Key Men Study Disarmament

Piano Prodigy Wins Acclaim

United Press Photo

MUSICAL MITE — Practically a baby at the grand is piano prodigy Eugenie Adameo, of the Bronx, N. Y. Just six, and barely able to reach the pedals, Eugenie has composed a lullaby at an age when most kids are still being sung to sleep. Her composing and piano playing, including a recital at New York's Town Hall, have won Eugenie critical acclaim as "a little artist of rare gifts." She played 10 pieces from memory, including Bach's "Minuet in G" and a Clementi Sonatina, and was awarded the highest rating in the National Guild of Piano Teachers annual auditions at Carnegie Hall.

Saratoga Cuts the Waves

NEW YORK (AP) — Proudly proclaiming her the world's heaviest and most powerful warship, the Navy today launches the 60,000-ton supercarrier Saratoga.

* * *

Mrs. Charles S. Thomas, wife of the secretary of the Navy, will smash a bottle of champagne against the big ship's bow in a ceremony at the New York Naval Shipyard in Brooklyn.

After being floated out of her drydock where she was built, the Saratoga, will need six more months of construction before she is ready to join the fleet.

* * *

The last Saratoga, the famed fighting carrier of World War II, went to the bottom among the Bikini atom bomb test vessels. Lessons learned from that test are presumably incorporated in the new "Sara," but the Navy avoids the subject of nuclear warfare.

SOFT PEDAL

In a thick sheaf of statistics and information, the Saratoga is hailed for her "habitability," comfort, fluorescent lights, air conditioning and hamburger-shaping machines.

The Navy soft-pedalled or said nothing about the battle abilities of this second in a series of five mighty ships able to strike any part of the world with nuclear weapons.

The Saratoga is slightly heavier and has a completely new and more powerful propulsion plant than her sister ship the Forrestal, commissioned a week ago.

* * *

The Navy was silent on whether the Saratoga is planned for future switchover of "oil to atoms" when atomic energy plants will power Navy surface ships as well as submarines.

The Saratoga's propulsion plant employs steam turbines at higher temperatures and pressures than any Navy ship, the Navy said, and will provide the equivalent power of 100 passenger locomotives.

The Navy said her "over 200,000" horsepower would drive her at top speed "in excess of 30 knots."

35 KNOTS SPEED

Experts say, however, she has over 260,000 horsepower and will reach at least 35 knots.

Like the Forrestal, she will carry 100 or more jet planes capable of handling nuclear weapons, and her main armament will consist of 14 5-inch guns aimed and fired by radar.

The Navy skipped over the armament details formerly included in its warship announcements, however, and stressed such things as the increased crew comfort and efficiency expected from the air conditioning of all living and sleeping quarters.

* * *

Air conditioning is also essential, although the Navy did not mention it, for a ship trying to function in a rain of radioactive dust or ash.

Recovery of Crash Victims Stalled by Rough Terrain

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

MEDICINE BOW PEAK, Wyo—The craggy-faced east slope of Medicine Bow Peak presents a multitude of problems to recovery work where a DC4 airliner crashed and killed 66 persons Thursday morning.

F. K. McKlveen, investigator in charge for the Civil Aeronautics Board, said today the crash scene was so impossible to traverse at some points that the CAB may have to hire experienced mountaineers to make part of the investigation.

McKlveen said the climbers would be directed specifically, in that case, what to look for and what to do with any evidence they might find.

McKlveen, who arrived from Seattle 24 hours after the accident, said the findings of the investigation eventually would be released from the CAB headquarters in Washington.

* * *

The comments of some of the recovery workers indicate how rugged is the terrain in the southeastern Wyoming mountain area:

"This looked like a gravel pile until we got into it."

"It took us 20 minutes to go a city block."

"The last 1,500 feet is where you have to crawl."

HELICOPTERS USELESS

Recovery operation directors ruled out the possibility of using helicopters for removing bodies

Newsman Says Ike Will Retire to Gettysburg

OMAHA (INS) — Bob Considine, INS writer, has told the Nebraska Bar Association he believes President Eisenhower probably will retire to his Gettysburg, Pa., farm at the end of his present term.

Considine predicted the President will concentrate for the remainder of his term on "convincing Russia and the rest of the world that the people of the United States feel exactly as he does about peace."

If Eisenhower does not seek reelection, Considine said, "I would not advise you to stand in the doorway of either the Republican national convention or the Democratic national convention. You might be trampled to death by the would-be candidates."

Forecast Fair Skies for Area Weekend

Mostly fair skies are predicted for tonight and tomorrow, with warmer temperatures due tomorrow.

Tomorrow's high reading will be five degrees above today's expected peak of 60, the Weather Bureau said. Today's high was reached by 1 p.m. Low tonight will be a chill 40-44 degrees.

It will be fair and cool Sunday night, with the low also in the low 40s. High reading yesterday was 66, low night mark 50. At 8 a.m., the mercury stood at 50, rising to 61 at 2 p.m.

Roger M. Kyes Reveals Wonders for Housewives

DETROIT (AP) — Raining outside and your windows at home are open? Simply dial your telephone number and the windows will close themselves.

This was one of a number of electronic marvels recently predicted by Roger M. Kyes of General Motors.

Kyes, a vice president in charge of household appliance, said present automatic home washers will be made to look as old fashioned as a scrub board by equipment that will convey, sort, clean, iron and fold the laundry.

Other predictions: kitchen floors washed and dried automatically, and individual water and sewage systems.

France Facing Possible Revolt

Deputy Says Dissension Over African Troubles May Bring Upheaval

PARIS (INS) — A National Assembly deputy warned today during debate on Premier Edgar Faure's Moroccan policy that the possibility of revolution hangs over France.

* * *

Francois Quilici, an Independent Republican, said revolution was possible if France's present situation continues to grow worse.

Premier Faure's seven-months-old government is tottering on the brink of defeat, many top military leaders are speaking out against government policy for North Africa, and Army reserve units have rioted rather than be sent to the troubled area.

Quilici warned that France's standard of living was at stake. He predicted that the country would have one million unemployed if she lost her overseas markets in North Africa.

LOSE ECONOMIC PLACE

If France is thrown out of her North African territories she will lose her preferred economic position there.

The splinter-party deputy claimed French factories worked two days out of each week supplying French overseas territories.

He indicated clearly that should France be hit by a revolution it would profit only the Communists.

The premier's Moroccan policy, which calls for the setting up of a representative government, has created dissension on both the upper and lower levels of the army.

"NEW DEAL" PLAN

Gen. Pierre Billotte, the new defense minister of Faure's tottering government, has gone to Morocco to persuade the resident general, Lt. Gen. Pierre Boyer de Latour, to get on with Faure's "New Deal" plan for Morocco.

Faure was trying to get his plan into operation in time to save his government.

* * *

But the Premier has little time with which to work.

* * *

The debate which goes into its third day at 9:30 this morning is scheduled to end tonight. If it does, a confidence vote presumably will be held Monday.

2-Car Collision Hospitalizes 5

Five persons were hospitalized in serious condition today after a two-car crash on Franklin road in Southfield Township last night.

One of the injured, John S. Robertson, 47, told Sheriff's deputies he was making a left turn from Franklin at Woodside and apparently misjudged the speed of the other car, approaching from the opposite direction.

The other driver, Bruce Lundquist, 33, of Detroit, was unable to make a statement.

Russell Fagerlie, 23, of 1411 Appleford, Walled Lake, a passenger in Lundquist's car, also was injured. The other victims, John Mozni, 45, of 30245 Woodside Ct., Southfield, and Mrs. Marie Fee, 40, of 30760 Kincardine, Southfield, were riding in the Robertson auto.

Robertson lives at 27340 Ovid St., Southfield.

All five are in Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, where officials reported their conditions were serious.

Detroit Jewelry Firm Acquired by Local Man

Wright, Kay Purchased by Grinnell Brothers, J. J. Wainger

Wright, Kay & Co., one of Detroit's oldest jewelry firms, has been purchased by Grinnell Bros. music store chain.

Controlling interest in Grinnell's is owned by J. J. Wainger, president of Pontiac's WKC Inc., 108 N. Saginaw St.

Announcement of the sale, which has been pending for several weeks, came yesterday. The Wright, Kay name will remain, a spokesman said.

Wainger, who also holds large interests in the Pontiac State Bank Building and properties in Chicago, Detroit, Flint and Ann Arbor, bought control of Grinnell's last April.

The new acquistion is another milestone in a career which began here in 1928 when Wainger and two partners bought out the old Wurlitzer store and established WKC, as a small radio and record player shop, using their initials for the name.

Wainger later bought out the partners, David Kessler and E. W. Coggan.

The store, which expanded through the years, now carries appliances, furniture, jewelry and other household goods.

When the Grinnell purchase was announced, Wainger revealed plans to open new branches and to add lines of major and small appliances to the merchandise already carried by the 76-year-old firm.

The Grinnell chain is comprised of 30 stores in Michigan, Ohio and Ontario and has its own piano factory at Holly. It reportedly does $10 million worth of business annually.

Wright, Kay last August sought in Federal court a five - year period to pay off $485,385 in unsecured debts. The company listed unpaid taxes of $83,000 and liabilities totaling $578,800.

Assets totaled $851,300, including $464,100 in stock and $322,400 due on account.

Wainger and two other Pontiac men serve on the Grinnell board of directors. The others are Robert R. Eldred, senior vice president, Community National Bank, and Jack P. Toombs, general manager of WKC.

Press Is Commended

National Guard Cites Distinguished Service in Aiding Its Alert

The Pontiac Press has received a Certificate of Commendation from the Army and Air National Guard.

This commendation came as a result of the role played by the Pontiac Press in "Operation Minuteman," recent nationwide alert test of the National Guard of the United States.

Maj. Gen. George C. Moran, Adjutant General of Michigan, signed the certificate, which called attention to the effective way in which this newspaper not only prepared the people of this area for the alert, but in following articles made its readers "more aware of their citizen-soldier neighbors and the mission they have in our nation's defense."

Improved Ike Slates Talks With Doctors, Nixon, Dulles

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

DENVER—The Denver White House spread the welcome mat for Vice President Nixon today as President Eisenhower passed satisfactorily the most important milestone in his struggle for recovery.

The President's progress was so heartening that his doctors also approved his first major business conference since his heart attack Sept. 24—a foreign policy meeting next Tuesday with Secretary of State Dulles.

President Eisenhower's plane, Columbine, took off from Logan Airport—at Boston — today with Dr. Paul Dudley White on the first leg of a flight to the bedside of the improving Chief Executive in Denver.

The Columbine arrived in Washington at 9:50 a.m. (EDT). Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Presidential Chief Aide Sherman P. Adams and the President's son, Maj. John Eisenhower, boarded the plane there.

The vigorous, 69-year-old Dr. White, considered one of the country's outstanding heart specialists, is to check with President Eisenhower's personal physician on his day-to-day recovery and make a personal examination of the President.

Nixon presided over a 2-hour and 40-minute Cabinet session yesterday at the White House with all members attending except Welfare Secretary Marion B. Folsom.

Others at the Cabinet meeting, which assistant Presidential News Secretary Murray Snyder described as "routine," were Adams, Disarmament Adviser Harold Stassen, Civil Service Chairman Philip Young and Defense Mobilizer Arthur S. Flemming.

Nixon was invited by Mr. Eisenhower to come to Denver for a brief conference. He is expected to see the Chief Executive this afternoon at a time set by the attending physicians.

It has not been determined to what extent the doctors will permit a discussion of government affairs. However, the meeting may spell out in more detail Nixon's role in handling presidential duties during the Chief Executive's illness.

In Denver, it was announced yesterday that the President has asked Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to meet with him for a bedside conference Tuesday.

Tension Mounts in Piston Strike

Governor Rushes Home to Take Charge of Army Guarding Riot Scene

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP) — Gov. George N. Craig of Indiana was hurrying home from Miami today to take personal charge of the explosive Perfect Circle Corp., strike in New Castle, where the piston ring firm proposed to reopen Monday in spite of a riot Wednesday that left eight wounded.

Officers of a National Guard battalion on duty in New Castle said they would pull their troops away from the Perfect Circle foundry if it reopened but would remain in the vicinity.

The governor's aides professed not to know what orders Craig might bring for the heavily armed guardsmen. With martial law not declared, the Guard's authority in this city of 18,000 in east central Indiana was indefinite.

Doyle Moore, Craig's administrative assistant, said only that the governor will meet in his office Sunday with leaders of the company, the striking CIO United Auto Workers, and New Castle and Henry County officials.

8 U. S. Experts Examine Plans to Contain War

Group Will Re-Examine Big Problem of World Weapon Inspection

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—The U. S. announced last night that eight of the nation's top scientific, military and industrial minds are re-examining the key problem of any disarmament program—adequate inspection and control.

Harold E. Stassen, presidential adviser on disarmament, made the disclosure before the five nation U.N. Disarmament Subcommittee.

He said the U.S. had turned to the problem of devising safeguards against sneak atomic attacks because no foolproof system of detecting hidden nuclear weapons now existed.

The U.S. "Nuclear Task Force" under the chairmanship of atomic physicist Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence, will make basic studies of inspection and control problems in eight separate fields.

The members and their specific tasks are:

Dr. Lawrence, director of the University of California radiation laboratories, who will seek to develop methods of accounting for nuclear weapons and for discovering them when they are concealed.

Gen. James H. Doolittle (Ret) who will work on the "vital task of further designing methods for aerial inspection and reporting."

Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith (Ret), inspection of ground force units.

Brake Check Up Really Needed, Driver Finds Out

Arthur J. Vathke, 35, of Pontiac, drove into Reeve's service station at Telegraph and Maple Rds. yesterday to have his brakes checked.

An attendant told him to drive inside the building so the car could be inspected on a hoist. Obliging, Vathke backed the auto around to face the door.

Then the brakes died.

The car rolled slowly but surely backward into a gasoline pump, knocked it over and set it ablaze. Firemen were called to put out the fire. Damage was estimated at $1,000.

Seek Approval of 2 Authorities

County's Participation in Plan Organizations to Be Recommended

Requests for endorsement of two authorities to handle water and highway problems in the metropolitan area are scheduled for consideration by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors Monday.

The board will convene at 10 a.m. in the County Office Building at 1 Lafayette St.

Supervisor Howard K. Kelley, of Royal Oak, is expected to present a resolution asking board approval of Oakland's participation in an inter-county water authority charged with devising means to construct a pipeline from Lake Huron.

West Bloomfield Township Supervisor Hiland M. Thatcher is slated to introduce a resolution to make the county part of a similar group which would draft a uniform highway-development plan.

Both plans are sponsored by the Supervisors Inter-County Committee including members from Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw, Monroe and Wayne Counties. St. Clair county would be included in the water authority.

Other scheduled business includes reports from the Building and Grounds and Ways and Means Committees.

Rough Terrain Stalls Recovery of Bodies and cargo because of the severe turbulence.

Experienced mountain men said also it would be impossible to use horses to carry the canvas sacks containing bodies. The rocky ledges and ridges are jagged and snow-covered in many spots.

The bodies of two women and two infants were brought from the scene yesterday.

Leaders of the 150 experienced mountain climbers said it would require several days to retrieve the bodies of the other 59 adult passengers, and three crew members.

* * *

The bodies are being lowered hundreds of yards by ropes and winches to trails where they are transported six miles to the University of Wyoming summer science lodge. There medical experts are attempting to identify the remains.

ONLY EXPERTS GO

Many of the victims' next-of-kin were flown to Laramie by United and are taking part in the recovery operations at their own insistence.

Only expert Alpinists are allowed to negotiate the final few hundred yards up a nearly perpendicular cliff to the crash scene, about 75 feet from the summit of the peak. Bodies are strewn with the wreckage along a 500-yard scorched path.

* * *

The pilot, C. C. Cooke, 34, of Menlo Park, Calif., had flown the route hundreds of times during his 12 years service with United. The plane which left New York Wednesday night, departed from Denver for Salt Lake City more than 80 minutes behind schedule.

* * *

There was speculation Cooke was trying to make up some of the time by taking a "short cut" across the Snowy Range or turbulent winds pulled him off course. The plane left Denver at 6:33 a.m. MST and 30 minutes later smashed into the peak.

SET FOR OPENING — The Pontiac Post Office vehicle department moved into its new garage at 138 W. Pike St. today, in preparation for the formal opening next Thursday. Looking over the building are (l-r) Pontiac Postmaster Leslie H. Dean Sr. and recordskeeper Floyd Gilson who will have charge of the garage. Included in the building are a repair shop, office and wash and grease racks. A fenced, 10,000 square foot parking area will house Pontiac's 30 mail trucks.

Pontiac's Postal Vehicles Moving Into New Garage

It's moving day for the vehicle department of Pontiac Post Office.

With official opening ceremonies for the new Post Office Garage, 138 W. Pike St., secheduled for Thursday, the five-man staff of the vehicle department are busy moving records and files into the new building. Moving in, too, are Pontiac's 30 mail trucks which will be housed there.

By Thursday everything should be in order for the opening, which will be attended by postal officials from Washington, D. C., Chicago and the Detroit district, Leslie H. Dean Sr., postmaster, said today. Floyd Gilson, recordskeeper, will be in charge of the garage.

The garage includes a 30x70 foot building of yellow face brick and masonry construction, with a 10,000 square foot paved parking area enclosed with 6-foot high fencing.

There are wash and grease racks, a repair shop, parts office, and 6,000-gallon gasoline storage tank. Repair work on mail trucks from outlying county areas as well as Pontiac will be done at the garage.

The garage, built to specifications for the Post Office department, is privately owned and leased on a 10-year basis.

Roland Schulz Taken by Death

Former Partner in Star Garment Cleaning Co. Succumbs

Roland B. Schulz, 68, former Pontiac business man, died yesterday at 7 a.m. in the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He had been ill 16 days.

Born in Utica Aug. 19, 1887, he was the son of Arthur and Bertha Schulz and was married in Detroit June 12, 1909 to the former Emma E. Kuffert.

Before coming to Pontiac 31 years ago, Mr. Schulz was with the Peoples State Bank of Detroit for 22 years.

Mr. Schulz was a partner in the Star Garment Cleaning Co. here many years later working at the General Motors Truck & Coach Division, from which he had retired.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, Dr. Wessen E. Schulz, Glenn E. Schulz and four grandchildren, all of Pontiac.

Two sisters and a brother also survive, Mrs. Bernice Beaty of Milford, Mrs. Elda Thomas and Edgar Schulz, both of Pontiac.

The body will be at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home until noon Monday when it will be taken to the St. Trinity Lutheran Church for service at 3:30 p.m. The Rev. Ralph C. Claus, his pastor, will officiate with burial following in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Jobless Pay Claims Up With Changeover

Unemployment Compensation claims, which shot up to 7,733 this week due to model changeover at the Pontiac Motor Division plant, will drop just as dramatically next week, the Michigan Employment Security Commission office said yesterday.

"The plant has already returned to production and the claims this week were for time lost during the changeover," said James H. Dudley, Pontiac office manager.

The jobless claim load last week was 2,692.

Dudley said indications through mid-November are for continued high levels of employment.

"Both manufacturing and nonmanufacturing, should remain at substantially their present employment," he said.

State FEPC Rules Ready for Opening

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's new Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) expressed hope today it can have its procedural rules ready when it goes into office next Friday.

The commission, conferring with the attorney general's staff, promised rush action on rules which will guide complainants, defendants and attorneys.

Sidney Shevitz, commission chairman, said he anticipated a rash of complaints as soon as the agency is officially alive.

Michigan Fruits Losing Sales War to Citrus Crops

EAST LANSING (AP)—Citrus fruits are beating out northern-grown fruits in customer appeal, a farm expert said today.

* * *

Speaking at a Michigan State University agricultural finance clinic, Prof. James T. Bonen, head of the MSU agricultural economics department, predicted that consumers in the future will eat less apples, peaches, plums, cherries and grapes in favor of citrus fruits.

The non-citrus fruits, all grown in Michigan, have lost customer appeal because of poor distribution and packaging, Prof. Bonnen said.

The citrus fruit industry, he said, has stepped up its market by shrewd promotion and packaging.

Wheat, another important Michigan farm product, also will suffer in the next 20 years, the agricultural economist said. He said the present trend is away from wheat-based foods.

Pork and butter are other farm commodities that can be expected to take a skid on the market, Prof. Bonnen said.

* * *

On the other hand, Prof. Bonnen predicted that there will be an increased demand for fluid milk, beef and garden vegetables.

Car Pioneer, 71, Dies in Atlanta

Detroit - Born Inventor Alfred Moorhouse Ends Automotive Career

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Alfred Moorhouse, automotive pioneer with more than 100 patents to his credit, died at his home yesterday. He was 71.

* * *

Moorhouse's inventions included a design for the first down-draft carburetor for automobiles and a braking mechanism metering device for hydraulic shock absorbers.

A native of Detroit, he helped design the first sliding gear type transmission used by Cadillac and contributed to the design of the Liberty Engine in collaboration with Col. J. G. Vincent.

During 1941-44, he was engineering manager of the Corsair project for Goodyear Aircraft Corp. In 1944, he established the Moorhouse Engineering Co. in Tampa, Fla. Four years later he came to Atlanta to serve as consultant to Georgia Tech on a classified project for the government.

Survivors include a daughter, Dorothy Moorhouse of Atlanta; a sister, Sara W. Moorhouse of Detroit; and two brothers, Edwin F. Moorhouse, Tampa, Fla. and Frank K. Moorhouse of Detroit.

The body will be sent to Detroit for services and burial.

Examination Day Set for Berkley Resident

After pleading innocent at his justice court arraignment on an assault and battery charge, David Pinnell, 23, of Berkley, was remanded to the Oakland County Jail pending examination Oct. 18.

Pinnell was ordered jailed by Berkley Justice Ralph W. Finley when he failed to furnish $300 bond.

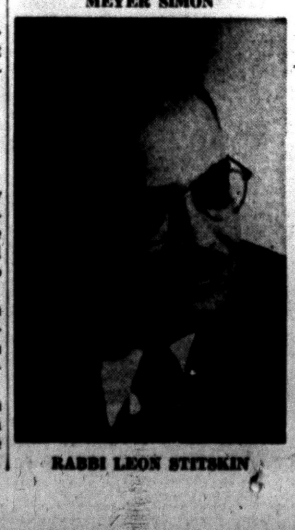

Congregation to Celebrate Three Synagogue Events

A dinner commemorating three events important to the members of Congregation B'nai Israel will be held Sunday.

The first is the burning of the mortgage on the present edifice.

MEYER SIMON

RABBI LEON STITSKIN

The second is the honoring of all members of the congregation who have been active in the synagogue's 13 years of growth and loyal to its ideals.

The annual installation of the newly elected officers is the third. The year's slate reads as follows: Meyer Simon, president; Milton Ressler, first vice president; George Surowitz, second vice president; Sam Lewis, treasurer; Alvin Jacobson, financial secretary and Melvin Goldman, recording secretary.

Members of the board are Sol Newhouse, Charles Eilander, Irving Diem, Joseph Kornov and Charles Jacobs.

Greetings will be given by state and city officials as well as presidents of the several organizations, Miriam Foxman, Sisterhood; Nathan Crone, Men's Club, and Martin Smith of the Youth Group.

Cantor Judah Goldring, accompanied by Mrs. James Rosenthal, will be in charge of the musical program.

The main address of the evening will be given by Rabbi Leon Stitskin, director of Community Relations of the Yeshiva University's Community Service Division in New York.

Receiving his B.A. degree from the College of the City of New York and his M.A. degree from Hiram College, Rabbi Stitskin has served as spiritual leader in Philadelphia and Rochester, N. Y.

He has written for "The National Jewish Monthly" and "Spectator," besides being author of a collection of sermons, "Judaism as a Religion."

He is a member of the New York State Board for Equality in Education.

Installing officer of the evening is Morris Kampner with Milton Ressler and Joseph Kornov serving as masters of ceremony. Chairmen of the dinner will be Joseph Jacobson, Charles Jacobs and Joseph Kornov.

Mrs. Donaldson Succumbs at 68

Lifetime City Resident Dies After Long Illness; Leaves 3 Children

Mrs. Benson W. (Bessie Dickie) Donaldson, 68, lifetime resident of Pontiac and Oakland County, died last night. She had been ill for several months.

Bron in West Bloomfield Township March 8, 1887, she was the daughter of John and Sophia Jameson Dickie.

On Aug. 8, 1910, she married Benson W. Donaldson, former owner and founder of the B. W. Donaldson Lumber Co.

Mrs. Donaldson was a member and active worker in the First Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by three children, Mrs. C. W. Whitehead of Anderson, Ind., Mrs. Hugh D. Grove and John B. Donaldson, both of Pontiac, and eight grandchildren.

Also surviving are six brothers, Allan Dickie of Kent, Ohio, Frank of St. Petersburg, Fla., Edmond of N. Farmington, Bruce of Keego Harbor, Hugh and Gordon, both of Sylvan Lake.

A private funeral will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home with Dr. William H. Marbach officiating. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

The Rev. Paul R. Havens of the First Methodist Church will officiate at the funeral, Monday at 1:30 p.m. in the Sparks-Griffin Chapel. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

U. S. Experts Study Disarmament Plan

used in any future international arms inspection program.

* * *

Stassen made the announcement at the last session of the subcommittee until after the Big Four Foreign Ministers conference Oct. 27.

Disarmament is on the Geneva agenda, and the ministers will be seeking to break the nine-year east-west deadlock on the problem.

The subcommittee ended last night five weeks of meetings, which were more harmonious in tone than previously, but which brought agreement no nearer than it was six months ago.

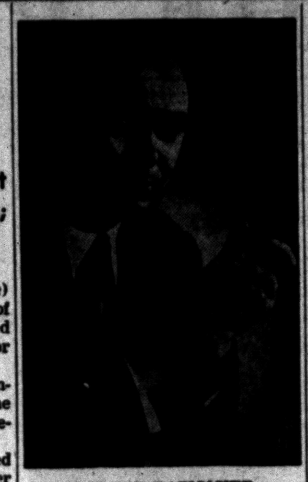

Stassen invited other nations to join the Task Force Project with contributions of their own.

British Minister of State Anthony Nutting suggested to the subcommittee that the problem of safeguards against atomic attack be referred to a group of "eminent sceintists" from the U.S., Britian, France, Russia and Canada, the members of the subcommittee.

* * *

Soviet Delegate A. A. Sobolev told the group that the proposed aerial inspections outlined in the Eisenhower pre-disarmament "Open Skies" plan should be extended to all countries where the U.S. and Russia maintain troops.

Sobolev again failed to declare whether the Kremlin would accept the Eisnehower proposal. He complained that the U.S. had not replied to Premier Nikolai Bulganin's letter to President Eisenhower last month.

ROBERT KAZMAYER

Slate Kazmayer to Open Series Tuesday Evening

Robert Kazmayer, writer, traveler, speaker on world affairs, will be featured in the first of the Civic Entertainment Series here Tuesday. The program, one of seven sponsored by the Pontiac Kiwanis Club, will open at 8 p. m. in Pontiac High School auditorium.

What are the factors shaping postwar problems? How can we deal with them? What are the opportunities opening up for America? These are some of the timely questions Kazmayer will discuss.

Publisher of the newsletter "Things to Watch and to Watch For," Kazmayer is author of a book on the postwar period, "Out of the Clouds."

A former Methodist minister, he now devotes his full time to lecturing and writing.

During the past eight summers he has sponsored European seminar tours, taking groups of prominent U. S. business and professional people with him around Europe.

Tickets are available from Kiwanians, at the door, or at Dickinson's or Osmun's stores. Proceeds will be used solely to promote Kiwanis' youth work.

Legion Invades Sunny Miami

15,000 Jamming Hotels for 37th Convention of Business and Fun

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Legionnaires by the thousands are pouring into the Gold Coast resort area for the opening session of the 37th annual convention Monday.

The delegates about 15,000 strong jammed into the hundreds of hotels and motels today. By Monday, it is estimated about 50,000 Legionnaires and their guests will be on hand.

Committees and commissions have been clearing away the preliminaries all week. Many of the issues that will confront the delegates later were before the committees today.

Some of these issues are a momento break the Forty and Eight —a fun-loving group — away from the parent organization; consideration of a favorable report on UNESCO after condemning it in the past; pensions for World War I veterans, and taking a stand on the Fund for the Republic, an organization the Legion's commander, Seaborn Collins, has condemned.

POLITICS TOO

Legonnaires were politicking. The organization elects a national commander this year.

* * *

Of the several hopefuls, J. A. Wagner of Battle Creek, Mich., appeared to be leading. But his opponents are making campaigns. They include Thomas Paradine of New York, Truman C. Wold of Fargo, N. D., and W. C. Daniel of Danville, Va., a candidate for the top job last year.

Missing Financier Cited on Building 'Mythical Empire'

NEW YORK (AP)—The state has forbidden, at least temporarily, security transactions by a missing financier accused of building a "mythical real estate empire" through illegal stock manipulations.

* * *

State Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits obtained the temporary restraining order against Robert J. Morman in State Supreme Court yesterday. The order also applied to his New York Investors Mutual group.

Morman disappeared about two weeks ago just when Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan wanted to question him about a $130,000 shortage in another firm. This was the Lawyers Mortgage & Title Co., of which Morman was a vice president and director.

Javits said Investors Mutual was losing money but he sent out dividend checks anyway to make it appear prosperous, charging the payments off as expenses. This was illegal, Javits added, since dividends are required by law to come from surplus accounts.

* * *

Morman had been a prominent real estate operator. He "took over millions" in Manhattan properties by using money obtained from the public, Javits said.

The Day in Birmingham

Local Events Scheduled to Mark U.N. Anniversary

BIRMINGHAM — Although UN Day is officially Oct. 24, marking the tenth anniversary of the United Nations, the occasion is being led up to by a number of events locally, and will be climaxed on Oct. 28.

On that evening, the Hon. Paul Martin, head of the Canadian delegation to the U.N., and also Canadian minister of health and welfare, will speak at an open meeting at 8 o'clock at the Community House. He will deal with the U.N.'s power and capacities.

Martin has been secured through cooperation of the League of Women Voters and the mayor's committee planning the observance, and especially through Mrs. Charles Shain, a committee member and friend of Martin's. General chairman is Mrs. Eleanor Gafill.

In honor of the birthday, a tree-planting ceremony in Shain Park has been planned by the Woman's National Farm and Garden Assn. under the direction of Mrs. William McCallum. Jeanne Lloyd, Baldwin Library librarian, has also secured several U.N. films which are now available at no charge, to any local group.

MOST SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTION

School children are being made much more aware of U.N. functions through essay and poster contests under way in the junior and senior high schools, while Mrs. Oliver Rogers is distributing kits of U.N. material through the elementary schools. And a Danny Kaye film short on the U.N., "Assignment Children," will be shown in both theaters here.

"The Most Significant Contribution of the United Nations During Its First Ten Years," is the title around which students will pattern their essays, with the deadline for entries on Tuesday. Wednesday is the deadline for poster entries.

Eight awards contributed by service clubs will be made the night of the lecture, but winners will be announced beforehand.

* * *

Highlighting the Family Church Night program at First Presbyterian Church tomorrow, will be the play, "Point of Beginning," directed by Walter Skinner.

Cast members for the 6:30 p. m. presentation, following a snack supper at 5, will be Jesse Eakins, Tom Schad, Andrew Hawley and Mrs. Anthony Daly. Young children will see a film.

* * *

George S. Wiley, who for several years has volunteered his time and efforts as director of the local Ground Observer Corps program, was given official recognition by the City Commission this week, which passed a resolution of appreciation in his honor.

* * *

A repeat performance of last year's trip to New York City and the United Nations, is again being sponsored by the Detroit YMCA. Details on the Nov. 10-13 plane trip may be secured locally.

Participating men and women will attend a briefing session with a U. N. public relations staff member in addition to the U. N. sessions, will visit Radio City Music Hall and have special evening entertainment.

* * *

"Meeting the Master," the theme chosen by Dr. Emil Kontz, pastor of First Baptist Church, for his fall preaching schedule, will be continued at tomorrow's 11 a. m. worship hour and through December. General theme for the 7:30 p. m. Sunday services is "The Gospel for Our Time."

The seventh annual Bible Institute held Wednesday evenings is centered on the book, "The Acts of the Apostles." Study groups are preceded by a family supper at 7 p. m. Story and handcraft classes are provided for small children.

* * *

Inside the cars leaving the Community House at 10:30 a. m. Monday, will be members of the MOMS Club, Unit 3, heading for luncheon at the Clarkston home of Mrs. Frank Smith. There will be a short business meeting and Mrs. Howard R. Estes will show slides of her recent European trip.

'U. S. Troops Altered Red Invasion in '51'

NEW YORK (INS)—U.S. Ambassador to the U.N., Henry Cabot Lodge, said today that it was the presence of U.S. troops in Europe since 1951 that prevented the Communists from overrunning the continent.

Lodge, addressing the Golden Jubilee of Fordham University's law school, said:

"If United States troops had been in Europe in 1914 and in 1939, there is no doubt in my mind that neither the Kaiser nor Hitler would have dared begin their aggressions."

Lodge characterized the United Nations as "the world's greatest single engine for influencing world opinion—in an intelligent manner."

The U.N. diplomat was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from the law school.

Pontiac Man Injured in Car-Truck Collision

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A collision with a double trailer gasoline truck sent Robert J. Rivenburgh, 35, of 49 St. Lawrence St., Pontiac, to William Beaumont Hospital yesterday, where he is in fair condition with fractured rib injuries.

Police said a witness to the accident on Telegraph Road south of Maple, said Rivenburgh swerved back into lane after passing one truck, crashing into the rear of the moving gas truck driven by Alton R. Martin, 62, of Trenton.

Waterford Man Still in Critical Condition

Spokesmen at Mercy Hospital, Jackson, said a Waterford Township man seriously injured in an auto crash near Jackson Thursday remained on the critical list today.

The man, Bruce Everett, 59, of 3781 Lincolnshire, suffered a broken arm, a broken leg and back injuries, hospital attendants said.

Peron Seeks Exile Haven as Paraguayans Grumble

ASUNCION, Paraguay (AP)—Juan D. Peron may pack his bags and leave voluntarily for a life in exile elsewhere in order to ease strained relations between Argentina and Paraguay.

* * *

This unconfirmed report circulated in Asuncion today as diplomats debated the fate of the fallen Argentine, who is observing his 60th birthday today.

Pouring rain pelted this capital as reporters and officials awaited a reply from the Paraguayan Foreign Ministry to Argentina's protest against Peron's continued presence in this country, which borders Argentina on the north. There have been reports he might go to Spain or Switzerland.

Peron spent his 60th birthday today.

The new Argentina government is demanding that Paraguay boot him out of South America because of his political remarks.

In the drive to call members of the old regime not granted exile to a stern accounting, the provisional government arrested four of Peron's former close associates as they left asylum in foreign embasies.

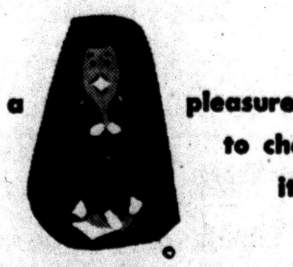

* * *

Buenos Aires' only demonstration in connection with Peron the last 24 hours was of a different sort. Three more theaters rang down their curtains because of anti-Peron outbursts by the audiences. The demonstrators hissed, shouted, and threw things at performers regarded as having been friendly with the Peron regime.

The audience at the Comic Theater staged a riot Thursday night because of the appearance there of actress Lola Membrives and other members of her company who were decorated by Peron.

* * *

Paraguayan authorities held a two-hour top level session yesterday in Asuncion on Argentina's demand that Peron be ousted from Paraguay. There was no immediate announcement of a decision.

Kefauver's Moscow Visit Ridiculed by Dirksen

PEKIN, Ill. (INS) — Sen Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.), ridiculed the Moscow visit of Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), by saying:

"It's a trip to show off his coonskin cap and help internationalize our Davy Crockett craze."

HILLSDALE (AP)—Addison Products, air-conditioning and cooking machine products manufacturer, is planning a new plant at nearby Jonesville. The new factory will add 60,000 square feet of floor space to Addison facilities now based at Addison, Mich.

Adlai Attacks GOP on Farm Issue

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) —Adlai Stevenson says the nation's farmers are not getting a fair deal under terms of the present Republican policy. At the same time, he added, "Things for everybody else gets better."

* * *

"This is not only unfair to the farmer, it is unhealthy for all of us," the 1952 Democratic presidential candidate said last night.

"For when things go bad for the farmer it hurts a lot of other people. . . . It is unfair and dangerous that farmers, alone among the great economic groups in our country, are not sharing in the current prosperity."

STILL MUM

Stevenson, who devoted the major part of his speech to the Wisconsin Democratic party convention on the farm problem, also touched on the subjects of conservation, taxes, civil liberties and international relations.

Stevenson in his speech and at a news conference did not disclose whether he would seek the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination.

* * *

Speaking on the tax issue, the former Illinois governor cautioned against precipitate tax reduction, saying "tax reduction at the price of safety is not economy."

"I say let our opponents cry out for tax reduction at any price," Stevenson said. "But we are the party of compassion and the party of responsibility. We must at least inquire whether at this juncture there are things we want more than tax reduction. . . . A responsible political party has greater responsibilities than winning votes at any price."

POISONING DEMOCRACY

On civil liberties, Stevenson asserted that "from the first wild utterances of a man from Wisconsin in 1950 there has been mounting pressure on Americans' civil liberties — the loyalty of servants of American government has suffered unparalleled attacks. Democrats generally have been slandered in a manner unprecedented in our political history.

"The Republican strategists who resorted to such measures must be made to realize, if they are still inclined to these extremes, that what they are considering is the poisoning of democracy. . . ."

Speaking on international relations, Stevenson said:

"It must be recognized that the essence if not the execution of the prevailing foreign policies of the nation are those of most of the Democratic party and at least one branch of the Republican party. . . .

"It is important that the world know that the spirit expressed at Geneva represented much more than President Eisenhower's own beliefs. What he did—and did very well—was to restore confidence in America's peaceful, cooperative purpose, a confidence which had been jeopardized too often by the bellicose words and gestures of some administration spokesmen. Once again the world must know what fills the hearts of the American people—the spirit of peace, the full realization that 'above all nations is humanity.'"

ELIMINATES FARMERS

The present farm policy, Stevenson said, "instead of eliminating surpluses, as advertised, it is eliminating farmers, not as advertised. . . . Our past problems are still with us, just as we Democrats foresaw.

"Export subsidies, import quotas still sharply conflict with out declarations about freer world trade. There is still indefensible discrimination between different commodities . . . And the burdensome surpluses are still burdening us. As a result the problem of controls, effective control still remains."

Stevenson said he will await the results of a nationwide poll before making any statement on running again.

The convention heard also support for G. Mennen Williams, Democratic governor of Michigan for the presidential nomination. He was scheduled to address the convention tonight.

ALL IN THE FAMILY — When Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, the widow of John Dodge, ordered a 1956 four-door hardtop, no less than the company president himself turned out to make the first 1956 model delivery to her personally. Dodge president W. C. Newberg (left) of 975 Fairfax, Birmingham, turns the car over to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Meadowbrook Hall, Rochester. The day after she admired the sapphire white, royal blue, and wedgwood blue color combination at the Northville Downs preview showing of 1956 models on September 19, Mrs. Wilson telephoned her order to Newberg.

German General Ends Jail Term

Koenigsburg, Defender Was Labeled a Coward by Enraged Hitler

CAMP FRIENDLAND, Germany (AP)—A four-star German general who had been condemned to death by Hitler became a free man today.

Gen. Otto Lasch, 62, was in a group of 32 German war prisoners returned to West Germany last night from Russia as a result of the Moscow conference between Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin.

Lasch was commander of troops defending Koenigsberg in East Prussia in the closing days of the war in 1945. Hitler was so enraged by Lasch's surrender, that he threw the book at him. The general was booted out of the army on charges of "cowardice," condemned to death in absentia and his family persecuted.

* * *

Lasch's group was the second, composed mostly of high officers, to be returned from the Soviet Union. A third group is to arrive tonight. About 600 prisoners of war are due tomorrow. In all, 9,626 are to get their freedom.

The new arrivals said surviving eyewitnesses of Hitler's death in his Berlin bunker 10 years ago were in a Soviet camp at Pevo Uralsk and may be among those to be repatriated shortly. They are Heinz Linge, Hitler's personal servant who is said to have helped burn Hitler's body, Otto Guensche, an elite guard adjutant, and Gen. Hans Bauer, Hitler's personal pilot.

A Tribute to Grandma

Grandma told us stories, gave us cookies, sang us to sleep. Her lap has been the fortress shielding us from goblins and elves; her home has been our Mecca. She's listened to our tales of valor or defeat, set us upon a pedestal where only Kings or Queens should sit.

M. E. SIPLE

When Grandpa retired Grandma didn't. She prepares appetizing food for breakfast, lunch and dinner, washes dishes, cleans the house, puts up jam and fruit for winter, and she wouldn't have it any other way. She's never happier than when her family smacks their lips when they eat her apple pie. When the day is gone Grandma never need wonder what she'll do tomorrow; she'll do as she has done all of her life, with this addition—baby-sit and love every minute of it.

October 9th is her day. Make her happy.

Following the 10-week basic course, the new Marines will receive five weeks of combat training.

Truman Speech Indicates a Campaign of Invective

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Harry Truman's riproaring political technique provided the battle plan today for New York Democrats eager to make inroads in heavily Republican upstate.

* * *

The former president, addressing a giant precampaign rally yesterday, told 2,000 party candidates for local office: "Go home and fight with all you have for the principles of the Democratic party."

Cheers and whistles greeted the 71-year-old campaigner as he walked into a downtown armory with his host, Gov. Averell Harriman.

Truman referred in his talk to Harriman as "the great governor of New York" but gave no clear hint as to whether he would back Harriman for the party's presidential nomination next year.

Truman had said repeatedly he favors Adlai Stevenson again. But Thursday in Boston he said his decision would become known at the convention next summer.

* * *

At the rally, looking as firm and jaunty as ever, Truman took swipes at the Eisenhower administration as one of "special privilege," said the federal government should be "restored to the people," and expressed surprise that a "farm boy from Western Missouri" should be invited to New York to give a lesson in politics.

* * *

The former president and Mrs. Truman stayed overnight with the Harrimans at the executive mansion. Mrs. Truman, resting after the drive from Boston, did not attend the rally.

There were shouts of "Give 'em hell, Harry" as Truman declared:

"I want to say to you the government now in the Capitol city of Washington is a special privileged government and nothing else."

* * *

"There is one theory of government that believes there is a class in the country that is born to rule," Truman said. ". . . They are special-privileged people, who believe that the rich ought to get richer and that by chance maybe some of that will filter down to the people below."

"We (Democrats) don't believe in that sort of government," Truman declared.

He said he was "very anxious" to see the government "restored to the people."

* * *

Chopping both hands in a characteristic Truman gesture, he told the candidates:

"I want every single one of you Democratic candidates in Republican counties to go home and fight with all you have for the principles of the Democratic party."

Looking Ahead Into 1965

What will life be like in these United States ten years hence?

No doubt there could be many and varied answers to this question. But none would have a more authentic basis in scientific knowledge than that given by the Research Institute of America.

The Institute's findings are condensed into an interesting story by Leo Cherne, its executive director. Writing in Coronet magazine he pictures a standard of living higher than anyone now dares dream and a four day week for industrial workers and many office employes.

★ ★ ★

By that time houses will be heated, lighted, refrigerated and air conditioned by the sun. Doors and windows will open and close automatically with temperature changes. Cooking will be done by electronic tubes.

Income, says the article, will be up 20 per cent and savings about two per cent. Persons now paying about $400 in Federal income tax will be paying $500 plus another $500 in state and local taxes.

★ ★ ★

By 1965 there will be a great change in transportation with 81,000,000 cars on the road instead of the 59,000,000 we now have. People then will have two cars, a short one for city driving with dent resisting plastic fenders and a 20-foot long de luxe open road model. Fuel for these cars will be coal and vegetable derivatives which will be burned in gas turbine motors.

★ ★ ★

Among other developments listed are five hour transatlantic flights, two color television sets in every room at less than $300 each with some live pickups from Europe and wrist watch radios for $25.

Finally, we'll live longer but pay for it by suffering more from nervous disturbances because of our faster pace and more complicated existence.

U. N. Assembly Should Vote to Undo Wrong

In the interests of the United Nations itself, the General Assembly should lose no time in correcting the mistake made in voting to debate the Algerian question.

If some of the representatives of the 28 nations failed to realize this, they should know it now. The French delegation lost no time in emphasizing this fact by walking out of the Assembly and leaving for Paris.

★ ★ ★

Quite properly, we think the French resented the vote as an invasion of purely domestic affairs. Algeria is as much a part of metropolitan France as Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands are of the United States. Not only do Algerians send representatives to the National Assembly but have full French citizenship.

The Paris delegation's reaction to the 28-27 vote for debate is much more than mere pique. It challenges the Assembly to undo the damage done when it violated U. N.'s charter by putting Algeria on the agenda.

★ ★ ★

There also is a similar challenge to the members of the loose coalition which made up the majority. The core of this coalition is the Arab-Asian bloc which often has put colonial questions above other issues.

True to form the Communists seized the opportunity to stir up trouble. They voted for debate even though their titles to lands under their control are far more subject to question than those of France in Algeria.

★ ★ ★

There can be little doubt that if this question were to be presented again, the result would be different. Not only should there be such reconsideration, but France should reconsider its Assembly walkout which has dealt U. N. a serious blow.

A Cure to End All Cures

Michael J. Quill is president of New York's Transport Workers' Union.

As such he has given considerable thought to the traffic jam in the Nation's largest city and the sickness of its transit industry. The cure he has come up with for these twin ills not only is amazing but promises to be far too effective.

Quill would ban all automobiles from Manhattan Island. This, he argues, not only would end the traffic problem but bring the transit company so much business that they could afford higher wages without raising fares.

It's easy to believe that Quill's prescription would eliminate these two problems. The trouble is that it also would eliminate a lot of people and therefore a lot of business, with disastrous results.

LANSING—It's nice to be able to say for a change that both Gov. Williams and the Republican Legislature are right.

• • •

The governor says the Legislature hasn't provided enough beds for mental patients—and he's right.

The Legislature says that it has done quite a lot—and it's right.

So the question facing the Nov. 1 special legislative session is not who is right and who is wrong—no matter what each may think—but where do we go from here?

The issues are how much can the state afford and how should it spend what it can afford in the best possible way for the future.

Gov. Williams implies that the Legislature has shirked its duty in not expanding the mental hospitals enough.

• • •

And the Legislature points with pride to the fact that it has spent and committed 83 million dollars in the past 10 years to expand mental hospital facilities.

APPROVED BY VOTERS

Of this, 58.6 millions have come out of the 65 million dollar bond issue which the Legislature submitted to the voters and secured their approval for in 1950. So a big chunk of the money has come in the past five years.

Twenty-five million dollars have come out of the general fund for mental hospital construction and expansion.

• • •

This program, according to legislative figures, has added 4,275 new beds to the mental hospital system, with 1,586 more now under construction or in the planning stage.

It has included the erection of new facilities: The Hawthorne Center in Detroit, the neuropsychiatric clinic in Detroit, the children's psychiatric unit at Ann Arbor and big Northville State Hospital.

All this has been shaken out of the taxpayers' pockets at the same time the bill for operating these hospitals has gone up steadily—50 million dollars this year—for expanding the prisons, for expanding the colleges, for expanding the this and expanding the that.

And yet it isn't enough.

• • •

The governor can say flatly it isn't enough and the Legislature really can't say that it is—because there still are many men and women and children in society who have been ordered confined in hospitals and undoubtedly many more who would be committed if the courts knew there was room for them.

STATE GROWS FAST

Part of this backlog of patients results from the fact that the state had no money during the depression. Then during the war it wasn't allowed to build. And after the war the state's savings account, accumulated to pick up the slack, was taken away by local governments through the sales tax diversion amendment.

• • •

Part of the backlog results from a swelling population. Michigan is one of the fast-growing states of the nation.

Part of it results from the stress modern, high-speed life places on our people, causing them to crack under the strain in greater numbers.

Part of it results from the fact that the Legislature is a constantly changing organism made up of ordinary folks even as you and I. Its members quite often do not know what to do—and so do nothing, or do too little to late.

• • •

But Gov. Williams is right; there are more than 1,200 children with twisted minds or no minds at all confined in their homes, warping the lives of their normal brothers and sisters and torturing their desperate parents for months and years.

And yet it isn't enough—for any of these categories.

'Men and Missions Sunday' Points Out Laymen's Opportunity to Be of Service

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Sunday, October 9, is Men and Missions Sunday, the beginning of a full week of concentrated activity among laymen of the denominations that comprise the National Council of Churches. The theme for today and for the week is taken from the Epistle of St. James (Chapter 1, Verse 22): "Be ye doers of the Word and not hearers only."

Sermons, discussions, and printed material will treat the Christian missionary program as its biggest and most important of all business enterprises because it is the Lord's business, and will point out that American laymen have the opportunity to use their business ability for the extension of Christianity.

Many of the church's problems, particularly those of analysis and organization, are similar to the problems in which American men have already proved their extraordinary skill. The men's talents should be put to work in the service of the church.

Church leaders suggest also that layman has frequent chances to be a missionary himself. Our own country is still one of the world's most urgent mission fields, with 41 per cent of the nation not even having normal religious affiliations. Our high divorce rate, our constantly shifting population, our slums and juvenile delinquency are problems on which the layman's Christian action can be directly focused.

Men can also be effective missionaries simply by being committed Christians in their daily relationships with family, business associates, and the community generally.

DAY OF REJOICING

Sunday is the ninth day of the Jewish festival of Sukkoth. It is called Simhath Torah, which means "Rejoicing of the Law."

This is a fairly new holiday in the Jewish calendar. The occasion for the rejoicing is found in the fact that the annual round of Scripture reading in the Synagogue is completed today. During the year the five books of Moses (the first five books of the Old Testament) are read at the services.

The last section of Deuteronomy is finished. The cycle will begin all over with the first part of Genesis next Sabbath. Children will carry flags in procession today, bearing the inscription "Be joyful and rejoice in the rejoicing of the Law."

CHURCHES ABROAD

Wednesday a feature of Laymen's Week will be the Laymen's Rally night. In countless American communities men of various denominations will come together for an inter-church service.

The 1955 project, to be supported by tonight's offering, is the strengthening of American churches in foreign countries.

With American servicemen, teachers, business men, and government employes now living in all parts of the world, the presence of familiar religious environment for them becomes increasingly important as America hopes to apply Christian principles in its discharge of its world responsibilities.

SEMI-RELIGIOUS HOLIDAY

It was 463 years ago Wednesday that Christopher Columbus first set foot on the soil of the new world. That in itself was, of course, not a religious event. Columbus Day cannot be considered a church holiday.

Nevertheless, a distinctly religious flavor has been brought into the day's observances, because its most active celebrants are people whose lives are closely tied to the Roman Catholic Church. In large American cities today Italian Americans will honor their fellow-countryman whose voyage opened this continent to them as to all other nations.

The Knights of Columbus, a Roman Catholic men's organization, will also have a program of special festivities. And it is natural that these groups should make church services the center of their commemoration.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Attractive, Wealthy Widow Becomes Lonely Neurotic Lacking Suitable Mate

Wealthy widows and widowers are often in more danger when seeking a second marriage for they may be the prey of gold diggers and fortune hunters. So a Scientific Dating Bureau would be their best protection. I'll guarantee suitable mates to the first ten who furnish the $100,000 necessary for this Bureau.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-360: Helen R., aged 43, has been widowed for two years.

"She is a very attractive woman," her attorney informed me at luncheon recently.

"And her husband left her over half a million dollars in government bonds and gilt edged securities.

"She is so lonely she is growing neurotic. Several fortune hunters have been trying to marry her, but I know they are primarily interested in her money.

"She is a lovely, cultured woman who would make a wonderful wife, but she hasn't found a suitable man."

What we need acutely in this country is a Scientific Dating Bureau, Incorporated not for profit, to help put eligible people in touch with desirable members of the opposite sex.

It would thus be a great boon not only to teenagers but to school teachers, nurses, private secretaries and all classes of fine men in the late twenties, thirties, and upward.

Furthermore, there are literally millions of widows and widowers whose lonely present life would be much happier if they were married again.

We even have mail order firms to offer a wide range of merchandise to isolated farmers and western ranchers.

ROMANCE INSURED

Such an organization would insure romance and happiness to millions who now lead lonely lives.

Suppose a woman like Helen wanted to avail herself of the services of this Scientific Dating Bureau. She'd write for an application blank.

It would ask all sort of relevant questions about age, race, religion, education, politics, hobbies, etc.

Immediately, a local field agent, preferably a local clergyman, Boy Scout Executive or other ethical person, would be asked to call on Helen for a brief personal interview. He'd also check with her three references to be sure she was eligible for the services of the Bureau.

SUBMIT REPORT

Then he'd submit a short written report of his findings, which would be filed with Helen's original questionnaire. And he'd receive the $5 to reimburse him for the house call and report.

Then Helen would be given a key number, such as H-10,177, and offered the descriptions, under similar code numbers, of two or three suitable men within 300 miles range of her home town.

She could correspond with one of them via the Bureau's central office, which would transmit mail back and forth under code until such a time, as they both wished ot meet personally.

He would then come to her city and the clergyman who was her local Field Agent, would have them meet at his church for an introduction.

Then they would be on their own. And if they were attracted, they would know they were both certified eligibles with similar basic habits that stabilize marriages and keep them happy.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

'Bad Muffler Fine Should Go to Seller, Not Buyer'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

I see in the paper where a man was sentenced to five days in jail for having an improper muffler on his car. Will someone please explain to me why the dealers are allowed to sell these Hollywood mufflers and the poor guy who buys them gets a ticket for doing so?

It seems to me that the place that sells them is where the ticketing should be done.

Negro Girl Is Wondering What Her Future Holds

Saturday a speeder with bad brakes was stopped by a police car. We in the community realize this is against the law, but rather than arrest the driver, the policeman started an argument.

A crowd, mostly men, had gathered by then, and one of them said something to the police. They told him to be quiet and keep his mouth shut.

The police called for more cars because the crowd gathered and when they finished, there were six police cars and a detective car, which was absolutely unnecessary. An innocent bystander was pushed around and taken to the police station.

I am sure the men would have cooperated much better if the matter had been handled properly.

In my opinion, that of a 17-year-old girl, I think it was terrible. I am a Negro and hope to grow up to be a good, honest citizen, but with things happening like they are, I am almost afraid of what the future has in store for me and others.

It is impossible at the present for us to visit the South safely, and I am praying this won't occur in the North. I am not trying to be prejudiced by expressing my opinion. I hope to grow up and live in this Democratic country.

Agrees With Concerned, Cites Dr. Peale's Talks

Concerned, I am 100 per cent behind you on Crane. Dr. Peale's talks every Saturday are more enlightening and educational toward a clean healthy mind.

Most days the Press honors people for from 50 to 60 years of married life. These began when no psychologists were around and lasted through the ups and downs of everyday life. They lived honorable, clean lives based on common sense.

If the Lord's Prayer and Ten Commandments were in our public schools, I think we would soon have no need for psychology.

I would like to hear a good doctor come across with the syphilis question. The state demands a clean blood test for those entering matrimony.

Another Skater Urges Artificial Rink for City

I, too, think that Pontiac should have an artificial ice skating rink. It would keep a lot of kids off the streets at night.

Because of weather conditions the Northside Rink is open only about three weeks out of the year. We wait, hope and pray for cold weather so we can skate, but every year the same thing.

We even have a club in which we are taught figure skating by a capable teacher. If our club is good enough to be invited to Grayling's Sports Carnival every year, think how many more good skaters Pontiac could have if we had an artificial skating rink.

Normal Son of Deaf and Dumb Parents May Pass Affliction on to His Children

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS
By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Girl contemplates marrying man whose parents are both deaf and dumb, born that way. The man seems all right. Would children born to him be deaf and dumb? (W. K.)

Answer — Deaf mutism is frequently, that is, hidden in normal children of deaf mutes and hence there is a chance that one out of four children born to the man in question would be a deaf mute.

Your quinine prophylaxis against the cri has helped several members of my family a great deal. But I have eye trouble — muscular trouble, the doctor says, and I take orthoptic exercies. Reading and night driving give me headache. I am forty years old. Please give your opinion about taking the quinine. (J. D. M.)

Answer — So far as I know there is no objection, but you should ask your oculist about it. For the difficulty in night driving try taking three tablets of vitamin A daily for a few weeks. Instructions (p.26) for use of quinine as prophylactic against flu, grip, cri ("colds"), malaria, mailed on request if you inclose stamped envelope bearing your address, plus 25c for booklet Call It CRI.

Thanks for your fine health teachings, which I have followed for years. I'm approaching my 80th birthday and I walk a few miles every day visiting my children, grandchildren and, soon, I hope my great grandchildren. I'm pretty healthy, have ALL my lower teeth and, my doctor says, HBP, for which he says I need nothing but less salt . . .(Mrs. W.S.)

Answer—To which I'd add, if your doctor agrees, B. B. each night and morning, and perhaps at mid-day if you take a brief nap or rest every day. B. B. is belly breathing. For instructions send 25c and stamped, self-addresse envelope, and ask in writing for Little Lesson 21, HOW TO BREATHE. I'ts good for poor circulation, "high blood pressure," insomnia, torpid liver, the willies or what have you.

I read all your references to Ca, D, I and B-Complex for arthritis but you give no hint of how much or what to ask for at the drug store . . . (E. C. A.)

Answer — How thick can ivory be? Better leave arthritis to your physician's judgement. If you have rheumatis send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet Calcium & Rheumatiz.

Our pet cat was taken ill a month ago and we had to put her to sleep. We have been fighting fleas ever since. Much scratching and suffering . . .(Mrs. D. F.)

Answer — Little Lesson 13, Unbidden Guests, tells how to rid the premises of fleas, flies, ants, cockroaches, spiders etc. For a copy send 25c and stamped self-addressed envelope.

If you decorate outstanding candidates, Doctor, I believe I qualify for a Poor Geek badge or button. Although I had read your warning many times, somehow it didn't take — I submitted to a hemorrhoid operation by . . .now I know what atrocity means . . . never suffered so much in my life . . .(F. B. M.)

Answer — The medieval clamp and cautery operation for piles is only slightly less atrocious, I think, than tonsillectomy, because victims of the hemorrhoid operation can reject it if they wish, whereas victims of tonsillectomy have no choice. For the pamphlet You Need Not Have Piles send stamped, self-addresse envelope, and no clipping, please. For pamphlet Tonsils Are Not All Bad, ditto. Both pamphlets, inclose 10 cents in addition.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Will Tag Cattle in Uniform Plan

Agriculture Department Sets Up New System for Ease

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Agriculture Department is sponsoring a nationwide, uniform plan for tagging dairy and beef cattle so that there will be no duplication of numbers and only one tag per animal.

According to the department, there are long-standing complaints by farmers that their cattle are tagged for so many different herd-improvement and disease control programs that they look like Christmas trees.

The new system provides a combination of letters and numbers sufficient to identify more than eight billion head of cattle in the U.S. and territories without using any number twice.

This means that a complete series of numbers can be provided to identify 169 million animals in each state or territory. A sample series might run from 35-AAA0001 through 35-ZZZ9999. The number 35 in this series is the state code for dairy-conscious Wisconsin.

It is expected that central booking offices will be set up in each state to allocate blocks of numbers from the state quota to various dairy-herd improvement, artificial breeding and disease eradication associations.

A herd improvement association, for example, might wish to reserve the X series, and 6,760,000 different numbers would thus be available for use by its members. One sub-group in the association might be assigned the XA sequence of numbers while another takes the XB series.

Backs of the tags may carry the name or initials of the purchasing group.

The department points out that in the past identification numbers have been duplicated nationally and even within a state, often resulting in considerable confusion when the records are handled on modern record-keeping machinery.

Department animal disease eradication workers say that one of the chief difficulties in tracing bovine tuberculosis back to the point of origin is the lack of adequate identification of animals sent to market.

In some cases an animal recently killed has been found to have the same tag number as that carried by an animal still living.

The agricultural research service is now contracting to buy ear tags consistent with the new nationwide numbering system to use in identifying animals in the brucellosis and tuberculosis eradication programs.

There will be no additional cost to individuals or groups.

Village Woman Hurt When Car Hit Horse

ROCHESTER — Mrs. Barbara Trisch, 906 Roselawn, suffered cuts and abrasions plus possible internal injuries last night when the car she was driving struck a horse on Walton Road.

Deputy Steven Navarre investigated the accident that killed the horse and nearly demolished the Trisch car.

Mrs. Trisch was taken to Avon Center Hospital.

Speaker of the evening will be Marlis Muehlhan. The 16-year-old student is spending a year in the United States under the sponsorship of the Michigan Council of Churches. She is a senior at Port Huron High School this fall.

Firemen Slate Event

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — News from the Pontiac Township Volunteer Fire Department states that the firemen are calling on Mr. and Mrs. Citizen instead of the usual vice versa.

Open house will be held in all three township fire stations from 7 till 9 p. m. every night next week—in recognition of National Fire Prevention Week.

There will be firemen on duty at the stations during these hours, to show the equipment and explain uses.

Officials said that they would like the public to take advantage of this opportunity. Children are invited along with adults.

Avondale Men to Ride Donkeys in Softball Game

AVONDALE—Area businessmen and members of the Avondale High School faculty will ride donkeys Wednesday, Oct. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in a softball game at the high school.

The proceeds will purchase a new electric scoreboard for the school.

Chairman of the event, Lawrence Shearer, junior high school principal, has extended an invitation to the public to attend.

The donkeys — 12 Texas-trained animals—are being brought from Oklahoma, especially for the game.

Business Scheduled by Township Board

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — The Pontiac Township Board will study two plats that are to be presented at their Monday night meeting.

An application for transfer of ownership of 1955 Class C and SDM license from John Carmos, 3211 Auburn Rd., to Nick Leone, will be up for consideration.

On bid was received for the blacktopping of Cherryland Street and will be acted on Monday night.

A report and recommendations will be forthcoming from the building committee on their investigation of the three fire halls for needed repairs.

There will be two services—at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. These special sermons are in honor of the 35th wedding anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. Riddle.

Picking Pickles Pays Off

Pickin' a plot of pickles is a chore that may pay off handsomely for Lloyd Gilbert, farm machinery mechanic, and I. C. Pierson, a Ravenna area farmer.

If also may lead to great savings for pickle growers.

The two have applied for patents on a pickle-harvesting machine, developed after three years of experiment. It is the 10th device they have tested in a series which carried them through field experiments in Michigan, Georgia and Florida pickle growing regions.

The machine mounting basically is a 12-horsepower tractor. It is lengthened 20 inches and widened to six feet between 30-inch drive wheels. A system of chains and gears operates the picking mechanism, powered off the tractor motor.

The machine "snout" consists of two conical tapered rollers which pass along each side of the row of vines. The rollers lift the vines. As the machine moves along the vines are laid on two sets of revolving rods. The rods knock pickles from the vines into aprons which carry them in conveyor troughs for dumping into crates on a truck behind the picking machine.

Its builders say the machine will pick up to an acre and a half in an hour, depending on the number of turns required and other factors.

One man can operate the machine and tend the crated pickles.

* * *

"It costs about $75 a man to bring a Mexican National to the pickle fields here," Pierson said. "Then the farmer must house him and give him half of what he picks. We could have harvested our 75 acres of pickles with two of these machines this season — or with one machine, operated long enough hours."

The Gilbert-Pierson machine is being watched with interest by Michigan State University researchers. Other interested groups from Oklahoma, Maryland, Indiana, California, Georgia and Wisconsin have sent representatives to inspect it.

With pickles now rated the nation's No. 1 canning crop, Gilbert and Pierson see a definite place for their device in meeting harvesting problems.

Give Booklets to Help Farmers Self Employed

Two new booklets of interest to farmers have been issued by the Social Security Administration. One, entitled "How Social Security Covers Farmers," is directed at self-employed farmers, many of whom will be filing their first social security returns at income tax time. The booklet covers in non-legal language how social security affects tenants, landlords and partners.

The other, "How Does Social Security Affect Farm Families," explains how farmers and their employes can be insured quickly, giving examples of benefit amounts and answers questions about husband-wife, father-son partnerships and share-farmer arrangements.

Address requests for free booklets to: Social Security Administration, 18 S. Perry St., Pontiac.

Adult Classes Plan Possible Organization

HOLLY — Adult training classes will be organized in the local schools, according to Supt. Charles G. Coggins, if enough interest is exhibited in any of the subjects available.

These include typing, foreign language, shop work and other subjects now taught regular students. A driver training class for adults will also be offered later in the school year.

A class in square dancing, under the direction of Hal Brown, will be available once a week if 30 or more couples express a desire to enroll.

GM Check Divided With No Formal Act

UTICA — Utica officials are stirred up today after unofficial action was taken to cash the General Motors check for $1,481 given the town for expenses occurred from the recent water pollution.

Edward Havel, city clerk, said that he was handed the check and a list by either Mayor Donald Havel of City Attorney George Roberts after the council meeting and told to cash it and pay the people on the list.

Attorney Roberts denies knowledge of this and Mayor Havel has been unable to be reached. Fellow council members knew nothing of such action.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT R. CALDWELL

Patricia Weber Marries in Recent Church Rite

Lady of Refuge Church, Orchard Lake was the scene of the recent marriage of Patricia Leon Weber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Weber, of 1382 Hiller Rd. and Robert Ralph Caldwell, 1384 Murray Dr., Pontiac, son of Ralph Caldwell of Ashville N.C. and the late Mrs. Caldwell.

The bride chose a gown of white lace over satin with a Queen Ann collar, long pointed sleeves, and a full, floor length skirt of nylon net and lace. The fingertip veil of nylon net, was attached to a lace crown trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. Patricia carried a cascade of white roses.

Peggy Derocher of Pontiac was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Janet DeLongchamp and Frances Lobeck. Cathy Mosher was flower girl.

Serving as best man was Ronald DeLongchamp and ushers were Michael Caldwelder and Jerry Greenlee.

A reception was held at St. Michael's Hall.

The wedding trip covered points in Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and North Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell will live on Starling Road.

Secretaries to View Film on Civil Defense Needs

Pontiac Press Photos

Sewing for the Needlework Guild of America is one of the projects of Stabafa Club. Under the guidance of Mrs. Basil E. Brown, club sponsor, the 25 active members are sewing on layettes to be presented at the Ingathering of the Needlework Guild on Nov. 10. Pictured while busy on this project are Sharon Gale (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gale of Navajo drive, and Delores Surowitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Surowitz of West Iroquois road.

Each year members of Stabafa Club purchase dolls and dress them for the Salvation Army. Displaying some of the dolls, which will be distributed in baskets at Christmas time, are (left to right) Sue Whitfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitfield of Oakwood avenue; Lynn Benter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Benter of East Iroquois road, and Judy Baker, daughter of Mrs. Donald Hansen of Navajo drive. Lynne is president of the organization this year and many civic projects have been planned under her leadership.

Ground Observer Corps Seeks More Volunteers

Movie to Be Presented at Wednesday Meeting of Pontioak Chapter

"One Plane, One Bomb!" A film which vividly demonstrates the great need for civil defense, will be shown Wednesday evening under the sponsorship of the Pontioak Chapter of National Secretaries Assn.

Arthur J. Heaton, supervisor of the Ground Observers Corps of the city of Pontiac, assisted by Sgt. Nicholas Chizewsky of the U. S. Air Force, field representative for Oakland and Lapeer Counties, will present the picture.

Mr. Heaton says, "Far too few people realize the danger we face should there be an unexpected attack, and the great need for volunteers to join in protecting our county, our factories, homes and children."

Mr. Heaton believes we need 168 people in Pontiac to man Ground Observers Corps Post 24 hours a day, seven days a week, each one serving two hours a week.

He states that "the danger of not manning our post is that bombers or planes could come in under 5,000 feet without detection by our National Radar System." His work here in Pontiac is concerned with manning the post in order to cover that gap and rule out any possibility of such an event occurring.

"The corps has been in operation for three years and is doing the best it can, but it still needs 100 people to assist in this work, in which women can play so important a part, so vital to all. Volunteers are also needed at the Commerce, Clarkston and Birmingham posts," explained Mr. Heaton.

* * *

The Pontioak Chapter of NSA is opening this meeting to secretaries throughout Oakland County so that more will become familiar with the work of the corps.

The meeting, being held at Hotel Waldron, will start with a dinner at 6:30 p. m., and the program will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Mary Eleanor Lockman of Mohawk road and Mrs. William L. Robinson of Nelson street are handling reservations for either part or all of the evening's activities.

Bridal Party Are Guests at Dinner

Bride-elect Shirley Slaybaugh and John Sloan and members of their wedding party were entertained Friday evening at a rehearsal dinner held at the home of Shirley's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Slaybaugh of Glenwood avenue.

Arrangements of yellow and white chrysanthemums with yellow and white tapers on a Queen Anne lace tablecloth were table decorations for the dinner.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slaybaugh of Fourth street are parents of the bride, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sloan of Exmoore stret. The couple were married this afternoon at a four thirty o'clock ceremony in Oakland Park Methodist Church.

Guests at the dinner included the parents of the young couple and the Rev. James Deeg. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parden, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Ramin, Mr. and Mrs. Derwin Hiller; and Mrs. Leota Thomas.

* * *

Lois Dusten, Maryanne Grady, Sandy Parden, Mrs. Alfred Bartlebaugh, Eldon Bateman and Richard Houghton were also guests at the dinner.

Jerry Donaldson will serve as master of ceremonies and Orval Russell and Robert Brown will handle refreshments. Mr. Rasmussen will supervise scenery arrangements for the show.

* * *

Specialty numbers will include those by Mrs. Walter Siggins, Mrs. Rasmussen, Mrs. Ford Andrews, Mrs. Bartlett and Mrs. Ben Weber.

Men's specialty numbers will be performed by Ford Andrews, Bernard Bays and Mr. Rasmussen.

Ticket Chairmen Carl Bragen and Mrs. Keith Rosewall have announced that tickets may be obtained from post members or at the dance.

Shirley A. Slaybaugh Becomes Bride

Three hundred guests attended the wedding of Shirley Ann Slaybaugh and John G. Sloan this afternoon. The Rev. James W. Deeg of the Oakland Park Methodist Church officiated at the 4:30 ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slaybaugh of Fourth street are the parents of the bride, and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sloan of Exmoore street.

* * *

Shirley, given in marraige by her father, approached the gladioli and chrysanthemum-banked altar, past pews decorated with white satin bows and white chrysanthemums.

She chose a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over tulle and satin with a chapel train for her wedding. The neckline of the gown was trimmed with seed pearls. Satin bound buttons accented the long sleeves ending in points at the wrists.

An open work crown of seed pearls secured the tulle veil appliqued with a lace design matching the lace of the bridal gown. Her bouquet was of white orchids and feather carnations.

* * *

Maid of honor, Lois Dusten, wore a crystallette gown of mint green over yellow taffeta. The floor-length gown featured a pleated stole fastened to the bodice in the front and a large bow gave the dress a bustle effect.

* * *

The other bridal attendants, Maryanne Grady, Mrs. Donald Parden and Mrs. A. R. Bartlebaugh of Dayton Plains wore dresses styled like the maid of honor in colors of aqua over pale blue, gold over pale green and coral over pale pink respectively. Their bouquets were of bronze colored pompom chrysanthemums, croton leaves and satin bows. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of yellow pompom chrysanthemums, croton leaves and satin bows.

The flower girl, Sandy Parden, wore a frock of green crystallette over yellow satin with puffed sleeves and a large sash with a bow in the back. She carried a basket of yellow rose petals. Douglas Shell, ringbearer, carried a white satin and lace pillow.

* * *

Eldon Bateman was best man and Richard Houghton of Drayton Plains, Donald Parden and Maynard Ramin seated the guests.

For the reception held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Slaybaugh greeted the guests wearing a champagne dress with bronze accessories. Mrs. Sloan wore a dress of mauve with pink accessories.

* * *

The bride chose a beige suit with moss green accessories for her going-away outfit. After honeymooning in northern Michigan the couple will live on Pinedale drive in Drayton Plains.

Shirley Ann Slaybaugh and John G. Sloan were married this afternoon at Oakland Park Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slaybaugh of Fourth street, and he is the son of the William Sloans of Exmoore street.

Marilyn Stack Speaks Nuptial Vows

Baskets of white gladioli and mixed flowers decorated the altar of Our Lady of Refuge Church this morning when Marilyn H. Stack became the bride of Wilfred D. Smith.

* * *

The Rev. Giles Bartol celebrated the Nuptial Mass in the presence of 200 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Stack of Westacres are parents of the bride, and Wilfred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen W. Smith of East Bloomfield Highlands.

A floor-length antique taffeta gown was chosen by the bride. The scoop neckline was trimmed with a band of hand-fagoting. A slightly elongated bodice fell to a wide hip line yoke. The full gathered skirt flowed into a circular chapel train. The bride's fingertip veil of illusion was secured by a small pearl crown. She chose a single strand of pearls and small pearl earrings to accent her bridal costume. Marilyn carried a bridal bouquet of pale pink and white roses centered with a white orchid.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. Joseph F. Stack attended her sister-in-law as matron of honor carrying a bouquet of shaggy chrysanthemums in shades of rust and yellow.

* * *

Others attending the bride were Nancy J. Flynn and Eleanor Goulet. They carried bouquets of honey-colored shaggy chrysanthemums.

The bridal attendants wore ballerina-length gowns of taffeta. The matron of honor's gown was a champagne color and the bridesmaids' gowns were emerald green with matching velvet at the necklines. They wore matching velvet caps outlined with seed pearls.

Margaret Ann Stack wore a frock of champagne taffeta styled similarly to her mother's, the matron of honor, for her duties as flower girl.

Henry T. Manion served as best man. Edmund O. Smith and Joseph F. Stack seated the guests.

* * *

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stack wore a rose-beige silk taffeta dress with matcthing accessories. Mrs. Smith's dress was a dark gray crepe with rose accessories.

AFTERNOON RECEPTION

Breakfast was served at Devon Gables for the wedding party immediately following the ceremony. A reception for friends and relatives was held this afternoon at Westacres Clubhouse.

* * *

The bride changed to a moss green wool jersey dress with matching hat and brown accessories for their wedding trip to Quebec and the northeastern states. On their return the newlyweds will reside on Henbert road.

Marilyn H. Stack and Wilfred D. Smith were married this morning. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Stack of Westacres and he is the son of the Owen W. Smiths of East Bloomfield Highlands.

Oldster Assembles Photo Albums

By ANNE HEYWOOD

A friend of mine has the liveliest mother you ever saw, although she is in her late 70s. Whenever I visit them, Mrs. L. is chirpy as can be.

I never knew what her secret was before, but the other day I caught her in the act, so to speak.

* * *

Mrs. L. has a hobby for which she receives no money; but it is so engrossing and fascinating to her and makes her feel needed and busy. And rightly so!

Mrs. L. prepares photo albums, for all her family and friends. She did it first for her daughter, some years back, and has been at it one way or another ever since.

* * *

"Most folks," she told me, "have boxes full of old photos which they mean to assemble some day, when they have time. But they never seem to have time. Well, I do it for them and I love it."

She showed me her "workroom," which is a corner of her big bedroom.

She has an old kitchen table, with paste pots, white lettering ink and all kinds of pens. In the drawer are sheets of black loose-leaf paper. And in a big file next to the table, there are literally hundreds of photos, separated into family groups.

"I make them, supply the albums proper," she told me, "and I like the photos to have the names of the people and the approximate date. Then I arrange them in chronological order.

"I pride myself on setting up each page very artisitically, yet clearly and logically. If any questions arise, I drop them a post card and they write or phone me and straighten it out.

"I work at it off and on," she concluded, "and lose myself in it for hours sometimes.

"I am interested in people, always have been, and this way I feel I'm really helping them out. And of course some of the photos are most appealing, especially the babies.

REFUSES MONEY

"I refuse to take a penny for my labor—after all, it's a labor of love and I get plenty of satisfaction out of it. But when I present the finished album, the people always insist on giving me a present—a surprise.

"I've had everything from theater tickets to costume jewelry to candies and wine.

* * *

"Right now," she chuckled, "one of my 'customers' has given me a gift certificate for a new permanent, fancy styling, and facial. Not bad for an old lady, is it?"

Don't Get Tied Down Too Young

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

You get so wrapped up in each other so soon! You settle down so early to acting engaged. You're not really engaged, either — you have no immediate plans for getting married. You're just going steady. And you take it mighty seriously.

While there's still time to meet lots of people and have fun with lots of people, you get yourself all wrapped up in just one specimen. Suddenly he's the center of your universe. Your life revolves around him. You take your interest in him and your activities together so seriously.

If you could only go out with him a lot because you enjoy being together, without making an agreement to do so! That signing on the dotted line makes for a lot of trouble. It's as formal an "engagement" of your time and interest as getting engaged is.

Yet, there's no future in it. Not if it happens too soon, or is impractical, or out of the question financially. Not to mention the fact that emotionally it's not the right deal.

* * *

Yet, you consider it the big amour. Nothing else could possibly touch it. You make yourselves miserable over it when it comes to an end. And the law of averages brings many a going-steady arrangement to an abrupt and brutal end. With repercussions as in this girl's case. She writes.

"Dear Miss Woodward: A week before my 17th birthday I started going steady with Bill. As far as I knew he thought a lot of me, and my world simply revolved around him. So I was very happy until the day (about a month later) when he told me he didn't want to go with me any more.

"He said he had grown tired of me, didn't want to go with me any more but still liked me as a friend. All he wants to do now is run around with the boys and have an occasinal date (but not with me).

"Eighteen months, two steady boy friends and dozens of dates later I still think as much of him as I ever did and can't seem to keep it from anyone.

"I've been trying to tell myself that I don't still care for him. But I've done everything in my power to let him know that I love and need him.

"He's going on 21 (I'm going on 19) and I feel that if he is going to make a decision it will be in the next three or four years. Should I be friendly wth him and date other boys, hoping that in time he will realize that my love is a lasting and true one? Or should I try to forget him and start a new life away from mutual friends?"

Answer: You spell phase P-H-A-S-E. It's a brief period in anyone's history. A spell when one's interests, activities, feelings, moods, reactions are tuned to a particular tone. A period that seems vitally important while it's being lived through, but which is quickly forgotten when a new tune is played.

You've stopped dead still at one of your phases. Jack was the center of your universe while you were going with him. And several steady deals later, you still find him the center of your dreams.

But where are you in his? But nowhere. At least nowhere that you can see from where you sit. He doesn't date you. He gives you the blank stare. It's as though you had never existed in his life. And for that you should carry a torch?

You got too serious too soon. You're still serious over Jack. You expect your interest in him to arouse a similar interest in you. You want him to make a decision in your favor. So that you can wait four, five, six years to get married.

Can't you see that you're too previous? That many things can happen between now and that time? Many new boys, many new romances, many new phases; many new romances for Jack? He has things to do before he can take any girl seriously.

So wash the idea out of your hair. Maybe Jack will happen to you all over again five years from now, but don't wait around for it to happen.

Carve out that new life for yourself. It's too soon to make plans for 50 years from now!.

Anne Boegehold Wed in Detroit Rite

Anne Kathryn Boegehold became the bride of Richard Goode Jones this afternoon in a 4:30 o'clock ceremony in Westminster Chapel, Detroit.

Dr. John A. Visser performed the marriage service before the immediate family and friends.

* * *

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lindley Boegehold of Erie drive, and Richard, of Redondo Beach, Calif., is the son of Mrs. Keith M. Jones of Boulder, Colo.

The full-skirted ballerina-length bridal gown of Italian silk taffeta was cut with a molded bodice and an off-the-shoulder neckline edged with pearl-encrusted Alencon lace. A French crown secured her fingertip veil of illusion. Her bouquet was of white orchids and ivy.

* * *

Mrs. Lee Hardy Shay of Orange, Calif., served as her sister's matron of honor wearing a ballerina-length gown of pale pink Italian silk taffeta. A bouffant skirt fell from her fitted bodice. She carried deep pink roses and ivy.

Capt. Keith M. Jones of San Antonio, Tex., served as his brother's best man. John Shafer of Sycamore, Ill., and Paul Edwards of Ann Arbor were ushers.

* * *

When the couple left for a honeymoon in Mexico, the bride was wearing a heather gray suit with black accessories. The newlyweds will make their home near Los Angeles.

MRS. RICHARD G. JONES

Married today were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goode Jones. She is the former Ann Kathryn Boegehold, daughter of Boegeholds of Erie drive. He is the son of Keith M. Jones of Boulder, Colo.

Fox Stole Is Suitable at All Times

It May Be Worn in Daytime as Well as in Evening

By EMILY POST

"I have a beautiful silver fox stole that I am not getting enough wear from because I do not know when it may correctly be worn. The heads meet at the back and the bodies hang down in front over the shoulders and the tips of the tails nearly reach my knees.

"There are satin bands on the underside to slip my arms through to keep it in place. Is it equally correct to wear this stole with suits as well as with evening clothes, and may it be worn in the daytime as well as in the evening?"

Answer: It is entirely proper to wear such a stole under all circumstances. It wouldn't ever be improper except in midsummer heat!

"Dear Mrs. Post: While at a party at a friend's house, I rose when her mother entered the room to greet her daughter's friends. None of the boys rose, however, and I felt very conspicuous.

"In a situation of this kind, wouldn't it have been better to follow the others and remain seated rather than embarrass the others for not standing?"

Answer: No, you were right in what you did, definitely!

"Dear Mrs. Post: We would appreciate your assistance on the following problem which came up in our office recently. We are two married women and in the course of business are sometimes required to sign letters.

"When signing our names at the bottom of these letters, is it correct to put Mrs. in parenthesis before our names, such as (Mrs.) Jane Doe, or do we sign Jane Doe and then add Mrs. John Jones in parenthesis underneath?"

Answer: Just plain "Jane Doe" would be best.

Stylist Upholds Reputation for Chic Classic Clothes

David Goodstein's reputation for smart, classic, tailored clothes has been estabilshed for more than two decades. With this step-in coat-dress, he upholds this reputation in great style and enormous taste.

Cut in simple princess lines, the high cross-over closing is much in the mood of the current Oriental influence. The widely spaced double-breasted closing draws the eye away from waistline emphasis, although the waistline is naturally defined.

Originally in brown wool with beige braid trim, it is extremely effective in tweed, gabardine (wool or cotton), faille, taffeta, shantung and novelty cotton, with contrasting bias trim in linen, pique, satin or faille.

This pattern is cut to designer measurements, not standard pattern measurements.

Bust	Waist	Hips	Sizes
35	25	36 inches	12
36½	26½	37½ inches	14
38	28	39 inches	16
40	30	41 inches	18
42	32	43 inches	20

Size 12 requires 6 yards of 39-inch material for dress and ⅞ yard of 35-inch material for interfacing. To order Pattern 1234, address Spadea Syndicate, Inc., P.O. Box 535, G.P.O., Dept. P-6, New York 1, N.Y. State size. Send $1. Airmail handling 25 cents extra.

New 144-page Pattern Booklet XII available for 50 cents. If paying by check, make it payable to Spadea Syndicate, Inc. and add 4 cents for handling.

YW Announces Teen Programs Starting Oct. 14

The opening of a teenage recreational program is announced by the Pontiac YWCA. Junior High Teen Inn will begin Oct. 14 from 7 to 9:30 p. m. and will continue every Friday thereafter, for both boys and girls.

Senior High Teen Canteen will be held on Wednesday evenings, beginning Oct. 19, from 7:30 to 10 p. m. It also is a coed program. Both opening programs will be parties, with square dancing, games and refreshments.

Saturday Fun, for girls between the ages of 10 and 14 years, will begin Oct. 22, from 10 a. m. to noon. All teenage activities require junior membership in the YWCA, for both boys and girls, amounting to 50 cents a year.

The coed canteens assess small dues for a semester's participation, while the Saturday Fun enrollees pay a term fee for their instruction in crafts, arts and other skills.

* * *

Mrs. Dorothy Spann Redmond, recently appointed teenage program director, will be in charge of the three programs.

Detroit Symphony to Launch Season

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra winter concert season opens Thursday at 8:30 p. m. in the Masonic Auditorium. Conductor Paul Paray returns to his orchestra from the first European tour of the Israel Philharmonic which he conducted during the summer months.

The 1955-56 symphony series of 18 concerts promises to be the finest Detroit has ever been offered. The orchestra, now in its fifth season since reorganization, has gained a reputation for artistic excellence both in Europe and America through its extensive distribution of records on both continents.

Reservations for opening night are available at the symphony office, Masonic Temple.

Village Players to Stage 'Stalag 17' on 2 Weekends

BIRMINGHAM — For the first fall production of their 33rd season, the Village Players will incorporate a scenic workshop project into the staging of "Stalag 17" by Donald Bevan and Edmund Trzcinski.

Open to the public, "Stalag 17" will be presented two weekends, Oct. 21 and 22, and Oct. 28 and 29.

Providing the background for an all-male cast, the workshop under the expert tutelage of George F. Green will design, erect and paint the set, conferring with prisoners of World War II to achieve realism in details.

Dr. John B. Hassberger, assisted by Mrs. Edward S. Reid Jr., is directing and Mrs. Richard Brownwill is prompting. Edward Tobin is erecting bunks and gathering other props and Mrs. Hans Schjolin and Mrs. Frank Mosher will provide costumes for the cast.

Mrs. Wallace R. Ivers is in charge of tickets.

Pontiac Press Photos

Sewing for the Needlework Guild of America is one of the projects of Stabafa Club. Under the guidance of Mrs. Basil E. Brown, club sponsor, the 25 active members are sewing on layettes to be presented at the Ingathering of the Needlework Guild on Nov. 10. Pictured while busy on this project are Sharon Gale (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gale of Navajo drive, and Delores Surowitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Surowitz of West Iroquois road.

Each year members of Stabafa Club purchase dolls and dress them for the Salvation Army. Displaying some of the dolls, which will be distributed in baskets at Christmas time, are (left to right) Sue Whitfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitfield of Oakwood avenue; Lynn Benter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Benter of East Iroquois road, and Judy Baker, daughter of Mrs. Donald Hansen of Navajo drive. Lynne is president of the organization this year and many civic projects have been planned under her leadership.

Ground Observer Corps Seeks More Volunteers

Movie to Be Presented at Wednesday Meeting of Pontioak Chapter

"One Plane, One Bomb!" A film which vividly demonstrates the great need for civil defense, will be shown Wednesday evening under the sponsorship of the Pontioak Chapter of National Secretaries Assn.

Arthur J. Heaton, supervisor of the Ground Observers Corps of the city of Pontiac, assisted by Sgt. Nicholas Chizewsky of the U. S. Air Force, field representative for Oakland and Lapeer Counties, will present the picture.

Mr. Heaton says, "Far too few people realize the danger we face should there be an unexpected attack, and the great need for volunteers to join in protecting our county, our factories, homes and children."

Mr. Heaton believes we need 168 people in Pontiac to man Ground Observers Corps Post 24 hours a day, seven days a week, each one serving two hours a week.

He states that "the danger of not manning our post is that bombers or planes could come in under 5,000 feet without detection by our National Radar System." His work here in Pontiac is concerned with manning the post in order to cover that gap and rule out any possibility of such an event occurring.

"The corps has been in operation for three years and is doing the best it can, but it still needs 100 people to assist in this work, in which women can play so important a part, so vital to all. Volunteers are also needed at the Commerce, Clarkston and Birmingham posts," explained Mr. Heaton.

* * *

The Pontioak Chapter of NSA is opening this meeting to secretaries throughout Oakland County so that more will become familiar with the work of the corps.

The meeting, being held at Hotel Waldron, will start with a dinner at 6:30 p. m., and the program will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Mary Eleanor Lockman of Mohawk road and Mrs. William L. Robinson of Nelson street are handling reservations for either part or all of the evening's activities.

Bridal Party Are Guests at Dinner

Bride-elect Shirley Slaybaugh and John Sloan and members of their wedding party were entertained Friday evening at a rehearsal dinner held at the home of Shirley's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Slaybaugh of Glenwood avenue.

Arrangements of yellow and white chrysanthemums with yellow and white tapers on a Queen Anne lace tablecloth were table decorations for the dinner.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slaybaugh of Fourth street are parents of the bride, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sloan, of Exmoore stret. The couple were married this afternoon at a four thirty o'clock ceremony in Oakland Park Methodist Church.

Guests at the dinner included the parents of the young couple and the Rev. James Deeg. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parden, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Ramin, Mr. and Mrs. Derwin Hiller, and Mrs. Leota Thomas.

* * *

Lois Dusten, Maryanne Grady, Sandy Parden, Mrs. Alfred Bartlebaugh, Eldon Bateman and Richard Houghton were also guests at the dinner.

Amvets Planning Fifth Jamboree on November 12

Mrs. Robert Brown is chairman of an evening featuring dancing, a floor show and refreshments planned by Wright-Fournier Amvets Auxiliary in conjunction with the Amvets.

The occasion is the fifth annual Broadway Jamboree to be held Nov. 12 at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Mrs. Carl Bartlett is in charge of the women's chorus and Clair Rasmussen is in charge of the men's chorus.

Jerry Donaldson will serve as master of ceremonies and Orval Russell and Robert Brown will handle refreshments. Mr. Rasmussen will supervise scenery arrangements for the show.

* * *

Specialty numbers will include those by Mrs. Walter Siggins, Mrs. Rasmussen, Mrs. Ford Andrews, Mrs. Bartlett and Mrs. Ben Weber.

Men's specialty numbers will be performed by Ford Andrews, Bernard Bays and Mr. Rasmussen.

Ticket Chairmen Carl Bragen and Mrs. Keith Rosewall have announced that tickets may be obtained from post members or at the dance.

Shirley A. Slaybaugh Becomes Bride

Three hundred guests attended the wedding of Shirley Ann Slaybaugh and John G. Sloan this afternoon. The Rev. James W. Deeg of the Oakland Park Methodist Church officiated at the 4:30 ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slaybaugh of Fourth street are the parents of the bride, and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sloan of Exmoore street.

* * *

Shirley, given in marraige by her father, approached the gladioli and chrysanthemum-banked altar, past pews decorated with white satin bows and white chrysanthemums.

She chose a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over tulle and satin with a chapel train for her wedding. The neckline of the gown was trimmed with seed pearls. Satin bound buttons accented the long sleeves ending in points at the wrists.

An open work crown of seed pearls secured the tulle veil appliqued with a lace design matching the lace of the bridal gown. Her bouquet was of white orchids and feather carnations.

* * *

Maid of honor, Lois Dusten, wore a crystallette gown of mint green over yellow taffeta. The floor-length gown featured a pleated stole fastened to the bodice in the front and a large bow gave the dress a bustle effect.

* * *

The other bridal attendants, Maryanne Grady, Mrs. Donald Parden and Mrs. A. R. Bartlebaugh of Dayton Plains wore dresses styled like the maid of honor in colors of aqua over pale blue, gold over pale green and coral over pale pink respectively. Their bouquets were of bronze colored pompom chrysanthemums, croton leaves and satin bows. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of yellow pompom chrysanthemums, croton leaves and satin bows.

The flower girl, Sandy Parden, wore a frock of green crystallette over yellow satin with puffed sleeves and a large sash with a bow in the back. She carried a basket of yellow rose petals. Douglas Shell, ringbearer, carried a white satin and lace pillow.

* * *

Eldon Bateman was best man and Richard Houghton of Drayton Plains, Donald Parden and Maynard Ramin seated the guests.

For the reception held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Slaybaugh greeted the guests wearing a champagne dress with bronze accessories. Mrs. Sloan wore a dress of mauve with pink accessories.

* * *

The bride chose a beige suit with moss green accessories for her going-away outfit. After honeymooning in northern Michigan the couple will live on Pinedale drive in Drayton Plains.

Shirley Ann Slaybaugh and John G. Sloan were married this afternoon at Oakland Park Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slaybaugh of Fourth street, and he is the son of the William Sloans of Exmoore street.

Marilyn Stack Speaks Nuptial Vows

Baskets of white gladioli and mixed flowers decorated the altar of Our Lady of Refuge Church this morning when Marilyn H. Stack became the bride of Wilfred D. Smith.

* * *

The Rev. Giles Bartol celebrated the Nuptial Mass in the presence of 200 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Stack of Westacres are parents of the bride, and Wilfred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen W. Smith of East Bloomfield Highlands.

A floor-length antique taffeta gown was chosen by the bride. The scoop neckline was trimmed with a band of hand-fagoting. A slightly elongated bodice fell to a wide hip line yoke. The full gathered skirt flowed into a circular chapel train. The bride's fingertip veil of illusion was secured by a small pearl crown. She chose a single strand of pearls and small pearl earrings to accent her bridal costume. Marilyn carried a bridal bouquet of pale pink and white roses centered with a white orchid.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. Joseph F. Stack attended her sister-in-law as matron of honor carrying a bouquet of shaggy chrysanthemums in shades of rust and yellow.

* * *

Others attending the bride were Nancy J. Flynn and Eleanor Goulet. They carried bouquets of honey-colored shaggy chrysanthemums.

The bridal attendants wore ballerina-length gowns of taffeta. The matron of honor's gown was a champagne color and the bridesmaids' gowns were emerald green with matching velvet at the necklines. They wore matching velvet caps outlined with seed pearls.

Margaret Ann Stack wore a frock of champagne taffeta styled similarly to her mother's, the matron of honor, for her duties as flower girl.

Henry T. Manion served as best man. Edmund O. Smith and Joseph F. Stack seated the guests.

* * *

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stack wore a rose-beige silk taffeta dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Smith's dress was a dark gray crepe with rose accessories.

AFTERNOON RECEPTION

Breakfast was served at Devon Gables for the wedding party immediately following the ceremony. A reception for friends and relatives was held this afternoon at Westacres Clubhouse.

* * *

The bride changed to a moss green wool jersey dress with matching hat and brown accessories for their wedding trip to Quebec and the northeastern states. On their return the newlyweds will reside on Henbert road.

Marilyn H. Stack and Wilfred D. Smith were married this morning. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Stack of Westacres and he is the son of the Owen W. Smiths of East Bloomfield Highlands.

By ANNE HEYWOOD

A friend of mine has the livelist mother you ever saw, although she is in her late 70s. Whenever I visit them, Mrs. L. is chirpy as can be.

I never knew what her secret was before, but the other day I caught her in the act, so to speak.

* * *

Mrs. L. has a hobby for which she receives no money; but it is so engrossing and fascinating to her and makes her feel needed and busy. And rightly so!

Mrs. L. prepares photo albums, for all her family and friends. She did it first for her daughter, some years back, and has been at it one way or another ever since.

* * *

"Most folks," she told me, "have boxes full of old photos which they mean to assemble some day, when they have time. But they never seem to have time. Well, I do it for them and I love it."

She showed me her "workroom," which is a corner of her big bedroom.

She has an old kitchen table, with paste pots, white lettering ink and all kinds of pens. In the drawer are sheets of black loose-leaf paper. And in a big file next to the table, there are literally hundreds of photos, separated into family groups.

"I make them supply the albums proper," she told me, "and I like the photos to have the names of the people and the approximate date. Then I arrange them in chronological order.

"I pride myself on setting up each page very artisitically, yet clearly and logically. If any questions arise, I drop them a post card and they write or phone me and straighten it out.

"I work at it off and on," she concluded, "and lose myself in it for hours sometimes.

"I am interested in people, always have been, and this way I feel I'm really helping them out. And of course some of the photos are most appealing, especially the babies.

REFUSES MONEY

"I refuse to take a penny for my labor—after all, it's a labor of love and I get plenty of satisfaction out of it. But when I present the finished album, the people always insist on giving me a present—a surprise.

"I've had everything from theater tickets to costume jewelry to candies and wine.

* * *

"Right now," she chuckled, "one of my 'customers' has given me a gift certificate for a new permanent, fancy styling, and facial. Not bad for an old lady, is it?"

Don't Get Tied Down Too Young

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

You get so wrapped up in each other so soon! You settle down so early to acting engaged. You're not really engaged, either — you have no immediate plans for getting married. You're just going steady. And you take it mighty seriously.

While there's still time to meet lots of people and have fun with lots of people, you get yourself all wrapped up in just one specimen. Suddenly he's the center of your universe. Your life revolves around him. You take your interest in him and your activities together so seriously.

If you could only go out with him a lot because you enjoy being together, without making an agreement to do so! That signing on the dotted line makes for a lot of trouble. It's as formal an "engagement" of your time and interest as getting engaged is.

Yet, there's no future in it. Not if it happens too soon, or is impractical, or out of the question financially. Not to mention the fact that emotionally it's not the right deal.

* * *

Yet, you consider it the big amour. Nothing else could possibly touch it. You make yourselves miserable over it when it comes to an end. And the law of averages brings many a going-steady arrangement to an abrupt and brutal end. With repercussions as in this girl's case. She writes.

"Dear Miss Woodward: A week before my 17th birthday I started going steady with Bill. As far as I knew he thought a lot of me, and my world simply revolved around him. So I was very happy until the day (about a month later) when he told me he didn't want to go with me any more.

"He said he had grown tired of me, didn't want to go with me any more but still liked me as a friend. All he wants to do now is run around with the boys and have an occasinal date (but not with me).

"Eighteen months, two steady boy friends and dozens of dates later I still think as much of him as I ever did and can't seem to keep it from anyone.

"I've been trying to tell myself that I don't still care for him. But I've done everything in my power to let him know that I love and need him.

"He's going on 21 (I'm going on 19) and I feel that if he is going to make a decision it will be in the next three or four years. Should I be friendly wth him and date other boys, hoping that in time he will realize that my love is a lasting and true one? Or should I try to forget him and start a new life away from mutual friends?"

Answer: You spell phase P-H-A-S-E. It's a brief period in anyone's history. A spell when one's interests, activities, feelings, moods, reactions are tuned to a particular tone. A period that seems vitally important while it's being lived through, but which is quickly forgotten when a new tune is played.

You've stopped dead still at one of your phases. Jack was the center of your universe while you were going with him. And several steady deals later, you still find him the center of your dreams.

But where are you in his? But nowhere. At least nowhere that you can see from where you sit. He doesn't date you. He gives you the blank stare. It's as though you had never existed in his life. And for that you should carry a torch?

You got too serious too soon. You're still serious over Jack. You expect your interest in him to arouse a similar interest in you. You want him to make a decision in your favor. So that you can wait four, five, six years to get married.

Can't you see that you're too previous? That many things can happen between now and that time? Many new boys, many new romances, many new phases; many new romances for Jack? He has things to do before he can take any girl seriously.

So wash the idea out of your hair. Maybe Jack will happen to you all over again five years from now, but don't wait around for it to happen.

Carve out that new life for yourself. It's too soon to make plans for 50 years from now!.

Anne Boegehold Wed in Detroit Rite

Anne Kathryn Boegehold became the bride of Richard Goode Jones this afternoon in a 4:30 o'clock ceremony in Westminster Chapel, Detroit.

Dr. John A. Visser performed the marriage service before the immediate family and friends.

* * *

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lindley Boegehold of Erie drive, and Richard, of Redondo Beach, Calif., is the son of Mrs. Keith M. Jones of Boulder, Colo.

The full-skirted ballerina-length bridal gown of Italian silk taffeta was cut with a molded bodice and an off-the-shoulder neckline edged with pearl-encrusted Alencon lace. A French crown secured her fingertip veil of illusion. Her bouquet was of white orchids and ivy.

* * *

Mrs. Lee Hardy Shay of Orange, Calif., served as her sister's matron of honor wearing a ballerina-length gown of pale pink Italian silk taffeta. A bouffant skirt fell from her fitted bodice. She carried deep pink roses and ivy.

Capt. Keith M. Jones of San Antonio, Tex., served as his brother's best man. John Shafer of Sycamore, Ill., and Paul Edwards of Ann Arbor were ushers.

* * *

When the couple left for a honeymoon in Mexico, the bride was wearing a heather gray suit with black accessories. The newlyweds will make their home near Los Angeles.

MRS. RICHARD G. JONES

Married today were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goode Jones. She is the former Ann Kathryn Boegehold, daughter of Boegeholds of Erie drive. He is the son of Keith M. Jones of Boulder, Colo.

Fox Stole Is Suitable at All Times

It May Be Worn in Daytime as Well as in Evening

By EMILY POST

"I have a beautiful silver fox stole that I am not getting enough wear from because I do not know when it may correctly be worn. The heads meet at the back and the bodies hang down in front over the shoulders and the tips of the tails nearly reach my knees.

"There are satin bands on the underside to slip my arms through to keep it in place. Is it equally correct to wear this stole with suits as well as with evening clothes, and may it be worn in the daytime as well as in the evening?"

Answer: It is entirely proper to wear such a stole under all circumstances. It wouldn't ever be improper except in midsummer heat!

"Dear Mrs. Post: While at a party at a friend's house, I rose when her mother entered the room to greet her daughter's friends. None of the boys rose, however, and I felt very conspicuous.

"In a situation of this kind, wouldn't it have been better to follow the others and remain seated rather than embarrass the others for not standing?"

Answer: No, you were right in what you did, definitely!

"Dear Mrs. Post: We would appreciate your assistance on the following problem which came up in our office recently. We are two married women and in the course of business are sometimes required to sign letters.

"When signing our names at the bottom of these letters, is it correct to put Mrs. in parenthesis before our names, such as (Mrs.) Jane Doe, or do we sign Jane Doe and then add Mrs. John Jones in parenthesis underneath?"

Answer: Just plain "Jane Doe" would be best.

Stylist Upholds Reputation for Chic Classic Clothes

David Goodstein's reputation for smart, classic, tailored clothes has been established for more than two decades. With this step-in coat-dress, he upholds this reputation in great style and enormous taste.

Cut in simple princess lines, the high cross-over closing is much in the mood of the current Oriental influence. The widely spaced double-breasted closing draws the eye away from waistline emphasis, although the waistline is naturally defined.

Originally in brown wool with beige braid trim, it is extremely effective in tweed, gabardine (wool or cotton), faille, taffeta, shantung and novelty cotton, with contrasting bias trim in linen, pique, satin or faille.

This pattern is cut to designer measurements, not standard pattern measurements.

Bust	Waist	Hips	Sizes

36½	26½	37½ inches	14
38	28	39 inches	16
40	30	41 inches	18
42	32	43 inches	20

Size 12 requires 6 yards of 39-inch material for dress and ⅞ yard of 35-inch material for interfacing. To order Pattern 1234, address Spadea Syndicate, Inc., P.O. Box 535, G.P.O., Dept. P-6, New York 1, N.Y. State size. Send $1. Airmail handling 25 cents extra.

YW Announces Teen Programs Starting Oct. 14

The opening of a teenage recreational program is announced by the Pontiac YWCA. Junior High Teen Inn will begin Oct. 14 from 7 to 9:30 p. m. and will continue every Friday thereafter, for both boys and girls.

Senior High Teen Canteen will be held on Wednesday evenings, beginning Oct. 19, from 7:30 to 10 p. m. It also is a coed program. Both opening programs will be parties, with square dancing, games and refreshments.

Saturday Fun, for girls between the ages of 10 and 14 years, will begin Oct. 22, from 10 a. m. to noon. All teenage activities require junior membership in the YWCA, for both boys and girls, amounting to 50 cents a year.

The coed canteens assess small dues for a semester's participation, while the Saturday Fun enrollees pay a term fee for their instruction in crafts, arts and other skills.

* * *

Mrs. Dorothy Spann Redmond, recently appointed teenage program director, will be in charge of the three programs.

Detroit Symphony to Launch Season

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra winter concert season opens Thursday at 8:30 p. m. in the Masonic Auditorium. Conductor Paul Paray returns to his orchestra from the first European tour of the Israel Philharmonic which he conducted during the summer months.

The 1955-56 symphony series of 18 concerts promises to be the finest Detroit has ever been offered. The orchestra, now in its fifth season since reorganization, has gained a reputation for artistic excellence both in Europe and America through its extensive distribution of records on both continents.

Reservations for opening night are available at the symphony office, Masonic Temple.

Village Players to Stage 'Stalag 17' on 2 Weekends

BIRMINGHAM — For the first fall production of their 33rd season, the Village Players will incorporate a scenic workshop project into the staging of "Stalag 17" by Donald Bevan and Edmund Trzcinski.

Open to the public, "Stalag 17" will be presented two weekends, Oct. 21 and 22, and Oct. 28 and 29.

Providing the background for an all-male cast, the workshop under the expert tutelage of George F. Green will design, erect and paint the set, conferring with prisoners of World War II to achieve realism in details.

Dr. John B. Hassberger, assisted by Mrs. Edward S. Reid Jr., is directing and Mrs. Richard Brownwill is prompting. Edward Tobin is erecting bunks and gathering other props and Mrs. Hans Schjolin and Mrs. Frank Mosher will provide costumes for the cast.

Mrs. Wallace R. Ivers is in charge of tickets.

VISITOR FROM SOUTH

Mrs. William C. Noland of Richmond, Va., is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson B. Noland, at their home in Franklin this week. On Friday Mrs. Arthur J. Brandt entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. Noland.

* * *

Mrs. W. Carleton has been chosen director of the Children's Theater Group of AAUW this season and has already started rehearsals for the first show Oct. 18.

"The Indian Captive" will be the play, with Mrs. R. H. Adams as co-director.

Mrs. W. K. Ginman is production manager assisted by Mrs. W. G. Patton and Dorothy Decker, and Mrs. M. Remondino is planning the scenery.

Mrs. A. D. Sheldon and Mrs. Donald Howarth are taking care of costumes and scenery.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster have returned from their summer holiday at West Port Point, Mass. They were joined there by their daughter, Alison, who spent the summer in Austria.

* * *

Mrs. Robert M. Laning was hostess at an evening shower Tuesday in honor of Kitty Kirn who will be married today to James Richard Buck of Muskegon.

Mrs. James B. Herbst and Mrs. Thomas Butters, sisters of the bride-elect, gave a kitchen shower for her last week in the Herbst home on Harmon avenue.

This Was THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Choosing the right religion is a difficult and confusing problem.

And millions of people, while professing belief in God, choose no church at all.

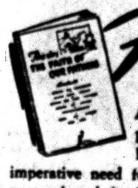

This "neutral" attitude is not, however, a good answer to the question for any person who wants to be honest with himself. If you are among these uncertain ones, it is not a good solution for you when you stop to consider that the eternal destiny of your soul may depend upon your choice. And for anyone raising a family, the decision is a matter of special concern.

If you should decide to seek the answer, we hope that you will ask yourself this one question: "Why am I not a Catholic?"

First of all, the answer to this question will reveal, almost certainly, that your ancestors were Catholics — that your forefathers worshiped in the historic Church just as your Catholic friends and neighbors all around you are still worshiping today.

It may be difficult for you to trace your "family tree" back far enough to discover when or why your forebears ceased to follow the historic Faith. It may have been in eras of oppression, when imprisonment, confiscation of property and even death were among the penalties for holding true to the Faith. Possibly it happened during the sixteenth-century revolt against the Church. Or it might have been due to a marriage outside the Church, to a lack of religious interest, or even to some disagreement which you would instantly recognize as trivial.

Perhaps your answer to all this will be that you don't care what your ancestors were . . . that you can choose your own religion, or do without one. But will this answer stand the test of your own common sense? We know that Christ did establish a Church to proclaim His teaching to all men — including you. We know that He commanded us to "hear the Church." We know that He promised His Church would endure to the end of time. And we know that the Catholic Church is that same Church existing through the centuries since the days of the Apostles.

Pope Deplores World's 'Gigantic Speed Race'

This week Pope Pius, in an address to participants in the second world meeting of the International Road Federation, deplored automobile speeding.

He said that modern civilization is characterized by a "gigantic and universal speed race" and then asked: "Where do all these men go so fast?"

The Pope added that his anxiety over speeding was increased by advertisements heralding ever more powerful automobile models.

John Brooke, superintendent of the Detroit City Rescue Mission, will be guest speaker at the Christian Men's Club at the luncheon Monday noon.

Bethany Baptist Trains Teachers

Youth Center Is Open Each Week Night to Young People

Reita Smith, director of Christian Education at Bethany Baptist Church, announces seven new teachers have been added to the school staff, Mrs. Betty Cleffman, Mrs. Harold Dovre, Mrs. Russell Winger, Mrs. Harlan Boyce, Mrs. Norma Kirchmeyer, Mrs. Joe Donaldson and Mrs. Florence Davis.

In order to supply the ever increasing demand for teachers, a training class has been formed with Miss Smith as instructor. It is held every Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

A new Sunday evening youth group has been organized and is open to all students of the seventh grade. Mrs. Harry Garrett of Pontiac and Mrs. Albert Leoni of Birmingham are sponsors.

* * *

Sponsors for the other youth groups are Patty Looman, Mr. and Mrs. Turris McCully and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilcox. The groups have an attendance of more than 100 young people.

Bethany Youth Center, which is open every night in the week for youth activities, is equipped for basketball, table tennis, shuffleboard, volleyball, badminton and all types of table games.

Wednesday evening, there is a class for table tennis, taught by Ellen Tiffany, Pontiac champion.

All young people are invited to the youth activities and Sunday services.

5 Year Old Congregation to Build New Church

Ground will be broken for the new St. Paul Lutheran Church tomorrow after the morning worship service at 10:45 a.m.

The congregation will gather at the site of the new proposed church, Third St. at Joslyn Ave. where the pastor, the Rev. George Mahder, will conduct the groundbreaking ceremonies assisted by members of the building committee.

Construction of the church will begin Monday and should be completed within nine months. The cost is estimated at $200,000. The members of the church are financing the building with the assistance of the Church Extension Board of the Michigan District.

St. Paul Lutheran was organized five years ago. From a handful of people it has now grown to a membership of 500.

* * *

The church will be of modified Gothic architecture, seating 430 people. Space has been provided for regular church services, Sunday School classes, Bible classes, meetings and church offices. The building is so constructed that addition can be easily made for future expansion.

St. Paul Lutheran is a church of the Lutheran Hour and of television's "This Is Your Life."

Talent Program Planned Sunday

Auxiliary Will Observe Anniversary at 4 P.M. in New Bethel Baptist

The Woman's Auxiliary of New Bethel Baptist Church, Branch at Warner St., will present "One Hour With Talent" in observance of their tenth anniversary, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The guest choir will be from Trinity Baptist Church.

Soloists, who will appear, are Dorothy Edwards from Liberty Baptist Church; Wilhemenia Smith from Newman A. M. E. Church and Mrs. Roy Cummings from Macedonia Baptist.

Mrs. Victor Woods and Dorothy Chance will give piano solos and Charles White, a former Pontiac resident, will render several selections on the organ.

Mrs. Anna Mae Murray will do a reading from Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

A talk on some of the highlights of her work at the children's home will be given by Mrs. Anna Williams.

LeRoy Little of New Bethel Baptist will also sing a solo.

The offering will be taken by guests, Mrs. Miles Edwards, Mrs. Fannie Potter and Mrs. Daisy Whisenton.

Mrs. Lee Atrice is president of the auxiliary and the Rev. William H. Bell is pastor of the church.

Crucifix Restored to Argentine Offices

BUENOS AIRES (RNS) — Reports from the western province of Mendoza said the federal commissioner there had ordered that the crucifix be restored in all public offices.

They were removed when deposed President Juan D. Peron launched his campaign against the Roman Catholic Church last year.

Meanwhile, it was expected here that the provisional government will shortly restore to the calendar five Catholic religious holidays which the Peron regime removed from the list of those observed nationally.

Packed Crowd Hears Graham

Toronto Fills Coliseum as Evangelist Conducts 37th Crusade

TORONTO (RNS) — Evangelist billy Graham opened his 37th crusade before a packed audience in the 10,000-seat coliseum here.

* * *

When he finished his 45-minute exhortation, 187 "seekers," as he prefers to call them, lined up to make "decisions for Christ."

The Rev. Mr. Graham received a standing two-minute ovation from 700 ministers of various Protestant denominations when he addressed them two days before the crusade opening.

Among those present at the eight o'clock breakfast meeting were the Rt. Rev. F. H. Wilkinson, Anglican Bishop of Toronto; Dr. Walter T. McCree, moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada; Dr. E. E. Long, secretary of the General Council of the United Church of Canada; and Dr. T. B. McDormand, general secretary of the Baptist Federation of Canada.

Dr. Graham told the ministers he had not come because they had failed in their tasks, or because he thought he could show them how to build up their congregations. He said he had come as "a hired hand to help out at harvest time."

* * *

Nathan Phillips, Toronto's first Jewish mayor, welcomed Dr. Graham and said that in cosmopolitan Toronto prayers were being offered in more than 20 tongues.

Turning to Dr. Graham he said, "Long may you live to cast the spell of your magnetic personality . . . to save souls."

* * *

Brandishing a Bible, the evangelist told his audience that "you are not here to exalt Billy Graham but Jesus Christ."

"I've come to tell you what the Bible says and how to apply its message to your daily lives," he declared. "It deals with every problem, racial, social, international and economic and it's more modern than tomorrow's newspaper."

Arms akimbo, texts tumbling from his lips in a torrent, Dr. Graham said every one of his listeners was diseased with sin.

* * *

"It's worse than cancer," he shouted. "You're all infected with it. It causes all the war, lust and greed in this world. Little white lies, flirtations, had thoughts, cheating in school — they're all sin."

'All for Him' to Be Shown

Families Worship, Share Basket Dinner After Sunday Service

The First Christian Church will observe Rally Day Sunday. The regular services of Bible School and worship will be held at 10 and 11 a.m. At noon the congregation will share a basket dinner.

* * *

Each family is requested to bring its own table service and a dish to pass. Coffee and rolls will be furnished by the church.

Following the dinner, a moving picture, "All for Him," will be shown. A friendship period will give the congregation an opportunity to become better acquainted. Harold Brown, Bible School superintendent, will preside.

The Women's Fellowship will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the church. Mrs. Ruth Elam will lead devotions on the theme "Informed Women Read."

Mrs. W. T. Hoyt will present the state president, Mrs. Alix Fraser of Flint. She will review the book, "A Stone on His Shoulder," by Helen Butler.

Reds Fight Religion Among Soviet Sailors

LONDON (RNS)—An immediate campaign against the practice of religion among Russian Sailors was demanded by Sovetsky Flot (Soviet Fleet), organ of the Soviet Navy.

"Every Soviet sailor must be permeated with the spirit of militant atheism," it declared.

The paper said that energetic steps must be taken to combat religious sentiments and beliefs among the Soviet high seas fleet as well as among the crews of inshore ships.

Confident Living

Vitalize Everyday Plans With Broadening Concepts

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

A very beautiful place near Winter Haven, Fla., is a favorite spot of mine. It is called Cypress Gardens and you may have seen it in the first Cinerama film.

* * *

Cypress Gardens is run by a dynamic man named Dick Pope. He had been in the real estate business in Winter Haven and found it hard going in those depression days.

Then, one day, he happened to be out around the swamps near town and noticed a man painting pictures of old gnarled cypress trees growing out of the water. Trees such as these are a familiar sight in Central Florida.

DR. PEALE

"Why are you painting those old trees?" Pope asked the man curiously.

"Because those are the most beautiful trees I ever saw," the artist answered.

Pope looked again, this time more thoughfully, and began to see in those familiar old trees the same beauty the artist had found in them. And the thought came to him that, if they were so beautiful, why wouldn't people come from everywhere to see them and get the same inspiration.

BUYS SWAMPLAND

So he bought that swampland. He cut paths and made romantic lagoons through it so that people might get close to the natural wonderland he created. He found a magnificent azalea in the center of his cypresses; he planted flame vines ,palms and tropical plants.

Over the limpid water of the lagoons rustic bridges were built. He installed motor boats to carry thrilled beauty seekers through the flower-lined canals. And so, this erstwhile swamp was transformed into one of the most exciting beauty spots in America.

Lots of people had looked at that swamp and those trees, but all they saw was a swamp and tangled trees. Dick Pope took a second look—his imagination began to function, and then he saw Cypress Gardens.

Now he brings the greatest athletes to give demonstrations of aquaplaning and water-skiing.. He is always coming up with fresh ideas, so much so that it intrigued my interest. I once asked him his secret.

"I've trained myself to think big," he said. "When a thought comes to mind about business, I try to think big about it, to visualize its greatest possibilities. The bigger one thinks, the bigger are things likely to become, for everything is just about the way we think of it."

* * *

That is really a great idea. Think big about everything—about your business, about your children, your objectives, your life. Think big about the service you can render.

START TO THINK

And so, to improve your situation, just start to think, keep thinking, and always think big. Large concepts, deep insights and big purposes will improve anybody's status in life.

Most situations in which we find ourselves are primarily but reflections of ourselves. If you are nervous, irritable and tense, it is likely that the entire situation around you may become similar in character.

If you are negative and pessimistic, conditions around you will tend to be negative. If you think little, your psychology reproduces such thoughts in small results. It is said that birds of a feather flock together. So do situations.

Of course, there are people who live blameless lives, and yet things seem to go wrong with them. But such ineffective persons probably have some basic error or defeatist attitudes in their thinking. Generally speaking, it is true that the more you change your thinking for the better, the more certainly you will change the situation around you.

Your future is determined by the slant of your mind and the skill with which you set about improving yourself and conditions. I hear people complain, "There is no future in this town or in this job."

To them, every good thing is in that mythical somewhere else. But the plain fact is that your future is in your thoughts and in your willingness to work. You can think yourself into a small future. But by big thinking, big acting, and large faith you can have a great life.

Men's Club to Hold First Dinner Meeting

The Men's Club of Christ Church Cranbrook will assemble for dinner and the first meeting of the season at 7 p.m. Monday.

The group supports Scout Troop E-5 and assists St. Peter's Home for Boys in Detroit. All men of the Parish are invited.

The Marquis Club, for students in the 11th and 12th grades of high school will meet every Sunday evening from 6 to 8, beginning tomorrow.

The purpose of the club is to offer members an opportunity to become better acquainted and to hold discussions. The members will conduct a service in St. Dunstan's Chapel and later refreshments will be served.

Church 'Adopts' Quake Victims From Greece

MELBOURNE, Australia (RNS)—A Greek farmer made homeless by the earthquake that swept the Aegean Islands in August 1953 is the 5,000th person to be aided in emigrating to Australia by the refugee service of the World Council of Churches.

Constantinos Tzortzatos and his family have been "adopted" by the congregation of St. Thomas Church at Winchelsea, Victoria. The Anglicans provided a home for the family and undertook to find a job for its breadwinner.

Tzortzatos, his wife and their four children arrived in the largest shipload of "new citizens" to reach Australia in the postwar period.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them.

Second Session Slated Monday

School of Religion Open for Classes at First Congregational Church

Although the first session of Pontiac School of Religion met Monday night, there is still time to enroll for the other five evenings.

* * *

Women in the church societies would especially like the class on "Christian Task at Home." This is taught by Mrs. Percy Latimer and deals with the Indian American, the subject of the home mission study this year.

All classes help the individual in his own Christian growth. Special emphasis is given in some classes on teaching children, on planning and leading Christian worship, on examining social problems, on the life of St. Paul and what he did for Christianity and the use of the Bible with children.

Nina Miller, former Field Worker in Christian Education in the Big Rapids District of the Methodist Church, will teach the group signing up for the "Program for Intermediates."

* * *

Some of the questions she will answer are—What goals to have and how to determine them, what steps to take in building a Junior High program, what leaders to have and what their functions should be, and the place of Junior Highs in the work of the church.

All of the courses provide fully accredited work for those who desire Certificates of Progress offered either by their Denominational Boards or the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches.

Between sessions there is a coffee break each evening. Any person is welcome to attend any class whether he desires credit or not.

* * *

Officers of the School are Mrs. George Gaches, chairman; Rev. John W. Mulder, Dean; Mrs. Frank McGregor, registrar; Harold Brown, treasurer; Mrs. Lawrence Graves, book sales and Donald Tews, publicity.

Mrs. Blanche Joki to Be at Pontiac Unity Center

Mrs. Blanche Joki of Algonac will be the guest speaker at Pontiac Unity Center Sunday morning.

Mrs. Joki was the minister of the Birmingham, Ala., Unity Center for several years before returning to Michigan.

* * *

The service will be held in the Center rooms at 71½ N. Saginaw St., at 11 a.m. with Sunday School for the children at the same hour.

Talks Resume Monday

DETROIT (AP)—Contract talks between Ex-Cell-O Corp. and the CIO United Auto Workers will resume Monday in a renewed effort to end a 24-day-old strike. Negotiations were broken off last Saturday after the union turned down a company package offer of 20 cents an hour. Among disputed issues are details of a layoff pay plan.

Gobel in Bed 3 Days With 'Terrible Haircut'

Charley Jones heard a woman complain, "It's been so long since my husband took a good look at me that if anything happened he wouldn't be able to identify the body."

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Now that "Lonesome George" Gobel's practically back, pretty, perky Peggy King's given me a Peggy's-eye view of the Crew Cut Kid.

I guess you won't be exactly bowled over to find she's friendly to him since George is (a) her boss and (b) just gave her a 50 per cent salary raise.

PEGGY KING

However, her ecstatic remarks seem to indicate that the 5-foot, well-packed Peggy is a real fan of the 5-foot-5 TV comic.

"George likes to keep his crew cut trimmed short," Peggy told me one afternoon at the Hotel Warwick, unfolding a revelatory incident.

One day just as he was due for another trim, he got mysteriously ill and was kept home in bed under a doctor's care.

When he reported back to work at NBC in Hollywood, Peggy and the gang asked him what had been wrong.

"I was in bed three days," replied Gobel, "with a terrible haircut."

Though Peggy's supposed to be a cameo edition of Judy Garland, to me she's always looked more like a baby Faye Emerson, the original plunging neckline gal of TV. Others see a resemblance to Lana Turner, the first sweater girl.

Which has something to do with the following:

"To show how much everybody likes George," said Peggy, "we all got ourselves T-shirts like his with the words 'Lonesome George' on them, and wore them to surprise him one night."

George took it fairly calmly.

He asked maestro John Scott:

"How come on your T-shirt I can read it straight across, but on Peggy's I gotta go around corners?"

★ ★ ★ ★

Peggy's favorite Gobelism occurred the night she was on the show wearing a white fox stole and muff, leading a Great Dane.

"Gee," said George, "I see you had enough fur left over to make a dog."

Through the Gobel show, Peggy's become a personality. Her record, "Learning to Love," is getting big. She's making personal appearances—though the Gobel show will keep her fairly exclusive from now on.

Peggy thinks Gobel and his manager, Dave O'Malley, made it all possible. Debbie Reynolds visited her recently and they talked about the old days at MGM . . . maybe three years ago.

★ ★ ★ ★

"I tried on costumes and wigs," Peggy said, "because they were trying me out for a picture called 'Jumbo.' The picture never came off and I didn't get to do anything except sing one song in 'The Bad and the Beautiful'."

Peggy added, "And you know what I was doing a year before I went on the Gobel show?"

"Nope," I said. "What?"

"Nothing," replied Peggy.

Tampico Faces Disease Threat

Battered Mexican City Haunted by Epidemics as Floods Subside

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The rampaging Panuco River had fallen 10 inches at flood-sodden Tampico today. But the threat of epidemics haunted the stricken city, and a U.S. Navy spokesman said the situation was still grave.

* * *

The river still stood 18 feet above flood stage as 150,000 persons were packed into only a small area of the important Gulf port whose total normal population is 110,000.

Mexico's Hydraulic Resources Secretary Eduardo Chavez predicted the Panuco would remain at its present level three days, then begin dropping gradually.

The drinking water problem was nearing solution, with the arrival of new supplies of disinfectant tablets and portable distillation units. But cases of typhoid, dysentery, pneumonia, diphtheria, malaria, and bronchitis increased.

Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., head of the U.S. Army's Caribbean command, has taken over coordination of U.S. relief operations. The over-all direction is by a joint Mexican-U.S. committee.

Foreign Nurseries Told State Requires Permits

LANSING (AP)—Agents of foreign nursery stock companies are required to obtain permits to sell in Michigan, the State Agriculture Department warned today.

An attorney general's opinion has held that foreign companies, which sell millions of pieces of stock in the state, are not exempt from the permit requirements.

The opinion holds that foreign firms selling in Michigan must obtain a Michigan nursery license and agents' permits for salesmen operating in this state.

The state imports millions of bulbs from both Europe and Asia, the department said. During the past year, about two million pieces of stock were condemened in inspections for disease.

Mine Executives Meet

HOUGHTON (AP)—The education committee of the National Coal Assn., comprised of a dozen mining company executives, is holding its annual meeting on the Michigan Tech campus here. The committee functions as a counseling and advising agency for schools that include minerals industries among their courses of study.

Chicago Thieves Snatch All but Kitchen Stove

CHICAGO (INS) — A model in the Chicago suburb of Prospect Heights was stripped by a fast-working crew.

The model — a furnished six room ranch home — was broken into by bublars who took everything but the kitchen stove.

The loss, estimated at $5,000 included wall-to-wall carpeting, two bedroom suites, and a communication system with five speakers.

Week's Meals Cost Texans Less Than $8.56

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP)—A San Angelo couple claim they have proved that they can eat on less than $8.56 a week.

Mrs. Burdick Myre said she had all the food needed for her menus through Sunday night and has 72 cents left over.

* * *

The tall airman and his petite wife began the experiment Monday after hearing that nutritionists at a Utah experiment station claimed a couple could satisy all dietary needs on $8.56 a week.

The couple yesterday had orange juice, cereal with milk and coffee for breakfast. Lunch consisted of hamburgers, potato chips, lime jello and iced tea. The dinner menu listed spaghetti with hamburger, pear and cheese salad, milk, bread and butter.

Credit Curbs Alarm Builders, Lenders

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two groups representing home builders and mortgage lenders say recent government action to curb credit expansion may "harshly" affect the home building boom by next spring and summer.

* * *

The National Assn. of Home Builders and the U.S. Savings & Loan League said yesterday the government may not have given sufficient thought to a possible "time bomb" effect of the restrictions.

The groups said curbs imposed in recent months could have a delayed effect because of the normal lag between making initial financing arrangements for a new home and the actual start of construction.

The government has moved to require larger down payments and to cut the maximum term on mortgages it backs.

Peron's Holidays Now Scratched From Calendars

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Holidays marking red letter days in the Peron regime were thrown out of the school calendar today.

Minister of Education, Atilio Dell'Oro Maini deleted a number of dates which under the deposed Peron government were to be observed during the school year, including July 26, the day Eva Peron died in 1952.

There will be no more big fuss about Oct. 17, marking Peron's return to power in 1945. Also deleted were reminders of such events as the purchase of the British-owned railways and the proclamation of the new constitution, on March 1 and 16, which Peron had hallowed a s days of economic independence.

3 Bidding for Congress

DETROIT (AP)—Three candidates have entered the race for the congressional seat left vacant by the death of Rep. John D. Dingell (D-Mich) of the 15th District. They are Eugene I. Van Antorp, Dingell Jr., an assistant prosecutor, and Gregory M. Pillon, Detroit attorney. Van Antwert and Dingell filed as Democrats and Pillon as a Republican. The primary election will be Nov. 8 and the runoff Dec. 13.

Hollywood Headlines:

Lonesome George Ousts Wife to Introduce Mother

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Lonesome George Gobel lopes back into the TV bigtime tonight, introducing a new member of his family.

When the droll comedian appears on his NBC show, wife Alice will be missing. Jeff Donell, who played Alice last season, has been told she won't be a regular this year. Presumably this is to avoid the rut of husband-and-wife shows.

In her place will be Gobel's mother, Lillian. She'll be played by Gladys Hurlbut, character actress and author of the best seller, "Next Week East Lynn." To observe the event, George's real mother, Mrs. Herman Gobel, was brought here from her home in Chicago.

"This is my first trip to California," remarked Mrs. Gobel as she lunched at the Brown Derby. "George and Alice have been after my husband and me for a couple of years to move out here. They've offered every kind of inducement.

"We might do it. We have our house up for sale now and if we can get a good price for it, we might move here."

* * *

Mrs. Gobel, an attractive woman with gray hair and rimless glasses, is obviously proud of her son's fame. She thinks of him more as a singer than a comedian.

"All of our friends do," she said. "They all ask, 'why doesn't George sing more on his show?' They all remember him when he sang on WLS in Chicago."

How did he develop his talent?

"My husband has always liked music—good music," she said. "And I played the piano. I was always too shy to play in recital, but I used to accompany George.

"When George was a baby, we used to have a player piano, and he could sleep right next to it while it was playing. Folks said he was bound to grow up musical."

Mrs. Gobel suspected that George developed his comedy talent by hanging around his father's grocery store and meat market. "He'd study the people who came in and then imitate them," she recalled.

DANIEL BOONE

By Russ Winterbotham and Ralph Lane

Sometimes Dan'l Boone visited a saddler's shop at Franklin, Mo. While Dan'l talked of the frontier, an apprentice named Kit Carson listened.

Boone stayed at the fort three weeks and complained of "crowded" conditions in Missouri. Then he went on. Legend says he reached the Yellowstone.

But there is no doubt that he started the young Kit Carson dreaming.

Arab Describes Russian Junket

Reporter Says Hospitals Provide for Laborers, Miners, Journalists

CAIRO (AP)—Life in Russia—as seen through Egyptian eyes—is being detailed in the newspaper Al Akhbar. The articles are written by Aly Amin, one of a group of Egyptians on a press mission to the Soviet Union. He and his twin brother Mustapha Amin own the biggest publishing house in the Middle East.

* * *

Describing a visit to Tashkent where a Moslem population predominates, Amin wrote:

"Except for the language I might have been in rural Egypt. People spat in the streets, vagrants crowded the sidewalks, houses were built of mud and flies were everywhere, even in the operating rooms of the hospitals.

"Despite all this we were told by the authorities there was no typhoid or malaria fever in the country."

Writing from a town on the Black Sea:

"This is the summer resort of the Soviet leaders who come to rest from the Communist propaganda—which never rests the year round.

"I have been told there are 48 sanatoriums in this city, for the miners, laborers, army, journalists and so on."

"Residents are chosen by the labor syndicates who also pay their upkeep. A week in one of these sanatoriums must cost $150. Many of the laborers wore silk pajamas and their hands were soft. Apparently in this country the laborers do their work with their brains. The sanatoriums are filled with beautiful nurses."

In another article Aly Amin wrote:

"The opera house of Kiev looked like any other opera house in Paris, London or New York. Outside stood sleek cars that looked like cadillacs, packards or chryslers."

Harriman Will Visit Three Western States

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman, often mentioned as a possible candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, will visit Oregon, Washington and Idaho next month.

* * *

Although Harriman has said that Adlai Stevenson, the unsuccessful Democratic presidential candidate in 1952, is his choice for next year, it appeared probably his western trip would be accepted as evidence of his availability for the presidential nomination.

Harriman said yesterday his trip was intended to help two old friends, Sens. Wayne Morse of Oregon and Warren G. Magnuson of Washington, both Democrats and seeking re-election next year. The dates for his visit have not been set.

* * *

On Oct. 22 he will address a fund raising dinner in Des Moines, Iowa.

All of his western appearances are being arranged by the Democratic National Committee.

By H. GUY MOATS

BAY CITY — A tough, hard-headed fullback, who ran, punched and drove for four of the five touchdowns that Bay City's Wolfpack piled up last night in a Saginaw Valley Conference game here, was probably the big difference between the losers, Pontiac, and Elmer Engle's club.

For the Chiefs, it was the 2nd loss of the season, it's first Valley contest. For the Bay City crew, a surprisingly deep-laden outift, it marked the opening wedge in the SVC title race, 33-7. Wolves ran their string of unbroken victories to four and compiled a total of 141 points against 14 for the opposition in the four games.

Last night's win boosted the Wolves' position as the "team to beat" in the Valley. Rated along with Saginaw as the top threats, these old rivals tangle next weekend in what could well be the tipoff on the probable Valley champ.

Chiefs ran into trouble early, after a first period that found them throttling the famed "Smith Brothers" of the Wolves. Namon, the tough little fullback, served mainly as a decoy most of the night. He did little in the way of ground gaining.

But where Smith was stopped another lad just barrelled his way up and down the wet gridiron, for four tallies.

Stocky Dick Mroxinski, made the number 80 a hateful sight to the Chiefs. Early in the game he found he could go up the middle, so the Wolves just handed him the ball and let him go. A sample of the workhorse job this lad did is seen in the fact that he ran the last 8 plays that his team made, ending with the game's final TD.

Earlier he drove over three times for tallies, in the 3rd period, with two, and one in the first session. His 2nd tally came on a 19 yard sprint. Quarterback Jim Chesney hung up the other BC counter, with a 29 yard "keeper" play sprint on the 1st play of the 2nd period.

A lot of steam was taken out of the Chiefs in the opening period after a brilliant, 65 yard run for a touchdown by Jimmy (Red) Taylor, was nullified by a backfield in motion penalty.

Pontiac never was in real contention after that time, although three of Bay City's counters followed blocked punts and a Pontiac fumble, recovered deep in their territory by a Wolf.

However, on this particular night, Pontiac was outclassed by the state's 2nd ranked club. The difference is shown in the statistics.

Pontiac collected five 1st downs to 14 for the Wolves.

Bay City romped for 326 yards rushing and 82 passing, compared to Chiefs' 126 and 44 yards, respectively. Wolves compiled a 390 yard net figure. Pontiac had 152.

Back to Mroxinski. This lad carried 22 times, for a total of 151 yards, an average of some 7.5 yards. Chesney, lugged the ball times, for 98 yards.

Effective blocking, and hard line play also marked the Wolfpack's effort.

Despite the loss, there were at least five Chiefs who gave fine performances.

Taylor's hard runbacks of kickoffs and punts, his headon defensive play were outstanding. Up front Dick Kors, tackle, center Don Hardy and end Marvin Cagle, won the coaches' praise.

With Taylor, as a never-give-up ball carrier, was big Charley Spann, fullback. Spann did a large portion of the ground gaining credited to the Chiefs. Taylor made the lone PHS tally in the early minutes of the final period on a pass from the 1 yard stripe.

Chiefs face a rugged week of drills next week in preparation for the 2nd Valley test at Flint Central.

PASS SPOILER — Wayne Gwizala, Bay City end spoils one of a number of Pontiac aerials in last night's Saginaw Valley opener for the Chiefs and Wolves, at Bay City. The intended receiver, in the 3rd period try, was Freeman Watkins. Wolves continued their unbroken victory march with a 33-7 win over the Chiefs.

Hornung's Arm Downs Miami

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Notre Dame's particular penchant for producing outstanding quarterbacks still is in operation. This time it's Paul Hornung, who last night stamped himself as an apt replacement for the graduated All-America, Ralph Guglielmi, by directing the Fighting Irish to their third straight victory with a 14-0 victory over Miami of Florida.

A crowd of 75,685—the largest ever in the Orange Bowl—saw Hornung take the Irish to the air for the first time this season while Coach Terry Brennan's stout line retained their unscored upon record.

Hornung convinced the Hurricanes, who were stung by their own fumbles, with a pair of touchdown passes. An 11-yard flip to Gene Kapish put the Irish in the lead in the first minute of the second quarter. Then Hornung wrapped it up with a 32-yard toss to Aubrey Lewis in the third period.

It was the 11th straight victory for Brennan, in his second season at the Notre Dame helm, and cracked Miami's 10-game home field winning streak.

In other top games last night, once-beaten UCLA, ranked No 7 behind the fifth place Irish in this week's Associated Press poll, bolstered its bid for another Pacific Coast conference title by beating Oregon State 38 to 0.

Southern Methodist won its first of the season while handing Missouri its fourth straight defeat 13-6; Houston beat Detroit in a Missouri Valley Conference contest 7-0 on a third period quarterback sneak by Jim Dickey, and the Citadel edged Richmond 14-12 for its first Southern Conference victory since 1953 on Conrad Tuza's two conversions.

Sophomore Charley Johnson hauled in a pass for one TD and scooted 40 yards for the other as SMU choked off the Tigers just short of the goal line time and again.

In other important intersectional games today, eighth-ranked Texas Christian took on Alabama, Rice entertained unbeaten Clemson, Nebraska was host to Texas A&M, Penn State met Virginia at Richmond and unbeaten Colorado invaded Oregon.

STOPS REVERSE — Halfback Dick Mason of the Oregon State Beavers heads for a sweep around left end on a reverse play against UCLA at Los Angeles last night. A Beaver blocker plunges into the Bruin right end in foreground as Mason gets under way. Defensive halfback Bob Davenport came up fast to stop Mason after a one yard gain in the first half. The play went to the OSC 35.

Navy Gets Sub for Old Billy, Middie Mascot

White Angora Flown From Texas in Time For Football Drill

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—The U.S. Naval Academy now has depth in goats.

A substitute for aging Billy XIV, Navy's football mascot, arrived yesterday from San Saba, Tex. The 2½-year-old white angora was flown to Washington, D.C., where a Naval Academy Athletic Assn. truck met him.

* * *

The stand-in mascot arrived in time for football practice and posed for pictures with Navy's goat-keepers, Len Benzi and Bob Craig, two 1954 football stars who have completed their eligibility.

When Billy XIII died on the eve of the 1947 Army-Navy game, the present Billy was rounded up from a farm near the academy.

Lions Seek 1st Win Sunday Against Rams

The Detroit Lions, off to their poorest start in several seasons, inaugurate their 1955 home schedule Sunday afternoon at Briggs Stadium when they collide with the unbeaten Los Angeles Rams.

An anticipated sell-out crowd will watch the defending Western Division champs attempt to break into the win column against the aerial-minded Rams, who currently share 1st place with the Baltimore Colts and Green Bay Packers.

Coach Buddy Parker's Lions, losers to the Colts and Green Bay in their two previous NFL games, desperately need victory tomorrow to stay in title contention. The kickoff is slated at 2 p. m.

Appleford Paces Maples' Victory

Gets 2 TDs in 20-0 Win Over Ferndale in EML Action

Sparked by halfback John Appleford who scored two touchdowns, Birmingham High School's football team defeated Ferndale, 20-0, in an Eastern Michigan League game Friday night at Birmingham. It was the Maples' 4th straight victory and their 2pd EML decision.

Birmingham struck early in the 1st quarter when the fleet Appleford raced 56 yards for a touchdown on the 3rd play of the game. The drive covered 66 yards. George Huffman placekicked the extra point.

Birmingham scored again in the 3rd on a 39-yard march after Lee Abernethy recovered a Ferndale fumble. Appleford punched over from the 11.

Maples scored their last TD late in the 4th on a 2-yard pass from Bill Swaney to Jim Traa.

In remaining Eastern Michigan League action last night, Port Huron swamped Mt. Clemens, 33-7, and East Detroit shut out Hazel Park, 18-0. Royal Oak edged Wyandotte, 7-6, in a Border Cities League contest.

Ex-Chief Plays End on Colorado JC Team

Bob Johnston, 18, a June graduate of Pontiac High School, is holding down left end on the Northeastern Junior College football eleven in Sterling, Colo.

Bob, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnston of 11 N. Johnson Ave., participated in football, basketball and baseball while at Pontiac. He is a freshman at Northeastern.

Tigers Sell 'Farm'

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Tigers Friday announced sale of their Jamestown, N. Y., club of the Class D Pony League to two Jamestown businessman, Robert Lundell, 39, and Jerry Lawson, 32.

Tigers said the club will be operated as a non-profit organization tied in with a boys' home to be supported by organized baseball.

Jackson's Win Gives Him Ideas About Title Bout

DETROIT (AP)—When the fight was over, the familiar cry of "we want Marciano" rang through Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson's dressing room.

But it had a hollow sound.

"We want the big one now," cried Lippe Briedbart, Jackson's manager. "The Hurricane is ready."

Jackson, staring silently at the floor, just grunted.

The tireless New York Negro had just stopped the flabby Rex Layne on an eye cut in the 6th round of their nationally televised fight last night, but there was little in his performance to indicate that he's even remotely ready to challenge the likes of Marciano.

Layne, a chubby Utah punching bag, pushed Jackson around for four rounds, fooling him constantly with "sucker" right hand leads.

MFTA to Hold 3rd Powder Puff Derby

Women of the Michigan Field Trial Association will hold their 3rd Powder Puff Derby (coon dog trial) at Kerr Park Sunday, Oct. 16 beginning at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Earl Viers, MFTA secretary-treasurer, said the trials are expected to draw about 100 dogs. Trials will consist of a seniors and juniors final with $125 and a trophy going to each winner.

Wants Investigation of College Grid TV

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—Rep. Patrick Hillings (R-Calif.) wants Congress at its next session to investigate the telecasting of national collegiate football.

"I believe an investigation would be healthy for all concerned—the NCAA (National Collegiate Athletic Assn.), the school members, the networks and the sponsors," Hillings said yesterday.

Robin Roberts and Don Newcombe were the only major league pitchers to hit the 20-game mark in victories during 1955. Roberts won 23 games and Newcombe 20.

UCLA's Ground Attack Buries Beavers, 38-0

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Heavily favored UCLA, with Sam Brown and Bob Davenport leading a crushing ground attack shut out Oregon State, 38-0, in a Pacific Coast Conference football game before 57,664 fans.

UCLA took advantage of three dismal punts and intercepted two passes to account for five touchdowns.

In a battle between two single-wing teams, tailback Brown scored two touchdowns and fullback Davenport, another. Reserve tailback Gerry McDougall added a fouth gained on the ground.

UD Titans Drop 7-0 Decision to Houston 11

Johnson Runs, Dickey Scores as Wet Field Slows Both Clubs

DETROIT (AP)—Curley Johnson's pair of long runs set the stage for the University of Houston's 7-0 victory over the University of Detroit in a Missouri Valley Conference football game last night.

The 181-pound fullback returned the 3rd quarter opening kickoff 32 yards to the Detroit 46 and added a 21-yard run in the march that took Houston to Detroit's 1. Jim Dickey bulled over the double line on a quarterback sneak.

Frequent fumbles on the rain-soaked University of Detroit field slowed each team's attack.

Detroit, who rolled to a 41-0 victory over Wichita in a Missouri Valley game last week, failed to get inside the Houston 30.

Houston drove to the Titan's 1-yard line in the 1st quarter only to lose the ball on downs. Moments later Detroit fumbled and the Texans recovered on the 3. Titans held off the threat by recovering a Houston fumble.

Houston failed to connect in five pass plays. Detroit completed two out of six passes for 46 yards.

The loss left Detroit with a 1-1 conference record and 1-2 overall. Houston has 1-0 in the conference and 2-1 overall.

Rams at Home in Sunday Tilt

St. Frederick's Rams will provide this weekend's football activity in Pontiac when they clash with St. Benedict of Highland Park in a Suburban Catholic League game Sunday afternoon at Wisner Stadium. Kickoff is slated at 3 p.m.

St. Fred's victory - hungry squad, which has lost one and tied two this season, makes its 20th bid to win a football game against the favored Parkers, who holds a 2-1 record.

St. Michael's crippled, once-beaten Shamrocks collide with St. Clement tomorrow in an important Suburban loop contest at Center Line. Favored Clements share the league lead with Orchard Lake St. Mary.

Sunday's remaining SCL action sends OL St. Mary's undefeated Eaglets against St. Rita in a 2:30 tilt at Hazel Park and Ferndale St. James against Royal Oak St. Mary in a 3 o'clock attraction at Royal Oak.

Michigan Faces Army as Stanford Indians Invade Lansing

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A sellout crowd of 97,239 was expected at the Michigan-Army football game today.

Both teams are unbeaten in two games this season.

Michigan defeated Missouri, 42-7, and Michigan State, 14-7. Army mauled Furman, 81-0, and battered Penn State, 35-6.

The Cadets have won the five previous games they played with the Wolverines.

Army will be counting on its speedy line. Michigan, with strength at the ends, has a diversified offense which it hasn't been able to show in its entirety.

The Cadets arrived at Willow Run airport yesterday and worked out briefly in the rain before being billeted at the Huron Hotel in Ypsilanti.

Michigan coach Bennie Oosterbaan held light drills to take it easy on his squad.

INDIANS CONFIDENT

EAST LANSING — Stanford is confident. Michigan State is "mad."

Those are the opposition attitudes as the Midwestern and West Coast teams prepare for today's football meeting in the home opener for the Spartans.

"We think we can beat Michigan State, although they should be tougher than Ohio State," said confident coach Chuck Taylor of the Stanford Indians.

MSU coach Duffy Daugherty countered that his Spartans are "mad" because they didn't beat Michigan last week.

"We're going to take it out on somebody," Daugherty promised.

A near capacity crowd of close to 50,000 is expected.

Mike Homa Leads Eastern Golf Open

BALTIMORE (AP) — Mike Homa, who switched from court to course by abandoning professional basketball for golf, took a 1-stroke lead into the third round of the $17,500 Eastern Open today.

The 31-year-old assistant pro from the Westchester Country Club at Rye, N.Y., strengthened his bid for his first major tournament victory with a two-under-par 70 yesterday over Baltimore's 6,895-yard Municipal Mt. Pleasant course.

Coupled with his brilliant 68 in the opening round, this gave him 138 and enabled him to take over the lead from Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio.

Mary Lena Faulk Leads Richmond Women's Open

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP) — Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., leads by one stroke as the $5,000 Richmond Women's Open goes into its second round today.

The 1953 National Amateur champion toured the wind-whipped Richmond Municipal Course yesterday in 35-39—74, a stroke in front of fellow Georgian Louise Suggs of Sea Island, who carded a 39-36—75 over the women's par 74 course.

Only 8 Unbeaten 'A' Prep Elevens Left in State; Ann Arbor, Bay City, Saginaw Continue to Roll On

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lansing Eastern, which suffered through a dismal 0-8 record last season, continued its big comeback Friday night with a 7-0 upset over previously unbeaten Battle Creek Central.

Taking advantage of a Battle Creek fumble, Lansing Eastern scored in the 1st quarter on an 8-yard run by halfback Jack Sisco, then held off several desperate rallies by the Bearcats.

The victory gave coach Hob Merritt's Quakers a 3-0-1 record.

The loss had double meaning for Battle Creek. It ended the Bearcats' brief 3-game winning streak this season and dropped them from the list of unbeaten-untied Class A teams.

There are eight outstate schools left with perfect all-winning records. They are Ann Arbor, Bay City Central, Saginaw, Benton Harbor, East Detroit, Birmingham, Lincoln Park and Taylor Center. All have 4-0 records except Taylor Center, which is 3-0.

Ann Arbor, ranked No. 1 in this week's Associated Press poll, whipped Lansing Sexton, 14-0, for its 34th consecutive game without a defeat.

Meanwhile, 2nd-ranked Bay City Central kept pace with a 33-7 romp over Pontiac as Dick Mroxinski scored four touchdowns.

Battle Creek, ranked 3rd, undoubtedly will topple after its upset by Lansing Eastern.

Battle Creek's Dave Brown fumbled in the 1st quarter and end Wesley Gibson fell on the ball on Battle Creek's eight to set up the game's only touchdown.

Fourth-ranked Saginaw rode the passing arm of quarterback Gene Bohn to a 34-24 victory over Flint Northern.

A 165-pound pepper-pot who never stops talking during the game, Bohn fired four touchdown passes of 33, 8, 8 and 5 yards. He completed 7 of his 1st 12 tosses on a muddy field to pile up 107 yards.

Fifth-ranked Benton Harbor squeezed past Muskegon 7-0 in a driving rainstorm. Tigers won it on the 1st play from scrimmage in the 2nd half, with Don Marler going 59 yards off tackle.

Oscar Hahn scored two touchdowns on runs of 27 and 7 yards as Midland defeated Traverse City, 19-12. Royal Oak handed Wyandotte its 1st setback, 7-6, and both Berkley and Ypsilanti were shut-out for the 4th straight time.

Lion in Bermudas at Training Camp

DETROIT — Charley Ane found the way to beat the heat in a football training camp.

Ane, 265-pound tackle of the Detroit Lions, started a fad of wearing Bermuda shorts—home made style.

Now there are as many sizes, models and colors as their are players.

Kuykendall Saw Every Position but Shortstop

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Bob Kuykendall is St. Petersburg's candidate for the most valuable man in all organized baseball.

Kuykendall, 20, played every position except shortstop for the St. Petersburg Saints throughout the Class D Florida State League season. As a pitcher, young Kuykendall rated with the staff's best. As a catcher, the lad had few peers in the circuit.

Add to this the fact that the willing and versatile Kuykendall was the Saints' regular bus driver when they were on the road, and you have a rough idea of why the boy was photographed with his multiple equipment.

When Saints Appreciation Night rolled around, Kuykendall, who is the property of Atlanta, put in a full inning at every position. He had one hit in three trips to the plate, drove in the winning run. He was in two double plays, one unassisted while playing shortstop.

Canada Goes by Way of England for Entry

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—Canada has obtained representation in the Laurel International Race Nov. 11 through the roundabout entry of Prefect by Alberta Ranches of Calgary.

The Canadian outfit of Max Bell, Frank McMahon and Wilder Ripley, bought Prefect in England for the express purpose of having an entry in the fourth running of the International. He joins Traffic Judge of the U.S., Panaslipper of Ireland and Darius of England as entries to date.

Losing Streak Halted

SAN DIMAS, Calif. (AP) — Cal Tech's Engineers defeated Cal Poly of San Dimas, 19-0, last night to halt one of the longest losing streaks in collegiate football.

It was the first win for Cal Tech in the last 27 games. The Engineers' last victory came in 1951.

Clarkston Edges Milford on Blocked Point Try

By GEORGE TRUMBULL JR.

A blocked extra point attempt proved the decisive margin last night as Clarkston squeaked by Milford, 21-20 to take a tighter grip on the Wayne-Oakland League crown. Fred Baker paced the losers with two touchdowns while passing for a 3rd and George Lang, David Swayne, Clyde Kizer and Gary Nelson shared scoring for the Wolves.

In another W-O encounter, Clarenceville downed Northville, 21-7 and unloaded the symbolic vinegar barrel as right half Bob Soop ran for two markers. Jim Jones scored the 3rd on a pass play.

Win moved Clarenceville into 2nd place in the loop behind Clarkston, with the two meeting next week in a showdown battle.

Walled Lake back Dick Woodworth paced the Vikings to a 25-0 victory over scoreless Berkley with three counters, and over in Van Dyke, the Abes moved into top position in the I-L League along with Southfield, by blanking Waterford, 7-0.

Skippers could not go deeper than the Abe 20 yard line in the 4th period in the hard fought contest.

Southfield stopped Farmington 6-0 to share league honors with Van Dyke.

Oakland-B 1st place is shared by both Madison and Clawson as the result of wins over Fitzgerald (12-6) and Lake Orion (26-0) respectively. Both winners clash next Friday.

In an intersectional match, Lapeer's Glen Forrester and Bob Breckenridge did the scoring as the Panthers defeated Oakland-B Avondale, 14-0.

Gene Konley's Rochester Falcons gained a 25-14 triumph over Bi-County League member Utica. Falcon right halfback Jim McDaniel did most of the damage with a 3-yard plunge for a TD in the 2nd period and a 51-yard scamper for his 2nd score in the 3rd frame. Ron LeBarre and quarterback Fred Weaver also scored for the winners. Ernie Malzahn and Jim Parker counted for Utica.

West Bloomfield finally broke the scoring ice last night but failed to pull out its 1st win as Holly tripped the Presidents, 24-18.

The Barons from Bloomfield Hills suffered their 3rd setback this season at the hands of Grosse Pointe DUS, 30-6.

Big Attraction Is Ameche as Colts-Packers Meet

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A record crowd of 40,000 is expected in Milwaukee tonight as Alan (The Horse) Ameche, Wisconsin's favorite son, makes his pro football debut before the home folks. As an added attraction, the National Football League game between the Baltimore Colts and Green Bay Packers also will determine the Western Conference leader.

The fact that Baltimore and Green Bay are in the thick of the conference title scrap, an unexpected attendance booster for both clubs, is of secondary importance in Milwaukee. The drawing card is Ameche, the big rookie from the University of Wisconsin—where he was an All-America fullback last season—who has been one of the factors in Baltimore's bid for the booty.

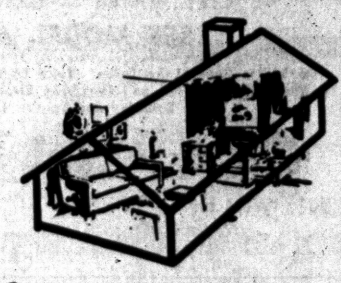

Going into the game, both the Colts and the Packers have 2-0 records after serving as the stepping stones for previous Western Conference champs. To give you some idea of the big change in their fortunes, both clubs already have humbled the Detroit Lions, three times Western Conference kings.

Except for the possibility of a tie, one of the two new powers will rule the conference — over night, at least. At present, Baltimore and Green Bay share a three-way tie with the Los Angeles Rams for first place. The Rams, hurting with injuries to Tank Younger, Don Paul and Charley Toogood, play the Lions at Detroit tomorrow.

That game's a make-or-break test for Detroit, which has a 0-2 record after being hobbled by injuries.

SPANISH GRANDEUR—Called Espana, this new grouping of furniture is Spanish in influence. Black lacquer and gold add elegance to the three storage chests which are both decorative and functional. The small benches are dual purpose; with the cushions they can be used for extra seating, without cushions they are perfect small tables. Beige carpeting is used to highlight the vivid colors of the furnishings.

IT'S HOME Fashion TIME

Your home and its furniture are your background for living. The life you lead, your children, your hobbies and your individual preferences determine the kind of furniture you select.

The pictures on this page show a few of the modern trends. A furniture man said recently that this trend is toward the contemporary. Most people seem to want furniture that is in between purely traditional and strictly modern.

Contemporary means the uncluttered look in furniture and brighter hues in carpeting. It means plenty of color with tan, browns, blues, gold and celadon green top favorites. It means lighter wood finishes to let the beautiful graining of the wood show through.

An international note has crept into today's styles. Italy, Spain, the Scandinavian countries and the Orient all contribute strongly to the design of the furniture styles.

Carpeting gets new interest from designers. Special weaves and designs have been created to do a decorative job for the homemaker, as well as to make the room quieter, more comfortable.

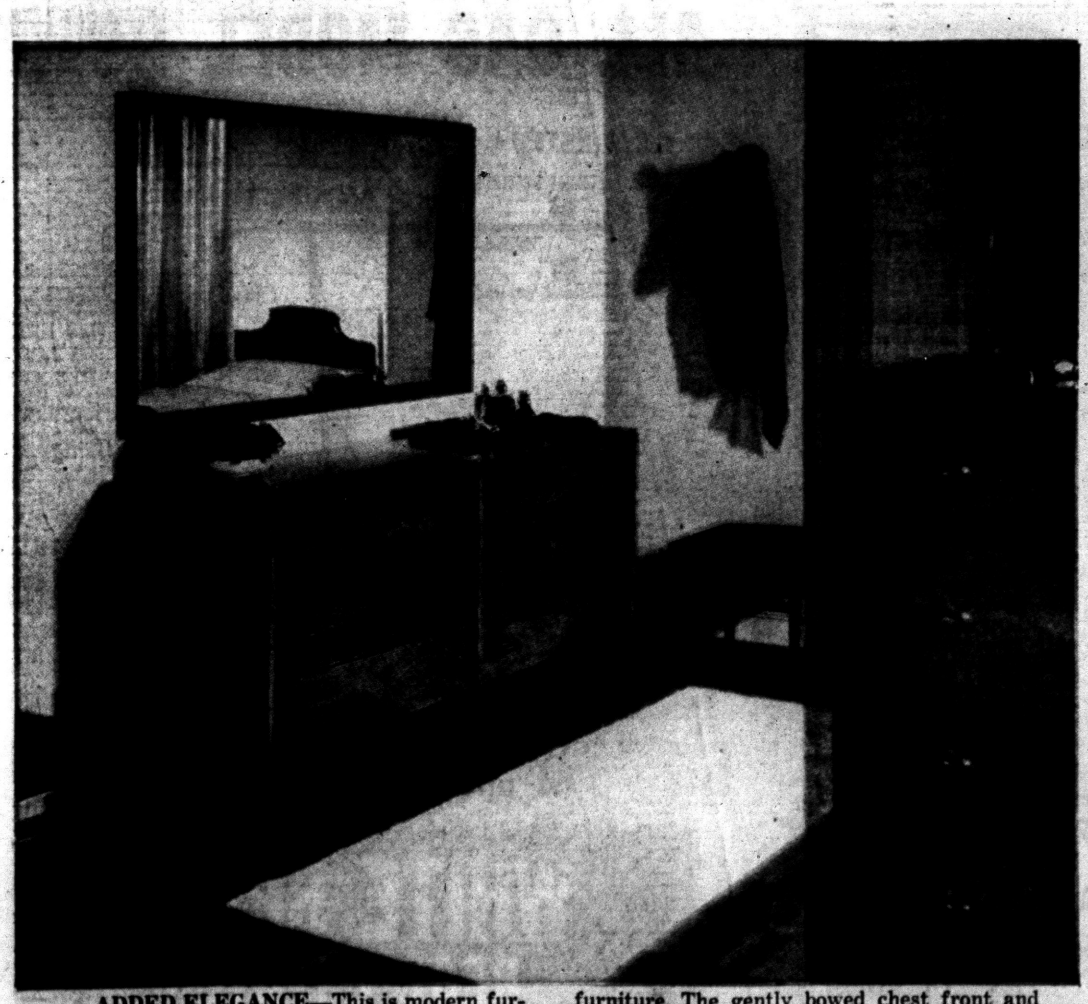

Your home furnishings fashion forecast for fall is: more elegant furnishings that are designed to fit into your home. They are easy to care for, pleasant to live with and designed to complement your own particular way of life.

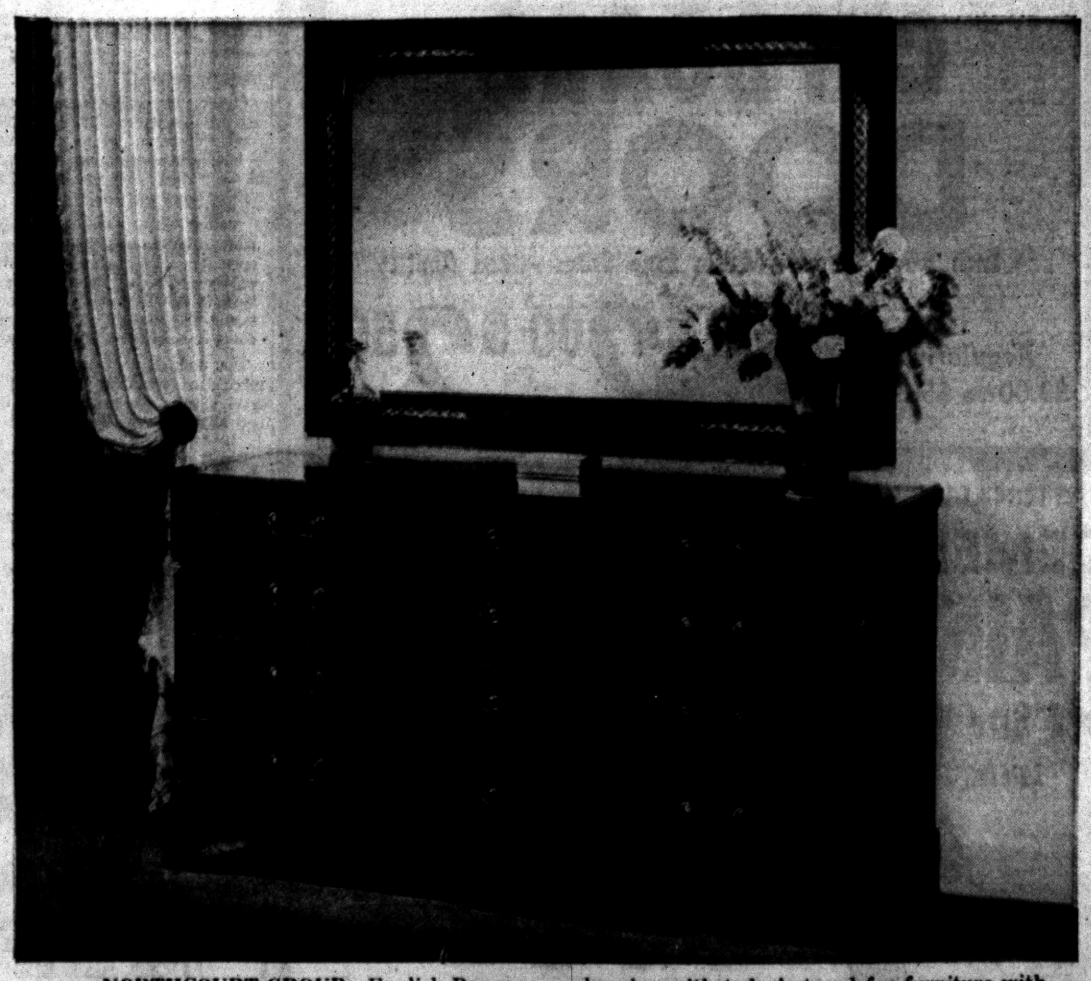

TYPICALLY MODERN—The clean, simple lines of these upholstered chairs and tables give them a custom-made look. The large coffee table has a shelf for storage space, is finished in sable grey. A white rug in this room furthers the modern feeling.

CITATION GROUP—This dining room furniture is inspired by Italian Provincial. Today's top colors appear in this grouping. The gold carpeting, the turquoise upholstery and the mellow, tawny brown tone of the cherry furniture are present-day favorites.

ADDED ELEGANCE—This is modern furniture with added elegance. Drawer pulls are 22 karat gold baked on porcelain. It is part of a complete group of living, dining and bedroom furniture. The gently bowed chest front and the forward-tapering legs distinguish this furniture.

NORTHCOURT GROUP—English Regency is the theme of this dresser. The finish is light with black trim and brass hardware. It is in keeping with today's trend for furniture with style and light finishes. Blue carpeting completes the setting.

New Store Buildings Showing Sharp Upswing

Most major types of construction showed a normal movement between July and August this year.

However, activitiy on stores and similar mercantile establishments showed an unseasonally sharp increase, reaching a new monthly peak. On the other hand, private residential construction (which usually remains steady) edged off, reflecting a downtrent in housing starts during the preceding 2 months.

Highway construction rose less than seasonally, largely because of the heavy rains and flood damage in the northeastern states as a result of recent hurricanes. Conservation and development work and military facilities construction failed to advance the usual amounts.

PLANNED FOR GROWTH — Designed to grow with your family, this house by Rudolph A. Matern, architect, can be started as a two bedroom home. Shaded areas on the plan show how additions can complete your dream house. This is the first of a weekly series of houses for which you may send into the Pontiac Press and obtain a study plan.

Press Starts New Service for Readers With 'The Home of the Week' Display

Starting with today's plan, the Pontiac Press is offering a new service to its readers. Each week we shall publish a house plan, The House of the Week. If you like the plan and want to know more about it, you may send in the coupon on this page and receive a study plan of the house.

* * *

You can take this study plan to your bank, mortgage lender or to your builder and get rough estimates on the cost of construction. If you want to proceed further, you may order working blueprints direct from the architect.

Why not plan a house that can grow?

* * *

The House of the Week, design T-500, shown on this page, is a house that can grow as your family grows, as your job grows, as your savings grow.

It can be started as an economical 2-bedroom house with one bedroom and can be expanded to three bedrooms, two baths, family room, covered porch, hobby shop and garage.

Each addition is planned to be made with a minimum amount of revisions to the existing house.

HORIZONTAL LINES

Long, low horizontal lines of the exterior give a look of luxury to this house. A distinctive double front entrance door, with a 5-foot opening and adjoining glass sidelights, virtually speaks a welcome.

* * *

A smart and gracious front entrance foyer is nine feet wide and opens directly into the living room. From the foyer, a visitor gets a full view of the 12-foot wide bow bay window in the living room.

Another bay window spreads cheer in the kitchen. A pass-through server between kitchen and the living-dining area is an unusual feature. This can be used as a snack bar when entertaining.

The kitchen of this House of the Week is a pride and joy for any woman. Its 19 feet of length provides for every modern appliance and convenience, including 24 feet of counter top and cabinets.

* * *

A built-in refrigerator is envisioned. A no-stoop oven, built into the wall, is specified with a separate countertop hot plate unit.

* * *

CLOSET SPACE

Closets for miscellaneous storage are planned to keep the family room shipshape. There is a built-in television space to afford a view of the screen from the kitchen as well as from the family room.

Sliding glass doors of heavy plate glass framed in aluminum, open the family room to a covered rear porch. This gives the room virtually a wall of glass facing the garden. The sliding doors are equipped with screens.

The do-it-yourself movement is recognized by this plan with a good sized shop provided at the end of the garage.

* * *

Direct access is provided to the shop and garage from the family room—a handy way to get into the house when you drive home in the rain.

* * *

Designed by Rudolph A. Matern, nationally recognized authority on house architecture, The House of the Week in any of its stages is a model for circulation.

* * *

Its final plan with five exterior access doors and spacious entrance foyer make circulation through the house a noticeable pleasure.

An unusual aspect of this expansion idea is that the house actually comprises four distinct plans, any one of which can be built without thought of expansion.

Plan 1, the basic 2-bedroom house, covers an area of 1,246 square feet. Plan 2, a 3-bedroom and 1-bathroom house, covers 1,454 square feet. Plan 3, comprising three bedrooms and two bathrooms, brings the area up to 1,521 square feet. Plan 4, adding the family room and shop to the three bedrooms and two bath layout, results in a house of 1,762 square feet. The garage (part of Plan 4) adds 217 square feet.

Architect Matern suggests conventional frame construction with mineral wool insulation throughout. He has pitched the roof just enough to permit the use of asphalt shingles for economy.

This pitch also provides for a ventilated, under-roof space in which oversize louver openings are recommended to insure summer comfort.

* * *

White or other light colored asphalt shingles also are recommended for their reflective insulating value.

Drapery Fabric Takes Thought

When you move to your new home or apartment, as so many of us are doing today, you have a grand opportunity to take advantage of the tremendous assortment of sparkling new upholstery and drapery fabrics that stores will be featuring this fall.

* * *

Although moving from one dwelling to another usually means selecting new decorative fabrics, painting or redecorating our present homes also calls for ingenious use of fresh fabrics to add distinction to the new decorative scheme. But whether you are decorating a new home or apartment, or redoing your present one, the finished room settings you are trying to achieve should reflect your own personality.

Read the newspapers and the magazines to see what is new and to keep yourself up-to-date on the decorative fabrics picture. Your favorite home shows on radio and television are excellent sources of information for this purpose. But remember that a discriminating taste implies a standard of judgment, and you supply that standard, not the "authorities" in the magazines, newspapers, radio, television, etc.

Don't swallow their schemes and suggestion "hook, line and sinker," without pausing to relate them to the practical needs of your home decorating scheme. For example, in "window shopping" through the publications, don't confuse decoration for function—when you buy with a knowing eye, you are thinking of use first, beauty second.

* * *

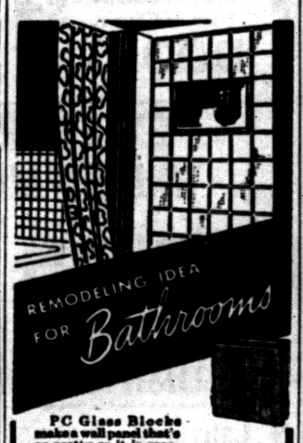

When shopping for decorative fabrics, keep a number of things in mind: the quality of yarn, the construction of the weave, the texture, the colors, the finish of the fabric, and the design or pattern. All of these considerations help to make the difference between a "just perfect" fabric and one that can be considered only a "make-do" fabric.

There is wide selection of decorative fabrics available to fit individual needs, tastes, and pocketbooks, so choose wisely and well.

New Product Melts Snow Much Faster Than Salt

Getting rid of snow or ice on the front walk can be made easier through the use of a new chemical product called Ice Foe.

The product is said to create heat on contact with moisture that has a melting action up to 30 times greater than salt. The compound is non-toxic and will not harm children or animals.

PC Glass Blocks make a wall panel that's as pretty as it is practical. It guards privacy while letting in lots of light . . . a small ventilator may be used to admit air. In kitchens, bath and hallways—in every room in the house—versatile Glass Blocks are the mark of a modern home. Call us today.

245-Home Addition Seen for Expanding Clarkston

Our neighbor, the village of Clarkston, is about to lose its distinction as a small community of less than 1,000 inhabitants. Home building has gone into high gear, with 245 house either completed, or in the process of being built.

* * *

South of Clarkston, on Waldon road, and adjoining the high school and grade school property, is the Clarkston Ridge Estates subdivision. William A. Kennedy is in charge of this project.

There will be 40 houses built on the paved streets. Made of composition siding, these houses have three bedrooms and one and a half tiled baths. The lots are 100x150 feet. The selling price is $12,000 to $12,500.

White Brothers have taken over what was the old Kreger farm and are building 169 houses on the property. Floor-to-ceiling picture windows, both back and front, overlook an orchard.

* * *

There are four or five designs for prospective buyers to choose from, on 100x140-foot lots. The three-bedroom homes have brick exteriors and contain 1296 square feet of space.

A feature of these homes is the extremely large utility room. They sell for $14,950.

White Brothers are constructing 36 more homes north of Clarkston, near the food locker. The road there has been newly black-topped. Cameo Homes will have full basements, oak floors and ceramic tile vestibules.

* * *

The exteriors are all brick. In the kitchen, pickled wood cabinets are featured. The lots here are larger, with 100x150 feet frontage and a depth in some instances of 306 feet. The price range is from $13,900 to $14,100. All of these new subdivisions have models open for public inspection.

Use Wall-to-Wall Carpets

If you are building a new home or remodeling an old one, consider leaving the floors in an unfinished state, and using wall-to-wall carpeting. It will enhance the appearance of t ehhome, is warmer and more comfortable in winter, and is easily cleaned.

Select Suitable Boiler for Home

Converting to oil or gas? Fine. But keep in mind that a boiler made especially for burning oil or gas is far more efficient than a boiler made for burning coal.

* * *

That's why it will in the long run be cheaper to do a complete conversion job by buying a boiler made especially for burning oil or gas, the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau explains.

While the combustion principles of a coal-fired boiler or furnace are ideal for burning coal, they are wasteful and inefficient when applied to oil or gas.

Entirely different combustion principles must be applied to these fuels to gain maximum economy, the Bureau points out.

SAVES FUEL

Boilers made for coal firing are larger, than those made for the combustion of oil. In the case of larger boiler, there is more water to heat. Consequently the response to the demands of the thermostat is slower.

The savings in oil consumption will pay for the cost of a new boiler in a relatively short time.

$107,240 in Permits Issued for Building

Building permits valued at $107,240 were issued by the City Building and Inspections Dept. this week.

Leading the list was a $54,000 block addition to the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church, 1104 Joslyn Ave. The addition will measure 82 by 30 feet.

Three new house permits helped boost the list. A complete listing of permits for projects over $500 follows:

Church addition, 1104 Joslyn, $54,000
House, 610 Lennox, $10,500
House, 1036 Canterbury $12,400

Here's How to Know Matured Gourd

Now is the time of year when one of the classic marks of autumn — gourds — become mature and ready for decorative usefulness. Family and friends can be sure that fall is here when your mantle or table centerpriece is dominated by a colorful polished gourd.

Gourds are mature when the stem has turned brown and the shell is hard enough to resist denting when pressed with the fingernail. The gourd should be scrubbed with a soft brush washed in a strong disinfectant and dried.

A good paste wax polishing, using a soft cloth, will make the gourd sparkle. Wax gives a better finish than varnish or shellac and will not crack or peel off.

In preparing a decorative gourd, however, be certain it has dried thoroughly before waxing. Otherwise you will seal in moisture which might cause rotting.

Paint Too-High Ceilings Darker Hue Than Walls

If a ceiling is too high, as sometimes occurs in older houses, you can paint it a darker hue than the walls in a darker value or a harmonizing hue.

Many of the new houses have low ceilings. In such cases, a light tint may be used on the ceiling, so that it will tend to make the room appear higher. You may even paint it a different color if it better suits your decorative scheme.

ALUMINUM BROILER — The two piece aluminum broiling pan that can also be used for baking or serving is shown here. The perforated tray allows the fat to drip down but prevents splatter, thus also preventing smoking and burning. The tray is open at two corners to provide for basting wells. Used by itself, the bottom half of the broiler serves as a baking pan or for chilling salads in the refrigerator.

Building Permits Up Over August Totals

Total buliding permits for the month of September increased over those of August, due largely to a school buliding projects totaling nearly $400,000. There were 14 fewer permits granted for new residences.

• • •

Nationally, new construction hit an all-time monthly high in September. However, home building in Pontiac is leveling off slightly.

Building Report — September 1955

Busy Area Banks Best

The study of branch banks around the country made by a New York appraiser shows that the most successful banks are those located in shopping centers ranging from 30,000 to a million square feet. In some of the large shopping centers it is even possible to have two banks.

Average GI Home Costs $11,640—$95.15 for Rent

Inside the home, according to the Veterans Administration, the average G. I. home buyer, last year, was 32 years old.

He earned $5,780 and bought his house for $11,640. His monthly housing bill was $95.15. The average amount he paid down was 11 per cent. More than one third of his mortgages on his new homes had 26 to 30 years in which to pay off.

The ten millionth post war private home was started somewhere in this country in July. National Association of Home Builders' figures show that 9,992,000 new, private non-farm homes were started between September 1945 and June 1955.

More Time for Working

Today's housewife leads a life sometimes considered twice as active as that in Grandmother's day. There are still only 24 hours in a day, but she has more time to be busy. Labor-saving devices such as automatic dishwashers and laundries plus easily maintained materials like ceramic tile do away with old-fashioned burdens.

Equip Nursery With Tot's Toys

The result of a sampling of small fry about their playroom requirements reveals that a 6-year-old boy would like a slide, roller skates and boxing gloves.

A 4-year-old girl would like a doll and carriage, maybe even a set of doll furniture. A boy of 3 would like to have a "thwing." The over-12 set went for a tennis table or a hoop on the wall for a basketball. All would like to have playthings readily available in one spot.

Mom might need steady nerves to withstand the ruckus created by these active bodies. But how much better to have it all in one room instead of over the house? Even the baby can be parked in a playroom to be a noisy observer of older brother's and sister's play.

One good size bedroom housing two youngsters for sleep time in space-saving bunk beds could be equipped with a slide, play pen and perhaps a small swing. Peg board on the wall can hold skates, boxing gloves, a couple of guns in holsters.

Doll and carriage are at another end of the room. Sound-softening rubber tile or vinyl makes a good flooring.

The older child's room might have a minimum of furniture, perhaps just a slim studio bed, pillows for floor sitting instead of a chair, storage shelves for clothes instead of bulky chests. Paint a shuffle board game on the floor, put a hoop up on the wall for basketball practice shots, and a sturdy wall could even be used for handball games.

Advanced Pupil Can Make Desk for His Own Use

The desk and chair in the above sketch make excellent projects for advanced students in shop work. The picture frames, lamp and book ends are more suitable for beginners. The exposed parts of the desk are of plywood which may be obtained in many different surfaces of natural wood.

The large pieces of plywood are easy to cut and assemble. The pattern illustrates each step from the list of materials to he final finish.

The chair is made wih pattern 224; the lamp is 204; the initial bookends 401; and the plywood picture frame is made from pattern 301. These patterns are 25 cents each. All five copies will be mailed to one address for $1. postpaid.

Parents Should Ban Hazards From Home

Times have changed. Why don't parents and home builders reconstruct their ideas of home?

* * *

Little tots swarm over the house, warned not to touch electric light cords, important lamps, ash trays, bibelots. They are supervised over waxed floors, protected from television set and fireplace—hazards to small lives, that take their toll in time and effort on Mom's part.

They are barred from kitchen and living room furniture and for the most part are prisoners in a home bursting at the seams.

If youngsters had a lobby they'd probably demand a safe and sane play area. One room organized to their growing needs could do it even for a small population of liliputians. If not available, the bedroom could be arranged to combine a sleeping and play area.

Oak Paneling Available in Do-It-Yourself Kits

Rich, wood-paneled walls are the latest trend in home decoration. They give warmth and luxurious beauty to every room, traditional or modern. Now, anyone who can handle an ordinary hammer can install Savannah Oak panels, easily and quickly, with professional-looking results.

First, measure height and width of your walls to make sure you get the right amount of Savannah Oak paneling. This all-oak paneling now is available in do-it-yourself kit form. Each kit includes specially grooved furring strips, a supply of patented metal application clips, and enough easy-to-handle, 8-foot plywood planks, in random widths, to panel 96 square feet of wall.

Here are simple, do-it-yourself steps suggested by Georgia-Pacific Plywood engineers to install your own paneling.

Nail special furring strips horizontally to wall studs.

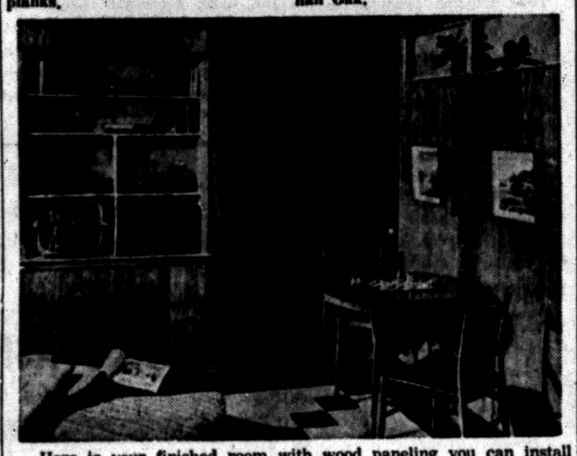

Insert patented clip in groove of each furring strip.

Lock panels firmly to row of clips placed between each two planks.

Finish your paneling with moldings and trim of matching Savannah Oak.

Here is your finished room with wood paneling you can install yourself. Savannah Oak Panels do not need staining or painting. They come ready to nail on the walls.

Masonite Used for Bed-Boards in Sick Rooms

When the doctor recommends a bed-board, get one from your lumber dealer. Ask him for a piece of masonite, a smooth hardboard that's splinter-free and easily kept clean.

* * *

The size is a few inches smaller than the bed spring. A bed-board fits between the spring and mattress and gives a firmness sometimes required in alleviating a back ailment.

Only simple preparation of the board is required. Round the edges slightly and bevel the edges of the smooth side lightly with a file or sandblock.

Masonite is a widely-used fix-up material. With the cutoffs from the bed-board, you can make a kitchen blackboard, for example, by covering the hardboard surface with a slating material available at paint sores.

* * *

Wherever a strong, moisture-resistant panel is needed, try this material. It has no grain, no splinters, no knots. It may be sawed, planed, filed, nailed, screwed, glued or riveted.

The six most popular hardwood species available in plywood form are birch, gum, mahogany, maple, oak and walnut.

Hardwood plywood, in a parquet pattern, often is used for covering ceilings for a unique decorative effect.

Office at Home Now Popular

Since Uncle Sam permits a tax deduction for that portion of a home used for business purposes, many businessmen are finding it worthwhile to set aside a definite area.

With modern, attractive, permently decorated wallboards, the conversion of some room or area into an office is relatively easy and inexpensive.

This room-within-a-room might be in the attic, basement or a large bedroom. It could even be on a porch that can be converted to year-around use.

General considerations for such a home office include adequate ventilation, good lighting, and a certain amount of privacy. These things should be studied carefully during the planning stages. Many lumber dealers nowadays are equipped to give excellent advice on home modernization projects of this sort.

Many an oversize bedroom in an "older" house lends itself nicely to division. You might use the old door as an entrance to a new hall at one end of the room. From the hallway, of course, there would be separate entrances to the new bedroom and the office.

In an improvement like this, you would need two stud walls—one for the hallway and the other to actually divide the room. Ordinarily, such walls have the studs 16" apart. Line the stud walls with such a panel material as gypsum board.

Attractive hardwood plywood wall paneling is available in prefinished form with the panels already tongued and grooved.

New Appliances Cut Continuous Bending

CHICAGO — Literally speaking, the average homemaker goes on a "bender" every day in her own kitchen.

She is constantly bending to get food from her refrigerator. Luckily for her, the kitchen variety of "bends" is not as serious an occupational hazard as the kind that strikes deep sea divers when they surface too rapidly.

Fortunately, too, the kitchen variety of "bends" may soon be a thing of the past for the homemaker, thanks to advances in appliance design. She is fast winning her freedom from the "slavery of stooping" as a result of such innovations as one manufacturer's "up-side down" refrigerator-freezer combination.

NEW LAMP — Erickson handblown crystal is featured in this new table lamp named "Decanter." The lasting appeal of the graceful form is increased by subtly blended decorator tones of heliotrope contrasted with polished brass and hand rubbed shell walnut. Drum shade in pink, gold, amethyst and eggshell over fiberglas is trimmed with pink and gold. It's 36" overall and well suited for end or corner table use.

Caulking Compound Aids in Building Preservation

WASHINGTON—Playing a very important role in the preservation of homes and buildings of all types are the caulking compounds now available. By adhering tightly to wall areas next to joints and by forming a tough, durable, nonporous film, caulking compounds prevent the seepage of destructive moisture. Besides keeping out rain—as well as dust and insects—caulking aids in conserving heat. In winter a properly caulked home will conserve heat by keeping out cold air, thus holding the heating bill to a reasonable level.

* * *

Whether a building is of frame, brick or masonry, the areas around doors and windows should be carefully caulked. Other points where caulking should be used are the floor-wall junctions, wood column-floor junctions, parapet and roof joints and joints between masonry blocks.

Other points where application is advisable include the gaps between rough attic floors and chimneys, the apertures around electric conduits passing through floors and walls and the spaces around outlet boxes.

Caulking compound is a uniform blend of pigments, oils and thinners. The result is a semi-solid that remains plastic to the touch and that enables the compound to expand and contract with temperature changes.

PREPARATION AND APPLICATION

The performance of caulking is dependent not only upon high quality material, but also upon proper preparation of the surface and proper application. Surfaces should be clean, dry, free of dust, moisture and grease. Sufficient space is also necessary so that adequate caulking can be installed. Masonry surfaces need to be dusted off with a stiff bristle brush. Metal and glass should be free of any oil or dirt. Non-porous surfaces require wiping with mineral spirits or similar thinners, but should be thoroughly dry when the compound is applied so that a good bond will result.

* * *

Caulking material is available in three different forms. The first type is designed for application with a "gun." You merely pull the trigger which causes the compound to be forced from the nozzle in a uniform bead. The second type is packaged in tubes. From these, the compound is extruded by squeezing the tube from the bottom to force the compound from the nozzle. In the third, or rope form, the caulking material comes in a number of strands, all coiled in a roll. One or more strands, when pulled apart from the roll, are placed for temporary or permanent protection by pressing the caulking rope firmly into the crack with the fingers.

U.S. Reduces Workload of General Contractors

The government has reduced the amount of work that a general contractor must perform with his own working forces from 25 per cent to 12 per cent on federal building contracts.

This means that more contract work under the new lease-purchase program will be open to smaller construction firms which in many areas may be home builders. The policy will be to let the contracts locally as much as possible. Most such projects will be in relatively small towns and involve post office and court house buildings.

Specialist Sees Housing Boom

DETROIT — During the next ten years the American economy will pour some $600 billion into building materials and construction labor and services.

* * *

In the same period, somewhere in the neighborhood of 12,000,000 to 13,000,000 new housing units will be built.

These predictions were made at the annual Fall meeting of the Producers' Council, Inc., at the Hotel Statler October 4 by Dr. George Cline Smith, economist for F. W. Dodge Corporation, construction news and marketing specialists. The Producers' Council is a national organization of manufacturers of building materials and equipment.

Dr. Smith told the audience he estimated that $450 billion would be spent for new construction in the coming decade, and that although adequate figures on the present level of maintenance and repair construction are not available, $150 billion seemed to be a minimum estimate for that category, making a total construction outlay of $600 billion.

POPULATION WILL GROW

"This forecast," Dr. Smith said, "is conservative. It does not anticipate any construction boom, but simply a normal growth in line with the expansion of the nation.

"Most people have difficulty realizing the magnitude of that expansion," he said. "In the next ten years, our population will grow enormously. By the most conservative estimates, the increase will be greater than the present combined populations of Canada and Australia. The pressure that a population increase of this size will put on construction will be tremendous.

"But growth is not the only important aspect of population. Americans are traditionally restless, and they will continue to move about. In recent years, eight or nine million families have moved their homes annually, and about a million and a half of these have moved to different states.

* * *

This movement places additional demands not only on residential but on most other types of construction.

Wide Variety of Colors

There is such a wide variety of color and design in floor coverings that the keynote for the entire decoration of the home easily can be set by the choice the homemaker makes.

Give Desk Tops Old-World Look

NEW YORK (INS) — If you want a pretty desk top, try for the old-Fashioned look.

* * *

Instead of a plain old pen-and-ink set, you can get a quill pen and ink pot combination that combines old-fashioned elegance with modern convenience.

One new set features a curled, gold-finished quill pen with natural black basalt-copied ink and sand pots. The pots have gold covers.

You can give your desk a classical book. The book is covered with a black and white scene of classical warriors, with leaf detail to act as frames above and below the picture.

The blotter carries out the detail work of the book around its edges, and the other items are patterned with the same re-sign. The prints are on black basket weave fabric with bright red linings.

If you wish the modern look, there is a combination piece that might appeal. Available in red or mahogany leather, it has space for a pad and pencil.

The leather-covered, flip-up top conceals a calico-lined space for scotch tape, sharpener, small stapler and other useful desk assessories.

Paint Paddle Magnet Eliminates Nuisance

To avoid the nuisance and wastefulness of removing the paddle after every stirring of paint, obtain a small magnet and attach it to the paddle. When in contact with he meal paint can, the paddle stays in place at the side, out of the way of the brush.

The magnet should be located so the bottom of the paddle doesn't touch the bottom. I may be fasened with a rubber band or attached permanently with cement.'8 Illustration courtesy Popular Mechanics.

Builders Forecast Trend to 3-Bathroom Homes

Now that the trend toward two bathrooms in every home has definitely proved itself to be here to stay, many builders and architects are forecasting the three-bathroom home. And why not? It makes good sense: A master bath for the parentss, a children's bath, and another bathroom, or powder room, for guests or to serve the home's recreation area.

One thing is sure. Homemakers are seeing to it that quality isn't skimped in their baths. Ceramic tile, for example, is still the chosen material for walls and floors. Colorful and durable, real tile has long been the bathroom favorite.

Expert Assures Gentry of Old Bridge's Solidity

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—The famous Ponte Vecchio, a beautiful bridge over the Arno River, is 600 years old. When cracks appeared in its under-structure there was talk the Old Bridge (that's the literal translation of Ponte Vecchio) might have to be closed. There was fear it might tumble into the river, along with the jewelry and artisans' shops that line it.

* * *

But the city's engineer, Alessandro Giuntoli, says:

"There is absolutely no danger that the bridge will collapse. We'll have to reinforce the piles, because traffic today isn't what it was 600 years ago. But we can fix that up."

Even so, there is a worry. It concerns the Vasari Corridor, a long enclosed passage over the shops. This connects the Uffizi Gallery and the Pitti Palace, art galleries on opposite sides of the river.

* * *

The corridor had been in bad shape since August 1944. The German army, retreating and blowing up bridges behind it, spared the Ponte Vecchio but blocked its approaches by dynamiting buildings at each end. The explosions cracked the corridor's walls and shook the under-structure.

"The situation of the corridor of Vasari really is critical," Giuntoli acknowledges. A commission of leading architects has been appointed to study a repair project.

TAOS, N.M. (AP)—Stephen Mitchell, former national Democratic chairman, says Gov. John Simms and Sen. Anderson (D-NM) have assured him they would support Adlai Stevenson for the party's presidential nomination.

"I had a conference with them in Santa Fe," Mitchell, a Chicago lawyer who maintains a part-time home in Taos, said last night.

"I'm on the move looking for support for Stevenson. I talked with Arizona people yesterday and I have a conference with Colorado people Tuesday."

Defense Zones to Be Reduced

Restrictions on Flying Over U.S. Identification Areas Will Be Eased

DETROIT (AP) — The government is planning to ease the restrictions of recent years on flying over strategic defense areas of the U.S.

* * *

This will be done, probably on Nov. 15, by greatly reducing the size of the "Air Defense Identification Zone" areas in the United States, and eliminating them entirely on the west coast and in the northeastern states.

Fred B. Lee, civil aeronautics administrator, said in a prepared address here that instead of the numerous large ADIZ areas now in effect, two new zones will be established in the form of narrow bands running north and south from the Canadian border to Mexico.

One will extend from Idaho to Arizona, the other from Minnesota to Florida. Present zones extending over the ocean approaches to the Atlantic and Pacific coasts will remain in operation, Lee told the National Business Aircraft Assn.

MUST IDENTIFY

Aircraft flying into a restricted zone must fully identify themselves. A basic requirement is that pilots planning to enter an ADIZ file a flight plan.

The two new ADIZ strips cutting down through the United States are over areas where there is not a great deal of air activity, Lee said.

"But they will serve to identify aircraft passing through them into the northeast and west coast areas of the country where we have our most valuable production facilities," he added.

Aircraft leaving the ADIZ strips, or flying entirely within them, will be exempt from the requirements.

Lee explained that "increased military capability" has made it possible to revise the requirements to exempt a substantial volume of flying from ADIZ rules while still "providing a stronger perimeter defense."

* * *

In addition to the Atlantic and Pacific areas, there are defense zones along the Canadian and Mexican borders, so that all flights into the U.S. can be rigidly controlled.

GM Sets Record for Monthly Sales

DETROIT — An all-time one-month record for retail sales of new General Motors passenger cars in the United States was established during September, President Harlow H. Curtice has announced. Sales totaled 363,473, or 171.1 per cent of hte September, 1954, total.

GM dealers also sold more new passenger cars during the final 10 days of September than in any previous 10-day period, Mr. Curtice said. GM's new car sales total for the first nine months of 1955 was higher than for any previous first three quarters, and new car sales during the third quarter of the year were the best third-quarter mark in GM annals.

In used car sales, September was the third highest month in GM history, the last 10 days of September was the second highest 10-day period, and the first nine months of 1955 were the best first three quarters.

Life of Virginia's Man-of-the-Month Milton M. King

MILTON M. KING

During September, Milton M. King was the leading agent in Life of Virginia's Pontiac branch office as announced today by Louis Pohl, District Manager, and has been named "Man-of-the-Month" for September.

The above announcement means that "MILT HAS DONE IT AGAIN" for the second time in three months he is the leading agent among 29 men in the Pontiac office! A marvelous record indeed.

Milt has taken special training on the new Social Security Law and specializes in integrating Social Security benefits with the policy owner's own insurance program.

Through one of the nation's oldest and largest life insurance companies, the Life of Virginia, he advises and assists individuals and families in their plans for financial security.

NOTICE OF SALE
$550,000.00
SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 3, FRACTIONAL
TOWNSHIP OF BLOOMFIELD
COUNTY OF OAKLAND, MICHIGAN
SCHOOL BUILDING AND SITE BONDS

Sealed bids for the purchase of general obligation bonds to be issued by School District No. 3, Fractional, Township of Bloomfield, County of Oakland, Michigan, of the par value of $550,000.00 will be received by the undersigned at Hickory Grove School, 134 E. Square Lake Road, Pontiac, Michigan, in said District, on Monday, the 17th day of October, 1955 until 8:00 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read.

Said bonds will be dated November 1, 1955, will be coupon bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, will be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 550, inclusive, shall bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding four (4%) per cent per annum, expressed in multiples of ¼ of 1%. Said interest will be payable on July 1, 1956, and semi-annually thereafter on the first day of January and July of each year, both principal and interest to be payable in such bank or trust company to be designated by the manager of the syndicate or account purchasing the bonds. Said interest rate for each coupon period on any one bond shall be at one rate only. Accrued interest to the date of delivery of such bonds shall be paid by the purchaser at time of delivery.

Said bonds will mature serially as follows:

$10,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1957 to 1956, both inclusive;
$15,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1960 to 1964, both inclusive;
$2?,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1967 to 1973, both inclusive;
$35,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1974 to 1978, both inclusive;
$30,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1979 to 1983, both inclusive.

Bonds of this issue numbered 1 to 275, both inclusive, maturing in the years 1957 to 1973, both inclusive, shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity.

Bonds numbered 276 to 550, both inclusive, maturing in the years 1974 to 1983, both inclusive, may be redeemed prior to maturity at the option of the District, in inverse numerical order, on any interest payment date on or after July 1, 1965, at par and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption, plus a premium as follows:

$30.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after July 1, 1965; but prior to July 1, 1966;
$20.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after July 1, 1966 but prior to July 1, 1971;
$10.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after July 1, 1971 but prior to July 1, 1974;
$5.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after July 1, 1974 but prior to maturity of the bond.

Notice of redemption shall be given to the holders of bonds to be redeemed by publication not less than thirty days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the State of Michigan which carries, as part of its regular service, notices of sale of municipal bonds. No further interest payable on bonds so called for redemption shall accrue after the date fixed for redemption, whether presented for redemption or not, provided the School District has money available for such redemption with the paying agent.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from November 1, 1955, to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produced the lowest interest cost to the school district. Each bidder shall state in his bid the interest cost to the School District computed in the manner above specified. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than 100% of their par value will be considered.

The said bonds are payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied without limitation as to rate or amount, as provided by Section 27, Article X of the Michigan Constitution.

A certificate or cashier's check in the amount of $11,000.00 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the School District, must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, which opinion will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof, approving the legality of the bonds. The purchaser shall furnish bonds ready for execution at his expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser at a place to be designated by the purchaser.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

L. C. BURCH JR.,
Secretary.

Regulations Are Required —but Smart Boys Fool 'em

BERLIN (INS)—American diplomacy and American military ingenuity have been amply demonstrated by two dapper gentlemen at a U.S. Army Commissary in Berlin.

An Army colonel, wearing natty sport jacket and sport shirt, found himself barred at the commissary. "Why can't I come in?" he snapped in the best parade ground voice.

"Sorry, sir," said a commissary employe, "Regulations. No admittance without a necktie."

The colonel, fuming, wheeled and headed for the nearby post exchange, which has no necktie regulations. Seconds later a State Department official stepped into the commissary door.

OUT, MAC, OUT

He, too, was banned, for he was wearing a scarf in the open neck of his sports shirt.

The commissary employe was smiling to himself when suddenly both the diplomat and the colonel brushed righteously past him.

The diplomat had tied his scarf into a huge four-in-hand knot.

The colonel had purchased a pair of long black shoelaces for a nickel, and had tied one lace in a tight, western-style bow tie.

Alexander in Canada

MONTREAL (AP) — Viscount Alexander, former governor-general of Canada, arrived here yesterday from Britain aboard the liner Empress of Scotland for a combined business trip and speaking tour. A director of Aluminum Ltd., he will inspect the company's vast development at Kitimat, B.C. in Toronto.

Reds Offer Guns to Saudi Arabia

Soviet Proposal Follows Similar Egyptian Bid Given Last Month

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Another Arab country, Saudi Arabia, today weighed an offer from behind the Iron Curtain to sell it guns.

The offer came from Moscow.

Crown Prince Faisal, Saudi Arabian premier and foreign minister here for a conference of Arab foreign ministers today, confirmed reports Russia has made the arms offer. He added "nothing definite has been decided."

The disclosure came on the heels of an agreement by Egypt to swap cotton to Czechoslovakia for armament.

Saudi Arabia, like Egypt, has rejected an American arms offer, refusing to sign a mutual security agreement with the West. Faisal said his country fully supports the Cairo government in this deal.

* * *

Faisal was asked about U.S. Secretary of State Dulles' proposal in August for an international guarantee of Arab-Israeli borders as a means of insuring peace in the troubled Middle East. The crown prince described this as "only a statement which cannot be discussed formally or seriously."

Pontiac Teenagers Begin Junior Achievement Year

Four hundred Pontiac teenagers will begin operating 13 corporations of their own under sponsorship of local business concerns and service clubs when Junior Achievement starts its seventh year in Southeastern Michigan Monday.

The 400, all students of Pontiac, St. Michael and St. Frederick High schools, have been assigned membership in JA firms which will conduct operations at the JA business center, 53 N. Mill St.

Company meetings will be held for two hours each week, with firms meeting in either afternoon or evening sessions.

Each JA firm will raise operating capital through the sale of stock, at 50 cents a share.

The Achievers will manufacture a product, or sell a service, handling all of the problems of operating a business, form the creation of their enterprises through final liquidation next May.

Sponsoring concerns each will have a team of three executives working with the Achievers, advising them in problems of management, production and sales.

The sponsoring concerns are:

Community National Bank, Detroit Edison Co., Progressive Welder Sales Co., Pontiac State Bank, Michigan Bell Telephone Co., Standard Oil Co., Fisher Body Division, Pontiac Motor Division, Consumers Power Co., GMC Truck & Coach Division, Pontiac Exchange Club and Pontiac Rotary Club.

News in Brief

Arnold Diem, of 14 Utica Rd., told Pontiac Police his bicycle, valued at $65, had been stolen from the Webster School.

Another bicycle theft was reported by Jerry Bennett, of 67 S. Parke St., who told officers his bike was taken from the corner of S. Saginaw and Water Sts.

Two tires, a pair of wheels and a set of chrome wheel discs were taken from his new car while parked in the Pontiac Motor Division parking lot, Miles Berry, of Flint, told Pontiac Police.

Battle Looming on Ike's Choice

Possible No. 2 Interior Chief Nomination Ires Governor of Montana

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Murray (D-Mont) said today that if President Eisenhower nominates Wesley A. D'Ewart to be asst. Secretary of Interior he will seek a formal Senate rejection of the nomination.

* * *

Murray outlined through his office here his strategy which could lead to a political hassle in the Senate next year. He is chairman of the Senate Interior Committee which passes on Interior Department nominations.

The Senate hasn't formally turned down a presidential nomination since 1951, when, a check showed, former President Truman was so rebuffed on three separate occasions. However, some Eisenhower nominations have been left to die through Senate inaction and others have been withdrawn after strong opposition to them materialized.

D'Ewart, a former Republican congressman who ran unsuccessfully against Murray in last year's bitter Montana senatorial election contest, was sworn in as assistant secretary two days ago under a recess a ppointment. The name of recess appointees are usually sent to the Senate for confirmation when the Senate reconvenes.

D'Ewart told a newsman he had no comment on Murray's remarks, and that he "hadn't discussed with anybody" whether Eisenhower would send his nomination to the Senate.

* * *

Normally, a senator's claim that a presidential nominee is "personally obnoxious" to him is enough to thwart Senate approval. Murray made that claim before D'Ewart took office under the recess appointment.

Does Post Office Truck Have Right to Double Park?

FREEHOLD, N. J. (AP) — The United States government and the borough of Freehold have clashed on whether Post Office truck drivers have the right to double park.

* * *

U. S. Asst. Atty. John Wooley defending a postal driver in traffic court yesterday, said a state or municipality had no right to interfere with the delivery of U. S. mail.

But Borough Atty. M. Raymond McGowan claimed postal drivers are not immune to state law.

* * *

The defendant, Leonard L. Smith was given a ticket June 11 for double parking while delivering packages.

Magistrate Isadore I. Zlotkin reserved decision until next week.

Till Witness Debate Continues Unabated

By FELIX B. WOLD

DETROIT (AP)—Witness Mose Wright of the recent Mississippi murder trial spent the night of the acquittal, he says, hiding in a church cemetery for fear he'd be harmed if he stayed home.

"I thought someone might come to the house and I gotten afraid they would do something to me," he said.

Wright, 64-year-old Negro, made the statement to a reporter in an inteview last night.

He was a witness in the trial last month of J. W. Milam and Roy Bryant, two white men accused of murdering 14-year-old Emmett Till, a Chicago Negro. Till was a nephew of Wright and was visiting his uncle in Mississippi when he disappeared last August.

The aftermath of the trial, in which both men were acquitted, has led to a conflict between newspapers in Chicago and Mississippi.

Also, the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People picketed the U.S. Customs House in Chicago yesterday in the course of a Senate Internal Security subcommittee hearing there.

The NAACP charges the verdict in the Till case shows that human rights are denied Negroes in Mississippi.

Shopper Nearly Brings Home $6,000 Cabbage

PLAINVIEW, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Helen Tomko bought two heads of cabbage at a supermarket and got a big gift temporarily.

She had barely reached her car before three store employes came racing after her to retrieve a small package mistakenly dropped in her grocery bag.

The package contained $6,000 in store receipts which a messenger was supposed to take to a bank.

Lahr Fondly Remembers Happy Past in Show Biz

By EMILY BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Remember the old days when good overcoats were $6, shoes $1.50 and a man supported his family comfortably on $18 a week?

Well, Bert Lahr does.

* * *

"I remember when I was making $18 a week and sent my mother $10 of it and still had enough left over to buy a six-course dinner every night of the week," Lahr declared.

Those were the days when money and show business was — show business!

Bert Lahr, a comedian cradled in the burlesque and vaudeville tradition that spawned Fanny Brice, Al Jolson and Eddie Cantor, has been in, on and around the stage ever since the age of 15. That was umpteen years ago. He isn't saying how many.

* * *

But his fondest memories — besides pay day — are of the early days when he could get a stiff collar washed for two cents.

"Everything was rosy then," Bert recalled, "show business was a lark. Nobody woried about income tax and if I did, six shows a day I'd be happy because I wasn't doing eight!"

The veteran thinks show biz has changed somewhat since them thar days. He even thinks it's changed since he played the Cowardly Lion in "The Wizard of Oz."

LESS INTEGRITY NOW

"Things are more mechanical now," he declared.

"For one thing, there was more integrity in the old days and people didn't steal so many jokes."

Lahr refused to name names, but he admitted there are many original Lahr mannerisms he can't use any longer because they have been overdone by current comedians.

But he's not too worried about it. He said:

"Audiences want comedians to be more mental today. The old-time clown and the buffoon have gone out — just like high-button shoes."

However, Lahr named several stars who bridged the gap: Martha Raye, Jerry Lewis and Lou Costello.

Bert, who is appearing on NBC-TV's "Show Biz" Sunday at 6:30 p.m. with famed dead-pan Buster Keaton (for the first time in over 20 years), recalled the time when clowns were the stars of any Broadway show.

"The love interest always took second billing," Bert said. Now, except for TV productions, it's just to "character comedy."

Even though the buffoon is old hat, the inimitable Lahr has managed to stay on top by switching to "character comedy."

How does he manage to stay in the limelight after all these years?

"I just think young," he said simply.

Argentine Head Grants Churches Tax Freedom

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—President Eduardo Lonardi signed a decree last night reinstating a law granting church properties of all denominations freedom from taxation.

The law had been repealed by a Peronista-dominated congress in May, at the height of the feud between President Juan D. Peron and the Roman Catholic Church.

Meet the Vice President

Nixon—Man of Intense Drive and Ambition

This is the last of four articles on Vice President Richard M. Nixon by INS Correspondent William Theis who has "covered" Nixon for more than seven years.

By WILLIAM THEIS

WASHINGTON (INS)—Richard Milhous Nixon, Vice President of the United States, the man now but a "heart beat" away from leadership of the greatest nation in the world, is and has been a man of intense drive for personal recognition.

* * *

He is frank about his ambition. He has wanted to get ahead ever since working in his father's grocery. Sublimating this ambition to the restraints imposed on a vice president has been one of the real tests to his character.

* * *

Therein may lie the key to his capacity for higher office—balance under stress. The past two and a half years have offered many temptations — news conferences, magazine articles or television appearances outside those suggested by Eisenhower. Nixon has carefully avoided them.

During and following his 1953 Far Eastern "Good Will" tour, Dick and Pat Nixon were besieged with offers for magazine or newspaper articles on their trip at fat fees up to $10,000. They turned them all down.

During that same 45,000-mile swing through the Pacific, this reporter saw Nixon's balance develop in other ways. The vice president went through Indochina and other countries, where Communist intrigue was at work, without a slip of tongue or careless action which might have hurt American prestige.

QUICK TRAINED MIND

His scores of public speeches abroad, during this tour and his later Latin-American trip, were given from notes rather than textural manuscripts.

The vice president exhibits a quick, trained mind. He soaks up information, evaluates it and arrives at a decision quickly. In Asia, where fantastically complicated internal problems were unfolded for his consideration, he answered well. It was a little like tip-toeing through a minefield.

He applied the simple American technique of open-handed friendship. He went out and "met the people" in so-called "colonial" countries of Asia—a refreshing approach which startled even many American diplomats.

THE GLAD HAND

Sometimes, that technique strikes others as a little heavy-handed. But it seems never to fail to impress the individual directly involved.

Crossing a hotel lobby or leaving his car, he often will surprise a youngster or adult by walking out of his way to shake the stranger's hand and chat for a moment.

Square-jawed and heavy-jowled, Nixon often looks more serious than he may be at a given moment. But he has a quick flashing smile and a ski-jump nose. His sometimes too-serious appearance is regarded as an occasional handicap, especially on television.

PROMPT IMPROMPTU

When Nixon recently explained that his informal TV manner is deliberate and that his material is well studied in advance, one TV critic wrote caustically that he had fostered a new style, the "Prompt Impromptu."

The fact is that the vice president has an orderly mind, perhaps from his debating training. He ticks off his points in one-two-three order.

Compared to many public figures, he is easy for newsmen to cover—mainly because he cooperates to make that task go as smoothly as conditions will allow.

He is hardest on those around him through his driving energy and devotion to work. He is not one to "waste' 'time just relaxing at doing nothing. But he likes to read and enjoys meeting people and exchanging information.

DEVOTION TO CHILDREN

Except for swimming on occasion, and golf in recent months, he has no athletic interests. He has been given a number of firearms, but never hunts or shoots.

Both Dick and Pat Nixon are devoted to their children, 'Tricia and Julie, aged nine and seven, respectively. And that is where both feel the penalty of their public life most keenly.

Nixon says public officials get 'almost accustomed to abuse" after a time in office, and he adds soberly: "You worry only about how it will hurt your family."

How does he feel about being just 'One Heart-Beat" from the presidency? Before President Eisenhower's illness, he said: "I just don't think about it. If I've come up with a philosophy since I've been in politics it's this: You should just saw away, do the best you can."

ABOUT NIXON'S HEALTH

What about Nixon's own health? Except for an occasional cold, he apparently enjoys perfect health. Right now he is combatting a mild touch of hay fever.

Both he and Pat survived the 76-day whirlwind tour of the Far East without illness, while all in the party were knocked out at one time or another by the combination of fatigue and upsets from uncertain water and food.

The Nixons were preparing for another overseas "Good Will" trip —this time to the Middle East and North Africa—when President Eisenhower fell ill. The trip may now be off for the immediate future, but both the vice president and wife will take it in stride if it comes up later.

There's no doubt Nixon will be ready for any knock-down-drag-out that may develop on the Republican convention floor next August, too. He has not come as far, so fast, with any idea of giving up his own fight.

Father Says Arrest Him

SPOKANE, Wash. (INS)—A father asked Spokane police to arrest his son on drunk charges because "I just want him locked up, so he can sober up enough to go home." The father was 92, his son, 67.

"I WANT MY MONEY BACK . . . I WANT A CREDIT!,,

Yes! Yes! This is the time of year that the Board is swamped with these questions where some people want to take back the shirt or tie that Aunt Tillie gave them and get their money back. The following is the summary from a pamphlet called "I Want My Money Back":

"Whether you can return merchandise for credit or refund depends entirely upon the policy of the company with whom you do business. There is no outside agency which can force refunds for customers."

Stores are not required to post signs that "all sales are final," nor are they required to post signs regarding refunds, or exchanges, although some stores may do so or may provide such notice on sales slips.

In the case of a store whose policy is unknown to you and which states the merchandise can be "returned," you should establish whether it can be returned for a refund or only for an exchange.

Some stores make refunds because it is their policy to do so, not because they are required to. It is a "privilege" they extend to their customers. It is a "privilege" that should not be abused by needless return of merchandise which adds tremendously to the cost of doing business and penalizes all customers.

A reliable store is always anxious and ready to correct its errors. Give it a chance to do so.
