Cardinal Mooney Dies Suddenly in Rome

ROME (AP)—Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of Detroit, died today at 76 as the conclave to elect a new pope was about to begin.

Cardinal Mooney's death cut to 51 the number of cardinals who will elect the new Pope.

First information was that his sudden death was not expected to affect the beginning of the conclave to elect the Pope.

The cardinal's death was reported by the Rev. Joseph Tucek, head of the National Catholic Welfare Councilmens Service in Rome.

Father Tucek said that death was due to a heart condition from which the Detroit prelate had been suffering for a long time.

He came to Rome by ship because of this condition, which did not permit him to travel by air. He arrived Tuesday after the final services for Pius XII.

Father Tucek said that the cardinal "must have been excited" because of the impending conclave.

"He collapsed just as he was about to lie down for a rest after lunch," he said.

"Death was sudden," said Father Tucek.

Cardinal Mooney was able to attend the Mass of the Holy Spirit earlier today at St. Peter's Basilica. The Mass was held to invoke divine guidance for election of the new Pope.

Cardinal Mooney's death cut the number of cardinals in the Sacred College to 53 and increased vacancies to 17.

★ ★ ★

Cardinal Mooney was the second cardinal to die since the death of Pope Pius XII Oct. 9. Celso Cardinal Constantini, 82, died Oct. 7.

Cardinal Mooney's death leaves only two cardinals in the United States — Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, and James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, archbishop of Los Angeles.

Samuel Cardinal Stritch, archbishop of Chicago, died in Rome May 27 shortly after his arrival to take the important position of proprefect of the Vatican's Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith.

'Live' Ball Hops on Own Accord, Baffling Pair

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)—Mecklenburg County police were called out to investigate "a rolling ball that won't stay still."

Officer Paul Reed arrived at the scene and found two women staring, fascinated at the object. "It keeps moving," said one wonderingly.

It was a golf ball, without its cover. The rubber strips unwinding from the core caused the ball to jump around.

Blast in Ottawa Kills at Least 2 and Injures 35

Five Homes Destroyed; Fact Disaster Happens Today Saves Many

From Our News Wires

OTTAWA — A thunderous explosion obliterated three buildings and spewed debris over a four-block area in this capitol city's busines section today.

No accurate fatality or injury count was possible immediately.

A report said at least two bodies were recovered. It was feared the death toll would go higher.

Every window in the nine-story Jackson building was shattered and part of the roof was torn off. It contains government offices. Several other buildings and five homes were destroyed.

Rescuers estimated at least 35 persons had been injured.

One ambulance driver said he knew of 21 persons taken to hospitals.

Fire Chief Maynard Dolman said first investigation revealed both a gas leak and an explosion.

"Whether the leak brought on the explosion or was a result of it we don't know," he said.

WINDOWS SHATTERED

Every window in the nine-story Jackson building was shattered and part of the roof was torn off. It contains government offices. Five homes were destroyed.

★ ★ ★

Equipment from every fire station in the city was called out.

Only the fact that the blast occurred on a Saturday morning, when downtown Ottawa is comparatively quiet, prevented huge casualities.

The explosion came about 8:40 a.m. Its main force appeared to be centered in the Myers Motors Building and in the Jackson Building.

★ ★ ★

Witnesses said the area looked like a wartime scene.

Damage was tentatively estimated in excess of one million dollars.

An ambulance driver said several were trapped in a building owned by Myers Motors Ltd.

The driver said several persons who had been walking outside a department store were "sucked right into the store" through shattered windows. Some were injured.

★ ★ ★

The explosion was heard for 10 miles.

Fire officials called every off-duty fireman to the scene.

Police and firemen dug frantically in the debris of what was the show rooms of Myers Motors. At least two bodies had been taken out 15 minutes after the explosion.

The force of the blast smashed plate glass store fronts over a wide area, including Sparks street, one of the city's main shopping thoroughfares within sight of the Parliament buildings.

OTTAWA EXPLOSION SCENE — Debris covers the street after an explosion rocked downtown Ottawa today. The explosion was heard 10 miles away. Early investigation failed to establish cause of the blast, which wrecked a block of business structures, killed two persons and injured 35 or more. Only the early hour (8:40 a.m.) avoided heavier casualties as would have occurred later in the day.

BULLETIN

Members of Fisher Body Local 596 UAW-CIO today voted 512 to 21 to ratify an agreement on local issues reached between union and management bargaining teams earlier in the week.

The breakdown of the vote was: Skilled trade workers 118 to 6; production workers 394 to 15.

Gerald Kehoe, president of the local, said he anticipated onl ya few of the men could get back on the job by Monday but he hoped that the entire working force could be at work by midweek.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Motor Division workers already have ratified their local agreements.

Outlook Cloudy, Cool Tonight and Sunday

The weatherman predicts partly cloudy and continued cool for tonight and tomorrow. Tonight's low will be near 38.

★ ★ ★

Little temperature change is expected tomorrow. The high will reach around 56. Winds will become northwesterly at 10 - 20 miles per hour Sunday. The outlook for Monday is mostly fair with slowly rising temperatures.

The lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 43 degrees. The thermometer registered 52 at 1 p.m.

Durante's 2nd Banana, Jackson, Leaving Act

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "What's Jackson gonna do wit'out Durante?" sighed the Old Schnoz.

He referred to strutting Eddie Jackson, his show business side-kick of 43 years who announced Friday he was leaving the act to do a single.

Jackson told a reporter: "I got a feelin' Jimmy don't want me around."

'THAT AINT TRUE'

Told of this, Durante replied. "That ain't true. Eddie's a second banana he knows dat. He's still part of de act anytime he wants to come back."

Durante said the 63-year-old Jackson in poor health recently, should retire. When Jackson took sick last year Durante replaced him with Sonny King.

"Eddie wanted to get outta his sick bed and come on at de Desert Inn (Las Vegas), but his doctor told me 'Jimmy, if dat guy comes on he ain't gonna live.' So I wouldn't let 'im."

★ ★ ★

Durante retained King even after Jackson got well and returned to the act. "I hadda keep up wid de times" Durante said. "You gotta have young blood. Who's gonna pay to see a couple of old guys like Eddie and me?" Durante is 65.

"After 43 years," says Jimmy, "you woudda tought the guy woudda come up to me and said, 'Jimmy, I'd like to try a single.'

"I woudda advised against it but if he wanted it dat way, I woudda said 'Okay, Eddie, try it, but the act always will be Clayton, Jackson and Durante.'"

HAS LAST WORD

Lou Clayton, the third partner, died in 1950.

Eddie had the last word, however. "Don't rap Jimmy" he pleaded. "He's one of the nicest guys in the world. He broke my heart but I still love him . . ."

Ike Asks Reds to Join in Ban

Urges Year Suspension of Atom Missile Tests Starting Oct. 31

WASHINGTON (UPI) President Eisenhower called on Russia today to join the United States and Great Britain six days from now in a one-year suspension of nuclear weapons tests while the East and West discuss a permanent test ban.

The President repeated a proposal he first made Aug. 22 that the three atomic powers meet on an ambassadorial level at Geneva Oct. 31 to negotiate suspension of tests under international control. He proposed that all three agree to a one-year test ban dating from the start of the conference.

Russia tentatively accepted the Oct. 31 date but proposed that the conference be on a foreign ministers' level. Britain and the United States rejected that, but left the way open for attendance by foreign ministers later.

In today's statement President Eisenhower construed the Soviet position as failure to accept the U.S.-British proposal for an ambassadorial level meeting.

The President pointed out that both Britain and the United States have now declared "willingness to suspend tests" and begin the conference.

"It thus lies with the Soviet Union to decide whether on Oct. 31 all countries which have tested nuclear weapons will have voluntarily suspended testing," he said.

The President said "The United States regrets that the Soviet Union has not accepted the offer of the United States and the United Kingdom" to start negotiations and suspend tests.

Godfrey Unhurt as Helicopter Crash Lands

LEESBURG, Va. (AP) — Arthur Godfrey escaped injury when his helicopter crash landed here Friday, but the two-place craft was wrecked.

The radio-TV entertainer blamed the mishap on "a malfunction of some kind." He said the trouble developed when the helicopter was about a foot from the ground as it came in for a landing.

Godfrey has a home at Leesburg, which is about 30 miles from Washington.

UF Gifts Show Higher Average

First of Reports From Industry Indicates an Upward Trend

Early returns from the Industrial Division indicated widespread acceptance of the Pontiac Area United Fund's "giving yardstick" as a pledge guide in the current campaign.

Universal Oil Seal today reported 92 per cent of its employes have participated in this year's Tenth Anniversary Appeal. The average employe gift has jumped to $15.40. The company's 1957 employe participation stood at 87 per cent and the average pledge was $12.09. The pledge this year totals $1,263.30.

"We're extremely proud of the fine job our employes have done for the United Fund this year," stated plant chairman Ted Pearson. "I hope it paves the way for others to follow."

Universal Oil Seal is thet first of the nine organizations in the Pontiac Manufacturers' Association to complete its 1958 employe solicitations.

UF officials are relying on community-wide acceptance of the yardstick giving scales to compensate for the areas in which a decrease in employment may cause a shrinkage in pledges.

The 55 health, welfare, recreation, child care and family service agencies included in this year's campaign will be forced to cut staff and service unless the total goal is met, according to Karl Bradley, executive director of the Fund.

Residents Hurt, Six Crewmen Believed Dead

Stricken Plane Barely Misses Marine Hospital Near Grosse Pointe

From Our News Wires

DETROIT — Investigators poked through ruins of a Detroit riverfront residential strip today seeking clues to a British jet bomber's fiery crash.

The big bomber, exploding in flight and endangering a hospital as it sheared off tree-tops, crashed in late afternoon yesterday on a combined good will and training mission from England.

Six crewmen were believed to have been killed. But no one on the ground, by seeming miracle, met death. Even injuries were few though about 20 homes were set on fire.

SEARCH FOR BODIES

Police and Coast Guardsmen searched all night and into the morning for remains of the airmen, blown to bits by three explosions. Sections of at least two bodies were recovered.

The Marine Hospital on the Detroit River near Grosse Pointe, a veterans facility, was in the direct path of the plunging plane but she crashed ahead of it. Witnesses said "a couple seconds more and she would have landed right in the middle of it."

Three homes were demolished. Another dozen were set afire and at least a score more were damaged in the downpour of flaming wreckage and blazing oil.

Almost unbelieveably, only two residents suffered serious enough injuries to require hospital treatment.

TRY FOR RIVER

Trailing smoke and flame, the triangular delta wing Vulcan roared tree-top high, clipping leaves and branches in an apparent desperate attempt to make the river.

But before it reached the water it blew apart with a tremendous explosion.

"It sounded like it would take the roof right off the house," said a witness. "There was this terrible thunderclap and then the plane burst into a big ball of fire. The whole sky turned red."

The British Air Ministry in London said the ship was from the 83rd Squadron of the Royal Air Force Bomber Command based at Waddington Air Base near Lincoln, England.

NEBRASKA-BOUND

Its captain, Flt. Lt. John Willoughby Moore, carried a message of good will from the mayor of that city to the mayor of Lincoln, Neb., near headquarters of the U. S. Strategic Air Command.

New Jersey Senator in Royal Oak

Sen. Case Praises Potter's Record

Sen. Clifford P. Case, (R-New Jersey) was chief speaker last night at a rally in Royal Oak staged on behalf of Sen. Charles E. Potter's campaign for re-election.

★ ★ ★

"This is the kind of Republican (Potter) that makes it satisfying to come many miles to help him back to Washington," Sen. Case told the gathering at Kimball High School.

"We Republicans never have to apologize for the kind of representation Charlie has given us. He has worked tirelessly for everyone in your great state," the 54-year-old visiting senator said.

Sen. Potter wasn't present to hear his fellow Republican senator praise his accomplishments in his first six years in Washington, as he was keeping a speaking engagement in Macomb County.

Among Potter's achievements, Case stressed, were his efforts to provide Michigan with government contracts to ward off distressed employment areas in the state.

Potter, the speaker went on, "has been in the forefront" too in the field of foreign affairs with his work on the Senate Appropriations Committee.

"The good of the country always comes first with him," Case said.

Sen. Case, serving his first term in the United States Senate after nine years in the U.S. House of Representatives, flew in from Washington. He was to fly back to New Jersey today, after a talk to the Neopolitan Club in Pontiac.

In his talk in Royal Oak he voiced support for his party's stand on the protection of Quemoy, Matsu and other off-shore China islands.

He said this defense was "something worth keeping alive." He said he supported bigger defense spending in this direction, and urged Republicans, "to get off the defensive" in supporting their foreign policy.

"We Republicans need more of an appreciation of the soundness of our foreign policies and less of gloom and foreboding" he said.

Voters Brave Rain to Hear Candidates

An audience of Pontiac voters braved last night's downpour to gather in the Madison High School auditorium to hear political candidates of both the Democratic and Republican parties in a public forum.

★ ★ ★

The question-and-answer period ran fairly smoothly, although it saw Rep. Leslie Hudson charge Allan Meagher of "using the facts loosely." It was after Meagher blamed the Democratic administration in Michigan for "chasing industry out of the state" in answer to a question from the audience on the charge being made by the Republican party in their present campaign.

Meagher stated that the manufacturer's report, claiming that Michigan had actually gained 1,230 new industries during the past recession period, was trumped up and entirely inaccurate. He called the report the work of a private organization, filled with misstatements in an attempt to support the Democrats on this point.

The public forum was sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce as part of their "Get-Out-the-Vote" campaign, as a public service. It was the first time that the Jaycees of the city had tackled an endeavor of this kind, and "We are satisfied with the results," Richard Hanson, forum chairman declared.

"We did get answers from both parties on some very pertinent questions," he said. Hanson noted that there were 35 queries posed by the audience, most of which were answered by candidates before the time ran out. This was in addition to 10 prepared questions posed by the forum committee.

The forum, which got under way shortly after 8 p.m. lasted until 10 p.m.

On the firing line were Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart (D-candidate for Michigan senator), State Rep. Leslie H. Hudson (D-18th District candidate for U.S. House of Representatives), Leo P. Meagher (D-candidate for the 12th District seat in the State Senate), U. S. Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-incumbent for 18th District seat), State Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-incumbent for 12th District seat), and Allan G. Weatherwax (R-candidate for state treasurer).

Clyle Haskill, Jaycee president served as moderator for the public forum.

Representatives of both political parties asserted that they fully supported the proposal for a Michigan Constitutional Convention which will be decided by voters in the Nov. 4 election. They generally feel that the state constitution is outdated and in need of changes at this time.

Pontiac Police Suspect Hoax

Hold 2 Men After Tip That Holdup and Return of $95 a 'Phony'

Police are holding two men for investigation, asserting that a recently reported gas station robbery and the later return of the money reportedly taken was all a hoax, and that the holdup never occurred.

★ ★ ★

Kenneth W. Halpin, 19, of 37 N. Sanford St., attendant at an Auburn Ave., gas station, was arrested by police yesterday. He had told police that he was robbed of $95 at pistol point by a lone bandit the evening of Oct. 10.

Police are also holding Glennon L. Lovelace, 19, 2437 Snellbrook Rd., Pontiac Township. Halpin told police he handed the money over to Lovelace that night.

The pair told Detective Orville Johnston they plotted to take the money because Lovelace was behind in his car payments.

The holdup money was returned at 4:30 a.m. last Saturday when Lovelace drove up to the Clark Oil Station, 328 S. Telegraph Rd., Sylvan Lake, and threw out an envelope containing $95 and a note which read:

★ ★ ★

"This is money from Auburn station robbery. Have bills paid for now. Get in touch with Pontiac police."

Detective Johnson said an anonymous phone call told them the holdup was a hoax. They claim the two men held for investigation admit the plot.

Southfield Blast Injures Woman

Suffers Burns, Shock as Marsh Gas Sets Off Home Explosion

SOUTHFIELD — Mrs. Oliver Hanna, 54, was in William Beaumont Hospital this morning with second and third degree burns on her head and face, received yesterday following an explosion in the house she intended to move into soon.

According to Sgt. Charles Durbin, Southfield police, the explosion caused by leakage of marsh gas from the well, occurred at 1:55 p.m. at 24249 Tamarack Circle.

Mrs. Hanna was reported in fair condition this morning. She was also suffering from shock.

Her daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Chevalier, 31, of 820 Hoffman St., Royal Oak and a 3½-year-old grandson, David, were also in the building at the time of the explosion. They were not injured.

According to Mrs. Chevalier, she was helping her mother wash the ceiling of the kitchen when they heard a small explosion. Mrs. Hanna went down the basement to check the noise, walked toward the furnace and then, following another explosion, was blown 24 feet into a wall partition.

★ ★ ★

The basement cinder block walls and the living room wall were ruptured and the kitchen door blew off into the living room through an outside window. The basement door was also blown off by the blast. Damage was not estimated.

Mrs. Hanna and her husband, both of Chicago, were living in a motel until the recently rented Southfield house was ready to be occupied.

Edward Cardinal Mooney was created a cardinal in the great 1946 postwar consistory at which the late Pope Pius XII created 32 princes of the church.

The Vatican Press Office confirmed that Cardinal Mooney's death would not delay the opening of the conclave.

GATHER FOR VOTE

Even as the Detroit prelate died, his colleagues were beginning to gather at the Vatican palace for the procession to the conclave area. They will be locked later today to elect the new supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church. The first vote is scheduled for Sunday morning.

Cardinal Mooney was a popular prelate. In Rome there were those who still remembered him in 1946 when he became a prince of the church. He like to joke and quip about the Detroit Tigers. Baseball was one of his favorite subjects.

But this was for lighter moments. The famed prelate was especially noted in the church for his supervision of the important Detroit archdiocese, one of the largest in the United States, and for his mission in India as apostolic delegate in 1926, which signaled the start of his reputation as a great organizer.

Cardinal Mooney was born at Mount Save, in the archdiocese of Baltimore May 9, 1882. He was ordained a priest April 10, 1909.

He was given the personal title of archbishop Aug. 28, 1933, and became archbishop of Detroit Aug. 3, 1937.

Generally, the irregularities involved comparatively minor points. None that has come to light appeared to indicate criminal conduct, he said.

The Day in Birmingham

Area Churches Holding Joint Annual Service

BIRMINGHAM — Congregations from Birmingham area churches will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow for the 10th annual Reformation of Faith services at the First Baptist Church.

The service is sponsored by the Birmingham Council of Churches.

Guest speaker will be Dr. Robert Bruce Pierce, minister of Detroit's Metropolitan Methodist Church.

Dr. Pierce, holder of the Freedom Foundation George Washington Medal for "outstanding achievement in bringing about a better understanding of the American way of life" is a graduate of Northwestern University, the Garrett Bible Institute, Evanston, Ill. and Union College in Kentucky.

The Rev. Eugene Snoxell of St. James' Episcopal Church and president of the council said area pastors assisting in the service will be Dr. Emil Kontz of the Baptist Church, Rev. Robert L. DeWitt of Christ Church Cranbrook, Rev. MacKay Taylor of Northminster Presbyterian Church and Rev. Allen Wittrup of First Methodist Church.

Future as well as present voters will feel the inpact of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce's "Get Out The Vote" campaign, according to Charles Chamberland, chairman.

A poster contest is being sponsored for the Birmingham schools. The winning poster will not only earn an award for its creator but will be reproduced and displayed throughout the city in stores and public buildings.

Chamberland with James Temple and two board of education members will judge the contest.

Another public service will be the distribution of miniature ballots so voters may be thoroughly familiar with candidates' names prior to the Nov. 4 election.

New train schedules between Birmingham and Detroit will become effective tomorrow, H. H. Wichman, Grand Trunk ticket agent, was informed this week.

Morning commuters will leave Birmingham on the Inter-City Limited at 6:51 a.m. and arrive in Detroit at 7:35 a.m.

Train No. 19 will leave Detroit at 4:55 p.m. arriving here at 5:40 to be followed by train No. 77 with a 5:20-6:02 Detroit to Birmingham run.

A item of special interest at the American Association of University Women's book sale next week will be an 1898 phamphlet about Birmingham, its history, development and what it offers residents 60 years ago.

The sale will be held Monday through Friday in the Detroit Edison offices on Merrill street.

Rescue Teams Brave Poisonous Gas to Get to 81 Trapped Men

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP) — Rescue teams today inched down a debris-choked mine shaft heavy with poisonous gas toward 81 men trapped and possibly killed by an explosive shift of rock. Twelve others are known dead.

A mine official said there was a very remote hope that some of the trapped miners might be found alive but nothing had been heard since the accident Thursday night to indicate there were more survivors.

Eighty-one other men got out alive after the unexplained earth shift, the most severe in memory in North America's deepest coal mine. Fifteen of the survivors were injured.

Ten bodies have been recovered. One official said two more bodies had been spotted by rescue crews and would be brought up later.

Harold Gordon, coal chief for the mine owners, spent hours in the mine shaft and then told newsmen:

"There is a remote hope—very remote — that some men will be alive at the bottom end and the top end of the 13,000-foot level." He said the basis for this hope was an indication that conditions at the two ends were not so bad as elsewhere in the mine.

Asked if there had been any contact with missing miners that would indicate survivors, Gordon replied: "None."

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Showers dampened opposite corners of the country today—the Northeast and the Southwest—but a big slice of sunshine was sandwiched in between and provided rather pleasant autumn weather.

While chilly temperatures produced snow in upper elevations of Montana and New Hampshire, the weather was not severe elsewhere. Cloudiness associated with the rain in the Northeast extended westward through the Great Lakes region.

★ ★ ★

Cooler weather moved across most of the Northeast and extended southward through Middle Atlantic sections. To the West, the cool pattern reached as far south as Kansas, Missouri and the Ohio Valley.

Little change in temperature occurred elsewhere except for some warming in the Pacific Northwest and some cooling in Montana.

Dies in Hail of Gunfire After Wounding 4

Berserk Ex-Con Kills 3 Women

LINCOLNTON, N. C. (UPI)—An ex-convict tenant farmer went on a berserk rampage yesterday, killed three women and wounded four other persons. He died, his body riddled by sheriffs' bullets, eight hours after his reign of terror began.

Leroy Cook, 28, described as "just plain mean," was cornered last night by sheriff's deputies. He was able to fire one blast from his shotgun, which wounded Sheriff Frank Heavener.

Then, said Deputy Grady Fisk, Cook "died in a blaze of gunfire. It looked like a small war. I could never say which shot hit him first. There were a lot of them."

Cook sank to the ground behind a huge oak tree. He was rushed to a hospital but was pronounced dead on arrival.

★ ★ ★

The grim search for Cook began Friday morning after he shot and killed his wife Rachel, 22, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jeannette Cook, at his farm home.

As he was fleeing Cook chanced upon Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and their daughter Marjorie, 16. Cook shot and killed Mrs. Smith and wounded the daughter while Smith stood by in helpless horror.

By this time Cleveland County Prison guard Joe Godley and an unidentified trusty had picked up Cook's trail with bloodhounds. They cornered him but Cook turned and shot Godley in the side, wounding him slightly.

The trusty had to leave Godley behind. He was later credited with much of the success in cornering Cook the second time, at a lumber plant about 11 miles from Lincolnton.

For an hour and a half officers waited. Then, moving in from all sides, they blasted away at Cook. The single blast from his shotgun sent pellets into Heavener's head, chest and legs and pellets also struck Deputy J. D. Williams in the head and shoulder.

Heavener was hospitalized for observation but Williams and Godley, the prison guard, were released after treatment. Marjorie Smith was reported in "poor but not serious" condition at a local hospital.

★ ★ ★

Officers were unable to find out why Cook went on his gory rampage. Some relatives said that the young farmer, who once served a prison term for wife-beating, had "mental trouble."

But Ambrose Hoyle, father of Cook's slain wife, said he was "just plain mean."

Jet Bomber Rams Homes in Detroit

Pointe Park with its large Lake St. Clair estates.

Exploding fuel tanks of the four-engine bomber sprayed a five-block area. A number of persons reported slight injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ewald were in their home when a fragment of the plane plowed into it. Ewald, 72, managed to get out, but a stuck door trapped his 65-year-old wife. A neighbor, Michael Durkin, came to their aid.

'SHE'S ON FIRE'

"Mrs. Ewald was screaming for help," Durkin said. "She was on fire. Their dog was on fire too."

Between them, Durkin and Ewald freed the woman.

She and her husband were taken to a hospital. The Collie dog, Lassie, was found safe, cooling her singed tail in a nearby canal.

NEWSBOY HURT

A 12-year-old boy, Doyle King, who had just completed his paper route and was standing in front of a trailer court three blocks from the wreck, was hit in his back with a section of metal pipe. He required first aid.

A team of Royal Air Force investigators flew here from England today to determine what caused the crash.

Military personnel from nearby Selfridge Air Force Base said the British investigators should arrive within hours. The U.S. Air Force will aid in the investigation only if its help is requested by the RAF.

Bar Cancer Drug

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Cancer Society has rejected a proposal to test the value of the controversial drug Krebiozen in the treatment of cancer patients.

Pontiac Woman Injured in Three-Car Smashup

A three-car smashup at S. Saginaw and Wessen streets Friday afternoon sent a Pontiac woman to the hospial with leg and possible internal injuries, according to city police.

★ ★ ★

Ethel E. Fowler, 51, of 59 Lake St., one of the drivers, was described as being in "fair" condition at Pontiac General Hospital today.

★ ★ ★

The other drivers, Nathan Lane, 62, of 545 Alton Lane, and Virginia M. Coleman, 36, of 3461 Ardreth Rd., Drayton Plains, were both uninjured, said police.

5 Area Residents Hurt Slightly in 2-Car Crash

Five area residents were slightly injured in a two-car collision at W. Huron and Mark Sts. Friday night, according to Pontiac Police.

Taken to Pontiac General Hospital were one of the drivers, Ivan K. Proffitt, 27, of 213 Parkdale Ave., his son David, 2, and a passenegr, Joann B. Jackson 22, of 649 Homestead St.

Also taken to the hospital were the other driver, Omer W. Lewis, 57, of 2915 Woodbine St., Waterford Township, and his wife, Thelma, 53. All the injured parties were treated and released said police.

Expressway to Open

LANSING (AP)—Dedication ceremonies Wednesday will open the 13-mile, five-million-dollar expressway connecting Midland Bay City.

The tornado and tidal wave that struck Galveston, Tex., in 1900, claimed 6,000 lives.

$22 Million Loss Bared by Studebaker-Packard

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Studebaker-Packard Corp. has reported a loss of $22,532,511 during the nine months ended Sept. 30.

Sales were $92,005,696. In the same period of 1957 the automobile company had a net loss of $12,365,689 on sales of $147,431,550.

Plan Halloween Party

HOLLY—The Groveland Grange 443 will have a costume Halloween party and potluck supper for their families and friends tonight at 7 p.m. at their hall on Grange Hall and Van roads.

Eyewitness Account:

Horrible Roar, Bomber Hits Homes

(Mrs. Helen d'Eath, 44, watched a four-jet British RAF bomber plunge out of rainy Detroit skies and crash into a group of frame homes bordering the Detroit River Friday. Here is her story as told to United Press International.)

By Mrs. Helen d'Eath

DETROIT (UPI)—I saw it come down, it came right over my head and I said 'My God, that plane's going to crash' and then it did.

★ ★ ★

My husband, Al (regional chairman of the American Power Boat Assn., and I were preparing to go shopping. I had just stepped outside of the house when I heard a loud noise, so I looked up.

★ ★ ★

It was coming down at an angle and at first I thought it was going to crash into our home.

★ ★ ★

Then I heard a terrific explosion and saw a big ball of fire. I didn't actually see the plane hit any of the homes, but I saw that big fire from my home (about a block from the crash site).

I told Al 'Let's go and help those people' and we tried to take the jeep so we might be able to take someone out of there, but we couldn't go anywhere in the jeep because suddenly there was a big traffic jam.

When we got there I saw that the plane had smashed into Mrs. Florence Kay's house. It threw metal all over and some of the pieces broke windows as far as a block away.

I could hear glass breaking, but I didn't see anybody get out of the plane.

It was a horrible roar. I guess the pilot was trying to make the river.

It's a good thing Mrs. Kay and her husband (Ivan) weren't in the house or they would have been killed.

WHERE JET CRASHED — Firemen fight flames in ruins of homes on Detroit's east side after a Royal Air Force jet bomber crashed in flames on the riverfront. The plane was a Delta Wing Vulcan en route from Goose Bay, Labrador, to Lincoln Air Force Base, Neb. It's fuel tanks exploded as it struck.

Deaths Elsewhere

CAMBRIDGE, England (AP)—Death of Prof. George Edward Moore, 84, credited with influencing British and American philosophy early in the century, was announced Friday night. He was a professor of philosophy at Cambridge University from 1925 until retirement in 1939.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Hjalmar Bjornson, 54, U. S. lend-lease administratrator in Iceland during World War II and an editorial page columnist for the Minneapolis Tribune, died Friday after years of suffering from multiple sclerosis.

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—The Most Rev. Howard West Kilvinton Mowll, 68, Anglican primate of Australia and archbishop of Sydney, died of a heart attack Saturday.

NEW YORK (AP) — Moses Charles Migel, 92, credited with sponsoring virtually all national legislation affecting the sightless during his tenure as president of the American Foundation for the Blind, died Thursday. He headed the foundation from 1922 until 1945.

More Reds Slated to Get Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Three Soviet atomic scientists today were reported slated to win the 1958 Nobel Prize in physics for a discovery built into Sputnik III.

The newspaper Aftonbladet said the first nobel physics award for Soviet Russians will be split three ways between Profs. P. A. Cherenkov, Igor E. Tamm and I. M. Frank.

They all rank among the elite in Soviet atomic science. Tamm has been mentioned as having performed important work in harnessing the H-bomb for peaceful power.

Aftonbladet said they will receive the Nobel distinction for having first understood true nature of a bluish light, known as the Cherenkov effect which hovers over atomic reactors submerged in water.

American Metals Co. Suing UAW, Local

DETROIT (AP) — The American Metal Products Co. has filed a $210,000 damage suit against the United Auto Workers Union and UAW Local 174 in U.S. District Court.

The company charges the union with staging an unauthorized walkout. A walkout May 15, 1957, occurred after American Metals discharged two employes for disciplinary reasons.

Employes remained off the job for eight days. They returned when an arbitrator ruled after a hearing that the firings were justified.

Township Youth Injured Ramming Car Into Tree

A Pontiac Township youth was treated for minor injuries at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital early today after his car struck a tree, said Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies.

Gerald L. Spencer, 19, of 540 Amberwood St., told deputies he was going north on Baldwin Rd. near Gallogy Rd., Pontiac Township, when he lost control of the car on wet pavement.

It was a wandering man of the sea, a sailor, who really discovered New Mexico. A shipwrecked Spanish explorer, Cabeza de Vaca, walked from the Gulf Coast to New Mexico in 1536.

High Korean Ordered to Die for Espionage

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—The Court of Appeals today reversed a lower court verdict and sentenced two-time presidential candidate Cho Bong Am to die on charges of espionage and violation of the national security law.

The decision is subject to review by the Supreme Court.

The court upheld government charges that Cho worked for the North Korean Communist regime through Yang Myung San, who was also sentenced to death today.

Yung and Cho were arrested last spring. Yang confessed he had worked as a liaison agent between the Communists and Cho. Both were acquitted of espionage charges in the lower court but sentenced to five years imprisonment on minor counts.

Williams Out for Wayne Votes

Lashes GOP Control of State Legislature as 'Blocking Progress'

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. Williams stepped up his re-election campaigning in industrial Wayne County today, an area he's expected to concentrate on now until the Nov. election.

Williams delivered a major television address last night in Detroit. He lashed out at the Republican-dominated Legislature and promised a 10-point program of improvements if Democrats win a legislative majority.

★ ★ ★

He called on voters to break a "Republican monopoly" which he claimed had crippled progress in Michigan for 20 years.

"Michigan is a Democratic state," he said, "It makes no sense in a Democratic state that the making of laws should be a Republican monopoly."

Williams said a Democratic majority in the Lgislature will mean progress in 10 areas where he said the Republican majority had blocked progress.

★ ★ ★

"First of all, we can have a diversified Michigan economy . . . so we won't be at the mercy of every downturn in the auto industry," he said.

Williams said the GOP legislature cut funds for the department of economic development so it couldn't do its job of bringing in new industry.

Detroit Reports Total of 613 Polio Cases

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's 1958 polio epidemic case load reached 613 yesterday with the reporting of one new case. There have been 20 deaths.

New cases reported in Detroit this week totaled 22, the lowest number since the last week of July when the epidemic started.

Detroit recorded 175 polio cases and two deaths last year.

State health officials said a total of 1,078 polio cases have been reported in Michigan this year compared to 470 last year. A total of 57 new polio cases were reported throughout the state this week.

Political Pitfalls Are Many

Specific Rules Govern Conduct of Campaigns

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The election campaign has reached the white-heat stage, as witness the exchange of invective by bigwigs of both parties. But that doesn't mean anything goes in politics.

★ ★ ★

There is the matter of name-calling, for example. Any candidate inclined to malign his opponent must do it in the open. There is no federal law against name-calling as such but there is a strict ban against the anonymous variety.

In addition, all anonymous political literature is taboo. So far as Uncle Sam is concerned, the literature can be as dirty as the state slander and libel laws allow, so long as the name of the sponsor is attached.

And a candidate can get in trouble over anonymous political literature even without sending it out himself. The law says that if he caused it to be sent, or even knew it was being sent, he can be fined and sent to jail.

Each candidate for the Senate and House has received from the government a pamphlet listing ways how not to win an election—if he wants to stay out of trouble.

It warned each to keep an accurate account of the campaign money he receives and spends, his first report on this to be filed with Congress not less than 10 days and no more than 15 days before the election Nov. 4.

And whether he wins or loses, he must, within 30 days after the election, file a complete accounting.

★ ★ ★

With campaign money scarce this year, there does not seem much danger of candidates spending more than the law allows, and ways of getting around the law are too well known. But for the record, the candidate had better stick to the limits established by law—three cents for each voter in the last election for the post the candidate seeks.

In any case, a candidate cannot spend more than $25,000 to get elected to the Senate, and $5,000 for a House seat.

Candidates also were warned not to take a contribution from any person holding or negotiating a contract with the federal government. It is unlawful to receive such a gift and also to give it.

Direct gifts from corporations, national banks and labor unions also are illegal. And still another untouchable source is persons on relief or receiving unemployment compensation. Don't ask or take a cent from them.

★ ★ ★

Finally, a candidate must make no promise of federal jobs in exchange for political support. The law is very specific in this area, although it sometimes may not be strictly enforced.

Baby Killed, 8 Injured in 3-Car Collision

MUNISING (AP) — Seven-month-old Stephen Bond of Montreal, Canada, was killed and at least eight persons were injured yesterday in a three-car collision near here.

The child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bond, were hospitalized with serious injuries.

Police said the collision, on M28, about a mile and a half east of Munising, apparently was caused when a carload of six Michigan Tech students skidded on the rain-slick highway, sideswiped one car and then crashed headon into the Canadian vehicle.

It Seems to Me. . .

IAPA Strives for Freedom of the Press in South America

Here are some random thoughts and impressions following a few days in Rio de Janeiro and Buenos Aires:

We were in Rio on election day and everything in the city was closed tightly. This applied to retail outlets, manufacturing plants and even schools.

"Are you voting today?" I asked an English speaking driver.

He smiled. "I certainly am. Everyone does."

"They don't in my country," I confessed.

He looked incredulous. "Aren't they fined in court as we are here?" And of course, I had to admit they weren't. "And furthermore," he finished grimly, "if the excuse isn't a good one, the judges hand out a short jail sentence instead of a fine."

The U. S. A. can hang its head.

★ ★ ★

Many people think of Rio and Buenos Aires as "next door," but they're 1,400 miles apart, or further than from here to Denver.

★ ★ ★

"Saginaw Street" in Rio was the widest main drag I ever glimpsed and I commented on it so many times the driver finally said reluctantly: "I might as well tell you. This is only the second widest in the world. The widest is the one you see next week in Buenos Aires."

He was right.

Their "Saginaw Street" named "Avenue July Ninth" is 300 feet across.

★ ★ ★

I was in South America to attend the annual meeting of the Inter-American Press Association. One of our primary objectives is Freedom of the Press which is still a strenuous and unending battle in South America. Dictators are foes of the printed word. They abhor publicity unless they dictate the sentiments themselves and they crack down on newspapers accordingly.

★ ★ ★

The I. A. P. A. is fighting to free newspapers and struggling to give all of South America a part of the freedom that we enjoy here and which we appreciate so little. The I. A. P. A. is cordially despised in dictator nations.

And we're proud of the fact.

★ ★ ★

Another main objective is to promote a better feeling and understanding between North and South America. The newspapers decided it was time we did a little hard work on our own hemisphere instead of stewing everlastingly over the Asiatics, Europeans and Africas.

★ ★ ★

The Association sends about ten students a year to college ($2,500). North Americans who can speak Spanish are given the college of their choice in South America; and South Americans who can speak English are given the same selection in the United States.

We are convinced that after this neighborly year, each will better understand the lives and problems of the other.

It's purely a goodwill move.

Rio and Buenos Aires are big cities. Rio is a third larger than Detroit and Buenos Aires is probably more than twice Detroit's population.

In Rio, we drove to dinner with Fred Trozier, head of the Associated Press in those regions. "This," said he, "is one of the most expensive cars you ever rode in."

It was a 1957 Oldsmobile.

The price was $13,000.

★ ★ ★

Import duties are almost prohibitive. At that, I saw two '57 fuel injection Pontiacs in Rio. They must have cost a pretty penny unless they belonged to official government families. Ambassadors and such can bring in their own cars tax free and they're the envy of the nation.

★ ★ ★

The beef down there was super. They say the secret lies in the fact their cows finish on grass, whereas up here we fatten them at the end with corn.

★ ★ ★

We had lunch with President FRONDIZI who is an active and assertive individual. And believe me, he's "well protected."

★ ★ ★

Wages and prices are far, far below ours; but it's a picturesque and attractive land with a bright future ahead.

Even so, you can give me the U. S. A. — and Michigan — and Pontiac.

And in Conclusion . . . . . .

Gleanings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Did you hear about the Texan who was so rich he bought his dog a little boy? . . . . . Recently a marriage authority said every wife has a right to be taken out to dinner once a week . . . . . Princeton University scientists completed an atomic energy clock that's about the size of a typewriter. It's guaranteed to be right within one second after the lapse of 100 years . . . . . For the past five years Canasta has been the number one card game in the U.S. (hours played) but bridge is recapturing the lead.

★ ★ ★

BRUCE D. BROMLEY, former Pontiac resident, and now a well-known New York lawyer, is a new director of I.B.M. . . . . An Atlantic vacation spot sent out a publicity release that was supposed to conclude: "A wonderful place to spend an adventurous weekend." It appeared: "A wonderful place to spend an adulterous weekend." . . . . . JASON L. (JACK) HONIGMAN, Republican candidate for Attorney General, is a brother-in-law of Pontiac's own MEYER SIMON.

★ ★ ★

A pre season canvass suggests the following as the top TV shows of the new season: "Wagon Train," PERRY COMO, "Desilu Playhouse," "Gunsmoke," GARRY MOORE, "Price Is Right," "This Is Your Life," ANN SOTHERN, "WYATT EARP," "RESTLESS GUN," "MARK of ZORRO" and PHIL SILVERS. Where are "What's my Line," RED SKELTON and "To Tell the Truth?" I was disappointed with the GARRY MOORE show Tuesday night but it probably improved after I tuned it out. And when all's said and done, The TV Gal I'd Rather Have Lunch With—is POLLY BERGEN.

★ ★ ★

Hollywood Third Grader: "My pop can lick your pop." 'Nother H.T.G.: "He can not! My pop IS your pop" . . . . . Oakland Citizens League came up with a well studied list of preferred candidates for the November election . . . . . New York reviewers pronounce the current Ice Capades the top ice show of all time.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

A Japanese who once hated Americans has been turned by faith in God to the love of all mankind. The Japanese is Captain Mitsuo Fuchida, leader of the air attack on Pearl Harbor, who was once tried as a war criminal and acquitted.

After the war, in the countryside of Japan, he began to think of peace. He wondered what could transform hatred into brotherly love. Then a returning prisoner told him of a Christian American girl who ministered to him in camp, even though her parents had been killed by the Japanese. Also, he learned how the hatred of a Doolittle bombardier had turned to love while reading the Bible in a Japanese prison.

Fuchida bought a Bible. Reading Christ's words on the cross, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do," he knew Christ was the power to transform hatred into love. He became a devoted Christian. Today, he preaches to his countrymen, and heads the Sky Pilots of America in Japan, a leading Christian youth organization.

Days of All Faiths

Luther Revolted 441 Years Ago

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Four hundred forty one years ago next Friday Martin Luther startled and fascinated the throngs of pilgrims who were gathered for All Saints Day in the German town of Wittenberg by marching up to the door of Castle Church and nailing up his famous 95 Theses.

Church doors in those days served as the community bulletin board. The "theses" were arguments against current practices of the church. Luther wanted to express himself about his disagreement with some of the things the church was doing, and he couldn't have found a better place or a better time. The town was full of people and they would all be going to church. His statements were sure to get attention.

Luther, himself a monk, was criticizing the church of which he was a member in good standing. He had no idea of breaking with it or leaving it, but things were soon beyond his control and the Reformation, the greatest crisis in the history of organized Christianity, was on.

The unity of Christendom had been broken five centuries earlier (1054) when East (Constantinople) and West (Rome) split apart, each taking its millions of followers. Now the West was shattered by the blows of Luther's hammer, not just split in two but torn into many divisions.

What had so unexpectedly happened was the beginning of a process that is still going on — a revolt against authority. Luther believed, and those who came after him expanded the belief, that a Christian of informed mind and sensitive conscience needs no authoritative church to guide him. Every man, assuming his sincerity, can have his own direct encounter with God and can form his own pattern of response to that encounter.

UNION SERVICES

The effect of this approach to religion over the past four centuries has been immeasurable. In celebration, Protestants have given Reformation Day a festival of its own: the last Sunday in October.

★ ★ ★

Usually the day features union Protestant services under the auspices of the local Council of Churches or the Ministerial Association, though the Lutherans frequently take the lead in such arrangements. The National Council of Churches publishes a suggested order of service for the occasion.

PILATE'S WIFE

Finishing up his second letter to Timothy, St. Paul says "Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethern." (Second Timothy, chapter 4, verse 21) Tradition holds that this Claudia was the wife of Pontius Pilate, and that Linus was her cousin. Linus followed St. Peter as bishop of Rome.

It may seem strange to find St. Paul in the company of these relatives of the man who condemned the Lord to crucifixion, but there has always been a strong and persistent legendry about Pilate's wife and her leanings toward Christianity.

Dr. William Brady's Mailbag:

'Chewing Tobacco' Mix—Well, You Asked for It!

"Your recipe for homemade chewing tobacco, please, if it is still available. (B.R.)"

DR. BRADY

Answer: Perhaps you refer to the substitute for chewing tobacco: Mix an ounce or so each of sassafras bark, gentian root and prickly ash bark, all ground to coarse powder. Add enough licorice paste or extract to bind the mixture in a mass of the consistency of chewing tobacco. Use as a substitute for chewing tobacco. Well, you asked for it.

★ ★ ★

"When I was a boy my parents had a book by a Dr. Kneip who advocated knee baths, sitz baths etc., and especially walking barefoot in wet grass or fresh fallen snow . . . (M.J.R.)"

Answer: It was a German priest named Father Kneipp, about a century ago. The baths can do no harm. Walking barefoot in wet grass or in the snow is fun, too, but it is silly to ascribe curative effects to such diversions.

"For four years have had an intense craving for (a sugared product of wheat), eating an average of a package a day, dry, and I like it right after finishing a big meal. Doctors say it won't hurt me, but do not tell me how to overcome the hbit. I am 34, anemic, nervous, highstrung . . . . (Mrs. E.H.M.)

Answer: Are you overweight? Have you had urine and blood sugar tests? You should. Such abnormal craving for carbohydrate seems to disappear after the associated moderate vitamin shortage is corrected, in many instances. Send stamped envelope bearing your address, and ask for the FREE pamphlet Wheat to Eat.

"Is it all right for me to continue daily Ca and D supplement during pregnancy? It has done me so much good . . . (Mrs. T.D., R.N.)"

Answer: Not only all right but extra calcium and vitamin D is more essential for an expectant or nursing mother than for any one else. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet Calcium and Pregnancy; enclose 35c in addition if you want the booklet Preparing for Maternity.

Sighed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

What Was Reason for Crucifixion?

Donald asks the most vital question I have ever answerd in this educational column, so be sure to scrapbook this case and discuss it at church tomorrow: Invention applies not just to gadgets like the electric light and TV, but also to ideas, so Christ came to show us human beings an entirely new concept of God. Calvary has never ben duplicatd in ANY other religion:

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Z - 354: Donald G., aged 19, is a college sophomore who attended a convocation at Florida Southern College which I addressed earlier this year.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," he began after my talk, "I have a question I wish you could answer for me.

"Clergymen say Christ died to give us forgiveness for our sins. But couldn't God have forgiven our sins without demanding that his Son be crucified?

"When Jesus met the man who was sick of the palsy, the Bible quotes Christ as saying: 'Thy sins be forgiven thee.'

"So Jesus didn't demand that somebody die in order to win such forgiveness.

★ ★ ★

"Surely God would be more charitable than us human beings and we also forgive each other without demanding the death penalty every time."

WHY CHRIST DIED

Donald is a smart young man and raises a widespread question that deserves to be answered.

He is quite right, too, in saying God could have said: "I forgive you erring human children," and we'd have been forgiven, without the need for Christ's crucifixion.

Then why did Jesus go to Calvary?

To introduce an entirely new thought into religion! And it could NOT have been done without Christ's death!

I'll abridge 10,000 years of history by reminding you that all primitive tribes developed their own local gods.

These deities were ALWAYS looked upon as severe judges and absolute dictators who took an almost sadistic delight in striking down us human beings with lightning bolts if we deviated one iota from their ritual.

Thus, Thor and Woden, of the Scandinavians, were ready to incinerate people for any minor flaw.

And the gods of the Persians and Hindu, the Greeks and Romans, the American Indians and the African natives were likewise regarded as demanding constant appeasement.

★ ★ ★

So people sacrificed rice and wine, or even human beings as offerings to allay the ill will of deity.

Even the ancient Hebrews offered doves and lambs and bullocks as sacrifices to win the favor of Jehovah from day to day.

GOD'S DESPAIR

Apparently, God despaired that we would ever get over this false notion that he was a vindictive, cruel dictator.

He had told us in the first book of the Bible that we were his children, made in his own likeness, and he expected us to look upon Him as a loving father.

But nobody did so! As a final resort, therefore, he reversed the universal habit of having human beings sacrifice to win the favor of deities, for God sacrificed to win the favor of us erring human children.

★ ★ ★

That was unique in all world history! God sacrificed to man!

No other religion had EVER described its deity as sacrificing to us human followers. So it was a radically new concept in religion!

★ ★ ★

And until Christ made this supreme sacrifice, nobody had ever thought of the idea nor would have believed it possible.

So Christ's death was primarily to prove a new point regarding the extensiveness of God's love for his human children, and not primarily to grant us forgiveness.

For God could easily have said, "I forgive you," just as Christ did to the man with the palsy, without demanding a Calvary.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Let's Keep Halloweeners in Their Own Communities

Is there anything we can do to keep our children in our own community this Halloween?

Each year there are from two to three hundred children out begging on the holiday, children from one to 20 years old. When questioned, many of them admit to coming from the other side of town.

For one thing, we can't afford to give so much. We like to have candy or apples for the few we know in this subdivision or our friends' children, but can't compete with the many who come from other towns.

★ ★ ★

A few even get abusive and destructive when we run out of treats. Last year we had to be away from home because of a death in the family. It took us several days to repair the damage done.

Let's hear from other mothers (and grandmothers, like me) about this.

Grumpy Gram

Ex-Mental Patient to Be Dishonest?"

Judges who advocate beds not in use for the mounting list of mentally ill patients is perpetuating one of the greatest frauds in the history of medicine. There is no such hokum as mental illness.

Eventually enlightened physicians must realize that mild and severe forms of mental aberrations invariably are organic in nature, caused by upsetting the delicate chemical balance of a man's physiology. The public's immediate concern should be for the type of incarceration going on today in the name of humanitarian care.

★ ★ ★

As an ex-patient who served time behind the walls of nameless terror and recovered (nervous breakdown) without the aid of "head boys," I was shocked by the silent, maddening confinement of the human warehouses known as state hospitals.

★ ★ ★

Frankly, there is very little treatment. If one can sweat it out and maintain a semblance of sanity until he is released by the impersonal system of a mental institution, chances of returning to normal living are good. However, many unfortunates have been driven mad or into a twilight existence by the very environment of these hospital prisons. Let's spend money to keep people from entering the fantastic world of state asylums.

★ ★ ★

Legally, patients have been sent to prison for the crime of becoming ill. The judges and psychiatrists should spend one week locked in a ward to fully experience the state-supported hell they so righteously, but ignorantly, want to preserve.

No Name Yet for Fear of Consequences

'Was '21' Proved to Be Dishonest?"

The TV program Twenty One seems to have left the air. Was it proved dishonest?

I understand the listening audience almost evaporated. I thought it was wonderful and absolutely honest.

Curious

'Oosterbaan Foes Just Poor Sports'

When Michigan tied Michigan State Bennie Oosterbaan was just wonderful. Then when Michigan was badly beaten by Northwestern, Bennie was the victim of some poor losers. You would think college sportsmanship would lead the parade instead of looking as bad as this.

★ ★ ★

The wolves haven't started shooting at the Lions' coaching staff and their team looks a lot worse than Michigan and it's a pro outfit.

★ ★ ★

College should teach gentlemanly qualities along with the other things.

One Who Didn't Go

'After His Actions, How Can He Talk?'

So much is being said and written these days about foreign policies of the present administration by the opposition party.

★ ★ ★

I happen to remember the time during the Chinese Civil War when Truman sent Gen. George Marshall as special envoy to China to tell the president of that republic what to do or else and the Chinese president didn't agree to it so Truman's foreign policy ordered supplies, food and munitions withheld for the Nationalists.

★ ★ ★

So we have the Red Chinese in control of the mainland of China and they are shooting their brothers on the off-shore islands. I wonder how Truman can stand up and criticize a man who has done so much to eliminate bloodshed in the nations of the world.

'Why No Pictures of MSU Members?'

I wonder if the editors of our Press are graduates of U. of M. or just good fans. Twice in my recollection pictures of U. of M. band boys from Pontiac have been featured in our paper. What has happened to the representatives of Pontiac attending MSU, or I wonder from all the attention they get, if there are any.

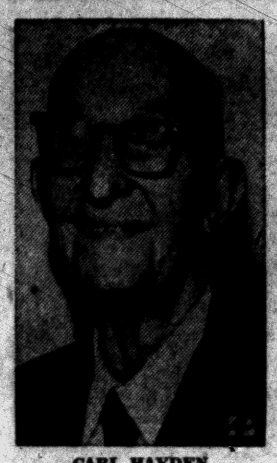

Certainly neither college is so superior to completely ignore the presence of Pontiac boys attending them. How about some pictures of the MSU band boys from our fair city?

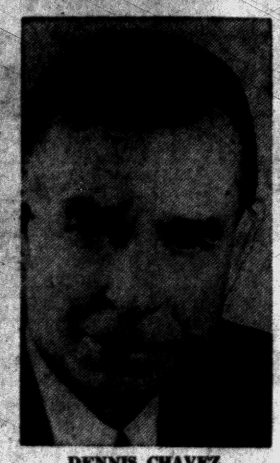

Marilyn Bell
186 Liberty St.

(Editor's Note: The Pontiac Press is happy to use pictures of band members from any of the colleges. However, those pictures are sent to us from the schools and we can use only those that are the most suitable for printing and which consist mostly of Pontiac boys. Unfortunately, those we have received from Michigan State have been too small to reproduce well or contain pictures of too many boys from outside this area.)

5 Remarkable Old Men Wield Great Power

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Five of the most remarkable old men in America serve Uncle Sam in positions so powerful that practically every decision they make affects our everyday lives.

The old boys whose ages range from 70 to 91 are full of pep and vigor. Their minds are sharp and penetrating. They make this world capital hum.

Highest ranking in the table of protocol is globe-trotting Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who during his six years in the cabinet had already chalked up 507,520 flight miles before setting out earlier this week for Formosa by way of Rome, London, the Arctic Circle and Alaska.

Only two years ago, this 70-year-old dynamo of perpetual motion lay on an operating table for nearly three hours, while surgeons removed a cancerous portion of his large intestine.

In superb health today, Dulles handles a weekly work load that would stagger men half his age. To add to the burden, he must devote innumerable evenings each month to wining and dining with foreign ambassadors and visiting dignitaries from every part of the globe.

Once a chain smoker, the secretary now doodles incessantly to still the hands that once held a succession of cigarettes. For relaxation whenever possible, he swims in the icy waters surrounding his Duck Island retreat in Canada.

Next in order of precedence is Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, who was born 76 years ago in Vienna, Austria. Arriving in the United States at the age of 12, he graduated from the College of the City of New York 13 years before the court's newest member, 43-year-old Justice Potter Stewart, was born.

The former Harvard law professor works a nine-hour day at his office, and invariably takes a loaded briefcase home with him at night.

An early riser, he works an extra hour in the morning on his decisions, after spending the entire evening in similar fashion. The spry, vigorous little justice is seldom seen on Washington's social circuit, since his wife has for the past five years been confined to their Georgetown home.

Nearly every morning, Frankfurter sets out on foot to hike the several miles from Georgetown to downtown Washington. Only then does he permit his trailing chauffeur to give him a lift the remainder of the way to the Supreme Court.

★ ★ ★

Three Democratic senators whose vim and energy defy their years complete this roster of remarkable oldsters. All are chairmen of top committees, and high ranking members of others which double their work loads.

★ ★ ★

Oldest in point of service is Sen. Carl Hayden, who came to the upper chamber 31 years ago from Arizona. No present member of the Senate was there on that March day in 1927 when the former sheriff of Maricopa County slipped into the freshman bench.

Now the Senate dean, 81-year-old Hayden unquestionably holds the hardest job in the senate: the chairmanship of the powerful appropriations committee. To top his chores, he is also chairman of the joint committee on printing, and second ranking member of rules and administration.

Completely devoted to his work and his invalid wife, Hayden declines all evening engagements — even to White House dinners of state. For recreation, he strolls around the Capitol Plaza to digest his dinner.

★ ★ ★

Seventy-year-old Sen. Dennis Chavez of New Mexico was dying ten years ago of diabetes and cancer, when a surgeon removed three-fourths of his stomach.

The senator rallied, but was warned never to drink, smoke, or eat spicy foods again. Today, hale and vigorous, he not only does all three, but chain-smokes black cigars, feasts on chili and enchiladas, and sparkles on the social circuit with his charming wife.

This remarkable solon who came to the Senate in 1935 heads the public works committee and ranks high on the appropriations committee. Although his Senate seat is probably as secure as any in the upper chamber, he is currently campaigning for reelection as strenuously as an unknown newcomer.

★ ★ ★

The fifth member of the oldster-quintet is 91-year-old Sen. Theodore Francis Green, multimillionaire aristocrat from Rhode Island. Green, who had rounded out his education at Brown, Harvard, and the universities of Bonn and Berlin before the turn of the century, now holds the coveted chairmanship of the foreign relations committee.

Eagerly sought after by Washington dowagers, the bachelor senator plays tennis, swims, hikes and dances an enviable tango. Amazing is the word for T. F. Green!

PTA Offers Dual Program

WALLED LAKE — A two-part program has been planned for the regular meeting of the Decker School PTA at 8 p.m. Monday.

★ ★ ★

Nina Kropidloski, elementary consultant for the Walled Lake Schools, will discuss "Standards in Elementary Education" and a panel from the West Bloomfield Township League of Women Voters will speak on tthe topic, "The Michigan Constitution, Up to Date in '58."

Among the topics Miss Kropidloski will consider are: "Where do we get our basic standards? What forces try to influence or alter them? How do different children meet these standards in terms of individual differences?" and "How do we evaluate whether we are achieving these standards?"

Mrs. Robert Hartman, Mrs. Robert Pfeuffer and Mrs. Frank Vaclavik will each speak briefly about the need for revision of the Michigan constitution, after which the audience will be encouraged to ask questions.

Refreshments will be served by the mothers of children in Mrs. Ella Reid's and Miss Anne Coolman's first grade rooms. an attendance prize will be awarded to the room with the most parents present.

Answers on Social Security

Program Started in 1937

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

From Miss C.H.D. of Clearwater, Fla: "Could you tell me when the Social Security program started and when the first checks were paid under it?"

The program started Jan. 1, 1937. The first check was paid to Miss Ida Fuller of Ludlow, Vt., in February 1940.

★ ★ ★

From M.S. of Oakland, Calif.: "My monthly Social Security check has been $108.50. I understand that's been the maximum anyone could collect under the program. My wife has been getting a check of $53.30 a month because of my Social Security coverage. What will our combined payments be after Jan. 1?"

$174 a month, including payment increases effective Jan. 1.

★ ★ ★

From Mrs. T.B. of Charlotte, N.C.: "During the war I worked for several years and got a Social Security card then. Because I want to go back to work, I've hunted high and low for the card, but can't find it. What do I have to go to get another?"

Apply for a duplicate at the nearest Social Security office.

From S.H. of Chicago: "My son and I are considering a joint farming venture. If we should decide to form a partnership and go into farming on a full-time basis, will we both be covered by the Social Security system?"

Yes, as long as you're partners. However, if you employ your son he's only covered by Social Security if he's 21 or over. If your son employs you, you're not under Social Security. The reason for the variance in coverage in a father-son relationship results from a provision of the Social Securtiy law to eliminate the possibility of collusion in a family to establish false Social Security credit.

★ ★ ★

From R.E. of St. Petersburg, Fla.: "I believe my boss has been deducting Social Security tax from my pay, but not turning the money over to the government. How can I check on this?"

Pick up a wage statement request at the nearest Social Security office, fill it out and mail it to Social Security head quarters in Baltimore. In a few weeks you'll receive a form giving you a statement of your wages during the past three or four years. Compare this with your record of wages. If the two don't jibe, ask your Social Security office to investigate.

★ ★ ★

From Mrs. W.M. of New York City: "I've been doing housework for about three years for two different ladies. They pay me $8 a day and carfare. Should they be paying Social Security tax for me?"

Yes, if they each pay you at least $50, including the carfare, in a three month period. If they do, you should ask them to write the nearest Social Security office and get the appropriate forms for making a report of your earnings. Incidentally, they're violating the law if they don't report your earnings for Social Security purposes.

Man Acquires Fighter Plane — Can't Land It

BALTIMORE (AP) — Abraham Miller owns a mustang fighter plane. Now he has the choice of learning how to fly it or trading it in, say, for a new car.

★ ★ ★

Miller has a license to fly an airplane. It's just that he doesn't know very much about Mustangs, a World War II fighter plane recently retired by the Air Force.

This didn't stop him from trying out his newly-acquired plane last week. He got her up, but he couldn't get her down. Finally, he was talked down by another civilian pilot at Friendship International Airport.

★ ★ ★

A Civil Aeronautics Administration official and a member of the Maryland Aviation Commission asked Miller to get a competent instructor. He readily agreed.

Faubus Hinting at New Plans

Warns Public Schools May Be Abolished if U. S. Forces Issue

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Friday Arkansas may be forced to abandon its public school system if the federal government insists on integration.

In two other developments on Arkansas' integration front:

1. State Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett officially told the Arkansas Education Department it could use funds withheld from Little Rock's four closed high schools to pay for educating students at other public or private schools.

2. Dr. T. J. Raney, president of the Little Rock Private School Corp., said the corporation now has all the facilities it needs to handle about 750 white students in a segregated teaching system.

Faubus said he was against abolishment of the public school system " at the present time."

But he added that if the federal government continued to take "drastic steps" in pushing integration, Arkansas might have to drop the public school system. Presumably, a statewide program of private, segregated schools would be adopted.

Women Workers Rise Steadily in Germany

BONN — Average employment in West Germany in 1957 totaled 18,600,000, or 3.1 per cent more than in 1956. The importance of women workers has increased steadily in recent years.

Between 1950 and 1957, when the number of men employed rose 27.6 per cent, the number of women employes jumped 50.8 per cent. The ratio of employed women to total employment increased from 30.1 per cent to 33.8.

10,000 Slated for Integration Rally in Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Students from as far away as Los Angeles converged on Washington today for a "youth march" demonstration in favor of sending Negroes and whites to the same schools.

★ ★ ★

Up to 10,000 whites and Negroes ranging from fourth graders to college students were expected to take part in the afternoon mass gathering.

The demonstration is sponsored by prointegration leaders, various churches, labor groups and the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

★ ★ ★

Former baseball star Jackie Robinson, singer Harry Belafonte and Mrs. Martin Luther King, wife of the Alabama Negro integration leader, were among those listed to head a parade to the Lincoln Memorial.

Report U. S. Convoy Unnecessary Now

TAIPEI (AP) — America's top commander in Formosa said today there is no immediate military need for U.S. warships to resume convoying Chinese Nationalist supplies to Quemoy.

★ ★ ★

"Of course I would order the destroyers back to convoy if the Chinese (Nationalists) asked and the military need arose," added Vice Adm. Roland N. Smoot, Taiwan (Formosa) defense commander.

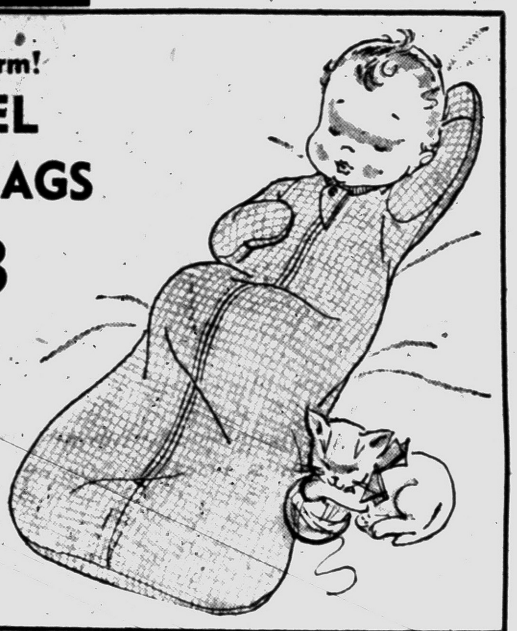

Smoot said in an interview Quemoy is now so well stocked with ammunition and supplies that "nobody is putting on any pressure" to resume U.S. convoys.

J. L. VOORHEES

Chase Fear-Goblins Away

You'll be astonished how quickly a Fear-Goblin vanishes when it is faced. Fear is as empty as a shadow. It has no substance and yet Fear-of-fear makes life a maddening experience;—fear of losing a job is a wrinkle in the head of the drum-of-economics; fear of an illness is far worse than the operation itself; what-might-happen is like a noisy insect, a menace as long as you allow it to exist. These fears are debilitating, have nothing to recommend them, have no excuse to being;—get rid of them as you would a goblin, and as easily.

There isn't a situation or condition that cannot be made acceptable once the issues are uncovered, and faced. Uncover the basic issue, sweep aside the phantom Fear-of-Fear and find a solution to a simple problem.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McInnis (nee Carol Cremer), of Bald Mountain road, announce the birth of a daughter, Cheryle Anne, born at Pontiac General Hospital Oct. 11.

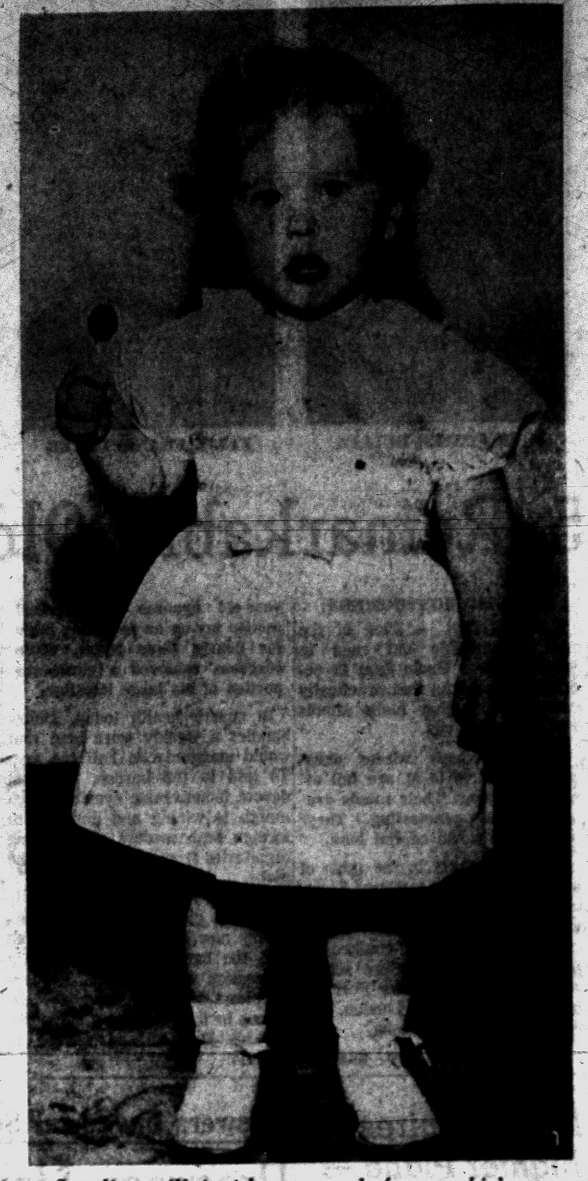

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Cremer of Gage street and Mr. and Mrs. William McInnis of Lewis street.

David (left) and Kevin Bickerstaff wear the washable cotton suits the Queen Mary Section will turn in at the 46th annual Ingathering of the Pontiac Chapter of Needlework Guild, Nov. 13 in First Presbyterian Church. David's gray twill trousers are topped with a blue and white striped corduroy jacket; Kevin's jacket is red and white.

A red and white plaid skirt and white blouse was fitted to Mary Elizabeth McIntosh when her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Milligan, made the outfit for the Queen Mary Section's contribution to the Needlework Guild Ingathering in November.

Standing still just long enough for a robin's egg blue dress to be photographed is Margaret McIntosh, another granddaughter of Mrs. Milligan. The dress will be given to the annual Ingathering of Needlework Guild on Nov. 13.

Vaverek-Rossman Nuptial Solemnized

Dressed in a gown of hand-clipped Chantilly lace over satin, Lorene Mary Rossman became the bride of Jerome Charles Vaverek this morning at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Lake Orion.

The Rev. Kenneth McKinnon of Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit, and the Rev. Edward Schroeder, chaplain at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, officiated at the Nuptial High Mass before 300 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rossman of Lake Orion and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Vaverek of Joslyn road.

MRS. JEROME C. VAVEREK

The bride's gown was accented with iridescent sequins outlining the Sabrina neckline, and she wore a pearl beaded crown. Her cascade bouquet was of white chrysanthemums centered by white orchids.

ATTEND BRIDE

Annabelle Vaverek was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Betty Ruge and Evelyn Mickelotti, both of Lake Orion; Mrs. Philip Tschihart of Detroit and Mrs. Frank O'Connor.

Marguerite Rossman, the bride's niece, was the flower girl. Her dress was white velvet accented by turquoise satin and she carried a basket of turquoise chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's brother Milton Vaverek was best man. Ushers were Clarence and Harold Rossman, both brothers of the bride from Lake Orion, Thomas Reynolds of Arlington, Va., and Nelson Mercer of Detroit. Kim Rossman was ring bearer.

A breakfast at the Villa Inn followed the ceremony. An evening reception is being held at VFW Hall.

The bride is a graduate of Mercy School of Nursing, Detroit, and the bridegroom was graduated from the University of Detroit College of Engineering.

For a motor trip through the East, the new Mrs. Vaverek has selected a blue print wool jersey sheath with velvet accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Two Are Feted at Buffet Held in Local Home

The West Huron street home of Mrs. William P. Gregory was opened for a buffet supper in honor of Mrs. Efrosini Augusti of Birmingham and Mrs. Theodosia Fortune who is visiting here from Salonika, Greece. Mrs. Augusti is leaving the states to reside in Greece for two years. Her itinerary also includes a trip to Constantinople and Jerusalem.

Among guests present at the Wednesday affair were Mrs. Ernest Nicholas of Inglewood, California, Mrs. Socrates V. Sekles, Mrs. Abraham Ryeson, Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Chris Pantel, Mrs. Paul Pantel, Mrs. Gus Garyet, Mrs. Azarius Savvas, Mrs. John Athanas, and Mrs. Elias Nicholas.

Also attending were Mrs. Despina Asimoglou, Mrs. Loukia Kiriako, Mrs. Abraham Savas, Mrs. Despina Limonides, Mrs. Ray Pace and Ann Savvas.

75 Attend Delta Zeta Dinner

Seventy-five members of the two Oakland County alumnae groups of Delta Zeta met for a dinner and candlelight ceremony Thursday evening to honor their founders.

Mrs. Russeell T. Costello, who recently completed four years of service as national president of the sorority was hostess to the group at her Pine Lake road home.

★ ★ ★

Group I prepared dinner, and decorations were provided by group II. Mrs. Winfield Hinman of Franklin was in charge of the candlelight service. Mrs. Malcolm Young was program chairman and Mrs. George W. Betker Jr. presented the standards of Delta Zeta. Mrs. Cecil N. King headed the decorations and table setting committee.

Special guests for the evening were active chapter members from the University of Detroit.

Date Set for OES Meeting

The fall meeting of the Oakland County Association of OES will be held at the Waterford CAI Building Oct. 30, with members of the Joseph C. Bird Chapter of Clarkston acting as hostesses.

Mrs. Newman Freeman, past president, will open the morning session, assisted by Mrs. Geneva Haan, organist, and Mrs. Jessie Alward, marshal.

★ ★ ★

Gordon Beechum, second vice president, will preside during the election of officers, and Mrs. Frank Voll, president, also will participate in the program. Mrs. Carl Smith, past president, will open the afternoon session

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Lilas Long of South Lyon will be installed as president. Installing officers will be Mrs. Esther Taylor, of Hazel Park, Mrs. Arlene Weitzel of Birmingham, Mrs. Lloyd Sibley of Clarkston, Mrs. Marion Nelson of Farmington, all past presidents, and Dale Hess, organist.

Luncheon reservations are to be made with the worthy matrons of 1957-58, by Oct. 27.

Mary Lou Woodworth Donald W. Milner Wed

Palms and yellow and white chrysanthemums banked the altar of First Presbyterian Church, Schoolcraft, this afternoon for the wedding of Mary Lou Woodworth and Donald William Milner. The Rev. Stephen Peterson officiated at the ceremony before 200 guests.

The bride, who lived on Prall street, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Woodworth of Schoolcraft. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Milner of Waterford.

IN EMBROIDERED GOWN

A full-length embroidered gown was selected by the bride. It featured a fitted basque waist and long tapered sleeves. Pleated ruffles on the front of the gown swept into a chapel train edged with embroidery.

Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of iridescent sequins and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered by a white orchid.

★ ★ ★

Nancy Woodworth of Schoolcraft was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jean Sammons, Cynthia Hockins, Virginia Milner, the bridegroom's sister, and Constance Woodworth of Schoolcraft, another of the bride's sisters.

All wore waltz-length dresses of romance blue featuring chiffon tops, satin cummerbunds and lace skirts. Their blue shoulder-length veils were held by crowns of seed pearls.

MRS. DONALD W. MILNER

★ ★ ★

The maid of honor's bouquet was of yellow pompons with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Ray Milner. Seating the guests were Robert Cannon of Rochester, Albert Roth, Heinz Falk and Thomas Woodworth of Kalamazoo.

A reception was held at Dorwood Farm, Schoolcraft. The couple will live in Clarkston.

★ ★ ★

The bride attended Northwestern University and is a graduate of Western Michigan College where she was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega Sorority.

VanLeuven Addresses Zonta Club

James VanLeuven, assistant supervisor of Oakland County Children's Home, was guest speaker at the Pontiac Zonta Club luncheon held at Hotel Waldron Thursday.

Mrs. Florence Doty, chairman for the day, introduced the speaker.

Mr. VanLeuven told of the methods of investigation and screening of the neglected child and pointed out the influence that the parent, school, community and church can have on the incorrigible child.

Guests were Mrs. Theresa Browning of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Perry Clements of Ionia.

On Nov. 1, a reception and dinner will be held at Flint honoring the governor of District Five, Dr. Nan Wolcott.

Sylvan Lake Garden Club Holds Meeting

Sylvan Lake Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden Club met Thursday at Oakland County Boat Club. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Samuel G. Warwick, Mrs. B. R. Eastridge, Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. Albert E. Kohn, Mrs. Robert S. Waugh and Mrs. R. R. Goff.

Taking part in the afternoon program were Mrs. Harry J. Wood, Mrs. O. E. Boice and Mrs. E. L. Williams.

New members welcomed were Mrs. Walter Lange, Mrs. Delisle Wilson, Mrs. Kathleen Peterson, Mrs. C. W. Doerr, Mrs. A. O. Carmer, Mrs. Fred Saner and Mrs. Orville Tripp.

Members who attended the Michigan Division council meeting, held in Grosse Pointe, gave reports on the meeting.

Starching Rugs?

At housecleaning time when laundering cotton rugs be sure to starch them lightly and see how much longer they stay cleaner.

Still a Favorite

Swank military trench coats are still the favorite of fellows who like that extra bit of dash in their raincoats.

A Smart Handbag

The flat oval handbag with gold metal chain handle is a well-liked fashion for fall and winter. Comes in black and colors, too.

Glamorous First Copies of 'Originals' Featured

First copies of exclusive designs were shown in the collection of dresses presented by Alvin's at Kingsley Inn, Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Holiday gowns—exquisite in combinations of lace and taffeta, velveteen and organza, and in a multitude of vibrant colors—were seen on the runway.

★ ★ ★

The audience noted a "big" difference in the original and the copied dress—the price tag. Now budget-minded women who always wanted to wear high-fashion designed dresses can afford this luxury.

SKIRTS SHORTER

Hem lengths were shorter, but flattering and among the "party" dresses were harem, balloon and bell skirts. A modified trapeze wool dress with an Empire bodice was a favorite along with the many knit ensembles.

★ ★ ★

A combination leather and tweed coat, a mist-colored cashmere with matching colored mink collar, and a sleeveless knit highlighted the coat collection.

Vibrant colors were noted in the group of separates shown for daytime wear, as well as in the "at home" outfits. A pretty combination of deep purple tapered pants and a silk printed overblouse was an audience favorite.

Doctors, Dentists, Lab Men Misbehave When She's Around

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

ABBY

"DEAR ABBY: How can a respectable woman protect herself against unscrupulous professional men who attempt to take advantage of her in the privacy of their offices? Must she always bring along male protection (which is not always possible) or forego the services she needs? It isn't possible to test your own eyes, fill your own teeth or X ray yourself. How can we expect skillful attention when they don't keep their minds on their business?"

INSULTED

DEAR INSULTED: Professional men are bound by a strict code of ethics and most of them behave like gentlemen. Those exceptions should be reported to the Professional Ethics Committee of the Medical Society, Dental Society or the group to whom that doctor must answer for malpractice.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: What do you think of the nickname 'Junior?' I don't see anything wrong with calling a little boy 'Junior,' but how about when 'Junior' turns out to be 6 feet 2, weighs 240 pounds and is 23 years old? I'm referring to my fiance whose family still calls him 'Junior' in public.

★ ★ ★

"Am I wrong in thinking this nickname is absurd? I would never say anything to his parents because I think HE is the one who should have asked them to stop calling him 'Junior' 10 years ago. I am interested in your opinion."

JUNIOR'S GIRL

DEAR GIRL: If "Junior" objects to being called "Junior," let him say so. If you plan to call him your husband, disregard what others call him and call him "Sweetheart."

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I am a woman of 27, single and pure. Some day I hope to fall in love and marry. My relatives tell me that love is only an illusion of the teens, and at my age a woman cannot hope to marry for love so she had better settle for companionship and security. Three years ago I fell in love, but it was not mutual so nothing came of it. I still say if I cannot marry for love I prefer to remain single. Am I foolish to feel this way?"

MARRY FOR LOVE

DEAR MARRY: Women your age (and many years older) marry for love. Love is ageless.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Last year when I went to visit my brother's home, my sister-in-law accused me of stealing two cheap towels. She has been in the family 45 years and knows that I would never do such a thing. I have gone to her twice and tried to straighten it out but she will not listen to reason. She has even convinced others in the family that I am guilty. Am I wrong to try to clear myself? I am getting sick and nervous over this accusation and am very brokenhearted. What more can I do?"

MRS. K.

MRS. K.: Put the matter out of your mind. Those who KNOW you do not doubt your word. The others are not worth bothering about.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. T. G.: Children brought up in Sunday School will never be brought up in Court.

New Book Gives Hope for Hearts

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I have just been reading a book which I feel will be most helpful to the million Americans who, according to best estimate, will suffer a heart attack this year. In fact the suggestions in this book will be valuable to everyone, everywhere.

The book is "Heart Attack; New Hope, New Knowledge, New Life." It is the joint product of the West Coast physician, Doctor Myron Prinzmetal and William Winter, writer and lecturer and one of the doctor's patients who recovered from a heart attack. They are donating the proceeds of the volume to medical research on heart disease.

This is an optimistic book and should be reassuring to the men and women and their families, who undergo this shattering experience. Before summarizing the advice given in this book let me tell you about a study of 500 patients who had survived an acute coronary heart attack for a year. More than four out of five of those victims made either a satisfactory or an excellent recovery.

This new book places a great deal of stress, as I have for years, on weight control. We often live too good for our own good! It is important to hold the line, and once having reduced, not to back slide all over again.

The question of cholesterol in the blood stream and the effect of unsaturated fats is still being studied, but extensive tests indicate that certain unsaturated fats have a desirable cholesterol - lowering effect. Corn oil is one of the best because it is rich in linoleic acid.

Physicians often want those who have recovered from a heart attack to cut the fats low in the diet and to use the so-called unsaturated fats in the hope of reducing their blood cholesterol levels.

There is even a new margarine which is based on non-hydrogenated corn oil.

Doctor Prinzmetal and Mr. Winter are great believers in walking as the proper and needed exercise for survivors of heart attacks, although of course each case is different and must be prescribed for individually.

No one knows exactly what role tension plays in heart disease, but this book has some good advice concerning it. It suggests that since tensions cannot always be avoided some method of release should be found.

This could be exercise, a hobby, or a change of activity or scenery. This volume urges everyone to strive to find a way to relieve his own tensions. They sum up the subject of worry with the statement, "Don't worry."

Actions Prove House Is More Important

By RUTH MILLETT

Which is more important—your house or your family?

Any woman asked that question would indignantly reply, "My family, of course."

But some women have a mighty funny way of showing that the family is more important than "things."

These are the women who make a child feel like a criminal if he unintentionally breaks a vase or spills a glass of milk.

They are the ones who think the living room is too good to be used by the family.

They are the ones who think of a house as something with which to impress friends and neighbors, instead of as a comfortable, convenient, attractive shelter for the family.

They are the ones who have beautiful big yards in which their children aren't allowed to play baseball or football for fear that the grass might develop worn spots.

They are the ones who are so intent on keeping their houses looking perfect, they are never happy unless the children are somewhere else. To them, children make work and clutter and spoil the perfect picture of a perfectly kept house.

They are the ones who can never leave the dishes in the sink to join a family outing, help a child with a project that is momentarily important, or vary their housekeeping routine in order to enjoy an unplanned-for hour or two of family fun.

★ ★ ★

They are the women who discourage their children from bringing the gang home, because crumbs on the kitchen floor and the noise of high-spirited youngsters upsets them.

★ ★ ★

They would never admit that their houses are more important than their families. But daily their actions say that they are.

Bride-Elect Is Honored at Shower

Doris Ann Ball, bride-elect of Robert W. Jefferis of Los Angeles, Calif., formerly of Pontiac, was honored at a linen shower held Friday at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Robert Terry, Mrs. Charles Beevers and Mrs. Michael Gollogly.

Mrs. E. M. Stuart and Mrs. George Hensel, sisters of the bride-to-be, presided at the refreshment table which featured a fall floral arrangement flanked by lighted tapers.

Announcement was made that the couple will be married Oct. 31 at Christ Episcopal Church in Las Vegas, Nev., and will be attended by Mr. and Mrs. William Monk of Burbank, Calif. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ball of South Eastway drive and Mrs. R. W. Jefferis of Portland, Ore., and the late Mr. Jefferis.

★ ★ ★

Guests present included Mrs. Milton Ott, Mrs. Ford Stuart Jr., Mrs. Jack Howard, Mrs. Russell Stuart, Mrs. Edward H. Neeb, Mrs. E. M. Stuart, Mrs. Hazel B. Ward, Mrs. A. F. Strand, Mrs. M. A. Calbi, Mrs. W. A. Ball and Helen Swanson.

Also attending were Mrs. Erwin Newman, Mrs. O. P. Jewett, Mrs. George Hensel, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mrs. Cyril Borst of Rochester, Mrs. K. S. Miller, Mildred Burgess, Bernice Cheslik, Mrs. Maynard Winkley, Mrs. Murl Dodge, Mrs. Constance Benson, Mrs. George Pudduck and Mrs. L. H. Boyd.

Completing the list were Frances Harrington, Ella Hetherington, Mrs. Richard Rankin, Mrs. Richard Koontz, Mrs. George Howell, Mrs. V. A. Schneider and Mrs. Donald DeVoe.

Arbutus Brice Speaks Vows in Home Rite

Arbutus Cornelia Brice and Clarence William Groves were married Monday evening at the Fulton street home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stevens. The Rev. Claude Goodwin of Providence Missionary Baptist Church officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Blakeney of Charlotte, N.C., and Mr. and Mrs. Milas Groves of Nashville, Tenn.

The bride wore a blue chiffon waltz-length gown accented with blue rhinestones, and a white carnation corsage.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ernest Ott was matron of honor, and best man was the Rev. C. N. Cannon of Omaha, Neb.

A reception will be held Nov. 1 at Providence Missionary Baptist Church. The couple is living on Fisher street.

Pullovers Not Quite a Sweater

Part of the new look in country clothes appearing on the Fall and Winter scene is the cotton knit pullover that's relaxed and comfortable, and almost, but not quite, a sweater.

★ ★ ★

Ready to go with slacks or skirts are pullovers striped, plain and patterned in both long and short sleeved versions. Most of them come in many different shades with tones of red, yellow and orange in the lead—as well as in such neutrals as camel, brown and charcoal.

★ ★ ★

Hoods, double-turtle necks, contrasting colored hipbands and cuffs, all in one sleeves with underarm depth and ski-sweater stripes are some of the details used to dramatize their long, easy look. A pullover of soft gray knit jersey has a deep V inset in a darker shade of gray with a hideaway collar that can be tucked inside leaving a collarless neckline. Practical for sports car riding is a hooded overblouse with a turtle neck.

Dance Set Tuesday

A Masquerade Halloween Dance party sponsored by the Widow and Widowers Club will be held Tuesday evening at Malta Temple Hall.

Chairmen are Mrs. Adeline Govan and Mrs. Georginna Witkopp. There will be costume prizes, music and refreshments.

Mission Bells Meet With Mrs. Hoyt

Mrs. Emma Hornblad, Mrs. Edward Stafne and Mrs. Theodore Fauble were elected to the nominating committee when the Mission Bells group of St. John Lutheran Church met Tuesday evening at the Clifford street home of Mrs. Henry Hoyt. Mrs. Gene Ericksen was cohostess.

A report on the Women's Missionary Society bi-annual convention held in Minneapolis, Minn., was given by Mrs. Fremont Thoe. Mrs. Fauble and Mrs. Samuel McMurray assisted.

'Twasn't Very Polite!

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Last evening I went to a housewares demonstration party at a neighbor's house. After the housewares were displayed and the guests ordered what they wanted, the person giving the demonstration handed each woman a slip of paper with a number on it. Duplicate numbers were put into a box and she asked one of the women to draw a number for a prize she was offering.

"It so happened that the hostess' number was called and she received the prize. Some of the women questioned the propriety of her accepting this prize. Will you please tell me if she was right to have done so?"

Answer: If the hostess was given a present for having the party in her house, I do not think she should have accepted another prize. It would have been simple for her not to have drawn a number.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know what is the proper way for a gentleman to hold a door open for a young lady he is with when the door opens out (away from them). Should he go through the door first and stand and hold it open for her, or merely push the door open while he remains inside, letting the lady go first?"

Answer: If he can easily push the door open and hold it for her without getting in her way as she goes through, this is the simplest and correct thing to do. Otherwise he should say "Excuse me," go through the door first and hold it open for her.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Should a man remove his glove to shake hands with another man?"

Answer: Yes, unless it is very cold winter weather or if his glove is hard to remove and to attempt to do so would delay the handshake.

Margaret A. Colfer Wed to Anton Fons

White chrysanthemums and ivy banked the altar of St. Vincent de Paul Church for the wedding this morning of Margaret Anne Colfer and Anton C. Fons Jr.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Colfer of Sylvan Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Anton C. Fons of Berkley.

★ ★ ★

The bride wore a gown of unpolished satin accented with Alencon lace. The gown featured a basque waist, chapel train and semi-scoop neckline appliqued with lace, seed pearls and sequins. Her fingertip veil fell from a rhinestone crown and she carried a bouquet of white fugi chrysanthemums.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. Patricia Hunter of Drayton Plains was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Byron of London, Ontario, and Mary Colleen Burnett.

All wore identical dresses of peacock blue taffeta with matching bow hats and circular veils. Their nosegay bouquets were of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

★ ★ ★

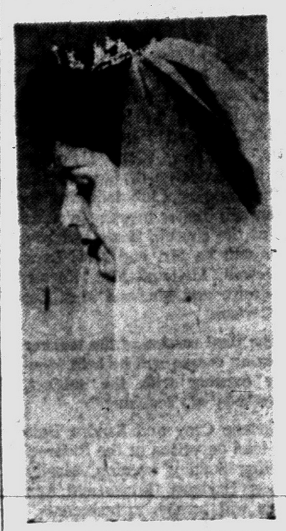

Paul Fons of Huntsville, Ala., was his brother's best man. The bridegroom's other brothers, Delmar J. Fons of Huntington Woods and Leonard A. Fons, also served as attendants. Ushers were the bride's brothers, James M. Colfer and Alexander Patchak of Berkley.

RECEPTION TONIGHT

An evening reception is to be held at Hotel Roosevelt. The bride will wear a black and white tweed suit with a mink collar and deep rose hat for a honeymoon trip to Florida. The couple will live in Waterford.

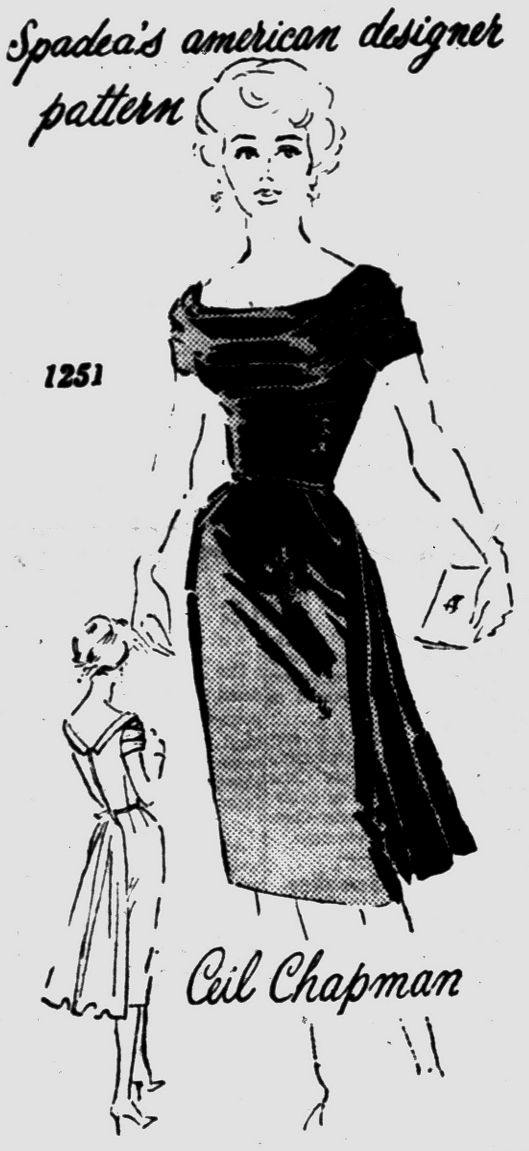

★ ★ ★

The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph School of Nursing in Chatham, Ontario. The bridegroom was graduated from Pontiac Business Institute.

Pastors' Topics on Reformation

Prayer Group to Meet With Mrs. W. H. Lehman Tuesday Morning

The Rev. Galen E. Hershey will preach on "Has the Reformation Reached You?" at the 9:30 service Sunday morning in First Presbyterian Church when the congregation celebrates Reformation Sunday. Mrs. Michael Siano will sing "The Lord's Prayer."

★ ★ ★

"Protestant Principles and Practices" will be Dr. William H. Marbach's sermon subject at 11 a.m. Royce Everett will sing "Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God."

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scearce will be in charge of the program of the Couples' Club following the Halloween dinner meeting Wednesday at the church. Hosts and hostesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Larry McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rightmire and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carlson.

The final session of the teacher training course will be held Monday evening with the subject, "Methods of Teaching."

Darlene Croy and Sandra Baird will lead devotions at the Pioneer's meeting Sunday evening. Marilyn Seiber, Barbara Gaines and April Davis will furnish refreshments.

★ ★ ★

In charge of devotions at the Tuxis meeting Sunday will be Becky Bryce and Sally Huntoon with Sandra Hilderley, Pat Brown and Lois Carlson providing refreshments.

The Women's Prayer Group will meet Tuesday morning with Mrs. W. H. Lehman of 20 Lincoln Ave.

Crusader Choir to Sing at Early Service Sunday

The Crusader Choir under the direction of Mrs. Alice Smith will make its first appearance this fall at the 9 a.m. service Sunday in the Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian. The Chancel Choir will sing at 11 a.m.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Edward D. Auchard, pastor, will preach on "If the Lord Is God." Both worship hours will be observing Reformation Sunday.

The pastor will conduct the worship service in the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium at 12:45 p.m.

The executive committee of Detroit Presbytery Council of United Presbyterian Men will meet at the Orchard Lake Church from 3 to 5 p.m. tomorrow.

The Rev. Mr. Auchard is currently directing two membership classes. The Communicants' Class for young people meets on Saturday mornings; the Inquirers' Class for adults on Sunday evenings.

Detroit Pastor, Speaker

The Rev. Mrs. A. C. Richardson of Detroit will be guest speaker at 3:30 p.m. Sunday in the Messiah Missionary Baptist Church. The Rev. Roy Cummings is pastor and Helen Green is afternoon chairman.

Confident Living

Taxicab Driver in Rome Deepens Writer's Faith

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Nino is a taxi driver in Rome. We first met some years ago when he drove us throughout Europe before we had discovered the fun of drive-it-yourself.

DR. PEALE

Now we were back in Rome for just three days and another friend, Giulio Rossi, who runs a garage in the Via Purificazione, met us at the airport. He told us that Nino's wife had died, and that Nino could no longer drive for him since that required trips away from Rome. Now Nino was driving his own cab, but even so, he would love to take us for an afternoon in one of Giulio's cars.

The Lord blessed Nino with one of those glorious personalities for which radiant is the only word. He gets all tied up in his English, so excited is he about everything. He threw up his arms in a gesture when he saw me, and embraced me with such outgoingness that I just knew he loved me. It's a wonderful thing to know that someone really loves you just for yourself.

"I'm so sorry about your dear wife," I said. Nino fumbled with his wallet and pulled out a rather soiled and battered mourner's card such as are given out at funerals. It told about what a kindly, good woman she was. My friend stood pathetically looking at her picture. "I must care for the children alone . . . be mother and father," he said bravely.

"It must be awfully hard to carry on without her. She was indeed a beautiful soul," I said.

A strange look of peace came over Nino's face. "It is God's will," he replied with deep feeling. "God gave her to me, then He took her to Heaven. God helps me. I shall meet my angel again. God, He is very good."

Of course, this was a simple and not at all unique conversation, but suddenly I felt a strong sense of fellowship for this swarthy, genuine hearted man. He is Italian, I am American; he is Catholic, I a Protestant; he a taxi driver, I a preacher and writer. But what difference was there between us? Love made us brothers. He is my friend and I his, and I learned deeper faith from him.

Never underestimate what you can learn from any person. For example, I was talking with a woman who had gone to work following the sudden death of her husband. "You are very wise," I said, "to take a job and keep yourself busy."

I told her about an old country doctor of my youth who once advised a broken-hearted woman: "The best cure for a broken heart is religious faith and to get down on your knees and scrub a floor."

★ ★ ★

The lady smiled gently, "Yes, of course, but I've found that work is a drug and not a medicine. Work desensitizes, but does not heal. Faith is the real healing medicine." Believe me, there is real wisdom in that remark. You can indeed learn from people.

Waterford Ministers' Unit to Show 'Martin Luther'

For Waterford Township residents who have missed seeing the presentation "Martin Luther," the local ministerial organization has made arrangements for the film showing at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in Isaac Crary Junior High School.

★ ★ ★

Acclaimed by experts in all walks of life as one of the greatest religious films ever presented, "Martin Luther" has been honored for its excellence as a picture, aside from the message portrayed.

Most significant, however, is its tempered Christian presentation of a momentous and critical period of history, both for the church and the world.

In almost documentary fashion and yet with a dramatically reverent appeal, this picture allows history to speak for itself.

A free will offering will be received to defray expenses connected with the presentation, and additional funds will go into the treasury of the Ministerial Fellowship, to be used for additional community projects of religious and social significance.

Missionaries to Speak

The Rev. Lloyd Lily, missionary to Nigeria, Africa, will speak at 11 a.m. Sunday in the Stringham United Missionary Church. At 7:30 p.m. the Rev. Richard Riley, former missionary to India, will be guest speaker. The Rev. Mr. Riley has also been active in the Youth for Christ movement.

Revival Meetings Slated

Revival services are scheduled for Bethel Tabernacle, 1348 Baldwin Ave., beginning tomorrow. Meetings will be held nightly at 7:30 except Monday through Nov. 9. The Rev. and Mrs. Don Werner of Flint will be the evangelists.

Lutherans Will Seek 8 Million Dollar Loan

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The United Lutheran Church in America wound up its eight-day conference here this week by agreeing to borrow eight million dollars to help finance the church's building program.

The proposal to let the church's board of American missions borrow the funds to help finance the three-year $24,350,000 program did not go unprotested.

Dr. Clarence C. Stoughton, president of Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, called it "a dangerous and tragic move." He said the proposal was "an indictment against us as Christians when we permit a board to borrow money when we should give the money."

Guest Pastor, Preacher at Central Christian

The Rev. J. Willard Kerley of Detroit will preach at the 11 a.m. service Sunday in Central Christian Church. Other meetings will be Sunday School at 9:45 a.m., youth group at 6 p.m. and evening service at 7 p.m.

The Dorcas Guild will meet for quilting and lunch at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Friendship Hall.

Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

Reports Africa Changing Fast

Church Women's Head Amazed at Rapid Steps to Modern Living

The national leader of 1,800,000 Methodist women has returned to the United States from her first trip to Africa with this conviction: "Americans generally do not realize how unbelievably fast and revolutionary are the changes in Africa. The Christian church, including the Methodist Church, has a tremendous challenge in helping to channel these changes into constructive avenues."

Mrs. J. Fount Tillman, Lewisburg, Tenn., president of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Board of Missions, arrived in New York August 13, after almost three months in Africa.

"Like almost every first-time visitor to Africa, I was amazed at the rapidity of social, economic and educational change," Mrs. Tillman said. "If you read a book on Africa before going there, the chances are the book will be out-of-date when you arrive.

"I saw suburbs of 40,000 people which had sprung up in a matter of weeks. Even in the villages in the bush you see new houses and modern water pumps."

Mrs. Tillman said the revolutionary changes present a crucial challenge to the church, which seeks to show the African that the Christian way of life holds the answer to his needs. But the church faces a major obstacle in the shortage of workers.

Pontiac Members Attend Convention

More than 1,500 Jehovah's Witnesses from 20 congregations in Southeastern Michigan are expected at the semiregional convention this weekend at Milford. "Expanding Our Ministry" will be the theme.

★ ★ ★

According to A. J. Kizer, presiding minister of the Pontiac East Congregation, training sessions will augment the five classes held each week at Kingdom Hall, 600 E. Pike St.

Richard Baugh, study leader of the East Congregation, will speak tonight on "How Bible Studies Can Be Started."

Others appearing on the program from Pontiac will be C. H. Kizer, E. C. Thornton and Samuel Wallace.

★ ★ ★

Serving on the arrangement committee from local congregations are Edward W. Strong, Erick Beitler, Clinton Duck, Earnest J. Woods and A. J. Kizer.

Christian Temple Young People Hosts at Rally

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Riddle will be providing the program at the Oakland Youth Rally at 7:30 tonight in Christian Temple, 505 Auburn Ave.

Mrs. Riddle will play the marimba, piano and organ and Mr. Riddle will perform as a magician and speak.

Awards will be given the youth group with the largest attendance and the one with the highest average attendance.

Glyn Stone will be in charge of the evening with Bill Myers leading the singing. Robert Lilleyman and Robert Kritley are piano and organ accompanists.

Group to Read Plays

Members of the Adult Youth Group of All Saints Episcopal Church will meet in the Men's Club room at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Plays will be read and discussed for the group to present. Sidney J. Winstanley is sponsor and Gerald Barnfather, publicity chairman.

Urges Use of Talents

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Methodist Bishop Roy H. Short, urging fuler Christian service by laymen, said: "Every church member has some particular talent which may be put to use for the edifying of the church and the building of the Kingdom. This includes not only the 10-talent man but the two-talent man and even the one-talent man."

North Carolina Pastor Comes to Church of God

REV. HAROLD F. DOUGLAS

The Rev. Harold Franklin Douglas of Asheville, N. C. has arrived in Pontiac with his family to serve as pastor of the Church of God, East Pike and Anderson streets.

★ ★ ★

Born and educated in Charleston, S. C., the new pastor served in the U.S. Navy and several pastorates including Beaufort, North Charleston, Winnsboro, Spartanburg and Dillon, S. C.

For two terms he was state Sunday School and youth director of South Carolina. He was also named district overseer and state councilor in South Carolina.

The Rev. Mr. Douglas was responsible for the building of a new sanctuary costing $110,000 in Lake Worth, Fla. and served as district governor of the Florida district.

For several years the Church of God pastor was business manager of Lee College, Cleveland, Tenn. and district overseer of the Birmingham, Ala. district.

The Rev. and Mrs. Douglas have five children, Floride, Harold Jr., David, Anita and Susanne.

Since coming to Pontiac, the pastor has been appointed to the Michigan State Board of Trustees of the Church of God and chairman of the denomination's camp ground committee.

He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

Catholic College Group to Meet

Orchard Lake St. Mary Scene of Gathering for State Association

The 22nd meeting of the Association of Catholic Colleges of Michigan will be held Wednesday at St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake, the selected site for the proposed Polish-American Shrine of Thanksgiving to Mary.

★ ★ ★

The theme for this year's meeting is "Current Trends in Education in Michigan."

The Very Rev. Philbert Ramstetter, O.F.M. will preside. The acting secretary general and treasurer of the association is Sr. M. Lucille, R.S.M., President of Mercy College, Detroit.

Founded Jan. 31, 1936, the association has a threefold objective: to promote the welfare of member institutions in the State of Michigan; to encourage cooperation and mutual helpfulness among member institutions; and to advance the cause of higher Christian education, and thus education generally, throughout the State of Michigan.

★ ★ ★

During the afternoon session Lynn M. Bartlett, Michigan superintendent of public instruction, will speak on "Developments in the Revision of the Teacher Certification Code."

Hosts at Orchard Lake for the occasion will be the Very Rev. Wallace J. Filipowicz, president of St. Mary's College; Rev. Michael Koltuniak, vice president; Rev. Walter J. Ziemba, dean; and Rev. Walter M. Zebrowski, secretary general.

Their TRICK is to TREAT

Ghosts, Goblins to Share Halloween With Hungry

Children dressed in Halloween garb will soon be ringing doorbells as ambassadors of goodwill for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund.

★ ★ ★

These ghosts and goblins will be trick or treating for pennies, nickels and dimes to help the children's fund provide medicine and food for millions of sick and hungry boys and girls all over the world.

Wearing orange and black UNICEF tags, the children will be sponsored by local churches and nationally by the U.S. Committee for UNICEF.

This sharing of Hallowen has become a tradition in more than 8,500 communities throughout the nation.

The Intermediate Youth Fellowship of Central Methodist Church will be out tonight followed by a party.

On Thursday night from 6 to 7:30 young people of Junior High Westminster Fellowship of the Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian, will be wearing the official tag and carrying milk cartons bearing the UNICEF label.

Following the collections, the group will gather at the church for a Halloween Party.

First Methodist boys and girls of the intermediate group will be calling "trick or treat" Friday night, followed by a party at the church.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Olsen, Mrs. Jerry Augsburger and Mrs. Paul T. Hart are the group's sponsors.

Oakland Ave. Series to Close

Sunday School Skating Party at West Walton University Center

The series of evangelistic services being held at Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church will close tomorrow with the Rev. Harold Hansen preaching at both 10 a.m. and 7 p.m.

★ ★ ★

The Adult Choir will sing at both services and a quartet comoprised of Mrs. Richard Wilson, Mrs. norman Nelson, Carl Matheny and Russell Crites will also sing at the evening hour.

The Pioneer and Buildr Youth Groups will meet at 5:45 p.m. Sunday.

At 6:30 p.m. Monday, the Sunday School skating party will be held at the University Skating Center on West Walton boulevard.

★ ★ ★

Following the prayer meeting Wednesday evening, Audrey Limkeman, youth director, will begin a 12 week course on child study for all parents.

My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations: knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

Lutherans Believe

A Second Birth By Baptism

Nothing could be much simpler than the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. But when water is applied to a candidate in the name of the Holy Trinity your Lutheran friends claim he undergoes a second birth. Do you say, "That's when reason departs and superstition enters"?

If anyone were to deny having been born because he could not remember it, we'd laugh at him. "You're here," we'd say. "You must have been born." When we see people who are really different, who are really God's men and women, it's no good claiming they were not born again. God's life is found in them. They have had a new birth.

It takes a certain maturity and understanding before a child is able to understand the process of human birth. Is it untactful to suggest that a person your age must first understand about the life in God before he can really comprehend the second birth in Baptism?

Call your Lutheran pastor—he would be grateful for the opportunity to discuss all this with you. It is urgent, because Jesus Christ said, "Except a man be born of water and the Spirit he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God."

When, by the grace of God, you are born again, your Lutheran friends know you'll agree, "It's great to be alive!"

Gene Barry Says Banks Hold Back New Actors

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Why does a fellow give up a promising career in movies to cast his lot with the TV gunslingers?

Gene Barry gives a perfectly logical explanation, and it's not just money.

The lad plays a gunslinger and cane-carrier as Bat Masterson on the Wednesday night NBC series. Last year he did three films at highly respectable salaries. Not many young actors can make that statement. So why did he choose TV?

★ ★ ★

"Because the movie industry is controlled by the bankers today," he explained. "They want insurance when they invest in a picture, and that means the established stars. So you see the same faces doing all the big pictures, and the newcomer doesn't have a chance.

★ ★ ★

"I had my best year last year, but I still couldn't get the top-notch class of picture. So I decided to try a TV series. Perhaps the exposure I am getting will convince the bankers to take a chance on me in big movies.

★ ★ ★

"If things go as they have been, I think it might happen. I've had more publicity and recognition in the three weeks that the show has been on the air than I have in the seven years I was in pictures."

Then there is that other matter we mentioned: money. Gene admitted it was a convincing factor in signing with Ziv.

★ ★ ★

"Richard Carlson and I have the same agent, so I know what kind of money he has made on 'I Live Three lives,'" the actor said. "At the time I was considering the Bat Masterson series, Dick had received over $600,000 in residuals alone. My deal is even better than his. I have merchandising rights, the opportunity to do rodeos, outside pictures and even TV appearances on other networks."

★ ★ ★

Of course, his visions of gold are predicated in the show's success. It seems to be taking off nicely. Coupled with Milton Berle, the show has done well in the ratings and has even exceeded Uncle Miltie in some areas.

Sees Japan Improve Relations in Orient

SEATTLE (AP) — A Japanese official here for the Colombo Plan economic conference reported today a great improvement in relations between Japan and its neighbors in south and southeast Asia despite trade pressure from Communist China.

Ichiro Yoshioka, head of economic cooperation in the Asian Affairs Bureau of the Japanese Foreign office, said there is a noticeable drop in barriers against Japan which have existed since World War II.

"We do not feel there is any discrimination against Japan now in the area," he said. "We are given the same treatment as other countries and face the same restrictions."

Manned Sputnik Expected Soon

Scientist Claims Reds Far Ahead With New Heat-Resistant Alloys

(Russian-born French scientist Alexander Ananov, founder of the World Astronautical Society in 1945, reviews the first year of the Space Age in the following dispatch and tells why he believes the second year will see the Russians sending a man into orbit around the earth).

By ALEXANDER ANANOV

PARIS (UPI) — A Russian satellite with a man in it probably will be placed in orbit around the earth during the Sputnik Era's second year which we are now entering.

How the Russians expect to get him safely back to earth, I do not know. But I believe they are concentrating on this problem now and may have it solved already.

★ ★ ★

On the other hand, I regret to say I am not at all optimistic about any real success for the American moon probe project during the next 12 months.

Certainly the main event of Year One was the Russian success with the dog Laika.

By sending Laika up in, her satellite, the Russians were able to collect extremely valuable information on how a living creature reacts under such conditions.

The very first satellite proved conclusively that there was no real peril to space travel from the much-talked-about danger of meteprites.

The Laika experiment then showed that cosmic rays worked no serious ill effects on a living satellite passenger.

MAN IN MOON NEXT

The next logical step, I believe, is to send up a manned satellite and bring the man safe and sound bac kto the earth's surface.

After talks I had with (Soviet) Prof. Leonid Sedov in Paris last year, I concluded that the Russians had in fact planned to recover Laika from her Sputnik.

★ ★ ★

Apparently something went wrong. Perhaps the mechanism which was to eject her cabin from the satellite failed to operate.

But in my opinion this was the original Russian project and I believe it points the path Soviet space research will take this year.

The past 12 months have seen remarkable Russian achievements in rocket speed and precision.

In a remarkable demonstration of precision they recently sent two dogs up to a high altitude in a rocket and then recovered them when they landed back on the earth.

★ ★ ★

Similar American attempts to perform the same sort of exploit with mice have not yet succeeded.

The Russian success in rocket speed and power has allowed them to hoist extremely heavy payloads into orbit around the earth.

NEW ALLOY, NOT FUEL

Newspaper accounts have explained this by saying that the Russians have discovered an extraordinary new fuel for their rockets.

But I believe this explanation is incorrect.

★ ★ ★

In my opinion the Russians are still using the classic rocket fuels available to all.

I am convinced the secret of their extraordinary rocket power is a series of new metal alloys which they have discovered.

These are alloys which I believe melt at much higher temperatures than any other metals known to man.

They are used to build the combustion chambers of the Russian rockets. This means very high temperatures can be developed inside these combustion chambers.

Greater heat in the combustion chamber means greater speed and lifting power in the rocket.

I believe the Americans have not yet discovered how to make these alloys. To my mind, this simple fact also explains why so many American rockets have disintegrated on launching.

Warning Device Fails, but Plane Lands OK

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A Trans World Airlines plane with 80 persons aboard made a smooth landing here Friday night although instruments failed to show the nose wheel was locked in place.

TWA officials said failure of an electrical switch kept the nose wheel safety light from operating.

New Jet Deadliest Hunter

(Despite rockets and ballistic missiles, the manned aircraft remains a vital part of America's defenses. Among the most important is the star-fighter, a lethal battler with a missile punch now on duty on Formosa. Here's an imformed closeup of this amazing craft.)

By ELTON C. Fay
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON — The F104 Starfighter — able to fly twice as fast as sound and to climb straight up at the same speed — is one of the deadliest weapons in the American arsenal.

It's armed with two Sidewinder missiles which sniff out and track down an enemy plane by following heat rays from the hostile plane's engine.

It is essentially an interceptor, designed, says the Air Force in its technical jargon, as an "air superiority fighter." It can fly higher (almost 100,000 feet in a test) and faster (1,404.19 miles per hour) than any present bomber or operational fighter.

Even in level flight it could keep pace with the velocity of a shell fired from a 16-inch gun.

The F104 is, in itself, a missile—but carries a man who seems to go along to give the "missile" some advice.

★ ★ ★

Although classified as a fighter, officials of the Lockheed Aircraft Corp., its maker, say the F104 could be adapted to various other uses, including delivery of atomic bombs by mounting them externally. It also could be fitted for ground Strafing attack.

★ ★ ★

The supersonic speed and knife-thin wings of the Starfighter incidentally settled a problem existing for many other airplanes — icing of wings. The wings are so thin that an ice load would have little chance to build up on the leading edge. And the heat produced by air friction at ultrasonic speed warms the wings up to the point where ice doesn't form.

From the fighter pilot's standpoint, a major advantage of the F104 is the speed with which it can get out and up to interception.

A 15,000-pound thrust General Electric J79 jet engine powers the F104. To this is added, for speed bursts, the extra thrust of an after-burner, combustion induced in the tail pipe.

★ ★ ★

The Starfighter seems to have little visible means of support. Its wings are the tiniest of any American combat plane. Each wing extends out only 7 feet, 6 inches from the fuselage. This, with the help of terrific air speed, keeps the 54-foot-long airplane weighing several tons aloft.

The leading edges of the wings are so sharp that covers are placed on them when ground crews handle the plane, to prevent cut hands.

The F104 may be the best fighter in the air now, but new designs and new requirements come rapidly. How long is the expected life span of the Starfighter? Its designers estimate from 7 to 10 years from inception to final production of anything better.

Stresses of Living in U.S. Too Great?

Coronary Disease Plagues Americans

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A medical research team has turned up some physical evidence suggesting that stresses imposed by living in the United States hasten coronary disease.

The investigators examined minutely the hearts and great arteries of 139 Negroes in South Carolina and 128 Negroes in Haiti. They found twice as much coronary artery hardening in the South Carolinas as in the Haitians.

Results of the study were reported today in a paper before the American Heart Assn. by Dr. Dale Groom, of the Medical College of South Carolina at Charleston. Dr. Groom headed the undertaking.

The hearts and arteries were taken at autopsy, without regard to the cause of death. The amount of hardening, not necessarily enough to cause illness or death, was calculated in each case. The total amount of hardening material found was calculated for each group.

The two groups were regarded as being alike in everything except environment.

There were group differences in diet and climate, which are items of environment, but these were not enough to explain the greater amount of disease in the Carolinians, Dr. Groom said.

This leaves social tension, competition and the complexity of modern living as the apparent differences which might account for the added disease state, Dr. Groom reported.

Dr. Groom said the findings failed to incriminate fat as a disease factor because the fat content of the general diets was roughly the same.

The investigators said that the Haitian slept more, exercised more, worried less and lived at a much slower tempo than the Negro of the United States. Although the Haitians are constantly struggling against poverty and hunger this does not seem to produce psychological stress, they added.

★ ★ ★

There was one difference for which Dr. Groom could not account. There was as much hardening of the aortas or great arteries of the Haitians as in the South Carolina Negroes. The great differences showed up only in the coronary arteries.

This suggests, Dr. Groom said, that researchers should look for differences between these two kinds of blood vessels for something which may throw new light on the cause of coronary disease.

MacRae's Tax Plan May Be Test Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Gordon MacRae's tax plan may be used as a test case affecting claims against other celebrities.

Government attorneys in a two-day hearing challenged MacRae's right to invest in government bonds by floating a multimillion dollar loan through which — by deducting the interest—he could lower his taxes. MacRae has asked a ruling on whether he must pay a $139,000 levy.

★ ★ ★

The Internal Revenue Service said Friday that if MacRae wins it will affect government claims against such celebrities as Van Johnson, Nanette Fabray, Phil Harris and Alice Faye, John Wayne, Cornel Wilde and Jean Wallace, Doris Day and Marty Melcher and Gene Autry.

Expert Believes New Red Bomb Being Tested

SHIZUOKA, Japan (AP) — A Japanese scientist said today the Soviet Union may have detonated a new type of nuclear bomb in its new series of Arctic tests.

Dr. Takanobu Shiokawa said he could find no trace of uranium in fallout collected here during the past two days.

His analysis of the fallout showed 49 per cent neptunium 239 and a small per cent of various other elements, but no uranium 237, usually contained in such fallout.

Chiang Hopeful of China Revolt

Implies Nationalists Would Help Uprising on Red Mainland

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek said today the time for a revolt in Red China is ripening. When it comes, he added, its success would be expedited from outside.

★ ★ ★

Chiang apparently implied that his own Nationalist forces would intervene in a Hungarian-type uprising. But he carefully avoided saying the Nationalists would counterattack against the Communists who threw them off the mainland in 1949.

In a joint communique with U. S. Secretary of State Dulles on Thursday, Chiang renounced the use of force as the principal means of returning to the mainland. This renunciation was reported sought by Dulles to allay fears of U. S. allies that Chiang would drag America into war with Red China, possibly touching off World War III.

★ ★ ★

When the communique was issued, however, Nationalist sources indicated the ban on force did not apply in case of a revolt. The Nationalists long have contended a revolt would come and would return them to control of the mainland.

Costing American 53c Each Year to Run UN

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — United Nations operations cost each U.S. citizen 53 cents a year—"about the price of two packages of cigarettes," says Mrs. Oswald B. Lord, a U.S. delegate to the U. N.

Mrs. Lord, a U.S. representative on the U.N. Human Rights Commission, remarked to a U.N. observance here that the annual expense of running that body "is less than the cost of 10 hours of World War II."

Lauren Bacall Will Try to Start Life Over Again

NEW YORK — Lauren Bacall has found no peace in Hollywood since Humphrey Bogart died of cancer Jan. 14, 1947, and has gone to Spain, "the land of the castanets," as part of her attempt "to start life over again."

WILSON

"I don't know how long I'll be able to stay away from the kids—maybe a month," Miss Bacall told me just before she flew from Idlewild.

"I'm not hunting a husband! The world is full of huntresses now and I never intend to turn into one. I don't think you ever find one that way, anyway.

"What I'm seeking—she was sitting at 21 in the very seat where she sat so often with Bogie—"is a kind of a leveler—not any one person. I just want to be able to enjoy whatever there is.

We had been speaking of the loneliness faced by so many young well-to-do Hollywood widows.

★ ★ ★

"Everybody's lonely — so don't make me out a martyr. Everybody's been telling me to go to Europe since Bogie died," she said. "It was too soon. Now I'm anxious to go. I'm glad I've waited."

'BABY'

"Baby," now 34, went with Mrs. Leland ("Slim") Hayward who has been with her much of the 21 months since Bogie died. She was extremely gay about the trip before leaving — a waiter kept asking her to take calls at her table phone—but there was an undertone of sadness.

"It's as though one section of your life has been lived and you're starting a second," She looked grave. "Everybody who was associated with Bogie and me is dead . . ."

★ ★ ★

Death had come to Author Louis Bromfield and his wife Mary at whose home in Ohio they were married; George Hawkins, who gave her away; and Mark Hellinger, producer of "To Have and Have Not," in which she and Bogie fell in love, adding to the loneliness.

"Nothing is as it was," she added. "I was just a little baby, then."

"Baby" will discuss movie deals abroad.

"I was left very, very comfortably taken care of, but you can't live in the atmosphere to which Bogie accustomed me unless you work or are Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt.

★ ★ ★

"Now it happens that I was trained by Bogie, who believed a woman shouldn't work unless she was a great talent like Laurette Taylor. He though if the wife worked she was going to wake up some day and say, 'My husband is looking at other women!'"

But because of herself "and the two little creeps" — Stevie, 10, and daughter Leslie, 6—and because "If you've got the itch, you've got to get rid of it," she'll work.

"Baby" demonstrated her own special candor and honesty when I asked her if she planned her own picture company.

Nobel Award Perplexes Reds

Howl 'Hostile Political Act Against Russia' as Prize Goes to Russian

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union charged Saturday the award of the 1958 Nobel Prize for literature to Boris Pasternak was a cold war plot against Russia.

★ ★ ★

The Literary Gazette said the award announced Thursday in Stockholm was "a hostile political act directed against the Soviet state." This was the first official Russian comment on the award.

The Swedish Academy of Letters voted the prize to Pasternak for his novel "Doctor Zhivago," which sharply criticizes life in Russia under the Communists. A best-seller abroad, the nove has been withheld from publication inside the Soviet Union.

Pasternak said in an interview he did not believe the Nobel Prize would mean publication of his novel at home. But neither did he expect to be affected adversely because of the attention focused by the award, the 68-year-old poet and translator added.

★ ★ ★

Pasternak said he was overwhelmed and overjoyed at selection for the world's top literary award. A cable received in Stockholm said he hoped to go to the Swedish capital Dec. 10 for presentation of the award and the $41,420 that goes with it.

But there was no official word here whether Pasternak would be permitted to make the trip.

Flint Northern Topples Chiefs by 33-6 Margin

Explosive Vikings Hit Rapidly With 4 TD's in First Half

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

It was a wet, slushy night but that didn't stop the Flint Northern speedsters at Wisner Stadium where Pontiac Central took a 33-6 lacing from the state's 4th ranked team.

Flint Northern swept the ends, punctured the middle and ran the ball on the ground for 423 yards as classy Jim Hodo, Jerry Wright and Jim Penrod rolled up yardage.

In the first half, Northern needed only 21 plays from scrimmage to score four touchdowns and a 26-0 lead. In the second half the Chiefs altered their defenses and stopped the Vikings except for a 30 yard scamper down the middle by Hodo.

Northern wasted no time after the opening kickoff by going 65 yards in 8 plays with Wright hitting from the three. Next time they got the ball, the Vikings needed only four plays. Wright picked up 36 yards and then Hodo went 31 for the touchdown to end a 76 yard march.

Pontiac got a march going to start the second period but lost the ball on downs on the Northern eight. On the second play Fred Waters broke loose and went 85 yards for the touchdown. Only two plays were needed here.

★ ★ ★

An attempted punt fumbled by Pontiac, the second of the game, was recovered by J. Wright on the 31. Following a penalty Waters had an 18 yard gain, and then Wright went over from the five.

Quarterback Gene Csapo added the three conversions of the game.

Fred Staley, junior quarterback who was out of action all season, started the second half for the Chiefs.

PCH started to move the ball better in the second half. They got to the Northern 26 before losing the ball on downs and after a series of exchanged fumbles Pontiac started its TD march to start the 4th quarter.

Frank Ellison had a 30 yard dash, Bill Ratcliff had a 17 yard gain and Munson then passed to Joe McCauley to the one yard line. Munson then sneaked over for the TD but Brown's attempt was wide and it was 26-6.

Northern took the ensuing kickoff and despite a 15 yard penalty and a 20 yard loss on a running play, the Vikings scored going 60 yards in 8 plays.

Flint Northern stayed on the ground, throwing only two passes without a completion and Pontiac intercepting one. But even with slick turf Hodo, Wright and Waters showed good speed.

Hodo, who has averaged 13.0 per try this season, stayed with his average by picking up 148 yards in 12 carries. On his final TD, Hodo broke through the middle, hurdled over three players piled up and continued.

Pontiac showed flashes of poise but Flint featured a fast mobile line with its guards pulling fast to aid Viking backs on their sweeps.

In other Saginaw Valley games last night, Flint Central routed Alpena, 64-0; Bay City Handy and Arthur Hill tied 0-0; Bay City Central got by Midland, 12-6 and Detroit Catholic Central edged Saginaw, 12-6.

Lakers Romp; Barons Win 3rd Straight

Lucadam Shines in Rain

By CHUCK ABAIR

Come rain or shine, West Bloomfield's sparkplug quarterback John Lucadam can hold his own with the best in the state anytime.

He proved that last night by completing eight of 10 passes during a constant downpour as the Lakers romped 20-0 over Clarkston bouncing back after a scoreless first half.

Elsewhere in the Wayne-Oakland League, Bloomfield Hills continued to be the talk of the league by upsetting Holly by a 12-7 count for its 3rd successive triumph. Clarenceville left the cellar by blanking Milford 12-0, while Northville just about clinched its 3rd successive title by walloping Brighton 26-0.

The rain figured to be to Clarkston's advantage in an expected running duel. Lucadam kept most of the play on the ground in the opening half but after failing to score the versatile senior opened up.

He hit six of seven flips in the last 18 minutes of play, two of them for touchdowns. Another set up the final tally which John scored himself from the two to send the Clarkston fans home wondering what you have to do to stop this guy.

Jack Newton, Dennis Alix and Tom Bell were other offensive standouts for Keego. The swift Newton dashed 33 yards to feature the opening 70-yard TD drive. He was on the receiving end of Lucadam's 22-yard scoring pass starting the final quarter and helped begin the last drive to paydirt.

Bell caught two successive passes covering 55 yards to set up the last six-pointer. The Lakers' defensive line turned in one of its best showings of the year by holding Clarkston to a minus 14 yards rushing in the last half. Lucadam kicked both WB extra points.

★ ★ ★

The victory left Keego alone in 2nd place. It was the 3rd straight defeat for the Wolves, all without starting quarterback Bob Porritt.

Clarkston showed a good running attack in the first half paced by Mel Joseph, Jim Snover and Jim Hennig. The losers reached the 30 once. West Bloomfield missed a 2nd quarter TD chance after reaching the six.

Describing the two passes "Luke" failed to complete, coach Al Paddy pointed out that one was dropped after the receiver caught the ball and took a step and the other fell short when the intended target ran the wrong pattern. The latter ended the missed scoring chance in the 2nd period.

Three fumble recoveries helped Bloomfield Hills overcome a 7-0 halftime deficit. John Page dashed 75 yards for a 3rd period tally but Holly still led until Don Hayes crossed from the four in the final session. Darrel Kinney passed to big George McDaniels for the Holly touchdown. Roger Hall kicked the extra point.

Milford, scoreless for the 2nd straight week, never got closer than the 25. John Nelson scored all the Clarenceville points on runs of 45 and 3.

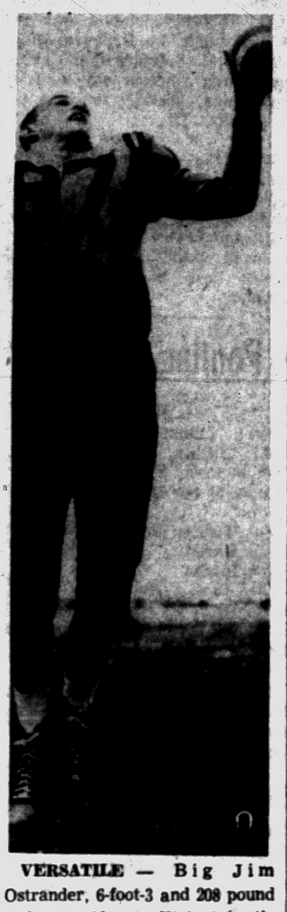

Bob Starnes scored on runs of 84 and 33 and caught a 20-yard TD pass from Bill Boyd to pace Northville. Brighton, figured to be the last team with a chance of dumping the Mustangs, never threatened.

Yellow Jackets Collect 9 TDs for 60-13 Win

Avon Nears Oakland B Title as Troy Shocks Clawson, 6-2

By BILL CORNWELL

According to expert pre-season forecasts, the Avondale High School football team would be lucky to stay out of the Oakland B League basement this year.

The amazing Yellow Jackets are rapidly making the "not so expert" experts eat their predictions. They have not only escaped the loop cellar, but they've already thrust one foot in the championship door.

Avon's devastating performance at Lake Orion last night coupled with a timely assist from Troy has put the Jackets in the driver's seat for the final two weeks of the league campaign.

Nothing could stop the Jackets yesterday as they amassed nine touchdowns and a safety for an astonishing 60-13 rout of Lake Orion, the proud defending but now sadly fallen Oakland B champion.

The injury-riddled Orion squad was helpless to stem the furious Avondale tide. Coach Frank Crowell's gridders were ahead at halftime by a mountainous 45-7 margin and the count might have gone much higher if Crowell hadn't mercifully emptied his bench in the 4th quarter.

Troy celebrated homecoming and dedicated its new lights in grand style by stunning Clawson, 6-2, to give Avon undisputed possession of 1st place. Madison conquered Fitzgerald, 20-14, in Friday's remaining Oakland B contest.

Clawson's defeat leaves Avon at the top of the heap with a 3-0 record. Troy occupies 2nd spot with a 2-1 mark while Clawson comes next with 2-1-1.

★ ★ ★

The Jackets will meet their two big contenders for the league title on the next two weekends, Clawson next Friday away and Troy the following week at home.

Orion was only in the game for the first minute and six seconds when three touchdowns, two by Avondale, were scored in rapid-fire order during a driving rainstorm. Two of the three TDs were 80-yard kickoff returns, one by each club.

Avon kicked off and the game's explosive wide-open beginning was under way at once. The Dragons fumbled on the 1st play from scrimmage and tackle Bill Jennings scooped up the pigskin and rambled 43 yards to score.

★ ★ ★

Again the Jackets kicked off and this time Lee Shoup went all the way for Orion to tie the score. Then Orion booted and Dennis Shaw zipped into pay dirt for Avondale and the Dragons were never again in contention.

Rain and mud were no barriers for the Jackets as they tallied once more in the 1st quarter and four times in the 2nd period. Orion and Avon matched TDs in the 3rd stanza, then the Jackets scored another six-pointer in the 4th session and added a safety for good measure.

Quarterback Dick Smith sneaked one yard for Avon's 3rd TD after a fumble recovery by Jim Malane. Shaw made the 2nd of his three Tds with a 28-yard dash following another fumble recovery by Walt Cooley.

Smith scored again, this time on a five-yard run, and guard Fred Krupp picked up the ball and lumbered 30 yards after an errant lateral. Then Shaw galloped 77 yards to complete the 1st half slaughter.

Larry Douglas ran 16 yards to score and Ron Doucette went 59 yards for the final Avon TD. The safety came when Orion quarterback Roger Williams was tackled in the end zone by Herb Harris.

The Dragons' 2nd touchdown was a 61-yard sprint by sophomore half back Tim Alban. Two runs by Gary Acker, one by Ken Mather and a pass from Smith to end Jan Fruytier netted four extra points for Avon. Shoup ran for Orion's lone conversion.

Troy conquered Clawson in the 3rd quarter as Rick McKinnon scored on a six-yard run to climax a 70-yard drive which was led by Dave Stokes. The Trojans notched a safety in the finale after being held for downs on the Troy four.

KO for Big Tony

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Monroe Ratliff, San Diego heavyweight, knocked out big Tony Emanuel of Los Angeles in the ninth round of a scheduled 10-rounder at the Coliseum last night.

Maples Beaten, 20-18

Pontiac Press Photos

DRIPPING WET — There wasn't a dry spot to be found on the area football fields Friday night and this was a typical scene. Fans huddled under blankets and umbrellas at Wisner Stadium where the score was just as drippy as the weather. Pontiac Central lost a 33-6 game to Flint Northern the 4th ranked Class A team in the state.

Time Runs Out as E. Detroit Hits Pay Dirt

Winning TD Is Scored at the Gun to Ruin 9th Ranked Maples

Here is one time when coach Carl Lemle of the 9th ranked Birmingham team had wished time would fly.

East Detroit, without going into a huddle, scored the winning touchdown on a pass from Bill MacGillivray to Don Petroff to wreck Birmingham, 20-18, on the Maple field last night.

Birmingham had just taken an 18-14 lead when Jeff Boucher passed to Ed Busch 20 yards late in the 4th quarter. After the kickoff East Detroit started a march on its own 32 and eight plays later was perched on the two yard line with four seconds showing on the clock.

The Shamrocks quickly assembled at the line and MacGillivray flipped to Petroff as the clock ran out. A discussion followed with Birmingham arguing that Petroff was hit and did not cross the goal line. The run for the point failed.

★ ★ ★

E. Detroit was presented with its first TD by recovering a fumble on the Birmingham one in the first quarter. Ray Dries went over and MacGillivray converted.

E. Detroit made it 14-0 to start second quarter when Dries passed to Petroff 22 yards, but after the kickoff Birmingham moved in three plays to the 25 from where Busch swept for the score to make it 14-6.

Boucher passed 22 yards to Pete Palmer to make it 14-12 early in the fourth quarter. Things looked up when Bob Lovell intercepted a pass to set up the third Maple TD. Then came the East Detroit march of 68 yards to win and hand Birmingham its first EML defeat.

In other league games Mount Clemens nipped Hazel Park, 7-6 as both teams tallied in the first quarter. Mount Clemens' TD was a one yard plunge by Dave Mial and Jacobs' point was the clincher, as Bill Polly scored for the Parkers and the run for the point failed.

Port Huron now leads the EML with a 3-0 mark by trouncing Ferndale 39-6. The Hurons and Maples have their showdown next week in Port Huron.

Port Huron scores were by Fred Reid 40 and 55 yards, Bernie Palmateer one and 8 yards, Mike McDonald and Tom Redmond each one yard. Tom Morey went six yards for Ferndale.

Utica Plays to 7-7 Tie

Utica and Fraser battled to a 7-7 tie Friday night in a Bi-County League football game at Fraser. The host team held a 7-0 halftime lead after scoring in the 1st quarter but Utica created a deadlock in the 3rd period as Jim Roney dashed 10 yards for a touchdown and converted the tying point by running.

Romeo Wins Easily, 26-0

Lapeer Blanks Rochester

Neither a stubborn Rochester football team nor rain and mud could prevent Lapeer from virtually clinching the Tri-County League championship last night with a 14-0 victory over the Falcons at Lapeer.

Lapeer, now unbeaten and untied in six games and the state's 12th ranked Class A team, hit pay dirt in the 1st and 4th quarters for its 2nd Tri-County win. The Panthers need only to beat weak L'Anse Creuse on Nov. 14 at Mt. Clemens to take the league title.

The lights were popping out one by one at Romeo, but that didn't stop the Bulldogs from rolling to a 26-0 conquest of Clintondale in a non-league game. Only eight lights were still operating when the battle ended and the 3rd and 4th periods were shortened from the regulation 12 minutes to 10 each.

Bob Stevens tallied Lapeer's 1st touchdown on a 10-yard dash to climax a 60-yard march. John McKillen ran for the extra point.

★ ★ ★

Lapeer's 2nd TD followed Gary Kalar's recovery of a Rochester fumble on the Falcon 20. Dick Kohloff plowed two yards for the score and then added the 14th point with a run.

Rochester's only scoring threat came in the 3rd quarter when the Falcons had 1st and goal on the one. With 145-pound middle guard Bob Kennedy heading the defense, Lapeer held for downs and took the ball.

The Falcons made two successful goal line stands in the 4th period, halting Lapeer on the five and again on the three. It was Rochester's 4th loss of the year in five tries.

★ ★ ★

Romeo gained its 4th decision of the season in six outings, piling up a 9-0 halftime lead and coasting the rest of the way.

Tom Myer opened the scoring with an 11-yard sprint in the 1st stanza and Howard Grimes went three yards for a touchdown on a pass interception in the same period. Myer tallied on a 30-yard run in the 2nd quarter and Chuck Peterson returned the 2nd half kickoff 80 yards for the final TD. Myer and Ray Ritter converted via runs.

Oxford Topples Millington, 7-0

Wildcats Capture Lead in South Central Race; Ortonville Falls, 33-14

Oxford's resurging football team gained sole possession of 1st place in the South Central Conference title chase last night with an important 7-0 win over tough Millington on the Oxford field.

Now the stage is set for next Friday's showdown clash at Oxford between the Wildcats and defending champion Imlay City, which was idle yesterday. The Wildcats have a 3-0 league record while Imlay stands 2-0.

A 65-yard touchdown gallop by Richard Duncan in the 1st quarter for the only tally of the game made it a happy homecoming at Oxford. Jeff Brady scooted across the goal line for the extra point and Oxford made the margin stand up.

Linebacker Doug Stott and end Jack Magee were defensive standouts for Oxford and Brady, a versatile halfback, was outstanding both ways.

In last night's other scheduled South Central game North Branch dished out a 33-14 pasting to Ortonville at North Branch. Sid Miller and Winston Merrick scored for Ortonville, which dropped its 5th decision in six games.

Dale Talcott scored three times for No. Branch on runs of 8, 24 and 45 and added an extra point. Ed Lauers garnered a touchdown and two extra points and Gene Curtiss skipped over for the other six points.

Farmington Keeps Rolling in I-L, 33-0

Walled Lake Wins, Skippers Routed

There were absolutely no new developments in the Inter-Lakes Conference football picture Friday night. Everything went according to form as the three league powers thumped the three weak sisters.

Waterford's dismal 1958 campaign continued at Southfield where the Bluejays dished out a 46-7 shellacking as the Skippers took it on the chin for the 5th time in six outings.

Despite the absence of Frank Fisk and Kirk Evans with injuries, Walled Lake handed Van Dyke a 19-6 mauling on Van Dyke's rain-drenched gridiron for victory No. 5 in six games.

Farmington, Oakland County's only undefeated-untied team, advanced a step closer to the Inter-Lakes crown with a 33-0 rout of Berkley on the latter's field. The Falcons can nail down the I-L title next week at Farmington by whipping Van Dyke in their final loop game.

★ ★ ★

Southfield threw everything except the kitchen sink at Waterford and Dave Freeman's punchless Skippers didn't score until the last five seconds of the game with the aid of a pass interference penalty.

The Jays piled up a 19-0 halftime lead and crossed the goal line three times in the 3rd quarter. Six players shared in the seven touchdowns with halfback Tom Ridley scoring twice.

Cliff Solberg opened the touchdown parade with a 26-yard scamper in the 1st period. The Jays tallied two TDs in the 2nd stanza, Ridley going one yard to start it and Bob Filar hitting Dave Newsome with a 26-yard pass for the other.

★ ★ ★

In the 3rd quarter Ridley hit pay dirt on a 15-yard aerial from Filar, Bill Johnson dashed 56 yards for a TD and Terry Odom plunged one yard for another. Elmer Hill intercepted a pass in the 4th quarter and scooted 12 yards for Southfield's last tally. Filar booted four extra points.

A pass interference ruling gave Waterford a 1st down on the Southfield one yard line from where Wendy Meyer plowed across for the Skippers' consolation TD. Barry Campbell kicked the bonus point.

Walled Lake, holding down 2nd place in the I-L and still carrying faint hopes for a share of the title, finally got rolling against Van Dyke after a scoreless 1st period.

Bob Christian sprinted seven yards for a touchdown to end a 74-yard drive and give the Vikings a 6-0 halftime edge. They were on the Van Dyke one yard line when the half ended.

The Vikings boosted their lead to 12-0 early in the 3rd stanza with Jim Pierce running nine yards to finish a 50-yard march. After Van Dyke's Len Capps smashed one yard in the 4th quarter for the Abes' lone TD, Walled Lake came roaring back with a 45-yard TD romp by Pierce to wrap it up. Pierce ran for the 19th point.

Farmington kept going at the expense of Berkley after being held to a 7-0 halftime lead as the Falcons raced to their 6th straight win. Farmington capitalized on seven Berkley fumbles, recovering six of them and turning three into touchdowns.

Al LeSage and Harvey Chapman handled all the scoring for Farmington. Chapman tallied three times on runs of five, two and 50 yards. LeSage broke into the TD column twice with gallops of 12 and 15 yards.

Lamphere 11 Shut Out

Madison Lamphere's football team absorbed its 4th defeat of the season in six games Friday night, a 19-0 setback at the hands of Detroit Lutheran East on the Lamphere gridiron.

Dryden Whips Memphis

Almont Near Thumb Title

Almont just about sewed up another Southern Thumb League title by ousting its nearest competitor Brown City, 13-7 last night.

In the second quarter Frank Hartway ended a 60 yard drive with a one yard plunge and Jim Ostrander kicked the point. Brown City tied it in the third when Bob Fisher went 71 yards off tackle and Ron Irish ran the point.

With 12 seconds left, Hartway bulled over from the one after he picked up 55 yards on a pass play from Don Eschenberg following a Brown City fumble.

Dryden rolled over Memphis, 26-0 after a scoreless first half. Jim Thomas picked up a fumble and raced 55 yards and Carl Grondin passed to Bob Burnett for third quarter scores.

Ed Brecht picked up a blocked punt and went 30 yards and Greg Schlau went 20 yards for other Dryden TD's. Brecht and Leo Andea added conversions.

Victory Search Still Goes on for Lions

TITLE SCHEMES — St. Frederick's coaching staff gets into a huddle to plot their strategy in hopes of winning the Suburban Catholic League title this year. After whipping crosstown rival St. Mike last Sunday, the Rams meet Royal Oak St. Mary tomorrow and depending on a victory at Royal Oak, they will meet St. Benedict in Highland Park next week for what could be the showdown game. Left to right are Tony Pizza, Gene Wright and Tom Kennedy.

Detroit in LA for 2nd Clash Against Rams

Game to Be Televised at 4:30 From Coast to Michigan

Still seeking their first win of the 1958 campaign, the Detroit Lions travel to Los Angeles for the return meeting against the Los Angeles Rams Sunday in the LA Coliseum.

Kickoff is set for 4:30 p.m. and the game will be telecast over WJBK-TV, Detroit, and the Michigan network of stations.

The two teams met in Detroit on Oct. 12 in a thriller, with the Rams scoring a 42-28 decision in the closing minutes after the Lions' chances were halted by a pass interception deep in Ram territory with less than three minutes to play.

The Rams enter the game with a record of two victories and two defeats while the Lions have a 13-13 tie against Green Bay and three defeats in four games. Both teams lost last Sunday, Detroit dropping a 40-14 decision to Baltimore while the Rams were suffering a 31-10 setback at the hands of the Chicago Bears in the Windy City.

Injuries continue to plague the defending World Champion Lions. Fullback John Henry Johnson has been unable to see action in the last two games and his status against the Rams is still in doubt.

Lack of a consistent running game also has plagued the team. The team has gained only 415 yards on the ground in four games including 73 and 79 against Baltimore, 33 against Green Bay, with the best effort being 230 yards against Los Angeles.

Coach George Wilson insists his club is a better football team than the record indicates. "Last year, when we won the championship, we got all the good breaks, fumble recoveries and pass interceptions at the right time, but this year it is our turn to have the fumble and key interception hurt us."

In other NFL games, the Cleveland Browns bid for their 5th straight against the Cards in Chicago, the Pittsburgh Steelers visit the New York Giants, the 49ERS host the Bears, the Eagles meet the Packers in Green Bay and Redskins visit Baltimore.

Both the Bears (3-1) and the 49ERS (2-2) have an explosive scoring punch featuring breakaway halfbacks Willie Galimore of Chicago and San Francisco's Hugh McElhenny. This one ought to confirm whether the Bears' defense is as good as it seems after yielding only two touchdowns in the last two games.

The Colts are 7½ point favorites over Washington and the Bears listed at 6½ over the 49ERS.

★ ★ ★

The Cardinals (2-2) are steadily improving under coach Pop Ivy's spectacular "triple wing" offense but the Browns, 4-0 and rolling toward another eastern conference title, are still 6½ choices. No one has yet contained Cleveland's one-two punch of Jimmy Brown and rookie Bobby Mitchell. They've accounted for close to 1,100 yards rushing so far. Cleveland won the first meeting, 35-28.

Army Favored; Wildcats are Underdogs

8 'Clean' Records at Stake

By The Associated Press

A paltry eight major college football teams remained undefeated and untied as the season arrived at the halfway point today and the list could be cut even more by sundown.

★ ★ ★

In the big one Army risked its clean record against tough Pitt, a club that has high hopes of winning eastern honors. Ordinarily, Army, No. 1 team in the country in the current Associated Press poll, would be a heavy favorite.

★ ★ ★

But fullback Harry Walters was out completely and Capt. Pete Dawkins was down for limited, if any, service.

Among the unbeatens, the dubious distinction of being the most likely to fall went to Northwestern. Iowa, today's opponent, appeared too strong.

Ohio State, the defending champion, and the big stumbling block, in both Iowa's and Northwestern's Big 10 title hopes, had no easy task against Wisconsin.

Notre Dame was just a one-point pick over Purdue. Left guard Jim Schaarf was out and Nick Pietrosante, top back, had a bruised rib.

Navy had no particular problem against Penn no matter how many of their operatives were out.

The other unbeaten-untieds were Texas, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Colorado and Rutgers.

Texas' Longhorns were less than a touchdown favorite over Rice in a night game. This one also could be a determining factor in the Southwest Conference race.

★ ★ ★

Louisiana State was at home to Florida, Mississippi went against Arkansas, Colorado took on Nebraska and Rutgers played Lehigh.

Oklahoma, warming up for the big one against Colorado next week, tangled with Kansas State. California, newest favorite in the Pacific Coast Conference, had a date with Oregon. Princeton, Ivy League favorite, clashed with Cornell, and Auburn, last year's national champion, tried to regain some prestige against Maryland.

George Washington upset William and Mary 7-0 in the only top game last night. Fullback Duane Whetstone plunged over from the one near the end of the first half for the only touchdown.

ACID TEST — Like the Lions against Baltimore last week, the 49ers get their acid test tomorrow in San Francisco when they meet the Chicago Bears. With a 2-2 record, the 49ers could hurt their title hopes with another loss. The Bears beat Frisco 28-6 two weeks ago and Hugh McElhenny (left) and coach Frankie Albert are making plans to topple the Bears Sunday.

Western Michigan swept the first three places to defeat Notre Dame, Michigan, Bowling Green, Chicago Loyola and Central Michigan yesterday, in that order.

Fresno, Calif. high school coach Bernie Mitchell, who was depicted conducting a grid class for parents in Tuesday's Pontiac Press, is an old friend of former St. Michael coach Bob Mineweaser. Mitchell used to coach at Sterling, Mich. He and Mineweaser were roommates at a Wisconsin coaching school seven successive years.

Doctors now say that a brain injury and not sleeping sickness caused Cincinnati pro basketball star Maurice Stokes to collapse last March.

Wolves Edge Midland, Remain No. 1

By The Associated Press

Bay City Central, No. 1 team in the Associated Press Class A high school poll, continued on its way with a hard fought, rain soaked 12-7 victory over Midland last night in the top state prep football game.

★ ★ ★

Other ranked powers were not so fortunate. At least two in the top 10 teams in Class A and Class B rankings fell in rain-inspired upsets.

An unusual number of ties followed rain-dampened gridiron activity across the state.

Central scored the first time it got the ball against Midland before 6,500 drenched fans, going 72 yards in 15 plays. Back Jerry Gross slipped across for the last four yards.

Midland came back in the second quarter covering 70 yards in four plays to take a 7-6 halftime lead. But on the first play from scrimmage in the fourth period, Butch Koklay went 35 yards off tackle for Central's winning touchdown against the fifth-rated Chemics.

★ ★ ★

East Detroit upset ninth-ranked Birmingham 20-18 in Class A competition.

Grand Haven knocked off No. 8 rated Muskegon Heights 25-18 and pushed its season record to 5-1. Grand Haven scored three times in the third quarter, once on a 70-yard kickoff return by Bruce Cleveland, ir handing Heights its second straight defeat.

Lansing Eastern continued its bid for a high poll finish with a 25-21 defeat of Ann Arbor. It was only the second time in 10 years Ann Arbor had dropped a Six-A conference tilt.

East Lansing's high-flying Trojans added another victory to their No. 1 Class B rating record with a 20-7 conquest of Sturgis.

Cadillac, No. 3 in Class B, swamped Manistee 34-6, but No. 2 ranked South Haven fell 25-0 to Grand Rapids Godwin. Fourth-ranked Ionia edged Hastings 14-13 in another Class B game; No. 5 rated River Rouge swamped Romulus 38-0 and No. 6 Northville was a 26-0 winner over Brighton.

Flint's two big entries in Class A competition, Flint Central (No. 2) and Flint Northern (No. 4)) had little trouble. Central routed Alpena 64-0 and Northern stopped Pontiac 33-6.

In Class B, No. 7 rated Center Line slipped, dropping a 27-6 decision to Warren.

Bay City Handy and Saginaw Arthur Hill battled to a 0-0 tie; as did Clare and Durand, Ecorse and Dearborn Lowery and Harrison and Coleman.

Houston Group Plans to 'Sit Tight', Feels Situation Unsettled

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Sports Assn. said Friday night the deadline on its offer to buy the Cleveland Indians baseball club had expired with no reply received from Cleveland officials. But it apparently considered no news, good news.

★ ★ ★

The Houston group, led by oil heir Craig Cullinan Jr., offered more than 5½ million dollars for the club.

★ ★ ★

George Kirksey, executive secretary of the group, said the offer expired at noon Friday and added:

"This indicates to us that the Cleveland club's affairs are far from settled. We believe that in this situation we should sit tight and keep quiet pending the forthcoming Cleveland stockholders meeting."

Indian stockholders are expected to meet next week.

Country Day Defeated

Grosse Pte. University School ruined Country Day's homecoming celebration last night with a 30-18 triumph in the 26th renewal of their football rivalry.

Jerry Jaffe scored all three Country Day touchdowns on runs of three and 58 yards and a pass play covering seven yards. Country Day's record is now 3-3.

Trainer Suspended

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — The New Jersey Racing Commission Friday suspended trainer Arthur Bronsdon for two years, effective last Sept. 21. The commission said Bronsdon's horse, Slim Penny, was doped in the second race at Atlantic City race track Sept. 20.

Friday Pigskin Was a Slippery Little Rascal

When it rains you can expect fumbles and the ball was squirting around like a slippery pig last night in area prep grid activity.

★ ★ ★

In 14 of the games reported there were a total of 102 fumbles which by average is slightly better than seven per game.

★ ★ ★

Romeo's game with Clintondale had 15, eight by Romeo. Yesterday was the first bad Friday of the season and fumbleitis took its toll.

667 Yearlings Bring $1,876,400 at Sale

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Sixty-six head brought $228,100 Friday night as the annual Keeneland fall sale of yearling thoroughbreds ended.

Totals for the sales showed 667 head sold for $1,876,400, an average of $2,813.

Top price of the final sale was $25,000 paid by Tommy Gentry, agent, for a bay colt by Helioscope-Sprindrift, from the consignment of Woodvale Farm.

Final Bell Spoils Liston's KO Effort

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Only the final bell prevented big Charles (Sonny) Liston from knocking out durable Bert Whitehurst last night in his pursuit of a match with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

The 212½-pound Liston, winner of all except one of his 21 pro fights, sent Whitehurst, 190, reeling clear out of the ring with blows at the end of the 10th and final round.

Referee Harry Kessler had reached the count of eight as Whitehurst was trying to climb back through the ropes when the final bell sounded.

Canada's Riders Press Germans

National Horse Show Final Events Set for Tonight at Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP) — West Germany may be sweeping all the honors at the 13th Pennsylvania National Horse Show, but Canada's weekend riders are pleased with their showing in the first 10 events of international jumping competition.

The final event will be held at tonight's closing session of the show.

Canada is in third place.

"We've been going pretty steady this week," said Tom Gayford Jr.

He's the team leader in the individual scoring with six points.

The Canadians came within a horse's whim of winning their first trophy last night. But for Diana Khan's refusal on the final jump of a 10-jump course, the Canadians would have edged West Germany.

Something Fishy in Toronto Pool

Team managers borrowed a lacrosse stick and netted two carp, one 21 inches long and the other 23, from the university pool.

The fish sported two-foot-long ribbons of blue and gold—colors of the faculty of engineering.

South Lyon Nears Crown

South Lyon is just one step away from the League of the Lakes football championship following last night's 25-6 triumph over Boysville for a 4-0 loop record. The Lions can win the title by beating Pinckney next Friday.

Paul Underhill tallied twice for the Lions on a 72-yard kickoff return and a five-yard run. Milan Obrenovich hit pay dirt on a four-yard plunge and Dave Wren scored from one yard out and converted on a run.

Area Bird Hunters Find Lots of Game

Pontiac area bird hunters have been doing all right, with both pheasant and partridge, according to reports reaching this department today.

Working the area around Coleman, two Press printers, Ray Upchurch and Earl Cardinell, with six others, took a weekend bag of 39 "pats," shooting over Cardinell's dog. Upchurch has taken his ringneck limit, with his two fine dogs, Saddle Boy (5 years old) and 8-months old Lorne Bell, putting up the birds.

Among other successful shooters were:

Sergeant Richard Helgemo of West Bloomfield police department with two 3¼-pounders taken on his way to work, yesterday; Claude Brewer, Carl McKinnon and Bill Ratz, all of Pontiac, limit bag taken near Romeo, Friday; Virgil Childers, Clarkston, one big rooster downed on state land near Big Fish Lake, Lapeer.

Dondero Wallops Parkers

Royal Oak Dondero romped to a 26-6 victory over Highland Park last night in a Border Cities League football game at Royal Oak. Jack Rudick ran 12 yards for Dondero's 1st touchdown, passed eight yards to John Meadows for another and Stuart Rose tallied the other TD with a three-yard plunge.

Highland Park scored its lone six-pointer on a 40-yard run by Lou Taylor. The victory was Dondero's 4th of the season against one defeat and one tie.

Soviet Riders, Horses Start Trip to Maryland

MOSCOW (AP) — Two Soviet horses and a five-man Soviet delegation leave for Berlin Saturday en route to Laurel Park in Maryland for the Washington, D.C., International race.

The five Russians, including the directors of the Moscow Hippodrome and two jockeys, applied for U.S. visas Monday. They still had not received them Friday.

Joseph Cascarella, executive vice president of Laurel Park, has been in Moscow the past week in an effort to expedite transportation of the two 3-year-old colts which will carry the Kremlin's colors in the big race Nov. 11.

Cascarella said the Russians plan to pick up their un-visaed pass ports from the American Embassy and leave early Saturday for a three-day train trip to Berlin.

★ ★ ★

The Russian party is scheduled to fly from Berlin Oct. 29, arriving at Laurel Park the next day. Cascarella said he hoped the visas could be picked up in Germany.

The horses are two of the Soviet Union's best thoroughbreds, Garnyr and Zaryad.

Finsterwald in Lead

NAPLES, Fla. (UPI) — Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, golf's player of the year, carried a one-stroke lead today in the third round of the Florida Professional Golf Association Tournament.

Finsterwald shot a 34-36—70 on Friday to give him a 136 total. He fired a six-under-par 66 in Thursday's opening round.

Crackups Mar Start of International Race

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two crackups marred the opening of the international bike race championships at the arena here last night.

Coming out of a turn, Harvey Phillips, riding for the British Empire team, tangled wheels with Tino Oriani of Italy and Theo Intra of Germany. Phillips, of Canada, suffered a shoulder injury and was taken to a hospital on a stretcher.

Boat-Owner's Luck Does Double-Shuffle

QUINCY, Mass. (AP) — Robert Picard owned his 18-foot outboard motorboat for two years and never had any luck fishing. Then his luck changed.

He caught six fine haddock.

As Picard headed into Quincy Bay, however, some of the boat's caulking came loose and wound around the propeller. Water rushed into the open seam and the boat began to sink.

Fortunately, another boat took Picard in tow. The fish, however, were washed overboard.

May Drop Fox Bounty

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Kent County may discontinue its fox bounty as an economy move, county officials report.

Clarence Ulbert, chairman of the finance committee of the board of supervisors, said all departments are being forced to economize because the county has been allocated $950,000 less than its tentative 1959 budget called for. He said the county normally pays about $3,000 in bounties "and this is one item which may be eliminated."

Braves Decide Pro Basketball OK for Conley

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Pitcher Gene Conley of the Milwaukee Braves was told Friday night the team's management had no objections to his playing basketball with the Boston Celtics.

Joseph Cairnes, president of the Braves said he met with General Manager John Quinn and Birdie Tebbetts, the club's new executive vice president, and they decided there was no reason why they should stand in Conley's way.

Cardinals Trounce Japanese Stars, 8-2

TOKYO (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals slaughtered three pitchers with 13 hits today to win their second straight from Japan's All-Stars 8-2 in a game called after six innings because of rain.

★ ★ ★

Stan "The Man" Musial got a three bagger and two singles in four tries. He scored one run and batted in another.

★ ★ ★

A four-run blast in the fourth chased Japan's sensational Kazuhisa "Iron Man" Inao, hero of the Japan "World Series," from the mound and also sent Takao Kajimoto to the showers.

Martin Johnson of Trail, Minn., is the heaviest player on the North Dakota freshman football team. He weighs 230 pounds and stands 6-feet-4.

More Than One Way to Skin an Elephant

Taxidermy Not a Stuffy Business

By PATRICK McNULTY

LOS ANGELES (AP) — There's more than one way to skin an elephant—and there's also a lot of work.

That's the word from George Adams, a fellow who for more than a quarter of a century has been stuffing everything from aardvarks to zebras for wealthy sportsmen and museums.

"Please don't refer to taxidermy as 'stuffing'," says Adams, looking up from a clay model of a caribou.

"That's passe—from the days when animals actually were stuffed with straw and rags—and looked it."

Now, taxidermists like Adams have to be naturalists, sculptors and, frequently, big game hunters. And their finished product is real enough to fool its mother.

Adams, who creates lifelike displays for the Los Angeles County Museum, recently returned from a moose and caribou hunt in Alaska.

"That's the big fellow we brought back," he says, pointing a spatula at an antelered giant standing big as life in the museum workshop.

The moose, weighing almost a ton and standing six feet at the shoulders, was shot in Alaska's carbou hills.

When the moose toppled over into the snow, Adams immediately began making plaster impressions of the head. Then he measured and skinned the animal.

Back at the workshop, his real job began. He sculpted a small scale model of the moose then he fashioned a life-size clay statue over the skelton.

This was too heavy to work with, so he made a plaster impression, cast a hollow model and stretched the dried moose hide over it so tightly it showed muscles, veins and even warts.

Adams, 48, began his career at 15 in his home town of Kanab, Utah. He worked up a lively business with the mule deer, mountain lions and antelope bagged by hunters in the rugged Utah hills.

Realizing that he needed an art background to do a better job, Adams moved to New York City and enrolled at an art school. He worked part time for wealthy sportsmen while becoming a first rate sculptor.

A job with the American Museum of Natural History in New York followed. He worked there 15 years before moving to Los Angeles six years ago.

For an African display, Adams went to the Dark Continent on a big game hunt and brought back a rhinoceros among other specimens.

Rhinos, like elephants, hippos and other fatties, present a problem because of their thick skin. The rhino's 1½-inch skin must be planed down to ¼ inch before it can be stretched over the plaster mould.

Adams and an assistant spent weeks painstakingly whittling down the hide with large knives that look like a two-handled straight razor.

Adams sometimes runs into a workshop space problem.

He once forgot a giraffe's long neck until almost too late. He had to cut a hole in the roof and finished the head and neck from the floor above.

Business Boom Sees Costs Soar in West Germany

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) —The much-publicized economic recovery of West Germany has a less-publicized by-product: Higher prices.

The economic "miracle" has added 2.6 billion dollars to the Federal gold reserve and put the nation back on its economic feet but the cost of living, compared to 1950, has soared about 20 per cent.

In cold cash, this means the average German earning $25 a week has to pay 87 cents for a pound of butter and more than $8 for a pair of shoes. Coffee, a rarity in most German homes, costs $2.50 a pound. Same for tea.

Cigarettes cost 50 cents for 20 while good pipe tobacco is $3.60 a half-pound. Apartments rent for an average $60 a month for two tooms, kitchen and bath, unfurnished. Germans who own automobiles pay 60 cents a gallon for regular gasoline, 70 cents for better grade.

Many married couples have been able to beat the high prices because the wife goes to work. This, however, has had its repercussions. Traditionally, in Germany, the man earns the food and the wife stays at home to cook it and look after the children.

Now, social experts maintain, the divorce rate is climbing in families where the wife works.

Also Called More Efficient

Plan Cheaper Ore Carrier

ANN ARBOR (AP)—An ocean-going ore carrier claimed to be cheaper and more efficient than vessels now in use was described today by its two young designers.

University of Michigan graduate students Stephen A. Ho and Alexander H. Haynes said their ore carrier needs less steel in construction and has its propulsion plant in space that goes empty in other ships.

★ ★ ★

Their vessel would be more economical to run, they told a meeting of the Great Lakes section of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers at Dearborn. Ho originally is from Kwangtung Province in China and Haynes lives in Port Huron.

Their ore carrier is driven by free-piston gas turbines. They said the turbines, because of their small size, could be placed between the bottom and cargo hold.

Ho and Haynes explained that gas turbines require relatively little space compared with normal propulsion-machinery and would be cheaper to operate.

★ ★ ★

They said the additional cargo hold length made available by the small turbines would permit their vessel to better withstand stress, thus lessening the amount of steel needed. They claimed the cargo hold of their design would run along about 80 per cent of the ship's length, 20 per cent longer than in present vessels.

Professor Offers Hope to Discouraged Writers

ITHACA, N. Y. (UPI) — A Cornell University professor tells a story aimed at encouraging writers who have trouble getting their material published.

Prof. Morris Bishop says two works by Peter van Dugrefin, a Swiss-French poet of the 15th century, were published for the first time recently as part of a student's thesis for a doctoral

background for LIVING

FROM THE DINING ROOM—This view from the dining room shows the pipe dividers between the living room and the hallway. It also shows the little home organ, an instrument that is very important in the Sumner home. Come winter, the fireplace will have a glowing fire to warm and cheer both rooms.

Pontiac Press Photos by Tom Gerig

FIREPLACE DIVIDER — This low ledgerock fireplace divides the living room from the dining room. Stone caps the top of the rock and makes the two hearths. A black sunburst clock is the only decoration on the beige chimney paneling in the living room. Six-year-old Janis Sumner works on her penmanship while the Press photographer does his work. The chair she's sitting on is upholstered in turquoise. Carpeting and walls are beige. The sofa is salmon color.

IN DRAYTON WOODS — The V. L. Sumner home on Denby drive is a combination of buff brick and cream colored aluminum siding. Trim around the front door is redwood. The house, a bi-level, has six rooms and a full basement. What this picture does not show is that the house sits high above the road and that from the living room windows there is a sweeping view of the Fish Hatchery. The gardener of the family is Mrs. Sumner. The house was completed two years ago from stock plans. Mr. Sumner did most of the work.

Your Neighbor's House

V. L. Sumner Home Overlooks Hatchery

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

It was a year ago that we discovered the V. L. Sumner home in Drayton Woods. In fact, we used a picture of Mrs. Sumner's rock garden wall in a picture series. But it wasn't until this fall that we were able to do a feature on the Sumner house. As everyone knows, it takes months for furniture and draperies to arrive.

* * *

Masonry, plastering and plumbing were the only jobs Mr. Sumner hired done. All the rest of the work on the house he did himself. Mrs. Sumner is responsible for painting, except for ceilings. She also makes draperies.

Set on a triangular shaped, wooded lot, 106x178x50 feet, the Sumner house is buff-colored brick and cream-colored aluminum siding. Trim on the front of the house is redwood. Underneath the bedroom area there's a double garage. A full basement is under the rest of the house.

Original house plans were altered to make the entrance hall large enough to hold a desk in one corner. There is the usual guest closet. The floor is slate.

Instead of a wall between hall and living room there are floor-to-ceiling poles. These are simply conduit pipes, painted copper color. No tarnish — no rust.

In the living room a small home organ is placed against this divider. Mrs. Sumner plays and daughter Janis is slated for lessons soon.

Carpeting throughout the living room and dining room is beige and aqua tweed. The walls are beige; the ceiling white. Draperies at the large picture windows are cream with an aqua and tangerine leafy design. The front window, by the way, overlooks part of the Fish Hatchery ponds. The Sumners will never have a house across the road to spoil their view.

The fireplace is in the wall between the two main rooms. Made of ledgerock, it has no mantel, only a stone cap. It has openings in both living and dining rooms. There is a short stone hearth on each side. Paneling above is painted beige.

COLORFUL UPHOLSTERY

Against the neutral walls the furniture colors are bright. The sofa is salmon color with a silver thread. A pair of plastic upholstered chairs is turquoise. These have blond legs, footed in brass. One lounge chair matches the sofa. The fourth chair is a blonde swivel model with brown upholstery.

In the dining room, in addition to the drop leaf table and chairs, the Sumners have placed their television set. One chair, matching in style the turquoise ones in the living room, is upholstered in tangerine.

The wall between dining room and kitchen contains both floor and ceiling cabinets. These are beige with copper hardware.

* * *

Beige linen type Formica covers an extensive counter area. The floor is beige linoleum with spatters of pink and black. Curtains also are beige.

The end wall and the soffit have a fruit and flower design paper in which pink predominates. There are swinging doors to the hall at this end of the room.

Mrs. Sumner planned the built-in her kitchen. She decided where to place the wall oven and the counter top stove, both of them made of bronze color metal. The range has a bronze hood above it.

BUILT-IN TABLE

At the end of the sink counter (the sink is pink) is a breakfast table. This extends at right angles to the sink and is a little lower. It provides as much seating space as a conventional table without taking up as much space.

There are three bedrooms on the upper level. Son, Leslie, who's eleven has the first one. In all the bedrooms the floors are polished oak. Leslie's walls are gold. A beige and brown striped spread is masculine looking enough for a boy's room. Furniture is light brown. The white curtains have an antique print on them.

The bathroom has a pink and gray tile floor. The vanity top is pink. Wallpaper is white with silver, blue and pink stars on it. Curtains are also pink.

Janis' room is done in apple blossom pink. She has rose spattered curtains and will soon have a matching rose print spread. This looks well with the walnut furniture.

The Sumner's room is soft green. Throw rugs are brown as is the bed skirt. The quilted spread is tangerine. Furniture is blonde mahogany.

The Sumners have lived in their Denby drive home for about two years now. They built it from a stock plan with a few revisions.

Built-in Look Possible With Little Expense

A built-in look for a wall can be achieved without a large outlay of money through use of unpainted chests and shelves. In the center of the wall place a hi-fi or TV unit or the family electric organ. Then place drawer and door chests along the rest of the area.

On the wall itself hang shelving for books, music and favorite knick knacks. There is a variety of finishes to choose from for unpainted furniture and the shelving and chests can be made to blend in with other wood pieces.

BEIGE AND PINK — Unusual colors for a kitchen, but pleasing ones, are the beige and pink combination in the Sumner kitchen. Floor, cupboards and counter tops are beige. The sink is pink as is the main color in the wallpaper. All hardware is copper color. Stove and wall oven are bronze tone. The cupboards at the right open from either side to provide dining room storage as well.

What Cracks Reveal About Your House

Cracks in a house often are clues to some structural weakness. They show up in the plaster, floor slab, foundation walls or chimney. How to interpret these clues is explained in the October issue of a science monthly.

Diagonal cracks in the plaster. They start at the corners of doors and windows, spread across the walls. The cause probably is a foundation that has settled unevenly. This happens most often in houses built on filled-in or newly graded land.

Horizontal cracks in the wall plaster. They may be caused by shallow footings that have tilted outward, in turn causing walls to tilt. This defect is found most often in slab and basementless houses where footings heave in winter because they don't go down below the frost line.

Horizontal cracks in foundation walls. These occur at the grade line or halfway up; they're a tip-off to weak foundation walls. Soil pressure alone is often enough to cause cracks. Frozen wet soil exerts even more pressure—a good reason for having rainwater drain away from a house.

Ceiling cracks parallel to the floor joists. Often accompanied by 45-degree angle cracks in the wall plaster, they indicate a sagging floor. The sag, in turn, is the result of a poor framework: Green lumber, undersized timbers, lack of bracing or a combination of them.

Floor cracks radiating from middle-of-the-house posts or piers. You can spot these by looking upward from the basement. They mean that the supports are resting on the floor slab instead of on their own separate sturdy footings.

Cracks in a block foundation. They usually are caused by backfilling before first-floor framing was in place to brace foundation walls.

Cracks where a partition wall meets other walls. A sagging floor under the partition probably has pulled it away from the other walls. Sag resulted from resting the partition over one joist or on a subfloor over no joist.

Ceiling cracks along the bottom of attic knee walls. These may mean that the roof framing isn't strong enough. When a load of snow bears down directly on the joists under the knee walls, the plaster will crack there.

Cracks where walls meet ceiling. Usually these are the result of excessive expansion and contraction of the plate on top of the wall studding. Upstairs it can be a poorly ventilated attic.

Look Farther Than Model

Prospective homeowners would do well to take heed of the traditional warning found at railroad crossings: Stop, look, and listen.

By checking into basic construction rather than basing a decision on a fall afternoon visit to a model home, prospective buyers avoid future headaches and heartaches.

★ ★ ★

The prerequisites of a soundly built house are not always visible, but are musts in good construction. Here are three items experts of Allied Chemical's Barrett Building Materials Division suggest homebuyers check:

STOP where the reputation of the builder is solid in the community, a reputable builder will use only quality materials such as asphalt shingles, hard wood and fireproof gypsum board.

★ ★ ★

LOOK at foundation walls. Make certain builder has completed exterior damp-proofing or waterproofing. Uniform coatings of pitch applied during construction will prevent damage by water seepage into the basement and save the heavy expense of uncovering walls to do the job a later date.

★ ★ ★

LISTEN carefully to the builder when he discusses the heating unit. Don't wait for a cold winter to find out if the heating unit has sufficient capacity to heat the entire house, including a basement recreation room. The unit's rated capacity should be checked against the total house area.

'Cool' Heater Ideal for Use Around Tots

A portable electric heater that never gets hot to the touch is expected to gain great favor among families with young children.

Introduced by Arvin Industries, Inc., this particular unit takes the form of a three-panel screen similar in appearance to a dressing room screen. It operates much like the sun, emitting infrared rays which warm a person directly instead of just the air around him.

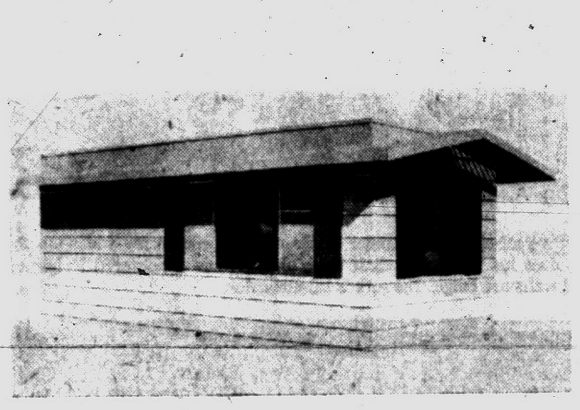

Because it is in the form of a screen, the heater not only keeps a person warm but also blocks off drafts, especially important when used in a child's playroom or bedroom. By turning in the outer panels, the rays can be focused on an individual, keeping him comfortably warm while others in the same room are unaffected.

According to Arvin engineers, use of the radiant ray principle makes it possible to keep the heater itself at a relatively "cool" temperature so there never is any danger of anything or anyone comink in contact with it being burned or damaged. A person can put his hand directly on the screen and get only a warm feeling without being burned.

Another valuable feature of this heater is that when folded it is only about three inches thick and can easily be stored.

Production of plastics totaled four billion, 387 million pounds in 1957, up seven per cent over 1956.

TWO LEVELS — The living and bedroom levels of House of the Week design X-29 are shown in the unshaded floor plan. The entrance level, with the living level shaded in is shown in the other plan. A balcony on the bedroom level overlooks the lower level family room.

NATIONAL AVERAGE HOME — Pierced masonry walls are an interesting feature of the covered front entry porch of this dwelling, based on the FHA national average home for last year. Its split level arrangement adds a sizeable bonus area on the grade level.

Our 'National Average' Home Is Bigger Again

By JOHN O. B. WALLACE

This split level dandy is as typically American as apple pie because its design ingredients came from the national average house of last year as determined recently by the Federal Housing Administration.

Designated X-29 in the House of The Week series of notable American homes, it offers a bonus in space over and beyond the FHA average dwelling because of the plan.

Rudolph A. Matern, one of America's foremost architects, developed the design from figures and statistics reported recently by the FHA for new residential construction in the United States during 1957.

The figures covered all new 1957 homes with FHA-insured mortgages. From the statistics, the FHA determined what it called the national average house. It is a larger house than the FHA national average house for the previous year.

In fact, there has been a steady trend over the past four years for houses with larger square footage in living space.

NO MORE ROOMS

The number of bedrooms, however, has remained constant at three. And the total number of rooms has increased by only a half room—from 5½ in the 1954 national average home to the 5.8 or 6, of the 1957 national average home.

By contrast, the square footage in living space has grown sharply.

Here are the figures for the past four years: 1954, 961 square feet; 1955, 1,020 square feet; 1956, 1,064 square feet; and 1957, 1,146 square feet.

Design X-29 developed by Matern has exactly 1,146 square feet in the living and bedroom levels. On the entrance level, another 316 square feet are added by a family room, a mud room and bath and space for a den or office.

There were garages in 82.7 per cent of the 1957 national average houses.

There are, of course, three bedrooms and a garage in Matern's plan. Actually, though, the architect's use of split level planning greatly increased the living space within the perimeter of the national average house.

Had the design been executed on one level, such as a ranch, it would have eliminated the possibility of Matern's bonus area embracing the family room, mud room and bath, garage and space for den or office.

Here are the full details of design X-29 in an easy-to-read, area by area description:

THE LIVING AREA

The bow-windowed front living room has a side to side span of 23 feet and a depth of 11 feet. At one end there is a log-burning fireplace; at the other is a balconied stair leading to the grade-level foyer. The living room is accessible from all rooms but a screen separates it from the entrance foyer.

Back of the living room, adjacent to the kitchen, is a 10 by 10 foot dining room with sliding glass doors opening onto an upper level rear terrace. The space for a den or office is on the grade level under the bedroom wing.

Three large bedrooms are serviced by a double-lavatory bath and they have privacy because they are elevated from the street. There is a small balcony at the head of the bedroom stairs.

Access to other parts of the house from the bedrooms is by way of the stairs and the two foyers but not through other rooms.

The kitchen is an ample 16 feet 8 inches by 9 feet 8 inches, and includes a breakfast balcony overlooking the family room and a rear terrace. Kitchen cabinets are positioned in a double "L" for maximum efficiency.

The rear terraces are reached from the kitchen through sliding glass doors. The mud-utility room has a compact laundry, a closet and a full bath.

THE CASUAL AREAS

Ever hear of split-level rear terraces? This house has them—one on the dining room-kitchen level, the other on the family room level. There is direct access to the family room from the outside and only a step or two to the right are full bath facilities and a storage closet. The den or office space is in line with the family room and at the front.

A full height basement of approximately 540 square feet lies under the living-dining-kitchen area. The house has a total of 13 cabinets and closets, not including the abundant kitchen storage space. The garage is big enough for storing outdoor equipment.

A covered walk from the garage to the entrance foyer is shielded by a pierced masonry wall. There is a door into the house from the back of the garage. The left rear wall of the bedroom wing is set back, creating a story and a half effect in about half of the family room.

THE EXTERIOR

Horizontal wood siding, brick veneer and stone are used for outside walls. The gabled, chimney end has vertical boards. The front walk is of flagstone; the upper rear terrace is of scored, colored concrete and the lower rear terrace is of flagstone. Asphalt shingles are used for the roof.

Overall dimensions, excluding the rear bedroom overhang, are 48 by 29 feet 5 inches. The living and bedrooms levels have 1,146 square feet. The family room, den, mud-utility room and bath have 316 square feet. The garage has 234 square feet. A 75 by 100 foot lot is recommended.

Patch Holes in Linoleum With Shellac and Cork

Don't decide to put down new linoleum, if the worn places can be patched in the floor covering you are now using. Holes broken or worn in linoleum can be repaired by using a patching plaster made of cork and white shellac.

Chop the cork into very fine pieces. Use a food grinder, and mix the powdered cork with the white shellac until the mixture is the consistency of paint. Trowel it into the hole in the linoleum and, when dry, touch up with paint to match the pattern and make it inconspicuous.

Skeleton Sets Value of Home

You don't see it, but the most important part of a home is its skeleton.

A prominent western architect says the structural framework of the home which supports the finish materials inside and out determines the value of the home and how many decades it will last.

If you have selected a home framed in wood, he said, you are in good company because nine of every ten new single-family dwellings built in the past six months were framed in wood.

More than half of all framing lumber is Douglas fir, a tough, durable lumber from the Pacific Northwest. Another good framing lumber is west coast hemlock.

You may be able to see the exposed floor joists from the basement, said the architect, and the rafters in the attic. They form part of the skeleton of the home, as do the studs for the walls and partitions and the other framing lumber.

The skeleton and ribs of your home need to be stiff. The wood framed home has great capacity to withstanrd shock without fragmentation. These homes are popular in areas subject to earthquake and tornadoes.

Wood frame construction, the architect points out, is one of the most economical of all building methods, and frame houses will last for a century or more when properly taken care of.

Since stiffness is the principal requirement of a home's walls, good structural, lower grades of fir and hemlock are equally good.

Plan Open Kitchen

Open kitchens that blend with family or dining rooms add spacousness and companionship for the cook. If they result in noise, odors and unsightly vistas to the other room the plan is not good. Acoustical panels on walls and ceiling will reduce noise. Confining the cooking to one area with a good forced exhaust system and hood over the gas range will remove cooking smells. Careful screening to keep work areas from view will make the open plan more attractive for all concerned.

Before you paint or varnish new wood, seal all knots and sap streaks with a prepared sealer or white shellac. Sand the defective surface smooth, fill any cracks or breaks in the knot or discoloration, then apply the sealer.

TILE COVERING — The annoying and costly problem of keeping soil and stones from working their way into sewage disposal systems can be eliminated by replacing the conventional tarpaper wrapping around the field tiles with a simple joint-covering device molded of Bakelite polyethylene. Rapid deterioration of wrapping materials underground has previously been a major factor in the clogging of drains. Lugs molded on the inside of the new clips not only provide the proper spacing but the polyethylene will also absorb any linear expansion without damage to the tiles. The new clips are 2½ inches wide and long enough to cover the top and sides of the tiles. The bottom remains open for dispersal or collection of liquids. The new clips also simplify the job of the installer. A fin molded into the top serves as a handle for snapping the tile clip in place and also serves as a guide for proper alignment. Bakelite polyethylene was selected as the material for the new tile clips because it is more resilient to moisture, acids, and alkalies in the ground. These clips are specifically designed for 4-inch tile but work equally well on 3-inch and 5-inch tile.

Here's the Answer

Question: We plan to put up birch plywood on one wall of our living room. It is our intention to attach furring strips to the wall and then nail the plywood to the furring strips. The wall, which is plaster, is painted. Is it necessary to remove the paint or do anything to it before attaching the furring strips?

Answer: You need do nothing to the wall before putting up the furring strips. This would be true only if attaching the furring strips and plywood to a concrete wall below grade, in which case treatment of the concrete is sometimes advisable.

Question: In using penetrating seal on a newly snaded floor, can the floor be used the following day if the last coat is put on at night?

Answer: Most penetrating sealers dry fiarly fast, so the general answer to your question would be yes. However, to be doubly certain, buy one of the sealers which dries extra fast: in a couple of hours at most. Then apply it at night — and it will be ready for use the next morning.

Question: Over the years we have used, at one time or another, just about every type and brand of floor wax on the market. Is there any real difference between the paste wax and the no-rubbing liquid wax as far as affecting the wear of the floor is concerned?

Answer: The manufacturers of each type of wax claim superior qualities for it. Generally speaking, paste waxes give a higher gloss and will stand up a bit better. The advantages of no-rubbing wax are that it is easier to apply and usually is not as slippery.

Cleansing Tissues Help Get Gum Off Rug

Ever carry chewing gum into the house on the heel of your shoe? This is a common enough household problem that calls for quick action by the homemaker, especially if the gum has stuck to carpeting or rugs. Here is one easy procedure to follow:

★ ★ ★

Multi-Family Units Next Housing Step

EAST LANSING—The next need for housing in the nation will occur in the early 1960's and will be for multi-family and apartment buildings.

That prediction was made by Dr. Leon T. Kendall, economist of the United States Savings and Loan League, Chicago, at the ninth annual Real Estate Appraisal Conference at Michigan State University.

"The first of the 60 million babies born since 1941 will begin to enter the economy as adults in the early 1960s and they most likely will find apartment living more in keeping with their needs and financial means," declared Mr. Kendall.

"The result will be a boom in the demand for rental housing," he told the appraisers, realtors, brokers and representatives of financial firms at the Kellogg Center conference.

"These people will be younger than those living in suburban areas and will be without down payments for homes," he pointed out. He added that these people generally will be well-educated and will strive to save up enough money to buy a home of their own within the first several years of gainful employment and married life.

"Multi-family and apartment building construction has been a forgotten part of the housing picture," he observed.

Mr. Kendall pointed out that apartments will appeal not only in the next 5 to 10 years to the younger people but also to many older people. Many large families will see their teenage children go away to college and get married and the parents will be left with homes too big for their needs, he looked ahead.

The need for single-family housing will take on steam in the early 1970's, he assured. "A terrific upsurge in demand for new homes will occur as these young families find they have saved up enough to buy a home of their own."

Contributing also to the demand for single-family housing will be the replacement demand. This soon will require the construction of over half a million units annually alone. "Nearly half a million units are required now, each year to replace units lost through urban renewal, expressway building and other federal and state governmental programs —, and this number will increase in the future."

"There is no doubt," he concluded, "that the next major building boom will be in the multi-unit field to meet the needs of the 'war babies' who most likely will set up temporary headquarters in rental units during the 1960-70 period."

The annual conference was sponsored by the MSU College of Business and Public Service, the Michigan Real Estate Association, Michigan chapter of Society of Residential Appraisers and the Michigan Chapter of American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.

Attending the conference from Pontiac were: William Grabendike, 1 Lafayette St.; Paul Hammond, 26½ W. Huron; Andrew J. Lindsey, 75 W. Huron St.; and James Millis, 433½ N. Saginaw.

Free Paint Edging Tool

Someone thought of it and passed the word around. Save those cardboards that come with shirts from the laundry. You can use them for "edgers" in that painting job you are contemplating. Slide one on the floor, close against the baseboard, as you go along. It will prevent paint smudges on the floor and can be disposed of easily.

Daytime or bedtime this combination chair and step stool is a joy to any toddler. It will make a wonderful showing under the Christmas tree. Pattern 431, which gives actual-size cutting guides and illustrated construction directions, is 25c. This pattern also is one of five in the Child-Pleaser Furnishings Packet No. 47 — all for $1. Add 10 cents service charge for all orders under $1.

Use Non-Chalking Paint on Wood Over Masonry

Oil-based house paint—available in a wide variety of attractive colors—is primarily designed for use on wood. Quality house paint is composed of approximately 90 per cent film-forming oils, pigments and color, and 10 per cent solvent, which evaporates as the coating dries.

This exterior oil-based paint will "chalk" while still in perfect condition, assuring you of a continual "fresh as paint" appearance, as the dust and dirt wash off with the powdery chalk. Use a non-chalking type paint on wood that is above masonry to prevent chalking stains.

A water system for a rural or suburban home should be capable of delivering 500 gallons per hour. This is the minimum for adequate fire protection.

Ways to Cut Down on Noise

Most homes need acoustical correction. Several factors are responsible: (1) increased use and variety of home appliances, (2) open planning of home interiors with fewer partitions, (3) increased use of wood, steel, plastic and masonry on interiors, creating hard, sound-reverberating surfaces, and (4) increased use of drywall partitions with higher through-the-wall sound transmission.

Stopping noise at its source can be difficult, but there are many practical ways to abate home noise. The key to acoustical correction is sound absorption — not to be confused with sound proofing.

All of the following items will aid materially in absorbing sound in the home:

Draperies, carpets and soft-cushioned upholstered furniture; resilient floor materials such as linoleum, cork or rubber in kitchens, bath rooms and play rooms; pads or casters under chair or table legs.

Mountings of rubber, cork or similar material under refrigerators, dishwashers and other such appliances to prevent vibration noises; and the planting of bushes and trees and the installation of fences around a house to absorb outside noises.

Buffers of resilient material also can be installed on doors, and it is advisable to weather strip doors and windows. Where possible, use double glass windows.

Try to follow as many of the above suggestions as practical. Even if you reduce the noise level in your home by just a few decibels, the result will be happily noticeable.

Accessories Can Impart Glamor to Bathroom

Give careful thought to the accessories and smaller articles in your bathroom if you're redecorating this fall. These will add the right touches to the room that will be in keeping with today's more colorful, glamorous baths.

Here are some general suggestions recommended by home decorating experts:

Use plants in pretty pottery containers which contrast with the background color of the walls.

Match the color of your tissues with the dominant pastel tone of the room. Quality bathroom tissues now come in pink, aqua, yellow as well as white, just as facial tissues do, so this is easy to manage.

Hang glass-covered pictures in gay prints or bold black and white sketches on the walls if the walls are not patterned with paper.

Fill apothecary jars with the soap or detergent that you keep in the bath for nightly sudsing of hose.

Upholstery Leather Has New Wide Color Range

A new leather palette of 36 colors, which are balanced so that they are always the same under both natural and artificial lighting is being introduced immediately by the Radel Leather Manufacturing Company of Newark, New Jersey, a member of The Upholstery Leather Group.

Radel, which formerly devoted its operation almost entirely to the transportation field, has widened its facilities to produce leather for home, office and institutional use.

The new finishing process which makes these colors really "true" is a development of the company which makes the leather colors remain the same under artificial or store lighting and under natural home lighting conditions.

Radel has so carefully worked out this new process that the natural beauty and character of the unspoiled hide grain remain in all the wide variety of rich colors in this line — 16 neutrals plus 20 colors to accent or harmonize for any dramatic effect.

For instance, a clear pale champagne looks even richer next to a vibrant apricot, or the jewel-tone of turquoise sparkles more clearly against the stark white of alabaster. An unusual effect can be achieved by combining either an iridescent gold or copper with a dull finish vicuna. From this new Radel line, innumerable effective color combinations can be worked out for more than one piece of leather upholstered furniture.

CLEANS EASILY

As an added plus, this full top grain leather may be easily cleaned with complete assurance using a mild soap and water, yet its shape remains the same and its color as lovely and vivid as ever. The feel is always smooth and supple to the touch, making it a joy to own furniture covered in this new process leather.

Architect Can Save Your Cash

When you are planning to make an investment on the stock market, who do you go to for advice?

You go to a specialist in the investment field. Yet there are many people who plan major investments in their homes, from the addition of a room to the construction of a new house, without getting the advice of the one man who really knows — the architect.

★ ★ ★

The architect's first job is assuring you of good construction and design, but it by no means ends there. He sees to it that you get the best for your money. For example, wherever ceramic tile is called for, he'll make sure you get genuine tile, not a substitute. This is important in areas such as the kitchen, where a stainproof, fireproof and easy-to-clean material is essential.

★ ★ ★

Your architect coordinates all the elements going into the building, including plumbing, decorating, lighting, heating and air-conditioning.

He takes care of all the business details, including securing the mortgage on the best possible terms. He sees to it that expenditures stay within your budget. His knowledge of building codes and laws guards you against costly and embarrassing mistakes.

★ ★ ★

Standing alone, an architectural fee can seem substantial, but actually it is only a small part of the total construction cost. A good architect, through his control of labor and materials, can often save you more than the cost of his job.

It costs money to hire an architect, but it can cost even more not to.

Dust Walls First or Wash Off Grease

An importan step in preparation for painting is to dust your walls thoroughly with a clean, dry mop. In the kitchen, where walls are likely to have grease on them, they may need actual washing with cleansers before they are painted. Be sure to follow every direction on the label.

Before starting work with painting materials, rub protective cream into your hands and arms. This makes it easy to remove paint from your skin, if you need to.

Check Window Sills After Heavy Rain

After it has cleared up following a hard rain is a good time to check outdoors window and door sills to see where the rain has collected and has been slow to evaporate. These areas — cracks, troughs and other depressions—are where rot is most likely ot set in.

★ ★ ★

Scrape or sand them free of dirt and paint, and pack them with plastic wood a little more than full. SandSand down after plastic wood has hardened and touch up with paint to match sill.

---

Wrinkled paint comes from applying too thick a coat. Be sure to brush out paint sufficiently to avoid such thick films and wrinkling.

Plenty of Wood

Scientific advances assure an ample future supply of timber for manufacture into flooring and other building products. Researchers say methods will be devised for growing trees from seed to maturity in one-third the time now required.

Can Arrange FHA Loan to Pay for Painting

Most people are aware that FHA Title 1 property improvement loans are obtained from qualified lending institutions. This includes the cost of painting all or any of your property. You can arrange for your lender to pay the money directly to you or to the dealer or contractor who does the work.

Make sure your dealer or contractor is reliable. Never sign a completion certificate until the entire job is finished to your satisfaction.

GROWL AND GROAN ROOM — That's the title the Harry Pearces gave the room they added on to their Garland avenue home recently. Measuring 15x16, the room has Philippine mahogany walls and a ceiling of mahogany blocks. There is a 12-foot picture window at the right, overlooking the lake. The one seen here was taken from the living room when a larger one was installed. Draperies are rose beige fibreglas.. The floor which is nearly covered by the Oriental rug is vinyl tile in a plank design. Mrs. Pearce is seated in a walnut reproduction of a covered wagon rocker. The little footstool belonged to her grandmother. The sofa is cocoa brown with a gold thread in the upholstery. Behind it is a large closet and a powder room. Glenn H. Watson of Pontiac did the building; interestingly enough, he built the original house some 20 years ago.

Blue Toe-Tucker Extinct Bird in Insulated House

Are you a "toe-tucker?" This is the way heating engineers describe someone who lives in a house with constantly cold or drafty floors.

The "toe-tucker" habitually sits with his feet pulled up under him to get them off the chilly floor.

In an adequately heated, caulked, and weather-stripped house, cold and drafty floors almost always are the result of insufficient insulation, or no insulation at all.

If it's a house built over an unheated crawl space, at least two inches of mineral wool are needed in the floors to help them retain heat. Without insulation, heat is radiated outside and the floors stay cold regardless of the temperature in the room.

In other types of houses which have floors that seem warm to the touch yet are plagued with a chilling, low-level draft blowing across them all winter, the fault lies in uninsulated walls.

These walls are cold, and when heated air comes in contact with the wall, it drops sharply in temperature and falls rapidly to the floor, scudding across it in an unhealthy draft.

This can be remedied with at least three inches of mineral wool in the walls.

Space Economy Measure

One space saving idea being used by builders is the installation of patterned glass room dividers in place of regular walls. The dividers facilitate natural lighting of room areas and cut space requirements.

Tile Kitchen Stools

Here's an idea for those high kitchen stools that have lost some of their looks through age and wear: surface the seats with colorful ceramic tile. They'll never need any attention, except an occasional wiping with a damp cloth, once the tile has been installed. If your table is tile-surfaced, make the seat tops to match and you'll have a set that anyone would be proud to own.

DINING BAR — A dining bar for two serves as a divider in this chic kitchen. A framed area above gives demensional substance to the unit which also includes storage on both kitchen and dining sides. Made of lovely, beige-toned west coast hemlock, it looks like the finest piece of furniture, yet is most economical to build.

Single Panel Does Two Jobs

Dubl-Bilt, a new two-in-one product combining sheathing and siding in a single panel, has been added to the line of laminated wood fiber wallboards manufactured by The Upson Company, Lockport, New York. Dubl-Bilt combines two ⅜" panels welded together to a total thickness of approximately ¾" and is available 4' wide by 8, 9 and 10' long. Long edges are shiplapped ¾".

President James J. Upson has announced that Dubl-Bilt is designed for board and batten construction and has been accepted by the FHA for use on studs spaced either 16" o.c. or 24" o.c. Corner bracing may be eliminated when studs are spaced 16" o.c. The panel far exceeds the racking resistance requirements of FHA Circular 12.

Dubl-Bilt comes primed two sides, primed one side and plain two sides. Off-white face priming provides a superior painting base and the gray back prime provides greater moisture resistance. Panels without back priming may be used in areas where the daily average January temperature does not fall below 40 degrees F.

Project builders and prefabricators report Dubl-Bilt installations save time and cut costs as it replaces the double application required with conventional sheathing and surface material combinations. Three applications are necessary with wood sheathing, building paper and exterior material. Dubl-Bilt requires no building paper.

★ ★ ★

The markets for Dubl-Bilt are numerous, including residential and general commercial construction, garages, tool houses, cottages, playhouses, shelter buildings for farm and factory, motels, roadside stands and outdoor signs.

Dubl-Bilt is structurally strong, has high impact resistance and good insulation value. The thermal conductivity is .43 BTU. Descriptive literature and a sample of Dubl-Bilt may be obtained without charge by writing The Upson Company, PR Department, Lockport, New York.

Each Room Has Own Heat, Thermostat

A low density electric baseboard heating system has been developed for separate heating systems in each room of the home. The heating unit is embedded in a specially designed convector.

As cool air falls to floor level, it is drawn off and heated as it passes around the convector, avoiding blasts of hot air. The individual heating systems are thermostatically controlled.

Large Wall Mirrors Add Space to Rooms

Among interior wall coverings for use in modern homes, there is one, an unframed architectural mirror, that does a lot more than merely provide an attractive surface for the wall.

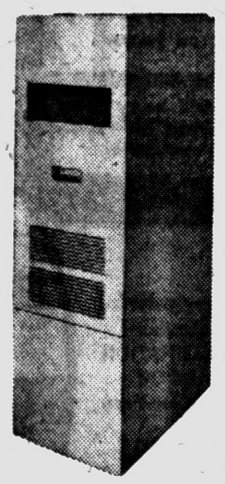

According to stylists of Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company, mirroring actually doubles the apparent size of the room, extending the expanse of walls, ceiling and floor, thus giving an illusion of greater spaciousness to areas that would otherwise be boxlike and confining.

A mirror-wall also increases the amount of light in the room, is easily cleaned, never needs refinishing and "matches" immediately any type of room decoration.

Shellac Holds Bolt

A nut stays tight on the bolt when the threaded end of the bolt is dipped into thinned shellac and the nut is screwed on. When dry, the shellac will prevent the nut from loosening, even under severe vibration. If necessary, the nut can be easily removed with a wrench.

Teddy Roosevelt Born 100 Years Ago

Dynamic Personality Lives On

By ROBERT J. SERLING

WASHINGTON (UPI)—He would have been 100 years old tomorrow—and probably would have celebrated the event with a fast game of tennis punctuated by his higs-pitched cries of "Bully shot!"

That could be none other than Theodore Roosevelt, one of America's most colorful presidents.

To historians and political students, he will be remember for such things as conservatism, trust-busting, and belligerent foreign policy. But to old-timers around Washington, he was the President of the United States who excelled in dynamic personality.

A British statesman met TR, and after about 30 minutes of exposure to that personality, summed up the President in one sentence:

"He is," said the Englishman, "an interesting combination of St. Paul and St. Vitus."

When he was President, the White House was a busy, bustling factory of unconventional activity. TR was the great exponent of outdoor living and unlike other presidents, the White House was no prison to him. When he felt like getting away, he merely told the secret service "to get ready for a bully little walk" and departed.

His walks also included occasional nocturnal swims in Washington's Rock Creek or in the Potomac river. The swims were strictly impromptu. TR would come to a body of water and announce, "Let's go swimming."

This resulted in some of the biggest names in government peeling off their clothes and dutifully diving in after the President. On one one occasion, the French ambassador was along. He didn't object to disrobing but he insisted on wearing his gloves into the water.

"Why the gloves?" TR asked.

"We may meet some ladies," the Frenchman replied with great dignity.

The White House was more of a home than the eyecutive mansion when Theodore Roosevelt was President. TR's four young sons, Kermit, Archie, Teddy and Quentin, were on the uninhibited variety. To them the big mansion was just another house to live and play in. They also regarded the White House as a fine place to establish a zoo. Like their father, they loved animals. And they brought in everything except elephants.

TR himself had his own animal pet—a bulldog which was declared persona non grata after he bit a visiting ambassador.

The reporters of his day, most of them, anyway, loved TR. For it was Theodore Roosevelt who literally threw open the White House doors to newspapermen. He was the first President to submit to frequent question-and-answer sessions—although with TR, these "press conferences" usually were one-sided lectures, with him doing all the talking.

He also originated the presidential practice of giving newsmen information so long as he was not quoted directly.

TR was looking out a White House window one day and saw a group of newsmen standing in a cold rain, waiting to interview presidential callers when they emerged. TR promptly ordered a small room near his own office set aside for their use. Thus the White Housep ress room was born.

1 Housewife Dead in Knife, Ax Battle

ONTARIO, Ore. (AP) — Two middle aged housewives fought viciously with knife and ax in a front yard here Friday and one of them died from a stab in the chest.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Dorothy Hylland, 42, mother of two children, died moments after being knifed just above the heart, said Police Chief Walter Walker.

Walker said Mrs. Bertha Baldwin, 43, Mrs. Hylland's next door neighbor, signed a statement admitting the stabbing. She was held in this small eastern Oregon town today without formal charge.

★ ★ ★

The chief said Mrs. Baldwin told him she acted in self defense after being hit on an arm by the ax. "So far as we can determine, she's not hurt," Walker said.

Time Switch Starts Sunday

Daylight Saving Time Ends as Eastern States Set Clocks Back

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most of the areas still on daylight savings time switch back to standard time this Sunday.

This includes the Northeast and much of the Eastern part of the country, as well as several other areas.

★ ★ ★

For them, clocks that were moved ahead an hour last spring now will be set back an hour to the regular time schedule.

Three states, California, Wisconsin and Minnesota, as well as portions of other states, went back to standard time last month.

★ ★ ★

But New England, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Washington, D. C., much of Pennsylvania, and parts of Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, and Illinois, including the Chicago metropolitan area, go back to standard time this weekend.

★ ★ ★

Some localities in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia switched back their clocks last month, however, ahead of the rest of the state. Poplar Bluff, Mo., did the same thing, with St. Louis following suit Sunday.

While most Indiana counties returned to standard time last month, 24 Indiana counties, including Indianapolis, Fort Wayne and an area near Cincinnati, Ohio, plan to stay on daylight time all winter.

Much of the South and West never left standard time.

Bus Companies Seek Fare Hike

6-10 Per Cent Increases in North-Central States Asked by Christmas

WASHINGTON (AP)—Major passenger bus companies operating east of the Mississippi River and in 12 north-central states have notified the Interstate Commerce Commission they plan to raise their fares, "and would like to do so before the Christmas holidays."

★ ★ ★

They asked permission yesterday to skip some of the red tape usually involved in rate-change procedings to make the increases effective around Dec. 15.

The southern lines are proposing a 10 per cent fare hike. Eastern carriers want a 6 per cent increase and a similar increase is also planned by Greyhound Corp. of Chicagon and Jefferson Transportation Co. of Minneapolis in Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana, Minnesota, Michigan, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Illinois and Missouri.

★ ★ ★

Bus companies across the country got ICC permission last year to raise fares by 5 per cent.

Stabber of Dr. King May Be Committed

NEW YORK (AP) — Bellevue Hospital psychiatrists have recommended that the woman who stabbed the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King be committed to a hospital for the criminal insane.

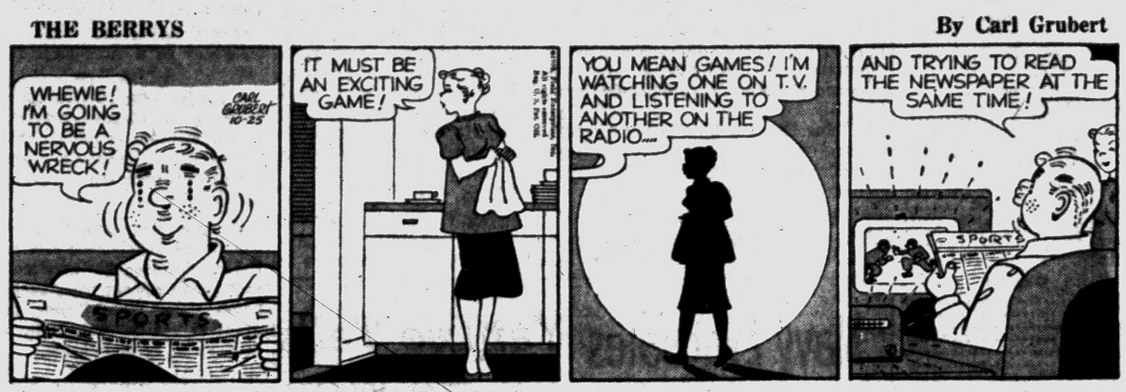

The preliminary report on Mrs Izola Ware Curry was returned Friday to General Sessions Court Judge Abraham Geller. Mrs. Curry, 42, and King, 29-year-old integration leader, are Negroes.

Mrs. Curry stabbed King with a steel letter opener as he autographed copies of his book in a Harlem department store.

New York Exchange to Advertise Stocks

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Stock Exchange is conducting a concentrated and expanded national advertising program aimed at getting more Americans to buy stock.

★ ★ ★

G. Keith Funston, Exchange president, said the special campaign will make heavy use of newspapers with 585 dailies and 160 Sunday papers and supplements taking part. It will continue through next month.

★ ★ ★

The Exchange's total advertising budget for the second half of the year is $665,000 compared with $500,000 spent during the first six months. Funston said the main objective is to provide information about member firm services available to the public.

Detroit Steel Reports Profit for Quarter

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Steel Corp. reports a profit of $252,533, equal to eight cents a share, in the three-month period ended Sept. 30. This was more than double the profit of $92,389, equal to three cents a share, in the corresponding period last year.

For the first nine months of 1958, Detroit Steel reported a loss of $171,556, equal to six cents a share, compared with a profit of $1,803,953, equal to 60 cents a share in the first nine months of last year.

Fast time officially ends for the Northeast and other parts of the country at 2 a.m. Sunday.

Shoe Salesman to Ike's Cabinet

Strauss Came Long Way

WASHINGTON (AP)—For a fellow who went to work as soon as he got out of high school, Lewis L. Strauss has come a long way.

He started out as a boy selling shoes for his father, president of a wholesale company in Richmond, Va., and now at 62 he's moving into the cabinet of the President of the United States.

★ ★ ★

In between it's been a story of a hard working man with a talent for friendship. It was with considerable puzzlement that Strauss (pronounced 'straws') commented in 1954:

"For the first time in my life I have enemies."

His has been an extraordinary path of achievement:

Friend, secretary and adviser to Herbert Hoover . a partner in the Wall Street banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co . . . an ordnance officer and desk admiral in World War II days . . . member and then chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission . . . and now, Secretary of Commerce.

Strauss, like any man who had the push and vigor to rise as high and fast as he did, ran into difficulties along the way.

But he never seemed really concerned until brickbats flying out of the quarrel over the Dixon-Yates contract began to sail his way. That was four years ago, when he was chairman of thet AEC, and he declared with some bitterness that this would be "my last public job on earth."

★ ★ ★

The Dixon-Yates fight was born of a contract calling for construction of a private power plant to compensate the Tennessee Valley Authority for power that TVA would provide AEC installations in Kentucky.

Backers of the TVA saw in this a slick scheme to undercut the big public power agency. They developed evidence that one banker had sat on both sides of the table in government negotiations. In the end, the government abandoned the contract.

Strauss called the whole furor "as phony as a three-dollar bill."

★ ★ ★

He got into other difficulties with members of Congress, most of them Democrats. In 1956 the Democratic National Committee accused him of impairing the work of the AEC by partisan activity.

He quarreled with Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, on the question of radioactive fall-out from nuclear bomb tests. "Our testing program is not 'poisoning' the atmosphere," he maintained.

He fought back, too, against charges that he was domineering and too secretive as head of the AEC, and hindered public development of atomic power.

These things never seemed to hurt Strauss.

But there was one painful episode he can still recall. When he joined the AEC in 1946 at $15,000 a year it was at such a financial sacrifice that he was provoked to exclaim:

"I feel like a man who is amputating his own leg."

Navy Evacuates 50 From Cuba

Women, Children Leave Area Where Regulars Fighting Rebels

HAVANA (AP) — A U.S. Navy transport carried 50 American women and children to refuge today from fighting between Cuban regulars and rebels around the American-owned nickel plant in Nicaro.

★ ★ ★

Evacuation of dependents of some 25 Americans working at the nickel plant was ordered by Washington Thursday because the area was controlled by Fidel Castro's rebels. The rebels have kidnaped 52 North American men in the past but returned them all unharmed.

Two Cuban warships landed hundreds of troops Friday west of Nicaro, on the north side of Cuba's eastern tip. The government later claimed complete control of the coastal area after the ships and warplanes supported an operation to drive back rebels controlling the rugged interior.

★ ★ ★

The fighting delayed zji,oacuation by launches from the U.S. transport Kleinsmith, which was backed up by the aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt.

★ ★ ★

The transport completed loading just before 8 p.m. and sailed for the U.S. Navy base at Guantanamo Bay, 200 miles by sea around the eastern end of Cuba. The dependents may go on from there to the United States. They are the first of the 2,400 Americans in eastern Cuba to be ordered removed.

Eartha Kitt Will Sing at Buckingham Palace

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Singer Eartha Kitt says she's looking forward to giving a command performance before Queen Elizabeth next month at Buckingham Palace.

She received the invitation Friday while rehearsing a television show here.

"It's the greatest thrill of my life," the singer said.

Yankee Tells All—He Won British Pool

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP)—Britain's biggest soccer pool recently coughed out a jackpot of some $700,000. It is hereby disclosed that the same pool's top prize was won in 1957 by an American.

It was kept secret because of the world situation which, then as now, was rife with unrest. The American winner felt that under the circumstances silence would be best. It seemed unlikely that the uneasy entente between London and Washington could survive even a hint that the "damn Yankees" had started winning British football pools.

The American told his wife he thought it would be best to keep his job and continu to live modestly.

"Let's not let this go to our heads," he counseled.

On Wednesday the mailman came with the envelope from the pool.

It contained a five-pound note and two singles, or $19.60.

The great occasion is still known around the American's modest surban flat is "The Day Daddy Won The Football Pool." The next time it is mentioned in my hearing a certain precocious 2½-year-old boy is going to get a good clop on the ear.

Scout Leaders Holding Halloween Dance Tonight

LAKE ORION — Manitou Boy Scout District leaders and their wives will hold a Halloween dance tonight in Camp Agawam's dining lodge.

More than 200 are expected to attend. Dance committee members are George Ross Jr. of Rochester, Kirk Francis of Drayton Plains and George McMichael of Waterford.

Business Notes

Walter M. Northey, plant superintendent of the Michigan Seamless Tube Co., South Lyon, has been appointed general superintendent of Gulf States Tube Corp., Rosenberg, Tex., a wholly owned subsidiary of the parent company.

Not Enough Stock on Hand Yet

Car Output Speeds Up After Low Gear Start

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The auto industry's assembly lines are gaining momentum on 1959 model production after a low-gear start.

But, while most makes are moving from the assembly plants, several weeks probably will elapse before retailers have normal stocks on hand. It will be weeks before an accurate appraisal of the sales picture may be made.

General Motors plants were idled for more than two weeks while local labor disputes were being adjusted. Ford and Chrysler also had production difficulties. Most of these now appear to have been resolved.

It is an industry tradition that the first new models stimulate sales. Sometimes the stimulus weakens after an initial spurt. That happened a year ago with new 1958 cars.

However most industry sources see a substantial upturn in new car demand getting under way. Top executives say they expect 1959 new car sales to exceed this year's indicated 4,300,000 units by at least 1¼ million cars.

Certainly there will be widespread gloom in industry quarters if next year's sales fall below 5½ million units. Some auto executives have called 1958 the worst year in recent auto industry history.

American Motors would challenge that appraisal. The year was good for that smaller company. It was the only car maker to build and sell more cars than it did in the preceding year. It expects another big jump in volume for 1959.

George Romney, American Motors president, says this year's sales of approximately 170,000 cars will be doubled in 1959. American Motors has concentrated most of its production and sales effort on what Romney calls a "compact" car.

Elsewhere in the industry all car makers felt the recession. Ford division was down more than 300,000 units in most recent tabulations; Plymouth was down more than 158,000 and Chevrolet was down nearly 100,000.

Many car retailers have yet to get the 1959 sales drive under way. They have display models but have not been able to make full deliveries. Some report they have lost sales to competitors and even to used car dealers.

The thorough cleanup of outgoing 1958 model cars left many retailers with no inventory. Authoritative estimates put the mid-October dealer stocks at below 200,000 units. A year ago retailers had approximately 500,000 cars on hand.

A situation in which demand exceeds supply might be considered desirable in many lines of business. It does not work out very well in car merchandising. Once a motorist decides to invest in a new car he wants quick delivery. "If he can't get it from one dealer, he will go to another," say car retailing experts.

New Zealand is 1,200 miles east of Australia. It is composed of two large and several smaller islands.

Barnstorming Midwest

Nixon to Arrive in State Monday

By The Associated Press

Vice President Nixon barnstormed in the Midwest today as both Republicans and Democrats stepped up their quest for farm belt votes.

Meanwhile top leaders of both parties denounced anew the use of smear tactics and hate mongering. Democrats contend both are on an upswing as the campaign goes into its final days.

★ ★ ★

Nixon, extending his Midwest campaigning to include a visit to Michigan, traveled to South Dakata and Nebraska today after a whirlwind tour of Wisconsin. He goes to Minnesota Sunday and to Michigan Monday.

Nixon will arrive in Michigan for his speaking tour at 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Nixon will fly from Minneapolis to Battle Creek by chartered plane. He does not plan a speech in Battle Creek, Republican officials here said, but will go by car to Kalamazoo for an afternoon address at the Western Michigan University field house.

He will return to Battle Creek and fly to Flint, arriving at 5:30 p.m.

Monday night, he will be guest of honor at a $100-a-plate Republican dinner at Flint's IMA auditorium with a major speech to follow at 9 p.m. Nixon will return to Washington late Monday night.

Renewing his broadsides against "radical" Democrats, Nixon said in Eau Claire, Wis., that the nation is "headed for its greatest boom in history if we continue the sound progressive economic policies of the Eisenhower administration."

But he said if the "radicals" again control there will be a runaway Congress. "And the American people will pay the bill in runaway spending, runaway taxes and runaway prices," Nixon said.

★ ★ ★

Both parties concentrated on Wisconsin Friday. Arriving there as Nixon was leaving, Secretary of Agriculture Benson joined the vice president in attacking what Benson called left wing Democrats.

Benson, en route to a speaking engagement at Alma in northwest Wisconsin today, told a Milwaukee news conference Friday night:

"If Democrats come into power there will be domination within the party by left wing elements whose social philosophy is even to the left of the discredited New Deal."

Following Nixon into Madison, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) predicted the farm vote will "make the difference in more congressional races than the Republicans like to think about."

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla), chairman of the Senate Democratic Campaign Committee, said "The political missile which launched a new Ike has misfired."

Returning to Washington from a campaign swing in West Virginia, Smathers said:

"Ike has abdicated his public image while Richard Nixon is back in his true orbit. The President is lost in a strange role."

Rain Delays Blast No. 13 at Atom Site

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—Heavy rain has put a temporary damper on the Atomic Energy Commission's expanded fall nuclear test series.

The 13th full-scale shot in the series, scheduled for today, had to take a back seat to nature as a rainstorm battered the Frenchman Flats test area.

The AEC postponed the test. No new time was set.

At the start of the program, the AEC said it planned to explode between 10 and 15 weapons.

The AEC announced Friday it was going ahead with more shots before the Oct. 31 date proposed by President Eisenhower for the start of a ban on nuclear testing. It didn't say how many.

The Swedish "Sven Salen" is the largest diesel-driven tanker in the world. She measures 700 feet overall.

Great Lakes Captain Found Dead on Ship

SUPERIOR, Wis. (AP)—Capt. John Gallagher, master of the Great Lakes ore boat George M. Humphrey, was found dead in his bunk aboard ship yesterday.

Officials said he died sometime during Thursday night while the boat, flagship of the M. A. Hanna fleet out of Cleveland, was under way on Lake Superior. He was in his early 50s.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Michael McGinnis, who passed away Oct. 25th, 1957.
Today recalls sad memories
Of our dear son gone to rest,
And the ones who think of him today
Are the ones who loved him best.
Sadly missed by his Mommy, daddy & sisters & brothers.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ALMA Allen, who passed away suddenly 2 years ago, Oct. 26th.
Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother,
It is sweet to breathe thy name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
Sadly missed by her daughters, Dianna & Linda.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ALMA Allen, who passed away 2 years ago, Oct. 26th, 1956.
You bid us not a last farewell,
You said goodbye to none
The sudden shock, the pain severe
Little we thought death was so near.
Your loving heart had ceased to beat—
Before we knew that you had gone.
Sadly missed by her parents, Nolan & Grace Epley.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear husband and father, Earl C. Thayer, who passed away one year ago, Oct. 25, 1957.
One year has passed, how long it seems,
But in our hearts, his face still beams,
For we who miss him only know
How much we lost one year ago.
Sadly missed by his loving wife, Mina, daughter Betty and family, granddaughter, Janice Lee; son, Russell and wife.

Reds Spending $3.5 Billion on 'Mouthpieces'

The annual budget for the United States Information Agency is roughly $100 million.

For just one of their propaganda efforts — the instruction and production of 325,000 expert Communist propogandists each year—the Soviet Union and Red China spend an estimated $3½ billion annually.

Viewers of "The Twentieth Century" will witness the methods and the efforts of Soviet propaganda first-hand when the award-winning documentary series presents "The Red Sell," its special, two-part report on Communist propaganda this Sunday and again on Nov. 2 on the CBS Television Network, channel 2.

The job of mass persuasion and distortion of fact requires professionals indoctrinated in the classics of Communism, the report stresses. Their training is entrusted to thousands of special propaganda schools situated in almost every city and village in the Soviet Union.

Under the administrative wing of "Agitprop," a subdivision of the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist Party, these schools (duplicated in Red China) produce 325,000 trained propagandists every year. The cost: an estimated $3½ billion. But this is only one aspect of Communist propaganda.

★ ★ ★

Other startling statistics uncovered on "The Red Sell" include:

1. Russia spends more to jam broadcasts of the Voice of America than the United States spends to operate it. What's more, Russia has devised thirteen different jamming methods.
2. The Soviet Union alone publishes 30,000,000 books a year in dozens of languages, expensively produced and cheaply sold, extolling Communism and attacking the West.
3. Last year's Moscow Youth Festival boasted 34,000 participants from 131 countries. It cost $100 million, more than the entire annual budget for the U.S.I.A.
4. Communist presses are busily producing books of nursery rhymes in many Indian languages picturing the United States as an evil wolf.
5. Communist China broadcasts 241 hours a week in 16 languages and dialects — 66 hours and three languages more than the Voice of America from Okinawa and Manila.
6. Last year Red China produced more than a billion and a half books, 600 periodicals and 57 daily newspapers.

Viewers of "The Red Sell" will see how these propaganda outlets operate in Part I, "The Propaganda Mill." Their effects will be shown in Part II, "Report From the Targets."

"The Twentieth Century" is produced for the Public Affairs Department of CBS News by Burton Benjamin. Isaac Kleinerman is Associate Producer. The narrator is CBS News Correspondent Walter Cronkite.

The series is sponsored by the Prudential Insurance Company of America.

Widow Has Choice of Welfare or Car

OLEAN, N.Y. (AP)—A widowed mother of seven must decide whether to keep a foreign car she won in a drawing or give up welfare assistance for her family.

★ ★ ★

A drive is under way among the populace to let her keep both. More than 500 names have been put on a petition posted in a store.

Mrs. Frank Marshall, 38, said today she wants to keep the car, a German single-seater, and is trying to find a job to help sup ea8ng5, children. They are 4 to 17 years of age.

Welfare Department officials said they would give her reasonable time to decide.

Under state law, she must convert the car to cash and turn the money over to the department if she continues on relief.

★ ★ ★

The Welfare Department pays Mrs. Marshall $140 a month in the winter and $100 in summer. She also receives $166.20 a month for social security as a widow with minor children.

U. N. Day Concert Features Casals on Sunday TV

The United Nations Day concert, marking the 13th anniversary of the founding of the international body and featuring world-renowned cellist Pablo Casals, will be presented over CBS tomorrow at 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The special concert actually took place in the General Assembly Hall of the United Nations on Friday, and was recorded on videotape by the network for presentation as a 90-minute special program this Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The concert will open with a playing of Honegger's Fifth Symphony, Charles Munch conducting. This will be followed by a brief U.N. Day message by U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammerskjold. Then Casals and Mieczyslaw Horszowski will play Bach's Sonata Number 2 in D Major for Cello and Piano.

★ ★ ★

The 90-minute concert will be presented as a special program in the CBS Television Network's "U.N. In Action" series.

Joan Fontaine Held in Contempt of Court

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actress Joan Fontaine has been held in contempt of court for not consulting her ex-husband about their 9-year-old daughter's schooling.

★ ★ ★

But the judge indicated Friday he might clear her of the charge if she and television producer William Dozier can work out differences over care of their daughter, Debra.

Dozier contended Miss Fontaine had deprived him of visiting rights by taking the child out of a private school in Los Angeles and enrolling her in a public school at Lake Arrowhead.

★ ★ ★

Miss Fontaine now married to film producer Collier H. Young, testified the move was necessary because she and the girl are suffering from infectious mononucleosis, a blood disease.

Congregation to Vote on Rochester Church

ROCHESTER—Members of the congregation of St. Paul's Methodist Church will meet tomorrow at 10 a.m. to vote on the final approval of a bid of $292,301 by Frank Rewold & Son of Rochester for the first unit of the Master Plan for the new church.

The bid has already been accepted by the executive building committee of the church. Nine bids were submitted and Rewold's was the lowest and specified that the two-level brick, stone and Cathedral glass building with a large chapel and religious education hall and offices would be completed in July at 632 Romeo St.

State to See Sputnik

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—The orbiting rocket of Russia's Sputnik III will be visible over Michigan Sunday and Monday nights. The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory says the rocket should be visible Sunday between 6:49 p.m. and 6:54 p.m. on Monday the rocket carrier will pass in view between 6:14 p.m. and 6:19 p.m.

Dog food sales in the U.S. have increased by more than three times within the past 10 years.

2 Oil Barges Burn

ALBANY, Ill. (AP) — Two big barges containing nearly 1½ million gallons of fuel oil burst into flame near a Mississippi River terminal last night and burned menacingly nearly five hours before being extinguished.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, in 1956, received the largest popular vote in U.S. history.
