30 APs recognized with bonus award

Oakland University recognized the exceptional work of 30 AP employees with AP Bonus Awards.

The bonus award fund, established specifically for this recognition, honors exemplary service and exceptional contributions made by individual AP employees.

This year, 30 AP employees were selected from a pool of applicants who were nominated by supervisors, peers, co-workers or by themselves based on the employee's contributions above and beyond his or her job responsibilities during 2007 as they relate to the AP bonus award meritorious performance criteria.
