Clarkston Teacher Quits in Red Quiz

Board Reports He Admits Once Being Commie

George Miller Asserts He's Inactive; Refuses to Name Associates

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

A Clarkston social studies teacher who is alleged to have admitted once being a card-carrying member of the Communist Party resigned Friday upon the request of the Clarkston Community Board of Education.

George Miller, 31, of 154 Church St., declared to the board of education, Superintendent L. F. Greene and detectives from the State Police bureau that he is now "inactive."

Miller denies that he told police officers or the board of education that he was ever a "card-carrying Communist."

Revelation of Miller's alleged affiliation came following a routine check in the middle of September by the State Police.

They have declined to divulge the source of their information or the names of the agencies supplying this lead.

Repeated efforts by the board, Greene and the State Police have failed, they claim, when they tried to obtain a repudiation of the Communist party or the naming of associates in the party from Miller.

He reportedly said, "I could not live with myself if I did that. I have done nothing wrong and my associates have done nothing wrong."

Greene said he talked several times with Miller hoping to have him change his point of view, and Miller said that in another 20 years Greene would find out that he (Miller) was right.

Keith Leak, president of the Clarkston board, said that they had made a thorough investigation before arriving at their decision to ask Miller to leave.

"He has been an outstanding teacher. Miller was popular with the children and he was president of Clarkston Teachers' Club. Until this happened, the community had never questioned his teaching theories or philosophies," said Greene.

Basing their request for his resignation upon four points, the board said these were as follows:

1—His questionable Un-American activities.

2—By his own admission, George Miller has been a card-carrying member of the Communist party.

3—He showed no compunction when questioned.

4—He refused to cooperate with officers of Michigan State Police when questioned.

Greene said that Miller came to Clarkston three years ago from Arizona where he was a graduate of the University of Arizona. He served in the Marines during the war and receives a partial disability for a wound he sustained.

Miller voluntarily appeared before Greene on Sept. 16 and said that the day previous he had been called upon and interviewed by the State Police who questioned his Communist party affiliations.

He then admitted, said Greene, that he was once a card-carrying member, but had been inactive for a long time.

When Greene contacted the State Police officers they said they had hoped to avoid the necessity of

Near 8 Billion Despite Fire

GM Sales for Nine Months Ahead of Any Full Year

DETROIT (AP)—The world's biggest industrial business was well on its way to its biggest sales year today.

General Motors Corp. announced that it had sold nearly 8 billion dollars worth of its products in the first nine months of 1953, more than it had sold in any full year in the company's history.

Sales for the period were $7,931,000,000, which was 43 per cent above the $5,564,000,000 for the first nine months of 1952, a year that set the previous record total of $7,549,000,000.

Both sales and earnings for the nine months were the highest reported so far by any U. S. corporation. They were piled up despite a disastrous transmission plant fire in suburban Livonia that all but halted the production of hydramatic transmissions.

Earnings were tabulated at 453 million dollars for the January-September period, equal to $5.08 a share on common stock. This was after $1,006,000,000 was set aside for income and excess profits taxes.

These figures compared with 1952 total earnings of 387 million dollars or $4.32 a share.

4th Infant Born Lives Less Than Two Days; Others Doing Fine

LANSING (AP)—"Baby Boy A," "Baby Boy B" and "Baby Girl C" apparently were winning their battle for survival today — but "Baby Boy D" was dead.

The fourth tiny infant of the quadrulets born to Mrs. June E. Trollman, pretty-dark-haired divorcee, died yesterday afternoon.

The little boy who lost his fight for life was the last of the quadruplets to be born, and also was the largest.

"The other three are coming along fine," said Glen W. Fausey, director of Lansing's Edward W. Sparrow Hospital, scene of the multiple births which occurred 12 minutes of each other around midnight on Monday.

"The last delivery was a difficult one and we weren't too hopeful for the infant," Fausey said. "The others are in good shape."

"Baby Boy D," last to be born, was the heaviest of the four quadruplets. He weighed 2 pounds 10 ounces at birth.

Hospital attendants gave a preliminary listing of the cause of death as "immaturity atelectosis" — asphyxiation caused by incomplete development of the lungs. A postmortem was being performed.

At the request of the mother, the four children were baptized with a few drops of water from an eyedropper by Rev. L. J. Koeninger, associate pastor of Lansings First Emanuel Lutheran Church.

Peace Meeting Date Called For by Envoy Dean

Reds Retort Angrily but Actually Show Interest in Korean Talks

He told the Reds to "stop the nonsense" of demanding seats for neutrals at a peace conference and get on with the business of fixing a time and place for the political conference.

When that job is completed, he said, he'll be willing to talk about who will attend.

Despite the Communist tirade, he said the Communists showed a "good deal of interest" in his new proposal to sidestep the agenda, cut off debate on the neutrals and discuss a time and place for the conference immediately.

The Reds did not reply directly, but Dean noted that while they heaped angry words on him "they are outwardly polite and outwardly interested."

"Whenever the Communists are on a weak spot they hurl invective and abuse on the other side. You've got to expect it and leave your personal feelings out of the conference room," he told newsmen outside the conference hut in Korea's neutral zone.

When he finished North Korean Foreign Ministry representative Ki Sok Bok leveled a stinging attack at him.

Yesterday, the American had called Communist China and North Korea "agents" of Russia and said the Soviets poured weapons into Red Korea during the war.

The Communist delegate called this "an intolerable insult" and said Dean was trying to reduce "these talks to a site for your utterances of invectives. This fully indicates that the United States government has no sincerity whatsoever to expedite an early convening of the political conference."

Dean told correspondents that what he said "is a fact. How can I retract it?"

Dean, striving to make progress in arranging for the peace conference, promised the Reds that if they would first agree on a time and place for the conference he then was "prepared in good faith to exchange views to the fullest extent possible" on composition of the conference.

Clearing Skies to Bring Fair, Cool Weather

Clearing skies will bring fair and cool weather to the Pontiac area tonight and Friday, according to the U. S. Weather bureau.

Brisk winds will send the mercury to a low of from 34 to 36 degrees tonight, and partly cloudy skies will be coupled with temperatures ranging from 53 to 57 on Friday.

Yesterday the low recorded in the city was 38 and the high was 54 degrees.

At 8 a. m. today, the reading was 37 but by 2 p. m. in downtown Pontiac the temperature stood at 53 degrees.

Water Problem Discussed Here

State Men Meet Today With Local Officials for Evening Confab

Michigan Water Resources Commission will meet with local officials in Pontiac today to talk over this area's water supply problems.

Some 100 township supervisors, city officials, planning leaders and engineers of Oakland and Macomb Counties are invited.

The session on this area's water problems and possible future sources of supply — such as a pipeline from Lake Huron—will start at 3 p.m. at the Pontiac Motor Division personnel building, lasting into evening hours.

Speakers will include Walter K. Willman, Pontiac City Manager; Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak); L. G. Lenhardt, manager of Detroit Department of Water Supply; and George Schmid, engineer-manager of Southeastern Oakland County Water Authority.

T. Ledyard Blakeman, executive director of Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission, is panel moderator.

The commission met earlier today at Haven Hill Lodge near Highland to conduct other business.

The commission earlier today heard reports from Ford Motor Co. officials, who have voluntarily undertaken a program to cut down pollution of the Rouge river. Gerald E. Eddy, commission chairman, said the company's progress in new treatment methods and manufacturing changes was "very satisfactory."

Milkman Strike Seems Near End

NEW YORK (AP) — An end to the four-day-old milk strike in the New York metropolitan area seemed imminent today when a mediator announced the "most troublesome issues" in the wage-hour dispute had been dissolved.

The nature of the issue resolved was not disclosed.

The strike has cut off fresh milk from about 12 million persons in the New York city area and northern New Jersey. Jospitals and schools have been supplied throughout the walkout.

Thirteen thousand AFL teamsters struck 200 milk plants last Sunday over a union demand for a $15 weekly wage raise and a 35-hour work week. Current wages range from $82 to $125 for a 40-hour week. The companies have offered boosts up to $2.10 a week.

Fund Past Halfway Mark

Workers Told United Effort Welds Community Forces

Carl W. Moyer, general manager of Pontiac Fisher Body Division, told Pontiac Area United Fund campaign workers Wednesday that "this kind of campaign welds together everyone in the community."

Moyer's speech highlighted an optimistic campaign report meeting at which workers learned they were well past the half-way point in the drive to raise $487,200 by Nov. 6.

Pontiac Manufacturers' Association sponsored the noon meal at Pontiac Elks Temple.

Reports from campaign leaders showed $276,734 raised by workers of the industrial, commercial, and geographical division. Another $10,000 has been earmarked for Pontiac from receipts in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area; sending the total contributions thus far reported beyond $286,000.

Telling why corporations and people support the United Fund, Moyer pointed out that the one-for-all campaign has labor, management, business and professions working together for a common goal.

"And this spirit of 'one-ness' is good for any community," he said.

Among the United Fund's good points, he said, are its careful "budget hearings" for agencies led by reputable public-spirited citizens, which assure the giver that his money will be well used.

"The contributor knows," he said, "that through this single gift the homeless child will find security and love, the sick will be healed, the handicapped restored to useful activity.

"He knows families will be helped over hard spots, and youth guided in healthy, wholesome paths."

Business, he said, feels the

Costello Freed at Milan Prison

Gambler Faces Possible Deportation After Term for Contempt in Quiz

MILAN (UP)—Gambler Frank Costello drove to freedom from the federal prison here today in a new black Cadillac limousine but his freedom may be short-lived.

He still faces civil and criminal charges of income tax evasion and denaturalization proceedings that may send him back to his native Italy.

Costello was released after serving 12 months of an 18-month sentence for contempt of Congress.

Tanned and dapper in a gray pin-striped suit and homburg hat, Costello climbed into the rear seat of the car without a smile. A chauffeur and three other persons were waiting for him, one of whom was identified as his wife.

The car rolled through the prison gates and stopped when a horde of newsmen and photographers nearly blocked the exit to the main highway. Rolling down his window, Costello stuck his head out and said quietly to reporters:

"Please leave me alone."

The car drove on as the newsmen scrambled for their own vehicles in an attempt to follow him.

Costello was convicted and put behind bars after refusing to testify before the Senate Crime Committee of Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) in 1951.

6,113 Americans Tortured, Slain by Communists

Documents List 29,815 of All Nations Probably Massacred in Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—A documented Army report on ghastly atrocities by the Communists in the Korean War drew a swift demand today from Capitol Hill for "drastic punitive action."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont), a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, announced he is calling for a report from the U. S. delegation to the United Nations on "what steps are being taken to see that these brutalities do not go unpunished."

Another member of the committee, Sen. Green (D-RI), said he thought "President Eisenhower very well might instruct the U. S. delegation to take this up with the U. N."

Mansfield said "the sickening evidence the Army has disclosed that American troops were burned alive by their Communist captors and subjected to fiendish cruelties calls certainly for drastic punitive action. I think it calls for United Nations handling, and I am writing to Ambassador Lodge at the U. N. today."

Henry Cabot Lodge is chief of the U. S. delegation with the rank of ambassador.

Sen. Hunt (D-Wyo), member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he felt the Army had acted properly in making the atrocity reports public at this time.

"I think the matter should be called to the attention of the proper Senate committee and to the United Nations, and I think the U. N. should vote a resolution of condemnation," he stated.

The Army report on "all the sickening details of horror" said probably 6,113 Americans died a tortured death.

A total of 29,815 "probable" atrocity victims of all nationalities was listed.

The statistics weren't new. They closely corresponded to an official estimate of 6,000 released after Col. James M. Hanley of a war crimes investigation unit first brought mass Red atrocities to public notice in November 1951.

But in the Army's new report,

Sets Ballot Dates for Senate Post

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today tentatively set dates for a special primary and election to choose a successor to the late Sen. Felix H. H. Flynn of Cadillac.

Williams telegraphed the clerks of the seven counties in the 27th senatorial district to disclose his intentions and ask them to file objections or suggestions by Saturday.

Birmingham to Be 2nd City With Direct Dial Service

Birmingham will become the second community in the nation to get direct dialing phone service to many United States cities, Michigan Bell Telephone Co. announced today.

Users in the community will be able to dial direct some 13,000,000 phones in 14 cities when the service begins Nov. 20.

Among the cities at the fingertips will be New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago, Baltimore, San Francisco, Milwaukee, Newark, Washington, D. C., Sacramento, Oakland, and New Haven, Conn.

The first city to get the service was Englewood, N. J., two years ago. Birmingham was chosen to be the second because the Detroit central office had adaptable equipment and because the Birmingham area had a high —per capita—number of toll calls placed.

The company said that long-distance dialing is made possible by a "4A toll crossbar machine." One of them has been installed in the Detroit office.

When a call has been dialed the signal is funneled into the machine which automatically finds an available circuit and sends the call out on the wires to the city and the phone designated.

The 4A machine also helps Michigan Bell operators dial numbers in other cities direct. It also helps guide calls from Michigan operators to telephones in Detroit, Lansing, Saginaw, Flint, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Grand Rapids, Pontiac,

School Parties, Teen Dances, Contests Will Help Celebrate Halloween in City

Elementary school parties and teen-age dances will supplement two prize-giving contests on this year's Pontiac agenda for Halloween observance.

Junior and senior high school students are already engaged in decorating store windows in a Halloween window painting contest sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department.

Cash prizes will be awarded Oct. 31 to the first four winners in both senior and junior high school divisions.

For the third straight year a mystery treat contest is planned, with prizes going to students whose names are selected by drawing and are found at home by a specified time Halloween night. Names of all school pupils are compiled for this event.

Senior high school students must be home by 10:45 p.m., junior high youth by 10:30 p.m. and elementary school children by 9 p.m.

First prizes will be a watch in the two upper divisions, with a bicycle going to the grade school winner. A second prize also will be given in each division.

This year, for the first time, an additional winner will be chosen for each school. Winners will be contacted by phone, or car, if they have no phone.

The mystery treat contest is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Board of Education and Parks and Recreation Department.

The "Meet 'n' Treat" hour for Halloween "begging" has been set for from 6 to 7 p.m. by recreation department officials, so the youngsters can take part in festivities planned for later in the evening.

A departure from the regular Halloween begging has been planned by young people from 14 Pontiac area churches.

They will be "Begging for a Needy World" from 5 to 8 p.m.

Those who wish to donate warm clothing to be sent to Korea, Germany and Greece are asked to have their bundles ready and on the porch.

Expect 7,000 Youngsters at Halloween Festivities in Birmingham Saturday

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Plans are falling into line, as will almost 7,000 youngsters, for Birmingham's 17th annual Halloween parade and party Saturday night, where there will be fun, food and prizes for all school ages. An estimated 6,300 children attended last year's party.

More food lines, more food, more prizes, more entertainment have been provided.

In addition, the line of march for the parade has been switched. Lines will still form at Hill School between 7 and 7:30 p.m., but the new route will see the costume-bedecked youngsters follow Chester north to Maple, winding east to Woodward and south on Woodward to the food lines near Merrill.

Prizes — 550 of them — will be awarded at the time of the parade.

Ten food lines — an increase of four—are expected to relieve congestion when passing out the hot dogs, doughnuts and cider. A new feature near the food area will be entertainment for adults and smaller children provided by a comic band and a balloon artist.

Festivities will continue for individual age groups immediately following this. One hour of movies including a feature technicolor film, will begin at 8:15 at the Community House for fourth through sixth graders, while junior high students will have their party from 8:30-11 p.m. at Barnum School.

After the passing of the parade and until 9:15, a shuttle bus will transport the high school group to Birmingham High for an evening's entertainment lasting until midnight.

Toni Currier and his orchestra will provide music and a feature film will run continuously in the Little Theater. Refreshments will also be provided.

All Birmingham children have received notices and ticket information in school. Children living in Birmingham who attend private schools outside the city may obtain tickets, necessary for food and entertainment, either at the Community House or the YMCA.

Roland Reese, chairman of the party committee, spoke highly of the changes which shorten the line of march and put the parade in the center of town, in a well lighted area.

He added that the Halloween parties are supported and made possible by merchants, business and professional men of the town.

Between 400-500 adults participated in plans for the party, he said, including the recreation board, city and school personnel, the police and fire departments, all the service clubs and PTA groups, and many others.

6,113 GIs Victims of Red Atrocities

what survivors had to say was grim reading. For instance:

"One of the boys had no head; it seemed to have been mashed or beaten and was laying all over the road . . . The other GI had his eyes gouged out, and nothing remained where his eyes were except holes."

The report indicated most of the atrocities occurred in the first year of the war when the North Koreans invaded South Korea. There was a smaller upsurge when the Chinese entered the war and hurled the Allies back from the region of the Yalu River.

The Chinese were charged with 27.3 per cent, the North Koreans with almost all the rest.

The Army said, "It is an interesting fact that the North Korean Peoples Army slaughtered most civilians during September 1950. Of these, 14,602 or 84.6 per cent were slain in the last four days of the month."

That included the "Taejon massacre," where the Reds were said to have killed the occupants of the South Korean city in batches of hundreds at a time — among them 42 Americans.

What was not spelled out in the Army's report was the reason for issuing the detailed account at this time.

There were clues to the Army's reason in a statement by Secretary Robert T. Stevens which accompanied the text.

He said releasing details of such "cold-blooded . . . torture and murder . . . is one of the best answers that can be given to anyone who questions the need for strong military defenses."

And he said also:

"It exposes the enemy for what he is. All of the sickening detail of horror and calculated brutality spells out the fact that we cannot relax our defense efforts while such threats of free peoples exist."

A "fact sheet" based on the report is being furnished all commanders for use in troop discussion sessions.

The Army has had the affidavits, investigation findings and pictures in its possession since the early days of the Korean War. But policy makers had debated whether the ghastly details — especially the pictures — should be released because of the impact on relatives of men reported dead or missing.

Officials know that pictures of dead and wounded men often are mistakenly identified by grief-stricken relatives. No names were used, of course.

A massacre: "The captives were then escorted to a nearby orchard where their boots and dogtags were removed and all their personal property confiscated. The prisoners' hands were tied behind them with either wire or their own bootlaces. For two days they were kept hidden in ravines during the day and forced to march at night. Suddenly on the afternoon of 17 August 1950, without warning, their North Korean guards opened fire upon these bound victims and then left the scene. Thirty-four American soldiers were slaughtered in this massacre."

The Seoul-Pyongyang death march: "On 26 September 1950, Korea added its counterpart to the infamous Bataan death march involving approximately 376 American prisoners of war. Only 296 survivors completed this two-week horror hike."

* * *

The bamboo spear case: "During December 1950, a South Korean patrol discovered the bodies of five American airmen near Muju. It was apparent from the condition of the remains that the victims had been subjected to fiendish torture, the flesh being perforated with multiple punctures, apparently inflicted by sharpened sticks or bamboo spears."

Wabeek Group Sponsors Plan

Quadrant Parking Topic Before Officials, Public on November 5

BIRMINGHAM—Nov. 5 has been confirmed as the date for an open meeting of the City Commission and members of the Wabeek-Jacobson group sponsoring off-street parking plans for the northwest quadrant of the city.

The meeting will be unique in that although a public meeting, members of the audience will be asked not to participate.

Commissioners expressed the feeling Monday that they wanted to avoid closed committee sessions on the parking problem, but also wanted to avoid long public hearings on the subject at this early stage.

It will be held at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Building. Mayor Ralph Main said the date was selected to allow a maximum of commissioners and Wabeek-Jacobson officials to be present, but Commissioner Lance Minor and William Yaw of the Wabeek Corp. will be unable to attend.

bringing the school authorities in on the matter and had hoped Miller would assist them in the investigation so that it would not be necessary.

The board, Greene and detectives are reported to have told Miller that the only way he could assure them that he was a good security risk was to deny the party and reveal his associates.

He has consistently refused, they said, to do this.

Miller, today told the Pontiac Press that despite the fact that he has been served with a subpoena to appear before the Un-American Activities Committee because he was accused of Communist affiliations, he was not and had not been a Communist.

"I was a member of the Progressive Party in Arizona. For the three years I have been in Michigan I have had no political activity," he declared.

Tracing his 31 years, Miller said he left Detroit where he was born to live in Arizona in 1939 due to ill health. He graduated from high school there and began college at the University of Arizona. He enlisted in the Marines, went into Saipan on H-Hour, D-Day and was wounded.

"Upon my release I went back to finish my education. I received my masters at the university and began to teach social studies. My association with the Progressive Party was prior to and following the war years," he said.

Miller said he was beginning to wonder what the Bill of Rights meant and the guarantees of the Constitution.

"Where the congressional committees get their information, they refuse to say. I went into the war because I hated fascism and thought it was my duty to help stamp it out. Now I am called a Communist."

Miller was requested to submit his resignation from the Clarkston school staff following a two-month study and investigation by the Clarkston Community Board of Education and the State Police.

"I have heard no one call Einstein a Communist, but he has said that anyone who answers the queries put to them on this business is destroying the meaning of the Constitution."

Miller is the father of a three-year-old daughter and a four-week-old son.

He plans to return immediately to his home in Phoenix, Ariz., but says he will return for the hearing in January to Detroit.

"This thing is a mess. How it is going to get straightened out I do not know," he said.

UF Torch Drive Collects Half in First Week

BIRMINGHAM — Gathering in 49.8 per cent of their $152,718 goal in the first week, the United Foundation Torch Drive in the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin area is off to a flying start in its efforts to help support 150 health and welfare activities.

According to Everell E. Fisher, campaign chairman, $75,993 has been contributed.

"The bulk of the present returns represents partial results of the business and industry solicitation and special assignments," Fisher annouced.

"Few reports have yet been made by residential solicitors, and of course the final success of the drive hinges largely on their efforts."

Fisher urged solicitors to report their contributions as rapidly as possible. He pointed out that the United Foundation drive is based on a short-range "give-once-for-all" principle, largely eliminating the expense and nuisance of scores of drives throughout the year.

Birmingham Job May Go to Reese

Dondero Reports Choice for Postal Appointment to Be Revealed Soon

Congressman George A. Dondero has reported that an acting postmaster for Birmingham probably will be appointed within the next two weeks.

The appointment will fill the post that has been left vacant since the dismissal of Bernard E. Fowler, who had served as postmaster since 1948.

Dondero did not disclose names of possible choices, but many observers in Oakland County believe that Roland W. Reese of 1847 Webster, Birmingham, will get the nod.

Reese, a member of the Birmingham Recreation Board and former member of the Board of Education, has resided in Birmingham since 1930 and was last employed as a sales and service manager in an automobile dealership.

Fowler was dismissed earlier this month.

Fund Drive Workers Report on Progress

United Fund is the only logical way to take care of the community's needs. The united drive saves time, money, and confusion, he added.

"The corporation and its employees benefit," he said, "because employees gain a feeling of security from knowing an agency is available to help if they hit rough spots in life."

Frank S. Lyndall, commercial division chairman, presided at the luncheon. Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein of Temple Beth Jacob gave the invocation and benediction.

Mayor Arthur J. Law, campaign chairman, thanked campaign chairmen, the United Fund staff and "all of you who have given your time and effort" towards the drive's success.

"There's no doubt we'll exceed our quota," he said, "and provide the means so badly needed for these 53 agencies to do their work."

Lyndall agreed that "we have every right to be encouraged—let's keep our shoulders to the wheel!"

Earl Maxwell, industrial division chairman, reported his division's corporations and employees have raised $214,000 to date.

A geographical division report from Mrs. E. L. Bradley, chairman, showed house-to-house canvassers have raised $3,000 in Pontiac; $900 in Pontiac Township; and $1,354 in Waterford.

Lyndall introduced commercial division group chairmen, who reported each group's progress. The total came to $55,780 plus $1,700 from Waterford businesses.

Mental Health Session Slated for Motor City

LANSING (UP)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams anounced Wednesday that the Council of State Governments has set a national conference on mental health problems for Detroit next Feb. 8-9.

Discharge Woman After Auto Crash

Mrs. Thelma Gent, 30, of 1838 Birmingham Blvd., Birmingham, was released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after X-rays following an auto accident on Twelve Mile Road in Southfield Township Wednesday, according to Michigan State Police of the Redford post.

Mrs. Gent was driving west on Twelve Mile Road when her auto collided with an eastbound car driven by Arthur C. Bensonen, 33, of 1299 Lenore, Detroit, as Mrs. Gent was attempting to pass another vehicle, troopers said.

Also injured was Bensonen's wife, Mary, 34, who was treated at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital in Detroit for body bruises.

Weaker Sex Really Means Smarter Sex

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Weaker sex?

Rubbish! says Dr. William G. Leaman Jr., Philadelphia heart specialist, who stunned Oklahoma Clinical Society delegates (mostly male) with the bold statement:

"Women are smarter than men!"

• • •

This weaker sex "myth," he said, just permits the ladies to live a less exerting life and outlive their male counterparts by an average of six to seven years.

"The man beyond 50 can't resist the temptation to shovel snow," said Leaman. "Men like to show off, to prove they are big and strong."

He said by keeping alive the weaker sex idea, women don't have to overexert themselves to prove they still have their old vim and vigor.

• • •

It is extremely rare, he said, to make a diagnosis of heart disease in a woman under 40 who has neither high blood pressure nor diabetes. However, when a woman does have the same heart ailment as a man, she tolerates it better.

Added proof to explode the age-old myth of female weakness was offered.

"Women can lose more blood.

• • •

"They can go into a profession and hold their own provided men don't give them an inferiority complex.

"They can hold down a job, take care of a home and family, and, at the same time, guard the supposedly stronger male."

As a finale, Dr. Leaman added: "It is a woman's world if she wants to admit it and claim it. But perhaps she would be unwise to do so."

Dr. Leaman is chairman of the department of medicine at the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania.

New Infirmary Program

It is heartening to read of the program of improvement planned at Oakland County Infirmary by its new manager, Howard R. Estes of Birmingham.

Since he took over the post in July, Mr. Estes has been aware that there has been criticism of conditions at the institution on Telegraph Road. In his own words, housekeeping could be improved and he believes that the 246 patients deserve more than mere housing, food and medical care.

To that end he is developing a program aimed at making the patients' lives happier as well as improving the administrative setup. With about 25 per cent of the patients able and anxious for something to do, Estes hopes to start teaching them useful handcrafts.

The plan is to start this work with instructions in weaving and woodworking, branch out later into jewelry and leather craft and to help the patients sell what they make.

Besides seeking volunteers to give that instruction, Manager Estes urges persons who have the time to call on patients who never have visitors. A visit from someone "outside," he says, can do more than anything else to cheer the forgotten ones.

We believe there is much merit in this program. It promises patients that friendly interest in their welfare and happiness so often lacking in such institutions.

Believing that, we bespeak both official and public support for the new manager's plan to make the infirmary a happier home for all its patients.

Another Tax Loophole

Delaware's Republican Senator Williams who has a reputation for ferreting out tax abuses, has uncovered another tax leak he believes needs plugging.

According to the Senator, about 25,000 Federal employes are dodging part of their income taxes because the law bars garnishment of their salaries. These workers are filing the income tax returns required and the withholding tax is being deducted from their pay checks.

But many whose returns show they owe still more to the Treasury, simply aren't paying and the Government can't do anything about it.

Existing law makes it possible for the Government to compel private employes to pay their income taxes in full. If there is any possible excuse for special regulations permitting Federal employes to dodge part of their tax burden, we've never heard of it.

Senator Williams has done us all a service by pointing out this defect in Civil Service law which Congress should lose no time in correcting.

Red Tactics Unchanged

No one should have been surprised by the attitude of the Communists which threatens the preliminary peace talks at Panmunjom.

From the outset it was apparent that the Reds intended to resort to the tactics of delay which have marked every meeting since the beginning of truce talks two years ago.

They knew, for example, that our special Ambassador Dean's authority is limited. He is empowered only to agree with them on administrative matters, time and place of the political conference called for by the truce.

Yet, with accustomed stubbornness, enemy representatives demanded inclusion of neutral Nations at the peace table. This is opposed by our Government and the United Nations, though it has been intimated that there could be later discussion of that issue.

Ambassador Dean is reported hopeful that agreement can be hammered out and a conference held. But so far the Reds have shown no sign that they are willing to go into such a conference except on their own terms.

Elsewhere at Panmunjom it looks as though the Reds are seeking a face saving way out of "Operation Persuasion." Of 921 prisoners interviewed, only 20, a little over two per cent have asked to go home. With the neutral commission refusing to use force on reluctant prisoners, the whole proceedings seem hopelessly stalled.

What all this seems to add up to is indefinite delay of the peace originally scheduled for October 28. Until some progress is made or the Communists show an entirely different attitude, it would be only wishful thinking to expect the path to Korean peace will be anything but long and difficult.

Television: A form of air entertainment that's getting more burlesquey than burlesque.

Enlistments are keeping down the number of men inducted through local draft boards. And the general spirit under which the inductees leave is much different since the Korean shooting stopped. The 12 men who comprised the Pontiac City quota (after enlistments) for October left Wednesday, and had who expressed the same sentiments in regard to the gifts.

Loyalty to the home team in next Saturday's game is shown by a big majority of the 108 still remaining in the Man About Town football contest, their predictions being: Michigan, 90; Pennsylvania, 17; tie game, 1.

Her two boys and two girls were much larger at birth than the three boys and girl at Lansing. The Rosebush babies are making normal progress in growth and development, but just now are going through a siege of the flu.

Commends Howard Estes in His Effort to Improve County Infirmary Conditions

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature).

I have read in the paper of prison strikes for meat at least twice a day and their constant demands. They are in prison through their vile living and defiance of laws, to protect the law abiding citizens.

I therefore take my hat off to Rep. Howard R. Estes for his worthwhile interest in deserving, unfortunate county charges.

These people who through bank failures; OPA and rent controls when upkeep and taxes were steadily rising lost what they had set aside for their later days, are surely deserving, much, much more so than prison inmates.

I would like to compliment the Press for the fine cartoon, "The Free Man," which appeared in Saturday's paper. The old proverb, "One picture is worth 10,000 words," certainly is true.

The cartoon not only applies to the individual but to the world at large, for sin in universal.

Sickening Atrocity Report Demands U. N. Ostracize Barbaric Red Nations

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The terrible facts are out at last. No amount of glossing over by the apologists for Red China and the Communists in this country and in Europe now can hide the awful story of torture and barbarism in Korea which has been made public by the U. S. Army.

For now it is disclosed that 6,113 Americans were the victims of indescribable atrocities and that hope has been abandoned for nearly all the 7,955 American boys listed as missing in Korea.

The Army report, prepared last spring, has been suppressed since that time so as not to create any new incidents which might interfere with the return of surviving American prisoners.

About 250 Communist prisoners, known to have engaged in the atrocities, were held to the last by the U. N. side but now have been released to the Communist side or to the neutral commission and hence are beyond the reach of any American instrument of justice.

The Army report is replete with case histories and sickening photographs. Entirely apart from the 6,113 American victims, there were 23,702 other persons —nearly all Koreans — against whom atrocities were committed.

The United States government has begun to tell the story to the whole world. For nothing apparently can be done to punish the individuals who were the war criminals.

The only thing that can be accomplished now is to hold the Peiping and North Korean and Moscow governments responsible for the acts committed by their agents in North Korea under whose orders the disarmed U. N. soldiers were so brutally treated.

This means more than merely condemning the war criminals by a resolution of the U. N. For the time has come to ostracize as barbaric and uncivilized the governments of Red China, Soviet Russia and North Korea.

Diplomatic relations with such governments, if carried on for reasons of expediency, could only mean that the free governments would be treating them as equals — indifferent to the crimes committed.

Sooner or later the United Nations will have to take a stand on the report which has been presented by the U. S. Army to the U. N. Command.

* * *

For Soviet Russia publicly admitted last spring that — in contravention of the 1950 resolutions of the U. N. which called on all member nations to refrain from giving aid to the aggressors in Korea — the Communist regime in Moscow has sent munitions and supplies and individual officers to help the Reds in North Korea carry on war against the U. N. itself.

* * *

This constitutes such a breach of faith as to amount to treason against the U. N., and hence many Americans are wondering why the Soviet government hasn't been tried and expelled before this from the U. N.

It will be recalled that the League of Nations once had the temerity to expel the Soviets.

There are many Americans who have been told that the U. N. constitutes the hope of the world for peace and that it is a means of enforcing collective security.

But that organization thus far has failed to purge itself of governments which violate the spirit of the charter and ignore its resolutions.

There is no way, of course, short of war to compel physical compliance, so the only means left is moral force.

But moral force takes considerable courage, too. In the present sequence of events, moral force would be exerted if the members of the U. N. examined the evidence furnished by the U. S. Army concerning atrocities in Korea and condemned the governments responsible for those brutal and barbaric acts.

Then it would follow logically that no nation would be admitted to the U. N. which had not redressed the wrong done and meted out punishment to the war criminals.

Until and unless such steps satisfactory to the U. N. were taken, any government whose troops or agents committed the crimes in Korea would be barred from the U. N.

This would be an example of collective resistance to aggression which the whole world would understand.

It would awaken among the peoples behind the Iron Curtain, who are themselves the victims of brutality, a hope that liberation for them could not long be postponed.

Certainly if the peoples now under Communist rule knew that the rest of the world would not recognize such uncivilized governments, this would form a rallying cry for the overthrow of those governments.

The report on Korean atrocities merely confirms the belief that to attempt to negotiate with a gangster government is as useless as it is to make deals with gangsters in the underworld of our American cities.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Urges All Not to Worry Over Petty Aches, Pains

Read the 13th Chapter of Numbers, in the Bible, and you'll find that Charles belongs with the 10 spies who were negative thinkers. You can't be brave and forgetful of your petty aches or pains until you focus on big causes and eternal projects. Worry warts advertise the fact that they are wrapped up in themselves.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"All his life he has complained," his brother informed me. "I can never remember hearing him say he felt good.

"It's either his ulcer or his hernia or his back or his kidneys or something else that is bothering him.

"Why, he has spent a fortune on doctor bills, most of which I am positive were wholly unnecessary. But still he coddles himself and frets over his health.

"Dr. Crane, why do people worship themselves to such a degree that they constantly take inventory of their health? Why don't they forget themselves and live like a lion instead of a timid sheep."

Millions of people get their only exercise jumping to false conclusions about their health.

Every morning they mentally

And, sure enough, they are bound to find some slight pain somewhere, for you can't look for pain without ultimately locating some minor twinge.

But such a hypochondriac then snatches at it, and figuratively exclaims "That's it! I knew I had cancer!"

So he runs to a physician for a check-up. But no sooner is he reassured that he hasn't cancer, then he decides he has heart trouble or gall stones, etc.

Such people are simply negative thinkers. They have formed the bad habit of looking for illness or evil, instead of health and goodness.

They are like the 10 spies among the 12 whom Moses sent to survey the Promised Land.

When they returned, all 12 admitted that it was truly a land that flowed with milk and honey.

But 10 of them were negative thinkers and cowardly, so they vetoed any advance into the Promised Land. They said giants dwelt therein and the Israelites were as grasshoppers compared to them.

But Caleb and Joshua urged an immediate attack, for they were bold, positive thinkers and knew God would sustain them.

But the 10 cowardly spies prevailed and led a revolt against Moses. So God made them wander around for 40 years in the wilderness till these cowardly folks died off.

Then Joshua and Caleb had their chance to invade, which they did and most successfully.

If you are worrying about your health, stop it. You're going to die, anyway, some day.

And if you haven't enough external duties to occupy your attention in good works, maybe it would be better if you died quickly and let positive thinkers take your place.

If you want to quit being such cowards about your health, then raise your sights and realize that there are big projects in this world far more important than yourself.

Become active in the church. Sponsor a missionary to Africa. Or get behind a Boy Scout troop. Or teach a Bible class. Or join the Compliment Club.

For when you link up with great causes, you haven't time to worship each morning at the shrine of your own ego. And your health will then improve.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR (BUGS) BAER
(International News Service)

The Trieste hassel has been on the U.N. back-burners since they wrote the dyseptic's cook book. Back in 196 the uptown Jugoslavs matriculated at the complaint window.

Everybody said it was a lovely day. With India abstaining.

The Security Council of the U.N. emergency clinic said, "Things are tough enough without stirring up more peace."

The downtown Italians of Trieste marched past some important buildings. The Jugoslavs worked up a modern brand of Tito-Itarian government.

This complicated neighborliness has been spindled on the agenda seven years. It's as touchy as loose gold leaf.

Old Uncle Sam is in the middle again like an idiot on a piccolo. It's tougher than midnight for Cinderella.

When Lincoln said you can't please all the people all of the time he meant the ones who spoke English only.

Now, we're trying it with 68 different languages through interpreters who listen with an accent.

The best we can get is the worse of it. Give the decision to "A" and what happens? Why "B" hates you right down to the ground and six more feet.

Give the duke to "B" and then "A" turns on you like an ingrown hair under a tight collarband.

Blessed be the peace-maker for he turneth the other cheek in the slapping contest.

Just A Smile

Up and Down

A bumptious fellow was giving evidence in a police court.

"You say you stood up?" asked the magistrate.

"I said," retorted the conceited one, "that I stood. If one stands one must stand up. There's no other way of standing."

"Oh, isn't there?" replied the magistrate. "Pay $10 for contempt of court, and . . . stand down!"

Making Sure

An employer, leaving his office, was instructing his new secretary what to say if anyone called while he was out.

"I may be back this afternoon" he told her. "And then again, I may not."

The girl nodded brightly.

Operation for Heel Spur Should Be Early, So Says Dr. Brady in Plain Language

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

A doctor of the highest standing writes:

"I believe that the late Dr. A. E. Hertzler conclusively showed that most of the painful heels are cause not by spines" (otherwise called bony spurs) "but by bursitis.

Treating the bursitis cures the trouble. The surgeon who removes the spine (spur) inadvertently removes the bursa also, as a rule."

A bursa is a wee sac, pad or cushion, composed of tough fibrous tissue, containing a few drops of viscid fluid, placed usually between a tendon and the bony prominence over which the tendon slides—to lessen friction.

There are some scores of bursae in the body, but one becomes aware of a bursa only when the pesky thing happens to be inflamed in consequence of injury, pressure, strain, or infection;

For instance, housemaid's knee (prepatellar bursitis) and miner's elbow—these are characterized by pain; whereas subacromial (shoulder) bursitis is characterized by no swelling and exquisite pain—but let's change the subject—

The spurs, spines, exostoses, osteophytes, as these outgrowths on the heel bone (os calcis) are variously known, are demonstrable by Xray and in some cases, as Hertzler stated, spontaneously disappear under conservative treatment, which means a week of absolute rest with (1) foot and ankle in adhesive strap splint or (2) hot applications or (3) diathermy.

If pain and disability continue after a week of such treatment, surgical removal of the spur and the bursa is in order for prompt and complete recovery.

(Note for any idiot who doesn't understand two and three syllable words: The operation for painful heel is less painful, less risky and less costly than the suffering and disability the trouble generally causes if the operation is put off.)

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Big 3 May Ask Rebuke of Israel

Probably Will Call for U. N. Scolding for Arab Killings on Border

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Western Big Three were reported ready today to urge a U.N. Security Council rebuke against Israel for the recent border killings in an adjoining Arab village, and to call for more U.N. "watchdogs" in the troubled area.

Israel Chief Delegate Abba S. Eban also served notice he intends to go over the whole Middle East security question before the council today. Eban accused the Arab states last night of conniving to keep up tension in Palestine.

* * *

Western sources said Britain, France and the United States would submit a resolution to the council late today, denouncing the armed Israeli raid on the Jordan village of Kibya which cost 53 Arab lives. They said the resolution also would call for more truce supervisors in Palestine.

The reported plan to increase the truce supervisors brought praise from the Arabs and sharp criticism from Israel.

* * *

Eban said such a program would be "bereft of statesmanship and wisdom." He declared the council was discussing the entire threat to peace in the Middle East and suggested it would do well to appeal to both sides to respect the 199 armistice agreements.

He took issue with the report of Maj. Gen. Vagn Bennike, chief U.N. truce supervisor, that "well-trained Israeli" soldiers were involved in the Kibya attack. The Israeli delegate contended that the attack was made by civilians.

* * *

Eban had no comment on the announceent that U.S. aid to Israel is being resumed as a result of the latter's agreement to halt work on a Jordan River project strenuously opposed by Syria. But he labeled "frivolous" the U. S. Pinpointing of the Syrian complaint plaint as the reason for suspending aid in the first place.

With a record of 118,000 vehicles in one day, the Washington, D. C. Highway Bridge over the Potomac is considered the busiest in the world.

HURON at SAGINAW

YOUNG INVENTOR—Ted Erickson, 14, of Arlington, Va., isn't preparing for the Soapbox Derby, but he is the builder of this "lawn-mower limousine." Ted built the machine from boards, a nail keg, wheels from a coaster wagon, ropes and wood. It is powered by a one-and-a-half horsepower engine. Although his trial run was interrupted by police, because he was too young to drive, Ted plans to make some changes and sell the vehicle.

Movie Football Star Is Played by Elroy Hirsch

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Hollywood Women's Press Club threw an elegant cocktail buffet. None of the gals wore slacks, all the men kept on their coats and among the many movie stars present was a new hero of the screen, Mr. Elroy Hirsch.

For clarification and further identification, this new movie star and one of the doggondest pass-catching ends in professional football are one and the same person—Elroy, better known as Crazylegs Hirsch, of the Los Angeles Rams.

Yes, the talented former Wisconsin and Michigan college idol is also a legitimate film personality, or will be as soon as his life story, a stirring account called "Cazylegs," hits the theaters.

Aside from Elroy's excellent acting performance and the actual game shots shown on a wide screen, the most startling fact about the picture is that the producer-writer, Hall Bartlett, fractured Hollywood precedent in casting it

He used the real hero, and a real football player—Crazylegs—instead of engaging, say, Clark Gable or Betty Grable made up to look like Elroy. Bartlett's method just isn't done in gay Hollywood.

Crasylegs and Ruth, the pretty little high school sweetheart he married back in their hometown of Wausau, Wis.—just like in the picture—said it was their debut to movieland society.

State Plans to Widen Lansing-Flint Road

LANSING (AP)—Harry C. Coons, deputy state highway commissioner, today confirmed that the department has long-range plans to widen M78 between Lansing and Flint to four lanes.

The plans, he said, call for a 60-foot roadway, including a dividing boulevard. A route study has been completed, but detailed plans are not completed.

Coons said the department is buying an occasional piece of property along the needed right-of-way on the basis of the preliminary plans. He added, however, there was no concerted drive to buy up all the right-of-way needed at this time.

Reports that the widening was to be completed by 1955 were discounted. Coons said no definite date had even been set for starting the project.

Britain Gets Go-Ahead for Talks on Trieste

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Conservative government studied preliminary arrangements for a five-power conference on Trieste today after winning a house of commons vote of approval for its handling of the explosive issue.

Despite opposition charges of bungling, Prime Minister Churchill's forces copped a 28-vote majority on the ballot, taken last night at the close of a lengthy debate. The vote was 296 to 268.

The brothers, who had pleaded guilty, were arrested by Kalamazoo County officers Sept. 27 near Richland.

Williams to Ask Longer Benefits

Will Urge Extension of Jobless Payments to 26 Weeks

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—Gov. Williams said last night he would urge legislation increasing the unemployment compensation from 20 weeks to 26 weeks in 1954.

The governor vetoed a bill last spring, which had been approved by the Republican-dominated Legislature, providing for a 26-week maximum benefit period and changes in collections for the unemployment fund by employers.

He contended that the measure benefitted employers more than the workers.

The governor suggested that the Legislature pass a separate bill extending the benefit period early in 1954, since both Republicans and Democrats agree on its necessity.

He added that he thought a "package bill" could be presented that would satisfy labor, management and the state. The "package" he said would increase weekly benefit payments and "provide relief for deserving employers."

However, the governor said, this should not interfere with a separate bill extending the benefit period. He said, the Legislature could draw up a bill increasing the benefit payments, see what effect it has on the compensation fund, and then grant employers whatever relied is possible.

Rochester OKs Platting Plans

Council Moves to Build Sewer; Sets Aside Funds for Stream Project

ROCHESTER — Village councilmen here Monday night approved platting plans for Brentwood Heights subdivision and resolved to construct a sewer trunk and lateral lines in the area bounded by Alice and Helen streets.

Cost of the 814-foot line was estimated at $2,600.

The lawmakers were told that three residents of the Paint Creek area, who had earlier objected to changing the course of the stream, would withdraw objections if the council planned to build a civic center on the site.

Village Manager Robert Slone reported on plans for the project to date and council members voted to set aside $6,000 from the improvement fund for work on the project.

In other business, the council authorized Slone to purchase a new police car for the village. One of the village's cars was wrecked recently in an accident.

Auto Smashes Into Rear of Detroiters' Car; All Taken to Hospital

A Detroit couple, their son, and two Pontiac men were injured when their autos collided Wednesday and rolled over on U.S.24 one-half mile south of Fifteen Mile road in Southfield Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Irene Vogan, 33, of 13735 Greydale, Detroit, was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with back injuries. She is reported in good condition today.

Mrs. Vogan was riding with her husband Ralph, 34, when their auto was struck from the rear by a car driven by R. D. Broughton, 34 of 61 Clovese St., deputies said.

Vogan and his son George, 13, were treated for bruises. Broughton and a passenger with him, Frank Armster, 23, of 363 Howard McNeill St., were treated for rib fractures. All were taken to Pontiac General Hospital.

Broughton told deputies his car was side-swiped by another auto, causing him to lose control and smash into the rear of Vogan's car. Both autos were southbound on U.S. 24.

Pair Arraigned in $50,000 Theft

Trenton Couple Is Mute to Charge of Possessing Goods Stolen Here

A Trenton couple, arrested by FBI agents yesterday in connection with the theft of $50,000 worth of cigarettes and household articles from a Pontiac truck terminal, stood mute when arraigned in Detroit.

The pair, Mr. and Mrs. William LaForest, appeared yesterday afternoon before Federal Judge Thomas P. Thornton on a charge of possessing stolen goods. They were released on personal bonds, and no date was set for the trial.

The office of F. H. McIntire, special agent in charge of the Detroit FBI Headquarters, said a search of the couple's farm near Trenton led to the recovery of 14 cases of cigarettes and household articles identified as part of the robbery loot.

A truck-trailer containing 540 cases of cigarettes, floor heaters, ironing boards and a table and chairs was stolen in Pontiac on Monday night and later found empty near Flat Rock.

A Detroiter, identified as Chester Rudzinski, 35, was killed yesterday morning in the vicinity of the abandoned truck when his panel truck crashed while being pursued by FBI agents. The truck contained some of the contraband cigarettes, said agents.

The FBI office reported today that it is pressing the investigation, but failed to elaborate on any details of the inquiry.

JUST SCARED — This terrified lad from a native village near Monrovia, Liberia, can't be blamed for refusing to believe his grotesque visitor is an agent of good will. The costume protects the sprayer from deadly insecticide he uses.

State Adventists Continue Talks

Lead Negotiations With U. S. for Purchase of Percy Jones

WASHINGTON (AP)—The General Conference of the Seventh Day Adventist Church has directed its Michigan Conference to take over negotiations for purchase of Percy Jones General Hospital at Battle Creek.

Dr. G. E. Hutches of Lansing, president of the Michigan Conference, told the General Conference meeting here that exploratory talks with Army and other government agencies already have been held. Others will follow, he said.

The hospital is valued at about $4,000,000. The Army took it over from the Adventists in 1942 and it was once the largest Army medical center, with 1,600 beds. It is now closed.

Hutches said Percy Jones is too large to operate exclusively as a hospital, but the church might use its various units for at least these purposes.

1. A 300-bed hospital.
2. A 12-grade boarding academy.
3. A branch plant of a latfice and lawn furniture industry now being operated at two other Adventist schools in Holly and Cedar Lake, Mich.
4. A public business college for Battle Creek and vicinity.

Hutches also said negotiations are under way for the Adventists to purchase the Battle Creek Sanatorium and Hospital, a private institution adjacent to Percy Jones.

Moscow to Get Variety Store on Red Square

MOSCOW (AP)—Red Square, the scene of communism's greatest spectacles and the site of the Lenin-Stalin tomb, will soon be invaded by bustling women carrying shopping baskets.

Smack across from the gold-spired Kremlin and looking right at the red-and-black marble tomb, the Soviet Union's biggest department store will be opened. Under the Reds, there had been no shops in the square until now.

* * *

Hundreds of men and women are working day and night to get the big store finished by Nov. 1. That is six days before the greatest date in Communist history, the anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution, this year the 36th.

This year, with the great store done, there will be two symbols in Red Square.

One will be the great traditional parade before the Kremlin and the tomb, honoring communism's history.

* * *

And on the other side will be the store, which to many Russians will symbolize Premier Georgi Malenkov's call for the improvement of living standards.

The store building formerly was used for offices. It is vast by Soviet standards, with 473,000 square feet of floor space. (Macy's in New York, for comparison, reports about two million square feet).

Shoppers will be able to buy food, clothing, shoes, fabrics, furs, jewelry, perfumes, radios and bicycles. There will be a snack bar, a post office, a savings bank, theater booking office and places where small articles may be purchased from automatic machines.

$2,000 Cat Awarded to Illinois Woman

ELGIN, Ill. (AP)—Miss Jane Freeman, 21, will get a 7-year-old black Persian cat today and won't have any worries about buying it milk and food.

The cat, Tommy, was owned by Mrs. Lena Ruth Rankin, 70, widow of a Farmer City, Ill., farmer. When she died Aug. 31 she left a $2,000 trust fund for her pet, the income of which was to go to whomever gave Tommy a good home. Several people applied, but Mrs. Rankin's lawyer decided on Miss Freeman, who had asked for Tommy before Mrs. Rankin's will was filed.

Court Allows Writer to Perfect His Appeal

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Film writer Paul Jarrico is free to perfect his appeal from a Superior Court decision that RKO Studio was not obligated to give him screen credit in the picture "The Las Vegas Story."

The District Court of Appeal yesterday denied RKO's motion for dismissal. RKO fired Jarrico after he refused to tell the House Un-American Activities Committee whether he was a member of the Communist party.

Six Whooping Cranes Land at Texas Sanctuary

AUSTWELL, Tex. (AP)—Wildlife officials have proudly announced the arrival of six whooping cranes, including one baby whooper, at their winter refuge on the Texas Gulf Coast.

They are the first of the world's only flock of whooping cranes to arrive at the winter range from their unknown breeding ground somewhere near the Arctic Circle.

Now it will be a constant watch and check for other arrivals. Only 21 whooping cranes flew north from the Arkansas wildlife refuge here last April.

Raccoon Evicted From Cozy Nest Inside Fireplace

DETROIT (AP) — On the outskirts of Detroit animals almost outnumber humans. But because of zoning restrictions they find it difficult to build.

A raccoon, who had entered the E. E. Appelhof home through the chimney to escape a sudden chill outside, had constructed a cozy nest in the fireplace. He had happily settled down for a nap, when Appelhof's dogs found him.

The barking brought Appelhof who evicted the raccoon with a broom.

Bob Considine Says:

Department of State Job No Tea Party for Murphy

NEW YORK (INS) — Assistant Secretary of State obert Murphy, speaking before the Navy League of New York, touched casually on a life (his) which perhaps has no equal for drama in U. S. foreign service annals.

"I am reminded of an episode that occurred in Germany right after the war," he said, after a reference to Frederick the Great. "Coming into Germany, we were able to capture about four hundred tons of German foreign office records which we stored in a castle in Marburg in the Rhineland.

"There we had American and British teams work on these records. About midnight one night a young American assistant of mine was in charge when an American Army truck rolled up and the GI driver explained to my assistant that he had some 'junk' to deliver.

He had come from Eastern Germany, incident to the evacuation of that area by General Patton, and the local Germans had asked our Army authorities to take with them the contents of this GI's truck.

"There were four boxes which held, we later discovered, the earthly remains of Frederick the Great, Frederick Wilhelm, and Field Marshal and Frau Von Hindenburg. The German authorities in Thuringia has asked General Patton to take the relics to the West so that they would not fall into Russian hands."

Mr. Murphy is no stranger to the Navy, as any who remember his submarine trip into North Africa with Gen. Mark Clark — to spike possible French resistance to the landings — will recall. He had a story about that, too:

". . . One occasion of which I was especially proud was helping Captain, now Admiral, Jerauld Wright take command of a British submarine in the Mediterranean.

"The British even rigged up a commission for Jerry, appointing him commander, the first time in history that an American naval officer commanded a British naval vessel.

"The purpose of the mission was to smuggle French General Giraud from Southern France, then occupied by the Germans, to Gibraltar. He refused to go in a British submarine and as there were no American submarines available, this procedure was adopted . . . the mission was most successful.

"I had got to know Jerry Wright in North Africa a little bit before that in a way I would like to describe. He came on another submarine mission with Gen. Mark Clark to the Algerian coast for a secret meeting with French staff officers who had been working with me on the shore preparations for the 1942 landings.

"The party came ashore in four small canvas skiffs late at night with beautifully calm weather. The meetings lasted all day and departure was scheduled for 9 p. m. — This was late in October — to take advantage of the darkness.

"A heavy wind and surf had come up but finally at 4 a. m. we launched Gen. Clark and Jerry through the surf, with Jerry doing the paddling. The heavy wind blew off Jerry's cap and I saw him reach up and grab the cap without ever missing a stroke of the paddle.

"Afterwards, when I saw him at Gibraltar, I asked him why, in the world he bothered about that cap in circumstances which might have cost him his life and he said, 'Hell, that cap cost 48 bucks.'"

As the reader may conclude, a job in the State Department is not necessarily confined to tea and loyalty checks.

Forest Fire Damage Less Here This Year

LANSING (UP) — Forest fire damage was relatively small during Michigan's recent dry weather and fewer acres of woods have been damaged so far this year than were at the same time a year ag o, the State Conservation Department reported today.

The department said the fire hazard has been eliminated in most parts of the state because of recer' rain.

There were 101 fires reported during the last week which destroyed 730 acres of woods and grasslands, the department said.

So far this year, about 7,100 acre have been damaged compared with 7,500 during the first 10 mont of 1952.

Townsend Plan Being Revived

Launch Drive to Bring Old-Age Aid Proposal Before Congress

WASHINGTON — When Congress considers social security matters next session, its members will be asked to give serious controversial proposal for meeting the problems of America's aged.

The proposal is the Townsend Plan for National Insurance, quarreled over by politicians and economists for two decades. It is currently being revived by a rejuvenated lobby of elder citizens.

Today Townsend Plan, Inc., the national organization headed by Dr. Francis E. Townsend, 86-year-old author of the plan, is launching what officials term its "greatest lobbying crusade in two decades" for Congressional action on the proposals.

The Townsend Plan still calls for a two per cent tax on all income over $250 a month. Its revenue would be divided equally among all unemployed persons over 60, widows and dependent children under 18 and the totally blind and disabled.

Proposed changes now being considered would forbid payment of pensions to wives of highly-paid men still working, eliminate the requirement that each beneficiary spend his pension within one month, and permit pensions to all widows.

Organization officials say that during the last session they were able to induce 163 members of the House of Representatives to sign a discharge petition to bring Townsend Plan legislation before the full House for consideration. This is only 55 short of the required majority, and the petition still is pending.

Group members are being urged to participate in "Operation Buttonhole," a campaign of their home districts to discover whether they support the plan.

When Congress reconvenes, officials plan to resume "Operation Mailbag," a large-scale letter and telegram-writing campaign which they credit with having helped to obtain signatures for the House discharge petition.

All of these campaigns are being supported by the group's year-old Voters League — a community-lobbying program under which voters are being organized in each district to support or oppose specific Congressmen next year.

Better Housekeeping May Reduce Hayfever

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—Hay fever victims would suffer less if they were better housekeepers, according to an Illinois botanist.

Dr. Leo Kaplan of Southern Illinois University said hay fever is caused principally by ragweed and other plants but it also can be caused by molds that float in the air.

Kaplan said such molds grow and reproduce in damp closets and basements, behind woodwork and in overstuffed furniture.

He said danger of mold-caused sniffling can be reduced by keeping the home clean and dry, and he admonished that "furniture should be dusted and rugs vacuumed frequently."

Burst of Gunfire Brings Down 'Squirrel' Arms

Relaxing, he threw back his arms and stretched.

Stewart Halverson, on another stump a short distance away, was alert for squirrels too. He saw the brown arms, quickly fired. A surgeon removed shotgun pellets from Reber's arms.

Sacrificed for Friends

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (UP) — Louis Procopion was fined $100 because he wanted to help out his friends, he was charged with selling liquor without alicense. The judge said Procopion would buy whisky at cut-rates in a nearby community and then return and sell it to his friends at the same price, making no profit.

Businesslike Woman Scares Bank Bandits

IRVINGTON, N.J. (AP)—Two holdup men pushed a note at a woman bank teller and growled, "Be quiet. Fill the bag with bills."

Miss Mary Olney, assistant secretary at the Pulaski Savings & Loan Assn., threw the note back and shook her head.

She turned, walked 15 feet to an office, closed the door and telephoned the police.

70 John Browns, of LaRosa Fame, Foil Newsmen

SEOUL (AP) — "Find Sgt. John Brown!"

Brown is the soldier-husband of television singer Dorothy McGuire. Singer Julius La Rosa, who was fired last week from Arthur Godfrey's TV program, announced he intends to marry Miss McGuire as soon as she can get a divorce.

Miss McGuire's parents said her husband is in Korea, but refused to say where, or in which outfit.

"Find him and take his picture," the messages ordered, urgently.

* * *

So the newsmen asked the 8th Army to check its director of personnel. A public information officer found 70—that's right, 70—Sgt. John Browns stationed at 8th Army headquarters, or in divisions on the front, on ammunition dumps on engineer units.

"And you might call the 5th Air Force, the 1st Marine Division, the 1st Marine Air Wing and the Korean Communications Zone," the 8th Army PIO suggested. "They undoubtedly have some more."

Plane Crashes With 80

Unusual Hazards Beset Californians

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — Truck accidents have been running to the unusual in California reently.

A truck overturned south of Sacramento, spilling 400 boxes of grapes on the highways. Before patrolmen and local firemen could hose the slipper grapes off the roadway, motorists were met with roads as slippery as in wintertime.

In Los Angeles, a tank truck overturned and 6,500 gallons of tallow flooded the highway. Again, much skidding and sliding but no accidents.

Some 550,000 bees were liberated near Bakersfield when a truck carrying 90 beehives crashed into another truck. The second truck caught fire and a ticklish fight followed in putting out the blaze while fighting off the bees.

There was one decent break. When a truck overturned off Placerville, only 10 per cent of its cargo of eggs was damaged.

The first free schools for Negroes in America were conducted by Rev. Alexander Garden, in Charles Town (now Charleston), S. C., as early as 1740.

WHERE REDS GOT RED FACES—This is a general view of the Panmunjom "explanation site" in Korea. The tents house Chinese and North Korean anti-Communist POW's captured by U. N. forces. When Red teams tried to persuade POW's to return to their Communist-controlled homelands, the prisoners gave them the Chinese version of the Bronx cheer, with a couple of razzberries thrown in.

Boots Prevent Injury

SHEPHERDSTOWN, W. Va. (UP)—Mr. and Mrs. James Miller thank two pairs of rubber boots for saving them from injury or death. Lightning struck a barn in which the Millers were working, killing one cow and knocking the wind out of several others. The Millers, who were well insulated in their footgear, felt nothing.

'Skin of Teeth' Is More Than Idle Expression

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — Dr. Louis J. Baume, assistant professor of dental medicine in the University of California College of Dentistry, has come up with some new findings about the "skin of your teeth."

The "skin," an enamel cuticle covering the enamel proper of the teeth, is formed almost literally at the last minute before the tooth erupts, Baume says.

The new finding not only throws new light on the formation of teeth, but it also may show how nature opens the way to a predisposition to tooth decay.

The "skin" is colorless, calcified, and about 1,000th of an inch thick. It constitutes the outermost defense wall of the tooth against infection, decay and injury.

Scientists has believed that the cuticle is formed fairly early in the development of the teeth, long before they erupt. Baume found, however, that the cuticle does not develop until just before the tooth cuts the gum.

Purring Kitten Starts Vault's Burglar Alarm

BOSTON (AP) — A burglar alarm sounded in South Boston police station indicating someone was tampering with the narcotics vault at the McKesson and Robbins drug plant.

Police converged on the plant and headed for the narcotics vault. They observed a cat in a corner. The cat had walked through an invisible ray which touched off the alarm.

May Pick Cadiz for U. S. Base

Recent Pact With Spain Could Open Columbus' Port for Naval Use

WASHINGTON — Cadiz, Spain's Atlantic port which may soon be opened to American warships under the recently concluded U. S.-Spanish defense pact, served as home base for Christopher Columbus when he sailed for the New World.

Announcement of the new agreement, just prior to the 461st anniversary of Columbus' arrival in the New World on Oct. 1, grants the United States the right to use a number of Spanish air and naval bases, in return for military and economic aid. The accord extends for 10 and possibly 20 years.

Seville, Madrid and Barcelona are regarded as probable airbase sites.

In addition to Cadiz, other U. S. naval bases may be established at El Ferrol on the Bay of Biscay, Cartagena, Valencia and Alicante on the Mediterranean coast, and Mahon in the Balearic Islands.

In the port of Palos de la Frontera on the Bay of Cadiz stands a large Columbus monument. It serves as a reminder that from there the navigator sailed on the history-making voyage that gave the world a new hemisphere, says the National Geographic Society.

Columbus Day is a national holiday throughout Spain, Genoa, Italy —the exporer's birthplace — the West Indies, North, Central and South America also observe the date. It is a holiday in many of the 48 states.

In the Canary Islands, off the northwest coast of Africa, the 800,000 inhabitants celebrate the "Day of the Race" on October 1. Columbus made stopovers in the Canaries on all four of his voyages.

Long considered the western limit of the world by ancient geographers, the Canaries developed a new stock from the intermingling of Old and New World people pioneering Atlantic crossings.

San Salvador, an island in the Bahamas, was the first land reached by Columbus in the New World. He went ashore at several other points in the Bahamas on his initial voyage and also discovered Cuba and Hispaniola. The latter island now comprises the Dominican Republic and the Republic of Haiti.

Three galleons and 14 frigates, manned by 1,500 sailors, made up the second and largest Columbus expedition, in 1493. On this voyage he discovered the Virgin Islands, Leeward Islands, Puerto Rico and Jamaica. One thousand colonists debarked at Hispaniola to establish the first European colony in the New World.

Hoping to find more gold than his first trips had collected, Columbus sailed farther south on his third voyage in 1498. He landed at Trinidad and later, for the first time, set foot on the continent of South America. The admiral's fourth and last trip added Honduras and Panama to his list of New World discoveries.

Deer Herds Eat Selves Right Into Extinction

DENVER (INS) — Hunters in some of the nation's biggest "deer states" are looking forward to smaller herds—no matter what the states do to improve range.

The deer have literally eaten themselves to death in Colorado, Pennsylvania, Michigan and Wisconsin and to a lesser degree in Washington, Utah and Texas. Manitoba, in Canada, is faced with the same problem.

The only apparent solution to the problem, is through longer hunting seasons, for while the herd can come back fast, the range requires many years.

About 550 kinds of rats are known, three of which have become serious pests for man.

FORCED TALK — The Communists were far from gentle, according to Maj. Roy H. Bley, one of 10 U.S. pilots who were forced by the Reds to "confess" to dropping germ-laden bombs over Korea. He told newsmen at his Santa Ana, Cal., home how the Communists tortured him, despite his wounds, until he, in pain and agony "would have confessed anything."

Getting Diploma Means Digging

Stanford Grad Buries Document in Foxhole; Receives Duplicate

STANFORD, Calif. (UP)—A lot of "spade work" goes into getting a college diploma, according to Lt. Charles M. Hunter, Stanford University, '50.

Hunter received his diploma in August 1950 in a foxhole near the Naktong River on the Korean battlefront.

It had been forwarded by the Army when the university mailed it to him after graduation exercises in June. The Scaramento, Calif., officer had completed his history course at Stanford in January.

When the cavalry platoon he commanded moved up, Hunter found limits to what he could carry. He buried the leather-bound diploma at the bottom of a foxhole.

Six months later, returning along the Naktong, he located the spot where he had left the document, but the sheepskin was considerably deeper in the earth than the 2-foot level at which he had cached it.

In the intervening months, farmers had filled in all foxholes and crops were growing on the former battlefield.

Harvey Hall, Stanford registrar, found the solution to the lieutenant's dilemma of the proper year in his office and mailed it to Hunter, who is now stationed at Ft. Amador, Panama Canal Zone.

His commanding officer, Maj. Gen. Lester J. Whitlock, will present the diploma to him in a formal ceremony.

Dairy Industry Spends $2 Million Pushing Butter

CHICAGO (INS)—Americans are eating less butter and more margarine, and the dairy industry has launched a two-million dollar campaign to change the situation.

The sum is the biggest promotion budget ever allotted by the American Dairy Association.

The consumption of butter has dwindled steadily. The DA said people in 1935 ate an average of 17 pounds of butter per person.

In 1951 the average slipped to nine and one half pounds, eight and one half pounds in 1952, and the outlook for 1953 is eight pounds and six ounces per person.

The ADA wants to know why people are eating less butter and is seeking sharper selling tools to stem the trend.

Butter brings in about one-fourth of the dairy industry's revenue with milk, cheese, ice cream, evaporated milk and dry whole milk making up the rest.

The promotion is divided into radio, TV, magaine and newspaper advertising, a public relations program supply diary information to newspaper and radio editors, a nationwide survey of consumer preferences, and University comparison studies of the nutritive value of butter fat.

On a scientific level, professors are conducting studies at four universities on the food value of butter fat as compared with fats derived from sources other than milk.

Father Stays With Son

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (U)—Jess W. Black, 38, and his son, Arnold, 17, are taking basic training together at Lackland Air Force Base and hope to be assigned as cooks. Black, of Boise, Ida., had prior military service and probably could have avoided basic training but decided to take it so that he and his son could be together.

A Good Deed Pays Dividend After 15 Years

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP) — A Polish refugee who survived long years of hardship and residence in a dozen countries soon will begin a new life, convinced that the good men do lives on.

Stanley Leja is joining the teaching staff at Cornell University. For the opportunity, he credits a friendship established more than 15 years ago during anti-Semitic riots in Poland.

Leja was kind to a fellow mathematics student, Marek Kac, during those riots. Soon afterwards, however, Kac came to the United States and Leja lost track of him.

Remaining in Poland, Leja married. When the Communists invaded the country, he and his wife were deported to Siberia and suffered many hardships before making a flight to freedom in the United States.

One day while working as a loader in a local milling company, he heard the name of his old friend mentioned. He immediately wrote to him.

Kac, now famous as head of Cornell's math department and consultant in government atomic research, remembered that kindness back in Poland and invited Leja to join him at Cornell as an assistant professor.

Porcupine Fails to Cure Horse of Inquisitiveness

WOODINVILLE, Wash. (UP) — Take it from Rusty, an inquisitive horse, it doesn't pay to get too close to porcupines.

Rusty's owner, Deputy Sheriff A. T. Sanderlin, pulled 35 quills from the animal's nose with a pair of pliers. It took him 1½ hours. Here's Sanderlin's explanation:

"He's always been inquisitive. He found a porcupine down in the pasture. I guess he just had to root down and find out what it was."

But Rusty wasn't cured. Sanderlin said he found him rooting in a gopher hole a few hours after the porcupine encounter.

Unpaid Milk Bill Doesn't Cover Cost of 4 Steaks

ST. CHARLES, Mo. (AP)—It cost an O'Fallon, Mo., farmer $52.20 to discover four steak dinners don't make up for an unpaid milk bill.

The farmer, George Sherman, told Magistrate Webster Karrenbrock yesterday he intended to pay for the steaks he and three friends ate until he saw the restaurant owner—O. W. Karrenbrock.

"I recognized him as a fellow who owed my daddy a milk bill," said Sherman.

"When was the milk delivered?" Magistrate Karrenbrock asked.

"In 1936," said Sherman.

The magistrate ruled the milk bill was no excuse; fined Sherman $35 on a charge of obtaining food under false pretenses, added $10 court costs and ordered Sherman to pay for the four $1.80 dinners.

New York Oil 'Strike' Turns Out Leaky Can

WARSAW, N. Y. (AP) — Drillers seeking water thought they'd found more than they bargained for when they discovered traces of oil 100 feet below the home of Gilbert Barbour. Then further exploration showed that the oil came from a leaking oil can on their machinery.

Marine General Speaks of Home, Warns of Reds

SEOUL (AP)—The chief of the U.S. Marine Corps told the 1st Marine Division today: "We hope you will get home to the States in the not too distant future."

However, Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd, Marine commandant touring the front, added:

"But you know better than I that we can't trust the Communists. For that reason we must remain on the alert."

The total oil energy used in farming is about 750 million horsepower, which is more than that used by all other American industries.

County Reports Polio Dwindling

No New Cases in City and Only Five in Rest of Oakland

Polio continued to dwindle in Oakland County last week with no new cases reported in Pontiac and only five in the rest of the county.

The weekly report from Oakland County Health Department, released by Dr. John D. Monroe, director showed six polio cases the week before. The county department covers all of Oakland County except Pontiac.

Twenty-nine new measles cases were listed last week, compared with only nine the week before. Rubella (German measles) was up to nine cases from four the previous week.

The county department's report follows in full:

	Past Week	Week Ending Oct. 17, '53	Oct. 25, '52
Chicken pox	9	7	28
Diphtheria	0	0	1
Measles	29	9	7

Few new cases of any disease were reported to Pontiac City Health Department last week.

Health department officials explained that the listing of 10 "new" cases of tuberculosis didn't signify any outbreak, as several of those reports were delayed in coming in.

Cotton Growers Admit Holding Man in Slavery

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — Uncle Tom's cabin, with an all-male cast, has been revived in federal court here. Two cotton growers have admitted holding a Negro in slavery.

Marvin Gary Elam and his nephew, Arnold Elam, 27, were fined $500 each Tuesday. Accused of holding Willie D. Moore, 25, in involuntary servitude the Elams were tried in July but the jury failed to agree.

Arnold's father, William Wesley Elam, 49, faces trial tomorrow on a similar count. The family lives in Tenessee.

Moore said he was promised $4 a day for work on the Elams' Hickman County farm but drew only $3. He fled to Missouri and Memphis but claimed he was sought out and returned and worked for several months afterwards in 1951 for nothing.

It was the first peonage case tried in federal court here since the war between the states.

Fluoride Treatment Deadline Is Friday

Parents of Whittier and Bagley School third graders who want their children's teeth treated in the Pontiac Public Schools' fluoride treatment program must sign up by Friday.

Josephine Seeley, the school system's health services coordinator, explained that parents must return a $1 fee and their written consent for each child to the child's school by tomorrow morning.

The center will set up shop at Whittier School Nov. 9 to treat Bagley and Whittier youngsters.

The decay preventative is now being given 127 youngsters of LeBaron, Malkim, Willis and Emerson Schools at LeBaron School.

STATE HOSPITAL NURSES' HOME—Pontiac State Hospital's registered and student nurses have quarters in this new $477,000 nurses' residence, completed in August. The two-story building features 24 single rooms, 25 double rooms, and six two-room apartments housing 80 nurses, making it possible for schools to use the hospital as a "training ground" for the psychiatric aspects of nursing.

NEW STAFF HOUSE—Many of Pontiac State Hospital's resident medical staff members have moved to this new $330,000 staff house, freeing the old administration building for use as a mental ward. The new residence, which can house 31 people in its 11 single rooms and 15 two-room apartments, includes a kitchen, dining room, library, and small laundry.

Staff Quarters to Provide Ward

Two New Buildings on Grounds to House Some on Personnel List

Progress is moving at Pontiac State Hospital.

In the din and dust of remodeling work, walls which have sheltered hospital staff families since 1878 are being converted into a new ward for mental patients.

And two new buildings—a staff house and nurses' home—have risen on the hospital grounds to house some of the people who care for Pontiac's "sick city" of 3,000 patients.

The nurses' residence, just completed in August, is a two-story, reinforced concrete, brick-covered structure with cement block and plaster walls.

Housing 80 registered and student nurses, the $477,000 building makes the hospital eligible as a training ground for students learning psychiatric nursing.

The home also includes a large classroom, teaching and science laboratories, library, lounges, recreation rooms and snack kitchens.

The new staff house, similarly constructed, includes 11 single and 15 two-room apartments for 31 people. A self-contained unit, it emptied the old administration building in November 1952. Cost was $330,000.

Located just behind the newer building that houses the hospital's main entrance, the structure was one of a small nucleus of buildings around which the present institution grew.

The solid brick walls survived a fire which gutted the building in 1891 to watch care of the mentally ill run the gamut from the jail-like "custody" of the late 1800s to today's high-powered efforts to restore sick minds to health.

J. A. Fredman holds a $327,188 contract for general remodeling work, with James W. Parland doing plumbing and heating for $79,923. Electrical contract for $19,575 is held by Schultz Electric Co., with Otis Elevator Co. furnishing elevator service for $41,492 making a total cost of $468,178.

Remodeling plans include tearing off the tower, attic and fourth floor and roofing the building at the third floor. Wooden floors and joists will give way to reinforced concrete and asphalt tile flooring.

Hospital authorities hope to complete the remodeling sometime next year.

Work to Check Rising Po River

Volunteers Shoring Up Banks in Northern Italy as Rain Continues

MILAN (AP) — Volunteer workers frantically sandbagged the banks of the mighty Po River, in northern Italy today as its waters rose to menace thousands of acres of rich farmland. Rain continued to fall in many areas.

Sandbags were being piled up by the thousands along the banks of the Po between Polesella and Guarda Veneta, about 40 miles from the broad delta where the mouth of Italy's biggest river empties into the Adriatic Sea.

On the Po delta itself, several hamlets already were flooded and their farm families evacuated.

The Polesella area was the center of the disastrous floods of 1951 when 94 were killed.

Along the northern sweep of the broad Po Valley, the powerful Adige River also threatens towns and farmland.

At Verona, city of Romeo and Juliet 60 miles inland from the Adriatic, the Adige last night reached its 1926 peak—its record in modern years. Outskirts of the city of 160,000 were flooded. Pescantina, near Verona, also was flooded.

All rivers in Varese Province, northern Italy, were raging wildly.

Pordenone, city of 24,000 in Udine Province, was flooded and the rivers Meduna, Livenza and Degano were rising rapidly.

Rain stopped in southern Italy, but there was still danger of landslides in Calabria, the toe of the Italian boot, where cloudbursts and flash floods took 55 lives last week.

Hospital Officials to Meet

DETROIT (AP) — The Association of Hospital Physicians and Assistant Superintendents will meet Friday at the Northville State Hospital. They'll hear a series of scientific papers dealing with institution medicine.

APARTMENTS TO WARDS—Remodeling work costing $468,000 is turning Pontiac State Hospital's old administration building into wards to house 108 patients. Workmen are tearing the tower, attic and fourth floor off the building, which had housed the hospital's staff and their families since 1878, and are roofing in the brick walls at the third floor.

Big Gas Tank Leak Cause of Explosions

DETROIT (AP)—A leak in an underground gasoline storage tank was blamed for a series of explosions Tuesday that turned downtown manhole covers into flying saucers.

Fire Marshal Edward W. Hall said that tests made on three large underground tanks at a gasoline station showed that there was a leak in one of them. The faulty tank will be dug up ad replaced.

Hall said that the gasoline evidently leaked into underground cables in sewers along Woodward avenue, one of the busiest streets in Detroit. The heat evidently caused the gas to ignite, he added.

Sewer gasses were then exploded, Hall said, tossing 100-pound manhole covers around like a giant game of tiddlywinks.

No one was hurt, but traffic was snarled in the downtown area for hours.

Run Stop Sign, Die

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Luther B. Taylor, 75, and his wife, Dorella, both of Detroit were killed Wednesday when their car went through a stop sign and was hit by a truck, according to police. It was the second such accident in two months at the intersection of M60-M78.

Farmhand Shot as Gun Falls From Tractor

SAGINAW (AP)—A gun that slipped from the tractor he was riding and went off when it hit the ground killed a farmhand, Marvin J. Emmond, Wednesday. It fired directly into Emmond's head.

The tractor kept chugging on, finally stopping 40 feet away when hit a ditch. Emmond was the father of three children.

White House Cleans Up for Royalty

WASHINGTON (AP) — The redding up at the White House last night in preparation for the state dinner given by the President and Mrs. Eisenhower in honor of King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece.

Waiters were giving a last minute polish to glasses on the festive horseshoe table.

There was a purr of subdued but excited conversation.

Then through it all came a harsh buzz—buzz.

With the arrival of the royal guests just minutes away, a vacuum cleaner was being run over the state dining room carpet.

Solons Pleased, Confused by Stick-to-Facts Edict

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) today termed "absolutely the right way to go about it" the Eisenhower Administration's announced plan to stick closely to facts in its overseas information work.

Sen. Green (D-RI) said it sounded all right, but that he wasn't fully certain what was intended and didn't think the U. S. Information Agency (USIA) staff would be either.

President Eisenhower announced at his news conference yesterday a new directive telling USIA to avoid any effort to force the imprint of this country on other peoples.

Along with this directive, he made public a letter from USIA Director Theodore C. Streibert saying that the agency, "avoiding a propagandistic tone . . . will show how American objectives and policies advance the legitimate interests" of peoples abroad.

Green said that after reading the directive and statement "I don't understand what they've cut out that they had before."

He suggested that if USIA "can interpret U. S. aims and policies, maybe someone in it ought to start doing it with the home citizens. There has been a good deal of confusion at home about them."

Smith in saying the new directive showed "absolutely the correct way to go about it," had special praise for the promise to keep the program factual. He declared: "We ought to try hard not to try to slant things . . When we try to meet false and malicious accusations said about us, we are apt to use language in return which is characterized as propaganda."

Medical Schools Listed

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N.'s World Health Organization today published a directory of medical schools. The count: United States, 70; Russia, 61; Japan, 46; India, 34; Britain 27; France, 25 and Italy 21.

This Is the Kind of War Waged in Indochina

Commies Pester French Legion With Delaying Action

By FRED SARKS

WITH THE FRENCH FOREIGN LEGION in North Indochina (NEA)—All night our cannon fired. I tossed under my mosquito net and was glad when it was light.

I had slept on the ground on borrowed stretcher next to Pere LaSalle, a heavily bearded French Army chaplain. He warned against washing in, let alone drinking, the only available water in a nearby stream. It was diseased.

We brushed our teeth with soda water and did not wash, using instead a few drops of Father LaSalle's eau de cologne.

I joined a platoon of French Foreign Legionnaires for the attack near Ke Sat. We breakfasted on sardines, cheese, bread, red wine and coffee.

The troopers (from many lands) hung grenades on themselves like you decorate a Christmas tree, for with loyal Indochinese units ww were to sweep Communist-held towns.

Legionnaire Werner Forster of Slazburg, Austria, said: "I hope the Vietminh (Communists) stand and fight. We're sick of this hide-and-seek game. Today you'll see what kind of a war it is in Indochina."

We neared the first tiny town, sitting on an elevated ry patch with a stone entrance arch. A machine gun opened on us. I flattened against the side of the bank. Two POWs huddled next to me — Communists trying to dodge Communist bullets.

The tanks fired, smashing part of the arch. The infantrymen, crouching, ran forward. Someone Achtung! Mines."

Too late. A legionnaire stepped on a crude mine packed with rusty nails. A long nail was driven clean through his foot just back of the toes.

The enemy machine gun hushed. Legionnaires poured under the arch firing.

Werner Forster said: "Yah, yah. A delaying action. Just enough to give the Vietminh time to bury their guns and hide or flee to thee next town."

We paused for lunch, sitting on the slope of a tank. The Legionnaires ignored the occasional wild sniper shots.

Werner Forster tossed buscuits to the POWs, gave me a drink of canteen water, flavored with chlorine and peppermint, and said:

"Yah, yah. It is like putting your arm in a bucket of water, then taking it out.

"We haven't enough troops to garrison this zone. When we pull back the Communists, like water, will return.

"Now you know what kind of a war it is in Indochina."

County Red Cross Names Home Service Director

Mrs. E. C. Spurlock will take over Monday as home service director of Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, the chapter announced this week.

The home service department, which helps servicemen and their families, also includes three staff workers, volunteer social welfare aides, and social work students from Wayne University and University of Michigan gaining case work experience here.

Mrs. Spurlock, who holds a master's degree in social work from the University of Michigan, has worked with St. Louis Department of Public Welfare, Family Service of Oakland County and the child welfare division of Michigan Department of Social Welfare.

Mrs. Spurlock joined the Red Cross staff May 1. She is the first home service director in some years.

Actor Claims TV Wonderful

Amazed When Women Fuss Over Him; Better Than Films

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Gene Raymond has found that his new career of selling soap and shortening beats the movies hands down for attracting feminine fans.

Raymond says his triple job as television host, commercial announcer and actor is the best thing that ever happened to him.

"My job on 'Fireside Theater' has made me one of the family for wives and working girls alike," says Gene.

"As host, they know I'm not playing a part. The women look on me as a very good friend who drops in every Tuesday night to introduce the play and tell them about soap and shortening.

"And they write to tell me how much they appreciate it, too. It's better than anything that ever happened to me while I was making pictures."

The handsome actor-announcer said he was the most amazed guy in the business when women began to stop him on the street to shake hands.

"In fact, they tell me that seeing my show in their homes week after week — talking directly to them instead of playing a part —had made them feel as though I should know them, too.

"And when I star in one of the programs, they look on me like one of the family who 'got a break.' Their letters showed a loyalty I never knew in the movies. They write almost as though I were a husband or sweetheart who landed a leading role."

The actor believes his success as a host and announcer stems from the fact that "my salesmanship is subdued.

"I walk between a living room and kitchen, relaxed and talking about the play and my sponsor's product the same way I might chat at home with my own wife (Jeanette MacDonald)."

"TV is all brand new for actors, whether they're from the movies or the stage, and those who can't adapt themselves will find no place in the new medium.

"Personally, I think a person must develop a subtle salesmanship for TV—whether it's for selling soap or doing a convincing job in a play," he said.

Divorce Granted to Both Sides in Wayne Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—No hands were raised in victory today in the bitter John Wayne divorce trial but Nicky Hilton claimed a foul.

"I'm the loser in this fight," declared the former husband of Elizabeth Taylor. "This is ridiculous."

He referred to the charge made by the movie box office king that Hilton was the other man in the Wayne's stormy domestic life.

* * *

A peace-loving judge called a sudden halt yesterday to the Wayne fight. He granted a divorce to each party, applying the so-called "humane principle" of the California divorce law. This seldom used principle is reserved for cases where no concession is seen for either side.

* * *

The double divorce came after Wayne charged—and his wife denied—that she was in love with Hilton. Both sides agreed—and so did Hilton—that the hotel heir spent a week as the guest of Mrs. Wayne at her home while the actor was in Honolulu.

Wayne even charged his wife with doodling with the idea of marrying Hilton but Hilton angrily denied all this.

"Everybody leaves out the fact that I was a guest of Betsy von Furstenberg, not Mrs. Wayne," Hilton told a reporter. "Betsy was my only reason for being in the house, not Chata (a Mexican nickname for Mrs. Wayne, freely translated as Sweet Little Pugnose)."

* * *

Hilton said Miss Von Furstenberg, an actress and German countess who was Hilton's sweetheart at the time, also was a guest at the Wayne home.

* * *

Mrs. Wayne, on the stand, upheld Hilton's contention that he was there with Miss Von Furstenberg.

"Mr. Hilton had injured his head," Mrs. Wayne testified. "He was living in a hotel and Miss Von Furstenberg thought it would not look nice if she were to take care of him in a hotel room. So she asked could she bring him home to my house."

Student Is Devoted to Shocked Bass

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP) — A zoology student spent the entire summer fishing with a variety of wierd equipment, including an electric shocking device and a series of metal cones.

He let all of his catch of 552 bass go after peering into the fishes' stomachs with a borrowed miner's lamp.

The student, Harry Dubets, Buckner, Ill., was studying the feeding habits of large-mouth bass in southern Illinois lakes. He was working in a research project for his graduate zoology studies at Southern Illinois University.

Dubets caught his fish by shocking them electrically then scooping them into the boat when they rose to the surface.

Then he quicky inserted an appropriate-sized metal cone in the fish's mouth, flicked on his miner lamp and peeked into the stomach.

He recorded what he saw there and let the fish go.

Dubets said more than half of his 552 fish had empty stomachs, indicating the bass does not always have an easy time finding a meal. The rest had the remains of various types of fish and other water animals bass feed on.

Dubets said his study would be helpful in managing bass populations in southern Illinois lakes and streams.

The wild barrier islands of South Carolina's coast have a storm-warning system of their own. When marshmen hear a big bull alligator bellowing in August or September, long after the saurian mating season, they believe he is predicting a hurricane roaring up from the Caribbean.

Pennsylvania Grange Backs Benson Program

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania State Grange Convention has approved a resolution in support of the farm program of Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson.

"We commend him for his courageous, untiring efforts to stimulate the formation of a sound agricultural policy and program, and we especially endorse his plan and proposal for education and research," the resolution said.

No Money Changers

MUSKEGON (AP) — Plans to install automatic money changers in Muskegon's new municipal parking lots have been abandoned. The City Commission has been informed that the devices get plugged up by snow and ice in the winter.

Ike to Campaign in Indirect Way

Says He Will Publicize GOP Record, Pose for Pictures

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's promise to do some campaigning appeared to have satisfied most Republicans today that they will have ample White House help in next year's battle for control of Congress.

Eisenhower said a week ago he wasn't going to use the presidency as an agency in partisan elections. Yesterday he told his news conference that to say he wasn't interested in retaining a GOP Congress was like saying he had no interest in drawing his next breath.

* * *

While he stuck to his statement he won't campaign for individuals, he said in response to questions he likes posing for pictures with candidates, may pat some of them on the back and will do his part, within bounds, to publicize the GOP records to the voters.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican floor leader, said in an interview that is about all anybody could expect the President to do.

"Nobody expects him to go out ringing door bells," Knowland observed.

* * *

Sen. Duff (R-Pa), one of the first to back Eisenhower for the presidency last year, said that so far as they go the President's plans are fine. "But I think he will find as time goes on that he is going to have to dig deeper than that."

GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall confined his public comment to the observation that the President's statement was "entirely satisfactory to me."

Some other party members said privately that Eisenhower's avowed dislike for purely political activities might dissolve somewhat in the face of an expected strong Democratic threat to take over Congress.

Wrecked Cars Shown on High School Lawn

Files 1953 Tax Return

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—A New Mexico serviceman, apparently in need of the $23 refund he claims, filed his 1953 income tax return yesterday. Internal revenue officials say he won't be able to get the refund until after the first of the year, however.

Kinsey Report Lowers Morale of U. S. Troops

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dr. Kinsey's "Sexual Behavior in the Human Female" was more demoralizing to American troops in Korea than Red propaganda, says John Morley, a lecturer who recently returned from the Orient.

The Kinsey report, Morley said at a civic meeting yesterday, told 200,000 Americans overseas that "one out of every four American wives has been unfaithful."

U. S. production of coke last year was four times that of England and twice as much as the estimated Soviet production.

Krakatau Volcano Again Spewing Ash and Flame

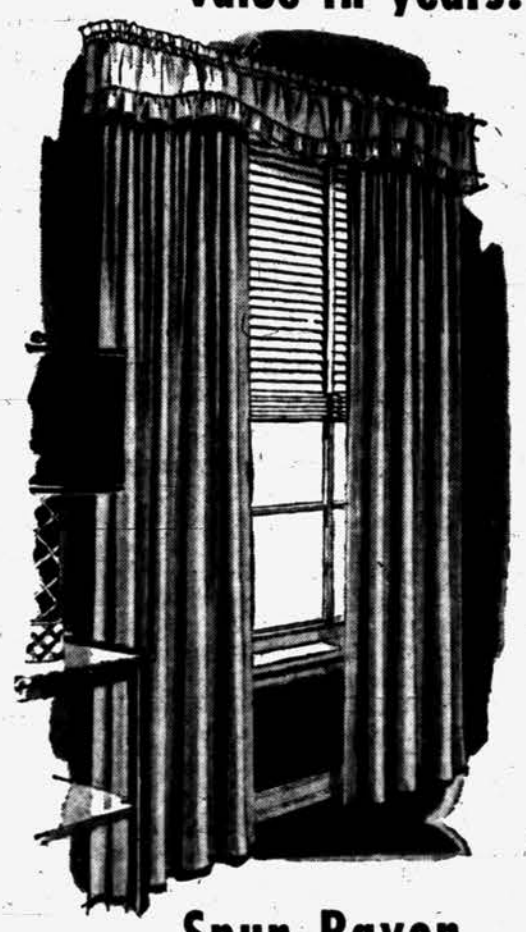

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Krakatau, the island volcano which set off tidal waves killing 36,000 persons when it blew its top 70 years ago, is spewing ash and fire in a new series of eruptions.

The Indonesian government's volcanological service in Bandung has reported over 100 explosions in the past four days.

No damage or casualties have been recorded, but the volcanological service has warned authorities in coastal areas of possible danger from tidal waves. Shipping has been rerouted.

St. Joseph Hospital Auxiliary Presents Membership Tea in Hills Home

Golden Jewel Butterflies Have Movable Wings

Golden butterflies with movable wings are being introduced as a piquant variation in modern jewelry. There are also gem-rimmed roses which open from bud to bloom like real flowers.

It's all part of the demand for lightness and variety in jewels to go with restless present-day living, says their originator, Guy Mellerio.

There's even economy in it, if such a word can be used with trinkets of such price. A lovely four-winged butterfly will serve as three ornaments in one.

Put its golden mesh wings back to back, like a butterfly's when it clings to a leaf in hiding, and have a modest little brightener for the suit lapel on a shopping tour.

Pause for afternoon tea, put the four wings horizontal to show more gold, but keep them close together for trim and tailored look.

For evening, spread wings wide and flaring and let your butterfly poise airily upon the shoulder of a dancing frock.

Without jewels, a gold butterfly of moderate, real-life size can be bought for a modest 55,000 francs (around $156). If you covet one with tiny emeralds, diamonds and rubies bordering the wings, and two big gems on the lower ones to simulate eye - markings of the butterfly, it will cost $3,000.

Cardinal's Aide Speaks

Mrs. Polk Hostess to 150

Nearly 26 years ago a group of women got together because they felt they could do something to help others who were physically ill and needed financial aid.

This group also wanted to aid in the purchasing of hospital equipment and in bettering hospital conditions. The members formed an auxiliary of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and elected Mrs. Harry Y. Fitzgerald as their first president.

Today that small group has grown to a membership of more than 300 persons, and on Wednesday when the annual membership tea was held at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, more than 150 were in attendance.

They were addressed by the Rev. T. W. Murphy, secretary of charities for Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of Detroit. Father Murphy praised the women for their efforts and related that their excellent support has gained statewide attention and admiration.

The musical portion of the program included several piano selections by Mrs. Terniko Yamasaki and cello solos by Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders Jr. accompanied by Mrs. Alta Magor.

Registering new members at the tea were Mrs. H. Guy Moats, Mrs. Fred Pickering and Mrs. O. L. Burke.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Gertrude Hegnan, Mrs. Peter Davidson, Mrs. John A. Reid, Mrs. E. L. Bradley, Mrs. E. A. Christie and Mrs. George E. Baldwin.

Only Chubby Babies Look Appealing With Fat Rolls Under Their Chins

Honesty Much Better Than Pretending to Be 'in the Know' When You Aren't

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

When you pretend to be what you aren't, you risk being shot full of holes. Admit enthusiastically, "Oh yes, I've read it—wasn't it wonderful?" about a book you've never heard of—and where are you? Pinned down to discussing the thing in detail — with you back-tracking in considerable confusion.

Pretend you know all about a party you hadn't even heard was cooking, and you'll find yourself talking nonsense. Deliberately misrepresent a dating relationship yol have or don't have with a boy and on the end of a limb.

Honesty is the best policy every time. It keeps your lines from getting tangled up. And tangled is what this girl is, all because she was afraid of appearing "not in the know." She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: The other night the boy I like asked me if I was going to a hayride they were having. I said I didn't know.

"I don't go to his school, so I didn't know anything about the hayride, but I sure would like to go with him. How can I get him to ask me?"

You missed one every ripe moment all because you didn't give him the right answer. "Is there going to be a hayride?" would have given him a chance to tell you all about it.

"It sounds like fun," would have indicated your enthusiasm for the idea. You just might have been invited by him, then and there.

Instead, you were afraid of seeming not to know all about it. And your answer indicated that you might be considering some other boy's invitation. The doubt you raised in his mind just might keep him from mentioning the hayride again.

In which case you'll have to bring up the subject yourself with a gay and inquiring, "How are the plans for the hayride coming along?" That would show him no one else has talked with you about it. And just might earn you the bid you want—if he intended asking you in the first place.

"Dear Miss Woodward: Johnny broke off with me just before school started and I haven't been able to pull myself together since. Recently another boy asked me out and I turned him down.

"He asked me if I'd broken off with Johnny and I said 'no' because I want to get him back.

"If I go out with this other boy I'll damage my chance of getting Johnny back, and if I stay home I'll just think and cry my eyes out. Please advise me."

You deliberately misrepresented the state of affairs between you and Johnny, giving this other boy the impression that all was sweetness and light and there was no point in his asking you for other dates.

So where are you now? Johnny broke off with you. Your staying home crying and dateless won't bring him back.

Admitting to everybody that you haven't seen Johnny lately will keep you in the running—and remind Johnny of what he's missing!

Engineers say that a temperature difference of only one degree between the walls of your home and the warmer air in the room will cause dirt and dust to settle on the walls.

Exercises, Strap Curb Tendency

Woman's Jawline Should Stay Firm and Clear Cut

Butterball babies with their pink and white skin and rolls of flesh are delightful. On them even double chins look good. But on no one else!

If your chin has multiplied itself, or shows signs of doing so, get it under control with exercise, a chin strap and a rich cream.

So, while you are getting your throatline in order, check up on all your body lines. Revamping your diet and mild body exercise now may head off a real weight problem for you.

1. Standing erect with feet about 18 inches apart and head up in natural position, place hands on hips to assist balance.

Without moving body, turn head sharply to the left six times, then six times to the right.

2. Turn head so that chin is over left shoulder. Give head a further backward stretch, turning eyes upward. Repeat in both directions six times.

3. Sit, holding body in good posture. Relax head and neck muscles completely and roll head in circles going as far forward and back on neck as possible. Repeat once.

Among the other exercises helpful in this condition are phantom writing and pinching. Holding the blunt end of a pencil in your mouth, write in the air, stretching up to cross t's and sweeping down with wide curves.

The pincher consists in pinching along the jawline with thumb and index finger to accentuate the contour.

Double chins are fine on some people —those under the age of 2. For anyone else who presents a double vision in that area, daily treatment is in order. Girl (left) starts her treatment by applying an astringent. Then (center) she wears a self-adjusting chin strap for 20 minutes, and completes her treatment (right) by patting on a rich, lubricating cream. Exercising also helps. Among the simplest are pinching and phantom writing.

Pinching consists of pinching the jawline with thumb and index finger frequently during the day. Phantom writing is done with the blunt end of a pencil in the mouth. Stretching to cross t's and making wide downward curves is important in this. Holding head erect and thrusting chin forward also helps.

Cake Treat Traditional for Holidays

Mrs. Thibodeau's Iced Nut Squares Are Festive

Pontiac Press Food Editor

Today's recipe is for a cake treat that is served far too seldom. Peanut squares look festive and taste wonderful. If you do not want to make your own cake, it is easy to use a plain cake from the bakery counter to make peanut squares.

Mrs. Gerard Thibodeau of Sugden Lake gave us this recipe; she says it is almost a tradition in her family to have these peanut squares at holiday time.

Mrs. Thibodeau loves to bake, often makes bread for her active family of nine children. She is interested in the Commerce PTA and belongs to a women's group at St. Patrick Church.

PEANUT SQUARES
By Mrs. Gerard Thibodeau

Plain cake (If you make your own, make a two or three-egg cake and bake it in an 8-inch square pan)
½ cup soft butter or margarine
1 pound confectioners' sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 egg
Vanilla (if desired)
1 pound of peanuts in the shell

Cream butter or margarine until fluffy, add salt, egg and confectioners' sugar, beating until very creamy. If necessary, add a small amount of cream to keep frosting soft enough to spread. Add vanilla if desired.

Spread frosting over all four sides of the cake squares. Roll in chopped peanuts. One 8-inch cake will make 16 squares.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Explosive Temper Better Than Sulking, Brooding

One of the stories that members of my family are wont to tell with rueful laughter concerns the time at the annual Monroe County, Mo., Fair, when my father was exhibiting Lyle, our handsome black stallion, in the ring.

MISS McBRIDE

Papa won, but instead of the blue ribbon he had confidently expected, he was presented with the red, which meant second place. Furiously he tossed the inferior trophy to the ground and stamped on it.

Those who tell the story are embarrassed because they sincerely deplore my father's breaking all the rules of good sportsmanship. On the other hand, they take some measure of pride in the McBride family temper because it always so far exceeded in volume and violence anything else known in the county that it became a legend.

For at least four generations it has furnished a theme for shocked conversation and at last it seems the McBrides have been, if not entirely justified in failing to restrain themselves, at least on the right track.

For everywhere psychologists and medical authorities are pointing to the dangers of concealing or storing up anger. Having inherited the famous or infamous temper, I've always been inclined, perhaps in self-justification, to favor sudden explosive outbursts of rage as against the disciplined containment of the seether.

I can make a pretty fine case for us, too. A quick temper, I tell myself and my victims, is a nice direct escape valve, injuring at most only those close at hand, while the seether boils along sullenly, eventually shattering not only himself but also innocent bystanders when the long delayed blowup comes.

A quick temper, violent as a thunderstorm, ends as suddenly as the lightning. The rainbow and sunshine follow quickly.

But when I, for instance, am ready to smile happily and carry on as usual I see to my horror that the seether is sulking and silent. More serious too than what this does to me is that the bottled-up person will eventually take it out on an innocent wife, secretary, child or pet.

It's when you unite a seether and an exploder in matrimony, though, that you really get trouble. One such marriage I know was irrevocably dissolved last year. Jane never tried to control her quick anger. Tom was easily hurt but couldn't scream no even talk out what he felt.

After one of their scenes in which Jane always played the star role, she usually headed for the kitchen humming blithely to bake a lovely cake, while Tom swallowed stomach-settlers, overdisciplined the children and prepared for days of silent, cold withdrawal.

No wonder that when something had to give, it was their marriage. Jane suffered, but her heart, stomach and blood pressure today are in better shape than Tom's.

Yes, on the face of it, it looks to me as though the McBride temper is better — for the McBrides, at least. Still, my conscience plagues me enough so that lately I've been trying to find something to take it out on besides people.

A friend with a temper like mine cleans house furiously when she'd like to wring little Johnnie's neck. A junior executive viciously wallops golf balls instead of his boss' head.

A secretary I know tackles a weed patch with her bare hands when she wants to pull someone's hair. Myself, I like the idea of a little Wisconsin woman who saves all her old dishes to smash on the kitchen floor when she gets mad.

"When I'm absolutely furious," she explains, "it takes six crashes. Sometimes, when I'm just a little angry, one big smash will do. I sweep up after it's over."

Career Wives Are Usually Exhausted When They Do Housework Unaided

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I'm heartily in favor of young women working even after they're married," a pleasant, up-to-date grandmother told me the other day, "especially if they're trained for a career and hate housework. Also, with prices so high, it sometimes requires two salaries just to keep going.

"But what about the housework? It doesn't seem fair for the girl to carry both jobs, but what young man will do the cooking or mending?"

There is no perfect answer to this difficult question, but I have heard all kinds of reactions, and all kinds of solutions.

Too often, it has been my experience, the wife does indeed handle both jobs, wears herself out in the process, and doesn't do justice to either. I am speaking here, of course, of the young couples who as yet have no children.

I know plenty of girls who, with varying degrees of rebellion, put in a schedule like this up a 6, cook and serve breakfast, do the dishes, make the beds, straighten up, get dressed and make up and arrive, exhausted, at the office at 9; work all day, with hectic time out at lunch to shop for, return and exchange the items necessary for a home, and buy the food; arrive home at 6, after several stops to pick things up at the cleaners, the shoe repairman, and so forth; cook and serve dinner, do the dishes, and then settle down to a nice relaxing evening of laundry, cleaning, mending and pressing the dresses they'll wear tomorrow.

Meantime, their husbands read the paper and make occasional remarks to the effect that "you certainly aren't very good company," or "you don't look as attractive as you used to."

I know plenty of couples who divide the work evenly. She does all the cooking, he does all the dishes. She does the daily picking up, he does the heavy cleaning on Saturday. They both do the marketing together at the local supermarket.

Special occasion grooming is completed with a spray of the new and far less costly toilet water form of the most expensive perfume in the world. Unlike the perfume, this product can be sprayed and it is exceptionally long lasting.

Perfume That Clings

Q. — Dear Penny: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.—Mrs. A. W.

A.—A particularly good idea for women who claim thta per- is a Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily, and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation. Try this Houbigant Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $1.85 plus tax at better stores.

Costly Scent Now Comes in Budget-Priced Form

A little luxury is a lovely thing. Knowing this, the makers of the world's most expensive perfume are bringing out this lovely scent in toilet water.

While as expensive as many perfumes, this toilet water is far more powerful than the average cologne.

Because of its high concentration, the perfume, which is made and packaged in France, cannot be sprayed.

The new product, besides making the scent available to women with limited budgets, enables those who own the toilet water to surround themselves with it completely.

In its new form the fragrance can be used lavishly after a shower, sprayed in a closet and on lingerie. It is said to be exceptionally long-lasting.

The toilet water features a leak-proof gold bottle top for packing safely. An atomizer top can be fitted to it, so that the toilet water can be sprayed directly from the bottle.

Putting Breakables Out of Lad's Reach Insults Mother

By EMILY POST

A letter today tells me: "The other day a friend came to visit me with her young son. As I have many lovely knick-knacks around the room—which I know are a great temptation to small children to pick up and examine—I took away those within his reach and put them where he could not get at them.

"I understand that my friend was highly insulted over this and told a mutual friend that she will not come to my house again. Will you please tell me if she has grounds to feel hurt?"

Answer: It seems to me that if her child is so perfectly brought up that she knows he will not pick up your lovely knick-knacks, she should have been proud to be able to tell you so, instead of going away silently and feeling hurt.

"Dear Mrs. Post: A very dear friend of mine whom I have known since childhood is preparing to open his own office. He is a dentist.

Would it be proper to send him a present at this time? If so, can you give me some suggestions as to what would be proper.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My grandfather died recently and I inherited everything. Among the several pieces of jewelry was my grandfather's gold wedding ring.

As I am going to be married soon at a double-ring ceremony, I would like to know what you thing about using this ring instead of having to buy another.

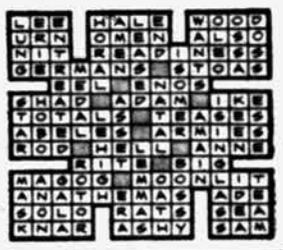

Answer: I think it would be a very reasonable sentiment, but it depends upon the feelings of your bridegroom.

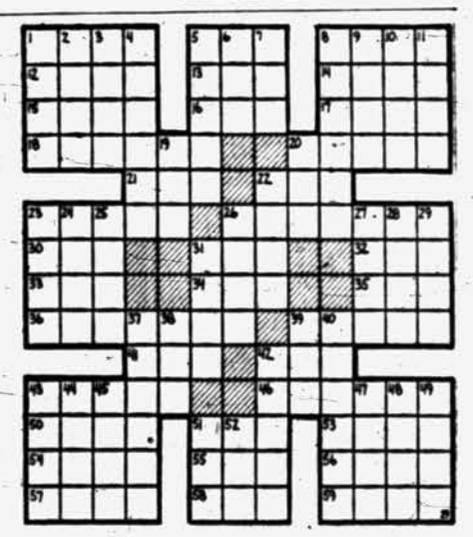

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am a bachelor and have been invited to dinner for the first time in the house of a friend who was recently married. I have met his wife just once.

I would like to know if I should bring something for the hostess, such as a box of candy or flowers?

Answer: It is not necessary—in fact, not at all expected.

Mt. Pleasant Man Gets Grange Post

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—William J. Break of Mt. Pleasant has been elected to his first full term as master of the state Grange.

Elevated from overseer, second ranking Grange post, Break succeeded Vern Stockman who had resigned. In his place in the overseer position went Joseph Gorman of Mendon.

The convention re-elected Harold Strang of Bronson, Fed Beckman of Milford and Robert Sutton of Daster, Chippewa County, to the state executive committee.

Joel Grey Surprises All With Songs, Not Comedy

By RICHARD KLEINER

NEW YORK (NEA) — Turn a funny guy with a modest voice loose on records and what happens? Ballads, of course.

That's the story of Joel Grey, the 21-year-old singer-dancer-comedian-actor who is going to be one of the top entertainers around very soon.

When he signed to record for MGM, everyone more or less assumed he'd make comedy records. He's a natural comic, and his father is Mickey Katz, who does comedy Jewish-dialect records for Capital.

"Nobody thought I could. But I got hold of a ballad and they came up with an arrangement full of strings. So I got in that little room by myself and made believe I was Tony Martin."

The result — "The Ta-Ta-Ta Song" — isn't quite Tony Martin, but it's pretty smooth for a first effort. And nobody laughed.

Joel has some more coming very shortly, and there won't be a snicker on these either.

Besides his life-long desire, he has another good reason for avoiding comedy records: "I want to make money."

Not that he's money-mad. "Money is nice," he says, "but even more important are things like security, future and finding the right girl."

* * *

THE POPULAR SIDE: Patti Page is running the gamut these days. She's out with a two-parter called "Arfie, the Doggie in the Window," designed for children, and two spiritual records, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Father, Father."

It's amazing what Art Ferrante and Lou Teicher can do with a piano. Listen to their latest, "Semper Fidelis" (RCA), for a pleasant surprise.

Al "Jazzbo" Collins has switched from bop fairy tales to hep history on Capitol. He talks his way through "The Discovery of America" and "The Invention of the Airplane." History is ideal subject matter for him — it's real gone.

* * *

ON THE CLASSICS: For the first time on records, "Tales from the Vienna Woods" is done with the original zither solo on a new Epic record.

Capitol has produced a test hi-fi record called "Full-Dimensional Sound — a Study in High Fidelity" with excerpts from such varied works as Tchaikovsky's Quartet No. 1 in D-Minor and something called "Foghorn Boogie."

Efrem Kurtz, after his 3,000,000th record for Columbia was pressed, was given a gold record to mark the occasion.

* * *

"Please Don't Talk About Me When I'm Gone" (Johnnie Ray, Columbia); "Achin' " (Bob Stewart, Embassy); "Skirts" (Eddy Howard, Mercury); "Lover, Come Back to Me" (Nat "King" Cole and Billy May, Capitol).

POP ALBUMS: Stan Kenton has another fine "portrait" albunt on Capitol. This is "Portraits on Standards" and is good Kenton.

If you like a bouncey organ, you'll like "Hi-Jinks on the Hammond" with the Milt Herth Trio on Capitol.

CLASSICAL: There's a fine "Rimsky-Korsakov Program" on a new MGM album, featuring the Philharmonia Orchestra of London and the London Symphony.

Oldtimers Retire

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Frank M. Vis and William T. Desker, assistant cashiers of the old Kent Bank who between them have served the Old Kent and its predecessors 75 years, will retire Nov. 1.

North Korea Waives Hungry Peasants' Taxes

TOKYO (AP) — The food situation in North Korea is so bad that in some cases the Communists have waived all taxes for some hungry peasants and told them they do not have to repay seed loans. This was disclosed in a recent Peiping broadcast, which quoted a dispatch from Pyongyang, the North Korean capital.

"The crops reaped by some peasants even fell short of their own needs," the broadcast said.

Name Troubles Rudy Valentino

Movie Idol's Monicker Has Its Drawbacks for Restaurant Worker

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP)—Nobody will believe a handsome restaurant worker here when he tells them his name is Rudolph Valentino.

"They think I'm kidding," he explained with an engaging smile.

Actually there is no relation between Rochester's Rudolph and the movie's idolized lover of yesteryear with the same name.

But enough years have passed to dim memories of the great Valentio's appearance, so there is quite a fuss whenever anyone discovers Rochester Rudolph's full name.

"The second time someone meets me, the wisecracks start," the local man points our. "It's come to a point where I don't tell anyone my last name if I can help it."

When he was younger the Rochesterian felt his name gave him a psychological edge with the opposite sex.

"It certainly never scared any girls away," he said.

At the restaurant where Rudolph works, many bets have been made over whether or not his name is "real." The losers generally want to know how good a lover Rochester Rudy is.

When he tried to enlist in the Marine Corps., the recruiting officer tore up his first application.

Rudolph got his name after a three-week argument between his mother and father following his birth in Radicena, Italy, 35 years ago. Dad finally won out.

The present R. Valentino was born 100 miles from the screen idol's home in Naples, a year to the month after the actor died. The local Rudy said his father knew the actor.

"But he tells me that's not the reason he named me Rudolph," he explained. "He says he just liked the name."

Strictly on the Ball

LINCOLN, Neb. (U)—Butch, a springer spaniel, suddly stopped eating. A veterinarian was consulted. He told the Elden Hitz family their pet needed an operation. It produced the core of a golf ball —about an inch in diameter — that the animal had "retrieved."

Moon and Sun Do OK

BAYFIELD, Wis. (U)—Sun and Moon are doing well for trout fishermen. W. W. Moon, who owns a cabin cruiser with his son for use by fishermen, signs his ads—W. W. Moon and Sun.

Superliner Says Sea Air Boosts Jaded Appetites

Documentation of that zestful fact comes from United States Lines officials' food inventory for the first year's service of the superliner United States.

The "First Lady of the Seas" belayed seagoing hunger through the year by plying her 70,514 passengers with: 1,316,222 pounds of the finest prime grade meats; 1,133,305 pounds of fresh fruits; 933,204 pounds of fresh vegetables; 736,546 pounds of potatoes; 460,176 pounds of fish; 356,376 pounds of game and poultry; 300,561 pounds of flour; 276,288 quarts of milk; 116,359 pounds of sugar; 88,430 pounds of butter; 85,430 pounds of ice cream, and 33,004 pounds of cheeses.

An average of 9,000 meals daily and an undetermined number of traditional American bedtime "snacks" were served to passengers and crew during the 233 24-hour days the vessel was under steam in the past year.

Yesterday's Beef

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (UP)—Note to army procurement officers: In 1871, Fort D. A. Russell at Cheyenne was being supplied with beef by John W. Iliff, king of western cattlemen, at $5.75 per 100 pounds.

Judge Doesn't Believe Bull Story, Fines Owner

WINDSOR LOCKS, Conn. (UP) —The charge was allowing a bull to roam the highways.

That was enough for the judge. "That proves he's a bull," he said. "I find you guilty as charged. The fine is $25."

Almost an Antique?

SAUGUS, Mass. (INS)—The butt of a mammoth oak tree, already 150 years old when Columbus discovered America, was used as the base for an anvil at the forge of America's first successful ironworks at Saugus, three centuries ago. Discovered while excavating an ironworks site, the cross section of the huge oak is now on permanent exhibit at the First Iron Works Museum.

'Victim' Home, Sleeping After Train Strikes Car

STEVENS POINT, Wis. (UP)—Stanley Rutta doesn't get excited.

Police identified the car and woke Rutta at his home. He explained that his car stalled on the tracks, and he couldn't flag down the train with matches. He said he just watched the crash, then hitch-hiked a ride home and went to bed.

Nutty Lead Pays Off

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — A fondness for peanuts landed Joseph Rice, 25, in jail. Empty peanut shells were found on the floor of a used car dealer's office that had been robbed. Rice was picked up for driving an automobile in an erratic manner and police said they found peanut shucks in his pockets. Police said he admitted the break.

Hal Boyle Says:

Taking Hats for Granted Simply Shows Ingratitude

NEW YORK (AP)—I was going to let National Hat Week pass by this year with no more than a tip of my beret.

Then I received the following letter from the Hat Research Foundation:

"All over the globe white men, brown men, yellow men, black men are . . . accumulating the hidden things that are processed into the hat.

"They are shouldering through sandstorms in Australia to trap rabbits; snow-shoeing under the frozen birches in Siberia in search of white hare; herding sheep for wool and hat leathers in Argentina; raising mulberry leaves for silkworms in China; scraping twigs for shellac in India; and felling tall poplars for our hat blocks in the Tennessee hills."

Well, after reading that, a guy would have to be an ungrateful cad indeed if he didn't get out his battered old gray $3.95 fedora and shed a tear of admiration for the far-flung men who made it all possible.

So, gentlemen, a ringing toast to one of man's oldest allies against sun, wind and weather—the hat.

Some folks, including those who hate to fork out two bits to park their pork-pie every time they go to a night club, say the hat is going the way of the vest and high button shoes and even magicians will have to find something else to pull their rabbits from.

But a few figures tend to knock this theory into a cocked hat. Hat manufacturing in America alone is a 125 million dollar a year industry. More people in the world still wear hats than shoes.

The dog may be man's best friend, but the best friend of men's hats today is the American woman. A poll of 100 women, says the Hat Research Foundation, showed that 84 believed a man should "wear a hat at least some of the time." A majority thought he ought to wear one to work.

Famous people sometimes popularize hats, and hats sometimes popularize people, including presidents. His "Rough Rider hat" helped make Teddy Roosevelt famous. A brown derby did the same for Al Smith. President Eisenhower's Homburg this year replaced in public favor the top silk hat, which had reigned for 150 years.

Grand Jury Hears Pair

Lt. Shoulders, Tipster to Appear Again Today at Greenlease Hearing

KANSAS CITY (UP)—A federal grand jury delving into the Greenlease kidnaping case today sought further information from key witnesses who figured in the arrest of the abductors.

One was Louis Shoulders, St. Louis police lieutenant who arrested Carl Austin Hall, 34, and his woman friend, Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41-year-old divorcee.

The other witness was John Hager, St. Louis taxicab driver credited with supplying the tip that led to the apprehension.

* * *

Both testified at length yesterday but U.S. Dist. Atty. Edward Scheufler asked that they return for further questioning.

The jury may indict Hall and Mrs. Heady late today.

Hall confessed kidnaping and slaying Bobby Greenlease, 6-year-old son of a multimillionaire Kansas City automoile dealer. Mrs. Heady admitted abducting the boy Sept. 28 from his private school. His body was found Oct. 7 in the yard of her St. Joseph, Mo., home.

Still missing is $300,000 of the record $600,000 ransom paid by Robert C. Greenlease, the father. Hall has said he believes it was lost during a drinking spree in St. Louis.

Yesterday Hager was in the jury room for more than four hours.

He told newsmen: "I've been telling them everything — everything I know about the whole thing. But I didn't say anything I haven't said before."

Hager picked up Hall as a fare and drove him around St. Louis during his free-spending binge. Later he tipped off Lt. Shoulders and led Shoulders and another officer to Halls room where nearly half the ransom money was recovered.

In 1680 and for 12 succeeding years, the Indians occupied Santa Fe, New Mexico. They elected their own governor, turned the Spanish chapel into a Kiva and worshipped their gods in their old way.

'54 Retail Food Prices Expected Near '53 Level

WASHINGTON (UP)—Retail food prices in 1954 will average close to this year's level, the Agriculture Department predicted today.

And, the department said, farmers probably will receive about the same share of the consumer's food dollar—a share estimated at 45 cents for 1953.

* * *

Food supplies about as large as in 1953 are in prospect for 1954, the department said.

"With no marked change in prospect for consumer income, the demand for food is likely to continue strong," the department said. It made separate forecasts on the food situation and marketing costs.

"The relative stickiness (slowness to fluctuate) of food processing and marketing costs will also tend to maintain retail food prices," it added.

The estimate that the farmer got 45 cents of the consumer's food dollars in 1953—2 cents less than in 1952—is the lowest since 1941. But it is higher than in most pre-World War II years.

Retail prices of food products in the January-August period this year averaged 2 per cent below the corresponding period of 1952, but charges for marketing these foods averaged slightly higher, the department said.

In the United States, pipe lines carrying oil products resemble railroad systems with trunk lines, feeders, terminals, storage yards, switch systems, stations dispatchers, telegraph, telephone and radio systems.

Duck, Spaghetti End Girl's Hunger Strike

HONG KONG (UP)—Roast duck and spaghetti scuttled a hunger strike staged here by an 18-year-old lovesick girl.

The girl, Chang-Pei-ching, fell in love with her teacher three months ago. One night she quarrelled with her mother and went to stay with the teacher. He was charged with harboring a minor and sentenced to nine months' imprisonment.

She was ordered by the Hong Kong Secretariat of Chinese Affairs to move into a local welfare center where she promptly went on a hunger strike. Arguments and tempting dishes failed to break her determination until the fourth day when she couldn't resist a special meal of roast duck and spaghetti.

U.S. Tight Policy on Atom Is Many Sided Problem

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign News Editor

The British have been sensitive for a long time about the United States' refusal to share atomic energy information.

Now, with their third atomic explosion since going "on their own" out of the way, they are sending up new trial balloons seeking a renewal of the free exchange of information.

Like most people, this correspondent wouldn't recognize an atomic bomb if he stumbled over one in the street.

But, like many press association men in the business during World War II, he has had considerable experience with the secrecy surrounding it.

Long before the first bomb exploded over Hiroshima the United Press began getting warnings from Military censorship in Washington against any mention of the atom.

Now and then the telephone would ring and a hush-hush voice on the other end would say: "Just a reminder . . . no mention of that thing."

They didn't even want to mention it by name over the telephone. It was a well kept secret — from everyone except the Russians.

The Russians knew the United States was making an atom bomb. And later, through the efforts of such as Klaus Fuchs, the traitorous British scientist, then also knew how to make the bomb.

The knowledge turned over to the Russians by Fuchs and others like him has been estimated to have advanced the Russian program by as much as five to 10 years.

It also gave them a vast forward stride in their progress toward the hydrogen bomb.

Having had its fingers badly singed once, the United States still is in no mood to share its secrets again, even with an ally as close as Britain.

However, there is something in the British argument.

One is that eventually the United States independent policy on atomic research must reach the point of diminishing returns.

The fact that an atom bomb will explode is no longer a military secret.

As the race for atomic supremacy continues, it becomes three-sided — with the United States and Britain competing among themselves just as much as against Russia and with a consequent expensive duplication of effort.

An example of the latter is an atomic shell small enough to be fired by an artillery piece. Both the United States and Britain are working on it.

Meanwhile, there is a mounting resentment which spreads to other fields.

The British recently refused the United States information on its new Delta wing plane.

Presumably, the refusal to exchange information could extend to jet engines and rockets, in both of which Britain has been ahead of the United States.

Another powerful consideration is the fact that the United States is thinking about reducing some of its defense projects in favor of a newer concept based on atomic warfare.

Eventually this could mean withdrawal of some U. S. troops now stationed in Europe. Our European Allies are not going to be satisfied with a paper defense about which they know nothing.

Giant Trunk Holds Furniture and All

MECHANICSBURG, Pa. (UP) — Mr. and Mrs. A. V. MacQuarrie have arrived in Mechanicsburg with their three children and a 670-cubic-foot box of home belongings.

The family, which came to the United States recently from the Isle of Man near England, said they had managed to squeeze a living room suite, three bedroom suites and "some odds and ends" into the huge box.

Educating the Family

LIVINGSTON, Ala. (UP)—Mrs. D. Y. Register of Huntsville, Ala., was enrolled in the Livingston State Teachers College workshop this summer. Her daughter, Mrs. Paul Ramsey, worked on her bachelor's degree in education. Mrs. Ramsey's three daughters, Marcia, 9, and Janet and Jenifer, seven-year-old twins, and their cousin, Donna Register, 10, of Nashville, Tenn., attended the college laboratory school.

Once-Spurned Oil Now Quite Welcome

ST. LOUIS (UP)—Things have changed since the 1890's when water was more desirable than oil in some cases.

Christ D. Wolff, a retired insurance man, recalled that in 1897 county officials sank a well to get water for horses of farmers and struck oil instead.

Disgusted, the officials dug deeper and finally came up with water, but the liquid was a combination of salt water and sulphur water and the hosses would not drink it, Wolff said. The well was closed and forgotten.

Recently authorities were drilling for sites for natural gas reservoirs and the oil strains were discovered again, but this time there was jubiliation.

Letter to Queen Fails to Bring Her Signature

"Her Royal Highness

"Her Majesty

"The Queen Of England

"Dear Queenie!" . . .

He enclosed two tea bags "to make amends for the Boston Tea Party."

A reply came back, on genuine Buckingham Palace stationary:

"The private secretary is commanded by Her Majesty the Queen to thank M. L. Brewer for his letter and enclosures."

So, Brewer says, he has written Her Majesty again, asking her to sign her reply.

"What's the matter," asks Brewer; "I signed mine, didn't I?"

Dog Gives Out Ideas

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—When a dog darted in front of Wilferd H. Kemp's auto several years ago he slammed the brake pedal to the floor and nearly snapped his steering wheel when he automatically pushed it toward the floorboards. It was this experience that gave him the idea of a steering wheel that would double as a brake. Recently Kemp, 29, was given a patent for a steering column which, when pressed down, engages an emergency brake.

'Taint Fair

BOOTHBAY HARBOR, Me. (UP) —After the summer tourists leave, this town removes the meter heads from parking meters so residents can park free during the winter.

Says Dogs Prefer Thinking to Running

BAR HARBOR, Me. (UP)—Dogs prefer thinking to running and don't mind living in small apartments, according to Clarence J. Pfaffenberger, vice president of Guide Dogs for the Blind, of San Francisco.

Provided the landlord is willing, there "is no reason why a puppy can't be quite happy in an apartment," Pfaffenberger said in a lecture at the Roscoe B. Johnson Memorial Laboratory here.

Zealanders Well Read

CHRISTCHURCH, N. Z. (UP) —New Zealanders read and buy more books than Americans. This is one of the first conclusions reached by Robert J. Havighurst, professor of education and chairman of the committee on human development at the University of Chicago, who is here conducting research studies of camparison of New Zealand and American children.

The Giants hold the National league record of 12 home runs hit in three consecutive games.

Rich Date Topping Glamorizes Sundae

Date Sundae Topping

- ½ cup sliced, pitted dates
- ½ cup dark corn syrup
- ½ cup brown sugar
- ½ cup water
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- ½ cup chopped nutmeats

Combine dates, corn syrup, brown sugar, water and salt in a saucepan. Bring to a boil and cook two minutes over medium heat, stirring constantly.

Turkey in Sauce Makes Waffles Good Main Dish

Waffles are family favorites. It's true, they are quite delicious with lots of sirup and butter or margarine. But there's other ways to treat these favorites.

Here's a main-dish way with waffles. Big tender chunks of yesterday's turkey will take new airs when served in a cream sauce atop hot waffles.

Caramel Apples Easy on Teeth

Have you given up eating candy apples because you prefer not to lose the filling out of a tooth? This recipe should be good news for you.

Although the caramel on these apples is rich and butterscotchy, it's still creamy and pliable — not the brittle kind that takes tooth fillings out!

Caramel Apples On-a-Stick

- 8 medium-size Jonathan apples
- 1 cup sugar
- ⅓ cup white corn syrup
- 1 15-ounce can sweetened condensed milk
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- Finely chopped filberts (if desired)

Remove any stems from apples; wash and thoroughly dry. Insert wooden skewer in stem end of each apple. Mix sugar, corn syrup, condensed milk and salt in heavy saucepan. Stir over low heat until sugar is completely dissolved.

Cook slowly, but allow mixture to boil, stirring gently but constantly, until candy thermometer registers 238 degrees, or until a small amount of the caramel dropped in cold water forms a soft ball.

Remove from heat; cool slightly. Stir in butter, then vanilla.

If desired, you may set the dipped apples in the chopped filberts and then place them on the cookie sheet to dry.

Turkey Thighs Promise Fine Dinner for Six

Mrs. Homemaker can make her Thanksgiving dinner a really memorable feast by serving turkey cuts.

For instance, a pair of braised "dark meat" turkey thighs with jellied cranberry sauce promises a wonderful meal for six to eight persons, says the current issue of a national magazine. The thighs, each weighing about two pounds, should be served in slices with the bones removed.

Roast boneless breast of turkey is another worthwhile item for any homemaker's Thanksgiving menu. The homemaker should grease the breast, cover loosely with aluminum foil, and allow 50 minutes cooking time for each pound.

Oven-fried turkey is a practical Thanksgiving dinner selection when the homemaker invites company, since only two to two and one-half hours cooking time is required.

The homemaker should choose four to five-pound turkeys and cut them up. Three-quarters of a pound will make a serving.

Braised Beef on Rice Is One Thrifty Recipe

Cubed beef need not always end up in a beef and vegetable stew. There are many other uses for the thrifty meat. One is braised beef on rice:

Brown beef cubes, add a small amount of water, salt and pepper, celery leaves and any desired seasonings. Then cook, covered, until nearly tender, adding more water as needed. Add some catsup or tomato sauce and continue cooking until tender. Season to taste with soy sauce, Worcestershire sauce or curry powder and serve over hot rice.

HALLOWEEN TOMCATS—You need not be an artist to make up these saucy pussycats. Bite-size shredded rice biscuits are the base, with marshmallows, black jelly beans and coconut adding the amusing touches.

Treat Beggars to Saucy Kitties

Win the Hearts of Your Small Nocturnal Guests With Cereal Pussies

It's a foregone conclusion that the way to the heart of your Halloween "trick or treat" visitors is through the stomach by means of tasties put in eager little hands.

These tasties needn't flatten your purse, not if you make these clever cereal cats. Complete—even to coconut whiskers which no self-respecting cat would be caught without — they'll amuse your young night visitors.

Halloween Tomcats

- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine (for greasing bowl and fingers)
- 1 package bite-size shredded rice biscuits
- 1-3 cup butter or margarine
- ¼ pound (about 30) marshmallows
- 9 black jelly beans
- 4 marshmallows
- Shredded coconut

Butter generously a 4-quart bowl. Pour bite-size shredded rice biscuits into bowl. Heat the one-third cup butter and marshmallows over boiling water until marshmallows are melted, stirring often to blend.

Pour marshmallow mixture evenly over cereal. Mix with large spoon until all cereal is coated. Let stand 15 minutes to cool and be easy to handle. Divide into six equal portions. With buttered hands firmly press each portion into a 2½-inch ball.

Make a face on each ball. For eyes, cut six jelly beans in half crosswise. Use a half for each eye. For mouths, cut three jelly beans in half lengthwise.

For whiskers, stick two or three coconut shreds beside mouths. For ears, cut each marshmallow into three triangle-shaped pieces. Use one triangle for each ear.

Develop 2-Track Mind: Be Efficient in Kitchen

You can boil potatoes, for instance, for salad; or you can prepare a quick gelatin dessert and put it in the refrigerator to set and chill.

You will cut your dishwashing work down if you remember to rinse egg and milk dishes in cold water, sugary ones in hot water and to wipe greasy pans with a paper towel.

Tangy, Refreshing Cider Puts New Life in Recipes

By JANET ODELL

One of the things I like best about this job of Food Editor is the opportunity it gives me to browse through all sorts of cookbooks.

I have been doing it for years anyway, but now there is some definite reason for my browsing. It's impossible to look up just the recipe I'm interested in and ignore all the rest — that's like eating one salted peanut — and often I find myself reading the whole book right through.

That has its good points. I get ideas for new food stories. Recently, for instance. I was looking up cranberry recipes, and I got sidetracked on cider.

Since this is the fall of the year and we are all buying cider, that gives me a wonderful chance to sound off on the subject — and all because I was reading a cookbook with my second cup of coffee.

Here in Oakland County we can easily get excellent cider in the fall. Local cider mills are interesting places to visit; some of them date back over 100 years.

The early pioneers drank cider even for breakfast. Every farmer with an apple orchard made his own cider, using mainly the windfall apples. Today, only sound apples are used for commercially made cider.

Apple juice is merely a more refined product than cider; it is put through finer filters and is pasteurized to destroy the harmless yeast and molds which will develop in ordinary cider.

Grandpap had little use for cider until it got old enough to pack the punch of a winning prizefighter. We are not concerned with that kind of cider. But did you ever drink sparkling cider?

Years ago I had some at a children's party, and it was wonderful. The cider had been charged with carbon dioxide gas in the same way that soft drinks are and was all bubbly and quite tart.

"Thippin' thider through a thtraw" is good fun, but there are other ways of using the pale amber liquid. Drop a scoop of lemon sherbet in a small glass of cider and serve as an appetizer. It's delicious and refreshing. Use the cider as an ingredient in recipes and you'll end up with some elegant food.

Here are some recipes for using cider that I discovered after deciding to write an article on the subject.

Cider Glaze For Ham

Combine one-half cup maple syrup, one-half cup cider and 2 tablespoons prepared mustard. Forty-five minutes before the ham is done, spread glaze over it, then finish baking.

Cider Aspic

- 1½ tablespoons gelatin
- ½ cup water
- 2 cups cider
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- ½ to ⅔ cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/8 teaspoon cloves

Dissolve the gelatin in the cold water. Combine and heat the rest of the ingredients. Add the soaked gelatin. Heat and stir until it is dissolved. Mold and chill.

When nearly set you may add 2½ cups of grated carrots, chopped apples, avocado, celery, nutmeats, etc. Makes about 3 cups without solid ingredients.

Cider Sauce

For Steamed Puddings

- 1 tablespoon butter, melted
- ¾ tablespoon flour
- 1-1½ cups cider
- Sugar, if desired

Stir flour into melted butter until well blended. Add the cider, stir and cook for two minutes. Serve hot or cold. Makes 2 cups.

Include Milk in Diet of Children, Adults

Milk, being nature's most nearly perfect food, develops strong, healthy bones and muscles. That's because milk is so rich in calcium, phosphorus, and protein plus many other minerals. Milk is the best and most economical source of these food values.

The proteins, vitamins and minerals in milk help make the kind of healthy bodies that football players train to have. Not only children, but adults too need milk in their daily diet.

Reporter's View:

Let's Watch Ike in Action at His Press Conference

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Before this year is over, some presidential news conferences may be televised.

But since that day still hasn't arrived, let's drop in on yesterday's meeting with President Eisenhower for a picture of how one of democracy's most unusual institutions is conducted.

The conferences are held on the fourth floor of the old State Department Building, next door to the White House. The visitor who steps into the conference room for the first time is bound to get a shock.

For it really isn't a room, it's a gigantic doodle. The building was put up at a time when architects felt a plain board or a square foot of vacant wall space would be a disgrace. Gewgaws and gimcracks tumble over each other.

In each corner stands a cast iron cupid. Over each are three round light globes, giving the impression that one has wandered into an elegant pawn shop.

To add to the architectural confusion, a dozen microphones sprout from the floor, for reporters asking questions. From the fantastic little balcony that runs around the room, loudspeakers hang, like giant blossoms on a trellis.

Eisenhower must have synchronized his watch with the room's clock, for he is on time to the second. The 152 reporters stand as he comes in the side door. Eisenhower marches to the desk in front and asks them to be seated.

Eisenhower begins with a brief statement. Nice having the King and Queen of Greece drop around. Nice, too, that Israel has decided to hold up work on a hydroelectric project in accord with the advice of a U.N. truce team.

A pause. A quick turn to his left to ask: What was that third thing? Hagerty whispers. Oh, yes, the President says, the U. S. Information Service.

As usual, they span the world: The size of our armed services abroad, farm prices, how Eisenhower feels flattered when a candidate wants to have his picture taken with the President, Churchill, Eisenhower's health, minimum wages, the duties of a President, Gov. Dewey of New York, the high cost of living, a special session of Congress.

Asked about it, Eisenhower replies: He feels fine. True, he has had a bad elbow which has kept him from exercising, and he misses that. But he's had a series of tests, and the report is cheering for a man of his age, which is 63.

Running time for the conference, Eisenhower's 18th since he took office: 26 minutes.

A recent survey showed also that more than half of all the employed persons in the United States use passenger cars in earning their living. Production and distribution of motor cars furnishes more than 1,000,000 people with jobs.

CHICKEN BARONESS—Sliced radishes add a style note to glamorous Chicken Baroness. MSG helps to bring out the flavor as it does on any chicken dish. Another gourmet touch is the use of mushrooms and cream. But it won't break the budget.

Vegetable or Main Dish

Put canned asparagus in a shallow baking dish, cover with a rich cream sauce, sprinkle with a thick layer of grated cheese, and heat in a moderate oven. If you like, cubes of chicken or turkey may be added to the asparagus, for a delicious main dish.

Chicken Regal, Yet Economical

High style—low cost. Hard to believe that this glamorous Chicken Baroness is so easy on the budget—and what a sight to the eyes. Chicken is as versatile and economical a food as any cook could want. And this is the time of the year to use it in quantity.

Chicken Baroness

2 broilers, quartered
⅓ cup fat or salad oil
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon MSG
1 teaspoon paprika
2 medium onions, sliced
⅓ cup white wine
1 cup light cream
1 4-ounce can button mushrooms
6 radishes, sliced

Have broilers quartered at market, with necks and backbones removed. Brown quarters in fat or salad oil, turning to brown evenly. Sprinkle with salt, MSG and paprika. Add onion slices; cook slowly until soft but not brown. Add wine; cover; simmer 20 minutes.

Stir in cream and mushrooms. Serve at once, garnished with radish slices. Serves eight.

Corn Brightens Clam Chowder

The art of making good, strong flavorful soup is one that is acquired. Most good soup-makers add a variety of herbs, spices and vegetables . . . mainly to their own taste.

Take clam chowder, for instance. Our recipe is one that originated in Europe. Here, we would call it Manhattan-style since it is made with tomatoes rather than milk. It also uses bacon, which rules it out as a Friday night meat substitute.

A number of vegetables are added to give it colorful taste appeal. The whole kernel corn may seem unusual to you if you think of chowder in terms of potatoes and celery.

This recipe calls for a can of whole kernel corn. The golden yellow color and rich field fresh flavor of corn make this chowder temptingly tasteful.

Golden Clam Chowder

3 stalks celery
1 leek
2 large carrots
2 medium potatoes
4 cups water
1 teaspoon thyme
1 bay leaf
Salt to taste
1 teaspoon parsley
6 strips bacon
1 tablespoon flour
12 clams and clam juice
1 can whole kernel corn
3 cups cooked or canned tomatoes

Wash and cut celery, leek, carrots and potatoes into small pieces. Place in saucepan and cover with water. Add thyme, bay leaf, salt and parsley. Cook until vegetables are done.

While vegetables are cooking, fry bacon until crispy and well done. Add one tablespoon flour and a little liquid from the vegetables to the bacon; mix well. Add to vegetables.

Wash, shuck and cut clams into small pieces. Strain clam juice. Add clams and juice to cooked vegetables. Add corn and tomatoes and continue cooking about 10 minutes or until clams are tender.

Biscuit Variations Can Travel Atop Casserole Dishes

Shredded cheese, finely chopped parsley, pimiento, or onion add their own flavor to biscuits. Caraway seeds added to biscuit dough give a very distinctive flavor.

3-Flavored Canape 'Pie' Adds to Halloween Fun

Place this Halloween canape pie in the center of a large tray and surround with several kinds of crisp crackers. Be sure to heat the crackers to insure their crispness.

Halloween Canape Pie

For cheese layer: Cream together 6 ounces cream cheese and 1½ ounces blue cheese. Season to taste with Worcestershire sauce and chopped parsley.

Mix in enough milk or cream to make it spreading consistency. Spread in an even layer in bottom of 8-inch pie plate.

For ham layer: Spread two small cans of deviled ham over the cheese layer.

Marinate Meat in Wine to Get Grape Flavor

In our zeal to streamline everything, let's not overlook the purpose of marinating meat in wine. It is twofold. It breaks down tough connective tissues and at the same time imparts some of the glorious grape flavor to the meat.

The length of time the meat is immersed in wine varies with the tenderness of the meat, and whether or not it is to be stewed or roasted.

Salad of Beets and Eggs Delicious for Luncheon

Alternate slices of cooked beets and hard-cooked eggs on salad greens and serve with a dressing of olive oil, red wine vinegar, prepared mustard, salt and pepper.

This makes an unusually delicious luncheon course when it is served with whole-wheat bread and cream-cheese sandwiches.

Frosting for Freezing

Choose a butter frosting for the cake you want to put in your freezer; egg white icings do not stand up under freezing. Wrap the frosted cake with aluminum foil and freeze immediately.

Observe this safety tip when using a pressure saucepan. Never try to remove the indicator weight or open the saucepan until the pressure is down.

Dozen New Classrooms Ready in Holly Area

HOLLY — Over a dozen of the rooms in the Holly Area new schools were occupied by students for the first time the past week, or will be ready soon after Nov. 1.

Beets and Cheese Make Filling Salad

Beet and Cottage Cheese Salad

1 tablespoon salad oil
1 teaspoon wine vinegar
⅛ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon prepared mustard
1 8½ ounce can sliced beets
8 ounces cream style cottage cheese

Put oil, vinegar, salt and mustard in mixing bowl and beat well with fork. Mix with well-drained beets. Arrange lettuce on salad plates; arrange beet slices in a circle and fill circle with cottage cheese. Makes four servings.

Salt Takes Off Odors

The problem of fish odors on hands or dishes is easily solved. Just rub your hands and dishes well with moistened salt, then rinse with hot water before washing with soap and water.

Trick or Treat? Youngsters Like Chewing Gum

It's almost time for spooks and witches to haunt your neighborhood again, so better be ready with treats for all the Halloween spirits that ring your doorbell a week from Saturday.

Want to put smiles on the little faces behind those weird and fearsome masks? Treat your trick-happy visitors to some chewing gum.

Sticks or packages of gum win youngsters' thanks instead of pranks. The cost is small and the treats are ready-wrapped for quick and easy handling.

What's more, your parental neighbors will be thankful your treat was chewing gum because it's healthful, wholesome and won't overload goblins' tummies.

A stop at your friendly merchant's display of chewing gum will prepare you for treating 'em right. That's the spirit!

CARAMEL CROWN DESSERT—Good to look at, simply divine to eat is this easy-to-fix dessert. The base is a shortbread-type cookie, the sauce made from vanilla caramels. It's bound to please your guests any time you serve it.

Climax Your Dinner With Cider Sherbet

Cider Mallobet

24 marshmallows
1½ cups cider
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons sugar
2 egg whites
⅛ teaspoon salt

Heat marshmallows with ¾ cup cider over hot water, folding over and over until marshmallows are half melted. Remove from heat, add remaining cider, lemon juice and 1 tablespoon sugar. Continue folding until mixture is thick and spongy. Cool.

Beat egg whites and salt until nearly stiff, add remaining sugar and beat until stiff. Fold egg whites into marshmallow mixture, pour into freezing tray of refrigerator and freeze until firm. Six servings.

Caramel Crown Dessert Is Luscious Meal Finale

One of the nicest luncheons the food editors attended in Chicago was given by a famous cheese company. The main course was cheeseburgers, made with a creamy cheese spread, and crisp coleslaw.

For dessert they served a delicious ice cream concoction called Caramel Crown Dessert. The cookie base was a square of shortbread, and a scoop of vanilla ice cream, topped with caramel sauce, made it just the right ending to a pleasant meal.

Caramel Crown Dessert

1 cup maragarine or butter
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups flour
Ice cream
Caramel sauce

Thoroughly cream the margarine and sugar. Add the egg yolk and vanilla. Add the flour and mix well. Spread in greased 10½x15½-inch (jelly roll) pan and bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 15 to 20 minutes.

Cool and cut into 15 squares. Place a scoop of ice cream on each square and pour caramel sauce over the top.

Quick Caramel Sauce

½ pound vanilla caramels (28) caramels)
½ cup hot water or milk

Place the caramels and the water or milk in the top of a double boiler. Heat, stirring frequently until the caramels are melted and the sauce is smooth. Makes one cup of sauce.

Broccoli, Pork Are Teammates

Broccoli is one of the favorite late summer and fall vegetables. However, most people do not realize that broccoli can also be used successfully in combination dishes. Here is a recipe which offers piquant proof of this fact.

Broccoli With Pork

½ pound pork steak, or fresh pork tenderloin
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
3 tablespoons fat
2 tablespoons minced onion
1 bunch broccoli, trimmed
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons water

Cut pork in thin, one-eighth inch strips. Place pork strips in a bowl and sprinkle with the kitchen bouquet. Stir to coat meat evenly.

Meanwhile cut broccoli stems in half-inch pieces and separate flowerette into 1-inch pieces. Spread broccoli in even layer over the pork. Sprinkle with the seasonings, then add the lemon juice and water.

Cover tightly and cook over low heat until the broccoli is barely tender, about 15 minutes. Remove cover and allow any remaining moisture to evaporate. Stir lightly and serve immediately with buttered egg noodles. Makes four servings.

Steamed Hamburgers Means Tender Meat

When having round steak ground for hamburgers, ask that a little suet or other fat be ground with the beef.

Never try to fry round steak as it will not be tender. Always brown the steak, add a little liquid and seasonings and cook until tender in a covered utensil.

Thin slices of round steak may be pounded, then rolled around a bread dressing for beef birds. Cook these slowly with liquid in a covered utensil.

Menu Sparked by Crumb Buns

A triple treat is in store for those who make Pineapple Crumb Buns. Easy, timesaving and delicious! Packaged roll mix saves time — and there's no kneading, rolling or shaping required in the making.

On the crumbly topped buns is a crown of tasty pineapple, giving them flavor plus.

Pineapple Crumb Buns

1 package hot roll mix
1-3 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1-3 cup flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ cup butter or margarine
Canned sliced pineapple

Prepare hot roll mix according to directions on package. After the first rising, pat dough into a greased 9-inch square pan. Dip the knuckle of the forefinger in flour and mark the dough into nine squares by indenting about a half inch. (When baked the buns will easily break apart.)

Mix sugar, flour and spices together; cut in butter until crumbly. Sprinkle mixture over the dough and top each square with half slices of pineapple.

Let rise until double in bulk. Bake in a hot oven (400) about 35 minutes, or until done. Nine servings.

PINEAPPLE CRUMB BUNS—Best breakfast! That's what it will be with a beginning of chilled canned orange juice, and delicious Pineapple Crumb Buns on the menu. The buns, made quickly with packaged roll mix, need no rolling or shaping. They're good the next day, too.

Perfect Popcorn Needs Salt and Salad Oil

To make perfect popcorn, you need only three ingredients . . . popcorn, salad oil and salt.

Or heat 3 tablespoons of salad oil in a skillet or deep saucepan with a tight fitting cover, but do not allow oil to smoke. Add ½ cup popcorn and ½ teaspoon salt; cover.

Shake over heat until corn begins to pop. Reduce heat and continue shaking until all corn is popped.

This will make six to seven cups of popcorn.

Snowy Pudding Topping

Give chocolate pudding a snowy topping! Sift a little confectioners' sugar over its surface. Small fry, especially, appreciate this garnish! If you want to top vanilla pudding this way, mix a little nutmeg and cinnamon—just a dash—with the sugar.

Brew Oysters in Creamy Stew

In oyster season seafood enthusiasts' thoughts just naturally turn to thoughts of oyster stew—and a delightful thought it is.

This is an oyster stew to end all oyster stews. Evaporated milk makes it creamy rich in flavor and consistency, and at the same time cuts the cost so the family can enjoy oyster stew often.

Oyster Stew

2 cups evaporated milk
2 cups water
1 slice onion
2 stalks celery
2 sprigs parsley
Bit of bay leaf
4 tablespoons cracker crumbs
1 pint oysters
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of paprika

Scald the milk and water with the onion, celery, parsley and bay leaf 15 minutes. Remove celery, onion and bay leaf and add the cracker crumbs.

Heat the cleaned oysters in their own liquid until the edges curl. Add oysters and liquid to milk mixture and season with butter, salt and a dash of paprika. Serve immediately. Makes six servings.

Transparent plastic or glass refrigerator dishes are a good choice because you see your leftovers at a glance.

Mushroom Caps Filled With Tuna Tasty Canape

Tasty tidbits of every kind, from dips and dunks to savory toast and cracker spreads, can be prepared with little expense of money or effort when flavorful tuna is used as the basic ingredient.

Try these tempting tuna tidbits next time you give a party.

Tuna-Mushroom Tidbits

1 6½-ounce can chunk-style tuna, drained
¼ cup light cream
½ teaspoon salt
Dash cayenne
Dash Tabasco
16 large mushrooms
Bread crumbs
Grated processed American cheese

Combine tuna, cream, salt, cayenne and Tabasco; mix well. Remove stems from mushrooms. Wash mushroom caps. Broil mushrooms rounded-side up three-four inches from source of heat for five minutes.

Remove from broiler rack, turn and fill each cap with tuna mixture. Sprinkle with bread crumbs and grated cheese.

Return to broiler rack and broil three-four inches from source of heat about five minutes more, or until cheese is melted and lightly browned. Makes four servings.

Leftover Fish Can Be Tasty

"Leftover fish is never appreciated like leftover meat." In the October issue a sportsman's magazine, J. George Frederick gives the housewife some good recipes she can use for leftover fish and some good tips for making the leftover fish more palatable.

"There's one valuable hint to remember when preparing the first fish dish: Save the water the fish is boiled in (fish stock), or make additional fish stock by boiling the heads, tails and bones in water for 10 minutes for use with fish leftovers. Always refrigerate.

"There are, broadly speaking five methods of treating fish leftovers. The first is to change the sauce from the previous day's type. The second treatment is to serve some other food in combination with it. The third is the familiar 'hash plan' which includes goulash, kedgeree, fricassee, mulligans or stew.

"The fourth is the chowder or 'bouillabaisee,' which is, in effect a soup. The fifth is the aspic or jelly, especially tasty during warm weather. The present-day age of electric refrigerators makes this a particularly simple and delicious technique."

Frederick says that the combination of flavors, the key to success, is what makes the leftover fish a good dish.

"The initial preparation is for the savor of the fish itself; the second eating is for the delight of fish in combination with other foods." He stresses that "there is nothing more dreary than leftover fish in incompetent hands."

Freezing of Small Game Has Technique for Flavor

With so many more American homes equipped with their own food freezers, opening of hunting season this year takes on special significance. For now the hunter's "bag" can be stored safely in his own home, and then eaten at will throughout the year (your state game laws permitting).

Since enjoyment of the game by preservation of its good flavor depends so much on proper storage in the freezer, the home economics director for a national freezer company suggests these freezing techniques:

Small game being frozen whole for roasting, may be dropped right into plastic freezer bags once they are dressed and properly prepared. As you tie the bag securely, exclude as much air as possible. Freezer foil or paper also is very satisfactory.

Freeze immediately by placing in direct contact with freezing surfaces. With the packages of very small birds, you may wish to keep them organized in the freezer by placing all the packages in a turkey-size plastic freezer bag.

For game that you will wish to fry, package the nice meaty pieces by placing a double thickness of freezer paper or cellophane between them. Then you will be able to separate the pieces easily and fry the meat without defrosting. Package in family-sized portions for greatest convenience.

With large game, be sure that the animal is properly dressed, aged and then chilled.

Freezing at zero degrees for several months in the freezer will tenderize the game so that long aging is not necessary. Cut the meat, or have it cut, into family-sized portions of steaks, roasts, stew meat and the like.

Wrap the meat securely with freezer paper and seal well. Be sure to label all packages carefully, including date of freezing.

The bony pieces of any of your game take a great deal of room in your freezer. So, whenever possible, make soups and some stews with these pieces, then just freeze the concentrates for later use.

Cider Adds Zest to Autumn Menus

Sweet cider time is here! What is a surer sign of autumn than jugs of apple cider flanking pumpkins at roadside stands and markets across the country.

For instance, serve a slice of ham with a sweet cider sauce. Purchase a ham slice cut 1½ to 2 inches thick. Place the slice in a baking dish and cover with sweet cider. Add 3 or 4 whole cloves and 1 cup of seedless raisins.

Cover the meat and cook at 300 until done, from 1 to 1½ hours. Then remove the slice of ham to a warmed platter. Around it arrange cooked apple halves, sprinkled with cinnamon.

For the sauce, thicken the cider in which the ham was cooked with 2 tablespoons of flour smoothed in cold water. Serve the cider sauce over the ham.

Penuche Fudge Pie Cuts 8-10 Servings

Penuche Fudge Pie

1 unbaked 9-inch pastry crust
1 package penuche quick fudge mix
3 large eggs
½ cup water
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
¾ cup pecan halves

Put fudge mix in bowl. Add eggs, water and melted butter or margarine. Beat with rotary beater until thoroughly blended. Stir in pecan halves. Pour into unbaked crust. Bake at 375 degrees for 40 minutes until filling is set. Cool. Serve with whipped cream. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

'Turkish Cucumber'

An interesting note about pumpkin is the fact that it was once known in Europe as "Turkish cucumber." Though it is believed to have originated in America it found its way to Europe about 50 years after Columbus reached these shores. Its European name stemmed from the fact that it reached the continent via Turkey.

To Prevent Sogginess

Note for new cooks: Cut a criss-cross in the top of baked potatoes as soon as they're ready. This way you allow steam to escape and prevent potatoes from becoming soggy.

Keep Greens Separate

A cooked vegetable salad tastes delicious and looks attractive if the vegetables are marinated separately and then arranged in a symmetrical design in a lettuce-lined salad bowl. Use French dressing for the marinade.

Middle-agers Need Less Sugar and More Milk

These rules for a sound diet for persons over 40 are simple, based on laboratory research. Follow them for good health.

1—Eat less sugar. The average American consumes about four times as much sugar as he should. Cut down on sweets. Cut out sweet carbonated soft drinks. Eliminate sweet pastries.

2—Drink more milk. Besides satisfying thirst, milk is a nearly perfect food. Alcoholic beverages carry too much sugar, have no vital nutrients.

3—Eat more whole grain and improved white breads. In the Cornell formula soy is used to bolster the inferior proteins of white flour and wheat germ to restore minerals and vitamins. Skim milk ingredients provide assimilable calcium, high-grade animal proteins and vitamins.

4—Moderate fat consumption. For people over forty, the higher the fat level in the diet, the heavier the drain on the body's calcium bank.

Hot Mocha Drink Goes With Supper

Are you wondering what to serve for Sunday night supper. Why not have toasted cheese sandwiches, red apple wedges, frosted cupcakes and a different hot beverage, hot mocha drink?

Hot Mocha Drink

4 tablespoons cocoa
3 tablespoons instant coffee
4 tablespoons sugar
4 cups liquefied nonfat dry milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix cocoa, coffee and sugar in saucepan. Gradually add liquefied dry milk. Place over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until thoroughly hot. Add vanilla. Serve immediately. Makes four servings.

New Mexico Develops New Tortilla Recipe

A new recipe for ancient Mexican tortillas has been developed by Department of Agriculture experts in New Mexico. Instead of traditional ground corn, this recipe uses enriched white or whole wheat flour.

The ingredients are two cups sifted flour, three tablespoons dry milk, three-quarters of a teaspoon salt, one teaspoon baking powder, one-and-one-half tablespoonsful of fat, and a half a cup of water —or enough water to make a medium dough.

Sift salt, baking powder, nonfat dry milk and flour together. Add fat and mix well. Add water. Knead dough for about five minutes. Cover and let stand 15 minutes. Divide into portions, roll with rolling pin into round shape one-eighth of an inch thick, and cook on a greased griddle until brown on both sides.

To Go With Perch Fillet

Delicious accompaniment to frozen perch fillet: cream sauce seasoned with dry mustard, tabasco sauce, and grated Parmesan cheese. Serve with potatoes (mashed or baked) and broccoli seasoned with lemon butter.

GREEN BEANS AND ONIONS SUPERB—Your family will be pleased with this different way to serve frozen green beans. The tender, garden-fresh beans are combined with small white onions and a creamy cheese sauce—then served over crisp fried noodles.

Beans Featured in Superb Dish

This vegetable combination is an unusually fine dish with enticing flavor and a pleasing contrast in texture. Once you serve this distinctive mixture, repeats will be asked for—often!

Green Beans And Onions Superb

1 package frozen green beans
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sacue
1-3 cup grated American cheese
8 to 10 small white onions, cooked
1 can Chinese noodles

Cook green beans according to instructions on package. Make sauce of butter or margarine, flour, salt, milk and Worchestershire sauce. Stir in cheese until melted.

Mix green beans, onions and cheese sauce together and serve over Chinese noodles. Amount: Four to six servings.

Cranberries Still Beloved as in Indian-Pilgrim Days

By JANET ODELL

Once upon a time a Cape Cod cranberry grower packed off all his berries but one to the cooperative; that one he put in his freezer.

Every time his family wanted a cranberry pie during the winter he would take out the berry and whittle off a slice. He admitted that sometimes it was hard to get the berry to stretch out until the next harvest.

"Long about July or August," he said, "we sometimes have to add a few raisins to the pie filling." This story, all in good fun, was told in a tall tales contest at the annual Cape Cod Cranberry Festival.

Cranberries have been on the American table ever since there was a table here. The Indians knew and used cranberries. The Pilgrims welcomed the tart little red berries, then no bigger than peas, as tasty additions to a limited, dull diet.

Although the wild plants have disappeared, miles and miles of cultivated cranberry bogs can be seen in Massachusetts, New Jersey and Wisconsin.

No longer a holiday food, cranberries are now available throughout the year. The fresh berries come to market in the fall, canned sauce and jelly are always on the grocer's shelf, and you can freeze the plastic bags of berries just as they come from the store. Frozen berries will grind with much less spattering of juice than fresh ones.

Look for firm, almost hard, lustrous berries when you buy. Store them in a covered container in the refrigerator. Wash them only when you are ready to use them. One pound of cranberries measures 1 quart and will make 3 to 3½ cups of cooked sauce.

Make the delicious cranberry-orange relish (grind up a pound of cranberries with two oranges and sugar to taste) that can be kept so well in the refrigerator. Or try one of the recipes below:

Cranberry Bread

1 cup cranberries, chopped
1 cup sugar
3 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped nuts
Grated rind of 1 orange
1 egg, beaten
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening

Mix one-fourth cup sugar with the cranberries. Sift the dry ingredients, add nuts and orange rind. Combine egg, milk and shortening. Add to the first mixture. Fold in the cranberries.

Bake in a greased bread pan at 350 degrees for one hour. Makes one loaf. This bread will slice much better if it is allowed to stand 24 hours before slicing.

Cranberry Sherbet

1 tablespoon gelatin
1¼ cups water
2½ cups cranberry sauce
1 egg white, stiffly beaten

Soften gelatin in one-fourth cup cold water. Boil sugar and remaining water together three minutes. Add cranberries and boil five minutes longer. Press through a sieve, pour over softened gelatin and stir until gelatin is dissolved.

Cool and fold in egg white. Pour into freezing tray of refrigerator and freeze until firm, stirring occasionally. Makes six servings.

Missing Sitter Was Substitute

Report No New Clues to Evelyn Hartley, 15, Gone Since Saturday

LA CROSSE, Wis. (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Evelyn Hartley is missing—probably dead—today because she did a favor on Saturday night for a girl friend.

The popular high school junior, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hartley, has been the object of intensive search since her disappearance in mid-evening five nights ago from the home of Viggo Rasmusen. She was there only because a classmate at La Crosse High School asked her to substitute on a baby-sitting job.

* * *

"Evelyn had done no baby sitting for three months," said Dist. Atty. John Bosshard. "Her father tells us she filled in for Rasmusen's regular baby sitter so she could go to a football game. The chances are Evelyn was an accidental victim."

Bosshard declined to name the girl she substituted for.

The football game, between La Crosse State College, where both Dr. Hartley and Rasmusen are professors, and River Falls State College, also was attended by the Rasmusens.

* * *

The possibility that a boy friend of Evelyn's might be involved in her disappearance was discounted by Bosshard.

"All the boys she's ever gone out with—and there aren't many—have been cleared," he said.

Bosshard discounted also a report from Milwaukee that a mysterious man described as being six feet tall and weighing 180 pounds might be involved in the case. The man being sought by Milwaukee police, left a bundle containing two blood-stained shirts at a railway station bootblack stand. The district attorney said it seemed unlikely to him that a man that size could have entered the 14-inch basement window of the Rasmusen home.

Contest Aims at Fine Lawns for Lakeside

Families at Lakeside Homes Housing Development are completing a heavy schedule of work on their lawns in a contest sponsored by the Pontiac Housing Commission.

In an effort to speed up progress of lawn seeding and landscaping, $500 in prizes was offered, according to Roy B. MacAfee, executive director of the housing commission.

The area was divided into four divisions, with $125 in prizes designed for each division, he explained.

Clothing Valued at $162 Stolen From Cleaners

Clothing valued at $162 was stolen last night from the Orchard Lake avenue branch of the Huron Dry Cleaners and Shirt Laundry, according to owner Burt H. Goodwin, 38 Delaware Dr.

Det. Thomas Mitchell of Pontiac Police said thieves gained entrance to the building by removing the hinges from a basement door. The loss is covered by insurance, Goodwin said.

Canned Tomato Juice Grows in Importance

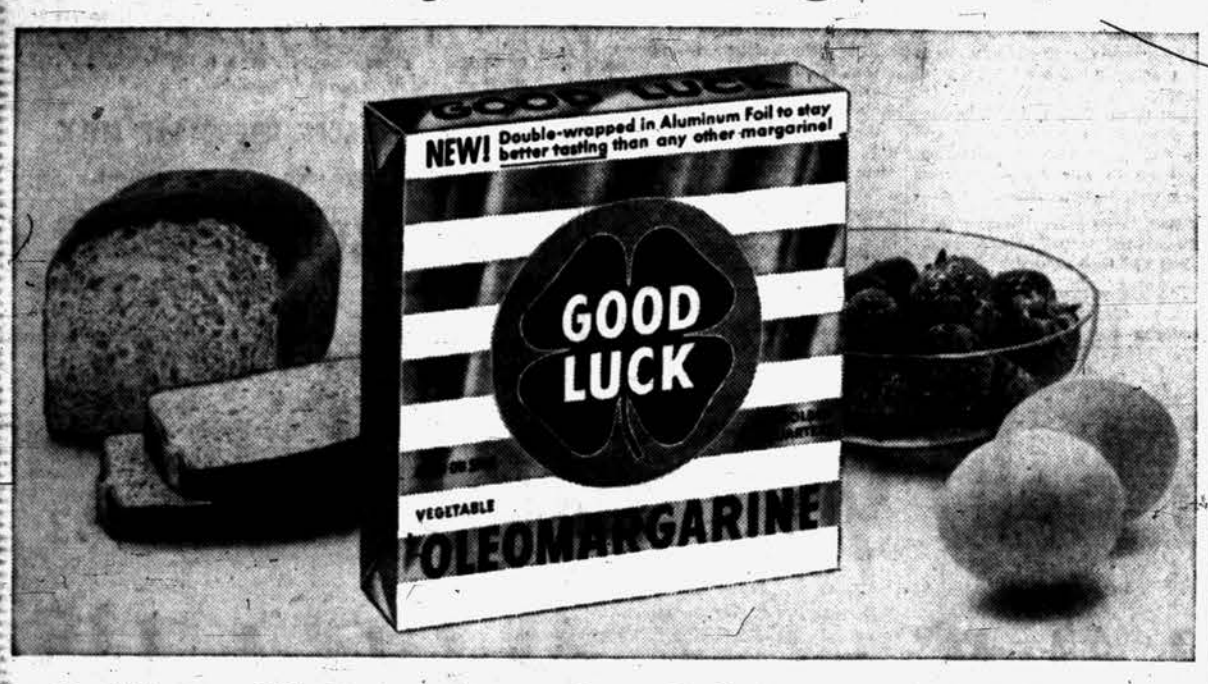

Since its debut in 1928, the output of homogenized tomato juice has jumped from a few thousand cases offered hopefully by a small Indiana cannery, to a high of 36 million cases, produced by many different concerns.

During that time, the juice has even surpassed the whole fruit—or vegetable—as a commercially canned product.

In its infancy, tomato juice was regarded as a food fr infants and faddists. It was considered of such little importance that years later, when the question of who was the first commercial producer came up, a battle of "firsts" took place in the columns of the trade magazone Food Packer.

Exclusive double-wrapped Aluminum Package keeps GOOD LUCK better tasting than any other margarine!

Read the proof! In flavor tests, new Reynolds Wrap kept GOOD LUCK sweet as the day it was made—even after 8 weeks! Only GOOD LUCK has it!

NOW YOU can serve perfect table spread every time—sweet and delicious as the day it was packed! Just look for GOOD LUCK margarine in this revolutionary new package made of shiny Reynolds aluminum foil.

To test this package, we put GOOD LUCK in a refrigerator along with other table spreads wrapped in ordinary waxed cartons. Next to them we placed sliced onions—and the strongest cheese we could find.

Sweet and Delicious After 8 Weeks

After eight weeks, GOOD LUCK in its new aluminum package was still as sweet and delicious as the day it was made! But the other quality margarines in the usual waxed cartons had lost flavor and picked up odors very quickly, some after only six days.

Here's the reason for the difference: We wrap each quarter-pound print in pure Reynolds Wrap, then we put the quarter pounds in a waxed carton for extra protection, and finally, we seal the whole carton in shiny aluminum foil.

As a result, GOOD LUCK not only tastes delicious when we wrap it, but keeps its glorious flavor better—and longer—than any other margarine.

Remember, GOOD LUCK in its new package is unconditionally guaranteed by Lever Brothers Company, 390 Park Avenue, New York 22, New York.

We stored GOOD LUCK in the refrigerator next to strong cheese and onions for 8 weeks. When the new aluminum package was opened, GOOD LUCK's flavor was sweet and delicious as ever!

Keep GOOD LUCK in Your Refrigerator—It Spreads Easily!

The delicate flavor of this fine quality margarine is perishable. That's why we carefully refrigerate GOOD LUCK during processing—also while awaiting shipment, and in transit.

If you want to enjoy GOOD LUCK at its delicious best, always keep it in your refrigerator. You'll find GOOD LUCK spreads smoothly even when cold.

Here's Recipe for Cream Pie

In answer to a request, we are printing the basic recipe for cream pie. It may be served as is, or you may add cocolnut or sliced fruit, such as bananas or peaches. For coffee cream pie, substitute one cup of very strong coffee for one cup of the milk.

Cream Pie

1¾ cup milk
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup pastry flour
2 2-3 tablespoons cornstarch
1 whole egg, plus 1 egg yolk
1 tablespoon butter
½ teaspoon vanilla or other flavoring
9-inch pre-baked pie shell

Combine half the milk with the sugar and salt in the upper part of the double boiler. Stir until sugar is dissolved, then place over moderate heat and bring slowly to the boiling point.

Moisten the flour and cornstarch with the remaining milk and stir this into the scalded mixture. Add some of the hot mixture to the beaten egg and egg yolk, then add egg mixture to hot mixture and cook over hot water five minutes, stirring constantly. Transfer to a cold bowl and add butter and flavoring.

When partly cooled, turn into the pre-baked pie shell. If desired, top with a meringue and place in a moderate oven to set and delicately color the meringue.

Be sure to refrigerate cream pies if they are to be kept any length of time, such as overnight. Dangerous bacteria develop in the cream mixture if it stands at room temperature for long.

Just a Pinch of Spice!

Try a pinch of spice in vegetable dishes. Nutmeg teams well with spinach, carrots or corn; all spice is wonderful with a mixture of tomatoes and celery and squash; marjoram is delicious with snap beans.

TWO-WAY ROUND STEAK—A good way to make use of the plentiful supply of lean, economy beef is to buy a thick piece of round steak and cut it in half for two different meat dishes. Use the bone-in piece for Swiss steak, the rest for barbecued round steak.

Round Steak Furnishes 2 Savory, Hearty Meals

Many people's idea of luxurious dining is a thick, juicy Swiss steak. How's the time to indulge in round steak eating.

Savory Swiss Steak

Round steak, cut 1½ inches thick
Flour, salt, pepper
2 tablespoons fat
2 cups canned tomatoes
2 medium onions
1 teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon chili powder
1 small bay leaf
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon sugar

Combine 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt and one-eighth teaspoon pepper; pound into the meat, using a meat pounder or the edge of a heavy saucer. Heat fat in a heavy skillet or Dutch oven and brown meat well on both sides.

Top steak with sliced onions. Combine rest of ingredients with tomatoes and pour over and around steak. Cover and cook slowly over low heat until tender, 1½ to 2 hours.

Barbecued Round Steak

4 individual servings round steak
Salt, pepper, flour
3 tablespoons lard
½ cup chopped onion
½ cup chopped celery
½ clove garlic, minced
3 tablespoons brown sugar
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 can tomato soup

Sprinkle steak with salt and pepper and coat with flour; pound thoroughly. Melt lard in a Dutch oven or large, heavy skillet. Lightly brown onion, celery and garlic; push to one side and brown steak.

Combine remaining ingredients and add. Cover and cook over low heat or in a 325 oven for two hours or until tender. Four servings.

Fish Dressed Up in Tuna Louis Dip

Here's a new and different way to dress up tuna fish as a dip. Serve it the next time you have a crowd in for a television evening.

Tuna Louis Dip

1 (8 ounce) package cream cheese
¼ cup sherry wine
¼ cup mayonnaise
3 tablespoons chili sauce
2 (6½ ounce) cans grated tuna
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Dash of Tabasco sauce
Salt and pepper to taste

Have cheese at room temperature. Place in a bowl; mash with a fork. Gradually blend in wine; beat in mayonnaise and chili sauce. Add all remaining ingredients, mixing well.

Chill several hours to blend flavors. Bring to room temperature before serving. Serve with potato or corn chips, crisp crackers or melba toast.

Slow Cooking Will Help Tenderize Cuts of Beef

Want to know how to braise those lean cuts of beef so they'll have good flavor and be tender? Brown the meat thoroughly in a small amount of fat, then add a small amount of liquid and cook very slowly, covering the utensil tightly. Add seasonings to taste—a bay leaf, peppercorns, a whole clove or two, a stalk of celery, sliced onion, carrot strips.

When the meat is really tender, strain the gravy in the pan, reheat and serve with the beef.

Coffee, Brittle Go in Mallow Dessert

Here's an easy frozen dessert treat with a tantalizingly different flavor. Instant coffee and crushed peanut brittle make up the harmonious flavor team—and the brittle adds pleasing crunchiness, too.

The base of this super-smooth dessert is marshmallows melted in double-rich evaporated milk—with additional evaporated milk whipped and folded in for fluffy creamy texture.

Coffee Brittle Marlow

⅔ cup evaporated milk
16 marshmallows (¼ pound)
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
1 teaspoon instant coffee
½ cup finely crushed peanut brittle
⅔ cup evaporated milk, chilled icy cold

Place the two-thirds cup milk and marshmallows in the top of a double boiler. Heat over boiling water until marshmallows are melted. Stir to blend well. Stir in vanilla and coffee.

Remove from heat and cool. Add peanut brittle. Whip the two-thirds cup chilled milk until it is stiff and will hold a peak. Fold into peanut brittle mixture lightly but thoroughly.

Pour at once into a one-quart ice cube tray and freeze. Makes 1 quart (six servings).

Expert Says Food Patterns Change Slowly

AMES, Ia. (UP)—A Harvard University nutritionist says people can't be oriented overnight to a new diet just because it's good for them. And United States food habits can't be imposed on others with too much success.

Dr. Florence Kluckhohn of Harvard's laboratory of social relations, conducting a lecture series at Iowa State College, said the food patterns of "a given group of people are intricately interrelated with their whole culture, values and traditions."

Dr. Kluckhohn cited an example of the danger of trying to convert non-Americans to American food habits.

She said welfare workers inadvertently did more harm than good after World War I when they taught Spanish-Americans in many villages to use wheat flour instead of corn to make their tortillas.

"This," she said, "deprived them of their main source of calcium which had come from the pulverized limestone used in making corn tortillas.

Making potato pancakes? Then grate the potato just before you are ready to mix it with the other ingredients, because if the potato stands it will turn dark.

Americans Spend More for Convenience in Food

NEW YORK — Americans are spending more on food than ever before,—but they are no gluttons, a current magazine reports.

Americans are not wolfing down a bigger bulk of food. Their dollars are going for food that is more "convenient" (frozen, precooked, etc.) and more nutritious than it used to be.

The revolution in American eating began about 1941, when wartime mobilization gave Americans a chance to eat as they had never eaten before. They bought more eggs and milk and cream; and as families moved up the income scale they began bidding for more and better meat, fruits and vegetables.

This competitive bidding sent prices up—but inflation is not the only reason that by 1947 Americans were allocating 27 per cent of their income for food, as against 22 per cent in 1941.

There was the stepped-up movement from rural to urban areas. In 1941, 23 per cent of the U.S. population lived in rural areas. By 1947 the figure was down to 19 per cent (and in 1953 it is 15 per cent).

City consumers have to pay heavier transportation, refrigeration and warehousing charges. They tend to take more meals away from home. And they are no longer able to grow a part of their own food.

People also were "undoubling"—and as they left their relatives and formed smaller households they found that their food cost more per capita: The wastage increased, and the economies associated with larger roasts and baking were lost.

After 1947, there was a spectacular change in the income pattern. The middle class ($4,000-$7,500 in 1953 dollars) expanded enormously (today there are 18 million family units in this category, or more than a third of all U.S. families—an increase of 44 per cent over 1947; and they have 42 per cent of the country's spendable income).

"Now at $4,000 consumers begin to spend food dollars differently," the magazine says. "They eat better food, of course; but (more significantly) they begin to demand a lot of processing in their food. Instead of buying a chicken and going to work on it, they are apt to demand frozen chicken livers, canned breast of chicken and dehydrated chicken soup.

"The over-$4,000 consumers—who demand 'convenience' items—have upped their food spending almost 60 per cent since 1947.

"From 1941 to 1947, with the rise in food spending concentrated in the $2,000-$4,000 groups, the added dollars went for more and better basic foods. The post-1947 food boom was financed by the expanding higher-income groups, whose demand runs toward processing, built-in services, etc. The heavy growth element right now is convenience: Service built into the food."

Chowder Peps Up Hungry Youngsters

Here's hearty, thrifty "he man" food for husky youngsters. Set a bowl of this chowder in front of your would-be circus athletes, and they'll be full of boundless energy all day.

Strong Man's Chowder

3 medium potatoes, peeled and sliced
2 tablespoons butter
¼ cup chopped onion
½ cup finely cut sliced dried beef (use scissors)
2 tablespoons flour
3 cups milk
½ teaspoon pepper

Pour in milk all at once and immediately stir vigorously over moderate heat until thickened. Add pepper, potatoes and potato water. Reheat. Makes six servings.

Youngsters Like Jelly on Spicy Bread Pudding

Youngsters are just brimming over with energy these fall days. Along with the energy come ravenous appetites. A good dinner followed by a spicy hot bread pudding with currant jelly sauce for dessert is just the answer.

Make the sauce the jiffy way by softening one-half cup red currant jelly with a fork. Blend in two tablespoons hot water and two teaspoons lemon juice. Serve over your favprite bread pudding.

CARE's 'Turkey Trot' Sends Cheer Overseas

NEW YORK—The annual CARE "turkey trot" of food packages especially prepared for Thanksgiving and Christmas gifts is already en route overseas.

Americans who want to put the turkeys on the dinner tables of relatives, friends or needy families may order an $18.75 holiday package, complete with a plump, whole canned turkey and lavish servings of trimmings, or the bird alone at $12.

The holiday package will be delivered in Austria, Belgium, Finland, France, Great Britain (England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland), Greece, Western Germany and Berlin, Italy, The Netherlands, Norway, Yugoslavia.

Based on recent CARE surveys of food needs, the trimmings in the British pack are different than those for the European countries.

In addition to the 11 countries above, the turkey alone can be sent to recipients in Japan, Okinawa and the Philippines.

Increased parcel post rates make CARE's mass buying and shipping procedure more valuable than ever to donors, Paul Comly French, executive director of the non-profit agency, points out.

At present rates, an individual would have to pay a minimum of $5 in mailing fees just to send overseas contents equal to the standard $10 CARE food packages (also available for gifts, of course). Orders marked for Thansgiving or Christmas delivery may be mailed immediately to CARE, 660 First Ave., New York 16, N. Y., or any local CARE office.

Each CARE turkey is a full-meated white bird weighing at least 8 1-3 pounds, which is the equivalent of a regular 10 to 11-pound bird fully dressed. Steam-roasted in its own juices so that it can be eaten cold or heated and browned, each turkey is packed in 2 pounds of lard, an added treat for housewives in fat-short countries.

Fruits are stressed in the trimmings that accompany the bird in the holiday package for Britain. The supplemental items include 29 ounces sliced pineapple; 15 ounces raisins; 1 pound each of prunes, butter, lard, sliced bacon; 5 pounds sugar; 2 pounds milled white rice; 24 ounces corned beef; 8 ounces egg powder.

With the turkey, the holiday package for the other countries includes 1 pound each of chocolates, strawberry preserves; 2 pounds plum pudding, assorted unshelled nuts, coffee, margarine, bacon, strawberry presreves; 2 pounds sugar; 12 ounces each of roast beef and pork luncheon meat.

Cranberry Sauce Made in 10 Minutes

No need to spend all day over a hot old-fashioned cookstove to make cranberry sauce the real New England way. This Cape Cod 'receipt' for fresh cranberry sauce has been handed down in families from mother to daughter for generations.

10-Minute Cranberry Sauce

4 cups cranberries
2 cups sugar
2 cups water

Boil sugar and water together for five minutes. Add fresh cranberries and boil together without stirring until all skins pop open, about five minutes. Remove from fire and cool in saucepan. Makes one quart of sauce.

For thinner sauce: Bring sugar and water to a boil. Add fresh cranberries and cook until they stop popping.

Charles Conrad Busy in Two Professions

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — You may have had the notion that being a politician is akin to being an actor. Well, here's a man who has successfully combined the two professions.

For a few months of the year, he is state assemblyman Charles J. Conrad of the 57th district (Hollywood-San Fernando Valley). The rest of the time is merely Charles Conrad, movie actor.

Conrad was elected to the state legislature for the fourth time last November. I dropped by his valley home to find out how he combines his two jobs.

I found him a hearty fellow with a gift of gab, a faculty generally found in both actors and politicians.

"Which came first?" I inquired.

"Acting," he replied. "Actually, I started out to be a lawyer, attending the University of Pennsylvania. But my father fell ill, and I had to go to work.

"I started as an actor in stock in my home town, Philadelphia. I met the character actor, Grant Mitchell, who took me under his wing and taught me the business. I went on to New York, but without much success.

"Then I met Walter Connolly. He had just scored a hit in 'It Happened One Night' and was much in demand at the studios.

"He needed someone to watch after his affairs and I agreed to go to Hollywood with him. I did his work and picked up acting jobs in pictures whenever I could."

Because he had some spare time left over, Conrad became active with the young Republican groups. His life changed abruptly when Connolly died in 1941 and the draft neared. Conrad enlisted after Pearl Harbor.

When he returned to Hollywood in 1946, he renewed his film career. He also took part in Republican activities and was urged to run for assembly in the district once represented by another actor, Albert Dekker. He agreed and won in the 1946 Republican landslide. He managed to weather the 1948 storm and has won twice since then.

I asked if his fellow legislators viewed him askance because he is an actor.

"No, I don't think so," he answered. "Maybe that's because I'm known as being fairly conservative. If I were to be a wild-eyed sort of fellow, I'd leave myself open to criticism.

"I talk respectfully, especially with senators. That was the trouble with Dekker. He had a caustic sense of humor and spoke his mind. That makes a lot of people mad. Especially senators."

Conrad makes a mere $3,600 a year as assemblyman, plus expenses. In the odd years, he attends a 120-day session in Sacramento; there is a 30-day session in election years with committee hearings added.

But when he is not campaigning or legislating, he plies the film studios. He has done such roles as a newspaperman in "Call Me Madam," a congressional clerk in "Something for the Birds" and an assistant director in his latest, "A Star Is Born."

He is often cast in political pictures. Oddly enough, he has never played the role of a legislator on the screen.

Columbia Pictures Sued for $400,000 in Death

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Suit for $400,000 has been filed against Columbia Pictures, Inc., by Mrs. Carolyn Ward Satterfield for herself and three children, claiming her husband was frightened to death when two movie planes dived within 30 feet of their home.

Mrs. Satterfield alleged in her complaint yesterday that the planes dived low over their ranch home near Newhall, Calif., last March 3 while filming "Mission Over Korea." She stated that her children became hysterical and her husband Robert died from shock.

Sues Danny Thomas, Producers for Million

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Suit for $1,017,000 damages has been filed by writer Lewis Meltzer against comedian Dany Thomas and the producers of his television show.

Meltzer charges that Louis F. Edelman, Martero Productions and Thomas orally approved his format for Thomas' series of half-hour shows. He claims he was promised $1,500 a show as chief writer, 5 per cent of the profits and royalties if his format was accepted. Meltzer contends it is his format that is being used.

Lauren Bacall Won't Set Foot in Wet Cement

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lauren Bacall has declined to record her footprints in wet cement in the Grauman Chinese Theater forecourt.

"To me, the Grauman's Chinese has always meant the peak," she said. "The people who have their footprints there should be irreplaceable and never to be forgotten. I'm neither."

Husband Humphrey Bogart cemented the argument with:

"It's her sincere belief and I think she's right. There are too blasted many meaningless awards and medals in this town."

Stork Forgot Her

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — Gene Huntzicker's niece had always been told that "the stork brought her." On a trip to the zoo her family found the little girl crying her heart out. She pointed to a stork and bawled "Mommy, he doesn't remember me."

Frankie Back in LA for Talks With Ava

The actress looked up a lawyer earlier this week but he said she hadn't come to any decision about seeking a divorce from the crooner.

Sinatra, who completed a singing engagement in Las Vegas, Nev., Tuesday, flew to Los Angeles last night. He brushed past newsmen at the airport without commenting on his latest difficulties with his wife.

Earlier, he said that their trouble was only a misunderstanding, enlarged by the press, and that he expected everything to be straightened out. Their dispute arose from Sinatra's failure to meet Ava on her return from Europe recently, a spokesman for the crooner said.

U. S. Deflates Gabfest Value

Ike and Dulles See No Peace Coming Out of Talk With Malenkov

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles seem to be trying, slowly and painstakingly, to rid the free world of the idea that a top-level talk with Soviet Premier Malenkov might bring world peace.

As is obvious from repeated public statements, they regard the idea as a vain and dangerous illusion.

* * *

Eisenhower, at his news conference yesterday, sought to deflate the value of personal diplomacy—a value which has tended to grow in recent months, in part because of the repeated proposals of British Prime Minister Churchill for an East-West talk between chiefs of government.

* * *

Eisenhower has been asked questions about the possibility of such a meeting with greater frequency perhaps than questions on any other subject. Dulles, similarly pressed for his views, has also had the problem as a diplomat of trying to dissuade Churchill from pressing the matter to a conclusion.

Together, Eisenhower and Dulles have had constantly to reckon with public opinion and the intense hope for a miracle of peace which creates political pressures, especially in England and Western Europe.

* * *

In the past the President has been inclined to take the positive line that he would be glad to meet anybody halfway around the world if he thought that would do any good for peace. Dulles tended to press a somewhat more negative argument, saying the United States was always ready for negotiation but was not interested in talks without evidence of Communist good will.

* * *

Eisenhower, asked again yesterday for his views about the possibility of Big Four meeting at the highest level, replied that if anything turned up to convince him that the Soviets would go into a meeting in good faith, then he would overcome any handicap or solve any problem to meet with them.

But then he went on to say bluntly it would be perfectly hopeless to have such a meeting until he knows there is an honest purpose behind Russian interest in it. Indicating he does not think such purpose exists today, he reminded reporters there had been many examples of meetings in the past being used primarily for propaganda.

Air Drop Is Accurate, Fails to Be Productive

Contractor George E. Miller of Reno, Nev., waited until the last minute to submit his bid for a paving job in Downieville, planning to fly the bid to the mountain committee.

He learned too late that the nearest airport was 35 miles distant, so he flew over and dropped the bid, bomb-style. It was pocked up in a street by a county supervisor and delivered to the supervisor's room only a moment before the filing time expired.

Dogs Get $25 a Month

Memory Process Studied With Epilepsy Operation

ATLANTA (AP)—Government scientists have launched a new project striving to tap the secrets of the brain's memory process — as a by-product of a surgical operation to aid epileptics.

Dr. William H. Sebrell Jr., director of the National Institutes of Health (NIH), Bethesda, Md., related this to the Southern Medical Assn., whose 47th annual meeting ends today.

* * *

He cited the project as an example of the type of work being done at NIH's recently opened clinical research center.

There, selected sufferers from various major diseases are given "the best possible" treatments — but only as a part of a broader effort to improve these treatments, and to increase science's knowledge of the basic processes of life, both in sickness and in health.

Dr. Sebrell said that in recent years an operation was developed which has shown great promise in treating psychomotor epilepsy. That's a form of epilepsy which has proved much more difficult to treat with drugs than have the other two main forms of the disease.

* * *

The operation is now being performed at the clinical center he said, and affords unusual opportunities for research on the temporal lobe of the brain—site of the epileptic damage, and also believed to be the area playing a major role in the normal process of memory. The operation consists of cutting away damaged brain tissue.

Sebrell said that a Canadian scientist, Dr. Wilder Penfield, provided the first tipoff more than a year ago that the temporal lobe might be a big factor in the memory process, and he added:

"Our investigations are now concerned with following up this preliminary finding. We do not know which half of the temporal lobe, if not both, dominates the process of recording experience, and we are trying to find evidence of internal and surface nerve pathways responsible for memory processes."

* * *

Sebrell said similar projects have been launched in other laboratories in this country, Canada and abroad.

The NIH project will have these further objectives:

1. Improving surgical techniques and instruments used in the anti-epilepsy operation.

2. Examining and analyzing epileptic tissue cut from the brain in an attempt to determine the "chemistry" of an epileptic seizure — and perhaps develop improved drugs for combatting or preventing such attacks.

3. Increasing basic understanding of the functions of the various parts of the brain.

A-Plant Brings Limestone Find

Booming Area in Ohio Discovers 'Gold Mine' of Building Material

WAVERLY, Ohio (UP) — Aside from the other lucrative business springing up in this area where the government has chosen to build an atomic energy plant, residents of Pike County found a veritable "gold mine" in limestone.

One of the largest operations in connection with the building of the mile-long plant is the hauling of limestone and gravel from quarries in the western section of the county.

Company officials state that excellent grade-A limestone comes from a seam about 15 miles west of Piketown. The seam is 103 feet deep and covers an area of several acres.

The atmosphere at the site of the A-plant is one of bustle and activity, that of a frontier town. Traffic to and from the site is bumper to bumper, including the many huge stone-carrying trucks.

Housing is — well, there just isn't any. Some of the tens of thousands of workers live as far as 75 to 100 miles from where they work.

However, in addition to the A-plant construction, there's also a lot of building going on just to provide places for the workers now building the plant, and those who will be there when the building is completed.

Martins Hire Woodpeckers to Swell Holes

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Sheriff's Lt. George Grantham vows this story is true:

Spring before last he built a birdhouse for martins in the yard of his suburban home. The martins prepared to move in — but found the doorways too small.

Last spring the martins came back — bringing a woodpecker with them.

"That woodpecker went to work," Grantham says, "and pecked away until he made the holes big enough for the martins to get into the house."

The job finished, the woodpecker moved on. The martins moved in.

Shamrocks Rated Favorites in 19th Meeting of Rivals

By BILL MARTIN

St. Michael and St. Frederick clash Friday night in Wisner Memorial Stadium in the 19th renewal of their city parochial football championship series.

Shamrocks, with a 3-2-1 record, will go into the game as top-heavy favorites over the Rams. Coach Chuck Talbot's southsiders have dropped four straight games after winning their opener, 18-0, over Marine City Holy Cross.

However, past records mean little in this traditional battle. The intense rivalry between the two teams has always tended to equalize the cross-town foes. In only seven of the 18 games played have the victory margains exceeded seven points. Mikes hold an 8-7 edge in victories. Three of the games ended in ties.

Coach Bob Mineweaser's Shamrocks will have added incentive this season. In addition to seeking an always-prized win over their city rivals, the Mikes need the victory in order to stay in the running for the Suburban Catholic League championship. St. Michael will be going after an unprecedented 4th straight victory. When they beat the Freds, 14-13, last season it marked the 1st time that either team had won three consecutive meetings.

Both squads are at near peak physically. Only man on the injured list is Ram halfback Ted Reaver, who has been nursing a bad leg for the past two weeks. He saw only limited action last week, and may not get into Friday's game at all. If Reaver isn't ready, Maurice Yarnold probably will take over the slot.

Gophers' Star Sets Pace for Ground Gaining

Giel Compiles 1,070 Yards in 168 Carries So Far This Year

NEW YORK (UP) — His performance against Michigan's favored Wolverines last Saturday, made everyone sit up and take notice of Minnesota's Paul Giel. Actually, however, this hard-running senior has been the Gophers' workhorse for three years now.

Giel has moved the ball a total of 189 times this year and with four games still to go, including Saturday's tussle with Pittsburgh, he is within reach of the three-year varsity record of 989 set by Texas Christian's Lindy Berry in 1947-'49. Paul's been in 900 plays during his college career, with 337 in 1951 and 374 in '52.

He has moved the ball further than anyone else in major-college football competition this year—1,070 yards, official figures released by the NCAA showed today. He's gained 742 yards from scrimmage (on runs and passes), 256 yards on punt and kickoff returns, 53 on pass interceptions and 19 on passes caught.

• • •

Joe Mastrogiovanni of Wyoming is second to Giel in total-yards advanced with 1,063. Paul Cameron of UCLA is third with 1,045 and Don Ellis of Texas A. & M. is fourth with 927 yards.

Giel, who will be seen by millions Saturday in the nationally-televised football game against Pittsburgh, also dominates Big Ten statistics in workhorse fashion.

The All-America leads the conference in total offense with a gain of 602 yards in four games. He is second in rushing with 397, and second in passing with a .545 completion average and a gain of 227.

As a safety man on defense, Giel tops the league on punt returns with a 16.6 average in eight runbacks. He is second in pass interceptions with three and second in kickoff returns with a 25.6 average in four.

Although Giel leads the records, his pace is not as sensational on offense as Illinois' sophomore star, J. C. Caroline. Caroline, in only two Big Ten games, leads in rushing with 397 for a spectacular average per carry of 8.8.8. Giel's average is 3.8.

• • •

John Borton, Ohio State is ranked No. 1 in passing with 18 completions in 31 tosses in two games for a .581 mark. His aerial gain was 219. Bob Topp, Michigan, is No. 1 pass receiver, with 10 for 198 yards.

Lean Day at First

Munn Given New Wardrobe to Halt 'Jinx'

Lansing Group Hopes Habiliment Will Bring Another Win Streak

EAST LANSING (UP) — Lansing's Downtown Coaches Club presented Michigan State football coach Biggie Munn a complete new wardrobe Wednesday in the hope the clothes will help bring MSC another long victory streak.

Club officials said they did not want Munn to have to wear any of the clothes he wore during last Saturday's MSC - Purdue game. Purdue won 6-0, to snap the Spartan's 28-game winning streak.

The MSC coach said he would wear the new wardrobe Saturday when MSC meets Oregon State and "I hope I'll be wearing this same outfit for another 28 football games," he said.

Wrigley Helps Coast League Decide Future

Chicago Owner Lists Ways for PCL to Gain Major Status

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Directors of the Pacific Coast Baseball League along with major league mogul P. K. Wrigley of the Chicago Cubs, meet today to mull over the immediate future of the loop.

Just what will transpire is anyone's guess, but Wrigley decided to sit in to discuss his ideas regarding expansion or revision of the league pointing toward major league baseball for Los Angeles.

Wrigley has said Los Angeles can attain major league status by one of three ways: the Coast league, by improving its parks and caliber of play, can become a major as a unit; Los Angeles, by a similar development, could join some other city from the Coast League or some other league, and accept an invitation to join one of the existing major leagues; Los Angeles could buy a major franchise and move it into this city.

PCL president Clarence Rowland said the Wrigley proposals will be studied.

Spartans Face Another Upset Artist Saturday

Oregon State '11' Has Surprised MSC Squads in Past

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (UP)—Lat Saturday it was Purdue—"the spoiler."

Oregon State wasn't too highly rated because Coach Kip Taylor's crew lost their first five games without scoring a touchdown. But last Saturday Oregon State beat favored Idaho 19-0 and finally appears to have an attack rolling.

Busy Beavers from the West Coast, coached by a former assistant to Coach Biggie Munn, have upset the Spartans in the past. And they've thrown some bad scares into Michigan State during the 28-game win streak finally stopped by the 6-0 score by Purdue.

It was a different story in 1951, when Michigan State barely managed to win by a 6-0 margin. An Oregon State fumble set up the lone score.

Last year again, the contest was a tight thriller. Score was tied at 14-all when Michigan State tried a desperate field goal attempt.

Gene Lekenta of Grand Rapids missed his first try but a penalty gave him another chance. Lekenta made it the 2nd time when there were just three seconds left to play and the Spartans won 17-14.

Word from the West Coast is that Taylor made wholesale lineup changes to finally manage his Idaho victory. It now appears that he was a winning combination.

Canadian Hunt Nets Male Grizzly, Mountain Sheep

HOLLAND (UP)—Dr. William Westrate has returned from a 21-day hunting expedition to Alberta, Canada, with two prize trophies—a male grizzly bear and a 6-year-old mountain sheep.

The ram had horns with an 18-inch spread and 32-inch curl. It gives Dr. Westrate three of the four species of big horn sheep on the American continent.

Maples Eye Big Red Streak

By JACK SAYLOR

For the 2nd straight week an Oakland County football team has the difficult task of trying to stop the longest Class A winning streak in the state.

Port Huron brings its 25-game skein to Birmingham just a week after belting Ferndale, 34-0. Since Birmingham nosed out the Dales, 7-6, the Maples must be rated at least a four to five-touchdown underdog to the mighty Big Reds.

Bob Hayes' power-packed eleven has rolled up 235 points in winning six games this season, an average of nearly 40 per game. At the same time, the defense has yielded only 25 points.

Port Huron is engaged in a fight to win the mythical state championship over Bay City and Ann Arbor. They are rated tops by one poll, but others have criticized the Port Huron schedule.

In order, the Hurons have ripped Bay City Handy (43-0), Highland Park (51-6), Fordson (38-0), Mt. Clemens (34-13), East Detroit (35-6) and Ferndale (34-0).

Chuck Martin and Jack Bradley are the best of a good group of linemen. Despite the obvious pre-game edge, Hayes is not taking Birmingham lightly and hopes he can instill the same feeling in his team.

Maples' hopes rest primarily with its defensive team. Birmingham has yielded only 7.4 points per game, yet has won only two of five. Biggest reason for the poor offensive performance is frequent injuries to regular backfield personnel.

Injury Risk Too Great

Handicapper Drives 'Fool' From Racing by Assigning Him Excessive Weights

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (UP)—The news that Tom Fool, the eminent race horse, is calling it a day right at the height of his fame and earning capacity must have caused a great many persons to ponder the strange and wonderful ways of the men who ornament the sport of kings. Anyway, this agent pondered for some time.

• • •

Tom Fool has won 10 straight races this year and there isn't a horse around capable of giving him an argument since Native Dancer was taken out of training.

So, here he is at the top, and there's a $75,000 or $100,000 race going on somewhere close nearly every weekend. He can win any of them without trying very hard, so why shouldn't he go on for at least another season and make a round million, anyway.

Our puzzlement led to asking questions. What it amounts to, we are told, is that Tom Fool has become too good to run against other horses, and that if he stuck around much longer hogging purses he would be made to regret it by John Campbell, the handicapper at local tracks.

Campbell already has asked the Fool to carry 148 pounds in one race, an invitation which was declined.

Not being a racing addict, we never have quite understood how it was fair to penalize a nag for being good—that is, to beat him finally if you have to near break his back doing it.

Ben Jones, the famous trainer for Calumet Farms, maintains that no horse ever should be asked to tote more than 130 pounds. Anything above that, he says, can be injurious. Tom Fool carried 136 while winning the Brooklyn Handicap last July. It is estimated that Campbell would have had to assign him around 138-140 in early handicaps next year.

Third Sellout Awaits State

EAST LANSING (UP) — The football game with Oregon State here Saturday will be the 3rd home sellout of the season, Michigan State ticket officials said today.

The Ohio stadium, seating 78,667, is sold out for the MSC appearance Nov. 7. The Michigan game here Nov. 14 has been sold out since last spring.

Holds Dance for Lights

Golf Is Big Business

The 3,500,000 golfers in the nation spend an estimated $600 million a year or more for dues, equipment, transportation and other playing costs.

Hawks Do Well on Ranger Ice

Chicago Sextet Scores 1st Win of Season at New York

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hawks, who won their last five starts on New York ice last season, scored their 1st victory of the National Hockey League new campaign last night, easily whipping the Rangers, 6-1. The triumph came after seven Chicago defeats and one tie.

Rookie Larry Wilson got the last-place Chicagoans off winging with a goal late in the 1st period. Bill Mosienko and Pete Conacher added to the Hawks' total in the 2nd and Gus Mortson, Jim McFadden and Murray Costello put together 3rd period tallies. Don (Bones) Raleigh registered New York's lone marker at 12:05 of the 2nd session.

Harvard Punts Even

Flush Odds Are High

Odds against a straight flush in a game of draw poker are about 64,974 to one, and the odds against a royal flush in the same game are computed as 649,700 to one.

Charley Brewer, University of Texas quarterback, carried the ball from scrimmage only twice against Villanova and scored both times.

Del Wilber Paced Majors in Grand Slam Home Runs

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (UP) — Del Wilber, a reserve catcher with the Boston Red Sox, belted four home runs as a pinch-hitter during the 1953 season to lead all major leaguers in that department, Associated Press figures showed today.

Wilber's output was only one short of the American League record set by Joe Cronin of the Bosox in 1943. Major league mark for one season is six by Johnny Frederick of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1932.

Johnny Mize, who closed out his brilliant career after the World Series, also walloped three for the New York Yankees.

Wayne Belardi of the Dodgers, Eddie Pellagrini and Johnny Lindell of the Pirates, Peanuts Lowrey of the Cardinals, Ed Williams of the Red Sox and Ed Stewart of the White Sox each hit two.

The world champion Yankees led both leagues with seven. Besides Mize, others to connect were Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer, Mickey Mantle and Irv Noren.

Ex-Champion Wolgast Back in Wheelchair

Stricken with a respiratory ailment several weeks ago, the 63-year-old Michigan man who won the lightweight title in 1910 and lost it in 1912 is back sitting and dozing in his wheelchair.

Wolgast is a mere shell of a once rugged ring fighter and has been in and out of mental institutions since 1916. He last fought a match in 1920.

Pennsylvania has too many deer, officials declare. They have eaten their range and are reported in need of food.

CLEVELAND, O. (UP)—Henry Bronko, Detroit, 150 pounds, won a unanimous 8-round decision over Bozo Constantino of New York Wednesday night in a preliminary to the Rocky Castellani - Mickey Laurent middle-weight fight at Cleveland Arena.

Camp First Passer

Walter Camp is believed to have thrown the first forward pass in football against Princeton in 1876. The pass was first disallowed but was settled by flipping a coin.

Plant Poisoning of Deer Studied by Researchers

LANSING (UP)—Possible cases of plant poisoning of deer are under investigation by conservation department researchers.

Three dead deer were found east of Rose City and two east of Vanderbilt. They showed no sign of death by injury or infectious disease.

NCAA Okehs 8 Bowl Games

KANSAS CITY (UP)— National Collegiate Athletic Association today put its stamp of approval on eight post-season football games.

Cotton Bowl, Dallas; Gator Bowl, Jacksonville, Fla.; Orange Bowl, Miami; Refrigerator Bowl, Evansville, Ind.; Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.; Sugar Bowl, New Orleans; Sun Bowl, El Paso, Tex.; and the Tangerine Bowl, Orlando, Fla.

Expert Claims Outlook Good for Deer Herds

OCSC Members Hear Investigator Bartlett at Wednesday Session

More than 500 members attended Wednesday night's Oakland County Sportsmen's Club meeting to hear I. H. Bartlett, conservation department's chief deer investigator, discuss the state's deer outlook.

Bartlett, who said he is "less concerned over the future of the deer herd at present than at any time in the last 15 years," praised the department's current deer management program. He added that there are three-fourths as many deer in the woods today as there were a year ago.

Jerry Woolever, chairman of the club's membership drive, announced that 317 new members have been signed at the drive's halfway mark. Dr. P. B. Jones discussed the hunters roundup banquet which is scheduled for next Thursday.

Mesick to Host Visitors

MESICK (UP)—The state Department of Public Instruction has invited Mesick to be hosts Nov. 5-12 to a group of German education and community leaders touring the U. S. The visitors would live in private homes here to see how Americans live.

Will Open Sports Area

CADILLAC (UP) — Caberfae, the 460-acre winter sports area 12 miles west of here, hopes to open the winter season late in November this year. New runs and rope tows have been added and a new first aid room has been constructed.

Baylor's Jim Smith Named AP's 'Lineman of Week'

WACO, Tex. (UP) — They swear big James Ray Smith is so modest that when he ambles across the campus at Baylor University only a handful of students know who he is.

• • •

But ask any of the players on the football teams of California, Miami, Arkansas, Vanderbilt or Texas A&M and they'll tell you — eloquently.

Smith, the 215-pound, 20-year-old junior who's a one-man wrecking crew on Baylor's unbeaten team, was named "lineman of the week" by the Associated Press for his magnificent play against Texas A&M last week.

It was the accuracy of his extra-point kicking — and all-around play — that gave the Bears a 14-13 victory and 3rd place in the Associated Press national football rankings.

Smith grinned with pleasure when told of the honor, but promptly said he didn't deserve it.

He was in the minority. Everybody else around Baylor said he was not only fair, but it would have been a downright shame if he hadn't been selected.

Before the season, coach George Sauer told sports writers Smith would be an "All-America" tackle this year. Smith has already convinced a lot of people he is by averaging 55 minutes of play, handling the extra point kicking, and kicking off.

Against Texas A&M, Smith threw the key blocks that made possible long runs by L. G. Dupre, Baylor scat back. He recovered a fumble that led to Baylor's winning touchdown and then, of course kicked the all important extra points.

Writer Tabs C. V. Whitney's Fisherman as Probable Winner of Garden State Stakes, Richest in History

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—On Saturday at Garden State, Camden, N. J., a number of horses are planning to run for more money than a race track has ever awarded previously for a single race.

This $100,000-added race, "The Garden State," breaks the Santa Anita Maturity record by $65,195. Here is the split for Saturday's big two-year-old stampede—The winner—$153,992; 2nd place—$54,179; 3rd place—$35,634; 4th place—$13,544.

You can see from this financial arrangement that the officials at Garden State have one of the greatest racing stories of many years ready to break—if money means anything. And it still means at least a trifle.

Tendency toward large and larger purses has been steaming up for some time. This is the biggest jump forward we have yet known. In years ahead they may be running for $500,000. But we are not concerned about that at the moment. We are only interested in Saturday.

Who is the likely winner? We can start with C. V. Whitney's Fisherman. Here is a tried-and-true two-year-old who can run. He may be the favored one when the race is run.

• • •

• • •

Then there is Errard King, New Jersey two-year-old champion. Here is a fast, tried starter who is sure to be dangerous. Turn To and Goyamo are two others who have been training well.

• • •

Cain Hoy Stable has a good horse in Supercollosal, a son of Polynesian. There is Hasty Road from Hasty House Farms. Correaltion has been entered and so have Bobby Brocator, James Cox Brady's Artismo and Wheatley Stable's Quick Lunch.

• • •

This race will be one of the big affairs of many years. As an advance guess we'll nominate Fisherman as the one most likely to succeed. Next to him, Errard King.

Pontiac Faces Old Foe

By BILL MARTIN

When Pontiac High and Royal Oak square off Friday night on the Acorns' home field, it will mark the 1st meeting of the two schools on the gridiron in eight years.

Pontiac-Royal Oak series once was one of the oldest rivalries in the state, having originated in 1913, but was terminated after the 1945 season.

Chiefs held an overwhelming margin of victories in the 1913-1945 play, with 14 wins and two ties in the 22 games played. Pontiac won the last three games played by a combined point total of 47-7. Acorns' gridiron fortunes have taken a turn for the better in recent years, however, and they have been beaten only three times in their last 14 starts.

This season, Coach Jim Manilla's squad defeated Hazel Park, Wyandotte, Monroe and Fordson while losing a 19-0 decision to Grosse Pointe. Acorns trampled Wyandotte, 32-0, while Pontiac handed the same team a 34-13 setback.

Pontiac has lost its last three games after opening with consecutive victories over Wyandotte, Hamtramck and Lansing Sexton.

The team's regular punter, Hobolth ran well against Arthur Hill last week from the quarterback slot and currently ranks as the 4th best ground-gainer on the squad with a 4-yard average in 22 tries.

Remainder of the lineup will have Bill Rose at the other half, Dick Ayling at quarter and Coley Gracey at fullback. In the line, it will be Leroy Moore and Jim Wiscombe at ends, George Thrasher and Jack Hopkins at tackles, Gene Vaughn and Bill McLarty at guards and Ed Hoban at center.

Beavers Fear They Will Be Victims of Spartan Wrath

By MATT KRAMER

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — Oregon State's frustrated Beavers finally have a score to their credit, and just in the nick of time, too.

They need all the encouragement they can get before taking the field against Michigan State at East Lansing Saturday. Especially so since they all surmise what Michigan State's attitude will be because of Purdue.

Perhaps coach Kip Taylor of Oregon State doesn't feel as bad about the Purdue outcome as Biggie Munn does, but it's a close thing.

Taylor already had all the worries he could handle. This is the weakest team he has fielded since he left the Michigan State coaching staff four years ago to take over at Oregon State.

Beavers lost their first five game of the season and did not even score a point while opponents ran up 153. Then came the first encouraging turn of the season. Oregon State not only scored a touchdown, but managed three in defeating Idaho, 19-0, last week end.

Joy was high until Taylor reached the dressing room and learned Michigan State had been upset. Presumably Munn's players will be burning this Saturday to show the country in general and Oregon State in particular that it was all a mistake.

Taylor does not have this season any of the better players who helped give Michigan State a scare last year at Portland, when the Spartans had to kick a field goal in the closing minutes to down Beavers, 17-14.

CASE — The Upward Lift In Five Step Footwork — As no two bowlers look alike, the beginner has a wide selection of styles to adopt entirely, or from which to develop his or her own form. More and more common is becoming the five-step stride, because with it timing of footwork and ball swing comes easier.

Five step action begins with a slight upward lift of the ball from a waist-high start, as illustrated. The lift is all. No forward motion. No push-away action. The lift is timed with the first step (left foot) and that step must be short and slow.

Lift completed, the ball is pushed outward in timing with the second step with the right foot. From there on it's merely a case of going forward — continuing in unhurried stride to a slide finish at the foul line. Try it, and give it a good chance. Use the full 16 feet of the approach.

Dublin Eleven Bows

Dublin School's football team dropped its 3rd game of the season Wednesday to Orchard Lake St. Mary, 31-6, at Dubin. Eaglets scored twice in the 1st period, once in the 2nd and twice again in the 3rd. Dublin's touchdown came in the 4th quarter on a six-yard pass from Bob DeSormier to Joe Bares.

Shortest Series Game

Shortest world series game on record was played in 1908 between the Chicago Cubs and the Detroit Tigers, according to the official records. It required a total time of only one hour and 25 minutes.

Braves Seek 3rd Title

Favored Today Over Eastern in SJHL Game

Lincoln Keeps Hopes Alive With 20-14 Win Against Jeffs

SUBURBAN JR. LEAGUE

	W	L	T	PF	PA
Washington	3	0	0	37	6
Eastern	2	1	0	41	33
Lincoln	2	1	0	26	27
Waterford	0	2	1	46	66
Jefferson	0	3	1	40	59

Wednesday's results—Lincoln 20, Jefferson 14.

Today's game—Washington vs Eastern, 4 p.m., Wisner Stadium.

Washington's unbeaten Braves today seek to nail their 5th Suburban Junior High League football championship in seven years. Defending champs, boasting a 9-game winning streak over two seasons, meet Eastern at 4 p.m. in Wisner Memorial Stadium.

If the Braves get past Eastern, as expected, it will give them a clear-cut title. If they lose, the league race probably will end in a 3-way deadlock between Washington, Eastern and Lincoln.

Lincoln dumped Jefferson, 20-14, Wednesday to keep its title hopes flickering. Railsplitters broke a 14-14 halftime deadlock in the final period, when Danny Johnson plunged over from the four to climax a long sustained drive.

Bob McDonald and Bill French had scored on short runs in the 1st half, and French and Johnson had added extra points on runs. Both Jefferson touchdowns came on long runs in the 2nd period. Bud Walker scored the 1st and end Archie Brooks the 2nd on a double reverse. Both went 60 yards for the tallies. Lon Humphries and Jim Hawkins ran for points-after.

One game will remain on the SJHS schedue after today. Lincoln plays host to Waterford next Thursday afternoon in the season's finale.

Break in 8th Frame Spoils Big Pin Total

Bob Greve rolling with the Non Parels of the Pontiac Press Bowling League, Tuesday night had visions of a really big count, in his 3rd game.

But a stubborn 4-pin that bounced over the standing pins on his eighth ball spoiled it. Bob went on, however, to compile a nice 277. Coupled with 256-179 he turned in a very creditable 712 series.

Quakers Test Michigan's Rebound Ability

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (UP) — Michigan's ability to rebound from defeat will be tested by an ambitious and confident Pennsylvania football team here Saturday.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan's Wolverines, walloped 22-0 last Saturday by Minnesota, can assure themselves of a winning season. In addition, a victory would give Michigan momentum for the suicide 1953 finish against Illinois, Michigan State and Ohio State.

Michigan's chances rest on a return to efficiency of runners Tony Branoff and Ted Kress and passers Lou Baldacci and Duncan McDonald. Minnesota stopped them cold.

Oosterbaan's defensive strategy will have to contain an eager Penn team that dominated Navy to a much greater extent than the score showed.

That means patching up the holes rent by Minnesota in Michigan's pass defense. Halfback Walt Hynoski and quarterback Ed Gramigna, kicker of the winning field goal against Navy, tried 3 passes against the Middies, completing 13. That kind of performance could embarrass Michigan. That pair teamed with the experienced 205-pound fullback, Joe Varaitis, and Gary Scott, to give Penn a sound and able backfield operating behind a stout line anchored to the standout tackle, Jack Shanafelt.

The game will represent a reunion between two of the oldest intercollegiate football powers in the nation. The two have met 20 times since Penn began organized football in 1876 and Michigan in 1879. Michigan won the last meeting, 41-19 in 1944 to compile a slim edge of 10 victories to 8 defeats and 2 ties in the long series.

Mountaineers on Spot Against Nittany Lions

MOGANTOWN, W. Va. (UP)—West Virginia university, fifth ranking football team in the nation, must prove itself against Penn State Saturday, but win or lose, Mountaineers' performance has been a sweet accomplishment for coach Art (Pappy) Lewis.

Scoffers claim the Mountaineers gained their position among the country's top 10 by defeating a selection of weak teams, with the exception of their 17-7 victory over Pitt in the season's opener.

Saturday's contest at State College, Pa., should tell the story.

Davey to Get Bigger Purse

Andrews' Victory Over Lansing Fighter Won't Boost His Take

DETROIT (UP) — Despite being the winner in their bout at Saginaw last month, Al Andrews will get a smaller share of the purse when he meets Chuck Davey at Olympia Nov. 4.

Promoter Nick Londes of the International Boxing Club said Andrews will get 20 per cent of the net gate and Davey will receive 30 per cent. Each fighter will get $4,000 from the IBC for television rights.

In their first meeting, Davey collected 30 per cent of the $32,284 net gate and Andrews 12½ per cent.

Another 'Jug' Battle

CHEBOYGAN (UP) — Cheboygan and Clare High School football teams will have a jug battle of their own Friday. Winner of the game gets jug possession until the next game. Clare has won it three times, Cheboygan twice. Cheboygan on a homecoming celebration will try to even the score.

Castellani Joins Group Seeking Bout With Olson

CLEVELAND (UP)—Rocky Castellani wants a crack at middleweight champion Bobo Olson just as half a dozen other challengers do, but he doesn't think he'd have an easy time against the champ.

* * *

* * * *

"He was plenty tough and strong. He stunned me in the second round and he hit me with three or four stiff and solid punches."

Castellani's manager, Alvin Naiman is hopeful he can line up a December bout here between Castellani and Paddy Young, another top-ranking middle, and then have his man tackle the champion.

Castellani was simply too strong and too clever all the way. He started Laurent's nose bleeding in the first round and the Frenchman's face was streaming with crimson during at least half the fight.

Detroiter and Chicagoan on Video Card Tonight

DETROIT (UP)—Embrell Davidson of Detroit, who has knocked out 22 of his 30 pro opponents, meets John Holman of Chicago in the featured 8-round heavyweight fight on tonight's televised Motor City Arena card.

Holman, who floored Michigan champion George Powell twice before winning an upset victory in his last Detroit appearance, will be one of Davidson's toughest foes yet.

33 Games Mark Area's Weekend Action

By JACK SAYLOR

Twenty-nine of these are slated Friday, including a group of intersectional and non-league contests, along with the usual quota of conference games.

Pontiac high starts its policy of creating or renewing local rivalries by going to Royal Oak. This will be expanded next season with the addition of Waterford and Ferndale to the Chiefs' slate.

St. Michael's and St. Frederick's play their annual city parochial championship game at Wisner Stadium. This is a vital Suburban Catholic League encounter for Bob Mineweaser's Shamrocks.

Other key league games send Keego Harbor to Milford, Northville to Holly and Avondale to Fitzgerald. Interesting non-loop games, in addition to the PHS-Royal Oak affair, match Clarkston and Oxford at Oxford and Rochester and Romeo at Romeo.

Those stepping out of the area for their opposition are Southfield (to Belleville), Lake Orion (to Ionia and Brighton (to East Lansing).

Five schools will close their schedules Friday. Bloomfield Hills ends a disastrous season against Huron Valley and Brown City finishes at Dryden. The Almont-New Haven and Armada-Memphis games wind up grid activities for those teams.

North Branch and Capac, two of the area's five undefeated elevens, collide at Capac. North Branch is unbeaten and united, while Capac has one tie. Van Dyke, also once-tied, goes to Walled Lake.

Warren (6-0) bumps into Utica enroute to the Bi-County title and Birmingham has the unenviable job of facing powerful Port Huron, winner of 25 straight, including six this season.

* * *

Championship-starved Avondale could throw the Oakland "B" into at least a two, and more likely three-way, tie for 1st place by upsetting Fitzgerald. The Auburn Heights' club will help Paul Smarks, team dedicate its newly-lighted gridiron at Nine Mile and Ryan roads.

In the Wayne-Oakland, well-rested Keego meets a resurgent Milford team in its drive for league honors. At the same time, Presidents hope Holly can snap back against Northville, still unbeaten in League play.

St. Mikes-St. Freds game holds the sportlight locally, with Pontiac, Keego and Avondale all on the road. Waterford is idle this week before closing againts Birmingham and Owosso.

Michigan 4th for Duck Stamp Sales

LANSING (AP) — Michigan moved up from fifth to fourth place in the sale of federal duck stamps last year, conservation department noted today.

A report by the federal Department of the Interior showed 136,306 stamps were sold in Michigan, 18 per cent over 1951 sales.

Pontiac Horse Wins 1st Race in 2 Years

JACKSON (Special) — Combination of Harry Spencer, who hadn't won a race in the last two years, and Victory Lillie Bell, a money winner in 4 of 5 starts at Jackson Raceway last night produced a daily double of $96.40.

Harry Spencer, owned by E. B. Stanfell of Pontiac paid $10.20 to win the first race and Lillie Bell, owned by Ray Vinsons of Dodgeville, Wis. paid $7 in the second.

St. Louis Ball Park Undergoes Big Facelifting

Busch Putting Million Dollars in Remodeling of Cards' Stadium

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, building for a National League pennant, are building from the ground up.

* * *

Included in the face lifting are new seats — measuring 21 inches across the beam as compared to the old 18-inch width—new dugouts, new player clubhouses and a new drainage system for the infield.

* * *

Also on tap in the million-dollar program, to be completed by opening day next spring, is a genuine garden in what once were the center field bleachers.

Present construction represents $300,000 of the over-all cost. The balance was spent last season in giving the park a new paint job and on necessary structural repairs. The total cost is well over the $400,000-a-year maintenance estimate made by August A. Busch, Cardinal owner, when he bought the park last summer.

* * *

Sportsman's Park became Busch Stadium when Busch handed Bill Veeck and the late St. Louis Browns $850,000 and relieved them of ownership.

In all, 4,000 seats will be added. But the installation of the new, wider seats and more knee room between rows will allow only 600-seat increase in capacity.

Willie Pep Helped Start Teddy Davis on Road to Recognition as Featherweight

By JACK HAND

SUMMIT, N. J. (AP) — For seven long years, sad-faced Teddy Davis stumbled along at a .500 clip in the featherweight class. He fought the best in their own back yards but nobody paid much attention.

* * *

At the end of 1952, he had just slipped back to .500 after losing a return bout to Percy Bassett at Philadelphia. His career record 47 victories, 47 defeats and 2 draws.

Now he is riding high, winning five of six starts this year and is ranked No. 2 challenger in the 126-pound division. Tomorrow night he boxes George Araujo, third-ranked lightweight, at Madison Square Garden.

* * *

What happened?

"The first manager I had knew nothing about managing," he said yesterday at Ehsan's training camp.

"I was down," he said. "Ready to toss in the sponge. Along the way I fought Willie Pep three times so I sat down and wrote him a letter. I was working on a construction job in Ohio at Zanesville. I couldn't get a fight any place."

Musky Salow, who now manages Davis, picked up the story.

* * *

"I was in Hartford with Willie when we got the letter," said Salow. "I was going good so I pulled out a $50 bill and told Willie to sent it. Willie pulled out $25 and said 'Okay, we'll be co-managers.'

"So about two days later Davis shows up in Hartford. Pep and I managed him. The fighter never knew how to train before. Never did any road work.

"Last year after Teddy boxed Charley Riley in Providence, Willie asked me if I wanted to buy him out. He said he wanted no more managing but was going back fighting and wanted to drop all the outside business."

Davis has only dropped three fights since Salow took over as sole manager. Bassett beat him one. So did Eddie Campo and Araujo but he got even with Araujo Sept. 10.

Majors Eventually Will Go to West Coast, Spike Says

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two of Detroit's most famous sportsmen, Edwin J. Anderson and Walter O. (Spike) Briggs Jr., marked time here today, awaiting the Detroit game, and it was hardly surprising that they talked football and baseball.

Anderson, president of the Lion football organization, predicted that the winner of the Detroit-Ram game "should go a long way toward winning the title" of the Western Conference of the National Football League.

Briggs, president of the Detroit Tiger Baseball Club and vice president of the Lions, said that one or both major leagues eventually will extend to the west coast.

Briggs conceded that his American League and the rival National loop might wage a race to see which gets out here first but he said he could not place any time limit on the outcome.

Recalling the recent major league meeting when the St. Louis Browns were transferred to Baltimore, Briggs said it was simply a matter of Baltimore coming up with a ball park and money to make the deal. Los Angeles had nothing concrete to offer, he said.

Switching to football, Anderson informatively predicted that the division title winners in the NFL would lose only two games. This was in friendly contrast to the three-game loss predicted by league commissioner Bert Bell before the season started.

FUTURE HOPE — Maurice Stack, 205-pound quarterback from Pontiac is slated for an important role in Wayne University's football future. The former Pontiac High athlete directed the Tartars through most of the 2nd half of their 32-0 win over Bradley. A freshman, Stack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stack, 114 E. Howard.

Erdelatz Squad Likely to Use Aerial Offense at Notre Dame

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Forewarned is forearmed may be an old military expression, but Coach Eddie Erdelatz ays it isn't so helpful in gearing his Navy football team for Notre Dame.

* * *

"We know what they do," he said today. "But they're nuts if they put in anything new. What they have is plenty."

Not that Navy's once-beaten eleven heads for South Bend to meet the mighty Irish this Saturday expecting to lose. There's another old expression which says the Navy plays to win.

* * *

Erdelatz was just bemoaning the strength of the country's top-ranked team. Scouts have told him this Notre Dame edition is as potent as any produced at South Bend in years.

Navy is in pretty good physical shape and eager mentally for its major test to date.

* * *

Erdelatz earlier promoted to the first eleven the sophomore end who scored Navy's only touchdown against Penn. John Hopkins, a 205-pounder, moved in ahead of Don Fullam at right end.

The Navy coach said today he expects to start Bob Hepworth, 180-pound junior, at left half. Hepworth was a first-stringer when the season began, but lost ground to Jack Garrow—later injured—and then Bob Craig. Now Craig is hampered somewhat by leg injuries, and Hepworth has played well his last two times out.

* * *

The Midshipmen will have the services of both their quarterbacks whom Erdelatz rates the best he has had in four seasons at Annapolis. John Weaver, battered by a bruising tackle in the Penn battle, has been cleared for action.

* * *

Weaver and sophomore George Welsh, who has opened the last two games, will be called on for plenty of passing. Erdelatz figures Navy will have to take to the air against Notre Dame's rugged defenses.

Fire Permits Again Issued by Michigan

LANSING (AP) — Conservation department today resumed issuing fire permits in the Lower Peninsula after general rains had well dampened the forests.

Permits were cancelled more than a week ago when hot dry conditions produced one of the worst forest fire hazard periods in history.

M. M. Bergman, chief of the department's fire fighters, credited public cooperation with holding down the losses during the last week of the high hazard period to 101 fires over 730 acres.

Rains, which began Saturday, have permitted extra crews, moved into the Lower Peninsula, to return to their Upper Peninsula stations, Bergman reported.

Group Drops Suit Against Brownies

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The former St. Louis Browns can now settle down in their new home at Baltimore, free of legal worry.

Last remaining obstacle to the transfer of the Browns to Baltimore was eliminated Wednesday when minority stockholders dismissed a suit they started against the club.

TODAY A YEAR AGO—The Associated Press poll selected Bill Fenton, 210-pound end, as lineman of the week for leading Iowa to victory over Ohio State.

Motors Do Well, Bolster Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market was higher today in its second advance following two declining sessions.

Gains ran to around a point, and there were only a few small losses. Many issues held unchanged.

General Motors opened on a block of 1,500 shares up ⅝ at 59¾. Chrysler was up a major fraction as well.

Birmingham Will Get Direct Dial Service

An automatic accounting machine also rings up the charge and sees that it is recorded on the monthly bill. Only station to station calls are possible in the system at present.

In the new system the United States and Canada have been broken up into 90 "numbering plan areas" each of which has a three-number code, Southeastern Michigan, including Detroit and Birmingham, have the code number 313.

If a Birmingham customer wants to dial a man in Boston at Sherwin 3-1234, he would first consult a special directory and find that Boston is in the 617 area.

He would then dial 617 — SH3—1234. Seconds later the Boston phone would ring.

9-Month GM Sales Ahead of Any Year in the nine months and 31 per cent greater in the third quarter than in the same periods last year.

Defense items, they said, average about 18 per cent of GM's business.

Third quarter business brought a net income of 140 million dollars of $1.57 a share compared with 118 million, bringing $1.31 a share in the third quarter of last year.

Curtice said that third quarter production and sales were affected by two unusual happenings in both years. The Livonia fire hit GM production in 1953, a steel strike in 1952.

Sales in the third quarter 1953 were $2,490,000,000 against $1,695,000,000 for 1952's third quarter.

GM sold 84 per cent more cars and trucks in the third quarter than in the same period last year. It also came within 15 per cent of matching its all-time quarterly sales record set in 1943's second quarter.

The third period saw 958,509 cars and trucks shipped from GM plants in the U. S. and other countries. For the first nine months of 1953 these shipments totaled 3,035,844 against 1,898,888 for the same time last year.

The corporation listed the dispersal of sales money. Of the total sum for the first nine months 51 and a half per cent was paid to suppliers. That came to $4,104,000,000.

Payrolls accounted for another 26¾ per cent or $2,125,000,000. Taxes totaled 14½ per cent or $1,159,000,000.

Stockholders got 3½ per cent or 271 million and 2¼ per cent or 182 million was kept in the business.

The report pointed out that for every dollar of net income in the first nine months $2.56 had already been set aside for taxes.

The parade will form at 7:45 p.m. near the War Memorial and proceed to the Auburn Heights School playground where judging will be held.

Married GIs Overseas Adopting German Babies

LONDON (NEA) — There's a boom in adopting babies in Germany.

An estimated 3,000 German babies have been adopted to date. They are the subject of special legislation now before Congress to ease immigration restrictions for the coming two years.

Legal adoption proceedings take from two to three weeks, which means that an American service couple stationed in Britain uses up a year's leave in Germany trotting back and forth from orphanage to police headquarters, from German courts to the U.S. consular offices.

Bob and Kay Wesner of Worthington, Minn., put a thousand miles on their car in stop-and-go driving in Frankfurt alone before the adoption of twin boys was finally approved.

The result—Kim and Kenneth, aged 11 months—was worth many more thousand miles, the Wesners agree. Back in London, Bob, who is a teleman first class at U.S. Naval headquarters, staged a raid on the post exchange for cigars to pass out to friends.

The Wesners were lucky, for 15 minutes after they secured a notarized release, learning that twins were available for adoption, were making enquiries concerning Kim and Kenneth.

"The boys were living with their mother in a room no bigger than a closet, and with no running water," Kay Wesner relates. "Both of them had diaper rash and sores on their feet. Now"—pointing proudly—"look at them. They've gained from 10 to 12 pounds."

And the twins' mother? "She was completely indifferent. Her only request was that when we drove off with the twins we take her in the car with us to the edge of town, so the neighbors wouldn't know that she was giving the babies away."

Kim and Kenneth both have German passports, and will need U.S. visas before entering the States on the German immigration quota. They will not become American citizens until they have lived in the States two years, and they must go to court before they are 16 to complete their naturalization.

Forest Rangers Get Aid From Colorado Citizen

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (INS)—Pike National Forest Ranger Keith K. Knutson reports that at least one forest visitor agrees with the rangers' point of view on neatness.

He said he found a note tacked on a tree in a deserted part of the forest. The note read:

"Help! Help! Help! Why can't we natives keep these places clean and inviting. . .

"I can remember 25 years ago how lovely this nook was; but of late no one cares. Come on, let's be decent about this business."

Bellhops, Not Boys

NEW YORK (INS) — One large New York hotel no longer has bellboys. They have bellhops. A very common complaint from these employes was that they resented being called bellboys, according to a survey taken by Hotel Edison owner, Irvin H. Kramer. Most of them are over 30 years of age and cite instances when they have experienced great embarrassment from being referred to as boys.

Pharaos' Dogs Are Bred Again

Tel - Aviv Experiment May Restore Ancient Hunter Strain

TEL-AVIV (AP)—The Saluki, the oldest known kind of tamed dog with which the Egyptian Pharaos used to hunt, is now being bred in Israel.

The interesting canine experiment with the progenitor of the modern greyhound, wolfshund or (Russian) borzoi, has been initiated here by Dr. Gershon Steiner, formerly veterinary instructor at the Research Station at Brno (Czechoslovakia) University and for the last thirteen years a resident of this country.

He told a "Jerusalem Post" reporter that since his arrival in what was then still Mandatory Palestine, he has been searching for the Saluki which, he declares, is also identical with the dog repeatedly mentioned in the Bible.

While the late King Abdullah of Hashemite Jordan kept a widely known variety of Saluki kennels, it was rather difficult for Dr. Steiner to discover the first full-fledged breeding pair on this side of the Jordan. Now there are an unspecified number of Salukis in Jordan and 13 in Israel against 27 in U. S. A. and 12 each in France and England.

Dr. Steiner — the Tel-Aviv reporter writes — has established his Saluki farm in Mazor, a small immigrants' village in the Israel coastal plain. His study is lined with long rows of books on "dog history." Here, it can be read in black and white that even recent excavations from the period of the Summerian Empire "have produced carvings of striking resemblance to the Saluki."

After Argentina and China, the state of Mississippi grows more tung nuts than any other place in the world. In 1952, the state produced 60,000 tons of the valuable oil-bearing nuts which brought growers more than $6,000,000.

Winners were Marlene Crocker, a 10th grade student at Pontiac High, Cindy Palmer, 12th grader, and Miles Watkins, 11th grader, both from Waterford, according to Robert C. Miller, Jaycee chairman for the affair.

About 150 10th through 12th grade students from each school entered the contest, Miller said, submitting five - minute radio scripts on the topic "What Democracy Means to Me." Three finalists from each school recorded their speeches for hearing by judges.

Judges were Maurice E. Finnegan, Pontiac Municipal Court judge; Robert E. Erickson, president of the West Krwanis Club; and Mrs William Sax, Waterford Township Schools speech correctionist.

Last night's winners will be rated first, second and third, in another contest Wednesday and the winning speech will be broadcast.

Prizes will be awarded at the Nov. 9 Jaycee meeting and the top-ranking contestant will have his speech transcribed for rebroadcast at the state contest in Lansing. State winner will enter a nationwide, Jaycee-sponsored competition.

After two heartbreaking near-misses the class of '54 finally won the coveted cider barrel award by emerging triumphant from this year's inter-class Field Day contest.

This year in addition to the old faithfuls, the egg-throw (won by the juniors), the barrel race (also by the juniors), the three-legged race (in which the seniors won first place in both boys' and girls' event), and the tug-o-war (soph girls, senior boys), there were two new events, one a tricycle race in which one boy, six feet tall or over, and two girls participated from each class.

The points received for the parade and cheering are added to those won in the events, and the class with the highest score is the winner.

World Court Will Decide Old Franco-British Dispute

WASHINGTON — A Franco-British dispute eight centuries old — ownership of some gaunt rocks off the coast of France — has gone in friendly fashion to the International Court of Justice at The Hague for settlement.

Les Ecrehous and the Plateau des Minquiers, mite-sized island groups between the British-owned channel island of Jersey and France's Cotentin Peninsula, are the prizes at stake, says the National Geographic Society.

There was no problem so long as William the Conqueror and his early successors ruled England, Normandy and the Channel Islands in between.

Later, however, the British throne lost its possessions on the French mainland. And while the larger islands remained indisputably British, ownership of the Ecrehous and Minquiers was never firmly fixed by treaty.

The Plateau des Minquiers is a rock-studded sea area of some 80 square miles, 12 miles south of Jersey and 18 miles from France. Near it are the Iles Chausey, a tiny archipelago that is definitely French-owned.

Of the Minquiers, Maitresse Ile has the only habitation. Jerseymen have built a few granite houses for part-time use on the 200-yard-long rock, and there is also a Jersey customs house. French fishermen have erected a pre-fabricated sleeping shack there as well, but sea swallows are the island's most regular inhabitants.

The Ecrehous, where once lived a solitary old sailor nicknamed "King of the Ecrehous," lie seven miles northeast of Jersey and eight miles from the French coast. A smaller group than the Minquiers but with more land above water, the Ecrehous now have three inhabited islands.

Largest of these, Maitre Ile, 300 by 150 yards, has one house and a ruined abbey building. Marmoutier and Blanque Ile, really one island except at very high tides, boast a cluster of dwellings.

Main uses of the islands are for summer jaunts and as fishing grounds. In addition to various fishes, lobsters, crabs, shrimp and oysters, the delicious ormer, a type of abalone, is found under rocks at low tide.

The question of fishing rights has already been settled by an Anglo-French agreement to share them, no matter what the International Court of Justice finally decides.

Build Fish Hatchery

REDDING, Calif. (UP)—A new $750,000 fish hatchery is under construction at Darrah Springs near here which will add thousands of fish annually to California streams for the pleasure of fishermen from all over the United States.

Foursome for 50 Years

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss. (UP)—Four Holly Springs women were taught the game of bridge when they were sixth grade students of North Mississippi Presbyterian college. That was in 1903, and Mrs. Charlie Dean, Mrs. Ed Tyson, Mrs. Lynn Hopson and Miss Lucy Hill Daniel are still an inseparable foursome. "We still fuss like cats and dogs at bridge," said one of them.

In the 17th century great trade fairs were held at Taos, New Mexico, rivaling those in Chihuahua, where goods were exchanged from all over the west.

With Her Own Hands

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Mrs. Joseph Sosinksi, of Hartford figured out an unusual gift for her husband. While he was away on a trip, she had his automobile painted and, with her own hands, reupholstered its interior. Sosinski was more than happy. His car is a 1928 air-cooled Franklin, and he wouldn't part with it for anything. While he's been driving it, Mrs. Soskinski has used up seven new cars.

An average farm kitchen requires 20 to 30 tons of water each year.

Better Vantage Point

TOLLAND, Conn. (UP) — The pilot of a Navy helicopter flying over busy Wilbur Cross highway spotted a state police cruiser and shouted to the officer that there was a traffic jam a few miles away.
