

Barry, Johnson Swap Barbs on Campaign Trail

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) — President Johnson, who claims he is wrapping election issues around Barry Goldwater's neck, said today he will "not play the war game of bluff and bluster."

Johnson bore down on questions of war and peace in a speech prepared for an outdoor audience at Albuquerque, N.M., start of a day-long tour through the West that actually was aimed primarily at voters in Southern California.

The President's strongest language was prepared for the New Mexico crowd.

He said: "The stakes in the election are success and survival. The issues are recklessness or responsibility."

Going on to stress issues which he says find him and Goldwater far apart, Johnson concluded, in his stiffest language: "We cannot and we will not play the war game of bluff and bluster. That risk is too great."

QUICK TOUR

Before swinging into the West, Johnson made a quickie tour in the Northeast Tuesday night.

In Pittsburgh's ultra-modern Civic Auditorium, he delivered one of the most surprising speeches of his campaign.

Ticking off a series of major policy questions, including the civil rights law, Johnson said with direct reference to Goldwater: "These are all issues in this campaign, and we are wrapping them right around his neck."

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today President Johnson "kidnaped the Democratic party" for eventual delivery to Socialists when he chose Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey as his running mate.

The Republican nominee for the White House hammered away at his charge that Johnson is hungry for power, and accused the President of trying to frighten people into voting for him.

"I charge," the Arizona senator said, "that the Johnson machine is driven by lust for power, by fear of the exposure of wrongdoing in high places, by fear of punishment and by hope of special privilege."

Goldwater alternated between defense and attack in a speech prepared for a rally at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

It kicks off a day of Midwest vote-hunting that will take him also to Oshkosh, Wis., and East St. Louis, Ill.

SUPPORT DORMANT

Johnson, he said, "has failed to arouse real grass-roots support for his candidacy."

Goldwater declared Republicans have that kind of support, and said the backing of small newspapers and of "close to one million" small contributors demonstrate it.

Miller Asks: Reuther Pick for Labor Dept.?

DETROIT (UPI) — Republican vice presidential nominee William E. Miller headed west today from Detroit where he warned businessmen that United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther could be the nation's next secretary of labor.

The New York congressman's schedule called for him to fly to La Crosse, Wis., where his Democratic opponent, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, campaigned last Saturday. Miller also had stops to make in North and South Dakota before ending the arduous day in Missoula, Mont.

Johnson Expected in Detroit Friday

DETROIT (AP) — Democratic Party sources said today President Lyndon Johnson will make a campaign stop in Detroit Friday morning.

A spokesman said Johnson will land at Detroit Metropolitan Airport at about 10:30 a.m. Friday, meet with local politicians and deliver a campaign speech.

The Democratic spokesman said the stop will be brief and that Johnson will not leave the airport.

Nine Killed in California Jet Crash

Woodwork, Metal Firm Burns to Ground
Despite Efforts of 70

A blaze described by village fire officials as the "worst fire here in at least 20 years," last night razed the Industrial Woodwork & Metal Corp. in Armada, one of the community's biggest industries.

The building at 22966 W. Main burned completely to the ground despite the efforts of seven area fire departments called to the scene.

About 70 firemen from Selfridge Air Force Base, Romeo, Macomb Township, Richmond, Washington Township and New Haven helped the Armada department fight the blaze.

Cause of the fire is still undetermined.

The alarm was turned in at about 6:45 p.m. yesterday by an unidentified man, who told Armada firemen he heard an explosion and, after checking his own house nearby, noticed the flames inside the factory.

DAMAGE was estimated at "at least $125,000" today by Armada Fire Chief Al Kahler, who said that the loss was probably covered in part by insurance.

Kahler said that it was the worst fire since he has been Armada's fire chief, about 20 years.

A large crowd watched firemen battle the flames until the fire was brought under control at about 11 p.m.

The front wall of the building had to be pulled down when it began to sag, threatening to collapse on firefighters.

MINOR INJURIES

Injuries to firemen were limited to minor hand injuries, and none were hospitalized.

The Armada department stayed at the scene until 1 a.m. today, returning at 5:30 a.m. to extinguish a minor flare-up.

SCENE OF DESTRUCTION — The crash of a twin-jet Navy bomber left a scene of desolation at El Centro, Calif., yesterday. The bomber crashed in flames after hitting a power line near the naval airfield. A witness said an engine became disconnected from the plane and careened down the parking lot near the field.

The big A3D twin-jet bomber had dropped a parachutist in the program yesterday at the El Centro Naval Air Facility, then crashed when it hit a power pole after racing low over a reviewing stand.

Six Near Death With Burns; 9 Seriously Hurt

Plane Strikes Pole
During Parachuting
Program at Base

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — Nine men are dead and six persons, critically hurt, were near death today with burns suffered when a jet bomber crashed in flames during a parachuting demonstration at a Navy airfield.

Nine others persons are hospitalized with serious injuries. Twenty others escaped with minor hurts.

The big A3D twin-jet bomber had dropped a parachutist in the program yesterday at the El Centro Naval Air Facility, then crashed when it hit a power pole after racing low over a reviewing stand.

Three of those killed were the crewmen on the plane. The others were in buildings struck by the flaming wreckage which fell across the center of the base.

The 70,000-pound jet came apart in the air after one wing hit the power pole.

BLAZING WRECKAGE The shower of blazing wreckage scattered 400 yards across buildings and parking lots, setting two major fires, smashing buildings, setting autos afire.

Women and children — servicemen's dependents — were among the victims.

"Women were running across the street through the burning heat with their hair on fire," said a witness. "Their children were screaming."

The crowded main exchange — comprising a drugstore, supermarket and snack bar — was hit by the plunging fuselage.

WING DAMAGE A wing smashed into the station's administration building.

A mass of flaming wreckage plunged into the post theater and killed James Wall, 27, of Long Beach, a quartermaster as he was testing a film which was to have been shown last night.

A sailor painting chairs in a service building hit by the plane was bounced off the ceiling, then flung out through a hole in a wall. The building burst into flames.

He ran to aid his friends, trapped inside, and was hurled back by a blast and injured.

JET FUEL Blazing jet fuel showered much of the quarter-mile impact area.

One engine smashed all the way through the chapel — which was empty — burst out the other side and smashed cars in a parking lot beyond.

Housing Sale 'Proves Need'

Developer Charles L. Langs has proof of the need for townhouse apartments in Pontiac.

Langs, whose 65-unit Pontiac Townhouse Apartments development was sold out in just four hours after the grand opening, estimates 4,500 people have toured his model unit.

Enthusiased at the response, the developer is planning a similar 400-unit development at the city's southern boundary.

He cited modern living accommodations at a realistic cost as the reasons for the quick sale of the cooperative apartment on Douglas near Pike where 65 units were erected on a 5-acre site.

Langs, who purchased urban renewal land for this development, said the 3% interest rate specified by the federal government made possible the low monthly payments for the apartments.

CITY BENEFITS

Langs also pointed out that the City of Pontiac derives full property tax benefits from the development.

The new apartment complex will be located on a 30-acre site on the east side of Woodward across from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and extending to the Bloomfield Township line.

For Osteopathic Hospital

Fund-Raising Meeting Is Set

Securing the remaining $122,250 necessary to purchase the Pontiac site for a proposed osteopathic college will be the aim of a noon meeting Tuesday, Nov. 12.

City Manager Joseph A. Warren said today that the meeting would consist of local service club representatives and businessmen.

Announcement yesterday of the location in Pontiac of the osteopathic college climaxed nearly three months labor by businessmen, city officials and college leaders.

The college, if finally located in the city, would be erected on a 16-acre site at the southwest corner of Auburn and Opdyke.

Land for the medical school is being purchased from trustees of the Fisher family by a private group of local citizens, who will turn it over to the college as a gift.

WORKED QUIETLY

The 15-member citizens group worked quietly for three months to raise $252,750 of the $410,000 purchase price.

Bruce J. Annett of Annett Realtors Inc., who negotiated for the land, has waived his commission of $35,000, leaving $122,250 remaining to be raised.

Warren, commenting at last night's commission meeting, said that over 65 per cent of the purchase price had been contributed by local interests.

The proposed medical school complex, which will eventually include a 440-bed hospital, is expected to grow into a $60-million development in 15-20 years, said Warren.

Death Takes Commissioner

Emmett S. Wellbaum
Dies at Age of 58

City Commissioner Emmett S. Wellbaum, 58, who was elected as a write-in candidate in the April election, died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital.

Cause of death was not revealed. However, the District 7 commissioner underwent surgery in July and again last Thursday.

Wellbaum of 269 Seward was a purchased parts inspector at Pontiac Motor Division, where he had worked 19 years. He was an unsuccessful candidate in District 1 in 1952.

He was born in Marion, Ind., in 1906 and came to Pontiac in 1945. He attended Baylor University in Dallas, Texas.

He was a member of B.P.O.E. 810; Pontiac Traffic Club; UAW Local 653; Pontiac Area Urban League; a charter member and treasurer of the National Office Management Association and past president of the Pioneer Highlands Civic Association.

The City Commission last night honored Wellbaum as "a kindly man in a world where there are too few kindly men."

In an official resolution, the commission commended him as a conscientious public servant, who was fair and just.

Service for Wellbaum will be at 2 p.m. Friday at St. Ignace Grifflin Funeral Home, with burial in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery. An Elks Lodge of Sorrow will be 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Surviving: besides his wife, Mary, are three daughters, Mrs. Jeanette Medsker and Mrs. Virginia Garcia, both of California, and Mrs. Mary J. Sharpe of Howell; three sons, Bert, Donald and Emmett Jr., all of California; a sister, Mrs. Andrew F. Peiray of Indianapolis; and a brother, Robert Cremins of Indianapolis.

Strikes Still Cripple GM; Few Cars Out

DETROIT (AP) — Crippling local-level strikes continue today at 25 General Motors plants, but the auto-making giant at least was getting a trickle of new cars out.

The United Auto Workers Union called off a 31-day nationwide strike against GM Sunday, but it permitted bargaining units still without at-the-plant working agreements to stay off the job in support of local demands.

There have been three new local-level settlements since then.

Thus 25 of the 130 bargaining units in GM's far-flung operations still have no at-the-plant working agreements to supplement the new UAW-GM national contract.

The Pontiac Motors Division at Pontiac and the Buick Division at Flint now have new cars rolling off assembly lines. So has a Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac assembly plant at Kansas City, Kan.

22 CLOSED

A total of 22 assembly plants or related Fisher body plants still are closed by unresolved local disputes.

Also still shut is the Hydramatic Division at nearby Willow Run, which builds automatic transmissions for all GM cars.

LAUNCH $250-MILLION PROJECT — Ground-breaking ceremonies in Orion Township yesterday initiated construction on a new community to be called "Keatington." Taking his turn with the spade is Howard Keating, president of Keating of Michigan, Inc., the developers. Watching are (from left) Bernard M. Conboy, director of economic expansion for the state of Michigan; Donald S. Condon, Keating vice president; and Orion Township Supervisor John Lessiter. (See map and story, page A-4).

Showers Will Bring Temperature Down

Widely scattered showers forecast for late today will drop temperatures into the low 40s tonight.

Partly cloudy skies and cooler temperatures are predicted for tomorrow, the highs ranging from 48 to 64. Friday will be warmer with little change over the weekend.

Precipitation in scattered showers totaling about 2.0 of an inch will arrive about Sunday or Monday.

Fifty-two was the low recording in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. By 2 p.m. the mercury had climbed to 67.

Shorten Meeting Due to Death

The City Commission transacted only necessary business last night because of the death of Commissioner Emmett Wellbaum.

A public hearing was held on vacating part of Beverly, Ivy, Tennyson and Mansfield and also part of First, Second, Third and Fourth.

No one objected to the proposed vacations.

The commission next week will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, a day early because of the Nov. 3 general election.

Church Plans School

MANISTEE (AP)—A school serving kindergarten through the eighth grade is planned for construction by Trinity Lutheran Church of Manistee. Expected cost is $180,000. The building will accommodate approximately 200 Sunday school students and 60 in weekday classes.

County Benefits Plan Extended to Cover Retirees

Hospitalization insurance benefits provided for its employees by Oakland County were extended yesterday to include present and future retirees and beneficiaries on the rolls of the employee retirement system.

Extension of the insurance benefits was approved by the board of supervisors on the recommendation of the employees retirement committee.

Cost of the program, which will become effective Jan. 1, 1965, was estimated at $15,000 for the first year.

The county presently provides one-half of the premium for an employee and his (or her) family on the Blue Cross plan.

The board also approved an amendment to the county employees' retirement plan which requires termination of an employee's retirement benefits at age 70.

NEW PLAN

Under the new plan, which becomes effective Jan. 1, 1965, an employee who retires after the age of 70 will receive benefits based on his salary and years of service accrued at the age of 70.

The present plan permits accumulation of benefits until the time of retirement, regardless of age.

In other action the board approved a recommendation of the buildings and grounds committee that a site be made available in the Service Center for construction of a new County Employees' Credit Union Office.

The site recommended by the committee is located near the Crippled Children's Society Building on the west side of Telegraph Road.

TO GRANT LEASE

A lease, subject to final approval of construction plans, will be granted to the credit union, which will build the new facility at its own expense.

The board also approved commencement of condemnation proceedings on 2,900 square feet of land located on Cass Lake Road adjacent to the Clinton River in Waterford Township.

The parcel, owned by Joseph J. Corey, will be used for construction of a dam to control the level of Cass Lake.

German Said Killed
by Dominican Diplomat

BONN, Germany (UPI)—Rafael De La Maza, minister of the Dominican Embassy, shot a German citizen to death early today in the nearby village of Niderdellendorf, the West German Foreign Ministry announced. The German victim was not immediately identified.

Supervisors Approve

County in Youth Program

Oakland County's entrance in the Michigan Employment Security Commission's work education program for youth was approved yesterday by the board of supervisors.

The program is designed to provide 26 weeks of educational employment for youth in the 16-21 age bracket who are high school graduates or high school dropouts.

They are paid $10 per week by the state and $10 by the local governmental unit participating in the program for a 40-hour week.

A survey by the county personnel department indicates that a minimum of 11 positions in various county departments could be filled by the youth program, according to the resolution presented to the board yesterday by the ways and means committee.

An initial amount of $3,900 will be appropriated from the 1964 contingent fund to cover the first 26 week period for up to 15 employees.

will be in the hands of a single agency responsible to the voters.

Three candidates, Alvin Bentley, Joyce Hatton and Karla Parker, served on Romney's Citizens Committee on Higher Education. Mr. Bentley led the development and adoption of this modern concept of government for our education system. The quality of this board which we elect November 3rd will be the key to Michigan's education future.

MRS. SIEGEL W. JUDD
GRAND RAPIDS

Why does Staebler continue to charge that Romney backs Goldwater? This is the same if Republicans would associate Staebler with the beliefs of Gov. Wallace, Faubus or Barnett because he belongs to the same Democratic party. Because of the excellent job Romney has done it is extremely difficult for Staebler to find any real issue.

Life magazine had an editorial stating they are endorsing Johnson for reelection but also feel it is important that five out-standing Republicans should be reelected. Among them is Romney. I concur with their selection of Johnson and Romney.

I. SPLIT TICKET

Do people realize when they elect LBJ that Humphrey is next in line? Do they know that Humphrey is one of the vice-presidents of the A.D.A.?

SO CONCERNED

Do you want Red China admitted to the United Nations? Why hasn't Russia paid her share of the cost of the United Nations? Do you want all your income tax sent to Communist countries? Do you want our national debt to continue to rise? Do you want the Communists to control America? Do you want our children burdened with our debts because we were too tight on vote or voted for the wrong man? What are our boys in Viet Nam dying for?

I want my voice heard on election day. Vote for a man whose reputation is without blemish.

A FAITHFUL REPUBLICAN

There seems to be some concern, in the event that Goldwater is elected, for the many government programs which make public money available to all of us. Why are so many Americans afraid and insecure?

The late President Kennedy said, "Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country." Goldwater has suggested we make this ideal a reality. When some people realize that "what you can do for your country" is to give up some of our precious government dote, they want no part of it.

Goldwater offers this country something that has been lacking for too long—reliance on individual participation, not only in government but in the day-to-day give and take of the American way of life.

HARRY BARNETT
WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP

Let's not all be swept under by Romney's smooth talk. He hasn't done that much with Michigan. This national boom fostered by the Kennedy-Johnson administration is not something created by Romney, Governor of only 3 per cent of the American people. Most of the revenue which has made up the deficit came through more taxes, the simplest, oldest, most expensive way of solving a deficit.

In the field of mental health, Romney has been so tight that we have a huge and dangerous shortage of facilities — our mental hospital in Pontiac is a good example.

Romney received less cooperation on the same tax reform program from a Republican legislature than Swanson, a Democrat.

WALLED LAKE

The last three wars were under Democratic administrations. We are in a war now under a Democratic administration. We so loved Republican Eisenhower who helped us end a war, we made him our president.

I hope Henry Ford and others aren't thinking only of themselves and looking for defense contracts with Johnson.

HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMAN

It is time the present Waterford Township administration is labeled for what it is. One man's expanded ego is pushing his misdirected ambition down our throats, regardless of the consequences. The sad part is that he has four cohorts who accede to his every wish without considering the people of this township.

One board member, Loren Anderson, has remembered his purpose of trying to decide the issues from the standpoint of what is best for the community, but he stands alone.

WIDE AWAKE

Voters of Waterford have been subjected to a rash of campaign oratory and literature that claims an attitude of unresponsiveness exists among township officers and board members. These office seekers prey upon the frustrations of people who have been temporarily inconvenienced as a result of several far-seeing public projects.

James Seeterlin has worked untiringly for the improvement of our community and is deeply concerned with the well-being of the people. Because he refused to knuckle under to the pressure of a minority he has been accused of an uncaring attitude. Nothing could be further from the truth.

MRS. WILLIAM TERRY JR.
WATERFORD TOWNSHIP

Heed the words of author Phyllis Schlafly, who says: "The nomination of Barry Goldwater is a demonstration that 'Knowledge is power' and 'to be forewarned is to be forearmed.' Grass-roots Republicans were on to the kingmaker's tricks."

The kingmakers are persons who control Americans through financial, political and propaganda means. They are anxious for us not to curtail our foreign giveaway programs and this could happen if a president were elected who put the welfare of Americans first or a president who would urge for the collapse of the Communist system by not giving them diplomatic or economic assistance.

W. B.

I have been watching Mr. Kuhn's ad in the Pontiac Press. Is he ashamed of the district he is running in? Also, the ad doesn't give his first name.

Mr. Farnum tells the voter what district he is running in — the 19th. He is proud of it. Oh, his first name is Billie. Let's come out in the open, Mr. Kuhn.

D. S.
UNION LAKE

What is Edward Chey, supervisor of White Lake Township, trying to put over on the people? In his recent handbill he states: "I have experienced the unfortunate results of blunders made before I took office, which are in the process of being corrected." What are these blunders? Mr. Chey also states that White Lake Township has many improved roads since he took office. Does the county not qualify for some of the credit?

He states, too, that the police and fire department are improved. How? Mr. Chey says the township has a working budget and hasn't been in the red since he took office. The township has never been in the red, even though it now pays a township tax—one of Mr. Chey's accomplishments.

MRS. CHARLES DONELAW JR.

It is difficult to sit quietly and listen to all the candidates harangue at length about Medicare, Food Packaging, Sleeping Bear, etc., when the real issue is how to get rid of Communists who are in high places in our government. Proof of this fact is evidenced by the continued defeats which have occurred.

Communism has progressed from a few hundred in 1917 to control of about two-thirds of the world's population. We have done nothing but retreat, and that could not have happened if people in power had not been either duped, naïve, ill advised or traitors.

Put someone into the White House who has not been brainwashed. From his remarks and actions in the Senate that man is Senator Goldwater.

N. K. HUNTER
309 W. QUORIS

I will not vote for Johnson. I am a Democrat, but not a Liberal. This country is moving toward socialism because of man's desertion of God and his desire for material comforts.

I am not saying Goldwater can cure this disease, but Johnson will do nothing to stop us from the socialist trend we are in.

Hubert Humphrey is for one world government that takes from the rich and gives to the poor and let everyone be at the same level. All men are not equal, only politically.

I will die for my country, but I will not die for Social Security, the U.N. or TVA. I am a nationalist. Let us tend to our own business, not the business of other countries.

A TENNESSEE VOTER

Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, the director of the World War II A-Bomb project, had his security clearance revoked by the Atomic Energy Commission in 1954.

Oppenheimer had not been given security clearance in 1961, but he was sent on a lecture tour of five Latin American countries by the Organization of American States. The State Department did not object. Such a record would warrant further surveillance by the FBI, but President Johnson could find no reason for such treatment. In fact, last year Oppenheimer was invited to the White House where the President presented him with an award of $50,000—tax free.

If the Oppenheimer case does not coincide with your conception of meritorious action, then let's make Sen. Barry Goldwater our next president.

Need Investigation in Building Industry

It's time insurance companies as well as the Labor Department of Michigan, from which workmens compensation is paid, make an investigation into the safety hazards that are being created in the building industry, especially among the home and small building contractors.

Do contractors care nothing for the safety of their employees as long as they get their money? Or is the State by-passing their responsibility for safety to keep the building industry going?

Contractors should be refused building permits unless they agree to safety regulations for their employees.

Your item in Friday's paper about the "dirty bird" and the $10,000 hothead for the starling population in Washington brings to mind that Shakespeare is partly to blame for our trouble with that bird.

In 1890 a wealthy New Yorker, Eugene Schieffelin, who had two great passions in his life—birds and Shakespeare—decided to introduce into America every bird mentioned in Shakespeare's plays.

Skyarks, song thrushes and nightingales didn't thrive in their new environment but 40 pairs of starlings brought from England to New York City Central Park prospered. In a few years the bird developed from a curiosity to a national problem. I wonder if Shakespeare who mentioned the starling only once could be classified as "The evil that men do lives after them?"

Disappointed in Pontiac by Proposed Tax

Waterford Township Supervisor and Board members are on record as objecting to the new income tax levied by Pontiac. Waterford Township and other communities affected should not have to pull Pontiac's chestnuts out of the fire.

I believe Pontiac needs us a lot more than we need them. The eighteen or so dollars per pay check per year that they will gain isn't a drop in the bucket to the amount we can quit spending in Pontiac. Pontiac doesn't have one thing that we can't get somewhere else.

My husband and I both grew up in Pontiac, graduated from school there and have always felt a certain loyalty, even though we have lived in Waterford for seventeen years. But this caps it.

MRS. JOHN HOKE
WATERFORD TOWNSHIP

It is shameful for Pontiac to demand that citizens of other communities pay their way without voice or vote in the management of their own community affairs.

How about sharing your city taxes with Keego Harbor, Waterford, and other communities? We love the sneaky way you sold this to your own residents, by telling them that their property taxes would be lowered.

But we have a retaliatory measure. We do not have to support your places of business. If it were not for the outlying district around Pontiac and for industry, Pontiac would be a dead town.

Wake up citizens of Pontiac before it is too late.

Man Freed in LBJ Case

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A young Michigan steelworker who was carrying two guns when he was arrested a few blocks from where President Johnson was speaking Monday, is free.

Police dropped a vagrancy charge against Bruce Lee Cornell, 23, of Wyandotte, Mich., Tuesday. They said it was determined he was innocently passing through Jacksonville when the incident occurred.

Police arrested Cornell, a former Navy enlisted man who was once stationed here, in a downtown bank. They found an unloaded carbine in his carrying case and a loaded pistol in a zipper bag. He had an account in the bank.

What is said to be the world's largest hydrofoil boat, more than 220 feet long and 40 feet wide, is being built for the Navy.

POLLING BY — Ben Park is a newsboy who makes his Indianapolis neighborhood notice as he makes his deliveries on a bicycle. He mastered the conveyance in a short time.

Junior Editors Quiz on Dog Traits

QUESTION: Why does a dog turn 'round and 'round when he wants to lie down?

ANSWER: Dogs have not always been domestic animals, with cozy beds provided by their human friends to lie down upon. The various wild dogs which were the ancestors of our present dogs often lived out in the open, hunting in packs when their combined strength might bring larger prey down.

Under these circumstances, they did not have soft comfortable places to sleep, such as the cat's ancestors probably had in the jungle and forest, where there were many cozy hiding places, carpeted with moss or leaves.

So the wild dogs became accustomed to making their own beds in the grasses which covered their hunting grounds. Scratching up the ground would soften it and remove irritating stones and sticks; turning 'round and 'round would bend the grass around as a bird does to hollow out her nest.

This practice must have become so much a part of wild dogs' lives that their descendants, not realizing it was no longer necessary, went right on with it.

So Jackie, the little Chihuahua, industriously scrapes up the rug in her master's home as if it were nothing but a flat layer of grass which instinct tells her should be fluffed up to be more comfortable.

FOR YOU TO DO: Watch how a dog hastily gulps his food. This also is inherited from his wild ancestors who had to eat hurriedly for fear that some larger animal might drive them away before they'd finished.

Coast Guard Plans to 'Scatter' Patrols

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Coast Guard announced today a program of "roving patrols" designed to reduce the number of boating accidents in remote areas.

Vice Adm. William D. Shields, assistant commandant of the Coast Guard, said, that in the past the service had tended to emphasize its safety efforts "in areas of heavy boating concentration right off the marina, for example."

"Now we are going to change our approach somewhat to strive for greater geographical coverage and thereby greater insurance," Shields said in a speech prepared for delivery to the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers.

Sudan Riots Still Raging

Concessions Fail to Halt General Strike

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UPI) — Rioting and a general strike persisted late yesterday in the neighboring Sudan Republic despite concessions by the military regime, broadcasts from that country indicated.

The rioting, which started last Thursday, has left at least 11 dead and 120 injured in Khartoum and elsewhere.

There have been anti-American overtones. The American Embassy and U.S. Information Agency library have been slightly damaged. One embassy employee was struck by a stone.

Chief target of the demonstrations was the military regime of President Ibrahim Abboud, 64. On Monday he dissolved his six-officer junta.

RADIO APPEAL

Last night Radio Omdurman (Omdurman is the twin city of Khartoum, the Sudanese capital) appealed to railroad workers to return to their jobs "and avoid rioting and sabotage."

The broadcast said special trains carrying water and provisions and operated by volunteers were scheduled to leave Khartoum once a day for other areas.

A prolonged stoppage in rail service could endanger the lives of many railroad agents in desert way-stations. They are wholly reliant on train service for their food and water.

The Sudan is a neutralist, predominantly Arab country which gets aid from both the Western and Soviet nations.

Yesterday Sudanese students in both Yugoslavia and the U.S.S.R. staged anti-law strikes at their Belgrade and Moscow embassies, respectively.

Dollar losses from fire were down 7.9 per cent to $615 million the first five months of this year compared to a comparable period last year.

Area Stores Lend Space to UF Cause

Leading area merchants have extended a helping hand to promote local Pontiac Area United Fund agencies by donating valuable display space during the current Pontiac Area United Fund drive.

Some 25 health, family, recreation and research agencies are taking advantage of the opportunity to bring to public attention the "agency story" through visual means.

According to Charles L. Cousins, Pontiac Motor service promotion manager and UF display chairman, 45 display assignments have been scheduled through Nov. 6.

Included among the various displays are three 10-by-12-inch youth panels designed by the Pontiac Motor charts and display department. They are being circulated to nine different display sites.

Assisting Cousins with agency display schedules is Thomas Hooper, caseworker for Big Brothers of Oakland County.

Keating, Kennedy on TV Back-to-Back, Not Face-to-Face

NEW YORK (AP) — Accusing each other of ducking a face-to-face television debate, Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating and his Democratic opponent, Robert F. Kennedy, went on back-to-back telecasts Tuesday night.

Kennedy appeared outside the studio as Keating began "debating" an empty chair, but was barred from entering. Each side gave different explanations.

After Keating's half-hour, on which he said Kennedy's campaign was dirty and ruthless, he would expose his ruthless attempt to destroy my character and lifetime of service."

The candidates presented widely differing views on a letter which the Fair Campaign Practices Committee sent Kennedy, but later withdrew.

Keating read from an account in the New York Herald Tribune, citing an alleged quotation from the letter. Keating said it confirmed his charge of distortion by Kennedy.

Alluding to reports that the committee had withdrawn the letter, Keating said: "It makes no difference what this committee does now, under any arm twisting or whatever."

VINDICATED

But Kennedy said he believed his integrity had been vindicated by the committee's withdrawal of the letter and its apology to him.

Ralph McGill, publisher of the Atlanta Constitution, resigned from the committee because of the letter. He said it appeared the criticism of Kennedy was a committee action, but that he had not been consulted.

Bruce L. Felnor, the committee's executive director, had said that the Herald Tribune had obtained the quotations from the letter surreptitiously and over the committee's objections, and that, besides, the letter had been sent to Kennedy only to obtain further information from him.

After the television shows, the last-minute effort to appear with Keating was "eyewash" because the station had set a 3:30 p.m. deadline for acceptance of the debate offer, and Kennedy had not met it.

REBUTTAL TIME

Learning that Keating had purchased his own half-hour, Kennedy aides hurriedly purchased the following half-hour. It was reported that Keating aides then tried unsuccessfully to buy rebuttal time.

The two camps had reached an impasse on the debate's format, Keating demanding a classic debate of statements and rebuttals, and Kennedy demanding a format with newsman's questions, like the Kennedy-Nixon debates of 1960.

Kennedy said he had shown up to accept Keating's offer to share his time, even though he didn't like the format.

Keating was joined for part of his program by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R.N.Y., who accused Kennedy of an "unconscionable, reckless and at least careless" effort to destroy Keating's "progressive reputation."

ambition that he would lend his proud name to this kind of dirty campaign."

Keating accused Kennedy of trying to capitalize on the good name of his martyred brother, whom Keating praised and said he had supported "when I thought his cause was right."

For his part, Kennedy said all his statements that Keating had voted against education, housing, minimum wage and area redevelopment bills were documented by date.

"Nobody can erase that record. That's how he voted," Kennedy said.

One-fifth of the unemployed in the United States have less than an eighth grade education.

Florida Has Place for Him

NEW YORK (AP) — A hostess at the Tampa-St. Petersburg exhibit in the Florida Pavilion at the New York World's Fair proved to be quick with an answer.

A gruff-looking visitor growled at her, "I wouldn't be caught dead in Florida."

She replied, "You should, sir. We have some beautiful cemeteries."

AP Photos

MAKES HIS POINT — Robert F. Kennedy (left), Democratic senatorial candidate, points a finger at Richard Forsling (right), CBS attorney, as he appears at the CBS studio in New York last night, ready to go on the air, while his opponent, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, was on the air. Forsling told Kennedy he would be unable to appear on the same program with Keating because he had failed to give prior notice.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Type of Heart Murmur Limits Activities

Q—I am a housewife. My doctor tells me I have a heart murmur. Are there any specific activities I should not engage in?

A—There are several kinds of heart murmur.

By far the commonest, especially in adolescents and young adults, is the functional murmur which is normal and not related to any disease of the heart.

It is caused BRANDSTADT

by the swiftness of the flow of blood through a vigorous heart.

Other murmurs are caused by a roughening of the surface of the heart valves or leaky valves due to infection or changes associated with age and hardening of the aorta.

Some murmurs are due to congenital heart defects.

LOUDEST MURMURS

Often the loudest murmurs accompany the least significant changes in the valves.

Shortness of breath on exertion and swelling of the ankles are a better guide to your heart's capabilities than a murmur.

In other words, if you have a functional murmur or a leak that is well compensated, you need not limit your activities at all.

But if there are signs of beginning heart failure, you will require special care including digitalis in some form and limitation of exertion.

Q—To have a balanced diet is it better to have a green vegetable or a yellow vegetable each day? Or do you need both?

A—The important thing is to get enough of the essential nutrients (proteins, carbohydrates, fats, minerals and vitamins) to meet your needs.

Your requirements will vary with the amount of energy you use up.

For example, at physical labor you will need more calories than when you are engaged in a sedentary pursuit.

The term "green vegetables" is loosely used to cover those with only 3 to 5 per cent carbohydrate.

This would include some yellow vegetables such as carrots and rutabaga (but not sweet potato), some red vegetables such as tomatoes and beets and a great many other vegetables of various hues.

Q—Can acne scars really be removed by planing the skin? Is this considered an operation and is it expensive?

A—Planing is a surgical operation.

It will improve the appearance of a person with acne scars but, since this is not a lifesaving procedure, I'm afraid it would have to be classed as a luxury item.

Get your local medical society to help you find a surgeon who performs this operation and discuss the cost.

Spain Official Returns

Home From U. S. Visit

MADRID (AP)—Manuel Fraga Iribarne, Spanish minister of information and tourism, returned to Madrid today from a tour of the United States, sporting a Texas sombrero.

The hat was a gift from the mayor of Dallas, one of several stops on Fraga Iribarne's 19-day tour. The minister told an airport news conference he found widespread interest in Spain throughout the United States.

California Housing Act Would Be Blow—King

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Passage of Proposition 14 on California's Nov. 3 ballot "would be a great blow at the cause of freedom," says Dr. Martin Luther King.

In a day-long tour Tuesday to urge voters to get to the polls, the Negro minister told Los Angeles' Negro districts that the controversial housing initiative "can set a precedent for a tragic setback in the whole struggle for integration through the country."

...because it is really a national and a world issue."

Dr. King voiced his opposition to the Republican presidential campaign of Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, saying a Goldwater victory would "threaten the health, morality and survival of our nation. Never has a candidate taken such a negative position."

Proposition 14 would amend California's constitution to give property owners absolute discretion in the choice of a buyer or renter of their property. It would nullify those provisions of antidiscrimination laws, such as the Rumford Act, which restrict that discretion and block their reenactment except by constitutional amendment.

Dr. King, winner of the 1964 Nobel Prize for peace, said he opposes the initiative "because it is sinful. It breaks the community."

TOWARD NEGROES

"Today," he said, "it may be directed toward Negroes. Tomorrow, it may be against Mexican-Americans, Asians or Jews."

Dr. King, leader of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and an advocate of non-violence in the civil rights struggle urged against violent reactions should Proposition 14 pass.

"Violence is both immoral and impractical," he told his audiences. "If Proposition 14 passes, we must mobilize civil rights forces more than ever to work through demonstrations, legislation and other means to bring into being a new fair-housing law."

Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown said his polls indicate probable passage of the initiative, but said it would doubtless face immediate court tests and be found unconstitutional.

Dr. King said the United States is watching the reception California voters give the initiative.

Romney for President Gets College Write-Ins

HOLLAND (AP)—Favored by The Anchor, a student publication, Hope College students gave 67 write-in votes to Gov. George Romney for president in a recent mock election here. The Anchor said the write-ins Friday reflected a student protest to an otherwise inadequate choice of candidates. Other results of the mock election gave 323 votes to President Johnson and 299 to Barry Goldwater.

From 1918 to 1963, the Soviet Union has published 27.5 billion copies of 1.8 million different books.

Romney Says Staebler Plan Would Put State in Red

SAGINAW (AP).—The economic program of Democratic gubernatorial candidate Neil Staebler would set Michigan back more than $100 million a year, says Republican Gov. George Romney.

Romney made the charge in the first day of his 35-city blitz Tuesday.

The governor carried his campaign for re-election into nine cities in five counties; as he launched his last big push before the Nov. 3 election. The Republican campaign caravan wound its way from Detroit's Cadillac Square through Oakland County and into the politically friendly territory of the Thumb area.

Romney was to visit Saginaw plant gate today and work his way across the state and down to Lansing or Battle Creek.

SPECIFIC PROPOSAL

"We presented his (Staebler's) specific proposal to our budget people," Romney said in a news conference. "And they figure his program would eat up our $57 million surplus and cost us an additional $100 million in debt, deficit or new taxes."

Romney attacked another of Staebler's favorite financial themes—the beneficial effects of the federal income tax cut on Michigan's economy.

The tax cut, which became law last Feb. 22, had no effect on the 1963 calendar year, Romney said, and applied to only a small portion of the fiscal year ended last June 30.

Romney quoted a statement issued at a recent meeting of state tax administrators saying the tax cut would account for only 10 per cent of a state's increase in revenues this year.

NOT ENOUGH

"Michigan will have a seven per cent increase," Romney said, "meaning the tax cut will be responsible for a seventh-tenths of one per cent increase; or $4.5 million—not enough to finance these programs."

Romney spoke to an estimated 1,200 persons in a day of colorful campaigning that included speeches on city streets, in parks and on courthouse steps and two parades.

He also attacked Staebler in a Caro rally as "one who does not believe in the State Constitution... one who says that our prosperity depends on what they do in Washington."

"If he believes this, he doesn't know what America is all about," Romney said, adding:

"If we have reached that stage (of not depending on what we do as individuals and families) then this nation is no longer functioning on the basis on which it was founded."

WOULD BE TRAGIC

"It would be tragic," Romney said, to return the control of the state to the Democratic party under Staebler who was Democratic state chairman during much of the administration of former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Repeating his frequent criticism of union domination of the Democratic Party, he said "we shouldn't let the state slip back under the control of a party that is dominated by a single economic group."

Big Day for Pilot, Too 1st Plane Ride at 74;

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP)—It was a big day for both Capt. Paul Victor, veteran American Airlines pilot, and his mother when she celebrated her 74th birthday.

She took her first airplane ride, and with her son at the controls. For Captain Victor the day also marked his 20th anniversary with the airline and the occasion of his earning his jet flying rating.

He was joined by local candidates, Republican attorney general candidate Meyer Warshawsky and secretary of state candidate Allison Green.

Indonesia averages more thunderstorms than any other place in the world, about 225 a year.

Gubernatorial Candidates Have No Broad Tax Reform Plans

State Legislative Hopfuls See Fiscal Issue as Key '65 Item

(EDITOR'S NOTE—The Associated Press has selected all 22 Republican and Democratic candidates for the State Legislature for their views on issues facing the 1965 Legislature. One hundred ten of the 292 candidates responded including 56 Republicans and 54 Democrats. This is the last of three reports analyzing the candidates' answers.)

new constitution; Democrats have opposed it.

County home rule and reapportionment drew 21 per cent and 14 per cent votes from Republicans but only 6 per cent and a total blank respectively from the Democrats.

Many Republicans are bitter about what Romney has termed the "vicious gerrymander" of legislative districts, and some hope to redraw the boundaries. Twenty-six per cent of Democrats see conservation or pollution as a major issue—but only 4 per cent of Republicans agree.

The parties do agree on public-traffic safety and employment-labor matters as topics meriting study. An over-all 18 per cent and 26 per cent respectively cited such issues.

Beyond this, a long list of infrequently mentioned issues fanned out over such areas as gambling, refinancing of the Mackinac Bridge, recreation, tourism, ballot procedures, burial costs, county civil service and the drain code.

Legionnaires Foul Up

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—When the American Legion held its state convention here this summer the hotel where most of the Legionnaires stayed manned its three automatic elevators with bellhops.

"They never push the right buttons," explained one operator, "and often they get the cars to stop at all floors."

FALSE TEETH

That Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their teeth dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just spritz with a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder on your plates. Your false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not stain your cheeks "plate odor breath." LANSING — The two major candidates for governor indicate they have no broad tax reform plans but 66 per cent of legislative candidates responding to an Associated Press poll name a fiscal issue as one of the most important facing next year's legislature.

The survey pegged education, and welfare programs in the mental health-senior citizens field as the other key items for the 1965 session.

Candidates were asked, "What are the most important matters for the 1965 legislature to consider?"

Rep. Roy L. Spencer, R-Albion, put the two biggest issues together when he replied, "Fiscal reform, which includes a more equitable method of financing education. A reduction (size) in property taxes to be replaced by an income tax."

SIMILAR VEIN

Many others replied in similar vein, in effect posing this question for the next legislature:

How can taxes be revised to lessen the burden on property owners and at the same time provide more state aid to public schools?

Seventy-two per cent of replying Democrats cited education—primarily its financing—as a major 1965 issue, and 69 per cent listed fiscal reform.

Republicans were only slightly less emphatic, with 62 per cent citing education and 66 per cent naming a fiscal issue.

ALSO TAXES

Taxes also crept into replies that mentioned help for senior citizens, some specifically proposing exemption of the elderly from property taxes.

Comprehensive tax reform has failed several times in recent years, most recently in 1963 under Gov. George Romney. He and his reelection opponent, U. S. Rep. Neil Staeber, have indicated they foresee no over-all tax package at this time.

Sixty-nine per cent of Democrats mentioned a mental health or senior citizens issue as prime for 1965, more than twice the 34 per cent of Republicans mentioning such topics.

In other areas the parties also differed strikingly.

NEW CONSTITUTION

Forty-six per cent of the Republicans listed government reorganization or implementation of the new constitution—closely related topics—but only 15 per cent of Democrats cited these. Republicans basically favor the

OK to Limit Service at Reception

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: My husband was the best man at a friend's wedding. At the reception there was a bridal table at which the bride and groom and their attendants sat and were served by a waiter.
The guests, however, received no such service. They had to serve themselves to food from a buffet table and then either stand or find a place to sit and eat it.
I have never witnessed anything like this before and thought the procedure highly improper.
May I please have your opinion on this?
A: It is neither unusual nor improper for the bride and groom and their attendants to be seated at a bridal table and served and for the guests to help themselves from a buffet table.

A group of 40 educators and community leaders meeting at Oakland University Tuesday got a preview of the OU Scholarship Committee's 1965 lecture series and a chance to pose questions for the scheduled speakers.

The fourth annual lecture series, titled "Explorations in Education," was previewed for the group by cochairmen, Mrs. Walter Reuther, and Mrs. E. L. Windecker.

Including five lectures, and another yet to be confirmed, the series will begin with a Jan. 22 appearance by Dr. Carl Marburger, Wayne State University faculty and special consultant to the U.S. Commissioner of Education.

ALL EDUCATORS
Other speakers will include Dr. Harold Taylor, former president of Sarah Lawrence College; Dr. Laszlo Hetenyi, professor of and director of teacher education at OU, who will appear with Dr. Milosh Muntyan, MSU professor of education.

Also to appear are Dr. Jacob W. Getzels, professor of education and psychology at the University of Chicago; and Dr. Mortimer Adler, director of the Institute of Philosophical Research in Chicago, and founder of the Great Books Movement.

In announcing the 1965 speakers, Mrs. Reuther said the series was planned to "discover ways in which our educational system may be made more responsive to the needs of our children and our society."

She indicated that the program was designed for all persons interested in education including professional educators, school board members, and leaders in such organizations as the PTA, League of Women Voters, American Association of University Women, and other groups.

According to Mrs. Reuther and Mrs. Windecker, questions raised at Tuesday's meeting and others will be directed to the guest speakers for use in planning their talks.

Series tickets will go on sale soon; with proceeds going into the OU Scholarship Fund.

Woman 'Teed Off'

Golfer Grabbed 'Green'

DEAR ABBY: I have been dating a golf pro for the past six months and he has been giving me golf lessons free of charge.

On our third date he asked me to marry him, but said that due to financial reasons he would have to postpone marrying me for about a year.

Hoping to hasten the marriage, I let him have about $500.

I just found out that he has been dating another girl and giving her golf lessons for nothing.

Now I realize he was only using me, but I must admit he improved my golf game a lot.

I have too much pride to tell our club president, but I would like to get my money back. How?

DUMB BLONDE

DEAR BLONDE: Forget your pride and tell the club president that his golf pro is under par in more ways than one.

And don't get so palsy-walsy with professional swingers again unless you can remember to keep your head down and your eye on your purse!

DEAR ABBY: In your reply to "WORN OUT," the mother of 10 who was expected her 11th, you say, "If it is not contrary to your religion, call your Planned Parenthood Center."

To my knowledge, the Planned Parenthood program is not contrary to ANY religion.

If the woman is a Roman Catholic, her local Planned Parenthood group will give her complete instruction in birth control, as approved by her church.

Sincerely,

MRS. R. F. C.
DEAR MRS. R. F. C.: You are 100 per cent correct, and I thank you for pointing out this important distinction.

And while we are on the subject, the Planned Parenthood organization is dedicated to all phases of family planning.

They will also help couples who want children, but appear unable to have them.

DEAR ABBY: I guess most of all I just want to get this problem off my chest.

My darling mother should and would love to own a pretty wedding ring that she can be proud of.

My Dad has given her two cheap sets that she wore completely through on the underside. She's now wearing her mother's plain gold band to show she's married.

My father is far from rich, but he could well afford to buy mother a nice wedding ring with a few chip diamonds in it.

Mother deserves the ring and she wants one, but she doesn't want to ask him for it. Would it be all right for me (her married daughter) to buy her one?

BIG D FAN

DEAR FAN: If you don't know your father well enough to say, "Look, Dad, Mother wants a nice wedding band, so let's shop for one," then you should get better acquainted with your father.

A wedding ring is more than a piece of jewelry, and it's a husband's privilege (and no one else's) to provide his wife with one.

Keeps It Moist

Pumpkin Tints Cake

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

You can really mystify your friends if you serve this cake. They'll probably never guess it is made with pumpkin.

Mrs. Vernon King called us with this recipe. We tried it last weekend and were pleased with results. The cake is nice and moist.

Mrs. King enjoys cake decorating; her three children should all have special birthday cakes. Knitting is her hobby.

LETHA'S PUMPKIN NUT CAKE

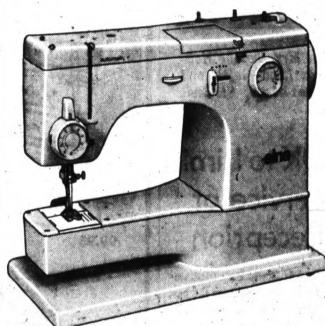

By Mrs. Vernon King
1/2 cup butter
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup brown sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup pumpkin

2 1/4 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon maple flavoring
1 cup chopped nuts
Cream butter and sugar thoroughly. Add eggs and pumpkin and mix well.

Sift dry ingredients. Add alternately with milk. Beat well after each addition.

Fold in flavoring and nuts. Pour into 3 greased and floured 8-inch cake pans or a 9x13 loaf pan. Bake layers 30 minutes at 350 degrees; 40 to 45 minutes for the loaf.

Frost with seven-minute brown sugar icing or serve unfrosted. The Kings prefer it the latter way.

Key-Swapping

Party Shocks Woman

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE U-413: Dorris D., aged 32, has been morally shocked.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I have often felt that you were being a little frank in discussing sex dangers that threaten happy marriage.

"But now I've changed my mind entirely!

"For last Saturday night my husband and I were invited to a swank party.

"Six couples were present. DR. CRANE After a few highballs, one of the men suggested a new game called 'Key-matching.'

"Well, I had never heard of it before, so I thought it might be fun.

"Each man was to toss his own house key on the table. Then the keys were all mixed up and each wife was to pick out a key while blindfolded.

"Then she was to find the man who owned that key and retire to a bedroom for sex orgies!

NEW VARIATION

"This must be a variation of the 'wife-swapping' parties that you described.

"When I learned what it was all about, I immediately told my husband we weren't staying at such a lewd party, so we left abruptly.

"Dr. Crane, how can intelligent adults degenerate to such a low level of morality? I think this is really awful!"

Sexual degenerates are generally looked upon as of low intelligence and lacking in culture.

But countless groups of teenagers, as well as older married couples, with high I.Q. are also indulging in sexual promiscuity for "kicks" or to meet initiation requirements of high school gangs.

Here in Chicago, for example, the high school daughters of prominent families, including medics, judges and business leaders, carry contraceptives in their purses.

CLUB INITIATION

Girls' clubs have also been formed at the high school level which require the new girl applicants to submit to sexual relations as a part of their initiation.

Contrast this immoral outlook with the high idealism of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs. Sex is a vital aspect of happy marriage and love.

But sex, without true love to justify it, makes human beings rate hardly higher than hogs! For many years I have tried to warn you parents and also your children of the proper viewpoint toward sex.

And I have personally addressed over one million high schoolers on such topics at their convocations.

PARENTS OBJECT

Yet some of your parents have thought I was too frank! "Oh, that awful Dr. Crane," you criticized. "Young people wouldn't think of sex if you didn't mention it in your column!"

Malarky! They get over-does of it in movies and on TV every week.

Lurid magazines also smear sex titles all over their front covers each month.

Indeed, we medics know of many daughters of these same prudish parents who are already promiscuous with their high school classmates.

In fact, some of the girls are now seeking advice because they are already pregnant, yet their prudish mothers still insist I am too frank!

So send for my warning booklet "Sex Problems of Young People," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of the Pontiac Press, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20¢ to cover mailing and printing costs, when you send for one of his booklets.)

Judith Kay Squires, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Squires of Shoman Road and Harley LaVerne Hinman, son of the Harley S. Hinmans of Tackles Drive, were wed Saturday in Our Lady of the Lakes Church.

MRS. HARLEY LAVERNE HINMAN

Reception Is Given in Sport Club

Reception in the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club honored the Harley LaVerne Hinmans (Judith Kay Squires) who were wed recently in Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Squires of Shoman Road and the Harley S. Hinmans of Tackles Drive, Drive, White Lake Township.

Tiers of sequined Chantilly lace, forming a chapel train, highlighted the bride's gown of white peau de soie.

A handmade crystal tiara held her bouffant illusion veil. She carried white roses and carnations.

Ann Marie Morearty was a honor maid, with Nancy Stewart and Mrs. Gerald Ellis, bridesmaids. Margaret Cannon of Flint and Bernard Slabinski were flower-girl and ring-bearer.

The bridegroom had Gerald Ellis for best man. Donald Morrison of Berkley and Curtis G. Hinman acted the guests.

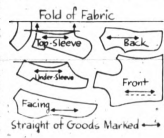

SEW SIMPLE By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice: I have sewed a lot, although I am still far from an expert. With your help I am hoping to make a chanel-type suit out of my husband's suit. It is a black wool with a small camel-colored piece. How should I find the straight of goods or grain line for each piece of my precut suit?

Mrs. J. E. D.

Dear Mrs. J. E. D.: This is one of those years when making something for yourself out of your husband's suit would be very stylish. A chanel-type suit would work out beautifully. I might suggest a heavy camel colored braid trim, also a camel colored crepe blouse and matching lining.

If you are thin enough, you may also make patch pockets on the jacket and use the braid across the tops of pockets. If you use your imagination a little you might come up with more ideas, such as a suede vest. The following sketch will tell you the grain line of each piece of your garment.

Instead of the separate partial sleeves, to match blouses for chanel-type suits, being slip-stitched into the sleeve of the suit as you suggested, I find it much simpler to make the partial sleeves long enough to slip above my elbow and put elastic in the hem. (Good idea, the idea for several changes for the same suit always sounds appealing, but unless it is this easy, we often don't take the time.)

Mrs. Robt. Todd, Attica, Ind., is this week's winner of a Tailor Tris pressing board for her suggestion.

Stoles or large scarfs are still very much in style and add a great deal of dash to your suits and coats. If your fabric is heavy, make the stole of one layer of fabric only. Use a heavy, long, impressive fringe on each end.

One of the most attractive types of fringe is to pick up three of the predominant colors in a tweed or plaid suit and use them together for knotting to form the double fringe. Everyone immediately thinks of a solid color, so you be different and personalize yours with this new suggestion. You'll love it!

Dear Eunice: Thanks to your column, which my wife has followed religiously, even though she didn't know what you were talking about she has finally gotten out the sewing machine from the closet where it has been for 20 years, since the day I gave it to her.

She is having a good time putting around with it, but is still scared to death of it. She is willing to change my shirts from the wide, full ones of a few years back, to the new, more fitted kinds if you will give her a little help.

Anxious Husband

Dear Sir: This just proves what I have told the gals about before, men do like to see their wives sew.

Tapering men's shirts is really a very simple task, and the shirts of today are so much neater looking with their closer fit. Open the underarms, right up to the sleeve seam. Use a yardstick and make a slanting mark on the back of the shirt.

The shirts I have checked up on are usually cut straight in the front. Make your new seamline using the original front seam, but the new marks for the back seam. Finish with a flat-felled seam as the original shirt was finished.

To make sure you are taking out the right amount of fullness, check the width of the front section and the back section of one of the new shirts and compare it with the old ones.

I bet after you have done this little job, you will want to learn more and more about this sewing business, one of the fascinating hobbies of today!

Taking Definite Steps

Teens Expect Hike in Grades Next Term

Gilbert Youth Research, Inc. America's young people expect to do a lot better in school this semester than they did the last one.

What's more, it isn't just wishful thinking. Most of them are taking definite steps to boost their grades.

As the teen-agers approached the fall term, 1,238 of them were asked whether they expected their grades to improve.

More than 64 per cent said they did — definitely! Twenty five per cent saw little hope of any improvement.

Four per cent admitted that they'd probably get poorer grades. The rest didn't know.

Nearly all of those anticipating better grades said they were carrying out plans they were sure would make their wishes come true.

MOST DETERMINED

The most determined seemed to be those moving from high school into college.

Seventeen-year-old Leo J. Burke, of Jamaica Plains, Mass., was typical of the attitude of high school graduates.

He said he expected to get better grades "because in high school I never worked to my full capacity."

"Given the more clearly defined incentive of college, I plan to do my utmost."

Leo added that already he had taken steps to insure higher marks by putting in "a lot of spare time during the summer studying biology, the subject I plan to major in."

OTHERS PREPARE

Many of the other boys and girls questioned also took advantage of the summer holiday to prepare themselves for the new semester.

Martha W. Bonney, 18, of Geneva, N.Y., said: "I did intensive summer reading, took part in a discussion program of American and English literature and took a summer course in brief-hand writing for note-taking."

Nineteen-year-old Louis Laue, 19, of Pensacola, Fla., thought he'd get better grades, but not for any of the usual reasons.

"I can't," he said, "get much lower grades than I've gotten."

ALSO REALISTIC

Mike Grissom, 16, of Lynchburg, Va., was also realistic as to why he expected to get better grades.

He explained that "my father claims he is going to be come a lot stricter with me."

Those who expected to get about the same grades as last term generally had the same reason, typified by the comment of an 18-year-old girl from Fort Morgan, Col.: "Evelyn Pickett. She said: 'I do my best. That's all any one can ask.'"

Michele Benkis, 17, of South

Boston, Mass., also foresaw no change. "Because," she said, "My marks are above average and the best I can get."

EXPECTS SAME

A 17-year-old boy, Derrier Llyda, of Honolulu, expected to do the same as he usually did.

He asserted: "For the past three years my grade point average remained the same. I don't expect any drastic changes."

Lace Gown Chosen by Area Bride

Vickie Ann Williams chose a floor length gown of white lace for her recent marriage to James A. St. Louis of Voorhees Road.

Her elbow length veil of silk illusion was secured by a flowered headpiece of pearl and crystal. Two cymbidium orchids centered her bouquet of white carnations.

The high noon ceremony was conducted by Rev. Francis Dietz in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Auburn Heights.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Williams of Willett Street and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. St. Louis of Lake Worth, Fla.

MATRON OF HONOR

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bruce Brown; bridesmaid, Nancy Williams.

Tere Seeley of Lake Worth, Fla. was best man while Rick St. Louis and Walter Coe escorted guests.

The reception, held in Nick's Restaurant, was followed by a honeymoon trip to Canada and Niagara Falls.

The groom is a graduate of Palm Beach Junior College in Florida and is currently attending the Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Country Set fashions a transitional suit in grey on white glen plaid of no-fuzz, Vycron and cotton blend. For about $22.98, the line is available locally!

Music Group Hears Reports

Reports of the recent Michigan Music Teachers Association meeting in Ann Arbor were given at the Tuesday meeting of the Pontiac Music Guild.

Mrs. Lester Snell and Mrs. Claud Kimler gave the reports and Mrs. Don Derragon also participated in the program held in the Auburn Road home of Mrs. Snell.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Carl Clifford and Elda Sutter. A student regalia will be featured at the Nov. 24 meeting.

Riding and Eating Bad Combination

Don't allow children to eat lollipops, popcicles or ice cream on a stick while riding.

A bump or a swerve may turn the treat into a threat to the child's eyes, mouth and throat.

For Halloween

Let 'Ghosts' Be Scary but Safe

What does the perfect ghost or goblin, witch, clown or pirate look like?

Scary, of course, and heartless, bold, brave, daring, cruel and independent. He should, as a matter of fact, look like all the things good boys and girls shouldn't be.

Halloween is the last chance children have to even look naughtily before Santa Claus starts taking inventory for the Christmas rounds.

But whether your child is a gruesome ghost or ghoul, wicked witch or swartly sailer, there are things you should do to insure his safety during his night of skulduggery.

SEEING GHOSTS

Halloween costumes should be light and bright with some reflective materials so everyone will see the ghosts. To make sure the ghosts can see it is better to use make-up instead of masks.

If the miniature goblin insists on a mask, make sure it fits properly and the eye holes are large enough to permit good vision.

To guarantee your witch "float-ability" as she scurries from house to house, keep costumes short and close fitting and don't let her wear oversized shoes.

Help protect costumes from fire hazards by dipping them into a solution of nine ounces of borax, four ounces of boric acid and one gallon of warm water.

No child should be allowed to carry lighted candles or torches. They should, however, be encouraged to carry flashlights, especially those with brightly-colored lens hoods.

To make sure you don't "capture" or possibly injure some Saturday pirate, tie white rag strips on guide wire and tree guards around your home.

Store attractions like trash cans, lawn mowers, bicycles, and other objects which might give vandals ideas or be tripping hazards. Brighten your area by keeping your porch light burning and if you're driving, go slowly and be extra careful on side streets.

TIME LIMIT

Make sure the younger children are accompanied by older ones or an adult and set a specific time for all to return home.

With these precautions, turn them loose. It's their night to prow!

Chameleon Wastebasket

Now even wastebaskets come with tailor-made slips covers which can be changed to suit new room decor and laundered repeatedly.

These burlap or vinyl covers are held snugly over a plastic basket by a removable clip at the base.

Use One Large Not Two Small

A 100 - watt bulb gives out more than twice as much light as two 50-watt bulbs.

For maximum light, use one bulb of higher wattage, rather than two small ones that add up to that wattage.

MRS. J. A. ST. LOUIS

Waterford Couple Wed in Evening Ceremony

An evening ceremony and reception in the Waterford Community Church marked the recent vows of Lorraine Marie Wright to Larry O. Blain.

POMPONS-ROSES

Yellow pompoms centered a cascade of white roses and ivy for the daughter of Ira Wright of Rowley Street, complementing her floor-length gown of tiered white Chantilly lace over taffeta.

A crown of pearls and sequins caught her fingertip veil of silk illusion. Mrs. Melvin Pointer was matron of honor. Mrs. Bruce Wheeler attended her cousin as bridesmaid along with Carol Anderson, Walled Lake.

The bridegroom, son of the Virgil M. Blains of Lannan Drive, had Gene Peters for his best man. Roger Blain and Ralph Smith were ushers at the rite performed by Rev. Robert D. Winne.

The bride is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University.

Exiled Trujillo Family Continues to Live in Splendor

MADRID, Spain (AP) — A long black limousine glides up to a modern apartment house off Madrid's fashionable Generalissimo Avenue. A husky footman-bodyguard springs from the right front seat; two Spanish police guards snap to attention at the building entrance.

From the car emerges Maria Martinez Trujillo, widow of the former dictator of the Dominican Republic and titular head of the fabulously wealthy, exiled Trujillo clan. She receives all the deference due a member of royalty.

Inside her lavish apartment she presides over the family and its fortune, yet recalls longingly the Trujillos' better days. The downfall of the House of Trujillo began, on a lonely road outside Santo Domingo, then Ciudad Trujillo, May 30, 1961, when political opponents shot dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo. For three decades he and his family had ruled the Caribbean nation as their fief.

FAMILY FEEDS

the surviving Trujillos continue to live in splendor in exile. They also have been involved in some well-publicized family feuds and litigation, including a suit by some of the dictator's illegitimate children seeking a share of the family wealth.

Last August, Rhadames Trujillo, one of the dictator's sons, was jailed in France on an extradition warrant from Switzerland in connection with the suit brought by the have-not branch of the family. Rhadames promptly posted a nearly $2-million cash bond to obtain his release.

The Trujillos try to avoid the spotlight. They do not wish to embarrass Spain's Generalissimo Francisco Franco, who might withdraw his hospitality. There is a formal extradition request hanging over Rafael Jr., the dictator's oldest son. The Dominican government wants to try him on murder charges.

RAISES HORSES

Rafael now shuns the Madrid

night clubs he once favored. When not with his mother or with his wife and infant son in their Madrid hotel suite, he devotes himself to raising racing horses and polo ponies at the family stables with his brother-in-law, ex-Gen. Jose Luis Leon Estevez.

The handsome Estevez married Rafael's sister, Angelita.

They live in a mansion in another section of Madrid where one of their neighbors is Juan D. Peron, the former dictator of Argentina. Other members of the family are scattered elsewhere in Europe and the Americas. The late dictator's brother, Gen. Jose Arismendi Trujillo, left Spain for Central America last year after a quarrel with the widow.

Another brother, Hector Trujillo-Molina, lives with his American wife, the former Alma Alton McLaughlin, in the posh resort of Estoril, outside Lisbon.

Since there seems little prospect for the divided family to return to the Dominican Republic, they probably will continue to live comfortably in exile.

OUSTED TRUJILLOS — These members of the exiled Trujillo family are living in Western Europe in a style to which they became accustomed in the Dominican Republic. From left are ex-Gen. Jose Luis Leon Estevez, Rafael Trujillo Jr. and Rhadames Trujillo.

Increase in Tourists Coming to Visit U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Travel Service said yesterday that more foreign visitors have come to this country so far this year than in all of 1963. The service said 751,436 overseas visitors came to the United States on both business and pleasure trips in the first nine months of the year. This was 16,441 more than the total for last year.

Burglar Says Thanks

LONDON (UPI) — Broadcasting director Frank Gillard received a response to new early morning music on the BBC from a burglar. "Thanks for helping me with my work," it said.

Use Glider Model in Test on Spacecraft Landing

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The Air Force put a space glider test model through its toughest trial last night in a high-speed swoop to earth to help develop manned spacecrafts able to land at airports.

The flying laboratory was rocketed 31 miles into the sky and then nosed over for a 9,000-mile an hour glide over the Atlantic. By using the lift supplied by its five-foot wide delta wing plowing into the atmosphere, the craft coasted to an ocean impact area 950 miles away.

No recovery was attempted. But during the glider's 15-minute hop to the edge of space and back, it radioed back volumes of flight data expected to be valuable in the design of maneuverable aerospace planes.

The Russians disclosed in August that their engineers are also working on a "Sputnik-airplane" that would be able to take off from the ground, fly into space and return to an air field.

U. S. scientists expect such gliding spacecrafts to do away with costly ocean recovery fleets now needed for American manned spacecrafts and to provide an economical way to ferry men and supplies to orbiting space stations in the future.

4th IN SERIES

Last night's glider was the fourth in a series of six project ASSET research vehicles intended to explore the glide method of reentry into earth's atmosphere.

"It looks like a real good flight," an Air Force spokesman said. He said tracking information showed that the craft crashed into the sea close to its predicted impact point.

The 1,200-pound arrowhead-shaped vehicle carried for the first time a device that set up vibrations on a wing panel that engineers feared could have been severe enough to tear the thin metal sheet apart. Earlier ASSET gliders were not subjected to such vibrations.

The glider also was equipped with a unique airplane-like flap on its wing to measure the pressures it met. Manned space gliders will need similar controls to maneuver to preselected landing fields.

ALL WORKED

The Air Force said all the experiments crammed in the craft's six-foot long fuselage worked, but it will be several days before their results can be analyzed.

The last ASSET glider was launched in July and recovered 1,550 miles on range. Scientists said its exotic metals withstood the reentry heat so well it could be refurbished and flown again. The next ASSET shot is set for early December.

School Board Will Discuss Playground

Playground and parking facilities at Central Elementary School will be discussed tomorrow at the regular meeting of the Pontiac School Board.

A study committee from the Central School PTA will visit the board.

The parents seek board action to expand the playground area at the school, and also expand parking facilities.

Supt. Dana P. Whitmer reported that the playground is "very limited," making it impossible to play any organized games or sports on the site.

There is room to park only eight cars on school property at Central Elementary, he said.

In other business, school board members will receive a financial report on 1963-64.

Diamond mining normally requires complicated equipment, but the biggest known diamond was extracted with a penknife, the National Geographic says. In 1965, a mine superintendent in South Africa noticed a glimmer on the wall of a mine and, after a few moments of digging, picked out a one-pound six-ounce giant, the Cullinan. The gem is set in the British Royal Scepter.

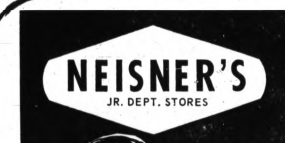

WALKING ON AIR — This technician is literally walking on air. He is test-climbing an inflatable ladder made by Akron, Ohio, rubber firm. The safety ladder is designed for use as emergency access to the fuel tank of the Saturn V rocket.

Hubert in Kentucky, Hits Bias

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey came into this land of blue grass — where civil rights have been an issue — and declared today that there are those now who would set brother against brother and race against race.

Recalling that Kentuckians fought on both sides of the Civil War, Humphrey said in his prepared remarks that once again "there is abroad in the land some of the same reckless, heedless temper which dragged Kentucky and the nation into conflict a century ago."

There are people in this election year, said Humphrey, "who would set brother against brother, class against class, race against race, state against state, region against region."

But, he added, Kentucky and the nation "has seen the folly of such a course."

MORNING ARRIVAL
The Democratic vice presidential nominee flew into Lexington early this morning after a long day's campaigning in New York, Charleston, W.Va., and Cincinnati, Ohio.

All along the way he hammered at the theme of responsibility in a turbulent, swift changing world, and declared that one overriding issue has emerged in this campaign — that "the American people do not want Barry Goldwater's finger on the nuclear trigger."

Humphrey, who likes to say that Sen. Goldwater whistles

"Dixie" in the South, came into the Blue Grass State singing, in a way, "My Old Kentucky Home."

He said he had a genuine and longstanding sense of kinship with Lexington because "for many years my Uncle John lived here, and through him I came to know of Lexington and its people. He had a drugstore. And someday when I'm old and gray, maybe I'll come here and practice my trade at Uncle John's old establishment."

DRUGGIST LICENSE
Humphrey's pharmacist's license, stamped and up to date, hangs in the family drug store in Huron, S.D.

Humphrey also hit hard at bread and butter issues in Lexington, asking, in effect, as he did Tuesday in Charleston, "What has the candidate from Arizona done for you?"

Middle West for LBJ, Says Hubert's Wife

HONOLULU (UPI) — Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey said yesterday recent polling of the traditionally Republican Middle West indicated President Johnson and her husband were favored there "70 per cent to 30 over the opposition."

She spoke at a news conference prior to launching herself into an all islands four-day campaign in behalf of the Johnson-Humphrey ticket and local Democratic candidates.

Mrs. Humphrey said despite "what appeared to be a lopsided victory in the making, "We Humphreys always run scared."

She said Hawaii was the "30th or 31st state I have visited so far this year" and that she still had California and Arizona ahead of her.

Mrs. Humphrey said she would wind up her campaign with her husband, in Tucson, Ariz., Barry M. Goldwater's home state, on election eve before returning to Minneapolis the next day to vote in the Nov. 3 general election.

Indonesia's Sukarno to Visit Chou Sunday

JAKARTA (AP) — President Sukarno of Indonesia will make an overnight visit next Sunday to Shanghai, where he'll confer with Prime Minister Chou En-lai of Red China, says the official news agency Antara.

The agency said Sukarno was invited by the Chinese government to visit Shanghai.

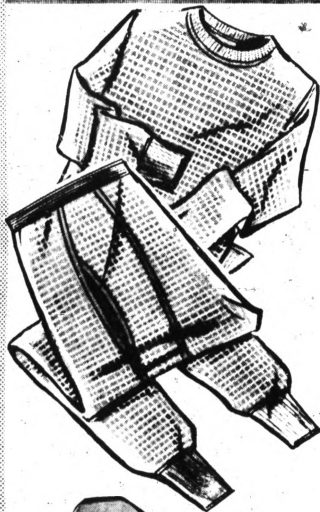

A HOUSE DIVIDED — Dottie Jo, 7, of Huron, S.D., is in the minority as far as politics in the E. E. Pugsley family is concerned. But she's standing up for her rights and has representation on the family's lawn sign. She holds a letter from a White House staff member complimenting her. Four other Pugsley family members are backers of Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Ecumenical Sets Secret Sessions

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Presiding officers at the Vatican Ecumenical Council today ordered full secrecy for the Roman Catholic assembly's debate of "the more delicate" modern world problems, presumably including birth control.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council reached the heart of its debate on current world problems today. But first it honored Pope John XXIII, who called the council together to attain Roman Catholicism with modern times.

A dozen priests who are parish pastors joined in celebrating a special Mass in St. Peter's Basilica in memory of Pope John's election to the papacy six years ago today.

The pastors were asked to celebrate the Mass instead of bishops as a symbol of the pastoral approach that Pope John wanted the council to take.

After the Mass, the council was to start debate on the central chapter of the schema entitled "The Church in the Modern World." Discussion the past six days has been on the opening chapters.

Much of the material in the general chapter urges Roman Catholics to fit into the world without losing sight of life after death and to work with all men for earthly justice.

The specific issues in the central chapter include human dignity, marriage and family planning, cultural values, nuclear disarmament, world peace and support of international organizations of nations.

Hurt U.S. Soldier Rescued After Viet Cong Ambush

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI) — An American soldier wounded in an ambush yesterday near the Cambodian border and left behind has been rescued by a relief force and taken by helicopter to a U.S. hospital in Saigon, an American military spokesman said today.

One American was killed in the same ambush and one other was wounded but not left behind. Two Vietnamese soldiers also were wounded.

The three Americans and four Vietnamese soldiers were patrolling a canal 150 miles west of Saigon when they were ambushed by Communist Viet Cong guerrillas hidden in the bush on both sides of the waterway.

The Americans were reconnoitering the canal bank site of a previous ambush, when they were hit by automatic weapons fire. One was killed immediately; the other two received leg wounds.

Even though one wounded American could not be located, the outnumbered patrol was forced to leave one of the two wounded behind when Viet Cong guerrillas began closing in.

PULLED BACK
They pulled back a mile in their boats until contact was made with a relief force. This force presumably saved the man left behind.

In Saigon, South Vietnamese and U.S. officials conferred on ways to meet the increasing hostility expressed by neighboring Cambodia.

Last Thursday, Army Captain Herman Towery was captured during a fight on the South Viet Nam-Cambodia border and reportedly taken into Cambodia. His body was recovered Saturday with a bullet in the back.

At the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh, the government said it would "return blow for blow" any "aggressive" acts by South Viet Nam and the United States.

It threatened to recognize Viet Cong rebels as the government of Viet Nam and to call on Communist China for aid if necessary.

Ask Commuters for Views on Hues

NEW YORK (AP) — Continuing the policy it adopted seven years ago, the Long Island Rail Road has asked its commuters in the towns along its route what colors they want their stations painted.

The custom of asking residents to pick their own station colors began back in 1957 when LIRR President Thomas M. Goodfellow invited mayors, civic club leaders and presidents of chambers of commerce to sound out those who use the stations for their views on hues.

In their latest redecoration program, the company poll showed only three communities wanted drastic changes in the color schemes they originally picked. The others were satisfied or wanted only slight changes.

Association Chief Sees 'Comeback' for Male Nurses

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Men have been nurses since the beginning of time, says a man who heads 10,000 nurses.

"And though women dominate the profession today, men are making a comeback," adds Clifford H. Jordan, 42, a registered nurse who is president of the 10,000-member Pennsylvania Nurses Association. It is holding its 60th annual convention here this week.

Jordan, a native of New Orleans, became a nurse in 1949 after leaving the Army. Now he is director of the School of Nursing and Nursing Service at Philadelphia's Episcopal Hospital. "I think it is a good profession for men," Jordan said in an interview. "It is a good place to serve and make a decent living."

ALL MEN

"After all, there have been male nurses since the beginning of time. All nurses used to be men. During the Crusades there was a religious order of men who went along to care for the sick and injured."

Jordan, whose wife is a teaching nurse on the University of Pennsylvania faculty, estimates there are 5,000 men among the nation's half million nurses. Most are in administrative work — directors of nursing schools or supervising hospital staffs.

"But men are in all fields of nursing," Jordan said. "Many give direct nursing care to patients. And they no longer are shifted to mental institutions or psychiatric wards."

"A person's sex has nothing to

NO OBJECTIONS

"I have never found a patient objecting to a male nurse. Any person who is ill needs help and is happy to have anyone who will make him more comfortable."

About being president of the association?

"I think they selected me because I could do the work and not because I was a man," he said. He believes more and more men will get into nursing. Most schools, once all girl, now are coeducational.

CORRECT SHORTAGE

"Men can help alleviate the current shortage of nurses," he said. "They tend to stay on the job longer without interruption for marriage and family."

No species of bat found in the United States bites human beings, except in self-defense.

FITNESS THEIR GOAL — These 7th and 8th grade girls at St. Benedict School, 60 S. Lynn, Waterford Township, are doing formations such as this in their weekly physical fitness classes which were included in the school's regular curriculum just this term. Many of the girls, however, participated in informal fitness activities prior to this fall. Sister Don Bosco, O.P., conducts the fitness program at the school.

To Student With Blood Disease

Sprain Could Mean Death

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Doug Campbell is a good-looking pre-med student at the University of Washington and a mean man on the drums.

Looking at him you'd never know he faces the daily danger of bleeding to death.

Campbell is a hemophiliac. Thrombin, the blood coagulation factor, is lacking in the marrow of his bones. So far, the disease has doctors stumped.

Even a small cut can cause a tremendous loss of blood. Once, Doug had to have 20 points to replace the loss.

INTERNAL BLEEDING

But he doesn't fear the cuts and scratches as much as sprains in his knees, wrists, ankles, elbows and hips.

"External bleeding can be pretty well controlled," Doug said Tuesday. "It's internal bleeding from broken capillaries in my joints that cause the most trouble and it happened again two weeks ago in my hip when I was getting out of my car."

For that "sprain," known as a hematomia, Doug has had five pints of blood so far.

To help keep Doug supplied with blood, students at Washington State University conducted a special project within their regular junior class blood drive. Eleven groups on the Pullman, Wash., campus collected 115 pints that will be credited to Doug's account at the King County (Seattle) blood bank.

Flood Kills Six in Yugoslavia

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia (AP)—Six persons were known dead today and 45,000 had been evacuated in the worst flood ever to hit Zagreb, Yugoslavia's second largest city. Officials said the death toll might prove higher when the waters go down.

Waters 10 feet deep in some parts of the city were receding slightly, but more breaks in the dikes along the swollen Sava River could bring new danger.

Army units and teams of volunteers worked to strengthen the dikes.

City authorities were trying to get food supplies and water to thousands of residents who refused to leave their flooded homes. Electric power to the flooded industrial district in South Zagreb, where 180,000 of the city's 500,000 people live, had been cut off since Monday.

Compulsory vaccination against typhoid began today for all persons in the area.

was a prime mover of the WSU project.

He heard of Doug's condition from an 18-year student, John Lindsay, who hails from Doug's home town of Wenatchee, Wash.

Members of Doug's fraternity, Phi Delta Theta, have started a drive of their own.

Doug had a 3.96 cumulative grade, just short of perfect, when he graduated from high school. He is looking forward to being a physician.

GOOD GROUNDING

"I've been in so many hospitals as a guinea pig for researchers in hemophilia that I've already got a pretty good grounding in medicine," he said. Although on crutches now because of the hip injury, Doug usually pursues the normal life of an 18-year-old college freshman. His girlfriend, Linda Green, is a student at Wenatchee Valley Junior College.

Doug says he and Linda didn't have time to dance much at his pledge party, though. "I played the drums, you see."

State to Auction Land

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department will sell 18 parcels of surplus property in Bay, Genesee, Saginaw and Tuscola counties at public auction Nov. 12 at Saginaw. Appraised value of the properties is $26,755.

Kremlin Seeking to Reassure Italy Reds

MOSCOW (UPI) — The new Soviet leaders today sought to reassure the West's largest Communist party that the ouster of Nikita S. Khrushchev will not hurt the Communist movement.

Three officials of the 1.6-million-member Italian Communist party arrived last night for conferences with chief aides of Soviet Communist chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

The Italians followed French, Danish, and Italian Communist delegations here.

In London, East European diplomats were predicting that further shifts in the Kremlin hierarchy were likely, possibly involving the party's top ideol-gist, Mikhail Suslov. The diplomat said Suslov, No. 4 man in the hierarchy, still is suspect in the eyes of some foreign Communist leaders because of his past links with Stalinism.

They indicated his leading role in the dismissal of Khrushchev has been one of the main factors in the anxiety expressed by foreign Communists.

ON HAND

Suslov, however, was on hand to greet the Italian delegation at Moscow's airport yesterday. He was reported to have broken off a convalescent rest in order to do so.

Khrushchev himself was said to be at a rest home in the Moscow area.

His son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubei, was reported to have taken up his new post as deputy editor of 'Kazakhstanskaya Pravda' in the remote central Asian republic of Kazakhstan.

He was dismissed as editor of the government newspaper Izvestia when Khrushchev fell.

END OF INDEPENDENCE

The foreign Communist leaders gathering here want to know whether the end of the Khrushchev era means the end of the independence they enjoyed in the final years of his rule.

East European sources in Moscow said the foreign delegations have told the Soviets they want the full story of Khrushchev's sudden dismissals — an explanation they can take back home to the rank and file.

The Italian Communists in particular are worried that the Moscow changes will hurt their chances in forthcoming local elections.

Crowds in Bolivia Continue Protests

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — An antigovernment parade was scheduled Thursday in La Paz as union and student organizations continued protests against the administration of President Victor Paz Estenssoro.

New violence was reported Tuesday in Sucre and Santa Cruz. Students invaded the U.S.

Information Agency offices in Santa Cruz and burned the American flag. One man was killed and 10 persons were injured as police battled the mob.

In Sucre, 400 miles southeast of La Paz, mob clashes with police left 54 injured, 30 of them students.

Recall 1960's Major Surprise

GOP and Dems Cautious in Ohio Predictions

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Ohio provided one of the major surprises of the 1960 presidential race when it handed Republican Richard M. Nixon a substantial majority. Here is a look at the present political situation in Ohio, which has 26 electoral votes.)

By PHIL GUNBY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Although most political polls have made President Johnson the favorite to capture Ohio's 26 electoral votes, Republicans and Democrats are both playing it cautiously.

They remember 1960, when most pollsters and many newsmen predicted a Democratic victory because of the enthusiastic welcome given the late John F. Kennedy on his six campaign trips through the Buckeye State.

When the vote-counting started, Ohio produced one of election night's major surprises by giving Kennedy's Republican opponent, Richard M. Nixon, 53.3 per cent of the vote.

Again this year, the Democrats — who have not captured Ohio since 1948 — are favored.

JOURNAL PREDICTS

An extensive poll by the Akron Beacon Journal sees President Johnson taking 54 per cent of what may be a record total of 4,225,000 Ohio votes. The Plain Dealer in Cleveland said in a copyright story Sunday that its poll indicates Johnson will capture about 60 per cent of the state's vote.

And the Columbus Dispatch, in copyright stories Sunday, gave Johnson a 56.8 per cent margin in 40 key metropolitan Columbus area precincts. But a majority of rural residents given special ballots in three counties in each of four congressional districts favored Republican nominee Barry Goldwater.

Newspapers are continuing their polls down to the final days of the campaign, mindful that Ohio has traditionally been a "swing" state, voting Democratic six times and Republican 10 times since 1900.

President Johnson's supporters, from State Chairman William L. Coleman on down, are saying: "Let's not get overconfident."

BLISS UNCERTAIN

Republican State Chairman Ray Bliss has indicated he is not sure who will carry Ohio.

Bliss, known as one who does not go all out at the last moment unless he thinks he has a chance to win, has brought the GOP's heavy artillery of late, including Goldwater, GOP vice presidential nominee William E. Miller, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Nixon.

Late advertising and a whistle-stop tour through the state by Nixon were credited with a large share of the 1960 Republican victory in Ohio.

The Democrats have courted Ohio assiduously. Johnson and his running mate, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, have made repeated trips to Ohio. Johnson, in fact, came twice in one week, visiting Cincinnati and Dayton on one trip and then coming back to speak at Akron.

STATE CANDIDATES

Among state candidates, both Republican senatorial candidate Robert Taft Jr., son of the late "Mr. Republican" Robert A.

Taft, and incumbent Democratic Sen. Stephen M. Young are supporting their national tickets.

Young has identified himself closely with the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, and most observers think that only a large Johnson victory in the state can pull him through to victory.

Taft is reported to have urged Goldwater privately to concentrate more on specifics. But he emphasized again the other day: "I'm for the whole Republican ticket from Barry Goldwater on down."

Gov. James A. Rhodes, a Republican in the midst of a four-year term, has appeared with Goldwater on occasion in Ohio but has not campaigned actively for him.

Organized labor is solidly behind Johnson. The Ohio AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education has called Goldwater's candidacy "the most serious threat to the welfare of Ohio citizens and workers since 1958."

That was the year in which a fight over an attempt to institute a state right-to-work law brought a Democratic election landslide, including Young's upset victory over then Sen. John W. Bricker.

Goldwater has been trying to woo the labor vote. He told an Akron audience recently that "I'll fight to defend your right to strike and bargain collectively."

About 8 per cent of Ohio's 10.3 million population are Negroes. Republican Negro leaders say they fear a possible boycott or switch by some of the 60,000 registered Negro Republicans.

N.Y. Doctors Man Panic Phone

Psychiatrists Seek to Cut Suicide Toll

TAKES CALL — Dr. Herbert Walter, director of the New York Emergency Psychiatric Treatment Service, takes a call on the special red telephone. Since Aug. 26, 1963, Dr. Walter and his staff have manned the special phone awaiting calls that usually begin: "I am going to kill myself..."

tion efforts is difficult to gauge. In its first year of operation the New York service had 380 calls which the psychiatrists classified as coming from probable potential suicides.

Of those, 144 identified themselves and 35 reported for psychiatric treatment.

Walter said the telephone service probably was helpful even to the anonymous callers. "This is a crisis situation for the potential suicide," he said. "If we get them over the crisis, they may never again consider an attempt."

Walter said he and his colleagues stress the word "help" in conversations with potential suicides. It is important, he said, that the calling individuals get directed away from their obvious feeling of hopelessness and helplessness.

"Our first aim when we get a call is to stop the person from carrying out his threat," said Walter. "The next step is to get him helped."

Nonfarm residential property accounts for about 40 per cent of all taxable property in the nation.

Cows Take Tunnel to Help Fly Study

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP) — Cows are being driven through a dark tunnel as part of an experiment to study fly repellents and attractants at the New York State College of Agriculture.

The tunnel is located near a forage area, where the cows attract flies while they eat.

When the cows are driven through the tunnel, the flies, which don't like darkness, cluster at the opening where they are confronted by a board containing 36 squares of paper treated with six different attractants.

The flies are counted as they cluster on the various attractants to determine the one with the most drawing power.

Students Raise Ticket Money

Coed Will Get to Vote

NORTON, Mass. (AP) — Candy will get to vote next week. Thanks to more than 1,000 girls dressed in red, white and blue, 21-year-old Candy Yaghjian, a Wheaton College senior, has the money she needed to return to her Columbia, S.C. home election day.

Otherwise, Candy would have been the only adult student among the 1,673 girls at Wheaton who could not vote. South Carolina does not allow absentee voting except for servicemen and some government employees.

The girls at Wheaton set out to raise the $100 needed for a round-trip fare from Boston to Columbia. They dressed in patriotic colors yesterday and dropped money into a wagon normally used to collect leaves. The total was $130.

BOTH PARTIES

Candy wouldn't disclose her political affiliation. She carried a stuffed donkey under one arm—and a stuffed elephant under the other.

NEW YORK (AP) — A psychiatrist sits by a special red telephone in a room at New York's vast Kings County Hospital. He awaits a call that will begin "I am going to kill myself."

The psychiatrist is Dr. Herbert Walter, director of the New York Emergency Psychiatric Treatment Service. His task is to prevent suicide. He, or one of his colleagues, has manned the red telephone around the clock since Aug. 26, 1963.

Other cities with such a "suicide prevention service" for those who want to communicate their troubles include Los Angeles, San Francisco and Miami.

The red telephone symbolizes the growing concern of authorities that suicide has far broader implications than the bare statistics numbering those who die.

GENERALLY AGREE

Psychiatrists, public health officials, insurance experts and law enforcement officials generally agree that:

—The number of suicides each year is greater than the total reported by vital statistics agencies. There were 20,260 recorded suicides in 1963.

—For every dozen suicides one other life may be taken; either by an associated accident or by murder.

—For every suicide six to eight other persons unsuccessfully attempt suicide.

—The suicide toll could be cut dramatically if the problem were given the attention that is given to other major causes of death.

In the van of the attack on suicide are life insurance companies, which have an economic stake in the problem. A popular misconception is that life insurance cannot be collected on suicides. Most ordinary life policies allow full payment of insurance claims if the suicide victim has held the policy two years.

Current statistics put suicide close to the top 10 leading causes of death. Accurate statistics, say insurance men, would put it among the top 10 and rank it about the level of diabetes as a killer.

NO DOUBT

"There is no doubt that suicide is far more significant than the number of deaths recorded indicates," said Dr. Louis I. Dublin, retired vice president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

Dublin, who has written standard texts on suicide, termed the method of recording suicides in the United States inadequate.

"It is about one-third short of the probable actual total," he said in an interview. He said many suicides are not reported as such because sympathetic public officials seek to protect survivors for social or religious reasons.

In addition, many suicide victims mask their deaths as accidents. Dublin said this is particularly true of auto fatalities.

MORE ATTEMPTS

"In all probability, there are six to eight times as many attempts at suicides as there are successes," Dublin said.

"These unsuccessful individuals disrupt lives around them and have a deep impact on the lives of their families. Those who attempt suicide unsuccessfully still are damaged people. A sizable proportion of them ultimately will succeed in destroying themselves."

"Thus, there is an accumulation of people in this country who have attempted suicide and who are potential suicides. We don't ordinarily recognize what a drain this is."

He estimated the accumulation at two million persons.

CLEAR PROBLEM

For the life insurance industry the problem is clear. Institute of Life Insurance statistics show that in terms of violent death suicide is the only area where the death rate of insured persons is higher than for the population generally. Statistically, the life-insured person is less likely to die in an auto accident, be murdered or die in some other accident than in the general population, but more likely to commit suicide.

The recorded number of suicides increased 25 per cent from 1953 through 1963. That compared to an increase in motor vehicle deaths — an area in which most states carry on extensive and costly programs of prevention — of 13 per cent. The general population increased about 20 per cent.

One difference between the recording of the 42,990 motor vehicle deaths and the 20,260 suicides is that the vehicle accidents recorded all lives lost, whereas the suicide toll did not take into account the number of lives of others that were lost because of a suicide. Those victims were killed under homicide or "other" accidents.

The potential suicide is often an angry person," said Walter. "He bears anger and hostility toward something external. Then, because of guilt at the anger, he turns it back on himself. In some situations this is completely directed back. In some cases this goes both ways, either against a neutral subject — an innocent bystander perhaps — or against something personally significant, such as a member of his family."

DIFFICULT TO GAUGE

Walter said that the precise effectiveness of suicide preven-

Negro Wins Primary Bid in Dixie City

BRUNSWICK, Ga. (AP) — The Rev. Julius Caesar Hope won nomination to the City Commission over two white opponents Tuesday to become the first Negro nominated to public office in this Georgia coastal city since Reconstruction.

President of the Brunswick chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Hope is a native of Mobile, Ala., and an Air Force veteran. He made an unsuccessful bid for a City Commission post three years ago. Hope polled 1,701 votes in the Democratic primary while W. H. Sigman, who had been on the commission 11 years, got 1,143, and Hugh D. Leggett got 1,130. Hope is assured of opposition in the Dec. 1 city general election from Republican or independent candidates.

Johnsons to Hear Results in Texas

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — President and Mrs. Johnson will go to Texas to vote in person and to get the election returns there next Tuesday night. Without going into details, White House press secretary George Reedy announced today that the Johnsons will go to their home state, instead of remaining at the White House to get the returns.

Under Texas law, the Johnsons could have cast absentee ballots. The codfish may supply the key to the cause of diabetes. Codfish insulin is different from the insulin of all other animals, including man, yet it does the job of lowering blood sugar in the same way.

New Hampshire Governor Applauds Stiff Terms Handed Out for Resort Hooliganism

HAMPTON BEACH, N.H. (AP) — More than seven weeks after a roaring mob of 10,000 youths battled police in this seaside resort, the community still hasn't heard the last of it. Fifteen youths have been sentenced to serve up to nine months in jail; and Gov. John W. King has applauded the sen-

“We are going to have to stop mollycoddling them,” King said.

It was the night before Labor Day when the quiet of this peaceful summer resort was shattered by the rioters. They showered police with beer cans and rocks, broke windows, burned beach shacks and caused thousands of dollars damage.

100 ARRESTED

More than 100 youths were arrested, including 29 juveniles; hundreds more were herded more than three miles to the Massachusetts border by police wielding clubs.

In the intervening weeks, more than 25 young men ranging in age from 18 to 24 years, have been arraigned in Hampton District Court on charges of disorderly conduct, particu-

Four were fined $500 each and sentenced to nine months in jail. Ten others received fine likes and jail terms of six months. One was fined $500 and sentenced to three months in jail. AM have appealed.

In addition, Judge John R. Perkins has imposed eight $25 fines on disorderly conduct charges.

ARSON CHARGE

Neal Leroy Hastey, 19, of Hartford, Conn., is held in lieu of $10,000 bail pending court action on a charge of arson. He Flood is under additional $500 bail awaiting action in Rockingham County Superior Court on a charge of aggravated assault. He is charged with hurling a rock at state trooper Leonard Migneault, who lost eight teeth as a result of being struck in the mouth. The injury required more than 30 stitches.

Police Chief John A. Roden,

Police Chief John A. Roden, who came under heavy fire last year following a less severe outbreak, has been asked by the town selectmen to resign.

REFUSED TO QUIT
The reasons for the selectmen's action were not made public. Roden has refused to resign, pending a hearing on the request.

During a weekend inspection of the state police, Gov. King endorsed the sentences handed out by Judge Perkins as one of the most effective elements in preventing recurrences of riots.

The governor said police officials "find it frustrating and discouraging when they risk life and limb at times to apprehend young hoodlums only to find the courts treating them with leniency."

"If we are going to establish a respect for the law among our youth, then we are going to have to stop mollycoddling them," King said.

Snacktime Apples

Easy entertaining idea: Offer guests a low-calorie snack tray featuring crisp Delicious Apples accompanied by cauliflowerettes, cheese-filled celery stalks, caraway'd cottage cheese, and marinated shrimp.

Apples for Salad

Red or Golden Delicious apples are perfectly suited for salad making. Make a "holiday special" by mounding rings of cranberry jelly with Waldorf Salad. Top with tinted mayonnaise for a party look.

Bacon Adds Perfect Touch

Start the day with a breakfast that wakes you up and gives you a satisfied feeling!

Old favorites like bacon and eggs become special when the eggs are beaten and mixed with pineapple juice for a new kind of French toast.

Serve with bacon strips fried until crisp and evenly browned.

If grapefruit, melon or fruit juice are served as the first course and milk, cocoa, coffee or tea are added to this as a beverage, the menu is complete.

Have the family come and get it!

Bacon-Hawaiian Toast

- 16 slices bacon
- 4 eggs
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- 1 cup pineapple juice
- 8 slices bread

Bacon drippings Beat eggs until light and fluffy. Add salt, cinnamon, sugar and pineapple juice and beat thoroughly. Soak bread well in this mixture.

Place bacon in cold frying-pan. Cook slowly, turning frequently, until bacon is a light golden brown and evenly crisped. Remove bacon.

Fry bread in drippings until brown on both sides. 4 servings.

Simmered Veal Is Served With Trio of Vegetables

An entire meal is made in one container when you prepare "Veal Bean Kettle" with its cubed veal, stringless Blue Lake green beans and mushrooms.

Veal Bean Kettle

- 1/4 cup flour
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 lbs. veal shoulder, cut into 1 1/2-inch cubes
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 can (1 lb.) tomatoes
- 1/2 teaspoon crushed tarragon leaves

- 1 can (1/2 lb.) cut Blue Lake green beans
- 1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms
- 1 can (12 oz.) whole kernel corn

Mix flour, salt and pepper. Coat meat with flour mixture; brown in butter in kettle. Stir in tomatoes and tarragon. Drain liquid from beans and mushrooms into kettle. Bring to boil; cover and simmer 1 to 1 1/2 hours until meat is tender.

Drain corn and add to meat with beans and mushrooms. Heat through.

Fill Squash Halves With Apples, Meat

The gentle, hazy days of autumn summer are soothing harbingers of frosty days ahead. This is the season when folks are extra busy finishing last minute chores to winterize the house or taking on new offices with the PTA or Scouts. The partnership of increased activity and crisp, cool days makes appetites keener, mealtime an eagerly awaited event.

And your job as chief cook is even more important and demanding, for it's essential that the menu be easy to prepare, yet filling and nutritious too.

One of our harvest time favorites is this Autumn Dinner that is almost a meal in one. Colorful and savory, each portion comes complete with its own serving dish, a golden acorn squash half.

The squash is baked and filled with tiny pork sausages and a surprise ingredient—a generous spoonful of apple pie filling. Pie filling is mighty convenient to use for main dishes like this, as well as desserts, and is as tasty in one as in the other.

It makes an excellent shelf staple to keep on hand for emergencies when you are called on to produce a festive-looking meal on short notice. If cutting through the hard outer shell of acorn squash is a problem to you, try baking the whole squash for about 45 minutes before you cut it in half and remove the seeds. You'll find this softens the shell and makes it easy to handle.

A green vegetable and coleslaw salad would be ideal to accompany the Autumn Dinner served either kitchen-style or at a party buffet.

Autumn Dinner

3 medium acorn squash
18 little pork sausages
1 No. 2 can (2½ cups) apple pie filling
¼ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
Bake squash whole in 350 degree oven for 45 minutes. After 20 minutes, place sausage links in oven on a rack in a shallow uncovered pan. (No turning necessary.)

Remove almost-baked squash and cut in half lengthwise. (Easier than struggling with uncooked squash.)

Combine apple pie filling and sugar; spoon into squash. Put sausages into apple mix and continue to bake 15 minutes or until squash is tender.

Fig Parfait Is Sure to Rate Praise

A different parfait for fall entertaining may be made ahead of time and kept in freezer.

Tropical Parfait

1 cup chopped California dried figs
½ cup light corn syrup

1 cup orange juice
4 macaroon cookies, crushed
Vanilla ice cream
Whipped cream
Combine figs, corn syrup and orange juice in saucepan. Bring to boil; simmer 5 minutes. Stir in macaroons, cool. Arrange alternate layers with ice cream in parfait glasses. Top with cream.

To make zesty croutons to add to green salads, brown and crisp them in garlic-flavored olive oil.

Chop Up Fruit for New Dip

Guests love chip dips because of the flavor surprises that can be hidden in them. Here's a simple one with the smooth sour cream concealing the delightful tartness of chopped pineapple.

Lazy Day Chip Dip

½ pint sour cream
½ cup potato chips crushed

1 large fresh or frozen pineapple
Chop the pineapple finely. Mix into sour cream and add crushed potato chips and blend.

But Don't Drop It

To tell if an egg is soft-boiled or hard-boiled, lay the egg on a flat surface and whirl it. If it rolls, it needs cooking a little longer—but if it spins around it is boiled hard.

AUTUMN DINNER — Old fashioned food with modern ease of preparation is what you'll find in this dish. A couple of generations ago Grandma would have picked the squash and apples on her own property and made the sausage at hog-killing time. Now she buys everything and spoons the apple filling right out of a can. But the taste is still excellent.

Get Ready for Goblins' Party

Pontiac Press Food Editor

This week we're going to talk about parties. Today, it's Halloween parties.

With Halloween coming on Saturday, there is ample opportunity to entertain the small fry at apple bobbing and pin-the-broom-on-the-witch.

They'll have to be fed. Let's explore the possibilities.

Molasses Peanut Butter Candy
2 1/2 cup unsulphured molasses
2 1/2 cup peanut butter
1 cup nonfat dry milk

Mix together unsulphured molasses and peanut butter. Stir in nonfat dry milk. Knead lightly on additional nonfat dry milk. Roll into long rope 3/4-inch in diameter. Cut into 1 1/2-inch pieces.

Wrap pieces in waxed paper or transparent plastic wrap. If desired, chill several hours for a firmer candy. Yield: Approximately 1 1/2 pounds.

Another treat which the children can help you make is a batch of Halloween cookies. They'll enjoy cutting out the dough (under your supervision, of course) and decorating the frosted cookies.

Halloween Raisin Cookies
1 1/2 cups dark or golden seedless raisins
1/2 cup walnuts
3 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon instant coffee
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup brown sugar (packed)
1/4 cup butter
1 egg
2 tablespoons milk
Frosting Glaze

Chop raisins and walnuts very fine, or put through coarse blade of food grinder. Resift flour with baking powder, salt, cinnamon and instant coffee.

Blend sugars with butter until soft and fluffy. Beat in eggs; stir in raisins and nuts. Add sifted dry ingredients and milk, mixing to a stiff dough.

Roll out a small amount of dough on well floured board to 1/4-inch thickness. Cut into Halloween shapes or with fancy cutters. Carefully lift with wide spatula to ungreased baking sheets.

Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes, until lightly browned. Let stand on baking sheets a few minutes, then lift with spatula to wire rack to cool.

When completely cold, spread cookies with Frosting Glaze and decorate as desired with raisins. Makes 2 to 3 dozen cookies (3 to 4 inches diameter).

Frosting Glaze: Beat 2 cups sifted powdered sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla, 1 tablespoon soft shortening and 3 to 4 tablespoons water together until smooth. Glaze should spread easily. Divide glaze and tint colors desired.

For chocolate glaze, beat in melted unsweetened or semi-sweet chocolate to color wanted; beat in additional liquid to make consistency comparable to basic glaze.

Ice cream is always welcome. Serve the youngsters scoops of vanilla ice cream, late morsels. Each child can make a jack-o-lantern face on the ice cream. Warm butterscotch sauce completes the dessert.

Old-Fashioned Butterscotch Sauce
1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 cup light cream
1/2 cup light corn syrup
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Dash of salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

In a saucepan, stir together the brown sugar, 1/2 cup of the light cream, light corn syrup, butter and salt. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly, over moderate heat.

Cook, stirring occasionally, until the temperature reaches 246 degrees on a candy thermometer, or until a small amount of the mixture dropped into very cold water forms a firm ball that does not flatten when removed from the water. Remove candy from the heat.

Stir in the remaining 1/2 cup light cream. Cook over moderate heat about 1 minute. Stir in vanilla. Serve warm.

Store any leftover sauce in a tightly covered jar in the refrigerator; reheat in the jar placed in hot water. Makes about 1 1/2 cups.

Fig Stuffing Is New for Ribs

A different way to serve ribs. The spicy fruit filling provides an interesting flavor contrast.

Baked Stuffed Ribs

4 to 5 pounds spare ribs cut into 2 pieces

Salt
Pepper
2 cups diced tart apples
1 cup diced California dried figs
1/4 cup diced onions
1/4 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup chicken broth or bouillon

Sprinkle ribs with salt and pepper. Lay a strip of ribs in baking pan. Combine apples, figs, onions, sugar and cinnamon. Spread over ribs. Pour broth over; top with remaining ribs. (If necessary, hold together with skewers.)

Cover with lid or foil. Bake 1 1/2 hours at 350 degrees or until ribs are done. Makes 6 servings.

Lemon Flavor

Cut donuts in half and crosswise. Generously spread cream cheese filling; sprinkle with mixture of 1/2 cup sugar and grated lemon rind of one lemon.

Substituting Is Simple

How can you substitute frozen fruit for fresh when making a pie? Use 1 1/2 cups of frozen fruit for 1 cup of fresh fruit. Defrost in unopened container and drain juice. Add water to juice in sauce pan to measure 1 cup or 1 1/2 cups liquid.

Mix 1/4 cup or 1/2 cup sugar (depending on whether you use a mellow or very sweet dessert) and 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca or cornstarch or 4 tablespoons flour. Stir this into hot juice until thickened and clear. Mix lightly with drained fruit and turn into unbaked pie shell with 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, plus desired spices or flavoring.

Add top crust, seal to edge, and bake in hot oven (425 degrees) for approximately 40 minutes.

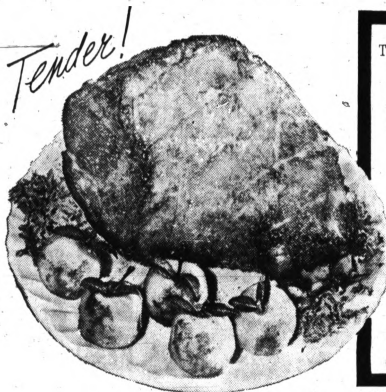

Contain Vitamins

Almost the entire supply of vitamin C in food comes from fruits and vegetables. Fresh apples carry a good amount of vitamin C as well as vitamin A, and should be included in your daily menu-planning.

Do Any Office Bores Work Near You?

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Bore is where you find them.
The cocktail party is supposed to be the natural habitat of the bore in the United States, but he proliferates in other places, too — the average business office, for example.
Whether the 9-to-5:30 bore produces more ennui than the after-quitting-hours bore is a matter of opinion.

Glorene Heller — This twitchy little dame thinks of herself as a femme fatale. She can't keep her mind on the job, or her hands off the boys. Charge France to Quit Common Market

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany's opposition Socialist party claimed today that President Charles de Gaulle has long been preparing to pull France out of the Common Market.
The party press service said de Gaulle has been working out an alternative to the six-nation Common Market. It did not say what this was.
The statement said de Gaulle is using the grain price issue as a pretext. Last week the French president threatened his country would "cease to participate" in the Common Market unless agreement is reached on a common grain price which would cut the price paid German farmers and raise the price paid French producers.
"Since the recognition of Peking by de Gaulle, and particularly since it became established that Communist China hopes to enter the United Nations with the help of its own atomic bomb, the cooperation of France in the Common Market has become more and more reserved," the Socialists said.
"In a parallel development, France has been making efforts through bilateral agreements with East European Communist governments, as well as with North African nations and some former colonies in Central and West Africa, to build up its position in international trade.

STEPS TAKEN
"Since the de Gaulle trip to Latin America, and even in the preparations for this trip, France — without consulting its allies — has taken steps toward expanding its trade and political influence and toward freeing itself from the Common Market.
"In addition, there has been the new trade agreement France made with the Soviet Union, with the lengthening of loan terms from five to seven and a half and sometimes 10 years."
The Socialists claimed the West German ambassador in Paris informed Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's about four months ago of de Gaulle's course and his intentions toward the Common Market.
The Socialists said Erhard kept quiet to preserve the appearance of close West German-French cooperation.

MADE PROMISES
The Socialists also claimed that Konrad Adenauer when chancellor made promises to de Gaulle which have been kept secret. Adenauer signed a treaty of cooperation with France in January 1963, shortly after de Gaulle prevented Britain's entry into the Common Market.
The opposition party said the government should make these promises public and Erhard should say clearly what he intends to do about them.
Erhard's government has no comment on the Socialist accusations, a spokesman said.

Eight Currently in League

Pontiac Flirts With Entry in UFL

By FLETCHER SPEARS
Pontiac is flirting with professional football. And it's a flirtation that, should it blossom, could result in a franchise for Pontiac in the United Football League.

The UFL is a professional organization made up of teams in eight cities — Montreal, Quebec; Indianapolis, Ind.; Grand Rapids; Joliet, Ill.; Toledo and Canton, O.; and Charleston and Wheeling, W. Va.

The league was formed in the winter of 1960-61 by George T. Gareff, a Columbus, O., attorney, who now serves as league commissioner.

The UFL is, by no means, in a class with the National or American football leagues, but steamed in the loop are well stocked with players who are just a notch short of the quality demanded by the NFL and AFL.

Pontiac found itself in the UFL spotlight last spring when Gareff was looking for teams to replace Louisville, Chicago and Columbus, cities that dropped out after the 1962 campaign.

HOLD MEETING
Gareff contacted Paul Parks, local sports promoter in March of this year and Parks set up a meeting at which the commissioner discussed the league with a group of local businessmen.

At that meeting, Gareff explained the financial requirements and informed the group of the entry deadline, which, at that time, was only two weeks away.

Gareff recommended an initial outlay of $100,000 to put a team in the UFL.

Organized at the session with Gareff was the Pontiac Professional Football Club. Rather than launch a crash program and try to field a team this year, the group decided to concentrate its efforts on putting a squad in the league in 1965.

The group decided, first of all, to give professional football a test to see what local fan reaction would be.

Parks contacted several of the UFL teams to see if he could bring two here for an exhibition or league game.

The teams would come, but the guarantee was high — in the neighborhood of $10,000 each. The group considered the price too high and dropped the idea.

MPL LEAGUE

Parks' next move was to contact Lyle Wells of Mount Clemens, owner and manager of the Macomb County Arrows, a member of the Midwestern Professional Football League.

The talk with Wells bore fruit.

Wells agreed to play one of his league games in Pontiac, with Dayton, O., providing the opposition for a guarantee of $2,000.

The game will be played at Wm. Stadium Nov. 7 at 8 p.m. Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the event.

Purpose of the Arrows-Dayton game, Parks explained, is to see if support for professional football exists in Pontiac.

The Pontiac Professional Football Club had another reason for dealing with Wells.

Wells has a good team — it now leads the league — and he has all the equipment.

It is possible that the Pontiac group, if it decides to field a UFL team, might ask Wells to bring his best players along with all equipment to form a nucleus for the Pontiac team.

Such a move would trim the cost of fielding a team considerably, since cost estimates for outfitting a team — new uniforms plus all equipment — range from $15,000 to $20,000.

TOMORROW: COSTS AND TEAMS IN UFL

Lions Sign Former All-America

Add Gibbs to Back Up Milt Plum

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The Detroit Lions dipped into pro football's minor leagues yesterday for a quarterback to bolster the team's wounded signal calling corps.

Former Texas Christian All-America Sonny Gibbs was signed as a free agent. He has been playing with the Toledo Rockets in the United Football League after waivers were obtained by Dallas of the NFL earlier in the season.

The 6-foot-7 quarterback has been working out with the Lions since regular quarterback Earl Morrall suffered a fractured collar bone against the Chicago Bears two Sundays ago.

Milt Plum took over the starting role against the Baltimore Colts last Sunday, but re-injured the elbow on his passing arm.

The Lions placed Morrall on the injured reserve list yesterday. He will finish the season as a spotter in the press box.

RULE CHANGED

In a late session at the NFL meetings in Chicago yesterday, the 40-player limit rule was finally liberalized.

League representatives decided that in team dropping below the 40-man limit could add one replacement without having to drop four players on the injured list.

Besides the Lions, the 49ers were also hurt by the rule and they had to put Bob St. Clair, J.D. Smith, Don Lisbon and Bill Cooper on the injured list in order to add Gary Lewis, a free agent running back.

After being rebuffed twice in the request for getting another quarterback, the Lions were able to add Gibbs, former No. 1 draft choice of the Cowboys.

With Plum now ailing, Gibbs may likely see some action against the Rams Sunday.

The Lions, who were rattled by injuries in the Colts' game, have been faced with a serious quarterback problem and have had their defense torn apart in the 34-0 loss to Baltimore.

The suggestion that the Lions may now be demoralized brought an irate response from coach George Wilson.

"Anything and everything happens in this league," Wilson said, "Baltimore lost seven games and could have just as much trouble as the Packers, Bears or ourselves right now."

"These are professional football players. They know how fast things can change and they know very well they're not out of the running," he added.

GOOD FINISHES

The Lions need to emulate the 1960-61 season to prove their point. During those three years they finished with 6-1 records in the final seven games each time.

During the first half of those seasons the Lions were whipped by the 49ers "shotgun" 49-0 and by the Bears, 28-7 and by Los Angeles, 48-30 and by reverse the decisions in the final stretch of those campaigns.

Rookie Ram Runner Requiring Respect

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The resurgent Los Angeles Rams are loaded with outstanding rookies, and one of the brightest surprises among the 13 newcomers is a big, tow-headed kid from the farm country of Minnesota, Minn.

The name is Lester Josephson, or call him Les, or Josie, it doesn't matter but he's quite a prospect at fullback.

He was the young fellow who ignited the first explosion last Sunday when the Rams came from a 0-17 deficit and upset the powerful Green Bay Packers, 27-17, at Milwaukee.

He will probably start Sunday against the Lions in Detroit.

"The thing about Josie and the other rookies, I don't think they knew who the Green Bay Packers were," said Coach Harland Sware, who is quite familiar with the Packers.

FIRST SINCE '59

As a linebacker with the New York Giants, and now as a coach, Sware hadn't been able to whip Green Bay since 1959.

It was Josephson, 6-foot and exceptionally fast for his 210 pounds, who opened the Rams' scoring by planking off the right side of the Packers line and kept going 53 yards.

On the run, he broke through a tackle by Lee Roy Caffey. But he doesn't even recall that part of it. "I just kept going," he explained.

It was only the second game Josephson had started. "I have to thank the coach for that. Rookies don't generally get a chance to start a game in the National Football League," he noted.

In 24 runs, he's gained 146 yards, plus 40 more on five passes.

SMALL COLLEGE

Josephson was a star at Augustana College in Sioux Falls, S.D. But Augustana is not exactly a breeding ground for outstanding football players.

However, the 800 yards he amassed did not escape the attention of the "talent-hungry" pro scouts, and he said seven of eight clubs offered him a chance as a free agent.

Josephson signed with the Dallas Cowboys — he said he preferred to try out with the NFL — and came to the Rams in one of those lucky gambles.

"Dallas hated to give Josephson up but they needed a tackle. And at the time our fullback, Ben Wilson, had retired to study dentistry and we needed a running back," Sware related.

So Dallas got veteran lineman Jim Boeke and the Rams got Josephson.

Stewart scored in a span of six minutes to put Toronto in front to stay.

Red Hay, with assists from Bobby Hull and Mikita, lifted the Hawks within one goal near the end of the second period and that's the way it ended as both teams went scoreless in the final period.

Mikita now holds a six-point lead over his nearest rival in the race for scoring honors. No other games were played.

Toronto will try to extend its lead Wednesday night against Montreal while Boston seeks its first triumph of the season against the Rangers in New York.

Captains Bid for Title

Kettering in Grid Showdown

Waterford Kettering's football team is en route to the best record in the school's history; but the entire season could lose most of its glamor Friday afternoon.

A large homecoming crowd is expected to see the Captains finish their bid for the school's first Tri-County League football championship at 3:30 p.m. against L'Anse Creuse.

Both teams are unbeaten in league and season play but a tie for the crown is impossible since the Mount Clemens eleven has no tie on its mark.

Kettering is 6-0 and ranked among the top 25 Class A teams in the Associated Press' weekly state prep poll. Last year's 7-2 record is the only other winning one in the school's four-year gridiron history.

Both Kettering and L'Anse have shown rugged defenses; but the Captains do have a decided edge offensively based on season records.

Coach Jim Larkin of WKHS can point proudly to a 75-49, 12-against point ratio in league games. L'Anse is 46-21, against the same three teams — Oxford, Romeo and Lapeer.

The latter tied the Lancers, 14-14, and lost, 30-6, last week to the Captains. Last year Kettering and Lapeer tied for the title and L'Anse was third.

A sidelight to the homecoming tilt will be flashy Jim (Travelin') Haviland's attempt to gain ground in the county scoring race. He has scored eight touchdowns to date and, in addition, is averaging almost one nullified six-pointer per game.

TOWNSHIP PLAY

Waterford Township will attempt to insure a winning season for itself and build momentum for the traditional clash with Kettering in a visit to Mount Clemens Friday.

The Skippers have bounced back to a 4-1-1 mark and second place in the Inter-Lakes League following only one win last year. Wins in the final three games would add sparkle to the season for coach Stu Thorell.

Mount Clemens is 2-3-1 and finished last in the Eastern ville Salt Flats, Utah. Arfons' average speed of 536.71 miles an hour erased the mark of 526.26 set earlier this month by Craig Breedlove.

Cassius Ready for Verbal Tilt

Champion in Boston to Open Training

BOSTON (AP) — Cassius Clay has arrived in town to do verbal battle with Sonny Liston in the preliminary struggle for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world.

Clay got off to a bad start in the verbal strife, arriving several days behind the challenger and while the town was wrapped up in a campaign visit by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

There weren't many people on hand to view his jeweled belt, emblematic of the world crown, as Clay stepped from the plane, accompanied by a large entourage. Among the crowd was Mrs. Clay and a group of sparring partners that included Clay's brother, Rudy.

ARENA ANNEX

Clay meets the Boston press at a luncheon today and then opens his in-state training at the Boston Arena Annex Gym on St. Botolph St. at 2:30 p.m.

Liston boxed three rounds Tuesday against Amos (Night Train) Lincoln, ending the workout at his lowest weight in three years — 212 pounds.

Ohio Driver Cracks Land Speed Record

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (AP) — Art Arfons figures he reached the 600-mile-per-hour mark when he again broke the world land speed record with a clocking of 536.71 m.p.h. Tuesday on these Western Utah salt flats.

And his jet-powered car had a tire blowout, he said, when his air speed indicator showed 600 m.p.h.

But the Green Monster rolled to a stop without incident although the right rear panel of his car was damaged.

Arfons of Akron, Ohio, said he wasn't a bit frightened but "pleased as punch we did what we came out to do — break the record."

LAST RUN

But he said he won't try any more runs this time — "We're not going to push our luck."

He said his car "will go faster than I want to go — faster than sound. But until I know a little more about the speed of sound and what happens, I'm not going to try."

"I know I can go 650 safely and that's the goal for next time. I used only 12,000 horsepower this time and there's 8,000 more horses in that engine."

"But right now I'm hungry — haven't eaten since five this morning. I'm going to go out and get a big cheeseburger."

Earlier this month Art set a record of 434.02 m.p.h. Then Craig Breedlove broke that with a 526.26 mark in his three-wheeled, jet-powered Spirit of America.

When Breedlove did that, Arfons quickly returned to the flats to do him one better.

Arfons' right rear tire blew Tuesday, but his car held the road and rolled to a stop in time.

On his first run at 1:07 p.m. Arfons was clocked at 515.98 m.p.h. over the measured mile and 519.27 over the measured kilometer. On his second run at 1:55 p.m. he was timed at 559.179 for the mile and 571.374 for the kilometer.

The average for both runs was 536.71 for the mile and 544.13 for the kilometer.

Detroit 5 Makes Room for Rookie

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Pistons Tuesday asked waivers on Robert Duffy, a 6-3 guard in his third National Basketball Association season.

Duffy, who joined the Pistons last year after playing for St. Louis and New York, had appeared briefly in four games this season.

The club also announced its No. 1 draft choice, Joe Caldwell, was to meet with team officials Tuesday night to discuss contract terms. Caldwell had been in Phoenix, Ariz., following participation in the Olympics.

Indiana Horse Wins at Jackson Raceway

JACKSON (AP) — Miss Dandy Grattan, owned and driven by Virgil Oswalt of Muncie, Ind., won the featured Kalamazoo Pace at the Jackson Raceway Tuesday, paying $5.00, $3.00 and $3.00.

A daily double combination of Indiana Pence and Independent Best paid $113.60 as a crowd of 2,106 wagered a total of $113,117.

Browns Losing Statistic Battle

But Cleveland Leads in Eastern Division

NEW YORK (AP) — Ninth in team offense and last in team defense.

Those aren't terribly impressive credentials but they don't bother the Cleveland Browns. As long as they're first in the National Football League's Eastern Division, they couldn't care less.

The Browns, who took undisputed possession of the lead after whipping New York 42-20 last Sunday, also are last in ball control plays. So how come they're leading their division?

For one thing they've scored more points than anybody else in the league except Baltimore and points, not statistics, win ball games.

If the Browns had to depend on the statistics, they'd be in trouble. Their 2,462 yards allowed is almost 300 yards less than any other club has surrendered. Their 1,971 yards gained leads only five other NFL clubs.

Cleveland has run only 381 ball control plays on offense, the fewest for any team in the league. Ball control plays are described as pass attempts and rushes. Punt and field goals — plays where the ball is voluntarily surrendered — are not included.

Offense Puts Notre Dame 11 in 2nd Place

Irish Trailing Tulsa; Bowling Green Unit Rushing Leader

NEW YORK (AP) — Notre Dame has charged up to challenge Tulsa in total offense and Bowling Green has taken over the rushing leadership in major college football.

Tulsa retained its three-way hold on three offensive departments — the Hurricane also leads in passing and scoring — but faced a threat from the Irish.

Notre Dame, amassing 315 yards in the air against Stanford last Saturday, moved from eighth place to the runner-up spot with an average of 383.6 yards gained a game. Tulsa leads with 459.6, according to NCAA service bureau statistics released today.

LEADS PASSING

Tulsa leads in passing with a 295.6 pick up a game and is first in scoring with 38.4 points a game. Iowa is second in passing at 258.2 with Utah State the scoring runner-up at 38.7.

Bowling Green, meanwhile, capped a steady climb to overtake Nebraska for rushing leadership. The Falcons lead with a 271.2 average to 256.7 for the Cornhuskers.

Film Makes Guard Agree

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — "I didn't really think I had played too well until I studied the game films. And then I realized I had played the best game of my career."

That's what Steve Delong, Tennessee guard, said about his defensive play against LSU — a performance that helped the underdog Vols tie LSU 3-3 and win for Delong the not-as-Associated Press Lineman of the Week.

"This certainly is an honor and I'm grateful for it, but I feel that it should go to our entire defensive line," said Delong, 245-pound, 6-foot-3 guard from Norfolk, Va. "Our whole team went up for the game, and that helped my play."

FIELD CAPTAINS — Kettering's field leaders this year are providing the deeds to inspire their teammates in a bid for the school's first unbeaten season. Coadapted Pat Nutter (11) and Jim Haviland will attempt to carry the Captains to their first Tri-Country League football championship Friday afternoon in the homecoming contest with L'Anse Creuse.

Knocking Down Pro Passes

Little Man Shines in Giants' World

NEW YORK (AP) — Pat Fischer is a little man in a world of giants. His main job is knocking passes out of the hands of would-be receivers when the St. Louis Cardinals play football.

Sometimes the little man (5-foot-7 and 170 pounds) looks up and sees a Jimmy Brown or a Jim Henry Johnson charging down his throat. He hasn't flinched yet.

Pat's normal position is left corner man in the Cardinals' deep defense. That means his prime responsibility on passing plays is the flanker back of the other team.

DANGEROUS SPOT

One week it may be Tommy McDonald, the next Bobby Mitchell and still another Jimmy Orr. Corner men live dangerously in the National Football League.

Fischer is now in his third year as a regular on the Cards defensive unit after two years of working on the specialist teams on punt returns and kickoffs.

The figures, supplied by Cardinal publicity man Joe Pollack, make a convincing case for Fischer as one of the best corner men in the league.

Here is how he has fared in the first seven games: Against Tommy McDonald of Dallas — McDonald caught two passes for 18 yards, no touchdowns. Fischer intercepted one, ran it back for a touchdown.

Against Gary Collins of Cleveland — Collins caught six for 105 yards and one touchdown. Against Bernie Casey, San Francisco — Casey caught two for 32 yards, Fischer intercepted one.

FOUR PASSES Against Bobby Mitchell, Washington — Mitchell caught

four for 88 yards and one touchdown. Fischer intercepted two, ran one back for a touchdown.

Against Jimmy Orr, Baltimore — Orr caught one for nine yards.

Against Mitchell, second game with Dallas — McDonald caught one for two yards.

In all, Fischer's opponents have caught 19 passes for 288 yards and three touchdowns. He has intercepted five and run three of them back for touchdowns.

"Size doesn't have much to do with it," Fischer said recently. "It's reaction time that counts. If you're close enough to them when they try to catch the ball, so that you can hit them, they don't catch the ball."

"We don't have to worry about the government-subsidized athlete, such as they have in Russia," he said. "We proved that our way is the best. I would be against government subsidization."

Mahoney said he could see no reason for a feud being renewed with the national collegiate athletic association.

"We aren't feuding with anyone," he said. "The NCAA is feuding with us, but instead of fighting, we should turn out energies toward improving our over-all athletic competition."

Mahoney said that he still believes, as he said a year ago, that the NCAA should have a strong say in AAU affairs — just as other organizations do.

"The two champions, who played all of their golf in the San Francisco Bay area while stepping up to fame, will be competing in a field that includes most of the top names — except the two very top: Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus.

Billy Casper, the third-leading money-winner on the tour with $87,000 to his credit, is their No. 1 threat.

Also competing will be defending champion Al Geiberger, who has won the title two years in a row; Dick Sikes, the 24-year-old youngster who knocked over the $12,000 first place money in the rich Sahara Invitational.

We'd Be Capturing Ourselves, Says Labor Leader

Staebler, Reuther Deny Party Is UAW Captive

DETROIT (AP) — Democratic gubernatorial candidate, Neil Staebler and United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther fired their most vehement denials Tuesday against Gov. George Romney's assertion that the UAW controls the Michigan Democratic party.

Their blasts against the Republican governor came from Reuther's office, where Staebler called his visit "one of a series of calls on community leaders."

Romney has charged that the UAW dominates Democratic machinery and that control of any political party by an organization seeking economic objectives is bad.

"The UAW has worked hard to try to develop a relationship with the Democratic party as part of a broad coalition," declared Reuther.

FUTILE EXERCISE

"If we tried to capture the Democratic party we'd be capturing ourselves, which would be a futile exercise," Reuther said. "It would be the most unwise thing we could do. We wouldn't get very far."

Reuther agreed with questioners that the UAW exerts influence on the party, but said there "is a tremendous difference between influence and domination."

"If the UAW ever asked any political party to do something contrary to the public good we should be told to go to hell," said Reuther.

"The UAW has asked me to do nothing," Staebler added.

ANSWER TO PUBLIC

He credited the auto union with helping "make political parties answer to the public for their actions. You've warned us if we failed you'd support someone else."

"Right," agreed Reuther. He said the most serious problem of American politics is to make parties responsible for what they do.

Questioners asked Reuther how many of the approximately 400,000 UAW members in Michigan the union "could deliver" to the Democratic ticket.

"The UAW doesn't have any votes to deliver," said Reuther. "Our members vote as individuals."

MORE CONTROL

He exclaimed that General Motors, Chrysler and Ford

"have much more effective control of the Republican party than the UAW does of the Democratic party."

Earlier while taping a television appearance, Staebler had said both parties "exaggerate" the effect that economic groups have on the opposing party.

Reuther told Staebler he ought to win by 100,000 votes in the wake of a Reuther-estimated 750,000-runaway by President Johnson over Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Staebler said he thinks he's closed to within 20 per cent of Romney although recent polls peg the difference at four per cent, or about 120,000 votes.

WORK HARD

"You've just got to work hard and get your friends to work harder," Reuther advised.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt's 1936 victory.

"Goldwater is just a storekeeper from Phoenix" whom Reuther said the Republican powers are using to gain control of the GOP though "they don't think he'll win," Reuther said.

Otherwise Staebler spent Tuesday in making a round of plant gates, television tapings, receptions and brief appearances before groups ranging from 100 to 150 persons.

Today he was to spend most of the day at auto plants, with two 14th district functions, a shopping center tour and an evening rally in Hamtramck thrown in.

Hart Says Thinking Voters Deserving of Sympathy

FLINT (AP) — People deserving sympathy in a political campaign aren't the raspy-throated, tired candidates. Any sympathy belongs to those diligent and independent enough to try and make heads or tails of it all.

Who says so?

A candidate, that's who. He is Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., and he said in a speech prepared for delivery here today.

"Few participants in a political campaign take an impartial, objective view of the issues that they are depending on for victory."

"Consequently, the situation always sounds a little worse than it is or a little better than it is—depending on who was talking last."

"So the job of the citizen is to hear two versions—check them against his estimate of the candidates' integrity—and mark his decision on the ballot."

Hart ticked off the civil rights act, war on poverty, nuclear test-ban treaty, foreign aid and water pollution control as among current campaign issues.

"Of course," he added, "the intelligent citizen—like the intelligent politician—realizes that the issues are neither pitch black nor pure white."

"Now I happen to be in favor—and strongly in favor—of all the issues I've named. But let's face facts. The civil rights bill may inconvenience some who don't deserve it. There will be some waste—however careful we are—in foreign aid. And there will be those whom the poverty program can't help."

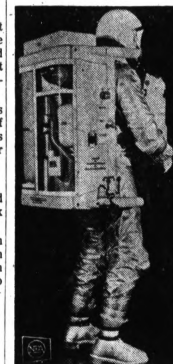

"But, in balance, I strongly believe all these measures are good ones—although you are certainly not obligated to share that belief."

And then Hart, running for reelection, wound up his speech to students at the University of Michigan's Flint branch:

"If you judge these issues and others on the basis of thoughtfulness and quiet reason, then—regardless of how you decide—you have done your job as citizens."

Boy Drwps on Day Before 3rd Birthday

MARQUETTE (AP) — A day short of his third birthday, David Koerner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Koerner of Marquette, drowned Tuesday near his home. David had been playing with another youngster on a dock when he fell into shallow water, authorities said.

Sticky Strings Will Seek Life in Mars Soil

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration is developing a package of life-seeking sticky strings as one experiment planned for a spacecraft intended to land on Mars in 1969.

When the unmanned craft lands on the Martian surface, explosive charges will shoot each of the three strings out about 50 feet.

The strings will be reeled in mechanically, with the sticky substance picking up soil particles.

Inside the spacecraft, the particles will be doused with a sterile broth laced with radioisotopes.

Should the Martian soil contain any living organisms, they should begin to grow within four hours and produce a radioactive gas.

The gas would be detected by a transistorized geiger counter and the information radioed to earth.

FIRST EVIDENCE

The experiment could provide the first evidence of life on another planet.

"We haven't decided," she says. "It depends upon the picture."

Jane already has appeared in a remake of "La Ronde" which Vadim made in France.

BACK TO PARIS

When she finishes "Cat Ballou," Jane and Roger will fly

back to France, where she bought a farm house outside Paris near Versailles four months ago.

Will she live there as Jane Fonda or Mrs. Roger Vadim?

"The only roommate I'm going to have is an otter," says Jane. "I'm not going to settle down for a long time."

LONE SURVIVOR — Carlos Hernandez, 23, said he is the only survivor of mission to Cuba by a group of five Cuban exiles. In a hospital bed in Key West, Fla.; Hernandez said the group's 28-foot rafting boat was raked by machine-gun fire from a Cuban gunboat. He was picked up by a passing tanker.

Dating Bardot's Ex-Husband

Jane Fonda Another Brigitte?

By DORIS KLEIN (Written for Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The nagging question when you see Jane Fonda these days is: Is she becoming another Brigitte Bardot?

Jane's honey-hued locks swirl as lip-length as Brigitte's, her hips have a naturally pouty look.

She has been the toast of France for nearly two years. Even her best beau is Brigitte's ex-husband, Roger Vadim, one of France's top young new wave film makers.

At 26, Jane is four years younger than Brigitte, who turned 30 this year.

ENJOY TRAVELING "I don't think I've changed much," says Jane, back in Hollywood to make her first western, "Cat Ballou."

"About the only thing I enjoy now I didn't enjoy two years ago is traveling."

Then her eyes light up as she tells about a recent trip to Moscow.

But basically, Jane is still Jane — an exotic product of childhood as the daughter of a Hollywood star, of eastern private school training, and of several blossoming years as a star in her own right.

There's another similarity to the old Jane. She still goes for Sengal-like men she can lean on.

GREEN DIRECTOR Two years ago, it was young Greek director Andreas Voutsinas. Jane was making "Period of Adjustment" at MGM and going over her lines after work in her Malibu beach house with Andreas.

"He's always around," a co-worker complained at the time, "and she listens to everything he says."

Sometime during the last two years, Andreas faded out of the picture.

"He's in New York now, doing some terribly brilliant things," says Jane.

ROGER AROUND Roger is almost always around, too — when he isn't commuting to Paris from Hollywood.

Preelection Caution

Stock Mart Moves Irregularly

NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. Steel declined on a disappointing earnings report while the irregularly early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

The market was still beset by pre-election caution, analysts said, and by progress in setting local plant disputes at General Motors despite the official end of the strike.

Small gains were posted by a string of airlines, chemicals and electronics.

Utilities were steady, rarely thoroughly scrambled. Rubbers and building materials declined slightly.

A rise in machine tool orders in September was regarded as an omen of plans for business expansion but the stock market showed little reflection of this at the moment.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 2 at 330.9 with industrials off 5, rails off 1 and utilities up .8.

U.S. Steel was down a full point. Higher earnings reported after the close yesterday did not make as good a percentage gain as did those of other leading steelmakers, analysts said.

Air Crash Kills Dearborn Man

Spy Colonel's Jet Ran Into Flock of Geese

ST. IGNACE, (AP)—Col. Glenn M. Ryerson, 46, of Dearborn was killed Tuesday in the crash of his Michigan Air National Guard plane. A witness said the jet fighter collided with a flock of geese, burst into a ball of flame and disintegrated.

Charles (Chuck) Blane, proprietor of a St. Ignace bar who was duck hunting from a blind near the scene, said that about 4:15 p.m. he saw a plane coming over on what appeared to be a collision course with a flock of southward flying geese.

Suddenly, Blane said, all he could see was a ball of flame and what looked like pieces of plane flying off. The RP47 photo reconnaissance jet carried Col. Ryerson down with it.

Blane said it was flying a mile or so away at relatively low level. The flight plan for Col. Ryerson's training mission was to fly over the Straits of Mackinac.

NEAR MORAN
The plane went down near the community of Moran, some 10 miles northwest of St. Ignace on the southern edge of the Upper Peninsula.

Col. Ryerson was deputy commander of the 12th Tactical Reconnaissance Wing of the Michigan Air National Guard. He also was base commander for a detachment of more than 200 National Guardsmen stationed at Detroit's Metropolitan Airport.

Ryerson was a veteran of World War II and of the Korean War, and until transferring to Detroit in 1959 was assistant for air units under the State Adjutant General in Lansing.

Survivors include his widow, Florence, and two daughters, Mrs. Judith Ellstrom of Inkster, and Joan Ryerson of Dearborn.

Grain Futures Drop in Moderate Trade
CHICAGO (AP)—Grain futures were lower on a moderate volume of transactions early today on the Board of Trade.

About an hour after the opening soybeans were 1/2 to 2 cents lower, wheat 1/4 to 3/8 lower, December new grade 1/2 to 3/8 lower, oats unchanged to 1/8 lower, December 67 cents and rye was 1/2 to 3/8 lower.

Deficits were reported in the fiscal year ended April, 1963, and in the first half of fiscal 1964. The units were recently 94¢. Since your objective appears to be quality with a measure of growth, I would be inclined to switch the units into Consolidated Foods.

Successful Investing
By ROGER E. SPEAR
"My objective has always been safety and growth. I am getting along in years, and my estate will have a large inheritance tax to pay anywhere from $85,000 to $98,000. All I wish now is to leave as much as possible to my nieces and nephews to educate their children. I have Union Carbide but own no Sears, Roebuck. Would you switch? Also, it has been suggested that I put $10,000 now available into Treasury 3's of 1965. What is your opinion?"

"Your objective is excellent and your aim for your relatives is laudable. For growth I rate Sears, Roebuck much higher than Union Carbide, and I advise you to make the switch.

Treasury 3's of 2-15-95 sell around 85¢, but they are acceptable at far in payment of Federal estate taxes when actually owned by the decedent at time of death. Selling as they do at a big discount, I consider them a fine holding for one who is concerned about inheritance taxes.

Q: I own 300 units of Executive House, Inc., for which I paid $22 1/2¢ a unit. It has dropped so much that I wonder if I should hold on to it. I also own A.T. Colgate, Palmolive, Radio Corp. I wonder also whether I should continue to hold Western Union? L.P.

A: It is always distressing to advise a person like yourself to take a sizable loss. December 1961's, oats unchanged to 1/8 lower, December 67 cents and rye was 1/2 to 3/8 lower.

Deficits were reported in the fiscal year ended April, 1963, and in the first half of fiscal 1964. The units were recently 94¢. Since your objective appears to be quality with a measure of growth, I would be inclined to switch the units into Consolidated Foods.

Western Union is principally an income stock, with little growth evident in recent years. I would switch into Pacific Gas & Electric, which appears to have greater prospects for capital appreciation.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Corp. Tax Court today ruled that a corporation's stock transactions on the New York Stock Exchange are not subject to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Under the sponsorship of Pontiac Motor Division, 116 engineering students are currently attending the General Motors Institute at Flint in a cooperative educational program which allows the students to earn as they learn.

The program offers five years of study in mechanical, industrial or electrical engineering. A student who completes the program in five years normally means a full-time employee and is assigned a project of his own.

The problem is one of importance to Pontiac and one which will contribute to the development of the individual. A report or thesis is required on the project at the end of the year.

196 NOW WORKING
Indicating the success of such a cooperative program is the fact that 196 GM graduates are now working at Pontiac, including a 1963 mechanical engineering student, E. M. Estes, who is now Pontiac's general manager and a vice president of General Motors.

Three Pontiac area men attended the 22nd annual conference of the National Association of Suggestion Systems in Boston, Mass. this week.

The three include Floyd H. Sinker, 4919 Irwindale, Waterford Township, and Thomas C. Henson, 3889 Bald Mountain, Pontiac Township, both of Pontiac Motor Division, and Charles H. Moery, 6091 Monrovia, Waterford Township, of the GMC Truck and Coach Division.

Kenneth S. Hodges, 2895 Warner Orchard Lake, has been elected to the executive committee of the Automotive and Machine Shop section of the National Safety Council. Hodges is director of safety for the General Motors Corp.

Charles F. Adams, 6139 Dakota Circle, Birmingham, executive vice president of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., was a featured speaker at the annual meeting of the western region of the American Association of Advertising Agencies in Los Angeles today.

Adams presented an analysis of a recent A.A.A.-sponsored study on a Consumer Judgment Study.

2 State Men Stay Jailed in Rights Protest

McCOMB, Miss. (AP)—Two Michigan men are among 14 civil rights workers who vowed today to remain in jail in a non-violent protest against this system and its laws.

Among those arrested Tuesday in renewal of a voter registration demonstration were Rev. George Lawrence, 35, of Saline, and Joe Harrison, 35, of Ann Arbor.

Jesse Harris, 22, director of the civil rights project here, said the 14 will remain in jail in the hope that their being there will help to further expose the kind of justice under which confessed bombers go free and Negro citizens claiming their rights are imprisoned.

The group was arrested after officers stopped a demonstration protesting the close of registration at the local courthouse. Circuit Judge W. H. Watkins said the registrars office was being closed so the registrar, who doubles as court clerk, could attend court sessions.

'Most Tax Protests From Nonresidents'

Most of the opposition to the city income tax approved by the Pontiac City Commission recently is coming from non-residents, according to Commissioner Leslie Hudson.

The need for the tax was explained by Hudson yesterday at a luncheon meeting of the Township Supervisors Association; City Manager Joseph A. Warren also took part in the informal discussion at the Pontiac Elks Temple.

After announcing the possibility of a new osteopathic college and hospital being built here, Hudson presented some reasons for the commission's approval of the tax.

The city's growth in population has surpassed the increase in revenue, Hudson said, "treating a growing need for improvements in water, sewer and

'Portable' Jet Base Used in Exercise

HUELVA, Spain (UPI) — The use of a "portable" jet fighter base highlighted the third day today of Operation Steel Pike 1, the largest peacetime amphibious exercise in history. American and Spanish troops in the exercise total 60,000.

U.S. Seabees put down a 4,000-foot steel runway, a control tower and field hospital and dug a well — all in 96 hours.

Military experts said the airfield demonstrated the speed with which landing troops could be furnished tactical air support.

Hundreds of jets flew from the field to provide cover for U.S. Marines of the 2nd Division and Spanish Marines who were consolidating their positions near the coastal town of Huelva in southern Spain.

Development of City Airport Urged

County Board Adopts Aviation Report

The Leigh Fisher report on the future of aviation in Oakland County, subject of much discussion and some controversy in the past three months, was unanimously adopted yesterday by the County Board of Supervisors.

The report recommends joint city-county development of a general aviation airport as a general aviation airport at an estimated cost of $3,094,410.

It also contains a master plan for development of the county's Allen Airport, estimated at $4,979,372.

The aviation committee's recommendation of acceptance of the report was followed by a recommendation that a special committee be appointed to meet with the Pontiac City Commission to plan a course of action.

Although the report was accepted by the board without question, the second recommendation brought out some differences of opinion.

FINANCIAL STUDY

David Levinson of Birmingham, chairman of the ways and means committee, proposed that a detailed financial study of the project be conducted before any further action is taken.

William A. Ewart, Pontiac city attorney and member of the board, called for a professional appraisal of the airport and its facilities.

After considerable discussion of the financial aspects of the airport, Charles B. Edwards Jr. of Madison Heights moved that the report be referred to the ways and means committee for further study.

Edwards' motion was defeated in a voice vote by what sounded like a slim majority.

APPROVED REQUEST

The board, then approved the request for a special committee, although the voice vote indicated considerable opposition.

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the board, said he will appoint the committee sometime next week, "after I've had some time to think about it."

As requested by the aviation committee, the special committee will consist of two members of the ways and means committee, two members of the buildings and grounds committee and two members of the aviation committee.

Lansing Man Is Shot

While on Back Porch

LANSING (AP) — Arthur R. Robaloso, 32, of Lansing was shot to death on his back porch Tuesday. Jose Flores Padilla, 40, a neighbor, was held under an open charge of murder in the shooting. Police said the two had quarreled over money Robaloso owed to Padilla for a television set.

He worked at railroad and ranching and eventually settled in Birmingham, Wash., as an engineer in the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard. He worked until he was almost 100 under a federal rule which permitted him to continue because he had been a postal employee as a youth.

Bogue and White are roommates at a convalescent center here.

"I worked hard and I lived hard," Bogue said yesterday as he outlined his plans for his birthday celebration.

"I look care of myself," said White. "I did smoke for 75 years, but I haven't the past two. There isn't a man in Seattle who can say he's seen me drink."

White will stay home when Bogue goes "out on the town" Saturday, repeating the kind of celebration he had last year.

"I went dancing then," he recalled with a smile.

Romney Absence Conspicuous During Miller Visit

By GENE SCHROEDER

Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — A time-worn cliché—"conspicuous by his absence"—was, the only way to describe the man who wasn't there Tuesday when Michigan Republican leaders greeted the party's vice presidential nominee, Rep. William Miller.

Gov. George Romney was off campaigning elsewhere when Miller arrived at Detroit's Metropolitan Airport. He was still among the missing when Miller spoke to an Economic Club dinner.

Romney sent greetings to Miller in a telegram, but the vice presidential nominee didn't mention it to his audience. In fact, he didn't mention Romney's name at all.

The chilly relationship between the governor and the GOP's national ticket has political observers recalling a similar situation which prevailed four years ago among the Democrats in Michigan.

At that time, it was vice president nominee Lyndon B. Johnson who was regarded as something less than welcome in the state. In fact, LBJ never was invited to speak by Michigan Democrats leaders during the 1960 campaign.

The Democrats felt that Johnson was too conservative to take the No. 2 spot on the ticket.

Romney has refused to support either Sen. Barry Goldwater, the GOP presidential nominee, or his running mate because of a basic clash in philosophies on the matters of extremism and civil rights.

The split "obviously has had some effect on our campaign," said Creighton Holden, Detroit Lakes regional chairman of the Citizens for Goldwater-Miller, in an interview.

"Romney is running—and will be re-elected—on the basis of his record in the state. There's no question that a unified ticket would be better, but under the circumstances we have to look at things the way they are," Holden observed, resignedly.

In the past, Holden has complained that "the situation here is that we are raising money for the Goldwater-Miller campaign. Is it still a problem?"

"Well, there's never enough money," he shrugged.

Holden insisted, however, that the campaign is going well "and getting better all the time."

UNDECIDED VOTERS

He said a lot of the voters listed as "undecided" in the polls are swinging to Goldwater.

"Our candidate is coming through to the people as he gets more exposure. They're beginning to listen to him. And any challenger can naturally be expected to win most of the undecided voters," Holden conceded.

The incumbent already has had his views spread on the record for some time and failed to convince the undecideds, he explained.

Holden said developments in Viet Nam, Russia and Red

China are following along the line that Goldwater has been preaching.

"And this issue of morality in government is bound to have a tremendous impact on the undecideds," he added.

As if to underscore Holden's views, GOP State Chairman Arthur Elliott sent a telegram to Dean Burch, Republican national chairman, saying:

"In recent days, Michigan newspapers have been reporting that Sen. Goldwater has given up on his chances of carrying our state.

"Sen. Goldwater has a fighting chance of winning Michigan. Today the Republican party organization in this state is operating at its very best. We have working in the field the biggest, best-trained precinct organization ever put together by this party."

Less Control of Children by Judy Garland

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)

—Former Hollywood producer Sid Luft won more control yesterday over his two children by actress Judy Garland after a two-day custody hearing in which the actress' character was repeatedly assaulted.

Miss Garland, however, retained custody of Lorna, 11, and Joseph, 9.

The youngsters were taken to court by Miss Garland's manager, Karl Brent. "When they saw Luft, they cried out, 'daddy, daddy,' and ran to his arms. Luft fought back tears as they hugged and kissed him."

Superior Court Judge Orlando H. Rhodes conferred with the children privately in his chambers for an hour before ruling that Luft should have more say-so over handling of the children than the governors in absence of the mother.

When Mr. Garland is away from home on professional appearances, "Mr. Luft's solutions to problems for the children should be held superior to those of Mrs. (Hettie) Chapman," the judge said.

Whenever Luft visits the children in the actress' home in nearby Brentwood, however, he must announce his visits beforehand and he must "act like a guest," the judge ruled.

Miss Garland is in London, where she and her older daughter, Liza Minnelli, are preparing for an opening next month at the Palladium.

Only 24 of 5,382 proposals to amend the United States Constitution have been adopted.

Wilson's Poll on Comics Now No Laughing Matter

NEW YORK — They're on the last lap in "The Greatest Comedian" election . . . over Jackie Gleason carries California, he may squeak in over Red Skelton as top Banana . . . But Charlie ("Carpetbagger") Chaplin is gaining in the Bronx, Long Island and New Jersey . . . his enemies say he'd rather be left than resident.

I refer to my pitfall poll conducted via your brilliant readers. The mailed-in votes reveal: that show business fans can get as hysterical as workers for LBJ and BG.

"Red Skelton's the Clown of the Century! He was just born funny," writes in Mary Angela Cole, Virginia Beach, Va., down in the Solid South.

"Why is Danny Kaye not nominated?" writes in Mrs. Rudy Pfeiffer, Dallas. "I love that man!" . . . JONATHAN WINTERS: WHO ELSE? says Mary M. Furber, Philadelphia . . . "WHAT ABOUT SID CAESAR?" demands Jim Dawson, Columbus . . . "JOHNNY CARSON! He's so great, all he has to do is look in the camera!" (Leslie Lichtman, Kings Point, N.Y.).

"How could you ever overlook Marty Allen . . . Milton Berle . . . Jerry Lewis?" runs my fascinating mail on this subject. Lillian Lillian of Brooklyn says: "The greatest comedian is Ben Blue."

LATE FLASH: A groundswell from the grassroots of St. Pete and Clearwater, Fla., is developing for Bob Hope. "No one has fetched gaudier jowls up on more people, been quoted more, or been treated lausier by Oscar judges," says Louis D'Armand.

If Ed Sullivan votes for Jackie Mason, I'll let you know.

Polls close in our Top Banana election tonight Tuesday, Nov. 2. We'll announce the winner as soon as we can. Kim Novak and her new romance Richard Johnson reportedly had their first hassle (on the "Moll Flanders" set when he wanted a scene directed his way) . . . Frank Sinatra will spend a lot of his "Van Ryan's Express" take for a new Lear twin-jet (instead of the British plane he'd inspected) . . . The two defected Russian jazz musicians sat in at the Village Vanguard the day after they arrived here and already have a mgr. and a press agent.

"I have taken my own life. No one is to blame."

Tong, 63, a screen performer for 25 years, was found dead at his home at nearby Venice yesterday. An empty bottle of sleeping pills was found nearby.

An autopsy was ordered. Police said Tong gave no explanation for his suicide, but left several notes propped up on a chair in his apartment—one of them to his landlady and another to his attorney, dictating final arrangements in the event of his death.

A note to Ben Wong, whom officers said performed as Tong's stand-in, bequeathed him a ring and all personal belongings as a "token of all the kindness you have shown me."

IN SERIES

He was currently appearing in the ABC television series "Mickey." He entered television in 1959 with the role of the wisecracking houseboy in "Bachelor Father."

Machines and 3,500 Men Still Idle at Baltimore GM Plant

BALTIMORE (AP) — Inside the tandem Fisher Body-Chevrolet plant here, there are 46 acres of idle machinery. Outside it there are 3,600 idle workers.

They have been that way since the United Auto Workers went on strike against General Motors Sept. 25.

A national contract agreement between the company and the union has been reached, but the strike won't end until disputes at the plant level are resolved. That is what B. W. Bothe is working on.

A trade unionist for 25 of his 46 years, Bothe is assistant director of the UAW's southeastern region. As such he heads an 11-man bargaining committee for UAW Local 238, whose 1,800 members work at the Fisher Body end of the plant's 4 1/2-mile complex of assembly lines.

COME TO TERMS

Local 678, which represents the 1,800 workers on the Chevrolet side of the plant, has come to terms with management. Both locals have ratified the national contract.

Jay Cumba, chief company negotiator at Fisher Body, won't comment on the dispute.

One company spokesman did say, though, that the plant produced 270,000 new cars last year, supplying about 5,000 East Coast dealers. He also said the company had a payroll of $85,000 a day.

Bothe said the dispute is not over economic issues. "I'll tell you what the strike is about," he said. "It's about a man's dignity at the working place. 'NOT MACHINERY'."

The company has to learn

Confab on Pesticides

EAST LANSING (AP)—More than 100 pesticide dealers, manufacturers and salesmen are expected for a conference Thursday and Friday to discuss the necessity and value of pesticides to Michigan farmers and consumers. One feature of the Michigan agricultural pesticide conference will be research reports by Michigan State University scientists.

that a worker is a human being, and not just part of the plant machinery. That may sound a little strong, but that's essentially the way it is," he said. "Here's an example," he said, consulting a stack of mimeographed sheets brought out from the meeting room. "On one part of the (assembly) line there is solder being ground; the dust is a danger to health, and we're demanding that it be restricted to booths and that a better exhaust system be put in."

Ellison Stockton, at 35 the youngest UAW local president in the region, said he couldn't predict how long the strike would last.

"No matter how long it lasts," he said, "our members' morale will stay as it is now—100 per cent." He pointed to a ballot Sunday night when the local voted to ratify the national contract, but decided by a thumping 1,011-to-5 margin to continue the strike over local issues.

'NO SENSE'

James Brewster, a union member who was in charge of one of the four two-hour shifts of pickets outside the plant, said he agreed. "There's no sense going back unless we get what we're after."

He said the $30 a week a family man gets from the union—a married man with no children gets $25, and a single man gets $20—does little more than buy groceries.

"But it's better than nothing," he said.

Brewster said creditors have generally been understanding. He said car payments and house payments have been missed, "but the companies haven't been too hard on us."

Barry, Johnson Trade Salvos on Campaign Trail

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) — President Johnson, who claims he is wrapping election issues around Barry Goldwater's neck, said today he will "not play the war game of bluff and bluster."

Johnson bore down on questions of war and peace in a speech prepared for an outdoor audience at Albuquerque, N.M., start of a day-long tour through the West that actually was aimed primarily at voters in Southern California.

The President's strongest language was prepared for the New Mexico crowd.

He said: "The stakes in the election are success and survival. The issues are recklessness or responsibility."

Going on to stress issues which he says find him and Goldwater far apart, Johnson concluded, in his stiffest language: "We cannot and we will not play the war game of bluff and bluster. That risk is too great."

QUICK TOUR

Before swinging into the West, Johnson made a quickie tour of the Northeast Tuesday night.

In Pittsburgh's ultra-modern Civic Auditorium, he delivered one of the most surprising speeches of his campaign.

Ticking off a series of major policy questions, including the civil rights law, Johnson said with direct reference to Goldwater: "These are all issues in this campaign, and we are wrapping them right around his neck."

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today President Johnson "kidnaped the Democratic party" for eventual delivery to Socialists when he chose Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey as his running mate.

The Republican nominee for the White House hammered away at his charge that Johnson is hungry for power, and accused the President of trying to frighten people into voting for him.

"I charge," the Arizona senator said, "that the Johnson machine is driven by lust for power, by fear of the exposure of wrongdoing in high places, by fear of punishment and by hope of special privileges."

Goldwater alternated between defense and attack in a speech prepared for a rally at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

It kicks off a day of Midwestern vote-hunting that will take him also to Oshkosh, Wis., and East St. Louis, Ill.

SUPPORT DORMANT

Johnson, he said, "has failed to arouse real grass-roots support for his candidacy."

Goldwater declared Republicans have that kind of support, and said the backing of small newspapers and "close to one million" small contributors demonstrate it.

Armada Blaze Said the Worst in 20 Years

Woodwork, Metal Firm Burns to Ground Despite Efforts of 70

A blaze described by village fire officials as the "worst fire here in at least 20 years," last night razed the Industrial Woodwork & Metal Corp. in Armada, one of the community's biggest industries.

The building at 22966 W. Main burned completely to the ground despite the efforts of seven area fire departments called to the scene.

About 70 firemen from Selridge Air Force Base, Romeo, Macomb Township, Richmond, Washington Township and New Haven helped the Armada department fight the blaze.

Cause of the fire is still undetermined.

The alarm was turned in at about 6:45 p.m. yesterday by an unidentified man, who told Armada firemen he heard an explosion and, after checking his own house nearby, noticed the flames inside the factory.

Damage was estimated at "at least $125,000" today by Armada Fire Chief Al Kahler, who said that the loss was probably covered in part by insurance.

Kahler said that it was the worst fire since he has been Armada's fire chief, about 20 years.

A large crowd watched firemen battle the flames until the fire was brought under control at about 11 p.m.

The front wall of the building had to be pulled down when it began to sag, threatening to collapse on firefighters.

MINOR INJURIES
Injuries on firemen were limited to minor hand injuries, and none were hospitalized.

The Armada department stayed at the scene until 1 a.m. today, returning at 2:30 a.m. to extinguish a minor flare-up.

power line near the naval airfield. A witness said an engine became disconnected from the plane and careened down the parking lot near the field.

Six Near Death With Burns; 9 Seriously Hurt

Plane Strikes Pole During Parachuting Program at Base

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — Nine men are dead and six persons, critically hurt, were near death today when a jet bomber crashed in flames during a parachuting demonstration at a Navy airfield.

Nine other persons are hospitalized with serious injuries. Twenty others escaped with minor hurts.

The big A3D twin-jet bomber had dropped a parachutist in the program yesterday at the El Centro Naval Air Facility, then crashed when it hit a power pole after racing low over a reviewing stand.

Three of those killed were the crewmen on the plane. The others were in buildings struck by the flaming wreckage which fell across the center of the base.

The 70,000-pound jet came apart in the air after one wing hit the power pole.

BLAZING WRECKAGE

The shower of blazing wreckage scattered 400 yards across buildings and parking lots, setting two major fires, smashing buildings, setting autos afire.

Women and children — servicemen's dependents — were among the victims.

"Women were running across the street toward the burning heat with their hair on fire," said a witness. "Their children were screaming."

WING DAMAGED

A wing smashed into the station's administration building.

A mass of flaming wreckage plunged into the post theater and killed James Wall, 27, of Long Beach, a quartermaster as he was testing a film which was to have been shown last night.

A sailor painting chairs in a service building hit by the plane was bounced off the ceiling, then flung out through a hole in a wall. The building burst into flames.

He ran to aid his friends, trapped inside, and was hurled back by a blast and injured.

JET FUEL

Blazing jet fuel showered much of the quarter-mile of impact area.

One engine smashed all the way through the chapel — which was empty — burst out the other side and smashed cars in a parking lot beyond.

Black columns of smoke rose high in the air over the base. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Miller: Is Reuther Pick for Labor Dept.?

DETROIT (UPI) — Republican vice presidential nominee William E. Miller headed west today from Detroit where he warned businessmen that United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther could be the nation's next secretary of labor.

The New York congressman's schedule oiled for him to fly to La Crosse, Wis., where his Democratic opponent, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, campaigned last Saturday. Miller also had stops to make in North and South Dakota before ending the arduous day in Missoula, Mont.

Man Is Arrested Along LBJ's Route

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A suburban Pittsburgh man, arrested Tuesday night in his car along the route of President Johnson's motorcade, was held for a hearing today on charges of violating the Uniform Firearms Act.

State police said they found two rifles and a pistol in the car.

The man was identified as William E. Fisher Jr., 24, of Bellevue.

Then he said if Johnson and Humphrey were elected "we have had it as far as our American system is concerned."

"DANGEROUS ALLIANCE"

Earlier Miller said that in the United States there was building "the kind of dangerous alliance which inevitably leads to the destruction of liberty — and the choice at the polls next Tuesday may well be the last choice between freedom and the loss of freedom in America." This charge was made in an issued statement.

—But he used only one sentence from the prepared release in his speech. An aide said later, however, the candidate stood behind everything contained in the release.

The statement said, "The fatal alliance I refer to is the political wedding of big business, big labor and big government. It is the same alliance that came to life in Germany three decades ago when Adolf Hitler offered the people a welfare state program, with promises to build everything they needed."

Housing Sale 'Proves Need' For Osteopathic College

Developer Charles L. Langs has proof of the need for townhouse apartments in Pontiac.

Langs, whose 65-unit Pontiac Townhouse Apartments development was sold out in just four hours after the grand opening, estimates 4,500 people have toured his model unit.

Enthusiased at the response, the developer is planning a similar 400-unit development at the city's southern boundary.

He cited modern living accommodations at a realistic cost as the reasons for the quick sale of the cooperative apartments on Douglas near Pike where 65 units were erected on a 5-acre site.

Langs, who purchased urban renewal land for this development, said that the 3% interest rate specified by the federal government made possible the low monthly payments for the apartments.

CITY BENEFITS

Langs also pointed out that the City of Pontiac derives full property tax benefits from the development.

The new apartment complex will be located on a 30-acre site on the east side of Woodward across from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and extending to the Bloomfield Township line.

Fund-Raising Meeting Set For Osteopathic College

Securing the remaining $125,250 necessary to purchase the Pontiac site for a proposed osteopathic college will be the aim of a noon meeting Tuesday, Nov. 12.

City Manager Joseph A. Warren said today that the meeting would consist of local service club representatives and businessmen.

Announcement yesterday of the location in Pontiac of the osteopathic college climaxed nearly three months labor by businessmen, city officials and civic leaders.

The college, if finally located in the city, would be erected on a 164-acre site at the southwest corner of Auburn and Opdyke.

Land for the medical school was purchased from trustees of the Fisher family by a private group of local citizens, who will turn it over to the college as a gift.

WORKED QUIETLY

The 15-member citizens group worked quietly for three months to raise $252,750 of the $410,000 purchase price.

Bruce J. Annett of Annett Realtors Inc., who negotiated for the land, has waived his commission of $35,000, leaving $122,250 remaining to be raised.

Warren, commenting at last night's commission meeting, said that over 65 per cent of the purchase price had been contributed by local interests.

The proposed medical school complex, which will eventually include a 440-bed hospital, is expected to grow into a $60-million development in 15-20 years, said Warren.

Although it is "very certain" that the college will locate in Pontiac, a formal announcement will not be made for a few days, according to an osteopathic spokesman.

Selection of Pontiac for the $30-million Michigan College of Osteopathic Medicine comes after nearly a year's lapse.

Death Takes Commissioner

Pontiac Official Won as District 7 Write-In

City Commissioner Emmett S. Wellbaum, 58, who was elected as a write-in candidate in the April election, died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital.

Cause of death was not revealed. However, the District 7 commissioner underwent surgery in July and again last Thursday.

Wellbaum of 289 Seward was a purchased parts inspector at Pontiac Motor Division, where he had worked 19 years. He was an unsuccessful candidate in District 1 in 1952.

He was born in Marion, Ind., in 1905 and came to Pontiac in 1945. He attended Baylor University in Dallas, Texas.

He was a member of B.P.O.E. 810; Pontiac Traffic Club; UAW Local 653; Pontiac Area Urban League; a charter member and treasurer of the National Office Management Association and past president of the Pioneer Highlands Civic Association.

The City Commission last night honored Wellbaum as "a kindly man in a world where there are too few kindly men."

In an official resolution, the commission commended him as a conscientious public servant, who was fair and just.

Service for Wellbaum will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home, with burial in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery. An Elks Lodge of Sorrow will be 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Surviving besides his wife, Mary, are three daughters, Mrs. Jeanette Medsker and Mrs. Virginia Garcia, both of California, and Mrs. Mary J. Sharpe of Howell; three sons, Bert, Donald and Emmett Jr., all of California; a sister, Mrs. Andrew F. Perry of Indianapolis; and a brother, Robert Cremons of Indianapolis.

Strikes Still Cripple GM; Few Cars Out

DETROIT (AP) — Crippling local-level strikes continue today at 25 General Motors plants, but the auto-making giant at least was getting a trickle of new cars out.

The United Auto Workers Union called off a 31-day nationwide strike against GM Sunday, but it permitted bargaining units still without at-the-plant working agreements to stay off the job in support of local demands.

There have been three new local-level settlements since then.

Thus 25 of the 130 bargaining units in GM's far-flung operations still have no at-the-plant working agreements to supplement the new UAW-GM national contract.

The Pontiac Motors Division at Pontiac and the Buick Division at Flint now have new cars rolling off assembly lines. So has a Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac assembly plant at Kansas City, Kan.

22 CLOSED

A total of 22 assembly plants or related Fisher body plants still are closed by unresolved local disputes.

Also still shut is the Hydramatic Division at nearby Willow Run, which builds automatic transmissions for all GM cars.

Showers Will Bring Temperature Down

Widely scattered showers forecast for late today will drop temperatures into the low 40s tonight.

Partly cloudy skies and cooler temperatures are predicted for tomorrow, the highs ranging from 58 to 64. Friday will be warmer with little change over the weekend.

Precipitation in scattered showers totaling about 3 of an inch will arrive about Sunday or Monday.

Fifty-two was the low recorded in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. By 1 p.m. the mercury had climbed to 65.

Laborites Rule Out Action

Won't Use Force on Rhodesia

LONDON (AP) — A Labor government spokesman Tuesday night ruled out use of British troops to prevent Southern Rhodesia's government from declaring the East African territory independent to preserve white rule.

"This is a question which does not arise," Commonwealth Secretary Arthur Bottomley told newsmen when asked about the possibility of British military action.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson made no mention of military action Tuesday when he warned Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith of the consequences if his government declares independence without approval from the British Parliament.

Wilson said Rhodesia would be guilty of treason and banished from the Commonwealth and would face certain political, diplomatic and economic isolation. Both the Labor government and its Conservative predecessors want Rhodesia's ruling white minority to agree to a constitution promising the black majority eventual control.

CALL FOR TALKS

In New York, the U.N. Special Committee on Colonialism called for talks with the British government on the "gravity of the situation" in Rhodesia. The committee also alerted the Security Council to the possibility of a unilateral declaration of independence by Smith.

In Lusaka, capital of neighboring Zambia, James Chikema, exiled Rhodesian African leader, said Rhodesian African nationalists will form a government in exile if Smith declares independence.

Chikema called on Britain to send troops to "restore law and order" in Southern Rhodesia, last remnant of the former Central African Federation. "Southern Rhodesia is still a British colony, and the British government is still responsible for it," he said. "It is high time Britain told Smith this — before we unleash certain forces."

Chikema rejected as meaningless the announcement by Rhodesian tribal chiefs Monday that they unanimously favor immediate independence under white rule.

"The chiefs no longer represent the African people," he said. "They are just like civil servants. They are paid wages by the government and they are deposited if they oppose it."

Fill Squash Halves With Apples, Meat

The gentle, hazy days of autumn summer are soothing harbingers of frosty days ahead. This is the season when folks are extra busy finishing last minute chores to winterize the house or taking on new offices with the PTA or Scouts. The partnership of increased activity and crisp, cool days makes appetites keener, mealtime an eagerly awaited event.

And your job as chief cook is even more important and demanding, for it's essential that the menus be easy to prepare, yet filling and nutritious too. One of our harvest time favorites is this Autumn Dinner that is almost a meal in one. Colorful and savory, each portion comes complete with its own serving dish, a golden acorn squash half.

The squash is baked and filled with tiny pork sausages and a surprise ingredient—a generous spoonful of apple pie filling. Pie filling is mighty convenient to use for main dishes like this, as well as desserts, and is as tasty in one as in the other.

It makes an excellent shelf staple to keep on hand for emergencies when you are called on to produce a festive looking meal on short notice.

If cutting through the hard outer shell of acorn squash is a problem to you, try baking the whole squash for about 45 minutes before you cut it in half and remove the seeds. You'll find this softens the shell and makes it easy to handle.

A green vegetable and coleslaw salad would be ideal to accompany the Autumn Dinner served either kitchen-style or at a party buffet.

Autumn Dinner
3 medium acorn squash
18 little pork sausages
1 No. 2 can (2½ cups) apple pie filling
½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed

Bake squash whole in 350 degree oven for 45 minutes. After 30 minutes, place sausage links in oven on a rack in a shallow uncovered pan. (No turning necessary.)

Remove almost-baked squash and cut in half lengthwise. (Easier than struggling with uncooked squash.)

Combine apple pie filling and sugar; spoon into squash. Put sausages into apple mix and continue to bake 15 minutes or until squash is tender.

Fig Parfait Is Sure to Rate Praise

A different parfait for fall entertaining may be made ahead of time and kept in freezer.

Tropical Parfait
1 cup chopped California dried figs
½ cup light corn syrup

1 cup orange juice
4 macaroon cookies, crushed
Vanilla ice cream
Whipped cream
Combine figs, corn syrup and orange juice in saucepan. Bring to boil; simmer 5 minutes. Stir in macaroons, cool. Arrange alternating layers with ice cream in parfait glasses. Top with cream.

To make zesty croissants to add to green salads, brown and crisp them in garlic-flavored olive oil.

Chop Up Fruit for New Dip

Guests love chip dips because of the flavor surprises that can be hidden in them. Here's a simple one with the smooth sour cream concealing the delightful tartness of chopped pineapple.

Lazy Day Chip Dip
½ pint sour cream
¾ cup potato chips crushed

1 large fresh or frozen pineapple
Chop the pineapple finely. Mix into sour cream and add crushed potato chips and blend.

But Don't Drop It!

To tell if an egg is soft-boiled or hard-boiled, lay the egg on a flat surface and whirl it. If it rolls, it needs cooking a little longer, but if it spins around it is boiled hard.

We'd Be Capturing Ourselves, Says Labor Leader

Staebler, Reuther Deny Party Is UAW Captive

DETROIT — Democratic gubernatorial candidate Neil Staebler and United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther fired their most vehement denials Tuesday against Gov. George Romney's assertion that the UAW controls the Michigan Democratic party.

Their blasts against the Republican governor came from Reuther's office, where Staebler called his visit "one of a series of calls on community leaders."

Romney has charged that the UAW dominates Democratic machinery and that control of any political party by an organization seeking economic objectives is bad.

"The UAW has worked hard to try to develop a relationship with the Democratic party as part of a broad coalition," declared Reuther.

FUTURE EXERCISE

"If we tried to capture the Democratic party we'd be capturing ourselves, which would be a futile exercise," Reuther said. "It would be the most unwise thing we could do...we wouldn't get very far."

Reuther agreed with questioners that the UAW exerts influence on the party, but said there "is a tremendous difference between influence and domination."

"If the UAW ever asked any political party to do something contrary to the public good we should be told to go to hell," said Reuther.

"The UAW has asked me for no commitments," Staebler added.

ANSWER TO PUBLIC

He credited the auto union with helping "make political parties answer to the public for their actions. You've warned us if we failed you'd support someone else."

"Right," agreed Reuther. He said the most serious problem of American politics is to make parties responsible for what they do.

Questioners asked Reuther how many of the approximately 400,000 UAW members in Michigan the union "could deliver" to the Democratic ticket.

"The UAW doesn't have any votes to deliver," said Reuther. "Our members vote as individuals."

MORE CONTROL

He exclaimed that General Motors, Chrysler and Ford

"have much more effective control of the Republican party than the UAW does of the Democratic party."

Earlier while taping a television appearance, Staebler had said both parties "exaggerate" the effect that economic groups have on the opposing party.

Reuther told Staebler he ought to win by 100,000 votes in the wake of a Reuther-estimated 750,000 runaway by President Johnson over Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Staebler said he thinks he's closed to within two per cent of Romney although recent polls peg the difference at four per cent, or about 120,000 votes.

WORK HARD

"You've just got to work hard and get your friends to work harder," Reuther advised.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt's 1936 victory.

Goldwater is just a storekeeper from Phoenix" whom behind-the-scenes Republican powers are using to gain control of the GOP though "they don't think he'll win," Reuther said.

Otherwise Staebler spent Tuesday in making a round of plant gates, television tapings, receptions and brief appearances before groups ranging from 100 to 150 persons.

Today he was to spend most of the day at auto plants, with two 14th district functions, a shopping center tour and an evening rally in Hamtramck thrown in.

Dating Bardot's Ex-Husband

Jane Fonda Another Brigitte?

By DORIS KLEIN
(Written for Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The nagging question when you see Jane Fonda these days is: Is she becoming another Brigitte Bardot?

Jane's honey-bued locks swirl as hip-length as Brigitte's. Her full lips have a naturally pouty look.

She has been the toast of France for nearly two years. Even her best beau is Brigitte's ex-husband, Roger Vadim, one of France's top, young new wave film makers.

At 28, Jane is four years younger than Brigitte, who turned 30 this year.

ENJOYS TRAVELING

"I don't think I've changed much," says Jane, back in Hollywood to make her first western, "Cat Ballou," "About the only thing I enjoy now I didn't enjoy two years ago is traveling."

Then her eyes light up as she tells about a recent trip to Moscow.

But basically, Jane is still Jane — an exotic product of childhood as the daughter of a Hollywood star, of eastern private school training, and of several blossoming years as a star in her own right.

There's another similarity to the old Jane. She still goes for Swedish-like men she can lean on.

GREEN DIRECTOR

Two years ago, it was young Greek director Andreas Voutsinas Jane was making "Period of Adjustment" at MGM and going over her lines after work in her Malibu beach house with Andreas.

"He's always around," a co-worker complained at the time, "and she listens to everything he says."

Some time during the last two years, Andreas faded out of the picture.

"He's in New York now, doing some terribly brilliant things," says Jane.

ROGER AROUND

Roger is almost always around, too — when he isn't commuting to Paris from Hollywood.

Vadim took a side trip to Cripple Creek, Colo., where it's rumored he may make his first American film next spring, possibly a western. Starring Jane?

"We haven't decided," she says. "It depends upon the picture."

Jane already has appeared in a remake of "La Ronde" which Vadim made in France.

BACK TO PARIS

When she finishes "Cat Ballou," Jane and Roger will fly

back to France, where she bought a farm house outside Paris near Versailles four months ago.

Will she live there as Jane Fonda or Mrs. Roger Vadim? "The only roommate I'm going to have is an otter," says Jane. "I'm not going to settle down for a long time."

LONE SURVIVOR — Carlos Hernandez, 23, said he is the only survivor of mission to Cuba by a group of five Cuban exiles. In a hospital bed in Key West, Fla., Hernandez said the group's 23-foot raiding boat was raked by machine-gun fire from a Cuban gunboat. He was picked up by a passing tanker.

Sticky Strings Will Seek Life in Mars Soil

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration is developing a package of life-seeking sticky strings as one experiment planned for a spacecraft intended to land on Mars in 1969.

When the unmanned craft lands on the Martian surface, explosive charges will shoot each of the three strings out about 50 feet.

"The strings will be reeled in — hand-to-hand — with the sticky substance mixing in soil particles."

Inside the space suit, the participants will be reeled in with a sterile broth laced with radioisotopes.

Should the Martian soil contain any living organisms, they should begin to grow within four hours and produce a radioactive gas.

The gas would be detected by a transistorized geiger counter and the information radioed to earth.

FIRST EVIDENCE

Hart Says Thinking Voters Deserving of Sympathy

FLINT (AP) — People deserving sympathy in a political campaign aren't the raspy-throated, tired candidates. Any sympathy belongs to those diligent and independent enough to try and make heads or tails of it all.

Who says so?

A candidate, that's who.

He is Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., and he said in a speech prepared for delivery here today.

"Few participants in a political campaign take an impartial, objective view of the issues that they are depending on for victory."

"Consequently, the situation always sounds a little worse than it is or a little better than it is — depending on who was talking last."

"So the job of the citizen is to hear two versions — check them against his estimate of the candidates' integrity — and mark his decision on the ballot."

Hart ticked off the civil rights act, war on poverty, nuclear test-ban treaty, foreign aid and water pollution control as among current campaign issues.

"Of course," he added, "the intelligent citizen — like the intelligent politician — realizes that the issues are neither pitch black nor pure white."

"Now I happen to be in favor — and strongly in favor — of all the issues I've named. But let's face facts: The civil rights bill may inconvenience some who don't deserve it. There will be some waste — however careful we are — in foreign aid. And there will be those whom the poverty program can't help."

"But, in balance, I strongly believe all these measures are good ones — although you are certainly not obligated to share that belief."

And then Hart, running for reelection, wound up his speech to students at the University of Michigan's Flint branch:

"If you judge these issues and others on the basis of thoughtfulness and quiet reason, then — regardless of how you decide — you have done your job as citizens."

Boy Drowns on Day Before 3rd Birthday

Machines and 3,500 Men Still Idle at Baltimore GM Plant

BALTIMORE (AP) — Inside the tandem Fisher Body-Chevrolet plant here, there are 46 acres of idle machinery. Outside it there are 3,600 idle workers.

They have been that way since the United Auto Workers went on strike against General Motors Sept. 25.

A national contract agreement between the company and the union has been reached, but the strike won't end until disputes at the plant level are resolved. That is what B. W. Bothe is working on.

A trade unionist for 25 of his 48 years, Bothe is assistant director of the UAW's southeastern region. At such he heads an 11-man bargaining committee for UAW Local 239, whose 1,800 members work at the Fisher Body end of the plant's 4½-mile complex of assembly lines.

COME TO TERMS

Local 678, which represents the 1,800 workers on the Chevrolet side of the plant, has come to terms with management. Both locals have ratified the national contract.

Jay Cumba, chief company negotiator at Fisher Body, won't comment on the dispute.

One company spokesman did say, though, that the plant produced 270,000 new cars last year, supplying about 5,000 East Coast dealers. He also said the company had a payroll of $85,000 a day.

Bothe said the dispute is not over economic issues. "I'll tell you what the strike is about," he said. "It's about a man's dignity at the working place."

'NOT MACHINERY'

"The company has to learn

Will Begin Tomorrow

EAST LANSING (AP)—More than 100 pesticide dealers, manufacturers and salesmen are expected for a conference Thursday and Friday to discuss the necessity and value of pesticides to Michigan farmers and consumers.

One feature of the Michigan agricultural pesticide conference will be research reports by Michigan State University scientists.

that a worker is a human being, and not just part of the plant machinery. That may sound a little strong, but that's essentially the way it is," he said.

"Here's an example," he said, consulting a stack of mimeographed sheets brought out from the meeting room. "On one part of the (assembly) line there is solder being ground; the dust is a danger to health; and we're demanding that it be restricted to booths and that a better exhaust system be put in."

Ellison Stockton, at 35 the youngest UAW local president in the region, said he couldn't predict how long the strike would last.

"No matter how long it lasts," he said, "our members' morale will stay as it is now—100 per cent." He pointed to a ballot Sunday night when the local voted to ratify the national contract, but decided by a thumping 1,811-to-5 margin to continue the strike over local issues.

NO SENSE

James Brewster, a union member who was in charge of one of the four two-hour shifts of pickets outside the plant, said he agreed. "There's no sense going back unless we get what we're after."

He said the $30 a week a family man gets from the union—a married man with no children gets $25, and a single man gets $20—does little more than buy groceries.

"But it's better than nothing," he said.

Brewster said creditors have generally been understanding. He said car payments and house payments have been missed, "but the companies haven't been too hard on us."

These People Always

Stay One Bath Ahead

BEREA, Ky. (AP)—Berea College often helps find accommodations for visitors who want to tour the campus.

Recently, a woman telephoned long distance to ask for rooms for three.
