the spoliation of the property of millions of Jews in countries occupied by Germany by means of inhuman measures involving compulsion, theft, terrorism and torture.

8. Eichmann, during World War II, committed acts constituting a war crime for causing the ill-treatment, deportation and murder of Jews.

9. Between 1940 and 1942, in Poland, Eichmann committed acts constituting a crime against humanity for causing the deportation of over half a million Polish civilians from their homes with intent to settle German families in their places.

10. Eichmann, in 1941, caused the deportation of more than 14,000 Slovene civilians from their homes in then German-occupied parts of Yugoslavia with the intention of resettling German families in their places.

11. Eichmann and others caused the deportation of tens of thousands of gypsies to extermination camps in German-occupied regions for the purpose of their being murdered.

12. Eichmann in 1942 caused the deportation of approximately 100 children, civilians of the village of Lidice in Czechoslovakia, their transportation to Poland, and their murder there.

13. During the period of the Nazi regime in Germany, Eichmann was a member of the SS organization that was declared a criminal organization by judgment of the International Military Tribunal on Oct. 1, 1946.

★ ★ ★

14. Eichmann was a member of the organization known as Sicherheitsdienst des Reichsfuehrers (SD) which was declared a criminal organization by the International Military Tribunal on Oct. 1, 1946.

Tempest, Pontiac Chrome Termed Firm's Best Ever

A highly reliable front-and-rear-bumper plating process is providing new 1961 Pontiac and Tempest owners with unprecedented chrome protection, according to S. E. Knudsen, General Motors vice president and Pontiac Motor Division general manager.

Called the duplex nickel process, the treatment features application of two layers of nickel over a copper plate before the final coating of conventional chrome.

"Pontiac field service reports indicate the added nickel layer is improving chrome life even in areas where rust and corrosion are accelerated by winter road salt or high humidity," Knudsen says.

"The layer of copper is buffed to a high lustre," he continues, "which contributes to an exceptional mirror-bright finish on the completed bumper."

Electronic test equipment in the manufacturing laboratory checks plating density to one-millionth of an inch and at least one set of bumpers per day is subjected to a harsh, 18-hour salt spray test to determine chrome durability.

Meany Opposes 'Buy American'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—AFL-CIO President George Meany today opposed "buy American" campaigns and said they could cause serious damage to U.S. workers and industries.

★ ★ ★

Meany spelled out the AFL-CIO's position on anti-import drives in a letter to Larry Russell, secretary of the union label committee of the Polk County Labor Council in Des Moines, Iowa.

"Many millions of Americans are dependent for their livelihood on the sale overseas of the goods they produce," Meany stated.

"The United States cannot help to sell goods on the world market unless we are willing to buy goods from other free nations," he said.

If this nation stops trading with other free world countries, Meany said, they would be forced to deal with Communist-bloc nations and assist the Communist cause.

"For these reasons—jobs of U.S. workers, U.S. economic health and U.S. foreign policy—we must support more, not less foreign trade," the AFL-CIO leader said.

The AFL-CIO will insist that action be taken to deal with "real harm to American workers and U.S. industries that may result from large-scale foreign imports of certain products," he said.

IBM Engineer Wins $32,000 for Suggestion

BALTIMORE (AP)—A $32,000 suggestion award was announced today by International Business Machine Corp. The company said it was one of the largest ever made to an individual in industry.

The award was made to Herbert F. Owens, a 36-year-old customer engineering systems specialist at IBM's Baltimore branch.

Owens submitted a design change in the drive units of magnetic tapes, used in high-speed computers. The change, a company official said, will substantially reduce maintenance time for thousands of the units now in use throughout the country.

★ ★ ★

It is the fourth suggestion award to be received by Owens, who services and maintains large scale IBM data processing systems in the Baltimore area. The other awards have been nominal.

Russia's Space Success a Victory for All Men

By JOSEPH L. MYLER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A man has gone into space and come back.

* * *

His name is Yuri Gagarin, and he is a Russian. He is the first human being to ride a man-made spacecraft around our planet.

* * *

"As members of the human race we can all take pride in what this man has done. He has broken the space barrier. He has made the most hostile of environments seem less fearsome. He has blazed a trail that will lead man to the moon, and to the planets."

Not Columbus, mistaking a Caribbean isle for India, nor the Wright Brothers at Kitty Hawk, in their "box kite stuck together with glue and powered by sheer courage," could claim a prouder achievement.

* * *

Yuri Gagarin, the "wild duck" of Russia, has gone into space.

* * *

That is true. Russia proved in 1957 that she had the rocket power to put a man, or several men, into space.

Last August, by bringing the dogs Belka and Strelka down from orbit, she proved that she had the vastly greater skill needed to sustain life in space and to return it to earth unharmed.

DELAY DEVELOPMENT

The United States, for what seemed cogent reasons, had put off development of big rocket boosters until eight years after the Russians went to work on them.

What Yuri Gagarin did today, this country cannot hope to do until late this year. Shortly before the "wild duck" was fired into orbit an official of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) was telling a committee of Congress that the United States hopes to put a man in space in late 1961 "if no setbacks are encountered."

He and most other U.S. space experts might agree that a more probable date would be "early 1962."

Yuri Gagarin has made the first U.S. astronaut's venture into the space frontier less awesome by proving the journey is possible. He has proved that many, if not most, of the fantastically difficult problems of space travel have been solved.

* * *

'OPENS THE DOOR'

* * *

"Surely this puts the cap on all of the things that have been done to date in space.

"It opens the door for the very tremendous things yet to come — travel by man to the moon, and the planets . . .

NASA administrator James E. Webb and his scientist-deputy, Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, both said they hoped the Russians would "make available to the world scientific community the information gained from this experiment."

Dryden, his eyes on the future, added: "This is only a beginning. We must and we will go forward with our own program."

Only Tuesday, Dryden had told a congressional committee the United States plans to put men in an orbiting space laboratory in 1965 or 1966. This country also expects to send men around the moon and back, perhaps as early as 1968, and to land human beings with return tickets there by 1971.

Red Spaceship Was Controlled From Earth

MOSCOW (UPI) — A Soviet specialist on astronautics said today the manned Russian spaceship was fully automatic with its passenger under control from earth.

* * *

The specialist, Nikolai Varvarov, a professional pilot, said that man's first role in space was that of an explorer rather than a pilot.

Automatic devices not only controlled the spaceship but even "took care" of the man himself.

He said the role of Yuri Gagarin was that of discoverer of new laws of nature and explorers of celestial bodies.

* * *

Varvarov explained that the space man could not control the ship by means of a "stick" because the velocity of his ship was so great it would take "fabulous strength" to turn it by mechanical means. A man's reaction would be too slow anyway, he added.

Street Is Renamed for Heroic Spaceman

MOSCOW (UPI)—Within hours after he had landed, Soviet spaceman Yuri Gagarin today won one of the Soviet Union's highest honors.

Much Propaganda, but Few Facts

Mum Was Word on Soviet Astronauts

MOSCOW (UPI) — Prior to the announcement of a successful manned space flight, the Soviet Union had produced tons of propaganda but only a thimbleful of hard facts about its astronaut training program.

* * *

In sharp contrast to the publicity surrounding the American Project Mercury astronaut, only an occasional mention had been made in the Soviet press about Russian space trainees.

The Russian astronauts' training site, their personal lives and even the number of candidates have been kept secret although Soviet scientists claimed they had received hundreds of applications for space training.

The first Soviet disclosure that an astronaut training program did exist was made in October 1959, in the Soviet weekly magazine "Ogonyok" (Little Flame).

The Ogonyok article said the Soviet man-in-space program was well under way at that time. It also gave the names of three trainees.

REVEAL INFORMATION

Some of the Soviet Union's top scientists shed another glimmer of light on the astronaut program in a press conference in the academy of sciences on March 28, this year. Replying to questions of newsmen, the scientists made these points:

* * *

The scientists declined to state whether the astronaut was likely to be a married or single man, stating his marital status was "of no significance."

From the beginning Soviet scientists engaged in the astronaut program stated no man would be launched into space until they were absolutely certain of his safe return.

News of Soviet Feat Leaves Officer Cold

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lt. Col. John Powers, press officer for the U.S. astronauts, was unimpressed when a reporter told him today that Russia had a man in space.

"It's 3 a.m. in the morning, you jerk," Powers shouted into the telephone from Langley Air Force Base, Va.

The reporter suggested that Russia didn't put a man in space as a regular thing and wondered whether Powers might be able to get the views of the American astronauts on the Russian success.

"If you're wanting something from us, the answer is we are all asleep," the press officer snapped.

Orbit Around Earth 'Anything but Joyride'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) —The life of a spaceman may sound glamorous, but whirling through an orbit around earth in a small capsule — Russian or American — shapes up as anything but a joyride.

Scientists say it is probably something like all the jolting rides in a carnival rolled up in one and multiplied by ten. Top Russian scientist V. Dobronravov says, "It could have the most oppressing effect on man."

Sheriff Irons Gets FBI Credit

Article Cites Lawman for Contributing to State Blockade System

Sheriff Frank Irons has been credited by the FBI with cooperating in the preparation of an article concerning Michigan's current blockade system, deemed one of the best in the nation.

The article appears in the April edition of the FBI's Law Enforcement Bulletin, which is disseminated to law enforcement agencies throughout the United States.

Purpose of the booklet is to keep police officers informed of new techniques in dealing with crime detection and prevention.

Michigan's blockade system for the apprehension of fleeing criminals or suspects was revised in 1957 when two gunmen managed to escape the state after slaying a state trooper and critically wounding another.

The gunmen eventually were arrested in Indiana but not before they killed a second trooper there and wounded two more officers besides kidnaping a private citizen.

Methods consequently were devised through the cooperation of various police agencies in Michigan to establish a blockade much more quickly. The revision was necessitated by the growing network of roads and faster highways in the state.

The plan involved further unity among police agencies, simplifying the inter-communications system, and establishing predetermined road-block locations in any given area of a crime.

Since inception of the plan a blockade committee remains actively engaged in keeping the system up to date.

St. Mike Student Has Poem in Book

The Detroit Student Press Association will publish an anthology of high school writings in April.

Among the writers chosen was Russell C. Greenlees Jr., a student of St. Michael High School. His poem, "The Tragedy," was chosen for publication.

The book, "Young Horizons," is a collection of the best creative writings submitted in competition by high schools of Michigan and Ohio. The paperback volume is priced at $2.

Orders may be placed with the association headquarters at the University of Detroit, Detroit 21.

Represented in the collection of poetry, essays and short fiction are 26 Michigan and 36 Ohio high schools. The 63 entries were selected from more than 700 submitted in December.

★ ★ ★

This is the first edition of "Young Horizons." It will be published annually as a project of the U. of D. Women's Press Club, now in its formative stage.

Market Tends to Slip a Little

Gains and losses of key stocks weer mostly narrow but the general drift was for most declines to be wider than advances.

The list was at the crest of a 5½-month upward drive to historic highs, as represented by the Dow Jones industrial average. Brokers anticipated a "rest period" while the market catches its breath.

The trend was mostly lower among nonferrous metals, tobaccos and chemicals. The pattern was mixed among utilities, steels, drugs and rails.

The aircraft-missiles and electronics were generally higher, bolstered by the Russian man-in-space success and the thought that this would speed U.S. spending on its space program.

Zenith was up about 2 points and Raytheon more than a point. Fractional fains were made by Boeing, United Aircraft and Douglas Aircraft, Hewlett-Packard rose ¾ to 45 on 10,000 shares. Martin rose about a point.

City, Detroit Officials Hold Water Meeting

Pontiac and Detroit officials met yesterday on the subject of water in the first meeting to draft contracts to bring Detroit water to Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

City Manager Walter K. Willman said "good progress" was made.

Willman met with Gerald Ramus, general manager of Detroit's Department of Water Supply, and other members of the department.

City commissioners two weeks ago gave Willman the signal to have contracts prepared for their consideration. The pacts will set the cost of pumping Detroit water to Pontiac for distribution here through a revamped water system.

Bell Firm Makes $1.36 Last Quarter for High

The giant utility cleared $313,299,000, equal to $1.36 a share on the parent company stock, compared with $292,223,000, or $1.32 share, in the year earlier period.

In the previous quarter net income amounted to $321,841,000, or $1.40 a share. Usually the first fiscal quarter is the low point of the year in earnings and the fourth is the high point.

In the share owners' quarterly report, President Frederick R. Kappel said, "The Bell system kept growing during the first three months of 1961 despite the generally lower level of business activity compared with a year ago.

Standard's Gas Down 2 More Cents to Dealers

A further cut of approximately 2 cents per gallon in gasoline prices to its dealers in Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb Counties was made effective today by Standard Oil Division of American Oil Co.

Milo Hector, Standard's regional manager, stated that Standard's latest move, just as its prior move on March 24, was made to enable its dealers to meet competitive postings of other dealers.

You're a Grand Old Flag, but Not Today

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Robert Murch, in a burst of patriotism, hoisted his American flag before he went to work Tuesday.

By coincidence the St. Louis Priory Mother's Club had scheduled a tour of certain homes in St. Louis County and had marked each house to be visited with an American flag.

Much to Mrs. Murch's chagrin, swarms of women began trooping through her house. Each time she opened the door in poured more guests, some invited, most not.

Mrs. Murch finally got matters straightened out. Murch promised that from now on, he will check out the neighborhood program before he raises the flag.

Okay Water Contract for New Courthouse

A water system for the new county courthouse in the County Service Center moved another step closer yesterday when the board of supervisors approved executing a $83,553 contract for the project.

The board of auditors was authorized to approve the contract for the work with the Pontiac firm of Eames & Brown, 55 E. Pike St.

The plumbing firm submitted the low bid among six companies which sought the job. The engineer's estimate was $85,000.

Bill Helps Detroit Hold Edge on Wayne Board

LANSING (AP) — A bill changing the method of allocating representation on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors has been signed by Gov. Swainson.

It will take effect April 20.

The new law will require Detroit to have only 52 per cent of the county's total population to maintain the majority membership on the board. Currently, it must have 65 per cent of the total.

The measure also increases the population figures which determine representation of the various municipalities.

Pontiac City Affairs

Trailer Camp Site Seems Acceptable

The planning commission may have no objections, in principle, to the proposal for a third trailer camp within the city limits, this one on Telegraph Road in the Beaudette Park area.

Planners reported to commissioners last night that the proposed camp site seems acceptable since the land immediately south is occupied by the Richards Trailer Camp, one of two in the city now. The other is on East Walton Boulevard.

But the planning commission investigation has uncovered technical problems concerning the proposed site, it was reported.

These concern the amount of dry land in the swampy Clinton River area that actually is available for commercial purposes, it was stated.

VIRTUALLY USELESS?

Owners of the land have asked the city to relent on its trailer-park ban, claiming that the land is virtually useless for other commercial purposes because it is off the beaten track now that the Orchard Lake Road underpass funnels traffic over the Telegraph Road bypass.

The ban became effective last year when a special zoning classification was adopted for trailer camps.

On the subject of taxis, an ordinance amendment was adopted requiring liability insurance of at least $25,000 and $50,000 on each cab, and property damage coverage of at least $10,000.

The previous minimums were $5,000 and $10,000 liability coverage, and $5,000 property damage.

It was agreed that alley requirements would be relaxed in connection with Chief Pontiac Federal Credit Union's plans for a new headquarters on the east side of Joslyn Avenue, between Raskob and Markell.

A hearing on rezoning there was continued until next week, allowing time for drafting of an agreement under which right of way for any alley will be given the city if ever the credit union sells the land.

Commissioners concurred in a planning commission recommendation denying the bid for rezoning to commercial of eight lots on the north side of Sanderson Avenue, close to Cass.

Trimmed from the public improvement program because of neighborhood opposition were proposals for a water main on Fiddis Avenue and curbs and gutters on Poplar Street, Baldwin to the railroad.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said that special services to the Tasmania Street water main would be permitted for two new homes on Fiddis.

Scheduled for hearings April 18 are the assessment rolls covering proposed recapping of North Saginaw Street, Chamberlain to Rundell; Clinton Street, Williams to Wayne; and Joslyn Road, Columbia to Walton.

Initial hearings last night covered proposed curbs and gutters on Manitou Road, Ottawa Drive to Seminole Hills subdivision; First Avenue, Arlene to Fuller; Kenilworth Avenue, Mt. Clemens to Perry; and Monticello Avenue, Oakland to Orlando.

Other hearing involved special assessment rolls covering proposed black topping on Melroase Avenue, Mt. Clemens to Perry; Tennyson Avenue, Fuller to Arlene; Third Avenue, Joslyn to Highwood; Clifford Avenue, Auburn to Osmun; South Jessie Street, Prospect to Raeburn; Russell Street, Auburn to Osmun; Seward Street, Auburn to Osmun; Oxford Road, Argyle to Canterbury; and Raeburn Street, Sanford to Bexter.

Bids fo rthe black topping and recapping contracts will be opened May 8.

A petition calling for rezoning of one lot on the south side of South Boulevard, west of Franklin Road, was referred to the Planning Commission for consideration. It was signed by 66 per cent of the affected property owners.

Ex-Con Makes Plea to Lesser Count

Detroit ex-convict Vernon K. Moore was about to be tried for grand larceny from an Auburn Heights hardware store yesterday when he pleaded guilty to a reduced count of larceny from a store.

Circuit Court Judge Frederick C. Ziem accepted the change of plea from the 33-year-old man, on parole presently for larceny, and ordered him returned to the county jail under a $2,000 bond.

He will be sentenced May 8.

He admitted stealing $527 from the Keego Hardware store on Feb. 16. He was nabbed by store owner Jerry Cobb when he attempted to run out the back door with the money in his pocket.

Asks Leveling of Condemned Kennett Houses

He said that at least a half dozen ramshackle buildings, vacant since condemned by the health department several years ago, still are standing in the area north of Kennett Road and east of the Kennett Road dump.

The eyesores, Bottom said, discourage improvements to other homes in the neighborhood, although the area is experiencing a rejuvenation now that it is serviced with sewers.

"People out there find it hard to get home improvement loans because the condemned dwellings still exist," Bottom said.

City Manager Walter K. Willman promised to pass Bottom's report to the substandard housing committee. If owners of the condemned houses won't level them voluntarily, the city will have to turn to legal action, he said.

To Show Work of 600 Students at Art Exhibition

Over 600 students in elementary, junior and senior high school art classes have entered art work in the second annual "Art Builds Creativity" exhibition of the Oakland Art Education Association. The 10 day exhibit, free to the public opens Thursday at 3 p.m. in the geodesic dome, located on the Northwestern Highway side of the J. L. Hudson Co. store at Northland Shopping Center.

The exhibit will show a cross section of art work done by children in kindergarten through the 12th grade, and acquaint the public with the wide range of art education activities being done in the public schools of Oakland County.

Hamlin, Hulet Chosen Again

Board of Supervisors Retains Its Leaders; No Others Nominated

It was all over before it began yesterday as the board of supervisors continued Delos Hamlin, retired Farmington businessman and supervisor, as chairman for a sixth consecutive term, and re-elected Bloomfield Township Supervisor Arno L. Hulet as vice chairman for a second term.

There were no other nominations for either position.

Supervisors stood and applauded as Hamlin, 56, of 23210 Cass St., Farmington, and Hulet, 66, of 2355 Franklin Road, were escorted one at a time by appointed fellow supervisors to the rostrum.

"I want to thank you for your continued confidence in me," Hamlin said. "This job, of being your representative in many matters is one of the most exciting of any I can think of in the state of Michigan."

The former Farmington mayor and councilman first was elected chairman in 1956. He's also chairman of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee and has been on the Oakland board for 19 years.

Hulet, a former school teacher, was re-elected to his third two-year term as township supervisor April 3. He's been on the board five years.

"I hope the next year will be as congenial as the last," Hulet said.

Business Up, Says Ford VP

Iacocca Reports That Some of Orders Run Ahead of Supply

DEARBORN (AP)—Lee A. Iacocca, a Ford Motor Co. vice president, says a real upswing in business is under way because people have regained their "credit-cash confidence."

Iacocca, who is general manager of the firm's Ford Division, says in some cases people "are already buying in higher volume than we are ready to handle from the shelf."

The Ford official made the comments in speaking to some 3,000 salesmen attending the 12th annual sales rally of the Detroit Sales Executives Club Tuesday.

Iacocca said March car sales showed evidence of an upswing. He said the daily sales rate of autos jumped from 16,000 in February to 19,000 in March because of renewed "confidence in the market place."

Backers of Week Get 5,000 Copies of Home Booklet

The city's Substandard Housing Committee has furnished an initial printing of 5,000 copies of a 12-page booklet entitled Homeowners Handbook to the sponsors of "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up Week."

The booklet will be distributed by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Pontiac Board of Realtors, the Pontiac Lumber, Fuel & Builders Supply Exchange and other organizations.

"The booklet is being published by the city at this time in hopes it will stimulate home improvement efforts throughout the city in connection with the centennial," said City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Blacktop Plans to be Discussed

Sylvan Lake to Review Manager Applications, Talk Over Surfacing

The Sylvan Lake City Council will discuss final plans for its 1961 black topping program and review applications for the position of city manager at its regular meeting tonight at 8 in the Sylvan City Halls.

Along with announcements concerning the black topping program, which will cost an estimated $40,000, a statement will be made regarding a proposed storm drain project on Lakeland Street.

It is doubtful the city will undertake the drain project this year, thus cutting Lakeland from the list of streets to be surfaced this summer.

Councilmen have not indicated they will make any choice tonight for a city manager, but are expected to discuss the matter.

Earle Knapp, superintendent of public works, has been filling in as acting city manager since the resignation of Marshall H. Woodburn last month.

Other items on the agenda will be passage of a resolution increasing electrical permit fees and discussion of a mosquito control program this summer.

Supervisors Take Bows at First Meeting

As the board waited to elect a new chairman, William J. Hudson, temporary chairman and a veteran of 30 years on the board, had the new supervisors, some the result of the April 3 township elections and others appointees of city councils, take a bow.

They were: Edward J. Johnston, Berkley city manager, who replaced Mrs. Genevieve C. Schock, a veteran of 13 years; Robert J. Huber of Troy, returning to the board after a brief absence and replacing Mrs. Beulah Schmansky; and Wallace B. Hudson replacing Fred W. Hildebrandt in Troy.
