CHAMPIONS IN ACTION — Pontiac's Dave Diehm goes up for a jump ball against Bay City's Harold Busch in last night's game which the Chief's won, 59-43, to clinch the Saginaw Valley Conference title for the first in history. Pontiac, with an 8-0 league record, still has two games to play, but Saginaw's defeat at the hands of Arthur Hill, assured the local quintet the championship. ## Downs Bay City as Arthur Hill Edges Saginaw

59-43 Victory Clinches Crown Regardless of 2 Games Yet to Come

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Pontiac High School today wears the basketball crown of the Saginaw Valley Conference for the first time in history.

The Chiefs scored their 8th straight league victory by defeating Bay City Central 59-43, last night and the victory coupled with Arthur's Hill's upset over Saginaw, 69-67, brought Pontiac its first title after 24 years in the conference.

The crowd which jammed Pontiac High for the last home game of the season, was inclined to believe that the Chiefs had only assured themselves of a tie by the victory.

Very few figured that second-place Saginaw would be beaten by rival Arthur Hill. News of Arthur Hill's victory, reaching the student dance at PHS after the game, set off a wild victory demonstration.

Coach Art Van Ryzin, in his 11th season as head basketball coach, was swamped with well wishers and hoisted to the shoulders of several of his players.

"This is the happiest day of my basketball career," said Van Ryzin, "and it's something we've wanted more than anything else this season.

"Many were disappointed over the Highland Park loss, but Saginaw Valley title was first in our minds," he added.

Superintendent of Schools Dana P. Whitmer received word of the championship upon arrival early this morning in Atlantic City, N.J., where he is attending a national conference of school administrators.

Whitmer immediately wired Coach Van Ryzin offering his congratulations. "The school district is proud of its basketball team," he said.

Mayor William W. Donaldson, a spectator at last night's game, said, "This is a tribute to Art Van Ryzin and to the spirit of the team."

Another loyal fan who has missed only two road games this year is John W. Hirlinger, Chamber of Commerce president.

Hirlinger phoned Van Ryzin to offer his best wishes. "The people of Pontiac should be thrilled over the championship by a good, clean ball club."

"It's too bad so many people had to be turned away for each game, but it shows the need for a civic auditorium. Let's aim for the trip to East Lansing and state championships," he finished.

Feeling a Little More Crowded?

We're 170,000,000 Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — The population of the United States reached an estimated 170 million yesterday with a blinking of lights, a turning of wheels — and with some sobering figures.

The new mark registered on an elaborate electric display in the Commerce Department as a white light flashed a net gain of one in the population, boosting the total to the magic 170 million mark.

Twelve seconds later, the figure moved to 170,000,001. It is expected to reach 200 million in 10 years or less.

All this is estimated. Actually the 170 million figure may have been reached several weeks ago. Or maybe it won't be reached until next month. But, until someone comes along with a better system of counting people than the one used by the Census Bureau, Friday was the day.

About those sobering figures: There now are 7,200 more persons in the United States than there were just 24 hours ago.

And tomorrow at this time there will be 7,203 more than today.

Depending on how you look at it, that means 7,200 more mouths to feed, and potentially 7,200 more taxpayers, 7,200 more customers, or 7,200 more drivers to clutter up the highways at rush hour.

The annual rate of population growth in the United States is now just short of three million persons — about the present population of Louisiana or Kentucky. Every month there are enough new people to make up a city of 250,000 — about the size of Syracuse, N. Y., or Richmond, Va.

Michigan Gains 18 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (INS) — The U. S. Census Bureau reports Michigan's population has grown 18 per cent since the last official count was taken in 1950.

The bureau said Michigan's population as of April 1, 1950, totaled 6,371,766, but had increased to 7,516,000 as of July 1, 1956.

Ike and Dulles Debate Strategy on Middle East

Meet in Georgia to View Reply as Possible Basis for Israeli Compromise

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (INS) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today debate the next U. S. move in the effort to get Israel to withdraw its remaining forces from Egypt.

Dulles and Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., ambassador to the United Nations, flew to Georgia last night with the Israeli reply to this government's latest plea to remove its forces from the Gaza Strip and the Gulf of Aqaba area.

The word from State Department sources is that the offer is not acceptable to the United States. It may, however, serve as a basis for a compromise which can keep the tinderbox Middle East situation from exploding into a fresh crisis.

Israel reportedly offered to withdraw its troops from the Gulf of Aqaba area if American or United Nations forces are stationed at the mouth of the gulf to assure free passage of Israeli ships.

The Israelis insist on keeping either troops or administrative officers in the Gaza Strip, but they

Find 3 Guilty of Murder in Slaying of Youth, 14

Three Royal Oak Township youths were convicted yesterday of the bludgeon slaying Sept. 4 of Gerald Rondeau, 14, of 184 N. Hix, Wayne.

★ ★ ★

A Detroit Recorder's Court jury found Tommie Rollins, 19, of 10582 Foxton Ct., guilty of first degree murder. The conviction calls for a mandatory life sentence.

Adjudged guilty of second degree murder were Odell Gray, 18, of 21423 Garden Lane, and Horace Collier, 18, of 21405 Parkside. They face sentences up to life.

The jury of 11 women and one man returned the verdicts after deliberating two hours and 55 minutes. Recorder's Court Judge Gerald W. Groat set sentencing for Feb. 28.

The victim had attended the State Fair the night he was fatally beaten.

He was waiting at Woodward and Eight Mile road for his parents to get their car out of the parking lot when the three youths accosted him.

Rollins said they drove up to where Gerald was standing and offered him a ride, but he refused. They stopped the motor and got out.

"I got a tire iron from the car and hit him on the head with it to teach him some manners," Rollins confessed.

Gerald died three days later in Wayne County General Hospital. He was one of nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Rondeau.

A fourth youth accompanying the convicted murderers was turned over to juvenile authorities. He is 16.

Keego Resident Killed in Crash

33-Year-Old Man Dies as Car Hits Tree; Son Suffers Injuries

A Keego Harbor man was killed instantly last night when he lost control of his car, striking a tree and utility pole on Ward Road at Del Rose Road in Bloomfield Township.

Dead is Joseph A. Gibbon, 33, of 2212 Maddy Lane Road.

Riding in the car with Gibbon was his eight-year-old son, Richard. The boy is in Pontiac General Hospital with a head concussion. His condition is listed as "satisfactory."

Gibbon had been employed in the shipping and receiving department of the Standard Tool & Manufacturing Co. in Detroit.

He is survived by his wife, Georgia, 34, and two other children, Thomas, 6, and John, 2. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Army to Keep Horses, Caisson for Funerals

WASHINGTON (AP) — After reconsideration, the Army says it has decided to continue the 92-year-old tradition of using a horse-drawn caisson at military funerals in Arlington National Cemetery.

Several weeks ago, the service announced the ceremonial horses and gun carriages would be discontinued after June 1 in the interest of economy. Motor hearses were to be used instead.

Yesterday, Secretary of the Army Brucker announced the decision had been rescinded in view of "widespread expressions of regret." He added that the desirable economy "is outweighed by the intangible values" of continuing the tradition.

Lindsay Crosby Enlists

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The last of Bing Crosby's four sons has entered the Army. Lindsay, 19, enlisted for a two-year hitch yesterday. Lindsay's eldest brother, Gary, 23, is in the Army in Germany. The twins, Philip and Dennis, 22, were discharged a month ago.

More 'White Delight' Promised Us Tonight

With a few left-overs from last night's helping of one-inch snow, the weather man has promised the Pontiac area another smaller serving of the "white delight," as he forecasts a few snow flurries today and tonight.

★ ★ ★

Winds at 20 to 25 miles an hour will diminish slowly tonight and tomorrow, with the mercury dipping to 10 to 18 degrees tonight.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy, high 30 to 34, with a chance of snow flurries.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. this morning was 27 degrees. At 2 p.m. the mercury registered 30.

Diplomat Switch May Reverberate

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Moscow's change of foreign ministers probably signals a return to Stalinism in Soviet foreign policy. This means the Soviet Union once again will picture itself as encircled and threatened by world capitalism.

The news that Andrei A. Gromyko has replaced Dmitri Shepilov is causing some uneasiness in Western Euprope. This is particularly true among those groups which felt there was a possibility of negotiating compromises on such questions as European security and the reunification of Germany.

Other changes announced by the Communist party Central Committee also indicate a rebuff to the present party boss, Nikita S. Khrushchev, and probably a sharp gain in influence for former Premier Georgi Malenkov in alliance with V. M. Molotov.

Krushchev's foreign policy of smiles and lures was a palpable failure from the Soviet point of view. Shepilov was appointed to serve a definite purpose, and the maneuver missed fire.

Now, in order to bring this home clearly to Communists both at home and abroad, the Kremlin has named a man who grew up in the ministry under the wing of Molotov.

The purpose of the Shepilov appointment last June was to throw a sop to President Tito of Yugoslavia.

★ ★ ★

By removing Shepilov the Kremlin admits it was wrong in its assessment of the prospect for bringing Tito back into the Moscow-dominated world communist organization.

The Kremlin traces much of its woe in Hungary and Poland to the influence of Tito. Therefore, the gesture made to Tito in June has been withdrawn.

Woman Shot in Packed Store

Husband Slays Clerk After Pursuing Her in Detroit's Hudson's

DETROIT (AP) — A woman clerk was shot to death in Detroit's largest downtown department store yesterday by a gunman who chased her down a maze of aisles past crowds of terrified shoppers.

Lt. Detective Hiram Phipps said Mrs. Helen Jackson, 50, of suburban Dearborn, was shot three times in the stomach when her estranged husband, Rolin, 52, trapped her in a cubicle-sized buyer's office in the store's second basement. Jackson vanished in the crowd after the shooting.

Picked up later in a downtown hotel room to which he was traced, Jackson was quoted by Assistant Prosecutor Arthur J. Koscinski as admitting he slew his wife because of her refusal to patch up their marital differences and accompany him on an attempted reconciliation trip to Florida a month ago.

Koscinski said Jackson also told him he planned to kill himself.

Witnesses said Mrs. Jackson, a shoe clerk in the infants' wear department of the J. L. Hudson Co. store, saw her husband making his way toward her through the mid-afternoon crowd.

'HELP ME'

"Help me," she screamed, "my husband is after me."

She began to run around counters brushing past startled shoppers, her husband in pursuit.

Suddenly, she darted down a narrow corridor and into the small buyer's office.

Mrs. Lillian Saba, a clerk in the office, said Jackson followed her in and shouted: "You don't have to run. It won't do you any good."

He raised his .32 caliber revolver and began firing, Mrs. Saba said. "He just kept on shooting," she added.

Mrs. Jackson died en route to a hospital.

Police said Mrs. Jackson had been estranged from her husband for several months.

RECEIVED THREAT

Phipps said Mrs. Jackson reported to Dearborn police last Thursday that her husband had threatened to kill her.

Queen to Meet Duke First Time in Four Months

LONDON (INS)—Queen Elizabeth emplaned from London airport at 6:26 a.m. (EST) today for Portugal, where she will join her husband.

A crowd of several hundred cheered the smiling Queen as her royal car rolled through the palace gates carrying her to the airport.

Additional hundreds watched from the roofs of airport buildings as Elizabeth boarded the Vickers Viscount that is taking her to the reunion with the Duke of Edinburgh.

Dressed in a fur coat topped by a hat of cheerful red, the Queen flashed the palace crowd a gay smile through the car window as she began the trip to join her husband after a separation of four months.

Rumors were published in the United States last week of a rift between the couple, but a Buckingham Palace spokesman such talk "quite untrue."

The Queen and her husband have taken no public notice of the rumors. Some London newspapers later told their readers such stories had been published abroad, but described them as baseless.

U.S. A-Warheads Stored in France

By PRESTON GROVER
Chief of AP Paris Bureau

PARIS (AP) — The United States has stockpiled atomic warheads in France, it was learned authoritatively today.

The source for this disclosure cannot be given, but it is now solid information.

Selected Allied forces in NATO are being trained in the use of equipment that would carry the warheads. The warheads themselves are held by U.S. forces.

U.S. law forbids delivery of atomic warheads to other nations. However, as one expert put it, the aim of the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe is to train the Allied forces so carefully that in the event of Russian attack all the Americans in charge of the stockpile would have to say is: "Sergeant, there's the key."

INFORMATION SECRET

The U.S. government never has disclosed whether A-bombs or warheads were located at any of its overseas bases. The atomic energy law forbids such disclosures.

Last Jan. 3 Gen. Randolph Pate, Marine commandant, was quoted as saying Marines with the U.S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean were armed with "live" atomic artillery, but the White House refused to confirm or deny that this meant atomic warheads.

The Soviet Union warned the United States Jan. 23 against setting up nuclear weapon and missile bases in other countries, permitting such bases would receive quick atomic retaliation in the event of war.

HALF ENOUGH DIVISIONS

The warning apparently was a reaction to the disclosure in President Eisenhower's budget message that the Pentagon is working on plans for organization of six atomic support commands to provide nuclear firepower for U.S. Army units and allies.

The same week West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said he believed Russian troops based just inside the Communist perimeter already were equipped with nuclear weapons.

G. S. Norstad, commander of the 15-nation NATO forces, said early this month 30 divisions is the minimum with which Western Europe can support its present plan of defending all its territory.

At present there are barely 15 usable divisions along the Western defense line.

Your Income Tax

ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME

The term adjusted gross income is important to employes. It is used in determining the limitations on contributions and the medical expense deduction if you elect to itemize your deductions, or whether to take the standard deduction — and the amount of the standard deduction.

For employes it is the income to be reported, including reimbursed expenses. Expenses incurred by an employe for out-of-town travel and local transportation may be offset against the gross income.

Expenses of an "outside salesman" may also be offset against the gross income. However, all such expenses must be in connection with the performance of services for your employer.

(Further information on income tax problems is available without charge at the Internal Revenue Service office, 53½ W. Huron St. Phone FE 2-0206.)

No Siren 'Growl,' Just Scary Wail in CD Test Friday

Pontiac's downtown air raid siren did more than "growl" yesterday afternoon during a test. It wailed, according to Robert A. Stierer, assistant civil defense director.

"The test proved valuable in that it showed us that some corrective action is needed," Stierer said.

The huge siren atop the Pontiac State Bank building was to be tested mechanically in the first of a series of weekly tests. It was only supposed to echo a "low growl," Stierer said.

"The reassuring part of the test is that it proved that the siren would function at full blast if needed," Stierer said.

He added that the police department received some 75 calls regarding the "wailing."

No Recession, Says Humphrey

Sees Full Prosperity for Year and a Half If Expenditures Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey foresees continued prosperity for the next 18 months.

"There are no signs of a recession," Humphrey said in secret testimony before a House Appropriations subcommittee Jan. 25. The group made the testimony public today.

Humphrey, who has cautioned that a continued high level of government spending could lead to a depression that would "curl your hair," again urged that "everyone go to work" on trimming expenditures. He said, business, labor and local governments must join federal agencies in avoiding inflationary steps.

Humphrey asked for $713,834,000 to run the Treasury for the fiscal year starting next July 1. This is $63,261,150 more than the department got this year.

Humphrey said 23 million of the increase is necessary because of a 1956 law making a bookkeeping change in how the government contributes to the Civil Service retirement fund. Most of the remainder of the increase, he said, is for "essential" Coast Guard boat and plane replacement and to handle a rising workload in the Customs and Internal Revenue services.

Fluoridation to Be Discussed

Waterford Elementaries Will Get Treatments If Program Is OK'd

Plans for fluoridation treatments in three Waterford Township elementary schools are again underway, according to B. W. Ross, Waterford Township dentist and coordinator of the program.

After a 2-month delay, a meeting with a representative from the Michigan Department of Health, has been arranged from March 7, at the CAI Building.

The fluoridation program will serve students attending the Williams Lake, Waterford Village and Jayno Adams schools, and treatments will begin the latter part of June at the CAI building, Ross said.

Mrs. Kathlene Kowalski, state dental health consultant will meet with the program leaders from the three schools, and together with Dr. Ross, compose a master schedule for treatments.

The schedule will run from 6 to 8 weeks during the summer, and a university student or hygientist will be employed. Other help will come from volunteer assistants from the P.T.A. groups sponsoring the project.

Dr. Ross pointed out that more than 35,000 children in the state were treated last summer, and the ages for treatments are 3, 7, 10, and 13 years. There will be a $4 fee which will cover the cast of one cleaning and four fluoridation treatments.

Sen. Potter to Ask Retention of Alger

WASHINGTON (AP)—Aides of Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said yesterday he is asking the White House and State Department to retain Frederick Alger of Grosse Pointe, Mich., as Ambassador to Belgium.

Reports in diplomatic and political circles here list Clifford Folger, chairman of the Republican Finance Committee, as a likely successor to Alger, who has served as ambassador there since 1953.

Potter told associates that administration leaders said it was policy to reshuffle ambassadors after four years and that loyal party workers get a chance at such vacancies.

Even so, the senator who is flying to Michigan this weekend, said he was continuing efforts to have Alger, former Republican candidate for governor, retained in Belgium.

Alger is heir to a large lumber fortune and death of his mother recently may require his return for a time to this country, aides of Potter said.

Business Pioneer Dies at Rochester

Frank J. Tower, 89, retired grocer and one of Rochester's oldest businessmen, died last night at his home, 125 East Third St., Rochester. He had been in poor health for several months.

Born in Wyoming, N.Y. March 24, 1867, he came to Rochester in 1906, where he operated a grocery business from that date until the time of his retirement in 1946.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Lewis of Rochester.

Union Strife Delays Talks

Dissident Leaders Can't Agree on Terms to End Dock Strike in East

NEW YORK (AP) — Internal strife among dock union leaders has stalled negotiations aimed at settling the Northeast coast waterfront strike.

A meeting yesterday of the 110-man bargaining committee of the International Longshoremen's Assn. (Ind) erupted into a bolt by leaders of three powerful Manhattan locals.

When the dissident group of about two dozen stalked out of the meeting room, ILA President William V. Bradley shouted: "All right — go ahead! Either follow me and stay in, or go out!"

The dissenters, headed by Harold Bowers, whose local controls the luxury liner piers along the Hudson River, went back inside. A few minutes later, the union recessed talks until 11 a.m. today.

Ports from Portland, Maine, to Hampton Roads, Va., stand idle by the strike of 45,000 longshoremen who went out last Tuesday after expiration of an 80-day Taft-Hartley Act injunction. The injunction halted a nine-day East and Gulf port strike on Nov. 24.

For the past two days the union has been mulling over the "final" offer made by the employers, the 170-member New York Shipping Assn. Bradley and Brooklyn dock boss Anthony (Tough Tony) Anastasia apparently are willing to accept the terms and end the walkout.

Dry New Mexico Fights for Water Instead of Women

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—Rep. Fred Cole, a Democrat from Eddy County told the New Mexico legislature "more men in New Mexico had been killed over water than women." A few minutes later, Rep. Lawrence Godell, a Chaves County Democrat answered: "If that is true, then my faith in the manhood of New Mexico men has been shattered."

In New Mexico, which has been averaging about five inches of rainfall a year, there are plenty of women, but precious little water.

Youngster Hit by Car; in Critical Condition

According to Officer William Hurd of Oak Park police, the boy was crossing Greenfield Ave. when he was hit by a car driven by Bertha May Anson of 417 Ninth Avenue., Royal Oak.

★ ★ ★

Hurd said the boy was dragged 102 feet up over the curb and was pinned under the rear axle. It took two policemen and six pedestrians to move the car from the boy's body, he said.

No charge has been placed against Mrs. Anson.

Faulty Gas Refrigerator Fatal to Area Man

The Day in Birmingham

One Week 'Til Deadline for City Candidates to File

BIRMINGHAM — With only another week remaining before the deadline for city candidates to file, the commission race has now broadened to four; three for full three years terms and one for the year remaining on the unexpired term of Manley Bailey. Bailey resigned a week ago because of business.

Newest on the list is Charles Delbridge, an attorney residing at 722 Colonial Court, who is making his first bid for public office.

Mrs. Willett, this week, was named to represent her city on the recently organized Oakland County safety council.

The scene of several mishaps, the intersection will be marked by a stop light as quickly as possible.

Ike, Dulles Debate Mideast Strategy

offered to help resettle in Israel 200,000 arab refugees now in Gaza.

The United States called for complete withdrawal of all Israeli forces from the area occupied when Egypt was invaded last November.

The meeting presumably also covered U. S. strategy for dealing with the Soviet effort to place what it calls the "aggressive" designs of the Eisenhower doctrine for the Mideast before the general assembly for debate.

Eisenhower had been in daily telephone contact with Dulles on the Middle East situation since his arrival in Georgia eight days ago, but the decision for the secretary and Lodge to fly down from Washington was made suddenly late yesterday.

Meanwhile the U.N. assembly waited anxiously for a bold move by the United States to make possible a solution to the Arab-Israeli deadlock.

The 80-nation forum has scheduled an extraordinary session for Monday afternoon on the dispute after the Eisenhower administration's announcement that Israel has responded unsatisfactorily to the U. S. offer of guarantees in return for Israeli withdrawal from the captured areas.

The assembly on Monday will give comprehensive consideration to a report from Dag Hammarskjold regretting the fact that Israel has failed to comply with assembly edicts for withdrawing from Aqaba and the Gaza Strip.

A report from Lodge of Israeli refusal to heed U.S. pleas for compliance is almost certain to revive Afro-Asian demands for the imposition of sanctions as the most effective way of bringing Israel to her knees.

Woman Held in Jail on Narcotics Charge

A 43-year-old Pontiac woman was returned to the Oakland County Jail Friday after failing to post a $3,000 bond after arraignment on a charge of violating state narcotics laws.

Jerry Biggs, 44 Harris St., pleaded innocent to the charge before Judge Cecil McCallum. Trial was set for Feb. 27.

The woman was arrested with two men by Officer Gerald Navarre and Detective Eugene Hendren, of the vice squad, about 4 a.m. Wednesday morning at Bagley and Wessen Sts. Both men were released after investigation.

Five capsules, believed to contain heroin, are being tested in the Detroit Police Department crime lab today. They were found by the officers when arresting the woman and one of the men.

Perry Funeral Rite Thursday at Adrian

ADRIAN (AP)—Funeral service for Stuart Hoffman Perry, who died Thursday night in Tucson, Ariz., will be held next Thursday at 2:30 p.m. at Adrian's Christ Episcopal Church.

★ ★ ★

The body will be returned to Adrian (Everiss Funeral Home) Tuesday afternoon. Burial will be here following the funeral, at which the Rev. A. Peter Carroll will officate.

★ ★ ★

Area Reservists Leave for 6 Months of Duty

Five members of the 579th Field Artillery Battalion, local reserve unit, left for six months of active duty today at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Arrest Local Man on Narcotics Charge

Wilfred Brock, 31, of 502 Branch St., was arrested on a warrant for violation of the state narcotic law by Detective Eugene Hendren and Officer Gerald Navarre, both of the Pontiac Police vice detail early this morning, about 5:30 a.m. Lt. ## Railway 100 Years Old STOCKHOLM—The Swedish State Railways, which recently marked its 100th anniversary, is Scandinavia's largest enterprise. It has 72,000 employees.

Police Group Raps Stand on Residency Rule Question

Herbert Cooley, Pontiac Police Officers' Assn. president, accused City Attorney William A. Ewart of being "inconsistent" in his opinion of the amendment passed last November allowing police officers to live outside the city.

Referring to the minutes of a Firemen's Civil Service Commission meeting held January 30, 1956 Cooley quoted Ewart as stating: "There is no requirement in the ordinance that once a fireman, he must maintain residency within the city limits."

Although the firemen have had Civil Service for approximately 15 years, when the police association brought up the proposed amendment last year to allow police to live out of the city within a 10 mile radius of Saginaw and Huron St., they asked a verbal opinion from Ewart on their status, according to Cooley.

Since the proposed Civil Service program to replace the present Police Trial Board would be the same one as the firemen use, Ewart's opinion would apply to the police as well, said Cooley.

The legal question of the residency arose Tuesday when the City Commission approved the ballot form for Civil Service for police in the April election.

Cooley agreed with Ewart who said officers must be residents of Pontiac a year prior to application for a patrolman.

"But," he said, "the day after the man is hired, he could move out of the city within the prescribed radius."

A letter to the firemen last year from Attorney Howard R. Carroll (when the present charter amendment was being considered for adoption), said there was nothing in the ordinance about the residence of employes after they become a member of the department and does not in any way invalidate the Civil Service Act in Pontiac.

Wednesday, Ewart maintained that before 15 members of the force could become eligible for Civil Service, they must move back into Pontiac.

Ewart said this morning "it would be the court who would have to guess on the meaning" of the residency amendment in connection with Civil Service.

Locality Change Can't Affect Payments

From R.R.H. of Los Angeles: "My mother has been getting Social Security old-age payments for the past three years. She now plans to return to her home town in Iowa. She's been living with me for the past five years. Will the move have any bearing on her eligibility to Social Security payments?"

No. The Social Security law is a federal law and applies the same to persons in every state.

★ ★ ★

From T. W. of New York City: "I'm 73. I've never worked under Social Security and my husband, before he died, owned a grocery, but wasn't ever covered by Social Security. My son died recently and his wife and children have been getting Social Security payments. Is it possible that I'm eligible for Social Security due to my son's record?"

No. But, mothers can qualify if they're 62 or over and are the mothers of workers who died with enough Social Security coverage to qualify for survivor's payments and no spouse or child is eligible. Also, the deceased worker must have been providing at least 50 per cent of the mother's support at the time of his death.

★ ★ ★

From Mrs. R.P.A. of Minot, N.D.: "I believe I'm eligible for survivor payments under the Railroad Retirement plan. How long after my husband died do I have to apply for payments and still not lose any of the payment?"

If you apply within one year after you become eligible, your payments will be retroactive to the date you become eligible.

★ ★ ★

From J. L. of Allentown, Pa.: "Not long ago you listed the requirements for a World War I veteran to be eligible for a veteran's pension. I'm 66 and believe that I'm eligible. How much will I receive and where do I apply?"

Veterans 65 or over who are eligible for a pension from the Veterans Administration (VA) ordinarily receive $78.75. You may apply at any VA office. You can get the address from a local veterans' organization or the Red Cross.

★ ★ ★

From D.H.Y. of New Orleans: "I'm getting ready to retire and will soon apply for Social Security payments. I don't have a birth certificate showing my age, but I have a baptismal certificate. Will this be accepted as proof of my age?"

Ordinarily, baptismal certificates are accepted.

★ ★ ★

From L.M. of Fort Collins, Colo: "When should a person apply for his retirement checks under Social Security? I'll be 65 next May."

Ordinarily you may apply for payments on the first day of the month in which you reach retirement age.

Decide Holcomb Issue Monday

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

NOVI TOWNSHIP — Voters of Novi Township will settle a controversial issue—the rezoning of "Holcomb's property"—when they go to the polls for primary election Monday.

While interest in centered around the battle for township positions, many township residents will eagerly await the news of the approval or rejection of the following proposition:

"Shall the following described property be rezoned from its present classification of M-1 to the classification of M-3:

"A certain piece or parcel of land located in the township of Novi, bounded on the north by 11-Mile road, on the east by Seeley road, on the south by Grand River avenue and on the west by Meadowbrook road. All being in Section 24, Novi Township."

In December, 1956, Novi Township Board approved a resolution to rezone the property in question from M-1 to M-3.

Since township residents feared the new classification might result in the construction of a race track on the site, petitions were circulated to bring the issue before electors. A total of 485 names were signed to petitions, more than required number.

Acting upon the petitions in January session, the Novi Township Board decided to bring the matter to vote.

★ ★ ★

Residents may vote at Precinct No. 1 (Township Hall, 25850 Novi road) or at Precinct No. 2 (Novi Community Building, 26350 Novi road), from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Early in life George Washington acquired the magic of method. During the long and trying period his early acquisition of methodical planning helped bring order out of chaos. As a farmer he followed a plan, as Commander in Chief he followed a plan, as President he laid out his work according to a well thought out plan, bringing a "disunited, war-weary, young Republic to a quiet, orderly state of peace."

J. L. VOORHEES

M. E. SIPLE

Washington, as a boy, stood aloof from the rowdy crowd of boys and acquired the distinction of being "aloof." He was the most socialable person one could meet — with neighbors and friends. In 1794 the Englishman Charles James told British Parliament: "No breath of censure has ever impeached the purity of his conduct, no envy ever maligned his virtue. He was a man of transcendent merit."

Declining a military guard for his inauguration he said, "I require no guard but the affection of the people." Make your affection felt for this unusual man, Friday, February 22nd. Honor his memory.

Avoid Being Fat by Right Diets in Early Years

Editor's Note: The following article is the last in a Pontiac Press series on a new concept in weight control—the re-education of eating habits. Gaynor Maddox, nutrition expert, interviews Dr. Charles G. King, executive director of the Nutrition Foundation in the account below.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEW YORK (NEA)—The longer you have been overweight, the harder it will be to get back to what you should weigh.

That is why it is so important to avoid putting on weight in early life, why it is vital to the health and good looks of young people to learn menu patterns that will prevent them from getting fat. So warns one of our most distinguished researchers in the field of nutrition, Dr. Charles Glen King, executive director of the Nutrition Foundation.

"Obese people who have occasionally lost some weight find it easier to reduce than those who have never lost any unwanted pounds," he added, again stressing the importance of a better diet pattern for Americans, who are rapidly becoming a nation of the overfed.

He pointed out, too, that as a rule, fat children have fat parents. That usually means that mama and papa like to overeat and that the child has picked up the habit and shows the result.

Just plain overeating is far more serious than we realize. There is every evidence to prove that a diet packed with hazards not only to personal attractiveness, but to health and longevity.

★ ★ ★

King, who is also professor of nutrition at Columbia University and nutritional consultant to UNICEF, is convinced the solution to overweight, now a national problem, is the readjustment of our way of eating to modern life and what we have learned about food values.

NO SOLUTION

"Faddism is no solution to overweight," he stated with emphasis. "Most of the 'wonder' diets so popular are not the answer. In the first place they are expensive. They are impractical in normal family living and fail to re-educate the obese into eating and enjoying a balanced diet and sticking to it permanently."

He defined a balanced diet as including everyday foods from four groups:

1) Good protein, such as meat, fish, eggs, dairy products.

2) Citrus fruits, such as oranges, grapefruit, lemons; also tomatoes.

3) Whole or enriched cereals in some form. He says hot breads in variety belong in this category, despite the bad reputation they have wrongfully gained.

4) A good variety of the usual vegetables and fruits, with emphasis on the intensely yellow and green ones.

"These are the foods you find in your market," he says. "Nothing faddy about them, no tricks. Nevertheless, they provide the basis for the best imaginable reducing diet provided you use some form of each of the four groups every day and in amounts required by your body according to your energy expenditure.

★ ★ ★

"That means the work you do—housewife, truck driver, student, factory worker, business man, whatever it may be. Certainly the housewife requires fewer calories a day than a logger in the woods—she needs about 2,000, he needs around 6,000," he explained.

"But whatever your work, if you eat more food calories a day than you use up, the excess calories simply pile up as fat.

ADJUST FOOD INTAKE

"To get rid of those excess pounds, adjust your food intake to just below the calories required to maintain your ideal body weight," he advised.

"Use a reliable chart to help you determine what your particular body weight should be according to your height. Life insurance companies, many food companies, health departments, etc., distribute these charts free. Get one. Study it carefully.

Then determine your calorie needs and eat from the four groups enough, but not more, food to fulfill those calorie requirements.

"And buy a reliable scale. Use it at regular periods, at the same time of day. In a little while your scale will tell you that those unwanted and unbecoming pounds are fading away. So will your mirror.

"But, of course, you must stick to the balanced diet—not just until you get your weight down to where it should be. That is not enough for optimum health.

You must teach yourself the new habit of eating from balanced menus in amounts enough to maintain that proper weight, not for just a little while, but for the rest of your life," he concluded.

Police Arrest Two for Liberace Robbery

CHICAGO (AP) — Police arrested two men last night for questioning in connection with the robbery of bandleader George Liberace's valuable violin a few hours after FBI agents had recovered the instrument.

★ ★ ★

Detectives of the narcotics detail said both men were identified by Liberace in a showup as the men who assaulted him and took his violin, insured for $25,000, last Monday.

★ ★ ★

Liberace, who is appearing with his pianist brother, Lee, at a near North Side night club, suffered deep scalp cuts when two Negroes attacked him as he was on his way to his hotel from the night club. They beat him and also robbed him of $50 and a violin shaped diamond ring he valued at $1,500. Liberace, 43, was confined to a hospital two days. Sixteen stitches were required to close head wounds.

Took an Interest in Collection — Wants Interest

KANSAS CITY (AP) — With some help, Bill Breyfogle toiled into the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas yesterday with eight canvas bags.

★ ★ ★

Each bag weighed 55 pounds. In them were 57,738 pennies. They were all zinc-colored pennies, issued in 1943 when copper had gone to war. Bill, who is a 21-year-old student at the University of Kansas, had been collecting them since he was 11, storing them in milk bottles in his room. He had 42 milk bottles full.

★ ★ ★

Why did he decide to turn in his pennies?

"The bank is paying 3 per cent interest," he said. "On $577.38 that can add up.

★ ★ ★

"Then my mother was worrying about the shelves in my room collapsing with the weight of all those milk bottles."

Steel Output Keeps Up With Population Growth

To serve the expanding needs of this country the iron and steel industry increased its capacity in 1956 by 5.1 million tons to a record 133.5 million.

This industry plans to spend $1.7 billion on expansion in the coming year which will increase capacity to 140 million tons. Actual production is expected to be 125 million tons, about 40 per cent of the world's output of 311 million tons.

★ ★ ★

United States' production of 115 million tons for last year was by far the world's greatest. Russia was next with 54 million, followed by West Germany with 26 million, Great Britain 23 million, France 15 million and Japan 12 million tons.

At the end of World War II there was some fear of depression with eight million unemployed and steel spokesmen were not in agreement as to what the steel capacity should be at that time. It was predicted that production would never be more than 80 million tons.

But from 1946 to 1956 the industry poured $8 billion into new equipment and construction to keep pace with our tremendous population growth and production increased 45 per cent. At the present time the industry faces heavy demands for shipbuilding, freight cars, automobiles, pipelines and highways.

Long range plans now call for capacity of 150 million tons by 1960. This basic industry is contributing mightily to the Nation's unprecedented growth and strength.

Drive to Detect TB Launched in County

A countywide drive to search out undetected tuberculosis is underway.

The case rate in this part of the State is one of the highest in Michigan. This has led to the formation of a Southeastern Michigan TB Detection Project. Dr. John Monroe, director of the County Health Department is vice-president.

Working with the Oakland County Tuberculosis Association and County and State Health Departments this Detection Project plans to have four mobile units tour the County in the near future.

Dr. James E. Perkins, managing director of the National Tuberculosis Association said recently that although there has been a marked decline in the death rate from this disease, last year 16,000 persons died of it. In most cases they could have been cured if their trouble had been recognized in an early stage.

There are an estimated 1.2 million tuberculosis persons in the United States. Of these 800,000 have the disease in an active state and 250,000 of them are not getting any treatment.

★ ★ ★

Many persons who suspect they have tuberculosis won't avail themselves of the free X-Ray provided by these mobile units. They don't want to know the truth. These are the ones who stay home and spread the disease.

When a mobile unit comes your way, for the sake of your family if not for your own, take advantage of its service. It could save your life, too.

The People's Business:

Not Much Done

Legislature Accomplishes Very Little in 6 Weeks

By ROGER LANE

LANSING—A person little acquainted with the way the public handles its legislative business at the state level might legitimately ask:

"Now that the Legislature has been in session six weeks, what has it done?"

★ ★ ★

"Nothing" would be a pretty fair reply, although of course this answer would get an argument from a good many lawmakers.

Even the few who might agree probably wouldn't want to admit it lest they be chided about drawing their $5,000 a year pay under false pretenses.

There are things to be said on both sides of this, as well as any other question. But consider these facts:

Four of the 19 committees in the Senate have acted on one or more bills, reporting a total of 14 to the floor. The other committees have acted on none. More than 130 bills have been presented for consideration.

★ ★ ★

In the house, where there are 47 committees — about half of them dumpy groups that never meet — the same number, just four committees, have reported any bills. The House total is 14.

ONLY 3 COMPLETED

And so, after six weeks a total of three bills have completed the legislative route and are awaiting action by the governor.

★ ★ ★

One of them changes the word "college" to the word "university" in the title of Western Michigan College at Kalamazoo. The other two repeal outdated acts which set up local school districts.

What of the major issues involving taxation, reallocation of gasoline tax revenues, elections, traffic safety, education and any others one chooses to put in this category?

Nothing has happened and nothing is about to happen.

Tacitly, many lawmakers admit that one big reason is impending spring election on April 1. Neither Republicans nor Democrats want to do anything for fear it will rock the boat, and sway votes, they say.

★ ★ ★

You never can tell when a comparatively minor bill suddenly will become a political storm center with unexpected and uncontrollable repercussions.

MINOR PROBLEMS

Various committees are wrestling with such problems as whether to ask Congress not to boost the interest rate on GI housing loans, to ask President Eisenhower to reprimand Secretary of Defense Wilson for his remarks about the National Guard, to make sure teachers get 45 minutes for lunch, to require map-makers to include the Upper Peninsula when they publish a map of Michigan, to prohibit tattooing of minors and to better post the highways against dumping of litter on the roadsides.

Any way you look at it, the product so far has been puny.

But to keep the record straight, a few committees and their members have been putting in good licks, notably the Appropriations Committee in the Senate and the Ways and Means Committee in the House.

While even most of this handful have little yet to show for their efforts, nobody would deny that the finance committees are earning their keep in their attempts to master the complexities of the budget.

★ ★ ★

Whatever good work they are doing now will show up later on — and in a form that taxpayers will understand.

Will Observe Brotherhood Week

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

The 23rd annual Brotherhood Week will be observed this week, featuring the theme "Brotherhood for Peace and Freedom. Believe it! Live it! Support it!"

Sponsored each year by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Brotherhood Week rests on a simple principle with which no one could logically disagree. Everyone has seen, in his own experience, that the practice of brotherhood brings peaceful solutions to neighborhood misunderstandings and community tensions. The conference believes that the same treatment can be applied to the larger but entirely similar difficulties encountered on national and international levels.

The National Conference of Christians and Jews was established in 1928 for the following important purpose, as stated in its bylaws ..."to promote justice, amity, understanding and cooperation among Protestants, Catholics and Jews, and to analyze, moderate and finally eliminate intergroup prejudices which disfigure and distort religious, business, social and political relations, with a view to establishment of a social order in which the religious ideals of brotherhood and justice shall become standards of human relationships." In pursuit of these goals the Conference carries on a year-round educational program in schools and colleges, churches and synagogues, and community organization.

The program, however, reaches its peak of intensity during this one week each year, when through newspaper columns, cartoons and editorials, movie, radio and TV "spots," and special local activities the entire country engages in a week of emphasis on better relations between men of all religions, races and nationalities.

HOLY GRAIL

Every boy who knows anything about King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table knows that the greatest hope of every knight was to find the Holy Grail. Behind these early British stories is one of the oldest of all Christian legends.

It is said, and believed by many, that Joseph of Arimathea, who is remembered Friday in the Christian Calendar, came to the British Isles immediately after the Resurrection, bringing with him the holy cup (grail) which had held the wine at the Last Supper. The grail disappeared, and all the Arthurian legends are based on the consuming desire of the King and the Knights to discover it and restore it to the position deserved by so holy an object.

★ ★ ★

Joseph is mentioned in all four of the Gospels. He was rich and highly respected among the Jews until the time of the Crucifixion. Then, because he claimed the body of Jesus and provided the tomb, it became known that he had secretly been a follower of the Lord. He was stripped of the honors he had held and exiled from the land. Many scholars are inclined to believe that he proceeded to England. Whether or not he really had the Holy Grail with him would be impossible to determine.

"Would appreciate any help or advice on the problem of menopause. My physician seems to think injections are the only thing . . . (Mrs. S. C.)"

Answer—In the pamphlet The Menopause, for which send stamped, self-addressed envelope, I suggest how to prevent or minimize hot flashes. Many women have obtained relief by taking Premarin (hormone) tablets—perhaps you'll require your doctor's o.k. for these.

"Is there such a sickness as nervous stomach? (M.A.)"

Answer — What is commonly called "nervousness"—fear, worry, anxiety, anger, or other unpleasant emotion—often retards digestion or even arrests it, in some instances reverses the process, causing nausea or vomiting. Many persons who purport to have "ulcer" really have wrong living habits. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet Yankee Stomach.

"Several years ago I asked your advice on the healing of hemorrhoids. You sent me a pamphlet containing much practical advice, and you recommended ambulant treatment. I followed your advice, received the treatment and have had no trouble since. Now a friend would like . . . (K. M.)"

Answer—Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask (no clipping, please) for the pamphlet on Piles.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Dr. Crane Theorizes About Heaven

"Where is Heaven?" our children have asked. If this question has ever puzzled you, scrapbook this case record, for it deals with the most perplexing problem mankind has ever confronted. Discuss it in Sunday School tomorrow.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-306: The next night after the funeral of George IV, we sat around the table at our summer home in Indiana till ? a.m.

★ ★ ★

"Daddy, it makes Heaven seem much closer," said Judy, "to know that George IV is already there ahead of us."

And Judy's observation is similar to that which millions of you good readers have felt when you have offered a final earthly farewell to your son or daughter, brother, sister or mate.

"But, Dad, where do you think Heaven is?" asked one of our remaining sons. "It bothers me to think how many years it takes the speed of light to travel between heavenly bodies.

"So how could George be in Heaven the instant he crashed in his jet?"

Well, the attempt to decipher the mystery of the universe bothers me, too, and has puzzled other scientists since the beginning of time.

We know, for example, that Heaven could probably not be on any other planets of our solar system, for none except Venus has temperature and moisture even remotely resembling Earth.

Yet the Catholic Church and many Protestants believe in Heaven as a physical place. Personally, I view it as similar to Earth, except on a more elevated plane.

Like four-year-old Larry, whom I described as not able to comprehend the logical deductions that were simple for his mother, so we human beings have difficulty even imagining what occurs in the next world.

★ ★ ★

But we have some analogies that may help. For example, we can now project via TV the physical appearance and the voice and mannerism and even the color of performers in New York so they can then be re-assembled via TV tubes in Los Angeles.

Such a thing would have been deemed impossible a generation ago, yet now is accepted as a commonplace.

The TV, as well as radio, employs the same ether medium used by light, heat and electricity and thus has a speed of about 186,000 miles per second.

But even that great speed might take 1,000 years for us to reach Heaven, if the latter were on a planet revolving around some sun that was 1,000 light years removed. And some suns are more than 1,000,000 light years away!

★ ★ ★

So we may need to use a much faster medium than light or electricity waves, and that is thought.

In an instant of time you can thus project yourself, via imagination, upon a distant planet that might take 1,000 years for a light wave to get there.

Suppose, for example, you can project a thought beam anywhere in the Cosmic Universe and then figuratively travel on that thought beam in a split second.

At the other end you then recrystallize your personality, much as we now pick up the TV beams and reassemble them on our living room screen.

That may seem impossible to some of our present scientists. But it is no more incomprehensible to us, than that "little bird" was to four-year-old Larry who broke the gold fish bowl in Monday's case record.

And since the ether waves are employed for swift re-assembling of TV pictures, it is certainly analogous to believe that if we are to be in Heaven the instant we die here on Earth, then something faster than light must be the solution.

Jesus promised, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there will I be in the midst of them," which suggests instantaneous travel.

And St. Paul stated (I Corinthians 13:12): "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known."

I think God hears our prayers instantly, so something faster than ether waves must be the answer.

'UN Should Treat Nations Equally, Large or Small'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

It appears that the United Nations is about to get tough with Israel unless that country withdraws its troops from the Gaza Strip. Of course, the fact that Israel is a small nation is very important in this case, for when the UN demanded that Russia withdraw its troops from Hungary, Russia told the UN to go jump in the lake, or words to that effect.

Unless the UN treats all nations alike in matters of this sort, we will shortly see the end of this effort to impose peace on the world. The fact that a large country like Russia can thumb its nose at the UN while small, weak countries must bow down weekly, is sickening to Americans who appreciate freedom. Naturally it would mean war if the UN tried to force Russia to withdraw from Hungary. We don't want war. However, some method of enforcing UN demands must be conceived or else the United States should call for disbanding the organization.

I am not Jewish but I certainly am pulling for Israel to refuse to budge until its guarantees are met.

Tells Eisenhower to Toss Stassen

If I were Dwight D. Eisenhower and I had a man that walked out from under me in a critical moment like Harold Stassen did, I'd toss him into Chesapeake Bay "and leave him lay." Why should the President continue to play ball with a guy that threw down when it counted?

'Camper' Favors State Park Fee

If you don't like the idea of paying $2.00 for picnicking in the state parks then stay home and let other people that enjoy them have more room.

Campers pay so much a day for camping and we haven't talked to one camper that gripes about it. They think it is wonderful that Michigan has these parks. Try traveling and find places to camp or eat along the roadside, Michigan has it.

What if the state does collect a couple of million? They turn that money back into more parks, beaches, tables and equipment. Just remember you have a lot of facilities free in the picnic area where the maintenance is an expense and you're kicking on paying a fee for the year. Huh!

A real picnicker or camper will be more than glad to pay and more power to the state parks.

'Hoover Is Right About Juveniles'

I read the editorial about juvenile criminals and think Mr. Hoover is about right in what he says about them. Furthermore, I'd like to point out a few facts the government or authorities should do. That is to put a license on all those guns and firearms and permit no one to possess any unless he had a good reason to protect life or property. Those rifles and firearms are getting all together too handy and plentiful.

I would also like to call your attention to the fact that these wild west and murder dramas are regular schools of crime. Youngsters just love to see them on TV and then put them into practice, or is it to keep up the war spirit?

I think these training camps would be able to do that.

Neighbors Resent Nazi Swastika Flying on Line

VINELAND, N. J. (AP) — This souvenir just didn't go over at all with the neighbors.

Mrs. Ruth Dean came across a big German flag with a swastika on it while doing her household chores yesterday. She decided to hang it out on her clothes line for an airing and forgot about it.

Neighbors saw the flag. Two anonymous callers offered to pay passage back to Germany.

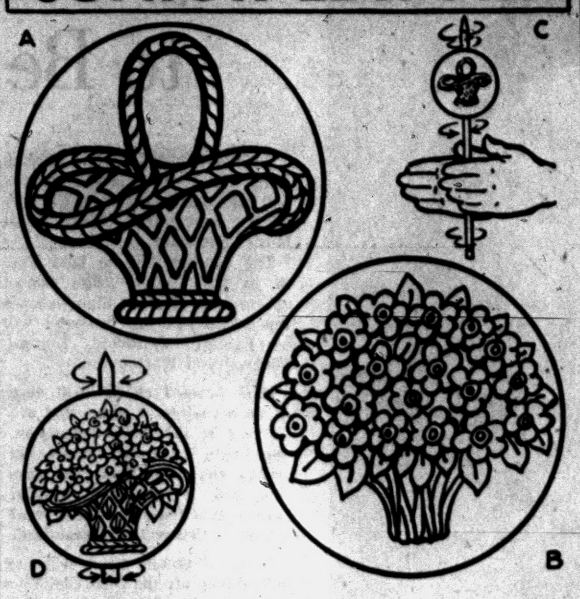

Mrs. Dean called police.

The cops had heard about the Nazi flag and suggested Mrs. Dean take it off the clothesline.

The flag was a souvenir her husband had brought back from Germany.

Filling a Basket

Our eyes can be fooled in many small ways.

Here is a toy that will fool your eyes. It's based on an optical instrument called a thaumatrope.

The thaumatrope shows how an image persists in your eye. It cannot hurt your eyes and it may surprise you.

Paste the drawing down on stiff paper and color the basket inside the outlines only, leaving the background white. Color the flowers lightly in delicate colors with green leaves and stems.

Cut out the two circles "A" and "B", and fasten them firmly, back to back, with a long pencil or wooden rod in the middle.

Hold the rod between the palms of your hands and look steadily at basket "A" for a moment.

Then twirl the rod rapidly, back and forth holding it as shown in the small picture "C" and the flowers will appear to be in the basket as in "D."

Dem Conference Enters Last Day

Chairman Butler Backs New Civil Rights Stand at San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler presided over final sessions of a national party conference today with a double victory to strengthen his position.

Only one question remained: whether the Democratic National Advisory Council would approve a new civil rights declaration and, if so, how far it would go.

★ ★ ★

Amid pressure from the faction known as Northern liberals, two actions by the Democratic National Committee yesterday cleared the way for the first policy statement by the fledgling advisory group.

It adopted the council — political child of Butler and his executive committee—as an official adjunct with the role of party voice between national conventions.

Then, as expected, it gave Butler a resounding vote of confidence. Only Kentucky's two members dissented.

The two-day meeting ends tonight with an address by Adlai Stevenson at a $50-a-plate fund-raising dinner.

Butler, briefing newsmen on a closed meeting, indicated the advisory council had pretty well junked a proposed resolution that seemed certain to fire up Southern Democrats. The resolution urged Democratic congressmen to redeem their party's pledges and enact civil rights legislation at this session of Congress.

Ceil Chapman Puts Brooches on the Backbone

NEW YORK (INS)—Ceil Chapman is suggesting a new place to wear jewelry come summer — on your spine.

★ ★ ★

The dress designer is putting broaches at the deepest part of low-back dresses, and it's a most effective exit line.

On a black dress with a back that plunges to the waist, for instance, Miss Chapman sticks a big rhinestone pin. On pastel dresses, she votes for something frillier in back—flowers or bows.

The theory in this designer's summer collection seems to be that girls should look as pretty from the back as they do in front.

In addition to jewels on the spine Miss Chapman likes "flirt skirts" that concentrate attention below the knee. These full frilly hemlines break just about where your knee dimples, and keep full and frilly right down to the edge of the dress.

★ ★ ★

With "flirt skirts," Miss Chapman advocates little top trimming. She shows her dresses only with big chandelier earrings, an occasional pin on the spine, and no necklaces at all.

Beauty Hint

Use 6 Rules to Avoid Office Politics

By ANNE HEYWOOD

It seems to me that office politics is America's favorite indoor sport.

★ ★ ★

Scarcely a day goes by that I don't receive a letter from someone complaining about office politics in his firm.

Occasionally, as with a letter I got today from a young man in Indiana, they're more frank than that.

"Please," he writes, "send me a list of pointers for winning at office politics. This is my first job."

★ ★ ★

Obviously, office politics is a sport which you can win at only by not playing! But here are some pointers for this boy and for all others who have been bothered by "office politics":

1. Be sure you are in a job that is right for you. If the job is wrong for you, you'll do it incompetently and unhappily.

WORST POLITICIANS

It is the incompetent and unhappy people who become the worst office politicians.

They try to make up, in charm, what they lack in ability. Then those who work hard begin to dislike them and eventually "knife" them.

2. Do your own work to the best of your ability, all day every day. If you let filing pile up, or let your schedule get behind, you'll have a subconscious guilty feeling that will make you touchy.

3. Don't join any special clique. Socialize at lunch if that's the accepted thing in your office, but don't always go with the same crowd.

You get pegged and pigeonholed and the other cliques may have little use for you. Better play the field.

Also, try to have lunch sometimes with friends from other offices or even alone. The more you have a life of your own away from the office, the less apt you are to get involved in politics at the office.

AVOID CONFIDENCES

4. Don't let people confide in you. It's difficult, because nothing is more flattering than having people want to confide in you and ask your advice.

But they're apt to tell too much, in which case they will hate you. There isn't much logic in this, but it is unfailingly true.

5. Don't confide in people. The less they know about your private life, the less fuel they'll have if they happen to gossip.

6. Always leave quickly when gossip comes up. If you're at the water cooler when the boys start on the subject of Susie, get away fast.

When you aren't there, you can't be credited with vicious remarks you never made — but when you are there, you can!

Edna F. Scully Speaks Nuptial Vows

A floor-length gown fashioned with a bodice of Chantilly lace over slipper satin was worn by Edna Frances Scully for her marriage this morning to Leon T. Messinger.

★ ★ ★

The portrait neckline of the gown was formed of finely pleated bands of nylon tulle. The deep yoked skirt of Chantilly lace with a flounce of nylon tulle fell into a chapel sweep.

A softly fluted Juliet cap of net and lace dotted with brilliants secured the bride's fingertip veil of silk illusion.

Each attendant wore an open crown bonnet with small flowers decorating the brim and carried cascade arrangements of carnations.

Leon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon E. Messinger of Baldwinsville, N. Y., asked Ernest MacDonald to perform the duties of best man. Ushers were Beryl F. Scully, Charles Messinger, William Graham and Thomas C. Fitzpatrick.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Scully chose an amethyst-colored dress with matching jacket. Her accessories were in a lilac shade and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Messinger chose a navy blue dress with matching Eton jacket. Navy blue and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses completed her ensemble.

BREAKFAST SERVED

Immediately following the ceremony, members of the wedding party and the immediate families gathered at Devon Gables for breakfast. An afternoon reception was held at the Catholic Family Center from 3 until 5 o'clock.

★ ★ ★

For traveling to the Southeastern states the bride changed to a costume suit of gray and black stripes with a companion coat in light gray flannel. A white hat and gloves and a corsage of white camellias completed her costume.

On their return the newlyweds will reside on Whittemore street.

Reserve Time for Beauty Routine

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Five, ten or fifteen minutes are as important in building good looks as nickels and dimes are in building wealth. We often feel that we are too busy to take a few minutes here and a few there, but any of us can snag a half hour out of the day for ourselves, if we really want to.

★ ★ ★

Even though the sum total of time we spend in beauty routines may be small, the results can be impressive. If you decide to take a half hour a day for yourself, use 15 minutes of it in figure-molding exercises.

The remaining 15 minutes can be divided between hair brushing or scalp massage and facial and neck exercises. Even such short sessions, if indulged in faithfully every day, will pay dividends.

You also can correlate beauty care with other activities. You can let the cold cream soak into your face and neck while you do your housework. If you have several telephone calls to make, you can lie down and rest while you talk.

As you walk about the house you can concentrate on good posture. The act of holding the abdominal muscles in tightly is a good exercise in itself.

Just a half hour a day plus a correlation between duties and beauty care will make a big difference in a woman's appearance. Naturally we take for granted nail care and shampoos and baths. These measures are a part of good grooming.

I am thinking of the little extra attentions today.

★ ★ ★

We also can find time for more enjoyment and self-improvement if we use small amounts of time in this way. We can read while we ride on a bus or subway or wait for an appointment. We can listen to music while we prepare meals. We can write letters while we wait for the laundry to be done.

Some of the loveliest and most successful women I know have mastered this trick.

Often we fail to do things we plan to do because we keep waiting until we have more time. We never quite reach that mirage and so we do not accomplish what we wish.

If you would like to have my leaflet about household organization send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 62. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Mother Objects to Having Outsider at Family Affair

By EMILY POST

A mother tells me: "My son, who is 19 and in the service, has been going with a girl his own age for about a year. They are not officially engaged though they talk of getting married when he comes out of the service (which won't be for a year and a half).

"Once a year our family has a reunion. This year it is to be at our house and my son would like me to invite his girl friend to this family get-together. As they are not as yet married, I do not feel that she belongs at this family gathering. Will you please give me your opinion?"

Answer: From your account, it is evident that they have an understanding and if you approve of her then she should certainly be invited to the family get-together.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am quite confused as to how children should answer their parents. For example, should they say 'yes, Mother' or 'yes, ma'am'; 'yes, dad' or 'yes, sir'? I have a friend whose children have been taught to say 'yes, sir' and 'yes, ma'am.'

"My children have picked it up and I am not sure I like it. I want to teach my children the correct way but, having been raised in another country where a different language is spoken, I really haven't any idea what is best taste. Will you please advise me."

Answer: "Yes, Mother" and "yes, Dad" are in unquestionably best taste.

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper to keep gloves on while eating refreshments at a wedding reception?"

Answer: While drinking the health of the bride and bridegroom and eating no more than a thin sandwich and a small cake, they may be left on. When eating any amount of food, they should be removed.

Teenage Son's Behavior Mirrors Home Training

Lax Parental Attitude Allows Boy to Drift Into Delinquency

By RUTH MILLETT

For parents of teenage sons:

Without realizing it, you may be giving your teenage boy more leisure, more freedom and more spending money than he knows how to handle.

★ ★ ★

It's a cinch that you are if you haven't the vaguest idea of where he is or what he is doing. If he has all the money he needs without working for any of it, he is probably killing time hanging around joints or aimlessly riding around in a car.

If you secretly feel that he shows less respect for you than he should, it may well be that you haven't demanded that he show repect for adults, simply because they are adults.

If you've listened without protest when he referred to a teacher as "old lady so-and-so" or spoke of a friend's father as "Joe's old man," can you really be surprised that he isn't respectful to you?

If you have a daughter you know what you expect from the boys who take her out. But have you taught your own son that if he is old enough to date, he is old enough to feel responsible for the girl whose parents entrust her to him?

Have you impressed on him that being responsible for her includes driving carefully, not taking her anywhere her parents don't want her to go, getting her home on time and not risking her reputation and her safety by parking, etc.?

Instead of going to bed before your son is in at night because you are too tired to sit up, do you have the gumption to see that he gets in at a reasonable hour?

★ ★ ★

But there must be reasons. And it is well for parents to start looking for them before their own children get into difficulties that might have been prevented.

Confident Living

Quiet Room for Meditation Needed in a Noisy World

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

I once knew a man who did an unusual thing in building a new home. He included what he called "a silence room." It was just a cubbyhole, not much bigger than six by six, but it was beautifully decorated.

DR. PEALE

On the walls he had soft shades of color. Harmonizing with this were handsome curtains at the windows. A thick carpet covered the floor. But the only furnishings were a table, a chair, a picture, and a book.

• • •

From my description of this room you might think that the chair was an overstuffed lounge chair. But it wasn't; it was a straight chair. He called it a "disciplinary chair," for my friend didn't go into that room to sleep. He went there to be alive, happily and quietly alive.

How did he go about it? He would enter that room at the end of a busy day. That one book in it was the Bible, which rested on the table. He would pull up his straight chair, open the Book, and proceed to saturate his mind with its great words of quietness and peace.

The one picture he had placed on the wall was of the Matterhorn, that great projection of rock climbing into the skies, covered always with its eternal snows, brooding over the quaint little town which lies at its feet. After reading a while, he would lift his eyes from the Book and contemplate the picture; then he would say, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help."

• • •

Thus would this man induce quietness into mind and heart. And, as he did so, he would feel a resurgence of strength, power and vitality. This ultimately gave him a sense of real happiness, more than he had ever known.

IDEA COPIED IN MANY PLACES

His idea has now taken hold in other places. How many homes have "silence rooms" I do not know, but many public places have rooms set aside, decorated and equipped for such private meditation. In many places they are called "meditation rooms." There is one such room at the United Nations in New York, and Conrad Hilton has taken a personal interest in making such rooms a service to guests of some of the Hilton hotels. Some business offices and industrial plants have meditation rooms where people may pray and find peace and strength.

• • •

People find such rooms very helpful because, in a confused, noisy, crowded, mechanistic civilization we realize that what is eternal expresses itself in silence. And we must learn to know this creative silence and to bring it into our lives. For the greater the amount of spiritually charged silence we can get into our lives, the greater the sense of renewed vigor and joy.

LEARN SILENCE POWER

William James, the father of American psychology, once said, "It is as important to learn silence power as it is to learn word power." Words are a chief means by which we communicate with each other, while silence is an important mechanism by which we communicate with God. As Thomas Carlyle wrote, "Silence is the element in which great things fashion themselves."

Real happiness is a great but difficult thing to find. Many people spend all their lives seeking it, yet never find it. The quest is a restless one; it goes on and on. Saint Augustine once wrote, "Our hearts are restless till they rest in Thee." And one of the great thinkers of all time, Pascal, said, "Happiness is not inside us. Happiness is not outside us. Happiness consists in the union of ourselves with God."

• • •

This, then, is a formula for living a happy life. Take some time every day for quiet meditation, for reading and meditating upon the great truths of the greatest of all books. This will bring you close to God. And in those deep spiritual moments you will find the secret of happiness.

Teenage Club Aids Migrants

Investigates Problems of Workers; Publicity Speeds the Solutions

A group of teenagers in San Jose, Calif., who call themselves the Diamentes Club, is helping needy families of migrant farm workers who cannot find winter work now that the harvests are in.

★ ★ ★

A recent investigation turned up one family of 14 people, including 10 children, who were sharing a two-room shack with rats. Learning of the Ruiz family and their desperate plight the Diamentes Club got busy.

★ ★ ★

After first alerting the press, they rallied the residents of the Santa Clara Valley with door bell and telephone campaign. As a result, the youngsters collected food, clothing and furniture and the family was put on its feet again.

★ ★ ★

Next, the plight of the Jimenez family was tackled. Strickened by illness, this migrant family didn't know where to turn until the young club members arranged emergency aid which included an application for state aid for the children in the family.

The young people also saw that one of the local churches "adopted" the family last Thanksgiving and at Christmas.

★ ★ ★

Because they had been helped by the Migrant Ministry, these Mexican-American teen-agers made their decision to help others. Under the leadership of Mrs. James Goble, former chairman of the Migrant Committee of the San Jose Council of Churches, they have made the plight of many of the migrant families in the area their main concern. In their work they are helped by the council committee.

Merger Passes Major Hurdle

2 Presbyterian Groups Hope to Become One in Near Future

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. says it has passed a major hurdle in a move toward merger with the smaller United Presbyterian Church.

It announced over the weekend that all 161 Presbyteries reporting so far have said they favor the merger. A simple majority of the church's 250 presbyteries is necessary before the 169th General Assembly at Omaha this May can proceed with further action toward the merger.

The United Presbyterian Church, with some 275,000 members, located primarily in western Pennsylvania, also must approve the merger — but by a majority of individual votes from the members of its presbyteries. Many already have cast their votes with an over whelming majority favoring the union.

The two churches plan tentatively to unite under the name of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. at a meeting in Pittsburgh next year. They would have a membership of more than 3,000,000.

★ ★ ★

Doctrine in the two churches is virtually the same although their origins are different. The Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. has its roots in England. The smaller church had its origin in Scotland.

Liberian Literacy Center Penetrates Each Clearing

What makes a chic American girl want to live and work in the hills of Liberia among members of the Loma tribes who still live in thatched mud huts? Pert blonde Margaret Miller's enthusiasm for her job teaching them to read and write was answer enough as she described her work at the annual meeting of the Committee on World Literacy and Christian Literature in New York recently.

Far from the outside world, in an almost inaccessible spot, Miss Miller works with Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Sadler at the literacy center they built up in the village of Wozi. When they came there five years ago, not one of its one thousand people could read or write nor saw any reason why they should. Today, Miss Miller told 100 members of the committee and guests, more than half the people are literate.

"When one chieftain learned to read," she said, "a rival chieftain came to us and insisted that he be taught too. The balance of power is now restored."

The only printed materials in the Loma language are produced at the Wozi center. Dr Sadler, the linguist and writer of the team, has prepared a grammar for new missionaries and is working on the first dictionary in the language. Mrs. Sadler is the artist and Miss Miller runs the literacy campaign and edits the weekly paper, whose circulation is soaring by Loma standards. The whole project receives committee support.

★ ★ ★

"But this is only the beginning," Miss Miller said. "We can't relax now. These people who only five years ago believed in magic, are penetrating into every small clearing in those forests. Trained in the 'Each One Teach One' system, they are now ready to meet the new on-rushing Africa."

Miss Miller, on a one-year leave of absence, is studying at Hartford Theological Seminary and will give several lectures on literacy work. The Committee is a unit of the Division of Foreign Missions of the National Council of Churches.

Executive Secretary Assisting Lutherans

On Sunday Feb. 24 during the 11 o'clock service, the following adults will be confirmed: Ben Courtney, Betty Dean, Karen Hoyt, Peggy Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. John Hufton.

Church Sponsors Rally

A Missionary Rally will be held at 3:30 p.m. Sunday in the South Side Church of God, 529 Nebraska St. Scheduled to speak is Mrs. Mary Woods. The Rev. H. C. Shankle is the pastor.

Methodists Set Funds for Missionary Work

The Board of Missions of the Methodist Church has appropriated a total of $18,635,721 for its missionary and service programs in the United States and overseas, for the twelve months beginning on June 1, 1957.

This appropriation, based on the moneys received from the churches of Methodism during the past year, is almost one-half million dollars more than the total appropriated a year ago.

New York Crusade Needs United Prayers of Nation

The evening of April 3 will witness one of the greatest united prayer efforts for the Billy Graham New York Crusade. Under the leadership of the National Association of Evangelicals a concerted wave of prayer is planned which includes a midnight prayer meeting at the annual NAE convention and the enlistment of churches throughout America to pray for the New York campaign which begins May 15.

★ ★ ★

Featured as a "convention of spiritual impact," the NAE yearly gathering will hear Billy Graham on the theme, "The Lost Chord of Evangelicalism," on the afternoon of April 3. In the evening Dr. Armin S. Gesswein, chairman of the NAE Spiritual Life Commission, will be the principal speaker. Dr. Gesswein has been associated with Billy Graham in a number of campaigns and has assisted in organizing prayer support for the New York meetings.

Following Dr. Gesswein's message, the convention will assemble to pray for the Billy Graham New York crusade. W. G. Haymaker, crusade prayer chairman, will present an up-to-date report on prayer backing for the meetings.

Emphasis is being placed by the NAE on the enlisting of churches to pray specifically in their midweek prayer services for the New York Crusade and revival. Churches interested in joining this united prayer effort are urged to send post cards, stating they will be praying, to the headquarters office of the National Association of Evangelicals, 108 North Main St., Wheaton, Illinois. The cards will be on display state by state at the convention in a demonstration of unity in prayer among evangelicals of America.

Plans to Speed Refugee Moves

Sponsorship by Groups Instead of Individuals Aids Resettlement

There were strong prospects this week that Hungarian refugees will be heading for communities across the country by plane and bus load in a new group resettlement program announced by Church World Service, relief arm of the National Council of Churches.

Under the plan, local councils of churches and church women, will provide homes and jobs for whole groups of these escapees from Communist terror. The new program, designed to speed up refugee resettlement and relieve congestion of refugees at Camp Kilmer, New Jersey, was announced by Roland Elliott, CWS director of immigration services.

The refugees have been arriving at Kilmer faster than individuals and local churches have been able to accept them, Mr. Elliott said. Though the last airlifted group arrived in the U.S. last week, many more are en route to this country by boat, he said. All are being processed at Kilmer.

Of the nearly 3,000 refugees entering the U.S. under Church World Service sponsorship, just about half have been resettled through individuals and local churches, he said. The remaining half, still at Kilmer, would be speedily taken care of under the new plan, he added.

★ ★ ★

In his announcement, Mr. Elliott advised employers or other interested church members to work through their local councils of churches or church women to bring refugees to their communities. In addition, he said, they should write their denominational headquarters for full details on how to go about moving refugees from Camp Kilmer.

"It will expedite matters greatly," Mr. Elliott said, "when interdenominational groups can be directed to a given community rather than a group belonging to one denomination."

The CWS immigration services director also announced, in answer to widespread inquiries, that there are no Hungarian orphans available for adoption, no domestics and only a few farm workers among the refugees. For the most part, he reported, the men are skilled laborers and members of the professions.

Ministers Learn Radio

Thirty-one ministers from four states recently put in a 50-hour week learning broadcasting techniques in the first religious radio and television workshop ever held in Arizona. Conducted by the National Council's Broadcasting and Film Commission, the workshop was held under the auspices of the Arizona and Phoenix Councils of Churches, United Church Women of Arizona and local radio and TV stations.

The things that are impossible with men are possible with God.

Dishwasher Gives Savings for Refugees

LOS ANGELES — A Chinese dishwasher here has given his life savings of $1,000 to help refugees in Hong Kong who have fled Communist tyranny in China.

The eldery man, who works in a hospital kitchen here, talked with Fr. Francis J. Caffrey, Maryknoll missioner stationed here. He explained he wanted to remain anonymous for fear of reprisals by the Communists against his mother and father in China.

★ ★ ★

"I've been saving to make a trip to Hong Kong to help the refugees there," the man told Fr. Caffrey. "Then I thought of the good work the Maryknoll Fathers were doing. I think that my savings can do more good in their hands. They will not only take care of some people's daily needs, but they will also give them something more important—Christianity."

Hail the Champs! Chiefs Win SVC Title as Saginaw Loses

Pontiac Easily Handles Wolves by 59-43 Count

Championship Is First for PHS Since Entry Into League in '33

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Hail the champion! It took 24 long years, but Pontiac has finally won the right to wear the crown of basketball champion in the rugged Saginaw Valley Conference.

The Chiefs whipped Bay City Central, 59-43, last night to at least clinch a share of the title, but when Arthur Hill pulled an upset in beating arch-rival Saginaw, 69-67, it gave Pontiac the outright championship.

★ ★ ★

Saginaw appeared victory bound when it sunk two free throws with 25 seconds left to take a 67-65 lead. Arthur Hill's Bill Mantle however hit on a jump shot with 19 seconds left to make it 67-67 and with 14 seconds to go Ted Grigg sunk two free throws to make it 69-67.

Saginaw came back when Willie Thompson hit a bucket but he was fouled before the shot and it was nullified with two seconds left. Thompson missed the first of his 1-1 shot and Saginaw was out of the race.

★ ★ ★

For Pontiac, the title is the first since entry into the league in 1933, and the win gave the Chiefs a 11-1 record with three games to play on the road.

Another standing room crowd watched as the Chiefs jumped off to a 16-12 first quarter lead and gradually pulled away to a 25-15 halftime margin.

Coach Art Van Ryzin used 12 players in the game as PHS regained some of the shooting from it lost against Highland Park Tuesday. The Chiefs made 24 of 56 shots for 41 per cent, led by Dave Diem's 18 points.

★ ★ ★

Hudson Ray added 14 points and was back on the boards with some assistance from Dick Whitmer. Guard Larry Peet played one of his best games of the season with his floor play, and he also hit his highest point total of the year—seven points in the home finale.

Jim Skinner, who injured his ankle over two weeks ago, was in uniform but did not play. He is expected to be back for the Flint Northern game next Friday.

★ ★ ★

After the Northern game, the Chiefs travel to Royal Oak, Tuesday, Feb. 26th and then visit Saginaw in the season final, March 1st.

In hearing the news that Pontiac had won the SVC title, coach Van Ryzin commented, "This is something we've waited for much too long, and this is one of the happiest days in basketball for me."

Best previous season for Van Ryzin in the SVC was in 1951 when the Chiefs finished 2nd with a 9-3 record behind Saginaw at 10-2.

In the other league game last night Flint Northern averaged an earlier defeat by whipping Flint Central, 61-36.

Clarkston in 1st Place Tie

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

By CHUCK ABAIR

It was do-or-die time at the jam-packed Clarkston gym last night and the Wolves were more than equal to the occasion.

They had to upset front-running Northville to stay in the race for the Wayne-Oakland championship and they did so with a suprisingly easy 72-48 victory.

The triumph advanced the locals into a 1st place tie with Northville with a 9-2 record. The issue will be settled next week when loop play concludes. It was the Mustangs' 2nd successive setback after previously dominating the league.

The visitors were determined to wrap up the title early and match a previous win over the CHS aggregation but they could not cope with the stellar Wolves combination of George Lang and Larry Parks.

This speedy pair and their teammates ran away with the contest on sheer hustle and shooting accuracy against the bigger Northville crew. Lang and Parks combined for 50 points, 28 by the former, to outscore the visitors together.

★ ★ ★

Bill Noels added 10 big digits and alternated with Dick Lippert in holding 6-8 Jeff Goodrich to four field goals. Goodrich topped his team with 11 points.

The Wolves, using a fast break, led right from the opening whistle and pulled away beyond reach late in the 3rd canto. A big reason was an excellent 46 per cent shooting mark from the floor and 26-for-33 on free throws.

Elsewhere in the Wayne-Oakland, Holly moved into a 3rd place deadlock with idle Brighton by tripping West Bloomfield, 69-52, and Milford downed Clarenceville, 68-56.

Holly broke its game wide open with 40 points in the final half as big George McDaniel led nine point-getters with 22. John Lucadam paced the losers with 28. The Keego Harbor five blew a 7-0 lead in the opening minutes but kept things interesting, aided by 20 foul points.

Pat Kelley led four Redskins scoring in double numbers with 11.

WOLVES' STAR ON MARCH — This photo of Clarkston sparkplug Leroy Parks (4) going around two Northville defenders is typical of what happened throughout their Wayne-Oakland League tilt last night as the Wolves romped to a 72-48 upset triumph to move into a 1st place tie. Chasing the little guy in vain are Bill Yahne (23) and Mac Burns (26). Parks and George Lang had a combined 50 points. Title will be decided next week.

ANOTHER TWO-POINTER — Dave Diehm, who led Pontiac with 18 points last night, drops in an easy layup which was one of his nine field goals. The Chiefs made it 8-0 in the SVC, but clinched the title as Arthur Hill upset Saginaw, 69-67.

Big Reds Hand Maples Licking

Sparked by Rich Robins' brilliant display of marksmanship, Port Huron's Big Reds rolled over Birmingham's Maples, last night, 75-58 at Port Huron. Win was the 5th for Big Reds, Maples 5th loss in Eastern Michigan League play.

Robins just couldn't miss, as he compiled a 33-point Port Huron school record. Teammates Ken Martin and Jerry Barr helped with 13 each. Coach John Petrakis' crew had four of their six players figuring in his scoring, in double figures. But they didn't have enough to offset Robins terrific shooting.

Port Huron held a five point lead at the end of the first period, and Maples never caught up.

Both clubs spurted in the finale, with the Reds still holding a five-point scoring margin, 28-23.

East Detroit rolled to its 8th straight loop win, 56-50 over Ferndale, thereby nailing the EML title. Ferndale led at halftime by four poinnts. Dales' star Jerry Fry was injured in the finale and was taken to Beaumont hospital with a possible concussion.

In the other EML game of Friday, Mt. Clemens dumped Hazel Park 64-40, paced by Chuck Nicolai's 15 points.

Cranbrook gained a wrestling victory but bowed again on the basketball court Friday.

The Crane matmen trounced Southfield 33-10 paced by pins by Lee McBride and Jim Ludwig. The hoop team dropped its 10th game in 12 outings to Flint Tech, 69-45. Chuck Grube topped the losers with 15.

Oxford, Ortonville Belted

Oxford and Ortonville lost a little more ground in the South Central League as both suffered decisive defeats last night.

The cellar-dwelling Wildcats bowed to 2nd place North Branch by a 72-43 margin while Millington was walloping Ortonville, 66-40.

Oxford raced to a 9-3 1st period advantage in its contest but North Branch took over from then on the victors had a 28-point 2nd stanza and kept rolling the rest of the way led by Jim O'Neill with 23 points. Jerry Rossman and Jeff Brady hooped 13 apiece for the Wildcats. Oxford now has a 2-11 record with six straight losses.

Millington also rallied from a 1st period deficit to pull away on the heels of a big 2nd quarter. It was no contest the rest of the way.

Duane Roggentine and George Kish swished 18 points each to pace Millington in its 3rd loop triumph in six tries. George Graves and Dick Carter had 11 apiece for Ortonville.

Mikes, Eaglets Collide Sunday

Basketball teams from Orchard Lake St. Mary and St. Michael will clash in a Sunday afternoon engagement at the St. Mike gymnasium.

The Eaglets, who finished 2nd in the final Suburban Catholic League standings with a 9-1 record, handed the Shamrocks a 53-25 shellacking on Jan. 25 at Orchard Lake in their 1st meeting.

St. Mike, which wound up 3rd in the SCL with a 7-3 mark, gave its most dismal performance of the season in that game. The frigid Mikes left the floor at halftime with only six points to their credit.

Tomorrow's encounter will have no bearing on the league standings. Junior varsity squads will open the proceedings at 3:30 p.m.

Bernards Here for Sunday Tilt

St. Frederick basketball Rams take on their counterpart in the East Side Detroit Catholic League in a Sunday afternoon contest at St. Vincent hall. Reserves open competition at 4:00, varsity game starts at 5:30, Rams' coach Gene Wright announced this morning.

Freds finished 4th in Suburban Catholic League. St. Bernards wound up 4th in the Detroit circuit. Rams' record is 8-4, visitors' 5-5.

Madison Beats Shrine

Madison's basketball team rallied in the 4th quarter to defeat Shrine, 56-50, last night at Madison. Joe Fornaresio led the Eagles with 18 points while Tom Ropers netted 16 for Shrine.

Walled Lake Survives, 49-47

Skippers Bow in Overtime

By BILL CORNWELL

Waterford's inspired basketball team, fighting every second of the way, won everything but the final score Friday night as Walled Lake took a 49-47 decision in an overtime thriller at Walled Lake.

Larry Hughes, who couldn't penetrate an alert Waterford defense for a field goal until midway through the 4th quarter, bagged four foul shots in the 1st extra session to provide the margin of victory.

Walled Lake's shaky triumph was a vitally important one in the Inter-Lakes Conference title chase. Defending champion Berkley chalked up a 50-41 verdict over Farmington yesterday, leaving the two schools tied for the lead with 7-1 records.

Waterford outplayed the ragged Vikings in every respect, but the lucky breaks were absent when they were needed most. The Skippers led at halftime, 24-22, and held the upper hand during much of the 2nd half.

Walled Lake grabbed a 44-43 edge with 53 seconds of game time remaining when Hughes tipped in Larry Dion's missed free throw. Hughes added a charity shot moments later, but Waterford's Cecil Dumbrigue calmly meshed two free tosses with 22 seconds left to force a 45-45 deadlock in regulation time.

Hughes potted a pair of foul shots in the 1st minute of the overtime, but Jim Devine's field goal tied the score again. Then Hughes furnished the clincher by dunking two more free throws.

The Skippers missed a chance to knot the count again when Dave Struble, fouled by Tom Willwerth in the final second of the overtime, failed on his 1st attempt of a one-and-one foul shot situation.

Dumbrigue and Devine sparkplugged the underdog Skippers with 11 points apiece. Ron Seets was right behind with 10. Hughes and John Walker each made 18 points for the Vikings.

Utica, Royal Oak Win Close Ones

Utica fought off a 4th quarter uprising to down stubborn Lake Shore, 64-61, in a Bi-County League basketball tussle last night at Lake Shore.

Trailing at halftime, 36-34, the Chieftains flurried for 20 points in the 3rd period to grab a 54-48 lead and the margin stood up under Lake Shore's late onslaught.

Ken Thompson meshed 18 points to pace Utica to its 6th league win in seven starts. The runner-up Chieftains trail Warren by half a game.

Royal Oak nosed out Wyandotte, 67-66, in a Border Cities League thriller on the Wyandotte court.

Wilson Hits 36 in Lapeer Win

It was another big scoring night for Tom Wilson as Lapeer handed area rival Romeo an 80-69 thrashing on the Bulldog court Friday.

The talented senior forward rung up 36 points to spark the victory and keep his scoring average above 30 a game. He now has 425 in 14 games, 11 of them Panther triumphs. Three others hit double numbers as the winners copped their 8th straight.

Don Fowler was the kingpin in the Romeo attack with 22 points followed by Jerry Dallwitz. The home club was without services of veteran starter John Fowler who reportedly has been suspended from school for disciplinary reasons.

Southfield climbed out of the Inter-Lakes basement with a 79-69 victory over Van Dyke last night. Tom Ridley netted 29 points for the Jays while Bill Rzeszut rang 27 for Van Dyke.

Berkley led all the way to down the Falcons. Farmington's Don MacDonald tallied 15 points and big Jim Zalenski paced the Bears with 13.

Orion Upsets Avon; Troy in O-B Lead

Lake Orion High's cagers threw a monkey wrench into the Oakland-B League machinery last night, with a mild upset victory over Avondale, 67-57, on the Jackets' own floor. The defeat for the Avon outfit knocked it out of a share of the league's leadership with Troy, which moved out front with a 64-49 shellacking of Clawson on the latter's hardwoods.

Avondale now is 8-3 in the league. Troy is 9-2. Orion has a 6-5 record, and will run smack into the loop leaders next Friday night at home. Dragons will get another chance to be a "spoiler" in this one and at the same time take some revenge for an early season beating at their guests' hands.

In a third Oakland-B contest, played last night at Roseville the host club dumped Fitzgerald 47-39, to mark its first victory in six games in its new gymnasium.

A 39-22 halftime count stood Dragons in good stead. Avondale roared back in the second half to outscore their rivals, but couldn't quite erase the early 17-point edge, with the 35-point rally. Orion got 28 to ice the win, paced by Ralph MacLachlan's 20 points and Nick Niera, with 16. Dick Gronski led Jackets with 16.

Don Killewald's 19, and Wayne Figley's 14 led Troy to its smashing win over Clawson in a game that demonstrated the advantage a taller aggregation possesses over a smaller foe. At halftime winners had only a two point edge, 28-26. But then height began to tell and Troy ran away with the game. George Almashy was the only Clawson player in double figures.

Chuck Walker and Duane Hussey with 16 points each, led Roseville

Harper Woods Wallops Hills, Clinches Title

Harper Woods last night claimed the Southeastern Suburban league basketball crown with a 61-39 walloping of Bloomfield Hills High at the latter's gymnasium.

Bloomfield outscored the Woods in the 3rd period, with a 12-10 count, but their opponents came back with a 23-14 finale. Hills now is 3-7 in league standings.

Bloomfield couldn't match the production line of Ron Scott (17), Frank Osojnicki (12) and Bill Maier (10), and after a 13-5 first period the visitors rolled along without effort. Closest the Hills came to the Woods score was within 10 points in the 2nd half.

Hills' Randy Barrett and Woods' Ron Scott shared scoring honors with 17 apiece. Frank Osojnicki of Harper Woods and Bob Elston of Hills each had 12.

Thumb Leaders Knotted

Almont and New Haven are all tied up in their struggle for Southern Thumb League supremacy following Friday night's hectic action.

Ben Burns' last-second field goal enabled Memphis to upset Almont, 54-53, while New Haven was lambasting Capac, 60-37. The results left the two schools deadlocked for 1st place with 9-1 records.

Dryden survived a 4th quarter scare to defeat Armada, 57-54, in yesterday's other Southern Thumb contest. Norman Soroka of Dryden and Armada's Terry Wills scored 19 points apiece. It was Dryden's 4th league win in nine games.

A 4th period collapse led to Almont's setback. The Raiders blew an 11-point advantage in that stanza. Burris, the hero of the evening, sparked Memphis with 19 points while Larry Kersten bagged 15 for Almont.

Dick Johnson collected 19 points and teammate Stan Gleason added 18 to pace New Haven's easy victory.

'M' Retains 1957 Georgia Grid Date

Athletic Board Ignores Protest of Legislators

Trio Would Cancel Tilt Because of Opponent's Ban Against Negroes

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — The University of Michigan will play its scheduled football game with the University of Georgia this fall despite the protests of three state legislators.

The school's board in control of intercollegiate athletics yesterday turned down the lawmakers' request to cancel the Oct. 5 game at Ann Arbor.

The three had asked the board to cancel the game because of Georgia's policy of barring Negroes on its athletic teams and banning interracial athletic meetings within the state. A bill is pending in the Georgia legislature to prohibit interracial competition by Georgia schools at home and away.

Michigan's athletic teams usually include Negroes. The Wolverines expect to have at least two Negro players, halfback Jim Pace and tackle Willie Smith, on their 1957 football squad.

State Senators Basil W. Brown and John B. Swainson and State Representative George Edwards, all Detroit Democrats, asked the cancellation. Brown and Edwards are Negroes. Swainson, Senate minority leader, is white.

Congressman Charles C. Diggs, a Negro Democrat from Michigan, said in a telegram to the board that he supported the state legislators' stand.

The board, made up of faculty members, alumni, students and athletic director Fritz Crisler, said it is convinced the game will help improve racial relations in the United States.

The board said it felt it would be "legally, morally and socially unjustifiable to cancel this game."

The board pointed out the contract with Georgia, made four years ago, calls for only one game — at Michigan's 100,000-seat stadium. It said Michigan frequently schedules opponents solely on a home basis rather than on a home and home deal.

Crisler said the game was in no way contrary to Michigan's general schedule policy.

"I talked at length with Coach Wally Butts of Georgia at the time and asked him if there was any objection about playing against Negro athletes," Crisler said. "He assured me there was not."

Brown and Swainson said earlier that if the university refused to cancel the contest, they would push for a resolution by the Michigan Legislature to "renounce the (scheduling) policy as repugnant and not be tolerated."

★ ★ ★

The only actual control the legislature has over either the University of Michigan or Michigan State University is in the size of the appropriations it makes for operations and building.

Georgia is the only Southern school on the Michigan schedule through 1959.

THERE'S JOY IN PHS WIGWAM — A capacity crowd jammed Pontiac High last night to roar approval as the Chiefs whipped Bay City Central, 59-43, to clinch the Saginaw Valley Conference championship for the first time since 1933. Pontiac's victory coupled with Saginaw's defeat assured the crown for the Chiefs.

New Pro Grid League Awaits Response

BALTIMORE (AP)—His bombshell neatly lighted, an ex-lacrosse star settled back today to wait for it to fizzle out or explode into a new professional football league.

Millard T. Lang, 44, said yesterday he had written mayors in 16 cities inviting them to a meeting Feb. 24 to organize the United States Football League, Inc.

The Westinghouse Electric Corp. official envisioned a league offering a brand of football more closely paralleling the college game than that in vogue in the National Football League.

And, while he said the league wouldn't attempt to "run headlong" into the NFL, Lang's plan includes teams in the territory of four National League teams.

The plan called for a northern division composed of New York, Baltimore, Buffalo, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Boston, Cincinnati, and Detroit and a southern division of Miami, New Orleans, Atlanta, Louisville, St. Louis, Kansas City, Houston and Dallas.

Bert Bell, NFL commissioner, said: "That's fine. Let them go ahead. There is no reason why they shouldn't form another league. We welcome competitive bidding for players. We have to bid against Canada now. Another one won't make any difference."

Lang, who played lacrosse at Johns Hopkins and now serves as president of the Baltimore Rockets in the American Soccer League, asked for response from the 16 mayors by next Wednesday.

He said he would favor a brand of football which would do away with "platooning."

"Our players would be two-way boys—play both offense and defense," he said. "And that's one of our strongest points, I think."

The old All-America Conference tried to buck the NFL shortly after the war. It cost both sides more than five million dollars, mostly in a war for player talent, before a merger in 1950 brought peace.

He said his league would have its own draft and the drafted athletes could play for whomever they wanted. "If we tried to compete with the NFL by bidding for the top talent, we'd be foolish," Lang said. "But there are a lot of good players who can't make any of the NFL teams, and we would use them."

One BC Boxer Left

Blower, a lightheavy novice, fights an opponent as yet unnamed, in tonight's bout at K. of C. Hall, in Dearborn. This is Blower's first match.

Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids Lead Golden Gloves Meet

As the field enters tonight's showdown at Civic Auditorium to determine 16 championships, including eight places for Chicago's Tournament of Champions later in the month, the young pugilists out of the two cities have recorded 20 wins against only four losses.

An estimated 4,200 spectators watched last night's 38-bout program. The youngsters, each carrying into the ring a hope of becoming another Joe Louis or a Rocky Marciano, violated all the so-called basic rules of the manly art of self-defense.

There were right-hand leads, wild swings from "left field" and wide open defenses. A few of the enthusiastic competitors completely forgot about the admonition to "protect yourself at all times."

But the fans loved nearly every minute of it. They were treated to 14 knockouts, eight of them coming in the first round. Only a couple of decisions brought protests.

The near-100 battlers, the cream of a crop of more than 600 who first had to become champions in their own areas before moving into the Furniture City for the All-Michigan finals, competed in two divisions: The novice, for those who have not won three bouts in any amateur competition or who have not reached the 20th birthday before Jan. 1, 1957, and the open classification.

Only the open champions will be eligible for the "big one" in Chicago beginning Feb. 25.

118 lb. — Eddie Saucedo, Jackson, outpointed Lawrence Stubbs, Bay City. Wes Ramey Jr., Grand Rapids, outpointed Eugene Riggs, Flint.

160 lb. — Thomas Clayton, Grand Rapids, stopped Avon Reddrick, Jackson, 1st round. Willard Wright, Flint, stopped Larry Tucker, Bay City, 2nd round.

Heavyweight — Dick Brentner, Grand Rapids, outpointed Gary Vogel, Jackson.

Final dual is with Hazel Park after the league meets Feb. 21 at Ferndale and Feb. 28 at Birmingham. EML standings: Birmingham 5-0, Mt. Clemens 4-2, Ferndale 2-4 and Hazel Park 0-6.

Royal Oak Table Net Team Downs Pontiac

The Royal Oak All Stars edged Pontiac 5-4 in an inter-city table tennis battle here last night.

It served as a warmup for the forthcoming state championships scheduled for Feb. 23-24. Pontiac's Carol Ryan, women's state champ, was presented a merit award during the program.

Perc Secord, Jim Reed and Dale Wheeler were local singles winners. Wheeler and Howard Heckman were the only successful Pontiac doubles combination.

Wolves Whip Gophers

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan kept in the battle for a bid to the NCAA playoffs last night by overwhelming Minnesota 8-1 in a Western Intercollegiate Hockey League game.

Soviets Oust Swede for 'Illegal' Actions

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union announced today the expulsion of a Swedish Embassy secretary on charges of "illegal activities incompatible with his diplomatic status."

The secretary, Bertil Hermansson, an expert on Slavic languages, left the country nearly a month ago. His ouster appeared to be in retaliation for a current spy case in Sweden. Swedish newspapers said three Soviet Embassy officials have been expelled from Sweden in connection with the case.

Sweden protested the expulsion. An embassy spokesman said the report of the case in Pravda, official newspaper of the Soviet Communist party," does not tell the whole story."

Moscow OKs Foreign Policy

Broadcast Says Russia Will Carry on Plans as Shepilov Outlined

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio said today the Soviet Union intends to follow the foreign policy outlined by Dmitri Shepilov four days before his removal as Soviet foreign minister.

The broadcast described Shepilov's report to the Supreme Soviet (Parliament) Tuesday as an "exhaustive and comprehensive statement of the tasks and aims of Soviet foreign policy."

It said "reactions in the Western press . . . confirm as convincingly as possible the correctness of comrade Shepilov's report."

Shepilov outlined a six-point Middle East proposal Tuesday that called for agreement on an economic development program, ending of arms shipments and junking of Western bases in the area.

Western diplomats viewed the proposals as Moscow's answer to President Eisenhower's plan for stabilizing the Middle East.

Your Neighbor's House

Schultz' Buy Lake Home

background for LIVING

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

When you hear the name Opdyke road, you think of fast traffic and commercial buildings. What most of us forget is that Galloway Lake is just west of the road, far enough so that homes can be built on the shore, way back from the road.

For just a little over two months Karl and Ruby Schultz have called the low redwood house at 1545 Opdyke road home. The house is only two years old and they are the second owners. For the Schultz', especially Mrs. Schultz, it is a dream come true. She has to pinch herself every so often to be sure that it's all real.

Five acres of land, fenced in with white fences; fully landscaped grounds; two huge bird baths with terrazzo tops; two, mind you, two outdoor fireplaces with marble tops —those are some of the features that still amaze her. Great fishermen, the Schultz' have their fish shanty out in front of their home. They're looking forward to swimming this summer.

What Mrs. Schultz is looking forward to even more is the coming of spring with its accompanying flowers. She can hardly wait to find out what is in all the flower beds. She knows one of the brick-edged beds is a rose garden and another a mum garden. She knows there is a strawberry bed and a young orchard. But what will come up elsewhere intrigues her.

The house, of course, is oriented toward the lake. The back door and one bedroom window look out on the road side. The 46x48 garage juts out to the left as you approach the house, cutting off even more noise and dirt and road view.

There is a comfortable, covered side porch where you enter. Three of the living room windows open on this porch. The exterior of the house, except for one wall on the south, is California redwood. There is a planter box against the yellow brick of that wall.

Inside the front door there's room to stop to remove your wraps and stow them in a convenient closet. Straight ahead is the dining room. To the left is the living room. A large mirror on the right hand wall reflects the front picture window, thus giving more light to the hall.

Living room, television room and the hallway to the bedrooms are carpeted in brown and beige tweed. There is a wide marble hearth in front of the fireplace. This is contemporary in design with a shallow marble mantel. The rest of the wall beyond the fireplace is made of the same yellow brick as the exterior wall. The fireplace wall matches in color; however, the bricks are Roman type.

Next to the fireplace and nestling in the curve made by the windows is a curved sectional sofa. The rose upholstery has a silver thread. Opposite is a white leather chair.

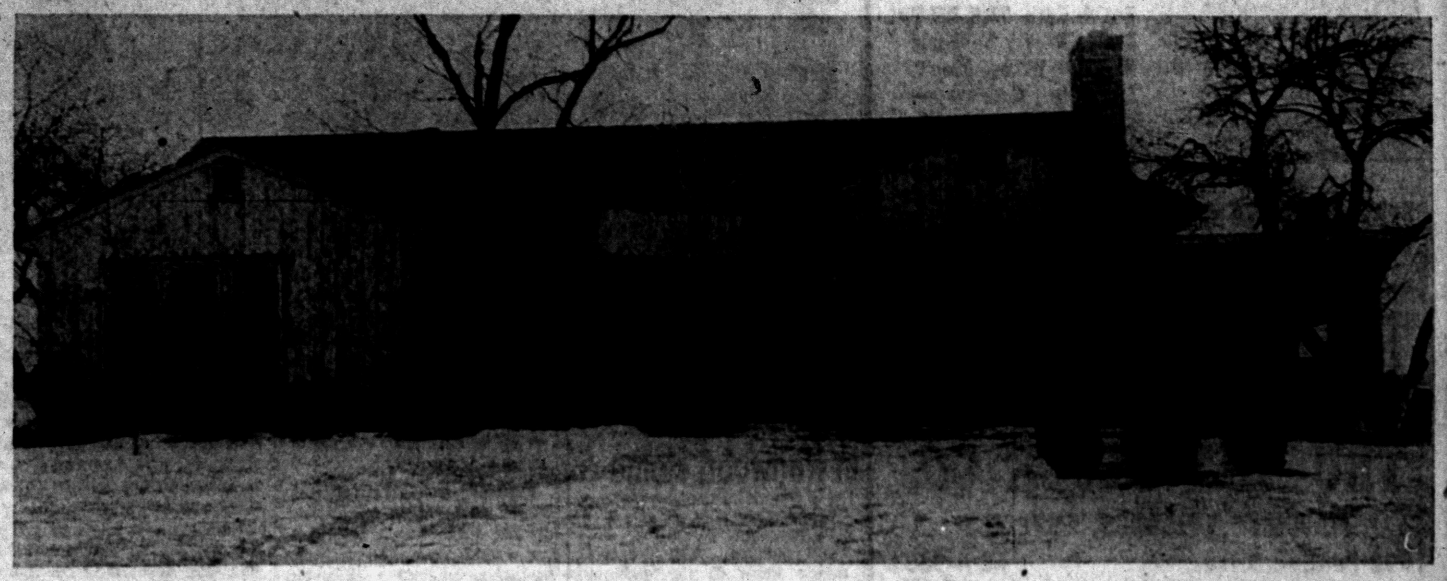

The walls are cocoa brown. Draperies which Mrs. Schultz made are glazed metallic sailcloth. The background is white; the design is gold, beige and aqua.

A grand piano and a gold colored armchair occupy the space near the wide front windows. Next to the door opening onto the patio is an elm window table that holds plants and books.

On either side of the door leading to the TV room there are translucent yellow plastic panels with ribbed surfaces. A third panel is part of the wall between the TV room and the dining room.

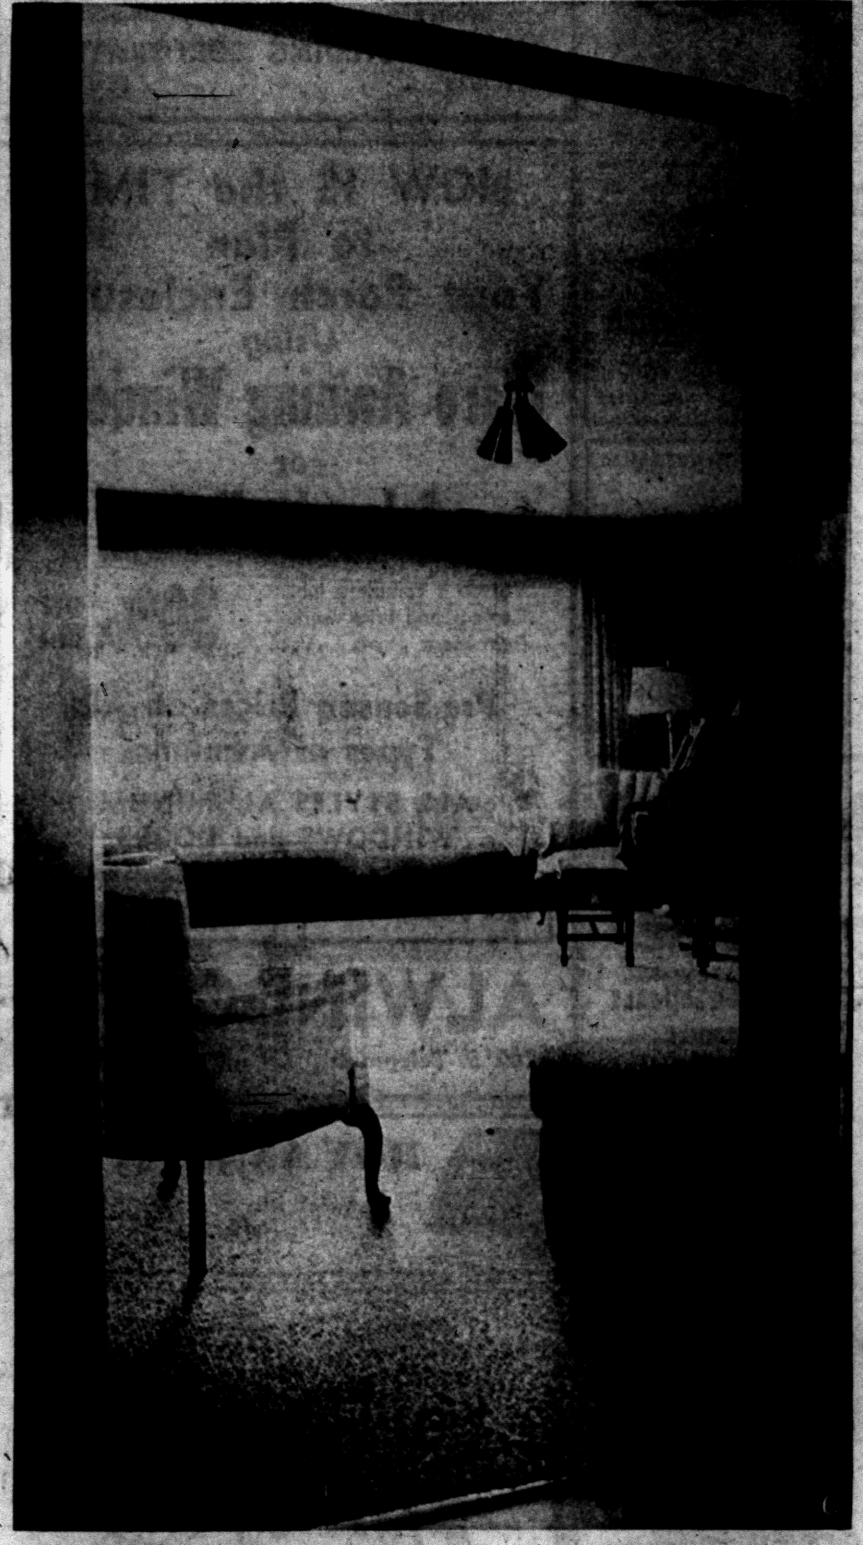

Walls in this cozy room are

GALLOWAY LAKE HOME — Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schultz have lived in this California redwood home for about two months. The address is Opdyke road, but the house fronts on Galloway Lake. The little sheltered patio in front is paneled in red cedar. At the left, bedroom windows can be seen; at the right those of the living room. The garage is in the rear, attached to the house. Among the trees on the property are apple and black walnut trees.

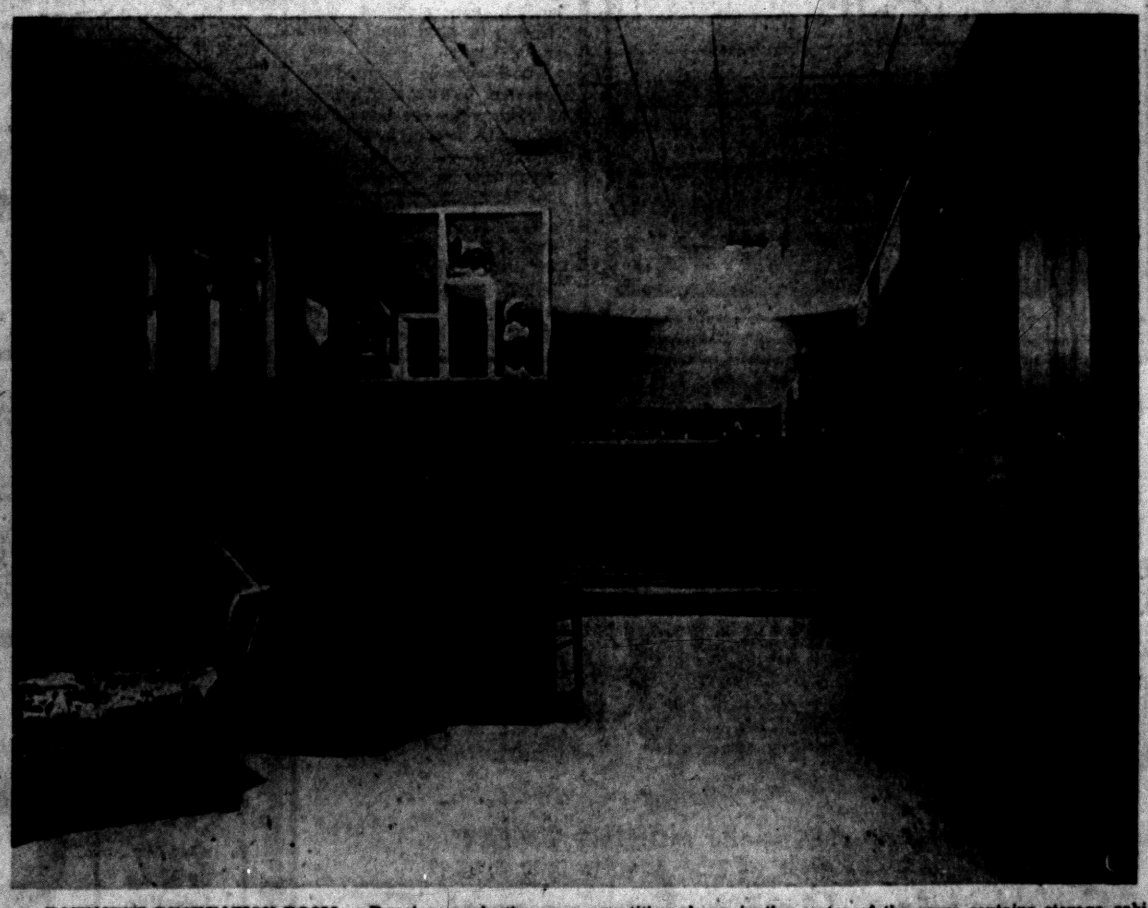

MIRROR SHOT—This view of the living room was taken through a large mirror that hangs in the front hall. This picture shows the grand piano and gold colored armchair over near the big windows. A bit of the sectional sofa is visible at the right. The chair at the left is white leather. Lighting comes from three brass spots in the ceiling and from lamps around the room.

WHERE THEY RELAX — Mrs. Karl Schultz stretches out in her easy chair, her dog beside her, and enjoys a good book. This TV room is the place where the couple relaxes. The hi-fi system is in this room, but music is piped throughout the house. Walls are paneled birch.

LAKEFRONT BEDROOM — The Schultz guest room is on the front of the house, overlooking the lake. With seven big windows and one door, this room gets ample light and sunshine. It is carpeted in the same brown and beige as the living room. The draperies are beige. Walls are leaf green. Furniture is maple.

BASEMENT RECREATION ROOM — Running nearly the entire width of the house, this basement recreation room has plywood walls and asphalt tile floors. The bar at the far end is made of the same yellow Roman brick as the fireplace upstairs. The partition shown in the center of the room contains storage cabinets for camera equipment. The projector sits on top. There are five other rooms in the basement besides this recreation room. One is a little den, paneled in knotty pine.

Sliding doors of double-paned insulating glass now make it possible to bring the outdoors inside, even in low cost homes.

CONTEMPORARY FIREPLACE—This contemporary fireplace in the Karl Schultz home is set into a wall of yellow Roman brick. Hearth and mantel are both white marble. The windows behind the sectional sofa open onto the side porch where the main entrance to the house is located. Walls are painted cocoa brown; the ceiling is white. Draperies are glazed metallic sailcloth and were made by Mrs. Schultz.

Spacious Rooms in Redwood Home

birch paneled. The draperies match those in the adjoining living room. Here the family which includes a black and white pointer relaxes with books and music and the television.

The front windows here look out on the patio. This is paneled in cedar. The roof is built umbrella style with spokes radiating from a center post at the foot of which is a planter box. Edges of the patio roof are scalloped like those of the side porch.

The unusual thing about the dining room is that it is an inside room with no windows. It is, nonetheless, a light room. Next to the kitchen door is a pass-through counter with open shelves above. The side door lets in light; light comes from the windows in the den. And the plastic panels, described earlier, contribute to the brightness of the room.

Walls are oyster white. A drop lamp of pierced brass hangs over the table which is a stainless steel one with a gray plastic top. The padded backs and chair seats are yellow. The floor is gray rubber tile.

In front of the plastic panel is a modern desk made of elm wood. The desk chair is upholstered in yellow with a gold thread in the material. On one wall there is a huge china closet with double sliding doors. It looks like any other closet when the doors are closed.

The kitchen is a large room. There is a wide back door at one end with small panes of glass in the upper portion. Beside it is a glass block window. The room is air conditioned.

Walls are yellow ceramic tile; counters are pearl gray. The cupboards are white, while the woodwork is birch, finished in a maple tone. Curtains are white with red, pink and gray flowers. All counter rims and handles are stainless steel. There is a good sized built-in cutting board.

Mrs. Schultz has a brand new stove that bears describing. In addition to the one burner that can convert to a deep well cooker when desired, this same burner can become a 25-cup percolator for large parties.

There are two ovens, one with a rotisserie attachment. But the gadget to end all gadgets is the musical meat thermometer. It is to be inserted in the roast. When the desired temperature is reached, the electricity switches off and a music box starts playing, "Tenderly."

Readers who live in tiny homes will gasp when they hear the size of the Schultz bathroom. It's a 9x12 room with two wash basins, a tub and a glassed-in shower. The ceramic tile, the floor, the painted walls and the fixtures are pale green. Coral rugs, towels and curtains are a lovely contrast.

The pink bedroom at the back of the house is the one the Schultz' use. The bedspread is pink with a white candlewick design. Rugs are dazzling white cotton shags. The furniture is limed oak. Mrs. Schultz embroidered the two flower pictures that hang above the bed.

The middle room is yellow with green draperies and white painted furniture. Here Mrs. Schultz keeps toys for small visitors. Rugs are white; the spread yellow.

The front bedroom is the guest room. Your editor would use it for the master bedroom if she lived in the Schultz house. It has a view of the lake and is a wonderfully sunny room with seven windows.

The floor is carpeted like the front rooms. Furniture is maple with an heirloom type spread on the bed. Draperies are creamy beige. Walls are leaf green. A low book case in front of the lakeside windows holds feathery green plants.

Like all the bedrooms, this one has a large double door closet. All the closets have shelves built in at one end; some of them have built-in shoe racks.

The basement is a remarkable part of the house. It contains a large recreation room with a bar, a laundry room, a complete dark room, a little den, a utility room, a lavatory and two storage rooms.

There is blue and white ceramic tile three-quarters of the way up the walls of the laundry room. The little den is paneled in knotty pine. For the shutter bug the dark room is complete, even to two sets of double sinks.

The floors are asphalt tile. Walls in the recreation room are plywood. Dividing the large recreation room is a half wall. This is used to store camera equipment and the top is just the place to set the projector.

The bar is yellow Roman brick with a marble foot "rail." Behind it is a double sink surrounded with ceramic tile. Counter tops are marble. A long mirror is hung behind it.

Enthusiasm is contagious. The Schultz' are so happy and enthusiastic about their new home that visitors cannot help but catch the feeling.

WOOD IS BEAUTIFUL — The interior of the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church is built of wood, in contrast to the cinder block exterior. The cedar decking roof is supported by laminated wood arches, finished in a wheat tone. The wood of and around the chancel is fir paneling. The cross on the window is red cedar. Pews are blondie oak and flush doors are birch. The choir loft is paneled in birch. The floor is buff colored asphalt tile. Petku Construction Company of Birmingham did the work; William Zimmerman Associates of Pontiac did the architectural work.

Good Finish Cleaner

One of the functions of a good furniture finish is to provide sanitation and cleanliness. Unfinished wood collects and holds dirt. Because of its porous nature, dirt, grease and bacteria become embedded in the wood and are difficult to dislodge. A well finished wood surface is beautiful and easy to clean.

Fan Keeps Shop Dry, Worker Comfortable

Many do-it-yourself projects come to a temporary halt during the winter months. In some cases, it is because home workshops are located in attics or in unheated garages.

Many men, however, refuse to let the weather limit their hobby. They have installed portable electric heaters that provide comfortable working conditions no matter what the temperature is outside.

A small fan-type heater placed on the floor or workbench quickly and efficiently warms the shop while a person spends an hour or so there relaxing after work.

Also, turning the heater on for a short time each day keeps the shop dry so there is less chance tools will rust during humid weather.

Magnetized Pegs Handy

Magnetized towel pegs are handy to have around the kitchen. To have a towel just where you want it, stick a towel peg to the surface of a stove, refrigerator, sink or cabinet. You can also use the pegs in the bathroom.

Non-Skid Paint Used to Prevent Accidents

Non-skid paint is often used in industrial plants to prevent accidents caused by slipping. This paint differs from ordinary architectural paints in that it contains an abrasive—pumice stone, for example.

★ ★ ★

Comparatively small quantities are mixed at a time and the paint is kept under constant agitation to keep the abrasive particles in suspension. When the paint is sprayed, a special nozzle is used to avoid excessive wear by the abrasive.

Storage Space a 'Must' Today

With today's trend toward eliminating basements and attics in new homes, housewives are placing greater emphasis on designed storage space for household articles, according to a study made by the Tile Council of America, Inc.

Nearly all houses have the usual clothes closets, linen closets and cabinets for kitchen supplies. However, there is a recognized need for other storage space in the house if it is to be kept neat, presentable and efficient.

Among items requiring storage are coats, books, magazines, card tables, folding chairs, musical instruments, record player, records, desk supplies, clothing, bedding, bathroom supplies, sports and hobby equipment, luggage, toys.

An important consideration in designing storage space is the use of a durable, waterproof, easily cleaned surfacing material such as ceramic tile on walls and floors. With that kind of surfacing, the homemaker guards against musty odors, dirt and lint.

Emphasis regarding efficient design of storage space also is placed on (1) maximum accessibility of all items stored, (2) efficient use of space for storage, (3) economy in construction of storage units and (4) flexibility in the use of storage units.

★ ★ ★

For best efficiency and economy storage units ideally should be planned to allow for changing usage and for varying occupancies of different age, interest and income groups. Families should be able to adjust existing storage space to meet their own needs.

Home's Practical Design Typified by Sliding Doors

All of us like a house that's nice to look at — but we also want a house that invites easy living.

Design HW-39 is that kind of a house, Architect Rudolph A. Matern has incorporated into it features which contribute to congeniality and warmth, including the increasingly popular family room, with direct access to a spacious, covered porch.

This is a three bedroom house in the one-story ranch style, covering an area of 1,803 square feet exclusive of the attached garage and two rear porches. Designed with a full basement, it nevertheless can be built with a partial basement, over a crawl space or on a concrete floor slab.

The tone of easy living is set immediately by the long, low and interesting front exterior, including a flower pool centered within a fence-enclosed area. The atmosphere is accented by the flagstone walk and covered center-hall entrance — and further enhanced by the large foyer and massive guest clothes closet with sliding doors.

SUNKEN ROOM

To the left is a sunken living room with a log-burning fireplace; to the right a hallway with separate entrances to the family room, three bedrooms and an over-size bath room that includes a dressing table and a floor cabinet.

The family room — which can be used for TV and Hi-Fi, study, recreation, snacks, etc. — is designed for delightful informality. It has sliding wooden doors on one side, as well as sliding glass doors which lead out to a rear porch, affording an excellent garden view and permitting easy supervision of children at play.

While primarily intended for the comfort of the family, this room also can be used for light entertainment sessions when it is desired to reserve the living room for more formal occasions.

SLIDING DOORS

There is an entire wall of sliding door closets in the large master bedroom, which has a private bathroom. The two other bedrooms, compactly located in the same wing of the house are within a few steps of the hall bathroom previously mentioned.

Efficiency is the keynote of a kitchen that will please the ladies. It calls for the latest in modern appliances, is combined with a breakfast nook and has a clean-up area and closet at a service door. The lavatory is placed so that it can be entered from the inside of the house, yet reached from the outside without going through any of the rooms.

In the dining room, to the left of the kitchen, sliding glass doors are again utilized in a practical manner. These doors lead to a screened porch, set neatly behind the garage to make full and economical use of space that might otherwise be wasted. In effect, this adds an extra room to the house without increasing its depth.

ALL CARS FIT

The garage, long enough and wide enough to accommodate any type of car, has three storage closets, equipped with the same kind of sliding doors that are featured on the multitude of closets throughout Design HW-39.

A second look at the front exterior shows high, modern windows on the bedrooms and a pleasing bow window on the sunken living room. A glass floor-to-roof section just to the right of the entrance adds a decorative touch, but is primarily functional, serving to give natural light to the front foyer.

This is truly a house for easier living.

Two Porches in Rear Fit in Compact Space

The house called for in Design HW-39 covers an area of 1,803 square feet. The two rear porches and the garage cover an additional 472 square feet, but are fitted into the plan so well that they add not a single inch to the depth of the house, which at no point is more than 38 feet, 11 inches. From side to side, including the attached garage, Design HW-39 takes in 70 feet, 4 inches, which would enable it to fit comfortably on a plot with a 100-foot frontage.

Consider 2 Points If There's No Basement

There is sufficient space between the front foyer and kitchen of Design HW-39 to permit installation of heating equipment for those who might want to have it built without a basement.

Another flexible area is the family room, properly located so that it can be used, either immediately or at some later time, as a fourth bedroom.

Today's Paints Superior

The great popularity of paint for interior home decoration stems from the research and skill of manufacturers. Today's products are easy to apply, long lasting, simple to clean, practically odorless, dry within a few hours. And they are available in such tempting shades that selecting the color may take almost as long as doing the job.

News for Fuse Blowers

Deep freeze owners who have been plagued by blown fuses and food spoilage can now obtain a plug type circuit breaker called Mini Breaker, which restores electric service by simply pushing a button.

HIS HI FI ROOM — Theodore Carlson of South Marshall street is a Hi Fi enthusiast and has built a room in his basement to hold all his equipment. Mrs. Carlson says he's been working on the room off and on for years. The paneling is knotty pine, the floor asphalt tile. Mr. Carlson sent along a complete description of the equipment shown in this picture. He can play the three speed records and tape them, as well as TV, through the speakers. The FM radio can be played and taped and pre-recorded tapes can be played. The main enclosure has a four-way speaker system and employs the indirect radiator folded corner horn. That's but a sample of what can be done in this "new" room in the Carlson home.

New Home Size Up 27 Pct. in Six Years

New houses average 267 feet larger than six years ago, according to the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

In 1950 the typical new house had 983 square feet of floor space. Today, the average has jumped to 1,250 square feet.

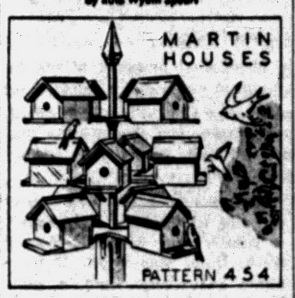

Additional bedrooms and bathrooms account for much of the extra footage, H&HFA figures show. In 1950, for example, only one new house in three had more than two bedrooms. Three of every four now have at least three bedrooms.

Bathrooms have shown the same increase, reports the Plumbing Fixtures Manufacturers Association. In 1950 new houses averaged slightly more than one bathroom. Today they have at least 1.5 bathrooms and many areas average as high as 2.1 bathrooms per home.

Aid to Decorators

New developments in wood finishing play a big hand in creating desirable interior decorating schemes. These new furniture finishes have resulted from intensive studies and surveys in color harmony. They combine the best in casual and neutral tones, blending qualities, and depth. This allows great freedom in mixing unrelated pieces effectively to achieve a coordinated atmosphere.

POLYVINYL ACETATE PAINTS — Polyvinyl acetate paints have shown marked superiority in durability, covering and resistance to alkali when applied to masonry surfaces. They are noted for their rapid drying. Finish coats may be applied on the same day as prime coats, and may be washed within a matter of hours.

Brush Off Paint Worries With a Coat of Polyvinyl

Do-it-yourselfers who do most of the painting work around their own homes have attained a skill approaching that of professionals. Where they frequently fall short is in their knowledge of paints, particularly the newer ones, and consequently in their ability to select the right type of paint for a given job.

Paint can be applied to "hot" or uncured plaster — but only if you select the right type. It can be used on a brick house or an cement surfaces — provided it is formulated to resist attack by alkali. If you want a surface on an interior wall to have the softest appearance, you should know that not all flat paints are equally gloss free.

Until the advent of new types of paint within the past decade, a painter had little to choose from. Paint was paint. It was made essentially from a pigment or coloring substance, and a vehicle or oil or alkyd, which is the film-forming ingredient. Turpentine or mineral spirits were used to thin the paint and to clean brushes.

The paint-it-yourself revolution began less than a decade ago. A new type of paint, technically called emulsion paints, and commonly known as latex or rubber base paints, were sold in substantial volume for the first time in 1948. From sales of 2,000,000 gallons in that year, sales have skyrocketed to an estimated 50,000,000 gallons for 1956.

DILUTE WITH WATER

The reasons for the quick public acceptance of these paints, which can be diluted with water, lay in their ease of application and clean up. But differences exist among these paints, depending on their formulation.

The first latex paints were made from a rubbery resin made from the petrochemicals butadiene and styrene. In the 1952-53 period, two new types were introduced, those made from a base of polyvinyl acetate, known for years as a light stable plastic with excellent adhesive properties and those made from acylic resin commonly identified with transparent plastics.

Both of the newer types have certain advantages, but the acrylics generally cost from 50 cents to a dollar more per gallon in hardware stores than the other two.

NEW EMULSIONS

Early in 1955, a corporation placed several new polyvinyl acetate or PVA emulsions on the market which gave paints formulated therefrom a definite edge in brushing, color and sheen uniformity, washability and other properties.

While homeowners will have difficulty in distiguishing among latex paints in the can, they differ markedly in certain respects. Only those homeowners who have some knowledge of the properties of the three types of latex paints will get the best results.

Initially, PVA paints were widely used in this country in 1952 on the masonry houses of California. Their resistance to alkali, ease of brushing and good color and durability made them instantaneous hits, and paint manufacturers generally recommend PVA paints without reservation for cinder block and concrete, brick, stucco, asbestos shingle.

In addition to resisting alkali, PVA paints transmit water vapor, so that the common problem of blistering and scaling is virtually eliminated. The principal cause of blistering is the large amount of water vapor created by clothes washing and drying, bathing, etc., that takes place in most modern-day homes, as well as water which gets into exterior siding from the outside. When the vapor seeks to escape, it will cause conventional paints to plister unless the house is vented.

Match Walls, Woodwork

It is still good decorating practice to paint walls and woodwork all one color. Furthermore, using the same color on walls and woodwork of a small room makes the room look larger. It's advisable also in rooms where the woodwork is not well placed. By making the woodwork blend with the surrounding wall, its deficiencies are less noticeable.

Flooring Kiln-Dried

Oak flooring, used in the vast majority of homes nowadays, is air-dried and scientifically kiln-dried in manufacture so as to retain maximum dimensional stability after installation.

I guess it's no secret that most male entertainers past the draft age use a little coloring to keep their hair from showing their age. Still, gray hairs are only one indicator of the march of time . . . as most of us realize after trying to run up a flight of stairs.

But now a couple of university biologists claim that soon you may be able to stay young even at 80. It has to do with the development of the pituitary, which controls growth and much other activity. The gland's about as big as a dime . . . but it can make you feel like a million bucks.

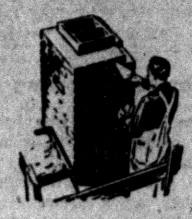

The professors have proved they can work wonders on rats whose age is equivalent to 80 human years, so they feel sure people can get the same results. That's encouraging . . . but not very complimentary.

Every day we hear something about America's youth problem, but seldom do we hear the good things. As you probably know this last week was designated as "National Boy Scout Week," and we wish to salute the men and women of our country and especially those in our own Clinton Valley Council who are dedicated to produce these "Men of Character Trained for Participating Citizenship."

An Iowa woman lost her job in a restaurant when she took two days off to have a permanent wave. Well, hair today . . . gone tomorrow. That real estate problem that faces you today can be "gone tomorrow," if you'll simply turn it over to the man-in-the-know. Whether you're buying or selling property, residential or business . . . # Nothing Stymies Julia Except Ted Williams

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Julia Meade fearlessly spiels TV commercials to 80,000,000 people a week, earning $150,000 a year with her glibness—but one guy leaves her tongue-tied.

That's baseball star Ted Williams.

"I always thought he was the coolest and wanted to meet him," Julia told me. "I knew a girl who knew him and we had a plot for about two years. She would get him to call me. Lo and behold, one day I did get a ring when I was out—I should call Ted Williams.

"I did, and fortunately he wasn't in!"

WORSHAM & JULIA

"I also gave him permission to have dinner with Garbo if she ever asks him," Julia explained to me. "Well, one night he was going to be on 'What's My Line?' and it was arranged with some friends who were going to dinner with him that I should go along.

"But I couldn't do it. It seemed too fraudulent and I kept wondering, 'What if he thinks I'm dull?' He did send me his autograph, though."

"So the big romance between you and Ted Williams is over?" I asked.

"I guess so," signed Julia.

Evidently Julia, who's blond, beautiful, shapely, and a Yankee fan fears nobody else—not even Sundays on the Ed Sullivan show or her trips to what she calls "Mecca," by which she means Detroit, where her sponsors' cars are made.

"I've had no tragedies so far. Once recently my dress got caught in a car door on the air. I just stopped a second and took my dress out. Nobody mentioned it."

★ ★ ★

She thanks her husband, Worsham Rudd, a commercial artist, and her mother, Caroline Meade, a former actress now teaching at Oklahoma Baptist University for all the help they've given her in perfecting her diction and her memory of scripts.

"Fluffs aren't too serious," Julia said. "Everybody likes them but the sponsors."

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Art Carney and Nannette Fabray probably won't team as rumored: she likes to work in L. A., he prefers N. Y. . . . Paul Newman tiffed with Ann Blyth on the "Helen Morgan" set.

Joe Louis' pals are sure he'll show up for Sarah Vaughan's concert at Carnegie Hall . . . Adm. Redford, retiring soon as head of the Joint Chiefs, was offered several college presidencies . . . Ben Gazzara, of "The Strange One," says there are just two women in his life—his mother and Elaine Stritch.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Madison Avenue," says Jonathan Winters, "is where they took the padding out of the shoulders and put it on the expense account."

Jack Palance's newest film, about prison, required so many retakes in San Quentin that a prisoner heckled Palance, "I'll be out of here before you are!" That's earl, brother.

U. S. Housewives Rapped by Monique Van Vooren

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Do American housewives have life too easy?

Monique Van Vooren thinks so. Monique is a blonde Belgian chantootsie who has appeared in New York shows and clubs and in movies here and in Italy. She's well put together (40-22-36), sings nicely and can talk.

Such as: "Life is fantastically easy for wives in this country. They lead push-button lives. Their work is made easy by an infinite variety of gadgets, and they even have push-button husbands.

"In Europe, women devote their lives to their husbands. Here, it is the men who devote their lives to their wives. That is wonderful for the women; but it is going against nature.

"Woman was not meant to be the dominating force in a marriage. The man is supposed to be the master. I think that's why so many women are unhappy in this country: they are upset by the improper balance in their lives."

Monique, who is warbling at Mocambo these nights, said she felt American women are too susceptible to advertising urging them to acquire material things.

"They should concentrate less on buying new machines and more on keeping their husbands happy," she remarked. "European women don't care about the labor-saving devices. They are accustomed to working long hours in the home, and they enjoy it. They feel they are helping their husbands and their family."

Urges Direct Talks for Mideast Peace

Commenting on the current unrest in the Middle East, Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein of Temple Beth Jacob today envisioned direct negotiations between Israel and the Arab nations as the best possible solution to trouble there.

★ ★ ★

"Face-to-face negotiations between Israel and the Arab countries could transform the shaky armistice into a genuine peace," Rabbi Saperstein said.

"This is the great opportunity for the United States to employ the tremendous prestige and power it has gained in the Middle East for the ends of peace. We expect to cajole the Arab leaders such as Ibn Saud through large sums of money and offers of military aid and equipment, to accept our guidance and our recommendations.

"Let the United States employ its prestige, influence and moral persuasion not merely for oil and bases—but simultaneously for the attainment of a lasting peace in the Mideast," he said.

★ ★ ★

Rabbi Saperstein defended Israel's earlier armed actions as self protection against Russian-inspired aggression on the part of Egypt and other Arab countries.

He also spoke out against the sanctions against Israel being debated in the United Nations.

Retail prices of many standard meat cuts are well below average prices for 1947-49, the American Meat Institute reported today in connection with current discussions of inflationary trends. A statement said:

"Meat prices at independent and chain stores are sharply lower th during the period used by the government for basing the cost-of-living indices.

Figures collected by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in connection with parity price ratio studies show the following list of typical products and their average prices per pound as of Dec. 15, 19 (latest available figures) and the average for 1947-49:

| Item | Avg. 1947-49 | Dec. 1956 | Percentage Change |
|---|---|---|---|
| Hamburger | 48.5 | 40.8 | -16 |
| Bacon, sliced | 68.1 | 53.3 | -22 |
| Salt pork | 41.5 | 36.0 | -13 |
| Pat backs | 27.8 | 23.8 | -14 |

| Pork chops | 68.6 | 66.7 | - 3 |
| Pork sausage | 50.7 | 45.3 | -11 |
| Lard | 27.3 | 21.7 | -21 |

"Since these figures were compiled there have been further sha drops in prices of various cuts, as advertised and offered by retail stores.

"The years 1947-49, shown above, now are used by government agencies as the base period from which to figure changes in the cost-of-living index."

LOS ALAMOS, N. M. (AP) — Beginning noon Monday it's going to be easier to get in and out of this birthplace of the atomic bomb.

The Atomic Energy Commission s declaring Los Alamos an open city at that time. It's been a closed community since January 1943, when it was picked for development of the A-bomb.

The decision doesn't mean any relaxing of security at the Los Alamos scientific laboratory itself. It applies only to restrictions on movement in and out of the city.

Horsepower Limit Could Become Law

TORONTO (AP)—Automobile manufacturers should be warned that unless they revise their method of promoting the sale of cars, horsepower might be limited by law, G. E. Jackson (PC-London South) said today in the Ontario Legislature.

He said on one hand the Ontario attorney - general's department urged caution and safe driving while automobile advertising sounded praises of increased horsepower and higher speed.

This, said Jackson, is not the psychological way to make motorists safety conscious.

"I would say to the automobile industry that if it continues it is not beyond the realm of possibility that legislation might be passed to limit the horsepower allowed in vehicles. Surely there are other ways of selling automobiles," the legislator said.

Picture to Be Shown

Troy Youths to Appear for Examination After Birmingham Hassle

Examination of four Troy youths charged with aggravated assault in the beating of Herbert Kannell, 16, of 1172 E. Ruffner, Birmingham, has been set for Feb. 26.

The defendants were placed on $1,000 bond Friday after arraignment by Justice of the Peace Elmer C. Dieterle, of West Bloomfield Township.

Under arrest are Mack D. Hartman, 21, of 77 Chopin St., Clifford Sortor, 18, and his brother Arthur, 23, both of 1233 W. Wattles St., and Robert Fosmoen, 17, of 3984 Crooks.

Police are also holding a fifth, a juvenile.

He told Birmingham police that he and his mother were driving some friends home Tuesday night and stopped at a restaurant to see if they could find a pair of gloves which on of the friends thought he had left there.

They saw several girls across Woodward and went over to talk to them.

The defendants told Birmingham police they were driving by when they also saw the girls and thought they knew them.

The Troy youths stopped and one of them recognized Kannell and went up to him to inquire if he knew who had stolen a watch that the Troy youth was missing, the police said.

When Kannell's answers did not satisfy the Troy group, the alleged fight ensued, Birmingham police said.

Bank Ends Business by Light of Candles

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A branch of the Bank of America finished the day's business and closed yesterday by candlelight, with policemen on guard at each door.

Power failure in the business area put the bank and other buildings in darkness for about two hours. The bank manager dug up the candles after calling for police protection in the gloom.

Nine persons were trapped in two elevators for 90 minutes in a nearby office building, until mechanics freed them. The house lights and the projector failed in a movie and the manager gave 150 patrons readmission slips.

Oslo, Norway, may be the smallest city to have a subway.

Navy Plane Crash Blamed on Gauges

DETROIT (AP)—Faulty altimeters were blamed by the navy yesterday for the Jan. 22 crash of a naval airplane near Willow Run Airport.

One man was killed but six survived when the ship crashed in a snowstorm on an instrument landing approach.

Lt. Cmdr. Hoyt Duff, aviation safety officer at the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station, said ice apparently formed on the air intake vents of the altitude indicators, causing them to give incorrect readings.

Duff, who headed the board investigating the crash, said one of the plane's three altimeters was recovered and indications showed it had been properly set before the craft took off from Albuquerque, N. M. to return the body of a Michigan airman killed in another crash.

Beware the 'Tax Experts' - Penalty for Fraud Is High!

WASHINGTON (AP) — Revenue Commissioner Russell C. Harrington says taxpayers should beware of the "so-called tax expert" who claims he can save money in making out other people's tax returns.

"Any person who advertises himself as a tax expert who can save money for people on taxes is not legitimate," Harrington told a House Appropriations subcommittee in Jan. 2 closed - door testimony made public today.

"He is violating all the canons or ethics of the profession. He is violating the regulations of the Treasury Department on representations. We have had a lot of trouble with those fellows."

Harrington made clear he was not referring to "the reputable tax consultants in the country," the legal and accounting professions and persons like bank clerks and schoolteachers who help others make out income tax returns as a favor or for a small fee.

"That is perfectly legitimate and should not be confused with these shysters who do all of this advertising and all this crooked stuff," Harrington said.

One such "refund artist," Harrington said, claimed false deductions for his clients amounting to more than $400,000. He said the man was put in jail and $175,000 collected from the clients, the "innocent parties."

"That is one of the saddest things that happens to me in my present job," the revenue chief said.

"Some poor fellow comes in, who does not know anything about it, and now he faces a fraud penalty, because he hired some expert, for $10 to prepare his return. Now he finds it is fraudulent and we are after him for fraud, and he does not know a thing about it."

★ ★ ★

From all sources, Harrington said, checks of income tax returns in 1956 led to added tax and penalty recommendations totaling $1,271,000,000, up 11 per cent from the year before.

Audits of claimed refunds before they are paid, Harrington said, produced 74 millions, or double the previous year's amount.

A pictorial lecture on Palestine will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday under the auspices of the Leah Emes Group. The program will close with refreshments and a social hour.

In preparation for Easter Season, two Communicant classes will begin Sunday under the leadership of Dr. William H. Marbach and the Rev. Galen E. Hershey. The Junior High group will meet at 4:30 p.m. and the Senior Highs at 5:30 p.m. Audio-visual material will be used for study.

More 10-Cent Papers With Mounting Costs

WORCESTER, Mass. — Richard C. Steele, general manager of the Telegram and Gazette, told the annual convention of New England Association of Circulation Managers "the day is not far distant when the 10-cent daily newspaper will be common." He attributes his forecast to steadily mounting costs of publication.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Walter A. Sieber, who passed away Feb. 16th, 1956.
You bid us not farewell,
You said goodbye to none.
Your loving heart had ceased to beat
Before we knew you were gone.
God saw that you were suffering
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyes and
"Peace be thine."
Sadly missed by his wife and children.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Walter A. Seiber who passed away Feb. 16th, 1956.
It is lonesome here without you Gramps,
And sad and weary the way,
Life has not been the same
Since you were called away.
Sadly missed by his grandchildren.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR Husband & father, Mr. Richard Geddes who passed away 1 yr. ago Feb. 17.
There is a home, Not made by hand
Beyond its golden door,
Awaits the one whose now away
Not lost: Just gone before.
And in that home not made by hand
The Master will prepare,
A place for us and when he calls,
Will meet our loved one there.
Sadly missed by wife, children & family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF WIFE & mother, C. Gertrude Jones, who passed away 1 yr. ago Feb. 16.
Though her smile has gone forever,
And her voice we cannot hear,
We shall never lose sweet memories
Of the one we love so dear.
Husband, children & grandchildren.

Brownell Faces More Questions

South's Delaying Tactics Aimed at Preventing Civil Rights Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell faced a third straight session of questioning today on the Eisenhower administration's civil rights program.

In advance of an unusual Saturday session, Brownell informed the Senate Judiciary subcommittee he was willing to appear on Saturdays, Sunday or at night in the interest of speeding action on the proposals.

The longer Southern opponents can keep the legislation from being brought up in the Senate, the better they regard their chances of filibustering it to death.

Sen. Ervin (D-NC), carrying the ball on the subcommittee for the Dixie forces, said he was unable to estimate just how much longer his questioning of Brownell would take. Ervin has been interrogating Brownell for parts of the past two days.

Plan Annual Meeting of Waterford Group

The annual membership meeting of the Community Activities Inc., in Waterford Township, will be held Tuesday night at 8:15 in the building on Williams Lake Rd.

Five new board members will be named in the election of officers for 1957, according to Mrs. Jack Hall, secretary.

Cards have been sent out to the 225 members and annual reports from various departments of the CAI will be presented.

Preceding the membership meeting, there will be a regular CAI board meeting beginning at 7 p.m.

Auxiliary Sets Meeting

The Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary will gather at a dinner meeting at 7 p.m. Monday at the Rotunda Inn.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Betty Rockall, state vice president of the Waterford Township region. She will acquaint the group with the benefits of being affiliated with the state auxiliary.

Who Took Our TV?

Salesman Lew Borer, of Hampton Electric Company, 825 W. Huron St., informed Pontiac Police an unopened carton containing a 17-inch television set with a light brown leatherette cover, valued at $158, was taken from a sidewalk display in front of the store between 6:45 p. m. and 9 p. m. Saturday.

From "News in Brief" Feb. 11

This fellow evidently thought our down payments might be too high, but he would have found out they were only 10% of a trade-in, if he had asked.

We have always been known to give generous deals, in fact, the owner is often called "Generous Jim", but we are not that generous!

He probably came here because he had heard that we have a very large stock of TV's, such as RCA Victor, General Electric, Philco, Admiral, Emerson, Sylvania, Spartan, etc. He was right!

What he didn't know, however, was that the Spartan Portable TV, he took was the first portable Spartan to arrive in this section! He didn't even give us time to see it ourselves. If he isn't careful Sgt. Friday will jump out and turn him in, because no one else has one like it!

It looks like the Spartan ad on this page, a pretty two-tone color, but with a handle. The serial number is 12141505. It sells for only $159.95.

If you know of someone who "bought" a Spartan Portable in the last week, let us know. We will give you one of the new small transistor radios for information leading to its recovery.

Meanwhile, we are still open for selling TV as usual, but our deals are legitimate "steals". Come in and look them over.
