The Coming of the King

I—Carpenter in Nazareth

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Far across the seas, in a small country at the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea, there is a little town called Nazareth. Two thousand years ago—or 1955 years, to be more exact, because our calendar dates from the time of this story—the carpenter in that town was a man named Joseph. They say that he was a fine craftsman and people were proud of his work.

They enjoyed the clean, fresh smell of the wood shavings as they fell away from his knife. And he enjoyed their company and their chatter.

Sometimes Joseph's wife, whose name was Mary, would sit in the room and watch, too. She liked having the children there as much as Joseph did. And everyone knew that very soon she was to have a child of her own.

Joseph and Mary

Then, one day, as they were in that room—Joseph working, the children laughing and Mary sewing a tiny garment—they were startled by the sound of pounding hoofs and iron wheels on the road outside.

Now, neither Romans nor their chariots were an everyday sight in Nazareth, which was a quiet, sleepy Galilee town. And when Romans came they came as conquerors in a conquered land. So the women and children stayed indoors while the men hurried to the marketplace to see what was happening.

Israel Attacks Arab Posts

55 Syrians Die as Assault Hits in Four Sectors

Troops Spike Artillery Which Jews Say Fired on Galilee Ships

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israeli troops attacked Syrian outposts overlooking the Sea of Galilee during the night, killing 55 Syrian soldiers for the loss of four Israelis, officials said today.

Israeli sources said 29 Syrians were taken prisoner in the fog-shrouded battle on the northeast shore of the lake.

Twelve Israeli soldiers were wounded.

The attackers occupied four Syrian outposts, blew them up and then withdrew.

The action was launched on an eight-mile front last night to silence gun positions Israel claimed fired on fishing boats and an Israeli police launch Sunday. No one was hurt in that incident.

Israeli military sources said army units moved in a four-pronged advance aimed at four Syrian positions along the eastern bank of the Sea of Galilee. The positions were in the Kursi Naquart and Beth Habeq sectors and in the sector where the Jordan flows into the Sea of Galilee.

The river leaves that sea again to the south to continue its way toward the Dead Sea.

The attacking Israeli units were supported by two detachments to block the approach of Syrian reinforcements.

Military sources said the Syrian opposition was heaviest in the Jordan River sector.

U.N. truce observers rushed to the area to investigate at the first word of the Israeli attack. A U.N. spokesman said the situation in the area was quiet now.

In Washington eight Arab nations delivered a stern warning to secretary of State John Foster Dulles today against American aid to Israel. Iraq, Egypt, Jordan, Syria, Lebanon, Yemen, Libya and Saudi Arabia complained that Zionist organizations have made the U.S. a center of anti-Arab activity.

The envoys warned that this is having an unfortunate effect on the relations between the U.S. and the Arab world.

Israel claims her territory includes the entire Sea of Galilee, a lake about 13 miles long and 3 to 7 miles wide along whose shores many of the events in the life of Jesus Christ took place. Syria holds the northern half of the lake's eastern shore. A narrow strip along the southern half is held by Israel.

The Israeli attack took place along this eight-mile northern stretch. The spokesman said the Syrians shelled Israel's Ein Geb settlement, in the southeastern shore strip, but that there were no casualties in the settlement.

Kalwitz Says Merger Talks Timely Subject

Planning Commissioner Says Study Appropriate Because of Growth

The proposed merger of Waterford Township and the City of Pontiac will be discussed at a closed meeting of the City Planning Commission to be held sometime next week, Henry C. Smith, City Planner said today.

According to Smith, the meeting will be closed because it is a regular meeting of the planning board and not set up with the express purpose of considering the proposed merger.

William F. Kalwitz, member of the Planning Commission, has presented the following facts in regard to this topic which has been stirring much local interest.

"The suggestion recently made by Mr. Frank Steere that serious thought and consideration be given to the possibility of merging the City of Pontiac and Waterford Township is timely and appropriate because of the certain continued rapid growth of this area.

"A number of economic factors exist which assure this growth. The availability of unlimited fresh water supply from the Great Lakes and the prospect of Detroit becoming an ocean port for world commerce will continue to attract industry to this region. This industrial development will correspondingly increase residential problems.

"If this is a sound premise for a look into the future, and I think it is, we can imagine Pontiac as a unit of government largely industrial surrounded by units of government which are primarily "bedroom" communities. This then leads to the question of the desirability of many units of government for a densely populated territory.

"How will these several units of government deal with the common major problems; such as, schools, water and sewerage systems, police and fire protection, roads, parks, and garbage and rubbish collection and disposal?

"How will these separate and

Purchase Pact Climaxes Series of Negotiations

New Owners to Take Building's Possession Next Month

Large-scale plans to convert the seven-story Hotel Pontiac, 50 N. Perry St., into a 110-bed hospital were announced today by directors of the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

Purchase of the 27-year-old building Saturday morning from the Hotel Pontiac Corp. climaxed seven months of negotiations, according to Administrator Harry Whitlow who will head the new hospital.

Assessed valuation of land, building and equipment is $209,000, according to records at the City Assessor's Office.

The hospital will take possession of the structure Jan. 1, and will begin an immediate $100,000 renovation program, Whitlow said. Of the 100 rooms, 28 will be private while the rest will be semi-private.

The hotel's three ballrooms will be converted into wards, while commercial shops on Mill St. will be taken over for an emergency clinic. Stores on Perry St. will continue to operate for the duration of their leases, the administrator said, although he indicated that a portion of the space would eventually be occupied by a pharmacy.

Other divisions will include two departments for major surgery and one for minor surgery; recovery rooms, an obstetrics department, and a rooftop solarium. The hospital will start immediately to transfer equipment and facilities to rooms on the second, third and fourth floors.

The institution will employ a staff of 200. Whitlow indicated that some members of the hotel's present working force of 30 may be retained for employment when the hospital begins operations.

The hospital's present quarters at 32 Auburn Ave. will become a clinic, although control will not be retained by the present owners, Whitlow said. The present hospital was established in 1953 and has a staff of 60.

"We want to stay away from the 'hospital atmosphere' as much as possible," Whitlow said. "The directors believe that when we're finished it will be one of the finest of its kind in the state."

The administrator stated that nearly all of the equipment now in the hotel will be replaced.

Built in 1928, the hotel was purchased by the former owners in 1952 from the Collingwood Realty Co. David Shubow, a Detroit attorney, represented the Hotels

Youths Wound 2 Detroit Men

Teenagers Terrorize 3 Homes, Rob 2 Stores, Cause Crash, Steal Car

DETROIT (INS) — Police today sought two youths who shot two men, forced their way into three homes, robbed two stores, stole an automobile and injured a father and his two daughters in an accident from which they fled during a crime spree last night.

The boys were believed to be between 18 and 20 years old. One was wearing a black leather jacket and the other a light colored top coat.

Fleeing the robbery, they crashed into a car driven by James Peterson, a Detroit mailman. Peterson and two daughters Susan, 9, and Cynthia, 8, were injured. Police found a pistol holster in the abandoned auto.

The abandoned car was traced to 19-year-old Oscar Spears of Detroit. He told police he loaned the car to two boys who were considering buying it. He is being held for questioning and the other two are sought.

The youths then talked their way into the home of Arlin Lockhart. They told him they wished to telephone police but fled immediately after getting into the house.

Two blocks away, they forced their way at gunpoint into the home of 43-year-old Darel Hodge. When Hodge tried to phone police, they shot him in the leg and fled.

Then they stopped at the home of Donald Cole. They forced Cole to drive them to Outer Drive and Whitcomb, where they forced him out of the car. The auto was found at 4 a.m. today in downtown Detroit.

At 10:30 p.m. a Livonia grocery store was robbed of nearly $500 by a youth resembling one of the pair. The operator, Caley Grech, 59, was shot when he tried to stop the bandit. He suffered a flesh wound in the thigh.

Grech, Hodge, Peterson and his two daughters were all taken to Mount Carmel Mercy Hospital. Only the Petersons have been released.

Sewer Dispute Continues Between City, Waterford

Pontiac and Waterford Township attorneys will be in Port Huron Friday for final Circuit Court settlement of a sewer hookup dispute.

Pontiac filed the suit Aug. 31 contending Waterford's attempt to link a planned shopping center at Elizabeth Lake and Telegraph Rds. with the city system violated a 1935 agreement setting up an area in the township which could send sewage through the city's treatment plant.

Visiting Circuit Judge Eugene F. Black, of Port Huron, heard the case here Oct. 24 through 26, then handed down an opinion favoring the city Nov. 9.

City Attorney William A. Ewart has drafted a decree in accordance with Judge Black's opinion which the jurist is expected to sign Friday, said Waterford Attorney John W. Bell.

The township and shopping center will then have 20 days to take an appeal to the State Supreme Court which they intend to do, Bell added.

Attorney for the center, Donald Barris, has asked the judge to allow one supermarket to send sewage through the Pontiac system pending outcome of the appeal.

If Waterford wins the appeal, the hookup could be continued, said Barris. If it loses, a complete independent treatment plant will have to be built causing the center to lose about $4,000 which would be required to construct a separate disposal system for the one store.

Release Fenton Man After Questioning

CHICAGO (AP) — Sheriff's police have released Robert Moser of Fenton, after questioning him for four days about the slaying of three Chicago boys.

Capt. Joseph Fleming of the Cook County Chicago Sheriff's police said several persons from Holly told him Moser was in Michigan on Oct. 16, the day the Chicago murder victims disappeared.

Fleming said, however, that his men are checking further concerning Moser's movements on that date.

A cousin of Moser, Mrs. S. Mowery, told Fleming Moser was at her farm near Coldwater, from Oct. 17 through Oct. 23.

It was on Oct. 16 that Robert Peterson, 14, John Schuessler, 13, and his brother, Anton, 11, vanished after leaving their homes on the northwest side to attend a movie. Their strangled bodies were found Oct. 18 in a forest preserve.

Thieves Take Nickel From Local Plant

Thieves who lugged off nearly three-quarters of a ton of metal from a factory at 24 W. Rundell St. this weekend netted about $4,300, according to Pontiac Police.

Owner A. J. Lawrence of Ajax Polishing and Plating Co., said that 41 bars of nickel, each weighing about 35 pounds, were missing.

Inspector Clark M. Wheaton said that the way in which burglar alarm wires were neutralized indicated that the thieves were not amateurs.

He said the wires were tied after a window was smashed to gain entry.

Doctors Say to Slow Down

Ike Back in White House to Meet Top GOP Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower settled down for a brief working stay at the White House today while his physicians' advice to take things easier raised new questions about his future political plans.

He called in Republican leaders of Congress to discuss legislative proposals he will make when Congress reconvenes, and invited the visiting President of Uruguay, Luis Battle Berres, and his wife to a White House tea in the afternoon.

His legislative proposals may set the basis for the party's 1956 presidential campaign.

All the signs indicate the President will offer a program geared primarily to the "peace and prosperity" theme which Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall has been sounding for months.

High on the Eisenhower list may be a broadened farm program aimed at halting failing agricultural prices.

Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, the House minority leader, already has forecast proposals offering compromises with the Democrats on highway and school construction —two controversial issues left over from the last session of Congress.

Martin also has forecast tax reduction if the budget is balanced. But Sen. Knowland of California has come out for debt reduction instead of tax cuts, and has indicated his own farm views may not parallel those of Eisenhower.

A weekend medical report said the President still is recovering normally from his Sept. 24 heart attack. But his personal physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, said Eisenhower has shown signs of "fatigue" after some of his busier periods at Gettysburg. Arrangements now call for a complete rest period from noon until 2:30 p.m. each day, with no interruptions. Otherwise there will be no changes in his schedule.

Snyder suggested the President wait at least until mid-February before deciding whether he feels physically able to seek a second term.

Trouble Brews in Paper Strike

Mailers May Walk Out; 6 Union Leaders Meet 'to Review Positions'

DETROIT (INS) — Presidents of six newspaper craft unions, including the striking stereotypers and the mailers who are threatening to strike, meet today "to review our positions" in the 12-day walkout which has closed the Detroit News, Times and Free Press.

Contracts of all six unions, representing the printers, pressmen, stereotypers, mailers, engravers and paper and plate handlers, have expired.

The Detroit Newspaper Publishers Assn. has been negotiating with all of them, as well as two other unions—the teamsters, representing drivers, and the newspaper guild, whose contract covering reporters and advertising men at the Free Press has also run out.

Yesterday, the mailers at a membership meeting voted to ask their international union to authorize a strike unless a contract is signed.

Negotiations between the DNPA and the stereotypers remain suspended, meanwhile, subject to resumption at the call of federal and state mediators.

The talks broke up Saturday night with wages and what was called "one minor point" unsettled.

A fatal two-car collision at Telegraph Road and Northwestern Highway Saturday took the life of Detroiter Charles Langley, 47, Michigan State Police of the Redford Post said today.

Langley was dead on arrival at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital.

Police said no charges will be filed.

Appealing Games for the Younger Set Will Ease Your Christmas Gift-Hunting

By JANET ODELL

Christmas is for children, most of us agree. As a rule, it is easy to buy presents for them. However, we think you may like an idea or two about some different gifts for the younger set.

Games are all the rage these days. Since so much importance is being placed on family recreation, games have achieved a new status. Your best bet is to browse through a stack of games, choosing what will appeal to your family or to the one for which you are buying.

Any young Davy Crockett would like to build the Alamo. You can buy him a complete set of bricks and clay with which to construct this famous old building.

Is he a model plane fan: One store features four model plane kits in a Flight Bag. The youthful air enthusiast will enjoy pretending he is a pilot.

For some years, autograph hounds have been popular with girls. Now you can get a variety of animals covered in a fabric that will take writing with a ball point pen. Some of these animals have an attached pen.

Since vanity appears early in the feminine sex, a gift of clothing is always welcome. Any teenager will love getting a pink crocheted hat dotted with matching pink sequins.

For the adolescent's small sister there are velveteen or plaid purses, made just like Mommy's. Small boys will strut in matching slacks and sport shirt sets. (They're washable.)

Children are intrigued with small gifts, they love soap made in the shape of animals. And they're sure to like brightly colored wax figures that have chocolate under the wax; they'll even like peeling it off.

Merger Talk Timely, Says Plan Official

different units of government be able to draw on the ability and brains of the most capable people in the area for the benefit of the whole area?

"What would be the effect of the merger on property taxes, use of sales tax allocations to this area, assessed valuations of property, and fiscal management? What would be the benefits of the proposed unification to the people in the communities concerned?

"These are some of the aspects of the proposal into which we must thoroughly inquire. It is not a matter to be decided for the immediate future. It is one that must be decided by the citizens with a view to the long range future. A careful and unbiased survey of the matter is of utmost importance.

"The City of Pontiac is now in enviable financial condition. Means have been established for acquiring long needed public improvements. All this is not an accident. It is the result of good governmental planning and administration for a number of years. Any impairment of this program would certainly not be viewed with favor by the citizens of Pontiac.

"In a recent interview, our City Manager, Mr. Willman, said that the matter of extending the boundaries of the City of Pontiac had been discussed by the City Commission and that he had requested the City Plan Commission to undertake the job of making such a survey.

"Since I am a member of the City Plan Commission, I have an open mind on this question and shall make no decision or express an opinion, except on the basis of fact and information developed by the Commission's study.

"However, I can say this, the Plan Commission does not now have adequate staff to do the job properly. This is not the fault of the City Commission, City Manager, or the Plan Commission. We have all been keenly aware of this and the City Manager has tried unsuccessfully for some time to remedy the situation. It may be, as suggested by Mr. Willman, that we will be obliged to resort to some professional consultation service.

"In this unification proposal, we have a problem which demands our best thinking. The future will judge the wisdom of our solution," said Kalwitz.

The Day in Birmingham

Widening of Willits Street Tops Commission Agenda

BIRMINGHAM—Proposed widening of Willits Street to three lanes and assessing portions of the cost on adjoining property owners will be discussed at tonight's City Commission meeting. A special assessment district would be set to help pay for the 36-foot-wide pavement, curbs, sidewalks and drainage necessary to provide a route for those trying to skirt Maple's traffic.

A report from Chief of Police Ralph Moxley to the commission tonight calls Maple a "seriously congested traffic artery," and says that the Baldwin intersection has had a 35 per cent increase in less than five years.

Another draw from Maple's traffic would be 14 Mile Road which City Manager D.C. Egbert will tell the commission is in need of improvement from Telegraph to Clawson. His report suggests it be widened to at least 72 feet and at Woodward Avenue to 42 feet wide.

The Community House wants to erect a sign identifying itself and commissioners may amend their ordinance to allow such institutions as it, the YMCA and churches to advertise themselves.

Permission to build a nine-apartment unit at Eton and Maple for M. E. Green, and garage permits for two residents with a bit under required land may be granted when the Zoning Board of Appeals meets tomorrow night at municipal building.

Green wishes to build a multiple-family building in East Maple Gardens subdivision on two lots totaling 21,270 square feet, rather than the 22,500 asked in the ordinance. The building would be just east of present apartments on that corner.

William F. Peschel, 1651 Latham, and James R. Longwell, 288 Ravine, ask permission to build garages in slight variance to limitations, because of odd shaped lots.

GM, Auto Dealers Confab Suggested by O'Mahoney

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) suggested that directors of General Motors Corp., meeting today in New York, agree to "sit down with elected representatives of their own dealers and work out a fair contract and other problems."

"I think it would be the best thing they could do not only for the dealers and the public but also for General Motors," O'Mahoney said in an interview.

O'Mahoney made similar suggestions to GM officials several times during the month long public hearings by the Senate judiciary anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee which were suspended Friday night.

Aiming his comments this time at the company's directors, O'Mahoney said "We will be watching with the greatest of interest what takes place in the board of directors sessions."

Curtice had explained that successful auto manufacturers, who depend upon retail dealers to serve as their representatives with the public, must retain decision on dealers as individuals.

He said his office door is always open to any dealer and that he and other GM executives visit thousands of them every year. He noted that GM also has dealer councils.

O'Mahoney repeated his offer late Friday but Curtice replied: "I think I suggested that I would rather see them one or two at a time in my office."

O'Mahoney said that if GM directors agree to "meet with dealers in a democratic way, that would stave off any legislation that will be very much less welcome to General Motors."

CREDITS GM LEADERSHIP

O'Mahoney credited General Motors leadership "with two important declarations" as a result of the month-long public hearings on GM operations.

O'Mahoney said that the two GM announcements are:

"Agreement to drop false registration of cars in the production battle with Ford and other competitons."

O'Mahoney said both these policies were announced by Curtice "as the result of the public hearings and without "legislation."

O'Mahoney said there had been widespread complaints from GM dealers that the year to year selling contract agreements gave the corporation too much power to terminate their contracts.

President Curtice surprised both dealers and subcommittee members by his announcement, during the hearings, that the 18,000 car and truck dealers could extend these agreements for five years.

Chamber Raps 'Food Freezer' Plans

A warning against becoming prey to a number of so-called "food freezer plans" currently being promoted in the area was issued yesterday by the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce.

The movement against the sales schemes was reportedly prompted by what Chamber officials called "a flood of complaints" from householders that they have been cheated by salesmen.

Complainants report that the promoters offer food freezer units at "discount prices" and claim that they will supply them with food for from four to six months at wholesale rates.

According to John Hirlinger, assistant manager of the Chamber, an investigation of the plans revealed that buyers in nearly every instance actually paid retail prices for the food and often as much as $65 more than the suggested factory price for freezers.

The Chamber official cited one case in which a victim paid a salesman $455 for a unit after being assured that it was the wholesale price. The suggested factory price on the model, Hirlinger found, was $389.50.

The salesmen apparently base their appeal on assurances that money saved on food costs will pay for the freezer, Hirlinger said. One firm has as its slogan "Live Better for Less."

Far from reducing the cost of living, the official pointed out, the claim has brought numerous complaints that it often raises it by as much as $10 a week, partly because of overestimates of family food needs by the promoters.

Wholesale meat prices cited, Hirlinger said, are actually retail figures and appear cheaper because the buyer does not take into account that the meat is bought in whole sections.

"By the time the bones are removed, the purchaser will have T-bone steaks at 70 cents a pound, but he'll also have plenty of hamburg at the same price. Anyone can go to a reputable local market and get as good or a better bargain."

All except one of the companies have their basis of operations in the Detroit area, Hirlinger said.

Contacts often are established over the telephone from names apparently selected at random from the directory. Prospects who evidence interest when called are later visited by a salesman.

Hirlinger emphasized that while many freezer unit dealers offer purchase inducements, they are legitimate and cannot be construed with unethical "plans."

A "wave" of similar promotions swept the country in 1953, the official recalled, and was the object of a campaign by the Better Business Bureau to discourage unethical practices.

As originally conceived, Hirlinger said, the freezer plan was legitimate and designed to save food costs for the owners.

Precautions advised by the Better Business Bureau against being duped by unscrupulous promoters include (1) compare prices with those listed by recognized dealers, and (2) check discounts offered by local meat markets to determine how they compare with prices cited by the salesman.

Only Nine New Members Have Been Added to U. N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Nine out of 31 applicants have been admitted to the United Nations since the organization came into being with the 51 original members in 1945.

Of the other applications, 14 have been vetoed by the Soviet Union. Italy was vetoed five times, Jordan, Ireland, Portugal and Ceylon, three times each; Austria and Finland twice each; Republic of Korea, Nepal, Viet Nam, Libya, Cambodia, Japan and Laos once each.

Six Communist countries have been kept out because they have not received the seven votes necessary to pass the Security Council. They are Albania, Outer Mongolia, Hungary, Bulgaria Romania and Communist Viet Nam.

North Korea has applied but the Council rejected a Soviet resolution to refer it to the Council committee on admission of new members for study.

The application of Spain has not come up in the Security Council.

Four countries with applications on file are not included in the 18-nation package deal because they are divided. They are North and South Korea and Viet Nam and Communist Viet Nam.

Gls Operation Cheer

BERLIN (AP)—U. S. soldiers in Berlin are ready to carry out again an assignment they enjoy—"Operation Cheer." They have put up their money to give Christmas parties, with loads of presents and candy, for 6,500 German orphans and refugee children.

Kiwi Bird Is Different

New Zealand's flightless, tailless, bewhiskered kiwi is the only bird with nostrils at the tip of its bill. For it size, about that of a chicken, the kiwi lays the largest egg known, says the National Geographic Society. A four-pound bird may produce a one-pound egg, about eight times as heavy as a chicken's. Only the male sits on the eggs during the 75-day incubation.

Tennessee Auto Jobbers Initiate Yule Gift Plan

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Middle Tennessee auto parts jobbers—feeling that gifts to customers at Christmas had become a promotion gimmick—decided to make their gift money really count.

The group decided to pool what they normally would spend.

Last night at a dinner, the jobbers presented $6,000 to Vanderbilt Hospital's eye clinic in the name of the jobbers and their customers.

A spokesman for the group said several customers so thoroughly approve the plan that they offered to contribute to the fund themselves.

The Navy said the underwater vessel will be larger than the atomic-powered Nautilus submarine overall and will be shorter and less slender than previous attack submarines. It will have a porpoise shaped hull similar to that of the U. S. S. Albacore, which for short distances is now the world's fastest undersea vehicle.

Growing Christmas Trees in This Area

With the spirit of the holiday season in the air, perhaps it is a good time to reflect on the production of Christmas trees in the Pontiac area.

Landowners who had the foresight already are reaping the financial benefits from the growing of the trees in this section.

A few years ago they became aware of the possibilities of converting hilly and other unproductive land to that use, after having found that its cultivation was unprofitable for regular agriculture.

They now are supplying a good portion of the Christmas trees for their own area, and also find a ready market at good prices from customers from outside.

Oakland County still has hundreds of acres of rough land whose generally considered poor soil has all of the qualities on which Christmas trees thrive and grow rapidly.

If you have any such land, right now is the proper time to get in your orders for planting in the early Spring. The supply of these seedlings never quite meets the demand, so prompt action is necessary.

The Michigan State Conservation Department raises millions of these seedlings every year, which are distributed at less than cost to those who have the acreage to give them a chance to grow into Christmas trees or even into lumber.

Over 100,000 such seedlings were transplanted into Oakland County this year, yet this is far below the assigned quota for our area, if the department's starting fields had been apprised far enough in advance to meet the seeding requirements.

In about a dozen years these seedlings, no larger round than a toothpick when planted, will be ready for cutting for family trees. In the meantime they require no cultivation and practically no care.

There is every possibility that Oakland County can grow all of the Christmas trees required in its homes, but also make it one of our leading crops for shipment to the large cities and other outside markets.

These trees, each grown with room for a symmetrical development, are far more desirable and command a higher price than those coming from tree trimmings or brushy undergrowths and hedgerows in Northern Michigan.

If you are interested in such a project, your first action is to get in touch with the department at Lansing. The required blanks will be sent you, together with instructions for planting and care for their rapid and proper growth. Or you can go through our County Agricultural Agent, Lyle B. Abel.

Movies Note Pickup

Among the many industries which have done better in 1955 are the movies.

One of the first to feel the competition of television, the motion picture industry plunged into the doldrums in 1954. The number of pictures produced dropped away down, personnel was cut prodigiously and expenditures were pared all along the line, as attendance lagged.

This year there was a pickup. It was not spectacular, but it was noticeable. And any pickup at all, after 1954, was heartening.

More pictures have been produced. Income of most of the studios is expected to total higher than last year. Foreign business has been better. Hollywood has found it possible to make a profit with fewer stars on its rosters.

The new situation facing the movies has resulted in better pictures. The ordinary picture has not drawn well. The public has become choosy. It takes an outstanding film to bring a pickup in attendance. And so Hollywood has concentrated on fewer films, and better ones.

Perhaps competition here has been a good thing. It has helped the public. In the long run it may prove to have benefited the industry.

Oliver P. Gibbs

Oakland County Board of Supervisors' "Grand Old Man" died Friday.

Oliver P. Gibbs had served Avon Township as its supervisor for 26 years until his retirement two years ago. He had served as chairman of the county board and had also held several appointive state posts.

Oliver Gibbs was a farmer. Serious minded, deeply interested in his community, he was one of a stalwart group who for years formed the backbone of the County Board of Supervisors.

He was no "yes" man. He had a mind of his own, and he was ever ready to fight for the good of Avon Township, and for any principle in which he believed.

He will long be remembered as a good and loyal citizen and as a fine and capable public servant.

He says our downtown street decorations "show a good taste and lack of ballyhoo," and he wonders how Detroit people could ever endure a strike "if they had a newspaper as good as Pontiac's."

What Can You Expect From Such a Background

David Lawrence Says:

'Competitive Coexistence' Philosophy Should Be Explained to American People

WASHINGTON — The American people have not yet been given the "facts of international life," particularly in connection with the new formula of "competitive coexistence" which is supposed to describe the battle of the East and West to win "neutralist" countries.

* * *

The discussion at present is confined to the inner councils of the administration, but Congress is bound to bring it all out in the open in the coming session.

The point at issue is this: How long can the American taxpayers be expected to spend billions of dollars abroad without getting some direct benefit in the way of national security?

Should the United States, for example, by furnishing economic aid, bid for the friendship of India and other Asian countries or of Egypt in the Middle East? Is it the duty of the Asian countries themselves to ward off Communism or is it the obligation of the United States to persuade and cajole them with dollars to do what they ought to do anyhow? Why should it be necessary to bribe nations to be realistic in the face of the record of Communist aggression?

AN IDEA FOR INDIA

These questions go to the heart of the controversies that have arisen in Asia and the Middle East where America now is placed in the position of either agreeing to furnish billions of dollars of help or else seeing the various countries allegedly "being pushed into the arms of Moscow."

A policy that is bound to be given consideration here is whether it wouldn't be a good idea to let India know that if Nehru and his sinister handyman—Krishna Menon — want to embrace Communist imperialism and allow themselves to become puppets of Moscow in the international field, the United States may say: "Go ahead, put yourselves under the Communist yoke and when you have experienced its 'joys' long enough and see the dangers to your independence, come back to us—if you can then get disentangled—and we will welcome you as a loyal ally."

Everybody knows that Israel, on the other hand, is innately imbued with Western ideals. There is naturally a strong pro-American sentiment in Israel and a strong pro-Israel sentiment in the United States just as there have always been strong ties between Americans of Irish ancestry and Ireland.

NOT A JEWISH QUESTION

The first allegiance of the American Jews is to the United States, but it is natural for many of them for sentimental reasons along with many non-Jews to be deeply sympathetic with the efforts of the infant Republic of Israel to preserve her independence in the troubled Middle East.

The principle involved is not a "Jewish Question." In fact, in recent months it has become an American defense question due to Egypt's peculiar behavior.

It looks now as if it will be to the best interests of the United States to play ball with Israel and, if necessary, to furnish military aid as in the case of Iran, Iraq, Pakistan, Turkey and Greece. For Israel, unlike Egypt, has not tried to play the Western alliance off against the Kremlin in a sort of bidding match.

NOT INDISCREET

The policy of standing by America's friends and allies is well illustrated in the statement made by Secretary of State Dulles about "Portuguese provinces" which has been criticized by some Democratic politicians as indiscreet.

But Dulles in his implicit opposition to aggression either with respect to Goa, the Portuguese colony of India, or Macao, off Red China, was rightly positive and not indiscreet at all. He might well have gone further and bluntly reminded the Indian government that Portugal is our ally, and holds the Azores—a very vital base for our Air Force and our Navy in the Atlantic Ocean.

It is a thousand times more necessary to stand by a long time friend like Portugal than to worry about hurt feelings in New Delhi where the steady tirade of insults against the United States during the last few years had not gone unnoticed.

Not only is America unable to afford large expenditures of taxpayers' money to "buy" allies in Asia where hundreds of millions of people still live under primitive conditions—but Russia cannot really do it either.

It may be better policy, moreover, to let Russia try to take on the job. The larger the external burdens Moscow undertakes with heavy drains on capital goods, the greater the internal pressures. Likewise, the longer the needed consumer goods are withheld from the Russian people the sooner will come the day of the crackup of the Kremlin.

Repression of Anger, Fear Tends to Damage Arteries

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

From the reasons trumped up to explain the popular abuse of the barbiturates, a moron might suppose the "nerves" of a "high-strung" or "refined" person use up or waste energy unless "controlled or regulated" or "quieted" by sedatives.

* * *

Nerves have only one function. They conduct messages or impulses.

Nerves perform their function for years and years and never "wear out," become "exhausted" or "break down." They are comparable with the wires that carry telephone or telegraph messages.

ANY OTHER?

If, indeed, there is any other kind of energy than that measured by the calories expended when one takes a walk or dusts the whatnot, let the physicists elucidate it.

The Sophisticated knuckleheads, feeding on sedatives prescribed by indulgent physicians or procured illegally, say "tension is not in the nerves; it's in the heart and arteries."

Even the most rugged individualist is more or less subject to the amenities and conventions of business, professional, and domestic life.

Naturally, or primitively, one should react to the impulses and emotions of everyday by fighting, playing, chasing or running away.

CAN'T ACT NATURALLY

But, darn it all, one can't behave in a natural way without being considered uncivilized or low-life.

For that matter it betrays low breeding to raise one's voice, redden in anger, or sneer or clench fists as though to bounce one off the so-and-so's jaw.

The repression of emotional impulses may be essential for an executive in business or for a social leader, but it damages heart and arteries far more than it would to fight or run away—or vicariously, take some general exercise.

Either anger or fear (even worry, anxiety) damages heart and arteries most if repressed. Repress, says Webster, means to restrain oneself from showing, feeling, uttering; to prevent natural or normal expression.

Expression of the emotions, that is. If this seems nutty, fathead, read Darwin's most fascinating book, 'Expression of the Emotions,' and Cannon's 'Bodily Changes in Pain, Hunger, Fear and Rage.'

Maybe you'll continue to take dope when you're "upset" instead of taking a walk or a few somersaults, but anyway you'll know better.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

War Weary World Needs Real Christmas Meaning

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

This is Christmas time, and what is the meaning of it all?

I wonder, as I watch the Christmas shoppers going hither and yon searching for a present to bestow upon some friend or relative, just how many have really taken the time to stop and think why the Christmas day is really held so sacred, and what it all means to us.

If we, the people of this war weary world, would adjust our lives nearer to the teachings of Christ, if we would cultivate brotherly love, instead of hate, substitute honesty in place of dishonesty, dissolve our terrible greed for money, and do unto others as we would be done by, all these terrible wars and the prospect of future wars would end.

Auto Mechanic Defends U.S. Capitalist System

I wonder if Albert Mills of Utica has compared the investments of the Ford Motor Company during the periods he mentioned.

If he is a working man, as most of us are, his only investment is his time and possibly a few hand tools. He is paid according to the time he spends on a machine which does the producing and is paid for by the company, for which both the machine and Mr. Mills works.

If, on the other hand, his investment were several million dollars, I'm sure he would and could expect to earn his $147 per day.

"Did Marx err?" Study the greatest exponent of Marxism (Russia) and the answer is very plain. Definitely he did.

Study also the very recent history of England (1945-1955) and discover how those who traded capitalism for the Socialist Party theory soon chucked it and got back on the capitalistic gravy train.

I'm an auto mechanic, working on straight commission. If I work I get paid. No work—no pay. And I love it.

Ike May Not Barnstorm Nation if He Runs Again

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even if President Eisenhower's doctors tell him he can run for a second term, they may tell him at the same time he can't make the usual campaign for the presidency.

There's a difference between running for the White House and spending four years in it.

As president for another four years Eisenhower would have to expect occasional strain, if only in making big decisions, but by careful planning he might be able to avoid both fatigue and unusual exertion.

HEAVY CAMPAIGN

But if he put on the traditional presidential campaign, he could hardly avoid them.

The traditional campaign calls for train trips or plane trips, talking to crowds at whistle-stops or in auditoriums. There would be exertion, if only in trying to make himself heard, in climbing steps, and in shaking numerous hands.

While going through all that, Eisenhower would have this additional burden, one his opponent wouldn't share: he'd still be president and have to carry on his duties of that job at the same time.

* * *

If the doctors tell Eisenhower, perhaps in February, that he can seek re-election, it will be because they have found his heart attack—which came from a diseased artery which closed—did not damage the heart itself to the point where he couldn't undertake the daily job of the presidency.

IT DOESN'T FOLLOW

And even though one artery was diseased to the point of closing, it doesn't necessarily follow his other arteries are in the same bad shape or close to it. He might never have another attack. Doctors still don't know much about the progress of disease in other arteries in a case like this.

* * *

But the chief consultant among Eisenhower's physicians—Dr. Paul Dudley White of Boston, one of the world's top heart specialists—was asked this question at a news conference Oct. 22: Were Eisenhower's chances for a second attack greater than for the first?

White said the question was hard to answer but added, "I think that might be true."

It is routine when heart doctors have seen a heart attack victim through to the point of full recovery to tell him he can resume a normal life if he slows down a bit and does not try to overdo it.

In the early days of Eisenhower's attack, Dr. White consulted with Dr. Eugene Lepeschkin, University of Vermont authority on cardiograms, who later said Eisenhower could run again if he wanted to provided he avoided "any emotional or physical strain and meantime watched his health."

Clergymen Calling at Florida Hospital Given Denominational List of Patients

Dr. Baker gratefully cites a helpful innovation by a hospital in Florida. It should be imitated widely by all big hospitals, for there is a terrible loneliness connected with pain. And the faithful clergy are vital allies of physicians at the sickbed.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

He and his vivacious wife entertained me at luncheon when I was there recently to conduct combined services for the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches.

* * *

"Dr. Crane, I wish to tell you about a very helpful innovation by one hospital here," Dr. Baker said.

"It is something that might well be imitated in other large cities, too.

"For example, all the patients are entered in a daily religious index, classified according to denominations.

"Thus, whenever a clergyman arrives to visit a parishioner of his church, he can also see if any others are there as patients about whom he hasn't yet been informed.

"As you know, many people are emergency patients. They'd like to have their priest or minister call on them in such critical times.

* * *

"But we clergymen often aren't notified immediately. Yet we may be calling on some other patient in that same hospital.

"So the hospital graciously compiles a daily index. All I need do is turn to the 'Presbyterian' heading and look down the page.

"In a few seconds I can then see the names of all Presbyterians who are patients at St. Vincent's that day.

"As a result of this efficient plan, I may be able to call on three or four of my parishioners when I otherwise would have called on but one.

"We clergymen are very appreciative of this thoughtful innovation and so are the patients, too.

EXTRA TIME

But it is one of the excellent psychological services of the hospital and should be duplicated far and wide.

For there is nothing to match the loneliness of pain!

With love and joy and many other emotions, we share with others and are extroverted in our thinking.

But when stricken down with a serious illness and when racked with pain, we are acutely aware of our loneliness.

* * *

So sick people are usually more grateful than ever when their clergyman calls upon them.

His reassuring words, comforting, prayer, and inspiring smile, are actually of great medical value.

Time and again I have told you that God is the best medicine we physicians can ever prescribe for anybody.

And the clergy are God's effective allies, so the patients grow more relaxed as soon as their clergyman enters the room. Their fearful tensions begin to subside.

Jesus is often called the Great Physician. And his clergymen belong in that same medical classification.

Father Rudolph of Wisconsin says almost half of his parishioners get better as soon as he enters their home, and thus many who otherwise would enter hospitals, decide they are so much improved they don't require further medical aid.

There is much truth to that observation. Active church people undoubtedly have more freedom from peptic ulcer, spastic colitis, angina pectoris and other nervous afflictions.

And even when they suffer from organic ailments, they can relax and recuperate faster when teamed up in a partnership with God Almighty.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Salvation Army Appeals for Christmas Volunteers

The Salvation Army here needs volunteers to help process requests from needy families for Christmas baskets, according to Senior Capt. Magnus A. Michalsen.

"We have to check every request to assure it is ligitimate and urgently need persons to work during any time they have available from now until Christmas," he explained.

"Our aim is to help every family with a real need to enjoy holiday meals complete with all the trimmings. To do this, we must be sure no baskets are sent people who don't actually need them."

Persons can volunteer by Calling Pontiac, FE 2-5122.

The Salvation Army here acts as a clearing house for distribution of all Christmas food-gifts throughout the county. Michalson asked all social agencies, schools and churches, who distribute holiday baskets, to check with his headquarters to make certain no family is overlooked or receives two gifts.

Deadline for gift requests is Dec. 20, he stated. "It's only through the generosity of Oakland County citizens who contribute at our street-corner stands that we are able to carry on this program," he said.

They Still Use Horses

Few Royal Canadian Mounted Police are still mounted. On the job, automobiles and airplanes serve as their steeds. But when picked lads from all Canada arrive at Regina, Saskathewan, to learn the skills of modern police work, the tradition of the saddle is not forgotten. On annual Mounted Sports Day recruits at the training college compete in mounted drills and contests.

Hal Boyle Says:

TV Broken? Then Why Not Tackle a Book?

NEW YORK (AP) — When your television set goes blooey, what do you do while you're waiting for the repair man to come and fix it?

Do you get cross and upset?

Why not protect yourself against these tragic lulls in living? Why not buy yourself a book, and sit down and read it? What if it does make your lips tired? You probably could use a little more exercise.

Now don't say, "I've already got a book." Every home that yearns for a two-car garage ought to have room for two books, too. You can find space for the extra one somewhere.

* * *

As a matter of fact, why not really surprise a friend this year and send him a book for a Christmas present? He'll talk about it for days and days.

To help you pick the right one, we have made up a list of suggested Christmas books for folks you've heard about. And so, kiddies, here we go—all in fun:

He cited the example of a woman robbed while going home at dinner time Saturday.

Mrs. Margarette Polavich, of Oxford, lost her purse when a thief grabbed it out of her hand on Sheridan St. She said there was $20 in it.

"These boys know that people are likely to be carrying more money at Christmas time," the inspector said.

"If you don't want to lose your money, don't carry it with you. And don't leave large sums in your home, either," the inspector added.

Fruit Growers Schedule Meet

Insect Damage Topic for Discussion Tuesday Night

ROMEO — All Macomb County fruit growers and lot owners in subdivided orchards are being asked to attend an education meeting at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Romeo High School auditorium.

* * *

The problem to be discussed is the damage being done to orchards of the commercial fruit growers by insects from neglected fruit trees in the Romeo area.

Members of the Macomb County Council of Fruit Growers met in September to take the first step in a program to save the three-quarter million dollar industry.

Upon their invitation, state horticultural specialists and representative orchard men were called into the area to study the effect untended orchards were having on the fruit crop here. These experts concurred with the local fruit growers in the opinion that if some action were not taken soon the 1956 crop would be in jeopardy.

COMPLETE SURVEY

A fruit inspection team recently completed its survey of the two large subdivisions, Mountain View and Romeo Orchards. The men counted the number of trees on each lot, determined their condition and contacted each lot owner.

It was pointed out that according to Michigan State Law the Commissioner of Agriculture has the authority to request that the landowners adopt approved practices that will control the insects or plant diseases, or the neglected trees must be removed.

A report of the fruit inspection team will be read at the meeting. Representatives from the Bureau of Plant Industry, Michigan Department of Agriculture, will also be present to explain the eradication program.

CONNIE LEE JONES

Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Young of Waterford announce the engagement of her daughter, Connie Lee Jones, to Ralph W. Long Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Long Sr., of Drayton Plains. A July wedding is being planned. Connie is also the daughter of A. W. Jones of Grand Rapids.

The pageant will be preceded by a program to be presented by the kindergarten, primary children, and the juniors, at 7:30 p.m.

It's estimated that American churches have some 89,000,000 members who contribute about 2½ billion dollars a year toward this work.

Driver Training to Be Expanded

State Law Compliance Means More Teachers, Tyrrell Says

The Pontiac public school system will have to expand its driver-training program by February 1957 to comply with a new state yeas old who is getting a dive's law, Instructor Arthur Tyrrell said today.

After that date anyone under 18 years old who is getting a driver's license for the first time must have passed a training course successfully, he explained.

"We will have to instruct all persons under 18 in the Pontiac school district who hope to get a license," said Tyrrell, who heads the driver program.

"That includes our own students, those in parochial and private schools plus any applicants who dropped out of school." Five to ten more instructors will be needed, he explained.

A fraction of each driver's license fee will be turned over to the schools to help finance the program. The State Department of Public Instruction will set up course requirements.

Flint Police Holding Suspect in Breakin

A Flint man suspected of being involved in 15 area breakins last weekend is being held by Flint police today while Bloomfield Township Police Chief Clark Green and Oakland County Sheriff's deputies interview him on the subject.

Held for investigation is Edward Chenault, 23, of Flint, who police say drives a car matching the description of one seen near the scene of several of the breakins.

Breakins occurred in Pontiac, Bloomfield Township and Waterford Township.

Pontiac police inspector Clark Wheaton said today he would send detectives to interview Chenault if Chief Green thinks the man was involved in the robberies.

Waterford Township Police Chief Frank VanAtta says he will wait for further information before acting in the case.

Berserk Father Kills 2, Himself

Detroit Plant Worker Murders Wife, In-Law; Wounds His Daughter

DETROIT (AP) — Three persons were dead and a fourth wounded today in the aftermath of a wild shooting spree yesterday by a husband-father in the home of his estranged wife.

Among the dead was Arthur Jackson, 44, a factory worker who police said put a bullet into his own brain after killing his wife, Vera, 36, and her brother, Harold Brenner, 28.

Jackson's 15-year-old daughter, Barbara, was wounded in the right leg by one of eight bullets her father sprayed about the terror-stricken household before reloading his automatic and firing a ninth shot into his own head.

The Brenners—Harold, his expectant-mother wife, Betty, 22, and their two children, Gailann, 4, and Ronald, 3—were among nine persons in Mrs. Jackson's home when the shooting took place. They were visiting his sister for the first time in a year.

* * *

Others endangered by the shooting included two neighbor children with whom Barbara was baby-sitting, Steve Dooley, 2, and his sister, Mischella, 4, and Barbara's girl friend, Shirley Starr, 15.

* * *

Police detective Paul Montgomery said the Jacksons had been estranged for several months and that Mrs. Jackson recently had obtained an injunction to restrain her husband from bothering her or her friends.

Residents Protesting State Prison Camp

A petition containing some 400 names of Brandon Township residents has been received by the Miscellaneous Committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors protesting against a proposed state prison camp in the township.

The State Corrections Commission previously asked Supervisors' permission to set up the camp similar to one now operating near Pontiac Lake.

Such camps are necessary, the commission said, to ease overloading in state prisons.

Miscellaneous Committee Chairman Winston S. Moberly, of Pleasant Ridge, said his group would recommend action for or against the proposal at the next Supervisors' meeting sometime in January.

Injured and Ticketed

ROCHESTER—Vernon G. Reed of 3101 Eastwood Dr., Pontiac, was treated for minor injuries at Avon Center Hospital Saturday afternoon and given a ticket for reckless driving. He collided with another car at West Fifth and Main Streets, and in the final count, five cars had to be towed away, police said. There were no others injured.

PRIZE WINNER IN ROCHESTER PARADE—Thousands witnessed the fourth Annual Christmas Parade at Rochester Saturday, sponsored by the Lions Club. Santa rode in splendor atop the Lions' float and Christmas music was provided by Avondale, Troy, Lake Orion and Rochester High School bands, the Detroit Edison calliope and a clown band. Winning floats were: First, St. John's Lutheran Church; (above) Rochester 4-H Club; Avondale High School; Job's Daughters and the Kiwanis Club float. Judges were Mrs. Margaret Norton, Mrs. John Plassey and D. C. Baldwin. Parade Chairman Lafayette Maynard said Sunday that plans for next year's parade are already under way.

Exchange Club Set to Give Army Aid

The Pontiac Exchange Club's annual campaign to raise funds to purchase Christmas baskets for needy families will be conducted Friday night when members will sell copies of the Salvation Army publication "War Cry" on area street corners.

The sale will be carried out by nine teams, each of which will be stationed in front of designated banks and business places. Five "flying squads" will circulate in public buildings in various areas of the city.

Funds collected will be turned over to the Salvation Army for purchase and distribution of the baskets, according to General Chairman John C. Napley.

The campaign will be conducted between 7 and 9 p.m.

Sales last year netted the club nearly $2,000.

Canada registered a record 435,142 births in 1954 for an increase of 18,317, or 4.4 per cent, over the year before. It was the sixth annual increase in a row.

Mrs. Ray Reed, of 7064 Joslyn Rd., Pontiac Township, told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies yesterday she had ordered a prowler from her kitchen Saturday night.

THE BERRYS

Santa Has Many Helpers Every Year

Christmas is a full-time job for some folks, like the man in San Antonio, Tex., who applied for jobless pay as an unemployed Santa Claus.

• • •

And some people get Christmas down to a system like the Frankfort, Ind., woman who was told it was too late for delivery of an order of personalized Christmas cards. She said she wanted them for next year. Whenever she gets a card, she addresses one of her own and mails it the following year.

Some miss out like Detroit thieves in a bar who got $200, but never did learn that the tree in the corner was decorated with $1 and $5 bills.

Then there was Eugene Ward of Abilene, Tex. who was poking around an abandoned farm house at Christmas time and found a $4,000 uncashed check in the chimney. Deciding Santa might really have come down that chimney, he started looking for the payee.

GIVE NICKELS

Edwardsville, Ind., merchants push the season's spirit right out into the street. They furnish nickels to the cops who feed parking meters for Christmas shoppers.

On the other side of the picture was last year's substitute Atlanta postman who ditched a bundle of 1954 Christmas mail under a house. When it was found recently, postal officials ordered completion of delivery before the 1955 holiday, and tried to figure out which substitute was guilty.

And Mrs. James C. Mattox of Augusta, Ga., found a man cutting a Christmas tree on her property. He protested he had driven all the way from South Carolina for the tree. She said she did not normally sell trees, but would sell him one in view of his long trip.

"Huh!" he objected indignantly, "I've spent enough on gasoline, you don't think I'm going to buy a tree, do you?"

Quincy, Mass. makes a festival out of its old Christmas trees. They are collected by volunteers. Top workers got prizes like bicycles and theater tickets. Then there's a public bonfire preced by half an hour of fireworks.

There was also the Detroit man, up for drunken driving just before last Christmas. He told Judge John D. Watts he had 16 children. The judge suspended sentence, saying he would feel like "an awful Scrooge" if the fellow went to jail over Christmas.

• • •

But Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hardy of Atlanta are sure there will always be a Christmas. They have a string of Christmas tree lights they have used for 31 years without replacement of a single bulb.

Tower Climber Gets Mental Test

Semi-Crippled Father Goes Up 250 Ft. to Call Attention to Plight

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A mental hearing was the prospect today for 45-year-old Asa Beck who despite his severe rheumatism crawled 250 feet up a television tower yesterday to attract attention to what he termed his family's plight.

Beck, a resident of nearby Guthrie, said, "I was going to jump by sundown unless they could help us." State troopers finally coaxed him down after he had been there more than an hour.

He declared his wife and six children were starving. Judge Mildred Patterson, who convicted Beck for failing to provide for them, said, however, his family "was better off now than it has ever been."

Guthrie spent the night in the Oklahoma County Detention Ward. Mrs. Patterson said officers planned to sign papers calling for a mental hearing.

She said Beck had been "using his family's welfare check to buy a car and other things."

Beck tossed away his crutches, scaled a six-foot barbed wire fence and climbed hand over hand up the 1,572-foot tower of station KWTV.

"Every one of my family ought to be in a hospital," he sobbed to rescuers. "They're sick from pneumonia and they don't have enough to eat."

Beck said he was "framed" on the child abandonment charge and was told to leave the state. Upon his return from California a few weeks ago, he said, he found his wife and six children near starvation. His oldest is 18. Beck said his wife Ruth had lost 56 pounds.

He said that because of his crippled condition he has made a living for years by making artificial flowers and selling them in Oklahoma City. At present he is unemployed.

"Ben-Gay gave me a new lease on life—relief from pain!"

Says Mrs. Louise Pirz of Lynbrook, Long Island.

"I had tried many other products before I discovered Ben-Gay", writes Mrs. Pirz, "but they didn't give me the real relief I wanted from the pains in my shoulder and arm. To tell the truth, I felt as though I were only half alive. The pain bothered me that much!

"What a difference with Ben-Gay! The pain eased up in no time. I wouldn't be without it!"

Yes, there's nothing like BEN-GAY! Its world-famous scientific formula contains up to two and a half times more of two famous pain-relieving agents than any of five other widely offered rub-ins. BEN-GAY's exclusive medication works two ways: First, it stimulates the blood supply to the painful area. Second, its pain-deadening action goes to work instantly to bring warm, soothing relief.

If you suffer the distress of muscular or rheumatic pains see what welcome-relief Ben-Gay can bring. Ben-Gay acts fast where you hurt!

Lawyer Claims Tax Discrimination Favoring High Incomes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. income tax system is full of special provisions, undermining the idea that the system is based on ability to pay, witnesses have told Congress.

• • •

A panel of professors offered this description to a Senate-House economic subcommittee studying the principles of taxation as they relate to economic growth and stability.

Harold M. Groves, University of Wisconsin professor of economics, said the tax system, though nominally based on ability to pay, is "so honeycombed with the results of pressure politics that it is becoming a symbol of hypocrisy."

William L. Cary, professor of law at Columbia University, said "the law is being riddled with special provisions while we preserve the fiction of uniformity."

William J. Blum a University of Chicago law school professor, added that "over the years our income tax has become one in which special preferential treatment has become the rule rather than the exception."

FAILING EQUITY

Randolph E. Paul, Washington lawyer, said the income tax system "is more and more failing to do equity in a sense of even treatment of persons with equal income."

Among numerous tax provisions cited were ones relating to tax exempt securities, stock option privileges of business executives, depletion allowances for oil and other natural resources, capital gains, dividend income, and the charging of "personal consumption expenditures" to business expense.

Paul said, speaking generally, "the discriminations in our income tax structure were in favor of high bracket taxpayers."

But he said the discrimination is "principally against taxpayers, small and large, who are self-employed or whose income consists principally of salaries, professional fees and wages.

Cary said that "today's large investor probably constitutes the most important beneficiary of preferential treatment."

He said also that tax considerations have played a major role "in the current shift of collective bargaining from wages alone to fringe benefits.

"Perhaps the time will come," he said, "when the individual unfortunate enough to receive all his wages in money will have an impossible tax burden."

Groves said public hearings are monopolized by special interests and the general taxpayer and consumer have small chance of an effective hearing.

Canada's birth rate climbed for the fifth consecutive year in 1954, reaching 28.7 per 1,000 population, the third highest recorded since such statistics were first compiled in 1921.

Piggy-Backed Trucks Must Pay State Tax

LANSING (AP) — Truck trailers "piggy-backed" into Michigan on railroad flat cars must under certain circumstances pay Michigan weight taxes and buy Michigan license plates, Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh has held.

Kavanagh issued the opinion in answer to a question from Rep. Walter T. McMahon (D-Hazel Park). McMahon said trailers from neighboring states are railroaded into Michigan, then hauled to their destination by tractors carrying Michigan plates.

The attorney general said trucking companies must buy Michigan plates for their trailers or pay Michigan taxes if they remain in the state longer than ten days or are registered in states which do not have reciprocal agreements with Michigan.

Delinquent Taxpayers Owe Almost $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 1,700,000 taxpayers owe the government $1,671,412,717.02 in delinquent taxes of all kinds, the Internal Revenue Service reported today.

A spokesman said the amount is "high, but not abnormal."

He said no national dunning campaign has been ordered because the IRS district offices must make the decisions for themselves.

Several IRS district directors including those in Baltimore and Philadelphia, have intensified their efforts to cut down the delinquency total under instructions issued from Washington more than a year ago.

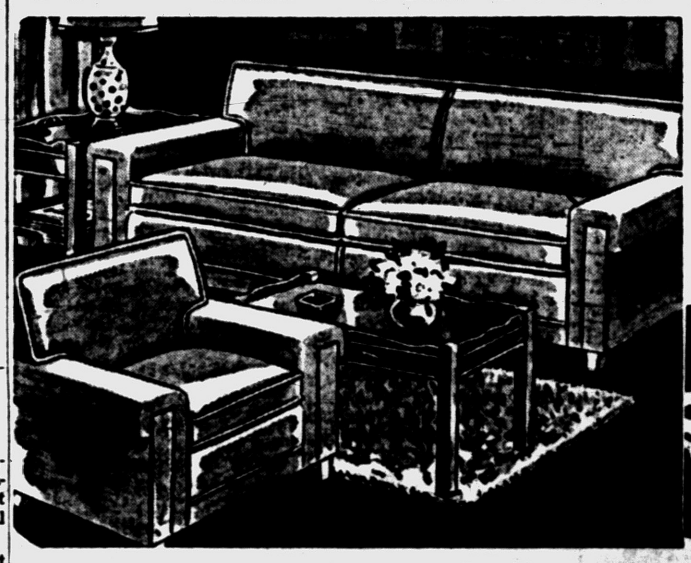

Pickford OKs Bonds

PICKFORD (AP) — Voters in this Upper Peninsula village have approved a $290,000 school construction bond issue 284-154. The measure was defeated last March by 16 votes. The money will go for remodeling and additions to present school structures.

Adrian Man Loses Life in Big Balloon Ascension

(Michigan's history is rich and alive. Too often it is lost in dull of school lessons. The following series was compiled from eyewitness accounts on file in the Michigan Historical collections University of Michigan with the aid of assistant director F. Clever Bald.)

By JOHN BARBOUR

ADRIAN, Sept. 16, 1858 (AP)—The spectacle of a balloon ascension that thrilled all of Southern Michigan was stricken with tragedy today. One balloon pilot is lost and feared dead.

* * *

Ira J. Thurston of Adrian, who built the balloon, was trapped on the partially filled gas sack and carried skyward by a strong west wind. The balloon has been recovered, 30 miles from Windsor, Ont., but there was no sign of Thurston.

His associate and close friend, W. D. Banister also of Adrian, returned to the city after watching for more than an hour with a telescope.

It all began as a great spectacle that drew hundreds from surrounding communities. Trains brought spectators from Jonesville, Manchester, Hillsdale, Hudson, Blissfield and other southern Michigan cities and towns. More arrived from as far away as Toledo, Ohio.

WIND RUPTURED

The ascension had been postponed once 12 days ago when Thurston's balloon of hand-sewn India silk was ruptured by a strong wind.

In an effort to beat a strong wind, Banister decided to make the ascension this morning before the whole crowd had arrived. Thurston decided at the last minute to go along. Just as the ascension got underway, a train carrying 500 persons arrived from Jonesville.

The ascension was made without incident and Banister said when he landed that the scene "would repay one for attempting even the hazardous balloon ascension to look upon."

The pair said they could see Adrian, Manchester and Tecumseh beneath them—Lake Erie to the east, Toledo to the south, Coldwater, Hillsdale and Jonesville to the west, and Jackson, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Detroit to the north.

NO HEIGHT ESTIMATE

There was no estimate of the height they reached. They landed in a farmer's field, 17 miles from Adrian in Riga Township of Lenawee County. A crowd of 25 persons gathered around them. It was then the accident occurred.

Thurston was not satisfied with the rate at which the gas was escaping from the balloon, so he climbed on top of the sack and told Banister and two farmers to lift the under edge of the balloon so the gas would escape more quickly.

The balloon, Banister said, had a capacity of 240,000 gallons and was 126 feet around. Thurston held onto a square wooden piece at the top. Then he told Banister and the two farmers to let go of the under edge.

FOLLOW ME

One farmer, however, apparently didn't hear, because he continued to cling to the balloon and Thurston was carried upwards. The balloon bounced into the air, without the weight to hold it down.

At 10 feet above the ground, the farmer let go and fell. Thurston was calm, yelling "follow me across the field, it will be alright shortly."

However, as he continued to cling to the gas sack, the balloon was caught by the wind and carried to the northeast. Banister said he watched through a telescope for more than an hour as Thurston's balloon got smaller and smaller.

* * *

(Footnote: It wasn't until next spring that Thurston's skeleton was found in the Toledo area. Papers and other items made identification positive.)

Graham to Crusade for Gotham in 1957

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham, has accepted an invitation from New York City's Protestant churches to stage a major crusade here in 1957.

"This will be by far the No. 1 challenge I have ever accepted," Graham told a news conference at offices of the Protestant Council of the City of New York.

He and officials of the Council said more than a year of preparations would precede the start of the crusade, which would utilize the services of thousands of singers, counsellors and assisting ministers.

Dr. Dan Potter, the Council's executive secretary, said the specific time for the crusade had not been set but that is would be some time in 1957, after the month of May. It will last from six weeks to two months or more.

We're Getting Bigger

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Census Bureau says U.S. population increased by 10 per cent between the 1950 census and Nov. 1. It said there are now 166,280,000 Americans.

Workers to Study State Election Laws

Oakland County Clerk Lynn D. Allen has scheduled an educational conference for county election workers Dec. 15 at 10 a.m. in the office building at 1 Lafayette St. All city and township clerks have been invited to attend and bring co-workers to join in studying recent changes in the state election laws, Allen explained.

State Director of Elections Robert Montgomery will be on hand to give advice, the clerk added.

Wayne Loses ROTC

DETROIT (AP) — The Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) program at Wayne University will be discontinued effective July, 1957, William E. Stirton, Wayne vice president, has announced. The action is part of a nationwide program of Air Force ROTC retrenchment, he said.

Canadian manufacturers produced $12,843,000 worth of musical instruments and parts in 1954, a decline of about 5 per cent from the year before.

Own Physical Ordered at UM

Pre - Entrance Medical Exams Needed for All Incoming Students

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan is breaking a 33-year-old tradition next fall by requesting all incoming new students to obtain their own physican examinations.

This would relieve the university of the increasing job of examining the rapidly increasing classes as they come to the school. The physical examinations are limited in scope.

Dr. Morley B. Beckett, director of the student health service where students receive medical care at cost during their stay at the university, said 6,000 new students were examined last fall.

The university, he said, is interested in determining such information as the sensitivity to drugs, special problems or other health information of new students.

The examination required is not a full, complete report, but is designed to help the student know certain items such as poor vision, dental work or other physical defects that should be corrected before coming to the university.

Chest X-rays will continue to be given by the university doctors.

The Michigan Medical Society has stated it will inform all local doctors of the change. The student will receive a blank to be filled in by his local doctor, prior to the student's trip to school.

THE LITTLE DANCING CLASS

Rosalie and the Ballet of the Roses—1

Dancing in time to music is older than our written history. For centuries people have danced when they were happy, and dancing had a part in many ancient religions.

There are several types of dancing. Little Rosalie is doing a classic ballet number. She has had several years of ballet training, so she is able to stand on her toes in her special ballet shoes.

The decorative base is like a small stage setting for this dance. You can add to the fun by playing a ballet record on your phonograph while you play with Rosalie.

Attach the arm behind the shoulders with brass fasteners or bent pins through the holes indicated. Now Rosalie can raise and lower her arms.

Expect Inquiry in CAA Change

Lee's Resignation May Reveal 'Squeeze Out' of Aeronautics Chief

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles J. Lowen Jr. succeeds Frederick B. Lee as civil aeronautics administrator today in a disputed administation change that may set off a congressional inquiry.

President Eisenhower accepted Lee's resignation Saturday from the $15,000-a-year job and named Lowen, now deputy administrator, to succeed him.

SQUEEZE OUT

The change-over was preceded by widespread reports in aviation circles that the 49-year-old Lee, who had been with the Civil Aeronautics Administration for 10 years, was being squeezed out by Commerce Department officials. Lee had been administrator since March 1956.

A spokesman for the Commerce Department, parent agency of the CAA which deals with civil aviation matters, said there would be no immediate comment.

Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash), chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, has proposed an investigation.

Lee himself told a newsman, "I wish I understood all the motives behind this."

He said his first hint of trouble came with the appointment of Lowen, 40, a Denver Republican, last May. He said Lowen told others in the CAA that "I'm working for Rothschild (Undersecretary of Commerce Louis S. Rothschild)," not for Lee.

Rothschild called him to his office last month, Lee related, and told him they "weren't getting along" and had "come to the parting of the ways." Lee added: "I couldn't have been more surprised."

Then last Wednesday, Lee said, Secretary Weeks demanded his resignation within two hours. Lee said he wrote a letter to Eisenhower instead, enclosing his resignation but making clear he wanted to stay in his job.

Chances for Happy Marriages Greater Today

The secrets of happy marriage are being explored today by thousands of scientists, clergymen, judges, social workers, educators and others around the United States. These marriage experts have produced answers to many of the problems that beset married couples and those planning to wed. Folowing is the first in a series of five articles providing the most up-to-date information available from the top marriage experts on how you can be happily married.

By EDWIN DIAMOND
International News Service
Science Writer

The experts say so, the curves of vital statistics show it and the couples themselves proclaim it.

The national office of vital statistics, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, reports that between 1867 and 1946 divorces in the United States increased almost without interruption. But since 1946 the divorce rate has been falling steadily even though the years 1946 through 1948 were all-time record marriage years.

Dr. Sylvanus Duvall, teacher and author of marriage texts, believes this decline in divorces is due in large part to the better understanding Americans have today.

"We Americans today expect more from a 1956 model automobile than we did from a 1920 model and we get more," Dr. Duvall said. "So, too, with marriage.

"Today's couples enter marriage better prepared and expecting more than their parents or grandparents.

"We know more about ourselves and our mates — what makes us tick—than ever before. We know more about marriage—what makes it tick—than ever before.

"The couple who takes the time to listen and learn can apply their newly-won knowledge and find happiness in marriage."

Other experts agree with Dr. Duvall—intimate scientific surveys and the actual experience of many married couples have provided us with two keys to the happy home—new knowledge about ourselves and new understanding of marriage.

Experts say the formula is simple—love plus knowledge equals happiness. And it is a formula equally applicable to the dating couple, the engaged pair, the "young marrieds," and the parents with children.

Here, then, is what you should know to build your own happy home—according to the marriage experts and married couples themselves.

The scientists say preparation for marriage begins at birth. It is in our family situation that we first learn about married life, husband-wife relations and living in harmony with others.

This early lesson significantly colors the person's own later marriage. Prof. Ernest W. Burgess, one of America's foremost experts on marriage, has been studying 1,000 couples for the last 20 years, tracing them through courtship into marriage in an effort to learn those factors making for happiness and success in marriage.

The prominent Chicago sociologist reports the degree of happiness achieved in marriage seems directly related to each partner's recollection of his or her own family life—the happier the marriage of their parents, the greater the chance for their own happiness.

This is a factor over which children have no control. But the experts say parents should remember that the eventual marital happines of their children is related to how parents work out their marriage pattern.

Other studies offer this conclusion for dating couples to remember — the longer the period of acquaintance, courtship and engagement, the greater the chance for success and happiness in marriage.

Dating couples ask: "How can we be sure this is the real thing?"

Parents look with some dismay on the increasing number of youthful marriages in 1900, the average age at marriage for men was 26 and for women 22; today it is 22 for men and 20 for women —and ask: "Are they prepared for the responsibilities of marriage? Do they know what they are doing?"

Judge John A. Sbarbaro, veteran Cook County (Chicago) divorce judge and author of the book "Marriage is on Trial," has some good advice for dating couples who "want to be sure."

He emphasizes the importance of a "know your partner" courtship. Here is his advice to dating couples, based on 29 years on the bench during which he listened to some 50,000 divorce cases:

1—As you approach the age of marriage, pause and give full consideration to the qualities you really want in a mate.

2—The only way to become thoroughly acquainted with the "real" person who is to become your intended mate is to know him or her for a reasonable length of time—say one year.

4—Consider your own interests before you travel too far along the road to marriage and try as best you can to match them to your partner's.

5—Take plenty of time to talk to each other—often and at great length. Make these conversations real exchanges of ideas—not just jabbering for the sake of filling a social void.

6—Remember marriages often succeed or fail over the little things that mean a lot. The little things — Bing Crosby records, baseball, picnics in the summer —bring you together and, in the same way after the honeymoon is over, you may find the little things can make the difference between a happy marriage and an unhappy one.

7—Use common sense and good humor to keep the marital machinery in good order.

8—Discover beforehand if you both want children; if your religious creeds conflict, reach a compromise in advance.

Others have stepped in the new dating situation to help the young couple. Rev. Roy A. Burkhart of The First Community Church of Columbus, Ohio, considered one of the outstanding minister-counselors in the country, has devised a unique plan.

For 21 years, he has been meeting with young Columbus couples in the belief that his ministerial duties toward them begin "before or very early in the engagement rather than a few days "before the wedding."

He meets with the couples informally in his study, seeking to help them find out not only if they are really in love but also if they are ready for marriage—and the economic, social, sexual and personality adjustments it requires.

He uses a "personality schedule" which gives each couple a profile of the prospective mate. By answering a series of questions on the schedule, the couple is able to determine how their personality traits compare—and where the potential sore spots may be.

Arrangements such as these are designed to give the couple more information about themselves.

Other sources, notably the schools and churches, are providing up-to-date, authoritative and intelligent information on the "facts of marriage and family life."

Wife Saves Hobby for Yule Season

By ANNE HEYWOOD

There is an old saying which goes something like this: "God give me the courage to change what can be changed, the patience to bear what cannot be changed and the wisdom to know which is which."

* * *

A young mother I know, named Patti K., illustrates this point of view beautifully.

NO FREE TIME

* * *

But instead of fretting, Patti faces the fact that that is how it will be for some years and she has worked out a good system.

"I love arts and crafts," she told me. "I always wanted to go to art school, but, since I married right after high school, I haven't had the time.

"In fact, with our limited budget and my limited time, I haven't even been able to do the decorating I'd like to do here at home.

* * *

FESTIVE DECORATIONS

"Every year, on December 10th, my mother or my husband's mother comes to visit us and gives me my 'annual vacation.' She'll stay for three weeks, through Dec. 31, with father or father-in-law joining us on Christmas Eve.

* * *

"For three weeks, I am relieved of the care of the children and free to indulge myself by doing all kinds of wonderful holiday decorations.

* * *

"My husband always gives me $10 for my 'vacation money' and it is perfectly wonderful what I manage to do.

"The children think it's quite a lark, too. And of course, we have the most festive-looking house you ever saw when I'm finished.

* * *

"I make all kinds of unusual tree ornaments—in fact, one of my so-called designs was so popular last year that I got orders from a gift shop that wants to handle them this year. I won't make much from it, but every little bit helps. Then, too, I learn so much each year and have so much fun!

DEVELOPS SKILL

"The best part of it," Patti continued, "is that I really feel that I am developing my artistic talents, such as they are.

"Some day when the children are in school, I intend to learn a lot about design and art and maybe even have a real part-time career.

"But for now, I am content to bide my time and limit my self-expression, as my husband calls it, to a once-a-year fling!"

Doggies Long for Refined Things – Like Fancy Hats

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE
(Copyright, 1955 by INS)

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(INS)—In the old days when a pup dog wobbled to your chair and placed a dainty dirty paw on your knee, all he wanted was love. Or possibly, if you were eating, a scrap of salami.

Today it's different. Today a dog's longing eyes are visualizing more refined things. His dirty little paw is out to suggest that you buy him some clean little kid booties for Christmas, and if he is wiggling, it is no longer a sign of ecstasy. It's a sign he's chilly and would like a ski suit or a reversible tweed greatcoat with a a belt in the back.

"Dogs are more and more fashion-conscious, I guess you are aware," said Lucille Rudiburg, co-proprietress of "Canine Couturiere," a custom clothing salon for dogs of all breeds. "More and more they are facing the problem of keeping up with the Joneses' poodle.

"After all, dogs are not the least bit dumb — you agree?—and if they see a friend wearing a trenchcoat in the rain or a jeweled collar and lead in the evening, they're going to think twice about it."

At first, the unclothed dog may just snarl facetiously and think "What a crazy mutt!"

"But sooner or later, he will want to be dressed warmly and attractively too and he will start wondering why, if he is truly a man's best friend, man is being so stingy about his wardrobe."

Miss Rudiburg, a former CBS fashion coordinator, operates the "C.C." in partnership with Debra Frye, one of the world's foremost sculptors of dogs, and the two of them are up to their ears in gift ideas for pooches.

They have all-size reversible tweed coats (flannel for fine days) to be worn by large dogs of the boxer, Doberman and airdale types; tiny coats in satin-lined velvet for chihuahuas and undersized medium-sized dogs; water-repellent trenchcoats, belted of course, for active outdoor dogs; camel's hair coats for dogs who like the snow but were not equipped by nature to cope with the chill of it.

There is also a complete line of doggie-pajamas ("people open windows at night, and there are drafts on their pets," explains Debra), and of pastel and jeweled resort clothes.

For the dog who has everything, there will be a line of fancy sunglasses and hearing aids.

"And look at this darling theater coat with buttons on the belly!" It also had a red velvet collar and lead embroidered with rhinestones and pearls. "Admittedly dogs don't go to the theater much, they do like to feel festive occasionally like the rest of us."

Debra and Lucille insist that most short-haired pups should be dressed, particularly in winter, as a health measure — and also, they contend, the dogs love it.

"There are some types that you simply cannot get clothes on," they concede, "but there are more who are simply not happy unless they are well-dressed." For the latter type dog, "Canine Couturiere" offers hats by Mr. John, priced from $25 for the sports felts, to $50 for the feathered brocades.

* * *

In case your dog is one of the difficult varieties who might chew up a lovely $33.50 velvet wrap and consider a cherry-trimmed hat edible, the proprietresses understand. And they have a substitute gift to offer: a stocking, to hang by the doghouse with care.

It contains a bone, a pipe, a donut and an effigy of a cat.

"If you've got THAT kind of dog," they shrug, "he'll love it."

Fur Jacket Would Make a Practical Yule Present

Every girl would love a fur jacket from Santa this year, and this is a gift that is practical as well as glamorous.

Today's versatile fur jackets can go to campus or office and with a quick change of accessories step out for an evening dance date. Scrafs, flowers, jewelry, belts and such effect the transformation.

One of the popular budget furs of the season is sheared fox, according to latest reports from the fur manufacturers.

Sure to delight any girl is a sheared fox bolero, which can be worn over a wool dress to the office, and go festive for evening with a garland of artificial flowers strung together and worn in place of the daytime scarf.

A girl can give free play to her imagination and go gay with jewelry. Jeweled butterflies are not hard to find, and look wonderful pinned on the pockets of a fur jacket.

Family Series Helpful Guide

The Roman Catholic church offers pre-cana (preparation for marriage) and cana (post-marriage) conferences on the diocesan level. In Boston last year, 1,000 engaged couples attended pre-cana meetings and 600 married couples attended cana.

Protestant churches and Jewish temples are active with Sunday school classes, young people's forums, young married couples clubs and community programs.

In Chicago, the planned parenthood association together with the church federation of greater Chicago (Protestant) and the Chicago Rabbinical Association (Jewish) offer a four-meeting course to young couples.

A typical group of six couples met recently in the association's offices on Sunday afternoon. They heard a clergyman discuss spiritual aspects of marriage at the first meeting.

At subsequent sessions, they will hear a home economist discuss money management, a medical doctor detail the physical and psychological aspects of love and sex and a psychiatrist discuss the personality factors in marriage.

Pre-cana conferences are organized along similar lines. A priest, a doctor and a married couple lead the frank discussions.

Dr. Abraham Stone, of New York, has been conducting preparation for marriage clinics for the last 25 years at the marriage counsultation center, community church. He sums up the preparation for marriage philosophy this way:

"An hour's discussion before marriage may be more valuable then weeks of counselling later, after difficulties have arisen."

Accepts Bid and Breaks Prior Date

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "My husband and I and two other couples made reservations at one of the supper clubs for last Saturday night. It was to be a Dutch treat party.

"Friday evening, one of the wives who was supposed to come with us called and said that Mrs. X., who is socially prominent in this town, had asked her and her husband to a party Saturday night. She said that she would rather go there as it would give her husband an opportunity to meet some important people.

"I thought she was wrong to accept this other invitation when she had an appointment with us. The other wife feels as I do but our husbands think it was perfectly understandable and that there is no reason to feel slighted. What is your opinion?"

Answer: This really depends upon the importance of the opportunity that was offered to her husband by that invitation. Under ordinary circumstances, accepting this second invitation would be the height of rudeness. But if it was a real opportunity for him, I think their "rudeness" might be forgiven.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married Christmas week and would like to have the church decorated with red flowers and green foliage in keeping with the season. I have been told that red flowers are wrong at a wedding and that only white flowers are correct. Will you please give me your opinion?"

Answer: At this particular season, the Christmas colors would be most suitable.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be rude to complain about something at a lunch or dinner party given in a restaurant? I mean, can I say something to the waiter who serves me without embarrassing the hostess?"

Answer: As a guest, you cannot say anything because the impoliteness would be to the hostess.

Table Decorations Impress Your Guests

The general effect of your table will give your guests their first and most important impression. Decorated with imagination, a pretty table can become the focal point of any party. And, anyone has the wherewithal to make a table look attractive, colorful and a bit out of the ordinary.

The basis of a handsome table-setting is the table covering, so your starting point should be to match, blend, or contrast your tablecloth first with your dishes and then with the mood you wish to create for the over-all decor.

Sisters' Phone System Proves Convenient

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: My two teenage nieces have a telephone answering system that I don't approve. The phone rings, one of the girls goes to answer it and if it's for her sister she invariably asks who's calling before summoning her sister to the phone.

"I don't think it's proper. I think the one who is wanted on the phone should be permitted to find out who's calling herself. What do you think?"

Answer: In business offices the big boss is protected from phone calls by an efficient secretary. She invariably asks who's calling before turning over the phone to her boss.

He is forewarned and can be "out" if he doesn't want to accept the call. He, at least, is given time to collect his wits and be ready for the person at the other end of the line. He isn't taken by surprise.

Your two nieces obviously are playing secretary for each other. Neither one likes to be taken unaware on the phone.

Knowing who is calling ahead of time gives a girl a chance to ready her best friendly voice; gives her time to prepare an apology, an alibi, an excuse; gives her a moment to grab up her date book on the way so she can give a quick "yes" or "no" answer to an invitation.

If she doesn't want to talk to the person on the other end of the line, her sister can get the signal to say, "I thought she was in her room, but she doesn't seem to be here at the moment. I'm sorry. Can I take a message for her?"

All of this is two cooperative sisters covering for each other. And it's quite permissible, I would say. It's not prying curiosity. It's not meddling with concerns that aren't her own.

It's a rather high-type, helpful and cooperative telephone-answering system that both girls find convenient.

It's useful, too, for keeping relationships straight when one sister is out. The other can take messages, get names straight and written down, can get phone numbers for her sister to use in calling back.

She can do a real personal relations job so her absent sister won't miss out, or forget to follow through. It makes the one who is calling feel that his call has really registered and won't be forgotten.

So instead of disapproving their technique, leave them to it. The little complications of their separate social lives are being simplified by the active participation of each sister in the other's phone calls.

So long as each considers the other a trusted secretary, let them play it that way.

Plastic Snow Foam Is Most Versatile

Christmas centerpieces should be something special and festive in feeling. Experiment with different colored balls, green, and unusual combinations of colored candles.

Crepe paper or shiny stiff paper adapt to Angel, Christmas Tree, or Santa Claus motifs . . . easy to make, and if there are children in the house, they'll love to help. Don't overlook the possibilities of using plastic snow foam, which can be cut in any form, and decorated to suit your table color plan.

Watch Frozen Foods

Frozen foods, say experts, lose their tastiness if kept at temperatures higher than zero. Even though most of the area in a freezer remains at that temperature, the foods next to the door may be several degrees warmer.

Direct Charity Reflects Yule Spirit

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

That bleak Civil War Christmas, the four girls of Louisa Alcott's "Little Women" received only the poorest gifts.

* * *

Do you remember? Gloomily Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy were sitting down to breakfast when their mother appeared. Reporting a case of sickness down the road, she asked her hungry girls to forego their hot meal to pack it up—and deliver it to their needier neighbors.

They obeyed. Do you remember how the bleak Christmas turned out to be the happiest the girls ever had?

Writes a Mothers' Club to me: "Please suggest ways by which we can make Christmas more meaningful to children."

* * *

Of course it's not such a direct way as it used to be. Unlike Mrs. March, we no longer know who our needy neighbors are.

To discover who they are, you and I have to take extra steps—and telephone our Community Chest, United Fund or Community Council for direction on how, when and where our youngsters can give Christmas usefulness to others.

MUST BE PERSONAL

Even after we've got the direction, it's not straight sailing.

Certainly, we may learn that Alice is needed to stuff Christmas stockings for young patients in our hospital's children's ward. Our local Home for the Aged may be grateful to know that Johnny will help collect its greens for Christmas decoration.

As the Settlement House across town never has sufficient books, toys and games, it may be delighted to hear that Billy is thinking of giving it some he has outgrown.

But these interchanges between our children and their neighbors mean little to either until they become direct and personal.

So, to make Christmas neighborliness meaningful to Alice, she may have to visit the children's ward before she undertakes to stuff their stockings.

* * *

Before our son can really want to make festivity for the old people's home, he'll have to talk to several of them. Before Billy can joyfully surrender his toys, we may have to show him those his needier neighbors make do with in that Settlement House across town.

A LITTLE EFFORT

Today, to make Christmas meaningful for children, we have to take a little trouble.

We have to want to do it very much.

I hope the members of this Mothers' Club will want to very much. To support them in their calls to their Community Chest, United Fund or Community Council, let me offer these words by child psychiatrist Louise Despert:

"Beyond nourishing food and shelter from the elements, children need little that is material. But their needs of the spirit, though simple, are absolute. If these are not met, nothing can serve in their place. If needs of the spirit are met, nothing else matters."

Give Daughters Mom-type Gifts With Real Appeal

You can please a little girl by giving her a Mommy-type Christmas gift. That includes anything from compact to hair brush. They have definite appeal because they're "just like Mom's."

Give her a hairbrush like the one mother uses, a toiletries kit containing toilet water and bath powder, a manicure kit with emery boards, nail cream, polish to put twinkle in her finger nails while in her play world. Even a compact is created just for tiny tots amusement.

You can get a message over with your present. Gift her with a shoe shine kit and show her how to use it. It'll look mighty glamorous under the tree in a festive wrapping to take it out of the chore stage.

It's a good time too to present a nail brush. Wrap it daintily and put it in the stocking. Ditto tooth paste and tooth brush. There are available intriguing toothbrush holders—one plays chimes when the toothbrush is removed. It is attached to the bathroom wall with suction cups.

Flowers Bloom in New Drapery, Fabric Styles

NEW YORK (INS) — Spring is coming early this year in the fabric field — flowers are blooming on a large selection of the new drapery and upholstery offerings.

You can have them in the Oriental style — as in a new antique satin fabric with graceful sprigs of peacock blue and sandalwood colors.

Or you can buy large, formal flowered drapes with a wide repeat in cocoa, gold and pink.

If you want lots of little flowers, there's a pink, yellow and tan chintzy curtain fabric that might just fill the bill. Or a pattern of tiny little buds — all different kinds in all different shades of yellow — that makes a very dainty design for a young child's room.

For a provincial setting, there's a cotton twill upholstery fabric that also can be used for drapes. It's a big pattern of gold, brown and chartreuse flowers on a white background.

Camel Hair Wrap

Two yards of a coat-fabric or camel hair can become a new, fashionable wrap. Use it double or line it, but don't put fringes on if you want to wear it for daytime.

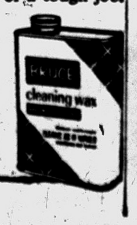

Smart women in Paris are wearing these wraps instead of a coat over a slim styled suit or even over a dress.

"Sure proud of my Peggy!"

I'm just as proud as a peacock of my Peggy for the efficient way she manages our home. For instance, many of her friends are still knocking themselves out scrubbing wood floors. But not my Peggy! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. And I'll be hanged if Peggy's floors aren't the talk of our block. I sure have to hand it to my Peggy and her Bruce Cleaning Wax for making easy work of a tough job. And I love 'em both for it!

Wool Styles Shown

There is, for instance, a pine-green shirtwaist dress which has a "trouser-skirt" that looks exactly like a straight sports skirt with two deep, inverted box-pleats at the front and back.

Yule Spirit Leaves Taxmen Unmoved on Bonus Bites

The modern Santa Claus to whom working men and women owe their thanks for bonuses at Christmastime has to figure things out with the tax man and other federal officials, according to Commerce Clearing House, national reporting agency on tax and business law.

A gift to employees must run the gamut of overtime pay rules, union relationships and federal income tax withholding before the employer can be certain he will avoid surprising unpleasantries.

The mere branding of a Christmas bonus as a "gift" does not relieve it of close scrutiny by the administrator of the federal wage-hour law and by the National Labor Relations Board, says a report by CCH. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue will also take a look to make sure that the tax is paid for social security purposes.

The federal wage and hour law provides that if the bonus is to be included in the employee's straight time earnings, it increases his basic hourly pay and thus raises his overtime rate.

Most bonuses paid at Christmastime do not need to be included in figuring overtime, says CCH, but there have been disillusionments when some employers failed to exercise utmost caution whn framing the conditions under which bonus payments to employees are made.

In some cases, the NLRB has ruled that bonuses which form a part of the workers' pay come wtihin the purview of collective bargaining. Employers, therefore, should be wary of what they call a "gift" bonus, CCH cautions.

Finally, the new and higher maximum for federal social security tax deductions must be reckoned with this year. This maximum is now $4,200, and unless taxes on this amount have already been withheld, taxes on any remainder up to this maximum must be taken out.

From the federal income tax standpoint, year-end or Christmas bonuses classify as remuneration for services where they are based on wages, salaries, length of service, company profits, etc.

Gasoline Blaze Burns 4

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The living room floor of a basement apartment burst into flames yesterday when it was being smeared with gasoline to remove a coat of paint. Robert Logsdon, 22, suffered second and third degree burns over most of his body. He reportedly had to cross the 12-by-14-foot room to the only exit. Three other persons suffered less severe burns.

Content of fat consists of about 9.7 per cent water.

State Yule Tree Crop Sufficient

Michigan Growers Say Little Change in Price Seen for Buyers

HART, Mich. (INS)—Good news for Michigan families: There will be little shortage of Christmas trees in the state and throughout the midwest.

Tre Michigan Christmas Tree Growers Association reports that they are still able to supply red pines and jack pines in fair quantity, despite reported shortages of trees from Montana and Canada.

The association said there are no large stockpiles of trees on the grower level for immediate loading and shipment, but added that uncut pines are still available and most growers are able to get out the trees on two or three days notice.

Eugene R. Kuhne, secretary of the MCTGA, admitted current prices are a few cents higher per tree than ten days ago because of higher labor costs involved in cutting and getting out trees.

However, he said little change on the retail level in Michigan is expected because most of the trees have changed hands prior to the heavy snowfall and at the regular prices.

Kuhne said most retail lots will be about five days late in getting set up this year, since loading and deliveries have been slowed by adverse weather conditions.

Collegians Rescued in Cave Landslide

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (INS) — Three University of Indiana students were telling their classmates today about how it feels to be trapped underground for three hours.

The three collegians — Larry Cooke, 19, Lonsdale, R. I.; Bob Jordan, 24, Seattle, and Barbara Rehard, 20, Wabash, Ind.—were trapped yesterday by a landslide in a cave 40 feet below the surface.

Nearly 2,000 persons responded to radio reports of the trio's plight and converged on the cave six miles southwest of Bloomington.

Two students, Bill Sparks of New Albany, Ind., and James Glatz of Rising Sun, Ind., were the heroes of the rescue. They entered the cave by another opening, crawled to where the three were trapped and led them out.

Christ's Coming Was Not to Make Nice People, but New Creatures

(The Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, Roman Catholic Bishop, has written a special Christmas book telling the story of the Nativity and its meaning through the ages. With the special permission of the author and publisher, International News Service herewith presents a condensation of the book, "The True Meaning of Christmas.")

By THE MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Christmas is not something that happened such as the Battle of Waterloo; it is something that is happening. What happened to the human nature which Christ took from Mary by her consent, can happen, in a lesser manner, to our human nature, by our free consent.

* * *

On our part, there must be the free response of man to the Divine initiative, but this implies dying to the lower existence of sin and selfishness, pride and lust. To become a Christian does not mean reading religious books, or singing hymns or being kind to neighbors; it means sharing the Divinity that first came to us at Bethlehem. We can conceive of our manhood being taken up into God, since God has humbled himself to take our nature.

When this Christ-life gets inside of us, it affects our intellect, by giving us a truth which reason itself cannot know; it affects our will, by giving us an impetus and an energy for good which we could not produce of and by ourselves. It is, in the truest sense of the term, a rebirth, except this time we are born not of the flesh but of the spirit.

As someone has said, "We are all eggs at present, but we just cannot go on being ordinarily 'decent eggs'. Either we have got to get hatched to the divine or else we rot."

DIVINE RADIATION

The descent of God to man, and eternity into time, makes a tremendous difference to all people whether they ever heard of Him or not, or whether they respond Him or not. From that point on, it is possible for man to divinize himself, not by his own efforts, but by response to Divine Life.

Just as our modern world is bathed in radio and television waves but only those who are tuned in to them receive their messages of knowledge and enjoyment, so, too, there is a radiation through history of this Divine life, but only those who freely appropriate it ever enjoy its peace and blessing.

Once, however, we assent to the Crucifixion of that which is low and base in us, His life can make the feeblest, filthiest of us blaze with a dazzling, radiant light so that we become as stainless mirrors that reflect the life of God. The process is not easy because the purpose of God's coming to man was not to make us nice people, but to make us new creatures.

TRANSCEND OUR NATURE

If marble suddenly began to bloom, and flowers suddenly began to move from shade to sunshine, and dogs began to quote Shakespeare and Dante, they would be manifesting a power and a capacity which was quite beyond their nature; so, too, if we who are creatures of God, pieces of his own handiwork, began to be partakers of his Divine nature and in the truest sense of the word his children, this would be something that transcends our nature far more than a marble blooming or a dog quoting poetry.

The power is there to make us different than we are; it is for our freedom to decide if we will respond, and if we are willing to pay the price of having the dross burned off the gold in the flames of love.

Let it not be said by anyone, "I am too foul; I am a beast; I am not worthy to be lifted up." It was to assure just such persons as these that He was born in a stable, and on His first night in this world companioned with beasts.

(Condensed from the book published by McGraw-Hill, Inc., New York. Copyright, 1955, by Fulton J. Sheen.)

Group Says Automation Needs No Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate-House Economic subcommittee says its recent study of the impact of automation showed no need for new legislation to meet problems resulting from increased use of automatic processes in business and industry.

Reporting last night, the subcommittee said automation inevitably will cause worker dislocation and many individual hardships. But it said "no specific broad-gauge economic legislation appears to be called for" at the present time.

Santa and the Dumdiddy

By Lucrece Hudgins Beale

AP Newsfeatures

SYNOPSIS: The Dumdiddy follows the robber's arrows to the toy store. There he sees the robber fill a bag with toys and then dump a bottle of Stick Tight Glue on the floor to trap Beanie. The Dumdiddy thinks up a plan to keep Beanie from following the arrows into the shop.

Chapter Seven

THE FALSE TRAIL

The little Dumdiddy heaved the mighty piece of chalk to his shoulder and ran a few feet down the street. Then he lowered the chalk and made an arrow on the pavement. He lifted the chalk, ran a few more feet and made another arrow.

And so he went, as fast as his poor knobby feet could carry him, drawing arrows through the town.

Meantime, back in the alley where the redheaded robber had left him, Beanie huddled on his heels and shivered. At last an hour had passed and it was time for him to follow the arrows.

The more he thought about it the less he liked going. But he was afraid of making the robber angry. And he was afraid the robber would know he was afraid.

"I'm as brave as anyone," he told himself fiercely. "I'll show him!"

He got to his feet and set out to follow the chalk arrows the robber had left for him. They led him off the main street and down alleys and through empty streets. He passed store after store but the arrows never stopped. He passed large warehouses and factories and still the arrows went on. He went down streets where there were only private homes and not a store in sight and still the arrows went on.

* * *

Finally he found himself out of town on a road leading to Far Away Places and there, where there were no houses or stores or anything except a road, there the arrows ended.

Beanie searched and searched but he could find no more arrows. He was exhausted. He sank down by the road and he thought, "The robber has tricked me!'

In his heart he was glad and he said, "I hope I never see him again!" He curled up in a pile of leaves beside the road and fell sound asleep.

As soon as Beanie snored his first snore, the little Dumdiddy struggled down from a nearby rock where he'd been waiting. With a sigh of relief he threw away the last tiny speck of chalk he held in his hand. Then he slipped into Beanie's pocket and he, too, fell asleep.

The next morning when Beanie awoke he was hungry. He reached in his pocket for the raisins and nuts he had brought from home. But they were all gone. The Dumdiddy had finished them off.

Beanie found the Dumdiddy in his pocket. He pulled it out and thought about how his sister, Betsy, had made it for a present for Santa Claus.

"What a dope she is!" said Beanie and he started to throw the little figure away. But there was something so sad in the Dumdiddy's expression that Beanie changed his mind.

"The thing looks almost real," he thought and he dropped it back into his pocket. "Well, anyway, I must get some food."

* * *

He rose and looked about. Far off in the forest he saw smoke curling among the tree tops. He followed the smoke until he came to a little purple house sitting all alone in a clearing.

In front of the door stood a big black pot. Beanie climbed over the pot and knocked at the door. A kind-faced woman opened the door. She smiled at Beanie.

"I am hungry," said the boy. "Could I have some food?"

"Certainly, you poor dear boy," said the old woman. "Come right in." She led Beanie into a pleasant room where everything was neat and orderly except for three black pots that stood one behind the other in the middle of the room.

"Now, rest yourself," said the woman, "while I fix you some food."

Beanie turned away and looked out of the window. "How lucky I am to have found such a kind old lady!" he thought.

The Dumdiddy, peeping at the old lady from Beanie's back pocket, was thinking the same thing when suddenly he saw the old lady put both hands to her face and give it a tug.

Next: Witch of the Black Pots

"COULD I HAVE SOME FOOD?" — When Beanie knocked at the door of a purple little house sitting alone in the clearing, he was met by a kind looking old lady. When Beanie asked her for food, the old lady smiled and led him into a pleasant room where everything was neat and orderly except for three black pots that stood one behind the other in the middle of the room.

Dems Blamed for Farm Plight

Benson Hits Stevenson Speech on Surpluses and Declining Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Benson said yesterday the problem of piled-up farm surpluses and declining farm prices began with the Democrats, labor had nothing to do with it, and Stevenson well knows it.

Benson issued his statement through the Republican National Committee in reply to a Stevenson speech before the AFL-CIO convention in New York last Thursday.

Stevenson, a candidate for the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination, spoke then of "what appears to be a design" of "ugly politics." He said "it started with the secretary of agriculture's attempt to blame the farmer's current depression on the city worker's wage increase."

Benson said Stevenson had "misrepresented my views."

Actually, declared Benson, the farm problem "grew out of the Democrat (sic) administration's refusal to face facts. Labor had nothing to do with the origin of the farmer's troubles, as Mr. Stevenson well knows."

The GOP farm chief said past Democratic programs encouraged farmers to overproduce and "as a result of these programs, farm prices today are out of line with profits and wages. It said just that before the Farm Equipment Institute in New Orleans on Sept. 20, 1955."

In his New Orleans speech Benson said that in the preceding 4½ years "a considerable part of the increased profits that have gone to industry and the higher wages that have gone to labor have been siphoned from the economic blood stream at the expense of agriculture."

Ex-Cabbie Held in Coed's Death

Conflicting Stories Told by Suspect Lead to His Arrest in Slaying

OMAHA (AP)—A former taxicab driver, who gave conflicting accounts of his activities the night coed Carolyn Marie Nevins, 20, was slain, was held for questioning today.

• • •

Detective Inspector Ernest Brown said the man denied the slaying when he was questioned after Bill Billotte, Omaha World-Herald reporter, received a tip that the man had said while sitting in a bar: "I killed that broad."

He said the man first told police he was at home that night, then said he couldn't recall where he was. The man had a scratch on his cheek which he could not explain, Brown said.

• • •

Carolyn, a junior honor student at the University of Omaha, was shot four times sometime between 10:55 p.m. Friday and 4:10 a.m. Saturday. Her body was found by a driveway leading from the campus.

• • •

She was last seen sitting outside the university's main building waiting for her father to pick her up in the family car. Her father was delayed and when he reached the university she was gone.

Miami Sees Arson in Downtown Blaze

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A fire burning out of control nearly two hours caused an estimated $200,000 damage in downtown Miami yesterday and forced 90 guests to evacuate an adjoining hotel.

• • •

Nobody was seriously injured.

The cause was not determined but J. W. Davis, chief of the Miami Fire Prevention Bureau, said, "We're not dispelling the possibility of arson."

• • •

The fire was discovered about noon in a building which housed a men's clothing store and a shoe store. The nearby Roberts Hotel was damaged by smoke and water.

Cleveland Police End Youth-Burning Case

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police last night dropped an investigation into the case of a 17-year-old boy who told a story about having been burned, whipped and stripped by teenage kidnapers. Detectives said the youth's parents would not reveal the result of a psychiatric examination given him last March.

"In view of the parents' negative attitude on the medical report, we're finished with the case for all practical purposes, Detective Capt. David E. Kerr said.

The youth, Earl R. Fryman, remained in critical condition at Fairview Park Hospital his body covered with burns. He has been there since Tuesday, when he staggered in naked and chained to a tree limb, saying three youths had stripped him and burned him with turpentine.

Last January the boy fled from an Illinois Catholic seminary where he was studying to be a priest, and showed up in Florida. He invented a kidnap story that time, too, Capt. Kerr said.

Police Are Stymied; Who Escaped Jail?

IAEGER, W.Va. (AP)—Police are looking for 10 men who smashed out of the town jail yesterday, but they face one big obstacle.

Authorities don't know who the escapees are, because they took the jail records with them.

State trooper C. N. Otto quoted officials of this little McDowell county community that the jail had about 20 occupants Saturday night, virtually all of whom were booked for being drunk.

Sometime before dawn Sunday, while there was no guard, the group of 10 managed to smash the lock and hustle to freedom.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 3-year-old girl, snatched virtually from under her father's nose, was found sobbing in a park nearly 20 miles from her home, and early today a paroled sex offender was jailed on suspicion of kidnaping and child molestation.

* * *

Sheriff's Lt. Harry Hall said Cynthia Hardacre of suburban Baldwin Park was terrified by her seven-hour ordeal, but apparently not seriously harmed.

He said Robert Lewis Kracker, 20, had given a statement admitting he drove the child in his car to Elysian Park and took off her underclothing. He denied any attack.

* * *

The investigator said the girl had dashed out into Kracker's car thinking it was her father's. The father, machinist Charles Hardacre, had gone around the block to pick up his sister, and drove up in time to see the other car leave. He said he saw a little girl in it, but in the dark didn't recognize her as his daughter.

NEW DOLLS have rooted synthetic hair that gives little girls good practice in home shampoos and permanents. The hair dryer shown here is non-electric, but really works.

Non-Electric Hair Dryer Gives Dolly a Permanent

Dolls under the Christmas tree this year have muscular flexibility. This is the latest development in the toy industry's effort to make dolls "almost human."

The Toy Guidance Council, reviewing the evolution of the ancient rag doll, reports that doll designers have developed new thrillers. So-called muscular flexibility has turned the trick.

A ballerina doll, equipped with such coordinated muscles, can achieve virtually any position in ballet routine. It is one of the prestige toy selections chosen by consumers as outstanding.

The new devices for realistic muscular control have resulted in doll babies than seem more realistic than ever before. One doll cries wet tears directly from its eyes. Another has a flexible mouth designed for kissing and equipped with a tooth brush to keep its teeth shining white.

Almost all the new dolls have rooted synthetic hair than can stand up under daily shampooing, brushing and setting. And a new thrill for junior hairdressers is a non-electric miniature hair dryer that really works.

Playtime promenades with dolly will be enhanced by a new deluxe doll carriage designed by Jack Chrisman with a handle that expands four full inches.

This assures doll mothers perfect posture while promenading for three or more years. Pink prams, specially designed for the toddler are non-collapsible and made of quilted plastic that's safe for sucking.

Doll wardrobes stress varied accessories. One very complete wardrobe for a glamour doll supplies wigs of different colors, so doll mothers can turn their darlings into blonds or brunettes.

* * *

Fastidious Chicagoan Can Now Bathe in Jail

CHICAGO (INS)—Juan Pelaciuz believes in clean living but that didn't save him from a disorderly conduct charge.

Mrs. Diane Korzen discovered the fastidious Pelaciuz, clad only in soapsuds, in her bathtub on Chicago's north side.

Drunken Young Girls Cause Detroit Arrest

DETROIT (INS) — William Barber, 42, a Detroit factory worker, was held by police today after three young girls were found in a drunken condition in his home Sunday.

Police said the girls, two sisters, 12 and 13, and a 12-year-old cousin stopped to visit Barber and his wife on their way to church yesterday. Mrs. Barber was working at a bakery.

When the girls failed to return home, a relative began searching for them and went to Barber's home. He was not there but the girls were — all, police said, in a drunken stupor.

The girls were taken to Receiving Hospital where doctors said they had not been molested. Barber was arrested when he returned home later in the day.

NEW YORK (AP) — August Heckscher, chief editorial writer for the New York Herald Tribune, will become director of the Twentieth Century Fund Jan. 1. He will succeed J. Frederick Dewhurst. The fund supports research and public education on economic and social questions.

Twin Brothers, 10, Lost in Woods for Five Hours

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Two 10-year-old brothers mingled tears, prayers and shouts for help yesterday while lost in thick woods for five hours.

* * *

The disappearance of Ronald and Donald Scott touched off a giant search by about 500 men before they were found 3½ miles from where they vanished while looking for a Christmas tree.

The twins were red-eyed from weeping and shivering from the near-freezing cold but otherwise unharmed.

They became separated from their parents Mr. and Mrs. Otis Scott in a hilly section near Grant's Mill east of Birmingham and weren't located until about 8:30 p.m.

* * *

"We walked a while and cried a while," said Ronald. "Then we lay down and slept a while. We prayed and prayed."

When they were returned to their home at Irondale, their father said jokingly:

"I've been calling you."

Burglars Net $60,000 From Chicago Home

CHICAGO (INS) — A retired Chicago business executive reported to police last night that weekend burglars took jewelry and furs forth $60,000 from his fifth floor apartment.

George L. Simmonds, former president of the United States Canitary Specialties Corp., said the thieves apparently entered his North Side apartment with a key, since there were no marks on the door.

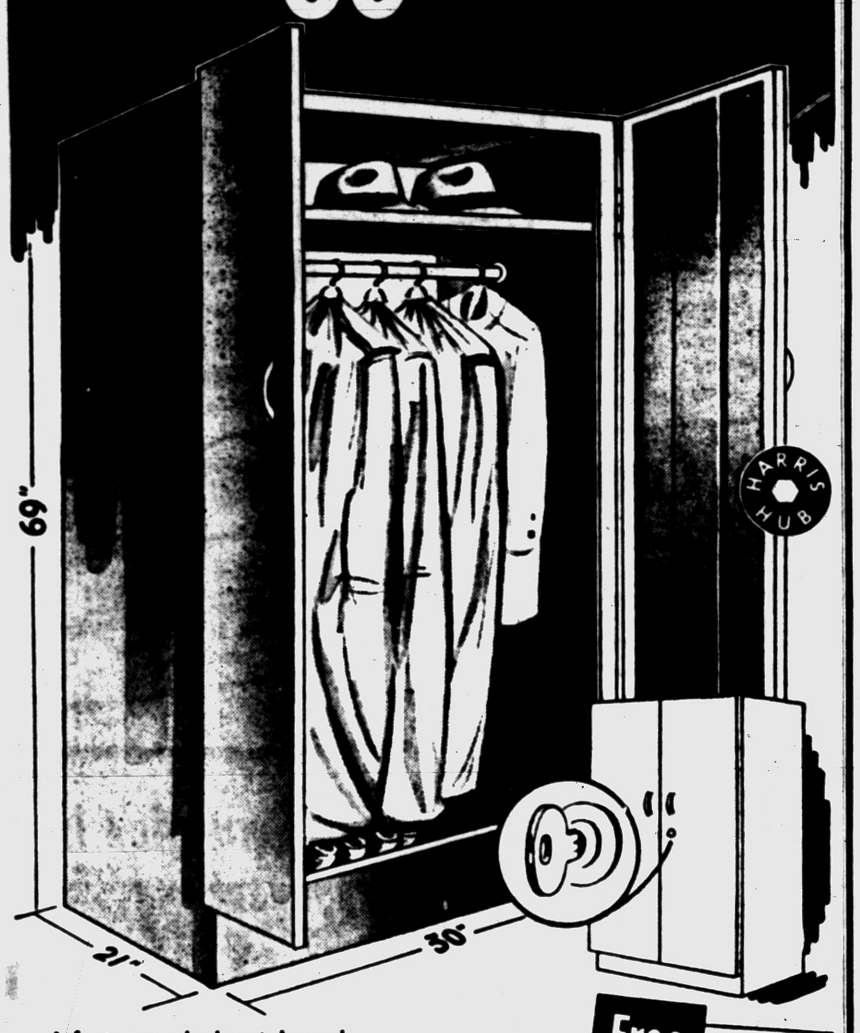

The loot included a platinum bracelet with 20 square diamonds, valued at $20,000; a platinum necklace set with 106 diamonds, valued at $16,000 and a $2,000 mink jacket belonging to his wife.

Simply Fabulous Time

Audience Waits 5 Hours to See Cornell Perform

By KATHARINE CORNELL

A Christmas I shall always remember is that exciting and simply fabulous one of 1933. Surely no one in our company of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" will ever forget the Christmas we spent together that year.

* * *

CORNELL

Nor will it be soon forgotten by the many citizens of Seattle who waited patiently at the Metropolitan Theater for an opening night curtain that was five hours late in rising.

Christmas Eve of that year fell on a Sunday and our company was traveling through Montana. With us was my husband, Guthrie McClintic, who had joined our tour in St. Paul for the express purpose o' seeing our performances in his home town of Seattle.

All of Sunday as we journeyed across the wide expanse that is Montana, there were prodigious preparations in the dining car for the Christmas dinner which Guthrie and I had arranged for the railroad to serve to the members of our company.

* * *

There were some 40 of us including actors, electricians, property men, carpenters and wardrobe personnel. The dining car had been reserved for us from 8:30 p.m. on.

TROUBLE WAS BREWING

There was immense fun that night and great good will, but even as the last toasts were drunk and the troupe scattered to their berths with much wishing of Merry Christmas and quotations from Tiny Tim, Guthrie and I were growing uneasy because of telegraphed reports that the December rains were slowing up transit through the state of Washington. The following morning we learned of the possibility of trestle washouts as our train eventually reached Spokane.

This was Christmas Day, Monday, and we were scheduled to begin a week's engagement in Seattle that night. We traveled at a snail's pace, and as rain-drenched darkness fell, we were still far from Seattle.

Seven o'clock, eight o'clock, nine o'clock passed and by this time we had all given up hope of ever giving a performance that night. But, God bless them, we reckoned without knowledge of the will, the courage and—may I in all modesty add—the affection of the people of Seattle.

CURTAIN ROSE AT 1:05

At 11:15 p.m. on Christmas night our exhausted and unhappy troupe finally climbed down on the station platform at Seattle. There to our astonishment we learned from the theater manager that the entire audience which had assembled for an 8:30 p.m. curtain still awaited us. It was the most glowing tribute I have ever received in my life.

Hauling of our scenery and costumes from the railroad cars to the theater took even more time. At exactly 1:05 a.m. the house lights went down and the curtain went up with me at my post on the couch. (Miss Barrett was an invalid, confined to a couch.)

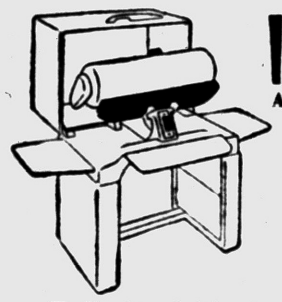

The final curtain fell at a quarter to four in the morning. And that blessed audience, feeling, perhaps, that it was too late by this time to go to bed at all, stayed to give more curtain calls than our exhausted actors had ever heard.

Parts of a skull believed to date back 200,000 years has been found at Swanscombe, England.

Reds Use Radio Attack

NEW YORK (AP) — Russia's East European satellites have stepped up their propaganda campaign against Western radio broadcasts, Radio Free Europe reports. The increase has been evident since the Geneva summit meeting last July and includes intensified attacks in newspaper and magazine articles and in official radio broadcasts, Free Europe said yesterday.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Flood of Christmas Mail May Break Postal Record

The prediction that the 1955 flood of Christmas packages and letters will break all previous records was made today by Acting Postmaster Leslie H. Dean Sr.

"Last year," the postal official said, "we handled a total of 3 million pieces of mail between December 1 and December 25. This year we have already sent and received 250,000 cards, letters and packages—and the real rush is just starting."

The volume of mail brought a warning from Dean that packages to out-of-state points after today may not be delivered in time for Christmas.

The flow of cards, he said, is running about normal but parcel post is behind schedule. He advises senders to use the air mails to insure prompt delivery of packages and cards sent after this week.

Hard - pressed postal employes will be aided in their task if senders bring packages to the post offices between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m., and before 10 a.m., the postmaster pointed out.

In an additional appeal for cooperation, Dean suggests that area residents leave porch lights on at night as an aid to late-working carriers.

Man Held in Slaying Over Burial Hassle

WARTHEN, Ga. (AP)—A 45-year-old man was accused today of killing another man with his car in a churchyard after an argument over where to bury a child.

Sheriff J. B. Garrett said Stonewall Jackson was held on a murder charge in the death of Sol Andrews, 62.

Garrett gave this account:

Some 18 persons went to the churchyard for the funeral of a child. An argument developed between Andrews and Jackson as to where the child should be buried.

Jackson jumped into his car, chased Andrews and ran him down. He was arrested an hour later near Sparta.

Garrett could not identify the child nor say whether it was related to Jackson or Andrews.

Anti-Integration Move

ATLANTA (AP) — Georgia's state parks will be sold if it is not possible to maintain segregation in them legally, Lt. Gov. Ernest Vandiver and House Speaker Marvin Moate said yesterday.

The pansy is one of the oldest garden flowers in cultivation.

Miuts, Munipuks, Nuna

Future Statehood Has Alaskans Name Calling

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — Any miuts from other munipuks in this territory who want to sound off about what to name populated areas in the future state of Alaska are invited to show up in this Nunapuk tomorrow.

• • •

But don't be coming around here talking like you're from some big metropolitan area, se. That'll be metropolitan area, see. That'll be will be listened to with interest by the Committee on Local Government at the constitutional convention now in session on the University of Alaska campus.

The committee members are in a quandary, facing a real crisis in deciding what words to use to designate their populated areas. Ordinary states call them towns, shires, parishes, borroughs, bergs, even cities.

But the committee members think this isn't suitable for this land of the Aleut and the Eskimo, the Indian and the white man. So they have tentatively dreamed up some words with native derivatives and just a dash of the white man's tongue.

These include "nuna," "nunapuk," "munipuk" and "nunat" for areas, and "miut" for people in the araes.

Nuna means inhabited areas, nunapuk is big inhabited area and nunat means fixed area in this jargon. A suggestion added "puk;" which means big, to muni to make munipuk or a big municipality.

None of it is final yet and anyone with ideas is invited to express them in convention hall on the campus tomorrow morning.

To Talk in Kentucky

GEORGE'S - NEWPORT'S

In Court Today

Breach of Contract Filed Against Bobo

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The trial of a $500,000 breach of contract suit against Carl (Bobo) Olson and Sid Flaherty, his manager, starts today in the court of Federal Judge Oliver Carter.

Herbert Campos, Honolulu dairyman, claims in his action that Olson is bound by a 1949 contract to pay him one-third of all his purses from July, 1951, until July 15, 1959.

* * *

He has remained in seclusion and has dodged reporters since flying back to California.

* * *

"Bobo and the children played for two hours," Dolores said. "They certainly were glad to see him—and he certainly was happy to see them.

"Bobo looked wonderful, even if he did have a black eye.

"He must go to court on this other thing tomorrow," Dolores said. "Then we're going to see what we can do about our own case."

In a divorce action filed last month Mrs. Olson asked $2,000 a month support money and division of $200,000 in property.

Lions Lose Doak Walker's Farewell Game, 24-19

DETROIT (AP)—Doak Walker said goodbye to football yesterday. And the little Texan bowed out as expected—like a champion.

Walker, playing his final game for the Detroit Lions, climaxed a great career by scoring 11 points to clinch the National Football League scoring title for the 2nd time in six years, and become the 3rd highest scorer in league history.

But even more impressive than these cold statistics was the brief halftime speech by Walker, after he was honored by fans and officials alike.

Even the fact that the Lions were in the process of losing a 24-19 decision to the New York Giants didn't detract from the warm feeling which spread throughout icy Briggs Stadium as Walker spoke into the loud speaker, using his best Texas drawl.

He said the conventional things at first: "I would like to thank the officials of the Detroit Lions, my coaches, and my team mates."

Then, with a sweep of his hand, he turned around and pointed to the center-field sector of the ball park and said: "But most of all, I'd like to thank the people out there, the people in the bleachers. They've been wonderful."

An instantaneous roar went up from the fans in the cheaper seats, the "bleacherites," who in six seasons sat through rain, snow and sleet to watch Walker and never once aimed their sometimes bitter criticisms at him.

Walker's 11 points yesterday gave him 96 for the season. He also won the scoring crown with 128 points in his rookie year in 1950. He was 2nd with 106 last year.

His six-year total of 534 points ranks him behind only Don Hutson andf Bob Waterfield, both of whom played more seasons than Walker.

Walker's record is remarkable in view of the fact he went to the Lions tabbed as a "glamour boy." An outstanding star for Southern Methodist, he won the Heisman Trophy in 1947 and the Maxwell Award in 1948.

Weighing only 165 pounds, he was considered a prime target for the ruffians of the National League. But Walker earned the respect of the bigger players almost from the start with his intense, clean play.

Walker was instrumental in Detroit's two league championships in 1952 and 1953. He made the big touchdown run against the Cleveland Browns in the '52 game, after playing only two games during the regular season because of injuries.

Lions have retired Walker's No. 37 jersey, the 1st time they've ever made such a move.

His grab of Gilmer's pass, a play covering 25 yards, came after 70 seconds of play and put the Lions into a 7-0 lead.

As it turned out, that was Detroit's only touchdown until Lew Carpenter raced 19 yards to score midway in the final quarter.

In between, the Giants hammered away for three touchdowns and a field goal to heap final humiliation on the Lions. It gave Detroit a record of three victories and nine losses in a season which must rank as one of the biggest flops on record.

Gilmer, subbing for the injured Bobby Layne, set a Detroit record for attempted passes. He tried 49 and completed 24 for 254 yards. Carpenter caught 10 of Gilmer's tosses for 91 yards and also carried the ball 11 times for another 36 yards.

However, the Giants clinched the game by scoring twice within 80 seconds in the 2nd quarter. Halfback Frank Gifford tallied both times to break a 7-7 tie. Gifford raced 21 yards for the 1st tally, then combined with quarterback Tom Heinrich on a 37-yard pass play for the other.

NBA Reports Bribe Offers to 3 Coaches

League Is Checking on Phone Call Offers Made Last Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Maurice Podoloff, president of the National Basketball Assn., said today the league definitely was trying to check on a series of mysterious telephone calls in which three coaches have been offered bribes to either lose a game or control the point spread.

* * *

Al Cervi, coach of the Syracuse Nationals, and Bobby Wanzer, player-coach of the Rochester Royals, reported that they received calls from unidentified men before yesterday's games. Last week Charle Eckman of the Fort Wayne Pistons received two telephone calls.

"We are trying to check them," said Podoloff, "even though I think they are the work of crackpots. But we are stabbing in the dark since all of the calls were long distance and it was impossible to trace them."

* * *

He said Eckman's calls came from Minneapolis and Chicago. The call to Cervi, received by an office attendant, came from Minneapolis. Wanzer said his call was from St. Louis. All the coaches reported the incidents to the police.

"Tell Cervi to lose this game (with Boston) or not win it by more than six points," was the information relayed to the Syracuse coach. "Tell him there will be $1,000 in it for him and a couple of hundred for yourself."

Wanzer said he was told not to win the game with the St. Louis Hawks by more than seven points and "there will be $1,000 in the mail for you tomorrow."

* * *

Syracuse won its game from Boston 101-89 for its seventh straight home victory. The Royals beat the Hawks 93-91 to take over first place in the Western Division. In the only other league action yesterday Fort Wayne downed the Philadelphia Warriors 96-91.

INS Listing Shows LaSalle Out of Top 10

Loss to Niagara Is Second for Explorers in 4 Games

NEW YORK (INS)—San Francisco, Duquesne and North Carolina State headed a list of the nation's top ten college basketball teams today—a list conspicuous by the absence of perennial championship contenders Kentucky and LaSalle.

International News Service's first nationwide survey of the 1955-56 season finds Kentucky down in 13th place and LaSalle not even listed in the top 20.

Kentucky, Southeastern conference champions and the nation's No. 6 team last year with a brilyear's first roll call of powerhouses as a result of its stunning 73-to-61 loss Saturday night to Temple—the Wildcats' first home opener defeat in 29 years.

La Salle, No. 3 last year (26-5) but minus both its all-America Tom Gola and coach Ken Loeffler, dropped its second game in four starts Saturday night — a 72-to-70 heartbreaker to Niagara.

Other than the Wildcats and Explorers, this week's top ten closely resembles the group which closed out the 1954-55 campaign. Only other absentee is Marquette, finishing 18th, while new faces include Vanderbilt, Temple and George Washington.

Behind North Carolina State, in descending order, are (4) Dayton, (5) Utah, (6) Vanderbilt, (7) Temple, (8) Iowa, (9) Colorado and (10) George Washington.

The second ten: (11) North Carolina, (12) Kansas, (13) Kentucky, (14) Brigham Young, (15) Rice, (16) Alabama, (17) Holy Cross, (18) Marquette, (19) West Virginia, (20) Navy.

Kramer Leads Michigan Five in 77-71 Win

Kramer, standout end on the Michigan football team, dumped in 20 points Saturday night as the Wolverines upended Nebraska, 77-71, for their 1st basketball victory of the season.

Michigan led all the way, building up a 50-39 halftime lead and staving off a Cornhusker rally late in the 2nd half which narrowed the score to 67-66. Then Kramer sank three straight baskets to widen the margin again.

Pete Tillotson, 6-foot-6 Michigan sophomore, also showed up well. Entering the game in the 1st half, he hit four straight baskets in overcoming another Nebraska rally and ended up with 16 points.

Parker, 4 Aides Stay With Club

The retentions were announced by Edwin L. Anderson, president, a few hours before the Lions dropped their 9th game and wound up in the cellar of the league's Western Division. Detroit won only three all year.

Santee Runs 31st in Handicap Race

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—America's top miler, Wes Santee, finished 31st yesterday in the Penn AC cross country handicap race. But the former Kansas star, now stationed with the Marines at Quantico, Va., had the best elapsed time of the 54 harriers who competed in rain and mud.

The winner in the five mile run was John Tibbets, another Quantico Marine, whose time was 31 minutes and 20 seconds including a 90 second handicap. Santee's time was 27:36.

No Marked Changes Expected in Grid Rules When NCAA Rules Group Meets Next Month

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the past two years, since it took the radical step of abolishing the platoon system, the National Football Rules Commitee has made only a few minor changes in the playing code of college football. Most of them couldn't even be noticed by the fans.

When it meets next month, the committee apparently won't have much more work to do according to indications in the annual Associated Press post-season survey. By a count of about 3 to 1, the sports writers and broadcasters participating indicated that there's no marked desire for a change in the 1955 rules.

Out of 149 experts replying to the AP questionnaire, 95 said there was no marked agitation for changes. Twenty gave flat affirmative answers and 14 detected some minor moves for changes. The 20 who left the space blank presumably can be added to the "no" total.

Given a chance to make suggestions of their own or to relay the ideas of others, the writers and broadcasters came up with a few proposals which may or may not be considered by the rules committee.

No. 1 on the list was a return to the platoon system. Fourteen listed that proposal—some merely as a reflection of coaches' ideas. Others advocated it strongly as providing the fans with a better brand of technical football and giving more players opportunity for action. Six more suggested liberalizing the substitution rule in various ways and two favored tightening it.

One Michigan writer noted: "The small colleges want a return to two-platoon but the rules committee pays no attention to small colleges." Another proposed unlimited substitution, coupled with a limit on the number of players allowed to dress for a game, as an aid to small squads.

Two or three writers backed the suggestion of allowing sideline coaching along the lines proposed by Minnesota's Murray Warmath and Boston University's Buff Donelli. They would allow coaches to talk to their players at the sidelines during time outs as coaches of other sports do.

There were a couple of calls for the elimination of the "sucker shift"—which the committee found itself unable to do last year—and faked injuries. A concrete suggestion on the latter was to stop the clock after each play during the final minute of each half.

Other suggestions:

Penalties should be lengthened to a limit of 50 yards for certain underhanded plays because there is too much aggressiveness and not enough sport.

Possibly change number of time outs permitted. There have been more delays this year.

Change dead ball rule. Call the ball down if runner is hit and goes down, whether or not in grasp of opponent. Permit runner to get up if he slips without being hit.

The Two Sides of War

By GRANTLAND RICE

All wars are planned by older men
In council rooms apart,
Who call for greater armament

How very young their faces were

Portly and solemn, in their pride
The elders cast their vote
For this or that, or something else,
That sounds the warlike note.

I've noticed nearly all the dead

Wings Blank Rangers, 2-0 for 1st Time

Detroiters Remain in Third Place Despite Saturday Loss

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings are back in undisputed possession of 3rd place in the National Hockey League standings today, after beating the New York Rangers for the 1st time in six meetings last night. The score was 2-0.

Detroit, defending its 7th was completely outclassed in its other weekend game, however. It dropped a 4-2 decision to the league-leading Montreal Canadiens at Montreal Saturday night.

Despite the loss last night, the Rangers remained in 2nd place, a full eight points ahead of the Red Wings. Montreal is 18 points ahead of Detroit.

Compared with the 10 saves Hall made, New York Goalie Lorne Worsley had to make 45 to keep the score from soaring to fantastic proportions. Several of Worsley's stops were downright sensational.

As indicated by Worsley's saves, the play was lopsided throughout, although both Detroit goals came while New York was shorthanded.

Rookie John Bucyk scored his 1st National Hockey league goal and Red Kelly, a converted defenseman, got his 5th of the season to lead Detroit to victory.

Lou Fontinate was serving the 4th New York penalty when Bucyk clipped in a 15-footer with Alex Delvecchio's faceoff pass in the 2nd period. Guy Gendron was in the penalty box when Kelly counted 15 seconds after the 3rd period opened on a pass from Dutch Reibel.

Cooling Off Spell Needed, Coaches Think

Mentors Say Scribes Should Hold Up Visit to Dressing Rooms

* * *

Eliot also told coaches they should discard their "crying towels" and be as straightforward as they can with writers.

The two coaches spoke yesterday at a clinic held by the Missouri Sports Writers Assn.

* * *

Stalcup said the cooling off period is needed after games because "there are things a man can say in the heat of the moment that he'll be mighty sorry for a bit later."

TCU Prepares for Cotton Bowl

Returns to Practice Sessions for Contest With Mississippi

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Texas Christian's Horned Frogs return to the practice field today to start preparations for their Cotton Bowl date with Mississippi. The resumption of workouts after two week's vacation finds Coach Abe Martin still worrying.

"The best I can figure," said the TCU head man, "is that we've got quite a battle on our hands. It will be a game that the spectators will enjoy but rough on the coaches. I think it'll be an offensive show with so many touchdowns we'll have a hard time keeping up with them."

Martin still knows little about Mississippi except what he has heard and read. He has sent two game films to Johnny Vaught, coach of Mississippi, and is waiting to receive two from Vaught showing the Rebels in action.

TCU and Mississippi both have gaudy offensive records. The Rebels gained 3,377 yards rushing and passing in 10 games. Texas Christian made 3,549. Defensively the Horned Frogs appear superior, having allowed only 240.3 yards per game compared to 266.7 for the Rebels.

Deposed Stotz Given Backing

Ex-Little League Head Receives Help From 60 Field Representatives

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A group of field representatives has given deposed Little League Commissioner Carl Stotz its backing in his dispute with the national baseball organization for youngsters.

The vote of confidence, not unexpected, was made yesterday as some 60 field representatives invited here by Stotz, founder of the league, completed a two-day meeting.

Stotz was deposed as commissioner after he announced a $300,000 breach of contract suit against the league. The breach of contract, said Stotz, resulted from changes in by-laws of the organization that damaged his "power, prestige and authority."

Little League has denied the charges, asserting that all changes were made by the board of directors and that Stotz participated in the board actions.

Stotz and league officials meanwhile continue their private negotiations in an effort to effect an out of court settlement of the dispute.

The negotiations have brought to a halt court action on the league's petition for a permanent injunction that would bar Stotz from setting up a rival group to be known as "Original Little League."

Phils Crown Champ

The blond centerfielder, holder of a lifetime batting average of tying the major league record of over .300, was almost 20 percentage points ahead of his nearest rival, defending champion Willie Mays of New York. The Giants centerfielder edged St. Louis Cardinal Stan Musial by a scant fourtenths of a point with a .3189 average.

Mays was the champ in the power department with 51 home runs tying the major league record of six set by the National League last year. They included Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski (47), Ernie Banks of Chicago (44), Duke Snider of Brooklyn (42), Ed Mathews of Milwaukee (41) and Wally Post of the Redlegs (40).

Snider, star center-fielder of the Brooklyn Dodgers, was runs-batted-in champion with 136. He also scored 126 times to retain the scoring title he holds now for the 3rd straight year.

Kluszewski, 4th in batting with a .314 average behind MVP Roy Campanella's .318, piled up the most hits of 192. Last season's hit leader, Don Mueller of New York, had the most singles, 152. And Milwaukee's Johnny Logan and Hank Aaron shared the two-base crown, each clouting 37 doubles.

For the 3rd straight year, Milwaukee's Billy Burton stole the most bases, bringing his total to 85 with 25 steals this past season.

Mueller compiled the longest hitting streak of 24, registering 44 hits in 102 times at bat for a .431 percentage from April 14 to May 15 inclusive.

First Bobcat Season Set for State Hunters

LANSING—First bobcat hunting season in Michigan history will open Dec. 15 in the Lower Peninsula.

The hunting season on 'cats will close March 15.

Bear Fan Was Just Hopeful

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams had just finished roaring into the dressing room after their Western Conference title win yesteday when Coach Sid Gillman held up a gold cuff link for nosy reporters.

It was inscribed: "Chicago Bears, 1955 Football Champions."

Gillman said a friend in Chicago had sent it to him during the week.

"Someone back there," said Sid, "jumped the gun."

Ed Brown Hits Stride

CHICAGO (AP) — Last year Eddie Brown of the Chicago Bears threw only 17 passes as a pro football freshman. He completed 10 for 283 yards against the Detroit Lions. Brown helped the Bears make it six straight by completing 15 of 18 passes for 221 yards, an average of 14.73 per completion.

Michigan College Cage Teams Enjoy Successful Weekend on Home Courts

The University of Detroit, who surprisingly has Notre Dame among its conquests already, continued with its third straight victory at home beating the University of Toronto, 78-50. Forward Bill Ebben paced the Titans with 22 points in 20 minutes of play.

At Kalamazoo, guard Gary Morrison tossed in 35 points to lead Kalamazoo College to an 81-63 victory over Wabash College of Crawfordsville, Ind. Kalamazoo, with a 3-1 record, hit 17 of 31 shots to lead 48-20 at halftime.

Wayne University opened the Presidents Conference season in Detroit with a 67-56 victory over Western Reserve. The Tartars led all the way after taking a quick 15-point lead. Jerry Greenberg, a forward, led Wayne with 20 points.

Alma, playing at home, came from behind a 48-47 halftime deficit to beat Ferris Institute, 94-84, in a non-conference game. Guard Dick Mosier made 31 points for Ferris. Ron Lade was tops for Alma with 26.

Soo Tech, playing at Sault Ste. Marie, ran up over 100 points in beating Soumi College of Hancock, Mich., 102-53. Tech has a 3-1 record.

Snead Wins 6th Miami Open

• • •

The sensational, arching two-iron shot saved The Slammer after he pulled his drive into the trees in a sudden death playoff with Tommy Bolt yesterday. The ant hill caused Bolt to miss the green and he wound up with a bogey while Snead got his par.

Snead, the White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., veteran, and Bolt, a Texan playing out of Chattanooga, Tenn., finished in a tie for first with nine-under-par 201s at the end of the regulation 54 holes.

• • •

Each fired a six-under-par 64 in the final round and bypassed big Mike Souchak of Grossinger's, N.Y., who led them by four strokes after 36 holes.

Snead's rally was even more spectacular than Bolt's, however, for The Slammer did all his par-busting in the last eight holes. He carded a 29 on the back nine of the par 35-35—70 Miami Springs layout, breaking the competitive course record which he set at 30 five years ago.

• • •

Souchak's final 71 for a 204 total dropped him into a three-way tie for third with Frank Stranahan of Toledo and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of St. Louis, Mo. Stranahan and Harrison shot 69s. Jay Hebert of Woodmere, N.Y., with a 70, and Fred Wampler of Indianapolis, deadlocked for sixth with 205s.

Snead explained how his driver—the club for which he is famous—got him into trouble and how his two-iron got him out:

• • •

"I tried to cut my drive a little to get a better shot at the green, but I cut it too much. I was completely stymied by a tree and had to shoot to the left and play a real big slice to the green."

Snead's spectacular, half-moon slice left him on the green, 50 feet from the cup and he got down in two putts.

• • •

"But there was an ant hill right behind my ball and I had to use a four-wood because I couldn't get to it with my two-iron," Bolt said.

Detroit Bowling Teacher Leads All-Star Tournament

CHICAGO (AP)—Two All-Star Tournament veterans, Ray Bluth, a 27-year-old bowling proprietor from Brentwood, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis, and Dolres Wroblewski, a 29-year-old bowling instructress from Detroit, took commanding leads tonight in the National All-Star Bowling Tournament qualifying phase.

• • •

As the 160 men and 64 women reached the half-way point in the qualifying schedule, Bluth had 2,560 pins for a 39-pin lead over Ed Lubanski of Detroit and Joe Schmidt of Albany, N.Y., tied for second with 2,521.

• • •

Bluth rolled a 1,278 on games of 225, 198, 223, 247, 208 and 177 to rise from third place.

The men must bowl 12 more games before the field is cut to 48 while the women will shoot eight more for a field of 48.

Miss Wroblewski, who fired a tournament record first-day score of 858, slumped slightly Sunday but still held a good lead. She had a 752 series to give her an eight game total of 1,610—a better than 201 average.

• • •

Trailing Miss Wroblewski are Vickie Vuckovich of Milwaukee with 1,566 and surprising Robby Frey of San Antonio, Texas, with 1,552.

• • •

In the special matches defending champion Steve Nagy of Detroit and former champion Mrs. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., moved out in front.

Nagy beat former champion Don Carter, 1,273-1,146, and now leads the St. Louisan by 148 sticks. Nagy has 2,477 while Carter has 2,329 for 12 games.

Mrs. Ladewig started off fast and then held out to avenge a 1-pin defeat opening day. Marion shot 811 while Sylvia had 758. Through eight games Mrs. Ladewig leads by 52 pins, 1,588-1,536.

• • •

Michigan Bowlers along with Ed Lubanski in the Men's 12-Game standings are Tom Hennessey who came in with a 1244 Sunday for a 4th place with 2512.

Mike Hoydic of Flint scored 1,212 pins yesterday and was in 8th place with 2472, followed by Bill Bunetta of Detroit who had 2466 for 10th.

THIRD YEAR STARTER — Alan Barkeley, graduate of Pontiac high school and now a senior at Western Michigan College, is a member of the Broncos varsity basketball team. This will be his 3rd season as a starter for the Broncos. Last year, as a junior, he averaged 13 points a game in the tough Mid-American Conference. He works well with the fast-break type of offense used by the Broncos and is very good on drive-in shots. Al is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barkeley, 554 Lenox. He is 21 years old, 6-1, and weighs 180 pounds. In high school he was an end on the football team for two years, forward on the basketball team for three years, and an infielder on the baseball team for two years.

Fight Manager to Appear Before Penn Commission

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fight Manager Frank (Blinky) Palermo was scheduled to appear before the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission today to show cause why his manager's license should not be revoked.

• • •

Palermo, whose stable of fighters includes Johnny Saxton, a contender for Carmen Basilio's welterweight title, was accused by the commission of "acts prejudicial and detrimental to boxing."

• • •

He sought postponement of the hearing, on grounds unknown, in a petition filed at State Court in Harrisburg last week.

Palermo, whom the commission alleges has a long record of association with "known criminals and gamblers," has been refused a license by the New York State Athletic Commission—which is not a member of the National Boxing Assn.

• • •

California Girl Wins Hardcourt Net Title

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—Those who saw Mimi Arnold, 16, win the National Hardcourt Women's Tennis crown say she is every inch and every pound a champion.

The Redwood City, Calif., High School girl, who is only 5-foot-1 and weighs only 104, trounced tall Patricia Canning Todd, La Jolla, 6-0, 6-0, in the final yesterday.

Rams, Browns Collide for NFL Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It'll be the Cleveland Browns vs. the Los Angeles Rams again for the National Football League title Dec. 26, and if past playoff records mean anything, look out, brother!

* * *

Otto Graham & Co. haven't met the Rams in a playoff in the last three years, but the Cleveland-Los Angeles' battles of 1950 and 1951 had the fans gasping. The Browns, completing their triumphant switch from the All-American Conference to the NFL, won the first time 30-28 on Lou Groza's 16-yard field goal with 28 seconds to play. The Rams evened the count the next year 24-17, with the winning touchdown a 73-yard pass play from Norm Van Brocklin to Tom Fears.

* * *

But it was a rookie, ex-Maryland star Ron Waller, who brought the cheers from the crowd of 90,535 in Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum. The crowd, incidentally, was the biggest of the professional season, although that figure probably will be topped in the playoff on the same field.

Los Angeles went into the game knowing they had to win, for the scoreboard showed the Chicago Bears had completed their season with an 8-4 record by beating Philadelphia 17-10. Waller ripped off a 55-yard touchdown run on the fourth play of the game and the Rams were never headed. He also scored two more touchdowns on short plunges.

* * *

Skeet Quinlan, another Ram veteran, got the other Los Angeles touchdown on a spectacular 55-yard punt return and Van Brocklin completed 12 of 19 passes for 148 yards.

The victory left Los Angeles with an 8-3-1 mark compared to Chicago's 8-4.

* * *

The Browns, with their sixth straight Eastern Conference title already tucked away, apparently suffered something of a let down and had to go all out with three touchdowns in the last 5 minutes to down the Chicago Cardinals 35-24. Graham, making what he said was positively his last appearance before the home folks, passed for three touchdowns, including a play covering 41 yards to Ray Renfro for the winner. He also clinched the league passing title with an average of 9.30 yards for every pass thrown.

Baltimore's rookie star, Alan Ameche, was held to 29 yards as San Francisco whipped the Colts 35-24, but he wound up with the league rushing title on 961 yards. Vic Janowicz scored 10 points to set a Washington record of 88 for the season as the Redskins wound up their best year since their 1945 championship with a 28-17 victory over Pittsburgh. The Skins were second to Cleveland in the Eastern Conference.

Eagle Officials Expected to Oust Trimble as Coach

* * *

A club spokesman told The Associated Press last night that an official statement would be drafted at the meeting. He left no doubt that it would disclose the Eagles had bought up the last year of Trimble's three-year contract.

Trimble and General Manager Vince McNally are expected to head for the meeting as soon as they arrive from Chicago where the Eagles wound up their season yesterday losing to the Chicago Bears. This latest defeat of a very disappointing season left the Eagles with a record of 4 victories, 7 defeats and a tie. They finished in a tie for fourth place in the National Football League's Eastern Conference.

* * *

The Eagles hope to replace Trimble with a "big name" coach. High on the list of possible successors are Jim Tatum of Maryland, Blanton Collier of Kentucky, Buck Shaw, coach of the new Air Force Academy team, Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma, and Clarence (Biggie) Munn athletic director at Michigan State. None of these men has been contacted but their names were discussed at a high level meeting last Thursday.

* * *

The 37-year-old Trimble joined the Eagles in 1951 as line coach under the late Bo McMillin. He became head coach two weeks before the 1952 season opened when Wayne Millner resigned. Trimble took a disorganized, rag-tag ball club and directed it to second place in the Eastern Conference his first year. The Eagles also finished second in 1953 and 1954.

After winning all six pre-season exhibition games this year the Eagles were tabbed as favorites to win the Eastern Conference title. But the club flopped and as is usually the case, the coach is taking the rap.

Only two years ago, when Trimble was signed to a three-year contract, Eagles officials described the 230-pound native of McKeesport, Pa., as the finest young coach in the business. Today they say he has lost control of the ball club.

McNamee has said he feels the Eagles failed to live up to expectations because they forgot their fundamentals, tackling and blocking.

He not only criticized the coaching, but expressed the opinion that the players failed to go all out.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

THE HIP BLOCK—Since bowlers, even topnotchers, come in all sizes and many shapes, variations in form are necessary. The short, stocky individual, for example, must overcome a right hip barrier in the backswing to groove the right arm close to the body. Failure to clear the right hip forces the swing away from the body and results in driving the ball high on the head pin much of the time.

Short bowlers will do best by crouching a little, flexing their knees, and dropping their shoulders in taking their stance so that the ball is held below the waistline. How far below is up to the individual. But this is important: Hold the ball slightly to the right, as sketch shows. From this position the ball drops easily into a proper backswinging groove, close to the body, as the right hip turns to the right to get out of the way.

My free pamphlet, "Three Bowling Essentials," explains footwork and swing. For the short, stocky bowler, I suggest using 4-step footwork—slow steps. Obtain the pamphlet by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to this newspaper.

Nation's High Ranking Cage Teams Face Stiff Tests in Week's Card

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

This will be "put up or shut up" week for many of the nation's leading college basketball teams seeking to escape the fate of high-ranking Kentucky and Illinois.

* * *

San Francisco will swing back into action Friday night after a 10-day layoff to meet a good Marquette club in the opener of the DePaul Tournament in Chicago. The Dons, defending NCAA champs and No. 1 in the pre-season Associated Press poll, are 3-0 on victories over Chico State, Southern California and San Francisco State.

The Chicago tourney is certain to prove a stiff test for them. Even if they get past Marquette, it's likely the winner of the second Duquesne-DePaul tilt will be rough in the finals Saturday.

* * *

North Carolina State, Utah, Alabama, Dayton and Brigham Young were among the other top-ranked schools to go unscathed.

But not so for Kentucky (No. 2) and Illinois (No. 8). The Wildcats, who almost never lose at home, were surprised by Temple 73-61 while Illinois, after running up a 13-point halftime lead, bowed to Missouri 74-73.

* * *

Third-ranked N. C. State downed Eastern Kentucky 83-74 for its fourth in a row and 16th straight victory over a two-year span. Utah, No. 5, continued to impress with a 93-63 triumph over Arizona. Alabama, rated sixth, won the Birmingham Classic by overwhelming Valparaiso 82-56. Seventh-ranked Dayton tripped Toledo 62-59 and Brigham Young, No. 10, rolled over Oregon 83-52.

There might be a few surprises after tonight's action.

Fourth-ranked Iowa meets Colorado, which has looked good in victories over Oregon State and Oregon.

Kentucky will have an opportunity to make amends against DePaul, which is 3-1 for the year.

In other important games, Louisiana State is at Rice, Oklahoma at Ohio State, SMU at Wisconsin, Tulane at Texas A&M and Oklahoma A&M at Baylor.

Ann Arbor Tankers Win in Cereal Bowl

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Ann Arbor High School won the championship in the 9th annual Cereal Bowl swimming relays over the weekend. It was Ann Arbor's 1st victory in a major swimming meet.

Jackson, which tied with Battle Creek for 2nd, claimed a new national record for the 200-yard backstroke with 1:55.0, officials said it bettered the old record of 1:55.1 set by Jackson in the 1953 cereal bowl relays.

Ann Arbor had 34 points to 30 for Jackson and Battle Creek, other scores: Lansing Eastern, 24; ROYAL OAK, 22, Kalamazoo, 20; BIRMINGHAM, 16; Dearborn Fordson, 14; Lincoln Park, 10; East Grand Rapids, 7, and Lansing Sexton, 1.

Mantilla to Be Studied

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves will give shortstop Felix Mantilla a good looking over in spring training at Bradenton, Fla. Although only 21 he has had four years in pro ball. He hit .275 for Toledo in 1955. The youthful Puerto Rican also played third base and the outfield.

Canadiens Extend Lead to 10 Points as Wings Shut Out New York

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Montreal's unbeaten streak in the National Hockey League still was intact today but the New York Rangers' supremacy over the Detroit Red Wings was at an end.

The awesome Canadiens, undefeated in their last eight games, defeated the Boston Bruins 4-2 last night to stretch their lead over the second-place Rangers to 10 points as the New Yorkers were beaten 2-0 by the Detroit Red Wings. It was the Wings' first decision over New York in six games this season.

* * *

Chicago and Toronto played a 3-3 tie in the league's other contest with defenseman Benny Woit's seventh goal in six HL campaigns giving the Black Hawks the tying tally.

* * *

The Canadiens waited until the final period to apply the pressure to the Bruins. With the score tied at 1-1, Henri Richard scored at 6:35. Jean Beliveau, the league's leading scorer, tallied his 19th goal at 12:07 and, after Boston had closed the gap, Claude Provost blinked the red light at 17:47.

Pitt Displays Lambert Award

NEW YORK (AP)—The huge Lambert Trophy, emblematic of the Eastern college football championship, was placed on display at the University of Pittsburgh today for the third time.

Pitt, headed for a Sugar Bowl engagement with Georgia Tech Jan. 2, formally received the trophy yesterday. Only Army, which won the award six times, tops the Panthers in possession of the trophy. Pitt first won in 1936, the initial year of the competition, and repeated in 1937.

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Compton of California today laid claim to the national junior college football championship for 1955 after triumphing over Jones County JC of Ellisville, Miss., 22-13, in the Junior Rose Bowl game Saturday.

Compton was generally ranked No. 1, Jones No. 2 before the game, which did nothing to dispel the ratings of those who follow the two-year colleges.

* * *

One new record was hung up as the powerful Compton Tartar line held the Southerners to a net of 17 yards rushing, all-time low figure for the game.

* * *

The Junior Rose Bowl game attendance was 57,132, the fourth in the 10-game series to draw more than 50,000. Attendance-wise the game has become fifth-ranked among bowl games in the country, ranking behind the Rose, Sugar, Cotton and Orange Bowl contests.

California Driver Wins Nassau Run

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Phil Hill, a nerveless driver from Santa Monica, Calif., said today he "just kept on going" to win the 210-mile Nassau Trophy sports car race.

He started thinking about the tires on his 3.5 liter Ferrari after completing 20 of the 60 laps.

He brought the trophy to America for the second time in the two years of competition. Each year, an American driver has had to duel with Marquis Alfonso de Portago of Spain to win.

Hill had to drive at an average speed of 98.2 miles an hour to keep ahead of Portago. He easily fought off a late challenge by the Spaniard and crossed the finish line half mile ahead.

U.S. Sends Sports Pictures Abroad

WASHINGTON (AP)—An exhibition of 99 action sports photographs, in color and black-and-white, is being sent abroad by the U.S. Information Agency.

It will be shown by the agency as part of its efforts to inform those in other lands of life in America.

Baseball, generally conceded the No. 1 American sport, dominates the show. The exhibition will be sent in January to Europe, the Middle East, Latin America and the Far East. It was prepared for the information agency by the magazine Sports Illustated.

She's a Changed Gal — That Shelley Winters

By EARL WILSON

I'd dropped into her dressing room at "A Hatful of Rain" to inquire about the rumors I hear every week of her punching somebody in the kisser.

"I'm changed. For one thing, no more leg shots. I like to show my legs and I think they're pretty. But I'm a serious actress now. "You see for 7 years," the changed gal said, "I had to do what Hollywood told me."

SHELLEY

Then came this show in which she plays the expectant wife of a dope addict . . . and does it brilliantly.

"One night an addict in the audience actually talked back to me," Shelley said. "This guy down in the audience kept saying, 'Leave him alone, for God's sake, leave him alone. He needs it!' Then he got up and left."

Shelley worked furiously 18 months making films to be spaced out while she was doing the play—then practically all came out at once—plus an older one, "Meet Danny Wilson," with Frank Sinatra.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Did Frank and I fight in that picture!" Shelley exclaimed.

"But you never fight, remember?" I reminded her.

"With him I fought! He was so upset then. He wouldn't rehearse. But he's a great entertainer, say that, will you? About me fighting now? I' mso peaceful I'm getting dull. I'm a changed gal. I want to do Shakespeare. Who? Lady Macbeth!"

Hollywood Headlines:

Warner Will Star Wyman in Filming of 'Two Wives'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Jane Wyman has been so busy with her TV show that I didn't think she'd even had time to discuss a new motion picture. Yet, here it is. Jack Warner has bought "Two Wives," a Reader's Digest s—y, for Jane and he plans to put it into production as quickly as possible. Margaret Fitts has been given the story to script and Biernie Lay Jr., is the producer.

* * *

I don't remember reading "Two Wives," but I'm told it's a love story, and the type of characterization that Janie does so well. She will probably make it when her show takes a late spring recess.

In the far flung corners of the earth "The Conqueror" will be premiered. The first is in Thailand with King Phum Iphon as the sponsor. The date is Jan. 22 and the place is Bangkok.

This will be followed by 30 world-wide premiers. The one in England undoubtedly will be sponsored by the Royal Family with the proceeds going to a British charity. In each country the same procedure will be followed.

* * *

This is the idea of Howard Hughes, who made this picture before he decided to sell RKO to multi-millionaire Tom O'Neil. It isn't likely that the stars, Susan Hayward and John Wayne, will be a part of the pageantry—distance is too great.

BOYER JOINS TROUPE

Last but not least, Charles Boyer joins the distinguished company of Noel Coward, Marlene Dietrich, John Gielgud, Ronald Colman, Frank Sinatra, Red Skelton, Fernandel, etc., in "Around the World in 80 Days."

In Charles' brief appearance in the Jules Verne classic he'll play a Parisian travel expert who steers Phileas Fogg (David Niven) and his valet (Cantinflas) to the balloon which takes them across France.

Rita Hayworth would have had to be back today if her case hadn't been held off until the 27th at her request. Hear the attorneys are very uneasy about her long absence.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Bomb Scare Closes Grauman's Theater

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A telephone report that a bomb had been planted in a crowded theater led police last night to evacuate some 2,000 patrons from the Hollywood-Paramount and Grauman's Chinese theaters.

* * *

The police complaint board received this whispered tip from a man: "My wife and another man have set a bomb in the Hollywood-Paramount Theater. It will go off in 45 minutes."

* * *

The call was traced to a pay across the street. Officers asked the management to empty the theaters while they conducted the search. The audiences returned afterwards and saw the rest of the movie programs.

Wilson Orders Rocket Increase

Long-Range Air Missile Expansion Program Will Not Cut Other Arms

WASHINGTON (AP) — "A substantial expansion" of this nation's medium and long-range rocket development program has been ordered by Secretary of Defense Wilson.

* * *

Wilson placed Deputy Secretary Reuben Robertson in over-all charge. The three service secretaries will direct the programs within their own departments.

Wilson said that as far as U.S. officials know, Russian "progress has been about as expected" in the rocket field. He added that the recent Soviet hydrogen explosion "had nothing to do with" speedup of the U. S. missiles work.

Also, he said, expansion of the rocket program will not mean cuts in spending for conventional weapons.

It was reported that the Air Force will continue to have primary responsibility for developing a rocket with a range up to 5,000 miles.

* * *

The Army and Navy, it was said, are pooling their efforts in the development of a medium distance missile with a range of 1,000 miles.

Water Skis Are Used to Test Huge Seaplane

WASHINGTON (AP) — An experiment in which water skis are being used on a 55,000-pound seaplane to improve its takeoff and landing characteristics is being conducted at the Navy's Patuxent, Md., test center.

The Navy announced today that the test center and the Glenn L. Martin Co. of Baltimore are, for the first time, testing the hydro ski device on a seaplane in the bomber class. Smaller planes, including jet aircraft, have been tested with the device.

Federal Medical Center Will Have Atom Reactor

Army Purchases Electronic Machine

NEW YORK (AP) — The U. S. Army has purchased a 4 million dollar electronic date processing system—called "bizmac" — that converts months of business paperwork into minutes of push button operations.

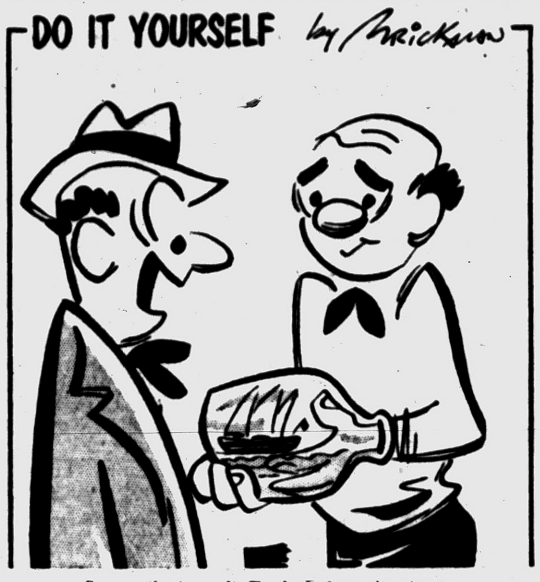

The system was developed by Radio Corporation of America over a five-year period. It is specifically designed for standard business operation.

The Army's bizmac machine will be used in its ordnance tank-automotive command section at Detroit. Delivery of the system is under way and scheduled for completion by the end of the year.

At Detroit, the machine will be used for electronic stock control of replacement parts for military combat and transport vehicles.

Grains Maintain Narrow Limits

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains held within very narrow price limits on the Board of Trade today. Activity fell sharply below that of last week with dealings mainly limited to scattered commission house orders.

* * *

Wheat got off to a firm start. Most other grains showed a slightly easier tendency. As trading progressed wheat lost part of its gains. The December corn contract was quite weak at one time although cash corn receipts totaling 245 cars were not large.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to ⅜ higher, December $2.08½; corn ⅛ to ⅜ lower, December $1.26⅞; oats ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, December 63¼; rye unchanged to ¼ higher, December $1.13¾; soybeans ¼ to ¾ lower, January $2.36¼, and lard 2 to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower, December $10.25.

Suspected Saboteur Graham in Hospital

DENVER (INS) — John Gilbert Graham, accused of killing his mother by blowing up an air liner with a dynamite time bomb, spent a peaceful Sunday at Colorado General Hospital in Denver.

Denver District Judge Edward Keating committed Graham for the test after the 23-year-old accused man pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity when arraigned Friday on charges of murdering Daisie E. King on Nov. 1. The crash also killed 43 other persons.

Market Decline Not Unexpected

* * *

Sources in Wall Street said some uncertainty was created by the new turn in the state of the President's health. His doctors ordered a slowdown in his work pace.

However, it was stressed that the market currently is near its record high peaks and it has been acting tired. Therefore a dip at this time would not be unexpected.

* * *

Show Moving to Earlier Time

By BOB THOMAS

This, translated into family-paper English, was the vow of Jack Webb. The sleek sleuth of Dragnet has declared war on CBS' Climax, which has nudged him out of the top 10 shows for the first time in his TV history.

* * *

Webb, who fought his way to the top of the show business heap, isn't going to take this sitting down. No. 1 in his plan of attack is to move his show from the 9 p.m. to the 8:30 slot.

"We've always had to fight for our audience," he explained. "We never had a strong show before or after us. I don't mean they weren't good shows; I mean we didn't inherit any audience from them.

* * *

"Now at 8:30 we'll follow Groucho, and that ought to do us a lot of good. After all, they put Climax on at 8:30 and they always manage to have a cliffhanger at five minutes before nine. Pretty sneaky. I don't blame people for not wanting to turn the dial to see us.

"But I don't think our only problem is in time slotting. Perhaps we can do a better job than what we have been doing. Now we're putting more money into the shows and we've got some new gimmicks."

* * *

On of the new gimmicks is a real romance for Joe Friday. He has had a gal in the past, but it was done as an experiment to test public reaction. The reaction was good.

Webb added that he has a new setting to work with. He has done a lot of filming at Los Angeles' modern police headquarters. His first show at the 8:30 time—Jan. 5—will feature a tour through the building.

More German PWs Freed by Russians

BERLIN (AP) — Fifty-seven German prisoners of war freed by the Soviet Union arrived in West Berlin today. They were the first to reach Western territory in two months.

* * *

The latest returnees were part of a "large group" which ADN, the Communist East German news agency, reported arrived in the Soviet zone during the weekend. The Russians previously announced 600 prisoners would reach the West German border tomorrow.

The Russians abruptly stopped the repatriation of prisoners Oct. 20, after 5,836 had reached West Germany and an undisclosed number had been freed in East Germany. Previously the Russians had promised Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to turn loose 9,626.

The Soviets gave no explanation for their interruption but it was generally viewed as pressure of the West German government to speed up the establishment of diplomatic relations with Moscow. So far, however, the Bonn regime has not nominated its first ambassador to Russia.

State Department's Press Officer Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Suydam, 64, the State Department's chief iress officer, died of aheart attack yesterday — less than two months after his wife died.

Secretary of State Dulles last night praised Suydam for "great ability, coupled with a kindly personality and high sense of public duty."

As spokesman for the department, Suydam had accompanied to several international conferences, including the recent Big Four foreign ministers meeting at Geneva. He had directed the State Department's press section since Oct. 1, 1953, and was on leave of absence from his post as chief editorial writer of the Newark, (N.J.) Evening News.

Mrs. Suydam, the former Anne Hamilton Gordon of Baltimore, died Oct. 15.

Gunmen Shoot Grocer

DETROIT (AP) — Caley Grech, 59, of Livonia, was shot and wounded in the abdomen, by one of two gunmen who held up his grocery store and escaped with between $400 and $500 last night. Grech was wounded when he grappled with one of the men.

Coed Left Out of Prince's Hunt to Find a Wife

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — A pretty University of Illinois coed who once traveled to Monaco to meet that European principality's handsome ruler says she won't see him when he visits the United States.

* * *

Prince Ranier III, 32-year-old bachelor, left for America yesterday aboard the liner United States. His subjects hope he will find a wife since Monaco will come under French rule and French taxes if he doesn't have an heir.

Jo Ann Stork, 21, flew to Monaco last February expressly to meet the prince.

* * *

"I've had only one letter from the prince since my return to the United States," she said, "and that was a note saying that he had enjoyed receiving me in his palace.

"Prince Ranier is a very charming man but there definitely are no romantic links between us."

Man Spills 4,800 Nails on Road; 12 Flats Result

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A 30-pound can of inch-long roofing nails fell off Glen Allen Crosby's truck and scattered over the road. Police said Crosby recovered a ladder that also fell off his truck but ignored another motorist's suggestion to sweep up the 4800 nails.

The result — 12 flat tires and three-hour sweeping job while traffic was detoured around the spot.

Crosby was picked up, brought back to the scene and handed a broom to help the angry motorists in the cleanup job Saturday. He then was charged with littering a public highway and having no operator's license.

UAW Ends Strike

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — AFL-CIO United Auto Workers at the three Challenge Machinery Co. plants here voted 121-17 yesterday to end their week-long strike. Membership voted to accept a 10-cent hourly wage increase and an eight paid holiday.

Thieves Await Victims at Home

Jeweler and Wife Held Overnight; Rob Store Next Morning

AURORA, Ill. (AP) — Two masked robbers wearing rubber gloves held a jeweler and his wife captive in their home through the night and then yesterday morning looted the jeweler's store of an estimated $55,000 in merchandise.

Police theorized that the men may have had accomplices.

Police said Joseph K. Fodor, 58, told them he closed his shop at 5:30 p.m. Saturday and he and his wife Nellie, 48, had dinner before parting, she to go home and he to visit his ailing mother in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

DEMAND KEYS

Arriving home, Mrs. Fodor related, she was accosted by two men, one with a revolver and the other with a metal bar. Threatening her with death, they taped her wrists and demanded the keys to the store and the combination of the shop's safe.

Mrs. Fodor said she gave them the combination, which she kept in her purse, and told the pair her husband had the keys. Then, she said, they shoved her into a closet.

Fodor said he was knocked down when he entered the house at about 9:15. The robbers taped his arms and took his keys.

PUT IN CLOSET

Fodor said the men took about $55,000 worth of jewelry from the shop, $400 in cash, a diamond ring he valued at $3,000, Mrs. Fodor's ring valued at $1,500 and miscellaneous articles from his home and shop.

Blizzards Strike Northern Europe

LONDON (AP) — Blizzards struck parts of northern Europe today. Avalanches buried homes in Norway and huge snow drifts trapped nine glider pilots on the Shropshire slopes of England.

A Norwegian steamer, the Reias, snapped a rudder in a storm off the Atlantic coast of Ireland. A Royal Navy antisubmarine ship and a British freighter went to her aid.

Although much of Europe had fine weather, the first real heavy snows of winter swept over Scandinavia. Temperatures reached 29 below zero in northern Norway.

A father and his 3-year-old daughter were killed when an avalanche smashed their home on Flakstad Island, in northern Norway. Three others in the family escaped.

The British glider pilots were caught 1,600 feet up on Long Mynd in Shropshire. The seven men and two women are living in a small club hut, eating canned food and breaking up packing cases for firewood. They have a telephone line to the village of Church Stretton though.

3-Year-Old Girl Dies as Skirt Catches Fire

DALLAS (AP)—A 3-year-old girl who liked to twirl around and make her favorite cotton skirt stand out in a circle died last night of burns suffered when a gas fire set the swirling skirt afire.

Witnesses said little Martha Lou Whitworth, thinking the whole house was on fire at the time of the accident Saturday, led her little brother, Tommy, 2, outside. There Mrs. Whitworth, who had been talking with a neighbor, saw her child afire and slapped futiley at the flames and tore the blazing clothing.

Reds Keep Promise?

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio reported today that the reduction of Soviet armed forces by 640,000 men—promised in August—has now been completed. The broadcast confirmed Western speculation that a chief purpose of the troop cut was to aid the Kremlin's big drive to increase Soviet agricultural output. The ex-soldiers have been "transferred to agriculture," the radio reported.
