Heart Lapses Stir Increasing Concern for Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors reported today that former president Dwight D. Eisenhower remains in "critical condition." They expressed "increasing concern for him as a result of irregular heart action following his major heart attack yesterday.

The doctors reported that Eisenhower, since being stricken Friday, has suffered two episodes of irregular heart action, losing consciousness briefly during both.

They said he rallied after each episode, becoming "alert" with no evidence of brain damage.

However, "the occurrence of these episodes of irregular heart action is of increasing concern to his physicians," said a 10 a.m. EDT statement on Eisenhower's condition.

The doctors reported that the five-star general has received oxygen continuously ever since he was stricken at 1:25 p.m. EDT Friday with his seventh, and possibly worst, heart seizure.

The official statement issued by Walter Reed Army Hospital said:

"General Eisenhower has remained in critical condition since the previous bulletin (at 4 p.m. EDT Friday). During the past 17 hours he has sustained two episodes of irregular heart action—ventricular fibrillation. Both episodes were terminated promptly by electrical means— defibrillation."

The doctors said Eisenhower is also receiving "continuous medication" directed at maintaining normal heart rhythm.

"Members of the immediate family are remaining at Walter Reed. Mrs. Eisenhower visits at the bedside frequently in response to the general's request."

* * *

The new attack was the fourth in 3½ months. And it was the third in a row to strike when the old warrior and elder statesman had appeared to be on his way to recovery from the previous one.

Eisenhower already has more than defied mortality statistics on heart attacks.

His seventh and latest means that he has now had more than twice as many attacks as the number—three—that most often add up to certain and swift death.

Eisenhower's latest series of heart attacks started with a minor one on April 29 during a vacation at Palm Springs, Calif.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE — South Dakota Sen. George McGovern, a late entry in the race for Democratic nomination as the party's presidential candidate, visited Oakland County last night to speak before delegates to the County Democratic Convention. McGovern called for a complete change in the country's Vietnam policy and efforts to end "division that sets black against white."

Lower Michigan Hit by Storm

By The Associated Press

Heavy wind and rain and a few reported tornadoes throughout much of lower Michigan yesterday left widespread but minor property damage, flooding and utility failures. Three Boy Scouts hit by a fallen tree at Camp Rota-Kiwan near Kalamazoo were injured, one of them seriously.

Detroit Edison said scattered damage in north Oakland County consisted primarily of wires down, leaving many people without power. Royal Oak and Ferndale were harder hit.

* * *

Michigan State Police said a tornado touched down briefly last night near the Allegan County town of Martin, some 30 miles south of Grand Rapids.

At Niles, in Berrien County, State Police reported a funnel at about 10:30 p.m. The St. Joseph County Sheriff's department reported a tornado touched down on M60 at the St. Joseph-Cass County border.

FUNNEL-SHAPED CLOUDS

Earlier the U.S. Weather Bureau said it had received three reports of funnel-shaped clouds in the Battle Creek area.

The bureau said it had unconfirmed reports of similar clouds southeast of Zilwaukee, five miles east of Saginaw.

* * *

In the Detroit area, Royal Oak police said the storm knocked down trees and caused wind damage to homes. Extensive flooding was reported. Police estimated 2,000 to 3,000 homes were without electricity at the height of the storm.

Berkley police said they had three tornado reports. The reported power failure throughout much of the city and several minor fires caused by lightning striking homes.

Nixon Will Confer With Gov. Romney in Lansing Monday

LANSING (AP)— Republican presidential nominee Richard Nixon will visit Lansing Monday to confer privately with Gov. George Romney, presumably to plot strategy for the upcoming campaign.

In addition, Maryland Gov. Spiro Agnew, the GOP vice-presidential nominee, will speak at the Republican state convention next Saturday at Grand Rapids.

* * *

Nixon is scheduled to arrive at Capitol City Airport about 2:15 p.m. and make brief remarks on the steps of the State Capitol before going into seclusion with Romney.

Romney has pledged to support Nixon during the campaign, but has stated that it will be a "tough battle" for the former vice president to carry the state in November.

STATEMENTS EXPECTED

Nixon and Romney are expected to make statements to newsmen following their conference.

Meanwhile, in San Diego, Calif., Nixon is holding more Republican strategy talks.

* * *

He blended politicking and sightseeing last night in a two-hour visit to Disneyland. But today it was all politics again with a visit from a group of mayors.

Nixon drove north to Anaheim yesterday after a session with California Gov. Ronald Reagan, a meeting that gave Reagan a starring television role in the national Republican campaign.

TV APPEARANCES

Nixon said Reagan agreed to seek votes "to the extent that his California commitments will allow some national campaigning."

* * *

Reagan said his major role will be in appearances on national television to appeal for GOP votes. "I think there's a very definite restriction on the barnstorming that can be done," he said.

Reagan said that is because he has a legislative election coming in California, plus a session of the legislature opening early next month.

Sen. McGovern's Call for Bombing Halt Hailed

By BOB WISLER

Democratic presidential nomination seeker Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota took his campaign before the Oakland County Democratic Convention last night and got enthusiastic reception for his call to end the bombing of North Vietnam and an end to the war.

Surrounded by Secret Service men, Pontiac police detectives and Oakland County sheriff's deputies, McGovern was accompanied by his pert, attractive wife, Eleanor, and 13-year-old daughter, Mary.

McGovern answered a variety of questions in declaring he is for an end to the war, and end to the draft, and an end to the tenures of Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

He also spoke out for the establishment of a well-paid volunteer army, efforts to bring mainland China within the sphere of influence of world opinion, and a reassessment of the method of nominating presidential candidates.

'NO ILLUSIONS'

McGovern, 46, a college professor before truning senator, said he had no illusions about his chances of getting the Democratic nomination.

He entered the race, he said, to keep the Democratic convention open, to decrease the possibility of a first-ballot victory for Vice President Hubert Humphrey and to move the party "toward a more hopeful stance in Vietnam.

He declared that he would not accept a vice presidential spot on the national ticket but said that if he were nominated as the presidential candidate he considered Sen. Frank Church of Idaho, Sen. Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin and Sen. Philip Hart of Michigan as likely vice presidential nominees.

McGovern spent the afternoon in Detroit yesterday attempting to line up support among Michigan delegates to the national convention in Chicago.

A DARK HORSE

An admitted dark horse, McGovern said he hopes to have 200 votes on the first ballot at the convention.

The senator castigated the Republicans and indicated he thought the issue of

New Viet Battles Flare Up, Heavy Casualties Reported

SAIGON (AP) — Fierce new battles flared up along the northern frontier, in the central highlands and east of Saigon, with heavy casualties reported on both sides, the allied command said today.

Allied troops repulsed four enemy attacks Thursday and yesterday, and U. S. Marines making a helicopter assault yesterday against North Vietnamese positions ran into an enemy mortar barrage.

* * *

These actions and a clash near Da Nang today left 205 enemy soldiers and 74 allied troops killed and 252 allied troops were wounded.

The sharp, scattered fighting stood out against what U. S. officials have interpreted as a long general lull in the war while the enemy refitted and rested its forces for an expected major offensive.

The heaviest action was around the training camp and artillery headquarters of the South Vietnamese 18th Division at Xuan Loc, 40 miles east of Saigon.

* * *

The Vietcong sent sappers and riflemen against the installation behind a 300-round mortar barrage Thursday, then ambushed one of the division's battalions yesterday five miles southeast of the town. Vietnamese sources reported 100 enemy soldiers killed in the two clashes. They said 52 government soldiers were killed and 112 wounded.

* * *

In the northern sector, 15 enemy sappers got into positions of a U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division unit yesterday as the enemy launched a strong mortar and ground attack against the American positions 15 miles northwest of Hue.

* * *

Spokesmen said 18 Americans were killed and 55 wounded and 17 enemy bodies were found, including those of three sappers killed inside the defensive perimeter.

* * *

Farther north, about 10 miles below the center of the demilitarized zone, enemy mortars killed four U. S. Marines and wounded 82 as the Leathernecks landed by helicopter for an attack. American artillery returned the fire and killed 10 enemy soldiers.

18th District Dems Favor McCarthy in Straw Vote

The 18th Congressional District Oakland County Democratic party meeting yesterday had a heavy McCarthy flavor as precinct delegates elected a new district chairman and voted a heavy preference for Sen. Eugene McCarthy as the Democratic presidential candidate.

The 18th District group and the 19th District Oakland County Democratic party held a joint county convention last night as well as separate district meetings.

Elected chairman of the 18th District group was Vernon G. Leopold of Huntington Woods to replace Eugene Kuthy of Royal Oak. Kuthy, a backer of Hubert Humphrey, chose not to seek reelection, so Leopold, a McCarthyite, was chosen unanimously.

During the meeting the 18th District delegates took a presidential preference vote, with 88 votes going to McCarthy, 10 to Humphrey, four to Sen. George McGovern and three uncommitted.

In the 19th District Aldo Vagnozzi of Farmington was reelected chairman without opposition. Both conventions picked delegates to the state convention to be held next weekend.

Racial Violence Hits Two Cities

By The Associated Press

Police have charged two white men with the killing of a Negro woman, whose death touched off racial violence punctuated by sniper fire and property damage in several sections of Cincinnati, Ohio, last night and early today.

And St. Petersburg, Fla., early this morning experienced its first full-scale racial disorder since a garbage collector's strike began in May. A wave of fire-bombing, window smashing and looting swept the city's predominantly Negro south side.

* * *

Police said nine persons were injured, most of them whites struck by rocks or bottles as they drove through the disturbed area. None was seriously hurt, however.

At least four persons were injured, two critically, in Cincinnati. Police made 10 arrests.

MURDER CHARGES

First-degree murder charges were filed today against William Harrison, 22, and Elvin Billman, 31, both of Cincinnati.

An 18-year-old Middletown, Ohio, girl, riding unknowingly through the riot area in Avondale with three friends, received a serious eye injury when the car in which she was riding was halted by several Negroes.

A Negro youth was shot and wounded critically as he hurled bottles at police.

Officers said Harrison and Billman were arrested on descriptions supplied by witnesses at the shooting scene.

Dems Agree to Cut Hoopla

CHICAGO (AP) — The Democrats have had it with that old convention standby, the planned floor demonstration.

No more, at least not in 1968, the blaring bands and marching delegates after the nomination of each candidate — unless some delegations rebel.

In announcing the demonstration ban yesterday, party chairman John M. Bailey said a representative of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy told him the Minnesota senator concurred. Earlier, Vice President Humphrey and Sen. George S. McGovern had asked that the demonstrations be dropped.

The convention's Arrangements Committee also arrived at a seating plan for the 5,611 delegates and alternates, and detailed allocations of guest passes and other convention arrangements.

FORMAL INVITATIONS

Related Stories, Page A-2

Other demonstrations — those outside the convention hall — also came to the Arrangements Committee's attention.

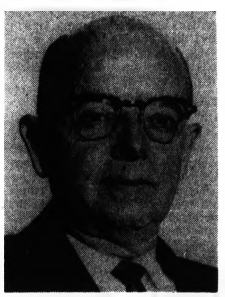
* * *

Bailey said the committee agreed that locations should be provided for the thousands of protesters expected to gather in Chicago.

In a further effort to streamline the convention, Bailey said nominating speeches will be given time limits but that the details would be worked out later.

* * *

He said state delegations will receive 1,310 guest passes, one for each two votes possessed by the state.



GOV. LESTER MADDOX

Georgia Governor Enters the Race

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Gov. Lester G. Maddox formally announced today that he would seek the Democratic presidential nomination "with great pride in and love for my country."

Maddox said he expects to have the support of several hundred delegates at the convention.

The governor, who selected the state's delegates, told them in a letter: "I am counting on your support at the convention."

The Maddox-selected delegation may become an issue at the convention, since it is being challenged by a group elected last weekend by the Georgia Democratic Party Forum, which questions the party loyalty of the Maddox delegation.

Women's Amateur Leader Is One-Up

Two of the winningest players in women's amateur golf battled head-to-head in the 68th U.S. Women's Amateur Championship, and after 16 holes of the 36-hole finale, Mrs. Jo Anne Gunderson Carner of Seekonk, Mass., held a one-up lead over Mrs. Ann Quast Welts of Mount Vernon, Wash.

The match, which was delayed this morning because of the water conditions on the Birmingham Country Club Course following the heavy downpour during the night, was deadlocked for five holes.

On the No. 6 hole, Mrs. Carner made the first break by winning a par four.

On No. 13, Mrs. Carner ran in an 18-foot birdie putt, and Mrs. Welts halved the hole with a two-footer.

Test Flights Add 2 Missiles to N-Arsenal

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Two highly destructive multiple-warhead missiles designed to penetrate deep into enemy defenses entered the U.S. nuclear arsenal yesterday with spectacular back-to-back launchings.

The missiles—the Navy's Poseidon, capable of carrying 10 warheads that can be sprayed on preselected targets hundreds of miles apart, and the Air Force's Minuteman 3 — were labeled completely successful in maiden test flights from the space complex at Cape Kennedy.

When they become operational, the missiles will replace the Polaris and Minuteman 1 and 2 as the backbone of America's retaliatory force. Both are expected to be placed on operational status in about two years.

Details of the test flights were not disclosed. Official spokesmen for the space agency and the two services announced only that the Minuteman successfully traveled its planned 5,000-mile journey to a splashdown near Ascension Island and the Poseidon came down at a predetermined point 1,000 miles at sea.

Poseidon, rated potentially eight times as effective as Polaris, is 34 feet long, 74 inches in diameter and weighs 65,000 pounds. Like the Polaris, it has a range of 2,500 miles but it reportedly is twice as accurate.

The bigger, far-ranging Minuteman 3 is designed to take up to three warheads on a rocket that is 59 feet, 9 inches long and 6 feet wide. The missile weighs 76,000 pounds and is capable of traveling more than 6,000 miles.

Both have computerized and motorized devices capable of dispersing nuclear warheads over scattered targets selected prior to launch. Present Polaris and Minuteman payloads can only follow a ballistic trajectory.

* * *

Air Force Lt. Col. Ward M. Millar, chief information officer for the space and missile systems organization, said Poseidon and the new Minuteman "together make up our strength. When both go as well as they did, it shows the country is in good hands."

The concept for the multiwarhead missiles was developed as a countermeasure to the Soviet Union's expansion of its offensive missile force and establishment of an antiballistic missile shield around Moscow.

* * *

Defense spokesmen say the missiles, with their multitarget and penetration capabilities, could give the United States an edge in deterrent strength.

* * *

However, some critics say the development of the new missiles could bring on a deadlier arms race with the Soviet Union.

VP Spells Out Viet Stand

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, one of the Johnson administration's chief defenders of its Vietnam war policy, said today he and the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy "came to hold remarkably similar views on Vietnam."

This Humphrey appeared to be making one of his strongest campaign efforts to inch away from the political shadow of Vietnam and to identify himself with Kennedy.

Kennedy said he was opposed to forcing a coalition government, which would include Communists on the government of Saigon. And added: "I would make it quite clear that we are going to the negotiating table, not with the idea that we want them to unconditionally surrender and that we expect the National Liberation Front and the Vietcong will play some role in the future political process of South Vietnam, but that should be determined by the negotiators and particularly by the people of South Vietnam."

* * *

Humphrey said he believed the same thing.

FREE ELECTIONS

Humphrey said he also wanted to emphasize that he subscribes to most of the program proposed by the National Committee for a Political Settlement in Vietnam.

* * *

That program includes free elections with all political groups in South Vietnam, including the Vietcong, allowed to enter candidates a bar to military escalation or unilateral withdrawal by the United States and an immediate ceasefire.

* * *

The only modification to the program, Humphrey said, is that he would end the U.S. bombing of North Vietnam only after "restraint and reasonable response" is obtained from North Vietnam.

party, delivering the keynote address, said that "history has passed the Republican party by" and said it must be the Democratic party which fills a "vacuum" in national politics.

The senator also said the party should nominate a vice presidential candidate who is in the mainstream of American life and one fully capable of being president.

Both district groups passed a number of resolutions. The 18th District groups called for "reordering money priorities" with commitment to U.S. internal problems rather than the war, a four-step program for an end of the war in Vietnam, and elimination of the draft with a substantial, well-paid volunteer army under civilian control.

The 19th District group passed resolutions calling for lowering the voting age to 18, peace in Vietnam, spring primary elections rather than fall primaries, a presidential primary in Michigan, and more allocation of state gas tax money for repair of local roads.

Oakland County Party Chairman George Googasian said the county executive committee will meet next week to reconsider its decision to name Shane Murphy, son of missing County Clerk John D. Murphy, as the party's candidate for county clerk.

This came about after a "black caucus" of Negro Democrats met and asked Googasian to reconsider the candidacy of Charlie J. Harrison of 85 Carr, who became a write-in candidate for the nomination a few days before the primary election.

He said he doesn't believe the future of Vietnam, or any Southeast Asian country, will ever be decided by outside military presence. McGovern said the U.S. has for 14 years spent money and blood to support a series of regimes, "no one of which has ever had the confidence and respect of the people of Vietnam."

Political experts indicated that McGovern may not have picked up any immediate delegate support at the national convention.

Against Lawlessness

Pontiac Pastor Issues Plea

A leading Negro minister in Pontiac today appealed to Negroes to refrain from violence and lawless acts and report such acts to police for the good of the community.

"I feel it is time that Negro leaders must speak out against lawlessness to ease the minds of more rational people in the community," said Rev. Matthew M. Scott, pastor of East Side Church of God, 343 Irwin.

* * *

"We are pleading to reasonable and rationally minded people not to side with or sanction persons who break the law, disrupt society and threaten the morality and principles of others.

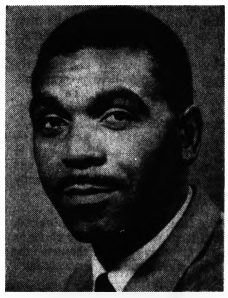
"No person or group has the right to break laws and expect the same laws to protect them in doing so. Justice is acceptable to those that believe in justice and is executed upon those who disregard its power."

CITY REWARDS

Rev. Scott's comments came after the City Commission Tuesday passed a resolution offering rewards up to $1,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of individuals responsible for arson or an attack on police and firemen which constitutes interference with the performance of their duties.

"The City Commission ruling is right," he said. "We cannot condone wrong. People should report violent acts when they see them to maintain peace between the races."

Rev. Scott also leveled a strong plea for an integrated society.



REV. MATTHEW M. SCOTT

"The ministers of this city are against any and all persons or groups . . . that practice hate and segregation in our city, county, state and nation. We, as a people, must stand together as Americans . . . regardless of race, creed or color.

AGAINST SEPARATISM

"I believe that 90 per cent of the Negro population does not support separatism," he concluded.

* * *

Rev. Scott is also president of the Oakland County Ministerial Fellowship and the Oakland County Ministerial Missionary Association.

Most Cabdrivers Strike in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — More than 5,400 cab drivers struck Chicago's two largest taxi companies today, leaving the city with only 20 per cent of its taxi fleet in operation.

The strike, affecting all but 900 of the city's taxicabs, came just nine days before the opening of the Democratic National Convention Aug. 26.

* * *

Negotiations between representatives of the drivers and Yellow and Checker Cab companies with federal mediators broke down last night with both sides trading charges. No new talks were scheduled.

Adding to concern over convention transportation is a call for a wildcat strike on Aug. 25, the eve of the convention, by some bus drivers for the Chicago Transit Authority.

Iowa Home Fire Kills 7 Children

HAZLETON, Iowa (UPI) — Seven children in a rural family were killed early today when fire swept their two-story farm home a half-mile east of here.

All seven died of smoke inhalation, authorities said. The children—ranging in age from 8 months to 13 years — were seven of the 11 children living at home in the Doras Latham family.

* * *

The fire alarm was given by the father, who ran to a neighbor's house shouting that his house was on fire and that he couldn't get the children out.

End of Feuding by Reds Urged

Top Romanian, Czech Sign Friendship Treaty

PRAGUE (AP) — Romanian President Nicholas Ceausescu warmly endorsed Czechoslovakia's reformist regime Friday and called on feuding parties in the divided Communist bloc to settle their differences in "comradely" talks.

"At this time, so many differences have amassed between Socialist countries and in the movement that we regard it as a basic and most urgent requirement not to undertake anything that could bring new tensions or increase the present ones," Ceausescu said in a speech during his goodwill visit here.

Romania and recently Czechoslovakia have charted a more independent course in the Soviet-aligned bloc of nations despite opposition from the Kremlin.

The visiting chief of state, who also heads Romania's Communist party, and Czechoslovak President Ludvik Svoboda signed a 20-year treaty of friendship, cooperation and mutual assistance.

IN SAFE HANDS

Speaking to workers in a Prague aircraft factory, Ceausescu said:

"During our brief stay in Czechoslovakia, we have become convinced anew that the fate of socialism is in safe hands and that your nation has trust in the Communist party.

"A basic condition for strengthening the unity of Socialist countries and of the Communist movement is respect for the right of every party to work out its own policy independently."

He said party differences "on this or that problem" should be resolved "in comradely talks, with patience and understanding." As an example, he cited the Czechoslovak leadership's talks with the Soviet party Politburo at Cierna and with the Russians and representatives of four other Communist countries at Bratislava in the week of July 28.

REGAINED TERRITORY

Ceausescu and Czechoslovak party Secretary Alexander Dubcek called on West Germany to declare invalid the 1938 Munich Pact which led to Hitler's seizure of the Sudetenland, a section of Czechoslovakia heavily populated by ethnic Germans. Czechoslovakia regained the territory in 1945.

As a condition for recognizing the Bonn government, Czechoslovakia has demanded that West Germany declare the Munich Pact invalid from the start.

"We want to come out against militarism and revanchism and at the same time support democratic forces in West Germany which want that country to be peace-loving and democratic," Dubcek added. "An indispensable part of this policy is the support of the (East) German Democratic Republic.

Dubcek pledged Czechoslovakia would maintain its ties with the Warsaw Pact, the Communist defense alliance, and with the Soviet Union.

Fund Sets Record

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A record $967,440 in cash and pledges was reported in the 1968 Diocesan Development Fund Campaign which ended July 31. Bishop Allen J. Babcock announced. Last year the amount was $943,290. The funds are used to support the 29-county West Michigan Diocese and a department of human relations in the diocese.

Rent-Supplement Units Lure Senior Citizens

By BOB WISLER

When rent-supplement housing was first proposed for the city more than a year ago there were mixed reactions.

Some saw it as a boon for the underprivileged. Others including two city commissioners who voted against a proposed 525-unit project in the city's northwest section, predicted it would develop into a ghetto.

★ ★ ★

As it is turning out, however, the rent-supplement project now being constructed on West Kennett near Alcott Elementary School appears to be a haven for a group of people who are too often forgotten—elderly citizens living on small pensions or Social Security payments.

Developer Charles L. Langs, who expects to have completed the first 200 units of the planned 525-unit project in September said the first applicants for housing in the development have been those who are over 65 and who are over 65 and who are living on less than $3,000 per year.

LIST OF 380

Langs said he already has a list of 380 persons or families who are eligible to occupy the 200 units which will be opened this fall.

The developer, who is constructing the housing under a federally-sponsored program which subsidizes rent payments for persons who need housing but are unable to afford standard rental charges.

Langs said he decided early this year to give preference to those over 62 in processing applications because "these are the people that should be helped the most. Younger people generally are able to work and afford standard rent."

Langs reviewed applications of the first 180 persons who applied. They are revealing. More than three-fourths are single or two-person family units more than 65 years old. Most of those gave income levels as under $2,000 per year.

More than half of the applicants were women over 60 living alone. Of these, only 12 listed an income of more than $2,000 per year.

Far more predominant were incomes ranging from $1,000 to $1,500 per year. At least 16 persons indicated that they had yearly incomes of less than $800 per year, with the lowest being $565.

Single men over 65 who applied were far fewer and relatively more affluent. Only 13 single men over 65 applied, with incomes ranging from $1,200 to $2,700 per year.

There were another 48 applicants from husband-and-wife units in which the oldest partner was over 65. Incomes listed for this group ranged almost exclusively from $1,200 to $3,800 per year. Most were in the range of $2,000 to $3,000.

Langs said many studies have showed a great need for senior citizen housing. He also is developer of a planned 234-unit senior citizen project to be constructed in two high-rise buildings on Auburn near Opdyke. The developer expects to break ground on that project near the end of this month.

NEED IS CITED

Roy McAfee, city housing commission director, estimated that there are 4,000 elderly family units in this area which need senior citizen housing.

To be eligible for rent-supplement subsidy the tenant's yearly income must not exceed $2,800 for one person, $3,800 for two persons, $4,700 for three and $5,000 for four.

Standard rent charges as approved by the government are $106 for efficiencies, $131 for one-bedroom apartments and $150 for two-bedroom units.

Under the program renters with low income will have to pay 25 per cent of their monthly income for rent. The government will subsidize the difference between that and the standard rent.

LIKE TOWN HOUSES

Units in the project on Kennett—known as North Hill Farms—are efficiency, one bedroom or two bedroom units. Similar to town-house units, the buildings are one-story high and have brick facing.

Rental charges include payment of heat, electricity, gas and maintenance of the units and grounds. Refrigerators and ranges are supplied for the units. The buildings are planned so each family unit has a great deal of space and yard area, Langs said. Facilities to be built in the complex include a community center for social meetings.

Construction of the development is under a "limited dividend" concept. The government allows no builder's fee and mortgages 90 per cent of the cost.

Langs has to mortgage the other 10 per cent and is allowed six per cent profit on that 10 per cent equity, as well as six per cent of the rental fees for managinging the development.

2ND PHASE SOON

The developer said he hopes to begin construction of the next 325 units next month. He said he might have to delay initial construction to wait for the city to construct a road into the project, to connect West Kennett to an extended Columbia.

Persons interested in housing in the 325 units to be constructed next can notify the developer by mailing him the coupon below.

'Airlines Responding to Congestion Woes'

Since it's an industry problem, it is well that the airlines intend to do something about congestion at major airports, U.S. Rep. Jack McDonald, R-19th District, declared today.

McDONALD

He said the airline industry was responding to recent congressional hearings on air traffic.

Air traffic congestion has reached the point where both the public and the government insist upon a solution, he added.

★ ★ ★

The airlines met in Washington recently to map a study program that may provide the basis for remedial action.

Created were five subcommittees, one of which will study the question of whether fares should be reduced for nonpeak-hour flights in an effort to spread out daily traffic more evenly.

OTHER PROBES

The other panels will investigate the congestion problem as it is related to international flights, domestic flights, cargo and charter service and the capacities of the three New York airports.

They are to report their findings late this month.

McDonald said some airline officials believe government help is imperative.

"They contend that congestion involves on-the-ground as well as in-the-air problems that cannot be solved by the airlines alone.

"This means more air controllers and new facilities, as well as implementation of master plans for many airports."

OUTGROWN AIRPORTS

At hearings before a House subcommittee studying the congestion problem, David D. Thomas, acting administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration, said the problem was simple — "air traffic has grown faster than airport and runway capacity."

McDonald pointed out the industry was warned to overhaul its operation and scheduling or face the alternative of government action.

★ ★ ★

"The recent airline meeting here will, hopefully, come up with some answers that will satisfy the public and the government and, in the end, improve airline service — thus benefiting the carriers, as well, concluded McDonald.

SCLC Disenchanted With GOP, Uncertain on Dems

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The Southern Christian Leadership Conference has urged its members and friends not to vote for the Republican national ticket and has adopted a wait-and-see position on the Democrats.

"We are disenchanted with the nominees of the Republican party," said a resolution adopted by the delegates at a rally attended by more than 8,500. The resolution urged that no support be given to GOP presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon and his running mate, Spiro T. Agnew. This is the first time the organization has stepped into a national campaign.

* * *

The resolution also said the SCLC would support the Democratic ticket—to be named in Chicago later this month—only if the party platform calls for ending the Vietnam war immediately and eliminating poverty.

SCLC delegates in another resolution called for an immediate cease-fire in Vietnam, a halt to U.S. bombing of North Vietnam and: "We call upon our nation and the North Vietnamese to stop sparring and begin serious peace talks."

The organization, founded by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., ended its first convention since his assassination April 4 in Memphis by affirming its commitment to nonviolence in the human rights struggle.

King's last public address was made on the eve of his death at Mason Temple where King's successor as SCLC president, the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, announced at 12:33 a.m. today the annual SCLC convention was over.

* * *

Abernathy earlier recalled that he introduced King the night of April 3, then pledged to continue leading a fight against poverty and for a guaranteed income.

"We're going to get together in this," he said. "I know there will be those that will not go with us on this journey. . . I am firmly committed to nonviolence." He said any dropouts from the nonviolent movement would be replaced by "hundreds more."

BLACK CANDIDATE

Mayor Richard G. Hatcher of Gary, Ind., suggested in a speech to the convention that Democrats should consider nominating a Negro for president or vice president.

At a news conference earlier, Hatcher, a Democrat, said, "I think the Democratic party ought to give serious consideration to a black candidate for vice president."

* * *

Hatcher, a Negro, said he was not a candidate.

Hatcher called for action to solve America's racial problems, not more studies. "The essence of the urban crisis is a dream deferred," he said.

BOYCOTT OF AP

"Black people all over this country are saying, 'Ready or not, here we come'," he said.

Among the resolutions adopted was one calling for a nationwide "selective patronage campaign" or boycott against A&P food stores in an effort to obtain more and better jobs for Negroes.

The Rosa Parks Award, the SCLC's highest, was presented posthumously to King.

It cited King as a man "who lived, worked and died that oppressed people might be free."

It was accepted by King's oldest child, Yolanda, 13, who said: "If he had been here he would have accepted this award not as an honor to himself but on behalf of the people for whom he died."

Democratic Primary in Louisiana Today

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — With a light turnout forecast, Louisiana Democratic voters today decide a low-key contest for U.S. Senate and seven congressional races in the state's primary election.

Sen. Russell B. Long is the heavy favorite to win nomination for another six-year term over Maurice P. Blache of Covington, a supporter of Alabama's George C. Wallace. Blache has done little campaigning.

* * *

Three other veteran Louisiana congressmen have only one opponent and thus their races will be decided at the polls today.

They are House Whip Hale Boggs, opposed by Cy Courtney, a Wallace supporter; Rep. Otto E. Passman, opposed by Anthony J. Bruscato; and F. Edward Hebert, opposed by Carlton H. Pecot, a Negro.

POLITICAL UNKNOWN

Of the challengers, Bruscato has waged the most active campaign although he faced the handicap of being a political unknown. Courtney ran for governor last year and lost by a big margin. Pecot, one of the three Negroes running for congressional seats, is head of the Louisiana Advancement Association, a civil rights group.

Four congressmen have more than one opponent, and thus will have to enter a runoff unless they win a majority of the votes.

* * *

Leon Tarver of Shreveport, a Negro who is a funeral home director, is counting on increased Negro voter registration in the Northwest Louisiana district in his try to defeat Rep. J. D. Waggonner of Plain Dealing. The third opponent is Andrew Pappas of Shreveport.

Wallace to Speak to VFW in Detroit

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace's campaign headquarters in Montgomery said Friday Wallace has accepted an invitation to address the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their national convention in Detroit Thursday.

Earlier, it was announced that Wallace had canceled plans to attend the Michigan convention of his American Independent Party in Dearborn next week. James Hall, state vice chairman of the party, said it was necessary that the former governor be in Oregon in order to get on the ballot there.

3 Postmasters Named for State

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson Friday nominated three new postmasters for Michigan cities. Named were Alice M. Guger of Buckley, Eileen H. Stoudt of Muir and William C. Stottlemeyer of Wayne.

The nominations require confirmation by the Senate.

County Must Give Roads Top Priority

Many months ago, this newspaper editorially pushed for new and expanded jail facilities for Oakland County. We still support the need for a new jail to replace the outmoded County jail on Wayne Street.

But, during the time that has passed since that initial editorial support, we have watched inadequacy grow and grow and grow. We refer to our County roads.

★ ★ ★

They have deteriorated to a point where something must be done quickly, or we will face years of trying to "catch up" in maintaining minimal standards for good roads.

Therefore, it appears we must establish some priorities. In doing so, The Press now feels that our roads are in more vital need of attention than the jail.

We suggest it is time for County government to do the same.

★ ★ ★

On Aug. 6 the voters of this County made it clear that they have absorbed as many tax assessments as they can at this time. A ballot proposal asking for a 1-mill levy for County roads was soundly defeated.

The Road Commission has borrowed money from the County. It has floated a bond issue to try and avoid a crisis. All that these actions have accomplished is to delay the crisis; not avoid it.

It is regrettable that the millage proposal was defeated, yet this doesn't change things any. The roads still get continually worse every day.

It is time that the County stepped up to this problem. It is time Oakland County included Road Commission needs in its budget.

★ ★ ★

While other governmental units for years have been struggling along on the brink of fiscal deficit, Oakland County has done very well. Its fiscal state has been comfortable. It is one governmental unit which mysteriously ends each year with a sizable surplus.

The time has come to establish priorities, and our roads should be at the top of the heap.

★ ★ ★

At the same time, efforts should be made to bring the Road Commission closer to County government, possibly a distinct part of it. As it is now, the Road Commission, as an autonomous body, is sitting off in left field with neither funds nor motivation from the parent organization.

Evenhanded Justice Dealt by Circuit Court Judge

At a time when lawlessness is rampant throughout the Nation and threatens the security of every American, the dispensation of equitable but stern justice is a paramount social need of the day.

ADAMS

Always quick to recognize such action, The Press now commends Circuit Court Judge Clark J. Adams on the 20-to-40-year sentence he imposed on Milton Pratt, recently convicted on a robbery conspiracy charge.

★ ★ ★

In the course of a subsequent robbery, a West Bloomfield Township trustee, Edward DeConick, was murdered and his sister seriously wounded.

To deal successfully with crime, a two-prong weapon must be wielded by officialdom: the prompt apprehension and prosecution of criminals supported by a severely realistic attitude on the part of the courts.

'Gut Issues' Will Decide Election

By EVERETT McKINLEY DIRKSEN

The campaign for election of the 37th President of the United States is going to be fought and won on the gut issues.

DIRKSEN

That is perhaps an inelegantly rough expression for use in a family newspaper, but only an aging maiden aunt would have the delicacy at a time like this to substitute "gut issue" with something nicer—"visceral issue," for example. I assure you, my perspective is not that of a maiden aunt.

Some things are going to be said in September and October that will rough up the country. Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew and the Democratic candidates are going to have to fight the issues that have given 200 million citizens the cold, awful feeling of fear that Americans have never seen before.

★ ★ ★

What are the gut issues?

One of the two most important is combined in the problems of Vietnam and the tension between two super powers. Nixon cannot go to Moscow before election day, so he will bear down on Vietnam. He will try to convince the people to accept his ideas for de-Americanization of the war. That means promotion of the idea of making the war an increasingly Vietnamese war with the best of American weapons to arm the South Vietnamese.

The second, but no less important issue, is the fear triggered by all of the agonizing things that beset us. If the people are afraid their sons will be killed in Vietnam, they are afraid, too, of the war in the big-city streets. They are afraid to go to church in the morning or to the corner drugstore in the darkening evening. When they drive home at night, they are afraid to steer into the dark alleys to their garage. Older people are afraid prices will go so high they won't be able to afford to live. Fear is a gut issue.

The people who know the condition of America's inventory of weapons—as of today—are crying out to us to replenish that inventory. When we were at war in Korea, our factories ground out every kind of weapon we knew how to fabricate. Our inventory of weapons in 1953, after the Korean armistice, was sky high. That is not the case today. In Vietnam we are using up everything we have. That is a gut issue.

There are very few countries of the world that do not, in one form or another, receive aid from the United States. Those countries must help us in Vietnam or forget all about aid from this nation of 50 states. India is receiving mountains of food from this country every day. Yet India is unaligned and isn't giving us even token help.

Japan has received the most generous concessions from us. Its exporters have free play on the U. S. market at the expense of the American producers. Japan can and now must help us in Vietnam with food and manufactured articles. That is another gut issue.

★ ★ ★

The labor standards of Europe and other countries are inexpressibly lower than ours—so low that on a basis of price alone, sales of foreign-made goods and steel products to us here in the United States have placed us behind the 8-ball. Those entrepreneurs and export adventurers in foreign lands have moved in on us during our agony in Southeast Asia. They will have to agree that they won't ship into America more than the exactly right percentage of our growth market. If that isn't a gut issue, then I don't know what is.

Other issues are the necessity of making an all-out effort, through manpower training and close co-operation with industry, to lay low and defeat the jobless problem; and the crying need to work out a pattern for dealing with the strikes that have paralyzed us across the nation from time to time—and always at the wrong time.

Politicians do not make the issues. The people make the issues, and so Nixon and his Democratic opponent have got to talk about the things people want to hear—the gut issues. Americans don't like to be disturbed in the even tenor of their ways. They don't like to be afraid.

★ ★ ★

The Republicans were afraid at Miami Beach. That was the fountainhead of their mood for nominating a gut fighter. That's why they worked in unity. They didn't have to achieve unity. They were afraid not to be united.

And the Democrats are afraid, too. That's why Sen. Eugene McCarthy has a chance to be nominated for the Presidency by the Democratic National Convention at Chicago next week.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

Collette Ramsey lived in an almost silent world for 20 years. At the age of 13 she had a severe loss of hearing, but with help and faith she finished her education, was married and had two daughters.

At 33 new surgical techniques made it possible for her to return to the world of sound. It took two operations. The night before the first one, which did not guarantee restoration of her hearing, she prayed and promised that, whether or not her hearing returned, she would devote her life to alleviating the handicap of deafness. She did get her hearing back and, true to her prayer, she has devoted her life since to the service of others.

Through her dedicated zeal she founded "The Deafness Research Foundation." It was, and still is, the only voluntary organization devoted to the furthering of medical research into causes, improved means of treatment and prevention of hearing disorders. Through her persuasive powers she enlisted the voluntary help of leading scientists and doctors in the field, and collected money from foundations, corporations and individuals.

So that all of the money could be used for otological research, in 1963 she inspired the establishment of the Centurion Club of the Deafness Research Foundation, composed of the nation's leading ear, nose and throat specialists and of their professional societies. The annual dues underwrite the administration costs of the Foundation.

Collette, Mrs. Hobart C. Ramsey, is fulfilling her purpose in life. She says, "My prayers and the work of the Deafness Research Foundation will be unceasingly directed toward bringing closer the fulfillment of Isaiah's promise '. . . and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped'."

Confident Living:

Be at Peace With World and Self

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

To relieve tension build-up a man writes that he takes time out from the job and drives to a peaceful spot along the shore of a lake. "But," he declares, "real peace comes not altogether from the beauties of the scene but also from my 'mental medicine chest'."

DR. PEALE

He means that he has stored up in the mind healing words from the Scriptures and other spiritual thoughts that he likes. Sitting by that calm expanse of water he "reaches" into his mind out of that mental medicine chest a healing thought such as the following: "Thou will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee."

★ ★ ★

Men find peace in other ways. Music has power to heal, not only "the savage breast," but what is perhaps even more difficult, the agitated mind.

Peace is found by some before a cabin fireplace deep in the woods. What is it about a fire that brings a sense of peace?

There is a feeling of peace in watching the sea rolling and tossing, drawing back only to surge with enormous power against the rocks, roaring in and pulling out.

One day I chatted with a friend in a great grove of old live oaks. The live oak, ancient and gnarled, its moss trailing down suggests venerable men with long beards. The sand of the forest floor that day gleamed white and by the grove a gemlike lake shone in the sunlight.

My friend, highly sensitive to all this beauty, exclaimed, "Look at the way the sun sifts and falls through those branches. Notice how it lies softly on the white sand warming it into life. See the glint of sun on dancing water. Sense the stillness trembling in the air."

I turned and looked into his sightless eyes. Blind though he was he had described the natural beauty around us better than most could with eyes that have sight.

Impressively our sightless friend continued as we stood amidst the live oaks: "My mind is flooded with peace. And though I may be sightless for the rest of my life, still I am happy and content.

He contrasted with another man who has everything but lives in a perpetual rat race.

★ ★ ★

This tensed-up executive flopped down in my office. "I've had it," he growled. "I'm all run down. What a lousy existence."

"You're not all run down," I said. "You are all wound up. And what you need is peace of mind, or else."

"And just where in this blankety-blank world can one find peace of mind?" he challenged wistfully.

"Well, this might help." I quoted some words which have proved a therapy to many. "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee." "Peace I give unto you. Let not your heart be troubled."

"Could be," he said thoughtfully. "It just could be."

Ultimately he found what many modern men desperately need — peace of mind.

Moscow's Bluff Is Called

Czech Crisis Bares Soviet Split

By LEON DENNEN
NEA Foreign News Analyst

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — It takes a Communist to outwit his fellow Communists in the dangerous game of military brinkmanship. Alexander Dubcek, Czechoslovakia's reformist leader, is obviously as skilled in the game of Red bluff as his Soviet mentors.

He was trained as a Communist in Russia, where he acquired firsthand knowledge of the tortuous twists and turns of the Kremlin's foreign policies. He knew what was generally ignored by Western "experts" — Soviet leaders were themselves divided on how to cope with Prague's "liberals."

★ ★ ★

Thus, when the Russians hinted that they might invade Czechoslovakia, Dubcek remained calm and refused to bow to Moscow's blackmail. This goes a long way to explain why the mighty Russians finally agreed to meet Dubcek on his own terms and on Czechoslovakian soil.

According to East European diplomats, a feud has been brewing between Premier Alexi Kosygin and Communist party boss Leonid Brezhnev since June 1967 when Israel defeated Moscow's Arab clients in the Middle East.

CONFLICTS VEILED

Friction between the Soviet government's bureaucracy and the politicians of the Communist party's machine is not unusual in Russia. But in the past such conflicts were veiled in secrecy. The crucial events in Czechoslovakia have brought the new struggle for power into the open.

As specialists on communism see it, Premier Kosygin represents the moderate wing of the Kremlin.

★ ★ ★

Let there be no mistake about it: Kosygin is hardly a liberal or reformer. But he is primarily a technocrat and not a politician. He plainly wants to chart a new course for Soviet foreign policy. He would like to continue the dialogue with the United States on how to slow down the arms race and negotiate a peace settlement in Vietnam and the Middle East.

In the Czechoslovakian crisis, it is clear, Kosygin was anxious to avoid even the threat of a military showdown.

DOMINANT POSITION

But his "revisionism" was challenged by Leonid Brezhnev who has emerged as the leader of neo-Stalinist conservative and military factions in the Kremlin. These factions want to reimpose Russia's dominant position in world communism. They oppose any curtailment of Russia's armed might.

Brezhnev, it seems, insisted that Kosygin's policy might endanger not only the survival of the regimes in Poland and East Germany but the national security of Russia itself.

By openly repudiating Kosygin's efforts to come to terms with the Czechoslovakian reformists, Brezhnev pulled the rug from under the collective leadership in the Kremlin. He destroyed the delicate balance of power between Soviet "hawks" and "doves," precariously maintained since the ouster of Nikita Khrushchev in 1964.

It is still too early to predict the outcome of the Kosygin-Brezhnev conflict. Moscow's zigzag policies in Czechoslovakia and in relations with the United States are some indications that the acrimonious debate in the Kremlin continues.

DAMAGED CAUSE

However, even by threatening to intervene in the internal affairs of a Communist state, the Russians have damaged their own cause almost beyond belief.

Confusion Reigns in Tiny Broadcast Booth

One radio station says: "And now Herman Glutz will bring you the news." And a voice immediately says: "This is Peter Joker with the morning news." When he finishes he says: "This is Peter Joker signing off after bringing you the morning news." Immediately the next sentence goes like this: "You have just listened to Herman Glutz bringing you the seven o'clock news."

It's Not Too Late to Learn—5

Approach Different in Reading for Study

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the fifth in a series of 10 articles on adult education.)

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.

It is important for a student to know that how one reads depends upon his purpose.

Reading for study requires a different approach to the material than reading for enjoyment. Recognizing the difference in approach and mastering the approach to study can be the key to success in the classroom.

* * *

Almost everyone reads for pleasure. Part of the pleasure is that one can proceed at a rapid rate without pausing to ponder the portent or stopping to take stock of what facts may be needed later.

Not so with reading for study.

To make what you read part of your permanent knowledge you must not only understand it but you must think about it in your own words. Don't try to read a whole chapter and then start your thinking. By the end of the chapter you will have already forgotten much of what you have read. Stop at the end of each section of material and think over the ideas.

If you find this difficult, make a couple of adjustments in your reading.

* * *

First decide what you should be looking for as you read a section of the material. From the table of contents or the author's bold faced headings you should be able to determine what he thinks is important. Search for these ideas as you read, and read fast enought to keep your mind from wandering. This time you should be able to recite back successfully.

At the end of each chapter think over the ideas that have been presented. Skim through again if necessary to refresh your memory. Try explaining to someone else what the chapter was about the points it covered. For the first few weeks it will take persistent effort to maintain this approach to study. But take heart, it gets easier as time goes on and eventually it will be a matter of habit and seem effortless.

Here are a few other points regarding reading:

- Visualize the events in history on a mental map as you read.
- Associate each new word in biology or life science not only with its location in plant or cell or animal structure, but also with its pronunciation and spelling. Repeat it aloud until it "rolls off your tongue" glibly. Learn everything you can about each thing studied, such as consistency, function, location and relationship to other things near it.

(Tomorrow: Success in reading job training manuals.)

Mom Gets Dates for Her Daughter, Ignoring the Youth's Protests

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I live in a small town, and during my high school days I never dated. I'm 19 and have been away to college for the past year. I dated quite a bit at college, but now I'm back home facing a dateless summer.

ABBY

I don't really mind, but my mother does. As a teen-ager she was extremely popular. She must be afraid I'll be an old maid the way she tries to scare up dates for me with anything that comes along.

Last night I went out with the son of one of her friends. He was a wolf, a bore and a waste of time. He called me for a date again tonight and my mother stood right there by the phone to make sure I didn't refuse him. I tried to tell her what kind of boy he was, but she said it was better than staying home.

So what does a girl do with a mother like that?

STUMPED

DEAR STUMPED: She uses her own judgement (and in this case I think yours is better than your mother's). Flatly refuse to go out with anyone you consider a waste of time.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I realize that this is no earth-shaking problem, but I would like your opinion.

Our little three-year-old boy, Jeff, eats with his left hand, and we are afraid if he keeps on he will become left-handed, so we've been trying to break him of it.

I know it's no crime to eat left-handed, but it looks so clumsy. Could forcing him to eat right hand have a bad effect on him later on in life? JEFF'S MOM

DEAR MOM: Possibly. Let the boy eat with which ever hand he chooses. What's the difference? His MOUTH is in the middle.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Will you please put a few words in your column about the "forgotten man" at all these weddings. I do not refer to the father of the bride or groom. I refer to the minister who has given his time for pre-marital counseling, has arranged for the use of the church and its facilities, has guided the wedding rehearsal, has performed the ceremony and then has registered the marriage as the law requires.

A young man who considers himself mature enough to take on the responsibilities of marriage should be aware that his first responsibility is to offer to the minister, by way of the best man, a monetary token of appreciation. (After all, the couple could have gone to a J.P. who would have asked a dollar a minute for a five minute ceremony.)

My husband has performed four "thank you" weddings in a row, and I am beginning to wonder if the wedding etiquette manuals are missing a page, or whether the bridegrooms have no mothers to tell them that they have a duty on their wedding day beyond kissing the bride. Thank you. PASTOR'S WIFE

* * *

DEAR ABBY: About the GI whose girl let her mother talk her into "trading" her engagement ring in on another bigger and much "nicer" diamond, and who was told he could pay the difference when he got home from overseas service: Don't you suppose he would be well advised to forget the diamond and trade the GIRL in on a much nicer (though not necessarily bigger) one?

JUST SUGGESTING: SEDONA, ARIZ.

Lady Bird Prepares for Final Move

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lady Bird Johnson is taking no chances in this era of political reassessment. She already has one foot out of the White House door and she is packing—just in case.

While others might suspect President Johnson might run again, the First Lady is convinced he won't. As an organized woman, she has taken inventory and already has her staff shipping boxes of books and personal objects of art which have graced the White House during their tenure.

Mrs. Johnson acted on the knowing advice of a former First Lady, Mrs. Harry S. Truman.

Everytime a courier plane flies to the LBJ ranch where the Johnsons are spending the month of August, some personal LBJ belongings are aboard. The Johnsons have spent some 30 years in Washington and it's a long haul back to Texas for all the accumulation of furnishings, gifts, plaques, awards and photographs.

Much of the personal memorabilia will wind up in the LBJ Library, under construction at the University of Texas in Austin.

Roosevelts' Marital Rift Revealed

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt left the White House abruptly following the death of her husband when she learned of another woman's visits with the president there, according to author Jonathan Daniels.

Daniels writes in his new book, "Washington Quadrille," that Mrs. Roosevelt inquired about visits by Lucy Mercer Rutherford who had once served as her social secretary.

* * *

"Evidently even in the midst of the solemn obsequies there was on her heart a secret something she had to face," Daniels wrote. "She made direct inquiries."

"The truth could not be denied," he wrote. "Eleanor's resentment could not be dissembled. She announced she was getting out of the White House immediately."

Daniels, a one-time aide to Roosevelt, is now editor of the Raleigh, N. C., News and Observer.

JOINED FDR

Daniels said that Roosevelt met "blond, slim" Lucy Mercer when he first went to Washington in 1913. He was then 31 and she 22.

According to Daniels, she joined the president and others for yachting trips on the Potomac while Mrs. Roosevelt was at the family's summer home in Campobello.

The author quotes several accounts that the relationship came close to breaking up the Roosevelts' marriage. One said a breakup was prevented by Lucy's Catholicism.

Lucy married Winthrop Rutherfurd, a widower of 55, in 1917 and Daniels says that Roosevelt's polio attack four years later made him more dependent on his wife.

* * *

Mrs. Rutherfurd was widowed in 1944 and died in 1948.

After Pearl Harbor, said the author, Roosevelt began to meet Lucy regularly in Washington "for long drives together."

"They would drive and talk for two hours and the president would return to the White House a man refreshed by the lady whom his protectors remembered as a charming and beautiful woman," he wrote.

Mrs. Rutherford was present at least twice at the Little White House in Warm Springs, Ga., Daniels said, and was there when Roosevelt was stricken fatally by a cerebral hemmorhage in April, 1945.

"The certain thing is that Lucy was not a lady who would have had to be ejected," he wrote.

"In these hours even more than when he was stricken long before at Campobello, he was Eleanor's—and Eleanor's alone."

According to the author, William D. Hassett, Roosevelt's correspondence secretary, deliberately omitted Lucy's name from a list of those present when the president died.

* * *

But Daniels said Hassett told him Stephen Early, Roosevelt's former press secretary, blurted to him: "There's hell to pay, Bill. Mrs. Roosevelt knows that Lucy Rutherfurd was here."

She Complains That Neighbors Are Dog Snobs

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I am a dog lover, curb my dog and never allow him to run loose. I resent people who ask me to take my dog elsewhere when I take him out for a walk. Many dogs in this section are allowed to run loose and I have often had to clean my lawn of dog waste.

* * *

I wish someone would start a campaign to have each dog owner clean up after his dog. I would do so, gladly, if others would. Just because mine is not a pedigreed dog doesn't give them the right to ask me to go elsewhere.

—Mrs. P. G.

* * *

Dear Mrs. P. G.: A person should make every effort to "curb" his dog, or keep him from performing his duties on lawns and flower beds. Ideally, the pet lover choose an undeveloped area — woods or vacant lots.

If the dog's owner really tries to do this, home-owners should be patient when an occasional mistake occurs.

A SMALL WEDDING

Dear Mrs. Post: My aunt is getting married for the first time. Because she is 40 years old, her family feels it is not proper for her to have any attendants besides the maid of honor and best man. Is it proper for her to have a larger wedding party? —Barbara

* * *

Dear Barbara: Women of 40 or more should restrict their bridal party to one attendant. Just as long white gowns are not generally becoming to them, neither would a group of middle-aged bridesmaids.

There is no reason, however, that your aunt should not have as large a reception as she wishes—complete with all the trimmings.

Couple Wed in St. Michael's Church

Carrying a bouquet of white roses, Kathleen A. Smith became the bride of Robert J. Bishop today in St. Michael's Catholic Church.

The daughter of the Floyd D. Smiths of Lake Oakland Shores Drive wore a gown of embroidered batiste with an organdy train. Her veil was secured by an organdy bow.

ATTENDANTS

Mrs. William Raymond was matron of honor for the former Miss Smith. Bridesmaids, Mary Himburg, Cheryl Winkler and Rebecca Smith assisted. Flower girl, Barbara Raymond, was escorted by ring bearer, Peter Smith.

The son of the John Bishops of Chesaning was attended by best man, Raymond Bishop. Performing the duties of usher were Dennis Venn, Edward Bishop and Roland Siebert.

* * *

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds were feted at a reception at Pine Knob Resort.

Upon their return from a New England honeymoon, they will reside in Cadillac.

Finding that 'right spot' for each hanging on exhibit tonight at the Pine Lake Country Club marked the final stage of plans by Mrs. William L. Cotter (left), Mrs. William H. Bagley III and Mrs. James E. Gibbons. The exhibit by Michigan artists, the first ever held at the Club, will coincide with a semi-formal dinner-dance for members and guests. Mrs. Cotter and Mrs. Bagley, cochairmen, reside on Charel Court, West Bloomfield Township and Water Wheel Lane, respectively, and Mrs. Gibbons, Corners Drive, West Bloomfield Township.

FUGITT-MARTUS

Patricia Ann Martus chose a gown of ivory peau de soie and beaded Alencon lace for her wedding Friday to George Louis Fugitt. The couple's sister and brother, respectively, Mrs. Frederick Bourdeau and Thomas Fugitt were honor attendants. Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Martus of Myrtle Street and the Oral Fugitts of Andersonville Road, Independence Township, joined the newlyweds at a reception in the Waterford C.A.I. Building following the vows. The former Miss Martus carried a cascade of red roses for the candlelight ceremony at St. Perpetua's Catholic Church. The newlyweds are honeymooning in the Smokey Mountains.

Cadette Scouts Slate Round-Up

Some 120 Girl Scout Cadettes from the Northern Oakland Council will gather Sunday at Camp Sherwood, Lapeer, for the third annual week long Cadette-Round-Up.

* * *

The theme for this year's program, which is organized by the young participants, is entitled "Tomorrow's Challenge."

* * *

Among activities slated by Cadettes, who will be joined by 30 adult councelors, is an open house Wednesday afternoon for parents and guests as well as junior scout troops.

* * *

Highlighting the week's agenda will be a senior capping ceremony by candlelight Friday evening.

10-Year-Old to Choose Typical or Bohemian Life

BROOKDALE, Calif. (UPI) — Will it be Ames, Iowa, with his grandparents, and a "stable, dependable, conventional, middleclass, middle west" upbringing?

Or will it be Brookdale, Calif., with his father and stepmother and a "romantic, impractical, unstable, arty, Bohemian and probably intellectually stimulating" life?

CHOICE

The choice today was Mark Painter's. It was a decision very few 10-year-olds get a chance to make.

A 10 minute talk with a minister will determine young Mark's future. The minister, an emissary from Mark's grandparents in Ames, will decide whether the boy will stay with his parents.

His grandmother, Mrs. Dwight Bannister, said she would abide by Mark's wishes.

IOWA COURT

The atmospheres in the respective households were described in memorable language by the Iowa Supreme Court during the six year court battle for custody of Mark.

The high court awarded Mark to his grandparents, saying their stable, conventional, middleclass upbringing would be more desirable, though probably less stimulating to the boy, than the arty, Bohemian life his father led.

* * *

Mark had been sent to live with the Banisters after his mother, Jeanne Bannister Painter, died in an auto crash in 1962.

When Mark's father, Harold W. Painter of Brookdale, remarried, he wanted Mark to live with him in California, but the grandparents refused to give up custody.

Painter was granted one month a year visitation rights.

SCENE SHIFTS

Last week, a California court granted him temporary custody and Painter said Mark would not be returned to Iowa when the one-month period was up.

Mrs. Bannister said Wednesday in Ames she had asked her pastor, the Rev. Clay Lumpkins of nearby Gilbert, Iowa, to fly to California to find out Mark's "true feelings."

* * *

"If Mr. Lumpkins is convinced that Mark wants to stay in California, I shall accept that decision," Mrs. Bannister said.

But she said Painter's decision to seek custody was "a flagrant violation of trust that should be a matter of deep shame to him."

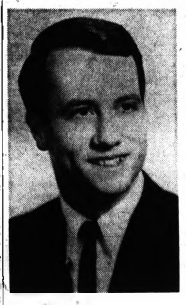
Washer Renews Shower Curtain

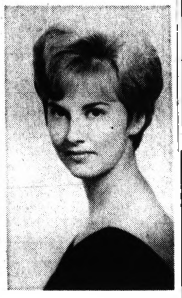
When a plastic shower curtain becomes water-spotted, soap streaked and stiff from long use, you can renew its appearance by giving it a quick trip through an automatic washer, with just a water conditioner added to the water.

This strips out the soap and dirt and leaves the plastic curtain clean and pliable.

Date Corrected

The Charles W. Seaman's Golden Wedding anniversary party was incorrectly reported in The Pontiac Press as scheduled for tomorrow. The celebration will take place on Aug. 25.





Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Carlsen (nee Diane P. LaBurn) were awarded Bachelor degrees during commencement exercises Friday at Western Michigan University. Jack, son of the Richard E. Carlsens of Barkman Street, received his BA in Social Sciences. Diane, whose parents are the William LaBurns of Detroit, graduated with a BS in English.

Luxurious Bathroom Is Instant Status

CHICAGO (NFS) — A luxurious bathroom has become one of the newest status symbols.

Gold faucet handles and even marble bathtubs with jewel-studded fittings are readily available — if you have the money to buy such baubles.

Few people have a fortune to spend on decorating a bath, but the luxurious look needn't cost a king's ransom, according to the home fashion experts at Norwood Mills, Inc., Janesville, Wis.

The stylists who design this leading manufacturer's line of decorative bathroom accessories note that you can achieve a luxurious look with little outlay of cash by dressing up your bath with imaginative accessories.

* * *

Accessories made of pile fabrics, such as those in the luxurious Mona Lisa line, range from doorknob covers and stylish bonnets for spare rolls of tissue up to two-piece jackets for toilet tanks and fabric-covered hampers and brush containers.

There are also lid covers, scale and tissue box, and wastebasket covers in jewel-like colors ranging from pearly whites to ruby-rich reds.

There are fluffy rugs to fit any size bath and for the ultimate in luxury, soft pile wall-to-wall carpeting.

Picker-Upper Is Tepid Water

Relax for 15 or 20 minutes a day in a tubful of tepid water containing 1 cup of soda bicarbonate (baking soda).

Not only is this a refreshing pick-me-up during wilting hot weather, but it's a soothing remedy for the sore sunburn or the itch that accompanies summer dry skin.

MODERNIZATION

Winged Brick And Batten Colonial Of The Charles J. Pollock Family Located In West Bloomfield Township

Blue Ribbon Winner All the Way

BY JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Blue ribbon winner, Mrs. Charles J. Pollock of West Bloomfield Township continues to be a champion whether she's arranging flowers or rooms.

Putting her ingenuity to work Mrs. Pollock with the aid of her family covered an armless occasional chair in a rich cut velvet tapestry. The fabric introduces shades of green, red, blue, orange and gold in a medallion floral.

* * *

For additional emphasis in the living room grouping, she used the same fabric to cover a lampshade. An avocado green velvet button-back chair picks up the green of the tapestry.

* * *

Serving the two chairs are a gate-leg table and a round table covered with a gold cloth.

HUTCH CABINET

The room's hutch displays family heirlooms including a pressed glass pitcher which belonged to Mrs. Pollock's aunt and a round fruit bowl which was her grandmother's.

* * *

Double doors open into the den spiced by the bittersweet area rug.

"My husband is a sports enthusiast," said Mrs. Pollock. "so I cross-stitched the duck and pheasant pictures above his desk.

* * *

"That arm chair in front of the desk I found at a church rummage sale. It was a sight. All black and dirty. When I refinished it, I discovered its burled inlay. My aunt made the pansy needlepoint cushion on the seat."

* * *

In the family room, paneled in butternut, the Pollocks have focused on comfort for the convenience of their three sons, Chris 15, Cary 12 and Carl 5.

Mrs. Pollock frequently changes the floral arrangements in the fireplace's tokonoma (recessed niche for display of art objects or flowers).

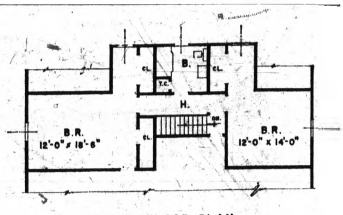
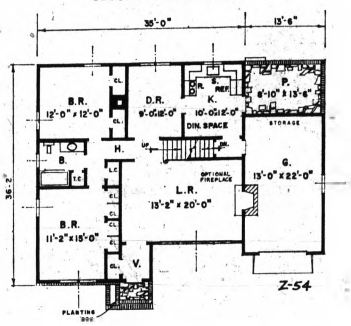
SNUG PACKAGE — With no pretensions to size or flashiness, this house nevertheless has an appearance of comfort and graciousness. Rear right hand corner gives glimpse of porch that could be enclosed, if desired, to provide a family room or den.



SECOND FLOOR PLAN



FIRST FLOOR PLAN

Flexible House Plan for Modest Budget

Economy and flexibility are effectively combined in this small Colonial. Essentially a two-bedroom house, it was designed for those who like the extra living space of an expansion floor but also have an effection for the outward appearance of a ranch.

The small family — a young husband and wife with one or two children, or perhaps a retirement couple — need only utilize the first floor's 1167 square feet of habitable area.

* * *

In addition to the two bedrooms, the owners would have a living room, dining room, kitchen, bathroom, a one-car garage and, behind the garage, a porch that could be left as is or enclosed to make a den or family room — all within overall dimensions of 48' 6" by 36' 2", including the garage and porch.

LATER

For the family that required two extra bedrooms, the upstairs area could be finished into two bedrooms and a bath as shown in the plans of architect William G. Chirgotis.

Even if this were not done during the original construction, the need for use of the expansion floor might arise at some later time.

The living room, to the right of the entrance hall, is 20' long, a good size for this type of room in a small house.

* * *

A picture window adds to the appearance both from the inside and the outside. The dining room, accessible from both the living room and the kitchen, has a window looking out to the rear.

U-SHAPE

Also to the rear is the step-saving U-shaped kitchen, with a full complement of appliance, a large countertop area and a maximum number of cabinets in a minimum amount of space.

Just off the kitchen is a porch, an ideal location for serving refreshments or quick snacks. This is the area that could be made into a den, a family room or whatever.

In front of the porch is a one-car garage which, of course, could be expanded to take care of two autos if desired and the land were available. As a matter of fact, the reverse is also true.

* * *

A family that wanted to cut down on construction costs could substitute a carport for the garage.

Both main floor bedrooms are at the left side of the house.

AMPLE CLOSETS

Each has ample closet space. The sizable bathroom is strategically located between the two rooms.

Plans for the upper floor include two bedrooms, one of which is 18' 6" long, a large bath and generous closet and storage space

* * *

The exterior is traditional in character except for the picture window.

Wood shingles, brick veneer, flush boarding and conventional gables give it a homey appearance.

FLOOR PLANS — Compact first-floor layout is suitable for small family, with everything necessary for good living. Second floor need be finished only if extra rooms were needed. Finished or not, the area provides a great deal of storage space.

Beat the Blues With Center

There's only one cure for "washday blues:" a home laundry center.

* * *

It need not be an elaborate setup, although it should be located in an area large enough to accommodate necessary facilities, including enough storage and work counter space.

* * *

Perhaps a little-used guest room or garage or an empty basement can be converted into a home laundry. If this is not feasible, a large closet can be outfitted with washer-dryer, shelves and drop-leaf counter on the back of the door.

Adequate plumbing is the most important consideration in planning a laundry center. But just as important is the choice of surfacings for walls, floor and countertops.

A material such as ceramic tile is ideal. It has all the necessary functional features: water and moisture resistance, stain resistance and durability. And it has a decorative diversity that can give the laundry room a cheery atmosphere.

OPTIONAL FEATURE — Artist's rendering shows fireplace at one end of living room, with traditional mantel around it. Fireplace, however, is listed as optional in architect's plans.

Z-54 STATISTICS

Design Z-54 has a living room, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms and a bath on the first floor, with a total habitable area of 1,167 square feet. Also on that floor are a one-car garage and a porch. The expansion second floor, if finished, gives 756 additional square feet of living space. The plans include a basement. Overall dimensions of 48' 6" by 36' 2" include the garage and porch.

Pole-Frame Takes Hurricane Winds

Wood pole-frame construction — the predominant structural system for farm service buildings — is also utilized for many beach-side homes, particularly those in areas which may be exposed to hurricanes.

* * *

A framework of pressure treated wood poles is embedded directly in soil or sand and the house is built around their upper extremities. Because of this elevation, hurricane spawned tidal waves can pass beneath the home without striking it directly.

* * *

Most pressure treated poles in the United States are of Southern Pine because of its strength and ease of treatment.

Check Equipment Before You Camp

In the middle of a summer rainstorm is a poor place to be reminded that you forgot to check your camping equipment. To get the most out of outings, the time to check your equipment is right now.

First, check your tent for rips or tears, and mend wherever necessary. Repairs of this type can be made with surprising ease these days. Just buy a small extra piece of inexpensive canvas or cotton drill — or use a good piece of fabric from a discarded tent. Even a section from an old shower curtain will do.

* * *

Cut a patch slightly larger than the tear, coat with a silicone rubber clear sealer, and press patch firmly to the underside of the tear.

The bond will cure completely within 24 hours, making a dependable waterproof seal, yet the sealant remains flexible after curing so that it will not pull loose under stress when the tent is put up and taken down frequently.

OTHER MENDABLES

A similar technique can also be used to mend rips in tent trailers, hammocks, canopies, awnings, outdoor furniture and other equipment made of canvas or heavy fabrics of this type.

If the tear is in the nylon screening of your tent, this material, too, can be purchased in small pieces by the yard and repairs made in much the same way. Since the sealer is translucent, the mend will hardly show.

Another point to check is water repellency, especially if your tent is an older model. Any of several types of colorless spray-on or brush-on water repellent may be used to restore it. Some of these also contain a mildew preventative, an especially desirable extra feature.

Once your basic equipment is serviceable again, look over your cooking, refrigeration, boating and other sporting gear, too, and then your outings should be smooth ones.

Shower Controls Going Modern

Modern shower controls have a range of settings, from needle spray to full flow. You can also get controls that enable you to preset the temperature you want before turning on the water.

The water then remains at that temperature, regardless of changes in pressure. No more sudden showers of scalding hot or icy cold water!

Window Styles Can Widen Outdoor View

If you're lucky enough to have a good view from more than one side of your house, don't lose sight of the advantage.

You may not want a fixed-sash picture window, or a bow or bay in every room, but there are other adaptable wood window styles that will bring the beauty of outdoors inside, and still suit the room in which they're installed.

* * *

For instance:

● Casement windows are an ideal way to give your kitchen a view. They swing outward at a 90-degree angle with the turn of an easy-to-reach handle, making them convenient for that awkward area above the sink.

* * *

Their uninterrupted glass area affords wide visibility, especially when used as double units or in a series above the countertop.

Casements are readily available at local lumber dealers in stock sizes of ponderosa pine.

● Sliders open to the left and right, and are suitable almost anywhere. Like casements, they open and close easily, and have no crossbars to interfere with the view.

● Awnings open upward and outward at a 90-degree angle for maximum ventilation, and come in stock sizes (some as large as approximately three by four feet) to give an expansive view.

● Hoppers are similar to awnings, except that they open inward and down. Either style can be stacked three or four across and atop one another to create the illusion of a glass wall.

They make an unusually distinctive window treatment used this way, especially in dining and family rooms.

● Sliding glass doors in wood sash are a natural for rooms that lead to patios, decks, terraces or a rustic-view backyard.

Insulating glass is recommended for glass doors, because, combined with the natural insulation of wood sash and factory-applied weatherstripping, it affords the best safeguard against heat loss in winter and heat gain in summer.

* * *

This assures that the room from which you will enjoy the changing beauty of the outdoors will be comfortable all year round.

CHILD'S ROOM — An outdoor view is welcome in any room. Here, stock ponderosa pine casement windows were used in a series of three to open up a youngster's bedroom to a pretty garden scene.

Slat Fence Popular

Today's favorite new fence probably is the vertical slat style. And there's good reason for its popularity: slat screens are a contradiction.

They look airily open, but make excellent privacy fencing. They appear almost delicate, yet offer bold lines and cast strong shadow patterns. They seem highly contemporary, but do lovely things for two-story, painted colonial homes.

And for whatever purpose fencing is needed, a slat screen fills the bill. Most intriguing is the seemingly infinite variety of patterns obtainable with a bundle of 1x1s, 1x2s, and 2x2s. In the basic pattern, 1x2 slats are nailed vertically to the face edges of 2x4-inch rails, leaving a space of one inch or a half-inch between slats.

But that pattern can be made virtually peek-proof if slats are repeated on the opposite side of the fence framing so that those on one side cover the spaces on the other.

VARIATION

Another variation consists of setting the fence's upper rail one foot lower than fence post tops and raising the bottom rail a foot above its normal position. Then full-length slats are applied with ends projecting the 12 inches beyond top and bottom rails. No cap board is used.

A completely different look results from grouping slats in threes and nailing them to alternating sides of the fence frame.

* * *

Or vary slat sizes to achieve the unusual. Set a 2x2 between groups of three 1x1s, keeping an equal half-inch spacing between all slats.

Another intriguing pattern is built using three slat sizes: a 2x2, next a 1x1, then a 1x2 set edge out, and another 1x1. Repeat. With that pattern, no spacing is needed between slats, but its layered, three-dimensional appearance retains the illusion of openness.

For a perfectly tailored appearance cut slats to fit between top and bottom rails, setting them against a nailing strip attached to each rail. That pattern is particularly good for low, decorative fencing and best results are obtained with 2x2s.

Usually, slats are rough-surfaced and the screens are allowed to weather or are finished with semi-transparent stain.

* * *

Even spacing between slats is achieved with spacer blocks — pieces of slats or lath cut to uniform length, which can be nailed in place to become part of the screen pattern.

Types of lumber to use include western red cedar, Douglas fir, white fir and ponderosa pine.

"IS STILL THE BEST INVESTMENT A FAMILY CAN MAKE . . . AND THE TIME TO BUY IS NOW. HERE ARE 8 GOOD REASONS WHY."

1 The price of land is going up . . . up . . . up. Just the other day a group of distinguished economists predicted real estate will go up 20% in the next three years.

2 The steady rise in population, in virtually every section of the nation, exerts a steady upward pressure on land prices.

3 Today, right now, you can find real bargains in new homes. See Kampsen Rlty. and you'll find the selection was never better.

4 Interest rates may go even higher. The actual difference between present and past interest rates is only a small factor in the cost of your home. For example: A one-half percent increase in interest rates is only $6 per month on a 25-year, $20,000 loan. Remember, your interest is deductible on your income tax.

5 Real estate is your best hedge against inflation. "No investment on earth is so safe, so sure, so certain to enrich its owner as real estate."

6 If you shop at Kampsen's, you'll find architects and builders are now figuring with sharper pencils, because of the moneystary lull in demand. You can save important money by acting now.

7 The family who buys now will be ahead of the family that continues to collect rent receipts. Each monthly payment builds equity. At the same time, the home can be increasing in value.

8 The best security in the whole world, for you, your wife and children, is the security of owning land.

Bugs Still On the Wing

Not Too Late to Check Screens

With summer here and temperatures high in most parts of the country windows are thrown open to admit refreshing cool breezes.

Therefore, now is a good time to make a careful inspection of all screens to be certain that there are no holes, tears, or separations from the frames which will let flying insects enter your home.

Screens that need repair cause annoyance and danger to the families' health from bites and stings. The Wire Weavers Association are cooperating with The Aluminum Association to call the public's attention to the need for screen care.

There has been some confusion between screen cloth woven from pure aluminum and substitutes in recent years. To assure the homeowner that the screen they buy is genuine aluminum, weavers this spring for the first time are attaching labels to their material for identification.

The foil labels printed in red and black feature the aluminum industry's symbol.

NOT HARD

Rescreening is a relatively simple procedure. An inspection will generally reveal the easiest and best method. Aluminum screen cloth is available at most hardware stores and building materials dealers. If you have a problem with rescreening your dealer will be glad to assist you.

Aluminum wire screen cloth is made in several widths. For economy pick the one closets to the size of the screen being repaired. Once the screening is trimmed to the proper size place it in the opening and secure it with nails, tacks or staples. In metal frames spline or structural members are used to secure the cloth.

The advantages of the genuine aluminum screen are many. The Wire Weavers mention the fact that aluminum does not build up static changes and attract airborne dust. This means that more air and light enter the home. It is easy to care for.

* * *

An occasional washing with a garden hose and brush is all that is needed. Aluminum screen will not billow and stays taut in its frame. Painting is not required. Manufacturers supply screen in a series of attractive colors as well as metallic aluminum. The color is applied before the wire is woven into screen cloth to assure a clear uniform air passage.

One damaged screen is all it takes to let annoying insects in your home. Be sure all windows that open are screened. Check all screens doors and patio sliding glass doors. Remember screens are available for basement windows as well as for the living area.

Combination Less Efficient

The long, hot summer is here, and all of us need to learn how to "cool it."

Too often, when the heating system is combined with the cooling system, the result is an unsatisfactory compromise. For the home to be most comfortable, each of these systems should be separate.

A good maxim to observe in dealing with these problems, is that "heated air rises and cooled air falls." If this rule is followed, heating units will be placed as low as possible on the outer perimeter of the home. This will create a curtain of warmth which will eliminate chills and drafts.

Cooling registers will be located as high as possible, close to the ceiling. The natural circulation of air will keep the home cool and comfortable.

BASEBOARD PANELS

By placing hydronic baseboard panels on the perimeter of your home, you are able to select the type of cooling units which are most adaptable to your home and budget.

It may be a separate overhead air conditioning system, individual window units or something as simple as an attic fan.

Water Cools Summer Air

When was the last time you went to a movie theater and it wasn't air conditioned? What new office building have you worked in or visited that didn't have air conditioning?

Back in the "Bonnie and Clyde" days that blazoned "refrigerated" on the marquee and advertised "air conditioned" on all the doors. Now we take it for granted, in the theater, or office, or anywhere.

* * *

There is one factor about these air conditioning systems that might surprise you. If you ask engineers familiar with the workings of larger buildings, they will tell you that most air conditioning systems use chilled water for cooling.

While the use of hot water for heating is common — many of today's homes have hydronic (modern hot water heating) systems—not so many people are familiar with the other role for water in comfort control — taking heat away when it is not wanted.

'CHILLER'

In cooling with water, water is cooled in a "chiller" and circulated to cooling units either right in the room or on the roof of large buildings. The chilled water "picks up" unwanted heat and is piped back to the chiller.

It's as simple as that, in principle, although the machinery is a bit more complicated, of course. But it isn't too complicated because there is increasing use of chilled water for larger and better residential systems.

Humidity of Summer

Now that the heat of summer is here, you may be complaining about too much humidity.

However, you need humidity in your home during the heating season when static electricity is a sure sign that your house is probably drier than the Gobi Desert.

To read up on the subject now, send for a free booklet available from the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau, 35 E. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill. 60601.

Ion-Exchange Softens Water

Water softener appliances today operate on the ion-exchange principle. As hard water flows through the unit, calcium and magnesium particles are attracted to a permanent bed of softening materials.

There they remain as the fully softened water flows on through the house.

Why continue dreaming! No doubt you've had a yearning to build a hide-away for you and your family ... a home away from home ... where you can escape to for complete relaxation. A place to spend your summers or weekends.

Build your own precision-cut "World of Leisure," but before you do, learn more about planning and materials by sending one dollar ($1.00) for our Second Home booklet today.

Tag Sales Are Becoming Big Business

Tag sales at home are becoming a lucrative business all over the United States because just about everything one owns, even something in disrepair, may be worth something to someone else. So say Pat Fay and Carole Maddock of Westport, Conn., who conduct such sales.

Before tag sales became big business, most people tagged their own saleables — books, bird cages, a beat-up dining room table and advertised it — just to make a few dollars and avoid carrying the stuff to a dump.

* * *

But tag sales have grown to where they are often conducted by professionals like Mrs. Fay and Mrs. Maddock. Some people sell everything they own when they move and many estates find sales less bothersome than auctions.

"Frequently, there is not enough in a house to justify the demand. One customer finally took down curtains she had planned to leave at windows, washed and ironed them as we sold them slightly damp," says Mrs. Fay.

Often, Mrs. Fay and Mrs. Maddock are too late to save treasures that have already been relegated to trash by their clients. They dig in boxes of discards and find as they did recently, a handsome Tiffany vase. But alas, it was broken.

Lesson No. 1, they say, is: Don't throw anything away. Tag it and see if you can sell it.

"We look around for things hidden from view that owners have forgotten about. That's how we found a wonderful Quezelle lamp globe (blue and greenish) that a dealer bought for $125."

* * *

Mrs. Maddock and Mrs. Fay both wanted it but they decided it would end their partnership if either bought it.

They prefer to work for estate lawyers who hand them keys and give them carte blanche in the uninhabited house where they can peacefully uncover the dirt, wash, sort and tag.

COLLECTORS

"Everybody is sort of a collector at heart and we find the strangest things in the most unlikely spots. We always manage to sell odd batches of anything."

They unloaded 100 pairs of eye glasses — teen-agers wanted the old-fashioned frames. They sold innumerable dental tools stashed away all over one house at $1 each. An old barn produced 150 beautiful old Japanese fans— easy to sell.

Most people have trouble pricing articles. One woman thought $10 would be great for a music box in disrepair. It had an inlaid cover and played five tunes. The girls sold it for $150.

* * *

At such savings, it pays homemakers to hire them for the 25 per cent fee, they figure.

One woman said they could have her sale if they could pull it off that afternoon. How to inform the 500 clients on their mailing list? It was too late for a newspaper ad.

SELL OUT

They telephoned, rushed to the house and tagged the wares and sold practically everything.

There is a big demand for sofas, dining room sets, used chests, desks. Many tag sale followers are now permanent clients and the girls keep a list of things wanted — refrigerators, freezers, a harvest table.

One man called them for a bathtub with legs. A movie star has asked them to sell his old sofa. He just wants the price of the slipcover — $60.

* * *

They get gussied up for the first day of a big sale but soon they are crawling around in dungarees and flats. It's hard work.

* * *

"That's why we both go to gym classes every day," explains Mrs. Fay. "It's to keep fit so that we can pick up something like a color television set and quickly run to an owner's car with it before she changes her mind."

Mrs. Maddock had one frustrating experience when they were conducting an indoor-outdoor sale in the pouring rain. One woman looked up a tree and said "how much for the bird house?"

* * *

Carole glanced and said $2. It developed she had sold a $1,500 museum sculpture. The buyer willingly returned it when she was contacted.

"We've both furnished our homes in Early Tag Sale," explains Mrs. Maddock, mother of two, who spends her off days stashes her overbuys next door where Mrs. Fay lives with her husband and four children.

FRENCH—No wonder brides love French provincial furnishings. Nothing could be nicer than the delicately sculptured charms that characterize the style. New Coquette is a happy marriage between traditional beauty and hard-working modern manners.

Vapor Barrier

In airconditioned homes, use of aluminum foil vapor barriers within the walls and ceilings helps to stop outside vapor from infiltrating the house. The vapor barrier should be placed facing the interior portion of the wall.

What to Look for When Furniture Shopping

Furnishing a first home? More than 1.8 million brides are doing just that this year — and buying far more for their money than their mothers ever dreamt of.

In a world in which more and more seem to purchase less and less, furniture is literally a buy of a lifetime — at prices, by and large, that are lower than ever for value that's higher. The secret is modern materials and manufacturing methods.

* * *

As a matter of fact, while good furniture isn't cheap, there's no longer any reason for the new bride to live with makeshifts and make-dos while waiting to buy "real" furniture. For the bride who knows what she's looking for, the real thing is available right now, at sensible prices.

There doesn't even have to be anything intimidating about a furniture shopping trip — not when you know the language (furniture phrases can be baffling to the ininitiated) and have armed yourself with a list of wants and "waits."

BEDROOM

First, on the most-wanted list is a beautiful — and beautifully livable — bedroom. Comfort, quality and convenience count — and no wonder. Today's typical working-girl bride spends better than 50 per cent of her at-home time in the bedroom.

Company quarters can wait. Just fill in the wide-open living room spaces with plants and decorative accents, while you're waiting to find just the right almost-antiques or contemporary classics. Friends won't mind — and family may even take the hint and help out with the purchase of major pieces.

Bedrooms are a different story; personal comfort can't wait. First decision to make involves style; today's most popular choices, according to Johnson-Carper, one of America's leading manufacturers, reflect the sunniest Mediterranean mood. Smart Spanish provincial retains a romantic flair — with the monumental massivity of the Iberian original scaled down to fit small modern rooms.

* * *

Spanish or other, furniture styles fall into four major groups: traditional, for regal elegance; provincial, for graceful charm; early American, for casual living; contemporary, for lively young moderns.

DOUBLE-DUTY

In any style setting, smart shoppers can marry form to function, with double-duty pieces that look luxurious while they turn corners, climb walls and convert the cramped quarters that spell "first home" into a family castle. Newest of all are the build-your-own-wall-chest, shelf and table combinations that are happily at home — and nicely un-"bedroomy" — even in one-room apartments.

* * *

Favorite choices are Brocado and Entonado — both Spanish-styled — and delicately sculptured French Coquette. But don't be fooled by their traditional facades; like all of today's best furniture buys, they hide hard-working traits for practical-minded young moderns.

Actually, looking behind the surface is always a good idea. Quality checkpoints tell the inside story — particularly important in choosing the wood pieces (the trade calls them case goods) that are a bride's basic buys.

High on the checklist of qualities to look for are finish and veneer. Finish should show skillfully-matched graining. You'll want veneered furniture, with a fine wood laminated on the surface, to cut the weight of solid wood and reduce a price that would otherwise be prohibitive — but you won't want a clumsy "patchwork" effect.

BEHIND SCENES

Check what other people won't see, too. Words to remember are interlocking dovetailing (for drawer rigidity), center guiding (for easy drawer opening without slipping), dustrpoofing (panels between the drawers to create individual compartments) and lamination (the addition of a wood-matching plastic top surface to resist spots, scratches and stains).

Check doors to make sure they don't drag or rub; swing them to see that they hang right. And don't be afraid to tug on the hardware, to check that it's firmly attached. It won't take long — and you will be sure that your furniture is as pleasing to live with as it is to look at.

Choice made? Before you leave the store, check your salesman to make sure that the style is part of an "open stock" line, incorporating many units. You won't buy them all at once — but it's the only way to be sure that you can expand your living comforts as you expand your space, without losing the integrated look that makes for a firm fashion foundation.

* * *

Do your shopping early, too. Furniture is made to order, instead of being stored in a warehouse so delivery can take a little time, and you don't want to worry. After all, you have a beautiful wedding coming up — and you deserve to relax, and enjoy it.

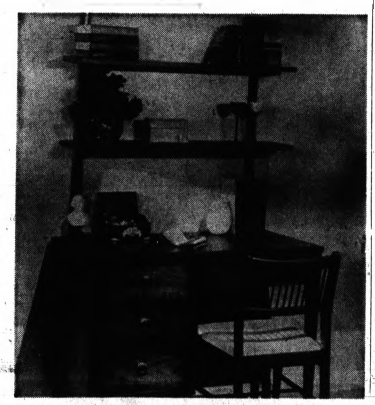
MEDITERRANEAN MOOD — Make the most of a first home's limited space, without sacrificing style. Smartest space-savers turn corners, climb walls, look as happily at home in an open-space studio now as they do later in a separate bedroom or living room corner. And nicely enough, the pampered look never gives away the hard-working storage secrets inside.

Cool Ways to Beat Heat

Is central air conditioning necessary? The answer may be no in many northern areas of the country — especially where there are fewer than ten days when the weather becomes so hot that homes are uncomfortable.

Homeowners can do much to relieve the summer heat without installing central air conditioning.

Tall shade trees and light-colored roof shingles that reflect heat, for instance, will cut down much of the heat. So will an attic fan and extra home insulation. Individual room air conditioners may be used for certain "high heat" rooms.



WORK CORNER — Find a corner for a desk — and the bride's bedroom does double-duty. Most useful new units combine work space and shelf-storage; modern-minded women add a mar-resistant plastic top, blending with wood, to stop common spills from permanently staining fine furniture surface.

Stress Daily Bible Reading

Guidance of God Needed in Our Life

NEW YORK — The President, a high-ranking army officer and a well-known business leader, all named Johnson, are among prominent persons across the country who are stressing the need for daily Bible reading.

★ ★ ★

President Lyndon B. Johnson, honorary chairman of National Bible Week, sponsored by the American Bible Society and the Laymen's National Committee, Oct. 20-27, affirms that, "The Bible is a binding and abiding force in a world too often gripped by hatred and prejudice."

★ ★ ★

In a letter to the ABS, General Harold Keith Johnson, 24th Army Chief of Staff, who survived the 1942 Bataan death march, wrote," in Japanese prison camps I again turned to the Bible . . . I can say categorically that the Bible has had a profound influence on my life."

★ ★ ★

President Johnson recently pinned an oakleaf cluster to General Johnson's Distinguished Service Medal saying, "The Army is a stronger, more responsible . . . more humane service because Johnny Johnson was its leader."

★ ★ ★

And Wallace E. Johnson, president of Holiday Inns of America, Inc., in accepting the chairmanship of National Bible Week said," We need more than ever the guidance of God daily in our lives, in our business, in all our domestic and foreign affairs."

HAND PAINTED — Mrs. Maurice Fitzgerald of 5111 Elizabeth Lake, Waterford Township shows the Bavarian china she painted for the annual festival of St. Perpetua Catholic Church to Mrs. Thomas Sweetman of 5925 Loch Leven, Waterford Township. Life of St. Martin de Porres Featured in Living Rosary at St. Joseph Church

For the past 18 years St. Joseph Catholic Church, Bagley and West South Blvd. has been host for the Living Rosary Pageant, under the direction of Mrs. John Stevenson of Union Lake and Mrs. Louis Koprince of 147 E. Howard.

★ ★ ★

Cosponsors for the 8 p.m. pageant Thursday are the Pontiac Daughters of Isabella and Knights of Columbus.

The Living Rosary seeks to dramatize the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Mysteries of the Rosary.

This year's theme, "Mary Queen of Saints," features the life of St. Martin de Porres and the Mysteries of the Rosary.

The twilight program begins with an organ recital by David Scull on the church grounds.

★ ★ ★

St. Martin de Porres, a Dominican lay brother, received the highest honor of the Catholic Church on May 6, 1962, when he was officially raised to the rank of sainthood by Pope John XXIII.

The process of canonization is usually a long and arduous one by which the Catholic Church officially recognizes men and women of outstanding virtue.

Martin was born in Lima, Peru on Dec. 9, 1579 in a hut opposite what was once the Hospital of the Holy Spirit.

The room, now enclosed within a large mansion, has been turned into a chapel and publicly authenticated by the City Council of Lima.

In a special ceremony during the celebration in honor of St. Martin in November 1939, the Third Centenary of his death, the City Fathers attached a bronze plaque to the wall of the room in which he was born.

★ ★ ★

Martin's father was Don Juan de Porres, a native of Spain and a knight of Alcantara. His mother was Anna Velasquez, a freed Negro woman from Panama. They had one child, Juana.

St. Martin de Porres entered the order of St. Dominic at an early age and spent the rest of his 60 years of life serving the physical and spiritual needs of the poor.

★ ★ ★

It was chiefly through his influence that a rich merchant and his wife established a school and orphanage of the Holy Cross for disinherited youth of Peru.

Because of his great charity for unfortunates of all classes, he is the symbol of Interracial fraternity and class solidarity of the Catholic Church.

State Fair Sunrise Service on Aug. 25

Judge Luther W. Youngdahl, senior member of the U.S. district court in Washington, D.C., will be the speaker at the 18th annual Sunrise Service on Religion Day at the 119th Michigan State Fair, which runs from Aug. 23, through Sept. 2.

* * *

The announcement was made by E. J. "Jeff" Keirns, State Fair general manager, and Dr. Robert L. Kincheloe, executive director of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches, co-sponsor of the Sunrise Service.

Religion Day will be Aug. 25, with the service at 8 a.m.

Worshippers will be admitted free to the Fairgrounds until that time.

FIRST SUNRISE SPEAKER

Judge Youngdahl was speaker for the first State Fair Sunrise Service in 1951 when he was governor of Minnesota and again in 1953 and 1965. He has been one of the most popular of the long list of speakers at the Sunrise Service which annually attracts up to 10,000 persons.

Top Businessmen Serve Bible Week

NEW YORK — Seeking a return to the Bible by businessmen, more than 100 top executives in corporations across the country are serving as industry chairmen for National Bible Week, Oct. 20-27, an interfaith program co-sponsored by the American Bible Society and the Laymen's National Committee.

The announcement was made by Wallace E. Johnson, president of Holiday Inns of America, Inc., and chairman of National Bible Week.

Mr. Johnson is also chairman of the Bible Society's Worldwide Bible Reading program which continues through Thanksgiving.

A self-made multimillionaire from Memphis, Tenn., who began his extraordinary rags-to-riches career with a $250 loan, Mr. Johnson stresses the responsibility of the laity "to persuade as many Americans as possible to become daily readers of the Bible."

Ecumenical Texts Readied for Teens

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ecumenical history will be made this fall when for the first time about 250,000 Protestant and Roman Catholic teen-agers will study about the Bible and Christian beliefs from the same textbooks.

The spark of sin in our hearts can also blaze up into what put Him on the cross. — Arthur L. Miller, American playwright.

The Rev. Mr. Becker, a graduate of Bob Jones University, was awarded the master of arts degree in 1959.

While attending Bob Jones University, he spent several summers doing evangelistic work in Latin America.

Currently Mr. Becker spends the major part of his time in speaking engagements on behalf of Gospel Fellowship Missions.

The 68th U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship becomes history today and over-all the members of Birmingham Country Club must be lauded for the way they handled the tournament.

The consensus of opinion of the contestants was in high praise for the hospitality extended them and the courtesies of the officials and galleries.

The gate security has to be commended for its alertness and the exhuberance of some of the ladies watching the gates was at times more hilarious than it was irritating.

* * *

On the fourth day of the tournament, Thursday, this writer, loaded down with briefcase, notebooks, papers and pocketful of pencils and no badge in sight startled the ladies at the gate by boldly walking through their security.

"Goodness, where are you going? Where's your badge? How did you get in? Where are you from?, etc., etc., etc."

Before we could answer the first question, one of the ladies whisked us into the car, closed the door and we were on our way to the clubhouse door.

"Whew," said the lady, "if I let you in without a badge the guard will be after me."

"McCaffrey, you did it again, he would say," continued the lady.

EXPLANATION GIVEN

I finally explained that when we changed shirts the badge was left on the shirt worn the day before.

But the explanation apparently wasn't convincing. As we reached the door to the press room, our lady guard assigned another watchman to escort us to our typing headquarters.

* * *

Meanwhile, back at the gate our young photographer Ron Unternahrer ,loaded down with camers, cases and equipment, and just as startled, offered to waive his non-frisk rights to be permitted to enter.

Ron's approach to the gate brought everyone to their feet waving at the huge sign which read "no photography" with the words "except accredited Press" in small letters.

The shock at seeing the cameras gave one of the ladies a chance to practice her authority, with "Oh, no. Definitely not. No cameras. You can't come in, and the same line of questioning we received, etc., etc., etc.

* * *

With perspiration rolling down his brow from the three hundred yard walk from his car, the cringing young photographer then had his turn at being whisked into a car heading for the clubhouse.

GETS PINNED

He was led by the wrist to the press room where badges were pinned on him from all sides and credentials of all sorts for parking and walking were stuffed into his pocket.

"Wow, I thought I was trying to smuggle my way into Cape Kennedy," Ron said as we met to discuss our plans for photo coverage of the tournament.

During our conversation, we did get a chance to wave at our lady friend, Mrs. McCafrey, who was back to check to see if our entry was really legitimate.

* * *

After five hours on the course and at the typewriter, we deliberated our leaving.

We waved good luck to Ron as he left and he returned the wish.

As we compared our Thursday escape routes on Friday we set up our plans for today.

But really the tournament was great. The security was good. Working conditions have been beautiful.

Tigers' Sparma, Manager Playing Down Brief Rift

BOSTON (AP) — Pitcher Joe Sparma and Manager Mayo Smith of the Detroit Tigers are both playing down the controversial incident in which Sparma was yanked and spoke out against the action.

"It was a personal incident that one time in that one game," Sparma said Friday night. "I said the things I said then, and I don't have anything to add now."

* * *

What Sparma said then, after Smith took him out in the fourth inning of a scoreless game at Cleveland, was that he was "completely embarrassed" and "humiliated."

"I just wanted Sparma to go as far as he could and then bring Lolich in," Smith said.

"The most important thing is winning the ball game," Smith said. "After Sparma thinks about it a while he'll be all right."

Sparma indicated he didn't intend to question his manager's strategy in this regard.

Boston 25th Victim, 4-0

McLain Stiff, Tired—But Loose at Right Time

BOSTON (AP) — Denny McLain says his arm feels stiff at the beginning of games and more tired than usual at the end nowadays, but it looks as though it will take more than that to keep him from becoming the major leagues' first 30-game winner since 1934.

"Thirty games? Sure it's on my mind," the Detroit righthander said Friday night after shuting out Boston 4-0 to boost his record to 25-3 and the Tigers American League lead to eight games.

"Think abou it. I know what it can mean to me. But No. 1 is the pennant. If we don't win the pennant, I could win 45 games and it wouldn't make any difference."

McLain said his arm is definitely more tired now than it has been at this stage in past seasons—and with good reason.

* * *

"I've pitched more than 250 innings already," he said. "I think it's understandable that my arm is more tired. It has to be more tired. It's beginning to tell on me—especially in the eighth and ninth innings."

ANOTHER PROBLEM

The Tiger right-hander said an equally big problem, however, is getting loose early in the game.

"My arm is tight and stiff," he said. "Tonight, for instance, I didn't really get in the groove until about the fifth or sixth inning."

* * *

As it turned out, that was just the right time. The Tigers were leading 2-0 on Al Kaline's third inning homer when the Red Sox got runners on second and third with nobody out in the sixth and the heart of their batting order coming up.

* * *

McLain turned on the steam to pitch out of the jam by striking out Dalton Jones, Carl Yastrzemski and Ken Harrelson in order.

The confrontation with Yaz was the most dramatic, as the 1967 triple crown winner got behind 0-2 on the count but then fouled off several pitches before fanning on a high and tight fast ball.

Detroit Manager Mayo Smith came to the mound after that to discuss the possibility of walking Harrelson, the league runs batted in leader, but McLain said he decided "to take my chances with him."

* * *

After that it was fairly clear sailing, although McLain had to pitch out of a two on, two out jam in the seventh, and if he was tired at the end it didn't show.

"He's the toughest in the league by far," Yastrzemski said. "He's throwing pitchers' pitches this year—not just strikes but tough strikes."

Even Jim Lonborg, 1967 Cy Young Award winner whom McLain seems a sure bet to succeed, couldn't conceal his admiration.

* * *

Lonborg said after pitching the first seven innings and taking the loss.

"He's pretty exciting to watch," Lonborg said.

"Even when you're pitching against him?" the Red Sox right-hander was asked.

"No, I hate his guts then," Lonborg grinned.

UNBEATEN ON ROAD

McLain's victory was his seventh in a row and the 16th in his last 17 decisions. It also was his sixth shutout and 22nd complete game of the year, and lifted his phenomenal road record to 16-0.

The Detroit ace also stayed ahead of the pace of the most recent 30-game winners. Dizzy Dean, last pitcher to accomplish the feat, didn't win his 25th game until Sept. 10, 1934, while Lefty Grove, the last American League hurler to do it, got his 25th on August 19, 1931.

Women's Amateur Final 'Dream Match'

Ex-Champions to Finally Meet

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The "dream match" of women's amateur golf, which would be the parallel of a head to head clash between Arnold Palmer and Nicklaus, began today in the 36 hole finale of the U.S. Women's Amateur Championship at Birmingham Country Club.

Two veteran amateurs, Mrs. Jo Anne Gunderson Carner and Mrs. Ann Quast Welts, who have dominated this tournament with seven victories in the last 11 years, face each other in the finals for the first time today.

* * *

Mrs. Carner prevented a foreign break through for the title yesterday when she eliminated 23 year old French golf star Catherine Lacoste, 4-3, with a birdie spree on the back nine.

In the other semifinal match Mrs. Welts ended the hope of giving Michigan its first champion when she defeated hard working Joyce Kazmierski of Grosse Ile, 2-1.

LONG TIME RIVALS

Mrs. Carner and Mrs. Welts have been partners and rivals ever since their younger teen-age days when they lived near Seattle.

"We've never met each other in the finals of this tournament," said Mrs. Carner, "but Ann and I have played each other 7 times in various tournaments and it's been a real close series."

Mrs. Carner holds a one up advantage in their rivalry and in today's final round, she will have a chance to win her 5th U.S. Amateur title, or Mrs. Welts will gain her fourth.

Most often winner in this amateur championship is Glenna Collett who won the crown in 1922-25-28-29-30 and again in 1935 as Mrs. Edwin Vare Jr.

* * *

Mrs. Carner who won the title at the age of 17 in 1957, relinquished it in 1958 to Mrs. Welts.

Jo Anne recaptured the crown in 1960-62-66 while Ann Quast Welts was the champion in 1961 and 1962.

Mrs. Carner, who is one of the most powerful swingers in women's golf, won four straight holes from Miss Lacoste starting at No. 12 with a par and then with three straight birdies to end it on the 15th.

TAKES LEAD

Mrs. Lacoste, who led the 36 hole qualifying with a one under 143 took the lead on the second hole with a 12 foot birdie putt, but she lost No. 3 when her sand shot went over the green to force her to bogey.

The French women's champion went one up again on No. 6 with a par but Mrs. Carner evened it at No. 9 with a par.

* * *

Mrs. Carner's approach shots were deadly as she started her four hole winning streak and on the par-3 No. 15 hole she dropped in a 27 foot birdie putt to end it.

Miss Kazmierski, 1966 Intercollegiate champion while at Michigan State, and the current Michigan amateur champ, broke the deadlock in her match by winning No. 4 when Mrs. Welts three putted.

On No. 5 Joyce had trouble in the rough and the match was back to even as she bogeyed.

CHIP FALLS SHORT

Miss Kazmierski went behind on No. 8 when her chip shot fell short of the green and she had to pitch and two putt for a bogey-6.

Both golfers went par for the next three holes and then halved No. 13 with birdies.

* * *

When Mrs. Welts trapped her approach on No. 14, Joyce parred and this evened the match.

They halved No. 15 with pars, but Joyce lost 16 with a bogey and Mrs. Welts finished it in spectacular fashion with a 4-iron approach which stopped three feet from the pin for her birdie.

"She deserved to win it," said a dejected but complimentary Miss Kazmierski.

* * *

"She finished me off with a couple of great shots, she certainly didn't back into it," Joyce added.

"I wasn't too sharp with my putting, I wasn't lining them up too well," she added.

The final 18 of the 36 hole finale today was scheduled to start at 2 p.m.

LOSER — Miss Joyce Kazmierski of Grosse Ile completes a chip shot which failed on the 8th hole at Birmingham Country Club where she took a bogey-6. Joyce lost her semifinal match in the U.S. Women's Amateur, 2-1 to Mrs. Ann Quast Welts yesterday.

LONG RIVALRY — They have dominated the U.S. Amateur Championship for the past 11 years, but Mrs. Ann Quast Welts (left) and Mrs. Jo Anne Gunderson Carner have never faced each other in the finals, that is until today. They are meeting in a 36-hole finale at Birmingham Country Club.

Reserve Passer Aids Colt Win

WASHINGTON (AP) — Terry Southall won the game for the Baltimore Colts but he hasn't won a job.

The taxi squad quarterback from Baylor hit three straight passes for 66 yards in a lastminute push to set up Lou Michael's field goal for a 15-13 victory over the Washington Redskins in a National Football League preseason test Friday night.

* * *

Southall won praise from allpro Johnny Unitas for the clutch drive that resembled the familiar heroics of the Colt master passer, but Coach Don Shula said the question of a backup quarterback to Unitas this season is still up in the air.

"It's like this," Shula said, flipping his hand, one side up, then the other. He shrugged, "we might even trade for a quarterback."

Strong Finish for Pontiac Entry in U.S. Jaycee Event

Special to The Press

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Jon Costello of Ponitac turned on a strong finishing sprint to win his 880 semifinals race here Friday in the rain-drenched opening day of the U.S. Jaycees' Junior Champ national track and field meet.

Costello passed four other runners in the final 80 yards to finish in 1:55.3 — fastest clocking of the day in the four half-mile heats. The final is this afternoon.

Rochester's Bob Woodroof also impressed by winning his preliminary and semifinal heats in the 220-yard dash. His :22.2 timing in the semifinals was the day's best on the wet track at the University of Oregon.

Mike Koerner, a miler from Birmingham, is in today's finals, too, running a 4:22.3 to place fourth in the qualifying.

TEAM CHANCES

With John Morrison of Redford Township (high hurdles), shot putter Gay Van Elst of Middleville and Willie Polk of Flint (100-yard dash) also reaching the finals after impressive showings, Michigan's chances are good for a high finish in the team standings.

High jumper John Mann of Farmington and pole vaulter Larry Biskner of Waterford also made it into the finals.

Mann cleared 5-10, 6-0 and 6-2 without a miss in the high jump qualifying, while Biskner cleared 12-6 and 13-0 without missing in the pole vault qualifying.

* * *

Kevin Reabe of Waterford placed second at :50.4 in his preliminary heat of the 440 but failed to make it past the semifinals when he ran fifth. Only the first four places were timed.

Title Action Resumes in Softball Today

Action resumes at 6:30 p.m. today in the Class B district softball tournament at the Drayton Plains Park with Ferndale holding an early lead on Day's Sanitary of Waterford Township.

The Republic Underwriters nine grabbed a 3-1 margin after 2½ innings Friday night before rain forced a postponement of the action.

The game will be resumed at that point. The Ferndale nine must win to force a second contest to determine the district titlist. If necessary, the second game would be at 8 p.m.

Coho Sighted for 4 Miles

Conservation Department fisheries workers today reported locating a large school of coho salmon stretching 4 miles long about 2 miles west of Arcadia toward Frankfort.

The concentration of coho is the largest sighted in their survey efforts this summer.

* * *

The Arcadia-to-Frankfort area now marks the northern-most point that the fish have been discovered in their migration from lower Lake Michigan toward parent streams where they will make their spawning runs this fall.

Nets set by department fisheries men in this new sighting area turned up 11 coho averaging about 9 pounds. The largest coho taken weighed 13 pounds, 8 ounces.

Also found in the nets were two chinook salmon; one a 7-pound, 8-ounce maturing female, the other a 2½-pounder.

* * *

Netting of these fish confirms the earlier prediction of fisheries men that a few precocious chinook would this fall move up the Little Manistee River, where the department planted more than 500,000 of the fish as smolts in the spring of 1967.

Other survey findings indicate that a smattering of early-running chinook will also ascend the Muskegon River, where about 200,000 of them were released a year ago last spring.

Additional recent reports point to good coho fishing this weekend between Pentwater and Manistee in Lake Michigan if weather conditions allow anglers to get on the big, unpredictable waters.

Best action is expected two to six miles offshore in these waters in depths 50 to 60 feet below the surface.

Jim Kaat Halts Orioles, 5-2

By The Associated Press

Jim Kaat batted and pitched the Minnesota Twins to a 5-2 victory over Baltimore last night, dropping the second place Orioles eight games off the American League pace.

In other games, Lou Johnson's bases loaded hit in the 12th lifted Cleveland by the Chicago White Sox 4-3, Roy White's run-scoring double in the sixth inning sent the New York Yankees past Oakland 2-1 and Washington scored four unearned runs for a 4-2 victory over California.

* *

Kaat ruined Baltimore as he doubled in three runs in th esecond inning and then pitched out of repeated trouble, striking out 12 and scattering nine hits to even his record at 9-9.

Need Qualifying in Western Open

A record entry has forced a qualifying round for the Western Amateur which gets under way next Tuesday at Grosse Ile Golf & Country Club.

With an entry of 284, the sponsoring Western Golf Association is sending 135 of the players into 18-hole qualifying rounds at two sites.

* * *

A field of 54 was slated to play for 16 places today at Knollwood Club in Chicago, while 81 will go after 19 berths in an 18-hole round Monday at Plum Hollow Country Club in Southfield.

The field of 180 will then play 36 holes of stroke play Tuesday and Wednesday with the low 50 after Wednesday's round playing 36 more holes on Thursday. After the 72-hole medal competition, the low 16 then move to match play on Fri-

Minnesota's Tony Oliva also took over the league batting lead with three hits for a .307 average while teammate Rod Carew went hitless and fell to .302.

INFIELD HIT

Johnson's infield hit for Cleveland came with one out after the White Sox tied the score in the ninth on Pete Ward's two-out, two-run homer, his 12th.

Tom Tresh gave New York a 1-1 tie with his 10th homer in the third inning and White won it after Jake Gibbs singled and Mickey Mantle walked against Jim Nash, 10-8.

Lindy McDaniel worked out of jams in the seventh and eighth inning to save Al Downing's first victory.

* * *

An error by Winston Llenas in the fourth inning opened the way for two Washington runs, one on a wild pitch and the other on Bernie Allen's hit, and errors by Jim Fregosi and Tom Satriano led to Del Unser's sacrifice fly and Ken McMullen's run-scoring hit in the fifth.

Joe Coleman, 9-13, with relief in the eighth, got the victory.

Golf Champ Will Defend

Mrs. Evans Expecting Closer Competition

It was a snap last year, but the test is expected to be a little stiffer Monday as Mrs. Max Evans of Southfield opens defense of her Women's Metropolitan Golf Association medal play championship.

The 54-hole tournament is slated for Tyrone Hills near Fenton and play opens with 18 holes Monday.

Mrs. Evans won the title last year by a whopping 14 strokes in competition at Partridge Creek near Mount Clemens.

The Southfield shotmaker put together rounds of 90-86-87 for a 263. Runner-up was Mrs. G. F. Langford of Dearborn Heights with a 277.

The 1966 champion Mrs. Nick Panasiuk of Elmhurst, Ont., had to bypass the event because of the rioting in Detroit, but she's expected to be on hand for this year's tournament.

Helps Win Match

An ace on the 175-yard 15th hole yesterday helped William Serman win his second flight match in the Tam O'Shanter club championships. He used a three wood and posted an 80 for the round.

Lions Acquire 2 Ballcarriers

Trade With Packers, Buy From CFL Team

The Detroit Lions made two deals in search of a running back to fill the void caused by Nick Eddy's surgery yesterday.

Giving up an undisclosed draft choice to the Green Bay Packers, the Lions obtained back Brendan McCarthy of Boston College.

* * *

The Omaha Mustangs of the Continental Football League have also announced that the Lions purchased back Pete Tatman for the standard CFL purchase price of $7,500.

McCarthy, 23, is a 6-3 and 220-pound halfback was the Packers' fourth round draft choice this year.

KNEE INJURY

Eddy had surgery Friday to correct damage to the right knee. He missed all of last season with a knee injury, and suffered the new injury in the exhibition game with Buffalo two weeks ago.

The Lions have a week off from exhibition play, but will meet the Baltimore Colts at Tiger Stadium, next Friday night. Detroit is 1-1 in exhibition play.

Spanish Ace Wins

U.S. Netters Tied, 1-1

CLEVELAND (UPI) — A hot Spaniard played it cool as Spain forged a 1-1 tie with the United States in the Davis Cup interzone tennis competition.

Manuel Santana, billed as the best of the amateurs when it comes to important international matches, handed hometowner Clark Graebner his first setback in Davis Cup singles play.

* * *

"Santana handled the mental pressure well and Clark didn't," was the way Donald Dell, the captain of the U.S. team, put it after the match Friday.

Santana's 6-2, 6-3, 6-3 defeat of Graebner left it up to Army Lt. Arthur Ashe to salvage the day. The Virginian downed Juan Gisbert 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 in the second set of singles.

DOUBLES TODAY

Neither Dell nor Spanish captain Jaime Bartoli has revealed their doubles lineup for today. They can wait until one hour before the 1:30 p.m. match begins before doing so.

Based on Friday's play, it would seem certain that Santana will figure in the lineup. Dell said he also expects Spain to file Manuel Orentes in the doubles.

* * *

Ashe is not a doubles man so Dell will have to draw on Graebner, Bob Lutz or Charles Pasarell for his team.

Friday's split insured a down-to - the - wire finish for the matches. Had Spain shutout the U.S., it would have only needed the doubles win today to clinch the best-of-five series.

Graebner's problem seemed to be his inability to keep his service Friday and Santana worked a flashy ground game to perfection and ousted Graebner in less than 1½ hours.

The victory was extra sweet for the Spanish ace who was defeated in straight set play by Graebner at Wimbledon six weeks ago. Graebner's loss was the first defeat for the U.S. team in Davis Cup play this year.

The tournament winds up Sunday with Graebner meeting Gisbert and Ashe tackling Santana in singles.

Miss Mann Has Her Day

ST. LOUIS (AP) — On her first tee shot Carol Mann hooked the ball into a clump of trees. The ball kicked right out into the center of the fairway.

"I knew right then it was going to be my day," the 6-foot-3 inch Buffalo, N.Y. native laughed.

It was.

The blonde-haired amazon fired a par 69 on the Norwood Hills Country Club course Friday for a one-stroke lead in the $16,000 Holiday Inn Invitational Ladies Professional Golf Tournament.

* * *

And even when Sandra Haynie had a chance for a tie on the 18th hole, Carol still had the charm of the day working. Miss Haynie's 10-foot putt fell six inches short of the hole. That left Miss Haynie tied with three others at 70.

The others tied at 70 at the end of the first round were Judy Kimball, Peggy Wilson and Marilyn Smith.

Local Skaters Win Four National Titles

Special to The Press

LINCOLN, Neb. — Pontiac Rolladium skaters have chalked up four first places and will be seeking three more here today in the North American Roller Skating Championships.

ROBYN

Kurt Anselmi captured the junior boy's figures and Robyn White pulled a surprise in the novice ladies' singles. Lex Kane won the juvenile boy's singles and Randy Wardlow sped off with the junior boy's speed title.

* * *

The meet, which concludes today, has been running since Monday.

Gerry Gohs of Rolladium lost his five-mile speed title when he placed second. He also was runner-up in the senior men's speed.

Kane added another second place to the local club's total in the juvenile B boy's speed. Mary Heath was third in the girl's division and her brother, Robert, was third in the juvenile boy's C division.

* * *

Kane and Kim Anselmi placed fifth in the junior pairs.

The three events to be skated today are the juvenile boy's figures in which Kane is entered; the novice ladies' figures with Sue Gravelin competing; and the senior men's figures with Ron Gustafson the Rolladium entry.

Dale Seavoy Bowls 2668 in 12 Games

From Our News Wires

WAUKEGAN, Ill. — Birmingham's Dale Seavoy averaged 222 for 12 games Friday and is making a strong bid to reach the finals of the $36,000 Waukegan Open Tournament on the Professional Bowlers' Association summer tour.

Seavoy's 2668 total for 12 games leaves him in second place at the midpoint of the 24-game qualifying, 41 pins behind Bill Hardwick of Louisville, Ky.

Hardwick, who was won only one tournament this year despite being in the finals 11 times, totaled 2,709 for his 12 games, an average of 225 per game.

GAINED LEAD

Hardwick, who was 18th after six games with 1,272, rolled 1,437 Friday night to take over the lead. It was the highest six-game series of the tournament which runs through Sunday.

He had games of 218, 247, 265, 214, 245, and 248, to move ahead of the field of 144 bowlers. They'll roll six more games Saturday before the field is cut to the top 72 for Saturday night's semifinals.

Rookie Holds Golf Classic Lead

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Bob Murphy, a rookie on the tour and yet to win a pro tournament, held a two-stroke lead going into today's third round of the $250,000 Westchester Golf Classic—but he wasn't happy.

"I'm a little disappointed," he said Friday after posting a three-under-par 69 for 133. His round included a double bogey six on his 17th hole and that's the one that had him bothered.

* * *

"I had a good round going, and then I take a double bogey," he said. "It shouldn't happen.

"We play for par and let the birdies fall where they may. Sometimes a bad shot will cost you a bogey. But you should never, never have a double bogey," said the brash Floridian who led the first day with a 64.

TWO AHEAD

As it was, his 11-under-par total had him two strokes ahead of a menacing field of five locked at 135—PGA champ Julius Boros, 65; Dale Douglass who says a new-found putting secret helped him to a 65; defending champion Jack Nicklaus, 68; long-hitting Dan Sikes, 68; and Reeves McBee, who had two eagles en route to a 66.

Behind them at 136 are Orville Moody, 67; Australian Bruce Crampton, 68; Don Bies, 66, veteran Art Wall, 70; and former PGA champ Bobby Nichols, 68.

The tight little Westchester Country Club course, 6,648 yards long with a par 72, took such a terrible beating from the elite field seeking the $50,000 first prize, that it took a score of 144—even par—to make the cut for the last two rounds today and Sunday. Seventy-nine made it.

Jacky Cupit, who had a 63 with nine birdies and a bogey, headed a quartet at 137.

Cupit, Douglass, Boros, Moody and Crampton shot their rounds in the morning. Scores generally were a little higher in the afternoon.

Murphy got his double bogey on the 436 yard, par 4 eighth—his 17th. He hit his tee shot into "what looked like an old divot and was short with my second shot."

He was on in three, about eight feet away, and three-putted.

But he rallied with a birdie on the final hole, reaching the par 5 in two and two-putting.

Split Appears Final as PGA Takes Control

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — The split between the Professional Golfers Association and the touring pros apparently is final.

The Executive Committee of the PGA, at a special meeting Friday, abolished the PGA Tournament Committee and announced it had assumed complete control of the tour "for all time."

Gardner Dickinson, Jack Nicklaus, Frank Beard and Doug Ford were player members of the tournament committee. They are among the rebel players who have set up a rival organization to conduct a tour of their own, starting next year.

* * *

There was no immediate comment from Dickinson or Nicklaus at Harrison, N.Y., where they are competing in the $250,000 Westchester Golf Classic. There was none, either, from Sam Gates, attorney for the rival organization tentatively called the International Professional Golfers Association.

Stonycroft GC Has Golf Championships

The men's club championship at Stonycroft Golf Club is being completed this weekend with 18 holes today and another 18 Sunday.

Nina Zepp won the first flight, Mid Greene the second flight and Wilma Brenton the third flight.

Rain Postpones Class A Opener

Rain wiped out last night's scheduled opener between The R. T. Clippers of Pontiac and Bishop Construction of Flint in the Class A District Baseball Tournament at Flint.

Game No. 1 now is slated for 8 p.m. today at the new lighted diamond in Lincoln Park, Hammerberg at Atherton (near Southwestern High School) at Flint.

The second game will be 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Pontiac's Jaycee Park, and the third (if necessary) will be 8 p.m. Monday at Flint, again.

Manager Paul Johnson of the Clippers — The Pontiac playoff champions — has added three regulars from the M. G. Collision squad that won the regular season city laurels and just missed making the state championship round last summer. Shortstop Willie Holloman, catcher Ron Kind and pitcher Jack McCloud have boosted the Clippers' roster up to 18 players.

Gains First Win Over St. Louis

Pappas Pins Loss on League Leading Cards

By The Associated Press

Milt Pappas, whose hobby is bowling, finally knocked the pins out from under the St. Louis Cardinals, but it took relief by Claude Raymond to spare him from ninth-inning grief.

Pappas, now in his third National League season had an 0-5 record against the Cardinals before finally turning the tables on them Friday night in Atlanta's 5-1 victory.

The big right-hander held the Cards to two hits going into the ninth when he ran into trouble. Then with two on and two out, Raymond came on to get Johnny Edwards and nail down Pappas' ninth victory against nine losses.

* * *

San Francisco topped Philadelphia 7-5, Pittsburgh trounced Los Angeles 8-5, Cincinnati clubbed the Chicago Cubs 11-7 and Houston outlasted the New York Mets 3-1 in 12 innings in other National League action.

Pappas, who pitched nine years in the American League with Baltimore, got all the offensive help he needed when Joe Torre slammed a three-run homer in the fifth.

RUN IN FOURTH

St. Louis got its run in the fourth when Curt Flood reached base on an error, stole second and scored on Orlando Cepeda's single.

San Francisco came up with three runs in the ninth for its victory over Philadelphia. The first run scored on a single, an error and a forceout. The other two came home on Ron Hunt's double. Cookie Rojas' fourth hit of the game drove in two runs in the sixth and gave the Phillies a 5-4 lead.

A three-run fifth inning gave Los Angeles a 7-3 lead over Pittsburgh and set up Don Drysdale's 14th victory. A walk, four singles—one by Drysdale—and an error produced the three runs.

Drysdale, who has lost 10, was relieved by Jim Brewer in the eighth, and Brewer gave way to John Billingham in the ninth with a run in, two on and none out. Billingham put down the threat.

BIG WEAPON

The two-run homer turned out to be Cincinnati's big weapon against Chicago. Pitcher Jim Maloney, Mack Jones, Fred Whitfield and Leo Cardenas each hit a two-run shot. The Cubs got two-run homers from Randy Hundley and Ernie Banks.

Bob Aspromonte's two-out, two-run double in the 12th gave Houston its victory in a game twice delayed by rain, the second time, between the top and bottom of the 11th, for 1 hour, 3 minutes.

Houston had tied the score with Jim Wynn's two-out homer in the ninth. J. C. Martin's first homer of the season in the seventh inning gave the Mets a 1-0 lead.

Celts Sold to Brewery in Jersey

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, National Basketball Association champions in nine of the last 10 seasons, have been sold to P. Ballantine & Sons Brewery of Newark, N.J. for a reported $3.5 million.

Officials of the new owners, who emphasized that they planned to keep the team in Boston, would say only that the purchase price was "in excess of $3 million."

* * *

They also said Red Auerbach will remain as executive vice president and general manager, and that player-coach Bill Russell, yet to sign his contract, is being counted upon to operate in the same capacity.

The transaction was consummated Friday with National Equities Inc., holding company which owned the Celtics.

NEEDS APPROVAL

Marvin Kratter, chairman of the board of National Equities and the outgoing president of the Celtics, said the sale still had to be approved by the NBA Board of Governors and is on the agenda for the board's meeting Aug. 22.

It is the second sale in three years for the Celtics, acquired by Kratter's organization in 1965.

* * *

Kratter said National Equities Inc., was in the process of being acquired by Levin-Townsend Computer Co., which wanted the Celtics disposed of. He said he started looking around for a potential buyer, and at the same time Waldron became interested on behalf of Ballantine.

Returning as president in the new setup will be Jack Waldron, who held the post previously and is now a senior vice president of Ballantine.

Dick Griebel, president of Ballantine, will serve as chairman of the board of the Celtics.

Nagy, New Cougars Coach, Loses Debut

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Cougars had a new coach Friday night, but the Cougars lost a North American Soccer League game to the Cleveland Stokers 4-1.

The Cougars opened scoring in the game when Johnny Kerr netted a rebound with 7:40 gone in the first half. But Cleveland came back later when John Mueller tied it up and Amancio Cid scored the winning goal.

Stokers Sergio Kresic and Roy Turner scored insurance goals in the second half, both on assists from Dietrich Albrecht.

The Cougar's new coach, Ander Nagy, formerly of the Washington Whips, had taken over the team only at noon Friday after the resignation of Len Julian was announced.

Visiting Diplomat and Wife Relate Congo Experiences

"You must accept something to drink when visiting in the Congo or you will be considered rude," explained Mr. and Mrs. John Vincent, while on leave visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd O'Rourke of 2390 Pontiac, Sylvan Lake.

Vincent is second secretary at the American Embassy in Kinshasa, the modern capital city of the Republic of the Congo.

Mrs. Vincent recalled how she once had to accept — and drink quickly — a glass of ginlike liquid at an early morning ceremony.

The informal visiting and the offering of refreshments are part of the African way of life, according to the Vincents, who describe the Africans as "probably the most enjoyable people in the world."

WORK AT FRIENDSHIP

"They take friendship very seriously, "said the couple, who have been there 13 months.

Vincent, who has been in the foreign service for three years, works in the political section of the embassy. His job is to help assess, as accurately as possible, the internal policy of the Congo and how it will affect U.S. policy.

* * *

He attempts to sense general trends by talking to the youth groups, businessmen, local governors and party leaders.

The role of the U.S. government, to date, has been to maintain the "integrity of the state," according to Vincent.

TORN BY UPRISINGS

The area has been torn by uprisings — largely organized by outsiders — for the past several years.

"We hope that we're finally out of the crisis-to-crisis period and that the Congo is now in a stage of developing stable political institutions.

* * *

"It is an extremely wealthy country whose economic development has been greatly retarded because of the crises," said Vincent.

Entertaining and being entertained are a significant portion of a diplomat's work. The Vincents visit or hold informal gatherings most nights.

CONTACTS IMPORTANT

The Vincents explained that initial contacts with other diplomats and area people are made during the evenings and business appointments are often made for the next day. You can gather a lot of information while talking at parties, Vincent pointed out.

Most of the Vincent's entertaining is informal although they may hold about two sit-down formal dinners a year.

* * *

"The Africans consider a good housewife as one who is always prepared," said Mrs. Vincent.

"I usually cook enough food for six or seven people although there are only four of us," she added, explaining that the African custom was to drop by for casual often unannounced visits.

DIPLOMATS TO AFRICA — Mr. and Mrs. John Vincent and their children, Rachel, 2, and Matthew, 1, gather around a wooden fertility figure from an African tribe. Vincent, who is second secretary at the American Embassy in the Republic of the Congo, and his family are visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd O'Rourke of 2390 Pontiac, Sylvan Lake. The clothes are western styles made from native cloth. The fertility figure, with a python skin necklace and a monkey-fur belt, is greased with palm oil during tribal ceremonies.

Juror's Probe of State Roads Starts Monday

LANSING (AP) — Ingham County Circuit Judge Marvin J. Salmon, named as the one-man grand juror to conduct a second probe of the State Highway Department, announced yesterday he will start taking testimony Monday.

Salmon reported his staff is now 90 per cent complete with the addition of 18 more persons.

* * *

New staff members include four additional assistant prosecutors, four auditors and two State Police investigators plus various clerical help.

Leo Farhat, special prosecutor for the one-man grand jury and former Ingham County prosecutor, said auditors already have started auditing "certain contracts to review alleged irregularities and to determine if there is any basis for criminal prosecution."

REVIEWING NOTES

The staff, Farhat said, also has been reviewing some 1,000 pages of notes of previous testimony, taken during the probe by Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

Farhat said he hoped the investigation would be completed within six months.

* * *

Salmon was asked if the $150,000 grant from the state would last that long.

He expressed doubts, but Farhat declared: "Not one dime is being wasted. We hope we will have some money left over."

SPECIAL AIDE

Robert Derengoski, state solicitor general, was named a special aide to the grand jury. Stuart Freeman and James Ramsey of the attorney general's staff were appointed special prosecutors and James Theophelis, formerly of the Ingham County prosecutor's staff, also was named a special prosecutor.

The three members of the attorney general's staff will remain on the state payroll and will not be paid from the grand jury funds, Salmon said.

Vying With Enemies Good, Mental Health Confab Told

LONDON (AP) — Being nasty to your enemies may be good for you, temporarily, an international mental health conference was told Friday.

Two thousand delegates from 73 countries spent the final day of the 7th International Congress on Mental Health hearing that: Mankind may be basically committed to conflict, war is now considered one of the few manly arts in the United States, and campus demonstrations may relieve student hang-ups.

* * *

Group conflicts, Prof. Ronald Taft of Australia's Monash University contended, "may lead to a temporary improvement in some aspects of mental health."

Taft said that during student unrest on the University of California's Berkeley campus, fewer students sought help from the university's counseling service indicating heightened tension helped them forget personal problems. But after the demonstrations died down, he said, calls on counseling services reached new heights.

AGGRESSIVE INSTINCT

Prof. Anatol Rapoport of the University of Michigan said men may commit aggression through instinct, the way birds build nests. But he added, that very built-in characteristic may destroy mankind the way dinosaurs became extinct through their sheer size.

"In the United States," Rapoport said, "business, sports and now war are considered to be almost the only manly arts."

Yet war has become so mechanized and depersonalized that "it is difficult to imagine the modern instrumented war as an outburst of rage," he said.

The biggest danger, the Michigan professor said, is that large-scale conflict has become so impersonal it is now "indistinguishable from any other activity in a technologically oriented society."

Winding up the weeklong congress, the World Federation for Mental Health announced that Clement Stone of Chicago had offered to finance the federation's work by donating $1 for every $1 raised by the organization this year.

Police in Boston Kill Man, 35, After Siege

BOSTON (AP) — A house painter was shot and killed while two officers tried to subdue him after he held his wife, daughter and two other women hostage and fired several shots into a congested area, police said.

John J. Wallace, 35, reportedly was killed by police in the kitchen of his home during the struggle Friday.

Some 40 policemen and a crowd estimated at 300-500 persons gathered during the 90-minute siege outside a brick apartment block in a largely Negro area.

"Help! help! he's going to kill us!" the women shouted, according to witnesses.

Police fired tear gas into the apartment from outside. The women leaned from windows to escape the fumes.

In the apartment with Wallace were his wife Georgianna; his daughter Lillian; his mother-in-law, Mrs. Rosetta Wallace; and a family friend, Georgie Jones.

Wallace's wife said her husband had been suffering the aftereffects of a head injury suffered in an auto accident two weeks ago. He had been under a doctor's care, she said.

Police said Wallace, a Negro was seen on a porch outside his apartment just before the officers broke into the flat. Officers said they ordered the crowd cleared from the vicinity when he was seen waving a pistol.

"My black brothers! My black brothers!" he shouted from the porch as he held one of the women. One shot was fired, police said, during the time. Other shots had been fired earlier. None of the spectators or police were injured, police said.

Neighbors were quoted as saying they had heard Wallace shouting at someone in the apartment just before the shooting began. His wife said he had complained of pain just prior to the incident.

Mrs. Wallace said she had managed to calm her husband down and that his head had been on her shoulder when officers broke into the room.

Opera's Elm Ailing, Tree Doctor Sought

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Is there a tree doctor in the house?

That's the call at the Outdoor Municipal Opera in St. Louis' Forest Park. The theater's only elm tree has been stricken with a fatal virus disease.

* * *

The majestic tree just east of the stage has been a tradition at the opera for 50 years. But the disease that has plagued elms across the nation has taken its toll in Forest Park.

There is no sure cure for the disease but an opera spokesman said Charles Freers a chemist from Muscatine, Iowa, has been developing a serum. The tree at the opera which has no stand-in has been given several doses.

Miss Bacall Hosts Fashions Special

"This wasn't like acting at all. No planned dialogue. Everything I had to say and do was completely natural." Lauren Bacall was talking about her role as hostess for "The Paris Collections: Fall Fashion Preview," look at the world of French haute couture in a one-hour color special Aug. 24.

The broadcast will attempt to capture the mood and flavor of Parisian fashion-show activity from original sketches of designers through frenzied workshop preparations of seamstresses and models to ultimate presentation of the collections.

Miss Bacall will supply commentary on the new clothes to be displayed this month in the top Paris fashion salons, and she'll be seen in informal chats with four leading French couturiers — Yves St. Laurent, Pierre Cardin, Emanuel Ungaro and Marc Bohan of the House of Dior.

Interested when she was first approached to host the special, Miss Bacall became highly enthusiastic about what she was doing after she met these designers personally for the first time.

"I was particularly surprised, even impressed, by one thing about these people," says the actress. "They have absolutely no feeling of being in competition with their American or Italian counterparts. They say flatly that they're not even in competition with one another. There seems to be no rivalry at all, despite what you read in the fashion columns."

Honeymooners Pat and Mike McCoy (center) of Los Angeles explore the sights and sounds of exotic Mexico for ABC-TV's one-hour documentary "Honeymoon Mexican Style" to be colorcast Friday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Channel 7.

What Wall Street Did

Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market posted its first advance in five weeks this week as the trading pace quickened.

The week got off to a good start on the basis of reports that progress was being made in the Vietnam peace talks in Paris.

★ ★ ★

It closd on an upnote due in part to a move by the Federal Reserve Board toward lower interest rates.

"Wall Street still insists that any progress toward peace in Vietnam would be very bullish on the stock market," said one broker.

The Dow Jones Average of 30 Industrials turned in a gain of 16.24 for the week, rising from 869.65 to 885.89. The Associated Press 60-Stock Average rose 4.6 to 330.6. Standard & Poor's 500-stock index added 1.67 at 98.68.

Of 1,677 issues traded this week, 1,038 advanced and 507 declined. There were 134 new 1968 highs and 40 new lows.

Volume rose to 45,812,760 shares from 39,796,102 last week and 41,978,010 a year ago.

★ ★ ★

Spurred by heightened peace hopes, the market jumped to one of its biggest gains in recent months on Monday. Other favorable factors were a surge in retail sales in July, improvement in new orders and production and a rise in employment. The gain of 11.37 by the Dow Jones Industrial Average that was its largest since April 11.

The market followed up with a smaller advance on Tuesday.

After the regular closing of securities exchanges Wednesday, the market slipped to a moderate loss on Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The market scored a substantial gain on Friday.

The five most active stocks on the New York Stock Exchange this week were:

Occidental Petroleum, off ⅛ at 45¼ on 957,500 shares; Schenley, up at 54¼; Universal Oil Preferred, off 2 at 38; American Telephone, up ¾ at 51⅝, and Commercial Credit, up 4⅜ at 68¾.

Bonds

NEW YORK (AP) — The cut in the discount rate from 5½ to 5¼ per cent by the Minneapolis Federal Reserve Bank helped to arrest a decline in the bond and money markets this past week.

Prior to the announcement Thursday, government and municipal bonds prices were lower while corporate bonds were mixed. On Friday, all sectors improved slightly, according to Salomon Brothers & Hutzler, national investment firm.

★ ★ ★

Long-term government issues failed to rally much Friday and closed lower by more than half a point. Intermediate issues —5 to 8 years—rallied about an eighth of a point to offset half of the declines earlier in the week. Short-term rates were steady to a little higher throughout most of the week. Three-month Treasury bill rates opened at 4.99 per cent, rose to a high of 5.18 per cent on Thursday, and declined to 5.12 per cent following the Fed's announcement. Federal funds continued to trade a little above 6 per cent.

Most corporate issues sold out following the discount rate change. Seasoned corporates were steady and changed little at the close. Recent issues were a shade lower.

★ ★ ★

Despite better prices Friday, municipal bonds declined for the first week since early July. Advances Friday offset about a third of the declines earlier in the week. Long term municipals closed about 1½ points below their highs of the year, reached the previous week.

The week's most sizable offering was a $129-million block of local housing bonds sponsored by the U.S. Housing Assistance Administration. The federal agency awarded 48 separate issues on behalf of 48 local housing authorities across the nation at an average net borrowing cost of 4.2516 per cent. In May, when the agency awarded 37 issues aggregating $144.355 million, the average net borrowing cost was a record 4.7281 per cent.

I-696 Panel to Hear Communities' Gripes

Gov. Romney's panel of arbitrators Monday morning will hear objections raised to the proposed route of the controversial I-696 freeway in south Oakland County.

The three-man panel, named Monday by Romney to make a binding decision on the route of the roadway, convened for the first time Tuesday. That day it heard the route proposed by the Michigan Highway Commission.

* * *

Several county communities that have been bickering over the roadway for more than four years are expected Monday morning to raise their objections to the Highway Commission's proposal and to submit alternate routes.

The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. at the Oakland County Courthouse in Pontiac.

To make matters worse, the arbitration hearings probably will have to settle more than a simple dispute between the several communities and the Highway Commission. Each objecting community could—and probably will—submit conflicting alternate routes.

Involved are Royal Oak, Pleasant Ridge, Huntington Woods, Oak Park, Lathrup Village and Southfield.

* * *

The statute that enacted the arbitration panel allowed it 60 days to determine a final route for the east-west expressway, and the route chosen will be binding on all communities.

At least two of the communities, Pleasant Ridge and Lathrup Village, have begun proceedings to enjoin the panel from making such a binding decision. Both communities doubt the constitutionality of taking away veto powers of local communities in the matter.

Man's Mummified Body Found in Wife's Home

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The almost mummified body of an elderly man, dead for between three and four years, was discovered last night in the second floor bedroom of a home in which his 78-year-old wife still lived.

Police went to the home after they were contacted by the Veteran's Administration (VA) who discovered they had been sending benefit checks to Harry Schwartz although he had been carried on their records as a terminal cancer patient for the past four years. Schwartz, 80, a Navy veteran, lived with wife Marie, 78, on a quiet, treelined street. Some $7,000 in VA checks were found in her possession when police discovered the body.

The woman was taken to Philadelphia General Hospital for observation.

Police said neighbors, who did not see the man for "about three years" complained to the Board of Health and Veterans Administration officials two years ago.

NOTHING DONE

"Apparently nobody ever came around to do anything about it and police were never notified," a police spokesman said.

The man apparently died in the winter, police said, and his body was semimummified. He weighed about 35 pounds.

* * *

"All she kept doing was calling for the admiral. I guess that was he nickname for him," police said.

No charges were brought against the woman.

"Maybe she didn't have the money to bury him or the heart to," a spokesman added.

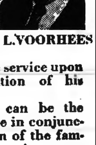
Reflections
THE MASONIC SERVICE



J. L. VOORHEES

Since ages ago, it has been the custom of Free Masons to conduct final services for their departed brothers upon proper request. When funeral services are held for a Free Mason in an area or place that is not the home lodge of the deceased, the local lodge of that area will take charge and conduct the service upon request and verification of his Masonic affiliation.

The Masonic service can be the entire service or can be in conjunction with the clergyman of the family's choice. When Masonic or any other fraternal group is to take an active part in a service conducted by a clergyman, then the clergyman should be notified and the details approved by him.

THINK ABOUT IT!

OBSTACLES . . .

George Washington, even with his muscular power, was in ill health during his whole life. Beethoven was deaf, yet he wrote music. Helen Keller, one of the world's greatest personalities, was deaf, mute and blind. John Milton continued to write poetry after his eyesight failed him. Homer was also blind. Robert E. Lee, defeated in war, became a great educator. Dostoyovsky, the Russian novelist was an epileptic. Hideo Noguchi, brilliant Japanese bacteriologist who paved the way for syphilis cure, had a childhood in pitiable poverty. Worse yet, at age three, his left hand and arm were badly crippled in an accident. F.D.R., a crippled polio victim was elected President four times. P. T. Barnum of circus fame had to start all over again at age 60; gained greater fame and fortune than in earlier years. J. C. Penney had horrible financial reverses in the depression but he continued, built a department store empire to expanded greatness.

Such people from all over the world, show us how to face reality. Stevenson spotlights such examples in these words: "You must some time fight it out or perish; and if that be so, then why not now, and where you stand?" . . . Dr. Oaks Says:

Jogging Better for You Than Playing Golf

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is another in a weekly series of articles issued by the Oakland County Medical Society. Dr. Oaks is the collective voice of the Oakland County Medical Society.)

In terms of your good physical health, jogging is better for you than playing golf. The benefits derived from a round of golf are largely psychological or mental with perhaps only a nominal effect on your physical fitness.

Similarly, brisk walking is good physical exercise, but strolling leisurely is of no value in enhancing physical fitness. Bowling falls into much the same category as golf, while tennis offers considerable potential physical stress.

* * *

The object of jogging or any fitness exercise is the gradual increase of the physical load to greater and greater levels and regularity in performing the exercise.

Isometric exercises, in terms of a normal fitness program are really of no value. The goal is not to build muscle mass, but to make the person physically fit.

JOGGING THOUGHTS

Our jogger who has been keeping a diary of his thoughts has just completed his seventh lap.

EIGHTH LAP: "Why do I continue this ridiculous activity . . . Puffing! Sweating! Why not play golf! Swim! Ride a bicycle!"

* * *

(Jogging requires nothing more than a few spare minutes and for the busy individual is thus the best form of exercise. Five minutes of running will burn up about 100 calories. For example, an eight ounce glass of beer has a caloric content of 114. This requires six minutes to expend the caloric energy by running, 10 minutes by swimming, 14 minutes bike riding and 22 minutes walking.)

NINTH LAP: "Boy, a steam-bath will feel real good . . . wonder how much weight I've lost."

* * *

(Exercise alone will not diminish weight; caloric restrictions are necessary. Jogging merely oils the weight reduction by replacing fat with muscle, just as protein should replace the fat in the diet.)

TENTH LAP: "I'm too busy breathing to talk; wait and I'll be able to talk after I cool off."

* * *

Jogging should be designed to enhance health. No effort should be made to everexert. The aim is to "stress" the body cautiously. Competitive situations are to be avoided, particularly by those persons who have been away from physical stress for some time.

The sole purpose of physical fitness is good health. Medical experts still do not have all the answers on fitness. It is highly individualized; what is ideal exercise for one person may be too much stress for another individual.

RUN FOR LIFE

Heart attack victims should particularly consult their own physician before embarking on a fitness program. In the end, though, proper exercise and fitness now may avoid medical problems later in life. Jogging truly can be a "run for your life."

2 State Soldiers Killed in Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Michigan servicemen were among 18 recent casualties of the Vietnam War, the Defense Department announced yesterday.

Killed in action were Army Pfc. James H. Hilyard, son of Harold J. Hilyard of Adrian and Army Pfc. Thomas R. Polisky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casmir J. Polisky of Filer City.

John D. Rockefeller, once the richest man in the world, lived to be 98.

Mia Gets Mexico Divorce From Sinatra

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Mia Farrow, Frank Sinatra's young bride, says her two-year marriage was unbearable. Without an announcement, she obtained a quickie Mexican divorce Friday in Juarez.

"She's really not going to bare her soul" about the reasons for the break-up, a spokesman for the 23-year-old actress said, "but she said, if anybody asks, there's certainly no third party involved."

* * *

Haggard looking, the former star of television's "Peyton Place" flew home to Hollywood after the 30-minute divorce proceeding. She went into seclusion at her $300,000 Bel Air home.

Sinatra, 52, flew east Thursday after taping a television show in Hollywood and was unavailable for comment.

SEPARATE CAREERS

The introverted, seemingly fragile actress with the close-cropped hair and frightened gray eyes married the fast-living Sinatra on July 19, 1966. Hollywood was abuzz, and some in the film colony predicted that because of the difference in ages—29 years—it could never last.

Their on-again-off-again courtship quickly turned into an on-again-off-again marriage as their separate careers often kept them apart.

* * *

Then Miss Farrow said she couldn't appear with Sinatra in "The Detective," the latest film he produced, because of her starring role in "Rosemary's Baby." The incident reportedly irritated Sinatra.

They were separated last November, after 18 months of marriage. And early Friday Miss Farrow hopped a private plane to Juarez.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

Texas and the Jacobys have no monopoly on the Jacoby transfer bid. California used it against the Dallas Orange Team to bid a fine slam.

JACOBY

The bidding is interesting in that it shows how far modern expert bidding has gone on the road to artificial methods to get the most out of good hands.

★ ★ ★

South's opening no-trump bid is standard and North's two-spade response is a special Jacoby transfer bid to show both minor suits and a hand that might range anywhere from a bad hand to a tremendous one.

The three-diamond rebid by South said that he had better diamonds than clubs and North's three-spade bid said, "I have something in spades."

South knew that no-trump was going to be a bad contract. North had shown a minor two-suit hand and something in spades. He could not have diamonds but they weren't good enough. He needed king-queen or maybe king-jack. North signed off at six diamonds.

★ ★ ★

The Dallas audience was worried once more. They couldn't gain. Could they break even?

Of course, they broke even. After all the Jacoby transfer is a Dallas invention. The Orange North-South pair reached six diamonds on exactly the same bidding sequence.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner opens one spade. You, South, hold:

What do you do?

Answer Monday

North was now ready to invite the slam. What better way could there be than a four-heart bid? This had to be a cue bid because North had already shown spades, diamonds and clubs.

South's jump to five no-trump was the artificial bid called the grand slam force. It asked North to bid seven with good diamonds. North had good hearts also. South bid four clubs!

10 Orphans to Stay Together--for Awhile

MADERA, Calif. (UPI) — The 10 orphaned children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris remained together today, their vow not to be separated realized at least for the moment.

Two relatives who had petitioned for their guardianship withdrew their requests "in the best interests of the children" at a closed hearing yesterday.

* * *

The family was ordered to discuss the matter further and appear again within 10 days before Superior Court Judge Jack Hammerberg. Attorneys indicated there was some dispute among the relatives, but would not elaborate.

* * *

Meanwhile, the orphans, ranging in age from 3 to 17, will remain wards of the Juvenile Court and continue living in the home of their parents, were killed in a four-car freeway crash July 2.

ONE PETITION

Since the accident, the children have been cared for by their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Bolis Lachawico of Fresno. She and her husband had submitted one of the petitions for guardianship.

The other petition was submitted by a paternal aunt, Mrs. Gloria Graves of Concord.

* * *

An attorney for Mrs. Graves said at the hearing yesterday, "We would like to get them in a home where they would be able to grow up normally without all the publicity they've experienced recently."

But the puclicity has brought the children more than 100 offers of adoption from strangers and contributions of more than $50,000 from persons as far away as Vietnam and West Germany.

TRUST FUND

An official for the Bank of America, where a trust fund has been established, estimated the fund plus Social Security would yield the children an income of about $600 a month — more than when their parents were alive.

* * *

Four of th orphans, Judy, 16, Michael, 10, Theresa, 12, and Robert, 11, appeared at the hearing yesterday. They made no comments but appeared to be in good spirits.

* * *

After their parents' death, the children expressed the desire to remain together in Madera because "We've always been a close-knit family."

Judge Hammerberg said he would need more time and the families would need to consult further before he could determine "the least objectional decision."

"I am happy to know that black Americans have returned spiritually to Africa," says Amy Ashwood Garvey, the first wife of Marcus Garvey, who founded a black nationalist movement half a century ago.

Riding along a Harlem street yesterday, she gestured at the crowds and said: "It was people like these . . . that gave my husband his greatest success. I couldn't write about him without returning to Harlem."

Mrs. Garvey, who returned to the United States nine months ago for the first time in 27 years, said she plans to complete a book about her late husband during her stay.

During her years away, she lived in Africa and, more recently, in the West Indies.

Garvey, in the years between 1917 and 1925, organized thousands of American Negroes in both an effort to build Negro economic strength and to lead members of his race back to Africa.

The federal government jailed Garvey for using the mails to defraud in connection with his business activities and deported him in 1927. He died in London in 1940 at the age of 52.

Warhol Shooting Suspect to Be Committed

Valeria Solanis, actress accused of shooting pop artist and underground movie maker Andy Warhol, has been found incompetent to stand trial and ordered committed to a mental institution.

Miss Solanis had been indicted June 27 on charges of attempted murder, assault and illegal possession of a weapon. The 28-year-old actress starred in Warhol's "I, a Man."

Warhol, 36, was hospitalized for two months recovering from his wounds.

State Supreme Court Justice Joseph A. Brust certified and approved the psychiatric report on Miss Solanis yesterday. Her attorney said the court's ruling would not be contested.

Teddy Home After Vacation in Greece

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., flew home Friday after a vacation in Greece and smilingly declined any interviews at Boston's Logan International Airport.

After clearing customs, Kennedy, encountering both newsmen and photographers, was led out of a back door by airport officials. He left immediately for his home at Hyannisport on Cape Cod.

Kennedy had been yachting in the Aegean with Greek ship owner Aristotle Onassis.

Flying back to the United States by way of London, Kennedy told newsmen at the British capital: "I'm not talking about politics."

Hepatitis Hike Tied to Floods

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit-Wayne County health officials said Friday a peak in a seven year cycle and extensive flooding early this summer have produced an unusually high number of cases of infectious hepatitis in the area.

Health officials said 287 cases of the liver disease have been reported so far this year, compared with 265 cases for all of last year. The disease has caused 17 deaths this year, compared with 14 for all of 1967.

* * *

Dr. Willard Lenz, director of epidemology for the city-county health department, said the flooding following heavy rains in June may be a cause of the upswing in hepatitis cases. The disease, which is caused by a virus, can be transmitted by contaminated water supplies.

Lenz also said 1968 is a peak year in the seven-year cycle of hepatitis. He explained that an outbreak of the disease usually immunizes enough people that it takes seven years for the protection to wear off.

Andy All for 'New Leisure'—but He Won't Take Up Golf

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Andy Griffith, the TV star turned movie sex symbol, is impressed with the "New Leisure" that the masses now enjoy, for he has his first four-week vacation in years. But Andy won't be playing golf.

WILSON

"Down home we didn't have any golf courses," Andy said the other day. "Our people didn't know what a golf course was when they went travelin'. They'd say 'Look how short them cows eat that grass.' "

Hollywood hasn't inveigled him into golf. He illustrates this with a story in a Carolina drawl.

"They was," he says, instead of "There was" . . . "They was this woman said to her husband 'Why did you and George quit playing golf?'

"Her man says 'Would you play golf with a man who lied about his score and cheated and moved his ball around?'

"No," says the wife.

"Well, George wouldn't either."

Andy, who started a new movie career with "Angel in My Pocket," in which he plays a Southern minister, had simple enough vacation plans.

"Ah'm goin' home to the Carolinas. Ah'm gonna get on the boat, and fish and play and sun and picnic and mow the yard and go up town and do all kinds of stuff like that. But no golf because there again, we just got cows that eat the grass short."

* * *

Andy and Don Knotts are still buddies and are currently trying to work out a movie outline for themselves. "Our friendship started in October 1955, on Broadway, in "No Time for Sergeants," Andy says.

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Steve Lawrence and Edyie Gorme have offers to bring their "Golden Rainbow" musical to Las Vegas . . . Al Hirt's writing a book about New Orleans food and music: "Creole Cooking and All That Jazz" . . . Irving Wallace gave a role in his film "The Man" to Allan J. Ehrlich, general manager of Kippy's—playing a Nazi officer.

Richard Harris' next film, "A Man Called Horse," will have just a few minutes of English dialogue, all the rest will be in Sioux Indian language . . . Arthur Godfrey signed singer Julie Budd, 14, for his radio show . . . Tony Quinn, who finished "Shoes of the Fisherman," is building a 17-room villa on Capri.

Use Lip Brush for Perfecting

Use a lip brush to reshape a less then perfect mouth. It may be just what your face needs to keep its over-all proportions in balance. For full lips, paint out your mouth with foundation, then draw in a slightly smaller outline.

Use subtle lipstick shades. For thin lips, brush on the outline beyond the natural lip line. For well-defined lips, add an illusion of fullness with highlights of a paler gloss on the too-tin lip.

New Rocket Is Launched

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The Atlas-Burner 2 rocket has made its space debut, carrying a record dozen satellites aloft and dropping them off in orbits ranging from 99 to 2,500 miles.

The Atlas missile and a four-by-five-foot maneuverable upper stage called Burner 2 leaped off the launching pad Friday.

* * *

The 2,750-pound upper stage ejected small satellites designed to measure the size and shape of the earth, provide targets for radar experiments and test atmospheric drag in near space.

Junior Editors Quiz About LOVE

QUESTION: What is love?

* * *

ANSWER: There is no word, except God, that people treasure as much as the word love. It is used a number of ways.

It might be mother love (upper left), a combination of pride, adoration and dedication. Years later, this mother will be getting up at dawn to press her son's pants and cook him a tasty breakfast so he can get to his summer job cheerful and on time.

It may be the love of God (upper right), prompting man to seek help from a higher source than he can find in his own reason.

It may be the experience of falling in love (below), where a whole new life suddenly opens. You can tell the genuine article when you know with absolute conviction that you want to go on loving and caring for this one person the rest of your life.

There is something similar in all these uses of the word love. They show people caring for something outside of themselves, people willing to give as well as to get. People think of love as something connected with a higher, more generous kind of being and feeling; perhaps that is why we treasure this wonderful word.

(You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR darling, Mary Kathryn McClure, who passed away August 18, 1959.
A little girl was needed to make our home complete,
God sent you little Mary; pure blossom like and sweet
But ere his fingers loosed you; he had another thought
And back into his bosom, our little girl was caught.
Just why he changed the pattern; is not for us to know
We tried to bear it bravely; Since he has willed it so.
We're thankful to have seen you; This perfect bud of ours
And know that God will plant you; Among his rarest flower.
Sadly missed by Mommy, Daddy, Sisters and brothers.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Elmer R. Betts, who passed away 1 year ago today.
Memories of you in the past
Will in the future always last.
Sadly missed by your family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR daughter and sister, Doris (Ross) Mohr and infant son who left us Aug. 17, 1967.
A year ago one Thursday morn
We eagerly awaited for your
New child to be born
But our Blessed Saviour whispered
"Your cares on earth are through
I've a perfect home in Heaven
Prepared for both of you."
We don't know why He took you
But part of us went too
Life's not the same without you
We miss you more each day.
With God's love we hope to see
Our Doris some sweet day.
Sadly missed by mom, dad, Shirley, Fred and Clifford.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Ellsworth Paul, who passed away 1 year ago today.
We loved him, ah, no tongue can tell
How much we loved hime and how well.
God loved him too, and thought it best
To take him home with Him to rest.
Sadly missed by wife and children.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Julie Ann Caldwell who passed away August 17, 1965.
A bud that the Gardener gave us.
A pure and lovely child,
He gave her in our keeping,
To cherish undefiled.
But just as it was opening, To the glory of the day,
Down came the Heavenly Gardener,
And took our flower away.
Sadly missed by mother and father.

Dream Realized as Woman, 83, Learns to Read

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — "I knowed the Lord would let me go to school if I lived long enough," declares Mrs. Ella Walker who, at 83, may be the oldest student ever to enroll in a Georgia public school.

Mrs. Walker, who has worked since she was 7, dreamed all her life about learning to read. Two years ago she began adult education classes at DeKalb county's Lynwood Park Elementary School.

Still vigorous, she continues to work full-time as housekeeper for Mrs. Robert B. Barnett, a job she has held for 26 years. "I begged the Lord to let me live to go to school and He did," she says. "Now I just want to keep on going and I want to read my Bible."

The Library of the International Bureau of Education in Geneva contains 25,000 school textbooks from 110 countries.

Ike Suffers 7th, and Possibly Most Severe, Heart Attack

MAKE OVER PAGES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower once more lies gravely ill after suffering his seventh, and possibly one of his worst, heart attacks.

* * *

The five-star general was stricken at the Army's Walter Reed General Hospital at 1:25 p.m. yesterday — just as he had apparently been on the road to recovery from his most recent previous cardiac assault Aug. 6.

The new attack was the fourth in 3½ months. And it was the third in a row to strike when the old warrior and elder statesman had appeared to be on his way to recovery from the previous one.

An indication of the severity of the newest attack lay in the fact the Army doctors voluntarily described it as "another serious" one in their initial report.

In the earlier attacks suffered at Walter Reed, the initial reports said only that the 77-year-old general had suffered "another" seizure without using such labels as "major" or "serious."

Eisenhower's condition is reported as stable, which means that his so-called "vital signs"—blood pressure, pulse and breathing rate—have remained at satisfactory levels for at least some period after the attack.

Eisenhower already has more than defied mortality statistics on heart attacks.

His seventh and latest means that he has now had more than twice as many attacks as the number—three—that most often add up to certain and swift death.

Eisenhower's latest series of heart attacks started with a minor one on April 29 during a vacation at Palm Springs, Calif.

He was moved to Walter Reed May 14. He suffered a second, more serious one June 15.

He recovered sufficiently from the June attack to address the Republican National Convention on television Aug. 5, looking thin but strong and speaking in resonant tones.

He was due to return to his Gettysburg farm home a few days later, but less than 12 hours after the speech, he suffered another heart attack. Doctors described it as major.

He had finally been permitted to sit up and do some light reading before yesterday's attack.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE — South Dakota Sen. George McGovern, a late entry in the race for Democratic nomination as the party's presidential candidate, visited Oakland County last night to speak before delegates to the County Democratic Convention. McGovern called for a complete change in the country's Vietnam policy and efforts to end "division that sets black against white."

Lower Michigan Hit by Storm

By The Associated Press

Heavy wind and rain and a few reported tornadoes throughout much of lower Michigan yesterday left widespread but minor property damage, flooding and utility failures. Three Boy Scouts hit by a fallen tree at Camp Rota-Kiwan near Kalamazoo were injured, one of them seriously.

Detroit Edison said scattered damage in north Oakland County consisted primarily of wires down, leaving many people without power. Royal Oak and Ferndale were harder hit.

* * *

Michigan State Police said a tornado touched down briefly last night near the Allegan County town of Martin, some 30 miles south of Grand Rapids.

At Niles, in Berrien County, State Police reported a funnel at about 10:30 p.m. The St. Joseph County Sheriff's department reported a tornado touched down on M60 at the St. Joseph-Cass County border.

FUNNEL-SHAPED CLOUDS

Earlier the U.S. Weather Bureau said it had received three reports of funnel-shaped clouds in the Battle Creek area.

The bureau said it had unconfirmed reports of similar clouds southeast of Zilwaukee, five miles east of Saginaw.

* * *

In the Detroit area, Royal Oak police said the storm knocked down trees and caused wind damage to homes. Extensive flooding was reported. Police estimated 2,000 to 3,000 homes were without electricity at the height of the storm.

Berkley police said they had three tornado reports. The reported power failure throughout much of the city and several minor fires caused by lightning striking homes.

Nixon Will Confer With Gov. Romney in Lansing Monday

LANSING (AP)— Republican presidential nominee Richard Nixon will visit Lansing Monday to confer privately with Gov. George Romney, presumably to plot strategy for the upcoming campaign.

In addition, Maryland Gov. Spiro Agnew, the GOP vice presidential nominee, will speak at the Republican state convention next Saturday at Grand Rapids.

* * *

Nixon is scheduled to arrive at Capitol City Airport about 2:15 p.m. and make brief remarks on the steps of the State Capitol before going into seclusion with Romney.

Romney has pledged to support Nixon during the campaign, but has stated that it will be a "tough battle" for the former vice president to carry the state in November.

STATEMENTS EXPECTED

Nixon and Romney are expected to make statements to newsmen following their conference.

Meanwhile, in San Diego, Calif., Nixon is holding more Republican strategy talks.

* * *

He blended politicking and sightseeing last night in a two-hour visit to Disneyland. But today it was all politics again with a visit from a group of mayors.

Nixon drove north to Anaheim yesterday after a session with California Gov. Ronald Reagan, a meeting that gave Reagan a starring television role in the national Republican campaign.

TV APPEARANCES

Nixon said Reagan agreed to seek votes "to the extent that his California commitments will allow some national campaigning."

* * *

Reagan said his major role will be in appearances on national television to appeal for GOP votes. "I think there's a very definite restriction on the barnstorming that can be done," he said.

Reagan said that is because he has a legislative election coming in California, plus a session of the legislature opening early next month.

Sen. McGovern's Call for Bombing Halt Hailed

By BOB WISLER

Democratic presidential nomination seeker Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota took his campaign before the Oakland County Democratic Convention last night and got enthusiastic reception for his call to end the bombing of North Vietnam.

Surrounded by Secret Service men, Pontiac police detectives and Oakland County sheriff's deputies, McGovern was accompanied by his pert, attractive wife and 13-year-old daughter.

McGovern answered a variety of questions in declaring he is for an end to the war, and end to the draft, and an end to the tenures of Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

He also spoke out for the establishment of a well-paid volunteer army, efforts to bring mainland China within the sphere of influence of world opinion, and a reassessment of the method of nominating presidential candidates.

'NO ILLUSIONS'

McGovern, 46, a college professor before turning politician, said he had no illusions about his chances of getting the Democratic nomination.

He entered the race, he said, to keep the Democratic convention open, to decrease the possibility of a first-ballot victory for Vice President Hubert Humphry and to move the party "toward a more hopeful stance in Vietnam."

* * *

He declared that he would not accept a vice presidential spot on the national ticket but said that if he were nominated as the presidential candidate he considered Sen. Frank Church of Idaho, Sen. Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin and Sen. Philip Hart of Michigan as likely vice presidential nominees.

McGovern spent the day in Detroit yesterday attempting to line up support among Michigan delegates to the national convention in Chicago.

A DARK HORSE

An admitted dark horse, McGovern said he hopes to have 200 votes on the first ballot at the convention.

The senator castigated the Republicans and indicated he thought the issue of

New Viet Battles Flare Up, Heavy Casualties Reported

SAIGON (AP) — Fierce new battles flared up along the northern frontier, in the central highlands and east of Saigon, with heavy casualties reported on both sides, the allied command said today.

Allied troops repulsed four enemy attacks Thursday and yesterday, and U. S. Marines making a helicopter assault yesterday against North Vietnamese positions ran into an enemy mortar barrage.

* * *

These actions and a clash near Da Nang today left 205 enemy soldiers and 74 allied troops killed and 252 allied troops were wounded.

The sharp, scattered fighting stood out against what U. S. officials have interpreted as a long general lull in the war while the enemy refitted and rested its forces for an expected major offensive.

The heaviest action was around the training camp and artillery headquarters of the South Vietnamese 18th Division at Xuan Loc, 40 miles east of Saigon.

* * *

The Vietcong sent sappers and riflemen against the installation behind a 300-round mortar barrage Thursday, then ambushed one of the division's battalions yesterday five miles southeast of the town. Vietnamese sources reported 100 enemy soldiers killed in the two clashes. They said 52 government soldiers were killed and 112 wounded.

* * *

In the northern sector, 15 enemy sappers got into positions of a U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division unit yesterday as the enemy launched a strong mortar and ground attack against the American positions 15 miles northwest of Hue.

* * *

Spokesmen said 18 Americans were killed and 55 wounded and 17 enemy bodies were found, including those of three sappers killed inside the defensive perimeter.

* * *

Farther north, about 10 miles below the center of the demilitarized zone, enemy mortars killed four U. S. Marines and wounded 82 as the Leathernecks landed by helicopter for an attack. American artillery returned the fire and killed 10 enemy soldiers.

TOMORROW — Mostly sunny and pleasant.

MONDAY — Warmer with chance of showers.

* * *

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 40, tonight 10 and tomorrow near zero.

Sixty-seven was the low temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. By 12:30 p.m. the mercury stood at 75.

18th District Dems Favor McCarthy in Straw Vote

The 18th Congressional District Oakland County Democratic Party meeting yesterday had a heavy McCarthy flavor as precinct delegates elected a new district chairman and voted a heavy preference for Sen. Eugene McCarthy as the Democratic presidential candidate.

The 18th District group and the 19th District Oakland County Democratic Party held a joint county convention last night as well as separate district meetings.

* * *

Elected chairman of the 18th District group was Vernon G. Leopold of Huntington Woods to replace Eugene Kuthy of Royal Oak. Kuthy, a backer of Hubert Humphrey, chose not to seek reelection, so Leopold, a McCarthyite, was chosen unanimously.

During the meeting the 18th District delegates took a presidential preference vote, with 88 votes going to McCarthy, 10 to Humphrey, four to Sen. George McGovern and three uncommitted.

McGOVERN SPOKE

The vote was held early this morning after McGovern had spoken to the county convention.

In the 19th District Aldo Vagnozzi of Farmington was reelected chairman without opposition. Both conventions picked delegates to the state convention to be held next weekend.

* * *

State Sen. Sander M. Levin of Berkley, the state chairman of the Democratic Party, delivering the keynote address, said that "history has passed the Republican Party by" and said it must be the Democratic party which fills a "vacuum" in national politics.

The senator also said the party should nominate a vice presidential candidate who is in the mainstream of American life and one fully capable of being president. He said the choice must not be "dictated by a desire to appease" and he ruled out Texas Gov. John Connally as a candidate.

MONEY PRIORITIES

Both district groups passed a number of resolutions. The 18th District groups called for "reordering money priorities" with commitment to U.S. internal problems rather than the war, a four-step program for an end of the war in Viet-

Racial Violence Hits Two Cities

By The Associated Press

Police have charged two white men with the killing of a Negro woman, whose death touched off racial violence punctuated by sniper fire and property damage in several sections of Cincinnati, Ohio, last night and early today.

And St. Petersburg, Fla., early this morning experienced its first full-scale racial disorder since a garbage collector's strike began in May. A wave of fire-bombing, window smashing and looting swept the city's predominantly Negor south side.

* * *

Police said nine persons were injured, most of them whites struck by rocks or bottles as they drove through the disturbed area. None was seriously hurt, however.

At least four persons were injured, two critically, in Cincinnati. Police made 10 arrests.

MURDER CHARGES

First-degree murder charges were filed today against William Harrison, 22, and Elvin Billman, 31, both of Cincinnati.

An 18-year-old Middletown, Ohio, girl, riding unknowingly through the riot area in Avondale with three friends, received a serious eye injury when the car in which she was riding was halted by several Negroes.

A Negro youth was shot and wounded critically as he hurled bottles at police.

Officers said Harrison and Billman were arrested on descriptions supplied by witnesses at the shooting scene.

Dems Agree to Cut Hoopla

CHICAGO (AP) — The Democrats have had it with that old convention standby, the planned floor demonstration.

No more, at least not in 1968, the blaring bands and marching delegates after the nomination of each candidate — unless some delegations rebel.

In announcing the demonstration ban yesterday, party chairman John M. Bailey said a representative of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy told him the Minnesota senator concurred. Earlier, Vice President Humphrey and Sen. George S. McGovern had asked that the demonstrations be dropped.

The convention's Arrangements Committee also arrived at a seating plan for the 5,611 delegates and alternates, and detailed allocations of guest passes and other convention arrangements.

FORMAL INVITATIONS

Related Stories, Page A-2

Other demonstrations — those outside the convention hall — also came to the Arrangements Committee's attention.

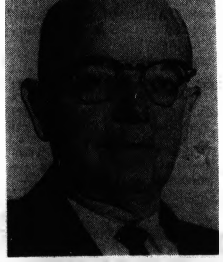
* * *

Bailey said the committee agreed that locations should be provided for the thousands of protesters expected to gather in Chicago.

In a further effort to streamline the convention, Bailey said nominating speeches will be given time limits but that the details would be worked out later.

* * *

He said state delegations will receive 1,310 guest passes, one for each two votes possessed by the state.



GOV. LESTER MADDOX

Georgia Governor Enters the Race

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Gov. Lester Maddox formally announces his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination today.

Maddox said he expects to have the support of several hundred delegates at the convention.

* * *

The governor, who selected the state's delegates, told them in a letter: "I am counting on your support at the convention."

The Maddox-selected delegation may become an issue at the convention, since it is being challenged by a group elected last weekend by the Georgia Democratic Party Forum, which questions the party loyalty of the Maddox delegation.

Test Flights Add 2 Missiles to N-Arsenal

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Two highly destructive multiple-warhead missiles designed to penetrate deep into enemy defenses entered the U.S. nuclear arsenal yesterday with spectacular back-to-back launchings.

The missiles—the Navy's Poseidon, capable of carrying 10 warheads that can be sprayed on preselected targets hundreds of miles apart, and the Air Force's Minuteman 3 — were labeled completely successful in maiden test flights from the space complex at Cape Kennedy.

When they become operational, the missiles will replace the Polaris and Minuteman 1 and 2 as the backbone of America's retaliatory force. Both are expected to be placed on operational status in about two years.

Details of the test flights were not disclosed. Official spokesmen for the space agency and the two services announced only that the Minuteman successfully traveled its planned 5,00-mile journey to a splashdown near Ascension Island and the Poseidon came down at a predetermined point 1,000 miles at sea.

Poseidon, rated potentially eight times as effective as Polaris, is 34 feet long, 74 inches in diameter and weighs 65,000 pounds. Like the Polaris, it has a range of 2,500 miles but it reportedly is twice as accurate.

The bigger, far-ranging Minuteman 3 is designed to take up to three warheads on a rocket that is 59 feet, 9 inches long and 6 feet wide. The Missile weighs 76,000 pounds and is capable of traveling more than 6,000 miles.

Both have computerized and motorized devices capable of dispersing nuclear warheads over scattered targets selected prior to launch. Present Polaris and Minuteman payloads can only follow a ballistic trajectory.

* * *

Air Force Lt. Col. Ward M. Millar, chief information officer for the space and missile systems organization, said Poseidon and the new Minuteman "together make up our strength. When both go as well as they did, it shows the country is in good hands."

The concept for the multiwarhead missiles was developed as a countermeasure to the Soviet Union's expansion of its offensive missile force and establishment of an antiballistic missile shield around Moscow.

* * *

Defense spokesmen say the missiles, with their multitarget and penetration capabilities, could give the United States an edge in deterrent strength.

* * *

'Remarkably Similar to RFK Views'

VP Spells Out Viet Stand

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, one of the Johnson administration's chief defenders of its Vietnam war policy, said today he and the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy "came to hold remarkably similar views on Vietnam."

Thus Humphrey appeared to be making one of his strongest campaign efforts to inch away from the political shadow of Vietnam and to identify himself with Kennedy.

Kennedy said he was opposed to forcing a coalition government, which would include Communists on the government of Saigon. And added: "I would make it quite clear that we are going to the negotiating table, not with the idea that we want them to unconditionally surrender and that we expect the National Liberation Front and the Vietcong will play some role in the future political process of South Vietnam, but that should be determined by the negotiators and particularly by the people of South Vietnam."

Humphrey said he believed the same thing.

FREE ELECTIONS

Humphrey said he also wanted to emphasize that he subscribes to most of the program proposed by the National Committee for a Political Settlement in Vietnam.

That program includes free elections with all political groups in South Vietnam, including the Vietcong, allowed to enter candidates a bar to military escalation or unilateral withdrawal by the United States and an immediate ceasefire.

The only modification to the Kerr proposal, is Humphrey said, is that he would end the U.S. bombing of North Vietnam only after "restraint and reasonable response" is obtained from North Vietnam.

GROGGY GORILLA—Casey, a 750-pound male gorilla, is administered a heavy dose of sedative for his jet flight, sans cage, from St. Paul, Minn., to Omaha, Neb. The 12-year-old Casey has spent most of his life in captivity and has not known another gorilla during that time. However, zoo officials in Omaha are planning to change that in a hurry. Casey will be introduced to two female gorillas—Brigitte and Benoit—sometime next week.

Most of Cabdrivers Strike in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — More than 5,400 cab drivers struck Chicago's two largest taxi companies today, leaving the city with only 20 per cent of its taxi fleet in operation.

The strike, affecting all but 900 of the city's taxicabs, came just nine days before the opening of the Democratic National Convention Aug. 26.

* * *

Negotiations between representatives of the drivers and Yellow and Checker Cab companies with federal mediators broke down last night with both sides trading charges. No new talks were scheduled.

A spokesman for the cab companies said, "The situation is hopeless. The union just kept raising its prices."

Union leaders retaliated with a charge of being locked out by management. The

The dispute centers on the union's demand for higher wages and increased fringe benefits.

The strike may affect the Democratic Credentials Committee hearings, which begin Monday. If the strike continues it probably would affect transportation of delegates during the convention

Adding to concern over convention transportation is a call for a wildcat strike on Aug. 25, the eve of the convention, by some bus drivers for the Chicago Transit Authority.

Their dispute centers on a demand by Negro drivers for representation in leadership of their union, the Amalgamated Transit Workers. A little more than half of the 8,340 drivers are Negroes. All union officers are white.

Iowa Home Fire Kills 7 Children

HAZLETON, Iowa (UPI) — Seven children in a rural family were killed early today when fire swept their two-story farm home a half-mile east of here.

All seven died of smoke inhalation, authorities said. The children—ranging in age from 8 months to 13 years — were seven of the 11 children living at home in the Doras Latham family.

* * *

The fire alarm was given by the father, who ran to a neighbor's house shouting that his house was on fire and that he couldn't get the children out.

The victims were Sally Latham, 8 months; Michael Latham, 2; Charles Latham, 3; twins Lori and Lynn Latham, 8; Mary Latham, 7; and Sharon Greathead, 13. Four boys escaped from the fire. One, Gerald Greathead, was treated for smoke inhalation.

* * *

The fire started in a rear kitchen area in the house. Mrs. Latham had been married previously, and five of the children in the house were hers by her former marriage. They were Sharon and Gerald and the other three boys who escaped from the fire, Raymond, Fritz and Beryl.

County Dems Hail Senator on Call for a Bombing Halt

crime in the streets was a convenient "political" issue. "I don't know of any congressman who is in favor of lawlessness . . . It takes neither brains nor courage to come out with a cry for law and order."

The senator said that along with law and order there must be justice and compassion.

McGovern, who said he was the Senate's first critic of the conduct of the war in Vietnam, speaking out against administration policy on the Senate floor in September 1963, said he believes that "even the most confirmed hawks are beginning to see the futility of the course we have been pursuing in Vietnam."

He said he doesn't believe the future of Vietnam, or any Southeast Asian country, will ever be decided by outside military presence. McGovern said the U.S. has for 14 years spent money and blood to support a series of regimes, "no one of which has ever had the confidence and respect of the people of Vietnam.

The senator said that whatever happens at the convention, he would support the Democratic candidate for president as vigorously as he can.

Political experts indicated that McGovern may not have picked up any immediate delegate support at the national convention.

An Associated Press poll shows that of Michigan's 96 votes, 66 lean to Humphrey, 14 are for McCarthy, one avows support of McGovern and 15 are uncommitted. It is possible that the uncommitted candidates could swing to McGovern.

18th District Dems Favor McCarthy nam, and elimination of the draft with a substantial, well-paid volunteer army under civilian control.

The 19th District group passed resolutions calling for lowering the voting age to 18, peace in Vietnam, spring primary elections rather than fall primaries, a presidential primary in Michigan, and more allocation of state gas tax money for repair of local roads.

Oakland County Party Chairman George Googasian said the county executive committee will meet next week to reconsider its decision to name Shane Murphy, son of missing County Clerk John D. Murphy, as the party's candidate for county clerk.

This came about after a "black caucus" of Negro Democrats met and asked Googasian to reconsider the candidacy of Charlie J. Harrison of 85 Carr, who became a write-in candidate for the nomination a few days before the primary election.

Against Lawlessness

Pontiac Pastor Issues Plea

A leading Negro minister in Pontiac today appealed to Negroes to refrain from violence and lawless acts and reports such acts to police for the good of the community.

"I feel it is time that Negro leaders must speak out against lawlessness to ease the minds of more rational people in the community," said Rev. Matthew M. Scott, pastor of East Side Church of God, 343 Irwin.

* * *

"We are pleading to reasonable and rationally minded people not to side with or sanction persons who break the law, disrupt society and threaten the morality and principles of others.

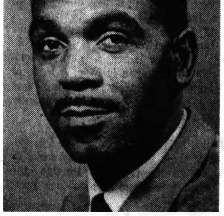
"No person or group has the right to break laws and expect the same laws to protect them in doing so. Justice is acceptable to those that believe in justice and is executed upon those who disregard its power."

CITY REWARDS

Rev. Scott's comments came after the City Commission Tuesday passed a resolution offering rewards up to $1,000 for information leading to the arrest of individuals responsible for arson or an attack on police and firemen which constitutes interference with the performance of their duties.

"The City Commission ruling is right," he said. "We cannot condone wrong. People should report violent acts when they see them to maintain peace between the races."

Rev. Scott also leveled a strong plea for an integrated society.



REV. MATTHEW M. SCOTT

"The ministers of this city are against any and all persons or groups . . . that practice hate and segregation in our city, county, state and nation. We, as a people, must stan dtogether as Americans . . . regardless of race, creed or color.

AGAINST SEPARATISM

"I believe that 90 per cent of the Negro population does not support separatism," he concluded.

Rev. Scott is also president of the Oakland County Ministerial Fellowship and the Oakland County Ministerial Missionary Association.

Veteran Actor Seen in Two Series on 7

A familiar, competent face is getting double exposure on Channel 7 in two widely differing roles. And Jack Warden is very much at home in both series, having lived in surroundings similar to each.

In ABC-TV's police drama series "N.Y.P.D.," which is being produced against the actual backgrounds of New York City, Warden stars as Detective Lt. Mike Haines, up from the ranks with 18 years on the force.

* * *

Born just over the river in Newark, N.J., Warden earned a living in New York as a professional boxer, deck hand on East River tugboats, bouncer in a dance hall, and a lifeguard. "N.Y.P.D." is seen Tuesday nights at 9:30 on WXYZ-TV.

Sundays at 4 p.m. Jack is back on Channel 7 in "Wackiest Ship in the Army," a comedy aired on the networks in 1965-66. Here he costars with Gary Collins in the story of a two-masted schooner doing intelligence duty in World War II — jointly run by the Army and Navy.

SERVICE RECORD

Here again, Jack is at home, having served a 3½-year hitch with the Navy along the China coast. At the outbreak of World War II he reenlisted, this time in the Merchant Marine, where he had a ship sunk from under him. Reenlisting again in the Army, he served with the 101st Airborne Division of Infantry Paratroopers.

Preparing for the D-Day invasion of Normandy, Warden broke a leg in a practice jump over England. In a base hospital, he met another GI from show business who sparked Jack's inferest in acting.

* * *

After the war he attended acting classes in New York, toured with stock companies and put in a five-season apprenticeship at the Margo Jones Theatre in Dallas.

Among Warden's notable stage roles: the Italian immigrant of Arthur Miller's "View From the Bridge" and the song-and-dance comic in "The Body Beautiful." He appeared in "Lullaby" with Kay Medford and Mary Boland, and in "A Very Special Baby," produced by David Susskind, whose Talent Associates is producing "N.Y.P.D."

DRAMATIC SHOWCASES

Warden has been a guest star on virtually every major dramatic show on television, including the early dramatic showcases such as "Studio One" and "Playhouse 90."

Among Jack's many motion picture credits are "Bachelor Party," in which he played the restless organizer, "Twelve Angry Men," as the thick-skinned salesman, and "Edge of the City," as the sadistic dock boss. His most recent film, "Bye, Bye Braverman," was filmed in New York.

* * *

Warden maintains residences on both the West Coast and in New York and his wife, Vanda, and their son, Christopher, 6, have joined Jack in New York.

Travel Is a Boon to Patricia Blair

Pat Blair takes "the girls," two Italian Greyhounds, with her whenever she travels. Husband Martin Colbert calls them his "three little gypsies."

Marilyn Monroe, as the blonde "chantoosie" in "Bus Stop," has her bag packed and is ready to leave after cowboy Don Murray starts making marriage plans. The movie will be rebroadcast on Channel 7 Wednesday from 9 to 11.
